VIOLENT FIGHTING CONTINUES ON THE VERDUN FRONT

French Made Progress South of Caurettes Wood. Artillery Action on Both Sides Was Extremely Fierce Yesterday and Last Night. Italians Hold Austrians in Tyrol.

Paris, June 2.—(Special)—In the course of heavy fighting on the Verdun front, which continued throughout the night, the French progressed slightly south of Caurettes Wood, the War Office statement of to-day announced. The struggle between Thiaumont Farm and Vaux, east of the Meuse, is described as extremely violent. The artillery action on both sides was exceptionally heavy throughout yesterday and last night.

Aside from the Verdun fighting the night passed quietly along the front.

AIR DUELS ON BRITISH FRONT

London, June 2.—The British official statement issued at midnight reads:

Our aeroplanes yesterday had a long running fight with three hostile machines. One of the latter was driven down. One of ours is missing. During the night hostile aircraft dropped eight bombs on Poperinghe without damage.

Throughout the day there was continuous and heavy shelling by the British and German guns of all calibres in the neighborhood of Vimy Ridge, the fires at times becoming intense. The artillery activity extended to a minor degree in the direction of Loos, Ypres and the River Somme. There was some mining in the vicinity of Loos at the reentrant of our trench line about Pricourt and just north of the Somme.

Except for ordinary trench activity there was no infantry engagement in the past twenty-four hours.

GERMANS GAIN FRENCH FIRST LINE TRENCHES

London, June 2.—The Germans have switched their offensive from the region of Le Mort Homme, north-west of Verdun, to the sector between the Thiaumont Farm and Vaux, northeast of the fortress, and have succeeded here in entering French first line trenches between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux Pond.

The attack was made over a front of about two miles and was preceded by violent artillery preparation. The French met the German onslaughts with their machine guns and succeeded in holding back the attacking forces everywhere except at the point between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux Pond. Heavy losses were inflicted on the Teutons, according to Paris.

The heavy fighting around Le Mort Homme and the Avocourt Wood has dwindled to intermittent bombardments since the repulse of German attacks and the launching of a counter-attack by the French, which gave them German trenches 400 metres in extent southeast of Le Mort Homme.

The activity of the artillery on the remainder of the front in France also has lessened in violence. In the Vosges Mountains, near Altkirch, the Germans report the occupation of French positions 350 metres long and about 350 metres deep, and the capture of prisoners and booty.

ITALIANS HOLD BACK AUSTRIANS

The Italians according to Rome, continue to hold back attacks by the Austrians at various points along the Tyrol front. Especially bitter fighting has taken place in the region of the Posina Torrent and southeast of Arsiero, where the Austrians either were stopped or driven back in disorder. Lively artillery duels are in progress in the Lagarina Valley and between the Posina and the Upper Astico Rivers.

ON RUSSIAN FRONT. Artillery engagements and infantry firing are in progress along the whole of the Russian front, but no changes in the positions of the Russians or the Teutons have been reported.

TURKS TAKE THE OFFENSIVE. The Turks, taking the offensive at three points in Asia Minor against the Russians, have temporarily at least brought the Russian advance toward Mesopotamia to a standstill.

All the Turkish attacks were repulsed, except at Mamawakhatun, 50 miles west of Erzerum, which was evacuated by the Russians. Here the fighting was over a front of about twenty miles. Attempts by the Turks who are said to be heavily reinforced by the Austrians and Germans, to press back the Russians near Baiburt and Diarbekir, failed.

SERBS AT SALONIKI.

That the Serbs recently reported as having landed at Salonika are now on the Entente Allied front, on the Greek-Serbia border, is indicated by the latest German official communication. The communication says that a weak attack made by the Entente at the southern end of Lake Doiran was repulsed, and that northeast of the lake Serbians wearing British uniforms were made prisoners.

GREEKS FLEE BEFORE BULGARS

Terrible Atrocities Perpetrated By the Invaders at Demir Hissar and Seres

GERMAN OFFICERS DO NOTHING TO STOP WANTON PILLAGE BY BULGARIANS.

Saloniki, June 2.—(Special. By Gaston Richard, correspondent of the Petit Parisien, Paris.)—I have just returned from a visit to Demir Hissar and Seres, where I witnessed scenes of desolation equalling in horror the exodus from Belgium and Northern France. The roads of Eastern Macedonia are choked with panic-stricken Greeks fleeing before the oncoming Bulgarian hordes. The refugees are driving their sheep and cattle before them, pushing handcarts containing their belongings, and carrying weeping children.

Demir Hissar, where I arrived, was dense with refugees. They had been swarming into the little town since Sunday, clamoring for protection and begging bread. But there were only forty sacks of flour for 30,000 persons, and the majority of the refugees are starving to death. Every one of these wretched people tells harrowing stories of Bulgarian abominations.

I saw a girl with a deep cut eight inches long around her neck, caused by a Bulgarian soldier who had brutally snatched a tawdry necklace from her. Another girl who had been wearing earrings had the lobes of both ears torn away.

A great majority of the young girls were carried off by the troops under the eyes of officers, who also allowed the most wanton pillage. All stories agree that the German uhlans encouraged the Bulgarian pillage, although they did not participate in it themselves. The German officers made no efforts to prevent Bulgarian orgies.

When a young woman, covered with blood, threw herself at the feet of a German colonel and implored his aid, he merely shrugged his shoulders, remarking: "You knew we were coming; why did you not leave before?"

As soon as the miserable procession reached the Franco-British lines the troops gave the famished people bread and soup until they had disposed of all of their own rations.

At Youle, a Greek schoolmistress, who attempted to prevent the Bulgarian troops from raiding her home, was dragged to the village square and publicly attacked, being stoned as she ran shrieking toward the country.

OUR OWN BATTALION

117th E. T. BATTALION REGIMENTAL FUND

It costs money to raise a Battalion. Travelling around the country doing missionary work, showing the men their duty, cannot be done without spending money. Hitherto the generous men of the Eastern Townships have not been asked to give a dollar towards this fund, but now the time has come when funds are urgently needed and the final one hundred and fifty men have to be secured unless the Eastern Townships want to live under the stigma of not being able to send a complete unit to the front. We will never stand for that. We have the men, we have the money and we want to be worthily represented in the firing line.

The Battalion has already received two thousand dollars from Colonel Greenhalgh. The Montreal Recruiting Association contributed $1,153.00. Mr. A. O. Norton, of Coaticook, has just sent $200.00. Messrs. Ewing & Cross, $100.00; Mr. J. S. Mitchell, $100; Mr. F. N. McCrea, M.P., $100. We feel sure that the case has only to be placed before the citizens of the Eastern Townships for several thousand dollars to be placed at the disposal of the Battalion immediately.

While the government provides full equipment for the men they do not contribute one dollar for recruiting and regimental expenses. The officers of the Battalion have given the greatest gift in their possession, their lives, their positions in life, the comforts of home, and everything a man holds dear. They should not be expected to give a dollar towards the expenses. The men who stay behind and whose homes are being defended, whose business is being increased and whose comforts are not being sacrificed should see to it that the Battalion is not short of funds. We feel sure that this appeal will not be made in vain. Donations can be sent to Mr. H. Irwin, Treasurer of the Sherbrooke Recruiting Association, or in care of the Record Office.

Contributions will be announced daily through the columns of this paper.

AMERICA REFUSES TO WITHDRAW

Troops Will Not Leave Mexico Till Carranza Proves His Control

THIS IS ANSWER TO THE PER-EMPTORY NOTE FROM THE MEXICAN CHIEF.

Washington, June 2.—The American answer to Carranza's demand that United States forces immediately withdraw from Mexico is that the United States forces will not withdraw. They are to stay in Mexico, according to authoritative statements made in Washington yesterday, until such time as Carranza shall demonstrate that he is in control of the northern district and able to prevent recurrence of raids on the American border. Nor will Carranza's troops be permitted freely to obtain arms and ammunition from the United States, despite the request in the Mexican note that the embargo on these necessities be lifted. If the embargo is altered it will be tightened, it is indicated. In Washington, the general opinion of officials is that the note from the "First Chief" is couched in terms devised for home consumption. Some of these phrases are that the American forces are "physically incapable" of guarding the border, that unless they leave Mexico at once they will be in danger of armed attack, and that they are at present "interned" in Chihuahua.

The War Department has already moved to obtain more definite information as to disposition of Carranza troops, although no anxiety is felt for General Pershing, whose troops are so situated as to be enabled to easily handle any attack that might be made on them. The State Department is not expected to reply for a week or ten days and then is expected to cite the experience of Major Langhorne who rode 200 miles into Mexico without seeing a single Carranza soldier. In view of the Mexican Government's troubles the American reply will wholly ignore the insolent phrases of Carranza's note. A surprise was sprung yesterday afternoon when announcement came from General Gonzalez at El Paso, that General Garvia who was expected to confer with General Pershing on co-operation had decided to return to Juarez. The Carranza note was unexpected by Gonzalez, he said, and he added that Garvia had not heard of it to the time of leaving Juarez for the conference.

SHACKLETON'S SHIP CRUSHED BY ICEBERGS

Explorer Tells Story of Misfortunes Which Overtook Antarctic Expedition.

NOT A MAN OF PARTY LOST HIS LIFE. PARTY BATTLED FOR DAYS AT SEA IN SMALL BOAT.

London, June 2.—A long despatch from Lieutenant Sir Ernest Shackleton, who has arrived at Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, describes the misfortunes which overtook his Antarctic expedition. His ship Endurance was pierced by icebergs and sank in the Weddell Sea on November 23, having been abandoned by all hands on October 27.

Shackleton and his crew reached Elephant Island on April 14 in boats after a series of privations and sufferings in the drift ice, several of the party being then on the verge of physical collapse.

Owing to the seriousness of the food situation and the impossibility of finding any very satisfactory camping place on the bleak coast of South Georgia, 760 miles distant, leaving the main party on Elephant Island in charge of Frank Wild, the second in command, Lieutenant Shackleton left on April 24, with five volunteers. They endured a fortnight of terrible struggles against blizzards and other difficulties, but finally the west coast of South Georgia was sighted. After a mighty effort lasting two days, they succeeded in beaching their boat and four days later arrived safely at the Head of King Haakon Bay.

On May 19 they started to cross the island, reaching the Stromness Whaling Station on May 20. There they secured an eighty-ton Norwegian whaler for an attempt to relieve the men left behind. The whaler started south with a volunteer crew on May 26, but found the ice too formidable for an unprotected boat and after several attempts reluctantly decided to turn north for assistance to the Falklands.

The party on the beach at Elephant Island were all well when Shackleton left on April 24. They had five weeks' provisions, with the possibility of reinforcing these by the capture of seals.

DISCOVERED NEW LAND. The work of the expedition to date says Lieutenant Shackleton, includes the discovery of 200 miles of new coastline, a complete hydrological survey of the Weddell Sea, the elimination of South Greenland from the map, continuous magnetic and meteorological observations, important biological observations, cinema records to October 30, and photographic records up to date.

As far as is known not a single man of the expedition lost his life.

PAID PENALTY BY WAY OF THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

Sing Sing, N.Y., June 2.—(Special)—Two murderers, Roy Champlin and John Supe, were put to death this morning in the electric chair at the state prison.

Champlin killed his uncle, Henry McGee, at Wellsville, in June a year ago. The murder was the outcome of a family quarrel.

Supe was executed for the murder of Vincenzo Abbattello at Westbury on June 25, 1915. Supe was employed on the estate of Harry Payne Whitney and his victim worked for Willard Straight. They quarrelled over an old debt owed by Supe.

EXECUTION AT WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, June 2.—(Special)—Bill Semenik was hanged here this morning for the murder of John Wyszowski near Selkirk on June 10, 1915. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence and on the scaffold protested his innocence.

NEWSPAPER MEN IN SESSION

President Tells of Causes Behind Increase in Subscription Rates

Toronto, June 2.—The Canadian Press Association opened its annual convention yesterday in the new Technical School.

Problems faced by Canadian newspapers as a result of the war, especially regarding the large enlistment from staffs and the effect upon advertising receipts, were alluded to by Mr. W. E. Smallfield, of Renfrew, in his presidential address. The efforts being made for higher subscription rates were not "money grubbing or money-grabbing propositions." The trade situation in war time had aggravated conditions, but, beyond that, there were weaknesses in business methods demanding attention. The newspaper has been looking to the advertiser to carry his load, and when war conditions upset the advertising situation, the need was made plain to distribute the load more fairly—that is, to put it where it properly belongs, on the subscriber.

The report of the manager showed that the present membership is 668, a net loss of 22 from last year.

TRAGEDY HAS FOLLOWED ST. RAYMOND FAMILY

Quebec, June 2.—(Special)—Tragedy follows in the wake of the Angers family at St. Raymond, county of Portneuf, near this city. Yesterday just after service in church Mrs. Julia Angers, sixty years old, a widow, was stricken dead. Her husband some years ago died the same way, and one son was killed by a freight some months ago, while another son was drowned two years ago.

GERMANY'S PEACE TERMS

Chancellor Says Present War Map Must Form The Basis of Peace

London, June 2.—(Special)—"The present war map must form the basis of peace. Let the statesmen of the Entente Powers look at the facts as presented by this map, and they will know Germany's terms."

Thus spoke Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, in the course of an interview with the correspondent of the Berlin Neueste Nachrichten during a visit to Munich, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent.

The Chancellor's words, says the correspondent, have attracted the widest attention.

The Lokal Anzeiger, commenting on the interview, says: "We interpret the Chancellor's words to mean that the trenches which the Central Powers have erected east and west are an impenetrable German wall of soldiers which must be the frontiers of a peace treaty. In no way yet has this been the case, but a military achievement which has been gained with so much blood must form the starting point of any negotiations for peace."

CAMPAIGN FOR THE 117TH

Recruiting Given an Impetus as Result of Call For More Men

SEVERAL YOUNG MEN WERE TAKEN ON THE STRENGTH OF THE REGIMENT YESTERDAY.

The campaign for one hundred men for the Eastern Townships Battalion goes merrily on. Young men who heretofore felt that they could not leave home have come to the conclusion that home ties, business and money making are not matters of life and death, and that there is only one place for a young man to-day and that is in the Canadian Army.

To-day's war news announces that the French have lost the first line trenches to the Germans. This alone should make a young man realize that the war is not over.

Major Ewing and Major Dunmore reported by phone this morning that recruiting had been given an impetus as a result of the request from General Wilson for one hundred and fifty more men.

Fred Page, Sherbrooke, S. Jolly, Granby and five other men, whose names have not yet reached the Sherbrooke Office were taken on strength yesterday.

Let your name appear in to-morrow's list.

Told Weird Tale

HENRI BESSODES

A French reservist who was living in Montreal at the outbreak of the war and immediately rejoined his regiment, told a somewhat lurid yarn to newspapermen at New York where he landed en route to Montreal on leave of absence. Bessodes, who wore the full uniform of a French soldier, declared that he had killed twenty-five Germans in hand-to-hand fights by throttling them to death. His wife having died during his absence, this imaginative warrior was given leave to return to Canada to get his children.

Was Troubled With BOILS ALL OVER HIS BODY.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms manifesting themselves are a breaking out on some part of the body of various sorts of bad blood troubles, such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc.

How many times have you met a friend with a handkerchief tied around his neck, and have asked him: "What is the matter with you?" "Oh! I have a boil on the back of my neck; I guess I will have to take something for my blood."

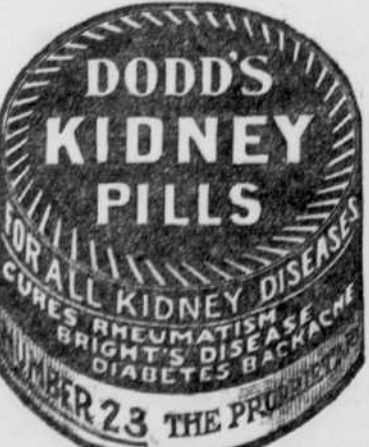

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters, and the speediest and most thorough method of expelling all the useless and corrupt matter from the blood is to use this old and well tried remedy that has been on the market for the past forty years.

Mr. W. E. Cockerill, Golden, B.C., writes: "I was troubled with boils all over my body, and my blood was very bad. I tried all kinds of medicines and salves, but got no relief. I had to quit work, as I could not stoop to do anything. My boss told me to use Burdock Blood Bitters, after I had told him I had tried nearly everything else. I got one bottle of B.B.B., and before I had finished it the boils were all gone. It is the best blood cleanser I have ever taken. I have told several others who were suffering with boils, and they all say it is great medicine. I am forty-seven years of age, but I feel like sixteen since I got rid of the boils."

B.B.B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Rev. Henri Beaudry, of Sherbrooke, has received the appointment of Parish Priest for Stanstead, and will commence his duties here on June 18.

OPENING OF TEA ROOM.

The opening of the Garden Tea House (opposite the Methodist Church) takes place on Saturday, June 3. The ladies are making a great effort to have a most attractive spot. Proceeds are for Red Cross and field comforts.

NOTES.

Rev. Mr. Mackintosh, of Derby Line, Universalist minister, will conduct the morning service at Centenary Methodist Church next Sunday and Mr. J. D. McFadyen the evening service, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. T. A. Halpenny, who is attending Conference at Smith's Falls, Ont. During the heavy storm on Tuesday last the lightning struck the cable of the Bell Telephone Co. in the village, putting eleven telephones out of order.

Mr. G. W. Hall is moving into his fine new residence this week which has been erected since the big fire. Mr. and Miss Morissette, of Three Rivers, have been visiting at the residence of the late J. O. St. Pierre. Mr. W. J. Nutbrown has been confined to his room with blood poisoning in his face for a few days. Miss Lizzie Carter left on Tuesday for Winnipeg, where she will make her home.

Miss Bowen, of the Sherbrooke Hospital, is spending her holidays with Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Halpenny. Mrs. Lyman Dwight, of Toronto, is visiting at Miss E. E. Laidlaw's.

HIS PRECIOUS KILTS

In "The Aftermath of Battle" E. D. Toland writes: When we got to the hospital we cut the clothes off most of the men and I tied them up for storage. While I was doing this for one of the Scots, a Black Watch man, who had a bullet through his chest, he said: "Will ye let me have a look at those kilts?" I gave him the kilts and continued tying up his clothes. I thought he wanted to get something out of a pocket (although there are no pockets in kilts). When I looked up he was folding them up with his one arm, as carefully as a woman tucking her baby to sleep. "See that they're not mused, will ye?" he said as he banded them back to me.

ROUMANIA

Military service in Roumania is compulsory and universal. Young men enter the ranks at the age of twenty-one, and serve for twenty-one years.

The infantry are armed with the Mannlicher magazine rifle, and the cavalry with the Mannlicher carbine. King Ferdinand of Roumania, who succeeded his uncle in October, 1914, married in 1893 the eldest daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh. Queen Marie is, therefore, a first cousin of King George, while through her mother she is a granddaughter of the Emperor Alexander II. of Russia, being consequently a cousin of the Czar. Queen Marie is generally regarded as one of the most beautiful women in Europe, while the Dowager Queen, "Carmen Sylva," was a talented poet and writer.

Bucharest, the Roumanian capital, where the Royal palace is situated, has a population of about 340,000, and is strongly fortified by eighteen forts and many batteries.

KING FERDINAND OF ROUMANIA

The city has been several times besieged, and between 1793 and 1812 suffered twice from earthquakes, twice from inundations, once from fire, and twice from pestilence.

Bucharest is noted for its gambling houses, cafes, and its innumerable churches, the metal plated cupolas of which give the place a picturesque appearance.

The Roumanian Constitution consists of a Senate of 120 members and a Chamber of Deputies of 183 members. A Senator must be forty-five years of age, and receives a salary of $1,850 per annum.

Roumania's total population is 7,516,418, and area 53,459 square miles. About 5,500,000 of the total population are Roumanian, the rest being Turks, Austro-Hungarians and Greeks. It should be mentioned, however, that Roumanians are spread extensively in the neighboring countries—Transylvania, Hungary, Bukovina, Bessarabia, Serbia, Bulgaria, and Macedonia. Their total number is between ten and twelve millions.

Roumania is the home of the gipsies. Hordes of them are scattered throughout the villages, at least 300,000 being included in the general population.

Rids Poisons From the Blood,
Clears Up the Complexion

Sallow Skin, Pimples, Pains and Aches Are Soon Gone
When Dr. Chase's Kidney-Pills Are Used.

The doctor feels your pulse and looks at your tongue, but at the same time he is reading your condition in your face. The sallow complexion tells him that your liver is not doing its work, the pimples tell him that the kidneys are not properly purifying the blood, he realizes that the bowels are constipated and the system overloaded with poisons.

You can apply this test in your own case and be able to add other symptoms, such as headaches, pains and aches through back and limbs, spells of biliousness and indigestion.

If you have not used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you will be surprised to find how quickly they will rid your system of poisonous impurities and thereby remove the cause of pains, aches and skin troubles.

Mrs. F. N. Hall, 102 Queen street, St.

John, N.B., writes: "I am glad to say I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with splendid results. I was greatly troubled with constipation and pimples on the face. I tried other remedies and used liquid arsenic three times a day for a year to get rid of the pimples, but received no benefit. I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and it was not very long before I was completely cured. The pills acted on the bowels, kidneys and liver and cleansed them of all impure matter. I think they cannot be beaten as a means of ridding a person of that tired aching due to weak kidneys, and I would not be without them in the house for any money."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

WOMEN'S NEW WAR WORK

Several Fatal Accidents Discouraged
English Munition Workers

Nursing and dishwashing in hos-rather out of favor with London society girls. So is munition work since the accident to Lady Mary Hamilton, the Duke of Hamilton's fatal accidents to munition girls of lesser degree. Not a few girls of good family are taking up some kind of farm work and others are following the late Lord Borthwick's sister, and are training as expert motor drivers.

Presentation to Mrs. Ward at the Methodist Parsonage

Bedford, June 2.—(Special).—On Monday afternoon last several of the ladies of the Methodist Church called at the Parsonage and presented Mrs. Ward with a nice assortment of linen.

Mrs. S.A.C. Morgan read the following address:—"Dear Mrs. Ward:
This anniversary of your birth is an occasion for rejoicing to your friends, a small part of whom are here assembled to congratulate you, and to express our appreciation of your faithful service in the Church, in society and in the domesticity of your home and interesting family. In testimony of which we beg you to accept this accompanying gift for your personal use. That you may live many years to continue your good works is the sincere wish of the donors who are happy to have known you."

greatly taken by surprise, and thank-their good will and friendship. Since identified herself with every good

BROME COUNTY W. C. T. U. WORKERS

27TH ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD AT SUTTON WAS WELL ATTENDED

Sutton, June 2. (Special).—The Twenty-Seventh Annual Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the County of Brome, was held in Sutton, Que., on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Day sessions were held in Olivet
Church, and the evening meeting in Town Hall. The Convention was called to order by county president, Mrs.
A. J. Dyer, beginning with devotional exercises, interim minutes, minutes of executive meeting, appointments of committees, credentials, courtesies and finance.

Mrs. J. G. Sanderson, of Danville, Provincial Honorary President, and Mrs. A. F. Leggett, of Montreal, Provincial "Y" Secretary, were present and were made members of the Convention.

Mrs. Sanderson brought before the convention the offer Mrs. S. W. Foster had made the ladies of the Province, viz., to give to the W. C. T. U.
of the Province of Quebec a piece of land situated on Conference
Heights, Knowlton, to build a Rest Home, the time limit being two years for consideration.

Then came the reports of officers:—
Corresponding Secretary by Mrs. W.
W. Smith and Treasurers Report by Mrs. E. N. Ford, which showed a good balance on the right side.

edity; Mrs. C. M. Taylor, Scientific Temperance Instruction; Flower

opened Wednesday at 9 a.m. sharp, with devotional exercises and the reports of Superintendents continued until 10 o'clock, followed by the President's Address.

It was with much regret that after twenty-one years of faithful service,
the President, Mrs. A. J. Dyer, resigned her office on account of ill-health.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—Honorary Presidents: Mrs.
S. W. Foster and Mrs. A. J. Dyer;
President, Mrs. Ezra Ball; Vice-
President, Mrs. E. S. Millmore;
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. S.
Bresse; Recording Secretary, Mrs.
J. J. Brimmer; Treasurer, Mrs. A.
Ingalls; "Y" Secretary, Mrs. H. L.
Hastings; Provincial Life Member,
Mrs. A. J. Dyer.

Dinner was served at Mountain View House to about fifty members of the Convention. The Convention adjourned for the afternoon to attend the Memorial service of the Late Lieut. Norman MacLeod Macdonald.

At four p.m., the session was resumed, superintendents appointed and all unfinished business completed. Many thanks were expressed to those who assisted in providing the kind hospitality and beautiful luncheons which were so beautifully served and to all who in any way contributed to the beautifying of their cozy little church with patriotic bunting and plants. Thus a very successful Convention was brought to a close.

Suffered No End of Pain FROM BACKACHES.

If a pain attacks you in the back you should stop and think what it is and what causes it.

If the kidneys are at fault—and in the cases out of every ten they are—you should attend to them once, as it is impossible to have a well working back unless the kidneys are performing their functions in a proper manner.

Anyone with a bad back should appreciate how to get a good one. It is a very simple matter. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They regulate the kidneys, and there is no further excuse for any kidney trouble to exist.

Mrs. E. J. Graves, Oshawa, Ont., writes: "My complaint lies with my kidneys. I have suffered no end of pain with them, and with backaches I had tried everything, so I thought, until a friend advised me to try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I did try them, and one box helped me fine, so I got another, and now feel that I cannot recommend them too highly to anyone suffering with kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are the original kidney pills. Do not accept any substitutes put up under similar names.
Always see that our trade mark "The Maple Leaf" appears on the label and wrapper.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box,

PORTUGAL AND BRITAIN

Britain is bound by the Methuen treaty, more than 200 years old, to protect Portugal with her fleet and was under the terms of this treaty that Britain despatched the army un-being known as the Peninsular War.

The Portuguese are in the fine pos-

THE RAPE PLANT AND ITS CULTURE is One of Most Profitable and Worthy of More Extensive Use

Among all forage plants possible and profitable of cultivation in Canada none seems worthier of a more extensive use than rape. It is simple of culture; it makes a strong, rapid growth; it adapts itself quite readily to different soils and to various climatic conditions; responds vigorously to fertilizer and to good cultivation; and, most important of all its good qualities, it is a palatable, wholesome and nutritious green food for all kinds of live stock on the average Canadian farm.

The seed used is biennial but seldom live through the Canadian winters, the variety most commonly used in Canada is the Dwarf Essex. The rape stems and leaves resemble those of Swedish turnips, but the roots are like those of cabbage. The leaves are numerous, smooth, irregular in outline and covered with a bluish bloom. The plant grows to a height of from one to four feet, according to soil and season.

Rape may be classed as root or hoed crops, it does best on soil rich in plant food and full of humus, prepared in a manner such as for roots or corn. New land may be most profitably used to grow this crop for a year or two immediately after being cleared, black soil or muck, gives good returns also.

The seedling season extends from the first week in May until the end of August, subjected to climatic conditions. It may be sown in rows or broadcast, when sown broadcast, about four pounds per acre is used, however, a larger quantity of seed should be used when it is intended to cut as soon after seeding as possible; a lesser quantity where it is intended to permit the plants to attain their full growth. When sown in rows preferable 22 inches apart to permit of horse cultivation about four lbs. per acre of seed is used. The method of seeding in rows is, generally speaking, much to be preferred over the broadcast. The principal reasons are: (1)—greater proportion of leaf to the stem; (2)—more rapid and vigorous growth; (3)—less waste when pastured; (4)—permits of cultivation.

Rape is an exceedingly valuable food, it is especially well fitted for sheep, swine, young cattle and steers and has also been fed to dairy cows with good results. In feeding rape to cattle and sheep care should be taken to prevent bloat, they should never be permitted to enter a rape field when very hungry; more especially if the rape is wet from dew, rain or frost. Once accustomed to the feed, however, and having access to it all times, little danger may be anticipated. On account of its very juicy nature, it is practically impossible to cure rape and is not much used in making ensilage. In sections where rather steady frost maintains, (once the hard frosts come), rape may be cut and put into small pieces to freeze. It should be taken to the stable the day before required to feed, and allowed to thaw out completely before being fed. Repeated thawing and freezing spoil it for forage.

AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOLS

Standing Of The Schools Where Short Courses Were Recently Held

Editor of Record.
Dear Sir,—During the past winter, you were kind enough to insert from time to time brief notes with reference to the short courses of two days which were then being held in various Superior Schools throughout the Townships.

These courses were held especially for the pupils of the upper grades in such schools and were designed to be of assistance to them in their work in Nature Study and Agriculture. This assistance was well received by teachers and pupils alike and in no instance had we cause to regret our visit.

I should like, through the columns of your "Farmers' Page", to thank all the pupils of the Townships for their courtesy and attention during our stay of two days with them and to express the wish that we may be able to take up the work again next year.

I thought it might be interesting to your readers to glance over a brief summary of the places where these courses were held, the number of pupils from farms who took the work, the number from village or town, and the grand total of pupils who took the course.

All the schools in the list below, may be said to be within the radius of the "Record" except perhaps the last.

Name of School	Farm Pupils	Total
Bury Model	22	26
Gould Model	19	4
Sulwer Model	27	0
Bishop's C. Model. 28	13	36
Beebe Model (estimated)	15	25
Sawyer Model 27	25	52
Stanbridge E. Mo. 15	15	30

Waterbury Academy	14	17
Danville Academy. 17	22	39
Cowanville Academy	33	68
Coaticook Academy 15	48	63
Sutton Academy	21	29
Huntingdon Academy	48	37
Total	337	342

It is interesting to note the large number of farmers' boys and girls in attendance at our Superior Schools, and it shows that our rural folk are not indifferent to the advantages of a good education.

Let us hope that with the increase of agricultural instruction in our schools and the better advantages which are slowly being obtained for the education of our pupils, that still more of them will be found taking advantage of the Superior Schools.

Thanking you for your consideration, I remain, Dear Sir,
Yours truly,
J. EGBERT McOUTAT,
Demonstrator to Rural Schools.

JUNE FRUIT CROP REPORT

Department of Agriculture Issues
Statement Giving Prospects
in Dominion

EMPHASIS LAID ON NECESSITY OF JUDICIOUS AND THOROUGH
SPRAYING

Ottawa, June 2.—(Special)—The Fruit Branch of the Department of Agriculture has issued the June Fruit Crop Report, giving the prospects for fruit in all parts of the Dominion and in many sections of the United States. Briefly summarized the report gives the following information:

Apples—Full bloom in Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia. Prospects for fair crop in Nova Scotia.

Peaches—Promise of heavy crop in Niagara, Essex and Lambton also heavy. Medium to full in British Columbia.

Pears—Full bloom in Ontario. Light in British Columbia.

Plums—Heavy bloom in Ontario except between Hamilton and Toronto, where Lombards are light. Other varieties also lighter than last year in this section.

Cherries—Production of sour varieties in Ontario, British Columbia and Quebec will be large. Sweet varieties injured by frost in British Columbia, but are satisfactory elsewhere.

Small Fruits—Ontario strawberries likely to reach market about middle of June. Large crop expected. Quebec berries will be about two weeks later. Raspberry canes severely winter killed in Ontario.

Ottawa, Ontario, for Mr. M.B. Davis' bulletin on "Renovation of the Apple Orchard." A post-card will bring it.

The above demonstrations were arranged for, by W.G. MacDougall, the local Demonstrator.

The local Demonstrator will at any time be glad to show any farmer how to prune or how to make Lime Sulphur.

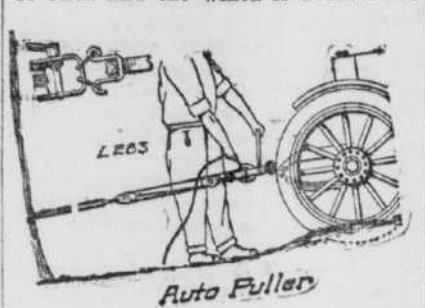

We cannot expect the best fruit if we do not spray thoroughly. Pruning is just as essential. It is just as important to cultivate and manure the Orchard as it is with any other crop.

Recent Inventions of Interest To Eastern Townships Farmers

AUTO PULLER

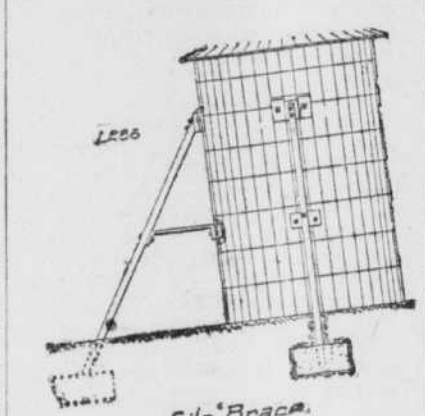

This puller consists of a tackle and winch arranged as shown. The anchor rope is attached to a tree, post or rack and the winch is attached to a substantial part of the auto by the simple hook shown in the detached figure. With this puller, one man can rescue a car.

SILCO BRACE

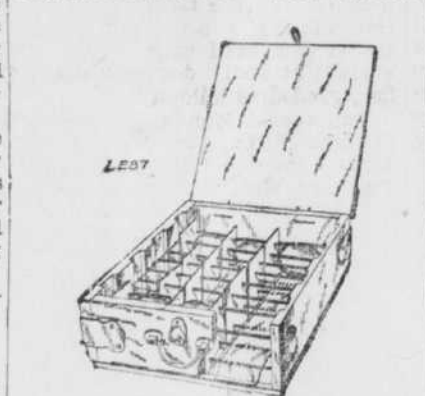

The lower end of this iron brace is embedded in a large block of concrete which is at some depth underground and prevents motion either up or down. The upper end engages a carved iron bracket which is bolted through the silo to a curved iron plate inside. The intermediate brace is bolted to the silo in a similar manner.

EGG BOX

Each egg in this box is held by four stretched cords and lies between two partitions. The advantage stated is that the partitions are separate and can be moved back and forth to hold large or small eggs.

and many sections of British Columbia.

United States Prospects—Damage by frost general in all western States, Idaho suffering greatest. Apples not so seriously injured as other fruits. Georgia peach crop also suffered by frost in April, but weather conditions have been ideal since that time. Estimated output about 1,000 cars less than 1915. All reports from New York are favourable.

The above are prospects based entirely upon the blossoms and cannot be taken as an absolute estimate of the ultimate crop.

The report emphasizes the necessity of judicious and thorough spraying, calling attention to the fact that during the past two years there has been an excellent demand for fruit of good quality, and a very limited sale for inferior fruit.

Small fruit growers are asked to give special attention to the packing of berry crates, and to thereby avoid a repetition of the complaints made last year regarding the over-facing of those packages.

POOR ROADS AND POOR FARMERS

No sane person will dispute the economic value of good roads. Look about your native town, and you will find that those farms or houses located on a well-kept public highway possess a higher valuation than places less favorably situated. When these are for sale they command a better price, and a purchaser is not difficult to find. There are many farms so located that because of poor roads and the difficulties of transportation they cannot market their crops to advantage. The amount of their sales is less than the cost of marketing farm produce. This is one reason why so much of our New England farm land is allowed to run to waste, and it accounts in a large measure for so many abandoned farms. They do not pay, and poor roads figure largely in the case.

This device is used for cleaning ditches, terracing hillsides and similar work. It consists of a heavy front cutting edge and two wings which have sharp horizontal cutting edges and which can be placed at different angles. It is guided by means of two handles.

GATE OPENER AND CLOSER

On each side of this gate there is a metal frame pivoted to a wooden platform (we show one side only). When the vehicle wheel forces the frame down, the latch is released, and the gate is opened when this operation is repeated on the other side the gate is closed.

Some of these ideas you will use now, some you will use perhaps years from now when the proper occasion arises. The more you read this column the more resourceful you become. Let your neighbors know about it.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR NATURE STUDY

Course in This and Elementary Agriculture For Rural Teachers
To Be Held

Most teachers throughout the Townships have probably received a circular directing their attention to the Summer School to be held at MacDonald College during the month of August. In case there are those who have not received the same, a few words of explanation might not be out of place.

This course is held with the purpose of rendering the teachers of our elementary and superior schools better fitted to teach Nature Study and Elementary Agriculture in the schools of the province. The work taken up applies closely to the course of study followed in the schools and is divided into five main divisions:—

Course I. Nature Study.
Course II. Plant Life.
Course III. Horticulture and Gardening.

Course IV. Animal Life.

Course V. Art Work.

The lectures begin at 8.30 o'clock every morning and last until 4.30 o'clock every afternoon, except Saturday. Lunch hour is from 12.00 to 1.30 p.m.

No fees are charged for tuition and the cost of board is moderate, being $4.50 per week, for the four weeks of the course, for double room with single beds. A few single rooms are available in each residence and the charge for these is $5.00 per week.

This course is open to all teachers with a legal teaching certificate but teachers who have taken their diploma at MacDonald since 1912 will not be admitted this year. The permanent certificate granted at Lacoste Summer School is also valid for entrance.

Teachers who complete the course satisfactorily are granted certificates. In addition they receive a bonus of $15.00 from the Provincial Government and railway fare, amounting to five cents a mile one way, is also paid.

A course held under such generous conditions as these should attract many teachers and those who intend

"Yours of recent date to hand. You want to know how we like our milking machine, Mr. Macartney installed for us. Why it is perfection, we couldn't get along without it now and have come to the conclusion that it is the very best in the world. Our thirty cows (which we are milking at present) take just forty minutes, a saving of two hours per day, or at the rate of forty-eight cows per hour, which is much faster than we expected. We have had some of our neighbors in to see us when operating the milker and they all intend buying the Empire when they can afford it." Geo. A. F. Thompson

98% Of the World's Creameries Separate their cream with a DE LAVAL

TEN YEARS AGO THERE WERE A DOZEN DIFFERENT MAKES of creamery or factory separators in use. Today over 98 per cent of the world's creameries use De Laval Separators exclusively.

IT MEANS A DIFFERENCE OF SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS a year whether a De Laval or some other make of separator is used in a creamery.

EXACTLY THE SAME DIFFERENCES EXIST, ON A SMALLER scale, in the use of farm separators. Owing to the fact, however, that most farm users do not keep accurate records as the creameryman, or test their skim-milk with the Babcock tester, they do not appreciate just what the difference between a good and a poor separator means to them in dollars and cents.

NOW IF YOU WERE IN NEED OF LEGAL ADVICE, YOU WOULD go to a lawyer. If you were sick you would consult a doctor. If you had the toothache you would call on a dentist. Why? Because these men are all specialists in their line, and you rely upon their judgment and skill.

WHEN IT COMES TO BUYING A SEPARATOR WHY NOT profit by the experience of the creameryman which qualifies him to advise you correctly? He knows which separator will give you the best service and be the most economical for you to buy. That's why 98 per cent of the world's creameries and milk dealers use the De Laval exclusively.

THERE CAN BE NO BETTER RECOMMENDATION for the De Laval than the fact that the men who make the separation of milk a business use the De Laval to the practical exclusion of all other makes of cream separators.

Your local De Laval agent will be glad to let you try a De Laval for yourself on your own place. If you don't know the nearest De Laval agent simply write the nearest main office, as below.

PRODUCTION AND THRIFT

Subject of Wheat and The War
Dealt With By J. K.
Doherty

One of the most comprehensive articles in the Agricultural War Book of 1916 deals with the subject of "Wheat and the War." It is written by Mr. T.K. Doherty, LL.B., Commissioner of the International Agricultural Institute. The author traces the course of events, as regards the wheat market, in the momentous years of 1912, 1914 and 1915, the first-named, sharing with the last two years—some of their importance—although preceding the war—by reason of the decline of prices from those of 1912. In 1914—15 prices per bushel of British wheat jumped from $1.05 to $1.61. In this connection Mr. Doherty asks readers to examine a table giving quotations of prices since the year 1800. In 1812 the figures reached their zenith, Britain having wars with France and the United States on her hands. Wheat was then $3.86 a bushel, or more than three times the standing of today. During the first quarter of the nineteenth century the lowest price was $1.37, this was in 1822. In the second quarter, the lowest figure was reached in 1835, when wheat stood at $1.35. In the third quarter prices ranged from $1.17 in 1851 to $2.27 in 1855, fluctuating after that from $1.22 in 1864 to $1.95 in 1867 and down to $1.37 in 1875. In 1877 the price was $1.73. In 1878 the quotation was $1.40. A period of steadiness followed until 1880, when there was a drop to $1.25. The decline continued, the even dollar being reached in the following year. Then, for the first time in the period covered in the table, or in 1886, below that figure was reached 94 cents being the quotation. In 1891 the price was $1.13. In 1898 it was $1.03, the lowest point, namely 68 cents being touched in 1894. Fourteen years elapsed before a dollar was again exceeded. In 1909 the highest quotation stood at $1.13. Mr. Doherty briefly outlines the cause for these fluctuations, and proceeds to deal with the situation arising from the supply and demand in the last three years. He also deals with the output of other crops during these years, referring to the best known authorities in support of his details and deductions. He goes largely into the requirements and productions of the world in wheat, giving tables showing the yield in 32 countries of wheat and 22 of oats. In his conclusion, he also suggests that every aspect of the wheat situation appears to indicate the improbability of a return to the low average prices of 1910-11 and 12, and that following the declaration of peace there will be a greatly increased demand. His final words are "Economic interests unite, therefore, with patriotic duty in stimulating the agriculturists of Canada to extraordinary productive efforts during the forthcoming season." As an appendix, a description is given of marketing operations in Australia. The article deserves and should attract wide attention. The War Book can be had by addressing the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

There will be a meeting of the Directors of the Stanstead County Wool Growers' and Sheep Breeders' Association, in the County Building, Ayer's Cliff, on Saturday, the third of June, at two o'clock in the afternoon. A full attendance is requested.

SEEDING VERY LATE
Ascot Corner, June 2.—(Special).—Farmers are very backward with their seeding, it being impossible to work the land. The work is the latest in this section for a number of years, but grass is looking fine.

WOOL GRADED HIGH
Leeds Village, June 2.—(Special).—The weather has been so wet and unfavorable lately that very little seeding and garden work has been done. A Co-operative Wool Association was formed in the village this spring by Mr. MacMillan, from MacDonald College, which has turned out very satisfactory, as the large amount of 4,000 lbs. was gathered together in two days and graded very high. It was sold at a good figure, which will realize on an average the sum of 42c. per lb.

RAT KILLED 52 CHICKENS
Brome, June 2.—(Special).—An attack was made on the chicken coop of Mr. H. E. Chandler by a "German" rat recently, that succeeded in the total annihilation of all the occupants, 52 chicks. Mr. Chandler succeeded in killing the marauder the following night. R. E. Miller doing his bit by donating the cheese to bait the trap.

Mr. E. W. Ray recently had the misfortune to lose a fine Percheron sucking colt.

GRADING OF WOOL AT WINDSOR MILLS
Windsor Mills, June 2.—(Special).—Through the efforts of Mr. John T. Kendall, director of the Richmond Wool Growers' and Sheep Breeders' Association for the first time the members have been able to bring their wool to Windsor to be received and graded. Mr. McMillan of MacDonald College, attended and received the wool as delivered and graded it. The wool was received at the large barn of Mr. T.A. Proulx on Dearden St. The teams began to arrive Monday 9 a.m., and a continuing stream until noon. The total amount of wool delivered was 1,376 lbs., graded as follows:

Tub-washed Medium 11 lbs; Medium 13 lbs; Fine Medium Combs 5 lbs; Medium Combs 1250 lbs; Low Medium Combs 438 lbs; Rejections 62 lbs; Black and Gray 93 lbs; Tags 2 lbs.—Total 1876 lbs.

No doubt another year when the wool that the farmers can get better prices by selling through the Association many more farmers will bring their wool for better prices are realized by selling through the Association.

Cowansville, June 2.—(Special).—Mr. Andrew E. Ruiters, of the Pinehurst Jersey Stock Farm, left on Sunday for Coopersburg, Pa., to attend Y. S. Cooper & Son's sale of imported and home bred cattle.

For fifteen successive years Coopers Decoration Day Sale has been the big event of the Jerseyman's year, and much dairy history has been made at them.

There such well known animals as Champion Flying Fox, Forfarshire, Eminent, Viola's Golden Jolly and many others were sold at prices ranging up into the thousands.

Noble of Oaklands, sold by the Coopers in 1911 for fifteen thousand dollars, is the grandsire of the present herd bull at the Pinehurst Jersey Stock Farm and Mr. Ruiters now hopes to bring back with him a bull capable of carrying on the improvement of the already fine herd of thoroughbreds there.

The seeding in this section is late on account of the rain but the grass is looking fine and predictions are that there will be a heavy hay crop. At about 45,000 lbs of milk is received at the creamery each day and 2,000 lbs. of butter churned.

Mr. John Harvey loaded two cars of stock and shipped from this station on Tuesday. One car contained 24 steers bought from Mr. Jordan Hurlburt and brought $3,015.75.

This was the best lot of beef cattle that was ever loaded at Stanbridge East. Mr. J. W. Harvey had fattened and shipped one Holstein bull 3 years old which weighed 1550 lbs., which at 91 cts. per lb. brought $135.25.

This was the best beef animal of its age ever loaded here.

The other car consisted of calves, bringing from $5 to $15 and also hogs bought at $11.25 cwt. The total value of the shipment was $4,200.

BREEDING OF HORSES A NECESSITY
Editor Record.

Sir.—The breeding of horses has become a matter of prime necessity. Before the war commenced there was a slump in prices owing to financial conditions and the inroads of motor power that led to a cessation of breeding. Then the war came with its demand for certain classes. Following the previous decline in the demand many farmers sacrificed their mares. The result is a serious depletion and a sure scarcity.

The demand is increasing and will continue to increase long after peace has been declared. If Canada is to take advantage of the situation the time to start in is now. There will be an assured market demand for foals at weaning time from mares bred now.

Not only has the wastage by reason of war been enormous, but in all the belligerent countries, not omitting Great Britain, there has either been a partial stoppage or a whole stoppage of breeding by reason of the scarcity of labour, the disturbed conditions, or entire devastation.

Whether the war lasts or ceases there must continue an undiminished demand for horses. When peace comes there will be a long period of replenishment. Then quality as much and even more than quantity will be required. Hence the evident call to every Canadian farmer is to breed and to breed to the best available, to utilize his mares for production and to secure the immediate services of the best pure bred sire of type in his neighbourhood. It will pay.

This appeal is addressed to you with the endorsement of the various horse breeders' associations of Canada, who urge decisive action by the farmers of Canada, to remedy the serious situation that has arisen.

Yours truly,

JNO. W. BRANT,

I don't want the cow that gives a gallon of milk in the summer and goes dry in the winter. Feed is too high for me to board such a cow. She may raise a good calf, look fine and all that, but I will not put my money in her.

I don't want the cow that will kick the bucket of milk over my head and jump over the moon besides. Never did I like a kicker of any kind, especially one in the bovine family. Clothes are too high priced and doctor bills are out of sight these days.

I don't want the cow that gives you a friendly butt when you are not looking. I have no eyes in the back of my head, and just when I did not want to be butted would be the time she practiced her butting stunt. Then she might get after the wife or the children, and they don't want to be butted any more than I do.

I don't want the cow that knows how to go through hedge and barbed wire fences and to unlock the gate or the stable door. No, she is a little too smart a cow for me. I don't like to keep a cow tied up and I am not an expert at making cow yokes.

I don't want the cow that is wild as a deer. I am not a cowboy and I do not wish to spend an hour each evening on a pony rounding the sister up so that I can get a quart of milk from her unkindly hide. No, she don't suit me. I want the gentle cow.

I don't want the cow that gives a stream of milk about the size of a horsehair when you are dressing with

Swine Raising Business Requires Good Judgment

The raising and selling of registered swine is more than farming; it is a business requiring as much skill and judgment as many industrial enterprises. It is not a speculation nor should it be the rich man's passing fad, but it should be a conservative enterprise in which the sons of the soil may achieve competence.

In order to remain in the pure bred swine business permanently several factors must be observed. The two most important of these are (1) good stock to sell; (2) honor in selling it.

Nothing is more disgusting and irritating than to send a breeder a money order for $50 or so for a bred sow or a boar and to receive an inferior cull, or at least an inferior animal. And if on top of that the seller refuses to take the pig back or to adjust the complaint in any manner, he has lost a customer and gained a "knocker".

HAVE GOOD FOUNDATION STOCK
It is useless to enter into the swine breeding business without good foundation stock. The foundation stock need not be of the most expensive obtainable, but it should be of the correct type for the kind of trade you are engaged in. If you cater to the farmers' business with growthy, practical hogs without any frills, you will have to select your brood sows and herd boars accordingly. And right here I wish to say that the greatest mistake a good many make is to pay excessive prices for fancy show stock and then try to get equally as good prices from the fanciers.

It is always easier to buy at a high figure than to sell at one. The men who are paying the desirable prices usually do not come your way, and there is a reason. They not only wish to buy individually, but they wish to buy advertising, and who are you, anyway. This may be a statement more extreme than the practice, but it is the general trend.

I take it that you are Mr. Average Man, who likes one of the pure breeds of hogs and would like to stay with the breed. You haven't a mint of money and must depend upon your hogs to pay some of your bills. To you I will say that the breeding of pure bred swine need not be a speculation. Instead of straining at the high prices which may never come your way, or making only an occasional good sale, it will be far better if you cater to the "solid" trade of men just like you; they can afford to pay good prices for good hogs.

Whether they can or not will not "please" if you can sell all the good boars you raise at $20 to $50 and all your bred gilts at a $35 to $50 average, you will make more money than a good many of the highly touted, highly advertised breeders.

GET A GOOD, BIG BOAR
Get a good, big, heavy, vigorous boar at the head of your herd — one who is going to sire growthy, profitable pigs. Big type swine are proving out, and while there is no such a thing as a real big type with some swine, the larger hogs of any breed sell better than the smaller, too refined kind. You must have quality, but you can afford to sacrifice a trace of quality for size and thrift. After all, the farmer is interested primarily in the pork barrel.

In getting foundation sows it is not necessary the show sows that will make you the most money, but a big, rather sloppy, "broody" looking sow, when bred to the right boar, may raise you better pigs, and will certainly raise more of them than her sister with the blue ribbons.

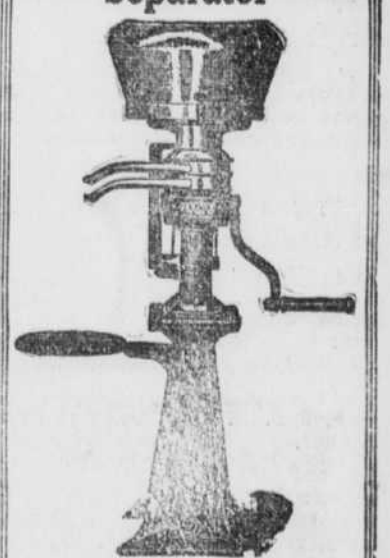

Having foundation stock as good as you can afford, the next thing to consider in the pure bred hog business is feeding that stock right. In my travels about I see a good many swine herds of the various breeds, and it is enough to make one sick. It seems as if the average man plans to keep just about so many pigs. If he has a lot of feed, he will stuff grain into them until they are bunter fat; if he has not feed, the hogs must root for a living.

KEEP HOGS GROWING
This is most foolish at any time, and especially when you are engaged in the pure bred swine business. If you haven't any feed, buy some, or go out of business. At pure bred prices you can afford to buy feed because you ought to get margin enough to cover extra cost. Keep your hogs growing and thrifty, and not too fat, and you will have a string of satisfied customers extending across a continent.

RAISE YOUR OWN FEED
In passing, I may say, however, that those men who make the most money are the men that raise most of their own feed. It is easy to figure out, after consulting the books, that pork can be produced at a certain cost, but somehow or other it doesn't work out so well in practice. Pork always costs more to produce than the feeding tables allow. In addition to growing your own grain, it is necessary that you supplement that grain with alfalfa, clover and rape pastures, for not only is pork produced more cheaply, but Mr. Porker will be healthier. But it is not my object in this article to go into the practical details of swine management and feeding.

DARING BALLOON FEAT

British Officer Won Hazardous Record For 10,000-foot Drop

Undoubtedly the most daring aeronautical feat on record was that performed by Lieut.-Col. E. M. Maitland, who commanded the airship section of the Naval Air Service, and who jumped from a balloon flying over London at a height of 10,000 feet, descending by parachute. Hitherto, the record seems to have been held by that intrepid balloonist, Captain Baldwin, who in 1887 claimed to have descended from a height of one mile (5,280 feet) in just over three minutes. Colonel Maitland was fifteen minutes coming down, and he confesses that the most trying part of the experience for him was before the parachute opened. He fell several hundred feet dead weight, and the suspense "seemed an eternity," but at last the parachute opened, and the descent continued steadily.

The feat was the result of a discussion which took place concerning a certain official project, a question arising as to whether a balloonist could make a safe descent from such a height. "Someone," said Lieut.-Colonel Maitland, "must make the experiment. I must know what will happen. I will take the jump myself, as there is only one person whom I have the right to ask." An extremely large parachute was used for the experiment, the descent safely accomplished, and thus the official query was satisfactorily solved. The experiment also demonstrated the fact that a parachute descent in no way interferes with the stability of an airship so that a man could be landed after a long journey with reports while the airship continued its flight.

This is by no means the first parachute descent which Colonel Maitland has made, for in October, 1913, he made a descent from the airship Delta at a height of 1,800 feet. The airship on this occasion was travelling at twenty miles an hour, and the lieutenant-colonel fell 300 feet before the parachute opened, but he landed safely in the Colne Reservoir at Aldershot.

Patriotic Work In Sherbrooke

PATRIOTIC ASSOCIATION.

The opening of the rooms of the Patriotic Association in the Art Building will take place to-morrow afternoon. The work done by the Work Committee will be on exhibition and it is hoped that many will take this opportunity of seeing it. It will be shown in one of the new rooms, so that those who do not wish to attend the bridge or the tea will be able to see what is being sent to the men in the trenches. Questions will gladly be answered by a member of the Committee who will be in charge.

Bridge and Five Hundred will be played in the Art Hall from three until five. Everyone who has taken a table is requested to bring a table cover, cards and score pad. Tea will be served between five and six when Prof. Dudley's Orchestra will be in attendance.

SHERBROOKE PATRIOTIC ASSOCIATION.

At the meeting of the Sherbrooke Patriotic Association, which took place in the Assembly room in the Art Hall, Mrs. Bowen presided, and called the meeting to order.

The president referred to the sad death of the late Major N.C. Pilcher, of Sherbrooke, who was killed in action, and praised his high courage, his determination to serve his King and Country, at all costs, in spite of his very delicate health, his fine qualities as a man, and a soldier, and the influence of his example.

It was moved by Mrs. Fraser, seconded by Mrs. F. Campbell, that a letter of sympathy be sent to Mrs. Pilcher, from the Sherbrooke Patriotic Association, of which she was the capable secretary for some time.

The needs of the 18th regiment were mentioned, such articles as magazines, papers, games and a gramophone or Victrola being required, and a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Dastous, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. L.H. Oliver, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. R. Dean, were appointed to take charge, Mr. Dean offering to carry to the barracks any donations.

Mrs. Fraser moved, seconded by Mrs. Campbell, that the joint presidents be authorized to make inquiries concerning a piano for the use of the 178th Regiment.

Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Campbell seconded that the sum of $50 be expended by the Association in the purchase of chocolates, chewing gum, tobacco, cigarettes, and similar articles to be placed in the box to be packed and shipped the first week in June for the soldiers in the trenches, via London.

Contributions are asked of the public for the next monthly shipment of the following articles: sweets, including chocolates, maple sugar (in particular) chewing gum, tobacco, cigarettes, pipes, cakes, cocoa, milk powder, concentrated coffee, sardines, cheese (in tin foil) curry powder, toilet paper, candles, carbolic soap, cards, dominoes, checkers, paper and envelopes—in short, anything which may mitigate the hardships, and add to the comfort of those who have joyfully given up the easy home life with all its pleasures and comforts for strenuous fighting and often death, in order to right wrongs, and help the oppressed. That Sherbrooke is doing its part is shown by the following extract from a letter written by the Secretary of the Canadian War Contingent Assn: "I think your Sherbrooke organization must be one of the very best in Canada. You have done magnificent work and the standard of the goods received from you is always of the highest order."

Before the meeting closed, it was decided to hold the regular meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Patriotic Association rooms, in the Art Hall.

IRISH RANGERS WILL HOLD RALLYSplendid Programme Has Been Arranged For Concert on Sunday Evening

SEVERAL PROMINENT SPEAKERS WILL ALSO ADDRESS THE AUDIENCE ON SUBJECT OF ENLISTING.

The Irish Canadian Rangers who have been recruiting in this city for some time, have met with very satisfactory results and are continuing their active recruiting campaign in Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships. In order to enable prospective recruits to learn of existing conditions in France and Belgium, as well as the advantages of joining the Irish Rangers, arrangements have been completed for a Grand Patriotic Rally, and Concert, to be held in His Majesty's Theatre, Sherbrooke, on Sunday evening, June 4th.

Sunday Night's Concert promises to be more popular than that of the last one with the citizens of Sherbrooke, judging from the programme which has been arranged. The chair will be taken by Captain Campbell Stuart, Chief Recruiting Officer, of the Battalion, and Captain The Hon. W. J. Shaughnessy, Adjutant of the Regiment, will deliver an address. Captain Shaughnessy, is the son of Lord Shaughnessy, of Montreal, and brother of Captain Hon. Frederick Shaughnessy, who fell in the battlefield of France a few weeks ago. Senators Mitchell and White, of Ottawa, have kindly consented to express their views on the recruiting question. It is also hoped that the Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, who is Honorary Colonel of the Regiment, will be able to spare the time to come to Sherbrooke and say a few words on behalf of the Rangers.

As for the musical part of the programme, Lieutenant Foley, of the Irish Rangers, is bringing out his Regimental Glee Club, and will be heard to advantage in Patriotic selections for which he is noted. Several well known local vocalists have also kindly consented to assist the organizers. The 53rd Regimental Band have kindly offered their services, and as Professor Badin who has recently returned from the front has resumed the leadership, a varied and well selected programme may be expected.

Lieutenant Farrell, who is in charge of recruiting in the Townships, states that there are a number of young men in town, and surrounding districts who are thinking seriously of joining His Majesty's Forces, and he feels confident that after attending Sunday Night's Concert, that the speakers above referred to will convince even those who have not yet thought of joining, that it is the duty of every physically fit young man to don the khaki. QUEBEC WILL BE LAST FOR PROHIBITION.

Smith's Falls, Ont., June 2. —Speaking at the public meeting of the Methodist Conference last night, Rev. Dr. Hazelwood, of Toronto, said Quebec appeared to be the last province which would adopt prohibition, but in time it would come in line with the sister provinces. Methodists were always in the van in this work and must not fail now. He had seen the leader of the Ontario Opposition applauding a temperance speech by the Premier, and this was as it should be. The speaker mentioned that the department, in addition to doing rescue work and looking after neglected children, was seeking to obtain better laws to deal with crime, immorality, bribery and corrupt practices of all kinds.

Several recruits have been signed on at Magog, as a result of the meeting. The Magog troop of Boy Scouts led by Lieut. Farrell and the Scoutmaster marched to the Market Hall in a body.

WHAT E. T. WOMEN ARE DOING FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

AN APPEAL FOR MORE WORKERS

East Angus, June 2 (Special).—The president of the East Angus Branch of the Patriotic Association would be pleased if the ladies who have taken Red Cross garments to their homes, and have some completed, would either leave them at the Red Cross Rooms or notify the president or secretary not later than Tuesday next, as a box is to be prepared for shipment on Thursday, June 8th.

The Committee of the Association are very anxious to get off the shirts which are being made at the present time. The demand for all kinds of supplies is enormous. We cannot neglect the appeal that is coming to us daily, and when we stop to think that the workers of East Angus are giving just one evening a week, while men are fighting daily in our defence, and the furnishing of the necessary supplies means life or death to them, surely the women of Angus, who have so courageously carried on this work, will put forth a special effort to work up the material on hand and so feel that we are doing our share in alleviating as far as possible, the suffering of those who are doing so much for us.

Only three hours a week! Will you not give the matter serious thought and decide to devote Tuesday evening to the work being done in aid of the Red Cross.

BERLIN CLAIMS VICTORY FOR GRAND FLEET

Admiralty Announces That Large British Battle Ships Were Sunk

Berlin, June 2.—(Special. By wireless to Sayville.)—The German Admiralty announces to-day that the German High Seas fleet on May 31 had encountered a British fighting fleet. The engagement which developed, the Admiralty says, was favorable to the Germans. The battle continued all night.

The German Admiralty announces that the large British battleship Warspite, the battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable, and two armored cruisers were destroyed.

It is also reported that a small British cruiser, a number of torpedo boat destroyers and torpedo boats were sunk.

MANY SHIPS DAMAGED.

The German Admiralty statement adds that by observation it was established that a large number of British battleships suffered damage from the fire of the German big ships and the attacks of the torpedo boat flotilla.

The Admiralty statement also declares that the British battleship Marlborough was hit by a torpedo, this being confirmed by the prisoners rescued. Several of the German ships rescued parts of the crews of the British ships which were sunk, they including, it is said, two men from the Indefatigable, the only survivors from that ship.

ADMITS LOSS OF GERMAN SHIPS.

On the German side the small cruiser Wiesbaden was sunk by gunfire, and the Pomern was sent to the bottom by a torpedo.

The fate of the Frauenlob is not known, and some torpedo boats did not return.

The German High Sea fleet, the statement adds, returned to Port Jemel.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

The text of the German Admiralty report, which is dated June 1, says: "During an enterprise directed to the northward, our High Sea fleet on May 31 encountered the main part of the British fighting fleet, which was considerably superior to our forces."

"During the afternoon between Skagerak and Horn Riff a heavy engagement developed, which was successful for us, and which continued during the whole night."

"In this engagement, so far as known up to the present, there were destroyed by us the large battleship Warspite, the battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable, two armored cruisers apparently of the Achilles type, one small cruiser, a new flagship of destroyers, the Turbanant, Nestor and Alcester, a large number of torpedo boat destroyers and one submarine."

"By observation which was free and clear of objects, it was stated that a large number of English battleships suffered from damage from our ships and the attacks of our torpedo boat flotilla during the day engagement and throughout the night."

"Among others, the large battleship Marlborough was hit by a torpedo. This was confirmed by prisoners. Several of our ships rescued parts of the crews of the sunk English ships, among them being two, and the only survivors of the Indefatigable."

"On our side, the small cruiser Wiesbaden, by hostile gunfire during the day engagement, and His Majesty's ship Pomern, during the night as the result of a torpedo, were sunk. "The fate of His Majesty's ship Frauenlob, which is missing, and of some torpedo boats which have not returned yet, is unknown."

"The High Sea fleet returned to-day (Thursday) into our port."

THREE UNARMED STEAMERS SUNK

London, June 2.—Lloyds reports that the British steamers Baron Tweedmouth and Julia Park, both unarmed, have been sunk. The British steamer Lady Lilian is reported sunk.

The Baron Tweedmouth was 5,007 tons gross and owned by the Hogarth Shipping Company, Limited, Liverpool.

The Julia Park was 2,900 tons, and was owned by the Park Steamship Company of Glasgow.

The Lady Lilian was bound from Newport News May 9 for Leghorn, and passed Gibraltar May 26. She measured 4,237 tons gross and is owned by the Redererei Steam Navigation Company, of Cardiff.

ORLANDO (INVINCIBLE.)

Have you ever noticed in smoking a good cigar that as you draw near the end it becomes more and more agreeable to the taste, and that you are sometimes reluctant about throwing away the butt?

Have you ever run the risk of burning your fingers, lips or moustache just for the special satisfaction those last few whiffs gave you?

If you have had these experiences you can readily understand why ORLANDO is so popular.

The ORLANDO is just like this all the way through—from the time you light it till the time you finish it—and besides all this it is nearly half a foot long.

It contains more satisfaction than any three-fourths cigar you will find and all the good dealers carry them.

Try this for yourself if you appreciate quality in your smoke.

FUNERAL OF GEN. GALLIENI

Impressive Public Demonstration in Paris at Ceremonies

Paris, June 2.—The funeral yesterday of Gen. Joseph Simeon Gallieni, former Minister of War, was the occasion of an impressive public demonstration. It began with a religious ceremony in the Hotel des Invalides, where the dead warrior's body had lain in state, at which Cardinal Amette, Archbishop of Paris, officiated. There followed a funeral oration in the court of the Invalides by Pierre Auguste Roques, Minister of War, and a military procession through the streets of Paris, the route of the cortege being packed with a vast multitude of persons gathered to pay tribute to the man who saved Paris in the initial crisis of the war.

PRESIDENT ATTENDED.
The ceremonies in the Invalides were attended by President Poincare, the Cabinet ministers, the members of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, members of the Diplomatic Corps, the highest officers of the army and the navy, academicians and savants.

OLD-FASHIONED WAR

Even Frederick the Great More Human Than Some

Frederick the Great, who combined supreme military gifts with freedom from scruple in policy, and was at the same time a great representative German, declared that the ordinary citizen ought never to be aware that his country is at war. Nothing could show more clearly the military ideal, however imperfectly it of the old European world. Atrocities, whether regarded as permissible or as inevitable, certainly occurred. But for the most part wars were the concern of the privileged upper class; they were rendered necessary by the dynastic quarrels of monarchs and were carried out by a professional class with aristocratic traditions and a more or less scrupulous regard to ancient military etiquette.

There are many stories of the sufferings of the soldiery in old times, in the midst of abundance, on account of military respect for civilian property. The legend, if legend it is, of the French officer who politely requested the English officer opposite him to "fire first" shows how something of the ancient spirit of chivalry was still regarded as the accompaniment of warfare. It was an occupation which only incidentally concerned the ordinary citizen. The English especially, protected by the sea and always living in open undefended cities, have usually been able to preserve this indifference to the continental wars in which their kings have constantly been engaged, and, as we see, even in the most unprotected European countries and the most profoundly warlike, the great Frederick set forth precisely the same ideal of war.

Busy London Streets.
The streets of London are busied with pedestrians, on an average, between six and seven in the evening, when thousands of workers are homeward bound. The total earning capacity of London's workers is estimated at nearly $900,000,000.

JOFFRE WITH HIS MEN

Parisian Heroes and Kindly General Described by Former Premier

Georges Clemenceau, ex-Premier, and fearless editor of "L'Homme Enchaîné," gives the following description of a meeting with General Joffre in one of the front line trenches: The commander-in-chief came walking along the trench in the midst of a drizzling rain. He was covered with mud like all the rest of us and as he walked along slowly he exchanged greetings with officers and men.

"Good day, Colonel."
"Good day, General."
Then the colonel took General Joffre out to see little Morvandieu on his observation post, a mere boy who blushed when his colonel introduced him to his chief as his best soldier with the words: "There is not much of him but what there is not afraid of anything on earth. I have not another man like him."

Joffre smiled, and his heart was in his kind, blue eyes as he shook the young hero's hand and presented him with a fine briar pipe. The poor boy was so confused that he did not know where to put it and finally stuck it between his teeth, while his hand went out and shook that of the general once more. As a matter of fact, there are Morvandieus everywhere, young Parisian boys who would go into the jaws of hell if ordered. Young and old soldiers outrival one another in bravery.

A little further on we see a Parisian, a man of forty-six, brown and sturdy like a mountaineer. He has just come in from a sap and his beard is full of mud. He does not deny he has been tired at times, but it is a blessed weariness, he says, which makes you sleep like a top whenever you have a chance. Near him stands a wounded soldier, a veritable giant, all pale with the loss of blood. He is being taken to the ambulance by a beardless boy on whom he leans heavily and it is touching to hear the motherly, gentle tone in which the boy addresses him: "Now, come along, little boy, and get your wounds bandaged." And saluting the smiling general he leads his "little boy" away.

Use For War Cripples

Hungary has appointed 300 severely wounded and incapacitated soldiers to the government telegraph service, after a course of special training.

The Tsar wears three rings, King George one; the late King wore two. When speaking in public, Lord Roberts Cecil frequently closes his eyes.

Colonials Aid France

Queen Renavaldo, ex-sovereign of Madagascar, is acting as hospital nurse at Algiers; her niece, Princess Marie-Louise Razafindramanitra, tending to the sick and wounded of the Petit Lycee Hospital. This little lady is immensely popular, her very lengthy cognomen, which signifies God's Little Girl, being emblematic of her goodly disposition.

CROWN PRINCE'S CHIEF

Eighty-year-old Warrior Was Real Head at Verdun

Field-Marshal Count von Haeseler, eighty years old but sitting his horse as straight as an arrow, was the adviser of the Crown Prince and the real commander at Verdun. The bronzed and grizzled warrior was the idol of his soldiers. He is a veteran indeed, for he fought throughout the wars of 1864, 1866 and 1870. Despite his age Count von Haeseler was always one of the most modern and undoubtedly one of the most important of German generals. He is held up to the soldiers as an example of the true Spartan. He drinks only milk, shuns alcohol and in this direction has had a tremendous moral influence upon his troops even in time of peace. On horseback—riding is the aged general's favorite sport—he presents a striking picture. He sits as straight as the youngest recruit and his smooth-shaven, wrinkled but rosy checked face contrasts singularly with his flowing snow-white hair.

CANADIAN BLACK WATCH

The Glasgow News rejoices that Montreal is raising still another Highland regiment for the war. The Montreal Highlanders, known as the "5th Royal Scots," are associated with the Black Watch, and the first battalion (the Thirtieth) which they sent to the front wore the Black Watch uniform. The second battalion, which was garbed in a specially designed khaki tunic, bore the historic number "42nd," and the third battalion also bears a number associated with the Black Watch, for this new battalion is styled the "78th Regiment," this being the old number of the second battalion of the gallant "Forty-Two." After all, it is appropriate that the Montreal Highlanders should be associated with the Black Watch, for both battalions of our popular old regiment took part in the capture of Montreal about a hundred and fifty years ago.

As a measure of war economy, the schoolboys of Harrow have cut off their immemorial coat tails and also wear fewer buttons.

THEY ADMIRE CANADA

Honor Sacrifices With Gifts to New Parliament Buildings

Writing to the New York Times, J. W. Hamilton of St. Paul, Minn., expresses a kindly idea for Canada as follows: "Canada is now planning her new capital buildings. What an opportunity is thus given to the English-speaking nations to show their regard for the Dominion by offering sufficient fine hardwoods to panel Senate Hall and the House, or beautiful stained glass windows for those chambers! The United States would, of course, be expected to join in this plan. With the names of the donors, their coats-of-arms and date of the gifts, inscribed in different colored woods, or emblazoned in the stained glass, what a message of kindness and goodwill to the Dominion would they always convey!"

A premature or an inconclusive peace would be as disastrous as the war itself.—Mr. John Dodge, M.P.

As far as commerce is concerned, Germany is a beaten nation.—Mr. Runciman.

SAILOR'S PIN MONEY

Jack is a Handy Man at Turning a Penny

There are several official and many unofficial ways in which the British sailor makes extra money in his scanty leisure time afloat. Chief among the purely official means Jack has of adding to his hard-earned "screw" are by doing shorthand and typewriting for officers, acting as "schoolmaster," as ship's librarian, or as organist. For playing the hymns at Church service he will get an additional six cents a day, twelve cents a day extra is paid to the librarian, and the "schoolmaster" adds ten cents a day to his pay. Six cents a day over his ordinary pay is earned by the man who numbers shorthand and typewriting among his accomplishments, for he will get work as an officer's writer, or secretary, as we should say ashore. Then he may get work at an occasional court-martial. For attending these unhappy functions and taking the official notes of the proceedings he gets eleven cents for every folio (seventy-two words) that he writes.

But it is through the unofficial means that most sailors augment their wages. Aboard every ship-of-war there is a "Jew." By birth he may be English, Irish, Welsh, or Scottish, but he'll still be called the "Jew" by his shipmates, because his odd-time job afloat is tailoring. This is probably the most profitable of all Jack's spare time trades. He undertakes anything in the needle-and-thread line, from sewing on a trousers button to making a complete suit of clothes, perfectly cut and fitting beautifully, if he is supplied with the material. His charge for this is $2.20.

Shortening the Weapon

News that the French troops are being armed with knives gives a grim glimpse of the character of warfare being waged. The bayonet cannot be used effectively in trench clearing after a successful sortie, so knives are being served. By the Roman it was said that nations which shorten their swords lengthen their boundaries. May the latest action of our allies speedily justify this maxim!—Ottawa Free Press.

MUST TEACH HATRED

Horrid Orders to Prussia's School Teachers—Worship of Kaiser

The following circular letter has been sent to all the school inspectors of Prussia by the Department of Education: "The wish has been voiced in various circles that school teachers, for educational reasons, in their lectures to the children should fight against the growth of hatred among nations and prepare the coming reconciliation of the peoples. Such suggestions must by no means be listened to by those to whom is confided the moulding of the mind of our children. On the contrary, let it be seen as the principal task of the teachers in all primary schools to make sure that the terrible lessons and experiences of these present days leave indelible traces upon the minds of the coming generations. The most beautiful task of our teachers should be to instill into the minds of the children a growing love and admiration of our Kaiser and King and the Hohenzollern dynasty. A daily prayer for our august sovereign has been introduced in our schools, and it should remain after the war as a living expression of this love." Pads and gloves only came into use in cricket with the introduction of over-arm bowling.

LUCK OF GEN. HAIG

The British commander, General Haig, is adored by his men, not only for his reckless courage, but because he never asks them to do anything he is not prepared to do himself first. A "Thank God" literally ran down the British lines in the early days of the fighting in Flanders when it was learned that their commander had had a miraculous escape from being blown to pieces by a German shell. The story is this. Sir Douglas and a fellow officer were watching the progress of an action from the top of a haystack. Somehow or other, in the uncanny way they have, the Germans got to know this, and suddenly a shell dropped clean on the haystack without, however, exploding. Before the two officers had time to recover from the shock another shell dropped, and by sheer luck—they call him "Lucky Haig" in the army—that also failed to explode. Sir Douglas was wise enough not to trust too much to luck, and he took up a safer position. Had either shell exploded both officers would have been blown to pieces.

On another occasion, a few days before Prince Maurice of Battenberg was killed, the Germans got wind that Sir Douglas used a big barn as one of his quarters. A shell fell on that barn and nine men were killed. General Haig had only been out of the building a short time, and if the Germans had only got their news an hour or so earlier the Empire should have had to look for another commander.

Our Serbian Allies

J. W. McConaughy writes in Munsey's: The civilization of the Serbs may not measure up to Western standards. They know nothing of the blessings of child labor and there is not a poorhouse or a community of paupers in the entire kingdom. Paupers, as the western nations understand it, is unknown.

Sadness of War Reflected in a Woman's Proposal to Marry

The agony columns of the daily papers used to be chiefly given up to cryptic messages from lovers and advertisements of dogs strayed from home. Now they mainly tell little stories of the great war. Three or four lines in the agony column frequently give more insight into the human side of the war than do a sheet of official communications and dispatches from special correspondents. Here, for example, is an advertisement which recently appeared in a great newspaper. A novel could be written round it: "Lady, fiancé killed, will gladly marry and give up life to the care and happiness of man blinded or otherwise incapacitated by the war." Could any woman make a bigger sacrifice? It is doubtful.

Confusion of Germans

Russian officers returning from the front relate that during an attempt to get round the Russian position on Lake Ritsiviat, at night, two German detachments came into collision, and deluged one another with shrapnel and case shell for some minutes before they discovered their mistake. The Russians, profiting by the confusion, delivered a timely attack, and the enemy was chased back to his own lines, leaving many dead and wounded on the field.

Invention of Shoddy

Shoddy was invented and the first two machines installed for its production in England 100 years ago this year.

I am convinced that after the war the people of this country will not be prepared to resume trading relations with the Germans on the conditions which existed before the war.—Sir J. Walton, M.P.

The Lake View House was formally opened to the public on May 24th, with the annual dance in the Hall. About seventy couples were present and everything went off as usual. A large crowd of people spent the day at the Lake, coming from the surrounding towns. Gardening is in full swing here at present. The cold, backward spring made the gardens late. Tuesday was very near a frost.

NOTICE!

As you know my stock has been damaged by water caused by a fire that took place over my store. I have had my claim adjusted with the fire insurance adjusters, and we are now working day and night to put the stock in order or in other words getting ready for the biggest sale we have ever held.

We must clear out every dollars worth of goods in my store at any price we can get for them, and when this is accomplished I will start over again with a new stock of merchandise and a new organization.

We will let you know through the Record when we will open up again for business. Bear in mind this will be the biggest fire sale that ever took place in Sherbrooke.

ELECTIONS IN GRANBY TOWN'S

Court Orders New Election To Replace Two Councillors Recently Unseated

ANOTHER MUNICIPAL EMBROGLIO IN CONNECTION WITH SAME COUNCIL

Granby, June 1.—(Special)—Today (Friday) has been fixed for the election of two Municipal Councillors for the Township of Granby to replace Messrs. Elie Bernard and Joseph Berard, whose election has just been annulled by Mr. Justice Hackett, at Sweetburg.

It will be remembered that at the regular general election, in January, these two parties were declared elected by acclamation, by the presiding officer, Mr. Hector Pare, who rejected the nomination of their two opponents, Messrs. A. J. Gendreau and Alfred Lapalme on technical grounds. The Court has just declared that this conduct was unjustifiable, and that the four candidates should have been balloted upon.

The result is awaited with much interest.

A OTHER MUNICIPAL EMBROGLIO

This is not the full extent of the trouble in the Township of Granby. Two other judgments have been rendered against the Corporation of the Township of Granby, arising out of certain resolutions, tenders, and contracts, to buy a piece of land from the same Hector Pare, and to build thereon a municipal building.

A few weeks ago, the resolution providing for the purchase of land and the borrowing of the sum of $6000.00, was set aside by the Superior Court of the District.

Now, last week, another judgment was rendered annulling fresh resolutions, as well as maintaining injunction proceedings to stop certain works which had been begun by the Municipality under the supervision of one Theodore Delorme.

The first judgment has been appealed from, but further proceedings may depend upon the result of the coming election, which might decide the balance of power, as the Board of Councillors is divided in their opinion.

APPRECIATED GIFT OF SOCKS.

Greenlay, June 2.—(Special).—The following letter of appreciation has been received by Mrs. L. Pierce, of Greenlay, Windsor Mills, Que., from a soldier in France:

"Trooper John Sweet 48600 Canadian Victoria Hospital, B.E.C., France,

May, 1916.

Dear Mrs. Greenlay:

Just a line to let you know that I was the lucky man to receive the socks you so kindly knitted. I can hardly find words of appreciation for your great, great kindness. If God spares me through this terrible campaign, I would very much like to thank you personally by calling upon you. I came from Quebec city myself. In the meantime kindly accept my best wishes. May God bless you in health and contentment. This is the sincere wish of yours sincerely,

Trooper John Sweet, France.

The socks received by Trooper J. Sweet were knit last December and were the thirty-third and last pair by Mrs. Greenlay, who is an old lady eighty-three years of age and has not been able to knit any since then. Her daughter placed her name and address with Christmas Greetings in the last "bit" of work she finished for the soldiers. How it gladdened her heart to know it had done something to cheer one who was in trouble, and far from home.

WITNESSED LIVELY RUNAWAY

Hatley, June 2. (Special).—A lively runaway occurred here Tuesday evening when Mr. Ben. Giroux's horse with buggy attached, started from "Maplewood Farm", about two miles south of the village, and running by a circuitous route, finally brought up on Mr. Glidden's lawn, near the Methodist Church. A small crowd was attracted, who made frantic, but fruitless efforts to capture the frightened animal. Dashing back through the village, and driving onlookers out of his path, the horse made for home, the only resultant damage, being a couple of broken spokes.

MET OLD FRIEND AT THE FRONT

Hatley, June 2. (Special).—Friends in this vicinity of Pte. George Bigbie, formerly of England, who, several years ago, spent some time here, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hodges, and who left Montreal with the first contingent, for overseas service, will be glad to learn that he is still attached to the "Ambulance Corps, 'somewhere in France'". Upon receiving a letter from Mrs. Hodges, stating that her eldest son, E. A. Hodges, Jr., had left this spring with the Ambulance Corps, Pte. Bigbie, at once, looked up his old acquaintance from Hatley, and writes Mrs. Hodges that the meeting was one of mutual, and special pleasure.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT AT DANVILLE

Danville, June 2.—(Special).—The Old Time entertainment given by the members of the Federated Mission Band in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening was an unqualified success in every particular—the attendance was exceptionally good, consequently the receipts were quite satisfactory. The entertainment consisted of a play entitled "Ye Old Time Ladies' Aids Meeting." The participants were all dressed in old fashioned costumes, relics of bygone years. The meeting was supposed to be held at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Green, who acted admirably the part of hostess. The other participants in the play were members of the Aid with the exception of some visitors. The jokes, small talk, and gossip were very amusing and were the subject of much amusement to the audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the program set forth by the members of this enterprising society.

The following is a list of the characters and those who represented them:—Mrs. Benjamin Green, ye hostess—Beatrice Webb; Mrs. Percival de Cyt Fitz-Hammond, a guest from Boston—Mrs. A. Anthony; Mrs. John Kindly, guest from Boston—Lucy Stockwell; Mrs. Ebenezer Crowler—Anna Stevenson; Mrs. Belinda Kane—Grace Shaw; Mrs. Samantha Wise—Ada Wilson; Mrs. Stephanie Dale, a suffragette—Alice Burnett; Mrs. Matilda Lowell—Alice Burbank; Mrs. Priscilla Black—Hilda Pope; Mrs. Timothy Day, ye treasurer—Edna Boyd; Mrs. Hannah White—Ruth McCallum; Mrs. Noah Smith, ye president—Marion McKenzie; Mrs. Methuselah Scott—Mildred Brown; Mrs. Jared Hoyt—Dorothy Sadler; Mrs. Reuben Harris—Gertrude Fowler; Mrs. Christopher Brown—Isabel Livingstone; Mrs. Levi Jones—Grace Brown; Miss Belinda Harpe, suffragette—Margaret Houston; Mrs. Louisa Gray, ye secretary—Velma Scott; Mrs. Bridget Henderson—Mildred Burbank; Mrs. Hezekiah Bruce—Monica Philbrick; Miss Bedella Chugglewitt, maid—Olive Leet.

The following composed the second part of the program which brought to a close one of the most pleasant evenings ever given by local talent, in Danville, in which each member did her part to perfection: Solo—Juanita—Mrs. A. Anthony; Solo—"Tipperary Mary"—Miss I. McCallum; Solo—"Silver Threads Among the Gold"—Mrs. R. Millar; Violin Solo—Miss Ellen MacLean; Song—Far Away—Rev. L. A. SUCCESS OF FORMER SOUTH DURHAM MAN.

South Durham, June 2.—(Special).—A copy of The Colonizers' Review, of Seattle, Wash., has been received by the South Durham correspondent, which gave a sketch of the career of Greer I. C. Barton, son of the late Wm. Barton of South Durham and Mrs. Barton, who at present lives at Seattle with her two sons. Mr. Greer Barton is one of South Durham's former boys, having received his early education at the Model School here, and one of whom his many friends and relatives here may justly feel proud and will be interested in reading a few items from said sketch. He was born and spent his early years on the farm recently sold to Mr. Thomas Scott, but when about 16 or 17 years of age he left home and went to a relative at Brandon, Man., where he learned the butcher business. In 1898 he took a big outfit of cattle into Dawson City, At this work he continued until 1912, when he came to Seattle and formed a partnership under the name of Barton & Co. Mr. Barton did not need to take up the grind and hard work of this business, but he was not content to become a parasite on society or to rust out. He wanted to help the other fellow, and realized that the only way he could really help was to give others an opportunity to help themselves. Looking over the commonwealth of Western States, he saw that the farmers and stock-raisers needed a market at home for their goods. What followed was work, unremitting and unromantic, backed by thousands of dollars that had been snatched from the hard north country by fourteen years of effort, and now in the dream about to come true. Barton & Co.'s plant has a capacity of

NEED FOR WOMEN CABBIES

Hungary's Whole Man Power Has Gone to Front

Public cabs have almost disappeared from the streets of the Hungarian capital, Budapest, as all able-bodied drivers were called to the colors and the older men now have to work in munitions factories. Threatened with ruin, the cab owners appealed to the municipal authorities for permission employ female drivers. The request was granted and Budapest now already has about fifty "lady cabbies." The female drivers have to be over twenty-four years old and must furnish references in regard to their moral character. The necessary license is only issued to them after they pass an examination and prove that they are able to drive a carriage safely through the crowded streets.

THE LATE TITUS A. DAVIS, BOYNTON

Ayer's Chf. June 2. (Special).—Among the sudden deaths which have occurred in Stanstead County during the month of May, was that of Mr. Titus A. Davis at his home, near Boynton, Quebec, on May 19th, as previously reported. Mr. Davis was the son of the late Joshua and Lydia Brainerd Davis. He was born on March 25th, 1852, and he has always lived on the old home place, where he was born and where he died.

He was married on December 12th, 1876, to Miss Lelia Lincoln, of Fairfax, Que. Mr. Davis has lived an industrious and upright life, highly respected by all who knew him. He was a successful farmer and a trustee and deacon of the Congregational Church of Boynton. Although a robust man through life, yet during the last two years, Mr. Davis' health had not been good. He spent the past winter in the state of Florida, returning home in April, seemingly much improved in health, until he was stricken with Apoplexy, on May 15th, and died on the morning of May 19th.

Deceased leaves a widow, three sons, Clinton, Alfred and Edward; two daughters, Daisy and Dora; and two brothers, N. J. Davis, of Stockholm, N.Y., and F. J. Davis, of Somerville, Mass.

The funeral service was held in the Congregational Church, Boynton, on May 21st, the pastor, Rev. C. Moore officiating. Many wreaths of beautiful flowers covered the casket. The three sons of deceased, and his brother, F. J. Davis, acted as bearers.

The body of the husband and father, and brother was laid to rest in the North Stanstead (Moulton) Cemetery.
