SOMETHING UNUSUAL

as a medicine, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. And, because of that, there's something unusual in the way of selling it. Where every other medicine of its kind only promises, this is guaranteed.
If it ever fails to benefit or cure,
you have your money back.

It's the only guaranteed remedy for every disease caused by a disordered liver or impure blood. Dyspepsia, Biliousness, the most stubborn Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous

all are cured by it.

It purifies and enriches the blood, rouses every organ into healthful action, and restores strength and vigor. In building up both flesh and strength of pale, puny, Scrofulous

THE LUMBER TRADE.

(From our Boston Correspondent.)

Boston, Mass., Sept. 16th, 1893.

Trade has brightened up considerably during the past few weeks and a great improvement can be noticed. Actual sales are clearly increasing with a good inquiry and dealers all believe that by the end of the present month a great improvement will have taken place in the lumber market. The local market for spruce and hemlock is quiet and the present indications point to the fact that it will be several weeks yet before holders of spruce at least, will be in a position to take advantage of any improvement in the general conditions that may be apparent. Too much stock has been shipped here during the past month over stocking the market and dealers have succeeded in buying at a very low figure.

Clear cedar shingles at $2.50 and $2.75, as they have been quoted for several months seemed as low they could be sold, but they have been offered as low as $2.25. But although there is very little being done in this line they have got up to their former price $2.75. Clear spruce boards are in good demand, prices steady.
Pine, well it is dull.

Very little is being done in birch board, good cleared faced boards are quoted at $23.00. The following are the wholesale prices delivered F. O. B.
Boston:

Hemlock boards, rough $10.00 to $10.50; Hemlock boards, planed $11.25;
Random cargo spruce $11.50 to $12.00;
Framed ordinary $14.00; Spruce clapboards, extra $30.00; Spruce cleats $27.00 and $28.00; Spruce 2nd class $22.00 to $24.00; Lath 1st quality $2.00 to $2.25.

COUNTY NEWS.

Huntingville.

It is expected that Mr. Williams, a student from Canton Theological school, who is spending his vacation at Waterloo, will occupy the pulpit here Sept. 24th at 11 a. m., in exchange with Rev. F. G.
Leonard; he will also preach at North Hatley at 3 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Clark from Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. Stephenson from Lennoxville, were the guests of Mrs. David Dundin last week. Mrs.
Herbert Hunting and son Kenneth, and May Ford, are visiting their parents at Derby Line this week. Mr. and Mrs.
Edward Wilson are residing in a young son.

Martville.

Death has again entered our midst, this time claiming as its victim an old and respected friend, Mrs. Roswell Pierce.
The funeral took place Friday afternoon last, Rev. Mr. Harris officiating in a very able manner. Dr. Minnie Leavitt gave a very interesting lecture here last Thursday evening. We regret to have to report the illness of Miss Annie Haines.
Miss Nora Hitebeck has returned from the White Mountains. Mrs. G.
Gillis has gone to visit friends in Lisbon.
N. H. Mr. G. Mery the agent for the Bible Society made his annual visit here last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. H. M.
Pierce is still very ill.

Dixville.

Not much news; everyone seems to be very busy just now. Harvesting is about done around here and digging up tatoes is the order of the day. The Baptist people have just built a new wood shed which is large enough to hold a years supply of wood which will be much appreciated by the sexton. Tom Suntbury goes away with a cane now, the result of a runaway. Messrs. Parker and Howe are very busy just now building a new planer shed adjoining their box factory. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith of Denmark, Maine, are here on a visit. Miss Lizzie Wright and Miss Ellis Hunt have returned from the White Mountains where they have been working this season.

Maple Grove.

Death has again visited this peaceful neighborhood and has taken another highly esteemed citizen from our midst.
Charles Murphy died of heart disease on Aug. 30th. His remains were interred in the R. C. cemetery of St. Ferdinand on Sept. 2nd; he leaves two daughters and one son, the latter resides in Chicago. On the 2nd inst. Graham Stewart met with an accident while on his way to attend the funeral of Mr. Murphy, his horse took fright, bolted and threw him out of the wagon with great force. His head struck the plank sidewalk at Maple Grove street, cutting his head in two places besides other bruises. His wife carried some distance and thrown from the wagon. Another serious accident occurred Sept.
4th. Joseph Hough fell from the roof of his barn breaking three of his ribs and putting his shoulder out of joint besides other injuries. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Anderson was hurt by being thrown from a wagon, and to close the catalogue of accidents Arthur Cross broke his thumb. Rev. Mr. Falconer and family are absent for their holidays this month. The services in Trinity church for the past two Sundays have been conducted by Mr. Avery and Mr. N. Kerr, students of Lennoxville College. Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ainsley and Miss Maggie Cross of this place with Miss Victoria Woods of Danville, have been visiting friends at Lambton.

Birehton.

A goodly harvest has been garnered here. The potato crop is excellent but early varieties are rotting badly. The Cockshire Fair was held two days last week and was well attended by people from this vicinity. Our school opened last week under the direction of Miss Alma Sunbury. The Rev. Mr. Gomery, agent for the Montreal Auxiliary Bible Society, spoke in its behalf Sunday afternoon, but few being present on account of the rain; it is to be hoped as the subject is one we all should feel an interest in that the call of the collectors will be liberally responded to. Victor Ball is home on a visit to his mother and will return in a few days to North Conway, N. H., where he has been working for some months past. C. O. Miller attended Richmond Fair last week, also spending a few days with friends in his old home in Melbourne. Mr. and Mrs.
E. L. Williams who has been visiting friends here and in Sawyerville has returned to Boston accompanied by Miss Nellie Miller. Miss Minnie Leavitt
M. D., gave a temperance lecture here the other evening showing by her chart the evil effect of alcohol upon the human system.

Brookbury.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Lowe and her two children are a good deal better.
It is thought by some that it is the German measles that they have had instead of the scarlet fever as reported. It has rained every day for about a week, which makes it bad for those that have late grain to harvest, and potatoes to dig.
Hollis Tit and wife have returned from Brownington, Vt., where they have been visiting. Also Alfred Tit and wife have returned from Hatley where they have been visiting; all report a good time.
Robert Batley and wife from Lisbon, N.
H., and Mr. and Mrs. Wood from Bradford Vermont have been in town visiting friends. It is about twenty five years since Mrs. Batley visited friends in Brookbury. Elder O. W. Hayes from St. Johnsbury preached in the Advent Church last Sabbath the 17th. W. G.

are glad to learn that Mrs. James Rich is gaining slowly; she has been sick all summer and her many friends will be glad to hear that she is better. Mr.
Peter Gay from Quebec, still keeps coming around buying cattle. He is about the only one that has bought cattle here this fall. It is reported that Willis Cottee has bought one of Charles Warren's farms. Glad that Willis intends to make Brookbury his home. W. J. and Charlie Cottee are expecting to start the threshing machine soon. It is hoped that all who can will attend the cattle exhibit, to be held here in Brookbury, Oct.
4th. All will be done by the President Mr. Charles Warren and all the other flockers to make it a success. To day Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Streeter intend to return to Nashua, N. H.

Moss' River.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Free Baptist church, have been busy lately in the good work, which occupies some of their spare hours; at the meeting held with Mrs. Chas. Brown, at Ives' Hill, 27 gathered in the afternoon
Working Meeting, and over 70 friends enjoyed themselves at a social which followed in the evening. On Wednesday last 20 members came together and helped at a
"Quitting Bee," held in the school room, the general testimony being that on each occasion it was a "good time." The Rev. Jas. Billington, Pastor of the Free Baptist church, has been away to the yearly meeting of the Vermont Association of F. B. churches, which was held last week at Waterbury Centre, Vt., he having been appointed a delegate thereto by the Statenstead Association. On Sunday last he preached at West Derby, the pulpit here being occupied by the Rev. D. W.
Davis, of Coaticook, during his absence.
Mr. and Mrs. Owen have returned home to Lynn, Mass., from visiting Mr. A. A.
Woodman. The Rev. H. L. Gomery,
Traveling Secretary of the Montreal Bible Society, gave a highly interesting and graphic account of his work, in the Free Baptist Church on Friday evening, where-ever opportunity is afforded, every one concerned in the distribution of the Scriptures should make a point of hearing the story, and they will be amply repaid for their attendance. We are pleased to see that Mr. Albert A. Woodman, is progressing toward recovery, although slowly and that he is able to sit up for a short time every day. A Young People's Christian Union Meeting, has been started in the Universalist church, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Roswell Pierce, passed away to the better land on Wednesday last; deceased, who was over 70 years of age, was buried in the cemetery at Martville, on Friday afternoon.

Waterville.

Since last writing death has claimed one of our citizens who was well known and respected in the person of Mr. Oliver A. Deane, who died last Sunday morning. He came here from Sweden twenty three years ago and remained until his death; during his long residence here he was noted especially for his sterling honesty and uprightness of character.
He will be missed by old and young in our village. Miss Christina Johnston, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, is visiting the Johnston here at present. Mrs. Daniel Jones left for Danville, Vt., where she intends to visit for a few weeks.
Messrs. C. O. Peterson, Peter Swanson, Jas. M. Govey, and Fred Westgate leave for the World's Fair this week in company with the Hon. John McIntosh. Mr.
C. W. Parlin, the vice principal of St. Francis College, Richmond, spent Sunday here with relatives. Miss Annie and Miss Amelia Hamel of Louisville, have been staying at the Waterville House. Miss Jennie Fisk of Boston,
Mass., has been home visiting her parents.
Mr. Thomas O'Brien of Wells River, Mass., a native of Waterville has been visiting here. Sabbath morning and evening the pulpit of the Congregational church was occupied by the Rev. John McVicar, B.
A., a missionary of the Presbyterian church in Hannan, China. In the evening the Rev. gentleman, who is a gifted speaker, gave a very interesting account of some of the difficulties missionaries have to face in China. If Mr. McVicar should again favor us with his presence, we believe the church which on this occasion was filled will be crowded.
The usual public quarterly review of the Congregational Sunday School will take place in the church next Sunday evening.
The services of the Church of England, Waterville mission, for Sept. 24th, seventeenth Sunday after Trinity, are,
Holy Communion (only) at 10 a. m. at 9
a. m. at North Hatley, service with Holy Communion at 10:30; at Waterville bible class and Sunday School at 2:15, service at 3; Eustis service at 7 p. m.

Barnston.

Quite a sensation was caused in our village last Friday by the sad and sudden death of Eugene C. Beaumont, a young man employed in the store of Messrs.
R-mick & Son. He was in his usual good health until about nine in the morning when he came in from the back store complaining of feeling unwell and of numbness and loss of power; he soon sank into a chair and became unconscious and died the same afternoon; he had terrible spasms and convulsions and as these were symptoms of poisoning, the coroner was notified and an inquest held but nothing was brought out to show that he died from other than natural causes.
Dr. Robinson who was with him until death, stated that he died from apoplexy with symptoms of poison, and a verdict was rendered accordingly and blaming no one for his death, as he was in good health, had no enemies and no known reason why he should commit suicide.
The cause of death is still a mystery and the theory of poison in some form is generally believed in; he was 19 years old and a son of Thomas Beaumont of this town. John Cleveland and his brother James arrived here from Ireland a few days ago, they are the guests of Mr.

G. Bryan, after visiting the World's fair they will return to Ireland. Mr. Robt.
Gardyne of North Troy, Vt., who in his younger days was a resident of the place is visiting friends here. Mr. George Hall has sold his farm to his brother Lewis Hall together with the farm crops, stock, etc. The wind blew the cupola off the Town House on Saturday last. Misses Maud Thornton, Maud Noyes, and Maud Wheeler, have returned from the White Mountains where they have been employed during the summer. Rev.
Mr. Currie the evangelist has been holding meetings at the Baptist church for nearly two weeks which has resulted in much good, a good many having been converted and baptized. Wm. H.
Buckland and his mother left for Chicago
at other western parts on Wednesday the 18th.

East Hatley.

Death has again visited this place and taken a much esteemed friend from our midst, Mrs. Howland, who had been in declining health for some months, I might say years, was released from suffering on the 14th inst. She was buried on Saturday by the Rev. Mr. Stevens, who spoke cheering and comforting words and gave testimony to the beautiful faith of the departed one, "As the Lord Will," was her frequent utterance during her hours of pain and unrest. The family circle is broken for the first time. A husband, three sons and three daughters and little grand-daughters are left to mourn her loss. The children with the exception of one married daughter who had but lately returned to her home in Toronto were all present at her burial. The floral offerings were very handsome. A faithful wife has been taken and a very devoted husband is left, a loving mother, a kind and generous neighbor and friend has gone the way of all the earth. Much sympathy is felt for all, but especially for the father and daughters who remain at home. But why should we mourn but rather give thanks that

The weary frame is now at rest
The beating heart is stilled;
The busy hands are folded now,
For so the Father "Willed."

The Harvest Festival last week was a very successful gathering. The day was simply perfect. The church was resplendent with fruit and flowers in happy combinations. The speakers were all in good trim and each one gave us some happy thoughts as well as some uplifting ones.
The net proceeds were I believe about $36. The Rev. Mr. Osborne left the same evening for a little trip to Ottawa and has not yet returned. Mr. Ward, of Compton, gave an interesting discous-se at the Methodist church on Sabbath morning last. There was a much smaller attendance than usual at the S. S.
Do not forget that next Sunday is review Sunday and the collection on for S. S. Aid and Extension fund. The Rev. Mr.
Mick of Milton will occupy the pulpit on Sunday next. Miss Leavitt, M. D. has just returned from a successful five days engagement in the lecture field in Compton County. She expects to return for several more evenings in the near future.
After visiting several points in Staten-stead County she expects to speak at Island Pond and various other places in that vicinity W. C. T. Union which need to be stirred.

East Clifton.

The farmers in this place have about finished harvesting their crops. Grain, corn, beans, etc., are mostly well stored.
They are getting in their root crops now which are turning out well. Our schools have both commenced with the Misses Keller and Wulker for teachers. We wish them success as undoubtedly they will have. A gloom was cast over this community such as it has seldom seen by the sudden death on the evening of Sept.
16th, of Mrs. Frederick Williams formerly Miss Christiana McRae. She had been in poor health for some time but was not considered dangerously ill until Friday night she was suddenly taken worse.
Medical aid was immediately summoned but without avail. God called her to come up higher. She was a true Christian in the fullest sense of the term, in the church, in society, in her social sphere, as a wife, mother or friend she has left no superior. There is an aching void in the hearts of the people here today which can never be filled. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. S.
Dreppon assisted by Rev. Mr. Ferguson, Rev. Joseph Lowry making a few remarks alluding to the noble Christian life of the deceased and proving true the words of Dr. Guthrie that a good time to begin the religious training of children was with their grandparents. The text chosen was Jeremiah, 15, 9. "Her sun is gone down while it was yet day. She rests at the end of the path in the city whose builder and maker is God."

IN MEMORIAM.

Her sun is gone down
While it was yet day;
Oh, how we shall miss her,
We hear them all say.
What beautiful music
Is heard in the sky,
Is it Angels of God
Wafting her soul on high?
Though the hand that called her,
From loved ones to part,
Sends daggers of love
That pierce deep into our heart;
Though the pathway seem lonely
And the way so dark
Yet may we live as she lived,
With Christ in our heart.

F. C. KEMPFIELD.

The Richmond County fair on Friday and Saturday last was well attended and had a large number of excellent exhibits.
Indeed the county fair this year have all shown a decided improvement in all classes of exhibits.

The Question of the Day.

Often Asked—Where can I find a home? Where can I find a living? Where can I, with ordinary diligence, prudence and economy, provide my family with the necessities of life, and feel assured that at the end of it I can leave to my children a decent inheritance? In what place can I go and find good land on terms so reasonable that I may get a portion of it without burdening myself with debt, which I can never hope to pay off? Where can I find such a place as this and safe from crop failure, and so allow me to devote myself to any special branch of agriculture for which I may feel myself fitted.

Answered in a few words. Get a home in the great Flour State of Minnesota. It never yet had a crop failure—where land values are increasing rapidly. Write without delay to the International Land Company, Guaranty Loan Building, Minneapolis, Minn., for all information. They can sell you farms on any terms that may desire so that you will be satisfied.

SHE WAS NOT FOOLED.

And She Didn't Want Any One Else Taken In Either.

It was in the waiting room of the Third street depot. A lady who was reading a newspaper had the glove off her left hand, and her solitary diamond ring caught the eyes of a score of people. She didn't know anything about that, of course, and was no doubt deeply interested in the news from Siam when a chunky young woman about 30 years of age changed her seat to bring her within speaking distance and asked: "Would you mind about me asking you a question?"

"No. Certainly not," was the reply.

"Is that a diamond ring you have on?"

"Yes."

"Will you look at mine and see if it's a diamond?"

From the depth of a reticule she fished out a stocking, and from its mysterious recesses she by and by drew out a ring with a glass setting as big as a dime.

She rubbed the ring on her dress for awhile and then handed it out for inspection and asked:

"There, do you call that a diamond?"

"No, it is not a diamond."

"Didn't cost $2,000, did it?"

"Oh, no!"

"About 75 cents, eh?"

"That would be nearer its value, I think. I hope you didn't buy that for a diamond ring."

"No, I didn't. My feller gave it to me for an engagement ring."

"I see," said the lady as she turned her head away to smile.

"Said it was a $2,000 proof of his love."

"Yes."

"But he didn't fool me any. The minute she began to fade out and turn black I threw her over for another feller, and dad sent $500 out of him for toying with a young girl's heart."

I didn't suspect it had turned to a diamond, but thought it wouldn't do any hurt to ask, and it also sorter struck me that some feller might have played the same game on you. If he has, have your dad go for him. Them sort o' chaps kin be scart right outer their butes."—Detroit Free Press.

A Black Lie.

Mrs. Johnson Macy, one of the society ladies of Austin, sent the colored boy she has employed about the place to Mrs. Flapjack's boarding house with a note. The boy came back in about an hour and reported that Mrs. Flapjack was not in.

"Did you see her sister?"

"No, mum; she had gone out too."

"Well, then, did you not give the note to some of the boarders?"

"No, mum; de boarders had gone out too."

"Well, you could have left the note with the cook."

"Well, now you must go right back and see if there is not somebody about the place and give them that note—do you hear?"

The boy hesitated, and the lady asked impatiently:

"What are you waiting for?"

"Please, mum!"

"Well, what is it?"

"Please, mum, what street does she live on?"—Texas Sittings.

Esmeralda Snubbed.

Esmeralda Longcoffin is very much gone on Mr. Golding, with whom she has a passing acquaintance, but her love is not reciprocated. At last Esmeralda got desperate and resolved to bring Gus to terms. At a picnic she said, with flashing eyes:

"Sir, I want you to stop parading past my window every day. My mother don't like it."

"I'll be glad to accommodate you if you will tell me where you live," replied Gus, with a cynical smile.—Exchange.

Only One Didn't Know.

Bilkins (suffering from a heavy cold)—I met 45 different acquaintances this morning, and just 44 of them told me of some sure cure for a cold.

Wife—Didn't the forty-fifth offer any advice?

Bilkins—No. He had a cold himself.—New York Weekly.

Well Named.

Friend—I see you have named a new brand of cigarettes after Cicero.

Manufacturer—Just so.

Friend—But Cicero knew nothing about tobacco.

Manufacturer—That's all right. Not tobacco in them.—Good News.

Experience Teaches.

Deacon Podnag—What a beautiful sight it will be in the world to come—all the streets paved with gold.

Brother Hayseed—I don't believe it's nothing but brass. I bought one of them there gold bricks myself once.—Texas Sittings.

Appropriate.

Ten Broke—Why do you call that your poker chair?

Miss Dashing—Because it has so often sold a pair.—Truth.

A Nice Outlook.

"They say," said Springins, "that it takes three generations to make a gentleman."

"That," replied Wiggins

Miss E. Parslow's drawing of Bishop Dunn, on exhibition in Fraser's window, is a creditable piece of work and one which attracts attention. This lady seems to possess a natural talent for this kind of work, as she has received very little instruction.

Plowing Match.

At a largely attended meeting of the directors of the Sherbrooke Plowman's Association held in Lennoxville on Saturday last it was decided to hold the annual matches on Wednesday the 18th day of October, the place to be announced as soon as selected. A prize committee was appointed and instructed to commence the all important work of collecting the materials and money at as early a date as possible, and it is to be hoped that the people of Sherbrooke and its vicinity will again respond with their usual generosity to the support of so important an organization. Wm. Morris Esq., was appointed a director to fill the place made vacant by death of the Vice President, the late James McIntosh.

Severe Cloutier and Modeste Provencier, both of the Township of Shipton, were brought here Wednesday night by High Constable Moe under a warrant issued at the instance of Willis Wentworth, County Prosecutor, upon a charge of selling liquor in violation of the Dunkin Act. They were brought before G. E. Rioux, D. M., yesterday and convicted and fined $50 each or 60 days. They went to jail.

The Harvest Home supper and concert in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening was a grand success. The burden of the program was sustained by the Harmony Quartette, of Sherbrooke, and their singing was highly appreciated as the frequent encores indicated. The Rev. C. R. Flanders was unavoidably absent, and in consequence Mr. A. H. Moore filled the gap with one of his happy addresses, inculcating some very useful truths.—Magog News.

The Hon. John McIntosh was in Sherbrooke a few days ago, having just returned from Chicago. He spoke in enthusiastic terms of the Canadian exhibit at the World's Fair, and particularly of Quebec Province. He thinks the money spent in sending these exhibits will be amply repaid by the prominence given to Canada for the unlooked for fine display of farm and dairy products, stock etc. He returns at once to aid in the coming October show of cheese and butter, which he anticipates will be very fine.

SERENADE.—Mr. Felix Brunelle, one of Mr. Z. P. Cormier's staff, was married this week to Miss Fournier of St. Hyacinthe, returning here with his bride. After playing several pieces the band were invited in by Mr. Brunelle Sr. and hospitably entertained and a pleasant time spent. We wish the happy couple every prosperity in life.

MARY L. WILSON, Librarian.

"The Skirts of Chance," Capt. Alfred Thompson's strong and vividly worded prize novelette, published in "Tales from Town Topics No. 9," will appeal to a wide circle of readers. The characters are drawn with force and cleverness, the action is rapid and continuous, and the story abounds in dramatic pictures. It deals largely with the stage and the frequenters of the cabaret; but the scene is a moving one, the action taking place in London and in many principal cities of continental Europe. London upper and lower bohemian elbow each other throughout the book, and the reader is oftentimes dazzled by the garish yet fascinating light surrounding the lives of many of the characters. The story fills one hundred and fifty pages, and is followed by a large and well-selected assortment of miscellaneous matter, comprising the tenderest, wittiest, most humorous poems, stories and burlesques ever printed in the clever New York society journal. Town Topics, 21 West Twenty-third street, New York.

Subscribe Now.

Now is the time to subscribe for a good family newspaper such as the EXAMINER, which gives a full report of local happenings in city and country. We are now prepared to offer inducements to new subscribers and expect to make an exceptionally desirable offer in a few days. Our traveler will ere long wait upon our friends to renew their subscriptions and we trust they will be prepared for him. The sum of one dollar is small in the hands of one, but when it is multiplied by hundreds it becomes quite a large item which the publishers need to most outlay for wages, paper and the many other incidentals. Our readers can do a good turn by recommending the paper to their friends and neighbors, and at the same time make 20% on every new cash subscriber whose name and money they send in. Come, now, friends, lend us your powerful aid, so we may be enabled to put our journal in the house of every family in the townships. We are gratified to find that, without any effort, the names of new subscribers are coming in by mail or personally, wanting the EXAMINER sent them, and we are prepared to send just as many as are ordered even a hundred thousand.

Fire and Water Tests

Mr. Howe, Inspector for the Insurance Underwriter's Association was in Sherbrooke Tuesday and Wednesday and made a thorough inspection of the fire protection service here. He first called out the Fire Brigade by sending in an alarm from the Magog House box No. 35.

The following shows the time taken for the several pieces of the apparatus to arrive on the ground. The alarm was given by Mr. Howe at the Magog House box at 11:09 a. m. at 11:10 the hook and ladder truck was on the ground; at 11:11 the chemical engine; 11:12 chemical engine working; 11:12 first hose reel arrived; 11:12 second hose reel arrived; 11:14 two streams throwing 11:15 third stream; 11:15 two steamers arrived on ground, so that inside of five minutes after the alarm was sounded the whole apparatus was on the ground and several streams playing. This is pretty good time and shows the continued efficiency of our fire fighting appliance.

He next tested the pressure of water at the hydrants in various parts of the city and we understand he was thoroughly satisfied with the same.

An article that will be read with much pleasure in Nova Scotia, and indeed in every part of Canada, and with great profit in the United States, is Thomas F. Anderson's "Nova Scotia," in the August New England Magazine. It describes the scenic and historic attractions of this beautiful country, gives a genial picture of the social characteristics of the people and their interests, and outlines some of the principal resources of the region, with an account of its commercial fortunes. It is finely illustrated from photographs and sketches by Sears Gallagher, H. Martin Beal, and others. The author is a Nova Scotian, hailing from the lovely old town of Digby, and he writes with keen sympathy and ample knowledge. Published by Warren F. Kellogg, 5 Park Sq., Boston.

The Four Cardinal Points.

The four cardinal points of health are the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Wrong action in these produces disease. Burdock Blood Bitters acts upon the four cardinal points of health at one and the same time, to regulate, strengthen and purify, thus preserving health and removing disease.

Not Cut out that Way.

He had been various and continuous in his attentions to the marriageable young women and widows, but somehow it was always the other fellow who got the prize.

Said a friend to him one day: "Why don't you get married?"

"I can't do it."

"But you ought to, just the same. You are cut out for a married man."

He sighed long and deeply. "I don't doubt it as to the cut out," he said, "but somehow it doesn't result in making a married man of me."

Wife—"You are just as ugly as you can be. Before we were married you used to hold me close in your arms by the hour." Husband—"Did I? Hum! Well, I suppose it was to keep you from talking."

"Caroline," observed Mr. Smiley as he watched his wife whisking the dust out of the corners, "why don't you get a good sweeper? I saw one down town that I admired very much."

"Oh, did you?"

"Yes, and I tell you that sweeper wouldn't raise a mote of dust in the house."

"Oh, you think so, do you? But I would—yes, sir! You bring a sweeper into this house, and you'll see the dust I'll raise!"

"All right, I'll try one. There's a beauty down at—"

"Oh, go on, go on. Insult me all you want to. I'm only your lawful wife. But you bring your beauty up here, and let me get a hand at her. I'll pull every hair in her head out so I will. I'll—"

"Good gracious, Caroline, it ain't a girl. It's a carpet sweeper I mean, one with a long handle—"

"Why didn't you say so? As if I cared anyway if it was a girl. If there is one thing in the world I hate more than another, it's a jalous woman!"

"Me too," sighed Mr. Smiley.

For a good fish yarn, all wool and a yard wide, commend us to the man from Maine. Here is one taken from the Fairfield, Me., Journal: A. H. Dinmore and El Brown of North Anson were riding across the country from Dover last week. They stopped by the wayside to lunch at the noon hour between Cambridge and Harmony, and Brown started out in search of a place to procure some drinking water when he came across a hole in the ground six or eight feet across and about four feet deep, which was filled with fish. Having no hook or line with them they resorted to a fruit basket which they had in the wagon and Brown began to scoop up. He took 32 nice trout from six to eight inches long without seeming to reduce the number of trout in the hole. It seems the place in which these trout were confined was, in high water, connected with a brook near by and the fish had swam in there and became imprisoned when the water in the brook fell.

The Doctor Passed Him.

GRAVENHURST, Sept. 18. About a year ago the newspapers contained accounts of the curious case of Sam Murray, a railroad brakeman of this place. He was paralyzed as a consequence of an injury received while coupling cars, and for two years was unable to work. Several doctors among them, some Toronto specialists pronounced him incurable and his case hopeless. The Grand Trunk Railway Company paid him his total disability claim, and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was about to pay a similar claim, when Murray astonished everybody by a return to health. It was proven at the time, beyond the possibility of a doubt, that Murray's recovery was due to Dodd's kidney pills. A few days ago Murray applied to a life insurance company to take out a policy on his life. Two physicians have just examined him, pronounced him a desirable risk, and recommended the company to issue a policy. That's the kind of work Dodd's kidney pills do.

Stanstead and Compton Ministerial Association.

The September monthly meeting of the above Association was held at Duxville. A goodly number of members were present at the afternoon session which met in the parsonage, adjoining the Baptist Church, the Rev. E. B. Ryckman, D. D., President, in the chair. After the usual devotional exercises, and routine business, an admirable, well prepared paper was read by the Rev. A. E. Sanderson of Barnston. The theme chosen was on the doctrine of "The Millennium." The arguments were interesting, and called forth much discussion on the various salient points.

The public evening meeting was held in the church, and was attended by a large number of friends; the Rev. J. W. Gregory, pastor, presided. The Rev. G. H. Craik, and Daniel M. K. read the scriptures and prayed, after which addresses were delivered by the Rev. Jas. Billington on "Consecration of Life;" H. S. Osborne, on "Winning Souls;" C. S. Deeprose, on "Working for Christ;" and Dr. Ryckman, on "Political Righteousness;" singing and the benediction closed a highly profitable and enjoyable meeting.

The members of the Association have arranged for a general exchange of pulp services on the first Sabbath in the month of October, the following appointments having been fixed for that date:

Ayers Flat, Congregational Church, Rev. A. E. Sanderson; Barnston, Methodist Church, C. Moore; Belvidere, Methodist Church, G. H. Craik, D. D.; Beebe Plain, Methodist Church, A. L. It is believed that these services will be mutually beneficial to the ministers and churches, who are alike interested in the successful carrying out of the arrangements thus made.

JAS. BILLINGTON,
Sec. Treasurer.

Outing for September opens with a fascinating, complete story "Donald Grey; the Luck of a Good for Nothing," by A. B. Ward. The youthful pranks and escapades of the hero, his removal to Gotham, his misuse of brilliant talents and gradual fall from honorable employment to sharp practices and "playing the races" and the pathetic picture of a weak, dotting mother sorrowing at home, are all sketched in a masterly manner. Thousands of bright youths have run the same fatal course, thousands more will follow it to be finally ruined by turf gambling and many an ambitious reader of Outing can study the story for his good. It is a warning true to life and free from twaddling sentiment. Other notable features of an excellent number are, "Temecula Canon," a picture of American sport, by T. S. Van Dyke; "Our Sailor Soldiers," by L. B. Mero; "Football on the Pacific Slope," by Jno. Craig, and "A Wolf Hunt by Patty M. Selmes.

Kam'oops, B. C., had a fiery experience Sunday morning when ten stores and many private buildings were burned; loss $100,000.

Lute news from Japan report great floods and the drowning of over 1000 persons and the destruction of over 200 houses by the banks of the overflowed rivers giving way.

The house of Milton Myers, near Millerville, Tenn., was burned last Thursday night, and three of his children were cremated. Mrs. Myers jumped from a window with an infant in her arms, and both were seriously injured.

Canon Robinson of Christ church cathedral, Montreal, one of the early settlers of Sherbrooke county, died suddenly in Montreal on the 8th instant in his 71st year; deceased was one of the first graduates of Lennoxville college.

Henry S. Cochrane, weigh clerk at the Philadelphia mint, abstracted $134,000 worth of bullion (gold bars) from the vault and secreted it. When charged with the theft he confessed and showed the officers where it was hidden in the elevator loft.

Bishop Machray of Rupert's Land, was chosen first Primate of the Church of England, of British North America, at the meeting of the General Synod in Toronto, Tuesday. His title will be Archbishop Machray, Primate of Canada. He is a fine looking man standing 6 feet 4 inches, an eminent scholar, an eloquent speaker and a devoted worker.

Three negroes were hung in the outskirts of New Orleans, Saturday night, their only crime being their refusal to tell the whereabouts of a brother who the day previous had shot and killed a judge in court before whom he was being tried for some minor offence. After shooting the judge and wounding the son of the judge who pursued the negro, he fled to the swamp and is still at large.

A most shocking and lamentable accident occurred in Toronto Friday morning. Mr. Joseph H. Ferguson, Q. C., a well-known barrister, who had lately become blind, in some manner not easily accounted for fell from the window of his office on the fifth floor of the Freehold Loan building, and his brains were literally dashed out on the stone flags of the pavement on Adelaide street.

The General Synod of the Church of England in Canada spent Friday in discussion over the draft of constitution submitted to it. It determined several important points, and started the discussion as to whether there shall be two houses or one in the Synod. In the afternoon a special convention of Trinity University was held at which the degree of D. C. L. was conferred on six eminent dignitaries.

The Monthlies.

The Ladies Home Journal for September is, as usual, filled with useful and entertaining articles suited to all tastes and for a large number of the young to the old. Published by the Curtis Publishing Co. of Philadelphia for 10 cents per number or $1.00 per year.

Godey's Magazine for October is better than ever. The contents is varied and the illustrations are up to the high standard. The complete novel this month is by Sophie Francis B. Keel, and is called The Red Tom Brownson. This number also contains The Clocks of Paris. A Princess in Bohemia, a charming short story; Old Prints; and a Pea for the Play writer. All the departments are universally interesting and carefully edited, and the exquisite water color portraits are those of Mrs. Robert L. Henry and Mrs. A. Shreve Badger of Chicago.

The August New England Magazine is better than ever before, and it significantly marks its change of management with a beautiful colored frontispiece of Mt. Chocoma in midsummer. It is a picture which will interest all who have visited the wonderful White Mountains, and the print itself is well worth framing. It is not a mere lithograph of the old style but possibly absolute photographic reproduction of detail and delicate blendings of the colors and tones of nature. The New England is the first popular magazine to make use of the wonderful recent advances in color illustration, and this particular issue is of great interest to all amateurs in photographic and art work.

The diary of the British admiral who took Napoleon Bonaparte to St. Helena, which The Century Magazine has secured and will print in the forthcoming October number, shows the ex Emperor to have been something of a "poor." When he came on the deck of the "Northumberland" for the first time "he asked various questions of each officer of trifling import." He particularly desired to know to what regiments the English officers belonged, and when told that one belonged to the artillery he replied quickly, "I also belonged to the artillery." "General Bonaparte," as he was styled on board the ship, was accustomed to eat heartily at dinner, "using his fingers instead of a fork."

The leading article in Harper's Magazine for September is "A General Election in England," by Richard Harding Davis, who vividly describes his experience as the companion of a conservative candidate during the exciting campaign which returned the present Parliament. Readers of "The Refugees," which has been published in book form since its completion as a serial, will be interested in an article on Dr. A. Conan Doyle's hero, Duluth, by William McLennan, which appears under the title "A Gentleman of the Royal Guard," and is illustrated by Reinhardt. Col. T. A. Dodge's series on Oriental riders is continued by an illustrated paper on the "Rider of Egypt" and their mounts. The fiction of the September number includes, besides instalments of "The Handsome Humes" and "Horace Chase," two short stories, "Gabriel," and the Lost Millions of Perote, and "The General's Sword." The "Editor's Drawer" also contains a short story, "Her Sympathetic Editor," by Thomas Nelson Page.
