Firemen's Union Reopens Diesel Engine Quarrel

MONTREAL (CP) — The bitter firemen's quarrel with Canadian Pacific Railway, generally considered settled after two strikes, innumerable discussions and a royal commission report, was reopened Wednesday.

Unions Will Fight For Rights — Jodoin

VANCOUVER (CP) — Claude Jodoin, president of the Canadian Labor Congress, said Wednesday night the union movement will fight for its rights come what may.

Mr. Jodoin spoke at the 50th anniversary convention of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, the country's largest national union with 35,000 members.

Mr. Jodoin, in apparent reference to U.S. led international unions, said that while Canadian labor was ready to co-operate internationally "we don't need any outsiders to tell organized labor what it has to do."

Donald MacDonald, secretary-treasurer of the CLC, said anti-labor forces are stronger than ever and this is no time for complacency.

MOSHER SPEAKS
The 445 delegates also heard from their "grand old man of labor," A. R. Mosher, 77-year-old original CBRE president who organized the union in 1908 and went on to form the Canadian Congress of Labor which merged with the Trades and Labor Congress in 1956 to become the CLC of today.

He spoke of the days of 50 years ago when he and other employees of the government-owned Inter-Colonial Railway met in Moncton, N.B., to form the CBRE.

The convention started Monday and winds up Friday. Many resolutions have yet to reach the convention floor.

The convention did approve a monthly dues increase to $3 from $2 which will increase revenue by $35,000 a month.

Union President William Smith and Secretary-Treasurer Don Seord urged acceptance of executive proposals that the national office's share be increased to $1.55 from $1.05 a month.

NEEDED FOR EXPANSION
Mr. Smith said the increase is needed in the planned expansion of the union beyond the transport field. Mr. Seord urged delegates not to "play with peanuts" but to do "as the United Mine Workers and the United Steel Workers do."

Pro-Nasser President For Lebanon
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Rashid Karami, a Nasser admirer who leans to neutralism in foreign affairs, is Lebanon's new premier. The former rebel leader of an eight-man cabinet intended to restore peace to a nation in which passions still run high.

President Fuad Chehab named Karami to the premiership Wednesday night. He announced selection of the 37-year-old Sunni Moslem from Tripoli after using troops and tanks to halt an outburst of civil warfare between Christians and Moslems Wednesday that left 19 dead.

Karami takes over the job vacated by Sami Solh, a pro-Western Moslem who twice was the target of assassins during 4½ months of revolt in this half-Moslem, half-Christian land against the administration of President Camille Chamoun.

SOLH IN TURKEY
Solh now is in Turkey. He quit Beirut quietly last week, leaving behind his resignation to take effect on the expiration of Chamoun's term Tuesday. Chamoun himself retired to his summer home at a Christian village in the mountains back of Beirut.

Like Chehab, who commanded the Lebanese army during Chamoun's administration, Karami wants the remaining 9,500 U.S. troops based in Lebanon to get out. He has suggested Oct. 15 for the final withdrawal.

Jobless Warning By CLC

OTTAWA (CP)—In the face of a repeat of last winter's record high unemployment the Canadian Labor Congress has called on the government to say what it is going to do about it.

The call was issued by the 1,000,000-member labor organization following a Dominion Bureau of Statistics estimate Wednesday that at Aug. 23 there were 281,000 persons in Canada looking for jobs, and another 37,000 on temporary layoff.

The CLC termed the situation alarming. The DBS figures, showing 105,000 more unemployed than at the same date a year earlier, followed a statement Tuesday by Labor Minister Starr that the unemployment situation in the coming winter could be as bad as that of last winter.

ASK STATEMENT
The CLC Wednesday called on Prime Minister Diefenbaker for an immediate statement of government plans to provide jobs.

A congress statement also referred to the government's decision not to put the supersonic Arrow interceptor into production at this time. Employment of some 26,000 Canadians could be affected.

Describing the Arrow issue as a difficult decision, it said the congress will want to study the situation carefully before making a full statement, particularly since "the government's announcement is not clear on a number of points."

FIGURE DOWN
The 281,000 unemployed figure of August compared with 291,000 without jobs and 20,000 laid off temporarily a month earlier. A year earlier, there were 176,000 not working and 18,000 temporarily laid off.

On the employment side, the DBS estimate from a sampling of 30,000 households indicated 6,025,000 persons had jobs at Aug. 23. This was up 2,000 from a month earlier and down by 22,000 over the year from August, 1957.

The August unemployment estimate compared with the post war high of 390,000 recorded in March of this year.

Mishaps Shake Canaveral
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Cape Canaveral and the missile town of Cocoa Beach returned to normal today after a hectic seven hours during which a Polaris test rocket ran amok and another missile crashed and burned.

A Bomarc guided missile was incidentally involved in the second mishap. The Canadian government decided this week to introduce the Bomarc into the Canadian air defence system.

No one was hurt, but quite a few persons were shaken for a time.

The area, a finger of land that juts out into the Atlantic off Florida's east coast, was bombed with fiery debris Wednesday when the Polaris twisted off course and was blasted from the sky.

WAS FORCED SETTLEMENT

W. E. Gamble, Canadian chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen (CLC) gave as reasons for the reopening of the issue that:

(1) Settlement of the dispute last May was practically forced on the union by government threats to make the Kellock report law;

(2) The firemen issue was merely a clause in the old 1956-1958 contract, and the May settlement applied only to the old contract, leaving the issue open for renegotiation in the current contract talks;

(3) Certain things have happened since May to show that the union's stand was right and the railway's wrong.

He did not elaborate, but the union has steadfastly maintained that a third man is needed to ride the cab with the engineer and head-end trainman for safety reasons.

CPR Vice-President R. A. Emerson, in charge of operations and maintenance, said: "The experience of Canadian Pacific during and since the strike... has corroborated under actual operating conditions that firemen are not required on diesel locomotives...."

The union struck twice within 21 months between May 1, 1956, and May 31, 1958—The period of the old contract—and both strikes were over the firemen issue. The first was settled on condition that a royal commission be set up to investigate the dispute, and the understanding was further negotiations would be in the light of the commission's report.

REJECTED REPORT
The union rejected the report, and struck again early in May this year. Settlement was reached May 13.

At that time the union and the CPR issued a joint statement accepting the principle that firemen are not necessary on the CPR's freight and yard diesels and the railway's intentions not to hire any more firemen. All who were employed before 1956 were retained, however.

The union's demands on a new contract include an 18-per-cent wage increase. Talks on the new contract were suspended while the union went before a conciliation board to combat a proposal by Canadian National Railways for "sole discretion" to assign firemen to jobs.

CNR - union conciliation hearings are to resume Oct. 6.

Montreal Rejects Gas Sale Inquiry

MONTREAL (CP) — The city executive committee Wednesday rejected a motion asking Lieutenant Governor Onesime Gagnon to grant requests for a royal commission inquiry into the sale of Montreal's household gas distributing facilities by Quebec Hydro to the Quebec Natural Gas Corporation.

The motion was placed before the committee by Pierre Desmarais and seconded by J. N. Drapeau. Voting against were acting chairman Murray Hayes, Mayor Sarto Fournier and committee member Alfred Gagliardi.

Chiang Can Hang On — US

WASHINGTON (AP)—The estimate in U.S. defence headquarters is that Nationalist China is strong enough to throw back any Red Chinese invasion attempt against Quemoy without help from U.S. combat forces.

Conversely, the defence department believes there is no certainty that Nationalist China could knock out guns on the China mainland if they tried. This official assessment is based on present circumstances. Authorities said it could change if any of the factors changed—for example, if China went all out to conquer Quemoy without regard to frightful military losses or the danger of touching off a nuclear war.

The estimate became known as the gloom pervading the Formosa Strait crisis for a month appeared here to be lifting somewhat.

AT AN IMPASSE
U.S. figures on relative Nationalist and Communist Chinese military strength in the embattled area showed a balance that just about added up to an impasse.

They included about 80,000 Nationalist soldiers dug in on the defences on Quemoy, and about 85,000 Red soldiers and fairly ineffectual naval forces in the area facing Quemoy. It is a military axiom that any attacking force, especially over water, should outnumber the defenders by two or three to one.

The low number of Red soldiers in the Quemoy area raises the question of whether Peiping ever intended to launch an invasion of Quemoy. But the Chinese presumably could stage a quick buildup. A new single-track rail line from interior China to Amoy could move men and supplies rapidly.

Intelligence reports picture the Communists as being as deeply dug in on the mainland as the Nationalists are among Quemoy's bomb-proof honeycombs. Estimates are that any Nationalist air raids, even with napalm and high explosives, could not silence the artillery. They probably could, officials said, reduce the artillery's effectiveness.

Private Enterprise Best Says Premier Duplessis
BEAUMONT, Que. (CP)—Premier Duplessis Wednesday endorsed private enterprise as the best agent for opening up the province's resources as he inaugurated a new hydro-electric power development on the St. Maurice River.

The premier conceded that nationalization was all right in its place, but not as a working policy for his government.

He pushed a button starting three of the six generators in a new $56,500,000 development built by the Shawinigan Water and Power Company. When the other three generators begin operating the plant will produce 246,000 kilowatts, bringing the total output of the 238-mile river's seven developments to 1,510,000 kilowatts.

Beaumont is about 105 miles north of Trois-Rivieres.

Students Poll On Integration

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Four Little Rock Central High School students announced Wednesday night they have mailed questionnaires to 1,236 pupils enrolled at the school in an effort to determine their views on opening it.

A spokesman for the group said postal card questionnaires were mailed Tuesday and the first replies are expected today.

The cards ask, "do you wish to have Central High School open, whether segregated or integrated? Answer yes or no but do not sign your name."

The two boys and two girls who prepared the cards said the results would be accurately counted and shown to "any responsible questioning groups, including the press, in order that the true sentiment of the student body may be known."

They said they expected to know the results Friday.

Move To Aid Poor Members

MONTREAL (CP) — A new "bill of rights" for Commonwealth trade, one that may strengthen the bargaining position of the weaker members, likely will emerge when the two-week trade conference ends Friday.

All through the day Wednesday delegates tussled with what was reported to be a lengthy draft communique, one to be issued Friday setting out the aims and strivings of the 11-country partnership and its views on what is fair trade and how it should be achieved.

It likely will express Commonwealth agreement that the wealthier members where possible should not bar their doors to prevent the free flow of manufactured goods from low-income members. This would help the low earners achieve higher living standards.

MAY END "DUMPING"
It may suggest that such practices as undercutting of prices and "dumping" of goods in a competitor's markets are repugnant to the membership and should be rejected.

And it may urge that where the Soviet and its satellites are either big producers or buyers of certain goods, an approach should be made to try to get these iron curtain countries into world commodity agreements to guarantee markets and prevent violent changes in prices.

All these actions may form the basis for a concerted Commonwealth move to free more of the barriers of trade. New attacks against restrictions may be carried out in the forums of the world or in the new Commonwealth Economic Consultative Council created Wednesday.

SET UP CONTROL AGENCY
The Earl of Home, Britain's secretary for Commonwealth relations, announced at Wednesday's confidential talks that the conference agreed to the establishment of the new central agency, to be set up in London in a new building to be donated and to be known as "Commonwealth House."

Commonwealth House will be staffed by the Commonwealth Economic Committee, a group made up of high commissioners or their representatives, providing facts and figures on trade, investments, production and consumption of goods.

The highest level of consultation under the new CECC will be among finance ministers or trade ministers. The finance ministers will continue to meet at least once a year.

They now usually gather at the time of the annual meetings of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank.

Other action Wednesday: 1. The Commonwealth agreed in principle to build a $246,400,000 round-the-world telephone and telegraph cable service linking up all parts of the partnership over a 10-year period. A U.K. spokesman said at first Britain will pay 50 per cent of the costs. Lord Home later issued a revised statement saying Britain only committed herself to bear a "substantial" part of the costs.

2. Britain announced she will set up an overseas research council to place her industrial, medical and agricultural research facilities at the disposal of all Commonwealth members.

Conservative MP Dies In Manitoba
WINNIPEG (CP)—Val Yacula, 50, Progressive Conservative member of Parliament for Springfield, died of a heart attack at his home here Wednesday night.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If Frank Sinatra had his way, he would revolutionize the working habits of the movie industry.

For 50 years, the studios have operated the same as most businesses—from 9 in the morning until 6 at night. Sinatra now is doing his third film on a noon-to-8 p.m. schedule, and he thinks it's the greatest. The picture is Some Came Running, and Frank said it is more than four days ahead of schedule.

"My system makes sense," he argued. "Most show people have learned to perform at their best in the afternoon and evening. Why should they be required to work in the morning just to follow the custom?"

START REFRESHED

"This way, you can get a good sleep and start work refreshed. It's especially great for the girls, who can get up at 9 instead of 5 a.m. to start their makeup and hairdressing. We have a break for a meal at 4 and eat right on the set. Very often we'll finish much before 8 p.m. because we move so fast."

Frank's next objective: A four-day shooting week.

The social whirl: June Allyson lighted up her hilltop estate to celebrate hubby Dick Powell's start of a third season with the Zane Grey Theatre on TV. They have a fabulous 50-acre place overlooking Mandeville Canyon complete with private lake. Says June: "I like it so much I don't want to leave to make a picture."

Among those sampling antipasto on the terrace: Richard Egan and his bride, Pat Hardy; the Lloyd Nolans; Lew Ayres and Joanne Dru, a promising duo....

Delay Probe Into Lambton Deaths

LAKE MEGANTIC — The coroner's inquest into the deaths of Provincial Police Detective J. D. Levesque, of Lake Megantic, and Albert Bolduc of Lambton, who died Tuesday night following a shooting incident near Lambton, was opened yesterday by Dr. Joseph Bolduc. It was adjourned "sine die" pending the recovery of Detective Roger Berube, seriously wounded in the same affray.

Only two witnesses were heard yesterday — Lake Megantic Police Chief Jean Ste. Marie, who identified the body of Detective Levesque, and Wellie Bolduc, who identified the body of his brother Albert Bolduc.

The condition of Detective Berube is described as "serious but satisfactory" by hospital authorities at Thetford Mines.

Levesque was killed almost instantly Tuesday night when he fell under a hail of revolver bullets in the yard of l'Auberge de la Rivière Sauvage, about five miles from Lambton.

According to police, one of the officers spoke to Bolduc when he parked his car in the hotel driveway. Bolduc then fired twice into the police car, hitting Berube. Levesque jumped out of the other side of the car and began to run around the front of the vehicle toward Bolduc. He was shot over the left eye and fatally wounded.

After sending four youthful companions with him into the hotel, Bolduc drove off in his late model car. Later he was found dead in his car parked on a side road some distance from the other side of Lambton. A 32-calibre revolver was found on the seat behind him.

Junior Squad Entertained By St. Pat's Group

The members of the St. Patrick's Academy Old Boys Association played host last evening to the members of the White Sox baseball team at their regular monthly meeting held at the Hotel Sherbrooke.

President Sylvester Parker welcomed the young athletes and congratulated them on winning the League Championship. Each youngster is to receive a gift from the Association.

Cecil Mullin, president of the Little League, expressed his thanks to the Association for the excellent work it is doing for the youth of the city. Charlie Clark, team manager, expressed on behalf of the members, thanks to those persons who had spent so much time during the past season in helping to coach the young players.

In the business meeting which followed the dinner, Henry Crochett, camp committee chairman gave a report on the activities of the St. Pat's Camp at Stoke Lake. He said 77 youngsters enjoyed three week vacations at the Camp during the summer. Several other groups also used the Camp including the Boy Scouts, the Girl Guides, the St. Patrick's Parish Society and the Lions Club for their camping period for blind persons.

During the six-week period while the youngsters were at camp a total of 5,400 meals were served. The young campers made away with 580 loaves of bread, 207 gallons of milk, 450 pounds of meat and 900 pounds of potatoes.

The camp committee chairman reported that the Lennoxville Optimist Club had made a donation to the Camp as well as the Sherbrooke Branch of the B'Nai B'rith.

The next meeting of the Old Boys will be held on Oct. 29 at which time the guest of honour will be Rev. Brother Philip, formerly of St. Patrick's Academy who was recently named Provincial of the Presentation Brothers.

LADY HENRIETTA BANTING, M.D., widow of the late Sir Frederick Banting, co-discoverer of insulin will address the graduating students of the Sherbrooke High School at the annual commencement ceremonies tomorrow night.

Also on the program for the evening are three numbers by the school choir. The Chairman's remarks will be made by Mr. A. C. Ross, chairman of the Board of Protestant School Commissioners.

The Salutory address will be given by Betty Astbury and the Valedictory by Doreen Hodge.

Hold Boy In Woburn Slaying

MONTREAL — A 17-year-old youth was arrested by Montreal police Wednesday night as a material witness in the revolver-slaying Tuesday of Wellie Grondin, 50-year-old Woburn, Que. farmer.

Police said the youth was taken into custody outside St. Patrick's Church in downtown Montreal after an attempted purse-snatching. Two constables passing by at the time made the capture.

Grondin was found on the floor of his farm house at Woburn, 100 miles south of Quebec City. His car was spotted smashed in a ditch nearby.

Police said they believed at first that robbery was the motive for the shooting. But after the youth's arrest Wednesday night they said the man may have been killed in an argument.

HOLD INQUEST FIRST

In Quebec province no charges are laid in case of violent death until after a coroner's inquest has been held.

The youth was captured when two traffic constables answering the shouts of Rolande Riche of Montreal and Pauline Samson of Lancaster, N.B. The two women said a youth had attempted to grab their purses.

Bar Regrets Passing Of Senator Nicol

Ald. Carrier Fortin yesterday paid tribute on behalf of the St. Francis Bar, the batonnier, Albert Leblanc, and himself to Senator Jacob Nicol who died Tuesday afternoon at the age of 82.

In his statement, Ald. Fortin noted:

"The St. Francis Bar learned with regret of the death of the Honorable Jacob Nicol, dean of the association members."

"For many years Mr. Nicol exercised his law practise in our district and he created for himself a reputation of being an untiring worker and an informed jurist."

"Although he stopped practising in 1935, he nevertheless remained a charter member of our Bar until his death, assisting almost regularly at all our reunions where he would give judicious advice to young lawyers ornamented with personal and at times humorous, anecdotes."

"He showed particular attachment to the St. Francis Bar by donating a generous grant to increase the library."

In name of Mr. Albert Leblanc, our batonnier, and of all the lawyers of the St. Francis Bar, I wish to offer to Mrs. Nicol and to all the members of the family my profound condolences."

"HOME-WARD BOUND" — The new model home, won by Roland Boutin of Coaticook, at the recent Sherbrooke Fair, is steadily making its way to Coaticook. Barring an assortment of trivialities — such as trying to make the "Four Corners" turn on the back road to Lennoxville — the house should be in Coaticook tonight. The picture above was taken about an hour after the house reached the "Four Corners" and had to be jacked over to the left to avoid hitting the telephone pole. It spent the night in Lennoxville. Mayor Renews Plea For Civic Centre

A renewed appeal for city-wide support behind the civic centre project and promises of a new industry settling in Sherbrooke within the next seven months were made by Mayor Nadeau yesterday following the nomination meeting at the Superior School when he and four aldermen were all re-elected by acclamation.

The re-election of the mayor, West Ward Ald. J. M. Jeanson, North Ward Ald. Paul Gervais, South Ward Ald. Carl Camirand and East Ward Ald. Felix Thibault without opposition is a first in Sherbrooke's municipal history.

City Clerk Henri-Paul Emond declared the nominations closed at 11 p.m.

THE MAYOR

"We must approach the problem of our youth," the mayor said in his address. "The population is ready to furnish a civic centre."

The project should be realized in 1959, he said, and the building could be constructed on the site of the city-owned old Central School on King St. West.

"We will make an appeal to the generosity of the industrialists and to the senior governments. We must go where the money is to answer the need."

He called for all interested parties to work "hand in hand" with the city council.

INDUSTRIES

The mayor said in six or seven months Sherbrooke will have enough industries to absorb the unemployed.

"We have been working for a few months on a new industry," he stated and indicated that confirmation of its settlement here was expected shortly.

Referring to the elections by acclamation, Mayor Nadeau said "a new page has been written in the municipal affairs of Sherbrooke."

He said in the past two years, of 11 council members eight

The Municipal Acclamations

Mayor Armand Nadeau and his four City Council colleagues who received acclamations at yesterday's nominations will be entitled to regard the event as a vote of confidence in their past administration and an authorization to continue along the same lines in the future.

But with all due respect to the present administration at the City Hall and with proper credit to their accomplishments, a distinct lack of public interest is apparent from the fact that no opposition was forthcoming this year.

A man in public life should expect to give a clear account of his stewardship at periodic intervals and the only manner in which this can be achieved under our parliamentary system is by an election contest. At that time, the office holder must listen to the complaints of citizens and is given an opportunity of defending his record. The probability of an election tends to keep a mayor or alderman on his toes, inclines to make him more receptive to the requests of the public. We have made this point before but it bears repeating at this time.

Perhaps one reason for the dearth of candidates, especially in the municipal field, is the high cost of elections, which makes it almost impossible for a man to seek office unless he has the financial support of a large group of friends. Too often those dissatisfied with an administration, especially when the dissatisfaction is based largely on caprice or personality, are unwilling to give any material support to a man who would be ready to carry the opposition banner.

In the meantime, congratulations are due to Mayor Nadeau and Aldermen Paul Gervais, Felix Thibault, Carl Camirand and J. M. Jeanson on their re-election by acclamation. Continuity in service on city council has its advantages and can pay dividends in solid accomplishment for the city of Sherbrooke.

In The Line Of Duty

The tragic death of a police officer, shot down in the line of duty, is a sombre reminder to all citizens of the risks that our law enforcement officers face as a matter of course. Fortunately, in this country, gunplay is not as common in crime as it is in other countries. But when it does occur, and results in the death or serious wounding of officers, the entire community is shocked.

On Tuesday night, Provincial Police Detective J. D. Levesque of Lake Megantic was killed and Detective Roger Berube was seriously wounded. Later, another man who was being sought by police in connection with the shootings, was found dead with a gun beside him.

From all reports, this shocking sequence of events followed a routine police investigation, the kind of job a police officer expects to do every working day. People are sometimes prone to criticize their law enforcement officers. The criticisms usually stem from minor irritations. But the charge has often been made that our police, civic and provincial, are overworked and underpaid. If this be true, then the criticism for things done or not done should be directed not at the police officers themselves but at those who are responsible for setting law enforcement policy.

The policeman, after all, is only doing his duty.

Colored Baths

Getting children to take a bath has always been one of the problems of parenthood.

Some parents have dreamed up ingenious ruses whereby the offspring is popped into a tub almost before he or she knows what is happening. Others offer rewards for each bath. And still others, of course, simply say "time for a bath," and brook no nonsense.

But how many parents — especially those for whom the words "time for a bath" are not very successful — have thought of giving children colored baths?

It's very simple says an article on home tips. Simply add a few drops of harmless vegetable coloring to the water.

One night, it will not be time for just "a bath," but for a green bath. The next time, a red bath can be drawn, and so on.

In time, the young victim may become so befuddled by the ever-changing and brilliant colors of his bath water, he will plead for just an ordinary bath.

And that, most parents would agree, would be an ideal situation.

WHOOPERS UNLIMITED?

Mr. N. S. Novakowski, a biologist with the Canadian Wildlife Service, recently spotted three baby whooping cranes in the Northwest Territories section of Wood Buffalo National Park. His discovery boosts to thirty-five the known number of these stork-like, skinny-legged creatures which appeared destined for the "Bird of Extinction" award as recently as 1945, when there were only seventeen.

Careful conservation measures in both Canada and the United States have resulted, therefore in a one hundred per cent increase in whoopers, and they are appealingly portrayed in newspaper photographs as new ones are discovered from time to time.

This is very laudable, but we remind Mr. Novakowski that back in 1890, a benign gentleman from New York City thought it would be nice if Central Park's trees were home to a few representatives of each of the birds mentioned in Shakespeare's plays. One of these was the starling, and he imported a few from Europe and turned them loose in the park. All this may be "Much Ado About Nothing," but there is also more than a touch of "Love's Labor's Lost" about it, too, and suffice it to say that the pesky birds spread and multiplied throughout the continent beyond the avian importer's wildest dreams.

This is just a way of expressing our hope that the whoopers won't be so much encouraged that we'll come downtown some morning and find them crowding people off the benches in Gore Park. We don't expect, though, that Mr. Novakowski and other officials of the Canadian Wildlife Service will take our warning too seriously. You know how these government officials are—can't tell them anything.

GET MUMPS EARLY

(Owen Sound Sun-Times)

For the most part medical science seeks to keep people from being victims of various diseases. In the case of mumps, however, the advice is to try and get the disease while you are young. There is much less likelihood of infection after exposure to mumps than to measles or chickenpox. This "low order of communicability" probably accounts for the fact that so many adults escape the disease during childhood only to develop it in later years. Dr. Edward B. Shaw said in the current Journal of the American Medical Association received by the Health League of Canada.

The best time for a person to have mumps is during childhood, when the possible complications are not very severe. In adulthood, mumps can be followed by serious — and sometimes lasting — complications. In order to prevent the possibility of severe adult infections, it might be desirable to deliberately expose a child

De Gaulle's Constitution

Stability Issue In French Vote

By HAROLD KING

PARIS (Reuters)—Citizens in France and its 18 overseas territories on Sunday will vote on the measures designed by Premier Charles de Gaulle to ensure stability in future French governments.

Voters on French territory around the world will be asked one question in a referendum: "Do you approve the constitution proposed to you by the government of the republic?"

The constitution, which will bring France's Fifth Republic into being, embodies in its 92 articles the remedies de Gaulle says will cure France of the political ills which have beset it during the 12 years of the Fourth Republic.

Territories giving a "Yes" vote will become members of a form of French commonwealth in which a right to independence will be recognized. A "No" vote from any territory will mean complete independence from France and the loss of all economic and military assistance.

A "Yes" vote on the constitution is generally expected throughout French possessions. Only French Guinea on the west coast of Africa is virtually certain to turn down the constitution and thus break away from France.

A resounding "Yes" vote on the referendum would be another personal triumph for de Gaulle. He languished in the political wilderness for 12 years with his ideas for constitutional reform before he was recalled this year when the Fourth Republic foundered.

The de Gaulle principles contained in his new constitution include separation of the executive and legislative powers of the government and the switch of the real power from parliament to the president of the republic.

These are the principles he proposed in 1946 after voluntarily relinquishing the reins of government because he believed the multitude of parties made the task of governing too difficult.

The constitution is designed to reduce the power of parliament and to make it difficult for cabinets to be overthrown.

The president—a post made to order for de Gaulle—will be elected for seven years by a special college of electors instead of by parliament. The college of electors will consist of mayors, municipal councillors in France and overseas, members of parliament and will number 50,000 to 75,000.

The premier of the Fifth Republic will be appointed by the president. At present, the premier has to be invested by an absolute majority of the National Assembly.

The president will be empowered to dissolve parliament, but not more than once a year, after consulting the premier and presidents of the two houses of parliament. He will negotiate international treaties and he will have sweeping emergency powers in national emergencies.

The de Gaulle constitution contains an important provision aimed at stabilizing cabinets and avoiding the defeats and resignations that were commonplace during the life of the Fourth Republic.

This states that the premier is assumed to have the assembly's confidence until the opposition offers a motion of censure. This has to be approved by an absolute majority.

It is generally assumed that de Gaulle will step up into the strengthened position of president. Socialist Guy Mollet, a former premier, has been mentioned as de Gaulle's choice as the new premier.

Approval of the constitution will mean elections in November. The existing National Assembly mandate does not expire until 1961. But de Gaulle is convinced the country has shown clearly its contempt for the existing parliament and that a fresh appeal to the people is essential.

The Communist party — the largest single party in France — has bitterly attacked the constitution as leading to personal dictatorship and fascism.

TRIPLE COUP IS RARE

INDEED

Nancy Allen of New York writes: "A footnote in Watson's book says 'The triple coup is extremely rare.' Here is one.

"I won the opening club lead in dummy and led the queen of spades. East covered and I took the ace and jack. I was rather more pleased than annoyed when West showed out. After all, as Watson says, the coup is very rare.

"I led three rounds of diamonds. A heart went on the second diamond and I trumped the good queen. This left me with two more trumps than East. Back to dummy's ace of hearts to leave me only one excess trump.

"A second club lead put me in dummy and I ruffed a third heart. East discarded a club.

"I played a third club and East followed. Now I led dummy's jack of diamonds and it did not matter what East did. He could only make one trump trick.

"Such is success. My partner said that I had a bad three-spade bid and West muttered something about the silly girl trumping a lot of her own tricks.

Nancy did trump some of her tricks but it was a real triple coup and the only way to make her contract once trumps failed to break.

to the disease, thus ensuring lifelong immunity, Dr. Shaw said.

However, this introduces the potential risk of secondarily exposing adults who may have the illness with greater severity and sometimes permanent damage.

There is no really reliable and predictable means of artificially inducing immunity. The best means of acquiring lifelong immunity is to have mumps before puberty, said Dr. Shaw, who is clinical Professor of Pediatrics at the University of California Medical Centre and Chief of the Communicable Disease department at the Children's Hospital, San Francisco.

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — The voyages of the American submarines Nautilus and Skate under the polar ice pack have given a new dimension to the intensified assault on our Arctic frontier.

The fact that surface ships can operate in Arctic waters only for a few weeks in the late summer, and then only south of the permanent ice pack, has had a most restricting effect on Arctic development. But Nautilus and Skate may have changed all this, for they have pointed the way to the use of cargo submarines in the Arctic.

These American nuclear subs "demonstrated that the Arctic can become the Mediterranean of the modern world," commented Northern Affairs Minister Alvin Hamilton. He reported that British interests are contemplating use of submarine oil tankers and ore carriers — the latter specifically for transporting iron ore from the Hudson Bay area to world markets.

Instead of being economically handicapped by distance from markets measured in terms of conventional transportation routes, Arctic oil and minerals might actually enjoy a competitive advantage from the short submarine haul through polar seas to Europe. Development of the nuclear submarine as a low-cost bulk carrier, officials here say, would be a major technological breakthrough making possible the exploitation of mineral resources otherwise economically inaccessible. As Hamilton put it, cargo subs "could provide an economic foundation for a full development of the resources of one-quarter of Canada."

With the utilization of such sea transportation independent of ice conditions, Hamilton visualizes a two-pronged attack on the Arctic frontier, from the north as well as from the south.

The assault from the south is the government's program to provide road, rail and air transportation facilities to areas of economic promise — roads in the Yukon and Northwest Territories, roads in the northern parts of the provinces, a railroad to the huge lead-zinc deposit at Pine Point, N.W.T., and large expenditures on Arctic airports.

This great capital investment program could readily exceed $500 million. It is a gamble that when the roads and railroads and seaports and airports are built, private enterprise will go in to dig new mines, drill new wells, cut new forests and thus create new jobs and new wealth.

One of the new roads, from Dawson City to Fort McPherson, and ultimately on to the Arctic coast, will give access to an area of more than 70 million acres where an intensive hunt for oil is underway. The companies drilling in this northern Yukon area are said to be concerned mainly with finding reserves to meet anticipated demand 50 years hence. But this oil could reach world markets much sooner by construction of a pipeline to a western Arctic port for shipment by tankers which, with the advent of tanker subs, could be a year-round operation.

However, despite the politicians' flowery description of the north as a vast treasure house waiting to spew forth its riches, the deciding factors in Arctic development are economic. The number of barrels of oil and tons of ore that come out will be determined principally by world prices, production and transportation costs, and tariff barriers.

United Church Sunday School Pupils Conduct Rally Day Service At Bury

BURY — It was a proud and happy day for the pupils of the United Church Sunday School when they took charge of the Rally Day service. The children did remarkably well in their songs, skits, playlets and other numbers and many were the proud parents present.

Superintendent G. Boynton explained the various awards to be earned during the coming year.

Rev. E. Breen presented the badges and prizes won by the children and praised their efforts.

Promotions were as follows: From Kindergarten to Beginners, Darcy Eryou; Beginners to Primary, Vern Coates, Tessie Stokes, Brenda Eryou, Cheryl Morrill, Nelson Rowell; Primary to Junior, Kathryn Bennett, Roger Boynton, Margaret Clark, Donna Hume, Sandra Lowe, Margaret Pehlemann, Carol Stokes, Dawn Stoddard.

The following prizes were awarded for best attendance from September 1957 to September 1958: Kindergarten, 1st, Mary Hopkins, 2nd, Carolyn Rowell; Beginners, 1st, Everett Boynton, 2nd, Mark Hopkins; Primary, 1st, Carol Stokes, 2nd, Roger Boynton; Junior High, 1st, Nancy Lawrence, 2nd, Marilyn Lawrence; Senior, 1st, Pamela Goodenough, 2nd, Pauline Goodenough.

The vacancy left by the departure of Miss Gladys Lawrence for Macdonald College has been filled by Mrs. Raymond MacLeod. Prior to leaving for St. Anne de Bellevue, Miss Lawrence was presented with a hymnary by Mrs. E. Cathcart, who voiced the good wishes of the choir, of which the recipient was a member, and of the Women's Association. In expressing her thanks, Miss Lawrence said the book would always remain one of her treasures.

Some months ago, when it was decided that the MacKenzie Chapel would become part of the local church, a drive was made to provide transportation for Sunday School children living beyond walking distance.

First the men of the church went for the pupils in their cars, ultimately the parents began taking turns and now there are nearly 50 children attending Sunday School. This meant more teachers and Mrs. Claud Morrill was added to the list. Other mothers co-operated in every way.

The chapel has been moved from Gould Station and is now on its new foundation at the rear of the church, where it will fill a long felt need as a recreation hall for various church activities.

Concerts Of Recorded Music To Be Resumed At Cowansville Art Centre

COWANSVILLE — The two concerts given in the spring were so successful that the Cowansville Art Centre has decided on a further series. They will again be given by William Kennedy, in response to many requests for programs similar to those previously given. The equipment to be used will be the same.

A large proportion of the audience has been French, hence the first program will be music by French composers. The full programme is as follows:

Gounod, Faust Ballet Music Metropolitan Opera Orchestra; Gluck, "Divinité du Styx" from "Alceste," sung by Suzanne Danco, soprano; Massenet, "Le Reve from "Manon" and "Pourquoi me reveiller," both sung by Ferruccio Tagliavini, tenor; Bizet, "Habanera" and "Seguidilla," from "Carmen," both sung by Conchita Supervia, one of the great Carmens of all time.

Massenet, "Ahi fuyez, douce image" from "Manon," Lalo, "Valse, ma bien-aimée," both sung by Richard Crooks, tenor, Faure, "Trois Chansons," both sung by Richard Crooks, tenor, "Requiem Mass," Paris Philharmonic Chorus and Orchestra, Couperin, "Les Folies Francaises" for Harpsichord, played by Sylvia Marlowe; Leclair, Sonate in D, played by David Oistrakh, violinist; Saint-Saens, Piano Concerto No. 2, soloist Emil Gilles, with Paris Conservatoire Orchestra.

Those who have not heard Oistrakh and Gilles, ought to take this opportunity. They rank among the finest artists before the public today. Not only are they great virtuosos, but both men are sincere musicians. These two qualities are not always found in one person.

The concert will be held in the main salon at the Art Centre on Main Street, on Thursday evening, October 2nd at 8 p.m. As usual with all Art Centre functions, there will be no admission charge. All are welcome. The concert will begin punctually in order to conclude by 10 p.m.

Bored Girl Kills Brother 'Wasn't Mad'

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Diana Humphries, 16-year-old high school student, says she killed her brother and planned to kill her parents because nothing exciting ever happened.

Dr. Andrew S. Hunt, county psychologist who examined Diana, said Wednesday night "her case is that of an environmental-social problem" and that he will ask that she be given a complete psychiatric examination.

"She seems not to have had the proper amount of social life," said Hunt. He added that she has "a very superior intelligence" with an IQ of 142.

In a statement to police Diana told how she shot her brother, Robert, 14, to death when he came home from school Tuesday but backed out of plans to kill her parents when she saw her mother, Mrs. R. D. Humphries, an airlines clerk, approach the house.

ONLY ONE DATE
Lawyer Jack Knight said he was told the girl has had only one date with a boy.

"She told her mother she didn't intend to have any more dates for a while because boys of her age didn't discuss mature enough subjects," Knight said.

In her statement to police, Diana told how she lay in bed and planned to kill all members of her family "so we wouldn't have to suffer any more." She added:

"It seemed that everyone was always tired, that we were always getting up, going to work and school, coming home, eating, cooking meals, washing dishes and going to bed and getting up again. . . I wasn't mad at anybody. I don't know why I did it."

She shot her brother with a rifle as he walked into the den after coming home from school.

Decision On Sunday Law Next Month

TORONTO (CP)—The Supreme Court of Canada will decide next month whether the CBC must stand trial in Toronto on a charge of violating the Lord's Day Act by broadcasting news on Sunday.

The publicly-owned broadcasting corporation is appealing Ontario court decisions rejecting its argument that as a crown agent it is not subject to any act unless specifically named in the act.

The CBC charge is one of five laid in Toronto after the Ontario Telegram launched a Sunday edition March 17, 1957. Other charges were against the three Toronto daily newspapers—Globe and Mail, Star and Telegram—and privately-owned radio station CKEY.

The charge against the Telegram was laid on instruction of Attorney-General Roberts of Ontario after the paper began the Sunday edition which was discontinued July 19, 1957. He consented to the other four charges on complaint of the Telegram.

Royals Edge Leafs To Win Series And Berth In Little World Series

Willie Mays Goes 2-For-3 To Gain Ground On Richie Ashburn In Race; Dodgers Hit 1,807,785 For Season

With three games to play, Willie Mays has upped his lead over Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn to .0019 in their rousing run for the National League batting title.

Mays was 2-for-3 for San Francisco as the Giants lost 10-3 to Chicago Cubs Wednesday, padding his average to .3458 in an 11 game surge in which he has batted at a .528 clip. Ashburn, batting .3439, was idle, returning to action Friday night with the Phils, who also have three games left.

Willie won his lone bat title in 1954 with a .345 average. Ashburn put away his only title in 1955, batting .338.

Los Angeles Dodgers defeated St. Louis 4-3 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Mays walloped a double and triple as the Giants, within one victory of clinching third place, overhauled a 3-1 Chicago lead. But the Cubs cracked the tie with two runs in the eighth then splurged for five runs in the ninth. Don Elston (8-8) was the winner, Ray Monzant (8-10) the loser, both in relief.

SET RECORD

Bob Lillis and Don Demeter homered for the Dodgers, who built a 4-0 lead while setting a National League season double play record with 195. That's one more than the record set in 1928 by Cincinnati and tied twice by the Redlegs.

Stan Musial was 2-for-4 for the Cards, gaining two points for a third place .336 average in the bat race.

Charlie Mabe (2-9) was the loser, while winner Roger Craig (2-0) gave up four of the Cards' five hits in his 7 2/3 innings. Craig also let go a wild pitch—the 67th of the year for the Dodgers, tying the major league record set by the old Philadelphia Athletics of the American League in 1936.

The game drew 12,771, giving the Dodgers a season total of 1,807,785—bettering their previous high of 1,807,526 at Brooklyn in 1947. They have two home dates remaining.

Two Argonaut Players Picked Up In Liquor Raid, But Police Release Them Immediately In Mix-Up Affair

TORONTO (CP)—Two Toronto Argonaut football players were among those present Saturday night when police raided a Negro social club in search of liquor and drugs, coach Hamp Pool said Wednesday.

They were C. R. Roberts, second in the Big Four league scoring race, and Fred Robinson, a guard who played his first game last Saturday.

Pool said he learned of the incident after a found-in said Wednesday morning that the Argo players were released immediately while others were lodged in jail 14 hours.

Pool said he conferred with his players Wednesday morning as soon as word reached him they had been involved. They told him they had gone to the club in the belief they would be attending a jazz concert. They said they had no idea liquor would be on the premises.

Managing director Lew Hayman said the players arrived only five minutes before the police raid and were released as soon as police discovered they weren't carrying liquor.

TORONTO (CP)—Sandy Amaros checked in at Western Hospital Tuesday night with pneumonia—and a whole lot besides.

When hospital officials checked the Montreal Royals infielder's belongings on his admission after the night's International League playoff game with Toronto Maple Leafs, they found so much of the folding stuff in his pockets it took them 20 minutes to count it.

It added up to $4,851 in Canadian, United States and Cuban currency.

Sandy has a habit of lugging his wealth around with him. What's more the Montreal trainer says he's never bothered to use a locker.

Archie Moore And Yvon Durelle To Sign Contracts In Montreal Today For Dec. 10 Title Defence At Forum

NEW YORK (AP) — Archie Moore will sign today to defend his world light-heavyweight boxing title against Canadian Yvon Durelle in Montreal December 10.

Low Meyers, Durelle's American representative, announced the match Wednesday night. He said Moore and Durelle will sign in Montreal today.

Durelle, of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., is the British Empire champ and is listed as the No. 3 contender for Moore's title in the latest ring ratings.

This will be Durelle's first shot at the title Moore has defended six times since taking it from Joey Maxim in 1952. Archie scored a seventh-round knockout over Tony Anthony in his last defence—Sept. 20, 1957.

Harold Johnston, Philadelphia, is rated the No. 1 contender by Ring, with Anthony, a New Yorker, second.

Meyers said Moore will receive a $75,000 guarantee while Durelle will receive 60 per cent of the $75,000 television money and 60 per cent of the gate. Durelle gets a guarantee of no less than $12,000.

The fight will be carried on the regular Wednesday night TV series. It will be blacked out within a 200-mile radius of Montreal.

Rogelio Alvarez, Havana Sugar Kings, Wins IL Rookie-Of-The-Year Award, Edges Royals' Giallombardo By One

MONTREAL (CP) — Rogelio (Borrego) Alvarez, 20-year-old infielder for Havana Sugar Kings, has been named the International League's rookie-of-the-year, it was announced today.

Alvarez, who played both the infield and outfield for the Cuban baseball team, set a new club record with 25 home runs and 88 runs batted in this season.

He took the rookie award by a single vote over Bob Giallombardo, 21-year-old pitcher for Montreal Royals. Giallombardo won 12 and lost nine for Montreal this season and had a fling with the parent Los Angeles Dodgers of the National League in mid-season.

Neil MacCarl of the Toronto Star, president of the International League's Writers' Association, announced the vote today as nine for Alvarez and eight for Giallombardo.

Gene Oliver, 22, Rochester catcher and first baseman, had five votes and Deron Johnson, Richmond outfielder, four.

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (CP) — Rookie Eddie Shack's two goals led New York Rangers to a 5-2 exhibition win over Cleveland Barons of the American Hockey League Wednesday night before a slim crowd of 1,400.

It was Barons' third exhibition loss to National Hockey League clubs at its training camp here. Earlier Detroit Red Wings took them 6-2 and Chicago Black Hawks 5-2.

Another Ranger rookie, Orland Kurtenback, scored one goal with veterans Dean Prentice and Camille Henry getting the others. Cleveland scorers were Art Stratton and Eddie Mazur.

Gordon Pirie Leaves For South Africa

LONDON (AP)—Gordon Pirie, a great runner and talker, bowed off the British track scene Wednesday with honeyed words.

The holder of the world 3,000-metre record at seven minutes, 52.8 seconds sails today for South Africa to run in several races. After that, he will emigrate to New Zealand with his wife Shirley.

"It is unlikely I will be back in Britain for some time," said the 27-year-old athlete, "there is only a slight possibility I will be returning for the 1960 Olympic Games."

Maple Leafs Stopped By Farm Hands

HULL, Que. (CP)—The NHL Toronto Maple Leafs went down to a 3-1 defeat Wednesday night at the hands of a combined team of Rochester Americans and Hull-Ottawa Canadiens in an exhibition hockey game.

The Canadiens and Americans, holding a joint training camp in the new Hull arena, led 1-0 after the first period and scored the clinching markers in the third after the Leafs potted a second-period goal by Dick Duff. Dick Bouchard, Gene Mekik and Ken Giard scored for the opposition.

Kill Last Inning Rally To Cop Tilt 11-10 In Close Battle; Open Series With Minneapolis Millers Tomorrow

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs have those morning after playoff blues today, for the fifth year in a row.

Their ninth-inning rally Wednesday night failed to keep Montreal Royals from the International League baseball championship and a berth in the Little World Series — by one run.

Friday Royals entertain Minneapolis Millers of the American Association in the little series' first game.

Wednesday night's seesaw victory ended in an 11-10 score. In the best-of-seven series for the Governors' Cup it was four games for Montreal to one for Leafs.

In three finals and two semi-finals in the past five years it's been the same story for Leafs: Always a bridesmaid, never a bride.

SEVENTH WIN

For Royals the 26-year-old cup is in their hands for the seventh time.

Wednesday night Royals almost blew a 6-0 first-inning cushion. Leafs threw away their lead in the first two games in Montreal, losing 4-3 and 10-9. They won the third 9-3, but Tuesday were shut out, 5-0.

The teams used 17 players apiece with Montreal using six pitchers, Toronto five. Bob Darrell, Royals' fourth hurler, gained the victory while Bob Tiefenauer, relief star during the season, was the loser.

Pitcher Ed Blake, who followed Tiefenauer, singled to start Toronto's last-ditch rally. A walk and Archie Wilson's single scored a run to make it 11-9, then Mike Goliatt's single left Leafs just one run behind.

With men on first and second, two out, and 3,887 fans breathless, rookie shortstop Bobby Johnson struck out to end game and series.

Royals split $10,000 for winning the title. Leafs get a consolation award of $5,000.

Al Lopez Guides His White Sox To Second Place In AL Standing, Edge Tigers To Turn Trick; Yanks Win

Memo to Al Lopez: Welcome home, coach.

The skipper of the Chicago White Sox, after spending 54 days of the season in the second division and a month in the cellar, has clinched second place again.

In his 11 years as a manager, Lopez never has finished lower than second.

A 4-3, 10-inning victory over Detroit Wednesday turned the trick for 1957.

The New York Yankees, who had just lost six straight since the day they clinched the pennant, ended their longest losing string in more than two years by busting Boston 7-5. Cleveland blew a chance to break a third-place tie with Boston and Detroit by losing 7-4 at Kansas City. Baltimore handed the Washington Senators their fifth shutout in six games, 2-0, on the three-hit pitching of Arnie Portocarrero.

The White Sox won on Jim Landis' triple and Sherm Lollar's single in the 10th off losing reliever Tom Morgan (2-5). Don Rudolph (1-0) won it in relief.

RUNNELS KEEPS LEAD

Mickey Mantle hit his 42nd home run and Hank Bauer his 12th as the Yankees beat Tom Brewer (12-12). Boston's Pete Runnels (1-for-4) kept the AL bat lead, at .324, while teammate Ted Williams (2-for-3) passed Detroit's Harvey Kuenn for second place at .320.

Frank Malzone drove in four runs for Boston with two homers. His second was a three-run shot in the eighth off reliever Ryne Duren, who then struck out three of the last six men to save it for Duke Maas (11-8).

Portocarrero, traded off after a 4-9 record at Kansas City last year, set a modern Baltimore record for victories with his 15th. He walked but two and struck out eight for his third shutout in a bid for the AL's comeback award. Camilo Pascual (8-12) lost it.

Roger Maris drove in three runs with a pair of homers, his 27th and 28th, as the As overhauled a 2-0 Cleveland lead. Rocky Colavito hit his 39th homer for the Tribe. Ralph Terry (11-13) won with Ray Herbert's relief. Gary Bell (11-10) lost it.

Manager Casey Stengel Has Strong Bench Ready For World Series Tiff

NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel of New York Yankees can knock on wood. He has a strong bench.

The Yankee reserves are the best in the business, considerably better than Milwaukee Braves' in ability and versatility.

New York's Enos Slaughter, a .313 batter in his 23rd season in professional baseball, is the best pinch-hitter on either club. The Yanks also got some timely regular season pinch hits from Jerry Lumpe, Elston Howard, Hank Bauer and pitcher Don Larsen.

Adcock will be Milwaukee No. 1 pinch-hitter when he doesn't start. He will be backed up by Andy Pafko and Harry Hanebrink.

STRATEGICAL FIELD DAY

The 1958 World Series which gets under way in Milwaukee next Wednesday figures to provide a strategical field day for both managers.

Much depends on the starting pitchers. When Lefty Whitey Ford pitches for New York, the Braves likely will have Adcock at first base and either switch - hitting

We Didn't Waive On Lewicki, Says Staff Smythe

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League said Wednesday they have not waived on Danny Lewicki, reported on the way to Chicago Black Hawks from Montreal Canadiens.

Stafford Smythe, chairman of the Leafs' management committee, said no decision has been made on Lewicki and the waiver deadline is not until Thursday midnight.

Lewicki was acquired by Montreal from New York Rangers at last summer's draft meeting. The Leafs had let him go after the 1953-54 season.

A Montreal report Tuesday said Chicago was picking up the left winger on waivers. The Leafs, however, have first choice on his services as the league's last-place team in the 1957-58 season.

Columbia Shows Clean Stern To Sceptre In Second Race Of America's Cup

British Hopes All But Gone As Americans Make It Two Straight But English Crew Still Has Hopes

NEWPORT, R.I. — (AP) — The British, their hopes for the America's Cup all but swamped in the bubbling wake of the shark-swift United States defender Columbia, were whistling for wind in today's third race.

Trailing 2-0 in the best-of-seven series, they were banking on wind and more wind to get the British challenger Sceptre off its haunches.

"It's getting better but not enough yet," said Colin Ratsey, Sceptre's assistant helmsman, after Columbia sailed out of sight Wednesday to defeat the challenger by almost a mile and a half. At the finish Sceptre was a grey ghost barely visible on the horizon.

The British had said that winds up to 12 miles an hour were what they wanted for best results. They got it Wednesday.

NEED MORE WIND
But, said Ratsey after the race: "Sceptre's designed for a little more wind. We still haven't got up to the wind we expected to find here, 15 knots."

The weatherman said the British would get that today. The trouble is that the faster the wind, the bigger Columbia's victory margin has been.

"I don't think we're conceding anything yet," Ratsey said. "We're not convinced Columbia is the better boat."

Olin Stephens, Columbia's designer and assistant helmsman, said he doubts Sceptre will go faster. Columbia has shown that Sceptre can't touch her in winds up to 12 miles an hour.

GAVE A CHEER

The defender finished Wednesday's race, pulled down her small spinnaker staysail and spinnaker, and then loosed around the committee boat waiting to give Sceptre a cheer when she appeared out of the gloom. Then the two 70-foot yachts sailed side-by-side back to their moorings.

"We'll beat the hell out of you tomorrow," called Capt. Stanley Bishop, Sceptre's sailing master, across the water. But even when it was for fun Columbia was first by a few lengths to reach her mooring.

Today's race was a windward-leeward match, six miles into the wind and six miles away from it twice around. Wednesday's race, a resail of Monday's contest that was called when the yachts failed to finish within the time limit, was over a 24-mile triangular course.

Columbia skinned around it in three hours, 17 minutes and 43 seconds. Sceptre's time was 3:29.25.

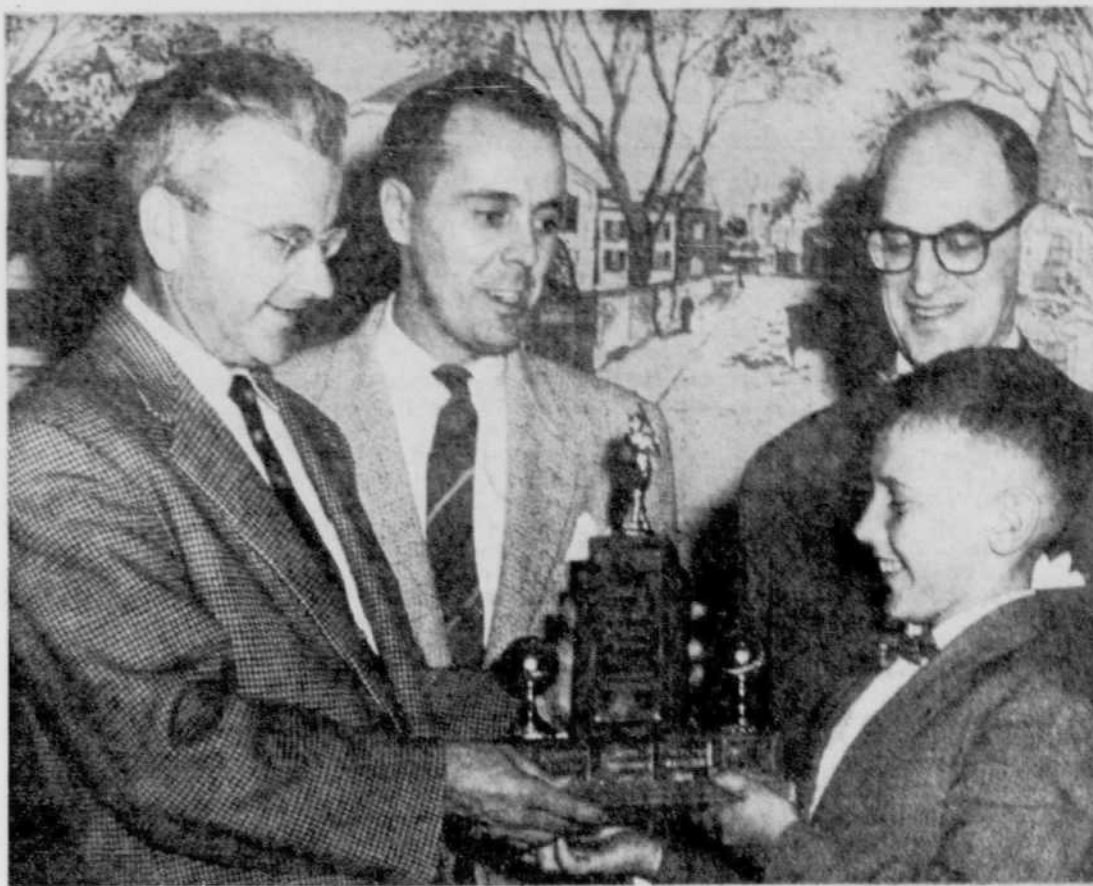

GALLOPED AWAY

On the two reach legs Columbia hoisted her "little Harry" spinnaker and galloped away from the challenger. She led by a half-mile at the first eight-mile mark and nearly a mile at the second.

Sceptre lost some time when she had to luff around the first mark because her skipper, Lt. Cmdr. Graham Mann had misjudged it, and she lost more because she just couldn't sail as close into the winds as Columbia's captain, Briggs Cunningham. But it was on the reaches where Columbia torpedoes her.

Stephens said Columbia won't be hauled out of the water to have her bottom scraped until Sunday. Sceptre's men wouldn't say whether they would ask for a day's postponement in the event they lost today.

If they don't, the 17th challenge for the 107-year-old cup could end Friday. The U.S. is undefeated in the race.

Close Finishes Were On Order Last Night At Local Track; Peter Ritz Wins In 2.12 2-5 For Best Clocking

Two photo finishes were required to determine the winners last night at the local track as the drivers, with only single dashes on the card, were going all out to post victories. The best time of the evening was registered in the sixth race when Robert Jutras teamed Peter Ritz under the wire in 2:12 2/5.

In the first half it was King's Highway, Moko D. Grattan and Linsay Brooke who were setting the pace with the winner at the rear of the field. They went the first half in 1:06, also the best time of the evening. On the second trip driver Jutras pulled out his smooth-going trotter and he gradually moved around the field to finish by a good six lengths.

The fourth and fifth races were the ones which required the photos to determine the winner as in each case only inches separated the top three horses. Gendron's Clever Eddy pulled the surprise with his win at the wire to nose out Coombs' Clever Volo and Cool Breeze Vonian.

In the fifth it was Chabot and Bomber Grattan who finished ahead of Molo Hanover and Mighty Elworthy in the other photo finish. It was close the whole way in fact all classes were very close.

Mosher's Blue Mountain Brooke paid the top figure for a win bet when the sum of $23.50 was collected in the third race. In the second race Dr. Delaney's Shadydale Royal paid his backers $11.10 for a place investment while Mosher's entry topped the show bets with $5.70.

The double was $16.30 for Alie Truax and Desrochers' Dave Adam. The first quinella was $41.70 for Blue Mountain Brooke and Morin's Miss Ruth Grattan B. In the sixth it was $41.70 for the winners while in the ninth $22.60 was picked up for Monocle Man and Buzy Frisco.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

Chicago — Sonny Ray, 171½, Chicago, stopped Jesse Bowdry, 173, St. Louis, 9.

Jesse Bowdry Runs Into Trouble As Underdog Sonny Ray Knocks Him Out

CHICAGO (AP)—Young Jesse Bowdry ran into his boxing jinx Wednesday night. He was knocked out by underdog Sonny Ray and became so emotionally upset he had to be taken to hospital.

Bowdry, 20-year-old native of St. Louis, was knocked out at 1:22 of the ninth round of a scheduled 10-round bout. In 26 professional fights he has lost three times, all to Ray.

Bowdry ranted and raved in his dressing room. Dr. Irving Slott, chief examining physician with the Illinois state athletic commission, worked over him for more than 20 minutes. Finally Dr. Slott ordered Bowdry taken to hospital.

IN TWO DAYS

"I would say he will be in hospital at least two days as a precautionary measure," Dr. Slott said. . . further tests to evaluate the situation must be made."

Bowdry held the upper hand for seven rounds. Ray began pounding in the eighth. Bowdry was wobbling when it ended and Ray drove him to a corner at the start of the ninth. He hammered him with lefts and rights.

Referee Walter Brightmore then stepped in and stopped the fight.

Ray weighed 171½ pounds and Bowdry 173.

St. Francis Valley Interscholastic Soccer League Opens Tomorrow At 4.00 With SHS At Home To St. Pat

The opening game of the newly formed St. Francis Valley Interscholastic Soccer League for Boys of junior high school will take place at the Sherbrooke High School Playgrounds tomorrow afternoon, Friday Sept. 26th at 4.00 with St. Pat's supplying the opposition for Sherbrooke.

The Association is only running a junior league this year, but have hopes of expanding into an eight-team Senior League next year, with the A.D.R. schools which are running their own leagues this year also, joining in. The purpose for forming the league was to give the smaller schools a chance to participate in fall sports, as many could not afford to put out hundreds of dollars to equip a football team and cater to 15 or 20 Boys. In soccer the only equipment needed is a ball, and boys of all sizes have a good chance of playing, which means more boys can participate for less money.

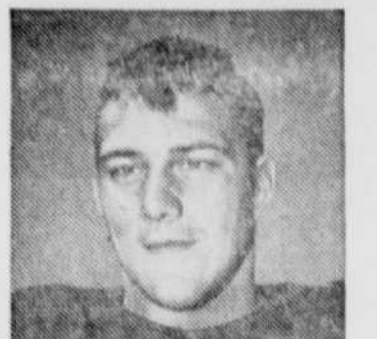

For this year, the boys will be playing two 25 min. hope, and will be allowed 3 substitutes. Also as they are of junior age 14 and under, the footwear will consist of running shoes. Not only will this cut down on expense, but it also helps the lads to kick the ball properly while learning.

The starting line-up for Friday's game will probably look something like this. In goal will be Gary Pattullo, who many will remember as the star goalie for the S.H.S. Bantam hockey team last year. On full back will be Kenny Pariseau and either Geo. Swindon or Robert Cadman. Cadman, who is the youngest and smallest on the team is only 11 years old and in grade 7. Half backs will be Ray Lavalliere, Dickie Coates, Brian Davidson and Bobby Lothrop. The forwards will include - David Hill, Jim Reynolds, Bob Reynolds, Jiff Mills, Sandy Cotton, David Edmond, and Stephen Evans.

Be on hand Friday 4.00 for the opening game.

Bobby Simpson Says New Rule Would Aid Players

Bob Simpson, flashy all-Canadian end with the Ottawa Rough Riders says the rule he'd like to see adopted is this: "Every player should put 'Prestone' Brand Anti-Freeze in his car early in the season. Then he could keep his mind on the game, wouldn't worry about frost, foaming, clogging, rust or corrosion. 'Prestone' Brand is the one anti-freeze that gives positive and complete protection to the cooling system of your car."

It's a good rule for everyone to follow! Because "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze has exclusive magnetic film that coats every surface in the cooling system. Get "Prestone" Brand right away. Cookshire S. S. Pupils Conduct Church Service

COOKSHIRE — Under the direction of the Sunday School superintendent, Mrs. F. H. Tredinnick, a largely-attended service for "Rally Day" was held in Trinity United Church, which was beautifully decorated with large baskets of seasonal flowers.

The theme throughout was "My Father's World—One Neighbourhood." The Sunday School pupils took charge and carried out their tasks with dignity and reverence.

Larry Cathcart acted as leader for the program, and gave the call to worship, the invocation, led in the responsive reading and gave out the hymn numbers. Arnold Macmillan read the Scripture lesson, and the junior and senior choirs sang an anthem, "Blessed Are the Pure in Heart," with the junior choir singing the descant.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison, and the Rev. E. Breen gave out the announcements for the ensuing week. Jimmy Waldron and Bobby Cathcart received the offering, two stories dealing with the theme were read by Vicki Lake, and Billy Tredinnick. The organist, Mrs. Heatherington, provided appropriate music throughout the service.

The Rev. E. Breen gave a short talk, exhorting the parents not only to send their children to Sunday School, but to go with them. Mrs. Tredinnick will be in charge of a nursery class, which will enable the mothers to attend service while the Sunday School is in session and to know that the little tots are in competent hands.

All the Sunday School members received a Rally Day button as a souvenir and special prizes for first place in attendance were given to the following: 30 out of 32 Sundays, Edward Northcott, from Miss Barbara Bewick's class; 31 out of 32 Sundays, Richard Northcott, from Mrs. Breen and Mrs. Vogell's class; 28 out of 32 Sundays, Lyle Bellam, from Mrs. Tredinnick's class; 21 out of 32 Sundays, Scott Pashley from Barbara Learned's and Janet Learned's class; Gail Pashley, from Miss Matthew's and Miss Mackay's class.

Miss M. Ashton Is "Showered" By Warden Friends

WARDEN — Miss Marjorie Ashton was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held in the Parish Hall with about 25 relatives and friends present. Taken completely by surprise she was met at the door by her sister, Eunice, who presented her with a corsage.

The gifts were arranged on a long table over which was suspended a watering can with an umbrella, with streamers attached to the table. The very attractive decorations carried out in blue and white had been arranged by Mrs. W. Copping.

The bride-to-be, whose marriage is taking place on September 27th, was assisted in opening her gifts by her sister, Eunice, and aunt Mrs. O. Ashton.

After the gifts had been opened, refreshments were served buffet style. The table was centered with flowers and blue tapers, also two prettily decorated bride's cakes made by Mrs. C. Caw.

The Doctor Says

PAIN IN CHEST FOLLOWING EXERTION MAY INDICATE HARDENED ARTERIES

Written for NEA Service
Three questions from the two inquirers are closely related.

Q — Is it possible that hardening of the coronary arteries can cause unbearable pain at times? Can hardening of the arteries not show on an electrocardiogram? — Mr. A. A.

A — If the coronary arteries are hardened and thickened so that they do not carry enough blood to the heart muscle, pain (usually known as angina pectoris) is common. Pain is likely to be absent at rest and come on with exertion.

It is possible to have hardened coronary arteries and have nothing evident in the test known as an electrocardiogram.

Q — Can an overactive thyroid cause a heart attack? — W. B.

A — An overactive thyroid (toxic goiter) frequently causes a rapid heart rate but is not a primary cause of a heart attack — if by this is meant a coronary thrombosis.

It is possible, of course, for a person to have changes in the coronary arteries leading to a heart attack and have an overactive thyroid gland as well.

Q — When I was 11 my foster mother forced me to pull my eyelashes out as punishment for disobedience. Since then they fester and itch so that I have to pull them. Is there any hope that they can be made to grow naturally without infection? I am now 39. — Mrs. S. E.

A — This is an incredible kind of punishment. It sounds as if there is some kind of chronic infection in the hair follicles from which the eyelashes grow, and that if this could be mastered they might grow in normally.

Expert advice should be obtained regarding the possibility of using some preparation, perhaps containing antibiotics or sulfa drugs, which might cure this infection.

Q — Is there any danger that a painless cyst on the thumb may turn out to be a cancer? It appeared suddenly about six months ago. — Mrs. W. C.

A — A cyst of this sort is not likely to become cancerous. However, it may be best to remove it surgically, and at the very least it should be carefully watched.

Q — Please tell me what I should do about a sick voice box. I have been troubled with my voice all winter. — R. L.

A — I assume that this refers to chronic hoarseness. If this is correct, it should not be neglected because there could be a tumor or chronic infection such as tuberculosis, which needs specialized treatment.

Today there are instruments for looking directly into the voice box and in all probability this procedure should be performed.

Q — Can you tell me what

Wife Can't Quite Hear Hubby's Call Of Open Road

He is planning to retire in two years and all he talks about is selling the house and buying a trailer so that he and his wife can move from place to place and be free of responsibilities.

She can't think of anything worse than having to give up the home she lives in, say goodbye to old friends, and spend the rest of her married life cooped up in a trailer, always on the move with no plot of ground to call home.

"How can I talk him out of this notion?" she asks. "He thinks after working for 40 years at the same job he has a right to do what he wants to do when he retires. I want him to be happy, but I truly don't think he will be any happier without a home or friends than I will."

My suggestion is that you stop pulling against him and fall in with his bright and rosy plans. Only insist that he make one concession to you. That you rent the house instead of selling it, and give trailer life a year's trial before you definitely pull up roots.

Anything can happen by the end of a year spent traveling around the country. Your husband may be sick and tired of pulling his home behind him. He may hate the cramped living quarters. He may be lonely for his old friends. He may long for a plot of ground on which to raise a garden. He may be anxious to get back home and start making improvements on the house he still owns.

Or, and this is perhaps a little more unlikely, you may find that you like the life of a modern day gypsy. That you enjoy being able to choose your climate, move on when you get tired of a place and make new friends in different parts of the country.

Anything can happen in that year of trying an entirely new way of life. So, take a chance. But don't burn your bridges behind you. Hold on to your home until you have had a chance to try trailer life.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

If you invite guests for a buffet supper at seven and it is nine o'clock before you get around to serving the meal, you are sure to have some unhappy guests. Yet many hostesses think that it doesn't matter when a buffet meal is served.

It does matter to the hungry guest who didn't take the precautionary measure of eating a snack before he left home.

Marriages Of Local Interest

HUGHES—TOZER

RICHMOND, Que. — The marriage of Helen Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tozer of Richmond, to Howard Ernest Hughes of South Durham, took place on Saturday, September 20th, at seven o'clock in the evening in Chalmers United Church. Rev. J. Leslie Dean officiated and the organist, Mrs. H. Frazer accompanied Mrs. Percy Taylor in the rendition of "I'll Walk Beside You" and "O Promise Me". Gladioli and white satin bows were used to decorate the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a strapless, white length gown of white nylon net and lace over taffeta, the matching lace bolero having long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion, was caught with a matching bandeau and she carried a bouquet of yellow Talisman roses. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Marina Hughes, sister of the groom, as maid-of-honor for the bride, was in apricot fluorescent taffeta with matching feather hat and shoulder length veil. Her corsage was of creamy white gladioli. Miss June Clarke, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, wore an emerald green gown fashioned identical to that worn by the maid-of-honor, and carried a bouquet of gladioli.

Little Miss Diane Blouin, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, was in a yellow taffeta frock with matching bandeau and carried a bouquet of bronze mums.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Donald Hughes, the ushers were Mr. Lloyd Oakley, brother-in-law of the groom, and Mr. Dale Hughes, the groom's cousin.

She wore a blue feather hat, black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a pink brown peau de soie and taffeta dress, with brown accessories and matching stole, and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Alex Annotte, grandmother of the bride, was in a grey crepe dress with black accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses.

At the reception in the Legion Hall, the bride's table centered with a three tier wedding cake, was attractively arranged with silver bowls of pink dahlia. Baskets of white dahlia and mauve and yellow asters were used to decorate the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes later left for a wedding trip to the New England States, the bride wearing a brown tulle crepe dress with white lace trim, a beige mohair shorty coat and a corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return, the young couple will reside in South Durham.

Out of town guests were present at the wedding from Toronto, Ont., Montreal, Valleyfield, Beauharnois, Sherbrooke, Asbestos, Danville, Windsor Mills and Greenlay, Que.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. George Stevens, the bride was in a floor length gown of white lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice fashioned with a scoop neckline and lily point sleeves. Her veil of tulle illusion was of finger-tip length and she carried a basket of American Beauty roses.

Beauty Tips

Flattering eyebrows often emerge when a woman merely plucks stray hairs. These hairs give a shaggy, unkempt appearance. After plucking, apply eyebrow pencil by making tiny strokes that look like a natural hair. These give the eyebrow a more natural look than a long continuous line.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

The opening autumn meeting of the Lennoxville League of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Miss C. MacKenzie, Prospect St., on Tuesday, September 16 with Mrs. Geo. MacDonald as co-hostess. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. F. S. Hunting.

The president, Mrs. R. N. Stevenson, conducted the business session which included a report of the welfare convener, showing flowers and cards had been sent to the sick and shut-ins during the summer months.

A rummage sale is to be held in St. Andrew's Church Hall, Sherbrooke, on September 26. All members are asked to assist.

It was planned that as many members as possible call on Mrs. James Stewart and have tea with her on her birthday on September 25.

The work convener, Mrs. A. N. MacKenzie, distributed material to be made into articles for the sale to be held on November 2.

The next meeting will take the form of a Phantom Tea and will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Mayhew, 37 Atto St., Lennoxville, on October 21 at 8 p.m.

The monthly meeting of the Association for the Help of Retarded Children, Sherbrooke County Branch took place in the class room, Mrs. L. Buckman, the president, presiding.

Mrs. Buckman informed the members that the Lennoxville School Board is willing to pay per child, the same amount as it would cost to educate a child in a normal school.

There are five new children enrolled in the school this year. Mr. R. Allatt, treasurer, gave a very satisfactory report, and reported donations from the Elks Club, Rotary Club, H.Y. Club and private individuals.

Mrs. J. Dunn, fund raising chairman, announced the following forthcoming activities: October: auction sale—anyone having any articles they wish to donate please phone L.O. 23468; November 14 and 15: Tag Days; March: Fashion Show; April: Open House.

Mrs. Buckman reported that Dr. Fisher had visited Sherbrooke before school opening and interviewed parents and interested parties of retarded children.

Camptown Brownies Are Brand New And Just Right With Coffee

In Celtic folklore, a brownie is a "tall, dark fellow," but here in the United States, a brownie is something quite different—a delicious chocolate confection that few of us can resist.

Of course, there are lots of recipes for the popular brownie, but, in our opinion, none quite equals this new one for mouth-watering Camptown Brownies. They're scrumptious, a little bit different and how well they go with hot coffee!

Camptown Brownies have the smoothest texture you can imagine, all because of the magic ingredient, marshmallows! The marshmallows completely melt into the batter and happily blend with the tempting flavors of two kinds of chocolate and walnuts.

Brownies and coffee have long been a favorite team for neighbors.

So when you serve Camptown Brownies, be sure to have plenty of extra coffee on hand. You'll find that coffee and brownies disappear in a flash!

Camptown Brownies

2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
2 cups unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate
1 piece
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 cup broken walnut meats
Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar gradually while continuing to beat. Melt butter, chocolate and semi-sweet chocolate together over hot water and add with vanilla to egg mixtures. Fold in flour. Stir in marshmallows and nuts. Bake in greased 9" square pan in moderate oven (350°) about 30 minutes.

Winnipeg Mother Points Up Weaknesses Of Sight Reading

WINNIPEG (CP)—A mother of three children says Winnipeg children are not being taught to read independently—they can recognize only words they've been taught to memorize.

Mrs. Mary Johnson of this city came to this conclusion after testing children from grades one, two and three on their reading ability this summer.

Taking a tape recorder, Mrs. Johnson visited several playgrounds in the city, using a carefully-planned test.

She found that even many of the grade three pupils failed on simple three-letter words if they had not been drilled on them in school.

Mrs. Johnson said the children could not work out a word by the sounds of the various letters. This she said proved the inadequacy of the sight method of teaching reading.

A total of 78 children took the tests—which were simplified after the first few had been heard, because too many errors occurred. The majority of the children tested had passed to higher grades when regular school closed at the end of June.

Commenting on Mrs. Johnson's survey, Education Minister Stewart McLean said he was not in a position to judge the relative merits of the sight and phonetic systems, but added: "I'm told that good teachers use a combination of both."

School Trustee George Frith of Winnipeg, himself a teacher, said there is a need for phonetic teaching in the school reading program.

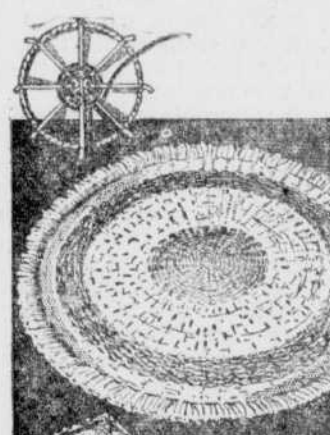

"I'm definitely opposed to the sight method they now use in the schools," he said. "I think Mrs. Johnson is doing the public a service by showing up the system's weaknesses."

John Hawryluk, MLA and principal of Melrose Junior High School in East Kildonan, said,

Homemaking

Even with modern automatic dryers, there is the problem of keeping track of small items. Tie-backs for summer curtains can get tangled in the laundry, for example. Keep them together in a mesh bag on the line together.

Stanstead County School Supervisor Addresses Sutton High Opening

SUTTON — Held on Saturday evening, September 13th, at the school auditorium, the Senior School Opening was highlighted by the address of the guest speaker, Mr. McKeen, B.A., B. Paed., Supervisor of Schools for Stanstead County. His interesting talk entitled "Life Can Be Beautiful" expressed his views on the subject of Education, stressed the necessity for such educational training, and proved that with a foundation of school work a pupil can build a life that can indeed be worthwhile and beautiful.

Mr. McKeen was introduced by the principal, Dr. K. Harper, and thanked by the assistant principal, Mr. Stanley Pergau.

Prior to the school opening exercises in the evening, dinner was served by Household Science pupils to guests, school commissioners, teachers and members of the graduating class.

Other features of the Senior Opening at Sutton High were reports by Mr. Rupert Phelps, Chairman of the School Board, the School Principal, Dr. Harper, and by Mrs. H. Ruiter. The program also included choruses by the School Choir with Mrs. S. Pergau presiding at the organ. The valedictory was given by Wayne Larocque, High School leaving certificates, prizes and track and other sports awards were given.

In his report for the School Board Mr. Phelps lauded the work of the teachers and pupils as well as expressing appreciation for the cooperation of Home and School and other friends of the school. He gave a comprehensive review of the activities of the Board and, among other things, mentioned the purchase of another new school bus and for Household Science pupils a new Singer sewing machine.

Dr. Harper in her report thanked the School Board and others for their loyal aid and reviewed some of the achievements of the students in classrooms and in sports. She predicted that results in athletics should be better than last year's and that it would be a successful year in other ways also. Certain student projects of last year had been carried out with much enthusiasm and had been crowned with success.

Mrs. Ruiter spoke of the efforts of Home and School Association for better conditions for pupils at school and in the homes and reviewed the work of the Association last year. With scholarships and other awards to deserving students, the Home and School does all within its power to encourage and help them.

This year 333 pupils have enrolled at Sutton High, including 15 in Grade XII. There are two new instructors on the staff—Miss Broulette of Cowansville, French specialist, and Miss Yeats of Dunham.

The invocation was given by Rev. M. Brett of Grace Anglican Church and the National Anthem was sung in unison at the close of the program.

Leadership Training Discussed By Boundary Ministerial Association

ROCK ISLAND — The first fall meeting of the Stanstead and vicinity Ministerial Association was held September 15 at Stanstead South church. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Rev. James Ramey, of the First Baptist Church, Newport presided.

Two new ministers of this district and their wives were introduced, Rev. and Mrs. William Feldt, of Island Pond, and Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Thurber, of Derby.

The leadership training program for Sunday school teachers and others interested was discussed. The first session will take place on Friday evening, September 26 at the Congregational church in Coventry, Vt., at 7.30 o'clock.

There will be six classes from which to choose. Four of the classes will deal with four departments of the Sunday school. Two of the classes will be for persons more interested in a survey of the Christian classics, like Pilgrims' Progress by Bunyan, than in Sunday school teaching. There will be three classes to choose from each period separated by a coffee and light refreshment break.

Thoroughly qualified teachers in charge of the classes will include Rev. Maurice Pike, of Burlington, Vt., educational director of the Vermont Congregational conference, Mrs. William Feldt, of Island Pond, specially trained in religious education, Rev. Leroy Hastings, of Orleans, who has given a course on the Christian classics at St. Johnsbury.

Rev. W. H. Welsh, of Bethany Congregational church in Montpelier, was introduced by Rev. Mr. Howard of Craftsbury and spoke in an interesting manner on the subject, "The Minister as church Administrator." "In general church administration means the wise and effective use of resources of the Christian community for the achieving of certain ends," he said.

The program committee for the next meeting, to be held at Newport Centre, with Rev. J. E. Hart of Newport speaking on the subject "Islam, Its History and Political Impact." The date is tentatively set for Monday, October 20.

Supper was served by the Ladies Aid Society of Stanstead South Church, where Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Tyson were the host and hostess. Rev. A. L. Salt, of Christ Church, Stanstead, spoke and Rev. W. Mesler voiced appreciation to the women of the church for the supper.

Ministers represented their churches at Island Pond, Morrisville, Orleans, Albany, Newport, Stanstead, Irasburg, North Troy, Derby, Rock Island, Montpelier.

LADIES AID MEETS
The Ladies Aid of Stanstead South church held the first of its autumn meetings at the church hall, the president, Mrs. Harry Smith, presiding.

Regret was expressed on learning of the failing health of several faithful members and they will be remembered by a greeting card.

Vacation money was turned in and a few gave in the holiday's money. The sum of $10 was voted to the joint flower fund chairman, Mrs. Fred Putney, and the third quarterly payment made to the Church Board for current expenses.

Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Alton Hill were named to act on the turkey supper committee to plan the menu and soliciting lists. The supper will be held October 9 in the church hall.

The date of September 25 was set for the next regular meeting, thus getting the dates back on schedule.

A supper of hot casserole dishes were served to nearly 50
