Save Money BUT Don't Look Shabby!

Wear just as good clothes as your neighbor,—oftentimes a little better. But all the while save money in dressing. How can you do it? Very easily! Your old dresses can be dyed some fashionable shade. Your husband's rusty suits can be made to look like new. Your children's clothes can be colored in the latest shades. If you can go one season without buying new clothes, do you not save money in dressing?

Another caution, though, about saving money in dressing. Do not try to dye with old-fashioned dyestuffs, and do not be deceived by the claims of rivals and imitators who will try to make you think that with these adulterated dyes you can save money in dressing just as well as

By Dyeing Garments with the Diamond Dyes Brilliant! Durable! Economical!

The Diamond Dyes are the only ones that will save you both time and money. They are so simple a child can use them. They are always reliable. They far surpass all others for purity and strength, for brilliancy and durability, for simplicity and economy. They will save you money in dressing, and they will save you money in other ways. They are not only the best dyes for coloring Wearing Apparel, Dress Goods, Ribbons, Silks, Yarns, Carpet Rags, Rugs, Shop-worn Goods, Feathers, Flowers, Grasses, Mosses, Wood, Basket Work, Leather, Hair, Sheepskins, Easter Eggs, Maps, Photographs, Engravings, &c., &c., but they are also the only dyes that will make Inks, Bluing, Shoe Dressing, Wood Stains, Kalsomine, Colored Lacquers, Varnishes, &c.

It is reported in New York that all the companies in the sugar trust have made assignments to Theodore A. Havemeyer, Henry O. Havemeyer and Charles H. Sneff. Their object in doing this is to dodge the law. The success of the prosecution against the North River Sugar Refining Company was based on the fact that the action was brought against that concern as a corporation, but the result might not be the same if the action were brought against individuals. The companies having no property by reason of the assignments, no receivers can be appointed.

WHEAT LOWER.

May Quiet—July Declining—Cheese off—Sugar Booming.

Wheat in Chicago is dull to-day; May is very quiet, but the few quotations are lower; July is more active, but a decline is being made up to the time of writing; English markets are quiet with a lower tendency; the "Wheat in Sight" is very little less than it was last week. Flour is still very quiet and stocks here are steadily increasing, being now more than three times what they were at this time last year. The cheese cable is again off 6d, being at 52s; New York is very dull, and holders are trying to quote jobbing prices as wholesale ones, the near advent of new making stocks of old rather risky. Butter continues unchanged. Eggs are steady and in good demand. Pork is quiet with a weak feeling. Sugar continues very firm; we hear that a Quebec shipper is making a large sum by cargoes of raw.

Errors of Youth.

HOPE

Sufferers from Nervous Debility, Youthful Indiscretions, Early Decay.

BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN!

Many men, from the effects of youthful imprudence, have brought about a state of weakness that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever being suspected, they are doctored for everything but the right one. Notwithstanding the many valuable remedies that medical science has produced for the relief of this class of patients, none of the ordinary modes of treatment effect a cure. During our extensive college and hospital practice we have experimented with and discovered new and concentrated remedies. The accompanying prescription is offered as a certain and speedy cure, as hundreds of cases in our practice have been restored to perfect health by its use after all other remedies failed. Perfectly pure ingredients must be used in the preparation of this prescription.

R— Erythroxylon coca, 1 drachm.
Jerubebin, ½ drachm.
Helonias Dioica, ½ drachm.
Gelsemin, 8 grains.
Ext. ignatiæ amaræ (alcoholic), 2 grains.
Ext. leptandra, 2 scruples.
Glycerine, q. s. Mix.

Make 60 pills. Take 1 pill at 3 p. m., and another on going to bed. In some cases it will be necessary for the patient to take two pills at bedtime, making the number three a day. This remedy is adapted to every condition of nervous debility and weakness in either sex, and especially in those cases resulting from imprudence. The recuperative powers of this restorative are truly astonishing, and its use continued for a short time changes the languid, debilitated, nerveless condition to one of renewed life and vigor.

As we are constantly in receipt of letters of inquiry relative to this remedy, we would say to those who would prefer to obtain it of us, by remitting $1 a securely sealed package containing 60 pills, carefully compounded, will be sent by return mail from our private laboratory, or we will furnish 6 packages, which will cure most cases, for $5.

THE misunderstanding in regard to the English mail, which should have been taken by the "Vancouver," is rather awkward, and should not have occurred. It arose over the fact that the Government contract with the Allan Line had expired, and arrangements had not been concluded for continuing the carriage of the mails for another year. In the meantime the Government is busy trying to carry out the project for securing an improved mail service between Canada and England, making connection with a French port, another between British Columbia and Japan, and still another between British Columbia and the Australian colonies and New Zealand. The British Government has pledged itself to pay a liberal share of the subsidies required for the establishment of the Pacific service, and in a short time it will be as easy a matter to leave British Columbia and go to China or Japan as it was a few years ago to cross over to England or Ireland. One will be able to go around the world in double-quick order, and Jules Verne's dream of making the trip in comfort within eighty days will be more than realized, even if the extra day allowed for the difference in time by keeping ahead of the sun be not availed of. It will cost money, of course, but having spent many millions in securing a transcontinental railway our people will not begrudge three hundred thousand dollars a year in subsidies for improved Atlantic and Pacific mail and steamship services.

THE Beauharnois canal is ready for navigation, the Welland canal is to be opened to-day, but the St. Lawrence canals will not be ready before the 22nd, and there is really no certainty that they will be ready by that time. Every day at the beginning of the season is important to the shipping community, there being already something short of a million and a half bushels of grain on the way. The break in the Cornwall canal last season created an immense amount of loss, not only directly but indirectly, and even yet its effects are being felt. There is a short supply of barges in Kingston harbor owing to the fact that before they could get through last season, on account of the break at Cornwall, the Lachine canal was frozen over and they were compelled to tie up for the winter instead of finding their way back to their own ports to be ready for an early move on the opening of navigation. Before the trade can be relieved the barges now lying in the Lachine Canal will have to return to Kingston, and those now at Kingston to find their way to Montreal, and all this means delay at a time when delays are expensive. It is to be hoped that there will not be this year a repetition of last year's misfortune in regard to the Cornwall canal. This is a matter in which a stitch in time saves nine, and the Government engineer should subject the canals to a thorough inspection, and be prepared for eventualities. Montreal's shipping is one of the most important factors of commerce on the continent, and the Government is in duty bound to do everything in its power to facilitate it.

WHEN any body of our people meet and pass resolutions reflecting upon Mr. Mercier's Government for refusing to amend the laws for the regulation of the liquor traffic, Mr. Mercier always takes the view that those who pass the resolutions are the enemies of his Government and that their object is to turn him out of office. He does not seem to think it possible that any reasoning being would so far forget himself as to vote for a resolution in favor of the license laws being amended unless he is an enemy of the Nationalist party. But we all know that there are many citizens in the community who are more than favorably disposed towards the Mercier Government and yet who cannot shut their eyes to the fact that the license laws are far from perfect. Why does not Mr. Mercier meet these citizens half way and endeavor to remedy the defects of which they complain? Mr. Mercier is accused not only of refusing to meet the views of the temperance section of the community, but of turning his back upon it by "nullifying the more salutary provisions of the license law and amending other portions directly and most effectually in the interest of the liquor traffic." He will not move in the direction desired by the temperance people and actually takes away the weapons with which they were fighting intemperance and puts new weapons in the hands of their opponents. Then he expresses surprise that many good citizens hold up their hands in favor of resolutions reflecting upon his Government. As we have said, let him meet these men half way.

THE registration fee for letters is to be fixed by order-in-council. It may be five cents or it may be ten, as the Government may determine. The one thing certain is that it will not be two, a motion to continue it at two having been voted down in the House of Commons yesterday. It will be interesting to observe the effect this will have upon the registering of letters. People who hesitate to register letters containing two or three dollars when the fee is only two cents will certainly not register them when the fee is five, or whatever it may be in excess of two. Unfortunately a great many letters covering amounts ranging from a dollar to five dollars go astray. Now and then a letter carrier is laid hold of and packed off to prison, but still the letters disappear. When they are registered the Department has some means of discovering what has become of them, or, at least, of tracing them, but without registration this is impossible. The prediction may be made that as the number of unregistered letters will be larger in the future than ever, owing to the increased cost of registering, the number of missing letters will likewise increase—hardly a comforting outlook for those who have already too much ground for complaint. The change in the law by which drop letters are to have a two cent stamp instead of a one cent stamp will also prove unpopular, besides being a subject of great inconvenience. It will take a little time for people to get accustomed to the change. While people in other countries are having their postage rates reduced the people of Canada are being asked to pay more. Why is this?

THE discussion over the transfer of the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company to Senator Macfarlane, president of the American Life Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, reveals the fact that Mr. Goodman, its president, owns a controlling interest in its stocks. This controlling interest represents a paid up capital of $16,032, and for this investment Mr. Goodman is booked to receive $501,000. The official returns of the company show that since this Mr. Goodman secured "control" of the company business has fallen off greatly, doubtless largely because of this feature, the future of the institution being in one man's hands. The insurance and premium receipts are about one-third of their former volume and the dividends to policy holders have shrunk to one-fifth of their old figure, but the assets have increased from $10,011,876 to $10,573,597, the surplus has grown from less than $5000 in 1875 to $1,318,537, and while the yearly dividends to policy holders have fallen off about four-fifths, the yearly dividends to stockholders have increased from $960 to $24,000. The confidence generally felt in Canada in the large insurance companies, whether British, Canadian or United States, has prevented policy holders from indulging mental speculation in the possibility of the clashing interests of policy holders and stockholders, but here is a case where a transfer of ownership may mean a great deal to the former. It is alleged that Mr. McPherson is leaving the North American and buying the Phœnix in order to be free to experiment in some new ideas of insurance of which he has come into possession, and the $10,573,597 assets of the Phœnix will be in the gap. As these assets are for the protection of the policy-holders, it is only natural that those who have made, as they supposed, some provision for their old age, or the future of their families, should object. They are organizing to resist the transfer, and will appeal to the Legislature now in session. The situation is full of instruction to all those who are interested in life insurance.

THE BRITISH BUDGET.

A Big Surplus—How Mr. Goschen Proposes to Meet the Increased Naval Expenditure.

LONDON, April 15.—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Goschen, chancellor of the exchequer, introduced the budget. The revenue for the year exceeded the estimate of last budget by £1,645,000. The expenditures were £941,000 under the estimate, leaving a surplus of £2,586,000, the largest amount since 1873. The revenue from spirits and tobacco decreased, while that from tea shows a small increase. The income tax realized £1,121,000 over the estimate, the postal service £300,000, and the stamp tax £490,000. Other increases were in the Custom house duty and the revenue from the telegraph service. It is calculated that the revenue for the current year will be £85,050,000 and the expenditures £86,967,000, leaving a deficit of £1,919,000, caused by increased army and navy expenses. This deficit will be met by taking £1,000,000 saved last year and putting an additional tax of 1 per cent on the death duties on estates of the value of $10,000 and upwards, and adding a duty of one-fourteenth of a penny upon every gallon of beer. Mr. Goschen promised that the Government would deal apart from the budget with the question of the light gold currency due to wear, and would take care that the proposal would not tend to decrease the gold reserves. Hugh C. Childers congratulated Mr. Goschen upon meeting the increased expenditures without placing a burden upon the general taxpayers. He said he approved of the new death duty on estates.

CRAIG STREET PAVING.

The Harbor Police—The Megantic Expedition Before Council.

A special meeting of the City Council was held yesterday afternoon. Reports from committees were brought up and the following were among the most important concurred in: To open Pine Avenue from Cote des Neiges road to Berri street: To open Milton street on the new line, and to erase the present line of that street between Taylor and Ste. Famille streets. The reports of the Markets Committee, recommending the dismissal of Mr. Vaughan, clerk of St. Gabriel market, and of Mr. Robert, clerk of the Eastern Abattoir, were referred to the City Attorney and Finance Committee. On the question of paving Craig street coming up, a lengthy petition from the Tax Reform Association, presented by Ald. Thompson, was read and ordered to be laid on the table, and translated into French. A motion by Ald. Stephens that the street be paved with stone being lost, the whole Council voting against him. The Mayor informed Ald. Clendinneng that he had no official communication as to the withdrawal of the Harbor Police. It was, after much discussion and motions and amendments, agreed that the questions of filling up the vacant positions be placed first on the orders of the day for next meeting. Ald. Cunningham endeavored to bring up the Megantic matter, and complained that the Government had broken faith with the city, as the men were used to arrest the inhabitants and not Morrison. He urged their immediate recall. The Mayor said the men were bound by resolution of Council to come back on Saturday, and he would not grant them a single day further without the permission of the Council.

Mercier Mauled at a Methodist Mass Meeting.

At a largely attended meeting of the Methodist congregations, in the new St. James church, on St. Catherine street, last evening, for the purpose of protesting against the recent license legislation, resolutions were adopted deploring the "appalling growth of the liquor trade in our city," "the violent and abusive language used by a hostile press and even by ministers of the Crown in speaking contemptuously of the most honored men of all creeds in putting forth earnest efforts to check the progress of intemperance;" "sympathizing with all societies, Protestant and Roman Catholic, that work against the liquor evil."

In speaking to a resolution proposed by him, Rev. Dr. Douglas said he was a Liberal, but he could not follow Mr. Mercier when he descended as he did from the level of statesmanship to demagogism. He would not be the kind of Liberal who could be the cringing slave to the liquor interest, and who danced to their music when they cracked their whip. When Mr. Mercier took away from the citizen the inalienable right of a Briton to private prosecution, he was no longer a leader of Liberalism but the misleader. They should never cease until the name of Mercier was a Nemesis by which Liberalism should be purged and right obtained.

PURE BLOOD

IS A NECESSITY. Best gained by using PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND. This medicine purifies and enriches the blood as nothing else can. Strong nerves, hearty appetite, sound sleep, perfect digestion, and mental vigor follow its use. Unequaled as a Spring Medicine and health restorer.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND rests its claims upon hundreds of letters like the following, from editors, doctors, authors, ministers, merchants and other well-known people.

Good Appetite.

Like a Young Man

"I am in my sixty-fourth year. Have been afflicted in several ways—could not sleep, had no appetite, no courage, low spirits. I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound, and felt relief from the third day after using it. I now have a good appetite and can sleep well. My spirits and courage are almost like those of a young man."
S. C. KINKAID, D. D. Gonzales, La.

Strong Nerves.

Wrought a Great Change

"Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a nerve tonic. In my case a single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared, and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver, and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated."
JAMES L. BOWEN (author), Springfield, Mass.

Regular Bowels.

Used One Bottle

"For two or three years I suffered intensely every night with severe pains in my bowels, which were habitually constipated. My bowels are now regular, and I have had no return of those pains since using one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound." F. G. STICKNEY, Druggist, Havana, Ala.

Perfect Digestion.

Relieved at Once

"I had an attack of gastritis, and Dr. J. A. Anderson prescribed Paine's Celery Compound for me. I was highly pleased with the effect, for it relieved me at once. It is a good medicine for dyspepsia."
R. O. MCADAMS, M. D. Antreville, S. C.

Mental Vigor.

Invigorates the Brain

"As a brain toiler, having certain symptoms which gave me anxiety, particularly after having labored more than usual, I felt the need of a little 'nature jogging,' which Paine's Celery Compound seemed to furnish very promptly."
J. H. HANAFORD, M.D., (medical author), Reading, Mass.

Refreshing Sleep.

73 Years of Age

"I am seventy-three years of age, have been a minister since I was seventeen, and now have charge of a church in this city. I have taken Paine's Celery Compound, and although I know I have not given it a fair trial, working so hard and so constantly as I have done, yet I have slept better and feel that I could not have gone through the heavy labors I have, had it not been for this medicine."
Rev. R. H. RIVERS, 816 Clay St., Louisville, Ky.

Paine's Celery Compound

Has a curative power over salt rheum, scrofula, and other diseases of the blood not possessed by ordinary blood purifiers. It drives the poison from the system in a speedy and effectual way of its own. A physician's prescription, physicians prescribe it. Contains no mercury or other mineral poison. After all else has failed to remove troublesome sores, Paine's Celery Compound will be successful.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is an entirely vegetable preparation, of special value in the tired, debilitated condition so common at this season. The testimonials of these prominent men and our guarantee should convince even the most skeptical that Paine's Celery Compound is the best Spring Medicine. Aren't you in need of it? Use it now.

"It's Always that Way."

Nobody objects to the early spring. We're in first-class shape for it in all our special lines.

We again introduce this season our FAMOUS 85c GLOVES!

This line has been before the public for several seasons.

The glove is as good, as stylish, as durable as ever.

Two Buttons, Embroidered Back.

We ask our patrons to note this point that though 85c gloves may be sold elsewhere, the glove we handle is worth an ONE DOLLAR glove in the city.

Of this one line we've sold hundreds of dozens.

When prices are quoted the only way the public can protect itself is to compare quality.

If that be done, then we confidently expect the patronage of those whom price and not intrinsic merit may have tempted elsewhere. No frowsy job lots. Every line specially imported under personal supervision.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.
EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

A hundredfold, believe me!

And usefuller than pottage.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT MEASURES

Passed Through the House of Commons—Liquor Law in the North-West—Inspection Act—The Franchise.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

OTTAWA, April 16.—Upon the opening of the House yesterday Mr. Small moved that the usual procedure of the House be suspended and a bill from the Senate to allow the Toronto Board of Trade to enlarge its capital from $2,500,000 to $500,000 be passed through its first, second and third reading. This passed without any division.

Hon. Mr. Dewdney introduced his bill to consolidate and amend the acts respecting the North-West Territories. He explained that the bill will consolidate the three acts regarding these territories, and that the amendments are to give greater powers to the Assembly, and to give it certain rights regarding the administration of the liquor laws. The bill was read a first time after remarks by Messrs. Laurier, Davin, Sir Richard Cartwright and Sir John Thompson.

Hon. Mr. Costigan then introduced his bill for an amendment of the General Inspection Act. The chief points of this bill are to allow of a grain standard committee west of Port Arthur, and to permit the Ashes Inspector of Montreal to collect 20 cents instead of 10 cents upon every 100 lbs. of ashes inspected by him. He explained that the first change was at the request of the North-West, and the second at the request of dealers in ashes who have realized that that the inspector cannot live upon his present revenue. The bill was read a first time.

THE DIVORCE BILLS.

The House then passed on to the consideration of four divorce bills. Those for the relief of George McDonald Bagwell, Arthur Wand and Henry Middleton were passed in short order and without speeches. To that for the relief of William Gordon Lowry Sir John Thompson strenuously objected, but the bill was passed on a division.

The act to amend the Railway Act (from the Senate) was transferred to Government measures. Sir John Thompson's act to amend the Summary Convictions Act, act respecting expropriation of lands and Hon. Mr. Carling's resolution respecting the amount due and interest on certain loans made to Mennonite immigrants were passed rapidly.

After recess, Sir John Macdonald's act to authorize the granting of pensions to members of the North-West Mounted Police came up for discussion. Mr. Jones moved in amendment that a sum be deducted from the men's pay to be given them on retiring. The amendment was defeated and the bill passed.

THE FRANCHISE BILL.

On the third reading of the franchise bill, Mr. Charlton moved an amendment to the effect that as the franchise act recognized manhood suffrage in two provinces it should do so in all that wished for it. This was voted down by 88 to 59. Mr. Smith, Conservative, voted for the amendment. Then Mr. Davies moved that in British Columbia and Prince Edward Island the voters list be made to include all men who come of age by June next. This was lost by 55 to 88, Messrs. Prior and Mara, both British Columbians, voting against the Government, though Conservatives. Then Mr. Watson, of Marquette, moved that the lists be made up from the assessment rolls and provincial lists. This amendment was also rejected on the former division without a count; and then the Franchise Bill passed.

Hon. Mr. Haggart brought up his Post Office Bill for consideration. Mr. White, of Renfrew, moved an amendment to the effect that the registration fee be not more than two cents. This was rejected by 85 to 55. Mr. Jones followed with an amendment to keep the rate on drop letters at one cent. This was also rejected. The bill then passed its third reading and at 1.50 the House adjourned.

During the day there were eight amendments and five divisions in the House. All the amendments were rejected.

MAIL SUBSIDIES.

Hon. Mr. Foster will move the House into a committee of the whole on Wednesday to consider a motion to the effect that it is expedient to provide that the Governor in Council may give to any individual or company to whom may be given by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the aid hereinafter mentioned, a subsidy not exceeding £15,000 sterling per annum for a monthly steamship service, or a subsidy not exceeding £25,000 per annum for a fortnightly steamship service between British Columbia and China and Japan. This subsidy to be given for such a term of years as may be considered expedient by the Governor in Council, provided always that during such term the British Government gives to such individual or company a subsidy of not less than £45,000 per annum for a monthly service or of not less than £75,000 per annum for a fortnightly service. He also will ask that provision be made so that the Governor in Council may give to any individual or company a subsidy not exceeding £25,000 sterling per annum to assist in establishing an effective fortnightly steamship service between British Columbia and the Australian colonies and New Zealand such subsidy to be given for such a term of years as may be considered expedient by the Governor in Council. In addition the Minister of Finance will ask that power be given the Governor in Council to enter into a contract for a term not exceeding ten years with any individual or company for the performance of a fast weekly steamship service between Canada and the United Kingdom, making connection with a French port, on such terms and conditions as the carriage of mails and the Governor in Council may deem expedient, for a subsidy not exceeding $500,000 per annum.

ONTARIO BOUNDARY.

Sir John Macdonald gives notice that he will introduce into the House a motion providing:

That a humble address be presented to Her Majesty praying that she may graciously be pleased to cause a measure to be submitted to the Parliament of the United Kingdom declaring and providing the following to be the westerly, northerly and easterly boundaries of the province of Ontario: So much of a line drawn to the Lake of the Woods through the waters eastward of that lake and west of Long Lake, which divide British North America from the territory of United States and thence through the Lake of the Woods to the northwestern point of that lake, as run northward from the United States boundary and from the most northwestern point of the Lake of the Woods, a line drawn due north until it strikes the middle line of the course of the river discharging the water of the lake called Lac Seul, or Lonely Lake, whether above or below its confluence with the stream flowing from the Lake of the Woods towards Lake Winnipeg, and thence proceeding eastward from the point at which the before-mentioned line strikes the middle line of the course of the river last aforesaid, along the middle line of the course of the same river (whether called by the name of the English River or as to the part below the confluence by the name of the river Winnipeg), up to Lac Seul or Lonely Lake, and thence along the middle line of Lac Seul or Lonely Lake to the head of that lake, and thence by a straight line to the nearest point of the middle line of the waters of Lake St. Joseph, and thence along the middle line until it reaches the foot or outlet of that lake, and thence along the middle line of the river by which the waters of Lake St. Joseph discharge themselves, to the shore of the part of Hudson Bay commonly known as James Bay, and thence south easterly following upon the said shore to the point where a line drawn north of the head of Lake Temiscamingue would strike it, and thence due south along the said line to the head of the said Lake, to descend the Ottawa river until the latter is struck by the northwest boundary of the seigniory of Vaudreuil, and thence along the said north-western boundary running south 15 degrees west to the westernmost angle of the seigniory of New Longueuil and thence running along the line between the township of Lancaster and the said seigniory of New Longueuil in the direction of the south, 34 degrees east, to a stone boundary on the north bank of Lake St. Francis at the cove west of the Point au Bauclet, in the said limit between the township of Lancaster and the seigniory of New Longueuil.

NOTES.

The Minister of Agriculture has been advised that the Dominion and Allan line of steamships will this season land immigrants at Quebec and the Beaver line at Montreal.

In the Senate, yesterday, Senator McInnis, B. C., asked if the Government intended establishing the long promised experimental farm in British Columbia. Senator Abbott assured the House that it was the intention of the Government to begin the work at once.

Senator Abbott withdrew the bill to amend the adulteration act in the Senate yesterday, giving as reasons that the proposed legislation had not sufficient scope. He desired next session to introduce a more complete and stringent act, containing many suggestions of the Dominion Dairymen's Association.

The Dishonest Letter Carrier Sent to Penitentiary.

Gaudiose Rosa, the dishonest letter-carrier who was arrested on Saturday for stealing a money-letter, instead of delivering it, whilst the enquête in his case was going on the Police Court yesterday afternoon, suddenly stopped the proceedings and called for Judge Desnoyers, before whom he immediately pleaded guilty. After a severe lecture in which he especially pointed out the fact that drink, as usual, had caused the man to fail, the magistrate sentenced him to five years' penitentiary, the lowest term which under the statute he could impose.

The Andersons Likely to Secure It—Canadian Companies in Difficulties.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

TORONTO, April 16.—The Empire's special cable, dated London, April 15, says: Regarding the Atlantic mail contract to replace the Allans' contract, which expired last Thursday, it is understood that representatives of Messrs. Anderson will shortly leave for Canada, on the invitation of the Dominion Government, in order to finally arrange the details of the new contract. The Andersons were the only tenderers, the Allans refraining, and the Dominion Government being unable to accede to the Allans' request for a further extension of time for the submission of tenders. It is believed that the Andersons have now received from the Government an intimation that their contract has been favorably considered, and that it is only necessary to see the details. Steps will probably be taken to expedite the completion of the new contract, so that the direct Canadian mail service will be speedily resumed.

Justice Sterling has granted the application for a reduction of the capital of the Land Corporation of Canada from £125,000 to £75,000, wiping out the amount of capital which has been lost. The English bondholders of the Hudson Bay railway, under the Manitoba Guarantee of 1886, propose to petition the Dominion Government to veto the recent Manitoba act, which, they allege, repudiates the provincial obligation under the guarantee.

A FAMILY SECRET.

Hubert since his wanderings was perhaps oftener closeted there than ever, sometimes with strange men, whom the servants did not know, and who were admitted to him secretly, and sent away the same.

One person was always welcome there, and that was Dick Dart, who, when he did not accompany his master in his wanderings, went away alone.

Now it happened one morning that Lucy, having been out in the garden cutting some choice flowers for a dinner party, passed that way, and lingered a moment at the door, as if half inclined to knock and enter. She stood still, hesitating a moment, and then became aware that the door was already ajar.

Her husband's voice then reached her. He was speaking in a quick, sharp, anxious way that was new to her.

"One thing is positive, she must be saved from all sorrow. There is enough and to spare in the world without calling it down necessarily on her innocent head. Heaven forgive me for my selfish reservations and deceit."

"You can trust me, sir," replied the harsh but earnest voice of the strange groom.

Lucy moved away shocked and terrified. The words had fallen upon her like molten lead. The whole sentence was bad enough; but the last—

"Heaven forgive me my selfish reservations and deceit."

Here was a revelation—and the domestic whom he had dragged from the mire made his confidant. It was more than a woman could bear, she thought. She must speak, she could endure this silent agony no longer. She would speak, she would have a positive explanation, and know, the full measure of her misery at once.

Foolish, hesitating Lucy, why not have spoken, why not have appealed to Hubert, who sadly enough, it is true, would have told the terrible, the fearful truth.

But pride came to the relief of Lucy, and when Hubert joined her, a little vexed—and his handsome face with a gloomy shade upon it—she made no remark.

They exchanged a few words of no particular significance, and then separated, to meet only at a formal dinner party, at which Lucy was radiant, and struck every one by her sprightliness and vivacity.

Hubert was rather surprised, and even a little displeased, to see his wife so rapidly play a part which was unusual to her. Next instant a cloud crossed his brow, and when he joined the ladies after dinner he contrived to whisper to Lucy an instant apart.

"You are a little feverish. I noticed it all dinner time," he said. "Shall I excuse you to our guests?"

"By no means," she replied, in a tone of surprise and vexation. "Because I was in unusual spirits to-day must I be feverish?"

"Unusual spirits," he cried, a little sadly. "May I ask, Lucy, what has occasioned them?"

"I really do not know. There are secrets which none of us can fathom, Hubert, and it is best to shun them."

And without further explanation she joined a neighboring group.

"Secrets which none of us can fathom," he murmured, as she turned away; "pray heaven you may never fathom mine! It would deal a fatal blow, I fear me, to your ease of mind and happiness. But courage—I yield too much to fear and shall betray myself."

Lucy was in agonies while speaking thus to her husband. She had never expected to have a wish or a thought different from his, and now already, in this early period of their married career, they were playing, it seemed, some fatal game of cross purposes.

Unfortunately, men are not so quick-sighted in affairs of the heart as women; and Hubert, instead of ascribing his wife's manner to cares of mind, was certain that her ailment was physical, and capable of explanation and cure. He watched her, therefore, with a curious eye, and was glad to see that by degrees she grew calmer; and when she retired for the night was very much in her usual spirits.

He remained in conversation with the male party staying in the house until rather a late hour, adjourning to the stately old refectory, which, for modern usages, had been transferred into a smoking-room and card-playing sanctum.

Hubert seldom broke into the night; but on this occasion a fourth at whist was wanted, and he cut in for a short time—not, however, making it very late, as though he controlled not others on this point, he did himself.

When he joined Lucy she was asleep. Never had she looked more beautiful, as she lay in a calm and placid slumber; that, however, had not been obtained without a struggle, for a tear hung on her eyelashes.

"What can the darling have wept about?" he murmured; "I must ask her. Heaven grant that she have no secrets from me!"

The next day he had forgotten his resolve, the more readily that Lucy was up and out before he awoke, and contrived to avoid any private conference with him before breakfast.

Then came letters—one of the chief excitements of a country house—and there were several for Hubert.

One made him start, and glance with a heightened color and scared mien towards Lucy, who avoided his glance.

She had seen his quick look, however, and had noticed that he concealed the letter which he had received.

About an hour later, he caught Lucy almost alone, giving some orders to Mrs. Church.

"Lucy," he said, with something like hesitation, "I am again called away on business, and may be detained. If I do not return to-night do not be uneasy."

"I shall be uneasy, of course," she replied, a little sharply; "but, of course, I must submit."

"You speak strangely, Lucy," he continued, lingering near her.

"Not more than you act," she cried, as Mrs. Church discreetly moved away.

"Do you think so?" he said in a musing way; "well, perhaps I do. There may be reasons for it, however, which you cannot understand."

"Because I am not tried. I have no secrets—why have you?" she asked, passionately.

"Secrets! Do you think I have secrets?" he continued, very sadly and sorrowfully. "Well, well, perhaps I have. But if you wish it you shall know all; it was neither just nor honest, I dare say, to wed you without telling the truth. But be satisfied: on my return to-morrow you shall know all, even, Lucy, my darling, if it separates us for ever."

And overcome by strange emotions he turned away, and shortly after left the house.

Lucy retired to her room, petrified with astonishment and dread. At last she was to know what it was that stood between herself and her husband—she was to learn the secret that was slowly but surely undermining their love and confidence.

A woman's imagination travels faster than any known means of conveying thought, and Lucy rushed immediately to the wild conclusion that Hubert was about to subject her to some humiliating discovery—that she was to hear a confession of his having always loved another; in fact, an avowal that he had married her from purely interested motives.

Unfortunately, Lucy had prepared herself for some such discovery; but though she expected it, she knew full well that the truth would be terrible to bear.

What she should do she could not decide on. There was an urgent reason for forgiving and loving her husband. Could she do so if he calmly confessed that what she suspected and dreaded was true.

She would try even then; try to be a good, and faithful, and Christian wife, and not, as is the modern artistic theory of matrimony, become unfaithful and unwomanly because the man of her choice had erred.

CHAPTER XXII.

IN THE GARDEN.

Lucy, by means of that freemasonry which exists in a remarkable degree between ladies of the same station and position, easily impressed her female guests with the necessity of her having repose. There were none present intimate enough with her to make a confidant of, but it is easy to let people see that one is out of sorts. So the three married dames present on the occasion took themselves to one of their bedrooms, and there contrived to amuse themselves very satisfactorily, even in the absence of the mistress of the house.

Mrs. Church saw at once that something was the matter, and in her blunt and straightforward way determined to fathom the truth.

She followed Lucy to her chamber, and moved about in an uneasy and restless manner.

"Mrs. Mordaunt," she at last said, abruptly, "you are not well."

PHILLIPS ARRESTED

AT THE POLICE COURT THIS MORNING.

He is Charged With the Theft of $14,000 Worth of Jewellery — Reinoltz' Deposition.

The sensation on the street to-day is the arrest last evening of Harry Phillips, the well known sport and former backer of John L. Sullivan, in connection with the Andy Maloney-Von Reinoltz $14,000 jewellery theft. The arrest was made on the deposition of Von Reinoltz and Mr. Matthew Cain Ellis, of the firm of Ellis & Co., of Toronto. Von Reinoltz came to the city yesterday, under a safe conduct from Mr. Justice Loranger of the Superior Court here, issued at the instance of Messrs. P. W. Ellis & Co., who required his affidavit to obtain a saisie revendication against Chief Hughes, who held the jewellery recovered in Andy Maloney's safe, in the two trunks found by the detectives in the house on Argyle avenue, and in the vault of the City and District Savings Bank. Von Reinoltz had gone to New York, but was asked by the detectives to leave that city, where he might be looked up by Andy Maloney's friends, and go to a quiet little village near Cincinnati, Ohio, and from there he communicated with Messrs. P. W. Ellis & Co. His deposition throws an entirely new light on the case. The substance of it is as follows: Having come here as the confidential agent for Messrs. P. W. Ellis & Co. for Carnival and sold 10,000 gold medals for the firm, he met Andy Maloney and told him of his position as agent for that concern, at the same time asking him whether he knew of any chance of trading jewellery for other property there. Maloney told him he knew a number of gentlemen who were anxious to trade. A few days later Maloney told him that he himself had two houses on Cathcart street and a fine horse, all of which he would

TRADE OFF FOR JEWELLERY.

Moreover, there was Harry Phillips, who had some $30,000 worth of diamonds which he would probably trade off for other jewellery. Von Reinoltz then wrote to his principals and informed them of the chance of trading jewellery for real estate, meaning the two houses Andy Maloney pretended to have on Cathcart street. The answer was favorable and the jewellery came on. In the morning of February 12, when the trunks were expected, Maloney and Phillips came to Von Reinoltz' boarding house on Mansfield street to see the goods, and as they had not yet arrived, they returned in the afternoon and inspected them. On the same afternoon Andy Maloney, when hard pressed about the trade, backed down on the house trade, but insisted on trading off his horse. He would at the same time try to influence Phillips to trade his diamonds. Von Reinoltz selected a quantity of the jewellery to give for the horse, and took it to Andy's house on Craig street, where Harry Phillips, Von Reinoltz and a third party played a 'freeze out' poker. Von Reinoltz and the third party lost. Drinks were supplied in great quantity, and some one suggested that Reinoltz bring the jewellery to Maloney's house that evening, when the trade would be completed. At 8 o'clock that night, after more copious draughts, both Phillips and Maloney refused to trade. The former, however, produced about 700 carats of diamonds, each carat worth from $20 to $30, and proposed to play for them

AGAINST HIS JEWELLERY.

Either party was to win fourteen games to win the entire stake of the others. The game continued until morning when Phillips won his fourteenth game. Then Von Reinoltz jumped up, called Harry Phillips aside, and told him that the jewellery did not belong to him, but to Messrs. Ellis & Co., and to confirm his statement he showed him the invoice from that firm. "By ——, Reinoltz, you will have to skip out of the country," replied Harry Phillips. "I'll help you as much as I can." Before taking the train Von Reinoltz wanted to get a few hours' sleep, but Phillips hurried him up to the Turkish bath, saying a bath would help him more than sleep. There Reinoltz also told Andy Maloney that the jewellery did not belong to him; "You'll have to skip the country," said Andy. "We can make up a story of mysterious disappearance. You'll give me your purse and we'll lay it on the canal bank or near the railroad track." Arrived in New York Von Reinoltz telegraphed Phillips to give back the jewellery quietly, or else he would be obliged to come to Montreal. The mysterious disappearance story should not be circulated as he had already written Messrs. Ellis & Co.

SO FAR THE DEPOSITION.

Harry Phillips was arrested in front of the St. Lawrence Hall by Detective Robinson, yesterday afternoon, at about 5 o'clock and was brought up before Judge Desnoyers this morning, and charged with larceny of $14,000 worth of jewellery. Phillips, who was dressed up in great style, playing with his heavy gold chain, said: "There is not a word of truth in the charge."

To a STAR reporter Phillips said: "All I can say is that I knew I was going to be arrested, and if I had wanted to get out I could have done so. I never stole a cent's worth from anybody, and certainly not from this ————. I don't know as I ever gambled with Von Reinoltz, I can't remember the name. If I saw him I might be able to say whether I did or not. I'll gamble with any man for his money against mine."

"They say," said the reporter, "that you have one-third of the jewellery."

"They say so, but they can't prove it."

"Is it not a fact that you were referred to in the Fahey case as 'Conroy'?"

"I never had anything to do with the Grand Trunk robbery. I left here for England on November 27, and the robbery occurred three days after. I don't want to get anybody into a hole; had I wanted to do so I could have made it hot for a young fellow who broke into my house on the night after the Bethune footrace, when I had $18,000 in my house, and had to defend them and myself with my revolver."

The detectives claim that they have a "dead sure case" against the two, that is Andy Maloney, Harry Phillips and the third man, who is now in possession of the two missing thirds of the jewellery.

The Blackboard in Sunday-School Teaching.

A meeting of the Diocesan Sunday-school Association was held in the Synod Hall last evening, when excellent and most interesting addresses were given by Rev. W. King and Dean Carmichael, on the use of the blackboard in teaching. The former gentleman instanced its usefulness in general classes by the Church Catechism, which he condensed into five parts on the blackboard. The Dean showed its advantages in lectures to senior classes by showing on a blackboard the whole history of the Jewish nation from Moses to the birth of Christ, divided into five plain and easily-grasped tables.

Meat Inspection.

The proposal to transfer the meat inspectors from the Board of Health to the Markets Committee, meets with the approval of the chairman of the latter Committee, who thinks that as the work the inspectors do is connected closely with his Committee, they should certainly be under their jurisdiction. Dr. Laberge says that he also thinks the inspectors should be responsible to the Markets Committee, but he added that in his opinion the men could do very little good until the system was altered, and stamping of meat enforced.

Successful Examination.

Mr. Honore Gervais underwent successfully an examination at Laval, yesterday afternoon, for the degree of LL. D., given for the third time, the other two gentlemen holding it being Messrs. Lafontaine, M. P. P., and Demers. Judges Mathieu and Jette and Messrs. de Lorimier, Archambault, Lafontaine and F. D. Monk were the examiners.

An Appeal Taken.

An appeal from the decision of Judge Jette was lodged this morning in the Court of Appeal in the case of Crawford et al, vs. the Protestant Hospital for the Insane. The plaintiffs declare they will take the case to the Privy Council if necessary.

Booms in Lake St. Louis.

Upon the motion of Ald. Stephens in the Inundation Committee to-day, it was resolved to petition the Minister of Public Works to erect forthwith booms in Lake St. Louis and Laprairie Bay.

Struck by an Engine.

A man named George Elie, aged 50 years, was struck by an engine on the Grand Trunk at Vaudreuil this morning, and was severely injured. He was brought to the Notre Dame Hospital.

St. Johns' Mayoralty.

It will be remembered that in the recent election of Mayor at St. Johns, P. Q., Mr. Black, one of the candidates, was defeated by his opponent, Mr. McDonald, by a majority of 17 votes, subsequent scrutiny of the latter, however, resulting in Mr. Black having a declared majority. Mr. McDonald, however, declined to vacate the seat, and a suit was accordingly brought by Mr. Black, to ascertain the legal bearings of the case. The latter was up for hearing on Saturday before Mr. Justice Wurtele, at St. Johns, and resulted in the mayor-elect voluntarily resigning. The case has to be heard further ere it is settled.

FUTURE PUNISHMENT.

Interesting Point Raised in the Practice Court this Morning.

Judge Charland continued to hear evidence to-day in the Practice Court in the capias case of Felix Alcan against Francis Giroux. Among the witnesses called for the defence was one Barnard Wallowitch, a Pole of Hebrew descent. Mr. Auge, Q. C., who represented the defence, was about to have him sworn, when Mr. T. C. de Lorimier asked that the witness be examined as to his religious convictions. The court proceeded to do this and Wallowitch declared that his belief was that if he did wrong he would be punished in this world, and that he would be rewarded in the next for the good which he might do. He did not believe in punishment in the next world. Then the judge asked witness what was the nature of an oath, and he answered it was a moral obligation on a man's conscience, honor and principle to declare that which was true. If he told an untruth it would bear on his conscience, and he would be haunted by remorse during his whole life.

Mr. de Lormier thereupon entered a formal objection, claiming that the witness was incompetent to give evidence insomuch as he did not believe in future punishment. He instanced the case of Bradlaugh, who had not been allowed to take an oath which on his conscience, and also the case of Joseph S. Levitus, which was identical to the present one, and in which Judge Loranger had held that the witness was not competent to give evidence before a court of justice.

Mr. Auge contended that the witness was competent. He believed in God, and in a future life where he would be rewarded according to his acts. He believed further that he would be punished here for the wrong he did. This surely constituted a religious belief in the meaning of the law. Judge Ramsay had gone so far as to declare that a person who was aware that he could be arrested and punished for perjury could give evidence.

Judge Charland declared the case was an important one because the point raised involved the right of those who could not give evidence before the courts. By the Civil Code any person could give evidence, except those mentally incapable of doing so, and those who were "insensible to the religious obligations of an oath." The question to decide was whether the witness came in the latter category or not. The legislator had not defined the mode of punishment which awaited in a future life those who did wrong, and he was not going to undertake to do so. There seemed to be a slight divergence between the civil code and the code of civil procedure, but in this instance he would naturally apply the provisions of the latter, since they were in procedure. The decision would be given after adjournment, and after he had consulted with his confrères.

AFTER RECESS

Mr. Justice Charland put the following question, based on the text of the code of civil procedure, to the witness:

"Without referring to any religion or sect, do you believe in God and in the existence of rewards and punishment after death?"

The witness replied: "I do believe in a God; but in punishment for badness after my death I do not believe. I believe in rewards for good."

The judge then declared that the court was governed in this matter by article 259 of the code of civil procedure, which left it no discretion. It was imperative. It was true that if those who did not believe in God and rewards and punishments after death were not allowed to take the oath, large numbers would be excluded. The law as it now stood was made at the time for the populations inhabiting this province, and if changes were necessary now, it was for the legislator to alter the law. As far as the court was concerned it could not go beyond the limits prescribed, and therefore the witness would be ordered to leave the witness box.

Wallowitch did so without expressing any particular feeling in the matter.

River Navigation Fairly Opened.

The tow boat "Powerful" arrived from Boucherville at nine o'clock this morning, quickly followed by the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company's ferry boat "Mouche a Feu" from Sorel, whence she returned at three o'clock this afternoon to begin her regular trips. The "Mouche a Feu" may be considered the advance guard of the R. & O. N. Company's fleet of steamers for the season, since the market boat "Berthier" will arrive to-morrow from Sorel to be followed on Thursday by the "Chambly" on her regular trip between St. Ours and Montreal, and the passenger steamer "Trois Rivieres" on Saturday, the whole being capped by the steaming into port on Monday morning of the first of the Company's Quebec liners, the steamer "Quebec," she leaving in the evening on her first trip, she and her sister steamer, the "Montreal," alternating thereafter as usual. The river to-day registered 24 feet 6 inches at the Harbor Commissioners' office; there is still considerable floe ice passing down, but not sufficient to materially impede navigation. The Allans began to-day to erect their wharf sheds, teams being busy bringing down the frame work.

Montreal Veterinary School.

At the closing exercises of the Montreal Veterinary School degrees in veterinary medicine were conferred on Messrs. A. Leticq, A. Guy, A. Douth, V. T. D'Aubigny, L. Pouliot de Lorimier, A. Nolan. The degree of Bachelor of Veterinary Medicine was conferred on Messrs. V. Pepin, V. T. D'Aubigny, L. A. Damour, F. Duclos, H. Mound, A. Etienne, P. Dumas, T. Leclaire, A. Joly, A. Girard, G. Alarie, M. P. Nelson, M. Grothe and Ed. Nolin. The Col. Rhodes medal was won by Mr. D'Aubigny, who also took the prize offered by Mr. A. Leticq. The anatomy prize was won by Mr. A. Douth, and the second year prize by Mr. A. Etienne.

Notre Dame Hospital.

At a meeting of the Board of Administration of the Notre Dame Hospital, held last evening, Drs. Benoit and Ostigny were appointed assistant house surgeons, to replace Drs. Desy and Desjardins whose term has expired.

General Hospital Staff.

A meeting of the committee of management of the General Hospital was held yesterday afternoon, when it was decided to increase the resident medical staff from three to five. The governors will make the appointments on Thursday.

LIBERALS BITTERLY DISAPPOINTED.

Mr. Chamberlain's Popularity—Mr. Goschen's Deficit—Notes on the Budget Speech—Decline in the Revenue.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

LONDON, April 16.—The Birmingham Unionist majority of three thousand bitterly disappointed the Liberals, even the Tories did not expect more than two thousand. John Bright in 1885 polled two thousand five hundred. That means that half the Birmingham Liberals are still Unionist. Nobody imagined that Mr. Chamberlain was so strong. The Gladstonians hope Birmingham is a Gideon's fleece, "Dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground."

Mr. Goschen's deficit is exactly two millions. His budget was as uneventful as I predicted, but there is a significant tendency towards progressive taxation in his imposing an extra duty of one per cent. on fortunes above ten thousand pounds. Mr. Goschen represents the extreme anti-Socialistic school, but is becoming a Socialist in spite of himself. There were some curious Social studies in his speech. He attributes the decline in revenue from wine to the habit of smoking cigarettes immediately after dinner, and the increase in the use of cocoa to its being advertised better than coffee; the want of the usual increase in tea to the growing popularity of Indian teas, which draw much stronger than Chinese.

AN EMBEZZLER CAPTURED.

The Guarantee Company of North America After an Absconder.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 16.—A telegram received from St. Louis, Mo., yesterday by Chief of Police Clark, conveyed the information that Walter B. Smith, ex-paying teller of the Second National Bank of St. Paul, who embezzled $45,000 of the bank's funds on November 23, 1885, and skipped, had been captured there, and was held pending orders from St. Paul and Montreal. Smith comes of a highly respectable and wealthy family in Ontario, and has a number of influential relatives in Chatham and Toronto. The bank did not lose anything by his defalcation, as he was under heavy bonds from the Guarantee Company of North America located in Montreal. Chief of Police Clark communicated with the Guarantee Company of Montreal and received instructions to take steps to have Smith extradited and brought back to St. Paul to stand trial for his crime. Governor Morriam issued a warrant, and an officer has gone to St. Louis for the prisoner.

JOTTINGS FROM QUEBEC.

The Chapleau Watch Case — Scarcity of Ships—Fatal Accident—The Jesuits.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

QUEBEC, April 16.—The Chapleau watch robbery case was closed last evening. The prisoner, Fairbairn, who defends himself, made a lengthy and quite eloquent address to the jury. A little sentiment was added to the scene by the prisoner asking the court to allow his wife and three small children to be placed alongside the dock to hear his defence, which was accorded. The jury were unable to agree on a verdict and were locked up for the night. The jury came into court this morning and acquitted the prisoner on the first count of stealing the Chapleau watch, but convicted him on the second count of receiving it, knowing it to be stolen. The prisoner asked for a reserved case on a point of law, but the court could not see it.

A private letter from a Glasgow business firm, to a lower-town house, received here by the last English mail, discussing the coal trade, says that it is an utter impossibility to send coals to Quebec this year at $5.80. For many years there have always been about a dozen ships going from Glasgow to Quebec in the spring. This year there is not a single one going. No ships are obtainable from the Clyde. A local firm who badly wanted to charter a vessel for a coal cargo offered 4s 9d for the "Caroline," but the owners simply laughed at it. The vessel was subsequently fixed for coals from Greenock to Montevideo at 30s 1½c, and another thirteen hundred ton Quebec ship from Leith to Montevideo at at 30s. As long as these splendid freights are obtainable no ships will go to Quebec, as there is more profit on one voyage to Montevideo at 30s than two to Quebec at the present rates. Thus it is that between sixty and eighty large ships go back to Cardiff in ballast direct from Rio and Montevideo. Some of them have already made three voyages. Coals have just advanced ninepence per ton. Messrs. Ross, of Liverpool, have declined 5s 6d for Melmerby, and decline to fix unless at 6s. This makes the price $6.25, without any profit.

A young man named Ferdinand Boutin was jammed between two logs at Baril's Mills, Warwick, a couple of days ago and died almost immediately.

Cardinal Taschereau publishes a letter this morning regretting and censuring the attitude of certain newspapers on the Jesuits' estates question.

A VENTURESOME JOURNEY.

Another Voyage to the Arctic Circle Proposed by Certain Gentlemen.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

WINNIPEG, April 15.—Hon. A. W. Everest, Count de Sainville and T. Young leave today on a trip of exploration to the Arctic seas. The party is headed by Mr. Everest, while Mr. Young, who is an old C. P. R. surveyor, will act as guide and courier. The explorers go west to Calgary, thence they cross the prairie to Edmunton, and from that place will proceed to Athabasca Landing. They will descend the Mackenzie River to its mouth, which is well within the Arctic Circle. At Fort Chipewayan they will build a boat. If they think it can be done, they will attempt the somewhat venturesome task of coasting the shore of the Arctic Sea westward, rounding Point Barrow until Behring Straits are reached. Sailing through these straits they will pass along first Alaska, then the British Columbia coasts, until they reach Victoria. The journey is an adventurous one, covering thousands of miles, going well into the arctic circle and requiring about a year's time to complete it. Elaborate provision has been made for the trip. They carry with them orders to Hudson Bay officials which will result in all the resources of the company in the far north being placed at their disposal. They are also taking with them wares for barter. They do not expect to meet with any hostility from the natives excepting in the vicinity of Trout Barrow, where the Eskimo are warlike and not at all in love with the white man. Of course the party will go thoroughly armed. The object of the trip is love of adventure, but the gentlemen of the party will endeavor to add to the world's knowledge of that portion of the arctic circle which they will traverse. Count de Sainville will take photographics view en route.

CUTTING DOWN THE POLES.

Novel Spectacle Witnessed To-day in the Streets of New York.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning Mayor Grant's secretary received a certified copy of Judge Wallace's order dissolving the injunction procured by the Western Union Telegraph Company against the Mayor and the Board of Electrical Control. The order was sent shortly afterwards to the Department of Public Works. One of the inspectors was on hand with a corps of axe men expecting the war signal. Before 11 o'clock the poles at 14th street and Union square were being cut down. Hundreds of people gathered to witness the novel sight of men cutting down telegraph poles. Two gangs, one on each side of the street, attacked the poles and will go as far as 45th street. Another company of wood-choppers made an attack on the poles on Sixth avenue. They commenced on both sides of the avenue at 23rd street, and intend levelling poles on the avenue as far as 45th street. The wires on 23rd street, from Sixth avenue to Broadway; on 25th street, from Sixth avenue to Broadway, and on 42nd street, from Sixth avenue to Madison avenue, will be taken down.

No News of the "Danmark's" Passengers.

NEW YORK, April 16.—There is no news of the 700 passengers and crew of the water-logged steamship "Danmark." Nevertheless the agents continue to hope that some sailing vessel has picked up the people and landed them at the Azores. The steamer "Werra," which arrived this morning, brought no news of the "Danmark's" passengers.

Shocking Murder in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N.Y., April 16.—Between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning a shocking murder occurred in the rear of No. 154 Seneca street, on the second floor. Thomas Dominquez butchered his wife Clarina, and then nearly severed his own head with a razor. William Barker, who owns the building in which the crime was committed, said he had always been afraid of Dominquez, who had a fearful temper, which was easily aroused. The family had been living in his building since last autumn, and he believed them to be a respectable married couple. Dominquez has been sick for a long time and his wife, with the aid of her sewing machine, has done her best to support herself and sick husband.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER

Cuts Short His Visit to the Pacific Coast—His Presence Desired at Ottawa.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 14.—Sir Charles Tupper and party returned to-day from Victoria, and was driven around the city by the Mayor. He returned east on the Atlantic express. It is understood that one object of his visit was to arrange with the Provincial Government concerning the crofters now on their way to British Columbia. His original intention of staying several days in Vancouver was altered, by his presence being urgently required at the seat of Government to make a final arrangement for the crofter settlement, of which the Imperial Government pay all expenses. Sir Charles was astonished beyond measure at the progress of Vancouver, and expressed every confidence in its future and that of British Columbia. He regretted his inability to remain over. He will remain a day at Banff.

Fine Art in Furniture.

Lovers of fine art in house furnishings will be able to enjoy a treat to-morrow at Thomson's great annual sale of furniture, which will be held on the premises recently occupied by the C. P. R. offices, Winks building, Victoria square. The specimens of work which will be brought under the hammer are remarkably fine. They consist of dining-room, drawingroom, bedroom suites and miscellaneous articles. The entire collection is superb, but some of the articles specially challenge attention. A carved mahogany sideboard on view is a magnificent specimen of cabinetmaker's work and a carved oak sideboard is also for sale, which is worthy of a place in a prince's palace. Some bedroom sets in oak are very beautiful and there is one in cherry wood which is specially admired, the panelling and carving being exquisite. The drawing-room furniture is very striking, some of the suites being upholstered in silk and velvet in most delightfully harmonious colors, and crowds of admirers surrounded them. The general collection of furniture is probably one of the finest ever placed simultaneously under the hammer. The furniture is not only extremely beautiful and chaste in design but it is also put together with that thoroughness which has given Mr. Thomson the reputation he has long enjoyed of leading the trade in all articles of high class furniture and upholstering. The warerooms where the furniture is on view have been largely visited for the last three or four days by wealthy citizens who say this year's exhibition has never been surpassed at any former sale.

STILL SEARCHING.

Police Looking for Morrison Without Success—No More Arrests at Present.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

STORNAWAY, April 16.—There will be no more arrests for the present, till the result of the application for habeas corpus in the Hamilton and McLeod cases, the discussion of which Mr. Bissonnette will watch in Sherbrooke to-morrow, is known. Such was the news last night. This morning, however, in consequence of a telegram brought by Sergeant Leggatt from Springhill, a posse of police left mysteriously for parts unknown, and has not yet returned. Last night the police had another weary tramp of twelve miles, during which several houses were visited without success. Mr. McLean, the lawyer, after several unsuccessful attempts, was shipped off last evening on the stage to Sherbrooke via Springhill. He refused to go unless protected by a constable, and the stage driver refused to take him otherwise. Constable Gordon was accordingly selected to accompany him in full uniform and with a loaded carbine.
