DEBATE ALLIANCE OF COMMUNISM AND NEW COMMONWEALTH PARTY

Henri Bourassa, Independent Member for Labelle, Warns that Quebec Cannot Accept Radical Doctrines—British Columbia Independent Also Fears New Party Principles—Conservatives Claim New Party Is Communist, With Progressives Holding Opposite Views.

Ottawa, February 3.—If the Co-Operative Common-Wealth is not Communism, what is it? That is what Conservative speakers in the House of Commons want to know.

The debate begun Wednesday by J. S. Woodsworth, president of the Co-Operative Common-Wealth Federation and Labor member for the Winnipeg North Centre, has turned into an argument as to whether the principles of the Federation are identical with Communism. Conservatives say they are. Federationists indignantly deny it. Liberals say nothing.

Both sides will have a chance to think up further arguments over the week-end, for today the House turns to Government business and may make a start on the estimates.

The Co-Operative Common-Wealth would replace capitalism with state control, argued J. Earl Lawson, Conservative member for West York, yesterday. The only country in the world which has complete state control is Russia, and Russia has Communism. Hence the two were the same.

"Absolute rubbish," said E. J. Garland, U.F.A. for Bow River.

It was foolish to try to connect the C.C.F. with Moscow, claimed Angus MacInnes, Labor member for Vancouver South. "If the two were the same why did the Communists oppose Mr. Woodsworth in his elections?" asked H. E. Spencer, U.F.A. for Battle River.

While so far the Liberals have taken no part in the debate, the two independents in the House, Henri Bourassa, of Labelle, and A. W. Neill, of Comox-Alberni, came out flatfooted against the Co-Operative Common-Wealth yesterday.

Mr. Bourassa was unsparring in his criticism of the present economic conditions, but saw no hope in a system which would destroy individual liberty. It was the "exploiters of capitalism" that were at fault.

Mr. Neill took the ground some of the principles involved in the resolution were pure Communism and he was not ready for such a jump in the dark.

"It is all very well," said Mr. Bourassa, "to talk of the present evils, and I am absolutely in accord with my friends to the left, Progressives, that the picture they have given of those evils is not exaggerated. I am also in accord with them that the present political and economic system has proved a failure to correct those evils and we must look for some remedy."

"They cannot expect us, on the other hand, in looking at those evils and thinking of those remedies to forget other things which are as dear to us as the possession and retention of wealth, as the settlement of economic problems, and that is the preservation of those objects for which we have struggled for years and years and even centuries; the preservation of our civil liberty, of our municipal laws, of our religious and political institutions, of our culture, if you like, although I think that it is not much in danger in our day, of our French culture. I claim that the preservation of the racial and cultural characteristics of the Province of Quebec is a necessity for the preservation of a Canadian nationalism."

FALSE CHEQUE ACCEPTED BY BANK IN BEAUHARNOIS

Unidentified Man Escaped in an Automobile — Eluded Police Officers.

Beauharnois, Que., Feb. 3.—Presenting a cheque to the amount of $600 at the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, a man, so far unidentified, obtained $250 and fled before it was discovered the cheque was false. The man escaped in an automobile and was chased by Chief of Police Lamoureux and Constable Montpetit, but the red traffic light at Valleyfield caused them to lose sight of their quarry.

In Montreal the news was flashed over the police radio system and soon afterwards Sergeant-Detectives Bourdon and Dumais located the automobile. The auto belonged to a large company and the driver proved to the detectives' satisfaction that he had not even been on the south shore all day. Word was sent back here to the effect that the wrong licence number had been given Chief Lamoureux.

MORE REAL MUSIC LOVERS IN NORTH AMERICA THAN IN EUROPE

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 3.—Myra Hess, noted English pianist, thinks there are more real music lovers in North America than in Europe, because Americans do not care "a whoop" for musical tradition.

Here to play as a guest with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, she told interviewers today there is an appreciable difference between audiences on this side and abroad.

HECTOR VERRET, OF COATICOOK, NAMED SUPERIOR COURT JUSTICE

Prominent Member of Bar of St. Francis Elevated to Bench to Fill Vacancy Created by Resignation of Mr. Justice L. E. Panneon—Appointment Is Token of Recognition of Faithful Services Rendered to Both Bar and Public—Batonnier of Local Bar Pays Sterling Tribute to New Appointee.

To the long list of eminent Eastern Townships jurists who have graced the Judicial Bench and conventionally administered the tenets of British jurisprudence was added yesterday the name of Hector Verret, K.C., of Coaticook, whose appointment as Justice of the Superior Court was exclusively announced in yesterday's second edition of the Record. Early yesterday afternoon the announcement was made from Ottawa that the successor to Mr. Justice L. E. Panneon had been named in the person of one of the oldest members of the bar of St. Francis, and the acclaim which the selection was greeted with was tangibly demonstrated by the shower of telegrams of congratulation which flooded the quiet home of the unassuming barrister.

The richly-deserved honor was bestowed on Mr. Justice Verret as a token of recognition of the faithful services the judge-elect has rendered his country as a lawyer and politician during the past two score years. Admitted to the Bar in August, 1895, His Lordship has practised in the Eastern Townships during the past thirty-five years and has earned the enviable reputation of an honest and conscientious advocate. It was at first understood that Mr. Justice Verret would sit in Montreal, but later communications have divulged the information that Mr. Justice Joseph Archambault would be transferred to the metropolis and be replaced in the District of St. Francis by the new appointee.

Perfectly conversant in both languages and possessed of an intimate knowledge of the mentality of the Eastern Townships, Mr. Verret is a gentleman whose broad-mindedness in practice and loyalty to his conferees have combined to make him one of the most beloved members of the local Bar Association. In the many cases he has been linked with during his practice, Mr. Verret has revealed himself as a fine pleader and a capable orator. In politics, His Lordship has always been in the forefront of every election, not only in his county, but in all parts of the Eastern Townships. Always ready to answer the call of duty, the sixty-one-year-old attorney is both genial and congenial, and has shown on many occasions his good heartedness, particularly on behalf of those in distress.

"The Bar of the District of St. Francis is delighted with the appointment," Charles DeL. Mignault, batonnier, told the Record in discussing Mr. Verret's elevation. "The Bar takes pleasure in the fact that one of its members was appointed, and because the nomination is a just reward for the long services Mr. Verret has rendered to both Bar and public."

Over half a century ago hundreds of intrepid Irish pioneers left the Old Soil to settle in North America. Their pilgrimage concluded disastrously, a large portion succumbing to the terrible disease which broke out aboard the vessel which transported them to Canada. Among the survivors were two young girls, the Donnelly sisters. One of these, Miss Bridget Donnelly, later married A. H. Verret, provincial auditor, and of this union six children were born.

Today this venerable old lady, now eighty-one years of age, is the proud mother of the newly-appointed judge, Hector Verret, the oldest member of the family, was born in Quebec on August 17, 1852. Educated at the Quebec Seminary, the young man continued his law studies at Laval University, from which institution he graduated with the B. C. L. degree in 1884. A year later he was admitted to the Bar and began the career which was so deservedly crowned yesterday.

La Malbaie was the first endroit that the young advocate selected. In 1897 he took up residence in Coaticook.

PICTOU HOUSE SAID TO HOLD CRIME SECRET

Chief of Police Awaits Definite Instructions to Search Homestead for Relics of Murder in Quincy, Mass.

Pictou, N.S., Feb. 3.—Police stood guard over the Bowen homestead here today as Chief James MacLander awaited orders to search for Harry Riddell's money and a blood-stained suit believed to have been worn by youthful John Alfred Bowen the night the Quincy, Mass., baker was murdered.

Bowen, seventeen year old native of Pictou, who returned here after the crime, was taken back to Massachusetts on an order for extradition granted by Judge George Patterson to face a charge of murder. Yesterday Chief MacLander was informed that the youth had confessed, stating that he had buried Riddell's money in the yard of his parents' residence in Pictou and his own suit in the cellar.

But the chief's information was unofficial, and he said he would not touch anything until he received official orders.

Meanwhile the house and premises are being watched closely in case somebody else might start a search for the money.

Riddell was struck down in his bakery on Halloween night. After Bowen returned to Pictou he was arrested on a technical charge of vagrancy and held until the extradition order was granted. His confession yesterday implicated John T. Daly of Quincy and that youth also is charged with murder.

HITLER FORCES SHOW DEFIANCE TO COMMUNISTS

Five Thousand National Socialist Shock Troops Reviewed by Prince August Wilhelm—Catholic Parties Take Issue With Hitler.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—In silent defiance of Communism, 5,000 National-Socialists marched in review last night before Prince August Wilhelm and Count Wolf Hendrick Von Helldorf, their Berlin leaders, through the city's main street where a Nazi policeman was slain Monday night.

Police armed with carbines patrolled the district, and halted and searched pedestrians. Householders were told to keep within their houses and stay away from windows, which were not to be opened.

Persons found in the streets in this dark and dismal quarter were greeted with "hands up" and were searched for weapons. They were required to produce identification papers.

For more than an hour the Nazis marched through the district but there were no disorders.

CATHOLIC PARTIES VOICE OPPOSITION

Berlin, Feb. 3.—The powerful Catholic parties took their first thrust today at Chancellor Adolf Hitler with the allegation that President Paul Von Hindenburg was led into dissolving the Reichstag on the basis of false information and that they refused to tolerate the Hitler cabinet.

Monsignor Ludwig Kaas, leader of the Catholic Centre, in letters of protest to the Chancellor and the President said Hitler's junker-Nazi cabinet deliberately broke with the Centre at the height of negotiations, before the dissolution decree was granted by the President.

CALGARY'S POSITION SERIOUS

Calgary, Feb. 3.—Possibilities of the city of Calgary becoming bankrupt were admitted by Mayor Andy Davidson yesterday when he appeared before an arbitration board investigating the city's request that wages of city police and iremen be reduced ten per cent.

Because of the financial difficulties the city had encountered, said the Mayor, it undoubtedly would be "faced with municipal bankruptcy and the prospect of being forced into the hands of a receiver" unless conditions improved.

COATICOOK MAN FATALLY HURT LAST EVENING

Verdict of Accidental Death Returned at Inquest into Death of Armand Boucher, Who Was Crushed Under Heavy Log.

Coaticook, Feb. 3.—Crushed beneath a heavy log, Armand Boucher, twenty-three years old, of this place, met instant death last evening. An inquest held by Leonidas Bachand, coroner for St. Francis District, resulted in a verdict of "accidental death."

Boucher, employed by Pierre Boucher, trucker, was unloading logs in the yard of the Gilmore Chair Company, which is controlled by Kilgour Ltd., of Beaufort, when the accident occurred. According to the testimony of Adrien Pelouin, 19, of St. Edwidge, who was working with Boucher at the time, six logs had been unloaded, and Boucher was standing on top of the pile in the truck when the lumber loosened and slid off. Boucher fell to the ground and a heavy log rolled across him. He sustained a fractured back.

Dr. Birs, of Coaticook, was called to the scene of the mishap, but Boucher was beyond medical assistance.

The juryman at the inquest presided over by Leonidas Bachand were Alfred Rousseau, Alcide Drolet, Alexis P. Dupuis, Art. Bertrand, Henry Lavoie and J. A. Boivin.

PETER VERIGIN LEFT MONTREAL FOR MARITIMES

Spiritual Leader of Doukhobors Due to Arrive in Halifax Tonight, and as Soon as Possible Will Be Placed Aboard Ship for Russia.

Montreal, Feb. 3.—Peter Verigin, spiritual leader of the Doukhobors in Canada, today was nearing the Maritime Provinces. He is due tonight at Halifax from where he faces deportation to his native Russia.

Verigin, hurriedly across Canada, was taken quietly from immigration headquarters here last night and motored via Victoria Bridge to St. Lambert, where the Canadian National Railway train to Halifax makes a brief pause. He was placed on board and early today passed through Lewis.

While the Leader was going east by train two of his lieutenants, and his lawyer were winging their way from Western Canada in an effort to hold a discussion with Verigin before he shakes the dust of Canada from his feet. They hoped to arrive in Halifax in time to see him before immigration officials place him on board a ship headed for Europe.

Leader of the Doukhobors for the past five years, Verigin has been in Prince Albert jail for the past nine months. He served half of an eighteen-month term for perjury being released unexpectedly for deportation.

OTHER DEPORTEES HEADING FOR HALIFAX

Levis, Que., Feb. 3.—Some seventy deportees today were speeding to the Maritime Provinces to be placed on board trans-Atlantic liners at either Saint John or Halifax or both.

The group, it could not be learned who they were or what sex, passed through the railway station here last evening, it was learned.

MUST RETURN TO RUSSIA

Blaine Lake, Sask., February 3.—Gathered here from several Saskatchewan communities, and with British Columbia representatives due soon, Doukhobor leaders today awaited official word from Ottawa on a petition sent Dominion immigration authorities. The leaders, in a telegraphic petition, urged that Peter Verigin, their fifty-year-old spiritual leader now being deported to Russia, be permitted to designate his own destination.

Unofficially, it was reported the plea could not be granted. Under the Immigration Act a subject deported from Canada must be returned to the country of which he is a national. Verigin came from Russia in 1927, and the department must follow the act and return him to his native country.

LEAGUE URGES BOLIVIA AND PARAGUAY TO CEASE FIGHTING

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 3.—The League of Nations Council today adopted an urgent appeal to Paraguay and Bolivia to employ all necessary efforts to stop the fighting in the Gran Chaco and conclude an armistice.

OVER A MILLION IN U.S. STUTTER OR STAMMER

New York, Feb. 3.—More than a million children in the United States suffer from the ages of five and eighteen suffer from stuttering and stammering, says Dr. Elizabeth McDowell, of Columbia University.

Some 300,000 children in the public schools are in need of special programmes of speech improvement, she says, if they are to make a satisfactory adjustment to normal lives.

NINE WOMEN PERISHED WHEN FIRE SWEEPED A CLEVELAND SANITARIUM

Rescuers, Working Frantically, Succeeded in Removing Several Patients Down Ladders Quickly Hoisted to Second Floor Windows—As Workers Dug in Debris for Bodies, Dr. William Glendenning Branded Fire as of Incendiary Origin.

Cleveland, Feb. 3.—Nine women psychopathic patients who fled in panic before flames that destroyed a dormitory at Ridgecliff Sanitarium in suburban Wickliffe early today were burned to death despite heroic efforts of nurses to rescue them.

All of the bodies had been recovered eight hours after the fire broke out, but most were charred beyond recognition. The ruins were still smoldering when Dr. William Glendenning, husband of the sanitarium's superintendent and a staff physician, branded the fire as of incendiary origin. At his request police and fire marshals took into custody for questioning a Chardon farmer with whom he said hospital physicians had been in dispute.

Dr. Glendenning asserted the farmer had threatened his wife with death and yesterday telephoned the institution's office and said: "I'll get even if it kills me."

The bodies of Mrs. Isabel McBride, sixty years of age, of Westerville, Pa., and Miss Lorane Dean, seventy-six years old, of East Cleveland, were identified six hours after the fire was discovered as one o'clock this morning. Six other patients remained unidentified.

The shriek of the terror-stricken women, all suffering from nervous or mental disorders, rent the chill night air as the flames ate rapidly through the frame dwelling. The smoke and heat soon became so intense that entrance to the cottage, in which twenty-four women patients and three sanitarium employees slept, became impossible.

The fire was discovered by M. L. Smith, a male nurse, who spread the alarm. Two nurses, Mrs. Ethel Craig and Miss Florence Farrell, quickly led seventeen women sleeping in the three upstairs rooms down the stairs.

They had succeeded in reaching the hallway when lashing tongues of fire ate up through the floor. Several patients, panic stricken, broke away from the nurses and fled back up the stairs.

Rescuers, working frantically, succeeded in removing them down ladders quickly hoisted to second floor windows.

Mrs. Virginia Glendenning, superintendent of the institution, said the fire caused a damage of about $10,000. She said all of the twenty-three women patients would have been saved had they comprehended the danger and walked out quietly.

Among the known missing were: Mrs. Lottie Roback, 32; Miss Helen Kovack, 49; Mrs. Agnes Dorrington, 78; Mrs. Fannie Lofton, 54; Miss Ethel R. Zipp, 24; and Mrs. Mary Bennett, 73, all of Cleveland or suburbs.

Firemen worked desperately to keep the sparks of the burning cottage from spreading to two other cottages located about five hundred feet from the blazing structure. Fire officials said some of those accented for were found wandering about the grounds fat from the cottage. They expressed the hope some of those missing might similarly be located.

RUBBER PLANT EXPLOSION BRINGS DEATH TO TWO MEN

Providence, R.I., Feb. 3.—Two men were killed and two others injured today when an explosion, followed by fire, wrecked a one-story brick structure at the United States Rubber Company in which coverings for golf balls were made.

AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS ENGAGE ATTENTION OF PROVINCIAL HOUSE

Debate on Women in Industry Postponed Until Tuesday at Request of Opposition Whip—Government Member Advises Change in System of Colonization—Increased Aid to Wheat Producers Asked—Important Measure Governing Instalment Selling Introduced.

Quebec, February 3.—In a quiet sitting members of the Quebec Legislative Assembly yesterday debated agricultural problems instead of engaging, as had been expected, in a debate on the employment of women in industry and commerce.

Aime Guertin, Conservative member for Hull, requested postponement until February 7 of the debate on the motion by J. A. Francoeur calling for production of documents relating to women industrially employed. "There is something behind this debate," said Mr. Guertin, and he wished time to prepare his address. The request was granted and the debate postponed to the suggested date.

The House then listened to an address by Pierre Gagnon, Liberal from Kamouraska, who suggested the Government might better concentrate on encouraging the clearance of land for farming purposes in central counties instead of establishing urban unemployed in far away sections of the province.

Hon. Emile Moreau, Minister without portfolio, called for Government encouragement to farmers attempting to increase wheat acreage.

WOULD PROVIDE HIGHER REVENUES FOR SHERIFFS

Quebec, Feb. 3.—Readjustment in the fees charged by the sheriff in each judicial district is made in a measure which Premier Taschereau has before the Legislature. Such revenues go to the fund for the upkeep of court houses and gaols. At present the sheriff charges one per cent. on the amount levied at execution against the municipal valuation. This is to be changed under the present legislation so that the one per cent. shall be charged on whatever amount be the higher, viz., whether it be the sum levied by the sheriff under the execution or whether it be the price of the municipal valuation. The increase consequently comes when the levy is on the municipal valuation, since the one per cent. will be in future on the whole valuation and not on half that amount.

If the immovable is not valued for municipal purposes, the Provincial Treasurer shall value it himself, and the one per cent. apply on his valuation.

Quebec, February 3.—As a measure of encouraging holders of mortgages on farm properties to hold their hand in the matter of enforcing their mortgage rights, Paul Sauve, Conservative M.L.A. for Two Mountains, has introduced a bill before the Legislature which provides that the prescription on registered mortgages and mortgages based on annual rentals shall not take effect for five years after the end of the present year. In the case of all other mortgages, the suspension of prescription is for an additional two years beyond the present year. As matters stand now, mortgage holders can protect themselves and, of necessity must protect themselves against prescription by either taking for all periods of two years of the Civil Code in the matter. This, however, involves expense to the mortgagor ultimately, and so that the holder of the mortgage may not have to take legal proceedings he will now be protected as to his rights for the period of two years. This is providing a "right of Mr. Sauve goes through."

MEASURE GOVERNS SALES ON INSTALMENT SYSTEM

Quebec, Feb. 3.—Believed to embrace both the demands of the merchant and the landlord, Lucien Dugas, M.L.A. for Joliette, has introduced a bill into the Legislature regulating the system of instalment buying in this province.

Merchants will continue to be protected in their rights when selling goods on credit, yet in some instances registration, though of a simple nature, will be required. Their rights will be safeguarded against third parties, such as landlords, for the period of two years. Landlords will be enabled to get more security in the matter of rental defaults by paying the merchants the balances due on articles sold on credit, and adding such payments to the total due for rent by tenants. A minimum first instalment is exacted. Mr. Dugas' bill effects a compromise between the proprietors' demands and the rights of merchants.

The seller, to keep his right of property in the article sold, must:—
A—When it is a matter of articles de luxe, such as automobiles, pianos, radios, phonographs, exact an initial payment of at least 20 per cent. if the sale price is less than $100; 10 per cent. if the sale price is more than $100 but under $1,000, and five per cent. if the sale price exceeds $1,000.

EXTRAVAGANCE DENOUNCED BY QUEBEC JUDGE

Acting Chief Justice Albert Sevigny Apparently Reaches Limit of Patience When Lawyer Seeks $20,000 Fee.

Quebec Feb. 3.—The professional services rendered Dr. Michel Brunet by Allexis Taschereau, K.C., were valued at $20,000.00 by Acting Chief Justice Albert Sevigny in a judgment rendered in Superior Court.

Dr. Brunet was condemned to pay Mr. Taschereau the balance of $8,886.00 due on that amount. Mr. Taschereau had claimed a balance of $20,000.00 in his action.

"The plaintiff admits that the facts in the Brunet case were simple," said Mr. Justice Sevigny. "The questions of law were difficult and important ones. If it is the practice to be paid fees elevated as the amount claimed in this action, I do not hesitate to state that they are exaggerated. Exorbitant prices charged by manufacturers, merchants, farmers, laborers and professional men is one of the main causes of the present depression."

"Let us recall the exorbitant prices charged for merchandise and produce, even for the necessities of life; let us recall the exorbitant salaries demanded by all classes of people. The cost of living, the temptations of the automobile, the thirst for travel, the increase in speculative values, all contributed to an inflation of real values. Professional men did the same as everybody else. You cannot find anyone to throw the first stone. The claim of $20,000 by the plaintiff strikes me as an example of the race at which the world was travelling and the prices which were in vogue. Present conditions warrant a higher remuneration than that which existed twenty years ago, and I am taking that into consideration in the judgment which I am called upon to render in this case, and I am of the opinion that $8,886.04 is a fair compensation for the work accomplished."

Dr. Brunet was charged with murder in 1927, but this charge was later reduced to manslaughter. Dr. Brunet was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, but after several years of court proceedings, during which Mr. Taschereau took the case to the Supreme Court, he succeeded in having the doctor released on ticket-of-leave.

Insurance firms ready to carry French ships. News is cheering, as much anxiety was felt, due to destruction of French liners by fire.

London, Feb. 3.—Business men cheered today by an announcement that the British insurance firms were ready to renew underwriting of the twenty-four large vessels owned by the French Messageries Maritimes, despite major claims made upon them during the last few years through destruction of French liners by fire.

The burning of the Messageries ship "Atlantique" in the English Channel a few weeks ago is under investigation by the French Ministry of Marine.

Woman miner leaves for North Country gold area. Will join Indians and white men who have been taking out as high as fifteen dollars a day in placer gold.

Victoria, Feb. 3.—Tired of cities with their talk of depression, Mrs. F. Munster, only independent woman deputy mining recorder listed in the British Columbia Mines Department, left here today for Squaw Creek, close to the Yukon-Alaska boundary, in the Athlone mining district.

She will take in a team of sleigh dogs and supplies to the Creeks where many Indians and a few white men have for some time been taking out as high as $15 a day in placer gold. Discovery was made in 1928, but by reason of the Creeks' isolation it has escaped all but indifferent attention.

REVOLT OF SIX YEARS IS OVER IN NICARAGUA

Promise of Peace Made in a Sensational Manner by Noted Rebel Leader.

Managua, Nicaragua, February 3.—A promise of peace after six years of revolt against the American-advised governments of Nicaragua was left behind today by the colorful General Augusto Sandino as he headed back to the mountain headquarters of his army.

The importance of his message was almost forgotten in the excitement caused by the sensational manner in which he delivered the luxury. His visit was a complete surprise.

A plane from his northern jungle retreat arrived here yesterday with the commander, his father, and three political allies. With an automatic pistol swinging on his hip, he walked into the Presidential palace, sat down with President Juan Olaneta Saca and made his pledge of peace.

Then the man who had hunted and been hunted by Nicaraguan native soldiers and United States marines since 1929 entered the luxury particularly for him, of a night's sleep in the palace.

He had often said that he would persist in his sanguinary struggle until the last United States marine had departed from Nicaragua. The United States marines, who for most of nineteen years had been stationed in Nicaragua, completed evacuation of the country within two days after the inauguration of President Saca, on January 1.

Only a few days before the last marines left, more than twenty were reported slain in an engagement between native guards and Sandinistas. A few isolated engagements since caused considerable doubt whether peace was at hand.

Butter or booze means nothing to gangsters. Finding hijacked truck containing food and not liquor, hold-up men sold product in neighboring town.

When five gunmen hijacked a truck loaded with butter near here last night they were quite philosophical about their error.

"We expected a load of alcohol," said one of them to Homer Shaffer, driver of the truck, "but I guess we'll have to take the butter and sell it."

The truck was found later in Cicero. There was not a pound left of the original load of eight tons of butter.

Claims United States to benefit by settlement. Japanese Ambassador at Washington Outlines His Country's Policy in Strife With China.

New York, Feb. 3.—Katsujii Debuchi, Japanese ambassador at Washington, declared here today that, of all the western nations, the United States will derive the greatest benefit from the "economic regeneration" of Manchukuo.

Outlining his country's policy in her strife with China over the Far Eastern state, he told the New York State Chamber of Commerce that the United States would enjoy an increased volume of trade as soon as Manchukuo becomes economically sound.

Insurance firms ready to carry French ships. News is cheering, as much anxiety was felt, due to destruction of French liners by fire.

London, Feb. 3.—Business men cheered today by an announcement that the British insurance firms were ready to renew underwriting of the twenty-four large vessels owned by the French Messageries Maritimes, despite major claims made upon them during the last few years through destruction of French liners by fire.

The burning of the Messageries ship "Atlantique" in the English Channel a few weeks ago is under investigation by the French Ministry of Marine.

KING'S VIEWS ON NATIONAL ANTHEM GIVEN

Order, Intended to Result in Standardization of National Anthem, Authorizes Slower Tempo in Playing.

London, Feb. 3.—What does the King think of the National Anthem, which so insistently falls upon his ears? The question has often formed the subject of genial discussion, and is to some extent answered by a new army order, issued at the express wish of the King.

This order, which is intended to result in the standardization of the playing of the National Anthem, authorizes a slower tempo in playing. There has hitherto been a great variety in the styles of playing the National Anthem, and it was felt by the musical authorities that the publication of a new score showing how it is played by the best of the army bands, would be helpful to conductors generally. There is no alteration of the harmony, but there is some re-arrangement of the instrumental parts.

With the exception of the substitution of "king" for "queen," which was instituted on the death of Queen Victoria, in 1901, the present is the first alteration in the National Anthem authorized by military authority for forty years.

Mysterious death near Montreal probed today. Body of Henri Langevin taken from fifteen inches of ice on shore of Riviere des Prairies.

His son, aged 19, was subsequently detained by provincial police as a material witness for the inquest. The elder Langevin had been missing from his home at Ste. Genevieve, Que., since January 15.

The autopsy will take place today, with the inquest probably on Saturday.

Challenge legality of penny foreclosure sale. Mortgage holder takes case of farm mortgaged for $2,750, which realized only $4.96, to Illinois court.

Urbana, Ill., Feb. 3.—The legality of "penny" foreclosure sales of mortgaged farm property was placed before Illinois courts.

The first legal test of the recent corn belt series of forced sales, dominated by crowds of neighbors, bent on protecting farmer debtors, involved property mortgaged for $2,750, which brought $4.96 at an auction Tuesday.

Ransom note is received after girl's body found. Fifteen-Year-Old Daughter of Rockaway Beach Contractor Attacked and Beaten to Death.

Mineola, N.Y., Feb. 3.—A letter demanding $1,000 ransom for the return of his fifteen-year-old daughter was received here today by James J. O'Connor, Rockaway Beach contractor, a few hours after the girl's body was found in a lonely Long Island woods yesterday.

The girl, Mary Helen O'Connor, had been assaulted and beaten to death. Two wounds on her head appeared to have been inflicted with the rounded end of a mechanic's hammer.

The ransom letter was signed with one finger print. The girl disappeared on January 27th.

APPOINTED JUDGE

Hector Verret, K.C., of Coaticook, was named to the Bench yesterday afternoon to fill the Superior Court vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Justice L. E. Panneton.

He was made Kings' Counsel in 1910. In politics, Mr. Verret is a staunch and straight-forward Conservative, an adherent of the old school party, but was unsuccessful in his attempts to represent his adopted county in the Provincial Legislature.

Perhaps the most appropriate testimony of the esteem in which Mr. Verret is held was witnessed in Ottawa recently when a delegation of local members of the Bar interviewed the Minister of Justice on his behalf. Friends and political enemies joined forces in the petition, and Mr. Verret was unable to suppress the emotion occasioned by this testimonial.

The most colorful chapter in the new judge's legal life was the drama in which Harry K. Thaw was the principal figure. Thaw had slain Stanford White on the roof of a New York hotel and had evaded the law until he reached this country when he was taken into custody at Barford. Mr. Verret was commissioned to act for the State of New York in the extradition proceedings, with Firmin Campbell, another lifelong friend, representing the Canadian government.

Mr. Justice Verret has two brothers and two sisters. They are Charles Verret, advocate, Dr. Bernard Verret and Blanche, Mrs. Azahie Lemieux, all residing in North Dakota, and Evelyn, Mrs. Nelson Vergé, widow of the treasurer of Quebec City. His mother at present makes her home with Mrs. Vergé. His youngest brother, Bartley Verret, was drowned at the age of twenty-three years.

In 1900 Mr. Justice Verret was married to M. Mathilde, daughter of Chief Justice, Hon. Sir Francois Lemieux, of Quebec. Of this union were born two daughters, Lucienne, Mrs. Albert Desilets, of this city, and Irene, who passed away in infancy.

The monthly meeting of St. Paul's Guild was held on Wednesday, February 1st, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Morrow. There was a large attendance. Mrs. Cuming, the newly elected president, was in the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. It was decided to have a collection box placed on the table at all the meetings for voluntary donations towards the social service work, as a very considerable sum is spent each year on this object. During the afternoon the members were busily engaged in doing fancy work. The meeting was closed by the rector saying prayer. Afterwards tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mr. Gladys Johnson, Mrs. Alvia Wootton. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alma Coates.

Hockey, men vs. young ladies, postponed till February 6th.

A SETBACK TO AMALGAMATION OF RAILWAYS

Senate Committee Accepts General Recommendations of the Duff Royal Commission That Reviewed Railway Situation.

Ottawa, Feb. 3.—Amalgamation of Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways received a decided setback here today when a Senate Committee accepted the general recommendation of the Duff Royal Commission that reviewed the railway situation.

With only one dissenting vote, the committee endorsed the preamble of the bill incorporating the report of the Commission and in effect accepted the principle of closer co-operation between the two systems, a board of trustees to manage the Canadian National and an arbitral board to settle points in dispute. The bill has not been reviewed by the Senate as a whole or the House of Commons.

Senator Raoul Dandurand, Liberal leader in the Upper House, and Senator Murdoch, one of his followers, crossed words during the sitting. Senator Dandurand charged Senator Murdoch with representing "special interests"—the railwaymen. Senator Murdoch countered with the charge Senator Dandurand represented the bankers. The incident closed without an arbitral board being formed.

EATON FUNERAL OF MRS. GEORGE MERRILL. Eaton, February 3.—The absence of Mrs. George Merrill, whose death occurred at the Sherbrooke Hospital, is keenly felt by a large circle of friends, not only in Eaton, but in many other sections of the Eastern Townships.

The large number of friends who attended the funeral, which was held on December 31st, from the residence of her son, Martin Merrill, of Lennoxville, bore testimony to the high esteem in which she was held.

She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing husband, one son, Martin, a daughter, Beryl; two sisters, Ellen, Mrs. E. Wilson, of Waterville, and Hattie, Mrs. Henry Smith, of Bulwer; four brothers, Joseph Martin, of Moe's River, James Martin, of California, Levi Martin, of Brookbury; and John Martin, of Ayr's Cliff; and one granddaughter, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Before her marriage Mrs. Merrill was Eliza Jane Martin, one of a family of nine children. She was born at Martinville on July 2, 1873. Her death occurred on December 29th, after a week's illness, although she had been in poor health for the past year.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Bunt, of Birchton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Matthews, of Lennoxville. Favorite hymns, "Will the Circle Be Unbroken" and "Saved by Grace," were sung by Miss Willard and Miss Thelma Crawford. The bearers were Jose, Levi and John Martin, brothers, Henry Smith, brother-in-law, and B. J. Kingsley and S. J. Gilman, old friends of the deceased. The many beautiful floral offerings also testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Interment was in the Eaton Cemetery.

PRESENTATION TO MEMBER OF FARNHAM LODGE

Presentation Made to Mrs. A. Longtin Prior to Departure from Farnham—Other Societies Met—Newsy Items of Interest from Farnham.

Farnham, February 3. — About thirty-five members of the Women's Association assembled at the Canadian Pacific Railway station and went in a body to the home of Mrs. M. J. Clark to give a surprise party to Mrs. Archie Longtin prior to her departure from Farnham for her new home in St. John, N.B. Mrs. Longtin has been a member of the Women's Association and of the former Ladies' Aid for a number of years, having served four years as president, several years as secretary, and during other less responsible offices, during which time she carried out her work in a highly efficient manner.

This party was a surprise to her and all were made cordially welcome and spent some time in social intercourse with Mrs. Longtin under the supervision of Mrs. Kenneth Pattullo a two hour "all star" programme was featured, consisting of humorous readings, given by Mrs. Walter Gibson, Mrs. Clair Brown and Mrs. T. H. Riddick; recitations by Mrs. Charles Hase and Mrs. K. Pattullo; Scotch songs by Mrs. David Thomson, recently of Kirkcaldy, Scotland, also by Mrs. M. J. Smith in Gaelic. Mrs. Charles Cook delighted those present by a number of solos of which she was the composer, one of these being "The Lazy Aids". All present took part in the singing of a number of old time songs, and a tableau and dialogue was given by Mrs. Fred Braddock and Mrs. J. Caldwell. This entertainment caused much merriment and the evening was spent in a very quick and happy manner. Mrs. M. J. Clark presided at the piano for the singing.

Among those present was an honorary member of the association, Mrs. John Scott, who had known Mrs. Longtin all her life. All were pleased to have Mrs. Scott with them once again. A special feature of the evening was the presentation of a lovely silver tea set, consisting of four pieces, suitably engraved, to Mrs. Longtin from the members of the Women's Association. The presentation was made by Mrs. M. J. Smith, president of the society.

Mrs. Longtin appreciatively expressed her thanks to all for the lovely gift and her regrets at her departure, adding to her remarks, "I wish that she might serve tea to them all, in her new home, and the lovely tea set just given to her." Another surprise of the evening was the presentation by Mrs. M. J. Smith on behalf of the members of the Women's Association to their hostess, of a very prettily decorated birthday cake surrounded by numerous sentiments of the evening, were burning brightly when presented to Mrs. Clark upon this occasion in honor of her birthday. Mrs. Clark in a few words thanked all for the gift and which was later included by Mrs. Clark's wishes in the refreshments of the evening, these being served about midnight by a capable committee appointed by the Women's Association.

The many friends of Mrs. Longtin deeply regret her departure with her family from Farnham, having resided all her life in Farnham and spent the past thirty years in this one house. She leaves many friends, neighbors and acquaintances to wish her happiness in her new home.

THAT "LIKE THE DICKENS" FEELING IS LIVER

Wake Up Your Liver. Feel Fit. You Needn't use Calomel To Do It.

It's your liver, failing to pour out the vital two ounces of bile, daily by your bowels, that makes you feel so off-color. Lack of bile means poor digestion. Food stays too long in your bowels and decays. Your system is poisoned. You go through the misery of gas, bloating, pain, heartburns. You have a dark brown ammonia taste in your mouth and bad breath. Your skin's unhealthy and often your head aches. Your whole system seems out of kilter. Use only the reasonable expect to clear up a condition like this by merely taking salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum, or roughage! These things make you feel that's not enough. You must wake up your liver.

UNITED CHURCH MEETING HELD AT ULVERTON

Officers Elected and Reports Submitted at Annual Meeting of Congregation of Ulverton United Church.

Ulverton, Feb. 3. — The eighth annual meeting of the Ulverton United Church was held in the church with a good attendance. The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn by the congregation, followed by Bible reading and prayer by the pastor, Rev. H. R. Bursey. The minutes of the previous meeting were then read by the secretary, A. P. Kerr, and approved. Rev. Bursey presented his report, which showed four baptisms, twelve burials and four marriages in 1932. In a short address Rev. Bursey spoke appreciatively of the splendid co-operation of the officers who assist him in his work here; of the untiring efforts of the very efficient organization, Miss C. F. Dunkerley; of the willingness of the Young People's Society, and their great help and of the helpful work of the Sunday School and their faithful superintendent, A. G. CHURCH GUILD HELD MEETING AT COMPTON

Annual Report of St. James Church Guild Reveals an Active Season—Year's Work Reviewed and Officers Elected.

Compton, Feb. 3. — The annual meeting of St. James' Guild was held in the Guild room Wednesday, January 25, thirteen members and four visitors being present. The prayer, and the usual routine business was carried through. The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted. These showed a most successful year's work. The rector thanked the guild for their splendid help and co-operation and urged them to approach the election of officers in the right spirit, endeavoring to choose the most suitable person for each post.

Balloting was then proceeded with and resulted in the following being elected: President, Mrs. Lomeroy; first vice-president, Mrs. Lundberg; second vice-president, Mrs. Edwards; secretary, Mrs. Spafford; treasurer, Mrs. A. Brown; honorary president, Mrs. Eardley Wilson; convener of cupboards and supplies, Mrs. Lundberg.

Instead of a work committee it was decided to give each member two rights, viz., endeavoring to choose the most suitable person for each post.

A delicious tea was served by Mrs. Carr and was much enjoyed by all. The next meeting was arranged for February 8, in the guild room.

Reviewing the year's work, the secretary stated that there had been ten regular meetings held, and the following items arranged: In March, a St. Patrick's tea and musicale, in May a salad tea and sale, in June a card party, and in November the Christmas sale.

The main undertaking of the guild for the year was paying for the repairs on the tower of the church. The guild room floor was also repaired and the room redecorated and the chairs put in order. The insurance on the church was paid by the guild, and fifty dollars donated to the judges.

Gifts of flowers and fruit were sent to some members who were ill, and a shower of preserves given for the president after the loss of her home by fire. Some unsold toys were donated to the Junior Red Cross.

Money for supplies had been given to the Sunday School, and a Christmas tree for all the children of the parish, with entertainment and tea, was most successfully arranged under the direction of Mrs. Gill and Mrs. Lundberg and provided a happy conclusion to a very satisfactory year's work.

HUMAN SIDE OF THE RAILWAY PROBLEM IS THE SELFISH SIDE.

It is shortsighted of the railway men to think there is any thought of destruction of the railways system, when they claim that the human side of the problem has been given no thought or consideration. They must realize that they are on a sinking ship, and that all are compelled to disembark and plug the holes and the big leaks.

Prime Minister Bennett was both incisive and outspoken when he told the protesters at reorganization that the Railway has become as the "Old Man of the Sea," a phrase which aptly described the situation as far as the citizens of Canada are concerned. This phrase is not from Barnacle Bill the Sailor, but from the story of Sindbad.

The railway unions are to blame in that they have not been helpful with any ideas even in the many years when they knew that the bottom was falling out of the railways manned by their members. Insofar they are to blame. At times they have overloaded the trains with crews not required.

We instance the case of a new device on the C.P.R. in the Maritimes. A boss painter on the road, with the aid of the engineers devised a spray painting device for the telegraph poles and station outhouses, which he and another man could easily operate as would the section men with their handcar. But because the propelling power was a small gas engine the unions demanded that the hand car have also a conductor and an engineer on board so that they might have a quiet smoke as the spraying device stopped for a few moments at every telegraph post.

Surely these men and their surplus crew were but as Old Men of the Sea mounted on the back of the painters.

Next to Mr. Beatty's suggested amalgamation the pronouncement of the Prime Minister is the most important of the present day, and we can only hope that his warning proves the keynote for the prompt solution of this calamity.

We are ready to accept it as significant of a promise which will be implemented by some form of responsible amalgamation under ownership free of commissions and responsible only to the Parliament and the people of Canada. We do not require irresponsible go-betweens.

We have suffered for long years. We may have to sacrifice much to get on a solid footing. Yet our suffering will have been good for us all if it but teaches the lesson once for all that a political and public operation of services is beyond the capacity of any kind of changing government.

When we went into the railway business we should have elected a parliament of railway men, and when we go into the electric business we do not do well to select directors of small calibre instead of electrical experts.

As old man Euclid said: Q. E. D.

ANOTHER GREAT INDUSTRY NEEDS THE SERUM OF INITIATIVE.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce is in unison with Premier Taschereau in his diagnosis of the ailments of the pulp and paper industry in Quebec Province. He has joined up in more clearly piercing the veil lifted by Mr. Taschereau at an after-dinner speech a few months ago.

Money and mechanism was poured into one of our richest industries, and there was a lack of brains and executive capacity. The public were invited into an investment on the strength of long years of prosperity and of safe investment in such companies as the Laurentides.

There was an expansion in the installed capacity of the pulp mills whilst demand was falling off. Millions of dollars worth of stock were floated down the stream of money plenty.

To-day the industry suffers from these growing pains. Over-expansion means loss. The Quebec Premier thought showed that whilst the output capacity had trebled, the apparent money investment had sextupled. So that there were tributaries up which the money disappeared, even as though someone had found a way to make pulpwood run upstream.

In 1926 the mills were running 95 per cent. capacity, and output was behind.

In 1927 operation ratio fell to 85 per cent. with an addition to daily output.

In 1928 and 1929 there were further additions to capacity tonnage with new mills, but the output fell heavily, and in 1929 the decline really began, the mills running to but 69 per cent. capacity.

In 1930 two big new mills started up, one near Ottawa, and another at Dalhousie, N.B., both together adding a capacity of 700 tons of paper each day and the working output fell to 88 per cent. of capacity.

In 1931 there was an additional capacity of daily tonnage, but the actual output was but 44 per cent., and several mills had to close down. Here we have the rapid rise and the quick fall of the newsprint industry.

In 1928 the price was $70 a ton, and now it is around $50, with incipient price-cutting in some places.

Pulp and paper-making is in Canada a billion-dollar industry, but it must have some of the water squeezed out of its stock and then be put in charge of men who know that business is dependent on individuals rather than upon million-dollar mechanism.

YOUNGER MEN WITH COURAGE ARE WANTED.

Youth and energy are required in our civic affairs—some of the younger men who are not bound up in prejudices and biased by their failures.

Younger men have broader ambitions and are not trying to be subtle and secret, nor yet have they a fondness for subterfuge or artifice.

William Pitt, the Younger, was Prime Minister of England at the age of 21, and he carried Britain through the most trying period of her history—during and after the Napoleonic wars. Perhaps one of the greatest failures in the premiership of England was the Duke of Wellington, who thought to manage civil affairs as he would military problems.

Sherbrooke needs a lawyer at its Council tables, preferably one who is not tied up to precedent and procedure, but one who has ideas and the public spirit to watch over affairs.

In the offing this city has now many claims for damages to settle with property-owners chiefly through a careless over-riding of invested rights. Mistakes have occurred which would not have happened had there been a legal mind at the helm.

Courage and audacity we can always admire in our legislators, civic, provincial or federal, and too few of our younger men are trained to study public affairs.

Older men are prone to shrink from criticism, but the young man enjoys it, for he knows that it is better to be criticized for what he may do than to be ignored or unnoticed.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

Wilfrid Funk started something when he quoted these words as the most beautiful in the English language: dawn, hush, lullaby, murmuring, tranquil, mist, chimes, harmony, golden and melody. We don't quarrel with any of them except, hush. But equally beautiful words could be selected from names of plants and flowers, as thyme, violet, honeysuckle. Or of birds as mavis, linnet, goldfinch, pheasant, nightingale. Or of water features as rill, rivulet, stream, cascade. But perhaps some of the beauty of the thing itself is reflected in the name. J. V. McAree compiles a list of words in which he includes the word "ugly" and the name of Funk.

Canadian exports to Australia in the nine months of the statistical year showed an increase in value of $1,743,025, a tidy little amount due to the Imperial Conference at Ottawa. This included an increase of ten times the amount of cotton fabrics as compared with the same period in 1931, and an increase of $823,000 in motor cars. They bought newsprint to the value of $1,468,508 from Canada.

"By their votes shall we know them," and not by their talk. There is a straight way out of the railway embroglio, and all such talk of the parliamentarians as occurred over the Imperial Conference will not please the listening taxpayers. There's a plan, and only one business plan, outlined by practical railway men. That is the plan of quick relief.

The Health Committee of the City bought an incinerator that was so old when it was built that it smelted decayed from its start.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From the Files of the Sherbrooke Record. February 3rd, 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Armstrong, formerly of Sherbrooke, decided to move to Newport Heights, California, where for twenty years they have lived in a residence fittingly called "The Sherbrooke." Mr. Armstrong died in September, 1931, at the age of eighty-six and a half years. Mrs. Armstrong is still a reader of the Record, and says: "I would miss the dear old paper. I read every word of it, even the ads. It is so like an old friend." The venerable lady has several relatives and nephews in Sherbrooke, including E. J. Page, Dr. F. H. Bradley and Edward Bradley. In a sweet letter to the Record, Mrs. Armstrong admits to 80 years, and writes like an eighteen-year debutante, and says: "We saw Sherbrooke grow from a village to a thriving city."

The wearing of a gown by a visiting minister at the Dominion Methodist Church, Ottawa, led to the formation of a society at the Capital to repress all innovations tending to change the simplicity of the form of worship of the Methodist Church in Canada.

The officers of the Congregational Ladies' Aid gave a largely attended "at home" at the residence of Mrs. Philip Hovey, the hostesses including Mrs. E. S. Foss, Mrs. Fred Hovey, Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Mrs. T. E. Read.

A. C. Skinner, manager of the People's Telephone Company, announced that his company was about to install a vastly improved type of phone which would require no ringing-up or ringing-off on the part of the subscribers.

H. M. Tomlinson won a "points" competition at the Curling Club, leading by a wide margin over his nearest opponents, A. H. Foss, W. M. Tomlinson and C. H. Bowen.

Mary Ann Mills, said to be the oldest woman in Canada, died at her home in Stratford, Ont., in her 115th year.

Visitors in town included Mrs. Redfern, Winnipeg, a guest of Mrs. J. C. Robins; Master Roy Watts, Windsor Mills, with the family of William Lord.

Every street car in the city of Montreal was idle, owing to a strike of over a thousand motormen and conductors.

Arthur F. Proctor, civil engineer, arrived for a few days' visit among old friends, prior to leaving with Mrs. Proctor for his new home in Sydney, Man.

RECORDINGS

By Ted Bullock.

Because I bawled for more snow recently, and got it, too, a reader from North Hatley sends me a reproachful poem in somewhat free verse:

"A few old-timers still live in Quebec Who say, something's wrong with the Winter, by hec, They want it 40 below With mountains of snow, That's old-fashioned stuff for Quebec."

Old-fashioned or not, I still like a stormy winter. It gives a fillip to the imagination, sets up a stirring in the blood, which you will not find in the balmy moonlit summer evenings.

It lifts you out of your humdrum little routine of work, play, food and sleep. It makes you more alive.

Just to walk to work in the morning when a storm is blowing exalts you. The wind whips at your cheeks, the snow stings your chin, your topcoat snaps about your knees.

You get the illusion, for the time being, that you are not on your way to a desk in a warm office.

You are carried back in spirit to the sturdy days when Canada was not a problem in economics and sociology but a wide, free land where men were individuals and, as individuals, battled nature without gloves for a living.

On just such mornings as this the early French fur-traders, lithe, dark fellows, in homespun and fur, plodded through the forests to bait their traps.

They took the climate as they found it, and laid the foundations of a civilization where they had nothing to work with but their own courage and sturdiness, and a few crude tools which would be worse than useless today.

When the storms that slapped at them slap at you, you forget that you are just a chip carried along in the complex machinery of an artificial civilization. You feel that you are a Canadian and that the courage of your ancestors is still in you, even if your opportunities for applying it are few and hard to come by.

You realize that, if you were pressed to it, you could make a living for your family, just as they did for theirs.

Then you can laugh at the so-called depression.

You know that, even if the machinery of your reputed civilization goes smash under you, you have nothing really important to lose: you might even gain a manliness and resourcefulness which would do your soul good.

You cross one of the city's bridges, and a cold blast from the water burns your ears.

In the recesses of your memory a long-forgotten compartment flashes open.

You are a boy of ten. You are standing in a yellow pew in the little stone church you used to attend.

You hear the loud, clear voice of the fat boy who was your friend. He is dead now, the war got him. But still his voice rings out above the ragged, quavery tones of the others.

"Eternal Father, strong to save.... There is a blank, then. You do not remember exactly what comes next.

But the last line of all sounds in your ears.... for those in peril on the sea."

You were a landlubber then. You had never seen the ocean, had yet to be the intimate of men who go down to the sea in ships.

But even then there was a thrill in that hymn which was more a prayer for the careless, rough, unafraid men who battle the waves and the winds of the deep.

You pause on a Sherbrooke sidewalk, and you catch your breath for a moment.

This very storm is howling off the rough New England coast.

You remember a bald item you saw in the Record the other day: "New York. A hero of the sea came to port today with 22 men he had saved from a sinking British freighter in mid-Atlantic, but he would have none of the credit for the feat which old seamen had hailed 'remarkable.'"

"The slim young master of the 'American Merchant,' 35-year-old Giles Chester Steadman, stayed in his cabin while harbour craft of all kinds set up a din of noise—New York's welcome.

"It was the accuracy of a radio direction finder, he said, that saved those men...."

Long after you have reached your warm office you keep thinking of the things the storm outside brought to your mind.

You do not get ideas like this when it is raining, or when the streets are filled with slush.

Mary—Teacher, may I be excused from lessons this afternoon? We are going to have company. Teacher—I don't believe that comes under any of the rules grant-

Letters to The Editor

DOES CANADA NEED ANOTHER TEN MILLION POPULATION?

To the Editor, Sir:—Far be it from me to enter into a discussion with you on economy generally. But I do like to be able to understand the life of reasoning, or logic, behind a statement such as you have made several times. For instance you claim another ten million population would be the salvation of Canada. As you do not offer any facts to back up your opinion, I offer you facts to prove that the reason Canada has withstood the world-wide depression better than any other nation is because we have only ten million population. In other words, this small population is under today's condition the salvation of Canada.

Like the man who is having a hard struggle to support a family of five, where would he be if he had ten?

Large populations under the conditions that have existed for the past three years have proved the salvation of any city or nation.

The United States is regarded as the richest amongst the nations. They have today ten millions of unemployed! Exactly the number you want, and right next door! The United States would gladly let you have them. But you don't want unemployed men. In fact, you don't want men at all.

You are not interested in them as men, or population. What you have in mind is purchasing power, isn't it? Well, Canada cannot afford to increase the social problem that would be involved by trying to get this by the route you are advocating.

If a large population would benefit Canada, why does it not benefit the United States, Russia, China or even England? What your object is are markets for what we do produce. Markets—what Japan is defying the world to get. This is the meat in the nut you are trying to crack.

Well, I believe the Hon. Mr. R. B. Bennett has done more toward finding a real solution to your problem than any other man. He has successfully put over the policy, or pact, or whatever you want to call it, whereby Canada will not gain only increased markets of ten million, but fifty million, without increasing the social problem in a real sense.

How any sane man can oppose the great work he accomplished, on party or any other lines, is beyond me. I note also in recent speeches he proposes to go after the spendthrifts in the country, that he realizes the gravity of the situation. I was reading the "Record." Any way, I hope for the reasons set forth that you don't persuade him to let that ten million loose over here for a little while at least. If you would consent I would like to hear the opinion of a few more of your readers on this subject.

Thanking you in advance, believe me to remain, Yours very truly, J. E. LOCK.

MILBY CHURCH MEETING HELD; OTHER NOTES

All Liabilities of Milby Anglican Church Liquidated—Ladies' Guild Held Meeting.

Milby, Feb. 3.—The annual vestry meeting of the St. Barnabas' Church Milby was held after the weekly service. In spite of icy roads the attendance was good. The minutes of preceding meeting were read by Miss Boyce, vestry clerk, and found correct. The financial statement was given by T. Harrison treasurer and showed a small deficit, which was at once wiped out by the guild members present. This action of the guild enables the congregation to commence the present year with no arrears. Rev. A. J. Oakley thanked the wardens, organist and guild for their assistance during the past year. Church officers appointed for 1933 are as follows: wardens, Walter Kirkpatrick, re-elected, and Oscar Boyce; sexton, Nelson Machel; W. Powers, Mr. Raymond, Mr. Bowers; auditor, Miss Sylvia Burton; synod delegate, Messrs. Kirkpatrick and O. Boyce; janitor, Mr. McPherson.

LADIES' GUILD MET

The annual meeting of the Milby Ladies' Guild took place immediately after the vestry meeting. The financial report was read by Miss Miriam Deware, showing a balance on hand of over thirty dollars but with some bills not paid. This was passed as satisfactory. The officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Boyce; vice-president, Mrs. Earl Wilson; secretary, Miss Jennie Machel; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond. All outstanding bills were ordered to be paid, the balance in hand being found sufficient for this. The president invited the guild to meet at her home on the following Wednesday. This concluded the business.

PRESS COMMENT

REIGN OF TERROR IN RUSSIA

St. Thomas Times-Journal. Mr. Stanley Oliver, in his very able and illuminating address at Alma College on Soviet Russia, omitted to tell of the massacre of thousands of educated Russians at the inception of the Communist regime for no reason except revenge and because of their intellectual superiority over those whose terrorism, when they seized control, surpassed the worst under Czarism. No effort at description of present-day Russia is complete without a faithful review of these revolting mass crimes that were quite as ferocious as the atrocities of the French Revolution.

QUEBEC MINES SHOW INCREASE IN PRODUCTION

Asbestos, Gold and Copper Production Up in December and Last Quarter of 1932—Building Materials Lower.

A marked increase in asbestos production during the past month over that of November and also over December, 1931, features the report of the Quebec Bureau of Mines.

The production for December, 1932, was divided as follows: No. 1 crude, 17 tons; No. 2 crude, 15 tons; spinning stocks, 425 tons; single stocks, 4,115 tons; paper stocks, 2,724 tons; waste, stucco or plaster materials, 1,777 tons; and refuse or shorts, 5,405 tons.

In December, 1931, the production consisted of: No. 1 crude, ten tons; No. 2 crude, eleven tons; spinning stocks, 650 tons; single stocks, 1,695 tons; paper stock, 2,166 tons; waste, stucco or plaster materials, 2,575 tons; refuse or shorts, 3,406 tons.

Last month the gold production in the province reached a record figure with 30,495 ounces.

Silver production showed little change in the three periods, the production being: December, 1932, 46,257 ounces; November, 1932, 46,248 ounces; and December, 1931, 46,915 ounces.

Despite the low prices prevailing for copper, the output of the Quebec mines was up substantially in December, 1932, when compared with the corresponding month a year ago, the production being 6,158,217 pounds and 5,497,529 pounds, respectively.

In the field of by-product sand and gravel fell from 499 tons in December, 1931, to 32 tons in December, 1932. The production of building materials reflected the depression in the construction trade.

The output of clay products fell from $598,805 in the last quarter of 1931 to $205,143 in the closing months of 1932 and lime production declined from 23,991 tons to 22,606 tons.

GOES TO JAIL WITH SPIRITS UNDAUNTED

Prisoners, if they must sing, generally do so when they are being released from jail. Irene Charon, of this city, sang as she went in. The prospect of fifteen days as the guest of Governor Charest did not dampen her spirits. She was arrested last evening on Wellington street north on a charge of vagrancy, and this morning, when she appeared before Recorder Forest, she pleaded not guilty. Proof of her guilt was made, however, and when the Recorder passed sentence of $10 and costs or fifteen days in jail she did not appear to be pleased.

But after an outburst or so, she got over it. She began to sing. And when a Recorder reporter visited Marquet street headquarters this morning she was still singing.

"That," said Secretary Henry Boisvert, in way of explanation, "is Irene Charon."

The police car came along and took her away. She waved a cheerful greeting to the outside world and disappeared from view.

Two other women, Mrs. Oscar Camire and Mrs. Gervais Labrecque, also arrested for vagrancy, pleaded not guilty. Their hearing was postponed to next Friday.

Mrs. Gagnon testified that on December 28th she found the two locks on her hen coops broken and eleven hens and one rooster missing. She estimated her loss at $15.

ENTERTAINED THEIR MOTHERS LAST EVENING

Mothers were guests of the members at last night's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club held at the MacKinnon Memorial. After full justice had been done to the delicious supper, which was served at long tables arranged in the club room, a short business meeting took place. Later a short but delightful musical programme was enjoyed by the members and their guests. The items consisted of a vocal solo, "At the End of the Cobblestone Road" sung by Miss Eleanor Wheeler, who kindly responded to an encore, and a vocal trio sung by the Misses Molly Harvard, Eleanor Wheeler and Betty Harvard. Entitled "Shanty in Old Shanty Town," Mr. Malcolm Turner acted as accompanist.

The informal gathering was a most enjoyable affair, the mothers seemingly appreciating very much the arrangements made for their entertainment.

MAYOR FOREST RETURNS PROM PLEASANT HOLIDAY

With a broad smile on his face and apparently in the best of health and spirits, His Worship Mayor Forest made his appearance at the City Hall this morning. His Worship has been enjoying a pleasant holiday in Bermuda, and only returned to Sherbrooke at an early hour this morning. When he entered the City Clerk's office he found a real cosmopolitan reception committee awaiting him. This comprised the City Clerk, the chairman of the gas and electric committee, the road superintendent and the Recorder representative. The Mayor said that he had enjoyed every moment of his trip, but gave ample evidence that he was glad to be home again. After the crowd had dispersed the Mayor and City Clerk were left alone. Drawing their chairs together they became engaged in a quiet, serious talk. His Worship apparently wanted to get "brushed up" on the administrative activities since he left his

INTERESTING ADDRESS ON GRAIN EXCHANGES

W. Hubert Ames delivered an interesting talk on grain exchanges, their origin and their functions before the 1's Men's Club last evening. His Worship Mayor Forest made his appearance at the exchange established in London a hundred and fifty years ago, and the subsequent establishment of similar depots in grain producing countries of the world, and also in the large buying countries of Europe.

Mr. Ames emphasized the fact that grain exchanges filled a very important part in the commercial world, and claimed they acted as a protective association for the farmer, eliminating all gambling. He also touched upon the pegging of prices, claiming that this interfered with the natural law of supply and demand. "The pegging of prices in the United States," he said, "brought a loss of $500,000,000, and the loss to Canada in two attempts to 'peg' the market was also disastrous."

The speaker was introduced by H. Griffith, and thanked for his address by Howard Moffatt.

ROADMASTER IS REMEMBERED BY MANY FRIENDS

George Couture, Brewster Street, Feted on Occasion of Retirement from Quebec Central Railway After Fifty - One Years' Service

In recognition of the services he has rendered the Quebec Central Railway during the past fifty-one years, a social gathering was held at the home of George Couture, Brewster street, when a large number of fellow employees and friends united to commemorate Mr. Couture's retirement from active duty. For the past twenty-three years Mr. Couture has been roadmaster of the Sherbrooke division of the Quebec Central Railway, and he has received a well-earned pension from the company he served so efficiently for the last half century.

The quiet home of Mr. and Mrs. Couture provided the scene for the enjoyable reunion. The evening was spent in music and singing, and the guest of honor was made the recipient of a cabinet of silver cutlery, while Mrs. Couture was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Before the party broke up, F. H. Hibbard, on behalf of the assembled guests, made a brief address in which he complimented Mr. Couture on the interest he had shown towards his company. In reply, the retiring roadmaster expressed his sincere gratitude for the surprise party and thanked his many friends for their cordial good wishes.

Mr. Couture's resignation comprises the final chapter to an active life. In May, 1881, he entered the service of the Quebec Central as sectionman at St. Anselme. Eight months later he was promoted to the rank of chief sectionman at Levis, and subsequently was transferred to St. Henri de Levis. When the construction of the road between St. Jockenzie and Ste. Justine was started, Mr. Couture was placed in charge, and in 1910 was named roadmaster in Sherbrooke, the post he has filled until his retirement.

Among those present at the social gathering were F. H. Hibbard, J. McKenzie, James Arnold, J. Bator, J. R. E. Mosher, P. Kayser, J. E. Vallee, E. Tyler, J. N. Hibbard, W. C. Dustin, M. A. Workman, G. MORE HORSES BEING USED IN LUMBER CAMPS

Continued Lack of Snow in Quebec Woods Proving Handicap to Lumber Operators — Old Dobbin Comes Back into His Own.

Continued lack of snow in the Quebec woods is proving a severe handicap to lumber operators, and is eliminating the use of tractors and tracks, with the result that horses are being used more than is usual at this time of year.

But Old Dobbin was destined to come back into his own this year, snow or no snow. Reports from the New Brunswick lumber woods this season indicate that the low price of feed and the decrease in wages have combined with the high cost of gasoline to practically banish the motor tractor from operations this winter. It is safe to presume that conditions are much the same in various sections of this province. If a lumberman decides that it will cost less to haul with sleigh and horse than with tractor, it is logical to expect him to use the horse. And anyway, there has not been sufficient cold weather and snow to permit the use of tractors. The heavy motors require hard, frozen grounds on which to operate safely.

Due to the lack of snow and cold water one particular lumber operator finds himself in an embarrassing situation today. He received an order recently for a million feet of lumber. The cut was made eighteen miles in the woods and a road for trucks was built. However, there has not been sufficient frost to freeze the swamps and harden the road. Consequently the lumber has not yet been moved. This state of affairs has existed for about a month now. The distance is too far for horse and wagon or sleigh.

Lumber activities in this part of the province are reported to be slow. Many mills are at a standstill, and operations are being carried on at a much lower rate than last year. Optimism is felt among operators, however, that the question of monetary exchange between Canada and Great Britain will be smoothed out in the near future and enable greater dealings with the United Kingdom.

SNOW WELCOMED IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Fredericton, N.B., Feb. 3.—Snow which gladdened the heart of employer and lumberjack alike inasmuch as it has enabled them to commence the season's hauling operations, has also produced a greater demand for draught animals than in the past two years for lumber work. "Shore" in Charlotte County. The demand for teams was noticeable in this district this week, and together with it there was a considerable decrease in the wages offered for teams and teamsters. With the completion of yarding and the beginning of hauling and work on the brows, a shift in the wood's personnel of various concerns, calling for double or treble the number of teams, took place. Conditions are good for hauling, and while a few operators will finish before the end of the present month, most will not complete their winter's work until around the middle of March.

AMERKS SCORED EASY VICTORY OVER CANUCKS

Simpson Squall Gained on Entire National League by Shutting Out Canadiens—Three Other Fixtures Ended in Deadlocks—Americans Now in Second Place.

Toronto, February 3.—"Forget the past, or win success by wearing blinkers," that old golfing masterpiece by Walter Hagen, or maybe it was Bobby Jones, adorned the library shelves of New York Americans today.

All the unpressing features of an early-week visit to Toronto, during which the Maple Leafs meted out unmerciful punishment to the Montreal Canadiens in hockey, were forgotten, fortunately, when Americans got back home.

Last night, wearing the unpatented "new outlook" of all the unruffled Hagens, the Americans turned on the Montreal Canadiens and shot a sub-par five to nothing triumph into the records.

There is nothing uncommon in feeling the dispirited Canadiens, but the manner in which "Bullet Joe" Simpson's outfit wielded the big club was worthy of even such surprising entertainers as Americans.

As the three other tussles ended in deadlocks, the Americans gained on the entire league. Bill Brydger, the old Port Arthur sailorman, lent a generous hand in the triumph.

The Montreal Maroons, needing a win over the Rangers to keep abreast of Americans, only managed a two-all tie at home. Butch Keeling batted a shot past goalie Dave Kerr late in the third period to clinch the knot.

Doug Brennan, bumping Ranger defenceman from the Pacific Coast, set up a new penalty record in the second period, spending just about all this spasm on the sidelines.

The single point the Rangers carried out of the conflict matched the one the Detroit Red Wings earned at Boston and kept the two teams tied for first place in the American group.

Both goals were scored in the first period. Marty Barry netting on a solo rush for Boston and Carl Voss from a pass by Slew Evans.

The Ottawa Senators, bolstered at defence by Harvey Rockburn, held the Chicago Black Hawks to a one-all tie at Ottawa. Rockburn, obtained from Windsor of the International League, teamed up with Harold Starr on the defence to give goalie Bill Beveridge better protection than a Senator netman has enjoyed in many weeks.

Frank Finnan rammed in Her Kilrea's pass for the Ottawa goal in the third period, and Art Coulter, Hawk defenceman, matched it nine minutes later on a double pass from Tommy Cook and Paul Thompson.

STATISTICS OF CITY BOWLING LEAGUE GIVEN

Molson's Squad Captured Championship Held by Royal Hotel for Past Two Years and Became Holders of Coveted Mathurin Trophy.

The Molson's sextette today are the proud holders of the Mathurin trophy, emblematic of the City Bowling League championship, as a result of their convincing victory over the Royal Hotel in the final matches for the coveted trophy.

Molson's captured the initial playoff fixture by a margin of 111 pins, and added another seventy-four-pin advantage in the final contest to earn the cup which their opponents had held for two years.

Statistics for the season just brought to a conclusion reveal that the standard of bowling in this circuit has ameliorated considerably. Vic Brownlow led the trundlers with the best average, 181.26, to win the prize offered in this division.

The individual average figures are as follows: V. Brownlow, 181.26; A. Poole, 177.28; A. Jobel, 177.17; E. Harton, 175.34; A. Roy, 175.4; G. Mathieu, 174.19; L. Mackel, 173.41; G. Gosselin, 171.13; J. O. Dufresne, 171.12; J. Strickland, 171.11; J. Bernier, 171.11; G. Lemay, 171.5; J. Katadotis, 170.1; R. Gagne, 169.3; A. Roy, 168.1; G. Roy, 168.21; G. Pinard, 165.1; O. Rose, 163.19; A. Filion, 162.10; A. Savage, 161.18; B. McNab, 159.23; M. Cross, 154.4; M. Emmond, 154.20; A. Marceau, 150.11; H. Boucher, 149.3.

Armand Roy led his fellow Molson bowlers during the season with an average of 175.4. L. Maskell was the highest in the Royal Hotel ranks with 173.4; R. Bernier captured the Palace honors with 170.15, while A. Filion was the best New Bowler, with 162.10. G. Gosselin rolled the highest three strings, a total of 584, while E. Harton carried off the single-string laurels with an aggregate of 232.

The champions registered a total of 31,864 pins during the schedule for an average of 174.44. Royal Hotel had 31,137 pins to its credit or an average of 164.15, while Palace and New Bowling scored 29,535 and 27,753 for respective averages of 164.15 and 154.33.

Two aggregations from the latter town. In the first encounter, the Farnham Scouts inflicted a four to two defeat on the Bedford Juniors.

The Bedford seniors avenged their younger brothers in the second event, however, by pointing the Farnham Tuxis by three to one.

The Farnham line-ups were: Boy Scouts—Goal, Ronald Palmer; defence, Norman Standish and Kenneth Cavanaugh; forwards, Ellsworth Hase and Morris Clark; center Jerry Palmer; subs, Billy Pope and Norman Laumiller.

PUBLIC HEALTH IMPROVING IN THIS PROVINCE

Tenth Annual Report of Provincial Bureau Is Tabled in Assembly—Urges Extension of Health Units Throughout Quebec.

Quebec, Feb. 3.—The tenth annual report of the provincial Bureau of Health, tabled in the Legislative Assembly yesterday by Dr. Alphonse Lessard, reveals that the Province of Quebec rode high for the year ended June 30 last in regard to the all-important matter of public health. The report was submitted to Hon. Athanase David, Provincial Secretary.

With betterment of health, testified to by the lower death rates, there is to be noted the same trend elsewhere, namely, a smaller birth rate.

Credit for betterment, as far as the rural districts are concerned, is given to the establishment of the county health units, and Dr. Lessard, even in a time when the Government is sternly frowning upon any idea of additional expenditure, urges that these units be extended throughout the province.

With the report of the bureau on health conditions is also the report on demography, but this ends with the calendar year of 1931, and consequently is supplemented by the monthly bulletins which the bureau has been issuing since that time.

"During the year ending June 30, 1932," comments Dr. Lessard, "there was a marked improvement in the condition of the public health in this province, similar to that which has been noted in previous years. There was a time, not so long distant, when the losses from tuberculosis, infant mortality and infectious diseases were quite discouraging and neutralized, in large part, the advantage which accrued to us through our splendid birth rate.

This birth rate, however, for several years has been decreasing, as has that of every country. The decrease was barely noticeable until two years ago but since 1930 it has been more pronounced and although the Province of Quebec still enjoys the highest birth rate of any in the Dominion and still holds its place among the countries of the world with the greatest number of births in proportion to population, its birth rate has dropped to a figure of less than 50 per 1,000 a rate, never before recorded for this province."

SCIENTIFIC EXPERIMENTS MORE FUN THAN A CIRCUS

Toronto Professor With Tube of Liquid Air Feature of Annual Mathematical Society Vaudeville Show.

Toronto, Feb. 3.—Gargling liquid air and snatching goldfish, Professor John Satterly kept close to 1,000 students in laughter for an hour yesterday at the annual vaudeville performance of the Mathematics and Physics Society of the University of Toronto.

Using liquefied air, about 300 degrees below zero, Dr. Satterly used a new laid egg on a string and suspended it in the liquid air. Then he took it out and tapped it with a hammer. It splintered like a stone. The same thing happened with bacon.

Into the liquid air went two goldfish, and they were soon frozen stiff. One was laid on the bench. The other was thrown back in the aquarium. The first one broke in pieces at a touch, like a chocolate fish. The second one revived and was soon swimming around again.

After explaining how the liquid gas expands when taken internally, Dr. Satterly astounded the students when he took a big mouthful. He blew the liquid out again, however, and they sank back relieved. "Like water on a hot stove," it was explained. "A layer of gas prevents actual contact."

DEPARTMENT OF ROADS RETAINS UNBEATEN MARK

City Road Department Has Yet to Lose a String in Second Half of Industrial Bowling League Schedule—Canadian Silk Products Latest Victims.

The City Road Department is "cutting" up the Industrial Bowling League in much the same efficient manner that J. T. Martel's men keep the city streets in good condition. In the four games of the second section already played, the Road Department representatives have captured twelve strings straight without a single reverse.

Last evening Canadian Silk Products were the victims of their "steam roller" attack, and the three-string defeat which the civic employees inflicted raised their pin total for four games to the enviable mark of 10,579.

New Windsor maintained its hold on second place in the standing by securing a two-string verdict over Arcobucci, while the Electric Department continued its neck and neck race with the runners-up by downing Canadian National Railways by a similar margin.

In the fifth game of the evening, Pure Milk won the odd string in three from Kinkead's, who are tied with Canadian National in the league cellar.
