FIRST PRICE SEWING MACHINE DEPOT.

BERRY'S

Latest Patent Improved First Price Sewing Machines.—Provincial Exhibition held at Kingston in 1856; Provincial Exhibition at Montreal in 1857, as well as in 1858.

These Machines, with his Improvements, which render them more durable, require the least possible power, operate without noise, and are less dependent upon the skill of the operator than any others, while the beauty, strength and permanency of the work executed upon these machines cannot be surpassed, whether for light or heavy sewing, such as Shirt-work, Dress-making, Tailoring, Shoe Binding, Hemming, Foxing, Harness-work, Private Families or Manufacturers, &c., &c.

The Subscriber's Sewing Machines are all of his own Manufacture; therefore he most respectfully disclaims any connection with any other Manufacturing house or agency, foreign or domestic.

His sole reliance being placed in the superiority of the Machines made and sold by him, which cannot be purchased at any other place than at his office and Manufactory, corner of Anderson and LaGauchetière Streets, West End, 4 doors east of De-Bleury Street, Montreal.

Where numerous and highly respectable references, kindly permitted to private families as well as to the different Manufacturers in this City and Province, can be given.

Purchasers thoroughly instructed gratis—every Machine warranted.
