2008 SPRING THAW

VEHICLE LOAD AND SIZE LIMITS

As is true each year, authorized load limits are reduced during spring thaw on all public roads to take into account the road network's lower bearing capacity during this period. The forecasted starting and ending dates of the restricted load period for each of the thaw zones are as follows:

	Starting morning at 12:01 a.m.	Ending morning at 12:01 a.m.
Zone 1	Monday, March 24	Saturday, May 24
Zone 2	Monday, March 31	Saturday, May 24
Zone 3	Monday, March 31	Saturday, May 24

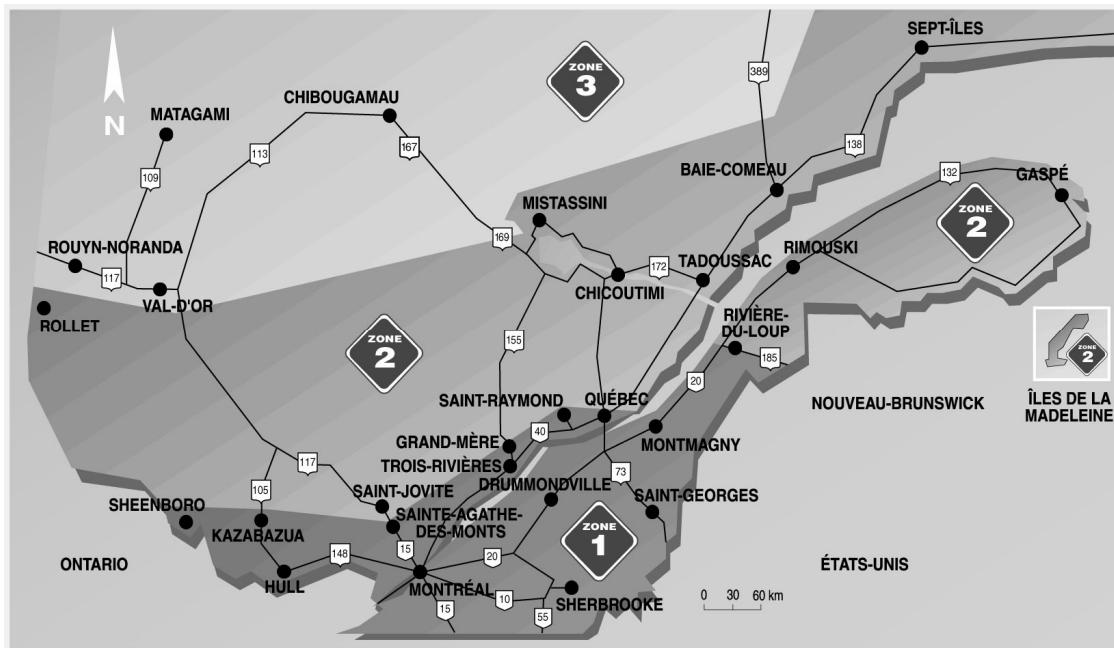

The starting and ending dates of the load restriction period may be adjusted depending on weather conditions. The boundaries of the thaw zones are the same as last year.

Three zones are restricted each year during the thaw period for road vehicles and combinations of road vehicles and they are described on the next page.
