LIBERAL GOVERNMENT MAJORITY SETS UP RECORD

Every Province Of Dominion Joins In Government Sweep

Conservative Opposition Leader Fails to Receive Election in Home Riding of Fort William as Liberal Landslide Achieves Even Greater Proportions Than that of 1935—Soldiers' Vote Expected to Offer Little Effect on General Results With Election of Majority of Liberal Candidates by Heavy Margins.

(By The Canadian Press)

Whisked back to power by the greatest majority ever accorded in a general election in Canada, the war-time Liberal Government of Prime Minister Mackenzie King prepared today for its task with a fresh mandate, given in spectacular style.

There was nothing the sixty-five-year-old Prime Minister could have asked of the electorate in yesterday's voting that he did not get when the returns were in—sweeping victory from Atlantic to Pacific that left his administration in stronger position than ever.

In the high moment of his triumph, as the far west still was contributing Liberal victors to his total, Mr. Mackenzie King asked in a speech over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's national network that Canadians, "forgetting the differences of the past, join their strength together in the fight for victory, peace and freedom."

The Liberal landslide, achieving even greater proportions than that of 1935 when it returned Mr. King and his followers to power over the Bennett Conservative Government, brought stunning defeat to the new Conservative Leader, Hon. J. R. Manion, whose proposed National Government was rejected.

Dr. Manion, a medical officer in the First Great War and Minister of Railways and Canals in the Bennett Government, suffered personal defeat in Fort William, while the Prime Minister was conceded election last night in Prince Albert.

Election of candidates was conceded on the basis of the civilian vote but the possibility existed that when the ballots of between 85,000 and 90,000 soldiers, sailors and airmen are counted results in a few constituencies might be changed.

In most constituencies, however, the winning candidates held substantial majorities that could scarcely be overturned when the active service vote, taken in England and Canada before election day, is reported next week.

Mr. Mackenzie King's appeal to the country was made when the party standing in the House of Commons stood as follows: Liberal, 163; Conservative, thirty-eight; Social Credit, fifteen; Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation, seven; Independent Liberal, five; Liberal-Progressive, two; Independent, two; Independent Conservative, one; U.F.O.-Labor, one; United Reform, one; vacant, four.

Early this morning the Liberal total shot up above the record 169 as it had been apparent it would since before midnight. Mr. King was as sure that when he calls Parliament, probably in early May, his opposition would be even smaller than it was on the dramatic day in January when dissolution ended a four-hour session.

Dr. Manion's National Government group was no larger than it was as the Conservative unit in the last House. The New Democracy representation from Alberta was half that of the Social Credit band in the last House. Only the C.C.F. made a slight gain.

While the entire Liberal war cabinet was returned without casualty, Opposition groups suffered heavily. Among the vanquished were: Dr. Manion by Dan McIvor in Fort William.

Quebec Province Elects Solid Bloc In Support Of Liberal Government

Quebec, March 27.—(C)—French Canada stood today solidly behind the record of Prime Minister Mackenzie King's Liberal Government.

In the Dominion election yesterday which sent the Liberals sweeping back into power, Quebec Province on the basis of civilian ballots sent sixty-one Liberals and three Independent Liberals to the House of Commons, voting in the remaining constituency of the Province's sixty-five was deferred.

Not one National Government candidate was elected in Quebec. The Liberals in most cases scored easy triumphs. One of the hardest-fought contests appeared to have taken place in Montreal Verdun where the victorious Liberal candidate, P. E. Cote, staged a neck-and-neck race with Herve Ferland, an Independent Liberal who was among seven other contestants including a woman, Miss R. B. J. Adams.

E. J. Weremlinger, National Government candidate in Montreal Verdun and the former member, was among the defeated. All the logis

BRITISH PRESS MAKES FEATURE OF ELECTIONS

Keen Public Interest Displayed in Outcome of Dominion Voting by British Public.

(By FRED BACKHOUSE)

(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

London, March 27.—(C.P. Cable)

—The result of Canada's general election monopolized the front pages of London afternoon papers today, reflecting public interest in the Dominion recently renewed with the arrival in British of the Canadian Active Service Force and Canadian airmen.

The papers used big type headlines. The Evening Standard headed: "Mackenzie King Triumphs in Election." The Star bannered: "Canada Gives War Verdict."

The Evening News commented that "In British we take no side in the affairs of a free Dominion, but we can note with pride that the only issue at stake in the election was the way in which Canada could most profitably help us in the war."

The result of the election caught the stop-press column of the first editions of most London morning papers. The Daily Express put out a special edition with fresh posters.

Colorful descriptions of the polling featuring stunts and stunts, dog teams and sleighs captured the interest of readers unaccustomed to follow the complexities of the Canadian political setup.

but Ferland appeared certainly to have lost their deposits.

The pace was set by the Liberal candidates in the sixteen Montreal Island seats. Seven of them ran up majorities of more than 10,000 brushing aside such political veterans as Hon. C. H. Cahan, former Conservative Secretary of State, R. S. White, the dean of the House of Commons, and W. Allen Walsh, former member for Montreal Mount Royal.

The closest voting was in Gaspe where Maurice Brasset, Liberal candidate, was re-elected with a majority of 338 over J. S. Roy, Independent-Conservative.

Justice Minister Lapointe was re-elected with a comfortable margin in Quebec East. He defeated Paul Bouchard, Independent Nationalist.

Mr. Lapointe's son, Hughes, was apparently victorious in Lethbridge in his first political venture.

Australian Cabinet Plans Drastic Action Against Communist Groups

By J. E. HOLDSWORTH
(Canadian Press Staff Writer.)

Sydney, Australia, March 27.—(C.P. Cable)—Prime Minister R. G. Menzies' Cabinet may consider immediate drastic action against subversive elements in the country as a result of a pro-Russian and anti-war resolution passed last Sunday at the New South Wales labor conference describing the Allied war against Germany as entangled by "British Imperialistic capitalists."

The resolution, voted 195 to 88, has come as a profound shock to the country and has been repudiated by life-long labor and trades union leaders who have been stung in particular by the fact that the conference, in opposing Australian participation in a war overseas, placed itself on record as against extension of the present war into a conflict against Soviet Russia.

Newspapers have been flooded with letters protesting against the resolution's un-British viewpoint and claiming that it in no way represented that of Australia's workers.

Some of the letters demanded that Australia follow France's example and intern all Communists. It was charged that they were undermining the Commonwealth's war effort and fomenting disputes such as the present Australia-wide mine strike affecting 25,000 miners. The strike has reduced steel and munitions production.

John Curtin, Parliamentary Leader, said today that no State Labor Conference was empowered to alter the Federal Labor party's war policy which remains unchanged.

Concentration of British Destroyers and Submarines Off Danish and Norwegian Coasts Believed to Have Dual Objective of Cutting Off German Ore Supplies and Luring German Fleet into Pitched Battle.

London, March 27.—(C)—While British warships based themselves with tightening the blockade against German ore imports in hope of luring the German fleet into open battle, Great Britain counted on the Royal Air Force today for yeoman service against any spread of German submarine raids.

Concentration of British destroyers and submarines in the Skagerrak, off the Danish and Norwegian coasts, was aimed primarily at cutting Germany's ore supplies from Sweden, but neutral observers saw a deeper motive.

They said that if Germany could be goaded to send out a cruiser squadron against these comparative light forces, the British probably would have some heavy units nearby to fall upon the Germans with superior power.

The Norwegian Admiralty announced last night that eight or nine British destroyers were sighted in Norwegian waters on at least two occasions last Friday, when German ships were passing the coast, and that a Norwegian torpedo boat fired a warning shot in one instance.

British Foreign Office sources said a Norwegian protest alleging that territorial waters had been violated was being studied and "the entire affair is being investigated."

The Skagerrak, passage linking the North and Baltic Seas, is especially important to Germany in winter, when her ore shipments from Sweden must come down the Norwegian coast.

Word that the Air Force would help combat any spring rush of German submarines came with official reports that British bombers had sunk two submarines this month in the North Sea and that the big aircraft carrier Ark Royal was on duty again after a "wash and brush-up" at home.

Since the war began, the Ark Royal has ranged from the North Atlantic to South Africa and South America, and it was disclosed that her planes already had been used against submarines.

SUDDEN GERMAN TROOP MOVEMENT
By ALEX DE HOLSTEIN
(Havas Staff Writer.)

Paris, March 27.—(C.P. Cable)—Sudden and possibly significant German interest in Allied troop strength and defense positions along the northern border region of France was reported today by military sources.

The series of Naz reconnaissance flights staged over the area since Monday night, revealed fortifications of a possible German offensive through Netherlands and Belgium.

French army sources pointed out, however, that there has been no appreciable change in the disposition of German troops massed near last fall.

Some Nazi troops have been moved from the right to the left bank of the Rhine, it was said. The move involved relatively few men, however, and the general picture remains unchanged.

NO MOVE TO CONTEST MAYORAL ELECTION

11-Col. Leopold Chevalier, defeated by Joseph Labrecque in yesterday's mayoral election, had nothing to say this morning when asked whether he intended to institute a contestation to the election and an action in disqualification as he announced last week he would do in the event he was unsuccessful at the polls.

Col. Chevalier's legal representative, Armand Rousseau, K.C., told a Record representative his client's course of action will not be decided before two or three days.

Liberals Returned In All Eight Eastern Townships Ridings By Large Margins

Four Former Members of Parliament and Four Newcomers to Federal Field Down Five National Government Party and Four Independent Candidates—J. A. Blanchette Given Largest Majority, R. G. Davidson Has Stiffest Opposition.

Swamped under some of the largest majorities ever recorded in the history of Eastern Townships Federal election campaigns, five National Government party and four Independent candidates were yesterday swept into political oblivion when electors in all of the eight ridings in this district gave overwhelming support to official Liberal nominees.

Riding in on the crest of the King Government victory wave were four members of the last House of Commons, J. A. Blanchette in Compton, R. G. Davidson in Stanstead, J. H. Leclerc in Shefford, and J. P. Mullins in Richmond-Wolfe, and four newcomers to the Federal political field, Maurice Gingues in Sherbrooke, Maurice Halle in Bromfield, Joseph Lafontaine in Megantic-Frontenac and Armand Cloutier in Drummond-Arthabaska.

Most impressive victory in the Townships was recorded in Compton where Blanchette led J. A. Lafontaine, who ran on the Independent ticket, by over 6,800 votes. By retaining the seat he first won in the 1935 general elections, Mr. Blanchette recorded an increase of almost 6,000 in the majority he gained five years ago over Sam Gobeil.

The two Maurices, Mr. Gingues in Sherbrooke and Mr. Halle in Bromfield, also did very creditably, the local Member-elect leading T. G. Walsh and J. E. Cote, his opponent, by 6,019 with Mr. Halle topping Dan Murphy, National Government aspirant, by 5,765. The contest in Sherbrooke was the only three-cornered one in the Townships, Mr. Walsh being the National Government party nominee with Mr. Cote listed as Independent. Both Gingues and Mr. Halle are newcomers to the Federal electoral picture.

Elected to represent Shefford for the Liberals in 1935 when he went in with a majority of 571 over Sylvia LeBrun, Conservative, J. H. Leclerc retained his County for the Government and this time had a comfortable margin of 3,990 votes over Hector Choquette, one-time M.L.A. and Dr. R. J. Manion's appointee in the Federal picture.

In Richmond-Wolfe James P. Mullins led his opponent, Joseph Gaudet, by 1,750 votes and his mandate as representative of the constituency at Ottawa was renewed for another five year term. Mr. Mullins was first named to the House of Commons in 1935 when he emerged victor by nine votes in a contest with Marcel Beaudry, an Independent Liberal. Dr. F. J. Laflèche, a former Conservative Member, and P. Brédar, Reconstructionist, were in the 1935 Richmond-Wolfe fight but were left behind by Mr. Mullins and Mr. Beaudry.

R. G. Davidson, who five years ago squeezed out a victory by the narrow margin of ninety-seven votes, had a more comfortable majority to work on this time and led his only opponent, Alphonse Girard, Independent Liberal, by approximately 500. In 1935 Mr. Davidson led to contest the seat against John T. Hackett, K.C., a former M.P., and J. B. Reed, who ran on the Reconstruction ticket and finished a poor third to the representatives of the major parties.

Drummond-Arthabaska and Megantic-Frontenac returned to the Liberal fold by decisive majorities, Armand Cloutier topping an Independent Liberal, Dr. Joseph Gaudet, by 1,800 in Drummond with Joseph Lafontaine smothering the National Government man, J. E. Fortin, by 1,700.

Franco-Soviet Relations Reported Rapidly Nearing A Breaking Point

Moscow, March 27.—(R)—Soviet Russia announced today that her ambassador to Paris is being recalled at the request of the French Government. The Russian-Finnish war had blooded arms of "British-French warmongers," and of making unfriendly remarks about the Allies.

Soviet recall underlined the fact that Paul Emile Naggiar, French Ambassador to Moscow, has been home on "sick leave" for more than a month.

Informed quarters considered it unlikely that the new French Government of Premier Paul Reynaud, pledged to make "war on Germany" in every field, would approve any replacement for Naggiar.

According to Tass, Russian news agency, the French request was based on a telegram Naggiar attempted to send to Joseph Stalin, soliciting him on the end of the Russian-Finnish war and calling it a blow to "British-French warmongers." The French censor halted the message.

REPLACEMENT UNLIKELY
Paris, March 27.—(C)—Russia today lacked an ambassador in this Allied capital and speculation rose as to just how strained Franco-Russian relations were.

The ambassador, Jakob Surits, was recalled at the request of the French Government which accused him of seeking unsuccessfully to send a telegram to Moscow, saying the end of the Russo-Finnish war had blooded arms of "British-French warmongers," and of making unfriendly remarks about the Allies.

Surits' recall underlined the fact that Paul Emile Naggiar, French Ambassador to Moscow, has been home on "sick leave" for more than a month.

T.G. Walsh, Defeated In Defending Tradition, Offers Co-Operation

"Maurice Gingues and I were friends before the election started, we were friends through it and we shall continue to be friends now that it is over."

In these words of a true sportsman T. G. Walsh, defeated National Government candidate in Sherbrooke County, publicly pledged his co-operation to Member-elect Maurice Gingues, his successful opponent, in addressing approximately 1,000 local citizens who gathered in front of the Record building last night to listen to the election returns.

Mr. Walsh pointed out that he had gone before the electors in defence of the tradition that Sherbrooke County be represented at Ottawa by an English-speaking Member. If the people wished that this custom be changed he was satisfied with their decision and felt that party differences should now be forgotten, with both Liberals and Conservatives working together for Canada and the Empire.

"We need a united Canada in times such as these and I feel that all of us should get behind Mr. Gingues and support him in Ottawa. I congratulate him on his victory and pledge my support to him," Mr. Walsh said. Other speakers heard over the Record's amplifying system after Mr. Gingues' election as Member for Sherbrooke were conceded were the Liberal candidate and Senator Charles B. Howard, in Parliament from 1925 until 1940 as the Sherbrooke representative.

"I sincerely thank all those who voted for me today," Mr. Gingues said. "I realize that it is my duty as the first French-Canadian representative for Sherbrooke in Ottawa to particularly thank the English-speaking citizens who supported me, admitting that I was surprised at the Lennoxville vote in my favor."

"As Member of Parliament for Sherbrooke I accept my responsibilities and promise to work in collaboration with newly-elected Mayor Joseph Labrecque and all the municipal authorities," Mr. Gingues told his audience. "You can depend on me to work in the interests of every class of society. In conclusion, I wish to publicly express my appreciation to my organizer, J. W. Grogan, who worked untiringly on my behalf."

Speaking in both English and French, as did Mr. Gingues, Senator Howard expressed appreciation to the citizens of the county for supporting Mr. Gingues.

Following the addresses the victorious Mayor staged a victory parade through the city in gaily decorated automobiles and trucks, giving vent to their joy with cheers and blasts of horns.

Hon. Maurice Dupre, former Conservative Solicitor-General, in Quebec West and South.

Hon. R. D. Morand, former Conservative Cabinet Minister, in Essex East.

Hon. W. D. Herridge, founder of the New Democracy Movement, and former Canadian Minister to Washington, in Kindsley.

M. A. MacPherson, runner-up to Dr. Manion for the Conservative leadership in 1938, in Regina.

Among the successful National Government candidates were Hon. R. B. Hanson, former Minister of Trade and Commerce, in York-Sunbury; and Dr. Herbert A. Bruce, former Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, in Toronto Parkdale.

As notable a conquest as any in the country was accomplished by W. E. Harris, Liberal, in Grey-Bruce where Miss Agnes Macphail was defeated for the first time since she became a Member of Parliament in 1921. Miss Macphail, after five election triumphs, ran third in a three-cornered contest.

J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, was conceded election in Winnipeg North Centre on the basis of the civilian vote, but he was not so sure about the ultimate result, himself.

Mr. Woodsworth commented that it was impossible to tell who had won until the Active Service vote was counted. His lead over A. R. Macgillivray, Liberal, was 185 votes.

M. J. Caldwell, National Chairman of the C.C.F., was returned in Rosetown-Biggar and John Blackmore, leader of the Social Credit Group in the last House, was re-elected in Lethbridge where he ran as New Democracy candidate.

Indications were quick to appear after closing of the polls in the Maritimes that the National Government party was to have had sweeping against Liberal candidates. Early returns favoring the King Government were decisive.

Prince Edward Island returned a solid bloc of four Liberals; Nova Scotia elected eleven Liberals out of a possible twelve and only New Brunswick, solidly Liberal in 1935 with one exception, shifted away from the Government, dividing its ten seats equally between King and Macgillivray.

The first candidate conceded election in the country was Finance Minister J. L. Ralston in the Prince Edward Island constituency of Prince, Revenue Minister J. L. Halsey quickly joined him from Digby-Annapolis-Kings. New Brunswick's Cabinet representative, Hon. J. E. Milne, was successful a bit later in Restigouche-Macadam, but it was an hour or so later there could be no doubt of the election result as Quebec ballots rolled in for the Government, returning sixty-one Liberals and three Independent Liberals. Election in the sixty-fifth Quebec riding, Three Rivers, was deferred owing to the death Monday night of the Liberal candidate, Willie Poisson.

Ontario elected twenty-five National Government men, the same representation the Conservatives had from the Province in the last House. Here it was that Liberal defences, if they had weaknesses, were expected to yield—but the Liberals recaptured twenty-seven followers, including two Liberal-Progressives.

This was a one-seat gain for the Government and it was at the expense of Miss Agnes Macphail, running as a United Farmers of Ontario-Labor candidate.

Perhaps the most surprising result in Ontario was the switch to the Liberal column of Leeds which never before deviated from a Conservative course at elections since the constituency was created in 1903. Member since 1921, Hon. H. A. Stewart, was defeated there by George T. Fulford.

First member elected in Ontario was Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of National Defence and the butt of intensive Conservative criticism during the campaign. Mr. Rogers retained Kingston by a sizeable majority over T. A. Kidd, National Government, former Speaker of the Ontario Legislature.

Toronto, a noted Tory stronghold, named three Liberals, including Ar-

SENIOR CIVIL SERVANTS FILL HIGHER POSTS

Cabinet Announces Filling of Three Important Vacancies at Session Held on Eve of Elections.

Ottawa, March 27.—(C)—The Dominion Government has filled three important offices from within the ranks of Government officials.

Announced formally last night by the Prime Minister's office, the appointments were actually made at a Cabinet meeting last Saturday night.

Watson Sellar, Controller of the Treasury, moves from his $9,000 job into a $15,000-a-year post as Auditor-General in succession to Georges Gonthier, who was superannuated.

A. D. P. Heaney, former Montreal lawyer who came to the capital in 1938 as chief private secretary to Prime Minister Mackenzie King, has been named to the new post of Secretary to the Cabinet, and also replaces E. J. Lemire, Superannuated recently, as Clerk of the Privy Council.

Mr. Heaney, with the rank of Deputy Minister, will draw a salary of $20,000 instead of $7,000 as at present.

The third appointment sends Hector B. McKinnon, Commissioner of Tariffs, into the chairmanship of the Tariff Board, left vacant by the death of Judge Sedgewick. Mr. McKinnon was expected to continue to serve as chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

There was indication as to when appointments would be made to fill the positions vacated by three men promoted.

Mr. Sellar, born in Quebec, was a Saskatchewan lawyer and later co-publisher of the Huntington, Que., Gleaser before entering public service in 1924 as Private Secretary to Hon. W. A. Rabb, then Finance Minister.

A native of Ontario, Hector McKinnon was a school teacher and newspaperman before joining the Tariff Advisory Board in 1926. He became Commissioner of Tariffs in 1930.

Mr. Heaney was a Rhodes scholar Mr. Heaney practised law in Montreal before coming to Ottawa.

was in a similar position, with two candidates contesting the one seat.

The probable losers in other provinces were Saskatchewan, 12; British Columbia, 10; Nova Scotia, six; New Brunswick, two.

Provinces showing the largest number of losers presented a variety of candidates not aligned with any major party, and there were many three and four-cornered fights.

The likelihood of recounts was still clouded in uncertainty today because returns from many constituencies were far from complete and the soldier vote could not yet be counted into the totals. There was nothing definite regarding recounts, if any, in the heavy-vote provinces of Ontario and Quebec, but indications from the western returns were that recounts may be necessary in Manitoba and three in British Columbia. In the east, Nova Scotia offered the possibility of one recount.

Mr. W. Roebuck, one-time Attorney-General in Ontario's Hepburn Government, in Trinity, Mr. Roebuck resigned his Ontario Legislature seat to run for Parliament.

Manitoba remained firmly Liberal, the only successful National Government candidate being J. A. Ross, in Souris.

Three C.C.F. gains from the Liberals marked voting in Saskatchewan, Mackenzie, McLeod and Yorkton swung away from the Government, whose only gain was from Social Credit in Kindersley.

Social Credit held all but two of Alberta's seventeen seats in the last House, but the Liberals made inroads yesterday, capturing six seats. British Columbia also contributed gains to the Liberals.

NEWLY-NAMED MAYOR THANKS HIS ELECTORS

Joseph Labrecque Promises to Serve Citizens to Best of Ability — Retiring Mayor Congratulates Successor.

A promise that he will strive at all times during his term of office to serve the citizens of Sherbrooke to the best of his ability was made last night by Mayor-elect Joseph Labrecque, a former member of the City Council, in speaking to the electors after his victory had been established.

Mr. Labrecque and retiring Mayor Marcus Armitage spoke over the amplifying system with which the Record furnished the public with returns in both the municipal and federal elections.

"I thank you for the honor which you gave me today," Mr. Labrecque said. "I do appreciate it very much and promise that I shall do my best to be a good Mayor of the City of Sherbrooke."

That he was pleased to hand over his duties to his French-Canadian successor was stated by Mayor Armitage, making what was probably his last public appearance as Chief Magistrate of this city. He has served the citizens as a member of the Council for the past nine years, the last two of which he has been in the Mayor's chair.

"In commenting briefly on what has taken place today, I want to congratulate the citizens on the orderly way in which they have carried out their voting duties," he said. "No trouble or accidents have been reported in the voting, which is a great credit to you all."

"To the elected candidates, I extend congratulations and I am sure that the men chosen by the people today will now be backed up by all of us to carry out their important tasks."

"To my newly-elected successor, I extend congratulations and wish to say to him that if I can be of any assistance, I will be glad to do all I can," the retiring Mayor said.

"As this is my last public appearance as your Mayor, I wish to thank you for the honor which you have conferred upon me during these last two years."

Both Mayor-elect Labrecque and retiring Mayor Armitage addressed the gathering in English and French.

Mr. Labrecque was opposed in the election by Lieut.-Col. Leopold Chevalier, who went down by 716 votes.

France Closes Border Camps For Refugees

French Authorities Claim that Only Six Thousand Civil War Refugees Now Remain in Camps.

Paris, March 27.—(AP)—French Government camps for Spanish civil war refugees, whose number reached 500,000 after General Franco's Nationalists drove through Barcelona to the French border a year ago last January, will be closed the end of this month.

French officials, announcing this decision today, said that of the flood of refugee Spanish republicans only 6,000 men remained in the once extensive cantonments. They produced records to back up their claim, saying that the United States and Mexico that the refugees had received "bad treatment."

Of the original men, women and children who streamed across the frontier before the Franco advance, only 155,000 remain in France, officials said, and with the exception of the 6,000 still in camps, they have been assimilated in the nation's war effort against Germany.

The other 345,000 either have elected to return to Spain or have taken refuge in other countries, it was said.

GINGUES ELECTED BY DECISIVE MAJORITY

Liberal Choice Headed T.G. Walsh By Majority Of 5,967

Maurice Gingues Polled 11,424 Votes, With National Government Nominee Receiving 5,457 and J. E. Cote, Running as Independent, 1,691—Turn-out at Polls Unexpectedly Heavy—Victory Parade Held Through Principal Streets of City.

Aggregating what is expected to be the greatest majority compiled in Sherbrooke in a Federal election contest, Maurice Gingues, slight, 37-year-old textile worker, was yesterday elected as representative of Sherbrooke County in the House of Commons, scoring a decisive victory over T. G. Walsh, National Government party candidate, and J. Ernest Cote, Independent nominee, to retain this constituency for the Liberal party. He obtained a majority of 5,967 votes.

With results of soldiers' voting not yet released returns for Sherbrooke County gave Mr. Gingues 11,424 votes as against 5,457 for Mr. Walsh and 1,691 for Mr. Cote. The successful candidate's lead of almost six thousand votes, if maintained, will be the best since Confederation, the closest approach to it having been in 1921 when F. N. McKee, Liberal, defeated Col. E. B. Worthington, by 4,508.

The West, East, South and Centre wards contributed in the main to the Liberal victory locally while the traditionally Conservative North Ward and the rural districts accorded Mr. Walsh his greatest support. Never in the running, Mr. Cote's aggregate was built up mainly in the West Ward where he polled 735 votes.

Although early yesterday indications were that balloting would be light, a rush to the polls in the afternoon and during the two hours before the booths closed resulted in over 18,570 exercising their mandate as compared with the 13,983 who marked their ballots in the 1935 general elections when Senator Charles B. Howard was re-elected to a third term. With some 27,000 names on the lists for this constituency, over two-thirds of those eligible to vote did so, rather surprising in view of the apparent lack of interest displayed by the public during the election campaign.

First returns from city polls, received at the King Street Returning Office about fifteen minutes after the booths closed, gave an indication of the ultimate result and an initial lead for Mr. Gingues was never made up by his two opponents. At about seven-fifteen p.m. the Liberal candidate was over two thousand ahead with half the polls to hear from and three quarters of an hour later his election was conceded.

When Mr. Gingues' victory was established beyond the shadow of a doubt his followers quickly lined up for a parade and, to the blaring of horns and cries of leather-lunged supporters who braved the cool March air to acclaim the Member-elect, the defile proceeded through all the principal streets of the city.

Several stops were made at strategic points where Mr. Gingues and

LIBERAL SWEEP ANNOUNCED BY RECORD SYSTEM

Large Number Followed Progress of Federal and Municipal Fights by Means of Record's Broadcasting and Window Bulletin Services.

Highlighted by addresses by Maurice Gingues, new local representative at Ottawa, T. G. Walsh, unsuccessful National Government candidate, Joseph Labrecque, newly elected Mayor of Sherbrooke, M. T. Armitage, retiring Chief Magistrate, and Senator Charles B. Howard, a comprehensive coverage of developments among the Federal and Municipal election fronts was provided by means of an amplifying system and a window bulletin service last night by members of the Record staff.

Chilly winds and low temperature notwithstanding, well over 1,000 citizens gathered on both sides of Wellington street to listen to last-minute returns from the battle scenes across the Dominion, and from the Mayoralty and Aldermanic contests, flashed through the O'Boyle and Pearce public address hook-up in English and French, and to follow the course of events on the bulletin boards erected in the windows of the Business Office and Advertising Department.

Carefully planned, the coverage provided by the Record was carried out without a hitch, every member of the group detailed to carry out the tasks required handling his duties smoothly and efficiently. Staff men stationed in the Federal Returning Office on King Street and at the City Hall, where results of Municipal elections were tabulated, were in constant communication with the Record by means of special telephones, while Dominion-wide reports were received over The Canadian Press wires.

As early as six o'clock, when first returns from the Maritime Provinces and from local elections were received and immediately broadcast and bulletined, crowds began to gather in front of the Record Building. Their numbers steadily increased, the citizens following the progress of the various contests with keen interest.

Enthusiasm mounted when the Mayor-elect and the retiring Mayor delivered addresses through the loudspeakers, reaching a climax when a Liberal victory parade drew to a halt and the youthful successor to Senator Howard expressed his thanks to the electors of Sherbrooke.

Efficient work by Sergeant Arthur L'Heureux and Constable W. Lapierre in their handling of the crowds and motor traffic in front of the Record office was greatly appreciated. Acting in a supervisory capacity, Donald McMahon, News Editor, was in charge of the various branches of the Record's detailed service. Returns from the local Federal campaign were communicated to the office by Francis Kenalty, whose work was facilitated materially by the excellent co-operation of Returning Officer Alphonse Trudeau and Marcel Olivier, telephoned municipal returns from his post at the City Hall.

Returns from the local stations were handled and drawn up in bulletins by Dick Ryder and Paul Falkner, whose Dominion-wide results were looked after by Cuthbert Jones. Broadcasting duties were handled in English by Allan Bryce and in French by Leon Darche, while James Davidson, Eric Tribble and Gerald Lemay, stationed at three telephones, reported on the progress of the voting to the many who sought information throughout the night.

William Watson, Norman Walker and George Jobel were in charge of the window bulletin service, while Ernie Bridges, Doug Davies and Wayne Bowdler served as liaison men, supplying prepared reports to the broadcasters and bulletin workers. Miss Doris Price and Ted Anderson served refreshments.

The many congratulations received last night and today are considered ample reward for their hard work by the members of the staff detailed for the chore of election coverage, an arduous task for all newspapermen.

All agree, however, that they would not like to face the same assignment again tonight.

DEAN OF LOCAL BAR RECEIVED FINAL TRIBUTE

Fellow Members of Legal Profession and Many Friends Attended Funeral of Firmin Campbell, K.C.

A last tribute to the dean of the Bar of St. Francis District and one of Sherbrooke's most distinguished citizens was paid this morning when a large number of local residents attended the funeral of Firmin Campbell, K.C., who died Sunday at his home on Prospect Street in his eighty-third years.

Leaving the house at nine o'clock, the cortege proceeded to the Rectory, where the Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father J. Desjardins, C.S.S.R., with Rev. Father D. Lachance as Deacon and Rev. Father G. Blanchette as Sub-Deacon.

Full bearers were Mr. Justice Hector Verreil, W. H. Lynch, K.C., E. C. Gatien, Hector Lanctot, Arthur Gendron and Armand Rousseau, K.C., while bearers were Joseph Leblanc, Arthur Bailargeon, Richard Milette, Charles Emile Bachand, John H. Walsh and Eugene F. Olivier.

In the sanctuary at the church were Rev. Canon Victor Vincent, Superior of St. Charles Seminary, Rev. Father Walter Miller, of St. Albans, Vt., and Rev. Father R. Girard, of Rosemont.

Those attending from out-of-town included Joseph and Louis Regnier, of Ivelville, John Quinn, of Windsor Mills, and Rev. Fathers Miller and Girard.

Members of the Bar of St. Francis District included Judge J. H. Lemay, Cesar Gervais, K.C., Joseph Roy, K.C., Albert Leblanc, K.C., Lionel Forest, K.C., Charles Mel, K.C., K.C., F. S. Rugg, K.C., Dorcas Panneton, K.C., Albert Desjardis, K.C., Armand Denis, Maurice Delorme, Ashton Tobin, Louis George Lemay, E. N. Hotham and Paul Desnoesaux.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, the former Emma Morier; five daughters, Mrs. G. A. Sirois (Marguerite), Mrs. Leonidas Bach and (Sella), Mrs. Bernard W. Murray (Kathleen), and the Misses Alice and Yvette Campbell; a son, John Campbell; eleven grandchildren, Guy, Pauline and Murielle Bachand, Antoine, Christine and Louis Sirois and William, John, Peter, Michael and Bernard Murray; two brothers, E. D. Campbell, of Providence, R.I., and L. Campbell, of Windsor, Ont.; a sister, Mrs. F. Heraly, of Montreal; several brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law and nephews and nieces.

Others at the funeral were Ald. J. W. Genest, Rev. Dr. G. Ellery Reid, J. C. Desjardins, J. E. Brodeur, Preston Powers, Dr. Joseph Meland, E. Baudeau, N.P., Ernest Sylvestre, N.P., Bud Hawkins, Leon Marceau, Aime Poulin, Omer Bonin, Chénier Picard, N.P., Professor J. D. Dufour, Dr. F. H. Bradley, J. G. Gagnon, E. Caron, L. P. Robitoux, Dr. P. P. Beaudry, L. Genest, Albert Fouchet, Dr. J. C. St. Pierre, J. O. Fortin, H. P. Couture, L. N. Audet, Dr. A. N. Dupuis, Francis Conway, Dr. Valmore Olivier, Austin Workman, Ed. Leblanc, Armand Crepeau, T. G. Walsh, J. W. Gregoire, L. A. Vachon, Joseph Begin, A. J. Arnold, E. Germain, Maurice deLottinville, E. M. Hall, Gaston Goulet, Professor Labarre, C. P. Dubuc, Simon Miller and Joseph Grondin.

St. Patrick's Academy, of whose Board Mr. Campbell was a member for many years, was represented by Rev. Brother O'Keefe and a group of students.

Burial was in the family lot in St. Michael's Cemetery.

WAGON SMASHES INTO BUS

Gaston Vezina, eighteen-year-old employee of the J. A. Fortin Grocery Store, was taken to the Hotel-Dieu Hospital by ambulance this morning following an accident at the corner of Wellington Street North and Marquette Street when the horse-drawn team he was driving collided with a city autobus.

A window in the bus was smashed and the wagon, minus a wheel, dragged by the terror-stricken horse as far as Mitchell's Store, where the animal broke loose and galloped along Wellington Street until halted near the King Street intersection.

Vezina was thrown to the ground by the crash. Hospital officials said he was suffering from shock but his condition was not considered serious.

New Chief Magistrate Carried All But One Of Five Sherbrooke Wards

Ex-Alderman Joseph Labrecque Polled 2,761 Votes to 2,045 Received by His Opponents, Lt.-Col. Leopold Chevalier, Carrying West Ward by Majority of 713—Only Slightly More than Half Eligible Voters Marked Ballots.

Gaining majorities in thirty of the forty-five municipal polls and piling up his biggest lead in his own West Ward, Joseph Labrecque, member of the City Council from 1924 to 1930, was yesterday elected Chief Magistrate of Sherbrooke by a majority of 716 votes over Lt.-Col. Leopold Chevalier.

With the Federal elections serving to detract from the interest usually displayed in mayoral contests, only slightly more than half of the eligible voters marked their ballots, 2,761 putting their cross opposite Mr. Labrecque's name and 2,045 voting for Col. Chevalier. There were 8,538 names on the municipal lists.

Polling booths throughout the city were closed promptly at six o'clock and it was only eight minutes later that the first result was phoned into City Clerk Antonin Desjardins, acting in his capacity as Returning Officer. Polls in the East, Centre and South wards were earliest to report and at first it seemed that the election was going to be a tight affair.

Considered as a Chevalier stronghold and one in which he would secure a substantial majority, the North Ward proved the surprise of the campaign and with completed returns all in showed an edge of sixteen for the former Alderman.

Because of the fact that electors in the West Ward had also to vote in an Aldermanic contest, returns from "Little Canada" were the last in. From the first it was evident that Mr. Labrecque's section was backing him to the hilt and as poll after poll reported substantial majorities his election became more and more a certainty. The contest was conceded by Mr. Desjardins with Mr. Labrecque some six hundred votes ahead and two polls still to be heard from.

Col. Chevalier led in one ward, the East, by 47. Majorities for Mr. Labrecque in the other divisions were 713 in the West, 12 in the South, 20 in the Centre and 16 in the North.

SUGARING-OFF PARTY ENJOYED BY TEXTILEMEN

Under the management of Alfred Desrocher and Emile Roque, an enjoyable sugaring-off party was enjoyed by employees of the local Dominion Textile plant when they journeyed to Bromptonville and were entertained at the residence of Joseph Groux.

Included on the programme of the outing were a vocal trio by Jack Baker, Louis Raymond and Alpha Harel, wrestling matches between Kid Raymond and Kid Baker, who battled to a draw, and "Zybisco" Gagne and "Strangler" Harel, who also fought to a stalemate, and a sleigh drive. An enjoyable meal was served by Mrs. Groux.

Contributing to the success of the party were D. Pechie, Superintendent; E. Davignon, Assistant Superintendent; J. O. Dufresne, A. Therrien, C. Lafrance, F. Patton and Adelard Beaulieu, Overseers; A. Davignon, of Montreal, and E. Gilbert, P. Brunelle, Leopold Strasbourg, Thomas Laplante, Alpha Harel, L. Rousseau, A. Rousseau, T. Rousseau, A. Desrochers, T. Dupont, Cliff Baker, Jack Baker, L. SHERBROOKE, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1940.

AND NOW TO WORK

The 1940 Federal general elections have passed into history and out of the whirlwind of oratory, accusation and counter-accusation the fact emerges clearly that the Liberal administration of Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King has been definitely charged with the task of administering the affairs of the nation for the coming four or five years. Many issues have been brought into the campaign, but head and shoulders above them all stood the question of Canada's war effort. Government supporters claimed that the administration was pressing the struggle with every reasonable means at its command, while the Opposition forces varied their criticism from too great an effort to too inconsequential. Evidently the people of Canada are convinced of the validity of the Government's claims, judging from the overwhelming majority given it in the vote yesterday. The mandate was not half-hearted. It was clear and definite.

The Government has received clear orders from the electors to continue with the prosecution of the war. A definite warning has been delivered to the Opposition groups that unwarranted criticism and blockade tactics will not be tolerated, and in this respect it is only reasonable that the small groups on the left of the Speaker should refrain from constant carping at the Government. Throughout the campaign, the supporters of the Prime Minister presented their case in a definite manner, and their explanations have been accepted.

The tremendous majority amassed by the Government is a surprise in many quarters, even the most enthusiastic Liberal refusing to predict so great a lead. Veteran members of the Conservative party, especially in the Montreal English-speaking ridings went down in the landslide. Perhaps one important reason for the Liberal success was the calibre of certain would-be friends of the Opposition Leader. This is especially true of Ontario, where the nature of the campaign of the Provincial Conservative leader, Col. George A. Drew, an open supporter of the National Government, and the guerrilla tactics of Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn proved more of a hindrance than a help to the Opposition.

Similarly, certain of the Western Opposition leaders joined the fight with more enthusiasm than judgment, with the result that in many cases popular opinion was alienated by the nature of the attacks upon the Government and the concentration of the verbal barrage on two or three individual members of the Government.

However, this is now all past history. The verdict has been given and the Government and Opposition groups alike must abide by it. The great victory of the Liberal party removes, for the time being at least, talk of a Coalition Government. Condemnation of such a project was one of the keystones of the Liberal platform and it must have found favor with the electors.

"TED" WALSH SHOULD HAVE NO REGRETS

"Ted" Walsh may not be the member of Parliament for Sherbrooke today, but he should feel that the fight which he waged was a good clean one and that defeat came to him in the defence of a principle which he boldly sought to defend.

Mr. Walsh and Mr. Ginges are to be complimented upon the manner in which they carried out the campaign. Both conducted themselves as gentlemen. To the electorate fell the responsibility of deciding which of the two would go to Ottawa. That decision has been given.

Mr. Ginges is a young man who will do his best. He is a smart young man and there is no reason why he should not in time adapt himself to the duties and responsibilities which lie ahead of him.

Mr. Walsh would have represented Sherbrooke in a most able and creditable manner. He gladly offered his services in the belief that he was defending a principle, he thought, was in the interest of Sherbrooke as a whole.

It has long been the custom of the Sherbrooke electorate to send a French-speaking representative to Quebec and an English-speaking citizen to Ottawa. This has worked well in the past and Mr. Walsh allowed this name to come before the electorate in order that this happy arrangement might continue.

Mr. Walsh sought to defend a principle. His attempt was lacking in public support. He did his best. He entered the campaign with a clean name and a clear record. Today he returns to his private business with the same clean slate.

RUSSIA TO STRENGTHEN FAR EASTERN POSITION

While some observers believe that reports reaching Paris from Chinese circles that the Soviet Union is advising Chiang Kai-Shek to accept an armistice if Wang Ching-Wei offers peace shortly after he is installed as Japan's puppet Premier of China is part of a German-sponsored plan to establish totalitarian control over the two continents, more authoritative opinion is that Russia is merely extending her own imperialistic ambitions to the Far East. According to this view, the Russians see the stalemate in the Sino-Japanese war as affording an excellent opportunity for obtaining Japanese recognition of Soviet predominance in Chinese Turkestan and Outer Mongolia in exchange for a decisive word for peace from the Kremlin.

According to word from Tokyo, Russo-Japanese negotiations on mutual Far Eastern problems are making slow but positive progress.

Wang's Japanese-sponsored "Central Chinese Government" is scheduled to take office at Nanking Saturday, although its formation has frequently been postponed in the past and may be deferred again.

The difficulty appears to be that if the Japanese armies continue to gobble up more and more of China after Wang is installed, the new Premier will enjoy none of the Chinese public support he hopes to win as a "pacifier." On the other hand, if the Japanese troops were withdrawn, Chiang Kai-Shek would be left in a strategic position to reconquer the territories now lost to his regime.

Russia is in at least partial possession of the key to the situation. If it is true that the Soviets are bringing pressure on Chiang to conclude a peace with the Japanese invaders' agent, there is an analogy between the Kremlin's policy in Europe and Asia.

In Europe, Russia professed to be on the side of law and order until friendship with Germany gave an opportunity of annexing territory from Poland and Finland, occupying strategic strongholds in Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, and gaining effective control of the Baltic.

In Asia, the Soviet from the outset has shown partiality to the Chinese Republic's fight against Japan. French observers would not be surprised, however, to see Moscow make a sudden about-face if profit was to be made from such a shift.

GERMANY'S DIFFICULT POSITION

Germany is so caught in her own web that a "White Peace" would be just as fatal as a military defeat, in the opinion of a prominent Swiss economic writer, who declares that an exchange of signatures would not suffice for the re-establishment of a lasting peace. He believes that Germany is the prisoner of her own system and that she cannot escape except by a total victory over her adversaries or by a revolution which will place the state on a sound basis.

Optimists in the Reich persist in believing that before the war develops into a read Armageddon it will be possible to conclude a negotiated peace, followed by a simple process of disarming and living on good terms with all remaining neighbors, the writer said.

"But—for technical and practical reasons apart from all ideological considerations—the Third Reich of today is as unable to afford a White Peace as it was unable to remain at peace beyond 1939," he continued.

Examining the Nazi war economy, the correspondent estimated at 70,000,000,000 marks the various kinds of state-sponsored paper now extant in Germany.

Direct inflation has been avoided, he agreed, but nonetheless there has been a hidden inflation which he said would catch up with the juggled German economic system almost the moment a negotiated peace was signed and would bring inevitable ruin.

"Let us suppose that a White Peace were signed in the near future," he wrote. "Just imagine what would happen on the day when German industries and banks had to resume their normal activity and depositors wanted to withdraw a small part of their savings to improve their material position. Within a week a colossal collapse would be underway."

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From the Files of the Sherbrooke Record.
March 26th, 1940.

A series of last minute concessions by both parties served to avert a tariff war between Canada and the United States and kept relations between the two countries on a sensible basis.

Arrangements were completed for the organization of the 26th St. Andrew's Dragoons, embracing companies from each of three units already existing in the district and also a new company to be formed within the county.

The contractors announced that they were ready to start work on the new Canadian Pacific Railway station at Sherbrooke, having already completed the new fifteen-stall roundhouse and the coal chute.

A Boston historical society sought information on a Paul Revere bell believed shipped to Stanstead in 1816, but no trace of it could be found on the steeples of the churches in the district. The bell in question was the only one cast by the noted bell-founder-ryder which had not been located.

Another effort to avert a vote at Lake Megantic on the liquor question was defeated when the court refused a request for an injunction on the grounds that the electoral list was incomplete.

The officials elected at the annual meeting of the St. Paul's Anglican Church at Knowlton were F. P. Williams, J. E. Fay, Judge Foster, H. S. Foster and J. J. Lynch.

The Fuehrer's Prayer

Gott, Gott, dear Gott, attentions please,
Your pardner Adolph's here
Und has a word or two to say
Indo your private ear:
So durn away all udders now
Und listen vell to me,
For vat I say concerns me much,
Meinself und Shermany.

You know, dear Gott, I was your friend
Und from mine hour of birth
I quietly let you rule der Heffen
Vile I ruled o'er der Earth,
Und ven I told mein soldiers
Of by-gone battle days,
I gladly split der glory,
Und gave you half der praise.

In every way I tried to prove
Mein heart to you was true,
Und only claimed mein honest share
In great deeds dat ve do.
You could not half a better friendt
In Sky, or Land, or Sea,
Dan Adolph Hitler number vun
Der Lord of Shermany.

So vat I say, dear Gott, is dis:
Dat you should still be friends,
Und you should help to send my foes
To meet der bitter ends.
If you, dear Gott, vill dis me do
I'll nothing ask again,
Und you und I vill pardners be
For evermore—Amen.

But listen, Gott, it must be quick
Your help to me you send,
Or else I halt to stop attack
Und only play der dumd.
So four und twenty hours I gif
To make the Allies run
Und put me safe into my place
Der middle of der sun.

If you do dis I'll do my part,
I'll tell der world der fact—
But if you don't den I must tink
It is a hostile act.
Den var at vonce I vill declare
Und in my anger rise,
Und send mein bomber ships to wage
A fight up in der skies.

Diss Ultimatum now, dear Gott,
Is von of many mood,
Mein mind is settled up to clean
Der whole world off der floor.
Because you was my pardner, Gott,
An extra chance is giffen.
So help at vonce, or else I'll be Der Emperor of Heffen.

Editor's Note:—The above poem was sent to us by Mrs. A. B. Ross, of Brockville, Ont., and is reproduced from a Brockville paper. The name of the author is unknown. The poem dates from the last World War but, with a few minor changes, is perfectly suited for 1940 consumption.

HAVE A SMILE

When war broke out, the inevitable slump hit the stage and film business pretty hard, so much so that two Jewish theatrical and film agents decided to join the forces.

Many weeks later they met each other while on leave, in London, and naturally discussed their experiences during which one said to the other, "I have sent up my form of application for my commission."

The other replied, "What! As well as your pay?"

"But, madam, just think for a moment before you rush into this marriage. Your late husband distinctly said in his will that if you marry again his fortune will go to his cousin."

"That's all right. It's the cousin that I'm marrying."

A woman went into a post office, handed a letter over the counter, and said: "Have I got enough stamps on this?"

The girl weighed it and then said: "You've really put on too many stamps. You're a half-penny over."

"Good gracious!" the woman said. "I hope it won't go too far!"

I like the story about the mother who was trying to get her little girl to sleep, and she said: "New keep quiet, dear. The sandman is on his way."

"O.K.," the kid said. "Give me a dime, and I won't tell dad."

A chap said to me only the other day, "Aren't you scared of losing control of your car?"

"Yes," I told him. "I'm six instalments behind already."

After waiting half an hour for a No. 1 tram, during which time several 2's, and 3's, and 4's had passed, three No. 1's arrived together.

This was too much for an irate member of the crowd.

"Huh. Scared of the Jerries," he sneered. "Travelling in convoys!"

HERE AND THERE

To be kept "in the pink," a riding horse should be exercised about two hours daily, while a heavy draught horse will keep healthy with an hour's walk, two or three times weekly.

The French-owned Haiphong-Yunnan railway of China passes over and through 3,000 bridges and tunnels in its length of 600 miles. It extends into the heart of southeastern China, through tropical jungles, scales mountains, and dips into rugged, barren gorges.

It is the sun that heats great masses of air over the tropical regions, causing the air to rise, and the colder air to rush in from the polar regions to take its place. Rotation of the earth causes eddies and whirlpools in these sun-heated currents, and winds and storms result.

The modern canning industry was made possible by Nicholas Appert, French confectioner, who invented a method of preserving food by boiling it in a sealed container in 1809. Napoleon I awarded him 12,000 francs for his discovery.

The State of California pays a pension of approximately $50 a month to each blind resident there. Mrs. Arthur McLagen handles the care of the 7,000 blind persons in the state.

PRESS COMMENTS

WHAT IS THE U.S. UP TO?

(New York Herald Tribune)

The quiet passage of Sumner Welles through all the storms of the Finnish peace negotiations has for most Americans a note of innocent fantasy. As he gravely listens to Herr Hitler's diatribes, offers exceptionally platitudinous plans for post-war economic reconstruction to the French or chats in front of the fire with King George, while deadly diplomatic battle is raging through half a dozen capitals and really critical issues seem hanging in the balance, it is hard to believe that any one could take him very seriously.

The mere presence of Mr. Welles in Europe in these tense moments is apparently having its unsettling effect. The foreign offices have to take account of the special envoy; the public observe his passing in a cloud of vague rumors about peace moves, and he is leaving varying shades of curiosity, coldness, irritation and dismay in his wake. Nor can such sentiments be allayed by "Vichy" dispatches intimating that no one would be surprised if something dramatic in the way of a peace move should suddenly issue from the White House or by radio addresses from no less a figure than the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, calling for a thirty-day armistice in Europe.

This is the sort of thing which Europeans cannot neglect, and it has served to get the United States (as well as their President) rather prominently into the foreground of the European complex. It does not explain, even to ourselves, what we are doing there. When Senator Pittman plausibly declares that "now is the time for neutral countries constantly to hammer for the thought of peace," he is saying a good deal less than nothing so long as he leaves unanswered the absolutely crucial question of what kind of peace the neutrals are to "hammer for."

IL DUCE SHEDS ONE

(New York Herald Tribune)

Clearing the decks for action by discarding one of his numerous titles or perhaps heightening the luster of those that remain by lessening their number, Premier Mussolini has decreed that he is no longer to be addressed as "your excellency." That comprehensive salutation may not be used either orally or in writing, toward the official who, meanwhile, remains head of the government, Prime Minister, Secretary of State, Minister of the Interior, Minister of War, Minister of Marine and Minister of Aeronautics. Hereafter, an order from the Presidency of the Council announces, any one writing to Signor Mussolini must do so as "Duce of Fascism, head of the government." In addressing him orally one should say merely "Duce," which honorable appellation doubtless includes an unlimited range of dignities and powers.

BRITAIN SCORES BIG VICTORY

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

That Britain is not neglecting the diplomatic front while perfecting her military machine is indicated by the way in which she cut the ground from under the feet of Joachim von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister, as he went to Rome to capitalize on the fact that Britain had seized 13 Italian ships carrying Reich coal to Italy. Shortly before the German Minister arrived in the Italian capital, it was announced that Britain had released the coal laden ships. The release, not only queerly von Ribbentrop's plans to antagonize

HEADED FOR OTTAWA — WHEN HE GETS BACK TO EARTH

FROM THE PEN OF E. T. WRITERS

CANADA'S FAREWELL

Touched to the core was every heart
Who heard the fond farewell
Our Lady Tweedsmuir did impart
To this land she loved so well;
Enshrined upon each loyal heart
Her memory e're shall be,
And loath indeed, we are to part
When she puts out to sea.

We hesitate to bid adieu
To one who proved so kind and true
Throughout her sojourn here.
(But, Powers far from our control
Have played a poignant part
Have sought of life its honest toll
And stilled a noble heart.)

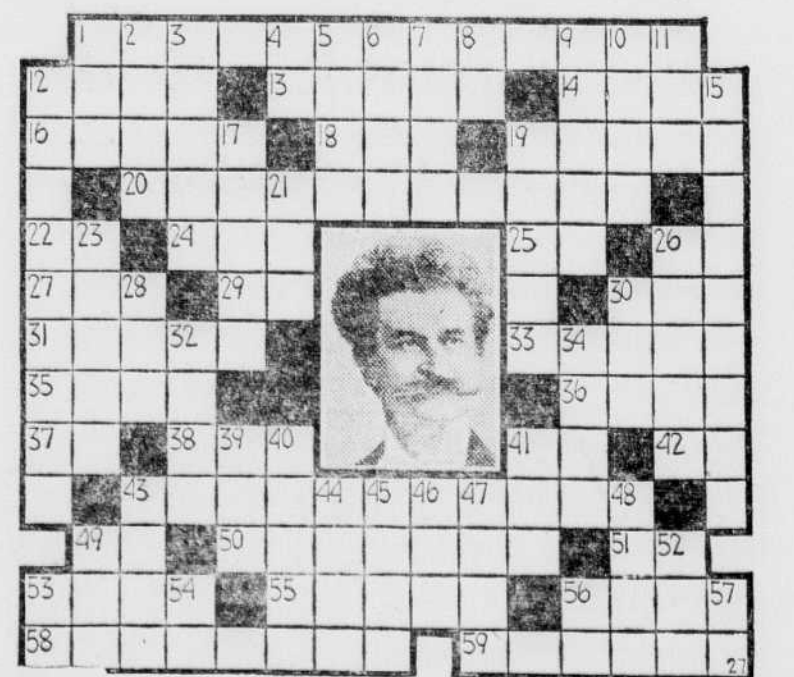

Decreed by fate, we now must say,
Reluctantly, farewell—
May God be kind to you always
Wherever you may dwell.
May He Who marks the sparrow's fall
Watch o'er you from on high,
And shed His love and peace o'er all—
That's Canada's Goodbye.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenney, America's Card Authority

NO HARM IN BRIDGE TABLE DEBATE; THIS BID DESERVES A GOOD SCRAP

I have often said, don't worry about an argument at the bridge table. It is far better to argue over a dummy or a five-spot than over some of the real problems of life. I don't believe there is any game other than bridge that can give the mind such a spirited workout, and still be fun to play. Martin Luther used to play backgammon for an hour or two after dinner, claiming that it relieved his mind and therefore promoted digestion.

You might claim that it would be bad for digestion to have a partner trap you as in today's hand, but I still think it would be a lot of fun, even though you missed the slam. After the bidding as shown here, there was a heated argument between North and South as to who was responsible for "missing the boat."

North argued that South should have bid again over the double jump of his spade bid. South claimed that he had already bid the full value of his cards, and that he could not suggest a slam with so little in top strength.

When South bid two spades, North should have plunged at once into six, or even seven spades. After all, when your partner makes an original bid and then shows a new suit, you holding those North cards must go to work with them and bid the slam.

Girl's Makeup Knowledge Should Not Be Skin Deep

The day you decide to stop saying, "A child of your age ought not to use cosmetics," is the day you should order makeup for your daughter to suit her own skin and probably a bland cream or two.

Unless your coloring and hers are exactly the same, which isn't likely, it's a great mistake to start your daughter off on what will become a life-long habit with bits of equipment from your own dressing table.

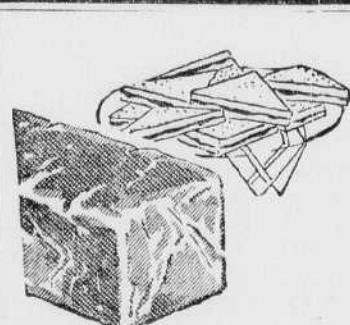

What Every Girl Should Know Your daughter should have the finest cosmetics possible, of course.

When you "pep-up" tomato juice this way

KINGSTON, ONT.—From this city comes the news that tomato juice is made much more flavourous by adding a little H. P. Sauce. Try this idea yourself and you will enjoy tomato juice with more zest than ever.

H. P. Sauce is a general favourite and has been used in cooking and on the table for many years. Being a thick, rich, fruity sort of sauce, H. P. has extraordinary flavouring power. It makes hot and cold dishes of every description taste much nicer. Use this English sauce for adding flavour to soups, stews, meat pies, gravies, macaroni, chops, steaks, cheese dishes and so on.

Mrs. Douglas Brundage and Mrs. Lawrence Perge have returned to their respective homes after spending the Easter week-end in Springfield, Mass., guests of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bennett.

Miss Clara Hyndman, of Montreal, is spending the Easter holidays in Sherbrooke her former home, and is a guest of her sister, Mrs. V. Long, and Mr. Long, Victoria Street.

Miss Winnifred Reed was the guest of honor last evening at a delightful surprise party arranged by Mrs. F. L. Bean and Miss Lettie Dodge, at her home on King Street West, on the occasion of her birthday. Upon returning to her home Miss Reed was greeted by the strains of "Happy Birthday to You," sung by the group of friends assembled in her honor. After the exchange of felicitous greetings bridge was played at three tables, the first prize being won by Mrs. Irwin Davy.

Second prize was won by Mrs. F. L. Bean presented Miss Reed with a large mauve and yellow box, topped with a large daffodil, and containing a "shower" of lovely miscellaneous gifts. Later delicious refreshments were served, the same Easter color scheme of mauve and yellow being continued in the novel table decorations consisting of many small birthday cakes, each holding a lighted candle with a favor and verse, arranged on a large central mirror, and afterwards one was served to every guest. The hostesses were assisted in their pleasant host duties by the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Reed.

LENNOXVILLE CHURCH GROUP PLANS EVENT

Members of St. Monica's Guild Discuss Arrangements for Evening Bridge and Food Sale Slated for April.

An evening bridge and food sale will be held in April by members of St. Monica's Guild of St. George's Church. The event was discussed last evening at a meeting of the Society held at the residence of Mrs. B. Brady, on Church Street.

Mrs. Charles Parkin, President of the Guild, conducted the business session, during which Mrs. Roy S. Clarke and Mrs. E. Roy Down were appointed to take charge of card tables for this event.

Several pairs of socks, knitted by members during the past month, were handed in last evening to the Red Cross convener, Mrs. Roy S. Clarke. The members were indeed sorry to learn that one of the group is ill, and it was agreed that a card and flowers will be sent to her.

Following adjournment a pleasant social hour was enjoyed when lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Brady, with Mrs. E. Roy Down presiding at the charmingly appointed tea table, which was lace covered and centred with a low crystal bowl of yellow daffodils.

General Notes

Miss Shirley Coates returned to her home on Reed Avenue yesterday, after being a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. It is the hope of her many friends that she will make a speedy recovery.

Miss Irene Cunningham, of West Bolton, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Cunningham.

Mr. Ross MacAllister has returned to his studies at Macdonald College after spending Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. MacAllister, at their residence on Clough Avenue.

Mr. Grant Parent, who has been spending his Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Parent, at their residence on Clough Avenue, has returned to Macdonald College.

Miss Hazel Crosby has returned to Sherbrooke after spending the Easter week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Crosby, at their home on Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartley and Miss Ada Hartley left this morning for Cornwall, Ont., to see their son, Pie, Walter Hartley.

Mrs. H. J. McLaughlin's many friends are extending her congratulations today on the occasion of her eightieth birthday. Mrs. McLaughlin has been spending the winter in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. T. R. Johnson, who has been a guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clearbue, at their home on Queen Street, has returned to Thorford Mines.

Mr. Sam Lipen, of the Y.M.C.A., has returned to Sherbrooke after spending the Easter vacation at his home in Toronto.

Mrs. Nettie Kent, of North Hatley, is spending some time with her niece, Mrs. Knights, at her home on Wolfe Street. Mrs. A. G. Angers, Dan Angers and Mr. and Mrs. Clark were recent visitors at the same home.

The engagement is announced of Grace Isabel, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Waite, formerly of this city, to Mr. James Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Connor, of Montreal. The marriage will take place quietly on April 17, 1940.

Miss Anne Jowett, Aberdeen Avenue, left the city yesterday for Lawrence, Mass., to be present at the Smith-Johnson wedding taking place on Sunday night. Miss Jowett will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Tackett, while in Lawrence.

Additional subscribers to the Charity Ball are Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Spier, North Hatley, Miss Helen Norton, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Nicol, St. J. M. Jencks, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Robins, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McCrea, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Black and Mr. Larry McGowan. It is most interesting to note that all arrangements for this annual Charity Ball, to be held at the New Sherbrooke on Friday evening under the auspices of the Sherbrooke Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary, are progressing most favorably under the general supervision of Mrs. Guy Bryant, President. Mrs. J. K. Edwards, Mrs. William E. Baker and Miss A. Wells, who comprise the ticket committee, are to be congratulated upon the many patriots they have already secured. To Mrs. C. A. Turner and Mrs. R. S. Giff, who once again have assumed the responsibility of supplying refreshments for such a large number, a special vote of thanks is due, for this department entails much time and effort for the conveners in charge.

ST. ANDREW'S AID

Mrs. George M. Dick was hostess for last evening's largely attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church at her home on Walton Avenue.

Under the presidency of Mrs. C. A. Turner, plans were made for a rummage sale during the first week in May, and also for a party, which, through the courtesy of Mrs. Turner, will be held at her home on Victoria Street on April 25.

The President also reminded the members that the Aid's Red Cross unit meets on Friday afternoons in the church hall for knitting and sewing.

Of outstanding interest was the report, given by Mrs. A. J. Morrison, in the St. Patrick's tea and musical recently sponsored by the Aid, the proceeds from which successful social event were most gratifying.

WOMEN'S GUILD

The Easter salad tea and sale given by the Women's Guild in the Church of the Advent Hall yesterday afternoon was an exceptionally successful and attractive event, which inaugurated the post-Easter activities with great éclat.

Mrs. R. M. Loughan, the Guild's President, received the numerous guests who patronized the delightful party and Mrs. James Wark acted as Treasurer.

Golden daffodils were used to decorate the small tables, their sweet fragrance lending a spring-time atmosphere, most welcome to the guests as they entered the hall from the cold winter weather which has prevailed during Easter tide.

Tea was poured by Mrs. T. A. Loughan, the large tea table being effectively done with red tulips and red and white snapdragons, these gorgeous flowers, as well as the daffodils, being generously donated by "Lords."

During the afternoon bridge was played at ten tables, the prizes being arranged for by the hostess at each table.

One of the highlights of the Easter tea party was the attractive apron table in charge of Miss Bertha Sargent, the proceeds from which helped materially to augment the very satisfactory grand total.

Conveners for the successful party were Mrs. S. H. Bachelder, Mrs. R. M. Loughan and Mrs. H. C. Wilcox, who were ably assisted by Mrs. W. E. Buck, Mrs. F. Marshall and Mrs. Rolfe, while several of the younger members of the congregation helped in serving.

Salmon Will Roll Into Hunger-Enticing Main Course For Dinner

You'll go hook, line and sinker for this seafood delicacy. Serve it with a bowl of fresh vegetable salad. For dessert, have fluffy individual lemon meringue pies and coffee.

Salmon Filling

Two tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup milk, 2 cups flaked salmon, cooked or canned, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, pepper.

Melt butter, add onion and cook until soft but not brown, blend in flour. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened.

Salmon Roll

Two cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons phosphate baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup shortening, 3/4 cup milk (about).

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; cut in shortening with two knives, or pastry blender. Add milk, stirring until a soft, but not sticky dough is formed. Place dough on floured board, roll out to 1/4-inch thickness into a rectangular shape. Spread with salmon filling; roll up and bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Dough may be divided in half to make two smaller rolls. Serve with egg sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Egg Sauce

Three tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 teaspoon chopped parsley, 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped, omitted.

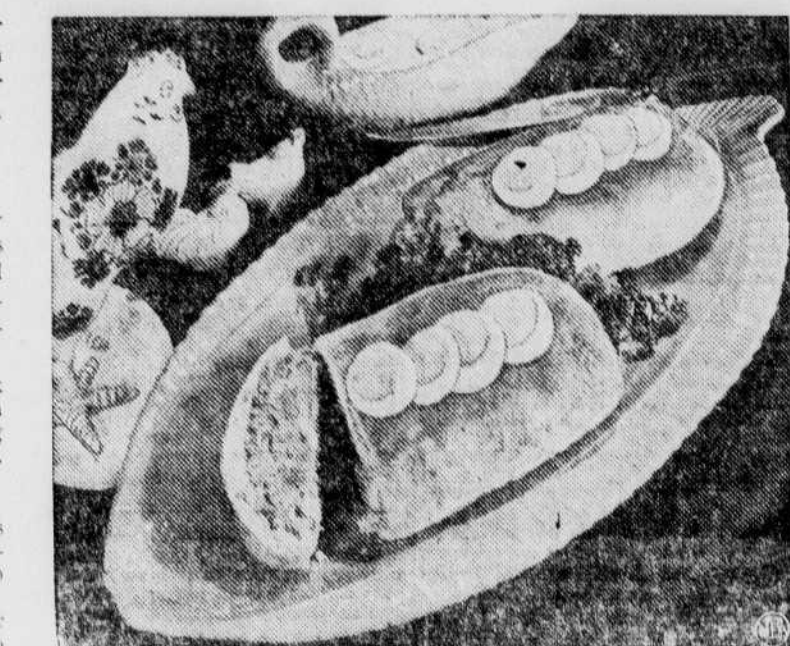

Melt butter, blend in flour. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly, and cook until thickened. Add seasonings, chopped parsley and hard-cooked eggs. Serve with salmon roll.

NEW EXECUTIVE IS ELECTED BY HATLEY GROUP

Hatley, March 27.—The annual meeting of the Hatley Women's Institute was pleasantly entertained by Miss Dorothy Brown and Mrs. Gordon Whipple at the home of the former, where there was a good attendance of members and friends.

The meeting opened in the usual manner with the Club Women's Creed in unison, the roll call was answered by the payment of membership dues and regular monthly dues, after which were given suggestions for next year's programme.

All were pleased to welcome Miss Ruth Hartwell as a new member. The Secretary's and Treasurer's report were read and accepted and five dollars was voted to the Public Library as the Institute's annual donation, one dollar was also subscribed to the Lady Tweedsmuir Gift Fund.

Mrs. H. B. Whitcomb, the retiring President, thanked the members for their co-operation during the eight years, she served as President of the Hatley Women's Institute and expressed the wish that this same co-operation be extended to the newly appointed President.

Mrs. Leslie McClary was appointed Chairman for the election of officers and conveners for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. D. Vaughan; First Vice-President, Mrs. Hugh McClary; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Ronald Davis; Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. A. I. McClary.

Conveners: Agriculture, Mrs. N. Eickmeier and Miss D. Brown; Home Economics, Mrs. L. H. McClary, Mrs. T. Little, Miss Ruth Hartwell; Education, Mrs. Hugh McClary, and Mrs. B. Whitcomb; Nations and International Relations, Mrs. R. McClary and Mrs. G. Whipple; Welfare and Health, Mrs. A. I. McClary and Mrs. Hartwell; Publicity, Mrs. Davis; Conveyance, Mrs. McClary and Miss Dorothy Brown; Emergency, Mrs. A. I. McClary, Mrs. A. B. Hartwell, Mrs. L. H. McClary and Mrs. H. B. Whitcomb.

Mrs. Vaughan thanked Mrs. Whitcomb for her services during her terms of office as President and as Secretary-Treasurer, and as a souvenir the members presented Mrs. Whitcomb with a beautiful silver and glass dish suitable engraved. Mrs. Whitcomb expressed her gratitude for this token of appreciation and all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow."

A delicious tea was then served by Mrs. H. H. Brown, Miss Brown and Mrs. Whipple.

General Notes

The annual St. Patrick's dinner, served in the vestry of the United Church by members of the Women's Association, was very successful with about seventy-five partaking of the bountiful dinner. The tables were nicely decorated with shamrocks and tall candles in potato holders. Mrs. J. W. Foote, Mrs. Howard Ayer, Mrs. Ronald McClary and Miss Marion Foote waited on the guests while Mrs. Lucy Boyes and Mrs. L. H. Orcutt poured tea. A short business meeting followed the dinner and after that a meeting of the Red Cross was held.

Mrs. J. F. Woodman accompanied Mrs. H. Ayer and Mr. Homer Ayer to Sherbrooke to meet Mr. Woodman, who was a patient in a Montreal hospital and successfully passed another operation.

The Y.P.U. members held their regular meeting in the vestry. Miss Violet Tear was at her home in Windsor Mills to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hess. She was accompanied by Miss Berenice Smirle and Miss Gladys Smirle, of Lennoxville, who left Windsor Mills later for Montreal and then for their home in Hemmingford.

Miss Annis Young, who is teaching at Valcartier, is spending the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Young. Miss Barbara Young, of Magog, is at the same home for the holidays.

Mrs. J. Cottingham, of Ormstown, was an Easter guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Cady.

Miss Gertrude Bell, of Montreal, was an Easter guest of her father, Mayor W. J. Bell.

Mrs. F. Hinchcliffe and daughter, Jessie, spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paige, at Bolton Glen. Mr. Hinchcliffe, joined them over the week-end.

Mr. A. Latour, of St. Stephen, N.B., was a week-end guest of his family here.

Mrs. Muriel Burnett, of Montreal, and Mr. Leighton Burnett, of St. Armes, were Easter guests of their mother, Mrs. G. Burnett.

A marriage of interest to the people of Cowansville took place in Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, on March 23, when Flying Officer Thomas Cecil Davis, R.C.A.F., was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Furness McLeod, of Montreal. The groom had dived in Cowansville for a number of years. Many friends offer congratulations.

NEWLYWEDS ARE ENTERTAINED AT THE FORD MINES

Thorford Mines, March 27.—About one hundred guests were at "Braeside," the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCallum, when they entertained in honor of their son, Lieut. V. I. McCallum, R.C.E., C.A.S.P., and Mrs. McCallum, (nee Miss Margaret Duncan).

The guests were received by the host and hostesses and by Lieut. V. I. and Mrs. McCallum. Mrs. J. T. McCallum was gowned in flowered crepe and Mrs. V. I. McCallum wore a gown of heavenly blue.

Miss Polly McCallum and Miss Pearl McClintock were in charge of the dining room, assisted by Miss Jean McCallum and Miss Margaret McKendry. A buffet supper was served. Mrs. P. L. Daigneault poured tea and coffee was poured by Mrs. C. V. Smith from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.; while Mrs. U. A. Vaudry and Mrs. M. H. W. Seelye performed these duties from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Spring flowers were in evidence in the various rooms and several out of town friends were among the guests.

First Dose of Mosby's Tonic Gas Relief
"Well, I suffered so long I was fully discouraged. I tried various medicines but got no real relief. Then recently I found Mosby's Tonic. I started feeling better from the very first dose of it. I was really surprised the way this medicine acted on my stomach. It relieved the gas pains and heartburn and seemed to move leads of gas from my stomach. I continued with Mosby's Tonic and have taken only 3 bottles. Now I am not afraid to eat. I can enjoy the foods I couldn't eat before and my meals agree with me. I can sleep fine at nights and don't get nervous and feel worn out like I used to. In fact, I feel fine again in every way. Yes, Mosby's Tonic is Splendid! Just like people say it is. I am PROUD to be endorsing it."

Widely-known people, living throughout Eastern Canada, are now coming forward daily with grateful statements, publicly praising and endorsing this "new mixture of roots and herbs and other splendid medicinal agents," known as MOSBY'S TONIC, which is now being introduced to the public daily here in Sherbrooke at The Chagnon
Pharmacy, 111 Wellington Street
North. For instance, just a few days ago, Mr. Ubald Hainault, of 1105
Papineau Street, Montreal, P.Q., offered his photograph and statement for publication, describing the splendid relief he got from Mosby's Tonic, following is his sincere testimonial, which is worth reading:

Gasiness, Heartburn Followed Every Meal
"Mosby's Tonic relieved me of so much suffering that I feel it is my duty to tell others about it, and I will verify every word I say in this statement of mine, for I think this medicine is splendid," said Mr.
Hainault. "I certainly suffered, in fact, I got to a point where I was so upset with a gaseous, bloated stomach that I was AFRAID TO EAT. Heartburn and gas pains followed every meal, no matter how little
I ate. It seemed that every kind of food
I liked the best would cause me the most suffering. These gas pains would continue at nights and break up my rest. I was also nervous from so much suffering and felt weak and worn out."

There is a vacancy in the Senate, created by the death of Hon. George Lynch-Staunton, of Hamilton, a Conservative appointee. This several administrative posts are expected to be filled shortly. The latter include the position of Parliamentary Librarian, King's Printer and Registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Selection of a successor to the late Lord Tweedsmuir as Governor-General of Canada is expected to be made at an early date. Lord Tweedsmuir died February 11th and the duties of his office are being performed by Sir Lyman Duff, Chief
Justice of Canada, as Administrator.

Among the outstanding domestic issues expected to occupy the Government immediately is the report of the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial relations. It was expected to have been ready early this year but when the election was called, Mr. King asked the Commission to withhold it until after the vote.

This report now is expected to be released after Parliament meets and to be submitted during the summer

duties of his office are being performed by Sir Lyman Duff, Chief
Justice of Canada, as Administrator.

Among the outstanding domestic issues expected to occupy the Government immediately is the report of the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial relations. It was expected to have been ready early this year but when the election was called, Mr. King asked the Commission to withhold it until after the vote.

This report now is expected to be released after Parliament meets and
to be submitted during the summer

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET

Montreal, March 27.—Calves were easier, but other classes of livestock were steady on the Montreal livestock markets today, the Dominion Department of Agriculture reported.

Receipts were 41 cattle, 4 lambs,
224 hogs and 360 calves.

One carload of medium to good quality steers was received. The balance of the cattle were mostly canners and cutters, and these were selling from $3 to $3.75.

Veal calves ranged from $7.50 for common light kinds to $9 for medium good veals. The bulk of the calves were of common to just fair kinds and were sold between $7.50 and $8 with better kinds at $8.25 and $8.50.

Hogs were $9.40 for bacon fed and watered. Selects drew $1 per hog premium with the regular cut on off grades. Sows were slow at $5.25 to $6.25. Hogs sold on rail grade brought $12.40 hot weight.

to a Dominion-Provincial Conference.

Some form of unemployment insurance, probably will provide an important item on the agenda of this conference. It is believed the Government aims at establishing some form of unemployment insurance to meet the problems of industrial reaction when the need for war materials is ended.

During the campaign negotiations toward agreement on the dejected St. Lawrence Waterways development apparently were dropped and well-informed circles here state there is little possibility of the issue becoming a live issue in the near future.

DEATHS REPORTED

MRS. OSWALD WILLIAMS, BROME CENTRE.

Brome Centre, March 26.—On Sunday, March 17, a resident of this place for twenty-three years, Mrs. Oswald Williams passed away in her fifty-second year. She had been ill for several weeks.

Of a retiring nature, Mrs. Williams was absorbed in her home life and took pleasure in beautifying her new home with flowers and shade trees. Her house was always filled with flowering plants and canaries.

After spending a few weeks in Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, Mrs. Williams was brought back to her home to spend her last days. The funeral service was held in Brome Centre Church, conducted by Rev. E. D. Mitchell, of Knowlton. Taking the nineteenth Psalm as his lesson, the minister spoke comforting words to the bereaved.

The choir, with Mrs. Miller at the organ, sang three appropriate hymns, "Peace, Perfect Peace," "Forever with the Lord," and "When Our Hearts Are Bowed in Tears." Bearers were Errol Marsh, Marshall Miller, James Moore and Harold Hunt.

Left to mourn the deceased, besides her husband, are four children, Harold, of Brome; Norman, of Waterloo; Hilda (Mrs. Rumsby), of Iron Hill; and Gerald, at home; three sisters, Mrs. Royce, Mrs. Jasper and Mrs. Alger; two brothers, Edward and Charles Hunt; two grandchildren, Sheila Rumsby and Junior Williams, and several nieces and nephews.

Interment was made in Union Cemetery, Iron Hill. Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Jasper and son and Mrs. Royce, of Boston Centre, William Hastings, of West Shoford; Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunt, of Iron Hill; Mrs. Henry Alger and daughter, Marion, of Sweetwater, and many friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector Major, with their daughter Pierrette and son, Joseph Rene, of Windsor Mills, are spending a few days here with Mrs. Major's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Jean-Marie, and other relatives.

Mr. Dean Campbell, of Chatsworth, Ont., is a guest for a few days of his brother, Mr. Argyle Campbell, and Mrs. Campbell at the parsonage.

After spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert J. Foris and family at Quincy, Mass., Mrs. H. Judson Norris has returned to her home here. She was accompanied by Mr. Foris, who spent a week-end at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaudin Parker spent a week-end at Bury as Easter guests of Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Helen McClintock.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cutler, of Stanhope, were Sunday guests of Mr. Cutler's mother, Mrs. Selma Cutler, and family.

Here's something you may not know about

GIN

ONLY "GIN" made from grain spirits specially rectified and redistilled with Juniper Berries and flavouring herbs is entitled to be called and be labelled as "GIN" without any further modifying words.

For over 40 years every bottle of Melchers Geneva Gin has been made under government supervision, in strict accordance with the Regulations of the Food and Drugs Act. For over 40 years, every bottle has borne the government guarantee stamp. And Melchers are the original distillers of Geneva-type Gin in Canada.

No wonder Melchers Gold Cross Geneva Gin and London Club London Dry Gin are accepted brands, preferred everywhere! These two brands are all GIN—nothing else. There is no adulteration—no substitution of cheaper materials.

These are all-Canadian products—made of the finest Canadian grains and materials, by Canadian masters of the distilling art. The next time you buy GIN, specify Melchers Gold Cross Geneva Gin or London Club London Dry Gin. There's a difference you'll like. They're genuine GINS!

Extract from the Regulations under the Food and Drugs Act as administered by the Department of Pensions and National Health, Ottawa, concerning the manufacture and labelling of Gin, Compound Gin, Imitation Gin, etc.

Political History Of E.T. Shows Lengthy Liberal Rule

A Liberal stronghold for the past thirty years, the Eastern Townships' political course continued unchanged in the national elections yesterday when Government candidates were returned in the eight ridings of the district. Since 1911 the Liberal party has been in power in the district and National Government and Independents received short shifts at the hands of the electors yesterday.

More QUANTITY! IT'S LARGER-LONGER-WIDER!

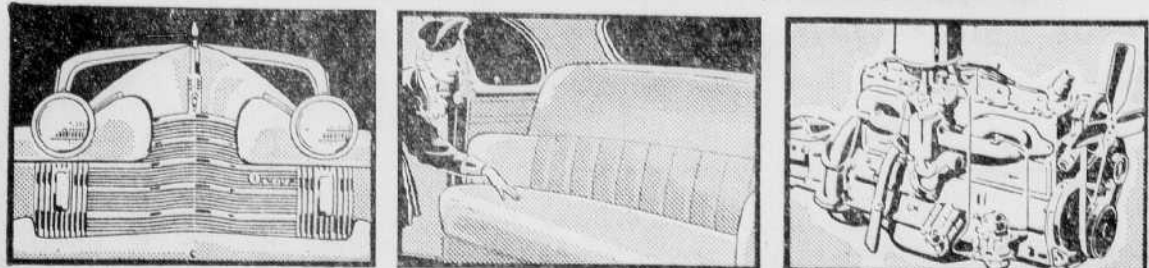

More Room Inside! Plenty of head room, elbow room and shoulder room in Oldsmobile! Plenty of room to stretch your legs! Both front and rear seats are exceptionally wide in all models.

Longer from Bumper to Bumper! Even the lowest priced Olds is a big, luxurious car, measuring 197 1/2" over all. They're all longer than last year—giving more room and new, sweeping lines.

Bodies are Wider! No wonder these cars are so roomy. Look at the width of the bodies! They're safer, as well, with more vision through windows and windshield and Safety Glass all around.

More QUALITY! IT'S SMARTER-RICHER-SMOOTHER!

Better Looking! Oldsmobile's front end is smart, distinctive, different from the rest. Radiator grilles are die-cast for greater strength and longer life. Headlamps are new Sealed Beam safety type.

Greater Luxury! Seat cushion springs are individually wrapped and tied. Foam Rubber cushions are standard on the Custom Cruiser, optional on Sixty and Seventy. Upholstery is more luxurious.

More Performance! Olds Sixty's smooth engine develops 95 h.p.—delivers sensational performance in traffic or on the open road—yet uses less gasoline and oil. Come, drive a bigger and better Olds!

OLDSMOBILE BIGGER AND BETTER IN EVERYTHING!

APPS AND SCHRINER STAR IN LEAF'S WIN

Toronto Pulls Through By 2-1 Over Red Wings

Leafs and Wings Return to Detroit for Second Game Thursday in Best-of-Three Stanley Cup Semi-Final Series—Brilliant Dashes by Apps and Schriener Provide Payoff Points—Connie Brown Scores Lone Detroit Tally.

MEDWICK COMES TO TERMS

Miami Beach, Fla., March 27.—(AP)—St. Louis Cardinals, the dopest nominee for the National League flag, scored a crucial off-the-diamond victory in signing baseball's No. 1 hold-out.

Outfielder Joe Medwick, who thought his slugging talents worth at least $20,000 this year—a return to his 1938 salary, changed his mind last night and accepted the Cardinals' "deadline" offer of $18,000, same as he earned last season.

BUCKY HARRIS HAS FAST NINE AT WASHINGTON

Senators Will Rely Largely on Speed of Base-Runners for Victories in American Baseball League Campaign.

Orlando, Fla., March 27.—(AP)—Some consider the Washington Senators the most improved ball club in the American League, and Manager Bucky Harris thinks the 1940 model perhaps is the best in ten years.

Not that Bucky is harboring any illusions about a pennant or even has a first division glint in his eyes. He is too much of a realist for that. But he might be pardoned if he took pride in what he has accomplished with limited results.

After playing the Senators the other day, Oscar Vitt of the Cleveland Indians summed the club up well when he said: "They can be beat, but you've got to keep them off the bases."

Harris has one of the fastest clubs in baseball. It isn't a heavy-hitting outfit, and it's pitching is only nominal. But it boasts a set of boys who can run the bases like state horses. George Case, Buddy Lewis, Jim Pofahl, Gerald Walker and some of the others will win a lot of games with their legs in the coming season.

Tampa, Fla.—The Giants were jubilant today as they faced Cincinnati Reds—for they had done what they probably won't do again until next spring rolls around—wallpapered the Yankees. In a Winter Haven game yesterday they outlasted the Champs by 14-13.

Tampa, Fla.—It is understood that Cincinnati Reds officials, who remain mum, have sent "feelers" to the Pirates in hopes of obtaining Paul Waner, and also that the Reds would part with a sizeable sum for the Yankees' Jake Powell.

Fort Myers, Fla.—Cleveland Indians bid good-bye to their training camp site here today in a game with Syracuse of the International League. The game will mark the first appearance of Mel Harder, providing a test for the problem arm that handicapped the Tribe in '39.

QUEBEC'S ACES TAKE LEAD IN JUNIOR FINAL

Verdun Leafs, Defending Provincial Junior Crown, Bow 4-2 in Opener and Carry Two-Goal Deficit into Second Clash.

Toronto, March 27.—(AP)—All Toronto Maple Leafs' attacking power will be needed to carry them past the pesky Detroit Red Wings into the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup final.

The Maple Leafs pounded against the Red Wings defenses all last evening and managed to squeeze through with a 2-1 victory in the opener of the best-of-three semi-finals because of two brilliant dashes by Sylvanus Apps and Dave (Sweeney) Schriener. They were almost always on the attack but Detroit's quick thrusts from the defensive shell nearly threw the result into reverse.

"We just about did it tonight, on the ice where we hadn't won a game in two years," Manager Jack Adams of the Wings enthused. "We'll swing the second game at Detroit Thursday by the same kind of fighting tactics. The kids on our club were magnificent."

One of Adams' kids, Connie Brown, scored the Detroit goal midway through the third period. Moments later young Byron (Butch) McDonald, who had started the scoring play for Brown, hit a goal-post with a shot that would have tied the game.

The aggressiveness of Captain Eddie Goodfellow's play on the defense contributed to his team's undoing. He was serving a two-minute penalty—a part of the total of five minutes he served when Apps opened the scoring after 11:18 of the third. Before Goodfellow returned Gordon Drillon and Nick Metz had missed goals by inches.

Apps, not bothering about the fact he had been beaten yesterday as National Government candidate in the Dominion election in Brazil, played one of his best games of the year. To score, he took Metz' pass near the Detroit goal-mouth and batted it home.

Schriener's goal, scored with only 56 seconds of the third period gone, was even prettier. He sped around the defense from right wing and lifted the puck over Thompson's shoulder as the goalie fell.

All Raiders But Phil Piche In Top Shape For Encounter With Joliette

Last obstacle in Sherbrooke's march to the final for the Provincial senior amateur hockey championship, the Cyclones of Joliette, intermediate titleholders, come to grips with the Red Raiders on the Arena ice tonight in the opening game of a home-and-home, total-goal series, with the winning team slated to hook up with Montreal Royals, Eastern Canada champions, for the right to represent Quebec in Allan Cup warfare.

Raiders came out of the four-game Lachine series for the most part in good shape, and all the players with the exception of wily Phil Piche, utility defenceman and forward, are ready to give their best against the highly-rated Cyclones. Piche was hurt early in the Lachine series, suffering torn ligaments in his right shoulder, and in Montreal Sunday saw little service. He is receiving hospital treatment and will be on the line-up tonight, although it is expected he will be used sparingly.

Arrangements call for a two-game, total-goal series, although if Raiders hand Joliette a beating by a seven-goal margin the second encounter, scheduled to be played Friday night at the Verdun Auditorium, will be cancelled, giving Clint Benedict's last several days of needed rest before they tangle with the power-packed Royals at the Forum Sunday afternoon.

Cyclones have piled up an impressive record in intermediate play, and gave notice of fighting spirit and scoring punch when they routed Quebec Aces 9-1 after bowing 6-4 in the opener of a total-goal series for the Provincial intermediate crown. Local fans will be seeing the Joliette outfit, coached by Omer deBonneville, for the first time. Raiders may be assured of a tough battle, and will not take their opponents too lightly. Two years ago the Sherbrooke Raiders had a stiff time disposing of St. Jerome when they met in a similar series, memories of which still linger.

The game will get underway at eight-thirty o'clock, and will be handled by officials who will not be named by the Q.A.H.A. until an hour before game time. Under new rules each team will be allowed to carry its full complement of players.

Probably starting line-ups:
Sherbrooke: Joliette

Bastarache.....defence.....Hebert
Tourville.....defence.....Gagnon
Harris.....centre.....Taylor
Forsy.....wing.....Gauthier
Peterson.....wing.....Bernard
Sherbrooke subs.—Maher, Roy, Ryan, Piche, Cormier, O'Donnell, Burke.

Joliette subs.—Kelly, Marks, Bellemare, McCormack, Shields, Levesque, Marin.

The Cards are quoted 2-1 in the National, followed by the Reds 5-2, Cubs 6-1, Dodgers 6-1, Giants 8-1, Pirates 10-1, Bees 50-1, Phillies 200-1.

Quebec Province Elects Solid Bloc In Support Of Liberal Government

Cabinet Minister, was returned in Richelieu—Vercheres, and Postmaster-General Power won in Quebec South. One of the National Government defeats was that of Georges Heon, Quebec Conservative organizer, who lost to James W. McGibbon, Liberal, in Argenteuil.

Two of the three Independent Liberals elected sat in the last Parliament. Liguori Lacombe won in Laval—Two Mountains and Lucien Dubois, in Nicolet-Yamaska. The new-comer was Lionel Bertrand in Terrebonne.

Voting was deferred in Three Rivers owing to the death Monday night of the Liberal candidate, Willie Poisson. No date for nominations and voting has been set yet.

In the last House Liberals held fifty-five of the Quebec seats, Independent Liberals, five, and Conservatives, five.

RAND SNIPERS CAPTURE RIFLE LEAGUE TITLE

Post-Season Shoot Sees Rand, "A" Section Champs, Best Brakeshoe, "B" Section Winners, 980-974—Ashton Tobin Had Best Season Record.

Championship of the Sherbrooke Industrial Miniature Rifle League was captured by the Canadian Ingersoll Rand Company team, winners of "A" section, when they scored a 980-974 victory over Brakeshoe, "B" section monarchs, in a post-season playoff shoot.

In the final shoot each member of the two teams shot two targets, with "possibles" being recorded by D. Hunt and W. J. McIntyre, of the Rand, and E. Patton and A. Brodeur, of the Brakeshoe. Since during the regular season both teams turned in fine scores there was a great deal of interest in the final match. McIntyre and W. Bell led the Randmen with scores of 199 and 198 respectively, while Patton and Brodeur of Brakeshoe had the same counts.

Highest individual score throughout the season was made by Ashton Tobin, of the Brakeshoe, who, while piling up a total of 1,191 out of a possible 1,200 for an average of 99.25 per shot. El. Patton, of Brakeshoe, had the highest individual score in "B" section, with Butler leading the "C" section snipers.

SHERBROOKE ARENA SKATING

Harry Bowles, White Sox pitcher, not only hitch-hiked his way into baseball but landed right in the dough. Harry heard athletes were needed for a semi-pro loop in Oklahoma City. So he thumbed rides from his home at Granite City, Ill., and landed a job kneading dough and elbowing for a bakery firm.

Siener Galento has it all figured out. He says, "One of these nights a bum is going to knock out Joe Louis. Paychek is a bum but Louis is a bigger bum. But I don't think Paychek will win." Now you figure it out.

Don't be too impressed by those phony homers Dodgers and their opponents are busting at Clearwater. Eight games there saw 43 round-trippers—22 by the Brooks. Short fences and those Gulf Stream breezes are the answer.

Gus Giesbrecht turned the "hat trick" in the Indianapolis game, with a goal in the second period and two more in the third. Just for good measure, he threw in an assist in the third as well.

When the list of this season's comeback teams is made up, there ought to be a prominent spot reserved for Indianapolis Capitals in the International-American circuit.

The Caps came through with a smashing 8-2 victory over Providence Reds last night to tie up their playoff series at two games each. Indianapolis dropped the first two games of the series chiefly through the great goal-tending of Mike Karakas, but Karakas held no hoodoo over them last night.

Meanwhile, Hershey Bears were dominating the Pittsburgh Hornets in their three-game semi-final at Pittsburgh, with Wally Kilrea in the hero's role. Kilrea scored two of the Hershey goals and assisted in the other.

Boston And New York Again Even As Rangers Win By 1-0

Third-Period Goal by Muzz Patrick and Brilliant Goaling by Davie Gerr Give Broadway Blueshirts Tight Triumph—Records Lead to Choice of Bruins to Cop Series in Seven Games, Home-Ice Angle Figuring Heavily in Their Favor.

New York, March 27.—(AP)—Consult the records and the only conclusion available is that Boston Bruins will win their Stanley Cup semi-final against New York Rangers in seven games—the limit.

The records show that Rangers' 1-0 victory last night, tying the series at two games apiece, was to be expected, for hadn't they gone ten games on home ice without defeat by the League Champions and Cup defenders? And, by the same token, the Bruins should win the fifth game in Boston Thursday night, for the Rangers haven't won a game there in nine starts over two seasons.

That home-ice advantage seems to be the only thing sure about this latest struggle between the clubs. Players hardly counted in the pre-series debating, such as Murray Patrick, of the Rangers, and Eddie Wiseman, of the Bruins, have been breaking up the games. Murray, son of Boss Lester, did it last night, punching home a 33-foot shot at 10:54 of the third period as Goalie Frank Brimsek's vision was blinded by the players bunched in front of his cage.

The sixth game of the series, to qualify one of the clubs for the final against either Detroit or Toronto, will be played here Saturday night and a seventh, if necessary, in Boston Sunday night. Thus the Bruins have a 4-3 edge in playing before the home folks and that's just about the margin conceded them to win the series.

Patrick's goal, set up after Phil Watson and Dunc Hiller scrambled around the Bruin defence zone to get the puck back to the Ranger defencemen, broke up the toughest and closest game of the series, gave Davie Kerr his tenth shutout of the season and his third in a row over the Bruins on home ice, counting the last game of the regular National Hockey League schedule.
