

The Huntingdon Greener

THE LEADING ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE DISTRICT OF BEAUHARNOIS

HUNTINGDON, QUE., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27th, 1933

One who goes wrong will speedily learn his error, and will get going right.

SEVENTIETH YEAR

EIGHT PAGES

Ormstown Locals

Lady Bowlers Close Season and Present Prizes—School Pupils Have Shower of Dishes—Rebekah District Meeting—St. Paul's W. M. S. Met Thursday

On Monday afternoon, a well attended meeting of the Ladies' Bowling Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. McLaren, president of the Club.

Following the reading of the minutes and the financial statement which was satisfactory to the members, the election of officers was held. Mrs. W. S. McLaren as president, Mrs. McBain, 1st vice-president; Mrs. M. R. Stalker, 2nd vice-president and Mrs. Ralph Mather, secretary-treasurer were unanimously re-elected. Match committee, Mrs. H. B. Patton, Mrs. John Boyd, Mrs. E. H. McCartney; Press Committee, Miss Claire Finn, Miss N. Hunter and Mrs. M. R. Stalker were named joint conveners of the refreshments.

A vote of appreciation and a hearty clap was given to the team who won the silver trophy given by Dr. J. C. Moore, at the dinner given by the club and the presentation of prizes won during the season followed. Mrs. Hooker and Mrs. McIntyre, who were the donors, as well as the winners of the prizes for the Scotch doubles, presented their prizes to the runners-up in the final game, who were Miss N. Hunter and Miss J. Hooker. They received lovely Mayonnaise and marmalade dishes.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. McLaren served tea and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Stalker and Miss Marion Stalker.

The pupils of the Ormstown Consolidated School in honor of the Athletic Association and the coming Field Day, held on Thursday a "shower of Dishes" to which each and every one of them, even to the little primary pupils willingly contributed a plate, and whatever pieces in their homes that mother could spare. The collection of dishes was in the form of a contest between classes, the reward being no home work that night for the class which had the greatest number of pieces. The contest was won by grades X and XI as the largest collection and grade IX with the pieces of most value. The staff and the Athletic Association appreciate the efforts made by the pupils and the generous response they gave, the total number of pieces being 860, and extend to them their thanks and to all who in any way helped. A cupboard will be built in the school and the dishes placed there to remain the property of the school.

We are all looking forward to the Soth Club dance in Howick next week, where the dancing, the orchestra and the music, Bob has had much success with his orchestra having played at two of the smartest summer resorts this season, Chateau du Lac, Lake of Two Mountains and the Grand Hotel, Laurentine Mountain. Besides playing at many club dances in Montreal, he has been engaged by the Lyndale Summer Camp to play in the Mount Royal Hotel for their dances this month. We offer our congratulations to Bob and his boys.

The District meeting of Ormsdale Rebekah Lodge, No. 30, was held in the Oddfellows Hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th, when Sister Winifred Sadler, D.D.P., in the chair. Assembly officers present were Sis. Elsie Hughes, President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sis. Johansen, vice-president, Sis. Bruce, Grand Marshal, Past President, Mrs. G. Lindsay, and M. Hunter, D.D.P., Sister Winifred Sadler, Brother Skecher, chief Grand Patriarch, Bro. Henshaw, Grand Master, Bro. Wilson, Grand Chief Scribe, Bro. A. Anderson, Grand Sentinel of the Grand Lodge of Quebec.

There was a splendid attendance of the members and a large number of visitors from Pioneer Lodge, No. 1, Huntingdon.

Following the meeting in the lodge the members and visitors present assembled around the banquet table and the viands partaken of.

The following evening fifteen members attended the Pioneer Lodge, No. 1, and witnessed the splendid degree work put on by the officers of that lodge.

The members of St. Paul's United W.M.S. gathered in MacDougall Hall on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 19th. The usual work season saw considerable sewing done and a quilt quilted. The president, Mrs. Pollock called the workers to order and the devotional period was conducted, each of the vice-presidents offering prayer for a special part of mission activities and officers. Between each prayer verses of hymns and the subjects were sung. The Nine sisters, knitted for emergency relief work in Montreal, were handed in and a request for 10 pounds of yarn for socks is being sent to be made for this same organization. A duet was very pleasingly rendered by Miss A. Struthers and Mrs. A. Anderson. A reading was given by Mrs. Rugar "Building a Church," this being from a section in Manitoba and showing how willing hearts and hands surmount difficulties. Mrs. J. A. Winter gave a short item on Christian Stewardship, after which the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Young.

Mr. George McWhinnie has purchased the property on Arena St. of the estate of the late John Walker, this house was recently occupied by Mr. Paul Carlier of Montreal. Mr. McWhinnie and his family intend moving into their new home this week.

Mrs. A. Hooker has bought the McWhinnie home and intends to extend his fox raising farm.

Miss Josephine Gruer of Montreal was the week-end guest of her friend Miss Isabel Todd.

Mrs. A. W. Stockwell and little son Charles returned to their home in Montreal, N.Y., after spending a month with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rousseau.

Mr. Kenneth Fox of Montreal, has spent the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beaudin of Montreal, spent last week the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Beaudin, returning home on Monday they were accompanied by Miss Irene Beaudin, who will remain for some time.

Miss Gibson, Danville, Que., is spending this week visiting at the home of Mrs. Ralph Mather.

Mrs. W. H. Stockwell of St. Jean, Que., and Mrs. E. C. Goodhue of Hamphire, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Elder, accompanied their daughters Mrs. Genevieve and Mrs. Alex. Davis of Montreal, on a motor trip to New Hampshire, where they visited Mr. Elder's brothers, John and Bertrand Elder at Lyme Centre, returning home on Tuesday.

Mrs. M. McRae of Notre Dame de Grace is spending a week with Mrs. D. McIntyre.

Mrs. A. McIntyre, Mrs. I. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sleeth and three children of Montreal and Miss Fannie McIntyre of Huntingdon, Que., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Mather.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bean of Sherbrooke, returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. W. Sadler.

Mr. Kenneth Finlayson held the luncheon at Elder's Meat Shop on Saturday night, when Billy Cavers made the draw, he was awarded the cottage roll. Mr. Elder gives a roast of beef this week.

(Adv.)

LADY BOWLERS CONCLUDE ACTIVITIES

Presentations and Ladies Entertained by President, Mrs. Goundrey and Mrs. D. L. Kelly at Latter's Home

Monday, Sept. 18th was a gala day at the Ladies' Bowling Club.

A bonspiel was put on for the President's prize, the dam, contesting. The winners were: Mrs. Allen, Mrs. McNair, Miss Wilson and Mrs. D. L. Kelly (skip). Runners-up: Miss Cluff, Arlene Goundrey, Miss Allen, Mrs. D. Walker (skip).

The final in the Club games were played off, Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Fortune were the winners.

The winners in the double were Mrs. Boyce and Mrs. E. N. Brown. After the games were finished, lunch was served by the President, Mrs. Goundrey, at the home of Mrs. D. L. Kelly.

The annual meeting followed. The Treasurer gave a very satisfactory report, $400.00 was voted the Men's Bowling Club.

The Secretary was requested to send a letter of thanks to Dr. J. C. Moore, M.P., for the lovely trophy he donated to the district bonspiel.

Prizes were then given to the winners and runners-up in the President's bonspiel, and to the winners in the Club competition and the doubles.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Goundrey re-elected President; Miss Wilson, Vice-President; Mrs. Fortune, Secretary; Mrs. Thomas, Treasurer.

After a hearty vote of thanks was given to the President and Mrs. Kelly for the enjoyable day, the match committee for their untiring efforts during the season, the bowling season was brought to a successful close.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

Annual Convention Frontier Branch Quebec Religious Education Council Held at Ormstown

The 67th Annual Convention of the Frontier Branch of the Religious Education Council of the Province of Quebec, was held in MacDougall Hall, Ormstown, on Thursday and Friday of last week, the President, Rev. T. P. Duncan in the chair. It was a decided success from every viewpoint. The addresses were up to the mark, the attendance was the best in years; the entertainment was unexcelled; the fellowship and spiritual tone of the whole Convention made all feel that it was really worth while.

Mr. B. B. Moore of Howick led the sessions in three thoughtful and helpful devotional addresses based upon 1 Cor. 1st Chap. The delegates listened with deep interest to his exposition, dealing with 1st, The Foundation; 2nd, The Builders; 3rd, The Builders, you and me, and the kind of builders required, if the structure is not to crack and perish in these days of severe criticism.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes of last year's Convention, held at Hemmingford, a small committee consisting of Revs. J. H. Miller, A. F. Pollock, J. H. Woodside was appointed to nominate committees for the ensuing year.

A Questionaire bearing upon the whole work of the Sabbath Schools was presented by Mr. Duncan, and resulted in a discussion of the many sides of the work. This was followed by a most interesting and enthusiastic report of West Ward Training School established this year in Montreal, and carried on in the Y.M.C.A. under expert leadership, Miss Dossiey has been the moving spirit in this new enterprise in teaching teachers how to teach. The course lasts for two weeks and there were thirty-six full time students in attendance this first year. There is now some talk of setting up another course of instruction during the winter months.

The Thursday evening session was opened by a song service under the leadership of Rev. R. J. Katsunoff and St. Paul's choir. This was an enjoyable half hour.

(Continued on Page 5)

Little Girl Slips Off Rock Into Deep Water

Seven-year-old Alice St. Michel, daughter of Celestin St. Michel, of 168 St. Lawrence street, Valleyfield, Que., lost her life by drowning in the old Beauharnois Canal, near the new bridge on Tuesday morning.

The little girl had attended school and was on her way home accompanied by another pupil, when the fatality occurred. Alice St. Michel and her friend stopped near the shore of the canal and the former took her shoes off for the purpose of playing in the water. While standing on some rocks, the child slipped, lost her balance and rolled into the water, at a spot where the depth is over thirty feet deep. The other girl ran home and notified her parents and an active search for the body is now being conducted by the police and relatives of the drowned girl. No trace of the body was yet found early Wednesday.

Ormstown

$1,000,000 FIRE DESTROYS CATHEDRAL AND CONVENT

Fire of Unknown Origin Broke Out in the Beautiful Valleyfield Cathedral and Razed the $600,000 Edifice to the Ground in a Few Hours' Time

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR RECONSTRUCTION

Convent and Adjoining Normal School of Sisters of Jesus and Mary Gutted—Firemen, With Montreal Aid, Fought Blaze All Night

Tears streaming down the cheeks of a kind-faced bishop, nuns huddled together weeping in deploration of their loss, priests with a saddened populace awe-struck at the spectacle, were familiar sights in Valleyfield on the night from Thursday to Friday when the Diocese of Valleyfield lost its historic and valuable cathedral and the Sisters of Jesus and Mary their Convent and Normal School.

The next morning was market day in Valleyfield and on return from the fire burning wagons were met on their way to sell produce. But for the day marketing was almost forgotten when it was learned that the cathedral was destroyed, for it was the church of not only Valleyfield people but of those who had journeyed all night in horse-drawn carriages from the east of Huntingdon to the south of Chateaugay. There were crowds at the fire when it was at its height and the next day thousands from the surrounding district visited the scene of where once stood the magnificent cathedral dedicated to Ste. Océlie, and the smouldering ruins of the educational institution through which portals thousands of district women had come and gone.

According to Rev. Canon Nepveu, parish priest of the cathedral, the fire was first noticed about 10:45 o'clock, daylight saving time, and when he rushed to the porch of the bishopric he saw flames in the southern section of the cathedral apparently near the altar, and in the belfry, at the same time.

A survey of the disaster, one of the worst ever suffered by the Catholic Church in Canada, showed the following: Historic cathedral completely destroyed, loss $600,000. Insurance carried, $400,000.

Convent of Jesus and Mary gutted and two upper floors of the adjoining Normal School ruined, loss $400,000. Insurance carried, about $200,000.

Alferie Delisle, volunteer fireman, swept from the roof of the convent by a fire hose which got out of control, fell four stories to the street. He was rushed to Hotel-Dieu but found seriously injured.

One hundred nuns and four hundred pupils forced to flee from the convent in the night and seek refuge in homes throughout the city.

When it was thought that the nearby orphanage and old people's home of the Sisters of Providence threatened, children and invalids removed to city homes. Place was undamaged.

The Sacred Host was saved, but the paintings and priceless relics were lost. The church furnishings alone were valued at $100,000. The Bishop's Palace east of the cathedral was not damaged to any extent.

Church bells rang in frantic alarm when the fire was discovered. Firemen promptly reinforced by volunteers as twelve thousand people gathered about the blazing structures. Nuns and school children roused to dread hurriedly and rush from the building. Panic, was, however, averted.

Crowds dashed in retreat when steep gale warning of fall. Fortunately it fell inward into cathedral. Outwards it would have brought flames and destruction to homes and the Sisters of Providence Hospice in the square.

Flames burst from the roof of the cathedral and were carried to the convent shortly after it had been emptied. Firemen and volunteers aided by fire apparatus rushed from Montreal, fought an almost hopeless battle against the flames for hours before they were subdued. Not until the fire had ruined the top floors of the Normal School was it conquered.

Pupils whose parents live at some distance from Valleyfield have been sent to their homes pending decision by school authorities.

The Montreal aid will cost the city of Valleyfield $10,000. Gold vestments, chalices, and many other religious articles, saved from cathedral.

Museum housed in Normal School partly saved. Works of art and numerous valuable paintings removed to safety. Quantity girl's clothing, trunks, desks, furniture, saved from the convent.

"The cause of the fire is a complete mystery," said Mgr. J. A. Langlois, Bishop of Valleyfield. "Last year all the wiring was inspected by the Longtin, 25-year-old grocery clerk of St. Stanislas, who, police say, also fired his revolver in the affray. He is being held as Simard's accomplice.

Simard was arraigned two weeks ago after his arrest by Detective Robert in court that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

Lucien Gendron, K.C. was present in the local court Tuesday and announced that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

MINISTERS MET AT VALLEYFIELD

Nationalism Versus Patriotism Discussed by Rev. A. McK. Rose, of Clarenceville

The September meeting of the Frontier Ministerial Association of the United Church of Canada was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Greig, Valleyfield. There was the usual large attendance of the members, and the Rev. Mr. Rose introduced Mr. A. T. Unwin and Mr. Starford C. Anwin of St. Lambert, and Rev. Mr. Lloyd introduced Mr. A. J. Poole of Montreal. These were the guests of the President and the courtesies of the meeting extended to them.

Arrangements were made for a general exchange of pupils among the members of the Association on Sunday, Nov. 5th in the interests of the Missionary and Maintenance Fund. Also for a Missionary Supper to be held in Huntingdon early in November in which all the adjoining parishes were invited to take part. A resolution of sympathy with Rev. J. U. Tanner, D.D., Superintendent of Home Missions on the recent death of his wife was passed unanimously.

The paper of the day was given by Rev. A. McK. Rose of Clarenceville, and was on the subject "Nationalism Versus Patriotism." The essayist drew attention to a recent book by Dr. E. Shillito of London, Eng. "Nationalism, Man's Other Religion." This book is the first of an issue clearly indicated some years ago by Mr. H. G. Wells when he pointed out that a traveller in a European railway carriage could say almost anything he liked about God without raising more than a discussion, but a slighting reference to John Bull, The Fatherland, The Stars and Stripes, or any other national totem would instantly start real trouble. Dr. Shillito approaches the subject of which the above is only one illustration, from the standpoint of its bearing on religion. The extreme danger which Christianity or any other ancient religion has to face is not blank denial but the transferring of the individual's supreme devotion from God to the State. Thus Nationalism becomes the individual's supreme religion. It is the attitude of mind expressed in the saying "My country always right, but my Country right or wrong."

That this process of making the State supreme is advancing at the present time at a powerful rate may be seen by glancing at almost any country. Nationalism in Germany, Fascism in Italy. One hundred million centers in America and similar movements in other countries all point to the growth of Nationalism. This in view of the rapid drawing nearer of all countries in time, space and commercial and political relationships can only be a very great danger to the peace and prosperity of the world. If the reports that reach us through the press are true we have in German Nazism Nationalism reached its most destructive stage. Here we have the life of the people, even their religion, to promote the power of the Nation. In contrast with the ideal of Hitler, Germany may be placed those of Kagawa of Japan. Kagawa sees not all nations hammered into one, but each nation free to develop its own ideals that it may contribute something to the common good. Kagawa claims that this is God's plan and ideal for the race, but Hitler, the outstanding exponent of Nationalism, that all individual differences must be crushed that only the one hundred per cent German may remain.

Nationalism has in it the seeds of its own undoing. It is too one sided to stand the strain that an advancing civilization must inevitably put upon it. In a world like ours where nations are competing for power, Nationalism is a serious peril. The Church has here a great call. Through her doctrine of the Fatherhood of God she must educate men in that true patriotism which seeks the nation's highest good, not just internationalism, or world mindedness that works for the good of all peoples. Thus true patriotism seeks the opposite of that which narrow Nationalism demands.

The discussion which was led by Rev. J. E. Lloyd of Russellton and participated in by several, and consisted in, not so much of criticism of the point of view of the essay for all were in accord with the position taken, but rather in pointing out specific instances of where blatant Nationalism was working serious harm. Each speaker from his point of view emphasized the divergence between the claims of Nationalism and the principles of Jesus.

This part of the meeting having been closed with prayer and the benediction the members entered upon the always enjoyable social hour. Rev. Mr. Pollock and Rev. Mr. Woodside expressing the appreciation of all present to our genial hosts, Rev. and Mrs. Greig.

"My husband is merely a manufacturer of waste baskets," sighed the woman with aspiration. "It seems such a prosy occupation."

"On the contrary, there is really much poetry in waste baskets," replied the unappreciated poet.

along this line soon led to the detention of Longtin, who, the police say, admitted having fired in the direction of the fleeing automobile but could not say whether his bullets had taken effect.

It was therefore decided to detain both Simard and Longtin, in connection with the shooting. Dr. Fontaine is at present making ballistic tests of the extracted bullets and will present his report at the enquete on October 4. He claims that he will be able to show photographs and explain from which of the two revolvers the fatal shots had been fired. The provincial police claim that this will prove to be an important factor in the case.

Longtin, 25-year-old grocery clerk of St. Stanislas, who, police say, also fired his revolver in the affray. He is being held as Simard's accomplice.

Simard was arraigned two weeks ago after his arrest by Detective Robert in court that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

Lucien Gendron, K.C. was present in the local court Tuesday and announced that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

The bullets in Garrow's body were extracted and sent to Dr. Rosario Fontaine, provincial medico-legal expert, in the local court Tuesday and announced that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

Longtin, 25-year-old grocery clerk of St. Stanislas, who, police say, also fired his revolver in the affray. He is being held as Simard's accomplice.

Simard was arraigned two weeks ago after his arrest by Detective Robert in court that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

Lucien Gendron, K.C. was present in the local court Tuesday and announced that Judge Marin had suddenly been taken ill and the case was postponed until October 4 when several witnesses of the shooting will be heard.

Huntingdon Locals

Charivari in Town Brings Forth $45—Shower Held at K. of C. Rooms For Miss Patterson—Buford Weber Cycled From Toronto in Three Days—Stanley Ferry Member Montreal Football Club

Charivari For Heliodore Lefebvre.

Mr. Heliodore Lefebvre returned with his bride on Monday evening from a honeymoon trip spent in Ontario. As is the local custom in the case of a widower remarrying, a charivari was held. In fact, there were three of them. The first group of young men to serenade him received $20.00 for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross. The second group of men like amount; a few laques called and were given $5. In all the charivari cost Mr. Lefebvre $45, and from all reports the young and old boys had a great time spending the money. The party returned to sing a few songs for the bride and groom about 10:30 p.m. and again at midnight.

A large number of friends met in the Knights of Columbus Club Rooms on Monday evening to tender a miscellaneous shower in honour of Miss Mary Patterson. The pool table was laden with beautiful gifts which were included by Miss Jimmy Patterson to Miss Julia Myers who opened and presented them to the bride-to-be. Singing and musical numbers followed. A delicious buffet lunch was served, the tables having been prettily decorated in yellow and white with tapers, and a profusion of autumn flowers. Dancing was later enjoyed after a number of gentlemen joined the party.

Local football fans will be glad to know that Stanley Ferry is a member of the Montreal Football Club squad this season. In Saturday's game against C. N. R. which Mr. F. won 31-0 Stanley was one of the best among the newcomers.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wylie (Bernice Cogland) on the death of their little daughter Betty, aged 2 years and 2 months, which occurred at Westmount on Saturday. The funeral service was held at Westmount on Monday afternoon.

Buford Weber hung up a record that has neither been attempted nor contested since the early days of cycling in Huntingdon. Buford not only rode his bike to Toronto seven weeks ago with a companion but rode home again this week alone. He arrived home on Sunday. It took him three days to make the home trip. The distance is 330 miles.

Mr. W. J. Barker is on a two weeks' visit to relatives at North Bay, Ont. A food sale and afternoon tea was held in St. John's Church Parish Hall on Saturday afternoon. Net proceeds were in the proximity of $15.00.

Athletan played a game of baseball of the local diamond Saturday afternoon against Canadans. The game was a close one throughout but the visitors finally got the edge and won 11-9.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Morrow, Mrs. W. H. Garretsee, and the Misses Léona and Anne Garretsee spent part of their honeymoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Dawson.

The Misses Antoinette and Madeleine Michaud are enjoying holidays at Fieschman, N. Y., and in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fraser, of Ottawa, are guests at the home of Mr. W. A. Derochie.

Mr. Edgar Helm and sister, Hazel arrived across the street to attend the funeral of their father, George Helm. On their return they visited friends in Walkerville and Toronto.

YOUNG BOY STRUCK BY CAR

Patrick Savage Suffered Fractured Thigh and Internal Injuries in Collision

A young boy received a fracture of the right thigh and internal injuries in an accident which occurred in Huntingdon on Wednesday night.

Patrick, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Savage, was walking down street on an errand about 7:30 p.m. A number of young boys were playing on the street between Tony Cappiello's and the Dominion Store. Part of their enjoyment was molesting an individual out shopping. The young Savage boy happened along as this individual was chasing the boys. Thinking that he would be mistaken for one of the culprits he was running across the street to avoid apparent safety when struck by a car driven by Willard Allen. Willard was traveling at a very slow rate and could not avert the collision the young boy jumped into the street so suddenly.

Young Savage was rushed to a doctor and then to his home where first medical aid was rendered and he was found to be suffering from a fractured thigh and slight internal injuries. He was removed to the Hôtel-Dieu hospital at Valleyfield the following morning where the fracture was set. He is recovering satisfactorily.

Employer: "Ever done any public speaking?" Applicant: "Well, I once proposed to a girl over the telephone."

COUPLE HURT IN COLLISION

Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter Seriously Injured; in Toronto Hospital

Ten days ago Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Hunter, Mrs. E. J. Wadley and daughter Dorothy and Mr. J. M. Hunter drove to Toronto to visit with Mrs. A. E. Stringer and Mrs. Louise Kelly. On Wednesday evening the four sisters and Mr. Hunter were driving to a theatre in a car driven by a Mr. Hudson. At the intersection of Harbor and York Sts., a collision took place. A large car driven by E. Brooks collided with the car containing the Huntingdon folks.

As a result of the collision both cars were turned over and Mr. Hunter received a fractured knee and will be in St. Michael's Hospital for a month. Mrs. Hunter suffered cuts and injuries which will confine her to the hospital for ten days. Mrs. Wadley suffered a slight concussion; she left the hospital last week-end. Mr. Hudson suffered several cuts including an artery. Mrs. Stringer received minor cuts.

Valleyfield

Children living in the west end of the town have again manifested an interest in social service work, for on Saturday evening they presented an entertainment in Fred Bruce's hall for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross. The varied entertainment was wholly prepared by the children and was generously supported and attended by the adults. The admission fee was 5c and as a result, the children had $2.75 to donate to the Junior Red Cross Society.

The men of the Huntingdon Bowling Club met at the Bank of Montreal on Monday evening. The Bowlers decided to again hold a benefit Stag Party in the O'Connor Hall this year. The party will take place about the 20th of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watts, Mr. and Mrs. H. Butterworth of Notre Dame de Grace were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander.

Donald Hampson, eight-year-old son of Mr. F. E. Hampson, suffered a painful accident at his home in Toronto one day last week when, playing with a knife, he had the misfortune to strike himself in the eye. Doctors are hopeful that his sight will not be lost.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Robert Warden, 79 years old, fell from the south verandah of the Warden home and fractured her right wrist. We are glad to report she is recovering satisfactorily.

This morning about 9:30 when Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cappiello were leaving on their honeymoon the usual number of friends followed. As the party neared the Bank of Commerce, Mr. T. B. Pringle was driving down to work. Somehow or other his car and that driven by Guy Lefebvre collided. Mr. Pringle was in his car and Guy was accompanied by Merle Patterson. Occupants were unhurt but both cars were somewhat damaged.

Miss Dorothy McConville of Sarnack Lake, N.Y., spent Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McConville.

Mrs. J. E. Seale, accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Paquette and little son, Arthur of Morin Heights, Que., left Monday morning after spending a few days visiting their sister, Mrs. Allan Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Allen and family moved to Montreal this week after spending the summer at their home in Huntingdon.

Messrs. Charles Maxwell and Wm. Fall of St. Johns, Que., Mr. Ainsley Norman and Miss Margaret Norman were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McCoy.

Miss Georgia Morris of St. John, Nfld., is a guest of Miss Jean Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hey and Miss Elsie Halliwell have returned from an extended holiday spent in England.

A farewell party was given at the Huntingdon Chateau Thursday night for Mr. Doug. Munro who left Sunday to take up residence with an aunt at Stanstead, Que.

Miss Melina Murphy left Thursday for Walkham, Que., where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Labelle.

The Huntingdon Gleaner

Published by the Huntingdon Gleaner Inc.
ADAM L. SELLAR, President and Editor,
Brown Bldg., Huntingdon, Que.

Members, Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association;
Ontario-Quebec Newspaper Association;
Class A. Weekly Group; Ottawa and
St. Lawrence Valley Press Ass'n.

Subscription rates, Canada $1.50 year; Foreign $2.00.
Agents: A. Beaudin & Son, Ormslow, Que.
J. O'Neil, Valleyfield, Que.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Sept. 27, 1933

Curfew Is Now Patrick Savage, a little boy of 13 A Requirement years, had the misfortune to have his leg broken by an auto on the main street of Huntingdon. The accident happened in broad daylight. Patrick was no more to blame for the accident than was the driver of the auto which was barely moving when the accident occurred. The true cause of the accident was due to the rowdy actions of other boys, of whom Patrick did not happen to be affiliated with at that time. The boys were misbehaving on the street. They were molesting a private individual, and to avoid being reprimanded by the party for the misdeeds of others he ran into a car that broke his leg.

The fact that so many boys and girls are allowed to roam the streets at night inclines them to believe the street is a playground. A playground where they can do whatever they like whether it be daylight or dark. Our town is law abiding, but the careless conduct of our youth may lead to misconduct, followed by severe town administration in the future. During the four nights of the Chautauqua it was disgraceful to hear the boisterous shouting and cheering of children outside the O'Connor Building when the performances were being presented. The usual thing is to have the curfew hour set at 8 p.m. but if a curfew is to be set in Huntingdon, as we have reasons to believe will be the case, the hour will likely be 8.30 p.m.

Huntingdon has not had a curfew hour, but the bringing about of such a regulation will have very beneficial effects. It will mean that every boy and girl of school age will be in their respective homes at an early hour, and they will apply their hours before retiring to a great deal better advantage than loitering about hoping some devilment will open up for their so regarded entertainment.

Canadian Radio Is it not so that the Canadian Commission seeks Radio Commission was set up with a view to providing what was believed would be better programmes for radio listeners, and that advertising programmes would be curtailed? Since the Commission got into action we find that the radio license has been doubled, and you just can't dial in on a quarter of the stations that we did previous to the Radio Commission days. As to the Radio Commission programmes, most of them are of the type that the radio fans just don't care to listen to; but would prefer the old programmes, even if they were horribly disturbed by announcements.

The newspapers have not been severe in criticising the Radio Commission, possibly for selfish reasons. As long as the Radio Commission held out against radio advertising, it meant fewer people would think of using the radio as a means of publicity and would use the newspapers, which are recognized as the logical and best advertising mediums. Now the Radio Commission is open to change its tactics and try and induce some big companies to do advertising over the radio by presenting high class programmes. If they succeed in this objective, it means the thin edge of the wedge has been driven, and in place of having controlled radio programmes we will have another messed up affair in a very few years time.

At the present time Toronto programmes cannot be heard in Montreal during the day time. The Radio Commission might be serving the country a whole lot better if they would lend their time and effort to providing a greater range of stations for the public to select programmes, rather than try to intermingling with a commercial business such as advertising that is a rightful newspaper matter, and not what the Canadian Radio Commission was set up to develop.

The Valleyfield A tragic loss has been sustained in the destruction by fire of the historic and beautiful St. Cécile cathedral of the diocese of Valleyfield. It was not enough that one of the province's most beautiful religious edifices should be destroyed but that the flames should also raze the convent and Normal School of the Sisters of Jesus and Mary. An irreparable loss, estimated at well over a $1,000,000, in smoke in a few hours, wiped out monuments raised to the glory of God and education at the price of countless sacrifices in the last half century.

This is a great loss for the city and diocese of Valleyfield. It also saddens the other Catholics of the province to learn that they have lost their sixth church by fire in the course of the year. Although the loss is partly covered by insurance, money cannot replace the priceless works of art that were destroyed. That loss, as has happened in the case of previous fires in sacred edifices belonging to the Catholic Church, is irreparable. In due course a new cathedral will arise in Valleyfield to testify to the devotion of the faithful. Meanwhile, the sympathy of the entire Protestant community will go out in liberal measure to their fellow-citizens of the Catholic faith in their serious and most deplorable loss.

In this hour of tribulation public sympathy goes out spontaneously to the people of Valleyfield, particularly to his bishop, Mgr. J. A. Langlois, and to the parish priest, Rev. Canon Nepveu; to the Sisters of Jesus and Mary who directed the convent and Normal School. There is, however, consolation in the fact that no lives were lost, and that the nuns and children left the building without the slightest of injuries sustained by any of them.

Rev. J. A. Derome, Sunday was the last Sunday Pastor of St. Joseph's that the Rev. J. A. Derome Parish, Leaves was officially in charge of the Parish of St. Joseph, Huntingdon. For 22 years Father Derome has ministered to his large congregation of 180 French-speaking families, and another 104 English-speaking. The total population of the Parish in 1930 was 1304. The influence a parish priest might have over such a large number of people can be very telling. Father Derome is of mixed nationality being part French, Irish and going back another generation we find his grandfather was Scotch and born a Protestant. Inheriting such characteristics as are to be found in such peoples we found in Father Derome commendable traits that led to good living and thinking for his parishioners.

Having such a large congregation with the two languages so freely spoken made it not an easy congregation to administer the gospel to for such people do naturally become critical; but Father Derome laboured earnestly and hard though his health was failing. He not only had many staunch friends amongst his congregation, but numbered many amongst the Protestant population of the town. It speaks well for the citizens of the town to know that the Protestant clergy can also regard many Roman Catholic people as sincere friends.

Another good slogan to go with "Buy Now" is "Pay Now." The difference between meddling and investigating is that we investigate and the other fellow meddles. Upon every square foot of the earth's surface the sun delivers 175 watts. An ordinary roof 30 by 30 feet receives, it is explained, heat energy at the rate of 200 horsepower. It is computed that enough sunlight falls on the deck of the Atlantic liners to drive them at full speed.

When Alan Kirk and Walter Kay, two Englishmen, arrived in North Africa with a diminutive eight-horse power British car and blandly announced they were going to cross the Sahara, the French authorities were horrified and refused point blank. Afterwards, however, they relented and the little British car traversed the Sahara without mishap. The authorities insisted on the car carrying a native "pilot" when in the desert, and part of the way was escorted by huge buses, on which machine-guns were mounted for protection against possible Tuareg raiders. Mr. Kirk and Mr. Kay were doing a car journey from Liverpool, Eng., to Capetown. They have just completed it. The total distance was 13,370 miles, and the trip took 185 days, including halts and delays which, at times, extended to weeks. Tribal trouble caused them to make a detour of 1,600 miles from Tangiers, where they discovered the direct route south of Pez was closed to them. During the trip across the Sahara more than 360 miles were covered in one day. The total consumption of petrol for the trip amounted to 437 gallons—an average of more than 30 miles per gallon, and oil consumption was under 15 gallons. At a petrol station in the heart of the desert, petrol was 10 shillings a gallon.

The Rev. Father Pigeon of St. Zotique, and formerly of St. Patrick's Church, Hinchinbrooke, will be Father Derome's successor in the Parish of St. Joseph, Huntingdon.

The Penitentiary It is unfortunate for all concerned that so much attention is drawn to alleged irregularities in the Kingston penitentiary at such a time as this. For nerves are on edge. Folk everywhere are critical. The church is accused of lacking in zeal and piety. Politicians are regarded as self-seeking. The farmer complains that he is down-trodden. Judges and courts are blamed for either haste or for delay as the case may be. One part of the nation grumbles because tariff walls are too high, while another part argues that the tariff walls are not high enough. Youth is looked upon as lacking diligence and respect, while old age is spoken of as narrow and middle age is girded at as being mercenary and lacking in enterprise. Meanwhile the butcher blames the baker and the baker blames the candlestick maker. The only point of unanimity seems to be that we all agree all the rest of us are a bad lot and that the whole creation is hastening to the everlasting bow wows.

In the midst of this comes the clamor about the penitentiary. Everything, there it seems is bad except the convicts. As the old saying has it, the management there is altogether wrong and all are wrong together.

All this comes as a grave surprise to many of us. The penitentiary is an old institution for a young country such as this. Despite all that the old folk say, there always have been a few folk with whom organized society could not get along and who for that reason were shut away where they did the least harm. The penitentiary is not something that dropped down upon this country from some angry star that had a grudge against this country. It grew. And it grew up under rulers who were uncommonly fine, understanding men, men who knew quite as much about the penitentiary as some of its critics. Here are a few of them. There was John A. MacDonald, and Alexander MacKenzie and Edward Blake and Wilfrid Laurier and John S. D. Thompson and Mackenzie Bowell and Robert Borden and Mackenzie King and R. B. Bennett and Arthur Meighen and a host of others. These are men who are well known to Canadian life and who had tremendous influence in regard to this very institution. We looked upon these as honorable men who were eager to give every man his due, particularly when a man's hands were tied and his ankles shackled.

Well, rightly or wrongly presented to us, the problem is on our hands and we must give attention. That much is clear. Further, it is the duty of every citizen to offer his suggestions.

First, this situation requires investigation. And it requires investigation not so much by judges as it needs to be looked into by juries. One has precious little faith in the findings of the alleged expert who generally has a theory to prove. Representative men from all walks in life should, under authority of parliament, look into the state of affairs in the penitentiary. The men who complain of unfair treatment should be judged by their peers rather than by men biased more or less mentally wrapped by theories. Further, the institution should be continuously under the observation of such a body of men who are required to report on the life of the penitentiary as it is carried on from cellar to garret. The people of this country have the right to know all that is going on in its institutions.

Further, the utmost care must henceforth be exercised as to the parties who are sent to this institution. Let us proceed on the belief, for the sake of statement, that every alleged offender gets a fair trial. We know that there are sad and particular instances where the alleged offender does not get a square deal. In such instances the courts are terribly to blame and their offence is of the gravest character. But we are simply supposing that the person tried is an offender against society and that the court so finds him. What then?

Is the judge who is learned in the law and skilled in the sifting and weighing of evidence the proper person to say what is to be done with the convicted party? That the offender so found is not a fit and proper person to be abroad is evident to all. He must be segregated in the interest of society. Any person who knows the rank and file of convicts knows the fairness of such a statement. A general prison delivery at this present minute would not be in the interest of society. To turn a felon loose to continue his depredations would do nobody any good. Even the felon must be protected against himself.

But what is to be done with the offender whose guilt has been proven?

He is not to be freed a criminal. That is clear. What is suggested here is that the criminal when duly tried should be handed over to a board who will examine him mentally, socially, physically and every other way that saving common sense may suggest and then dispose of him accordingly. The trial judge should be a member of this board. It may be that the solitary cell is the felon's only place. It may be that he should be sent to a mental hospital. The farm may be the place for him. The school room may be his proper place. The good sense of the examining board should be sufficient in such cases, provided the theorist and the alleged specialist be kept from its workings when it comes to the final decision. When the plain man thinks he in the main thinks right. Further, the offender, however small his offence may be, should not be turned loose upon society till he is prepared and the board is assured that he is prepared to demean himself as a good member of society.

Another good slogan to go with "Buy Now" is "Pay Now." The difference between meddling and investigating is that we investigate and the other fellow meddles. Upon every square foot of the earth's surface the sun delivers 175 watts. An ordinary roof 30 by 30 feet receives, it is explained, heat energy at the rate of 200 horsepower. It is computed that enough sunlight falls on the deck of the Atlantic liners to drive them at full speed.

Chronicle News Bits

Tiny Car Beats Sahara

When Alan Kirk and Walter Kay, two Englishmen, arrived in North Africa with a diminutive eight-horse power British car and blandly announced they were going to cross the Sahara, the French authorities were horrified and refused point blank. Afterwards, however, they relented and the little British car traversed the Sahara without mishap. The authorities insisted on the car carrying a native "pilot" when in the desert, and part of the way was escorted by huge buses, on which machine-guns were mounted for protection against possible Tuareg raiders. Mr. Kirk and Mr. Kay were doing a car journey from Liverpool, Eng., to Capetown. They have just completed it. The total distance was 13,370 miles, and the trip took 185 days, including halts and delays which, at times, extended to weeks. Tribal trouble caused them to make a detour of 1,600 miles from Tangiers, where they discovered the direct route south of Pez was closed to them. During the trip across the Sahara more than 360 miles were covered in one day. The total consumption of petrol for the trip amounted to 437 gallons—an average of more than 30 miles per gallon, and oil consumption was under 15 gallons. At a petrol station in the heart of the desert, petrol was 10 shillings a gallon.

Jobe Carried Bit Too Far

Albert C. Irwin of 410 Brandywine Ave., Schenectady, N.Y., believes that a joke at the expense of a prospective bridegroom may be carried a little bit too far. Irwin was making a trip through the Pine Hills section of Albany, his destination being Nyack, to meet Miss Edith Van Ness, to whom he was to be married the same afternoon in New York. A motorcycle policeman who had followed him for a short distance waved him to a stop beside the curb, and arrested him for driving without license plates. A search of the car disclosed the plates under a seat. Irwin told his story in court to Police Judge Francis Bergan. "Mr. Irwin," said the justice, "at a time like this a driver might easily overlook such a detail. The joke—and it is a privilege of long standing to joke at a bridegroom—was just a little more ribald than usual. But in Albany you are in sympathetic hands. I suspend sentence and good luck to you." Irwin bolted the plates to the car and speeded out of town, hoping to be in time for his own wedding.

71 Assaults Convicted

A mass "witchcraft" trial in which all of the 75 male inhabitants of an isolated Tanganyika East Africa village were involved resulted in the conviction of 71 assaulters in two weeks. The charges were for witchcraft. Sentences ranging from six months imprisonment upwards were imposed. The original charge of manslaughter was reduced to one of murder. The trial was held in a hall in the village. The accused were lined up in two rows. The judge, a British magistrate, read the charges. The accused were sentenced to terms ranging from six months to two years. The trial was held in a hall in the village. The accused were lined up in two rows. The judge, a British magistrate, read the charges. The accused were sentenced to terms ranging from six months to two years.

Long Forgotten Hospital

Forgotten for one half of a century, a hospital has been found on the sea-coast of Denmark, and Government officials are considering what to do with it. It was built in 1879 for cholera patients, there having been a cholera epidemic in Europe and a recurrence was expected. Soon after the opening a sailor believed to have had the dread disease was admitted. He proved to have nothing worse than measles. No other patients came, and the place was closed and forgotten. A young journalist recently found the hospital, with everything complete, from beds to medicine, and salt put there 50 years ago. The discoverer has suggested that it be converted into a vacation resort for poor children of Copenhagen.

Death Aids Racketeer

A form of petty racketeering was exposed recently in Portland, Ore., by the Better Business bureau of that city. This racketeer subscribes to newspapers published in the larger cities, from which he obtains death notices. He then sends a Bible express collect, to each of the deceased, also the following letter: "The Bible which you ordered has been delayed in shipment, but is ready now and has been sent to you by express C.O.D. You will receive it in a day or two, and we sincerely hope it will bring you comfort and enjoyment." The Bible thus sent is a cheap edition. The price charged for it is five times its value. Naturally the bereaved relatives, out of respect for the dead and in the hour of their bereavement, pay the charges and take the Bible.

Gun Booms Once More

Louis XVI, amateur watchmaker, once produced an invention of his own in the garden of the Palace Royal. A cannon rigged with an adjustable burning glass over the touch-hole to go off just at noon each sunny day. From 1788 to August, 1914, when it was silenced by Gen. Joseph Gallieni, the meridian gun boomed on, and recently Anatole de Monzie, minister of education, decided Louis' idea was still a good one. Reconditioned, the meridian gun will bark again in the Palais-Royal garden. But since Paris is on daylight saving time, it will now only bark at 11 a.m.

Incredible Yield

Vic Vanrobouys, farmer of Norquay, Sask., threshed 418 bushels of oats off a two-and-a-quarter acre plot, a little better than 184 bushels to the acre, and his threshing crew verify his yield.

Boulder in Chains

For years the people of Pineville, Ky., lived in dread of an immense boulder lying on the mountainside 2,000 feet above the town, fearing it might come crashing down, dislodged by rain, or an earthquake. Blasting it to pieces might have had just as disastrous consequences. Recently someone got the idea of chaining the boulder into place. A huge chain, weighing 1 1/2 tons and 137 feet long, was welded, dragged up the mountain, placed around the boulder, and its ends securely fastened into 3-foot "eye-bolts" sunk into holes drilled in the solid rock of the mountain. Now the menace of the big rock not only has been removed, but the story of the "chained boulder" is attracting tourists from all over the country.

$7,000 for Dog

"Tuffy," a faithful police dog, was left approximately $7,000 in cash by his master, W. F. Kimball, Riverton, Kas., who died last week. The dog was killed in a holdup. The bequest was revealed by the filing of Kimball's will which left $10 to J. T. Kimball, a son whose whereabouts are unknown. The will stipulated that the money be given to a good food kind treatment and a decent burial. On the death of Tuffy, the balance of the estate—if there be any—is to go to Mrs. Maud Livingston, a neighbor. Authorities said Kimball was killed by Jack Peters, an Oklahoma ex-convict.

Win Kissing Marathon

Because they maintained an unbroken clinch for three hours and two minutes, Betty Burns and Michael Abrams, both of New York City, last week won the world's kissing championship, held at Coney Island. The winners, who are "old friends," outlasted two other couples in the final test. They were presented with a loving cup. The second best smack was executed by Helen Gould and Jerry Cardinal, also of New York. They clung tenaciously for two hours and 50 minutes, seated on a sofa in the approved manner, like the winners. Blushingly, Miss Burns told a reporter that she was "so inexperienced at this sort of thing that I never thought I'd win."

Vaseline Well

For 10 years a freak oil well near Lamar, Okla., has produced almost pure vaseline at an average rate of 350 barrels daily. It is thought to be the only well of its kind in the world and has made its owner a fortune. The well is 3,170 feet deep. All other wells in the neighborhood have turned out to be "dust-cakes." When it reaches the surface, the vaseline is a dark green, but turns to a brilliant golden yellow when struck by outside air.

Order More Babies

The decrease in the yearly number of births in Germany from an average of 2,000,000, 30 years ago, to 975,000 at present, has so alarmed Hitler and his Nazi leaders that all sorts of plans are being worked out to increase the birth rate. In a recent address, William Frick, Prussian minister of the interior, said it was the duty, especially of farm families, to increase the population. "The state has the right," declared Minister Frick, "to demand those who till the soil to produce healthy offspring and plenty of them."

No Rest for Weary

There's a worn look on the face of Louis G. Florey, secretary to Sinclair Lewis. He and the novelist are back at New York from South Pomfret, Vt. They spent three months there but it was no vacation. "The boss wrote at top speed, morning, noon and night," said Florey. "He did a year's work in about three months. He would go to sleep for 15 minutes, wake up and think he had slept for hours. He'd wake me and say 'I got an idea for the next chapter, let's go.'"

Left Holding the Baby

Next time Joseph Strecansky will keep his hands in his pockets—and he won't be so polite. Joseph, 13 years old and always willing to do a favor, was standing on a street corner in New York City when a woman walked up. "Please hold my baby a minute, will you?" she asked. "Yes, ma'am," said Joseph with a bow. "I'd be glad to." Joseph held the baby until the shades of night were falling and then appealed to a policeman. The child was taken to a foundling hospital.

Five Mails a Year

Visiting in Los Angeles, Charles D. Brower, dropped a letter in a mailbox addressed to a friend at Point Barrow, Alaska. In three months, Brower, who is postmaster at Point Barrow, will deliver this letter to his friend. The postmaster will beat the letter home by several weeks as only five yearly deliveries of mail are made at Point Barrow to the 511 residents, 11 of whom are white, and the rest Eskimos. Postmastering ought to be an easy job up there.

Nomination by Both Parties

William C. Keenan of Hague, N.Y., junked his plans for a campaign for town clerk next November, voters at the primaries having unexpectedly given both Democratic and Republican Democratic candidates, Earl K. Bolton, son of former Assemblyman Richard J. Bolton, sought the Republican nomination. Keenan's name was written in on the Republican ballots and he received more votes than Bolton.

Sixteen Husbands

Zorka is a famous gipsy singer of the Prokuplje district of Yugoslavia who has had 16 husbands. Now she is thinking of being married again. Her last husband, No. 16, was killed in a duel with No. 15 and No. 15 is now in prison. Although nearly 40 years old, Zorka is still good looking and earns considerable sums of money by her singing. She always has many suitors. The fatal duel resulted when No. 15 sought to take Zorka back from No. 16.

Howick by Mrs. J. R. Youniss

A lady in this vicinity found some spring violets in bloom on Saturday last and just at present the asters and dahlias are at their very best. It is to be hoped that Jack Frost does not put in too early an appearance. Mrs. Geo. Tennant spent a few days in Ormslow last week, the guest of Mrs. John Law.

On Sunday, Mrs. Geo. Tennant and sons enjoyed a motor trip to St. Therese, Que., and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McClery.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ouimet of Newport, Vt. spent the past week at "Mossiel Farm" the home of Mr. Robt. T. Kerr, while Mr. Thos. Watson of Montreal and Miss Margaret Kerr spent the week-end.

Miss Margaret Stewart of Valleyfield spent the week-end, the guests of the Misses Beatrice and Margaret Kerr.

Mrs. Norman Jack and son, accompanied by her father, Mr. R. Gentles of Chateaugay Basin spent Sunday at "Sunnybrae Farm" the home of Mrs. Jas. Kerr.

The regular meeting of the Georgetown W.M.S. met in the church Tuesday afternoon, with an attendance of 20 ladies, Mrs. Jas. Kerr presiding. Following the devotional and business period, reports were given of the Sectional meeting held in Hemmingford, by Mrs. Jas. Kerr and Miss M. McFarlane. Mrs. Hope gave a very interesting paper on the Indians in North America and the life of Pauline Johnson, the Indian poetess, after which the meeting was brought to a close by Mrs. D. McFarlane.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Baskin and son Edward and Miss Margaret Brisbin of Havelock spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kerr and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr spent Saturday in Montreal, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Trueman.

Miss Elizabeth Gordon of College Park, Maryland and Miss Turner of Montreal were visiting friends in this vicinity last week.

Recent visitors at "Lyndhurst," the home of Mrs. J. D. Stewart, included Mrs. David Smith of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. King of Toronto, Mrs. Alf. Wood and daughter, Miss Wood, of Woodlands, while Sunday visitors were Dr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mr. Higgins and daughter, and Miss Derrick all of Verdun.

Mrs. McDermid of Montreal is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Adam Easton.

Week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. David Vass were Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron and Mrs. Albert Cameron of Lowell, Mass., and Mrs. F. H. Crawford of Huntingdon. Mr. A. Cameron and son Keith, and Master David and Miss Martha Vass of Montreal.

Mr. Chas. A. Vass of Long Island, N.Y., motored up and spent a day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Vass last week.

A pleasant evening was spent at Georgetown Church on Friday evening, Sept. 22nd, when the audience led by Rev. Mr. Watson, went Scottish. The main feature of the night's entertainment was a lecture on Burns by Mr. Watson, enjoying and appreciating the subject as a good Scotsman. Mr. Watson led his hearers into a half hour's close converse with the well-loved poet of Scotland. The speaker dealt first with the circumstances of Burns' life then going on to the various aspects of the poet's work; his humour, especially as illustrated by the poem "Tam o' Shanter," his brilliant wit, his satire, and in conclusion his lyrics, these poems which have touched the hearts of countless readers. Mrs. White, Miss Hall and Mr. Ruddock of Huntingdon, Mr. James McFarlane of Riverfield, also the Georgetown choir, furnished the music of the evening, delighting every one with old Scotch songs, most of them from the pen of Robbie Burns himself.

During intermission the ladies served a "gude cup o' tea," with scones, oatcake and shortie. The proceeds of the evening which are to be devoted to the W.M.S. funds amounted to $31. Mrs. Kerr, president of the W.M.S., expressed a vote of thanks to all who had helped to make the evening a success, after which the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" followed by the National Anthem brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

An Uneven Bottom

If you discover the bottom of the case to be uneven and that it has caused some scratches on your furniture, cut a piece of felt from an old hat or slipper and paste on the bottom of the vase. If no old felt is available use a thick piece of blotting paper.

Tea-manufacture is a fine art in Japan. The most expert growers produce

"SALADA"

JAPAN GREEN TEA

THIS IS GREEN TEA AT ITS VERY BEST

Financial Giant Well Likened to Lightning Possible to Float For Days in This Garment

When George Baker, the banker, died, ninety-nine people out of every hundred exclaimed "Who was he?" and yet Baker's fortune ranked with that of Rockefeller and like the oil king, he made it himself. Of course, Wall Street and the inner circle of finance had always known Baker, but to the general public he was a stranger. Baker's passing recalls an encounter in which he, Tom Lawson and H. M. Rogers are said to have participated at the time the country was seething with frenzied financial speculation. Rogers, according to the story, was protesting against a certain exposure that Lawson had threatened to make, and Baker might be termed to screw in the affair. And it was Baker who laid down the law. "I don't care what you say," stormed Lawson. "I'm going through with it." "Oh, very well, but remember what I have told you," replied Baker mildly, and that ended the interview. Rogers hastened to tell his friends that everything was all right. "But how do you know it's all right?" asked a friend. "Lawson still declares he's going through with it." "But he won't," predicted Rogers. "Always remember—thunder makes a great big noise, but it's the lightning that really counts. And Baker is lightning."—Los Angeles Times.

Nephew writes: "Dear Uncle—I want $10 very badly indeed. I am sending this by a messenger who will wait for an answer. If you could only see what blazes it cost me to write this you would take pity on me. P.S.—After writing this, I felt so ashamed that I ran after the messenger to get back my letter from him, but I could not catch him up. Heaven grant it may never reach you." Uncle replies: "Dear nephew—Cheer up and stop blushing. Heaven has answered your prayer. The messenger lost your letter."

SAY THE NAME

ASK for Kellogg's Corn Flakes by name. Kellogg's have been the standard of quality for more than 25 years—the finest value in Corn Flakes. . . . Every red-and-green package guaranteed by W. K. Kellogg. When substitutes are offered you, it is seldom in a spirit of service. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Kellogg's for quality

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

make breads light and tasty.

FOR OVER 50 years Royal Yeast Cakes have been the standard of quality. Sealed in air-tight waxed paper, they keep fresh for months. Keep a supply handy. And send for the ROYAL YEAST BAKE BOOK to use when you bake at home. Address Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Ave. and Liberty St., Toronto, Ont.

Try this Easy-to-Make Recipe for FORM CAKE. Cream 1/4 c. sugar with 1/4 c. butter. Add 1 to 1 beaten egg and beat until light. Add 1 c. lukewarm milk. Stir well. Add 1 cup Royal Yeast Sponge, 1/4 c. citron, 1/4 c. raisins, 1/4 c. chopped almonds, 1/4 tsp. salt, and enough flour to make soft dough (about 4 cups). Knead well. Cover and set aside in warm place for 15 minutes to rise until double in bulk (about 1 1/2 hrs.). Knead down and place in well-greased tube pan. Brush top with egg and bake in moderate oven about 45 minutes. Our free booklet, "THE ROYAL YEAST BAKE BOOK," tells how Royal Yeast Cakes will improve your health, and suggests pleasant ways to take them.

BUY MADE-IN-CANADA GOODS

The Editors' Den

National Recovery... SPEAKING... Trades and Labour Congress in annual convention at Windsor, Ont.

Remains, then, a change in our monetary policy, plus a concerted effort to encourage immigration on a huge scale...

U. S. Not The Author... WHEN conditions are bad in the United States, a large section of the public there is always ready to...

CHICKEN SUPPER TICKETS

Neatly printed 50c a 100; 75c for 150

Style of Ticket... Chicken Supper Good for One Adult

Tickets printed specially with other wording than above; ask for prices. The Huntingdon Gleaner Incorporated Huntingdon, Que. We Say You Should. Phone 60 or call believe that obscure foreign influences have caused disaster. It was not much of a job for Mr. Hoover, who President, to convince many people in his country that "forces let loose abroad" had brought depression to the United States.

Are Unemployed Playing the Game? ARE the recipients of relief playing fair with the taxpaying public of Bowmanville? It is a question that is frequently being asked by many Bowmanville residents...

Many complaints have been made of a disgraceful condition of idleness prevailing at the scene of certain works which are being done as relief measures. We are not suggesting that all the men receiving relief, nor even the greater portion of them, can be placed in this category...

Politicians At School... LAST week politicians and aspirants for leadership and some few of the general public in the Liberal and Conservative parties in Ontario went to school...

U. S. Not The Author... WHEN conditions are bad in the United States, a large section of the public there is always ready to...

CHICKEN SUPPER TICKETS

Neatly printed 50c a 100; 75c for 150

Style of Ticket... Chicken Supper Good for One Adult

Tickets printed specially with other wording than above; ask for prices. The Huntingdon Gleaner Incorporated Huntingdon, Que. We Say You Should. Phone 60 or call

First, Mr. Camillien Houde, ousted party chief, contributed a letter to the press which purported to show the reasons why Mr. Duplessis no longer merited support as leader of the provincial Conservatives.

It is all, however, symptomatic of the difficulties which beset a leader, even of a provincial opposition. He must lead the party against exterior attack, and when he is also called upon to meet revolt from within, then his position becomes doubly difficult.

The convention to be held at Sherbrooke next month will reveal just what strength the Three Rivers member commands amongst the rank and file of the party. It has been recognized for many years that the Conservatives in Quebec province were a divided house...

Valleyfield Council... Valleyfield Council met 20th inst. Present, Mayor Philorum Bilette, Ald. Arthur Barrette, J. W. Laberge, Charles Paré, Napoleon Poirier, Chas. Thivierge, Gontran Hébert and Michael Chateau.

Valleyfield... Gault Field Day... The Gault Intermediate Field Day was held on Saturday on the school grounds. Different sports were engaged in during the afternoon...

Valleyfield... Junior Girls' 3-legged Race: 1. Mildred McCormick and Phyllis Nussey; 2. G. Waldron and H. Zimmet; 3. Dorothy Stewart; 4. Dorothy Stewart and Allan Boy.

Valleyfield... Senior Events: 100 yard dash: 1. Gyrrh Garwood; 2. George McAdam; 3. Robert Clive.

Valleyfield... In the open events the prizes went to the winner of the highest number of points in these events. Don Whitehead in this class with Richard Whitehead second and Burroughs McGerrigle third.

Valleyfield... No Kidnapping in Canada... THERE was recently a proposal before the Canadian Bar Association that the penalty for kidnapping in Canada should be made life imprisonment and lashes.

Valleyfield... "Uneasy Lies The Head..." MR. Maurice Duplessis, provincial member for Three Rivers, and nominal leader of the Conservative opposition, has been the target, during the past week, of considerable sniping and direct attack from members of his own party.

Valleyfield Council... Valleyfield Council met 20th inst. Present, Mayor Philorum Bilette, Ald. Arthur Barrette, J. W. Laberge, Charles Paré, Napoleon Poirier, Chas. Thivierge, Gontran Hébert and Michael Chateau.

Valleyfield... Gault Field Day... The Gault Intermediate Field Day was held on Saturday on the school grounds. Different sports were engaged in during the afternoon...

Valleyfield... Junior Girls' 3-legged Race: 1. Mildred McCormick and Phyllis Nussey; 2. G. Waldron and H. Zimmet; 3. Dorothy Stewart; 4. Dorothy Stewart and Allan Boy.

Valleyfield... Senior Events: 100 yard dash: 1. Gyrrh Garwood; 2. George McAdam; 3. Robert Clive.

Valleyfield... In the open events the prizes went to the winner of the highest number of points in these events. Don Whitehead in this class with Richard Whitehead second and Burroughs McGerrigle third.

Valleyfield... No Kidnapping in Canada... THERE was recently a proposal before the Canadian Bar Association that the penalty for kidnapping in Canada should be made life imprisonment and lashes.

Valleyfield... "Uneasy Lies The Head..." MR. Maurice Duplessis, provincial member for Three Rivers, and nominal leader of the Conservative opposition, has been the target, during the past week, of considerable sniping and direct attack from members of his own party.

Valleyfield... "Keep fit! Headaches, heaviness, depression - banish them all by keeping your system clean! Take Eno every morning."

Valleyfield... DON'T TAKE CHANCES WITH INFERIOR BAKING POWDER. USE THE BEST WITH MAGIC. THERE'S NO UNCERTAINTY ABOUT YOUR BAKING.

Valleyfield... SAYS MISS JESSIE DE BOTH Director of the Famous De Both Home Makers' Schools. MAGIC BAKING POWDER. -Costs not quite 1/4 of a cent more per baking than the cheapest inferior baking powders. Why not use this fine-quality baking powder and be sure of satisfactory results?

Valleyfield Council... Valleyfield Council met 20th inst. Present, Mayor Philorum Bilette, Ald. Arthur Barrette, J. W. Laberge, Charles Paré, Napoleon Poirier, Chas. Thivierge, Gontran Hébert and Michael Chateau.

Valleyfield... Gault Field Day... The Gault Intermediate Field Day was held on Saturday on the school grounds. Different sports were engaged in during the afternoon...

Valleyfield... Junior Girls' 3-legged Race: 1. Mildred McCormick and Phyllis Nussey; 2. G. Waldron and H. Zimmet; 3. Dorothy Stewart; 4. Dorothy Stewart and Allan Boy.

Valleyfield... Senior Events: 100 yard dash: 1. Gyrrh Garwood; 2. George McAdam; 3. Robert Clive.

Valleyfield... In the open events the prizes went to the winner of the highest number of points in these events. Don Whitehead in this class with Richard Whitehead second and Burroughs McGerrigle third.

Valleyfield... No Kidnapping in Canada... THERE was recently a proposal before the Canadian Bar Association that the penalty for kidnapping in Canada should be made life imprisonment and lashes.

Valleyfield... "Uneasy Lies The Head..." MR. Maurice Duplessis, provincial member for Three Rivers, and nominal leader of the Conservative opposition, has been the target, during the past week, of considerable sniping and direct attack from members of his own party.

Valleyfield... "Keep fit! Headaches, heaviness, depression - banish them all by keeping your system clean! Take Eno every morning."

Valleyfield... DON'T TAKE CHANCES WITH INFERIOR BAKING POWDER. USE THE BEST WITH MAGIC. THERE'S NO UNCERTAINTY ABOUT YOUR BAKING.

Valleyfield... SAYS MISS JESSIE DE BOTH Director of the Famous De Both Home Makers' Schools. MAGIC BAKING POWDER. -Costs not quite 1/4 of a cent more per baking than the cheapest inferior baking powders. Why not use this fine-quality baking powder and be sure of satisfactory results?

ROSEBUD CUT SMOKING TOBACCO. NOTHING SEEMS TO BOTHER YOU JIM, HOW DO YOU KEEP YOUR NERVES SO SMOOTH? THAT'S EASY - I ALWAYS SMOKE ROSEBUD! No arguing it's the Best. Rosebud is always smooth, soothing and satisfying in a pipe... the kind of tobacco that steers a man to genuine smoking pleasure... the kind that's blended to suit the exacting smoker's taste.

Farewell Service... Hundreds gathered in St. Mark's Anglican Church on Sunday evening to hear Dr. Parkes' farewell sermon. The Presbyterian and United Churches closed their services for the evening, while S. M. Kerr of the Presbyterian Church assisted in the service.

Powerscourt by B. McClatchie... Mrs. T. Wood, Mr. Fred Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John Wood and daughter, Margaret, motored to Massena, N.Y. on Thursday.

Man Found Dead at Wheel of His Auto... Evariste Le Blanc, a nephew of the late Sir Evariste Le Blanc, former Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec, was found dead at the wheel of his automobile two miles north of Pont Viau, at 11:30 o'clock on Saturday night on the Montreal-St. Rose highway.

A Shine That Stays! SULTANA STOVE POLISH. SULTANA gives a lasting lustre to your stove. Its rich and gleaming black adds an extra touch of smartness to your kitchen.

Study of Geography... In the Renaissance period geography was taught chiefly as an aid to the understanding of Greek and Roman writers. The study was confined, therefore, to the world as it is known in the classical period.

New Low Prices on Wrapping Paper. Wayagamack No. 1 B.S. Kraft 8c lb. Broad Stripe No. 2 Kraft 7 1/2c lb. Butcher's Oak Fibre 7c lb. Reindeer and Atlas Bags are of good quality and sold right. 4-ply White Cotton Twine, 4 cones for $2.80. Statements printed 5M for $16.00. All Goods F.O.B. your Store. The Huntingdon Gleaner Inc. Huntingdon, Que.

Sunday School Workers Meet

(Continued from Page 1) The president then called upon Mr. Katsunoff who had visited many European countries last summer for his address on "The work being done among non-English-Saxons in Canada."

1. Rethink your attitude to the young. Too many forget they were young themselves. Don't argue with young people; don't drive them. Don't treat them to tablets which they must swallow.

2. Remember, thousands of them today, university graduates, equipped for useful service feel that they are not wanted. There is nothing for them to do. They need your kindest consideration. Yet they want to be appreciated. They will always respond to a challenge. Christianity must be presented to them as a challenge, not as something that is easily got.

3. That in view of the excellent minutes which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

4. Resolved that we stress the matter of Temperance and Missionary Education in all our schools and in the P. S. organizations connected with them, and looking forward to a complete report from the whole field one year hence at our Fall Convention.

5. That in view of the excellent minutes which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

6. Resolved that we stress the matter of Temperance and Missionary Education in all our schools and in the P. S. organizations connected with them, and looking forward to a complete report from the whole field one year hence at our Fall Convention.

7. That the Convention place on record its thanks for the warm hospitality of minister and people of St. Paul's United Church, who have so graciously entertained the Convention.

8. That the Convention place on record its thanks for the floral decorations which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

by parents and athletics in school. There is abundant provision for the intellectual side of life, but none for the spiritual side of young life. Here is where the S. S. comes in and without that moral and spiritual training man's life is lopsided and incomplete. Yet our Sabbath Schools are but a mere excuse for the work that challenges them. Some suggestions followed:

1. Rethink your attitude to the young. Too many forget they were young themselves. Don't argue with young people; don't drive them. Don't treat them to tablets which they must swallow.

2. Remember, thousands of them today, university graduates, equipped for useful service feel that they are not wanted. There is nothing for them to do. They need your kindest consideration. Yet they want to be appreciated. They will always respond to a challenge.

3. That in view of the excellent minutes which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

4. Resolved that we stress the matter of Temperance and Missionary Education in all our schools and in the P. S. organizations connected with them, and looking forward to a complete report from the whole field one year hence at our Fall Convention.

5. That in view of the excellent minutes which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

6. Resolved that we stress the matter of Temperance and Missionary Education in all our schools and in the P. S. organizations connected with them, and looking forward to a complete report from the whole field one year hence at our Fall Convention.

7. That the Convention place on record its thanks for the warm hospitality of minister and people of St. Paul's United Church, who have so graciously entertained the Convention.

8. That the Convention place on record its thanks for the floral decorations which Mr. Haughton presents to these Conventions, each superintendent of the S. S. work should be furnished a copy of the minutes of the present Convention.

BORN
Daoust—At Huntingdon, Que., September 26th, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Henri Daoust, a son.

MARRIED
Bromley-Smith—At "Alma Lodge," Valleyfield, Que., home of Mrs. James A. Robb, on September 20th, 1933, by Rev. J. G. Greig, Elizabeth Maud, daughter of the late J. T. Smith and Mrs. W. Campbell, of Lang Bay, B. C., to Kenneth Bromley, M.D., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Bromley, of Sudbury, Ont.

Capello-Patterson—At St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon, Que., September 27th, 1933, Rev. J. A. Deront officiating, Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, to Edward Raoul, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Capello.

Ireland-Thompson—At Lake Megantic, Que., September 14, 1933, Rev. J. A. Deront, officiating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Thompson, to Mr. William Francis Archer Ireland, of Short Hills, N.J.

Roussel—At St. Scholastique, Que., Thursday, September 21st, 1933, Rev. Father D. Carriere, of Albion, N.Y., cousin of the bride, officiating, Athanasie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roussel, to Mr. J. Helodore Lefebvre, of Huntingdon, Que.

Allen—At the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, on Sept. 20, 1933, Halsey Allen, at the age of 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Allen of the Gore, Que. Funeral was held on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1933, at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Allen, of the Gore, Que.

Churchill—On Sept. 25th, 1933 at Elm Terrace Farm, Hemmingford, Que., Ellen Matilda Kearns, widow of the late Jas. Churchill, in her 44th year.

Helm—At London, Ont. September 24th, 1933, George Helm, aged 81 years, brother of Thomas Helm of Huntingdon.

Watson—Suddenly at Rockburn, Que., on September 13th, 1933, William George Watson, aged 60 years.

Wylie—On Saturday, September 23, 1933, Margaret Elizabeth Wylie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 35 Grosvenor Ave., Westmount.

Obituary
Margaret Elizabeth Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wylie of 35 Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount, was born July 22nd, 1931 and died September 23rd, 1933. In her short life she was better known to us as "Betty," and her mother as Bernice, Cogland, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cogland, of Huntingdon. She was a much-loved, sweetly-loving child. With her lovely face and shining golden hair, her winsome ways and her active mind and body, she seemed as one born to reveal how pure and lovely a thing the life of a little child can be.

The late Ella M. Finn
The funeral of Miss Ella M. Finn took place Saturday morning, Sept. 24th, at the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Delegations consisting of the nurses and staff of the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Those from out of town were Mrs. Martin Curran, Huntingdon, P. Q.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Finn of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finn, Saranac Lake, N. Y.; Ernest Davies, New York City; and Foster Warren, of Concord, (Manchester Leader).

The late George Helm
The death occurred suddenly at the home of his niece, Mrs. R. Sandy, London, Ont., on Tuesday, Sept. 19th, of George Helm in his 82nd year. The deceased was a former resident of Athelstan and left here over 50 years ago. His wife, Maria Renolda, predeceased him 36 years ago. He resided in Muskogean, Mich., up until seven years ago when he went to live with his niece in London. The remains were interred in the London Memorial cemetery on September 21st. He is survived by one brother, Thomas Helm, of Kensington.

Matrimonial

Ireland-Thompson
The marriage of Jean Mackenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mackenzie Thompson, to Mr. William Francis Archer Ireland, M.E., son of Mr. A. F. W. Ireland, M.A., LL.B., and the late Mrs. Ireland of Short Hills, N.J., took place quietly at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning, Sept. 14th at St. Barnabas Church, Lake Megantic, Que., the Rev. A. F. G. Nichol officiating.

Capello-Patterson
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon, this morning, Wednesday, September 27th, 1933, when Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, was united in marriage with Edward Raoul, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Capello, Rev. J. A. Deront, officiated.

Helm
The funeral of George Helm, aged 81 years, brother of Thomas Helm of Huntingdon, was held on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1933, at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Allen, of the Gore, Que.

Churchill
On Sept. 25th, 1933 at Elm Terrace Farm, Hemmingford, Que., Ellen Matilda Kearns, widow of the late Jas. Churchill, in her 44th year.

Helm
At London, Ont. September 24th, 1933, George Helm, aged 81 years, brother of Thomas Helm of Huntingdon.

Watson
Suddenly at Rockburn, Que., on September 13th, 1933, William George Watson, aged 60 years.

Wylie
On Saturday, September 23, 1933, Margaret Elizabeth Wylie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 35 Grosvenor Ave., Westmount.

Obituary
Margaret Elizabeth Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wylie of 35 Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount, was born July 22nd, 1931 and died September 23rd, 1933. In her short life she was better known to us as "Betty," and her mother as Bernice, Cogland, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cogland, of Huntingdon. She was a much-loved, sweetly-loving child. With her lovely face and shining golden hair, her winsome ways and her active mind and body, she seemed as one born to reveal how pure and lovely a thing the life of a little child can be.

The late Ella M. Finn
The funeral of Miss Ella M. Finn took place Saturday morning, Sept. 24th, at the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Delegations consisting of the nurses and staff of the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Those from out of town were Mrs. Martin Curran, Huntingdon, P. Q.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Finn of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finn, Saranac Lake, N. Y.; Ernest Davies, New York City; and Foster Warren, of Concord, (Manchester Leader).

The late George Helm
The death occurred suddenly at the home of his niece, Mrs. R. Sandy, London, Ont., on Tuesday, Sept. 19th, of George Helm in his 82nd year. The deceased was a former resident of Athelstan and left here over 50 years ago. His wife, Maria Renolda, predeceased him 36 years ago. He resided in Muskogean, Mich., up until seven years ago when he went to live with his niece in London. The remains were interred in the London Memorial cemetery on September 21st. He is survived by one brother, Thomas Helm, of Kensington.

Obituary
Margaret Elizabeth Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wylie of 35 Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount, was born July 22nd, 1931 and died September 23rd, 1933. In her short life she was better known to us as "Betty," and her mother as Bernice, Cogland, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cogland, of Huntingdon. She was a much-loved, sweetly-loving child. With her lovely face and shining golden hair, her winsome ways and her active mind and body, she seemed as one born to reveal how pure and lovely a thing the life of a little child can be.

The late Ella M. Finn
The funeral of Miss Ella M. Finn took place Saturday morning, Sept. 24th, at the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Delegations consisting of the nurses and staff of the Isolation hospital, City Health Department, the Silver Lining club, the Catholic Women's club and the State Hospital Alumnae association of Concord were present at the mass.

Those from out of town were Mrs. Martin Curran, Huntingdon, P. Q.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Finn of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finn, Saranac Lake, N. Y.; Ernest Davies, New York City; and Foster Warren, of Concord, (Manchester Leader).

NERVOUS WOMEN

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly. My nerves are all on edge. 'I wish I were dead'... how often have we heard those expressions from some woman who has become so tired and run-down that her nerves can stand no more?"

Rockburn by Mrs. W. G. Gibson
A baseball game was played on the local diamond Saturday afternoon between the Gore and All Stars. At the end of the 7th inning All Stars led by a large margin but in the 8th and 9th the Gore staged a batting rally and pounded the ball all over the lot, winning the game by a score of 18-16.

Athelstan by "Fyvrie"
Y.P.S.
The September meeting of the Presbyterian Young People's Society was held on Friday night at the home of Mr. L. D. Watson with a good attendance in spite of counter attractions. This being the quarterly missionary night Jack Elder gave a talk on the Gwalior field and Mrs. Wells told some interesting facts about the pioneer missionary, Dr. Buchanan. Mr. George Elder gave a short talk on "Trees" and their benefit to the human race. A pleasant surprise was given our first president, Mr. Norman Baird and his wife, when Rev. Mr. Sampson in behalf of the Y.P.S. presented them with a silver casserole with pyrex lining and a silver bread tray. Although taken by surprise, Mr. Baird thanked the members for their gifts. The S. S. teachers had charge of the social part of the programme and directed several instructive guessing games. When lunch was being served, the hostess received the surprise of a birthday cake from the refreshment committee. The October meeting which is also the annual one will be held at the home of Mr. George Elder.

Covey Hill by Mrs. W. R. Perry
Mr. and Mrs. Al Collins and little son of Montreal and Master Allan Lowden spent Sunday at "Airy Knoll."

Melting of Gold
Coins Forbidden
A warning to those who might be tempted to melt down gold coin in order to secure the high price now prevailing for the raw metal, is contained in a statement issued by the Department of Finance. Heavy penalties await those who might be tempted to take advantage of the market in that manner.

Warden of Life
It was in 1912 that Casimir Funk, at that time associated with the College of Physicians and Surgeons New York, said, "There is a force that exercises vital guardianship over our nutritive processes by which inert food material is translated into human feeling, thought and action. That force I call vitamin, because it is the warden of life—because it is necessary to life."

Now is the Time!
Lefebvre's the tailors is the place to order your Fall and Winter Suit or Overcoats. Specially priced from $18.99 up.

McNair House Furnishing Store
Huntingdon, Que.

Radio Store
Arrange for your family's enjoyment during the long evenings with one of the leading makes of radio: DeForest, Philco, Victor, Majestic, Rogers, Marconi.

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

OSMOND BROS.
Where Quality is High and Prices are Low

NORTH AMERICAN LIFE
Assets $47,298,633 Surplus $6,035,328
Head Office, Toronto, Canada.

St. Agnes by Miss T. Leblanc
Mrs. Olivier Quenneville spent a few days visiting relatives in Montreal.

Howick by Mrs. J. R. Youniss
Wedding Anniversary—
On Saturday evening, Sept. 23, a very happy gathering took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. MacGregor, the occasion being the thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John MacGregor, Montreal. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn flowers. A delicious buffet supper was served to about fifty guests, after which a presentation was made to the bride and groom, by Messrs. R. W. Templeton and Ira Orr, to which Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor, although taken by surprise, very suitably responded.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

Ormsdown Pastry Shop
Butter Cookies
Something new in Cookies. Fresh for Saturday.

HUNTER'S
Electrical and Specialty Shop
Special Sale of Electric Globes
One lot, 2 for 25c. One lot, 5 for one dollar.
Dandy 5-cord Enamel Handle Brooms, 3 for one dollar.
Oxodol, 19c box; Chipso, 19c; Princess Soap Flakes, 15c box; 3 boxes Salt, 25c.
Fabien Refrigerators, $15.00
Embroidery transfer patterns, hot iron process, 15c pack.
Quilt Patches, 10c set.
Peter Pan Powder, 10c box, 3 for 25c.
Powder Puffs, 10c and 15c.
Thermos Bottles 39
Sink Augers 20
Linen Thread, spool 05
2 papers Pins 05
Sani Flush, box 29
Stamped Rug Forms 25
Nickle Plated Hug Hooks 15
4 yard pack Polishing Cloth 15

Jamaco Roof Paint
The Asphalt Roof-coating, Liquid Asphalt Base. Its thick, its black. It doubles the life of your roof. Gallon cans, one dollar, five gal. can, $4.50.

Jamaco Plastic Asbestos Roof Putty. The Ideal Leak Stopper
Half Gallon Can 75c

Gallon Cans of Barn Paint $1.45
Felted Floor Mats, 18 x 36 19
Paper Window Shades 36 x 72 15
Linen Cushion Covers 25
Slip Cap Jelly Glasses, 6 for 25
Glass Dessert Dishes, 6 for 25
White Porcelain Dessert Dishes, 6 for 25
Red Rubber Jar Rings, 5c dozen box, or 6 boxes for 25c.
Good 14 Quart Milk Pail and Ten Bars of Surprise Soap all for 79c.

Two for Twenty-Five Cent Sale
Aluminum Sauce Pans

J. M. Hunter Electrician
6 cakes of Carboloc Soap 25c.
10 cakes of Castile Soap 25c.
Five pound can Flax Soap 85c.

From Day to Day

Thursday Montreal is to have a new radio broadcasting station in the near future.

Official announcement was made today in Ottawa by Hector Charlesworth, chairman of the Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission, to this effect and details were received from local officers of the commission.

The reason for the establishment of this new radio unit in this part of the country was explained by Mr. Charlesworth as follows: "Complaints have been received by the commission in the past due to the fact that coverage in the province of Quebec for commission programmes has not been satisfactory.

"We can render no more excellent service than to promote these two great organizations—the British Commonwealth and the League of Nations," said Hon. Newton W. Rowell closing the first British Commonwealth Relations Conference today, at Toronto.

Mr. Rowell ranked the personal friendships formed and the frank statements made on the various points of view as the gathering's most valuable results. It was wise, he thought, that such a conference be unofficial. If it were otherwise, "one would have heard only opinions and attitudes of the government in any particular Dominion.

"We have no constitution and we do not want one," said Sir Herbert Samuel in moving a vote of thanks to those responsible for the conduct of the conference. He had a special word of commendation for the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, which he said was rapidly becoming a powerful influence.

A close approach to a general agreement between the United Kingdom, France, the United States and Italy for the limitation and control of armaments, it was authoritatively learned, was made today in talks between negotiators of the first three powers at Paris.

A French official reported "substantial progress" had been made toward the forming of a solid front of the four nations at the resumption of the World Disarmament Conference, with the four powers in common ground of understanding concerning the disarmament question.

It was learned that apparently only the outstanding point of sanctions remained to be settled. France has been furthering the setting up of penalties against any nation guilty of a breach of any disarmament agreement which might be reached.

Already entangled in a maze of political, military and economic problems, the Government of Ramon Grau San Martin faced a new menace tonight as armed rebellion flared in at least two sectors, including the adjacent province of Matanzas, Cuba. While his best political minds sought to find a way out of the deadlock between Grau and his leading opponents, the army of students and soldiers sought to suppress the outbreak.

A formula which Havana University professors hoped would solve the political situation was drawn up and submitted to the opposition factions for consideration. It authoritatively was said to include a provision that Grau remain as president, but with sharply restricted powers, including one that he could not demand the resignation of cabinet members.

The plan also was said to include provisions for the naming of a concentration cabinet responsible to an opposition Junta representing all factions.

Admittance by Canada of anthracite and oil from Russia is still sought by the syndicate that has submitted a programme to the Government for the exchange of these commodities for cattle from the prairie provinces. Although he claimed no knowledge of the present opinion of the cabinet at Ottawa on a possible resumption of trade with the Soviet, G. G. Serkay, leader of the syndicate, expressed the belief that some plan would be evolved in the near future to relieve the situation.

Mr. Ronald Wilson of Montreal is spending a week in Dewittville. Mrs. John Lowden accompanied Mrs. Lorenzo Farquhar and son Robert of Constable, N.Y., to Montreal on Tuesday.

Rally Day programme, as prepared by the United Church of Canada Board of Christian Education, was carried out in Zion Church S.S. on Sunday, omitting the promotion services. Quite a good number were present.

The Religious Education Convention of the Frontier Branch, which was held at Ormstown on Thursday and Friday last was attended from here by Rev. G. A. and Mrs. Haugh, Mr. Arch. Colquhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Fraser, Miss Elva and Master Howard Fraser and Mr. J. Mackie.

Principal Engaged.—The Commission of the Consolidated High School have engaged Miss Ashton, B.A., as Principal, to replace Mr. Chapman, B.A., who had previously resigned. Miss Ashton assumes her duties on Monday, Oct. 2nd.

We are very pleased to be able to report that Mrs. Chas. Smallman is making favorable progress toward recovery from her auto accident of the 10th inst. Her physician, Dr. Macartney of Fort Covington, expresses hopes that she will be able to sit up in a few days.

"When war, shipwreck, fire, earthquake—when such overwhelming disasters of nature threaten man, then asters of nature thrust forth their very evidence of their courage and grandeur." His Excellency declared. "But the insidious growing fear of economic insecurity has a fatal tendency to undermine those very qualities, so necessary to the strength of a great nation. Men become afraid, afraid of their own strength, as the Prince of Wales himself has said, 'afraid of heart from poverty', and the only remedy, he reminded us, is that each and all of us should get together where ever the burden lies, and face up to the most urgent local need, and see if the community on the spot cannot make its own self-directed contribution to a problem so vast, and so urgent, that on its solution, the very future of Canada may be said to depend."

Gleaned from Canadian Dailies for the Weekly Newspaper Reader. The London Sunday Dispatch gave front page prominence to what it called a Church of England sensation, saying the church was in danger of being split over a mission over a new campaign of "Buchmanism," or the Oxford Group movement, which is rapidly gaining ground in this country.

The newspaper said the Archbishop of Canterbury will receive at Lambeth Palace 500 young men and women who will start out soon seeking converts in London and other centres.

While knifing the water at more than 90 miles an hour, the Miss Britain III, Hubert Scott-Paine's motorboat which just returned from Detroit, caught fire Saturday at Poole, Dorset, England.

Scott-Paine and his mechanic were not injured but the former's clothes were scorched by flames from the motor.

The British speed enthusiast was trying to lower Great Britain's sea mile record and the unofficial world record for single engine motorboats.

He had made five runs over the course, returned to the pier to refuel, went out and made three more runs when flames shot from the rear of the craft.

Before the Miss Britain caught fire, Scott-Paine had beaten the sea mile record formerly held by Miss Betty Carstairs and the unofficial world's record for single engine motorboats set by the late Sir Henry Seeaway.

A mean speed of 95.08 miles per hour was attained on the two runs of one mile each.

Onesime Gagnon, Conservative M.P. for Dorchester, will be a contender for the position of leader of the provincial Conservative party at the convention to be held October 3rd and 4th next.

Mr. Gagnon ended the suspense as to his intentions by issuing a declaration at Quebec Sunday evening. He believes that his entry will promote harmony in the party. He will maintain his Federal seat for the time being.

The statement reads as follows: "Yielding to the pressure which has been placed upon me from all parts of the province, I have agreed to permit my name to be submitted to the Sherbrooke convention.

"It has been represented to me that if my candidature would rally men of goodwill, and bring back peace and harmony in our ranks, I had no right to refuse the responsibility.

"I raised an objection that it would be necessary for me to keep my seat in the Federal Parliament. On this point the reply was made to me that an analogous situation exists in the province of Ontario, and that the new Prime Minister of Nova Scotia elected last August did not sit in the Legislature prior to his election.

It was learned that apparently only the outstanding point of sanctions remained to be settled. France has been furthering the setting up of penalties against any nation guilty of a breach of any disarmament agreement which might be reached.

Already entangled in a maze of political, military and economic problems, the Government of Ramon Grau San Martin faced a new menace tonight as armed rebellion flared in at least two sectors, including the adjacent province of Matanzas, Cuba. While his best political minds sought to find a way out of the deadlock between Grau and his leading opponents, the army of students and soldiers sought to suppress the outbreak.

A formula which Havana University professors hoped would solve the political situation was drawn up and submitted to the opposition factions for consideration. It authoritatively was said to include a provision that Grau remain as president, but with sharply restricted powers, including one that he could not demand the resignation of cabinet members.

The plan also was said to include provisions for the naming of a concentration cabinet responsible to an opposition Junta representing all factions.

Admittance by Canada of anthracite and oil from Russia is still sought by the syndicate that has submitted a programme to the Government for the exchange of these commodities for cattle from the prairie provinces. Although he claimed no knowledge of the present opinion of the cabinet at Ottawa on a possible resumption of trade with the Soviet, G. G. Serkay, leader of the syndicate, expressed the belief that some plan would be evolved in the near future to relieve the situation.

Mr. Ronald Wilson of Montreal is spending a week in Dewittville. Mrs. John Lowden accompanied Mrs. Lorenzo Farquhar and son Robert of Constable, N.Y., to Montreal on Tuesday.

Rally Day programme, as prepared by the United Church of Canada Board of Christian Education, was carried out in Zion Church S.S. on Sunday, omitting the promotion services. Quite a good number were present.

The Religious Education Convention of the Frontier Branch, which was held at Ormstown on Thursday and Friday last was attended from here by Rev. G. A. and Mrs. Haugh, Mr. Arch. Colquhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Fraser, Miss Elva and Master Howard Fraser and Mr. J. Mackie.

Principal Engaged.—The Commission of the Consolidated High School have engaged Miss Ashton, B.A., as Principal, to replace Mr. Chapman, B.A., who had previously resigned. Miss Ashton assumes her duties on Monday, Oct. 2nd.

We are very pleased to be able to report that Mrs. Chas. Smallman is making favorable progress toward recovery from her auto accident of the 10th inst. Her physician, Dr. Macartney of Fort Covington, expresses hopes that she will be able to sit up in a few days.

"When war, shipwreck, fire, earthquake—when such overwhelming disasters of nature threaten man, then asters of nature thrust forth their very evidence of their courage and grandeur." His Excellency declared. "But the insidious growing fear of economic insecurity has a fatal tendency to undermine those very qualities, so necessary to the strength of a great nation. Men become afraid, afraid of their own strength, as the Prince of Wales himself has said, 'afraid of heart from poverty', and the only remedy, he reminded us, is that each and all of us should get together where ever the burden lies, and face up to the most urgent local need, and see if the community on the spot cannot make its own self-directed contribution to a problem so vast, and so urgent, that on its solution, the very future of Canada may be said to depend."

Brooklet by Mrs. A. E. Farquhar

W.C.T.U. Holds Meeting.—The Brooklet W.C.T.U. held its monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 20th at the home of Mrs. E. R. Erskine. The choice of a delegate to the Convention at Magog was left to the Executive Committee. Mrs. J. C. Moore was chosen as County Life member. A committee on the Educational Campaign in the Sunday Schools was chosen as follows: Mrs. N. J. Pennell for the boys; Mrs. W. B. Bowers for the men; Mrs. G. A. Rennie for Rockburn and Mrs. J. O. Levers for Rockville. At the close of the meeting lunch was served by the hostess.

Cantata Presented.—A sacred Cantata entitled "Queen Esther" was presented by Burke, N.Y. Presbyterian Church in the Town Hall, Herdman on Friday evening under the auspices of the W.M.S. of Rennie's United Church. It was disappointing that there was not a larger crowd as the Cantata was worth seeing. The parts of King Ahasuerus, Queen Esther and Mordecai were well taken by Fred Turner, Helen Turner and Mack Shattuck respectively. These were assisted by a chorus of thirty voices. Appropriate costumes and scenery were used throughout.

The Brooklet Y.P.B. met on Thursday night at the home of Miss Blanche McCracken. Miss Pearl Myatt was made a County Life Member. Miss Blanche McCracken was chosen as delegate to the W.C.T.U. meeting at Quebec Sunday evening. The schools were discussed. At the close of the business meeting a social hour was spent. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Junior Red Cross Meets.—The Junior Red Cross Crusaders of Elm Tree School held their meeting on Sept. 22nd. The meeting came to order by repeating the pledge. Fifteen members answered the roll call by repeating a health rule. A letter from Mrs. Shaw was read by the Secretary. A collection was taken. A short program of recitations, music and songs followed. The meeting closed by singing "God save the King."

On Saturday afternoon, a ballgame between the married women and the Brooklet girls, on McCracken's diamond, resulted in a win for the girls, the score being 24-10.

The same afternoon the Dundee girls and the Brooklet girls played a game, the score being 13-18 in favor of the Dundee girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Rankin and family of New Erin were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCracken.

Mr. Leslie Douglas of Chateaugay, N.Y. spent Tuesday with Mrs. W. J. McCracken and Mrs. J. O. Levers.

Mr. Leslie Rennie of Shawville spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rennie. Mr. Eric Eades of Shawville, who had spent the summer at Mr. G. A. Rennie's, returned with him on Sunday.

Miss Ina Milne of Dewittville spent the week-end with Miss Pearl Myatt.

Mrs. A. Mather is spending some time in Burke, N.Y. with Mrs. Mac Shattuck who is not at all well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Antoine of Huntingdon were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Wilson.

Mrs. A. Alderidge of Montreal, Mrs. Jas. Vaughn of Burke, N.Y., Mrs. L. McCracken and daughter Bernice spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Wilson.

Mrs. Dougald Beattie and daughters Eileen and Gwendeth of Hemmingford are spending a few days with Mrs. Bert Rennie.

Mrs. James Arnold of Dundee spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Rennie. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowe of Malone, N.Y. were overnight guests on Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Erskine.

Mrs. Alphonse Latrelle and daughter Dorothy of Oriskany Falls, N.Y. have spent the past two or three weeks the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. R. Erskine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Levers and three daughters, Ruth, Helen and Janet spent Sunday in Burke, N.Y. the guests of Mrs. M. Hampson.

Miss Ruth J. Smith is spending a couple of weeks visiting friends in Howick and vicinity.

Miss Elsie Greenway is a guest this week of her grandmother, Mrs. David Hamill.

Mrs. Alfred Sutton spent the week-end at the home of her son, Roderick Sutton.

Mrs. John Greenway is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Clareville.

Mrs. H. R. Cook and Mrs. John McCarthy were recent guests at Mr. Indell Waddell's.

Mrs. Reuben Lamb spent the week-end at Malone, N.Y., a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Atkinson.

Messrs. Harry Wood and James Foley, also Mrs. S. Foley of Ville Emard were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Greenway.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Sutton and son with Mr. Walter Lamb, Jr. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Sutton at Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Prevost and two children have been spending a few days vacation with relatives in Montreal.

Mr. Andrew Come of St. Johns spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. Fred Greenway was a Saturday guest of his sisters, Mrs. E. J. McDonough and Mrs' W. J. McDonough in Clareville.

St. Agnes by Miss T. Leblanc. Misses Marguerite and Rita Leblanc and Mr. Arthur Leblanc visited in Ste. Anne de Bellevue on Sunday.

Mrs. Philip Langevin and son Alex., and Mrs. Galipeau motored to Ottawa last week-end.

Miss Annette Leblanc spent a few weeks visiting her uncle, Mr. Louis Crevier, Ste. Anne de Bellevue.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake up your Liver! —No Calomel necessary. For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must be in good condition. It is the filter of your blood, every day. Without that filter, your blood is impure. It is the cause of all your troubles. You feel tired, you feel nervous, you feel sick. You feel that you are not getting any enjoyment out of life. You feel that you are not getting any rest. You feel that you are not getting any sleep. You feel that you are not getting any food. You feel that you are not getting any drink. You feel that you are not getting any air. You feel that you are not getting any light. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting any grace. You feel that you are not getting any glory. You feel that you are not getting any honor. You feel that you are not getting any power. You feel that you are not getting any wealth. You feel that you are not getting any fame. You feel that you are not getting any respect. You feel that you are not getting any admiration. You feel that you are not getting any approval. You feel that you are not getting any acceptance. You feel that you are not getting any love. You feel that you are not getting any life. You feel that you are not getting any hope. You feel that you are not getting any faith. You feel that you are not getting any charity. You feel that you are not getting any kindness. You feel that you are not getting any mercy. You feel that you are not getting

The Hidden Chateau

A Canadian Story by Frank Giolma

"That's a good point," Dr. Tomlin answered, "and I think that as president of the Hidden Chateau Club it is my duty to answer it. Unfortunately I can not name one single act of Arthur Selwyn's that could in any way help you. You mentioned his membership in this club. Twice since I have been on its directorate we have debated whether we would ask for his resignation. Each time we found that we had no definite grounds for action. However, each time we took a secret ballot, as is our custom, and although judging by the remarks during the discussion, practically all the directors were in favor of at least asking for Selwyn's resignation, each time the vote was in his favor. You see, Sergeant Cartwright, while nobody wished for his company, a number seemed to be against making him a social pariah. I don't know, but it may be that it was safer to keep Selwyn where they could see him."

"I gather," Cartwright said, "from your remarks, Doctor, that accusations, perhaps vague, but still accusations, were made against Selwyn."

"Yes."

"Are any of the people who made those accusations here in the club at the present time, or any people on whose account the accusations were made?"

Dr. Tomlin wrinkled his brow in thought for a few moments before he spoke. "No," he said. "None of the people are here now, neither those who made the accusations nor those on whose behalf they were made. But there may have been other cases about which I know nothing."

"Do any of you other gentlemen recall anything connecting Selwyn in any way with anyone now at the club?"

"Only the rather obvious and generally accepted fact that he was a very dear friend of Mrs. Smyth," Miss Dwight remarked. "But you already know that."

Cartwright nodded assent. "Yes, I already know that."

"Nobody else spoke."

"Another blank wall," Cartwright said. "Well, all we can do is to keep the guards on duty, and if I may say so, without profanity, watch and pray. And now what about this exhibition you want Hilton and me to put on tomorrow night, isn't it?"

"Have any arrangements been made?"

"Only that you are to give your speech directly after the final tableau of a grand charade we're acting," Skuse answered. "That is, of course, if that suits you," he added.

"As suggested, your exhibition of police methods," Dr. Tomlin remarked. "It is almost a part of the charade itself, I mean, there is no interval between the two or change of scene. Perhaps Skuse, Cartwright, would like to hear an outline of the charade itself. I think if you'll give him one, it will explain our present plans which, of course, he can alter in any way he sees fit."

"Yes, I think that would help quite a lot," Cartwright said. "At present Hilton and I have nothing planned."

"Up to now only Dr. Tomlin, Dr. Skuse and myself have known the answer to the charade," Skuse said. "But I suppose I had better tell the whole thing, hadn't I, doctor?"

"Oh, yes, Dr. Tomlin replied, "I am sure all present will keep the matter secret. I may mention, however, that there's a prize to be given for the right solution. Of course, all you gentlemen will be debarred from competing," he added with a laugh.

"The charade is in four tableaux," Skuse said. "The first three each representing one word, the fourth and final one being represented by three queries.

"Perhaps that's not very clear. You remember this evening I drew attention to the three words that Crompton had burned into the mantle: Whence, Wherefore, Whither? Those are the words of our charade."

"We gave the first tableau four nights ago. All it consisted of was a painted seascape with a beach in the foreground, entirely devoid of life. Then out from the sea crawled a kind of jelly fish creature. Mr. Nash took the difficult part of the very primitive jelly fish. Off stage Miss Dwight recited the opening lines of Cartwright's poem, you know them: 'A fire-mist and a planet,' etc."

Cartwright shook his head. "I've never heard it," he answered. "Perhaps Miss Dwight would repeat them for us? I want to visualize the whole scene, and if you'll give us the lines, Miss Dwight, I am sure it'll help."

"Without moving or seeming to exert herself in any way, Miss Dwight recited the lines, making every word tell its full story, making her listeners see each scene as painted by the poet.

A fire-mist and a planet—
A crystal and a cell—
A jelly fish and a saurian,
And caves where the cavernmen dwell;

Then a scene of law and beauty
And a face turned from the cloud;
Some call it Evolution,
And others call it God.

"Thanks," Cartwright said, "that's helped me get the scene."

"I dare say the whole thing sounds absolutely ridiculous," Skuse continued, "but in reality the scene was most effective and not a bit crude or melodramatic. The word represented was 'Whence.'"

"The night before last we pictured the second word, 'Wherefore.' We depicted a busy city street, or perhaps I should say, market-place. People rushing hither and thither, some obviously too rich, others starving, plutocrats and beggars, ladies and street drabs, and hovering above all and unseen by all, the black winged angel of death now touching this one just as he had amassed a fortune, now that one just as he at last managed to grab a crust of bread from the gutter. The picture showed life as it is today, and Miss Dwight gave us the theme poem. Miss Dwight, will you please oblige again?"

"A very short one this time," Miss Dwight said, with a laugh. "You'll remember the lines. They are spoken by the Fool in 'As You Like It.'"

"And so from hour to hour we ripe and ripe,
And then from hour to hour we rot and rot,
And our little souls being swallowed up,
And this must hang a tale," Cartwright remarked.

"Then I shall be more than repaid," Miss Dwight replied with a mock courtesy.

"Tomorrow night we give the third tableau," Skuse said, "representing the word, 'Whither,' and then a fourth scene, this one just a black velvet drop curtain with three question marks done in gold on it. While that is down, Dr. Tomlin will ask if anyone has guessed the charade."

"But I'm getting too far ahead," let me describe the third tableau, "whither" is the word, and I don't know—" As he spoke, the house telephone standing on his desk rang.

"Excuse me a moment," he said as he picked up the receiver.

"Yes, he's here," he turned to Cartwright and handed him the instrument. "Mrs. Smyth wishes to speak to you," he said.

"Sergeant Cartwright speaking," Cartwright said into the telephone. "Certainly," he continued, and then his remarks being broken by intervals of silence. "We have a guard on at present. . . . Would it not be better for me to see you personally?"

"I know, but I gather you consider the matter serious and you can't talk with full confidence to me. . . . Oh, I'm going to do that. But I feel you ought to let me know your reason for the request. . . . I have a special and serious reason for wanting you to come. . . . Oh, I shall keep you to your promise, Mrs. Smyth. . . . Yes, tonight I'll put on a special guard, so you need not be afraid of anything. But please don't change your mind between now and tomorrow. I mean, you've promised to give me your reason tomorrow."

"Good night."

Cartwright hung up the receiver. He shook his head. "It's the devil," he said. "Mrs. Smyth scared by something or other she won't say what, asking for a special guard outside her room tonight."

"Nerves, Landon said.

"It's more than that," Cartwright replied. "I could tell by her voice that she's really frightened. She says she's going to leave the Chateau at the first possible opportunity. She was almost hysterical. I'd have suggested you see her, Doctor, only she said she wouldn't see anyone, not even a doctor. I'm sure she's locked herself in her room and is afraid to open the door or come out. Damn it all—please excuse the strong language, Miss Dwight—but if she'd only tell us why, we might be able to clear up the whole mystery. Everyone's got an alibi, nobody knows anything. Oh, well, she's going to tell me tomorrow, and this is a case where a lady will not be allowed to go back on her word. And Landon, will you and Nash do special duty in the corridor right by Mrs. Smyth's room tonight? Good. Now how about two good men to take your present places?"

"I'd suggest Jackson and Minter," Landon said. "They're both good sports."

"Both excellent men," Dr. Tomlin remarked.

"Will you arrange matters with them?" Cartwright asked.

"Leave it to us," Landon answered. "Both guards will be on duty."

"Many thanks," Cartwright said. "Now Skuse, let's hear about the rest of the tableau. You were just beginning to tell us about the last or rather third tableau."

"A curious coincidence that Mrs. Smyth should ring up at just that moment," Skuse remarked. "Because the third tableau centres round her. In fact, I don't know what we should have done if she had not been here. But she's a really fine actress, and is carrying the whole act on her shoulders. The scene is a lady's boudoir. Off stage one hears dance music. When the curtain goes up the stage is empty. Mrs. Smyth and Mr. Durrant, whom I am sure will excuse my giving the premier place to Mrs. Smyth, enter, having come from the bathroom. Mrs. Smyth is made to look slightly older than she is. Mr. Durrant, a year or two younger than his real age, say twenty-two or twenty-three. Mrs. Smyth about thirty-five, or even forty."

"Not a word is to be spoken, but they are to show by their expression and actions that the man wants to go, the woman wants him to stay. He is breaking away from her, claiming his freedom, throwing off the old allegiance. She uses all her powers to hold him. At least he breaks from her, almost roughly, and goes away and she is left alone on the stage, alone in the room, alone in the world, alone in life."

"That's what she has got to get over to the audience, and Mrs. Smyth will do it."

"At length she moves slowly over to a table and opening a drawer, picks up a small revolver. Slowly the curtain comes down. Then there is the sound of a shot. On the curtain which, as I said just now, is black velvet, are the three question marks in gold brand. Miss Dwight off stage will recite Sir Henry Newbolt's wonderful 'Final Mystery of Elusis,' and the charade is finished."

"Then Dr. Tomlin will step up on the stage and ask if anyone has guessed the answer to the charade. If anyone has he'll be asked to come forward to receive the prize, a gold cigarette case, lady's or gentleman's, as the case may be."

"The curtain will be raised again, showing Mrs. Smyth lying on a couch in the same room, the small revolver dropped on to the floor from the right hand, which is hanging in the air, limp, by her side. This will look like suicide, but as a matter of fact, Mr. Durrant will have left some slight clues. A maid will find her and call in you two gentlemen, Sergeant Cartwright and Constable Hilton, to take over the case."

"When you've seen the tableau and heard Miss Dwight recite the 'Final Mystery of Elusis,' you'll agree I know that it seems a descent from the sublime to the ridiculous—elusive to a degree and I was again, to the idea until I met you gentlemen. Now I am sure you'll put such quiet dramatic action into your work you'll hold us all until you get your man."

"Not a shadow of a doubt about that," Doctor Tomlin agreed.

"I know I'm looking forward to it and everyone else is, too; it's so deuced novel—a real detective story, so to speak," Nash remarked.

"Morden got up," he said, "I'll excuse me, gentlemen," he said, "I think I will go and see if my men are at their posts. Can I send anything up? Very good, when the others had mentioned their wants. 'The devil be with you,' Morden said, with a shudder. 'And that so close to me and so suddenly I felt my heart stop just like that.'"

"What papers did he find in that bag that he wanted to destroy and we missed this morning," Cartwright asked Skuse.

The secretary shook his head. "There wasn't a thing there of any importance so far as I could see," he answered.

Cartwright walked quickly along the balcony and questioned the guards. Neither had seen nor heard anyone go along except Morden. They had both seen Morden stop outside Selwyn's room, seen him try the door and heard him call out 'who's there?' Nobody had come out of the room and from where they were, neither had noticed that the door had been opened.

"Lock the room up again, Skuse," Cartwright said. "And that's about all I can do. Whoever this man is, he seems to be able to go about as easily as the invisible man in a fairy story. Get on guard, boys, please, and camp right outside Mrs. Smyth's door. I'll be along every now and then, so long for the present." He and Hilton then retired to their room.

"If we don't get this man tomorrow," Cartwright said, as he threw himself disconsolately down in the Interprovincial Police as soon as I can get headquarters on the telephone."

"Don't worry, Haddie," Hilton answered. "He's getting daring and that means he'll trip himself up. And do you remember, Mrs. Smyth is going to talk tomorrow morning."

"Yes, that's the best news we've had," Cartwright answered. "She holds the key all right."

CHAPTER 8

Mrs. Smyth Acts a Part

It seems to Hilton that he was awakened every time he closed his eyes that night by Cartwright either coming into the room or going out. Again and again he offered and at last almost demanded that Cartwright let him check up on the guards, but Cartwright would not hear of it. He said he wouldn't sleep on to him before he knows what is happening. How's that? It's not original, but I saw something like that in a play once and it was great."

"Good idea," Cartwright said. "We will do that or something better if we can think of it."

A waiter brought in a tray with refreshments.

"Well, here's hoping," Hilton said, "that this play-acting will be the only police work we'll have to do. I mean that there will be no more robberies or other crimes. Of course, there's Selwyn's murder to be cleared up."

"That's a desire we can all heartily concur in," Dr. Tomlin replied. "As for Mrs. Smyth, if you had had as much experience with the fair sex as I have had, I mean professionally, you'd expect and suspect hysteria after that mysterious theft, and even more mysterious return of her jewels. Of course—" He stopped speaking as a knock sounded on the door and Morden entered hurriedly. "I was laboring under suppressed excitement," he said.

"I understood, Mr. Skuse," he said, speaking hurriedly, "that Mrs. Selwyn's room was to be kept locked and nobody to enter it."

"Yes, it is locked. Sergeant Cartwright and I were up there this morning."

"Well, as I went by just now I heard somebody moving about in it. I couldn't believe my ears, so stepped quietly up to the door and peeped through the keyhole. The room was lighted up and I saw and heard a man moving about in it. I called out: 'who's there' and tried to open the door but it was locked. The man stood still when I spoke, then came over to the door and before I could move back to the keyhole, I saw his eye looking at me through it."

Morden passed his fingers between his collar and his neck as he spoke. "That made me more afraid gentlemen, at that minute than I have ever been in the whole of my life."

Cartwright had sprung up from his chair while Morden was speaking. "Come on," he said walking quickly to the door. "This is what we've been wishing for. Bring your keys, Skuse," he called out as he ran along the passage.

The others followed him up the stairs and along the balcony to Selwyn's room. The door stood three or four inches ajar.

"He's got away," Cartwright said as, with his revolver ready in his right hand, he pushed the door wide open.

The light was still burning in the room and some charred remains of papers smouldered on the hearth.

"We left that locked this morning," Cartwright said, pointing to a suitcase lying open, its contents in wild disorder.

Somebody had been in the room, had destroyed some of Selwyn's papers and got away again.

"Where are the men on guard?" Cartwright asked.

"Both at their posts," Skuse answered.

"You couldn't recognize him?" Cartwright asked Morden.

"The only thing I saw was his eye," Morden answered, with a shudder. "And that so close to me and so suddenly I felt my heart stop just like that."

"What papers did he find in that bag that he wanted to destroy and we missed this morning," Cartwright asked Skuse.

The secretary shook his head. "There wasn't a thing there of any importance so far as I could see," he answered.

Cartwright walked quickly along the balcony and questioned the guards. Neither had seen nor heard anyone go along except Morden. They had both seen Morden stop outside Selwyn's room, seen him try the door and heard him call out 'who's there?' Nobody had come out of the room and from where they were, neither had noticed that the door had been opened.

"Lock the room up again, Skuse," Cartwright said. "And that's about all I can do. Whoever this man is, he seems to be able to go about as easily as the invisible man in a fairy story. Get on guard, boys, please, and camp right outside Mrs. Smyth's door. I'll be along every now and then, so long for the present." He and Hilton then retired to their room.

"If we don't get this man tomorrow," Cartwright said, as he threw himself disconsolately down in the Interprovincial Police as soon as I can get headquarters on the telephone."

"Don't worry, Haddie," Hilton answered. "He's getting daring and that means he'll trip himself up. And do you remember, Mrs. Smyth is going to talk tomorrow morning."

"Yes, that's the best news we've had," Cartwright answered. "She holds the key all right."

CHAPTER 8

Mrs. Smyth Acts a Part

It seems to Hilton that he was awakened every time he closed his eyes that night by Cartwright either coming into the room or going out. Again and again he offered and at last almost demanded that Cartwright let him check up on the guards, but Cartwright would not hear of it. He said he wouldn't sleep on to him before he knows what is happening. How's that? It's not original, but I saw something like that in a play once and it was great."

"Good idea," Cartwright said. "We will do that or something better if we can think of it."

A waiter brought in a tray with refreshments.

"Well, here's hoping," Hilton said, "that this play-acting will be the only police work we'll have to do. I mean that there will be no more robberies or other crimes. Of course, there's Selwyn's murder to be cleared up."

"That's a desire we can all heartily concur in," Dr. Tomlin replied. "As for Mrs. Smyth, if you had had as much experience with the fair sex as I have had, I mean professionally, you'd expect and suspect hysteria after that mysterious theft, and even more mysterious return of her jewels. Of course—" He stopped speaking as a knock sounded on the door and Morden entered hurriedly. "I was laboring under suppressed excitement," he said.

"I understood, Mr. Skuse," he said, speaking hurriedly, "that Mrs. Selwyn's room was to be kept locked and nobody to enter it."

"Yes, it is locked. Sergeant Cartwright and I were up there this morning."

"Well, as I went by just now I heard somebody moving about in it. I couldn't believe my ears, so stepped quietly up to the door and peeped through the keyhole. The room was lighted up and I saw and heard a man moving about in it. I called out: 'who's there' and tried to open the door but it was locked. The man stood still when I spoke, then came over to the door and before I could move back to the keyhole, I saw his eye looking at me through it."

Morden passed his fingers between his collar and his neck as he spoke. "That made me more afraid gentlemen, at that minute than I have ever been in the whole of my life."

Cartwright had sprung up from his chair while Morden was speaking. "Come on," he said walking quickly to the door. "This is what we've been wishing for. Bring your keys, Skuse," he called out as he ran along the passage.

The others followed him up the stairs and along the balcony to Selwyn's room. The door stood three or four inches ajar.

"He's got away," Cartwright said as, with his revolver ready in his right hand, he pushed the door wide open.

The light was still burning in the room and some charred remains of papers smouldered on the hearth.

"We left that locked this morning," Cartwright said, pointing to a suitcase lying open, its contents in wild disorder.

Somebody had been in the room, had destroyed some of Selwyn's papers and got away again.

"Where are the men on guard?" Cartwright asked.

"Both at their posts," Skuse answered.

"You couldn't recognize him?" Cartwright asked Morden.

"The only thing I saw was his eye," Morden answered, with a shudder. "And that so close to me and so suddenly I felt my heart stop just like that."

"What papers did he find in that bag that he wanted to destroy and we missed this morning," Cartwright asked Skuse.

The secretary shook his head. "There wasn't a thing there of any importance so far as I could see," he answered.

Cartwright walked quickly along the balcony and questioned the guards. Neither had seen nor heard anyone go along except Morden. They had both seen Morden stop outside Selwyn's room, seen him try the door and heard him call out 'who's there?' Nobody had come out of the room and from where they were, neither had noticed that the door had been opened.

"Lock the room up again, Skuse," Cartwright said. "And that's about all I can do. Whoever this man is, he seems to be able to go about as easily as the invisible man in a fairy story. Get on guard, boys, please, and camp right outside Mrs. Smyth's door. I'll be along every now and then, so long for the present." He and Hilton then retired to their room.

"If we don't get this man tomorrow," Cartwright said, as he threw himself disconsolately down in the Interprovincial Police as soon as I can get headquarters on the telephone."

"Don't worry, Haddie," Hilton answered. "He's getting daring and that means he'll trip himself up. And do you remember, Mrs. Smyth is going to talk tomorrow morning."

"Yes, that's the best news we've had," Cartwright answered. "She holds the key all right."

CHAPTER 8

Mrs. Smyth Acts a Part

It seems to Hilton that he was awakened every time he closed his eyes that night by Cartwright either coming into the room or going out. Again and again he offered and at last almost demanded that Cartwright let him check up on the guards, but Cartwright would not hear of it. He said he wouldn't sleep on to him before he knows what is happening. How's that? It's not original, but I saw something like that in a play once and it was great."

"Good idea," Cartwright said. "We will do that or something better if we can think of it."

A waiter brought in a tray with refreshments.

"Well, here's hoping," Hilton said, "that this play-acting will be the only police work we'll have to do. I mean that there will be no more robberies or other crimes. Of course, there's Selwyn's murder to be cleared up."

"That's a desire we can all heartily concur in," Dr. Tomlin replied. "As for Mrs. Smyth, if you had had as much experience with the fair sex as I have had, I mean professionally, you'd expect and suspect hysteria after that mysterious theft, and even more mysterious return of her jewels. Of course—" He stopped speaking as a knock sounded on the door and Morden entered hurriedly. "I was laboring under suppressed excitement," he said.

"I understood, Mr. Skuse," he said, speaking hurriedly, "that Mrs. Selwyn's room was to be kept locked and nobody to enter it."

"Yes, it is locked. Sergeant Cartwright and I were up there this morning."

"Well, as I went by just now I heard somebody moving about in it. I couldn't believe my ears, so stepped quietly up to the door and peeped through the keyhole. The room was lighted up and I saw and heard a man moving about in it. I called out: 'who's there' and tried to open the door but it was locked. The man stood still when I spoke, then came over to the door and before I could move back to the keyhole, I saw his eye looking at me through it."

Morden passed his fingers between his collar and his neck as he spoke. "That made me more afraid gentlemen, at that minute than I have ever been in the whole of my life."

Cartwright had sprung up from his chair while Morden was speaking. "Come on," he said walking quickly to the door. "This is what we've been wishing for. Bring your keys, Skuse," he called out as he ran along the passage.

The others followed him up the stairs and along the balcony to Selwyn's room. The door stood three or four inches ajar.

"He's got away," Cartwright said as, with his revolver ready in his right hand, he pushed the door wide open.

The light was still burning in the room and some charred remains of papers smouldered on the hearth.

"We left that locked this morning," Cartwright said, pointing to a suitcase lying open, its contents in wild disorder.

Somebody had been in the room, had destroyed some of Selwyn's papers and got away again.

"Where are the men on guard?" Cartwright asked.

"Both at their posts," Skuse answered.

"You couldn't recognize him?" Cartwright asked Morden.

"The only thing I saw was his eye," Morden answered, with a shudder. "And that so close to me and so suddenly I felt my heart stop just like that."

"What papers did he find in that bag that he wanted to destroy and we missed this morning," Cartwright asked Skuse.

The secretary shook his head. "There wasn't a thing there of any importance so far as I could see," he answered.

Cartwright walked quickly along the balcony and questioned the guards. Neither had seen nor heard anyone go along except Morden. They had both seen Morden stop outside Selwyn's room, seen him try the door and heard him call out 'who's there?' Nobody had come out of the room and from where they were, neither had noticed that the door had been opened.

"Lock the room up again, Skuse," Cartwright said. "And that's about all I can do. Whoever this man is, he seems to be able to go about as easily as the invisible man in a fairy story. Get on guard, boys, please, and camp right outside Mrs. Smyth's door. I'll be along every now and then, so long for the present." He and Hilton then retired to their room.

"If we don't get this man tomorrow," Cartwright said, as he threw himself disconsolately down in the Interprovincial Police as soon as I can get headquarters on the telephone."

"Don't worry, Haddie," Hilton answered. "He's getting daring and that means he'll trip himself up. And do you remember, Mrs. Smyth is going to talk tomorrow morning."

"Yes, that's the best news we've had," Cartwright answered. "She holds the key all right."

CHAPTER 8

Mrs. Smyth Acts a Part

It seems to Hilton that he was awakened every time he closed his eyes that night by Cartwright either coming into the room or going out. Again and again he offered and at last almost demanded that Cartwright let him check up on the guards, but Cartwright would not hear of it. He said he wouldn't sleep on to him before he knows what is happening. How's that? It's not original, but I saw something like that in a play once and it was great."

"Good idea," Cartwright said. "We will do that or something better if we can think of it."

A waiter brought in a tray with refreshments.

"Well, here's hoping," Hilton said, "that this play-acting will be the only police work we'll have to do. I mean that there will be no more robberies or other crimes. Of course, there's Selwyn's murder to be cleared up."

"That's a desire we can all heartily concur in," Dr. Tomlin replied. "As for Mrs. Smyth, if you had had as much experience with the fair sex as I have had, I mean professionally, you'd expect and suspect hysteria after that mysterious theft, and even more mysterious return of her jewels. Of course—" He stopped speaking as a knock sounded on the door and Morden entered hurriedly. "I was laboring under suppressed excitement," he said.

"I understood, Mr. Skuse," he said, speaking hurriedly, "that Mrs. Selwyn's room was to be kept locked and nobody to enter it."

"Yes, it is locked. Sergeant Cartwright and I were up there this morning."

"Well, as I went by just now I heard somebody moving about in it. I couldn't believe my ears, so stepped quietly up to the door and peeped through the keyhole. The room was lighted up and I saw and heard a man moving about in it. I called out: 'who's there' and tried to open the door but it was locked. The man stood still when I spoke, then came over to the door and before I could move back to the keyhole, I saw his eye looking at me through it."

Morden passed his fingers between his collar and his neck as he spoke. "That made me more afraid gentlemen, at that minute than I have ever been in the whole of my life."

Cartwright had sprung up from his chair while Morden was speaking. "Come on," he said walking quickly to the door. "This is what we've been wishing for. Bring your keys, Skuse," he called out as he ran along the passage.

The others followed him up the stairs and along the balcony to Selwyn's room. The door stood three or four inches ajar.

"He's got away," Cartwright said as, with his revolver ready in his right hand, he pushed the door wide open.

The light was still burning in the room and some charred remains of papers smouldered on the hearth.

"We left that locked this morning," Cartwright said, pointing to a suitcase lying open, its contents in wild disorder.

Somebody had been in the room, had destroyed some of Selwyn's papers and got away again.

"Where are the men on guard?" Cartwright asked.

"Both at their posts," Skuse answered.

"You couldn't recognize him?" Cartwright asked Morden.

"The only thing I saw was his eye," Morden answered, with a shudder. "And that so close to me and so suddenly I felt my heart stop just like that."

"What papers did he find in that bag that he wanted to destroy and we missed this morning," Cartwright asked Skuse.

The secretary shook his head. "There wasn't a thing there of any importance so far as I could see," he answered.

Cartwright walked quickly along the balcony and questioned the guards. Neither had seen nor heard anyone go along except Morden. They had both seen Morden stop outside Selwyn's room, seen him try the door and heard him call out 'who's there?' Nobody had come out of the room and from where they were, neither had noticed that the door had been opened.

"Lock the room up again, Skuse," Cartwright said. "And that's about all I can do. Whoever this man is, he seems to be able to go about as easily as the invisible man in a fairy story. Get on guard, boys, please, and camp right outside Mrs. Smyth's door. I'll be along every now and then, so long for the present." He and Hilton then retired to their room.

"If we don't get this man tomorrow," Cartwright said, as he threw himself disconsolately down in the Interprovincial Police as soon as I can get headquarters on the telephone."

"Don't worry, Haddie," Hilton answered. "He's getting daring and that means he'll trip himself up. And do you remember, Mrs. Smyth is going to talk tomorrow morning."

"Yes, that's the best news we've had," Cartwright answered. "She holds the key all right."

COMPLEXION

Take NB YEAST FLAKES regularly. A natural laxative that supplies rich vitamins. Helps to clear up skin troubles and sallow complexion. Pure brewers' yeast.

At Druggists' and Grocers'

WILSON'S FLY PADS

Every 10c Packet of WILSON'S FLY PADS WILL KILL MORE FLIES THAN SEVERAL DOLLARS WORTH OF ANY OTHER FLY KILLER

NB YEAST FLAKES

RICH BREWERS' YEAST -- ALWAYS STAYS FRESH

THE NATIONAL BREWERIES LIMITED, MONTREAL

Sales Agents: Harold F. Ritchie & Co. Ltd., 1224 St. Catherine St. West, Montreal.

"How I made my beautiful 'hooked rugs'"

"Women are always envying me my lovely hooked rugs and ask me how I got such artistic colors in them," writes a City of Quebec woman. "I'm glad to tell them my secret. I simply used old scraps and dyed them with Diamond Dyes. Old silk stockings dyed also make beautiful rugs. Diamond Dyes give colors like no other dyes—soft, lustrous, fast and washable." The reason Diamond Dyes give such lovely color effects is because they contain a greater amount of the finest aniline dyes. Use Diamond Dyes always for permanent dark colors by boiling.

For light dainty shades without boiling, for underweares, light silk dresses and blouses, use the wonderful new Diamond Tints. All drug stores have both Diamond Dyes and Diamond Tints.

When they walked into the grill-room at a few minutes to nine, they found Miss Dwight and Skuse already ready half through the morning meal, which neither seemed to take very seriously.

"What a night!" Miss Dwight protested. "Excitement about the mysterious man in Selwyn's room followed by double guards and excursions and alarms indicated and then not a whisper. I could have slept better if somebody had banged continuously on a brass tray outside my door."

"I'm awake," Skuse remarked, "making every member and guest and all the staff in the Chateau pass individually before me testing each one's alibi as they did so. Then I tried to get to sleep by counting the sheep jumping over a stile, but the sheep would turn into members, and so the whole affair became a hopeless jumble."

"Played the dickens with your appetites, hasn't it?" Hilton said. "Looks as if you, Skuse, have been satisfied with half a fried egg and a quarter of an inch of bacon, while you, Miss Dwight, have drunk half a cup of coffee and eaten three crumbs of dry toast. We'll have you both going sick if you don't do better than that."

"All of which is said to justify the enormous meal he is about to order," Cartwright said.

"Oh, I know it," Miss Dwight replied. "But this is even worse than I expected," as Hilton gave his order. "Outmeal, little pork sausages, bacon, hotcakes, honey, toast, marmalade and coffee. Are you sure my good man, you haven't forgotten anything?"

"As a matter of fact," Cartwright said, "I don't mind telling you, Miss Dwight, that Hilton has forgone quite a few items, such as omelette, two or three fried eggs and a couple of fat pork chops solely in deference to you and in the hope of winning your favor. If you knew Hilton as well as I do you would fully appreciate the warmth of his regard by this self-censuring ordinance."

(To be Continued.)

Motorist—Hadn't you better go and tell your employer that there's been an accident and his load of hay is overturned?

Boy—He knows it.

Motorist—He knows it? How can he know?

Boy—Cause he's under the hay.

for CORN'S & WARTS

Remove dry skin. Dab on Minard's 3 times daily. Let it dry. After a while Corns and Warts lift right off

MINARD'S LINIMENT

"KING OF PAIN"

Frank D. Shearer

Wiring of all kinds of buildings, old or new. Electric fixtures at low prices. Ask for estimate.

Phone 641 r. 4, Huntingdon

J. Harold Henry

Electric and hand pumps, steam fitting and plumbing, furnaces installed and all general machine repair work.

Phone 226, Bouchette St., Huntingdon

O'Connor's Garage

Gas and Service Station, Greasing, Prices Right, Efficient repair service and towing. General Motors parts. Chateaugay St. Huntingdon

Wm. R. Wilson

Life, Fire, Auto and Accident Insurance.

Athelstan, Que. Phone 617 r. 2

J. B. Carr

Floor Sanding, old or new floors put in first class condition. Licensed to operate throughout Beauharnois District. Box 56, Huntingdon, Que.

Poirier Freres

Sash - Doors - Garage - Black-smithing. Woodwork of all kinds. Furniture manufactured on order. Truck bodies built and repaired. Special orders given careful attention. Estimates on request. High Class work. Phone 1 r. 2, Ste. Martine

Braithwaite Bros.,

Hardware Merchants, Huntingdon, Que. Brick, Mortar, color, Lime, Plaster, 1/2 & 3/4 Sheetrock, Joint Filler, Donnacoona Wall Board, Fire Clay, Land Plaster, Ramsay's Ready Mixed Paints, Mander Brothers Varnishes, Brandram-Henderson's White Lead, C. C. M. Gycal and Bicycle parts, Electrical Supplies, Economy Five Galvanized Sheets.

Rupture Relief Guaranteed

Now you can have the opportunity of buying a truss which is guaranteed to hold your rupture comfortably. Get an Adjusto Pressure Pad truss at the Smith Pharmacy and try it for three days. If you do not think it is the safest, most comfortable truss you ever wore, return it and your money will be refunded. Smith Pharmacy, Malone, N. Y.

Z. E. Lavigueur

Jeweller

6570 St. Hubert St., Montreal (Late of Hemmingford, Que.)

Watches and Jewelry repaired by skilled craftsmen. Attention given to mail orders. We will pay the postage.

Send in your Gold Scraps. Highest prices paid for Old Gold.

Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

County of Beauharnois (Incorporated 1852)

Insures nothing but farm property at 67 cents per hundred, the cheapest rate of any company in Canada.

President—M. W. Leahy. Vice-Pres.—Anthony Doray. Directors—N. M. Brooks, R. R. Neas, Frank St. Louis, Wm. Hamilton and W. D. Fraser.

W. K. Philips, Secretary, Huntingdon, Que.

Professional Directory

Numa E. Brossoit, K.C.
Advocate
Recorder of the City of Valleyfield, Valleyfield, P.Q. Will attend all the courts in the District of Beauharnois and Montreal. Phone No. 60.

W. Martin
Notary
St. Louis de Gonzague, Que. Telephone 27 r. 2-1. Depository of the minutes, registry and index of the late Joseph Landi, N.P.

Dr. H. E. Purcell
Surgeon Dentist.
Huntingdon, Que. Phone 235.

Laurendeau & Cossette
Advocates — Valleyfield, P.Q. J. G. Laurendeau, K.C. J. P. Cossette, L.L.L. Mr. Laurendeau will be at Huntingdon, at Huntingdon Chateau, every 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month.

Jacques Ostiguy
Notary
Phone 11, 81 rue Ste. Cecile Valleyfield, Que. For appointment please communicate with Mr. Deacon, Tel 637 2-4.

Roland Poupard
Notary
Ste. Martine, Tel. 7 r. 2. Office in the County Bldg. At Howick every Tuesday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at A. Brault's Office, formerly Tully Lumber Co. Tel 2 r. 3.

R. Schurman & Co.
Chartered Accountants,
Room 742, Dominion Square Bldg., Montreal.

At Huntingdon Wednesday, 7.30 to 9.30 p.m.
Office in Kelly Block. Phone 186-W.

P. J. Brodeur,
Graduate Optometrist, Eyesight specialist, 76, St. Cecile, Phone 11, Valleyfield, Que.

DR. C. ABERDEEN E. McCABE
D.D.S., L.D.S.
DENTAL SURGEON
CHIRURGIEN DENTISTE
Mouth Infections (Vincent) Infections of the Bouche X-RAY — RAYON-X Transillumination 17 Rue Jacques Cartier St. TEL. 405, VALLEYFIELD

H. Murray Gardner & Co.
Chartered Accountants (Eng.)
159 Craig St. West, Montreal
Tel. Lancaster 3493
Authorized Trustees in Bankruptcy

Professional Cards $10.00 Year

Business Directory

Albon McArthur
Fenderson shingles and lumber, Johns-Manville Asbestos Roofing, Ten-Test and Sheet Rock building boards, Lime, Hardwall, Plaster, etc. St. Lawrence Brick, Phone 166-W, Huntingdon

Consolidated Utilities Limited
Murray Roofings, Donnacoona Board, Lumber,

To approach the eve of its Diamond Jubilee, to have produced goods of quality for two generations, to be known throughout Canada, the Old Land and in the United States without possessing any distinctive sign, word or trade-mark, has been the unusual lot of The Montreal Cottons Limited.

The Valleyfield horizon is indented by the outline of five high towers, only two of which approach each other in similarity of design. Apart from the immense acreage occupied by the buildings, the most striking feature of the plant is these towers which attract attention from a distance.

From the earliest dawn of time, signs and symbols have been interwoven so intimately with life that the sharpness of their outline has become dimmed and the importance of their place has been forgotten. From the cradle to the grave, signs assume a value that is the more remarkable because their value is so generally overlooked.

The imagery of the Bible, from Genesis to Malachi, from St. Matthew to Revelation is rich in its reference to signs. The twelve tribes of Israel carried each a banner on which was inscribed a sign while the four divisions marched behind the emblems of a man, a lion and an eagle.

The flags of the nations witness the traditional interest in signs which have been incorporated into these national standards. The army and navy is replete with signs, that he who runs many races is translated in terms of signs.

The barber's pole is a heritage from the past when the barber-surgeon was a bloodletter. In medieval times every business place had a distinctive and distinguishing sign. In fact, these establishments were known by their signs, some of them being even grotesque.

Those versed in heraldry know that coats-of-arms are translated in terms of signs. Universities blend much meaning into their seals by a combination of signs. The shields of the

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation. Read this very enthusiastic letter: "Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market."

Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. Also iron for the blood. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Athelstan by "Adda-Lyne"

The September meeting of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held Wednesday afternoon in Munro Hall. The devotional period in charge of the President, Mrs. Boyce, was based on the continued subject "Women of the Bible," which has been the topic for some few months.

Rally Day service was observed on Sunday afternoon in the United Church with a most interesting programme. The theme being "Serving Jesus today." Music by the Junior scholars and choir was rendered, also a brief outline of the Sunday School work was given by the Superintendent and readings by Allan Stewart, Miss Alice Wilson and Allan Mack.

There is no art, no trade, no profession, no business whose learning does not involve the mastering of signs. One could spend much time in giving concrete examples. It has been said that a man is known by the company he keeps and any business is better known by the trade-mark it possesses.

On Wednesday evening at 6.15 a bicycle driven by Florent Grenier, 16 years old, was leaving the college grounds, when he came in collision with a car driven by Joseph Nolin, Market street. When the car struck the bicycle it threw the boy a few feet beyond. He was immediately taken to the Hotel-Dieu Hospital Saturday. He had suffered a fractured skull.

On Sunday morning owing to the fire at the Cathedral on Thursday night, Mass was held in the open air when many hundreds gathered in front of the orphanage of the Sisters of Providence, where the Masses were celebrated, at which Rev. Father D. Neveu, parish priest of the cathedral, spoke of the disastrous conflagration, offering his thanks to the many who volunteered to save the tables from destruction. He also said he received many telegrams from the Bishops and Archbishops of the Province. Next Sunday Mass will be held in the Seminary at 6.7, 8.8, and 10 o'clock.

Teacher (after giving a lesson on explosives): "Peter, tell me a powerful explosive?" Peter (after a moment's hesitation): "I don't know, but my sister Dinah might" (dynamite).

Dates to be Remembered in Canada

1750 St. Paul's Church, Halifax, oldest Anglican Church in Canada, built. 1752 Mar. 25, Issue of the Halifax "Gazette," first paper in Canada. British and German population of Nova Scotia, 4,203. 1754 Census population of New France, 55,009.

1755 June 16, Surrender of Fort Beauséjour or the Isthmus of Chignecto to the British. Sept. 10, Expulsion of the Acadians from Nova Scotia. 1756 Seven Years War between Great Britain and France begins.

1758 July 26, Final capture of Louisbourg by the British. Oct. 7, First meeting of the Legislature of Nova Scotia. 1759 July 25, Taking of Fort Niagara by the British. July 26, Beginning of the siege of Quebec. July 31, French victory at Beauport Plains. Sept. 13, Defeat of the French on the Plains of Abraham. Death of Wolfe. Sept. 14, Death of Montcalm. Sept. 18, Surrender of Quebec.

1760 April 28, Victory of the French under Lévis at Ste. Foy. Sept. 8, Surrender of Montreal. Millar's rule set up in Canada. 1762 British population of Nova Scotia, 8,104. First British settlement in New Brunswick. 1763 Feb. 10, Treaty of Paris, by which Canada and its dependencies are ceded to the British.

1764 June 21, First issue of the Quebec "Gazette." Aug. 13, Civil government established. 1765 First issue of the first book printed in Canada, "Catechisme du Diocèse de Sens." May 18, Montreal nearly destroyed by fire. Population of Canada, 69,810.

1766 July 24, Peace made with Pontiac at Oswego. 1768 Charlottetown, P.E.I., founded. April 11, Great fire at Montreal. April 12, Sir Guy Carleton (Lord Dorchester) Governor in Chief. 1769 Jan. 1, British and American colonies separated from Nova Scotia.

1770-72 Hearne's journey to the Coppermine and Slave rivers and Great Slave Lake. 1773 Suppression of the order of Jesuits in Canada and escheat of their estates. 1774 June 22, The Quebec Act passed. 1775 May 1, The Quebec Act comes into force. Outbreak of the American Revolution. Montgomery and Arnold invade Canada. Nov. 12, Montgomery takes Montreal; Dec. 31, Is defeated and killed in an attack on Quebec.

Scotia invade and occupy northern Maine

Sept. 11, British defeat at Plattsburg on lake Champlain. Dec. 24, Treaty of Ghent ends the war. Population—Upper Canada, 95,000; Lower Canada, 335,000. 1815 July 3, Treaty of London regulates trade with the United States. The Red River settlement destroyed by the Northwest Company but restored by Governor Semple. 1816 June 19, Governor Semple killed. The Red River settlement again destroyed.

1817 July 18, First treaty with the Northwest Indians. Lord Selkirk restores the Red River settlement. Opening of the Bank of Montreal; first note issued Oct. 1. Population of Nova Scotia, 81,351. Rush-Bagot Convention with the United States, limiting naval armament on the Great Lakes, is signed. 1818 Oct. 20, Convention at London regulated North American fisheries. Dalhousie College, Halifax, founded. Bank of Quebec founded.

1819-22 Franklin's overland Arctic expedition. 1820 Oct. 16, Cape Breton re-annexed to Nova Scotia. 1821 Mar. 26, The Northwest Company absorbed by the Hudson's Bay Company. Charter given to McGill College. 1822 Population of Lower Canada, 427,465.

1824 Population of Upper Canada, 150,066; of New Brunswick, 74,176. 1825 Oct. 6, Great fire in the Miramichi district, N. B. Opening of the Lachine canal. Population of Lower Canada, 479,288. 1826 Founding of Bytown (Ottawa). 1827 Sept. 29, Convention of London relating to the territory west of the Rocky mountains. Population of Nova Scotia, including Cape Breton, 123,630.

1828 The Methodist Church of Upper Canada separated from that of the United States. 1829 Nov. 27, First Welland canal opened. McGill University opened. Upper Canada College founded. 1831 June 1, The North Magnetic Pole discovered by Sir James Ross. Population—Upper Canada, 236,702; Lower Canada, 553,131; Assiniboia, 2,390.

1834 Mar. 30, Americans repulsed at La Colle. May 6, Capture of Oswego by the British. July 5, American victory at Chippawa. July 25, British victory at Lundy's Lane. July, British from Nova Scotia.

1835 Jan. British victory at Frenchtown. April 27, York (Toronto) taken and burned by the Americans. June 5, British victory at Stony Creek. June 24, British, warned by Laura Secord, capture an American force at Beaver Dams. Sept. 10, Commodore Perry destroys the British flotilla on lake Erie. Oct. 5, Americans under Harrison defeat the British at Moraviantown. Tecumseh killed. Oct. 26, Victory of French-Canadian troops under de Salaberry at Chateauguay. Nov. 11, Defeat of the Americans at Fort Niagara and burn Buffalo.

1836 Mar. 30, Americans repulsed at La Colle. May 6, Capture of Oswego by the British. July 5, American victory at Chippawa. July 25, British victory at Lundy's Lane. July, British from Nova Scotia.

1837 Jan. British victory at Frenchtown. April 27, York (Toronto) taken and burned by the Americans. June 5, British victory at Stony Creek. June 24, British, warned by Laura Secord, capture an American force at Beaver Dams. Sept. 10, Commodore Perry destroys the British flotilla on lake Erie. Oct. 5, Americans under Harrison defeat the British at Moraviantown. Tecumseh killed. Oct. 26, Victory of French-Canadian troops under de Salaberry at Chateauguay. Nov. 11, Defeat of the Americans at Fort Niagara and burn Buffalo.

1838 The Methodist Church of Upper Canada separated from that of the United States. 1829 Nov. 27, First Welland canal opened. McGill University opened. Upper Canada College founded. 1831 June 1, The North Magnetic Pole discovered by Sir James Ross. Population—Upper Canada, 236,702; Lower Canada, 553,131; Assiniboia, 2,390.

1834 Mar. 30, Americans repulsed at La Colle. May 6, Capture of Oswego by the British. July 5, American victory at Chippawa. July 25, British victory at Lundy's Lane. July, British from Nova Scotia.

1835 Jan. British victory at Frenchtown. April 27, York (Toronto) taken and burned by the Americans. June 5, British victory at Stony Creek. June 24, British, warned by Laura Secord, capture an American force at Beaver Dams. Sept. 10, Commodore Perry destroys the British flotilla on lake Erie. Oct. 5, Americans under Harrison defeat the British at Moraviantown. Tecumseh killed. Oct. 26, Victory of French-Canadian troops under de Salaberry at Chateauguay. Nov. 11, Defeat of the Americans at Fort Niagara and burn Buffalo.

1836 Mar. 30, Americans repulsed at La Colle. May 6, Capture of Oswego by the British. July 5, American victory at Chippawa. July 25, British victory at Lundy's Lane. July, British from Nova Scotia.

1837 Jan. British victory at Frenchtown. April 27, York (Toronto) taken and burned by the Americans. June 5, British victory at Stony Creek. June 24, British, warned by Laura Secord, capture an American force at Beaver Dams. Sept. 10, Commodore Perry destroys the British flotilla on lake Erie. Oct. 5, Americans under Harrison defeat the British at Moraviantown. Tecumseh killed. Oct. 26, Victory of French-Canadian troops under de Salaberry at Chateauguay. Nov. 11, Defeat of the Americans at Fort Niagara and burn Buffalo.

HUNTER'S Ladies' Coats, Suits, Dresses, Sweaters. The Snappiest Styles and Best Values in Town. One hundred new coats on the racks today. Wonderful Styles, Real Quality Coats generously furred with genuine furs. Some chamois lined, some two-season satin lined. Rich shades of wine green, brown, navy, skipper blue, monet blue and plenty of black.

Junior Sizes 14 to 20, Women's Sizes 38 to 44, Stylish Stouts 46 to 52. Good coats, the Cream of the markets' best makers and at good looking prices $10. $15. $20. $25. $30. $35. $40. Our Coats Are Right Always Right Missy Coats $5.00, $7.00, $9.95

Swagger Suits with class & pep to 'em Ten dollars, fourteen forty-nine, nineteen dollars. A snappy sale of ladies' Slip-over Sweaters, some Silk and Wool, some pure Wool, colors in endless variety. Short sleeves 99c, long sleeves $1.25. Ladies' Silk and Wool Coat Sweaters $2.95. Ladies' Silk Slip-over Sweaters, long sleeves 99c.

Kayser Chamoyette Gloves 25c, 35c, 50c. Crofter Hand Knitting Wools, one ounce balls, ten cents or three balls 25c. O.V. pure Wool Sox Yarns, eight shades, 60c lb. Scotch Fingering, ten shades, dollar pound. Rug Yarn, fifteen shades, 10c skein. Men's Military Work Shirts, sizes 14 1/2 to 18, 75c.

Men's Solid Leather Work Boots the big value boots Two Dollars. Men's Rock Rib Wool Shirts and Drawers, $1. Men's 100% unshrinkable Shirts and Drawers, 75c. Men's Fleece lined 59c, or two for one dollar. Men's Silk and Wool Sox, 25c, 50c. One hundred pairs women's commonsense Oxfords dollar pair.

Grocery Specials. Salada Tea, pound pkgs. 44. Maxwell House Coffee 37. Pound pkg. Japan Tea 35. Quick Quaker Oats 20. 3 pkgs. Lux 23. 6 cakes Carbolic Soap 25. 10 cakes Castile Soap 25. 6 cakes Sunlight 25.

The Store of Good Values A. E. Hunter. Kellogg's, Quaker, Sugar Crisp Corn Flakes, all kinds, 3 for 23c.

Valleyfield by Miss H. Lalumiere

Accidents in Valleyfield.— On Wednesday evening at 6.15 a bicycle driven by Florent Grenier, 16 years old, was leaving the college grounds, when he came in collision with a car driven by Joseph Nolin, Market street. When the car struck the bicycle it threw the boy a few feet beyond. He was immediately taken to the Hotel-Dieu Hospital Saturday. He had suffered a fractured skull.

On Wednesday at 8.45 p.m. at the corner of Nicholson St. and Market St., two cars collided. One was driven by Anatole Bourget from Rang Double at the other car belonged to Emilie Filon, taxi, driven by N. Bourdeau. The two cars were badly damaged but no one was hurt.

On Sunday morning owing to the fire at the Cathedral on Thursday night, Mass was held in the open air when many hundreds gathered in front of the orphanage of the Sisters of Providence, where the Masses were celebrated, at which Rev. Father D. Neveu, parish priest of the cathedral, spoke of the disastrous conflagration, offering his thanks to the many who volunteered to save the tables from destruction. He also said he received many telegrams from the Bishops and Archbishops of the Province. Next Sunday Mass will be held in the Seminary at 6.7, 8.8, and 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lavimodiere and family of Cornwall, Ont. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lavimodiere. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maynard and children of Montreal are visiting at the home of Numa E. Brossoit, K.C. The Misses E. Brisebois and H. Richer of Verdun, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adelard Monette. Misses Ellen Corcoran and C. Le Roux spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends in Montreal.

Teacher (after giving a lesson on explosives): "Peter, tell me a powerful explosive?" Peter (after a moment's hesitation): "I don't know, but my sister Dinah might" (dynamite).

LEDUC & PRIEUR Ltée Departmental Store. Valleyfield, Que. Specialty: Ready-to-Wear Garments for Ladies and Gents. Tailoring, Dress-making and Millinery.

Housewives Everywhere Agree That "Our Best" Flour Is Best for Baking. McDONALD & ROBB, Limited VALLEYFIELD, QUE.

WHAT! another bulb burned out? Beware Bargain Bulbs. THAT'S one expense of using cheap, nameless bulbs—they burn out too quickly. Be economical and choose EDISON MAZDA LAMPS—tested to give long and satisfactory service. Choose EDISON MAZDA LAMPS. MADE IN CANADA. CANADIAN GENERAL ELECTRIC CO., LIMITED

Service you can't get from ordinary tires. GOOD YEAR PATHFINDER TIRES. Size 4.40 x 21 $7.30. Size 4.50 x 20 $7.85. Size 4.75 x 19 $9.00. These big, stalwart tires are standing up under every sort of motor-ing strain, delivering record mileages everywhere.

O'CONNORS INC. Huntingdon, Que.

Wm. A. Empsall & Co. Malone's Big Store. Buy Now Campaign! Thursday, Friday and Saturday. You Won't Have Another Chance Like This. This merchandise was bought before the code went into effect. When this supply is gone there won't be a ghost of a chance of duplicating it at these prices. Canadian Money accepted at par.

Condensed Ads.

RATES—Cards of Thanks, 50 words or under, 60c per insertion. All other cards, 2c a word cash with order; 3c a word if charged; minimum charge 25c. In Memorial notices, 60c for notice, plus 10c per count line for each line of verse.

For Sale

House and lot on corner of Chateaugay and Church Sts. Apply Rev. J. A. Derome, Huntingdon.

House situated near Athelstan. Apply Mrs. Octave Dorais, Athelstan.

Extracted honey in your own containers, at cash price 7c lb. W. R. Wilson, Phone 617 r. 2, Athelstan.

Hard stove wood, dry. Apply Elle Gohier, Phone 659 r. 5, Huntingdon.

NEED WORK DONE?

Good gravel and sand. Building sub-contractors. Any kind work with horses. Good work horse for sale. Frank Allard, Huntingdon, Phone 113.

2-burner electric stove, with oven, like new. Bargain. Telfer, Henderson St.

Old horse, suitable for fox feed. Alphonse Caza, Lakeshore Road, 2 miles west of St. Anicet.

Good work horse. Apply Z. Roussele, Phone 60, Huntingdon.

Fameuse apples, also a few cords of hard body maple wood, 14 in. long. Phone 615 r. 6, A. H. Crutchfield.

1 Oliver gang plow, good condition. Apply to W. H. Brown, Huntingdon, Que.

14 pigs 6 weeks old, also young pigs about to wean, 2 fall cows, reg'd. Holsteins, young, hardwood 14 inches long. Apply to Gamble Bros., Herdman.

To Rent

Garage. Telfer, Henderson St.

FARM TO RENT OR FOR SALE. Located in centre part of Genesee, 2 1/2 miles from St. Anicet, 100 acres of land. Sugar bush. Apply Box 5000, Gleaner office.

TENDERS

For constructing garage. Specifications can be seen by applying to J. C. Lorden. All tenders to be in by Oct. 5th, next.

The Farmers' Huller, Howick has commenced to operate. Farmers having clover to hull apply to A. A. Allan, Aubrey; John Brown, Howick Station. Price for hulling 3c per lb.

JOHN BROWN, Secy.-Treas.

BUTTER

Selling butter in any quantity to private homes or business places. Lowest price. Get Ste. Barbe Creamery butter delivered to you from

Ovila Myre, Tel. 657 r. 2-1, Huntingdon

For Service

Yorkshire boar, bred by Hooker Bros. Terms $1. cash at time of service. Robert Elliot, Brysonville

McLean's Market Garden. Place your orders now for carrots, parsnips, turnips, pumpkins, Hubbard squash, citron, and preserving tomatoes. Delivery when required.

Gordon McLean, Telephone 636-4.

Apples—Buy your winter supply now, direct from the grower at your own low prices for immediate sale. Good McIntosh or Fameuse, $2.50 bbl., winter cooking apples $1.75 bbl. These prices at the farm, delivery extra. E. E. Wells, Phone 640 2-3, Athelstan.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

Municipality of the Town of Huntingdon

PUBLIC NOTICE. Is hereby given by the undersigned secretary-treasurer of the Town of Huntingdon that the general collection roll has been completed and is deposited in my office and all persons bound to pay the same therein mentioned, must pay the same at my office within twenty days following the publication of this notice.

Given at Huntingdon, Que., this 22nd day of September, 1933. E. C. MARTIN, Secretary-Treasurer.

True copy, E. C. Martin, Secy.-Treas.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

Municipality of the Town of Huntingdon

PUBLIC NOTICE. Is hereby given by the undersigned secretary-treasurer of the Town of Huntingdon that the list of persons, who according to the valuation roll now in force in the said Town, have the right to vote at an election for Member of the Legislative Assembly of this Province has been prepared according to law.

That a duplicate of the said list has been deposited in my office at the discretion and for the inspection of persons interested.

Given at Huntingdon, Que., this 16th day of September, 1933. E. C. MARTIN, Secretary-Treasurer.

True copy, E. C. Martin, Secy.-Treas.

The Huntingdon Gleaner is published every Wednesday by the Huntingdon Gleaner Inc. in the Brown Building, Chateaugay Street, Huntingdon, Que.

"Although every precaution will be taken to avoid error, in its columns the Gleaner accepts advertising in its columns on the understanding that it will not be held responsible for any error or omission published hereunder unless a proof of such advertisement is received in writing by the advertiser and returned to The Huntingdon Gleaner Inc. office duly signed by the advertiser and with such error or correction plainly noted in writing there on and in that case, if an error so noted is not corrected by the advertiser, the Gleaner's liability shall not exceed such a proportion of the entire cost of such advertisement as the space occupied by the noted error bears to the whole space occupied by such advertisement."

Letter re Fairs

Editor of the Gleaner:—

A few lines pertaining to "Observing Exhibitor's" letter in last week's Gleaner, and other items of interest to exhibitors.

It is quite unusual for Havelock and Huntingdon Fairs to be in the same week as it happened this year. The matter for the Directors to see that it doesn't happen another year, seeing that two Fairs in one week seem to be so hard on some people. If the two Fairs combine, and hold their Fairs alternately, as suggested, the stock classes would be much smaller for many Havelock farmers would consider it too far to drive herds of cattle to Huntingdon, as they do to Havelock and vice versa. Of course there are some exhibitors who do exhibit at both Fairs. The person who wrote this letter must have been a man, as only the rackets in the Fancy Work Department was noticed. Personally, I have heard as much, if not more, of racketing and arguing over horse judging, than I ever heard in the women's building. This racketing could be dispensed with if competent judges did their judging carefully, and awarded the prizes where prizes are deserved. The exhibitor, possibly even the cooking was exhibited at both Fairs. Now if cooking is properly judged the cakes, or bread or whatever it may be will be cut and sampled and I am sure no person would think of taking a loaf of bread and giving it to a competitor. For Trout River, Spencer Gavin made circus catches in the second game. Wilson at short fielded well in both games. The second installment of the series will be played at Huntingdon next Sunday, St. Stanislas fixture started at 1:30, followed by the Trout River game. The Huntingdon team are playing snappy ball, and it is hoped a good attendance will be on hand Sunday.

BASEBALL FOR SILVER TROPHY

Huntingdon and St. Stanislas Teams Won Sunday's Encounters

Trout River baseball enthusiasts headed by Rev. Father Belleville and series between teams representing Trout River, St. Stanislas and Huntingdon. Mr. Valade having donated a challenge cup valued at $100.

The games are to be a series of three double headers. The first games were played at Trout River on Sunday and attracted a large crowd. Trout River took on Huntingdon in the first game which was easily won by the latter. Cecil Elder, in charge of Huntingdon, fielded a snappy, hard hitting aggregation, which started out by scoring five runs in the first inning. Trout River came back with three in the second, but never threatened thereafter. McIntyre, throwing for Huntingdon, pitched a nice game, and as a final gesture, knocked the ball far across the road for a home run with two men on in the sixth, and last inning. The score then being 23-3 the game was conceded to Huntingdon. St. Stanislas team also won easily by the score of 8-1, the River boys being unable to solve Smith's speed ball pitching. Tallon pitched creditably for Trout River, but was given indifferent support. For Trout River, Spencer Gavin made circus catches in the second game. Wilson at short fielded well in both games. The second installment of the series will be played at Huntingdon next Sunday, St. Stanislas fixture started at 1:30, followed by the Trout River game. The Huntingdon team are playing snappy ball, and it is hoped a good attendance will be on hand Sunday.

Valleyfield Market Prices. Chicken, 12-13c lb.; Roast Pork, 12-13c lb.; Veal, 8-10c lb.; Honey, 20c bottle; Butter, 20-21c lb.; Cream, 25c qt.; Carrots, 2 for 5c; Beets, 2 for 5c; Turnips, 2 for 5c; Hard Wood, sawed and split, $3.00 cord; Large Golden Corn, 5c doz.; Eggs, 24c doz.; Potatoes, 75c and 80c bag; Oats, 80c bag; Buckwheat, $1.00 bag; Corn, $1.75 bag; Soybeans, 30c bush; Calf, 30c lb.; Wheat, 3 for 10c; Cauliflower, 5c; Celery, 35c doz.; Peas, 5c lb.; Grapes, 25c; Baked Green or Red Tomatoes, 25c box; Alexander Apples, $1.25 bbl.; Wealthy Apples, $2.50 bbl.; St. Lawrence Apples, $2.00 bbl.; Fameuse Apples (seconds), $2.00 bbl.

Book Review by Howard S. Ross

BEHIND THE DOOR OF DELUSION. By "Inmate—Ward 8". The Macmillans in Canada, St. Martin's House, Toronto, Price $2.50.

Every word of this fascinating book was written by a patient in a state hospital for the insane. He is remembered as a brilliant newspaper man, a frequent speaker at luncheon clubs and an active figure in civic affairs. He left his world of "social success" but a psychic failure.

AN INTERESTED EXHIBITOR

RE: ESTATE LATE TOUSSAINT OUDMET

In his lifetime of the town of Huntingdon, retired farmer.

All persons having claims against the Estate, or indebted to same, are respectfully requested to file same with the undersigned within 15 days.

LUCIEN BAILLARGEON, N.P. Huntingdon, Que., Sept. 19th, 1933.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

Municipality of the County of Huntingdon

To the ratepayers of the Townships of Dundas and Godmanchester interested in the watercourse known as the Beaver Creek.

Is hereby given by the undersigned Wesley A. Thompson, Special Officer, over the Beaver Creek, and Branches, duly appointed by the Municipal Council of the County of Huntingdon.

That on Wednesday, the 4th of October, next, 1933, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, commencing at the Bridge over the Beaver Creek, at the White Sideroad, and going west, near the property of Wm. A. White, I will sell to the lowest bidder or bidders, giving sufficient security for the due performance of the work to be sold, the cutting of the weeds and brush and the taking away of any obstructions interfering with the free passage of the water in the watercourse known as the Beaver Creek.

All brush and weeds to be piled on the banks to be burned.

All works to be completed on or before the 20th day of October, next, 1933.

Given at Huntingdon, this 25th day of Sept. 1933.

(Sgd.) WESLEY A. THOMPSON, Special Officer.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

District of Beauharnois

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT No. 6923

WILFRID E. LEBEVRE, of the town of Huntingdon, district of Beauharnois, Merchant, plaintiff; vs. MICHAEL BURKE, of Chateaugay, State of New York, in his quality of tutor to William Curran and Michael Curran, minor children issue of the marriage of the late Michael J. Curran and of Dame Margaret Walsh, in her lifetime of the township of Godmanchester, district of Beauharnois, Defendant.

The Defendant's equality is ordered to appear within one month.

Salaberry de Valleyfield, this 21st day of September, 1933.

D. COUSINEAU, Dep. P. S. C.

Canadian Temperance Study Course

Aubrey by Aniel

Hostess Tea.—The Aubrey-Riverfield Women's Institute held a Hostess Tea in Aubrey Curling Rink parlors, when ten of their members, Mesdames Robb, S. Reddick, W. G. Allen, A. R. Allen, E. Orr, J. E. Ness, J. Angell, J. L. Gruer, H. Reddick and Miss Morris acted as hostesses and entertained about fifty of their fellow members and friends. Mrs. Andrew Bennie, president of the W.I. in well chosen words welcomed the guests and introduced the speakers of the afternoon. After singing the "Maple Leaf Forever," Mrs. Bennie called on Miss B. A. Morris who in her excellent address gave a brief outline of woman's work from the earliest days of our country until the present time and showed how machinery and labor-saving devices had so lessened the work of woman in the home that she had turned to activities outside the home and was now able to enter any sphere of work which formerly had been closed to her. She told how a plain little country woman had been responsible for the formation of the W.I. and how this society has grown until we have Institutes in all parts of the world and this in a period of not more than thirty years. A very pleasing reading entitled "What is a woman worth?" was rendered by Mrs. S. Reddick, and much enjoyed by all. Mrs. M. S. Clark, B.A., Principal of Howick Consolidated School then was called on and she, with the aid of the Planetarium, gave a very interesting and educative address on the ways and wherefores of day and night, the seasons, the phases of the moon, eclipses of sun and moon, cause of tides, etc., which was greatly appreciated by all present. At the close of this address, Mrs. S. Reddick, on behalf of those present moved a very hearty vote of thanks to the speaker and expressed the hope that we might have the pleasure of hearing them at some future date. A quartette, "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," a humorous recitation by Miss Janet Morris and community singing brought the afternoon's program to a close after which tea was served and social intercourse enjoyed. A special feature of the after tea hour was the "reading of tea cups" by a gifted seer, and many were the cups turned over for this little amusement. We wonder how many will come true!

Mrs. Alex. Cushing of Montreal is a guest at the home of the Misses Morris. Mr. Douglas McGerrigle of Montreal was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Easton on Tuesday. Mrs. McGerrigle and little son who had spent the past week with her cousin, Mrs. Easton, returned home with him. Mrs. McDermid is also a guest at present, of her nephew, Mr. F. G. Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reddick and family motored to Bedford on Saturday and spent the week-end there, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Orr spent the week-end in Montreal visiting with friends.

Historic Records Show Jews as Fighting Race. It's a singular thing that people in general should hold so strongly to the idea that the Jew is one who practices the virtue, if it is a virtue, of non-resistance.

There is nothing in history to justify such a view and, indeed, everything to prove that he was no more meek than that turbulent, rebellious figure, Moses. That in the Middle Ages and, later, in Russia, he was massacred cruelly and completely and did not hit back was due to the fact that, having no weapons, he could be crushed by armed mobs and licensed soldiery.

Long before Napoleon placed Jews among his marshals the fighting quality of the race was known and praised.

From the days of the Maccabees on there was no insurgent so much dreaded by the Roman as the people of that narrow littoral that lies between Syria and the Egyptian outposts.

The story of the World war is full of the names of Jews in all the armies, and very certainly the British are not soon going to forget the gallant soldier from the Anzac forces who repeatedly swam ashore at Gallipoli and lighted flares on the beach to guide the incoming boat.—Louisville Herald Post.

Chicken Pie Supper and Program. In—Roekburn Presbyterian Church Hall Thursday, Oct. 12th at 6 p.m. Admission: 35c and 20c.

Watch next week's Gleaner Badminton Meeting Announcement

Field-Day. Saturday, October 7, at 1.00 p.m.

Farm of George P. Elder by the Huntingdon Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Syndicate, to compete for the Department of Agriculture special grant.

Ross' Meat Market. Special sale Roast Beef, rolled or standing. Also Pork Shoulders and Hams at really low prices. Lamb and Smoked Meats. Phone 230. Only Highest Quality Western Steer Sold.

Huntingdon United Church - Chicken Supper - Thursday, October 12. Make sure and attend this supper which will be one of the finest Chicken Suppers ever served in this District. Preparations are being made to serve 450 suppers. Tickets: Adults 35c, Children 20c. EVERYBODY WELCOME

St. Bridget's Hall, Trout River, FRIDAY EVG., SEPT. 29th. Music by Trout River and Malone Boys. Dancing 9-1 a.m. 75c couple. Refreshments served 11 p.m. A DINNER will be served under the auspices of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church in the Annex, on Thursday the 28th inst. from 12 noon till 2 p.m. Adults 35c, Pupils 25c. Under the auspices of the Presbyterian W. M. S. a Sacred Cantata "Queen Esther" will be presented by Burke talent with a chorus of thirty voices, including King Asasurus, Fred Turner, Queen Esther, H. J. Burns, Mordecai, Mac Shatuck, Munro Hall, Athelstan, Friday, Sept. 29th at 8 p.m. Tickets 35c and 20c.

Brysonville Softball Club DANCE. Temperance Hall, Howick. By request postponed until FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Bob Cullen and his 6-piece Montreal orchestra. Gents 75c, refreshments free. Ladies free.

DANCE at Valleyfield in aid of the Valleyfield Boy Scouts. — on — SEPTEMBER 29th, 1933 in the Gault Institute. Music by the Kingsmount Dance Orchestra of Montreal. Gents 75c, Ladies 50c.

Reserve October 5th Chicken Supper Athelstan Presbyterian Church. Reserve OCTOBER 11th, for St. Andrew's Y. W. A. Tea

"500" and Dance. O'Connor Hall, Huntingdon, Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. Benefit of Baseball Club. Cards from 8.15 to 10.45, followed by dancing to Ronnie Hart's and the Barrie orchestras. Admission to cards and dance 35c.

DANCE in the Riverfield Curling Rink, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Admission: 50c, ladies free. Music: Bert's Melody Boys.

Roast Chicken Supper on Thursday, Oct. 5th at 6 p.m. Athelstan Presbyterian Church under the auspices of Ladies Aid. Admission 35c and 20c. Good programme.

DANCE. Opening dance of the season at Community Hall, Dundee, FRIDAY, SEPT 29th. Music supplied by Logan's Orchestra. Admission: 50c per couple. Dancing from 9 to 2 a.m.

Reserve Oct. 12th Huntingdon Lady Curlers "500" and Dance

Field-Day. Saturday, October 7, at 1.00 p.m.

Farm of George P. Elder by the Huntingdon Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Syndicate, to compete for the Department of Agriculture special grant.

Ross' Meat Market. Special sale Roast Beef, rolled or standing. Also Pork Shoulders and Hams at really low prices. Lamb and Smoked Meats. Phone 230. Only Highest Quality Western Steer Sold.

Huntingdon United Church - Chicken Supper - Thursday, October 12. Make sure and attend this supper which will be one of the finest Chicken Suppers ever served in this District. Preparations are being made to serve 450 suppers. Tickets: Adults 35c, Children 20c. EVERYBODY WELCOME

St. Bridget's Hall, Trout River, FRIDAY EVG., SEPT. 29th. Music by Trout River and Malone Boys. Dancing 9-1 a.m. 75c couple. Refreshments served 11 p.m. A DINNER will be served under the auspices of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church in the Annex, on Thursday the 28th inst. from 12 noon till 2 p.m. Adults 35c, Pupils 25c. Under the auspices of the Presbyterian W. M. S. a Sacred Cantata "Queen Esther" will be presented by Burke talent with a chorus of thirty voices, including King Asasurus, Fred Turner, Queen Esther, H. J. Burns, Mordecai, Mac Shatuck, Munro Hall, Athelstan, Friday, Sept. 29th at 8 p.m. Tickets 35c and 20c.

Brysonville Softball Club DANCE. Temperance Hall, Howick. By request postponed until FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Bob Cullen and his 6-piece Montreal orchestra. Gents 75c, refreshments free. Ladies free.

DANCE at Valleyfield in aid of the Valleyfield Boy Scouts. — on — SEPTEMBER 29th, 1933 in the Gault Institute. Music by the Kingsmount Dance Orchestra of Montreal. Gents 75c, Ladies 50c.

Reserve October 5th Chicken Supper Athelstan Presbyterian Church. Reserve OCTOBER 11th, for St. Andrew's Y. W. A. Tea

"500" and Dance. O'Connor Hall, Huntingdon, Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. Benefit of Baseball Club. Cards from 8.15 to 10.45, followed by dancing to Ronnie Hart's and the Barrie orchestras. Admission to cards and dance 35c.

DANCE in the Riverfield Curling Rink, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Admission: 50c, ladies free. Music: Bert's Melody Boys.

Roast Chicken Supper on Thursday, Oct. 5th at 6 p.m. Athelstan Presbyterian Church under the auspices of Ladies Aid. Admission 35c and 20c. Good programme.

DANCE. Opening dance of the season at Community Hall, Dundee, FRIDAY, SEPT 29th. Music supplied by Logan's Orchestra. Admission: 50c per couple. Dancing from 9 to 2 a.m.

Reserve Oct. 12th Huntingdon Lady Curlers "500" and Dance

Field-Day. Saturday, October 7, at 1.00 p.m.

Farm of George P. Elder by the Huntingdon Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Syndicate, to compete for the Department of Agriculture special grant.

Ross' Meat Market. Special sale Roast Beef, rolled or standing. Also Pork Shoulders and Hams at really low prices. Lamb and Smoked Meats. Phone 230. Only Highest Quality Western Steer Sold.

Huntingdon United Church - Chicken Supper - Thursday, October 12. Make sure and attend this supper which will be one of the finest Chicken Suppers ever served in this District. Preparations are being made to serve 450 suppers. Tickets: Adults 35c, Children 20c. EVERYBODY WELCOME

St. Bridget's Hall, Trout River, FRIDAY EVG., SEPT. 29th. Music by Trout River and Malone Boys. Dancing 9-1 a.m. 75c couple. Refreshments served 11 p.m. A DINNER will be served under the auspices of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church in the Annex, on Thursday the 28th inst. from 12 noon till 2 p.m. Adults 35c, Pupils 25c. Under the auspices of the Presbyterian W. M. S. a Sacred Cantata "Queen Esther" will be presented by Burke talent with a chorus of thirty voices, including King Asasurus, Fred Turner, Queen Esther, H. J. Burns, Mordecai, Mac Shatuck, Munro Hall, Athelstan, Friday, Sept. 29th at 8 p.m. Tickets 35c and 20c.

Brysonville Softball Club DANCE. Temperance Hall, Howick. By request postponed until FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Bob Cullen and his 6-piece Montreal orchestra. Gents 75c, refreshments free. Ladies free.

DANCE at Valleyfield in aid of the Valleyfield Boy Scouts. — on — SEPTEMBER 29th, 1933 in the Gault Institute. Music by the Kingsmount Dance Orchestra of Montreal. Gents 75c, Ladies 50c.

Reserve October 5th Chicken Supper Athelstan Presbyterian Church. Reserve OCTOBER 11th, for St. Andrew's Y. W. A. Tea

"500" and Dance. O'Connor Hall, Huntingdon, Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. Benefit of Baseball Club. Cards from 8.15 to 10.45, followed by dancing to Ronnie Hart's and the Barrie orchestras. Admission to cards and dance 35c.

DANCE in the Riverfield Curling Rink, on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Admission: 50c, ladies free. Music: Bert's Melody Boys.

Roast Chicken Supper on Thursday, Oct. 5th at 6 p.m. Athelstan Presbyterian Church under the auspices of Ladies Aid. Admission 35c and 20c. Good programme.

DANCE. Opening dance of the season at Community Hall, Dundee, FRIDAY, SEPT 29th. Music supplied by Logan's Orchestra. Admission: 50c per couple. Dancing from 9 to 2 a.m.

Reserve Oct. 12th Huntingdon Lady Curlers "500" and Dance

Field-Day. Saturday, October 7, at 1.00 p.m.

Farm of George P. Elder by the Huntingdon Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Syndicate, to compete for the Department of Agriculture special grant.

Ross' Meat Market. Special sale Roast Beef, rolled or standing. Also Pork Shoulders and Hams at really low prices. Lamb and Smoked Meats. Phone 230. Only Highest Quality Western Steer Sold.

Huntingdon United Church - Chicken Supper - Thursday, October 12. Make sure and attend this supper which will be one of the finest Chicken Suppers ever served in this District. Preparations are being made to serve 450 suppers. Tickets: Adults 35c, Children 20c. EVERYBODY WELCOME

St. Bridget's Hall, Trout River, FRIDAY EVG., SEPT. 29th. Music by Trout River and Malone Boys. Dancing 9-1 a.m. 75c couple. Refreshments served 11 p.m. A DINNER will be served under the auspices of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Church in the Annex, on Thursday the 28th inst. from 12 noon till 2 p.m. Adults 35c, Pupils 25c. Under the auspices of the Presbyterian W. M. S. a Sacred Cantata "Queen Esther" will be presented by Burke talent with a chorus of thirty voices, including King Asasurus, Fred Turner, Queen Esther, H. J. Burns, Mordecai, Mac Shatuck, Munro Hall, Athelstan, Friday, Sept. 29th at 8 p.m. Tickets 35c and 20c.

Brysonville Softball Club DANCE. Temperance Hall, Howick. By request postponed until FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6th. Bob Cullen and his 6-piece Montreal orchestra. Gents 75c, refreshments free. Ladies free.

DANCE at Valleyfield in aid of the Valleyfield Boy Scouts. — on — SEPTEMBER 29th, 1933 in the Gault Institute. Music by the Kingsmount Dance Orchestra of Montreal. Gents 75c, Ladies 50c.

Reserve October 5th Chicken Supper Athelstan Presbyterian Church. Reserve OCTOBER 11th, for St. Andrew's Y. W. A. Tea

"500" and Dance. O'Connor Hall, Huntingdon, Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. Benefit of Baseball Club. Cards from 8.15 to 10.45, followed by dancing to Ronnie Hart's and the Barrie orchestras. Admission to cards and dance 35c.