"All About Adoptions" at next meeting of Social Planning Council

"All about Adoptions" is the theme of the next meeting sponsored by the Pontiac Social Planning Council. Representatives from adoption agencies and parents of adopted children will be at this meeting which is open to the general public.

An attempt will be made to provide all the information needed for anyone interested in adopting children. People who have no intention of ever adopting a child are also invited to attend to become more informed about this interesting subject.

The meeting will take place in the County Building Campbell's Bay at eight o'clock on Thursday evening, June 19th. Other business of the Social Planning Council will include a report on the Directory of Services which is now in production.

As at all meetings of this Planning Council, representatives from every socially conscious institution and organization in the County are invited to attend and take part. The information made available at these meetings is invaluable to all service clubs and municipal officials and their presence at meetings strengthens the Planning Council so that it becomes progressively more useful to the County it serves.

Jennifer Quaile tops West Quebec speakers at elementary level

Eleven year old Jennifer Quaile, a grade six pupil at the Campbell's Bay Elementary School has won the Public Speaking Trophy presented by the West Quebec School Administrators Association.

Jennifer is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Basil Quaile of Otter Lake. Her topic was "The County of Pontiac". The only other contestant from Pontiac County was Vaughn Fulford a grade two pupil at Shawville, the son of Mr and Mrs John Fulford, who spoke on why he wants to be a doctor. His talk was based on the hippocratic oath.

The competition included ten finalists from the various elementary schools of Western Quebec and was held in the Eardley Elementary School at Aylmer before an audience of students and teachers from that school, at ten o'clock in the morning of Thursday, June 5th.

The trophy was presented by Mr Boland who was the judge. This is the first year this trophy has been presented and Miss Quaile's name and school will be the first to be engraved thereon. The trophy will pass on to next year's winner at the next competition which is intended to become an annual affair.

Two killed at bend in Highway 8

Mr and Mrs Armand Ladouceur of Aylmer were killed in a three car collision two miles west of Luskville Sunday evening about nine-thirty. Their three children, Leo 17, Yvon 13 and Lucille 11 suffered cuts and bruises and were taken to hospital in Hull. The children were in the back seat of the station wagon while their parents were in the front seat.

Gordon Harley 19, and Michael Thompson 16, both of Carp were occupants of the second car in the collision. Both suffered leg and arm fractures and were taken to hospital in Ottawa.

Mr and Mrs Frank Parker of Vanier occupied the third car in the crash. Mrs Parker was also injured.

The accident took place at the entrance to a curve in Highway 8 near the Archambeault garage. Quebec Provincial Police from the Hull Detachment are investigating this double fatality.

Fewer pupils more rooms for V. A. School

The Victoria Avenue School in Shawville will be in use as a Roman Catholic High School again for the term of 1969-70. An official from the Outaouais Regional School Board has been taking measurements on the grounds behind the school to determine the placing of various extra quarters.

A cafeteria, a teachers room and a classroom for commercial subjects have been planned as additions and these will be erected on the grounds as temporary quarters.

Grades 8 to 11 will be taught academic subjects at this location under the direction of a new principal, Mr Bert Bechamp of Waltham. Although a number of this year's staff has resigned, the School Board has been able to restaff the school for the next academic year.

About sixty pupils have expressed their intentions of not returning to this school next term. Of these a number are planning to go to school in Ottawa, Hull, Pembroke, Renfrew and other places. The Pontiac High School in Shawville will be taking eighteen of these pupils into its occupational classes.

Some sort of financial arrangement is being sought whereby the Outaouais Regional Board would pay the Renfrew Collegiate Board and the Board of the St Joseph's Academy in Renfrew for a number of Pontiac children to take their schooling there. It has been hoped that Quebec might pay the tuition and-or the transportation costs. Paying both tuition and transportation would cost the Outaouais less than any other way of providing for the education of these English speaking Roman Catholic children.

The principals of both the Renfrew Collegiate and St Joseph's Academy have confirmed that there is room for the Pontiac pupils in their schools. The Collegiate has trade courses and the Academy is purely academic.

Meanwhile, the parents of the children involved have not given up hope that an agreement will eventually be entered into between their Outaouais Board and the Protestant Board here which will integrate their pupils into the Pontiac High School.

The Protestant Board cannot expand to take in hundreds of extra pupils on a temporary basis but would be able and willing to do so if the arrangements were made for permanence. The Outaouais Catholic Board has told the parents that it will not

Shawville Protestant schools included in educational reforms

This year, 19,270 elementary pupils and 69,193 high school pupils in Quebec, including all those in the Protestant Elementary and High School in Shawville, will benefit from teaching given within the framework of educational reform recommended under Regulation No 1 of the Department of Education.

This regulation, approved in 1965, suggests that the teacher should alter his idea of education in such a way that the new education will become completely centered on the child, to allow him to progress at the rate best suited to his aptitudes and personality, and thus ensure him being given balanced training.

Children are admitted to school if they become six years of age by October 1 of the current academic year and will be classified by age and grouped according to criteria determined by the school's staff.

In the high schools promotion is carried out separately for each subject. Generally speaking the spread between the levels of the various subjects is not greater than the equivalent of two grades.

Equity Photos

Commencing with the issue of July 9 there will be no charge made for placing photographs in THE EQUITY. Due to a new process of printing we hope we can include more photographs from then on. Meanwhile, there will be no photos in this paper until July 9 due to a mechanical situation beyond our control. Photos submitted for publication during June will be published on July 9.

The vote in Bristol this week

There is nothing unusual or startling about the vote which will take place in Bristol this weekend to allow or disallow the sale of alcoholic beverages in that municipality. The confusion reported in Ottawa by the newspapers and radio was doubtless instigated for some reason but does not change the fact that this will be an ordinary referendum.

As always in these cases, all adults who either own property or are domiciled in Bristol will be permitted to vote and the majority will get their wish, exactly as in the case of any municipal election.

People who are not domiciled in Bristol but only spend holidays there do not vote in these elections nor do people who do not own property even if they are related to Bristol property owners.

The only matter pertaining to the vote on Friday and Saturday which might legitimately lead to confusion is the times advertised for the polls to be open. In the public notice duly placed in THE EQUITY by the secretary, Keith Emmerson, it states that the poll will be open at ten standard time and close at five standard time on each of the two days, June 13 and 14. Since most of us use daylight saving time this will be from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. by our watches.

The vote will take place in the municipal hall on highway 8 as usual and the results will be published in next week's issue of THE EQUITY also as usual. However, considering the fascination with this particular vote which has been evinced by the Ottawa news media we will probably hear and read the outcome from Ottawa sources long before next week's EQUITY.

Keith Emmerson, secretay-treasurer, will be assisted at the poll by poll clerk Clarence Roy.

Complete results of Quyon Pony Show

Loren Smart's 'Lucky' wins "Best Pontiac Pony" trophy

As advertised the weather was perfect for the Spring Pony Show of the Quyon Pony Club. One cooling shower in the midst of proceedings only served to accent the fact that most of the afternoon enjoyed sunshine and warmth and an abundance of fun for all.

Because of a lot of advance planning and a lot of hard work on the part of several devoted club members in Quyon, and the good will of exhibitors from several neighboring towns, the Show was better than ever.

Neil McColl managed the entire affair and was grateful for assistance in various departments by willing workers. Walter Hurdman of Ottawa donated his services to the Club for the day as judge of all classes. Gervase O'Reilly took on the onerous duties of announcer on the public address system provided by Molson Breweries. Linda Proulx, Hilda Scott, Elizabeth McColl, Lorraine Kingsbury and Barbara Ann Desabrais manned a refreshment booth to keep the exhibitors and spectators supplied with hot dogs and drinks.

Showing ponies from the Shawville Pony Club were Bonnie Cruickshanks. Andrew and Charles Dickson, Norma Judd, Terry HcDougall, Billy Russett, Wayne Russett, Loren Smart, and John Stanley. Joe Belsher carried a truckload of ponies down from Shawville and several carloads of parents accompanied the children. All were made particularly welcome by the Quyon Club members and in turn invited the Quyon Club to attend their Rodeo on July 27th. Meanwhile, both groups will meet again at the Pontiac Agricultural Society Spring Horse Show in Shawville on the evening of Saturday, June 28.

The Ken Gil Trophy for "Best Pony in Pontiac County" went to Loren Smart's Lucky Strike who also took second for ponies over 11 hands, second for saddle horse, second for barrel race and in combination with Charles Dickson and Terry McDougall formed the fastest relay team.

The Molson Trophy for Parade Pony went to Sharol Thompson of Perth who also won the Cecil McCooye Halter for best harness pony, (child driver) came second for fine harness pony, first

QUEBEC, CANADA

An attitude often witnessed around these parts is that one can be a Canadian without being a Quebecker. Actually the only reason we are able to claim Canadianism is that we are citizens of one of Canada's Provinces and in this case it happens to be Quebec.

We can sit back, unconcerned about what happens here, thinking that the fate of our own Province is beyond our control and then go about complaining. Or we can take pride in the fact that in some departments of government Quebec leads the nation, take an interest in politics from the very grass roots, make the governments know that Quebec includes us.

The next time a person says "The trouble with Quebec is . . ." we can counter by saying "this trouble is with you because you are Quebec." And so are we.

SUMMER IS HERE SO WATCH OUT!

The mood of summer hits us all at the same time. Wherever we go we are in a hurry to get there. Out of town — to the lake — to the hills — to the woods — but always in a hurry.

Kids too are in a hurry. Freed from school they are carefree and often careless. We are on the drive and they are on the run and before the summer is over we who drive will have killed some of those who run.

Careful driving is often bygone with icy roads. Mature and experienced drivers are no better than teenagers at the whel, statisically. Something about being wrapped in steel turns otherwise courteous people into unthinking boors. The result is too frequently tragedy.

Later on in the season the Red Cross is going to launch into their annual campaign for safety in the water, begging people not to drown by deliberate ignorance of safety rules. At present the Red Cross is anxious to draw attention to their blood donor clinics so it will have replacements on hand for all the blood which is going to be spilled.

By all means, do go to the clinic and give your pint. Giving blood is good for you and will undoubtedly save the life of the person who eventually receives it. But at the same time we can cut down on the need for transfusions by taking a little extra care in our summer driving.

Ryan named Most Valuable Player at "Pontiacs" Hockey Banquet

There is an old belief by those of us that are superstic-ous that if things run too smoothly in the beginning the ending is rather to be disastrous. The reverse of this statement is also true and Saturday held it up to be so. Terry Harper and Mickey Redmond had a rather makeshift and tardy fishing trip, were late for the parade and when they got there, cars were missing, but the Western riders had waited two hours and were still on hand to escort the visitors. Terry and Mickey had a turn riding the horses before they got down to the more serious business of sign ing autographs at the arena. Both Mr Harper and Mr Redmond personally thanked the members of the Shawville Saddle and Pony Club for their contribution to the occasion.

Royce Richardson
"skill and sportsmanship"

From then on it was all a bed of roses. The banquet was excellent, the food, the presentations, the short speeches and the atmosphere were all top notch. The dance that followed was well attended and the patrons were more than pleased with the whole evening. The biggest impression was made by the orchestra. They were superb as they played a great variety of old and new numbers.

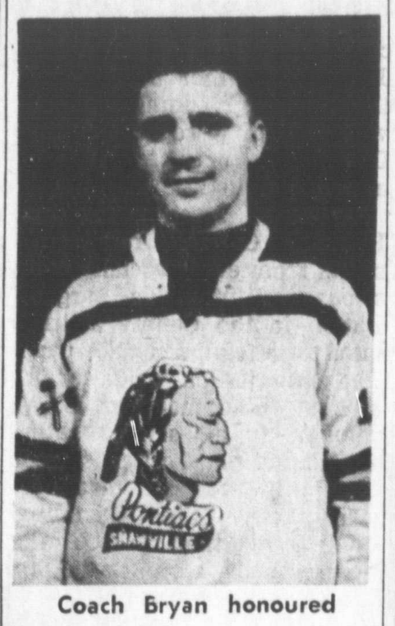
Bill Murray
"best defensive player"

It seemed a far cry from the slashing sticks and the rocking pucks but the connection was there. Bob Bowen personally presented all the players and management with beautiful three-quarter length hockey jackets. Royce Richardson was voted the player best combining skill and sportsmanlike conduct by his fellow players.

Manager Bob Bowen
donated jackets to all

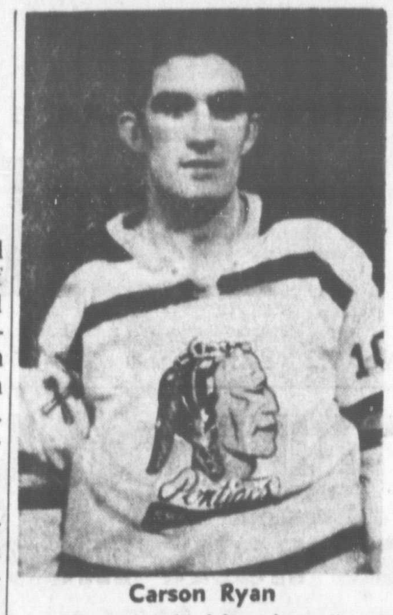
Big Bill Murray was voted the best defensive player of the year and the MVP Award went to the Pontiacs top scorer and biggest center Carson Ryan. Al Cunningham did an excellent job in the MC spot.

The Pontiacs also paid tribute to departing coach Bryan Murray. Bryan was presented with a gold watch by Bob Bowen and after his short speech he was given a standing ovation by his fellow hockey supporters.



Coach Bryan honoured

Awards were also presented by the Pontiacs to the top Minor players in the area. Gil Fraser, Warnie Richardson, Desi Allan and Bruce Judd were all selected as MVP in their age category.



Carson Ryan
"most valuable player"

In the $500" draw George Bowen won top money with Ken Sullivan winning the second draw. Both tickets were drawn by members of the orchestra. All in all it was a great night and with this initial impression made the banquet and dance should be carried on as an annual affair. On behalf of the Pontiacs thanks for coming . . don't forget to buy a season ticket for '69-'70, they should be hard to come by next November.

A new source of information for historians

The Historic Society of Western Quebec has opened a regional historic museum in the Jacques-Cartier Park in Hull and also has organized an exhibition of reviews and books on the history of this region at the Hull municipal library.

These two sources of local history should be invaluable to the many people who are interested in research about the area. THE EQUITY office receives many inquiries by letter, by telephone and in person about the history of the district and we are fortunate in having put all that we could dig up into our issue of October 14, 1967. This was our Centennial Project and we still have some copies of that issue available at fifty cents. But that Centennial issue was more of a light hearted amalgamation of anecdotes than a serious study of the area although there is a great deal of detail about the foun dation of various churches, schools and villages in Pontiac. However, the collection of information on regiona history at the Hull municipal library is documented to provide the serious scholar with useful source material.

Bryson citizens exhibited a very perceptible exultation of spirits on Wednesday, when the county council decided to ask the Government to proceed with the erection of the buildings in Bryson. Bonfires and other demonstrations were in order of the evening.

The early arrival of the train here now enables the postmaster to distribute the mail in time to deliver the same evening which is certainly an appreciable boon to the citizens. ,

Farmers of Pontiac! The hay season is fast approaching and the prospect for hay and grain crop first-class. Are you thinking where you are going to place your order for a first-class Pitching Machine? What farmer has not felt the want of something that would help him to secure his hay that was ready for the barn when a thunder storm was coming on? A gentleman in this county told me the other day his Carrier and Fork had more than paid for itself the first day he used it. Double acting and Self Reversing pitching machine with moveable stop block and pulley hoister will unload hay and loose grain of every description, or sheaves with the sheaf lifter which can be supplied with the carrier for a small extra charge W G Leroy, Bryson.

Bottrils celebrate 25th anniversary

It was a natural place for the party. About fifteen years ago Ron Bottrill and some ex-service friends saw that Quyon should have a Legion. The Legion Hall stands now to tell the story.

Friday evening Ron and Gladys, his bride were celebrating the 25th anniversary of their marriage so their friends gathered in the Legion Hall for the event. John and Earl, their sons, were there too.

After enjoying the music supplied by Francis Daly and Theresa Cummings, the guests went upstairs to partake in well-appointed wedding supper arranged by the Branch Auxiliary under Mrs. Adeline Coyle.

In the name of No 231 (Quyon) Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion, the Rev E N McColl, expressed good wishes to the couple and placed in their hands greetings from all present. To this Ron made a fitting reply.

One guest quoted Ron's description of Legion work in saying "it is the duty of the Legion to do anything in the community which needs to be done" and that was how he would describe the life of Ron and Gladys Bottrill and their family.

On Tuesday evening last the ladies of Shawville H M Club honored the boys of Shawville and immediate vicinity who up to that date had returned home after playing their part in the greatest world-struggle of all ages. Each soldier had the priviege of bringing one or two relatives or friends, and this courtesy in most cases being taken advantage of the gathering all told numbered over eighty persons.

Gr Willie Thomson (brother of Mrs P E Smiley) and Dr Claude Shaw are among the latest of our boys to receive the "welcome home". Woman named pres. of Regional C of C

This is Mrs Marie-Paule Allaire of Notre Dame du Laus. She is president of the Chamber of Commerce of the Lievre Valley. Her vice-presidents on the Outaouais Regional Chamber are Bernard Major of the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and Richard Renaud of the Department of Transport and Communication. Mr Major lives in Aylmer and Mr Renaud in Masham .

There are seventeen Chambers of Commerce with membership in the Regional Chamber. The course of action which the Regional Chamber intends to follow will be to orient the population towards a well controlled economy. The executive committee intends to contact all the local Chambers and invite them to participate with it in its program of action and intends to become the link between the local Chambers and the Provincial Chamber.

Shawville Women's Service Club meets

The Shawville Women's Service Club met at the home of Mrs Willard Elliott with Mrs S. McKinley and Mrs Art Hayes as assisting hostesses. Mrs Gordon Paul reported on the bridge marathon and presented prizes for a marathon just completed. Mr Stan Horner, our guest was introduced by Mrs Art Hayes. He gave a very informative talk on art then showed some local slides and explained the impressions back of them, also drawings done by children in different classes in school. Mr Horner was thanked by Mrs Arthur Dagg for his very informative talk.

In Shawville, the Chamber of Commerce has been almost inactive for a number of months. Elected president at its last annual meeting was Hubert McCauley. Citizens who might feel that the participation of Shawville in the Regional Chamber's activities would be useful to this town could reactivate the local organization by contacting the president and offering their support.

A request for help was asked for a burned out family in the community. It was decided that a cash donation should be made to be put in the bank for them, also clothing and other articles are being sent to the family.

Congratulations from the community and best wishes for success go to Gwen O'Leary, proprietor of the Cut and Curl Boutique which held its opening on June 3. Mrs O'Leary is the former Gwen Hearty of Vinton. She received many calls of congratulations and received bouquets o fbeautiful flowers on her opening day.

Grades one and two of the Campbell's Bay Protestant Elementary School under the watchful eyes of teachers Mrs Olmstead and Miss Mary Gay and a few mothers went on a bus trip on Friday to Animal Park near Renfrew. After viewing the many animals, buying treats at the stand and eating a hot lunch, the children rode on the various amusement rides before the homeward trip.

We should all support our volunteer fire brigade by buying their fly swats this months.

The fair came to town last week, parking itself on the Centennial grounds below Main Street. The Sparling Midway consisted of adult and children's rides, side shows, booths and fun for all. They also provided opportunity for local charities to set up booths. The three day attraction provided great enjoyment for this usually quiet town.

SPARLING—In memory of our dear father and grandfather, Heman who so suddenly was called away June 12, 1965
A father who gave me the best of his life,
Who cherished my secrets, my sorrow my strife
Who taught me to love, who taught me to pray,
Dear father in Heaven, God bless you today.

open negotiations for such an arrangement until all the school debts are paid. To this end, the municipalities involved are now forging ahead with their plans to fulfil these financial obligations in the least possible time. This will be done by borrowing initially and then seeking governmental assistance in repaying the loans.

As soon as they are able to pay the debts owed to the Outaouais Board they will be back with their repeated requests for negotiation with the Protestant Board towards amalgamation.

Eventually, they hope, all the English speaking high school students of Pontiac will receive the same educational opportunities regardless of what church they attend. but over the past few years of dealings with their school board, the parents of the English speaking Catholics have learned not to hope for anything like speedy action.

Pay for mayors and councillors

Using the census as established at the Quebec Bureau of Statistics on June 1, 1968, as a basis for figuring population, the Mayors of rural municipalities in Quebec are now to be paid thirty cents per year per resident. Councillors are to receive ten cents per population and an amount equalling a third of the total of payments to mayors and councillors is allowed for expenses of these people in the performance of their official duties.

According to the new regulations enacted in January those mayors and councillors who are already receiving remuneration for their services will not be cut down to the new figures but these figures will be a minimum payment. In th ecase where a municipality wishes to compensate their council further this must be adopted by a council and then submitted vote of two thirds of the to the ratepayers for approval.

In making this amendment in the municipal code, the Department of Municipal Affairs has also pointed out that the payments to mayors and councillors can be made monthly, annually or whatever way the council decides by resolution of the council concerned.

Population figures for determining the amount of these payments can be obtained from the Department of Municipal Affairs and should also be in the hands of the municipal secretaries. For purposes of this act only permanently domiciled population is counted. In this way a person would not be counted in the population of two places at once, for instance if they live in Shawville and have a cottage in Otter Lake, they would be considered to be domiciled in Shawville for census purposes. There is at present no extra allocation to mayors and councillors for summer residents.

Week of camp for Quebec young farmers

Quebec Young Farmers will sponsor a provincial camp for its membership between the ages of 16 and 25, on St Francis Island in Lake St Francis (near St Anicet). The camp will last one week from Sunday, July 27th to Saturday, August 2nd.

Quebec Young Farmers is a relatively new rural youth organization. Since its birth in 1967 it has sponsored various conferences, workshops, camps and projects. Its membership includes 22 clubs across the province. This camp is another of its projects.

The purpose of this camp is the leadership and character development of the individuals attending camp. Activities will include an educational program, directed by Galen Driver and Louis Bernard, both members of the staff of the Macdonald College Centre for Continuing Education; a sports program, directed by Gaston Allard, agronome in Ste Martine, and a recreation program organized by the campers and directed by Clayton Murphy, Chairman of the QYP Camp Committee, Huntingdon.

A qualified nurse and lifeguard will be present throughout the camp. The Camp Director has yet to be appointed.

Rural youth from across the province will attend this camp. Facilities will limit attendance to 40 people, including leaders. The fee to attend camp is $30.

Further information may be obtained from the Quebec Young Farmers Provincial Office, Box 237, Macdonald College, P.Q.

Filion Lake now Twilight Lake

Filion Lake in the township of Church, Pontiac County, has been renamed. The official gazette of the Province of Quebec for May 31, 1969 has announced that the Minister of Lands and Forests, the Hon Mr Claude Gosselin has approved the change of the name of this body of water from "Lac a Filion" to the more poetic name of "Lac du crepuscule" which means "Twilight Lake".

It was by local request that the "Commission de geographie du Quebec" recommended that the Minister approve the new name.

Expensive egg saving

Every so often a species of animals becomes extinct. This has been happening forever. It is now happening to the whooping crane but there are some fabulous steps being taken to prevent nature from taking its course in this case. Canada and the US are pooling resources to fly scientists by helicopter to take an egg from each of twelve known nests of the last remaining flock of 48 wild birds. The eggs will be jetted by the Canadian Armed Services Falcon Mystere to Maryland, incubated, hatched and added to a captive flock there. They intend eventually to return the captive flock to the wilds.

United Church Notes

Sunday, June 8 was a day of celebration in most of the United Churches of the Pontiac as they remembered the Anniversary of the United Church of Canada, which was inaugurated on June 10, 1925, with the coming into Union of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, The Methodist Church, and the Congregational Churches of Canada.

The Guest Speaker at Beechgrove and Quyon United Churches was the Rev Donald Pipe of Montreal field-secretary for the Stewardship Services Department (formerly Missionary and Maintenance) of the United Church. Guest speaker at Campbell's Bay United Church was Rev Roy Huntly of Quyon. At Shawville United Church the Rev J Leslie Dean of Iroquois United Church, Iroquois, Ont. was Guest speaker at the morning service. Shawville United Church this year celebrated the 135th Anniversary of continuous Christian Witness and Service of this congregation to the Community and also marked the 79th year of service in the House of Worship known as Shawville United Church. Rev Leslie Dean spoke on the subject "Our Spiritual Resources". Many visitors were present for the services.

Sunday evening June 8 — Evening Worship was held in Shawville United Church under the sponsorship of all the United Churches of the Pontiac. A large congregation was in attendance. Rev J Leslie Dean and Rev Donald Pipe took part in the service along with the other clergy of the Pontiac. The Motion Picture—

"The Long March" depicting the work of the World Council of Churches in the needy areas of the world was shown. Coffee and donuts were provided by the Shawville United Church Women at the conclusion of the service and an hour of fellowship was enjoyed by all.

The Senior Citizens Group will meet in Shawville United Church on Thursday, June 12 at 2:30 p.m. for their final meeting for this season. This group is open to all members of the community and have had a very good season of fellowship. The Group will not meet during July or August.

Ministerial Association discusses child adoption

by Rev E N McColl

A special meeting of the Clarendon and District Ministerial Association was held at St John's Rectory, Quyon, with the Rev John G. Pearce, the President in the chair. The members discussed the subject of "Adoptions" with Miss Yolande Fournier and Mr Andre Landry, two Social Workers from Le Service Social d'Outaouais.

It was pointed out that in Western Quebec there is a critical number of Protestant babies, under the care of the Agency, available for adoption, with a shortage of parents ready to take these children into their homes.

Some may hesitate to become adoptive parents because in their minds remain a host of questions to which for them the answers are not clear. Nevertheless, those who have had the experience of becoming parents to these children are willing to assure their friends that within a short time such questions disappear.

Should any residents in Pontiac County be willing to share their wealth of God's blessing with children for whom there might be no future, let them confer with their clergymen, or get in touch with Rev E N McColl, Quyon or Le Service Social de l'Outaouais, Hull, PQ.

The Association also discussed the possibility of holding a Conference on the same subject for parents later in the season.

Members intending to take their horses or ponies to the Filly Dale Rodeo to benefit retarded children in South March on Sunday should let either Mrs Lois Belsher or Janice Young know immediately. It is necessary to know the number intending to go to decide what size of a stock truck is needed for transportation. Each member using the truck will be charged a dollar a head, as usual. The rest of the cost will be paid by the club.

Events at Filly Dale this Sunday include barrel racing, pole bending, flag race and pickup for horses, a pleasure class and reining contest for horses, barrels and pickup for ponies and a variety of line classes for registered Quarter Horses and Appaloosas. The line classes start at noon and will be followed immediately by the western games. The pony section is for Shawville Pony Club members only and is held as a special attraction for the many children who will attend the rodeo.

All animals to be loaded on the club truck in Shawville must be at Shawville Fair Grounds by nine o'clock in the morning. Any arriving after nine o'clock run the risk of being left behind. The truck will transport animals only. Riders and their families will have to arrange their own transportation to the Filly Dale Ranch. This is Gerry Bennett's farm which includes fine stables, many valuable horses and an excellent indoor all weather riding arena and tack shop, a very interesting place to visit. Picnic lunches can be taken along or food can be bought on the premises.

The regular Friday night square dance practice will be held at 7:30 in the Club Ring this week, June 13.

Eleven members of the Shawville Saddle and Pony Club, complete in bright western outfits and with their animals in show shape were on hand at one o'clock as requested to escort the Stanley Cup Champions into Shawville on Saturday and waited patiently until three o'clock when they finally turned up. The escort then proceeded to the arena.
