Kerrigan asked to make his own platform

Peter F. Kerrigan, Progressive Conservative candidate in St. Antoine-Westmount in the last Federal election is still undecided as to whether he will seek re-nomination. Party officials, however, are confident that he will accept the position when it is offered to him. One member of the local executive said that it is quite possible that, if nominated, Mr. Kerrigan will make his own platform — not dictated to by the Conservative Party.

A nominating meeting will be held on February 26 at 8:30 p.m. in Victoria Hall, Egan Chambers, new President of the National Progressive Conservative Party will be guest speaker. Officers for 1963 will be elected. The treasurer's report and the Young Progressive Conservative Association's report will be presented.

Party officials said that St. Antoine - Westmount was "one of the few ridings in Montreal where we believe we have a really good chance. We hope that Mr. Kerrigan or whoever is nominated will construct their own policies."

YMCA Annual Meeting

Campaign is only $90 short of objective

Due to the full co-operation of 88 canvassers and the leadership of R. C. B. Love the Westmount YMCA is only $90.00 away from its total financial objective of $10,500, it was reported to the 51st annual meeting last Thursday. "This is the largest amount ever raised in this area and we are confident that the final objective will be reached," D. Y. Novinger, Chairman of the Board of Management reported. Two armed men broke into the Westmount Moving and Warehousing building at 350 Victoria avenue, Tuesday night, brutally beating the night watchman. He was taken to Queen Elizabeth Hospital with a scalp injury and bruises and is reported in good condition.

Police said that two men entered the warehouse at 9:40 Tuesday night, tied up John Legget, 59 of 1806 Dorchester and took him to the basement where he was pistol-whipped. A phone call from an unidentified woman who noticed the men going around the side of the building apparently "supporting" the watchman brought a police car to the scene. They found Legget in the basement, but the would-be thieves had fled. Nothing was reported missing from the warehouse.

Police reported that the intruders were trying to steal a $50,000 cargo of cigarettes stored in one of the trucks.

As both men were masked neither Legget nor the women who reported the crime were able to give satisfactory descriptions.

Police would not comment on the possibility that the two would-be thieves were connected with a robbery at the Reform Club at 82 Sherbrooke street west at 3 p.m. that same night. Three men broke into the club at about 3 p.m. brutally beating Domenico Deramo, a seventy year old night watchman who is now at the Montreal Neurological Institute in critical condition with a skull fracture. He was beaten with the telephone on which he attempted to call police. The thieves then hurled him down a flight of stairs to the basement below.

The three men piled open cabinets, taking an undetermined amount of liquor, along with cigars and cigarettes.

The watchman was discovered, scarcely conscious, the next morning when the club's housekeeper arrived at 7:30 a.m.

No tickets for some speeders

Over one hundred motorists in Westmount broke the law in plain sight of a police officer this year by travelling faster than the speed limit, but were not stopped to receive a ticket.

Failure to apprehend the speeders was not due to any carelessness, or laziness on the part of the police. Motorists who "got away" merely became another statistic in the records of the Traffic and Circulation Committee.

This committee investigated over 120 traffic problems in the past year trying to determine whether complaints from citizens about traffic or suggestions from other city officials had any validity. An initial study of each problem was made by the assistants to the Traffic Committee who take speed checks and perform many similar jobs on "problem" streets. The radar apparatus is used, but is it always concealed and the operators wear no uniforms.

All traffic reports are turned over to the traffic and circulation committee for consideration and evaluation. If action on a particular problem is required and it involves some capital expenditure the report is submitted to City Council. Otherwise the committee itself takes action.

Ratepayers to discuss zoning laws

Westmount ratepayers will have an opportunity, Tuesday evening, the 26th, to discuss the new zoning by-law which was given first approval by City Council at the beginning of the month. The meeting is required by law.

If ten or more persons formally register their disapproval of the by-law or particular sections of it, a referendum will be held, enabling ratepayers to vote on the issue.

City Hall authorities said that the by-law appears to be generally well accepted by Westmount citizens.

"We have maintained an 'open-door' policy, making the by-law available to anyone who asked for it. We have also tried to answer every question, and there have been many. At the present time everyone seems happy with it."

Next week's weather

By ERIC NEAL

February 23 to March 2

Cold with sunny periods then quite stormy this Mardi-Gras week, with a very wide temperature range in the preceding week. Snow 5 to 7".

Easing temperatures could bring freezing mists and soft hail with some snow for the southern counties.

Cold nights with morning fog or frosts, and clear days from the middle to the end of the week, strong winds and 2 to 4" of powder snow in the north.

We could have ice and snow storms with gale winds to commence the month of March, it is that kind of season.

Unity Boys' Club

Extended program needed to meet larger enrollment

The Unity Boy's Club's greatest need is to extend its program to serve its present members and the constantly increasing enrollment. Maurice Mariasine, Club Director told the annual meeting Wednesday. "In checking our membership statistics, we have become aware of the fact that for the last several years there has been a tremendous upsurge in the younger age group enrollment. Boys and girls in these younger age levels require more supervision as well as more program planning," Mr. Mariasine said.

Unity Boys' Club is a project of the Rotary Club of Westmount.

Speaking of Canada's great population growth in the past few years, Mr. Mariasine said that schools and universities were overcrowded and the Boys' Club movement in Canada has expanded with great rapidity. "When Boy's Clubs of Canada, our national organization was incorporated in 1947, the membership comprised some 30 clubs in seven different cities. During the past fifteen years, fifty one new clubs were added to the original 30, so that now there are 81 boys' clubs enrolled from 45 different communities. Recent statistics show that over 60,000 young people are being serviced by Boy's Clubs of Canada."

Mr. Mariasine stated that the enrollment figure in 1962 was 1043, the largest ever obtained since the club opened in 1950.

The Board of Directors re-elected this year consists of W. Bordon Empey as President; Harry Houston, Vice-President; John M. Squier, Honorary Secretary; David T. Youngson, Honorary Treasurer. Other members of the board are: W. W. Allison, J. B. Burrows, E. A. Everson, James E. Frosst, Harry Houston, W. Frank Kenwood, J. G. Lawson, Ernest E. Mills, William G. Moxlye, Donald B. Ross.

W. B. Empey, President, in his report, paid tribute to the co-operation received from the Professional Staff, the Voluntary Workers, the Ladies Auxiliary, the Montreal Boys Association and the Boys' Club of Canada. "I doubt very much if we realize the great amount of effort put forth by these dedicated people, for without their support, Unity could not have achieved the success which we have grown accustomed to expect from it," he said.

Reviewing accomplishments in the past year, in promoting physical and mental growth among members, Mr. Mariasine recalled such events as the Annual Track and Field Meet which had an attendance of over 400 boys and girls from eight different agencies; the full scale program, including an "Open House" the Annual Hobby Show, the penny carnival, on the occasion of National Boys' Club Week. He recalled that the club's Little League Baseball Team "The Indians" captured the Kiwanis West Pennant for the second consecutive year and also won the City of Montreal Championship.

Income for the period ending December 1962 totalled $27,927.38, was reported. Of this over $26,000 came from the Welfare Federation.

Chuck Tyler, Physical Director outlined the aims of the club, noting the need for activity as an outlet for physical and nervous energy. "We must strive," he said, "to make the programmes enjoyable, mentally stimulating, and socially sound".

Jacques McCormack, Arts and Crafts Director, Joan Strike, Girls Worker, all presented a brief outline of the work in their respective departments. Jim Rice, a Sir George Williams University student who is taking a Boys' Club of Canada Training Course, outlined the nature of his field work.

Drury vs Gifford

Debate on nuclear arms considered a draw here

Part of the capacity-crowd at the Hampton avenue YMCA last Friday cheered loudly when C. M. Drury, Liberal candidate in St-Antoine-Westmount called for Canada to "re-establish her moral credit in the eyes of the world and fulfil her obligations by acquiring nuclear warheads."

An equally loud cheer sounded when Professor C. G. Gifford, New Democratic Party candidate in N.D.G., argued that such an acquisition was unnecessary in view of U.S. strength and would only weaken chances of disarmament.

The loudest applause of the evening came however, when Edmund Asselin, Liberal candidate in N.D.G., entered to announce an addition to his family — a girl, seven pounds, 10 ounces, born only two hours before the start of the debate. Asselin had been scheduled to speak, but was replaced by C. M. Drury.

Mr. and Mrs. Asselin are now the parents of three girls and three boys.

The Rev. John A. Simms, minister of the Montreal West Presbyterian was moderator at the meeting.

Continuing the debate on nuclear arms, Mr. Drury said that by Canada's failure to do its part overseas, it had left a wide gap in North American defence forces. He said that, missile basis to be effective must be scattered across the continent, "so that we will be able to withstand a massive attack and still retaliate. To do nothing would be an out right invitation to an aggressor."

"Canada," said Mr. Drury, "now had the trained men, the aircraft, and the bases for full operation of Bomarc and Voodoo squadrons. The squadrons cannot operate effectively without the nuclear weapons designed for them."

Professor Gifford, on the other hand, argued that nuclear weapons in Canada "would change the balance of power not one whit." Canada should work with conventional forces, both at home and in NATO, he said.

"What use is a massive nuclear force," he asked, "when missiles can be moved quickly from one part of the world to another?"

He noted that the U.S. would soon have over 2,000 ICBM missiles — each possessing a force

Senior students dislike prefect system

By

JUDI ROTHMAN and ELIZABETH CAMPBELL

Attitudes to the prefect system introduced last year at Westmount High vary from "It's an awful mess," to "I think it has done a lot for the school." The general feeling, however, seems to be that it is successful in the junior year, but that it has little effect on the students of the senior school.

The aims of the prefect system are to assist the administration and staff in day-to-day operation of the school and help maintain a high level of school spirit and "esprit de corps." The prefects are appointed by the principal, in consultation with the staff, on the basis of leadership, conduct, and ability to get along with others.

Doug McDougall, Jean Berwick, Cynthia Duff, Susan Scharie, Kathy Hinds, Mary Rayside, Judy Abrams, Karen Austin, Mary Kinghorn, Wendy Dayton, Mary Spencer, Naomi Aronoff, Jenifer Laurie.

Election day choice was a poor one

THE choice of April 8 as election day in Canada, as it turns out, seems to have been a poor one.

That Monday marks the start of the Jewish Passover, a religious feast of great importance to all members of the Jewish faith.

Actually, Passover will not stop anyone from voting — the feast does not start its eight-day run until Sundown of that Monday. It will, however, give all election workers, not to mention candidates, a choice to make:

To forget their religious instruction and carry on with election duties, or to obey the calling of their religious tendencies.

A difficult choice, and not a fair one.

A little thought could have re-adjusted the date to be more suitable to everyone, even if it meant prolonging the campaign somewhat.

After all, the country went through eight months of indecisive government before the election was called, so another week or so wouldn't make any difference in setting the election date.

Scout district split a wise move

THE Boy Scout Association has shown an example to business and, for that matter, civic administrations, on how to prepare for the future.

This week the famous Western District was divided into two distinct sections because of the rapid growth of the movement in the West End.

But this change came because the Association has long recognized that it would eventually be neces-

Stop 'improving' Summit Park

Sir:

I see from the report of the Municipal Association that citizens are once again talking of "improving" Summit Park. Fortunately the park is protected to some extent by restrictions laid down by McGill University when they turned the land over to Westmount.

Nevertheless, I read that a general tidying up and pruning will take place in the Spring. If by "pruning" they mean trimming bushes and trees, making everything neat and symmetrical and tidy, for heaven's sake don't let them do it.

There is nothing more beautiful than wild, even overgrown woods just as Nature made them. Protect Summit Park from these "pruners."

Stop nuclear tests, schoolgirl urges

Sir:

You had previously published two of my letters when I was only seven years old. I would be so happy if you could help me now again, since I feel very strongly about this question. Your paper is read by most of the Westmount children, and so it would be the best medium to reach them.

Nuclear testing has been carried on by both the Russians and the Americans. It is endangering the whole world by poisoning the atmosphere. Everybody knows what is happening, but nobody does anything to prevent it.

The older generation, in selfishness and stupidity, forgets its responsibility towards us children. They plunged the world onto two global wars and are bringing us every day closer to complete destruction. They already have lived part sary, and made plans accordingly.

The two new sections will be able to handle problems with much more effect, making for more progressive administration, and without unduly taxing the resources of the volunteers who make scouting possible.

Marriage counselling is major request at Family Service Association

By VALENTINA RAHR

"The Family Service Association has seen many changes through the years," remarked

Mrs. Margret Dunlop, Executive Assistant to the Director of the Association. About four years ago, all municipalities in Montreal began to issue direct relief to unemployable people, and to those who have used up their unemployment benefits. Therefore, fewer people come here for case work. The major request today is for marriage counselling."

No buses on Boulevard

Protests to the Montreal Transportation Commission by residents of Westmount's upper level against the establishment of a bus route on The Boulevard have been successful, it was reported this week.

The buses were to travel up Cote St. Luc and along the Boulevard as far as Renfrew avenue. Because of numerous complaints from local residents and a petition from the City council, the Commission decided to operate buses along Notre Dame de Grace avenue as far as Claremont, instead of on The Boulevard.

In their petition residents said that there was need to run buses through a quiet residential district merely because "the residents of N.D.G. desire a more adequate transportation service."

City plans Coronation celebrations

Plans for Westmount's part in the Empire-wide celebrations next May marking the Coronation of His Majesty King George the Sixth are now being made. Appointed to a committee to attend to all local phases of the celebration are: Alderman Douglas Lormier, K. C. McLeod, and P. E. Jarman, General Manager of the City. A "Military and Fireworks Display" will be presented on the evening of the Coronation. Every pupil in Westmount schools will receive a replica of the Anointing Spoon used in the Coronation Ceremony. Trees to commemorate the occasion will be planted in Murray Park.

of their lives, but we hardly have started to live.

Children all over the world are alike in many more ways than they are different. We have no prejudice towards each other and don't want the barriers set up by ruthless politicians. This is what we can do: each and every one of us should write a personal letter to both President Kennedy and Premier Krushchev, urging them to stop nuclear testing at once. After you have written your 2 letters, tell a friend to do the same. The world leaders cannot fail but be impressed by such an avalanche of letters. This is not a matter of politics, it is a matter of life itself. We children have to make the leaders think about our wishes.

We want to live.
We want to live in peace.
We want to breathe clean air.
We want to drink unpoisoned milk.
We want to have healthy bones.
Let us act now before it is too late!

Hussars honor Brigadier John Wood

Brigadier John Norris Wood, MBE, ED, CD, former principal of Kings School, Westmount, has been appointed Honorary Colonel of the 7th/11th Hussars, Army Headquarters announced this week.

Meeting of the Rotary Club, Robert J. C. Stead, prominent Canadian poet, author and lecturer was guest speaker and he dealt with diplomatic relations between Canada and the United States. He saw more reciprocity of culture as an urgent need.

"Canadians," he said, "know little of their own country; generally they know more about the U. S. Americans, on the other hand, often display remarkable ignorance of Canada."

Mr. Stead pictured Canada as swamped with American periodicals, broadcasts, and motion pictures. He said that Canadians invest three times as heavily in the United States as do Americans in Canada.

Mayor John Jenkins spoke on behalf of Westmount, while S. O. Martin, Vice-President extended greetings of the Club to guests. W. B. Robson welcomed visiting Rotarians. Mr. Stead was introduced by G. L. McRae and thanked by J. H. Colton.

Westmount High wins Ski Championship

Westmount High this week captured the High School Ski Championship, defeating Montreal High by a narrow margin. Top skiers for Westmount was J. McLurg and W. Calvery.

Brigadier Wood was commissioned in the 7th Hussars (Militia) in 1930 and was appointed to the Canadian Army (Active) with the rank of captain in 1940. During the Second World War he served in Britain and Northwest Europe as a squadron and regimental commander, and as a general staff officer.

Since that time he has commanded the 38th Light Anti-Aircraft Regiment (Militia), the 7th/11th Hussars, (Militia), No. 9 and No. 11 Militia Groups. He was promoted to the rank of brigadier in 1960 and transferred to the Supplementary Reserve in 1961.

In civil life Brigadier Wood is head of the history department of the John Rennie High School in Pointe Claire. He is a former principal of King's School, Westmount and Cowansville High School, and has headed several teachers' associations in the province of Quebec.

He is a member of the United Services Institute (Montreal), former vice-president of the Royal Canadian Artillery Association, past president of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 99 and a member of the Royal Canadian Hussars Association.

I SAY!

Two locals were discussing recent international events in the Middle East when one said, "There's not much doubt that old Kassem had to go; he got to thinking he was God, and the way he was going very soon he would have thought he was General de Gaulle."

Part one: major roads and traffic

In 1960 the firm of Bland, Lemoyne and Edwards, Architects and Town Planning Consultants, spent eight months on an intensive study of the southern area of Westmount, later submitting a report containing the substance of their inquiry both in words and in diagrams. It concludes with their recommendations.

It was their aim to provide a sound basis for regulation to preserve the unique character of Westmount and at the same time promote its gradual and orderly redevelopment.

It should be noted, however, that these are recommendations only. Many of the recommendations are long-term proposals, many may be impossible to carry out.

The first of the recommendations made to the City of Westmount by the firm of Bland, Lemoyne, and Edwards states that in order to relieve the southern area of much of the everpresent metropolitan traffic "enthusiastic support should be given to the proposals to construct expressways to the south and west of the Westmount."

Preserve the residential character

The report noted the current proposals by Montreal to handle increasing traffic in the western part of the island by constructing an east-west expressway along Decarie boulevard. "Both routes would skirt Westmount entirely and, in the process, would probably relieve much of the through traffic in the City. This is essential for continued pleasant existence here."

The report further advises that "in order to preserve the residential character of the area adjacent to Westmount Park, Western avenue should be closed to through traffic from Claremont to Clarke avenue."

Continual improvement of east-west traffic flow through Westmount is, of course, essential, it was stated. Accordingly, St. Catherine street was extended to Claremont and Dorchester is now being improved. The road be built north of the railway between Glen road and Atwater avenue."

South of St. Catherine street and Dorchester boulevard between Glen road and Atwater avenue are two series of dead end streets abutting the CPR property. In the entire southern area these are the only pockets of limited circulation. Good accessibility and easy transportation facilities along such a new major road would, the report noted encourage public institutions and large residential buildings to be built there.

Facilitate traffic

The report recommended that "in order to facilitate the movement of traffic in the southern area a system of roads should be established and so designed as to accommodate their particular density of traffic."

"Atwater avenue, Cote des Neiges, Sherbrooke street, St. Catherine street, and Dorchester boulevard are among Montreal's most crowded arteries and each has a direct effect on Westmount. Origin arteries which take only minor local traffic) should be adopted as a device for conserving and improving the character of the area within the block. The circulatory pattern thus set up would, the report stated, "be such so as to eliminate or minimize unnecessary through traffic."

The chief reason for the establishment of a one way traffic system on the St. Luke Burnside route is, the report noted, to provide more fluid access to the central metropolitan shopping areas and to increase the capacity of these streets for public transit vehicles. The difficulty, as far as Westmount is concerned, is that "a system of this order would tend to divert traffic into the eastern portion of the city and would have to be co-ordinated with local requirements."

Explaining the need for a "super-block" system of roads, the report stated that although the bulk of traffic has destinations beyond Westmount on either side, there is still considerable traffic which originates and terminates in Westmount. Persons who work and shop in the area together with the residents of the City intensify the traffic on less important routes." The resultant pattern is typical of most urban districts: aside from the heavily used roads there is a group of city blocks which tend to form "an island or reserve of less activity often with a pleasant local character. These super blocks have become desirable areas to live in because they remain quiet, safe, and pleasant in appearance."

"The circulatory pattern of traffic in the southern area is mostly of a two way design with the exception of St. Antoine street, Grosvenor avenue, and, beginning above Sherbrooke street, Victoria avenue, where the width of the street and the possibility of coupling routes permit traffic to flow in one direction. The problem of coupling streets into one way systems with internal gyrations is difficult in the southern part of Westmount due to the limited number of major east-west through roads.

North-south one way systems are being handled in the western part of Westmount along the two continuously through streets on the east, outside the study area to the north. The advantage of one-way traffic is in the simplification of situations facing both drivers and pedestrians who are relieved of all the variety of movements and directions of traffic at intersections."

Next week a report on lanes, parking facilities, and zoning districts, in lower Westmount based on the report submitted by the town planning firm of Bland, Lemoyne and Edwards.

planning firm warned, however, that from the standpoint of the convenience and character of Westmount as a residential area, an improved artery through the southern portion is preferable to routes that pass through the centre. "The spine of the southern part of Westmount within the study area is Western avenue, a relatively narrow, but attractive street. It is almost entirely residential in use with a few institutional and commercial buildings on it."

It also cuts across Westmount Park. For these reasons it is clear that the Dorchester-St. Catherine route would be vastly more desirable than the widening of Western avenue no matter how obvious the latter may appear from the point of view of traffic alone."

Through traffic would, take St. Catherine or Dorchester to the south or Sherbrooke to the north, leaving the narrower Western avenue for local vehicles.

An easier flow of traffic

"It is recommended that in order to develop the areas between St. Catherine street and the railway and to provide an easier flow of traffic in the southern area, a new and destination studies of Montreal traffic show that a large part of the traffic in the metropolitan area passes around or through Westmount. Accommodating this traffic in Westmount are the main streets running east and west along the different levels of the city: the Boulevard, Westmount avenue Cedar avenue, Cote St. Antoine road, Sherbrooke street, Western avenue, St. Catherine street, Dorchester boulevard, and St. Antoine street.

Less metropolitan traffic runs through Westmount in a north-south direction and this mostly on Victoria avenue. But actually, any through street in Westmount that links one major artery to another takes metropolitan traffic."

"It is along major roads that development of a large scale occurs. Commercialization of buildings and areas is a direct result of good accessibility and easy transportation facilities. Public institutions and large residential buildings generally follow the same trend."

The old streetcar lines ran on some of these routes, as do the busses of today serving the needs of the boarding areas. The pattern of major roads within the study area is a good indication of the concentration of uses already existing and where further development is bound to occur."

The report recommended that a system of one way traffic be adopted wherever possible throughout the southern area and that "the City of Montreal's proposal to couple St. Catherine street and St. Luke-Burnside into a one way system should be extended into Westmount as far as Clarke avenue." It also stated that the principle of the "super-block" (a group of city blocks between major confusion and indecision which characterized the present regime in Ottawa." He thought that the Progressive-Conservative Party has been bled to death by the successive resignations of the cabinet ministers while the Liberals and Social Credit Parties "are on the verge of cracking up under the pressure of the atomic weapons question."

According to Mr. Major only the NDP had pronounced itself squarely against nuclear armaments in Canada. He predicted a realignment of political forces around this attitude.

He accused the Diefenbaker Government of having constantly favoured Ontario at the expense of Quebec. "This explains to a certain extent the latest federal statistics which show that while there is 10.5 per cent unemployment in our province, there is only 5.5 per cent in On-

Hobby Show

Planners outline 'goals'

Over 140 boys, girls, and adults are now meeting to plan and operate the Westmount 26th Hobby Show to be held April 24 to 27. The annual show is sponsored by the Westmount YCA.

No organization can sponsor activities without the enthusiastic support of its members and the community. The 'Y' is extremely pleased with the support received this year, from schools, interested parents, teachers, and the children. The 13 different planning groups are composed of Young people from 10 different schools with an average of 12 people per group.

The YMCA outlines six purposes or goals they hope to achieve with the show this year. They are:

To enlist a large number of students and adults to work on "planning committees".

To give these "committee" people good experience working in small groups, learning decision making, acceptance of responsibilities, all at the level of maturity and understanding of the participants.

To create in youngsters an interest in hobbies that attract their creative abilities and sense of accomplishment and keen competition.

To help youngsters to display the projects that they feel are their best work.

To develop new and novel programming ideas such as "live displays", and, to make the Hobby Show interesting, informative and entertaining to young and old.

The Hobby Show executive is composed of the following advisors and chairmen:

tario and 8.3 per cent throughout the balance of the country.

Confederation defective

G. Charles Taylor, NDP Candidate in Mt. Royal and a resident of Metcalf avenue was the guest speaker. He said that the present structure of Confederation is not worth defending in itself; "what is worth defending is what the structure was meant to express — a partnership between two linguistic communities."

"The problem of Confederation can not be solved by minor tinkering, such as giving a few senior posts on the CNR to French Canadians. To go on discussing flags and national anthems when we are not sure we'll have a country for them is nothing short of ludicrous."

Debate on...

equal to all the warheads used in the second World War. "Why should Canada add to this?" he asked.

He said that the United States had recently decided not to provide Britain with Skybolt missiles, thus breaking one of her own commitments. "The furor over 'commitments' and 'obligations' makes a phony issue. We need a positive policy for Canada, not a vacuum into which we stuff someone else's ideas."

Replying to a question from the audience about the advantages of nuclear weapons in a country like Canada Mr. Drury said that Canada must obtain nuclear warheads to restore the confidence that has been shattered.

"When Canada speaks, it speaks as a country without a real voice," he said. "How can we urge honorable action in the UN, if we come with dirty hands?"

Asked what positive action Canada should take to prevent war, Professor Gifford replied that the only possible course was for this country to foster "creeping disarmament, a policy whereby all belligerent nations disarm and refuse to accept weapons until only the United States and Russia remain armed. This accomplished, these two nations might "find it to their advantage to disarm," he said.

The Girl's Senior Basketball team played five games this season and won them all. The final game against Lachine will be played Wednesday. If Lachine is defeated we will be first in the division.

The boys, on the other hand, (that's where they usually are) have only had an average season, playing basketball. The team won one out of two games against Monklands High and Baron Bing, but defeated Loyola and Montreal West. The outstanding players were Bill Standing, Hudson Alleyne, and Michael Herch. Mr. Field is coach.

College Board tests

Extra classes for grade eleven students have been given for the past two months. After completing a careful review of "Macbeth," Mr. Bernard's extra English class started "Hamlet". Miss King has been reviewing the rudiments of grade ten biology. As an aid to students who plan to take the College Board Achievement Tests, she has gone ahead to cover important sections that otherwise would not have been done until much later in the year.

Trinity Guild meeting

Trinity Memorial Church Guild monthly meeting will be held in the Archdeacon Almond Room of the Parish on Wednesday, March 20 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Agar, guest speaker, will review the recent best seller, "Ship of Fools" by Katherine Ann Porter. Everyone welcome.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM J. CUTT, whose marriage took place recently in Summerlea United Church. Mrs. Cutt was the former Miss Carolyn Florence Evelyn Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard B. Morris of Lachine, formerly of Notre Dame de Grace. Mr. Cutt, formerly of Westmount, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cutt of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

Cutt-Morris wedding is held in Summerlea United Church

The marriage of Carolyn Florence Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard B. Morris of Lachine, Que., formerly of Notre Dame de Grace, to Mr. William J. Cutt, formerly of Westmount, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cutt of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, took place recently in Summerlea United Church, the Reverend D. H. MacFarlane officiating.

Mr. W. C. Upton played the wedding music and Mrs. Marion Scott sang "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register. The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of white duchess satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and three-quarter-length sleeves of Alencon lace with bell shaped skirt with a removable chapel train of satin. A crown of matching lace studded with seguinis topped the three tier illusion veil, and she wore a single strand of cultured pearls, the gift of her grandmother the late Mrs. Albert Butler. She carried a crescent bouquet of red roses.

Miss Joyce (Bunny) Morris as maid of honor for her sister, and her cousin Miss Patricia Butler as bridesmaid, were in frocks of pale pink peau de soie having fitting bodices, scooped necklines and three quarter length sleeves with bell shaped skirts. They wore matching tulle illusion head-dresses and carried nosegays of pink carnations and white stephanotis.

Mr. Graham Mather acted as best man for the bridegroom and the ushers were Mr. Derek Mather, Mr. David Mather, Mr. John Lane and Mr. Dan Welsh, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Morris, the bride's mother, was in a gown of French blue chiffon over taffeta, she wore a floral hat in matching shades of blue and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Cutt, mother of the bridegroom was in a black silk gown with lilac motifs, she wore a matching hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in The El Paso, Buena Vista Room. Later Mr. and Mrs. Cutt left on their wedding trip to Barbados, the bride travelling in a three quarter length coat and matching skirt of powder blue wool with white accessories, and a corsage bouquet of white pompons. Upon their return they will reside in Pierrefonds, Que.

Local couple show progress from accident

Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Hammond, well-known in Waterloo, Que., and throughout Montreal, especially in Westmount, are making great progress since the terrible automobile accident in March 1962, in which they were involved.

Mrs. Hammond has fully recovered from the shock and bruises she experienced, and Mr. Hammond returned to work November 6, part-time and is now working nearly full-time. He received multiple injuries, necessitating the removal of one of his eyes, but with his great faith and the skill of ten doctors, he has made great strides to recovery.

The Hammonds, who previously resided at 466 Grosvenor avenue, are now residing at 4280 Western avenue, west of Greene avenue, in the lower of a triplex which they recently acquired.

A layreader at St. Matthias' Church, Mr. Hammond has again resumed his duties. He was re-elected vice-president of the Fellowship of the West this month, one step (to recovery) at a time is his motto.

Before returning to work, Mr. Hammond and his wife enjoyed a holiday in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and a lovely holiday in Bermuda.

The couple own Butternut Bay Farm in Waterloo, Que., and at present are building a new unit which they are looking forward to occupying this summer.

West End women employed in bank over forty years

By MIRIAM ARMSTRONG

Miss Dora Borlase, 222 Melville avenue, Westmount, has been working for over 40 years and has hardly missed a day in that period!

A veteran employee of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Miss Borlase, who attended the opening of the Bank's new quarters in Victoria Square, said, "Except for one brief illness, I haven't missed a day in 45 years."

At present she is assistant supervisor of the accounts department, but she said she most enjoyed being in the foreign exchange department.

"I love anything to do with figures," she commented, "and so I found the foreign exchange department so nice." Miss Borlase bowls on a bank team once a week.

She is one of three veteran women employees at the Bank.

Miss Adele Gethings, 5332 Duquette avenue, N.D.G. and Miss Irene Ryan, 6171 Sherbrooke street west, have also worked about 45 years for the Bank at this Branch.

"I've enjoyed every minute of it," said Miss Gethings, who was born and brought up in Montreal.

"Of course, I'm kind of sentimental," she admitted. "Some of the clerks I've worked with have gone on to become managers—I like to think they remember me."

"The man who used to be our accountant, is now President of the bank," she said. "It used to take a man from 16 to 35 years to get ahead, but it's much faster now. And we used to have so much overtime, but now all the overtime we do is twice a year at 'surprise balance time' and when the inspectors come."

Miss Gethings said one of the best things about the new bank quarters is the cafeteria, where an employee can get a good meal for "only 35 cents."

"Some of the men go home and don't want to eat the meals their wives have made—the cafeteria meals are so filling," said Miss Gethings, who is now employed in the drafts department.

"I've been pretty well all around the bank," said Miss Ryan, who works in the new Bank of Nova Scotia building in Victoria Square, "but meeting the public is wonderful."

"When I was teller, people would often phone me to say I had made a mistake and wouldn't balance, even before I knew I was out!" she exclaimed. "People are wonderful!"

A native of Wales, Ontario, (which disappeared when the Seaway was built), Miss Ryan recalled the depression years at the bank, when "we felt lucky to be working." She praised the bank for the security it gives employees and compared opportunities for advancement today for women, with those of yesterday.

"Now girls are advanced much more rapidly," she commented. "The bank is anxious for them to get along and do well. But we used to work much longer hours in the old days," she reminisced. Miss Ryan is at present in charge of the proof and deposits department. She is one of three veteran women employees of the Bank.

About the new building, all three ladies said enthusiastically, "delightful, wonderful, we love it!"

Welcome to Montreal coach Trimble

The hiring of Jim Trimble as head coach and director of player personnel is the smartest move Ted Workman has made since acquiring the Alouettes. Trimble's record in Canadian football is impressive. He led the Tiger-Cats to five Grey Cup games during his seven year tenure as coach.

On meeting Trimble, Wednesday he left us with the impression that he is a man on the move. Trimble is well liked by Montreal players and just about every sport fan we have spoken to since his appointment.

Ted Workman mentioned at a press conference Tuesday, that Leo Cahill was disappointed because he was not offered the head coach position. Workman also mentioned he was not sure Cahill would remain on with the team. We have learned from a most reliable source, coach Cahill is willing to remain with the team provided Trimble wants him. Our informant has advised, "Cahill is not nearly as disappointed as owner Ted Workman had intimated. Cahill respects Jim Trimble as an individual and as a coach. It was said, "Trimble was probably the only coach Cahill would have considered remaining on with if he did not get the top post himself."

Trimble predicts a bright future for the Alouettes. He says "Montreal is a dynamic, poised and explosive city, and he is looking forward to coming to Montreal with his lovely wife, three boys and three girls, along with a pretty good football record.

* * *
Mike Kovac of the Maple Leafs coaching staff, an outstanding Canadian player who played for Johnny Metras at Western University and later for the Alouettes may consider coming out of retirement to try out for the Als if invited.

We predict Canadian players will get more opportunities and better treatment from the Alouettes now that a professional head coach is calling the shots.

Fraser (Fritz) Crowdis and his active N.D.G. Park hockey organization have arranged to play exhibition games at the Lower Canada College rink on Royal avenue, Saturday commencing at 4 p.m. against two visiting teams from Hingham, Mass. The N.D.G. Pee Wee Royals coached by Charlie Batho, and the Army and Navy Bantams coached by Jack Wallace will be featured.

A Little League Baseball clinic will be held in Montreal at a site to be determined in the near future. This clinic for coaches is slated for Saturday March 23. The clinic will be under coach Arthur Dede, who started his baseball career with the Brooklyn Dodgers back in 1916. For a number of years he played for the Paterson Silk Sox, when they were considered among the top semi-pro teams in the United States.

Since 1941 he has been connected with the Dodger scouting system. It is interesting to note that Arthur Dede managed an old timer's game that included Hall of Fame member Rabbit Maranville and Fresco Thompson on the squad, both of whom managed the Montreal Royals in the heyday of Triple A baseball in our town.

the Maple Leafs football team, Edmund T. Asselin MP will be made honorary president of the club . . . the board of governors will be up for reelection, most are expected to remain . . . head coach George (the Golden Greek) Economides will most likely carry on in that capacity next season . . . the firing of Perry Moss has helped a number of people, Moss was paid the balance of his contract which had two years to go. Jim Trimble improved his position financially. Pop Ivy has a two year contract with more loot and most of all local football talent will benefit from Trimble's presence with the Als.

Golfer's Notebook

Did you know?

Did you know that today's top-quality golf ball is so well made it can withstand repeated blows of a half-ton in force — delivered by you? And that even then, the kind of pattern on the "cover" can determine just how far it will go?

Dunlop Rubber scientists who have pioneered in development of the modern golf ball say a well-hit ball requires a clubhead speed of about 110 mph. The ball will leave the tee at about 150 mph, travel 240 yards, and spin at 3,500 and 4,000 revolutions per minute.

After you've hit the ball, your club head will slow down to 85 mph. This means you've imparted a force of about a half a ton to the ball itself . . . all this in the short space of five one thousandths of a second. The energy so absorbed by the ball itself adds up to 300 H.P.

That's a lot of wallop, but even then what happens is not entirely up to you. Certainly you can hook or slice, but the carry of the ball itself depends greatly on the surface pattern applied to the ball at the factory.

Tests by Dunlop show that a depth of pattern of three one-thousandths of an inch will give a well-hit ball a "carry" of 117 yards for a total length of flight and roll of 146 yards. On the other hand, a depth of pattern of 14 one-thousandths will give a "carry" of 225 yards, a total flight of 240 yards.
