ISRAEL SANCTIONS MAY SPLIT THE WEST AGAIN

Legislature Winds Up Heavy Session

Man Held In Murder Of Girl, 13

DALHOUSIE, N. B. — Joseph Richard, 30, of River Charlie, was charged Thursday night with murdering Katherine De LaPerelle, 13, whose beaten body was found Feb. 10 near her home at Charlie Station, 10 miles from Dalhousie.

Richard is married and has two children. He is a native of Tracadie, N. B.

The charge was laid before Magistrate J. Thomas Troy by RCMP Corporal Michael Gillis. Richard was remanded for hearing Feb. 27.

BEATEN, GAGGED

It was a Sunday morning when several boys, attracted by a dog's barking, found the body under snow-covered bushes. The girl's face had been bruised by blows and she was gagged.

The girl had left her home to visit neighbors the night before her death. While returning she dropped into a roadside canteen to buy some peanuts. She disappeared between the canteen and home.

68 Bills Are Approved

QUEBEC — Royal assent was given 30 government bills Thursday in a speedy windup to the Quebec legislature session.

Lieutenant-Governor Gaspard Fauteux prorogued the session with a traditional speech from the Throne thanking members of both provincial Houses for their work. The bills he approved made up almost half the total number of government measures voted since the session started Nov. 14.

Two members of the Liberal opposition in the elected 93-seat legislative assembly were still under expulsion orders when the agenda was cleaned up.

Emilien Lafrance, Liberal for Richmond, was expelled for 30 days Feb. 13, believed to be the heaviest sanction ever levelled against a member of the legislature. He had been expelled Jan. 31 for eight days. Oswald Parent, Liberal for Hull, was expelled Tuesday for eight days.

PASS 207 BILLS

The government's law program was heavy, 68 bills in all including a record 1957-58 budget of $471,467,860 bulging with a $25,000,000 federal equalization payment and increased corporation taxes.

Corporations are to pay nine instead of seven per cent on their profits. The increase is fully deductible from the federal corporation tax.

The government's increased revenue, expected to reach $473,000,000 will be spent largely on education, highways, health and social welfare.

All told the legislature approved 207 bills, 139 of them private measures introduced by municipal corporations, school boards, public corporations, school boards, public and private bodies.

Duke Now A Royal Prince

LONDON (Reuters) — The Queen today created her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, a prince of the realm.

A notice in the London Gazette said:

"The Queen has been pleased by letters patent under the Great Seal of the realm bearing date 22nd February, 1957, to give and grant unto His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, KG, KT, GBE, the style and titular dignity of a prince of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland."

A separate notice in the Gazette said:

"The Queen has been pleased to declare her will and pleasure that His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh shall henceforth be known as His Royal Highness the Prince Philip Duke of Edinburgh."

Laval Will Oppose New Association

QUEBEC — Laval University's student association has announced it will oppose a projected move to form an association grouping students from all French-language universities in Canada.

A spokesman said Laval feels the formation of a new group would weaken the National Federation of Canadian University Students. The federation represents students of both languages.

LONDON (Reuters) — Jean Seberg, an American Joan of Arc, was slightly burned at the stake Thursday during shooting of the stage-burning scene for the movie St. Joan at nearby Shepperton studios.

Dangerous Dial

LONDON (AP) — Don't wear a watch with luminous dials to bed, the British Medical Journal advised Thursday. There is a "small, geretrical risk" from radiation, it said, and the hazard increases if the crystal is broken.

Arab Bloc Prepares To Act

UNITED NATIONS — The Arab bloc planned to ask the UN assembly today for economic and military sanctions against Israel. The move was expected to cause a new split in the West.

The 27-country Asian-African group held last-minute conferences on the precise wording of the resolution. Reports said it will call on UN members to refrain from giving financial, economic or military aid to Israel because of her refusal to pull out of the Gaza strip and the Egyptian coast on the Gulf of Aqaba.

The Arab move was spurred by Israel's latest refusal to pull back behind the 1949 armistice lines.

Premier David Ben-Gurion told Israel's parliament, however, that his government is seeking further negotiations to reach an understanding. Ben-Gurion ordered Ambassador Abba Eban back to Washington to explain his government's position.

ANOTHER TRY

Dispatches from Jerusalem indicated the Israel delegation will seek to have the assembly debate postponed again, until Eban can return to Washington and confer once more with U.S. State Secretary Dulles. The envoy was due late tonight or Saturday, which presumably could put the assembly session off from 3 p.m. today until Monday.

Washington officials said today the United States will agree to Israel's request for further talks but will not seek to delay United Nations pressure against the Jewish state.

Ont. Budget Hits Drivers

TORONTO — Motorists were among the first today to feel the pocket-book effects of Ontario's new budget. They paid two cents more for each gallon of gasoline.

The increase in gasoline tax was included in the first major upward adjustment of provincial taxes in 18 years.

The 1957-58 budget contained these changes:

Levy on gasoline increased from 13 cents from 11 cents a gallon, effective 12:01 a.m. today; tax on diesel fuel increased to 20 cents from 11 cents, effective April 1; tax on corporation tax advanced two per cent to 11 per cent, retroactive to Jan. 1.

Simards And Tremblays — 300 Years In Canada

MONTREAL — The Simards and the Tremblays, who trace their Canadian family history back to 1657, are preparing to celebrate the tercentenary this year.

The Simard story began with the arrival of Noel Simard at Quebec City from Auvergne, France, June 21, 1657. The Tremblays started with the marriage of Pierre Tremblay to Ozanne Achon of Quebec, Oct. 2 of the same year.

Today there are 60,000 Simards and an equal number of Tremblays, spread across Canada and the United States, all descended from Noel or Pierre. The entire population of French Canada in 1760 was no more numerous, and Pierre Tremblay has often been called "the father of a nation."

The families hope to gather most of their members together this year for two great reunions. The Simards plan a mass voyage to Europe to visit the birthplace of ancestor Noel at Auvergne. The Tremblays are organizing a "ralliment tremblay" and so far about 12,000 invitations have been sent to various scattered branches of the family.

The plan is to arrange festivities — dinners, conferences, theatricals, exchange visits — wherever a family group can be found.

The Simard and Tremblay family rallies won't be the first in French-Canadian history. Already the Dions, the Coutures, the Gravelles, the Bouhards, the Gagnes, and the Gilberts, among others, have marked the anniversaries of their ancestors' arrival on Canadian soil.

World News In Brief

NEWRY, Northern Ireland — Forty Northern Ireland territorial army men escaped injury by a few minutes Thursday night when a time bomb destroyed a building where they had been drilling.

The men had gone to a canteen 20 yards away when the blast knocked them from their chairs, rocked the walls and blew in windows of a church 40 yards away.

NEW YORK — Rikers Island convicts who aided victims of a Feb. 1 airliner crash will get time off for their "heroic actions," the city's parole commission said Thursday. Twenty persons died in the crash of the Florida-bound Northeast Airliner. Eighty-one prisoners had been mentioned for heroic acts.

BUDAPEST — (Reuters) — Jail sentences up to 14 years were handed out to leaders of an anti-Russian riot in Miskolc, industrial city in northern Hungary, last December. According to official reports here Thursday, Bela Barta, 30-year-old factory worker, charged with leading an attack on Soviet troops, was jailed for 14 years. Margit Kos, who with Barta was said to have headed a crowd trying to storm a Russian tank, was jailed for three years and Janos Tamas for eight years.

LONDON — (Reuters) — The British government announced Thursday that all other Commonwealth prime ministers have agreed Ghana should be recognized as a member of the Commonwealth from March 6. On that day the Gold Coast, under the new name of Ghana, will become a sovereign state.

LONDON — (AP) — Doctors threatened Thursday to walk out of the state-run health service unless the government meets their demand for a 24 per cent pay increase.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan Wednesday rejected the demand and said a royal commission would be set up to consider the broad question of the doctors' economic status.

Doctors now get 17 shillings $2.38 a year for each of the first 1,000 national health patients. The amount increases for additional patients.

Dick Powell Leaves June

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Dick Powell and June Allyson announced Thursday night they are separating after 11½ years of marriage. They have two children, Pamela, 8, and Richard Jr., 3.

Opposition Supports Doubling Payments To Municipalities

OTTAWA — The Commons today begins debate on the principle of a bill that would roughly double federal payments to municipalities on Crown property.

The bill was introduced Thursday night after the House approved a resolution outlining the legislation.

Finance Minister Harris has said that under the amendments to the Municipal Grants Act federal payments would jump to between $16,000,000 and $20,000,000 a year from $9,500,000.

All opposition speakers gave qualified approval to the proposed legislation, claiming it doesn't go far enough in helping municipalities meet their rising costs.

PENSION INCREASE

Earlier, Prime Minister St. Laurent hinted that this year's budget speech will announce an increase in the old age pension, now $40 monthly. He disclosed a list of about 20 measures the government now is contemplating for this session, but it did not include pension legislation and CCF whip Stanley Knowles

Psychologist's Advice Give Up Your Seats To The Men, Ladies

MONTREAL — Women are tougher than men and are getting more so.

Man, "becoming positively fragile in mind and body," is cracking up fast under the relentless pounding of 20th-century life.

Thus, women who want to stave off those inevitable widow's weeds as long as possible should marry men at least two or three years younger than themselves.

This lugubrious diagnosis belongs to New York psychologist Murray Banks, who laid it on the line here in an address Wednesday night to a women's lodge.

Women, he said, are built to stand the strain.

"Men are coming under more and more pressures to succeed. ONE BIG PRESSURE

"Women, largely, are under only one big pressure... to get married."

Anne Outruns Charles To Greet The Queen

LONDON — Curly-haired Princess Anne pushed the future king of England aside Thursday and bolted up an aircraft ramp to welcome home her Royal parents.

Anne, a sprightly 6, whisked past Prince Charles, 8, and a host of dignitaries in her dash to greet Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh in the privacy of the plane that brought them from a state visit in Portugal.

Charles and the dignitaries — including Prime Minister Macmillan — looked slightly nonplussed for a moment but then the heir to the throne took off after his sister to hug her parents. They hadn't seen their father since he started a world-circling tour four months ago.

SERENE RETURN

Despite the exuberance of the children, the arrival was serene in comparison with the uninhibited excitement in Portugal, which included a carefree ride through the streets of

India Ready To Talk On Kashmir

NEW DELHI — A spokesman said today the Indian government is ready to discuss the Kashmir problem with the UN Security Council president. But he emphasized that does not mean India approves of the resolution sending the council president to India and Pakistan.

The council Thursday voted 10 to 0 — with the Soviet Union abstaining — to send its president for February, Gunnar V. Jarring of Sweden, to seek a settlement of the Kashmir dispute through "any proposals."

India has opposed any UN intervention in Kashmir, claiming the Hindu Maharajah in 1947 joined the Himalayan state to India.

Prime Minister Nehru delivered a sharp attack Thursday on Britain and the United States over Kashmir.

The two countries jointly backed a UN resolution on Kashmir Wednesday which Nehru termed "collective aggression or collective approval of aggression."

Solid Citizen Went Astray After Reducing

CHESTER, Eng. — A psychiatrist told the court that when Raymond Alderton weighed 225 pounds he was a solid citizen. His trouble started when he took drugs that reduced his weight to 170.

Since then, Alderton confessed, he had broken into a house, stolen two passports and a cigarette lighter, lit fires in another house, taken a car without the owner's consent and attempted to take another.

Alderton was given three years' probation on condition that he enter a hospital for mental treatment.

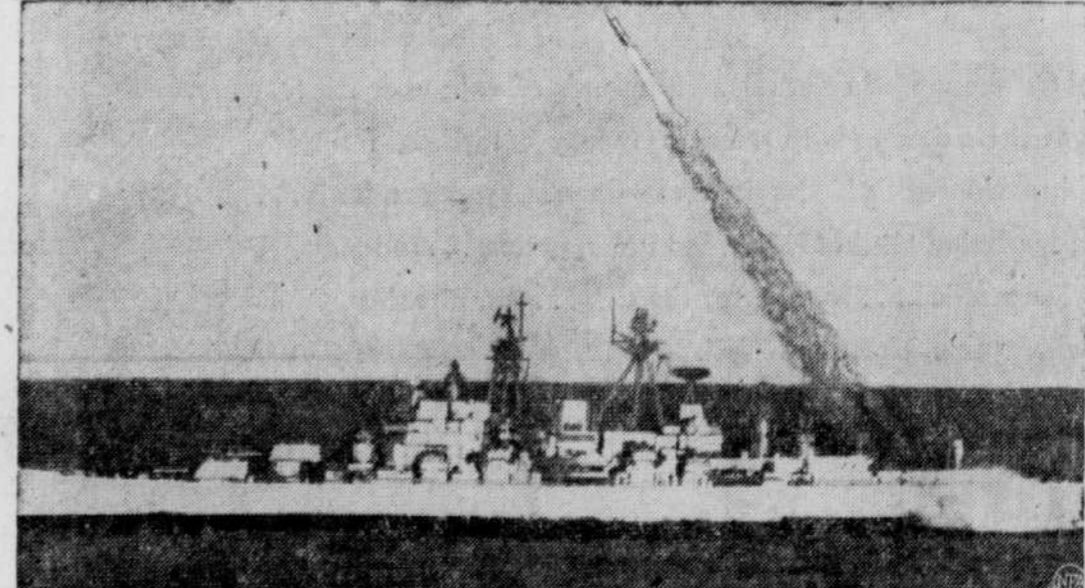

Take Over Truck

But the strangest of the day's adventures took place in the city of Oporto, whose famous wines have been sent to Newfoundland for seasoning for centuries.

As the Royal visitors drove through the town, the people struggled past police cordons to shower rose petals on the car. The Queen threw town officials into confusion by asking for an open car so that the people could see her better.

The light-hearted Duke spotted a truck — a shabby old vehicle ordinarily used for getting police squads to trouble and assigned Thursday to photographers.

Smiling happily, the couple scrambled out of their official car and climbed into the truck.

Bordeleau Declared Not Guilty

The second manslaughter trial of Georges Bordeleau ended last night in acquittal for the 26-year-old Asbestos resident. The jury brought in their verdict of not guilty at 9:10 p.m. after having the case under deliberation for more than two hours. The trial, presided over by Mr. Justice William Mitchell, lasted three days.

The case was given to the jury at five o'clock yesterday afternoon and adjourned for supper at six. At eight, the jury once again took up their deliberations and shortly after 9 p.m. came into the courtroom. Judge Mitchell asked them whether they could reach a verdict during the evening or adjourn until the morning. But the jury foreman told the court that there was agreement.

"Because of doubt we find the accused not guilty," he announced.

Bordeleau's three attorneys, Raymond Daoust, Joseph Cohen, Q.C., and Fred Kaufman, all of Montreal, based their defense on accident. During testimony yesterday Bordeleau told the jury the gun went off, while he was playing with his oldest child, Louise, killing his wife. During the address to the jury Mr. Daoust demonstrated that a small shoe worn by the girl could have set off the gun. Bordeleau said he lifted his little girl over his head while seated in a chair opposite his wife and when the girl was lowered the gun went off.

The Crown presented evidence that the bullet which killed Mrs. Bordeleau entered a closet door behind her 29 inches above the floor and when lodged in the closet wall it was 32 inches above the floor.

In explaining this to the jury yesterday, Mr. Daoust, again demonstrating with the rifle on his knees, said that when the girl's right foot hit the trigger, the weight of her left foot landed on the rifle stock, causing the barrel to rise, thus accounting for the upward path of the bullet.

The defense called three witnesses, Bordeleau, his sister and Aime Bourassa, an Asbestos resident who was present when Bordeleau bought the rifle from Gerald Doucet. He said the gun was in perfect working order.

Bordeleau's sister, Rollande produced a pair of little boots, similar to the ones worn by Bordeleau's daughter the day of the accident. She said she bought the boots at the defense's request this week.

BORDELEAU TESTIFIES
 Called into the box Bordeleau was shown the rifle and asked whether he recognized it.

"Yes, and I have sworn never to touch a rifle again," he replied.

With the questioning of Mr. Daoust.

Q. Were you ever told about the indicator on the rifle?

A. No, but I knew that when the indicator was at zero the gun was empty because I tried it once.

Q. How many bullets did you put in the gun when you went hunting?

A. I don't remember.

Q. How many did you fire?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did your brother-in-law, Ronald, empty his gun after you went hunting that Sunday?

A. Yes, I saw him do that.

Q. Did you empty yours?

A. No, because the indicator was at zero and I remarked to Ronald Dion how handy the gun was because when it was empty the indicator was at zero.

Bordeleau explained that he was playing with his little girl on his knees when the gun went off. He told the jury he kept the rifle on his knees to fix the foresight which he said was not functioning properly.

Bordeleau's testimony was marked with constant sobbing as he showed considerable emotion while explaining the event which surrounded the death of his wife.

Under the cross examination of Crown Prosecutor Roland Dugre.

Q. You said that Pomerleau, a boarder, was there when you returned from hunting, but Pomerleau told us yesterday that he arrived after you. Now which are we supposed to believe?

A. Pomerleau was there when I arrived.

Q. Didn't you tell your brother-in-law, Gerard, at the funeral parlor that night you could not understand how the accident happened because you had pumped the rifle twice in front of Ronald after coming out of the woods?

A. If I said that I don't remember.

Q. Was the barrel of the rifle pointing toward your wife?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you ever get up from the chair in which you were seated?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Did your wife ever make any remarks about the rifle pointing at her?

A. I don't know.

Q. What was the idea of having the gun on your knees?

A. I don't know.

Q. Was the barrel of the rifle always pointing toward your wife?

A. I don't know.

Q. Didn't you tell your brother-in-law, Lalonde, that you had to have five bullets in the magazine and one in the firing chamber at your home one night?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Was the child always on your knees?

A. Yes, I swear she was.

GEORGES BORDELEAU

Then the Crown Prosecutor asked Bordeleau to come out of the box and sit in the same position as he was that day with the rifle on his knees.

DEFENSE OBJECTION

This brought an immediate objection from the Defense Attorney Daoust, who told the court that Bordeleau had sworn not to touch a rifle again and therefore he could not demonstrate with the gun. The court maintained the objection and the demonstration was carried out with a stick.

In summing up before the jury, Mr. Daoust told them the accused acted in a normal manner. He believed the gun empty and therefore saw no reason to put the safety catch on. He said the accused was the one who had suffered the most from the accident in the loss of his wife.

The Crown told the jury that Bordeleau did not remember some of the most important things that happened that afternoon. Mr. Dugre pointed out that in order to fire the gun it must be cocked. Also, Bordeleau was the only witness who said the child was on his knees when the shot went off. Finally, he asked why the accused persisted in having the gun on his knees all the time.

In his charge to the jury Judge Mitchell explained reasonable doubt and outlined some of the testimony.

Quebec Home And School President At Lennoxville

"To raise the standards of the teachers; to inform public opinion; and the promotion of welfare for children and youth are the aims of Home and School Associations across the country," Douglas Walkington, president of the Quebec Federation of H. and S., and vice-president of the Canadian Federation of H. and S., declared in his address to members of the Lennoxville Home and School Association at the High School last night.

In addition to the evening address, Mr. Walkington spoke during the afternoon to members of grades 10 and 11 on "Romance in Chemistry," illustrating the various interests and personal pursuits awaiting the new researcher or chemist.

The evening talk, "Home and School in Canada," was directed for the most part at pointing out the necessity for qualification in the academic background of teachers, both present and prospective, and the need for good parent-teacher relationships. In the latter case, the function of Home and School Association is one of educating the parents rather than children.

The net result of the parent-teacher association should be a partnership. "With regard to what is actually happening in Canada today, it is necessary to realize that there are 311,000 members in Home and School, Education (due to local cultural conditions) is a provincial matter. Still, there are certain things which must of necessity be done by the federal government, but the actual activation of these decisions and works involves provincial (local) legislation.

"On the provincial level, there are 160 local associations incorporating some 25,000 family members, and in this province the educational system is as good as if not better than, any other province because parent-education is exploited more in Quebec.

"Home and School Association should concern themselves with the environment surrounding the child—such things as traffic safety, broken homes, teachers' outlook and personalities, even the school building itself—in fact any detrimental effect on the child."

As with most organizations, the ground work is most important. So it is with H. and S. The real work must be and is accomplished in the local association. This does not mean that it becomes therefore a critical body, but rather a group of people who will work hand in glove with the school board and staff, thus proving the extreme importance of individual effort.

"Why should we be interested in Home and School?" asked Mr. Walkington. "The reason lies in the tremendous growth in the school-age population predicted by present statistics. In 1955 the school population was 2,800,000; by 1965 it is expected to rise to a staggering 4,040,000! This will necessitate 33,000 new classrooms—meaning the addition of an equal number of QUALIFIED teachers.

"Thus it is that final or long-run objective of the Home and School Association is to raise the standard of qualifications for teachers."

Noted Comedienne To Appear At Bishop's

Anna Russell, whose 'factory whistle' voice, and 'collapsible' camp chair' face, have delighted thousands of theatre and radio audiences, will appear in the Bishop's University Memorial Gymnasium next Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.

Miss Russell, who 'throws a wild assortment of vocal custard pies and musical tomatoes' has been acclaimed "Queen of Comedienne" on four continents. Her success has been achieved, not only on the concert stage, but also in television, radio, theatre, opera, cinema, and as soloist with symphony orchestras.

After a start which Miss Russell describes as something less than sensational, she has become firmly established as one of comedy's best loved and best selling stars. In New York City alone she has played 27 engagements, while her tours have carried her around the world several times, to Canada, Great Britain, where she was born, European capitals, Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii, and Alaska.

Anna finds fun in everything, and fortunately so. At a concert during the recent American elections she found herself competing with a television set which was pouring out results. In New York her competition was the World Series, but she put her restive audience at ease by periodically announcing the score. At one university concert a student walked up to the stage, leaned over the footlights, tore a strip from her gown, and then presented it to her later, for her photograph.

ANNA RUSSELL

Her recordings for Columbia have all met with instant success. One stayed at the top of the best-seller list for 36 weeks.

Miss Russell has branched into writing. Her first book, "The Power of Being a Positive Stinker" will appear in October.

Anna spurns script and song writers, and has created all her own material, including the songs, which she delivers "like a Sophie Tucker who knows music, and like Yma Sumac with a jawbreaker in her teeth." Her song titles illustrate her range.

She goes from Wir Gehen in Den Automaten to I'm Only a Faded Rose and Chlorophyll Solly.

Many honors have been showered upon her. Those vary from been presented in the Royal Festival Hall in London, to the more dubious title, National Hay Fever Queen of 1954.

Tickets for Miss Russell's performance may be obtained at Wilson's Music Store in Sherbrooke, Clark's Pharmacy in Lennoxville, or at the University Porter's Office. Reserved seats are $2.00, general admission is $1.50.

Entertainment Restrictions In Granby Area

A spokesman for the liquor police said the ban will apply to floor shows, singing groups and similar entertainment.

In places where dancing is permitted, orchestras but not singers are allowed to perform.

Guided Missile Disobeys Orders

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP) — Remnants of an errant military rocket apparently are scattered in the high Rockies of Colorado or the desert reaches of Utah.

The 39-foot Matador missile escaped Thursday with about an hour's fuel left. It soared northward from Alamogordo and probably landed in southwest Colorado or southeast Utah. The region is sparsely populated.

The missile did not carry an explosive warhead.

Three of the owners pleaded guilty and were fined $25 each and costs. The others were remanded until next week.

Last U.S. Dockers Agree To Sign

NORFOLK, Va. — (AP) — The last obstacle to settling the U.S. East Coast dock workers strike was removed early today when Hampton Roads, Va., longshoremen and shippers agreed on a new contract.

Failure to reach agreement in Hampton Roads had kept some 45,000 workers in ports from Maine to Virginia away from their jobs.

The New Cold War

Soviet opposition to the Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East is becoming more and more violent, smacking of the old, cold war flavor of the Stalin era. Just this week, Premier Bulganin denounced the doctrine as an insane plan for world domination, a colonial trap prepared by the oil monopolies and a threat of enslavement for the Arab peoples.

Pravda called the Eisenhower Doctrine an imperialist plan by American warlords to supplant the old colonial powers in the Middle East. A steady stream of warnings against American intentions has been poured out of Moscow for the benefit of the Arab nations, and anybody else who cares to listen.

On other fronts, the Russians have warned European members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization that they faced atomic retaliation if they permitted the United States to set up atomic bases on their territory. West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer was warned by Bulganin that continued association with NATO and the U.S. lessened the chances of German reunification. In the United Nations, a Russian demand for debate of American "aggressive actions" has been rejected.

This new Soviet offensive has culminated with the replacement of Dimitri Shepilov as Foreign Minister by Andrei Gromyko, the Stalinist career diplomat who became notorious as chief Soviet delegate at the United Nations for saying "nyet" and sometimes walking out.

The revival of the cold war comes at a time when the Western alliance is in a state of disrepair. The Suez split has been followed by the British decision to cut her NATO forces in West Germany from 80,000 men to around 50,000. France is considering a similar cutback.

The nations of Western Europe, including Britain and France, are showing more interest in an economic federation that would lessen their dependence on the United States.

The sense of urgency that led to the establishment of NATO has been dissipated. The long period of cold war crisis that followed the breakdown of the East-West alliance after the Second World War has perhaps led to a more blasé attitude on the part of Western European nations.

Nevertheless, the increasing belligerence of the Soviet Union may lead to a stiffening of resistance. Western Europe can be expected to show more independence of North America in the future, and a strong European federation allied with the United States may turn out to be the best bulwark yet against Communism.

Fire Department's Record

The Sherbrooke Fire Department's record deserves study by all citizens of this community. The annual report released by Director Percy Donahue reveals that property losses in 1956 were sharply cut, compared with the previous year.

More interesting is the fact that on a per capita basis, losses last year were $1.42 per person in Sherbrooke while the per capita loss of property in Canada amounted to $4.83.

Nevertheless a property loss in 1956 of $85,693.28 is a matter of major importance. This is a loss which the community can ill afford.

The main causes of fires were defective chimneys, oil fires and electrical fires, in that order. During the year 36 people were injured or overcome by smoke.

A highlight of the year for the Fire Department is Fire Prevention Week, when an intensive educational and inspection campaign is carried out. The fact that fire is still such a major cause of property loss and injury underlines the need for year-round alertness to its dangers.

Still high on the list of causes of fires are carelessness, overloaded electrical wiring and worn out equipment. The Sherbrooke Fire Department requires the co-operation of every citizen to carry on its fine record.

This And That

The local fire department reports that two fires last year were started by television sets. Probably those old guns the cowboys are always shooting off got overheated.

A Canadian brain surgeon says that memory is like a continuous strip of motion picture film within the brain. We wish they would put in subtitles so we could remember names, too.

Congress in the United States has been asked to proclaim Father's Day a legal holiday. Mother's Day has been officially recognized in that country since 1917. It may be some reflection of the bad year poor old Dad finds himself in down there that the request had to come from a woman, Senator Margaret Chase Smith.

Now a dog is training to swim Catalina Channel. If this thing spreads all those swimmers who clutter up Lake Ontario every year are going to have to take up flagpole sitting in the summer.

The Deal

(Manchester Guardian)

President Eisenhower has given King Saud a bronze desk set as a memento of his visit to Washington; it is at any rate a more pacific gift than the silver-plated pistol that Colonel Neguib received from Mr. Dulles. But he is to receive American military aid, too; the singularly vague communique issued last week did not make clear how much.

It is to be provided, presumably, to enable him to defend his kingdom against Communist-inspired aggression, and no doubt if Russian volunteers appeared on the desert skyline it would be used; the protector of the Moslem holy cities, who has no diplomatic relations with Moscow, did not need a trip to America to make him anti-Communist. But he is much more concerned about the Israelis than the Russians, and until the Arab-Israeli dispute is settled—that is farther ahead than anybody can see—every additional rifle in the Middle East is a source of danger.

Next to Israel King Saud probably hates Britain most, and the encouragement of American arms may strengthen his resolution in the quarrel over the Buraimi oasis. The Imam of the Yemen, too, may feel bolder. However, presumably President Eisenhower knew all this before he drove to the airport to welcome the King. As the sensibly said: "You have got to meet face to face the people with whom you disagree at times to determine whether or not there is a way of working out the differences."

We do not know how much aid Saudi Arabia is to get, nor what America is to get in return, except a renewal of the lease of the base at Dhahran. But whatever the communique hides, King Saud's public utterances suggest that his host has gained his main objective. He has convinced the King that American intentions in the Middle East are pacific—non-colonialising—while Soviet propaganda is busy saying the reverse. Since he came to America as the envoy, in a sense, of his Syrian and Egyptian allies the Americans may after all have swallowed their scruples to some purpose. We shall be able to judge better from Colonel Nasser's behaviour in the next few months.

Value of products of commercial bakeries in Canada in 1956 is estimated at a record $315,727,000.

UM—M—THIS MOVIE NEEDS SALT

(Toronto Telegram)

A GERMAN film, so it is reported from Frankfurt, is on the verge of introducing aromas to movie houses. The day may be imminent when noses as well as eyes and ears will be required equipment for the full enjoyment of a film.

At present the film appears to be concentrating on the diffusion of perfumes and scents. As the languid lady loafs on the lounge the nostrils of the audience will be conscious of a forbidden fragrance, or as the lovers wander through the woods the spectacle will be less titillating than the arboreal aromas.

But the possibilities do not end there. From perfumes and scents to other odors is a natural step. A scene of a house on fire will smell like a fire; the odor of fish will exude from a fishing village, and no scene of an ox revivifying whole on the spit will be authentic without the redolence of roasting beef.

There is a tantalizing thought—the movie house pervaded with the fragrances of newly-made bread and hot blueberry pies, of cooking hams and turkeys, of baking casseroles and steaming stews and savory sauces. A scene of a Thanksgiving dinner of Henry VIII at table will be almost too appetizing a trial to endure.

And what with three-dimensional pictures it may not be a trial at all. Moviegoers will not merely see the custard pie, smell it and hear it as it flies through the air, but taste it as it splatters on the face of the clown—at which point people will recall with nostalgic sighs the unintrusive, silent and odorless movies of the Mack Sennett period.

PARLIAMENT'S DIGNITY.

(Ottawa Journal)

Mr. Speaker Beaudoin, press reports say, has emerged from a period of sad despair to try to recapture the authority which the Government and its followers snatched from him last session; has been "cracking down" on irrelevant or "loaded" questions during "Orders of the Day."

All who care for Parliament will wish Mr. Beaudoin well. Yet the truth is, we fear, that the wounds inflicted upon Parliament last session cannot be healed quickly by some sudden penitential return to propriety.

Bagehot once said that the essence of Parliament was its dignity. When the Government indeed all but encouraged its followers to behave not as grown men but as boys on a baseball sand lot, they were not only murdering Parliament's rules; they were butchering its dignity.

Lawlessness and vulgarity took over last May and June, left marks on Parliament which are with it yet. They will be with it, we fear, until mercifully its days come to an end.

Sanctions Date Back To League

By The Associated Press
 "Sanctions" is an odd word. In ordinary use, sanction of something means that it's approved.

But in legal terms, carried over into diplomatic talk, "sanctions" denotes restriction, an intervention that tends to bring pressure upon a person or government.

And that's what United Nations diplomats are talking about in discussing whether to vote sanctions against Israel. The term came into active diplomatic use in the 1930s in the League of Nations, a predecessor of the United Nations.

Article 16 of the League of Nations Covenant was the first attempt to organize a system of international sanctions to enforce peace and security. It imposed on all members the obligation to adopt coercive measures, including financial and economic boycott, against states which resorted to war in violation of the covenant.

Oct. 2, 1932, was a significant date in the decline of the old league because it failed then to apply sanctions against Japan in the case of Manchuria. On that date the report of a League of Nations commission bluntly accused Japan of aggression. There was much talk in Geneva, but no clearcut action. Japan did not withdraw, and the Far East section of the Second World War was in the making.

Italy's Mussolini, observing this importance of the league, invaded Ethiopia Oct. 2, 1935, without a declaration of war. In an attempt to retrieve its authority, the league this time declared economic sanctions against Italy on Nov. 18, but the measure proved ineffective. Mussolini continued his aggression, and on May 5, 1936, formally annexed Ethiopia. Fifty nations pledged collective sanctions against Italy and adopted an arms embargo against her. A financial embargo was added by 48 nations, a boycott of imports from Italy by 47, and a boycott of certain exports to Italy by 47. The United States, not a member of the league, acted independently and applied an embargo against both Italy and Ethiopia.

The league sanctions did not include the export of oil to Italy, a measure which might have been effective. In June, 1936, sanctions were formally abandoned. It was apparent that sanctions were not working when Hitler reoccupied the demilitarized Rhineland on March 7, 1936. France, reluctant to apply sanctions against Italy, endeavored to apply them to Germany. The effort got nowhere.

The question of sanctions was not even discussed in the old league when Germany annexed Austria in 1938, and seized the remnant of Czechoslovakia and invaded Poland in 1939.

A form of political sanction was voted against Russia in 1939 when she was expelled from the league for invading Finland.

Some members of the United Nations have declared sanctions should be imposed on Russia for her armed intervention in Hungary. No formal resolution ever has been introduced. In 1951 the UN General Assembly voted an embargo against war materials to Red China as a result of the

WEST'S LEAD DOESN'T LIE

South's three club response to the opening no-trump indicated that he thought a slam was possible. Otherwise he would have bid three no-trump. You don't fool with minor suit games after a no-trump opening bid.

North raised to four clubs and normally the slam would have been a lay down. Unfortunately North had exactly as many cards in each suit as South and neither hand could use its trumps for ruffing purposes.

In spite of the duplication the slam would normally have been made. South won the opening heart lead, drew trumps, played three rounds of diamonds to get rid of that suit and threw West in with his queen of hearts.

Larceny Lou's thing West saw what had happened. A heart lead would give declarer a ruff and a discard so that was out of the question. A low spade lead would also give South the hand if he held king-nine-small of that suit because East's queen would fall to South's king and South could then finesse for Lou's jack.

Lou led the jack of spades. Declarer looked hard at Lou and decided he was making one of those famous false leads from queen-jack. Hence declarer won in his own hand with the king, whereupon East's queen set the contract.

South said bitterly, "Your honest lead fooled me."
 Lou replied, "You don't think I would be anything but honest on Washington's Birthday."

TODAY'S QUESTION
 The bidding is the same as in the question just answered.

You, South, hold:
 Spades A-Q-6-5, Hearts A-K-7-3, Diamonds A-Q-J-3, Clubs 2.

What do you do?
 Answer Tomorrow

Can you say "NO" to all these questions?

Do most of your outlets look like this instead of single plugs for each?

Do your fuses blow out frequently when many appliances are on?

Do your appliances heat up too slowly?

Do you have too few outlets and switches?

Do you have to disconnect one appliance to plug in another?

Do your lights dim when you turn on a heater, fan, or other appliance?

Poor wiring is the cause of most electrical troubles in the home. So if you cannot answer "NO" to all the questions above, do send for your electrical contractor to examine your wiring system or call for the guidance and help of a Southern Canada Power representative.

ISRAEL SANCTIONS

Meanwhile, Britain has let it be known she does not favor sanctions at this stage but believes the collective wisdom of the UN should be able to solve the problem in some more constructive way. Many of the Commonwealth countries share this view.

NO SECRET

And France, which has backed Israel all through the Middle East crisis, makes no secret of her opposition to sanctions. The Scandinavians also are opposed. Even the Soviet bloc — openly hostile to Israel — opposes sanctions on the ground that the assembly has no authority to take such measures.

The U.S. has not said exactly how it stands on sanctions. President Eisenhower in his broadcast this week said the UN had no choice but to exert pressure on Israel to withdraw. But he specifically mentioned only "moral pressure" as one of the "types of sanction."

WORK ON PLAN

Britain and Canada are reported trying to stave off a showdown at this stage with a plan involving assurances of protection that might persuade Israel to pull out her forces.

External Affairs Minister L. B. Pearson of Canada is said to be considering revamping a discarded proposal which would link Israel withdrawal with specific moves to station the UN Emergency Force in the disputed areas.

Ben-Gurion in his speech in effect agreed to that, but there was no indication Egypt would go along.

Several weeks ago, the borough council passed an ordinance licensing cats. Cats without tags were taken to a cat-pound.

Now the council is told rats are overrunning the community.

Municipal IODE Plans For Provincial Annual

A very large attendance was noted at the February meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., at which the regent, Mrs. E. B. Sims, presided.

Some discussion was held re the coming Provincial annual meeting of the Order being held in the Mayfair Room of the New Sherbrooke Hotel on April 10 and 11. It was decided to hold an executive meeting of Municipal Chapter on March 8 at I. O. D. E. House, to make final arrangements for the annual meeting.

Educational secretary, Mrs. E. T. Harbert, reminded the Chapters of their previous decision to award a bursary to a Macdonald College student and asked them to consider the date of the award and to report at the next meeting.

Services at Home and Abroad secretary, Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, reported that two layettes had been given out during the month, fuel oil had been provided for the next four months to another family, a new baby had been provided with special food for a month, and several other families had been assisted in various ways. King George V Chapter offered to supply milk to another family. In commenting on the report, the regent paid tribute to Mrs. Loughheed's untiring efforts to provide the necessities for those in distress and to assist them in obtaining financial help from the proper authorities.

'One-Eyed Monster' Kills Manners And Conversation

"What is television doing to old-fashioned good manners?" a reader asks.

And then she cites instances of what often happens to the drop-in or the invited guest these days if the guest happens to arrive in the middle of a TV program.

"The guest is waved to a chair, almost grudgingly, if whoever answered the door missed a few lines of dialogue.

"His presence isn't regarded as a welcome treat but more as an intrusion.

"Or if the parents aren't listening to TV and the children are, it's the same old story. While the television set blares forth, the host and hostess and guest try to talk above it, after the hostess explains sweetly, 'It's the children's favorite program.'"

These aren't the only examples of the rudeness of some TV addicts.

ALL MUST YIELD TO TV

Wives complain to me that the only time they can make a remark to their husbands without being shushed is during commercials.

Children, in some homes, find it impossible to compete against the TV set for their parents' attention. Nothing they want to talk about seems quite as important to their parents as whether or not some TV killer is going to be caught or how some TV tear-jerker is going to end.

So the children are told with a frown to keep quiet.

There were those who said that the American family would in time learn to relegate TV to its rightful place. But that hasn't been true in all homes.

In quite a number—judging from my mail—it is still the one-eyed monster.

Glenn Hall Of Red Wings Outshines Montreal's Plante, Teams Tie 3-3; Lindsay, Howe And Richards Tally

Glenn Hall, a skinny, young goaltender from Humboldt, Sask., may prove the deciding factor if Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings meet for the Stanley Cup.

Hall is a laconic 25-year-old who approaches his tasks with much less dash and flair than Jacques Plante, his peripatetic counterpart in the Canadiens' nets, but in the last few weeks, he's been doing a better job of netminding.

Thursday night, when the two teams met in Montreal, he stopped exactly twice as many shots as Plante and the Wings came away with a 3-3 tie that kept them eight points ahead of Montreal.

Hall kept a slight lead on Plante, his only rival for the Vezina Trophy for the top goaltender, and the $1,000 that goes with it, and by keeping the great Jean Beliveau off the scoresheet he made Gordie Howe's or Ted Lindsay's chances of winning the scoring championship a little better. Those two stalwarts went to work with a will and produced all of Detroit's goals — two for Lindsay and one for Howe. It was Howe's 37th of the season and he collected two assists to go with it, to go seven points ahead of Beliveau. Lindsay had an assist with his pair of goals to stay two points behind his linemate.

A pair of Montrealers also divided the scoring for the Habitués. It was Richard Night with Maurice Rocket getting one — his 25th — and brother Henri, the other two — his 14th and 15th.

A crowd of 14,011 fans saw Montreal take a 1-0 and 2-1 leads in the first and second periods. Canadiens had most of the edge in territorial play as Hall made 30 saves to Plante's 15, but they couldn't hold their leads or crack Hall when they had to.

The game marked another scoring landmark for the Rocket. It was the 485th goal of his NHL career and made it that much surer that he will hit the 500 mark next year.

RECEIVES SHELL OIL TROPHY — Gilles Menard of the Optimist Juvenile hockey club, second from the right, is seen receiving the trophy for the leading league scorer from the hands of Don Kelleher, local representative, who presented the trophy on behalf of Shell dealers in Sherbrooke, Windsor Mills and Magog. On the left is Alan Giard, team manager, Mr. Kelleher, Gilles Menard and Claude Richer, coach of the Optimist. Last night Windsor posted a 5-3 victory over the local club to take a 3-1 lead in the series. Next game is booked for Sunday afternoon in Windsor. (Photo by Gerry Lemay)

Gilles Duval Outstanding; Dejordy Pots Two As Maroons Come Up With Top Performance To Upset Meteors

ASBESTOS — Waterloo Maroons, outplaying the Asbestos Meteors in all departments, last night knocked over the highly-favored Massawippi League pennant winners 5-3 for their first win in the best-of-nine semi-final series. The next game is slated for Tuesday evening in Asbestos.

Gilles Duval was the big block for the winners as his outstanding play in the nets held the fast-stepping Meteors at bay. Time after time he smothered the disc right on his door-step to rob the Meteors of sure goals. He handled 39 shots compared to 29 which Bergeron had to try with.

The Maroons held the upper hand for the better part of the game and it was only in the closing minutes of the game that the Meteors looked like league champions. The Waterloo squad fought every inch of the way while some of the Meteors took things easy figuring no doubt they could walk in and tally any time.

Claude Bergeron was weak on a few of the Maroons' goals while poor clearing by his defense accounted for two. Brodeur caught him off guard when he tallied the first goal just after the opening whistle.

Drouin evened the count for the Meteors on a screened shot but two quick goals within a minute of each other put the Maroons back in the drivers' seat just before the period ended 3-1. Banville picked up a loose disc in a scramble to beat Bergeron and Cubby Smith accounted for the other.

There was no scoring in the middle session as both teams tried their best. The Meteors were coming up with individual rushes and the Maroons' rearguard and Duval blocked them off with some good clearing.

In the third period Richard Champagne tipped in a rebound from the edge of the goal crease but thirty seconds later Dejordy offset it with a nice slap to beat Bergeron, who fanned on it. He came up with another goal a little later. He let go with a back-hand which Bergeron let get away from him.

A minute later Drouin came up with his second tally of the evening on a nice passing play with Al Moore and Marcel Forgues. The final eight minutes saw the Meteors go all out in an effort to tie the count but the Maroons, with victory in sight, held on.

Duval was on his toes and despite the heavy bombardment he and his mates held the fort until the final whistle. The Meteors tried everything in fact in the last thirty seconds they pulled their goalie but with the extra man power they failed to dent the twines.

Skip Ian Johnston Pulls Off Dramatic Last-Rock Shot To Give Ontario Win Over Northern Ontario In Playoff

WINNIPEG — A dramatic, last-rock, take-out-and-stick shot by 17-year-old Ian Johnston gave Ontario an 8-7 victory over Northern Ontario early today in a sudden-death playoff for the Dominion high school curling championship.

After a see-saw battle for eight ends in which each rink scored seven points, Johnston deliberately blanked the ninth end to give him last rock coming home. The gamble paid off but Johnston could well have been the goat as Carl Konefal's Port Arthur foursome curled beautifully on the 10th and final end.

The playoff between the two Ontario rinks was forced when Konefal suffered his second defeat of the regular nine rounds, by a 11-8 count to British Columbia. Johnston, beaten Thursday morning by New Brunswick, moved back into a first-place tie by downing Nova Scotia 6-3 on the final draw.

Johnston's rink was presented with the Sifton Trophy and rose bowls by the donor, Victor Sifton, publisher of the Winnipeg Free Press. The losers received rose bowls from Mrs. Sifton.

Ontario went one up on the first end. Northern Ontario came back with two on the second and added a single on the third when Johnston failed to stay in the house on his last rock. Heavy sweeping pulled Johnston in for a two count and a tie on the fourth. The rinks split four two-ends on the next four ends to leave the score deadlocked at 7-7 on the eighth.

Looking at an open house with final rock on the ninth, Johnston chose to hog his stone and get last rock on the 10th. His strategy worked, giving Ontario its second title since the championship started in 1948.

On the final round B.C.'s Bob Nesbitt connected for two big ends—a five on the fourth and a four on the sixth—to gain his margin of victory over Konefal, and his fourth win of the championship. Johnston had little difficulty in his win over Nova Scotia's Allan Kenney, who finished with a record of three wins and six defeats, good for a seventh-place tie with Quebec. Quebec beat Alberta 7-5, sending the western rink into fifth spot with five wins and four defeats.

Newcomer Leads Houston Open, Pros Right Behind

HOUSTON, Tex. — (AP) — Young Arnold Palmer led the $38,000 Houston Open into its second round today but knew that just one slip could drop him like a rock.

The 27-year-old former U.S. Amateur champion from Latrobe, Pa., took over when the favorites faltered Thursday to whip out a five-under-par 67 for a one-stroke lead. Only two strokes separate nine players at the top and among those just one stroke away are ace shot-makers Jimmie Demaret, Doug Ford and Australia's Peter Thomson.

Three Canadians came in with 73. Al Balding of Toronto had 38-35; Stan Leonard, Lachute, Que. 37-38; and Jack Kay, Montreal, 36-37.

Bill Mawhinney of Vancouver had 38-37—75; George Knudson, Winnipeg, 39-38—77; Gerry Kesselring, Kitchener, Ont., 40-37—77.

Revere, Mass.—Pat McCarthy Jr., 130, Boston, stopped Myrl Oimstead, 133½, Springfield, Mass., 7.

Dodgers' Prexy Walter O'Malley Says He's Not Bluffing, Brooklyn Gets New Stadium Or Else; Buy PCL Park

VERO BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Los Angeles will have major league baseball "no later than 1960," he said, adding "if not Brooklyn, then somewhere else."

The complicated deal whereby the Dodgers kicked wide the door to westward expansion of major league baseball worked this way:

Brooklyn bought the Los Angeles ball park and franchise. The Cubs received the Dodgers' Fourth World franchise in the Texas League, but not the park or real estate. The Cubs will lease Fort Worth's Lagrave Field from Marvin Kratter, the realtor who recently bought Brooklyn's Ebbets Field.

The Dodgers will end their limited working agreement with Portland in the PCL, and Chicago may assume that agreement, said Cub President Philip K. Wrigley.

O'Malley predicted big league ball—not necessarily Dodger variety—for Los Angeles after Thursday's announcement of Brooklyn's purchase from Chicago Cubs of the Los Angeles ball park and franchise in the Pacific Coast League.

O'Malley said the Dodgers plan to operate the Los Angeles team in the PCL for the present. But he indicated again that the Dodgers may move out of Brooklyn.

Giants May Also Shift Franchise

NEW YORK (AP) — If Brooklyn Dodgers ever shift their franchise to the Pacific Coast, the baseball Giants may leave New York, too.

The New York Mirror in a telephone conversation with Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, at Scottsdale, Ariz., quoted him as saying: "After all, if we couldn't retain our rivalry New York might not be as attractive. While we might be interested in trying to salvage that rivalry geographically, it doesn't necessarily follow that we would move into their area..."

In other league play Chicoutimi Saguenens stretched their lead over Montreal to five points for second place when they defeated the front-running Quebec Aces 3-1. Saguenens still trail the Aces by 12 points.

Georges Roy, Fern Perreault and Jacques Locas were the Chicoutimi scorers. Bill O'Ree got the single Quebec marker.

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Carmen Basilio's slugging edge makes the world welterweight champion a strong favorite to solve Johnny Saxton's hit-and-run style in their third title fight tonight at the Cleveland Arena.

Boostered by assurances from Basilio and his handlers that the champ's once-damaged right hand has completely healed, most astute, N.Y., the 13-to-5 favorite.

Saxton has assured newspaper men he will revert to the old boxing style which earned him a questionable but unanimous decision at Chicago last March 14. When he tried to stand and slug with Basilio in their Sept. 12 rematch at Syracuse, N.Y., Saxton was cut up and stopped in nine rounds.

"I'm going to box him this time," said Saxton. "If they want to boo, let them. I've got to think about Johnny Saxton."

Basilio assured all listeners it won't make any difference what Saxton does because he will be ready for anything. Carmen insists he is in the best condition of his 68-bout career.

The fans, lured by the controversial decision in Chicago and the smashing performance by Basilio at Syracuse, are expected to turn out 9,000 strong. Co-promoter Larry Atkins thinks the gross gate will be "over $100,000."

Radio and television fans will follow the 15-round match on NBC and CBC but Cleveland and a 100-mile surrounding area will be blacked out on the TV screen. Ring time is 10 p.m. EST.

The fighters will cut into the $60,000 radio-TV fee and also will share the gate receipts with 30 per cent going to each man. Each could get about $43,000 for the battle that was postponed once from an original Jan. 18 date when Basilio injured his hand. Basilio owns a 49-12-7 record in a career dating back to 1948. He has knocked out 23 men and never was stopped. Saxton's record is 53-5-2 for 60 starts with 21 knockouts.

"Gerry Murphy" The Hockey Star, He's Japanese

MONTREAL (AP) — Gerry Murphy Mitsubuchi, 16, is a small, high-scoring midget hockey player who adds a Japanese touch to Montreal hockey circles.

Gerry, who was tagged with the Irish nickname by teammates, plays centre for the Notre Dame de Grace Monarchs and plays it well.

Dick Rock, his coach for four years, says he's "promising enough to crash junior hockey next year on his skating alone. He's lightning fast and fearless."

Record books fail to show any players of Japanese extraction in Canada. Despite disadvantages, Gerry might turn the trick in higher echelons of the sport.

He's only five feet, five inches tall and weighs 135 pounds but he has been scoring a goal a game with 31 at last report. He arrived from Vancouver five years ago.

Art Aragon's Ring Career Ends, Charged With Felony

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The colorful and lucrative 12-year ring career of Art Aragon probably ended Thursday when a superior court jury convicted the Los Angeles welterweight of felony fight-fixing charges.

The jury of six men and six women deliberated more than 10 hours since last Tuesday before finding the Golden Boy guilty of offering unranked Dick Goldstein $500 to throw a fight in Texas.

The 29-year-old Aragon stared blankly when the verdict was read aloud in the courtroom. Then, accompanied by his wife, Georgia, a brother, Joe, 19, and lawyer Paul Caruso, Aragon walked in silence from the courtroom.

"Honest to God, it isn't so," Aragon said before leaving the hall of justice where he has spent the last two days awaiting the verdict. He remains free on $1,000 bond.

Caruso said he intends to file a motion for a new trial March 14, a week before Aragon comes up before Judge Herbert V. Walker for a probation hearing and sentence.

The conviction probably was the coup de grace to Aragon's fistic future. The state athletic commission has indicated that his 1957 boxing licence depended on an acquittal.

Aragon came down with a fever the night of the fight and the bout was cancelled.

Although presently unranked by either the NBA or Ring magazine, Aragon was the third-ranking welterweight at the time of his arrest.

A product of Los Angeles' eastside Mexican colony, he has had close to 100 fights and earned nearly $500,000 in the ring.

"Art has another two years of boxing in him, at least," said lawyer Caruso, who is also the golden boy's manager. "And we intend to do everything possible to get him back in the ring."

Symbol of Achievement

He has heard and read a great many wonderful things about this new 1957 Cadillac since it made its first appearance—about its magnificent new luxury, for instance... its brilliant new power and responsiveness... its marvellous new handling ease... and its extraordinary new smoothness of ride.

And so, quite frankly, he began to wonder if it weren't all too good to be true. Could any motor car be as wonderful as this latest "car of cars" was reputed to be?

Well, he's decided to put his eyes and ears to the test today. And the verdict is unmistakable!

It's a joy just to lean back into those deep, soft cushions and look out over that graceful hood into the beckoning highway. The car is so smooth and level and quiet that there is only the onrushing roadway to give him a sense of motion.

And what a revelation the car is to drive!

A curve in the road ahead? He simply follows it with the arc of his hands and the car responds with perfect obedience.

A hill in the offing? He just nudges the accelerator and the car sweeps up and over as effortlessly as if it were travelling the level road.

A stop light coming up? He presses his toe—ever so gently—on the broad braking pedal and comes to the smoothest, surest stop imaginable.

And how proud and happy he feels. For, more than anything, his Cadillac is a symbol of all he has achieved in life, a symbol that is universally respected and admired.

Yes, it's true what they say about this newest of Cadillacs and about the man who is fortunate enough to own one. This is far and away the finest motor car ever to travel the world's highways.

How about you? Have you heard the wonderful things they're saying about this newest "car of cars?" It's time you came in to see for yourself.

The proof is in the driving—and in the owning. The facts about Cadillac have never been more convincing. Why not make it today?
