Levi's® or
GWG jeans

Combined, Levi's and GWG have been making jeans for almost 200 years. GWG introduced prewashed jeans in the early 70s, hoping to sell 200,000 pairs. By 1974 they were making 2 million pairs of 'Scrubbies' a year. New at Sears, GWG presents their bleached denims with super straight leg, 5 copper rivets; sizes 28-36". The Levi's name is, of course, legendary. The most popular brand in the world, they produce 50 million pairs of jeans per year — in 20 countries worldwide. Levi's Brown Tabs are Sears exclusives. Washed with stones for softness, straight legs sizes 29-36".
