JORDAN LEFTISTS ASK US ENVOY'S EXPULSION

Stassen Sees Ike

Disarmament Pact Hopes Rise In US

AUGUSTA, Ga. — (AP) — President Eisenhower will confer here Tuesday with his disarmament adviser amid fresh indications that the United States now sees some chance for agreement with Russia on a first step toward disarmament.

Harold E. Stassen is scheduled to arrive by plane from Washington tonight for a talk with the vacationing president Tuesday morning. After the session at the Augusta National Golf Club, Stassen will start back to London for resumption of negotiations of a United Nations sub-committee seeking to bring the East-West atomic arms race under control.

Recess of the London negotiations for the Easter week-end brought Stassen to Washington Saturday for an interim report to State Secretary Dulles and other officials.

At the conclusion of that meeting the government put out a statement calling for a continued "serious effort to reach an initial partial agreement for a first step" toward disarmament with safeguards for inspection and control.

Dulles had recommended that Stassen make a personal report to the president.

SIGNIFICANT
That decision appears significant for two reasons.

In the first place, Dulles and Stassen obviously believe the status of the London negotiations warrants Eisenhower's personal attention.

Secondly, only a few weeks ago the White House announced that in the future Stassen no longer would report directly to the president but to Dulles, who would keep Eisenhower advised regarding any disarmament developments. Tuesday's meeting indicates some highly important development.

Teenage Driver's Stunt Kills Child

DAYTON, Ohio. — (AP) — Police said a four-year-old girl was killed Sunday when struck by a car steered by a teenager sitting backwards on the car's hood. Johnny Marie Reeves was playing near a curb when the car went out of control. Raymond Penrod, 17, who allegedly was steering the car, was held for investigation. Four other youths were also in the car.

Duplessis Is 67

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. — (AP) — Premier Duplessis spent his 67th birthday quietly at his home here Saturday. It was the first time in years he has spent the day away from Quebec.

The Queen Celebrates Birthday

WINDSOR, Eng. — (Reuters) — The Queen enjoyed her 31st birthday quietly Sunday by attending Easter services in Windsor Castle's St. George's Chapel. She was saluted by the bands of the Life Guards and the Grenadier Guards playing "Happy Birthday" as part of a concert. Appearing briefly at a window in the east terrace of the castle, the Royal family's country residence near London, the Queen, Prince Philip, Prince Charles and Princess Anne, smiled and waved to the thousands massed around the castle to hear the concert and see the Queen.

Tranquilizers Ground US Air Force Pilots

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States Army has grounded airplane pilots who use the new tranquilizing drugs. An order signed by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, army chief of staff, said pilots using the drugs may not fly until four weeks after they have stopped using them.

Somewhat similar instructions, emphasizing that no drugs will be taken without the knowledge of flight surgeons, were sent out by the air force surgeon general's office this month to all commands.

The army ban disqualified from flight duty individuals who are under treatment with "any of the newer mood-ameliorating, tranquilizing or ataxic (calming) drugs for hypertension, angina pectoris, nervous tension, irritability, insomnia, etc."

The order also disqualified from flight duty persons under treatment "with any of the anti-histamines or barbiturate preparations." In these cases the four-week "recovery" period was not imposed, however.

Lt. Col. Spurgeon Neel, an army aviation medical officer, said the order was issued after it had been learned that some pilots, treated with the drugs for high blood pressure, were reporting for duty "just because their pressure was down."

"The army is not attacking the drugs themselves," Neel said. "They are wonderful medicines, but they don't mix with flying."

US To Move Slowly On China Trade

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States is expected to move slowly and cautiously in carrying out its agreement to relax Allied controls on trade with Red China.

The State Department announced Saturday that the Eisenhower administration had agreed to negotiate with 14 Allied powers at reduction in the list of items embargoed for Red China. At the same time it called for an increase in the Soviet-bloc trade control list and a tightening up of control machinery.

The announcement emphasized that the U.S. has no intention of modifying its own total embargo on all trade with the Chinese Communists.

The decision was made in response to long-time British and Japanese pressures for increasing commerce with the Chinese mainland.

Their demands for revision constituted one side of a squeeze in which President Eisenhower and State Secretary Dulles have been caught for more than a year.

The other side consists of pressures in the U.S. Congress to maintain the highest possible restrictions on all free-world trade with the whole Communist bloc. Although the new American decision was made after consultation with congressional leaders, administration officials expect a burst in criticism when Congress reassembles after the Easter recess.

Hollywood - Type College Criticized

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The federal educational policies commission has condemned "the excesses of athletic competition and the... irresponsible recreational atmosphere" which it said exists in many United States colleges. "The concept of college, popularized by Hollywood, as a series of romantic escapades punctuated by athletic crises is not a worthy concept."

Syrian Troops Move In

AMMAN, Jordan — (AP) — Jordan's foreign minister has accused "certain foreign diplomatic missions" of interfering in the troubled kingdom's internal affairs, and there have been demands from leftists for the expulsion of the United States ambassador.

In neighboring Israel, the foreign ministry Sunday night said it had received intelligence reports that 1,000 Syrian troops had crossed into Jordan to reinforce the 3,000-man Syrian garrison already there.

The Israeli spokesman said 2,000 Iraqi troops moved to the border of the crisis — torn Arab country, presumably on orders from Iraq's King Faisal II to assist his young cousin, King Hussein of Jordan.

The Egyptian Middle East news agency said the Iraqi forces also crossed into Jordan and camped near El Marjaf, where the Syrian troops are located. The agency said Syrian President Shukri Kuwayli phoned King Hussein asking him to try to avoid a clash between the Iraqi and Syrian troops. There was no confirmation of this report.

SOVIET RELATIONS
Foreign Minister Suleiman Nabulsi reiterated Jordan's intention to establish diplomatic relations with Russia, saying:

"Why should we fear Soviet diplomats more than others? I might state here that I have noted other diplomatic missions already interfering in our internal affairs."

Nabulsi, who resigned as prime minister 12 days ago at the demand of King Hussein, insisted that the policy of the new government under Premier Hussein Khalidi would not be continued on Page 5

Tightrope Banned For Christening

LIMOGES, France — (CP) — Because civic authorities were a little stuffy about it, baby Rosemonde Orsola went to her christening in her mother's arms instead of being carried by her father on a motorcycle along a tightrope tied to a church belfry.

The father, circus star Raymond Orsola, had practised for a week whipping over a cable, 150 feet above the town's main square. But town authorities said no.

Orsola is the great grandson of Blondin, the man who crossed Niagara Falls on a tightrope.

Three-Hour Battle On Jordan Border

TEL AVIV — (AP) — Israeli military headquarters today reported a three-hour gunbattle between Israeli and Jordanian troops on the central frontier.

The army spokesman said the Jordanians opened fire with machine-guns and rifles on an Israeli patrol about 21 miles north-east of Tel Aviv. He said the gunfight was broken off after three hours with no Israeli casualties.

Renounce Force Reds Ask

MOSCOW. — (Reuters) — Russia Sunday called upon the United States, Britain and France to join her in renouncing the use of force "as a means of solving the unsettled problems in the Middle East."

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, issued a summary of notes delivered Friday to the U.S., British, and French Embassies in Moscow.

The use of force to solve Middle East problems "represents a gross violation of the principles contained in the charter of the United Nations," the notes said.

The note addressed to the United States criticized the refusal by the U.S. government to accept the principles of the last Soviet note delivered Feb. 11 to the three Western powers.

The Feb. 11 note called for a declaration by the great powers on the establishment of peace and the elimination of foreign bases in the Middle East.

The note said foreign interference — infringing on the sovereignty and independence of Middle Eastern states — was preventing a peaceful settlement of the Middle and Near Eastern situation.

NOTE TO BRITAIN
The note addressed to Britain criticized the entrance of the United States into the military committee of the British-backed Baghdad Pact for defence of the Middle East against communism.

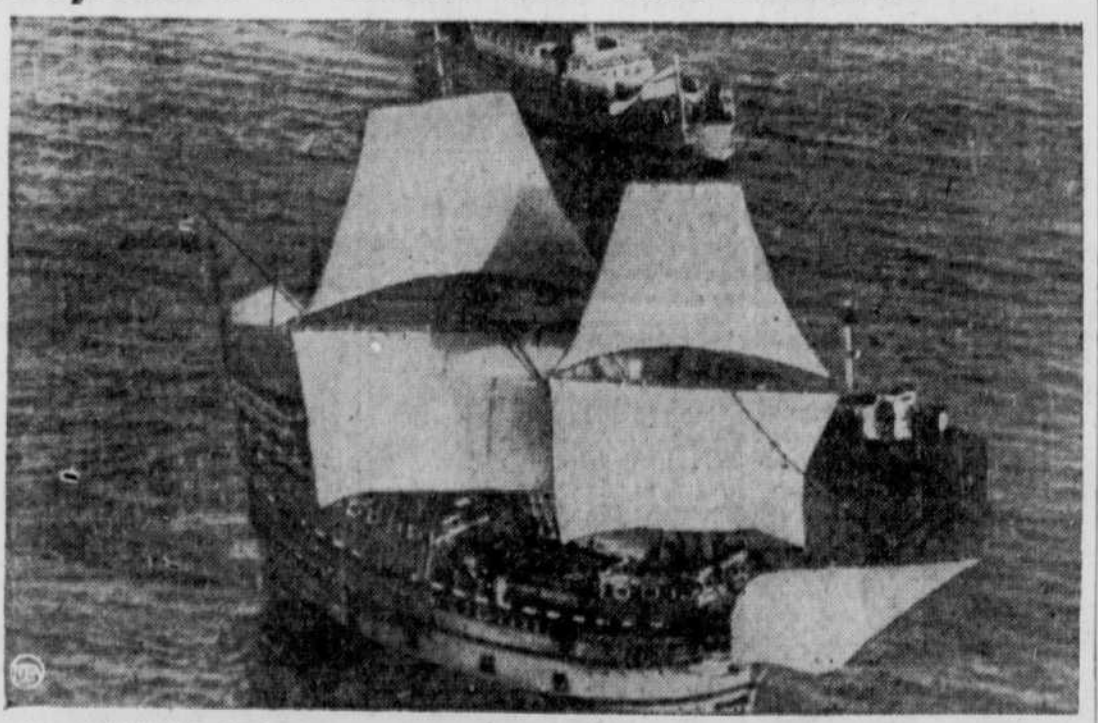

Royal Romance May Be Brewing

LONDON (AP) — A British newspaper says Sunday a marriage may be in the making between the Duke of Kent and Crown Princess Beatrix, 18, of The Netherlands.

The weekly tabloid Reveille says "secret talks about the marriage have already taken place between the mothers of the couple — the Duchess of Kent and Queen Juliana."

The 21-year-old duke, seventh in line to the British throne, has a reputation as a playboy in the young Mayfair set.

Mayflower II Heads Out Into Atlantic

ST. KEVERNE, England — (AP) — Mayflower II, replica of the 17th-century Pilgrim Father's ship, sailed out of sight of the English coast today as she headed for the United States. Soon after dawn the little wooden sailing vessel was spotted by the coast guard 15 miles out from the Lizard, southernmost point of England's coast. Half an hour later she was out of sight.

A coast guard officer said "on her course she has seen the last land until she approaches her destination."

The ship left Plymouth Saturday, bound for Plymouth, Mass. For more than 24 hours she dawdled in the English Channel with hardly a breath of wind to fill her sails.

But the 180-ton Mayflower, with a crew of 32 aboard, had "her sails full set" today, the coast guard said. There was a light northerly wind, and the ship appeared to be making a steady three or four knots. Skipper Alan Villiers, Australian seafarer, hopes to land the ship in Massachusetts in about six weeks. He has said it all depends on weather conditions in the Atlantic.

Forest Fires In North US

BOSTON — (AP) — More than 100 forest fires blackened thousands of acres of woods and brushland and levelled some 25 summer cottages and homes in the New England states Sunday.

The weather bureau at Boston today said the forest fire danger continues "extremely high and it will continue so with no rain in sight over the next two or three days at least."

One of the larger blazes ate up more than 1,000 acres of pine woods and destroyed at least 18 summer cottages at Lake Ossipee in the Freedom, N.H., area.

Peaceful Easter As Pilgrims Cross Border

JERUSALEM — (AP) — A handful of Easter pilgrims gathered in front of the Garden Tomb just outside the walls of Old Jerusalem Sunday for a sunrise service marking Christ's resurrection.

Some say this is the tomb from which Jesus emerged on the first Easter morning. It is situated inside the ancient garden with its own cistern and wine press, indicating it was once the property of a rich man like Joseph of Arimathea who provided Christ's burial place.

The climax of the Latin services in the old city came Sunday morning when Latin patriarch Alberto Gori walked over the flagstoned streets from his seat deep inside the old city to the Holy Sepulchre to celebrate Easter mass.

HONORED GUESTS
Consuls from Roman Catholic countries — preceded by liveried dragonmen beating silver tipped batons on the pavement — walked in procession and sat as honored guests at the service.

In the windup of Easter week observances, a sunrise service was held also outside the Church of Scotland in the Israeli sector of Jerusalem.

Approximately 100 Christian pilgrims crossed from Israel into the old city to spend Easter. They included clergymen, members of the consular corps and some visitors. As they entered

Japanese Scientist Says Reds Have New H-Bomb

TOKYO — (Reuters) — A Japanese scientist Sunday claimed Russia exploded a new type of nuclear ground bomb which produces a deadly alpha ray fallout and a serious danger to mankind.

Prof. Takanobu Shikawa of Shizuoka University announced his theory after analyzing radioactive dust which fell over Japan last Wednesday. Some other scientists disagreed with his conclusions.

Japanese weathermen said Friday they were "almost certain" this fall-out resulted from a Soviet blast April 14. The United States Atomic Energy Commission and the British defence ministry have confirmed the Soviet Union produced test explosions in Siberia April 3, 6, 10, 12, and 16.

HEAVY FALL-OUT
Shikawa said the new ground bomb released a heavy fall-out of neptunium-239 and plutonium-239 a long-living isotope which gives off a deadly alpha ray. The new bomb was not "clean" — one with limited fall-out — and the scattering of plutonium-239 could become a serious danger to mankind, he added. It takes 24,000 years for the isotope to fade to half strength.

Fall-out dust tested in Japan April 17 contained 33 per cent elements which are insoluble in acid. The United States Bikini tests produced fall-outs with 10 to 20 per cent insoluble elements.

The high percentage of insoluble elements in the Soviet fall-out indicated the explosion had occurred on or near the ground, Shikawa said.

OTHERS DISAGREE
Other Japanese scientists agreed with Shikawa that there probably had been a Soviet test April 14. But they said his findings did not necessarily indicate a new type of bomb.

The Pope Warns Of A-Danger

VATICAN CITY — (AP) — Pope Pius has declared in his Easter message that the world has entered a mighty nuclear epoch but still is surrounded by night.

The new epoch is bringing wondrous things to man but the night, said the Pontiff Sunday in clear reference to war, "could also, even unexpectedly, become engulfed in storm."

In general, he reiterated his 1956 Easter message when he bluntly blessed peaceful uses of nuclear energy and warned against atomic warfare.

Pilgrims and tourists from all parts of the world, crammed shoulder to shoulder in St. Peter's Square, listened to the pontiff.

From time to time they cheered the 81-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church. The throng, largest that ever listened to a papal Easter message, was estimated at more than 300,000.

VOICE STRONG
The pontiff's voice was strong. Glass panels protected his frail figure from a sharp wind as he spoke from the central loggia of St. Peter's Basilica.

His voice filled with emotion, the Pontiff urged that the stone be rolled away from Christ's tomb and that His light be allowed to fill the world, but, he added, the world also faces darkness.

"Many already are beginning to perceive — and admit it — that this night of the world has come about because Christ has been arrested; because they wished to exclude Him from family, cultural and social life; because the people have risen up against Him, because He has been crucified, and rendered voiceless and motionless."

NEW AGE OPENED
"Meanwhile, in the world, under providence, there are about to be multiplied methods for the fuller and freer development of life. While the discoveries of science broaden the horizon of human possibilities, technical developments and organization render such conquests effective by putting them at the immediate service of man."

"Nuclear energy has, in fact, already opened up a new age..." But, said the Pope, in warning of menace to this bright picture of the future, "error, in well-nigh countless forms, has made slaves of the intellects of men."

"Evil habits in every form have reached such degrees of precocity, impudence and universality as to arouse serious misgivings in those who have at heart the destinies of the world."

"The human race seems like a body, infected and wounded, in which the blood circulates with great difficulty."

Airplane Lands Without Wingtip

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (AP) — A twin-engine Frontier Airlines plane landed safely Sunday with about 10 feet of its left wing sheared off, raising the question of whether it actually could have scraped against the ground while in flight.

The DC-3 was caught in a severe downdraft about 50 miles north of Phoenix, but pilot Dale Welling applied full throttle and pulled out after the plane had dropped an estimated 4,000 feet.

Russians Jam Moscow Churches

MOSCOW — (AP) — Tens of thousands of Russians jammed the few churches still operating in Moscow Saturday night for Russian Orthodox Easter services.

Most churches in the Soviet capital have been converted into museums. Those remaining were so thronged that militia was summoned to control crowds for blocks around each one.

Hardships In Korea Depicted By Miss A. Sandell At Bedford Meeting

BEDFORD — A largely attended meeting was held in the United Church by the Women's Association when Miss Ada Sandell, of Magog, was guest speaker.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Gordon Jones, who welcomed the members and guests, representatives from missionary groups were present from Farnham, Mystic, Stanbridge East and Phillipsburg, also from the Woman's Auxiliary of St. James Church. The prayer was given by the pastor, Rev. T. Duncan, after which a duet, "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by Mrs. W. A. Rhicard and Mr. Alex MacArthur, with Mrs. Alex MacArthur at the organ.

Introduced by Miss Nettie Lovering, Miss Sandell traced the expansion of missionary work in Korea, since it was first organized seventy years ago. Miss Sandell at one time was on the staff of Severance Hospital in Seoul, and in charge of the training of nurses in Pusan, later going to Kojima Island, to set up nurses' training school there. She spoke of the terrible living conditions of the Korean people, which had been made unbearable during the war.

She paid tribute to the splendid work done by American soldiers in looking after the many orphans on the island during hostilities, when families were separated.

Miss Sandell also spoke of the appreciation felt for clothing sent from Canada and how greatly it is needed.

Slides were shown following the address, giving a vivid idea of the country, and the hardships suffered by the Koreans.

On behalf of the Association, Mrs. Wood thanked Miss Sandell for her address, which made all more aware of the need for funds and supplies and more missionaries to carry on the work.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Lumsden, Mrs. D. Beerwort, Mrs. R. F. Van Horn, Mrs. A. Sawyer, Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Jack Fiddess. Mrs. Neil Cheller, Mrs. Alex MacArthur, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Cruise, Miss Lottie Casey and Mrs. Ralph Oakes looked after the kitchen.

W.A. COUNCIL
The W.A. Council of the four churches of the Bedford United Church charge was entertained for its annual meeting at the Parsonage. Unfortunately, no delegate from Phillipsburg was able to attend; those attending from Mystic were Mrs. G. Gage, Mrs. G. Clough and Mrs. J. Wanzler; from Stanbridge East, Mrs. R. Fortin, Mrs. F. Corey, Mrs. J. Brocheart, Mrs. L. Lackey. Representing Bedford were Mrs. G. Jones, Mrs. R. Oakes, Mrs. W.

Townships Escape Easter Weekend Traffic Fatalities

Canadian Death Toll Stands At 55; Quebec Records Fifteen Dead

According to the Canadian Press, the Canadian death toll for the busy Easter weekend stood at 55 this morning. Quebec recorded 15 of these, 12 in traffic and three drownings.

A survey from 6 p.m. local time Thursday to midnight Sunday shows highway mishaps accounted for 37 dead. There were eight drownings and 10 fatalities from miscellaneous causes such as falls, asphyxiations and accidental shootings. Industrial accidents are not included in the count.

Ontario recorded the highest toll, with 14 traffic victims and two drownings among its 19 dead.

FIRE

In Chicoutimi, two-year-old Serge Dallaire was asphyxiated today when fire destroyed the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dallaire. Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined.

Dan Kelly, 20, of Kenogami, Que., was killed Sunday when the car in which he was riding overturned on the highway near Arvida two miles from Jonquiere.

Four others were injured and taken to hospital. They were identified as Val Rasmussen, of Jonquiere, Bertrand Couture, Gaetan Bergeron and his sister, Berthe Bergeron, all of Kenogami. Their automobile overturned while passing another vehicle.

Easter crowds spill out of Sherbrooke's Plymouth United Church after the Easter service. This scene was repeated in the city and throughout Canada over the weekend, as thousands of Canadians celebrated the resurrection of Christ, and the re-birth of nature. (Record photo by Gerry Lemay)

Easter Ceremonies Are Warmed By Bright Sun, Balmy Weather

Wearing their new spring clothes, hundreds of Sherbrookers, joined with thousands of Canadians in filling churches and parks Sunday, as they celebrated the resurrection of Christ, and the rebirth of nature. Warm Sunshine heightened the joy of Easter Sunday in the city, and throughout most of the country.

During the course of the weekend, many special services were held in Sherbrooke.

There was a special devotional service held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church from noon to 3:00 p.m. on Good Friday, which incorporated six other Protestant groups: Sangster Memorial Church, Trinity United Church, Plymouth Church, the Baptist Church, Lennoxville United Church and the Salvation Army.

On Thursday a special Maundy Thursday corporate Communion service was held in the Lennoxville United Church. This service incorporated Plymouth, Trinity and Lennoxville United Churches.

At a three-hour devotional service at the Church of the Advent on Good Friday, Canon Dunn of Cookshire was the guest preacher.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

School children still have a certain amount of time left before they return to school next Monday. It is expected that they will have good weather for the remainder of their Easter vacation, though it will be cooler than at present.

Elsewhere in Canada, Easter events were reported in profusion.

More than 5,000 people attended four services at the First Presbyterian Church in Picot, N. S., where an anonymous Bermudian once again donated 3,000 lilies to decorate the church.

In Halifax, some 2,000 attended an early morning service which was sponsored by the Shriner.

Torontonians had a tremendous thrill as they witnessed a giant Easter Parade which included, television stars, pretty girls, poodles and the latest model cars.

COOLER WEATHER

However, the beautiful weather which has lightened Easter in the Eastern Townships is not expected to remain. A long-range weather forecast prepared by Washington, shows that temperatures are expected to remain "below normal" for the next 30 days.

Ontario Jumps Into Maple Syrup Hassle

TORONTO — At least one man refuses to concede domination of the maple syrup industry to Quebec and the United States.

J. D. Thomas, president of Canadian Products Ltd., is indignant because governor Averell Harriman of New York State did not invite Ontario producers to compete in the North American maple syrup testing championship at Syracuse May 3-4.

Invited were the province of Quebec, and the states of Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. New York state also competes.

Vermont and Michigan tied for first place last year, with New York third.

Mr. Thomas sent Governor Harriman this telegram:

"Will enter maple syrup from Ontario if you are not afraid of our competition for taste test. Send information."

Mr. Thomas said "all they (the U. S. tasters) know about is the Quebec syrup. They prefer to believe that their states dominate the maple syrup world."

"When I see such propaganda, it makes me want to fight back," he said.

Youngster Drowned In Well; Traffic Mishaps Injure Four

The Eastern Townships experienced a weekend free of highway fatalities but the record was marred by the death of a two-year-old youngster of Notre Dame du Bon Conseil who drowned in a well at his home.

Elsewhere in the Townships, four people were injured in various highway accidents.

The body of ALAIN COTE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florian Cote, was found at the bottom of a well at his farm home early Sunday morning.

Mr. Cote told police that he and his son went to the barn at about 7 p.m. when the youngster disappeared. After a general search through the area, young Cote's body was found in the well around 8:45 p.m., only 125 feet from the barn.

Provincial Police Det. Claude Blais and Coroner Dr. Rene Millet investigated. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death.

Nothing But Trouble For Fisherman

MONTREAL — Frank Rock, 20, went fishing Easter Sunday in the St. Lawrence River, but he caught nothing but trouble.

His outboard motor flooded and stalled, his steering cable snapped and the current sucked his tiny boat into the boiling waters of the treacherous Lachine Rapids.

"He was travelling blind. All we could do was wait to see if he made it," said Bert Havill, 19, fishing on the other side of the rapids.

Rock's craft survived, and with Havill's help the motor and steering column were repaired.

Meanwhile, police tried unsuccessfully to locate Rock's boat. They were called by a bus driver who saw it sucked into the rapids.

Fearing the worst, the authorities went to see Rock's father. "Frank?" said the father. "Oh, he went back fishing again. He's been here and told me what a narrow escape he had."

Modern Richmond Post Office To Be Built

Shown above is an architect's drawing of the new Richmond Post Office which will shortly be constructed on the site of the present 61-year-old edifice at the corner of Main and Carpenter streets. It is expected that tenders will shortly be called for its construction.

RICHMOND — (Special) — Richmond's 61-year-old post office, a landmark in this Richmond County centre, will soon be demolished and replaced by a modern and up-to-date building. Plans for the new post office have just been released by the Federal Department of Public Works.

It is expected that tenders will be called shortly for its construction. The present post office was built in 1896, but due to the structural weakening of the building caused by unstable foundations it was found necessary to rebuild.

The new building will be erected on the same site as the old post office on the corner of Main and Carpenter Streets. The two-storey structure will be of brick and tile-enclosed reinforced concrete construction with hollow tile partitioning. The exterior finish will feature aluminum curtain wall panels with porcelain enameled spandrels and aluminum window sashes.

The entrances will have aluminum doors with white granite facings between them. A canopy will extend across the entire front of the building.

Inside, the public lobbies will be lined with birch veneer; other wall surfaces will be painted plaster. Floors in the lobbies will be terrazzo, halls and staircases and all the offices and working areas will be covered with linoleum. The ceilings will be finished in acoustical tile.

In addition to the post office the new building will house offices of the Department of National Revenue (Customs and Excise Division), Department of Agriculture, Public Works and Veterans' Affairs and the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

The plans and specifications were prepared for the Department of Public Works by the architectural firm of Rene and Gerard Charbonneau of Montreal.

Pearson Fumbles The Norman Case

The Norman case drags on, unfortunately. It is unfortunate because, with an election coming, there is grave danger that the reputation of Herbert Norman, the Canadian Ambassador in Cairo who committed suicide after charges of Communist leanings had been aired in Washington, will become a political football.

The facts of the case are still obscure. But bit by bit the story has come out.

The heart of the matter is this: Seventeen years ago, in 1940, a Toronto secret agent branded Norman as a Communist.

Seven years ago, in October, 1950, the RCMP sent to Washington a security report on Norman in which the 1940 statement was referred to but was not confined.

A few weeks later, on Dec. 1, 1950, a second RCMP report which went to Washington labelled the agent's accusation against Norman as a case of "mistaken identity or unfounded rumor."

The American Senate sub-committee which dragged up the charges against Norman this year got hold of the first report of 1950 but it is not known whether it saw the second.

External Affairs Secretary Pearson says that when he stated that official Canadian information on Norman had not got into the hands of the sub-committee, he was relying on RCMP assurances to that effect. It is not known how the RCMP report got to the sub-committee.

This latest development in the case marks the second time Mr. Pearson has had to backtrack on major statements.

The other embarrassment to Canada was the revelation on the last day of Parliament's sitting that Mr. Norman had had Communist associations as a student. Previously Mr. Pearson had flatly denied the sub-committee charges.

The point is not whether or not Mr. Norman had leftist leanings as a student. If he was subsequently cleared of Communist associations — and the Canadian people must rely on the government's word that he was — there is no question that he was rightly given responsible posts in Canada's foreign service.

However, the government itself is responsible for the fact that the case is dragging on. Mr. Norman's name is being blackened in the public mind simply because new developments crop up every few days.

Mr. Pearson is away off base when he accuses newspapers and newspapermen of hurting Mr. Norman's name. If the government had been honest with Parliament and the Canadian people in the first place the whole matter would have been cleared up weeks ago.

Labor - Making Machines

This is the age of electronic and mechanical marvels in the household. To most of them — washing machine, dryer, dishwasher and the like — the phrase "labor-saving" is usually applied.

There can't be much doubt that they do save labor. Their gleaming white facades represent a kind of daily miracle of work, performed, permitting Mother to get out of the kitchen and perhaps in front of the TV set at an early hour.

But there is a price to pay, and it's not just the cost of the equipment. Machines being machines, they sometimes fail.

If Father is handy with tools, he may inevitably be pressed into service as chief engineer, and this can mean tinkering with a whole houseful of stuff. In fact, in his new book, "A Surfeit of Honey," author Russell Lynes says husbands who fix the household equipment constitute the "new servant class."

An economic columnist notes, too, that repairs for these machines can deal a family some surprising blows. Usually family budgets are figured without these more or less unexpected outlays.

The miracle may be real enough, but possibly Father and his pocket-book may need a little more convincing.

COMPETITIVE RISK PAYS ON SCORE

South ruffed the third round of clubs in today's hand, led a spade toward dummy and finesse the jack. East won with the king and led the suit back.

South won in dummy with the ace and led the eight of diamonds. East played the six. South studied a while and finally decided to play East for both diamond honors. The decision was correct and South made his three-diamond contract.

This hand is a good example of competitive part-score bidding. With the normal diamond opening West would make three clubs with 100 honors and that is exactly what his side had bid.

When South bid three diamonds he knew that he was taking a chance. However, he believed that West would probably make his three clubs and also knew that he could not be hurt at three diamonds. It seemed well worth his while to risk a slight penalty in order to compete for the part score.

If West had known that South was going to make three diamonds he would surely have gone on to four clubs but West had heard his partner bid two no-trump and West thought that three diamonds was not too likely to make. Furthermore West did not like the position of his king of hearts and feared a possible two-trick set at four clubs.

Finally, East really expected to set three diamonds. He was not certain enough to risk a double but he saw no reason to bid four clubs and take what appeared to be a sure loss.

A DAY THAT MADE HISTORY

(St. John's News)

Twenty-five years ago an event occurred in St. John's which changed the course of events in Newfoundland and paved the way for the final constitutional decision on that linked the island's destiny with Canada's. It was the riot at the House of Assembly that was followed by the collapse of the government of the day, a new general election and, less than two years later, the suspension of self-government.

Baronets Of Nova Scotia

Canada In Edinburgh

EDINBURGH — Thousands of Canadians cross the Atlantic every year to attend the Edinburgh Festival. But few of them realize, as they watch the military tattoo in front of Edinburgh Castle, that the spectacle is taking place on Canadian soil.

In 1622, the Earl of Stirling was granted possession of the land between New England and Newfoundland, and planned to settle the country as New Scotland, or Nova Scotia. He had to raise both men and money for the enterprise and a new order of knights was formed called the Baronets of Nova Scotia.

The order was made up of men who subscribed substantial sums toward settlement of the new land, and who each received the title to a parcel of land in return. So that they might take possession in Scotland of their Canadian property the ground in front of Edinburgh castle was declared to be part of Nova Scotia, and the new baronets took up their rights and privileges in a ceremony of feudal splendor.

Many of them later sold their lands to France, but nevertheless the decree calling the castle esplanade "Nova Scotia" has never been rescinded, and a plaque beside the drawbridge records the fact that the reader is standing on Canadian territory.

Edinburgh Castle dominates the whole of the Scottish capital from its vantage point on Castle Rock.

ENCHANTED LAND

(Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd) At the bottom of this planet lies an enchanted continent in the sky, like a pale sleeping princess.

Sinister and beautiful she lies in her frozen slumber, her billowy white robes of snow weirdly luminous with amethysts and emeralds of ice, her dreams iridescent ice halos around the sun and moon, her horizons painted with pastel shades of pink, gold, green and blue.

Such is Antarctica, luring land of everlasting mystery.

THE CHARM OF THIS DAY

(Toronto Telegram)

Said the little girl, as her aunt led her from the skating rink: "I like swimming."

For her, as for grownups, winter has been long and summer with its prospect of lakes and beaches seems distant. But the present has large compensations. The little girl and her friends are out with their skipping ropes and the sidewalk is chalked in squares where they balm, a fresh wind that sweeps play hop-scotch. Small boys are shooting marbles and are as breathless as the puppy that romps with them. For them Spring is a day after day of release, of freedom from cumbersome clothes and escape from early nights; it is day after day of more sunshine and sweet air and free movement.

And for adults Spring is a time when the sun clears the streets of ice. Pleasure is visible and animated—the fat robin hard back on its heels as it tugs at the worm; the budding trees.

Spring—the name itself is enlivening. There is cheer in it and beauty, the beauty of growth and of newness. It is possible to look back on Winter with affection, if only for the reason that like a shadow it highlights the charm of Spring.

GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SEE

on the road than ever before!

1. Forward Look styling. Clean, smooth-flowing lines, forward-thrusting fenders, modern hooded headlamps, wide-sweeping grille—all have a business-building look of flair and fitness.

2. Super-rugged design. From built-to-take-it chrome-alloy springs to extra-heavy-duty frames to shot-peened rear axles, Fargos give you a valuable bonus in hauling ability.

3. Economical operation. Fargo V-8's and proved Sixes give you full power on regular gas. Exclusive full-opening alligator hood makes engine maintenance easier, faster, thriftier.

4. Top power. Fargo trucks lead in advanced-design V-8 power, from 180 to 232 h.p. Fargo Sixes, too, are leaders.

5. Driving ease. Shortest turning diameters (on many models) take you easily out of tight spots. Push-button driving is available on D100 (½-ton) models for start-stop hauling ease.

6. More comfort, safety

PEACEFUL EASTER

the old city other pilgrims were trickling back into Israel through the Mandelbaum Gate. About 400 crossed on Good Friday and planned to return Sunday night and today.

CITY QUIET

Despite Middle East tensions, Jerusalem was quiet during Easter week and pilgrims enjoyed Easter devotions in peace.

The crises of the last few months have inhibited the flow of foreign tourists into Jerusalem to some extent, but all in all it was the best. Easter Arab Jerusalem has known in at least two years.

This year was one of the rare occasions when both the Western and Oriental Easter fall on the same date and the influx of Oriental pilgrims jammed Jerusalem hotels to capacity.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS
Because so many Christian groups observed Easter in the same church of the Holy Sepulchre, special arrangements had to be made. As Coptic mass ended, the Orthodox began, while Armenians and Roman Catholics awaited their turn.

Returning Sunday morning to Israel were 120 members of the Samaritan sect, who crossed to Jordan April 12 for a nine-day pilgrimage to Mount Gerizim near Nablus, legendary home of the Good Samaritan.

In Israel, the weeklong passover neared its end. On Mount Zion in the Israel part of Jerusalem a passover prayer service today will mark the end of the observance.

change from that of the preceding one.

Both Nabulsi and Premier Khalid said the Jordan government had invited the special United States envoy, James P. Richards, last Friday to come to Amman to explain the Eisenhower doctrine for the Middle East.

Nabulsi said no further invitation was necessary. American officials, however, have taken the line that a definite bid has not been extended, and Richards still is awaiting a proper invitation.

NO CONDITIONS

Nabulsi said Jordan would reject any conditions attached to any U.S. aid, whether under the Eisenhower doctrine or otherwise. As to Eisenhower's suggestion that the Arabs band together to resist Communist encroachment, the foreign minister said:

"We are against communism because it is against Arab nationalism. If I fight communism, I do so for the sake of Arabs, not for the sake of the United States or any other country."

Beauty Tips

A seam down the back of the leg cuts its width. If your legs are heavy, never wear seamless stockings, however fashionable they may be.

Heavy eye make-up is not for teenagers. It doesn't enhance their youthful good looks. It simply lends a hard and brassy air.

Dissatisfied Wife Is An Expensive Luxury for Man

A dissatisfied wife is a luxury few men can afford. Gentlemen, it costs you when you neglect to tell your wife what a fine job she is doing as a homemaker. If she doesn't get any appreciation from you, she'll try to get it from other women by competing with them in a never-ending struggle to fill her house with finer things than her friends have.

If she feels neglected and unloved she will consciously or unconsciously try to make you as miserable as she is and you will find little peace at home.

If you have stopped complimenting her on her looks, she will need more expensive clothes, more sessions at a beauty salon, more beauty aids of every kind to reassure herself that she is still an attractive woman.

If you shut her completely out of your world of work she will fill the emptiness with useless, time-consuming social activities instead of working at the job of being your partner.

HUSBANDS PAYS

If you are too difficult to please, she will grow weary of trying and your happiness and well-being will become less and less important to her.

If you refuse to talk things over with her, she will start confiding in outsiders and you will no longer present a united front to the world.

In the end a husband always pays for letting his wife become dissatisfied. And he pays in many, many ways—in money, in loss of self-esteem, in contentment.

Since this is so, it is stupid of any husband to be so stingy with his praise, his compliments, and his attention that his wife feels neglected and dissatisfied with her place in life.

Yukon Settler Of 60 Years Has Enjoyed Arduous Life

VANCOUVER—A woman who left a comfortable Chicago to dare the rigors of the Klondike Pass alongside thousands of men in the Klondike gold rush, says after 60 years:

"I never yet met a man I didn't like and I never met a man who was downright bad."

That's how Martha Louise Black, 91-year-old sourdough and wife of former House of Commons Speaker George Black, recalls her life in Yukon, "a man's land."

Mrs. Black herself sat in the House representing the territory for five years, the only term between 1921 and 1949 that her husband didn't make it, because of illness.

AT YUKONER'S REUNION
The famous pair, whose tireless service to their beloved north earned them the title of the "first citizen" and "first lady" of Yukon, flew here from their home in Whitehorse, Y.T., for the annual Yukoners' reunion.

They are as much a part of that fabulous gold rush era as the old sternwheelers that once plied its rivers of fortune and now line the banks, weather-beaten and worn but strictly sourdough.

Mrs. Black, confined to a wheelchair because of rheumatism and a bad fall a year ago, refutes the suggestion she is a "lady."

"Men," she mused, in an interview, "have always respected me, but because I met them on their own ground."

"I have a hell of a temper and if they annoyed me, I could swear any man to shame. The women didn't like me too well. They called me 'that American'—I was raised in Chicago—but they never called me in a lady in those days."

Mrs. Black has snowy hair and is wrinkled with age, but she speaks with the fire of a woman less than half her age, displaying a sharp wit and keen memory.

Approaching Marriage
Mrs. Frederick Stoddard of Cookshire announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Beverly Ann, to Mr. Harry Peter Wasyluk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wasyluk of Noranda. The wedding has been arranged to take place on Monday, May 20, at 12 o'clock noon, in Erskine and American United Church.

After a pamper night at home, follow your leisurely bath with a good night's sleep. Try putting a few drops of your favorite scent on a cotton ball and pinning it to the inside of your pillow. It adds a distinct feeling of luxury.

Sherbrooke Kiwanis Club To Participate In Two Meetings With Vermont, N.H. Clubs

This week is "Good Will Week" for several hundred Kiwanis clubs in Canada and the United States, and the Sherbrooke Kiwanis Club will be doing its part in underlining this essential part of the Kiwanis ideal.

Two good-will meetings will be held in the district during the week. Tonight, at its regular meeting at the Hotel Sherbrooke, the local Kiwanis Club will be host to members from clubs in Barre, Vt., Harwick, Vt., and Montpelier, Vt. The Rev. Henry Mathews will be the guest speaker, and his subject will be "Christian Approach to Canada - U.S. Relations."

On Wednesday, a delegation of eight members from the Sherbrooke Kiwanis Club will visit the Lancaster, N.H. Club. Sherbrooke president Dr. T. Cadman and Les Memory will direct the delegation.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN
The local club is noted for its work with crippled children in the district. It sends several crippled youngsters to the Camp for Crippled Children at Ayer's Cliff each year, and helps to run the camp. The club also runs the Easter seals campaign in this district each year, and raises money through its annual horse show. Each year, too, the club conducts a "Gasoline Day" to raise even more funds for its good work.

The local club was founded in August of 1948, with Newman Hunter elected the first president. Succeeding presidents have been: Len Keeler, Guy Blanchette, Les Memory, Gilbert Rheume, Jack Dunfield, Reg. Bishop and Jos. Faucher. Present president is Dr. T. Cadman.

This "Good Will" observance takes place each year, and 1957 marks the 36th year. In reality, the week is only a symbol of the kind of international brotherhood in North America that should be in evidence throughout the year. As a further tribute to the good will and understanding which has so long existed between Canada and the United States, Kiwanis International erected in Stanley Park, Vancouver, B.C., the Harding International Good Will Memorial which was dedicated with significant ceremonies Sept. 16, 1935. The inscription on this memorial is an excerpt from the address of President Harding, the first United States president to visit Canada.

SUPPORT

The project has the full-hearted support of many leading Canadian and U.S. figures.

Says J. G. Crean, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce: "I like to think that the 3,000 mile border between the United States and Canada joins rather than separates us."

His American counterpart, the president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Boyd Campbell, recognizes the interdependence of the two countries:

"Kiwanis International is to be commended for its vigilance in this regard, by affording us all an opportunity to observe United States - Canada Good Will Week," says Mr. Campbell.

Newport Club To Visit The Magog Kiwanians

The Magog Kiwanis Club will celebrate Canada-U.S. "Good Will Week" by being hosts at Ayer's Cliff to the Newport, Vermont Kiwanis Club. The Magog Club two weeks ago paid a visit to the Newport Club.

This year, the Magog Kiwanis Club will be celebrating its seventh year of service to the communities of Magog and Ayer's Cliff. During these seven years, the club has lived up to Kiwanis ideals as a community builder.

During the past year, the club has performed many valuable services. The group has made a presentation of a wheel chair to the Crippled

Children's Camp at Ayer's Cliff, and made a New Year's presentation to the aged at La Providence Hospital in Magog. They also paid the expenses of a local child who was sent to Montreal for special heart treatment. Another contribution was the club's sponsorship of transportation to school in rural districts for several children to the Magog School, until arrangements were made by the local school board to supply conveyance.

The club has increased in number over the past year, and set an all-time attendance record.

President of the club is Irene Fortier.

COOKSHIRE —

Cooper and Mrs. O. C. Farnsworth. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. C. Cooper and Mrs. Goff served refreshments. Mrs. C. Cooper offered to hold the May meeting at her home.

Peace Markers Link Two Great Nations

Kiwanis clubs in the United States and Canada have placed 25 "Peace Markers" along the 3,000-mile unfortified border between the two nations.

Their object is to dramatize U.S.-Canada good neighborliness.

Each of the 25 peace-markers bears a bronze plaque with the wording shown on the inset. The first Kiwanis peace marker was put in place by Michigan Kiwanians at the Ambassador Bridge which connects Detroit and Windsor. It was set up on January 22, 1935 during ceremonies marking the 20th anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis.

Other peace markers were set up by U.S. or Canadian clubs working singly, in pairs, or in groups.

Inspiration of the 25 Kiwanis peace markers was furnished by the establishment in 1925 of the Kiwanis International Good Will Memorial in Stanley Park, Vancouver. This memorial was set up by U.S. and Canadian Kiwanis Clubs to emphasize the lasting friendship between the two nations.

It also commemorated the first visit of a U.S. President, in office, to Canadian soil. That president, a Kiwanian, was Warren G. Harding.

Each peace marker is located at an important port of entry between Canada and the U.S. Though they vary in appearance, each bears the following legend:

"This unfortified boundary line between the Dominion of Canada and the United States of America should quicken the remembrance of the more than a century-old friendship between these countries — a lesson of peace to all nations."

April 28th marks the 139th anniversary of the signing of the Rush-Bagot agreement which demilitarized the Canadian-U.S. boundary.

Boston Red Sox Hand Yanks Their First Defeat Of Season, Win 5-4

Buffalo Puts End To Richmond's String, Thump Them Twice Sunday; Miami Edges Royals To Top League

Just when it appeared Richmond Virginians were going to open an early lead in the International League along came Buffalo Bisons to put an end to such aspirations.

After thumping the Bisons 15-10 Saturday for their fourth straight victory, the Virginians were downed twice on Sunday by Buffalo, and dropped to third place.

Meantime Miami Marlins, only undefeated club in the circuit, turned back Montreal 3-2 in a single game for their third straight triumph. Buffalo took over second place with one set-back in four games.

The Bisons won the first game 7-3 and the second 2-0 behind the two-hit pitching of southpaw Walt Craddock. Havana and Toronto split a pair, with the Maple Leafs winning the first 2-1 and the Sugar Kings the second 4-1. Columbus and Rochester also divided a doubleheader. The Jets took the opener 5-1 and the Red Wings the nightcap 8-2.

Buffalo sewed up the first game with Richmond in the first three innings by scoring four runs off Ed Cereghino, and then added three more in the eighth off Sonny Dixon as they got a one-hit relief job from Ray Herbert over the last 3-2-3 innings. Craddock struck out six and didn't permit a Virginian past first in his fine seven-inning stint.

John Anderson, Miami rookie, survived a shaky start as he checked the Royals with five hits. During one stretch he retired 15 of 16 batters.

Stan Jok's seventh-inning homer and fine relief pitching by Bob Tiefenauer gave the Leafs their first game victory over the Cubs but the Sugar Kings came back with a three-run homer by Witty Quintana in the opening frame of the nightcap to square accounts for the day.

Like the Leafs, the Jets won their first game of the season in downing the Red Wings behind the four-hit pitching of 22-year-old Charley Douglas. Frank Verdi's two singles played an important role in driving another 22-year-old Columbus rookie, Ron Blackburn, from the mound in the second contest.

Don Hoak's Stunt Has Umpires And Writers Disagree On Which Rule To Apply On Base Runner, Kills Double

MILWAUKEE—(AP)—The baseball rule book received a thorough going over Sunday when, to the surprise of practically everyone but himself, Don Hoak of Cincinnati Redlegs fielded a batted ball while running the bases in the first inning.

He scooped up a grounder by teammate Wally Post between second and third just as clean as you please and flipped the ball back to Milwaukee Braves shortstop Johnny Logan. Logan thought he could have fielded it just as well, and perhaps even have started a double play since Gus Bell was on first at the time.

Frank Secory, second base umpire, ruled Hoak automatically out under rule 7.08f, which deals with a fair ball touching a runner in fair territory before it has touched or passed an infielder.

Post was credited with a single, Logan with the putout. Frank Dascoli, senior umpire, indicated afterwards that it was a judgment call.

Hoak's hoax set off lively discussions in the grandstand and the pressbox.

One writer suggested that rule 7.08B, which says a runner is out when he intentionally hinders a fielder attempting to make a play on a batted ball, should have applied.

The difference is that if 7.08f is invoked, the batter is credited with a hit whereas if 7.08B is called, he does not get a hit.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Redlegs said he thought Hoak was guilty of interference.

Hoak said he simply put up his hands to avoid being struck by the ball. Logan snorted at this, claiming it was deliberate on Hoak's part to break up "a double play for sure."

The Braves won 3-1.

Memorial Silver Now In Sight For Jr. Canadiens

OTTAWA — (AP) — Ottawa Canadiens, fresh from easy victory in the Eastern Canada junior hockey finals, today were on their way to Flin Flon, Man., their sights set on the Memorial Cup.

The junior Habs defeated Guelph Biltmores 6-1 Saturday night for their fourth win against one loss and one tie to win the Eastern Canada title and the Richardson Trophy.

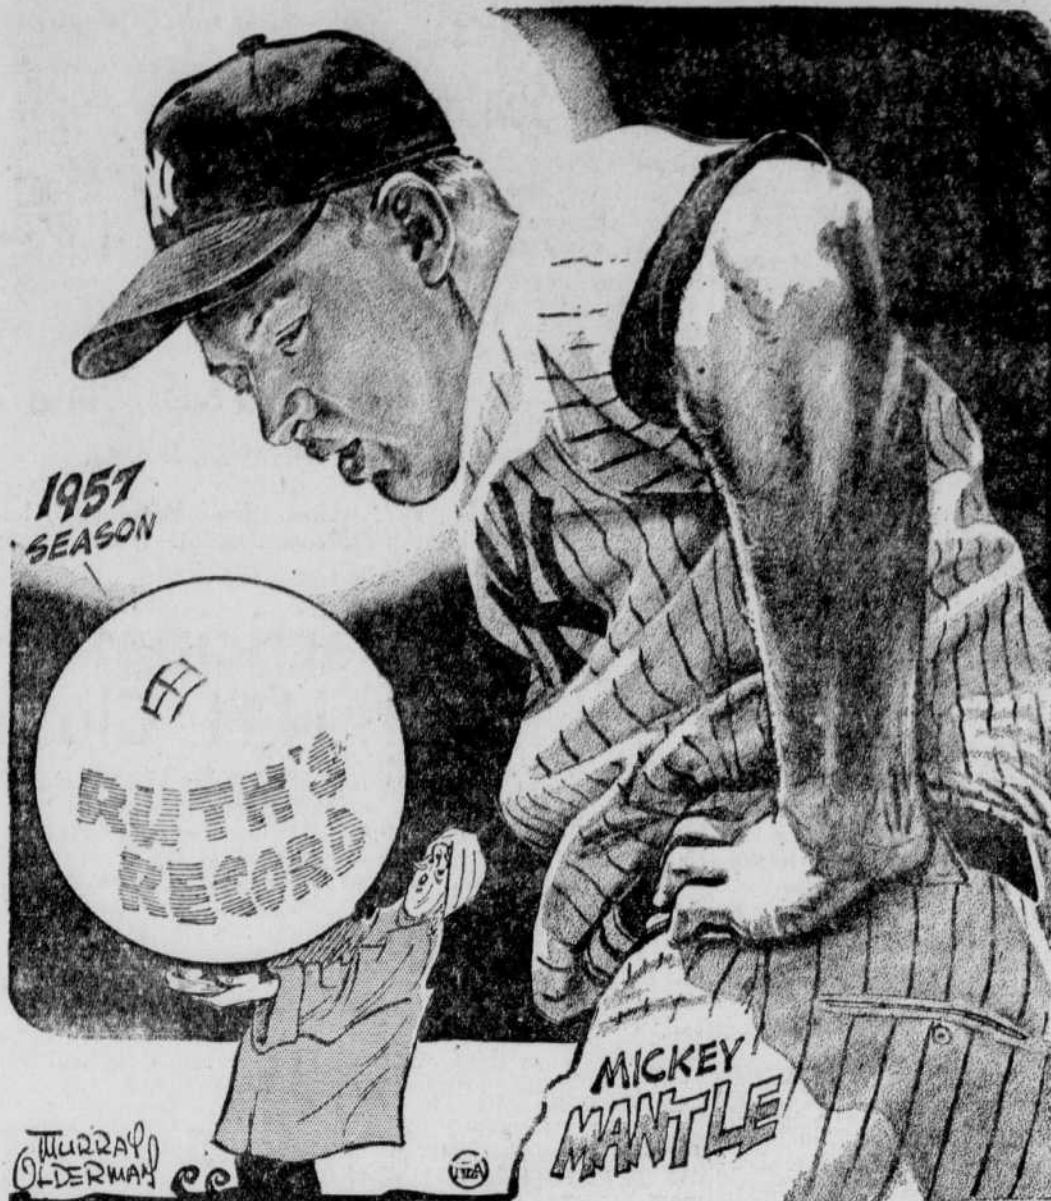

They meet Flin Flon Bombers, the western champions, Wednesday night in Flin Flon to open a best-of-seven final. All games are to be played in the west.

Some 5,000 fans saw Canadiens successfully close their first year at the Ottawa Auditorium. In recent years, championships of any sort have been rare in Ottawa and no Ottawa team ever has held the Memorial Cup.

Mrs. Fontaine Named Secretary At Local Track

Mrs. Alcide Fontaine was named secretary of the Sherbrooke Racing Club and will look after the position for the coming season. The official date for the opening has not been announced as yet but it is expected that the races will commence around the first of May.

Mrs. Fontaine is the sixth secretary at the local track. She succeeds her husband who has been named track manager and will also act as starter for the season. She has officiated at the local track for the past few seasons and the experience she acquired will service her well in her new position.

Since the track opened five years ago W. Lawson, Alcide Fontaine, Lionel Racicot and A. Cloutier have filled the position of secretary. Mrs. Fontaine has always followed the racing sport with her husband who had a stable. Two years ago Mr. Fontaine sold his horses to devote more time to his position at the track.

Oriole Catcher Revealed To Have Fractured Back

BALTIMORE — (AP) — A new examination shows that Gus Triandos, big Baltimore catcher and top RBI man for the Orioles, has a fractured vertebra in his lower back and will be sidelined for two weeks.

Triandos was injured Thursday night when Washington's Herb Pless on second base, took off for home in a single by Eddie Yost, and slid safely into home plate and Triandos on a close play.

Daily Triple Ticket Holders Clean Up Sunday

PARIS — (AP) — Holders of 50 cent tickets on the daily triple at Auteuil race track got back almost $100,000 Sunday.

It was the highest price ever paid at a French track. Winners holding numbers 20, 18 and 19—a ticket on all three cost 200 francs—got back $2,459,800 francs $92,739.89.

Reason for the huge amount was that long shot, Quimillgrey, won the big race of the day, the President of the Republic's Cup.

Majella Charest Elected President Of Sherbrooke Tennis Association; Jean De Leseleuc Named Secretary

Majella Charest, a veteran tennis player, was re-elected president of the Sherbrooke Tennis Association for the fifth consecutive term at the annual meeting held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel while Jean-Louis de Leseleuc was named secretary of the body.

Canadian-Owned Grand Canyon Cops $50,000 Southern Cross Handicap; Bold Ruler Wins Wood Memorial

NEW YORK — (AP) — Grand Canyon, owned by Toronto businessman Ken Kelman, got his first victory in 11 starts Saturday, but it was a good one — the $50,000 Southern Cross handicap at Gulfstream Park, Hallandale, Fla.

Carrying only 107 pounds, Grand Canyon ran the 1 1/4 miles in 1:50 to win in a photo finish over Mighty Chief. Flying Chief was third in a field of 12.

Grand Canyon moved up to third going into the stretch, and battled the last few strides over neck and neck with Mighty Chief before easing in front under the wire.

The dark bay was claimed by Kelman for $9,000 from the Brookmeade stable as a three-year-old in 1956. He won four races out of 23 last year to earn $21,635.

He returned $14,300, $6,900 and $4,800. Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler, ridden hard by Eddie Arcaro, lunged from behind on the final stride to win the $59,400 Wood Memorial at Jamaica track, New York, by a nose in track record time.

Gallant Man, owned by Ralph Lowe of Texas, was second and Mrs. Ethel Jacobs' Promised Land third. Mister Jive, owned by John Applebaum of Toronto,

Whitby Dunlops Now Ready For Spokane Flyers

TORONTO — (AP) — Whitby Dunlops rested on well-earned laurels today as they awaited the arrival of Spokane Flyers for the start of the Allan Cup final.

The teams open a best-of-seven series at Maple Leaf Gardens Tuesday night. All games will be played here.

Dunlops thrilled a highly-partisan crowd of 11,350 Saturday night, skating back from a one-goal deficit in the third period to defeat North Bay Trappers 7-5 and win their best-of-seven Ontario Senior A series 4-3.

Whitby manager Wren Blair says he doesn't know for sure, but an oxygen tank, set up in the third period, may have given Dunlops the needed drive.

"We just wanted to make sure it was available if they wanted it," he said. "I don't know if it helped or not."

This is the team's first year of senior A competition. They overcame arguments that they would be too weak and climbed from senior B ranks last fall.

South African Batters Record For 440 Hurdles

JOHANNESBURG — (AP) — Gert Potgieter, South African Olympic games finalist, bettered the world record of 51.3 seconds for the 440-yard hurdles Saturday with a time of 50.8 seconds at the South African Athletics Championship at Queenstown.

Potgieter was a half second faster than the existing world record set up by J. Lituyev of Russia in London, in 1954.

White Marlin Record Claimed By J. F. Baldwin

BIMINI, Bahamas — (AP) — James French Baldwin, Locust Valley, N.Y., claimed a world record Sunday for his catch of a 124 1/2-pound white marlin on 20-pound test line.

The International Game Fish Association's 1957 charts lists a 120 1/2-pounder caught off Bimini in 1953 by G. O. Wiggin of Miami, Fla., as the record.

Mauch Races Home With Winning Run On Wind-Tossed Fly Near Mound; Pirates Stop Dodgers With Home-Runs

Boston Red Sox, aided by a strong breeze in their home Fenway Park, handed New York Yankees a 5-4 defeat Sunday. It was the first defeat for the World Champion Yankees in four start of the young major league season.

Gene Mauch raced home from second base in the eighth inning on Sammy White's wind-tossed fly single near the mound. Other AL games: Baltimore pushed over two runs in the 10th inning to defeat Washington 11-9 in the first game of a double header; Detroit Tigers beat Cleveland Indians in a thrill-packed 12-inning struggle, and Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City A's 1-0 in a pitching dual that saw Sox' Jim Wilson and Kansas' Tom Morgan allow only three hits each.

In the National: Hank Sauer came in with his 251st homer when New York Giants beat Philadelphia 2-1; Pittsburgh tied a major league record with successive homers in the third inning when they defeated Brooklyn 6-3; Milwaukee Braves beat Cincinnati Redlegs 3-1, and Chicago Cubs beat St. Louis Cardinals 5-3.

Philadelphia at New York, Pittsburgh at Brooklyn and Chicago at St. Louis were double headers. At Boston with two out, White skied a popup in front of the plate which Yankee catcher Yogi Berra stepped forward to grab. When Yogi saw the ball caught by the wind he quickened his pace as relief pitcher Bob Grim stood idle off the mound and first baseman Bill Skowron, who was playing back, watched.

The ball dropped between Grim and the first base line and Mauch, 31-year-old American League rookie who was off at White's swing, crossed the unguarded plate while Yankee manager Casey Stengel stormed up and down the dugout.

League sophomore Dave Sisler, Boston's promising young right-hander who turned in a seven-hitter, had to quell a Yankee ninth inning up-rising to hold the Sox slim lead.

Boston slugger Ted Williams hit his first homer of the season in the game, his 419th in the majors. At Washington it was a wild game. Thirty-nine players, including 13 pitchers, saw action with George Zvernick getting the victory and Dick Hyde the loss. Bob Boyd cracked a pinch triple and remained in the game to add a two-run homer and a double to pace the Orioles' 13-hit attack. Roy Sievers blasted his third home run of the season, a double and a single to spark the Senators' 12-hit barrage.

At Detroit Jack Dittmer blooped a pinch single over second base in his first batting appearance of the season. The ball was hit off Cal McLish and it dropped off the end of George Strickland's glove after the Indian second baseman made a lunging try for it. The hit scored pinch runner Jim Small from third base.

At Chicago Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the 10th gave White Sox victory, their fourth straight. They now are in undisputed possession of first place in the American League.

Sauer singled in the ninth at New York after his 251st home run off Robin Roberts had given Giants their first run. Johnny Antonelli went all the way with a nine-hitter.

Vern Law, Bob Purkey and Roy Face held Dodgers to two hits at Brooklyn. Pittsburgh would have shutout the Brooks but for Carl Furillo's three-run homer in the ninth. It was Dodgers first defeat in four games.

Don Newcombe was routed in the third when Frank Thomas, Paul Smith and Dick Groat hit successive home runs, equalling a record that has been tied many times. It was Groat's first homer in two years.

At Milwaukee Del Crandall singled home two runs in the fourth and Warren Spahn settled down after a rocky start to give Braves their victory over Redlegs. The triumph gave Braves a sweep of the three-game series, four straight for the young season and undisputed possession of the NL lead.

At St. Louis Chicago fashioned its victory with consecutive two-out singles in the 11th by pinch hitter Bobby Del Greco and Casey Wise.

Robin Roberts Disagrees With His Manager On "Home Run Pitch" Is Result Of "Just Plain Carelessness"

NEW YORK (AP) — Robin Roberts doesn't agree with Mayo Smith that his numerous home run pitches are the result of "just plain carelessness," but the star Philadelphia right-hander has no desire to become involved in a wrangle with his manager.

"That home run pitch is still with me," Robbie admitted ruefully referring to the one he threw to Hank Sauer that helped New York Giants win the first game of Sunday's doubleheader from Philadelphia 2-1. The Phils took the nightcap 8-5.

Gene Littler Comes Up With Neat 69 Sunday To Win $40,000 In Tournament Of Champions For Third Straight Year

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(AP)—No one really thought Gene Littler had a chance to win the $40,000 Tournament of Champions golf extravaganza for the third straight year.

Among the skeptics was Littler himself, as he candidly admitted.

But today the 26-year-old professional from San Diego, Calif., headed for Louisville and the Kentucky Derby tournament richer by the $10,000 first prize.

Littler led off with mild rounds of 73-73, took the lead in the third round with a 69 and Sunday his 70 for 285, three under par for 72 holes, hit the target.

Gene's 1957 conquest of the Desert Inn Country Club course, a 7,102-yard, par 36-72 test, was close in the final phases.

But he finished with a three-stroke edge over his nearest four competitors—Jimmy Demaret, Dow Finsterwald, Bill Casper, Jr. and Billy Maxwell, who closed with his second straight 69.

The $10,000 prize was not all of the money involved for Littler. Singer Frankie Laine for the third year "bought" Littler in the legal Calcutta pool. The net money won by Laine was $93,634 out of a total pool of $239,085.

Laine gives Littler 10 per cent of his winnings, as it customary in most Calcutta auctions.

Laine bought Gene for $15,500 in this auction. All told, he has invested $45,000 in Littler and has won a net $192,654, before taxes.

The four pros tied for second place each picked up $2,230.

Mighty Manchester United Blanks Sunderland To Win Second Straight English Soccer League Championship

LONDON.—(CP)—Mighty Manchester United won its second straight English Soccer League championship Saturday in the first step toward its bid for a triple soccer crown.

United crushed Sunderland 4-0 to sew up the First Division title. The team will play Aston Villa in the final of the English Cup May 4. Thursday it tackles Real Madrid in the second leg of the European Cup semi-finals.

Second-place Preston North End was held to a scoreless tie by Blackpool and knocked out of the running for top place. Manchester's win raises its point total of 59 from 39 matches with three games left to play. Even if Preston wins its two remaining games it cannot catch up to the league leaders.

Leeds centre forward John Charles, sold to an Italian club Friday for a reported transfer fee of 55,000, scored his team's only goals as Leeds went down 6-2 at the hands of Birmingham City.

Tottenham Hotspur defeated Cardiff City 3-0. The Spurs, with two matches to play, are two points behind Preston. Cardiff is second from the bottom and appears doomed for relegation to the Second Division along with Charlton. The last two clubs are dropped to the Second Division.

Arsenal downed Charlton 3-1 and moved into fifth place. Portsmouth was a 1-0 winner over Wolverhampton.

In the final for the Scottish Football Association Cup Falkirk and Kilmarnock tied 1-1.

In the Scottish First Division Hearts dumped Queen of the South 2-0 to take a two-point lead for the league leadership. Rangers, in second place, were idle Saturday.

Jimmy Larente, Who Won Driving Title At Saratoga Raceway Last Year, Has Nominated 73 Entries For Summer Meet

SARATOGA SPRINGS — Jimmy Larente, who won the fall meet driving championship the last time he raced at Saratoga Raceway in 1954, plans to return here for this year's Spa autumn session.

The young Canadian reinsman who will be 26 in May has made 73 nominations on 16 horses for the Sept. 5, Oct. 12 meeting.

The Larente Stable nominations are among 1,777 Racing Secretary Hap Haswell reports for 51 fall early-closing events.

Among horses named for events of the meet are the two-year-old pacing filly, Ruth Ann Rodney, a training sensation at Orlando, Fla., this year; Brooke Dillard, last year's leading aged pacer of the Spa Raceway season from the Bob Sewell Stable of Franklin, Mass., and the pacer, Convoir, owned by Harry Hirsch of Sydney, Nova Scotia, that accounted for the fastest victory of last year's fall meet here with a mile in 2:04 1/5.

Ruth Ann Rodney recently became a charge of Driving Star Billy Haughton, formerly of Fultonville, when she was purchased by Pine Acre Farm of Garden City and Walnut Hall Stud of Donerail, Ky.

Roughly 75 percent of the fall entries are from stables already slated for racing at the Raceway summer meet, which opens June 6 and continues through Aug. 24.

The 15 largest nominators for 96 summer early-closing events all are represented on the fall list and so is the William and Jack Herbert Stable of London, Ont., a newcomer to the Spa this year.

The total entry for fall events has shown little fluctuation here on the last four years. The count was 1,782 for 51 events last year, 1,785 for 54 in 1955 and 1,786, a meet high, for 47 in 1954.

Doug Ford, Master's Champion And Top Money To Date, Has Forwarded His Name For Famous Labatt Open

Master's Champion and top money winner to date this season, Doug Ford will be back to Montreal, July 47 for another crack at the Labatt Open which has been worth $9,505 to him in the past four seasons.

Winner of the first Labatt Trophy and tied in second place the next tournament, Ford has taken substantially more money from Canada's top golf event than any other player. In 1955 he earned $1,633 in a three-way split of third place with Sam Snead and Porky Oliver. Last year he was out of the top winners but still collected $432 for a share of the 15th place.

A down-to-business golfer, Ford shied away from the presentation platform and has his family and trailer on the road for the next tournament within an hour of completing the 1954 Labatt Open. Tournament officials concerned about Ford's trophy replica, which was missing from the presentation stand, found later he had simply recovered it from the table before the presentation.

Following the Master's victory over Sam Snead, the Mahopac, N.Y. golfer wrote Ken Murray, Labatt Open tournament manager to assure he would be at Islesmere Club when the $29,000 event opens in July. He will meet the same tough field of top Canadian and U.S. play-for-play golfers judging by early commitments for the 1957 tournament.

Ken Murray has already received some early commitments including Ed Furgol, former U.S. Open winner and Art Wall Jr. Furgol has taken only a small share of one Labatt purse; Art Wall has won a share of the purse in three of the past tournaments. Tommy Bolt, who has earned nearly $4,000 in past Labatt events expects to be back again if he is on the circuit at all in July, he advised Murray.

Government To Restock Oyster Beds This Year

SHEPPEGAN, N.B.—(P)—Federal fisheries officials are planning to restock disease-stricken oyster beds with 3,000 barrels of young oysters within a three-year period starting in late May or early June.

H. R. Found, of the biological station at Ellerslie, P.E.I., said the disease was the same as one that hit Prince Edward Island waters several years ago. About 90 per cent of oysters in the affected areas died while the remainder appeared immune.

About 1,000 barrels of young oysters will be distributed among fishermen of this district and private beds will be closed for five years to enable replenishment of supplies. Public beds, also to be restocked, will be closed for 10 years.

Whitby Dunlops Down North Bay To Win Eastern Canada Senior Hockey Crown; To Meet Seattle

TORONTO.—(P)—Right Winger Tom O'Connor scored with less than three minutes remaining to give Whitby Dunlops a 7-5 victory over North Bay Trappers in the deciding game of the Eastern Canada senior hockey final Saturday night.

Dunlops, who won the best-of-seven series 4-3, thus earned the right to meet Spokane Flyers in the Allan Cup final. That best-of-seven series begins here Tuesday with other dates to be decided later.

O'Connor's goal climaxed a sea-saw affair which saw Dunlops grab a 3-1 lead in the first period and hang on to a 3-2 lead after the second. Trappers went ahead

4-3 early in the third with a pair of goals two seconds apart and then Whitby took a 5-4 lead only to have North Bay bounce back to tie the score 5-5.

O'Connor scored two goals for the winners. Bus Gagnon, Gord Myles, Fred Etcher, Doug Williams and Ted O'Connor scored one each. George Gosselin scored a pair for Trappers. Don Hogan, Ches Koneczny and Chuck Scherza were the other North Bay scorers.

North Bay removed goalie Dennis Brodeur with 90 seconds left to play but the strategy backfired when Etcher fired a shot from centre ice into the empty net.

Queen's Doutele Cops Trail Stakes; Third Straight Time To Win Event

LONDON.—(P)—The Queen got a birthday present Saturday at the Kempton Park races. Her horse Doutele won the two thousand guineas $5,880 Trial Stakes, coming from behind in the stretch to win by 1 1/2 lengths.

The Queen, who will celebrate her 31st birthday today at Windsor Castle, jumped up and down in excitement as Doutele put on a burst of speed in the final stages.

She threw down the binoculars with which she had been following the race, laughed, then with the race over, went down to the paddock to congratulate her trainer, Capt. Cecil Boyd-Rochfort.

"Well done, Cecil! This must be our race," she said.

She was referring to the fact she has won this same opening day race of the Kempton Park meet for the last two years—with High Veldt in 1956 and with Alexander in 1955.

Phony Telegram Fails To Halt Dan Kaiser

ST. LOUIS (P)—"Phone home immediately. Mother desperately ill. Dad."

That's what Don Kaiser read in a telegram he received from Brooklyn shortly before he took the mound Sunday against St. Louis Cardinals.

If it was sent to unnerve the young right-hander of the Chicago Cubs it didn't. He pitched eight innings of solid baseball before he gave way to a reliever. Kaiser's mother died last year.

QUEBEC — (P)—Quebec Aces struck three times in the middle period Sunday to down Chicoutimi Saguenee 3-1 and take a 3-2 lead in their Quebec Hockey League best-of-seven final playoff series.

Jacques Locas gave the Saguenee a short-lived 1-0 lead late in the first period but the Aces roared back with a pair of goals by Marcel Bonin and one by Bob Beckett to take the victory.

Next game will be played in Chicoutimi Tuesday. Winner of the series meets the Western Hockey League representative in a best-of-seven set for the Edinburgh Trophy.

Hap Day May Accept Post Of AHL Prexy

TORONTO — (P)—Clarence (Hap) Day, retired general manager of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, said Saturday he has been approached unofficially to become president of the American Hockey League.

He said he has not made up his mind whether or not to accept.

"I have talked to three of the AHL governors regarding the position as league president," Day said. "However, until I hear something definite I have no idea whether or not I would take the post."

Day said he has received several other offers connected with hockey and added "I am also considering things outside of hockey."

He declined to elaborate on any of the offers.

The AHL president now is John Chick of Windsor, Ont.

Finishes 1,000 Yards Ahead Of Veikko Karvonen, Who Won Last Year; Canada's Dickson Seventh

BOSTON — (P)—The men who fight themselves have a new champion, John Kelley, a school teacher.

Kelley, paying no attention to an aching foot, won the Boston Marathon Saturday with a powerful stride that showed there is a big heart in his 128-pound frame. Kelley was second last year.

Marathoners — there were 140 in the race from several countries — were unanimous in saying that a runner's worst enemy in the race is himself. He must control his pace and not panic, disregarding the performance of other runners.

Kelley, 25, the first American winner since 1945, was all alone at the end — 1,000 yards ahead of the race's powerful Veikko Karvonen, who won the race in 1954.

Canada's Gordon Dickson, 25, also a teacher, ran seventh, where he placed last year. The 120-pound native of Claresholm, Alta., now teaches at Hamilton, Ont.

Sidney Smith of Hamilton, a native of Manchester, England, finished 52nd while Roland Bouffard, Montreal, a veteran marathoner, was 62nd. Paul Belliveau, Toronto, and Jean-Louis Guignard, Cap de la Madeleine, Que., dropped out.

Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe, Que., a four-time winner, won his fourth BAA in 1945 — the last North American winner before Kelley.

Korea's Ching Woo Lim was third Saturday and Finland's Olavi Manninen fourth. Soong Chil Ham of Korea was fifth, after holding third place over the tough hills toward the end of the race, and Japan's Keizo Yamada, the 1953 winner, was sixth.

Nine runners made up the leading "pack" that held a fantastic pace for the whole race. The runners did not jog, but appeared to be going all out nearly all the time.

Kelley's time was two hours, 20 minutes and five seconds. The record of two hours, 14 minutes and 14 seconds was established last year by Finland's Antti Viskari.

But Kelley's time still was a record officially, since after 60 runnings of the Boston classic it was recently found that the course was short of regulation length. Saturday's race was 1,187 yards longer than previous contests.

The leaders took three minutes, 43 seconds to cover the extra distance, meaning that they were still short in the over-all timing as compared with Viskari, who ran on a cooler day. Saturday's temperatures ranged over 70 degrees and runners complained of the heat on the blistering pavement.

Oddly enough, the last American winner was also a John Kelley, who won the marathon twice and ran 13th Saturday at the age of 49. The latest winner is called Johnny the Younger, while the star of yesteryear is called the Elder by New Englanders.

Harvey Hansen Named Head Of Detroit Tigers

DETROIT — (P)—Harvey R. Hansen Friday was elected president of the Detroit Baseball Company, succeeding Fred A. Knorr who was elevated to a new position of vice-chairman of the board of directors.

The announcement of the front office change was made after a meeting of the board of directors.

"Fred Knorr has accomplished the job of reorganization which we asked him to undertake last October," said board chairman John E. Fetzer, "and now needs more time to devote to his business."

Hansen, 61, was one of the 11 men who joined in the syndicate that paid a record $5,500,000 for the Tiger's last summer. Knorr nominated him for the president's post.

Hansen said the entire field operation will remain in the hands of general manager Spike Briggs and personnel director John McHale. The Tigers said the change will mean no alterations in club policy.

The large audience was welcomed by J. Edward Perry, principal of Knowlton High School, who also spoke words of appreciation to Mr. Messier and his band. Mr. Messier, in replying, thanked the local band for the hospitality shown them and said he hoped that Knowlton realized how fortunate it was in having such a fine musical director in the person of Mr. Harry Long.

The excellent program included solo and chorus numbers by both bands and an exciting drill by the St. Johnsbury majorettes. At the conclusion of the evening, the musicians were served lunch in the Cafeteria.

How to KEEP FIT after 50

In the old days fifty seemed the signal to slow down—take things easy—watch your diet—get more rest. It's still good advice. But these days you can face fifty with many interesting and active years ahead—active, that is, if you can avoid backache and the "fired-out" feeling, due to kidney and bladder disorders, that often develop around that age. For more than 60 years Dodd's Kidney Pills have been helping men and women of all ages to keep kidneys and bladder in good order, helping them to feel better, to work better, and get more fun out of life. If you are approaching fifty, or past it, Dodd's Kidney Pills may help you, too. You can depend on Dodd's. 54
