THREE UNMASKED GUNMEN STAGED BANK HOLD-UP AT ST. FERDINAND

Sum of Seven Thousand Dollars Taken by Trio Who Used Car Stolen from Sherbrooke—Manager and Teller in Bank Alone at Time—Attempt to Lock Staff in Vault Frustrated When Combination Failed to Work.

S t. Ferdinand d' Halifax, August 10.—Three armed robbers held up the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce shortly before noon today and escaped with a sum estimated by the manager, J. E. Robson, at $7,000. The hold robbery occurred while the manager and his teller, W. M. Bournival, were alone in the bank. Before the alarm could be raised the bandits had escaped in an automobile stolen in Sherbrooke yesterday morning.

There were no customers transacting business in the building when the trio entered with drawn revolvers. They warned Robson and Bournival to remain silent while they scooped what money lay in the till. Not satisfied with this haul, they forced Robson to open the safe from where additional sums were taken.

The unmasked hold-up men then warned the two bank employees not to give the alarm before five minutes had elapsed. They gave this warning after they had made an unsuccessful attempt to lock the pair in the vault. The door would not close properly, the combination being turned off, and the robbers found it necessary to take a chance on escaping without immediate detection.

However, they had not counted on the presence of mind of Manager Robson. No sooner had the fleeing bandits closed the bank door behind them than Robson rushed into his office, smashed a pane of glass and shouted "Robbers." Raymond Frchette, who was in the vicinity, caught the license numbers and communicated his information to the authorities. Robson fired two shots in the air from a shotgun lying in his office in a vain attempt to arouse the attention of passers-by.

The gunmen had taken the precaution to relieve Robson and Bournival of their revolvers before heading a hasty retreat. Driving at a reckless speed the bandits sped along the main highway until they reached Ste. Sophie—eight miles from here. They were not fast enough, however, to escape Frchette's attention. He got a good glimpse of the license plates which bore the numbers H-22528. The car was later identified as the machine stolen from John Wolfe, of Sherbrooke, yesterday morning. The automobile is a LaSalle five-passenger sedan painted grey.

Police authorities in the vicinity were immediately notified and the Provincial Police were later alerted. This afternoon a police drag net was being spread across this section of the Eastern Townships as the authorities worked feverishly to apprehend the marauders.

St. Ferdinand d' Halifax is a little town of seven hundred souls situated about thirteen miles from both Black Lake and Plessisville and twenty-five miles from Sherbrooke. Today's hold-up is the most serious committed in the Eastern Townships during the past several years and constituted the biggest haul obtained in this district for some time. Last year attempts were made to hold up banks in Lennoxville and Granby, but the bandits failed to realize much for their pains.

Rome, Aug. 10.—The Danubian Treaty of non-interference, part of the Franco-Italian plan for the consolidation of European peace, today was reported ready for submission to the interested European and Balkan nations, though interest in the pact has diminished in the face of the threatened warfare in Ethiopia.

The pact, according to authoritative sources, contains the following articles of agreement:

- 1.—To maintain relations of mutual trust.
- 2.—To a common policy of non-aggression.
- 3.—To abstain from interference in the internal affairs of the signatory states and from all forms of political propaganda.
- 4.—To consult each other in case of a violation of the pact and not to give aid or comfort to the aggressor.
- 5.—To conform with the League of Nations covenant in settlement through the League of all disputes.

Countries include Hungary, Poland, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia. Germany will be asked to sign, but it is confidently believed the Reich will decline.

Miss Hertz' auditor in a Market street court, recently became the bride of James E. Hayes.

PRECEDENT NOTED FOR PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF ETHIOPIAN CRISIS

Willingness of Ethiopian Emperor to Accept Economic Aid May Result in League Council Naming Italy as Agent for Economic Development of Ethiopia—Past Assistance Rendered to Austria, Hungary and Bulgaria Forms Background for Possible Action.

Geneva, Aug. 10.—A precedent for a peaceful basis of peaceful settlement of the Italian-Ethiopian dispute was seen today in League of Nations circles in the League's past financial and economic assistance to Austria, Hungary and Bulgaria.

The suggestion, growing out of a statement attributed to Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia that he would accept economic help, was made as the League convoked the eighty-eighth session of its Council for September 4th with the Italo-Ethiopian problem foremost on its agenda.

It was remarked in some circles that the League might appoint a neutral commissioner as it did in the case of Hungary when the late Jeremiah Smith of Cambridge, Mass., was named. Smith has been succeeded by Royal Tyler of Boston.

Italy, it was said further, might be designated to carry out the economic development of Ethiopia as an agent of the League of Nations.

DENY ISLAND IS TURNED INTO CONVALESCENT CAMP

Rome, Aug. 10.—The Italian Government, kept busy denying reports arising from its African preparations, today denied reports from Athens that the Island of Rhodes had been turned into a hospital camp for soldiers returning from the East African colonies with tropical illnesses.

ETHIOPIA PLANS TO PLACE SEVEN ARMIES IN SERVICE

London, Aug. 10.—Reuter's British News Agency says today that Ethiopia already has armed a quarter of a million troops and laid plans to put seven armies totalling 600,000 men in the field in the event of a conflict with Italy.

Six divisional commanders have already been named to lead the troops in battle, one of them being Crown Prince Asfa Wusien.

The Ethiopians' war stocks are estimated at between 300,000 and 1,000,000 rifles, two hundred cannon, some of them made in 1860, between 350 and 400 machine guns and the same number of automatic rifles. They have eight airplanes, six of them in flying condition.

MALODOROUS CATS JOIN IN DEFENDING ETHIOPIA

Addis Ababa, Aug. 10.—The Ethiopian Ministry of Commerce not only ordered a speeding up in culture of the malodorous Civet Cat, which smells just as bad as the Canadian skunk and grows three times bigger, but tribesmen were reported laying plans to harass the men of It Duce by posting the animals at the water wells that might be used by the invaders, if invasion comes.

Civet culture is a major industry in Ethiopia, for the big cat gives off a secretion that is indispensable to perfume manufacturers, of all people.

TYROLESE TROOPS EXEMPT FROM SERVICE IN AFRICA

Innsbruck, Austria, August 10.—Reports in authoritative quarters of the Austrian Fatherland Front said today that South Tyrolians who have been called for duty in the Italian army are being given an opportunity to serve in Italy rather than go to Ethiopia.

Dictatorship for France if Decrees Fail

Premier Laval Warns Departmental Prefects that Economy Laws Are Only Method of Preventing Confusion and Re-sultant Dictatorship.

Paris, August 10.—Premier Pierre Laval today gave warning that a dictatorship of France was not unlikely if present measures fail in the enforcement of his recovery decrees, which have already caused disorder and bloodshed.

The fate of the regime and the life of the country are at stake, he told a gathering of all but one of France's eighty-six prefects. Lacking dictatorial powers himself, the Premier made the provincial governors share the responsibility of preventing the "dramatic situation."

Reinforcements of one thousand mobile guards were sent to Toulon to guard against a recurrence of last night's rioting when four were killed and from fifty to two hundred injured. Other points appeared to have settled down to normal work.

It is the government's intention to use persuasion rather than force to carry out its recovery programme, official utterances indicated. The "real workers" were exonerated from all blame for the outbreaks in numerous statements by officials, while Laval asked the country's confidence in decrees designed to revivify, reduce the cost of living and stimulate employment.

Whether the decrees will succeed is problematical, say even moderate commentators, because of their unpopularity, but they are generally termed the "first real effort to combat the depression in France."

The Premier summoned the prefects to organize them in the campaign to see that living costs are reduced in line with the wage cuts. A committee was appointed to set the tariffs, much in the manner of Great Britain.

BRITISH BANK GOVERNOR HOLIDAYING IN DOMINION

Sir Montagu Norman, Noted for Shyness at Interviews, Issued Brief Formal Statement on Arrival at Montreal.

The interview statement follows in full: "I am on my way to Ottawa. I never give any interviews because whenever I did in the past I always got myself into trouble."

The Bank of England Governor and his wife were met at the airport by Graham F. Towers, Governor of the Bank of Canada, and Mrs. Towers, who motored back to Ottawa shortly after the meeting.

It has been announced that Mr. Norman is in Canada on a holiday.

REICH ANTI-JEWISH CAMPAIGN TO BE CARRIED INTO GERMAN CAPITAL

Julius Streicher, Nazi's Most Uncompromising Foe of Jews, to Be Welcomed by Sell-Out Audience at Opening of Berlin Campaign—Anti-Semitic Outbreaks in Northern Austria Again Menace Relations Between Germany and Austria.

Berlin, August 10.—Julius Streicher, the Nazi's most uncompromising foe of the Jews, will carry his anti-Semitic drive into Berlin on Thursday to be welcomed by a sell-out crowd in the city's largest assembly hall, it was learned today, as further reports of religious strife were reported throughout the Reich.

Following an address in the Sports Palace, Berlin's largest auditorium, the fiery Streicher will speak to an overflow meeting in the Jewish section of the city.

In the current issue of his newspaper Streicher reveals, in a semi-official way, why Richard Strauss resigned as head of the Reich's musical chamber last July 13th. At the time Strauss, who is seventy-one years old, said he was retiring because of advanced age.

Der Stuermer stated the resignation was forced because Strauss employed Stefan Zweig, a Jew, to write the libretto of "The Silent Woman," played at Dresden on June 24th, and also because Strauss' son married a Jewess.

Reports of anti-Jewish demonstrations in Upper Silesia continue to

FATAL AUTO SMASH BRINGS ABOUT A RECONCILIATION

Husband of Baroness Maud Von Thyssen Has Dropped Divorce Suit and Has Been in Constant Attendance at Wife's Bedside.

Gerona, Spain, August 10.—The automobile smashup that resulted in the death of Prince Alexis Mdivani and serious injuries to Baroness Maud Von Thyssen has resulted in a reconciliation between her and her husband, it was learned today.

Physicians attending the Baroness said she would recover from injuries and may not even lose the sight of her injured eye, though this is uncertain.

Her husband, who was reported nursing Prince Alexis at a convalescent in a divorce action, has dropped the suit and has been in constant attendance at his wife's bedside.

He is not on friendly terms with the family of Prince Mdivani's sister, Mme. Jose Maria Sert, whom the pair were visiting at the time of the accident. He refused to permit Mme. Sert or her husband to visit his wife in the hospital here.

DISCOVER BODY OF C. BLAMPIN IN BROME LAKE

Holiday Fisherman This Morning Found Body of Man Missing Since Last Saturday—Remains Taken to Granby.

Foster, August 10.—Brome Lake yielded up another of its secrets this morning when the body of Cecil Blampin, aged thirty-six years, of Granby, who has been missing since last Saturday, was discovered by a holiday resident on a trolling trip.

Mr. Hassell, of Montreal, who is spending his holidays near the lake with Sidney Tryhorn, left about five o'clock this morning on a fishing expedition. When about a hundred feet from "Rock Island," where Blampin's overturned canoe was found last Tuesday, he noticed an object resembling a human form a short distance below the surface of the water. On investigating closed he saw that it was the body of a man. Without attempting to recover the body, he rushed back to the Tryhorn home and notified the authorities at Granby.

Officials were immediately dispatched to the scene and recovered the body, removing it to Granby for an inquest and interment.

Blampin, who had recently resigned his position in St. John's office to re-organizing headquarters, was spending the summer at Brome Lake with a friend, John Steffen. Steffen spent the weekend in Montreal and on his return on Monday evening found his companion missing.

Notifying relatives, he conducted a search and found Blampin's overturned canoe half-submerged near "Rock Island." Drizzling operations failed to give any clue to the missing man until the discovery of his body this morning.

It is presumed Blampin was stricken with a heart attack while out fishing and fell out of the canoe.

If the answer is negative, Henderson likely will send his resignation to the League Council, it was reported.

Almost a score of fires were reported throughout the province yesterday.

RELIEF MARCHERS FAIL TO PLACE SUGGESTIONS BEFORE GOVERNMENT

Prime Minister Bennett Rejects Demands of Ontario Trekkers' Delegation for Food and Shelter While Marchers Prepare Programme—Declares Sole Object of March Is to Embarrass Governments—Marcher Levels Wild Charges at Premier During Brief Interview.

Ottawa, August 10.—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett today refused to provide food or shelter for the Ontario relief trekkers and was roundly denounced by one member of a delegation of ten trekkers which visited him in his office.

The interview lasted only a few minutes. Spokesman for the trekkers was Ewart Humphries of Toronto who said the meeting had been arranged too soon. The trekkers had not had time to confer and the delegation had no authority to discuss with the Government the seven-point programme of the trek. The only request it had to make was for food and shelter in Ottawa.

Roger Poirier, of Montreal, then launched into a long speech. He told Mr. Bennett that he was the worker who had put him where he was, who had made his money for him and it was not fair that he should "live in a castle" while they starved. All the trekkers wanted was work and wages. They were not Communists.

He said, "I am a worker, a worker who has a wife and children, a worker who has a life camp and I won't be a slave any more. I won't go back. You may want our blood for the next war. Maybe you'll get it and maybe you won't but give us a break and you can have it all."

At another stage Poirier said Mr. Bennett was a liar. He said he had been shot at and missed by Mr. Bennett's police at Regina. Mr. Bennett had deliberately sent the police to kill and maim the workers at Regina. They had used tear gas, machine guns and clubs.

"Why do you want to keep the workers down?" he asked. "There is a man who once sat in your chair. He pointed to a picture of Sir John A. Macdonald apparently under the impression it was Sir Wilfrid Laurier. 'He was a French-Canadian and he was a man. You are not a man Mr. Bennett. I am a French-Canadian. My name is Roger Poirier if anyone wants to know it.'"

Mr. Bennett asked Poirier when he left Vancouver and he said about three months ago.

"When did you leave Regina?" asked Mr. Bennett.

"About six weeks ago."

"Did you come east on a ticket?"

"Yes."

"Why did they give you a ticket?"

"The trek committee gave it to me because I wanted to get back to my own province, to Montreal. It was a ticket to Toronto and I said I could get the rest of the way myself."

"When did you leave Montreal?"

"About six months ago." He went to Vancouver from Montreal. Poirier explained he had ridden freight trains to Vancouver. He said he had been fired from the camp at Kingston, Ont., because he refused to work in the kitchen. The kitchen staff were working seven and a half hours a day for twenty cents and the office staff, he said, sat around all day playing bridge and eating ice cream and chocolate bars out of the canteen. Then the officials decided to take three men off the kitchen staff and make the others work longer hours. He had refused and because he had joined the trekkers he had been refused money that was coming to him from the camp.

"What did you have for breakfast today?" he asked the Prime Minister.

"Do you want to know what I had? Two pieces of dry bread and a cup of tea. Two pieces of bread and a cup of tea for a free man in a free Dominion. Do you call that right?"

Poirier said he wanted to show Mr. Bennett the letters on his feet he collected yesterday: Maximum, 87; minimum, 50.

Same day last year: Maximum, 78; minimum, 60.

NATURE ASSISTS MAN IN EFFORTS TO RAISE AGRICULTURAL PRICES

Packers Pay Over Twelve Dollars for Hogs, Highest Price in Years, at Chicago as Result of Shortage Caused by Excessive Drought of Last Year and A.A.A. Restriction Programme—Part of Stock Yards Closed Owing to Lack of Deliveries—Sharp Reduction in Wheat Crop Reported.

Chicago, August 10.—Nature's excessive co-operation with a man-made plan for price raising was cited by meat authorities today to account for the present position of pork in the food list.

While housewives dug deeper into their purses, half of the hog pens in the world's greatest swine market here closed because the traffic in porkers was at the lowest ebb in the fifty-seven years for which records are available.

It was reportedly the first time part of the facilities was closed because of a paucity of the receipts.

Pork prices have lifted the levels reminiscent of the "boom" era. Retail purchasers paid in some instances four times as much for pork chops as a year ago. Packers paid above $12 for pork, the first time in years hogs had hit the $12 mark.

These causes was attributed to:

- 1.—The 1934 drought during which farmers got rid of their hogs as quickly as possible to avoid losing them from heat, thirst and starvation.
- 2.—The Agricultural Adjustment Act which provided for the destruction of six million piggy sows or grown sows which would have been on the market this year. In addition, uncounted prospective litters were destroyed.

RADICAL CHANGE NOTED IN GRAIN CROP OUTLOOK

Washington, Aug. 10.—Reporting "radical change" in crop conditions during the last thirty days, the United States Agriculture Department estimates that since July 1st, the corn crop had increased by 228,000,000 bushels while wheat decreased 124,000,000.

The August 1st crop estimates placed the total 1935 wheat crop at 607,878,000 bushels, compared with 731,000,000 bushels forecast on July 1st. George E. Farrell, director of the A.A.A. division of grains, said "There is still plenty of wheat."

Mr. Farrell said the reduction in the wheat crop would have no effect on the fifteen per cent acreage reduction to be required next year. Neither, he said, will the report affect the new four-year wheat adjustment contracts.

Black rust, hot weather and drought were named responsible for the reduction of 97,031,000 bushels in the spring wheat crop.

On July 1st the Department forecast a spring wheat crop of 273,000,000 bushels but said some fields that "looked promising" in June are now a complete failure.

Winter wheat was said to be threshing out "substantially below earlier expectations." The estimate was for 431,709,000 bushels, compared with 458,000,000 on July 1st.

"Corn, which was so late that the farmers were afraid it might be caught by an early frost, grew vigorously during July and is now expected to produce a yield nearly equal to the average during the last ten years," the Department said.

The corn estimate was 2,472,147,000 bushels, compared with July 1st estimate of 2,045,000,000 bushels. The wheat carryover at present was said to be about 165,000,000 bushels and domestic consumption about 625,000,000 bushels annually.

FRANCE PLANS TO START WORK ON PLANE BASE

Proposed Port at Le Havre Will Be Used as Base for Canada-to-France Seaplane Service.

Paris, Aug. 10.—Construction of a seaplane base for the long proposed French seaplane service over the North Atlantic to Canada and the United States is among the projects included in the new public works programme, part of the huge recovery plan of the French Government.

Laurent Eynac, Minister of Public Works, made the announcement today, adding that every department in the entire programme will be benefited by the new seaplane base.

The seaplane base will be in the harbor of Le Havre where a large breakwater will be built to provide a safe landing ramp for large flying boats similar to those used so successfully on the France-South American service. Hangars and repair shops also are to be built.

The tourist traffic and industry generally will benefit, he said, from the organization of a great highway system uniting Paris with all the frontiers of France. Paris this will be connected with Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and the Channel ports by improved traffic arteries based on existing roads.

Credits already provided assure that dangerous grade crossings all will be eliminated within five years, the Minister said.

"The aid we are bringing to general activity in a difficult moment," he concluded, "will permit the country, we may hope, to defend itself against the crisis and keep up its confidence."

"Do you see it will give to France the certainty that the Government does not intend to neglect any means of restoring the economic balance."

London, Aug. 10.—Sir Frederick and Lady Leith Ross, now en route to the Far East, will spend two days or so in Toronto with their relatives there.

MEDIUM GOLDS AGAIN FEATURE OF EXCHANGES

Canadian Industrial Markets Failed to Follow New York in Advance to High Point for Present Year.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—Canadian markets did better this week, though in comparison with the New York Advance to a new peak for the year their rise was moderate.

Lively action was confined to the liquor stocks, giving a one-third advance to the industrial share trading. Gains outside this group were limited to fractions—most of them small fractions and along with the gains were almost as many losses.

Traders who have been sticking to the mining market through its period of summer stagnation and missing the good things on the "big board" were comforted this week to find an expansion of volume accompanying price advances in the medium-price group of gold shares.

Gains in these issues were not uniform, the issues moving by turns, somewhat erratically in a manner suggesting sales covering with the inevitable reactions following.

The end of the week, however, finds most of them holding part of their gains. Little Long Lac is up nineteen cents, Pickle Rock twenty-four cents, McWatters seventeen cents, Macassa and Sylvanite five cents each and Central Patricia two cents.

The Toronto Exchange index for industrial stocks closed yesterday at 110.12 against 108.86 a week ago. Distillery stocks along with Ford A, International Nickel and Imperial Oil were mainly responsible for the advance.

Heavy buying for New York account has been reported in Distillers Corporation-Scargans and this issue registered a net gain of $3.25 this week. Walkers common had a net advance of $2.62, while Canadian Industrial Alcohol A advanced fifty cents.

Cockshutt Plov was one of the best of the implement stocks while Utility, food and steel shares remained steady and slow. Bank issues were featured by a loss of $4 to $54 for Bank of Canada.

JAPAN SEEKING DOMINANCE OF AUTO INDUSTRY

Legislation to Be Introduced Calls for Japanese Stock Control of United States Firms with Manufacturing Plants in Orient.

Tokyo, Aug. 10.—The Japanese moved yesterday to secure control of the automobile industry in this country, dominated by United States firms. Its importance to national defense was stressed by War Minister Senjuro Hayashi who urged the action.

The cabinet's draft of an automotive industry control law will be presented to Parliament early next year. The General Motors and Ford plants in the past five years have turned out approximately eighty per cent of the automobiles sold in Japan, some 10,000 apiece each year.

Under the cabinet proposal companies must be licensed and subjected to Government control, with a majority of the stock owned by Japan.

TRAIN WRECKED IN RENEWAL OF MINE TROUBLE

Three Members of Train Crew Injured, Two Seriously in Dismantling of Illinois Central Freight Train.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 10.—Three men were injured, two seriously, when an Illinois Central freight train was derailed three miles south of here early today.

The blast derailed the locomotive and ten of the 110 empty cars the engine was pulling. The right-of-way was torn up, temporarily disrupting traffic.

Investigation officials said they believed the tangled affairs of the Illinois coal miners' dispute was behind the derailling. Members of the United Mine Workers of America and the Progress Miners Organization have been at "war" for several years.

Police and railroad authorities said they presumed the blast was intended for the nightly train Chicago bound with a load of coal.

The injured were Wesley Westbrook, conductor, and Ira Fitzgerald, fireman, both seriously hurt, and W. H. Hoff, engineer. All reside at Clinton. They were brought to a hospital here.

The bombing was the first of its kind in three months. Chicago and Illinois Midland trains have been most frequent targets in the war.

At one stage Mr. Bennett told Poirier he would put him out. The trekker shouted, "Go ahead. Put me out. Call the police. It won't be the first time I have been put out."

He continued his speech, however, a slightly calmer tone. In answer to Humphries demand for food and shelter and his claim the trekkers were not ready to discuss the seven-point programme Mrs. Bennett said:

"You were all aware before you started the trek that your seven-point programme had been submitted to the Government by successive delegations and had been considered. We have very many things to do and gave you this opportunity to submit the programme again."

Mr. Bennett said the seven-point programme was not the objective of the trek at all. The trek was organized to embarrass governments, "and we do not propose to be embarrassed at our own expense," he added.

Humphries said the City of Ottawa has refused to help the trekkers beyond providing a rest for them. This was very unsatisfactory. They had no shelter except tents and a few blankets and bits of canvas. The condition of the trekkers after their long march was bad. Many had sore feet and their hands were chafed as a result of their hardships.

All the trekkers had been told before they started that the Government would not provide food or shelter for them in Ottawa, said Mr. Bennett. The Government had not changed its decision.

Humphries said the real object of the trek was to ask Mr. Bennett to implement his promises of 1930, to provide work and wages, insurance and compensation.

One woman was in the delegation from Ottawa, said Mr. Bennett. With Mr. Bennett were Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, and Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor.

Mr. King replied in part to Dr. Robertson as follows: The telegram advising me that the Liberals of Prince Albert constituency, in convention assembled, have unanimously nominated me as their candidate in the impending general election, I feel greatly honored and am more than delighted to accept the nomination.

The officers of the Sherbrooke Regiment were privileged last evening to have as their guest Lieut.-Col. H. S. Pinder, M.C., officer commanding the First Battalion of the Leicestershire Regiment.

Lieut.-Col. Pinder's visit to Sherbrooke was of particular interest to the members of the Sherbrooke Regiment as he is allied with the British regiment with which the local regiment is connected. This was the first occasion since the alliance of the two regiments that an officer of the Leicestershire Regiment visited Sherbrooke.

Lieut.-Col. Pinder was guest-of-honor at a mess dinner given at the Sherbrooke Country Club, which was presided over by Major J. H. Bown, president of the Sherbrooke Regiment Officers' Mess.

Other distinguished military figures who attended the dinner and reception which followed in the Officers' Mess of the Sherbrooke Regiment included Col. G. R. Peakes, V.C. D.S.O., M.C., of the National Defence Headquarters, Ottawa; Lt.-Col. B. W. Browne, D.S.O., M.C., of Military District Number 4, Montreal; Major J. W. H. G. The toast to His Majesty the King was proposed by Lieut. C. D. Armitage, while Lieut.-Col. W. E. Baker, Officer Commanding the Sherbrooke Regiment, proposed the toast, the Leicestershire Regiment, which was responded to by Lieut.-Col. Pinder.

Col. Peakes, who is one of the outstanding military men in Canada, spoke briefly on the alliance between the two regiments, a matter which was brought largely through his personal efforts.

Lieut.-Col. Pinder, who until a few days ago was attached to the British West Indies Garrison at Kingston, Jamaica, has been promoted to Command the First Battalion of the Leicestershire Regiment, at present stationed at Milton, Ontario.

He was on his way to England before going to India and diverted his course so that he might visit the Sherbrooke Regiment. It is interesting to note that Lieut.-Col. Pinder left Kingston, Jamaica, on Tuesday morning by air and was in Ottawa for luncheon on Wednesday.

It was indicated that the policy was adopted after Il Duce ordered an investigation of numerous reported desertions from the Italian army to Austria.

PLAN POLLUTION OF WELLS SUPPLYING ITALIAN ARMY. Addis Ababa, August 10.—The French military authorities have taken over all vacant houses in the capital city of Djibouti, in French Somaliland, it was learned from reliable sources today.

It is understood that the houses will be used as quarters for French officers arriving with two thousand Senegalese troops, who will be quartered in tents.

Djibouti is on the Gulf of Aden, important to Ethiopia as a landing port. Meantime in Ethiopia the tribesmen of Emperor Haile Selassie prepared further war measures in anticipation of trouble with Italy. The tribesmen announced a plan for polluting the water supply. They will treat the wells supplying the Italian troops with a substance creating a bad smell.

The Minister of Commerce urged the speeding up of the trapping industry, important in Ethiopia, as a means of getting money to purchase badly needed munitions.

Another effort to get financing was seen in the dispatching of Daba Birro, Foreign Office official, toward Japan, presumably to arrange credit for the purchase of war supplies. It is understood he was accompanied by unidentified Japanese.

Rome, Aug. 10.—Italy summoned a new unit of its reserve military power to the colors today. A Royal decree was published in the Official Gazette ordering the subalterns and technicians of the air force classes of 1900 and 1910 recalled for service for an indeterminate time.

The decree was issued while the mysterious plane disaster in Egypt, which caused the death of Luigi Rizzo, Minister of Public Works, and six others continued to evoke expressions of sorrow and bewilderment. Officials remained unsettled as they awaited the report of the crash from Gen. Aldo Pellegrini, of the War Ministry.

ANCIENT SLOOP SALVAGED FROM RESTING PLACE

Bearing Cargo of Human Bones and Rusted Cannon Balls, Sloop Philadelphia, Sunk During Revolutionary War Battle, Today Rests Near Burlington.

Burlington, Vt., August 10.—The battle-scarred sloop Philadelphia, bearing a cargo of human bones and rusted cannon balls, lay in shallow water near here today after a rest of nearly 160 years at the bottom on Lake Champlain.

The Philadelphia was once a part of Benedict Arnold's proud fleet. It went down in defeat at the Battle of Valcour Island on October 12, 1776, in a fight with British men-of-war and remained undisturbed in sixty feet of water until a recent visit from divers.

The sloop made its re-entry into the world yesterday, when it was raised by a derrick aboard a lighter. As its mast, still proudly erect, showed above water the salvage crew halted operations to tie a Colonial flag at its top.

Eager searchers boarded the old sloop as soon as she was in shallow water and found bones of the men who had manned her in the famous battle, in a fight with British men-of-war. They also saw three holes in the hull below the water line, nautical testimonials to the accurate fire of a long-led British crew.

Several cannon balls were found in the sloop. Her gun platform was just as it had been when the ship sank and her gun carriage was in position on the fifteen-foot runway. The boat measures about forty-five feet in length.

SPLendor of RENAISSANCE SEEN IN AUTUMN FASHIONS

Gay Variegation of Peasant Costumes for Day, Renaissance Gowns for Afternoon and Eclecticism of Hindu Draperies for Evening Featured in Paris Autumn Collections.

Paris, Aug. 8.—The gay variegation of peasant costumes for day, the splendor of Renaissance gowns for afternoon and the eclecticism of Hindu draperies for evening are the principal influences in Paris autumn collections.

The motif for street-wear for smart Parisiennes has been taken from the ancient native costume of every French province and many central European countries.

Hungarian embroidery designs of strong colors and more geometric design decorate ensembles, which have clipped fur waistcoats and are worn with draped toques of the same fur.

Formal afternoon dresses and light evening gowns. The movement falls from the waist to the hem of the skirt which is slightly ruffled in imitation of the long full trousers of the oriental women. It also catches at the shoulder and can be worn as a well-embroidered whole dress is made by the draping its cut must be perfectly simple and the decolette evenly rounded.

The silk manufacturers, as well as the dressmakers, were inspired by the Italian Renaissance. The most attractive creations are simple borgia and cardinal red, madonna heavy velvets in warm tones—and sapphire blue—heavy moires broches with gold and silver, or of delicate tones directly inspired from the gowns of the companions of Botticelli's Venus.

BELIEVE ACTION WILL CAUSE INTERNATIONAL FRICTION. Tokyo, August 10.—Vernacular newspapers today predicted there would be friction between the Japanese and United States governments over law which places the automotive industry in Japan, eighty per cent. American-owned, under rigid government control.

Friction will result, the newspapers said, from the undoubted restrictions of the American market in Japan and Manchuria. Another reason for friction is seen in Henry Ford's refusal to admit Japanese capital into the plans for expansion.

Solemn Goodness.

Some people are so very good I shudder at their sight. They've no time for being pleasant— They're too busy being right. They talk at length, and mean and wail, And argue by the hour, About some minor detail which is quite beyond their power. Their solemn faces make us sad, We their company avoid— For we're too busy being glad To be this way annoyed.

A SUCCESSION OF POOR BUSINESS GOVERNMENTS.

A year ago we proposed a National Business Government, but the project was killed by word bunglers, who dropped the word "Business," not realizing that the name "National Government" does not mean a thing.

It is the lack of business talent in government which we have decried.

Had the bunglers consulted with their high-browed Uncle Stalky in a desire for brevity or economy they had better had chosen the Good Business Government.

Then would they have had many rally around, and had a chance. Good Business could have been applied with advantage to every department of government, something we have not had in many years.

To-day the business of government costs the Canadian taxpayers three times as much as it cost to govern England when the United Kingdom had a population five times greater, or 30,000,000 people. This was seventy years ago.

AN INDIRECT THREAT.

Verdun City, the only city on Montreal Island which had the courage to protest the paying of Montreal's debts due to waste and extravagance, is to be bludgeoned into paying. This one would gather from an indirect threat of being forced into annexation to Montreal at the next session of the Quebec Legislature.

What a merry fight that would bring on! What changes in Quebec it would bring about. Force or compulsion are weapons which always bring about a boomerang.

The Mayor of Verdun, a business man, took up the cudgels on behalf of his maltreated citizens, from whom the city sought revenues in a sales tax, and in increased water taxes, all the collections to go to the city coffers. These collections amount to a tremendous sum, far beyond the sum anticipated. The three cities—Verdun, Westmount and Outremont—officially objected to the imposition.

History does not read any lesson to the understanding of the Mayor of Montreal. He cannot envisage from the reading of history anything which might be of use to him.

Surely the Mayor of Montreal cannot inveigle the Premier of Quebec any further into the assumption of responsibility for the nefarious scheme of a threatened forceful annexation of a sovereign municipality by a bigger neighbour. It is unthinkable that any politician should be so simple.

Not one of these bordering cities would welcome the thought of annexation to a city administration which has brought the municipality to the verge of bankruptcy.

The writer of the plausible threat gives no authority, but plainly intimates that Verdun is "a thorn in Montreal's side."

There can be no thought in Quebec of a minority being denied its rights. Should that be attempted, the whole edifice will topple over.

The rumour must be denied or eaten up from headquarters, lest it do untold damage.

THE FUNDS THEY WASTE.

Politicians who take up public life we may wish to investigate just as politicians have the urge to investigate business.

A test of a candidate is "Will he tell from whom he gleans his campaign funds?"

Clearly, only a Simple Simon will waste his own money in buying votes. The executive of each party has a War Chest, depending for funds and contributions upon the excitement raised by the philanthropic newspapers which are easily "worked" for space.

Men there are who have been reported to spend as much as $50,000 on a simple one-county campaign. These men are ninnyes. It is safe to say they would not spend their own money that way. An honest election can be conducted in any county for around $1,000 to $1,500. Beyond that there is but waste and a mad demoralization of the morale of the electorate.

This does not allow much for even the cheap white whiskey which was at one time smuggled in from Miquelon.

With the revived public spirit and the better knowledge of public affairs it is easier to reckon the sober judgment of the electorate, and harder to inflame the easily influenced.

The candidate who makes of election day a carousal is one who despises those who indulge in his cheap beverages.

WHEN THE TAXPAYERS GO ON RELIEF: WHAT THEN?

Relief Camps in Canada have been in a state of ferment because of a mixture of military discipline and philanthropy. They do not mix.

Our jails had been in a precarious state had it been admitted that Aggie Macphail, or some other old maid, could go on joy jaunts through the corridors, and encourage the convicts with benign smiles.

The Relief Camps should not be under the direction of a Minister of National Defence. Better give them over to the Minister of Agriculture, or the Minister of Trade and Commerce, both of whom are nearer the avenues of work.

The idea of a Major-General or a Lieutenant-Colonel providing work for the workless when the O. C. does not know a shovel from a fork is just plain ridiculous. The Camp needs an understanding body, but the military officers at headquarters may need a school teacher.

Why do they always try to put the square post into the round hole?

The first question on the Civil Service exam might be: How would you drill a drill? The applicant would pass at the top of the class if he said, "I do not know."

Politics means that kissing goes by favour and that he who holds his job must act as though he did not know too much.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

Let there be a reduction in wheat acreage in Western Canada, and the Eastern Canadian farmer will seize the opportunity of restoring a ten-acre field in the "back forty" to the growth of wheat. That is the result of quotas and restrictions. They have made Germany and France and other wheat-importing European countries self-dependent with large crops of domestic wheat. Recalling a recent attempt to restore the equilibrium by restricting the cut of pulpwood and a consequent drop in newsprint production, it is not so many months since Quebec had the costly experience. The other provinces quickly took up the slack. So few legislators follow the deduction to its finality. In all such cases, and at the time of conception, we have pointed out the fallacy of government interference.

J. P. Morgan, the New York financier, made a call at King George's Palace, and all the newspapers made a social and personal mention of the visit. Yet not one of these editors commented on the fact that twenty years ago all the Kings were calling on Mr. Morgan at his palace in New York. Why should he not return a call?

Every little pile of sand on the side of the road is a sifting monument to a hope for votes. And in the improvement of highways it will be a case of the unbelieving Missourian's "Show me!"

Try public ownership if you would have your rent and taxes go skyhigh. Find the man who talks that way, and you will find he is not a man who will mind your business as he would his own.

WHAT EDITORS SAY

"SOAK THE RICH"

In these days when "soak the rich" seems to be our outstanding national policy, it is well to remember that there is nothing inherently wrong in mere bigness. In fact, there can be much good in it. There would not be nearly so many of us riding in automobiles today if this were not true.

It is only when bigness becomes unregulated monopoly that danger exists. Effort is now being made to curb some of these alleged monopolies by the taxing power of the government.

In this connection, however, there is another important truth to remember. Any tax programme offers no contribution to recovery, the vital need of the day. Taxes can never be more than regulatory. They never can be creative.

All this adds to business uncertainty and apprehension. And we, the common people, are the victims of such uncertainty. The government must collect money to pay its bills, it is true. But budget balancing requires care in spending, as well as in increased income. And this economy is not yet in sight.

SCHOOL BOARD OF CLEVELAND HELD SESSION

Richmond, Aug. 10.—The meeting of the Cleveland Protestant School Board for fixing of the yearly tax took place at the Court House here with R. E. McArthur, chairman, presiding, and Commissioners W. R. Healy, Fred R. Taylor and E. G. Fletcher in attendance. Mr. P. C. Duboyce, the secretary-treasurer, read the report of the inspection of the school buildings by Dr. Deschenes, the inspector of the Board of Health, and it was discussed and found very reasonable.

The secretary-treasurer was asked to instruct the school managers to have the school floors washed four times a year instead of twice, and have the walls and ceilings washed once a year during the summer vacation. The manager of District No. 12 will be asked to enlarge the book-case, have the floors and walls painted and ceilings attended to, according to Dr. Deschenes' recommendations. The school managers are to be notified to put in a supply of sawdust in a box at each school and the teachers will be asked to have the sweeping done with dampened sawdust.

The report of the auditor was read, showing that the capital assets, such as school buildings, furniture, etc., were $5,250; that the revenue assets were $175.23 cash on hand at the end of the school year June 30th, 1935; $360.90 arrears of taxes; $85 arrears of monthly fees; $20 in arrears of monthly rent; $20 in arrears of the Released Normal School Fund Grant.

The liabilities were $250 of a promissory note owing to the Bank of Montreal, $176.40 owing to the secretary-treasurer and $145.40 owing to the Roman Catholic School trustees.

The valuation roll for the school municipality, which had been on view in the office of the secretary-treasurer was homologated after a very long discussion it was decided to leave the rate at only seven mills on the dollar and collect all arrears outstanding, instead of laying the rate at eight mills on the dollar and going easier in collecting the arrears. The same rate of monthly fees and school tax was laid on the roll.

The rest of the session was in Cleveland Protestant School Municipality for many years, namely, one dollar per year for Protestant residents and ratepayers; fifty cents a month for non-Protestant residents and non-ratepayers.

The secretary-treasurer was taken up with routine work, passing accounts, etc.

CLEVELAND TOWNSHIP COUNCIL MET

The regular monthly session of the municipal council of the Township of Cleveland was held in the municipal office on Monday, with the following attendance: Mayor R. E. McArthur, pro-Mayor A. M. Tremblay and Councilors J. W. Costello, N. E. Lampron, H. Coles, T. H. Pulker and D. L. Perkins.

A delegation of the Women's Institute of the municipality addressed the council in regard to incitation of children between the ages of six and twelve against diphtheria and asked for assistance to carry out this work. The Council voted them ten dollars for this purpose.

The Council was informed by S. E. Desmarais M.L.A., that he had received a notice from the Department of Roads that $600 had been allocated to the municipality on the fifty-fifty basis and also that $400 had been allocated by the Department of Colonization. The Council decided to spend the $600 on the fifty-fifty basis on the McLaughlin, St. Cyr and St. Claude roads and the allocation of $400 from the Department of Colonization to be spent on the Healy-Dresser and Desjardis Mills Road.

The secretary-treasurer, W. R. Stevens, announced that the valuation roll for 1935 had been completed.

Several pieces of earth road needing repair work, was ordered to be done. The session was taken up by the passing of accounts for payment and other routine work.

General Notes.

Edward N. Demers, who took grade eleven examinations in June at St. Francis College High School was reported as having a total of 534 marks. The enrollment sheet forwarded to Colonel W. R. Stevens, secretary-treasurer of the Richmond Protestant School Board, showed that number of marks at having been obtained by Mr. Demers, but on inquiry he found that he received no credit for an examination paper in geography. It now turns out that the marks, sixty-one, obtained by him in geography were credited to another pupil who did not write the subject at therefore Edward N. Demers received 615 total marks in last June examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grady and Mr. Wilfred Gordon have returned from a short trip to Old Orchard Beach, Me.

Letter to The Editor

MISS JEAN MACNAB WRITES FROM WINNIPEG!
To The Editor.
Sir:—Since my arrival in Winnipeg, an Eastern Township friend has shown me a copy of The Record of July 19, containing the following: "Tainted that she could not do it, Miss Jean Macnab, a student at the University of Bishop's College, hitch-hiked her way from Lennoxville to her home in Winnipeg. It was an adventurous trip for a young girl to make, but Miss Macnab is reported to have reached home safely."

"Alternately hitch-hiking and writing accounts of her trip for the newspapers, Miss Macnab met with one adventurous walk worth recording. That was when she was arrested as a relief-marcher. She was sent back through part of Ontario before she successfully explained the object of her 'march' and satisfied the powers-that-be it had nothing whatever to do with relief-workers."

I would like to explain that I took the train from Lennoxville to Montreal, where I spent some time with friends, and by the same method of conveyance continued to Toronto and from there to Winnipeg. I should like to suggest, also, that the adventures ascribed to me by whoever imagined the statements published in your newspaper were of a highly fictional nature. It seems a pity that the chronicler overlooked the ability of my having called part of the way over the Great Lakes, as a stow-away, with attendant storm and shipwreck. This might have been even more exciting than the alleged dodging of police patrols on the lookout for unemployed marchers bound for Toronto. I am consistent, too, since, as represented, I would be heading in the wrong direction to reach the Canadian capital, except by a round-the-world "hike." The true Munchausen touch fails, in my opinion, at this point. I should like, however, to congratulate the author upon his or her keen appreciation of the bizarre.

JEAN MACNAB, Winnipeg, Man.

SWITZERLAND HAS ORDERED ANTI-FASCIST DEPORTED

Berne, Switzerland, Aug. 10.—The Swiss Federal Council today expelled five anti-fascists and investigated charges that an organization had been established in Italy's attitude toward Ethiopia.

It was charged the organization had been sending pamphlets criticizing Premier Mussolini to Italy by means of small hydrogen balloons. Those deported were three Italians, one Austrian and one Frenchwoman. They were ordered to leave the country for "preparing with Switzerland action against Italy, thereby placing Italo-Swiss relations in peril."

Two editors of the newspaper Adula, of Bellinzona, Mlle. Bontempo and Emilio Colombi, were arrested by Swiss police who said they were charged with treason and espionage. The newspaper was recently closed for advocating the acquisition of the Canton by Italy.

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS ONCE MORE SWEEPING ALGERIA

First Anniversary of Arab-Semitic Conflicts in Which One Hundred Were Killed Brings Further Trouble.

Algiers, August 10.—Anti-Jewish rioting broke out in Oran and Sidi Bel Abbes on the anniversary of the Arab-Semitic conflicts of last year in which one hundred were slain and three hundred hurt, according to despatches reaching here yesterday. Large red placards appeared on the walls of Sidi Bel Abbes, addressed to native and European workers and terminating with the words: "Death to Jews!"

The placards led to sporadic fighting in which shots were fired. Police set up temporary posts in the heart of Sidi Bel Abbes and the situation is now said to be under control.

TACOMA MEN SEEKING TO MAKE LIVING OFF NATURE

Two Almost Naked Men Enter Woods with Cigar Lighter, Fish Line and Hunting Knife to Live for Month on Wager.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 10.—Two almost naked white men were matching their wits against nature in the wilds of the Olympic Peninsula on a bet yesterday.

The two, Tommy Vittos, aged twenty-three years, and Graham Ring, aged nineteen years, planned to live off nature for an entire month on a $200 wager of a merchant that they would be unable to do it.

They were wearing trunks and gym shoes and each carried a cigar lighter, which will be used to start fires, a fish line and a hunting knife when they went into the timber last night. Cougar and bear are plentiful in the area.

MAY REPLACE RADIUM AS TREATMENT FOR DISEASE

Denver and McGill University Scientists Take Table Salt Up High Mountain to Induce Radio-Activity.

Denver, Colo., August 10.—Two scientists carried two bags of common table salt to the top of Mount Evans today in the hope of making a discovery which may result in the replacement of costly radium in many medical treatments.

The scientists, Dr. J. C. Stearns, Denver University, and Dr. J. K. Froman, of McGill University, hope to induce radio-activity into the salt. They predicted before they left that if the experiment succeeds, salt treated in this manner may take the place of radium in medicine.

COMMUNISTS TO ABANDON FIGHT AGAINST RELIGION

Desire for United Front Against Political Reaction Causes Modification of Religious Viewpoint.

Moscow, Aug. 10.—An assurance that Communists in the United States would not disturb the religious beliefs or practices of others who wished to join them in an anti-front movement was given today by an American delegate, Gil Green, in a speech to the Communist International.

"The uniform front is not directed against religious convictions, but against political reaction," asserted Green, using the word reaction to refer to alleged Fascist tendencies.

Green said that proof of the Communists' sincerity was found in their attitude during the recent American Youth Congress, when religiously inclined participants were permitted to have church services on Sunday.

LAD COMMITTED SUICIDE AFTER KILLING LITTLE SISTER. Pittsburgh, Aug. 10.—Thirteen-year-old Robert Ague and his eleven-year-old sister, Betty, were found shot to death in their home in Swickley, a fashionable suburb. The people said it was a case of accidental shooting and a "suicide of sorrow."

Betty was shot down while washing dishes. Robert died in his bedroom sometime later, a bullet wound in his head. The children were alone at the time.

The car is painted grey and the Quebec license plates bear the number H-22528.
 Police believe that two men, seen loitering around Strathcona Square yesterday morning, are responsible for the theft.

CONDITION OF EUSTIS YOUTH REMAINS SERIOUS
 Reports from the Sherbrooke Hospital this morning stated that the condition of eight-year-old Alton Veer, of Eustis, who was seriously injured when dynamite, with which he was playing, exploded, still remains critical.
 Fortunately the hospital authorities have been able to save the lad's left eye, which is thought to have to be removed, although it is expected he will only have partial sight.
 In some unknown way the lad secured dynamite while playing at Eustis on Thursday evening. His parents knew nothing of this until the explosion which blew three fingers and the thumb off his left hand and inflicted serious face and chest injuries.

LAST TRIBUTE PAID TO MRS. S. A. GRIGGS
 Quietly and reverently the remains of Mrs. Sara Ann Griggs, who passed away last Sunday at Saco, Maine, after a brief illness, were laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery on Wednesday, August 7th, following an impressive funeral service in the Chapel at Lord's Funeral Home. Rev. Walter S. Lennon, D.D., pastor of Trinity United Church, officiated, and a mixed quartette sang two favorite hymns of the deceased, "Peace Perfect Peace" and "Abide With Me."
 The bearers were J. H. Bryce, H. Griffith, G. C. Hall and E. Cotton.
 Mrs. Griggs, who was spending a holiday by the sea with her daughter, Miss Alice Griggs, the highly esteemed and gifted teacher of art in the Sherbrooke High School, was stricken with pneumonia and passed away after a brief illness. Sara Ann Jepson, widow of the late Henry Griggs, one of Sherbrooke's oldest and most highly esteemed residents, was born in Derby, England, and came to Canada in 1871, living first in Coaticook and afterwards moving to Sherbrooke, where she has since resided. One daughter predeceased her in early girlhood, leaving Miss Alice Griggs as her sole survivor. To the latter the heartfelt sympathy of hosts of friends will be extended in her sad bereavement.

LOYOLA OFFERS ENGLISH YOUTH VARIED COURSE

In Addition to Complete Arts Course, Loyola College Also Provides Thorough High School Training and This Fall Will Inaugurate Preparatory Classes for Younger Boys.

In the autumn of 1896 Loyola College in Montreal began its existence under the direction of Rev. Gregory O'Bryan, S.J. Since that memorable date thirty-nine years ago this famed seat of learning has faithfully and nobly upheld the lofty purpose for which it was founded and has unselfishly served the cause of higher education.

Today its niche in the realm of higher education is assured. It is now one of the most widely-known colleges in Canada. Its service to the English-speaking population of Quebec Province cannot be over-estimated. Loyola is a college whose record speaks for itself.

What a contrast the Loyola of today affords with the first school opened in 1896. Today its stately buildings on Sherbrooke street west in Montreal, are a joy to behold, and a pride to those men in all walks of life throughout Canada and the United States who boastfully claim Loyola as their Alma Mater.

Passing along Sherbrooke street the eye is caught first by the spacious administration building and picturesque chapel. In the rear are the refectory, junior building, stadium and campus, the whole making up a most modern and ideal residential college for boys.

Affording more advanced students a complete Arts course, Loyola, which is affiliated with the University of Montreal, also conducts a High School department for residential and non-residential students, and this fall a preparatory course will be available for younger boys. Classes in this course will be resumed on Friday, September 13.

Loyola is under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers, who are noted for their teaching as well as for their preaching, and parents who entrust their boys to the care of the Jesuits need have no further worry about their care and well-being.

It is the aim of the College to have a limited number of boys and young men. Education in its fullest sense, as understood by the Jesuit Fathers, is the full and harmonious development of all the faculties. The Jesuit system of education, with its developing, side by side, the moral, religious and intellectual faculties of the student.

The student life at Loyola is made as interesting as possible. There are numerous societies and organizations in which the students may become affiliated, while special attention is also given to athletics. There are both intramural and inter-collegiate teams in baseball, lacrosse, tennis, football and hockey, as well as all kinds of healthy exercises. The members of these teams, of course, must, if they wish to take part in athletics, maintain satisfactory scholastic records.

Loyola is open to non-Catholic students, who are given the same privileges as others, and it is pleased to receive, regardless of race or creed, any student who is seeking an ideal college in which to pursue his studies.

Rev. Thomas J. Walsh, S.J., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walsh, of this city, who is a graduate of Loyola College and a member of the Jesuit Order, is present spending some time in Sherbrooke.

While in this district Father Walsh will be happy to meet the parents of any prospective student. Anyone interested in learning about Loyola, and what it has to offer, may secure any information from Father Walsh, either by writing to him at 69 Melbourne street or by telephoning Sherbrooke 152.

Father Walsh will be only too pleased to visit anyone interested, whether in Sherbrooke or elsewhere throughout the Eastern Townships and to have a friendly chat about Loyola.

FIVE CONTESTS WERE DECIDED BY HOME RUNS

Circuit Clouts Provided Winning Margins in Closely-Contested Major League Games Yesterday—Cardinals Nosed Chicago Cubs Out of Runner-Up Berth.

It is still a good way of winning ball games—this business of belting one out of the park.

Hank Greenberg, of Detroit, Bud Haffey, Pittsburgh rookie, Travis Jackson, of the Giants, Tony Cucinello, of the Dodgers, and Red Rolfe, of the Yankees, hit for the circuit yesterday and their blows were important factors in their teams' victories.

Greenberg clouted his thirty-first four-bagger of the season with Charley Gehring on base to give the frequent Tigers their margin of victory over the Chicago White Sox, the final count being four to three.

"Schoolboy" Rowe went the route as the Bengals scored their second successive triumph over the Sox in the current series. Ted Lyons pitched the entire game for Chicago. Each pitcher allowed eight safeties and the victory was Rowe's twelfth win this year.

Greenberg might be expected to do such a thing, but there were few at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh who expected Haffey, who is batting .143, to punch one for a fourth trip. That is exactly what he did, over the scoreboard too, and the Pirates rode on that lone smash to a one to nothing decision over Cincinnati.

The hit by the nephew of the once great "Chick" Haffey, came in the eighth inning of a hurling duel between Bill Swift and young Albert Hollingsworth, Cincinnati southpaw. It was his second homer since he joined the Pirates about two months ago.

Jackson assumed the hero role in Philadelphia when he stepped to the plate in the ninth frame with Hank Leiber on base, smote one mightily and gave the league-leading New Yorkers a three to two verdict over the Phillies. Clyde Castleman gave only six hits, but one of the blows was a circuit clout by Sylvester Johnson in the fifth chapter with the result that the Phillies went into the last round leading by the odd run in three. The Giants got to Johnson for nine safe blows.

Cucinello provided the homer that climaxed a four-run rally in the ninth heat and gave Brooklyn a six to five win over the Boston Braves. The Dodgers led until the eighth stanza, but then Johnny Babich weakened and was driven from the box as the Tribe tallied three times and added another marker in the ninth session at the expense of Bobby Reis, the converted infielder who received credit for his first mound victory. Singles by Reis and Jimmy Bucher, Sam Lesie's double and Cucinello's four-bagger produced the four points which brought Brooklyn the decision.

Red Rolfe was the man of the hour as the Yankees shamed the Philadelphia Athletics, but the lion's share of the laurels in this contest went to John "Blondy" Ryan, who came back to the city of his first great triumph to touch off the rally that led to a Yankee victory. Ryan, whose famous "they can't beat us" slogan helped the Giants to their 1933 pennant, was up to his old tricks as his single inspired the New York rally.

Red Ruffing held the Athletics to six hits but had to bear down in the last two innings when the A's filled the bases twice on him. The Yanks could do little with Vernon Wilshire, except in the third inning, when with one out Ryan singled. Ruffing followed with another one-bagger which, with the help of two errors, allowed "Blondy" to score. Rolfe then cracked out his home run to account for what proved to be the deciding runs.

SEVEN HUNDRED MARKSMEN FOR DOMINION MEET

Sharpshooters Representing Military Units from Coast to Coast Will Seek Dominion of Canada Rifle Association Prizes at Connaught Ranges Next Week.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—With the major prizes of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association their goal, crack Canadian marksmen today awaited the bugle call on Monday to start a week's attack over Connaught Rifle Ranges.

Representing military units from coast to coast nearly seven hundred sharpshooters will launch an offensive over a quarter-mile front, peppering at targets raised in the distance. From the break of dawn until night closes the crack of rifle fire will break the silence of the surrounding meadowland.

The prizes, among the largest in the Empire, are situated more than fifteen miles from the Capital, bordering on the Ottawa River. Overlooking the firing point is the Administration Building, housing trophies Canada's marksmen have won in various fields. Absent from the trophy room, however, is the Mackinnon Cup, the Kelopape Cup and the Stock Exchange Trophy, lost at Bixley Camp, England, last month.

Adding intra-Empire flavor to the meet, eight under-graduates of Oxford University camped on the grounds. Their objective was a major award, to take on the long journey home next week.

As in former years ten Imperial Cadets, commanded by two officers, were ready to take their place on the firing line. Big match of the week for the youngsters is the Michael Faraday Trophy, shot for by a team of eight from the Mother Country and another from Canada.

At stake for marksmen was a place on the 1936 Canadian Bixley team. Consistency counts, the Bixley aggregate, from which the team is chosen, taking in all important matches.

The east sent riflemen in large numbers. Lieut. Neal Dow, noted cadet coach, heading the Maritime division, and Lieut. James Boa, of Montreal, leading the Quebec representation.

and Bob Gibson, of the Orioles, followed his example.

The Buffalo Bisons went to work on the Newark Bears and butted them for a double victory, the score being seven to two and four to five, to put a dent in the win streak of the Bears, who had won fifteen out of twenty-one starts. Ash allowed but six hits in the opener, while Bill Harris annexed his fifteenth triumph of the year in the second game. His mates provided a nine-run lead in the first two innings and he rode it home for an easy win.

and Bob Gibson, of the Orioles, followed his example.

COVETED MEDAL WON BY MEMBER OF LOCAL UNIT

Pte. George Thompson, Member of Sherbrooke Regiment, Captured Lieutenant-Governor's Silver Medal Yesterday—7th Hussars Won Several Team Prizes.

Pte. George A. Thompson, of Levesqueville, gained the front rank of the Province of Quebec Rifle Association yesterday when he won the second and final stage of the Lieutenant-Governor's match and added the coveted silver medal to the many honors the Sherbrooke Regiment has achieved at the sixtieth annual prize meeting of the provincial association. Thompson, a Sherbrooke Regiment delegate on the Dominion's Bixley team two years ago, scored a possible on the 900-yard range and forty-eight from the 600-yard butts to nose out his nearest rival, Bandmaster C. E. Simpson, of the Royal Montreal Regiment, by a single point.

Another member of the local military unit, Lieut. Henry A. Delcille, won the Lieutenant-Governor's bronze medal, awarded to the top making the highest aggregate score. Lieut. Delcille's scores were 44-45-89.

Sgt. John Stein, of the Sherbrooke Regiment, and Pte. O. S. Joyce, of the 7th Hussars, Bixhopton, tied with Lieut. Neal Dow, of Saint John, N.B., for third and fourth places but, rather than shoot off, the marksmen decided among themselves to split the prize money. Stein had 47-49-98, and Joyce carded 48-48-98.

Other Eastern Townships winners in this feature competition were: Lt. R. N. Bishop, 7th Hussars, with 46-49-95; Tpr. E. J. Warcup, 7th Hussars, with 44-47-91; Pte. J. G. Beattie, Sherbrooke Regiment, with 47-48-90; Tpr. C. J. Hall, 7th Hussars, 44-45-89, and Pte. J. Glass, Sherbrooke Regiment, 45-38-83.

Capt. R. W. H. Soper, Sherbrooke Regiment, with 30-33-31-94, and Lt. Ashton R. Tobin, Sherbrooke Regiment, with 29-33-30-92, were among the entries who won prizes competed for by those who did not qualify for the second stage of the Lieutenant-Governor's match.

The Bixhopton soldiers did exceptionally well in the team competitions. The 7th Hussars captured the Morris Memorial Challenge Shield, team prize in the Lieutenant-Governor's match; annexed the Carleton Place Trophy, emblematic of the grand team aggregate, and placed second in the Victoria Rifles of Canada in the Old Chum match. The Sherbrooke Regiment won the tyro team prize in the Old Chum contest; ranked second in the Hussars for the Carleton award, and trailed the Hussars in the Old Chum event. The Sherbrooke Rifle Association gained the Martin Challenge Shield.

Lt. R. N. Bishop, 7th Hussars, placed fourth behind three Bixley shots in the grand aggregate column. As his reward Lt. Bishop received the Province of Quebec Rifle Association medal. His score was 304—two points behind Lt. Martinson, of La Tuque, and Sgt. C. Idiols, of Calgary. Other Eastern Townships winners in the grand aggregate were: Pte. G. A. Thompson, Sherbrooke Regiment, 308; Tpr. E. J. Warcup, 7th Hussars, and Pte. F. J. Glass, Sherbrooke Regiment, 300; Tpr. O. S. Joyce and Tpr. C. J. Hall, 7th Hussars, 299; Sgt. J. Stein, Sherbrooke Regiment, 294; Pte. J. G. Beattie, Sherbrooke Regiment, 293.

In the Gazette Match marksmen from this district scored as follows: Pte. J. G. Beattie, Sherbrooke Regiment, 25; Lt. H. A. Delcille, Sherbrooke Regiment, 33; Tpr. E. J. Warcup, 7th Hussars, 30; Pte. BRITISH GET DAVIS CUP, NET RESULT OF VICTORY OVER UNITED STATES

Victorious for the second time in their defense of the eagerly-sought Davis Cup, the huge silver bowl was again presented to the British team at Wimbledon, England, with Princess Helena Victoria doing the honors. Roper Barrett, non-playing captain of the defenders, holds the cup, flanked by the players who defeated the United States challengers in every match of the challenge round. Left to right are Fred Perry and Bunny Austin, singles stars; Barrett; and the doubles team, G. P. Hughes and C. B. D. Tuckey.

TORONTO YOUTH BROKE RECORDS IN BROAD JUMP

Sammy Richardson, Toronto Colored Schoolboy, Leaped Record-Breaking Distance of 24 Feet 11 Inches in Dominion Championship Meet Last Night.

Winnipeg, August 10.—"I just jumped," Sammy Richardson, the little colored lad from Toronto, said here last night as he explained how he broke the Canadian record in the running broad jump by over a foot. "It was really nothing. I just let myself go and then I landed ahead of the record," Sammy stated and hung his head like a bashful schoolboy.

But it was quite appropriate for Sammy still is a schoolboy attending Central Technical School, Toronto, where he is in second form. His record last night was twenty-four feet and eleven inches, shattering the Canadian native record of 23 feet, 8 1/2 inches set by C. D. Brieker, of Toronto, and the Canadian open mark of 24 feet, 7 3/4 inches set by Jesse Owens, of Cleveland.

The colored lad's record-breaking here seemed effortless. The crowd cheered him to the echo when the record was announced, Sammy just smiled blandly. Previously Richardson, who had run a qualifying heat in 3 4-5 seconds, broke his stride and failed even to place in the 100-yard dash final.

Richardson's performance and a double win by Art Clarke, of Toronto, were the features at the Dominion track and field championship meet started here last night. Packed stands saw the athletic pageant open with the three-mile run and the thrills began early as Clarke, regarded as the outstanding miler in Canada, duelled with Jack Wahlberg, of Saskatoon, and W. L. Purvis, of Berensford, Man. Clarke pulled out of the ruck five yards from home and won in a driving finish.

Judging his field beautifully, Clarke took the lead in the mile run as the field hit the second stretch. Although Fred Lambert, of Moose Jaw, challenged in the last five yards Clarke had enough left to win in 4:32.6. Tony Williams, of Winnipeg, was third.

Allister Swanson, of Winnipeg, broke into the championship class by winning the 100-yard dash final in 9 9-10 seconds, while Ernie Coy, of Winnipeg, captured the javelin throw title. The 440-yard hurdles went to D. Simpson, of Winnipeg, and the Achilles Club of Toronto annexed first place in the 440-yard relay.

Swanson, who started his track career a year ago, shot into the front rank of Canadian sprinters with a surprise victory in the century classic. The Winnipeg boy just beat Bill Christie, of Toronto, at the tape, while Bert Pearson, Hamilton's sterling runner, was admiral. Coy won the javelin throw laurels with surprising ease. His winning toss was 163 feet, 11 1/2 inches, far ahead of William Bennett, of Taber, Alta., who was second with 147 feet, 9 inches. Artowes, of Toronto, ranked third with 141 feet, 11 1/2 inches.

Simpson carried off the 44-yard hurdles final in fifty-nine seconds flat with B. Hutchinson, of Winnipeg, second and another Winnipegger, Don McDougall, third.

Given the jump by Richardson, the Achilles Club of Toronto quartette went ahead to win the 440-yard relay with Christie carrying the baton across the finish line. One of the surprises of the evening was the elimination of Bill McBryde, Manitoba's champion sprinter, when Richardson beat out Christie in 9 4-5 in a 100-yard dash heat.

PEOPLE OF WATERLOO LOOK BACK WITH PRIDE ON TOWN'S HISTORY

Modern, Progressive Town Today Stands on Site Where, in 1792, Silas Lewis Made First Opening in Dense Forest— Many Important Factors Make Waterloo One of the Most Important of All Eastern Townships Towns— Shefford County Fair By No Means One of Least of Town's Assets.

Were Silas Lewis alive today he would hardly believe his eyes could he return to visit the town of Waterloo, which has grown up about the original spot where he, as the first white settler in the district, penetrated the dense forest in 1796.

Today this sturdy, far-sighted pioneer of another day would find a modern, progressive and fast-growing town which, among other things, rightly lays claim to the title of "The Characteristic Town of the Eastern Townships."

There are numerous distinguishing factors about the town of Waterloo. First of all there is its name which is rich in history and tradition, for it was selected by the late Judge Knowlton, of Bromes, in honor of that gallant British soldier the Duke of Wellington.

Then as county seat for Shefford County the town enjoys added prestige, while, in addition, it is recognized as an important industrial centre, a town of modern stores and offices, with pleasant homes dotting its quiet and charming residential sections. Certainly there leaves little to be desired.

But that is not all that Waterloo has to boast about. Over and above all this it is the home of the Shefford County annual Fair, which is sponsored by the Shefford County Agricultural Society.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week will see this popular fair in motion. Waterloo will be in gala attire for the occasion and its people will be ready with a broad smile and friendly handshake to greet all who come to join in the festivities.

There could be no better opportunity of visiting Waterloo than during Fair week. To the former residents of the town and those who have friends or relatives residing there the Fair is a real inducement for a friendly "get-together." Others who have never been to Waterloo will find Fair Week an ideal occasion to make the town's acquaintance, to learn something of the history and nature of the place and to meet its residents.

With its history going back to the year 1796, it is only natural that Waterloo should have experienced many interesting phases in its climb to its present status. Its growth has not been all sunshine. There have been trying and discouraging times, but these problems of town-growth have been surmounted and success has crowned the task.

The history of Waterloo is an interesting one. In the year 1804, eight years after the arrival of Silas Lewis who came from Taunton, Mass., and built the first saw-mill in the district at the outlet of Lake Waterloo, the next settler to arrive was Daniel Clark. He came from Alburg, Vt.

Zephariah Harvey and Benjamin Longley, both of Marlborough, Mass., came in 1822, and the following year W. M. Whitcomb joined the small group of settlers.

These are but the beginning of the far-sighted men to whom must go much of the credit for the growth which Waterloo has realized, for they laid the foundations and made possible the development which was to follow.

Others who also did their bit in those early days were Mezziah Robins, Daniel Taylor and Charles Allen, while special mention might also be made of Dr. Rotus Parmelee, a native of Fairfax, Vt., who arrived in Waterloo in 1829. He was the first practising physician in the district and also the first inspector of schools, his success in this latter endeavor winning for him the title of "Father of Education."

Waterloo was incorporated as a village in 1867. Stephen Sewell Foster, coming from Newfane, Vt., located in the district in 1823. He later went to Frost Village, then a centre of considerable industry.

In 1860, Vespasian Nutting was appointed first clerk of the Circuit Court for Shefford, a position which he held for thirty years.

In 1825 Charels Allen, a native of Andover, Vt., came to Waterloo. A few years later he formed a partnership with Daniel Taylor, a native of Newfane, Vt., and they carried on a business of blacksmithing and cloth-dressing. In 1861 a new partnership was formed which included a son of each of the former partners.

Surrounded by the mountains of Shefford, Bromes, Orford and Sutton, Waterloo is practically situated in the midst of the Alleghanies. Each year there is an increase in the number of visitors who come from far and near to enjoy the benefits of climate and the charming scenery which the town has to offer.

Waterloo is a place where the "civente cordiale" between the English and French is outstanding. The town's population is made up almost entirely of these two races and a perfect harmony exists as it always has between these two classes of population.

The industries of Waterloo are varied. It claims many important factories and is in a position to offer many inducements and attractive offers to those seeking new fields.

Waterloo, too, has something which is distinctly unique, a feature no other town can boast of. There is a beautiful lake resting majestically in the very heart of the town. This in itself is nothing unusual, but what makes this lake outstanding is the fact that on the lake are floating islands. This is very unusual, in fact, Waterloo is the only town in Canada that can boast of such a possession.

The people of Waterloo are justly proud of their fair grounds, situated on a high elevation overlooking the town and Lake Waterloo, the grounds command an imposing view. In fact, the view from the spacious grand stand of the surrounding countryside is alone well worth the price of admission.

The first exhibition was held at Calvin Richardson's, Waterloo, and was called a "Cattle Show." This was on August 27th, 1834.

When it is considered that there were exhibited at this time nine bulls, twenty-nine milch cows, fifteen pair of working oxen, three pair of two year old steers, six pair of yearling steers, three pair of fat oxen, nine fat cows and steers, thirteen two year old heifers, five calves, ten rams, six pens of ewes, besides hogs, three stallions, twenty-two brood mares, eleven geldings, fifteen saddle mares and eight two year old cattle, one can readily recognize the appropriateness of the term "Cattle Show," by which name it was at first known.

The whole amount offered in the seventy-four premiums was $328. It is noted that His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief was present at this first Cattle Show.

The judges were as follows: Horses, Alonzo Wood, General Roswell Olcott and Colonel J. B. Hunt; cattle, Jonathan Allard, Olin Dorman and George Boright; sheep, Captain James Ball, Benjamin Martin and Pere Hoskins; swine, Alfred Nash, John Soles and John H. Robinson.

A visit to the town will convince Continued on page nine

Heigh-Ho! Let's Go!

An Old-Fashioned Country Fair!

Toronto, Chicago and Leipzig can have their expositions. We'll take an old-fashioned country fair— any day in the week!

The 101st Annual Shefford County Fair is scheduled to begin next Thursday, August 15th. It will be an old-fashioned fair with plenty of modern trimmings. Heaps of competition for Pa's hogs and steers and loads of rivalry for Ma's cakes and pies . . . . . rides and sights galore for the young folks and enough romance of an evening to suit any lad or lass in their 'teens! Sports and thrills and shows for all the family. A grand and glorious time for everyone . . . . . with many of the best things free. There will be horse racing every day and baseball games, potato races and tugs-of-war.

But that just begins to tell you what you'll see. A fair like this one is the quickest way to make you snap out of the blues. If you don't believe that this old country of ours is producing lots of wealth—right from the soil, too—well, just get ready to get your eyes full of the finest hogs, horses, mules, cattle, poultry, corn, wheat, fruit and vegetables you ever saw!

There'll be the famous Black Watch Band with their sprightly brass instruments and their wildly skirling bagpipes to set you dancing the Highland Fling if you have but one drop of Scotch blood in you.

There'll be the Midway with its Merry-go-round, its Bump the Humps and Loop-the-Loops. And to top things off, there'll be a Circus! The man on the flying trapeze! Trick dogs, monkey jockeys, bucking donkeys, dancing ponies and an educated horse! And clowns that will make you laugh regardless of your age!

Let's make a date for next week. Wherever you live, be it Granby, Sherbrooke, Montreal or any one of a hundred other places, a change of scene will do you good. Pack up the lunch basket, shine up the old bus. We'll see you at the Fair Grounds!

Waterloo Fair Starts Its Second Century With Enthusiasm

SHEFFORD AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY INAUGURATES NEW ERA NEXT WEEK

Three-Day Waterloo Fair Starting Next Thursday Will Mark One Hundred and First Anniversary of Thriving Enterprise — Many Improvements Have Been Made Since First Exhibition Was Held in Waterloo on August 27, 1834—Well-Balanced Programme Arranged for This Year's Classic.

The Shefford Agricultural Society is all prepared to usher in a new era in the history of its annual exhibition. One hundred years have transpired since the first fair was held in Waterloo on August 27th, 1834, and next Thursday will be inaugurated a three-day programme which will mark the one hundred and first birthday of this thriving enterprise.

As the descendants of those loyal freeholders who organized the Shefford County Society prepare to open the second century of this organization's life they realize the truth of the old adage that "the first hundred years are the hardest." Circumstances of the past few years have made the present officers realize and fully appreciate the struggles these pioneers waged and the handicaps they successfully overcame. They are fully aware of the efforts expended to raise the Waterloo Fair to its present high standard as the senior agricultural association in this part of the province.

It would be impossible to chronicle the many factors which contributed towards bringing the Society to its present status, but it is not impossible to stretch the imagination back one hundred years and picture the scene which occurred at Calvin Richardson's on June 25th, 1834, when a group of public-spirited citizens gathered to lay the foundation for what has flourished and developed into a prosperous and progressive organization.

One can almost visualize the discussion which arose when the project was viewed from every angle. There was the all important problem of financial support, for the governments were not as generous then as they were decades later. There was the matter of publicity for there was no such organ as the Sherbrooke Record to spread the necessary propaganda. There was the fear that the attendances would not be sufficiently large to make it worthwhile.

But the word "failure" was unknown in the vocabulary of these hardy settlers. They knew it would require untiring efforts to assure the success of the undertaking and to make more ample provision for the encouragement of agriculture. And they pledged themselves to support P. H. Knowlton, M.P.P., who was unanimously elected as president of the new Society.

The first exhibition, designated as a cattle show, was a modest affair. Farmers throughout the county brought their prize animals and there was intense rivalry as exhibitors sought part of the $328 offered as awards for the best heads. Nearly two hundred and twenty-five animals were on display.

As the years rolled by and the Society matured the popularity of the county Fair increased. Frost Village was the scene of the second exhibition, while a spot near the church in West Shefford was selected for the third exhibition, which was held on September 8, 1836. The entry list increased steadily as the popularity of the Fair grew and it was not long before it was necessary to expand the original accommodations.

The successors to these officials who guided the destinies of the Society during the first few years of its existence have all been worthy citizens. There came a time when it became necessary to form a bigger Board of Directors, and selected to these positions were business men who had the welfare of their community at heart. They furnished material and financial assistance and devoted much of their time to wards assuring the success of each year's attraction.

Six years ago a new site was obtained in Waterloo when the Society bought the farm belonging to Fred Jones. Some of the old buildings were transferred to the new grounds, which are situated on a plateau commanding a beautiful panoramic view of the town of Waterloo. From the spacious grandstand a perfect view of the beautiful lake which nestles in the heart of the town may be obtained.

New structures were erected and today the accommodation for exhibits ranks with many of the larger fairs. There are cattle sheds capable of housing one thousand head, while the horse barns are large enough to shelter the many farm horses and racers which are brought to Waterloo yearly. Sheep,

LIBERAL PARTY PREDOMINATES IN SHEFFORD COUNTY FEDERAL RECORD

Conservative Candidate Elected on Only Two Occasions in Shefford Since Confederation, Blues Being Elected in 1887 and 1930—Frequent Changes and Short Tenure for Members Features History of County in Provincial Field.

Very few counties in the Dominion have as consistent a record for supporting a political party as has Shefford, of which Waterloo is the county seat. Previous to the election of J. Ernest Tetrault, of Granby, on the Conservative ticket in 1930, by a majority of 1,606 over the Liberal candidate, P. E. Boivin, the riding had been under the Liberal banner from Confederation, except for the four-year period of 1887 to 1894.

Hon. L. S. Huntingdon, who held the seat at the time of Confederation, remained as representative for the county until 1882, when he was succeeded by M. Anger, an independent Liberal, who was elected by a majority of 135 votes in a three-cornered fight.

Taking advantage of a division in the Liberal ranks, one Audef, carrying the Conservative colors, managed to gain possession of the riding by thirty-one votes in 1887. Audef's tenure of office was short, however, for in 1891 J. R. Sanborn recaptured the seat for the Reds.

J. R. Sanborn stepped down in 1896 in favor of C. H. Parmalee, who successfully contested the elections of 1896 and 1904. Elected as a Liberal in 1908, H. E. Allen stepped aside in 1911 in favor of George H. Boivin, who managed to retain a twenty-six vote lead on the final count.

This marked the long reign of the Bovins, Hon. George, as he was later to become an assuming the Customs portfolio, holding the seat by substantial majorities until his death following the Customs inquiry of 1925.

The vacant seat was captured by Ernest Boivin, no close relative of the late minister, in 1926 by a majority of 2,769. The Conservative landslide of 1930 saw this large lead swept away and with the counting of the ballots on election night Ernest Tetrault had brought the county back into the Conservative ranks for the second time in its long history, receiving a majority of 1,606.

In the Provincial Assembly, however, the county has had a more checkered career, for with the exception of the nineteen-year occupancy of the seat from 1912 to 1931 by W. S. Bullock, now a member of the Legislative Council, no member sat for more than two consecutive terms.

Following the passage of the British North America Act, elections were held in 1867 for the first Legislative Assembly of the Province. Michel-Adrien Bessette, a supporter of the Conservative administration of that time, was the first member to go to Quebec, obtaining a majority of sixty votes.

Maurice Laframboise carried the Liberal colors to victory in 1871 and retained the seat in the 1875 campaign. Joseph-Lesiege Lafontaine, who succeeded him as Liberal champion, registered a victory in 1878, but lost out to Isidore Frégeau in 1881.

Thomas Brassard returned the riding to the Liberal column in 1886. Vacating the seat in 1888, Brassard was replaced by Tancrede B. de Grosbois, who represented the district until 1904, except for the period of 1892 to 1897, when the Conservative stalwart, Adolphe Savaria, held an uncertain tenure, being elected by a majority of forty-five in the 1892 contest.

A bye-election in 1904 saw Auguste Mathieu continue the Liberal reign for a few months, only to lose the fall election of the same year to Ludger-Pierre Bernard, who retained the county for the Blues in 1908.

Mr. Bullock fought his first campaign in 1912 and received a majority of 261 to bring the seat back to the Liberal fold. With the disorganization of the Conservatives in 1918, he was given an acclamation and in the three campaigns of 1919, 1923 and 1927 he registered majorities far in excess of the thousand mark.

On his elevation to the Legislative Council in 1931, the Liberals cast their mantle on R. B. Bachand, of Waterloo, and a champion of the Waterloo Fair, who held a substantial lead over his Conservative opponent when the final ballots were counted.

Thus, with both federal and provincial elections facing the voters in the coming few months, Shefford can be looked on as a good fighting ground, one where the electors have shown a willingness to go beyond party and look on both sides of the question, as witness at present a Conservative member at Ottawa and a Liberal deputy at Quebec.

A referendum showed the majority in favor of the new by-law, but before coming into effect it has to be sanctioned by the Provincial Government, which is now in possession of the drafted by-law. Should it become law the increase in revenue from this source would considerably reduce the taxes of the individual property holder.

TAX BURDEN AT WATERLOO WILL BE EQUALIZED

Concerns Formerly Enjoying Exemption from Taxes to Be Assessed at Twenty-Five Per Cent. of Valuation—Other Waterloo Notes of Interest.

Waterloo, Aug. 10. — The Town Council has drawn up a new by-law enabling them to regulate the tax assessment on manufacturers in the corporation, in order to equalize the burden on the ratepayers. In this way concerns formerly exempt from taxation will have to pay a tax on their plants in the ratio of a twenty-five per cent. value of their properties and a reduction of seventy-five per cent. on those who have been paying taxes on the full amount of their plants.

A referendum showed the majority in favor of the new by-law, but before coming into effect it has to be sanctioned by the Provincial Government, which is now in possession of the drafted by-law. Should it become law the increase in revenue from this source would considerably reduce the taxes of the individual property holder.

VETERAN HORSE IS ENJOYING A LIFE OF EASE

A Famous Arabian Steed, 38 Years of Age, Will Be An Attraction at the Waterloo Fair Next Week.

There are always a few public-spirited men in a community who stand ready to go to bat when the town needs a home run. James Davidson, of Waterloo, with a 650-acre farm on the hill, is like the old-time paternal squire who has at heart the joint affairs of that municipality. It is forty-five years ago since Squire Davidson adopted the policy "If you would keep young, live in the country half the year." For these forty-five years Mr. Davidson has hay-forked his way to continuous good health, all the while adding to his acres, to his herds and to the quality of his stock. He is a pure Ayrshire farmer.

Standing in one stable there is one horse which is living a life of luxury at the rare age of 38 years. He is the pet of the household, for which he has served both children and grandchildren. Coming to live on the Davidson Farm when he was five years of age "Billy" has spent those years, and he is now the grandpa of them all. Looking as cheery as a race horse "Billy" ruminates on the races he has run and on the times he has dashed away as a runaway horse just to show the folks that he can go head up and tail over the dashboard, and that he still has with him the pure blood of an ancestry reaching back to the days of the crusades when an English Knight brought back to his home a purebred Arabian stallion.

On one occasion "Billy" has run away, separating himself from bridle and rig, when miles from home and being found solacing himself with hay in his stall. At 20 years of age the horse broke his leg, and it was thought that he should be shot, as is quite usual when a high-spirited animal meets with this sort of accident. Fortunately for "Billy" and the mournful family, there is a veterinary-surgeon of parts in Waterloo Town, Dr. J. J. Irwin, and he had been taught how to handle a broken-legged racer. For several weeks "Billy" knew the delights of the man who convalesces with a charming corps of nurses to look after his every want.
