

YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS.

Our returns from the various constituencies are far from complete, but the general result seems to be that the Government have been sustained, with a somewhat reduced majority. While we regret that such is the case, we confess that we had no very strong hopes of a different result. All the advantages were on the side of the Ministry of the day. They arranged the constituencies to suit themselves, and dissolved Parliament prematurely in order to give their opponents no time for preparation. Many friends of the Liberal party were also of opinion that it would not be in the interest of that party to obtain power at a time when possibly, the country is on the eve of an era of commercial depression. It is difficult from the returns at hand to estimate the relative strength of the two parties in the next Parliament. In Quebec the Liberals have held their ground. They have lost Rimouski, Kamouraska, Quebec Centre, and possibly Shefford, but they have gained Brome, Napierville, St. Hyacinthe, Joliette, and probably Portneuf and Jacques Cartier. The Maritime Provinces will be about equally divided. Though our friends in Ontario have made some substantial gains, they have not fulfilled what the Liberals of the other Provinces were led to expect of them. Late returns, however, indicate that in the country districts of Ontario the Reformers have redeemed a considerable number of seats, so that it is possible that the Province as a whole may have elected a majority to support Mr. Blake. At all events it is evident that Sir John Macdonald's majority of 30 or 40 in the new Parliament will be drawn chiefly from this Province. The news of the defeat of such able Liberals as Sir Albert J. Smith, Hon. Timothy W. Anglin, and Sir Richard Cartwright will be received with profound regret. If it should turn out that Hon. Mr. Huntington and Hon. D. A. Macdonald have also been defeated, the Liberals of Glangary and Shefford will have cause to mourn the inactivity or over-confidence which led to the exclusion from Parliament of two such able and trusted men.

THE ELECTIONS IN THE CITY.

The Conservatives carried the two city divisions yesterday, the Centre by an increased and the West by a reduced majority. The total number of votes polled was exceedingly small and the Liberals were wholly without organization, while their opponents were active and had plenty of funds at their command. Mr. Gault is said to have spent $20,000 in yesterday's contest, but no doubt he considers it money well invested. Ample evidence of corrupt practices by Government agents will be forthcoming if the elections are contested. If the Liberals have been defeated, they have the satisfaction of knowing that they gave the taxpayers of the two divisions an opportunity of voting for honest, honorable and capable men. Considering the disadvantages he had to overcome, Mr. J. K. Ward pulled a very respectable vote. His canvass was conducted in an honorable and straightforward manner, and since his nomination he has made hosts of friends. It is, we believe, far more creditable to support a gentleman like Mr. Ward, and suffer defeat, than to succeed with such a candidate as Mr. M. H. Gault. In the Centre Division the election may be said to have been allowed to go by default. If the citizens of the commercial metropolis of Canada are satisfied with Messrs. Curran and Gault as their Parliamentary representatives it is their business, but we confess that we cannot admire their judgment.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, June 20.—At the bar of the House of Commons the Lord Mayor of Dublin appeared in his official robes and read a petition from the Corporation of Dublin against the Repression Bill. Sir Charles Dicks stated that a conference of the Great Powers will meet in Constantinople on Thursday with the consent of Turkey. Mr. Gladstone moved that precedence be given to the Arrears of Rent Bill whenever set down over other business, the Repression Bill, and that there be morning sittings on Friday. He wished to put the Arrears Bill into Committee pro forma, so as to introduce amendments, including one authorizing the appointment of special agents to examine cases, and thus prevent the crowding of the Land Courts. He promised to provide for the continuance of the Irish Sunday Closing Bill. He suggested that various bills by private members relative to agricultural tenants should be read a second time and referred to committee. He stated that the Government intended to persevere with the Corrupt Practices Bill. They were more than ever convinced that procedure rules in some sense transcended every other subject. They therefore still deemed it their duty to avail themselves of every legitimate opportunity to settle the question. Mr. Gladstone said the Government would deem it their duty not to remit the settlement of the question of procedure to another session in the coming year. Sir Stafford Northcote deprecated the idea of an autumn session. Mr. Gladstone's motion was adopted by 253 to 97.

DOMINION DESPATCHES.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 20.—The Collegiate School building, attached to the Anglican Church in this city, was burned on Wednesday morning at five o'clock, with all the school furniture, organs, books, maps, etc. The origin of the fire was incendiary. The building was erected in 1859. The loss will be $4,000. Two fresh arrivals from Hong Kong brought 1,200 Chinese. The Fraser River is falling, the damage cannot be estimated at present. The country resembles an open field.

FROM THE OLD WORLD.

CIVIL WAR IN ZULULAND. DURBAN, June 20.—Civil war has commenced in Zululand. A large army under Dabuko, brother of Cetewayo, has defeated Chiefs Usibehes and Ohani. It is expected that Dabuko will attack John Dunn.

ANOTHER SCARE IN IRELAND. LIMERIC, June 20.—All the boats from Clare are being searched to-day, in consequence of a report that an American vessel has landed a quantity of arms.

A NEW MINISTRY. ALEXANDRIA, June 20.—Ragheb Pasha, Ahmed Rashed Pasha and Arabi Pasha have arrived and visited the Khedive. Dervish Pasha announced the formation of a Ministry. It is estimated that only three hundred British subjects remain in Alexandria.

THE "TIMES" ON IRELAND. LONDON, June 20.—The "Times" says that Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and his subordinates, after a careful investigation, are convinced that crime in Ireland is not spasmodic, but its machinery is deliberately set in motion through organized agencies commanding large resources and obeying impulses of foreign origin.

DISSENTIONS IN THE CABINET. LONDON, June 20.—It is rumored that the Cabinet is divided over Egyptian affairs. It is stated Sir William Harcourt, Sir Charles Dilke and Mr. Chamberlain urge active intervention in Egypt by the landing of a British force taking possession of the Suez Canal. It is said if the Cabinet decide to land troops in Egypt Mr. Bright and others will resign.

A consular surgeon at Alexandria telegraphs that thousands of poor Christian families are fleeing from Egypt, leaving all their possessions and will be destitute. He asks the Lord Mayor to organize a fund for their relief.

ALEXANDRIA, June 21.—The new ministry is composed of Ragheb Pasha, President of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Arabi Pasha, Minister of War; Ali Pasha Abraham, Minister of Justice; Falaki Pasha, Minister of Public Works; Sulerman Pasha, Minister of Public Instruction; and Ahmed Rashed-Pasha, Minister of the Interior. The ministers are prominent leaders of the National Party, and are devoted adherents of Arabi. The British Consul has ordered all engineers and other English employed connected with water works to quit their posts immediately. It is understood that despatches have been sent to Admiral Seymour instructing him to avoid all hesitation in landing sailors and marines at Alexandria, in the event of necessity.

The Minister's programme is general amnesty, except to participants in riots and relations with foreign powers to be carried on between them by the Minister of Foreign Affairs only.

CABLE NOTES. Farmer Levy has been shot dead near Birr, Ireland. The Divorce Bill has passed the French Chamber of Deputies by 336 to 160. The fate of the bill in the Senate is doubtful. It is stated that the guardship "Valorous" was recently ordered to Devonport for contraband in connection with certain disciplinary offences, but, in consequence of private information as to the danger of leaving the Irish coast inefficiently watched, the order has been countermanded.

The Earl of Shrewsbury has been married to the divorced Mrs. Mundy. The ceremony was performed by special license on Sunday. The Berlin public prosecutor has appealed against the verdict of acquittal in the case of Prof. Mommsen, charged with insulting Bismarck.

A Russian Imperial ordinance fixes the number of recruits for the army and navy for 1882 at 212,000. A sharply worded letter from Bismarck regarding taxation reform was the cause of the Minister's of Finance withdrawal from the Ministry.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

THE SAD FATE OF ARCTIC EXPLORERS. NEW YORK, June 20.—The Herald correspondent telegraphs from the Lena Delta on April 12th: Mr. Melville found the bodies of DeLong's party in two places 50 and 1,000 yards from the wreck of the scow. Melville's party stopped at the place Ninderman and Doros passed the first day after leaving DeLong, feeling sure the others had not got much further. There they found the wreck, and following along the bank came upon a rifle barrel hung up on four sticks. Two bodies were found here under eight feet of snow. Melville went along the bank and saw a camp kettle and the remains of fire about 1,000 yards from the tent, and approaching nearly scumbled on De Long's hand, sticking out of the snow. Here, under about a foot of snow, they found the bodies of De Long, Ambler and Ah Sam, all partially covered by pieces of tent and blanket. All the others except Alexia, they found at the place where the tent was pitched. Two boxes of records, the medicine chest, and a flag on a staff were beside the tent. None of the dead had boots. Their feet were covered with rags tied on. In the pockets of all were pieces of burnt skin and clothing which they had been eating. The hands of all were burned and looked as if when dying they crawled into the fire. Boyd was lying over the fire, his clothing being burned to the skin. Collin's face was covered with a cloth. All the bodies were carried to a hill three hundred feet high, forty versts to southwest from where they were found and interred in a mausoleum constructed of wood from the scow surmounted by a cross. The mausoleum was covered with stenes and will be soiled in the spring. The cross is inscribed with the record and names of the dead. Mr. Melville and party then separated to search the delta for traces of Chippis' people. Ninderman and Aartlet found nothing. Mr. Melville has not yet returned. The search will be extended.

LABOUR TROUBLES. NEW YORK, June 20.—A strike of 3,000 freight handlers is embarrassing on all ways. The delays in the transportation of freight is beginning to be felt. The freight prices are full of merchandise awaiting removal.

ROCHESTER, June 20.—Recently 200 of the principal employers of Rochester issued a manifesto, in which they agreed to close all the shops rather than accede to dictation by workmen. The Knights of Labor yesterday issued a long reply, denouncing the Legislature for having adopted the provision of the new code regarding public meetings, and asserting that the working classes, instead of exacting too much wages, are receiving less than their just share of the wealth they create.

PITTSBURG, June 20.—The Canal Diver Iron Company has signed the scale. Ohio Falls Iron Company, New Albany, Ind., signed and also agreed to pay 10 per cent. more than Pittsburg for the finishing mill.

THE ELECTIONS.

THE RESULTS IN MONTREAL WEST AND CENTRE—CORRUPTION WINS THE DAY. The elections in Montreal West and Centre were the absorbing topics in the city yesterday. From early morning electors might be seen hurrying towards the polling stations to record their votes, while the Conservative wire-pullers seemed to be busily engaged in hunting up parties and bringing them to the polls to vote in favour of the Conservative candidates. The day passed off in a very quiet manner, and nothing, with the exception of a few incidents, occurred worthy of notice. The Conservative headquarters were thronged throughout the day, and every possible means were taken to hunt up electors and bring them to the polls. Some of the means employed to do this if report is correct were not by any means honourable; and as it is said that abundant proof can be had of this, it is not altogether unlikely that one of the elections at any rate will be contested. However, the excitement reached fever heat towards the close of the polls, and large crowds gathered in front of the various newspaper offices up to a late hour to hear the latest particulars. The following were the complete returns for

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for East Ward, Centre Ward, West Ward, and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for St. Anne's Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Lawrence Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for East Ward, Centre Ward, West Ward, and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for St. Anne's Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Lawrence Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Durham, West—Blake, defeating Bunting. Elgin, West—Casey, defeating Clark. Huron, South—McMillan, defeating Shannon. Kingston—Gunn, defeating Sullivan, majority 92. Lambton, East—Fairbank, defeating Mackenzie. Middlesex, South—Armstrong, defeating Rayner. Middlesex, West—Ross, defeating Currie. Prince Edward—Platt, defeating McCuaig. Simcoe East—Cook, defeating Quinn. Waterloo, South—Larvington, defeating Merner. York East—Mackenzie, defeating Bouldbee. Haldimand—Thompson, defeating Merritt. North Wellington—McMullar, defeating Plumb. Elgin East—Wilson, defeating Arkell. South Grey—Landerkin, defeating Jackson. North Oxford—Sutherland, defeating Towle and Pattullo. South Oxford—Harley, defeating Skinner. North York—Mulock, defeating Anderson. Halton—McCraney defeating McKindsey. West Huron—Cameron defeating Porter. North Ontario—Cockburn defeating Gibbs. South Renfrew—Campbell defeating Bannerman. Prescott—Labrosse (Ind.) defeating Routhier. Bothwell—Mills defeating Hawkins. North Northfolk—Charlton defeating Sinclair. North Wentworth—Springer defeating Waddell. North West—Bain defeating McKecknie. North Bruce—Gillies defeating McNeill. South Norfolk—Jackson defeating Wallace.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for East Ward, Centre Ward, West Ward, and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for St. Anne's Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Lawrence Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Compton—Hon. J. H. Pope defeating Cairns. Montserrat—Blondeau defeating Bouchard. L'Assomption—Pinsonneault defeating Robitoux. L'Assomption—Hurteau defeating Gauthier. Levis—Blanchet defeating Frechette. Missisquoi—Baker defeating Clays, majority 150. Maskinonge—Houde defeating Caron. Montmagny—Dugas defeating Magnaw. Montmorency—Valin defeating Langelier. Montreal Centre—Curran defeating Farrell. Montreal West—Gault defeating Ward. Montreal East—Coursol defeating Gault. Quebec West—McCreedy defeating Humphreys. Quebec Centre—Bosse defeating Malouin. Quebec County—Caron, defeating Bedard. Richefleur—Massue, defeating Earthe. Rimouski—Bily, defeating Fiset. Rouville—Gignault, defeating Loran. St. Maurice—Desautels, defeating Lamy. Shefford—Auger reported elected, defeating Hon. L. S. Huntington. Soulanges—Lanthier, defeating Desbejaran. Stanstead—Colby, defeating Rider. Terrebonne—Nantel defeating Poirier. Three Rivers—Sir H. Langevin elected. Yamaska—Vanasse defeating Gladu. Portneuf—De St. Georges defeating Vallee.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for East Ward, Centre Ward, West Ward, and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for St. Anne's Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Lawrence Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

The suite of rooms in the Richelieu Hotel which will be occupied by General and Madame Charette during their stay in Montreal, have been gorgeously decorated with pictures and ornaments, the subjects of the pictures being mostly scenes from battles in which the famous General took part, one of them representing the Battle of Pataxy, where the General with 500 men protected the retreat of the French army from 12,000 Prussians and had two horses killed under him.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Mr. Ward would yet carry the banner of Liberalism into victory. He had assured them that if they wished they would have another election in four or five months, as they had abundant proof that the means employed on the other side to gain victory had been such as would not come up to the test of law. It was for Mr. Ward's friends to say whether they would contest the election or not, at any rate, though beaten, they were not disgraced. (Cheers.) Three rousing cheers were here given for Mr. Ward and Mr. McLaren. Mr. Ward coming forward thanked the electors for the support they had given him, and said that though beaten this time they would yet have success. Mr. T. J. Coghlin considered that an effort should at once be made to organize and contest the election. He referred in indignant terms to the competition that had been used by the Conservatives during the campaign, remarking that it had been said that $50,000 had been used in the city during the past few days. Mr. A. Cauchon made a few remarks in French, after which the electors dispersed with loud cheers for the Hon. Edward Blake and the Liberal Party.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for East Ward, Centre Ward, West Ward, and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Farrell, Curran. Rows for St. Anne's Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Lawrence Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

Table with 3 columns: Poll No., Ward, Gault. Rows for St. Antoine Ward and Total.

THE GENERAL'S MOVEMENTS.

To-day he will visit the Rev. Mr. Moreau, at St. Barthelem, returning to the city in the evening. On Thursday he will visit St. Hyacinthe to assist at the annual Convention of Zouaves and the celebration of the St. Jean Baptiste Festival, returning to Montreal the same evening. On Friday he will visit the various Roman Catholic institutions of the city, and will continue these visits on Saturday. On Saturday evening he will be tendered a grand banquet at the Richelieu Hotel, by the ex-Zouaves. On Sunday afternoon he and Madame Charette will hold a levee at the Richelieu Hotel from 5 to 6, and on Monday they will leave for Quebec.

IMPORTANT.

When you visit or leave New York City save Baggage Express and Carriage Hire and stop at Grand Union Hotel opposite Grand Central Depot. 450 elegant rooms, fitted up at $1 and upwards per day. European Plan. Elevators. Restaurant supplied with the best. Horse cars, stages and elevated railroads to all depots. Families can live better for less money at the Grand Union Hotel than at any other first-class hotel in the city.

PREJUDICE KILLS.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we have pooled at for two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer, as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—Telegram.

There's style and "go" in clothing made by Robinson. If PRACTICE makes perfect, then L. Robinson's suits should be absolute perfection, seeing that he makes such a large number.

CITY COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the City Council was held yesterday afternoon, at which a large amount of routine business was transacted, which owing to the fire in our office last evening, we are unable to give in detail.

A man named James Cleary was arrested yesterday morning on a charge of stealing some clothing, the property of Mr. John W. Webster, of St. Andrew's, from whom they are said to have been stolen some time ago.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Louis Laberge, a wharf labourer, while loading railway iron on the wharf on Saturday afternoon, received a compound fracture of one of his legs, by a quantity of iron falling upon it. His injury was attended to at the General Hospital.

RUN AWAY.—A carriage belonging to Mrs. Berkely Shaw ran away on Victoria square, yesterday morning, and after running a short distance struck a cab in which the Hon. Justice Monk was seated overturning and wrecking it, but fortunately not injuring the Hon. Justice.

The closing exercises of Mrs. Miller and Miss Pott's private school took place at No. 68 Drummond street. The annual report showed that the progress of the past year had been most thoroughly done by both teachers and pupils. Rev. Dr. Sullivan presented the prizes.

SCALDING ACCIDENT.—Two men named respectively Joseph Marchand and Xavier Prouveau, while employed in Clendenning's foundry yesterday, had their feet badly scalded by some molten lead, with which they were working. They were removed to the General Hospital, where their injuries were attended to.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—Coroner Jones held an inquest yesterday afternoon at No. 211 Grand Tr

