

LEON TROTSKY, AS DICTATOR, HAS ORDERED ARREST OF LENINE, BOLSHEVIK PREMIER OF RUSSIA

Difference of Opinion Between Two Leaders—Premier Favored Moderation in Bolshevik Movement, While War Minister Wanted Continuation of Terror—Several Hundred Persons Were Killed in Fighting in Berlin—Government Mass Troops Ready to Enter City—Von Hindenburg in Capital.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
COPENHAGEN, Jan. 7.—Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik Premier of Russia, has been arrested at the command of Leon Trotsky, minister of war and marine, who has made himself dictator, according to a Moscow despatch to the Gazette, of Gothenburg, Sweden.

Trotsky was prompted to make the arrest because of a difference of opinion with Lenine concerning Bolshevik reforms, the despatch states. Lenine desired to effect a coalition with the Mensheviks or Moderates, while Trotsky wished to continue the reign of terror.

BOLSHEVIK TROOPS CLOSE IN ON VILNA.

(Associated Press Despatch)
WARSAW, Monday, Jan. 6.—Two regiments of Bolshevik troops are closing in upon Vilna, capital of Lithuania, on three sides. The force is said to be well armed and is less than twelve miles from the city. Agents of the Russian Government have established headquarters at Kovno, Grodno and Brest-Litovsk.

STREET FIGHTING IN BERLIN SANGUINARY.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—Several hundred persons have been killed in the fighting in Berlin, according to a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, but up to two o'clock this morning no details of conditions there had been received. The Government seems, at least provisionally, to be master of the situation. Early Tuesday morning the Berlin Government massed troops outside the city. The troops are ready to enter, it is said in the despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is reported to have arrived in Berlin. Street fighting has been particularly sanguinary, it is said, owing to the fact that the Spartans element has plenty of weapons taken from the munitions factories at Spandau. While the machine guns were firing and bombs were dropping, moving picture operators were busily recording the scenes enacted on the streets.

SAYS GARRISON ON SIDE OF GOVERNMENT.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
BASEL, Switzerland, Jan. 8.—The German semi-official Wolff Bureau, which was removed to Frankfurt when its Berlin office was seized by the Spartans, sent out a message today declaring that the Berlin Soldiers' and Workers' Council and the garrison of the city had placed themselves on the side of the Government. The Frankfurt General Anzeiger, on the other hand, declared that the Spartans continued today to occupy some of the public buildings. They easily gained control of the railways, the newspaper ads, and the employees ceased to run the trains.

Continuance of Hostilities Would Have Meant an Invasion of Germany—Amazing Feat of British Army When Fifty-Nine Divisions Inflicted Crushing Defeats on Ninety-Nine German Divisions—British Commander Pays High Tribute to Marshal Foch and Unanimity that Existed Between the Allied Commanders.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, whose report on operations from the end of April until the end of hostilities was made public here last night, pays a high tribute to Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allied armies.

In concluding his report the Field Marshal wrote: "At the moment when the final triumph of the Allied cause is assured, we and all others of the Allied and associated armies can look back on the years that have gone with satisfaction unimpaired by any hint of discord or conflict of interest and ideals. Few alliances of the past can boast of such a record. Few can show a purpose more tenaciously and faithfully pursued or so fully and faithfully realized.

"If the complete unity and harmony of our action is to be ascribed to the justice of our cause, it is due to the absolute loyalty with which the cause has been pursued by all those entrusted with the control of the different Allied armies which fought side by side with ours."

The report takes up in detail the fighting on various parts of the British front, which, the Field Marshal states, was carried on as a part of the grand plan of the campaign laid down by the Allied high command.

FIELD MARSHAL PAYS TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS

In Counter Attack at Battle of Scarpe Men from Canada Under General Currie Took and Held Important Positions.

(Canadian Press Despatch From Reuters, Limited.)

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Describing the battle of the Scarpe, and the retaking of Monchy Le Preux last August, Field Marshal Haig in the course of his despatch dealing with operations on the western front after the big German drive and the Allied counter attack says: "At three o'clock on the morning of August 3rd, the Canadian Corps, Lieutenant-General Currie commanding on the right of General Horne's first army, attacked the German positions astride the Scarpe river with the second and third Canadian Divisions commanded by Majors General Burstall and Lipsett, and the 51st Division. This attack, on about a five and a half mile front, closely supported by the third army left, was completely successful. By noon we had taken Wancourt and Guenappe, and had stormed the hill and village of Monchy Le Preux. The latter position was of great natural strength and well organized for defence, and commanded observation of much importance."

WONDERS OF NAVIGATION BY AIRPLANES

Sir F. H. Sykes, Chief of Air Staff, Tells of Achievements During the War and Vast Possibilities that May Be Expected in the Future.

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—Some of the wonders achieved in aerial navigation, and other wonders contemplated, were spoken of yesterday by Major-General Sir F. H. Sykes, chief of the air staff, in an address before the Chamber of Commerce.

General Sykes told how Paul D. Cravath and Oscar T. Crosby, American members of the inter-allied council, had been carried from England to Paris and back on the same day in four hours and twenty minutes.

It was asserted by General Sykes that in four months, between July and October, 207 trips were made across the English Channel. The mileage traversed was 3,085, and 1,845 passengers were carried, although flying was possible on only seventeen days.

The fatal accidents were surprisingly few, said General Sykes, the average being only one fatality in every 1,170 hours flown. Since January, 1916, three hundred and forty officers had lost their lives on the western front, nearly all of their deaths being due to battle. The total of hours flown was close to a million.

The difficulties of a transatlantic flight, according to General Sykes, were not so much endurance of machine and personnel, but of navigation, meteorology and wireless, and such a task should not be undertaken lightly. As for the future, the Government was looking forward to a weekly mail service to India, for which twenty-five machines would be required, and the charge of sending mail a few shillings an ounce. Another route contemplated was from Cape Colony to Cairo, for which airplanes and flying boats would be used.

Suggesting that airships might be adopted for long-distance flights, General Sykes said a German Zeppelin flew from Bulgaria to German East Africa, carrying twelve tons of ammunition. When the Zeppelin reached Africa and the commander heard that the force for which it was taking the ammunition had surrendered, the dirigible made the return journey, reaching home safely, having been in the air without landing for four days.

Night flying, according to General Sykes, is less liable to suspension than day flying, owing to weather conditions being more suitable. For instance, he said, it might be possible to make 130 night and only 100 day trips from London to the Rhine in a year.

The direction-finding wireless apparatus carried by airplanes was developed during the war, General Sykes said. The apparatus enabled machines to fly in all kinds of weather. The details of it remained a secret.

WILL LAY REAL GROUND WORK FOR PEACE TABLE

Authoritatively Stated that Plans for Settlement of Most of Important Questions are Still Very Indefinite.

(Associated Press Despatch)
PARIS, Jan. 8.—In formal conferences with entente statesmen which will lay the real ground work for the Peace Congress will begin on Thursday.

As the peace conference approaches the stages where important formal agreements, which will have an important bearing on final settlements, will be reached, there seems to be excellent authority for saying that plans for the settlement of the most important questions—the league of nations, the freedom of the seas and disarmament, are still very indefinite. It is true that several propositions are being put forward for the adjustment of these matters, but there is none having the color of official sanction.

PERSONNEL OF PEACE CONFERENCE.

(Associated Press Despatch)
PARIS, Jan. 8.—The peace conference, according to present arrangements, will open with an exchange of views of the ministers of the great powers concerning organizations and procedure. These exchanges are expected to take up the time from January 13 to January 18.

In the event of an agreement being reached on January 18, there will be a plenary meeting at which all the powers who broke relations with the central empires will be represented. At that time the definite composition of the delegations of each nation will be settled.

It is virtually certain that Great Britain, France, the United States, Italy and Japan will have five delegates each. Other nations, such as Belgium, Serbia, Greece, Roumania, and Portugal, will have three delegates. The countries which severed relations with the central powers, and did not engage directly in the war, will have two representatives.

The work of preparing the foreign office building for the meetings is going on actively.

MOVE MADE TO HAVE MR. TREMBLAY REPLACED AS CITY ENGINEER AT COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT

However, Nothing Definite Was Done, the Matter Being Left Over for Discussion at a Private Session of the Aldermen—Another Bill for the City to Pay as a Result of the Influenza Epidemic Here—Several Letters Were Read

A bomb was exploded during the initial session of the year of the City Council, held last night in the form of a move to have Mr. Thomas Tremblay, city engineer, replaced. However, the result of the damage done will not be known for some time, owing to the fact that after a short and sharp argument it was decided to postpone any definite action until the matter had been fully discussed by the City Fathers behind closed doors.

A number of the aldermen were quite anxious to have matter settled immediately, but others did not care to discuss Mr. Tremblay's good or bad qualities before the public. The question of replacing the present city engineer has been under consideration for some time.

The subject was brought up by Ald. Skinner, who pointed out that the citizens for some time had been demanding that the streets be paved and the aldermen had reached the point where they were willing to meet the demands of the citizens. "This new work which the Council has under consideration will involve the expenditure of a large amount of public money, and I believe that the present situation presents a great danger. The present situation here is somewhat similar to that in England just previous to the close of war. There a certain element demanded peace at any price. There is a certain element in Sherbrooke that is paying at any price. The danger of a situation of this kind is that the spending of the public money is not scrutinized carefully enough. In public work of this kind it is generally handled by tenders or by contracts authorized by the municipal authorities. While I understand the intention of the Council to call for tenders, I do not believe it is their intention to have the paving work done by contract. I am not opposed to the work being done by the municipal authorities, providing the city has the proper men to handle the situation and the proper equipment. This brings me to the issue I had in mind, namely, the personnel of the Engineering Department. I wish to testify to my approval of Mr. Tremblay as a man and a good citizen, but I feel that he is lamentably weak as an engineer for a progressive city of this size, lamentably weak in initiative and lacking in strength of purpose.

"As a sample of the way we may expect our money to be spent if left to Mr. Tremblay, I would refer to the building of the Wolfe Street dam, which has involved the city in a lawsuit for a very large sum of money for damages claimed to have been caused by the neglect of Mr. Tremblay. It is very necessary to make a change and secure a more competent and progressive man to handle the large work which the Council contemplates undertaking. I feel that the Road Committee, of which I am a member, and Ald. Forest in particular, have been blamed for many things in connection with the condition of the city streets for which they were not responsible. Had we had a competent city engineer to direct the efforts of our road superintendent, our streets would not be in the lamentable condition they are today. The citizens must remember that not only has Welling-by-lane Street suffered, but practically all the side streets, due to misplaced men to be made by the month, instead of effort and money."

Ald. Skinner then moved the following resolution: "That the Mayor name a small committee to secure the names of available men to act as city engineer, with particulars as to their qualifications, and that the necessary expenses for advertising, etc., be and are hereby authorized."

Ald. Edwards seconded the motion, pointing out that he was of the opinion that a man capable of engineering should be secured to handle the large works that the Council had under consideration, stating that the paving plan would call for an expenditure of nearly $500,000.

Ald. Brault backs Mr. Tremblay. City Engineer Tremblay was again backed by Ald. Brault. "I am somewhat surprised at the stand Ald. Skinner has taken tonight. Some days ago I made a proposition to better the whole working system when I brought forward the amendments to the city charter. On that occasion Ald. Skinner opposed me. Now he comes along and asks for improvements. I do not think that Mr. Tremblay lacks initiative or ability as an engineer. Ald. Skinner speaks of the lawsuit over the Wolfe Street dam. Well, the lawsuit has not as yet been won or lost. Mr. Tremblay deserves credit. Regarding his good work, I can mention the aqueduct, which is one of the best in this province, and a lot of other work he has done," said Ald. Brault.

On the suggestion of Mayor White, Ald. Genest moved that the matter of the post of city engineer be left over to be discussed at a private meeting of the Council. The motion was seconded by Ald. Delorme and carried.

Several Big Bills Passed. Quite a few bills were passed during the meeting, among them being the bill for $2,128.05 from Vincent de Paul Hospital in connection with the recent epidemic of influenza here, while Forrest Lord's detailed bill for the use of ambulance to convey the patients, for $900, was submitted and referred to the Finance Committee. Other bills passed were as follows:

Fire Department $2,509.26
Police Department 1,142.46
Market Department 99.84
City Hall Department 249.94
Parks and Real Estate 21

Standing votes of condolence to the families of Ex-Mayor Daniel McManamy and the Ex-Ald. J. Simoneau, who passed away recently.

Many Irregularities, Is Claim. Ald. Edwards started the meeting when he stated that after hearing the reading of the minutes he was scandalized at the many irregularities being carried through by the aldermen. He stated that the account of Mrs. Wm. Brault for gravel and also the account of the Police Committee had not been passed in a regular manner, and pointed out that the citizens' interests were not being safeguarded if a stop was not put to these irregular proceedings. Ald. Edwards concluded by requesting Mayor White to see to it that no other accounts were put through in an irregular manner. It will be recalled that at the last meeting of the Council the accounts were passed by the aldermen without first being passed upon by the committee.

Ald. Brault announced the first reading of a by-law to amend a power reminder that not only has Welling-by-lane Street suffered, but practically all the side streets, due to misplaced men to be made by the month, instead of effort and money."

MILAN

Editor Record.

Sir:—Reference has already been made in your columns to the Christmas dinner given by me with the object of raising funds to aid wounded Canadian soldiers. Owing to the inclemency of the weather many were unable to attend, so only $68.00 was received. Since that time others have sent me their subscriptions, and the amount up to date is $91.00.

May I seize this opportunity to convey my thanks to the ladies of Milan who so ably assisted me, also to explain that owing to being unable to secure the services of an auctioneer the remaining supplies were returned to the donors.

I would like to explain the manner in which I purpose disposing of the funds that I received and am receiving. I shall deposit the total in the Bank of Commerce, Scotland, and when all the wounded Canadian soldiers have returned I shall confer with the proper authorities in Ottawa as to who are the most needy, and shall send a certain sum as a gift to as many as I can on hand will permit.

I thank you for this space in your columns.

MARY B. MACDONALD.

The members of the Ladies' Aid in connection with the Methodist Church, assisted by the young people of the congregation, have procured a quantity of hardwood lumber, for the purpose of laying a new floor in the vestry of the church, which was erected a few years ago, by the late Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Parker, as a memorial to their only child, Martin Lindsay E. Parker, who passed away in the autumn of 1889, at the age of eight years.

has led many a suffering person to neglect the treatment of piles. The itching, stinging sensations produce the keenest distress. The thought of a surgical operation brings mental anxiety which undermines the general health.

Relief can always be obtained by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and in most cases persistent treatment brings about complete cure. This ointment is worth trying when you think of the comfort to be obtained.

When a child's tongue turns white, breath feverish, stomach sour, mothers can always depend upon safe old "Cascarets" to gently, yet thoroughly clean the little liver and bowels. Cascarets are just dandy for children. They taste like candy and no child need be coaxed to take them even when cross, bilious and sick. Pte. Before enlisting for service, Pte. Sadler was employed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Whitcomb, who are looking for his return.

It is reported that Charles Bodker, who also went overseas as a member of the 117th Eastern Township's Battalion, was wounded only a few days before the signing of the armistice.

BURY

The death of Mrs. Lester Goodwin occurred on December 16, as previously reported, after an illness of several months. A short prayer service was held in the house before leaving for the church. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church, Bury, Que., on Wednesday, December 18, Rev. M. M. Brundage officiating. The hymns which were favorites of the deceased, were as follows: "The Lord is My Shepherd," "Heaven is My Home," "Higher Ground," and "Face to Face With Christ My Saviour." The bearers were Messrs. Clarence Goodwin, Maurice Goodwin, Everett Goodwin and Andrew Clouston. The remains were laid to rest in the Bury cemetery. The deceased, whose maiden name was Muriel McLeod, was born at Port Ness, Stornoway, Island of Lewis, Scotland. She came to Canada several years ago. On December 28, 1911, she married Lester Goodwin, of Canterbury. Mrs. Goodwin won many friends by her kind and cheerful manner, and although she was a great sufferer she bore her pain with exceeding patience to the end. The funeral procession of relatives, neighbors and friends showed the high esteem in which Mrs. Goodwin was held. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, two children, a girl five years old and a boy three years old, an aged father, four sisters in Scotland, and one sister, Mrs. Justin Sherman, of Canterbury, Que.

The death, from influenza, of Frederick Hastings, only son of the late Frederick Hastings and Mrs. Mary Hastings, took place at Portland, Me., on December 14. He was eighteen years of age and was employed in the office of the Maine Central, where he was very well liked and where he gave promise of a bright future. Mrs. Hastings accompanied the remains from Portland to the home of his uncle, Mr. J. S. MacLeod, Bury, where the funeral service was held on December 19th. Rev. D. MacLeod officiating. Interment took place in Lingwick. To the sorrowing mother and sister is left the memory of one whose sense of filial duty was high, and whose habits were always clean. The sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends goes out to Mrs. Hastings and Miss Helen Hastings in their bereavement.

DIXVILLE

Mr. Henry D. Parsons, who recently returned from England, was in town for a few days this week, at the home of his uncle, Mr. E. W. Damon, Maple Wood farm. Mr. Parsons enlisted with the 117th E. T. Battalion, being at that time connected with the Bank of Commerce, at Sherbrooke. He held at one time the office of Quartermaster Sergeant, but was afterwards promoted. While on active service in France he was wounded and taken to England, where he spent some time previous to his return.

Mr. Herbert Neil, of Berlin, N. H., has been paying a visit to his mother, Mrs. John Neil, and brothers, Messrs. Alec and Samuel Neil.

Mr. Orson Wallis, met with a very serious accident on Thursday afternoon. While engaged in some repair work in his attic, he fell a distance of ten feet, breaking his right leg near the ankle. Dr. McCurdy, of Coaticook, was immediately summoned and found the break such a bad one that it was deemed advisable to remove him to the Sherbrooke Hospital, where he was taken on Friday afternoon, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Fred Wallis.

Mr. A. F. Damon, of Island Pond, Vt., was visiting in town on Friday; Miss Evelyn Howe, who has been spending a week here, returned to her home in Sherbrooke on Friday; Mrs. Norton Jones, and little daughter, Mildred, of Hyde Park, Vt., are visiting Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. The Model School re-opened on Friday of this week. Mrs. Owen Eggleston spent the week end at Coaticook, the guest of Miss Bessie Wilson.

AYER'S CLIFF

The Congregational Church in this place held its annual business meeting in the vestry. Although war conditions made demands for generous giving a constant effort along patriotic and Red Cross lines, yet the reports submitted to the meeting were good, and showed that the different branches of the church work. The Sunday School, Y. P. S. C. E., the Ladies' Aid, and the Women's Missionary Auxiliary, both of this place and of Boynton, had an exceptionally good and successful year, being a marked improvement over the preceding year. The treasurer's report revealed the finances of the church in a good position, a substantial balance being left in hand after all current expenses were paid.

The amount of the Pastor's salary was raised and showed an increase over 1917, and some years preceding that. Mr. L. J. Clough was re-elected treasurer; Mr. R. H. Libby, re-elected assistant; Mrs. Willard Rexford was re-elected secretary; Mr. W. E. Hunt, S. S. superintendent; Mr. J. A. Johnston, chorister, and Miss Mildred Paul, organist, and Mr. E. E. Temple, because of his qualifications for that office, was added to the number of ushers already appointed. A resolution was adopted, approving of the principle and making all pews in the church, for a trial, one year free. A resolution also was adopted by a standing vote, expressing the thanks of the Church for, and appreciation of the services of the choir, of which we are so justly proud. The vestry debt was reduced to $100.

At 8 p.m., on New Year's night, the congregational parsonage was taken by a surprise invasion, of quite a large company of friends, who in hearty manner extended to Mr. and Mrs. Moore, and family, the greetings of the season, and a little later, through one of their number, Mr. F. McVey, in behalf of the congregation, presented the pastor and his wife with a kindly speech of good will, and an envelope, containing a sum of money, and a receipt for the rent of the telephone for the present year. Mr. Moore, taken so completely by surprise, could scarcely find suitable or sufficient words, wherewith to express his and Mrs. Moore's thanks and appreciation of the kind words and gifts bestowed. After a social hour, the company, in good cheer, withdrew to their homes, leaving good cheer in the home that they had so graciously visited.

The Rev. Mr. Blackford, of Dorchester, Vt., will preach on January 12 as the first candidate, and Rev. Mr. Van Blocken on the 19th and 26th as the other candidate. The people of the parish will probably remember the time of the nomination of the Rev. Mr. McIntyre, but Mr. Van Blocken is a stranger to Vermont.

Rev. Mr. Fortier will preach on February 2, and a parish meeting and re-election of officers will be held on Monday, February 3.

Mr. D. W. Davis, of the National Bank of Derby Line, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

THOUGHT IT WAS A BOIL

DOCTOR SAID ABSCESS.

Mr. Glenison R. Young, Kingscroft, N.B., under date of Feb. 9th, 1918, writes as follows:—"About five months ago a lump came on my jaw bone. I thought it was a boil, and after it had been there quite a while it began to get larger. I went to a doctor and he said it was an abscess, and lanced it. He gave me a wash for it, so I went by his directions until it healed up, but it commenced coming again, and in about three weeks it broke itself. I thought it would get better, but it didn't. A neighbor advised me to get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I went and got a bottle, and by the time it was all gone the abscess had disappeared, and now it is all better."

Burdock Blood Bitters will heal and dry up sores, ulcers and abscesses, no matter how large or of how long standing. If you have never applied it to a cut, wound, sore or ulcer, just try it and see what soothing, healing, cleansing power it possesses. It takes out itching, stinging and burning, and promotes the growth of healthy flesh. So, too, when taken internally, by its power of eliminating all impurities from the blood and making that vital fluid rich, red and pure, it cuts off the origin and source of the foul matter that goes to make boils, pimples, sores, ulcers, abscesses and the like, and at the same time the purified and rich blood creates healthy tissue where there was formerly, perhaps, a sore full of pus.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Cure That Cold Don't Get Grippe

You know how quickly Zutoo tablets cure headache and break up colds—how soon they allay the fever. Take them at once when you feel the first pain or shiver—the first symptom of a cold. Taken then, they will prevent the Grippe. Taken after it has developed, there is nothing better for the pain and fever.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can cure the coughs of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap to make, but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 25¢ ounces of Pinex (50¢ cents worth) from any drugist, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. If you prefer, use clear molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying tickle and dread cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your drugist for "25¢ ounce Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Sutton and Abercorn Red Cross workers are in need of more help to enable them to finish up the making of refugee garments. All women who can possibly assist are earnestly requested to do so. January is the third and last month in which all the goods now on hand are supposed to be worked up into refugee garments. The Red Cross workers are forwarding 275 garments the past week covering two weeks' work. Let all who can give a helping hand.

An extract from a Saskatchewan letter received from Mrs. Harley Bennett (Maggie Brown) formerly of Glen Sutton, reads in part as follows: "We would like to have you and Aunt Annie come out and visit us in our little Western home, which is right out on the prairie. We have purchased 180 acres of land and last summer we rented 320 acres more."

The Man With the Hoe

Hoeing is a severe strain on the back. It calls into play muscles not used much in lifting or in other kinds on farm work.

If you have a weak back you cannot stand such hoeing unless you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to set the kidneys right and remove the cause of weakness and lameness of the back. Just try one pill a dose at bed time and see how much better you will feel.

We had 150 acres of wheat, 25 acres of oats and 40 acres of flax. Our crops didn't turn out very good on account of the very dry season and hot winds. We have been here nearly two years and have only seen six rainstorms, which is so different from the East. We like the place really well, though only would like to be able to get home for Christmas. Kindly remember us to all our Sutton and North Troy, Vt., friends.

Mr. Geo. N. Boright, from a recent business trip to Montreal; Mrs. C. E. Rousseau from a few weeks in Montreal to her home for the winter; Miss Mabel Robinson, who has been ill in a Montreal hospital, at her home for a time; Mr. Joseph Jones, recently of Glen Sutton, left Richmond, Vt., Friday night for South Manchester, came to visit a sister ill with the "flu." He was accompanied by his mother.

Mr. Warren Westover put in a new fence on January 2, driving the pickets, and ground not frozen to bottom. Mr. Westover is 82 years of age, and he has seen few seasons this work could be done so late in the season.

Mrs. Stowell, wife of Pte. Homer Stowell, received a recent letter from her husband, saying he expected to stay with his battalion in Germany this winter.

Pte. Claude Westover, from Camp Meade, did not reach home for the holidays, as his parents expected. On January 4 Mr. Westover received a card from his son Chauncey, who is near Mons, in France. Conductor and Mrs. Westover's sons have surely proved themselves as no shirkers in the war against Germany. One son was killed by the Germans in France; another is there, while two others are in the American army, one an aviator at Long Island Camp and another at Camp Meade, also in the American army, making two who joined the American forces and two the British.

Mrs. A. T. Stowe was worse again on Saturday, and hardening of the arteries is feared.

The Christmas trees in the Methodist and Advent churches were given on Monday evening before Christmas, and in the Episcopal on Thursday evening, December 26. The attendance was good at all three trees.

The week of special prayers that had been arranged jointly between the Methodist and Advent churches from January 6 to 11, have been cancelled on account of several "flu" cases in the place.

LIEUT. R.C. DYER, SUTTON, DIED AT ARCHANGEL

Saw Much Service in France and Won the M. M. and D. C. M. Before Going With Siberian Contingent.

SUTTON, Jan. 8. — (Special.) — Mr. L. E. Dyer received a message on January 5 announcing the death of his adopted son, Lieut. R. C. Dyer, M.M., D.C.M., reading as follows: "Deeply regret to inform you of officer commanding at Archangel reports Lieut. R. C. Dyer, M.M., D.C.M., died of bronchial pneumonia at 82 casualty clearing station, Bak Wurtiza, North Russia." The war office has been asked for verification.

Royce C. Dyer enlisted in the early days of the war and for over four years he has been in the thick of it. "Over There," proving himself a veritable hero and a patriot in every sense of the word. Early in the past fall he joined the contingent going to Siberia, and has given up his long, weary task in North Russia.

SOLDIERS SEIZE POWER.

Danger of Military Despotism in China.

The real Government of China, says John C. Ferguson in the Atlantic Monthly, has gradually, but surely drifted into the hands of the military governors of the provinces. In some instances these have been men who had previous administrative experience, but they either have been overthrown from the military regime of the Manchus or are men who came into prominence as leaders of the revolutionary republicans in the revolution of 1911-1912. Some of them have been men with good education and with sound military training; there are other conspicuous instances of men who have attained their responsible position without education, without administrative experience and without any sound military training.

Their control over large bodies of soldiers has enabled them to terrorize and dominate the provinces. The worst condemnation of their administration, as a whole, is found in two facts: First, there is almost no instance of any constructive work for the good of the people which has been undertaken and carried to completion by any one of these men; second, practically every one of them has succeeded in accumulating a large fortune. During a long residence in China of 30 years I have seen no administration so inefficient or corrupt as that supplied by these military governors. They have been allowed to continue the domination of military leadership must also be recognized. The disturbances in the provinces show that this military usurpation cannot be permanent, and that China cannot be governed, either by her own people or from without, by any form of military despotism. The consent of the governed is a principle thoroughly ingrained in the past history and present aspirations of the Chinese people. This is a fact to be reckoned with by the contending elements in China, as well as by all foreign nations which have dealings with her. There is but little danger of such mob rule as that of Bolshevism. The present danger is confined solely to a monopoly of power on the part of military leaders.

The permanence of a republican form of government in China must now be taken for granted, even though for the moment the domination of military leadership must also be recognized. The disturbances in the provinces show that this military usurpation cannot be permanent, and that China cannot be governed, either by her own people or from without, by any form of military despotism. The consent of the governed is a principle thoroughly ingrained in the past history and present aspirations of the Chinese people. This is a fact to be reckoned with by the contending elements in China, as well as by all foreign nations which have dealings with her. There is but little danger of such mob rule as that of Bolshevism. The present danger is confined solely to a monopoly of power on the part of military leaders.

Voice of Home Ever Calling.

The man in uniform looks back upon his prior life with a mixture of emotions. It is not unfair to admit that there is a large element of sentiment in this. The soldier has a strong sentimental side to his nature. With the increase of physical and mental stamina there is a corresponding enlargement of purely personal feelings. He recalls going through the barracks out in the Philippines as a mere boy, and having the men show me their belongings. Each one had a little box at the foot of his cot wherein were stored the pitiful stock of his treasures. There were pictures of the family, perhaps a mother, sister, or other relative, and more often of some girl. Added to these were small packages of letters, which they read over and over again, and keepsakes of various kinds. The same holds true in every nook of military life. The soldier clings like a big child to such mementoes. It would be wrong to underestimate their importance. Around them hovers his entire mental picture of those at home.

We are not prone to discuss these things much in the army, so it is said, but a confession is good for the soul; we do. Even among the officers there is an omniscient discussion of sweethearts, mothers, relations, friends. Men would go mad from the monotony of their existence without some outlet for emotion. Even such a casual study as this cannot except the warmth of men's feelings. To play upon the one string of sentimentality would be to become ridiculous. One and beyond the surge of work that goes on from reveille to taps, there lurks always the voice of home like the refrain of a remembered tune. It comes out of the most unexpected moments.

When the French adopted their tri-colored flag they figured upon optical illusion. That is, they took into consideration how the colors—red, white and blue—would appear to the eye, rather than going according to lineal measurement. Thus we have 30 per cent. of the flag is blue, 33 per cent. white and 37 per cent. red. If the three "colors" were of the same width, the white, which is in the middle, would appear narrower than the blue, which is next to the staff. And the red, out at the end, would appear still narrower than the white. So that with the present arrangement, the three stripes appear to be the same width, and not one person out of a hundred would declare they are the same width as he sees the tri-color floating from its staff.

The French are an artistic people. They consider art always. Their coins are the most artistic in the world; their emblems are perfect. They bleed colors to please the eye, and decorate and adorn all they touch. But their art has not interfered with their fighting qualities. They also gave the world something to think about in the matter of protecting their country from the ravages of a merciless enemy who knows not art.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

Practical Advice on How to Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance.

Commenting on the use of Nuxated Iron as a tonic, strength and blood builder, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out-door Dept.), New York, and The Westchester County Hospital, said: "Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life."

It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real and true cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body something like corn through an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind.

For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all "run down," while at 30 or 60 with plenty of iron in your blood you may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy."

The accompanying article of Dr. Sullivan should be carefully read by every man and woman who wants to possess perfect health, great physical endurance and a strong, keen mentality. Dr. Sullivan tells how to increase the iron in the blood and thereby gain greater physical and mental power, brighter intellects and better health.

But in my opinion you can't make strong, vigorous, successful, sturdy, iron men, and healthy, rosy-cheeked women by feeding them on metallic iron. The old forms of metallic iron must go through a digestive process to transform them into organic iron—Nuxated Iron—before they are ready to be taken up and assimilated by the human system. Notwithstanding all this has been said and written on this subject, thousands of people still insist on dosing themselves with metallic iron, simply, I suppose, because it costs a few cents less. I strongly advise readers in all cases to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron. In its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package. If you have taken preparations such as Nux and Iron and other similar iron products and failed to get results, remember that such products are an entirely different thing than Nuxated Iron.

Manufacturers' Note—Nuxated Iron, which is used by Dr. Sullivan and others with such surprising results, and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians, is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the other inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated and does not injure the stomach, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

SPECIAL DAILY NEWS FROM EASTERN TOWNSHIPS

MEMORIAL TABLET AT BEEBE.

BEEBE, Jan. 7. — (Special.) — A bronze memorial tablet in memory of the late Milton S. Haselton, killed April, 1918, was unveiled at the Methodist Church Sunday evening by Corporal Harold S. Beane, given by his wife, Mrs. Milton Haselton.

ST. FRANCIS LATE IN FREEZING OVER.

TRENHOLMVILLE, January 8. — (Special.) — The St. Francis river opposite here froze over on the night of January 4. Some of the oldest residents do not remember when it was as late in the winter freezing over as this year.

PRESENTATION AT FOSTER.

FOSTER, Jan. 7. — (Special.) — The annual parish tea and entertainment of the parish of Bonville and Foster took place on New Year's Eve in the Foster Hall. As usual, the ladies had provided a splendid tea, to which ample justice was done. The whole congregation then adjourned upstairs, where the evening's pleasure was started by singing the National Anthem, after which the incumbent, Rev. J. J. McCormack, M.A., then spoke at the church, which was received by Mr. H. W. Parry. An excellent programme then followed, given chiefly by the children of the two Sunday Schools. The songs and recitations delighted all, and much credit is due to the children and their helpers. The recitations of Joe McCloy and the songs of Mr. and Mrs. Parry were very well received. Father Christmas made his appearance after the last item and distributed the gifts from the laden tree. To Miss Parry, for her services as organist, the congregation of the Foster church presented a beautiful ivory backed mirror. The mayor of Foster, Mr. A. M. Hunter, on behalf of the two congregations, then called the Rev. Mr. McCormack to the front of the platform and in a very neat speech presented him with a beautiful fur lined coat. The unexpectedness of the gift totally surprised Mr. McCormack, but a few words of deep gratitude and thanks were spoken by Father Christmas then took his departure and called for three cheers for 1918, which were well responded to. A song heralded the coming of 1919, which appeared in the form of a little girl with a very wavy and, with the figures 1919 across her forehead, wearing all a very happy new year. A short interval of dancing brought the gathering to near midnight, when the incumbent made an earnest plea for greater endeavor in 1919 by reason of all the sacrifices of the past year. Silence was kept while the God Father passed out, and then the hymn "O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come," was heartily sung. A short resumption of the dancing brought a memorable evening to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne," and three cheers for Mr. McCormack, and the singing of "For he's a jolly good fellow." The large gathering, over 200, spent a most enjoyable evening, and once more the people were greatly indebted to Mr. Hillhouse and Mr. Hunter, who by building this splendid hall have given us opportunity to enjoy so many pleasant and profitable evenings.

FELL AND FRACTURED A RIB.

SUTTON, Jan. 7. — (Special.) — Mr. Charles Derby, while working with his team, had the misfortune to slip and fall, striking his side on a stake on the sled and breaking a rib. A doctor was called, and now Mr. Derby is quite comfortable, but will be unable to do very much work for a time, which is very unfortunate, as he has a large stock and only a 13-year-old boy at home, his oldest son being with the army in England.

NEW INDUSTRY AT WINDSOR MILLS.

WINDSOR MILLS, Jan. 8. — (Special.) — A new industry is being opened up at the St. Francis mill of the Canada Paper Company. The Kings Co., from Toronto, have rented space and installed six machines for the making of paper bags. Four of these machines are now in running order, employing one woman, a helper and from four to six girls. It is being done to facilitate the shipments, of wrapping paper, etc., long distances as to Winnipeg and Vancouver.

OFFICERS OF ST. FRANCIS LODGE, RICHMOND.

Richmond, Jan. 7. — (Special.) — The following are the officers of St. Francis Lodge, A. F. & A. M., for 1919: Wor. Bro. M. T. J. McKee, W. M.; Wor. Bro. John Watson, I. P. M.; Bro. W. F. Anderson, S. W.; Bro. W. A. Smith, J. W.; Bro. A. V. Glassey, secretary; Bro. S. S. Raimbach, treasurer; Rt. Wor. Bro. William MacMillan, Chaplain; Wor. Bro. F. Halligan, Tyler; Wor. Angus MacRae, S. D.; Bro. John Graham, J. D.; Rt. Wor. Bro. W. J. Ewing, D. C.; Bro. W. H. Harper, S. S.; Bro. William Gardner, J. S.; Bro. A. N. Hutton, I. G.; Bro. C. P. Maw, organist.

BUILDING BURNED DOWN AT BISHOP'S CROSSING.

BISHOP'S CROSSING, Jan. 7. — (Special.) — Considerable excitement prevailed here at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning, when a building used to store machinery at Mr. P. C. Matheson's was found to be on fire. The telephone call was immediately called, and by their prompt attention assistance was on hand with ten minutes, but the fire had made too rapid progress to save the building. If the wind had not been in a favorable quarter, and so many men from far and near responded to the alarm and kept the other buildings, which were very near, well covered with snow and water, the house, at least, would have been burned. As it was, the contents of the building were destroyed. The fire caught from a smokehouse in which they were smoking meat. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The Tri-color.

When the French adopted their tri-colored flag they figured upon optical illusion. That is, they took into consideration how the colors—red, white and blue—would appear to the eye, rather than going according to lineal measurement. Thus we have 30 per cent. of the flag is blue, 33 per cent. white and 37 per cent. red. If the three "colors" were of the same width, the white, which is in the middle, would appear narrower than the blue, which is next to the staff. And the red, out at the end, would appear still narrower than the white. So that with the present arrangement, the three stripes appear to be the same width, and not one person out of a hundred would declare they are the same width as he sees the tri-color floating from its staff.

The French are an artistic people. They consider art always. Their coins are the most artistic in the world; their emblems are perfect. They bleed colors to please the eye, and decorate and adorn all they touch. But their art has not interfered with their fighting qualities. They also gave the world something to think about in the matter of protecting their country from the ravages of a merciless enemy who knows not art.

A Woman's Way.

"Do you think women will vote?" "They'll do more than that," replied Mr. Meekton. "Every one of them in addition to voting herself will tell some man how to vote."

DANDRUFF GOES!

HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and ever particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Shock Left Her Weak and Nervous COULD NOT SLEEP

When the system receives a shock of any kind, the heart becomes weakened, the nerves unstrung, the appetite poor, faint and weak feelings come over you, you can't sleep at night, and you wonder if life is worth living.

To all those who suffer from nervous shock, we would recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the best remedy to tone up the entire system and strengthen the weakened organs.

Mrs. J. J. Buryan, Pilot Butte, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills after having suffered from a terrible shock to my whole system. I was so utterly weak and nervous I could not sleep at night, and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling all over. I had hot flashes and fainting spells."

When I was on the second box of your Heart and Nerve Pills, I began to feel that they were doing me good, so I kept on until I had

Preferred to Metal Pulleys

We guarantee immediate shipment of all orders for Dodge Wood-Split Pulleys from four inches up to six feet in diameter. There is no telling how long you may have to wait for metal pulleys. The United States Government won't allow steel to be released for their manufacture except for war orders. Dodge Wood-Split Pulleys cost less to buy than metal pulleys, yet provide fifty per cent. greater returns in horsepower value, because their surface provides greater adhesion, consequently there is less belt slip; and because, being lighter and better balanced, there is less weight friction.

WHAT ST. JOHN MAYOR WROTE TO SHERBROOKE

Another Chapter in the Nurse Episode—Mr. Webster Says Book is Nearly Complete and Ready for Binding.

Editor Sherbrooke Daily Record: Sir—I have no desire whatever to continue the subject, but as it is quite evident that Mayor White does not intend to publish Mayor Hayes' letter, and in order that the citizens may have all the information regarding what I call a rotten deal which Nurse Swim received at the hands of the council, and also to enable them to form an intelligent opinion as to who is right and who is wrong, I have decided to lay the balance of the cards on the table and publish a copy of Mayor Hayes' letter to Mayor White on the subject. There is one paragraph, however, in the letter which I wish to correct, that is, where he states that Nurse Swim is still out of her hotel expenses for the week. The bill was settled by the city afterwards, but Mayor Hayes did not know it at the time. Following is a true copy of the letter:

St. John, N.B., Nov. 14, 1918. Mayor White, Sherbrooke, Que.

Dear Sir—I have a communication from Miss Edna Swim, one of the nurses who went to Sherbrooke from St. John in response to your appeal. I must say that I did the very best I could for you and regret very much that Miss Swim complains of having received nothing but fair treatment from the city officials. It appears that in discharge of her duties she was so unfortunate as to contract the influenza herself, and was obliged to spend a great part of her time in the hospital. This, however, would appear to be a case of misfortune of war and so on, and it would appear to me that Miss Swim's claim for compensation from the time she left until she returned was perfectly justifiable. I not only have Miss Swim's own statement, but a letter from one of the large business concerns in Sherbrooke, in which Miss Swim's statements were corroborated. It appears that the greater part of the money Miss Swim received was from private persons and not from the city. I might say that I took the matter up without any hope of reward of any kind except the feeling that I had discharged a duty, and I do not think that I should have to put my hands into my own pockets or into the city treasury either for that matter in order to oblige a sister city in time of need, but I feel that I have an obligation to the young lady who was induced by myself to leave her home, and if you cannot see your way clear to compensate her I will feel under an obligation to do this myself.

Miss Swim informs me that she was paid for her services $4 per day for the three and a half days she was employed, and nothing from the city from the time she was ill or her hotel expenses while she was convalescent and before she was able to return to St. John. Two private citizens, Messrs. Webster and Allen, gave her their personal cheques for $46 to cover the time she was ill, and she is still out the amount of her hotel expenses for the week she was there after she was discharged from the hospital and before she was able to return home.

I am enclosing herewith Miss Swim's letter to me, and I am sure that all of this will be news to you, as I cannot think that under all the circumstances you would be a party to this transaction.

Yours very sincerely, (Signed) MAYOR HAYES.

Now, if Mayor White will publish his answer to this letter the book will be complete and ready to be bound.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for allowing me further space, I remain, Yours truly, W. R. WEBSTER.

Sherbrooke, Que., Jan. 7, 1919.

W. Loomis, spent the week-end in town with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Loomis, Bellevue avenue.

The members of St. Andrew's Auxiliary, to the number of thirty or more, turned out last evening for one of the first snowshoe tramps of the season, and as the evening was fine, with a young moon, the outing was very successful. Mr. Reginald Smith acted as captain and led the party, which left the church hall towards eight o'clock, and the route was taken over the hills above the Magog. The party were entertained on their return by Mrs. Ralph Giff, Fairmount avenue, with music and games, and last but not least, very acceptable refreshments.

ANNUAL MEETING OF VICTORIAN ORDER.

The annual meeting of the local association, Victorian Order of Nurses, will be held on Thursday, January 16, at 3 p.m., in the Assembly Hall of the Y.W.C.A.

Old Warships Put to Good Use. In the days before the war, one of the features of Ryde, Isle of Wight, was the fleet of obsolete warships which rode mournfully at anchor to the west of the pier. There was a curious air of desolation about them with their gunboats showing rust everywhere, their truncated masts, cleared decks, and blackened brasses. As the ferry steamed out of Portsmouth, some four miles away across the Solent, they had a warlike appearance enough, but the nearer one came to them the more one saw that their fighting days were over.

But were they? May there not have been amongst them some of the old cruisers which joined in the now famous run for Zeebrugge the other night? Perhaps they are Ryde boats which now lie gloriously at the bottom of the sea, blocking the way to the "nests of Bruges."

MONTHLY MEETING OF RED CROSS SOCIETY HELD YESTERDAY

Several Items of Importance Were Discussed—Committee Named to Look After Returned Soldiers

The monthly meeting of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society was held yesterday at the rooms of the society in the Whiting Block, Wellington street. Mrs. E. O. Grundy, vice-president, presided in the continued absence through illness of Mrs. Morkill, the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary and confirmed, and the report of the treasurer submitted.

A communication was read by Miss White from Mrs. J. J. M. Pangman, hon. secretary, to whom she had written in regard to the disposition of canvassers' commissioners in the Victory Loan campaign, but no action was taken, the question being laid over until the next meeting.

A letter was read from Mr. Frank Norcross, thanking the society for Christmas gifts to the drivers of the Dominion Express Company, also a letter from Mrs. DeLottinville resigning as one of the vice-presidents of the society. It was moved by Mrs. Jones, seconded by Miss Beckett, and unanimously carried, that as in all probability the Red Cross work would not be necessary after a year, Mrs. DeLottinville be asked to withdraw her resignation and remain in office. The work for refugees, which is replacing for a time the usual Red Cross activities, was reported as progressing well, though more workers would be welcomed, especially for sewing on Red Cross tags on the finished garments. The suggestion was made by the secretary that it was desirable to form a committee to look after returned soldiers who had been obliged to go to the hospital, and the following, to be called the Red Cross Hospital Visiting Committee, were appointed: Mrs. J. Owens Jones, Miss Lloyd, Miss Jennie Moe, Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Mabel Wilson.

Establishment of Homes. With reference to the establishment of homes or clubs for returned soldiers, a project which appealed strongly to the Red Cross Society, the secretary had replied to Mrs. Stewart, who had written to her on the subject, that the work had been undertaken by another organization in Sherbrooke, and these societies would co-operate and tender all assistance possible.

After the meeting adjourned, tea was served in the shipping room, in honor of Mrs. E. O. Grundy, vice-president, whose birthday it happened to be. The hostesses were Mrs. McSwiggan, who poured tea, Mrs. J. F. Wilson, Miss Jennie Moe, and Miss Lloyd, and the informal function was much enjoyed by the members and all present.

PRESENTATION TO MR. DENNIS. At the meeting of the Boys' Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church, a presentation to the president, Mr. P. M. Dennis, was made and the address read by Mr. Lloyd Bowen, vice-president.

REAL BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE BY YOUNG ARTISTS

Music Lovers Were Treated to a Fine Programme Last Evening—Master Oliver Edel Delighted Audience.

"Youth and beauty have always received, and will always receive due praise, but it is sometimes left for a discriminating few to accord due praise to their talent," has been remarked by a noted critic. "A discriminating audience composed of music lovers of this city and many who had come from a distance, had the opportunity last evening to accord full praise to the trio of young artists who were presented. The Art Hall, with its many fine paintings and softly-lighted stage made a fitting background for the trio's programme, given by the boy soprano, Master Oliver Edel; Miss Mildred Lurie, pianist, and Miss Gladys Howard, violinist, who won unstinted applause throughout their varied numbers.

Master Oliver Edel, the twelve-year-old choir boy, whose sweet, clear notes fill the sacred edifice of St. Thomas' Church in New York city, came to Sherbrooke highly recommended, and his fine record was upheld last evening, his beautiful voice meeting instant recognition. His opening number, "O Divine Redeemer," (Gounod), was sung with fine expression, the high notes coming full and clear, and the recitatives being taken with perfect ease. In the aria, "Hear Ye, Israel," from "Elijah," the full power of his wonderfully rich voice was given scope, and this selection from Mendelssohn's great masterpiece was sung with a finesse that showed the capabilities of this young, but finely-trained voice. The concert numbers, "He, She, It," (Scott-Gatty); "Cherry Ripe," (Horn), and "Four-leaf Clover," (Brownell), made a fine contrast to his preceding ones, while the berceuse, "Guard While I Sleep," (Warrington) brought out the sweetness of his middle tones, this number being especially pleasing. "With Verdure Glad," from "The Creation," (Haydn) a number often chosen by ambitious vocalists for its great possibilities in technique, was rendered with an ease and dignity that delighted his hearers, the running passages being smooth and clear, while the lower tones came full, and with an expressiveness that showed how even a child can grasp the meaning of the master's mind.

Each one of Master Edel's numbers had a peculiar charm, and the insistent encores were responded to in a generous way that won the hearts of his audience, and has given to him the distinction of being one of the best youthful artists to appear before an expectant and fully-satisfied audience. Miss Mildred Lurie, "the wonderful girl of the Eastern Townships," as she has been designated, was received with ovation, and her fine repertoire was given in a way that stamped her work as that of "one who feels what she plays." Her phrasing, technique, memory and power of expression is that of an experienced artist, and there is no doubt but that this young girl, who has received practically all her training at her home in Richmond, has a great future before her. Chopin's "Scherzo in C sharp, minor op. 39," was chosen as her initial number, and the intricate bass passages, full, strong notes and beautiful harmony were interpreted in a delightful way. The trio numbers, "In Autumn," (Mozart); "Norwegian Bridal Procession," (Greig); and "La Filleuse, (Raff), gave scope for her skill in bringing out fine contrasts, the light and shade of these favorite selections receiving high commendation. Her closing number "Etude de Concert," (Liszt) was well chosen as a fitting climax to an example of piano numbers that won the admiration of even the most severe critic, and stamps Miss Lurie as an artist of whom great things are anticipated.

Miss Lurie responded generously to the many insistent encores, her pleasing personality and freedom from restraint endearing her to the audience from the first. Miss Gladys Howard was enthusiastically received, and her selections were of the high standard already attained. The "Gavotte," (Mozart), was played in a delicate way, and followed by "Bolero," (Danele), showed her capabilities in technique, delicate bowing and power of expression. The "Swan," (Saint-Saens) one of the daintiest of violin pieces, was interpreted in a way that delighted her hearers, and "Ober-tasse," (Wieniasoski) a favorite concert number, was played in a manner that showed mastery of her bow, the staccato passages and birdlike tones showing the desire of true interpretation, which only a faithful student can carry out.

Miss Howard was accorded hearty applause and kindly responded to encores. The entire programme had a distinctive mark, and was greatly enjoyed by not only those interested in the young artists, but by music lovers, who felt that a programme of intrinsic value had been provided for their enjoyment.

My Three Years in a German Prison

(By Dr. Henri S. Beland, M.P.)

COPYRIGHT, 1919.

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

Dr. Beland begins his narrative by describing the events in Belgium immediately preceding the declaration of war, and how the Belgian sprang to arms when it became known that Germany intended to violate her pledges and invade Belgian territory. Dr. Beland and his wife left their summer villa at Middelbeke and went to Antwerp, the doctor having decided to offer his services in the hospital. He describes graphically the terrible days of the German attack, the bombardment of the city and final surrender. The Belgian army, however, escaped along the coast. The flight of the refugees by hundreds of thousands, Dr. Beland found one of the most touching spectacles of the war.

Chapter VIII.

THE GERMAN ARE HERE.

On the morning of October 10, at about nine o'clock, a messenger called at our house and, on behalf of a group of citizens, invited me to the "City Hall." I was at a loss to know why my presence was wanted there, and decided to go at once. The City Hall was no more than one kilometre distant, and on my way I had to cross the unending procession of refugees slowly wending their toilsome way in the direction of Holland.

At the City Hall, I was met by a number of representative citizens of Capellen. They asked me to join them in receiving the German officers who were then due to arrive at any moment. I could not refuse, as I hated the German army, and I was British heart against Great Britain, for was Britain not the prime cause of their present check—the actual obstacle of the military promenade which the Germans had for forty years dreamed of making, from the German frontier to Paris? The initial plan of the German high command had been frustrated, and for this disastrous failure they were holding that the English were naturally and justly responsible. I, therefore, suggested to my fellow-citizens that in my capacity as a British subject, I was more likely to be a hindrance than a help to them. They insisted, however—and with some plausibility perhaps—that the German officers would not know to which nationality I belonged, and that it was of immediate importance to make as good a showing as possible in numbers. I was not more than five of us at all, the others having crossed the frontier into Holland. Under the circumstances, I accepted their proposal and agreed to stay with them and meet the incoming Germans.

At 10 o'clock an individual burst into the room in which we were assembled and made the simple announcement: "Gentlemen, a German officer is here." Before the fall of Antwerp I had a close inspection of a number of German prisoners of war as they marched in file under Belgian escort along the streets of the city, but I had never yet seen either near or at a distance, a real Prussian officer, and I must confess that my curiosity was greatly aroused by the announcement of the imminent arrival. Ere we had time to advance to meet him, there stood in the doorway, dressed in the uniform of a captain of German artillery and wearing the pointed helmet. He gave us the military salute, turned to Mr. Spaet, and, speaking in German, said that in civilian life he was a lawyer and practised his profession at Antwerp, and that he had been in the army for several times as though searching our souls to discover what were our innermost feelings and sentiments. He was manifestly surprised by the fact that Mr. Spaet, a Belgian, could speak such perfect German, and inquired of him how he had acquired his knowledge of his own language. Mr. Spaet replied frankly and honestly and then asked:

"What must we do?"

"Nothing," replied the German officer. "However, you will not have to deal with me; I am only a scout. It is with Major X—who will be here shortly, that you will have to make arrangements."

With these words, he took his leave, and a few minutes afterwards, an automobile, containing the real negotiator, a Prussian major, who was accompanied by a very elegant officer, stopped in front of the Town Hall. This major typified the Prussian officer my imagination had pictured. Resplendent in uniform and glittering helmet, with blonde moustache trained a la Kaiser, he stood erect as a letter I, and stiff as an iron rod.

At the time there was, as in preceding days, a large crowd of people in the public square fronting the Town Hall. It was the direct route from Antwerp to Holland, and there were now accumulated here refugees from the four corners of the fortified position. Seemingly annoyed by such a gathering, the Prussian major demanded an explanation which Mr. Spaet gave without hesitation.

"Whether are these people going?" he inquired.

"To Holland," Mr. Spaet told him. "Why?"

"Because they seek refuge from German fire," answered Mr. Spaet.

"But since Antwerp has fallen there is no further danger," stated the major. "Tell these people to return to their homes. They will not be molested."

Naturally we feared many requisitions would be made upon us.

The major informed us that only horses would be taken. "We must have horses," he added.

But it was explained the only horses in Capellen belonged to the farmers, and these animals were absolutely needed if the crops were to be garnered.

"Well," said the major finally, after further explanations, "only one infantry company will be sent to Capellen, and you must see that the officers are well treated. As to the soldiers, well, you may billet them anywhere you like—in the school-house, for example."

The German officer demanded to know in what condition were the forts around Capellen. We told him our present impression was that they had all been destroyed by the garrisons immediately before their evacuation.

He took two of our party with him in his automobile and made a tour of the forts of Capellen, Erbrand, and Stabroek. He brought us back to the town hall, and then departed. I never saw him again.

In the afternoon of Saturday, October 10, a company of infantrymen arrived in front of the Town Hall. At the word of command, two soldiers left the ranks and entered the building. A few minutes afterwards the most majestic and humiliating and supremely painful ceremony of the lowering of the Belgian flag, which had flown from that flag-staff for nearly one hundred years, and in its place was hoisted the German standard. Capellen was then definitely under enemy occupation.

As Capellen is situated at the extreme north of the fortified position of Antwerp, consequently the German flag floated as the breeze blew from the frontier of France to the frontier of Holland.

And mourning entered every home. (To be continued Tomorrow)

SERGT. HONEYMAN RETURNED HOME.

Sergt. H. R. Honeyman, 35th Battery, C. F. A., was among the 3,000 passengers on the "Carmania," which reached Canada shortly before New Year's, and arrived at his home in this city on New Year's Day.

Sergt. Honeyman has been in the service of his country for three years, ten months of which he spent at the Somme, and has seen a good share of the great struggle in that part of the war zone. He was gassed last March and spent several weeks in hospital, since that time being at Borden camp as instructor.

Although not entirely free from the effects of the gas, and having contracted a cold on the home trip, Sergt. Honeyman expects to regain his former good health, and is enjoying his release from military service. He reports a most enjoyable passage home, the weather and travelling facilities being excellent.

MARRIAGES

CHAPMAN-CLOUSTON.

LAROCHELLE-CLOUSTON. TINGWICK, Jan. 8 (Special)—A very pretty double wedding took place in St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Tingwick, on Monday morning, December 30, at nine o'clock, by the Rev. Father Bourbeau. The contracting parties were Miss Laura Clouston and Mr. Peter Chapman, and Miss Adeline Clouston and Mr. L. Larochelle. Miss Laura, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a pearl grey broadcloth suit and furs to match, with white gaiters and white beaver hat and veil. Miss Adeline was given away by her uncle, was dressed similarly. After the wedding ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of their father, Mr. Clouston. About four o'clock they left for Mr. Chapman's, where a sumptuous dinner was served to the bride party and a number of relatives and near neighbours. Mrs. Chapman's evening dress was a pale blue georgette crepe, and Mrs. Larochelle's was dark blue silk. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman received several nice presents. They will make their home for the present with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chapman.

A Soldier's Wife.

In the United States a soldier's wife can not be turned out of a house because she can not pay rent if the rent is no more than $50 a month. This is covered in the "moral reform bill" recently passed by Congress. The courts, however, have authority to take the circumstances into account and will not let the law be used to deprive a landlady if the tenant is perfectly able to pay.

Thistles as Feed.

For the first time farmers in parts of Washington state cut and stock Russian thistles for stock feed. Hay is very scarce and the price higher than has ever been known, which accounts for saving the weeds. It is said if the thistles are cut before they get too old stock will eat them readily.

PATRIOTIC WORK

SHERBROOKE PATRIOTIC ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the S.P.A. was held on Tuesday, the vice-president, Mrs. A. F. Fraser, presiding. After the usual business the treasurer reported that the sum of $653.07 had been subscribed for the soldiers' Christmas party, and the following Christmas report was given by Mrs. H. Irwin, convener of the Christmas party committee.

The 53rd Armory never before rang with such merriment and pleasure as upon the occasion of the "Christmas party" held Friday night, December 27, under the Sherbrooke Patriotic Association, to our returned soldiers, their wives and families, when about eight hundred guests were present, and were received by Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Arthur Fraser, Madam DeLozville and Madam Dastous. Never has the armory presented such a joyous and happy appearance, the decorations being beautifully carried out under the direction of Miss Lloyd and Miss G. Hale, with the able assistance of the war veterans, who worked for days, everyone calling for them from every direction. The beautiful Christmas tree, with its gay and bright appearance, laden with surprises, and looked after by Mrs. Drury and her untiring and energetic committee, was the happy event of the evening. Santa Claus arrived with a great rush of excitement, and everyone went wild with joy when every soldier, wife and child received a bag of good things to eat as well as toys, handkerchiefs and smokes. The refreshments were splendidly arranged and looked after by Mrs. Harkness and her good helpers, and were much enjoyed by everyone. Ice cream and drinks also were served from a prettily decorated table by Mrs. James Wilson and her staff in charge. The committee wish very cordially to thank Mr. Brien and every member of the band who assisted most materially in the pleasure of the evening, and the Misses and Master Dastous for entertaining the guests with their graceful dancing; Mrs. Arthur Fraser, who looked after the music, etc.; Mrs. Andrea Robinson for receiving and acknowledging donations and looking after the publicity part, and the ladies of the East Sherbrooke branch, who assisted on several committees. Mr. Parkes made a splendid host and his forthright Mayor White addressed a few words of hearty welcome to "our splendid returned men." The Boy Scouts, under their chaplain, Mr. Russell, added greatly to the festivities. The committee in charge, on behalf of the Sherbrooke Patriotic Association, most gratefully thanked Mr. T. R. Walters, vice-president of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Montreal, for 4,000 cigarettes and 50 lbs. of tobacco; A. E. Kinkaid & Co., 200 cigars; W. R. Webster & Co., 200 cigars; the Page Printing and Binding Co., wrapping paper; Mr. Thompson, of the Woolworth Co., tinsel, cord and ribbon; the McCall-Bissell Co., Edwards Furniture Co., Miss Spear, Mrs. MacSwiggan, H. C. Wilson & Sons, Silver Spring Co., the Fletcher Pulp and Lumber Co., Hovey Bros., Sergeant Martin, everyone who lent lanterns, flags and bunting and the contributors to the Christmas crackers. The committee thank one and all for the very generous donations and assistance. Everyone entered into the spirit of dancing and rejoicing, and the first Christmas party to our splendid returned soldiers most successfully came to an end with "God Save Our King."

An acknowledgment was read from the Hon. treasurer of the Canadian Serbian relief committee of Toronto of a contribution of $60 from the Serbian relief committee of the S.P.A. The treasurer had also received New Year greeting cards from Mrs. D. Forbes Angus, president of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild, and from Mrs. T. M. Craig, of California, former treasurer of the S.P.A., who follow the work of the association with great interest.

Mr. R. Becker, secretary of committee on returned soldiers and sailors, reported most satisfactorily on the work done from December 18 to December 31. Seven troop trains had been met and several Sherbrooke boys on board were given a cheery word, although they were not allowed to get off here; ten soldiers have been met on arrival from Montreal and Quebec and cared for; ten have positions where they were employed before enlisting, and others have been given meals and rooms and otherwise helped. During the month a telephone has been donated to the G.W.V.A. by the S.P.A.

The convener of the entertainment committee reported that arrangements were being made for a victory ball and bridge, to be held in the near future for the benefit of the khaki word.

Eighteen new members have been enrolled during the past month. At an executive meeting held on December 26, two important committees were formed—the employment committee and the reception committee of the S.P.A. for returned soldiers and sailors. The members of the employment committee are Mr. J. M. Jencks, chairman; Mr. A. M. Sanger, Mr. G. D. MacKinnon, Mr. A. G. Campbell, Mr. E. J. Page and Mr. R. Becker (secretary).

The reception committee, with Mr. Haight as chairman, has been formed into twelve teams, six composed of ladies and six of gentlemen, with captains as follows: 1st Mrs. Paton, 2nd Miss White, 3rd Mrs. Allen, 4th Mrs. Robinson, 5th Mrs. Bowen, 6th Mrs. Morrill, 7th Mr. E. W. Farwell, 8th Mr. H. Hyndman, 9th Mr. W. G. Cross, 10th Mr. V. E. Morrill, 11th Mr. E. S. Baker, 12th Mr. Philip Robbins. Each captain will choose eight or ten assistants, the men to meet the trains and the ladies to prepare a reception in the rooms which the committee hopes to secure for that purpose, the necessary authorization having been given for their rental and furnishing. A purchasing committee was also formed, composed of the following: Mr. Baker, chairman; Miss White, Mrs. Bowen, Mr. Haight, Mrs. Rosenbloom, Mrs. Paton, Mrs. A. F. Fraser.

OPPOSITION IN BRITISH PARLIAMENT

Claim By Labor Party that It Be Regarded as Such Raises an Interesting Situation if Officially Recognized.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—The claim of the Labor party to be regarded as the official opposition party in the House of Commons, and the success of Wm. Adamson, the party's leader in the elections, carries an important implication that the Labor party considers itself as being able to form an alternative government. It is a tradition of parliament that in the event of a defeat of the Government in the Commons the Sovereign will call on the leader of the Opposition to form a new cabinet.

The situation is interesting because the Labor party's action virtually sidetracks the Asquith party which has hitherto been regarded as the official opposition. Much will depend on the decision of the Speaker of the Commons whether the Laborites are granted all the privileges, including occupation of the opposition whips' room and precedence in debate, accruing to the official opposition. It is generally believed that some compromise will be arranged which will combine Mr. Asquith's adherents and the Laborites as the opposition.

LABOR PARTY WILL BE OFFICIAL OPPOSITION

LONDON, Jan. 8.—At a joint meeting of the executive of the Labor party and Labor members of Parliament a resolution was passed, with one dissentient, in favor of the Labor party in the House of Commons becoming the official opposition.

NEW WORLD'S SPEED RECORD BY AIRPLANE

Flight of 215 Miles Between Dayton and Cleveland Was Covered in One Hour and Fifteen Minutes.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 8.—What is believed to be a new world's airplane speed record was set yesterday in a flight from Dayton to Cleveland by Pilot Eric Springer and Mechanic Ernest Longchamp, in a Martin bombing plane, driven by two liberty motors. The 215 miles was covered in one hour and fifteen minutes, an average of 172 miles an hour. The previous record between the two cities was two hours flat.

SQUADRON MADE TRANSCONTINENTAL FLIGHT.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
MINEOLA, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Four army airplanes under the command of Major Albert D. Smith, landed at Hazelhurst field at 5.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, completing the first transcontinental flight ever made. Although the planes started from San Diego, Cal., on December 4, the actual flying time for the 4,200 mile trips was only fifty-three hours. Major Smith explained that the squadron had been compelled to remain inactive for three weeks because of adverse weather conditions.

BOLSHEVIK IS FOE OF LABOR IN AMERICA

Samuel Gompers Declares that Propaganda in United States
Cannot Disrupt Organized Labor —Movement is Nothing New.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—That the Bolshevik movement in the United States cannot disrupt organized labor was the assertion made here by Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, on the eve of his departure for Europe, where he will head the labor delegation to the peace conference.

"This movement is nothing new," he said. "There has always been a radical element in the labor movement that has tried to destroy the very forces which make it so hard for organized labor to make its demands effective. These American Bolsheviks have earned for labor countless enemies, and in some sections have represented us in an unfavorable light."

As to the fund of $500,000 which the Bolsheviks in this country are reported to have at their disposal, Mr. Gompers added:

Holds Rain Record.

The reputation of being the rainiest place in the world is claimed by the hill station of Cherrapunji, on the Assam slope of the Himalayas, the average annual precipitation, based on a record of forty years, being 426 inches. Officially this is eclipsed by Waimaleale, on Kauai island of the Hawaiian group, where D. H. Campbell, of Leland Stanford University, records an annual rainfall of 518 inches or more than forty-three feet. Prince Rupert has yet to be heard from.

BRITISH SOLDIERS IN LONDON HOLD DEMONSTRATION AGAINST DELAY IN DEMOBILIZATION

Chief Cause of Dissatisfaction is Belief Held By Many that Troops are to Be Sent to Russia—War Office Issues Statement that No New Forces Will Be Sent There—Premier
Lloyd George Takes a Hand—General Commanding
London District Blames Agitators.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—Soldiers objecting to delay in the demobilization of the British armies engaged in further demonstrations yesterday. The vicinity of the War Office was invaded by lorries filled with men and by marching soldiers. They came from the Shoreham Camp. Many of them were on leave from Saloniki and objected to being sent back.

On the sides of the lorries were signs reading "Get a move on," "We won the war, give us our tickets," "Get on with it, Lloyd George," and other similar sentiments. The men were generally well behaved and treated the matter humorously, although they refused to disperse until a deputation was seen by officials, who assured them that Viscount Milner, secretary of state for war, and General Sir William Robertson were then in conference on the grievances advanced by the soldiers.

The press is generally displaying full sympathy with the troops, but the more influential newspapers do not hesitate to tell them that they are acting inadvisably in taking their present course, which is not open to their comrades overseas, who are equally entitled to demobilization.

One of the chief causes of dissatisfaction is the belief held by numbers of the troops that they are to be sent to Russia. This will be dispelled by the official statement issued at the War Office today, saying there is not the slightest intention of despatching new forces to Russia. It has been announced officially that the rate of demobilization, which last week was ten thousand per day, has been already increased to twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand daily.

Premier Lloyd George returned to London from Wales, and is expected to bring about the adoption of some of the contemplated changes for a more rapid demobilization of those men who can be spared before the treaty of peace is signed.

A War Office statement, issued last night, prints an address by Major General Fielding, Commander of the London district to the troops assembled in the War Office quadrangle. He absolutely declines to consider grievances submitted in such a manner by the troops, and told them they must bring their objections to their own headquarters, and to their commanding officers. He reminded them that the war was still on and that "although we have won the war we may lose the peace." He said he knew the trouble was being fomented by only a few agitators, and that "most of the men would be ashamed of the action they are taking if they only knew the danger in which they are placing the country."

The Government has issued a further explanatory statement concerning the demobilization. It announced that from a date to be fixed no officer or soldier in France will be allowed to come to England on leave except on the distinct understanding that he will return to France on the expiration of his leave, and that on no pretext whatever will he be discharged during leave.

The statement adds: "Experience shows this order to be necessary in order to ensure the maintenance of the army of occupation, the personnel of which must receive leave in their turn."

NO DEMOBILIZATION ORDER UNTIL AFTER PEACE CONFERENCE

An Efficient British Army
Must Be Maintained to Meet Any Contingencies.

(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuters Limited)
LONDON, Jan. 8.—Reuter's understands that general demobilization cannot be ordered until after the Peace Conference, as an efficient army must be maintained in order to meet any contingencies. Ten thousand soldiers have been discharged daily to their homes last week, and the number dealt with in France increased to over twenty thousand daily, including men from the Dominions.

STRIKERS AND POLICE CLASH AT BUENOS AIRES

Several Persons Were Killed and More Than a Score Wounded
During Fighting at Iron Works on Outskirts of City.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 8.—Several persons were killed and more than a score wounded during a fight between police and strikers at the Vasena Iron works on the outskirts of this city yesterday afternoon.

Police and firemen, reinforced by a large number of patrolmen, formed a line of defense against strikers who were attempting to attack laborers who had replaced them in the foundry of the iron works. The police were hampered by their inability to get reinforcements to the scene, without more serious fighting, the strikers having closed all but one street and having cut telephone lines. Those killed or injured lay in the streets for many hours because of the inability of ambulances to get through.

It is understood that a general strike of harbor workers will be declared today because of the refusal of ship owners to meet the demands made by the men three weeks ago. The prefect of the port assembled troops last night to prevent disorder in case a strike is called.

DISCONTENT HAS SPREAD TO THE GRAND FLEET

Crews of Many of the Auxiliaries Protest Against Slowness of Demobilization and Agitate for Their Discharge.

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 8.—Discontent has made its appearance in the Grand Fleet over the slowness of demobilization, especially among the auxiliaries whose duty it has been to sweep up mines. The crews of many of the auxiliaries have been recruited from the fishing fleets, and the men wish to share in the huge profits now being made by the fishermen. They had been offered two pounds extra weekly to continue at work, but are agitating for their discharge. Further demonstrations by the soldiers took place today in London and other centres.

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 8.—Imports in the United Kingdom during December decreased £31,420,000 over the same month in 1917, according to the statistics made public by the Board of Trade today. The increase was mostly in foodstuffs and raw materials of which £4,500,000 was cotton.

Exports increased largely, cotton textiles providing £2,000,000 of the increase.

PROUD STORY OF BRITISH OPERATIONS

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Jan. 8.—The Times says that Field Marshal Haig's despatch to the House of Commons today is a proud story of British operations ever had to tell. From August 8 onwards the British army began to play the principal role in the Allies' great concerted movements. No army ever suffered such severe losses as had the German army when the armistice was concluded, and though all sides are magnificently shown by British troops gave them the chief share in producing these results. In this epic fighting were many supreme passages. Three which seem to have impressed Field Marshal Haig were the capture of the St. Quentin by the Australians, the breach of the Quent switch by two Canadian and four English divisions, and the capture of Belle Englise on the Canal Du Nord by the forty sixth division.

The Times pays a tribute to British generalship which completely out-maneuvred the German army. "Without the genius of Foch the results would not have been secured, but even the genius of Foch would have been unavailing without the skill of the British general staff which, while subject to the general plan arranged, still retained all its old initiative and above all without the magnificent valor of the British army."

NEWSPRINT INQUIRY WAS RESUMED TODAY

Arguments Heard Before the Paper Control Tribunal to Which Both Publishers and Manufacturers Appealed.

(Canadian Press Despatch) OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—The newprint inquiry was resumed today before the Paper Control Tribunal to which both publishers and manufacturers are appealing from the award made last September by Commissioner R. A. Pringle. In place of the $69 per ton which Mr. Pringle approved as the minimum price retroactive to July 1, the publishers suggest $50, and point out that this figure would give even the higher cost mills a slightly larger profit than they had ever made before the Pringle investigation, while the low cost mills would be operating at a profit much in excess of that anticipated by the Pringle probe. The manufacturers on the other hand ask that the Pringle price be increased to $80 per ton retroactive all the way back to January 1.

The publishers brief ridicules the manufacturers' claims that from 15 to 20 per cent. should be allowed as the publishers' margin. It contends that the business is not a hazardous one and there is no competition resulting in price cutting.

While the manufacturers argue that fifty per cent. of the profits should remain in the business, they overlook the fact that the price of newsprint has increased by the amount of such profits retained.

The manufacturers in their brief, give a very different view of the newsprint situation. They point out that Commissioner Pringle, in fixing $69 as the price from July 1, declared that he had made a figure which might have on the evidence before him and before the American Federal Trade Commission. They entered the plea that their export trade makes the business one of great importance to Canada, and add that "every reason against any further persecution." Asking that Mr. Pringle's price be increased, rather than reduced, they say: "The cost reported by the Commissioner is not actual cost, but average cost, and the result is that some of the higher cost mills are obliged to sell their product at a figure which is commercially impracticable since it would not enable them to stay in business were they not engaged in the manufacture of other products besides newsprint."

EXPORTS FROM GREAT BRITAIN SHOWS INCREASE

TEN PERSONS DEAD IN FIRE AT PITTSBURG

Injuries—Many Thrilling Rescues of Others Suffering from Cues Were Made By Firemen of Employees in Building.

(Canadian Press Despatch) PITTSBURG, Jan. 8.—Ten persons are dead today and a score of others suffering from injuries as the result of a spectacular fire and explosion which wrecked a film exchange building on Penn Avenue, late yesterday. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

Trapped by walls of flame, which turned the interior of the building, an eight story brick structure, into a raging furnace, some of the victims, mostly women, were hurled from the building by the explosion, while others jumped from windows or were saved in thrilling rescues by firemen.

SOLDIERS TELL OF CONDITIONS ON NORTHLAND

Pte. P. Ross Found Chicken in Christmas Egg But Apart from that He Found Food Fairly Satisfactory.

(Canadian Press Despatch) OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—Acting-Sergeant George Prud'homme, of Ottawa, was the first witness heard at the resumption of the Northland inquiry this morning. He said he had made no complaint although every time he went down to the men's quarters he turned sick. He had a weak stomach and stayed on deck as long as he could. When he did go to the table he got all he wanted to eat. Prud'homme also bought food at the canteen.

Private A. Fletcher said that at practically every meal the men had to send back for more food. Bread was stale, and the pork chops served on Christmas Day were tough and greasy. For supper Christmas night he had cheese, jam, stale bread and tea.

Private R. Ross, of Ottawa, was one of those who found a chicken in his Christmas egg. Aside from that he found the food fairly satisfactory.

Sapper Henry Gravel told a reporter the officers chided the men off the promenade deck like a bunch of sheep. Lieutenant Vauletel, of Montreal, told him that if they did not leave the deck a ship's crew with bayonets would chase them off. On Christmas Eve they were also moved off a portion of the deck. He made no complaints of the food during the trip. The crew did not hold back rations. He saw one soldier pay five shillings to an assistant steward for three eggs and a piece of ham.

The man who made the purchase had played cards and missed his supper, consequently, he bought food.

Major Westmore, officer commanding the conducting party on the Northland, was then recalled. He said he and his staff went on the Northland on Sunday morning and the ship sailed the afternoon, the troops coming aboard about four o'clock. The district officers had not met their non-coms. before sailing, but were told by Major Westmore he would hold them personally responsible for the welfare of the men under him and the cleanliness of the quarters. Each section was organized on the basis of a company. Witness was responsible for everything connected with the troops on board, and the adjutant was his mouthpiece. He described the duties of the various members of the party.
