BRITISH NAVY AGAIN ENTERS LIBYAN CAMPAIGN

Supply Base In Tobruk Defence Area Bombarded

Naval Units Have Carried Out Successful Bombardment of Axis Troops and Supplies at Ain El Gazala, Admiralty Announces—Outer Defences of Tobruk Have Been Penetrated by Axis Forces.

London, May 1.—(CP)—British naval units have carried out "a successful bombardment" of Axis troops and supplies in the Ain El Gazala area of Libya, the Admiralty announced today.

The sector is about thirty miles West of beleagured Tobruk, where a British garrison has held on for about three weeks despite a German-Italian drive past beyond the Egyptian border. One side of Tobruk's outer defences, reported today to have been penetrated by Axis infantry and motorized forces, reaches almost to Ain El Gazala.

OUTER DEFENCES OF TOBRUK PENETRATED

Cairo, Egypt, May 1.—(AP)—Axis troops penetrated the outer defences of British-held Tobruk this morning but "fighting is continuing" at the Libyan port, British headquarters announced.

Its communique said the attack was launched last night by infantry striking at the hold-out British garrison inside the Axis lines "in some strength, supported by numerous tanks."

The British forces have held out under siege at Tobruk for about three weeks despite the Axis re-conquest of Libya. German and Italian units swept beyond, by-passing the stronghold, and crossed from Libyan to Egyptian soil in the region of Salum, eighty miles Eastward.

In that time, the British garrison has been under almost constant air attack and has repelled several mechanized thrusts. Nevertheless, it has taken the initiative several times, officers reporting sorties into the Axis lines and the capture of prisoners.

On the East African front, the headquarters war bulletin said 5,500 Italians and 2,400 Colonial troops as well as ninety-three guns had been counted so far as seized around British-captured Dessie, Ethiopia.

The Royal Air Force said heavy casualties were inflicted on Axis troops and motor transport in Libya, with at least one hundred vehicles, thirty of them carrying troops, damaged by machine-gun fire in the Gambut area.

Some damage to the R.A.F. was declared to have been suffered in an attack at Malta. Two of the attacking planes were brought down, the communique said.

CLAIMS GERMAN CASUALTIES IN GREECE LARGE

Australian Government Declares that Germany Suffered "Colossal Losses in Men and Machines."

Melbourne, Australia, May 1.—(CP)—The Australian Government said today it had received advices showing clearly that the Germans had suffered "colossal losses in men and machines" in Greece and that British casualties had been relatively small.

A statement issued jointly by Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden and Interior Minister H. S. Foll said: "Information that has reached the Government so far suggests that Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey was correct in his assumption that operations in Greece have been conducted with a lower loss than might have been expected for the military results obtained.

(Blamey, commander of Australian forces in the Middle East, recently became Deputy Commander-in-Chief of all British forces in that area.)

JUST A SQUIRREL

Kansas City, May 1.—(AP)—He was only a squirrel but: He bit a 76-year-old woman, chased her and her daughter into the house; jumped on another woman's shoulder, nipped her arm three times; left a fourth woman with a lacerated leg; bit a nine-year-old boy on the hands. So ten policemen came to the rescue using a riot gun. The first charge went wild. The second brought down the squirrel—and the treetop.

Evacuation Of British Rearguard From Greece Rapidly Nearing Close

British Middle East Command Reports Numerous Flights by Fighter Planes to Protect "Final Convoys"—Official Statements Indicate that Less Than Nine Thousand British Troops Still in Greek Area.

Cairo, May 1.—(AP)—Removal of British forces from Greece is nearing its end, the Royal Air Force Middle East Command indicated today in a communique which reported numerous flights by fighter planes to protect "the final convoys."

BOTH SIDES SUFFER HEAVILY IN AIR WAR

London, May 1.— (CP) —Increased air offensives by Great Britain and Germany during April cost the Germans 113 planes over and around Britain and the British 106 planes over the continent or returning home, British authorities said today.

German losses, they said, included eighty-seven night bombers and most of the British losses also were bombers.

Authorities disclosed that 3,306 German planes have been downed over and around Britain since the beginning of the war and announced the loss of 863 planes over Britain and of 594 which failed to return from raids on the continent.

ADVICE TO LINDBERGH

Eugene, Ore., May 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt told reporters last night that "if I had received a medal from Hitler, as Col. Charles A. Lindbergh did, I would have returned it long ago. Of course, what Lindbergh does with his medal is his affair."

Rocky Mountain House, Alta., May 1.—(CP)—Damage caused by forest fires raging here since last Friday has now passed the $100,000 mark, it was estimated today.

STUDY NEXT OBJECT OF GERMAN ATTACKS

London, May 1.—(CP)—At least eighty per cent of the British Expeditionary Force in Greece—or about 48,000 men—has been taken safely from the fiery beaches of that conquered kingdom, the War Office announced today, amid speculation as to whether Hitler's next blow would be aimed at the Near East or at this Island itself.

Some informed military circles said a grand scale German attack on Egypt and the Suez Canal by way of Syria and Palestine was likely within ten days while others expressed belief the Nazi high command again was contemplating an invasion attempt on Britain soon.

The language of the Middle East Command communique announcing the withdrawal of 48,000 men from the bullet-spattered beaches of Southern Greece indicated that the perilous operation was proceeding in order to get at least some of the 9,000 remaining men away. Prime Minister Churchill said yesterday the British forces had suffered 3,000 casualties in Greece.

Because the Germans had gained full control of land and air during the fighting around Thermopylae and because they had smashed the only good embarkation port — Piraeus — the British re-embarkation "had to take place from open beaches against continual enemy pressure on land and heavy, repeated attacks from the air," a communique said.

"In such circumstances the withdrawal of large numbers of troops could only be effected at the cost of heavy losses of vehicles and equipment, while rear guards which cover the withdrawal may have to sacrifice themselves to secure the re-embarkation of others."

The troops who escaped, the communique said, retained their individual fighting gear and were taken to areas where they "can undertake further active employment."

Just where this "active employment" would be was a prime question today. Some quarters firmly believed that Hitler's next thrust would be at French-mandated Syria, with air-borne troops moving in from Rhodes or other Eastern Mediterranean islands, and thence at Palestine and Suez. Such a move would by-pass Turkey.

Simultaneously, they said, German and Italian forces in Libya would renew their offensive toward

BRITISH AUXILIARY TAKES FOUR GERMANS FROM U.S. VESSEL

Honolulu, May 1. — (CP) — A British auxiliary cruiser stopped the liner President Garfield in the Pacific Tuesday and removed four German aviators, American President Line agents report.

They said the four Germans, who formerly operated in a commercial air service in South America, had been detained by the United States Immigration Service since last August but had been released on April 23 at San Francisco.

They boarded the President Garfield there. Their names were given as Ewald Flesch, Werner Naumar, Hans Sandkamm and Guenther Katzke.

Washington, May 1. — (AP) — By order of the President, the United States Maritime Commission today began rounding up "at least" 2,000,000 tons of cargo ships to form a great fleet which will carry abroad "vital war materials" now piling up in American ports, and bring in the raw stocks needed by defence industries.

President Roosevelt, himself, was reported ready to order the prompt requisitioning of refugee vessels in United States ports as one of the first steps toward the objective.

Requisitioning of sixty-nine Axis and Danish vessels aggregating 300,000 tons would provide—as a starter—approximately fifteen per cent of the 2,000,000 tons the President called for "at the earliest possible moment."

"Vital war materials are piling up at the ports or delayed at the factories," Mr. Roosevelt declared. "We must supply those ships and at once."

The President directed Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission, to "secure the service of at least 2,000,000 tons of merchant shipping" and to plan operations so as to "make their cargo space immediately effective in accomplishing our objective of all-out aid to the democracies."

Admiral Land's task, as outlined by the President:

1—To arrange for foreign ships or ships which are to be transferred to foreign registry (presumably British) to be placed in service along routes to combat zones, including Great Britain.

2—Reallocation of American-flag ships, including those soon to be completed, on routes outside combat zones, in order that every cargo they carry would be directly or indirectly useful in national defence efforts and the "winning by the democracies of the battle now being waged in the Atlantic."

H. Harris Robson, formerly Vice-President of the United Fruit Company, was placed in charge of the tonnage-finding task, and indications were the Maritime Commission expected to round up the necessary shipping in three ways:

1—By diverting some of the 7,000,000 tons of ocean-going vessels now comprising the merchant marine; by transferring some of the 2,500,000 tons of Great Lakes shipping to inter-coastal trade, thus releasing inter-coastal vessels for the "Bridge to Britain,' and by commissioning army and navy auxiliaries, laid-up last-war ships, lake and

AWARDED LARGE SUM OVER TIRE MISHAP

Montreal, May 1. — (CP) — Victor Desrochers, Montreal mechanic, was awarded $15,144 damages yesterday by Mr. Justice C. G. Mackinnon in a Superior Court action taken against Honore Grenier, taxi-owner.

Desrochers suffered permanent injuries when the front tire of a taxicab blew out, causing the car to crash. Ernest Therrien, another passenger in the cab, was awarded $1,588.

BRITISH WOMEN BORN IN 1919 ORDERED TO REGISTER

London, May 1.— (CP) —The Ministry of Labor and National Service today ordered women born in 1919 to register May 3rd.

The registration will show how the women are occupied and how many are available for war work. It is part of the plan for listing different age groups at regular intervals.

Britain Displays Determination To Maintain Control Over Vital Oil Supplies Of Troubled Iraq

London, May 1.—(CP)—An authoritative source said today the British army had landed a second contingent of troops at Basra despite the assertion of Iraq authorities that Britain was not entitled to do so until troops previously landed have passed through the country.

This source said Britain considered there was no foundation for the Iraq assertion inasmuch as the terms of the British-Iraq alliance provided Iraq should furnish "all facilities and assistance" in its power for the transit of British troops.

"As we are unable to allow clear treaty rights to be altered," the source added, "troop movements proceeded as planned and troops duly arrived at Basra without any incident."

The first British troop landings there took place April 17-18.

The British Ambassador in Baghdad, Sir Kinahan Cornwallis, was said to have told Iraq authorities that Britain considered her action fully covered by terms of their treaty.

London, it was added, instructed Sir Kinahan to take any steps necessary to ensure safety of British women at the time of the overturn of the Iraq government a month ago.

(Baghdad advices reaching Vichy yesterday via Beirut, Lebanon, said Britain had taken measures to remove British women and children from the country).

The original landings in Iraq were to protect Iraq's rich oil fields, in which Britain has large capital, and to preserve communications.

Iraq may be one of the objectives of Germany in any further military moves into the Southeast.

Presumably the British movement "through the country" referred to in London as well as in the Baghdad-Vichy dispatches means deployment of troops in Iraq.

Iraq is bounded by Iran, Saudi Arabia, Trans-Jordan, Syria and Turkey.

House Of Commons Returns To Debate Of Farm Issues

Western Members, Fearing Farm Income May Be Reduced Under New Wheat Policy, Urge Measures Be Taken to Prevent Foreclosures—Liberal Criticizes Text of Opposition Motion on Farm Issues.

By FRANK FLAHERTY
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Ottawa, May 1. — (CP) — Alarmed that Prairie farm income may be reduced under the Government's 1941-42 wheat policy, two Western members have urged in the House of Commons that action be taken to protect farmers from losing their land through mortgage foreclosures.

Speaking in the long debate on agriculture in the House of Commons yesterday Mrs. Dorise Nielsen (Unity, North Battleford) and G. H. Castleden (C.C.F., Yorkton) denounced the Government's wheat acreage reduction programme as unfair to the Western farmers and dangerous to farmers in other parts of the country.

They feared limitation to be placed on the amount of wheat farmers may sell would make it impossible for them to meet payments on mortgages and so lead to their losing their farms.

Mr. Castleden suggested the Government take action under the War Measures Act to prevent any farmer from being forced off his land and Mrs. Nielsen proposed a general moratorium on all farm debts.

While most of the discussion turned on wheat Hughes Cleaver (Lib., Halton) charged Conservatives with seeking to make a political issue out of farm conditions.

He said that by bringing the subject up on an amendment to the motion to resolve the House into Committee of Supply they prevented a fair and impartial discussion. They put Liberal members in the position of voting to throw out a Government which was carrying on a war and bring on an election, or voting against agriculture to defeat the Opposition amendment.

Speaking from personal experience as a farm operator, Dr. H. A. Bruce (Con., Toronto-Parkdale), eminent surgeon and former Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, said instead of growing less wheat Canada should join with other nations of the Empire and the United States in offering good supplies to the nations of Europe the moment the aggressors are overthrown. Such an offer, he said, would have an important effect on the length of the war.

He also condemned the Government for not offering wheat to Great Britain as a gift. He said if this had been done earlier rationing of food might not have been necessary in Great Britain.

Liguori Lacombe (Lib., Laval-Two Mountains) said farmers and farmers' sons should be exempt from military service.

Philip Picard (Lib., Bellechasse)

Iraq Petroleum Believed Chief Object Of Reich Eastern Drive

By J. F. SANDERSON
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Washington, May 1.—(CP)—Hitler's long-range objective in the Balkans and the Middle East is Iraq oil, not Russian wheat, in the opinion of many military and diplomatic observers here.

They suggest that Hitler has decided that if he can gain control of the Eastern basin of the Mediterranean, including Egypt and the Suez Canal, and bring Middle East oil into his European "new order," he will solve his greatest supply problem and go a long way toward wartime self-sufficiency.

Russia, they suggest, plays no part in a grandiose scheme of those dimensions despite rumors for many weeks, reiterated by Prime Minister Churchill and other British leaders, that the Soviet bread basket, the fertile plains of the Ukraine, are next, or at least high up on the list of German objectives.

Taking a realistic and objective view of the aftermaths of the Balkan campaign, military observers here see Britain's position in Egypt seriously threatened. They believe that Turkey, once regarded as almost an ally of Britain's, will be in no position to resist pressure for a German corridor across Asia Minor. They also suggest that Russia, to gain time for defensive plans and also to escape entanglement with Germany over the Ukraine, may agree to exert pressure on the Turks to co-operate with Hitler.

Sir Archibald Wavell's forces in Egypt may be caught in a pincer movement, it has been suggested here, with force applied by a German-Italian army operating along the North African coastline and a German army moving across Asia Minor in the general direction of the Iraq and Iran oil fields.

Whether the Western gateway to the Mediterranean, the fortress of Gibraltar, plays any part in this scheme is, of course, unknown, but it was regarded as significant that the United States Government a few days ago decided to send a military observer to Tangiers on the North African coast, across from the rock.

One of the prime reasons for the earlier successes of the Army of the Nile and the present control of the Mediterranean by the British fleet has been easy and constant access to the Middle East oil fields. If they fell into German hands, it would prejudice, if not cripple, Britain's whole Middle East operations.

Labor Leaders Ban Sympathetic Strike In Canadian Steel Mills

Ottawa, May 1.—(CP)—Locals of the C.I.O. Steel Workers Organizing Committee in Eastern centres today received instructions from their regional director to give up any plans for a twenty-four-hour work stoppage Friday.

The director, Silby Barrett, announced early this morning he had sent the instructions to the large branches of the union at Sydney, Trenton and Amherst in Nova Scotia, and Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.; and to three smaller locals in Hamilton.

Yesterday, at Montreal, Mr. Barrett said he had information that three locals—at Sydney, Trenton and Sault Ste. Marie—planned to stay away from work for twenty-hour hours Friday to discuss the strike of three hundred employees of the Peck Rolling Mills at Montreal.

But early today, shortly after his arrival here, Mr. Barrett told The Canadian Press:

"Nothing whatever will happen on Friday. My instructions virtually amount to orders that there must be no staying off work and that no meetings are to be held."

Today Mr. Barrett was to confer with Federal Labor Department officials in an effort to end the week-old strike at the Peck Mills.

"I hope that we can arrange a settlement and nothing must be done to jeopardize our success," he said, adding that he would keep union locals advised of developments.

Meantime, the possibility of another strike arose in Montreal. The Ornamental and Iron Workers' Union there voted last night to go out on strike unless demands for a wage increase of ten cents an hour are granted.

Members of the Union are engaged both in the building industry and manufacturing. The Builders Exchange—an association of Montreal building contractors—yesterday offered a five-cent pay increase but this was rejected.

Alan Wright, field representative of the S.W.O.C. was to take the men's decision to the Builders Exchange today. Present wage rates range from fifty to seventy cents an hour.

Mr. Barrett's instructions to locals to abandon plans for staying away from work Friday were issued only a few hours after em-

OCEAN HOPPER AIDED RESCUE OF BIG GROUP

Commander of Flying Boat Discovered Crew of Sunken Merchantman Afloat in Mid-Atlantic.

London, May 1.—(Ø)—A flying boat en route to Britain from the United States was instrumental in effecting the rescue of survivors of a torpedoed merchantman in the Atlantic, the Government announced today.

A joint Admiralty and Air Ministry communique said:

"While still several hundred miles out in the Atlantic, a Catalina flying boat on her way to England from the United States of America reported sighting lifeboats containing survivors from a torpedoed merchant ship.

"A destroyer was immediately dispatched to the position indicated and the occupants of the boats have been rescued."

The flying boat's commander, Flt.-Lt. R. W. Gautrey, made the discovery when, 1,000 miles from Britain, he descended to 6,000 feet to avoid strong headwinds.

"God, what a path of oil," he shouted. Six other crew members peered at the sea and confirmed the commander's observation.

"A ship has gone down," one said.

The big flying boat already had overshot the patch when one fascinated watcher saw a small flashlight stabbing the fading night with Morse signals.

Flt.-Lt. Gautrey quickly turned his plane and pushed her down in a whistling glide. He discovered the strangely sparkling sea patch was not so much an oily complexion as nine lifeboats, one of which was towing a raft. All were signalling to the flying boat.

By this time the crew were low enough to see occupants of the lifeboats standing up. Conspicuous were Lascars in dungarees, greasy and grimy from their engine room work.

Meanwhile the wireless operator of the flying boat was advising the Admiralty the exact position of the survivors.

"The occupants of the boats seemed to be in good condition," Gautrey reported. "I do not think the vessel could have been sunk more than six hours earlier—probably in the middle of the night. All the boats appeared to be full and were close together."

They were still in that formation when a destroyer steamed up and took them all aboard a few hours later.

UNITED STATES TAXATION PLAN IS CONDEMNED

United States Chamber of Commerce Committee Attacks Methods by Which Treasury Plans to Raise Funds.

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—The way in which the United States' Treasury proposes to raise $3,500,-000,000 in new taxes was termed "severe and unrealistic" today by a United States Chamber of Commerce fiscal official who called instead for a $2,500,000,000 increase in revenue and a $2,000,000,000 cut in non-defence expenditures.

In a speech prepared for the opening session of the Chamber's final convention today, Ellsworth C. Alvord, Chairman of the Finance Committee, also said that it was better to guard against inflation by increasing the production of non-defence goods, rather than by taxing consumer purchasing power, as the Administration's programme contemplates.

Alvord, a Washington attorney, said the Administration's tax programme, which Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau recently laid before Congress, was "realistic" insofar as its "demands" were concerned, but that the methods "are severe and unrealistic."

Compared with taxes raised this year, he said, those demands represent "increase of eighty per cent in income taxes, one hundred per cent in estate and gift taxes and sixty per cent in excise taxes."

YUGOSLAV NAVY VESSELS REACH BRITISH PORT

Submarine and Two Motor Torpedo Boats, Reportedly Sunk by Nazis, Actually in British Hands.

London, May 1.—(Ø)—A Yugoslav submarine and two Yugoslav motor torpedo boats have arrived at a British port, the Admiralty announced today.

The Admiralty statement said:

"The Italians have announced that the Yugoslav submarine Nebojsca and two Yugoslav motor torpedo boats have been sunk. There is no truth in these reports, the vessels concerned having already arrived safely at a British port."

Jane's Fighting Ships list the Nebojsca as a 975-ton craft built in 1927. The vessel, one of four submarines in the Yugoslav navy, has a cruising radius of 5,000 miles and normally carries a complement of forty-five men.

TO OUST MINORITY

Budapest, Hungary, May 1.—(AP)—The military commander of the Hungarian-occupied part of Yugoslavia has ordered "all Serbs, Bosnians, Montenegrins, Gypsies and Jews and their descendants who were not Hungarian citizens before October 31, 1918, "to move out within three days beginning at 8 a.m., May 28."

The Hungarians reclaimed three small areas of Yugoslavia after the German dissolution of the kingdom created partly out of the former Austro-Hungarian Empire after the First Great War.

(The announcement today did not say where the deportees are expected to go.)

The decree made exceptions of husbands and wives of German and Hungarian nationals, women within two weeks of childbirth and persons more than seventy-five years old.

Those forced to leave, it said, may take only the property they can carry with them and enough money to cover their expenses.

The newspaper Pest reported from Zagreb, where there are about 10,-000 Jews, that President Ante Pavelic had approved a new Jewish law for Croatia providing that only those who can prove they are Croats and non-Jewish and have not actively opposed the Croat movement, will be considered citizens.

The race law is similar to that in Germany, distinguishing among Jews, half-Jews and quarter-Jews. All changes of Jewish names since December, 1918, lose their validity.

Ottawa, May 1. — (Ø) — The Secretary of State Department announced today publication of the French language weekly newspaper La Droite, of Quebec, has been prohibitied under the Defence of Canada Regulations as being "prejudicial to the safety of the state and the efficient prosecution of the war."

The paper has been published by Ernest Drolet.

(The prohibited publication has no connection with the French language daily newspaper Le Droit, published in Ottawa.)

GERMAN NAVAL BASES AGAIN UNDER ATTACK

Royal Air Force Subjects Kiel to Heavy Raiding and Attacks Objectives in Berlin District.

London, May 1.—(Ø)—Strong Royal Air Force bomber squadrons centred their attack on the German naval base at Kiel last night, an Air Ministry communique said, and also hit at targets in the Berlin area, the industrial centre of Hamburg and the Port of Emden.

Other harassing raids were made yesterday on shipping off the Netherlands coast, and a wireless station on an island off the Norwegian coast was bombed, the Ministry said.

One British plane was lost in the attacks.

THE GERMAN VERSION

Berlin, May 1.—(AP)—Berlin had a short air raid alarm last night but a Government announcement today claimed hostile planes failed to reach the city.

Only a small number of raiders attempted to attack the German capital, it was said, and they were turned back by strong defences. A few bombs were dropped on the outer fringe of the city, but they caused no damage, authorized sources claimed.

British air forces also were reported to have made flights over the North German coastal region.

(Authoritative sources in London said merely that British bombers had "operated over Germany last night.")

DEMANDS JAPS CONTINUE WAR FOR NEW ORDER

Pro-Nazi Group Declares that Government Should Take Every Opportunity to Extend Influence.

Tokyo, May 1.—(AP)—A resolution urging the Japanese Government to follow a vigorous and unyielding policy in the organization of "Greater East Asia" was adopted today by the Tohokai Group (formerly a political party with pro-Nazi leanings) under the leadership of Seigo Nakano. Some 5,000 delegates from all sections of Japan resolved:

"That the Government be urged to carry out a world policy with the three-power pact as its axis, in accordance with the Imperial Rescript, and that a holy campaign for the emancipation of Asia be brought to a successful conclusion by securing the South forthwith . . . for construction of a Greater East Asia; and that the Government and people solidly unite to surmount an unprecedently difficult situation by pledging unswerving devotion to the Emperor."

(Before the inauguration of a one-party system by Premier Prince Konoye, the Tohokai as a party held twelve seats of 466 in the Lower House of Japan's Parliament).

An editorial in the newspaper Nichi Nichi today described the Battle of the Atlantic as a decisive phase of the war and an outgrowth of United States actions in aid of Britain. Nichi Nichi predicted it would be won by Germany.

Labor Leaders

ployees of the large Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation plant at Sydney, N.S., had decided to go ahead with plans for a twenty-four-hour work stoppage despite an appeal from Labor Minister McLarty that they be on the job as usual.

J. H. Fraser, superintendent of the Sydney plant, said the work stoppage would be "a setback to the war effort, considering nearly all our production goes for war purposes."

In Trenton, G. Miller Dick, local S.W.O.C. chairman, also had said union members there intended to "continue to support the proposed twenty-four-hour walkout."

However, reports from Sault Ste. Marie conflicted with Barrett's information. Ivan J. Campbell, Union representative there, said his local's plans for a walkout had been cancelled.

Today Mr. Barrett said he was confident no walkout would occur at any plant Friday, in view of the instructions he had sent out.

The Peck Rolling Mills strike, involving three hundred members of the S.W.O.C. is just over a week old. The employees are demanding a minimum wage increase from 30.7 to 40 cents an hour.

Before the strike was called a conciliation board had recommended in a majority report that no pay increases be granted, but subsequently the Labor Department announced the employees' claims would be examined again. The Peck mill is a subsidiary of Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation.

MEDITATIONS OF A WAR LORD

Adolf Hitler, who rose from a World War cor poral to become the world's greatest War Lord, appears in meditation as he examines the memorial stone from Sarajevo, Serbia, commemorating the assassination there of the Austrian Archduke Ferdinand which precipitated the first World War. The stone was brought to Berlin after the fall of Yugoslavia to prove Serbian "war guilt."

FIVE LEADERS IN CANADIAN LIFE HONORED

Laval University Awards Doctorates to Five Canadians at Formal Opening of New Mining School.

Quebec, May 1.—(Ø)—Honorary Doctorates from Laval University—presented in conjunction with ceremonies at the formal opening of the University's new mining building at suburban St. Sacrament—were held today by five prominent Canadians.

The Doctorates were given at a special convocation in the Grand Seminary here last night after Cardinal Villeneuve had officiated at the dedication of the five-storey addition to Laval's Science Faculty. Addressing a distinguished audience, the Archbishop of Quebec described the event as of national importance.

Ontario Mines Minister Robert Laurier, one of the five men received the honorary degrees, told a predominantly French-Canadian audience in his speech of acceptance:

"The English-speaking Canadian is not your enemy—he is just beginning to know and understand you. And we French-Canadians now are realizing the fact that we have more friends in English Canada today than we had twenty years ago."

Mr. Laurier received an honorary Doctorate in Law in company with James Y. Murdock, President of Noranda Mines, Limited, and Hector Authier, a former Quebec Mines Minister. A Science Doctorate was conferred upon Archbishop Alexandre Vachon of Ottawa, former Laval Rector who also was Dean of the Science Faculty.

Cardinal Villeneuve's address at the afternoon dedication preceded short speeches by Prime Minister Godbout and Opposition Leader Maurice Duplessis. Included in the audience were Mrs. Ildebrando Antoniutti, Apostolic Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, and Principal F. Cyril James of McGill University, who addressed a dinner meeting at the Grand Seminary later.

The Cardinal, outlining the contributions of the Roman Catholic Church to science, said it had always been the policy of the Church to set up a school beside each chapel.

"The Church has been source of inspiration and protection for the sciences—for the practical sciences as much as for the speculative ones," he said. "Faith and truth cannot be contradictory and the Church has always believed in its duty to encourage scientific advancement."

Premier Godbout said the school was necessary to "meet the competition of other Provinces," and answer "youth's great thirst for knowledge." Mr. Duplessis pledged full co-operation towards the school's success in his address.

QUEBEC PLANS NEW ADVANCES TO UNIVERSITY

Special Grant of $2,500,000 to University of Montreal for Completion of Buildings Announced.

Quebec, May 1.—(Ø)—The Provincial Government plans to grant the University of Montreal $2,500,000 to complete its building atop Mount Royal, Provincial Secretary Hector Perrier told the Legislative Assembly yesterday.

The Government, Mr. Perrier said, also plans to buy for $800,000 the buildings the university is using at present in order to help the university pay off its debts.

Mr. Perrier said that the Government wanted to make the University of Montreal "a monument to the glory of the province, the country and of French civilization."

The House previously gave final reading to bills to amend the Collective Agreement Act and to amend the Municipal Code. The Collective Agreement amendments will allow the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council by decree to set the minimum prices barbers and hairdressers may charge for services rendered. The changes to the Municipal Code will give women the right to vote and hold office in towns and villages which come under its provisions.

At a morning sitting, the Assembly gave third reading on division to a bill which will allow the Government to set up a commission to inquire into insurance rates in the province.

URGES COMMERCIAL FLYING SCHOOL

Quebec, May 1.—(Ø)—Opposition Leader Maurice Duplessis urged in the Legislative Assembly last night that the college at Victoriaville, Que., which the Provincial Government plans to acquire for use as a Royal Canadian Air Force training school, be kept open after the war to train commercial flyers.

Mr. Duplessis made the suggestion after Provincial Hector Perrier said the college probably would be turned into an arts and trade school when the war was over.

The Government seeks the right to buy the college from the Sacred Heart Brothers for $850,000, and to rent it to the Dominion Government which in turn will place it at the disposal of the R.C.A.F. The Federal Government, Mr. Perrier said, would pay $175,000 to rent the college for two years and will have the option of occupying it for another three years if the war is not over.

Mr. Duplessis hoped that in two years "Hitler and his gang will have received that which they merit," and that the school would be used for commercial flying purposes after the war ends.

The bill was given second reading on division.

2—By replacing the one-ship-a-week now being built into immediate commission. Under its building programme the Maritime Commission expects to finish seventy-one ships agregating 700,000 tons this year; 2,500,000 tons next year; and between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 tons in 1943.

3—By acquiring some of the approximately one hunderd foreign-flag ships now in United States ports by speeding legislation empowering the President to take them over for the "common good," by purchase, requisition or charter.

Washington, May 1. — (AP) — The rapidly developing Axis threat to the Suez Canal caused speculation today in diplomatic quarters on the likelihood of United States Navy patrol operations in the Indian Ocean along the lanes travelled by shipments of Lease-Lend supplies that may be bound for Egypt.

Belief was expressed that such shipments were highly probable in view of known British needs in the Middle East, particularly after the heavy losses of equipment in the Battle of Greece.

Since the elimination three weeks ago of the combat zone which closed the Gulf of Aden and the Red Sea to United States shipping, there has been no official ruling as to whether United States merchantmen would be permitted to carry strictly military cargoes over that route.

At the time, however, President Roosevelt indicated that he saw no reason why such shipments could not be delivered to Egypt, a technical neutral. He made it plain that the administration would not be over-sensitive on the point if war materials delivered to a neutral port in American bottoms ultimately found their way into the hands of a belligerent.

Regardless of the final ruling on the question of transporting military supplies in American ships, diplomatic sources pointed out that at least one United States shipping company already has made application for Government permission to operate to Egyptian ports via the Red Sea.

Should this line with a fleet of more than twenty freighters begin operations, informed sources said, it would come under the protection of which Mr. Roosevelt spoke on April 14th. On that occasion he told his press conference that it was the law that the United States Government protest its ships wherever they go, so long as they stay out of the combat zones defined in the Neutrality Act. This statement came four days after elimination of the zone blocking the way to Egypt.

Naval men said the obvious methods of protection were arming the merchantmen, establishing naval patrols or giving the ships naval escorts. Mr. Roosevelt told reporters, however, that he knew of no discussion for arming the vessels.

This remark of the President's coupled with the known fact of Axis raider operations both in the Pacific and Indian oceans made it seem probable, in the opinion of informed persons, that some type of naval protection would be afforded.

While this discussion of patrol activity progressed, opponents of the administration foreign policy considered fresh efforts to get anti-convoy resolutions before the Senate for action.

They lost one skirmish yesterday when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee shelved proposals on the subject. However, Senator Charles Tobey (Republican, New Hampshire), author of one of the resolutions, served notice that "We have just begun to fight."

SOVIETS ISSUE FRESH WARNING TO AGGRESSORS

Defence Commissar, at May Day Ceremonies, Reviews Modernization of Soviet Armed Forces.

Moscow, May 1.—(AP)—A warning by Defence Commissar S. K. Timoshenko that Russia is ready "to offer an annihilating rebuff to any encroachment by imperialists" ushered in a great display of the Red army's might today as the Communist Party celebrated May Day in traditional fashion.

Timoshenko's warning was issued in a special order of the day acclaiming Russia's achievements during the past year and emphasizing steps taken to reorganize her armed forces "in the light of experience and modern warfare" at the behest of Joseph Stalin.

He declared that it is the Soviet Government's intention to adhere to a peaceful policy, but asserted soberly that "the present international situation is pregnant with all kinds of surprises."

"In these conditions," Timoshenko said, "the Red army must keep its powder dry and be in constant mobilization and preparedness so that no 'accident' and no tricks of our foreign enemies can catch us unawares."

Timoshenko, who was named Defence Commissar a year ago and charged with the task of overhauling the army, called upon Soviet workers to labor ceaselessly to help "consolidate the defensive capacity of the country."

"Everyone of us must work extensively and persistently to accomplish this task with credit so that the Red Army may always be ready to defeat the enemy," he said.

Moscow's great Red Square as usual was the centre of the nation-wide May Day demonstration. Government and party leaders assembled there at the base of Lenin's tomb in front of the red-walled Kremlin to review a gigantic parade of troops and workers.

Stalin himself, flanked by members of the Politburo, watched the spectacle from a special stand atop the red marble mausoleum.

Massed columns of troops, mobile guns, tanks and other military equipment flowed through the square in a long procession as formation of warplanes roared overhead.

Youth of fourteen to seventeen years, wearing the black silver-buttoned uniform of the State Labor Reserve Corps formed last November, occupied a prominent place in the great parade.

Military demonstrations were staged in other cities throughout the country and there were great displays of aerial strength in fifty localities.

Iraq Petroleum

It is not being suggested that Hitler will start immediately on the long, tortuous road across Asia Minor. He still has mopping-up operations in Greece, the Greek islands and in Yugoslavia to complete.

One of the complicating factors in the picture is the internal conditions in Iraq where a British force recently landed as a result of a change in government. The reliance that Britain places in Iraq oil was demonstrated by the haste with which this force entered Iraq when a new government, reported to be pro-German in its sympathies, took power by a coup d'etat.

the Suez Canal from the West in an effort to close a giant military pincers.

Other experts, however, reasoned Germany was aiming now at the long-threatened invasion of Britain.

"Hitler has been successful thus far," a spokesman of this group said, "because he has done what he was not counted on to do. He is expected to turn the Near East, so he may try to land here."

They said their reasons for thinking that invasion might be imminent included:

1.—There is favorable weather ahead.

2.—The German air force has been hitting Plymouth and Portsmouth naval bases especially hard in the last fortnight.

3.—German long-range guns in France have been far more active recently.

4.—German E-boats have been busy in the Channel.

5.—Daylight reconnaissance has been vastly increased.

6.—Aid from the United States is increasing in volume.

The Middle East Command, using words reminiscent of those employed to tell of the great withdrawal from Dunkerque eleven months ago, said the withdrawal from Greece was a "noteworthy achievement" by the navy, the merchant service and the air force.

"Smiths" Of Canada Open Campaign For Purchase Of A Fighter Plane

They don't do things in a hurry but the "Smiths" have finally got around to it and plans are being prepared for the organization of a campaign to collect money from the Smiths in Canada for the purchase of a fighter plane for Britain.

Launched by Ald. John Smith, of St. Catharines, Ont., the drive will have the approval of the Department of National War Services through the "Wings for Britain" organization and contributions will be directed to Arthur R. Doble, Wings for Britain, 215 St. James Street, Montreal.

Following is the partial text of a letter which City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers received today from City Clerk Herbert H. Smith of St. Catharines:

My dear Sir: Alderman John Smith of the City Council here has in mind organizing a Dominion-wide group of "Smiths" for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase a fighter plane or planes for Britain, and he has made application to the Department of National War Services at Ottawa for authority to centralize such funds raised through the "Wings for Britain" organization with head offices at Montreal. The cost of one plane is estimated at $22,350.00, and the purpose is to have all people in the various cities of Canada by the name of "Smith" to contribute to this fund by organizing a local committee to collect funds and forward same direct to the Honorary Secretary-Treasurer Arthur R. Doble, Wings For Britain, 215 St. James Street West, Montreal.

The plane or planes, if more money than will purchase one plane is raised, will bear the name "Smith" and the National Defence Committee will give information on this plane, including its battle record. Photograph of the plane will be sent as soon as it is ready to join whatever unit it is attached to in England. Individual Spitfire funds contributing through "Wings for Britain" will be given full credit and keep their own identity.

Of course, it is not the intention to limit the contributions entirely to persons by the name of "Smith" and any contributions would be gratefully received.

Thanking you, I am,
Yours faithfully,
H. H. SMITH, City Clerk.

UNDERWRITERS' HEAD STRESSES NEED FOR UNITY

H. O. Wright of Saskatoon, President of Canadian Life Underwriters Association, Addresses Local Body.

Greater unity and understanding between the two great races was necessary if Canada was to fulfill the important role which it has been called upon to play in the British Commonwealth, H. O. Wright, of Saskatoon, President of the Canadian Life Underwriters' Association, said yesterday in an address before the local branch of the body at a dinner held at the New Chateau.

The National President gave a brief review of the work of the Underwriters' Association, tracing the improvements in its conditions since its inception in 1906. He told of the growth of the association to its present strong position and gave an outline of its policies, linking the investments of life insurance to the war effort and its necessity to home front economy.

Also present at the meeting was Rene Pelletier, Provincial Vice-President of the Association. During the business discussion, fifteen applications for membership were received and presented to Mr. Wright. A vote of thanks was tendered the speaker, on behalf of the local Association, by E. Caron.

LOCAL LIQUOR VENDORS STILL AWAIT LICENCE

Provincial Government Has Not Yet Issued Licences Subject to Renewal on May 1.

Technically there are hundreds of law-breakers in Sherbrooke today and believe it or not the party responsible for their breaking the law is the Quebec Provincial Government.

Under the provisions of the Quebec statutes permits for the sale of beer, wine or hard liquor in taverns, clubs or grocery stores expire at the end of April. Usually these permits or licenses are renewed before May 1 but this year no new permits or licenses have been issued as yet.

Because of the failure of the Government to renew the licenses, all the clubs, taverns and grocery stores in the city are today selling liquor illegally.

Reason for the failure of the Government to renew the permits and licenses is believed to be the fact that a new bill has just been introduced in the Quebec Legislature amending the existing Quebec Alcoholic Liquor Act. Under the provisions of the new bill which is destined to curb the consumption of hard liquor certain establishments will be curtailed in their operations.

RAIN HELPS TO QUELL FIRE IN BOLTON REGION

Bush Fire Spreading from Near Mansonville Threatened to Attack South Bolton —Raged for Three Days.

A bush fire which for a time threatened the village of South Bolton, and which had raged for three days, was extinguished yesterday by a detachment of fire fighters who were assisted by the steady rainfall which lasted throughout the morning.

Breaking out Sunday close to the Bracey farm near Mansonville, the fire swept across grass and woods in the direction of South Bolton, and the best efforts of the Mansonville Fire Department, volunteers from South Bolton and Provincial Government employees from Mount Orford Park were needed to keep the flames from getting beyond control and spreading into South Bolton.

The flames swept to within about a mile of South Bolton until finally put under control on Tuesday, but it was not until yesterday's rainfall that the fighters were able to extinguish them. According to a Mansonville source no damage to buildings or injuries were caused by the blaze.

MEMORANDUM TO COUNCIL FROM G. D. WADSWORTH

Agreement Entered into by City and Q.C.R. in 1897 Subject of Discussion Between Contracting Parties.

An agreement between the City of Sherbrooke and the Quebec Central Railway, entered into in 1897 and under which the city gave the company property in Sherbrooke with the provision that the company would always operate its shop in this city, is now the subject of discussion between the contracting parties, and G. D. Wadsworth, General Manager of the Q.C.R., has issued a memorandum to the Mayor and Council members outlining the company's position on the question.

The city has notified the company that it will take legal action to recover $15,000 which it is claimed is the cost of the property given the company. Grounds of the action are that in closing the shop the company violated the terms of the 1897 contract.

Following is the text of the memorandum written by the Quebec Central Railway general manager:

"When the agreement in question was entered into between the City of Sherbrooke and the Quebec Central Railway on December 24, 1897, the total shop staff numbered about thirty employees.

"The agreement did not stipulate the number of employees to be engaged but it did specify a minimum expenditure for the new shops and machinery of $30,000, also containing the provision that should the shops be removed from the City of Sherbrooke the Quebec Central would refund to the City the amount for the real estate purchased and deeded to the Company not exceeding $15,000.

"As to the compliance with the terms of the agreement, the Quebec Central spent approximately $225,000 on buildings, machinery, etc., and during the intervening forty-one years increased its Newington Shops staff to a maximum of over 300 men, paying in wages alone over that period between five and ten millions of dollars, to which a very large sum can be added for supplies purchased in Sherbrooke.

"I would also point out that due to reduced traffic the actual loss sustained in the operation of the Quebec Central for the period of ten years, 1930 to 1939 inclusive, was $5,688,142 which, it goes without saying, called for the exercise of every possible economy in every department of the railway, and it being more economical for the major repairs to engines and cars to be effected at Angus Shops, Montreal, this was arranged effective May 1, 1939, and the Newington Shops closed.

"However the running repairs have not been removed from Sherbrooke and continue to be made in Sherbrooke at the Canadian Pacific shops at Quebec Central expense, where thirty-one men are employed working exclusively on Quebec Central equipment and, incidentally, would not be employed if Quebec Central repairs were made elsewhere.

"The Canadian Pacific also spent $40,000 in extending their shops to accommodate the additional Quebec Central work.

"I would also draw your attention to the Quebec Central Transportation Company garage built in Lower Sherbrooke last Fall at a cost of $13,000 for the repair of its highway motor coaches.

"I think it will be appreciated that the Quebec Central has infinitely more than fulfilled the spirit of what was contemplated by the 1897 agreement and as regards the question of the removal of the shops from Sherbrooke, this has been effected only partially, as intimated above, and in any event the present employment is equal to that existing in 1897 when the agreement was entered into.

"You are fully aware of the advantages to the City of Sherbrooke derived through the existence of the internment camp at Newington in the purchase of supplies, etc., which aggregate some $4,000 per month, and that when this has served its purpose the Provincial Roads Department will establish a central garage there with the employment of a considerable number of men, the engineering staff of this organization numbering sixteen already occupying an office in the Quebec Central Building since March 1 of this year.

"As will be readily visualized, this combined with the Quebec Central repair staff will continue to considerably exceed the extent of the operations in 1897, when the agreement in question was made.

"Therefore, under all the circumstances, it is difficult to see where the contract has not been at least substantially fulfilled as required by its terms.

"Respectfully,
"(Signed) G. D. Wadsworth,
General Manager."

WILL EXHIBIT GERMAN PLANE IN THIS CITY

Messerschmitt 109 Will Be on View in William Street Armory Under Auspices of I.O.D.E. Around May 15.

The Messerschmitt 109, German fighting plane shot down in England and now on tour from coast to coast in Canada under the auspices of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, will be on exhibition at the William Street Armory here on or about May 15 and will remain in Sherbrooke until May 20.

Plans for the showing of the Nazi aircraft were discussed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Sherbrooke I.O.D.E. executive held in the War Service Room under the Presidency of Mrs. W. E. Loomis, Municipal Regent.

Captain Fred Shelley, of the Sherbrooke Regiment, R.F., has offered to act on the committee with the I.O.D.E. to assist in making arrangements for setting up the war trophy and in planning suitable decorations for its exhibition here.

There will be a nominal charge for admission to the Armory and the entire proceeds will go to the Lord eBaverbrook Aircraft Fund in London, England, and to the I.O.D.E. War Service Funds.

PLANS MADE FOR LILAC TEA

Plans to hold the annual lilac tea early in June were completed yesterday afternoon at the regular meeting of St. George's Guild held under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. Fisher.

Mrs. Fisher thanked the members, in her capacity as President, for the successful salad tea held in April, and Mrs. Pearton and Mrs. Povey for assisting. A vote of thanks was also extended W. A. Bown for making posters.

The Treasurer reported a substantial sum in the treasury. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. A. Bown and Mrs. M. Short.

WAR SERVICES GOAL EXCEEDED IN FRONTENAC

Objective of $2,000 Over-Subscribed by $1,000 — Lake Megantic Pulp Company Contributed $1,000.

Responding generously to the drive for funds in the Canadian War Services Campaign, the objective of $2,000 set for Frontenac County was over-subscribed by $1,000.

With all taking an active part the sum of $3,000 was reached shortly after the opening of the campaign. A number of larger subscriptions that contributed to the success of the drive were received from the Lake Megantic Pulp Co., $1,000, County of Frontenac, $500, and the Town of Megantic $100. In addition, the personnel at the Megantic Training Center, under the command of Lt.-Col. Cliche, subscribed over $250.

V. A. Brabant, Megantic, was Chairman of the Frontenac County committee, that was responsible for the fine response.

PRESENTS PLAN FOR INCREASE IN BIRTHRATE

Noted United States Philosopher and Historian Declares Vigorous Programme of Scientific Breeding Needed.

Atlantic City, N.J., May 1.—(AP)—Dr. Will Durant, philosopher and historian, says the United States needs a vigorous programme of scientific breeding, subtly enforced through economics.

Dr. Durant told three thousand high school and college physical education directors at a convention last night that "America's first line of defence does not necessarily lie on land or oceans, but in the development of vigorous bodies, disciplined characters, and intelligent minds."

Dr. Durant made ten recommendations, including the following:

That the old system of dowries for both brides and grooms be revived "to help ambitious and talented young people marry at least as young as the morons do."

That the feebie-minded be given a choice of segregation or sterilization, "preferably the latter."

That the income tax exemption for children be doubled, and that the salaries of both governmental and private industrial employees be doubled "to raise the birth rate among the middle classes."

New Regimental Badge Is Issued To Officers And Men Of E. T. Unit

LOCAL UNIT TO BE HONORED ON VICTORIA DAY

Sports Events on Parade Grounds to Be Followed by Dance for Officers and Men of Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment.

A farewell event for the officers and men of the Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment, who will leave Sherbrooke on May 29 and are not expected to return before being assigned to further duty as a part of Canada's fighting machine, has been planned for Saturday, May 24, by a group of local citizens.

The Victoria Day proceedings will be inaugurated with a programme of sports on the Parade Grounds in which the men of the unit will compete. In the evening the officers and men, with their wives and friends, will attend a dance to be held in their honor in the William Street Armory.

The fact that the celebration falls on the May 24 holiday is significant. A patriotic holiday, May 24 will be the right day for citizens of Sherbrooke to show their appreciation to the officers and men who have volunteered for whatever service may be required of them in the titanic struggle being waged by the British Empire against bloodthirsty millions unleashed by Hitler and Mussolini.

Local citizens should strive to equal the send-off given the 117th Easter Townships Battalion when it left Sherbrooke for service during the war of 1914-18, and wholehearted interest in and support of the events of May 24 will go a long way in this direction.

It would be a praiseworthy gesture on the part of the City Council to authorize a grant toward the holding of the celebration, and Sherbrooke and Eastern Townships merchants should be given an opportunity to donate prizes for the winners in the various athletic competitions to be held at the Parade Grounds.

A. C. Stevens, one of the organizers of the event, has issued an appeal to the members of the various local service clubs to co-operate in every way possible with the group in charge, and to all friends of the Regiment to lend their aid in any way they see fit.

This should be a community enterprise, and with French and English-speaking men almost equally divided in the unit, it is believed that both classes of Sherbrooke's population will back the scheme to the utmost.

A new regimental badge, identifying the Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment, A.F., as a distinct unit is now being issued to the officers and men of the Eastern Townships own active service regiment, which in less than a month is leaving this city for summer training in different parts of the Province. Summer uniforms and equipment are also being handed out.

Authorized some weeks ago by National Defence Headquarters at Ottawa, the S.F.R. badge is a composite of the Sherbrooke Regiment and Fusiliers de Sherbrooke badges. From these two regiments, both of which are in Canada's Reserve Army, came most of the officers and some of the men who make up the personnel of the active service unit so that the S.F.R.'s are carrying on the traditions already established by their mother units.

The new badge consists of a miniature grenade within the body of which is superimposed a horse's head on a wreath. The grenade, which shoots out twelve flames, is part of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke badge while the horse's head is the principal feature of the Sherbrooke Regiment's emblem.

An interesting fact is that the horse's head on a wreath is the crest of the Sherbrooke family and of Sir John Coape Sherbrooke after whom this city was named. On the S.F.R. badge it is surrounded by a double circle in which the words "Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment" are inscribed. At the base of the badge is the units's motto "Droit au But" on a scholl. The scroll, like the grenade and flames, is in yellow metal while the horse's head is in silver.

Summer outfits received yesterday include jackets and shorts in duck, puttees and pith helmets. The unit will also be issued the "tinhats" to complete the equipment.

THE STORY TOLD

In telling the story of the evacuation of the British Expeditionary Force from Greece, Prime Minister Churchill has revealed that the Greek leaders played the game until the end, that in marked contrast to the action of certain other former allies of Great Britain, they gave the British commanders ample warning of their inability to carry on an effective struggle for any extended period and advised the termination of the campaign. As a result, the British forces were able to adopt a strategic policy which permitted them to evacuate the major portion of the force and the bulk of the equipment which was sent into the Balkan campaign.

He revealed that as far back as April 21, the Greek Government advised the withdrawal of the British Expeditionary Force, basing their argument on the fact that the Greek army was at the stage of exhaustion and that the defenders of the little country could no longer give the Imperial troops that assistance which was essential if the enemy were to be held back. Thus was avoided another Dunkerque, the British being enabled to withdraw their troops in an orderly manner and with the minimum of loss.

Furthermore, there is reason to believe that the ability and willingness of the Greek command to view the situation as it really existed has permitted the withdrawal of substantial forces to the tiny Islands of the Eastern seas where resistance can be continued on a scale, even if rather limited.

The Greek campaign, as sketchily outlined by the British Prime Minister, is somewhat of an anamoly, for while it marked a decided setback for British arms, the victory is one which might cost the Nazis dearly. The three thousand British casualties, killed or wounded, are only a small part of the loss inflicted on the enemy through the rear-guard actions, many observers placing the German losses at forty to fifty times this number, while the damage to the Nazi motorized equipment must be substantial in view of the nature of the fighting.

Again, the Nazis have overrun the country, but they are attempting to subjugate a people who are decidedly unfriendly to oppression, and who are experts in the art of guerrilla mountain warfare which they have promised to carry on, requiring that the Nazi high command retain considerable forces in the region and thus causing a further dilution of their strength.

The statement issued by Prime Minister Churchill belies the German stories of great captures by the Reich troops, for the strength the British despatched to the country would not allow of substantial surrenders, even if the entire army were to be taken, and the story of the evacuation offers ample proof that this it not the case.

Regardless of the actual outcome of the expedition, the incident marks another glorious epoch in the story of the Imperial forces and from the very tone of the communication of the Greek Government indicates another pledge fulfilled even at almost uncountable risks.

BRITISH FAITH IN BATTLESHIPS

Although the cost of battleships seems almost prohibitive when compared with that of the deadliest and most destructive of bombing planes, Great Britain, the nation of seafarers, still is willing to stake mastery of the seas on the big battle wagons. Authoritative naval sources, of course, maintain a strict silence on the question of ships versus planes and the relative effectiveness of the multi-million-dollar battleships.

Most British seafaring men, however, have a ready answer for those who think the millions spent for a single battleship might better be used to buy aircraft. Let us judge by results, they indicate, claiming that Great Britain has never lost a battleship through sinking by bombs.

Since the start of the war, they point out, only one British battleship has been acknowledged lost—the Royal Oak, sunk at Scapa Flow by a German submarine.

The battleship advocates point to Prime Minister Winston Churchill's announcement on April 11, 1940, that the thirteen-year-old, 33,900-ton battleship Rodney was hit directly by a very heavy aerial bomb, and that her deck armor resisted the blow.

So far as has been indicated, the Rodney's effectiveness as a fighting unit remained undiminished.

If an old vessel like the Rodney could withstand such a blow, it is reasoned that the newer battleships with heavier deck armor should survive a terrific pounding, British contend.

Details of the new deck armor have not been made public, but Jane's Fighting Ships, authoritative naval manual, remarks that the George V and others of her class have an "enhanced defence against air attack."

The crowning argument advanced for the battleship, however, is the recent German aerial attack on the Aircraft Carrier Illustrious in the Mediterranean.

Though the Illustrious offers "a target like a football field," observers say, she managed to reach port under her own power after an extremely heavy pounding by Nazi bombers, despite the fact that her protective armament is inferior to that of any battleship.

BOMBING BRITISH HOSPITALS

Despite repeated Nazi attacks on hospitals and other such institutions in the Old Country, these places still remain comparatively safe, according to Health Minister Ernest Brown, who has announced that 235 hospital patients had been killed and 195 injured in air raids in the Greater London district up to April 17. The figures, which cover four hundred hospitals of all kinds in London, have been issued to dispel public fears concerning the risks incurred by hospital patients during air attacks. Of more than one hundred casualty receiving wards included in the London emergency scheme, only three have been put out of action completely, he declared.

The Minister recalled that total fatalities in the whole country up to the end of March were 29,000 and the number of injured about 40,000.

Mr. Brown said much the same situation in regard to hospital casualties existed elsewhere in England. In one area, where two ports have been repeatedly bombed, six hospitals have been hit, but only one is still out of commission, he said.

Explaining the reason for his announcement, Mr. Brown told a press conference:

"We have all heard a great deal about the bombing of hospitals, not only in London but also in provincial cities. Hospitals run no more risk than other buildings.

"During intensive and indiscriminate attacks of the past eight months many have, in fact, been damaged, but in the main this damage has been slight.

"More important still, the number of casualties caused in hospitals, in proportion to the intensity of the raiding, has been very small. I do not want people to think they run a risk when they go to hospital.

"In fact, I believe that, because of very elaborate precautions we have taken to meet conditions of heavy raiding, the risk is less than outside of hospitals."

PRESS COMMENTS

NAZI PROPAGANDA
St. Catharines Standard

Nazi propaganda is working overtime these days, which in itself is an indication that all is not going too well, either with the German armies or in the German nation.

Earlier this week the Hun cried out the news that the British were preparing to abandon Greece. When that "information" failed to go down the German throats the propaganda artists declared that the British army was holding a key sector in Northern Greece but faced encirclement and disaster. And these untruths, it is suggested, were the cause of the Nazi raid on London. The "all out" raid was merely propaganda at its worst.

Simultaneously with Nazi admission of official lying about the Greek campaign came news from Africa of a determined British stand at Tobruk and Solum—both of which the Nazis already had claimed as captured. Worst of all, from an Axis viewpoint, was news of destruction of an Italian convoy of eight ships, presumably carrying German panzer troops from Europe to Africa.

Berlin needed some news of British disaster to offset proof of the fictitious nature of Axis reports from Greece and Africa. The easiest way to provide such a disaster was by slaughter of London civilians. Thus Germany was given a day of homicidal gloating.

ONCE AGAIN SO MANY OWE SO MUCH TO SO FEW
Kingston Whig-Standard

An entirely new and astonishing aspect of the war in the eastern Mediterranean is revealed by Mr. Churchill's statement that General Wavell in the Libyan campaign was at no time able to bring into action against the Italians more than two divisions, or roughly 30,000 men. The magnificent chance that Britain took in going to the aid of Greece can now be more clearly understood. Only an armored brigade and one division of infantry were left in Libya. So far as we know there has been no official announcement of the size of the force of British, Australian and New Zealand troops sent to Greece, but it now appears to have been only three divisions.

Two severe defeats have been suffered, and, as Mr. Churchill himself insists, defeats are never victories; nevertheless, if ever defeats had some semblance of victories certainly the defeats in Libya and Greece have. In Greece very severe damage has been inflicted on the enemy by a very small force. In Libya a typical German mechanized drive has been held up for a long period by the device of leaving a relatively strong force at Tobruk as a continual threat to the Axis communications. Even if they have had to taste defeat, the forces in Greece and Libya have achievements to their credit out of all proportion to their size.

In the very anxious situation that is now certain to develop in the Mediterranean, there are several cheerful factors, but the most interesting is the unexpected one. Most people probably feared that the British forces in Egypt had been seriously weakened by the transfer of men and supplies to Greece. It now appears, from what the British Prime Minister said, that there has been very little reduction of British strength in Egypt. Practically all the weakening took place in Libya where only a surprisingly small force was operating anyway. Egypt, all through the Libyan campaign, was apparently heavily garrisoned and still is. The force used against the Italians in Libya was deliberately kept small, it seems, because of the difficulties of supplying them across many miles of desert.

Mr. Churchill says the forces in Egypt are very strong. If they fight like the comparative handful of men fought in Libya and Greece, the Germans will know they have been in a war before they get to the Suez by that route.

DIDN'T WAIT FOR CONSCRIPTION
Toronto Evening Telegram

Conscription of women is well under way in England now, and no wangling or wire-pulling will avert the job of work to be given out. There were, apparently, many idle young women, mostly from rich, well-to-do homes who did twice-a-week voluntary work and considered that was enough, but not so now. On the other hand, there are thousands of young girls who, prior to war, considered opening a car door hard work, and are now employed in factories, munition plants or other similar places. For instance, there's pretty Yolanda Ferranti, twenty-year-old debutante, who has for the past few months been fitter's mate at a war factory. Every morning at seven she rides up to the factory on her bicycle, clad in a neat overall suit, and every night at 6.30 she rides home again, having put in an arduous day with hammer, spanner and screwdriver. Miss Ferranti was in Toronto two years ago with her father, Vincent de Ferranti, a frequent visitor here, as head of the world-famous firm of electrical engineers. But the young English girl isn't working for her father. She got a job through an employment agency, is paid thirty-nine shillings a week and she earns it. Miss Ferranti didn't wait for conscription.

"BOMB BERLIN" IS NOT APPROVED
(Owen Sound Daily Sun-Times)

Following the recent savage air raids on London, demands to "Bomb Berlin tonight" were chalked on walls, sidewalks and roads in many cities in England; and one can hardly blame the people of the ravaged cities for feeling like "getting back" at the Nazis.

But that the War Office has its own opinion is indicated in a review of the situation prepared by a capable newspapermon in London. While he agrees with the belief that the Germans could not stand it as long as the British, he states that the work in the air in which the British planes are engaged is much more important in its bearing on the outcome of the war.

The R.A.F., he says, could cut great red scars across the places that used to be German towns; but he believes Hitler would prefer that to what it is now doing. His opinion, evidently based on War Office information, is that the actual purpose of the Nazi raids is to divert the R.A.F. from their master plan.

Hitler realized last December, it is said, that unless he could divert the R.A.F. blows on German industry he would lose the war. "You," the correspondent says to his leaders, "do not dream what we are doing to Germany . . . Unless we want to throw away what the R.A.F. has won by feats that often seemed more than human we shall never descend to reprisals . . . Let's do the thing scientifically but not brutally . . . In a country so gestapoed as Germany who imagines for one moment that reprisals against civilians would have any effect? They would be told curtly to put up with it—and shot if they didn't."

Which looks like good sound sense.

FOR GREATER UNITY
Le Droit, Ottawa

The state of war has further united the two ethnic groups of which Canada is officially composed. But this result arises once more especially from the fact that the minority, in what it regards as the general interest, has sacrificed a part of its legitimate aspirations.

It is unfortunate that we do not know how to profit from the war in order further to cement this union of spirits and hearts between English Canada and French Canada. The moral union of peoples is in fact, forged principally in times of trial. This mistake will have its echo on the morrow of the present conflict. It is regrettable that our after-war problems are stubbornly aggravated. We will have enough other ones without multiplying those which we can even now ameliorate."

"SANCTIONS WILL BE APPLIED"
Le Soliel

We know already that the proposed legislation is the expression of the popular will, which holds to the view that the temperance law should justify its title, not only in its inspiration and in its text but, above all, in its application. On the point of its sanction the Premier issued a resounding warning which the electors have heard with lively satisfaction; in order that the law should produce the salutary effects expected, its sanctions shall be applied with exemplary severity, without any personal consideration for transgressors. At a time when the democratic order is assailed from all directions, individual liberties cannot be long preserved if society does not confer effectively in respect to the law.

PAUSE, PONDER, COUNT ALL HANDS, DEFEAT CONTRACT

This is the twelfth of a series of sixteen articles on World Bridge Olympic hands, giving the committee's par.

You can see that a three no trump contract by North and South would easily be defeated with a club opening. I thought that the defence which must be employed against the four-spade contract is unusually interesting and yet not really difficult.

With West's weak hand, his marked opening is the deuce of diamonds. The tendency on the part of most East players would be to win with the ace, return a diamond for his partner to ruff, hoping to get back in with the ace of trumps and maybe give West another ruff. But the word "maybe" isn't in a good bridge player's vocabulary.

East should reason that South must have at least five spades, otherwise he would be playing the contract at three no trump. Therefore, West can have but two spades, so that it will be impossible for him to get two ruffs.

But West might hold the king of hearts, even the ace. If he holds the ace, he won't lose it, but the king of hearts would have to be established quickly for West.

East's correct play, therefore, is to return a heart, and even though South jumps up with the ace, East wins the first trump lead with the ace of spades, leads back a diamond for West to ruff, and now West can cash the king of hearts and the contract is defeated.

VARY METHODS OF COOKING HAM FOR NEW FLAVORS

Spring air seems to sharpen the appetite for baked ham. Let's go slightly festive and add a few garlands of flavor to familiar recipes.

HAM WITH HONEY-PINEAPPLE GLAZE

Bake your ham according to the manufacturer's directions, but finish it off the Hawaiian way with a glaze made from canned unsweetened pineapple juice, honey and mustard.

To prepare the glaze, combine ¾ cup canned unsweetened pineapple juice, ¾ cup strained honey, and ½ teaspoon dry mustard, bring to a boil and continue boiling until syrup is thick and drops from spoon in thick drops.

After the ham has been baked, remove from the roaster to a clean shallow pan, skin and score, and garnish with halved maraschino cherries if desired. Spread with syrup. Return to a hot oven (450° to 475° F.) for 15 to 20 minutes or until surface of ham is golden brown. Place ham in warming oven while sauce is being prepared.

Pour drippings from pan in which ham was glazed into a saucepan. Skin fat off, if necessary. Add 1 tablespoon flour and stir until mixture is smooth. Add 1 cup canned unsweetened pineapple juice. Bring to a boil, add 1 cup seeded raisins, and simmer for 10 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons brandy or non-alcoholic brandy flavoring just before serving.

May Ham is another springlike variation. This recipe comes from the new revised and enlarged edition of the "Merry Mixer Cook Book."

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Rhubarb, oatmeal waffles, syrup, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Tomato juice, creamed eggs on toast, rolls, baked apples, tea, milk.

DINNER: Spiced ham slice with glazed carrots, parsley new potatoes, spring salad bowl, chocolate cream pie, coffee, milk.

MAY HAM

One baked ham, 2 cups light brown sugar, 3 cups bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, vinegar to moisten, cloves, 10 or 12 peach halves, currant jelly.

Prepare ham. Combine brown sugar and bread crumbs. Work mustard to a smooth paste with a small amount of vinegar, blend into bread crumbs and sugar, adding enough vinegar to make a paste. Coat ham with paste. Stick in whole cloves at regular intervals. Return to roaster and continue roasting at 325° F., until thoroughly cooked and the coating is browned lightly.

Before ham is done, remove two tablespoons of the ham fat to a frying pan, put in peach halves and saute on either side until heated through and delicately browned, about 5 minutes. Place around ham cup side up and in each cup put a cube of currant jelly. For green, use parsley, watercress or fresh mint.

TEA AND SALE SUCCESS

The tea and sale sponsored by St. Luke's Junior W.A. in the church hall on Saturday afternoon was a pronounced success and reflected great credit on the girls and all who assisted them.

All who attended were impressed with the beauty of the spring-like decorations, the platform being a bower of loveliness with its garlands of hand-made flowers and branches simulating apple blossoms, arranged on the walls and on the draw-curtains, creating a charming background for the play, "Blossoms and Butterflies," pleasingly performed by members of the J.W.A. The cast included Joyce Shanks, Shirley Hayes, Janet and Ruth Adam, Rose and Gladys Marks, Gweneth Gledhill, Laura Mosgrove, Mary MacIntosh, Daphne Plunkett and Shirley Pinder. Owing to illness Betty Readshaw and Gladys Taylor were unable to participate.

During the performance Mrs. Wood related a Bible story to the children, which harmonized with the musical numbers sung by the girls. Mr. Wood accompanied at the piano.

Three money-making projects were the food table, in charge of Mrs. Bridge, Mrs. S. Taylor and Mrs. F. W. Jones, the table of useful hand-made articles in charge of Mrs. Boright, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. Harry Williams, and a fish pond operated by Mrs. Gordon Kendall and Mrs. Wood. After the entertainment and sale sandwiches, cake and tea were served by the members ,with Mrs. Readshaw, Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Shanks supervising the kitchen.

TRY NEW HIGH-TEST OXYDOL ... FOR WHITER CLOTHES IN WASHERS OLD OR NEW

IF you are a washing machine user, you simply owe it to yourself to try this new "miracle" soap. For the results it gives are so utterly amazing that thousands of washing machine owners are changing to it . . . discarding their old favorite washing machine soaps as things of the past!

New High-Test OXYDOL can give such amazing results for it is a new-type soap, containing a remarkable new ingredient. An ingredient that vastly increases its white-washing power, yet keeps it SAFE for washable colors, and fabrics.

Tested against less efficient soaps, new High-Test Oxydol has been found to do these astonishing things:—

(1) Gets clothes as much as 9 to 11 shades whiter than bar and package soaps that lack its new "miracle" ingredient. Actual Tintometer shades—as shown by our laboratory tests. (2) Cup for cup—it gives up to three times the suds —suds that stand up 2 to 3 times longer.

Yet it is so SAFE that even cotton prints, given the equivalent of a full year's washing, showed no perceptible sign of fading—stayed looking bright and sparkling as new, wash after wash.

New High-Test Oxydol is economical, too. Each cup of it goes up to one-fourth again as far as less modern soaps we have tested.

So, no matter what soap you've been using, try new High-Test OXYDOL today. You'll be so thrilled with its amazingly white, bright washes, you'll never go back to less modern soaps again. MADE IN CANADA

SUTTON MUSIC PUPILS STAGE ENTERTAINMENT

"Do Your Bit" Programme in Aid of Red Cross Given in Town Hall by Miss Gertrude Gingras' Class.

Sutton, May 1.— A "Do Your Bit" programme in aid of the Red Cross was given recently in the Town Hall by the music pupils of Miss Gertrude Gingras. An appreciative audience manifested much interest and pleasure and heartily applauded at the conclusion of each number. Much talent and artistic ability were evident among the young performers who contributed piano solos, duets, trios, songs, dancing and recitations. A few colorful costumes lent attraction to some of the "character" numbers.

During the singing of "God Save the King," which was ably accompanied by Master Wallace Holden, a patriotic scene was effected, Miss Joyce Darrah represented the Red Cross nurse, Miss Shirley Holden, a Girl Guide, and Jimmy Gruer, a Boy Scout.

The pupils who took part in the entertainment were Frances Derrick, Helen Eastman, Lucille Dunham, Barbara Olmstead, Jane Olmstead, Joyce Beauvias, Joyce Darrah, Gwendolyn Smith, Shirley Holden, Danny Gruer, Jimmy Gruer, Ramona Jones, Alice Jean O'Brien, Norma Lahue and Bruno Dandenault.

Before the performance and during intermission there was a sale of home made candy under the management of Miss E. Vachon.

Sincere thanks are extended, not only to the evening's performers, but also to all of those who "did their bit" by assisting in any way and by their attendance. A neat sum was realized and donated to the worthy cause.

Fashionable gentlemen of the 17th century carried spices in their pockets, ever ready for use in flavoring food or drink.

"They take away BABY'S TEETHING FEVER"

SO writes Mrs. B———, of North Sydney. Then a Toronto mother says: "I used Baby's Own Tablets and the babies were always so good. No cramps, pain or trouble when teething. In fact, I hardly knew they were cutting their teeth as they never were any trouble at night."

Baby's Own Tablets are quick, safe and effective, sweet-tasting and easy to take. Contain no opiates or stupefying drugs. Try Baby's Own Tablets not only for teething troubles but also for colds, constipation, upset stomach and other simple ailments of babyhood. 25 cents. Your money refunded if you are not satisfied.

A Pimple Covered Face Kills Many a Romance

The lives of many young people are made miserable by the breaking out of pimples, and you probably know of cases where a promising romance has been spoiled by those red, white, festering and pus filled sores on the face.

The trouble is not so much physical pain, but the mental suffering caused by the embarrassing disfigurement which very often makes the sufferer ashamed to go out in company.

The quickest way to get rid of pimples is to improve the general health by a thorough cleansing of the blood.

WESTINGHOUSE TRU-TEMP IS 1941 FEATURE

The New Models Are Equipped with the Only Self-Adjusting Food Temperature Control in the Refrigerator Market.

Compare Westinghouse with any other refrigerator and you will immediately discover one outstanding difference—the Temperature Control.

The Westinghouse Tru-Temp Control is the only one that is marked in degrees of temperature. Westinghouse is handled in Sherbrooke by Hector Lanctot and Levesque, Limited.

Through this device the Westinghouse maintains an accurate, uniform temperature, the one big essential in any refrigerator, by the automatic process that eliminates the possibility of any food being spoiled through being exposed to fluctuating temperatures. Whatever the temperature outside the unit may be—eighty degrees in the shade or a pleasant seventy degrees—the temperature inside always remains the same. And what is more, with this new scientific control you may set your machine to the required temperature before going out and you may be sure that your machine will maintain that temperature until the True-Temp is reset—no matter how hot the weather may become.

All your foods are throughly protected by Westinghouse's five zones of cold. Frozen foods, meat, beverages, general foods and vegetables—all have been amply provided for. Each has a separate compartment in this wonderful new 1941 Westinghouse Refrigerator and each is assured of the temperature in which it will keep the best. There is no food wastage to contend with.

One of the dual-automatic's outstanding features is the compressor unit, a hermetically sealed F-12 Refrigerant! Air-cooled draught is forced through a fine-tubed condensor by a reciprocating type, self-lubricating piston. The motor is one-sixth horse power split-phase, of the brushless type and self-lubricating.

Westinghouse backed by years of scientific research and by records of kitchen proved economy, have produced a refrigerator for 1941 that will be sure to be an asset to any home in the country.

SELECTIVE AIR CONDITIONS A G-E FEATURE

Enable Housewife to Store Foods Under Temperatures and Humidities Best Suited for Individual Requirements.

The new 1941 General Electric Refrigator sold in Sherbrooke and district by Echenberg Bros. and Ross-Biron Electric, limited, features selective air conditions which enable the housewife to store foods under temperatures and humidities best suited for individual requirements.

To illustrate what this will mean to the householder who owns one of these magnificent new General Electric Refrigerators let us examine the six conditions for every food storage need. First there's a sub-freezing temperature for storing the new package of frozen fruits, vegetables and fish, frozen desserts, ice cream, fowl and game. Next comes a cold zone that keeps milk, cream, ice water, ginger ale and other beverages at exactly the right temperature. Our next cold zone maintains an atmosphere of moistened cold for preserving fresh meats and sea foods. The high humidity retains the natural juices and flavor, and the near-freezing temperature prevents bacteria and mold growth. Our fourth conditions is the general storage compartment, providing ample room for the storage of fresh foods and left overs which require no special storage conditions other than the low safety-zone temperature of from 40 degrees to 45 degrees F.

Finally we have the crisping and dry storage food compartments. One is for your vegetables to keep them crisp for the table. The other is for all dry foods such as soda crackers, cereals, etc. Thus we see that General Electric is really six storage compartments in one. Truly great value for your money.

General Electric Refrigerating machines are the only ones to be equipped with force-feeding lubricating system and oil-cooling, two exclusive characteristics that make for long life and low operating costs.

In spite of the advantages that the General Electric has over other types the housewife will be pleasantly surprised to learn that the price range of the various sizes is no higher than that of other standard makes with sealed mechanism. It has been proven over and over again that the G.E. unit will pay for itself in savings of food, health, time and money.

Besides these giant features of General Electric the buyer will find that there are twenty-three other features—all doing their share to make the General Electric Refrigerator dependable and cheap to run.

YOU BECOME WHAT YOU EAT!

Robt. G. Jackson, M.D. Now in his 84th year

It cannot be doubted that the greatest evil of our civilization is wrong foods and feeding methods; trying to live upon unnatural constipating foods and ignoring the food-gifts of Nature which come from the farm and field.

Our resistance to sickness and debility is maintained and measured by the amount of vitality we possess and vitality can be obtained and maintained by eating foods that have in them a vital or life principle which they can transfer to us.

I positively assert that if you, well or ill, will eat one full meal daily of any one of my natural whole-grain cereals, Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal) Bekus-Puddy, or Lishus; one meal consisting largely of green vegetable salad, or fresh fruit; consume milk and cheese freely, and drink four to six cups daily of my alkaline beverage Kofy Sub, choosing the balance of the food intake from simple, sensible foods, you will realize why I, at 83, am younger in mind and more vigorous in body than 90% of men and women in their early forties.

Retiring Bank Manager At Bedford Is Paid Tribute

Purse of Money and Silver Tea Service Presented to E. A. Chadsey Who Is Retiring as Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce After Nearly Forty Years in Banking Profession—Friends from Surrounding District Attend Presentation.

Bedford, May 1.—Victoria Hall, Bedford, was filled to capacity when friends from Bedford, Stanbridge East, Frelighsburg, St. Armand and Philipsburg, numbering in all two hundred and fifty, gathered to honor Edgar A. Chadsey who is retiring as Manager of the Bedford branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and going on pension after thirty-nine years' successful service in the banking profession.

The gathering was truly representative of the guest-of-honor, for it comprised businessmen and influential citizens of all walks and station in life. During the twelve years that he has resided in Bedford Mr. Chadsey has endeared himself to his fellow-citizens and has made many true and lasting friends throughout the entire community. He has at all times shown a deep interest in all matters of a community nature; has contributed much to the life and progress of the district and has ever been ready to extend a helping hand to those in need.

His retirement is keenly regretted by the community at large, but it is the sincere wish of his friends that he will enjoy many years of health and happiness and that his successful career as a banker will bring him comfort and satisfaction in the many years that lie ahead of him.

The chairman of the evening was Mr. Ben Draper. Seated with him on the platform were Rev. H. V. Fricker, Mayor Arthur Sheltus, Notary F. Fortin, Mr. David J. Reid, Mr. Harry W. Jones, Mr. George S. Rochon and Mr. W. D. Bradshaw, who is replacing Mr. Chadsey as manager of the Bedford branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

During the evening Rev. Mr. Fricker, Rector of St. James' Anglican Church at Bedford, presented Mr. Chadsey with a purse of money. Rev. Mr. Fricker referred in pleasant words to Mr. Chadsey's service to the community and the valuable contribution which he had made in fostering and promoting closer understanding between the different groups of the community. Mention was also made of Mr. Chadsey's contribution to the welfare of St. James' Church.

Expressing the sentiments of the French-speaking population of the town and district, Notary Fortin spoke of the deep admiration in which Mr. Chadsey is held by his fellow-citizens of the French tongue in whom he had always shown deep concern. To Notary Fortin fell the pleasant duty of presenting Mr. Chadsey with a beautiful silver tea service and silver tray.

Mr. D. J. Reid, head of the Torrington Company in Bedford, then delivered the following address:

"Mr. Chadsey, your fellow-citizens of Bedford, Stanbridge East, Frelighsburg, St. Armand and Philipsburg have met tonight to honor you upon the occasion of your retirement as Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

"We all regretted to learn that it was time for you to step out and make room for others to carry on, but this is the law of life, as well as of institution, and we must submit. However, you can look with confidence to a well-earned rest.

"During the twelve years which you have lived in our midst, you have endeared yourself to the men, women and children of not only Bedford, but of the whole district in which you have had an interest. By your sympathetic advice and willingness at all times to help those in trouble, you have won life-long friends. It is not only those who have been helped by you in this way who have felt your influence in the community, but everyone in all walks of life have benefitted by your presence amongst us.

"In all activities of the community you have taken a vital interest. You have always been willing to take your part in anything going on which would be of benefit to the general welfare.

"I would like to mention your work as Director of St. James' Choir. Your inspiration in this work has helped immeasurably in the services. Your active interest in the Masonic Lodge of Bedford has always been most helpful and sincere.

"We all sincerely hope that you and your family will decide to remain in Bedford indefinitely, and that you will continue to give us good advice, assistance and help in the social life of Bedford district."

During the evening Messrs. Harry W. Jones and George S. Rochon, speaking in English and French, introduced Mr. W. D. Bradshaw, formerly Manager of the Sutton branch of the Bank, who has been named successor to Mr. Chadsey in Bedford. Mr. Bradshaw expressed his pleasure at being present and also the keen anticipation with which he accepted his new duties at Bedford.

A native of the Eastern Townships, Mr. Chadsey was educated at Stanstead College, graduating from Bugbee Business College. He started his banking career with the Quebec Bank, in Montreal, in 1902. After nearly four years with the Quebec Bank he entered the services of the Eastern Townships Bank in Sherbrooke, serving in various capacities with the Bank in Granby, Bedford and Windsor Mills before being again transferred to Sherbrooke.

At the time of the amalgamation with the Canadian Bank of Commerce, in 1912, he was appointed accountant at St. Hyacinthe. In 1913 he was appointed Manager at Black Lake, but owing to illness was unable to fill the position.

Later returning to the Bank's services he was connected with the Superintendent's Department for nearly one year, and then was appointed Manager at Lacolle. In 1914 he was named to the Bedford Branch as Manager, which position he filled until his retirement.

MAKE REVISION OF AGE LIMITS FOR NEXT MEET

Change Is Announced by Officials of Spring Interscholastic Track Meet at Stanstead College.

In keeping with changes made in age limits of the various classes by officials of the McGill Interscholastic Track Meet, from this year on similar regulations will be enforced at the annual Eastern Townships Spring Interscholastic Meet. Seniors will be under twenty, intermediates under seventeen, juniors under fifteen and midgets under thirteen. This new grouping will make for a better senior division, with boys of seventeen, eighteen and nineteen competing, and should prevent the intermediates from overshadowing the older boys, as they have in recent years. To be eligible for the senior class, for example, the boy must not have reached his birthday on or before May 17.

Because of the change, the former records in the intermediate, junior and midget divisions will not be in effect, and this year's winning performances will thus be the marks to shoot at in following years. Senior records will remain in good standing.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Pepless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet—you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and pepless.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams Pink Pills today.

MEMORIAL CUP WILL TRAVEL TO PRAIRIES

Winnipeg In Smashing 7-4 Victory In Fifth Battle With Montreal

Western Canada Powerhouse Succeed to Title Held for Two Previous Seasons by Oshawa Generals—West Holds 12-11 Edge in 23 Years Junior Trophy Has Been Up for Play—Goalie Hal Thompson Rangers' Hero Before 7,000 Toronto Fans.

Toronto, May 1.— (CP) —The glory that goes to a champion belonged today to Winnipeg Rangers.

One word—powerhouse—is all that is necessary to describe the Rangers, who won the Memorial Cup and the Canadian junior hockey title here last night before 7,000 fans with a smashing 7-4 victory over Montreal Royals in the fifth game of their best-of-five series.

Big and fast, and able to strike crushing blows, the Rangers succeeded to a title that had been held for two previous seasons by Oshawa Generals. Their victory in the Cup final gave the West a 12-11 edge in the twenty-three years that the trophy has been up for play.

Hero for the Rangers and villain as far as the Royals were concerned was Winnipeg's six-foot goaltender, Hal Thompson, who held off Royals with a spectacular display through the first two periods until Rangers gathered their forces and went to town.

The offensive stars for Rangers were Bill Robinson and Les Hickey, who each scored twice. The other Winnipeg goals went to Bill Mortimer, High Millar and Bob Ballance. The Royals goals were scored by Grant Morrison, Rollie Bleau, Jimmy Planche and Bobby Carragher.

Royals were disappointed in defeat but one and all they conceded that the Rangers were a great team. "Whether we think we should have won or not fails to detract from the fact that they're real champions," said Carragher. "We've got a pretty good fighting club ourselves and yet they outfought us in the last period when it counted most."

A penalty to defenceman Bob MacFarlane of Royals midway in the third period allowed Rangers to take a 5-3 lead on a goal by Mortimer and the crowd sensed then that the Westerners were home. Millar and Ballance added their scores after that before Carragher tallied the last goal of the game a minute and a half from the end.

GUESSING GAME WELL UNDERWAY AT LOUISVILLE

War News All but Shunted to Sideline by Kentucky Derby Gossip — Our Boots, Dispose, Whirlaway and Porter's Cap Favorites.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.— (AP) — War news was all but shunted to the sidelines here today as this horse loving community plunged headlong into its annual guessing game.

The daily papers still head-lined the news from abroad but along the main drags, in hotel lobbies, barber shops, and taverns the No. 1 question did not concern war. It was: Who will win the $75,000 Kentucky Derby over Churchill Downs' classic mile and a quarter late Saturday afternoon?

Eleven three-year-olds, survivors of an original field of 112, are expected to answer the call to "boots and saddles" around 5:45 p.m E.S.T., before some 75,000 fans but there's not a Bimelech, Johnstown or War Admiral among the lot. True, there are two standout juveniles of 1940 and the winners of winter racings' big stakes among the eleven. But picking one of the quartette is almost as difficult as threading a needle in the dark.

There's Our Boots, winner of the rich 1940 Belmont Futurity which never has sent its victor on to capture the Derby; Whirlaway, top money winning two-year-old of last year; Dispose, good enough to whip Florida's top three-year-olds in the Flamingo at Hialeah Park and Porter's Cap, who showed the way home in the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby and Chesapeake Stakes at Havre de Grace.

The others are strictly outsiders unless it comes up mud in which case Cleveland Putnam's Swain is considered to have a good chance.

ST. LOUIS TOPS NATIONAL LOOP BY PERCENTAGE

Brooklyn Has Won Thirteen Games Against Cardinals Ten, but Red Birds Have Lost Three While Dodgers Dropped Four.

The National League race is in its typical spring squeeze.

Brooklyn Dodgers climbed into first place Monday by winning their seventh straight game. Tuesday they won their eighth and slipped into a tie. Wednesday they won their ninth in succession and dropped into second place.

This would seem to be going full speed forward in reverse and that may be just as clear as trying to explain the actual jam now involving the Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

Brooklyn has won 13 games and lost four for a .756 percentage while St. Louis has a record of 10 and three for .769. Actually, on the basis of games won and lost, the Dodgers are in front of the Red Birds by a full game, but because the Cardinals have played fewer games, and lost less, they have an advantage in percentage.

Johnny Vander Meer put the brakes on Brooklyn for seven innings yesterday, scattering three singles and striking out eight while his team-mates routed Kirby Higbe for a 3-0 lead. But in the eighth inning Dixie Walker and Joe Medwick hit home runs, sandwiched around a walk, to tie the score and in the ninth Mickey Owen and Peewee Reese smacked a pair of doubles for a run to win 4-3.

The Cardinals hopped on Hal Schumacher for a dozen hits, including homers by Country Slaughter and Johnny Mize, to whip New York Giants again 6-4.

Chicago Cubs clustered four runs in the first and four more in the eighth to blast Boston Bees (beg pohdon, the Braves) 9-4, with the help of four Boston errors.

Cy Blanton, a cast-off of Pittsburgh Pirates, kept to hits scattered and struck out six as the Phillies pummeled the Pirates 8-4.

Cleveland Indians extended their winning string to six by overtaking Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 on Ken Keltner's three-run homer with two out in the ninth inning.

Detroit Tigers finally roused from their hitting slump to roar out with 18 hits and subdue Boston Red Sox 12-8. Rudy York hit a home run with two on and also contributed two doubles to the attack.

Chicago White Sox held on to second place in the junior circuit by beating Washington Senators 5-2.

Joe Gordon and Marius Russo led New York Yankees to vengeance against St. Louis Browns, 7-1. Russo scattered eight hits and shutout his foes for six stanzas. Joe Gordon made four of the Yanks' 14 blows, including a homer, and drove in four runs.

TEAMS PREPARE FOR LAST GAME OF CUP SERIES

Sydney and Regina Ready for "Sudden Death" Game Tomorrow Night to Decide Allan Cup Series.

Regina, May 1.—(CP)—Like the quiet before the storm, the camps of both Sydney Millionaires and Regina Rangers were tense today as the teams rested before meeting here tomorrow night in the "sudden death" game that will decide the 1941 senior hockey championship of Canada.

Both teams were recuperating from the grind of the longest season in years and a strenuous final in which they were deadlocked at the end of the scheduled five games. The sixth game tomorrow night will be played to a finish with the Allan Cup going to the winner.

The young Rangers rested yesterday and again today after Tuesday's gruelling battle in which the Western champions throttled the high-powered attack of Millionaires with grim checking and gained a 3-2 victory to tie the series.

The Sydney squad which only needed a tie in the fourth and fifth games to take the title after winning the first two games but were edged out both times, now is on even footing with Rangers and need a win in the sixth game to take the Allan Cup to the Maritimes.

Millionaires relaxed yesterday too and today a short skating session was scheduled to limber up during the three-day layoff.

Coach Freddy Metcalfe of Regina said his "kids" were tired after their desperate checking of the speedy Sydney forwards Tuesday and will "take it easy" to relieve the nervous tension.

"We're not over-confident," said Metcalfe. "We hope to take it in our stride if we can."

The two injured players in the Regina camp—Scotty Cameron who has been bothered with a charley horse and Sandy Sandelack who has been playing after suffering a separation of the shoulder blade—were reported improving.

The only casualty in Millionaires' camp is Dick Kowcinak who will play despite an injured wrist. Dick has been playing with a cast on a fracture, and will have to have it re-set after the series. His effectiveness has been impaired and he has been on the ice only for short periods in the five games of the finals.

Coach Bill Gill may use Bud McEachern, a forward, instead of Ray Powell, the defenceman, as he did in the fifth game, to strengthen the team's attack.

Owners of the Regina rink were hopeful the attendance at the game would set a record for the West in recent games. The highest-priced seats were sold out early yesterday and officials said indications were a crowd of "well over 7,000," will attend.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Joe Gordon, Yankees—Hit homer and three singles to bat in four runs against Browns.

Ken Keltner, Indians—Hit two-run homer in ninth inning to beat Athletics.

Ed Smith, White Sox—Kept eight hits spaced to whip Senators.

Cy Blanton, Phillies — Scattered ten hits and struck out six to stop Pirates.

Rudy York, Tigers—Batted in five runs with homer and two doubles.

Joe Medwick, Dodges—His two-run circuit clout in eighth tied score to enable Brooklyn to edge out Reds.

Enos Slaughter, Cardinals—Led attack on Giants with three hits including a home run.

Bill Nicholson and Billy Myers, Cubs—Each batted in two runs to help beat Braves.

Lou Novikoff now warms the bench. It was the old ballyhoo what got him.

Record Hockey Year Reviewed By St. Pat's Academy Pupils

Cups and Prizes Presented Last Night at Gathering of Boys and Friends in Academy Auditorium—Ninety-Five of Total 130 Pupils Played on Nine Teams—Juniors Captured Championship.

Noted for many years as the cradle of large numbers of hockey players who have made their marks in intermediate and senior ranks, St. Patrick's Academy last night reviewed what is believed by the hockey coach, Bro. Joseph, to be a record year, with about ninety-five pupils out of a total enrollment of one hundred and thirty playing on one of the nine teams that were iced.

The student body, with the teaching staff and a number of friends, met in the Academy Auditorium for the distribution of various prizes for hockey. An enjoyable programme was held, including a truth or consequences contest conducted by John McManus, the showing of moving pictures, the actual presentations, and the serving of refreshments.

St. Pat's teams lived up to their well-known standards of efficiency and sportsmanship throughout the season, it was pointed out. The Senior team suffered a great loss at the beginning of the schedule in the death of Dick Hibbard, the school's best and most popular player, but made a good showing against the other school teams in the district.

The junior team had a great season, losing but one game in the regular schedule and going on to capture the championship after a gruelling playoff series. Away to a good start, the bantams could not keep up the pace because of sickness and the long schedule. Bro. Joseph pointed out that the Pee Wee League was a fine success, and that some coming stars were found on the youthful aggregations.

Clement Brodeur was presented the Hibbard and Brault Cup, Paul Duchesne a cup for being chosen as the most valuable player on the senior team and Gerald Largy an award as the most valuable performer on the junior roster.

The Old Boys' Cup was presented to Gerry Walsh, Captain of the Never Sweats, who won the Pee Wee League, and David Steele was given a sweater in reward for selling the most tickets during the year. Cups for racing went to R. O'Keefe, Babies; B. Cline, Pee Wees; M. Kenalty, Bantams, and Bob Lussier, Juniors. Championship crests will be presented to the juniors at a later date, and the seniors will also receive crests.

Members of the teaching staff attending the presentations were the Principal, Bro. O'Shea, Bro. Whalen, Bro. Joseph, Bro. Vincent, Bro. O'Keefe and Bro. Rogers.

MISSING PERSONS

Annually, 25,000 persons disappear in England. Of this number, 4,200 disappear from London alone. Police records over a period of 10 years show that only about 2,000 never are traced.

In Sporting Vein

By Allan Bryce.

Jim Planche—spelled with an "e" in spite of the remarkable discovery by a Montreal paper that the name should read "Planch"—scored the goal that lifted Royals into a 3-3 tie with Winnipeg Rangers halfway through the second period last night in Maple Leaf Gardens, but with that tally the Montreal youngsters shot their bolt and the husky lads from the Prairies went rolling on to win 7-4 and snag the Memorial Cup. Planche, the East Angus boy, Bud Farmer, Bob Carragher, Grant Morrison, Ross Ritchie and all the other Royals worked like Trojans before 7,000 fans, who for once supported a Montreal team, but the Westerners had a little too much on the ball, and staged a finishing drive that was irresistible.

Royals, however, struck a mighty blow for Quebec Province, previously a minus quantity as far as junior hockey was concerned, and Winnipeg had to step, and step plenty to win.

Sherbrooke's "Fighting Irish" of St. Patrick's Academy, almost as famous for hockey achievements as the original "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame are for football, looked back over an outstanding season last night as cups and prizes were presented in the Academy auditorium. Ninety-five of the 130 pupils played hockey on one school team or another during the winter, and the junior team captured the league championship. Local fans know well how many crack players have been turned out—Austin Workman, Eddie Wolfe, Len O'Donnell, "Sonny" Mooney, Bill Gordon, Brendan Veilleux, Johnny Hibbard, Ash Hibbard and scores more—and the current edition of St. Pat's youngsters is eager to surpass the feats of those who have gone before.

Montreal's International Baseball League Royals made their debut before their home fans this afternoon in the Delormier Street Stadium against the pace-setting Bears of Newark, whom they trail by a margin of two and a half games. The Royals really seem to have something on the ball this season, and their seven-and-five record away from home to start the long campaign has Montreal fans all in a dither. Larry MacPhail, effervescent President of the Brooklyn Dodgers, parent organization of the Royals, has promised to give Montreal a real pennant contender, and it looks as if his word will be backed up, unless the Flatbushers suddenly collapse in the National League and start hauling Royals up to save the day.

As a part of a farewell programme for the Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment, a sports afternoon is to be held on the Parade Grounds on Saturday, May 24th, five days before the unit leaves this city, and it is expected that large numbers will be on hand to watch the games and competitions. In all probability merchants here and throughout the Eastern Townships will be anxious to help the organizers of the event by providing prizes, and this would be a good way to demonstrate the good-will toward the unit that exists throughout the district.

Sydney still should win the Allan Cup. After breezing through the first two games of the best-of-five series, the Maritimers with all their polish and experience, bogged down in the face of the fighting spirit and tenacious checking of Regina's Rangers and, held to a tie in the third contest, dropped the next two by slim margins. Reports of the play in the fifth clash said the East's standard-bearers held a wide margin territorially, but that the dogged defensive tactics of the Rangers kept them from scoring more than twice. Big Mel Snowdon, Captain of the Millionaires, will have to stick pretty close to the rules in the deciding encounter Friday night to avoid any repetition of the disastrous two-goal thrust made by the Reginians while he served a penalty in the second period of Tuesday night's festivities.

Attention, Boston: Fritzie Zivic says his return bout with Mike Kaplan will go to either New York or Pittsburgh despite a $17,500 guarantee from Boston parties.

MONTREAL WILL OPEN BASEBALL SEASON TODAY

Inaugural Day Ceremonies Being Held in Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto and Montreal.

The International League fires the second barrel of opening day ceremonies this afternoon in the four so-called "Northern" cities of the circuit.

Providing the Weather Man cooperates, fans of Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto and Montreal will turn out for the usual inaugural day celebrations and welcome home their heroes from a two-week road trip.

The same clubs which started the season in the "South" April 17 will again face each other across the diamond, with Rochester meeting Jersey City, Buffalo entertaining Syracuse, Montreal playing host to Newark and Toronto welcoming Baltimore.

Taken as a group the four home clubs today have a slight edge over the visitors in the league standings.

Newark's Bears got away to a fast start in Ruppert Stadium and lead the loop with a record of ten victories and three defeats, but it remains to be seen if they can hold that pace away from home.

Montreal Royals are in second, half a game ahead of Jersey City's Little Giants, with Buffalo Bisons, Rochester Red Wings and Toronto Leafs strung out in that order behind.

Abe Simon, who has insured his hand for $25,000, is the first pug on record to do same. Abraham's taking no chances on his dukes being put out of commission before the (if and when) Joe Louis encore.

Vaudeville And Music At Fights To Be Furnished By Fusilier Regiment

Active Service Unit's Brass Band to Play Between Rounds of Benefit Boxing Programme Saturday Night in Belvidere Street Armory—Six Bouts to Be Staged.

The fight card to be staged in the Belvidere Street Armory on Saturday night in aid of the Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment promises to surpass the original benefit programme held last year with the six fights providing all kinds of action from bell to bell.

Matchmaker Albert Kouri has left no stone unturned in his campaign to round up the best talent available, and feels confident that the fans attending the bouts will get more than their money's worth.

Lt.-Col. Emile Levesque, Officer Commanding Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, is the man behind the scenes in the arrangement of the programme, and has high hopes that this presentation will be an even greater success than last year's effort.

Presence of the brass band of the Sherbrooke Fusilier Regiment, which has made remarkably fast progress since it was organized several months ago, will add spice to the evening. In addition, the men of the unit will put on vaudeville acts between bouts. It was learned today that the trucks and mechanical vehicles of the Fusiliers will parade tomorrow night to create interest in the bouts.

Opening scrap on the programme will pit Young Ryan, of Sherbrooke, against Johnny Rinaldi in a four-rounder. Three six-round scraps will be seen, Bob Duplin, of Drummondville, tangling with Kid Pepin, Eddie Bolduc, of Sherbrooke, meeting K.O. Beauchesne, of Asbestos, and Fernand Demers, of Montreal, clashing with Robert Vachon, of Drummondville. Pepin and Rinaldi are at the Lord Sherbrooke Camp and, toughened by military training, should give their rivals plenty of trouble.

The two ten-round battles are counted on to provide the highlights of the card. Van Geenhoven, a Montrealer, will oppose Gerard Vachon in the first one. This Vachon, a Drummondville product, has built up a fine reputation in the Eastern Townships as a cagy boxer and heavy hitter, and will be well able to handle himself against the metropolis mittman.

Wildcat Petit, who is drawn against K.O. Boisvert, of Asbestos, in the feature fray, needs no introduction to local fans. A gamecock from away back, Petit has always been a ball of fire in the ring and gives everything he has. For the first time in a long while he will be able to meet an opponent on even terms from the point of view of height, and Boisvert will find him a shifty target. Boisvert is a fast-moving, deadly-punching fighting machine, and has piled up a long string of knockouts. He recently won from Petit by a decision at Asbestos.

Through the kindness of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club, the chairs used at the Park Avenue Stadium will be loaned to Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke for Saturday night, and thus seating accommodations will be improved. Tickets for the bouts are on sale at the Belvidere Street Armory at Kosy Sweets, Earl's and E. T. News.

Montreal, May 1.—The trend was steady to slightly easier in local produce dealings with butter being off a shade in both open market and Commodity Exchange dealings. Graded egg shipments in large lots were about steady with the market generally around 23 cents, although the Commodity Exchange close was unchanged at 23 to 23½ cents. Egg receipts were in fair volume. Imported potato grades were also somewhat lower, domestics being mainly steady.

COURTESY USED IN SEIZURE OF FOUR GERMANS

United States Official Reports that British Boarding Party Created Little Trouble.

Honolulu, May 1.— (AP) —F. W. Richardson of the United States Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, said here today a British boarding party which removed four German aviators from the American liner President Garfield conducted itself with the utmost courtesy.

Some distance from Honolulu, the President Garfield was halted by a British auxiliary cruiser Wednesday. The Germans were formerly employed in the commercial air service in South America. "The cruiser came dashing over the horizon at about twenty-two knots," said Richardson. "Everything was done in the smoothest manner and with no confusion.

"The cruiser signalled us with its blinker to stop. When it came closer a voice was heard by loudspeaker telling us to put down a ladder.

"A cutter was lowered from the cruiser and rowed toward the President Garfield. A three-striper (commander) came aboard alone. Just after that came another cutter with two officers and men, all with sidearms. The passengers were quite excited.

"One of the Germans took quite a little time to find because he was on the upper deck. I don't think he was hiding.

"The Germans went to their cabins and packed, with armed guards watching, while other baggage was taken out of the baggage rooms. Then the Germans were taken to a cutter and rowed to the cruiser."

Other passengers said Captain Murphy of the President Garfield was ordered not to take photographs of the crew or the removal of the Germans, but that the order was not obeyed by crew members and passengers.

Cautain Murphy said the auxiliary cruiser appeared on the President Garfield's starboard bow at 2:22 p.m. flying signal flags notfying the President Garfield to heave to for boarding and that he immediately rang the stop signal to the engine room. He said a British officer asked for the passenger list and that he referred the officer to the purser. He said the President Garfield resumed its course at 3:32 p.m., one hour and ten minutes after the first notice to halt.

House of Commons

said Western members appeared to be able to forget their political differences when the wheat problem was discussed and thought Eastern members should be able to do the same. The agricultural problem in Eastern Canada was acute, and needed careful and impartial consideration in Parliament.

As the sitting opened members applauded statements from Labor Minister McLarty and Munitions Minister Howe on appointment of a controller to operate the National Steel Car Corporation plant at Hamilton, where a strike had been in progress two days. The strike ended after the controller was appointed.

The Minister said the action was taken because the Company had refused to accept the recommendations of a board of conciliation.

The safe evacuation of most of the Imperial forces from Greece also drew applause when Prime Minister Mackenzie King read to the House a statement made in the British House of Commons by Prime Minister Churchill a few hours earlier.

VICTORY HELD ESSENTIAL TO REAL FREEDOM

Ford Company of Canada President Urges Canadian Industries to Play Their Part in Winning the War.

Windsor, Ont., May 1.—"Canadians, except for those serving in the armed forces, are not in the front line," declared Wallace R. Campbell, President, Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, at the annual shareholders' meeting.

Shareholders were informed that events which transcend the importance the normal activities of the company fundamentally affect its present operations and future prospects.

"Destructive forces threaten the very existence of the British Empire, with which the interests of Canada and every Canadian enterprise are interwoven.

"This threat endangers the peace and freedom of all other countries. Until it is ended, there can be no real prosperity or security anywhere in the world," said Mr. Campbell.

"The fact that we are not in the front lines does not lessen our responsibility. It places a special obligation upon us. In meeting this obligation there is no room for half measures. Whatever effort and sacrifice may be required must be given without reservation and quickly," declared Mr. Campbell.

The present grave situation must be met with courage and resolution," he said.

"The very methods that have made possible the temporary gains of the enemy have set in motion forces that will eventually bring about his defeat. Unrestricted submarine warfare and indiscriminate bombing of civilians and non-military targets in the British Isles, intended to weaken morale, have strengthened the unity and determination and intensified the war effort of the British Empire. The oppression of subjugated peoples has stimulated resentment which awaits only the opportunity for action. The enemy's military and diplomatic policy has aroused the United States to the vital necessity of a vast defence program and the passing of the lend-lease legislation to afford aid to Britain. This action, which makes the entire industrial capacity of this continent available for defence of democracy, has strengthened the ties of friendship and the interests that unite the English-speaking nations, and given renewed courage to all democratic peoples."

"Following these events, the decisions recently reached at Hyde Park have prepared the way for increased economic co-operation between Canada and the United States, and will make any surplus in productive capacity, commodities and materials in either country available to Great Britain or wherever it may be needed for defence against aggression. This will powerfully supplement, without replacing, the productive capacity developed throughout the British Empire," Mr. Campbell said.

In a review of the company's operations in 1940, Mr. Campbell said that every phase of its business was greatly affected by participation in the war effort of the British Empire. The value of the company's production was doubled and reached a level never before attained. Half of total production was in vehicles for military use. Sales for military purposes in Canada and other Empire countries aggregated $45,566,845 and total sales income was $86,120 884.

Profit before deduction for income and excess profits taxes was 24.1 per cent higher than in 1940, but after provision for these taxes amounting to $1,950,869.00, net profit was 14.2 per cent lower than in the previous year.

The increased production of military vehicles resulted in a marked increase in the number of employees, hours of work, and wages and salaries paid in 1940. At the end of the year the company employed 11,486 persons, an increase during the year of 48.6 per cent. A total of $17,798,081 was paid in wages and salaries, the highest amount in company history.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 1.— (AP) — Florida's Senate passed unanimously a bill to make an intoxicated person immune from arrest unless he creates some disorder. Senator Fred P. Parker, who died Sunday, sponsored the measure, explaining that he favored it because he once had a farmer friend who was arrested while peacefully sleeping in his automobile and had to sell his forty-acre farm to pay his fine.
