Extract from Act 8, Geo. V, Chap. 53.

Regulations to provide for one day of rest each week for employees in certain industries and hygiene in kitchens.

I.—Weekly day of rest.

1. The employees of hotels or restaurants and clubs to which the present regulations apply, are those who do manual labor either inside or in the dependencies of the above mentioned establishments, and include office employees and clerks. The above provisions however do not apply to waiters, bell boys and porters.

2. Cooks and their assistants and all other kitchen help, including those engaged in the preparation of food and in cleaning work, shall have one day of rest each week.

3. Waitresses excepted, all other female employees shall be entitled to two afternoons of rest each week, making a total rest of no less than twenty-four hours.

4. No employee shall have the right to dispose of his or her day of rest to replace another employee in another establishment, and any proprietor or manager employing a substitute under such conditions, with the knowledge that such person is making use of his or her day of rest to replace another employee, shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by article 4 of said Act.

5. The Hotel Inspector may verify the proper compliance with the above regulations, in what concerns the weekly day of rest, as often as he may think it necessary, and proprietors shall give him all information he may require. In order to prevent any trouble between proprietors and employees, the latter may ask for his mediation by submitting to him in writing all grievances respecting hours of labor and all other claims of a nature to bring dispute between employees and employers.

6. Male and female employees in hotel offices shall not be required to work more than twelve consecutive hours out of twenty-four.

II.—Hygiene in kitchens.

7. There shall be kept, in the office of each kitchen of the establishments coming under this act, a box containing the medicine, bandages and other articles required for first aid treatment, and one of the employees shall be instructed how to give first aid treatment before the arrival of the doctor.

8. Proprietors shall install in their kitchen and dependencies fire extinguishing apparatuses in case of small fires.

9. Any male or female employee suspected of being affected with a contagious disease, shall not be employed in any hotel, restaurant or club, unless provided with a doctor's certificate attesting that the state of health of such employee will not endanger the health of the public frequenting such establishment.

The Association of American Directory Publishers

PRESIDENT

H. J. FARNHAM, NEW HAVEN, CONN., U.S.A.

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT

G. W. OVERTON, CHICAGO, U.S.A.

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT

J. MARTIN GARDNER, TORONTO, ONT., CAN.

SECRETARY-TREASURER

THEO. F. SMITH, ST. PAUL, MINN., U.S.A.

The association of American Directory publishers is composed of reputable City Directory Publishers, organized for the general advancement of the directory business. Any person, corporation or firm engaged in business as owner and publisher of a City Directory in the United States or Canada, who shall qualify as competent to gather information and compile a City Directory and furnish satisfactory references, is eligible to membership.

The objects of the association are:

FIRST. The advancement of the Directory business and the improvement of Directories by the interchange of ideas and the exchange of experienced employees.

SECOND. To provide protection to the public against fraudulent advertising schemes which operate under the name of directories, and to drive unprincipled promoters of the same out of the business.

THIRD. To provide permanent and profitable employment to competent, industrious and honest Directory canvassers and compilers.

FOURTH. For the mutual protection and advancement of the established and prospective interests of all who may become members, by personal advice and assistance of members as may be mutually satisfactory, desirable or advisable, and by such other means as may, from time to time, be shown to be wise, proper and lawful.

$100.00 REWARD

Will be paid by the Association for the arrest and conviction of any person engaged in publishing, collecting or canvassing for any fraudulent or fake directory.
