DECISION OF THE POPE.

Attorney-General Cameron Does Not Like It.

Attorney-General Cameron, of the Manitoba Government made the following statement with regard to the reported utterance of the Pope on the school question: "The decision of Rome, if correctly reported, is to be regretted. It seems remarkable, but the antagonism of the minority to the public school system has apparently rather increased than diminished since the settlement, and will probably be still further increased by this decision. It would certainly seem that this is a most reactionary step on the part of the Vatican. Why has not the same rule been laid down for the province of Ontario? It is only a short time since Cardinal Satolli made a deliverance on the subject in the United States, presumably with the Papal sanction, in which, if I recollect aright, the minority were permitted to use the public schools in all localities where they had not schools of their own. It is, indeed, difficult to understand why the province of Manitoba alone should be placed under such a stringent mandate."

Archbishop Langevin, when seen at St. Boniface Hospital, would express no opinion on the reported pronouncement by His Holiness on the Manitoba school settlement between the Manitoba and Dominion Governments.

ROCK ISLAND.

November 16.—James T. Ball, draughtsman of the Boston Fire department, is in town a guest at Lee Farm.

The Ladies of the Universalist church gave a very nice entertainment in Foster's Hall last night. One of the most pleasing features was the "Family Album." Two very nice solos were given by Mrs. Thomas and Miss Moulton.

The Derby Line Banjo Club went to Beebe Plain last Friday night and furnished half of the music at the Klondike social. The Beebe Plain correspondent in the Journal said it was furnished by Staustead College.

Rev. Dr. Flanders is in Montreal this week.

The effects of the Rock Island Whip Co., were sold by auction on Monday.

The E. L. C. E. of the Methodist church gave a social last Friday; about 100 were present and a very pleasant time was passed.

The R. C. bazaar was held last Tuesday and Wednesday. The proceeds were about $500 of which $200 come from the gold headed cane which was voted upon for the most popular man in the three villages, 10 cents buying a vote. C. H. Kathan won the cane with 900 votes, 200 majority.

HATLEY.

Nov. 17.—The social at Mrs. R. F. Bowen's, last Friday evening, was well attended in spite of stormy weather and bad roads. Proceeds $7.80 in aid of the fund of St. James church.

Mr. J. D. Morrison, of Hatley creamery, has received of the department of agriculture a cheque for fifty dollars as a prize for building proper cold storage in connection with his factory.

The election of councillors for the newly erected municipality of North Hatley takes place on the 22nd inst., at North Hatley village. Edwin Howe, sec'y-treas., of Hatley township, is presiding officer at the election.

Mayor Geo. W. Kezar, wife and son are comfortably situated in a roomy cottage at Southern Pines, North Carolina, for the winter. We trust the change of climate will prove beneficial to them.

COATICOOK.

November 17.—There are several cases of scarlet fever in what is called the French portion of Coaticook, and according to one of our prominent physicians, will become epidemic unless a firm stand is taken immediately, to prevent contagion.

Master Alfred Ayling, who has been seriously ill for some time, is gradually sinking under a ravaging disease.

On the occasion of the marriage of Mr. L. M. Thomas, a short time ago, some of his many friends proposed making him a substantial wedding present as a token of the esteem in which he is held by them. This happily culminated last Tuesday evening, when he was presented with a beautiful mahogany easy chair, upholstered in figured plush. It is hoped by the donors that recipient will have many hours of comfort and solace in his spare moments.

The very first premium paid on a policy in the Sun Life of Canada is money saved for the future. The interest earned by this sum in a savings bank during the year would be but a trifle. But what a legacy it bequeaths to a family when it has been deposited with an Assurance Company.

SHERBROOKE STREET RAILWAY.

How It Was Brought About.

It will be three weeks on Monday since the opening of the Sherbrooke Street Railway. By that day the whole city line, as far as it will be constructed this winter, will be in full operation. The cars, thus far, have certainly not lacked patronage. A passenger on a Broadway street car once said, "I have never offered a lady a seat in a street car." After being reproached for his lack of courtesy, he replied, "I have never had a seat to offer." Although, no patron of the Sherbrooke cars may speak as the Broadway man did, yet many cars loaded to their full capacity have passed over the Lennoxville line during the time in which it has been in operation. It does not seem improbable that the belt line, which will be opened tomorrow, will be equally well patronized.

It is just about two years ago since the idea of trolley line for Sherbrooke was first originated. Many scouted the idea and are only today beginning to realize its practicability. The company, which was first formed in this city and which obtained the charter for the construction of the road, was composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Wm. Farwell, Dalby Morkill, Wm. Morris, Frank Thompson, J. S. Mitchell, F. P. Buck, R. H. Pope, Alex. Ames and W. Blue.

Soon after the formation of the company, notice was given that application would be made to the Dominion Parliament for a charter, but the notice was too late, and the charter was received from the local Legislature in the spring of 1896. This, however, in itself was only a preliminary step towards the construction of the electric road. The capitalists who built it had not, at the time of the first company's formation, been interested in the matter, and the procuring of the charter was by no means an assurance that the road would be built. Mr. Burke, president of the present company, was, during the winter of 1895, occupied as chief engineer in the construction of the water works system at Newport, Vt. He happened to be in Sherbrooke during the winter on business, and met Mr. Fred Griffith, director and secretary-treasurer of the present company, who brought the electric road scheme to his attention. Mr. Burke, who represented the capitalists, Messrs. Clements and Harding, was interested and went away with the understanding that Mr. Griffith should obtain an option on the company's charter. This was done and the new company was formed early in the spring of '96, composed of Messrs. J. W. Burke, E. J. Griffith, Wm. Morris and J. E. Flood. The charter obtained by the first company was purchased on April 16, '96. The city granted the company its franchise on April 22, '96, and the scheme for the construction of Sherbrooke Street Railway was fairly launched, and has since been carried through to a successful issue. Undoubtedly the first credit of interesting the capitalists who constructed the road, is due to Mr. Fred Griffith, who, during the winter of '96, conducted the negotiations in Sherbrooke with the company, which resulted in the purchase of the charter by a company which meant business, and pushed the scheme through, until now Sherbrooke's trolley is in successful operation.

DIXVILLE.

Nov. 17.—Quite a number of attempts have been made to organize a lodge of Foresters in this place, but they have been unsuccessful until now. For some days past Mr. Stewart, a gentleman from Ontario, has been circulating around amongst the boys and picturing to them in more or less vivid colors the benefits of belonging to the order of Canadian Foresters, with such success that the lodge has been formed, with 20 members, under the name of Court Dixville.

The following is the list of officers:

Junior Past Ranger, A. K. Grady; Chief Ranger, T. J. Grady; Vice Chief Ranger, Elisha Kingsley; Recording Secretary, H. J. Norris; Financial Secretary, C. E. Drew; Treasurer, Walter Bailey; Chaplain, Rev. G. H. A. Murray; Senior Woodward, Laurin L. Drew; Junior Woodward, Horace Drew; Conductor, W. J. Williams; Trustees, Arunah Byron, Edgar Damon, Archie Wright; Finance Committee, Ozro Piper, W. H. Bryan, Allie Straw.

There are some others who intend to join soon, so we bid fair to have a flourishing lodge of Foresters in the near future.

The best and quickest cure for coughs and colds is Menthol Cough Syrup.

WATERVILLE ITEMS.

Nov. 15.—A wedding is one of the coming events, particulars later.

On Saturday evening Miss Julia Dobson, a sister of Mrs. A. H. Gale, passed away. The deceased has been a sufferer from consumption for nearly six years. She was the possessor of a bright and winning disposition, and a noble character, and will be much missed by her circle of relations and friends.

The annual meeting of the members and adherents of the Congregational church took place on Wednesday evening Nov. 10th. The financial and pastoral reports were encouraging and hopeful. It was decided in future to raise all funds by the weekly offering plan. The attendance and interest manifested was encouraging and augurs well for the future.

Mr. Wm. Lawson has sold his farm to Mr. Hammond, of Montreal. The price obtained is reported to be $3,400. Mr. Hammond has bought the farm for his son, who has been in poor health but having improved very much, as a result of spending the past summer at the home of Mr. Wm. Clark, he has decided to remain, and become a robust, successful farmer.

There are two institutions much needed in Waterville. Entirely different because they serve man in distinct ways yet both are necessary and helpful in developing sturdy manhood and womanhood. We need a reading room and circulating library and a skating rink. Who will reveal their public spirit by leading the way in procuring both.

THEY AGREED.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party have left for Ottawa, the Behring Sea conference having been brought to a close. The Behring Sea seal experts reached an agreement yesterday afternoon and a meeting of the diplomatists was held immediately afterwards at which it was agreed that the Canadian authorities should make a proposition to those of the United States for a settlement of all the difficulties now existing between the two countries.

PERSONALS.

Mr. John Lawson Johnston, of Kingswood, Sydenham Hill, London, has purchased the racing cutter Britannia, recently sold by His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales. Mr. Johnston will be remembered by the citizens of Sherbrooke as at one time proprietor of the Canadian Meat Factory, which had its plant where the Quebec Central Railway shops are now, at Newington. He made the fluid beef which bears his name, and within the year has sold his business to the Bovril Co., though still retaining an interest in it.

"LOVED ITS TONE."

Antoinette Trebelli, the world-renowned French prima donna, writes as follows regarding the Gerhard-Heintzman grand piano used by her at two grand concerts in Quebec recently:

"Permit me to say that the Gerhard-Heintzman piano used at my two concerts completely fulfilled the highest expressions of excellence that had come to my ears. I loved its fine quality of tone, and I may also add that my pianist, Mr. Hubert de Blank, has expressed himself in most flattering terms of the many good qualities of the instrument."

The above fully carries out the statement repeatedly made in these columns that in the Gerhard-Heintzman pianos, foreign artists find an instrument that leaves nothing to be desired either by singer or pianist.—TORONTO GLOBE, October 30th, 1897.

BUSINESS PORTION BURNED.

Tiverton, Ont., Nov. 18.—(Special)—This morning, at 1.30, fire broke out and swept the greater part of business section of this town out of existence.

TROUBLE AT PATON MILL

EMPLOYEES REFUSE WORK.

Not Anxious to Increase Their Wages.

Trouble has been brewing among part of the weavers at the Paton Mills since Monday, which culminated in about 40 of them refusing to return to their work yesterday noon.

During the afternoon a meeting of the strikers was held at the home of Jos. Thibeault, when their grievances were claimed to be as follows:

On Monday, the 8th instant, the foreman, Mr. Ned Irwin, gave orders that owing to a rush of work they must work overtime until 7.30 each evening. The weavers did so during that week expecting that the extra work was for the one week only. On Monday of this week, learning that the overtime would be continued indefinitely, the weavers on the first floor refused, and left their work at the usual hours 6.15 p. m. Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Jos. Thibeault, who was looked upon as a leader by the foreman, having finished his web of cloth was given to understand his services were no longer required. At noon when the other employees learned of the trouble, they refused to return to their work, and at their meeting passed resolutions to the effect that Jos. Thibeault and wife be reinstated in their positions; that the working hours be not longer than 6.15 p. m., as there are many women and girls who cannot stand the additional work; and that the foreman, Mr. Irwin, who they understood, was to be discharged, be continued in his present position. A committee of two were appointed to engage Mr. L. C. Belanger, Q. C., to look after their interests.

A representative of the RECORD called at the office of the Paton Mfg. Co., this morning, and saw Mr. Paton and Mr. Hope. They said that the cold weather coming on has brought in a large number of orders requiring immediate shipment, and some given on condition that shipment is made by certain date. This required overtime work by the weavers, who number about 90, equally divided on two floors, and are paid by piece work. On Monday, Nov. 8, notice was given to work until 7.30 each evening, till further orders. There was no trouble until Monday of this week, when Jos. Thibeault, who worked on the first floor, was seen to be running from loom to loom, and shortly after the employees of that floor refused to work overtime. The management could not understand the reason for this, as a year ago the employees were working three-quarter time only, and now they being in a position to give additional work it was refused. The trouble was among those only whom Jos. Thibeault came in direct contact with, therefore it was decided to discharge him. His wife was not discharged. There has been no reason for discharging Mr. Irwin, as intimated by the strikers at their meeting. This morning several of the dissatisfied ones returned to their work, and the trouble is expected to be over before the day is out. The unjustifiable action of the strikers is shown by the fact that they are not sustained by other employees of the mill.

Mr. Paton does not expect orders will require the extra work for more than two or three weeks.

GUN CLUB TOURNAMENT.

An interesting meeting of the gun club was held last night, at which it was decided to hold a tournament, open only to the Eastern Townships, on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 25th. Programmes will be prepared at once and sent to neighboring clubs.

The question of inviting the Interstate Association to hold a tournament here next summer was freely discussed and met with general favor. The association is composed of the largest manufacturers and dealers of the United States, who give a series of shoots throughout the country each summer, paying all expenses and sending representatives and expert shots, to introduce their goods and exhibit their own skill. Their aim is primarily to stimulate the interest in trap shooting, and indirectly to sell goods.

The members who attended the Interstate shoot at Montpelier, last August, feel sure that the Canadians will be glad of an opportunity of seeing the champions of America at the traps, and of comparing their own work in actual competition with that of the commercial representatives of the gun and ammunition makers, they are the pleasantest people possible to know.

The club will meet again Wednesday evening, next, for further discussion of the matter.

WHEAT MARKET.

Mr. W. D. Simpson, Griffith's block, reports the following prices in wheat today, by private wire from Chicago. Dec. wheat opened 95c, highest 96c lowest 94 3/4, at noon 94 7/8. May wheat opened 90 1/2, highest 91 1/2, lowest 90 1/4, at 12 o'clock, 91 1/4. Dec. Pork opened $7.30, lowest $7.27, at 12 o'clock, $7.35.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

Vagrants Fined—A Young Thief.

Four men, giving their names as follows: Geo. Boaltcher, late of Toronto, Richard Troy, of St. John, James Bevins, of Kingston, and Albert Johnston, of Collingwood, were yesterday afternoon, condemned to pay a fine of $1 and costs or two weeks in gaol, under a charge of vagrancy. They were arrested at Magog by the chief of police there, and brought to Sherbrooke. It seems they had been ordered to leave the town and were afterwards found in Mr. Aude's barn, making a fire in the fire box of an old disused engine.

A young boy, 11 years of age, named Charles Cote, was also before Judge Mulvena, and pleaded guilty to a charge of having stolen $8 from S. C. Nutter's team. It appears that he rode down to the G. T. R. station with Mr. Nutter's team and the teamster went into the station, leaving his freight book on the seat with a cheque for $24 and $8 in money inside the book. When he returned the boy was just disappearing and the money was gone. $6.50 has been recovered. He will in all probability be sent to the reformatory, but some papers have to be drawn up yet.

CONCERT AT BISHOP'S COLLEGE.

We understand that a Thanksgiving concert will be given under the auspices of the Bishop's College Mission, of which Canon Adams is the director, on Friday, Nov. 26, at 8 o'clock p. m. The concert will be held in the Bishop Williams Hall, and the management have had the good fortune to secure the favorite soprano, Miss Hollinshead, of Montreal, as the leading artiste. Local talent will also be forthcoming in the shape of glees, solos, &c. The moderate admission of 25c. will be charged for all parts of the hall.

As the electric railway is now open, it is hoped that a large number of Sherbrooke friends will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing such a favorite as Miss Hollinshead.

PERSONALS.

LAOROSSE CLUB TOMBOLA BAZAAR.

A meeting of the Bazaar Committee was held last evening, at which considerable routine business was transacted.

It was decided to hold the bazaar in the Art Hall, arrangements for which have been satisfactorily made with Mr. Morey.

Some 300 donation cards have been returned to the secretary, and the committee will in a few days, be in a position to make up list of prizes for the Tombola, tickets for which are already out, in the hands of members of the club, and have been placed in several stores.

It is very important that all donation cards should be sent in as soon as possible, with this object in view. Ladies and gentlemen, who have cards, will be good enough to make a return to the secretary.

The ladies have generally responded to the invitations sent out by the club, their aid being assured, it is safe to say that the event will prove a great success. A meeting of the ladies, notice of which appears elsewhere, is called for Tuesday afternoon, in Odell's Hall, at which a programme for the week is to be formulated.

WORK FOR THE GAME KEEPERS.

A party of American gentlemen, who returned from Megantic this morning, were loud in their denunciations of the indiscriminate, or, as they term it, criminal slaughter of deer. While investigating in the lumber districts they twice came across camps but recently vacated where there were several carcasses of deer in a decaying state. Four young deer were found that had been killed with clubs or stones. That others besides the party who escaped the officers of the law into Maine, have been guilty of similar crimes, was evident. There were no clues by which the fiend could be located. The nearest residents were at some distance and had no knowledge of the facts.

Don't be deceived by life insurance agents who promise large estimates, in the face of the fact that the interest earning power of money has for the past few years been steadily declining. Every business man knows from his own experience that the high rates once easily obtainable in Canada, cannot today be realized, either in the east or west, and treats corporations promising same in the way they deserve. 235 2d

BURIED IN A WELL.

London, Ont., Nov. 18.—(Special)—L. P. Cooke, a farmer, living 12 miles from Lambeth, was engaged digging a 50-foot well on Monday, when the earth, about the 30 foot mark, caved in upon him. Mr. Cook had been using a pickaxe at the time and the earth forced the pick right through his leg. He remained in this position from 2 o'clock till 5 before he could be extricated. As the only chance to save his life, the medical men amputated the injured leg. Mr. Cook, however, succumbed to his injuries early this morning.

CUMMINGS SHOT HIS RIVAL

Found Guilty, but Recommended to Mercy of Court.
Victoria, B. C., Nov. 18.—(Special)—At the assizes, yesterday, the case against the sealer Cummings, for shooting Hallett Bailey with intent to kill, was heard.
Cummings on his return from his sealing voyage, found that his wife, whom he had married only a few days before his departure, had been keeping company with Bailey to whom she had once been engaged, and had left Victoria for some place unknown to him. He invited Bailey to lunch and fired three shots at him, inflicting only fresh wounds. The jury found a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

HE NEVER CAME BACK.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 17.—A stylishly dressed stranger, representing himself to be a capitalist, with offices at St. John and Montreal, arrived here on Saturday morning, and was introduced to a handsome young woman of respectable connections. She accepted on offer of marriage from him, and the ceremony was performed six hours after the couple met by the Rev. Mr. Armitage.
The husband disappeared on Monday morning, saying he was going to attend to the shipment of four hundred cattle from Montreal.
He never came back. The story regarding the cattle was found to be false. The stranger was well educated, had hundreds of dollars in his possession, and gave the name of George T. O'Brien, which is thought to have been assumed.

TOO MUCH FOR BOTH COUNCIL AND POLICE.

One of our city councillors, on his way home up King street, in the early hours of this morning, had a novel experience. He was walking along slowly, deep in thought over the water question and the habits of life soon to be changed by joining the benedictines, when he was suddenly brought to his senses of danger by a small black and white animal that lay quietly on the sidewalk at his feet. The only thing to indicate that it was not a kitten, was a peculiar odor, not easily forgotten. Quickly backing to a safe distance, he awaited developments, and it was not long before one of our worthy policemen hove in sight. He was informed of the facts of the case and together they tried to plan some way in which this animal could be disposed of. Our policemen do not hesitate to tackle any number of burglars, runaway horses, and attempt hazardous tasks, all without fear, but here was a little offensive animal that kept this councillor and policeman at a safe distance of 20 feet or more.
Finally they commenced throwing stones, and on hitting their mark with one, the atmosphere was suddenly weighted with a perfume that is enjoyed best at a long distance. After this their "little kitten" crept under the verandah of a near-by store and was still master of ceremonies this morning.

SMITH-BLISS.

Compton, Nov. 17.—(Special)— Rev. Robert Smith, the popular pastor of the Methodist church here, and Miss Sarah E. Bliss, second daughter of Mr. Q. Bliss, Esq., Compton, were united in marriage at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the Methodist church. Rev. A.
Lee Holmes, M. A., Coaticook, officiated.
The church was beautifully decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums, ferns and potted plants, and was filled to its full capacity by friends of the contracting parties.
The bride was attired in gray silk, trimmed with chiffon, and carried a handsome bouquet of white roses. She was given away by her father. Miss Kate Hitchcock played the wedding march.
Miss Violet Henderson, the bride's little niece, from Toronto, preceded her up the aisle, carrying in her hand a bouquet of pink roses and ferns. After the ceremony, the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride's father, where the wedding breakfast was served.
The wedding presents were very numerous and valuable.
Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for Boston via the G. T. R., intending to devote a week to their wedding tour.

COATICOOK ITEMS.

Nov. 18.
The officials of the E. T. Bank, Mr. T. T. Shurtleff and others, evidently anticipate a cold Canadian winter as they are making arrangements to heat their buildings by the means of steam heat.
Wednesday of the week preceding thanksgiving having been set apart by the Provincial W. C.
T. U., as a day of prayer for educational institutions, it was duly observed last evening at the usual weekday prayer service at the Methodist church. The meeting was led by Principal Masten.
After devotional exercises, beautiful and uplifting remarks were made by several of those present.
Mr. G. L. Pinkham, former station agent here, has attached the furniture in the office of the G. T. R. Co., claiming it as personal property.
Mrs. Wallace, of North Coaticook, had the misfortune Tuesday to slip while crossing a mat upon the floor and received serious injuries.

BRIEF NOTES OF THE NEWS.

A bill has been introduced in the Parliament of New Zealand, providing for reciprocal trade relations with Great Britain.
One of the last acts of Sir Oliver Mowat prior to his departure for Toronto, was a report favoring the release of Grenier. The release has been sent to Lord Aberdeen for signature in Toronto, and will reach Montreal, Thursday or Friday.
Sir Charles Tupper left on the American liner St. Paul, for Southampton from New York, yesterday. He came direct from Victoria, B. C. where he has been caring for the interests of a mining syndicate, in which the Duke of Teck is interested.
Jos. Larouche, while fooling with a revolver in the Central Depot news office, Ottawa, yesterday morning, shot Miss Bella Johnston, bookkeeper for Mr. J. A.
Burgess. The girl had two teeth knocked out and her jaw smashed.
Reports have reached town that five families have been buried alive by a landslide at River du Chene, a few miles back of St.
Edouard de Lotbiniere, and that more than forty persons have been killed. Deputy coroner Gar-neau has left for the scene of the disaster. The report is, however, discredited.

A small railway bridge over a branch of the Bow River, near Calgary, gave way on Monday night, precipitating two freight cars into the stream. The fireman was injured slightly.

Monday afternoon, fire was discovered in a heap of coal, belonging to the Three Rivers Corporation and kept on the water works wharf. Men have been working to put out the fire ever since. The loss will be heavy.

The funeral of Mr. Boisvert, M.P., who died on Friday last, after a protracted illness, of dropsy, took place yesterday at the Cathedral, Nicolet. Mgr. Gravel officiated.

A REVERIE.

The memory of those blissful hours,
When we sat side by side,
The memory of that happy time,
When you said you'd be my bride,
Like changing views, they come and go,
And as each flashes thro' my brain
I see your dear, lov'd face once more,
I hear your dear lov'd voice again.
The memory of each ling'ring kiss
That filled my heart with untold bliss,
The memory of those kisses given
That raised my soul from earth to heaven,
The words that made me feel so glad,
The words that made me feel so sad,
The last farewell, so softly spoken,
In love, in grief, in accents broken
Are like light and shadow, chasing round
On open space upon the ground.
When clouds, the sun, keep hiding by,
In what seems almost a cloudless sky,
Such thoughts, dear girl, fill my life,
My own, my love, my promised wife,
E.

THE NEVA OVERFLOWS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 16.—All day long a fierce wind has driven the waters up the streams and flooded the canals, the suburban islands and outlying portions of the city. Several bridges have been swept away and the flood continues to rise, threatening to assume grave proportions.
At frequent intervals cannon are fired at the fortress to keep the inhabitants alert.
It is estimated that about one thousand eight hundred persons were made homeless by the rising of the river Neva, the flooding of the canals, the sup-urban islands and the outlying portions of the city, through the fierce winds from the sea, which drove the waters up the stream, sweeping away several bridges.
The police are providing lodging and food for the homeless.

DUG UP WRONG CORPSE.

Rat Portage, Ont., Nov 17.— Henry Gehl was given a drink of aconite in mistake for whiskey at a mine centre drug store. He died, and after he was buried the Attorney-General ordered an inquest. The body was exhumed and a jury sworn, but when the jury came to view the body they discovered that the wrong man had been dug up.
An adjournment was taken till the mistake was rectified.
Then the jury heard the evidence and rendered a verdict that Gehl's death was due to a mistake of the druggist.

CONVICTS STILL AT LARGE.

Kingston, November 17.—The convicts, Laurence and Reburn, who escaped from the penitentiary yesterday afternoon, have not been recaptured. They were traced to near Collins Bay, but there the trail was lost.
Laurence was a brakeman, Reburn was a German, six feet tall.

POPE'S SCHOOL DECISION.

Rome, November 17.—The Papal encyclical on the subject of the Manitoba schools is not yet complete, and it is authoritatively stated that it will not be published for ten days to come.
But all accounts agree in saying that it will maintain the rights of the Catholics denominational schools.

For the first time Tony had to make the pilgrimage without her, accompanied only by little Adrian, and in crossing the cemetery door under the leaden winter sky

"Where is she?" he thought. "What has become of her?"

On reaching Felix's tomb he stopped, surprised. On the stone there were some poor toys—a trumpet, a jack in the box and a dog on a string.

"Ah, something to play with!" cried Adrian joyfully. And the father saw a piece of paper pinned to the toys, which he bent over and picked up. It read:

"For little Adrian, from his brother Felix in heaven."

Suddenly the boy pressed close to him and cried in fright, "Mamma!" and there, a few steps away, kneeling by some cypresses, he saw a woman dressed in a poor, thin gown and shawl—oh, so pale—with her hands, sunken eyes and hands clasped pleadingly.

"Between you and me I do not believe that Tony Robec ever thought of him who taught by word and example the pardon of injuries. Tony had no religion, but his plebeian heart knew neither self love nor rancor.

He came near her, and with parched mouth said, almost harshly: "Do not speak. Take my arm."

It was not from the cemetery to the house. They walked rapidly. Tony could feel Clementine tremble. The child walked with them, his mind full of the toys. The janitress of the house stood in the doorway.

"Madame," said Tony, "this is my wife, who has been in the country six months with her sick mother and who has returned to live with me."

On climbing the stairs Tony was obliged to support, almost carry, the poor creature, who was sobbing and half fainting with joy and emotion.

When they reached their apartment, Tony made his wife sit in the only armchair. Then he opened a drawer, took from a little box Clementine's wedding ring and placed it on her finger without a reproachful look or a bitter word about the past.

"Adrian," said he, "kiss your mother." She seized her child in a desperate embrace and frantically kissed his hair with a moan of joy. Then, rising and turning on her husband a look that begged, she murmured, "How good you are!"
