O'BRIEN WILL BE A MARTYR.

DUBLIN, Sept. 12.—Mr. O'Brien spent the day at Ballybrack yesterday with Messrs. Dillon and Harrington. He received a telegram from Mr. Labouchere and Mr. Brunner requesting him to accompany them to London. Mr. O'Brien, accompanied by Mr. Harrington, went on board the Kingstown boat for the purpose of declining the invitation to go to London when a detective met him and said he would not be arrested if he pledged himself not to go to England. Mr. O'Brien refused this condition when he was taken into custody and escorted to the Imperial Hotel by the detective, who informed him that he could stay there all night if he would give a promise that he would not make a speech. This promise was not given and Mr. O'Brien addressed a crowd from the balcony of the hotel. In the course of his brief remarks he said: "So long as there is breath in my body my voice will not be silent until I am gagged. I am proud to suffer for Mitchellstown. When in Kingstown I was told that I would not be arrested if I did not undertake to go to England. That shows that the Government is beginning to dread us in England." Mr. O'Brien will remain at the hotel and proceed to Mitchellstown this morning. The crowd gathered in front of the hotel was very enthusiastic. Mr. O'Brien in an interview on the subject of his arrest, said that he had no intention of going to England when he boarded the boat. He merely went there to see Mr. Labouchere. As to making a speech at the hotel, he had no idea of doing so until the detective mentioned it.

this a great indignity, as they will be compelled to go through the Protestant part of the town. They claim that they have a right to take the usual route, promising to resort to no violence. The funeral will begin at two p.m.

CANADIAN STOCKS IN ENGLAND.

TORONTO, Sept. 12.—The following special cable appears in this morning's Globe:

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The chief feature in Canadian stocks on the Stock Exchange this week has been the fluctuations in railway securities. The better tone in New York, coupled with the dividend statement of the Grand Trunk, which was distinctly better than was generally anticipated, produced a strong demand at the beginning of the week for Grand Trunk, and a sharp advance in price occurred. Since then a reaction set in and part of the advance was lost. Most of the Grand Trunk stocks, however, show an advance on the week. It is significant that Canadian Pacific did not share in the general rise and have fallen one point since last Saturday. The feeling seems to be that the traffic statement is not so satisfactory as had been anticipated. Canadian Government securities continue steady. Bank and Land Company shares are a trifle firmer.

NEWS FROM THE FAR EAST.

THE GREAT CHINESE BANK SYNDICATE—FEARS OF THE PRESS REGARDING ITS INFLUENCE UPON THE COUNTRY'S WELFARE—A BIG JAPANESE LOAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—The steamer "San Pueblo" arrived from China and Japan this evening. Hong Kong advices, referring to the Chinese concessions, state that a new Imperial amalgamated bank is to be started within the next six months. The directorate will consist of an equal number of Chinese and Americans, with a Chinese president. The capital will be from twenty-five to fifty million taels. Twelve of the largest banks in the United States are in the syndicate.

A sharp shock of earthquake was felt at Yokohama on August 15th. It lasted three minutes.

At Babamachi, Japan, on August 11th, four hundred houses were destroyed by fire.

The rumor that the Japanese Government intends raising a ten million yen loan in Germany is not discredited. Germany is resorted to because it has large quantities of silver stored up, which, it is stated, she will consent to lend at a low rate of interest.

The Chinese concessions are given great space in the Chinese and Japanese papers. The Japan Mail says: "The privileges granted to the American Syndicate cannot be held from other nations. China is thrusting her head into a very ugly yoke. We believe she will draw back before the mischief is done." The North China News says: "The concessions are per contra liable to monstrous abuse and can be used so as to undermine the state and bogzar the people. At present China has not a civil servant competent to deal with the excessive complications of the matter."

THE CHICAGO BOODLERS.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY THE GRAND JURY.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Nine indictments were returned by the Grand Jury, yesterday, against four persons alleged to have been abettors in the McGargie escape, namely, Dr. Leonard St. John, of the College of Physicians and Surgeons; Levi Dell, janitor of the same college; Capt. John Irwin, commander of the schooner "Edward Blake," and Capt. John Freer, commander of the "George A. Marsh." A local paper says Lincoln Park Lodge, on Friday night, met for the purpose of taking action on the charges of unbecoming conduct preferred against W. J. McGargie, a member of that lodge. The lodge unanimously voted to expel the accused member.

A PASSENGER WAR.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—A local paper asserts that the trouble over the reduced rates to the constitutional celebration at Philadelphia is rapidly leading to a bitter passenger war.

The revolution in San Salvador has been suppressed.

FIRES.

COBURG, Ont., September 10.—About 10.30 this (Saturday) evening a fire was discovered in the sheds surrounding the agricultural fair grounds and about 200 yards of them, with a dwelling, were quickly consumed. Thirteen horses, valued at $2,000, purchased by the British Government and awaiting shipment here, were also burned. The loss on the buildings will be about $3,000; insurance not yet known.

PETROLIA, Ont., September 11.—A fire broke out here, this morning, in Marshall's butcher shop, on Main street, totally destroying it. The fire at present writing is raging in the Telephone and Express Office, also Wilson's shoe store. The fire brigade is on hand and have the fire under control.

WEATHER REPORT.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, Sept. 12, 1 a.m.—The pressure is generally high throughout Ontario and the Eastern Provinces with fair cool weather. A depression is developing in the North-West Territories and States. Cautionary signal No. 1 has been ordered for Lake Superior. Probabilities for the next twenty-four hours:—Lakes, easterly winds, increasing to strong in the western portion, fair weather, slightly higher temperature. St. Lawrence, moderate winds, fair weather, not much change in temperature. Gulf, moderate to fresh winds, fair weather, not much change in temperature. Maritime, moderate winds, fair weather, not much change in temperature.

THE ANCIENT CAPITAL.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

QUEBEC, Sept. 12.

A PECUNIARY SUCCESS.

It is now positively claimed that the receipts of the Provincial Exhibition exceeded $12,000, and that the Committee will have a good surplus after paying all expenses. The President, Mr. Joly, has issued a card of thanks to all who contributed to the success of the show. Mr. Tarte, of Le Canadien, was one of the most successful exhibitors, taking seven first prizes and a diploma for his herd of Canadian cattle and a second prize for a Jersey bull.

OBITU.

Mr. Jean Langelier, Deputy Provincial Registrar, died yesterday after a very brief illness. He was a brother of Mayor Langelier, of Quebec, and of Mr. Charles Langelier, M.P., and his premature taking off is very generally regretted.

NOTES.

Another prominent member of the Quebec Civil Service, Mr. Buteau Turcotte, brother of the Hon. A. Turcotte, is reported to be dying at Three Rivers.

The demand for personal disqualification against Mr. Martin, ex M.P.P. for Rimouski, has been dropped and he will be again a candidate for the seat against Mr. Asselin.

A GAY WEEK.

This week promises to be one of universal gaiety in social circles. Cards have been issued by Madame Marchand for an "At Home," this evening, in the Speaker's Chambers, Parliament Buildings. Invitations are out for an afternoon dancing party on board H.M.S. "Bellerophon," in the name of Vice-Admiral Lyons, the captain of the flag ship, and officers. On Saturday, the 17th inst., Admiral Vignes (who returned on Saturday from British Columbia), and the officers of the French war frigate "La Minerve," will entertain their friends at a similar entertainment.

THE WAR SHIPS ILLUMINATED.

The illumination of the war vessels in port, on Saturday evening, on the departure of the Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne, after dining with the Admiral on board the "Bellerophon," was a magnificent spectacle and was witnessed by at least 10,000 persons. The effect was magnificent as the three ships stood out a blaze of light against the dark night. The hills were blazing with red fire, rockets were shot from the slopes of the glacis, and answering fireworks were despatched from the Admiral's frigate. The ships presented a really beautiful appearance, the softened lights at the sides blending prettily with the falling stars of fire from the masts and yards. Unfortunately, however, the brilliant spectacle did not pass off without a serious accident on board the flagship "Bellerophon." A large quantity of rockets, about sixty, suddenly exploded on the deck, burning and injuring Mr. Doughty, a midshipman and five seamen. The injured men were at once attended to by the doctor and by latest accounts are reported to be going on as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The continuation of the Turf club's races on Saturday afternoon also attracted a large crowd, the Governor-General and Lady Lansdowne, the Admiral of the British fleet, Sir A. P. Caron, and a brilliant suite lending additional zest by their presence to the meeting.

The series of outside amusements connected with the exhibition closed this morning with the grand naval review on Abraham's Plains. The spectacle was a most interesting one, there being some 800 or 1,000 British sailors and marines on the field from the three British war vessels in port.

Lady Lansdowne and suite leave for Sherbrooke this afternoon, where they will be the guests of Mr. Hall, M.P., and where His Excellency will open the Eastern Townships fair. He will return to Quebec towards the end of the week and remain here till the 10th or 12th of October.

The French flagship and tender leave for sea on Monday next.

The "Tourmaline" leaves for Montreal tomorrow.

The trustees of the Beaudet & Chicic insolvent estate are offering for sale by tender the stock which is valued at $100,000.

It speaks well for the honesty and carefulness of the visitors to the city during exhibition week that the police did not receive a single complaint of pocket-picking.

(Special to the Witness.)

LENOXVILLE, Sept. 10.—An old and respected farmer of Huntingville, named Dean, was found dead upon the Grand Trunk track near Huntingville this morning. He had evidently been run over by some train in the night, as the body was mangled. Deceased was nearly 80 years of age.

NEWS.

TRANSATLANTIC.

THE MITCHELSTOWN RIOT.

DESPERATE CHARACTER OF THE MOB—INCIDENTS OF THE FIGHT.

DUBLIN, Sept. 10.—All the persons who attended yesterday's meeting in Mitchelstown have returned to their homes. Fifty-four constables were injured in the Nationalist riot to such extent that physicians' services were required. One hundred and fifty civilians were also injured. The police assert that the trouble there yesterday was due to the Nationalist leaders shouting for the mob to hold together. The Nationalists are exultant over the good fight they made yesterday. A Tipperary boy broke through a squad composed of twelve policemen and fought them single-handed. The police finally overpowered him, but the mob made a rush and rescued him from his captors. The police paraded this morning. A majority of them wore bandages over the wounds they received yesterday. Fourteen policemen, who were injured during the rioting, were carried to the hospital.

THE RIOT DISCUSSED IN PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. John G. Gibson, Solicitor-General for Ireland, in reply to an interrogatory by Mr. Sexton, said the Government did not have sufficient information to make a statement in relation to the troubles at Mitchelstown. Mr. Sexton then said: "I shall resist any progress of the Appropriation Bill until the Government gives the desired information." (Parnellite cheers.)

Later in the sitting, Mr. Sexton appealed to the Government to give such justification as they could for the murderous acts at Mitchelstown yesterday. "It was beyond doubt," he said, "that the bloodshed had resulted from the wanton attacks of an armed force upon a body of citizens, engaged in the exercise of their undoubted constitutional right of public meeting. On every previous occasion application had been made for the accommodation of Government reporters, and had never been refused. This time no application was made, but another course was adopted, whose apparent object was to excite the passions of the people and provoke them to violence." (Parnellite cheers.) Who ordered the firing? What steps had been taken to identify the men who committed the murders? The catastrophe was the inevitable result of the language and acts of the Government, who had found it easier to begin than to end the conflict." (Cheers.)

Mr. Balfour replied that Mr. Sexton had given an account of the affair more minute and detailed than any he could lay before the house, but which differed in every vital and substantial particular from the accounts the Government had received. The Government reporter, said Mr. Balfour, under an escort of police, attempted to approach the vehicle from which the speakers were going to address the people. Mr. Condon shouted to the people to close up against the police. That was the signal for an assault on the police, which was utterly unprovoked and of the most violent and brutal character. They were pelted with stones and blackthorn sticks, thrown out of formation and ridden down by men on horseback and driven back inside the barracks. The doors and windows of the barracks were broken, and it was then in self defence that the shots were fired. (Cheers.) If this account was true, as he believed it was, there never had been a more wanton or brutal attack upon the police. (Renewed cheers.)

Mr. Sexton asked: "Do you deny that the space around the barracks was entirely free when the shots were fired?"

Mr. Balfour said he had given the substance of the reports telegraphed to him. Fifty-four of the police were struck and twenty of them severely injured. The men did no more than their duty in resorting to their means of defence as a last necessity. The responsibility rested with a band of politicians, calling themselves leaders of the Irish people, who spoke of the Government reporters as spies. If those persons, instead of talking about constitutional agitation, had exercised their influence to keep the people within law, the country would not have to deplore these scenes.

Mr. J. O'Connor justified Mr. Condon's advice to the people to close their ranks. The Irish members, he said, were doing their best to restrain the people, while the Irish officials were doing their utmost to provoke them.

A PROTEST.

Sir Edward Reed, member for Cardiff, warned the Government that the English electors would resent interference with public meetings. The people of Great Britain would not allow their fellow-subjects in Ireland to be treated like the people of Mitchelstown had been treated.

O'BRIEN ARRESTED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 11.—Mr. O'Brien was arrested to-day while seeing Mr. Labouchere off on the steamer.

MITCHELSTOWN QUIET.

MITCHELSTOWN, Ireland, Sept. 11.—The town has been quiet to-day. The victims of the fight on Friday will be given a public funeral, which will be made the occasion of a great demonstration. The man Schinick and the boy Casey are dying from the effects of the wounds they received on Friday. Casey's ante-mortem deposition has been taken. He states that he was standing near Schinick at one corner of the square, when Head Constable O'Sullivan came to a window of the barracks and fired at him. Four witnesses confirm this statement. The Nationalists say they have evidence to establish the identity of the policeman who shot Riordan.

PRESS OPINIONS.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "The memory of old man Riordan lying dead in the market place at Mitchelstown, his grey hair matted with blood, will haunt both nations for many days to come." "It is the duty," the paper adds, "of all the leaders of the Opposition to visit Ireland, Mr. Gladstone first, to answer yesterday's bloody challenge."

The Dublin Freeman's Journal says the bloodstain is indelibly attached to Mr. Balfour, secretary for Ireland. The Journal accuses the officials of sending a force of police and reporters to Mitchelstown, on whose evidence the warrants against Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Mandeville, the poor law guardian, were issued for the special purpose of expatriating the crowd.

The Globe says: "Mr. O'Brien and his friends have at last succeeded in bringing about bloodshed. Upon them rests the entire moral responsibility for the death of those killed at Mitchelstown yesterday."

STANLEY HEARD FROM.

THE EXPEDITION'S PROGRESS.

A despatch received in London from St. Paul de Loanda, under date of September 9th, states that Major Bartollet, commander of the camp on the Aruwimi, had sent advices to Leopoldville that he had received news from Henry M. Stanley dated July 12th. Stanley was then ten days march in the interior and was still proceeding up the Aruwimi which he had found navigable above the rapids. He had launched the steel whale boat and rafts. The members of the expedition were in good health and provisions were easily procured at the large villages. The country showed a gradual rise towards high table lands. A caravan of four hundred and eighty men followed the expedition on the left bank of the river, and an advance guard of forty natives of Zanzibar, led by Lieut. Staves, foraged for supplies. Stanley expected to arrive on July 22nd at the centre of the Matradi district, and to reach Waddai by the middle of August. The advance had been so peacefully accomplished that Stanley had instructed Bartollet that he would shortly send him orders to follow the expedition by the same route.

THE SAMOAN EMBROGGLIO.

GERMANY'S POSITION DEFINED.

The North German Gazette of Berlin says: The Government has received no information concerning the imposition of a heavy fine upon King Malitua, of Samoa, and his subsequent deposition by the commander of the German squadron. It is true that the squadron was ordered to demand satisfaction for robberies committed on German plantations and for insults to the Emperor William and the abuse of Germans while celebrating the Emperor's birthday in Apia. If King Malitua refused to pay damages and to give satisfaction for the insults it is probable that the military intervened. Samoan foreign relations, especially the rights of Germany, England and America, will remain the same whatever may be the fate of King Malitua. A large majority of the Samoans have long recognized the authority of Tamasese as King.

AMERICAN.

MGR. GIBBONS AND DR. McGLYNN.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—Cardinal Gibbons authorizes the following statement in reference to his connection with the McGlynn case:— "Shortly after his arrival in Rome in February last, Cardinal Gibbons, in an audience with the Holy Father, was requested by His Holiness to ask Dr. McGlynn to come to Rome. The next day the Cardinal complied with the instructions of the Holy Father, but as he did not know Dr. McGlynn's address, he wrote the letter to Dr. Burtell, because he regarded him as a friend of Dr. McGlynn. Some weeks later Cardinal Gibbons received a reply from Dr. Burtell giving reasons and excuses why Dr. McGlynn did not go to Rome. As the answer from Dr. Burtell was addressed not to Cardinal Simeoni but to Cardinal Gibbons himself, the latter saw no reason for handing the letter to the Propaganda. Far, however, from "suppressing" its contents, he was very careful to communicate them to the Cardinal Prefect of the Propaganda. It may be added that Cardinal Gibbons was in no way authorized to act as an intermediary between Dr. McGlynn and his Archbishop, and, therefore, scrupulously avoided interfering in a matter in which he had no direct concern, and his visit to Rome had in view a different purpose.

Mr. Balfour said he had given the substance of the reports telegraphed to him. Fifty-four of the police were struck and twenty of them severely injured. The men did no more than their duty in resorting to their means of defence as a last necessity. The responsibility rested with a band of politicians, calling themselves leaders of the Irish people, who spoke of the Government reporters as spies. If those persons, instead of talking about constitutional agitation, had exercised their influence to keep the people within law, the country would not have to deplore these scenes.

A CHURCH FLOOR FALLS IN CAUSING A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., September 11.—A terrible accident is reported from Needmore, a small inland village three miles north of Manchester. The Rev. J. M. Carter and Dr. Logan were to speak there yesterday in favor of prohibition. When they arrived they found a big revival in progress and did not speak. The revival was conducted in a two-story church building, the upper floor being used for church purposes, and the lower being given up exclusively to school purposes. Yesterday there was an immense audience in the upper story, listening attentively to the exhortations, when suddenly and without warning the rear end of the floor gave way with a crash, carrying 60 or 70 people with it. The fall was thirteen feet, and hardly one of them escaped injury. The injured were quickly rescued from the wreck and three of them found to be seriously hurt. One man is fatally injured. Every physician in the county was immediately sent for and the work of relieving the injured promptly begun. No further particulars have been received of the disaster.

SOCIALISM AND THE LABOR UNION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—There was a test of strength between the Socialists and anti-Socialists at night's meeting of the Central Labor Union. The Socialists were defeated on two motions, one by 85 to 53 and one by 74 to 65. There was so much filibustering that no actual business was transacted.

THE KNIGHTS AND CONVICT LABOR.

KINGSTON, Sept. 10.—An enquiry of the Knights of Labor has elicited the fact from the Minister of Public Works that nothing definite has been decided upon in regard to the construction of a dry dock at Kingston, that in case it is built the labor of the convicts upon it would be confined to the quarrying and preparing of the stone necessary for its foundation.

RED CHEEKS.

(Mrs. Mary A. Collins, in Youth's Companion.)

We were at boarding-school when a letter came from my mother, telling me that my brother Richard, after his graduation at Yale, was to go to Heidelberg University, and that my sister Betty and I were to go abroad at the same time for two years of travel and study.

Our astonishment was still undigested when we found ourselves at sea on the great Cunarder. On the fourth day out, Richard helped us up, one by one, from the close staterooms to the deck above.

What a day that was! The air like ammonia—the waves a living blue, with crested tops, and the sea running so high that at times the deck was almost perpendicular. We were lashed to our steamer-chairs, and the chairs in turn to trustworthy parts of the ship. Around us were other passengers, fixtures like ourselves.

Directly in the line of my vision there sat, side by side, with their chairs bound together,—two noticeably elegant people,—a middle-aged man and his mother. I could not avoid staring at them, unless I looked fixedly up into the air, which was tiresome to my neck, or down into my lap which was equally tiresome to my mind, and I was not athletic enough to keep a book in proper position for reading.

They did look very odd, those two, sitting so close to one another, with their feet extended indefinitely under their travelling blankets. They had the appearance of being transported to Europe feet-first on a joint litter. I wondered if they were going through as freight, they were so inanimate.

Suddenly the "distingué son," as we girls came to call him, began to move his hands with the gestures of the deaf and dumb, and from that time on they kept up such fitful conversation as the behavior of the ship allowed. Being familiar with the signs of the deaf and dumb, I sat watching them, without remembering that I was eavesdropping with my eyes.

They came at length to speak of my party as inoffensively as if we had been a part of the sea view. They wondered whether Mrs. Graham was our collective mother, or aunt, or governess; they thought May and Edith belonged to the line, intellectual, Bostonian type of girls; they were enthusiastic over Betty's cherubic face—and then my turn came. It was the son who was gesturing.

"Mother, is not that girl exceedingly pretty? All she needs to be a tremendous beauty is a little more brilliant color. She is a trifle too much of the pen-and-ink order. Wait till she gets well, and her color comes back, and I mean to paint her, if this conveyance will stand still long enough."

I sat stunned. Did I look like that, or was the man blind, in addition to his other ills? I had always wanted to be pretty, in spite of mother's teachings that my teeth and nails were the only personal charms I needed to cultivate, and that, though my other features would doubtless prove useful to me, it would be by my teeth and nails that I should stand or fall in the world's estimation.

At a boarding-school, in the companionship of girls with less sensible mothers, I had grown still more anxious about my appearance; and although my features received compliments enough, all the while I harbored a secret discontent and envy. Betty, May, and Edith, in fact almost all my girl-friends,—and even my brother Richard, when blessed with brilliant complexions, whilst mine was only a delicate olive tint—at least I should say that, only the term associates itself in my mind with pickles and salad oil.

The winter winds, that should have given me roses, brought a fine redness to my nose, and the summer sun broiled me brown. It only needed the comments of a stranger to open up flood-gates of vanity over the beauty already mine, and to rouse my discontent into insatiable craving. It was hard to be on the brink of great beauty, and to be held back by what I felt my youth and health entitled me to. If a Grecian nose had been needed to complete my appearance, that would have been different; but to lack what thousands of coarse, common women had too much of was exasperating.

That night I could not sleep. The stateroom was stuffy, the ship creaked and strained, the dishes in the steward's pantry ran and slid, like boys on the ice, and under the berth a half-dozen shoes travelled incessantly back and forth, as though spirit legs were propelling them. Betty shared my stateroom, and from an occasional creaking of the slats above me, I thought that she too was awake.

"Betty!" I whispered, cautiously.

"Yes, Julie," came drowsily down.

"Betty, is it wrong to paint?"

"Paint what?" asked Betty, sleepily.

"Faces, of course. I hope you didn't think I meant landscapes."

"Oh," said Betty, more sleepily yet, "landscapes? Why, no—not if you know how."

"Betty," I shouted, rapping smartly on the slats above me, "wake-up! If you should die in the night, I don't want to have to tell those as your last words. Now, Betty, is it wrong to rouge?"

"I think," said Betty, "it is disgusting; but whatever stirred you up to it, at this time of the night?"

Then I told her what I had heard, and that I wanted red cheeks more than anything else in the world. What was more, I was going to have them. If I could not get them any other way, I was going to rouge them red.

"Julie," said Betty, nearly tumbling off in her earnestness, "you know you won't! Go to sleep now. I think you look like an angel just the way you are."

"Yes," I said, "a pen-and-ink angel." I let Betty go to sleep, but I lay reasoning the matter out with myself. If ever I needed false teeth, I should not go without because nature had not provided me with an extra set to lay by in my bureau drawers. And so with a wig. If I lost all my hair, I should not have trouble in my conscience over a false front. If the hairs of my head were all numbered, it showed plainly that I was entitled to a certain number, however I came by them. In the midst of my argument I fell asleep, and dreamed that I was hired to rouge the evening sky, which feat I was accomplishing by means of a step-ladder planted on the Himalayas, when I awakened to find the sun pouring in a golden cylinder through our port-hole.

TAME ANIMALS.

Almost all of our small native animals are easily tamed, and although most unconventional, are delightful pets. The prairie-dog, from our Western plains, is one that has often lived in houses, and is declared to be playful, affectionate, and knowing. He is a persistent little fellow, however, and once having made up his mind where he wants to live, he is quite certain to rest in that very spot, in spite of all the arguments people can bring to bear upon him. He readily learns to ask for what he wants, and to make himself understood. It is no trouble to him to adapt his taste to human food, and he is wise enough to make a choice, and to insist upon having it. Also he generally has his favorite in the family, of whom he is especially fond, and correspondingly exacting.

Another well-informed and erratic beast is the raccoon—familiarily called the 'coon. He is remarkably intelligent and imitative, copying almost as exactly as a monkey everything he sees people do, such as washing the hands, drawing a needle through cloth, and other things. So well do they learn our language that pet 'coons, like dogs and cats, have been known to run away and hide when the plan was made to give them away. This animal seems also to have a sense of humor; indeed, those who have studied him declare that he deliberately plays jokes upon people. He will eat anything from the table, and of one it is related that he was violently fond of coffee, and insisted on having a cup of it, well sweetened, before breakfast.

I believe no animal in the world is untamable, if taken young and properly treated. I have myself seen full-grown lions, which were pets from infancy, perfectly tame about the room of their mistress in an ordinary city house. They were frolicsome as most small animals, and to see kittenish pranks on so exaggerated a scale was very comical.

Bears are exceedingly clever and amusing in a house, but they are so clumsy and affectionate that they are rather troublesome, and really need more room than most houses afford. Young ocelots and jaguars are frequently tamed in Central America, and at least one of the former has been kept in New England, a winning pet, with quite as much playfulness as a domestic cat, and no more wildness.

Yet there is an old saying that however gentle may be the offspring of wild parents, a day will come when the pet will suddenly return to savagery, and a lingering dread of this as yet unproved assertion, added to the difficulty of housing full-grown animals, result in nearly every pet of the sort finding its way into a menagerie at last.

Animals of a different parentage, whose full-grown qualities we need not fear, are perhaps most desirable. The fawn is a loving, beautiful, and bright little creature which has often been kept in captivity, though better suited to the country, where it can have more room.

This objection, however, does not hold against foxes, which are perhaps the most wide-awake and amusing rogues in the animal world. They have lived on the most amicable terms with dogs, and while no more trouble than they afforded constant entertainment by their pranks. It must be said that cats utterly refuse to be friendly with Reynard.

Another quaint little beast that has often lived with people is the opossum. The greatest difficulty with this comical fellow is his propensity to make himself a soft bed, and to that end to appropriate anything that suits his fancy.

Almost any small animal, as said before, will easily adapt himself to civilized life, and take kindly to the position of household pet, but I have mentioned only those most frequently to be met and most appropriate to city life.—Harper's Bazar.

THE WORD FOR THE DAY.

Monday, September 12.

LOVE.

God is love.—1 John iv. 16.

—They only miss

The winning of that final bliss

Who will not count it true that love,

Blessing, not cursing, rules above,

And that in it we live and move.

TRENCH.

O God, who art Love, for the sake of the Son of Thy love,

Give me grace never more to sin against love.

MANY A FATHER spoils his son with intended kindness by relieving him from the necessity of effort, thereby not giving him a chance to exercise his powers and bring out the manhood in him. Thus many churches are never developed, because the minister either does nothing or does too much, and does not give the members a chance to exercise their gifts. Give the people a chance to do all they will by constantly placing before them, not the indefinite duty, but a practical opportunity which they must accept or refuse.—Rev. Smith. Baker.

The Eastern Townships of the Province of Quebec being provided with any Directory of a date sufficiently recent to be of practical value, the publisher has determined to supply the want so long felt for such a work. His intention is to publish a complete Business and Farmers' Directory of the counties of St. John, Missisquoi, Frontenac, Shefford, Stanstead, Sherbrooke, Compton, Richmond and Huntingdon, to take in the towns of Three Rivers, Nicolet, Herbyville, Chambly, St. Hyacinthe, Ormstown and Valleyfield, and also to include the principal places in other counties in the south-eastern section of the Province. There will be a brief though concise description of each place, giving population, location, railway connections, chief business industries, etc., in addition to the names and addresses of all the business and professional men, public officials, proprietors and tenant farmers, etc., resident within the territory included in the work. After each county or other section of country there will be a recapitulation of the name and address of the various traders, manufacturers and professional men, properly classified and alphabetically arranged. The Daily Witness. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1887.

MR. ERASTUS WIMAN'S SPEECHES on behalf of Commercial Union are the subject of immense laughter on the part of the organs of the Government which has not yet decided to espouse that measure.

A STARTLING REPORT reaches us, and citizens of Montreal and the whole Province will watch for developments with no small interest. The man, named W. V. B. Hall, whose attempt to get a liquor-seller's license on St. Catherine street west was defeated chiefly by the efforts of the Athletic Association, has been carrying on an underhand traffic without a license.

THE ONES OF THE IRISH MEMBERS' charges against the Government is not that the Government sent a reporter to take down the words spoken at a public meeting. That was offence enough in the eyes of the multitude who regard reporters as spies, but could not be very gravely urged in Parliament seeing that no one can dispute anybody's right to report a public meeting.

WE HAVE INDULGED a sort of superstition in Canada that the Ontario school system is the best in the world and only needs to be made more and more systematic and machine like.

points out that it would be as disastrous as absurd to expect an agnostic teacher to teach religion. It is to be presumed that any community that would be satisfied with an agnostic teacher would not want religion taught, but it is hard to see why communities where religion prevails, where the fact that a teacher is not a religious man would make him in the eyes of the people eminently unfit for the position of teacher, where, moreover, there is no dissent among the taxpayers, should not have the Scriptures taught as they choose.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES. MR. DUNCAN'S INDIANS DRIVEN FORTH FROM CANADIAN SOIL.

A correspondent writing from Fort Wrangel, on the 9th August, to the Oregonian, speaks as follows of the arrival of Mr. Duncan at New Metlakahla: On Sunday morning last the post was reached and the island, seventeen miles in length, was before us.

THE VALOIS REGATTA.

The Valois Regatta club, on Saturday, celebrated the opening of its boat-house which is not only the largest and in every way the finest on Lake St. Louis, but the most beautiful situation by the best regatta of the season.

The Dominion Barb Wire Company has taken a seizure before judgment against Messrs. Rousseau Bros. & Co., for $5,183.

SPORTS AND GAMES.

WHAT A BASEBALL MATCH IS LIKE.

Baseball has attained to such popularity and proportion in the States that in any large city twenty thousand people will assemble to witness a league game, paying a dollar each for the privilege.

NEVER EVEN SEEN A BASEBALL MATCH and are unconscious of loss! Listen. The umpire cries "play ball." The batters spread themselves in the directions in which it is anticipated the ball may travel.

BRIEF CHANCE OF INFLUENCING THE INNING is gone. When this is stated, his anxiety and nervous impatience will be understood. Behind the batter stands the catcher. He wears a mask whose form is proportionate, and a breastplate whose thickness attests the peril of his position.

DOESN'T OF IMPERFECT STARTS, and, perhaps, for all his pains, will lose his chance and be retired. The batters, with hands on knees, are ready to spring forward and the spectators are equally eager to draw back, as the sometimes unimpeded ball has a tendency to strike Jones in the pit of the stomach.

Notwithstanding the chilly weather, a crowd of about two thousand people were present at the St. Albans Lacrosse Ground to witness the first game of baseball in this city between the St. Albans and Gordons. It probably being the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game of baseball in Montreal.

THE TOWNSHIPS' FAIR.

The third annual exhibition of the Eastern Townships' Agricultural Association will open at Sherbrooke to-morrow. It will be officially visited by Lord and Lady Lansdowne at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

A LACHINE ROAD FIRE.

A fire took place on the Lower Lachine road on Saturday night, whereby the residence of Mr. John Irwin, milkman, was totally destroyed.

went around first, and Gwilt second; but Childs, who was pulling "like a brick" and steering splendidly, was a close third. On the up course, Gordon put on the steam for about a quarter of a mile and drew steadily ahead.

SINGLE VERBIS DOUBLE BLADES as effectively as possible. The race was half a mile straight away—which was in the favor of the wind-mill men—and the water was smooth, another strong point in their favor.

JEALOUSY AND A KNIFE. WHAT A SCOTCH SAILOR ALLEGES IN HIS ANTI-MORTEM DEPOSITION. A curious stabbing affray took place on Saturday evening in St. Urbain street.

WANTS MORE ROOM. THE COURT OF APPEAL AND THE PROPOSED COURT HOUSE EXTENSION. With reference to the new plans for improvements to the Court House, mentioned in Thursday's Witness, TEMPERANCE AT ST. PATRICK'S. St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, Mr. Edward Murphy presiding.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS. COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH—THE VIOLENT BAKERS FINED. At Saturday's sitting of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Coteau St. Louis bakers who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault on their employer were each sentenced to pay a fine of $20, and were severely reprimanded by the Court.

THE TOWNSHIPS' FAIR. VISIT OF LORD AND LADY LANSDOWNE. The third annual exhibition of the Eastern Townships' Agricultural Association will open at Sherbrooke to-morrow.

A LACHINE ROAD FIRE. FARM HOUSE AND BUILDINGS DESTROYED. A fire took place on the Lower Lachine road on Saturday night, whereby the residence of Mr. John Irwin, milkman, was totally destroyed.

THAT HOSE REEL PROTEST.

(To the Editor of the Witness.)

Str,—I noticed in your paper an article headed "Hose Reel Protest," and signed by Mr. May, that gentleman complaining of the unsatisfactory decision which attended that race.

It appears to me that Mr. May is only partaking of the sauce he made himself. That the competition was unsatisfactory, I am quite willing to admit, as such competitions are inaugurated to improve the standing of local hose brigades.

This, I think, Mr. May will admit, and to that end he specially built a hose reel (a model one to look at). The Grand Trunk also placed some improvements upon one of their reels, to which Mr. May objected, saying that cranks on reels should not be allowed. He, also, to make sure, took the trouble to escort Aid. Stevenson over to the Grand Trunk reel, though there was nothing but improvements upon the reel, which Mr. May professed to uphold as a mark of "mechanical progression."

But, to come to the point of which he complains, I would like to refer him to the decision of the judges regarding the kind of reels to be used in the contest. 1st. That reels with "cranks" should not be allowed. (Mr. Perry dissenting) which, of course, debarred the Grand Trunk Company from competing. 2nd. Decision of judges—that all companies use their own reels, irrespective of their construction.

To this Mr. Atchison, of the Rubber Company, and Mr. May both objected, the latter claiming STIRRING UP THE COURT-HOUSE.

A SLIGHTED OFFICIAL REVENGE—MR. GEORGE KERNICK AND HIS CHANCES—COURT HOUSE EMPLOYEES HAVE TO DINE IN THE BUILDING.

Practically the summer vacation for the judges and employees of the Montreal Court House closed early this morning, when all the courts were found in full swing for the first time since June.

At 10 the Circuit Court opened, Judge Gill presiding, and the commission appointing Messrs. Honey, Longpre and Cherrier joint clerks of this court was read. At 10.30 a similar ceremony took place in the Superior Court in the presence of Judge Loranger.

The Enquete Court was also opened this morning, but, owing to the presence of the characters, who have not yet completed their work, only a few cases were proceeded with.

The deputy Prothonotaries of the Superior Court, and deputy Clerks of the Circuit Court, whose nomination rests with the Prothonotary, were sworn in this morning.

As might be expected, all the old officials are kept in, with the exception of one, Mr. Bonacina, deputy Clerk of the Circuit Court, who refused to have his commission renewed, as he considers that he has been slighted by the appointment of Mr. Cherrier.

The Deputy Prothonotaries are now Messrs. Kerick, Valle, Collard, Desmaris, Garreau, Champagne and Belanger, and the Deputy Clerks of the Circuit Court, Messrs. Ernaud and Ainsworth. It is doubtful whether Mr. Bonacina will be replaced for the present.

Surprise is expressed in some quarters that Mr. Kernick, the oldest official in the department after Mr. Honey, was not promoted; but others explain this by stating that, at the next session, the law will be altered so as to appoint a Clerk of the Circuit Court (the nominee being naturally Mr. Cherrier), and that Mr. Kernick's long services will be recognized by appointing him joint prothonotary. As it is, "George," for as such he is known among the habitués of the Court house, accepts the position with his usual good humor.

A radical change has already been inaugurated in the department, and this morning strict orders were given that no official is to leave the Court house during business hours, except by special permission from the prothonotary. This includes luncheon hour, everyone being hereafter required to take his lunch within the building.

It has also been decided that in future no writs will be issued, unless the flats are completed and the fees fully paid.

Mr. Longpre has established his quarters in the room formerly occupied by the clerks who draft the judgments, and who are removed to the apartment of the accountant, Mr. Bruce. The latter gentleman will occupy a small room between Mr. Honey's and Mr. Longpre's offices. Mr. Honey keeps his old office and Mr. Cherrier will occupy the room formerly occupied by Mr. Gendron.

VOLUNTEER NEWS.

THE M. G. A.'S SUCCESS.

It is satisfactory to see that the Montreal Garrison Artillery has succeeded at the Dominion competitions on the island of Orleans, in carrying off first prize for shooting with the 64-pounder and second prize with the 40-pounder. No. 3 detachment, Capt. Stevenson's, won in both cases. The detachment for Shifting Ordnance carried off first prize in the B shift and took second place in the A shift, a very creditable showing. The full score follows:

THEY CHANGED THEIR MINDS.

An advertisement last week announced that the Victoria Rifles would parade at 2.30 p.m. on Saturday, the 10th inst., and proceed to Fletcher's Field for attack drill, after which, in response to the kind invitation of the Directors of the St. George's Snow-shoe Club, they would march across the mountain to their Club House. In consequence of this advertisement, several carriages and a fair concourse of people assembled on Fletcher's Field to witness the evolutions, but after waiting till five o'clock returned home without being gratified. On enquiry to-day we learn that the Victoria Rifles' minds had and only went to the Club House.

In the case of the Sun Life Insurance Company, vs. the Citizens' Insurance Company, Mr. Selkirk Cross, on behalf of the plaintiffs, presented a motion in the Practice Court this morning, asking leave to file with the record a certificate of the death and burial of Mr. J. MR. MOODY'S MEETINGS.

THE FORMAL INVITATION TO THEIR GREAT EVANGELIST—THE PLACE AND TIME OF THE GATHERINGS.

A special meeting of the Protestant Ministerial Association was held this forenoon, the Rev. G. H. Wells presiding, to consider the coming visit of Mr. Moody to this city. The Rev. Messrs. Dixon and Lowry reported that they had consulted with Mr. Moody at Northfield, and that he was at liberty to come to Montreal, if the invitation tendered him was a cordial one.

Mr. Holland, representing the Y.M.C.A., said that he would be delighted to co-operate in any other way that make the visit a success. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. Nichols, Thos. Everett, Prof. Fenwick, J. Philp, Dr. Smith, G. C. Heine, G. H. Wells, Thos. Bennett, Bishop Usher, Dr. Campbell, Prof. Campbell and W. Jackson—after which Dr. Campbell, seconded by Mr. Jackson, moved:

That Mr. Moody be invited to Montreal to address a series of meetings at as early a date as possible on behalf of the Protestant Ministerial Association in co-operation with other Christian organizations and workers in the city, and that he be asked to come for a period of one month or not less than two weeks.

This was unanimously carried. The Rev. Mr. Dewey was appointed as one of a delegation to visit Mr. Moody along with a representative of the Y.M.C.A. to ask his acceptance.

A provisional committee was appointed, consisting of Revs. Messrs. Philp, Nichols and Dixon, to make enquiries regarding the place wherein the meetings are to be held. The meeting then adjourned. It is thought that the Victoria Rink will be the most suitable place for size. The second week in October will probably be the date fixed for the commencement of the meetings.

THE OTTAWA CONTEST.

A CONSERVATIVE LEADER'S OPINION.

A prominent Conservative leader, who returned on Thursday evening from Ottawa county, where he had been taking an active part in the Provincial election contest, was asked by a Witness reporter his opinion of the prospects. He said, "I tell you frankly that it is likely to be very close, and I should not be at all surprised if the Liberal candidate won."

SCARCITY OF JUDGES.

POSSIBILITY OF A TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT IN APPEALS.

Some lawyers express uneasiness as to whether the Court of Appeal will be able to sit on the day fixed at the last adjournment, viz., the 15th inst. Judge Baby will still be engaged at the Criminal Court; Judge Monk has not sufficient recovered health, and Judge Tessler is also unwell. This leaves only three judges available, and four are required for a quorum. By the Federal Act, 25 Vic., Cap. 10, Sec. 2, the Chief Justice can represent to the Governor-General that, owing to the probable absence of one of the judges during the whole term of the interests of justice would be served by the appointment of an assistant judge. The lawyers are anxiously waiting to see if such a memorandum will be addressed to His Excellency, who in that case will appoint one of the judges of the Superior Court.

There are 52 cases on the roll of the Court of Appeal for the September term against 100 cases for the corresponding period of last year.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH TO-DAY—THE POST-OFFICE ROBBERY.

In Court to-day the Crown brought no evidence against Nelson Martin for breaking into Mr. Prevost's house at the Black River and shooting at the innkeeper, and he was acquitted. For stealing a mare and receiving stolen goods, he was sentenced by Judge Baby to six and four years respectively in the penitentiary.

F. J. J. Lesieur was then tried for stealing letters in the Post-Office while distributing. Messrs. Auger, Poitier and Cholet defended. Mr. J. I. Palmer, chief of the delivery department, described the "decoy letter and marked money" method by which detection was accomplished. Juror H. H. Constable Bismontet produced the marked bill. Mr. F. M. Brown, manager of Messrs. A. J. White & Co., deposed to having missed a dozen money letters since the 23rd of June, and to having given Mr. Palmer the decoy letters in this case.

CARRIED IT TOO FAR.

One day last week, when Mr. Bobt. E. Mills got to Beauvais station, on his way to Ottawa, a man who pretended to be a carrier, took his valise as if to carry it to the train, but upon Mr. Mills presenting himself at the car both porter and valise were missing. Detective Carpenter, yesterday evening, arrested Stephen Desjardins, a shoemaker, upon suspicion. At the Police Court, this morning, he was remanded till the 19th.

MINOR LAZARUS.

The Thistles defeated the Victorias on Saturday. The Dominions and Young Shamrocks met on Saturday, at the Driving Park, and played a good game; they match, however, owing to the darkness, was called a draw. Each club took a game. The Dominions go to Sherbrooke this evening.

The Capitals defeated the Orientals, at Ottawa, on Saturday, after a long, close, and very hard game. A lacrosse match between the employees of Messrs. J. A. Whitman & Co. and Jas. Linton & Co. took and shoe manufacturers, took place on Saturday afternoon on the old Montreal Lacrosse Grounds, resulting in three straight games for the former. Times—10 minutes, 10 minutes, and 15 minutes respectively.

The last of the series of road races in connection with the M. B. C. took place on Saturday on the Gymnasium to Valets, a distance of about fifteen miles. Mr. G. F. Baird won the race after a hard contest.

GOALS.

A full meeting of the Montreal Quoting Club was held in the Club room on Saturday evening last, Mr. Wm. Boushaw, president, in the chair. Arrangements were completed for the acceptance of the challenge issued by Mr. Wm. Todd, of Almonte, Ont. It was arranged to hold the second annual "all comers' match" on the 5th of October, and the second annual club matches a week later, weather permitting. Six new members were added to the club. The meeting was then adjourned till next Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

THE ACCIDENT RECORD.

Mrs. Umhart, charwoman, was taken to the General Hospital, this afternoon, having been bruised about the head by a fall while working at Messrs. Green-shield's warehouse.

On Saturday evening Mr. Thos. Morrison, of University street, fell from a bicycle at Cote St. Antoine and broke his arm. The limb was set at the General Hospital.

On Saturday afternoon, as two men named Gignere and Monette were working at the removal of scaffolding from a building in course of erection, on Jacques Cartier street, some planks in the scaffold gave way precipitating the two men to the ground. Both were so badly hurt that the Notre Dame Hospital ambulance was sent for, but upon its arrival the men refused to go to that institution. Consequently Monette was removed to the Hotel Dieu and the other man was taken home.

THE ST. URBAIN STREET STABBING.

Peter Hamlin who was stabbed on Saturday evening by Omar Bousin, on St. Urbain street last, underwent a very little change since removed to the Notre Dame Hospital, but the doctors are quite hopeful of saving his life. The prisoner has been remanded.

A FRUITLESS HUNT.

A Chicago newspaper man, who has been trying to follow McGarigle's movements, and who is at present stopping at the Windsor, has received the following letter from his city editor: "Do not waste any time hunting up McGarigle. Write us a good description of your trip and come home. We hear on good authority that McGarigle is on his way to Switzerland and will get there next week. He is all right and they say he has enough cash to float him."

CITY ITEMS.

The United Committee to arrange for the Scholars' Jubilee, will meet to-morrow evening.

Mr. W. E. Elliott, arrested on a capias a few days ago, only furnished security on Saturday evening, when he was admitted to bail.

The meeting arranged to give the public an opportunity of hearing the Rev. Mr. Van Meter, of Rome, will be held to-morrow evening in St. James Street Methodist Church.

The judgeship of Mr. Longpre as Police Magistrate, has been cancelled by his appointment to the prothonotaryship, and Mr. Desnoyers will resume his duties on the Bench, on the 15th inst.

The Flood Committee has reported to the Harbor Commissioners that it is in favor of the new Sugar Refinery's wharves being built at Kuisseau Mignon, and that they will not be the cause of an inundation on the south shore.

INCENDIARY SPEECHES.

DUBLIN, Sept. 12.—Messrs. Labouchere, Hooper, Brunner and other members of Parliament addressed a meeting in Cork on Saturday, called to denounce the action of the Government. Michael Davitt spoke at a meeting in Dublin yesterday. He declared that he would adopt every word and meaning of Mr. O'Brien's speech at Mitchellstown. Irishmen would deserve the contempt of the world if they allowed themselves to be hunted from their cabins like beasts. He complained bitterly against the constabulary for slaying their own kith and kin in cold blood, even without a word of command from their officers. If the slumbering embers of retaliatory vengeance were fired, as in 1851, he hoped they would not be to blame, for any evil wrought upon Ireland would fall upon the instigators of the Mitchellstown massacre.

THE MITCHELLSTOWN RIOTS.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Daily News, speaking of the occurrence at Mitchellstown says: This more we examine into the tragedy the more evident it becomes that it was nothing less than a murder by persons unknown. The ominous silence of the Government and its agents on the question of responsibility is one of the world's features in the case. What are we to expect but crime answering to crime, devilish outrage following devilish repression.

LABOUCHERE'S OPINION.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Mr. Labouchere, in a long letter describing the affair at Mitchellstown, says, when he entered the barracks he found that the police had dragged two men inside and were beating them with bludgeons. They lay face downward. Mr. Dillon had the greatest difficulty in preventing the chief constable from rushing out of the barracks with his men and shooting right and left. All were in a state of the greatest excitement. There were but few people around the barracks. The police were perfectly safe. It is remarkable that the carman killed had the previous day refused his vehicle to the police. Mr. Labouchere says that never in his life had he come across so offensive a specimen of an official with brute force at his back as Head Constable Brownrigg. Two men more unfit for delicate duties could not be found on the globe than Seagrave, a weak creature who loses his head, and Brownrigg, a bully, in whose eyes all venturing to look askance at him ought to be shot. They are responsible for the deaths that occurred.

AN INVESTIGATION.

Capt. Plunkett, in obedience to orders from Chief Secretary Balfour, visited Mitchellstown, and, assisted by detectives, and by Magistrates Eaton and Seagrave, held an informal enquiry, inspected the barracks and visited the wounded. Less than twenty police were actually injured, and only one seriously.

HARD ON THE POLICE.

Mr. Brunner says he saw a dozen constables attack one man with their batons. He also saw a policeman pierce a horse with his bayonet, while another constable thrust his bayonet into the tender. An independent witness relates that when the first blow was struck it was impossible to control the Tipperary men, who attacked the police like fury. The air was thick with sticks, but before the police reached the barracks their anger had cooled. The people made no attempt to reach the barracks. Six panes of glass in the barracks were broken from the inside. The walls bear evidence of a fusillade of stones. The lower half of the door was broken in. There are many bullet marks on the walls opposite.

A KING DYING.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The King of Holland is reported to be dying.

O'BRIEN TAKEN TO MITCHELLSTOWN.

DUBLIN, Sept. 12.—William O'Brien, who was arrested at Kingston yesterday, was conveyed to Mitchellstown this morning in custody of an officer. He was accompanied by Timothy Harrington and his counsel. Mr. O'Brien emphatically denies that he boarded the steamer at Kingston to avoid arrest, his object being simply to see Mr. Labouchere who was about to leave for London.

POWDRLY'S COMING MESSAGE.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—A special from Scranton, Pa., says: Mr. Powderly said his next annual message will advocate the Government ownership of telegraph and railway lines and the establishment of a postal savings bank. Bills will be prepared by him to carry these suggestions into effect, and they will be submitted to the General Assembly for its approval. Should the Assembly approve these measures they will be introduced in Congress and backed by the full strength of the Knights of Labor.

TORONTO.

(Special to the Witness, Sept. 12.)

THE SATURDAY EVENING PAVILION RECEPTION of the Prior Congress visitors was a great success. Sir Alex. Campbell welcomed them on behalf of the Province, Mayor Howland on behalf of the city, and the Hon. G. W. Ross on behalf of the Ontario Legislature. An excellent speech was made in reply by ex-President Hayes, of the United States. A meeting was held in the Pavilion yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Universal Peace Union of the United States. The Hon. S. H. Blake presided, and short addresses were delivered by Mr. Lytle, Secretary of the Union, and Mr. Love, its President.

MANITOBA'S RIGHTS.

THE WINNIPEG PRESS SAYS THEY WILL BE MAINTAINED.

(Via C. P. R. Telegraph Co.)

MATTERS UNCHANGED.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12.—The press comments on the rejoinder asked for by the Federal Government are very strong. The Free Press says: "The road will be built if the money is obtainable, and the latest action of the Government does not change matters at all. It may be treason and rebellion or anything else, but as long as it is right, that's all we need to know. The constitution is above law and the rights of the subject transcend all other considerations. Our right to build the railway is as clear as our right to breathe. All the tyranny and sneaking in the world cannot deprive us of it, and we will be justified in asserting in the face of cohorts of injustice."

A PREMATURE STATEMENT.

The Free Press says: The statement that the contractors were paid $100,000 on Saturday, was premature because payment is not yet due. A member of the Local Government said yesterday that the only payment made as yet was $50,000 to a Montreal bank, to secure the shipment of rails which are now on their way to Winnipeg. Negotiations were now in progress which would, it was hoped, enable the Government to meet the liabilities to the contractor when they fell due. The Government could not say definitely whether or no Mr. Norquay had succeeded in floating the Provincial bonds. He was wired on Saturday about the action of the Dominion Government, and this, it is expected, will expedite the Premier's return.

EASTERN MAIL SERVICE.

SIR ARTHUR BLACKWOOD IN WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12.—Sir Arthur Blackwood has returned from his trip to the Pacific. He was not in a position to divulge anything about the Imperial subsidy to the line of steamers between Vancouver, Japan and China, but the British Postmaster General had already authorized the transmission of letters from Great Britain to Vancouver, if so specially endorsed, and thus it became a permissive route. Should the Imperial Government decide on subsidizing a steamship line, and making this route an authorized one, there was no doubt that a very large amount of British travel to the East would come by way of the coast. Already it had become one of the recognized tours of English people to come to Canada and take a trip over the Canadian Pacific Railway. Sir Arthur thought the route a most important one, especially in the case of a European war.

Mr. Caine, M.P., England, arrived here on Saturday, and yesterday addressed a temperance meeting, which was very largely attended.

THE PEOPLE OF MANITOBA UNITED IN THEIR DETERMINATION TO BUILD THE RED RIVER VALLEY RAILWAY—EXCITEMENT OVER THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S ACTION—SERIOUS TROUBLE APPREHENDED.

(Special to the Witness.) WINNIPEG, Sept. 12.—The action of the Dominion Government in applying for injunctions against the Red River Valley Railway, caused a great sensation here and a tendency to thoroughly unite the people.

The present aspect of affairs is serious, and admittedly so as before stated, as another thing that demonstrates clearly that the Dominion Government is determined to force its will upon Manitoba and maintain its own disallow from the fact that Parliament had so instructed them, that they were not under any obligation by the instruction of Parliament to enter an action against the Province for trespass.

Where the matter will now end it is impossible to predict, but, judging from the talk on the streets both Saturday and Sunday, the fact of the Dominion Government coming out in open and active opposition to the Province has caused a complete rupture of sentiment and those who before preferred to hold aloof from the matter altogether, declare that party or Federal lines must be thrown to the winds and all Conservatives and Liberals alike, unite for the defence of the Provincial welfare.

THE INJUNCTIONS. The argument in the Browning injunction case is to be continued this morning. The general expectation is that this and other private cases will go for the Province, hence the action of the Dominion Government. That the result will be hard to tell is evident. The feeling is intensely bitter, more so than at any previous period, and the talk is that the road should be built at all hazards if the money is raised.

FIRE INSURANCE RATES. INSUFFICIENT PROTECTION NOT THE ONLY REASON GIVEN FOR THE INCREASE.

Mr. Gerald Hart, manager of the Citizens' Insurance Company, was interviewed by a Witness reporter with respect to the action of the underwriters—mentioned in Thursday night's Witness—in raising the rates of fire insurance. Mr. Hart says he never remembers having seen a more unanimous feeling upon any matter.

Major Turnbull and Mrs. Turnbull, are both seriously ill with typhoid fever at Mrs. Gee's private hospital. The Rev. Father McCallum, formerly a Professor in the Theological College of Baltimore, and who has been transferred to St. Patrick's Church, in this city, delivered his first sermon before a Montreal congregation yesterday, and is said to be a valuable addition to the oratorical talent of the church with which he is connected.
