BRITISH CONTINUE POUNDING OF GERMAN AREAS

Main Industrial Centres Objects Of Intense Raids

Frequently-Bombed Hamburg Given Another Mauling as British Air Force, Strengthened by Promise of United States Aid, Stages Greatest Assault of War—Docks and Oil Facilities Also Bombed.

London, March 14.—(P)—The Royal Air Force mauled frequently-bombed Hamburg overnight in the greatest assault yet, set oil facilities at Rotterdam ablaze, delivered minor attacks against Bremen and Emden and torpedoed and sank a Nazi supply ship off the Frisian Islands, the Air Ministry announced today.

This second straight night of trip-hammer blows indicated the Northwestern corner of Germany, where German naval bases, shipyards, docks and marine and other industries are concentrated, has become the principal target of the R.A.F. in the all-out offensive which followed upon the enactment by the United States of the British Aid Bill.

Striking in the clear light of a full moon, British bombers pounded the shipbuilding yard, docks and warehouses at Hamburg, adding new fires to those set off the night before. Other targets near the mouth of the Elbe river, between Hamburg and the North Sea coast, were "left burning fiercely," the Air Ministry communique said.

Bombers of the same command blasted Rotterdam, in The Netherlands, where more huge fires were reported started.

Bremen, where sprawling shipyards turn out many of Germany's ships, again was attacked, but on a smaller scale than Wednesday night's fierce assault. Emden, a major Nazi naval base, also came in for heavy attack.

Completing the nocturnal raids on continental objectives, single British aircraft splashed bombs on two airbases in The Netherlands.

Sinking of a German supply ship was credited to planes of the Coastal Command. They also were reported to have scored a direct hit on another supply ship and to have machine-gunned other Nazi vessels yesterday off the Norwegian coast.

Six planes were lost.

LIVERPOOL, GLASGOW CHIEF RAID VICTIMS

London, March 14.—(P)—Large forces of German bombers blasted at the great Glasgow shipbuilding plant, the port of Liverpool and an unidentified Northeast town last night, as the Royal Air Force continued a stepped-up offensive by striking again at Hamburg.

It was the first time the Germans had attacked the big shipyards along the Clyde River on a large scale since the start of the war, but the raid on Liverpool was the second in as many nights.

(The Germans acknowledged the raid on both sides was seen in the aircraft casualty figures. In yesterday's raids the Royal Air Force lost five aircraft while the Germans, raiding the West Country, concentrating on Liverpool, but putting on side shows over London and other areas, lost nine.

The increasing ferocity of the raids on both sides was seen in the aircraft casualty figures. In yesterday's raids the Royal Air Force lost five aircraft while the Germans, raiding the West Country, concentrating on Liverpool, but putting on side shows over London and other areas, lost nine.

Today reports told of renewed German air raids on Clydeside districts around Glasgow and a second raid on Liverpool, both of which inflicted considerable casualties, but resulted in the loss of eleven enemy planes.

London air raid listeners last night reported they had heard a new noise, more like the bellow of heavy artillery than the bark of anti-aircraft guns. Some persons, noting a

JAPAN DISPLAYING NO CONCERN OVER INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

New York, March 14.—(P)—Japan is as serene as a "peaceful forest," Schufeldt, U.S. Government spokesman, was quoted today in a Domei (Japanese News Agency) broadcast.

"We have been engaged in a civil affair for nearly four years, it is true," he was quoted as saying, "and moreover we are by no means indifferent to the world conflagration. But we are not excited, nor are we making any fuss about the situation."

CURBS USE OF UNIFORMS

Santiago, March 14.—(P)—The Foreign Ministry has ordered Chilean diplomats to wear "democratic civilian dress" and to avoid wearing uniforms except before foreign governments "where it is absolutely required."

ITALIANS SUFFER HEAVILY IN EFFORTS TO COUNTER-ATTACK

Royal Air Force Headquarters Announce that Fourteen Italian Fighters Were Shot Down and a Number Badly Damaged Over Tepeleni Section of Albania—Mussolini-Directed Counter-Attacks Fail.

Athens, Greece, March 14.—(P)—Royal Air Force headquarters announced today 14 Italian fighter planes were shot down and a number badly damaged yesterday in a battle over the Tepeleni section of Albania, without the loss of a single British plane.

Greek dispatches declared five Italian divisions had been shattered in Italian offensives launched in the last seven days in response to Mussolini's reported adjuration to his officers to "do something."

A furious Italian assault over a wide front in the Central sector of Tepeleni was completely beaten back, the Greeks said, and great losses were suffered.

Greek dispatches from the front said Mussolini would return to Rome from his visit to the front empty-handed and "covered with shame" after failure of the offensive he had personally ordered.

Mussolini was said in these dispatches to have been in Tirana, Albanian capital, since yesterday and was expected to leave for Rome tomorrow, the date he had set to announce a "big success" in Albania.

These reports said it was not known whether he would be accompanied by Marshal Pietro Badoglio, former Chief of Staff, who was said in unconfirmed dispatches to have been sent to Albania recently to report personally on the situation to King Victor Emmanuel.

The R.A.F. communique on the big air battle in the Tepeleni area said large formations of Italian bombers and at least 50 fighters were encountered by heavily outnumbered British planes.

A severe attack on Valona and Saseno island at the mouth of the harbor in which buildings and the airbase were bombed Wednesday night also was announced.

THE ITALIANS HAVE A GLORIOUS STORY

Rome, March 14.—(P)—Stefani, Italian news and propaganda agency, claimed today that five British torpedo planes of the type that attacked the Italian fleet at Taranto attempted to launch their missiles at shipping in Valona Harbor, Albania, but succeeded only in damaging one merchant vessel.

Stefani asserted the five big planes were spotted by observers as they flew in at dawn yesterday over the harbor. The Stefani version was that three were forced to turn aside, after dropping their torpedoes off shore, and the other two were ringed by anti-aircraft fire.

One was hit directly and sank into the sea after its crew of three was rescued by Italian boatmen, the Italians asserted, while the second was wrecked soon afterward by Italian batteries.

SEVEN KILLED IN TRAINING PLANE CRASH

Sole Survivor of Ontario Crash, Involving Eight English Airmen, Reported in Serious Condition.

Bond Head, Ont., March 14.—(P)—The tangled wreckage of one Avro-Anson bomber and the scattered remnants of another were under close guard here today while official investigation opened into Canada's most serious air training crash which yesterday took the lives of seven English members of the Royal Air Force.

The planes, manned by men from the Air Training School at Port Albert, near Goderich, Ont., collided in mid-air above the farm of Robert Gummerson, half-a-mile from here, and crashed within a quarter of a mile of each other.

Only one of the total crews of eight survived, AC John L. Flower, of Eastleigh, England, who today lies in hospital at Barrie in serious condition. His injuries are believed to include a broken back.

Six men were killed instantly when the planes crashed: The two pilots, Flt.-Sgt. M. Dodsworth, of York, and Sgt. J. C. Bell, of Durham; and LAC M. G. Salkard, Leeds; LAC S. Porter, Liverpool; LAC D. A. Russell, Bristol; and AC C. T. Douglas, Sherwood.

The seventh, LAC I. W. Jackson, of London, died on the way to the hospital.

QUEBEC COULD DO THE SAME!

We reproduce below an editorial from the St. Thomas, Ontario, Times-Journal dealing with the farm situation which we feel will be of interest to our readers:

"The attempt now being made in Elgin County, with similar action in certain other counties, to organize the farmers into a provincial non-political organization whose avowed object is 'to raise the general economic level of agriculture,' is meeting with an unusual degree of preliminary success. This undoubtedly is due to recognition of the great need of concerted action that will enable the farmers to do their utmost towards winning the war without endangering the stability of the industry, both with respect to the unsettled times of today and the perhaps still more difficult post-war period.

"Another reason for this ready and quite general response on the part of the farmers to the appeals of the sponsoring body (in Elgin, the Agricultural Advisory Council) has been the desire to build the new organization on a truly democratic basis, with all branches of agriculture represented; the small farmer as well as the big farmer, entitled to his say and to any benefits that may accrue, and with party politics and other disrupting elements set to one side. At the first of the series of meetings now being held throughout Elgin, and at which the farmers have not been backward in seeking information and in expressing their desire for action, steps have been taken to place men in charge of a complete canvass by polling sub-divisions of all farmers. Each farmer will have the right to say whether he is for or against the proposal that he join an organization whose aim is to look after the general interests of agriculture and towards the costs of which he will contribute at the rate of not more than one cent per acre per annum for a ten-year period.

"When the canvass of the farmers' views is completed the canvassers will meet at a township gathering and present their reports and on basis of this, will name men, at the rate of one representative for each two polling sub-divisions, to sit in, with representatives similarly selected at other township gatherings, on the County body to scrutinize, sift out and pass upon the information received.

"From then on, if the decision is to go ahead, it will be a matter of getting together with other counties, framing a constitution and deciding upon plans and policies for carrying into effect the adoption of (we quote from the document circulated among the farmers for their signatures, pro and con):

"An immediate war-time programme, to enable farmers to receive the same economic security as other groups of society, so that we may be able to supply the necessary food-stuffs to Great Britain, whatever her requirements are, at the price she can pay . . . a simple, workable plan that will enable us to furnish our full contribution to Britain's needs.

"A peace-time economy, designed to build a Canadian Agricultural policy, which will give stability, equality and leadership to the farming industry, thus preparing for the post-war period so that the farm group will make its contribution not only to Canada, but to the Empire."

"The weakness of most farm organizations in the past—and many of them have been worthy and have made substantial contributions to agriculture—has been their restriction to certain branches of farming, to the fact that while their membership was open to any and all who cared to join, it was not all-embracing, or to their susceptibility to outside influences, particularly political. In the new organization, it is hoped to get practically all the farmers into one unit, and this unit working for the improvement of agricultural conditions, both general and specific, and enabling this great industry to pull its full weight in the interests of the Canadian farmer and of Canada and the Empire.

"It's the biggest thing ever attempted in agricultural co-operation in Ontario, and, if it succeeds, its effects will be far reaching. The progress of the steps leading up to completion of the organization will be watched with interest and keenest anticipation."

WAR BULLETINS

Washington — Three months ahead of schedule, a badly-needed smokeless powder plant reached completion today, the first of a $1,000,000,000 string of Government-financed munitions factories ready for production.

The new $44,000,000 ordnance plant is at Radford in southwestern Virginia. The first production line will start full-time operations the beginning of next week.

Dublin — A British plane crashed in County Louth, Northern Eire, last night. The pilot was injured.

Bucharest, Rumania — All able-bodied Rumanians, twelve years of age and above, regardless of sex, will be drafted for agricultural labor under a decree issued today by the Ministry of Agriculture.

Landowners, under the decree, will be required to plant what is prescribed.

LABOR UNIONS PRESENT PLAN ON WAR EFFORT

Trades and Labor Congress Representatives Urge Greater Respect for Labor Legislation on War Contracts.

Ottawa, March 14.—(P)—The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada charged today in a memorandum presented to the Dominion Government that the Government and some employers engaged on Government work have not observed principles "for the avoidance of labor unrest during the war" which were outlined in an Order-in-Council last July.

"Non-observance of these principles, both by the Government and a large number of employers engaged on Government work, has nullified to a very great extent the benefits which might otherwise have accrued," the memorandum said.

"This has been the cause of much unrest among the workers throughout the Dominion and resentment is common against the injustices continually imposed upon them."

Despite "many aggravations," said the memorandum, workers had exercised "restraint" and strikes in war industries had been practically non-existent. But the memorandum described the situation as "an unhealthy one."

The memorandum included these suggestions:

Amendment of an Order-in-Council extending provisions of the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act.

Record Surplus Reported In Administration Of Ontario

Surplus for Current Fiscal Year Placed at $12,600,364 by Premier Hepburn in Statement to Legislature—Compares with Estimates of $356,364—Large Increase in Corporation Tax Aided Statement.

Toronto, March 14.—(P)—A surplus of $12,600,364 for the current fiscal year ending March 31—record high in the seven years the present Government has been in office—was announced today by Premier Hepburn, who pledged his Government anew to "live within our income" as an aid to the national war effort.

The record surplus was more than $5,000,000 greater than in the best of the so-called "Sunshine Budgets," $7,347,729 in 1937.

Mr. Hepburn, who is also Provincial Treasurer, estimated in his budget address last year that the surplus would be $356,364.

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1942, Mr. Hepburn budgeted for a surplus of $5,743,063. His report for the current fiscal year was based on ten months actual and two months estimated.

The Premier announced there would be no new taxes and that existing tax measures would be continued.

The 1940-41 surplus was obtained mainly through receipts of $23,000,000 from the corporation tax, whereas $15,000,000 had been estimated. Increase in revenue from the Highway Department, from the Department of Lands and Forests and from the Liquor Control Board contributed to the surplus.

Mr. Hepburn estimated a decrease of $5,346,079 in the gross debt of the Province and said the funded debt had been reduced by $2,160,257 to a total of $616,584,197.

The Premier estimated gross ordinary revenue for the next fiscal year at $115,179,775, compared with $114,056,264 in the current year, and gross ordinary expenditures at $105,436,711 compared with $101,455,900.

Mr. Hepburn said that "those charged with direction of our war effort" had said the peak of the Dominion's contribution would be reached this year.

"If the country's industrial wealth and man-power were utilized to the full 'we would then be employing all our idle men, our full supply of electrical power, the vast output of our natural resources and our financial system would be taxed to its capacity, and probably beyond.'"

Canada must rise to the occasion to replace losses of British ships and cargoes and "give to Great Britain the tools with which to finish the job."

The Premier said an all-time production record was achieved in 1940 when minerals valued at $250,000,000 were taken from Ontario's mines. Owing to war restrictions he was unable to give detailed figures. He stressed the success obtained in lignite-coal experiments and said he hoped that in the near future this fuel would be available to industrial and domestic users in Northern Ontario.

Cabinet Is Determined Upon Early Passage Of War Appropriation Bill

Prime Minister Announces that Discussion of All Other Measures Will Be Suspended Until $1,300,000,000 War Appropriation Bill Passes House—Private Member Demands Speeding Up of Business.

By C. R. BLACKBURN.
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Ottawa, March 14.—(P)—Members of the House of Commons today start the fourteenth day of debate on the $1,300,000,000 War Appropriation resolution, after hearing Prime Minister Mackenzie King refer to "obstruction" of the measure, and an appeal from a private Liberal Member to get down to the real business of winning the war.

Yesterday the Prime Minister announced the resolution will be given priority until it and the bill to be based upon it are put through the House.

This announcement was made when E. E. Perley (Conservative, Qu'Appelle) asked that next Monday be set aside to debate agriculture, particularly the Government's new wheat policy.

Later, just before adjournment last night, John Turner (Liberal, Springfield), a member who seldom speaks in the Chamber, appealed to members to "get down to business, to realize that there is a war on, and get this House of Commons geared up to a wartime basis."

"Many questions have been asked that mean nothing to our war effort, but which have just delayed the progress of the House at a critical time," Mr. Turner said.

"In my opinion much of this has been done for purely political advertising purposes at the expense of the country."

When Mr. King told the House at the start of the afternoon sitting that consideration of the appropriation measure would not be interrupted for an agricultural debate, Opposition Minister Hanson demurred.

He said if the Government would facilitate a debate on agriculture it might have the effect of speeding up consideration of the Appropriation measure.

Mr. Hanson said: "We have facilitated the Government's war measures on every occasion. We have arrived at the position now where the Government say the Opposition have no rights in this House."

Mr. King said the War Appropriation Bill was not a matter of urgency, but key members of the Cabinet had to remain in the House constantly while it was being debated and they had urgent work to do in their offices.

"If my Honorable Friend is going to obstruct this measure which is most important then he and his friends must take the responsibility for the obstruction which they make," Mr. King said.

HOUSE MAKING PROGRESS WITH APPROPRIATION

Expected that Sub-committee Hearings on $7,000,000,000 British Aid Measure Will Be Concluded Today.

Washington, March 14.—(P)—Given "every enthusiastic endorsement" by Secretary of State Hull, War Secretary Stimson and Navy Secretary Knox, the $7,000,000,000 loan and appropriation bill advanced rapidly today through the preliminary phase of United States legislative consideration.

Chairman Clifton Woodrum (Democrat, Virginia), said his House Appropriations Sub-committee hoped to finish its hearings on the measure today.

Behind it lay the first legislation sanctioned since the start of the session, written into the Provincial statute book yesterday when Sir Eugene Fiset, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, gave Royal Assent to fourteen bills previously adopted by the Assembly and the Council.

Before the bills were made law, Mr. Mathewson told the Lower House the fiscal report he will bring down after the Assembly resumes next Tuesday is a "balanced budget on an over-all basis."

A short time earlier, the Assembly, in committee of supply adopted seven items in the $826,500 supplementary budget tabled in the House last week. Items approved totalled $484,900 and included $161,000 for the Attorney-General's department, $283,500 for the Health department and $39,700 for legislation.

New legislation sanctioned by Sir Eugene's signature gave the Government authority to undertake an extensive land drainage scheme, to Buenos Aires, March 14.—(P)—Tomas Picasso jumped out of an airplane 39 times yesterday, between 7:40 a.m. and 5:55 p.m. He said it was a new world's record for consecutive parachute leaps, surpassing the 38 jumps made by a George Walsh in the United States.

U.S. OPENS VOLUNTARY LABOR REGISTRATION DRIVE

Washington, March 14.—(P)—Moving to establish a great United States pool of talent, from which craftsmen may be chosen for jobs in defence industries, the Government today appealed for the co-operation of American labor in a voluntary registration drive opening tomorrow.

The appeal was addressed in particular to every unemployed worker available for work or training in defence jobs, and to every person with an "urgently needed skill" which is not being used in his present position.

QUEBEC PROVINCE BALANCES BUDGET ON OVERALL BASIS, SAYS TREASURER

Quebec, March 14.—(P)—The Legislative Assembly stood adjourned today, awaiting details of the Provincial budget which Provincial Treasurer Arthur Mathewson said he will present next week.

Behind it lay the first legislation sanctioned since the start of the session, written into the Provincial statute book yesterday when Sir Eugene Fiset, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, gave Royal Assent to fourteen bills previously adopted by the Assembly and the Council.

Before the bills were made law, Mr. Mathewson told the Lower House the fiscal report he will bring down after the Assembly resumes next Tuesday is a "balanced budget on an over-all basis."

A short time earlier, the Assembly, in committee of supply adopted seven items in the $826,500 supplementary budget tabled in the House last week. Items approved totalled $484,900 and included $161,000 for the Attorney-General's department, $283,500 for the Health department and $39,700 for legislation.

New legislation sanctioned by Sir Eugene's signature gave the Government authority to undertake an extensive land drainage scheme, to promote the development of peat bogs by means of premiums, to construct a toll bridge in Duboussay Township of Abitibi County, to purchase the St. Sulpice Library in Montreal and to amend the Agricultural Abuses' Act, the Music Encouragement Act and the Municipal Code respecting water courses.

During debate on the supplementary budget, Mr. Mathewson said it was "possibly the smallest in the history of Quebec." He said the economies effected by the Government "will be better than estimated in the budget by over $12,000,000" after paying members' salaries and the supplementary budget's statutory items.

PRaises Munitions DEPARTMENT

Victoria, March 14.—(P)—Col. W. C. New Craft And Improved Weather Bring Increased Air Raid Tempo

By GUY RHOADES.
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Moonlight spring nights have taken death and destruction in greater force to Germany, German-occupied territory and Britain during the last two nights.

Riding high in clear skies, but increasingly visible to anti-aircraft gun crews, one or more new types of British bombers have blasted Berlin, Hamburg and Bremen, returning last night for a second successive moonlight smash at Hamburg.

The increasing ferocity of the raids on both sides was seen in the aircraft casualty figures. In yesterday's raids the Royal Air Force lost five aircraft while the Germans, raiding the West Country, concentrating on Liverpool, but putting on side shows over London and other areas, lost nine.

Today reports told of renewed German air raids on Clydeside districts around Glasgow and a second raid on Liverpool, both of which inflicted considerable casualties, but resulted in the loss of eleven enemy planes.

London air raid listeners last night reported they had heard a new noise, more like the bellow of heavy artillery than the bark of anti-aircraft guns. Some persons, noting a reports are untruthful, incomplete or exaggerated.

Last night Germany declared that during the R. A. F. bombardment of Hamburg "more than fifty" patients and nurses in two hospitals were "dead and buried."

The figure brought immediate doubt. In the first place it was extraordinary high; in the second it is not usual to catch two hospitals at one go when one is looking in good moonlight for other objectives, which is what the R. A. F. was doing for hours, in the third place the term "dead and buried" was ambiguous.

The Germans said they downed five British planes during the raid which, if true, gives them a losing score of roughly two to one on the last two days exchanges.

It was generally expected that the tempo of R. A. F. raids, with increasing improvement, would increase to a greater pitch, in view of the urgency of obtaining American replacements of machines.

Mrs. George Ham, President of the Mission Circle, called the meeting to order and led the responsive readings.

The Scripture reading, Psalm 46, was given by Mrs. Willis Wiggitt.

Other ladies taking part in the service were Mrs. H. E. Byron, Mrs. Clayton Thomas, Mrs. Ivor R. Whitehouse, Mrs. Nelson Beaton and Mrs. H. J. Norris.

The devotional address was given by Pastor W. Leaton and was heard with much interest.

The service closed with a hymn and the benediction in union.

General Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bellows pleasantly entertained at their home, Norton Road. Covers were laid for eighteen. The tables were very attractive, the decorations being carried out in St. Patrick's Day colors.

The table was centred with green tapers in holders and a handsomely decorated and candle-lit birthday cake, in honor of Mr. Bellows' father, Mr. F. A. Bellows, whose birthday took place the day following.

The evening was enjoyed with games and social intercourse.

Miss Phyllis Mayhew spent a few days this week at the home of Mr. J. V. May, Coaticook.

P. T. Chamberlain, of Sherbrooke, and Mrs. Chamberlain recently visited Mr. Chamberlain's mother, Mrs. Margory Chamberlain, and family.

URGES CONVOY OF MATERIALS FOR BRITAIN

American Legion Head Declares British Win "Practically Certain" if War Materials Are Received.

Indianapolis, March 14.—(AP)—The American Legion's National Commander, back from an official visit to Great Britain, said today that the British Empire is "practically certain" to win the war if United States supplies are conveyed to them.

Commander Milo Warner, reporting to Legion headquarters of the organization's four-man mission to Britain, said:

"It is definitely in the balance whether they can win without our aid, that is, the actual delivery of these much-needed munitions and food supplies."

"We can feel reasonably certain of getting munitions and supplies to England only by actually conveying them," Warner said his group was given to understand that Britain does "not have the trained technicians and personnel to take over our destroyers and ships and planes and promptly into necessary combat and convey operation."

"At no time," Warner said, "did we hear anybody express implicit confidence in England's ability to protect the shipping necessary to the all supplies from outside which are so badly needed."

He expressed belief that British officials would consider relinquishing military and naval control of insular possessions in the Western Hemisphere, "particularly in the Caribbean," to the United States "with the exception of the government of the island population to be left for future determination," and urged that the United States work out an agreement in regard to such control.

during the day—thus completing in two days its deliberations on the largest appropriation in peacetime history.

The bill already has acquired the No. 1 position on the House Calendar for next Tuesday, and its passage by Wednesday night was generally forecast.

There was a conspicuous lack of outspoken opposition either in House or in the Senate. Most of the critical comment heard concerned whether the full $7,000,000,000 was needed immediately or could be spent during the coming year.

Senator Robert Taft (Republican, Ohio) spoke against the British Aid Bill, reported informally that there appeared to be support for a proposal to limit the cash appropriation to $3,500,000,000 for the first year, and make the other $3,500,000,000 available in authorizations.

In an atmosphere of strictest secrecy, meanwhile, the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee called army, navy and budget officers for questioning on how the vast armaments and supply fund would be spent.

The committee heard general statements by the Secretaries of State, War and Navy, advocating prompt passage of the huge appropriation.

After they left, the sub-committee heard Gen. George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, and received a partial statement from Budget Director Harold D. Smith. The latter was called back for detailed examination today, along with Rear Admiral Royal E. Ingersoll, acting Chief of Naval Operations, and another Army General Staff officer.

Despite private discussions among legislators as to the immediate need for the whole amount, administration leaders did not believe any effort to reduce the sum, if made, would succeed.

URGES ANOTHER PARLEY
Regina, March 14.—(AP)—R. M. Pinder (Liberal, Saskatchewan) yesterday urged the Saskatchewan Government to press for a second Dominion-Provincial Conference to deal with interprovincial relations when he introduced a resolution in the Legislature which praises work of the Rowell-Sirois Royal Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bishop, of Sweetburg, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mayhew, at "Cozy Cove," Jersey Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cunningham were in Ladd's Mills to visit their brother-in-law, Mr. William Falconer, who has just returned from the Sherbrooke Hotel.

S. M. Hubert Adams and Mrs. Adams, of Coaticook, were week-end guests of Mrs. Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mayhew, and family, Parker Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wright, of Sherbrooke, who were called here by the death of Mr. Wright's aunt, Mrs. George L. Wright, were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wright, Coaticook Road.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Parker were visiting Mrs. Parker's sister, Mrs. O. T. Pickford, and Mr. Pickford at Coaticook on Sunday.

Mr. Austin Grady, of Stanhope, was calling on friends here one day recently.

Miss Ida Lorimer has been quite ill for the past few days at her home on Parker Hill.

Mrs. H. Judson Norris pleasantly entertained a few friends in honor of Mr. Norris' birthday.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallis, nee Frances Rogers, of Fryeburg, Maine, and former residents here, regret to hear that their eldest son had his leg amputated above the knee because of a malignant tumor.

OPPOSES SCARE HEADINGS
Boston, March 14.—(AP)—Erwin D. Canham, Manager Editor of the Christian Science Monitor, is against "Six-inch banner" headlines in "catch street" sales. He said in an address here "the constant competitive effort to shock citizens into buying a paper is among the greatest enemies of press freedom because they blunt the public trust in newspapers."

CLAIMS DOMINION GOVERNMENT CALLING ALBERTA TREASURY BILLS

Edmonton, March 14.—(AP)—Provincial Treasurer Low said in an interview yesterday the Alberta Government has been asked by Federal Finance Minister Hiley that no further applications for renewal of Provincial Treasury bills held by the Dominion be made after April 1, 1942, and that the Province make provision for paying these bills as they fall due.

Mr. Low said the Dominion holds about $26,000,000 in Alberta Treasury bills, bearing an average interest rate of three per cent. Most of this amount has been borrowed for unemployment relief.

Italians Suffer

(No British statement on this reported encounter was available.)
An entire Greek division was "cut to pieces" in land fighting on the Viosa front near Tepeleni when the Greeks charged an Italian-held height, the agency stated.

(The Greeks said five Italian divisions were shattered in this sector.)
Stefani related the Italians held their fire until the Greeks had almost reached the summit, and then let loose a hail of artillery and machine-gun fire which cut the Greeks down at almost point blank range.

The Italians then charged from their trenches and chased the Greek survivors back to their trenches, the agency added. Many prisoners and arms were reported captured, the Italian chaplains were said to have supervised the burial of hundreds of Greeks whose bodies littered the mountainside.

The high command claimed five "enemy" planes and three Italian planes were shot down in the land fighting.

(A British communiqué in Athens said 14 Italian fighter planes were downed in the Tepeleni area yesterday with no British losses.)

COMMON FLY A SERIOUS ENEMY
By EDWARD KENNEDY
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Cairo, Egypt, March 14.—(AP)—British forces encamped in the Western Desert after their victories over the Italians have declared total war against one of their most unexpected enemies—the common house fly.

The conflict has been on an undeclared or "incident" bases ever since the soldiers came to the desert but lurid posters around the camps gave notice today that from now on a formal state of war exists.

"Agent No. 13," the notices read, "having returned from a clandestine visit into the heart of Libya, reports signs of great activity there."

"Secret breeding and mobilization have been carried out on a huge scale and no doubt remains that a vast offensive against the universal health is about to begin, led by Marshal Musca Domestica."

And Musca Domestica (a couple of slightly more expensive words meaning housefly) is a formidable foe.

The posters said his slogan was "fight and fly" and the soldiers credit him with having the world's best reconnaissance.

Invariably, however, a camp is established even in the most isolated regions miles from any human habitation, millions of flies descend on the camp almost instantly, seemingly out of nowhere.

The soldiers were pleased that combative services had been equipped for the fight against the fly but noted that nothing was said about the annoying desert mosquitoes.

They say the big "tri-motored" mosquitoes are very accurate in disease-bombing attacks and are supported by "motored" land forces—the menacing desert scorpions.

These latter insects nest mostly in bed clothes or in shoes and attack without hesitation whenever they are molested.

Australian troops claimed to have solved the scorpion problem. They pour a circle of gasoline around a captured scorpion and set it afire. The scorpion, discouraged because there is no avenue of escape, commits suicide by stabbing himself with his stinger. That's what the Ancians say.

On a whimsical basis, all army medical stations keep a good supply of scorpion serum on hand.

Labor Unions

Industrial Disputes Investigation Act "so as to give effect to the unanimous recommendation of the National Labor Supply Council that it will be unnecessary in . . . disputes brought under the act to declare that, failing settlement of the dispute, a strike or lockout would occur."

Elimination of "division of authority over labor policies" in the Government, and "in this connection, abolition of the position of Director of Labor Relations in the Department of Munitions and Supply."

Observance of the maximum eight-hour day in war industries and on construction projects, and employment of shifts instead of increasing hours of labor, until all available labor is employed.

Preference in placing Government contracts to firms which operate under union labor agreements and insertion in all war contracts of a clause providing for union recognition and collective bargaining.

Extension of the Government policy of producing essential war materials through Government-owned companies; "the strictest control" to prevent profiteering where private industry is employed; and Government monopoly over such natural resources as nickel, copper and radium.

The reading of the report was followed by the Miphah benediction which closed the business half of the meeting.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in Red Cross work and pleasant social intercourse.

General Notes
Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Wing, Miss A. R. Mizener, Messrs. G. C. Whitaker and Allen, and Mr. E. Phelps spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mizener, Hillside Farm.

The many friends of Mr. A. G. Davis were shocked and saddened when news was received of his sudden and unexpected death, in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal.

Mr. Davis went to the hospital February 3rd and had successfully undergone two operations. However a change for the worse occurred resulting in his death.

Mr. Davis was in his 68th year and had always lived in West Bolton at Edgely Farm formerly owned by his father, the late E. N. Davis. To his bereaved widow, deepest sympathy is expressed by all.

Mr. Henry Shonyo spent a few days in Magog. Miss Edna Shonyo, of Macdonald College spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Shonyo. Miss Ruby Shonyo, of Knowlton, also spent a week-end at the same home.

Mrs. W. A. Watt, of Sherbrooke, and Mrs. Ray Duboyce, of Duboyce's Corner, visited their father, Mr. Carmi Marsh, who remains very ill.

Miss Margaret Marsh has returned home from Waterloo to assist her mother.

Messrs. J. N. Snodgrass and B. R. Mizener recently journeyed to Mansonville, Highwater and other points on business.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mizener, Miss Margaret Mizener, Mr. Arthur Hastings and sister, Elizabeth, were in Magog Saturday to attend the Knowlton-Sawyer hockey play-off.

Mr. H. C. Salisbury recently spent a few days at the home of his uncle, Mr. C. W. Goddard, in Ottawa.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Lindsey Martin, of South Stukely, is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. All hope for a speedy recovery.

M. J. Coldwell (C.C.F., Rosetown-Biggar), acting House leader for his group, said the Government was largely responsible for keeping the Ministers in the House, because it had failed to organize the debate.

Defence Minister Ralston said the fact was that for a week and a half members of the House had been making speeches and Ministers wishing to give instruction had to "fairly force" themselves into the debate.

Speeches yesterday covered labor problems, use of Maritime Province manufacturing and shipping facilities, and aircraft production.

There was no indication when the debate would end but some observers said they thought the assurance of the Prime Minister that nothing else would be taken up until it was concluded might hasten the end.

Rodney Adamson (Conservative, York West) claimed the Canada Wire and Cable Company of Montreal was given a contract for brass although Anaconda American Brass Company of Toronto had bid $1,500,000 lower. He said he had been told the Montreal firm got the contract because it was desired that power be purchased from the Beauharnois Company and he suggested the matter be investigated by the Commons Committee on War Expenditures.

Munitions Minister Howe interrupted to ask the Toronto member if he could substantiate his charges and said he would personally see that Mr. Adamson was called before the War Expenditures Committee to report them. He said further that from his knowledge Mr. Adamson's allegations were "erroneous."

Earlier Mr. Adamson, criticizing the Government's system for aircraft production, urged that a Director of Production or a Minister, with rank to enable him to have authority over Royal Canadian Air Force officers, be appointed with power to control production right up to the time machines are delivered for operational use.

UNITED CHURCH GROUP SESSION AT WEST BOLTON

Ladies' Association Held Regular Session at Hillside Farm — To Purchase War Savings Stamps.

West Bolton, March 14. — The Ladies' Association of the Greek United Church, accompanied by a number of the men, journeyed to Hillside Farm to attend a regular session. Following a delicious dinner served by the members, the President, Mrs. G. C. Whitaker, took the chair and called upon the pastor, Rev. W. W. Thompson to open the meeting with prayer.

Following the reading of the last minutes by the Secretary, Mrs. H. C. Salisbury, a report of the supper held at the home of the President some time ago was given and several cards of thanks were read. A small bill was voted paid and a motion that the Association purchase War Savings Stamps was carried.

Expect Three Council Candidates Will Be Elected By Acclamation

Nomination for the City Council will be closed on Tuesday, March 18, only four days from today, and all is quiet along the municipal front, with the three candidates seeking election apparently slated for acclamations.

Only the eleventh-hour entry of dark-horse candidates will bring about the necessity of a contest. If elections are necessary, they will take place on March 25, exactly one week after the closing of nominations.

Ald. Eugene Gervais is on the list as a Centre Ward representative, his present term expiring next week, while J. A. Savard and J. A. Robert are the candidates for the East and South Ward seats, respectively. Ald. Maurice Delorme and Ald. J. E. Lacroix, who have represented the Wards for three and six years, respectively, are retiring from public life.

Until a few days ago a contest was expected in the South Ward, but apparently all chances for a fight disappeared with Ald. Lacroix's announcement of retirement and Philippe Lagueux's refusal to stand for election.

The nomination Day meeting will be held on Tuesday morning in the City Hall with Mayor Joseph Labrecque presiding. If the three candidates are unopposed they will automatically become Aldermen. In event of unexpected contestants presenting themselves, arrangements will be made for the elections the following Tuesday.

BILL SEEKING AMENDMENT TO WILL REJECTED

James Simpson Mitchell, of Sherbrooke, Cannot Touch Share of His Father's Estate Until He Is Thirty.

Quebec, Mar. 14.—(P)—Request that James Simpson Mitchell, formerly of Sherbrooke, be allowed to use immediately his share of the estate of his father, the late Malcolm William Mitchell, was rejected by the Private Bills Committee of the Legislative Council here yesterday.

Mr. Mitchell's will, it was explained in the bill, specified that his children are not to touch their shares of the estate until they reach the age of thirty.

The request asked that the will be amended so that James Simpson Mitchell, who is twenty-seven, might collect his share now because he is serving in the Royal Canadian Air Force in England.

Among other measures adopted were bills to amend the charter of the corporation of the Town of Richmond, and to amend the charters of Louisville and Asbestos.

San Francisco, March 14.—(P)—Two more United States liners—the old H. F. Alexander and her sister ship, the Emma Alexander—have been sold to the British Ministry of Shipping and will be reconducted for the Empire's wartime shipping.

MUSICALE AND PATTY TEA WERE GRAND SUCCESS

Delightful Social Event Sponsored by Ladies' Aid in St. Andrew's Church Hall Yesterday Afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid entertained a delightful afternoon at a delectable chicken-patty tea party at the accompaniment of a charming "musical" in St. Andrew's Church Hall, which was very attractively decorated in green and white in pleasurable anticipation of St. Patrick's Day.

Mrs. C. A. Turner, the President, Mrs. W. R. Northridge and Mrs. Arthur M. Edwards cordially received the many guests—there were over two hundred—and Mrs. A. J. Morrison acted as Treasurer.

Seldom has St. Andrew's spacious hall looked more inviting, the lovely green and white decorations arranged under the supervision of Mrs. O. H. Parker creating a fresh spring-time atmosphere and forming an ideal setting for the largely attended and altogether successful social event.

Mrs. George M. Robins and Mrs. John Lurie did the honors at the lace-covered tea table which looked very lovely with white carnations and snapdragons in a silver basket, lighted green candles in silver holders and festoons of green satin ribbon forming its border.

The hostesses were Mrs. A. W. Cleveland, Mrs. P. A. Hammond and Mrs. Angus Smith.

The green and white color scheme was continued on the small tables with lighted green candles on cut-out Shamrocks and on the piano with a large harp above which were displayed two large Union Jacks.

Mrs. Barker also decorated a small table with a most artistic representation of an Irish cottage. The delicious hot parties, garnished with potato salad were served with hot rolls under the condescension of Mrs. Ben Dean, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Lewis Dunsmore and Mrs. J. S. Baldwin, while a most successful sale of home cooking was in charge of Mrs. Hilton Ross, Mrs. W. W. Davy and Mrs. George M. Dick, who also used lighted green candles and cut-out Shamrocks to add to their already tempting table of edibles.

Assisting the various conveners were Mrs. William Howlett, Mrs. David Turnbull, Mrs. E. E. Gilson, Mrs. John Macdonald, Mrs. A. M. Edwards, Mrs. Harold Shearn, Mrs. Oscar Stenson, Mrs. Malcolm Dunsmore, Mrs. Charles Ross and Mrs. William Scott.

The charming programme, arranged by Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, for the musicale which played such a vital part in the outstanding success of the party, included sweet Irish songs, sung by Miss Kathleen Leonard, with Mrs. L. E. Codere as her accompanist, the latter also delighting everyone by playing a brilliant melody of Irish airs, as only she can interpret these intriguing melodies.

Then there were piano duos by Mrs. L. P. Leveque and Mrs. O. Leveque, which made complete the really delightful entertainment so

Fire Prevention Week Will Be Combined With Clean-Up Drive

Soon after the first of May, moving day, a Fire Prevention and Clean-Up Campaign will be inaugurated in this city, it was learned from Director A. A. Maranda, of the local Police Department, this morning.

Decision to include fire prevention in the annual Clean-Up Week, which is a Dominion-wide campaign held each year following closely after May 1st, has been made, the Director said, with the hope that the two could be effectively amalgamated to bring about both the necessary fire precautions and the general clean up in homes, vacant lots, public buildings, and commercial and industrial houses throughout the city.

Director Maranda said that he would call a meeting of the Police and Fire Committee to secure their permission to go ahead with the plan some time next week and that following this he would get in touch with the Mayor and City Council and secure their authorization to call a general meeting which will be held in the City Hall Committee Rooms for the purpose of making plans to carry out the drive. He said that certain citizens, such as the heads of local commercial and industrial houses, school principals and teachers and a number of proerty owners would receive special invitations.

The campaign is to be conducted on a wide scale. Hundreds of posters have already been received by the Police Department and circulars and letters will be sent to residents. Committees will be formed in all schools, clubs, industries and social organizations, the number being in proportion to the personnel. It has already been announced that both the Protestant and Catholic Boys Scouts will be active in this respect visiting various local homes in an effort to give the occupants an outline of the objects and benefits of the drive.

During the week of the campaign, school pupils will fill out forms showing what they or their parents have done toward fire prevention and cleaning up. Local fire inspectors will be doing their part too, checking on the fire equipment and precautions in various homes, buildings and institutions in the city.

Citizens are asked to support this move by co-operating in every possible way when they are approached by members of the Fire Prevention and Clean-Up Committee. It is expected that a number of prizes will be given persons displaying the greatest interest and showing the best results in the campaign.

CONCERT HELD BY W.C.T.U. IS MUCH ENJOYED

Interesting Film on Temperance Shown at Gathering in Mitchell School Auditorium Last Evening.

Presided over by Rev. Robert Weaver, of the Baptist Church, the annual concert of the Sherbrooke Women's Christian Temperance Union was presented at a large and appreciative audience in the Mitchell School auditorium at eight o'clock last evening.

Feature of the evening was the screening of a film entitled "The Beneficent Reprobate," by Rev. Mr. Weaver, with narrations by Mrs. G. M. Charland, Vice-President of the Organization.

After an introductory song service with Mrs. W. G. Cross at the piano, Mrs. Charland led in devotional exercises and all joined in singing the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Appropriate Scripture readings were heard and prayer offered.

After the offering was received, Miss Annie Baldwin sang "The Ninety and Nine," with Mrs. Cross as accompanist.

Dr. G. Elery Read, Pastor Emeritus of Plymouth United Church, was called upon by the chairman to say a few words and expressed his pleasure at being present to see the excellent film and thanked the members of the W.C.T.U. for their invitation. Pledges were signed by many of those present and handed to the Temperance Secretary, Mrs. Sarah Emmerson.

Called upon once again to render a solo, Miss Annie Baldwin sang, "There'll Always Be An England," with the audience joining in the chorus.

The National Anthem brought the evening to a close. The film, which was shown in Sherbrooke, Lennoxville and Ascut schools, was obtained through the efforts of Mrs. Emmerson.

efficiently arranged by members of the Ladies' Aid Society.

On behalf of the latter Mrs. Turner extended in a few gracious words of thanks to Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, the artists and all who had helped in any way towards making the tea party and musicale an event to be recorded as one of the most outstandingly successful in the history of the Society.

PRODUCTION OF LIGHT, MEDIUM TANKS SPEEDED

United States Engineers Report that Light and Medium Tanks Will Soon Be in Large-Scale Production.

Cleveland, March 14.—(P)—Engineers who attended a smash-hotline meeting here today reported that the United States Government's tank manufacture programme presently is ahead of schedule.

Military and industrial men familiar with production of the mechanized fighting monsters gave this general picture at the American Society of Mechanical Engineers' Army-Navy meeting.

Light tanks (12½ tons)—Expected to roll from American Car and Foundry Company's Berwick, Pa. ordnance plant at fifteen a day by mid-summer, with present production around five a day.

Medium tanks (27 tons)—The first four or five expected off production lines at two locomotive plants next month, well ahead of schedule, with Chrysler's Detroit tank plant expected to reach production basis by October or November.

Heavy tanks (58 tons)—Still strictly in the laboratory stage, with a pilot model expected to be completed for summer tests at the army's Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds, with tooling up to begin after approval.

Various other information came from the two-day meeting.

Robert L. Melhorn, chief of the Government's Defence Contract Service, disclosed, for instance, that United States armament spending would jump from the present $12,500,000,000 to a total of $30,000,000,000—an increase of $17,500,000,000—all within the next 9½ months.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WORK UNDER REVIEW

Delegates from Many Points Attended Presbytery of Quebec Session in St. Andrew's Church Yesterday.

Ministers and Elders representing churches in Sherbrooke, Levis, Megantic, Milan, Marsboro, Scottsdown, Danville, Asbestos, Inverness, Kinross, Mills and Melbourne attended the spring meeting of the Presbytery of Quebec of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, held yesterday in St. Andrew's Church on Frontenac Street.

Rev. Allan S. Reid, D.D., of Montreal, who gave an interesting report of work being done in the North-western Quebec gold district, where, under extreme difficulties, earnest and consecrated men and women are doing excellent service for Christ, was nominated unanimously as Moderator of the General Assembly which meets in Toronto early in June.

Rev. Dr. W. McIvor, of Danville, gave an excellent report of the activities of the Budget Committee, and Rev. J. L. Hughes, of Melbourne, reported for Home Missions. A review of the work of Sabbath Schools was given by Rev. Donald S. Lewis, of Levis, Convener of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies.

Considerable business was transacted, and excellent reports were heard from the various stations of the Presbytery. Reference was made to the National Day of Prayer to be observed in the near future.

Rev. W. R. Northridge, officiating Minister of St. Andrew's Church, received a warm welcome to his first Presbytery meeting in Quebec. The Moderator, Rev. William Reynolds, of Inverness, presided over the deliberations.

The delegates were entertained at dinner at the Magog Hotel as guests of the Board of Managers of St. Andrew's.

SUPERHEATER'S WORKERS SEND AID OVERSEAS

Air-Raid Victims Employed by Superheater in England Receive Financial Assistance from North America.

Explanation of a plan by which workers in the Superheater plant in England who have been rendered homeless by indiscriminate Nazi bombing are receiving aid from employees of the Superheater Company, Limited, and associated companies in Canada and the United States, was given here yesterday by G. S. Thomson, Manager of the local plant.

In many instances, Superheater workers in England have been blasted out of their homes and their family life completely disorganized, and naturally unavoidable delays in work for the victims by the Government have occurred.

To speed aid to these men, a mutual aid society, under the leadership of Eric Robinson, Managing Director of the plant in England, has been formed, and the company and its employees have been carrying on excellent work of assistance.

Pointing out that there has been a hundred per cent response on the part of the employees to an invitation for voluntary subscriptions, Mr. Thomson said "the risks and dangers of war have been brought very close to home, and our employees want their fellow-workers in England to know that we are in reality one big family, anxious to lend every possible assistance."

It is felt that financial aid forwarded direct to the mutual aid society offers the best method of dealing with the situation, Mr. Thomson explained, and several very substantial amounts contributed by thousands of Canadian and American Superheater employees are being sent overseas for the exclusive benefit of these families who have felt the full weight of German terrorism.

Reports Covering Activities of Branch in All Departments Tabled at Annual Session—Much Work Accomplished on Behalf of Red Cross Society.

At the annual meeting of Lennoxville branch of the Women's Institute, the slate of officers as submitted by Mrs. A. E. Abercrombie, Convener of the Nominating Committee, was accepted without change and ratified.

The following were chosen for the coming year: President, Mrs. M. Worster; Vice-President, Mrs. Hugh Wallace; Second Vice-President, Mrs. R. E. Mosher; Secretary, Mrs. E. L. Atto; Treasurer, Mrs. Lawrence Parker.

Conveners of departments were named as follows: Agriculture, Mrs. M. Pegg; Home Economics, Mrs. A. E. Abercrombie; Canadian Industries, Mrs. Albert Hall; Education and Better Schools, Mrs. R. E. Mosher; National and International Relations, Mrs. Hartley; Welfare, Health and Red Cross, Mrs. F. R. Titcomb; Publicity, Mrs. E. L. Atto.

Mrs. M. E. McCurdy presided over the elections, presenting each candidate to the meeting.

Reports covering the activities of the branch throughout the year in each department were given. The report of Red Cross work was given by Mrs. H. Wallace, who stated that the work had been done by ten members, all of the others having worked through other units. Finished articles included 92 towels, 61 hospital gowns, 63 abdominal binders, 115 triangular bandages, 24 pyjamas, 67 pairs of socks, 3 pairs of mitts, 16 pairs of seaman's boot stockings, 34 pairs of wristlets, 132 pillow cases for refugees, 16 pairs of stockings, 29 sheets, 10 scarves, 4 sweaters, 2 slips, 2 dressing gowns, 3 sleepers, 13 pairs of bloomers, 25 dresses, 2 nightgowns, 2 pairs of pyjamas, 10 pairs of socks for children, 2 pairs of mitts, 3 sweaters, 1 coat and 5 berets.

It was reported that a War Savings Certificate had been purchased during the month, and it was decided to continue the work of knitting wool blocks for quilts for the refugees.

Mrs. Abercrombie read a letter she had received from a pen-friend in a Scottish Institute, and the Branch decided to send as a friendly gesture a few pounds of tea, of which there is a scarcity in England and Scotland. A card of sympathy was sent to Miss F. E. Drummond, who is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital at the present time.

A committee was appointed to draw up a tentative programme for the meetings of the coming year, with Mrs. Abercrombie as Convener, and Mrs. McCurdy and Mrs. Hartley assisting.

Afternoon tea was served at the close of a busy meeting, at which the hostesses were Mrs. D. R. Ross, Mrs. M. E. McCurdy and Mrs. Aveling.

THE LEASE-LEND BILL IN EFFECT

Judging from the intensified British offensive warfare over Germany and German-occupied territory, including an extended raid on Berlin itself, the signing of the Lease-Lend Bill by President Roosevelt had something more than a moral effect in Great Britain. Rather it would seem that it was the go-ahead signal for which the British Government and the British people have been waiting for months.

The explanation given by one responsible British official would appear the logical one. For months Great Britain has been accumulating supplies, manufacture and production being ahead of actual defensive needs. But in view of the uncertainty of obtaining substantial supplies in the future under the old cash-and-carry policy, it was necessary to conserve the equipment as much as possible in order that an extended warfare would not find the country running out of defensive equipment. This danger has been to a great extent removed, in that the question of financing future orders will no longer prove a factor in armament purchase.

Thus the British have been permitted to launch a blitzkrieg of their own, giving to the German people a sample of what Great Britain has undergone for months past. It has permitted the use of new and stronger planes in the aerial warfare, secure in the knowledge that even more modern and greater planes will come in ever-increasing numbers to replace those lost in action. Similarly, land equipment will be expanded, both in connection with fighting and transport units. Undoubtedly the Royal Navy will receive substantial reinforcements, both immediately in older units already constructed and in the not-too-far distant future in new and modern vessels fresh off the ways. More and more cargo ships will be available. In fact reports indicate that arrangements have already been completed for the transfer of certain shipping units now tied up in United States ports to British registry, which are designed to bridge the gap until the new ship construction programme becomes effective.

Thus, while to many the Lease-Lend Bill is something for the future—an interpretation highly acceptable to the Axis powers, who are loud in their denunciations of the measure—in reality it is a comprehensive programme combining the past, present and future. While it calls for great things in the months to come, it also provides for the diversion of present production to a place of greatest need and at the same time permits dipping into stocks accumulated in the past to meet the lag in production until the new facilities become sufficiently organized.

It is this policy of co-ordination that holds the greatest menace to the Axis powers, permitting the British to take the offensive with existing equipment rather than express pious hopes of what will happen when the plants at present in the blueprint stage reach production. And the British apparently intend to take full advantage of it.

MUSSOLINI AT THE FRONT

Like the knightly kings of old, Il Duce has decided to take personal command of the Italian troops in Albania who up to now have been receiving an unmerciful trouncing at the hands of the numerically-inferior Greek forces. Unofficial reports state that the large-scale Italian counter-attacks of the past few days have been engineered by none other than Benito himself, and that his generals have been ordered to produce results by Saturday—or else.

Initial indications are, however, that neither Mussolini nor his generals seem to be able to do anything about the situation, statements from the battlefield indicating that despite their increased strength, the Italian counter-attacks are similar to those which went before. The troops do not seem to have their heart in the fight, despite the presence of their leader, with the result that the Greeks continue to turn back the Fascist hordes, copping numerous prisoners and annexing much war equipment.

Although the desire to be with his beloved followers will undoubtedly be given as the reason for the visit of Il Duce to the front lines, if he really did go which many doubt, less charitable observers assign many other motives:

First, the people at home are becoming decidedly dissatisfied with the progress of the war in Albania, especially after the debacle in East Africa, and are demanding that they get something for the sufferings and deprivations they are subjected to. This may have led Il Duce to decide that if you want a thing well done, do it yourself.

Then again, with the entry of Germany into the picture and the possibility of an early Nazi attack on Greece, he might have seen the chance for some easy pickings as resulted from his French campaign, when he won a series of shotless victories. This would have been a splendid opportunity for a display of perfectly safe valor, leading his troops into a Greece subdued by another nation. But to date this plan appears to have gone sour, with the Greeks failing to take their supposed trouncing.

Hitler may even have a hand in the move, pointing out to Il Duce certain achievements that should be accomplished in Albania if Italy itself hopes to survive and perhaps advising that Mussolini tell his generals just how to do it.

Or, perhaps, the Fascist leader is losing face at home and finds it advisable to remove himself temporarily from the sight of his people and at the same time seek to restore his prestige which has suffered considerably of late.

In any case, whatever his objectives may have been, they have not met with any particular success, the Greeks refusing to take him any more seriously than his generals.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce plays an important part in the progress and development of any municipality and it is to be hoped sincerely that the movement being undertaken at present to revive the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce will meet with the success that it deserves. To this end it needs the support of the business men, aldermen and individual citizens, all of whom will benefit by the functioning of such an organization.

In one important respect the promoters of the revival movement are on strong ground in the selection of a permanent full-time Secretary-Manager who will have charge of the operations of the Chamber and prepare the necessary information sought by prospective industries and other would-be settlers in the city and immediate district. This is no part-time job but one that requires the undivided attention of an able man, involving, as it often does, extensive research and a lengthy period of negotiation which would interfere with the other duties of a part-time official.

But to ensure the success of the Chamber of Commerce, it is essential that the activities of the members be devoid of the hope of personal gain, that their interest be based upon a real desire to benefit the city as a whole and not with the idea of achieving some special advantage for themselves or for the firm which they represent.

From time to time, the Council of the Chamber of Commerce will be called upon to make decisions committing the group to considerable expenditures of money and the making of long-term commitments. In making these expenditures or undertaking these commitments, they should be done on a basis of best value offered for the money involved and not to benefit some member or group of members engaged in the particular line of business affected.

If this policy is not followed, if each member is only thinking of his direct financial benefits, the reorganized Chamber of Commerce will fare no better than its predecessor.

FROM THE RECORD FILES OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

In an effort to improve the administration of the municipality, the Rock Island Council is studying the incorporation of the village as a town, thus removing many of the restrictions placed on it by the Municipal Code.

The following committee was in charge of a reception tendered to the Choir of the Coaticook Methodist Church: Rev. A. H. Visser, Mr. G. L. Mastern, Mrs. F. H. Nunn and Mrs. W. L. Shortleiff.

A meeting of the Knowlton ratepayers has been called for the purpose of studying the formation of a Citizens' Association.

A reward of $200 has been offered for information as to the whereabouts of W. F. Pope, Bromontville merchant who has been missing since early in January when his empty team was found near Sherbrooke. As his business was revealed to be in strong condition, it is feared he met with foul play.

The by-law providing for the development of a new waterpower at Magog was passed by a vote of 147 to one despite reports of strong opposition in certain quarters. They had no vote on the matter anyway.

Prize-winners at a poetry social at South Stukely were Mrs. M. J. Quilliams and Mrs. C. M. Spence.

Reports from various parts of the Eastern Townships indicate that the sugar season is in full swing.

WANTED TO LAUGH

To the Editor of the Record.
Dear Sir: As a reader of your daily paper I am sure you will be surprised to see a refusal to show the picture entitled "This Thing Called Love."

Here in Ottawa it had a run of nearly four weeks in one of the leading picture houses, the Elgin Playhouse, close to the new Lord Elgin Hotel. You could go any night and find the show packed to the doors. I saw the show but would not rave over it, yet it was interesting, as what you saw in one instant could not happen in real life. After seeing it, and the refusal to show it in Sherbrooke, I wanted to laugh, only I had a cracked lip. What is the world coming to!

I am one who saw it and still lives at this writing.

The first time a man speaks in public he probably suffers more agony in a short period than at any other part of his career.

A young man felt the truth of this very keenly when he found himself facing an audience at a by-election meeting. He had prepared a fervid oration in support of his father's candidature, but for the first few moments he could do nothing but gasp. Then, in response to an encouraging cheer, he began to speak.

"Sometimes I say them at mamma's knees and sometimes at the side of the bed."

"And what about you, Bobby?"

"Oh, I don't need to pray. I sleep with daddy."

GERMANS HATED UNIVERSALLY

Manchester Guardian

The Germans are hated in every country. This is not less true of Italy, the ally of the Nazis, than of those people who are their victims. If once the bitter detestation and longing for vengeance bred by the Nazi system found an opportunity, Germany would have to withstand a great popular force. An army crossing Europe would collect behind it and in front of it all the great submerged power created by brutal exploitation. To the Germans at home the discovery of all this passionate hatred would come as a shock, for no people has been taught so successfully to believe what it is told. In this way the Nazis are undermining their own power of resistance. So long as victories seem to vindicate the judgment of their rulers they will put up with great disappointment and severe hardship. But if some great demand is made on their courage and resolution, the collapse of their faith in this Nazi doctrine that Germany is giving Europe final peace, the discovery of the immense unsuspected volume of anti-German passion among the peoples of the world, would put a great strain on their endurance.

TOWARD WORLD JUSTICE

Christian Science Monitor

There was a time when every attempt at flying had failed. There was then no indication that the limitation that kept humans on the ground would ever be overcome. Colonel Lindbergh sees "no indication that war is a thing of the past." Yet the organization of justice in nations has made the medieval feudal wars a thing of the past. If no one had tried to fly, or if no one had tried to establish a reign of law—well, what? Today Great Britain and a ring of small nations are making at least a gallant stand against aggression. Certainly the ideal of world justice having some connection with morality will not be attained by a "negotiated peace" with Nazism which exalts only its own theories of racial supremacy. If that goal is to be achieved, it must be through victory, with Britain as the instrument and with the embattled small nations and the United States giving aid to the utmost of their ability.

A COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAMME

Auckland News

Admiral Takahashi makes no bones about the "demand" of Japan for Manchoukuo, China, Burma, the New Guinea, the Philippines and Indo-China, with Australia and the Dutch East Indies to be included later. So, at one fell swoop, Chinese, Malaysians, Filipinos, Burmese and other native peoples of the whole covered region are to pass under the permanent pressure of the Japanese yoke, while British, American, French, Dutch and the rest are either to be given marching orders or retain their oriental rights and interests by Japanese suzerainty. It is well to have the comprehensive one-way blind declared. So easy a Japanese assumption of the grandiose scheme takes insufficient account of difficulties. For instance, although no attempt to attack or blockade Singapore is envisaged at the present time, it will be enough—so one Japanese official says—to cut off interference from that quarter. The steps already taken by Britain suggest that this Japanese expectation will be disappointed.

MASK OFF IN NORWAY

New York Times

Nazi rule in Norway is taking off its mask. The fair promises with which it sought at first to make conquest palatable, and lessen opposition by the conquered, are being cast aside; they have served their purpose. Now it is admitted that German victory in the larger war will not mean the restoration of Norwegian independence, which Major Quisling, the willing instrument of aggression, has been promising his dupes. Norway is to be a German possession, part of the spoils of victory. The fortifications to keep it so are already under construction. Quisling himself tries vainly to sugar the pill. He has his own safety to look out for, and unless he can show some semblance of support from his fellow-countrymen his usefulness to his German masters is finished. So he phrases the new edict as providing that Norwegian freedom will be restored only "to the greatest possible extent." The qualifications will not go far. The pill defies sugar coating.

SINGAPORE'S STRENGTH

Montreal Star

Today the Australians are settling down alongside their British, Indian and native Malayan comrades at various strategic points throughout the Malay Peninsula, and the total force now facing any possible attack from Japanese bases in French Indo-China or Thailand is a very formidable one indeed. The guns of Singapore are among the most powerful in the world; as a naval base it is regarded as impregnable. An official announcement made at Singapore today stated that powerful new reinforcements of bombing and fighting planes have arrived there, and although the distance from Saigon in South Indo-China to Singapore is only 630 air miles, there is good reason to believe that the total air force now under the supreme command of Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham are superior to the air force Japan has available for attack.

"EASY VICTORIES" OFTEN GO WRONG IN OLYMPIC PLAY

I hope that hand No. 13 in this year's World Bridge Olympic, which is to be held April 17, will not prove the Jonah that last year's hand No. 13 was. The committee prescribed the bidding, and figured that the only problem on the hand was for East to make the correct opening.

They stated, "The whole defence hinges on the opening lead. East is expected to see from the bidding and his holding of top clubs that the best plan is to lead through South's declared heart suit, in an effort to knock out the side entries to the declared club suit. After any other lead, declarer should make an easy play."

But many defenders tried other opening leads and still made life difficult for declarer. An East player in a game at Portland, Ore., opened the five of diamonds. The jack forced the ace, and North laid down the queen of clubs. East held off, then won a second lead of the suit.

Now East saw it might be a good idea to attack the hearts. Declarer could not afford to duck a round of this suit, because then a diamond would come through and thus set up the fifth trick for the opposition. So South won the heart and led another club. East won and continued a heart.

While South was able to run the club suit, he lost his contract because the spade suit was not established.

Miss Adelaide MacRae entertained the members of her Christmas Club last evening at her home on Champlain Street in honor of Miss Dorothy Stanfield, a member and bride-to-be of the week. Cards were played at three tables, the prizes being won by Miss Isabelle MacArthur and Miss Patricia Kendall, while the bride-to-be was presented with a lovely personal "shower" gift from the members of the Club. Later the hostess served refreshments, being assisted by her mother, Mrs. G. MacRae, and Miss Margaret Walker.

Mrs. L. A. Darcy entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon at "Kewenau," her residence on Victoria Street, in honor of Mrs. Merlyn Hicks, who has been her house guest for some time, and is leaving during the week-end for Victoria, to which place her husband, Dr. Hicks, has been transferred from the Windsor Mills Airport. Bridge was played at two tables, the prizes being won by Mrs. W. W. Lynch and Mrs. W. D. Smith, the latter of Kingston, Ont. The hostess also presented a special gift to the guest of honor. Tea was served in the dining room where Mrs. Stephen Newton did the honors at the lace-covered table, which was adorned with a crystal centerpiece. Assisting in the tea room were Miss Dorothy Newton and Mrs. J. Buckell.

SLIMMING NEW AFTER-NOON STYLE

MARIAN MARTIN
Pattern 9651

If you're young-at-heart, you can be young in appearance, too. For though Pattern 9651 is designed for the size thirty-four-to-forty-eight figure range, Marian Martin has given it all sorts of enchantingly youthful details. Because contrast is new, she suggests the softly gathered bodice panels in fresh contrasting color. The front skirt panel points high in a slimming, smart line, and there's one long panel down the back. Low front and back hip seams give nice fit through the bodice and allow for easy fullness in the skirt. Use soft lace edging and choose long or short sleeves. Keep the Sew Chart close by to speed up your work.

Pattern 9651 may be ordered only in women's size 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3 3/4 yards 39 inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast.

Send twenty cents (20c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address and style number.

Send your order to Sherbrooke Daily Record, Pattern Department, address.

BUSY MEETING OF STANSTEAD NORTH GROUP

Satisfactory Reports Given by Various Committees of Stanstead North Institute.

Stanstead North, March 14.—The annual meeting of the Stanstead North W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. William Holmes, Stanstead, with seventeen members present. Dinner was served at noon by Mrs. Holmes, with Mrs. Charles Crawford as assistant.

The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. A. Curtis, in the usual manner. The roll call was the payment of dues.

Satisfactory yearly reports from the Conveners and Secretary were heard. The report of the County Convention at Ayer's Cliff, attended by Mrs. F. Abbott, and the Auditor's report were also given.

This Institute has just completed another busy year. One highlight of the year was the County meeting with Mrs. Alfred Malt, O.B.E., as guest speaker. Six contests and one debate have been held and a library has been started among the members. Soup has been bought for the scholars at Stanstead College who are included in the consolidation. Over six hundred articles were completed for the Red Cross. The Treasurer's report shows over one hundred dollars in the bank.

Mrs. N. G. Curtis, as Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the new slate of officers which was adopted as follows:

President, Mrs. Charles Bliss; First Vice-President, Mrs. A. E. Osborne; Second Vice-President, Mrs. F. L. Abbott; Secretary, Mrs. Leslie Colt; Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Crawford.

The following Conveners were appointed:

Agriculture, Mrs. M. H. Rudd; Home Economics, Mrs. A. E. Osborne; Education, Mrs. E. Hill; National and International Relations, Mrs. M. Flint; Welfare and Health, Mrs. B. A. Hill; Publicity, Mrs. Leslie Colt; Committee for Red Cross Work, Mrs. M. Gibson; Sunshine Committee, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. T. Goodsell and Mrs. F. Abbott.

The programme for 1941-42 was read by Mrs. A. E. Osborne and was accepted. It was agreed that five dollars be used to purchase garden seeds to be sent to the Stanstead Chapter, Mrs. J. England, Mrs. Leslie Colt in charge of this.

A shower of cards was arranged for a member who is ill, and a debate was arranged for next meeting which will be held at the W. I. room.

Attractive pitchers were received by six of the members who have had perfect attendance during the past year. These were Mrs. W. C. Curtis, Mrs. Charles Crawford, Mrs. A. Osborne, Mrs. E. Hill and Mrs. M. H. Rudd.

Mrs. A. E. Curtis was presented with a pair of Canadian-made bookends. She has just completed two years as President with perfect attendance.

The meeting was then adjourned.

TESTED RECIPES

MARMALADE TIME AGAIN

Citrus Fruits Make This Delicious Preserve

By Katharine Baker

Canadians have every reason to rejoice in the fact that citrus fruits were not among the banned imports. We have become so accustomed to oranges, lemons and grapefruit in our daily diet, that we would hardly know how to get along without them. Back in the dark ages of only a few years ago, within the memory of many readers, in fact, these fruits were not common. But can you imagine breakfast now without orange juice or grapefruit? And it would be unthinkable to doctor a cold without hot lemonade. Besides the vitamin and mineral value of citrus fruits which makes them necessary, there is no substitute for their flavour. Dozens and dozens of dishes would be impossible without these fruits and, of course, marmalade would be out of the question. At the present time however, we don't have to do without them so let's get busy on making marmalade. Here is a recipe which is simple but sure. The use of bottled pectin ensures success, even if you have never made marmalade before.

MARMALADES

2 cups (1 1/2 lbs) prepared fruit
3 cups (12 lbs. 10 oz.) sugar
1/2 cup bottled pectin

For Orange Marmalade, use 3 medium oranges and 2 medium lemons.

For Grapefruit Marmalade, use about 2 medium grapefruit.

For Orange, Grapefruit, and Lemon Marmalade, use 1 of each fruit of medium size.

To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters. Lay quarters flat, shave off and discard about 1/2 of white part. With a very sharp knife, cut remaining rind into shreds. Add 1 1/4 cups water and 1/2 teaspoon soda. Bring to a boil and simmer, covered, for just 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cut off tight skin of peeled fruit and slip out pulp. Add pulp and juice to the cooked rind. Simmer, covered, 20 minutes longer.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit, solidly packed, into large kettle. Flooding each cup with juice, or if necessary, with water. Bring to a boil, and boil gently 5 minutes. Remove from fire and stir in pectin.

BISHOP DESRANLEAU ACCEPTS CHAPLAINCY OF DIOCESAN

C. W. L.

In an interview recently granted to Mrs. Romeo Marcotte, President of the Diocesan Council of the Catholic Women's League, and Mrs. Frances Hoyer, First Vice-President, Mgr. P. S. Desranleau, Bishop of Sherbrooke, graciously accepted an invitation to act as Diocesan Chaplain, which post was made vacant by the death of Bishop Gagnon.

Bishop Desranleau reiterated his great interest in the programme of the Catholic Women's League and assured the ladies that he could be depended upon to further its work and influence in the Diocese of Sherbrooke.

DUKE OF WELLINGTON CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

There was a large attendance at the monthly meeting of the Duke of Wellington Chapter I.O.D.E., held yesterday afternoon at the Mackinnon Memorial.

Mrs. Matthew Graham, Regent, was in the chair and following the observance of the opening ceremonies the minutes as read by Mrs. Leslie Arter, Secretary, and the monthly financial statement presented by Mrs. R. L. Bishop, Treasurer, were adopted by the meeting.

An outstanding feature of much educational value, was the excellent paper given by Mrs. S. H. Gallinger, on "The Founding of the I.O.D.E."

There followed an interesting review of the executive meeting of the Quebec Provincial Chapter held in Montreal this week, by Mrs. A. A. Munster who had attended same with several other representatives of the Order in Sherbrooke.

It was decided to send blankets to the Victoria League, London, Eng., and in reading the report on Child and Family Welfare, which had been prepared by Mrs. V. G. South-ern, Convener, it was noted that the Chapter had assumed responsibility for one more family.

The Chapter's activities when "on duty" at the Red Shield Club, were interestingly reported by Mrs. S. H. Gallinger.

Two new members, Mrs. Gordon Miller and Mrs. N. E. Walley, were duly "sworn in" and three names, Mrs. Roland Badger, Mrs. Porter Bangs and Mrs. Maurice Parker were nominated for membership.

After the disposition of several less important items of business the meeting adjourned with the singing of God Save the King.

Later tea was served informally, Mrs. Graham and Miss Amy Wells acting as hostesses.

53RD CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

Members of the 53rd Chapter I.O.D.E. were entertained for their monthly meeting last evening by Mrs. George Berwick, at her home on Fairmount Avenue.

The Regent, Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, presided and after the customary opening ceremonies, the minutes were read by the Secretary, Mrs. T. A. Loughheed, and the financial report by Mrs. Clifford Beaudeau, Treasurer.

All outstanding bills were ordered paid and the Treasurer was authorized to spend money for postage stamps.

It was agreed to donate three prizes at the East Ward School this summer, and money was voted towards two life memberships in the Quebec Provincial Chapter.

The Regent requested all members to attend the card party to be held on Saturday evening and also to bring their friends.

The appointment of sub-committees was a special feature last evening and occupied some time. The following were named conveners: Mrs. Edgar Samson, I.O.D.E. Endowment Fund; Mrs. T. Crossley, Service and Ex-Service Men; Miss Ella Sykes, Colonization; Mrs. E. Davies, Registration Cards; Mrs. F. Shorten, Child and Family Welfare; Mrs. T. A. Loughheed and Mrs. F. Cathcart, War Service; Mrs. Singleton and Mrs. T. Wyatt, Sick Visitors; Mrs. F. Cathcart, Red Shield Canteen.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. E. Samson's home on Wellington Street South.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, and Mrs. Morin and Mrs. Warren. The evening closed with God Save the King.

Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot marmalade at once. Makes about 8 eight-ounce glasses.

Develop Talent at Home With Fashion Art Course

Don't Try to Copy—Use Charts

Discouraged so soon! Yet this would-be fashion artist has a real talent to develop.

Like so many girls who long for a well-paying career in art, she must do her studying at home. But she doesn't quite know how to go about it.

This is where charts and diagrams, professional instruction can help you. With their aid you soon learn to draw really graceful, well-proportioned faces and figures.

For the glamorous, Garboesque face of the fashion ads, draw an oval and divide it in half, horizontally. This is the eye line. Now divide the lower half into five equal parts and place the nose line two-fifths down from the eye line, the mouth three-fifths down.

Once you have these main proportions, the finishing touches come easier—shaping the eye and mouth, drawing the soft contours of the hair.

And the figure? You follow the same principle of dividing up, as our 24-page fashion art course shows you. Teaches you perspective, how to "block in" pose and dress figures, work in line and wash, and draw fabric textures such as velvet, jersey, net, chiffon, also furs.

Send 15c in coins for your copy of Fashion Drawing Made Easy to Daily Record, Home Service, Sherbrooke, Quebec. Be sure to write plainly your Name, Address, and the Name of Booklet.

RESUME

The plans of Barton Kendrick, wealthy New York publisher, to divorce his wife, Diana and marry Johnny Jones, a beautiful Viennese refugee, are upset when Johnny is forced to marry an American citizen at once to keep from being deported. She selects Bill Smith, a penniless writer. They make a business deal — he to give her his name and she to pay his weekly expenses. They get married on the platform of "no love, no honor, no money." Bill only sees her when she brings him his weekly check. For several weeks he is hard at work writing a novel, "No Love," based on his strange romance with Johnny. She throws Bill into despair by asking for a divorce so she can marry Kendrick. She has carefully concealed from each rival the identity of the other. Bill unwittingly sends his novel to Kendrick's publishing house. Realizing that the author of "No Love" is his unknown rival, Kendrick sends him, Diana, present at the interview, gathers from her husband's strange agitation over the story that he is the "other man." She confronts him with his infatuation for Johnny. He admits it. She consents to a divorce under their modern marriage agreement.

CHAPTER FIVE

SIMPLE THINGS COUNT

It was a high-spirited Bill Smith who drove up to Johnny's apartment house that bright spring morning in a drive-yourself car he had hired for a very special occasion. Bill felt himself practically a millionaire with $500 in his pocket. He was all tugged out in a new suit.

With a jaunty air he generously tipped the doorman, and swaggered into the apartment building. Johnny answered his ring. She had dropped him a note to please call and sign the divorce papers.

Bill passed through the foyer into the living-room. He tossed his hat onto a chair with the air of a man entering his own apartment.

"Here you are, Johnny," he laughed gleefully. He had taken a roll of bills from his pocket. "Ten weeks, at seventeen-eighths a week!" He laid it on a table. "Now we're even."

"Why, what's happened, Bill?" "Oh, I just sold a little novel I dashed off," he said airily.

"That's wonderful! I'm so happy, Bill."

"Thanks. And now," he said abruptly, "you better start to pack."

"Pack? For what?" "For a trip. We're going away."

He said easily, as if she ought to have known.

She stared at him unbelievably. Then, shaking her head, she stated positively: "I'm not going anywhere with you."

"You want a divorce, don't you?" he asked, menacingly.

"You know I do."

"All right. No trip—no divorce."

"You're — you're horrible!" she cried.

But Bill simply kept repeating to all her protestations: "No trip — no divorce."

Johnny realized she was beaten. She would humor him for the time being, and hope for a way out later on. Without another word, she selected a hat, and started to put it on.

"That's the spirit," he said, with high good humor. "Mr. and Mrs. Smith are leaving town!"

They were out on the New Jersey highway, rolling along. Bill was in exuberant spirits. He was a country boy, and he was taking her back home, but he wouldn't tell her exactly where.

Time passed, with Bill talking at random, and Johnny feeling more and more dubious about it all. She noted by the road markers that they were now in Pennsylvania. At last Bill slowed down as they approached a typical roadside bearing the legend: "Yo Indian Inn." As Bill jumped out and ran around to open the door for her, she saw a telephone sign. Quickly she mapped her plan of campaign. She took her coin purse from her bag, leaving the latter on the seat of the car.

Inside, the waiter gave Bill a great big welcome. Asked him where he had been keeping himself all this time. Johnny suddenly remembered her bag. Would Bill get it for her? As he went out to the car, Johnny made a dive for the telephone booth inside the powder room off the combination dining room and bar.

She told the operator she wanted New York in a hurry. Soon she was speaking to Barton Kendrick in his office. In breathless sentences she told him of her plight — that Bill Smith had practically kidnapped her — that she had to go with him or else no divorce. Kendrick, agitated, asked her where she was. She gave him the phone number of the place, and directions how to get there. He said he would start at once. "Oh, hurry!" she implored. Then pulling herself together, she walked out to face Bill.

A few minutes later they were moving along a country lane lined with fruit trees. Just ahead the girl could see a low, rambling Pennsylvania Dutch house, with a barn on one side. Bill slowed down to avoid hitting a herd of cows slowly ambulating across the road, shepherded by a farm dog.

The peace and quiet of it all caused Johnny to momentarily forget her alarm. Bill stopped before the veranda on which an old lady sat rocking in her chair as she busily sewed on a sampler.

Grandma Smith had humor, and that salty wisdom that comes with richness of experience. She scolded him casually as if he had only been away for a day. Johnny gave a sigh of relief when he introduced her to grumpy as "Miss Jones. Johnny for short."

Inside of five minutes Grandma had made the girl feel right at ease with her kindly philosophy. As they entered the house to spruce up for supper, the old lady admitted frankly to Johnny that she liked her.

Johnny was examining a sampler on the wall. The block letters on the lovely design read: "Time Heals All Wounds."

"I warn you," chuckled Grandma. "You can't avoid these samplers I've made. They're all over the house."

Grandma became the bustling, hospitable hostess. "Show Johnny the guest room, Willie. Your room is still waiting for you. We'll have supper soon. If you'd let us know you were coming, we'd have had a real meal for you. Still I'm pretty sure you won't starve."

Johnny was introduced to Charley Gebhart, the rugged hired man, dressed in clean overalls and scrubbed for supper. And Martha, a plump middle-aged woman who entered from the kitchen carrying a large platter of baked ham, and set it before the mistress of the house.

After supper they sat on the veranda. Johnny was curled up in a corner of a porch hammock listening dreamily to a chorus of frogs and crickets. Grandma was dozing in her rocker. Bill sat on the edge of the veranda with his back against a pillar, drinking in the beauty of the evening.

Grandma suddenly bestirred herself. She arose stiffly, and stood looking down on Johnny. She was all that counts, Johnny. Some day for good ground. Rain and sun to bring 'em up. Wood for a fire when the snow comes." She waved her hand to the landscape. "A night like this. Good neighbors, of course. Just plain people, with common decency, loyalty, honesty. Nothing else matters. Well, goodnight, Johnny."

Bill had risen to hold open the front door for her. She spoke softly as she nodded toward Johnny in the hammock. "No need to be a fool, Willie. Just make up your mind. Good night."

"Good night, Grandma." He kissed her lightly as she entered the house.

Bill paused for a moment, irresolute. Then he moved thoughtfully toward Johnny, and took a seat beside her in the swing.

"Do you like it down here, Johnny?" he asked quietly.

"Yes, Bill." She had been warmed by the mellow happiness. But she was still on guard against the possible advances of an impetuous lover who might sweep her off her feet.

"It's where I belong. And I'm coming back some day — to stay."

"You'll be happy here," she said guardedly. "I think anybody would."

"I'm pretty happy now." He gave her a meaningful look.

She avoided the implication. "Oh, you must be, Bill. It's wonderful to know your book's going to be published."

"It's all on account of you, Johnny," he said quietly. "I was writing about something I really felt. Before, I was trying to be smart. Writing about things I didn't know. From now on I'm going to write about the things I understand. The kids I grew up with. And my grandmother, Martha, Charley Gebhart. Did you like them, Johnny?"

She spoke with slow deliberation. "They make me feel as if I'd always known them. And Bill, I feel as if I knew you — for the first time."

He put his arm quietly around her, and drew her face close to his own. "Our story, Johnny. How's it going to end?"

A whispered admission came, a little scared. "I'm not sure I know now."

Bill kissed her. And she kissed him back. After the embrace had been held for a long moment, Johnny suddenly disengaged herself. She was alarmed by the depth and extent of her emotions. She rose, and moved a step or two away, afraid to trust herself near him.

"It's late, Bill."

He held the door open, feeling a sense of defeat, as she passed into the house.

Will Johnny decide to keep Bill Smith as her husband before Kendrick arrives to take her back to the city? Don't miss tomorrow's concluding chapter.

Country and Dairy Products Prices

Montreal, March 14. — Prices were mostly steady in produce dealings with jobbers prices on butter in small lots to the retail trade advancing 1/2 cent in range to 35 1/2 cents for solids and 36 cents for prints. Eggs were about steady but prices on lower grades were shaded in some instances.

BUTTER OUTPUT RATE UP
Relative to the present statistical position in butter, trade sources here have examined with interest the report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics on creamery butter output for February, which, at 9,904,095 pounds, showed an increase of 8.2 per cent over year ago output of 9,149,420. Since there was one more day in February a year ago than in last month the indicated rate of production last month was therefore greater than the percentage increase suggests. Because of the shortage of stocks, compared with a year ago, since trade sources believe this rate trend will be carried forward this month.

CLEVELAND

Mrs. G. Tozer was hostess to the Women's Association at her home recently when there was a good attendance of members present. The regular routine of business was disposed of under the leadership of the President, Mrs. G. Healy. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Percy Tozer, served lunch. The April meeting will be held at Mrs. J. E. Day's.

A "500" card party was held in the C.W. Hall with a small attendance present. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. Pease, Miss W. Perkins and Mr. P. Tozer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dionne gave a dance in honor of their son, Mr. R. Dionne, who has been home on a visit from Ontario.

The funeral of Mrs. W. Rodgers was largely attended. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and family in their sad loss of a loving wife and mother. Pte. R. Rodgers from a training camp in Ontario attended his mother's funeral.

Among those from this vicinity who attended the funeral of Mrs. Oscar Laxson (nee Carrie Monahan) in Danville were Mrs. G. Tozer, sister, Mrs. F. Monahan, sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. Tozer, Mrs. F. Taylor and Mr. F. Clark, nephews and cousin, Messrs. Raymond and Clarence Pease.

Mrs. Ford Monahan spent last week-end in Montreal with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Healy are visiting their sisters and families in Westmount.

Mr. A. Rodgers is home from Ontario, where he has been employed.

Mr. M. Mills, of Lachine, spent a week-end at the home of Mr. T. Astell, spending Sunday at his home in Melbourne.

Her many friends will be sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. C. Tozer and wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. F. Smith is home after spending some time in Melbourne helping care for Mr. Krasel.

Miss D. Mitchell and Mr. E. Smith, of Montreal, spent a week-end at Mr. A. Smith's. Other guests at the same home on Sunday were Mr. A. Smith and friend, of Richmond.

Mrs. J. Mills spent a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mills, in Richmond.

R.F.M. Alfred Mills, of Newfoundland, and his mother, Mrs. W. Osborne, of Melbourne, were two guests at Mr. Astell's.

MONTREAL SHUNTS SENATORS TO SIDELINES

Royals Once More Held Squad To Beat In East

Carlin Crew Blanks Ottawa 2-0 To Capture Quebec Senior Hockey League Crown in Four Games—Quebec Beavers Default to St. Jerome in Intermediate Final After Losing 4-1 at Home—Millionaires Reaffirmed Cape Breton Champs.

From the web of Eastern Canada's Allan Cup hopes, Montreal Royals emerged today as once more the team to beat among the nine remaining contestants for the task of representing the East in the Dominion hockey final.

Twice in the past two years beaten by the ultimate Cup champions, the Royals were back this season with a stronger bid than ever. With a lineup strengthened in important spots, they appeared certain to represent Quebec in the playdowns after eliminating Ottawa Senators with a 2-0 victory last night.

The victory gave the Montrealers the series for the Quebec Senior Hockey League title, 3-1, in games over the Senators, touted as great Cup prospects during the regular league season. It left the Royals with only the provincial intermediate playoffs to dispose of before stepping into the playdowns.

Fast and aggressive, Royals showed weakness only in defensive strength in bowing to Port Arthur in the Dominion final two years ago and Kirkland Lake in the Eastern last season. They seemed to have overcome that when they acquired goalie Bill Durnan, the toast of the disbanded Kirkland Lake outfit when it swept to the Allan Cup last season.

Durnan shutout the high-scoring Senators for their first time this season as the Royals elected to play close to the vest in the deciding match of their series. The goals went to Ronny Perowne and Buddy O'Connor, members of the fleet forward wall that also includes elusive Russ McConnell, speedy Pete Murrie, Gerry Heffernan, Johnny Acheson, Johnny Mahoney, and others that made the Montrealers powers in the past two seasons.

The victory sent Royals into the provincial final against St. Jerome, who won the intermediate championship meanwhile when Quebec defaulted the second game of a total goal series after losing, 4-1, last night. Usually setups for the seniors, the intermediates may prove a tougher nut this time as they have four former N.H.L. players in their lineup—Johnny Gagnon, George Brown, Rod Lorrain and Armand Raymond.

There was no action meanwhile among the East's other clubs still in the hunt. St. Catharines and Toronto Mariboros resume their best-of-seven series for the Ontario Hockey Association crown Saturday with Mariboros leading 3-2 in games, while South Porcupine Ankerites are waiting to take on the winner to decide the Ontario representative.

In the Maritimes, Sydney Millionaires were reaffirmed as champions of the Cape Breton League despite Glouce Bay's renewed protests and the Millionaires were ordered to open a total-goals series tonight with Saint John Beavers for the Maritime title. Hull Volants and Petawawa Grenades are ready to start a series for the Ottawa and District title, with the winner to meet the Maritime champion in an Eastern semi-final.

One team was eliminated for the Memorial Cup hunt last night when Ottawa Canadians defeated St. Patrick's College, 8-5, to advance into the Ottawa and District final against Pembroke Little Lumber King.

Two series will be resumed tonight, with Montreal Royals juniors taking a 1-0 lead into their best-of-five Quebec final at Montreal with Clearpoint and Charlottetown leading Truro, 5-4, as the teams square off in the second game of their total-goals series for the Maritime title. Oshawa Generals and Toronto junior Mariboros start their final for the Ontario championship March 17.

ALLAN CUP SURVIVORS

Seventeen teams remain today in the running for the Canadian senior hockey championship and the Allan Cup. Last night Quebec Beavers defaulted to St. Jerome after St. Jerome had won the first of a scheduled two-game, total-goals series 4-1. Port Arthur won its second straight game to eliminate Fort Frances and Montreal Royals shunted Ottawa Senators to the sidelines.

The survivors—East: Maritimes—Halifax Navy, Sydney Millionaires.

Quebec—St. Jerome (intermediate), Montreal Royals.

Ottawa District—Petawawa Grenades, Hull.

Ontario—St. Catharines, Toronto

COWLEY SEVEN POINTS UP ON 1939-40 MARK

Boston Centre Has 59 Points, Far Better Than 52 Which Gave Schmidt N.H.L. Scoring Title Last Season.

Bill Cowley of Boston, the National Hockey League scoring crown safely tucked away, added another goal and an assist last night as the Bruins whipped the Americans, 8-3, to bring his total to 59 points—seven more than Milt Schmidt of the Bruins won it with last season.

The only other Big Seven changes were made by Syd Howe of Detroit, who gained one assist as the Wings beat Chicago, 2-2, to tie the idle Bryn Hextall of New York Rangers for third place and Boston's Bobby Bauer, who bagged a goal and two assists to tie the Gord Drillon of Toronto for the last berth.

The leaders:

LAST NIGHT'S STARS

Bill (Flash) Hollett, Boston, scored two goals as the Bruins whipped the Americans, 8-3, at New York to clinch their third straight N.H.L. title.

Bill Jennings, Detroit, whose third-period counter gave the Wings a 3-2 victory over Chicago Black Hawks.

George Allen, Chicago, lifted the Hawks back into the game at Detroit with a counter that knotted the score at 2-2, only to have the Wings win out in the closing minutes.

RICHMOND BOY SCOUTS BLANK WINDSOR TROOP

Gagnon and Tibbitts Set Pace as Richmond Troop Turns Back Visiting Outfit from Windsor Mills 6-0.

Richmond, March 14. — Gagnon and Tibbitts were the big runs as Richmond blanked Windsor Mills 6-0 in a friendly hockey clash between the Boy Scout Troops of the two towns, each collecting a pair of goals and an assist.

Richmond was too strong for the lads from the Paper Town, scoring twice in the first period, three times in the middle stanza and once again in the last frame. Gagnon got the opening counter on an unassisted effort and passed to Tibbitts for the second.

G. Geoffroy went through alone to put the Richmond Scouts ahead 3-0, and then Gagnon got a goal with the aid of Tibbitts and the latter counted all by himself. Campbell was helped by Davis to the final marker.

Bishop's Gains Long End Of 42-41 Count In Cage Clash With Bombers

The thirteenth held no jinx for the Bishop's University basketball squad as they nosed out the "Y" Bombers in a movie thriller last evening on the Y.M.C.A. floor in Sherbrooke by the score of 42-41.

Tubby Lane, with sixteen points, and Ivor Richards, with fourteen, led the purple and white cages in their spectacular triumph. It was the final game for Richards and Lane after four years of cage activity and it was gratifying that they were able to pass from the picture on a victorious note.

For the losers Ronnie Welsh played a stand-out game to score sixteen points, mostly on long set shots. Tricky Amby Wootton was right in there to score ten points and "Chick" Whately was good for six.

Ian Hay also, playing his last game for Bishop's, was on the ball continually and scored six points. Lanky Bob Carpenter played a smart game at guard for Bishop's and came through with six sorely-needed points in the final minutes of the game.

In the first quarter Bishop's started off fast and Lane punched home three field goals before Welsh replied for Sherbrooke. Richards came in to lay up another to make it 8-2, but Wootton broke away and brought the score to 8-6 with two one-handed shots. Play see-sawed until quarter time when Bishop's led 12-8.

In the second quarter the teams matched basket for basket and at the half the score stood 20-16 for Lane and Richards each had eight points for the half while Welsh and Wootton each had six points for Sherbrooke.

Bishop's suffered a temporary relapse in the third quarter and the Bombers swarmed all over them to take a commanding 31-24 lead. The Bishop's boys tightened, however, and cut down the lead to three points, trailing 35-32 at the three quarter mark. Early in the final quarter Lane was fouled and he sank two shots. Richards followed with two more foul shots a minute later and Bishop's led 36-35.

Welsh let fly with a long one that dropped cleanly through to make it 37-36, but Bishop's Carpenter made it 38-37 on a one-hander from the side. That's the way it went until with seconds to go Bishop's led 42-41. Then Lew Hollinger, husky Bishop's guard drew a personal foul for backing Ben Lynn and the latter was awarded two shots.

A death like calm settled down as Lynn prepared to shoot. His first one was off but he could still force the game into overtime. He aimed slowly but his second shot fell short. Bishop's froze the ball in their own zone for the remaining seconds and the game ended 42-41.

Haney Takes Browns To Mexico For Clash With Boston Bees

Monterrey, Mex., March 14. — Manager Fred Haney, hoping he would find bright, sunny weather in old Mexico, brought 22 St. Louis Browns here today, a day ahead of time, so they could get a workout before the clash with Boston Bees. The Browns' team at a breakfast held in their honor by the St. Bernardino Argonauts Club.

St. Petersburg, Fla. — Billy Southworth, far from dissatisfied with the exhibition record his Cardinals have made, says it will be even better when more of his pitchers get into shape. Clyde Schar, Bill McGee and Newell Kimball have been late in getting into condition.

Anaheim, Calif. — Sam Chapman, who has driven in ten runs during the Athletics' exhibitions against minor league opponents, leads the squad in the unofficial batting average with .454. His ten hits in 22 times up include three two-baggers, a triple and a homer.

Miami Beach, Fla. — Beset by an epidemic of blistered feet, Doc Prothro predicted today that Nick Etten probably would be the only Philly to stay the limit in today's scheduled game with the Giants. The others probably will see only a few innings' duty.

St. Petersburg, Fla. — Phil Rizzuto, star Yankee rookie shortstop, has received notice from his New York Draft Board to report to the St. Petersburg Board for his physical examination. He'll take it today.

Pasadena, Calif. — An influenza epidemic in the Chicago White Sox camp has caught up with catcher

MILLAR'S RINK WILL PLAY FOR ELGIN TROPHY

Match Committee Chairman of Sherbrooke Curling Club Tops H. A. Peabody 12-7 —Caledonian Trophy Final Tonight.

Scoring a 12-9 victory over H. A. Peabody, Bruce McD. Millar, Chairman of the Sherbrooke Curling Club Match Committee, earned the right to take his rink to Montreal to represent the club in play for the Elgin Trophy on March 25th and 26th.

In addition to the Elgin Trophy final at the Sherbrooke Club, a Royal Caledonian Trophy playdown match was played between R. T. Atto, of Lennoxville, and J. P. Watson, of Sherbrooke, the Lennoxville rink winning by a 13-4 count. The final will be played tonight between H. A. Peabody, of Sherbrooke, and Atto, of Lennoxville, to decide which rink will represent the district in Montreal.

E. T. SKI ZONE HOLDS RACE AT MOUNT ORFORD

Large Number of Competitors Expected for Downhill on Power Trail on Sunday Afternoon.

For the first time in the history of skiing a race is to be held on Mount Orford. The Eastern Townships Ski Zone of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association will sponsor a downhill event on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, and it is expected that large numbers of skiers from all over the zone will take part.

This race was made possible by the work of the Eastern Townships Playground Association which was instrumental in having ski trails built on Mount Orford during the summer of 1940. It was explained today by W. L. McGannon, Chairman of the Eastern Townships Ski Zone.

The Power trail, which runs from the top of the mountain to No. 1 Highway, terminates at Power's farm. The lower portion of this trail will be used on the race, which will terminate only 300 yards from the Highway, but in order to traverse across the field, spectators will require snowshoes or skis as the snow is very deep.

This will be an open closed meet. In other words, as far as the Eastern Townships Championship is concerned, as it will be open to skiers in this section only, but there will be on hand Harry Pangman, Chairman of the Laurentian Ski Zone, who represented Canada twice in the Olympic Games, and several other "A" skiers who will take part in the race, and they will spend Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning inspecting the ski trail on the back of Mount Orford which was laid out by Hermann Smith Johnson and is reputed to be the fastest and trickiest ski run in all of Canada. There is a very good drop of 1,900 feet and its length will be less than a mile and three-quarters.

It is expected that skiers who formerly went to Mount Washington in the White Mountains for skiing in the months of April and May will now do their skiing on the back of Mount Orford, on the run which is known as the "Three Creeks Trail."

The race is under the supervision of the Mount Orford Ski Club of Magog and a large entry is expected. It is hoped that each competitor will get a good view of the racers. The course is three and one-half miles past Magog on No. 1 Highway.

The Bruins, whose brilliant late drive nipped Toronto for the Prince of Wales Trophy, thus earned first choice of ice in their series. Following the opening match, the teams again square off in Boston March 22 before traveling to Toronto for March 25 and 27 games. As necessary, the next three will be played in Boston March 29, Toronto April 1, and Boston April 3.

Detroit, who similarly gained first choice over the fourth-place Rangers, elected to start at home and swing to New York for a second match March 28, returning to Detroit March 25 if a third game is necessary. Chicago also chose to start at home against the sixth-place Canadiens, with the next matches slated for March 22 in Montreal and March 24, in Chicago.

Cinderella team of the season, Detroit gained what is regarded as the cushiest playoff spot in clinching third berth. One of the top giants, Boston or the Leafs, is bound to be knocked out in their opening clash. The third-place club meanwhile gets the breaks of home-ice choice, and supposedly easier opponents, in their opposite route to the Cup final.

Bruins Cop Prince Of Wales Trophy By Defeating Amerks

All Decks Clear for Stanley Cup Action in National Hockey League—Jousting Opens on Three Fronts Next Thursday—Boston Makes It Three Titles in Row by 8-3 Rout of Americans—Wings Shade Hawks 3-2.

All decks were clear today for Stanley Cup action in the National Hockey League.

With only five days left in the lengthy schedule, Boston Bruins and Detroit Red Wings clinched last night the final two doubtful positions for the world championship.

By holding the Hawks to two tallies, rookie Johnny Mowers of the Wings remained ahead with 96 scores against him, while Boston's Frankie Brimsek fell into third place with 96—one more than the idle Walter (Turk) Broda of Toronto. Each has two more games to play, with Boston and Detroit facing each other in both their contests.

Detroit was extended at home for their triumph over the Hawks, with Bob Carso and George Allen scoring for Chicago and Don Grosso and Mud Bruneteau for the Wings in the first two sessions. A goal by rookie Bill Jennings decided the match with the last period.

At New York meanwhile, the Bruins romped through the Amerks, with Bill Hollett scoring two goals to set the pace. Others went to Woody Dumart, Bill Cowley, Milt Schmidt, Bobby Bauer, Art Jackson and Roy Conacher while Norm Larson, Bus Wycerley and Buzz Boll counted for the hapless Americans.
