New Hospital Rates Include Everything

Hospital rate structure has changed at Pontiac Community Hospital, as of January 1, 1961. The Public Ward rate, which previously was $7 a day, is now raised to include such added items as drugs, laboratory fees X-ray, medical, procedures, operating room, anaesthetics and others. The daily fee for these extras when needed as well as the room and board is $15. This entire amount is covered by the new Provincial Insurance plan of which everyone is a member who resides in Quebec.

The rate for semi-private accommodation is now $20 and includes all the extras as listed above. For private the rate is $22 or for room with bath is $24 per day. The nursery charge is now $5 including extras. The old rates without extras, were $9 for semi private, $11 for private and $12 for room with bath.

In the case of semi-private patients, the Provincial Hospital Insurance pays the basic public ward rate of $15 per day and the patient pays the difference between $15 and the rate he chooses ($20, $22 or $24).

Schoolboys Want Eastern Holiday

(reprinted with permission from "Sport Shorts" the Shawville High School paper).

$696. Can we do it? This is a question among many of the students of Shawville High School. The senior boys basketball team is planning a trip to New Brunswick during the Easter Holidays. They hope to raise the money to cover the cost of transportation and hotel accommodations.

If the trip is made, ten players from the senior team, the manager, and Mr. MacKenzie will go. Mr. MacKenzie has made arrangements for several games to be played around Saint John with high school teams. They hope to be there for five days, playing for four and taking one day for sight seeing.

The boys have started a campaign to raise the money. They plan several record dances and have formed a new school newspaper, Sports — Shorts. They also hope to have several noon-hour basketball games.

With one week gone, they have raised $62.50 and have made a good start. They are hoping that with the support of the whole student body that their "holiday down east" will take place.

Most of the contents of the home were also lost.

This fire is believed to have started in the chimney.

Bishop Windle

First English Speaking Bishop Takes Over at St Patrick's Today

Archbishop Lemiux consecrated Most Rev. Joseph Raymond Windle of Campbell's Bay, as auxiliary bishop of the diocese yesterday.

In the presence of Archbishop Sebastian Baggio, Apostolic Delegate to Canada, 40 bishops from all parts of Canada and 500 priests, the ceremony began at 10 o'clock. Hundreds of laymen crowded the Basilica including representatives of the state, diplomatic corps, House of Commons, the Senate, the Ontario and Quebec Legislatures and the city.

It was the first time an English speaking auxiliary bishop had been named for the Ottawa diocese with its Catholic population of 285,000.

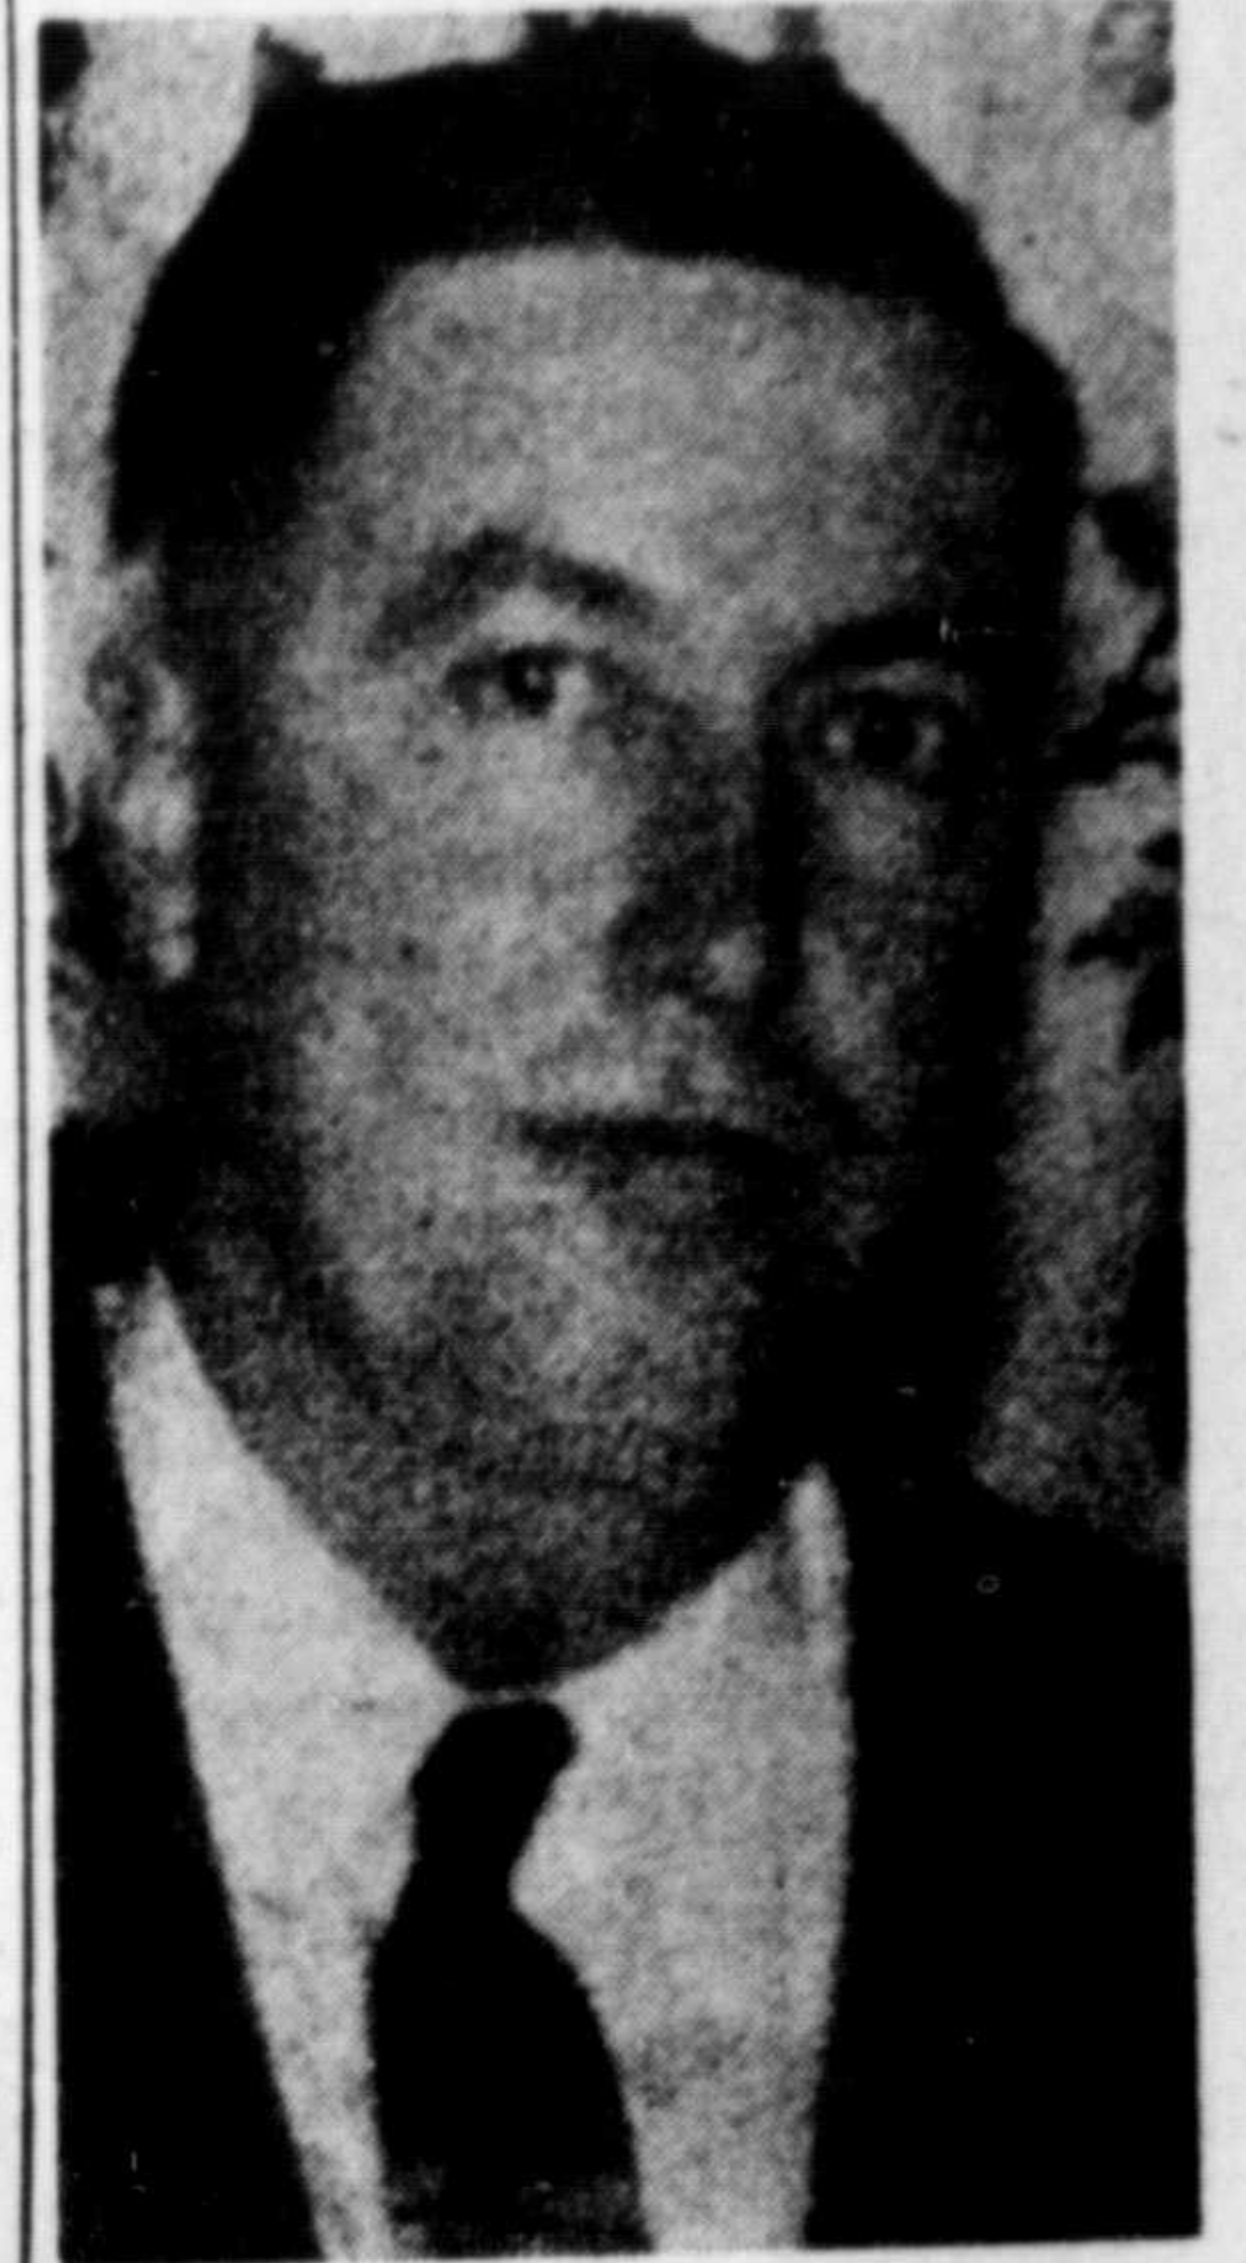

At the same ceremony most Rev. Paul Smile Charbonneau of St. Jerome was also consecrated. The ceremony was marked with all the splendor and dignity of Roman Catholic ceremonial. Archbishop Lemiux was assisted by Most Rev. William J. Smith, Bishop of Pembroke, and Most Rev. Emilien Frenette, Bishop of St. Jerome as co-consecrators. These two bishops are of the diocese of origin of the two new auxiliary bishops.

The sermon in English was given by Most Rev. C. L. Nelligan, former Bishop of Pembroke who in 1943 ordained Bishop Windle to the priesthood. The French sermon was delivered by Most Rev. Pervival Caza, Coadjutor Bishop of Valleyfield.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at the Chateau Laurier for the guests. (Continued on Page Seven)

Shawville's New Mayor

Orla Young Wins Three Way Race

Orla Young, 43, third born of seven sons of the late Robert Young and Mrs. Audrey Young of Shawville, has this week been elected Mayor of Shawville in a three way contest with Alan McKay and Dr. Roland Armitage.

With such eminent opponents it was a close election and the choice of the people was the dairy man over the barber and the veterinary surgeon.

Orla is a native of Shawville as are his six brothers and one sister, Margaret, Mrs. Donald McPhail who now lives in Stouffville, Ont. His brothers are Jersey breeder Melvin, Quebec Provincial Policeman Linden, beekeeper Lawrence, Montreal High School Principal Allan, General Motors employee Earl and Marshall, until recently employed at Hilton Mines.

Married to the former Janet Stewart, of Norway Bay, Shawville's new Mayor has 3 children, Betty 23, of Ottawa, Dougie 19, farming at home and Susan 7. Another son, Buddie, died six years ago, at the age of 15.

Orla has been farming since 1950 in Shawville, at the far east end of town. He managed the Egg Grading Station for Shawville Egg and Poultry and Shawville Cooperative Hatchery for eighteen years.

In 1936, at the age of 19, Mr. Young began driving mail by horse and wagon (and sleigh in this sort of weather) and has been driving mail ever since. He delivers on Shawville RR 3 at present, but not by horse any more!

WE HAVE BEEN FORTUNATE

Being Mayor of a small town is not an easy job, there's little pay; no glory; not even a chain of office! All there is for the Mayor is headaches, phone calls at all hours, complaints of every conceivable sort and a general feeling that everyone you come into contact with either has it in for you or wants you to do him a favor.

However, there must also be some feeling of satisfaction that he is doing his best for his neighbors. It must be good to know that over and above his regular work he is spending his time and energies for the good of his community; solving problems that others, less capable, have entrusted to him.

If it weren't for some such intangible compensations, nobody would wish to take on the job.

But it isn't just anyone who is sufficiently interested in the welfare of his fellowmen to shoulder the burdens of mayoralty. It also isn't just everyone who, having shouldered the responsibilities, can fulfil them.

However, we have been fortunate. We in Shawville, have come through some very difficult years and made some very important decisions — the greatest of which has been the installation of sanitary sewers. Our retiring Mayor Lee Hodgins, has seen us safely through, with the help of a good Council.

As we say thank you to Lee for all the terms of office he has given to Shawville, we can only reflect that in him as Mayor we have indeed been fortunate.

MINOR HOCKEY WEEK IN CANADA

Mayor Orla Young to-day called upon all citizens to support Minor Hockey Week in Canada, which commences Saturday, January 21st.

In giving his support of Minor Hockey Week, His Worship agrees that Minor Hockey Week has become an established part of our Canadian sporting year. Observance of Minor Hockey Week is a good way to direct attention of the public to the benefits of Minor Hockey to our youth and to our community.

We are proud of the fact that Minor Hockey here in Pontiac has the support of many public-spirited citizens, whose love of hockey and of boys prompts them to contribute much time and effort to the local minor leagues. We should direct our appreciation and recognition to these outstanding citizens who are making a valuable contribution to the community in which we live, as does our great Canadian game of hockey contribute entertainment and recreation right across Canada.

Hockey is Canada's National Game. It is one of our great heritages, and participation by the youth of our town should be encouraged at all levels. We are proud of our game, for its ability to develop character, citizenship and respect for authority, as well as for its physical and body-building benefits.

We should also encourage attendance and support by parents and other adults, for only in this way can the minor hockey program here in Pontiac prosper. The young people play better knowing they have the support of their families.

For these reasons we are happy that our Mayor endorses Minor Hockey Week in Canada, and call upon all citizens to keep in step with Canada by joining in the observance of Minor Hockey Week. This can be done by supporting Minor Hockey, and by attending games. We commend to you the official slogan of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, which is promoting this fine venture. It is "Don't send — TAKE your boy to the Arena".

Grains of Sand

The very first official act of Shawville's new Mayor Orla Young was to endorse the participation of Shawville in MINOR HOCKEY WEEK. The slogan of the week is "Don't send—TAKE your boy to the Arena" If you do this in Shawville you'll be sure of a good time, any night you decide to go. Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays the Pontiac League presents double headers between Pontiac teams, Tuesday nights the Pee Wees, Bantams and Juveniles have triple headers between the younger boys, Saturday nights provide a display of hockey at its best by the now famous Shawville Pontiacs and Friday nights give you an opportunity to put on your own skates for a twirl on the ice.

The entire aspect of things at the Fair Grounds has changed now that steel is up for the new Agricultural building. It will dominate the Fair, as it indeed should.

The historical Society planning committee has been holding meetings and should be ready to present a plan one of these soon weeks. Meanwhile the secretary of the committee Gordon Grouse, has been receiving interesting contributions in the way of old records and papers from interested people. He is keeping these in a steel file at his home until the Society gets organized and names an archivist. Latest contribution from Ray Johnston is a Municipal tax receipt dated 1886 for five shillings and four pence issued to Wm. John Steel by Michael Dolan. An interesting aspect of this receipt form is the method of providing a duplicate without carbon paper.

Another item of tremendous interest to the county which should be housed properly by the Pontiac Historical Society when it gets on its feet is the file of back copies of The Equity. If, as, and when, the Historical Society is prepared to give them a good home, they will be turned over for safekeeping.

In an unguarded moment during the "congratulate the new Mayor" party last Monday night, brand new Councillor Lloyd Stevens was heard to make certain remarks about a head tax on sheep in our town and "double for rams". Well, seems bright and early the next morning, while certain other party goers were still sleeping it off, Lloyd was hard at work in his usual place of business when what to his wondering eyes should appear, on his very doorstep yet, but two live and kicking rams! John Kelley was in town at the time. Pity Lloyd couldn't have had the livestock hauled off for auction while owner Claude Elliott was out rounding up some witnesses to the fun. But Lloyd had the last laugh anyway because the Equity photo taken of the lark broke the camera so posterity will be deprived of the pictures.

Dear Sir.

In these fast moving times of ours a great many things change in their order, not the least of these is a vital organ of the United Church of Canada, the Women's Missionary Society, an institution which was inaugurated with the early Presbyterian Church in Canada.

This year, 1961 will mark the end of the era of the Women's Missionary Society, as such, and will stand as a link between the past and the future.

Intensive survey and planning are now underway which will be completed and will come into effect January 1962. This plan will culminate in the joining of two large organizations into a federation of women whose function will be to bring the work of missions into one of fuller fruition.

As members of the Women's Missionary Society, we invite all the Women of the congregation to join with us, at this significant time, in strengthening the link; and, with us, press forward to the new order, where the familiar summons to action, as found in the words of the Great Commission, will still be the prevailing battle-cry in this united endeavour.

Mr. Editor, The Equity,
Shawville, Que.

Dear Sir,

Congratulations on your Editorial of January 12th: "Political Courage".

Yes a wave of horror swept through the ranks of the Union Nationale when a raise of income tax was announced and what courage it took for a government to do so, after having promised no increase in taxation and this coming immediately after having announced the establishment of the health plan, I do not blame any one to think that taxes increase were to help in paying this health plan.

But as our Prime Minister, the Hon. Jean Lesage stated at a press conference televised January 8th and I quote:

"It took my colleagues and me much courage to decide to increase the income tax, but it was the only solution facing the financial heritage left by the Union Nationale, we know that the Union Nationale Party is the only one responsible for this increase in taxation.

It was only after we took office that we were able to check the books of the Province and find engagements for the sum of $130 millions not included in the budget, if those engagements would have been approximately $75 millions it would have been possible to give hospital insurance without any tax increase."

Mr Lesage stated very clearly with all sincerity that the liberals could not have known the financial engagements taken by the Union Nationale which were not entered in the budget presented in the House.

Then it was discovered that an amount of $15 millions towards hospital grants payable in 1960 was not registered in the budget presented by Mr. John Bourque at the last session.

Concerning the department of highways an amount of $62 millions was allotted to this department but when the liberal government took office they discovered that his predecessor had engaged the budget for $85 millions, these are examples how the UN administered the finance of the Province; the Prime Minister stated that the province's credit is excellent and in good standing due to the slight increase in taxation. This taxation increase is only temporary he added as with the new fiscal arrangements, the government could erase double taxation inside of 15 months.

I believe that we should be thankful to have this hospital (Continued on Page Eight)

CHOV Trophy Goes Back To Pembroke

Shawville ladies were in Pembroke last week to defend the CHOV trophy which they won in 1960. Mrs. Freda Tanner skipped and was accompanied by Mrs. Maye Dale, Mrs. Mayfred Dods and Mrs. Fran Dowe. However the ladies were not as lucky as last year, but won two of their three games. They were defeated by Mrs. Ralph Edge and her team of Mrs. John Mulcahy, Mrs. Dave Hill and Mrs. Garnet Peck. 32 rinks entered the bonspiel and strangely enough Mrs. Edge's rink was the only Pembroke one entered.

This month Mrs. Mary Dale will be taking a team to the RCMP bonspiel in Ottawa.

In the men's division, Ron McCredie and his team consisting of Don Dods, Raymond Rowat and Frank Finnigan were successful in the Royal Victoria Jubilee inasmuch as they reached the district finals with three wins. Had they won their last game they would have advanced to Montreal for "the Finals".

Next Monday, January 23, will see the beginning of the Governor Generals playdowns. And by the way we never did announce the winners of the "Pat L'd" competition. Dave Still was the successful fellow with Don Dods, Bill Hanna and Hubert Horner.

HOCKEY Shawville HS Troupes Aylmer

(reprinted by permission from "Sport Shorts" the Shawville High School publication)

By Wayne Chamberlain

On Saturday morning the Senior Boys hockey team travelled to Aylmer for a game with Aylmer High School. The game started at 10:30 a.m. and the first period showed little of what was ahead as Aylmer went ahead 1-0 on a break-away goal by Freddy King. During the first twenty minutes the Shawville boys outplayed their opponents but couldn't hit paydirt.

The second period proved different as the SHS squad came out with curve spirit. Bryan Murray netted his first to tie the game and a few minutes later Lloyd Armstrong took a pass and fired it past the Aylmer goalie to put SHS ahead to stay. The second period ended with a score of 2-1 for SHS.

In the third period SHS let all their fight loose as they broke the game wide open with six unanswered goals.

Bryan Murray scored with the help from Armstrong and Doherty to put Shawville ahead 3-1. Then Proudfoot knocked in a pass from Smart to make the score 4-1. Then came Abbie Armstrong assisted by Bryan Murray and Doherty to raise the count 5-1. A short while later the same three combined to help Doherty make it 6-1. Late in the third period an Aylmer penalty paved the way for another as Bryan Murray drove a 15 tooter into the net for his hat trick assisted by Chamberlain and Armstrong. Billy Murray closed out the scoring for SHS as he scored with assists from Chamberlain and Armstrong. The final score was 8-1 for SHS as they put on quite a

A meeting of St. Mary's C.W.L. was held Dec. 7th in the School Auditorium, Mrs. G. K. O'Donnell presiding. She extended a welcome to the guests, and two new members. A discussion followed regarding Christmas baskets for the needy Mrs. Martin Dowe and Mrs. John Kelly were appointed to assist Mrs. T Brown with the donations. Meeting closed after an exchange of Christmas gifts among the members.

At the regular January meeting, plans were made for a bridge and euchre party to be held in the School Auditorium, Jan 26th. Convenors: Mrs. G. K. O'Donnell, Mrs. J P Daley, Mrs. Thos Dolan and Mrs. John Kelly.

A discuss'on followed regarding a skating party for the altar boys and choir girls, and further plans will be made.

and done nicely. We were pleased to have several visitors with us. The president invited them to come again.

Bonnechere Manor

A look inside an Old folks' home

This year of 1961 may very well see a start mad on the much needed Old People's Home in the Shawville District. Every service organization and many private interests are contributing towards the Shawville Lions Club project to raise enough money to warrant government grants for this project.

While the plan is still in this nebulous stage of development it is worthwhile to examine what other communities are doing in the field of care for elderly citizens. With this in mind, we have investigated in detail the operation in Renfrew of Bonnechere Manor.

(The occasion of our visit was the Annual Christmas party for which entertainment was provided by court- esy of the Music Performers Trust Funds of the Recording Industries, with Mac Beattie, Jennifer Dickson, Bob Price, Reg Hill, Charlie McVeigh, Gaetan Fairfield, Bob Whitney, Ronald McGee, Donnie Gilchrist and his dancers Elizabeth Dickson, Charlene Mulligan and Stevie Dubois.)

The excellent food provided at this particular event was not unusual for a Sunday dinner, we were assured. Chef Ron Wallace with eight assistants in the kitchen serve up attractive and nutritious meals to the 169 residents at the home so that mealtime becomes something to look forward to. This special attention to the dining of the residents is especially important for many of them who have little of special interest to do from day to day.

But days at Bonnechere can't be too tedious for any who care to take part in activities provided. Leather work, weaving, ceramics, copper tooling, etching aluminum trays and making stuffed toys are some of the activities available with the assistance of various community organizations. A well equipped wood-working shop is for the use of many men who wish to do woodwork.

Checkers, cards and other indoor games are on hand as are numerous TV sets. Outdoors the residents play horse shoes, croquet and garden if they wish.

A beauty parlor and a barber shop operate right on the premises; a complete dentist's chair and equipment as well as an optometric laboratory are also part of the plant.

A comfortable library is always a popular room. A chapel where Roman Catholic Masses are held each week and different Protestant religions alternate with services after wards provides a place of worship for those unable to attend church outside.

Of the 169 residents at present, about 60 are in the special care unit which has its own dining room. Doors to this unit are kept locked to protect the residents from wandering outside and coming to harm. There are always nurses on duty here.

Those not on special care come and go as they please as the front door is never locked. Some spend a major part of their time in bed but most are up and about and very active all the time.

The staff is large: 4 registered nurses, 5 male attendants, 22 practical nurses, 6 girls on the domestic staff, 2 men and a girl in the laundry, a seamstress, a janitor (who is also the barber), a chef and 8 kitchen workers and occasional extras in the workroom.

Bread, milk, butter, eggs and fuel oil are tendered for and all foods and supplies are bought in bulk and kept in a large storeroom where they are rebought at retail prices by the chef when needed.

Bonnechere Manor originally cost $936,000 to build, in May, 1958, on 15 acres donated jointly by T. F. Barnet and the Town of Renfrew. The money is financed jointly by the Province of Ontario and County of Renfrew.

The cost of lodging and care is $5.00 per day. Those unable to pay are charged nothing and given smokers supplies if desired as well as other personal comforts. Pensioners sign over their pension checks to Bonnechere Manor and are given a refund of $5.00 in cash or credit at the discretion of the Superintendent.

As now arranged, this supervisor carries an intense amount of responsibility. He is sole purchasing agent for every single article of supply, all furniture, food, cleaning and so forth; he is in complete charge of all personal hiring and firing and they are all answerable to him; he decides for each resident whether they may have pocket money from the pension check refund or from the sale of their handicrafts or whether this is to be kept in trust; he regulates visitors, grants permission for meals away or after dark absences; he is even in a posi-

Mending Need Stressed By Hospital Aux.

Motion by Mrs. A. Smith, sec. by Mrs. Moore that Mrs.

Coulouge WA

Mrs. Howard Smith was hostess to the members and visitors of the Women's Association of Fort Coulouge United Church n Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. Smith being the president presided at the meeting, with Mrs. G. E. Colton, Secretary and Mrs. Ira Whelen, treasurer assisting.

The meeting opened with the WA theme hymn and prayer. Mrs. Doug Campbell gave the scripture reading Hymn no. 11 was repeated in unison. The topic of the meeting was "The first commandment" and the president gave the lesson "Thought pertaining to the topic Hymn 41, "O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing" was sung, followed by prayer. Mrs. Ira Whelen treasurer and Mrs. G. E. Colton gave splendid reports of the work of the WA during the year. It was decided that the members continue to hold a sale table at the close of each monthly meeting; also decided to hold a Bake Sale on January 26th at the home of Mrs. Anne Fumerton. Mrs. Francis Carlson extended an invitation to her home for the meeting in February. The meeting closed with prayer as served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed.

ion to allow or disallow marriage between residents. There are four married couples now at the Manor, all married when they arrived.

The Superintendent, Norman Freiday, also does a terrific public relations job going about explaining the needs of the home to public spirited groups and procuring donations for the senior citizens.

One such public spirited group has been the Womens Club of Deep River, Ontario which has provided used clean clothing, 35 wrapped Christmas gifts, a television set, slide projector and a stretcher for use with the ambulance.

Mr. Freiday, after having taken us on a complete tour of the building assured us that whenever the Shawville group began making concrete plans for our own Old Folks Home, he would be happy to take the time out to address a group here, thus turning some of the great success of the Renfrew project to good use on this side of the river.

Quyon WI

The regular meeting of the Quyon Women's institute was held at the home of Mrs. Laurie McKechnie. Hostesses were Mrs. Lester McCann and Mrs. James Davis. The Legion is to be asked to take over the care of the War Memorial and put a fence or hedge around same.

Members are invited to the home of Mrs. Harriet Burke to make foam rubber articles. The Ground Observers house is being offered for sale. Moving pictures of the Male Fashion Show were shown by Ken Davis.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Garrett O'Donnell.

MacDougal order a bolt of flannelette and the required number of adult gowns.

The need of mending was stressed by one of the members.

No further business the meeting was adjourned by the President.

The bishops and laity, and the clergy of Ottawa, Pembroke and St. Jerome dioceses, and the families of Bishops Windle and Charbonneau.

Then came the solemn canonical examination of the candidates about faith, morals faithfulness to the Authority of Rome. The solemn consecration took place with the imposition of the hands of Archbishop Lemieux and the appointing of the head and hands. Then followed the tradition of the episcopal staff, the ring and the book of gospels. Mass was then offered by Archbishop Lemieux and Bishops Windle and Charbonneau.

At the moment of the offertory Bishops Windle and Charbonneau presented Archbishop Lemieux with the symbolic offering of candles, two loaves of bread and two small barrels of wine, decorated with the coat-of-arms of the consecrator and the consecrated.

According to the count in the vote for liquor in Bristol it is a question that isn't too popular here. People must know what this would involve if liquor was voted in, so apparently we have a goodly number of people who are as the saying goes "On the wagon". I feel that a great deal of this family trouble, and mothers and children being brutally killed can often be traced back to drinking. Some say "I can take my drink or leave it alone" where are they? I have yet to meet them in number anyway. Too many of us are too afraid to speak our minds on account of hurting someone's feelings, or for some other reason wish to stay quiet. I think, with all the trouble in the world today, that this one could be abolished if it was gone at in the right way. Just my opinion!!! I have noticed some discussion about it on TV and that they voice it as a problem. They also tell us how little drink it takes to impair our eyesight and dull our senses for driving.

His plan gives an opportunity to everyone who needs it to benefit of hospitalization compared with the past when many wage earners or members of his family could not afford it and would not bear to be on public charities.

Unless a person was a supporter of the UN party and was favored with a special pink card paying the hospital bill which was a custom in certain parts of the Province during election campaigns. For example payment of hospital bills raised the expenses of public assistance to $61 millions in 1956. The next year this amount was reduced to $42 millions. Why $19 millions more in 1956? Were the people any poorer? Was there any grave epidemic? No there was elections.

The Hon. Jean Jacques Bertrand Minister of Youth and Social Welfare in the UN government and who will possibly be a candidate for leadership of his party in a telecast last Saturday criticized the hospital plan and the liberal government and finished his address thus: Should we laugh or should we cry? With the liberals we've got to pay.

I am sure those measures taken by the liberals were in the best interest of the Province and today the majority even in the County of Pontac will agree with me that it was a blessing that we had a change of government last June.

As we all know the next problem will be shortage of rooms in our hospitals, with our medical doctors in Pontiac sincere in their profession I am sure that this plan will not be abused.

Hospitals can not be built overnight but I hope and pray that in the near future we will have more hospitals and also Homes for the Aged in the County of Pontiac.

Thank you Mr Editor,
Yours truly,
J. E. Lance.

Ottawa Seaway Development Advocated

A recent "Report from Parliament Hill" program on the CBC was given by Paul Martineau, MP for Pontiac County on the feasibility study to be carried out on the proposed Ottawa River Seaway.

He said "a dream long carried by thousands of people throughout the Ottawa Valley came closer to realization last week with the announcement in the House of Commons by the Minister of Transport, Mr. Balcer, that an inter-departmental survey was being carried out by officials to determine the economic benefits which might be derived from the opening of the Ottawa River to deep sea navigation.

I must emphasize this does not mean that the seaway is now about to be built; even after the completion of this preliminary study and even assuming that its report is favourable, a full dress feasibility survey would still have to be carried out by competent engineers. It is only then that Parliament could consider the appropriation of public funds to initiate the first stage of the project.

Montreal-Georgian Bay canal dates back to almost 70 years. In 1894, a charter was granted to the Georgian Bay Ship Canal Company for the purpose of the construction of a canal via the Ottawa River, Lake Nipissing and the French River which would have enabled ocean going vessels to reach the head of the Great Lakes directly from Montreal via the Ottawa River system. The Company carried on various surveys but never put its plans into execution and finally this charter lapsed in 1927 when Parliament refused to grant it further extension.

In 1904, the Department of Public Works began an extensive engineering survey of the proposed seaway which lasted over four years. The purpose of this government survey was to determine if 22-foot navigation throughout the entire length of the Ottawa course from Montreal to Georgian Bay was feasible. Following the completion of that survey, a report was tabled in the House of Commons indicating that despite such major physical difficulties as lack of water at the summit level and the sharp bends of the French River, the project was feasible from an engineering point of view. The cost of the project which provided for a canal with locks 550 feet long by 65 feet wide and a 22 foot draft was estimated in 1908 at the sum of 100 million dollars. In the original plan 27 locks were provided and the total length of the canal was to have been 440 miles. Evidently, today's cost would be vastly greater and some have estimated that the total project would now exceed one-half of a billion dollars.

Hydro Changes Picture

On the other hand, development by the Hydro Electric Commission of Ontario of power sites in recent years have considerably modified some of the engineering problems involved. For instance, the des Joachims development has resulted in the creation of a 57-mile lake from Des Joachims to Mattawa with water elevation at 500 feet which provides a depth of water sufficient for 30 foot navigation or more. Development of the Chenaux rapids at Portage du Fort and of the Chats falls opposite Quyon and Fitzroy have likewise raised water elevations and produced ample depths for deep sea navigation. The new survey would naturally take into account the changes brought about by the development of the numerous sites along the Ottawa River, it would also have to consider new conditions created by new bridges spanning the Ottawa at various points; new economic factors resulting from the evolution of the modes of communications such as tremendous highway development and air traffic. The economic impact of the St. Lawrence seaway would also be a major consideration.

Three Stages of Development

The Ottawa River development could easily be broken up into three stages. Firstly, the Montreal and Ottawa stretch which would make the cities of Ottawa and Hull accessible to ocean-going vessels. The Ottawa Industrial Commission headed by Mr. Robert Bullock of Ottawa has made an extensive study of this first stage and a recent report has estimated its cost at 41 million dollars. New factors involved are the building of the Carillon dam and proposed bridge spanning the Ottawa at the west end of the Island of Montreal. The second step would comprise the stretch between Ottawa and Mattawa and would be one of closest interest to the population of the counties of Pontiac and Renfrew. The final stage would be from Mattawa to Georgian Bay via Lake Nipissing and the French River. The Eastern Ontario Development Association, the Federation of the Chambers of Commerce of Western Quebec, Boards of Trade, county and local municipal councils of both Provinces have been greatly helpful in promoting this project and in focussing public attention on it. The Ottawa Journal, in a recent editorial, noted as follows:-

"This is an age of large spending, a period in which the hastening of national development and the provision of employment appear more important than cost. Nevertheless it must not be assumed that the Ottawa Seaway will ever progress further than a report unless there is united effort to prove its advantages to the government."

Help Ottawa Valley's Industry

The population of our valley is rapidly increasing and it is widely believed that the development of the Ottawa River Seaway would greatly enhance the rapid industrial development of both sides of the Ottawa River. The produce of our industry is made up, in great measure, of bulk shipments such as timber, lumber and minerals, all of which may be more easily and cheaply transported by water. It does not seem exaggerated to hope that these industries could be further expanded and new ones established if there existed cheap transportation such as could be provided by the Seaway. Surely our area is only beginning to enter into its era of greatest industrial and economic development.

Just a few weeks ago, it was announced that serious consideration is being given to the construction of a new pulpwood mill in the Pembroke region. The County of Pontiac still has large stands of white pine and other timber and pulpwood that could signify further economic activity. It already has mines producing iron, zinc, lead, gold and silver and dolomite. Magnesium is being produced at Haley's. Excellent prospects exist both in the Counties of Pontiac and Renfrew for several new mining developments. I need only refer to such prospects as the iron deposits in Vinton and Calabogie. Extensive prospecting in recent years has also revealed the presence of molybdenite, graphite & other strategic minerals. The valley also has plentiful supplies of many materials used in the construct on industry, stone for concrete aggregate and roadwork, and shale for brick making. These include apatite, lime, mica and silica to name only a few.

Moreover, one must not forget that the Ottawa River Seaway would provide a course which would be some 200 miles shorter for ships whose ultimate destination would be the Duluth, Minn. to which are presently shipped large quantities of iron ore via the St. Lawrence Seaway System.

If the Ottawa Seaway were to become a reality then our valley could then take its full share of the industrial complex sometimes called the "golden triangle" formed by the Ottawa and St. Lawrence Rivers with Montreal as its apex.

It is therefore with considerable satisfaction that I greet the decision of the Government to carry on an inter-departmental survey on this subject.

In my opinion, there is no other project at the present time that offers better prospects to our valley for development and renewed growth."
