MR. SIFTON ATTACKS PRO-RECIPROCITY PARTY'S CLAIMS

Denies That Any Treaties With Most-Favored Nations Will Be Abrogated by England.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Weston, Ont., September 11.— There was no question, after the Hon. Clifford Sifton had finished his address here on Saturday night, that in the opinion of the people of Weston, Country stands before Party. All Weston, as well as a large number of people from Toronto met Mr. Sifton and his party at the station and marched in triumph to the town hall which was filled to its utmost capacity.

Dr. W. J. Charlton occupied the chair. Mr. Thomas Delworth, of Weston, President of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association, who was the first speaker, took exception to the statement that had been made to the effect that he was pleading for a higher tariff. He had heard, he said, that a large hotel had been complaining about the exorbitant price of potatoes, but he was quite sure that a man who could afford to live in a hotel and pay $3 for a meal, would not fight to any great extent for a reduction of a few cents duty. Mr. Delworth quoted figures as to the exports of the market garden produce from different States in the Union, and said he failed to see what benefit the market gardener would derive from exporting his product into a market already more or less glutted.

Mr. Sifton who followed, received a great ovation. At the outset he assured his audience that he was not guided by partisan motives, but that it was on the ground that the reciprocity pact was adverse to the prosperity of the country, that he pleaded the cause of the Opposition candidate.

"We have had a protective tariff since 1879," Mr. Sifton said, "which was inaugurated by Sir John A. Macdonald. Since that date, the Hon. W. S. Fielding has made some changes, but none of any great importance. Railways have been constructed with the aid of public money. People have been placed on Western lands. Large sums of money have been expended in the construction and improvement of Canada's waterways within the past ten years, with the result that we have pursued a course of great national prosperity.

"Nowhere has there been such a vast change as in Ontario, where we have built up a large market, in which the Canadian farmer sells eighty-five per cent. of his produce, three or four per cent. going to miscellaneous countries, and 12 per cent. to Great Britain. The result of these conditions is that the Eastern and Western Provinces are inter-dependent, and the bringing into operation of the reciprocity pact would cause a disaster from which we would never recover. At the present time the country is wealthy; there never was such a time when money and the right class of immigrants flowed into the country, and what reason have we to be dissatisfied? (Applause.)

NO ABROGATION OF FAVORED NATION TREATIES

"Another cause for concern lies in the fact that besides the United States twelve other nations get the freedom of our market. There is no particle of truth in the Government press statement that the Imperial Parliament will abrogate any of the treaties that exist to this effect, for the resolution passed at the Colonial Conference asking that the Home Government facilitate the abrogation of the favored-nation clauses did not materialize.

"The main reason for Sir John A. Macdonald's advocacy of reciprocity twenty years ago was that the scarcity of proper transportation facilities prevented produce especially perishable produce, being transported to European countries, and only afforded opportunities south across the line. It was within all reason then. Now, however, conditions have improved; the country's products can be transported all over the world, and Canada is open to the competition of the world, and, upon these facts alone no one dares to infer that Sir John A. Macdonald would have supported the 'pact now.

In his peroration, Mr. Sifton challenged Mr. H. H. Dewart, the Liberal candidate for Centre York, to state why the negotiations had been entered into with the Taft Government at this period. He also urged the people not to let their chances to smash this agreement slip by, because if they did, the country would meet with a disaster from which it would never recover.

Mr. T. Wallace, the Conservative candidate, also spoke briefly.

MR. J. N. GREENSHIELDS FIGHTING RECIPROCITY.

"It passes by 'like the idle wind which one respecteth not,'" said Mr. J. N. Greenshields yesterday when asked about certain statements made by David Russell and published in one of the reciprocity organs of Montreal. "I am in this campaign as earnestly and as vigorously as I ever have been in any campaign. I expect to address meetings at Thetford, Black Lake and other places in Megantic County, and also to put my services at the disposal of the organization of the anti-reciprocity campaign in other counties of the Eastern Townships. I am opposed to reciprocity on every count and I am going to fight it as hard as I ever fought anything in my life."

MR. MONK AND MR. BOYER IN MEETING AT VERDUN.

On Saturday night the electors of Verdun were given the opportunity of hearing the two candidates in Jacques Cartier. The meeting was held in the Town Hall, and was presided over by Councillors Hadley and J. A. Leclair. Among those present on the platform, besides the candidates, Messrs. Monk and Boyer, were Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C., and Councillor McMahon, Mr. Lacoste, Mr. John Boyd, and Mr. J. A. Decarie.

Death of Miss M. H. O'Meara.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cap a l'Aigle, Que., September 11.— Much sorrow is expressed here at the sudden death of Miss Mary Henrietta (Minnie) O'Meara, second daughter of the late Mr. J. P. O'Meara, of Quebec. Miss O'Meara had spent many summers at this place.

TRYING TO "DUMP" TAFT.

The pro-Reciprocity leaders are perceiving the necessity of lightening the ship. They are feverishly throwing overboard everything that endangers their safety as they run before the rising storm.

They began the process by tossing overboard the Protected Manufacturer. Fielding's pathetic appeal to him not to be frightened and to "trust us" having failed, they turned on him with open threats. If he dared to prevent the ratification of the agreement with which the political life of Mr. Fielding and his colleagues was bound up, they would let the farmers loose on him, and his entire Protection would be torn from about him.

* * * * * *

To their dismay, they have discovered that the Manufacturer did not go overboard alone. He took his Workmen with him. If the Manufacturer is to find business slack because of the flooding out of his Home Market, it is only too plain to the men on his pay-roll that they will have less work and poorer pay. The Manufacturer may lose his dividends; but the Workingman will lose his job.

The consequence is that the pro-Reciprocity people have been frantically endeavouring to fish the Workingman back on board ever since they made this fatal mistake. They are trying all sorts of bait to catch him. One of the "fishiest" forms of bait seems to have been invented—appropriately enough—by Fisher, Sydney Fisher; and it consists in telling the Workingman that, though the farmer will get more for his produce under Reciprocity, the Workingmen will pay less for it. Obviously, this is a patent attempt to fool either the Workingman or the Farmer. Which it is, we leave to the Workingmen and the Farmers of the country to decide.

But, however this may go, the Workingman has a quite sufficient reason for opposing Reciprocity in the fact that it puts his job in peril.

* * * * * *

The latest load to be "dumped" overboard, however, is the by no means light weight of President Taft. Taft was, to begin with, the great hero of the pro-Reciprocity party. He was the first American President who really loved Canada, and wanted to present her with a handsome gift. Moreover, he loved Britain, and desired to give her an unlimited Arbitration Treaty. He was all smiles—was Taft. Not a bit like the wicked Cleveland, the hostile McKinley, the cynical Blaine.

The editor of the Toronto "Globe" had met him personally, and knew just what a fine man he was. When Taft wanted an excuse to get rid of that huge "bluff," the maximum Aldrich tariff against Canada, the "Globe's" editor gave up his holiday to run back to Ottawa to get him that excuse. "Working for Taft" was a job of which any patrotic Canadian might be proud. So when Taft whispered "Reciprocity," the "Globe" went into ecstacies; and when he shut Britain's mouth with a bogus Arbitration Treaty, the "Globe" hailed him as worthy to be linked with "Edward, the Peacemaker."

* * * * * *

But now all is changed. The Canadian people have found Taft out. And the pro-Reciprocity leaders are compelled to dump him into the sea. They tell Mr. Taft, in the rudest possible fashion, that he does not know what he is talking about when he says that Canadians are "coming to the parting of the ways;" though they have been telling us for months that he meant absolutely nothing by that harmless little phrase.

These changes of temperature are very trying. If Taft meant nothing when he gloated over our reaching "the parting of the ways," why kick him overboard now for saying it; while if he meant what his language seemed to imply, what are we to think of the honesty of the party which has labored week in and week out to convince us that his words had no sinister meaning?

* * * * * *

The fact is, however, that Taft meant exactly what he said, and the pro-Reciprocity people have not "dumped" him a day too soon. He had meant, and he means—

The disruption of the British Empire—

The breaking of "the light and almost imperceptible bond uniting the Dominion to the Motherland"—

The prevention of a trade agreement between Canada and Great Britain—

The incorporation of Canada in the American rather than the British commercial system—

"Free Trade in everything" between Canada and the United States—i.e.: Commercial Union—

And, ultimately, the annexation of Canada to the United States—the coming of the day (to quote the language of his franker ally, Champ Clark) "when the American flag will float over every square foot of British North American possessions clear to the North Pole."

* * * * *

The vital question is, however, CAN THEY "DUMP" TAFT? Will he stay "dumped"? Is Taft in this business for the sole purpose of obliging Mr. Fielding and his colleagues? Taft may be willing—astute politician that he is—to remain in hiding until after the Canadian elections. He may be willing that his Canadian co-workers, not only "dissemble their love," but "kick him down the back-stairs" as well—purely for campaign purposes.

But will he not come up again when the victory has once been won for Continentalism—when Canadian trade has been grafted on that of the United States—when the British "bond" has been rendered even "lighter" than it is?

Taft, and the men behind him, are still to be reckoned with. They have not gone into this thing for their health. They meant business, and they mean business. They will not turn back because they have won a victory. Success does not discourage—it encourages. We will have Taft on our backs heavier than ever if we accept his policy and take the path at "the parting of the ways," which he desires.

We believe heartily in the wisdom of "dumping Taft"; but the way to "dump" him, is to "dump" his policy—not to accept his policy and hope that he will not ride in on its back.

LETTERS WHICH SETTLED THE FIRE DEPT. TROUBLE.

Sub-Chief Apologizes to Chief and Latter Reinstates Assistant.

The letters of the Chief of the Fire Brigade and Sub-Chief Marin which settled the differences between them are as follows—

Montreal, September 9, 1911.

His Worship
Hon J. J. Guerin,
Mayor of Montreal.
Sir—,

I, Oscar Marin, regret that in a moment of excitement I said things which might have been construed to reflect upon the discipline of the Fire Brigade, and to injure the reputation of my superior, Chief Tremblay.

I recognize that thereby I acted in a manner contrary to the good discipline which should prevail in the department.

I hope that my chief may accept this explanation and that the good feeling which existed in the past may again prevail.

I subscribe myself,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) OSCAR MARIN.

Montreal, September 11, 1911.

His Worship,
Hon. J. J. Guerin,
Mayor of Montreal.
Sir—

I, the undersigned, Chief of the Montreal Fire Brigade, accept with pleasure the statement of Sub-Chief Marin, whom I re-instate in his functions and against whom I entertain no animosity on account of what is referred to in his letter to the Mayor of September 9, 1911.

(Signed) J. TREMBLAY,
Chief.

EMPLOYERS WARN THEIR EMPLOYES.

Reciprocity Means Less Work at Poorer Pay, Says A. Sommer and Co.

How many manufacturers view the reciprocity agreement is shown in a notice printed in large letters which is being circulated by A. Sommer & Co., among their employees and is posted in their factory. The circular reads:

> "A vote for the Liberal Government and Reciprocity, means further dumping of American merchandise in our market, injury to our industries less work, poorer pay, and higher prices for living. "A vote for the Conservative party means more protection for our industries, more factories to be erected in Canada; hence more work and higher wages."

LORD C. BERESFORD ON CONDITION OF DOMINION TO-DAY

Special to The Montreal Star

Calgary, Alta., September 11.—"That is your matter, I would say, that if Canada sees she can better what she has by the adoption of the proposed reciprocity compact with the United States, it is the thing for her to do; but if she can get better than what she has now, it would be a miracle." said Lord Charles Beresford, when asked what he thought of Reciprocity.

Lord Charles Beresford passed through Calgary on Saturday with the Duke of Sutherland and the Earl of Desborough, after spending a few days on the Duke's farm at Brooks, near here. They are now bound for Fort George and Pacific Coast points. Lord Charles was more willing to talk on matters other than political.

"The bumper crop that your province is producing this year is sure to attract thousands of English emigrants to Alberta," he declared. "This is indeed a splendid country, and today it is recognized as such in England, with the result that you are getting the very best class of English emigrants, both in your cities and on your farms."

Lord Beresford was emphatic in declaring that England's naval defences were not adequate for the large Empire she has to defend. "England to-day has a larger navy than ever before," he remarked, "but the increase in her naval armament has not kept pace with the increase in her responsibilities and the increase in the world's armament. I got all the Dreadnoughts I asked for last year, with the exception of two, but we need more yet. Appropriations were made for 38 out of 50 torpedo boats asked for, and I was specially pleased by the provision which was made for a larger enrollment of seamen than we had hoped to be able to obtain.

FOOLISH TO BUILD DREADNOUGHTS.

"I might remark that we were the first nation to build a Dreadnought, and that it has proven a foolish move. It has entailed upon the people of all nations a most heavy burden, for the competition between nations in the building of Dreadnoughts has been most keen. The result to ourselves has been a tremendous addition to the national debt. In order to bring our navy up to the relative standard of ten years ago, the nation would have to assume a most heavy obligation.

"I am for peace, but believe it can be maintained through armament. Our relations with our neighbors at times create a grave situation when we are least expecting it. If we became involved in a war with a first-class naval power, our navy is not up to the relative standard of ten years ago. A war to-day with such a power would cost not less than sixteen hundred million sterling if we won, and would so upset economic conditions that the nation would be a generation in recovering. It would seem cheaper for the country to build up a strong navy as a preventitive."

British Cabinet Minister Alleged to Have Made This Declaration to Correspondent.

TENSION IS SERIOUS IN PARIS AT PRESENT

ngland Strengthening Mediterranean Defences—German Demands Grasping.

pecial to The Montreal Star.

Paris, Sept. 11.—According to ne version, Germany demands a Congo outlet by way of the Sanga iver, the "most-favored-nation" reatment in Morocco, 40 instead f 20 per cent. of all Moroccan ublic contracts, as specified by he Algeciras treaty, and that rance become responsible for the Ioroccan Government. It is a oregone conclusion that France vill refuse these demands.

RENCH AMBASSADOR HURRIES FROM LONDON.

pecial to The Montreal Star.

Paris, September 11.— M. Paul on,, the French representative at ondon and brother of M. Jules Cambong, the French representative at erlin, has been summoned to Paris urriedly to confer with the Governnt.

The nature of Germany's reply to e proposals submitted by France ith the idea of reaching an agreeent regarding the Moroccan proem has affected French government rcles unpleasantly.

Germany's counter-proposals were reived in Paris on Saturday night, nd after being submitted to lengthy xamination on the part of Premier aillaux and Foreign Minister de Selves, it was decided to refer the proosals to specialists on Moroccan quesons.

Germany asks, it appears, that every aim of German subjects to concesons in Morocco shall be recognized France, and that no new enterise shall be started under the French otectorate without being internaonalized equally.

The claims of German subjects, parcularly those of Mannesmann Bros., d speculative companies organized them, are enormous.

The German terms also ask for a ee hand in Morocco, with conditions at would, according to the French ew, deprive France of all her adntages, and would give Germany ivileges in Morocco beyond those of y power, even France. There seems likelihood of the French Governent accepting the German counteroposals.

A semi-official note issued to-day ys that M. De Selves has examined e observations presented by the German Government, in reply to the rench proposals, and that the Forgn Minister probably will take a vorable view of the suggestions conined therein, for establishing the onomic equality of the powers in orocco; but that in opposition to is international economic equality e privileges desired by Germany one.

FINANCES IN BERLIN IMPROVED TO-DAY.

pecial to The Montreal Star.

Berlin, September 1.—The reassurg statements made by Herr Von iderlin-Waechter, Foreign Minister, prominent financiers in regard to e Moroccan situation had the effect strengthening prices on the Bourse -day. Prices advanced an average six per cent.

ENGLAND REINFORCING MEDITERRANEAN FORCES.

London, September 11.—It is reorted here that strong drafts of arrison have been ordered to hold hemselves in readiness to reinforce the Mediterranean defences.

MORE SPANISH TROOPS TO MELILLA.

Madrid, September 11.—Five thouand Spanish troops have received rders from the Ministry of War to enforce the Spanish garrison at Melilla, on the Riff coast of Morocco.

MR. J. B. LALIBERTE IS STILL A LIBERAL.

Mr. J. B. Laliberte, who has been isted among the Liberals who will lace country before party and vote gainst reciprocity, wires the Star from Ottawa to the effect that this is mistake. He says:

CANADIAN NEWSPAPERS ON HEARST'S INTERFERENCE

Declare It to Be An Insult to the Electors of Canada, And An Indication of Inherent Weakness on the Part of the Cause, Which Inspires and Supinely Accepts Such Assistance.

Here are the telegrams from leading newspapers of Canada regarding the interference of Hearst's American newspapers in the Canadian elections. All of them denounce in unmeasured terms the unparalleled effrontery of the American yellow journals in their attempt to tell Canadians how they shall vote. Incidentally they point out the inherent weakness of the cause which inspires and supinely accepts such "assistance." The telegrams were read at Saturday night's mass meeting and each of them provoked great applause from the ten thousand electors present:

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 8, 1911.

Louis Pelletier and Rufus H. Pope, Montreal.

While Hearst is a great man in the United States and wields a tremendous influence in American politics, as shown by the fact that he, more than any other man, was responsible for precipitating the war with Spain, by which the United States obtained commercial control of Cuba and made that island practically a vassal of Uncle Sam, his interference in the domestic affairs of Canada, doubtless with the same end in view, should be bitterly resented by every self-respecting Canadian without regard to party, and we believe this resentment will be shown in no unmistakable manner at the polls on September 21st.

(Signed),

THE HALIFAX HERALD.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 9, 1911.

Louis Pelletier and Rufus Pope:

Infamous Hearst papers have been circulated free in New Brunswick. Their bogus and lying reports excite general indignation. The Times has entered strongest possible protest against these miserable intrigues and against the manifest alliance of the administration with annexationists of the United States. Canadians would be less than free men if they did not resent such unwarranted and unprecedented interference by foreign plotters in our domestic political affairs. "It is her soul that Canada risks."

(Sgd.). THE TIMES

Sydney, N.S., Sept. 9, 1911.

Rufus H. Pope, Montreal:—

The Sydney Post joins heartily in the protest against the interference of the base American press in the affairs of Canada. The determination of Canadians to continue a free people, masters of their own destinies, is the principal factor in the opposition to a reciprocity 'pact, which, on its material side, sacrifices our interests, and turns us from the path in which such splendid progress is being made.

(Sgd.) SYDNEY DAILY POST.

Sydney, Sept. 9, 1911.

Rufus H. Pope, Montreal:—

No patriotic Canadian can have anything but the most profound contempt for the degraded partisans whose moral squint is so pronounced that they characterize the reasonable anti-reciprocity sentiment of the British-born as a stirring up of race prejudice, but do not hesitate to accept the notorious anti-British sensation monger Hearst as their ally in a campaign to wipe Canada off the face of the map. If Canadians are wise they will let their minds hark back to Mr. Hearst's exploits at the time of the Spanish war. They will "REMEMBER THE MAINE."

QUEBEC CHRONICLE.

Brockville, Ont.,
Sept. 9, 1911.

Louis Pelletier, R. H. Pope, Montreal.

The pretence that Hearst is "following the Trusts into Canada," under the cover of which he is flooding the country with his lying papers, will not hold water.

John Norris, the lobbyist of the American Newspaper Association, testified before the Tariff Enquiry Commission, at Washington, that reciprocity would mean a saving of $600,000 a year to the Hearst papers.

In view of this fact, Hearst's abominable lying campaign in Canada is easily understood. When Hearst yells "Boodle" from the Trusts against reciprocity, he is throwing dust in the air to hide his own boodle for reciprocity, in his own private interests and to forward his personal ambitions by achieving the first step towards annexation.

That would seem to be the most logical explanation of his unwarranted, gratuitous, and insolent interference in our domestic affairs.

THE BROCKVILLE TIMES.

London, Ont., Sept. 8, 1911.

Louis, Peltier, Montreal:

When Roosevelt declared British rule was the best thing for Egypt and had accomplished wonders there, Hearst, through his newspapers, denounced Roosevelt and bitterly attacked British rule, cabling his attack from Paris.

The policy in Canada to-day that is receiving the support of Hearst leads to annexation if Hearst knows anything about it. Therefore the policy that Hearst is supporting is a safe policy for all those who love Canada to avoid and to shun.

EDITOR LONDON FREE PRESS.

Calgary, Alberta, Sept. 9, 1911.

Rufus H. Pope, Montreal:

Hearst's reputation as the chief newspaper liar of the United States should be alone sufficient to condemn him in the mind of any decent Canadian. The fact that such tactics as his are being used on behalf of the Government is sufficient to show that the Government campaign is not in the best interests of this country.

(Signed) CALGARY HERALD.

Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 9, 1911.

Rufus H. Pope, Montreal:

We consider the interference of the Hearst newspapers in Canadian affairs a most impudent and outrageous proceeding, inspired unquestionably by the United States Trusts, which are seeking control of Canadian resources.

DAILY PROVINCE.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 9, 1911.

Louis Peltier, Montreal:

We condemn as a meddlesome and unwarrantable interference with Canadian politics the actions of the Hearst newspaper in the present campaign.

The effects of this hireling newspaper campaign which are apparently endorsed by President Taft, cannot but be resented in the most emphatic manner by Canadians on polling day.

We can recall no similar interference by one nation with the affairs of another, and it furnishes an interesting spotlight on what a large section of Americans believe will be the ultimate outcome of the Reciprocity 'pact if it goes into effect.

ALDERMEN VOTE TO VETO BOARD'S PAVING REPORT

Object to Absence of Asphalt from Recommendations Made by Controllers.

At a stormy caucus of aldermen at the City Hall to-day it was decided that, at the meeting of the City Council this afternoon, the report of the Board of Control approving of the paving of various streets in granite and scoria and asking that no money be spent this season for asphalt pavements in twelve streets, should be turned down.

The reason given by the controllers were that the season was now too far advanced, and also that the price asked by contractors for asphalt was considerably higher than quoeed last spring.

Ald. Lariviere and others contended that the price had not been raised materially by the contractors; they also held that there was plenty of time.

It was decided that Council should either amend the report or send it back for consideration.

WILL VOTE BORDEN

Dr. Theodore F. Chamberlain, Active Liberal for Half a Century and Former Liberal Member of the Ontario Legislature, Comes Out Against Reciprocity.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Alexandria, Ont., September 9—Dr. Theodore F. Chamberlain's pronounced Liberalism for fifty years is known throughout Eastern Ontario. The doctor formerly represented Dundas in the Provincial Legislature and was an earnest supporter of Hon. Oliver Mowat and the Hon. Edward Blake.

A Star representative met him to-day and asked:—

"Is it true that you have decided to oppose the Laurier Government?"

"Most decidedly," responded Dr. Chamberlain. "Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues have betrayed their Liberal friends and violated their promises."

"First—The action of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in suddenly proroguing Parliament when he had a splendid working majority and refusing to debate the real issues before the country—this was a violation of Liberal principles. The prorogation of the House, without estimates being voted, and before re-distribution under the census, savors of political trickery, and is a violation of popular rights.

"Secondly—The continued strangling of pledges made prior to 1896.

"Thirdly—The wide spread corruption, unexampled extravagance, the waste of public money and national resources in short, general mal-administration and disregard of constitutional rights as understood and believed in by every intelligent citizen.

"Lastly—The general expectation of political changes in the United States, since realized, rendered it absolutely superfluous that Sir Wilfrid Laurier should force and coerce his followers into approving of the compact made at Washington, having no special term to run, and surrendering the Canadian market at a period when Canada has been pledged to further expenditure aggregating at least $400,000,000."

Dr. Chamberlain further stated that he would enlarge on these views at public meetings throughout Eastern Ontario.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, September 11.—Rev. J. B. Freeman, a prominent Winnipeg clergyman and a life-long Liberal, has come out against reciprocity. Mr. Freeman was present at a meeting on Friday night in the interests of Alex. Haggart, Conservative candidate in Winnipeg, and stated that he had deserted Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the matter of reciprocity, and he had been forced to seek a new leader, whom he had found in Mr. R. L. Borden.

He claimed that reciprocity had never been an issue in the country since he had been a voter. They had never been able to make it so, because the United States had not allowed them, but now they were permitted, it was false to claim that it had been before the country all these years. He asserted that a large number were leaving the Liberal party at the present time, not only in Ontario, but among the farmers of the West, and they could not find any one who was going over to the other side.

"I find," said the speaker, "that the brainiest men in the country are in agreement with me."

His objection to the pact was that it was secret, sudden, and autocratic. It had been forced from two sources—the one in the United States and the other the men who falsely claimed to represent the farmers of the West. They had forced themselves on Sir Wilfrid Laurier and did not allow him to eat till he had given in.

Mr. John Gray, of the contracting firm of Gray & Wighton, stated to-day that he would cast his first vote against a Liberal candidate in the coming election. He said he could not swallow the reciprocity agreement, as he thought it would be very harmful. Mr. Gray said he failed to understand how the farmers could sell their produce for more while at the same time the consumers could buy for less. He had always been a Liberal, but he put his country before party as he was convinced that British connection would eventually be destroyed if the Laurier Government was sustained at the polls on the 21st September.

Mr. George A. Robinson, of the firm of Hall & Robinson, the well known florists, told a representative of the Star to-day that he intended to vote against reciprocity. He said he had never voted against Liberal candidates before, and had usually been chairman of a Liberal committee room. He said he had not turned Conservative, but was opposed to reciprocity. In his opinion, the agreement, if adopted, would ruin the port of Montreal, and would have a bad effect on business generally.

NEW GLASGOW GIVES R. L. BORDEN A GREAT SEND-OFF

Thousands Besiege the Depot to Shake Hands With Leader and Wish Him Victory.

Special Staff Correspondence.

New Glasgow, N.S., September 11.—When the Halifax to Sydney train pulled into the station here on Saturday evening, the passengers beheld a scene at once unique and impressing.

"What is it? What is it" they were asking one another.

The station platform from one end to the other, was a mass of people, shouting, cheering and crowding hither and thither.

The explanation was not far to seek. The monster meeting in the new Glasgow rink had just broken up, and Mr. Borden had come down to take the train for Sydney.

Rarely has a political leader been given such a send-off. The crowd at the station ran up into thousands and their enthusiasm was at boiling point.

Immediately upon Mr. Borden's arrival at the station he became the centre of a mass of people who were trying to get near enough to shake hands with him. Then the band from Truro which had led the procession from the rink, arrived with flaring torches and sent up three hearty cheers for Mr. Borden and for their own county of Colchester. Instantly the crowd from all quarters of the station surged down to the point where Mr. Borden was standing. They all wanted to see and, if possible, meet him.

The crushing became opressive, and in an effort to relieve it the band was sent off to another corner of the platform to attract the crowd thither. But little relief was experienced even by this ruse. The people still insisted upon crowding about Mr. Borden. After a little he withdrew to the rear of the platform to seek a quieter place, but there the crowd followed, and so enthusiastic did they become that they insisted on carrying Mr. Adam C. Bell, the Conservative candidate on their shoulders.

By this time the people from one end of the platform to the other was engaged in shouting political cries. It was evident that there were a good many Liberals in the crowd, for now and then a cheer went up for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but the cheers for the Premier appeared to be raised rather in jest, as they were invariably accompanied by the laughter of some of those who joined in the cheering.

At last the crowd grew so dense and so difficult to manage that the railway officials began to fear that there might be an accident when the train drew in. Consequently word was sent up the yard to signal the engineer to slow down, and the train drew into the station with the utmost caution.

Mr. Borden entered the train immediately on its arrival, but the crowd still continued its demonstration. Cheer upon cheer went up and the train drew out of New Glasgow amidst the shouts of thousands and the waving of hats and flags.

This was the conclusion of Mr. Borden's first meeting in the province of Nova Scotia.

INSANITY DEFENCE IN CASE OF HAYES WHO SHOT GIRL

Defense Will Attempt to Show That Man Was Not in His Right Mind at the Time.

MISS WAMAR NOW OUT OF EMINENT DANGER

Detective, Who Arrested Hayes, Tells of Alleged Statements He Made.

If the line of cross-examining conducted by Mr. Pierre Ledieu, on behalf of Napoleon Hayes, accused of attempted murder, are to be taken as a criterion of his proposed line of defence, the Canadian tribunals are going to be confronted with a "brain storm" defence. "Temporary insanity," to all appearances, will be the reply of the defence to the charge hanging against Hayes.

He is charged with having shot Miss Juliette Wamar, last Friday afternoon. The latter is now lying at the Notre Dame Hospital and is said to be out of immediate danger. The shooting occurred at No. 24 St. Elizabeth street.

The clothes worn by the victim on the day of the affair were produced in Court this morning at the special request of Judge Lanctot. Dr. G. L. Prudhomme, of the Notre Dame Hospital, exhibited the waist and skirt. They had been perforated in three places by the balls from the revolver.

According to Detective Demers, the accused admitted that when he bought the revolver, it was with the idea of using it to take his own life. He had been despondent, and while passing St. Elizabeth street had been called in by the woman now lying in the hospital.

Detective Charbonneau effected the arrest. Hayes was standing on the doorstep of the house at No. 88 Sanguinet and when he saw the detective approaching had drawn his gun. He was promptly knocked down and subdued.

Cross-examined by Mr. Ledieu, the officer stated that although the prisoner did not appear to be very much under the influence of liquor, he acted like a man in a trance.

Henri Guenette, of 414 Cadieux street, saw the accused a few minutes before the shooting. He acted like one demented, gesticulated and loudly talking to himself.

Detective Eugene Laflamme produced forty-one cartridges and an automatic Savage revolver found in Hayes' pocket. Three exploded shells and two full ones were still in the gun.

"What are they going to do with me," detective Lajoie says Hayes asked him when taken to headquarters. "Are they going to hang me. Let them go ahead and do it. He volunteered the statement to the detective that he had bought the revolver to do away with himself.

Mrs. Charles Chartrand, keeper of the house at No. 88 Sanguinet Street where Hayes had his room, stated that Hayes had been drinking very heavily. A few minutes after he entered her house last Friday afternoon, she had heard a muffled noise in the room of the accused. She could not swear that it was a revolver shot but upon entering the room, she noticed a very strange smell and the left hand of the prisoner was bleeding. One cartridge was on the floor, while there was a hole caused by a 32 calibre revolver ball in the top drawer of the bureau.

Hayes was remanded for voluntary statement on the 18th.

President Murphy Has Called a N. L. U. Meeting For To-morrow Night

DR. NOVINGER WON THE AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP OF MONTREAL AND DISTRICT DURING SATURDAY'S CONTEST

MR. H. H. HILTON.

This English crack golfer will meet Geo. S. Lyon.

The Montreal and District Golf Championship, which was played on the links of the Royal Montreal Golf Club on Saturday, was won by Dr. J. T. Novinger, of the Outremont Club, who turned in a card of 156, for the thirty-six holes, just one stroke better than Alex Wilson, of the Royal Montreal Club, a former Canadian Amateur Champion. In the morning round Dr. Novinger and Alex. Wilson led the field each claiming a seventy-seven for thef first eighteen holes The afternoon round however, saw the Outremont player gain one stroke on his opponent, which proved enough to win him the championship. In looking over the scores of the two players, it is found that Dr. Novinger won the battle on the last green where he holes out in a four, to Alex. Wilson's five. The champion, went out in the afternoon in 41 to his opponents 42, while both players came home in 30.

The test to-day was an 18-hole medal play round with a similar round to-morrow forenoon, after which holders of the best 32 cards will play an 18-hole match play round in the afternoon. Only 64 players can start to-morrow. A special prize goes to the best card for the 36-holes, while a gold medal and a year's possession by his club of the Havemeyer cup for the winner, with a silver medal to the runner-up and bronze medals for the other two semi-finalists.

A couple of caddies were the only companions of most of the early pairs, for the gallery seemed willing to wait until noon, when Hilton was on the card to start with Max Behr of St. Andrews. So during the forenoon, the players had the course pretty nearly to themselves.

Playing had not proceeded very long before the dark clouds began to roll in from the Sound, but only a foot of snows tops golf so the weather was entirely disregarded.

The two leaders scores were as follows:

Dr. J. T. Novinger, Outremont:
First round—

In .. ..534544454—38—77
Second round—

Second round—
Out .. .. 653754435—42
In .. .. 534444455—80

The day was not what could be called perfect for golfing, there being a slight fog throughout the morning, which at intervals increased into a soaking mist, making the grass very heavy.

On a whole, the golf played was not in any respect spectacular, and although there were several scores of 77 turned in, none of the players seemed able to approach any records. Dr. Novinger with a seventy-seven in the morning and a seventy-nine in the afternoon played a [illegible] game throughout the day and [illegible] deserves the title of champion.

Many of the golfers had expected G. A. Hutton, of Beaconsfield, the present Amateur Champion, to be amongst the leaders. He, however, was very ill during the morning, which accounts for his score.

In the team contest, the Royal Montreal Club's first team easily won, with a total score of 641.

The scores were as follows:

LACHINE NEARLY WON FROM THE SONS OF SCOTLAND

The Locos Defeated the Dragoons on the Latter's Ground at St. Johns.

Once again the senior soccer pack were in full cry after league points, five games being pulled off, resulting in five winners.

Royal Rovers had a warm handful in Sons of England, but came out on top, by 2-1. The Blues started favorites, and kept up their reputation. As the score would indicate, it was a good close hard game, with little in it and that little fell to Rovers. Reynolds and Willetts, scored for Royal Rovers. Sons of England, are slipping away from the good league position they have held so long, two defeats on successive Saturdays doing a lot of damage.

Grand Trunk fully bore out anticipations by defeating the Railroaders. The score was 3—1, with the Trunks leading at half time 2—0. It was always the G. T's hand, but in fixtures like this one, when no matter league positions, rivalry is keen, it always behooves a team to step warily, otherwise unexpected disaster presents itself. To retain even the slender chance they have of the championship, the Trunks must win all three remaining matches, and to this end they will throw nothing away.

Fairmout's hopes of revenge were dashed to ground, for Valleyfield came, saw and conquered by 3—1. This was a very important game, the result meaning much to both teams. After the previous week's victory over Sons of England, Fairmount were quite confident of taking the Cotton boys' measure, but it was not to be, as Valleyfield won after a hard struggle. As usual in games of this nature, excitement was great and a lot of unnecessary rough play was seen. McPherson, of Fairmount, was ordered off for fighting, and to add to their cup of misfortune, the Fairies missed a penalty.

Sons of Scotland had an awful fight at Lachine, where the home town boys ran the league leaders to the close score of 3—2. Lachine put up one of the stiffest games the Scots have had this season, and that is saying a lot. Sons of Scotland scored first, and Lachine equalized, holding their own to the interval, with the score 1—1. Shortly after resuming, Lachine took the lead, and held it for some time. The Scots tried every trick on the board to draw level and at last succeeded. Then came the struggle for the winning goal. Try as they would, the Scots could make no impression on Lachine's defence. A penalty came to the rescue, from which Jimmy May scored. Sons of Scotland were thus saved the mortification of being defeated, in sharing points, with a club situated on the bottom rung of the league ladder. Had Lachine in the early season, been able to show the form displayed the last two Saturdays, it is a moral certainty that they would not be in their present position. They have "arrived," too late.

Locos went to St. Johns and defeated the Dragoons by 1—0. The soldiers were minus Moore and Davidson, and as an offset, Locos were without Bald. A good game was seen with a blank sheet at half time. Half way through the second period of play, Macfarlane scored for Locos, and keeping their one goal lead, inflicted the first defeat of the season on the Dragoons' own turf. Locos are finishing the season in good style.

C. P. R. had a runaway victory over Grand Trunk Juniors in the Rosemount Shield re-play, winning by the big score of 6—1. It is a big question as to what Delight's injury had to do with the result, as up to his retirement the teams were on level terms, and the Juniors going strong. The first half was even, with a good display of football, but the second belonged to C. P. R. and them only.

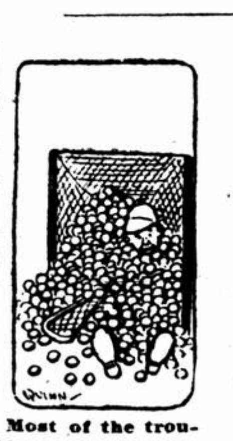
A BIT OF LACROSSE ADVICE



Most of the trouble happened close where Mr. Clinger resided.

NATIONAL DEFENCE
QUINN

Shamrocks found it a little difficult to get through

The meeting of the N.L.U., called by President Murphy for the purpose of discussing his decision on the Montreal-National game of September 4, will be held to-morrow night at 7.30, in the Windsor Hotel, Montreal. Letters requesting the meeting were in the hands of the President, on Saturday, at noon ,and while the N.L.U. rules call for a full two days' notice, Tuesday was decided upon, owing to Sunday intervening as the proper day for the meeting.

The best that can be said about Saturday's lacrosse match, on the Shamrock Grounds, is that it was an excellent practice for the Nationals.

The Shamrock players, no doubt, did their best according to their lights and the score shows the result.

A row in the Grand Stand, which did not cause any serious trouble, was another illustration of the necessity of ample police protection.

A few gentlemen of warlike temperament spilled themselves out on the front lawn.

As it was, the crowd from the bleachers swarmed over the playing ground and towards the grand stand, just the same as they did in the Montreal-National match, only the bleacherites numbered few this time.

The only bright feature of the whole entertainment is that the penalty slate was exceptionally clean.

While giving the fullest praise to the Shamrocks for tryng to build up a new team from the botttom, the fact cannot be denied that in the meantime their lacrosse reputation, with its background of a glorious past, is going to wrack and ruin, and their exchequer is suffering.

The crowds on the M. A. A. A. grounds on Labor Day, showed that Lacrosse is just as popular as ever, and that people will spend their money just as quickly as in the past, to see what they expect to be a well-contested match, whioh last Saturday's match certainly could not be called. In truth, had it not been for Hyland herding the home players, into some semblance of combination, the score would have been worse.

Therefore, the advice of a well-known hockey man does not seem amiss, particularly as there are other teams suffering similarly to the Shamrocks:

This gentleman says:

"To draw good gates, there must be good players. To get good players there must be a supply. In the first place, there is no adequate supply in the East. There will not be for a couple of years, for it will take that long for a crop of players to ripen.

"The only way to increase the supply is to raise the barriers that now keep out the western players. Then offer them good salaries, and they'll flock back to the East so quickly that it will make your eyes ache to watch them.

"The situation has simply come down to this:

"To give good performances, you must have good performers. To get good performers, you must pay good salaries and not care where you get them from. If this is not done, people will soon forget that Lacrosse can be entertaining and exciting. The Toronto, Tecumseh, Montreal and National grounds have given proof that the public is still passionately fond of good Lacrosse well contested, but they cannot be fooled all the time, and to draw them to matches such as have been the so-called attractions on the other grounds this year, will surely sicken them."

After the best, closest, and withal cleanest exhibition of the Pacific Coast League, Vancouver emerged from the first of the home and home games for the championship of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association, and the Minto Cup, at Queen's Park, New Westminster, on Saturday, with one goal lead over the cup holders. The result was a surprise to all but the Vancouver club officials, for the general public, after the blow-up of the Vancouver team in the Labor Day game, looked for the champions to acquire a comfortable margin of goals to work on in the deciding game at Recreation Park, Vancouver, next Saturday. There was no aeroplaning, no explosions, no carelessness on the part of either team, on Saturday. It was good, hard, consistent lacrosse all the way, with both twelves playing in the most scientifically safe fashion imaginable, and the Vancouver team came out on top by a 4 to 3 score, simply beause they outplayed their rivals. The Terminal City representatives went into the game with the obvious intention of holding their opponents score down and their play all through was of the safest character. The team held possession of the ball fully three-quarters of the time, and while at no time was there much difference in the score, Vancouver was either leading or was even up with the Salmon Bellies, and was never behind in the count. Assuming the lead early in the first quarter, the Vancouver team maintained their advantage all through the period, and for six minutes of the second quarter the teams battled on with the score tied, and again Vancouver went in front, to stay till just as the whistle blew for half time, Westminster gummed it up once more. The third quarter found the defences of both teams almost impregnable, and though the home players worked overtime, the score remained unaltered till just two minutes before time, when the Green Shirts broke the tie. It started to rain just as the teams came out for the final round, and the Westminster rooters took it as a good omen, but the Vancouver players proved themselves better finishers. Most of the quarter the green-clad warriors were on the offensive ,but mainly they held the ball without taking any chances. After nine minutes' play Bill Turnbull slipped through the Vancouver defence and put the teams on an even basis for the third time during the game. The goal did not worry the visiting twelve, however, they went on in their same safe way, and persisted in their goal preventing efforts by retaining possession of the ball. Referee Joe Lally insisted that the team play aggressive lacrosse, however, and for the second time in the quarter called Vancouver for playing what is popularly known as "rag," though in both instances the "ragging" was of the most scientific character, and could hardly be called such, the home holding the ball just outside the Westminster defence, and always, being in position to go in if the opportunity came. The facing of the ball on this occasion won the game for Vancouver, for when the ball was faced off in centre, Fitzgerald secured the rubber and boring in on the Westminster defence himself before the Salmon Bellies had time to bunch again he scored the winning goal with about eight minutes to play. After that Vancouver men resumed their defensive play though the home went in more frequently and came close to scoring several times. Ion was benched for five minutes near the close of the quarter, and then it became a clear case of defence for the Vancouver team. They wasted and killed time in every possible manner, and the Westminsters were so eager to score when they did have the ball that the champions threw the spheroid away in wild shots, and seldom retained possession of it for more than a few seconds. With sixteen seconds to play, the referee again blew his whistle, because Vancouver was palpably ragging, but the face-off in centre did not avail Westminster any though it sufficed to make the finish a thriller, for the champions broke away with the ball and Gordon Spring almost beat Clark with a fast shot just before the gong sounded for the finish.

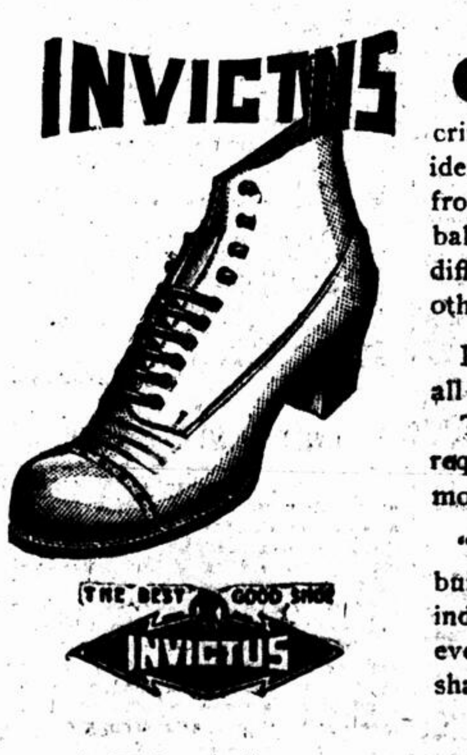
Shoe Individuality



According to the modern science of criminology, a man can be identified by the lines made from the impression of the ball of his thumb, so different is he from all other men.

People actually differ at all points of their anatomy. The difference in feet requires a corresponding model in the shoes worn.

"INVICTUS" Shoes are built scientifically, with an individuality adapted to every variation in foot-shape.

LOUDY WEATHER MARS OPENING DAY AT BLUE BONNETS

ttendance, However, is Good and Racing Fully Up to the Track Quality.

ILO OUTCLASSES FIELD IN KING'S PLATE

akes a Long Lead at First Turn and Others Haven't a Look in.

It was the general opinion of all who urneyed to Blue Bonnets on Saturday at the racing witnessed by them was e finest that they had ever seen on e course, while those who have folwed the Canadian circuit pronounc- it as the best that they had witssed on the Canadian tracks this mmer. The majority of those which ere named in the overnight events ent to the post. There were fewer ithdrawals than was looked for, hich left the fields with one or two ceptions record in size and quality. wo stakes were down for decision ring the afternoon, and they both rnished first class bands in their spective importance. The first of e two run was the King's Plate. This sulted in a hollow victory for Kilo, hich is owned by Kenneth T. Dawes. he horse ran true to his trials since ming back to Montreal after a trip the Ontario tracks. He even improved off of his last workout, which as a mile in 1.44. The victory was popular one, as the owner, Kenneth Dawes, is well known to Montreal- s, this being his home. He bears a me that there is perhaps none better nown to the horsemen, due to the ve of the thoroughbreds his father, e late J. P. Dawes, had. He won ring his career as an owner fifteen the King's Plates run in the Province of Quebec, and not only was he ell known by his province breds, but rough other horses purchased at big gures in the palmy days of the turf America. He won many races over e old Bel-Air track, of which he was well known patron. It was over at track that he won six or seven of e plate events. Following in the otsteps of his father, the owner of ilo has always shown a love for the Sport of Kings," and for the past two ears has supported a useful string hich he has at the present time. Ken- eth T. Dawes is the youngest owner Canada, as he is only 23 years of e, and has had racing stable for the ast two seasons. He looked for victory yesterday, but not such an easy e as it turned out to be, for Kilo ever left the result in doubt after he sumed the lead rounding the first rn. He was only galloping at the nish, winning by himself. Mr. awes' colors were also seen in the eeplechase carried by Jack Dennerin, which ran a most creditable race. here are one or two others which will rry the colors which are so well own, being those of the late J. P. awes, to the front during the remain- g seven days. This was his first ate victory.

The other stake which was of the eatest interest to the outside stables, as the running of the Earl Grey Cup. his was one of the most valuable at e meeting and, although it attracted ly a small field, there was never ore class in the running of it at evious meetings. In this event the everwyck stable, which is owned by rank J. Nolan, sent two to the post Sir John Johnson and Bob R. Sir hn Johnson, which was looked on as e of the best horses of last season, on under a hard drive at the hands Guy Burns, with J. W' Schorr's ar Charter second. The withdraw- s in this event reduced the field in e to five starters with Star Charter, e well supported first choice on his o previous races, which were won him. The race was a true run one, d the best horse won, Sir John John- n had up lighter weight than he has rried in a stake in some time, and e going suited him. He was off in ont and after making all the run had ough left at the end to stand off l challenges.

Great Steeplechasing.

Such steeplechasing as was seen at ue Bonnets on Saturday has never en surpassed on any track on this ntinent. The horses to answer the ll were of the best and the most remarkable feature of it was that the ree first horses to finish were all om the training of G. R. Tompkins, ho has rested up in Montreal all mmer and fitted them at Blue Bon- ets. In this event the only one to il to finish was Buckthorn the re- nt purchase of Bartlett McLennan. his horse was running easily enough, ing to the jump at the three-eighth le, where he took off too far and hit e jump with both front knees. This rew his shoulder out so that he will ely have to be thrown out of train- g for the remainder of this season. his horse was fitted at Saratoga for is race and had proven himself the aking of a first class "lepper."

A likely two-year-old was shown up the running of the sixth race, when idora a recent purchase by Captain alker from the Sanfard sale at Buf- o ran second to Buckhorn. which is oked on as one of the best twoyear- ds in Canada. This was Isidora's aiden trial and has she had a race revious to the running af this one she ould have won. She led all the way, owing herself a cheaply bought two- ar-old. The slight drizzle of the ternoon deadening the track, making e time slower than it would have en otherwise. The infield was bene- tted if anything by the rain and the ace through it was run in good time.

A Big Attendance.

Although the weather threatened all orning it did not seem to show any l effects on the attendance which ompared favorably with any opening ay since the inception of the club. here were more outsiders in atten- ance than ever before, and hal it been brighter day there is no doubt but at all previous records would have een broken. The members' lawn and e balconies of the Clubhouse were ell filled, showing an increased inter- st evinced in the sport in Montreal. he finishes were close in the ma- ority of the events, and the card was ivided between first choices and out- iders. The colors of R. T. Wilson, r. were prominent during the after- oon, as they were carried to the front n two of the eight events, and in the oney on other occasions.

Jockey J. Wilson carried off the inning honors among the riders. He on three out of seven events on the flat. He is riding in good form at the present time. When he won the King's Plate it was the second that he has won in Canada, having won the King's Plate at Toronto a year ago on Palmer, owned by the Valley Farm stable. This is an honor that few riders can claim of winning these events in both Provinces. The other events were well divided up which keeps up the competition of the Canadian circuit among the riders.

UNITED STATES GOLF.

Rye, N. Y., September 11.—The dew was still glossing the fair green of the Apawamis Country Club to-day when the first pair started in the 17th amateur championship of the United States Golf Association.

Leading off at 8 o'clock they were followed at four minutes intervals until well into the afternoon, by the golfing stars of two countries and notably by H. H. Hilton, the British amateur champion, around whom centres the interest in this year's struggle.

VERY GOOD RACES AT THE REGATTA OF CLUB NAUTIQUE

The Single Canoe Event Was Particularly Well Contested.

The Nautique Boating Club regatta, which was postponed from last Saturday on account of the rain, was pulled off Saturday afternoon, at the club quarters, at Longue Pointe. There was a large crowd in attendance in spite of the threatening weather. All of the events were well applauded during the afternoon..

The single canoe men got away to a good start. Mr. G. Kelly. of the Grand Trunk took a lead at the very beginning ,and held it to the finish. Mr. A. Morrison, of Grand Trunk, came in second. THE LEADERS WERE DEFEATED

Balmorals Beat Richmond in a Sensational 12-Inning Game by Score of 3 to 2.

Another sensational game was played yesterday in the City Boseball League, when Balmorals took a fall out of the undefeated Richmonds in a sensational twelve-inning pitchers' duel, by a score of 3 to 2. Fred Ashton pitched grand ball, allowing but three hits in eleven innings, and striking out sixteen men. He had one bad innings, however, in which Balmorals took the lead on a pass, a stolen base, a wild pitch, an out and a nice hit by Weatherbee. Ashton was accidentally spiked in the eleventh, and had to retire, Lavoie taking his place in the twelfth. He passed Harry Cutter, whom Wales neatly sacrificed to second. Harney then won his own game by sending a hot liner through McLeod. Harney pitched a nice steady game against the leaders, allowing but seven scattered hits. Wales, Cutter, Weatherbee, and Lavoie performed brilliantly.

In the first game of the afternoon the Voltigeurs put up a punk exhibition. Athletic secured a four run lead in the initial inning, Billy Jones' colts cantering thereafter to an easy victory.

BUFFALO MADE THE SERIES FOUR OUT OF FIVE

Royals Played Indifferent Ball Yesterday and Were Beaten Easily.

Judging from their showing in yesterday's game, the Royals are not very anxious to enter the first division. Half a dozen local teams could have beaten them on the form displayed, and the Bisons had no difficulty in making it four out of five in the series.

The Royals won the first game of the double-header on Saturday, with Dubuc in the box. He was unhittable, except in one inning, when two runs were scored, while his team mates piled up five runs off Brennan, the young Philadelphia phenom.

Burke was easy in yesterday's game, and was accorded poor support. He allowed 13 hits.

Buffalo secured a three-run lead early in the game, but the Royals landed on Stroud for four runs in the third on French's single, Yeager's double, Demmitt's homer, a pass to Bailey, his steal, and Holly's hit. There the Royals stopped. Buffalo evened up in the seventh, regained the lead in the eighth, and added three in the ninth. Errors figured in all these runs.

With the score tied in the seventh, Montreal had a good opening. Yeager walked as a starter, and Miller banged a hit past Wratten. With a sacrifice needed, Gandil tried to hit the ball out, and his effort resulted in a tap to the pitcher, forcing Yeager at third. Demmitt flied to McCabe. Bailey bounced a hit off Malarkey's shins and was safe, but Miller, who took a long chance for a run, was caught at the plate. This was the only opening the Royals had against Malarkey in the six innings he pitched.

SQUABBLE IN THE FIRE DEPARTMENT NOW AT AN END

Chief Tremblay and District Chief Marin Shake Hands.

The efforts of Mayor Guerin as peacemaker were successful in the friction between Fire Chief Tremblay and District Chief Marin. The two men shook hands Saturday in the offices of the Mayor, and in the company of their lawyers walked together out of the room chatting friendly.

After a first unsuccessful attempt at patching up on Friday, when he invited the two men to meet in his presence, the Mayor had talk with each of them separately and this time with better result. The chief was willing to forget insinuations as to his ability made by his assistant provided a written apology was presented; on the other side, Mr. Marin had no objection in withdrawing all that he had said or was supposed to have said, that could injure the feelings of the chief.

Thus peace was made.

Chief Tremblay withdrew also the threat of a legal action against Ald. Lamoureux, and on his part, Mr. Lamoureux will explain to the Council, this afternoon that he has been misinterpreted and misquoted in an interview.

A SMALL BAND OF SUPPORTERS GO WITH PREMIER

Sir Wilfrid Off to Victoriaville After a Brief Rest Here.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, accompanied by Mr. Alex. Smith, former Liberal organizer in Ontario, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Western Ontario.

Later in the day, Lady Laurier joined her husband at the Windsor Hotel. the Prime Minister resting after his arduous work in the West. During the afternoon, Sir Wilfrid was visited by Hon. Sydney Fisher and Hon. Mr. Pugsley, the latter coming from New Brunswick purposely to meet his political chief to confer with him on the situation in that province.

To a group of newspaper reporters, Hon. Mr. Pugsley stated that he thought the Liberals would hold their own in New Brunswick and that the campaign was progressing favorably in Nova Scotia, where Hon. Mr. Fielding was conducting operations for the party. Further than this the Minister of Public Works would not say.

Sir Wilfrid left this morning by special train for Victoriaville, in the constituency of Drummond-Arthabaska, a seat won by the Nationalists in the by-election in which Mr. A. Gilbert, who is in the present fight, was elected.

About one hundred supporters from this district boarded the same train. When he appeared at the station, Sir Wilfrid was cheered by the crowd.

Those who met him at the station included Mr. O. Gladu, candidate in Yamaska; Mr. S. Letourneau, Mr. R. Bickerdike, Mr. J. C. Walsh, K.C., and Alderman Brodeur. Hon. C. Devlin provincial Minister of Conolization, will be of the party during this week's tour of Sr Wilfrid Laurier in the Province of Quebec.

CHINESE REBELS ATTACK VICEROY'S YAMEN, CHENG TU

Revolutionaries Defeated and Their Ringleaders Executed Groups Being Concentrated.

Pekin, September 11.—Government despatches from Cheng Tu via Yunnan Fu, confirm the report of a desperate attack upon the Viceroy's yamen. The rebels were repulsed and their ringleaders put to death. The losses are concealed.

Despite official assertions that the trouble is ended, the army general staff is concentrating the Hu Peh, Hu Nan and Yun Nan troops at three points on the Sze Chuen border to send them in if necessary.

The Wai-Wu-Pu assures the legations that Sye Chuen outside of Cheng Tu, is not disturbed, and that there is no cause for anxiety concerning fleeing foreigners, who are believed to be coming out via Liating Fu, where where there are two British gunboats and one German war vessel. e

Tuan Fang has left Hankow for Ichang, escorted by a brigade of Hu Peh infantry with machine guns.

Chung King reports that troops are patrolling the streets, which are now quiet. Direct telegraphic communication with Cheng Tu is still interrupted north of Tze Chow.

Hobble Skirt Wearers Drowned.

Helsingfors, Russia, September 11.—Two women of a party of nine were drowned in the rapids in Menkala river yesterday. The wind caught the sunshades of the women and capsized the boat in which they were shooting the rapids. Seven were saved, but the two drowned were wearing hobble-skirts and so were unable to swim. One of the women drowned was a German artist of the name of Hingen.

"The quality goes in before the name goes on."
Why These "Finest Bakeries" Became Necessary
THE coalition of five of Canada's largest Bread Companies means better baking facilities, and, therefore, better bread and better service for you as a bread user.
The finest equipment is necessary to produce the best bread—the bread you demand.
Each of these five bakeries was the best of its kind. But you made something still better an absolute necessity. You demanded further improvements in quality and even more convenient delivery service than was before possible.
We had to comply, but could only carry out your wishes by the combined strength of these five separate institutions. So we formed a consolidation to make
CANADA BREAD
This better bread to-day represents the united knowledge, skill and experience of these largest and foremost baking interests.
Now we are at work, and dozens of recently-installed ovens are being scrapped at a loss of many thousands of dollars; other new and costly equipment shares the same fate; all because your demands must be met in a larger and better way.
Now you will have still another advance in the quality of your bread and a constant tide of further improvements.
We have been told that we were aiming at the impossible—that further improvement in our products was impossible.
Watch and see for yourself what Canadian enterprise can do to further satisfy your demands for what is always best.

DENIES AS FAKE STORY OF LETTER TO LOCAL JEWS

Rabbi Gordon Declares Statement in Hearst Paper is Untrue.

"We have approached no one with such a letter, nor has any one approached us," was what Rev. Rabbi N. Gordon, professor of Oriental languages at McGill University, said, when questioned by a representative of the Star with regard to the statement in Hearst's Boston American, that a circular letter had been published from the Jewish rabbis of Montreal asking all Jewish voters to support the Liberal cause.

Dr. Gordon proceeded to state that there was no word of truth in the statement, which he characterized as sheer invention and nothing else. Such action on the part of the Jewish rabbis as indicated in Hearst's statement, would be unprecedented. He said, it was a matter of principle with them not to interfere with the political convictions of their co-religionists.

Dr. Gordon was positive that every other rabbi in Montreal, if questioned, would say the same.

St. Cuthbert's Brotherhood.

On Saturday afternoon and evening, St. Cuthbert's Brotherhood of St. Lambert, held their 3rd Annual Field day at the Skating rink. Races, an indoor baseball match, and an exhibition of bridge building, by the Boy Scouts was held in the afternoon, and as the weather was cloudy, the evening's concert was held in St. Cuthbert's Hall. Dr. Desaulnier, M.L.A., presided in the afternoon and Rev. W. Munroe, in the evening. An excellent concert was given and the ball was crowded, those present thoroughly enjoying themselves.

At Greenfield Park.

An adjourned meeting of the Town Council of Grenfield Park was held on Saturday evening, to read By-law 13, regarding the borrowing of $25,000 for improvements, but as a full council was not present, the meeting was adjourned to Wednesday, 13th inst.

RENTALS

At this season of the year many people are beginning to think of renting new winter quarters. Although we have had a very hot summer, there is no indication that we won't have the usual brand of winter. We therefore have many inquiries for comfortable offices, houses and apartments.

If you have anything to rent we would be glad to have your property on our list, as the enquiries we have cover a very wide range, and it will be to your advantage to have your property listed where it will likely be called for.

P.S.—Always bring your real estate business to us. We will make it move for you.

Captain Plans Three Trans-Atlantic Trips in Three Weeks.

London, September 11.—While thousands looked on from afar, only a few were admitted on board the Lusitania at Liverpool yesterday, to watch the work of coaling, unloading and loading the great Cunard steamship, a feat practically completed early this morning. It is expected that the big vessel will leave for New York this evening.

If, as expected, she reaches there next Saturday, she will have crossed the Atlantic three times within three weeks.

In addition to freight the steamship requires 7,000 tons of coal, 700,000 gallons of fresh water and the necessary provisions for 1,700 passengers and crew of 900. Fifty thouand pieces of linen have to be washed, dried and ironed.

RECIPROCITY IS DISCUSSED BY MR. BOURASSA AGAIN

Nationalist Leader Says it Has Many Good Points and Many Bad Ones.

HECKLERS DENOUNCED BY CONSERVATIVES

Five Thousand Hear Attack on Navy—Assemblee Contradictoire is Refused.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Laprairie, P. Q., September 11. — Mr. Bourassa addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting Sunday afternoon at Laprairie, in the interests of Mr. Gustave Monette, the opposition candidate in Laprairie-Napierville. About eighteen hundred people came up from Montreal in a special train. In all, about five thousand attended and gave earnest attention to Mr. Bourassa while he expounded his programme in a speech that lasted nearly two hours. Interruptions there were, but they were quickly stopped.

At the opening of the meeting there were signs that it was going to be a stormy one. But Mr. J. Patenaude, the local Conservative member for Quebec, insisted on the handful of disturbers being put out.

"Put them out! Put them out!'" he cried, "We will not let them insult and disturb the largest and most intelligent meeting ever held in Laprairie." And willing hands were not wanting to obey his orders.

While the belligerents were being hustled out, Mr. Patenaude, pointing them out, said: "There they are! This example of rowdyism is a sample of the work Mr. Roch Lanctot is doing for Laprairie, disgracing it in the face of thousands of visitors.'"

Mr. Bourassa was interrupted several times during his speech, but retorted to his hecklers in kind. The first to interrupt him was hustled out instantly, Mr. Bourassa saying: "For the past eight days I have met this rowdyism at my meetings. It is a good sign the government will be swept from power on September 21, when they have to hire a few drunkards to interrupt such a splendid and intelligent audience."

The audience thereafter was most attentive and enthusiastic. During the last hour of his speech Mr. Bourassa was interrupted once. His denunciations of the Laurier government were received with cries of "Shame." When he praised Sir Wilfrid Laurier for his eloquence, his winning personality, and what Mr. Bourassa described as "his loyalty in 1902, 1904 and 1907 to my programme," scarcely a voice greeted his rounded periods.

The Hon. C. Pelletier, former member in the Local House, presided.

MR. BOURASSA REFUSES A JOINT MEETING.

Before the meeting opened Mr. Roch Lanctot, the Government candidate and former member, approached Mr. Bourassa and asked for an "assemblee contradictoire." Mr. Bourassa refused, but told him that when he had finished he could speak as long as he liked. Mr. Patenaude, the member for Quebec, however, refused even that concession, claiming that they were assembled on private grounds.

Mr. Lanctot then turned to the audience and said: Mr. Bourassa refused an "assemblee contradictoire." "This is not the way we conduct our elections. He should not be afraid of me. I am a simple farmer. He accuses me. It is my right to defend myself."

Immediately Mr. Patenaude answered him: "In 1900 and in 1908, Sir Wilfrid Laurier came here to speak, and we Conservatives were true to ourselves and acted as gentlemen. Last week at St. Philippe and St. Remi, Mr. Lanctot held meetings and not a Conservative interfered. So, now, we expect the same gentlemanly treatment."

Mr. Gustave Monette, the Opposition candidate, was then introduced. On the navy question he declared himself to be a follower of Mr. Monk. Regarding reciprocity, he claimed he was for and against it, accepting the items only that would benefit his constituency and rejecting the others..

UNDECIDED OVER RECIPROCITY ISSUE.

Mr. Bourassa was greeted with cheers when he arose to speak. Just then the bells in the near by church began to ring. "A young Nationalist is just being baptized," was his comment.

The speaker explained why there would be no debate. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden were allowed to expound their programme, and he claimed the like privilege. He was a friend of Mr. Lanctot, knew him in Ottawa, and he assured him he was not afraid to meet him in open debate, but he required all the time to explain his programme. Mr. Bourassa spoke briefly on reciprocity, mentioned incidentally the Lanctot scandal at Sorel and the Oliver charges, and devoted most of his speech to the navy question.

"Study reciprocity," he said, "not in the light of the blues or the reds, but in the light of your own interests. It has some good points, and many bad ones. The reciprocity agreement was brought forward as the paramount issue when the Liberal Government were crushed and dazed after their defeat in the Drummond-Arthabaska election. It was brought forward to drown the memory of the awful wreck and ruin of the Quebec bridge disaster, to hide the Lanctot painting at Sorel, and to shield Oliver and his $70,000 slush money.

During some months of the year, the opening of the American markets to some of our products would, he argued, be an advantage, but during the greater part of the year it would be detrimental. Prices were lower on the New York market during the off-season than they were in the Montreal market. If the prices are lowered in one country they will be raised in the other. Reciprocity would be the ruin of our market in years of poor crops in Canada and abundant ones in the States. The Canadian farmer would have to suffer, and should not favor a measure which will have the effect of lowering the prices on their own products. Why did the Liberals after fifteen years of power discover the need of reciprocity? To hide greater and more flagrant blunders. "There is a Being greater than any party who sends good weather and bad weather, who makes the crops and Him we have to thank for our years of plenty," said Mr. Bourassa. "Those who sneer," continued the speaker, "are not farmers, but are kitchen gardeners, whose potato patch is manured from the ministerial dung-pile."

The speaker then assailed the Liberal leader. The Liberal stump speakers, said Mr. Bourassa, assert Sir Wilfrid Laurier went four times to England to attend the Colonial Conferences and each time saved Canada. If he saved it four times, why did he lose it so often and how could he save it so regularly every three years?

A voice: "Did you save your $2,200?"

"'That $2,200 was spent for the people by me, approved by both parties in Parliament, and if you don't believe me, go and ask Laurier," answered Mr. Bourassa.

ATTACKS CANADIAN NAVAL PROGRAMME.

"But," he continued, "you are making a mistake, my friend. You meant to ask about Mackenzie and Mann's $70,000 to Mr. Oliver."

The speaker then plunged into the Naval question. He quoted Sir Wilfrid Laurier as having said in 1902, that it was a suicidal policy and a crime for Canada to spend money in cannons and rifles to be used in the general wars of the Empire, and I applauded him and so did you.

"In 1904," he said, "he stood by his declaration, and we again applauded him. In 1907 he affirmed once more against embroiling Canada in the wars of the Empire and we cried, 'Vive Laurier.' But in 1911 when he asks us to endorse what he himself said was a crime and suicidal, I cry out through this province: 'Perish Laurier, rather than our country, our happiness and our peace.'

As to the argument that the navy would be under complete control of the Canadian Parliament, he alleged this was false. It would be the Governor-General-in-Council who would have the say in the matter of ordering the navy, in case of war, to foreign countries. In a situation like the present, when there was no Parliament, and no possibility of there being one for several weeks, should war be declared the navy would be sent to foreign parts before the members of Parliament would be able to take official cognizance of the fact.

Mr. Fielding had said that if England was at war Canada was at war. Thus the navy would be Canadian only in time of peace—Canadian to get our money, Canadian to throw our sons in the cannon's mouth, to become, in the time of war a part and parcel of the Imperial navy."

ARGUES CANADA NEEDS NO NAVY.

Since the Anglo-American arbitration treaty, the speaker explained, there is no need of any protection for Canadian commerce on the high seas, and therefore Canada does not need a navy. Mr. Bourassa traversed ground covered by him in previous speeches and reaffirmed at considerable length his conscription idea.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Patenaude called for three cheers for Mr. Bourassa, which were heartily given.

The Keynote of the Election

Newspapers may write for or against reciprocity; public speakers may laud or decry the measure, and private citizens may hold varying views on the subject. But who is better qualified to know what it means than President Taft, the Chief Magistrate of the United States, the man who is chiefly responsible for the reciprocity agreement, who used every effort to get it adopted by both Houses of Congress, and who is eagerly waiting to see the Canadian people accept the terms of the agreement? Surely the views of this high authority are well worth considering at the present time.

In a speech at the joint banquet of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, held in New York on April 27th last, when it became necessary to explain to the people of the United States just what was meant, just what the President hoped for by the measure, he said —

"I have said that this was a critical time in the solution of the question of reciprocity. It is critical because, unless it is now decided favorably to reciprocity, it is exceedingly probable that no such opportunity will ever again come to the United States. The forces which are at work in England and in Canada to separate her by a Chinese wall from the United States, and to make her part of an imperial commercial band reaching from England around the world to England again by a system of preferential tariffs, will derive an impetus from the rejection of this treaty, and if we would have reciprocity with all the advantages that I have described, and that I earnestly and sincerely believe will follow its adoption we must take it now, or give it up forever."

From the same speech by President Taft: "The bond uniting the Dominion with the Mother Country is light and almost imperceptible."

From President Taft's message to Congress with the Reciprocity Agreement, Jan. 26, 1911: "Ought we not then to arrange a commercial agreement with Canada, if we can, by which we shall have direct access to her great supply of natural products without an obstructing or prohibitory tariff? . . . . The Dominion has prospered. It has an active, aggressive and intelligent people They are COMING TO THE PARTING OF THE WAYS." . . . . "Should we not now, therefore, before their policy has become too crystallized and fixed for change, meet them in a spirit of real concession, facilitate commerce between the two countries, and thus greatly increase the natural resources available to our people?"

HORSE-BREEDER IS AGAINST RECIPROCITY

Oswald Sorby, Guelph Liberal, Says 'Pact Will Destroy Horse Market Here.

Guelph, Ont., September 11.—Mr. Oswald Sorby, the well known horse breeder of this city, has left for England where he will purchase about twenty-five pedigreed Clydesdale stallions for importation to Canada which will comprise one of the most valuable shipments of stock ever made to Guelph at one time.

Mr. Sorby, whose Liberal leanings are pronounced, made it perfectly clear before leaving that he is against his party this time, pointing out that Canada had now developed a splendid horse trade, which he said it would be folly to risk.

"We should go on developing our own markets and our own resources, as we have been doing. Mr. Sorby added, "the general horse market is in fine shape and will continue so if left undisturbed."

STICK TO THE SURE, SAFE WAY," COUNSELS SIR HIBBERT TUPPER, ADDRESSING ST. LAWRENCE ELECTORS

Former Minister, en Route to Maritime Provinces, Speaks on Behalf of Mr. G. F. Johnston—Characterizes Reciprocity as Dangerous Menace to Canadian National Ideals and Predicts Popular Repudiation of Pact—West Will Be a Bitter Disappointment to Liberals, He Says.

St. Lawrence division was unexpect- ly honored on Saturday evening, hen Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper me into the constituency and spoke two meetings in support of Mr. G. Johnston, the Conservative can- late.

The presence of Sir Charles Hib- rt in the city was accidental. He d come from the West and was pro- eding to his native province to fur- er engage in the campaign. His in connections were poor with the sult that he could not continue on journey immediately.

When his presence in Montreal had come known, Sir Charles Hibbert s induced to speak at two meetings eviously arranged in St. Lawrence vision, an arrangement which he ickly assented to because Mr. John- n's father had been associated with m in earlier politics.

When seen by a representative of e Star, Sir Hibbert declared that e outlook for the opponents of the ciprocity 'pact in the present elec- ns were of the brightest, and that e Taft-Fielding agreement was cer- in of repudiation at the hands of e people of Canada on September

"In British Columbia," said the ex- inister of Marine, "all the Liberals emselves hope for only one seat, at of Comox-Atlin, and even this doubtful as British Columbia as a ole is opposed to the Washington- ade deal. We look for a clean eep of the seven seats in the pro- nce."

"Is Victoria, where Hon. Mr. Tem- eman is running, certain for the nservatives?" Sir Hibbert was ask-

"As certain as any election can be," replied. "The Minister of Inland evenue is doomed to defeat there, fact, this is almost conceded by the berals."

"What about the three North- estern provinces?" asked The Star presentative.

Farmers Will Not Be Fooled.

"I am hardly in a position to speak thoritatively regarding these," was answer. "From all reports, how- er, and from what I was able to dge on my way through. I am of the inion that the West will be a bitter sappointment to the Reciprocity rty. The farmers there are begin- ng to realize what an exceedingly ubtful boon the 'pact brings them d are reported to be everywhere rning against it. The farmer is not fool and knows where his best in- rests lie. Put the reciprocity agree- ent into effect and his home market, e market in which he has become h, is opened to the United States d the twelve favored nations. Ad- d to this, he realizes what it means have his wheat milled in Minnea- lis and St. Paul: the by-products ll go to feed the cattle of the Ameri- n raiser, with whom he has to com- te; and his good hard wheat will be xed with inferior grades by the Am- ican miller and ground into flour th which the Canadian producer ll have to meet at a disadvantage the European market. No, I think e reciprocity bubble has burst, so r as the Canadian farmer is con- rned."

When asked as to his estimate of e result of the elections, Sir Hib- rt fairly beamed as he said:

"To my mind there is no doubt as the ultimate issue of the campaign ainst reciprocity. I have been in litics a long time and feel that I can dge how the wind is blowing. Never fore have I seen the Conservative rty inspired with such a spirit as is at present, a spirit which cannot ow defeat.

"You people here in Montreal have tnessed the splendid example set by zens of patriotic Canadians, who ve cast off old party affiliations d who are joining with old-time litical foes to save the country from is iniquitous 'pact. What is true Montreal, is true of all parts of e country. Everywhere men are eaking down the old barriers and aking the issue now before the elec- rs one far removed from the sordid nsideration of dollars and cents one, believing, and rightly so, that is is not a time for party politics t a crisis in the affairs of the coun- y in which the very destiny of the ominion is at stake."

ir Hibbert Addresses St. Lawrence Electors.

At the first meeting held in Mr. G. F. ohnston's Central Committee, 39 St. atherine street west, Mr. H. McD. ellew was speaking when Sir Charles ibbert Tupper arrived, accom- anied by Mr. G. F. Johnston, Mr. H. Ames, and Mr. W. G. M. Sheppard. Sir Charles Hibbert was hailed with ng and hearty cheers as he made is way through ~~the throng~~. Everyone rose with shouts which lasted for everal minutes.

Later being formally introduced he as again tendered an ovation. He id that it was a very great pleasure be permitted to say a few words in ference to the cause to which Can- dians were called to fight as they ave never fought before. The present ause was one that not only concerned ertain individuals, but everyone true the Dominion of Canada and the British flag. It was a fight on which depended the welfare of all, their hearths, their homes and their country.

Eulogizes Mr. Johnston.

Sir Charles touched on the relationship of the candidate for St. Lawrence Division by saying that the interest he had in addition to the great subject at stake, was that Mr. Johnston's father before him served not only his country and the Conservative party, but that his and Mr. Johnston's father were both intimately attached to their country. Sir Charles expressed his delight in seeing his father's old friend taking up the work where he had left it off. He was also glad to find himself in the position of following his own father's footsteps, and trusted that they be enabled to carry out successfully the good work that was begun by their fathers.

"I am going to Nova Scotia to raise my voice for all that it is worth and to fight Taft's committee," said Sir Charles, "and battle for the great cause of our predecessors who have made Canada what it is. It is to pull down the great works accomplished by the fathers of Confederation that the reciprocity egg was hatched at Washington. The heart of Canada is as solid and as true to-day as it ever was. It is as solid and true to political independence as it ever was, and Mr. Taft's committee will be bitterly disappointed. In the West, through which I have just passed, they are not at all unanimous for reciprocity, as is generally impressed upon the public by those whose interest it is to mislead. Far from it. The farmers understand that their neighbors to the south are trying to cut our national life. This deplorable 'pact is understood by them to deprive all the country of its raw products, all that we have and may produce and all that we may reap.

Reciprocity Taft's Political Design.

"It is the design of Mr. Taft who is seeking re-election to the Presidency of the United States, and the Reciprocity 'pact is part of the plan of his campaign.

"No Canadian dares to own to the fatherhood, to the parentage, of this miserable abortion, this reciprocity. I was a colleague of a number of those gentlemen—Sir John A. MacDonald, and other gentlemen who are named in this connection—and none of them advanced such a monstrous scheme as is now proposed to you. None of these men proposed that there should be a 'pact—that certain advantages should be given to manufacturers of the United States, to grasp and hold the fiscal conditions for all times—none even contemplated such a plan. Where are all the colleagues and all the sons and grandsons that are charged in this manner? Thank God that they are not only arraigned against the measure, but give forth the sentiments of their forefathers.

Bonds Now Forged Will Hold.

"In the very history of our country we can trace down the nagging and threatening of our neighbors to the South. Every time until to-day we have conquered, and will conquer again. The threats, the nagging, and all the attempts against us have come to nothing. We have forged our bonds from sea to sea and north to south.

"Our rivals in commerce, in Empire, in everything, must not only be subdued, but overpowered by such force that they must cease formulating traps in which they expect us to walk just because they have erected them for us. The present proposal between 90,000,000 and 9,000,000 came like a bolt from the blue, and was formulated at Washington. It is Mr. Taft's and Mr. Wm. Paterson's hearts' desire to see Confederation broken."

Sir Hibbard then appealed to the voters not to use their influence at Washington but at Ottawa. They will either vote for Mr. Borden and Canada, for the Canadians, and Canada for the British Empire; or, for reciprocity, and Canada for the Americans. He referred to a statement made by President Taft, in which the latter made the assertion that he was creating a reservoir of resources to the north. By reciprocity, the tap of resource would be turned on, and all that Canada has, would flow unimpeded across the boundary. The speaker then dwelt on the parting of the ways, as it was put by Mr. Taft. By many ways the United States tried to cripple confederation and to coerce Canada into seeking favors from Washington.

Canada's Destiny is British.

He also gave the definition of the parting of the ways as defined by Mr. Chamberlain, and the speaker stated that from all that has happened, and from what he believed, we had long ago—at least as far back as 1899, —chosen our way, and it was under the British flag. This radical proposal was flung upon us when the United States of America had punished itself with tariff legislation. Mr. Taft found his Jackals at Ottawa to do his work and our astute friends to the south had sent commissioners to go all over the west, to investigate conditions, before enlisting Mr. Fielding and Mr. Paterson.

The speaker then asked his hearers to look deeply into the design as it was an out and out advocate of annexation.

He asked when was it ever known for Liberals, and eminent Liberals who had been Liberals all their lives, to have stepped on to the other side, as has been so common of late. No intelligent man would for a moment, favor the reciprocity proposal as it was forced upon us, and we should be beware, before it was too late. We were only a handful to the United States of America, but under the sheltering folds of the English flag, we have been kept independent of them and to it we must hold.

Sir Tupper concluded by saying: "Let us stick to the sure, the safe road."

Mr. H. B. Ames on the Issue.

Mr. H. G. Ames, former member for St. Antoine stated it was due to protection that Canada was prosperous, the tearing down of the tariff wall would be ruinous. Reciprocity was a gamblers chance which might leave us penniless. Protection was the right of every Canadian, manufacturer and farmer, and the 'pact would remove all the protection from the farmers.

Mr. Johnston Denounces the 'Pact.

Mr. G. F. Johnston, defied any man in Montreal who could put up an argument to show where the 'pact would benefit the city. There was no benefit to be derived. Men in factories had told him that their jobs would not be worth a snap, were reciprocity to go through. It would wipe out the factories not only in Montreal, but all over Canada. Mr. Johnston expressed himself as being proud to stand on the same platform with Sir Hibbert Tupper, because his honored father and Sir Charles Tupper stood side by side in the fight for building up a country for the Canadians.

Former Liberal Speaks.

Mr. W. G. M. Sheppard stated that he had been a Liberal all his life, but could not vote on the reciprocity platform. He felt convinced that if Mr. Bickerdike were elected instead of Mr. Johnston he believed he would be on the opposition side of the house. Of all the ridiculous statements that were being forced on the public, none is more so than that the country would be benefited by reciprocity. Another ridiculous statement was that reciprocity, while it meant higher prices for the farmer, the consumer would have to pay less for products.

SELECTING WORKERS.

Getting the right workers for your business, just the right ones that will take a personal heart interest in their work and prove their value as loyal helpers in your business; workers who may be depended upon and who will earn advancement through sincere effort—such workers are at hand if you seek them through the Star Want Ads.

Incompetent, careless employees have no place in a business establishment that is alive to the easy accessibility of the Star Want Ads in summoning workers who are worthy of bearing responsibility, and who perform their tasks with a cheerfulness that comes from the joy of honest service.

Star Want Ads bring employers and employees together. High grade employees are alert to the possibilities offered through the Want Ad Columns of the Star—they will respond to the call of the employer who appreciates full measure of conscientious service.

BACK IN HIS OWN PROVINCE.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier finished his Ontario campaign by speaking in Windsor Saturday afternoon. To-day and all this week he is devoting to telling Quebecers to vote for "Le Vieux Coq."

PREMIER CLOSES HIS ONTARIO CAMPAIGN WITH A SPEECH AT WINDSOR; RETURNS TO QUEBEC

Tells Large Audience, Composed in Part of Americans Resident of Detroit, That the Aim of His Life Has Been Peace — Believes in Separate National Identities With Friendly Trade Rivalries.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Windsor, Ont., September 11.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's tour of Ontario was finished on Saturday afternoon by an open air meeting at Windsor, attended by six or seven thousand people. It had been expected that the meeting would be the biggest yet held during his campaign, and it was predicted that in addition to the Canadians present, at least ten thousand people would come over from Detroit.

The torrid heat, however, made standing in the hot sun a very trying ordeal, and many people were content to see the Premier pass, and then go off to some cooler spot than Ouellette Square, where the meeting took place. The speakers, with the burning sun beating upon their faces, had a very trying ordeal.

In the company who heard Sir Wilfrid were many well-known citizens of Detroit, including Senator W. A. Smith, chairman of the United States Committee on Canadian Affairs, also Milton A. McRae, president of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce, and a close personal friend of President Taft.

CANDIDATES OPEN THE PROCEEDINGS.

Dr. P. A. Dewar, Liberal candidate in North Essex, remarked that in Windsor particularly, it was ridiculous to speak of annexation. More than half the young men of Windsor made their living in Detroit, yet was the sentiment for annexation stronger with the Windsor people than with the rest of the inhabitants of the Dominion?

A voice—"That's no reason why we should let down the bars."

"That gentleman," retorted Dr. Dewar, "can have the platform if he wishes."

Mr. A. H. Clarke, Liberal candidate for South Essex, said the people in his constituency were greatly in favor of reciprocity. Why should Canada continue to pay fines on its export business to help build up the United States? The United States had enough money. Let them send their money to Canada in exchange for Canadian goods, and Canadians would show them how to spend it.

ARDUOUS BATTLE IN QUEBEC, SAYS PREMIER.

Sir Wilfrid, who appeared to be in excellent spirits, had a warm welcome. Telling his audience that at the conclusion of that meeting he would return to Quebec, he remarked that the Liberals there were face to face with an arduous battle, but the province, he was sure, would send back to Ottawa its usual contingent of fifty members out of the sixty-five to which it was entitled.

The American and Canadian peoples were united geographically and by the bonds of common kinship. Under these circumstances it seemed to him no defence was required for the cause which would promote better and freer trade relations than those which had existed during the last fifty years.

He pointed out that this lack of trade intercourse was the fault of the United States, and not of Canada, for there had always been in Canada a unanimity of opinion in favor of reciprocity. Canada, however, was always rebuffed.

"When I announced that there would be no more pilgrimages to Washington," said the Premier, "I relied on time, the solver of all difficulties, to bring a new spirit over the United States. I believed that in time they would appreciate Canada as she ought to be appreciated; and that from the United States would come overtures. In this I was not deceived, for the next pilgrimage in search of reciprocity was not from Ottawa to Washington, but from Washington to Ottawa.

THINKS ALL LADIES ARE FREE-TRADERS.

The Premier had a gallant word for the large number of ladies present.

"They say," he added, "that the ladies here are all free traders. I am not surprised, for I never found one was not. If that is so, we Liberals have the ladies with us, and we have the word of Scripture that if the women are with us, God is with us, so that victory will be ours.'"

He told how the Americans, from a policy of absolute negation, jumped to the other extreme and wanted reciprocity in everything, including all manufactured products, and how eventually Canada accepted reciprocity in all natural products.

"Excepting tobacco," coached a voice on the platform.

"Certainly, excepting tobacco which is not included in the agreement," added Sir Wilfrid.

INDIANS TO-DAY LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE

Dealing with advice to leave well enough alone, the Premier said when the French came to Detroit they found Indians who were letting well enough alone. And the Indians were doing that to-day. Letting well enough alone was policy for an Indian, but not for an Anglo-Saxon community. There was nobody in Canada willing to let well enough alone, excepting the Conservatives, who were a freak of nature, and not of the Anglo-Saxon race and blood.

Sir Wilfrid told how he had always been an admirer of the American people ever since, at the age of eleven years, he read in a Montreal magazine, "La Ruche Litteraire," a French translation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." That book made a lasting impression on him.

SEEKS ABSOLUTE PEACE ON CONTINENT.

But much as he admired the American people, he did not, and never would favor annexation.

"The aim which is the goal of my life," he said, "is that there shall be absolute peace between the two peoples on this North American continent, and that, while preserving their national identities they shall show the world a noble emulation in the arts of science and trade. That is the goal to which we are tending, and if we succeed, we shall give an example to the world such as she has never seen, and achieve a destiny as noble as can be dreamed for one nation and the other."

TIME FOR ELECTORS TO PROVE MANHOOD.

Hon. George P. Graham, who was the principal speaker next to Sir Wilfrid, said that Mr. Borden was on record in 1904 as saying that such a reciprocity agreement as the present would never interfere with the trade of the Empire, while in 1909, when the French treaty was negotiated, the same man trembled for the United States trade. Mr. Foster, who got on all sides of every question, not long ago bitingly demanded of the present Government where was the reciprocity that had been promised.

The desertion of these men from the cause now was because eighteen men in Toronto, who had more money than they knew what to do with, had said: "Don't do that, and we are with you."

As to transportation, Mr. Graham declared that Canada could compete with the United States and beat them in the haul from East to West.

"Don't let what is left of the Conservative party drag you away," concluded Mr. Graham. "This is a time not for politics, but a time to show whether you are a man or not. This is your fight, but the interests of the rich men of Toronto lie in making bigger profits and letting you look out for yourselves."

Sir Wilfrid ended the meeting by repeating much of his speech in French.

AS PLAIN FARMER MR. FISHER SPEAKS OF RECIPROCITY

'Pact Will Give Farmer Better Market and Consumer Cheaper Goods, His Claim.

MR. DEVLIN DEFENDS THE NAVY BILL

Many Interruptions During the Liberal Meeting Held in the Coliseum.

Less than a thousand people went to the Coliseum in West Dorchester street to hear Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. Charles Devlin, Mayor Guerin, and candidates in four local divisions expound the Liberal opinions of reciprocity.

The ministerial speakers were subjected to considerable heckling, and at one time a body of the spectators began to sing and were escorted to the doors by a force of police constables.

To open proceedings a band played an agreeable programme, several patriotic airs being warmly applauded.

After Mr. W. H. Trenholme had been appointed chairman, Mr. Milton Hersey, who was the first speaker, was given a warm reception. He declared that it had been agreed between him and his friend, Mr. Ames, that the campaign in their division would be without any mud-throwing and personal abuse. All that he wanted was a fair deal. Talking of the two great questions at issue, Mr. Hersey said that about the navy there had been lots of misrepresentation from the opponents of the scheme, and that there was no such a thing as conscription. It was neither a thing to be afraid of in the future, especially in St. Antoine, where the patriotism of the able-bodied men was at the highest and where could always be found more voluntary enlistments than could be secured through conscription. The position was the same in other divisions, and there was no need of being afraid of conscription.

The policy of the Liberal party regarding the navy was very clear; Canada wanted to be in a position to police her own waters and her coasts, and when needed, to participate with Great Britain, in the protection of the Empire's prestige.

As to reciprocity, which was the real issue of the election, the appeal to the country had been forced on the Government.

Reciprocity was intended to help agriculture first, but it would not be hurtful to the workingmen. While it would give the farmer more money, it would in great many instances, reduce the cost of living, because it would reduce the cost of many of the articles used in every household.

A Real Annexationist.

Mr. Robert Bickerdike said that he was an annexationist; that he was in favor of the annexation of the United States to Canada and that he would be ready to welcome Uncle Sam under the Union Jack.

Mr. J. C. Walsh, K.C., claimed that Canada had to enlarge, and that reciprocity would enlarge our trade. Canada had been negotiating treaties with France, Belgium and Japan. All those treaties had been upheld by the Conservatives because it was understood they were contributing to the development of our trade. The treaty with our nearest neighbor would contribute more to the same development, but it was opposed by the Conservatives, because they did not want the Liberals to have the credit for it. Why not provide for the farmers so that they will be able to keep on the farms their sons and daughters, so that they will not come in town and compete with our laborers?

Reciprocity meant only sending our surplus product to the United States. (A voice: "Talk of the Liberal scandals.") "Yes, I will,-' said Mr. Walsh. "Let us begin with Sifton. The Conservatives have been the first to unveil him. Now that he has been thrown out of the Liberal party, the Conservatives call him an angel of fanance. (A voice: "And what about Sir William Van Horne?")

"Sir William Van Horne," said Mr. Walsh, "when he came here first went to the Bank of Montreal, and now he is the first to advise you not to trade with the Americans. But the fortune he made in Canada he is now investing in Cuba."

Mr. Rivet's Claims.

Mr. L. A. Rivet claimed that some manufacturers, especially in his division, and he mentioned specifically the Canada Sugar Refinery, were carrying on the most shameful system of intimidation on their employes. Laborers had been given the secret ballot by Mackenzie and it was impossible for an employer to coerce the vote of his employes. At the poll a workman stood as large as the biggest manufacturer or capitalist, and the manufacturer had no right to intimidate his fellowman who had not the same capital at his command.

At the end of his speech, a stone thrown from the outside, crashed through a window in the rear of the platform. It did not hit any one. Some policemen were then sent to patrol the outside of the Coliseum.

Mr. Devlin Defends Navy.

Hon. Charles Devlin opened his remarks with a protest against depreciation of the navy. In every country the army and navy were the most popular services, the most respected and the most cheered. Why would it be not the same in Canada. We needed them as much as other countries.

Mr. Devlin claimed that in 1891, the programme of Sir John Macdonald was for reciprocity (A voice: "did you favor him then?") "I favored reciprocity," replied Mr. Devlin, "and I favored even more than Sir John wanted. If he did not get it, it was not on account of opposition from the Liberals, it was because the United States refused it."

As interruptions came frequently, Mr. Devlin invited the interruptors to come up on the platform. The Liberals were responsible for the prosperity of Montreal, he continued, and the deepening of the St. Lawrence. In 1896, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier was raised to power, the workmen in Montreal were begging for work; now, labor is begging for hands. Reciprocity meant that the farmer would have a better market and it meant also that the consumer would buy cheaper.

Mr. Fisher's Explanation.

Hon. Mr. Fisher was warmly received. He declared that he came only to speak as a plain farmer. Reciprocity was for the benefit of the farmer and of the consumer. It gave a better market to the farmer and reduced the cost of many things needed by every consumer. If someone were to lose it would be the middleman. As an example, duty being removed on wheat and foodstuffs meant that the Canadian miller would have to pay more for his wheat, and get less for his flour. That seemed pretty hard at first sight, but nobody need worry about the Canadian miller since he could sell his flour cheaper in London and Liverpool than in any Canadian city; it was the same with the packer. Canadian ham and Canadian bacon was selling in Liverpool to the consumer two cents less a pound than in Montreal. If the Canadian miller and the Canadian packer could not sell to the Canadian market at the same price as to the foreign markets, the Government and the people had no gain in protecting them. It was true that the prices of farm produce were very high in Canada but it was not the farmer who got the money; it was the middleman, and the middleman, who is reaping all the cream in the market, will be severely dealt with by reciprocity. If Canadian produce was cheaper in England, it was because of an open market. (A voice: "Compare the wages. What is the use of having a cheap loaf if you have no money to buy it?")

Blame the Middlemen.

"I will come to that," replied Mr. Fisher, and he changed his argument, saying that the farmer was at the the back of Canadian prosperity and that helping the farmer was helping the whole community. Mr. Borden, leader of the opposition, had acknowledged that reciprocity would bring better prices to the farmer. It was not surprising to see the middlemen kicking against the coming of the American bidder in the Canadian market. It was claimed that reciprocity would kill the east and west trade, but such could not be the case, when such experts as the directors of the C. P. R., in spite of what Sir William Van Horne claimed, were already spending millions in improvements, in order to meet the surplus trade that will be caused by reciprocity. If it was the case, it would be very hard to explain why the C. P. R. stock had seen a raise of thirty points since reciprocity was spoken of as a coming thing.

Manufacturers could not be affected by the act, except that they would get a better market for their own products.

As to the British trade, it was Sir Wilfrid Laurier who had created British preference, and when he had created it, he had been opposed by those same men who are now opposing reciprocity for the sake of British trade. If trade was a factor of annexation, Canada would already be annexed to the United States, as the trade of Canada with her neighbor at the south was three hundred millions a year, which was fifty per cent. more than with Great Britain.

Frequent Interruptions.

At this phase of Mr. Fisher's speech interruptions came fast, and finally a group at the rear of the crowd, started to sing and walked towards the door. Police escorted the singers to the door amid shouts of: "Put them out." After a couple of minutes, quiet being restored, Mr. Fisher terminated his speech by saying that the American market should be at the disposition of the farmer, as it was for the manufacturer who drew from the United States all their raw cotton, most of their coal and many other products, while others were selling to the Americans all their ore and other products.

Mayor Guerin declared that reciprocity would be a boon for the city of Montreal and for the whole of Canada. The Liberals had a right of being proud of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his leadership. At the coronation festivities, the Canadian Premier had been the shining head and shoulders above all.

Dead Man Found Near Emo, Ont.

Emo, Ont., September 11.—Seeking a lost colt about 6 p.m. Sunday, Roland Tibbs, son of a farmer of this district, stumbled across a dead body about five miles east of here, which proved to be that of a young man.

Examination by the coroner, who was immediately called, revealed the cause of death to have been a shot from a heavy calibre revolver at close range. A search by the police resulted in a letter being found in his coat pocket, bearing the address of Andrew Saman, 21 Foak street, Virginia Mine, together with a Socialist emblem and a number of 2 cartridges wrapped in a handkerchief.

THE CHAMP DE MARS MEETING.

WHAT the people of Montreal think of William Randolph Hearst as a fit and proper person to advise them on any subject of importance was very clearly shown by the size and the spirit of Saturday's mass meeting on the Champ de Mars. With Hearst, the exponent of yellow journalism in the United States, the people of Canada have no particular concern. Like a great many other incidental developments of Twentieth Century civilization among our neighbors, we do not envy them him or his works, but neither do we feel that their existence as institutions of the United States, justifies any interference on our part.

With Hearst, the annexationist, waging his fight on Canadian soil through both subsidized and duped allies in the ranks of the Canadian press, dissembling his purpose under protestations of disinterested friendship and venting his malevolence and rage upon all who oppose him, the case is very different. It makes very little difference what credentials he bears from President Taft, or how unctuous his assurances of his high regard for Canada and Great Britain, we have his incitations to the people of his own country, repeated a hundred times, to prepare to annex Canada as conclusive evidence of his hypocrisy and double-dealing in the first instance, and the copy of his letter to the people of Great Britain through the medium of the Times, not four years ago, as absolute proof of his malice and abiding hate, in the second.

When an instrumentality of this character is given a position of prominence in a campaign organized by American "Trusts" to bring Canada under their domination, no form of protest can be too vehement. Hearst's brazen assumption of authority and ability to mould Canadian opinion on reciprocity particularly is an insolent affront to the intelligence of every Canadian who has the Hearst arguments thrust upon him, either directly by the Hearst papers, hundreds of thousands of which are being sent here daily for the purposes of the campaign, or more insiduously through the columns of the reciprocity organs which Hearst keeps supplied with "special Washington correspondence."

Hearst, the man, is beneath the contempt of any self-respecting people. Hearst, the agent of the forces which are working for the annexation of Canada to the United States, is more than a menace—he is a symbol of all that is most degrading and debasing in the furious daily life of the Republic. It was this aspect of Hearst and Hearstism which was repudiated on the Champ de Mars Saturday night.

THE "WITNESS" AND MR. JOHNSTON.

OUR amusing contemporary, the "Witness," always has a trying time when its religious professions and its politics get "crossed." If it had its way, all religious people would agree with it politically; and all its political allies would be religious. Then life would be much simpler for the "Witness." But so staunch and steady a partisan as the "Witness" is sure to find its professed principles getting in the way of its party preferences. We are bound to say, however, that—during many years of close observation—we have never seen its party preferences get the worst of it.

We imagine that the "Witness" has always regarded it as a sort of personal grievance that a religious man like Mr. Ames should not be found in the "Witness'" political party. But Mr. Ames' religion does not save him. The "Witness" opposes him. Its party preferences—as we have said—always gets the better of its religion. Some years ago, there were charges made touching "Wine, Women and Graft" in relation to the "Witness'" party at Ottawa. That was a "hard jolt" to religion; but the "Witness" still stands true to its party.

This election brought it another trial. The wicked Conservatives nominated a retired clergyman in St. Lawrence division,—honorably retired because his doctors would not let him continue to use a weak throat. Since his retirement, this candidate—Mr. Johnston—has turned the talents, which ornament many a pulpit, to business; and he has succeeded. He is as active in church work as ever; but he is against Reciprocity. What was the poor "Witness" to do, with an election coming on? The religious community generally hailed the nomination of Mr. Johnston as a good sign—the entry of the right sort of man into public life. Those who take the "Witness" seriously would expect to find it sounding the same note.

But, after wrestling with the problem for some time, the "Witness" revenged itself on the subject of its perplexity by heaping coarse insults on his head. He had been a minister; he had left the ministry, and he is now rich. It was all so uncalled-for and unjustified that the "Witness'" own constituency flooded it with protests; and the result was that an apology appeared in its issue of Saturday. And when the "Witness" consents to apologise to a political opponent within two weeks of polling, the pressure must have been considerable.

Still, we suppose that gullible people will continue to take our contemporary at its own valuation. A certain sanctity of phraseology is as good as charity—in the minds of some folk—at covering a multitude of sins. A newspaper which freely admits itself that it is "so good," cannot possibly—they argue—be governed by low partizan motives; but the less somnolent of its constituency must in time become aware of the fact that it manages, with singular regularity, to find the path of duty on the same side of the political fence.

GREAT BRITAIN AS A BOGEY.

IF Germany is not to have the opportunity of fighting over the Agadir affair, she is at least to have a chance to pretend, on a magnificent, spectacular scale, that the English are at her doors, and that the sons of the Fatherland have had to rally for the defence of Berlin itself. The "Red" and the "Blue" armies which are manoeuvring under the eyes of the Kaiser, do not, either of them, bear any official titles which would show that the War Office had such an idea when it outlined the general character of this year's tactical scheme, but the proper intimations seem to have leaked out through the right sources and, in the eyes of the populace, the troops are to-day rehearsing what may some day be performed in deadly earnest.

This little matter of the manoeuvres is, in all probability, but a fore-taste of what we may expect for many months to come in the way of flaunting Great Britain in the face of the electorate already sated with military and naval expenditures, in an effort to goad it into one final burst of frenzied activity. Votes as well as debates in the Reichstag have shown that Hans is developing a strong disposition to scratch the gilt off the visions of glory which are spread before him, thus disclosing the sordid facts of increased taxation which lie hidden beneath. Unless a generally recognized objective can be produced, each year's estimate will be harder to put through than its predecessor. For her share in keeping Germany from acquiring a naval base on the Atlantic, Great Britain will have to pay by becoming the bogey by which the canny German peasant is made to yield up his hard-earned pfennigs.

MR. FISHER'S ARGUMENT.

THE Hon. Sydney Fisher claims that under Reciprocity the Canadian farmers will ship their produce to the States.

As the farmers are scarcely raising enough farm produce to supply our home markets now, and the cost of living is higher than it ever was before, where will the wage-earner come in?

Goodness knows. It is costing him enough to live now.

In many instances the cost of food has more than doubled in ten years.

If Mr. Fisher's contentions are correct, Reciprocity will make the cost of living higher than ever.

FRANCE IS READY.

AFTER the disastrous Franco-German war of 1870, France set itself to the systematic re-organization of all its defensive resources against the possibility of another invasion of the country. Its defences, all of which are now reported to be in a high state of efficiency, may be divided into three classes; the army, the navy, and the permanent fortifications; all of which have been remodelled, and greatly developed during the last forty years. The most radical change perhaps was in the army, France having adopted the principle of universal compulsory service. Every able-bodied man in the country, with very few exceptions, is a member of the army from the age of twenty to forty-five, and has to serve with the colors for two years. The total number of men liable to be called out is about 4,800,000, of whom 1,350,000 would be put in the field armies immediately on the outbreak of war.

The fleet, which was reviewed at Toulon by the President of the Republic, included eighteen battleships, six of them of the all-big-gun type, nine armored cruisers, and twenty-five torpedo boats and destroyers. This fleet, which was declared by the Minister of Marine to be perfectly ready for service and is the greatest fleet ever assembled by France, by no means represents the entire strength of the French navy. While this is not easy to define with certainty, the estimate of the British Admiralty is presumably not far out. On the 31st of March last year this estimate gave France credit for 17 battleships, 8 armored coast defence vessels, 20 armored cruisers, 22 protected cruisers, 10 torpedo vessels, 60 destroyers, 26 torpedo boats, and 56 submarines. Except in the matter of battleships and protected cruisers, the French navy is considered superior to the German navy. Compulsory service prevails on sea as on land. Every French sailor between eighteen and fifty years of age is enrolled in the navy and this includes all who are employed not only on the sea but in harbors or on tide water, in rivers and canals. Each man gets five years' of active service. The total personnel in 1909 was 56,800.

The most novel feature in the improvement of the defences of France is to be found in the great development of its system of fortifications along the northeastern or German frontier. This system consists of two lines of fortifications, the Meuse Line and the Moselle Line. The Meuse Line extends from Verdun, on the river Meuse, (which is a natural defence against invasion from Lorraine), to Toul, a distance of thirty-one miles. At both Verdun and Toul, there are great entrenched camps, and these are connected by a series of forts. The Moselle Line extends from Epinal to Belfort and commands all possible lines of advance from Upper Alsace. Both at Epinal and Belfort are large entrenched camps connected by a chain of forts. A very remarkable feature of this enormous system of fortifications is the Trouee d'Epinal, a gap in the defences between Epinal and Toul, which was purposely left open, the object of which was said to be "in some sort to canalize the flow of invasion." In the event of a German attempt to invade France much is likely to be heard of the Trouee. It cannot well be called a trap because although well-baited there is no attempt at concealment, and its purpose is as well understood by the Germans as by the French. The object of the Moselle Line is to deflect the flood of invasion either towards the Trouee d'Epinal or towards Belfort. If all the fortresses give as good an account of themselves as did Belfort in 1870, the invaders will have their work cut out for them. Behind each of the two lines of fortification there is a great defended area between which the main body of the French army would be divided and ready for offensive operations.

The Germans have a similar line of fortifications in Alsace and Lorraine and would have a French invading force at a similar disadvantage. One thing, however, that the French fortifications ensure is that there will be no repetition of the sudden coup of 1870. France will have ample time in which to mobilize its splendid army. There will not be another rapid succession of German victories on French soil at the outset of the campaign. The statement that France is ready is no idle boast.

It is not re-assuring to find Provincial Ministers talking for Reciprocity. Does that mean that they intend to sell out our forests if Reciprocity should come into force? That is one of the reasons the Americans favor Reciprocity; and Mr. John Norris has told Congress that "the pressure will be irresistible" on the Provincial Governments to give way.

It is the belief in British Connection and a Great Canada that is beating Reciprocity. If the Opposition at Ottawa had begun fighting on this paltform earlier—and let the Liberals talk hay—the Government would never have ventured an election on the issue.

Germany may not be going to war; but she is suffering the effects of the threat—just as New York suffered when Cleveland sent his Venezuelan message to Britain.

NEW GLASGOW CHEERS MR. BORDEN TO ECHO, THOUSANDS ACCLAIMING HIS DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICY

Conservative Leader Receives Tremendous Ovation from Coal Miners and Steel Workers—Removal of Coal Duties Under Reciprocity Agreement is Bitterly Denounced, and Audience Cheers Criticisms—Mr. Borden Says Canadians Have Received Serious Warning Out of President Taft's Mouth in Regard to Real Object of Reciprocity — Coal Manager Assailed.

Special Staff Correspondence.

New Glasgow, N.S., September 11.—Mr. Borden had an enthusiastic reception here, both before, during, and at the conclusion of, his meeting. Thousands cheered him repeatedly, and he was given a tremendous send-off when he left the city, on board the steamship Northumberland immediately after the Charlottetown meeting, and after a good rest and a smooth passage he arrived a Pictou at noon. Here he was met at the dock by hundreds of citizens, and escorted to his hotel amid many plaudits.

A reception had been planned for the Assembly Hall for the afternoon, but the accommodation was so inadequate for those who sought admission that an adjournment was made to the band stand on the public square. Here Mr. Borden and Mr. A. C. Bell spoke briefly, and received an attentive hearing, although they were in the home town of the Liberal candidate, Mr. E. M. Macdonald. After the meeting Mr. Borden and his party went over to New Glasgow by launch for the evening meeting.

New Glasgow, which is the home town of the Conservative candidate, gave him a magnificent welcome. Four thousand people gathered in the big rink, and there were hundreds who were unable to get within hearing distance. Enthusiasm was at a high pitch from start to finish.

The meeting at New Glasgow was representative of three counties. Special trains were run from Truro in Colchester, on the west, and from Antigonish, from the county of the same name, on the east. In Colchester, Mr. John Stanfield is again the Conservative candidate, and he is opposed by Mr. S. B. McLellan, former Judge of Probate. In Antigonish, Mr. William Chisholm, Liberal member of the last House, is again in the field, and the Conservative standard bearer is Dr. J. J. Cameron.

In the audience were large numbers of coal miners and steel workers. Pictou county is one of the chief centres of these industries in the province. There were also a considerable number of farmers from the surrounding districts.

DEVELOPMENT OF CANADA'S INDUSTRIES.

Chief interest centered in the relation of reciprocity to the coal and steel industries. Mr. Adam C. Bell took up the coal question in detail, and made a spirited attack upon Mr. Charles J. Call, the general manager of the Acadia Coal Company. Mr. Call at first had declared against any reduction on the duty on coal, but is now supporting Mr. Macdonald. Mr. Bell's strictures on Manager Call were cheered by a large section of the audience.

Mr. Borden struck the same note in the centre of manufactures, which he struck out in the West. He emphasized the necessity for Canada of the development of her industries, and the value of the National Policy to both working men and farmers. His declarations of these points drew loud shouts of approval from the audience.

Mr. Charles E. Tanner, the Conservative leader in the provincial Legislature, occupied the chair, and there was no doubt about "Charley" Tanner's popularity. They cheered him again and again.

"I am sure," began Mr. Tanner, "there are a good many people here tonight who are not going to follow the White Plume—(laughter)—but who are going to follow Mr. R. L. Borden, Canada's Premier, statesman and statesman-premier—for the short time till September 21, is as nothing. (Cheers.)

Then he went after Mr. E. M. Macdonald, the Liberal candidate.

"Mr. Macdonald," he said, "is anxious that we should let him finish his work. (Laughter.) Well, we will let him finish his work, but we will not let him finish our work for us. We are going to finish him." (Cheers and laughter.)

Mr. Adam C. Bell, the Conservative candidate, who was heartily cheered, emphasized the danger to the coal industry through reciprocity.

LIBERAL CAMPAIGN SHEETS INACCURATE.

He cited statements by Sir Montagu Allan, President of the Acadia Coal Company, and Mr. J. Coll, General Manager, before the agreement was announced, in which they protested against the removal of reduction of the duty on coal. The statement of Mr. Coll unalterably opposed "any change whatever in the duty on coal." A Liberal poster now being circulated seeks to maintain that these statements refer to "free trade in coal and not to Reciprocity," and Mr. Bell was greeted with general laughter when he pointed out the inaccuracy of the Liberal campaign sheets.

Mr. Bell declared that Mr. Macdonald had at first been opposed to Reciprocity, but that he had been brought into line by "hopes of promotion if Sir Wilfrid is returned to power."

He also remarked on the uncomfortable position now occupied by Mr. Coll, the General Manager, who is working with Mr. Macdonald in his elections. He was having great difficulty, said Mr. Bell, in explaining his declarations against any reduction in duty.

Proceeding, Mr. Bell reminded his audience of the development of the coal industry, as due to the national policy, which protected the market in Quebec. He gave a great many figures to show the growth of the industry.

"Under the Laurier Government," came an interjection, which was immediately followed by hisses.

A little later he declared that this agreement was made "because Taft wanted it."

"He's going to get it," called out a determined grit.

"Is he going to get it?" asked Mr. Bell.

"No! no!" shouted the great body of the audience.

"I wonder," he said, "whether they are boodlers. I wonder whether they are heelers, who put in a miserable existence on the crumbs which fell from Sir Wilfrid Laurier's party table. (Laughter.) In my opinion they are not patriots. (Cheers.)

The mention of the name of Laurier brought new hisses.

Mr. Bell concluded by asking the miners to vote to save their livelihood. "It's all very well," he declared, "for a general manager who is here to-day and gone to-morrow. But you know your business as well as any general manager." (Applause.)

MR. BORDEN WARNS NOVA SCOTIANS.

The cheers were renewed and renewed again when Mr. Borden rose to speak. It was several moments before he could proceed.

He began by recalling the circumstances under which Parliament was dissolved, with serious charges hanging over a Minister of the Crown. He commended the Liberals of Sorel for the merited rebuke they had given Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the Lanctot case.

He went on to discuss his proposals for Federal grants to the provinces in aid of agriculture and State highways. He laid special emphasis upon the latter plank in his platform as being of the utmost importance to the province of Nova Scotia, where, owing to the management by the Liberals, who have been in power for about thirty years, the highways are worse than in any other well settled province in the Dominion.

He then turned to discuss the National Policy in its relation to Canadian industries. He referred to his tour of the West this summer and to the strong feeling that he met out there in opposition to the duties on manufacturers.

"I told them," he said, "that I would never consent to any change in the fiscal policy of Canada, which would destroy the industries of Nova Scotia." (Cheers.)

The reciprocity agreement, he said, opened the home market of the farmer to the competition, practically of the whole world, and if that arrangement went into force, the farmer would not consent to see protection maintained for the manufacturer. ....

After discussing some other economic features of the reciprocity issue, he closed with an appeal to the people of Nova Scotia to maintain control of their national future.

"What object," he asked, "has the Government in undoing the work that we have been fifty years in building up, in nullifying and stultifying everything which the Canadian people have been doing for fifty years? (Cheers.)

"The Canadian people will not be fit to found a great nation if they do not take into account these higher national issues. If they enter into this agreement they will enter into it with their eyes open. For they have been warned by President Taft in words of such import as I think have never been uttered of a nation by the head of another nation in friendly relations with it." (Prolonged cheers.)

START LONG WALK.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphries on Way Round the World.

Mrs. Harry Humphries, of New York, who, accompanied by her husband, has undertaken to tramp round the world in four years, is at present in this city.

Mrs. Humphries' undertaking involves walking 48,000 miles in 48 months; 1000 miles per month, to win a wager of 10,000 dollars made with her by the Polo Monthly Magazine.

The conditions of the wager are that every foot of land must be traversed on foot. No official watch is made to see that the conditions are carried out, as it is believed the publicity given to the enterprise will ensure their being adhered to.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphries left New York on July 22, and have walked here by way of Albany, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Toronto, a distance of 1,783 miles which they have done a day and a half ahead of schedule time. From Montreal they will walk to Quebec, cross to Newfoundland, and from thence to Great Britain.

The pedestrians bear a flag of peace signed by President Taft, and will finance themselves by the sale of souvenir post cards, though it is open to them to accept whatever hospitality may be offered.

TORONTO'S POPULATION.

The City Assessors Estimate It at 374,426.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, September 11.—The assessors' estimate of the population of Toronto is 374,426, or an increase over the population as it was a year ago, of 32,000. This is a record increase in this city for one year.

All the assessment rolls of the city, except that for the Third ward, have been completed, and show a total assessment for the six wards completed of $209,387,480. A large increase is certain to be shown in the Third ward assessment, but including last year's figures for this ward, namely, $118,988,047, the total assessment of the city stands at $328,375,527.

Paving Contracts Awarded.

No additional asphalt pavements will be ordered this year by the city owing to the lateness of the season. The tenders received this week by the Board of Control are too high. The only pavements to be completed before the snowfall this year will be granite and scoria blocks. Of that, the Sicily Asphalt Company will supply blocks to the amount of $16,630; and the city engineer for $1,520.

Boots AND Shoes

JOSH BILLINGS, SAYS: What I like about a cock, is the crow he has, and the spurs he backs it up with, and what we like about our shoe buyer is his enthusiasm and the goods that justify it. He has just returned from one of his periodical trips to Boston, "That Centre of Shoedom," and having been fortunate enough to meet a manufacturer of high grade shoes, who needed some ready cash, he secured what we confidently believe to be some of the best values ever offered in this city.

TUNNEL CITY

The name is suggestive; the people caught on from the start and bought readily. One day's advertising resulted in more than $25,000 worth of sales from $29.00 a lot and up. Why? Because it means more to the working man and middle man than most people have any conception of. Think of being able to step on a tunnel tram at 6-05 p.m. and be home at 6-15, or say 6-20 p.m. at the latest. And what a glorious situation for a home. The mighty St. Lawrence with a beautiful Park is the front door to Tunnel City. Every lot a perfect place to build a home. The land gradually slopes upwards to the rear, where it is well-wooded. Absolutely no possibility of the spring freshets reaching the river-road, and the health giving conditions in Tunnel City are ideal. You cannot expect to buy land AFTER the Tunnel is built at less than farm prices, as you now can at Tunnel City, for with the first move next spring towards the commencement of the work, Tunnel City prices will advance hundreds of per cent. and at its completion you will say: Why didn't I purchase Tunnel City lots when I could buy for $29.00 to $89.00 a lot, and make a fortune? No time like the present. Buy on easy terms; No interest. Deeds immediately you pay for the lots, and in the years to come you will have occasion to thank

THE GREATEST BOOM IN SUB-DIVIDING FARMS IS ABOUT TO TAKE PLACE AT THE HEALTHIEST OF ALL SUBURBS OF MONTREAL--WHY?

Because of the very pure, cool and healthy breeze that is constantly blowing from the big St.Lawrence River Bay over the farms situated between St Lambert and the village of Laprairie, fronting on the shore of the very beautiful St. Lawrence River Bay.

Because of the intended tramway line to run on the best provincial road, the King Edward Road, now in course of construction across above farms, which are high and dry. Also the wonderful view over the bay to the Mount Royal, the Nun's Island and the Rapids, as well as the fact of being within 30 minutes from the centre of the City, make it the very best place for residential purposes in every respect, especially for parents, who have the upgrowth of their children very much at heart.

We can sell such farms at the present low prices immediately. In order to avoid paying higher prices, apply quickly for particulars.

Great Mass Meeting Denounces American Interference in Canada's Elections

HEARST'S ATTEMPT TO INFLUENCE THE CANADIAN ELEC TORATE IS DECLARED AN ANNEXATION MOVE IN DISGUISE

Ten Thousand Voters, Gathered on the Champ de Mars, Shout Their Disapproval of Hearst and All His Works—Decry Those Who are Co-operat ing With Him on This Side — Hearst's Manager Sends An Impertinent Reply to An Invitation Sent to Mr. Hearst to Be Present in Person or by Representative—Telegrams from Canadian Newspapers Denounce Hearst—Many Lively Incidents Attend Meeting—Hearst's Friends Fail in Their Attempt to Stampede the Gathering for Laurier — Effigy of Hearst Subjected to Indignities—Socialists Take Advantage of Overflow Meeting to Air Their Doctrines.

William Randolph Hearst—the High Priest of "Yellow" Journalism and a typical American demagogue—was told on Saturday night how the people of the Dominion, and of Montreal in particular, regard his impudence in conducting his annexation campaign in Canada under guise of the fight for reciprocity.

Incidentally, the "honest and earnest" friends of Mr. Hearst, who are working in conjunction with his efforts to convert Canada to reciprocity, came in for their shares of the disapprobation.

Between 8,000 and 10,000 people, mostly electors of the different city divisions, took part in the demonstration on the Champ de Mars and cheered to the echo the denunciations by speakers, in both English and French, of Hearst's interference in a Canadian election, which was duly traced to his advocacy of the absorption of Canada by the United States.

The demonstration of Saturday night was one unique in the political history of this country.

The Reciprocity 'pact, of which Hearst has constituted himself the champion, and which is the mask of his annexation activities, also came in for severe criticism by the speakers, and its certain intention to lead to a separation of Canada from the mother country was duly asserted.

But it was W. R. Hearst, who was the theme of the different speeches. The characteristically libellous and utterly false statements of his papers were exposed and held up to the ridicule of the crowd.

Although but a small proportion of the thousands who had gathered on the Champ de Mars could get near enough to the platform, which had been erected for the accommodation of the speakers, the great majority waited standing on the outskirts of the gathering, evidently content to signify their disapproval and their resentment of the Reciprocity agreement and the methods of its American exponent.

Taking advantage of their opportunity to harangue a crowd of greater proportions than is ordinarily afforded them, several local Socialist leaders obtained a table from a near-by establishment and addressed part of the overflow.

Messrs. Albert St. Martin and W. U. Cotton were the speakers, and the several hundred who had gathered around the table elicited much good-natured fun from the proceedings. The table from which the two Socialists were speaking was finally overturned and demolished and the impromptu meeting broke up in disorder with cheers for Borden and hisses for reciprocity.

Another side issue in the way of a meeting developed on the opposite side of the parade-ground, at which several young speakers called upon their two or three hundred hearers to support the anti-reciprocity candidates and to put the infamous Hearst where he belonged. Some of the remarks of the speakers in the latter connection, seeing that there was no particular responsibility sitting on their shoulders to maintain decorum, were more forcible than polite and the mischief-maker was consigned to a place the average mortal seeks with more or less diligence to avoid.

Early in the progress of the demonstration, a commotion was caused by the arrival of a small crowd who had been parading an effigy of Hearst around the streets. A portion of the crowd rushed to meet them and the effigy of Hearst disappeared in the confusion only to come to light again in the shape of bits of cloth which were worn as trophies.

Early in the evening it was evident that there was an organized movement to break up the meeting, but this was frustrated shortly after its inception by a counter demonstration by the vast majority of the big concourse and the cheers of the disturbers for Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hearst were drowned completely in a flood of cheering for Mr. Borden. The demonstrations, however, once or twice interfered with the effect of the speakers, but order was eventually restored, the vocal activities of the band lauding Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hearst collapsed utterly.

No Mistaking the Sentiment.

There was no mistaking the sentiment of the crowd. Cheers long and frequent punctuated the remarks of the speakers as they drove home their telling arraignment of Hearst and his impertinent meddling in Canadian affairs.

Referring to a portion of the telegram received from the general manager of the Hearst newspapers, Mr. Rufus H. Pope, the former member for Compton in the House of Commons and one of the organizers of the protest of Saturday night, said:

> "I don't care whether Hearst is in the south of France or in some other place hotter than the south of France; it does not matter where he is; I want to tell him that Canadians resent his interference and of the invasion of his paper to this country, for it is of the yellow kind, rotten and condemned."

This sentiment was cheered to the echo and it was some time before the speaker could proceed.

Mr. Pope drew a picture of Hearst and told his hearers what manner of man he was.

"I am inclined to believe," said Mr. Pope, "that some of the people who are trying to force reciprocity upon us in this country are in alliance with the man on the other side of the border who are endeavoring to break down the traditions of this country."

And the crowd, to judge from the cheering which followed, believed with Mr. Pope in this alliance.

"I was interested in reading an article in the Democratic Globe," said Mr. Pope, in another part of his speech, "which said that, had it not been for the French-Canadians in 1775, Canada would have been won over to the United States. In those days the French-Canadians numbered 16,000. It was shortly after Canada had been won by the British, and the French-Canadians resolved to stand true to the Crown. This is true, and I say that the same people, who number two millions to-day, will stand just as loyally to the British Empire, just as faithfully to the best interests of Canada against all efforts at annexation, as their 16,000 ancestors did over one hundred years ago."

The immense crowd, about half of whom were French-Canadians, cheered this sentiment to the echo and from the outskirts of the throng started up the national air, "O, Canada."

Mr. F. S. Maclennan, K.C., and Dr. Desy acted as joint chairmen of the meeting, and introduced the several speakers, who included Messrs. Olivar Asselin, the Opposition candidate in St. James; Geo. Lafontaine, M.L.A. for Maskinonge; A. Papineau Mathieu, W. H. D. Miller and several others.

Mr. Henri Bourassa, who it was hoped would be able to be present at the demonstration, was not present, acting on the advice of his physicians and remaining at home to nurse an affected throat.

A Reply to Hearst's Manager

Before calling upon the speakers of the evening, Mr. F. S. Maclennan read the following telegram from the general manager of the Hearst papers:

> "New York, September 9, 1911.—Mr. Hearst is in Europe and has been for three months. No one here has slightest authority to speak for him. He might see fit to answer a courteous telegram addressed to him in London, but I certainly would not undertake to forward him a telegram composed of ridiculous misstatements, couched in boorish language and conveying nothing but a convincing impression of the ill-breeding, inaccuracy, and unimportance of the two individuals signing it.
> S. S. CARVALHO,
> "General Manager to the Hearst Newspapers."

While the meeting was in progress the following answer was wired to Mr. Carvalho:

> S. S. Carvalho, The American New York.
> Replying to your message to the chairman of the mass meeting to-night, you must mistakenly think us strangely ignorant of Hearst's reputation for baseness and chicanery—for mischievous, cruel and wanton slander—for journalistic methods that are a menace to the nation's morals and otherwise a national curse—when you suggest that he be addressed as anything else than a peculiarly dangerous degenerate.
> And in his absence the conduct of his papers warrants the statement that the same measure of denunciation may justly and properly be invoked to describe their general management and editorial policy.
> As these words are being written the contemptuous jeers of ten thousand people on Champ de Mars are emphasizing the expressions of contempt of Hearst and his papers from reputable editors from Nova Scotia to British Columbia.

Groans and hisses followed the reading of the telegram from Mr. Carvalho and Mr. Maclennan said:

"It is for you, gentlemen, to judge the man and the people associated with him, who would send a telegram of this kind to insult the intelligent people of Montreal. What is your answer?"

"We'll show him on the 21st," shouted dozens from the crowd, a sentiment which received the hearty approbation of the thousands gathered on the parade ground.

Mr. A. Papineau Mathieu, in the course of the evening, read a number of messages from newspapers throughout Canada approving in the highest terms of the way Montrealers were showing their resentment of Hearst and his pro-recipocity campaign.

That the American "yellow" journalist is not altogether disinterested in the Reciprocity 'pact was made plain by several of the speakers, who informed the gathering that Hearst stood to save $600,000 annually in his bills for news paper, should the paper and pulp clause of the Taft-Fielding agreement go into effect. This information, they stated, was authentic and was to be corroborated in the proceedings of the American Senate Committee on Finance in the evidence of Mr. John Norris, chief lobbyist and official representative of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association at Washington.

The platform had been flanked by banners bearing anti-reciprocity sentiments in both languages; prominent among these were: "Canadians. Keep Your National Wealth for Yourselves," "Canada for Canadians," and "Protection Means Prosperity."

MR. PAPINEAU MATHIEU OPENS THE METING AND STATES ITS PURPOSE.

Mr. Papineau Mathieu, joint chairman opened with a few short remarks in which he strongly resented the impertinent interference of Mr. William Randolph Hearst and his seven newspapers in the present political campaign of Canada. In the past, the political fights had been fought out between the two parties on their merits, without foreign interference. The people of Canada had done without the yellow newspapers interfering in their political affairs up-to-date, and he had no doubt that the citizens would strongly resent this departure from past usages and the electors would show their displeasure on the 21st inst. by overthrowing the present administration and bury forever this reciprocity 'pact, that Mr. William Randolph Hearst was trying to ram down the throat of the people of Canada.

MR. ASSELIN MAKES STRONG SPEECH AGAINST INVASION.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Oliver Asselin, the opposition candidate in St. James, who was very cordially received.

Canadians were capable of conducting their own affairs, began Mr. Asselin. He wanted to protest with all the vigor at his command against the unwarranted interference of an American demagogue, whose only interest in reciprocity was that it would lower the price of pulp wood. Behind the campaign that Mr. Hearst was conducting in favor of reciprocity there was the half disguised inference of future annexation.

Mr. Asselin made a strong address against the proposed reciprocity 'pact. The workingmen of the district of Montreal had nothing to gain and all to lose if the agreement was ratified at Ottawa.

The price of food would be materially increased without a corresponding increase in the wages for labor. It was every one's duty to protest against such a measure.

"Let us keep our wonderful resources to be opened and worked by Canadians. Do not let the hungry American reap the benefits of our labor for the past fifty years just at the moment when we have succeeded in building up our country and placed it on a footing where we do not need any outside capital save that which is being invested by Great Britain."

No Control by Washington.

Mr. L. P. Delongchamps who was the next speaker said that this country did not want to nave its tariff controlled by Wasington. Why open our market to the Americans and become the slaves of predatory wealth and gigantic trusts, and which would eventually force annexation upon us? Mr. Fielding and Mr. Paterson had been hoodwinked by Mr. Philander C. Knox, the American Secretary of State.

It was a far cry from the safe and sane politics of Sir John A. Macdonald to the one now in evidence in Ottawa.

The American market might appear advantageous to us now but it was bound to swallow our own market. Mr. Delongchamps concluded by making an appeal to all present to forget the party spirit and vote against the proposed reciprocity 'pact. When a measure was advocated by such a man as William Randolph Hearst, in the manner with which he is fighting in favor of it, it was proof sufficient that it would be of no benefit to Canada, concluded the speaker. (Cheers.)

Mr. Papineau Mathieu, read a number of telegrams received from different newspapers all over the country, protesting against the entrance of Mr. Hearst into Canadian politics.

"Hearst's reputation as a liar should be alone sufficient to convince all Canadians that any measure that he favors in connection with the commercial relations between Canada and the United States, is not in the best interest of this country" wired the Calgary "Herald."

Other messages from the Victoria, B. C., "Colonist;" the London "Free Press" and the Quebec "Chronicle" were also read to the audience. They were unanimous in protesting against Mr. Hearst and reciprocity.

Amid expressions of regret Mr. Mathieu advised the attendance that Mr. Bourassa was suffering from an affection of the throat and would be unable to be present.

Mr. F. S. Maclennan, K.C., one of the joint chairmen of the meeting, said that the question of Reciprocity at present before the country was without doubt the most important one with which the electors had to deal, but he strongly denounced the interference of Mr. Hearst in this question, saying that he was sure the citizens of Canada could decide for themselves whether or not the Liberal party should be returned to power.

Mr. Hearst, continued the speaker, has endeavored to introduce into this campaign methods which are unknown to us, but which are very familiar to him, and which he is carrying on in his seven papers scattered throughout the United States, but the citizens of Canada will show him on the 21st of September that Canada is able to work out her own destiny and that we do not require him to dictate to us what we shall do.

It is not hard to understand why he comes here, continued Mr. Maclennan, when it is known that he is the acknowledged right hand man of President Taft, and as Mr. Taft has told us we are at the parting of the ways, Mr. Hearst has been called upon to widen the breach.

MR. POPE DEFENDS CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP AGAINST MR. HEARST.

"I hold myself responsible," said Mr. Pope, who was the best speaker, "as being one of the parties who brought this large gathering here to-night in the great metropolis of Montreal, the commercial centre of Canada. The other evening when making a speech in the city of Sherbrooke to an outdoor audience not as large as this one, but still a great meeting for the city of Sherbrooke, I observed someone in the crowd circulating literature and papers among the audience. I afterwards learned that it was one of Mr. Hearst's American newspapers which had been distributed to the people specially prepared in the United States for the edification of the Canadian people.

"I found when I returned to Montreal that the same thing had been done through Mr. Hearst's own special newsagents and newsboys, the papers having been given free to those people who would accept them. Now, I was born a Canadian, and, in the language of the old Conservative chieftain, Sir John Macdonald, I propose to live a Canadian and I will die a Canadian. (Loud cheers.) And I resent stronger than my language can express to this magnificent audience to-night, this interference of outside people in our domestic affairs.

"We people of Canada will continue to judge our own political affairs and will work out our own destiny—(loud cheers)—and no American, whoever he may be, shall dictate to us what course to take in our future policy, what form of government we shall have. (Cheers.) We will decide what part we shall play as part of this Empire without asking Mr. Hearst's permission. (Renewed cheers.)

"In the telegram which has just been real to you, Mr. Hearst says that I am ill-bred. Well, if I am ill-bred, I am thorough-bred—I am a thoroughbred Canadian, from the soles of my feet to the crown of my head. (Cheers.) That sort of breeding of course may not satisfy Mr. Hearst, but it is good enough for me. (Hear, hear.) It was good enough for my father; it is good enough for my children, and I trust it will be good enough for many generations to come. We shall all continue to be Canadians. (Loud cheers.) So much for the telegram of Mr. Hearst, or his representative.

MR. HEARST'S RECORD UNDER EXAMINATION.

"Let us now examine Mr. Hearst himself and look into his reputation a little. It will not cost much. (Laughter.) His agents tell us he is in Paris or London or somewhere in Europe. I do not care whether he is in France or in the South of France or in some other place hotter than the south of France. It does not matter where he dwells. The point is that Canadians resent the outside interference from that gentleman. (Cheers.) He is the proprietor of seven newspapers of what are known as the yellow kind, rotten condemned. The Secretary of State for War under the administration of President Roosevelt, Mr. Root, who is a man of some importance, stated before the great nation of the United States, that he held Mr. Hearst responsible for the murder of President McKinley. He is a dangerous character. Take the Cuban war, for example. He sent out an artist to draw pictures for his newspapers. There was nothing doing, and the artist wrote a letter to Mr. Hearst to this effect. 'You draw the pictures, that is all you have to do,' wrote back Mr. Hearst, 'I will make the war.' ("Shame.")

"We can recall the attitude of his newspapers recently in regard to the Mexican affair. We saw the United States line up troops on the border of Mexico. The excuse given was that the troops were placed there to protect American citizens. As a matter of fact, however, the American citizens did not require any protection in Mexico. The Mexican Government looked after that all right. It was not a question of protecting American interests, but Mr. Hearst's newspapers were then, as they are everlastingly doing, looking after new territory. He is always pushing his nose into other people's affairs, and I think that the present is an opportune time for the free-born citizens of this metropolis and Canadians generally, to take a firm stand in the interests of their own freedom of action and express the resentment which is justly felt against Mr. Hearst's unwarrantable interference, and against any foreigner's interference, we do not care who he is, who will interfere in our country's politics:

"I do not know how closely identified the Liberal party may be with this man, Mr. Hearst. That is beyond my knowledge, and until I discovered that Mr. Hearst was in Europe and had been there for some time, I thought he was running this show himself. But when I learned that he was away, and that complete arrangements of a very important character had been made for the preparation of special matter and the circulation of Mr. Hearst's newspapers here, since then I have been inclined to believe—I say here that I do not make any charge, but I am inclined to believe that some people who are trying to force reciprocity upon us in this country, are in close alliance with the man on the other side of the border line who are seeking to break down the traditions of this country." (Loud cheers.)

Directly the subject of reciprocity was mentioned there was an outcry from a small group lined up to the left of the platform, and for a time they tried to drown the voice of the speaker, but Mr. Pope went on serenely:

FRENCH-CANADIANS SAVED THE COUNTRY.

"In reading some of the American newspapers the other day I was interested in a statement in the great Democratic Globe to the effect that had it not been for the French-Canadians in 1776 Canada would have been won over to the United States. In those days the French-Canadians numbered 16,000. It was shortly after Canada had been won by the British to stand true to the Crown.

"Sir, this is true, and I say that the French-Canadians who number two millions to-day will stand just as loyally by the British Empire, just as faithfully to the best interests of Canada against all efforts at annexation as their 16,000 predecessors over one hundred years ago. (Loud cheers.)

"We are living under peculiarly happy conditions, such conditions, perhaps, that no other country in the world is enjoying to-day, and, gentlemen, we are all believers in the permanence of our institutions under the constitution given by Sir George Etienne Cartier, Sir John Macdonald, the Hon. George Brown and others. Under this constitution our rights are clearly defined, our privileges are guaranteed, and the way is clearly made out for the two great nationalities, the French-speaking and the English-speaking peoples, to work out the destiny of this grand Dominion (Cheers.) We cannot afford, no matter what the projects may be, to jeopardize our rights and privileges. I say that we cannot take one step. we must not take one step in the direction which in the slightest degree threatens our constitution. (Loud cheers.)

"Gentlemen, I believe this proposed agreement of reciprocity is a step in this direction."

At the mention of reciprocity again, there was another demonstration of opposition from the score or so of noise-makers to the left of the platform.

"Go on, my friends," said Mr. Pope, "I enjoy your interruptions; "but I think you are a great deal happier to-night than you will be on the night of September 21 next. (Laughter and cheers.) The time of the 'vieux coq' may be now, but it will not be after September 21. (Renewed laughter.)

ANNEXATION IS PURPOSE IN SIGHT.

"If you take up the American newspapers you will find amongst them, from California to Maine, convincing evidence that the purpose of this reciprocity treaty is to bring about annexation and to wipe out the history of Canada. They tell us this in plain language. President Taft said in his famous speech that we are at the parting of the ways. What are the parting of the ways? If he imagines that we are going to be parted from our ways by what Mr. Hearst is writing in his newspapers or by his interference in our business, Mr. Taft is mistaken. (Cheers.) We are determined to perpetuate the history of the founders of the great peoples who founded this nation of ours, the French people and the English-speaking people, including the Empire Loyalists who came from the United States at the declaration of the independence of that country.

"Let us now take up the question of reciprocity. (Interruption.)

"Our friends in the corner are still busy. It must be a very weak case that will not stand criticism. It is a very weak case that will not stand upon its own feet without a lot of howlers around to shout for it—or, rather, to attempt to shout down those who criticise it. (Cheers.) They may butt in and take up some of our time, but they will not alter the determination of the great bulk of the people of Canada to do their duty and vote against reciprocity on September 21 next. (Cheers.)

"I have been passing and repassing through the province of Quebec for a number of years past. I know the sentiments of the electors very well, and I am here to tell you to-night that I have never before seen the people so much stirred up by a real interest in the great public affairs of the province and Canada as they are in this election, and I believe when we know the final results on September 21, they will make up a message to Mr Taft and Mr. Hearst that will demonstrate that the Canadian people know their own business nd know whom to elect to run that business without any interference from the other side of the boundary line. (Loud cheers.)

MR. G. LAFONTAINE JOINS IN PROTEST.

Mr. George Lafontaine, M.L.A., for Maskinonge, said he had great pleasure as representing his county in joining in that protest against the impudent propaganda put forward by a foreign newspaper against the true interests of Canada and advanced in the selfish interests of a section of the United States. The people of Canada were quite capable of looking after their own affairs without the interested advice of foreigners. "I'm against this reciprocity 'pact," declared Mr. Lafontaine, "and I feel sure that the majority of electors of the Dominion are of the same mind. We are going to vote in a way that will show that we believe in Canada for the Canadians, and are determined that Canada shall remain for the Canadians." (Loud cheers.)

Mr. Lafontaine went on to say that the continued prosperity of the Dominion depended upon the carrying out of a wise policy of protection. Speaking as a farmer, he was able to testify that the policy enunciated by Sir John Macdonald had brought prosperity to the farmers, and if the good of the country were to be considered this line of policy must be continued. The reciprocity proposal had been considered on its merits, and the sane conclusion was that its adoption would lead to much unfair competition in which Canada would suffer through the cheap labor of some of those countries who would have to enjoy special privileges under the favored nations clause of an existing treaty.

The Americans would also gain access to our natural resources, the manufacturing industries of Canada would suffer with a disastrous result to the working classes which was obvious. He was glad to see the determined stand which Montreal, the metropolis of Canada, was taking against this 'pact, and her resentment against the interference of those who ought to mind their own business was justified.

As a French-Canadian, Mr. Lafontaine declared, amidst cheers, that he was proud of being a British subject, and he was certain that his compatriots would stand shoulder to shoulder in opposition to the proposed reciprocity agreement which threatened their common interests. "I am also against the Government," he concluded, "because they have adopted a naval policy which is not in the best interests of the country." (Cheers.)

ABLE TO CONDUCT OUR OWN AFFAIRS.

Mr. W. H. D. Miller, in opening his address, explained that he was there as the representative of Mr. G. F. Johnston, who, he said, was unable to attend, because of two others meetings which he was compelled to address during the evening.

Mr. Miller, on behalf of Mr. Johnston, said that he protested strongly against the interference of outside people in this campaign.

"We have been able to conduct our affairs," he said. "We have always been able to conduct our affairs in a manner satisfactory to ourselves and we deny the right of Mr. Hearst to send his yellow journals into this country for the purpose of influencing the electors one way or another in a question such as we have before us. We have every justification for believing that we have the ability to conduct the affairs of this country without Mr. Hearst's assistance. We do not ask Mr. Hearst's interference. We have had better men in the past and we have better men at the present time to conduct our affairs, and we propose to conduct them as the occasion requires from time to time.

"Mr. Hearst has made a reputation in the United States and the world at large as a yellow journalist of a very unfair type. He is not a man we would care to have present with us to-night to suggest what we should do in the interests of Canada."

MEETING IS MESSAGE TO MR. HEARST.

Mr. Miller, in closing, said that he was not there as the representative of any political party, but that he appeared to protest against Mr. Hearst's interference at this time, as a good Canadian citizen.

Mr. F. S. Maclennan then addressed a few remarks to the assembly, thanking them for turning out in such large numbers to join in a timely protest against Mr. Hearst's action in regard to the present election.

"I am sure," continued Mr. Maclennan, "that the result of those elections will be that every Canadian within the sound of my voice will join in a message to Mr. Hearst and his friends that Canada is for the Canadians. (Cheers.) We do not need to be interfered with by American newspapers, however much they may feel it in their own interests to advise us in what way we ought to decide the election. As true Canadians we are opposed to this Taft-Fielding reciprocity pact. (Loud cheers.) We are not going to take any step which may lead to annexation to the United States, but we have decided to remain good Canadians and loyal British subjects as we are today." (Loud cheers.)

DOOM IS SEALED, DECLARES DR. DESY.

Dr. Desy closed the meeting with a protest against the actions of a small group of men who had continually interrupted the speakers. When a party had to descend to such tactics, its doom was sealed.

Long after the speakers had concluded the crowd lingered on the Champ de Mars in the hope of hearing some more speeches. They gathered together in small groups and discussed the question between themselves. The supporters of reciprocity appeared to be few and far between and the most common expression that could be heard Saturday night while travelling through the crowd was: "It looks like a landslide." Some of the men while predicting the downfall of the present administration expressed sympathy for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, that he should have to end his career by being defeated, but their duty was stronger than their feelings, and they would have to vote against him.

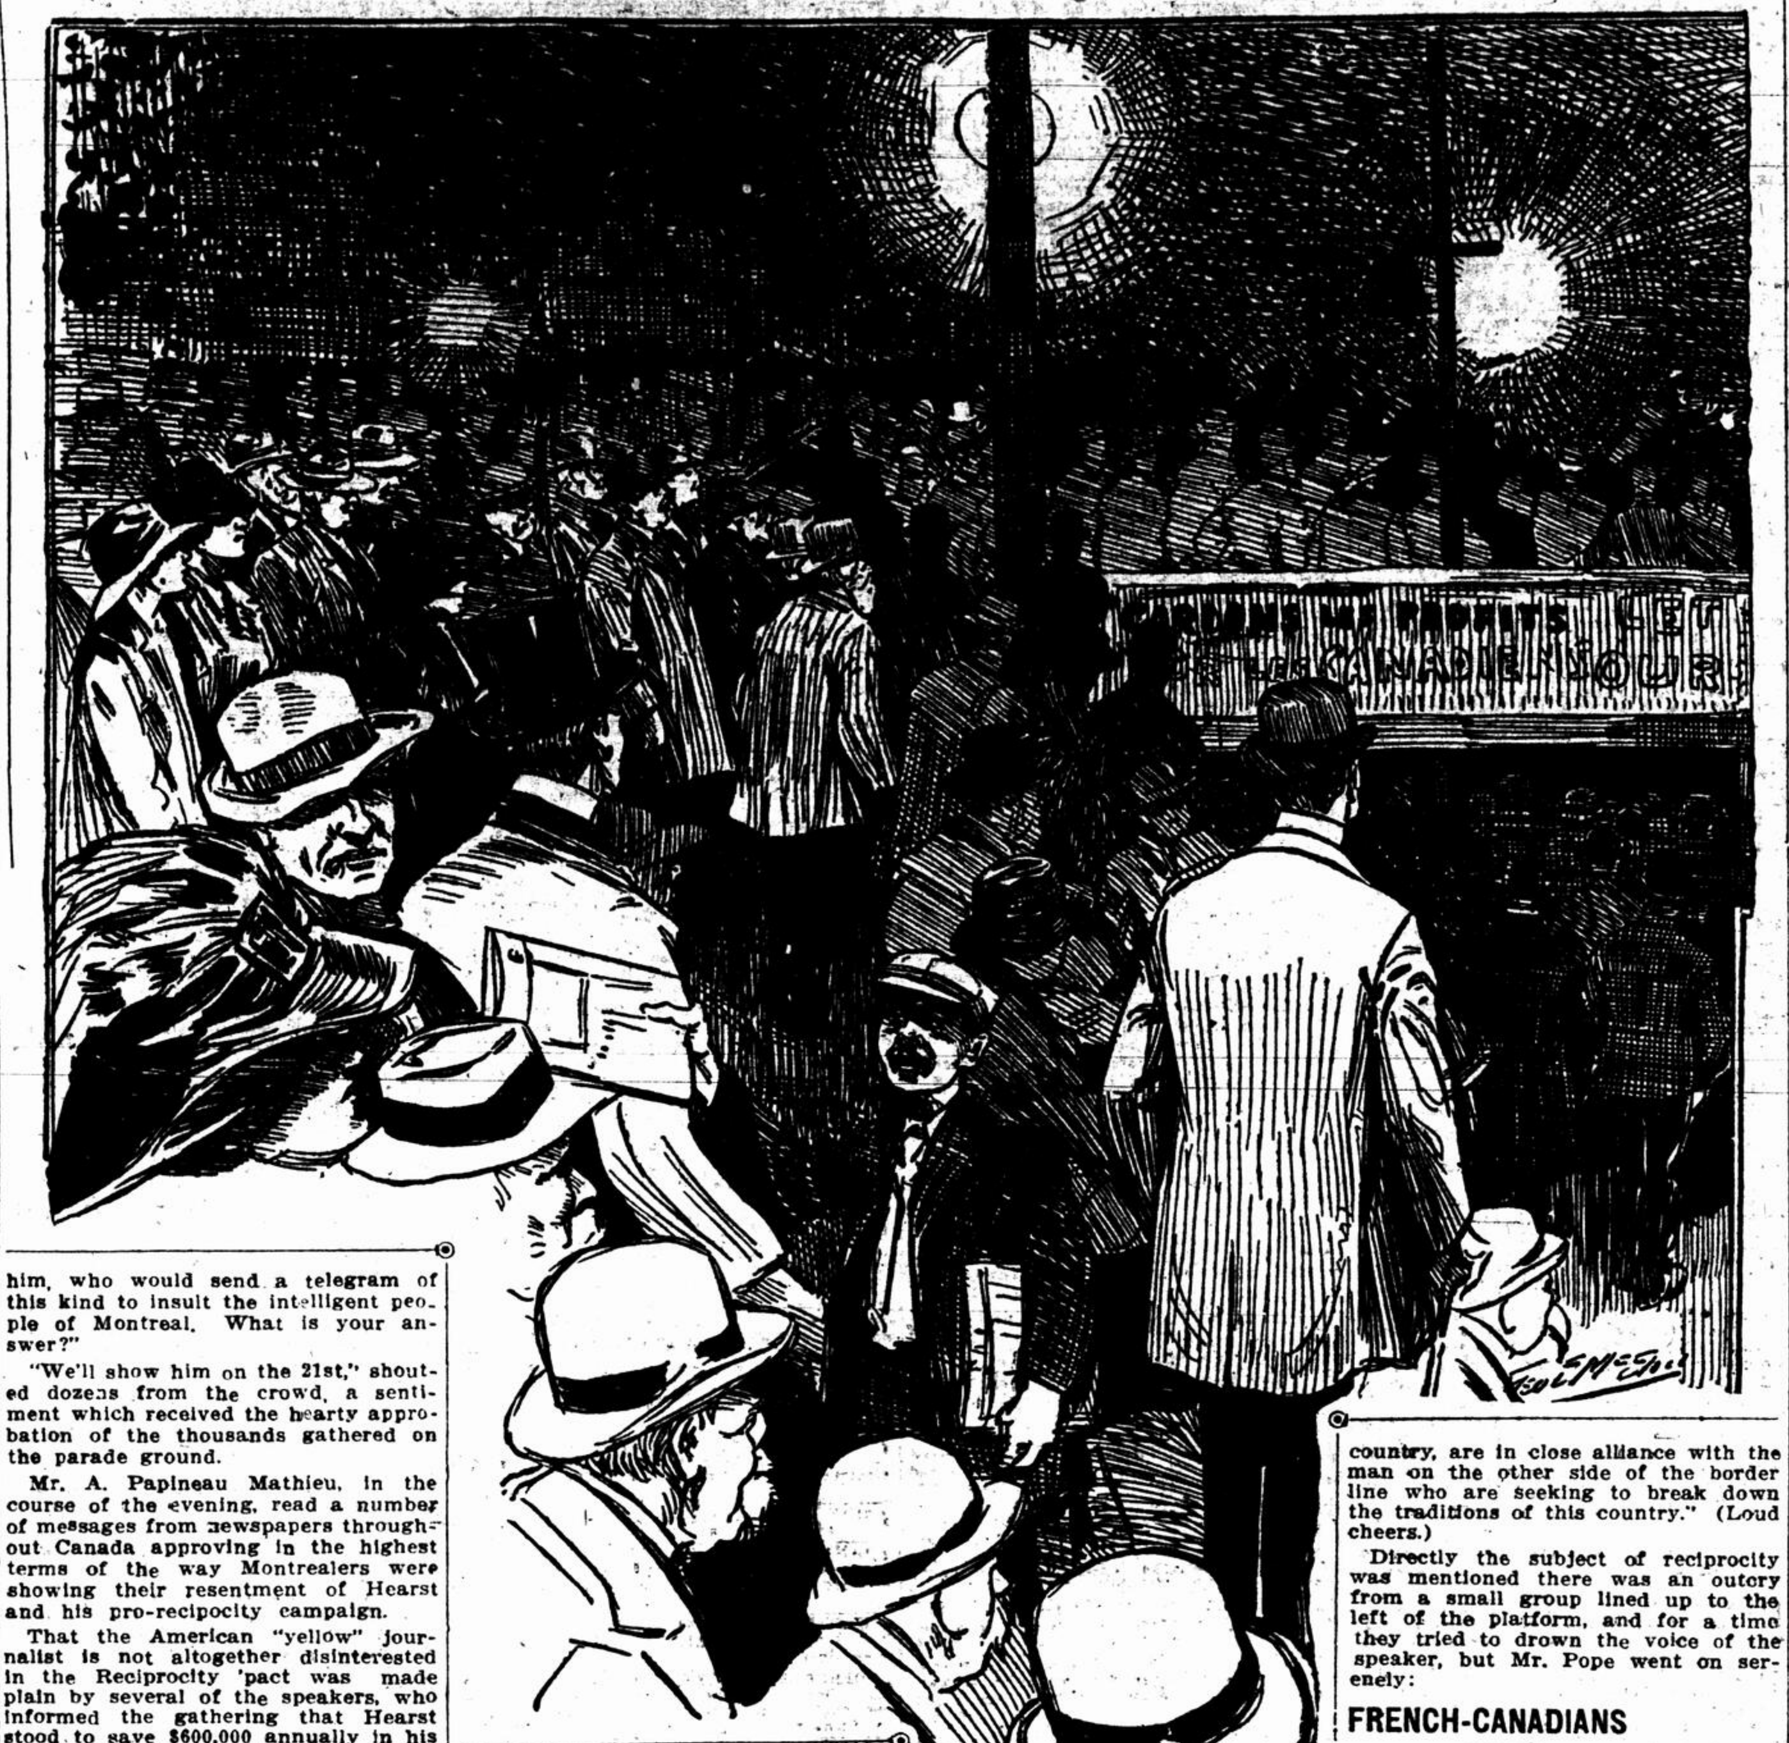
EFFIGY OF HEARST WAS ROUGHLY TREATED.

While the speech-making from the official platform was at its height, there was a sudden incursion of newcomers dragging a muddied effigy, labelled "Hearst." Their arrival was the occasion of a rush from the outskirts of the crowd and in a few seconds the effigy was torn into its original constituents—and then some.

Prior to arriving at the Champ de Mars, there had been a short procession through the streets of that section of the city, the effigy being dragged from the tail-end of an express wagon. When it reached the meeting it was, consequently, in a condition which bore little resemblance to that in which it probably began its career.

As the crowd which was dragging the effigy entered the field there was a quick accretion to its members and before the procession had got well into the field, the effigy had gone to pieces under the feet of the newcomers. There was a rush for relics of it and then, with many shouts of "A bas Hearst," the original procession and its recruits melted into the audience of one or other of the three or four meetings which were going on simultaneously.

A GLIMPSE OF SATURDAY NIGHT'S MASS MEETING, FROM THE EAST SIDE OF THE SPEAKERS' PLATFORM.



STRENUOUS FIGHT IS BEING WAGED IN ST. LAWRENCE

Mr. Bickerdike Criticised for Head Tax on Immigrants Entering Canada.

MEETINGS ARRANGED IN CITY DISTRICTS

Mr. Doherty, Mr. Coderre and Mr. Villeneuve Will Address Gatherings To-night.

The fight in St. Lawrence division between Mr. G. F. Johnston and Mr. Robt. Bickerdike, is developing into one of the most strenuous of the present campaigns locally.

Yesterday's meeting in favor of the anti-reciprocity candidate, Mr. Johnston, was held in the Varieties Theatre, on St. Lawrence Boulevard, which was filled to its capacity by several hundred of the Jewish electors of the riding. The reciprocity pact came in for some rough handling by the speakers, who addressed the gathering in Yiddish and English. The effect of the agreement on the cost of living was one of the chief points dwelt upon and the consumers in St. Lawrence shown that the Taft-Fielding deal meant money out of his pocket and no advantage in return.

The principal speakers at the meeting were: Messrs. Manuel Levitt, Leon Goltman, Bernard Rose, H. Weinfield, H. Kronenberg, and Dr. N. Viner.

One of the features of the meeting was the pointing out by one of the speakers that Mr. Bickerdike had voted for the placing of a $25 tax on all immigrants entering Canada, although the measure was aimed chiefly at the Jewish people.

To-night a meeting in favor of the candidature of Mr. Bickerdike will be held in Auditorium Hall, at which the chief speakers will be: Senators Dandurand, Casgrain and Wilson, Mr. R. C. Smith, K.C., and Mayor Guerin.

Mr. Doherty's Meeting.

In St. Ann's division, Mr. C. J. Doherty, the anti-reciprocity nominee, will hold a meeting to-night in St. Ann's Hall, corner of Young and Ottawa streets. Ald. Thos. O'Connell will preside and the principal speakers of the evening will be Mr. Doherty, Hon. M. P. Hackett, Ald. P. Monahan, and Messrs. C. H. Cahan, K.C., Campbell Lane, K.C.

Mr. Villeneuve's Meeting.

Mr. E. W. Villeneuve will open his campaign in Maisonneuve to-morrow night in the St. Louis Town Hall, at the corner of St. Lawrence Boulevard and Laurier avenue. In addition to the Conservative nominee, there will be present at the meeting as speakers, Messrs. C. H. Cahan, K.C., H. B. Ames, Campbell Lane, K.C., Fitz-James E. Browne, a former Liberal stalwart, and John Boyd.

The work of organizing the immense constituency has been completed by Mr. Villeneuve, who has opened some twenty-five committee rooms in the division.

On Wednesday night, Mr. Villeneuve will hold a meeting for the English-speaking electors of the district in the Readoscope, opposite the Town Hall of Maisonneuve, on Notre Dame street.

To-night two meetings for French-speaking electors will be held by Mr. Villenehve, one in St. Jean Baptiste Market Hall, and another at 102 St. Christophe Colombe street in Duvernay ward.

To Help Mr. Asselin.

To the support of Mr. Oliver Asselin, the Opposition candidate in St. James, has come Mr. C. N. Chamberland, the founder of the Young Men's Liberal Association. Mr. Chamberland has resigned from the organization and has addressed the following letter to Mr. Asselin:

> My Dear Sir:—I have just given in my resignation as secretary of the Liberal Club for St. Mary's division as well as from the Young Men's Liberal Association of Montreal, and come to offer my support in St. James division. I am also associated with a very important group of friends.
> Truly yours,
> CHARLES N. CHAMBERLAND.

Mr. Asselin will hold a meeting to-night at the corner of Roy and Mentana streets. To-morrow night the Opposition candidate will address an open air gathering, devoted chiefly to the workingmen of the division, at the St. James market. On Wednesday night, Mr. Asselin will speak to the English electors of the division at the Central committee rooms, 269 St. Andre street.

Dr. Reid Is Pleased.

Dr. J. D. Reid, former member in the Commons for Leeds and Grenville, was in Montreal yesterday, and stated that the anti-reciprocity fight in Eastern Ontario was progressing most satisfactorily and that the Taft-Fielding pact would not be favored by the rural communities in the way the Liberals expected it would.

The farmers, said Dr. Reid, were too sharp to be fooled by the wiles of the American conceivers of the agreement and Eastern Ontario's representation in the next Parliament would be overwhelmingly against reciprocity.

More Against Reciprocity--New Low Records in New York--Panic in Berlin

MORE LOW RECORDS IN N.Y. TO-DAY

More new low records were made in Wall Street to-day, Union plunging down to 161, ex-dividend 2½ per cent.

C.P.R., which sold at 218 on Saturday, opened higher at 222, but could not hold the rise, and fell off a little.

Berlin was again a seller in London and New York, and cables from that centre said that the panic there was still in progress on a moderate scale.

Locally the market again held well, and on the whole there was not much selling pressure.

Steel sold at 54 and then off to 53⅝.

Rio, after selling at 113, was offered at 112½.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

Laidlaw & Co. — While prices may go lower, and certainly will unless there is a change of front on the part of the moneyed interests, it would seem that investors need little fear of buying standard paying stocks around going prices.

R. M. Bauer—I continue to believe that stocks are a good sale on any rally.

Hayden, Stone—We still tend to the opinion that, while no extended activity or advance may be made, still there are enough good factors to make for fairly satisfactory business and security prices, but that the thing most needed is confidence to produce business extension and market buying power, and this does not yet seem to be with us.

F. Nash & Co.—We feel that our securities can be purchased on all weak spots, and would prefer to buy Canadian stocks in preference to American even at the higher level prevailing for our securities.

G. W. Farrell—For the time being, until the market shows a more decided trend, we would advise caution in making commitments on the long side.

Shearson, Hammill & Co.: Outside of small rallies we do not look for any improvement at this time.

BERLIN IN PANIC BUT PARIS CALM

Special to the Montreal Star.

Paris, September 11.—In a review of the week's business on the Bourse, the New York Herald's financial correspondent, after calling attention to the strength and good tone of the French stock market all through the present Franco-German crisis, refers to the financial situation in Germany as follows:

"Berlin, on the other hand, has provided a foretaste of what a financial panic in Germany would be if it were necessary to have recourse to arms to settle the Moroccan question.

"A drop of 10 to 15 points in the principal industrial stocks, which had to be withdrawn in blocks from the share list to prevent a general panic and too heavy losses, the suspensions of payment, failures and suicides, and the rush of small depositors to savings and deposit banks in Germany, have provided the spectacle of a country which is financially panic-stricken and a prey to a credit crisis, which, if not rapidly stopped, might have incalculable consequences.

"It is with no vain pride that one can contrast Germany's nervousness with the calm and sound resistance of the French market, which is only waiting for the clouds to roll by, to display all its activity and buoyancy.

"France possesses in her financial power a marvellous degree of strength regarding which she has a right to be proud."

HETTY GREEN'S SON HAS 6,242 OFFERS FROM THE LADIES

New York, September 11.—The world's record for proposals of marriage—received not given—probably will be conceded to Col. Edward H. R. Green, son of Hetty Green, the world's richest woman, for it was learned to-day that within the last few months he has received 6,242 such offers.

Not long ago, Col. Green, who is 40 years old, and a jovial bachelor, remarked good-naturedly to a reporter:

"When I find the right girl, I will marry her, if she will have me."

Now he wishes he had kept still, for women who would like to share his name and wealth are writing to him at the rate of about 100 a day. The contest for his hand has developed into an international event.

Of the proposals received to date, 1231 were from foreign shores, and 720 of these were penned by the ladies of the United Kingdom.

The letters reach him through his house and offices here and via his residence in Texas.

Four Directors Of Home Life Have Resigned

The resignation of four directors of the Home Life Association of Canada and the filling of their places by four directors of the Union Life Assurance Co., would seem to indicate, according to the Monetary Times, the transfer of the control of the former company to the latter.

Those who resigned from the directorate of the Home Life at a recent meeting were: Messrs. J. R. Stratton, president; D. W. Karn, Rolph and Burns. Their places were filled by Messrs. H. Pollman Evans, who will be president of the company; Y. H. Carrie, H. Symons, K.C., and Dr. G. E. Millichamp, all of whom are also directors of the Union Life Assurance Co.

London Settlement Begins To-morrow.

London September 11. — The stock market threw off some of its recent heaviness, and scored a fair general improvement during the morning on the more optimistic Continental news.

Later prices eased off under renewed realizing, induced by fears of the outcome of the settlement, which begins tomorrow.

American securities opened firm, and during the forenoon the general list advanced from ¼ to 1¼ points. Canadian Pacific was exceptionaly firm, and after an initial gain of two points, advanced to 4¾ over parity on buying orders from Berlin. In the afternoon the market reacted under New York selling. Canadian Pacific lost 2⅝.

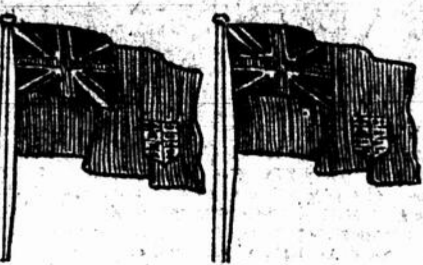
NINE MORE BIG LIBERALS "AGAINST."



The Star received to-day the names of nine more staunch Liberals who are going to vote against Reciprocity.

They are all prominent Montreal business men, and their names will be announced in due course.

The honor roll is growing.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

Another Liberal.

Mr. Allister Mitchell, the Montreal manager of Laidlaw & Co., is another staunch Liberal, who has left the ranks on the Reciprocity question.

"Canada was heading the right way," he said, "and the Reciprocity deal seeks to head us the wrong way. If the Americans want our products, let them lower their duties, and this, I firmly believe, they will do. And it will not be necessary for us to open our markets to them. We can, therefore, get for nothing what the Government wants us to buy at a big price."

Mr. Mitchell's father, who is now living in England, was at one time president of the Montreal Reform Club, and the father and son have never cast a Conservative vote.

La Rose Dividend.

Although there is a chance of the dividend on La Rose being increased from 8 to 10 per cent., it is believed that Mr. McGibbon is opposed to the increase.

The company's cash surplus is large and tempting, but the report was current to-day that the president seeks to adhere to the conservative policy of saving up for a rainy day.

2,500,000!

When the Star announced some time ago that there were 1,000,000 idle men in the United States, the Reciprocity papers howled "lie," "gross exaggeration," "fake" and other frenzied expressions.

The Boston News-Bureau, one of the best known financial newspapers in the States, now estimates that instead of 1,000,000, there are 2,500,000 men idle.

No wonder the United States wants to hitch up with a live, prosperous country.

"Scotia."

Newspapers are predicting an increase in the Nova Scotia Steel dividend for the 421st time. By unswerving perseverance they will surely hit it right if they only keep at it long enough.

Break in C.P.R.

Not long ago (when C. P. R. was around 240) a local paper imparted the information that in spite of hail, thunder, lightning, wars, crop disasters, earthquakes and measles, investors would never sell C. P. R.

Altogether the stock has dropped about 30 points (the high record was 247¼) and the liquidation keeps up.

Mr. Wasserman's telegram to the Star some weeks ago that C. P. R. would likely drop to 215 was a pretty good guess.

Blow for Coal.

Reciprocity will be a severe blow to the Dominion Coal Company, Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co., and the general coal industry in the East.

The American duty is 45 cents a ton, and the Canadian duty is 53 cents.

The shrewd artists at Washington flimflammed Mr. Fielding into a promised reduction in our duty to 45 cents, or 8 cents a ton.

The Nova Scotia companies can barely hold their own in the Montreal market now. They will be pulverized by the Yankee coal men if the duty is lowered.

Cement.

Mr. F. P. Jones states that Calgary uses more cement per head of population than any other place in Canada.

More Cheerful For Black Lake Asbestos Co.

Things are beginnig to look up a little for the Black Lake Asbestos Co., which has just closed a contract with English buyers for an amount equal to the company's entire 1911 output.

The company has been running only half the mill, and work on the remaining half of the mill will now be pushed.

The company paid its bond interest on September 1, and it is possible that in a year or two the industry may have recovered so that a reasonable amount of earnings will be available for dividends on the preferred stock.

BUTTER MARKET STRONG.

Receipts of butter for the week were 15,619 packages, against 16,913 for the corresponding week of last year. Total receipts since May 1, 346,730 packages, against 303,915 for the corresponding period of last year. The local market is quiet but firm, with finest Townships creamery quoted at 26c to 26 1-4c, and undergrades at 25 1-2c to 25 3-4c.

CLAIM "SOO" OWNS LOT OF ERIE STOCK

"Theer have been many rumors current," say Thompson, Towle & Co., in a market letter, "of the large ownership of Erie shares in Canada, and finally President Shaughnessy, of the Canadian Pacific, met these rumors with the official statement that Canadian Pacific had no ownership in Erie, as rumored.

"Shortly thereafter a representative of our firm while abroad received conclusive evidence that the 'Soo,' which is controlled by Canadian Pacific, had a large ownership in Erie.

"Official denials of Canadian Pacific acquisition of the Wisconsin Central will be remembered, shortly after which it was discovered that the 'Soo'—not the Canadian Pacific—held control of the Wisconsin Central.

"We have received further information, largely circumstantial, but nevertheless very positive, that the 'Soo' has a large ownership in Erie,—much larger, in fact, than the First National Bank interest, and that this stock market position offers great speculative opportunities."

D.U.R. Figures

During the third week of August, Detroit United showed daily increases in earnings of from three to nearly six thousand dollars, showing the wonderful possibilities in this system.

For the first twenty-two days of the past month the increase amounted to $54,648.

PRESIDENT OF THE CONIAGAS SAYS THE LIBS. ARE ASLEEP

Financial Editor Montreal Star:

Sir,—In various papers of the 8th instant Sir Wilfrid Laurier is reported to have asked in his speech on the 7th at Sudbury if Sudbury would be as prosperous as it is now were the nickel product from that camp subject to a duty of 25 per cent. entering the United States?

The answer is: "Yes," because the United States has no nickel of its own, must have it, and Ontario has the greatest, cheapest, most accessible deposits of this metal in the world.

It is distressing that our Government is so ignorant of modern trade and industry that the leader does not know that the United States takes over this Sudbury nickel and copper product free of duty in the form of a matte, as crude a form as railway freights will economically permit.

The value of the nickel in the matte as shipped from Sudbury is about 10c per lb.

Behind their tariff wall of 6c per lb. for refined nickel in the United States, this raw product is further refined and separated from the copper at a cost greater than its value, as it leaves Sudbury, giving labor to thousands of United States workmen, and selling at a price of 35c to 40c per pound in the United States and Europe.

If our legislators were gifted with only a little of the business ability and commercial loyalty that characterizes our neighbors to the south, this entire industry would be in Canada, and we would have another town larger than Sudbury in Southern Ontario, adding to the magnificent markets at present enjoyed by our farmers.

In the Cobalt business conditions are even more unfair.

Ontario has the only known commercial deposits in the world, and produce to-day rather more cobalt than the markets can absorb, so that the Ontario miner is paid absolutely nothing for this by-product of his silver mines.

Behind a tariff wall of 25c per lb. for refined cobalt oxide, the United States magnanimously accepts this free gift from the Canadian miner, engages hundreds of workmen to refine it and separate it from the silver at a cost of probably 70c per lb. of cobalt, and sells the product in his own country without competition at a price of about $1 per pound, and floods the free markets of Europe in competition with the Canadian refiner, whose home market of even a few hundred pounds per year is free to the United States refined product.

The ore, as shipped from Cobalt, also shows a considerable proportion of nickel, for which the Canadian miner gets nothing, and the United States manufacturer and workmen get about 35c to 40c a pound for refining and selling.

As stated above, Ontario just at present produces more cobalt than the markets can take, and it is cheaper to treat the Cobalt silver ores in the large silver lead smelting works in the United States for the silver contents alone, and to waste a great part of the cobalt and nickel contents, than to treat the ore in works designed to save these desirable by-products, as in the Canadian works.

The result is that the United States laborer and manufacturer get about $1.00 per pound for Canadian cobalt and about 35 to 40c per lb. for Canadian nickel, all of which money is spent for labor and supplies in their own country, for refining the crude product, which is given to them free of cost by the Canadian miner.

How can Canadian industries thrive under such conditions, and how much larger a home market for the Canadian farmer would we have if Canada had a live business Government.

MR. J. CARRUTHERS ON WESTERN BOOM AND RECIPROCITY

"Two years ago I made the statement that in ten years the three prairie provinces of Canada would raise 500,000,000 bushels of wheat, and at the present rate of increase I have every reason to think my estimate will be verified."

This statement was made to The Star to-day by Mr. James Carruthers, who has just returned from the West.

Mr. Carruthers is extremely enthusiastic over the outlook for the West. "I have travelled through the West of Canada for many, many years, sometimes twice a year, but have never seen anything to equal the bustle and hustle in the Canadian North-West. The prosperity on every side is phenomenal, and the amount of land being ploughed up for grain purposes this year is beyond conception. The crop of wheat for 1910, according to the final official figures, totalled 115,500,000 bushels, while the general opinion among authorities was that it would not figure much over 90,000,000 bushels, yet they were out about 25,000,000 bushels, which shows that those most acquainted with the situation did not really know to what extent new ground had been ploughed up.

"This year the North-West Grain Dealers' Association give a conservative estimate of 177,400,000 bushels of wheat, over 62,000,000 bushels more than the 1910 crop, or an increase of about 50 per cent. in the acreage for this year.

"The towns and cities out there are growing by leaps and bounds, and as an evidence of the tremendous traffic, there are two dining cars on every train that pulls out between Calgary and Edmonton. At Winnipeg, the C.P.R. hotel there has had to turn away as many as 100 guests a day, and an extension to that hotel is going up, while at Calgary it is difficult to get accommodation, and the Grand Trunk Pacific is putting up a magnificent hotel structure at that point.

"The enormous expenditures being made by these big companies is the surest sign that everybody looks for a magnificent future for the Canadian West."

Mr. Carruthers is a strong Liberal, but has no use for Reciprocity. He says it is suicide.

COUNTRY CHEESE SALES.

Picton, September 11.—Twenty factories boarded 1,422 boxes cheese, all colored; 450 sold at 14 cents and 878 at 13 15-16c. Balance unsold.

Belleville, September 11.—1,307 white and 100 colored offered. Sales, 977 at 14 1-16c, and 300 at 14c. Balance refused at 14c.

A BIG VOID.

(Boston News Bureau.)

The New York Curb without its Standard Oil is like Rome without its Coliseum.

WINNIPEG WHEAT PRICES HAD DIP

Winnipeg wheat prices were weaker today on the favorable weather in the North-West and the lower cables, bids from Liverpool being from 1½ to 2c out of line. The Canadian visible supply of wheat decreased 430,000 bushels, compared with an increase of 809,000 bushels a year ago.

Carruthers & Co., Winniueg, wired the Montreal office to-day:

"Manitoba—We believe that this province has raised a good deal larger crop of wheat than the trade figure on. We are getting threshing returns from a great many sections, which show a yield of 20 to 30 bushels. While there are a few districts which are not turning out well, on the other hand, the majority are threshing out far better than any person figured on, and we are going to see a good crop of wheat Nos. 1, 2 and 3 northern in Manitoba."

"Saskatchewan—We are going to get all grades of wheat from this province, but it is a difficult question to answer as to how the yields will turn out. Two weeks ago Saskatchewan had the finest stand of wheat that we believe was ever known in any province, and the land had simply produced the maximum. This has been cut down by frost, and until such time as the threshers get to work, it is impossible to tell how much it has cut down the yield. The crop was standing so good, we cannot help but think that once they start to thresh, even supposing they do get a low grade of wheat, that the yield will be larger per acre than in former years, when they have had practically the same kind of weather.

"We figure that with anything like favorable weather there will be 50,000,000 bushels of wheat pass Winnipeg between September 1st and November 30th, and this could be increased by 10,000,000 bushels, as the railroads are all in first-class shape to handle the crop, and it simply depends upon what kind of weather you are going to get."

No Famine in Twine.

Calgary, Alta., September 11.—The report that there is a binder twine famine in Alberta does not appear to be well founded. There is a considerable quantity of twine in reserve in Calgary, and that while the margin of stock over the demand is perhaps not as great as it has been in past years, it will be found sufficient.

WHEAT SOLD OFF CENT AT CHICAGO

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, September 11.—Wheat developed an easier tone, and by mid-day was off 1c. The favorable weather conditions in the American and Canadian North-West and the weakness in the markets there were the most depressing factors. The short interest was well eliminated on Saturday's bulge, as the more courageous bears sold freely. Skillen, Lamson, Logan and Bryan, and commission houses, were conspicuous sellers. The cash demand was slow, with no sales reported.

Liverpool closed weak and ⅛ to ⅞d lower, after being ⅛ to ⅜d higher. Continental markets were irregular. Paris closing ½ to ⅜c higher. Antwerp ⅜c higher, and Buda Pest ⅜c higher, while Berlin was 2¼c lower. The weakness in the latter market caused considerable unloading by local bulls early.

World's shipments were larger than expected at 11,856,000 bushels, compared with 10,064,000 the previous week, and 17,656,000 last year. Russian and Danubian shipments were less than half of the record exports last year. Supplies on ocean passage decreased 2,008,000 bushels for the week and are 33,024,000 bushels, or 9,680,000 bushels less than last year, when there was an increase of 4,000,000. North-Western receipts were 741 cars, compared with 904 last year. Chicago had 102 cars, against 90 cars last year. Primary arrivals were 1,514,000 bushels, compared with 1,891,000 last year. Shipments were 633,000 bushels, or 108,000 bushels more than last year.

RIVAL LIBERAL CANDIDATE NOW IN ST. MARY'S

Refutes Pretensions of ex-Ald. Martin That He is Friend of Laboring Classes.

The feature of to-day's political developments locally was the announcement that there would be a third candidate in St. Mary's to contest the division with Mr. J. A. Masse, the Labor-Conservative candidate, and ex-Ald. Mederic Martin, Liberal.

Mr. N. Allard, a contracting plumber, has placed himself in the field with, it is said, a large following and has issued a manifesto to the electors of the constituency, styling himself: "Liberal candidate—champion of the Working Classes."

Candidates in all Divisions.

Quebec Conservatives have now filled completely their list of candidates in the province, the last being decided this morning when Mr. J. E. Lareau, a prosperous farmer of Rouville, who has under cultivation 600 acres of land, finally decided to contest the constituency of St. John's-Iberville with the Liberal candidate.

Mr. Lareau was in the city to-day and stated that, while he was at first loath to entering the political arena, his friends in the twin counties had prevailed upon him to stand, assuring him of support, irrespective of party affiliations, in the struggle against the reciprocity pact on the twenty-first of this month.

"The farmers of Quebec," said Mr. Lareau to a representative of The Star, "are against this reciprocity agreement, which holds nothing tangible in the way of advantage for them. They are not to be fooled by the thin misrepresentations of the Government supporters and will, I am convinced, say so on election day. I look for a complete reversal of the opinion expressed by the people of the province in 1908, and, so far as St. Johns-Iberville is concerned, I believe the doom of the Laurier administration is sealed."

Mr. Lareau is highly regarded in the division in which he is running, and is said to be an excellent hustings speaker. Those in charge at Conservative headquarters seemed highly pleased this morning that he had decided to run in the party's interests.

Conservative in Yamaska

Mr A. A. Mondoux has been chosen as the Opposition candidate in Yamaska, from which riding Hon. J. A. Ouimet has retired. Mr. Mondoux is well known in Yamaska and it is said at Conservative headquarters, from whence the announcement was made late on Saturday, that he would make a good run against Mr. Oscar Gladu, the Liberal nominee.

A meeting will be held to-night on the College grounds at Boucherville in favor of Mr. J. H. A. Rainville, the Opposition candidate in Chambly-Vercheres. Mr. Armand Lavergne will be one of the principal speakers, who will include Messrs. Rainville, DeBoucherville and L. J. Tarte.

Mr. Louis Coderre, the anti-reciprocity candidate in Hochelaga, will address a meeting to-night in St. Thomas Aquinas Hall, St Antoine street, for the English-speaking electors of the division. Among the speakers of the evening will be Merrs. C. H. Cahan, K.C., Campbell Lane, K.C., H. C. McCallum and Mr. Coderre.

Two very successful meetings were held in Montmorency county at which Mr. Rodolphe Forget and Mr. L. T. Marechal, K.C., of Montreal, met Mr. Georges Parent, the Liberal nominee, and Hon. A. Taschereau, of Quebec. The meetings were of the "assemblees contradictoires" type, and were said to be very favorable to the candidature of Mr. Forget.

Montrealers Were Camping on Island Near Sorel—Where are They Now?

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sorel, Que., September 11.—It has been reported that a party of five persons who were camping on Corbeaux Island, near Sorel, have disappeared. The party left Montreal on September, 2nd, in a motor boat, and their firends becoming anxious over their sudden disappearance, have instituted inquiries.

It is reported that a motor boat blew up on Thursday last near here, but whether that vessel has any connection with the disappearance of the party or not is not known. Among the party are Mr. and Mrs. Parent, and Mr. and Mrs. Allard, all of Montreal.

For three generations Greener Guns and rifles have had the highest reputation in the civilized world, because they are scientifically constructed of the best material, their design is faultless, and the workmanship excellent.

They have been awarded the highest order of merit at International exhibitions, since the first in 1851. They have won at all the great Gun trials at London, and abroad. They have gained the most sought prizes at the Trap in every Country, and they have been and are used by the finest Sportsmen and best shots in the world. For many years the winning gun has been so often a "Greener" as to constitute a record performance never equalled and unlikely to be approached either by a single manufacturer or any combination of gunmakers British or foreign.

TRADES CONGRESS ON RECIPROCITY

Calgary, Alta., September 11.—The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Dominion Trades Congress opened this morning.

The executive report read as follows:

"Your executive does not hesitate to say that it believes that the reciprocity agreement between Canada and the United States is in the interests of the Canadian people.

"If other proof of this were wanting, the fact that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association is against, would be sufficient to prove it must be of some value to the workers. This organization has never tired of proclaiming its love for 'free' labor, because that helps its pocket.

"Reciprocity has long been recognized in the International Trade Union movement, and we see no danger to anything but the pockets of a few interested capitalists in permitting the people of the two countries to swap knives if they see fit to do so, without the intervention of a horde of customs officials.

"The trade union movement is better and stronger because of the freedom it enjoys in the exchange of benefits. The Congress declared itself on the subject at Brockville and before the tariff commission, and should reiterate its position."

KING'S BENCH TERM INAUGURATED TO-DAY.

Mr. Justice Trenholme Refers to the Death of Judge Sicotte.

With the usual ceremonies, the September term of the Court of King's Bench was opened this morning. Mr. Justice Trenholme is presiding over what promises to be one of the longest and most sensational sittings of the Court in recent years.

For the first time in twenty years, Judge Sicotte was missing from his seat as Clerk of the Crown, and Mr. Justice Trenholme before advising the grand jury what their duties were, made a few remarks about the disappearance of the late Clerk of the Crown from the position that he had occupied so honorably for such a long period. Judge Ulric Lafontaine, who had been joint clerk of the Crown with Judge Sicotte, now occupies the position.

The Grand Jury retired to their deliberations shortly before eleven o'clock and will return this afternoon at four p.m. when they will advise the Court what decision they have arrived at in the cases submitted to them.

Funeral of Mrs. A. de Boucherville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Strathy, who were on a holiday in the United States, were recalled by wire on Sunday, owing to the sudden death of Mrs. de Boucherville (mother of Mrs. Gordon Strathy), at her summer home on Isle of Orleans. The funeral was on her 91st birthday, the body being interred under the church at Boucherville.

MAKE FALSE ARRESTS OF LOVING COUPLES

Wearing a rag-picker's license and carrying a dark lantern, two men have been conducting a smooth hold-up game in Westmount and Notre Dame de Grace for some time past. Quietly sauntering along some of the less frequented streets they would flash their lantern in corners and likely places to find spooning couples. On finding a young inoffensive man and girl, their game was to go up to them flash the badge, and tell them they had to come along to the police station. Apparently it was not hard to convince such people that they had committed some crime. To get out of their supposed predicament, these two "officers" gently insinuated that if a little cash was forthcoming the matter was easily fixed up. Some victims paid up, according to their means, and the game was a good one until last night a young gallant on Cote St. Antoine road, refused to produce the coin when "arrested" by two men, and after scaring the men off, notified the police. One constable was sent out and located two men but they ran in different directions and he was able to capture only one. This man he arrested on the charge of loitering and he appeared in the Westmount police court this morning.

Here he was confronted by two girls who identified him as a man in company with another who had stolen a purse from them two weeks ago. The girls had been so frightened when confronted by the two men on a dark street that one of them dropped her purse on the sidewalk and the men immediately made off with it.

Accordingly, the man the police arrested last night was remanded for a couple of days until the police can locate the other man.

SHOT AT WOMAN.

Trio in Court Deny the Charge Made.

For refusing to allow three strangers to enter her house after eleven o'clock Saturday night, Mrs. Elizabeth Jette, of 24 Sanguinet street, was shot in the hand by one of them. She claims that the gun was pointed at her head, but that she ducked and protectingly put up her hand just in time to be struck a little below the wrist in the right hand.

The trio took to their heels immediately after the deed, but one of them proved to be an indifferent sprinter and was caught by Constable Clements, of the mounted squad, who happened to be in the neighborhood and heard the shot.

He proved to be Andrew Schmidt, and from information obtained from him, Detectives Pusie and Filiatreault soon had Jack Skuin and John Dackter under arrest. They all live at No. 77 St. Paul street.

Dackter, the youngest one of the three, is charged with having fired the shot, while the others are held as accomplices. Dackter has been identified by Mrs. Jette as being the one who handled the gun.

They all pleaded not guilty and will appear on the 14th for preliminary inquiry.

WINNIPEG IS ESSENTIALLY A "TWO PAPER CITY"

With scarcely an exception, advertisers recognize this fact and invariably choose the Telegram as a paper having an exclusive and quality circulation.

The Telegram's circulation is not duplicated or to any appreciable extent shared by any other newspaper. Being the chief Conservative newspaper of the Middle West and the only Conservative paper in Winnipeg, the Telegram has a wide field almost exclusively its own and no other paper, however strong, can reach the Telegram readers.

No matter how large or how small your appropriation, no campaign can be made a success without the Telegram. No other newspaper or combination of papers can take your announcement into the homes where the Telegram is the paper of the choice.

THE SWORN DAILY AVERAGE CIRCULATION IS 38,189

In the last five years the circulation has more than doubled; at no time in the history of the paper has the output increased as rapidly as in the last few months, necessitating the installing of the fastest sextuple press in Western Canada.

Telegram advertisers profit by the loyalty which these readers maintain towards their favorite paper. Outside advertisers will find it in their interest to study and carefully weigh these facts. In Winnipeg, where the newspaper situation is best understood, advertisers recognize that this, the third largest city in Canada, is essentially a "Two Paper City."

SWORN CIRCULATION FARMERS' WEEKLY TELEGRAM, 30,000

There is no duplication in this circulation. Every copy, whether daily or weekly, goes to a separate paid subscriber. In all, 3,556 post-offices in the growing West, are included in this service.

If you wish to have a share of this trade, place your advertising contracts with the Telegram now, before the advance in rates. Present rate in Daily: 4½c a line. After October 1st, 5c. Full particulars from any general advertising agent or from

revives and sustains strength and stamina

Wincarnis, the great revitalizer—blood-maker and nerve-nourisher and recuperative tonic—has long held the palm as a reviver and sustainer of strength and stamina. Thousands of men and women who once despaired of the enjoyment of vigorous health, having suffered from debility, anæmia, insomnia, sleeplessness, brain-fatigue, nervous disorders, after-effects of influenza, and so on, are now, thanks to Wiscarnis, in the best of health and spirits. Here is just one instance:—

"Dear Sirs.—A few months ago I was so dangerously ill that the doctors said they could do nothing more for me, and advised me to make the best I could of life, as I should never be well again.

"I was terribly upset at the prospect of being a life-long invalid, and when a friend of mine urged me to try 'Wincarnis,' I applied to you for one of your free trial bottles.

"I was astonished and delighted to find that from the first glassful your 'Wincarnis' put new life into me. I persevered with 'Wincarnis' and before long I was able to get about again. Instead of remaining a life-long invalid, I am now able to carry on my business, and I owe all my renewed health and strength entirely to your wonderful 'Wincarnis.'

"Yours very gratefully, SARAH DE VILLE."

Clean Teeth— White Teeth

Clean, white, sound teeth; each and all of these things depend upon mouth and teeth that are free from germ life and acidity and that are kept pure, sweet and clean. You are assured of these things by the use of

SANITOL POWDER OR PASTE

It is the whole science of tooth soundness and mouth cleanness and white teeth put into a dentifrice.

Ingredients in Sanitol Tooth Powder that produce such white teeth are also what give it the power to overcome acidity in the mouth.

Ingredients that make it leave such a fresh taste and such purely clean teeth are also the ingredients that destroy all germ life in the mouth and so preserve teeth and health.

Leaves a fresh taste because it leaves a clean mouth.

TORONTO EXHIBITION MAKES NEW RECORD.

Attendance Nearly Million—Receipts $325,000 and Good Surplus Shown.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, September 11.—The Canadian National Exhibition of 1911 passed into history on Saturday night, with a record aggregate attendance and surplus. In all, 916,100 persons attended the fair; 78,900 over last year's attendance. The total receipts are estimated to be about $325,000, and the surplus is between $50,000 and $60,000. Last year's surplus was $48,000.

More Traces of Martin Disaster.

Parry Sound, Ont., September 11.—Floating on a frail raft on which he had made his escape from the tug C. C. Martin, which was lost on the morning of August 22, and seeing the hopelessness of escaping with his life, Robert Henry Hook, late engineer of the tug, scratched his name on a door of the cabin which formed part of his craft, in order that his friends might learn something of his sad fate.

The body on a lone island and the raft a short distance away is the only tangible evidence left to show that the boat did not go down suddenly with all on board, but was either on the shoals or in a foundering condition for some time.

LUXURIOUS NEW CARS FOR C. P. R. TORONTO SERVICE.

Another triumph in car building has been achieved by the C. P. R., and it marks a further advance in Railroading.

The new compartment observation cars which have just been sent out from the Angus Shops, are intended for the service between Montreal and Toronto, and as evidence of the growing popularity of the service between this city and North Toronto, they are to be attached to the train leaving Montreal at 10.45 p.m.

These new cars have seven compartments, a drawing room, an observation parlor, and an observation platform. The entrance to the rooms is from the aisle, running along the side of the car, so that there is absolute privacy. There are two berths, the lower being made up from two double seats, and there are all toilet requirements in each room.

The cars are lighted with electricity, and in the warm weather are kept cool with electric fans.

These cars are models of luxury and comfort, in which the C. P. R. standard of equipment excels. They will be put in service on the trains to and from Yonge Street Station, at Toronto, within the next few days.

PROMOTER WITH CANADIAN RECORD, HELD ON COAST

Fraudulent Use of Mails, Charge Against Dr. John Grant Lyman.

San Francisco, Calif., September 11.—Dr. John Grant Lyman, the international magnet for easy money, with careers in Montreal, Toronto, London, and New York, was moved last night from the narrow quarters of the City Prison to more commodious quarters in the county jail. He was arrested in San Francisco by the United States Postal authorities, just as he was attempting to leave the State.

Glowing circulars, describing his latest scheme, the Panama Development Company, which contained too much coloring for the credence of the Federal Government, are the direct cause of his arrest.

All day Saturday and Sunday numerous investors in the Panama Company haunted the offices in Mercantile Place, Los Angeles, which were closed by an order of attachment from the sheriff's office.

When arrested, Lyman was registered at the Union Square Hotel in San Francisco, under the alias of "James Lyndsay, Santiago."

The prisoner had purchased a ticket for Portland, and was preparing to make another sudden trip.

Lyman's apprehension was brought about by the Postal authorities of this city, who were given the first information by Postmaster Harrison. The charge is said to be "fraudulent use of the mails," in connection with the exploitation of the Panama Company. The warrant is en route to the Bay City now.

Lyman was locked up in the San Francisco jail. He refused to make any statement beyond saying that he was not guilty and that he had lost $23,000 of his own money in the Panama Company.

Seek His Fomer Secretary.

Post Office inspectors in their roundup of persons and evidence in the case against Dr. John Grant Lyman, whose career as the promoter of million dollar paper enterprises is notorious the world over, are watching all trains arriving in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities for the doctor's confidential business companion, Mrs. I. N. McDonald, treasurer of the Panama Development Company, who is speeding across the Continent accompanied by Mrs. Lyman. His confidential affairs are known to Mrs. McDonald, who has been associated with the doctor in his business transactions during the past five years. Mrs. McDonald is said to be the widow of a prominent Toronto physician.

It is believed by the authorities that she and Mrs. Lyman took with them all the doctor's ready cash, securities, and papers that would be of much value to the United States Government in the prosecution of the charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

SOPWITH'S EXPERIENCE.

Dropped Into Ocean and Was Nearly Drowned.

New York, September 11.—Thomas Sopwith, the English aviator, dropped into the ocean off the Brighton Beach race track while making a flight with Leo Hammond as a passenger, yesterday afternoon, and the two men had a narrow escape from drowning. Two other accidents also marked the day at the track, but neither was serious.

Claude Grahame-White started in his Nieuport monoplane from the centre of the track with a mechanician as passenger. Just as the machine was leaving the ground it ran its nose into a hurdle on a water jump on the race track, plunged through it and brought up in the ditch beyond. Grahame-White climbed out with blood trickling from a cut in his face. The mechanic was uninjured. The monoplanes' propeller was smashed and the machine was otherwise damaged.

Aviator Raimund Eyring Killed.

Esslingen, Wurtemberg, September 11.—The aviator Raimund Eyring was killed while making a flight at the aerodrome. His machine collided with a mast marking the limits of the field. Eyring was warned before hand against flying in the dark.

MANY AT FUNERAL.

Service Over the Late Mr. William Sclater.

The funeral of the late Mr. William Sclater took place this afternoon from his residence, 4876 Sherbrooke street, west, to Mount Royal Cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Heine, former pastor of St. Gabriel's Church, who was assisted by Rev. Mr. Lochead, of Melville Church Westmount.

The late Mr. Sclater was the eldest son ofthe late Captain Alexander Sclater, for many years port warden of Montreal. He was twice married: first to Miss Bessie Mackie, of Berlin, Ont., and later to Miss Catherine Macdonald, of St. Andrews, Ont., who survives him. One son by the first marriage, Mr. Wm. Howard Sclater, of Seattle, and four sons by the second union, survive. Mr. Sclater also leaves five sisters and two brothers, and his mother, who is a sister of Sir James Grant, of Ottawa.

The funeral was largely attended, as the deceased gentleman was widely known in business circles of Montreal, in which he was highly respected. His never-failing generosity towards the needy was a characteristic which distinguished him at all times.

Money by-laws appropriating $5,000 for water works extension, and the establishment of a hydro-electric station, were passed at Guelph.

DEATH OF MRS. MONK.

Mrs. F. D. Monk Died Yesterday, After Several Months' Illness.

After an illness extending over several months, death came to Mrs. F. D. Monk yesterday at her home at 328 Lagauchetiere east. Her death will be learned with great sorrow by the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Monk both in Montreal and in Ottawa, where she was a frequent visitor with her husband since the beginning of his parliamentary career.

She was the only grand child of Mr. C. S. Cherrier, Queen's Counsel, and at one time president of the Banque du Peuple, and the only daughter of the late D. H. Senecal, advocate, of Montreal. A cousin of the deceased, Mr. D. B. Viger, was an important figure during the troublous times of 1837, and was sent to England to lay the popular grievances before the British Government. At the time of the rebellion both Messrs. Viger and Cherrier were placed under arrest, but were subsequently released without trial. Mr. Cherrier represented the Seigneurs before the special court established in 1854 to determine the conditions under which the old Seignorial tenure would be abolished in Lower Canada. After the rebellion, Mr. Viger became Lord Gosford's friend and confidential adviser and was on more than one occasion entrusted with the task of forming an administration.

MRS. HOLLIDAY DIES OF PAINFUL BURNS

Accident in Kitchen Fired Her Clothing on Saturday.

MRS. W. J. HOLLIDAY.

Death came on Saturday evening at the Royal Victoria Hospital, to Mrs. W. J. Holliday of 2564a Park avenue, who was terribly burned the same morning in her own kitchen. With her baby, only a year and a half old, Mrs. Holliday was alone in her house on Saturday morning and was heating a mixture of wax and turpentine on the gas stove. The vessel overflowed and caught fire and in trying to right it, Mrs. Holliday's clothing was set on fire.

Her screams of agony were heard by Mrs. J. B. Daveluy, who lives in the house below. She ran up and met her neighbor at her front door her whole body enveloped in flames. Mr. J. A. Trepanier from across the road ran over with a blanket and smothered the fire and then telephoned for an ambulance from the Royal Victoria Hospital. Waiting for its arrival, Mrs. Holliday lay on her own front door step, suffering terrible agony but still conscious. Her baby was her chief thought and when a neighbor made his way into the kitchen and carried out the child, a happy smile lit up her face.

A passing motorist went for her husband at the Fairmount Y. M. C. A. where he is secretary. It was realized there was no hope of saving Mrs. Holliday's life and her death at 6 o'clock in the evening was not unexpected.

Coroner McMahon was informed of the circumstances and he decided that an inquest was unnecessary and accordingly the funeral was held this morning, leaving the Place Viger station for the deceased's former home at Cushing, Que. Twenty-seven years of age, Mrs. Holliday had been married three years. Besides her husband and baby, both parents, three brothers and three sisters survive her. Rev. Mr. Potter, of the MacVicar Church told of the sad accident in his service yesterday morning and at the session meeting a resolution of sympathy for the family was passed.

NO MORE BUSH POLL TROUBLE IS ANTICIPATED

Complete Revised Lists Will Be Printed Within Two Days —Kingston Nominations.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, September 11.—The trouble that was experienced at the last election over the bush polls in Thunder Bay and Rainy River, and also in West Algoma, will not be met this time, at least as regards the former constituency. The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery has received the complete lists for that district, as revised within the past few weeks and they will be printed within two days. Parts of the lists for the Algoma and most of those of Nipissing have arrived. In the new mining camp of Porcupine a thousand names have been enrolled, and there is also a very heavy registration in Elk City, Montreal River, and other mining camps.

The Central Canada Exhibition will interfere with the Ottawa campaign this week, and the number of meetings will be somewhat curtailed, while there is less excitement than is reported from some of the constituencies.

The contest locally is of the keenest character, and both sides are organised to a greater extent than ever before. The closing down of a carbide mill here by an American Trust, and the announcement by mica factory men that their output will be greatly decreased if reciprocity goes through, are big factors in the situation and in favor of the anti-reciprocity party.

The Booth and Eddy firms stand against the pact will likely influence thousands of votes, while the Conservatives are using with much apparent effect the argument as to the increased cost of living.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak here next Monday night, and the local Liberals are planning to make the meeting a big affair. It will take place in the Arena.

The Conservatives claim that there is an unprecedented feeling against reciprocity among independent Liberal voters, who express their opinions privately, though hesitating to make any public disavowal of their party's policy.

KINGSTON WILL NOMINATE TO-NIGHT.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Kingston, Ont., September 11.—The political pot is beginning to boil in this city. The Liberals select their candidate to-night, and the Conservatives choose their standard-bearer to-morrow night. It is generally believed that the Liberal candidate will be Mr. J. McDonald Mowat, barrister, organizer for his party in Eastern Ontario. The Conservatives promise to spring a big surprise, and are confident of redeeming the city. The Hon. Wm. Harty, the recent member, has been importuned to run, but rumor has it that he has positively declined to be a candidate again.

Mr. Wm. Cairn's Appointment.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, September 11.—Mr. William Cairns, for many years assistant Superintendent of Stationery and Printing of the House of Commons, has been appointed superintendent, in place of the late C. E. Clarke.

Drinking Business Men

Men in all Lines who find that they must drink to keep from becoming nervous and be able to attend to business, should take the NEAL 3-DAY TREATMENT. The Drink Habit slowly but surely grows upon the drinker, and it requires more and more to do him, until in time he is lost to drink, and is pitiable to look upon.

LET US SAVE THE DRINKER.

The average drinking business man uses discretion in his drinking, and strict privacy as well. But the craving for drink is with him, nevertheless, and he must have it to keep from becoming nervous, and be able to attend to business. Many business men who drink imagine that no one kows that they drink, when the fact is nearly everyone who knows them knows that they drink, for the most discreet drinker, no matter how privately he drinks, cannot conceal his drinking from the public, as it can be "noticed on them," despite their every effort to hide it. Then the drink habit slowly but surely grows upon them. They require more and more liquor to do them, until they are finally incapacitated for business and they are pitiable to look upon. They should take the Neal Three Day Drink Habit Treatment. It takes away all craving, desire and appetite for liquor in three days, without hypodermic injections. Read the statement by Rev. Father Kelly, of Toronto, and you will not question the words of this grand, good man:

Father Kelly of Toronto Endorses the Neal Cure.

"Toronto, Ont., April 5th, 1911.
"The Neal Institute, Toronto, Ont.
"Dear Sirs:

"The case which I recommended to you for treatment, nearly four months ago has up to the present shown the very best results. I realize that it is still too soon to pronounce, this being the first case that came under my notice. I can, however, say that it was four months ago, just as hopeless a case of slavery to the liquor habit as could be imagined. Since then he has been strictly sober, reports that he has never felt the least craving for liquor, and to-day has assured me he has no fears for the future.

"Trusting the good results will be permanent.

Last December Father Kelly induced this business man to take the Neal treatment. He was an object of dire distress, for whiskey was his utter undoing. At the end of the third day he was a new man, his nervousness gone, his mind clear, eyes bright, step elastic, and all craving, desire and appetite for liquor gone—regenerated physically, mentally and morally, with a new lease on life, and he has been a model of sobriety ever since. What the Neal Treatment did for Father Kelly's friend, it will do for your friend, if you will call on, write, or 'phone Mr. G. F. Hepburn, manager, Montreal Neal Institute, 226 Sherbrooke street east, and arrange in advance for a room, as the institute is usually well filled and room spoken for ahead. Free booklet sent securely sealed. French and English spoken and written. Comforts of a refined home afforded male and female. Ottawa Institute now open, 273 Cooper street.

WHITEWEAR and WAISTS

Opening of These Two Departments at Goodwins' To-morrow

This is our first opening of the Whitewear Department and of the Waist Department.

The Great Whitewear Store with its overflowing stock of imported and domestic lingerie is now side by side with that section of Goodwins' vast emporium where the waists are sold. Nearly half the space of the old building on the first floor up is now devoted exclusively to these two departments. They have always yearned to be together and now the longing of these ladies' sections has been satisfied.

We will take a delight showing the lady visitors to this store to-morrow what Goodwin whitewear means, what Goodwin waists mean and what Goodwin prices, for both or either, have been established. The popular net waists, so strong a feature for this Fall will be much in evidence. The tailor-made waist in pure Irish linen will be important in the display. Silk waists, always favorites, and lingerie low neck waists with kimona sleeves will be here in the most recent designs. Waists with the soft turned back cuffs and collars, finished with real baby Irish and Cluny Lace, and crochet button, suitable for elderly ladies will be prominent. In fact, we believe we have the largest and finest selection of Autumn Waists ever seen in this city.

IN THE WHITEWEAR DEPARTMENT.

Goodwin Whitewear is already favorably known. To those who are not thoroughly acquainted with the merits of our lingerie, to-morrow will be an ideal day on which to judge it. We do not fear the decision. Goodwins' supply fitting rooms for whitewear customers and even fitting rooms for the children and little babies. In fact, we are going to have a whitewear opening for the children later on.

In passing through the vast assemblage of ladies' underwear, don't go away without seeing the beautiful French hand made lingerie. Here we have:—Corset Covers from $1.80 to $15.00. Drawers, from $1.25 to $10.50. Night Gowns, from $4.50 to $16.50. Chemises, from $2.25 to $12.00. Combinations (drawers and corset cover), from $5.50 to $20.00. Underskirts, from $3.50 to $50.00, and Bridal Sets, from $20.00 to $100.00.

We also have every style and cut of ladies' underwear of domestic manufacture. It will be a wonderful day of worthy whitewear.
