Westmount Greenhouses Prepare for Big Show

There is something special germinating around the Westmount Greenhouses this time of year. A look behind the doors marked not open to the public reveals a sight enough to warm the cockles of the flower lover's heart and intrigue the imagination of the casual on-looker.

Gardeners at the greenhouse usually ahead of mother nature have had to step it up a little this year with the coming of Easter on March 25. Even so a few eager beaver daffodils and flowering shrubs are showing themselves.

Outside the greenhouse it may still be winter but inside it is already spring. The Easter Lilies, hyacinths and tulips are well on their way. Four weeks from now the display rooms will be a blaze of color.

All the busy bustle centres around preparation for the annual spring show, for which the Westmount Greenhouses are famous. Last year it drew well over 38,000 people who lined up for a block at times waiting their turn to get in.

This year E. J. Anderson, superintendent of Parks and Greenhouses, says he expects as many as 10,000 Easter Sunday for the show. What shape it is to take is a dark secret until the day it opens. If anyone cares to come in and see the preparations they are welcome.

Popular Event

Mr. Anderson won't risk saying the Westmount show is the biggest and best in the city but he does say it is a most popular event in the area. He also added that what really counts is "quality."

The Montreal Botanical gardens have as big a show, he said, but they can't make the same effect we are able to with our showroom. "If they build a large greenhouse our spring show may become a small event compared to theirs but right now we have the framework in which to create the atmosphere."

In one of the long hot houses the tulips, narcissus and daffodils are readying for the show. The tulips are beginning to bud and the daffodils have just been brought in from the frames. Still yellow and tender they are being kept in the dark until green.

Double may and laburnum, both European flowering shrubs, have also been brought in from the frames. They are laid on their sides, covered with dirt and leaves and left for the winter to rest. A few of the iris and lilac are ahead of time in full bloom.

A look at the rhododendron, hydrangea, canterbury bells, rambler roses and the multi-colored schizanthus promises for one of the best shows yet put on by the Westmount Greenhouses.

Local Resident Wins U.S. Award

A McGill University lecturer, Dr. Karl Stern, 4137 Marlowe avenue, won one of the five 1950 Christopher awards for writing, it was announced recently.

Dr. Stern won the $5,000 award for his book, "Pillar of Fire," which is to be published this month. It is the story of a modern man who finds meaning for life in the gospels. The writer is a lecturer on psychiatry and director of neuro-psychiatric laboratories at McGill.

The awards, announced at a reception in honor of the winners, were presented by Rev. James Keller, Roman Catholic Maryknoll missionary who in 1945 founded the Christophers, a nodues, no-meetings organization linked by correspondence exchanges on doing good to make a better world.

Run-away Truck Collides With Oncoming Taxi

An unusual traffic accident, involving a taxi and a run-away truck, was reported by Westmount police this week.

Joseph Pietropalo, 2054 Albert street, said that he had parked his two-ton truck on the slope of a hill opposite 24 Ramezary Road and left the motor running and the hand brake set as he made a call at a nearby house.

Just before entering the house, he said that he noticed the truck start down the hill and crash into an on-coming taxi.

Driver of the taxi, David R. Greaves, 489 Grosvenor avenue, said that as he drove up the hill he saw the truck bearing towards him and that although he tried to avoid colliding with it, he could not get out of the way. He said that he did not realize there was no driver.

Considerable damage was caused.

The Westmount Y.M.C.A. announced this week that the 1951 Hobby Show will feature a poster and an essay competition promoting the Centennial of the Montreal Y.M.C.A.

Miss Carol Atkinson, head of the art committee, said that in addition to the art exhibits there will be a special Centennial Poster Competition open to the boys and girls of Westmount.

The posters must feature at least the wording: "Montreal Y.M.C.A. Centennial, 1951." Contestants may use the official Centennial crest printed in the Hobby Show booklet, which will be distributed in the schools next week.

Special prizes of $10, $5 and $3 will be awarded to the best posters submitted. Judges will be J.F. Lewis, J.G. Atkinson and N.A. Millington.

Westmount Man Identifies Stolen Coats in Court

Felix Alexander, 4750 Westmount Boulevard, identified two of three fur coats as having been amongst those stolen in a smash-and-grab burglary of three Persian lamb coats at the A.J. Alexander store, 1316 Sherbrooke Street West on October 17.

Mr. Alexander was testifying in the Sessions Court on Friday before Judge C. E. Guerin at the trial of Jean Daoust, 25, and Maurice Regimbal, 23, who pleaded guilty to making off with the fur coats.

Committed for trial also was taxi-cab driver Roland Dupuis, 24, whose address was listed as 3838 St. Joseph Street, Verdun. Dupuis' cab was used in the getaway but both Daoust and Regimbal swore that Dupuis' taxi was borrowed "because we were going to a party" and that Dupuis didn't know the contents of a big box which he transported for them after they had returned his car. They said he had been given $30 for the use of the auto.

Judge Guerin remarked during the hearing "Don't try to tell me that taxi-drivers are any more naive than judges and lawyers, because I don't believe it."

Brig. J. Guy Gauvreau To Head Civil Defence

Brig. J. Guy Gauvreau, D.S.O., E.D., A.D.C., was appointed co-ordinator of civil defence for the metropolitan district of Montreal, comprising the 15 municipalities under the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Commission at a meeting Monday.

Brig. Gauvreau's appointment follows that of last Friday when he was made co-ordinator of the city of Montreal. A special meeting of the Metropolitan Commission was called yesterday to confirm his jurisdiction over the wider area.

Mayors Edward Wilson of Verdun, J. S. Cameron of Westmount, Napoleon Courtemanche of Montreal East, and Ald. E. H. Connolly of Lachine congratulated Mayor Houde for the task he had completed as provisional chairman, and for his choice of Brig. Gauvreau as chief CDC co-ordinator.

The provisional committee was therefore abolished, seeing that it had completed its task of bringing the Montreal and suburban CDC groups into active being.

Last week on Mayor Houde's recommendation, Brig. Gauvreau was named co-ordinator of the Montreal civilian defense committee by the city executive committee. The executive had also voted $5,000 for preliminary expenses. Yesterday Mayor Houde suggested that the metropolitan area municipalities should raise that to $10,000, seeing that Gauvreau would be co-ordinating all CDC work hereabouts.

City Carries Load

Presiding at yesterday's meeting, Chairman J. O. Asselin said that each of the 15 metropolitan municipalities would be assessed pro rata for the total amount. That means Montreal will pay 80 per cent. Houde had earlier referred to Asselin's expectations that the Ottawa and Quebec gov-

Unity Boys' Club News

The Unity Boys Clubhouse opened its doors again to its members this Monday and regular activities are in full swing. With the prevalence of flu whipping around the city the Club very wisely suspended its programs last week in order to minimize infection among the boys and girls. It was done following medical advice. The parents of the children understood why the action was taken and were very grateful.

With the opening of the clubhouse the Unity Boys Club promoted Brotherhood Week with a series of events enjoyed by all. For many of the club members it was their initiation into the meaning and object of this week celebrated by members of the Boys Clubs from coast to coast.

Ice Carnival: With the closing of the club last week, the Ice Carnival, which was to have been held Friday, was postponed and will take place, weather permitting, this Friday, Feb. 23, at the Staynor Park Rink opposite the clubhouse. To refresh your memories a synopsis of the program follows:

Fancy Dress Costumes: Prizes will be given for the most original costumes, either paper or cloth, in the Junior, Bantam and Midget divisions. Special prizes will be awarded for the best costumes made under the supervision of the club.

Races: One lap races for Bantam girls and boys and two lap races for Midget girls and boys will be held.

Ball Hockey Game: For Bantam boys only. Skates, hockey sticks and a football will be used.

Snake Skate: For Bantam girls only.

Potato Race: For Midgets only, who must provide their own spoon and potato.

Race for Juniors: For boys and girls Junior division, three laps around rink.

Girls Hockey Game: Two special teams of girl members to compete.

Boys Hockey Game: Team from staff of club to compete with team of boy members.

Refreshments: Hot chocolate will be served in the clubhouse at 8.30 p.m. for Bantams and at 9.30 for Midgets and Juniors.

Coming Events: Fowl Shooting (Basketball): Two big events will take place on Wednesday evening, Feb. 28. Midget and Junior boys will participate in what promises to be an exciting fowl shooting contest. Results of the outcome will be published the following week.

Indoor Broad Jumping: This event which will also take place on Wednesday, February 28, is open to all members of all divisions, Bantams, Midget and Juniors. Prizes are being planned for the winners. The importance of this event is that the names of the six leading contestants will be recorded with the Boys Clubs of Canada in order that they may compete in the Boys Clubs of Canada National Coast to Coast Contest. Bantams will compete at 7.15 p.m., Midgets at 8.15 p.m. and Juniors at 9 p.m.

Travel Club: D. B. Ross, director of the Travel Club, and W. Hislop, director of the Music Appreciation Hour, are combining next Tuesday, February 27, to arrange a program for the evening which will begin at 7.15.

Special Event: A very very special event is being planned for the afternoon of Tuesday, March 6, for Bantams and Midgets, girls and boys. Watch for further news of this event in next week's column.

As far as equipment goes please bring what you have, whether it be oils or charcoal. For paper an 18 x 24 newsprint pad will be required. Please contact the Program Dept. for further information as soon as possible.

Gymnastic Club

Members of the Gymnastic Club have had a busy week — Last Friday night they staged an exhibition for the Lachine Hi-Y group at Lachine, last night they were featured as part of the "Y's" Annual Meeting program, and tomorrow night they will perform for the big Boy Scout Rally. Interest is at an all time high with the City Championship added to their credit and their sights fixed on the Eastern Canadian Championships to be held in the early spring.

Annual Meeting

The Physical Department was well represented in the program for the Annual meeting. Following the meeting, supper, entertainment and speaker, those present were invited to watch various Clubs in the Department working out. The gymnasts featured in the gymnasium demonstrating the routines which won them the City Championships; the Fencing Club carried on with instructional fencing and finished up with an exhibition; and the swim team ran through a light work-out and speed tests as a final preparation for their meet tonight.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT

The "Dukes" held their regular Monday meeting with Grand Duke Caplin in the chair. The devotional period was directed by Doug Patterson and Jim Sherlock. At the business meeting the guest speaker Clair Buckley, Physical Director, was introduced. Clair gave a very challenging talk on Health, pointing out the three essentials of good health, namely rest, food and recreation.

The effects of excessive smoking were also outlined. Besides the "Dukes" weekly meeting they have a special gym and swim class every Tuesday.

HEROIC FARM WIFE GRAPPLES WITH ANGRY HOLSTEIN BULL

Mrs. Anna Cryer, of Lac Blanc, Que., saves husband from gory death by grasping horns of enraged animal

1. It was 6:30 A.M., and Mr. Cryer was bringing the cows in to milk at his farm in Labelle County. Suddenly, his 17-month-old Holstein bull attacked him from behind and threw him to the ground. Leaping up, Cryer grabbed the bull's horns . . . but the animal shook him loose and tossed him in the air. When he fell, the bull pressed his attack, rolling the farmer down the slight grade to a pile of logs . . . never letting up. The farmer screamed out in pain.

3. With a strength she never knew she possessed, Mrs. Cryer kept her hold. And it was only after helpers had arrived and rescued her husband that she let go, ran out the gate and, for the first time in her life, fainted. We are indeed proud to add the name of Mrs. Cryer to the list of those who have won The Dow Award for outstanding bravery.

2. Mrs. Cryer, hearing her husband's cries, ran from the house and screamed at the top of her lungs to arouse others in the family. When she had crossed the road to the field she saw her husband, bleeding and still being gored. She feared the worst but she didn't hesitate a second. Racing straight to the bull, she grasped him by the horns and hung on grimly. The surprised animal tried in vain to shake her off.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation presented for acts of outstanding heroism and includes, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond. The Dow Award Committee, a group of editors of leading Canadian daily newspapers, selects Award winners from recommendations made by a nationally known news organization.

Explosion Blacks Out Eastern Westmount

Herbert Reddy Memorial Hospital, the R.C.M.P. headquarters and most homes in southeastern Westmount were without electric power; Tupper street near Atwater avenue was flooded more than a foot deep with water from a broken fire hydrant Monday night, and most residents in the Atwater avenue-Dorchester street area found pressure in gas stoves very low.

Cause? — an excavation for a 48-inch water main Monday night that prodded Montreal into taking notice of it again — the second time in less than a month.

Escaping Gas Ignited

This time a gas main was uncovered during operations and flames shot as high as 20 feet above Dorchester street and Atwater avenue when a power shovel is believed to have caused the main to break and the gas ignited, just before 5:30 p.m. Monday. A hose truck and firemen from the Westmount Fire Department remained at the scene until 1:25 a.m.

Electricity at the Herbert Reddy Memorial Hospital was cut off for slightly more than four hours. Two babies were born during that time amidst the glow from flashlights and lanterns. Fortunately, no operations were necessary and no night operations had been scheduled.

Hydro experts allowed the gas to burn for some time lest smothering the fire would cause flames to spread through the system. When it was decided to extinguish

Speaker Calls Rotarians To Practice Club Motto, "Not Self But Service"

Rotary is a World fellowship of business and professional executives who accept the ideal of service as the basis for success and happiness in business and community life P. G. Delgado, past president of the Westmount Rotary Club, told fellow members at the weekly luncheon Wednesday.

Speaking on the eve of Rotary's 46th anniversary Mr. Delgado told the club thoughtfulness of others is considered the basis of service and helpfulness to others is the expression.

He said that Rotary does not seek to supplant or interfere with religious or political organization. "Rotary expects its members to be faithful to his religion and loyal in his citizenship."

In 46 years, he pointed out, the club's ideals of friendship, fellowship and service have reached out to six continents. More than 343,000 business and professional executives of all political and religious beliefs in 83 nations have been embraced by the club.

He called upon the members of the Westmount Rotary to put into practice their motto, "Not self but service" and "He profits most who serves best."

"We are all under obligation to serve others before the desire of profit for ourselves," he stated.

Rotary differs from other organizations, Mr. Delgado brought out, in that it is global in both organization and outlook. "Rotary International is the world-wide affiliation of all Rotary Clubs."

Wider Purpose

Shortly after it was first organized, he went on, Rotarians realized the club could have a wider purpose than promoting fellowship and understanding among business and professional men and Rotary soon became a factor in the promotion of community activities.

Going back into the history of the organization, he recalled that the first meeting took place in Chicago in 1905. The member-

Westmount Youth Gets Acquittal In Mother's Death

A 30-minute trial in the Court of King's Bench Wednesday resulted in the acquittal of George Webster, Westmount youth charged in the death of his mother, Mrs. Catherine McCreary Webster, over seven years ago.

After hearing medical evidence by the defence a jury returned an immediate verdict that the accused was innocent because of mental instability. The Crown submitted no evidence.

Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure, in a charge to the jurors declared: "It is the opinion of the Crown and of myself that under our criminal code the accused was not responsible for this crime and that your verdict should be one of not guilty."

Scout Training Makes Good Canadians - Dodds

Jackson Dodds, C.B.E., 58 Belvedere Road, Westmount, who is Deputy Chief Scout for Canada, speaking to Montreal Westward Rotary Club thanked the members for their gift of $1000 towards the cost of a handicraft lodge at Camp Tamaracouta in 1946.

Today he said no more buildings are required but subscriptions to the Scout Campaign to raise funds to aid the association to bring Scouting to Canadian boys is needed.

Scout training, he said, helped to make boys good Canadians and those helping by their contributions would be helping towards preserving our way of life in Canada and the rest of the world.

Emphasizing Lord Baden-Powell's description of Scouting as a game, Mr. Dodds said that it was literally true, and unless Scouting was continually seen in the same light, he doubted if it could survive in a world where so many attractions competed for boys' interest.

He said that Scouting was not a thing of the moment but a movement that embodied the past, the present and the future.

Mr. Dodds said that Scouting took from the past the value of experience and inspiration of those who had dedicated their lives to service of their fellow men. It dealt with the present since it seized the opportunity to make a contribution not only to the happiness of the boy but to his usefulness to the community.

"It is of the future because the future depends ultimately on the manner in which we train boys for responsibilities as citizens."

The First Task

He said that the first task was to get to know the boy and understand his boundless energy, am-

"George," I said, "I'll need some help to handle a job this size."

We went over the whole thing, discussed how much I would need. When I landed the contract he gave me a line of credit and I was able to go right ahead. Now the school's as good as built.

bitions, faith and abundant loyalty.

Scouting sought to build character, he continued, and it was shocking that in spite of all Scouting had done there was still a frightful waste of human life re-drafted aimlessly through life.

"Scouting exists to stem this dreadful waste," he stressed.

Rude Awakening

Those who thought that freedom lived on the sacrifices of the past and without present effort, he went on, had a rude awakening in the years preceding the war, because they had done nothing to help themselves in the way of preparedness. The time to prepare was now, he emphasized, taking the most malleable national resource, youth, and so moulding characters that there would be no doubt that Canada would march side by side with other freedom-loving nations of the world.

It was in the home, the church and the school that Scouting must go working with them in the making of good citizens, he added.

Dominion Douglas Had Active Year, Meeting Is Told

Active membership of Dominion-Douglas United Church, Westmount, is 1,569, it was reported at the recent congregational meeting. Total receipts for the year of $87,222 were reported. Of this, $42,221 was given to missions and benevolences.

The income of various groups was: Women's Missionary Society, $3,250; Women's Association, $2,662; Sewing Circle, $608; Ladies' Literary Society, $1,335; Handicraft Guild, $804; Sunday School, $2,262. The congregation contributed $28,050 to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund, and the Sunday School gave $683 to missions and benevolences. In addition, $1,650 was paid to the Presbyterian Local Services Fund, $1,060 to overseas relief, $1,015 to the 25th Anniversary Fund, and $920 to sundry benevolences.

R. C. Vaughan was elected to the Board of Trustees, and the following new elders were elected: E. T. Armitage, Dr. Parker Chesney, Arthur Emory, J. R. Fenwick, H. W. Langton, M. C. Loucks, Alastair G. Mackinnon, H. Marshall, E. H. Smith and F. G. Wood. The minister, Rev. Dr. A. Lloyd Smith, presided, and Alfred Smibert, recording steward, acted as secretary.

Temperance Speaker Says Alcohol Greatest Curse

"Drink is the greatest single factor in the tremendous moral disintegration which has swept our civilization," J. A. Buckwalter, of Washington, D.C., executive secretary of the American Temperance Society, declared in addresses during a three-day temperance convention here. The meetings, attended by several hundred delegates of five temperance groups, were held at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Westmount. Mr. Buckwalter was the principal speaker, addressing meetings on Saturday morning and afternoon and the final rally Sunday night.

"Communism seeks to overthrow man's government, but alcohol overthrows man's reason and his morale, and breaks family ties, the very foundation of our civilization." Mr. Buckwalter said.

"What can be expected of our youth," he added, "when senators, social leaders, business executives, doctors, lawyers, even preachers, are among the drunken?"

"Our wars, our greed, our murdering, our high accident death rates, our thieving, are all basically attributable to the wholesale drunkenness taking over our way of life."

Canada's daily drink bill is $1,600,000, he pointed out, and in the United States the bill is $1,100,000 an hour. Liquor taxes are no boon to a government's financial status, because the government in the long run must pay more for divorce, disease and general moral disintegration caused by drink.

Participating in the convention, which opened Friday night, were the Canadian Temperance Federation, the Montreal Division of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Quebec Temperance Society, the American Temperance Society and Le Cercle Lacordaire.

In charge was Rev. O. J. Ritz, pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and Rev. Ward Hill, assistant pastor. Mrs. A. W. Keating, president of the Montreal W.C.T.U., was chairman of the opening meeting and a speaker at later sessions. Other speakers included Miss Cora Sifton secretary of the Quebec Temperance Society, Brooks Wells of Oshawa, Ont., secretary of the Canadian Temperance Society, and G. Fauteux, president of Le Cercle Lacordaire.

Mrs. S. Elizabeth Rowley Died at Residence Sunday

Sarah Elizabeth Wright, wife of the late John Rowley, died at her residence, 4489 Sherbrooke street, Westmount, on Sunday.

A funeral service was held in the D. A. Colins chapel, 5610 Sherbrooke street west on Wednesday. Burial took place in Mount Royal Cemetery.

break and subsequent fire caused a slight lowering in gas pressure in that area of Westmount but "no serious trouble" resulted. The pressure now was back to normal.

the blaze the big shovel went into operation, loading trucks with wet gravel which was dumped on the jumping flames.

The fire extinguished, Montreal hydro crews joined emergency workmen of the Westmount Heat & Power Company and temporary overhead lines were put up to supply the hospital with power. Other crews drilled down to the gas main where plugs were inserted so that the break could be repaired.

Although the gas explosion was sudden and violent, no injuries were reported. A large crowd gathered to watch the bonfire but police managed to keep traffic flowing at a steady rate on Atwater avenue.

When the flames soared skywards during the early evening it was feared the nearby St. Stephen's Anglican Church might catch fire. However flames slowly subsided and were finally extinguished early Tuesday.

The management of the Forum was asked to clear the building as soon as possible following the night's boxing card. Workmen cut power into the giant arena at 12:30 a.m.

Nurses at the Herbert Reddy Memorial Hospital used flashlights in making their rounds while patients were "bedded-down" several hours ahead of time. Blood plasma was transferred to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital — just across the street — when electrical refrigeration stopped.

Westmount officials reported that they had every available lineman on the job of fixing the damaged power circuits. They also reported that they had been unable to burn city garbage Monday night because of the lack of electrical power.

Work on the installation of temporary overhead connections was completed Tuesday morning and, except for a few lane-lights, which were back in operation Wednesday night, all was reported back to normal.

The temporary connections will remain until a new man-hole is constructed at the scene of the break to permit installation of new underground connections.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK

Time to Emphasize The Things All Canadians Have In Common

What is Brotherhood? Brotherhood is giving to others the rights and respect that we want for ourselves. This definition rests squarely on the basic principles of religion and is the expression of religion in democratic life.

Respect for all people is an essential part of Canadianism. The concept of equality and brotherhood is deeply imbedded in Canadian life.

Both Christianity and Judaism teach respect for every child of God. God is the Father of all men and therefore all men are brothers. "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

This spiritual concept is the unifying force not only of our nation but of the world. The source of hope in this disrupted world is the fact that the human race is one family and God is the Father of all.

Canadian democracy grew out of this religious tradition. It is natural, therefore, that respect for each person should be paramount in our democratic society.

Today these principles of religion and democracy are threatened. The big question is whether the human spirit will remain free or whether it is to be enslaved. The dignity of man is on trial and the fate of civilization may well depend upon the outcome.

Brotherhood Week supplies the opportunity to promote understanding, to stress the interests and responsibilities that Canadians have in common, the things that unite instead of divide.

Christian Science

"Mind" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 33:11; "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ."

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When we realize that there is one Mind, the divine law of loving our neighbor as ourselves is unfolded; whereas a belief in many ruling minds hinders man's normal drift towards the one Mind, one God, and leads human thought into most level surface of Western Avenue and streets running off that thoroughfare after I crossed Atwater.

It is at times such as this, that one is made to fully realize the benefits of living in Westmount where there are no piles of unsightly dirty snow strewn with garbage, cluttering up the streets and impeding traffic.

When I hear criticism of our city administration I get rather riled, as I think we have the best run city on the Island of Montreal and probably the best in the Dominion.

Discovered Compass

The most illustrious son of Amalfi in Italy is the pilot Flavio Gioia, whose statue adorns one of the squares. This ancient mariner, who flourished astride the 13th and 14th centuries, is widely credited to have discovered the mariner's compass. At the beginning, it was rather a crude affair, consisting of a magnetized needle, floating on water by means of a reed pointing north and south with its head and tail. Crude as it was, it enabled the seafarers to venture far from the seacoast.

The Editor, The Examiner.
Dear Sir,

I may be dumb, but after reading the article in the Examiner of last week regarding property valuations in the City of Westmount, there are a few questions I would like to ask.

If the value of property in this City has gone down, how is it that the businessman has to pay higher business taxes? Surely the assessed value of a property is based on the revenue it produces for the owner.

Take the case of the store I front. Then my rent went to $30 rent—20 years ago I occupied it rent free—to keep up a decent per month until controls came, then it jumped to $45 a month. At present I pay the new owner $100 per month and my business tax based on the rent I now pay, has jumped to four times the original amount, yet the building in spite of the increased revenue to the owner remains the same assessed value.

Apparently if I owned the building I could charge as little rent as I wished, and pay my business tax accordingly. As it stands now the landlord is still paying taxes on the low valuation of his property in spite of the fact that his revenue is at least three times as much as it was 20 years ago.

Why penalize the businessman? — what this City needs is a man on our Council who is truly a Westmount businessman, who not only resides in Westmount but has his place of business here. The present set-up at the City Hall is far from being ideal as far as business establishments are concerned.

The businessmen of Westmount are heavy taxpayers and should have a voice in administering the City.
Westmount Businessman.

The Editor, The Examiner.

The roads department of the City of Westmount is to be congratulated on the very fine job of work done in clearing the streets and sidewalks after the recent very heavy snowfall.

Walking west from Guy Street on the Sunday, I could not help but notice the difference between the condition of the side streets in Montreal as compared to the al-

Valentine Heart Theme Features Homoeopathic Aux. Dinner Dance

Three hundred guests attended the annual Valentine dinner dance held in the ballroom of the Mount Royal Hotel by the Women's Auxiliary of the Homoeopathic Hospital on Saturday evening, under the distinguished patronage of Her Excellency the Viscountess Alexander of Tunis. Carrying out the motif of its title, the donated Valentine decorations consisted of masses of spring flowers and ferns, with numbers of red satin hearts in various sizes, a huge one being suspended from the central chandelier, others from the ceiling, walls and drapes, and the tiny ones, in frilly Valentine paper lace, adorning the tables. Festoons of colored balloons hung also around the room, being showered down in gay bubbles at the balloon dance.

After all expenses have been paid, the Auxiliary announces that it has netted the sum of $875.

Nolan Cornell IODE Elects Mrs. Woods Regent For 1951

The 29th annual meeting of the Nolan Cornell Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held at the home of Mrs. A. D. Angus, 63 Thornhill Road, on Tuesday.

A very active year was reported by the Chapter. A successful birthday tea in March and a bridge and apron sale in November helped to swell the Chapter's funds. Magazines, books, pipes and cigarettes were sent regularly to veterans' hospital, a cabinet radio was presented to the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital and a table radio was presented to the Ste. Anne's Military Hospital. Slant Attic Walls May Be an Asset After All of the McGill Players Club is the only dramatic group in Canada who have presented Arena or Theatre-in-the-round productions. Last year their Arena production of Ibsen's 'Ghosts' won four trophies in the Regional Drama Festival, including the Martha Allan Trophy for the best English production. 'Ghosts' was under the direction of Norma Springford, who is also directing 'Naked' this year.

Slant walls are the first consideration in decorating an attic bedroom. And don't consider them a drawback—simply because they make the room smaller. Instead, turn them into an asset by making them the room's most important feature. If you like blue, choose a wallpaper with a cream background and soft design in pale blue. Blue is a good color for slant walls since it is cool, remote—has the effect of pushing the walls back. It would be wise, too, to extend this paper right across the ceiling.

ship grew rapidly and soon spread throughout the United States.

Mr. Delgado said the first Rotary Club established outside the United States was in Winnipeg in 1910 and in the following years it mushroomed around the world.

Summing up the program of Rotary, he said, it was to encourage and foster the ideal of service and particularly:

1—The development of acquaint-

tance as an opportunity for service;

2—High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

3—The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

4—The advancement of international understanding, good will and peace through world fellowship of business and professional men.

The meeting was presided over by Frank Kenwood, who introduced the speaker, and Borden Empey thanked the speaker. Visiting Rotarians were introduced by Fred Rose. Frank Sharpe reported Unity Boy's Club Chair Fund saying donations totaled $275. so far.

Since her separation from spouse Pey Marley, Linda Darnell has had occasional dates with Bill Dozier, Joan Fontaine's estranged spouse.

New Jaguar is Displayed; Has Distinctive Styling

A preview of the new Mark VII Jaguar Saloon was held for members of the press at the dealer's premises, Budd and Dyer 5028 Sherbrooke Street. The vehicle has been designed with American and Canadian markets specifically in mind and combines the well-known qualities of British engineering with a styling that is, both distinctive and pleasing. The car is the culmination of five years' research and development.

The Mark VII does not supersede the Mark V, but is offered as an addition to the Jaguar range, although the entire initial production will be allotted to export markets. The Mark VII has, indeed, been designed to provide features for which there is an insistent demand from overseas buyers, chiefly in the matters of seating accommodation and luggage space.

The Mark VII is powered by the now world-famous Jaguar XK twin overhead camshaft engine fitted for the past two years to the 2-seater Sports Model which has enjoyed such phenomenal successes in every type of competitive event at home and overseas.

Except for the addition of a large air silencer and cleaner, the XK engine, as fitted to the new Mark VII Jaguar Saloon, is identical with the engine fitted to the 2-seater. It is not a de-tuned or "watered-down" version and the Mark VII Saloon is, in consequence, easily capable of attaining speeds in excess of 100 m.p.h.

The extraordinarily capacious luggage locker enables four large suitcases, four sets of golf clubs, also rugs, holdalls and other travelling sundries to be carried in its totally enclosed interior. The area provided for the carrying of luggage is 17 cubic feet.

Mayor Houde said provincial authorities had indicated that eventually Brig. Gauvreau may be named as organizer of regional civilian defense — for the entire Island of Montreal and surrounding territory. Houde also pointed out to Mayor Charles Lafontaine of St. Michel that it would now be up to Gauvreau to call together delegates from island defense groups.

Mayor Wilson of Verdun reminded the gathering that today the heads of the federal and provincial CDC organizations would be meeting, and Wilson suggested the Metropolitan Commission keep its eyes on possible developments.

Starring At Westmount On Sunday

Richard Widmark persuades Linda Darnell to aid him in his plans against the negroes in this scene from Darryl F. Zanuck's graphic drama, "No Way Out," produced by Twentieth Century-Fox. Stephen McNally also stars in this movie, which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre.

Darryl F. Zanuck's "No Way Out" Starts Sunday at the Westmount

Darryl F. Zanuck's "No Way Out" starts Sunday at the Westmount theatre.

"No Way Out" tells graphically and unflinchingly of what happens when a warped, criminal mind turns its blind hatred on an innocent man. Ray Biddle, a negro-hater and a hoodlum, is wounded and captured with his brother in a robbery. When his brother dies, Biddle lays the blame on Dr. Luther Brooks, negro interne on the case.

Though the irritability of this accusation can be proved to everyone else, the twisted, negro-hating mind of Biddle refuses to believe in the interne's innocence. From his hospital imprisonment, through the instrument of a lowdown woman who was his brother's wife and his own sweetheart, Biddle foments a race riot. From Beaver Canal, slum side of the big American city where the action transpires, the gangs band together in a junk yard to wipe out the negro section of the city. They are in for some surprises.

This is a screen play which neither pulls punches nor preaches. Darryl Zanuck has produced it without mincing words or integrity. Joseph L. Mankiewicz and Lesser Samuels, the authors, have penetrated their subject with clarifying insight.

ADDED ATTRACTION

"The Good Humor Man" starring Jack Carson as a Good Humor ice cream salesman, the new Columbia movie, the second feature.

"The Good Humor Man," the only comedy that comes in ten assorted flavors, all of them delicious, starts its merry-go-round of convulsively funny situations when Jack is unceremoniously stuffed into the freezing compartments of his truck by a hand of gangsters pursuing a luscious blonde. Although his heart is true to pretty Lola Albright, Jack, always anxious to please his customers, agrees to guard the blonde, Jean Wallace, for the night and awakes in the morning to find her a "corpse."

When Jack returns with the cops, the "corpse" has disappeared and with it the ice cream man's good luck, for he is next implicated in a murder and robbery. His only chance to escape nomination — and election — as chief suspect prompts Carson to undertake a riotous search for the blonde in order to sustain his alibi that he was with her during the night of the crime.

But the blonde, it turns out, is really in league with the thugs, and Carson, in company with Miss Albright, finds himself reversing the field and running to escape their vengeance.

"Fancy Pants" — "711 Ocean Drive At Monkland

One of the funniest introductions ever made for a motion picture will be seen on the screen of the Monkland Saturday till Tuesday with the arrival of Bob Hope's latest Paramount comedy, "Fancy Pants," in color by Technicolor.

As the credits unfold, listing the ski-nosed comedian as "Mr. Robert Hope (formerly known as Bob)," the camera moves in for a closeup of him putting a monocle to his eye. "No popcorn during my performance . . . peasants," he warns.

This is followed by the voice of a narrator whose solemn tones drip doom as he says:

"January 6th, 1912, William Howard Taft, President of these United States, signs an Enabling Act admitting the Territory of New Mexico into the Union as the 47th State. From a far day in 1850, the stubborn frontiersmen of this great Territory have asserted their rights to statehood. This, then, is not the story of how New Mexico won its long and heartbreaking struggle for admission. Rather it is an account of one of the reasons the struggle took 62 years. This, then, is the saga of 'The Lost Cause' . . . and one man who helped lose it."

Lucille Ball is co-starred with Mr. Robert Hope in "Fancy Pants," which was produced by Robert Welch and directed by George Marshall. Bruce Cabot and Jack Kirkwood head the featured cast.

How America's ruthless $8,000,000,000 gambling syndicate and its hoodlum empire smuggles racing information out of the tracks under the very noses of the police, is revealed for the first time in "711 Ocean Drive," Columbia Pictures' release starring Edmond O'Brien and Joanne Dru.

The secret signalling devices employed, the concealed walkie-talkies, the fabulous electronic inventions that defy police detection, all furnish exciting sequences in this sensational screen expose, which had to be filmed under armed police protection.

All of the hitherto secret paraphernalia was re-created and operated for the film by technical adviser Edwin Block, electronics engineer who originally helped install the system of disseminating racing information and has since abandoned the field.

Out west, some men fight with guns. Bob Hope's choice of weapons is a seltzer bottle and he demonstrates it with deadly effect on Bruce Cabot in this scene from Paramount's Technicolor comedy, "Fancy Pants," starts Saturday at the Monkland Theatre. Glamorous Lucille Ball co-stars with Hope. Added treat, "711 Ocean Drive" showing you the inside story of today's modern rackets, starring Edmond O'Brien and Joanne Dru.

OUT OF THE CACTUS

Frank Jacquet is out of the cactus patch for good. The 350-pound veteran of over 100 western movies has an important supporting role with Kirk Douglas in Paramount's "Ace in the Hole" and henceforth will make no more sagebrush sagas. Reason: he's too heavy to ride a horse!

BEGAN ACTING

George Seaton, Oscar winning screenwriter and co-producer with William Perlberg of Paramount's hilarious "Rhubarb", began his show business career as an actor. After winning fame as a writer he turned director in order to see his screenplays were filmed as he wanted them to be.

St. Leo's Defeat West Hill 2-0

SOCKIN' FOR SOX—Lou Boudreau, former Cleveland star, will swing the wood for his old boss, Steve O'Neill, when the 1951 season opens. Boudreau signed as a Red Sox player when the Indians released him as pilot.

Neil Walsh, Buster Smart Tally For Westmounters

St. Leo's Seniors handed West Hill a 2 to 0 defeat at the Forum last Tuesday in a regular league fixture. Neil Walsh and Buster Smart dented the twine for the winners. The win moved St. Leo's into a second place tie with still a fair chance of finishing in the charmed circle. The first two teams only participate in a post-season playoff and at present Catholic High appear to have a stranglehold on the top position, with Loyola, McGee, St. Leo's and Montreal High in a mad scramble to nail down second place in the final standing.

Neil Walsh, was the individual star of the West Hill match, the sorrel topped defenceman outskating opposition and team mates alike, scored the winning goal on a pretty individual effort. Claude Sawyer also turned in a smart game to garner his second shut-out of the schedule.

TIE C.H.S.

The Academy's hard fighting Senior Hockey Club, came mighty close to registering the major upset of the season, when they battled to a two-all draw with the unbeaten Catholic High squad, in a regular league encounter played last week at Lachine Arena.

The Saints with a neat goal from Neil Walsh in the first period and another score from the stick of Tommy St. James in the second period, were leading 2 to 0 at the end of the second period. C.H.S. cut the margin down to one goal at the four-minute mark of the third period.

The Westmounters dug in and looked to be on their way to a well earned 2 to 1 victory as the game approached its climax but with less than three minutes left to play, Tommy Grant decided to play the roll of a spoiler, going out of his way to take a foolish penalty that put St. Leo's already overworked defence to a test that was asking too much, and they lapsed long enough to enable the Black and White to sink the tying goal.

It was a bad break for St. Leo's but should serve as a valuable lesson to the hard working Tommy Grant, who on a number of occasions this season has put his team behind the well known eight ball with his childish penalties.

This was the second time this year that St. Leo's and Catholic battled to a 2 to 2 draw, in league play. The same two teams also played a two all draw in an exhibition game about 10 days ago.

St. Leo's will engage Westmount High Seniors at 4.00 p.m. on Monday at the Forum.

The Bantams and McGee Bantams engaged in a free scoring exhibition game at Lachine Arena last Saturday, with the game finishing in a 6 to 6 draw. Mario Chartrand and Grant Gill were the high scorers for the Westmount gang, with two goals each to their credit. Wayne Hibbard and Mike Dodman accounted for the remaining goals. Wayne Hibbard, back in top form, played his best hockey of the season to date.

In another exhibition game played at Lachine Arena last Saturday, the Academy Seniors took McGee into camp by a 2 to 1 score, with Ray Losito and Neil Walsh, supplying the scoring punch.

George Mulligan, returned to his old haunts at Lachine Arena last Saturday to referee the school's two exhibition games and Monsieur George was in top form and did a splendid job of officiating.

Ray Losito, St. Leo's burley defenceman stands a good chance of making a spot on the first team of the High School League's 1951 All-Star Team.

Neil Walsh has forced himself into the Academy's hockey spotlight, with a fine all-around game and also coming through with goals when most needed. Neil will be a strong candidate when the voting comes around to select St. Leo's most valuable player of the year.

St. Leo's Seniors are the surprise package of school hockey this year. Up from the Senior B ranks, they were not rated much chance in pre-season predictions to cut much of a figure in A company but right now they are in the thick of the race for the title and have not lost a game since January 28th.

St. Leo's, who have always given a 100% co-operation to the Westmount Hockey League, are keenly disappointed in the organization of this outdoor league and have appealed to the Q.A.H.A. to enter next year, in another section, where some measure of protection is given to teams who go to the trouble of having their cards and birth certificates in order.

Westm't 'Y' Team Swim at Verdun

The third in a series of Progressive City-Wide Inter "Y" Swim Meets will be held tonight, Friday, February 23, at Southwestern Y.M.C.A. in Verdun. Westmount "Y", currently resting in second place, will enter a strong team as a bid to take over first place from Central "Y".

Notable speedsters for the Westmount team will be Gordon Smith in the 11 and under classification, who is in second place in the individual scoring race, and Don Sellar in the 13 and under bracket, who is leading his section in the City-wide scoring. Sellar is also a strong contender for the open diving event.

Members of the Westmount "Y" team entered in the meet are as follows: Ron Taylor, Gordon Smith, David Taylor, Don Sellar, Roy Smith, Lloyd Kishino, Bobby Hamilton, John Moffit, and Hugh Barclay. Central "Y" has a total of 75 points, a four point lead over Westmount's 71 points.

Follow These Coke Rules for Warmth & Economy

1. Always fill the firebox as full as you can. A deep fire (a) applies more heat to sidewalls of furnace; (b) circulates more hot air; (c) burns steadier—easier to control; (d) needs less attention.

2. Coke needs less draft than coal. Draft settings vary with each furnace. A little experimenting will prove the most efficient positions to set your smoke-pipe damper and cold-air check. Bottom draft-door should be open only when you want quick heat.

3. Lasalle Coke makes so little ash that hard shaking of grates is not necessary. Use poker to loosen ash, then if you must—shake grates very gently.

In the morning and at night:—

1. Open key damper, close air check, clean fire with poker.
2. Shake grates gently until red glow appears in ashpit.
3. Add a few shovels of Coke and open bottom draft.

Then, when fire is burning briskly:—

1. Fill fire-pot as full as you can.
2. Close bottom draft door.
3. Nearly close key damper. Set cold-air check according to temperature you require.

FREE HEATING SERVICE — Trained and experienced service men are at the disposal of all Coke users to assist in obtaining maximum satisfaction from their heating equipment. Call your dealer or Lasalle Coke Service Department, MARquette 6221, for this FREE service.

Top Dog Sled Driver

Westmount High Girls Lose Basketball Title

Westmount High basketball teams senior "A" and "B" were edged out of the championship after going through the season undefeated in the western section. The "B" team was completely outplayed by a stronger and bigger Commercial High squad which swamped Westmount 36-13.

Best for Westmount were Nina Chadwick, Mimi Pascal, Claire Gilmour and Carol Fischel who combined to score the 13 points. The "A" team was defeated 27-17 by a fast passing Verdun High team which by winning annexed the championship for the second successive year from Westmount.

'Y' Physical Dept. To Stage Fencing Competition Here

The Physical Department of Westmount Y.M.C.A. has announced that the Branch will play host to two Class "A" Fencing Competitions for the Province of Quebec Fencing Association in the near future.

The first meet will be the Ladies Class "A" Foil Championships to be held on Saturday, March 3, and the second will be the Men's class "A" Foil Championships to be held on Saturday, March 10.

It is expected that all leading fencers in the Province will be competing, and officials have emphasized that those wishing to enter should get in their amateur cards immediately.

Bantam Hockey Champs to Enter City Playoffs

Avenue Stars Bantams are Westmount's representatives in the City playoffs which will get under way as soon as the weather permits.

Guy Bunier would like to thank Mr. Dunlop of Dunlop Service Station at 4780 Sherbrooke for sponsoring this team and donating their sweaters.

This organization is to be congratulated on a very worthwhile effort. It is very difficult for most of these boys' teams to operate at all without the help of a sponsor as the Q.A.H.A. rules call for all teams to have their own colors and sweaters.

DAD WATCHES SON

Stephen Chase, one of the leading actors in George Pal's "When Worlds Collide," entertained his 86-year-old father on the Paramount lot. It marked the first time that Father Chase, vacationing from his New Jersey home, has seen his son perform.

QUICK-GRIND MALT

One of the five reasons for the rich, full body and popular flavour of O'KEEFE'S ALE.

2 NATURAL YEAST

The yeast used in brewing O'Keefe's Ale is a natural by-product of the fermentation process; stored in a sterile refrigerated room to preserve its purity.

1 SEEDLESS HOPS

Seedless Kent and domestic hops are used in brewing O'Keefe's Ale. Removing the seeds removes the bitterness, but leaves the delicate aroma and flavour of the hops.

3 "QUICK-GRIND" MALT

At O'Keefe's we make our own malt from the finest barley, using only the ripest, plump barley grains, for which we pay premium prices. To preserve its fine flavour O'Keefe's "quick-grind" the malt at the last moment before it goes into the brew. This gives you the fine flavour and mellowness characteristic of O'Keefe's Ale.

4 NATURAL CARBONATION

Long fermentation is responsible for the natural carbonation which gives zest and sparkle to O'Keefe's Ale.

5 AGING

Time and nature age and mellow O'Keefe's. The result is an ale of rich, full body and pleasing flavour.
