RECEPTION TO OUR NAVAL VISITORS

Council Votes Sum of Money for Entertainment

MARKET REVENUE DECLINE

Police Protection on the Loups Embankment Discussed by the Finance Committee.

A special meeting of the City Council was held last evening to take into consideration the ways and means to provide for the entertainment of the officers and crews of the frigates to arrive in port this month.

His Worship informed the Council that he had been officially informed by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor that two French cruisers would arrive here to-day; that on the 16th instant, H.M.S. Dominion, which would probably be accompanied by two cruisers, would arrive in port, and a German gunboat on the 24th instant.

The presence in port at the same time of French and English men-of-war renders it necessary for the city to take part in the reception and entertainment of the officers and crews of these vessels.

Ald. Duquet proposed that the city should subscribe $1,000 towards that object and made a motion to that effect, and Aldermen Bedard and Messervy approved of the motion, which was seconded by Ald. Fiset.

Mayor Garneau replied that he was certainly in favor of some prominent citizen, who would have more time at his disposal, being appointed chairman of the Citizens' Committee.

Ald. Dinan was anxious to know what the Citizens' Committee was going to do with the money and when such a committee was to be appointed.

Ald. Duquet replied that his object in making the motion was to give the Citizens' Committee an idea of what the city intended doing in the matter.

Ald. Fiset congratulated the Mayor for having taken the initiative in the matter but His Worship informed him that he had received a petition signed by a number of citizens requesting him to call a meeting.

Ald. Fiset remarked that the Council was well disposed in the matter. This year, fleets of two nations, formerly enemies, in this port and Quebec should help to make their visit an agreeable one.

Ald. Verret stated that the members of the Council appeared unanimous in tendering a reception to both fleets, but suggested that Ald. Duquet's motion be amended so as to authorize the Finance Committee to vote a sum not exceeding $1,000, to the Citizens' Committee and the motion was amended and adopted.

It was then arranged to have a meeting of citizens called for next Monday afternoon.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the civic Finance Committee was held immediately after the Council meeting. Ald. Duquet presiding. Mayor Garneau informed the meeting that when he received the city auditor's report of money collected from the different markets, he noticed a very large falling off in the amounts collected.

CLABETS AND SAUTERNES THE BRAND OF N. Johnston & Sons, BORDEAUX HAS BEEN A STANDARD IN FRANCE AND ENGLAND FOR OVER A CENTURY.

the auditor to explain the reason of this large decrease and the latter wrote to him to the effect that last year, like in preceding years, the amounts due for market stalls had been collected by Mr. Wagner one of the city bailiffs, who had not done so this year.

Mr. Wagner for several years past had collected these dues after his office hours and generally got a bonus of $100. Last spring it was decided to do away with this and other bonuses, consequently Mr. Wagner did not continue the collecting and as his Worship remarked, perhaps those who owed the money were waiting still to be called upon.

Ald. Fiset thought the bailiffs should collect from the markets in their own districts.

Mayor Garneau replied that there was no question of personalities in the present case but one of principle. Mr. Wagner was a most competent employe and had made a specialty of collecting the market dues.

Mr. Blais, Assistant City Clerk, said that when he had entered the office he had divided the collections between the three bailiffs, each having his own district and responsible for the collection in his district.

Ald. Bedard was of opinion that Mr. Wagner be again requested to do the collecting and the matter was finally left to Mayor Garneau to decide.

Ald. Verret considered that No. 5 Fire Station might also be used as a police station.

Ald. Fiset suggested that His Worship should see the President of the Harbor Commission to see what the Commissioners would do towards helping the scheme, and Mayor Garneau replied that he would write to them officially.

The Quebec Chronicle

QUEBEC, JULY 10, 1906.

A SIMPLE MATTER.

Our Buade street confrere devotes another column to the defence of the Harbor Commissioners. He is the best judge of the value of his space, but the matter seems to us a very simple one. Is there any good reason why the deliberations of the Commissioners should not be public except that which prevailed with the Montreal public in the case of its Harbor Commission, namely, that publicity was not conducive to respect for the Commissioners, nor to confidence in their disinterested motives? and that, we hold, is a reason, valid enough for changing the personnel of the Commission, but not for making it a secret Star Chamber.

THE RECEPTION TO THE WAR-VESSELS.

The Finance Committee has been authorized by the City Council to contribute a sum not exceeding a thousand dollars towards a reception to be tendered to the warships during their stay in port, and it is now open to the citizens to decide what form the reception shall take. For this purpose a public meeting has been called for Monday next to appoint a Citizens' Committee to take charge of the affair, and make the necessary arrangements. The presence of the war-ships is always a popular event and it will be more so than ever this year, as there will be representatives of both the English and French Navies, and one of the British vessels has been named in compliment to the Dominion. There ought to be a very deep interest taken in the suitable celebration of the occasion, and we trust that the gathering on Monday next will be as numerous and influential as it certainly will be enthusiastic.

QUEBEC IN THREE HOURS.

A prominent citizen of Quebec was greatly exercised the other day at the conduct of the Montrealers, who appear to be in the habit of running down this city to the tourists who visit Montreal, and of assuring them that there is no need to make a prolonged stay in Quebec, as three hours will suffice for them to see all that is to be seen, and he instanced several instances that had recently come to his knowledge. We fancy the complaint is by no means a new one; the Montrealers have an idea that there is only one place in the Dominion worth talking about, and perhaps the best thing to do is to apply to them the remark of Miss Fanny Squeers concerning her bosom friend Tillie, "I pity her ignorance and despise her"; au reste, the misrepresentation by Montreal is soon discovered when visitors come here and can judge for themselves.

Moreover, we have nobody but ourselves to blame. Just before the close of the last session of the Legislature the Chronicle drew attention to the action of the Halifax Board of Trade in getting a book descriptive of Halifax, the surrounding district and the whole province and in disseminating it widely abroad, and we urged our own Board of Trade to follow the example. Later on, just before the opening of the tourist season we returned to the matter, but without effect. Yet Halifax is not the only example. Other cities have pursued the same course with success, and we are indebted to the courtesy of Major N. Levesseur for a copy of a book put out by Le Syndicat d'Initiative de Toulouse et de la Haute Garonne, which seems to be issued quarterly. It is a handsome little book of 126 pages, with a very artistic cover, and embellished by numerous handsome photographs of buildings and articles of antiquarian and historic interest. It contains a history of Toulouse from the times of the Romans, a description of the buildings, etc., the public gardens and squares, the statues, the faubourgs, the agricultural and horticultural products of the valley of the Upper Garonne; the cab fares, the side trips, a list of the hotels with their prices by the day, and for each meal, of the restaurants, of the boarding houses, and of the principal hotels of the Department; the time-tables of the railways, the facilities of approach from and to the principal cities; cost of trips with the length of time for which the tickets are available and a good map of Toulouse. There is also a large number of local advertisements, which greatly diminishes the cost of publication. That is a specimen of the way they do things in France.

It has been urged that there are several good guide books to Quebec, but how much further do they go than the counters of our local stores; what information do they convey abroad? A merchant may have a fine line of goods in his store, but unless he makes the outside public aware of the fact by advertising abroad, he is not likely to get rid of them quickly. When tourists are told in Montreal, "Oh you can know all about Quebec in three hours; all you have to do is to jump in a carriage, and the driver will take you round and show you all the sights," they are not very likely to buy guide books here, except to take them home as souvenirs. What we need is a book on the same lines as the one we have noticed, not for sale, but for free distribution; not for the local counters but to be sent abroad to the principal cities of Great Britain and the United States, to their newspapers, hotels, and railway stations. Then we can laugh at the Montreal description of us.

A NEW LIVE ISSUE.

In the political world of to-day there has been, so far as the Dominion is concerned, a great lack of clearly defined and sharply contrasted issues to stir up any great enthusiasm amongst the electors. When the present Government came into power, it annexed the Conservative "Oh-no, we never mention-em," put a patch of free trade cloth on the seat where it was not likely to come under prominent notice, sewed some Liberal frills and laces on the legs, and proclaimed it the latest fashionable style, just imported from England; but it was, in the main, the same old garment still, and the Conservatives naturally felt some difficulty in criticising it, and hence the general public which is not given to delicate shades of distinction came little by little to the conclusion that the political battle of to-day is simply a contrast between the outs and the ins, and that so long as times are prosperous and harvests good there is no need to get excited over the question of the success of either side. There are, however, signs, that this political stagnation is about to be rudely stirred up, and that before long the country will be agitated from ocean to ocean with a real live issue. The first note has been sounded in the campaign for the by-election to the Commons in North Renfrew where there is a triangular contest going on, with Mr. Thomas Murray as the Liberal favorite. This gentleman has cast down the gage of battle at a Roman Catholic church picnic in a speech in which according to the Ottawa Free Press "he advised the young people not to be so dilatory in marrying, and announced his intention of bringing in a bill, if elected, to penalize delinquent ones." The Conservative candidate took up the glove, and defended the bachelors from Mr. Murray's strictures, while the Independent candidate, true to his position, lay low like Brer Rabbit, and refused to take a decided stand on the issue.

To marry or not to marry will be the great question of the future, and in North Renfrew the Liberal party has nailed the flag of Compulsory Hymeneals to the mast. We have noticed a more than usual number of marriages this year in Quebec and elsewhere and were somewhat at a loss to account for the phenomenon, but the explanation is now before us, and it is evident that by some means or other the hidden intentions of Sir Wilfrid Laurier have been betrayed, and that it has leaked out that he purposes to bring in a bill next session for the enforced marriage of all bachelors of a marriageable age under penalties which will relieve Hon. Mr. Fielding of all trouble in financing the National Transcontinental. Hence the young men who were in the secret hastened to make themselves secure, while they had got some show of liberty of action, and before the revelation of the new Liberal policy should deliver them bound hand and foot to the mercies of the summer girl, singing "I'm going to be married, Mamma! Mamma! I'm going to be married, Mamma! Mamma! I'm going to be married, but don't you tell Pa, For how can I help it, how can I, Mamma?"

It may be injudicious to say it before the battle is fairly joined, but we have great hopes for the triumphant success of the Conservative party if this live issue be fought out. We are fully aware that the Liberal party by championing the cause of the widows and maids, old and young, will secure to itself a formidable ally, but we have not yet attained to woman suffrage, it will be influence, not votes that the Conservatives will have to reckon with, and it is a consolation to think that the ballot box is not yet wholly divested of secrecy, whatever other tricks may have been played with it. We expect that the fresh manhood of the country will revolt against the proposed lyrannical proceeding, and that however willing, and even desirous it may be to enter the bonds of matrimony if time and opportunity for choice are given, it will indignantly decline to be coerced, and to be married under compulsion. Indeed, we are not sure that the greater part of the fair sex will not resent the assumption that the law needs to intervene to effect that which their own attractions have failed to do; it will be very awkward for them to suspect that men would not ask them if they were not compelled to do so. Altogether we think that the cry of Matrimonial Protection will be as triumphant as was that of the National Policy.

PRESS OPINIONS.

PAN-ISLAM WAR?—The dispatches from Northern Africa which come via London are exactly in line with the statements made by Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, when the House questioned the Government respecting the punishment of certain natives in Egypt who had killed several British officers. Sir Edward warned the House against taking any action which might weaken the Egyptian Government, saying that the Mohammedans in Northern Africa were very restless and that but a match was needed to start a holy war. The House took the advice and did nothing.

Since then word has come of trouble between Turkey and France over the Tripoli frontier of the French Sahara. Turkish troops have been sent to the region in dispute and a serious clash is looked for at any time. It is also reported that the outbreak in Southern Morocco is more of a demonstration against the French than against the Sultan of that country. It may be safely said that France is no more desirous of starting a holy war than is Great Britain, and consequently, every possible effort will be made at Constantinople to settle the disputes amicably.

The Pan-Islam demonstration which is so much feared would differ from the recent wars with Mohammedans, if Sir Edward is correctly informed, in that it would involve the true followers of the Prophet. The campaign which General Kitchener conducted was against a religious faction which had been organized by the Mahdi and which was led by the Khalifa after the Mahdi's death. Likewise the troubles which the Italians had in Somaliland a few years ago were the result of a crusade against Christians led by another spurious prophet, who also called himself the Mahdi. These religious exhorters had thousands of followers, but they lacked general recognition.

There is no question, of course, as to the ultimate success of the Christian armies in case of a genuine holy war, but it is for diplomats and statesmen to prevent an outbreak that would cost thousands of lives and millions of treasure.—Buffalo Express.

A HINT OF the seals on which harvest operations are conducted in the West is contained in the following excerpt from the Magrath (Alberta) Pioneer of Friday, Aug. 3: "Cutting has commenced in the large field of John Silver just this side of Lethbridge. There are five binders at work there now and Mr. Silver says he will have at least fifteen by the first of next week. He has an excellent crop and the yield promises to be away up." It may be an interesting problem to school boys to calculate the probable area of Mr. Silver's farm. The young man at the editor's elbow had made a hurried computation and says there must be 2,000 acres under wheat.—Ottawa Citizen.

FUTURE PROSPECTS OF THE ANCIENT CAPITAL

Mr. D. McNicholl, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Counsels Quebecers to Improve Conditions to Meet Them.

CHATEAU FRONTENAC TO BE ENLARGED

The future prospects of Quebec as a commercial centre of Canada is not only discussed by the far-sighted people of Quebec, but by public men in every part of the Dominion, who admit that this port is the natural summer terminal for the Atlantic shipping trade that must in the near future assume a very important position in connection with the export trade from the Canadian West and North-West.

It is also pleasing to know that the Federal authorities and executive heads of all railway corporations are taking the same view, and are now engaged in planning the ways and means to carry out gigantic operations that are found necessary to develop the port of Quebec to meet the new era of prosperity in which the whole country is destined to share within a few short years.

Mr. D. McNicholl, in an interview with a Chronicle representative yesterday, sized up the whole situation in a few words, when he said the citizens of Quebec must be up and doing their share of the necessary improvements required to meet the future, as it cannot be expected that outside interests must come here and do the whole work.

He advised that Quebec should get together without loss of time, and everybody concerned should chip in their share towards the expense that will be entailed by the necessary improvements, and suggests that the city should take the initiative in the work by widening Dalhousie street from St. Andrew street to the Champlain market, and at the latter place construct a landing stage to accommodate all ocean steamers.

It is said that the Board of Trade and the City Council are considering the suggestions made, by the Chronicle to call special meetings of their respective bodies to discuss and act upon the programme in regard to preparation for Quebec's future.

The suggestion given that an industrial committee, should be appointed to encourage and foster the establishment of new manufacturing industries in this city is meeting with public favor, notwithstanding the unpatriotic opposition made to the proposition by a power of reasoning concentrated in the pronoun "I" that is repugnant to general public opinion.

In fact it is pleasing to know that a movement in this direction is already being promoted by public spirited members of the Board of Trade and City Council that is sure to be developed into practical shape before many days, which is sure to meet with public support.

This committee will need a good, live and capable secretary, who can devote his time to the business and be found at his post of duty when wanted by citizens with suggestions to make, in keeping with the duties in that respect, performed by the secretary of the Hamilton, Ont., Industrial Committee.

The name of Mr. Th. LeVasseur, Secretary of the Quebec Board of Trade, is mentioned for the office and a better choice could not be made. Mr. LeVasseur understands the situation of affairs thoroughly and could combine his duties as Secretary of the Board of Trade with those of secretary of the proposed industrial committee. He is a former journalist, who is capable by his former experience to write circulars, pamphlets, etc., and at the same time could be found at all times in the Board of Trade rooms, where he could conduct the new as well as his present office.

There are much bigger things in store for Quebec than its citizens imagine, and a gentleman well informed in railway matters speaking on the subject yesterday, said the entrance of the Delaware & Hudson River Railroad into this city meant more for Quebec than the public realized. He said he would not be surprised if this American railway would seek to acquire by purchase the Quebec & Lake St. John Railway and carry on a progressive plan for the settlement of the section of the country through which this railway runs which would give an immense impetus to Quebec trade.

He demonstrated with logical reason that the Delaware & Hudson Railway sought to acquire timber limits for the American markets, and if they were to become owners of the Quebec & Lake St. John Railway would build hotels at every point along the road in touch with the multitudinous lakes, that would attract a large number of American tourists, who now seek every summer location in country districts as far north as they can go.

It is therefore plainly apparent that Quebecers must wake up and get ready for the great future in store for this city and district. With the completion of the new bridge to span the St. Lawrence from the Chaudiere to Cap Rouge and notwithstanding any arguments to the contrary, that are actuated through selfish and jealous motives, every citizen should take an active part in the work of preparation.

The Chronicle has only one object in view in giving this advice. It is familiar with the situation, and is only doing its duty to the public in pointing out the duty of Quebecers in this important hour. Heretofore it has been said that the press of this city paid too much attention to politics, and too little to local needs, but this can no longer be charged against the Chronicle.

alone in advocacy of the welfare of Quebec and its citizens, it will continue its policy for the public weal, because it enjoys the confidence of those who know what is going to take place, and the general welfare of the city and its population, together with the people who reside in the whole district of Quebec.

MR. D. McNICOLL SPEAKS.

A representative of the Chronicle conversed with Mr. D. McNicholl, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, yesterday in respect to what improvements his company were going to make in Quebec when he responded as follows: "The improvements we have made already speak for themselves. It is the turn of Quebecers to do something for their city. You cannot expect outsiders to come here and do everything. Your citizens should bestir themselves and take an interest in the city, and assume the responsibility of their share. Every person should chip in to advance the port and the interests of Quebec."

"Quebec should lose no time in preparation, and the city should begin by widening Dalhousie street from St. Andrew street to the Champlain market and in the latter location construct a landing stage for the accommodation of all ocean steamers. "The river front should be built up along Dalhousie street, and the northern part of the harbor attended to as well as the southern part, and this work should be done without delay."

Mr. McNicholl was asked if the C.P.R. intended to proceed with the improvements at the Palais and erect a new station.

He said: "We are already making improvements, and all our decisions have been made, and in regard to the erection of a new station at the Palais, we are waiting to see where the Union passenger station will be placed."

He was asked if his company had acquired the property necessary for the enlargement of the Chateau Frontenac.

Mr. McNicholl's answer was non-committal. He said: "We have already acquired considerable property, and the enlargement of the Chateau Frontenac would be made."

From another source it is learned that the Grand Trunk Railway engineers are now studying the plans drafted by the Federal Government respecting the harbor improvements from Pointe-a-Carey wharf up the River St. Lawrence frontage to Sillery Cove, and later will come to Quebec to try and improve on the

MR. A. B. AYLESWORTH
 Minister of Justice in Quebec to Uncoil Judicial Entanglements.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice, who is at present in the city, and the guest of His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Sir Louis and Lady Jette, at Spencer Wood, is said to be here to uncoil judicial entanglements.
 Judging from information received the presence of the Minister of Justice in Quebec is the result of the recent visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and he will remain a few days to settle an element of dissatisfaction that has crept into the ranks of the Liberal party over Sir Wilfrid's disposition towards these appointments that is likely to arise out of the appointment of a judge to fill the vacancy in the Quebec Superior Court caused by the death of the late Mr. Justice Andrews.

The members of the Bar are anxious to see a man appointed who is not a mediocre lawyer, and also familiar with commercial law, and so ably represented by Judge Andrews.
 It is said that when Sir Alexander Lacoste resigns the chief justiceship of the province, Mr. E. Lafleur, K.C., of Montreal, is regarded in high political quarters, as the most likely eligible candidate for the position. His appointment has been strongly urged upon the Government by one influential faction and approved by another on the ground that he is a Protestant. So too is Sir M. M. Tait, Chief Justice of the Superior Court of the Montreal district, and it is thought that Sir Wilfrid Laurier may hesitate to incur the criticism of giving two leading positions of the judiciary in Quebec to men of the same religious faith.

Sir Louis and Lady Jette will give a dinner party in honor of their guest before he takes his departure.

 Picked Up Yesterday Afternoon by Two Residents of Cap Blanc.

The body of Hollis, the unfortunate young English waiter at the Chateau Frontenac, who was drowned, on Wednesday evening near Flanagan's booms, Cap Blanc, was recovered about one o'clock yesterday afternoon. Two residents of Cap Blanc, Messrs. Morrisette and Young, secured the body at low water, at the very spot where the fatality occurred, by means of grappling irons. When the body was recovered, it was found that the bathing trunks worn by the deceased had dropped down and had become entangled about his feet, and it is thought that this may possibly have had something to do with the cause which led to the drowning of the young man. The body was subsequently removed to the morgue, where the District Coroner, Dr. G. W. Jolicoeur, will hold an inquest.

Distin and others, in the interest of the Sailors' Institute, was introduced to the Commission. The delegation made a request to the Commission for a piece of ground to be used as a site for a suitable building for the Sailors' Institute. All the Commissioners expressed their sympathy with the object the delegation had in view, and directed that the Harbor Engineer, Mr. Boswell, and a committee from the Institute inspect the Commission's property for a suitable site, which the Commission will grant, if it has the power to do so.
 The Commission has started work erecting temporary sheds on the Breakwater for the accommodation of passengers landing from Europe.

A NOVEL EXHIBITION.
 Cricket Match in Which Famous Wire Walker Will Participate.
 A remarkable and novel event will take place at Kent House Grounds on Saturday afternoon, when Professor Cogan, the famous wire walker now performing at the Rustic Theatre, will take part in a cricket match and at the same time give another startling evidence of his prowess on the wire. A match has been arranged with a team of local cricketers, to be played at the close of the vaudeville performance on Saturday at 4.30 p.m. Prof. Cogan will do his batting and bowling from his floating wire, and the exhibition will be a unique one in the annals of sport in this district. No one should miss seeing this remarkable event.

PUGILISTIC ENCOUNTER.
 Yesterday afternoon a pugilistic encounter, said to have lasted thirty-five minutes, took place on the Louise Docks between a stoker off one of the steamships in port and a resident of Cap Blanc, that ended in victory for the latter. It appears that the stoker, who was under the influence of liquor, started the trouble and challenged the Cap Blanc man to fight, which was accepted, when the battle began and went on to a finish without police interference, notwithstanding that the melee took place a short distance from the Harbor Commission's offices. This is conclusive evidence that police protection is badly needed on the Louise Docks, and should be provided as soon as possible.

"WHEN WOMEN LOVE."
 "When Women Love" suggests so much to the human mind that we cannot pass it by as the usual drama. How much it must convey to every intelligent person. It instantly suggests wife, mother, and sweetheart. When one man knows that one woman is waiting for him after his daily toil is over, then he will realize the thought that prompted Messrs. Spitz & Nason to christen their play "When Women Love"; a beautiful thought, as old as the hills, but one that will live as long as flowers bloom and water flows. "When Women Love" and they are strange, but when they do love will give up their hopes of future happiness for the man they love. God bless them!
 We sigh for them,
 We cry for them,
 We die for them,
 And the happiest moment in all our lives is "When Women Love."
 This melodramatic success will be the attraction at the Auditorium to-night and to-morrow matinee and night.

A LAUDABLE OBJECT
 The Erection of a Suitable Building for Sailors' Institute.

In view of the increase of shipping at the port of Quebec, and the large number of sailors which the various steamships will bring, a number of citizens have conceived the idea of erecting a suitable building to be used as a sailors' institute. All that is required to have the building is the site and it is said that the Harbor Commissioners have entertained the request for this essential.
 For some years past the committee in charge of the sailors' institute in this city, have been handicapped in their good work among the sailors for want of a suitable and commodious building. The present premises only consist of two small rooms, altogether inadequate to accommodate the increased work devolved upon the committee by the further influx of seamen who have been brought to the port by the C.P.R. Expresses and other vessels. Besides, it should be known that seafaring men have their social divisions. Sailors will not mix with stokers, and stewards will not associate with either, not to speak of petty officers and even officers, who would take advantage of a sailors' institute, providing one was in vogue that had its different apartments that would mark social distinction, according to rank. Those interested in the work among the sailors, are fully aware of those conditions have been deeply lamenting their inability to meet the situation for the want of means.
 These circumstances having come to the ears of a number of philanthropic merchants of Lower Town, they immediately made known their wish to subscribe towards the erection of a sailors' institute for the port of Quebec similar to those already established in other cities, and the committee lost no time to promote the worthy object.
 The necessary money is now available for the building and if the site is procured from the Harbor Commission it will be erected. In the meantime there is much that will be required to complete and put up the new institute and the committee would be pleased to receive subscriptions from the public to make the life of a seafaring man more comfortable and happy, and specially keep them out of the saloons.

INFUX OF TOURISTS.
 The city is crowded with tourists these days, and all the hotels and principal boarding houses of the city, are doing a flourishing business. The Falls of Montmorency and Ste. Anne de Beaupre are very popular visiting points with the strangers, and all the Q. R. L. & P. Co. trains to and from these places are crowded every trip, and the electric streets cars are also getting their fair share of business.

FALL OF A PAINTER.
 A painter named Guerard fell from a ladder at the corner of Parent and St. Joseph streets yesterday morning, but escaped without serious injury beyond a severe shaking up. The man was painting a building, when the ladder on which he was standing slipped and he was precipitated a distance of over thirty feet to the ground, but his fall was broken through his catching on a cornice.

BODY IDENTIFIED.
 The body found in the Louise Basin on Tuesday was yesterday identified as that of Alfred Laroche, who resided at St. Catherine's, County of Portneuf. Laroche came to Quebec on Saturday last to attend the circus, and had dinner with his brother, Ferdinand Laroche, No. 181 St. Margaret street, afterwards leaving for the circus since which he had not been seen, alive. His brother identified the body at the morgue yesterday. Laroche was about 29 years of age and unmarried. He was employed in a mill at St. Catherine's, Coroner Jolicoeur will hold an inquest.
 If sick headache is misery, what are Carter's Little Liver Pills if they will positively cure it? People who have used them speak frankly of their worth. They are small and easy to take.

A GREAT BILL.
 The Rustic Theatre, Kent House Grounds, presents a remarkably clever and entertaining bill this week, one of the best yet seen at this popular resort. The programme is diversified and is sure to please every taste. The Rustic Theatre is wholly free to all patrons of the Railway, and anyone who wishes to spend a really enjoyable time should not fail to pay it a visit.

HOW A SALMON RAN AWAY WITH A LINE.
 Mr. R. A. Wittmans, of New York, recently had a remarkable experience while fishing for ouananiche in the Grand Discharge of Lake St. John. While whipping the water in what is known as Griffith's pool, his fly was seized by an enormous fish, which, without any previous warning, quickly ran off the whole twenty-five yards of line from his reel and made off with it. There is no doubt that the fish was a salmon, probably one of those which have now been planted for some years past in the waters tributary to Lake St. John.

ALL SIZES IN BAGS.
 Thirty thousand tons received in St. John each year, and is claimed to be superior to all other Anthracite Coal. Here is what the St. John Public Hospital, says about it:
 St. John N.B., August 7th, 1906.
 "In accordance with the authority of the Commissioners of this Hospital, I have much pleasure in certifying as follows:
 "The Hospital was heated with Scotch Anthracite Coal for the first time, during the winter season of 1904-5, and the result was so very satisfactory that the Commissioners have just recently given it the preference over all other kinds, and contracted for the entire supply required for next winter; viz., 350 tons.
 "The Scotch Anthracite not only gives out great heat, but it produces very little ash, and no clinkers, and there is therefore, the least possible labor or trouble connected with burning it."
 (Signed) I. OLIVE THOMAS, Secretary.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE
 Between Canadian Government and Government of Newfoundland.
 The International boundary dispute between the Governments of Newfoundland and Dominion of Canada, turns out to be a much more difficult and interesting problem to solve than was at first surmised, and may take a long time to settle and then only by the aid of a commission that is likely to turn out an expensive matter for the Governments concerned. The surveys have been made and the reports written on the question but they have not yet been printed.
 It appears, however, that the Newfoundland Government claims a much larger part of the Province of Quebec than the public is aware of. It claims from the 52nd parallel on the meridian of the River St. Johns, in the due north to Cape Chudleigh, and taking in all this territory bounded by Cape Chudleigh, along the shores of the Atlantic and northern shores of the Straits of Belle Isle of northern 52nd parallel to the meridian of Anse aux Blancs Labrador, to the meridian of the mouth of the River St. Johns aforesaid. This claim is founded by the Newfoundland Government, it is contended, on a concession made in the reign of George III.
 On the other hand the Dominion and Province of Quebec Governments insist that the concessions of George III, was revoked in favor of Canada, and that the jurisdiction of Newfoundland comprises only that portion of the coast in the Straits of Belle Isle, from the meridian of Anse aux Blancs Sablon, extending along the coast of the Atlantic towards the east, north and north-west up to Cape Chudleigh, a narrow strip of about thirty miles in depth at the west. In order to properly understand the question in dispute it is necessary to trace the points above mentioned on the map.

SEEN ON THE SIDE
 Gossip from the Sporting World from Various Points.
 The trophy offered by King Edward to the New York Yacht Club and won by the sloop Effort at Newport, R.I., on Wednesday, is a magnificent specimen of the goldsmith's art. It is large and massive. It stands 31 inches from the base to the apex of the ornamented cover. The block of highly polished hardwood upon which it rests is eight inches high. The circumference of the base of the cup is 41 inches, and the circumference of the upper body around the handles is 47 inches. Its capacity is several gallons. On the front, which is highly polished, is the insignia of royalty, and under it: "E. R. VII." in monogram, and the following inscription: "This cup is presented to the New York Yacht Club by His Majesty King Edward VII., honorary member of the club, 1906." On the face of the block on which the cup rests is a gold plate, upon which will be inscribed the name of each yacht and the names of their owners that succeed in winning the race.

HAY CROP SMALL
 But Quality is Better—Cereals Promise Well in Province.
 According to information received by La Patrie from various sections of the Province of Quebec, the hay crop is universally reported to be much smaller than last year, but of a better quality. In fact, it is stated that the quantity of hay falls considerably below the average, the drought which prevailed during the last month having retarded its growth. In certain places, notably Matane, the hay crop is a complete failure. Only a few showers have fallen there since April, and the farmers declare there will be a great dearth of produce in general. In the southern part of the province, however, hay is more plentiful and of good quality; that is, consisting chiefly of clear timothy. Consequently there is every reason to presume that prices will remain high, and perhaps advance in the fall.
 Grain is also reported to have suffered from the drought, but not to the extent of seriously affecting the yield. There are good prospects for corn and buckwheat, especially under the recent rainfalls; although in the case of buckwheat and other grains sown late in the season, the result is considered doubtful in certain places. Wheat, which is not cultivated extensively in the province of Quebec, is said to be sufficiently promising at such places as St. Timothee, in the county of Beaufort, and in the counties of Beauce, Huntingdon, Nicolet, Maskinonge, Richelieu, Rouville, and Soulanges. At St. Marc, in the county of Vercheres, grain has been badly scorched by the sun.
 On the whole, the vegetable crop throughout the province is reported to be going well, but the quantity of potatoes will be rather below the average; although the yield is reported good in the counties of Compton, Maganie, Montclair and Richelieu. In other places, however, this important staff of life has suffered considerably from the dry, hot weather. Other roots as well as vegetables, that grow at the surface are said to be prosperous. In general, fruits will not be plentiful, yet very satisfactory reports have been received from several places like other vegetation, fruit trees and shrubs have been affected by unfavorable weather conditions. The apple crop is said to be very poor in Beaufort, but unusually good in Compton.
 From several sections of the province comes the complaint that the drought has caused the pastures to dry up. On this account certain farmers are obliged to sell off their cattle.

Correspondence
 Quebec, August 9th, 1906.
 To the Editor of the Chronicle:
 Sir,—Yours of the 8th inst. contains a letter from a "Citizen," growing about the children and dogs having a glorious time around the fountain, which is now a fountain, but before was a nothing. All other cities do not barricade their fountains, but they are left for the enjoyment of the youth. The opinion is now that it is not large enough, but I would say leave it as it is, it gives the youth a little side path to play around. There is plenty of room for "Citizen" to sit in the alley and listen to the birds sing, and also the water splash, he can shut his ears to the exultation of our future generation and dream that he is a benefactor. Put a few lights around the fountain, please.
 Yours truly,
 H. D. MORGAN.

 Saratoga, N.Y., Aug. 9.—Running Water, the 9 to 20 favorite, easily captured the Alabama stakes for 3-year-old fillies, 1 1/4 miles, today. Brookdale Nymph was second and Commodore third. The time was 1:12 2/5. Running Water broke in front and continued to show the way by one length for six furlongs. In the stretch Miller let her have her head and she drew away, winning easily by two lengths. She covered, carrying 99 pounds, equalled the world's record for seven furlongs in the first race. He stepped the distance in 1:24 3/5. Four favorites won.

 A ROWING CHANGE
 National to be Confronted with Proposition.
 Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 9.—Ed. Geers, the veteran driver, had a banner day in the sulky at the third day's meeting of the Grand Circuit. Geers won three races, including the rich $10,000 Empire State trot. Geers captured first money in the blue ribbon event with Gold Dust Maid, favorite at $100 to the fields $20. In the first heat of this event he was off badly, but gradually improved his position as the race progressed and by some clever driving won the heat at the wire. He captured the second heat easily, but Gold Dust Maid broke in the third heat, which was won by Oro. Geers also won the 2.16 pace with Ardelle, and the 2.09 trot with Lady Gail Hamilton. Both were favorites in the betting and both won in straight heats. In the opening race a collision occurred on the first turn due to Doris B. stepping into the sulky of Daphane Direct. Allen, who drove Doris, and Walker, who was behind Daphane Direct, were both thrown from their sulkies. Walker escaped injury, but Allen sustained three broken ribs and was badly bruised. He was removed to the hospital in an ambulance. Watson also fell in the 2.10 trot, but the horse and his driver, Benyon, escaped injury. The track was fast and a crowd of 7,000 was present.

AN ACCOMPLISHED FATHER.
 Presiding at the Wembley Golf Club dinner, Col. Sir C. Euan Smith said that a certain eminent lawyer used to get very linguistic when playing on the links. A friend, also high up in the legal profession, was teaching the daughter of the first lawyer to golf.
 "Do you think," said she, "that I shall ever be able to golf?"
 "My dear," replied her tutor, "the first thing you have to master is the word itself. You must pronounce it 'goff,' like 'cough.' There is no 'l' in golf."
 "Oh, indeed," replied the young lady "isn't there! You evidently haven't heard father play."

LAKE ST. JOSEPH REGATTA.
 Everything is now in readiness for the regatta on Lake St. Joseph tomorrow afternoon, and the attendance of spectators promises to be extremely large. Good sport is always provided at these annual contests, and the list of entries show that this year's meet will not be behind any previous one. The programme contains a nice variety of events, which will undoubtedly prove the greatest interest. A convenient train service has been arranged for, and every preparation made to transport the big crowd who are going.
 MONTREAL AND QUEBEC.
 The last intermediate league game of the season will be played on the Q. A. grounds to-morrow afternoon, when Montreal II will line up against Quebec. The contest should be a rattling good one, for the visitors will have a much stronger team than when they met the locals in the earlier part of the season. The Quebec team will have the same line-up as has played the last couple of matches, but will evidently have to go some to win, as Montreal wishes to turn the trick against them as the Shamrocks did a couple of weeks ago.

GANS-NELSON FIGHT.
 San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 9.—Eddie Graney, who has been working for several months to secure a match between Gans and Nelson, left here last night for Salt Lake, where he expects to meet Nolan and arrange for a match. Graney secured Nolan's promise by wire that nothing would be settled with the Goldfield Club until he had a conference with Graney. Graney said just before leaving here: "I am going to get this match if there is a chance in the world. I have the necessary backing, and I think there is a good show for me. When I saw the Goldfield story I realized the Nevada people meant business."
 "San Francisco is the place for the fight. We can get it. I can show him where he can get more money here than at Goldfield, and I am sure he is willing to listen to a reasonable proposition."
 "Gans had a talk with me this morning. He would rather fight in San Francisco than in any other city in the world, provided a suitable inducement can be offered him. I told Joe that in the next few days to put up a good sub-stantial guarantee to promise the fight here."
 "If there is a reasonable chance to get the fight for San Francisco I will make good. I am sure with a big, strong offer that will stagger the Goldfield people. If I do not miss my guess, Billy Nolan, the Battler and myself will spin into this city in a few days with terms arranged and the match settled beyond doubt."
 It pays to pay for quality. Go to Piper's for your Briar Pipes.

NEXT BALL GAME.
 The next game in the Canadian Baseball League on the Q. A. A. grounds is scheduled for Sunday next, Quebec and Lévis being the opposing teams. This game promises to provide all kinds of excitement, as both teams are out for a win. Lévis are league leaders at present, and Quebec has an ambition to occupy that coveted position. A win on Sunday would boost the latter considerably, and a big effort will be made Sunday to accomplish this. However, Lévis will take a lot of beating, as its team is playing great ball at present. The game will be well worth seeing.

DIED SUDDENLY
OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rash, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSARY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can. Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it: "I not long since had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now leading a so-called vigorous a life. When then it was all-gone, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand, Collinsonin unquestionably afforded relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence." "Golden Medical Discovery" not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

No one who wishes to make a delightful week-end trip should forget this grand excursion to Riviere du Loup and Cacouna over the Intercolonial Railway on Saturday. The train will leave Levis upon the arrival of the ferry from Quebec at 8 p.m. on Saturday. A band will accompany the excursion.

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

A woman from l'Ange Gardien appeared in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of putting water in the milk which she supplied to the creamery at that place. She was fined $6 and costs. A constable from an adjacent parish was bound over to keep the peace. It appears that the guardian in question maltreated two boys whom he was arresting. Judgment was rendered in the case against a resident of Portneuf for attempting to assault another person from the same place and the defendant was fined $1 and costs, the latter amounting to $24.50.

No less than eight prisoners made their bow to the Recorder yesterday, mostly cases of drunkenness. Six were allowed to go.
