A big closing evening number is coming up at Ormstown Exhibition on June 9, 10, 11 and 12, one that will make you want to be there. "Miss Dominion of Canada" shown in the above photo is going to be a headline feature. The Ormstown Band, Majorettes, and Moppettes, will present a parade and drill in the Arena and Miss Canada will be in there with them, on the evening of the 12th. Keep this in mind.

Chat-Huntingdon W.C.T.U. Annual Convention Held

The 64th annual convention of the Chat-H'don W.C.T.U. was held in St. Andrew's Church, on Tuesday, May 11th, the County President, Mrs. Pearl Beattie, presiding. Mrs. Doris McColm took charge of the devotional period, reading from Acts 6, 1 to 8, followed by Prayer. Mrs. Wm. Todd extended a welcome to the delegates, to which Mrs. Ada McCarty responded. Minutes of the fall rally were read, which was held in the United Church when the Provincial President Mrs. F.R. Crawford, gave an account of the convention at Niagara, Ont. Following this, Mrs. Surette gave the correspondence report. Miss Elsie Elder reported a good year financially, with a balance left after all expenses paid. Mrs. Todd told of a successful L.T. group at Dewittville. Mrs. Beattie then called on Rev. Mr. McMichen, guest speaker, who gave a talk on the evil effects of alcohol drinking on so many lives today. Many things account for drinkers arriving at such a low level of living. Instead of looking down on the drink addict, we should remember that he is a child of God, and worthy of our efforts to reclaim him. He spoke of the habit of social drinking and the treating system, which is a problem today. We can help by our influence as abstainers, knowing that it is not necessary to partake of drink in order to make friends. We must never be ashamed to let it be known that we are on the side of temperance. Mrs. McColm thanked the speaker for his helpful address.

After the singing of the Crusade hymn, the superintendent's reports of the different departments were heard. These were, Little White Ribbons by Mrs. Todd; Temperance in Sunday School, by Mrs. Stewart; National Temperance Study by Mrs. McCarty; Lord's Day Observance by Mrs. Tully; Literature by Mrs. Beattie who also reported a very successful booth at the Huntingdon Fair, when many favorable comments were made on the temperance items, posters, etc. that were shown. These reports were all adopted as read. It was agreed that all officers be re-elected for the coming year.

A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a Provincial Life Membership Pin to Mrs. Ada McCarty, by Mrs. Grass, Provincial treasurer, in appreciation of her work. Mrs. McCarty, although taken by surprise, thanked the members for the honour conferred on her in this way. Mrs. Grass also presented Miss Joanne Arnold with a handsome book, being a Canadian prize won in the National Temperance Study Course, as 2nd in Grade 8. This is the 4th year that Joanne has won a Canadian prize. In presenting it Mrs. Grass said, while 16 prizes were allotted for the Dominion, 9 of them went to Quebec province, which showed good work done by our pupils. A honorable mention certificate was won by Miss Jessie Todd.

After singing the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds", the Pledge was repeated in unison, followed by the Mizpah benediction. Tea and refreshments were served afterwards by the Dewittville Union.

Recommendations
We recommend that devotional exercises be part of every W.C.T.U. meeting, and that more time be spent in Bible study and prayer for guidance.
We recommend that the National Temperance Study Course be taught in any school wherever possible so that young people will learn the hazards of beverage alcohol.
We recommend that local

On Visit To Canadian West

Monseigneur J.A. David will be arriving in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan some time this afternoon (Wednesday) which comes somewhat of a surprise to many of the parishioners of St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon.

On Saturday, a birthday party was organized at the Chateau Huntingdon, by friends, to help Monseigneur David celebrate his 78th birthday. Among those attending was Bishop Morin of Prince Albert. Bishop Morin's father was a former C.N.R. trainman and the David and Morin family friendship goes back to the days when Monseigneur David himself was a trainman. Following the birthday dinner on Sat., Bishop Morin began persuading Monseigneur David to return to the west with him. The latter remembered the year he spent at St. Boniface, Man. from 1910-11. Since he passed through there three years ago on his return from Seattle, Wash. he hadn't visited the Canadian West, so on Sunday, he announced from his pulpit that he was taking a vacation and would be away two or three weeks. Needless to say, his congregation and friends hope he is enjoying his well-earned holiday.

Unions make more effort to increase their membership and to organize young people's groups.
We recommend that we join with the Quebec Safety League in the planning of advertising on radio, television and in the newspapers.
Resolutions
Be it resolved: That we, the members of the Dewittville and Huntingdon Unions hereby affirm our loyalty to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and Pray God's guidance for her, in her responsible position.
That we petition the Board of Education to include in its school suitable instruction and information on the harmful effects of beverage alcohol and tobacco.

That our appreciation and thanks go to the Managers of the Presbyterian Church and entertaining Union and all who helped to make this Convention a success. A special thanks to our speaker, Rev. Mr. McMichen for his contribution.

Curling Season Finale At Ormstown

The curling season at the Ormstown Curling Club officially terminated on Tues., May 11th, when about 115 members of the Men's Club and the Ladies Branch met for an enjoyable evening.

Following a social hour, supper was served by the men and prizes were awarded to the winners of Club competitions.

Afterwards, the curlers separated to attend their respective annual meetings.

39 members of the Ladies Branch were present with the President, Mrs. C. McGerrigle, in the chair. Annual reports by committee chairmen were submitted and a second sum-birthday also ticked off 53 1/2 years in the Priesthood. His brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Zenon David and family of Ville LaSalle, attended the birthday party. Other guests included Canon Fortier and Father Auger, of Rigaud; Mother Superior and Mother St. Philippa of Notre-Dame; Mr. and Mrs. Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. Tardif of St. Joseph's; Father Marcell Herdman; Father Gagnon of Ste. (By Mrs. L'Espérance) her mother tongue is French, her education right through Normal School (except for a very brief period) was in French and, until a few years ago, she spoke very little else. Congratulations Collette.

Congratulations also to Gavin Farmer who gained second place in his class in the Music Festival. Gavin is studying music at the McGill Faculty of Music.

Hemmingford Cercle De Fermieres

The regular meeting of the Hemmingford Cercle de Fermieres was held on Wednesday evening in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Roman Priest presided and there were 15 members present. The annual picnic was one of the various items of business discussed. It is to take place in July and, among other places mentioned, a visit to Sorrel was favoured by several members.

Members were asked to bring, to the next meeting ideas for the coming year's programme. The roll call took the form of a question, "What would you do if you were a Counsellor or Officer of the Branch?" and the various answers proved both interesting and amusing.

With the business finished the members turned to the social programme and this took the form of a salute to Mother's Day. Miss Kathleen Perras gave a short article of Mother's Day and then read a special poem in honour of the oldest "mother" of the Branch Mrs. Joe Deneault, and all the mothers present. Mrs. Deneault was presented with an ornament in the form of a bouquet of flowers and she responded with sincere thanks and appreciation.

A delicious lunch followed with Mrs. Deneault seated at the head of the table as guest of honour. This makes the second consecutive meeting at which a presentation was made. In April, Mrs. A. LaPlante was presented with a crystal rosary on the occasion of her departure from Hemmingford. Mrs. Laplante, together with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Payant, have moved to St. Philomena. During these past many years Mrs. Laplante has been a faithful, hard working member of the Fermieres and in making the presentation the members expressed their sincere thanks for her many kind acts and faithful service to the Branch.

MR. LEO FORTIN HONORED WITH PRESENTATION AND BANQUET AT HEMMINGFORD

On Tuesday evening, May 11th, at the Frontier Inn, Mr. Leo Fortin, ex-Mayor of Hemmingford Village, was guest of honour at a Banquet organized by the Councillors and men with whom he has worked for many years. Representatives from every organization in the community were among the 180 guests who assembled in the large lounge which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion by the Manager, Mr. Lionel Schneider. Seated with Mr. and Mrs. Fortin at the head table were Canon L. Corriveau, Reverend and Mrs. J. Ficko, Mr. and Mrs. Alister Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keddy, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Dauphinais, Apologies were read from the Reverend and Mrs. Prendergast who owing to a previous engagement were unable to attend. The M.C. for the evening was Mr. Maurice Patenaude.

At the beginning of the evening's festivities, Mrs. Walter Smith, wife of the present Mayor, presented Mrs. Fortin with a very lovely bouquet of deep red carnations. Dinner over, Mr. Patenaude called on the first of the speakers, Mr. Florian Dauphinais, Mayor of Hemmingford Township, who expressed his pleasure at being present on such an occasion and delighted to see such a large and representative gathering. The Secretary-Treasurer of the Village, Mr. John McKough, followed with an interesting list of the Councillors still living and the majority still living in Hemmingford and present this evening, who had served on the Village Council during Mr. Fortin's term of office as Councillor from 1931 to 1940 and during his term of office as Mayor from 1940 to 1955. With him as Councillor were George J. Brown 1931 to 1938, Odessa Pierre 1938, Howard Miller 1948, Walter Keddy 1938 and still in office. Holding office under Mr. Fortin as Mayor were Walter Keddy 1938 to date, Walter B. Smith 1944 to date, George J. Brown 1944 to 1948, Herbert Barrington 1945 to 1960, Joseph Deneault 1947 to 1953, Lyle Simpson 1948 to 1964, Eugene Hebert 1948 to 1951, Eddie Berthiaume 1951 to 1953, Roland LaTrelle 1953 to 1959, Ross McNaughton 1960 to date, Rene Poissant 1962 to date and Bruce Wallace 1964 to date. From Mr. Alister Somerville came some interesting reminiscing about the days when Mr. Fortin first came to Hemmingford. Through the years, said Mr. Somerville, he had distinguished himself both in business and in work for the community.

Mr. Walter Smith Mayor of the Village, said he could not let this opportunity pass without mentioning just a few of the things which had been accomplished since Mr. Fortin took office as Mayor. When Mr. Fortin came to Hemmingford, there were but four streets in the village, running from north to south and east to west. Within recent years came the development of a new residential section in the village, comprising five new streets which, when completed by Fortin Frere, were given, without further charge, to the village. It was Mr. Fortin who went to Quebec with the Secretary and Councillors to negotiate the water and sewage system and who obtained for the village a substantial grant to pay for same.

The drilling of a second well and the installation of the Fire Hydrants, together with the formation of a volunteer Fire Brigade resulted in substantial cuts in the property Fire Insurance rates. A garbage dump with this year, twice weekly collection during the summer months, was established eight years ago. All streets have been named and homes and businesses numbered, and this project was paid for by Mr. Fortin himself. In 1962 came the erection of a new Town Hall with accommodation for a P.O. and a Fire Station and this was built on a lot owned by Mr. Fortin and sold to the village for $1. The town has changed tremendously in the past quarter of a century and many of the improvements and much of the progress can be placed to Mr. Fortin's credit. In the name of all your friends, said Mr. Smith, I wish to sincerely congratulate you on your splendid record of public service to thank you and to hope we can still depend on you for help and suggestions in the coming years. Mr. Smith then called on Mr. Walter Keddy, past 28 years and still going strong, to present Mr. Fortin with a plaque which he hoped would find a place on his office wall.

In making the presentation Mr. Keddy said he felt mention should be made of the good feeling which Mr. Fortin had always fostered in the village between the two races and regretted he could not express himself adequately in the French language.

The plaque, which Mr. Keddy presented to Mr. Fortin takes the form of a scroll made of oak and bearing a small bronze plate. The plate is inscribed in French, J. Leo Fortin, "En appreciation, et so on", which being translated means, "In appreciation of your devotion — as an Alderman 1931-1940 and as Mayor 1941-1965 of Hemmingford."

Speaking first in French then in English, Mr. Fortin thanked all present for this token of appreciation. He had enjoyed his work on the Council and would always have the well-being and progress of the village at heart. He wished the new Mayor and Councillors every success in the years to come and would continue doing all he could for the good of the community.

Dancing brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

An Ayrshire Four Generation Gold Seal Family

Archie Roy, Balquhiddar Farm, Howick, Que., has what is believed to be, Canada's first four generation Gold Seal cow family. The four generations, all with over 100,000 lbs. milk on R.O.P. were all bred and milked at Balquhiddar and all lactations were completed on 2X milkings.

The foundation cow, Balquhiddar Stately Betty V.G., produced 105,295 lbs. milk, 3,811 lbs. fat. She was the first cow Roy's entered on R.O.P. test and Archie Roy says he remembers quite vividly the first visit of the R.O.P. Inspector. She was not entered on test until 4 years of age and missed two or three lactations, but completed her last record at 20 years of age to qualify for her Gold Seal number 126. As an 11 year old she produced 13,061 lbs. milk 488 lbs. fat.

Her daughter, Balquhiddar Stately Cherry V.G., by Bois de la Roche Stimulator, produced 115,567 lbs. milk, 4,477 lbs. fat in 11 lactations. As a 5 year old she produced 14,707 lbs. milk, 605 lbs. fat. She was the 146th cow to qualify for a Gold Seal. She was Archie Roy's first calf club calf in the Howick Calf Club.

She had two daughters, Balquhiddar Top Grade's Cherry and Balquhiddar Oldhal Cherry 3 who qualified for Gold Seal Certificates. Balquhiddar Top Grade's Cherry "X" has produced 133,833 lbs. milk, 5,629 lbs. fat in 13 lactations. She completed her last lactation at just over 17 years of age and she was the 160th cow to qualify. She has several lactations over 500 lbs. fat including 12,129 lbs. milk, 527 lbs. fat in 305 days at 13 years. Her sire is Deschamps Top Grade's 3N. Her sister, Oldhal Cherry 3 V.G., by Burnside Magnate produced 117,747 lbs. milk, 4,390 lbs. fat in 11 lactations.

The fourth generation Gold Seal cow is Balquhiddar Margaret V.G. by Lakeside Mastot and out of Top Grade's Cherry. She has just completed her tenth lactation producing 110,289 lbs. milk, 5,082 lbs. fat, 4.61%. In her last lactation at 11 years she produced 16,667 lbs. milk, 746 lbs. fat in 445 days. She is the 946th cow to qualify for a Gold Seal. She has two daughters in the Roy herd, one with over 50,000 lbs. milk.

Due to the great advances in medical care, particularly to the reduction in mortality among children and adolescents from infectious diseases, from 1931 to 1961 life expectancy at birth for a Canadian male increased from 60.09 years to 68.4 years, and for a female from 62.1 to 74.2 years.

However the individual trophies were won by Keith Rennie, Cameron McNeil and Keith Curran. An evening of dancing and table hopping made it a gala affair. Farmers' Bowling League Banquet

The Farmers' League Banquet on May 8th, in the Chateaugay Hotel, Chateaugay, N.Y., was a great success. Ninety-one bowlers and guests enjoyed a fried chicken dinner. The trophies were presented after dinner. Trout River almost spoiled the evening by taking home sixteen trophies. However the individual trophies were won by Keith Rennie, Cameron McNeil and Keith Curran. An evening of dancing and table hopping made it a gala affair. Much of the credit for this evening should go to League President Glenn Gordon and League Treasurer Richard MacPherson. They worked hard to make this the best banquet we have had.

Men's Bowling Final

On May 9th, Trout River met Empire T.V. in the men's final of the Valdo Bowling Trophy. Empire T.V. won 3 games to 1. Trout River put up a hard fight but Empire T.V. had the better team. This is the second year in a row that Empire T.V. has won the trophy. High singles were Henri Boileau 203, Bill Deme 196, Bill Watson 186. High total for 4 games, Bill Deme 709, Gaston Parent 618, Bill Watson 602, Bill Steele 580.

DEWITTVILLE W.I. Meeting

A Guided Tour of Simpson's, Montreal, was the planned program for the May Meeting of the Dewittville W.I. Thirteen ladies availed themselves of the opportunity to spend Wednesday afternoon, May 12th, visiting the display, advertising hospital, credit and telephone order departments, concluding with refreshments. Mrs. Cameron Bryson thanked the hostess, Mrs. Trudeau, for the interesting behind the scenes tour.

THE FAIR WAS VERY DIVERSIFIED

There was a bean bag toss, a Ping Pong ball toss, a catch the Ring on the Clowns nose and roll the marbles. Instead of money, the Cubs used beans as tender. Each Cub was given 10 beans. Each time a score was made he received 2 beans in return. The winner with 26 beans was James McIntyre and second was Gary Tremblay with 18 beans. The leaders didn't count their beans, but they enjoyed playing along with the Cubs. Each participant received a small treat at the end of the evening. Fair night was a huge success.

Mr. Dobrik Tells H.&S.A. About School For Retarded Children In This Area

The Annual Meeting of the Chateaugay Valley Huntingdon Home and School Association for Retarded Children. He informed the meeting that this group has now received its charter, and is affiliated with the Quebec Association for Retarded Children, and said that he couldn't emphasize enough the great amount of co-operation and help that the local group had received from its parent group. It is hoped that there will be a school opening for retarded children from this district in September, probably in Huntingdon, and that transportation to and from the school will be provided if necessary. There will be no fee for this school, but those who are able to contribute something towards its expenses may do so if they wish. He then went on to talk about the known factors which can produce such unfortunate children, and the things that can be done to prevent these occurrences, although much more research is being carried out to find out still more about the causes of retardation. There have been a great many myths about the causes of retardation and a great deal of shame in the families concerned, and this has hampered researchers in their efforts. However, these children come into rich families and poor ones, they are children of college graduates and high school drop-outs. They may be the result of a disease which the Mother suffered in pregnancy, or the result of a chemical imbalance in the child's own body, the reason for which may not be known. Mr. Dobrik suggested passing along information to as many people as possible about this school, and if there are any people who are interested in having their child attend they may contact him, or Mr. Brockman and receive more information. Many of these children can be trained to become useful members of society, and their capabilities will be developed after careful testing. This association and the proposed school will be a big step forward for the Chateaugay Valley, and one that deserves the support of everyone.

Historical Society Unveils Plans For Establishment of Local Museum

Last Friday at the Community Hall, Brysonville, the Chateaugay Valley Historical Society held its Annual General Meeting. The evening was held at the home of Mrs. P. Goodfellow; Treasurer, Mr. C. McCaig; Rec. Sec., Mrs. P. Goodfellow; Corres. Sec., Mrs. Jo Carpenter; Membership, Pat Rae; Publicity, Mr. L. Martin. Regional Directors: — Chateaugay, Mrs. M. A. Nicholas; Beauharnois, Mr. H. F. Tielen; Hemmingford, Mrs. J. L'Esperance; Howick, Mr. H. Brady; Huntingdon, Miss L. Rankin, Mr. D. Watson; Ormstown, Dr. J. Davidson; Ville de Lery, Mrs. Lucy Raymond, Mr. J. Parent. The use of the Society's property at Allan's Corners was the subject of much debate and it was decided that a Committee, chaired by Mr. Don Watson, would organize the collection and exhibition of articles of historical interest to be displayed in the log house, on the property. This would be open to the public with facilities for picnics to be established. Among other matters discussed was the organization of a trip to Rawdon, to visit the Historical village there. There will be a Historical tour in the Valley next Fall, and it is hoped to hold an Antique Fair sometime during the summer. The meeting closed with refreshments provided by Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cullen, to whom thanks are due.

Huntingdon High School Highlights

by Carolyn Brooks The Home economics classes are now busily preparing for their annual fashion show to be held on the afternoon of May 27 in the gymnasium. Even though this event is part of the girls' work, they take pleasure in showing their mothers the results of the year's efforts. Congratulations are extended to the newly elected executive of the student council. The president is Lois Ann McCoy, the vice-president is Eddy Gardiner, and the secretary is Sherry-Lou Piset. On Saturday various students from Huntingdon participated in Track and Field meets in Chateaugay and Ormstown. Our athletes did very well, especially those who went to Chateaugay. They displayed good sportsmanship with 1797.

Canada-U.S. Union Not Inevitable

Writing in The Financial Post, J. B. McGeachy says that nearly all discussion of an eventual union of Canada and the U.S. now originates on the Canadian side of the line. The Americans, he says, are no longer inviting us into their union as they used to. McGeachy suggests three reasons why Canada may not be regarded as a prize packet in Washington. First, it would be no help to the Americans to have our huge food surplus added to their own. Second, as a unilingual nation, they would probably find the Quebec question very difficult to handle. Third, Congress would be very reluctant to upset old party patterns by bringing in new members from the 10 Canadian provinces. The Americans, McGeachy argues, would have nothing to gain by union since they already sell more goods to Canada than to any other country, enjoy almost unlimited opportunities for profitable investment here, and obtain full military co-operation from Canada. McGeachy disputes the belief that in the long run union serves us an unreserved support whenever you can help, and in whatever way you can help. Following his talk, a lively question and answer period was held and refreshments were served by Mrs. Bulow and her committee.

This and That In Town

Claude Beaudoin, a Montreal printer who owns property at Sylvester's Point, had a long face when he arrived at the lake on Saturday. Seems his 1964 Ford convertible that he bought from Roch Trepanier Automobile last year was stolen from in front of his home in Montreal Friday night. Two men were arrested Saturday afternoon and Claude has his car back: about $200. damage, including a broken back window and smashed ignition.

Monseigneur J. A. David celebrated his 78th birthday with friends at the Chateau Huntingdon Saturday afternoon (see elsewhere) and left Montreal Monday at five p.m. to spend a vacation at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Msgr. David lived at St. Boniface, Manitoba from 1910-11 and while he passed through there three years ago on his return from Seattle, Wash. he did not have time to stop and renew acquaintances. His parishioners and all friends wish Monseigneur David a pleasant and restful vacation.

Well, it's all in the family: two brothers met at the intersection of Wellington and Dalhousie Sts., in Huntingdon Saturday and slam-banged into each other. Both cars were towed to a garage, no injuries.

J. Russell MacDonald, a few miles west of Huntingdon on Route 4, says they didn't have any of the rain reported in last week's Gleaner. Until this past weekend, his fields were as dry as a bone. Funny thing, rain sometimes falls in buckets one place and a mile away there's none at all. Most farmers report seeding finished and some fields are showing fair growth. A little more rain is all that's needed.

That re-zoning of the constituencies would be better forgotten and we hope Mr. Ian Watson, M.P. Chateauguay-Huntingdon-Beauharnois, will drive that fact home. And we think we're safe in saying he'll have 99% of the people thinking the same way.

And we see Chet and Mrs. Oney are home from Florida at last.

Did you have a visit with Father Murphy last week when he was home from Alberta? Father Murphy is the son of Mr. James Murphy of Trout River and Montreal and most of his relatives live in the Huntingdon area. He arrived by car on Wednesday and left after Sunday Mass to return to his charge. A rush trip, but he visited a good many people in the few days he had home.

The Graduation Dance at Ormstown High was a most successful affair Friday evening and the 1965 Ormstown Oracle caused considerable favorable comments. If you haven't reserved yours, we suggest you do so immediately. Last year they were on sale at the Ormstown Ex., but this year there were fewer ordered and we predict a complete sell-out soon.

That lawn mower René Foran was using on Steve McWhinnie's lawn last week sure went wild. René was cutting away when he hit a stone and the rotary lawn mower went berserk. Neighbors, attracted by the commotion, thought René would too before he got it tamed down.

And the Provincial Police are cracking down: seem every car going past the intersection of Cemetery and Chateauguay Sts. in Huntingdon on Friday and Saturday was stopped.

A chap by the name of Allen lost control of his motorcycle in Ormstown one day last week and it hit the curb at the corner of Lambton and Church and then smashed into the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce building on the corner. The motorcyclist wasn't wearing a crash helmet and he suffered a head injury when he was thrown from the machine. Latest report is he is recovering in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal.

We understand Mervin Barrington of Zephyr Textiles Ltd. is planning a trip to the Canadian West this summer. When vacation time rolls around, Mervin, Mrs. Barrington and son George will hitch their house trailer to their car and become tourists.

See the advt. for a giant bingo to be held Thursday evening at Notre Dame High School in Huntingdon. Benefits from the gala affair will be to help finance the graduates' annual trip. A short P.T.A. meeting will precede the bingo. Your presence will be sincerely appreciated by the graduating class.

Also see the advt. for the TB chest X-Ray to be held at the County Building in Huntingdon.

Now it is definite that a new Catholic Regional School will be built on the Leduc property, almost directly across the river from the J. E. Myers Shell Service Station. Excavation is scheduled to commence in September. It is apparently too late to hope that the Protestant and Catholic Regional Schools could be built in close proximity and save the taxpayers' money: even if the schools were a mile apart it would be a saving because school bus routes would not have to be duplicated. While new schools have been under discussion for some time, decisions were ahead of planning because almost everyone agrees that common gymnasiums, playgrounds, labs and bus routes, at least, would have resulted in a real saving in taxes for all.

Read about the dog that attacked the two-year-old boy in Lower Ormstown on Monday. Reports are that a pitch fork was used to force the dog off the child. More than 50 stitches, mostly to the little fellow's face, were required.

In this column last week we stated that two cars owned by Messrs. Glen Ovens and Austin Sproule collided near Ormstown. The latter name should have read Douglas W. Sproule, a brother of the late Mr. Austin Sproule. This writer sincerely regrets any embarrassment or confusion that has resulted as the deceased Mr. Sproule's widow has received a number of inquiries from people who thought her eldest son, also named Austin, had been involved in an accident.

This column is shorter this week because this Gleaner representative attended an auction sale of printing machinery yesterday (Tuesday) and two truck loads of machinery, ink and paper were acquired. We still have some unloading to do and one more trip to make, so that's it for this week

SHOCK THE SECRET NO-WARNING KILLER

TORONTO (CP) - Shock is nature's mysterious killer, claiming more lives than statistics of fatalities would indicate.

Shock is rarely mentioned in death certificates, yet it kills outright more persons than do burns or gunshot wounds, according to the magazine, Family Safety.

Yet doctors still can't fully explain or "cure" shock. It often lies undetected behind a mask of more spectacular injuries, such as bleeding or severe burns. Its power is relatively unknown to the average person.

Dr. Donald A. Dukelow, mentioned in a report from the Ontario Safety League, recommends that the treatment of every injured person "should first restore breathing if necessary, stop bleeding and third, treat for shock."

"Every injured person should be immediately treated for shock although he shows none of the symptoms of palor, rapid heart beat, shallow breathing and a dazed, confused attitude," he says.

"Combating shock is really very simple," he suggests. "For you reverse what you see in the victim. He seems cold, so you cover him enough to keep him comfortably warm, but not sweating. His face is pale, so you lift his feet (if this does not interfere with an injury) to send blood flowing to his head. He is faint or dizzy, so you give him a whiff of ammonia or a drink of stimulant such as coffee, but never alcohol which is a depressant. He is losing body fluids, so you give him crude transfusions by letting him sip water or other liquids."

Dr. Dukelow also suggests that "unless a person is in imminent danger, from a burning building or such, you should not move him."

"A firm hand grip or comforting words are also excellent therapy for shock."

A Child Is Poisoned

Speed is essential and mistakes are costly when a child is known to have consumed poison. Complicated instructions are of little use. Here are four simple steps:

1. Dilute the poison by making the child drink water; two cups for children under five, a quart for those older.

2. Make the child vomit in all cases except when there are burns around the mouth. This means the child swallowed a corrosive, such as lye. Vomiting would seriously aggravate burns in the throat and mouth. Avoid vomiting when the victim has swallowed petroleum products such as kerosene, gasoline, furniture polish, cleaning fluids. In such cases, vomit could enter the lungs causing bronchopneumonia; also avoid it when the child is unconscious or in convulsions. It could choke to death.

Induce vomiting by depressing the back of the tongue with a finger.

3. Call a doctor. Tell him the type of poison if it is known. Follow his instructions.

4. Keep the child warm and give artificial respiration if necessary. If the child is unconscious, take him at once to the nearest hospital. Take along the poison container, label, remaining contents and any vomited material. These will help identify the poison.

Caution: Concocting antidotes may waste precious time. Don't bother with them. Plenty of plain water is effective.

Prevent Poisoning Lock the medicine cabinet. Drugs, including aspirin, the biggest offender, cause most child poisonings. Keep medicines off bedroom night tables.

Don't keep household chemicals under the sink. Keep them on high shelves where crawling children cannot reach them.

Never transfer a poisonous substance into a common unmarked container such as a cola or milk bottle, drinking glass or pitcher. A child could easily mistake the poison for milk or cola.

Never put poisons in cupboards used for food storage.

Never leave a potentially poisonous substance within a child's reach even for a moment. Children can quickly get pills from purses and drink cleaning fluid while mother's back is momentarily turned.

Appointing A Speaker For House of Commons

Of late, the Speaker in the House of Commons, in Ottawa, has been having his difficulties and there have been times when his rulings have been questioned. The Speaker's job in the House is to rule on certain issues of debates and to guide the members on the right course they should pursue. When matters brought up are out of order he so rules and advises the procedure to be followed that the matter may be presented in proper form. He is therefore the presiding officer who guides the members and keeps a flow to the business. However, there are many times when a ruling is called for and it is necessary for the Speaker to know what his job is and the rules of the House.

Quite recently there has been talk of reform of the proceedings in Parliament and the position of Speaker is one of the things which may be reformed. It is said that the position should be of a permanent nature and not changed when a new Party comes to power. Usually the Prime Minister names the speaker and in all probability he is chosen from the Party the Prime Minister is leading. He could be chosen from anyone in the House and he is supposed to be absolutely impartial to all.

We feel, that in view of the quibbling that is now going on about the Speaker and there have been times when he has been confused about his rulings, that a new method of appointment might be in order. What we are about to propose may not be according to the procedure and rules, but it could be made to fit in.

It is our opinion that the Speaker should be appointed for all time until retired, or removed by death. That is to say that a retirement age should be set and at that time a new appointment would be made, the same would apply in the case of death while still holding the office. We believe the person selected for this important position should be a court judge. Our reason for this is that such a person would be conversant with the law and if it required that he study the parliamentary rules of the House, he could more easily do this and understand it and therefore qualify to give rulings without contradiction. He should be a judge practicing and used to handing down decisions. His remuneration should at least equal his judgeship, or be brought to such standard, so that there would be no loss. The appointment once made, being permanent, would give the Speaker increasing knowledge of his position and all that goes with it.

The method of appointment should be done by vote of the entire membership of the House of Commons, regardless of Party. Names of persons could be handed in by the Leaders of each Party represented in the House, even if only one individual is representing a Party. The names handed in would be placed on a ballot and then voted upon. The result of such ballot would be the man who would be the Speaker. It being understood that all names submitted would be those of practising judges.

Further to this we believe that another appointment should be made and such person should be an understudy to the Speaker. Such person could be either French or English speaking according to the mother tongue of the appointed Speaker. The same procedure to be followed as to selection. In the event that the Speaker was unable to attend, then the Deputy Speaker would take his place for such period as required. It need not follow that the Deputy Speaker would be appointed to Speaker at the retirement of same, or at his death. This could be done, or he could continue in the capacity of Deputy throughout the period of another newly appointed Speaker. This could be decided when the time should come, by the members of the House.

We believe this would be the better way of appointing someone to this important office and the House would be assured that a competent person would be handling the affairs at all times. Furthermore, it would delete any inference of favoritism and the person appointed could act with perfect impartiality at all times. All Parties placing a name on the list, the final result could be a man from any Party. Being chosen from the Judges' List, here again the one chosen may be a follower of any Party. Apart from that, such people are not supposed to have any particular political leanings.

This is something that our local Member could take notice of and perhaps help with suggestions when the time comes.

25 YEARS AGO

May 15, 1940

Contract Let

The contract for Huntingdon's new telephone dial exchange has been awarded to Cook & Leitch, of Montreal, according to K.V. Kierstead, manager of the Bell Telephone Co. for this area. It is expected building operations will begin immediately.

Bathing Suit Restrictions

At the St. Anicet Council at its regular meeting on Monday, May 6 the secretary-treasurer was authorized to have cards and signs printed and placed at prominent places within the municipality and along the public roads, forbidding bathers to walk about in their bathing suits or in other indecent clothes.

Heavy Traffic Resumed

Heavy traffic was again permitted on the highway Monday following the usual period in the spring when it is prohibited. The Provincial Transport Co. ran their heavy bus from Montreal to Huntingdon on Sunday evening for the first time since only the lighter traffic was permitted.

20 Years Ago — 1920

The 1919 report of the Red Cross Society showed that the Huntingdon branch was the third most important branch in the Province of Quebec during the Great War, the cities of Quebec and Sherbrooke being first and second respectively. Huntingdon forwarded 6754 articles.

It completed a good day visiting farms in the Lachute area. I found seeding being pushed right along, but there were still no cows out to pasture, although last week's thunder storms had helped to bring the grass along.

Roger Bradford at Cushing has had another satisfactory season with his sheep. All the lambs, except four, were sold early in the year on a keen market. But at these light weights he probably cannot claim the new provincial subsidy of $3.00 for choice market lambs. And this must be something of a record — one of his Suffolk ewes produced three sets of twins in fourteen months. Any challengers?

Stuart Armstrong, just west of Lachute, is planting nineteen acres of table turnips this spring. He must be satisfied with his last year's trial. It seems that most of the waxed turnips in the stores come from Ontario. But if I read the statistics right, there should be surplus of table turnips in Quebec. They show 45 million pounds grown on 2000 acres. And 6 million people eating, the national average of 5.3 pounds account for only two-thirds of that. Presumably, there are cows that eat well, too.

Another calf was to see the $600 cow Jean St. Pierre brought home from last week's Holstein disposal. Jean is on the Larose farm at Grenville which I am told won the agricultural merit award a few years back. He bought the place only two years ago, but he is coming ahead fast. And he doesn't mind breaking with tradition either; his grain corn was planted in the first week of May before he touched the oats. He says he saw corn frozen to the ground last

MAY HE GET SEASICK!

Among adults, though few would admit it, there is a great deal of jealousy of today's teenagers.

This is revealed by the adults' oft-expressed wish that kids in their teens could act like them; by their reaction to any hint of change in the rules for their children; and especially by their endless prating about how soft a time the youngsters have now, and how hard it was in their day.

To hear most adults talk, you'd think they'd never had any fun at all, when they were kids, or ever done anything foolish. There's a steady stream of poppycock about how far they walked to school through the snow; how scanty were their wardrobes; how early they had to be in at night; how hard their parents worked them; how good their marks were in school.

There's a modicum of truth in all of this, of course, because life was a lot more simple and frugal a quarter-century ago. But with the passing of time the morsel of truth becomes a bit of malarkey. Personally, I think we had a lot less to cope with, socially and psychologically, if not physically, than today's teenagers.

But this attitude received a jolt this week, when my son announced that he had nailed down a summer job. It was difficult to keep my upper lip both stiff and buttoned, when I compared his first real job with mine.

There are parallels. Both of us got the job at age 17, and both jobs were on the upper Great Lakes boats. There the parallel ends.

For instance, I hitch-hiked 480 miles, with $2.50 cash, to meet my boat. He will be driven three miles, by his father, to catch his.

And the hours aren't quite the same. I worked the graveyard shift, midnight to noon, seven days a week. He'll work a couple of hours morning and afternoon, about three hours in the evening, and have a day and a half off each week. That's all right, I don't bear grudge. Nobody should have to work like a dog. But there's a slight difference in the pay. I pulled down $30 a month, even on the 31-day months. A dollar a day and keep. My son will be knocking off just over nine times as much.

However, that's OK. Wages have gone up a lot. Why should he work for peanuts? I must admit, though, that I was a little disturbed by the difference in our duties.

I scrubbed floors, cleaned out lavatories, polished brass and sorted dirty linen. In spare moments I helped sling out the gangplank, or made the officers' beds. My kid will organize shuffleboard games, play the piano for singings and run a movie projector. In spare moments, he will chat to nice old ladies.

That's fine. No hard feelings. We can't all be aristocrats in our first job. But what about this? I wore a scruffy old smock, covered with brass polish. He'll wear a snappy blue uniform, covered with brass buttons.

And what about this? My official title was Night Porter. His is Entertainment Steward. I ate with the deckhands and firemen. He'll eat in the dining room. I slept with seven other scullions in a stall large enough for one Scotland pony. He'll share a cabin with one other softy of the Sixties.

I was forbidden, on pain of keelhauling and 16 years in the hulks, to have anything to do with the passengers, except mop up after them. The kid, in the captain's own words, "Will have the girls following you all over the boat."

Oh, well. No use being bitter. The good old days of Depression, when you knew you were a slave, but were happy to be a working slave, are gone forever.

However, I can't help hoping the kid will get good and seasick all over that uniform. The first time he hits a roll in Lake Superior. At least, we'd have that much in common in our first summer jobs. Toronto Telegram News Service.

"COUNTRY NOTEBOOK"

BY WALKER RILEY

"Country Notebook" by Mr. Walker Riley, Agricultural Extension Specialist with Macdonald College appears in The Gleaner with this edition. The column will be a weekly feature which we trust will be of interest to all in the Chateauguay Valley.

This past week I had another ear balanced in the mid-ther memorable experience. I dle along at a surprising clip, crossed the Ottawa River by where we might end up if the enjoyable way to travel: the day was warm and the water pleasantly choppy. The little launch towed the raft with de Chateauguay; in the County of Huntingdon: the parish municipalities of Saint Anicet and Sainte Barbe; the township municipalities of Dundee, Elgin, Franklin, Godmanchester and Hinchinbrook, and the Indian Reserve of Saint Regis No. 15. Population: 70,017.

Under such a set-up the Counties of Huntingdon and Chateauguay would become a complicated mess if this proposed readjustment goes through. While the overall picture gives a much more balanced population throughout the constituencies, it is to be hoped that counties are not chopped up in this manner. How would Chateauguay and Huntingdon make their voices heard in three different places under three different representatives? Each of the proposed constituencies has an entirely different leading outlook to agriculture. Beauharnois County is much more industrial today, than agricultural. St. Jean could be placed in the same category. Laprairie under the proposed plan would also be more industrial than agricultural. It just means that neither of the counties of Chateauguay and Huntingdon would have a voice again. In all probability, the representative elected in each case would be someone from another part of the constituency and the people here would meet him only at election time. The close unity with our member that always has been maintained here except probably at one time, would be lost. We would become just a part of the 70 odd thousand.

In view of this we believe that strong voice should be given to this change and that if any change is made at all it should be to make Chateauguay-Huntingdon into one constituency, even if this means adding another one to the list. Previously Quebec had 75 ridings and under the proposed boundary plan, this has been reduced to 74. Thus such a change would not make much difference. But each of three constituencies would be a little less in size and population. In order that the numbering isn't changed Chat-Hunt could be numbered 75.

Charges of Disrespect

IT seems these days that officials in high places who should set examples of behaviour are making grave mistakes themselves. It is hard to know why such should happen as those of whom we speak take oath to uphold the integrity and honor of their office, they also swear allegiance.

But the past week an uproar came in the Quebec Legislature when a member was charged with having insulted the Queen. He was alleged to have said the "Queen Should Mind Her Own Business." Both Premier Lesage and the Speaker, Richard Hyde, demanded a retraction and later it was complied with.

Such utterances from those who have sworn allegiance are certainly not in good taste and neither does this set an example for respect of the Queen, or the Government. Leadership of this kind is not likely to encourage following. We hear so much about such things in this day, we wonder what sort of governments and people we have voted for.

In future elections we shall need to weigh matters very closely in order to try and elect members who will take their jobs seriously and become real statesmen.

New Show Herd

The Hon. Harry Hays, Minister of Agriculture for Canada is to be congratulated on his efforts to revive, or perhaps rejuvenate the Central Experimental Farm, at Ottawa, Ont., as the home of a first class herd of cattle. In that respect we may quote a Canada Department of Agriculture release, which reads, in part: "Agriculture Minister of Agriculture Harry Hays today announced the official opening of his department's 'Canadian Livestock Showcase,' for export promotion at the Central Experimental Farm. The Showcase comprises 10 representative females from each of the four major dairy breeds in Holstein, Ayrshire, Guernsey and Jersey."

Original Herd

Initially the Ayrshire purchases were made in Ontario and Quebec, including the great cow Belle of Oban, who despite her name was not imported but was the produce of a small Glangary herd. Dr. Archibald and Bob Cunningham also selected and purchased several outstanding groups of animals in Scotland, including most of those who remain at the first and second Royal Winter Fairs, partieu

Athelstan

ATHELSTAN — The Ladies Aid met in the church school room on Thursday afternoon, May 13.

Mrs. Hampson conducted the meeting. A minute of silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. A. W. Perkins who had been a life-long member of the Society. The silence was followed by prayer by Mrs. Bernhard, who also led in the devotions. Her topic was based on Eph. 6: 24 and the theme Sincerity followed by prayer.

Eleven members and several guests were present and the ladies quitted during the afternoon.

Two notes of thanks were read, one from Mrs. K. G. Cameron for the donation to the Legion Building Fund and the second from Mrs. Green for an Easter Lily received.

The next meeting will be held one week earlier to avoid conflicting with Orms town Fair.

The hostesses, the Misses Catherine and Bessie Graham, served a salad supper to the guests and members.

Miss Betty Chalmers of Montreal was at the Chalmers' Cottage for the week-end, where her uncle Lyle Chalmers of Toronto visited with her Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hutchings attended the funeral of the late James Brookie at Pointe Claire last Friday.

Husbandman, and with R. ("Bob") L. Cunningham as Animal Husbandman in charge of the Central Farm's livestock. Incidentally, Bob Cunningham was one of the finders or locations in Scotland by the late Hon. R. R. Ness; of young men who were to become leading herd managers, breeders and animal husbandmen in Canada and the U.S.A. In this instance the Hon. R. R. was acting on behalf of Dr. Grisdale, but when Bob arrived at Burnside with an importation from Scotland the Ottawa job had not yet been authorized. And so it was that he went to the Alta Crest Farms of Spenser Mass., for a time, until he was called to Ottawa.

Initially the Ayrshire purchases were made in Ontario and Quebec, including the great cow Belle of Oban, who despite her name was not imported but was the produce of a small Glangary herd. Dr. Archibald and Bob Cunningham also selected and purchased several outstanding groups of animals in Scotland, including most of those who remain at the first and second Royal Winter Fairs, partieu

However, The Farm herd was established some two decades before then, when the late Dr. J. H. Grisdale (subsequently Deputy Minister of Agriculture) was Director of the Dominion Experimental Farms System, with Dr. E. S. Archibald as Dominion Animal year, and it recovered. His son, Andre, is the first president of the Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs in the Lachute zone.

The placement of fertilizer is as important as the kind and amount you use. And a key fact is that roots grow outward and downward to find it. So, for corn, a band two inches to the side and two inches below the seed has proven most efficient.

But there can be two drawbacks with banding. First, large amounts of fertilizer even that close to the seed may hurt germination. And second, fertilizer hoppers on corn planters do not hold very much. So a growing practice is to broadcast most of the fertilizer and plough down, ahead of time, saving 100 lbs or 200 lbs per acre of mixed fertilizer to go on when planting.

For cereals, it is a different matter. Most response comes from placing the fertilizer right with the grain. These seeds are not so sensitive to burn from the smaller amounts generally used.

Corn is a very heavy user of nitrogen. A 20-ton silage crop will have used 150 lbs of the element. That's the amount found in 1500 lbs of 10-10-10 fertilizer. Unlike clover, corn can't take it out of the air, so it must get it from decaying plant material or from fertilizer. A good clover or alfalfa sod turned down should supply 100 lbs. Or 10 tons manure per acre will provide 50 lbs to that crop. Almost all the rest must come out of the bag.

Atrazine is still at the top of the list of chemicals for weed control in corn. Standard rates are 1 1/2 to 2 lbs active ingredient in 20 to 30 gallons water per acre. Atrazine comes in several strengths — 50W, 65W, 80W. The figure 65W, for example, means that there is 65 lbs of active ingredient in 100 lbs of wettable material. Otherwise, there is no reason to choose between them.

If Atrazine is put on carefully not exceeding these rates, there is little need to worry about residue damage to next year's crops. I have seen several cases of damage to oats and new seedlings, but all could be traced to carelessness, overlapping runs, or poor agitation in the tank, or worn nozzles.

Depending on custom work has its disadvantages. I thought everything was set to have my Birdsfoot Trefoil sprayed with Dalapon to suppress the grass. But there was a letter in last night's mail: my neighbour is too busy with his own seeding and getting the manure out. Besides, he is on jury duty.

larly the bull Overtoun Lord Kyle and Auchinbay Mina 5th., the grand champion female at the 1923 Royal Winter Fair. Production wise the herd made exceedingly good records and also furnished the bulls and foundation stock for the Branch Experimental Farms across Canada.

In the meantime a very good Holstein herd was also established at the Central Farm. However, following Dr. Archibald's succession as Director of the Experimental Farms System and George B. Rothwell's promotion from Dominion Animal Husbandman to the position Director of Production Services of the Department of Agriculture, both herds rapidly deteriorated, from various causes including fanciful breeding and feeding experiments. In fact it was that when the Canadian Ayrshire Type Classification plan was initiated the Ottawa Ayrshire herd was decidedly one of the lowest rated herds.

It should therefore be most gratifying to most of the adherents of the Ayrshire, Holstein, Guernsey and Jersey breeds of cattle that the Hon. Harry Hays has established not only a "Livestock Showcase" of their respective breeds, but also, in effect, an experimental breeding herd of each breed.

The report reads, in part: The Showcase comprises 10 representative females from each of the four major dairy breeds. Cost of purchasing the 40 head was $31,725 — or an average price of $793 each. The Holsteins were bought at an average price of $940 each; the 10 Guernseys at $822.50 each; the 10 Ayrshires at $710 each; and the 10 Jerseys at an average price of $700 each. "The cattle were nominated by, and purchased through the farm National Breed Associations. They were selected after inspection by the Canada Department of Agriculture's Livestock Division which is in charge of the project.

"The cows, from three to five years of age, will be milked twice a day under the Record of Performance Plan (R.P.P.), and they will be bred through Artificial Insemination to bulls nominated by the breed associations.

During the course of his comments at the time of the opening of the Showcase, the Hon. Harry Hays said "They are a sample of the kind of cattle we can offer buyers from abroad. We get a great many people from other countries passing through Ottawa. Many of them in a hurry, but if we can just get them to take a few minutes off to drop into the Experimental Farm, we can show them just what we have to offer. Of course the Showcase will also have the added benefit of introducing some of our own farmers to the kind of cattle they themselves should be breeding at home. As more space becomes available, the size of the herds will be increased and Showcase herds of beef cattle, swine and sheep will be added."

LINES BELL

by Laurent Bouchard, your telephone manager

This weekend — the first long weekend of the summer — a province-wide Road Safety Operation is being launched by PRUDENTIA, the Provincial Highway Safety Committee, under the theme:

"ROAD SAFETY — EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY"

The success of the campaign will depend on each and every one of us — driver, passenger, pedestrian and cyclist alike. And surely the tragic results of last year will spur us on to greater awareness and caution: according to the Canadian Highway Safety Council, Quebec highway accidents took 1,581 lives in 1964, an increase of 20% over 1963 and the worst record of any of the provinces. Another 37,000 people were injured on our roads last year, and there were over 94,000 accidents causing damage of over $100 each.

Collectively, we can reduce this terrible toll, and make our highway safe. But we must make the Prudentia campaign to heart and accept the fact that road safety is everyone's responsibility — and ALL the time.

Outdoors At Home

I wonder if Canadians would be so appreciative of the spring and summer if Canada had a warm climate all year round? Well, no matter, the fact is that we don't have a warm climate all year round, and we take as much advantage of it as possible while it's here. This doesn't only mean trips and excursions and picnics and the like, but "outside living" on the porch, patio, or under the family trees. And this can sometimes present a problem because "inside living" still has to go on as well. For example, the telephone is probably considered a part of "inside living" by most people — perhaps because it's more or less "tied down" by a wire. Yet there are two solutions which let people enjoy as much "outside living" as possible while still keeping in easy touch with friends. One is the Bell Chime, which can be set to ring loud enough to be heard outdoors (it also has a regular ring, plus a soft musical tone that's perfect when a family member is ringing). The other is a portable extension with a weatherproof jack. What would you do with an outdoor extension during the winter months? Well, you take it back in with you and use it as a regular extension! If you're interested, we'd be glad to tell you more about it — just give us a call at our business office.

Health through Chiropractic

PLAIN FACTS The central nervous system is made of the brain, the spinal marrow and of 21 pairs of nerves which all start from the latter to run all through the body. The brain generates a neuro-electric energy which is indispensable to life and health of each of the cells; this energy runs through the nerves' network all over the system. It is then very important for its good health to be free from all obstruction...

also mentioned if there is any spare money it could be donated to the upkeep of the Hoodless home. She reported that Argenteuil County have gone wholeheartedly into drama for the Convention. They chose five plays, but after adjudication they were reduced to four which they have performed before the public, thereby raising $450.00. Mrs. Ossington concluded her remarks with information that Mrs. Matheson, the new National President will honour the Convention with her presence, urging as many members as possible to attend.

The usual sale of plants, baked goods, aprons and smallwares then took place, followed by a very tasty lunch served by Aubrey-Riverfield branch.

The afternoon session opened with "O Canada" after which the Roll was called showing a total attendance of 79 broken down in branches as follows: — Aubrey-Riverfield (8), Dewittville (7), Dumee (6), Franklin (5), Hemmingford (9), Howick (11), Huntingdon (10), Ormstown (10).

Palmer urged all conveners to face up to their responsibilities by attending meetings when called to plan events pertaining to their particular field of work. If they cannot, they should have a very good reason for not doing so. Further discussion of dates, etc.

We were favoured with a further talk by Mrs. Ossington in the afternoon. She stressed the choice of a suitable delegate to send to the Leadership Course, for she has the responsibility of relating to the members the knowledge she has gained from attending this course.

In a very vivid way we travelled with Mrs. Ossington as she told us in a most interesting manner of her visits to Japan, Hong Kong, Thailand, New Zealand and Australia, and greatly enjoyed her Welsh wit as she cited humorous incidents and jokes. Only one representative, Mrs. McGibbon will attend the National Conference in Dublin, Ireland, but she said the members could feel very proud of QWI as the Government of Ireland had made a very prompt response with a cheque for $500 towards the expenses of this trip. She stressed the idea of giving a little of our spare time to help the aged in the community. Small things like a friendly visit or even a telephone call, or maybe washing and dressing the hair means so much. She urged us to give Centennial serious thought as time has a habit of passing very quickly. Personal projects such as planting beds with blue and gold flower motifs was given as an idea. QWI His-story is for sale. Each member should have one in her possession.

Mrs. Wallace Kerr extended thanks to Mrs. Ossington for her splendid talk and to Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Scoble for their musical contribution to a pleasant meeting.

The printing of the branch programs for 1965-66 was discussed at length, and it was finally moved that each branch would take care of its own printing one copy to each branch in the County.

Mrs. E. M. Wood is still appraising items for her scrapbook. The total amounts collected from the sale were: — Flants $15.05; Aprons, $21.30; Food $15.35 making a total of $51.70. Collection amounted to $21.63.

Mrs. A. H. Fraser, Chairman of the nominating committee read the new slate of officers. They are as follows: — Honorary President, Mrs. W. Middlemiss, Huntingdon; President, Mrs. H. Robertson, Aubrey; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Wallace Kerr, Ormstown; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. D. Wooley, Hemmingford; Secretary, Mrs. J. Robertson, Hemmingford; Treasurer, Miss F. Once again we were indeed glad to see Mrs. Smallman at the meeting, and regretted the absence of Mrs. C. Petch, out were happy it was for pleasure reasons and not health. It is our hope that both these grand ladies will continue to take an active part in our Institute for many more years.

HOWICK High School HIGHLIGHTS

(Jo Anne Rorison)

Grades 10 and 11 exams are over and we in Grade 11 can now look forward to the French Orals on Thursday.

Some ambitious students under the direction of the Student Council held a successful carwash on Saturday while a few others went to the Chateaugay Track Meet where modest success was achieved by Debbie Champ, Phyllis Whyte, Shirley Whyte, and Harry Younie. The bright lights for Howick at the Junior C.V.T.A.A. Meet held at Ormstown were Peter Stuckey, Judy Gagnon, Anne Gagnon, and Jeannie Murray.

As far as Howick High is concerned, the Music Festival was a great success. We had several entries and all received very high marks, some doctor's recommendation. Congratulations to our Juniors!

The Gault inter-school track meets have been held during the past week; the Chateaugay Valley Track Meet was held on May 15 at Chateaugay and Ormstown.

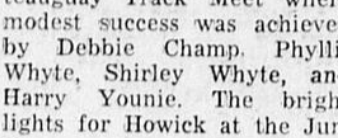

Gault students, it is hoped, have begun to study more zealously as the June examinations are quickly approaching.

News from Howick

The Howick W.I. met on May 10th, at the home of Mrs. R. B. Ness, the president. Mrs. Arthur Kerr, presided. Sixteen members and one visitor answered the roll call by naming their favorite flowering shrub. The Salvation Army truck will be at Howick, May 19th. Parcels may be left in Mr. Ness' shed at the rear of the Temperance Hall.

Leadership Course is being held at Macdonald College from May 25 to 28. Money was voted to County Project and Christmas stocking fund.

Mrs. Bradley read an item on Biculturalism and Bilingualism. Miss Jean Ritchie read an interesting article on an experiment being carried out in Montreal schools. Grade XI students, both boys and girls were teaching classes for a complete day. Mrs. Mair read an article from The Gleaner concerning the Flower of Hope campaign. These seeds are to be sent out and a contribution in aid of Retarded Children is expected. Mrs. J. Scoble's article on "What you don't know about bees" was instructive but also most amusing. Mrs. A. Kerr gave a report of County Convention at Riverfield. Eleven members attended and all reported an enjoyable day.

Mrs. Tolhurst had really been doing research. By means of illustrations she compared the fashions of 1909 - 1959. A cup of tea and delicious fruit breads were served by the hostess and her committee.

Personal
Mr. and Mrs. M. Johansen, Linda, Karen and Kimberley of Oakville, Ont., spent the week-end the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hadson Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McMullan, Kevin and Carol spent Saturday at the same home. On Tuesday evening, April 27th, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown wondered what social event they were missing when they saw several neighbour families leave home.

Visiting friends suggested they go out for the evening too, and eventually all arrived at the same place — Howick Curling Club — to celebrate the Brown's 25th Wedding anniversary.

Guests numbering 65 came from Montreal, Cornwall, Bainsville, Malone, N.Y., Ormstown and Howick and included the family, cousins, neighbors, Riverfield Church Choir and other friends.

Cards were played at several tables, others visited as the cousins seldom meet except on such occasions. Delicious refreshments were served. The bridal table was centered with a lovely book anniversary cake, candles and flowers.

The Rev. W. M. Brown was Master of Ceremonies and in his usual humorous manner entertained the guests.

Mr. Gerald Roy presented a beautifully decorated box, containing gifts of money from all who were present.

Among those who expressed congratulations were, the mayor of Howick, Mr. Clarence Kerr, Mrs. W. K. McRae, President of the Howick Ladies Curling Club, Clare Sweitzer, a cousin, and Norman Simms, a friend.

A card party at the high school last Thursday evening, sponsored by the Home and School Association was attended by a fair crowd. Proceeds will go towards the Scholarship fund.

Euchre prizes went to Mrs. Burton Reddick and Mr. Ken Allen for high scores, and Mrs. Willie Allen and Mr. Douglas Templeton — low scores.

500 high to Mrs. Margaret Graham and Mr. M. McIntyre. Low to Mrs. Helen Peddie and Mr. T. Gourley.

Bridge high, Mrs. W. G. Brown, Mr. Norman Simms, Low Mrs. Nellie Tolhurst.

The executive of the Howick Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society is pleased to report that the objective of $700, set for the financial campaign has been met. The regular campaign yielded $690.50 and the Howick Women's Institute gave $9.70 to provide for the deficiency.

The Howick Branch is grateful to Mr. E. B. Muir, who devoted considerable time and effort to the campaign, both as canvasser and organizer; to Mr. O. W. Mattison, Chairman of the Finance Committee; and to all the willing canvassers who helped make this a success.

More than 20 members of U.C.W. met at the United Church Hall for a quilting party on Tuesday of last week. Everyone brought a lunch and at noon a cup of tea was served. 3 quilts were finished and 2 more started.

The Hi C group met in the Church Hall on Saturday evening with 13 members present.

The devotional period was conducted by Laurie Gruet. A report was given on the youth rally at Valleyfield. A movie, "What About Alcohol?" was viewed followed by a discussion period led by Mr. Hudson.

Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Younie and Mrs. Murray Templeton were present as leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hope, Jimmy and Kenny attended the annual Shooting Matches at Teondoroga, N.Y., over the week-end. Mrs. Hope won 1st prize in the bench class, while Kenny won 1st, in the off-hand and 2nd, in the bench class. A great crowd gathered for this event and the Hope's met many good friends they have become acquainted with during the years.

Piano students from this district made a much better showing than usual at the music festival.

Fifteen entries from Mrs. A. Johnstone's class, formed only 8 months before the festival, were a credit to their teacher. The children enjoy their lessons with this talented teacher, and worked hard.

A music festival is not so much a contest for first place as a musical experience that gives the students an opportunity to compare themselves with others and spurs them on to improve their work and to have more fun playing and singing. Teachers also find it an invaluable experience as they discover ways they can improve their teaching.

Miss Helen Montgomery returned to her home in Brockville, Ont., after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford.

She attended the final concert of the Music Festival and was amazed to find such outstanding talent in a country district.

A quick trip to Montreal by bus to see and hear "Sound of Music", gave her songs to sing and memories to treasure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crawford of Lachine visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford on Sunday, to celebrate Jim's 85th birthday — May 17th.

Their gift of a comfortable light-weight garden chair was most acceptable and no doubt you will see him sitting in the shade provided by his newly-planted birthday gift trees.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McMullan, Kevin and Carol spent Saturday at the same home. On Tuesday evening, April 27th, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown wondered what social event they were missing when they saw several neighbour families leave home.

Visiting friends suggested they go out for the evening too, and eventually all arrived at the same place — Howick Curling Club — to celebrate the Brown's 25th Wedding anniversary.

Guests numbering 65 came from Montreal, Cornwall, Bainsville, Malone, N.Y., Ormstown and Howick and included the family, cousins, neighbors, Riverfield Church Choir and other friends.

Cards were played at several tables, others visited as the cousins seldom meet except on such occasions. Delicious refreshments were served. The bridal table was centered with a lovely book anniversary cake, candles and flowers.

The Rev. W. M. Brown was Master of Ceremonies and in his usual humorous manner entertained the guests.

Mr. Gerald Roy presented a beautifully decorated box, containing gifts of money from all who were present.

Among those who expressed congratulations were, the mayor of Howick, Mr. Clarence Kerr, Mrs. W. K. McRae, President of the Howick Ladies Curling Club, Clare Sweitzer, a cousin, and Norman Simms, a friend.

A card party at the high school last Thursday evening, sponsored by the Home and School Association was attended by a fair crowd. Proceeds will go towards the Scholarship fund.

Monday overnight guests of Miss Sheila Stevenson were Mount Allison University Students, Miss Gwen Mulkins of Ottawa, Ont., and Miss Joan Peggs of Hong Kong.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mosher and family of Chateaugay were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosher and Miss Doris Mosher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mosher were Friday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dean in Phillipsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Steele of Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baxter, Point St. Charles, attended the Lindsay-Dear wedding in Rennie United Church on Saturday afternoon.

Exhibition of Antiques And Handicrafts May Become Annual Event

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Some 150 people turned out last Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Memorial Hall to admire the exhibition of antiques and handicrafts organized by U.C.W.'s Mrs. Dickenson and Mrs. Adams. This exhibition, the first of its kind ever to be organized by the United Church Women, proved to be so successful that a repeat performance is confidently predicted — in fact, let us call it "The First Annual Spring Exhibition of Antiques and Handicrafts."

Greeting guests as they entered Memorial Hall were ladies garbed in old-fashioned costumes. The ladies were eventually identified as Miss Muriel Hay, Mrs. A. P. MacLean, Mrs. A. McKay, Mrs. S. King and Mrs. G. Ruiter. Keeping guard at the entrance was the "surprise guest star", Rev.

On Bicycle Safety

By Edith Bate

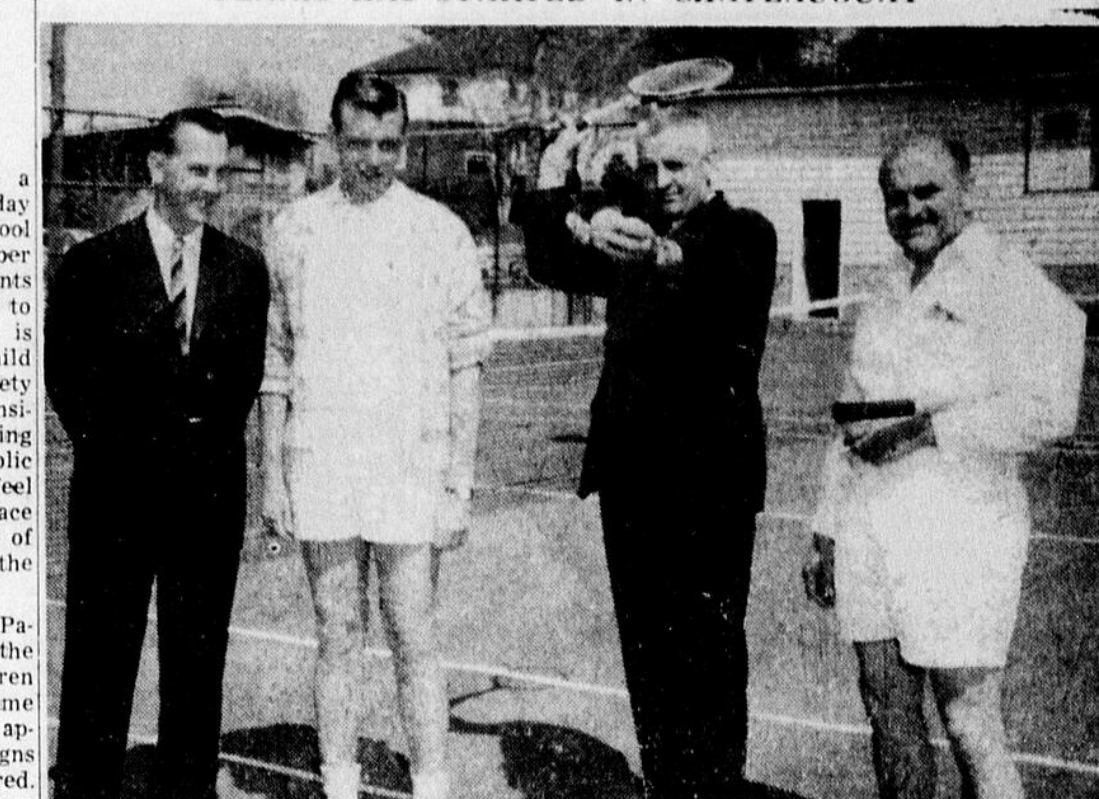

One just needs to take a quick look during a week-day morning at the various school yards to see the vast number of bicycles that the students use to ride back and forth to school. Literally hundreds is a safe guess. The average child knows a few of the safety rules, but not enough, considering that they are taking this "vehicle" out on the public roads. Most motorists feel that cyclists are a menace on the roads from the time of the Spring thaw until the coming of snow again.

What exactly is safety? Parents often fall down on the job of teaching their children the safety rules. The same rules for motor vehicles applies to bicycles. Stop signs for example are ignored. Trick riding and two on a bike is quite an accepted thing. I watched a parent one early afternoon recently helping a younger child on to the bike of an older brother — so that they could both ride together and so apparently arrive home at the same time.

A bicycle should be the proper size for the child, should be in proper working order, be oiled regularly, kept reasonably clean, and I could go on — except that I myself do not know all the details concerning bikes. I was very fortunate enough to even have a ride on a borrowed bike. However — there is to be a Bicycle Safety Rally on May 29th, sponsored by Maple Home and School Association. This is on a Saturday morning. Primary grade pupils will have their bike tests in the Maple School grounds, and children from the higher grades will be tested on specially designated streets.

More details will be in The Gleaner next week, so please watch these pages.

New Co-operative Pre-School Executive Elected By Acclamation

There can be no doubt that the nominating committee of the Seigneurie Park Co-operative Pre-school Association did a superlative job this year. The complete slate of nominees submitted by the committee was elected by acclamation in a matter of a very few minutes. The election was conducted by Mrs. Ruth Gulkin.

The new executive is as follows: Chairman, Mrs. Pat Bedard; Co-Chairman, Mrs. Madolin Karch; Secretary, Mrs. Lillian Lamb; Treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Hofstatter; Registrar, Mrs. Elaine Robitaille; Director, Mrs. Rose Benson; Director, Mrs. Marjorie Hewitt.

Introducing the new executive Mrs. Bedard is well known for her superb organizational ability. She has been Chairman of the Activities Committee of the Seigneurie Park Homeowners' Association for two years, and her accomplishments in this field are well known to most of the residents of Seigneurie Park, adults and children included. Mrs. Bedard is the mother of five children. She was born in Winnipeg. Before her marriage, she taught school, and has also worked as a librarian. This past year she was a director of the Pre-School Association. With her talent for getting things done and her great personal charm, the school is fortunate to have her in its service.

Mrs. Karch is entering her second term as co-chairman. For the past four months, she has been acting chairman, and has done a most creditable job. She has held the position of fund raising chairman for the past two years. Mrs. Karch is a Montrealer by birth, and she has three children. Before her marriage, she worked as a secretary. She will be an associate member this coming term, while young Michele works on becoming old enough for nursery school. Mrs. Karch, too, has a well-earned reputation for making the right things happen. Exceptionally dynamic, knowledgeable, Mrs. Karch devotes a great deal of time and energy to the school.

The Chateauguays Part Of Proposed Laprairie Riding

By Fergus Horsburgh

The Electoral Boundaries Commission for Quebec, an independent body constituted by the Pearson Government last year, has recommended far-reaching changes in Quebec's federal constituencies.

Under the British North America Act, a census is held in Canada every 10 years. The commission's recommendations are based on the 1961 census and are aimed at a more equitable population representation. The average population of Quebec's constituencies is 71,070, and the law permits a variance of 25% from the average, in either direction, in setting the new boundaries for constituencies. Quebec's total representation is reduced to 74 seats from 75, reflecting the fact that Quebec fell behind the rest of Canada in population growth between the censuses of 1951 and 1961. Over-riding the 25% variance formula, the B.N.A. Act stipulates that no Province shall have fewer seats in the House of Commons than it has members of the Senate, although any Province may hold greater representation in the Commons than in the Senate. In the case of Quebec, the stipulation has had no practical application, since the number of representatives in the Commons, based on percentage of total Canadian population, far exceeds the number of seats in the Senate. Quebec now has the same representation in the Senate — 24 seats — as it held at Confederation in 1867.

The changes now proposed by the Commission have to be approved by the Federal Parliament, and provision has been made for public hearings of representations. Prior notice in writing of any representation must be made on or before June 7, 1965 to the Secretary to the Commission, 400 Craig Street West, Suite 80, Montreal 1. Hearings of the Commission will be held in the main population centres of the province between June 21, 1965 and August 30, 1965, when the final public hearing will be held in the Montreal Court House.

For the Chateauguay Valley, main interest in the Commission's proposals lies in the interchange of areas within the present boundaries of the Chateauguay-Salaberry, now held by Liberal M.P., Mr. Gerald Laniel, and Chateauguay-Huntingdon-Laprairie, now held by Liberal M.P., Mr. Ian Watson. Following the pattern for the rest of the province, whereby dual and triple names of constituencies have disappeared, these Chateauguay Valley ridings have been re-designated simply as Beauharnois and Laprairie.

MAYOR LABERGE OPENS FASTBALL

is the mother of four children, the oldest now in Grade 1. She has been an associate member for two years. She did assist mothers' scheduling for one year, and this past year was chairman of the telephone committee. Mrs. Robitaille is fluent in both French and English.

Mrs. Benson, mother of two pre-school boys, was born in Pakistan, of English parents. She finished her schooling in England and went on to train as a nurse at a London hospital. She still works professionally. She has been a member of the Association for one year, in which time she has proved herself both thoughtful and dedicated.

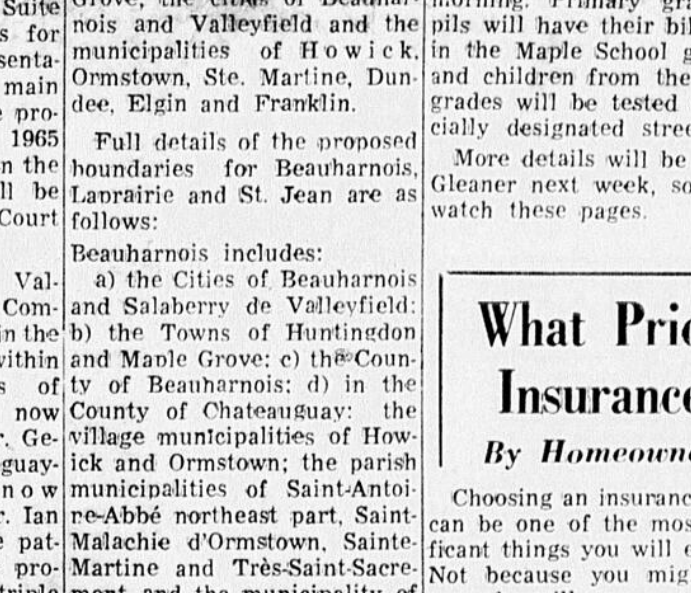

Mrs. Hewitt was Chairman of the Association two years ago. Born in England, she is the mother of three children. Before her marriage, she worked in accounting. She has served on the fund raising and building committees, and this past year was Lakeshore Council Representative. In addition to her directorship for the coming year, she will assume the post of equipment chairman.

The new executive takes over the end of June. Both the old and new executive will meet jointly before this time, to ensure a smooth transition and continuity in school policy through the summer months.

What Price Insurance By Homeowner

Choosing an insurance agent can be one of the most significant things you will ever do. Not because you will ever do one who will save you money. Not because another might not bother you. And not because one might have the right "connections".

While these might seem to be useful talents, an insurance agent who stresses anyone of these points in his sales pitch, is not an agent at all — he's a salesman, period. And let's face it, you need an insurance salesman like you need a third lip. So, what's the difference you say. Agent, smagent, their all after my buck.

That's true, up to a point. The insurance agent should be a business man. A good one and a successful one. He should be interested in making a good living for himself. To do this, he sells a product. But here's the joker my friend, his product is not, repeat not, insurance. In simple terms, his product is service. Sure it sounds a bit corny. If you're lucky, you'll meet up with an agent who doesn't mind being a bit corny. He'll believe that he knows quite a lot more about his product than you do. Even more about what you need than you do yourself. And he'll be determined that it is his duty to try to see that you have the protection you need and can afford. Based on his knowledge and training not yours. He'll consider that what you really need and want is protection against a major catastrophe. Otherwise, you would not buy any insurance at all. In short, when a serious claim occurs, the insurance buyer wants to be paid for his loss. Do all agents feel that way? Unfortunately for you, no. Some are, as noted earlier, salesmen. They would rather

Chat. Heights Borrowing By-Law Readings Set

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

In a statement issued to property-owners last week-end, Town of Chateauguay Heights Mayor Jean Laberge announced that first and final readings of a Borrowing By-Law would be made at an adjourned Council Meeting scheduled to be held last (Tuesday) evening at Town Hall. The By-Law would authorize construction of a modern water and sewage system, and the borrowing of necessary funds to do the work.

Mayor Laberge drew attention to the irony of events in the Heights since the area seceded from the Town of Chateauguay in 1948. Largely due to the efforts of the Heights' first Mayor, Mr. Larry Melville, the Heights was incorporated as a municipality on the grounds that residents in the new Town wished to acquire a modern water and sewage system. Since that time the rest of Chateauguay had moved with the times, and all areas now have modern water and sewage facilities. The Heights has been left far behind.

"A Salute To The Future"

(By Delene Chopping)

Brownies, Guides, and Rangers alike participated in this eventful evening entitled "A Salute to the Future" on May 10. Brownies and Guides got a taste of what is in store for them in later years, when they join either the Land or Sea Rangers. These older girls, dressed in their smart uniforms probably remembered their days dressed in brown or blue.

Parents were the audience and undoubtedly each parent was extra specially pleased with his or her daughter's achievements in her organization. Maple Gym supplied the place and the girls supplied the entertainment.

The evening commenced at seven o'clock with the Brownies forming their fairy ring and each individual "singing a little verse about themselves. Next the girls received some well-earned badges for the hard work they put self "something" than take a chance on missing a sale. They under play the "cheap" insurance. There is just not enough commission in it. By so doing, they leave you open to the kind of loss that can put you in debt for the rest of your life. That can deprive you and your family of ten percent, thirty percent or even one half of your income for many many years. And this is happening all too frequently. We'll take a look at this form of "cheap" insurance next week.

Chat. Heights Borrowing By-Law Readings Set

Mr. Laberge noted that provision would be made, according to law, for property owners to call for a referendum on water and sewage. Though confident that a large majority in the event of a referendum, would vote for the project, Mr. Laberge stated that a referendum would delay the start of installation, and that if completion of the project were delayed beyond the 1965 construction season, the presently-estimated total cost would inevitably be exceeded.

Mr. Laberge also announced that a truck and helper would tour the residential area of the Heights on Monday, May 24th — Queen's Birthday and Victoria Day, to pick up debris and junk accumulated over past years. It was hoped that residents would co-operate in this special effort to beautify the area. Special arrangements would be made to remove extra-large items such as car-wrecks, discarded refrigerators and old chicken houses.

into learning all about the badge they wanted to earn.

All Guides looked snic and soan for an inspection and then a smart march into horseshoe formation. More work equals more badges. One Guide in particular deserves a lot of credit for her obtaining quite a number of rewards pertaining to her Guiding, Heather Raine. All other Guides must be mentioned also, because each has worked well. Some proud Brownies, took place in the fly up ceremony and became Guide recruits.

The younger group put on a small skit in which they showed their ability to dance.

Mrs. Cooper, the commissioner, made a short speech while the Rangers were in their proper formation and then three Guides were taken into this group.

The evening livened up even more when the Guides played a relay game with balloons. The Land Rangers made a speech on the future of Rangers and the Sea Rangers demonstrated artificial respiration.

Guide Hostesses decided it was time for refreshments of cookies and coffee.

Everyone gathered around the imitation campfire and sang some good camping songs. Taps ended the programme. Both Brownie and Guide promises were said and Mrs. Cooper dismissed the company. A most eventful and successful evening was enjoyed by all.

Chateauguay News Notes

By Fergus Horsburgh

Following a week-end when mosquitoes were quite a menace, I have been asked by several readers when the mosquito-spraying is due to start. I can only repeat that I understand that a Pestroxy work force is due to go into action later this month, when the average water temperature reaches 68° F.

The Big 12 Bowling League holds its first Annual Banquet at Seigniory Park Country Club on Friday, May 28th.

The date for the public information meeting on the prospect of the Y.M.C.A. coming to Chateauguay has not yet been set, but it is likely to be toward the end of May, in Seigniory Park Country Club.

Due to an unforeseen delay, the formal readings of the Heights By-Law to authorize a modern water and sewage system were not made last week as scheduled, but Heights Mayor Jean Laberge has announced that the public readings would definitely be made at Town Hall last (Tuesday) evening.

Planned for the heights over the coming long week-end is a Clean-Up Campaign. A truck and helper will tour the Heights on Monday, May 24th, to pick up unsightly debris.

It was announced by the Electoral Boundaries Commission last week-end that the Federal Parliament will be asked to approve a redistribution act which will make the three Chateauguays part of the new riding of Laprairie. The Chateauguays presently form part of the Beauharnois-Salaberry constituency. Further details are to be found elsewhere in this Gleaner.

Seigniory Park Home Owners Vice-President, Lynn Duluge is due to see Mayor Laberge tonight (Wednesday) to discuss the possibility of another exit road to St. Francis Boulevard from the new area of Seigniory Park, above the transmission line.

Town of Chateauguay Police report a very quiet week-end just past. Ditto for the Centre Police.

Opening of the Fast-ball season held last Sunday at the St. John Blvd. Park, with a Band from St. Jean de Matha, Montreal, Majorettes and Town officials in attendance. First ball was thrown by Mayor Joe Laberge, Mayor Constantineau of Ste. Philomene was catcher, Alderman Sears at the bat. Three games were on the schedule: Chief Gervais was referee. At 1.00 Police Juvenile vs Ste. Philomene; at 3.00 Columbia Electric vs Police Sr.; and at 6.30 Perron vs Fina.

In last week's News Notes the latter part of paragraph three concerning the beautiful, old stone home on Salaberry. There have been some calls from readers both to the Town and to the writer. To boil it all down — no-one wants expropriation! It is going to be homologated, then comes expropriation. The homologation may last for five years, during that period no one may purchase the property. Public notices are put up; it is then up to the property owner to protest homologation. This by-the-way is all in the vicinity of Laberge Park at the foot of St. Francis Blvd.

Town of Chateauguay Council held two meetings last week. Some items from the minutes: Work has been started on St. John Blvd. Park. Engineers have been authorized to turn on water meters on LePailleur to serve Colonia residents. By-law No. 257 regarding the use of hoses: In the Town watering is permitted every odd number day EXCEPT from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. EVEN calendar days watering is FORBIDDEN ALL DAY. This law is in effect right now, and heavy penalties will be enforced if the law is ignored. Chateauguay Centre residents take note also that By-law No. 429 permits watering on even numbered days, with the same restrictions as to hours. Washing cars and filling childrens' pools comes under this same category.

More notes from Town: Amalgamation by-law not yet passed.

Town streets are to be pushed up again.

St. Francis Blvd. center strip from Highway 4 to La Fayette to be sodded.

Town Hall is to have new windows installed to correspond with ones at present in the basement. Described to writer as being made of "Nylon."

In response to letter dated April 22nd, from Town to Quebec Roads Dept., widening of Youville Blvd. will proceed as soon as expropriation proceedings are completed on some existing buildings. Public Service Board will decide on a petition to obtain immediate possession of buildings.

New York Central Railroad crossings at Notre Dame and Station Road to have flashing signals.

A notice of motion has been made to widen Duranceau St. from Youville to Notre Dame — three feet on south and two feet on north side.

Bicycle licenses available from Town Police Station on St. Francis Blvd. ALSO dog licenses. Prices for the latter are $3.00 for male and Spayed female dog, and $6.00 for female. The bike licenses are the usual $1.25.

We hear that the Grand Re-opening of the Chateauguay Beach Hotel was held last week. New owners are Claude Meloche and Marcel Desroses.

Chateauguay Valley Historical Society have big plans for the coming season. See some details elsewhere in The Gleaner.

Mr. Sarto Blais, of Chateauguay Centre just returned to his office after an illness of a few weeks.

Some notes from the Centre's recent meetings — which incidentally are five nights a week, we hear. Alderman Edouard Reid has been appointed Pro-Mayor for a period of three months starting May 4th.

Council approved expenditures on Administration account of $32,505.67. Also approved on capital expenditures $42,245.31.

Zoning by-law notice of motion to permit construction of duplexes on lot No. 159. This is in the vicinity of Place Chateauguay — actually on the other side of Highway 4. Another notice of motion for the same — by-law to permit construction of duplexes on Rodrigue St. lots No. 160-8 and 160-19.

Another swimming pool! This one to be built on St. Jude St. by the Club St. Jude de Lorenzo St. Permit was granted providing all by-laws of the Centre and the Health Dept. are respected.

Following a suggestion of new Sports Director Larry Eldridge, and of George Desparois, Building Insp., the Seaway Nursery was authorized to maintain all parks that were sodded last year at a cost of $3,000.00. This to be under supervision of Larry Eldridge.

Lots in the Centre No. 150-134, 135 may become parks in the near future.

An item of great importance to Centre residents and taxpayers: Purchase of a water tank-truck has been passed. Cost of truck $35,197.00. To serve three purposes: As an auxiliary to present fire equipment. Second: to clean the streets, and third the truck will be adaptable in winter months for snow clearance. The Govt. is providing a substantial grant towards the purchase. With present equipment on hand for snow removal, it is expected Centre will save a considerable sum; perhaps as much as $10,000.00.

Semi public swimming pool is planned on lots 226-175, 176, 211 and 212.

Shawinigan Water and Power has been asked to install street lighting on Salaberry Blvd. South, from Trenton to limits of the town.

C.H.S. Reports

By Heidi Pemoller

Another week is over and the school's still standing. It's just twenty-six days till the final exams.

On Saturday a Track Meet was held at C.H.S. Chateauguay High did well, but I can't say exactly how well. There was quite a bit of participation, yet I do think we could and should have more in the future. Many students came to support their team, but they should have been trying to win as well. Unlike most Track and Field days this was a bright and sunny one.

Preparations are now being made for the Student Council elections. Only the president and vice-president will be elected from grade eleven and ten. Campaigns are being thought up and everyone is starting to wonder who will be in the chair next year. I'll try to tell you more next week, nearer the elections.

Introducing The C.H.S. Teachers

(By Heidi Pemoller)

This week I'd like to introduce Mr. Charles Falcon, Mr. Ron Waddell, and Mr. Alan McIver.

MR. CHARLES FALCON

Mr. Falcon was born in Bedford, where he also went to Bedford High. Later he attended Macdonald College and Sir George Williams University.

He started to teach at Lake of Two Mountains High, where he taught for seven years, coming then to Chateauguay High, where he has been teaching for two years.

Mr. Falcon has been married for five years and has two children, Lori, who is five and Larry, who is three.

Besides being with his family he enjoys all kinds of sports. In the school he has coached volleyball and badminton teams. He is also a popular basketball referee. Mr. Falcon is an ardent coin collector and he enjoys collecting records. He is also staff advisor to our Public Speaking Club. Through his coaching in this field, the members are representing C.H.S. at different contests and are doing very well.

Mr. Falcon also likes travelling but says he hasn't travelled as much as he'd like to. He has, however, been through the Maritime Provinces and most of the New England States.

Upon being asked how he liked teaching at C.H.S. Mr. Falcon replied, "I like it very much."

MR. RON WADDELL

Mr. Waddell was born in Valleyfield. He attended Howick High and then Ormstown High. After graduating he attended Sir George Williams University and then Macdonald College. He began to teach at Julius Richardson Elementary School and after several years went back to university. Last year Mr. Waddell came back to C.H.S. where he teaches English and mathematics.

Plans between the ages of 5 and 16 years will enter. Prizes will be given for winning entries.

His spare time is taken up by his farm near Covey Hill. Here he spends his summers spraying apple trees. He also likes to read (especially about anthropology) visit art exhibitions and attend the theatre. He is staff advisor for the C.H.S. Ski Club and thus has taken up skiing as well.

Upon being asked whether he was married or engaged he replied, "No.... It's more fun looking around."

Mr. Waddell has seen a great change in our schools in the last few years. When he left Julius Richardson it was the only Protestant school in Chateauguay. On coming back last year, two new elementary schools had evolved as well as a high school that is quickly fighting its way to being one of the best in Quebec. Mr. Waddell is very enthusiastic about teaching at C.H.S. because it is so much more challenging than many other schools could ever hope to be.

MR. ALAN McIVER

Mr. McIver was born in Kent, England, where he got his elementary and high school training. He then came to McGill University where he is at present working on his Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Biology.

While working on his thesis he had the opportunity to travel with the University to many places. He has been through the West Indies and Barbados, where McGill has research laboratories.

Mr. McIver has been married for two years and has a son Christopher who is eight months old. He and his wife have many similar interests, one of which is photography. It may be interesting to know that the two enjoy underwater photography especially. They also swim a lot for enjoyment.

Mr. McIver enjoys teaching. He also agrees that it is a challenge. Sometimes it is rather frustrating but at other times it is most satisfying. He teaches math and biology, and of course finds the methods of teaching and the courses different from those in England.

And the rains came Sunday night. Let's hope that they will help the farmer with his crops as much as they do our little flower gardens and our lawns. A special tip to those who may be planting evergreens. Do not plant them too close to the foundation. Plant at least two feet away. During the winter months the heat from the basement gradually penetrates the cellar walls to the soil outside beyond the foundation and dries out the soil thus killing roots and results in death to the plants.

Welcome home to Ralph Frost, who spent a few days in hospital last week. Hope you're feeling fit as a fiddle.

14 Brownies along with their mothers attended the Mother and Daughter Banquet held on Wednesday, May 11th at St. Willibrod School. After a delightful meal a drawing took place and one lucky Brownie won a Skipper Doll complete with 25 outfits. A lawn chair and lamp were also drawn for. The programme came to an end with the Brownies and Guides each singing taps.

A special event is being prepared for Father's Day by the 9th Chateauguay Brownies details of which will be announced at a later date.

South Shore News

Candiac — Nelson Laprairie

Candiac News Fashion Show: The U.C.W. of Candiac have planned a special event for Saturday, May 22nd from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. At two o'clock a fashion show of childrens' clothes will be held, the articles having been made by local seamstresses. These articles will be available for purchase during the afternoon, when a Tea and Bake Sale will also take place. The ladies have given unstintingly of their time and talents and are hoping for a good attendance, in support of a worthy cause.

Blood Donor's Clinic: The recent Blood Donor Clinic held in Candiac was a decided success. Some 212 pints of blood were donated in the one day operation. Mrs. J. Leaman, Pres., extended thanks to the local industries who allowed their employees to attend during scheduled working hours. Mrs. Leach also expressed thanks to all the volunteer workers for so generously giving their time and effort towards this worthy cause which proved so successful.

Delson News: H. and S. A. To Sponsor Special Event: Plans have now been finalized for the special "Games Night" which is to be sponsored by the Home and School Association of Greater Laprairie, on Friday evening, May 28th. There will be heaps of fun for everyone and many lovely prizes waiting for the lucky winners, plus delicious refreshments to be sold at the refreshment counter. The proceeds of this event will be given towards purchasing a movie projector, for use in the school and community. Half of the cost of the projector was raised last year by the Association, and members are hoping to realize the remainder by this effort. Please keep the date in mind and plan to come along and help the cause and at the same time have a most enjoyable evening.

Sports Association: Delson Sports Association and its hard working Committee recently promoted a "Bingo Night", and a "Dance" which was held in St. George's School last Saturday evening with "Gil and the Skyliners" providing the fine music for dancing. The Association is working in the interest of recreation for the young folk by means of Ball Teams, Volley Ball, Horse Shoe Teams, and to be responsible for the maintenance of the Playgrounds. The Committee is hoping for the support of citizens in this undertaking. Your assistance, financial and otherwise will be greatly appreciated, and the young fry will benefit from your benevolence.

Firemen's Association Proves Efficiency: Delson Firemen's Association is to be highly commended on their prompt and efficient action during the past week, when they were on call three times to extinguish fires which may have resulted in major disaster but for the excellent effort of the Fire Brigade. Two fires broke out among the creosoted ties at Donitar Creosoting Plant, but the firemen worked diligently and eventually brought the blaze under control on both counts. The third fire alarm was given last Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock when fire broke out at the home of Mr. Alondo St. James, near the C.P.R. railroad in Delson. Again the firemen soon brought this under control, for which neighbours in this vicinity are sincerely grateful. We can really be proud of our Firemen's Association. It is thought that the fire at Mr.

St. James' home was a deliberate attempt to draw residents to this extreme end of the Town while the Bank was robbed in the Town centre. Mr. St. James has been hospitalized for a lengthy period and his home is therefore unoccupied. The firemen were successful in putting out the blaze before it reached the main building. When things quieted down at the far end of Principale, terror and panic broke out near the Banque Canadienne Nationale on St. Therese, and the robbers made off with $10,000.00. We are told that, "Crime does not pay", so somewhere along the line there will be retribution for evil doers.

Congratulations: Hearty congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Neufeld on the birth of their daughter at St. Joseph Hospital, Lachine, on Tuesday, May 11th, sister for Martin.

Welcome Home: It was truly "Welcome Home" for Mrs. J. Keen, who has returned from a "Flying" visit to Halifax, where she spent a delightful holiday with her foster-son, Petty Officer Norman Beauvais and his family. Mrs. Keen also met for the first time the newest addition to the Beauvais family, their infant daughter, Lisa Michelle. So glad that you had a very happy holiday, Flo.

Birthday Wishes: Belated birthday wishes go out to Mrs. Harold Jacob and her daughter Dail, who celebrated their natal day recently. These wishes are a little late but nevertheless sincere, Irma and Dail.

Did you all miss me last week? Something in the nature of a virus had me in an iron grip for a couple of days, and I couldn't even type a word, much less a whole column. Naturally all my notes are somewhere but in my muddled household I just cannot seem to find them.

Sunday, May 16, was the birthday of a dear little friend of mine, William Schofield of William Street in the Basin became all of five years old. He had a lovely party on the day before and he and his guests had such a fine time. Many happy returns to you, William!

Student teachers from Macdonald College spent two weeks in Chateaugay, from May 2 until last Friday, May 14, when they all returned to the college for a short time to pick up their belongings. They will be spending the summer doing all sorts of things, from travel to work in camps and on the farm.

Our guests here were Dan Parkinson of Waterville, (near Sherbrooke) and Ralph Norman Meades from Lachine.

Staying with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell of St. Charles St. were Miss Patricia Ware of Baie D'Urfe and Miss Susan Holunga of Beauport. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Gross of McLeod guested a High School Phys. Ed. teacher, Miss Donna Conklin of Montreal.

Another of the High School student teachers was Miss Susan Stromberg of Saskatchewan, and she was a guest of Mrs. M. Hart of St. Francis Blvd.

Staying with Mr. and Mrs. Don King of St. Francis was Miss Janet Aitken. The King's elder daughter, Gail, has just Completed her first year at Macdonald so they were particularly interested in those who have chosen teaching as a profession.

Last but certainly not least was Miss Dianne MacDougall of Hampstead. Dianne was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wall of Gardena in the Terrace.

They all enjoyed their brief stay here in both Maple and the High Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morrison of St. Francis Blvd. had their son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter from Toronto here in Chateaugay for the past week-end.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. S. Jordan of Dunver, on the arrival of their chosen son, Kevin Ronald. The baby arrived last Wed., May 12, and it is quite needless to say how happy Betty and Stan are. The fond grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Comley of Cardinal.

Eleven-year-old Fay Blenkhorn of Lang Street flew up to Guides last week, earning 15 badges on the way. Congratulations, Fay!

The Bowling Banquet for the C.P.O.A. League was held last Saturday evening at the Rustik. All enjoyed a wonderful time. Incidentally the winning team was the "Doves".

Women of the Church
This month the W.O.C. are collecting good used clothing, and all articles of this sort may be left at the church office.

On Sunday, May 23, the Minister's class on the meaning of baptism is to be held for all parents wishing to have children baptized. Please contact Mr. Allan this week. The Sacrament will be administered on Sunday, May 30th.

St. George's Anglican Church News

The St. Lambert Deanery Meeting is being held this year in St. James Church at St. Johns. Commencing with a Holy Communion service, reports will be read during the morning, and slides of the Holy Land (taken by Rev. E. C. Royle of Hudson) will be shown after luncheon.

The Men's Club are hoping to have a record number of entries from both boys and girls for the Hobby Show.

The Tea, Home Bake, Handicrafts, White Elephant and Plant Sale held last Saturday was a success financially, even though there were few attending. Regarding the Plant Sale — there are still many house plants available.

The St. George's Handicrafts Group met last week for their first session since last November's Bazaar. Under the leadership of Pat Hollingdale and Marion Houldsworth, plans are now underway for a number of new and novel handicrafts. Next group meeting will be announced approximately ten days in advance.

Before closing may I say how grateful I am to all the kind people who have saved us stamps for the Canadian Bible Society. I have quite a Church are planning a Communion Breakfast on Sunday, June 5th, following the 9.00 o'clock Mass. Guest Speaker at the Breakfast will be Rev. Sister St. Francis Denis, her companion Rev. More information may be obtained from Mrs. P. Poupart at 692-2288.

St. George's W.A. held their Tea and Plant Sale last Saturday afternoon, in the Church Hall. Although few in numbers, it was a success.

St. George's Senior and Junior Choirs under the direction of Peter Lewis both came first in their classes at the recent Chateaugay Valley Music Festival in Ormstown. Senior Choir with 89 points and Juniors with 85.

Maplewood Junior Choir were entered in a Montreal Music Festival recently and also won high honors.

The Men's Club of St. George's had their "Beautify the Church Grounds" evening last Wednesday, when they planted seeds, shrubs and flowers at the west side and at the back of the Church.

Youngsters in Salaberry Park held a "Fair" in support of the Holy Childhood last week. Singing, races, drawings and refreshments were featured at the gala event, organized by Diane Turgeon and Leslie Ann Faughnan at Leslie's home. The grand sum of 99 cents was collected for this worthy Charity.

In the Big 12 Bowling League, the first season is now over. Newton Copping's Wasps are the Playoff Champs and win the Home Owners' Association Trophy. Congratulations to the Wasps team — Hazel and Newton Copping, Dorothy Bissonnette and John Nott. Congratulations also to Dave McCarthy's Hornets who won the Consolation (B) Series with a fine total pinfall of 1731. Full scores of the final evening's play are to be found elsewhere in this Gleamer. The First Annual Bowling Banquet is being held at the Country Club on Friday evening.

My wife Jane was approaching the bridge going no place the other way — actually the fine spanning new bridge which will eventually link Ville de Lery to Mercier Bridge via the Chateaugay By-Pass Road. The road was bumpy and the truck ahead of Jane was carrying a large load of soft drink crates. A couple of crates fell off, scattering broken glass all over the road. Jane played the good Samaritan by lending a brush to the truck-driver to sweep the broken glass from the road, and was rewarded with a carton of soft drinks. I'd be the first to admit that on occasion I tend to exaggerate when telling a story, but this is one time when you've just gotta believe me!

Home Owners' President Colin Mason left on a two-week business trip to the Hudson Bay area on Monday, on a survey of the mid-Canada line. Colin is all set with his survival equipment, as he is headed for cold territory. Sounds like a good adventure story and I hope to have some chilling details for you on his return. During Colin's absence, Home Owners' affair will be in the hands of Vice-President Lynn Dullege, who is due to meet Mayor Joseph Laberge tonight on current problems. Next General Association meeting will probably be held at the Clubhouse on Thursday, June 3, depending on availability of club premises. This will be the last regular monthly meeting until the fall. A meeting of the executive is scheduled for tomorrow night at Lynn Dullege's home.

On Friday, May 14, Mrs. Claire Perry, the teacher of the nursery school, invited the mothers and younger brothers and sisters to attend the closing program.

The children played games, sang songs and danced. Mrs. Perry has a lovely singing voice, plays several musical instruments, and has a fine and discriminating taste. There was ample evidence that the children had greatly benefited from her talent and experience. Making full allowance for maternal bias, it was an utterly charming presentation.

The nursery schoolers served refreshments to their guests, each waited with remarkable patience for his own ice cream and cookies. Their gracious hospitality did both their teacher and the children credit.

The last half hour was taken in fond and clinging farewells. The last day of term brings a lump to the throat, even in nursery school.

Chateaugay Centre Athletic Director Meets With C.A.A.A.

(By Ron Lee)

On Monday, May 10th, Larry Eldridge, Chateaugay Centre Athletic Director met with the Executive and Directors of the Chateaugay Amateur Athletic Association.

This meeting was held so that Mr. Eldridge could ascertain the exact needs and desires of the "big five" sports for their 1965 operation. This information would then be passed on to the Centre Council for their consideration and action.

The main topic was the present condition and location of some of the existing playing fields. Mr. Eldridge stated that he has made a complete check of all fields located within the Centre and that he has already made it clear to the Council that some work and changes are required in order to bring the area up to an acceptable standard. He also said that plans are underway to have each field equipped with a combined soccer — softball area and a playground for the younger children. The Centre Council has also been studying the suggestion of having these areas under daily supervision with games, sports and other activities available at all times.

The Centre Council has also been made aware of the fact that neither C.A.A.A. nor the general public will accept anything for their children that is unsafe or not within an acceptable standard, whether it be the ground they play on or the swing they sit on.

Another topic of the evening concerned referees and umpires for the various sports and whether or not the city was prepared to pay these men for their services.

This topic is sure to make the past referees, umpires and other civic-minded people ask what stipended they can expect for the services they rendered in the years gone by. These people gave their time willingly because they were actually interested in the development of Chateaugay's youth.

It was mentioned that the better referees and umpires are the ones that are paid. Perhaps the executive, directors and anyone who does any work whatsoever for any group or organization within the Chateaugay area should refuse to continue their efforts until they are paid for what they are doing. What a shameful thought!

One sports director at the meeting said he would cry on his Alderman's shoulder if the city wouldn't support his "Pay for Referees" suggestion. Another sports director complained about the fact that he was not personally thanked by the Referee-in-Chief of the hockey league for refereeing some of the hockey games in the past season. He also said he would never referee any hockey games in the future because of the lack of a handshake but if he were paid to do the job he would forget about a handshake.

How many times have any of us thanked our parents or our various teachers for what they have done to help our development, Chat e a u g a y does not need cry babies. We have enough two-year-olds to handle that chore quite well. What Chateaugay needs are MEN that can take abuse, sticks and stones, and still feel ices performed include 1290 baptisms, 552 confirmations, 325 marriages and 132 funerals. The work of a military chaplain is similar to that of any minister, except that he is often the only Protestant clergyman on the base. Church school, youth work, men's and women's organizations and personal counselling are all part of his job.

Mr. Eldridge clearly stated that he had no intention whatsoever of requesting the Centre to pay for league officials. It's too bad if an area of thousands can't get a few men to donate their time rather than have to increase taxes to cover such a foolish suggestion. The money saved would be better used to build regulation size soccer fields and baseball diamonds, or how about a sports arena.

C.A.A.A. President, Larry Toop, thanked Mr. Eldridge for allowing the association to express its wishes and desires for the forthcoming season.

Mr. Eldridge closed by saying that the council is well aware of the efforts of C.A.A.A. and that everything will be done to make Chateaugay an area that will make towns and cities all across Canada sit up and take notice.

It is a well-known fact that C.A.A.A. is trying to make Chateaugay an area to be proud of for living and for sports. Are You?

W.A. Holds Final Meeting Of Season

(By M. Fabio)

The Women's Auxiliary of the Lachine General Hospital Chateaugay Group held their final meeting of the 1964-65 season on Monday night, May 10th, at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Ritchey, 96 Primeau St. Chateaugay Centre.

Final arrangements were completed for the magazine shower which is to be held at the Municipal Hall, 1 Croissant Richard of May 17th.

Mrs. Beatrice McDermott O'Connor donated two beautiful hand-made stuffed dolls for a drawing at the final meeting and they were won by Mrs. R. Spenard.

This meeting brought to a close a successful year for the Chateaugay Group. However, it does not mean the ladies will be idle all summer. Many have undertaken tasks of knitting and sewing for the Auxiliary so no doubt they will spend a busy summer preparing articles for the new season commencing in September.

Congratulations, ladies, for a job well done.

Canadian Garden Notes

Annuals to Sow Outside

Some of the very best annuals can be sown directly outside where they are to flower. Some, in fact, are best treated this way, because they don't stand transplanting very well.

Very hard coated seeds such as sweet peas should be soaked for a day or so and then sown right now. You can sow most annuals outside in the first week in May, but for some tender kinds such as zinnias and tithonias you should wait until the end of May, when the soil is much warmer.

Sow the seeds thinly and not very deep, usually in drills, made with the handle of a rake, about half an inch deep. Very small seeds such as balsam may be sown on top of the soil and lightly raked in. When the seeds have germinated and grown large enough to handle, thin out the seedlings so that they are 3 to 6 inches apart.

Following are some good annuals that I would recommend treating in this way.

The sweet alyssums Royal Carpet, Navy Blue and Rosie O'Day are varieties that give color to edgings; but for a completely dwarf and uniform sparkling white edging it is difficult to beat the older Carpet of Snow.

Ambrosia mexicana is a good greenery for mixing with other flowers but if it is grown for cutting it should be sown in rows in the cut-flower garden.

The beautiful asters may be grown outside right now but will not flower until late August when they will give a splendid effect and the giant doubles will be just right for the late fall exhibitions and fairs. Most reliable for cut flowers are the Princess types, Powderpuffs and Heart of France. For the fall fairs try the Improved Crego and California giants.

New and improved balsams are fine for sowing outside now. You can get the double camellia flowers for borders or even a hedge and the dwarf Tom Thumb for the patio or rock garden.

Scotch pot-marigolds (Calendula) are long-suffering annuals that will grow in almost any place where the seed is planted, if the soil is moist enough to get them started. Try the new Geisha Girl or the Pacific Beauty mixture.

The annual calliopsis (or coreopsis) will grow well from an outdoor sowing and will provide an excellent source of cut flowers.

California poppies (Eschscholtzia) are other annuals that must be sown where they are to flower. They are almost impossible to transplant but will flower profusely just where the seed falls. Try them on a sunny sandy slope and they will produce a very colorful effect.

If you want something unique and pleasing, try the gomphrenas. The variety Dwarf Buddy, especially, will make a very beautiful edge to your flower garden. Gomphrenas prefer a sandy soil or a medium loam but will not grow in heavy clay. The flowers are everlasting, and if picked and dried will give you purple rose and white colors for winter arrangements.

The night-scented stock (Matthiola bicoloris) is excellent for sowing near a spot where you sit in the evening. It has a delicate fragrance, particularly noticeable after a hot humid day.

Nasturtiums are, of course, best sown outside. There are many double forms, all useful for poorer soils. Try the Jewel types, which form neat mounds of semidouble blooms.

Candytufts, cornflowers and cosmos are three annuals that are bound to please, both as effective plants outdoors and as cut flowers. Try the Giant White Hyacinth candytuft, the Jubilee Gem and Jubilee Rose, which are newer dwarf compact forms of cornflower, and the beautiful Dazzler, Radiance and Pinkie Cosmos.

Most home owners know about portulaca, an annual that is always sown outside. The single Jewel variety with deep rosy-purple flowers is extremely valuable as a good edging or rick-garden plant.

Virginia stocks, if sown directly outside, need little thinning and produce color over a long period. They are very dwarf and need a large area

Diary of A Vagabond

Make History Live

We may not always agree with Charlotte Whitton, nor admire some of the tactics she employed while serving her long time term as Ottawa's mayor but we must admit she is one of the most intelligent women this century has produced to grace the Canadian scene.

Recently she was addressing the Women Teachers Association of Ontario and, as usual, made print by her remarks. She knew this was fertile soil in which to plant seeds of her opinion. Her ideas were not particularly fresh, only her forceful approach to her subject made them seem newly incubated. One reporter prefaced her quotes with "Miss Whitton, a valiant proponent of women's rights and responsibilities, said teachers must offer a strong counteraction to TV, radio, records (Yeh, Yeh!) and comic strips by appealing to children in other fields!" She listed as another requisite "teaching a child the record of his people and country!"

Escalating Education

Having watched two sons (and now five grandchildren) climb the ladder of learning from its kindergarten rung to university, I couldn't agree more with her statements. Even the littlest mite in our family is a TV, comic strip addict.

I don't believe it is entirely the teacher's responsibility to offer a counter-action to the fascination of this type of entertainment media. No family can escape such exposure. Some have tried only to find their youngsters glued to a neighbor's set, or trading their toys for another's comic books.

There is a solution that could prove effective. It is visiting historical sites and shrines. This gives a child an indelible knowledge of his country's background and whets his appetite for further study. Old forts and shrines are within reach of almost every Canadian school child. Vacation jaunts to them assume the air of great adventure. All ten provinces have become aware of the value of their historical properties and have spent, or are spending, large sums on their perpetuation.

Take for instance the Fortress of Louisbourg. I was deeply impressed when I visited the "remains" and visualized what it will look like when finally completely restored. Not only that, but through study since my knowledge of both French and early Canadian history has been expanded. Until then that fort had just been so many sentences in a history book and a burden of dates I remem-

Escalating Education

Having watched two sons (and now five grandchildren) climb the ladder of learning from its kindergarten rung to university, I couldn't agree more with her statements. Even the littlest mite in our family is a TV, comic strip addict.

I don't believe it is entirely the teacher's responsibility to offer a counter-action to the fascination of this type of entertainment media. No family can escape such exposure. Some have tried only to find their youngsters glued to a neighbor's set, or trading their toys for another's comic books.

There is a solution that could prove effective. It is visiting historical sites and shrines. This gives a child an indelible knowledge of his country's background and whets his appetite for further study. Old forts and shrines are within reach of almost every Canadian school child. Vacation jaunts to them assume the air of great adventure. All ten provinces have become aware of the value of their historical properties and have spent, or are spending, large sums on their perpetuation.

Take for instance the Fortress of Louisbourg. I was deeply impressed when I visited the "remains" and visualized what it will look like when finally completely restored. Not only that, but through study since my knowledge of both French and early Canadian history has been expanded. Until then that fort had just been so many sentences in a history book and a burden of dates I remem-

Soccer Season To Start On Saturday In Chateauguy

In order that all Soccer enthusiasts will be in the picture with regard to the 1964 Soccer Season, the final league placings and challenge cup winners are given below. The league placings might be misleading as many teams forfeited games for one of a number of reasons such as violation of the C.M.S.L. constitution; no playing field available; teams failing to turn up for games, etc. The foregoing were mainly the teething troubles of a very young league and it is hoped to overcome them all, during the 1965 season.

The outstanding teams for the 1964 season were the Chateauguy Park Legionaires Mosquitos coached by Peter Laxton and their Pee Wee's coached by Joe Courty and Jean Guy Anderson. One other team is well worthy of a mention and that was the West End Wanderers, Pee Wee's coached by Bill Walker, this team which was a mixture of Pee Wee's and Mosquitos won the challenge cup in the Pee Wee division against almost unsurmountable odds.

The 1965 C.M.S.L. season will commence on Saturday, May 22nd.

TODAY'S WOMAN WANTS

Clothes To Flatter Individual Shape

"Any woman can wear the shape of lamb provided she has kept her lamb shape."

"No woman these days need be middle aged — visually. The way to look older than you are is to wear out-of-date clothes. Why give the game away? It just isn't necessary for any woman to advertise her age. It's much more fun to keep people guessing."

This is the opinion of Britain's "way out" designer, and originator of the "kookie look", Mary Quant, expressed in a speech on fashion for the British Association of Clothing Technicians at London's Bonnington Hotel.

Here are some other views expressed by Miss Quant, who has brought new dimensions to the use of British woollen fabrics in designing clothes for today's women:

"Fashion is now individual. Igniter. Hold same at arms length, apply to the wick and stand clear immediately."

young and above all adventurous. Designers have courage. It is young people who are setting the pace. There can never have been a time when so many of the leaders — the trend setters in all fields of creative design — have been so young. And there is still a massive reserve of talent, charm and spanking new ideas to be exploited."

"No good designer will ever produce anything simply as a gimmick. The idea may well be interpreted as gimmicky at first because there are times when a designer is so far ahead that her ideas are not generally acceptable all at once. Things like black boots, black stockings, patterned stockings and high waisted dresses were all labelled gimmicks at first but some of them have stuck and they have become a real part of contemporary fashion."

"Women don't any longer buy corsets to hold them in and let them out at pre-conceived places. They want clothes that fit and flatter their own individual shapes — the shapes they've dieted for — and achieved."

"Men are perpetually bemused by woman's capacity for changing her shape according to current ideals of fashion and beauty. But the fact remains that they can do it — and they do. The manufacturers of Britain should be particularly proud of the fact that they were the first to recognize this. They got there far ahead of the Americans — or the French."

"There's one thing an Englishwoman seems to keep forever — good legs. Good legs are not the prerogative of the young. The middle-aged woman with good legs looks just as attractive in short skirts as the young girl. In fact, the right length of skirt takes years off her appearance at once."

"Paris will never lose its marvelous mystiques — but from now on it will never again have it all its own way in fashion. The limelight has altered course."

The great gift of conversation lies less in displaying it ourselves than in drawing it out of others. — Bruyere.

Liturgie — La prière du Christ — Cette prière d'Israël que l'on trouve à toutes les pages de la Bible et notamment au Livre des Psaumes, le Christ allait en se l'appropriant, en faire éclater les cadres et lui donner sa pleine dimension. Toute la vie terrestre de Jésus, au foyer de Nazareth, à la synagogue, au Temple de Jérusalem, a été ponctuée de prières empruntées à la Bible, notamment au livre des Psaumes: psaumes d'adoration et des louanges, psaumes de pèlerinages, psaumes d'actions de grâces, comme ceux que le Christ a prononcés à la Dernière Cène selon le rituel de la Pâque juive, ou encore ces accents émouvants des psaumes 22 ou 31 par lesquels le Christ a consommé son sacrifice sur la Croix: "Père, je remets mon esprit entre tes mains." La prière de Jésus, si souvent notée par S. Luc, aux articulations décisives de la Vie du Christ: au baptême, à l'élection des Douze, au moment de la Transfiguration sur la montagne, sur la Croix, n'a été qu'un chant d'amour filial tout tendu vers le Père. Le Notre Père demeure la prière biblique par excellence.

Liturgie — Holy week and Easter found us at the peak of devout attention and participation. Then, with the passing days, our intensity began to subside. In the Preface of the Trinity, we proclaim that what we believe of the Father, we believe the same also of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, without difference or separation.

However, we attribute to the Father the role of Creator, to the Son the role of Redeemer, to the Holy Spirit the role of Sanctifier. It is through the Holy Spirit's sanctifying work in our souls and through our cooperation with the graces He offers us that we become more and more Christlike amid the circumstances of our daily living. We must train ourselves to live each day in close consultation and partnership with the Holy Spirit, our Sanctifier, "so that amid the passing things of this world, our hearts may rest where true joys abide."

Pasteur de cette paroisse, et celui d'une filiale reconnaisance pour la parternelle sollicitude avec laquelle vous veillez sur les âmes.

Lacordaire mettant sa plume au service de sa piété sacerdotale nous dit ce qu'est le orètre au milieu de sa famille paroissiale. Permettez, Monseigneur le curé, que nous rappellions ici quelques-unes de ses pensées, elles inspireront les termes de la vénération filiale et de la profonde gratitude que nous voulons vous exprimer aujourd'hui.

"Sublime mission que celle du prêtre vivant au milieu du monde et n'étant pas de ce monde, obligé de voir dans chaque famille la sienne propre, sans appartenir à aucune, redoublant de tous et n'ayant le droit de se refuser à personne, ne demandant à ses semblables que de connaître leurs souffrances, toujours prêt à ouvrir son cœur à l'infortune, prompt à se rendre ou son ministère l'appelle, allant des hommes à Dieu pour lui offrir leurs prières et de Dieu vers les hommes pour leur annoncer le pardon, se tenant ainsi entre le temps et l'éternité, sur la terre où s'accomplit sa mission, les yeux tournés vers le ciel où lui vient la lumière et la force"

Monseigneur le curé, ces pensées que nous avons trouvées belles, nous sommes fiers de pouvoir les appliquer aujourd'hui à votre vie si occupée par les travaux multiples qui se partagent votre temps précieux à votre vie qui s'unifie en Dieu par la pensée apostolique qui l'anime.

Nous le sentons, vous aimez les jeunes, surtout ceux qui à la lumière d'un idéal chrétien cherchent à se pénétrer de l'Évangile et à vivre de la vie de la grâce. Tous vos efforts de sanctification est grande lorsque vous venez à nous avec cette âme toute pénétrée de divin, avec cette bonté de Père constamment préoccupée des intérêts spirituels de vos enfants.

Il nous semble alors voir le Christ se pencher sur la jeunesse, lui sourire, la stimuler, la guider vers sa fin dernière par ce sentier du devoir présent et la préparation de sa mission future.

Toutes pénétrées de cette vision de foi, nos âmes se sentent liées à votre âme sacerdotale par les liens de la plus respectueuse affection et de la plus vive reconnaissance. Mon-

Nombreuses plaintes au sujet du stationnement sur la rue Bridge à Ormstown

Une assemblée régulière du conseil municipal du village d'Ormstown avait lieu lundi le 3 mai sous la présidence du maire Bruno Beaulieu et en présence de tous les membres. ### Allocution de S.S. Paul VI aux membres des Rotary Clubs d'Italie

Les raisons des réserves de l'Eglise
 Tout cela, naturellement, aussi bon et louable que ce soit, ne peut constituer un programme complet pour donner à la vie de l'homme sa signification véritable et profonde. Les idéaux de vie ont des exigences qui dépassent le périmètre extrêmement soigné et discret des statuts, du glise catholique. Les réserves étaient fondées sur la crainte que la mentalité ne subisse l'influence d'autres idéologies, ou ne s'érige en règle devant servir à guider la conscience de l'homme. Mais, heureusement, vous démontrez ici que la sagesse du Rotary, précisément parce qu'elle est ouverte à des courants variés, connaît ses limites, respecte donc la pensée de ses membres et ne se refuse pas à ce que parfois des voix autorisées portent également en son sein le témoignage de la philosophie immortelle et du message chrétien.

Nous y sommes très sensibles et, sans prétendre que les Rotary Clubs aient à changer leur style et leur programme, nous faisons des vœux pour que leur attitude envers les valeurs spirituelles et religieuses soit toujours aussi respectueuse qu'est sérieuse et noble leur expression culturelle et scientifique, et pour que le Maître de l'humanité, Notre-Seigneur Jésus-Christ, n'y soit pas entièrement étranger.

Un facteur d'amitié entre les peuples
 En vous souhaitant à tous un bon travail, Notre pensée se tourne également vers vos compagnons du monde entier avec lesquels vous êtes liés par des liens d'estime mutuelle. Ces rapports d'amitié entre les représentants de divers peuples, unis en des organisations spéciales, peuvent également contribuer d'une façon merveilleuse à cimenter cette union dans la concorde et dans la paix, que la doctrine sociale de l'Eglise et l'enseignement pontifical appellent avec tant d'insistance et avec une invincible espérance.
 Que la Bénédiction apostolique appuie Nos vœux paternels et attire sur vous et ceux qui vous sont chers les abondantes faveurs du ciel.

La santé par la chiropratique Des faits patents

Le système nerveux est composé du cerveau, de la moelle épinière et de 31 paires de nerfs qui se ramifient de cette dernière à toutes les parties du corps. Le cerveau est le générateur d'une énergie neuro-électrique indispensable à la vie et à la santé de chacune des cellules; cette énergie se transmet par le réseau de nerfs qui parcourt l'organisme. Il est donc de première importance pour la santé de celui-ci qu'il soit libre de toute obstruction capable de gêner ou d'altérer la transmission de l'influx nerveux.

Le système nerveux affectent tantôt la moelle épinière, tantôt les nerfs intervertébraux par l'irritation et la pression qu'ils exercent sur eux. Il en résulte des désordres fonctionnels et organiques de toutes sortes appelés génériquement maladies. Le chiropraticien soigne et guérit la maladie en corrigeant les déplacements vertébraux connus sous le nom de subluxations. Voilà des faits simples, réels et faciles à comprendre.

 M. Lionel Bazinet, aussi présent à l'assemblée, demanda si le conseil songeait à faire arroser les mauvaises herbes et la broussaille à nouveau cette année; le conseil décida qu'il n'était pas nécessaire d'arroser cette année, l'arrosage ayant été fait pendant six années consécutives maintenant.
 Des plaintes au sujet du mauvais drainage dans le Rang 2 d'Ormstown et sur la Route 14 furent référées à l'inspecteur rural.
 Le conseil accepta d'agir en tant qu'hôte conjointement avec le conseil du Village à un dîner-réception qui sera offert aux membres du conseil du comté de même qu'aux représentants du comté au Parlement lors de la soirée d'ouverture de l'Exposition d'Ormstown.

Du nouveau au Camp Bosco

M. Richard Rancourt vient d'être nommé Directeur-administrateur du Camp Bosco. Il s'occupera de tout le côté matériel du camp et de toute l'administration y compris l'organisation des camps d'été. C'est donc dire qu'il faut s'adresser à lui pour les inscriptions des campeurs.
 Lieux et dates des inscriptions: Lundi le 17 mai à l'Évêché et lundi le 24 mai au Presbytère de Bellefleur de 7.00h. à 9.00 h. p.m.
 Il sera accompagné de l'aumônier du camp Monsieur l'Abbé Beaudin ptre. Les gens de l'extérieur de Valleyfield peuvent s'adresser à leur Curé, au Service Social de leur localité ou à Richard Rancourt du Séminaire à 373-9441 de 9.00 h. à 6.00 h. tous les jours.
 Nous recevons au Camp Bosco des enfants de 10 à 13 ans qui ont à faire face à des problèmes: familial, social ou autres. Nous avons un nombre de places limité à environ 350 par été, c'est donc dire que nous comptons sur la collaboration et surtout sur la compréhension de la population.
 Les dates des camps cet été: 1er - du 28 juin au 16 juillet.
 2e - du 19 juillet au 6 août.
 3e - du 9 août au 27 août.

ICI ET LA DANS LA VILLE
 Claude Beaudoin, un imprimeur possédant une propriété à la Pointe Sylvestre, avait le visage long quand il est arrivé au lac samedi. Il semble qu'il se soit fait voler son Ford 1964 convertible, acheté l'an passé de Roch Trépanier Automobile, et ce en face de sa demeure vendredi soir. Deux hommes ont été arrêtés samedi après-midi et Claude a de nouveau son automobile: environ $200. de dommages, dont une vitre arrière brisée et un démarreur démolit.
 Mgr J.A. David a célébré son 78ème anniversaire de naissance avec des amis samedi après-midi au Château Huntingdon, et est parti de Montréal lundi à 5 heures p.m. pour aller passer des vacances à Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Mgr David a vécu à St-Boniface, Manitoba en 1910-11, et lors de son passage à cet endroit il y a trois ans, en route pour Seattle, Wash., il n'a pas eu le temps d'arrêter et de renouveler connaissance. Ses paroissiens et tous ses amis souhaitent à Mgr David des vacances plaisantes et reposantes.
 Une affaire de famille: deux frères se sont frappés à l'angle de Wellington et Dalhousie à Huntingdon samedi et leurs autos se sont tamponnées. Les deux autos ont été ramenées au garage mais personne ne fut blessé.
 J. Russel MacDonald, demeurant quelques milles à l'ouest de Huntingdon, sur la Route 4, dit ne pas avoir eu la pluie dont on faisait mention dans cette colonne la semaine dernière. A venir jusqu'en fin de semaine, ses champs étaient en poudre. C'est un fait curieux que quel que fois il pleut à un endroit pendant qu'à un mille de distance il n'en tombe pas une goutte. La plupart des cultivateurs rapportent qu'ils ont terminé leurs semailles et quelques champs montrent les signes d'une croissance rapide. Tout ce dont on a besoin c'est encore un peu de pluie.
 Et cette tondeuse à gazon que René Foran utilisait sur la pelouse de Steve McWhinnie a fait toute une embarquée. René était en train de tondre quand la lame rotative accrocha une pierre et se mit à faire des siennes.
 La Police Provinciale est à l'oeuvre: il semble que toutes les autos qui ont passé au coin de Cimetièrre et Châteauguay à Huntingdon, vendredi et dimanche, ont été arrêtées.
