ROUTE FOR HISTORICAL PROCESSION DECIDED UPON

No Rehearsal of Pageants Held Yesterday Owing to Rain--National Procession Has Been Abandoned.

WORK OF THE RECEPTION COMMITTEE

The route for the historical procession has at length been fully and finally decided upon, and the Chronicle is this morning able to give an official announcement upon the subject. The procession will pass by way of Mountain Hill, du Fort, Monument Champlain, Place d'Armes, Tresor, Buade, Fabrique, Avenue Chauveau, Ste. Anne, Desjardins, Donnacona, St. Louis, Avenue Dufferin, d'Youville, St. John, Racine, d'Abraham, St. Valier, Bridge, Des-Fosses, Grant, St. Joseph, St. Valier, St. Ambrose, Avenue Parent and Victoria Park where the procession will disperse.

PROCESSION ABANDONED.

Delegates of St. John Baptist Society, the National Trades and Labor Council, the Palap Zouaves, Garde Chasseur d'Alaberry, and other bodies, to whom had been entrusted the arrangements for the parade of the national societies, clubs, associations and independent military guards fixed for Thursday, July 30th, assembled at the City Hall last evening decided to recommend to the commission, through their chairman, Hon. Mr. Turcotte, that the features of the celebration be dispensed with. The reasons which prompted the recommendation were various chief amongst them being the fact that the greater proportion of the members of the different organizations are giving their time to the representation of the pageants and that they had already secured from their employers so generous a leave of absence on that account that further demands would not likely be entertained. As the programme for the thirtieth is left to this special committee it is not known what will be substituted for the national parade, but it is understood that a suggestion will be made to the commission that the day be devoted to an allegorical procession.

PAID THEIR RESPECTS.

The members of the National Battlefields Commission yesterday drove to the Vice-Royal quarters at the Citadel to pay their respects to the party of distinguished guests who are making their home with His Excellency Earl Grey, while in the city.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

The Citizens' Reception Committee convened at the City Hall last evening, Sir Francois Langelier presiding, and Mr. W. A. Weir acting as secretary. His Worship Mayor Garneau, at the inception, again explained the committee's raison d'être, namely to assist in the reception of all the distinguished invited guests, both from home and abroad. Some eight hundred invitations had been extended to representatives from the colonies, various houses of parliament, both federal and provincial, and to their respective lieutenant-governors, the chief justices and many others holding the highest positions in Canada and that it devolved on this committee to help receive these gentlemen on their arrival in our city. The matter of detail he would have to leave to the committee and under their wise jurisdiction he knew it would be properly handled.

The Executive Committee of the Tercentenary celebration composed of some seventy or eighty members, being considered too large and difficult to get together it was decided to appoint a small sub-committee composed of Messrs. Broet, M.P.P., Wm. Dobell, Lieut.-Colonel Gaudet, J. H. Holt, Geo. H. Amyot, and H. M. Price, to act in conjunction with Lieut.-Colonel B. A. Scott, who has been officially appointed by the commission, to extend the courtesies of the committee to these guests on their arrival and who will also have power to call on any other members of the committee to assist.

NAVAL SPORTS.

The crews of the fleet in port, during the Tercentenary festivities are in no way to be neglected but on the contrary will be royally entertained by a committee of citizens who met on Thursday evening last. The object of the meeting was to arrange a programme of sporting events which would please our naval visitors, and Hon. R. Turner was elected president, O. Thompson, Secretary, and G. B. Ramsey, treasurer, besides a very influential committee.

POMMERY.

where quality fixes the price of Champagne,

POMMERY STANDS FIRST

"To be had from all Leading Wine Merchants."

Joseph. Yesterday morning Hon. R. Turner visited the flagship and other battleships to invite the crews to a citizens' entertainment, but no definite reply could be given as no arrangements could be made before H.R.H. Prince of Wales arrived in town as the latter would, it appears, be strongly in favor of a naval parade. However, the committee has decided to entertain the crews of the eleven ships at Lake St. Joseph, when breakfast and luncheon will be served. In the morning several races and other sporting events will take place, while in the afternoon a number of aquatic events will be witnessed. There will be about 1,100 members of the crews on hand. The committee having the matter in hand is composed of members of the Y.M.C.A. and the Sailor's Institute, and in such lands the entertainment should be a great success.

TERCENTENARY NOTES.

The members of the British Veteran's Association, of Boston, over 200 strong, will arrive at Levis to-morrow afternoon to attend the Tercentenary festivities. Mr. DeRouville, Manager of the Chateau Frontenac, received news yesterday that Lord Strathcona will arrive in Quebec on the 23rd instant. Hon. Mr. Gouin will lunch on board the French Cruiser Leon Gambetta, to-day.

PROROGATION FIXED MONDAY AFTERNOON

Senate and Commons Has Still Much to Do

SIR CHARLES FITZPATRICK

Will Likely P eside at Closing Cer- emonies Owing to Earl Grey Being Bu y in Quebec.

(Special to the Chronicle)

Ottawa, July 17--Many members of the commons left for their homes to-night. It has been definitely settled that prorogation will not take place until Monday afternoon. It was confidently hoped that the parliamentarians would have dismissed to their homes to-morrow, but the senate will hardly be able to conclude its business in time. Several measures are still to be taken up, including the elections bill, and this may evoke considerable discussion. The commons has also a fair amount of work to dispose of. As the Governor-General is busily engaged in Quebec, it is likely that the Deputy Governor, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, will preside at the closing ceremony. There is an unverified report, however, to-night that His Excellency may come to Ottawa, bringing with him the Duke of Norfolk, Lord Roberts, and other distinguished guests.

TERCENTENARY POSTAL ARRANGEMENT

(Special to the Chronicle)

Ottawa, July 17--The staff of the Quebec Post Office will be augmented by about 70 men during the Tercentenary. Geo. Ross, Chief Post Office Superintendent, Toronto, will be in charge of a staff of twenty trained sorters from London, Toronto, Kingston, Montreal, St. John and Halifax, which will be sent to the ancient capital, while sixty others will be drawn from nearer points.

A WINDOW BREAKER.

A couple of sailors belonging to the merchant marine had quite an adventure on Buade street last evening, but will have to answer for their doings to the authorities this morning, when they appear in Court. They had been refreshing themselves in a restaurant and no doubt felt so good at the fact that they were alive that they endeavored to give a practical demonstration of their animated feelings. One of them, however, chose a peculiar manner of showing this, his specialty being glass breaking, and after he had broken a large plate glass window with his head in Buade street he was pounced upon by Constables Verrett and Burns, and both he and his companion were landed in the cells.

LIVELY DEBATE ON THE BRIDGE REPORTS

In the House of Commons Yesterday

MINORITY REPORT ADOPTED

Motion for the Tak'ng Over of the Who's Project by the Govern- ment wa Also Passed.

(Special to the Chronicle)

Ottawa, July 17--A discussion took place to-day in the commons on the reports of the Quebec Bridge Committee. Mr. Chisholm, of Antigonish, moved the adoption of the majority report and made a speech of about one hour's duration. He went into an analysis of the evidence, which he argued was such as to justify the conclusions of the majority of the investigating committee. He defended the government's connection financially with the undertaking and argued that if blame rested on anyone in connection with the collapse of the Bridge it was on the designer, Mr. Cooper.

Mr. Monk followed and moved the adoption of the minority report, which he claimed was the same as that of the Royal Commission. He charged the Finance Minister with being responsible for the fix in which the government now finds itself. There were good men behind the company, but from a financial standpoint the organization was an absurdity. The Bridge was to cost $6,000,000 at least, yet the paid up capital was only $65,000 and the directors had got $20,000 stock irregularly. The Company, which owed the government six millions, was now insolvent. He warmly criticized the government for not looking into the plans for such an immense structure, though guaranteeing the finances of the undertaking. Now not only was there financial disaster, but over a hundred lives had been sacrificed. He particularly referred to the lack of attention paid the warning given by Mr. Douglas, the bridge expert of the Railway Department. Had there been a proper examination of the plans the great disaster, he believed, would have been averted. Because of the objections of Mr. Cooper, the government had abandoned the idea of the independent examination of the plans, even though the country was financing the whole proposition. When the government intended to take over the project it should have brought down its proposal months ago instead of the day before prorogation.

Mr. MacLean, Lussenburg, replied. He said the government and company had relied upon the judgment of Mr. Cooper, who had few equals as a bridge architect. Mr. MacLean refused to discuss mechanical questions. These had been investigated by experts and he would accept their conclusions. He held that the majority report contained all that was necessary to say.

Dr. Walsh Huntington, one of the conservative members of Committee, argued in support of the minority report. He pronounced the affair a national disgrace. He hoped that the government would not for the purpose of implementing promises to friends, assume the obligations of the company and take over a wreck which was probably without value.

The next attack on the Bridge deal came from the government side. Mr. Robitaille, Liberal, Quebec county, gave his view of the inside history of the Bridge Company. It was highly uncomplimentary. He told how he had himself before the accident warned Sir Wilfrid Laurier of the loose methods. He declared that a large part of the alleged paid up capital was in worthless notes. He followed with a surrog attack on President Parent, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and several other members called him to order for personal references. Mr. Robitaille strongly protested against the government assuming the existing obligations of the company.

Mr. Galtier, Liberal, followed and severely criticized Mr. Robitaille. Mr. George Parent, member for Montmorency, closed the debate, observing that Mr. Robitaille's attack was the last kick of a dying ass. The minority report was rejected by 103 to 57, and the majority report was adopted.

Mr. Graham introduced the resolution authorizing the government to take over the bridge on the terms provided in the original contract, and the motion was carried.

Mr. Foster, in a scathing speech, reviewed the financial situation of the country. He figured out that the estimates, bounties and subsidies voted this session amounted to the appalling total of $175,386,618, and moved a resolution declaring that in the opinion of the house the mad and reckless financial course of the government is seriously affecting public credit, unduly burdening the resources of the country, and if longer persisted in will end in public disaster.

Fielding's reply was that while the Conservatives condemned the present expenditure, individual members of the party were advocating public works in their respective constituencies running up into millions. The motion was defeated.

MILITARY CAMP AT SAVARD PARK

Preparations are Now Prac- tically Complete

FOR MAIN BODIES

Of the Regiments who will Arrive Here for the Celebration--Fine Body of Men and Horses.

Preparations for the reception of the 11,000 volunteers who will be under canvas in the three camps of Park Savard and St. Joseph de Levis by Monday night are now practically complete. Advance parties have been arriving all week and when the main bodies begin to come in to-day they will find the grounds laid out, the tents up and preliminary arrangements made. Already there are 2,100 volunteers in the three camps and with them 1,500 horses. At the west Savard camp the Army Service Corps, under Sergt.-Major Scharf, have erected ovens, twenty in number, which will bake all the bread which will be used in the three camps. Yesterday they were in active operation and supplying the men now in quarters.

The ground on which the two Savard Park camps are laid out is being used for military purposes for the first time, but according to both General Buchan and General Cotton it is serving the purpose admirably. The only possible drawback is that the parade ground will be limited in area. The two camps cover over 700 acres. In west Savard camp will be quartered the men of No. 1 Division, upwards of 4,000 in number, with 1,415 horses. This division comprises the cavalry brigade, 1,487 of all ranks and 1,265 horses, which will be under the command of Col. Turner, and all the city corps from Western Ontario, Sarnia, London, Hamilton and Toronto. In the East Savard camp will be the men of No. 2 Division, whose estimated strength is 3,720 with 352 horses. In this camp the principal units will be the field artillery, 6th and 7th brigades, the 3rd Western Ontario brigade, the 4th Eastern Ontario brigade and the Army Service Corps.

In No. 1 Division Brigadier-General W. H. Cotton will be in command with Lt.-Col. A. Bertran, A.A.G., Major A. E. Carpenter, D.A.A.G., and Lieut. A. S. V. Nordheimer, orderly officer. In No. 2 Division the commanding officer will be Col. Gordon, of Kingston, with Lt.-Col. Hemmings, A.A.G., and Col. Young, D.A.A.G. General Buchan, who is presently with the men of his own command in the Savard camps will go to Levis to take over the command of the 3rd Division, which will comprise three brigades, two from the Province of Quebec and one from the Maritime Provinces. Lt.-Col. Ibbotson will be in command of the first, which will comprise the Victoria Rifles, the 5th Royal Scots, the 65th Carbineers and a composite regiment.

In command of the second brigade, the 8th and 9th Rifles of Quebec and a composite regiment from No. 7 District, will be Lt.-Col. G. E. Allan Jones. The 3rd or New Brunswick brigade will be under Col. McLean and will comprise the 62nd Fusiliers of St. John and a composite regiment. The full strength of this division will be about 3,200 officers and men.

General Buchan's staff officers will include Col. Dunbar, A.A.G., Lt.-Col. Stewart, D.A.A.G. One of his aide-camps will be Capt. Harold Stewart, of the 7th Indian Cavalry, a son of the D.A.A.G. Lt.-Col. G. S. Rennie will be administrator for sanitary and medical purposes in this camp. In the Savard camp the 5th Field Ambulance Corps, of Montreal, under the command of Lt.-Col. Kenneth Campbell, will see to the medical and sanitary arrangements.

Col. Turner, in command of the 3rd cavalry brigade, will have as staff officers Major Nellis, Major J. Scott, Capt. McMillan and Major A. Price. Upwards of 2,000 of the men who will be in the Savard camps are drawn from Quebec Province and as the number in the Levis camp will be about 3,000 altogether the Quebec Province contingent to the military gathering will be over 5,000.

General Buchan stated yesterday that as far as he could judge at present the men were of a higher grade and the horses of better quality than usual and that good results should be obtained this year.

Starting to-day, the ovens in which the Army Service Corps will bake the bread for the three camps, will be going night and day. In the twenty-four hours each of the twenty ovens has a capacity of ten turns and they will never be idle. Some idea of the amount of work which the open air bakery necessitates may be gathered from the fact each of the 11,000 men receives a ration of a pound and a half of bread each day. Sergt.-Major Scharf has eight men under him and eight helpers, working in day and night shifts.

MILITARY TROUBLE Race Meeting OPENS TO-DAY

Montreal Band Want ed Special Consideration for Que- bec Trip.

(Special to the Chronicle.)
Montreal, July 17--Owing to con-tinual trouble between the various city regiments and their bands a move is being started by the officers of the garrison to swear in all handsmen so as to bring them all more strictly within military discipline. This has been precipitated by the insolent attitude of the band of the Victoria Rifles, which demanded special head-dress for the Quebec Tercentenary, and threatened to resign in a body when this was refused. As a result the whole band was summarily dismissed and the Vic's will take the band of the Prince of Wales Fusiliers to Quebec with them, and secure a permanent band on their return home. The result of this attempt to hold up a regiment is that negotiations are on foot between the various commanding officers to abandon the contract system for regimental bands and make each band a part of the regiment, sworn in as militia men. Only two Montreal regiments will take their bands to the Tercentenary, the Victoria Rifles and the 65th, which is the crack French-Canadian regiment. The Highlanders will go as a purely Highland regiment, only taking their pipe band. They leave for Quebec by special boats on Sunday afternoon.

Toronto, July 17--Two composite regiments, one "Red" and the other "Grey," left Toronto this afternoon at 6.30 by special train for Quebec. The composite "Red" Regiment was under the command of Lieut.-Colonel Wellington Wallace, and consisted of eight companies, drawn from eight rural corps, among which were Barrie, Dundas, Whitby, Parry Sound and the York Rangers and the 23rd Regiment Northern Pioneers. Some of the companies consisted of officers only, who had gone back into the ranks for the sake of going to Quebec. The "Grey" Regiment of riflemen left at the same time as did the others. They paraded 283 strong and were under the command of Lieut. Col. W. P. Moore, of West Toronto. The detachment of the Army Medical Corps left on the same train as the "Reds" and will proceed to Quebec under the command of Lieut.-Colonel Rennie, of Hamilton.

The Quebec Chronicle

QUEBEC, JULY 18, 1908.

BOBS.

Among the many illustrious personages who will grace our anniversary fetes by their presence, there is probably not one who so largely unites in himself the honor and respect which are the reward of eminent public services, and the warm human affection which makes the popular idol as Field Marshal Lord Roberts, who landed here from the Empress of Britain yesterday. Brilliant as have been his achievements as a soldier, the victories he has gained in the tented field are not more conspicuous than his conquest over the hearts of his men, and the familiarity with which he is spoken of and which Kipling has so ably voiced is not the familiarity which breeds contempt, but that which expresses the intimate sympathy between the giver and the recipient. It may not be amiss therefore at the present time, to reproduce Kipling's spirited lines, though they are probably known to most of our readers, as a reminder of the warm affection bestowed by his men on the gallant general, and an explanation of its causes. The lines are as follows:

There's a little red-faced man
Which is Bobs.
Rides the tallest horse he can—
Our Bobs.
If it bucks or kicks or rears,
'E can sit for twenty years,
With a smile 'round both his ears—
Can't yer, Bobs?

Then 'ere's to Bobs Bahadur—little
Bobs—
Bobs, Bobs!
'E's pur pukka Kandarader—Fightin'
Bobs—
Bobs, Bobs!

'E's the Dook of Aggy Chel;
'E's the man that done us well,
'An' we'll follow 'im to 'ell—
Won't we, Bobs!

If a limber's slipped a trace,
'Ook on Bobs.
If a marker's lost 'is place,
Dress by Bobs.
For 'e's eyes all up 'is coat,
'An' a bugle in his throat,
'An' you will not play the goat.
Under Bobs.

'E's a little down on drink
Chaplain Bobs:
But it keeps us outer Clink—
Don't it, Bobs?
So we will not complain
Tho' 'e's water on the brain,
If 'e leads us straight again,
Blue-light Bobs.

If you stood 'im on 'is head
Father Bobs.
You could spill a quart o' lead
Outer Bobs.
'E's been at it thirty years,
And—amassin' souvenirs
In the way o' slugs an' spears—
Ain't yer, Bobs?

What 'e does not know o' war,
General Bobs,
You can arst the shop next door—
Can't they, Bobs?
Oh, 'e's little, but 'e's wise;
'E's a terror for 'is size,
'An' 'e—does—not—advertise—
Do yer, Bobs?

Now they've made a bloomin' Lord
Outer Bobs,
Which was but 'is fair reward—
'An' 'e'll wear a coronet
Where 'is helmet used to set,
But we know you won't forget—
Will yer, Bobs?

Then 'ere's to Bobs Bahadur—little
Bobs!
Bobs, Bobs!
Pocket-Wellin' ton an' arder—Fightin'
Bobs,
Bobs, Bobs!

This ain't no bloomin' ode,
But you've helped the soldier's load,
'An' fer benefits bestowed, Bless yer, Bobs!

These lines, if we remember right were written before the conclusion of the war in South Africa, and were intended to express the feelings of the Indian army, but the same personal affection which attached to him there followed him to Africa, and to-day, in Canada, none will meet with a warmer and more cordial welcome than will "Bobs" from the Canadians who had the honor of serving under him.

Poultry	150,000
Wool	75,000
Eggs	250,000
Total	$10,582,500

The oat crop is certainly underestimated, says a writer in the Westminster, and may safely be put down at 10,000,000 bushels. Much of these oats weighed 40 to 52 pounds to the measured bushel. Our grain is very free from weeds, and this Island is specially well adapted for growing seed, grain. The seed commissioner, Mr. Clark, of the Dominion Agricultural Department, in writing of the seed oats supplied the West last spring, says that this is the best place of which he knows for raising good seed. Add to the quantity and value of our agricultural products, as given above, the value of our fisheries for the same year, and we get a total of about $11,800,000 worth. If to this we add 2,000,000 additional bushels of oats, as I am satisfied we are right in doing, worth $1,000,000, we get a grand total of $12,800,000 worth, the produce of this little "Million Acre Farm," as Prince Edward Island has been called, and of its surrounding waters. As I have said, the yield of these waters might be indefinitely increased. The yield of agricultural products could readily be doubled, as a large percentage of our good lands are not under cultivation. This Province is quite capable of supporting in comfort a population three times as great as it now possesses.

AUX ARMES.

The long-drawn out sweetness of the session of the Dominion Parliament is rapidly approaching its termination, and speculation is rife as to whether there will be still another one, or whether an appeal to the country will be made. In the early part of the year the signs were unpropitious to the latter supposition; there existed a certain amount of financial stringency, and the commercial outlook was by no means couleur de rose, but since then the conditions have materially altered, and the magnificent crop prospect in the west has come just at the right moment. In a month or two, in all probability, vast argosies will be floating eastward, and in a month or two later all the wheels of commerce and industry will be humming. The only reason for the postponement of the elections has vanished, and the reasons for bringing them on have lost nothing of their pressing urgency, but have rather grown more imperative.

And accordingly we see the usual harbingers of a coming campaign in the proceedings of Parliament. Glittering baits are being held out here and there; spendthrift outlays are provided for; supplementary estimates amounting to many millions to be expended on wharves, breakwaters, post office buildings, &c., with a keen eye to local political advantage, and very little regard to the real needs of the communities. There is an appropriation for the Hudson Bay Railway survey, with a definite promise that that railway will be proceeded with forthwith, whether as a public or a private work; there are promises by the Minister of Railways and Canals of immense outlays on a new, or enlarged Welland Canal, and an improved St. Lawrence route; and a big subvention toward steamship service on the All-Red route, long ridiculed and pronounced an absurd scheme by the Premier, but now adopted by him and urged as a pet scheme.

All these are signs of an impending struggle which should not be overlooked, neither should Conservatives allow themselves to be taken unawares. No time should be lost in perfecting the organization of the party in all its ramifications, and our French confrere was right in sounding the call to arms in its issue of Monday last in the following words: "We say then to all the independent electors, to all those who recognize the danger of the present situation and whom the robberies and frauds tolerated and encouraged by the Government have disgusted, there is not a moment to be lost if you desire to put up a good fight with advantage. In the first place pay careful attention to the revision of the electoral lists which will take place next September; in the second place get the candidates ready, and in the third place begin an active campaign immediately." This is no time for supineness and inactivity. The expenditure is increasing at a rate that no sane man can afford to ignore: from the forty-two million of the Conservative expenditure in 1896 it has reached, this year over one hundred and eight and three-quarter millions, and next year will be over one hundred and seventy millions according to the estimates submitted to Parliament as follows:—

Main estimates	$119,237,091
Supplementaries	10,665,637
Vote for seed grain	2,850,000
Railway subsidies	25,536,000
Bridge subsidies	800,000
Guarantee to C.N.R.	7,917,000
Grants to C.N.R.	3,130,000
Total	$170,155,728

and this is not a complete table, for there are many votes carried through in separate bills, as, for example, the increases in salaries for Deputy Ministers, which are to be found in the new Civil Service Act, the lead bounties; and so on.

NO INCREASE FOR CIVIL SERVANTS.

General regret will be felt that the Government has decided that nothing will be done by this Parliament towards increasing the salaries of the civil servants, at least not of the rank and file. No better case could have been made out than that contained in the data so ably prepared by the executive of the Civil Service Association for submission to Parliament nearly a year ago. It was considered by the commission appointed for that purpose and a recommendation made; a bill was brought in to put the recommendation into effect, but at the last moment it is found that the Government has no intention of doing anything for the service this session, which is expected to be the last of the present Parliament. Thus the hopes which have been raised that justice would be done to the service have been dashed to the ground for the time being.

If the Government had no intention of doing anything to improve the condition of the civil service, all the trouble and expense that has been gone to was largely a waste of time and money. To be sure the commissioners' report upon some of the departments was of service in drawing attention to the existing abuses, but nothing has really come of that either. In the case of the marine department the report was so strong that a royal commission had to be appointed to investigate it. But it has been dragging on with such long adjournments between sessions as are calculated to minimize the effect of the revelations and afford opportunity for reorganizing efforts to be made in the meantime. In the case of other departments nothing whatever has been done. Altogether it reminds one of the insurance commission which at great expense to the public investigated existing conditions and abuses and handed in a long list of recommendations, which were to be embodied in an act that would safeguard the public. After a long time had elapsed a bill was brought in, but its provisions not only ignored, but went contrary to most of the recommendations of the Government's own commission. Then the bill was allowed to drop. And there you are. To be sure, one portion of the evidence which incidentally cropped up was made the text for attacking certain members of the opposition in the house, but this recoiled as a boomerang upon the Government. And that incident up to date arising from this large expenditure of has been the sum total of any result public money. Similarly with the Civil Service Commission, the report has been received and a bill brought in, but the civil service has failed to get any tangible advantage from it. To be sure portions of the report have caused spirited debates in the House due to members of the Government resenting the exposures of their departments by the members of the commission. But the unfortunate civil service, like the unfortunate public in the case of the insurance commission, receive small consolation. — Ottawa Citizen.

New Strength For Old Folks

A battleship, that costs about $7,000,000.00 to build, lasts only about ten years.

But ourselves. We are not made of steel. We are not, as a rule, carefully taken care of. Yet we live to six and seven, and even ten times the age of these mammoth structures of steel.

But—there comes a time when folk "begin to feel their age." They have to be careful what they eat. They can't get around as fast as of yore. They haven't the vim and energy of former years. It is nature's penalty for work and worry, neglect and ill-treatment.

This is the call for outside help—for Vin St. Michel. This famous old tonic wine re-builds, re-strengthens, renews youth in old age. Vin St. Michel builds up the entire system—brings back strength and good, sound, vigorous health.

If you are losing strength, if you haven't your old vigor and vitality, don't delay. Get a bottle of Vin St. Michel at once.

WELCOME TO THE CITY OF CHAMPLAIN

A hearty welcome awaits the thousands of visitors to the Ancient Capital. This store invites them all to freely make use of its many conveniences. On the main floor, near the elevator, you will find the Telegraph Office, where you may send messages to your friends at home and tell them of your safe arrival. On the second floor, opening off the Fur Department, is situated the commodious Writing and Rest Room, which will be found delightfully cool and comfortable, and where a large electric fan supplies an artificial breeze for all the world like the cool wind from the river. On the fourth floor is our Magnificent Pure Food Restaurant, attractively decorated with orange trees and Oriental palms, which break the monotony of the innumerable rows of spotlessly covered tables which stretch almost as far as the eye can reach. The view from this Restaurant is ideal, presenting as it does a charming outlook over the surrounding country. Large windows at either end supply an endless current of fresh air. Here you may have a delicious cup of tea, a dish of ice cream or an ice-cold drink of ginger ale, soda or anything else you wish at any hour of the day. On this floor there is also a large show-case, presided over by an obliging young lady, where you will see all the Official Souvenirs of the Ter-Centenary Celebration, attractively displayed and marked in plain figures. EARL ROBERTS

Given a Hearty Welcome Upon Landing Yesterday Morning.

Amid the booming of cannon and the hearty cheers of the assembled crowd, Earl Roberts, Britain's greatest military commander, and the idol of the British army, landed at the King's wharf yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock. Assembled to receive him on the wharf was a brilliant military staff, headed by General Otter, while Sir Chas. Fitzpatrick and other civil dignitaries were also present. A guard of honor of fifty men from the Royal Canadian Garrison Artillery, accompanied by the band, was drawn up to do honor to the gallant soldier, whose presence at the Tercentenary celebration will be of but little interest than that of the heir to the British throne himself.

Earl Roberts, who arrived on the Empress the previous evening, did not land until yesterday morning, when he transferred to one of the launches from the flagship, accompanied by the Duke of Norfolk. As the launch approached the King's wharf a salute was fired from the warships and when Earl Roberts landed the Citadel guns also belched out a salute, the crowd of people who had assembled on the wharf gave him a hearty cheer, the guard of honor presented arms and the band played.

After disembarking Earl Roberts inspected with seemingly great interest the guard of honor, stopping to examine and comment on the medals which were displayed on the breast of many of its members. He then, with the Duke of Norfolk, entered the carriage of the Governor-General and accompanied by Col. Hanbury-Williams and an A.D.C., drove to the Citadel, where he will be a guest during his stay in Quebec. All along the streets crowds of people had gathered to see the hero of South Africa and other hard fought fields of honor, and hearty cheers were given him during his progress.

Earl Grey, who will remain in Canada for some five weeks, will visit Montreal, Toronto and Niagara, but will be unable to respond further to any of the almost countless invitations which have been showered upon him from all parts of the Dominion. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick will entertain Earl Roberts and the Duke of Norfolk at luncheon to-day, and there will also be a dinner at the Garrison Club to Quebec's distinguished military guest next week.

THE TENTED CITY

Distinguished Visitors at This Now Famous Show Place of the Celebration.

Yesterday afternoon His Excellency Earl Grey, Earl Roberts and Lady Eileen Roberts visited the Tented City and were conducted over the grounds by two of the directors, Mr. Wm. Dobell, and Mr. W. H. Wiggs, who were present at the time, also by Mr. A. L. Rowell, the manager, and his assistant, Mr. Dalton. They took a deep interest in all the various arrangements, provided for the comfort of the guests, inspected the different tents and the offices, baggage room, post office, etc. The delightful view from the lookout point where the reception tents are to be placed, commanding the magnificent view of the harbor and the battleships just lying at their feet engaged greatly their attention.

OLD BOY'S REGISTRY.

The Old Boys' registry, at the Tercentenary Information Bureau was opened yesterday morning, and the first name registered was that of Mr. Robert M. Shaw, an old pupil of the Quebec High School, which he attended from 1847 to 1851, and who is now a resident of Montreal. The registry promises to be a most interesting one, and it is earnestly trusted that every former citizen of the Ancient Capital who comes to Quebec for the city's big birthday party will not fail to register his name.

STEAMER ORLEANS.

On the occasion of the Tercentenary festivities, the above steamer will make an evening trip, commencing Monday, 20th July, to Saturday, 1st August, leaving the Island at 7:30 p.m. and from Quebec 10:30 p.m., stopping at St. Joseph de Levis.

FRENCH WARSHIPS ARRIVED.

Two first-class French cruisers, the Leon Gambetta, bearing the flag of Fleet Major General Jauriguerry, Fleet Major General Jauriguerry, of the French North American Squadron, and the Admiral Aube, arrived in port at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the Gambetta anchoring off the Champlain Market wharf and the Aube off the Custom House. As the vessels entered port salutes were exchanged between them and the British flagship. In the afternoon the French admiral landed and drove up to the Citadel to pay his respects to His Excellency the Governor-General which was later returned by the latter. The list of officers of these vessels have already been published in the Chronicle.

 an instance of the popularity of Kent day the elevator carried no less than 6,000 people, who to escape the heat of the town had run down to

BIG RACE MEET
OPENS TODAY
 Finest Lot of Horses Ever Seen in the Ancient Capital.

The army of workmen finished up their work at the exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon and left the grounds with everything in readiness for the opening of the Tercentenary meeting which starts to-morrow and continues for thirteen days. The first race this afternoon will commence at 2 o'clock and one will be run every twenty minutes until the card of five races is run off. The events have been filled well and the class of horses to face the flag will be one of the best that has ever come together on any Canadian track east of Toronto.
 Barney Schriber is the latest arrival with a string of fifteen horses. Mr.
 Schriber does not often race on a Canadian course and it is an honor to the management of this meeting to have his horses start. Mr. Schriber always has a string of first-class horses and believes in giving all new propositions a chance.
 The string of Woods Garth is another that will add prestige to the meeting. This owner arrived at the track yesterday and will start in three of the races this afternoon.
 These horses are equal to any now racing at Windsor and should make a first-class showing at this track. Other horses are not on their way, some of them being held until passed by the customs. There will be more horses at this meeting than at Montreal and the fields will all be on the large size.
 This meeting gives promise of a great racing future for the ancient city of Quebec and there is no reason why this meeting should become an annual affair.
 The improvements at the course are numerous and one would hardly believe what a change has been made without seeing it. This will be the first real meeting that has ever been held east of Montreal. The track will not be hurt by the light rain of last night as it will pack down the cushion which was almost too drop for fast time. There is no reason in the world why all records for a half mile course should not be held at Quebec.
 Everything conducive to good racing has been done and the officials who have charge are all well known in the racing world which assures clean racing.
 The five events will bring out horses that have earned brackets for themselves on many tracks this season and they are well handicapped which will make the finishes close in almost every event as there is not one that stands out over the other. This will make it more interesting to the public and make the prices in the resting much better than in small fields with one horse standing out over all the rest.
 The crowd at the exhibition grounds this afternoon should be the largest that has ever witnessed a race meeting in this city. The enlargement of the grounds will make it much more pleasant for the public as there will not be the usual crowdings. Many layers of odds arrived in town yesterday and will weigh in this afternoon while more are expected on Monday.
 The entries to-day are:—
 First race, six furlongs—Blue Coat, 121; Gresham, 104; Waypost, 112;
 Herman Johnson, 121; Risk, 104; Junir
 Deceiver, 112; Lykers, 102; Star
 Eurlum, 104.
 Second Race, 4 1/2 furlongs—Scattle, 110; Mardella, 95; Precise, 95;
 Thesis, 95; Gold Find, 98; Columbus,
 105; Strathcona, 95.
 Third Race, 1 mile—Sparkles, 99;
 King Cole, 114; St. Noel, 141; Picaroon,
 110; Fr. Somers, 111; Halbard, 111; Mindora, 111; Harmony, 108.
 Fourth Race, 6 furlongs—Ins. Purvis, 115; Ever True, 110; H. Johnson,
 115; Boundin Elk, 105; Autumn King, 112; Bath Brick, 105; Park Row, 112;
 Minnie G., 100; Whisker Broom, 100;
 Star Emblem, 102; Manheimer, 102;
 Tray of Spades, 102.
 Fifth race, 6 furlongs—Allie, 107;
 Gibson, 109; The Chief, 109; Bitter Hand, 109; Capar Sauce, 106; Clifton Forge, 112; Lone Hand, 109; Blue Coat, 112; Niblick, 109; Fieldwick, 109.

The entry list for this afternoon is surprisingly large and will surprise many of the managements of other race tracks. There are over fifty horses named to start in the five events this afternoon which are all of a good class. The field average ten to each event which is about all that can comfortably start on this courses. There should be lots of play on the numerous entries as they have been well handicapped which brings them all on equal terms.
 The first race will bring out a wood field of sprinters which should see Herman Johnson go to the post favorite, with Lykers next and Blue Coat third choice.
 The second event will see a field of seven face the flag with Mardella the favorite on the work she has done around here. Columbus will be the second choice with Thesis third; this is the way they should run.
 The third race will bring together a lot of seasoned horses. The majority of them being winners at recent meetings. In this event Picaroon should win on his races against better horses this spring. King Cole will be the contender, with Sparkles knocking at the door.
 The fourth race will see the largest field of the day go to the post, twelve horses being named to face the starter.
 Autumn King will be the one to beat in this race. He won his last start over a small track with something to spare. He can make the turns handily and looks to be the one best bet.
 Bath Brick will be the contender and right up at the finish. Manheimer should run third.
 The fifth and last race will have a fair field. Niblick should win this race if he is anywhere near his old time self. He has worked well and seems to have his foot. Bitter Hand will be the one for him to beat with Capar Sauce third. The following are the selections:
 First race—Herman Johnson,
 Lykers and Blue Coat.

OFFICIAL SPORTING PROGRAMME
 The programme of military displays and sporting events, which will be held on the Q. A. A. grounds, Grande Allee, during the next two weeks, under the auspices of the Tercentenary Sports Committee, is one of which Quebecers may be justly proud, for never has such an array of attractions been offered in this part of the world. Some eight to ten first-class events are embraced by this programme, besides others of minor importance, and for the convenience of Quebecers wishing to reserve seats for same, a club badge is being issued admitting to all performances for the sum of $5. This is about half the price that would be paid for separate admittances to the different events and as the badge is transferable, if the holder does not wish to use it for on any occasion, he can pass it on to a friend. It secures private entrance to the grounds and a centre seat on the big Grand Stand. This is certainly a bargain, and in view of the general tendency to raise prices at present it is pleasing to find this instance of popular prices prevailing throughout the celebrations, even for the most important events, such as the tuffets, the senior lacrosse match and the official gymkhana. These badges will be on sale at Stocking's ticket office next Monday morning and will surely go like hot cakes.

Claire Fontaine.
 CRICKET MATCH.
 This afternoon, at 2 p.m., the Q. C.
 C. meet a team from the fleet. Following members are requested to be up on time—Major Poole (capt.), Messrs. Macintyre, Pereira, Brice, G.
 Dunn, Marriot, H. B. Price, Newton, Rawland, Webb and Rae, Sportsman, Taylor.

CORNWALLS VS. QUEBEC L. C.

The Cornwall lacrosse players arrive by boat this morning and are bringing their strongest team with them, all hands being anxious to get down here to see something of our festivities.
 The Quebecers on the other hand, under the able management of Captain Chas. Nolan and his staff, are in even better shape than when they won the intermediate championship last year.
 Ever since then they have been eager to match themselves with veterans of the Senior League, confident they can show themselves competent to travel in the same class. Their opportunity has now come and they go on the field to-day prepared to show our public and our visitors that we have in Quebec one of the best teams playing lacrosse to-day.
 The game will start at 3 p.m. sharp, and though the Cornwall's play a hard and fast, though clean and very scientific game, an afternoon of good sport and keen enjoyment is in store for all who attend.
 The Quebec team will be the same as published in yesterday's paper. The Cornwall team will be Lalonde,
 Burns, Cameron, F. Degan, C. Degan, White, De Gony, F. D. Cummins, Donald Smith, Frank Cummins, R. Degan, and Phelan.
 Mr. "Dave" Butler will probably be the referee for to-day's game.

THE NAVAL AND MILITARY SPORTS.
 The official sporting programme opens on the afternoon of Tuesday next, with two hours or so of games and races for the sailors of the fleet, the visiting soldiers, etc., and two gymnastic exhibitions by the Gentimen Cadets of the Royal Military College. Ever since it became known that sixty of the Cadets were coming to Quebec for the Tercentenary, our citizens have been hoping for an opportunity of witnessing their really wonderful gymnastic performances.
 This opportunity has now been provided and those who avail themselves of it will not only enjoy a most brilliant and fascinating performance, but will gain some insight into the thorough and painstaking methods, whereby the Royal Military College of Canada prepares the youth of the country to become its defenders.
 The naval and military sports scheduled for the same afternoon will also be found very entertaining. The sight of our jolly tars on our playing fields, though no novelty to Quebec, never fails to attract attention.
 The announcement that the fleet will participate in any sporting event is always popular.

STEAMER PORTSMOUTH. The Chronicle readers will remember that five days ago a telegram stated that the Steamer Portsmouth, loaded with coal for the British merchant-war, had gone ashore and was in a quite dangerous position. Immediately on being notified of the accident Messrs. Geo. T. Davie and Sons, sent the steamer Lord Strathcona, with a schooner, laden with all necessary saving apparatus to the rescue of the vessel. It was considered that it would take at least a fortnight to bring the steamer out of her dangerous position. The British cruiser Venus was on the spot to lend any assistance which might be required, but her services were dispensed with. Mr. Geo. Davie with his crew, set immediately to work, and yesterday afternoon brought the Portsmouth safely into Quebec harbor and placed her alongside one of the British men-of-war, by order of the Admiral commanding the squadron, for the delivery of a coal supply to each vessel. It may be added that the British officers are quite astonished at the speedy and energetic way in which the whole work has been performed, insaving the steamer and her cargo, and that they are now praising the splendid work done by Mr. Geo. T. Davie and his crew. The Portsmouth is making considerable water, and a steam pump is constantly working on board her.

THE QUEBEC BATTLEFIELDS

By JOHN BOYD.

(Written by a Canadian on the occasion of the Quebec Tercentenary celebration and dedicated to Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, to whose efforts the success of the national movement for the preservation of the Quebec battlefields is largely due.)

I.

Would that the muse that didst inspire The poets of old, princes of song, Would give to one a clarion voice to sing The glories of these battlefields.

II.

Stupendous struggle, the stake an empire, The conflict through the long drawn summer, Wolfe daring all upon a desperate chance, His forces marshalled in the midnight darkness,

III.

Wolfe and Montcalm! Montcalm and Wolfe! Two heroes of a kindred soul To whom a People tribute pays, In life divided but by death united,

IV.

Illustrious Montcalm! Nobleman, scholar and soldier, Devoted martyr to duty, true to thy task, Longed for loved ones but faithful to France,

V.

Intrepid Wolfe! Heroic soul encased in feeble frame, Youthful in years but aged in service, Asking to meet fate firmly and to die nobly,

VI.

Honors for the other heroes, For steadfast Saunders and his seamen Seconding the general's zeal, For Bourlamaque and Bougainville, VII.

Where fell the mighty dead Heirs of their valor and their glory gather Their memory to honor, Hushed all contention, healed all division,

VIII. French Canadians, we hail you as brethren, Worthy sons of those who fought under Montcalm, A handful then, now millions in number,

IX.

Britain and France! Two nations of a mighty past And still more glorious future, In lasting friendship bound,

X.

Republic to the south, we salute thee, Great has been thy progress, mighty thy strength Sprung from one stock our glories in common,

XI.

Honor to those who gave their aid To crown this patriotic work, High praise for him who nobly strove To keep this ground a sacred spot,

SPORTING NEWS.

BRITISH RUGBISTS COMING. Vancouver Has Arranged to Play a Game With the Team Now in New Zealand.

Vancouver, July 17.—At a special meeting of the Vancouver Rugby Football Union, held last evening at the office, it was decided to accept the offer of the British Rugby team now touring in Australia to play a game here on their home in September.

That is a little early for the local Rugby men, but they think that they could get ready for the Old Country team by then.

The Britishers consented to play here on very moderate terms. They intended to come on their return home by Canada anyway, and they will not suffer any inconvenience by stopping off here a few days.

HOW EGAN CAME BACK. Boxing isn't the only profession in which they "come back." Umpiring in the American League is a man who "came back" so strongly that the big leagues were taking notice of him when he decided to give up the pitching box for the indicator.

Jack Egan, 10 years ago, was the best pitcher in the Eastern League and drew a big salary from Providence. He won two pennants for the Grays, almost single-handed, and was the pitching sensation of the league. Then he became an umpire in the same organization.

For three years he umpired, and five years ago again caught the pitching fever. Eastern League magnates laughed at him and refused to tender him a contract.

THE GREAT MEMENTO. What may well be termed the Souvenir of Souvenirs is to hand in the Tercentenary Number of The Standard of Montreal. No wonder the demand for The Standard is enormous, for it is doubtful if ever greater expense was lavished on a commemorative number than is displayed in the case of The Standard. It has evidently not been the aim of the publishers to make money, but to give all Canada and all the world a souvenir that will live through generations.

MINISTER'S DEATH AT PICNIC. New York, July 17.—Rev. H. F. Belcher, pastor of the Hilton Christian Church, of Hilton, N.J., was whirled to his death in a "flying swing," at a Sunday school picnic, given at Verona Lake Park for the children of his church. The pastor had romped and played with the children all afternoon and a number of children finally persuaded him to get into the swing with them. As the machine began to revolve rapidly the pastor seemed to enjoy the ride as much as any of the children. Suddenly he turned pale, however, and slid from his seat to the floor. The

THE NOW VEST-POCKET BOX OF "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Allows Everyone to Try Our This Wonderful Fruit Juice Tablets at a Cost of Only Twenty-five Cents.

Put up in 50c. boxes only, "Fruit-a-tives" has in the last four years gained a tremendous and rapidly increasing sale, and a reputation for remarkable cures in every part of Canada.

During this time hundreds of people have been asking for a 25c. box to try. They have heard of "Fruit-a-tives," and of the benefit it is giving to thousands, but some people hesitate to pay 50c. just to try a remedy that is new to them.

It has been found, too, that many would like to carry a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in their pocket, so as to have them ready for regular use, and the 50c. box is too large for that.

To meet these needs we have put out a new 25c. trial size—a neat, compact little box that can easily be carried in the vest-pocket, and which contains tablets enough to last two or three weeks—long enough to find out that "Fruit-a-tives" is the best remedy of the kind in the world.

There is now no reason why every person in Canada who suffers from Constipation, Biliousness, Kidney or Liver Trouble, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Skin Diseases, Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Headache should not try "Fruit-a-tives" and get quick relief and eventually a complete cure.

"Fruit-a-tives" are concentrated Fruit Juice Tablets. 25c. is all it costs to test the value of the most successful medicine ever produced in Canada.

If your dealer has not both the 25c. trial size and the regular 50c. boxes, write direct to Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont., and we will send to you direct.

LATE JOS. BIGAQUETTE. All that was mortal of Jos. Bigaou, etc., sr., whose unexpected death after a few days' illness cast a shadow over his many friends both in the city and the county, were laid to rest in the parish cemetery at Lake Beauport-vestere, following a solemn mass of requiem in the parish church at which the cure officiated.

GENTLEMEN! we will continue our great sale of $4.95 suits to-day, but this is the last day. Take advantage of it. MARCEAU & CIE., 155 St. Joseph Street.

CURIOUS MEXICAN INDIANS

In Heart of Republic They Maintain Their Ancient Government.

(Mexican Herald). Buried in the heart of a civilized, powerful and progressive foreign people, a little handful of Indians have lived for 300 years, and have contrived to keep during all that time their national characteristics, their traditions and their individuality.

The Amatecas are perhaps the only people in the republic who have succeeded in retaining for themselves what is practically self-government. It must not be understood for a moment that they make any pretensions to being independent of the control of the federal authorities in Mexico City.

Amatlan is a little piece of China in the heart of Mexico. It has built a Tartar wall around itself, and no man may pass that wall without the permission of the authorities. In Amatlan strangers are looked upon with suspicion and mistrust to such an extent that not even traders are allowed in the city without a special permit from the authorities.

When the Spaniards under the conqueror Hernan Cortes landed in Mexico, near Vera Cruz, and began the march to the Aztec capital, the Emperor Montezuma sent several messengers and spies to bring him news of the mysterious strangers. Among others sent was Ocelotl, or the Tiger Prince, as he is known in history and legend.

Ocelotl brought back a complete report to the Emperor, and gave it as his opinion from what he had seen of the strangers that it would require all the strength and cunning of the Aztec empire to contend against them. Montezuma was so angry at this unfavorable report that he ordered Ocelotl to be publicly burned as a coward who wished to frighten with childish tales the courage of his warriors, until then ever successful.

There is a curious legend still told by the Amatecas to the effect that Ocelotl stopped at Amatlan on his way back from Vera Cruz, and that the people flocked about him to hear what he had to say. Ocelotl told them of the fair faces of the strangers, their garments which shone as bright as the sun itself, the great boats they rode, and how they came armed with weapons of the god of thunder and lightning.

Whatever truth there may be in this legend it might well have been true, for it embodied in it the characteristics of the Amatecas as a people. They have ever been clever diplomats. When the Aztecs were at war with all the people around them the Amatecas succeeded in making a treaty of peace with them which protected them from invasion by the Aztec army.

COFFEE AS A WEDDING GIFT. A Custom Which is General in Coffee Growing Countries. "We have a custom in the coffee raising countries," said a high Brazil official, "which is unknown in other parts of the world.

Generally the coffee is opened for the first time when the child marries. The coffee for the reception or marriage feast is made from the legacy, and, according to precedent, this must be the first time the sack is opened. After the coffee is made for the wedding feast the sack is carefully closed and sent to the new home of the young people and should keep them in this state for a year or at least. Clean, Pure, Wholesome

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer

Visit the great Pabst Brewery at Milwaukee, and you will marvel at its immaculate cleanliness. Pabst believes that pure beer demands a clean brewery, and Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer has been recognized for years as the standard of purity in beers.

You demand that your home be clean, and especially your kitchen where your food is prepared. As beer is a food, you have a right to know that the conditions under which it is made insure perfect cleanliness in the best of all beers—

Pabst Blue Ribbon The Beer of Quality

From the time the barley goes into the Pabst malt houses, and the hops into the Pabst brewery, no ingredient used in Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer comes in contact with human hands. Even the air in which the malt is grown, by the famous Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process, is washed and filtered; every kettle, pipe and tank is regularly and thoroughly cleaned and sterilized.

After the beer is brewed the atmosphere never touches it. It is aged in air-tight tanks, it is filtered, bottled and pasteurized; it is a clean beer, just as it is a pure beer—and cleanliness and purity make it a good beer for you to drink.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is rich in the food values of perfect malt and the tonic properties of choicest hops, with a very low percentage of alcohol—less than 3 1/2%—strictly a temperance beverage.

When ordering beer, ask for Pabst Blue Ribbon.

FEMININE FANCY

The day is quite recent when a woman was quite happy if she numbered a white silk and a black taffeta petticoat among her belongings. Now such economy seems foolish. Who would care for a plain silk skirt anyway? A voile or crepe gown is nothing unless the underskirt is a combination of pompadour silk and skirt must, at least, be trimmed with bands of velvet.

The new importation of petticoats to wear under summer dresses is complete and fascinating. Every imaginable style and color has a place in the array, and they are such a final touch, such an added beauty to neglect, that the sight of the shining silk is irresistible to milady.

A white silk petticoat, suitable to wear with a tea gown or under a white lawn dress, has a deep ruffle of tulle silk, lace insertion and pompadour ribbon. Skirts in this design will be the making of many a summer costume. What could be more attractive than a plain white dress, with the band of flowered silk just peeping through the sheer material, and a belt of narrow ribbon to match? It adds just enough color to a plain white dress to relieve it of its mourning look.

For a heavier gown, pongee, chiffon cloth or the new mirage silk, a black taffeta petticoat is shown, the accordion-pleated ruffle finished in alternating bands of black insertion and black and white checks. The most original part of the skirt is that it is lined with white, so the white checks in the bias bands seem to better correspond with the whole. A black silk with a white pin stripe would be more than attractive over this novelty.

A petticoat of pompadour silk shows Alice as its dominating shade, so the flutings on the ruffle are in this color. This petticoat seems to have been designed just to form the underskirt for a suit of the new blue mirage silk. The lusters of the latter will show off to the greatest advantage against the dull finish of the taffeta.

A comparatively plain petticoat to wear under simple linen frocks is made of white taffeta, the deep ruffle composed of alternating bands of material and insertion. As the lace used on this skirt is net, it is most appropriate for a dress of file.

A novelty in silk skirts is the petticoat of white tulle, with little rouchings of white tulle, and is cut very full at the bottom, where the rouchings start just below the knees. The latter are pinked, placed about two inches apart, and are sewn on with a tiny beading at the top. This petticoat is intended to wear under the Paquin skirt, for the stockinet elings to the figure—a necessary virtue in the present day.

A gray taffeta petticoat is trimmed with graduated bands of black velvet, which is stiff enough to hold out the flare at the foot of the dress. It is a good skirt for a cloth suit, and the heavy velvet fortifies it so that it wears a long time.

A black and white striped taffeta is finished with a ruffle of white, trimmed in modified walls of Troy, worked out in velvet. This, too, is excellent for a heavy suit, while the white petticoat with black lace insertion placed in such an original way is only suitable for a house dress of some light weight material—blue chiffon or crepe de chine.

There is no doubt that these new skirts add much to milady's toilet. But the same idea may be carried out in summer clothes by flowered white cotton skirts with dowered lawn or dimity. The chief charm of a French costume is not the sewing nor the finishing, but the cut, combination of colors, and fit. Surely, no matter how poor the material these essential points of a perfect costume may be obtained.

Every season brings some fresh frock or fad for the summer girl, and this year it is footwear. Never in the history of fashion have we had such frivolities in shoes and slippers, such variety in shapes, such vividness in tints.

And in this respect footwear is a matter of evolution. We started with white canvas footwear for the summer girl, got around to fancy pumps and gaiters for the fall girl, cloth tops to match frocks for the winter girl, and were, at length, plunged in real footwear frivolities for summer, 1908.

First in the list of frivolous things come the patent leather vamps with uppers to match the gowns exactly. You can have this in cloth or leather. This is if your frock is of lavender silk enlaced with lace, your shoes will be high, with patent leather vamps and uppers of lavender cloth or glove or suede finish.

Next to the highly tinted uppers leather, the patent in either the kid come pumps of black patent leather with a band of cloth or vividly tinted leather around the instep. This may be of vivid yellow chamois. For housewear, you will see patent leather pumps finished with bands of tinsel ribbon, silver, gold or copper.

White canvas shoes have given way at really smart summer resorts to pumps and ties in natural colored chamois skin, or patent leather with chamois skin in combination.

Among the novelties noted for house wear are slippers of brocade, with a rose or other flower at the point of the shoe, outlined with iridescent beads, gold, silver or pearl or rhinestones. Three straps appear on these slippers with buckles to match the beading or jewellery on the toe. Another conceit showed a slipper of softest brown suede picked out with a pattern in topaz, while an exquisite grey suede slipper was studded with opals and had opals in the buckles.

A great deal of white heading is used to trim both black and brown shoes, and brown suede ties with buckles of copper were worn by a smartly frocked girl at a recent studio tea.

By contrast, hosiery worn with these fancy shoes and pumps is extremely plain. Solid colors in fine lisle and silk come to match all the new shades in costume fabrics, but the open-work stockings and its gaily embroidered cousin have retired in the face of the very frivolous shoes.

Mrs. Elinor Glyn, the English novelist, is in Paris looking for a French actress speaking English who will be able to take the role of the Queen in the new play which has been written from her book "Three Weeks." Mr. James K. Hackett is aiding in the search, but the quest appears to be a difficult one.

The remarkably strong and versatile personality of the heroine demands a number of natural artistic and physical qualities and gifts which are rarely found united in any one artist, and the necessity of playing the part in a foreign tongue adds considerably to the difficulty.

However, Mrs. Glyn is optimistic and has made arrangements with Mr. Hackett to produce the play in St. Louis next month and in New York later.

Mrs. Glyn has just come from America and has given a few impressions gathered during her tour in America. "As a psychologist," she said, "I was, of course, infinitely more interested in the study of the character of the people I met there. In my contemplation of skyscraper monsters, factories and other so-called sights, I must say I have come away with a sincere admiration for the American people generally.

"I made a complete tour of the whole United States except the South, and do you know where I found the most perfect type of manhood? It was in the mining camps of the Far West. Nothing impressed me so much in all America as the true nobility of the miners.

"In them I found all the innate breeding, manners and manliness one has been accustomed to imagine could only be encountered in the true old aristocracy of England.

"They are indeed splendid men. Their chivalry towards women put to shame some of the most polished men of the East. In America any self-respecting woman would be absolutely safe in the miners' camps.

"What a true sense of justice they have. I admire the way they administer law out there. Technicalities and chicanery are unknown. They strike the bedrock of justice. They are grand men and America should be proud of them.

"When Mrs. Glyn left the mining district a deputation of miners, with Governor Hutchinson at their head, presented Mrs. Glyn with a revolver and a badge appointing her a 'deputy constable.'

Mrs. Glyn is proud of both, she said, and has now become an expert shot with the gun, and says the kind thoughts which prompted the gifts make them among her most valued possessions.

"As to America as a whole," continued the novelist, "it is a great country in the best sense of the word. The people are wonderful people, their energy is inspiring; to live among them is a tonic. Of course, everything is not perfect there any more than in old Europe.

"The wings of the American eagle of liberty sometimes have a tendency to grow lopsided. Class and cast are not yet entirely meaningless words in the United States. Americans are not yet quite learned enough to see and judge things in their proper perspective. That is a fault of youth, like children making their first attempt to draw, the effort resulting in a sheet full of animals with proportionally huge bodies and absurd little legs or vice versa.

"Americans are often still children, but," added Mrs. Glyn, with a smile, "they are fine, beautiful children and I love them."

Of American women Mrs. Glyn spoke with great sympathy. She found them, above all things, beautifully "groomed" and dressed and the most perfect hostesses she had seen in any country.

She was not deeply impressed with their profound literary knowledge or culture, of which she had heard. She thought the average of actual knowledge was the same as in other countries, but the natural wit and crispness of the American nation gave it much better expression."

Another 1908 Improvement in
"Hecla" Furnaces

The fire pot is the most effective radiating surface in a warm air furnace. That is why every manufacturer seeks to increase that surface by the addition of cast iron flanges, or pins or corrugations.

As each of these flanges or pins covers a large part of the primary surface of the fire pot there is a limit to the number of such cast flanges as can be effectively used.

The "Hecla" Steel Ribbed (Patented) Fire Pot is a step far in advance of any other fire pot. Instead of thick and sandy cast iron flanges those in the "Hecla" are steel and are neat and clean. Being uniform they can be set so close together that, where we formerly used 19 cast flanges we now use 97 steel ones without covering any more of the primary surface of the pot.

Steel Ribbed (Patented) Fire Pots provide twice as much effective radiating surface as any other fire pots made, and in consequence radiate far more heat with the same amount of fuel.

In a test extending over two years, Steel Ribbed (Patented) Fire Pots showed a saving of 11% in fuel, over cast flanged pots.

Our Catalogue explains other exclusive "Hecla" features.

Correspondence

To the Editor of the Chronicle:—
 Sir,—I see by this evening's Telegraph a notice issued by Mr. Edwin Morgan, honorary secretary of the Veterans' Association, 7th Military District, calling upon the members to meet at the Drill Hall on Monday, the 20th Instant, at 8.30 p.m., for the purpose of taking part in the military review before His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales on the 14th inst.

Webster, says, a veteran is one who has long been exercised in any service or art, particularly in war, one who has grown old in service, and has had much experience.

Many have received the Penion and other medals, who never left the army or navy or heard a shot fired. Surely such would not have the presumption of calling themselves veterans, and to appear as such before the Prince.

I am informed that several refused to receive the medals as they never did anything to deserve such.

Yours truly,
 A PEASIONER.
 Quebec, July 17, 1908.

Editor Morning Chronicle:—
 Dear Sir,—I must congratulate you, Mr. Editor and your conferees for the good work you are doing in voicing the universal expression of regret that the great mass of our citizens will be deprived from seeing and greeting our military and naval visitors, brought at great expense to our city to assist in giving our Tercentenary celebration the eclat of a character that they alone can give. It is therefore to be hoped that this earnest desire of the citizens of Quebec who have spare no pains or expense to bring these forces to a successful issue will not be overlooked and that the proper authorities will take this suggestion of yours Mr. Editor into their immediate and favorable consideration.

Two naval officers while visiting the Tented City expressed the wish to climb to the heights of the Plains of Abraham. Why could not our jolly Jack Tars thus join in the military review on the Plains of Abraham and after the same all march down Grande Allee and St. Louis streets through the Esplanade where thousands of our citizens could view the parade from the Ramparts, continue down St. Anne street past the City Hall, Fabrique street, Palace Hill St. John street and finally disperse at Victoria Park.

If this route is found too long, the various bodies of troops could disperse at the City Hall, the naval brigades going down Mountain Hill and the Military men to their respective localities.

SPECIAL NOTICE—GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM.

The Grand Trunk Passenger trains are now running to and from Levis station instead of Point Levis, and passengers for Grand Trunk trains to and from Quebec will use the Quebec and Levis regular Ferry on Dalhousie street. Beginning Tuesday, July 22nd, Through Pullman sleeping car will leave Levis at 11.30 p.m. for Montreal.

AT THE NICKEL.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather the Nickel was crowded to the doors at each performance yesterday. The audience witnessed a most interesting programme of which the following is a short sketch:—Three Rivers fire, a most interesting and weird set of pictures of this recent disaster. The pictures are taken under considerable difficulties, owing to the smoke, etc. A Good Boy, a very fine story of a poor young boy who had a drunken father and a hard working mother. The young man is successful in breaking his father off his bad habits, and he himself secures a good job. Nellie the Pretty Housemaid, a comedy, in which the joke is on 3 confirmed old bachelors who advertise for a maid. There is no doubt about the beauty. A Dynamite Duel, one of the finest comedies yet shown in this city. The principals are unable to do injury to each other, and finally resort to dynamite which also fails. Misadventures of a Sheriff, a very laughable comedy in which the Sheriff has a wonderful experience. The singing last night was exceptionally fine.

Otter, C.F.E., Commanding the forces regarding the position to be taken up at the Military Review on the 24th inst., before His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

July 15

The most cooling of hot weather beverages is iced "Salada" Tea. It is most delicious.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases if we would properly investigate them and by the use of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvellous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most potent stomach tonic, liver purifier, blood cleanser, tonic and regulator, and blood purifier known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the stomach, are cured by its use. The reason why it cures these and many other affections is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvellous in the unparalleled cure it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weakness and disturbing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of glowing testimonials contained in the following list. It has been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic affections, periods irregular, prolapsus and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of the best medicinal plants, the processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle's wrapper.

We notice that the proprietors of Collier's Weekly so long and favorably known in the United States and Canada have reached out to fresh fields and pastures new, and established a special issue for the Dominion. In doing so they have evinced their usual sagacity by entrusting the editing of it to a well-known Canadian journalist, Mr. H. T. Gadsby, a gentleman whose great experience and abilities whose great experience that he will make it a marked success, and that the tastes of Canadian readers of the weekly will be fully consulted. We wish the new venture into the Canadian field all prosperity, and congratulate Mr. Gadsby on the well-deserved confidence that has been thus placed in him.
