DEATH AND SUFFERING CONTINUES FROM HEAT THROUGHOUT THE EAST

Hundreds Prostrated in New York — Hospitals Overcrowded—In Canada the Heat Was Very Severe.

TERRIBLE HEAT IN NEW YORK CITY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 19.—Between midnight and noon to-day 26 persons were killed here by heat. One person committed suicide, and a woman killed her infant as result of the heat plague.

	Maximum temperature.	Prostrations.	Deaths
New York	96	187	35
Philadelphia	98.3	50	5

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, June 19.—Death stalked through the ovenlike tenements and Sahara-like streets of New York again to-day.

Scores were dying and hundreds falling prostrated with the awful heat. There is no relief in sight. The weather man says the blistering heat will keep up all this week.

Babies are being killed by hundreds, and thousands of Greater New York's people are suffering.

The hospitals are filled with heat cases. Ambulances are working day and night bringing into hospitals the stricken ones.

Even horses are giving out. And the police patrol wagons have been pressed into service as ambulances.

Every park in the great city has been turned into an open air lodging house.

Thousands of men, women and children, fleeing from the terrible heat of the tenements, huddled together on the benches and upon green sward last night, trying to get asleep.

They cast off all but absolutely necessary garments.

By order of the police department, all the cities' parks have been thrown open for the suffering people and "keep off the grass" signs have been removed.

Every tenement house roof, every fire escape was black with suffering humanity during the night. Business fell off largely.

Many down town streets were almost deserted to-day.

All the steamboats, railway and trolley car lines to the country and seashore were crowded. Thirty thousand persons slept last night on the sands of Coney Island Beach shelterless, rather than return to the horrors of the sun-baked city.

Thirty-five deaths and 225 prostrations have been caused by heat in this city the last twenty-four hours.

Since the hot wave struck the city 104 persons have been killed by it.

This, however, does not tell the whole story of the awful work of blasting heat that is withering the entire community.

Some idea of the terrible mortality due to the heat may be gained from the announcement made to-day by the health department that 636 babies under the age of one year have died in the tenement houses of New York within the last week.

The highest official temperature yesterday was 96.

The street temperature ranged from 81 to 100.

AT FORT WILLIAM.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Fort William, Ont., July 19.—What is reported to be the worst storm that ever visited Western Ontario is now raging between Atikokan and Rainy River. Along the lines of the Canadian Northern heavy rains have played considerable havoc. All trains are hours behind time. Bridges are washed away and telegraph wires are down. Particulars so far are meagre.

AT PHILADELPHIA.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Philadelphia, July 19.—Five more deaths and fifteen prostrations resulted from the heat yesterday, which reached the highest mark recorded this year. At 4.20 p.m. the mercury registered 95 degrees, which has been exceeded only three times in the history of the Weather Bureau, and is within three degrees of the highest ever recorded—98 degrees, on July 17, 1900. The highest previous record for this year is 94 degrees, on June 18.

AT SYRACUSE.

Syracuse, N.Y., July 19.—Yesterday was one of the hottest days on record in this city. The thermometer registered 93 degrees, and in some places the mercury went higher. Two deaths, both infants, and one prostration resulted.

IN TORONTO

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—The thermometer in Toronto yesterday reached 92 early in the afternoon.

At 8 o'clock in the morning the temperature was 80 in the shade.

Little relief is yet in sight, although conditions are favorable for local thunderstorms. The iron moulders in the Pease Furnace Foundry to a man unanimously refused to work to-day as yesterday's heat had gone hard with them.

Only one prostration from heat today has been reported. An employe of the street railway power house was overcome early in the day and taken to the Emergency Hospital.

AT LONDON.

Special to the Montreal Star.

London, Ont., July 19. — Yesterday was the hottest day of the season here. At 2 o'clock the thermometer registered 90 in the shade at the observatory, which was half a degree warmer than on Monday. In the sun the registration was greater than 100. The employes of a wholesale clothing establishment quit work yesterday morning because the factory was not supplied with electric fans and the heat was unbearable.

AT HAMILTON.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., July 19.—Yesterday was the hottest day of the season in this city, the thermometers varied, of course, but the temperature in the shade ranged from 92 to 95 degrees. Last night the weather was so hot many people in the city suffered from loss of sleep.

ONE KILLED IN TWEED.

Tweed, Ont., July 19.—An Englishman, named Wm. Padwell, while working for a farmer named Robt. Johnson, living four miles from Tweed, dropped dead in the hay field, being overcome by the heat.

Lightning and Hail Storm.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Kingston, Ont., July 19.—John Dafow was struck and killed by lightning near Tamworth, at half past seven o'clock to-day. He was visiting at W. J. Dowling's farm and was in the barn with Mr. Dowling. Lightning struck the barn and Mr. Dafow was instantly killed. The barn was burned to the ground. Deceased lived near Trenton. A rain and hail storm lasting fifteen minutes passed over here about seven o'clock. The lightning did much damage and the hail was larger than marbles.

SIZZLING WEATHER HERE YESTERDAY

The Hottest Day of the Year Experienced Up to Now.

THERMOMETER GOT UP TO 87

Fortunately There Were Breezes and No Deaths, Few Prostrations and Not Much Suffering.

With all the heat imaginable, with an average humidity of 71, with no rain to relieve the strain, and with the pouring hot rays of the sun, yesterday claimed for itself the title of "the hottest day of the year." To make matters worse, the claims are correct. The maximum was reached at 2.15 o'clock, with 87 degrees of heat. This is 2 degrees ahead of the record of July 12. This is the official record, in many places where people had to live a slightly higher temperature was reached.

There was hardly any noticeable change during the whole day—in fact, the temperature only varied 17.4 degrees in the twenty-four hours. The lowest was between four and five o'clock in the morning. The thermometer recorded a rise of nine degrees at nine o'clock, while at noon nearly 85 degrees were recorded. There was only one consolation, and that was the welcome breeze which at times sprang up.

It is rather interesting to note that last year's record was established on July 19. At that time the thermometer scored 90.1 degrees. To some perhaps yesterday was much the warmer, on account of the high humidity, last year's record day having only 65 as its average humidity.

Montreal seems to have got some share of the terrific heat which has been troubling the cities of the Atlantic States, but we have been fortunate in not having the deaths for which the heat has been responsible in those parts. There were several cases of partial prostration; but there seems to have been no deaths here as a result of the heat.

Fred. Kelly, an employe of the C. P. R., was completely overcome about 7.30 last evening, when returning from his work at the freight sheds. At the corner of Berri and Commissioners streets Kelly fell down, completely exhausted. He was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital and will likely be all right in a few days.

Every place which seemed likely to afford anything in the cooling line was filled by the flocking crowds last night.

The Street Railway must have taken in a tremendous amount of cash, perhaps even rivalling a circus.

This July has established a record away in advance of the corresponding time of last year. The average this year for the first eighteen days has been about 80, while for the corresponding time last year the average was only about 76.

	1904	1905
July 1	78	78
July 2	64	74
July 3	70	85
July 4	75	82
July 5	77	80
July 6	69	77
July 7	78	82
July 8	83	84
July 9	84	83
July 10	73	72
July 11	79	81
July 12	82	87
July 13	67	85
July 14	76	83
July 15	76	73
July 16	79	73
July 17	77	80

Pure Bedding.

If everybody could afford to pay $15 for an Ostermoor Mattress, there would be no other kinds made.

The manufacturers of this Mattress make three grades of cheap Mattresses, which sell in the stores at $3, $4 and $5.

For the protection of buyers who like to know that their bedding is pure, they have registered the word "HEALTH," which appears in a red cross on a label sewed into the end band of each Mattress, and is a guarantee that it is made in a modern, clean factory, by healthy, well-paid expert workmen, and filled with only sanitary materials.

They are durable, and very comfortable to sleep on. 150 x 212

CORONER'S VERDICT JUSTIFIES WOMAN

Says She Fired the Revolver to Frighten Not to Kill.

THE DECEASED MENACED HER

The Charge of Murder Against the Ingersoll Woman Will Be Modified.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Woodstock, Ont., July 19. — "That the deceased David McGee came to his death from a bullet wound in the head, fired from a revolver in the hands of Mrs. Emeline Kyle, of the town of Ingersoll, but that the said Mrs. Kyle did not wilfully murder said David McGee, and that she fired the revolver to frighten him away."

This was the verdict handed to Coroner Neff by Foreman John Stirton, of the jury empanelled to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of David McGee after several witnesses were heard at the inquest last night.

Mrs. Kyle is still in custody, however, and whether or not she will be confined to gaol until the next Assizes depends on whether or not the charge of murder now hanging over her is changed by the coroner's finding. The woman must answer to a charge of murder at first, but it is thought its enormity will be reduced before long.

Her calm, true, ringing confession, delivered at the inquest, won the respect of all, and nothing but consolation has been expressed for her, her relatives, and Robert Kyle. Many are ready to believe her story that she did not intend to kill McGee, but that she was justified in her act, if any justification there be, was expressed by many.

In her evidence she freely admitted the shooting, but declared it was to protect herself. "I have been bothered by him for some time," she commenced. "He has come to the house and bothered me repeatedly.

"He talked very improperly to me, and made nasty charges against me. My husband invited him to come to the house for dinner once, and he imposed on the invitation. He expected to find his meals ready. Tuesday morning he appeared when we were having breakfast. I turned around to look and he was standing right in front of me, having entered by the kitchen door.

"I jumped from the table and ordered him from the house. He took a couple of steps toward the dining-room door, and then turned upon me. I rushed close to him, so that he could not get a heavy blow at me. He struck me once in the face and several times in the chest. I then shoved him out and turned the key in the door.

He went to the kitchen door, but I ran and slammed it in his face. He went around to the little window on the south side and started to come in the window. All the time he was making dreadful threats of what he would do. I cannot tell the people here what he said to me. I then rushed into the sitting room and got the revolver and by this time he was coming through the window. I called to him to stop and fired.

"He could see the revolver in my hands. I fired in the air, you understand. He didn't stop and ran to the rain water barrel at the west end of the house. He started to run east down the street. I stayed at the pump stand. He started back, then, shaking his fist at me. I called out asking him if he knew what he was doing, and told him he must be insane. He did not stop all the same.

THOUGHT HE WAS GOING TO SHOOT.

"He put his hand toward his hip and I thought he was going to shoot me or throw a stone at me. I fired twice without aiming. I know nothing about guns but I though it would surely frighten him. I may have had my eyes shut when I did it. I didn't think he was shot at the time but was just playing a trick on me. I thought he was fooling to get me to go near him. After that I immediately went for help when I saw the blood come and then gave myself up. I have been a good woman and there was no other motive in my heart at the time but that of protection."

She sat down and a hum of approval ran through the court. She showed no emotion and drew her veil as she sat down. The remains of the dead man have been taken in charge by his brother, who lives in Woodstock. This afternoon the accused receives her preliminary hearing.

INJURED MAN'S GOOD NAME.

Police Seeking Man Who Represented Himself as Mr. Arthur Faille.

A week ago Tollkeeper Birmingham of the Victoria Bridge, was assaulted by a man who refused to pay toll. He was arrested and taken to a police station, where he put up a cash bond of $15, and gave his name as Arthur Faille, farmer, Lapradrie. Next morning he did not appear, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

It now turns out that the man was not Arthur Faille. Mr. Faille is a well-known Lapradrie farmer, and was not even on the bridge that night. There is every reason to believe that a man who had a grudge against Mr. Faille used his name. A warrant has been issued for the man, and if the detectives find him, it is likely that he will have more than one charge to answer to.

The body of Mrs. Mary Gorman Carlton, the second wife of Frederick E. Carlton, of Brooklyn, who died of lockjaw, is to be exhumed and subjected to minute examination for traces of poison.

Total approximate cost	$3,218,000

Over three million dollars worth of building going on on Sherbrooke st.

That, in short, represents the value of the building operations now going on, or about to be commenced.

During the past few years the downtown portion of the city has been receiving the greater part of the attention of builders, sky-scrapers and other costly buildings erecting their heads on every side.

This spring, St. Catherine street real estate claimed the bulk of the attention, transactions along that thoroughfare being very numerous.

Now Sherbrooke street is to the front, owing to the immense amount of building going on in that street of splendid residences.

Of large institutions, the foremost is the immense convent of the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame. This building will be situated on the south side of Sherbrooke street, on the border between the city and Westmount, part of the building being in each municipality. Work has already begun upon it. The architects are Marchand and Haskell, and the total cost of the building will be in the vicinity of $1,000,000.

The most costly building, after the convent, will be the new Notre Dame Hospital, which will be built in two sections, one occupying the space between Champlain and Maisonneuve streets, and the other between Maisonneuve and Plessis streets. The plans are by Messrs. Marchand and Haskell, and the cost of the buildings, complete, will be in the vicinity of $900,000.

After the hospitals comes the fine, large apartment house, to be erected upon the Linton property, corner Simpson st., from the plans of Mr. David R. Brown, architect. It is expected that this building will be commenced shortly. It will cost in the neighborhood of $500,000, and will be splendidly built, and conducted on a magnificent plan.

Another splendid new apartment building will be the "Grosvenor," at the corner of Guy street, Finley and Spence, architects. It will contain 45 apartments, and will cost about $150,000.

The Mount Royal Club, Hutchison and Wood, architects, is now well under way, and will be ready for occupation before many months. It is situated on the corner of Stanley and Sherbrooke streets, and will cost upwards of $120,000.

A short distance further west, at the corner of Bishop and adjoining the Sherbrooke Flats, will be the New Sherbrooke, MacVicar and Heriot, architects. The building will be five stories high and will contain 48 apartments. It will be 122 feet by 110 feet, and will cost $100,000.

The Protestant Board of School Commissioners has acquired a property near St. Urbain street, and Mr. A. F. Dunlop is working on the plans. The cost of the building is not yet known, but $100,000 is near enough for the present purpose.

The McGill College Y. M. C. A. is now about complete, at the corner of McGill College avenue. It was built from the plans of Messrs. Finley and Spence, and will cost in the vicinity of $70,000.

The McGill College Union, from the plans of Prof. P. E. Nobbs, chair of architecture, McGill, and Messrs. Hutchison and Wood, is in course of construction, at the corner of Victoria street. The foundation work is now about completed, and the building will be carried forward as quickly as possible. The cost will be about $150,000.

The congregation of the Church of the Messiah has purchased the east corner of Simpson street, whereon to erect a church. The details have not yet been decided upon, but the cost will be in the vicinity of $50,000.

Besides the above-mentioned large buildings, all of which are of a public nature, a large number of private residences are being constructed. These include the handsome flats at 1098 to 1103 Sherbrooke street, for Madame M. A. Weir, at a cost of $30,000; the new residence being erected by Dr. A. W. Molson, next the former O'Brien residence, near McGill College avenue, at a cost of $18,000; two houses for Napoleon Deslaurier, at the corner of St. Christophe street, to cost $12,000; a house for Estate L.s. Tourville, at the corner of Mance street, to cost $7,500; a house for Eugene Dubois, near St. Timothee street, to cost $6,000 and one for Rev. Canon Renaud, near DeLorimier avenue, to cost $4,500.

Many other buildings are doubtless being carried on along Sherbrooke street, but the cost of those mentioned aggregates $3,218,000, and suffices to show that even though building operations may not be going on very actively down town this season, one street alone, in the up-town section can fully supply the deficiency.

THE BUILDING BOOM CONTINUES.

The report issued to-day from the office of the Building Inspector shows a total outlay of $212,000 for the first two weeks of July. Most of the new buildings are dwellings scattered in all parts of the city, as the following list will show:

AUTO GETS "MILK SHAKE."

Fast Chauffeurs Strike Milk Waggon and Come to Grief.

Owing to the reckless driving of an automobile at Lachine last Sunday morning, two Montreal gentlemen narrowly escaped with their lives, though they would have reason for not forgetting their experience in a hurry. They were going so fast that a cloud of dust barely appeared on the horizon when they were whizzing past the Strathcona Hotel, where they encountered a milk van. Under went the occupants and up went the wheels of the machine on the opposite side of the road. It took three hours to right the auto, and when the occupants regained their feet they bore many traces of a hot encounter with mother earth and a surgeon's assistance had to be requisitioned. Needless to say, they retained their self-possession well enough to give no clue to their identity.

To Aid Hospital for Incurables.

Yesterday Mayor Laporte, Ald. Valleres and two Sisters of Providence, of the Hospital for Incurables, met at the City Hall to discuss the advisability of the city giving a larger grant to the hospital. At present the city gives an annual grant of $300, which in no way meets the expense of those the city sends to the hospital. At the conference held yesterday it was decided to recommend the Council to pass a resolution to pay so much for each person sent by the city.

MONTREAL LOST ONCE MORE BY A VERY CLOSE MARGIN

Umpire Zimmer Got in Some of His Raw Work, and His Removal From This City Has Been Requested by Manager Bannon.

Umpire Zimmer gave a lovely exhibition of how to stick the knife into the home team and turn it around before pulling it out, at the ball park yesterday, in the third game of the series between Baltimore and Montreal.

Montreal lost the game, but not because they weren't present with the goods. Of course, Felix was in a great measure responsible for the defeat in allowing Baltimore to pile up four runs in the fourth, but there certainly were things occurring after that wherein Montreal could have tied the score, had Zimmer been seeing things as he should.

Zimmer has been a bad performer, as far as Montreal is concerned, and if a few of the games which his poor work has cost Montreal, had gone in favor of the Royals they would not now be wallowing in the mire of last place.

In the fifth innings yesterday he called Meaney out at the plate claiming that he had not touched the plate. Certain it is that Hearne did not touch him out and the fact that Bannon was right at Meaney's heels made the decision look far worse. It was the third man out and certainly was a piece of hard luck.

Then again Mr. Zimmer performed in the final inning, calling Louis Hartman out at first on a poor throw of Jennings, which Jordan had to go into the air for. Hartman was there with the ball and the rule reads that in such cases the runner shall be given benefit of the doubt. But Zimmer apparently had no doubt; his eyesight was keener than that of any one else on the ground.

The upshot of the afternoon's work was that Bannon telegraphed Pat

Catcher Hearne was in the game, and perspired freely.

Powers to remove Zimmer from Montreal.

Baltimore's runs were all made in one innings; it was Felix who was responsible. He issued two passes, there were three hits and Louis Hartman contributed an error.

Leroy went in after that . . d kept the Orioles guessing, except in the eighth, when Jordan and Rothgeb singled and Jennings drew a base on balls. Jordan was forced at the plate. Hearne hit to Leroy and was double up with Rothgeb.

Montreal scored two in the second. Joyce singled, Lachance sacrificed, and L. Hartman and Raub hit for two bags each.

In the sixth Lachance forced Joyce, who had singled at second and scored on Hartman's double and McAleese's error in trying to hold Hartman at third.

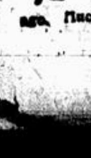
"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1903 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N.Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."



A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R.V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

Bretton Woods, N.H., July 19.—The record of 24 minutes 37 3-5 seconds, established last year by Harkness, of New York, in making the eight mile climb over the carriage road from the base to the summit of Mount Washington, was broken four times yesterday by Wm. More favorable conditions than prevailed on Monday aided the climbers yesterday. The mountain was clear more than half way to the summit, and what clouds settled about the summit were not heavy. Summary:

THE INTERPROVINCIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT ON THE TAPIS

The Idea Is Greatly Favored by Those to Whom the Royal Canadian Association Has Sent Circulars Asking for Opinions.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 18.—President Perley, of the Royal Canadian Golf Association, yesterday sent circulars to al members of the executive with reference to calling a meeting for early in August to consider the advisability of holding an Inter-Provincial golf match in September.

The sentiment in both Ottawa and Montreal seems strongly to favor such an idea, provided the match is between teams not numbering more than ten men a side. It is pointed out that, should the match be fixed for Labor Day, it would easily be possible to get a strong team from both Montreal and Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star.

THE TORONTO VIEW.

Toronto, July 19.—It is pretty generally understood in golf circles here that there will be no Inter-Provincial match between Quebec and Ontario this year.

The Royal Canadian Association threw the matter into the hands of the committee with the rider that the renewal of the contest would be desirable in view of the growing strength of the eastern players and clubs.

Mr. George S. Lyon, the Canadian champion, speaking on the matter this morning, stated that he understood and it was the general impression here in the west that the Association in its recommendation of a renewal of the annual matches between the two provinces meant that these meetings should be held at the championship tournaments. At ant rate, the golfers in this section are not even thinking of such a match at Ottawa this year. Mr. Lyon is strongly of opinion that an Ontario team of ten men or up could not possibly be got together to take a trip to Ottawa for a single match, particularly in the late summer or fall, when all the players had already taken their vacations.

And there the matter rests as far as this year is concerned, and unless something unforeseen occurs there is no likelihood of a match.

It is the intention of the committee, however, to make a place for the match annually on the Royal Canadian programme, and next year at Ottawa it is proposed to make the tournament one of a full week, placing the Inter-Provincial on the first day—Monday.

The plan goes further in its changes. Indeed, it would seem that there is a pretty well understood unanimity in the committee as a result of some clashing at this year's tournament here. It is proposed to hold the Inter-Provincial on Monday as already stated, which heretofore has been the off-day of the week; on Tuesday morning the amateur championship will be begun and continued on Wednesday, bringing the final on Thursday instead of on Friday, as in the past; on Friday the open handicap will be played, and Saturday will be reserved for the open championship.

This arrangement has for its object the keeping apart of the handicap and the open. This year there were clashes and delays by having these two contests on the same day. Besides the candidates in the handicap were unable to watch the performances of the professionals in the open and were greatly disappointed as a result of missing the feature event of the tournament.

The question that is agitating the west just now particularly is not, however, the Canadian tournament for next year, nor yet the Inter-Provincial, but the Canadian team for the Olympic match at Chicago, on August 7, and more especially the whys and wherefores of the leaving of Fritz Martin of Hamilton off the first list of men invited.

Fritz Martin is looked upon up here as second only to George Lyon, and a close second at that. He has beaten the champion since the Canadian tournament, and that too, before the selection of the team for Chicago.

A prominent Toronto golfer who, however, does not care to be quoted on the matter for obvious reasons, said to-day, when speaking of the team:

"I really cannot understand how any committee could leave Fritz Martin off any representative Canadian team He is a close second to Mr. Lyon, and is head and shoulders above any other player in Canada."

"I know positively that neither Mr. Lyon nor Mr. Martin, the two western representatives on the committee, were ever asked for suggestions as to the make-up of the team. The first intimation they had of the choice was in a despatch from Ottawa, where, because of the tournaments being held there next year, there was a quorum of three members. I do not know whether Montreal was even asked to give an opinion, but certainly the west was not. Two of the Ottawa members of the committee are not golfers at all, and if they made the selection it would seem to have been a badly managed affir."

On Beaconsfield Links.

At the Beaconsfield links on Saturday afternoon, Mr. Harrison B. Young won the prize in the Monthly Club handicap match and also the special prize donated by Mr. J. W. Blair, to be competed for by members with 25 handicap.

DELORIMIER PARK SUMMER MEET OPENED WITH TWO HUNDRED ENTRIES

One Driver Was Thrown, But Otherwise the Afternoon's Sport Was a Great Success—Some Very Good Times Made.

The Gentlemen's Driving Club opened its July meeting at the Delorimier track yesterday afternoon before a well filled grand stand and it was stated as a fact by the management that the number of entries is the largest of any meeting ever held in Eastern Canada. Everything suggests that the event will be the most successful the club has yet had. The management was capital in all respects ,and the judges gave several evidences of their intention to act in a strictly impartial manner.

The meet will last five days and there are a little over one hundred entries for the many events. Horses are here from many parts of Ontario, and the United States, and Quebec province has more than done its share.

Yesterday there were two events. The 2.17 trot and pace was the more popular, though the 2.27 trot and pace received the most attention at the hands of those who dealt with the bookmakers.

It was, however, the 2.17 that caused the most excitement. At the outset there was a general impression that Cyclone would win and he took the first heat with comparative ease. The excellent time of 2 17 1-2 was made, and it was the fastest of the four heats. The second heat was the exciting one. the horses had reached the upper bend of the track on the first lap.

Farley, the owner of Cyclone, was driving him for second place, when Illysa crossed from the outside of the track, and the hubs of the two sulkies locked. The next moment Cyclone's sulky was overturned, and Farley got a back toss. For a moment it seemed certain that he had met his death, as the horses were going at a fast pace. There was a general relief from suspense when Farley got up and started on a quick walk to the grand stand to meet the oncoming horses. Cyclone's sulkey righted itself and the horse came trotting round the track to the wire as though nothing had happened and he didn't know what a driver was. Lois J., a Worcester, Mass., horse, got the heat. The judges discussed the matter for some time, and it was finally announced that Cyclone had not been to blame in the matter and that he would be allowed to start in the third heat. The news was applauded and Cyclone showed his superiority by winning the next two heats.

The third heat was the most exciting of the lot as the favorite got a bad start and did not commence to pick up until the heat was half finished. Then he proved that he was well named, and in a most exciting brush with Lois J. won by a nose.

Hattie Medium had a comparatively easy thing with his competitors in the 2.27, Fern and Firefly had some splendid spurts in their efforts to get second money ,and they made the event interesting.

The judges for the fve days' racing are: D. Parker, St. Alban's, Vt.; E. R. Brownell, Burlington, Vt., and L. N. Morris, Bradford, Vt. Mr. Renaud starter.

The judges for the five days' racing are: D. Parker, St. Albans, Vt.; E. R. Brownell Burlington, Vt.; and L. N. Morris, Bradford, Vt. Mr. Renaud will again act as starter.

Three Favorites Successful.

New York, July 19.—Handserra, an outsider in the betting, won the Glencove handicap at Brighton Beach yesterday, defeating Wild Mint by a length. Handserra stepped the six furlongs in the fast time of 1.12 2-5. Chieftain was the early pace-maker. In the stretch Handserra took the lead, and won driving. Three favorites were successful.

Teams representing the Amherst Park Anglican Mission and the Amherst Park Congregational Church played an interesting game of football on July 8, at Ile Gros Bois, on the occasion of the former's picnic, the Congregationalists proving the victors by 3 goals to 1.

THE FIRST M. A. A. A. CAMP WAS A VERY GREAT SUCCESS

Detailed Account of How the Boys Got Along and How Hospitably They Were Treated by the People They Came in Contact With.

About twenty-two junior members of the M. A. A. A., under the supervision of Mr. Long left Montreal on Monday, the 3rd of July, on the twelve noon train for ten days camping on McNab's Island. On reaching Moncton they were met by the Passenger Agent of the I. C. R. and two more boys who joined them.

They arrived at Halifax on Tuesday, at 6.50 p.m., and were met by the members of the Board of Trade, and driven to the Queen's Hotel, where the proprietor, Mr. Jas. Fairbanks, made them his guests until morning. Before retiring for the night the boys were taken to the Lorne Club, where they had their first salt water bath, which they found very cold; after they had partaken of the good things provided for them by the hotel, they boarded the Ferry and sailed across the harbor to Dartmouth and back.

On Wednesday morning the steamer Argus was in waiting at the city wharf to take the merry party to McNab's Island, where the tents were already pitched by the Catholic Boys' Club, who also waited on them for their first meal under canvas.

After breakfast, the boys were given their respective tents, and a captain was chosen for each. The cook, who was of a jovial nature, made the boys at home, and after supper an impromptu concert was given and the boys went to bed.

On Thursday morning at 7.30 the cook gave the alarm and all hands were up in quick time. After breakfast had been served and the dishes washed, Mr. Long took the boys to the engineer's camp, about two miles through the woods, returning home in time for dinner, after which the boys had a baseball match between the respective tents, which resulted in a win for tent No. 1.

After supper the boys had a practice at lacrosse and retired about 9.30 p.m.

On Friday morning the usual alarm was given, and the boys were busily making ready for breakfast, after which another baseball match was played, resulting in a victory for Tent No. 2.

After lunch, Mr. Winsell with his launch took the boys over to the city, where a big Tally-Ho was waiting to drive the boys around the city; after returning had a light lunch at Mitchell's and in afternoon visited the Wanderers' grounds and public gardens. On returning at night to camp the cook did not forget the boys and had a big bonfire in readiness.

On Saturday morning the boys had their usual baseball match and in the afternoon were entertained by the Halifax Board of Trade to a sail around the harbor and had a good sniff of the ocean; some of the boys were glad to get back on terra firma.

After supper had been served the boys had a lacrosse practice.

Sunday, Mr. Winsell again came with his launch and took the boys to the Garrison Church parade, which was a sight the boys will not likely forget. In the afternoon they had quite a number of visitors from the city, and in the evening a sacred concert was held on the water.

On Monday the boys had a well deserved rest, in the morning, and in the afternoon a polo game was arranged, after which the decisive game of baseball was played between the two tents, the loser to wash the dishes for two days. Tent No. 2 was lucky enough to win out.

Tuesday morning, the boys rowed Mr. Fred. D. Rogers over to the city, as he was leaving that afternoon for home. The boys held an At Home in the afternoon and about 100 ladies and gentlemen came over from the city. A baseball match was arranged with the Catholic Boys' Club, resulting in a win for the M. A. A. A. boys. After the match a swimming race was held for a cup donated by Mr. R. T. Lepine, of Halifax, which was won by Jim. Riddell, with Putnam a close second.

The ladies had a splendid spread for us, after which Mr. Winsell again came with his launch and took the boys to the North West Arm band concert, which was certainly a beautiful sight.

On Wednesday morning the boys rowed Mr. Fulton to the city, who arranged for a baseball match with the Wanderers. The Argus called for the boys in the afternoon, brought them over to the city, arriving at the Wanderers' grounds about 5 p.m., and played a six inning game, resulting in a win for the Wanderers.

We were again guests of the Queen's Hotel for supper ,after which we left in row boats for Dartmouth Hospital where a dance was given us by the ladies of Halifax.

On Thursday the fog was very heavy. Mr. Fulton and Mr. Long left for the city, intending to strike camp next morning at 4 o'clock, but as fog was predicted, Mr. Fairbank again came to the rescue and invited the boys to supper and put them up at the hotel for the night, which was gladly accepted, so they struck camp at midday and arrived in the city about four o'clock in the afternoon. After supper Mr. Long took the boys to the boat races, at the North West Arm, Mr. Fulton leaving for Fredericton on the 8.40 train.

On Friday morning Mr. John Glassey, who always had the boys' interests at heart, was at the hotel, and gave them a rousing send off.

The boys took the morning train for Truro, and played them at lacrosse, but the Truros were much too good for us. After the match, the boys were driven round the city and caught the Maritime Express at 6 o'clock, meeting Mr. Fulton at Chatham Junction, arriving at Montreal at 6 o'clock Saturday night, where Auld Lang Syne was sung, and the boys parted until next year.

Amongst the gentlemen that were responsible for entertaining the boys so royally were: Mr. Glassey, Board of Trade; Mr. Fairbanks, Mr. Winsell and Jas. Price, of the I. C. R., and many others too numerous to mention.

The boys were also guests of the Wanderers A. A. A.; North West Arm Rowing Club; St. Mary's Y. M. T. & B. Society; Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron; Lorne A. C. Club and in fact, every association took a delight in making the boys at home.

The weather all through our stay was the best that could be desired, in fact, we did not have one day's rain.

The health of the boys was excellent and Mr. Long is greatly pleased by the manner in which they conducted themselves and words of praise were heard from all sources, regarding the appearance and gentlemanly manner of the boys.

Those who composed the camp were: Mr. John Long, T. R. Fulton, F. D. Rogers and Messrs. Putman, McGregor, Hyman, Dougall, Craig, Riddell, D. Gilmore, H. Gilmore, Hanson, Wilson, Rennoldson, Ayer, Cloran Turner, A. Hodgson, T. Hodgson, Waugh, Lester, W. Lester, J. Long Jr., Eaves.

CRICKET

A SERIOUS ROW IN CRICKET WORLD OVER INTERNATIONAL.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Ont., July 19.—The Ottawa Cricket Club is not going to submit quietly to the autocratic action of the Canadian Association in awarding the International match to Toronto. President McGivern is out of town, but as soon as he returns a meeting of the Ottawas will be held to decide upon a line of action. The local club has the assurance of the McGill Club, of Montreal, that it will support them in whatever is decided upon. While the point has not yet been mooted, it is possible that the eastern men, likely to be chosen on the International eleven will refuse to play. If they do so the eleven will not be Canadian in any sense, as Baker and Hill, of McGill, and Bristow and McGivern, of Ottawa, were the best bowlers this side of the border, and Ackland, of Ottawa, is the best batting wicket keeper. With these five men off, the Canadian eleven will be a miserable makeshift. The Ottawas are indignant, but until the meeting is held the members will not discuss the probable line of action. The present trouble arose over the payment of an $80 bonus to the Association, which for many years by an unwritten law, was paid by the club holding the International. The Torontos did not pay it last year, and there was no mention of it at the annual meeting when Ottawa was awarded the match. It was only recently when Rosedale offered $80 for the match that a demand was made on Ottawas. Toronto has no right to the International, as by agreement it is played alternately in the west and in the east, when it is the Canadians' turn to entertain the Americans. Last time it was played in Toronto, and, therefore, it rests with the Eastern Clubs to make selection of the place of play.

Leon Noel, of this city, a member of the Cercle Canadien, will wrestle, this evening, with Mr. Cardinal, of this city, in the club rooms of the Cercle Canadien, 843 Albert street. Both contestants are pretty evenly matched, so a very good exhibition of wrestling is anticipated.

San Francisco, July 19.—Jack Welch, of San Francisco, has been named to referee the Britt-Sullivan contest at Woodward's Pavilion, next Friday night.

LACROSSE

MONTREAL IS HOPEFUL FOR NEXT SATURDAY'S MATCH

The uncertainties of our grand national game were never so clearly exemplified as on last Saturday in Ottawa. Montreal team defeats Nationals and Cornwalls easily,give the Shamrocks the hardest match they have had for years on the champions' grounds, and then fall an easy prey to the Senators, who were decisively beaten by Nationals and Shamrocks at Montreal, but defeated the champions in Ottawa. The Montreal team was certainly off color Saturday, and is capable of going considerably better. In fact, last Saturday was the poorest exhibition they have given this season, and if the Capitals come to Montreal in expectation of an easy victim they will certainly get a rude awakening.

The members of the Capital Lacrosse Club executive did not live to the professions that have emanated from them during the past three years when they refused Saturday to allow their men to play against Dade an Finlayson. Their action lacked consistency as they were the first to start the agitation for professionalism in lacrosse and it was due to their efforts that the idea was not permitted to die. Saturday was the grand opportunity for them to crown their efforts by making professionalism in the N. A. L. U. an assured thing. Then the Capitals could claim, with just pride, that they were prime movers in the advancement of lacrosse. Now they will have to be content with a minor role, for it is more than probable that one of the other clubs will make the plunge which will put the national game on a proper basis. The Capitals has the opportunity but failed to take advantage of it.—Ottawa Journal.

The Capital team will practise tonight and continue to do so all week in order to guard against the possibility of a surprise from Montreal next Saturday. It would be a great mistake to conclude that because Montreal was easy here they will be the same on their own grounds. These apparently easy things have always been the snag on which Capitals have sustained their downfall in years past. —Ottawa Citizen.

Geo. Finlayson and Albert Dade may have consolation in knowing that their ability to play our national game has developed quite a few white feathers.

MacKerrow and Finlayson had no trouble keeping their covers from dangerous positions.

Bill Strachan will probably be on hand to welcome the Senators.

Dave Reynolds will handle the game, with Paddy Brennan as assistant.

Muir is playing the goal position as well as any player in the league.

The home was decidedly off color. Dade will assist them all this week.

SWIMMING

Canadian Long Distance Record.

Peterboro, Ont., July 19.—In the Trent canal, between Lakefield and Peterboro, a distance of over nine miles, a Canadian record for long distance swimming was established by Mr. H. T. Strickland, of Toronto, but formerly of Peterboro.

Mr. Strickland, accompanied by Mr. G. H. Corson, also of Toronto, instructor in swimming for the Y. M. C. A., left Lakefield at 8.10 yesterday morning on the nine mile swim to the lift lock at Peterboro, which was reached at 1.15 in the afternoon, the actual time being 5 hours and 5 minutes, including 25 minutes occupied in passing through the five locks between this city and Lakefield.

When about eight miles from the starting point, Mr. Corson took sick, and was taken into a yacht which accompanied the swimmers.

A LETTER TO OUR READERS.

53 Cottage St., Melrose, Mass.
Dear Sir: Jan. 11th, 1904.

"Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

"I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water to-day and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

"I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am."

Very truly yours,
I. C. RICHARDSON.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular 75c and $1.25 size bottles at the drug stores in Canada. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N.Y., on every bottle.

LAWN TENNIS

WARD AND WRIGHT WINNERS.

They Easily Defeated Brooks and Dunlop Yesterday.

London, July, 19.—To the surprise of a large gallery at the Queen's Club yesterday, Holcomb Ward and Beals C. Wright, the Americans, rather easily defeated Norman T. Brooks and Walter Dunlop, the Australians, in the finals of the doubles for the Dwight F. Davis intermediate lawn tennis cup. This settles the question of the challengers for the cup, play for which commences July 21, at Wimbledon. The matches in the singles to-morrow between the Americans and Australasians will not change the result.

In yesterday's play the Australasians showed unexpectedly poor form, and the set lost by the Americans was due to careless play, and not to any brilliancy on the part of their opponents. Brooks plainly showed the effects of Monday's match with Wright, and did not give his partner any material assistance. On the contrary, Wright played at top form. Both the Americans avoided giving chances except in the third set, which they practically gave away.

The Americans won 6—4, 7—5 5—7, 6—2.

Toronto, July 19.—The authorities of Victoria University have decided to build a new library if they can find the necessary money, and Rev. Dr. Potts has written to Andrew Carnegie asking for a gift of $50,000 on condition that the University shall also provide $50,000. With $100,000 available, Victoria expects to have a library worthy of the name.

The building will be used in part as a gymnasium, and will cost $3200, with heating and furnishing additional. It will be completed by the commencement of the fall term.

YELLOW CRUST ON BABY
Would Crack Open and Scab Causing Terrible Itching.
CURED BY CUTICURA
"Our baby had a yellow crust on his head which I could not keep away. When I thought I had succeeded in getting his head clear, it would start again by the crown of his head, crack and scale, and cause terrible itching. I then got Cuticura Soap and Ointment, washing the scalp with the soap and then applying the Ointment. A few treatments made a complete cure. I have advised several mothers to use Cuticura, when I have been asked about the same ailment of their babies. —Mrs. John Boyce, Pine Bush, N. Y."

INHUMAN CRUELTY IN GERMAN ARMY

Non-Commissioned Officers Sentenced to Light Imprisonment for Fiendish Actions.

THE SOLDIERS WERE MUTE

Liberal Papers in Germany Have Been Aroused to Much Adverse Criticism.

Special Cable from a Montreal Star Correspondent.

Berlin, July 19.—To hang recruits and cut them down on the point of death by suffocation, and recall them by whipping was deemed good military fun by two corporals who are now in Dusseldorf military prison, sentenced respectively to three months and three years.

The two non-commissioned officers were shown to have committed hundreds of cruelties against their subordinates.

It was clearly proved that they used to make recruits go through the rifle exercise before glowing stoves until they fainted.

The liberal press finds the saddest thing about this story is the fact that no recruit dared complain, and that no officer noticed this wholesale torture which continued for years.

A civilian doctor discovered horrors when treating a young man who had left the army. It was shown that the hanging practice had ruined his health. Reformers ask how they can improve matters when the soldiers are cowardly and silent, and the officers do not observe the flagrant cruelties.

The sentence inflicted by the court on the torturers is milder than the punishment of soldiers who in temper have raised their hands against their officers.

SUBMARINES FOR SWEDEN.

United States Captain Presents Government With His Invention.

Special Cable from a Montreal Star Correspondent.

Stockholm, July 19.—Captain Lind, of the United States navy, arrived in Stockholm to-day to present King Oscar in behalf of the Swedish navy, with his newly invented submarine torpedo boat.

Lind sold the exclusive rights of his invention to the American Government on condition that he be permitted to make a present of it to his native land. The boat discharges six torpedoes simultaneously.

THE INCREASES OF SALARY.

Manufacturers' Association Secretary is Pleased.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—Secretary Stewart, of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, speaking of the Dominion salary increase, said: "I am very much in sympathy with the increase in the Prime Minister's salary and the salary of the leader of the Opposition, who in this country at the present time must give all their attention to the business of leading the parties. Beyond that I am not prepared to discuss the salary question."

Equitable Stock Has Been Transferred

New York, July 19. — The majority stock, carrying the controlling interest in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, which was acquired by Thomas F. Ryan, by purchase from James Hazen Hyde, has been formally transferred to the Board of Trustees which is headed by former President Cleveland.

This announcement was made yesterday by George E. Parker, secretary of the Equitable trustees, in the following statement:

"Messrs. Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse and Morgan J. O'Brien, trustees of the majority of the Equitable stock, announce that all of the 502 shares of stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society delivered to them by Mr. Thomas F. Ryan, have been transferred to their names as trustees, and that it is now represented by a single certificate held by them, subject to the trust agreement."

Want Increase in Rates Rescinded.

Detroit, Mich., July 18.—One hundred delegates representing practically all of the Royal Arcanum councils in Michigan met here yesterday in a convention called by the local councils of the order to discuss the recent increase in the rates of the Royal Arcanum. Two delegates from Ohio lodges attended the convention for the purpose, it is understood, of pledging the support of the membership in that State to any attempt to have the raise in rates reconsidered. A delegate from Ontario was also present at the meeting.

Organization was effected at the first session and speeches were made by delegates urging that action be taken toward rescinding the raise, which they declared would force the old men out of the order. Discussion among the delegates before the convention opened seemed to indicate a decided preponderance of opinion in favor of asking the Supreme Council to meet and reconsider the raise in rates.

PACIFIC CABLE CONFERENCE.

Certain Concessions in Australia Have Been Modified.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, July 19.—Almost daily meetings of the Pacific Cable Conference are now taking place, the delegates considering the bill recently passed by the Federal House, substituting concessions to the Eastern Telegraph Company for ten years for the whole of Australia for perpetual concessions granted them by the New South Wales Government. This bill, it will be remembered, was thrown out by the Senate.

It is likely that the Senate will be guided by the decision of the conference.

The difficulty is a serious one, but the Canadian Associated Press is informed some hope is entertained of a somewhat more satisfactory arrangement as an outcome of next Thursday's meeting, but there is much uncertainty.

It is rumored in the Mother Country that Canada is willing that the bill should with considerable modifications pass, but that Queensland and New Zealand are at present opposed to it.

Suicide of Rochester Horseman.

The Canadian Associated Press.

Rochester, N.Y., July 19.—While suffering under a severe mental strain, aggravated by a nervous physical disorder, Charles B. Townsend, aged 37, a prominent horseman and real estate dealer shot and killed himself yesterday at his home here. Business worries, chiefly of a financial nature had been weighing heavily on Mr. Townsend's mind for some time and he had reached a low state of health.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—The Hon. Dr. R. A. Dr. Pyne will be absent for some six weeks, and will probably return with his cousin Lord Roberts.

FRAE AULD SCOTIA.

The Shippin' Lines to Canada Squabblin' Ower Their Fares.

NEW COACH AN' RAIL TOURS

Grouse Prospects—Border Woollen Trade—Floods an' Sunshine—Pickin' Holes in Scotland.

Frae Oor Ain Correspondent.

Glasgow, July 5.—The twa lines wha rin boats frae the Clyde to the St. Lawrence seem to hae lost their heids. They are behavin' mair like wee bairns wha canna get the playthings they want, than sensible folk wha hae the chairge o' big businesses. As I wrote to ye at the time, the Donaldson firm started the carryin' o' passengers this spring wi' their big steamer Athenia, an' the boat has noo made three trips across. The Donaldson's were willin' to get some trade for their new boat, an' sae they made the steerage fare £5. This was 10s less than the Allan line fare. The Allan line said naethin' until last week, but then they suddenly decided that they couldna hae the Athenia pickin' up the emigrants ony langer as she was daein', an' they made their steerage rate £4 10s. Next day the Donaldsons answered them wi' a steerage rate o' £4, an' a second-class rate o' £6 10s instead o' £7. Then things began to get a bit lively. The Allans slapped anither 10s aff the second-class fares the same day; the Donaldsons paid them back by makin' the steerage rates £3 10s, an' the next mornin' the Allans made theirs the same. So as I write the twa o' them hae second-class rates o' £6 an' steerage rates o' £3 10s, instead o' the £7 an' £5 10s they started wi'. The cheap rates are only for the days the Athenia sails frae Glasgow, an' ae result will likely be that that boat an' the Allan boat o' the same day will tak' passengers frae the Saturday afore an' the Saturday after. But why canna the heids o' them step ower the street an' arrange the thing? They can see each ither frae their office windows withoot thrawin' their necks ony.

It's noo time I was writin' my paragraph tellin' aboot the prospects o' the grouse-shootin' season, sae that folk wha hae plenty o money may ken whether it's worth their while to come ower here for, say, August an' September. For this paragraph I am in debt as usual to the country correspondents o' the Scotsman an' Herald, wha hae sent to their papers columns an' columns aboot the moors an' grouse, an' eggs, an' chicks, an' "peepers," an' deer, an' "fur an' feather" o' a' kinds. The general average o' the reports seems to be that sportsman are to hae a fine time. No for mony a year, says ae enthusiastic writer, hae there been prospects o' sic heavy bags. The moors are a' healthy, grouse are plentifu', the season is good, although the awfu' heavy rain within the past week or twa has been hard on the youngsters. Deer stalkin' promises weel, hares an' rabbits are sae plentifu' as to be nearly a pest in some districts, an' a' that will be wanted is men wi' guns. That is, after the Twelfth o' August. Till then the moors an' forests are sacred to the birds an' beasts themsel's.

There's hae place thinks mair o' itsel' as a place for spendin' the simmer in than Pitlochry, an sae it isna to be wondered at that it's tryin' to be as bonnie as it can. The ither nicht there was a big meetin' o' the ratepayers to see what could be done to mak mair folk come to live in it in the simmer time. The man wha was chairman said Pitlochry was a bonnie place, but lots o' ither places were bonnie as weel as it, an' the ither places were advertisin' themsel's, an' keepin' themsel's afore the public better than Pitlochry. The toon lived on hoose-lettin', which was its main industry, an' he proposed that the owners o' property should pay a ha'penny, an' the tenants anither ha'penny, to raise a fund for improvin' the toon. Forbye, he thocht they should get a public park, provide seats a' ower the place, an'—licht the toon clock. Just think o' that! A park an' seats are or'nar' affairs that onybody micht hae thocht o', but wha except a Pitlochry man wad hae dreamed o' attractin' visitors by lichtin' the toon clock? The meetin' said the chairman's ideas were a' richt, an' appointed a committee to carry them oot. Sae Pitlochry will soon be as ready for visitors as the moors will be for sportsmen by the Twelfth o' August. Especially when it gets the clock lichted.

The Marquis o' Linlithgow, Secretary for Scotland, has had a lot o' Border business men at him to try an' help trade on the Borders, especially the trade in woollen goods. There are haill districts whaur the folk are ill aff for want o' wark, an' what seems to be maistly needed is education in up-to-date ways o' warkin', sae as to compete wi' big toons. Some time syne the South of Scotland Chambers o' Commerce had an offer frae Mr. Carnegie o' a big Technical College if they wad themsel's fin' a site for it, an' as muckle money as wad endow it. But they canna raise this muckle, an' noo the offer disna haud guid, an' they want the Marquis o' Linlithgow to get for them some £14,000 which was left to a body kent as the Board o' Manufacturers for the encouragement o' new designs an' new ideas. The Marquis said he wad see, but he didna think he could dae muckle the noo to help them. Why canna Carnegie dae the haill o' a job instead o' a bit? His idea is to help them wha help themsel's, but he carries it ower far whiles.

There has been floods an' win', an' a' varieties o' weather, in maist places but Glasgow, an' we're wonderin' when oor turn is to come. Frae North an' East an' Sooth come reports o' spates o' rain, an' a' the time we are wipin' the sweat frae oor noble broos an' wonderin' if we hae got shifted nearer the equator by accident. A big piece o' the West Hielan' Railway was swept awa by the torrents that came doon the hillsides ae day last week, an' for three days the trains couldna cross that place, an' the passengers were carried in brakes frae a train at ae side to a train at the ither side. At Hawick a tunnel was flooded, an' a train couldna gang thro' for twa 'oors; in Galashiels an' Kircaldy the water was up ower the streets, an' in Glasgow the water cairts were daein' a' they could to keep down the stoor. Noo, Mr. W. S. Bruce, wha led the Scottish expedition in the way o' the Sooth Pole last year, writes to the papers to say what a pity Ben Nevis observatory wasna to the fore yet. For the want o' it we hae nae records o' this big simmer storm. This is quite true, but what can onybody dae wi' a Government that permits war scandals in Sooth Africa an' grudges £1,000 a year to an observatory on the highest hill in the British Islands? Strainin' at a gnat an' swallowin' a camel was naethin' to it.

Mair injustice to Auld Scotia! Why, I wonder, canna men an' women wha feel that they maun fin' faut wi' somebody or somethin' gang an' pick holes in the equator, or the pons assinorum, or the cosmic sphere (whatever that is), or the differential calculus (that's somethin' for eatin' I think), or the rule of three, or the multiplication table, or Chamberlain's fiscal policy, or ony ither simple thing that naebody has that muckle at heart that he wad feel when it was scratched. Instead o' which here's the International Congress o' Women Vegetarians doon on us for no' makin' oor porridge an' oor bannocks richt. The bannocks, they said, had ower muckle muriatic acid an' soda an' tartaric acid in them, we had a scorn o' fresh air in oor hooses, we drank ower muckle whisky, an' we werena nearly the men an' women oor faithers an' mithers were. To a' this oor reply is, "Women, dinna be bletherin'. We're better men an' women, in oor health an' oor morals, than ony o' oor forefolk were, an' we're to be better yet whether ye live to see it or no."

The railway companies are wakenin' up up—better late than never—to the fact that it will pay them to develop the country districts their lines pass through, an' this wakenin' up on their pairt is revivin' at least ae auld custom. The railways hae killed travellin' by coach, except in some o' the mair ootlandish places, but noo the railways are a' startin' tours by coach in connection wi' their trains in the romantic or bonnie bits o' country they pass through. It is 72 years sin' the last public coach went sooth to Carlisle by way o' Yarrow, an' noo since mair, onybody wi' a fancy for coachin' can ae paint the town. For half a sovereign he can gang frae Peterbrough to Clovenfords by way o' Peebles, then by coach an' four to St. Mary's Loch an' back, a drive o' 52 miles, through a country that will be new to a' but them wha dae their holidays on foot. The haill trip can be done in ae day awa' frae Edinburgh. This shows what folk can dae when they want to. When the ither railway companies plan tours o' the same kind, we'll a' hae a chance o' seein' Auld Scotia at little expense, either in time or money.

The Great North that has maist o' the trade in Aberdeenshire, is daein' its best. Already it has put on motor cars to connect the country villages wi' its stations, an' noo it's gettin' up lots o' cheap Saturday excursions frae Aberdeen to Strathspey an' ither places. The trip to Strathspey gangs through, on a simmer afternoon, a big piece o' country, as onybody wha kens Scotland will admit, an' through a' kinds o' scenery, an' the fare is only half a croon, or seven miles for a penny. For this the tripper can either gang a' the way to Boat o' Garten, a distance o' 101 miles an' back again, or he can break his journey at Craigellactine or ony o' the stations on the Speyside line, an' wait until the train comes back. I wonder if Canada can improve on that?

The Clye Yachtin' "fortnight" has begun, an' for three weeks the bonnie white-sailed boats will scud here an' there on the Firth. Sometimes runnin' afore a fine breeze, sometimes tackin' against a head wind, an' sometimes lyin' in dead calm wi' the sails flappin' to the masts like idle things that winna dae the wark they're intended for. The Clyde "fortnight" is aye three weeks, but naebody wad ken it if ye ca'ed it the Clyde Three Weeks. It's when the Firth is at its bonniest, an' the scores o' white sails help to mak it bonnier still. Sae that it's little wonder the Glasgow man rarely gangs ony way, but "doon the water" when July comes.

For Constipation

Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism

Bu-Ju, The Kidney Pill, Is Pronounced Excellent

The highly satisfactory experience of an Ottawa family who used Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, for the ailments above named, is given in the statement of Mrs. E. Alaire, who writes to the Claflin Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont.:

"Both my husband and myself have found Bu-Ju Pills very good for kidney trouble and rheumatism. We also find them very good for constipation. We heartily recommend them."

MRS. E. ALAIRE.
87 Church St., Ottawa, Ont.

What Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, did for this family it will do for all sufferers from constipation, rheumatism and allied disorders of the system. It were better to try such a simple remedy at once than to delay until a cure is hopeless. People who try "Bu-Ju" are unanimous in praise of its benefits. It begins to relieve at once, because it gets at the root of so many ailments, namely, a defective or disordered state of the kidneys. When the kidneys are sick, the whole body suffers. Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, heals and strengthens the kidneys. That is what they were made for. Try "Bu-Ju" if you are not feeling "up to the mark." All druggists sell this valuable preparation.

Premier Whitney Concurs in Action.

Toronto, July 19. — Premier Whitney, discussing the decision to advance the salaries of the judges, to increase the Dominion sessional indemnity, and to pay a salary to the leader of the Opposition, to-day said he quite approved of the policy adopted by the Dominion Government. He thought it only right that the leader of the Opposition should receive a salary, and considered that the reasons advanced with respect to the Dominion leader of the Opposition would apply equally to the provincial leader.

A PENSION AFTER FIVE YEARS.

The greedy haste with which the indemnity "grab" has been rushed through has prevented anything like an adequate consideration of its more remarkable features. The proposals with which it is associated may be familiar enough amongst the members at Ottawa, who may conceivably have spent considerable time discussing how far they dare go in bleeding the Treasury; but they are not familiar in the country and it is the country which must pay.

For instance, the five year limit for Ministerial pensions is simply astounding. In what other capacity can a man earn a pension for life after a paltry five years' service? What business house would consider a proposition to pension its employes after they had worked for five short years? Five years is more like a term of apprenticeship than a period of wearing service which entitles a man fairly to a good pension.

The judges of the land—quite as capable and quite as hard-worked a set of men as the Ministers—get no pension after five years labor. Judges of the Superior Courts must serve fifteen years before they become eligible for a pension; and judges of the County Courts only arrive at this distinction after twenty-five years "hard labor." Now why should the Ministers be treated so immensely better than the judges?

A ten year term for the Ministers would not have seemed so outrageous, if the vicious pension principle was to be applied to them at all. A far better plan would have been to pay the Minister while at his post an adequate salary, and only pensioned those whose cases particularly appealed to Parliament as calling for special action. But to pension a Minister after a poor five years in office will always be looked upon by the country as a species of kid-gloved "graft."

THE ZEMSTVOS AGAIN.

The gathering of the Zemstvos representatives at Moscow, which the Russian Government apparently both fears and dislikes, but dare not stop—is the sort of movement toward which the Russian reformers will look with the greatest hope. A patient and slow people like the Russians will never rally to a riot. They can only be got to put their trust seriously in some solid organization which promises to substitute a better form of law and order for that which they now have. Such an organization must, of course, be supported with bayonets, else an oligarchy with a small force at its back could overthrow it; but that support had better come in the form of a revolted regiment or the uprising of the people in some such fashion as that which armed the Cromwellian revolution. And to this latter, the sporadic risings which keep the map of Russia in a flame may possibly be leading.

As these movements follow each other in a never-ceasing procession, often seemingly beaten to earth but to rise again, the impression is growing that some important changes of government are coming in Russia. The boasted patience of the Russian people is standing them in good stead, and they have no idea of recognizing defeat. The more impatient outsiders have thought that this or that explosion marked the beginning of the revolution, but apparently it is not to be an explosive revolution at all which the stolid Muscovite will show us, but a rapid evolution in which the advances are made in what the ancient geologists would have called the cataclysmic manner.

THE WAR SITUATION.

Sakhalin captured, Vladivostok besieged, Corea swept clear of Cossacks, and Linevitch driven to the far boundaries of Manchuria,—these are fairly strong cards with which the Japanese plenipotentiaries may begin play for concessions and indemnities when the peace conference meets at Portsmouth. The last blow to Russian pride was delivered this morning when the definite announcement was made that a Japanese army had effected a landing north of Vladivostok, and was prepared to complete the investment of the city before the date set for the opening of the peace negotiations, and consequently before an armstice would, in all probability be declared. This makes the rumor of Russia's preparation to pay an indemnity of $2,500,000,000 all the more likely to be verified.

IS YOUR FOOD CLEAN?

If a visitor from Mars were to saunter about our streets and catch sight occasionally of the delivery men carting uncovered food through the dust and handling it with their dirty hands, he would never imagine that they were passing about things to eat. If a gentleman were to call in the hostler, fresh from unharnessing the horse, to wait at table, he could fairly count upon a sudden diminution of the appetites of his guests; and the same result would follow an effort to serve them with a meat dish which they had just seen a careless maid drop on the floor.

Yet we constantly see meat carried through the streets uncovered, with all the filthy dust blown up from the gutters, settling over it; and it is the commonest thing in the world to see unwrapped bread delivered by a man who drops the reins from his sweaty hands to fish it out of the delivery waggon. We are exceedingly "nice" when food is on the last stage of its long and dubious journey to our lips; but we are quite as careless about what happens it before it comes under our notice. Yet the accidents and the commonplaces of the street are far more dangerous.

The delivery of milk has been discussed at length, and the peril that lurks in the "deadly milk-can" is common knowledge. The necessity of pure milk for the babes has been tragically emphasized during this hot spell in all the great cities of the continent. But the unclean treatment of other articles of food is full of danger, too; and we should have a sufficient care for what we put into our mouths to take an active interest in measures calculated to secure the decent delivery of things to be eaten.

To begin with, there is no reason why all foods should not be driven about through the streets in covered vehicles. At one time, every baker seemed to feel it necessary to carry a part of his stock-in-trade on top of his cart, possibly as an advertisement. Now it would be regarded as an advertisement of unclean methods; and the bakers who cater to particular people keep their loaves out of sight and out of the dust. Then everything that can be wrapped in paper for delivery should be so treated. The cost of wrapping bread, for example, cannot be heavy; and the people would undoubtedly be willing to pay for it. The raw surfaces of meat should never be exposed to the dust-laden air of the streets for a moment; but should pass from the cool and clean interior of the shop to the refrigerator of the consumer in a tight covering of paper.

In two words we should insist that our food be brought to us in washed hands. We can have this much decency if we demand it; and along with the decency will come greater security of health.

WESTMOUNT'S EXAMPLE.

The Westmount Council has decided that those who have not sufficient pride to keep the weeds down in their lots must be taught that their neglect is not only untidy, but unlawful. The provincial law forbidding people to allow noxious weeds to grow on their premises was intended to protect the agriculturist from his careless neighbor, but there is no reason why it should not be applied to towns and cities where the vegetation is chiefly ornamental instead of commercially valuable.

The Council also decided that the sign-painted fence which defaces the prettiest spots, and is more in evidence in this province than in any other part of Canada, as well as the wall poster, shall no more be tolerated in Westmount.

While it may be true that some people are suspected of being good in Westmount and giddy in Montreal, the fact remains that the outlying city of Montreal might take many lessons with profit from Westmount. It is, perhaps, too late to hope to stop the ornamentation of the fences with works of art which no pen can describe, or hope to prevent posters which would never win a prize. Yet we can and should, not only forbid but prevent the disfiguring of any of our parks or public squares with advertising banners drawn across the trees. This is something which should never be tolerated.

In time we may be able to induce the citizens of Montreal to realize that burdock and thistles are not to be classed as ornamental shrubbery, and that unmowed front lawns neither enhance the volue nor improve the appearance of property.

Big preparations are being made in England for a fitting celebration of the Nelson centenary. Among the souvenirs of the occasion is a series of picture post cards made in Germany.

In Bayonne, N.J., there is a paper published in the interests of the tonsorial profession, called the Razor. In a recent issue, we are told: "To barbers belongs the head of man, which we are spiritually bound to remodel." The individual who found a barber engaged in carving his face into a neater design than that handed out by nature, or trimming down the ears, might fear that the barber was "spirituously," instead of "spiritually," bound to remodel him.

A troglodyte is a cave-dweller, and the lighting of caves is poor. So it is not surprising that a troglodyte financier can not see the difference between trying to make a penny's worth of brass worth a shilling by a royal stamp, and making a fraction of cent in nickel worth five cents by declaring the willingness of the Government to redeem it for five cents worth of gold. The first process is that which "Billy" Bryan wanted our neighbors to try with silver, he maintaining that a Government stamp would make fifty cents worth of silver pass for a dollar; but the second process is that adopted by all civilised nations with their subsidiary coinage, the Americans themselves making twenty-five cents worth of silver pass for fifty cents by simply guaranteeing to redeem it when stamped as such for fifty cents in gold. Even a troglodyte newspaper would be accepted as worth a dollar a copy if any responsible person stood ready to redeem them at that rate.

It is distressing every now and then to find some of the time-honored theories not working out according to rule. There was one direction for checking the advance of a bull, bow on, which we were taught in even the dame school days. You simply have to stand firmly in the probable path of the ungentle creature, and when it is close enough for you to feel the sizzle of its hot breath, just open your umbrella in its face and it will promptly stop in its mad career and turn tail. If you don't happen to have an umbrella with you, sprinting for the nearest fence is the next best thing. An English exchange relates, however, where a man who believed in old-time methods happened to have an umbrella with him the other day, when a bull ambled in his direction. With that confidence born of knowledge, he smiled to himself and opened the umbrella full in the face of the animal. The creature, in defiance of all rules of the game, played jiu-jitsu with the man, umbrella and all, and when he was rescued they took what was left of him to the hospital. Perhaps, after all it were better to get away from a moving bull, instead of using even the best resources of science to stop him.

THIS DATE THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Mr. C. O. Perrault, Vice-Consul of France, has opened at his office, Place d'Armes Square, a subscription in favor of the sufferers of the recent inundation in France. The gentlemen of the Seminary have subscribed one thousand dollars to the fund.

THE FLOODS were chiefly in the South of France, centering around the city of Toulouse. About three hundred people were drowned. The late Mr. Charles Ovide Perrault was appointed to the office of Vice-Consul in May, 1875, and a couple of years later was made one of the official assignees of the district of Montreal by the Liberal Government at Ottawa. He studied law, and was admitted to the Bar of Lower Canada in 1862. After years of practice he gave up Coke and Blackstone and engaged in journalism, as more to his taste. He died in the eighties.

Mr. Chief Bertram most thankfully acknowledges the sum of fifty dollars for the Firemen's Benevolent Association from Messrs. Vilau Bros., 518 St. Mary's street, for the assistance rendered by the brigade at the fire in their premises on the 18th of June last.

THE LATE Mr. Bertram was the first chief engineer of the regularly paid Fire Brigade, when the volunteer forces were abolished in 1856. He held his position for over a quarter of a century, and was highly esteemed by his men and citizens. He died over twenty years ago.

Sergeant Wilson, of the Water Police, states that yesterday afternoon whilst he was standing in the doorway of Birks' drug store, St. Gabriel street, an old lady came out and had only gone a few yards when she was jostled by a respectably dressed man, who in a moment had his hand in her pocket, and made off with her purse. The sergeant gave chase to capture the pickpocket, but the latter was too fleet of foot and escaped. The purse, fortunately, contained a very small sum in silver.

THE LATE Sergeant Wilson was one of the oldest and most efficient members of the Water Police, now disbanded. He had formerly served for a long time in the British army, leaving it with a splendid record of faithful service and duty. He died many years ago.

Railway Personals.

Mr. C. E. E. Usher, general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, left for Boston last night.

Mr. Ed. Wiles, manager of the Commercial Express line, Buffalo, was in Montreal yesterday.

Mr. Sopher, travelling passenger agent of the Union Pacific and Mr. W. Massey, New England freight and passenger agent, were in Montreal yesterday.

Mr. R. H. Ingram, who came to the Grand Trunk Railway with Mr. C. M. Hays in 1896, has been appointed general superintendent of the new southern district of the Southern Pacific Railway, with headquarters at Los Angeles. After coming to Montreal, Mr. Ingram was appointed secretary-treasurer of the Central Vermont, and later left to go to the Southern Pacific.

Luck from the Balloon.

If you study the heavens to-night, also every night during this month and the month of August, about 8 o'clock, you will probably see a paper balloon in full career over the city of Montreal. To this balloon will be attached a card, and when the balloon drops who ever gets the card will be paid $1.00 on presentation at 47 Cote street, the offices of the manufacturers of "Sweet Caporal" cigarettes.

THE PASSING HOUR

The Kaiser butts in where angels fear to tread.

Russia can float neither bonds nor warships. Trouble is the only thing that refuses to throw up its hands and sink.

Mercury rose to 96 in New York, and people down there consider the Montreal hot wave about as warm as a blizzard in an ice chest.

A year ago the Manitoba wheat crop was damaged by frost. Fears are entertained this year that it may melt.

An iceberg would not last long enough in the St. Lawrence to have its picture taken.

Tussock moths are beginning to attack people in the back of the neck. Even the lowly insects relish a change of diet occasionally. It gets tiresome eating trees three times a day.

While the weather bureau is being changed from Toronto to Ottawa, it would be nice if it measured Montreal for a new climate.

Our parks should all have a sign warning the tussock moths to keep off the grass.

The Senate can sleep through a dynamite explosion, but the whisper that its salary was to be increased was heard without difficulty.

ICE THAT KEEPS.

We've got the horseless carriage,
The wireless telegram;
We've got the smokeless powder,
Likewise the boneless ham;
We've got the seedless apple,
Tasteless cod liver oil,
Woodless and coal-less ranges,
To bake and fry and boil,
And many a smell-less, noiseless
Production and device—
But here's the iceman's monthly bill—
Oh, for a meltless ice!

Russia makes news, but does not print it.

Having nothing else on hand the Japs might try taking a fall out of Port Arthur, Ontario.

Portland, Maine, wanted the peace conference on the ground that Russia and Japan would cement their friendship with the Portland article.

HOW TO AVOID A SUNSTROKE.

Go to the North Pole.
Sleep days in the refrigerator.
Take a sponge bath daily. "A sponge bath," we said, not "sponge a bath."
Use an umbrella when walking. Your own is preferable—you might meet the owner otherwise, and all exertion should be avoided.
Avoid all arguments with the coal man.
Read Bernier's "Amid the Ice Peaks of the Frigid North" and Kipling's "My Lady of the Snows."

Russia figures it will have a new navy by 1920, trusting that by that time Togo will be dead.

Having sold Paris $700,000 worth of bonds, Montreal might be willing to unload its climate at half the money and no questions asked.

Montreal's river breeze is distinguished largely for the fact that it only operates during the winter months.

The next time Dr. Yates comes forward with a patent pulverizer for making the snow go quickly, we will be pleased to figure as the leaders in a riot movement.

"He says that marriage is a lottery, and hence alimony is a gambling debt."

It's the height of bad form in Japan for a wife to express any opinion contrary to her husband's. What chance had Russia against men who have their wives bluffed like that?

"The Japanese are not a yellow race at all," says the Philadelphia Enquirer; "they are only tanned." Still, they have not been tanned as thoroughly as the Russians.

LIBRARIES OF THE COUNTRY.

The United States Commissioner of Education has in his annual report a chapter on the libraries of the country. Only those containing 1000 volumes or more are counted. There are nine libraries that contain more than 300,000 volumes each, and fifty-nine that have over 100,000 each. It is shown that the North Atlantic States contain more than half the entire number of libraries enumerated, 3006 libraries containing in the aggregate 27,805,980 volumes. New York is at the head of the States, having 924 libraries with 9,079,863 volumes; Massachusetts next, with 624 libraries and 7,616,994 volumes. Pennsylvania follows with 491 libraries, containing 4,580,312 volumes. These three States have nearly 30 per cent. of the libraries and 40 per cent of the number of volumes reported for the whole country. Taking the country as a whole, there is one library containing at least 1000 volumes for every 11,000 of the population.

WILL IT RAIN?

The coming state of the weather can be foretold by various signs with a surprising amount of accuracy. The following rules are laid down by an expert:

"Bees work with redoubled energy just before rain.

"If the flies are unusually persistent, either in the house or around cattle, there is rain in the air.

"Squirrels store a large supply of nuts, the husks of corn are usually thick, and the buds of certain trees have a firmer protecting coat if a severe winter is at hand.

"If the poplars and aspen leaves turn up the under side, rain will soon follow.

"Last, but not least, persons who suffer from rheumatism can always tell by their feelings when a storm is approaching, and in this method of prophesying many folk of to-day are as firm believers as were our forefathers."

PEPYS' "SIMPLE LIFE."

In Pepys' time the simple life was represented by small establishments, though not by small means. He kept only one servant, for instance, but she had to do the work of a whole staff, including cook and kitchenmaid. Still, the one that he took from the Duke of Albermale was paid £4 in wages, and he tells us that he "never before did spend so big a sum on a wage." Here is one of the dinners she served up: "We had a fricassee of rabbits and chickens, a leg of mutton boiled, three carps in a dish, a great dish of a side of lamb, a dish of roasted pigeons, a dish of four lobsters, three tarts, a lamprey pie, a most rare pie, a dish of anchovies, good wines of several sorts—most neatly dressed by our own only mayde." The simple life generally means work for some one.

GREAT BRITAIN'S FIRST MUSICIAN.

Great Britain's present most widely known musician is Sir Edward Elgar, who recently arrived in this country to receive a degree from Yale University. Sir Edward's success and fame were achieved within the past two years. During that brief period musical compositions by him of a high order have been presented in England, America, Germany and France, and have won wide appreciation. There have been nine performances of his larger choral works in New York alone, and most of his orchestral works have also been played there. Sir Edward, who is 48 years old, was practically self-educated. He is an "all around" musician, as well as composer.

FOURTH OF JULY IN SIBERIA.

General Nelson A. Miles says that no incident in all his travels impressed him more than one which befell while he was in Siberia. "It was on the Fourth of July," said the general, "that our party chanced to be in Northern Siberia. The convict life was very interesting, but little did we think that these exiles knew of the holiday of our great republic. As we passed along the cells of the prisoners, the bars were decorated in not a few instances with red, white and blue ribbons. We asked them if they were acquainted with the history of the United States of America, and several of them nodded, as much as to say: "We know where freedom reigns, and would we were there to enjoy its blessed privileges."

A BEAUTIFUL COUNTESS.

The Countess of Northbrook, until a short time ago better-known as Viscountess Baring, is looked upon as one of the handsomest women in London society. During the life of the late Earl she always spent much of her time with him in his country home in Hampshire and there shone as the most brilliant hostess in the county, arranging the shooting parties entirely herself and superintending the very smallest details as to the comfort of her father-in-law's guests. The Earl was devoted to her, and never was tired of showing off her portraits and pictures, of which he had no fewer than fifty different kinds, and always talked of her as his "beautiful daughter-in-law."

BERNHARDT'S EXTRAVAGANCE.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt's extravagance is well known, and her house in Paris shows it in every way. Her bedroom is hung with purple embroidered with the golden flower of France. The ceiling is painted, the windows are draped with white lace curtains worked with peacock plumes, and the handsome marble timepiece is loaded with souvenirs and portraits.

ATE HIS BOOTS ON A WAGER.

A Moscow man made a curious wager. As against 500 roubles bet by his opponent he agreed to eat his boots if Russia did not force Japan to sue for peace last summer. He lost, and he carried out his agreement. Cutting a small strip daily from his footwear, he masticated and swallowed it. It took him nearly five months to complete the operation.

BRAZIL'S CATTLE COUNTRY.

Rio Grande do Sul, the most southern state in Brazil, adjoins Uruguay on the south, and has about 1,400,000 population, 800,000 of whom are Germans or of German descent. The principal product of the state is cattle, of which it produces more than any other three states of Brazil. The climate is very fine and the country rolling.

HYPNOTISM AND THEFT.

A Boston scientist says that hypnotism can develop only natural instincts, and that the best hypnotist in the world cannot make a really moral person do wrong. From experiments he has made he believes that 75 per cent. of the human race, if unrestricted by family pride and other like considerations, would steal.

Flashes of Thought.

The ease with which the West boosts its crop estimate to 100,000,000 bushels is only equalled by the ease with which the rumor experts of the Chicago wheat pit will issue reports contradicting all previous estimates, and designed to assist the manipulation of the market.—Toronto News.

Secretary Bonaparte has begun his administration by returning all the railroad passes that were sent to him, and announces that he will accept no free transportation while he is a Government official. The remarkable thing about this is that it should be exceptional enough to be worthy of notice.—Buffalo Express.

The career of De Witte is not so singular in Russia as some American commentators appear to think. An Autocracy must respect Democracy so far as to open the road to prominence of men of talent. In no other way can it persuade Democracy to be latent.—Boston Transcript.

It is announced that Count Cassini will not represent Russia at the peace conference. A wise determination to select men who are not ready to stake their reputations on the ebullition of hot air.—Portland Telegram.

The Swedish treasury will have to borrow more than $6,500,000 at a time if it ever hopes to be treated with the distinguished consideration due to a great nation.—Indianapolis News.

NEW LAND OF ROMANCE.

America is no longer the only country of unlimited possibilities. The romantic drama which began with the mutiny of the Potemkin in Odessa and was continued in the harbor of Constanza, proves that nothing can be considered impossible in Russia.—Die Zeit, Vienna.

THE VOLUNTEER REDUCTION.

Pledges must be obtained from the Government that the policy of reduction has been abandoned, and that no attempt will be made in the autumn to diminish the force. If Parliament is prorogued without such a pledge, it will find when it next meets that the volunteer force has been damaged beyond repair.—Spectator.

FRENCH AND GERMAN SOCIALISTS.

The revolution has blown up the Franco-Russian alliance with dynamite. It is now the historic task of the German Social Democracy to furnish the French Republic with what it sought in vain from the rulers of Russia—protection from provocations and from the overweening ambitions of the Imperialist Germany policy.—Neue Gesellschaft, Berlin.

FEMININE REGISTERS.

Women can refuse, as Mrs. Montefiore is again doing, to pay income tax so long as they remain unenfranchised, on the old historic ground that "taxation without representation is tyranny." If resistance, passive or active, ever can be justified, it assuredly is so justified in the case and cause of injured and insulted womanhood.—Ignota, in Westminster Review.

HOLIDAY PROBLEMS.

Is a minister justified in accepting preaching engagements on his holiday Sundays? Presumably a church releases its pastor for a period so that he may benefit by rest and recreation and return physically toned up for his work. The acceptance of holiday preaching engagements obviously robs the holiday of part of its efficacy, and the minister's church is the final sufferer.—Christian World.

THE WATERPROOF FACE.

We English, of course, get what we call "hardened" to horrible climatic changes. Nevertheless, I am convinced that our solemnity of demeanor is generated by our grey skies, our piercing east winds, our heavy, yellow fogs, and our slushy roads and pavements. The waterproof face is the direct result of a firmament of lead. Many of us English people look like incarnate umbrellas.—The Queen.

ANGLO-FRENCH RELATIONS.

Bearing in mind the military security which alliance with England would give us, and taking my stand on the fact that, at all events for the period, French and English commercial, colonial and continental interests are absolutely harmonious, I ask whether this country can be legitimately deprived of a political arrangement which offers every chance of securing peace for France, and which, if war were to break out, would increase in enormous proportions our chances of victory.—Energie Francaise, Paris.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF LAKE ACCIDENT

Langford Higgins Takes Cramp and Is Drowned Near Lakeview.

HE JUMPED FROM THE CANOE

Comrade Went to His Rescue, But Could Not Reach Him in Time to Save.

Word has reached the city of an accident which resulted in the drowning of Langford Higgins, near Lakeview, while out canoeing with a party of four boy friends on Monday afternoon.

The deceased, who was the 19 year old son of Mrs. A. J. Lawrence, of 401 Metcalfe avenue, Westmount, was well known and his very wide circle of friends, especially among the Westmount boys, will regret to learn of his untimely end.

Langford Higgins, with Ernest Thom, Rolland Wright, Archie Crossley and Walter Small, of Montreal, and Westmount, were camping along the lake front, and during the afternoon they started in a canoe from what is known as Fraser's Point, for a trip up the lake where a row boat was fastened, which two of them intended to use. They purposed proceeding in the canoe and the boat to a place farther up the lake where they wished to land and it spend the afternoon hunting. Before they reached the shore, however, the water became choppy and lurched the canoe over on its side making it take water. In righting the craft it was tipped too far on the opposite side and more water was shipped. Higgins, who was sitting in the bow, jumped into the water, presumably with the idea of lightening the load, and began to swim for the shore which looked to be only a short distance away. He had scarcely gone twenty yards when he cried for help.

Ernest Thom jumped into the lake at the shout of Higgins, and swam to his comrade's assistance, but Thom no sooner reached the young man than he sank and did not rise again.

A searching party went out yesterday afternon to recover the body, but up to a late hour to-day no trace of it could be found.

The father of the young man, the late Mr. Higgins, was drowned also, some years ago, in Lake Superior.

SUMMER SCHOOL SESSION.

The Young Peoples' Methodist Gathering at St. James Church.

The Montreal Methodist Young Peoples' Summer School yesterday held its first regular sessions. Monday evening informal sessions of welcome were held, at which the Rev. Melvin Taylor and the Rev. Mr. Mavety gave addresses.

Mr. Mavety spoke of the work of the Summer School, mentioning that study and recreation were to go hand in hand. Regarding Methodism the speaker gave some interesting facts. The church's mission, he said, dated back only 200 years, yet to-day there were 11,000 foreign missionaries with 75,000 native workers. As a result of the labors of these people, 18,000,000 persons annually accepted the Christian religion. For creating further interest in this work as well as getting a better knowledge of it was the purpose of the Summer School.

Mr. Hillyard followed with an address on the revival question, claiming the necessity of the young people being in close connection with its advancement.

Last night addresses were given by Rev. W. R. Young and Rev. Principal Riddell. Principal Riddell spoke of the tremendous opportunities in the West. The main portion of the population, he said, was made up of Norwegians and Galicians, who were hard-working and industrious. The speaker deplored the condition of the educational system, there not being nearly schools enough.

The following-named have already registered at the Summer School:

Yesterday afternoon William Bumbray, the tyelve-year-old son of Mr. W. Bumbray, contractor, of 19 Farm street, was drowned in the Chateauguay river, near Caughnawaga. His two little sisters, aged 10 and 13 years respectively, saw the accident, but were unable to render any assistance. The body was recovered and brought to the city.

GIRL'S DRESS, 5066—A DAINTY SUMMER FROCK.

There is nothing that suits the young girl more perfectly than just such a simple frock as this one made of lawn, batiste or dimity. Its freshness is a perpetual charm and the very fact that it is absolutely free of elaboration renders it especially to be desired. In this case the color is white with dots of pale blue and the ribbons are blue to match, but the range of choice is almost limitless. The low neck and the short sleeves are especially charming in warm weather, revealing as they do pretty dimpled neck and arms, but the waist can, nevertheless, be made high at the neck if better liked by the addition of a yoke, which properly would be of contrasting material. The waist is simply full at both upper and lower edges and is finished with the broad bertha that gives breadth to the childish figure while the skirt is straight with a straight flounce that is gathered at its upper edge.

For a girl if twelve will be required 7 3-4 yards of material 27, 7 1-8 yards 32 or 4 3-4 yards 44 inches wide.

A May Manton pattern of the dress, No. 5066, sizes 8 to 14 years, will be mailed to any address outside the city by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. City patrons must call at the Star Branch office, corner Peel and St. Catherine streets.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women

Make Healthy Women.

Upon being taken into the stomach, the various ingredients are absorbed by the blood, and then find their way to every organ and tissue.

Some reach the uterine system. These allay inflammation, stop all drains on the system and make women regular.

Some strengthen the stomach. They help digestion and increase the appetite.

Others act on the bowels. They cure constipation.

Other ingredients stimulate the liver and kidneys in carrying off impurities from the system.

Others reach the nerves. These tone up the nervous system and supply vital energy, thereby curing the nervousness, irritability, and melancholy, to which so many women are subject.

The full effect of all the medicaments in the tablets is to arouse the entire female system to renewed life and vigor.

Improvement is noticed the first week.

"It would be entirely hopeless to expect that anything will ever be done to radically improve the world's national anthems—to make them more palatable. Most of them are as old as the hills, and any nation would regard it as just as great a sacrilege to change any part of their national song as it would be to eliminate some of the chapters from the Bible and put the views of an atheist in their place."

Will Double Track the Siberian.

Hamburg, July 19.—Prince Hilkoff, the Russian Railway Minister, who is now in this city, has contracted for five towing steamers and nine barges to transport material for double-tracking the Siberian railway. The flotilla is due to leave Hamburg at the end of the week for the mouth of the Yenisei river, East Siberia, and thence will go up the river until the railway is reached at Krasnoyarsk, capital of the Government of Yeniseisk.

NATIONAL ANTHEM IS RUBBISH.

So Says Sir Edward Elgar, England's Famous Composer.

Sir Edward Elgar, England's most famous living musical composer, who came to this country to receive the degree of doctor of music from Yale University, will soon sail for home.

In an interview, Sir Edward talked pleasantly of his stay and reception here, and on musical matters generally. On the latter subject he had some amusing critical remarks to pass on the world's national anthems, the "Star Spangled Banner" coming in for a due share of his criticism.

"All national anthems are rubbish so far as their words are concerned, and worse than rubbish from a musical point of view," said Sir Edward. "The English national anthem is the silliest thing imaginable; the words are stupid, and some of the lines won't rhyme, and, altogether, the man who sings it and thinks of what he is saying can't respect himself. The music is good enough, because it was stolen from the Germans.

"Your national anthem is even worse than England's. You haven't got any regular, legitimate national anthem, but you have four anthems which seem to rank about equal in popular estimation.

"There is 'Yankee Doodle,' which has words that are stark idiocy, while the music would set the teeth of a buzz saw on edge. Then, there is "Hail, Columbia," which is nearly as bad in every way as 'Yankee Doodle.' The 'Star-Spangled Banner' is a song that begins so low and goes up so high that nobody can sing it, which is the only advantage it has over the other national anthems. And there is 'America,' which is the English national anthem, with words that run a little smoother than ours, but are every bit as silly.

"In fact, I don't know anything more exasperating than the first verse of 'America.' It is enough to turn a cat against milk.

"I suppose the reason for the badness of national anthems is that they have sort of grown up without any proper attention having been given them when they were young. Nobody ever started out and wrote a national anthem, so far as I know, except the foolish persons who wrote 'America' and 'Rule Britannia.'

"It isn't necessary that a national anthem should be rubbish. here is the Russian national anthem, which is first-class music all through. I don't know where the Russians got it, but probably they annexed it when they were spreading civilization somewhere. "The French don't know exactly what their national anthem is. When they are a republic it is the 'Marseillaise,' and when they are an empire it is a ridiculous Sunday school tune called 'Partant pour la Syrie.'

For the Post was absolutely unchanged from that other summer evening of over a year ago when they had started out into the Silent Places. The familiarity of this fact, hitherto, for some strange reason, absolutely unexpected, reassured them their places in the normal world of living beings. The dead vision of the North had left in their spirits a residuum of its mysticism. Their experience of her power had induced in them a condition of mind when it would not have surprised them to discover the world shaken to its foundations, as their souls had been shaken. But here were familiar, peaceful things, unchanged, indifferent even to the passing of time. Involuntarily they drew a deep breath of relief, and without knowing it, reentered a sanity which had not been entirely theirs since the snows of the autumn before.

Over by the guns, indistinct in the falling twilight, the accustomed group of voyageurs and postkeepers were chatting, smoking, humming songs in the accustomed way. The low velvet band of forest against the sky; the dim squares of the log-houses punctuated with their dots of lamplight; the masse of the Storehouse, the stockade, the Factory; the long flag-staff like a mast against the stars; the conThe tall, straight figure of his Indian familiar glided from the dusk of the verandа's end.

"To-morrow at smoke time," commanded the Factor, using the Ojibway tongue, "let this man be whipped before the people, fifty lashes. Then let him be chained to the Tree for the space of one week, and let it be written above him in Ojibway and in Cree that thus Galen Albret punishes those who steal."

Without a word Me-en-gan took the defaulter by the arm and conducted him away.

Galen Albret had fallen into a profound silence, which no one ventured to break. Dick and Sam, uncertain as to whether or not they, too, were dismissed, shifted uneasily.

"How did you find him?" demanded the Factor, abruptly.

"We went with old Haukemah's band down as far as the Mattawishguia. There we left them and went up stream and over the divide. Dick here broke his leg and was laid up for near three months. I looked all that district over while he was getting well. Then we made winter travel down through the Kabinikagam country and looked her over. We got track of this Jingoss over near the hills, but he got wind of us and skirpned when we was almost on top of him. We took his trail. He went straight north, trying to shake us off, and we got up into the barren country. We'd have lost him in the snow if it hadn't been for that dog there. He could trail him through new snow. We run out of grub up there, and finally I gave out. Dick here pushed on alone and found the Injun wandering around snow-blind. He run onto some caribou about that time, too, and killed some. Then he came back and got me: I had a little pemmican and boiled my mocassins. We had lots of meat, so we rested up a couple of weeks and then came back."

That was all. These men had done a great thing, and thus simply they told it. And they only told that much of it because it was their duty; they must report to their chief.

Galen Albret seemed for a moment to consider, as was his habit.

"You have done well," he pronounced at last. "My confidence in you was justified. The pay stands as agreed. In addition I place you in charge of the post at Lost River, and you, Herron, in charge of the Mattagami Brigade."

The men flushed, deeply pleased, more than rewarded, not by the money nor the advancement, but by the unqualified satisfaction of their commander.

They turned away. At this moment Virginia Albret, on some errand to her father, appeared outlined in slender youth, against the doorway. On the instant she recognized them.

"Why, Sam and Dick!" she said; "I am glad to see you. When did you get back?"

"Just back, Miss Virginia," replied Sam.

"That's good. I hope you have had a successful trip."

"Yes," answered Sam. The woodsman stood there a little awkwardly, wishing to be polite, not sure as to whether they should now go without further dismissal.

"See, Miss Virginia," hesitated Sam, to fill in the pause, "I have your handkerchief yet."

"I'm glad you kept it, Sam," replied the young girl; 'and have you yours, Dick?"

And suddenly to Dick the contrast between this reality and that other came home with the vividness of a picture. He saw again the snow-swept plain, the wavering shapes of illusion, the mock suns dancing in unholy revel. The color of he North burned before his eyes; a madness of the North unsealed his lips.

"I used it to cover a dead girl's face," he replied, bluntly.

The story had been as gray as a report of statistics—so many places visited, so much time consumed. The men smoking cigars, lounging on cushioned seats in the tepid summer air, had listened to it unimpressed, as one listens to the reading of minutes of a gathering long past. This simple sentence breathed into it life. The magnitude of the undertaking sprang up across the horizon of their comprehension. They saw between the milepost marking of Sam Bolton's dry statements of fact, glimpses of vague, mysterious, and terrible deeds, indistinct, wonderful. The two before them loomed big in the symbolism of the wide world of men's endurance and determination and courage.

The darkness swallowed them before the group on the veranda had caught its breath. In a moment the voices about the cannon raised in greeting. A swift play of question and answer shot back and forth. "Out all the year?" "Where? Kabinikagam? Oh, yes, east of Brunswick Lake." "Good trip?" "That's right." "Glad of it." Then the clamor rose, many beseeching, one refusing. The year was done. These men had done a mighty deed, and yet a few careless answers were all they had to tell of it. The group, satisfied, were begging another song. And so, in a moment, just as a year before, Dick's rich, husky baritone raised in the words of the old melody. The circle was closed.

"There was an old darky, and his name was Uncle Ned.
And he lived long ago, long ago——"

The night hushed to silence. Even the wolves were still, and the giddes down at the Indian camp ceased their endless quarrelling. Dick's voice had all the world to itself. The men on the Factory veranda smoked, the dishes of their cigars dulling and glowing.

Galen Albert, inscrutable, grim, brooded his unguessable thoughts. Virginia, in the doorway, rested her head pensively against one arm outstretched against the lintel.

"For there's no more work for poor old Ned,
He's gone where the good darkies go."

The song finished. There succeeded the great compliment of quiet.

To Virginia it was given to speak the concluding word of this episode. She sighed, stretching out her arms.

"The greatness of my people," she quoted softly.

THE END.

Misread the Signals.

Port Townsend, Wash. July 19.—Carelessness in displaying signals explains a totally erroneous report made Monday night from Tatoosh Island of a fatal boiler explosion on board the Destructin Island lightship No. 67. The vessel dragged her anchor, and when the crew attempted to help her with the engines both the propeller and the steering gear were found clogged and disabled with seaweed. The vessel was in imminent danger of going on the rocks, when the tug Pioneer sent a line aboard and towed her to Neah Bay. She will clean her bottom there before returning to her station.

There is Coffee and Coffee

At first sight, the coffees which are sold to us as green may have many points of resemblance externally. It is only by the cup that the actual value of coffee can be known. That coffee, although well roasted, may give at first an enchanting flavor, but, sipped from the cup, it will be only an insipid and flat beverage. What insures the superiority of "Mrs. Huot's Coffee," sipped from the cup, is the harmonious blending of the best known coffees, that is where is the secret of this unrivalled combination. It is "coffee" and "good" coffee, as all connoisseurs will attest

BOATS ARE READY FOR BIG RACE

The Judges Will Be at Dorval To-night for Dinner.

THE FIRST RACE UNDECIDED

Yacht Club Has Chartered Steamer for Members and Friends—Close Races Expected.

The challenger, Manchester and the defender, Alexandra, are both ready for the twelfth contest for the possession of the Seawanhaka Cup, which begins to-morrow on Lake St. Louis, about one o'clock, if there is sufficient wind. Both boats have received their finishing touches, and the probability is that Alexandra will go out for a spin this afternoon.

To-night or to-morrow morning the two clubs will spin a coin to decide whether the first race will be a straight away or a triangular one.

To-night the annual dinner tendered by the defenders to the challengers takes place.

The judges are all expected here to-night. They will be: W. G. W. Mansfield, representing the Manchester Club; Mr. W. Q. Phillips, representing the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, and Mr. W. P. Stephens, umpire.

Mr. Stephens will come on the Karma from Ogdensburg, a boat which has hardly ever failed to attend a Seawanhaka race on Lake St. Louis.

Last night there was some excitement at the Yacht Club, for a hobo, containing some of the officers of the club, upset, and all were thrown into the water.

The general opinion seems to be that the races will be pretty close this year.

They will be twelve miles each, as usual.

The steamer Garnet, which has been chartered by the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club to allow its members and their friends to watch the Seawanhaka races, will leave every day upon the arrival of a special Grand Trunk train, which will leave Montreal (Bonaventure Station) at 12.25 for Dorval. Tickets can be had from Mr. Routh at the Canada Life Building. Mr. Saxe, of Saxe and Archibald, Beaver Hall Hill, and Mr. Hough, of Hughes, Owen and Co.

YOUNG BULLIES IN CONTROL.

Boys Who "Boss" Little Girls in Public Squares.

Montrealers found the heat more tolerable to-day by comparison with yesterday's record-breaking temperature readings. There was nevertheless considerable suffering in some sections of the city.

After the early morning shower the sun came out with what appeared renewed vigor and throughout the forenoon the mercury kept well above the 80 and between 1 and 2 o'clock hovered between 83 and 84.

The different squares and other breathing places of the city continued well patronized and there was an abnormal demand for cooling drinks at the multitudes of places where such things are to be had.

Concerning the use of the public squares the Star has received the following letter:

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—On the top of your article of the 17th instant deploring the terrible death rate of infants in Montreal, I should like to call the attention of the more humane of your readers to what seems to me a very wretched and disgraceful business which takes place in Dufferin square.

A small army of boys appear to have some strange sort of civic right to strut along the paths of this square, with what look like regulation truncheons swinging from their wrists, ordering timid children—pale with the exhaustion bred of having passed the night in the sweltering heat of the city—not to do this and not to do that. I, myself, this morning, observed two of these young roughs go up to a party of small girls—the eldest was eleven—and order them to remove a poor little sick two-year-old child, who was getting some evidently much needed sleep on a rug spread out on a small piece of shaded grass bordering the walls of a factory. I need hardly say that I speedily cancelled the order, although I confess it was no business of mine to do so, but I think that those who are in authority might easily spare some little portion of grass in the larger squares of the city for the legitimate use and healthful benefit of the poor helpless little mites who suffer so much during the intense heat.

With apologies for taking up your valuable space, I am, dear Sir,

Your obedient servant,

SOME HUMANITY.

A SLUMP IN FREIGHTS.

The Canadian Railways are Experiencing a Distinct Fall Off.

Both the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific systems are experiencing a midsummer slump in freights. Whatever may be the conditions behind it, and the officials do not undertake to explain them, produce is not moving. Little grain has been offered for delivery, which accounts for some of the falling off.

The Canadian railways are not likely to do much in the transportation of grain before the new crop is harvested. At the present both Canadian and American wheat is held so high that it cannot ordinarily be shipped with profit, and there is not likely to be a change in the situation before the harvest is complete.

The official grain men are looking hopefully upon the Russian situation, which country is to-day the greatest factor in the export trade. War, and threatened famine in certain portions of the Czar's domains is looked upon as an indication that the shipments of immense quantities of wheat which have been going forward to Great Britain must cease, and that this, combined with the prospect of plentiful crops, will do much to relieve the situation in Canada.

J. PERCY TAYLOR WINS AGAIN.

He Defeated Mr. MacDougall in the Scratch Medal Competition.

The finals in the Dennistoun scratch medal at the Dixie Golf Links, brought together J. Percy Taylor and R. E. MacDougall, with result that the former finished first in the premier prize of the club. This makes the eighth consecutive season that Mr. Taylor has won the honor.

The Coming British Cruisers.

As yet nothing has been heard by the Montreal harbor authorities respecting the coming of the British fleet, which is scheduled to reach Quebec on August 10.

It is not thought likely in Montreal that any attempt will be made to bring any of the larger vessels farther up the river than Quebec, though possibly one or possibly two of the lighter draught cruisers may come up to the city.

WATER IN RIVER UNUSUALLY LOW

Trouble Is Foreshadowed for Steamships in the Autumn.

WILL BE MUCH LOWER THEN

It May Be Necessary to Only Partially Load Cargoes in This Port.

The falling of the water in the St. Lawrence is giving the steamship men some concern. The water in the ship channel between this city and Quebec is lower now than it has been at this season for some years past. To-day the guage in the harbor office registers 29 feet 1 inch, a full eighteen inches lower than it was a year ago.

The record for the past four years on the first of July is as follows:

1904........31 feet 11 inches.

The owners of large steamships, such for instance as the Allans, with their twelve thousand tons vessels, drawing some 26 or 27 feet of water, with a cargo on board, are doing some thinking as regards the prospects later on in the season, for from now on the water will slowly and gradually recede until the close of navigation in November.

The chances are that the larger vessels later on in the autumn will be obliged to complete their cargoes at Quebec is order that they may go out filled to their capacity.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Allan Line turbiners are now being loaded both inward and outward in such a manner that between the stowage and the water tanks they sail, on an even keel, whereas ordinarily these vessels draw from eighteen inches to two feet more water aft than forward.

ITALIAN TELLS HIS STORY.

He Was Shot in the Leg While Resisting Robbers.

(See also page twelve.)

Special to the Montreal Star.

Sherbrooke, July 19. — The wounded Italian boss passed through Sherbrooke last night on his way to Lewiston. He told the story of the shooting. He says he was walking some distance behind the paymaster's waggon when two masked men sprung out, one from either side of the road.

They shot the horse dead.

Mr. Lytle seized a grip containing $7,000 and jumped from the wagon, both the robbers began to close in and fire.

Mr. Lytle was first struck in the hand which carried the grip, and he was then hit twice in the shoulder and leg. The Italian rushed in and got a shot in the leg. $10,000 remained in the waggon, but the desperadoes evidently thought the grip contained all—though they had ample chance to secure the package in the waggon had they known.

The taking of the grip alone was a clever ruse on the part of Mr. Lytle. Men began to rush in from the works and the robbers took to the woods. He believes he could identify one of them.

Mr. Lytle, the wounded superintendent, is well known in the Townships. He is a prominent mason.

When the outrage was discovered the employes in the camp were enraged, and organized a large posse, which immediately started out to hunt the daring criminals down. Their capture is expected shortly, as they did not have much of a start before their nefarious and murderous act was discovered. Superintendent Lytle's wounds, while serious, are not fatal, and he is reported to be doing well.

MONTREALERS MADE A COUP.

About Five Thousand Taken Out of Local Bookies on Brighton Race.

Montrealers made a coup in race betting yesterday. Although the Canadian Derby was being run at Fort Erie and Tongorder, on which so much money was lost a couple of weeks ago had another chance, the local investors did not touch the Fort Erie race.

The reason for that appears to be that there was a tip going, and a straight tip at that.

It was on My Bewla in the first race, six furlongs, at Brighton Beach.

The price was eight to five to win, and the horse won.

It is estimated that about five thousand dollars was taken out of the bookies at De Lorimier Park races, where bets were taken and probably as much more was taken out of the New York bookmakers direct by means of telegraphic orders from Montreal betting men.

AMHERST STREET WIDENING.

The City Law Department Was Not Represented.

There was a hurried meeting of the Finance Committee to-day in the Mayor's office at the City Hall, over the question of the expropriation of Amherst street. The complaint was made that although the expropriation proceedings were proceeding in the civil courts there were no corporation lawyers to look after the city's interests. This was considered the more remarkable as the city will be called upon to pay half the cost of the widening. The civic law department was communicated with, and it was then found out that there had been some misunderstanding in this department in regard to the matter. The aldermen were much annoyed over the affair, and passed a resolution calling upon the city's lawyers to attend to the expropriation proceedings without further delay.

To Begin the Newfoundland Service.

On the 22nd of this month the Allan Line will begin their summer service between Philadelphia and St. John's, Newfoundland. The Allans place in this service three vessels, the Carthaginian, Laurentian and Siberian, sailing from Philadelphia every two weeks during the summer and autumn. From St. John's the vessel proceeds to Liverpool and Glasgow, thus making four ports. From Philadelphia a considerable number of passengers are carried to Newfoundland.

Prostrated and Burned to Death.

Scranton, Pa., July 19—John Thomas, fireman on the New York, Olean and Western Railway, who was prostrated by heat last night, was burned to death a few hours after being overcome. He had been placed in a caboose to be sent to his home in Mayfield. While the train was standing on the track another train crashed into and setting fire to the caboose Thomas was burned to a crisp.

SHIPPING RECORD FOR TWO MONTHS

Inland Tonnage Shows Rather Striking Increase This Year.

SEAGOING INCREASE SMALL

Number of Vessels Engaged in St. Lawrence Trade Shows Marked Increase.

The seagoing and the inland tonnage of the port of Montreal are both showing an increase as compared with last year. The increase in the ocean going tonnage is very small, however, while the record indicates that there has been a very large increase in the inland tonnage of the port. As a matter of fact the returns show that the inland vessels clearing from the port exceeded the ocean going vessels by upward of 180,000 tons for the first two months of navigation.

LANGFORD HIGGINS,
Who was accidentally drowned at Lakevieu yesterday.
(See also page five.)

The figures of the ocean sea-going vessels for the first two months of navigation, with corresponding figures for some time back, are as follow:

Year	Tonnage
1902	505,014
1903	626,636
1904	602,037
1905	602,185

The seagoing vessels, entering the port for the first two months of navigation, May and June, with corresponding figures for recent years, are as follow:

Year	Number of vessels
1902	253
1903	263
1904	266
1905	271

From the above it will be seen that there has been a very material increase in the number of seagoing vessels entering the port, as compared with last year, while the increase in tonnage is very small indeed, being less than 200 tons. In view of the fact that the trans-Atlantic steamships are constantly growing larger these figures appear strange, but are accounted for by the large and ever increasing number of small steamers in the coal trade between Montreal and Cape Breton.

The inland tonnage, with figures for corresponding years for the first two months of navigation, are as follow:

Year	Tonnage
1902	580,615
1903	711,637
1904	622,997
1905	788,742

The number of inland vessels for May and June of this year, with corresponding figures, are as follow:

1902	2,797
1904	2,703

Was Returned to Prison Walls.

Pittsburg, July 19. — Alexander Berkman, the alleged Anarchist, who attempted to kill H. C. Frick, the millionaire steel manufacturer, during the great Homestead strike in 1892, was released from the Western Penitentiary to-day and immediately arrested again on a commitment to the Allegheny County Workhouse, to serve one year for carrying concealed weapons.

Berkman was sentenced to twenty-two years in the penitentiary, but good behavior earned for him a commutation of nine years, so that he served but thirteen years. During his long imprisonment Berkman devoted his leisure time to study and writing. As he left for the workhouse he said to Deputy-Sheriff Haggerty:

"I hope there won't be any notoriety about me. I want to do my little bit and to be a good man and live at peace with the world."

The trip from the penitentiary to the workhouse was without incident.

Witte's Statements Discussed.

Paris, July 19.—The interview of the Associated Press with M. Witte, Monday, is causing widespread attention and comment. The entire French press gives it marked prominence. The Gaulois, Journal and Temps set forth its importance in disclosing Russia's attitude on the eve of the peace conference. The Temps says: "M. Witte's appointment has been everywhere heralded as a victory for the peace party and as showing that Russia is so anxious to terminate the war that the peace terms are certain to be most onerous. Japan also welcomed M. Witte's appointment as evidence that Russia is anxious for peace."

The Temps adds that these impressions afforded M. Witte, an opportunity to clear up his position, showing that while always favorable to peace he is conscious of the danger of a prolonged war if Japan insists upon onerous conditions.

Clergyman Had Narrow Escape.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Kingston, Ont., July 19.—There was great agitation in the city to-day over the prolonged absence of Canon Starr, of St. George's Cathedral, who went off in a sailing skiff on Tuesday afternoon.

It was feared that the Canon had been drowned, and searching parties were sent out, but Rev. Mr. Starr turned up, having spent the night at a farm house down the river.

Appointments Abroad for Americans.

Oyster Bay, July 19.—President Roosevelt to-day announced the following appointments:

John McMackin to be U. S. Consul at Georgetown, Guiana, and Risher W. Thornberry, to be marshal of the consular court of the United States at Chefoo, China.

TROUBLE IN A FINANCIAL OFFICE

Exciting Time at the Canadian Finance Company's Place.

YELLS OF "MURDER, POLICE"

A Customer and the Proprietor Become Entangled—The Cause of the Trouble.

Notre Dame street at the corner of St. Francis Xavier street was blocked between twelve and one p.m. to-day with a crowd of people who momentarily expected murder to be done—if it had not already.

It was cries of "Murder," "Police," "He's trying to kill me in his own house," "He's trying to strangle me," that first attracted the crowd, and it grew with the rush of people on their way to or from their mid-day meal. Added to the crowd was almost the entire membership of the Stock Exchange, and the Board of Trade was well represented.

Over the old Dominion Bank at the corner of the street, the Canadian Finance Company has its office. The Canadian Finance Company is a money-lending institution and the manager is Mr. M. Roth.

A few days ago Mark Barash called on the company and borrowed $50. He says that he was told that he would have to pay ten per cent. and this, he says, seemed quite reasonable. He got the money and then commenced to figure out just how much this would mean.

He says that according to the agreement he signed he was to pay $3.65 per week from July 25 to January 16, and this when figured out, means that it would cost him $94.90 for the loan for six months. His financial condition, he claims, would not allow of this payment, and so, according to his own story, he went back to the company's office and asked to be relieved of the loan, at the same time suggesting that he should pay one or two dollars for the trouble they had been put to.

This, Mr. Barash says, was refused, and to-day with his brother he again called and tried to get out of the bargain. This brother, whose name is William Barash, demanded that something should be done to relieve him, and he declares that, during the heated discussion which followed, Mr. Roth took him by the throat. It was at this time that he called for the police and shouted that he was being murdered.

With the windows all wide open the cries were heard many blocks away, and in a moment great crowds of people hastened to the scene. Mystery surrounded the matter, for the principals had got away from the window and no one knew just what the silence meant. It might be anything from a murder to a case of hysteria; the crowd wondered and then two policemen pushed their way through the throng and went upstairs. They found a number of excited people, but there were no charges made.

After hearing both sides, the officers decided that they could not interfere and with the two brothers they left the office.

When seen later on Mr. Roth said that he believed the figure as given might be correct, but when he learned from Mr. Barash that he was not satisfied with the bargain he told him to hand back the money and there would be no charge, as the company had no wish to force people to borrow. He says that the borrower was willing to hand the money back, but that the brother would not permit it and tried to force him, Mr. Roth, into an assault.

Mr. Roth says that he then took Barash by the shoulders and told him to get out of the office. It was then that the brothers said that they would get even and the younger one shouted for the police.

SENATE AND TRADING STAMPS

The Bill May Be Given a Hoist Till Next Session.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 19.—The first hour in the Senate this morning was taken up with a discussion of points of order.

Then the debate on the trading stamp bill was resumed by the Hon. Mr. Landry, who spoke in opposition to the bill. He criticized the Government severely for allowing an important measure of this kind to be brought down so late in the session. He said it was absurd to grant the right to do business and then introduce legislation to punish people conducting business under a charter granted.

Senator Landry was still speaking when the Senate rose at 1 o'clock.

There are evidences that the trading stamp bill will meet with determined opposition in the Senate, the opponents of the measure taking the stand that the merits of the proposal could be better considered at another session when there is more time.

The possibility of it being talked out is lessened by the apparent willingness of the House to adjourn from day to day in order to give the Senators ample time to clear off all business on the order paper.

IS NOT DESIROUS OF PEACE.

Russia Said to Be Simply Playing to Gain Time.

Tokio, July 19.—It is believed that Emperor Nicholas recently sent an encouraging message to General Linevitch, promising him men, provisions, and other necessaries for attaining an ultimate victory.

It was also reported that the Russian Emperor recently ordered the mobilization of four army corps. This fact, taken in connection with the reported limitation of M. Witte's power as chief peace plenipotentiary, is deemed to be a signal that Russia is not sincere in her expressed desire for the conclusion of peace.

Heavy seas are still raging off the coast of the island of Sakhalin, and further reports of the Japanese operations there are not expected in the near future.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING IN BED.

Ottawa Market Gardener Struck by a Bolt During Storm.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Ont., July 19.—Joshua Goodwin, a market gardener, of Hintonburg, was killed by lightning while asleep in his cottage near the Experimental Farm last night.

He was sleeping with his son when a bolt came through the roof. Goodwin died 15 minutes after being struck. His son was seriously affected but will probably recover.

The fatality occurred shortly after 1 o'clock when the electrical storm was at its height.

Mrs. Goodwin, who was in the house but escaped, has lost two husbands in a tragic manner.

Her first husband, named McPherson, was killed by an explosion of dynamite.

SENT TO REFORMATORY.—A youth named W. Mackay was sentenced by Judge Choquet yesterday afternoon to two years in the reformatory for theft.

MONTREAL SHOT LEADS CANADIANS

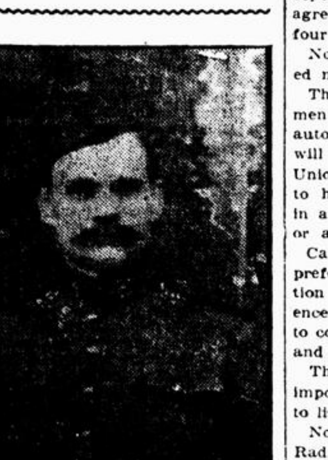
Put on a Good Score at Second Range of the King's Prize.

OTHERS ARE DOING WELL

Duke of Cambridge Match Was Also Shot, But the Scoring Was Very Poor.

Bisley Camp, July 19—The second day's shooting in the King's Prize event saw many of the good scores broken. At the conclusion of the five hundred yards range it was plain that nothing lower than 94's would get into the three hundred for the second stage, 600 yards, twenty shots, on Friday.

It is not only with the Canadians that there are complaints, but all along the line there are all kinds of excuses being offered for the poor scoring. One blames the light and the next blames the wind.



PTE. C. L. MORRICE,

TONGORDER FAILED AGAIN

King of Troy Won the Canadian Derby at Fort Erie.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Fort Erie, July 19.—The name of King of Troy, not that of Tongorder, was added yesterday to the list of good horses that have won the Canadian Derby. It was only a three-horse field that went to the post before a crowd of about 5,000 people, but it was a keenly interesting event in as much as it brought together the two horses named for a second trial. This one was conclusive for King of Troy won decisively, and Tongorder was beaten also by McIlvain. Henry Spencer, the iceman, who rode Mr. Dyment's horse, went to the front when Starter Dwyer sent them away, and led until about opposite the stand. Here D. Austin, a vigorous rider, working hard on King of Troy, drew up level with Tongorder on the back stretch, and a few moments later the Barrie colt was seen to fall behind the big horse from the Hendrie stable. Then McIlvain moved up and he too passed Tongorder. Spencer nursed his mount around the top bend for a stretch run, but the horse's speed was gone, and he never could close the gap. King of Troy won handily from McIlvain. The track was good but rather slow from yesterday's thunderstorms. The summaries.—

Fourth race: 1 1-4 miles. King of Troy, 12 5, D. Austin; 6 to 5; won by two lengths. McIlvain, 12 2, Wishard; 6 to 1. Tongorder, 12 5, H. Spencer; 3 to 5; 3. Time, 2 min. 10 sec. Three horses' race.

Pere Marquette Still Retaliates.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19.—Following the report that the Pere Marquette Railway would move its shops from St. Thomas to Niagara Falls, N. Y., in retaliation for the alien labor action against its officials, comes the announcement in railway circles that Superintendent J. S. Pyeatt will remove his office and staff from St. Thomas to Detroit at the end of the week.

Mr. Pyeatt is one of the officials whose deportation was attempted. If the change is made it means that St. Thomas will lose about seventy families.

CHAMBERLAIN AND MULOCK TO CONFER

Comment on Mr. Chamberlain's Withdrawal of Earlier Dissolution Demand.

OPPOSITION NOW VERY ANGRY

May Endeavor to Induce the Colonies Not to Attend the Conference.

Special Cable from the Montreal Star Correspondent in London.

London, July 19.—Sir William Mulock confers with Mr. Joseph Chamberlain this week.

Chamberlain's withdrawal yesterday of his earlier dissolution demand is accepted as the clearest indication of the agreement of Chamberlain and Balfour on all material fiscal questions.

No general election may be expected now till the autumn of 1906.

The Opposition's anger at the moment centres in the reflection that the automatic colonial conference of 1906 will be held under the auspices of a Unionist Government, who will refuse to hamper the Colonial Governments in any way in the discussion of fiscal or any other questions.

Campbell-Bannerman desires the preference and the whole fiscal question rigorously excluded, the conference being used to induce the colonies to contribute in cash towards the army and navy.

The Unionists contend that it is impossible and undesirable to attempt to limit colonial expressions.

No success has as yet attended the Radicals in their indirect approaches to induce Canadian and other colonial Ministries to intimate that they could not attend the 1906 conference if summoned, but fresh efforts to this end are in contemplation.

WINDERMERE.

TORONTO PEOPLE SHOCKED.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19.—Three steamers arrived in Toronto harbor on Sunday morning loaded with freight and proceeded to unload. The police were asked to interfere, but declined, not being certain of the law, and consequently the delay of twenty-four hours was avoided. But the police are being urged to put an end to the practice, and the church people are likely to make a test case.

Action Against Electric Company.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—William Willis, who was badly burned at the Queen's wharf by grasping an electric wire, is entering an action for damages against the Toronto Electric Light Co. Willis was on top of a lumber pile disentangling the mast head of his yacht from wires which crossed the pole above his head. Seizing the wires he received a terrific shock and could not let go. Companions beat the wires with boards and released him after his hand had been frightfully burned. The Electric Light Company places the responsibility on the Imperial Lumber Co., which owns the lumber.

Atlas Company Must Wait.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19.—Judgment has been reserved in the claim of the Atlas Loan Company, of St. Thomas, against the estate of the late C. J. Whitney for $60,000. The executors deny that there is proof that the deceased ever subscribed for the stock in dispute. The case is one of the last surviving echoes of the long drawn out Atlas Loan litigation.

CLOSING PRICES.

STOCKS STRONG AT CLOSE.

There was quite a lot of trading at the afternoon session, but it was scattered, and there was no particular feature.

Prices were firm again, and both Steel and Coal bonds held up well. Detroit and Street Railway were firm, and there was a sale of Coal pfd. at 116¼.

Wall Street was quiet but firm. Northern Pacific sold up to 205, and was off a fraction later. Illinois Central declared its regular semi-annual dividend and ½ per cent. extra.

All the Hill stocks were strong again towards the close.

The Question is Often Asked

Why can the Life Insurance Company McCaw represents do better for its Policy-holders than any other?

1st. Because—The undivided attention of all its officers is given to the company's business, and neither the officers nor the company have any entangling alliances with any other institution.

2nd. Because—No extravagant salaries are paid to the officers, or extravagant commissions to the agents for the sake of getting business; therefore, its expense ratio is the lowest of all American or Canadian companies, thereby allowing for the greatest benefits to its policy-holders.

3rd. Because—The Company has never given an estimate as an inducement for a Policyholder, but absolute guarantees in the policy are the foundation upon which the Company rests.

4th. Because—The lapse ratio of the company is only about one-half the average of all companies, which shows the satisfaction of its policy-holders.

5th. Because—The company gives the policy-holder the utmost value for his premiums at the end of the term the policy is taken for, along with the extreme limit in guaranteed provisions in case he should be unfortunate during the meantime.

6th. Because—The rule of the company is to pay all claims immediately upon presentation of satisfactory proofs.

7th. Because—There are a great many more reasons that would take up too much space here, but which will interest you if you want to get the best in

FOR IMPROVEMENT OF FRUIT.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Ont., July 19. — Superintendent McNeill, of the Fruit Branch of the Department of Agriculture, continued his evidence in regard to the shipping of apples to the British market this morning.

He strongly advocated sending apples to the Old Country markets in boxes, instead of in barrels. There was almost certain to be more uniformity in packing the fruit in small quantities. Experimental shipments had been made with success, the apples selling at advanced prices. Mr. McNeill advocated the establishment of central packing stations. By handling apples under a somewhat similar system as cheese and butter, better results would be obtained. At several places in Ontario this system was working satisfactorily.

In conclusion, Mr. McNeill advocated a system of cold storage, such as is in operation in New York State, for the early apple crop of the Southern Ontario belt. This crop matures so early that it cannot be handled with the general crop. By cold storage it could be kept and disposed of to better advantage.

DOMINION STEEL SHOWS $15,000 NET

"Street" Well Pleased at the June Earnings of the Company.

THE BONDS GO HIGHER TO-DAY

Coal Bonds Also Up—The J. J. Hill Stocks Have a Good Rise in Wall Street Market.

It was stated on the "Street" to-day that the June earnings of the Dominion Steel Co. were exceedingly satisfactory, and that the company showed $15,000 to the good after providing for all fixed charges and the month's proportion of the sinking fund.

The showing was considered especially good in view of the fact that for a portion of the month the blooming mill was idle.

This month it is expected that the earnings will be much better, as the blooming mill is now running full time, while it is expected that the steel rail mill will average over 700 tons a day. It is running 150 tons now, and the increase may be made this week.

At this rate—$15,000 net a month, and much more than that is expected for the balance of the year—more than half the dividend on the preferred stock would be earned. This dividend requires $350,000, and $15,000 a month figures up $180,000.

People close to the Steel Company, however, expect to see July double the June figures.

Steel bonds have become somewhat stronger on the favorable reports going about, and the first mortgage issue was bid up to 85½. There was a fairly good demand, and sellers stiffened in their views when the enquiries began to appear.

Dominion Coal bonds were also stronger, a sale of $4000 being made yesterday afternoon at 102½, an advance of two points over the previous sale. After the reorganization large blocks of these bonds changed hands under 100, and some surprise was expressed at the low price. The majority of people on the "Street" seem to think very well of them, and the buying is said to have been from very good sources.

Detroit United was inclined to be stronger. As pointed out in yesterday's Star, the Detroit United Railway has completed the first half of its fiscal year. June earnings which have just been reported showed an increase of 11 per cent. in gross earnings and 12.7 per cent. in net earnings. For the half year the surplus earnings after charges amounted to $368,030. The is applicable to dividends on the stocks. The stock outstanding amounts to $12,000,000, so that the results for the half year have been at the rate of approximately 6 per cent. on the stock.

In spite of the intense heat in New York—the mercury there running to 101, there was a strong tone to the market there, and in some stocks a moderate amount of activity. The Hill stocks were all strong, and led the market.

Northern Pacific was both strong and active in New York to-day, and was one of the main features of the list. Opening at 198¼, it worked up gradually to 203¾. After that there was a somewhat easier feeling, and at one o'clock the price was back to 202. Some big lots changed hands. Great Northern was quoted at 290, a rise of 3 points over yesterday.

Sales of Canadian stocks to noon in Wall Street, together with highest and lowest prices, were as follows:

Shares.	High.	Low.
500 Canadian Pacific	152	152
200 Detroit	93⅛	93

Sales to noon in Wall Street to-day were 157,000 shares.

The Japanese bond allotments will be mailed to-night, and subscribers will get them to-morrow morning.

HEAT HITS "CURB" MARKET.

But Nevertheless There Was More Doing To-day.

The local "curb" has been suffering from the heat this past week; in fact, it could not have shown less life if it had been a case of sunstroke. The cool breezes of last night seem to have revived the local traders, and they were able to sit up and take notice, and incidentally make a trade in the Jap 4½ first issue, $20,000 selling at 92.

There was quite a demand for Rio from the West this morning, 38¾ being bid for five hundred shares. 30 sold at 40.

It was remarked this morning by one of the local brokers what a prominent position some of the former curb stocks are taking on the regular exchange. Lake of the Woods, after its listing on the local exchange, led the market in activity for some time. Now it is the Havana issues. Next, no doubt, will be the Mexican securities.

AROUND THE "STREET."

MR. ROBERT MEIGHEN,

President of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co., and Director of the Bank of Toronto.

THE RISE IN GRAND TRUNKS.

How the Second Preference Stock Has Fluctuated.

The recent rise in Grand Trunk shares suggests a number of interesting comparisons.

Yesterday we showed the way the first preferred has fluctuated the past few years; to-day the ups and downs of the second preferred are given. This issue sold yesterday at 102, which is within 1⅛ of the highest ever reached. The fluctuations follow:

Year—	High.	Low.
1899	44⅝	60½
1900	51⅞	71¾
1901	60¼	88⅛
1902	79⅞	98⅛
1903	94	103⅛
1904	80¼	97¼

Like the first preference, the stock carries a 5 per cent. dividend and ranks next after the first preferred. The issue of second amounts to £2,530,000.

STOCK EXCHANGE SEATS UP.

Price Jumps $8,000 in Wall Street in Spite of Dullness.

In spite of the dullness in trading, Stock Exchange seats are in demand in New York, and there have been recent sales at $78,000, $79,000 and $80,000, the latter figure being paid for a seat yesterday. This is an advance of no less than $8,000, as $72,000 was the best figure realized two weeks ago.

There has been no change in Montreal, in fact no recent bids have been made.

JOHN W. GATES BACK AGAIN.

Mr. John W. Gates was back in Montreal to-day and came down town to look at the "ticker" after his fishing trip. Mr. Gates spent some time in the office of J. S. Bache & Co., Hospital street.

GRANBY CONSOLIDATED.

Fifty shares of Granby sold at 6½ to-day, and the feeling was firm. At two o'clock 6⅜ was bid and 6½ asked.

MAY EARN NEAR $265,000,000

United States Steel Corporation for First Six Months.

The gross earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the first six months of 1905 are estimated at $265,000,000. This is on the basis of $530,000,000 for the year, which makes it greater than 1904, but below the gross of 1903 and 1902.

Since it was organized 51 months ago the Steel Corporation has made in gross earnings manufactures and sales—the total of $2,216,588,780. This is at the rate of $46,709,206 a month and $1,448,684 for every day in the year.

The following table gives the gross and net earnings of the Steel Corporation by years since 1901, estimating the half year of 1905:

	Gross earnings.	Net earnings.

THE HOT WEATHER EARNINGS VERY BIG

July Will Be Biggest Month on Record for Montreal "Street."

STOCK IS FIRM BUT QUIET

Some Days This Month Increases Have Been Over $2,000.00 Compared With a Year Ago.

Although not very active the last few days, Street Railway stock has ruled on the firm side, the result, no doubt, of the tremendous earnings the company has been showing since the first of June, together with the result of the case before the Privy Council.

June was a big month in the way of earnings, but July will break all records and will be the largest month in the history of the company.

The hot wave is of course largely responsible for the continued heavy increases over a year ago, some days this month showing gains of over $2000 compared with last year. Friday, the 41th, circus day, the receipts were $9457.61, an increase of $2381.90. The showing in detail so far this month is as follows:

	Earnings.	Inc.
July 2	7,818.48	518.25
July 3	9,181.33	1,504.21
July 4	8,657.35	1,270.09
July 5	7,896.52	967.26
July 6	8,161.56	848.80
July 7	7,994.02	726.17
July 8	9,439.51	1,180.61
July 9	8,727.90	2,915.89
July 10	8,346.58	827.05
July 11	8,639.83	1,853.93
July 12	8,191.34	1,271.72
July 13	8,395.06	968.26
July 14	9,457.61	2,381.90
July 15	9,710.59	1,424.59
July 16	7,184.96	*1,151.07

*Decrease.

The Park and Island is also said to be showing exceptionally good gains, but the earnings of that road are not included in the above figures.

GOSSIP ON CANADIAN PACIFIC.

Earnings for First Two Weeks of the Fiscal Year.

Canadian Pacific stock has been exceedingly quiet lately, and on Wall Street it has been one of the chief sufferers of the many stocks neglected during the hot spell.

The road showed a decrease in earnings for the first week of the fiscal year, and an increase the second week, the gain for the fortnight being $38,000.

July—	1905.	1904.	Inc.
1 to 7	$1,103,000	$1,112,000	*$9,000
8 to 14	1,124,000	977,000	47,000
Totals	$2,127,000	$2,089,000	$38,000

*Decrease.

Increase from July 1 over last year is thus $38,000, while the increase for the two weeks over two years ago is $291,000.

MR. D. D. MANN VERY BULLISH.

Believes West This Year Will Raise 100,000,000 Bushels.

Mr. D. D. Mann returns from the West very bullish on the outlook for everything, and especially Canadian Northern.

Mr. Mann is inclined to think that the wheat crop this year may run up to 100,000,000 bushels.

"How is the Canadian Northern progressing?"

"At the rate of three miles a day," was the practical reply.

"Where is the end of the steel now?"

"One hundred and ninety-five miles from Edmonton. We shall be in there by October—with the main line. About the same time we shall strike Prince Albert with the branch from Dauphin. We are now bridging the south branch, seventeen miles from Prince Albert."

Mr. Mann pulled down a map—one of several new ones he has obtained recently; quite down to date in the geography of that rapidly-changing country. He pointed out the red line which for half its length past the Swan River country traverses the Saskatchewan valley, and west of Battleford takes almost a bee line to Edmonton.

"To get an idea of what a hundred million bushels of wheat in 1905 means," he said, "just notice how this road traverses the country. From fifty miles east of Winnipeg, where the prairie begins, to the timbered country of the fort hills is 900 miles in a straight line. Every station on that 900 miles will be a wheat station. In ten years from now a hundred million bushels of wheat will be regarded as a mere case of simple addition for the A. B. C. class."

HILL STOCKS HAVE A BOOM.

The Western Stocks and the Mercury Soar Together.

New York, July 19.—The heat was intense here to-day, and while there were few brokers on the floor, a fair business was done. Opening prices revealed no perceptible drift in the stock market, changes being confined to eighths and quarters. The local tractions were an exception and showed some firmness, Metropolitan Street Railway and Metropolitan Securities rising a point each.

Owing to the scant interest manifested in the prominent stocks, a resumption of yesterday's pressure again, the minor stock was not counter-balanced, and it showed weakness. The general western list held well, largely as a result of a rise in Northern Pacific, which rose 5½ in all. The strength of the Northern Securities group helped the general list. The advances were not firmly held, Northern Pacific reacting 1¼.

Only 600 shares of Canadian Pacific were traded in up to 2 o'clock.

THE NEW JAPANESE BONDS.

The new Japanese bond issue is somewhat firmer at 89. The old 4's sold in New York to-day at 92, while the six per cents. were quoted at 101⅞ to 102.

"The mercury is the only thing that goes up easily," said a broker. "It's a bull market for thermometers."

Negotiations are in progress for the acquisition of the road and charter of the Cape Breton Railway Co. by the Cape Breton Iron and Railway Co. This road is now built and in operation from Hawkesbury to St. Peter's. Surveys have been made from St. Peter's to Louisburg and Sydney, and a very small deviation from these lines would bring the road through the coal properties of the Cape Breton Company. Should the negotiations materialize the road would be acquired by strong men such as the English gentlemen who control the C. B. C. I. & R. Company.

The London Standard says that one English syndicate and one German syndicate are prepared to finance loans to pay any Russian indemnity to Japan in case of peace.

Total receipts during June from the sale of stamps required by the New York stock tax law were $440,200. If the revenue is continued throughout the year at this rate, it will yield $5,200,000.

Mr. Thomas Lowry, president of Twin City and the "Soo" Railway, has been ill in Minneapolis lately, but he is now expected to be around in a few days.

Two Cotton Exchange seats were sold in New York yesterday at $15,000 each, an advance of $1200 from previous sale. The sales established a new high record. Advance is based on the remarkable activity in the staple.

The mine manager of Le Roi No. 2 reports for June shipped to Trail, 287 tons; the net receipts from Trail are $6208, being payment for 362 tons shipped, and $1284, being payment for 33 tons concentrates shipped; the net receipts from Greenwood are $2889, being deferred payment on 984 tons previously shipped; total receipts from both smelters, $10,381.

It is said that John D. Rockefeller now owns 100,000 shares of Amalgamated Copper. William Rockefeller has always been a big holder, while John D.'s holdings have been light.

A director of the "Soo" industries claims that the concerns are more than earning fixed charges.

EXPECT AN ACTIVE MARKET.

One Reason Why Stock Exchange Seats Went Higher.

The advance in Wall Street Exchange seats, one of the biggest in the history of the institution, has created a great deal of comment in New York. Says the Post:

"Inquiry as to the reason for the sharp recovery in the price of memberships brought the response from an authority on the subject that it was probably due to expectation that the stock market will be active next autumn. One of the memberships that have just changed hands was bought by a firm which was already represented on the exchange, but desires an additional membership."

JAPANESE BONDS ADVANCE.

Price of New Touched 89—A New High Level for Issues.

Japanese 4½'s of the second series rose in the trading on the curb yesterday to 89, the highest price yet paid for the new issue. An international banking house in New York was credited with the purchase of a large block of the bonds for foreign account. The suggestion was made that the bonds were being bought here by foreigners who, owing to the heavy over-subscriptions in London and Berlin, were unable to secure a suitable allotment in those markets.

ENORMOUS MINE DIVIDENDS.

"Rand Mines" Has Just Paid Another 100 Per Cent.

Rossland in its palmy days paid some fair dividends, but there were no 100 per cent. a year rates floating around. The Rand Mines recently announced its fifth dividend. The company has made five dividends, as follows:

No.	Date.	P.C.	Amt.	Capital Paid on.
1—	Dec., 1898	100	£337,136	£337,136

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

The Hill Stocks to the Front — Will Copper Increase Dividend?

Chas. Head.—The stocks of the Northern Securities group were the features of the morning trading, and the strength in these imparted a better tone to the whole market and influenced some buying in other stocks. Mr. Hill is very bullish on Northern Pacific.

J. B. Picken.—Amalgamated Copper directors are expected to meet to-morrow for dividend action. An increase in rate is generally expected.

E. & C. Randolph.—The buying of U.S. Rubber was similar to that of the last two days, and was based on knowledge of increased earning power resulting from the absorption of the U. S. Rubber Goods.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Northern Pacific gained 5 points; other issues were neglected. Bull points are out on Copper for an advance in a dividend rate to-morrow. Tractions are acting fairly well. Market looks as if it would remain dull but steady for balance of the day.

Burnett & Co.'s London cable.—Russian Imperial 4's unchanged; Jap. olds, 5's, 101; new 5's at par, ¾, and 6's, second series, 102½, unchanged. The 6's, first series, are off ¼ at 103¾; 4's, 87⅞, off ⅜; 4½'s, first series loan, at premium of 2⅞; second series rules at premium at ⅞ per cent.

BUCKET SHOPS AND TICKERS.

Opportunity for the N. Y. Stock Exchange to Act.

Wall Street received last week with but passive interest the announcement that a conference would be held by the officials of several large exchanges to see what could be done about the bucket shop problem.

Thus the "Street" watched the crusade of the Consolidated Exchange after the failure of several of its member firms, among them Woodend and Co. and J. H. McLean and Co., had necessitated post-mortem charges of "obvious fraud and false pretence," which is the Consolidated term for bucketing. Similarly the "Street" has watched various spasms of activity by the Central office, as some loser or other has had his case taken up and pushed to the usual settlement out of court. But after every such disturbance there has come a period of quiet again, and the bucket shops have started up for the accommodation of the ever-present dabbler in the market.

Whether or not the New York Stock Exchange ought to take steps to guard against abuses in the use of the Gold and Stock Ticker, which it controls, is a more pertinent question and one that comes nearer home to the exchange management than the question of bucket shops as such. Whatever the conditions of the service, and by whoever the Gold and Stock Tickers may be placed, the fact remains that in almost every bucket-shop that has failed, not to speak of those now running, there has been a ticker from this concern. The excuse that the Gold and Stock service is not the official service of the Stock Exchange does not appear to relieve it from responsibility.

WHEAT MARKETS GENERALLY STRONG

Prices Experienced a Boom on the Chicago Market.

JULY STEADY AT WINNIPEG

Some Reports of Rust in United States Beginning to Reach Chicago.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, July 19.—July wheat sold from 84⅞c up to 87c, and September between 82⅞c and 84⅝c, compared with closings yesterday of 85⅛c and 83¼c, respectively.

Rust reports from the North-West were more than plentiful, but they were contradicted by the very best people up there. Even Larimore, the North Dakota bonanza farmer, says that crop prospects are good, and all that is now needed is favorable weather.

Southern receipts were smaller at 529,000 bushels, compared with 261,000 a week ago, and 192,000 a year ago. The North-West is doubtless long a line of wheat here, and is making desperate efforts to get out with as small losses as possible.

Cables were lower on increased Argentine offerings, and advices from abroad reported Russia as pressing new crop upon the market.

Winnipeg, July 19. — The inspection of wheat was as follows yesterday:

	Cars.
No. 1 hard	..
No. 1 northern	5
No. 2 northern	30
No. 3 northern	20
Other grades	20
No grade	2
Total	77
Last year	103

Fair but cloudy in England; forecast, fair.

North France, cloudy; South, fine; forecast, North and South, partly cloudy.

Chicago—Weather map this morning shows generally clear. Conditions in N.W. and S.W., partly cloudy in west. There have been heavy rains in Iowa and at Fort Worth, Texas. Elsewhere no precipitation to speak of. Temperatures generally high. In extreme north and n. w, it is fair at 46 to 64; Minnesota and Dakotas, 52 to 68; Iowa and Nebraska, partly cloudy, 62 to 78; heavy rains in Iowa. Kansas and Missouri are clear, with no rain. Ohio valley, fair to clear. Map favorable.

Half-holiday on Liverpool grain markets.

The opening was unchanged, at 6s 7⅛d for Sept. wheat, and 6s 6d for Dec.

Antwerp closed at 11⅜ for Bahia Blanca.

Paris closed steady, at 24.70 for July, and 20 down on Nov. and Feb., at 22.20.

Chicago wheat market was stronger this morning. July was 1¾c up, at 86⅞c, Sept. being 1⅛c up at noon, at 84⅝c. July corn was ⅛c up, at 57⅛c, Sept. being ⅛c up, at 55⅛c. July oats were 1⅜c up, at 31⅞c, Sept. being ½c up, at 29½c.

Duluth was 1⅛c up at noon, at 88½c for Sept.

Minneapolis was 1c up on Sept., at 88⅜c, and 1⅛c up on Dec., at 85⅛c.

Winnipeg was steady on July, at 109, after opening at 108, Oct. being ⅜c up, at 84⅝c.

LOCAL MARKET.—Although the tone of the market for oats is generally easier, and several dealers are talking lower prices, it seems doubtful if much could be obtained at less than former figures. We still quote 49c store for No. 3 oats, and 50c for No. 2, some quoting a fraction less. The Chicago market was higher this morning, so that any effect this might have on the local market would be towards firmness.

FLOUR.—One large milling firm is selling strong bakers at $5 to $5.10 per bbl., in bags, and patents at $5.30 to $5.40. The other quotes $5.40 and $5.70 respectively, for his brands of these grades. Ontario flour is $5.50 to $5.60 for winter wheat patents, per bbl., and $5.10 to $5.25 for straight rollers, while bags are $2.45 to $2.50.

MILLFEED.—Stocks continue light and prices of bran are rather easier at $16 per ton for Manitoba bran in bags, and $19 to $20 for shorts.

HAY.—Prices are steady at $8.00 to $8.50 for No. 1, $7 to $7.50 for No. 2, $6 to $6.50 for clover mixed and clover.

FLOUR MILLS DEVELOPMENT.

Work Going Ahead on Elevator and Mills at Keewatin.

Ottawa, July 19.—The Keewatin Flour Mills Company, with a capital stock of $2,000,000, has contracted with the MacDonald Engineering Company of Chicago to erect at Keewatin a fireproof milling and elevator plant at an approximate cost of $750,000. Both buildings will be entirely of steel concrete construction.

The mill will have a capacity of 5000 barrels per day, and the elevator a storage of 500,000 bushels. Work will be commenced at once.

The contract provides for the development of 2000 horse power on the water privilege owned by the company at Keewatin, to be utilized for driving and lighting purposes.

Ottawans are extensively interested in the company. Mr. John Mather is president, and Mr. George Burn, general manager of the Bank of Ottawa, is vice-president. Of the capital stock only $1,000,000 has been offered for subscription, of which $600,000 has already been taken up, and the balance is assured.

SHIPMENTS OF RANCH CATTLE

Expect to Send About 45,000 Head from Canadian Ranges.

Winnipeg, July 19.—The movement of live stock from the west is well under way.

According to data supplied by Live Stock Agent McMullen, of the C. P. R. at Calgary, conditions are very satisfactory.

There were recent sales of some thirty cars of grass-fed cattle at Dunmore Junction at from $46 to $48 per head. The local movement of cattle from Alberta ranges to Winnipeg and intermediate points is heavier than at the same time last year.

There were exported in May, through the Alberta gateway, but 160 head of cattle. In June the export movement reached 2000, and for the first half of July the figures showed 3000 moved, and cars ordered for 3500 more.

For August the prospects are for 600 or 700 cars for export. The heaviest movement of grass-fed cattle began last year, from August 10 to 15. The export movement, Mr. McMullen thinks, will send about 45,000 head of cattle out of the range country this season.

Thus far, the larger portion of stock shipped has been fed cattle. The actual movement will be regulated largely by market quotations, a falling off in the market curtailing shipments. With normal conditions, however, the export stuff will reach 45,000. To date the market has been fairly satisfactory. Cattle men generally are in very good spirits.

SHORT CROP OF APPLES.

Central Ontario Section Fears Crop Will Be Below Average.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Belleville, Ont., July 19. — Apples are likely to be a comparatively short crop in this district, so buyers are already making contracts at $1.50 per barrel, and also contracting for orchards. One transaction reported is the purchase of the product of an orchard of seven acres, the trees on which are only eight years old, and nearly all of the Ben Davis variety, for $3.75 cash.

Crops have never looked better in all parts of the district, and in the southern townships haying is well advanced.

BUTTER MARKET WAS FIRM.

Tone of Cheese Market Was Unsettled —Trade Not Very Active.

Roxton Falls, Que., July 19.—At the butter and cheese board Tuesday 814 bxs. of cheese were boarded, and sold at 9 5-16c.

Campbellford, Ont., July 19. — On this cheese board yesterday 1385 boxes offered. Sales: Alexander, 210 at 9⅝c; and 405 at 9 11-16c; Cook, 205 at 9 11-16c; Magrath, 565 at 9 11-16c.

CHEESE.—The market for cheese was steady here to-day, although yesterday's cheese board at Campbellford showed an advance, as high as 9¾c being paid. This, however, is understood to have been brought out by rivalry.

The market is in rather a mixed condition. It is claimed that shorts are still a factor in the situation, and no one in the market offers much opinion as to the future course of prices, inasmuch as they are very largely controlled by speculative requirements. There is a quiet demand from the other side for choice cheese, and stocks are being kept pretty well reduced by the large shipments. An outside calculation would probably be 150,000 boxes in Montreal. Prices here are 9½ to 9⅝c for finest Easterns, and 9⅝ to 9⅞c for finest Westerns. Purchases are being made at those figures and more may be had.

Receipts reported on the Board of Trade this morning amounted to 18,597 boxes.

BUTTER.—Holders of fancy, light salted Townships creamery were asking 21½c for it to-day, and some of those who were trying to make purchases at less were unable to do so, according to their own reports. Others, however, quoted 21¼c, but whether they had the goods for sale or were willing to buy at that figure is another question. Choice creamery, however, may be had at 21c and good to fine at 20¼c to 20⅝c. According to all accounts, the market shows no indication whatever of weakness, the opposite, if anything, being the condition. Certainly butter makers are having a rich harvest this season.

Receipts reported on the Board of Trade this morning amounted to 3933 packages.

POTATOES.—The market for potatoes experienced a decline this morning, as was expected. Receipts are constantly increasing, and so, for that matter, is demand. The crop is giving excellent promise of being large and of good quality. The quality of potatoes now offering is improving, and is at the present time fine and firm, the size being, however, a little on the small side. Loads were purchased on the market this morning by local merchants at $1.75 per barrel, and these were disposed of in singles at about $2 per barrel.

BEANS.—Demand is fair and the market high. Prices are steady at $1.65 to $1.70.

POTASH. — Potash is quoted lower, with very little enquiry. First pots, $5 to $5.05; seconds, $4.55. First pearls wanted at $7.

WOOL CLIP IN TERRITORIES.

It Will Amount to About 700,000 Pounds This Year.

Winnipeg, July 19.—The outlook for the wool clip in the Territories is splendid. The total will be about 700,000 pounds, of which Alberta will give about 290,000, Medicine Hat 60,000, Walsh 90,000, and Maple Creek 220,000.

The best class of Western wool is very fine, almost pure merino, and will clean up to 60 per cent. of scoured wool.

SALMON NOW RUNNING FAST.

Boats on Fraser and Traps on Sound Getting Large Catch of Sockeyes.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B. C., July 19.—Sockeye salmon are running fast in the Frazer River.

The average per boat is increasing daily, and high boats are catching 150.

Traps on the Puget Sound are making average catches of 3000.

DOMINION DeFOREST WIRELESS TELEGRAPH COMPANY, LIMITED

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL.

AFTER AUGUST 1st

The monthly distribution of 2 per cent. per month, payable in Dominion DeForest interest bearing shares, will only be paid to shareholders of record of that date, but will be paid to them for a period of

2 YEARS.

The Underwriters of the Company will from this date pay to all shareholders of record

payable quarterly on the 15th of March, June, September and December, and will insure this payment until such time as the Directors of the above Company declare a dividend equal to the same amount.

The shares of the Dominion DeForest Wireless Telegraph Company, Limited, have a most wonderful future before them, and undoubtedly the Advance in Price in the Near Future will be very rapid.

The Dominion DeForest Company controls, besides the most perfect system of wireless telegraphy, the following specialties:

WIRELESS FOR RAILROADS,

whereby messages can be sent or received to and from trains running as rapidly as 60 miles per hour, with a safety device in the locomotive cab causing a bell to ring and a red light to flash whenever two trains get within two miles of each other, or if there is an open switch ahead.

This system has been adopted by the

and arrangements are now being perfected with the following roads:
Union Pacific, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western,
Seaboard Air Line. Illinois Central.

Up to within the last few weeks it was impossible for any new wireless company to put up a transatlantic station in Great Britain and Ireland.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT has just granted a license to the DeForest Company to build transatlantic stations, and sites are now being selected in Ireland and Scotland.

Arrangements are now being perfected for the immediate installation of a transatlantic station to connect with the

which is now in process of construction on the West Coast of Ireland.

This station will be completed by January 1st, 1906, and the earnings, based upon a reduction of 40 per cent in the present cable rate, should be equal to net our shareholders over

50 PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

In connection with the DeForest System over fifty stations are already established and in operation. Montreal, the principal commercial city of Canada, and Quebec City stations are now completed, and doing commercial business with the principal cities of the United States.

All orders received up to and including July 31st, will be accepted at $5.00 per share on the foregoing terms.

Write for prospectus and information regarding Company, or send in your subscription immediately. The shares are five dollars each, full-paid and non-assessable. Address all correspondence, and make all remittances to HUMPHREY & COMPANY, 160 St. James Street, - - - MONTREAL, CANADA.

The St. Lawrence Coal Company, LIMITED.
AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, $500,000.
$250,000 6% Preferred. $250,000 Common.
Par Value of Shares, $100.00 each.

The Company owns at North Sydney, C.B., 700 acres of valuable coal areas known as the Collins Coal Areas, with over 5,000,000 tons in sight of the best known bituminous coal in Canada, known as the OLD SYDNEY MINES COAL. 25,000 tons have already been raised and sold, and the demand for coal is such that the Company can sell at a good profit all the coal it can raise.

Coal Seams on The Property

The principal seams of coal which have been developed are the Edwards, No. 3, and the Collins. There are five other seams of undetermined thickness, which crop out on the property, it will be necessary to thoroughly prospect them to ascertain the quantity of coal contained therein.

Another seam thought to be celebrated Mullins 7 ft., seam, outcrops a few yards beyond the South Western limits of the area, and as all the seams dip to the Eastward it must underlie the entire property.

According to Prof. E. J. Chapman's report:

The Edwards Seam averages between five and six feet in thickness and contains in gross tons	1,205,680
The No. 3 Seam averages between three and four feet, and contains in gross tons	1,166,786
The Collins Seam varies from five to six feet in thickness and underlies about 380 acres and contains in gross tons	2,955,858
	5,328,324
This amount of coal has been proven by extensive workings. Add to the above the coal contained in the largest seam which is known to underlie the whole property, but has not been developed as yet	5,445,000
And we have in gross tons	10,773,324

The probabilities are that the other five seams combined should contain at least an equal amount, so that the available coal will exceed twenty million tons of the best coal known in Canada.

SPECIAL OFFER.

One thousand shares of the 6 Per Cent. Guaranteed Preferred Stock are offered for subscription on the following terms:—

THE NON-PAYMENT OF WATER TAXES

One Third of Citizens Have Not Paid and Will Be Disqualified.

DISQUALIFICATION CLAUSE

Aldermen Getting Ready to Consider a Proposal to Do Away With It.

A report has been completed at the City Hall showing that the total amount collected for water last year amounted to no less than $757,000. This is considered to be a very large sum when compared with the population of Montreal and when compared with the householders of the city.

What is most interesting about the report is the table showing how the water rates were paid by the respective wards. The report, which is as follows, also demonstrates that the western wards pay the lion's share of the rates:

Wards	Total amount collectible.
East	$14,856
Centre	25,945
West	39,235
St. Ann's	52,035
St. Joseph	42,067
St. Andrew	57,235
St. George	90,278
St. Lawrence	74,256
St. Louis	71,756
Lafontaine	43,488
St. James	35,724
Papineau	45,454
St. Mary's	18,324
Hochelaga	16,925
Duvernay	12,999
St. Jean Baptiste	31,618
St. Gabriel	24,569
St. Denis	......

The outstanding amount is shown to be no less than $130,000, while, as stated, when finally made up the total amount collected last year for water was $757,000.

PECULIAR FEATURES OF TAX.

The report shows some peculiar features of the water tax. It demonstrates that fully one third of the citizens have not paid the rate. These are persons who chiefly reside in small houses in the east end. Another peculiar feature is that at the next civic elections fully one-third of the entire electorate will be disfranchised for non-payment of the tax. The City Charter has a unique clause which allows the aldermen to disfranchise a citizen should he not pay his tax before a specified time in the autumn. This wholesale disfranchising is to receive the attention of the City Council after the holidays, and strong pressure is now being brought on many members of Council to have this obnoxious clause struck from the charter.

Aldermen have been given to understand that the killing of this clause will be one of the chief cries at the next elections. In order to abolish the clause an application will likely have to be made to the Legislature.

A city father, being interviewed to-day in regard to the remodelling of the charter in this connection said: "It is true that in the autumn the City Council is to take up the important subject of killing the clause which disfranchises an entire third of the electorate because of non-payment of the water tax. Many aldermen have received petitions lately asking that this reform take place. For my part I think the clause should be killed. In the first place it is not right that the city should make $300,000 profit annually on water, and then disfranchise a host of householders because they cannot afford to pay the heavy rates. I have reasons to believe that but few aldermen would care about voting against a motion to kill the famous clause. What the City Council must do is to reduce the price of water and also to put an end to a civic clause that is nothing less than barbarous."

In the City Treasurer's Department there has been a statement prepared showing just what houses were deprived of water last year, and also this season, because of non-payment of the water tax. The figures show that the custom of punishing a citizen by cutting off the water for non-payment of the water rates is falling off very considerably. In cases, however, where citizens can pay and will not do so no leniency is shown. In the past the custom was to deprive poor persons of water. This led to disease breaking out in houses. Recently this method was so roundly condemned that the city has been much more lenient with those who are really poor, or who have illness in their houses.

The outlook now is that in the autumn the City Council will devote much time to the entire water rate question. It is pretty well understood that the aldermen will not face the electors again with the water rates at their present high figure.

THE AUTOMOBILE IN TEXAS.

"I have just returned from a tour of the great ranching region of Western Texas," said a salesman, "and, as it is my custom to make that belt at least twice a year, it comes easy for me to note progress.

"No man who has not visited it in recent months can even surmise the great change worked by the automobile. Why, the latter has now brought points more than a hundred miles distant from the railways into the closest touch with civilization. What used to be days of travel between distant ranches and railway stations is now merely a matter of a very few hours.

"Nearly all the ranchmen own their automobiles, and you can see them skimming the broad prairie in every direction, at times frightening the jack-rabbits and the coyotes and striking consternation to the hearts of hoot owls and the rattlesnakes.

"With the passing of the cowboy has almost come the passing of the cow pony, too, for on several big ranches I actually saw men rounding up the herds in automobiles. For the most part the country in the great ranching region of Texas is level or slightly rolling, making the finest place in the world for the automobile. All along the Southern Pacific to the west and the Texas and Pacific and Fort Worth and Denver railroads dozens of automobiles are to be seen from car windows, standing at stations where the buggy and the ranch waggons used to be."—Houston Post.

HE STOOD THE TEST.

A story about President Roosevelt's boyhood days is of interest at this time. He was about to be made a member of one of the college societies, and it is a rule in such cases to make a test of a boy's will and nerve. The young men who had this test in charge took Teddy to one of the main streets of Cambridge, and placed him between the tracks of a street car line. He was told not to move from this spot no matter at what cost, or who told him to step aside. In a short time a car came so close to him that he could feel the breath of the horses upon his face, but he did not move an inch or wink an eye. The driver brought his team to a halt, and yelled a warning to the slim young man who blocked his way; the passersby stared at him in surprise, and those of the car stood up in terror, but still he made no move. Soon there were two or three cars in line, and the block was stopped only when the conductor got Teddy out of the way by main force. But no sooner had the cars sped on than the young man again took his place in the middle of the track, stopped another car, and was again shoved aside, but for the third time he took his grim stand between the tracks. Then so large a crowd was present that there came a cry of "Police!" The young men in charge of the test told him that he had stood it well, and amid cheers led him back to his room.

PURE MILK IS LIFE TO THE BABIES OF MONTREAL

The Movement Started Here Last Year, and It Is Saving Infant Life—More Can Be Done When People Appreciate What It Means.

EPITOME OF PURE MILK MOVEMENT.

The idea has been taken from France, where the pioneer institution was founded by a hospital at Nancy in 1890.

In 1892 the first public pure milk depot was established by Dr. Variot in Paris, and fifty European cities have adopted the movement.

The Pure Milk League, established in Montreal last year, now distributes 400 bottles of modified milk daily.

The League has now 50 babies on its lists, but is prepared to provide for 5000, if the demand is made.

Three dilutions of milk of different degrees of strength are prepared. Unfortunately many mothers do not realize the great necessity of giving their infants more dilute food during the warm weather.

In a recent speech President Roosevelt said a nation which had not homes—real homes—was in a bad way. It would have been in keeping with his views if he had also said that the home without a baby was not a real home, and that the nation or municipality which did not take thought for its little ones was in a sad way.

Throughout the civilized world new interest is being taken in the welfare of babyhood—that universal sovereignty. Some will declare they are moved to it by an increasing sense of national or civic responsibility, but for the majority of people the impulse lies in just the wonderful way baby has with him, tugging at the world's heart-strings, confidently appealing from his own helplessness.

Montreal, with its many long-established charities for orphaned or afflicted children, has again aroused to a sense of new duties which are pleasant in the performing. Efforts to provide pure milk for infants during the summer were first begun about four years ago. A sense of the unusually large infant mortality of this city moved Doctors Dube, Cormier, Foucher and Clearoux to set on foot an enterprise to secure proper food for the little ones.

Helped, now by this benevolent person, now by that, the work struggled along until last year it obtained civic recognition through the assistance of Dr. Dagenais, the present wide-awake Chairman of the Board of Health. The doctor secured an appropriation of $500 from the Finance Committee, and a Pure Milk League was formed, with Dr. Evans, Dr. Cormier, Dr. Blackader, Dr. Boucher, Dr. Dube and Dr. Clearoux as moving spirits.

Such excellent work was done then by the League in its "modifying" headquarters at Archambault's, St. Denis street, and in two distributing depots, that new life was imparted to the movement. Over 500 bottles of milk were distributed daily, and the babies fed on the modified milk-food thrived. More general interest was expressed in the work, and Dr. Dagenais succeeded in moving the Finance Committee to double the appropriation for this summer.

GROWTH OF LEAGUE.

Another thousand dollars was donated by a benevolent friend of the helpless little ones, and the League began to have ambitions. A large upstairs room was secured at 208 St. Charles Borromee st. and fitted up for the sterilizing and modifying process. The room is large and airy, with much window and door space. The walls and ceilings are of stained wood, the fittings simple and hygienic. A high stand of zinc-lined shelves, packed with ice, holds the small basket-crates of bottles. A long sink, used for washing the bottles, will be fitted next week with water-wheels having brushes attached, on which the bottles will be washed by machinery. A small sterilizing apparatus, now in the centre of the room, will be replaced by a suitable sterilizing plant, which will enable the superintendent to sterilize all the milk received at the depot.

Besides the headquarters there are four distributing depots in the city at the following drug stores:

Point St. Charles—Fortier's, Centre street.

Montreal (North)—Archambault's, St. Denis street.

Montreal (Centre)—Leduc's, Chaboillez square.

Montreal (East)—Barolet, Ontario st.

The League is working actively now to spread a knowledge of the depots and the benefits to be derived therefrom. A circular will be sent to all members of the medical profession, with prescription blanks, to give their patients.

Three or four more depots will be opened within a few weeks, and a printed set of instructions for caring for infants in summer will be distributed among the public.

AT HEADQUARTERS.

Miss Caswell, who has completed a course of training as nurse in a children's hospital, is in charge of the league's headquarters. Here from 5.30 each morning until 9 o'clock Miss Caswell is busily engaged mixing the milk in the different formulae prescribed by the physicians. The milk, which is procured from Trenholme's dairy in Montreal West, is kept on ice continuously en route from the dairy and after its arrival.

"It is very cool and pleasant here in the morning," the young superintendent says, and looking out at the wide yard and the ancient willow trees pushing their branches over to the big windows, one can readily understand the pleasantness. "Of course, the front on St. Charles street does not look inviting—there are so many tenements around, but it is all right when you are once in the courtyard. When I come each morning I mix the milk according to these formulae:

No. 1.

Milk	1 quart.
Sugar of milk	4 ounces.
Lime water	8 ounces.
Water	2¾ quarts.

No. 2.

Milk	1 quart.
Sugar of milk	3 ounces.
Lime water	1 ounce.
Sufficient water to make 2 quarts.

No. 3.

Milk	1 quart.
Barley water	1 quart.
Granulated sugar	2 ounces.
Table salt	15 grains.

"These formulae are intended for babies of different ages. We also supply in some cases plain sterilized milk. We make a small charge for all milk sold, unless a mother brings the league a certificate from doctor or clergyman that she is unable to pay for it.

MEN ARE REASONABLE.

"Sometimes men come for the milk, and I find them very reasonable people to deal with. They take the counsel about how the baby should be fed in a more grateful way than many of the mothers, for, of course, they do not feel they know all about it. I only hope they impress their wives with what they have heard when they return home, for a great many women do not know how to care properly for their children or how to feed them in summer time. That is the main reason of the high infant mortality here."

"Have you noticed much improvement in any of the children this year?"

"Why, yes. We only started two weeks ago, and in the first week one woman's child gained ten ounces in weight. She objected strongly at first to the regular hours set by the doctor for feeding the baby and to the limited amount of food prescribed, but the evidence of the scales has made her a complete convert to our methods."

This mention of scales brought us to another part of the league's work, and a rather interesting portion, too, as witnessed at the distributing depot. Every baby on the league's roster must be weighed once a week. Placed on a towel, with small fists clenched and chubby legs twisted, each helpless little mite of humanity soon learns not to fear this strange process, usually tipping the scales a little more each week.

One child, whose food is supplied from the depot at Barolet's, Ontario street, gained a pound in a week. This depot, attended as are the others every forenoon by a nurse, receives daily 24 baskets of bottles for infants. Each baby is known to the nurse by a definite number, and this, borne on a tin tag, is affixed to his special basket. The system is necessary for the variety in the quantity and formulae of the food supplied would make confusion harmful.

THE BOTTLES.

The bottles, which contain eight ounces of liquid, resemble somewhat in shape the head of an Indian club. They are corked with non-absorbent cotton, which has been sterilized. The food must, by the league's orders, remain always in these bottles, which are carefully sterilized each time they reach headquarters. The old-fashioned long rubber tube is forbidden by the physicians, and only an ordinary nipple fastened to the top of the bottle. This naturally necessitates the bottle being held to the infant's mouth, and obviates the possibility of the child-feeding, as it sometimes does now, with the nursing bottle side it for an indefinite length of time.

The full benefits to be derived from the league's work remain to be seen, but in New York, where the first depots were established twelve years ago by Nathan Straus, a benevolent Hebrew, fine results have been attained. While the infant mortality for all New York last year was 145 per 1000 in the districts—and they were tenement districts where this milk was distributed—the rate was only 16 per 1000. A nurse of the Victorian Order, who has witnessed the good results of similar milk leagues in American cities, expresses regretful surprise that while Montreal has a league willing to supply the pure milk at an almost nominal cost, there is so little use made of it. Both physicians and parents should adopt the plan more readily.

Dr. A. D. Blackader, president of the Pure Milk League, and Dr. Dagenais, chairman of the Health Committee, speak in the most hopeful terms of the future growth of the benevolent work and the benefits that may be expected to accrue from it. The mothers of Montreal need to be made realize, they agree, how much depends upon regularity in hours of feeding and cleanliness in the care of their children during the summer.

PUBLIC RELUCTANT.

Dr. Evans, also an enthusiastic member of the league, said to the Star:

"We are prepared to supply every infant in the city with pure milk, if only the public come forward and make the demand. For some reason people seem reluctant to use the milk just as they were in New York, when Nathan Straus began the work. Now so great is the demand there that, although Straus' laboratory turns out 10,000 bottles a day and a large bulk supply, he has to ask the city to help him meet the increased demand this year.

"Some mothers fancy our formulae do not contain sufficient nourishment. They forget that just as adults do babies require more dilute food in the summer, and should drink more water—careful always that this has been boiled first. They persist in giving too much sugar or sweets to the infants, and so cause diarrhoea, with all its result on the mortality rate. They should learn more about the care of children, as they are responsible for their well-being. Why, some of them do not even seem to know that their child should be kept very lightly clad in summer—but always out of draughts. This with the food question constitute the main points in the proper care of the child."

Harry Christie, aged 15, of Owen Sound, Ont., was drowned at Balmy Beach, where the family are summering.

Will Not Be Transcontinental Line.

A report that the Vancouver, Victoria and Eastern, the new road which Great Northern interests intend to build in British Columbia, is to be made part of a new trans-continental line through Canada, as has been reported, has been denied by Mr. James J. Hill, in an interview published by the Times.

"Such a suggestion is nonsense," said the capitalist, "there is no such plan. A large part of the territory in British Columbia and Northern Washington is practically identical in character and distinguished in no way, one part from the other, except by drawing an imaginary line. The new road will cross and re-cross the frontier, following the streams that run through that territory. It will furnish means of transportation to a rich, low grade ore country."

No Early Dissolution of Parliament.

London, July 19.—Premier Balfour has dissipated the hopes of his opponents of an early dissolution of Parliament. At a meeting of Unionists yesterday the Premier urged his supporters to be regular in attendance at the House of Commons so as to prevent the defeat of the Government as the result of a snap division. He pointed out that a dissolution in August would be inconvenient to the House and to the country. The Premier said he did not anticipate any trouble in bringing the session to a close during the week ending August 12.

Joseph Chamberlain, in a brief speech, said that while he formerly differed with Mr. Balfour in thinking there should be an early dissolution, he now thought there was no good reason why Parliament should be dissolved so soon.

THE GREATER MONTREAL SCHEME.

The Village of Villeray and Its Conditions—The Various Suburbs of the City Which May Go to Make Up Greater Montreal.

The question whether there shall be a Greater Montreal or not, has aroused considerable interest in some of the outlying municipalities which are likely to be absorbed. The majority of Montrealers know the whereabouts and make up of the larger surrounding municipalities, but perhaps to many the small village of Villeray is practically unknown.

This gathering of cottages with here and there a brick house, is well past the northern end of St. Denis Boulevard, and may be reached by travelling further towards Back River on the Park and Island car.

The population of Villeray, according to the last census was 661. The majority of these people live in the familiar furnished frame house often covered with tar paper, but quite frequently entirely bare boards are left as the exterior. There are quite a few brick houses but the greater number are of the plainer type.

This municipality covers an area of about 69 acres, of which, it will be interesting to note that, the writer was informed, 39 of these acres are the property of the Sun Life Insurance Company.

The village has a debt of $22,500, while the revenue from taxes and licenses amounts to about $1,400. An aqueduct is being laid which accounts for $12,500 of the debt. There is a municipality building valued at $3,500, and at present the School Commissioners of the place are building a small convent which will cost about $4,000.

Villeray has also gone outside of her own municipality, having bought land in order that a road might be constructed to join Villeray with Cote St. Michel. The road runs through the adjoining land for a distance of about ten acres. This road was macadamized by the people of Villeray at a cost of $1,725.

The people of Villeray for the most part are employed in Montreal, although about one-eighth of the residents work in the stone quarries, which are in the adjoining village of Letang.

No denomination is represented other than the Roman Catholic, which owns a large and well built brick church.

The Mayor of Villeray is M. Corbeau and the secretary is M. Aimee Venne. M. Joseph Filion is Pro Mayor, and the Council is made up of Messrs. Taillefer, Maheux, S. B. Binette, S. P. Binnette, G. Rainville.

Regarding annexation with Montreal the secretary said that although some were not in favor of the scheme, he thought the majority were inclined to seek the protection of Montreal.

Adjoining Villeray, on the western side, and running parallel north and south, is the town of Letang, separated from Villeray only by a narrow street.

Letang is in the municipality of St. Laurent, in spite of the distance separating the two places.

The village is similar to Villeray, although the houses are not as well built. There is a population of about 400, and nearly all of these people are dependent on stone-cutting in the adjacent quarries.

There is a debt of about $2,000, and a revenue of $200.

The municipal officers are those of the municipality of St. Laurent. The Mayor is M. Marcel Groux, the secretary for schools M. Tasse, and the secretary of the municipality is M. Crevier. Practically all of the residents of Pt. Letang are in favor of the annexation idea.

Some Interesting Health Statistics.

According to a document prepared at the City Hall, no less than 164 contagious diseases of various kinds were reported in June, and of this number 110 were measles, Diphtheria amounted to 28, scarlet fever 20, and typhoid to but 6.

St. Louis Ward and St. Lawrence Ward led the list with 22 cases each of measles, St. Ann's and St. Gabriel's following with 14 and 12 respectively.

For diphtheria St. Gabriel's Ward, Lafontaine Ward, and St. Louis Ward were the most noteworthy, but none was very high. St. Ann's and Papineau Wards led in the figures for scarlet fever.

The Hawkesbury Explosion Inquest.

JAPAN'S TERMS NOT MODERATE

So Says the Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain.

THE SPOILS FOR THE VICTOR

Japan is in a Condition to Continue War Indefinitely Unless Her Terms are Granted.

London, July 19.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister here, said to the representative of the Associated Press to-day that Russia had appointed good men as peace plenipotentiaries. Nevertheless, M. Witte, and Baron Rosen had not inspired Japan with confidence in a favorable outcome of the negotiations.

"We do not know," the Minister added, "what powers have been delegated to them and after the events of the past eighteen months Japan puts faith only in accomplished facts. The terms will be communicated only at the conference. Then we will discover what powers the Russian plenipotentiaries possess."

The Associated Press correspondent suggested that the general opinion prevailed that the Japanese terms will be moderate.

"I cannot see where people get such an idea," replied the Minister. "The public evidently mistakes the Japanese for angels."

Minister Hayashi intimated that Japan was ready to continue the war unless she secures suitable terms. He called attention to the fact that practically the entire sum realized by the last two loans was unexpended and said the capture of the Island of Sakhalin was not precipitated by the approach of the conference, but was a natural sequence of the Japanese campaign, the plans for which had not been altered since Russia acceded to a conference. An earlier attack on the island was not undertaken, principally because of the severe winter, and because the summer season was more preferrable for compaigning and the establishment of a new government in the island.

DROWNED IN SIGHT OF FAMILY

Father and Son Perished Before Eyes of Mother and Children.

Southampton, L. I., July 19.—A tragic and pathetic ending has come to the yearly outing of Geo. A. Hulz, a South American carpenter, and his family of eight. Hulz and his 11-year-old son lost their lives by drowning, while Mrs. Hulz and the six little ones looked on helpless to render aid.

The party had gone to the beach at Seboric Creek, and the boy was bathing while the others watched him from the shore. He was unable to swim, and when he ventured beyond his depth the father rushed to his assistance.

Both were caught in a strong current and dragged down to death.

With the aid of a clam-digger, which she found a mile away from the beach, Mrs. Hulz succeeded in getting the bodies ashore, but by that time they were beyond help.

All day long the woman and her little children guarded the bodies of their father and son as they lay on the beach.

She was relieved of her vigil when the coroner came many hours after the drowning and took charge of the remains.

Worse Than Coal Oil Trick.

Newberry, Mich., July 19. — By a gasoline explosion in his house at McMillan, nine miles west of here, Daniel Long was fatally burned, his three-year-old daughter was burned to a crisp, and his wife broke her neck by jumping from a second story window, and will die. The house was burned to the ground. Long used some gasoline to build a fire in the kitchen, and it exploded, the blazing gasoline flying all over the lower floor of the house. Almost instantly the lower part of the house was in flames. The little girl was overlooked in the confusion.

Will Be Appointed Bishop of Sydney.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax, N.S., July 19.—It is said that a number of important clerical changes affecting leading parishes in the Catholic diocese of Antigonish are shortly to be announced.

Rev. D. H. Thompson, who has been rector of St. Francois Xavier College and who has been selected as successor to Bishop Cameron, will assume charge of the parish of Sydney in order that he may become eligible for the bishopric.

Was Killed In Collision.

Chicago, July 19.—One man was killed, another fatally injured, and twenty persons were hurt yesterday, several seriously, in a collision between a construction train and a passenger train on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway, near Rome, Ill. THE PHILIPPINE SITUATION.

United States Troops Have Suppressed Disorder and Lawlessness.

Manila, July 19.—The campaign in Cavite and Batangas provinces against the Pulanjes and Ladrones has ended. Col. Edgerly will recall the troops, leaving the constabulary to maintain order. Organized ladronism has been suppressed. The combined army and constabulary captured in the campaign 311 guns, and killed seven troublesome leaders. Of the original bands, estimated to have numbered 700 men, the half of them have been killed or scattered and dozens have been sentenced to long terms of imprisonment.

Some Lawson Epigrams.

The surest, safest, and most natural process of restitution is the application of the "system's" own methods to the sytem.

Frenzied financiers never own outright the stocks and bonds that stand in their names.

The robber transgresses the laws of God and man, but they who allow themselves to be robbed infringe the laws of manhood and the first law of nature, self-preservation.

When a great free people submit to being robbed they are on the way to being made slaves.

Slavery as surely follows robbery endured as the bit and saddle the capture of the mustang.

The "system" of to-day has a tax on every motion and function of our lives.

Our forefathers threw off the yoke as quickly as they felt its pressure; we cringe in terror at the command, "Make way for His Majesty the Millionaire!"

It is human nature to go with the crowd, and the part of the raven pessimist to make moan and groan in the midst of festivity.

The high mystery woven round finance by the "system's" opinion mouldders is all moonshine.

This talk of mysteriousness is just the conjuror's patter to draw your attention away from the apparatus where the magic is being performed; it's absolute rot.

When our nation was organized it was on a basis that all Americans were free and equal and that the country belonged to its people.

What the American people shall receive for the products of their labor or their capital; what they shall receive for their labor itself, labor of body or mind, is as despotically established for them as if they were actually the mind and body slaves of these few men, as though the law said:—"You are not free, you are not equal, only as these few men allow you to be."

The country waxes richer every year, but for whose profit? For the profit of the few who are compelling you to pay the greater part of every dollar you earn for your necessities and luxuries.

You are actually paying interest to your railroads and your other great corporations on your own prosperity, which they have capitalized.

William F. Hubbard, aged 28, a forest assistant in the forest service of the United States Department of Agriculture, was drowned in the Potomac River, near Great Falls, Md.

Deaf People — Talk With a Man Who Was Deaf for 25 Years and Can Now Hear As Well As Anyone.

Mr. George P. Way was deaf for over 25 years, and could scarcely hear a word of ordinary conversation. Being an electrical engineer and an inventor of considerable ability, he went to work to contrive some method of restoring his lost hearing.

The result of these years of investigation and research is the Way Ear Drum, a remarkable little instrument, which makes the deaf to hear, and which has caused thousands to rejoice over the blessing of having their lost hearing restored.

The Way Ear Drum is very small, and is placed inside the ear entirely out of sight. It is made of the softest silk rubber, and is worn with entire comfort. It can scarcely be felt when in position, and no one but yourself need know you have it. And yet this little contrivance makes all the difference in the world to the person wearing it. It enables him to hear distinctly sounds that he could never hear without it. It gives a new hold on life to those who have considered themselves as separated forever from their fellowmen by the barrier of deafness.

All who are deaf should call at once and consult Mr. Way.

Mr. Way is accompanied by Dr. Frances H. Way, who is also a specialist on the ear, and its diseases. They will be at the WINDSOR HOTEL ALL THIS WEEK, UNTIL SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 22

HOUSE CONCLUDES BUSINESS.

Prorogation Cannot Be Announced Until Senate Finishes Up.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, July 19.—The House yesterday completed the business of the session, and on the motion to adjourn, made at four o'clock, the Prime Minister stated that the time of prorogation could not be definitely announced, because the Senate had not completed their consideration of two important measures—meaning the two bills establishing the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

All the bills providing for increases to salaries and indemnities were finally passed, that respecting the salaries of judges being amended so as to provide that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories shall receive annually $7,000, and each of the puisne judges $6,000 a year. The Minister of Justice stated that at present the Supreme Court of the Territories was composed of a chief justice and five puisne judges, but it was expected that when the new provinces organized their courts four judges for each would be required.

On motion of the Minister of Finance the House then went into committee of ways and means to provide out of the consolidated revenue fund for the supplies voted since the first supply bill was sanctioned earlier in the session. The balance of supply for the fiscal year which ended on June 30 last amounted to $160,430, and the balance for the current fiscal year amounted to $25,794,975. The resolutions were carried and a supply bill based thereon was introduced, given three readings and passed.

That concluded the business of the House, which was reached on the one hundred and twenty-seventh sitting of the session.

The Prime Minister then announced that His Excellency the Governor-General would reach Ottawa at noon to-day, but owing to the unfinished state of the business of the Senate the time of prorogation could not be fixed.

The House then adjourned.

RUSHED THE DEAL THROUGH.

Fearing An Injunction Ottawa Closes With the Consumers Company.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 19.—Fearing that an injunction would be served, the Mayor and City Council hurriedly completed the bargain for the purchase of the Consumers' Electric Company. The company will be known as the Ottawa Electric Company. Bonds to the par value of $200,000 were handed over to the Consumers' Company, and it handed over to the city the deed to its property. A bill was passed by the Federal Parliament during the present session giving the Ottawa Electric Company power to increase its rates for electricity. This led the City Council to seek the authority of the people to purchase the Consumers' company. A by-law was passed by a large majority, and negotiations were entered into. As a result the city is now in the possession of a fine electric plant, with a contract for electric energy at $15 per horse-power. The municipal authorities claim that this is the cheapest price which any municipality in the world is getting.

ROYALTY SEEKING DIVORCE.

Philip of Coburg Wants Separation from Leopold's Daughter.

Gotha, July 19.—Prince Philip of Coburg has filed a petition for divorce from the Princess Louise, who is the daughter of King Leopold.

The Princess Louise came into prominence first some eight years ago, when her relations with Lieutenant Matassich Kegilvitch, then of the Austrian army, caused her husband and family to put her under close restraint, in which she remained till August 10 of last year, when she escaped from her attendants at Badelsea, where she was taking the cure. She was aided in her escape by Kegilvitch and her physician. Her husband and his relatives declared her insane, and she was examined by Italian and French specialists, who pronounced her sane. She has been living in Italy and France since her escape.

New Flour Mill for Keewatin.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 19. — The Keewatin Flour Mills Company, Limited, of Ottawa, has contracted with the MacDonald Engineering Company, of Chicago, to erect at Keewatin, Ont., a large fireproof milling and elevator plant, the cost to be in the vicinity of $750,000. Both buildings will be entirely of steel-concrete construction. The mill will have an output of 5,000 barrels per day, and the elevator will have a storage capacity of half a million bushels. Work will be commenced at once, as the contract calls for the completion of the plant early next year. It also provides for the development of 2,000 horse-power on the water privilege owned by the company at Keewatin, which will be used for driving the mill and elevator and furnishing electric current. Mr. John Mather, of Ottawa, is president of the company, and Mr. Geo. Burn vice-president. A number of other local men are interested in the venture, having invested to a considerable extent.

Gave Suicide a Christian Burial.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—Harry Marryot Martin, a young English journalist committed suicide in High Park, last week, and the remains were buried Saturday in a pauper's grave.

Upon reading the account in the papers of the unfortunate young man's remains being interred in a pauper's grave, without religious service of any kind, Mrs. E. L. M. Wilson, was indignant, and at her own expense ordered the body exhumed and buried in her own family plot with religious service.

Rev. Canon Walsh, rector at St. James Cathedral, conducted the services at the second interment yesterday.

INQUEST ON BETSY JACOBS.

Evidence Adduced Points to Bennett as the Murderer.

Brantford, Ont., July 19.—The coroner's inquest into the cause of the death of Betsy Jacobs, the old Indian woman who was murdered on the Brantford reservation, was resumed at Oswego before Coroner Fisette and Crown Attorney McEwen. With the evidence produced the jury brought in a verdict that she came to her death at the hands of some one unknown to the jury, but that the evidence adduced justified them in saying that the guilt is strongly brought home against one Joseph Bennett, who is also an Indian, and who was captured near Cayuga after some days' chase, and is now in Brantford gaol awaiting trial on suspicion of being the murderer.

Brother Struck Brother With a Spade.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Stratford, Ont., July 19.—Richard and John Stewart, two unmarried brothers, living together in Logan Township, about two miles from Mitchell, quarrelled and John, it is stated, struck Richard on the head with a spade, inflicting a wound about three inches long which has placed the victim in a precarious condition.

The cause of the trouble could not be learned, but it is claimed that John is somewhat weak-minded.

Unworthy of Notice Say Mellen.

New Haven, Conn., July 19.—President Mellen, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway, was asked about the serious charge made in the Connecticut Legislature last Friday by Senator O'Donovan, of Norfolk, to the effect that a Senator had received $10,000 for his vote from the railway company. "There is no truth in the charge, and the story is not worthy of notice."

To Improve Hull's Water Supply.

Ottawa, Ont., July 19.—A board of expert engineers have recommended the Hull council to put in a steel intake pipe for the water works and to make improvements costing $44,000. The festivities in connection with the visit of the British squadron to Brest, France, were concluded yesterday.

MOSCOW ASSEMBLY SCORES GOVERNMENT AND BOULIGIN'S PLANS

Declares in Favor of an Upper and Lower House, the Latter Elected by Universal Suffrage—Will Not Boycott the Government's Scheme.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—The Congress of Zemstvos met in Moscow yesterday.

The union associations sitting in Finland broke up this morning after adopting a resolution styling Minister Bouligin's reform scheme an insolent provocation on the part of an autocratic Government to the different nationalities composing the Russian Empire.

London, July 19.—The Moscow correspondent of the Times telegraphs the gist of the important resolutions that will be submitted to the Congress.

The keynote is uncompromising hostility to the Bouligin scheme, which, it is declared, cannot assure national representation in the real sense of the word, and cannot avert the danger threatening the country or bring it out of its present condition of anarchy.

The scheme is further declared to be based on an unfair and unjust franchise.

One resolution affirms: "That the notorious consequences of the irresponsible acts of public officials in the domain of foreign policy indicate the absolute need of following the example of western states where parliaments have the right to question and interpellate the foreign minister."

The organizing committee has decided, however, not to boycott the Government's scheme, but it urges the Zemstvoists and Dumaists to use every effort to get elected so as to form a compact group of deputies to fight for liberties and reforms.

The correspondent learns that the authorities have now intimated that the conference will not be interfered with.

There is considerable unrest among the mill operatives around Moscow. A famine is already prevailing in the Government of Tula. Soup kitchens have been opened, but private charity is insufficient and the Zemstvos are penniless.

London, July 19.—The Moscow correspondent of the Standard says that in addition to the topics it is already known the Zemstvo Congress will deal with, it will discuss a perfect draft of a constitution. This will follow closely the main principles of the Moscow municipality draft. It will propose two chambers, the upper one to be elected by the local government electorate, which appoints the Zemstvos and Dumos, and the lower one to be elected by universal suffrage.

The Standard's St. Petersburg correspondent says it is stated that the Government is so distrustful of the army officers that it cannot reject the notion that the Moscow Congress might have sufficient military support to proclaim itself a constituent assembly. The correspondent does not believe this, although he adds that suggestions of this nature have permeated the entire country. People associating with families that include military officers says that the complaint of officers that they have been ostracized since January 22, is bitter.

Odessa, July 19.—A large number of Jewish families are leaving here since the riots, owing to the ruining of trade. They are going to the United States and England and Argentina. Secret arrests continue. None of the prisoners are tried publicly. They simply disappear completely.

CHOLERA BREAKS OUT AMID THE RUSSIAN ARMY

The Envelopment of Vladivostok Almost Completed—Rumored Loss of American Vessel — To Double Track the Tran-Siberian.

Special Cable from a Montreal Star Correspondent.

Gen. Nogi's headquarters, Manchuria, July 19. — Cholera has cleared out the village of Telkaton, which lies on the Liao River, north of Kanping.

The epidemic became so virulent that the Russian cavalry stationed there fled along with all the inhabitants.

The heavy rains still continue. There is little fighting.

The Russians cannot arrest its advance.

RAISING SUNKEN SHIPS.

Tokio, July 19.—An officer who has arrived here from Port Arthur says that the Russian cruiser Bayan, which was sunk at Port Arthur, has been raised and towed into the inner harbor. The battleship Peresviet is navigable under her own engines. The battle ships Retvisan and Pobieda, and the other cruiser Pallada, are expected to be afloat before the middle of August. The attempts of the Russians to blow up their ships hardly damaged the vital parts.

"GOOD OFFICES."

CAPT. DOVER MADE POSSIBLE.

He Is Not on Canadian Team But Is Shooting for King's Prize.

Bisley Camp, July 19.— That the shooting over the first range, 200 yards, of the first stage of the King's prize, was good, may be gathered from the fact that 47 possibles and 125 34's were put on, while the 33's must have run up into the hundreds. The Canadians who got a good start were Capt. Dover, of the 78th, who is here on his own hook, with a possible, and Sergt. Moore, of Peterboro, and Sergt. Pugh, of Quebec, who both scored 34. Anyone with a score of 32 stands a good show of getting in the lucky three hundred who will fire in the second stage on Friday.

Lieut. Boult, of Vancouver, in shooting off with forty-seven others for first place in the Daily Graphic, finished 27th, winning 60 shillings.

The scores of the Canadians in the All Comers' aggregate, who fired in all four of the matches, were:

RUSSIA'S REPLY TO CHINA.

China Stated That Their Arrangements Would Not Be Final.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Russia has replied to China's note announcing that she will not be affected by any agreement that Russo-Japanese conference may reach.

Russia says that as the war is between her and Japan, the negotiations will be between them. Nevertheless, Russia, as a friend of China, recognizes that the latter is interested in certain questions to be discussed.

There is nothing in the reply, however, committing Russia to consider Chinese interests, or to consult them.

WHAT CHINA ASKED.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—It is said authoritatively that China did not ask admittance of delegates to the peace conference.

It intimated only that decisions by the conference relating to China could not be accepted as final until the consent of China had been formally given.

THE JAPANESE INDEMNITY.

Berlin, July 19.—The Boersen Courier says that M. Witte will stop in Paris en route to Washington for the purpose of negotiating with French financiers a loan to cover the indemnity that will be paid to Japan, which will probably amount to $2,500,000.

NORWAY ASKS RECOGNITION.

Special Envoy in the United States for That Purpose.

Chicago, July 19. —The Daily News says: "That the independent Norwegian Government is prepared to ask official recognition from the United States, and that special envoys have been in this country for some time looking over the ground as private citizens, prior to the assumption of diplomatic powers, with which they have been invested, developed last night with the return from New York of F. Herman Gade, mayor of Lake Forest, Ill. Mr. Gade is an active worker for an international status for Norway. He has been in New York for the last ten days in conference with J. Ottawa, July 19.—Dr. W. F. King, of the Dominion Observatory, will be in charge of the expedition to Hamilton Inlet to observe the complete eclipse of the sun, which is due August 30. He will sail from Quebec, August 2, with a party of astronomers and mechanics to establish the observatory station.

They will sail in the ship King Edward, which will return, and on August 21, take another contingent of scientists to the spot.

Mr. Waller Maunder, of the Royal Observatory, Greenwich, Eng., will be one of the party, and others will be from Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto. In all, there will be engaged on the great undertaking about 20 astronomers and 6 or 7 mechanics.

The eclipse will be visible in Canada, east of the 110th meridian. The central line of the path of the shadow begins generally in Long. 96 degrees 23 W., and Lat. 50 degrees 15 N., being a little S. E. of Winnipeg. Passing thence easterly inclining to north, it crosses James Bay and strikes the Atlantic ocean at Dominion Harbor, Labrador.

From Dominion Harbor, on the Labrador coast, the path of the shadow passes swiftly across the Atlantic to a point south of Luarca, in Spain, in 1 hour 6 minutes. Crossing the northern part of Spain, the Mediterranean Sea is reached in 10 minutes, and Assouan, in Egypt, on the Red Sea, in 1 hour 5 minutes later. The shadow then crosses the Red Sea, and the deserts of Arabia, finally ending near the Arabian Sea.

THE "TOWN TOPICS" AFFAIR.

Investigation of the Affairs of the Smart Journal Continues.

New York, July 19.—An investigation of the affairs of Town Topics," growing out of the arrest of Chas. H. Ahle on charges of blackmail preferred by Edwin M. Post, of the New York Stock Exchange, was begun yesterday by Assistant Attorney Paul Krotel, who intimated that the matter would be brought before the Grand Jury.

It is known that counsel for Town Topics refused to furnish the assistant attorney with a list of subscribers to the book of "Fads and Fancies of the Four Hundred," published under the auspices of the company.

Moses E. Wooster, member of the Society Editors' Association, who got up "Fads and Fancies," and also "American Smart Set," called on Mr. Krotel yesterday and furnished the criminal authorities a copy of the much talked of agreemnt between the Town Topics Publishing Company and himself. The agreement shows that Wooster engaged to secure subscribers for Fads and Fancies, all subscription contracts to be in the name of Town Topics Publishing Company; that the company was to secure an editor and have full supervision of printing and binding and that Wooster was to receive commissions of 10 per cent.out of subscriptions up to $50, and 20 per cent. on all in excess of that amount, the net profit to be equally divided between the parties thereto. Wooster further told Mr. Krotel that there was no fixed price for subscriptions to the book.

He also declared that the subscription of a woman prominent in society cost her $10,000, and while the minimum rate was $1.500 some subscribers had paid $3,000, and others as high as $7,000 for their books. This increased the amount obtained for the production of Fads and Fancies from $150,000 to more than $200,000.

A Cow Delayed Trains Into Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19—A cow strayed across the G.P.R. tracks a mile beyond Milton about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was struck by the Chatham local from Toronto. The result was that the engine and the baggage car left the tracks, and that while nobody on the train or cars was even slightly hurt, traffic was tied up for hours both ways.

THE CRISIS IN HUNGARY.

Lower House Issues a Manifesto Directed Against Government.

Budapest, July 19.—A majority of the members of the Lower House of the Diet has issued a manifesto appealing to local officials not to collect taxes and to the people not to pay them ,so long as the Fejervary Government continues to unconstitutionally usurp power in defiance of the hostile vote in the Lower House. The manifesto declares that if the Government dismisses officials for refusing to collect taxes, they will be fully recompensed when normal conditions are restored. Recruiting officers are similarly urged to cease operations.

LEADER OF A PEACEFUL REVOLUTION

MAYOR WEAVER, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, has in the past seemed to waver between "politics" and independence. But the attempt of the "gang" to defy the people in the matter of the proposed gas lease roused him to evidently sincere indignation. The stand Mayor Weaver has taken is positive and unqualified, and he is accepted to-day as the fighting chief of the forces which demand honest administration. In response to an address from a committee of business men which hailed him as "a tribune of the people," he said: "The fight has just started. With a united people in our city we shall and must go forward. Let us stand together for a pure and honest government for the people and by the people." The story of the fight against the brazen attempt of the Common Councils to sell out the interests of the people has been told and need not be here repeated. Where the Mayor had been expected to present only the feeble resistance of a veto sure to be overridden by the Councils, he struck at the root of the evil by removing peremptorily important office-holders whose retention was a matter of enormous political importance to the machine leaders. The people of the city, already aroused, recognized the fact that a worthy champion was in the field for their cause, and under Mayor Weaver's prompt and active leadership the "gang" retracted their action in the gas lease matter, and confessed defeat.

Strange Accident to Steamer.

Lexington, Ky., July 19. — News received here yesterday says that the steamer Shamrock, plying about Valleyview, on the Kentucky River, while carrying a party of fifty excursionists up the river, three miles from Valleyview, ran into a rope stretched from a log boom. The rope swept Miss Nancy Carpenter into the river and she was drowned.

The smoke stack was thrown down on George W. Hutchinson, probably fatally injuring him. Five others were badly hurt.

Mysteries of the Secret Press of Russia.

It is now eight and twenty years since a Jewish conspirator, Aaron Zundelevio by name, a native of Wilna, in Lithuania, came forward and assured the organisation to which he belonged that if they would find the means he would find the press, and would, moreover, set it up in St. Petersburg. A sum, of money was provided, and from abroad Aaron smuggled into St. Petersburg all the necessary plant. Then he set to work to learn the compositor's art (just as, in the first days of the propaganda, young nobles taught themselves a trade in order to go down "among the people"), and in 1877 the first "free" printing office worthy of the name was established in the heart and centre of spydom.

During four years Zundelevic ran his press under the nose, as it were, of the Third Section, and it was only then detected by a mere mischance. From that date, however, the Russian secret press has never been in a condition of absolute abeyance. As often as its work has been interrupted in one place it has been instantly resumed in another. Father Gapon indicates the spirit in which it is pursued: "We shall continue," he said, the other day at Geneva, "to launch manifestoes, and work steadfastly, but secretly, toward our ideal—the overthrow and suppression of the bureaucracy and the establishment of popular government. We will, we must, win in the end."

Mysterious in Everything.

This clandestine press is clandestine in everything. It is the most secretly conducted press in the world. There is no editorial office, with an editor in a snug inner chamber, receiving the visits of his contributors, discussing the articles for the next issue. A mystery and inviolate secrecy govern the whole working of the affair. The editor himself may or may not know the persons who are responsible for the mechanical production of the paper; he seldom, if ever, knows the place at which it is produced. A given spot on a given day to receive manuscripts from the editor's hand; he comes again to deliver the proofs; and the rendezvous is never twice the same. The contributors are known probably to none except the editor. In a word, precautions the most minute and extraordinary, must be observed if the secret press is successfully to baffle the everlasting efforts of the police to unmask it.

Stepniak tells us that during the time he was one of the editors of "Land and Liberty" he was taken once and once only to the printing office. An important piece of news had to be inserted in the number that was about to be issued, and he made his way to the office "in one of the central streets of the city." The chief of police had declared that this office could not possibly be in St. Petersburg, "because otherwise he would infallibly have discovered it." Stepniak found the people of the office, and the women who helped them and managed for them, living in almost absolute durance.

A Typical Secret Office

The workers of the secret press are, in fact, prisoners; and, in addition to their all but total loss of liberty, they endure the anxieties of people who are carrying on an illegal business in the midst of a ceaselessly vigilant police. Leo Tikhomirov, the author of "Conspirateurs et Policiers," has drawn a vivid picture of the hidden life of one of these strange undergrounds. It is the office of the paper with which Stepniak himself was associated, "Narodnaia Volia"—"Land and Liberty."

In five rooms, including a little kitchen, four conspirators were installed: two men and two women. Maria Krilloff, who passed as mistress of the house, a woman of about forty-five, had devoted her life to the "cause"; she had been transported to Siberia and had escaped. The other woman of the party was under twenty, fair and delicate; name unknown. Of the two men, one was Basil Buch, or Boukh, "the son of a general and the nephew of a senator." The second was a figure as enigmatic as the younger woman; he was known only as "Ptiza" "L'Oiseau" and "The Bird — a nickname which he owed to his voice. The men were entered as Mme. Krilloff's lodgers, the unknown woman was the nominal maid of the household.

CANADIAN DEPOT, 265 ONTARIO ST., KINGSTON, ONT.

Arrested at Last.

These four brought out the "Narodnaia Volia," which the head of police declared could not be produced in St. Petersburg. The plant of the paper consisted principally of a few cases of type, a small and a large cylinder, a jar or two of printer's ink, and a few brushes and sponges. It was a modest outfit, but remember how dark it must be kept. The dvornik—call him the concierge—had to be hoodwinked from day to day.

Maria Krilloff went upon the bold plan of sending for him at any and every hour, and conducting him through all the five rooms, under the pretence of hunting for a troublesome rat. They learned in this way how to dispose of the plant at from five to ten minutes' notice. At night, behind a double curtain of canvas, seated across the window, the type was set. In the strangling monotony of this existence, the workers tasted only one excitement, but that was a daily and an hourly one, the likelihood of discovery and arrest. So ever-present was this danger that it passed into a joke; and the ladies used to speculate at their meagre evening meal whether they would be hanged or transported to Siberia.

The expected happened at last at the office of the "Narodnaia Volia." One night the police came down on it. What they had reckoned on as an easy seizure transformed itself into a four hours' siege and battle. Maria Krilloff drew on the gendarmes with her revolver, and to a challenge of this sort the response is always prompt and merciless in St. Petersburg. The office was riddled with bullets, but for four hours the conspirators kept their stand. The survivor was the "Bird," who blew his brains out when the game was up. He has transmitted no name to posterity; he is among the Russian terrorists who have elected to be nothing but a memory. But while there are such to choose from the clandestine press is invincible.

One of the most interesting structures at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, now being held at Portland, Ore., is an exact reproduction of the Lincoln homestead at Springfield, Ill., the only home ever owned by the martyred President. Every room is reproduced in its exact size, and in the front parlor the visitor is told just where Lincoln stood on that day in the fall of 1860, when he was notified that he had been elected President of the United States. In the rear parlor is a collection of pictures and documents of vivid interest to those who like to study things of historic value. The life of Lincoln is represented by pictures and letters, the latter either in the original or in fac-simile, from his birth to his assassination. The rude little log cabin in Kentucky, where he was born, is shown, with portraits of his parents; pictures of Lincoln at various times in his career; letters written by Lincoln in his youth, his earlier public life, and during his Presidency; and also pictures of his intimate friends and associates. Upstairs, over the front parlor, is the room where Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln slept. This room has been furnished to correspond with its furnishings in Lincoln's time, the old-fashioned post bedstead occupying one corner. The room corresponding to the living room of the Lincoln household is occupied in the Portland replica of the house as a sitting-room for guests.

CHINESE BURIAL CUSTOMS.

When a rich and important Chinaman dies, his funeral is conducted with much pomp and splendor. His friends and relations, instead of sending wreaths, send innumerable banners. These are made of white silk, with inscriptions beautifully worked in black velvet, and express the senders' good wishes to the deceased himself or to the members of his family for many generations. On the day of the funeral these banners are carried by hired men who are all dressed alike for the occasion. After the funeral, which lasts several hours at the cemetery, is over, the banners are all brought back, and eventually grace the rooms of the late Chinaman's house.

SENATORS HAD A BUSY DAY OF IT

Sat Up Till Two O'clock This Morning Discussing Different Bills.

FAVOR INCREASED SALARIES

The Debate Was Adjourned on the Discussion of the Trading Stamp Bill.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 19.—The Commons having disposed of its business early yesterday afternoon, more than the usual amount of interest centred in the proceedings in the Upper chamber.

At the afternoon session some time was devoted to a consideration of the bills increasing the salaries of the Premier, Members, and Senators. The members of the Upper chamber, or at least all of them who gave vocal expression to their opinions, held up both hands, so to speak, for the proposals.

In some respects the Senators were not satisfied with the bills. Protests were entered in reference to the abolition of milage, and the opinion was expressed that it was beneath the dignity of members of parliament and the senate to have to make a sworn declaration to the clerk as to attendance.

In connection with the consideration of the bill to increase the permanent force, Sir Mackenzie Bowell expressed the belief that the idea of the Premier's back of these proposals was to prepare for the time when Canada would be separated from Great Britain.

Sir Richard Cartwright, who replied, ridiculed Sir Mackenzie's ideas.

THE PREMIER'S SALARY.

The bill respecting the salary of the First Minister was read a first time.

On the motion for the second reading, Sir Mackenzie Bowell pointed out that the salaries paid the Ministers was $7,000, and the First Minister received an additional thousand. This bill increased that to five thousand. He was fully in accord with the policy of increasing the Prime Minister's salary to the extent to which it had been increased. Some of them knew the expense attending the office, and the expense was growing every year with the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson fully concurred. The Prime Minister ought to be paid beyond care as to his private affairs. He was very pleased to find that it was not proposed to increase the salaries of other Ministers.

He had always held that there was in Canada too wide a difference between Ministers and members. As soon as the session was over the Ministers went jumping all over the earth, when Parliament met the work of the session was not ready. He was glad that the word indemnity was dropped. Allowance was better, though he would prefer salary.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell differed in toto. He thought the other Ministers should have been increased at least $1,000. Hon. Edward Blake had recommended paying the Ministers in proportion to the importance of their departments. There was one point upon which government were to blame. They selected prominent men as Ministers without portfolio, and whilst he did not advocate a salary for these Ministers, he thought that at least their expenses should be paid. The least that could be done would be to make a liberal allowance.

On the third reading Hon. Mr. Ferguson said it was all very well for men of means and leisure to be Ministers without portfolio, but for others it was different. He thought the Government should deal with it now, and limit the number who might be Ministers without portfolio at one time. He thought that whilst in attendance each Minister should be allowed a per diem allowance equal to the salary of a Minister. The bill was read a third time and passed.

MEMBERS AND SENATORS.

Then the bill increasing the allowance of Senators and members from $1,500 to $2,500 was dealt with. On the second reading, Hon. Mr. Ferguson called attention to two features. He referred first to the question of mileage. That was changed, and members only allowed their travelling expenses. He contended that mileage should not be abolished as it was the only mode of equalizing the conditions of those living near and those living far from the Capital. He was astonished to find that these accounts were to be certified to by the clerk and sworn to by the members. He thought this an insult to members of Parliament. This odious condition should not be in the bill.

Hon. Mr. Wood generally approved the principle of the bill. He thought the salaries of the Ministers should have been increased. He merely wished to say he could have preferred that the old policy had been maintained. He was glad the milegae had been abolished. If they wished to recompense members and Senators for loss of time it should not be done in the use of mileage.

Hon. Mr. Lougheed had never been in sympathy with the abnegation which led members to profess that the allowance should be kept down to the minimum. He believed members should be paid. He agreed with Mr. Ferguson as to the mileage. Many members had to spend from seven to eight days to come and return. His allowance under the new bill would be $400 less than that of the member who lived in Ottawa. He hoped this would be remedied. Who would be the judge of the expenses. It would lead to misunderstanding. The principle was not carried out in respect to other public accounts.

CALLED IT OBJECTIONABLE.

Hon. Mr. Scott recognized the objectionable features. The questions would not arise during this session and the objectionable features could be removed at a future time. The bill was read a second time.

Hon. Mr. Poirier, on the motion for the committee stage, commended the Government for abolishing the mileage. They all had passes and it would look queer if they had mileage and passes. As to the making oath as to expenses there had been abuses, and abuses always led to correction.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell suggested that they strike out the words "and sworn to," leaving the member to certify to his account. A year or two ago the Senate cut out a whole clause in a money bill, affecting the salary of a judge.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell thought they could well trust the Government to amend the bill, if there were anything wrong next year. The committee stage stood over.

THE PERMANENT FORCE.

There was some discussion on the second reading of the bill to increase the permanent force to five thousand men.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell objected to the bill on the score of the cost. In England they were not increasing the standing army, but were developing the militia. The force under this bill was small, but the staff was to be large. He contended that you could take men from the rural battalions and make them good soldiers very quickly. Was there not behind all this a preparation for the time which Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke of as being when Canada should be ripe and fall as an apple from the Motherland. It seemed to him that object was behind all this. He alluded to Sir Wilfrid's speeches and cited the refusal to contribute to the navy as proof. It was the duty of every loyal man to make Canada in fact a part of the British Empire.

The people should look well before they adopted a policy having the undenying principle of separation. He objected to the bill for these reasons. His predictions might not be correct, but he believed that was the secret policy guiding the Premier, even if his colleagues did not know it. He believed it the duty of England to maintain regiments at Halifax and Esquimalt. He regretted that the bill had come down at a period when it could not be fully considered.

SIR RICHARD'S ARGUMENT.

Sir Richard Cartwright might call attention to the fact that this was a purely permissive bill, and unless it became very necessary to do so it would not be fully acted on. Sir Mackenzie had travelled very far afield and indulged in speculation which he hoped would never be realized. Sir Mackenzie had insinuated that the Premier was not loyal to the British crown. The Premier and the Government must not be judged by insinuations, but by acts. When under Sir Mackenzie's regime did any distinct Canadian contingent go to assist the British arms, though opportunities arose? The opportunity came and the present Government sent a very respectable contingent, with seven sons of Ministers in the firing line. When did the Conservatives give any preference to Canadian trade, though it was suggested to them. They refused, but the present Government gave a preference and the vast increase in Canadian trade was the result. The Government was prepared to be ready to assist the Empire any time, but after South Africa they could not state that the money was spent wisely by the Imperial War Office. This body, authorized under the bill, would form a nucleus from which in case of need they could send trained men to the assistance of the Empire.

SAT INTO THE MORNING.

The evening session was of six hours' duration, adjournment taking place at 2 a.m.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that in the remarks he made during the afternoon he thought he was discussing the militia bill, and not the bill in reference to the permanent force.

The bill allowing the Harbor Commission of Montreal to grant $6,000 of their funds towards erecting a monument to the late Hon. Mr. Young, passed through its various stages.

The bill concerning the South Shore Railway Company and Quebec Southern Railway Company was discussed at some length.

The first three clauses were agreed to. On clause four Hon. Mr. Beique moved to strike it out, as it would affect vested interests. It attributed to certain persons rights belonging to others. He moved an amendment providing for the distribution of the proceeds of sale according to law.

Hon. Mr. Cloran contended that the clause covered the situation exactly, and contradicted Hon. Mr. Beique's contention. There were two distinct roads, two distinct sets of creditors.

Hon. Mr. Beique said the Commons' amendment would wipe out all creditors of the amalgamation, all the creditors of both roads.

Hon. Mr. Poirier thought the Commons' amendment would do. It looked honest.

Hon. Mr. Beique's amendment was carried on a division of 16 yeas to 15 nays, and the bill, as amended, was reported and concurrence moved.

Hon. Mr. Cloran again moved his amendment to divide the proceeds respectively. The amendment was lost by 17 yeas to 18 nays, and Hon. Mr. Beique's amendment was then concurred in.

THE TRADING STAMP BILL.

Hon. Mr. Scott moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Criminal Code of 1892. He explained that this was the trading stamp bill.

Hon. Mr. McMullen did not object to that portion of the bill respecting trading stamps, but the last clause seriously affected the criminal code. This very innocent little clause altered all the proceedings, and gave the prisoner the right to object to being tried by a police magistrate or a judge, but by a jury. This granting a jury would prevent conviction. He would vote against the bill with that clause.

Hon. Mr. Scott said the bill was asked for by all boards of trade.

Hon. Mr. Lougheed was opposed to hasty legislation in the dying hours of the session.

Hon. Mr. Kerr, of Toronto, argued that the trading stamps business had grown to be an unjust interference with buying and selling.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell was not in favor of trading stamps, but in view of what had taken place elsewhere they should be careful. If it be true that a large amount of money had been invested, it is questionable whether this summary legislation should be passed, especially if the industry were chartered by the Dominion and by one of the provinces. They might cancel the charter, but at least give those engaged in the business an opportunity to close up. He urged that legislation be introduced in such a way that it can be discussed on its merits. We grant charters to enable people to carry on a business and twelve months later make it a criminal offence and send the people to gaol.

The debate was adjourned by Hon. Mr. Landry.

HERCA

A Safe Silk

A judge on the bench may be an ordinary man, but a judge of silks must be a genius.

The adulteration of silk is so well done that the imitation looks and feels like real silk---wear alone shows the counterfeit.

If you would be sure of the purity of silk—silk that will wear long and retain its lustre and color—see that the selvage of every fold is stamped with the name "Herca."

"Herca," the untearable taffeta, is made of perfect strands of pure silk.

Herca is a medium-priced silk.

VICTIMS OF WINNIPEG STORM.

Verdict Returned That Death Was Caused by Wind.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, Man., July 19.—After a two days' session, the coroner's jury, sitting on the enquiry into the death of Herbert White, Wm. Steinhoff and Jennie and Minnie O'Reilly who were killed by the falling walls of the Labor Temple on Saturday morning, concluded their labors yesterday after taking a mass of evidence. The verdict was "That deceased came to their deaths by being crushed by the falling of the walls on the morning of July 15. In the opinion of this jury the fall of the said building was caused by the wind, and that, in our opinion, according to the evidence, the walls were unsafe, and greater precautions should have been taken by the city building inspector, contractor and architect to protect citizens. For the protection of citizens, we recommend that the remaining walls be torn down immediately, and that in future responsibility should not be placed on any on official."

E. H. Rodgers is building inspector and S. Hooper the architect. The coroner, in his address to the jury, pointed out that there was no doubt as to the immediate cause of the deaths, but that the secondary causes were the ones they were to find on. If the building was not able to resist an ordinary high wind, it was not in a safe condition. If lightning demolished it, the destruction was an act of Providence and uncontrollable. His own opinion was that the wind did it. Another point to be considered was as to whether the building inspector exercised reasonable discretion in allowing the burned building to stand when dwelling houses adjoined it. They should also inquire whether the architect took precautions. The storm was out of the ordinary, but he believed buildings should be constructed to withstand high winds. He believed that no one man should have the power and responsibility of deciding on the safety of buildings, but that such matters should be decided by a board. An official exercising such wide powers as Mr. Rodgers should err in pulling down too many buildings rather than that any risk should be run by the public.

DEATHS REPORTED.

Ald. M. Plouffe, of Ottawa, has gone to visit a brother, Joseph, in Ashland, Wis., whom he has not seen for two score years. Not since he left home forty years ago had the family heard from Joseph till recently a man named Lalonde came to Canada to visit friends of the alderman.

The cut stone front of the three-story warehouse of the Gananoque harness works, King street, Gananoque, fell into the street, tons of material crashing on the sidewalk and a large portion falling on the roof of the office adjoining, carrying it down.

It is stated that in all probability R. Reilly, of West Hastings bogus ballot box fame, will be liberated from the Belleville gaol next week.

ST. LOUIS IS STILL EXCITED

Claimed Bastien Contract Should Have Been by Law.

PUBLIC MEETING SUGGESTED

Interview With Mr. Robert Miller Who Thinks Ald. Gladstone Should Give Facts.

The Bastien contract still forms the subject of popular animadversion in the town of St. Louis. The contract is one for furnishing water and sewerage for the town and the work is to be done as required. Many of the citizens are away on their holidays; but some of those who have taken an active part in public affairs, and who have been looking forward to the movement for annexation to Montreal as the only possible relief from the rule of the present council, are not a little disgusted at this new manifestation of misdirected enterprise, fearing it will have the effect of putting off annexation indefinitely. Others take a more hopeful view of this phase of the situation, and say that Montreal will have to hurry up the annexation of St. Louis in self-defence.

Had the contract been given out in the usual way it would have been necessary to apply to the legislature for power to borrow money to pay the contractor, or for authority to issue debentures, which could not have been easily obtained because the borrowing power of the corporation under the law is at present exhausted. In any case, had the power been obtained from the Legislature to borrow money to pay the contractor, it would have been necessary not only to pass a by-law but to submit it to a vote of the tax-paying proprietors for their approval. Had the proprietors rejected the by-law, the contract must have fallen through.

It is claimed that a coach-and-four has been driven through the charter and while appearing to comply with the requirements of the law, some one has managed to circumvent the law itself. They have added hundreds of thousands of dollars to the public debt, although the legal borrowing power of the corporation is exhausted, and they have mortgaged a part of the public revenues without the authorization of the Legislature. They have constituted Mr. Bastien a public creditor for hundreds of thousands of dollars, a sum out of all proportion to the financial resources of the corporation, and they have bound the municipality to pay interest for forty years to Mr. Bastien at five per cent.

It is the fact that a large public debt is created by this agreement with Mr. Bastien, which is arousing general attention. The objects to be attained are essentially the same as if the contract had been awarded under a by-law approved by a vote of the proprietors, and yet the proprietors have not been consulted. The proprietors naturally are asking, "What has become of our right to veto such loans?"

Mr. Robert Miller, who has taken a very prominent part in the affairs of the town, was asked by a reporter what he thought of the Bastien contract.

"I should describe it as a perpetual contract for an indefinite amount," replied Mr. Miller. "From what I have heard about it, it would appear to be as indefinite, as to time, as it is with reference to the amount of money involved. But it will be a long job, Mr. Bastien can do the work when he feels disposed, or, according to my information, 'as the work is required.' This means, I suppose, according to the progress of house-building along new streets. It is the general impression that the Council has exceeded its legal powers in thus running the municipality into debt for so large an outlay without first obtaining the consent of the proprietors in the usual way, by submitting a by-law for their approval. That, I may may, is my opinion also because the law having given the proprietors the right to veto any by-law creating an indebtedness by means of a loan I cannot understand why the proprietors should be deprived of their right of veto merely because the indebtedness has been created by a resolution instead of a by-law, and one large creditor has been substituted for many bondholders. The creation of this large debt by a simple resolution, instead of a by-law does not strengthen the position of the Council. I think the Council should have passed a by-law and submitted it to the proprietors. If their borrowing power is exhausted and drains are wanted for the outlying district north of the Canadian Pacific tracks, they should have called a meeting of the citizens and asked them for authority to propose annexation to Montreal, but they should not have thrown themselves into the arms of Mr. Bastien, nor pledged the special taxes on drains."

"What do you think should be done under the circumstances?"

"I think the citizens should call upon Mr. Gladstone, our representative in the Council, to give a full explanation of this contract at a public meeting to be held for the purpose. We could then decide upon what course to follow."

GREAT SCOTTISH GATHERING.

Jubilee of the Caledonian Society of Montreal.

This year is the fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Caledonian Society of Montreal, and it is the intention of the executive of that society that the jubilee shall be commemorated in a manner fitting to the occasion.

The 4th of September next has been set apart for the celebration. The annual games (which it is the desire of the executive shall eclipse in worth and interest any similar event hitherto held in Montreal) will take place on the afternoon of that day; and, in the evening, the society will hold a dinner, to which some of the most prominent public men in the United States and Canada, who are or who have been identified with Scottish interests, will be invited. A unique feature of the celebration will be the presence of half-a-dozen gentlemen who were present at the initial meeting, fifty years ago, and whose interest in the society's welfare has never flagged during all the time that has elapsed since that date.

The membership of the Caledonian Society of Montreal is now almost fifteen hundred. It is one of the most important and most influential Scottish bodies on this continent, if not in the world and it is but fit and proper that these proposed features of the Jubilee Year celebration should be carried out on lines that will reflect credit not only upon the society as a body, but also upon the Scotsmen of Montreal generally.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Masked Men Held Up Superintendent Lytle Wounding Him.

FAILED TO GET THE MONEY

$17,000 Which Superintendent Carried Accompanied by Man and Boy, Was the Bait.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sherbrooke, Que., July 19.—The desperadoes who sought to rob the paymaster of the Oxford Mountain Railway yesterday afternoon are still at large and have probably escaped.

Details now at hand show the affair to have been of a particularly desperate nature.

Superintendent A. C. Lytle, who was on a tour of the line, paying the men was shot three times and an Italian boss with him was struck once.

Mr. Lytle carried about $17,000, none of which the highwaymen secured in getting.

The story of the affair as now at hand is as follows:

Supt. Lytle left Kingsbury yesterday morning for the end of the line, a few miles west of Windsor Mills. He carried some $17,000 and was accompanied by his son.

Reaching the end of the line, where the construction gang was at work, he entered a carriage in which the timekeeper, Jos. McCabe, had given over from Windsor Mills. Mr. Lytle, with the Italian boss and his son then started to drive from point to point paying the men.

They carried a portion of the money in packages and the balance in a grip. When some distance from one of the construction gangs they were met by two men whose faces, when they turned towards them, it was noticed were partially covered by handkerchiefs. They at once fired point blank at the horse, it falling dead.

They then demanded of Mr. Lytle and his companions to throw up their hands.

Mr. Lytle is not a man to be easily frightened and he at once seized the money packages and attempted to jump from the waggon, the desperadoes then began a veritable fusilade.

They used shot guns. Mr. Lytle was shot three times in the shoulder and leg. The Italian boss was wounded in the leg slightly.

Young Lytle was not struck.

The fusilade attracted the Italian workmen and the robbers had not time to secure the booty before help arrived.

Seeing that they had missed their object they made a bolt for the woods and escaped, but the handkerchief fell from the face of one and it is said he could be identified if captured.

Mr. Lytle was taken to Kingsbury last night. His wounds are said not to be serious. There appears to be no clue to the identity of his assailants.

Two strangers had been seen around Kingsbury for a few days back, and it is thought they may be the men.

The affair was one of the boldest and most desperate attempts at highway robbery ever recorded in the Eastern Townships.

PROPOSALS ASSENTED TO.

British Government Falls In With Minister of Militia's Ideas.

Ottawa, Ont., July 19. — A cablegram has been received from the British Government assenting to all the propositions which Sir Frederick Borden made on behalf of the Canadian Government. These propositions are as follows: That the Army Council be asked to allow officers of warrant rank and non-commissioned officers and men of the Imperial forces now at Halifax and Esquimalt to be transferred to the Canadian permanent force should they be willing to accept such transfer; that Canada should agree to pay to the War Office the whole cost of maintenance of Esquimalt defences and garrison, instead of only one-half the cost as at present, until she could relieve the whole of that garrison similarly to that of Halifax in due course, but not later than July 1, 1906; that the Army Council should further be asked to allow a small number of officers of all branches of the service to be seconded in the Imperial army for one, two or three years, as may be agreed upon for temporary service with the Canadian forces. This number is estimated at not exceeding the following: Staff, 3; Royal Artillery staff and Royal Artillery, 8; Royal Engineers staff and Royal Engineers, 6; infantry 2; services and department, 8.

Sir Frederick Borden said last night that the Imperial Government had expressed a willingness to vacate the Halifax fortifications whenever the Canadian Government thought necessary. He thought this would be about September 1.

DOCTORS WERE DISORDERLY.

Chairman Had Hard Time With New Brunswick Medical Society.

Special to The Montreal Star

St. John, N. B., July 19. The members of the New Brunswick Medical Society, now in session here, had an exciting session Tuesday afternoon, and for a time the chairman had some difficulty in keeping the doctors in order, as they all wanted to speak at the same time. The question before the society was to increase the insurance examination fees. Dr. G. A. B. Addy offered a resolution that the minimum fee for old line companies be $50. Several amendments were offered, but the original motion was finally adopted.

No action was taken in connection with fraternal society examination fees.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH.

William Bradford Acted Peculiarly Before He Died.

Toronto, Ont., July 19.—Peculiar circumstances surrounding the death of Robert Bradford at his residence, 552 Parliament street on Monday has caused the issuing of a warrant for an inquest and the postponement of the funeral until a post mortem has been performed by Dr. John Caven. Rev. Dr. Parsons was asked by William Bradford, a brother of the deceased, to call at the house as he heard his brother was willing all his property to a Mrs. Sarah Bond, who was nursing him. When Rev. Dr. Parsons called at the house he received a bucket full of water on the head. He complained to the police and Mrs. Bond has been placed under arrest, charged with the assault. She was later bailed out. The late Robert Bradford was well known in the flour feed business in this city.

Threat Was of Some Value.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19.—The Dominion Government, per Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, threatens to withdraw its gift of 14½ acres of lighthouse porperty on Toronto Island, which the city acquired last year. The city promised to beautify the property and build a fence around it but has failed to do so. The board of control yesterday discussed the proposition, and decided to comply with the conditions rather than lose the land.

THE WEATHER

Probs appear to be working overtime in the production of high temperatures. Yesterday scored a record so far as Montreal is concerned, though the mercury in such centres as Philadelphia was a full ten degrees warmer than here.

Toronto scored the record in Canada with 92 degrees, as compared with 86 for Montreal, and 90 for Ottawa.

At one o'clock to-day the mercury in the down-town business districts registered from 83 to 85 degrees, but there was a fine breeze blowing, which, while hard on straw headgear, was most pleasant to the touch.

The morning opened dark and showery, there being a light rainfall between 8 and 10 o'clock.

Probs state that the hot spell will be continued to-day and to-morrow, with now and then a shower to cool things off a bit.

OLD RAILROAD STREET.

G. T. R. No Right Over Property in Front of Station.

Judge Desnoyers rendered an important decision to-day in the case of Louis Leclair, a cabman, who was charged by the Grand Trunk Railway with trespassing on the ground immediately east of the Bonaventure station. The company claims that the ground from the sidewalk to the property on the other side of the square belongs to it and that it has a right to prevent people as it wishes from being upon it, particularly in the case of cabmen who stand there and solicit fares.

His Honor found that the road, which was formerly known as Railroad street, is still public property, and the company has no right to force people from it.

The Death of Prof. F. D. Daly.

The many friends of education will learn with deep regret of the death of Prof. Francis D. Daly, who passed away yesterday, after an illness of several months. The late Prof. Daly was one of the best known instructors of Montreal. Born in Ireland, sixty years ago, at an early age he devoted his life to the cause of education. The last fifteen years he spent as teacher in St. Mary's Academy, and the Edward Murphy School. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place Thursday next at 7.30 a. m., from his late residence, 40 Gain street, to St. Mary's Church, thence to Cote des Neiges cemetery.

St. Ann's Young Men's Excursion.

The excursion of the Young Men's Society of St. Ann's to Lake St. Peter will be one of the most successful outings of the season. Both fellow parishioners and friends of the young men have heartily responded to their efforts, and no pains are being spared by the committee in charge of the arrangements and the Rev. Father Strubbe to provide adequate amusement and refreshments for their patrons.

The Letter Carriers' Moonlight.

The moonlight excursion given by the Montreal Letter Carriers last evening in aid of their benefit fund, was a grand success. Over 600 people were on board the steamer Duchess of York, and the sail down the St. Lawrence as far as Boucherville, returning about 11 p.m. to the city, was thoroughly enjoyed.

The committee in charge, headed by Mr. W. F. Mitchell looked to the comfort of their patrons and guests. In spite of the warm weather, dancing was indulged in on the lower deck, while on the upper deck a concert given by the letter carriers was very much appreciated. Mr. A. Hastie acted as floor manager.

He is Charged With Burglary.

Louis Goldstein was arrested last night and charged with breaking into a Chinaman's laundry. To-day he pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Judge Choquet. He will be tried on Monday.

Four Were Sentenced for Theft.

In the Police Court to-day Judge Desnoyers sentenced Jean B. Proulx to three months for theft. For the same offence George Donaldson got six months, Arthur Thibaudeau six months, and Odilon Parent six months.

NORWAY STILL ON THE ALERT

Six Months Postponement May Be Moved by the Rigsdag.

WILL ASK FOR RECOGNITION

The Moderate Party in Sweden is Gaining in Strength—Newspapers Suspend Discussion.

Special Cable From a Montreal Star Correspondent.

Christiania, July 19.—Norway is not disposed to await the pleasure of the Swedish Government in the matter of adjusting the union crisis. Information from Stockholm arrives at this city to-day to the effect that the Riksdag Commission is likely to recommend that Sweden dissolve the union but declining to discuss details for six months, arouses Norwegian resentment although such action has long ago been discounted.

Our correspondent is informed that if the Riksdag vote for postponement until next January, Norway will almost certainly ask the powers for immediate recognition of its independence, if not fully, at least partially, in order that Norway's imports and commercial interests abroad be not jeopardized.

The Norwegian Government will not ask recognition as a matter of pride, but as a practical necessity.

Unwonted reserve and much mystification on the subject of Norway is assumed by the Swedish press.

Before leaving Stockholm your correspondent learned that the Swedish official news agency had orders to request the Swedish newspapers to suspend discussion of the crisis at present.

MODERATE PARTY GAINS IN STRENGTH.

The defeat at the primaries in Stockholm, Monday, of Professor Warburg, who represented the element which wants to stand out "in defence of Swedish honor," is regarded here as a sign that moderate sentiment is increasing in Sweden.

Emigration to America from Norway is said to be normal and not to have been affected by the crisis.

RUSSIAN ARMY IN GOOD SHAPE

The Japanese Have Not Recovered from Mukden and are Weak.

Headquarters of the Russian Army, Gedzyadani, Manchuria, July 19.—In conversation with the correspondent of the Associated Press regarding the present military situation, General Batenoff, commander of the third Manchurian army to-day adopted a most optimistic tone.

He declared the Japanese were unable to advance, both on account of the strengthening of the Russian positions and because they have not fully recovered from their own losses at the battle of Mukden. He said: "Never during the whole war has the Russian army been so strong in every respect as at present. The Japanese know this, and therefore they wish for peace."

Trinity College May Secede.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 19.—Provost Macklem, of Trinity University, which has been affiliated with Toronto University, threatened to secede from that institution this morning unless Gore Vale avenue were turned into a semi-private car line for the accommodation of Trinity students. Residents on the street appeared before the board of control and protested vigorously against the invasion of their street.

Without the car line Provost Macklem said Trinity University would either have to move up into Queen's Park near Toronto University, or build a medical college and hospital on the Trinity College site on Queen street west. Trinity wants ten cars a day over the route for her own use and other citizens will have to use other cars. The controllers postponed decision in the matter in the hope that another route might be found.

Millionaire Settlement Worker's Plans

New York, July 19.—James G. Phelps-Stokes, the millionaire New York settlement worker, who was wedded yesterday to Rose Harriet Pastor, the east-side girl, whom he met in the course of his work in the tenement district, sailed to-day for Europe on the steamship Cedric.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes will remain abroad several months. They will tour Europe in an automobile.

Asked concerning his plans after returning to America, Mr. Stokes said: "We already have had too much publicity. A great deal has been said about my wife and I going to raise the fallen and much of that sort of talk. They seem to overlook the fact that the people of the east side are as self-respecting as we are. What we want just now is to go away quietly and get a quiet rest."

Gotha, Duchy of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, July 19.—Duke Charles Edward of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha assumed the reins of government to-day on attaining his majority.

His state entry into the capital was the occasion of much ceremonial.

The new ocupant of the Ducal throne was received at the railway station with military honors and proceeded to

The formal ceremony of taking the oath of installation occurred in the room in the presence of Emperor William, King Edward and others, the cabinet ministers and a brilliant assemblage of officials and deputations from various parts of the Duchy.

Leopold Charles Edward George Albert, Duke of Saxe-Coburg, was born July 19, 1884. He is a son of the late Duke of Albany and the Princess Helen, daughter of the late Prince George of Waldeck.

He became heir to the dukedom on the death of Prince Carol, the sole surviving son of the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg.

ADJOURNED TILL THURSDAY.

The House Sat for But Forty Minutes and Did Little Business.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, July 19.—The House sat only forty minutes this morning, and practically did nothing beyond adjourning until 11 a.m., Thursday, which will be the last day of the session.

One matter was briefly discussed. It was the report of the committee on debates recommending an increase of salary to the translators. When the motion was made that the report was received the Prime Minister raised a point of order.

The report could not be considered because it recommended an expenditure of money, and such recommendations must come from the Crown through the Government.

The point was sustained, and then the House adjourned, waiting for the Senate to complete its business in order that prorogation may take place.

Theatre Royal.

The next and last production of the summer season at the Royal by the Una Clayton Stock Company will be the romantic historical drama of Nell Gwynne, with Miss Clayton in the title role. It is a character in which she has scored one of the biggest successes both here and in the United States. The production will be elaborate as regards scenery and costumes. Francis Morey will be seen in the part of King Charles II., George Lund as Jack Hart, the actor, who entertains a hopeless passion for Nell; Mortimer Martini as the unscrupulous Duke of Buckingham, and Geo. Lewis as Nell's poor but faithful friend, Strings, the violin player. As the Duchess of Portsmouth Mary Condon will have a part that is particulary suited to her. There are a number of striking scenes in the play.

He Declined the Proffered Honor.

Rev. Father Donnelly, pastor of St. Anthony's parish, has modestly declined the honor of being made an honorary canon of the Cathedral Chapter, which His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi offered him.

INCIDENTS AT AN INQUEST.

Jurors and Witnesses Break from Old Customs.

There were some odd incidents at the inquest held to-day into the cause of the death of three-year-old Benjamin Davidovitch, who was run over at the corner of St. George and Jurors streets, on July 12, and died later in the General Hospital as a result of his injuries.

At the opening of the enquiry there was a dispute between Constable Lacroix and a young Englishman, who had been ordered by the former to serve on the jury. The young man entered a strong protest. He said he was well acquainted with English law, and refused to act unless he was subpoenaed, but he consented to serve after the constable explained to him what the local law was in reference to such matters.

But this was not the end of the trouble. When the court was going ahead with the examination of the witnesses the Englishman suddenly interrupted the coroner by questioning the regularity of the proceedings.

"Mr. Coroner," said he, "is it customary in the courts here for all the witnesses to be in court whilst the evidence is being taken?"

The coroner, who is not accustomed to being questioned in such a manner by jurors, looked at the young man with some surprise before he replied: "It is not customary, but in this case I do not think it makes much difference."

Next came a pretty little Jewess, about ten years of age, an eye-witness of the accident.

"Do you know the nature of an oath?" questioned the coroner.

"Yes," replied the little girl, after a moment's hesitation.

"Do you know where you would go to if you swore a lie?"

"To my Auntie's," was the innocent reply.

The medical testimony showed that the child died of lockjaw as a result of his injuries, and the jury returned a verdict accordingly, exonerating Pierre Beauchamp, who was driving the waggon which was loaded with a dead horse, at the time of the accident.

INAUGURATING NEW SERVICE.

Luncheon on the Steamship Angola Given To-day.

Mr. D. W. Campbell, Canadian manager of the Elder-Dempster Company, is this afternoon giving a luncheon on board the Angola, which steamship sails to-morrow, inaugurating the Canadian-Cuban-Mexican service.

In speaking of the line to-day, Mr. Campbell referred hopefully to the prospects of establishing a paying trade not only between the countries named above, but with the Bahama Islands. On this trip the Angola is taking out a considerable quantity of flour, hay, oats, butter and cheese for Nassau, which will be the first stop after leaving the Canadian ports. Mr. Campbell is also of the opinion that a lucrative passenger trade may be built up between Canada and Nassau, which is one of the most delightful and popular winter resorts in the sub-tropical South, and is now visited annually by a great many Canadians, who have heretofore proceeded mainly via the United States ports.

The Angola is a well found steamship of about 4,000 tons. She is lighted throughout by electricity, and is in every way modern and equipped to carry passengers with comfort.

In addition to the cargo named above, the Angola is carrying out a large amount of paving blocks for Havana. There is also considerable quantities of hay, fish, lumber and pulp-wood for both the Cuban and Mexican ports.

The ports touched will be Nassau, Havana, Progresso, Vera Cruz and Tampico. On the return the order will be the same reversed. From Cuba north-west, however, no freight business can be done, as the arrangement with the Mexican Government does not permit of it.

The luncheon to-day was attended by various representatives of the trade in Montreal. Hon. Mr. Prefontaine was to have been present, but a business engagement prevented him.

ROYAL PAPER MILLS CLOSING.

Financial Reorganization Considered Necessary.

The president and general manager of the Eastern Townships Bank spent yesterday at East Angus, looking into the Royal Paper Mills' situation, the bank being practically owners of the property. The paper mill is shut down and many of the men are now leaving the place and seeking employment elsewhere. The pulp mill and saw mill continue in operation.

The case of the closing of this industry is to be found in the simple fact that the management for several years back have been unable to make it pay. The bank made heavy loans and it has finally been decided that some re-organization is necessary.

The company and its creditors are now seeking to sell or lease the property. The mill is splendidly equipped, well located, has good water power and extensive limits. The management has, however, failed to make it a financial success and the big liabilities which have been accumulated necessitate the step which has been taken.

The Tax on Travellers.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star:

Sir,—In last evening's Star an article appeared stating that it was the intention of the Dominion Travellers' Association to appeal to the Federal Government to abolish the tax of $200 on foreign agents.

As a member of the Dominion Travellers' Association, I object to them doing any such thing. I am a buyer for a department of a wholesale establishment, and know how our market of late has been glutted with the American drummers and the way they do their business, selling first the wholesaler and sending their samples to another firm to canvass the retailer at a slight advance. I know of a case where a Canadian succeeded in knocking them out on a particular line. As soon as they found it out they dropped their price 50 per cent. The result was our countryman went out of business, and up went the American price again, and it remains.

This tax is all right—a step forward to Canada for Canadians, and Mr. McCorkill is to be congratulated. The only mistake he made, I consider, was in not making it $1000 in place of $200. If the directors of the D. T. A. want to appeal to the Government, let them do so to abolish the taxes amongst ourselves; that is right, but not to foreigners, who leave nothing in the country but their hotel bills, and who are fast taking away trade that should be entirely in our own hands.

RUSSIA PLANS TO OUTWIT JAPAN

Witte Has a Special Reason for Going First to Paris.

WANT BACKING FOR KOREA

Russia If Backed by France and the United States Will Prove Troublesome.

Special Cable From a Montreal Star Correspondent.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—M. Witte will stop at Berlin and Paris on his way to the peace conference for the purpose of enlisting support to turn the Washington meeting into an international council. It is hoped that America will insist on backing Corea against Japan, as it is bound by treaty to defend the interests of the Hermit Kingdom.

If France should be induced to urge China's participation in the negotiations Russia would then insist that the signature of the other powers were necessary to make the peace lasting.

When Lawson "Had 'Em."

Thomas W. Lawson, in his July contribution, dealing with the wickedness of John D. Rockefeller and Henry H Rogers, pictures his own feelings when he contemplated how the public had been "trapped" in the Amalgamated Copper deal, as follows:

"Numb and dull, like the unintentional murderer, I leaned back in my chair with half-closed eyes, while night, the master phantom maker, played upon my harried nerves and seared mind. Stealthily out of midnight's caldron the ghosts and goblins crept. I saw the spectres of all my dearest dreams trail slouching by, prodded and cuffed by sneering bullies; I saw a great company of scowling men, wailing women, and little children with drawn, pinched faces, and all seemed to point to me as they plodded past, muttering, 'But for you!' Then I heard the clanking of chains, hoarse curses and the sharp whipsnap, and there filed by lines upon lines of men in striped suits, with cropped heads and faces branded by despair. Faintly a dreadful mutter of groans and sobs echoed, 'But for you!' The clanking ceased, and there came the slow shuffling of many feet, and a procession of men bearing stretchers on which lay shrouded figures advanced into view. Like a passing bell upon my ears smote the reproach, 'Suicides because of you!' Now out of the caldron sprang a mob of goblin dollar-signs compounded of blood-red snakes and copper bars, that danced a mad saraband around my chair to a weird chorus of, 'But for you!' Transfixed and aghast I stared at the train of awful forms that seemed to sweep through my soul, till at last, with a mighty effort, I threw off the spell, banished the phantasms of my frightened brain, and shook myself together with a: 'You have work ahead and dreaming will not do it for you.'"

CHINA'S AWAKENING ALARMS LEOPOLD

He Fears for the Future of the White Race in China.

SO HE INTERVIEWED MORGAN

The Endeavor to Have the China Development Company's Lease Cancelled Startled the King.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 19.—The Herald's London cable says:

The object of King Leopold in steaming over the channel to Dover to see J. Pierpont Morgan was to dissuade the American financier from accepting money offered by the Chinese to the American China Development Company, to forfeit the concession which had been given for a railway between Hankow and Canton.

King Leopold drew his attention to the fact that such a railway running in connection with a line of steamships from the United States would be of inestimable value to American commerce, and that it was a fatal step, both from a financial and patriotic point of view, to abandon a concession under a scarce-hidden rumor of change.

His Majesty drew Morgan's attention to the fact that upon this particular point of annulment of the American Development Company's concession depends the future of the white race in China, and that its withdrawal was the first strong step towards the ousting of all white men's commercial undertakings in the Celestial Empire.

China, emboldened by the success of Japan and consequent augmented prospects of the yellow races, boldly says to the American China Development Company, which has a contract which is valuable, valid and correctly drawn up: "You shall take pay and get out. If you don't we'll force you out."

The action of China is illegal and such was what King Leopold impressed upon Morgan.

Many Narrow Escapes at Brockville.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Brockville, Ont., July 19.—One of the worst electric storms in the history of Brockvile struck this section last night, between nine and ten o'clock, and lasted for more than two hours. The lightning was extremely vivid, the sky being almost constantly illuminated. The worst feature of the storm was an accompanying gale of wind, which reached the velocity of a miniature cyclone, sweeping everything before it. Trees and fences were blown down in all parts. Great excitement prevailed along the river front. A large number of skiffs containing persons who had gone out on the water to escape the heat, were caught and many narrow escapes from drowning by the swamping of boats are recorded. Several sought refuge on the islands, and not returning until a late hour friends and relatives anxiously sought them with fear and trembling. The steamer Brockville took an excursion to the Ogdensburg lawn social where hundreds of people had gathered. The storm made a complete wreck of the booths, tables, etc. One of the Brockville's life boats was pressed into service in saving a young couple who had capsized in mid-stream. Both clung to their skiff and assistance arrived and they were taken to the shore more dead than alive. Another electric storm here this morning was less severe in its results.

Storm Follows Hot Spell.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, July 19.—Following a hot spell a terrific storm passed over this section last night, the worst experienced here for some years. Several houses in town were damaged by the lightning, but there was no serious loss. The roof of the residence of Mrs. Blisland, on Water street, was considerably wrecked and the contents of the attic destroyed. At the house of John Hollister, in the west end, the electric fluid passed down the chimney and shattered a side-board, breaking a quantity of dishes. Mrs. Hollister received a severe shock, but is not seriously injured. The house of Robert Keenan, Augustus street, was also damaged slightly.

FIVE MEN KILLED BY DYNAMITE

ACCIDENT NEAR DES MOINES

The Explosion, Which Was Terrific, Blew Building and Men to Pieces.

Des Moines, Ia., July 19.—An explosion took place this morning at the West Riverside Coal Mine, two miles west of the city.

Lightning struck the powder house shortly after 6 o'clock. The building contained a considerable quantity of dynamite and the explosion which followed was terrific.

Five of those reported dead are: John Woods, Will Latimer, Walter Evans, Zink Leavis and Newell. The dead men had gone into the powder house to secure their daily supply of dynamite to be used in the mine. They had not been in the shed more than a minute or two when the structure was struck by lightning, igniting the entire supply of dynamite and blowing building and men literally to pieces.

THE BURNING OF A BRIDGE.

Canadian Pacific Bridge Destroyed and Replaced in 36 Hours.

The officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway have received information regarding the destruction by fire of one of their bridges on the Lake Superior division, Monday afternoon. Section men discovered the burning bridge, and warned approaching trains, thus avoiding any accident. The bridge was 250 feet long and spanned the Magpie river, a short stream running into Lake Superior. The limited train, due at White river at 8.40, p.m., was east of the burning bridge, and all the passengers, baggage, mail and express matter, had to be transferred to a special train sent out for the purpose. The fire is supposed to have been started by a spark from a passing locomotive. The bridge was replaced by a new one in about thirty-six hours.
