HAVE NOT AS YET AGREED ON DEBT PAYMENTS Renewal Of Warfare Between United States Rival Tongs

Wide Divergence In Opinion Over Annual Payments

French Finance Minister Resumed His Debt Conversations With Chancellor of Exchequer Churchill This Afternoon, After Conferring With Montagu Norman, Governor of Bank of England—Early Resumption Caused Some Surprise, as It Had Been Previously Announced That M. Caillaux and Mr. Churchill Would Not Meet Again Until This Evening—Had Luncheon With the American Ambassador.

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, August 25.—M. Caillaux, the French Finance Minister, resumed his debt conversations with Chancellor of the Exchequer Churchill early this afternoon, after conferring with Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, at the French embassy. The early resumption caused some surprise, as it had been previously announced that M. Caillaux and Mr. Churchill would not meet again until this evening.

BEFORE THE MEETING Mr. Churchill and M. Caillaux had luncheon with the American Ambassador, Alanson B. Houghton. While it was explained that the meeting was purely informal and of a social character, some significance was attached to it by the press, which called attention to the fact M. Caillaux is expected to head the French debt mission to the United States.

SEVERAL MORE MEETINGS WILL LIKELY BE HELD BEFORE
CAILLAUX RETURNS TO PARIS—PROGRESS HAS BEEN SLOW

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, Aug. 25.—Instead of again meeting Right Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in an endeavor to iron out the differences that are said to exist between them with regard to the developing of plans for a settlement of France's debt of $623,000,000 to Great Britain, Joseph Caillaux, the French Minister of Finance, this morning was busily engaged in consulting French financial representatives in London and interviewing a number of leading British financiers on the subject of debt settlement. That wide divergence in opinion exists between Mr. Churchill and M. Caillaux over the annual amount France should pay to Great Britain in liquidating her debt is the prevailing opinion everywhere in London. Figures of two to three million are declared in some quarters to vary by $12,000,000. Mr. Churchill is said to have expressed the opinion that Great Britain should have $21,000,000 annually and M. Caillaux is reported to have asserted that France's financial condition would permit of her paying no more than $9,000,000.

Assumed Little Progress Has Yet Been Made.
Mr. Churchill and M. Caillaux resumed their conversation where it was left off yesterday. Whether Monday's talks brought them any nearer an agreement is not definitely known, but the indications are that several further meetings between the two finance ministers will occur before M. Caillaux returns to France. From this it is assumed little progress has yet been made.

The political and diplomatic writers in the newspapers today give the public the results of their gleanings regarding yesterday's conversations, but these actually amount to little. No claim is made by them that even a provisional agreement was reached regarding an annual payment by France which would be acceptable to both sides. There are suggestions, however, that M. Caillaux showed recognition of the fact that France must advance beyond her original proposal of $10,000,000 and that the British treasury has realized that it must be prepared to abandon insistence on the full $21,000,000.

These entirely unofficial reports for one of which any certainty is claimed, say that the sums under discussion are $12,000,000, $15,000,000 and $18,000,000. Great Britain's aim naturally is to obtain as much sterling and as few Dawes marks as possible, and one report says that this led to a proposal yesterday for a French annuity of $12,000,000 and $6,000,000 nominal from the Dawes re-

EXPECTS WAR BETWEEN U.S. AND MEXICO

Socialist Leader Declares United States Magnates Want Mexican Oil—Showing Impatience to Become Masters of World.

(Associated Press Despatch)
MARSEILLES, France, August 25.—Morris Hilquit, New York Socialist leader, addressing the international Socialist congress, or Second Internationale, today said that the Monroe Doctrine of "America for Americans" had come to mean "America for the United States" in the hands of Imperialist government. He said, however, that the American people are not imperialists.

Hilquit was the final speaker on the peace programme of the congress. He said that he foresaw war for the United States, particularly with Mexico, because, he asserted, United States magnates want Mexican oil. The United States people dominate the western hemisphere economically and they are showing impatience to become masters of the world, Hilquit declared.

Tong War Breaks Out In Several Cities In U.S. Following Funeral Of "Mayor" Of New York Chinatown—Several Shot Down

Tips to Police that Led to Opium Raids Are Presumed to Have Been Motives for Chicago Shooting—More Than Fifteen Thousand Chinese Participated in Funeral of Lee Kue Ying at New York Yesterday.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A new Chinese war broke out early today in various cities a few hours after the burial of Lee Kue Ying, "Mayor" of New York Chinatown, who was largely responsible for the recent truce between the Hip Sing and On Leong tongs.

On Leong tongman was shot and killed here. A Hip Sing member and possibly others were wounded in Boston some twenty-four hours after Washington police had thwarted a plot to kill three officials of the Hip Sing tong. Thirty-three Chinese were arrested in Washington.

In Chicago a resident of the On Leong section was shot and killed. A resident of the Hip Sing section and two others were arrested. Tips to the police that led to opium raids are presumed to have been the motives for the Chicago shooting.

The body of a restaurant cook was found in a New York Chinatown cellar with three bullet wounds. The two assassins escaped, leaving a revolver near the body. A few hours previously a shooting affair threw Boston's Chinatown into panic. One Chinese was taken to a hospital, seriously wounded. Joseph Crowley, a bystander, was hit by a stray shot and slightly wounded.

Washington police raided Hip Sing headquarters after a high official of the tong tipped them off that gunmen had been imported to kill off the tong's leaders. The Washington trouble was viewed by police there as a fight between Hip Sing factions.

More than fifteen thousand Chinese participated in the funeral of Lee Kue Ying here yesterday. Four American and two Chinese bands played in the procession of more than a mile. Ying died a few days ago of pneumonia. He was president of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, head of the Chinese Benevolent Association and has a son at Columbia University.

CHINAMAN MURDERED AT PITTSBURGH

FRENCH NOTE TO BE PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY

Foreign Minister Stresemann, of Germany, Requests French Ambassador to Go Over With Him Entire Text of Reply.

(Associated Press Despatch)
PARIS, August 25.—Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany has asked the French ambassador, M. De Margerie, to go over with him the entire text of the French reply to Germany's latest rejoinder on the security question, official circles here are advised. The Foreign Minister's knowledge of the French language, while sound and extensive, is said not to be sufficient to solve all the intricacies of the French diplomatic style, in which delicate shades of language might be variously interpreted. The French have agreed to publication of the note on Thursday morning instead of Friday, as originally intended.

ANNUAL FAIRS AT AYER'S CLIFF AND BEDFORD WERE OPENED TODAY UNDER FIRST CLASS CONDITIONS

Excellent Weather for First Day of Annual Fall Fairs—Prospects Bright for Best Exhibitions on Record—Stanstead County Fair Has Been Running for Eighty Years—Large Number of Entries at Bedford—Judges Start Work—Visitors Arriving Every Hour.

(Special to the Record)
BEDFORD, Que., Aug. 25.—Favored by excellent weather conditions, the annual Missisquoi County Agricultural Society fair got under way this morning and gives promise of being one of the most successful exhibitions in the long history of the society. Visitors from outside points commenced to arrive early this morning and exhibitors were busy making last minute arrangements. In fact, the fair grounds presented a very busy scene. Many improvements have been made during the past couple of months at the grounds and everything possible is being done by the directors to make the visitors welcome and comfortable. The entries this year are said to be of an exceptionally high class and indications are that the judges will experience some difficulty in awarding the prizes so keen is the competition. A fine programme of entertainment has been arranged for the three days of the fair, the feature of which will be the harness races. The Missisquoi County Society has a brilliant record and everything possible is being done to make a creditable addition to it.

STANSTEAD CO. EXHIBITION IS IN PROGRESS

1925 Fair Promises to Be Great Success—Eightieth Annual Fair—Many Attractions Offered Exhibitors and Visitors.

(Special To The Record)
AYER'S CLIFF, Que., August 25.—The eightieth annual exhibition of the Stanstead County Agricultural and Horticultural Societies opened today in Ayer's Cliff and will last for three days. The opening day promises to be one of complete sunshine and will doubtless go far to make the opening of this year's fair a great success. Prospects for the weather in the next two days look favorable, and if these prospects hold good, the exhibition should surpass those of other years. The Stanstead County's agricultural show is always a pleasing one and attracts hundreds from far and near from the county and outside. A good reputation has been justly earned by those in charge in past years and the officials have little doubt but that they will maintain and add to this reputation.

The Horticultural Society's prize list includes many interesting items and substantial prizes. Apples, plums, grapes and canned fruits are included in the fruit section, while vegetables include practically all local products. Grains are also in charge of this society's officers, besides its chief item, flowers. Plants, pots, cut flowers and special arrangements all have their place. The Agricultural Society's lists include prizes for horses and ponies in different classes, all breeds of cattle and sheep, swine and poultry. The women's and children's sections of the fair are expected very attractive, as they have been in the past.

The midway will, of course, be the chief centre of attraction for the younger people and will also produce visitors from the older people who have not lost their liking for a good time. Racing is on the programme, with its excitement and great value to horse-breeding, while baseball and band music is also scheduled. The Stanstead County fair in this town has been running for eighty years and is in a thriving condition. It has always been remarked on by visitors in past years as a first class country fair and officials of the two societies in charge are determined to maintain the standard set and to once more please the visitors and advance the interests of agriculture and horticulture.

Spring Valley, Sask.—"I took the Vegetable Compound before my last confinement, when I got to feeling so badly that I could not sleep nights my back ached so across my hips, and I could hardly do my work during the day. I never had such an easy confinement and this is my sixth baby. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wrote you for one of your books. FISHERMEN AT DRUMMONDVILLE LAND A BIG ONE

Sturgeon Weighing Eighty-Five Pounds Caught Near Lord's Falls by Party of Four—Record for Sturgeon Established Thirty Years Ago, When Fish Weighing 132 Pounds Was Landed.

DRUMMONDVILLE, Aug. 25.—On August 16 near the bridges at Lord's Falls, Mr. Jack Pugh, formerly of Danville, aided by three other fishermen and one young lady, landed a very fine sturgeon measuring 5 feet 11 inches and weighing eighty-five pounds. This is the largest specimen caught in this district for many years, and gave the party of five fisherfolk a lively time and some anxiety during one hour, one of the men going into the water several feet deep on the edge of the rapids and straddling the royal visitor, making the capture certain. Many tables were served with sturgeon for dinner the following day, as the captain generously distributed fine cuttings of his catch.

The next largest sturgeon to be landed locally was by George Thomas, Wm. Blais and George Bailey, and it turned the scales at sixty-five pounds. Messrs. Benoit and Roy, farmers, of St. Joachim and St. Zephirin, some thirty years ago near Spicer's Rapids, after a three-hour struggle, landed a sturgeon which tipped the scales at 132 pounds, which is the record so far.

Other good catches at Drummondville recently were a pike weighing 19 1/2 pounds by Mr. Racette, game warden, and an eel weighing 10 pounds 8 ounces by Mr. Ephraim Labonte, also a five-pound black bass by Mr. Walter Barnden opposite Captain Trent's farm, below the rapids.

Children's Cozy Corner

BOBBY COON IS GREATLY INTERESTED By Thornton W. Burgess.

An idle word may give a clew To mischief some one else may do.

The night after Peter saw Mrs. Snapper the Snapping Turtle digging a hole in the roof of Jerry Muskrat's house in the rushes at the edge of the Smiling Pool, was moonlight. Peter had gone on up the Laughing Brook into the Green Forest. There he met Bobby Coon. Bobby was fishing. Of course Peter stopped to pass the time of day (or should I say the time of night?) with Bobby.

"What's the news, Bobby Coon?" asked Peter.

"There is no news," replied Bobby Coon. "I haven't been awake long enough to have heard or seen anything like news. What is the news with you, old Longears?"

"I don't know of any real news myself," replied Peter. Then he happened to think of Mrs. Snapper the Snapping Turtle. He knew that Bobby Coon is wise in the ways of his neighbors, and it popped into Peter's head that Bobby might know what Mrs. Snapper had been about on the roof of Jerry Muskrat's house that afternoon. "By the way, Bobby," said he, "why should Mrs. Snapper the Snapping Turtle be interested in the roof of Jerry Muskrat's house?"

Up pricked the sharp little ears of Bobby Coon. "Say that again, Peter," said he.

So Peter said it again. "What made you think that she was interested in that roof on Jerry Muskrat's house?" inquired Peter.

"Well," said Peter, "she dug into it as if she were trying to dig a hole through and get inside. But I guess it was too much of a job, for after a while she gave it up and filled that hole up again. She was there most of the afternoon."

Bobby Coon looked more and more interested. "Did you say she dug a hole?" he inquired.

"That's what I said," replied Peter. "She dug a hole big enough for her to get half way into. I can't imagine what she wanted to get inside of Jerry Muskrat's house for, can you?"

Bobby Coon shook his head. "No," said he, "I can't, Peter. I never have known her to do such a thing. What part of the roof of that house did you say she was at work on?"

"I didn't say," replied Peter. "I can't tell you very well, but if we were down there I could show you." "Let's go down there right now," replied Bobby Coon, scrambling ashore from the old log on which he had been sitting watching for a fish to come within reach.

Peter stared at him. He couldn't understand this sudden interest on the part of Bobby Coon. "Tell me, Bobby Coon, what is the idea?" he asked. "I don't see any sense in going down there now. Mrs. Snapper isn't there. Besides, if she were there what difference would it make? I watched her all afternoon and I don't know now why she dug that hole and then filled it up again. I've just come up to the Green Forest and I don't want to go back down there again. What do you want to go for, anyway?"

"Oh," replied Bobby, trying to speak carelessly. "I just thought I'd like to see the place where she had been digging, but it doesn't matter. Did you say it was on the side of the roof nearest this bank or on the other side?" Already Bobby was shuffling along down the bank as he spoke.

LAWN SOCIAL AT WATERLOO A BIG SUCCESS

Reports of Meetings, Happenings and General Newsy Notes of Interest to Waterloo Residents.

WATERLOO, Aug. 25.—The lawn social which was held on the High School grounds on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Girl Guides was a decidedly gratifying success to all who participated in the event. The grounds were splendidly arranged for the accommodation of the large numbers who attended as well as for the display of the numerous articles on sale. The Waterloo Band was in attendance and furnished music throughout the evening. Delicious cake and ice cream were served by the members of the organization.

A table of fancy work, near the entrance to the grounds, was most attractive, and the many pretty and useful articles were quickly sold. A very handsome cushion made by Miss Ethel Bobo was won by Mr. Charles Slack.

The nearest to correct guess on the number of biscuits in a jar was made by Mrs. Sheldon Boright, of Richmond, her guess being 110 and the actual number being 113.

A very handsome luncheon set was won by Miss John. The name of the one who won the chicken is not known, for as yet the party having the lucky number (47) has not claimed his prize.

The Misses Robertson and Martin made most attractive fortune tellers. Several young ladies collected their share of the money taken in by the sale of flowers.

The fish pond was very eagerly patronized by the boys and girls, and as usual there were not as many fish as might have been sold. The net proceeds of the evening will be between seventy and eighty dollars.

The captain, Mrs. A. W. Watson, and Guides wish to earnestly thank each and everyone who in any way contributed to the ultimate success of the event.

Coroner Dr. L. C. Bachand presided at an inquest held at police headquarters yesterday afternoon into the death of Alphonse Thibodeau, of Eastman, who died at the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital yesterday morning as a result of the injuries received in an auto accident.

Following the evidence given by Mrs. Thibodeau, who was in the auto with her husband at the time of the accident, the coroner's jury returned a verdict of "accidental death."

The accident which claimed Mr. Thibodeau's life occurred a week ago, just east of Waterloo, at the point where the Brome Lake road and the Government highway meet. A Chevrolet car containing Mr. and Mrs. Thibodeau and party of Eastman, was proceeding towards Waterloo and attempted to pass another car. RATHER GO TO PENITENTIARY THAN TO JAIL

O'Mara, Found Guilty of Theft and Thought to Be Responsible for Faith Barn Fire, Asked to Be Sent to Penitentiary Rather Than to Local Jail.

A sentence of six months in jail handed down to one, O'Mara, yesterday afternoon by Judge J. H. Lemay, was changed as a result of a request made by the prisoner to two years hard labor in the penitentiary.

O'Mara was arrested several days ago by Assistant High Constable Genest at St. Claude, near Danville, on a charge of theft from the farm of Mr. J. B. Marcotte, a St. Claude farmer. He also answered to the description given of a stranger seen in the barn of Mr. John Faith, Brompton Road, and thought to be responsible for the fire which destroyed the barn.

O'Mara pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a suit of clothes from the Marcotte farm house, but denied having any connection with the fire at Mr. Faith's barn.

He was sentenced to six months in jail for the theft of the suit, but before the Judge had finished rendering the sentence, the prisoner asked to be sent to the penitentiary with hard labor, rather than to jail where life, he said, was very monotonous.

His request was granted and the sentence was changed to two years.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING HELD BY LOCAL ELKS

Old Bills Marking Clearance of Debt and Showing Satisfactory Condition of Lodge Were Burned by Dominion Officials — New Members Admitted — Many Officials Attended.

The burning of notes, which marked the clearance of the Lodge from debt, the admission of twelve new members, and a visit from several prominent Dominion officials of the Lodge composed the outstanding features of the meeting of the local Elks, which was held at their Lodge Rooms, Lodge No. 67, B.P.O.E., and attended by well over two hundred members. It proved to be one of the most important meetings held by the local Lodge for some time past.

The impressive event marking the clearance of debt began at twelve o'clock sharp when the first match was struck and the first note burned by Col. R. Burritt, of Winnipeg, Grand Exalted Ruler, B.P.O.E. He was followed by Mr. J. A. Killingsworth, of St. Thomas, Ont., Grand Treasurer of the Dominion; Mr. D.D. G.E.R. John Burns, of Richmond; Dr. Menet, Exalted Ruler, of St. Johns; and Mr. W. W. Foote, Exalted Ruler of Sherbrooke.

Col. Burritt informed the lodge that it was the first meeting that the entire lodge officers had attended in a body, but added that the present circumstances warranted their presence and therefore they had come to help with the work.

Social Time Enjoyed

After the business matters had been cleared up, enjoyable refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed, with music furnished by the Elks' orchestra. The meeting began at eight o'clock, but owing to the great amount of business which was brought before the Lodge, it was not concluded until after four o'clock this morning.

Exalted Ruler W. W. Foote, of the Sherbrooke Lodge, referred to the satisfactory condition in which the Sherbrooke Lodge now found itself, and expressed the hope that the local Elks would now be able to do more charitable and good work than before, and that within a short time the local Elks would have a home of their own.

It was also announced that the Grand Lodge B. P. O. E. Convention would be held in Montreal from August 26th to 28th. It is expected that this convention will be attended by many Elks from the Dominion, as well as by brethren from across the border.

The visiting brothers who attended last night's meeting were: Col. R. Burritt, D.S.O., Grand Exalted Ruler, Winnipeg, Man.; J. A. Killingsworth, Grand Treasurer, of St. Thomas, Ont.; Samuel Savage, Grand Treasurer, of Calgary, Alta.; John Burns, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, of Richmond; Dr. Menet, Exalted Ruler, of St. Johns, Que.; Mr. Flagler, Past Exalted Ruler of Richmond; and George Diamond, Past Exalted Ruler, of Montreal.

DUFFERIN HEIGHTS

The hostesses at the Saturday afternoon tea at the Golf Club were Mrs. Harry Norton, Mrs. George Fish, Mrs. E. Chadsey, Miss Davis, Miss Austin, Mrs. C. L. Brown, and Miss Stenning, all of Ayer's Cliff.

Among visitors at the Golf Club during the week-end were Dr. J. C. Copeland, Chas. Ramsay, N. P. Howard, of Springfield, Mass.; Dr. Harmon, Dayton Beach, Fla.; A. C. Niles and E. C. Webster, Lewiston, Me.; H. A. Peabody, Montreal; Henry Norcott, Chicago; and Richard E. Keagh, New York.

Guests at the Dufferin Heights Inn include Mr. and Mrs. L. Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Elyria, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Emmet and party, New London, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Campbell, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Martin, New York; Messrs. Robert Mackie, W. Tobin, W. Clark and W. A. McLeod, Barrie, Va.

Mrs. B. E. Morrill entertained the Women's Institute of Ayer's Cliff at her home here on Friday. A large number of ladies were present and a very pleasant afternoon spent. Mr. Percy Poaps, of the Dufferin Heights Club, had the distinction of making a hole in one last week, the first secured on the course this season.

FIRST OF THE FALL FAIRS.

The County Exhibitions of Stanstead and Missisquoi are opening today, a reminder that summer is passing and the fall fair season is at hand.

The display at the Exhibition at Ayer's Cliff and Bedford should be of an encouraging nature. The Eastern Townships is reaping a bountiful harvest. The hay crop now nearly all stored was one of the best on record. Grain is ripening and all field crops are above the average, except on some low lands washed out by heavy rains.

Under all these circumstances, the Fall Fairs should be especially attractive this year and of a nature to cheer the heart of the visitor.

BISHOP BIDWELL'S RESIGNATION.

The resignation of Bishop Bidwell, of Ontario, because his wife had embraced the Roman Catholic faith, has resulted in a good deal of publicity and discussion, much of it more or less uncalled for.

The Quebec Telegraph-Chronicle, in a recent editorial in which it quotes from the Orange Sentinel, has the following:

It is not often that we find ourselves in agreement with views expressed by the Orange Sentinel, but for once we cannot withhold our commendation from the attitude adopted by its editor, Mr. H. C. Hocken, M.P., toward the resignation of Bishop Bidwell, of Kingston, from his episcopacy, following upon the conversion of his wife to the Roman Catholic faith, when he observes:

"Mrs. Bidwell lived in an atmosphere of Anglo-Catholicism, and it is not surprising that, being honest with herself, she should frankly go over to Rome. In doing so, she has displayed more courage and sincerity than a good many who practice Romanism while they remain in the Protestant Church."

"The sympathy expressed for the bishop seems to the Sentinel to be misplaced. It is clear that he is directly responsible for starting his wife on the way to Rome. He is an Anglo-Catholic. The group of ecclesiastics who pride themselves upon being so called are able by some subtle process of reasoning to convince themselves that they can adopt nearly all the Papal doctrines, and still remain leaders and teachers in a Church founded upon the principles of the Reformation. This has laid them open to the charge of 'boring from within' into the fold of the Pope. But assuming their sincerity of purpose and loyalty to the Anglican communion, less subtle minds cannot go as far as the Anglo-Catholic clergymen lead them without completing the journey to Rome. Simple religious persons feel that having cut their moorings to the body of Protestant doctrine, they cannot find satisfaction in a half-way position. That probably explains Mrs. Bidwell's action."

For Roman Catholicism we have every respect and we willingly admit that these so-called 'Anglo-Catholics' are for the most part saintly men whose conscientiousness or sincerity one would not presume to question. But there must be some clear-cut spiritual issue between the Church of England and the Church of Rome, otherwise what reason has the former for existing? And plain persons within the Anglican Communion as well as those outside it are unable to follow the elusive mental processes by which Anglo-Catholics, while apparently accepting every article of the Roman Church, are able to continue their ministry in that of England.

Certainly the logical mind, if it accepts the teaching of Anglo-Catholicism, must find it hard to resist taking the final step that these imply and, as a matter of fact, a number of people who have been subjected to such influence do find their way sooner or later to Rome. It would be interesting then to obtain a clear statement of the exact distinction that representative Anglo-Catholics make between Anglo-Catholicism and the older faith: is it simply a matter of the temporal power and supremacy of the Pope, or in what does it consist?

It should be observed that we are not here attempting to question the soundness of any doctrine or belief; still less are we seeking to engage in theological controversy, but speak purely from the point of view of bewildered laymen who cannot understand how people who, to outward appearance, are Roman Catholics in everything but name can be anything but Roman Catholics in fact.

PRESS COMMENT

BLINDNESS IN CANADA.

We are told that one-quarter of the blindness in Canada could have been prevented by care in childhood. Such a statement emphasizes in the most striking way the importance of infant welfare work, which is an important part of the work of a well organized public health department. More and more it must be recognized that the care of mothers and infants yields dividends to the nation.

CANNOT FOOL PEOPLE.

Notwithstanding a great deal of carefully organized clamor to the contrary for the purpose of recommending programmes of one sort or another to the public, the railway situation in Canada, having regard to all the circumstances, is fairly satisfactory. The attempt to make it appear that the people, by giving away the Canadian National Railway, could rid themselves of the yearly deficit on its account which they have to pay is thoroughly dishonest. The road could only be got rid of on terms which would saddle the country in perpetuity with the interest burden which it now carries on account of the railway, and it would give away at the same time the chance of making the railway ultimately carry a part, or perhaps in time the whole, of this burden. In that case the country would be left holding the bag while private interests would walk off with the railway which is now within reasonable distance of becoming a property. The people are not such fools as to permit themselves to be swindled in this fashion.

OUR INDEPENDENT PRESS.

Recently Norman Smith of the Ottawa Journal, commented upon the independence of the news gathering facilities of the Canadian Press. Nowhere in the world were newspapers less influenced in their news columns by propagandists, was the substance of his remarks. Canada is indeed fortunate in this freedom of outward influence in the daily news furnished to the people of the country. Even in the United States, where the Associated Press stands next to Canada's press organization as an unfinanced news gathering organization, there has been, during and since the war, continuous and often successful efforts on the part of foreign propagandists to use the press service to spread ideas inimical to good citizenship. In England and to a greater extent on the continent the news distributing associations are controlled by outside interests and are utterly unreliable.

Independent news makes for stability of conditions and for saner public thinking.

THE SECRET OF EMPIRE.

Lord Leverhulme, the "Soap King" of Britain, is dead at seventy-seven. This man was also known as the first big dealer in coconuts. He contrived a scheme that induced the African jungle men to work. Since they lived in a jungle of coconuts and other free fruit, and could dress well (in a palm leaf girdle) and keep fat without laboring, what possible inducement could there be for such a rich and lucky tribe to go to work? Leverhulme found the answer. He imported American motion pictures into the Congo and gave a free show in every African village. That was the scheme to get the crowds for subsequent shows. Thereafter he gave movie shows every night, the price of admission being five coconuts. He soon became the coconut king. Doubtless he next became the soap king because of his monopoly in coconut oil, an ingredient of fashionable toilet emulsions. A smart man died when Lord Leverhulme passed. It is the wit contained in such heads as his that made Britain a world power and later made America bigger than England. What is the secret of Empire? It is the ability to induce the unambitious man to stir himself. But how does one perform such miracles? Ah, that is the milk in the coconut, as Lord Leverhulme might have said.

OIL ON THE ISLAND.

The news despatch from New York that a big oil syndicate had obtained options on thousands of acres in Prince Edward Island for the purpose of drilling may be the subject of much fascinating mental speculation. One can hardly imagine how swift a change would come over the peaceful and beautiful bit of Canadian landscape were all struck in any commercial quantity. Prince Edward Island has been the antithesis to anything approaching a vast business enterprise, such as the search for oil. As perhaps nowhere else in this country, the people there have pursued the even tenor of their way, in farming the rich soil, and in maritime pursuits. Contentment, the result of prudent industry, has ever impressed itself upon visitors. To some the Island seemed slow and rather set in its ways. For instance, no motor cars were allowed on its roads until long after they had become common elsewhere. Recently fox farming and breeding have given zest to business. Some fortunes were quickly accumulated, and perhaps some savings lost. But as a rule Canadians generally have looked upon Prince Edward Island as a soothing, harmonious spot far removed from the main path of a hustling, scheming world.

WAR AND WASTE.

Whether the enterprising Henry Ford shall, or shall not, get four hundred ships from the Shipping Board at a price that shall enable him to beat them into flippers, his proposition at least arouses some reflections upon the political economy of war's leftovers. The United States now possesses nine hundred and eighty-six unused steel ships, which cost more than $1,000,000,000 and are inventoried at $80,000,000. It costs rather more than $2,700,000 a year to maintain them.

In an era of economy the demand is naturally made that this sum be saved. This might be done by scuttling them, but this heroic remedy, with the resultant sacrifice of two-thirds of the whole Government fleet, appeals to but few minds. Foreign buyers would take a certain number off the Shipping Board's hands, but no assurance could be given that they would not appear upon trade routes in competition with American shipping lines. They cannot be absorbed in the American merchant marine, and if they could, they would put a speedy end to the business of American shipyards, except for the minor activity of repairs. So long as they are afloat they are a menace alike to shipbuilders and ship operators. Only an insurance against need in the remote contingency of a future war do they possess any value.

The situation curiously parallels that of the refusal of Great Britain to take advantage of that clause of the Versailles Treaty which placed upon German shipyards the obligation of building 100,000 tons of shipping a year for ten years and delivering it to Great Britain in payment for tonnage destroyed during the war. The first delivery was never completed, so great was the clamor from English shipyards which saw their business ruined. The army of British unemployed workers have been materially increased had the terms of the treaty been literally fulfilled.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

MUNICIPAL MATTERS

To The Editor, Sherbrooke Record.

For some months past letters have been published in this column offering on municipal matters and offering suggestions on saving money for the city. Undoubtedly many good citizens believe that writing these letters was just a waste of time, and to borrow from Biblical quotation, "casting pearls before swine." This is not true, for there is just a pleasant little surprise to the amount of over $100,000. that can be accounted for as a saving for the city through these letters. But there is yet $150,000 to be accounted for. Five of these letters had an average value of $20,000 each for the taxpayers benefit (Proof of this furnished when requested).

Proof was produced some few months ago in this paper showing where the city's work had cost one hundred per cent more than similar work in other cities. As the same work has been continued, with but little improvement. The sum of $300,000. is being spent and the year's figures will show that half of this has been unwisely handled. When this fact was realized by one prominent citizen, Mr. Edwards, ex-Alderman, he advised a public meeting to be held in the hope of trying to do something about it. This was a drastic step, so it was not taken. A less violent move might have been acted upon. Anyhow, the thing died and was buried, but only to be exhumed as soon as the time is opportune, because it is a serious thing for any little city to lose $150,000 in seven months when it could have been avoided.

To give an example of one incident that cost the city $14,000., we will mention this: An order was to be given for 140,000 paving blocks on which a saving of ten cents each could be made. This order was given two weeks after a suggestion appeared in this paper about the very purpose of saving this amount. Ignorance of the importance of this suggestion can be pleaded, but ignorance of it not being acted on later, when the matter was brought up before the full council is not accepted. At this meeting one of the Aldermen, in reference to this matter, said there seemed to be some common sense to the thing and it deserved some consideration. Yes, but the only consideration it got (worth mentioning) was another loss of $3,000 for, then was the time to cancel twenty per cent of the order. However, this was not done, although assurance was given that it would be done several weeks previous. That is a specimen of some consideration in council.

It is not expected that the public can read my mind; when, only a very, very small percentage of them can understand the ideas emanating from it, even when they are printed in this column, and that, in the simplest and kindest words in the English language. Their ignorance would be less about city conditions if they paid more attention to these letters and therefore easier for me and for themselves to introduce improvements.

There are good times ahead for this city, but they must be encouraged. Mr. Morency brought on the boom of 1910, all alone, and with only imagination to work with. Today we have both that imagination and plenty of good material besides with which to accomplish even greater things. For my part, I have some lingering ideas—net dormant—that with practice and some support should develop more than a boom of four years, but one of indefinite time. This won't be on a ten per cent brain power either.

Every intelligent man in this city (and some of them are suffering with the itch for parliamentary honors) believes that this city needs a change in administration. Yet, of all this city full, and all agreeing to the same thing, there is not one with enough "back bone" in his anatomy to take the lead to accomplish this. Not one. It is more painful to say this than to allow it to pass unaided. This statement does not exclude the city council, nor the full membership of the Board of Trade, the Citizen's League, the Rotarians and all the other societies formed for that purpose. The proof that this is true, take it to yourself for example.

From all appearances this is left for me to do, and in consequence my services are herewith offered for what they are worth, though I'll get nothing for it. Here's the beginning. If a man wants something done and he can't do it himself, let him be not be to mean to pay someone who can. The first step to take in securing a city manager is to obtain information about the duties of that officer. This information will be secured from cities where the thing is in practice. Any ordinary man or woman can do this, but make the pay worth while and, above all, don't delay it. For a better time won't come. This done the rest is easy.

The world thinks more of a man who fails in trying to do something good than of a man that never tries. Here is a chance for a course amongst the would-be public spirited citizens to give that spirit something to do more than camouflage.

Uncertainty is the law in human affairs

If the suitor were certain of the success of his cause, courtship would be a dull affair.

If it were always certain that a given result would follow a given cause, human affairs would lack zest.

Happily, certainty is only a word, while uncertainty is a law—a condition leavening all human effort.

That you will reach your appointed destination on your next street car ride is not a certainty. It is probable; it is likely; but the chance is always there that something will prevent.

That a certain sort of advertisement of a store will produce a logical and expected result is not always certain. It is probable, and likely. But some combination of circumstances may intervene to prevent the complete result hoped for.

The "element of chance" which enters into newspaper advertising is a small one, it is true; but it is there, as it is everywhere else in life; and those who "look for certainty" will fail, sometimes, to find it.

The merchant who advertises in a newspaper knows that the "law of uncertainty" operates in his favor ninety and nine times.

DEATHS REPORTED

MRS. DAVIS, HEATHTON, QUE.—August 25.—In the passing away of Mrs. Martha Davis, which took place at her home early Monday morning, August 17, this community, at which she lived, as well as her family, have met a great loss. Although on the decline of life and not very strong, her death came very unexpectedly, she apparently being in her usual health when she retired on Thursday night. She was stricken with pneumonia, which proved fatal in a few days.

Mrs. Davis was seventy-six years of age and had been a resident of this place many years, she, with her husband, Mr. Sumner Davis, and her two sons, Wyman and Ernest, coming here more than forty years ago. Mr. Davis predeceased her about twenty-five years ago.

Her two sons survive her, one of whom (Ernest) has lived with her and he with his wife and children have tenderly cared for her in her declining years.

Mrs. Davis was a woman endowed with excellent qualities and had a wide circle of warm friends who will miss the willing heart and hand always open for every good work.

Mrs. Davis was a charter member of the Methodist Church in this place also of the Ladies' Aid, being active and devoted to the last.

The funeral was held from her late home by the United Church on August 19. Services were conducted by Dr. Henry Mick, of Stanstead.

Relatives from Stanstead present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Collier, niece and nephew; Mrs. L. W. Hurd, niece; Mr. Clinton and Miss Dora Davis, niece and nephew; of Boynton; Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Brainard, of Tomifobia, and many friends from Stanstead, Way's Mills and adjoining neighborhoods. The many floral offerings were a silent tribute to the respect in which she was held.

The remains were laid to rest in Heathton Cemetery beside those of her husband.

IF YOU WISH TO BE STYLISH—CAMOUFLAGE Disguise Liabilities, Bring Out Assets, Says Bendel.

NEW AFTERNOON GOWN DESIGNED BY BENDEL. SKETCH SHOWS THE HOOD AND CAPE EFFECT IN THE BACK.

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Learn to camouflage your figure: That is one of the secrets of being stylishly dressed, says Henri Bendel, fashion authority.

"Disguise your liabilities and bring out your assets."

"In clothes, as in conversation, if you have nothing important or appropriate to say, it is better not to flaunt your opinions," Bendel says.

"If you can't be eloquent with your clothes, it is better to maintain a discreet silence by conforming to the mode and giving your attention to perfection of detail."

"In the art of fashion camouflage, there are many ways of lengthening short lines and breaking up those that are too long with the slightest suggestion of obliqueness."

"A cape just the right length, a jabot skillfully handled, a ruffle raised or lowered, a sash tied on the front instead of the side, a broken hemline, instead of a straight, uncompromising one, a high waistline, instead of a low one—all these and several others may make all the difference in the world in your appearance.

"Notice the lines on the gowns of well dressed women. When you buy a dress that satisfies you find out what makes it different from those you don't like, and look for that feature next time."

It is safer in most cases to be a conservative rather than a radical, Bendel says.

To illustrate his point, Bendel referred to the gown illustrated with this article.

It is one of the most unusual and loveliest for afternoon wear that he has exhibited this season. It is of sand colored canton crepe with a cape of blond crepe and a hood of the same material as the frock. The front is caught with a tortoise shell buckle that concentrates the fullness in front and gives the straight silhouette and flat back. It has the graceful flowing line that Paris delects.

But this gown, Bendel says, should be worn only by a woman with a slender, willowy figure, narrow hips and small ankles. On the woman inclined to be stout it is a failure.

Henry Margulis, of Albany, N.Y., and Abraham Treppel, a book-keeper, of New York City, were arrested a few days ago at Rouses Point, when customs officials found $45,000 of gems hidden in their baggage. They were released on $12,000 bail, but customs inspectors made a further search of the baggage discovering the additional cache.

BELIEVE THAT A BRUTAL MURDER WAS COMMITTED

Police Searching for Portions of Dismembered Body to Establish Identity of Victim.

(Associated Press Despatch) RICHMOND, Cal., Aug. 25.—Convicted that severed portions of a human body found in nearby marshes are those of a young woman, police are searching for other portions of the dismembered body to establish the identity of the victim.

First evidence of what police now believe was a brutal murder was discovered Sunday by a schoolboy who came upon a woman's ear while gathering tule stakes in the marsh. A police posse yesterday found near the spot a section of human scalp with blonde hair wrapped in a news paper dated July 3. A distance away searchers found a section of a human face, evidently part of the cheek. Not far away were picked up two pieces of a woman's walrus hide travelling bag, one of which bore the letter "B" in gold leaf.

Criminologists examined the three exhibits and declared they were portions of the body of a woman 21 to 25 years old, about 5 feet 4 inches in height, weighing about 125 or 130 pounds, of Scandinavian descent, with blonde hair, blue eyes and stocky build. A hatchet, with what appeared to be blood stains on the blade and a single blonde hair clinging to it, was found in a deserted shack bordering the marsh.

The possibility that the supposed murder victim may be Mrs. Bessie Loren, 28, trained nurse, of Oakland, who has been missing since August 19, is being investigated. Mrs. Loren's description tallies closely with that given by the criminologists.

CLAIMS U.S. DRY REGIME NEVER TO BE ALTERED

Several Speakers Opposed Prohibition—Lord Salvesen Quoted Statistics to Prove "Dry" Law Not Very Successful.

(Associated Press Despatch) STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 25.—The benefits and evils of prohibition, with special reference to the United States, were discussed at the session of the Universal Christian Conference yesterday. Bishop James Cannon, of Washington, waxed so enthusiastic upon the subject that he spoke for several minutes beyond the allotted time, and the audience, growing impatient, asked him to stop.

Bishop Cannon declared that the "United States dry regime would never be altered, not only because it was part of the constitution, but also because the government majority of Christian citizens of the United States would never admit to a new legacy of alcohol trade."

Several speakers opposed prohibition. Lord Salvesen, Judge of the Court of Session, Scotland, and member of the judicial committee of the Privy Council, contended that under normal conditions no majority had the right to prevent any person from ordering his life according to his own views, provided he did not harm others.

Moderate drinkers, Lord Salvesen went on to say, only were influenced by the fact that possession of alcoholic beverages was regarded by a state as illegal. He quoted statistics from the United States, Norway and Finland as evidence that prohibition was not very successful.

Lord Salvesen was solicitor-general for Scotland in 1905, chairman of the Royal Scots Association, chairman of the Scottish Public House Reform League and chairman of the Royal Scots Benevolent Fund.

The Rev. Henry Carter told the meeting that alcohol consumption in England from 1913 to 1925 had decreased forty-one per cent and that cases of intoxication had decreased fifty-nine per cent, but the government's income from alcohol, owing to higher taxation, had increased 112 per cent.

(Continued from page 1) Dean Inge, of St. Paul's Cathedral, speaking from the modernist standpoint at a conference of modern churchmen at Oxford, said: "We are not a well-drilled army and have no programme, no official syllabus of opinion to defend. We are agreed that the spirit of truth is blessed by honest enquiry. The bible of the race is still being written. We have carried the inflexible church and inflexible book. Our religion is older than Catholicism, much older than Protestantism, and was founded on the teaching of Christ Himself."

BANDITS SHOT MAIL CLERK AND TOOK MAIL BAGS

Robbery Occurred on Santa Fe Train Between San Diego and Santa Ana—Value of Loot Not Known—Airplane Pouch Thought to Be of Great Value.

(Associated Press Despatch) SANTA ANNA, Cal., Aug. 25.—A combination express and mail car charged and the messenger in charge shot and beaten last night when bandits boarded a Santa Fe train between San Diego and Santa Ana. The value of the loot has not been determined. It is believed that four men participated in the robbery which was not discovered until the train reached Santa Ana and the messenger, Elmer Campbell, found unconscious on the floor which was in great disorder. Letters and packages were strewn about and mail sacks cut open.

Apparently the robbers had climbed to the top of the car and shot Campbell through a ventilator, breaking in through the door when he fell probably fatally wounded. The robbers are believed to have boarded the train when it stopped at Ocean Side and to have left it at San Juan Capistrano, about thirty miles from here. The train left San Diego with nine pouches of mail, including one pouch of airplane mail. A check up showed only six packages had been left behind and the airplane pouch was among those missing. The pouches remaining in the car had been slit open and their contents explored. While there was no registered mail the contents of the airplane pouch was believed to be of great value.

PIRATES HAVE STRANGLE HOLD ON PENNANT

Only a Miracle Can Break Pittsburgh's Hold on National League Title - Again Beat Giants.

(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Pirates were generally regarded today as the next champions of the National League. They have left New York after taking four of five games in a crucial series with the Giants, thereby almost making the pennant certain.

Only thirty-two games remain to be played by McGraw's entry, while the Corsairs have thirty-eight and a long stretch at home. Nothing but a miracle can break the hold of McKee's men on the 1925 bunting, as critics view the situation.

The final blow dealt New York yesterday by the Pirates, 9 to 2, not only left the Giants six games behind first place, but found their defense almost wrecked. The inner works cracked in the fifth. An infield fly went for a sacrifice as Cuyler stole home while Jackson held the ball. The errors were made on easy chances. Their disorganized aspect indicated the resignation of a four-time title holder to the passing of the pennant from the masthead at the Polo Grounds. As Pittsburgh retired, the Giants looked down the standing and saw Cincinnati coming along only two and one-half games behind. The Reds lost an opportunity to gain more ground yesterday by hitting before the brilliant pitching of Graham at Boston by 3 to 2.

Washington and Philadelphia, separated by only a single game at the top of the American standing, both were belted in the west yesterday. The leading Senators lost to Detroit by 13 to 4. Three Washington boxmen were shelled with sixteen hits by the Tigers. Manager Eddie Collins on crutches as the result of a strained ligament, directed the White Sox to a 1 to 1 victory over the Mecks, who made only four hits off Blankenship.

Babe Ruth's third home run in as many days failed to rouse the limping Yankees, who lost their fifth straight game to Cleveland by 5 to 1.

Vangilder blanked the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 0, for the Browns, allowing only six hits.

St. Louis Cardinals, smothering the Phillies under a blanket of 29 hits to win twice, 14 to 5, and 6 to 4, tightened their grip on fourth place in the National League as the Robins split even with the Cubs. Chicago lost the opener, 13 to 6, in spite of a shower of seventeen hits, but with fifteen bingles won the second 11 to 6.

RICHMOND TRIMMED DRUMMONDVILLE

RICHMOND, Aug. 25.—The Richmond C. N. R. team completely outclassed the Drummondville Soccer team on Saturday, at Richmond, winning by 7 to 0. The previous week these teams tied, but Saturday the locals put out their strongest eleven, with the result that Drummondville were never in the picture. The goal scores for Richmond were Jones 3, Seiwright 2, Brodie 1, Brown 1. The Drummondville team are a newly organized team with three or four experienced players. Their goalkeeper, West, is undoubtedly the best goalkeeper ever seen at Richmond. With a couple more experienced players and necessary practice they should prove a useful addition to the Eastern Townships League.

The Richmond C. N. team are endeavoring to get a game with the C. N. team of Quebec to complete their season.

FRANCE MAY OPPOSE U.S. FOR DAVIS CUP TROPHY - STANDS A GOOD CHANCE OF BEATING AUSTRALIA IN TENNIS ELIMINATIONS

Here Are the Stars of the French and Australian Tennis Teams That Will Clash at Forest Hills Next Month to Determine the Opponent of the United States in the Davis Cup Challenge Round.

BY ART CARLSON

Will it be Australia or France that will be the American Davis cup team next month?

As has been the case in the last three seasons, will Uncle Sam's tennis representatives meet the Antipodean outlay with Jimmy Anderson and Gerald Patterson carrying the brunt of the opposition, or will they encounter the famous French pair of Jean Borotra and Rene Lacoste with one Jacques Brugnon tossed in?

Those questions will be answered early in September when the netmen from far away Australia clash with the French exponents at Forest Hills in the interzone finals to determine the rightful challenger of the Americans for the game's premier trophy—the Davis cup.

It will mark the third meeting of the two European teams in the interzone final round in as many years. In both 1923 and 1924 the Australian players romped off with the honors in a comparatively easy manner.

Best in Seasons

This time things stack up differently, however. For one thing, France is certain to show its best team in seasons, possibly in the history of that country. In Borotra and Lacoste it has a pair of brilliant chaps, fairly young, it is true, but nevertheless boasting plenty of latent ability.

Borotra is the present national indoor tennis champion, Lacoste holds the Wimbledon title. Both are clever all-round racket wielders. Each is stepping to the front rapidly. As doubles players they are particularly formidable.

Brugnon is not rated quite so highly. But plays a good, aggressive game and helps round out a tough triumvirate.

Against the French team Australia will send Patterson and Anderson and possibly Hawkes, the latter in the doubles.

These three are anything but youngsters at the game, the first two named having played in Davis cup tournaments for the last six years. Certainly they are not improving. In fact, they're slipping back, if anything. Just the reverse of the French lads.

In last year's clash it will be recalled Australia won three matches to two for the Frenchmen. Pat O'Hara Wood and Patterson both trimmed Borotra and the same pair whipped Lacoste and Brugnon in the doubles. Lacoste, however, rather tipped the dope bucket over by defeating both O'Hara Wood and Patterson in the singles.

The year before, or in 1923, Australia turned in a 4-1 victory, Lacoste again saving France from a shutout.

Pull for France. Frankly, it looks like Patterson, Anderson, et al., are in for a hectic session this season. And it would not be surprising to see the chaps from so-called sunny France come out on top.

It wouldn't hurt the game any, either, if the United States were to meet some other nation besides Australia in the challenge round. For while there is, of course, no animosity toward the Antipodeans, followers of the game in this country are becoming a bit tired of the annual drubbings the Americans have been handing the Aussies and opine that a meeting between America and France would at least break the old monotony of things and would cause considerably more interest.

That's why tennis devotees in general are pulling for a French triumph over Australia in the coming elimination set-to. And, as stated, they may not be doing it in vain.

day of the meet, and will continue as long as the light holds good. Ammunition will be supplied, free, by the League, and the short-muzzled Lee-Enfield Service Rifle, as issued or equipped with any aperture sight permitted by P.O.R.A. Rules will be used. There has been extensive work done on the ranges this year, particularly at the firing points, and they are in excellent condition.

The prize list is an extensive one, including cups, medals and almost $500, in money prizes, and the entry list is expected to keep the range officers and target keepers busy for the duration of the meet.

The Century competition was won by P. H. Skellon, who defeated R. H. Stinson in the final. Mr. Skellon made a snappy eighty-six, thereby putting himself well into the tyro class.

RECOMMENDING MEN FOR VERY QUEER REASONS

Give Almost Any Reason Except that Men Recommended Are Likely to Make Good Magistrates.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Aug. 25.—(Cable)—Sir Hugh Bell, who as Lord Lieutenant of the North Riding of Yorkshire is finally responsible for recommending persons to the Lord Chancellor for inclusion on the roll of magistrates, complains that the advisory committee which assists him in making a choice of men eligible for appointments submits names of would-be magistrates for the strangest reasons—almost any reason, in fact, except that the men recommended are likely to make good magistrates.

"They are members of certain professions, schoolmasters, railwaymen, shopkeepers, or they hold certain religious opinions, or they belong to certain associations which are far removed from the administration of justice," Sir Hugs says with regard to the men he is advised to recommend for appointment as magistrates.

So far as the North Riding of Yorkshire is concerned, Sir Hugh Bell expresses the belief that there are already enough magistrates, and it would be a good thing if no more names were submitted for a couple of years.

A few years ago the Lord Chancellor overhauled the system or want of system in the appointment of magistrates which had brought the composition of the unpaid petty sessional bench into decision. Things have improved somewhat since then, although some appointments, especially in the country districts, still occasionally excite astonishment among the local residents.

The present Lord Chancellor is Viscount Cave.

TATTOO LIKELY TO BE TALKED OF THE WORLD OVER

Forty Thousand Spectators Fairly Wild With Delight Over Performance Staged at Wembley Exhibition.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Aug. 25.—(Cable)—The tattoo staged at the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley last night, for the first time, is likely to be talked of the world over.

The forty thousand spectators were fairly wild with delight over the evolutions of the soldiers to the accompaniment of massed guards bands or pipes. An especially wonderful performance was given by recruits of the air force, who had had only three months' service.

The final scene in the tattoo recalled the sacred glories of Flanders' fields and was almost too pertinent for many of those who witnessed it. The great crowd of spectators rose instinctively when the soldiers, wearing the familiar old war-timers' khaki, along with the pensioners from the Chelsea Royal Hospital for invalid soldiers, the Boy Scouts and the soldiers of today joined in singing "Abide with me," while plain wooden crosses representing the war cemetery were dimly showing in the background.
