Sherbrooke Greeted Halifax 'Twins'

Informal Note For First Day

An air of informality reigned yesterday as a delegation from Sherbrooke's twin city, Halifax, was officially greeted by local citizens on their first day in Sherbrooke.

The delegation arrived in the early morning and was greeted by Mayor Nadeau and a group of local people at 7.30.

The Halifax group, headed by Mayor elect Charles A. Vaughan, comprises 23 of the leading citizens of the twin city. The delegation left Halifax on Saturday and will return on Tuesday night.

Other pictures of the Halifax visit are on pages 3, 10 and 11.

The visitors were officially greeted at City Hall by Mayor Nadeau yesterday noon, but not before they had seen a sample of Sherbrooke's hospitality.

AT THE HOTEL

They were greeted at their hotel by a detachment from the local police force, one from the fire department, corps of the Frontiersmen and the Sherbrooke Harmony Band.

One of the most impressive events which occurred in front of the hotel was the demonstration given by the local police department. Several of the visiting delegation made complimentary remarks on the drill, which was accomplished with military precision.

Mayor Nadeau and Mayor-elect Vaughan inspected the police detachment and then were escorted to city hall in a motorcade with the Harmony band. They took the salute at a march past in front of City Hall.

Once inside Mayor Nadeau welcomed the group in a short speech followed by a buffet dinner.

Yesterday afternoon the group was taken to the top of Mount Orford for a scenic view of the surrounding countryside.

SOCIAL CLUB

Last night the group was received at the Social Club for a buffet and this morning His Excellency Mgr. Georges Cabana received the delegation at the Archbishop's Palace.

For many, the visit from Halifax will be a chance to meet old friends, as Sherbrooke made an identical visit to the Nova Scotia capital last winter. For many Sherbrooke people however, it will be their first chance to meet the citizens of their twin city.

For one man, though, it is a chance to visit his native city. The only former Sherbrooke resident forming part of the delegation is Percy Green, who has found many of his former friends amongst those who greeted the visitors yesterday.

This noon the delegation was given a dinner at the St. George's Club. This afternoon has been kept free for the delegation. This evening a civic banquet will be given at the Tuque Rouge Snowshoe Club.

Engineers Graft 250-Foot Span On Old Bridge

MONTREAL (CP)—With surgical precision, engineers Sunday grafted a new 250-foot steel span into Montreal's 23-year-old Jacques Cartier bridge.

The spectacular six-hour job was part of a $6,900,000 program to raise the bridge where it straddles the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Two powerful hydraulic jacks pulled the old and new spans—a total weight of 3,100 tons.

The entire southern end of the bridge is being raised to provide 120-foot clearance over the seaway channel where ocean ships will sail for the first time in 1959.

Popularity Up

TROIS-RIVIERES, Que. — Transport Minister George Hees told the Chamber of Commerce here Saturday there has been a noted swing in favor of his Progressive Conservative party in Quebec since the federal election.

Queen Visits New York

WASHINGTON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth headed by special train to an all-out welcome by New York City today after what she called a "happy and memorable" four days in Washington.

Ahead lay an old-fashioned ticker tape parade up Broadway which some predicted will rival the 1927 hoopla for Charles A. Lindbergh's solo Atlantic flight.

A greeting from New York's Governor Averell Harriman at Stapleton, Staten Island, a ferry-boat trip across to Manhattan, and a city hall welcome by Mayor Robert Wagner provided only the beginning of a day-long schedule which ends with the Queen's departure by air for London shortly after midnight.

NEW YORK (CP) — The Queen and Prince Philip arrived at Stapleton, Staten Island, aboard the royal train at 10:10 a.m.

A formal farewell from Vice-President Nixon and less formal adieus from President and Mrs. Eisenhower marked the end of the Queen's visit to Washington Sunday night.

Elizabeth, unmistakably weary but smiling gamely, stood on the train's observation platform and waved goodbye until she was out of sight of perhaps 1,500 cheering fans at Washington's Union Station.

An army band played Auld Lang Syne and there was more than one sentimental tear at the departure of Elizabeth and Prince Philip.

Philip, wearing the tuxedo in which he had dined at the Australian embassy, was in rollicking spirits. The Queen sparkled in a lime green jewel-encrusted evening gown, emerald stole and diamond necklace and earrings.

Before going to the embassy dinner, the Royal Couple received a folksy farewell from the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, standing on the north portico of the White House.

"Please come back again," Eisenhower said, and his wife

Italian Town Toasts Frogman Who Went Diving In Wine Vat

RIVA del GARDA, Italy (AP) — The residents of this alpine resort today toasted a frogman who went diving in a vat of wine.

Thanks to his prowess the juice of the local grape won't run in the streets.

Riva del Garda boasts a co-operative wine cellar housing 20 huge vats of 52,800-gallon capacity each. The farmers now are bringing in their new wine, which is piped down into the underground vats.

Sunday a worker went below to the corridor adjoining the vats to inspect things. He found the passageway three feet deep in new wine. He started looking around to see where it came from. Then he collapsed, overcome by the fumes from the still fermenting liquid.

Jet Fires On Jordan Airliner

JERUSALEM (AP) — Both Jordan and Israel have complained to the United Nations mixed armistice commission about an encounter between a Jordan civilian airliner and an Israeli jet fighter.

The American pilot of the airliner, Capt. Jesse Stallworth, said an Israeli jet fired on his aircraft five times Saturday as he flew over the town of Aqaba, Jordan.

Stallworth said none of the shots hit and he completed his flight from Amman to Cairo. Fourteen passengers and three other crew members were aboard.

The Jordan government claimed fire by its ground forces at Aqaba drove the Israeli plane off. It said anti-aircraft fire also drove off two Israeli fighters which later attacked the ground positions.

The Amman regime said it was considering diplomatic action.

An Israeli Army statement said the fighter spotted the Jordan plane over the Negev Desert 20 miles inside Israel. It said the fighter ordered the airliner to land but the pilot refused and escaped across the border.

50 Killed In Turkish Train Crash

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — An Athens-bound express and a local train heading toward Istanbul collided in a Turkish Thrace Sunday night and railroad officials estimated 40 to 50 Turkish passengers were killed and 150 injured.

While ambulances from Istanbul hurried to the scene, rescue workers probed through the tangled metal for victims. Bodies were crushed in the cars of the local train and sprawled along the rain-damp ground beside the tracks.

A rescue train reached the scene, about 30 miles northwest of Istanbul, and brought most of the severely injured back to the Turkish metropolis.

Clerk's Error Makes Father A Bachelor

AIX-LES-BAINS, France — (AP) — An error by the town clerk has made the father of four a bachelor, his wife his stepmother and his father a bigamist.

The mixup came to light when Louis Cloeckner tried to establish his right to an identity card. A check of the records showed there was no registration of Louis' marriage. But the records did show that Louis' father, Augustus, was married in 1947 — to Louis' wife.

Officials said it will take a court judgment to straighten the thing out.

Anglo-American Pool Of Brains Proposed

LONDON (AP) — The government is reported shaping up a proposal for pooling all British-American scientific resources including nuclear and rocket research.

Prime Minister Macmillan, who will begin conferences in Washington today with President Eisenhower Wednesday, is expected to lay out the plan before his cabinet today.

Under the plan, the two allies would co-ordinate their scientific effort through a joint planning directorate with headquarters in Washington.

There is speculation that other members of the Commonwealth and of the North Atlantic alliance may be invited to join if the United States agrees.

Schuman Declines Try As Premier

PARIS (AP) — President Rene Coty today asked veteran former premier and foreign minister Robert Schuman to form a government but Schuman declined.

Schuman, who had spent Sunday conferring with Bank of France and treasury experts, was understood to have presented the president with an extremely grave picture of the economic situation.

Leadership Fight Hinted

OTTAWA (CP) — Ministers of the former Liberal cabinet during the weekend shifted the party machine into high gear for a comeback surge.

Former fisheries minister James Sinclair said the Progressive Conservatives were to blame for imposition of closure in last session's controversial pipeline debate.

Hon. Paul Martin, former health minister, laid the groundwork for a leadership succession race and said it was time for the party to "rebuild its fences and reconstruct its fabric."

Former immigration minister J. W. Pickersgill warned that the Conservative government may begin "an attack on freedom" in the fields of broadcasting and in international trade.

All spoke to Young Liberal groups Saturday. Mr. Pickersgill addressed the Manitoba Young Liberal Association in Winnipeg and Mr. Martin and Mr. Sinclair spoke to eastern Ontario Young Liberals in Ottawa.

Mr. Martin struck the note for the battle cry when he said the Liberal party must rally under a new leader of the stature of a Laurier, King or St. Laurent. This rebirth of liberalism should come, above all, from Young Liberals.

He did not say whether he will be a candidate for the leadership the Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent has said he will vacate, but he laid the basis for a leadership fight.

The choice of a leader must be made "at the grass roots," he said. And in making that choice the delegates will consider simply this — what Canadian is best fitted to the new champion of Liberalism and the "next prime minister of Canada."

Mr. Sinclair, taking part in a panel discussion of a 10-point summary of Liberal beliefs, said closure was the only way to ration discussion of the pipeline bill and "the Tories telegraphed their punch by announcing they were going to filibuster. If they had not, of course, closure would not have been invoked the first day" of debate.

The member for Coast-Capilano said Canada should adopt the British system by which all Commons debates are limited to a specified time. This is done by agreement between the government and the opposition. The prime minister decides if no agreement is reached.

When debates are limited as to time, he said, each side puts forward its best speakers and there is no time-wasting repetition.

Mr. Sinclair supported other points in the summary of Liberal beliefs opposing enactment of a bill of rights and introduction of a capital gains tax.

Mr. Pickersgill said Liberals "must be vigilant to see that the same freedom of broadcast is maintained under the Conservatives as prevailed under the Liberal government." The Conservative government might begin "an attack on freedom" by restricting broadcasting privileges of the CBC.

He warned, too, that under the Conservatives, a "steady shrinkage of our trade and commerce and a new period of restriction and protection" might appear. There were "signs of an attack on freedom" here.

Gypsies Unite

BUDAPEST (Reuters) — Hungarian gypsies have banded together in the National Federation of Hungarian Gypsies.

All In Fun Says Errol

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Errol Flynn says "if there's trouble any place it always finds me."

His latest encounter with the trouble came Saturday night when he was hauled out of a party and booked as a drunk. A policeman accused him of taking his badge.

It was all in fun and he wasn't drunk, Flynn contends. He says he's going to sue for false arrest.

The scene was the annual Ballyhoo Ball of the Publicists' Association. Hundreds of guests were on hand, including scantily costumed starlets. Among the eye-catchers were Greta Thyssen, escorting a cheetah on a leash; Joan Bradshaw with a lion, and Vikki (Lady Godiva) Kougan on an artificial horse.

CAME WITH ACTRESS
The place was jumping when Flynn, 48, his friend Cedric Belfrage and Irish actress Maura FitzGibbon arrived.

This is the way the principals described the subsequent happenings:
Flynn—"I didn't even get to the bar. My friend Kehoe brought me a drink or two and that's all. Here I am at a party at which there were three or four bars serving drinks when an officer, who was drinking himself, introduces himself to me and asks me to meet his wife. And I wind up in jail, fingerprinted for the first time in my life."
Kehoe—"I left Errol talking to Maura while I went over to the bar to fetch some drinks. As I returned a man was introducing his wife to Errol and asking for an autograph. After Errol gave the autograph he asked the man what he did, and the man answered, 'I'm a police officer.'"
TAKES BADGE
"Errol then replied, 'If you're a police officer, let me see your badge.' As the officer showed the badge, Errol playfully grabbed it and gave it to Miss FitzGibbon. Errol was just kidding—and the officer took it seriously and wrestled us all into a police car."
Policeman William Friedman—"Flynn saw my gun sticking out of its holster and said, 'So you're a copper, huh?' and got belligerent and used profanity. I tried to warn him to take it easy but he kept it up. So I took him to jail."
Friedman said he works in an off-duty capacity Saturday nights at the club where the party was held.
Mrs. Simone Friedman, 34, working as a hat check girl—"He (Flynn) was very sweet and friendly and kissed me on the cheek. Some of the people with him were acting nasty but I thought Mr. Flynn was charming."
Flynn and Miss FitzGibbon were booked at a police station for drunkenness. They got out in about an hour after posting $20 bail each.

Another Missile Test Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Technicians may try again today to test fire the first stage engine of the Vanguard rocket which they hope ultimately will send a United States satellite into space.

Such a firing apparently was put off twice Friday. Official sources at the missile test centre at Cape Canaveral, Fla., said test activities would be resumed today.

The testing plan is to send aloft the rocket, using only the first stage engine. The Vanguard rocket, at full power, is planned to have three stages, the last of which would carry the satellite into an orbit about 300 miles above the earth.

The Russian satellite, man's first venture into outer space, now is in its 18th day of circling around the globe. Moscow radio said Sunday night Sputnik completed 235 circuits and is on schedule. The broadcast said the baby moon's radio transmitter has continued to work smoothly.

At Cambridge, Mass., Dr. Richard E. McCroskey and Dr. Charles A. Whitney of the Smithsonian Observatory said information obtained from tracing Sputnik will be directly applicable to future U.S. satellites.

Confusion Over Offer To Mediate

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Saudi Arabia's King Saud today kept up his efforts to mediate the Syrian-Turkish crisis, but any progress he was making was largely obscured by conflicting reports.

The Saudi Arabian radio in Mecca announced that the two disputing neighbors had accepted Saud's offer to bring them together. The broadcast said official delegations from Syria and Turkey will arrive in Damman, Saudi Arabia, today or Tuesday.

Syrian officials said without elaborating that Maj.-Gen. Afif Bizry, the leftist Syrian chief of staff, will fly to Saudi Arabia today. But Damascus radio denied that the Syrian government had accepted Saud's mediation offer.

There also was no confirmation in the Turkish capital, Ankara, of the Mecca radio report. Rumors were current, however, that Turkish Premier Adnan Menderes had received a message from Saud.

The king returned home Sunday after a 10-day visit to Beirut. Moscow continued repeating its charges that the United States is pushing Turkey to attack its southern neighbor, which has been under increasing Soviet influence for two months.

The UN assembly prepared to begin debate Tuesday on the Turkish-Syrian crisis. Four or five resolutions for assembly action were expected to be submitted — by the United States, Syria, the Soviet Union and others.

Que. Stand On Education Unchanged

MONTREAL (CP) — Premier Maurice Duplessis said in effect Saturday that we would continue to guard jealously provincial rights in the field of education regardless of the recent change in the federal government.

Speaking at ceremonies marking the laying out of cornerstone for a new wing of Notre Dame College, of which he is a former student, the president said: "Neither the triumphant blue of the sky nor the red glow of the setting sun will prevent me from upholding the rights of the province in the field of education."

In Quebec blue is traditionally associated with conservative parties while red is the liberal color.

DRAWS ANALOGY
The premier compared the cornerstone of the new wing—to house a 400-seat auditorium, a swimming pool and a club for alumni—to Quebec's houses of education.

"These are the cornerstones of our civilized country," he said, "as fundamental truths are irradiated from them."

She Believes Him

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said Sunday she believes Nikita Khrushchev "is honest when he says that war is unthinkable."

Today's Chuckle

The guest watched in amazement as the small boy of the family pounded nails into the furniture with a hammer. "Holy cow!" he said to the father. "How can you afford to let him do it?" "Oh, it's not bad," said the father. "We get the nails wholesale."

CRAZY OR EXPERT
They also heard a comment by one of the wranglers, who had no idea who Mary was: "She's either an expert horsewoman or she's just plain crazy."
An elaborate mechanism was devised to carry off the stunt. The treadmill, which had been free-running, had to be equipped with an electric motor to get it started. Wires were attached to the horse in four places to prevent its getting off the track.
But still, the device wasn't foolproof. When Mary and co-star John Raitt were posing for photos in San Francisco, the horse reared and sent the expensive talent tumbling on their—onto the stage.
Three horses and two cowboys are required for the stunt. Prince is used for Mary's gallop, and White Cloud carries Mary and Raitt for a walk at the finale. Another nag is required as a stand-in.

Mr. Hubert Clowery sustained a severe fracture of the left leg.

as the result of a blowout while riding in car near the Way's Mills turn, near the Burroughs Falls coner. The car went out of control and ended up in a ditch. Two other occupants of the car were only shaken up. Mr. Clowery is a patient in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital in Sherbrooke. He was employed at the Kilgour factory and is a member of the local Legion branch.
Fire completely destroyed the farmhouse home of Mr. and Mrs. William Falconer, on the Ladd's Mills Road south of the town of Coaticook. The men of the household were at work in the fields at the time the blaze broke out, and no furnishings or personal belongings were saved. The winter's supply of fuel piled in the cellar was also destroyed. An estimate of the loss was not immediately available but it is understood that this was not covered by insurance. Cause of the fire is not known.

Amery gave the address. The congregation was made up of visiting Scoutmasters and Cub Mistresses. Following this service Mr. Engelhardt and Mr. Beerworth went to Ayer's Cliff where the latter conducted the morning service at Beulah United Church.

Ploughmen Hold Annual Contest

Ploughmen furrowed their way through thick soggy earth in a continuous drizzle Saturday afternoon to participate in the Sherbrooke Ploughmen's Association 78th annual ploughing match at the farm of Eddy Goodfellow on the Brompton Road.

Association Secretary-Treasurer W. G. MacDougall said the inclement weather cut the number of entries from last year.

Special prizes for the eldest and youngest plowers on the field went to Sam Morrison, 78, of Melbourne, and to Emile Giroux, 9, of Bromptonville.

Top winners in each class were as follows: Horse drawn ploughs only, match No. 1, Willard Harrison, Sherbrooke; No. 2, Norie Bonnallie, Bromptonville, and No. 3, Leslie Sutor, Lennoxville.

In the tractor competitions, 10 inch furrows, match No. 5, Wayne Lavallee; match No. 6, ladies, Mrs. Ritchie Harrison, Sherbrooke; match No. 7, Herbert Wulget, Sherbrooke; match No. 8 Mac MacLeod, Sherbrooke.

Prizes in the tractor competitions for 12 inch furrows, match No. 9, went to Keith Rose, Sherbrooke; match No. 10, Donald Provis, Bromptonville.

Award for the best ridge on the field went to Herbert Winget while a team belonging to Miss E. B. Speyer, of Massawippi, won the prize for the neatest outfit in the men's horse drawn plough.

The prize for the heavy draught team also went to Miss Speyer while Norie Bonnallie took the prize for the light draught team.

Judges for the day were Mel Page and Lem Clark, both of Sherbrooke, in the tractor classes, and Victor Bessette of Waterville, in the horse drawn plows categories.

A complete list of the prize winners will be released at the annual banquet to be held at St. George's Hall Lennoxville, Wednesday evening.

Two Women Man Killed In District

Three Sherbrooke district residents — two women and a man — met death as the results of traffic accidents over the weekend. This marks a sharp reduction from last week when some 15 persons lost their lives as a result of accidents over the Thanksgiving Day holiday weekend.

The dead are Mrs. Victor Audet, 47, of 2204 King Street West, Sherbrooke; Rene Pouliot, 22, of St. Francis Street, Sherbrooke, and Mrs. Andre Guertin, 21, of Chertierville.

Mrs. Audet was fatally injured about 9.30 Saturday evening when struck by a jeep while walking with her husband along the sidewalk on King Street West.

According to Police, Gerard Mongeau, of 1134 Lincoln street, was turning into a gasoline station located at 1905 King West and failed to notice the couple on the sidewalk, striking Mrs. Audet. She was removed to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital but died shortly after admission.

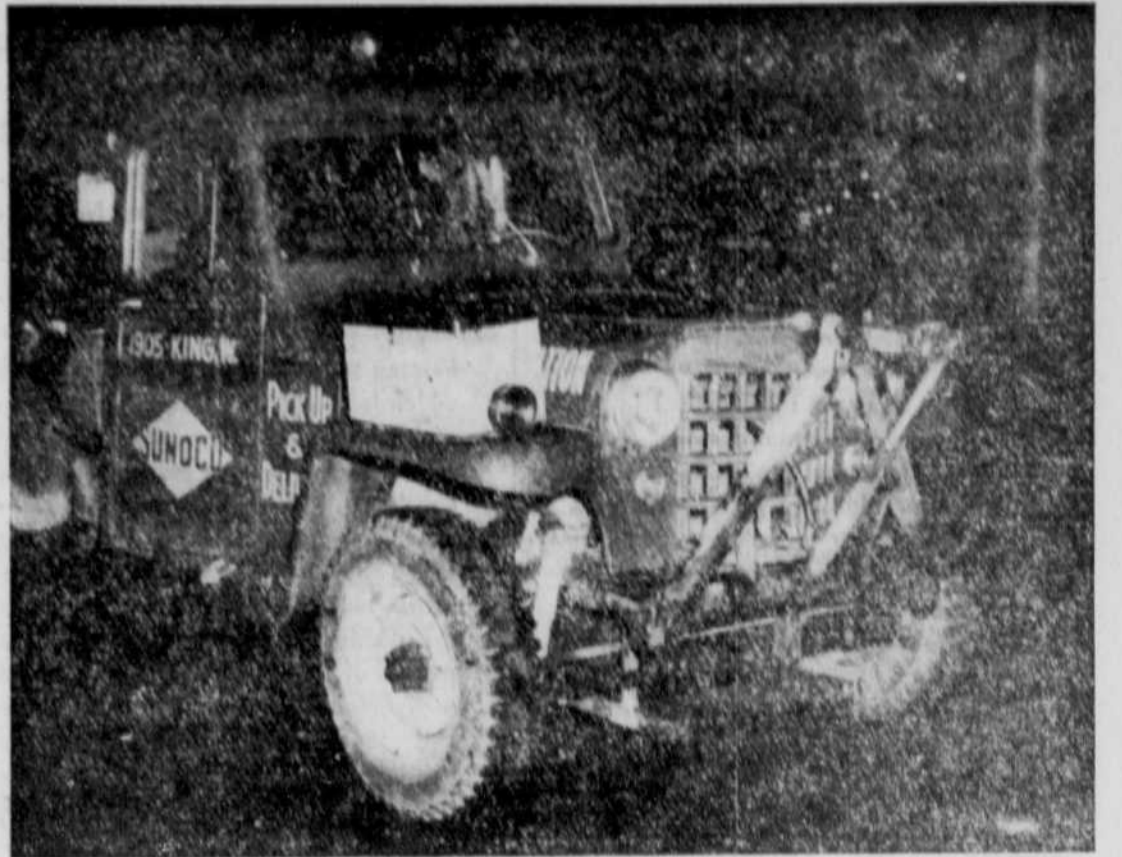

Mr. Audet was uninjured. An inquest is being held at four o'clock this afternoon.

Pouliot died en route to a local hospital from injuries received when the car he was driving skidded out of control just this side of St. Eli d'Orford at 5.45 Sunday morning and overturned in a ditch.

He was alone in the machine at the time.

Mrs. Guertin died shortly after arrival in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital yesterday as the result of injuries received in a traffic mishap on the Chertierville-Sherbrooke highway.

Her husband was treated for minor injuries and was later released.

Dr. H. S. Ellis

Noted Local Surgeon Dies

Dr. Harold S. Ellis, one of the leading surgeons and physicians in the Eastern Townships, died at his home on Queen Boulevard yesterday morning after a short illness. Dr. Ellis, who was in his 58th year, had not been in robust health for several years past, but became seriously ill only a few weeks ago. He was performing operations until the latter part of September.

Dr. Ellis came to Sherbrooke in 1938 and soon established a very large practise, which he had in recent years confined entirely to surgery. He was widely known throughout the Province and even beyond as a skilled surgeon and physician. He was admired and respected alike by his patients, his fellow doctors and the public in general.

Harold Spencer Ellis was born in Montague, P.E.I., on May 31, 1900, the son of Hugh Allison Ellis and Carrie Carruthers, his wife. When he was young the family moved to Saskatchewan and he received his school education in that Province. Dr. Ellis first studied pharmacy and took a Diploma in Pharmacy at the University of Saskatchewan in 1920.

He then decided to study medicine and, after taking a year in arts and science at the University of Saskatchewan, went to the University of Alberta, where he commenced his medical studies. He completed his course at McGill University, since Alberta in those days did not have a complete medical course, and took his degree in 1931.

After doing post-graduate work in Boston and at Tulane University in New Orleans, he set up practise in Magog. There he became widely known throughout the district and popular with everyone with whom he came into contact. Following a number of years of practise in Magog, he moved to Sherbrooke, where he had been for the past nineteen years.

Dr. Ellis was certified in surgery by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec. He was a member of the Canadian Medical Association, the Montreal Medical-Chirurgical Society, the International College of Surgeons and the St. Francis Valley Medical Association. In Sherbrooke he was a former chairman of the Medical Board of the Sherbrooke Hospital, of which he was also a Governor and Life Member of the Corporation. He was district medical officer for the Canadian National Railways. Dr. Ellis played an important part in the planning and equipping of the new Sherbrooke Hospital buildings a few years ago.

Clubs to which Dr. Ellis belonged were the University Club in Montreal, St. George's Club, Sherbrooke Curling Club, Sherbrooke Sket Club, Compton County Fish and Game Club, Stanstead Fish and Game Club, and the McGill Graduate's Society. He was also a member of the Masonic Order. A lover of the woods and outdoor life in general, his recreations were fishing, hunting, skeet-shooting and curling.

For a number of years he was the medical officer of the Sherbrooke Regiment (Reserve), holding the rank of captain.

In 1939 Dr. Ellis married Maude E. Coles, widow of Robert McCrea, who survives him along with one daughter, Catherine Anne Ellis. He is also survived

Proper Training Of Youth Vital To Future Growth

More concern should be given to solving problems on earth than trying to reach the moon, Dr. Margaret Nix, former director of Health and Welfare in Manitoba, told members of the Women's Canadian Club of the Eastern Townships at their meeting in the Sherbrooke Hotel Friday evening.

She explained that people either had to learn to live peacefully with one another or face self-destruction.

"Begin then," she said, "with the proper training of youth" and further remarked that when young people have vision the dreams of old people come true.

Dr. Nix noted that it is only in the last 25 years that people have tried to find out how to bring up children. She stressed the necessity of allowing a child to have his own dreams, his own thoughts and his own soul, for this was the secret of the adventure of youth.

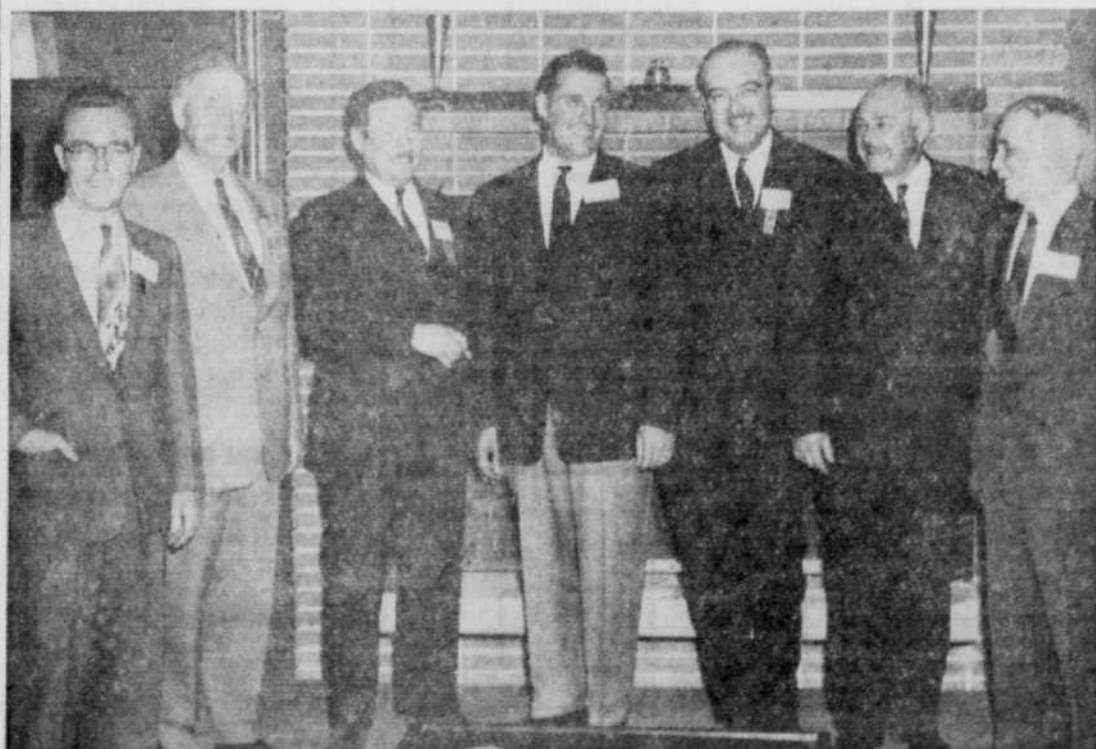

But of the many factors affecting the development of a new personality first consideration must be given to the child's I.Q., she said.

"Don't try to push him beyond his natural ability," she cautioned, adding that she thought Canada was not doing a very good job with the very brilliant or the very dull.

"The church, the community and the school all play a very important part in child-development," Dr. Dix Nix said, "but the most important influence of all is the family unit with family love."

"Family love," said she, "is all. Continued on Page 5

Assistance By Rotarians For Paraplegic

The Sherbrooke Rotary Club, which holds its annual fair next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, carries on many projects which receive little public notice. This is one of a series illustrating the way Rotary helps people in need in this area.

An 11-year-old Sherbrooke girl was a partial paraplegic as a result of a brain operation performed on her when she was 22 months old. This caused partial paralysis of the right arm, wrist and leg.

The Sherbrooke Rotary Club arranged and paid for another operation which helped her condition three years ago. Since then, she has been under Rotary sponsorship at the Ayer's Cliff Crippled Children's Camp, where she goes each year for therapy. Her condition is vastly improved.

This is just one case of how the Sherbrooke Rotary Club helps local crippled children. There are many others. The proceeds from the Sherbrooke Rotary Fair, which opens at the Belvidere Street Armoury Oct. 24, and continues Oct. 25 and 26, go towards furthering this good work.

Sherbrooke Greets Its Twin

The people of Sherbrooke have given a warm welcome to the visiting delegation with us this week as representatives of our "twin city" of Halifax.

The visit, which follows a similar visit of a privileged group from this city to Halifax last year, is significant for several reasons.

Canada is a vast country, but in this day of rapid communications, every Canadian can rightly consider his fellow citizens, whether next door, in a nearby town or on the coast lines washed by two great oceans, as his neighbors. There is no better way to get to know one's neighbors than by visiting back and forth. This the people of Halifax and the people of Sherbrooke are doing.

Canada is also a country built on a unique foundation of two cultures. Sherbrooke, in the heart of the province of Quebec, is an outstanding example of a bi-cultural community where people who speak different mother tongues and who have different — but not so different as some might think — cultural backgrounds, live and work and play together in harmony. By welcoming here visitors from another province, with its historical and colorful background of Scottish, Irish, English and French influences we are helping to cement that Canadian unity which is taken for granted by so many of us.

In addition, we can learn much from our "twin." Halifax is a city of comparable size to Sherbrooke but a city which has had great economic problems to overcome. Recent events in the Maritimes have shown that the people of that region, are determined to overcome the handicap of distance and forge ahead. Sherbrooke, the heart of the Eastern Townships and the third largest city in the province, welcomes the opportunity to exchange experiences with a community which has given real meaning to the oft-applied term "progressive."

Sherbrooke is happy to welcome its East Coast neighbors.

Who Threatens National Unity?

The session of Parliament which is just getting into stride in Ottawa promises to be a lively one, however frustrating for the official Opposition which has committed itself to keeping the government in office.

Apart from the outline of a solid legislative program by the Progressive Conservatives, the highlights of the first few days have been the hot exchanges between the government front-benchers and the Liberals in their newly-acquired role of Opposition. As expected, two of the surviving Liberal front-benchers, who are also among the ablest members of their party, former Fisheries Minister James Sinclair and former Health Minister Paul Martin have provided a fair share of fireworks. Lionel Chevrier, having returned to the political wars after guiding the St. Lawrence Seaway project through its early stages, has assumed his mantle as Quebec leader of the federal Liberal party with a violent, but weird attack on the Conservatives for allegedly endangering national unity.

The results of the June 10 election, left Liberals shattered in every province except Newfoundland — where Premier Smallwood retains control of both provincial and federal politics — and Quebec. If there is any danger to national unity it comes from the prospect of the federal Liberal party turning into a Quebec bloc, isolated from the rest of the country. With a new leader (probably from Ontario) to be chosen before the next election, this seems unlikely. The Conservatives will make gains in Quebec next time, as they did last time. If the Liberals want to remain a national party, they will have to get out and dig for votes in all 10 provinces as the Conservatives did last spring.

Mr. Chevrier will do his party and newly-acquired province a greater service by working to build a solid, national basis for revival of the Liberals rather than making politically-cheap appeals to such isolationist elements as may still survive in Quebec.

He Didn't Realize

A Solomon-like judge has cured a man in Leeds, England, of keeping a bird with a nine-inch wing span in a cage only eight inches square. The bird-owner, says a Reuters despatch, was ordered confined in a cramped cell beneath the court. He emerged an hour later to vow that he would never again keep a bird in a cage.

It took only one hour's lesson to make one man realize what he had never realized before but the bird may have been in his cramped quarters for years.

A Solomon-like judge, indeed! It is too bad that more cases of this kind cannot be brought before a bench with such an occupant.

Birds are far from being the only sufferers. What would such a judge say if he had before him the case of a dog kept chained in a barn all the year around, never allowed at liberty but kept always for the sake of his bark — as a watch-dog? Would he order the owner to be chained and how long would it be before the lesson went home?

There are other dogs kept chained in barns save on rare occasions and allowed out only during the hunting season.

There are horses tethered on short ropes in the sun going without water or exercise for long periods. Would that their owners who, in other ways, may be considerate men, could be made to realize the discomfort and the suffering that they impose.

This And That

Chairman Brooke Claxton of the Canadian Council is seeking "imaginative proposals" on how to spend the $50,000,000 available to help the arts. Some of the proposals the council has already received must qualify as being imaginative in the extreme.

according to former Royal commissioner Walter Gordon. This will be bad news for those outside Toronto who derive pleasure from running down Ontario's Queen City for its alleged prudishness.

Former McCarthy snoper G. David Schine is to be married soon. He will find that he will be the one who has to watch his step from now on.

THE SPEECH FROM THE THRONE
(Ottawa Journal)
Speakers from the Throne, no matter by whom delivered, are the handiwork of cabinet, and so it is that the Speech with which Her Majesty the Queen opened our 23rd Parliament was in pattern and purpose little different from such documents as we have come to know them down the years. Here, admittedly, were some passages of more than ordinary distinguished prose, but with them the time-honored resounding clichés, the same high supplications and hopes, the traditional intimations that under wise guidance of existing rulers we may hope for the best.

The existing rulers being new, this Speech will of course be scanned for signs of coming fulfillment (or non-fulfillment) of pledges made by such rulers — Mr. Diefenbaker and his ministers — during the past election.
In fairness it must be said that the signs of fulfillment are there, and not vaguely nor in mere outline.
Mr. Diefenbaker said that if given power he would increase old age pensions; the Speech promises required legislation.

Mr. Diefenbaker said he would fashion a fairer deal for agriculture; the Speech says this is on the way.
Mr. Diefenbaker said he would provide Prairie grain farmers with funds to meet their immediate needs; in Speech says that Parliament will be asked to "authorize... cash advances for grain stored on farms."
Mr. Diefenbaker promised efforts towards some better system of tax-sharing with the

The People Can Jeer

Revolt Has Changed Hungary

Editor's Note — It has been almost a year since revolt flared in Hungary. It was crushed brutally, but is it dead today? No one is better fitted to assess the changed atmosphere of his country than Endre Marton, who was AP correspondent in Budapest, who spent months as a Red prisoner, was released and brought to the world his graphic accounts of the revolution.

By ENDRE MARTON
NEW YORK (AP) — The revolt in Hungary is undeniably grim.

Today, Hungary is again the model of the police state.

But where, before the revolution, the people were cowed by their Communist boss, today they can jeer.

This is perhaps the truly significant outcome of those flaming October days a year ago when Hungarian boys and girls, armed with explosive bottles of gasoline, took Soviet tanks in the streets of Budapest.

Events in Hungary last October represent a milestone in the history of international communism. The revolt was a cataclysm provinces; the Speech tells of a meeting with the provinces "next month" to discuss ways to this end.

So with other promises; Mr. Diefenbaker's pledges of a national development policy, of more extensive plans for the Atlantic provinces, of fresh discussions over the long-delayed Saskatchewan dam — all are recalled specifically and brought within range.

Now of course there is a difference between what a government puts into a Speech from the Throne and what it puts (or fails to put) later on into specific acts and bills — into legislation. What can be said for the moment, however, is that judging from this Throne Speech, Mr. Diefenbaker's government does seem resolved to adhere to its promises, and that in this determination it is showing vigor.

Under a representative system, not much more can be asked of any government.

that shook the ideological foundations of the Kremlin, for it was the first time in communism's history that a whole nation rose to escape its totalitarian grasp.

It was the first time that the armies of Soviet Russia were faced with the task of fighting Communist-trained workers and students.

Red Chinese leaders openly admit that the Hungarian revolt fomented unrest in their country. Britain's Communist party virtually disintegrated and the Hungarian-sparked ferment is still causing headaches in the Communist parties of France and Italy.

What does the future, even the present, hold for Hungary?

Internment camps are again filled with revolutionaries. Prisoners are deported to remote places. The secret police are again the No. 1 power in the country.

Is Hungary back where she was during the darkest times of tyranny between 1948 and 1953? No, by no means.

The difference is not so much in the brutality of the Red regime. It is in the way that the Hungarian people are reacting to it.

Before the revolt, Communist party secretary Matyas Rakosi and his lieutenants were not only hated but, more important, they were feared. The present premier, Janos Kadar, and the handful of men around him are detested as traitors and ridiculed for their incompetence.

There are two reasons behind the change:
First, the revolution itself, Hungarians found out they were united in hate of their rulers. They found out too that the Reds were not superhuman, that teen-ager children could oppose Russian tanks with makeshift weapons, and that in this determination it is showing vigor.

Secondly, as before other revolutions, the Hungarian Communists had gradually liquidated their most able men in purges between 1949 and 1956. The consequence was that the regime today is the poorest any satellite country has had since the war. Observers almost unanimously agree that the Hungarian revolution has not ended.

Hungarians, however, will not repeat the grave mistake of October 1956. They have learned the lesson that no small nation, however determined or united, can shake off its bondage alone.

They also learned the bitter reality that they cannot expect help from the West — except for consoling words.

Does this exclude the possibility of another revolt?

No. Kadar knows that the minute he relaxes control, Hungarians will try again.

WHY BRITISH DRIVE ON LEFT-HAND SIDE

(From the Manchester Guardian)

There is an interesting explanation why we drive on the left hand side of the road in Britain.

Apparently this dates back to the time when highwaymen lurked on the roads and travelers were often forced to fight for their money or their lives.

As swords were drawn on the left hand side, it was a logical expedient to keep one's horse on that side of the track.

Then if attacked, the rider was immediately in the best fighting position, sword at the ready in his right hand and, without undue manipulation of his horse, his unguarded flank was automatically protected.

Whether highwaymen became wise to this maneuver and began ambushing from gateways or hedges on the left is not recorded but if they did, it was certainly not frequently enough to change the habits of the phlegmatic English traveler.

Thus, like the British constitution, the custom just grew and grew until today Britain still remains one of the very few nations continuing the system. Indeed, outside the Commonwealth, the only other countries that adopt the same practice are Sweden, Hungary and Japan.

SAME HAND HAS TWO ANSWERS
A Billings, Mont., reader wants to know if I can give him the luckiest and unluckiest hands I have ever seen. The answer is that both occurred on the same hand in a team match some 22 years ago.
South opened the bidding with two clubs at each table. At table one the final contract was a reasonable three no-trump. A spade was opened and declarer saw that the best chance for his contract was a club finesse. He led the ten of clubs from the North hand and finesse. West won with the queen and four spade tricks put the hand down one.
At table two there was considerable confusion in the bidding and when the smoke had cleared away South found himself in six no-trump. The spade was opened against him and he took the ace right away.
A quick study showed him that he needed a lot of luck to make the hand. In particular he could not afford the club finesse since he needed to finesse the hearts.

A heart was led and the jack finessed successfully. The ace king of clubs were played next and when West's queen dropped six was in the bag.
However, the gods of luck were not satisfied. Queen laid down the ace, king and queen of diamonds and that suit broke evenly. Now dummy was entered with the ten of clubs and the losing spade ditched on the last diamond. A second heart finesse was taken and the last two clubs gave South a grand slam.

TORIES? WHY NOT?
(Newfoundland News)
—The British Conservatives call themselves Tories. Winston Churchill uses the word proudly. And so far as we are concerned, what is good enough for him in this respect should be good enough for Canadian Conservatives.
One thing is certain. The Liberals have been defeated under that over-exalted label and the Conservatives have won a resounding victory in spite of being called Tories. The name is one that we can safely avow and accept so long as they conduct themselves well enough to deserve public confidence.

Mention the name Abigail Smith to anyone today and chances are they've never heard of her. Yet she was the first mistress of the White House and had the unique distinction of having been the wife of one president of the United States and the mother of another. In 1764, Miss Smith, the daughter of a New England clergyman, married John Adams. In 1787, she gave birth to John Quincy Adams and in 1800 she moved into the still incomplete White House for a short time at the end of her husband's term as president. She died in 1818, six years before her son was elected to the presidency.

Arrest Pair For Burglarizing Of Sports Club

Two men are scheduled to appear in court today in connection with the robbing of the Sports Club on Fraser street Saturday night.

They were picked up by municipal police after an investigation into the theft of 12 cases of beer, a .22-calibre rifle and a 12-gauge shotgun.

Police also are investigating a robbery at the Sherbrooke Country Club over the week-end when some $300 in cash was stolen from a cupboard in the bar. Nothing else was taken.

According to police, the thieves made their entry by forcing a basement door leading to the pro shop.

Glove Firms Sign Contract

MONTREAL — The Canadian Glove Manufacturing Association and the National Federation of Clothing Workers (CCCL), representing 1,000 employees in 18 Quebec glove factories, have reached agreement for a new labor contract providing wage increases amounting to 10 per cent.

To be signed Friday, the new contract calls for a five-per-cent increase retroactive to last March and an additional five-per-cent effective next March. The contract expires Feb. 28, 1959.

For piece workers, there also is a five-per-cent increase, with committees in the individual shops to work out new rates and disputes to be referred to a chairman for ruling.

The factories are in Montreal, St. Tite, Loretteville, Trois-Rivieres and St. Raymond.

Blast Wrecks Negro Move

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — For the third time dynamite has wrecked plans of Negro families to move into a formerly all-white neighborhood.

Police are seeking dynamiters who caused heavy damage Saturday to a frame bungalow into which Mrs. Cleo Prince was planning to move. Two other houses which Negroes had bought in the Fountain Heights section were bombed last April.

Decision On Teamsters Due Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal court judge decides today whether to put court-named receivers in charge of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. Lawyers also will argue before federal district Judge F. Dickinson Letts whether James R. Hoffa should be barred for a longer time from taking over the union's helm.

Letts, acting on the complaint of a 13-man group of New York Teamsters members, already has Hoffa under a temporary restraining order against his assuming the presidency of the largest labor union in the United States.

The plaintiff rank- and file group has charged that Hoffa, accused of corruption in Senate rackets investigating committee hearings, rigged his own election at the recent teamsters convention in Miami Beach, Fla.

Judge Letts must decide whether to convert his restraining order, which bars Hoffa from becoming union president, into a preliminary injunction, with the same effect, and whether receivers should be named to supervise the union pending new elections. In an answer to the contentions of the plaintiffs in the case, the union has challenged the right of the court to intervene in the political affairs of a private organization.

important and most necessary to every child and every child must feel an underneathness such as is referred to in Deuteronomy. And underneath are the everlasting arms." With enough of this kind of supporting love—not cajoling or spoiling or pampering—in the home the child would acquire a confidence which would prevent him from being rejected in the outside world.

Concluding, Dr. Nix emphasized the necessity of each individual having a goal and of each being assisted by every possible means, praise, extrinsic rewards, and rewards tempered with fear of punishment to reach that goal. She further suggested that one common goal for youth and adult alike would be to take "I" out of our lives and put "Others" in.

Dr. Nix was introduced by Mrs. G. B. Loomis and thanked by Mrs. F. K. Beatty.

Royal Lark Ends In Tragedy

LONDON (Reuters) — That hilarious rotten apples - and-four-bag sendoff the Duke of Kent and his friends gave fellow army officers has ended in tragedy, a British newspaper reports.

The Daily Mail says a young mother was blinded in one eye by a firecracker thrown from a train near Catterick, northern England, last Thursday.

Aboard were friends of the 22-year-old duke, who were leaving for Army duty in West Germany. Mrs. Edna Mackie, 27-year-old civilian employee of Catterick army camp, was waving to a passenger at Catterick Bridge Station when someone threw a firecracker out of a railroad coach, her husband, George Mackie told The Mail.

"An army eye specialist has performed an operation but as far as we can tell she has lost the sight of one eye completely . . . the other eye does not seem to be affected," he is quoted as saying.

MAY SUE

Mackie, also a civilian employee at the camp, said he has been to see his lawyer.

The Mail says: "As the train left, the 22-year-old Duke of Kent, a lieutenant with the Royal Scots Greys, jumped into his Aston - Martin sports car and went to a level crossing a mile away to pelt the train as it passed.

"Mrs. Mackie also drove to the crossing in her small sedan. "Then, like the duke, she drove another mile to Catterick Bridge Station along the Great North Road.

"The duke threw apples at the train. Mrs. Mackie was standing a few yards away on the platform."

Celanese Union Votes To Strike

DRUMMONDVILLE, Que. — Canadian Celanese Limited employees Saturday voted in favor of strike action to back up demands for recognition of the Textile Workers Union of America (C.L.C.) as their bargaining agent.

The Quebec labor relations board has rejected an application by the union for certification because a contract exists between the company and the independent Canadian Celanese Employees' Association. The contract, expiring June, 1959, has been challenged by the union on grounds it was signed irregularly. About 1,000 workers are involved.

Sport Fans Viewing T. V. Peril Carpet

Television, the keynote of this frantic era, indirectly poses one of the greatest threats to rugs and carpets.

The damage is especially great on fall and winter weekends when millions of indoor sportsmen cluster in front of their own or their friends' set to cheer for their favorite football or basketball teams.

It isn't the viewing so much as the refreshment that goes with it. The drinks and sandwiches that fall on the rug in the excitement of a sustained scoring drive are often unnoticed until it is too late.

Some simple home remedies which will save next-day worries are offered by the National Institute of Rug Cleaning. First, they say, place throw rugs at all chairs and in spots where standees congregate. That saves your carpets the wear and tear which comes from heavy feet grinding into the same spot hour after hour.

Spills must be handled immediately, even if the ball is in mid-air at the time and the home team is trailing.

For some of the usual spills such as alcohol, coffee, tea and soft drinks, NIRC technicians suggest the following remedy:

Sponge the area with lukewarm water, using clean un-starched cloth or cleaning tissues. Repeat several times. Then mix a teaspoonful of soapless detergent with one-half pint lukewarm water. The detergents advertised for safe washing of fine fabrics will do.

Apply the solution to the stain with an eye dropper and sponge with cloth or tissues. Blot up excess moisture. Then sponge the area with a cloth dampened with clean, lukewarm water. Blot up moisture again and apply un-starched toweling or cleansing tissues with a weight holding them in position. Allow to remain until completely dry.

For butter or other fatty substances apply a safe dry cleaning fluid with an eye dropper and sponge with a clean white cloth. (Carbon tetrachloride is dangerous.)

If the spill seems too large to handle, a professional rug cleaner should be called as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. James Twyman, Montreal St., will be "at home" to their relatives and friends, on Sunday October 27, from three to five o'clock, in the afternoon and from seven to nine in the evening, on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Friends of Mrs. Annie Thwaites, of North Hatley, will be pleased to know that she is convalescing, following surgery at the Sherbrooke Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Campbell, of Metis, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dunsmore, Portland Ave., have left to visit their son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, of Magog.

Miss F. W. Hills, of Waterloo, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davey, Walton Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grandy, who spent two weeks, holidaying at Cape Cod, Mass., and also visited Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Young and family, at Dorval, have returned to their home, on Court St.

Mr. Henry Chrochietre, who attended the annual Alumni reunion at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N. S., has returned to his home on Newton St.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Olivier, Bryan St., were recent guests of Mrs. Olivier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. St. Jacques, of St. Laurent and of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thibault, of Valois.

Miss Kathleen Kenalty, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kenalty, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allie, and family, of Montreal; Mr. Brendan Kenalty, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ciacchio, of Rochester, N. Y., were in town for a few days, called by the death of Mrs. Weldon Kenalty, of Montreal, whose funeral took place in St. Patrick's Church, this morning.

In honor of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Beattie, Fulton Ave., their children, Mr. J. Keith Beattie, Mrs. Harry Fowles and Mrs. Paul Cordeau, and their families, entertained on Wednesday, October 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fowles, Fulton Ave. The rooms arrayed in colorful autumn flowers were most inviting, predominating was a huge bouquet of chrysanthemums and other flowers, in shades of bronze and gold, the gift of neighbors and friends.

The guests, numbering upwards of forty relatives, welcomed the occasion to personally offer congratulations and best wishes to the jubilarians, and enjoy the very pleasant gathering.

In the dining-room, the three-tier wedding cake, surrounded by gold tinted roses in bud vases, interspersed by white candles in silver holders formed the attractive centerpiece on the table, which was presided over by Mrs. V. R. Beattie, of Richmond, and Mrs. Albert Raycraft, of Lennoxville.

The toast to the bride and groom of fifty years ago, was proposed by Mr. J. G. Armitage, and responded to in a very fitting manner and humorous vein, by the groom.

Mrs. J. G. Armitage assisted the hosts in serving.

The following afternoon, friends and neighbors of Mrs. Beattie, were entertained at tea, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fowles, when Mrs. William Duncan, Sr., presided at the table.

Overseas Projects Announced By Municipal I.O.D.E.

At the recent meeting of the Municipal Chapter of Sherbrooke I. O. D. E., a bulletin was read from Provincial Chapter advising that a six-bed pediatric ward had been set up in the Canadian Mission Hospital at Indore, India, under the auspices of the I. O. D. E., which would care for sick children and endeavor to educate their mothers in hygiene.

It was also announced that $1,500 each had been awarded to two students in India to study at medical colleges there, as it was felt that a well-trained medical doctor would have a wide influence for good in India.

It was further announced that a young man from the West Indies had been chosen to take postgraduate work in a Canadian University, also under the auspices of the I. O. D. E.

In addition to the overseas work done by the Chapter, much local welfare work is carried on in Canada and in the city, details of this being given at the meeting by Mrs. R. M. Loughheed. Mrs. Loughheed requested donations of clothing and bedding for a needy family, and was pleased at the response obtained at the meeting.

Educational secretary, Mrs. R. D. Wells, read letters of thanks from recipients of the chapter's three bursaries. The subject of printed application forms for the bursaries was brought up, and referred to the Primary Chapters.

Donations from the Primary Chapters were asked towards a wreath to be placed on the Cenotaph on Remembrance Day. This will be placed, as usual, by Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, but the members of the Order are also asked to be present.

A committee was formed for the purpose of revising the letters to be sent to various local organizations requesting their cooperation in the matter of sending Christmas baskets to the needy, to avoid duplications, and also letters to various individuals requesting donations to the Christmas baskets fund.

Mrs. George Smith, secretary, commented briefly on her recent attendance at the Provincial semi-annual meeting at Shawinigan Falls, and requested a larger representation from Sherbrooke at future meetings.

Chapter announcements were as follows:

53rd Regiment Chapter, Social Evening at I. O. D. E. House, Thursday, Oct. 24, King George V Chapter, Tea and Sales at I. O. D. E. House, Wednesday, Oct.

ADMIRAL SIR DUDLEY POUND CHAPTER I. O. D. E.

The regular monthly meeting of the Admiral Sir Dudley Pound Chapter, I. O. D. E., was held recently at headquarters on Moore St., with the regent, Mrs. Norman Stafford, presiding.

Services at home and abroad convener, Mrs. Richard Crotty, reported that delivery of one quart of milk daily had been started for a needy family.

Mrs. Nancy Campbell, Mrs. Mary Lou Ross and Miss Donna McPherson were sworn in as new members and the names of Mrs. Gwen Forget, Mrs. Marcel Moreau and Mrs. Neil McKenzie were submitted and approved. These three ladies will be sworn in at the November meeting.

A report was given on the annual harvest hop held at the Sherbrooke Country Club. This event proved to be most successful and letters of thanks are to be forwarded to those who assisted the members in any way.

The regent then read a letter from the School for Retarded Children regarding a benefit bridge. Mention was also made that volunteers are needed to help at the school, any member

TRINITY W. M. S.

The autumn thank offering meeting of the Trinity W. M. S. was held in the church parlors on Thursday, October 17.

In the absence of Mrs. E. E. Gilson, the president, Mrs. George Hall, 1st vice president, was in the chair and led in the devotionals, the theme being "Thanksgiving."

Reports of a successful food sale and a candy sale held by the members of the C. G. I. T. were given.

The ladies then assembled in Wesley Hall, where Mrs. M. Fuller introduced Miss Clara Aitkenhead, who gave an interesting talk and showed films of her recent trip to Rome, where she attended the International Council of Nurses.

During the afternoon, solos were rendered by Mrs. W. W. Gibson and Mrs. J. Gilbert, accompanied by Miss R. Stevenson.

Afternoon tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. M. Fuller and Mrs. E. Beerworth, with Mrs. E. A. Tomkins presiding at the table.

Tricks Help Dual Purpose Room

A room that's attractively dual-purpose is almost a necessity in small quarters. Yet sometimes the little chunk of floor space available seems scarcely large enough to serve even one purpose.

If you want to include guest-room facilities in living room or den, for example, the first problem is what kind of sleeping equipment to have and where to put it. Standard-sized sofa-bed combinations may be too big to squeeze into the space. Studio couch arrangements gobble up precious wall space which might be needed for storage chests.

DESIGNED to meet this dilemma are small-scale combinations. These measure about 40 inches overall and can seat a slim, compatible couple when closed. Under the trimly upholstered exterior is a standard 33-inch mattress which unfolds to make a comfortable bed for one.

Because of its size, one of these seats can be used in a free-standing arrangement much like an ordinary chair or loveseat. Many young homemakers put it to another use by covering the opened-out mattress with a decorative spread, to provide extra seating space when they entertain.

Styling of such combinations is basic and simple. Depending on choice of upholstery, it will blend with either contemporary or provincial surroundings.

Furnishings for any small room which will be used more or less around the clock must be

Beauty Tips

Many women may need exercise more than rigid dieting. Exercise firms the muscles and improves the posture. Often what a woman excuses as fat is flabbiness from weak muscles.

Even active persons find muscles they never knew they had by trying a few exercises. However, once you decide to exercise, work into it gradually. This prevents tiring and possible straining of unused muscles.

ST. ANDREW'S LADIES AID

The regular meeting of St. Andrew's Ladies Aid was held recently at the home of Mrs. George Stevenson, Portland Ave., with the president, Mrs. G. A. Turner in the chair.

Plans for the rummage sale to be held in the church hall on November 7 and the Christmas sale and tea on November 14 were completed.

Several visitors were welcomed by the president at the close of the meeting when refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Lorna Campbell, of Metis.

SMALL-ROOM SOFA hides a twin-bed size mattress which can be used as guest bed or, as shown here, covered with decorative spread to provide extra seating. Storage chests are painted pale gray to match walls; precise provincial pattern of curtains is repeated in matching wallpaper covering jog in wall. Floor is linoleum in stone pattern; rug, multi-colored fiber.

shelf units are not expensive. And they lend themselves to flexible arrangements and changes in color schemes. Basic designs in these units don't change much, so additions fit into the lineup without looking out of key.

A much-used small room lends itself to informal treatment, soft, light-toned color schemes and small, precise patterns.

One room I saw treated this way added to the illusion of more space and openness with a grayed, random-stone, patterned linoleum on the floor. A multi-colored fiber rug covering part of the floor picked up the soft blue-green shades of the upholstery and curtain fabric.

Fur Popular In Winter Fashions

By MURIEL PEAN

LONDON (Reuters)—Fur is to be seen everywhere this winter.

It appears on collars and cuffs of top coats and suits; to outline the neck of evening gowns; as ties to fill in fashionable stand-away necklines; and on hats and muff.

S. London, an associate member of the Incorporated Society of London Fashion Designers, uses it on the inside of three coats as "button-in" fur lining.

One in a pale beige proofed poplin is lined with opossum. A dark brown silk coat is lined with natural ranch mink fashioned to form also the collar and cuffs of the coat when the fur lining is in use. When not required, all the wearer has to do is to unbutton it and remove it, leaving a coat with standaway neckline and three-quarter sleeves. A similar model in deep wine red silk is lined with seal cony.

VARIED STYLES

Style is the keynote of London's winter collection. Coats and jackets are either straight and narrow or straight and very wide at the top. Some models, like a coat in African Persian lamb fastened with large satin buttons and satin-bound buttonholes, have a tendency to taper towards the hem.

MAKE-BELIEVE MINK

London is particularly proud of the reappearance in this collection of Alaskan sealskin which now can be imported into England for the first time since the war, and of new cafe au lait and white shades of beaver.

For the debutante who wants a jacket which she can use both in the city or on the ski slopes, there is a simple model in bright red moleskin fastened with large, matching bone buttons.

Mink remains undoubtedly the most popular fur of the season—for those who can afford it. But more and more other furs are being dyed and treated to resemble it.

ORNATE CEILINGS

French and Italian ceilings in the 16th century were often moulded in plaster, gilded and painted.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

If you are invited to a party running from six until eight o'clock don't wait until a few minutes before eight to arrive. The hostess wouldn't have set eight as the end of the party if that was when she wanted it to begin.

Homemaking

Being organized is the secret for a less tiring day of housework. The laundry center should be just that with all necessities at hand. Adequate storage will allow for gathering all laundry supplies for immediate use.

Usually a cool iron will put the finishing touch to miracle fabric blouses. That is, if they are hung correctly to dry and not wrung, so wrinkles are creased into them.

Blouses hung to drip-dry need careful handling. A folded washcloth "pad" will assure a smooth shoulder line if placed inside each shoulder of the blouse. Finger press seams, pleats and cuffs and smooth ruffling into place while blouse is still wet.

Fashion

Ideal for a dress winter evening is the satin shirtwaist dress in two colors: top in pale blue and wide skirt in soft green.

For evening or late-day wear, try placing a brilliant pin at the back of a satin dress near the waistline. It's an attention getter.

Important winter color for costume jewelry is sapphire blue. It looks lovely with many colors: black, green, navy, pale or royal blue, off-white.

Combined Church Boards Meet At Coaticook

COATICOOK — A meeting of the combined Boards of the Coaticook Compton Baldwin's Mills United Churches held at Sisco Memorial Church was presided over by Rev. Frank Cant. The purpose of the meeting was to elect a committee of pastoral relations, necessitated by the impending departure of Mr. Cant. The congregations of Compton and Baldwin's Mills having already named their representatives, Mr. Cairns and Mr. Harold Baldwin, it remained for the Coaticook church to name its three members. Mrs. Marsh Walker, Mr. George Engelhardt and Mr. Stanley Cromwell were elected, the last named being made convener of the committee.

Following the Board meeting the committee met to discuss plans for securing a new minister. A further meeting, with Rev. T. W. Tyson, of Rock Island, convener of the Pastoral Relations committee of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery, was to be arranged for an early date.

General Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turnbull have returned from their wedding trip to the New England States and New York City and have taken up residence in their home of May Street.

The Sunday School of Sisco Memorial United Church did not meet as usual on Sunday morning, due to the number of cases of illness among the pupils.

Workmen of the town have been busy for several days removing part of the sidewalk on Main Street east of the bridge and replacing this with a new sidewalk of concrete. The former blocks were badly laid and dangerous for walking.

The cooking school held in the hall of St. Jean Evangeliste Church proved to be a great success. More than 250 women attended the first evening and 350 the second evening. Mrs. Roland Frechette introduced Mrs. A. Massicotte, who was the culinary art specialist. An electric stove, refrigerator and other electrical appliances were loaned and baskets of groceries were drawn as attendance prizes.

Mr. A. E. Kellaway, of St. Catherine's, Ont., spent the weekend with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Waldron and family. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kellaway, of Newport, Vt., were recent tea guests at the same home.

His "KNOW HOW" Works Wonders in the Wilderness

Behind such power developments as this at Rapide Beaumont on the St. Maurice River lies a marvellous wealth of skills and technical "know how". A major contributor to this vast pool of human abilities dedicated to bringing you adequate, dependable and economical electricity is the Shawinigan engineer.

The highly trained electrical, mechanical and civil engineers on Shawinigan's staff face formidable tasks in harnessing the giant that is water power. Each one plays a vital role: to seek out suitable sites for power development . . . to design and build dams and powerhouses . . . to solve problems of supply and communications in rugged, virgin territory, to set up transmission systems and sub-stations, to distribute one of nature's strongest forces to business, industry and to the home.

Our engineers, with the other Shawinigan employees, contribute their skill and energy to provide the people of Quebec with an electric service second to none — at lowest possible rates.

Fred Haney Is Given Contract At Big Increase

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Fred Haney, manager of the world champion Milwaukee Braves, Saturday signed a new one-year contract that will pay him an estimated $40,000.

Haney said the 1958 salary is the highest he's received in 34 years in baseball.

General Manager John Quinn said:

"Fred has done a tremendous job. He's a great hustler and a fellow with a lot of determination, and he instilled the ball club with those qualities."

The 59-year-old Los Angeles resident is given the inside track on being manager of the year.

Haney guided the Braves to world series victory in his first full year as their manager. He replaced Charlie Grimm as field boss in June of 1956.

The one-year contract is in keeping with a club policy. His salary for 1957 was estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000.

Sunday's Double Pays $120.70 For Top Figure; Saturday's Program Postponed; $97.10 Top Place Bet

A heavy track, which caused the bettors plenty of trouble yesterday afternoon, was the main reason for the big payoffs on the Sunday card. Saturday afternoon's program was postponed until Wednesday evening owing to the inclement weather.

The top payoff of the afternoon was the double and the lucky pickers were rewarded with the sum of $120.70 for the combination of Jones' Jean Grat-tan Alden and Gendron's Miss Gisele Bing. In the first race Gendron's Ebbie's Boy, who finished second, set the high for a place investment when $97.10 was shelled out by the pari-mutuels. Benoit's Jimmy Brooke B paid the top show bet in the sixth when $15.00 was doled out.

The first quinella in the third of Hueckins' Beau Wyn and Cameron's Mo Lass was the top one on the card. $39.70 was collected for the winning combination. In the sixth event Cormier's Queen Spender and Fabi's Cyril's Flicka rewarded their backers with $25.50 while in the ninth Barbara Vola 2nd and Alma Princess teamed up to pay the sum of $7.00.

Cormier's Queen Spender also paid the top bet of the afternoon for a win ticket when the chest-

Soccer Fans Arrested At Cup Final

GLASGOW, Scotland—(Reuters)—Police arrested 17 soccer fans Saturday when fighting broke out at a Celtic-Rangers Scottish League cup final here.

The fighting flared among spectators at one end of the Hampden Park ground after Glasgow Rangers were beaten 7-1.

BRIGHT REBELS—Mississippi has three remarkable sophomore backs in, top to bottom, Cowboy Woodruff, George Blair and Bobby Franklin.

POLL POSITION

And at Glasgow, a crowd of more than 82,000 saw another one-sided game as Celtic crushed the Rangers 7-1 to retain the Scottish League Cup. It was only the second time in cup play dating to 1945-46 that a team has won the trophy consecutive years.

At Chelsea, the Wolves went farther ahead in the national championship race as all their rivals faltered, with teams weakened by Asian flu. Some star players were away from their teams to take part in the English-Welsh game.

West Bromwich Albion, without four of its stars, scrambled to a 1-1 draw at Leeds; Everton tied 1-1 with Burnley; Manchester United, with three players in the international match, lost to Portsmouth 3-0; and Nottingham Forest went under 3-1 at Leicester.

West Bromwich now is second with 19 points, Everton has 18 and Manchester United and Nottingham Forest both have 17.

Arsenal was defeated by Birmingham 3-1 in a hard, robust match.

Bears Seem To Be Surprise Club In AHL

Hershey Bears appear to be the surprise team of the young American Hockey League season. The Bears, who finished fourth in 1956-57, took over first place, turning back Providence Reds 5-1 Sunday night to break a tie for the lead with Providence.

In other games Sunday night, Rochester Americans took over third place with a 3-1 victory over Cleveland Barons, who dropped into the cellar, and Springfield Indians moved out of last place with a 2-1 triumph over Buffalo Bisons.

Hershey snapped a 1-1 tied in the second period on Bob Solinger's goal and solidified the verdict when Les Duff scored. Third-period goals by Lorne Davis and Obie O'Brien put the game out of Providence's reach.

Rochester jumped to a 2-0 first-period lead over Cleveland and made it stand up. Gary Aldcorn produced the insurance goal for the Americans late in the third period.

Buddy Boone's goal with less than three minutes remaining gave Springfield its victory over fourth-place Buffalo. Ken Whar-ran had tied the game for the Bisons midway in the final period.

Giants Crush Pittsburgh Steelers To Tie Cleveland For First Place; Browns Upset By Philadelphia 17-7

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Giants crushed Pittsburgh Steelers 35-0 Sunday to move into a tie with Cleveland Browns for first place in the eastern conference of the National Football League.

The previously unbeaten Browns were upset 17-7 by Philadelphia Eagles, winning their first game in four starts.

In the western conference, the race for first place turned into a three-way battle as Detroit Lions, trailing 21-3 at half-time, piled up 28 points in the second half to hand Buffalo Colts their first defeat of the season, 31-7.

San Francisco 49ers stayed in a tie with Detroit and Buffalo, defeating Green Bay Packers 24-14 on the passing of veteran quarterback Y. A. Tittle.

Chicago Cardinals defeated Washington Redskins 44-14 in the other eastern conference game. Chicago Bears, with rookie halfback Willie Galtore scoring four touchdowns, won their first game of the season, defeating Los Angeles Rams 34-26 in the third western conference game.

The Giants, showing last season's championship form offensively and defensively, scored four of their five touchdowns on passes. The fifth came on a pass interception. It was their third consecutive win after dropping the season's opener to Cleveland.

Eagles' rookie quarterback Sunny Jurgensen passed for one touchdown and scored another to lead the way to their upset win.

At Detroit, Howard Hopalong Cassidy scored two touchdowns, including the game-winning one on a pass from veteran Bobby Layne with 45 seconds remaining in the game.

Buffalo quarterback John Unitas fired four touchdown passes before Detroit caught fire.

Wolverhampton Wanderers Edge Out 2-1 Win Over Chelsea To Extend Lead; England Blanks Welsh 4-0

LONDON (AP)—Wolverhampton Wanderers, mid-week conquerors of Spain's European champions, squeezed out a 2-1 victory over Chelsea Saturday and pulled into a three-point lead in the English Soccer League first division.

Meanwhile, England crushed a badly-outclassed Welsh team 4-0 in an international game before 60,000 fans at Cardiff.

And at Glasgow, a crowd of more than 82,000 saw another one-sided game as Celtic crushed the Rangers 7-1 to retain the Scottish League Cup. It was only the second time in cup play dating to 1945-46 that a team has won the trophy consecutive years.

At Chelsea, the Wolves went farther ahead in the national championship race as all their rivals faltered, with teams weakened by Asian flu. Some star players were away from their teams to take part in the English-Welsh game.

West Bromwich Albion, without four of its stars, scrambled to a 1-1 draw at Leeds; Everton tied 1-1 with Burnley; Manchester United, with three players in the international match, lost to Portsmouth 3-0; and Nottingham Forest went under 3-1 at Leicester.

West Bromwich now is second with 19 points, Everton has 18 and Manchester United and Nottingham Forest both have 17.

Arsenal was defeated by Birmingham 3-1 in a hard, robust match.

Bears Seem To Be Surprise Club In AHL

Hershey Bears appear to be the surprise team of the young American Hockey League season. The Bears, who finished fourth in 1956-57, took over first place, turning back Providence Reds 5-1 Sunday night to break a tie for the lead with Providence.

In other games Sunday night, Rochester Americans took over third place with a 3-1 victory over Cleveland Barons, who dropped into the cellar, and Springfield Indians moved out of last place with a 2-1 triumph over Buffalo Bisons.

Hershey snapped a 1-1 tied in the second period on Bob Solinger's goal and solidified the verdict when Les Duff scored. Third-period goals by Lorne Davis and Obie O'Brien put the game out of Providence's reach.

Rochester jumped to a 2-0 first-period lead over Cleveland and made it stand up. Gary Aldcorn produced the insurance goal for the Americans late in the third period.

Tallies His 500th Goal With Hawks Still Victims For Record Markers; Leafs Pull Surprise Blanking Bruins

Maurice (Rocket) Richard in rewriting the National Hockey League record book has found Chicago Black Hawks his unwilling assistants.

The Rocket, now 36 and the oldest player in the league, scored goal No. 500 of his illustrious NHL career Saturday night as Montreal Canadiens defeated the Black Hawks 3-1. The veteran right winger found Chicago netminders the target of other noteworthy goals — Nos. 100, 200 and 400. And No. 325, which broke the previous record set by the late Nels Stewart, also went into a Black Hawks net.

While Richard was setting the fans wild at Montreal, Toronto Maple Leafs burst out for their first victory of the season — a 7-0 drubbing of the unbeaten Boston Bruins.

But Toronto apparently used up most of its steam against Boston and lost 3-1 to Detroit in the Michigan city Sunday. That put Leafs back in last place, one point behind Chicago which lost to the third-place Rangers 6-1 in New York.

TREAT FOR FANS
Once again Richard saved his record - breaking performances for the home fans. All the milestones in his goal-scoring career, with the exception of goal 400, were scored in Montreal.

Defenceman Doug Harvey and centre Jean Beliveau, who fed the Rocket the pass for No. 500, were the other Montreal markers. Hec Lalande got the Chicago score.

The Maple Leafs held to only six goals in their previous three starts, ran roughshod over the Bruins on three-goal performances by centres Brian Cullen and Billy Harris and a single by winger Ron Stewart, who counted while killing off a penalty in the second period.

At Detroit Sunday night Barry Cullen, Brian's brother, was the only Leaf to beat Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk, who returned to his old-time best in turning aside 28 shots.

CHADWICK SHINES
Netminder Ed Chadwick of the Leafs, who was amazing in his shutout of the Bruins, stopped 30 Detroit drives but was beaten by Red Kelly, Billy Dea and Norm Ullman. It was Detroit's first victory on home ice.

Tempers were short on Madison Square Garden ice as Rangers swamped Chicago. Eric Nesterenko was the lone Hawk to score and he also led the penalty parade with two majors and a misconduct. The majors resulted in his automatic ejection from the game in the third period.

Dean Prentice and Camille Henry scored two each for New York Rangers.

Goal No. 100: Dec. 29, 1945, at Montreal; 11:23 of third period; opposition goalie, Mike Karakas of Chicago Black Hawks.

Goal No. 200: Jan. 18, 1949, at Montreal; 19:04 of third period; opposition goalie, Sugar Jim Henry of Chicago Black Hawks.

Goal No. 300: Nov. 3, 1951, at Montreal; 3:05 of third period; opposition goalie, Terry Sawchuk of Detroit Red Wings.

Goal No. 324: Equalling NHL record of the late Nels Stewart of Montreal Maroons; Oct. 29, 1952, at Toronto; 17:07 of first period; opposition goalie, Harry Lumley of Toronto Maple Leafs.

Goal No. 325: Breaking Nels Stewart's record; No. 8, 1952, at Montreal; 10:01 of second period; opposition goalie, Al Rollins of Chicago Black Hawks.

Goal No. 500: Oct. 19, 1957, at Montreal; 15:52 of first period; opposition goalie, Glen Hall, Chicago Black Hawks.

Purdue And Illinois Explode And Knock U. S. College Football Into Real Tizzy; Iowa Wallops Indiana

NEW YORK (AP)—Purdue and Illinois exploded a couple of bombs under Michigan State and Minnesota Saturday and in the process threw U. S. college football's big ten race into a tizzy.

Flu-ridden Purdue, the No. 1 team in the U. S., battered Michigan State 20-13. Illinois, which had only one victory to show in three previous starts, ambushed Minnesota 34-13.

Defending champion Iowa crushed Wisconsin 21-7. Ohio State rolled over Indiana 56-0 and Michigan stopped Northwestern 34-14 in other big ten games.

In the east, Princeton dropped a 12-10 decision to Colgate in a non-league game. But Dartmouth smoothly executed a 14-7 win over Holy Cross.

Army took a big step toward the mythical eastern championship by turning back Pitt 29-13 at West Point. Navy led Georgia 27-14 in Norfolk's Oyster Bowl.

Maryland crushed North Carolina 21-7 before Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip, who appeared to enjoy the proceedings.

Duke continued to lead the race for the Atlantic coast conference championship, by throttling Wake Forest 34-7.

Gerald Walsh Sets World's Marathon Mark

WALTON-ON-THAMES, England—(Reuters)—Gerald Walsh, 39-year-old clerk from Durban, South Africa, Saturday bettered the world's best performances for 40- and 50-mile track running.

The long-distance runner clocked four hours, four minutes, 34 seconds at 40 miles and was timed at five hours, 16 minutes, seven seconds at the 50-mile mark.

There is no official world record for either distance. Previous best figures were held by fellow-South African Jackie Mekler, who clocked 4:18:14 for 40 miles and 5:24:57.8 for 50 miles at Capetown Sept. 5, 1954.

Ti-Cats Edge Als 18-15 While Argos Upset Rough Riders 31-23

Cookie Gilchrist Tallies Two TD's As Cats Rally To Nip Montreal; Gerry Doucette Big Cog For Argos

Chester (Cookie) Gilchrist, a hard-driving fullback with Hamilton Tiger-Cats who has been a problem to coach Jim Trimble the last year, went a long way Saturday to regain some lost prestige.

The 21-year-old Negro, who got into hot water with Trimble two weeks ago when he reported late for a Big Four football game, crashed for two touchdowns as the mauling Ticats won an 18-15 verdict over Montreal Alouettes with a 11-point last quarter. It just about clinched first place, and a bye into the playoff final, for the Tiger-Cats.

The triumph was No. 8 in 11 games and stretched the black and yellow team's lead to four points over the Alouettes and Ottawa Rough Riders, deadlocked in the second place. One more victory in their remaining three league games will put Ticats beyond reach of the Als and Riders.

Saturday he led Ticats to an 18-15 win over Montreal Alouettes with two touchdowns. The victory sent Tiger-Cats into a clear four-point lead over the Als and Ottawa Rough Riders, who lost 31-23 to the last-place Toronto Argonauts.

In the Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union Saturday Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen took a 28-6 home field victory over Sarnia Golden Bears.

University of Western Ontario Mustangs shut out University of Toronto Blues 15-0 and McGill University Redmen trounced Queen's Golden Gaels 33-6 in Intercollegiate Football Union action.

COME FROM BEHIND

Hamilton's other scoring Saturday was looked after by Steve Oneschuk, who converted both of Gilchrist's touchdowns, added a single and kicked a 25-yard field goal in the last five minutes to break a 15-15 tie and send more than 18,000 fans tumbling from the stands.

The Als built up a 15-0 lead before Gilchrist and company started their hammering. Oneschuk booted the game-winning three-pointer after intercepting a pass thrown by Montreal quarterback Sam Etcheverry. Hal Patterson and Joel Wells were Montreal's touchdown scorers. Patterson, the league's leading scorer, got the first late in the first quarter when he took a nine-yard pass from Wells.

Before the half Patterson and Wells pulled the same play in reverse. Patterson threw a 30-yard pass to Wells, who outran Hamilton defenders for an 80-yard touchdown play. Bill Bewey kicked the converts and Avatus Stone booted a single on the first play of the second quarter.

CANADIANS STAR

The Ottawa-Toronto game was practically an all-Canadian show for the Argos.

The Double Blues, using only seven imports because of illness and injuries, allowed their Canadian backfielders to carry the ball and they produced one of the best jobs of the season.

Quarter Gerry Doucette called the entire game. Argos scored four touchdowns, all by Canadians—two by halfback Davey West and one each by halfback Bobby Kuntz and Doucette. Vic Kristopaitis kicked four converts and, with a strong wind behind him, a 45-yard field goal in the final quarter.

Alouettes File Official Protest On Referee Bowden's Ruling On Last Play In Saturday's Fixture

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Alouettes have filed an official protest against their 18-15 loss to Hamilton Tiger-Cats in a Big Four football game at Hamilton Saturday.

General-Manager Gorman Kennedy of Montreal said the protest was sent to D. Wes Brown of Toronto, league secretary.

It concerned a play with less than a minute left in the game when Ralph Toohy of Hamilton jumped off the bench to tackle Montreal halfback Art Powell who caught a pass on the Montreal 31-yard line.

The Alouettes claim they should have been granted an automatic touchdown. The Canadian rule says if the referee thinks the tackled player could have scored a touchdown, then he should grant the touchdown. Apparently, the referee did not think so.

Referee Harry Bowden of Toronto ruled Hamilton had too many men on the field and penalized the Ti-Cats 10 yards, giving Montreal a first down on their own 41.

In Hamilton Sunday Bowden explained his decision by saying Toohy ran on to the field while the ball was out of play. Linesman Tom Daley flagged him as soon as Montreal put the ball back in play, indicating Hamilton had 13 men on the field, Bowden said.

"Toohy didn't contact Powell at all," he added. "Powell made the catch and ran into touch. I had to consider that when Toohy ran on to the field yelling, he could have been yelling at one of his team to get off, that he was a replacement."

"As no one did leave the field I simply penalized Hamilton for having too many men on the field."

Edmonton Eskimos Down Lions 29-12 To Establish Several WIFU Records; Johnny Bright-Jackie Parker Star

Edmonton Eskimos, shooting for their fourth straight Grey Cup, wrapped up a number of league records in the Western Interprovincial Football Union Saturday night by defeating British Columbia Lions 29-12, at Vancouver.

Lions' loss left them with a scant chance of overtaking Calgary Stampeders for the third and last WIFU playoff spot, despite the Stampeders 31-7 loss to Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

The Eskimos' victory was their 12th in 14 this season. They ran their point total to 423 to surpass the 394 season total compiled by Winnipeg in 1952.

Smothering the Lions under a powerful ground attack, the Eskimos ran up a total of 349 yards gained rushing and passing. This was enough to send their season total to a record 6,138 to beat the 6,020 yardage compiled by Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1956. They counted 26 first downs, pushing their season's total to 355, which beats the 358 mark set by Winnipeg last year.

Individually, the Eskimos surrounded themselves with more glory and records.

BRIGHT SETS RECORD

Fullback Johnny Bright scored one of Edmonton's four touchdowns and in doing so set a league record for individual rushing yardage.

The Eskimos gave the former Drake University flash 19 chances to carry the ball. He hauled it 87 yards to run his season's total to 1,491 yards to overtake teammate Normie Kwong's mark of 1,440 yards set last year.

Bright, the league's second highest point-getter, didn't gain points on teammate Jackie Parker who also scored a touchdown.

Bill Briggs and Kwong counted Edmonton's other touchdowns. Bill Roberts and Vic Chapman scored touchdowns for the Lions.

Joe Mobra added three converts for Edmonton and a single on a kickoff. Bill Walker kicked a fourth-quarter single.

In Calgary, Winnipeg Blue Bombers, with a ground offensive spearheaded by Charlie Shepard and Leo Lewis, swamped Calgary. Shepard and Lewis, with the help of Gerry James, galloped for sizeable gains in a potent running attack that gave Winnipeg a 14-0 first-quarter lead and a 21-7 bulge at half time.

James scored one touchdown and kicked a field goal while Lewis, Shepard and Ernie Pitts contributed a touchdown apiece. Kenny Ploen kicked three converts and threw a convert pass to Pitts following a fumble.

A 27-yard pass from Knobby Winkowski to Dean Renfro in the end zone brought Stampeders' lone score. Bud Korchak converted.

Along the ground Bombers rolled for 333 yards compared with Calgary's 73. But through the air Stamps went 224 yards to Winnipeg's 128. Calgary tried 30 passes, completed 17 and intercepted three of Ploen's 11 pass attempts of which five were completed.

Bombers held a margin in first downs, 22 to 20, and in kicking where Jerry Vincent averaged 44.7 yards a punt and Ted Duncan only 37 yards.

WEEKEND STARS

Maurice (Rocket) Richard, who scored the 500th goal of his National Hockey League career as Montreal Canadiens downed Chicago Black Hawks 3-1.

Waterloo Young Folk To Collect For UNICEF

WATERLOO — Children and young people of four Waterloo groups are uniting this Halloween to promote interest in UNICEF's Halloween program, said, "In 1952, when the project was brought to my attention for the first time, the children collected $18; last year $750,000 was collected, and this year we hope to reach the million dollar mark."

Canada's contribution last year was $42,000, said Mrs. Lindt, who is public relations officer for the UNICEF at the UN. The Halloween project, she explained, gives children something constructive to do. They collect pennies, and this money is used to help other children in underprivileged areas of the world.

UNICEF, which helps children in more than 100 countries, has a four-point program. It fights disease, deals with the welfare of mother and child; it is concerned with nutrition and emergency programs.

The boys and girls who will be asking Waterloo residents to "Shell-out" for this Halloween, belong to the Anglican Junior and Girls' Auxiliaries, the Canadian Girls in Training, the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs. It is hoped a generous response will be made to their appeal.
