PRICE—TWO CENTS

NEW DIVISIONS WIDELY AFFECT ELECTORS HERE

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., Will Announce Future Plans Shortly — Had Stressed Need for Equal Representation

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., stated yesterday that it was still too early to make any comment on the forthcoming Provincial elections. He will, however, make his plans known shortly, he said.

Interviewed prior to leaving Tuesday for Quebec City to confer with Legislative members on the unexpected announcement that Provincial elections had been set for October 25, W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., outlined briefly the new electoral boundaries so far as they will effect local electors.

The new divisions, Mr. Bulloch pointed out, will be as follows: Outremont—takes in Outremont, Park Extension, Model City, and the city ward of Mount Royal; N.D.G. division—N.D.G., Hampstead, Cote St. Luc and Montreal West; Westmount—St. George—Westmount and the former St. George riding.

In the platform he placed before the electors in 1936 Mr. Bulloch had strongly advocated redistribution of the old division. He at that time stressed the need for more equal representation of English-speaking citizens of the riding at Quebec and has worked for that objective during his tenure of office.

ACADEMY FORMS NEW CLASS; HAS FINE LIBRARY

Grades Six and Seven at St. Leo's Will Receive Manual Training

A new class in manual training (woodcraft) for grades six and seven, under the direction of L. Pilon, has been organized at St. Leo's Academy. It was announced yesterday by Brother George, principal.

Pupils in the last two classes of the lower school division of the academy will receive an hour's instruction in woodwork each week. Although manual training formed part of the curriculum in previous years, no regular schedule had been maintained.

A large number of new books have been added to the shelves of the library of the academy during the past summer and now total well over 7,000 in number, including fiction and non-fiction volumes. The new books have all been contributed.

A number of new volumes have been added to the school's music department which now has an exceptionally extensive library for an academy of its size.

Calvary Church Plans Service Of Dedication

In Calvary church on Sunday morning the teachers and officers of both morning and afternoon Sunday schools will share in a service of dedication. This service will be held in conjunction with the Communion of the Lord's Supper. The first Sunday in October is being sponsored by Christian bodies as World Communion Sunday; Calvary Church invites all who are seeking to follow Jesus Christ as Lord and Master, to share in this service of Communion. New members will be received at this service. The Minister of Calvary, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will conduct the service and deliver the sermon.

The morning Sunday School will open on Sunday. Scholars are invited to attend the worship service in the Church at 11 a.m. and after the singing of the children's hymn to proceed to their class work in the hall. The session of the school will end at the same time as the preaching service so that scholars may rejoin their parents.

Only Slight Damage Caused In Collision

When his machine skidded on a wet street car rail opposite 4824 Sherbrooke street, a truck driven by Buster Vernon, of 567 Canning street, collided into the rear of an automobile operated by William Williamson, 240 Percival avenue, at 2:50 p.m. on Saturday. Neither vehicle was badly damaged.

O. Robert Beal; first aid (beginners), Staff-Sgt. James Peterson; physical training, W. O. Robert Beal; radio and signalling, Instructor Ross Way, assisted by Corp. Donald Taylor. Handicraft of various types will be commenced on Tuesday evening and boys interested are asked to register with Pte. Gordon Kearns. Captain Richardson will have Lieuts. The band will be directed by Bandmaster Charles King.

Each Sunday afternoon thousands of Brigade boys throughout the Empire meet for fellowship and prayer. At this time of international distress these Brigade Bible Classes unite in prayer for their Empire and Brigade boys are urged to carry on their private devotions unceasingly.

Squad competitions will be commenced on Friday evening and by the present trend of things will be keener than ever. Corporal Don Taylor will have charge of the first squad and Sgt. William Mulligan the second. The band will be under Corporal Philip Lamb. AFTER THE STORM, POLES RETURN TO FIND ONLY WAR DEBRIS

Polish and British consors who passed on this photo before it was flown to New York identified it as ruins of working class dwelling in Warsaw following German air raid on city. Picturesque, but tragic, this is another shot by Eric Calcraig, NEA staff photographer, who was decorated by Polish government for his excellent spot photos of civilian suffering on the eastern front.

Election of Officers Held At Westmount High

Ronald Rankin Named President of Westmount High School Group — Exceptionally Active Season Anticipated — Has Made Steady Progress

(By Ross Cameron)

An assembly for the election of officers to the Directorial Board of the Dramatic and Debating Society of Westmount High School has just been called and the announcement of those who received the deciding majority vote was issued and posted on Monday.

The newly-elected executive body: Director and supervisor of dramatics, Miss MacDonald; president, Ronald Rankin; vice-president, Merleie Cayford; secretary, Joan Duncan; treasurer, Jack Cummings. Staff advisors, Miss L. B. Truax; J. G. Stewart.

Outside of the powerful Athletic Association the Dramatic and Debating Society is recognized as the most active group in the school and the long series of stage hits which fill the record books of former years are conclusive evidence of the enthusiasm displayed by all sections of the school.

The society is by no means a new one. Organized as far back as 1910 by Mr. Worsfold (now retired from the faculty), the D. and D. has progressed gradually through the many years to the strong position it holds today. Each and every undertaking ever attempted has been crowned with success and it was always due to the wholehearted co-operation and zesty energy of the people who interested themselves in it. Those who have left the school and who once had a share in its productions will always remember the fun they had and the intense feeling of gratification which was theirs once the curtain had fallen on a third-night performance before a jammed auditorium.

Good Attendance

The successes of recent years have enjoyed such a large and steady attendance that the treasurer's financial report of last term reached heights never anticipated. This happy state of affairs enabled the society to purchase two memberships in the M.R.T. for distribution among those who had shown special aptitude in dramatics.

A large number of new models is being introduced this season, notable among which are bookstands, Charlie McCarthy puppets, and many kinds of puzzles and games. Special new hobby this year is the making of belts and other articles with cord. Indian moccasins will be of interest to the older boys.

Ross Seaman, Gordon Mackey, and Wallace Beaton will lead the club which meets every Friday night after the Junior, Intermediate, and Senior supper.

R. M. R. SOLDIERS MOVE INTO CITY CLUBHOUSE NOW USED AS BARRACKS

Between 60 and 70 Men Stationed at Westmount Athletic Grounds — Majority of Them From Outside Points — Clubhouse Has Been Altered to Meet Military Requirements — Bunks Installed On All Floors of Building

Between 60 and 70 soldiers attached to the Royal Montreal Regiment (M.G.) are now barracked in the clubhouse of the Westmount Athletic Grounds, the majority of them being men who have recruited from points outside the city, it was announced at the armory of the R.M.R. yesterday.

The clubhouse has been altered to meet the requirements of the regiment and approximately 250 bunks have been installed. It was found impossible to provide sleeping accommodation for the regiment's full war time strength of over 700 men and the remainder will have to be placed in other quarters.

The old M.A.A.A. building resembles its former appearance from an outside view only. The interior of the structure has been changed entirely in order to provide for the needs of the soldiers. Bunks have been placed on the three floors of the building; greatly enlarged toilet facilities have been installed; an officers' mess has been erected and a large mess has been set up for the use of the privates.

The Officer Commanding, Major Slessor, stated yesterday that recruiting was progressing satisfactorily and that approximately 25 men were being enrolled daily. The recruits are of a particularly high calibre, he stated.

Late recruiting figures reveal that a high percentage of residents of Westmount and Notre-Dame-de-Grace are now enrolling in the regiment. They are particularly welcome as it has had its permanent peace time base in Westmount for many years.

The outstanding reputation which the regiment gained in the last Great War has resulted in persons seeking enlistment from all parts of the Province and from many points in the U.S.A. A number of applications have come in from as far afield as Texas and California. These have had to be refused, however.

The Westmount branch of the Y.M.C.A. has given the regiment the full use of its facilities and soldiers of the unit parade to the branch to swim in the pool three days a week—on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

Under the arrangement each soldier is given the opportunity to swim for two periods weekly.

So far the regiment has not commenced drilling at the Athletic Grounds and all outdoor drill has been confined to Westmount Park.

Prizes are awarded to the winners of track and field meets, golf and tennis tournaments, playground events, handicraft work, and to winning teams.

Special features of the evening are a display of the articles made on the playgrounds during the summer by handicraft groups, and an exhibition of stamps by the Westmount Stamp Club.

Although no official plans have yet been made it is expected that a dance will again be held following the awarding of the prizes.

STAMP CLUB MEETING

Westmount "Y's" Stamp Club for boys will meet for its opening on Saturday, at 4:00 p.m. in the Board Room with Gus Kirner as its leader. Boys are invited to bring their stamp collections and traders. Boys wishing to start collections will be given special attention in a group by themselves.

MONTHLY MEETING

The first regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Stanley Presbyterian Church will be held on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. It is hoped that as many women of the church as possible will attend as plans for assisting the Red Cross will be discussed.

Wm. D. Kilpatrick, C.S.B., Spoke At Victoria Hall

The Kingdom of Heaven is attained and matter, sin, sickness and death disappear when the individual human consciousness become entirely spiritual. William Duncan Kilpatrick, C.S.B., of Detroit, Michigan, stated in a lecture given under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Montreal, in Victoria Hall on Monday evening.

Mr. Kilpatrick, who addressed an unusually large gathering, is a member of the Board of Lecturers of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. His lecture was entitled, "Christian Science: Its Message of Individual Salvation."

The text of his lecture follows: "What is God? No person who ever lived could more clearly explain to us what God is than Jesus the Christ. You may recall the little incident of the meeting of Jesus with the woman of Samaria at the well of Jacob at Sychar, and how the woman, in her argumentative and more or less cynical attitude, catechized the Master as to God and where and how He should be worshipped. You will recall also, among other things, that Jesus said to her an answer to her questionings: 'Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father . . . But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth . . . God is a Spirit.'

"Ye shall neither in this mountain nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father." Meaning what? Why that God is not a humanly circumscribed, limited, or localized personality who could be conceived of as being in one place or locality, and not in any other place or locality. It means that God is not to be thought of as posted or located, as in a mountain or as at Jerusalem, but that He is to be understood as infinite, as everywhere present, and as always available to each and every one of us. This fuller explanation takes away from God any sense of materiality or hu-

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1939

CANADA 'TOPS' IN ENGLAND

Canada's prestige was never higher in Great Britain than it is at the present time. The welcome we gave Their Majesties on their visit here early in the summer, and the prompt and efficient manner in which we have taken our stand beside the Motherland in the present conflict have been thoroughly appreciated in Britain. An example of the manner in which Canada is being singled out for special attention, was provided at the dinner which follows the annual general meeting of the Royal Geographical Society in London. Sir George Clerk, Foreign Secretary of the Society, in proposing the toast to "Our Guests," mentioned specifically His Excellency the French Ambassador, H. E. the Polish Ambassador, the Norwegian Minister and the Swedish Minister; the Apostolic Delegate, Dr. William Godfrey; the Chief of the Imperial General Staff, General Viscount Gort; Air Chief Marshal Sir Cyril Newall; the Warden of Nuffield College; the Master of the Mercers Company, Brigadier Clement Smith; and several others. And he concluded with the following: "I have left to the last all mention of one who is, in a sense, the most important of all our guests. But indeed the High Commissioner for Canada and Mrs. Massey are so well known to us all that it is superfluous to extend to them that welcome which they must know is theirs wherever Englishmen foregather. But this I must say: Our King and his gracious Consort have just returned from the great Dominion of Canada where they were received with an unprecedented demonstration of loyalty and affection. And I am sure that Their Majesties would agree that the golden way had been largely paved for them by the work of Mr. Vincent Massey. I give you the toast of Our Guests, coupled with the name of the High Commissioner for Canada."

A SUDDEN ELECTION

Local political circles — both Conservative and Liberal — were caught entirely by surprise by Premier Duplessis' announcement of a Provincial election on October 25, next. The present administration had two years still to run, and the general impression was that owing to the exigencies of the situation which today faces this country and others of the British Empire, all elections — Federal and Provincial — would be postponed until the latest date permitted by the constitution.

From chance remarks given The Examiner, even Mr. Duplessis' own local organization knew nothing of the intention to call an election, while Liberals did not conceal their annoyance. However, although it is too early to obtain any very definite opinions, it is generally conceded that from Mr. Duplessis' standpoint the time is opportune, because his principal opponents — the Quebec members of the Federal cabinet — are rather too busy just now to take much part in the campaign. Forecasts have been freely made throughout the city that the campaign will be a 'hot' one, and in view of this expectation it is interesting to note the restrictions that it is rumored will be applied by Ottawa; namely, no radio broadcasts from any meeting; no broadcasts from any station without prior revision of the speech by the censor; and the presence at all important meetings of one or more stenographers whose transcripts will be reviewed later by Ottawa for seditious statements. There will no doubt be a loud squawk at these restrictions, but it must be remembered that this is one provincial election that will be watched carefully by centres as far away as Berlin and Moscow, and Ottawa is thoroughly alive to the damage that unpatriotic utterances might bring.

RADIO LICENSE FEES

Strange as it might seem to Canadian radio owners who have been complaining about the $2.50 license fee we pay, Canada is (barring the United States where there are no fees) the lowest taxed of any country in the world as far as radio receiving sets are concerned. The following typical figures are supplied by Mr. Howard S. Ross: Austria $6.00, Australia $3.75, Czechoslovakia $5.00, Denmark $3.40, Germany $9.00, Great Britain $2.50, Italy $6.50, New Zealand $7.50, Norway $5.00, Sweden $2.50, South Africa $6.00.

THE LATE HAROLD MACKLE

The great esteem in which the late Harold James Mackle was held was forcefully emphasized at his funeral Friday afternoon, when the large chapel of the William Wray funeral home was filled to overflowing with a crowd that represented men and women from many spheres of business, professional and social activity. Mr. Mackle, a veteran of the World War, and at the time of his death zone manager for the General Motors company, had lived for many years in this district. Among those who attended the funeral were W. R. Bulloch, M.P.P., Alderman James Donnelly, Murray Hayes of the local Men's Conservative Association, F. P. Whitman of the Liberal Club, A. K. Cameron, George Stephen, Carl Ott, John Greig, M. Hushion, E. J. Umphrey, general sales manager of the General Motors Products, Oshawa; P. N. Bery and T. C. Jones, zone sales managers in Montreal for the General Motors Company; and many others. To the late Mr. Mackle's widow; to his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Mackle of Regent avenue; and to other members of the family we extend our sincerest condolences in their great bereavement.

THE FORUM

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed
Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Statistical comparison of power driven machinery available per individual worker in:—United States, 4.86; Germany, 2.61; Great Britain, 2.56; Canada, 2.17; Italy, 2.14; France, 1.78.—Forbes April 1939.

According to these figures every American worker commands an average mechanical force equivalent to 4.86 Horse Power. One H.P. is sufficient to lift 33,000 pounds one foot per minute. Therefore 4.86 H.P. can lift 160,380 one foot per minute.

Unfortunately while man has gained ever increasing power he has lost the art of using it for his individual advantage. Our prehistoric ancestors with the aid of a rock thong tied to a stick fed and defended himself and founded an earth conquering race. Present-day high-powered descendants seem to be losing the art of working for their own benefit and feeding themselves — everyone. Where have we developed weakness? Their arms (now mechanized) are stronger than ever. Has the weakness developed in the head?

It is claimed by a number of economists that the primary purpose of the U.S.A. Federal Surplus Commodity Corporation is to keep up the prices of certain foods — not to enable those on relief to get a better balanced ration. Instances are cited of representatives of the F.S.C.C. appearing at the New York egg exchange to bid up the price of eggs to a price level "deemed wise." This adverse affects the needy consumer who is not on relief and is obliged to pay higher prices for his food.

In Lebanon, New Jersey, the John B. Pierce Foundation has erected a one-storey, five room dwelling with many unique features for less than $2000 exclusive of land cost. Erected and equipped in five days, almost the entire house is built of plywood, impregnated with phenol, sealing it against moisture. Plywood sections were fabricated in a shop set up on the ground. All furniture is built in: a living room divan (which makes up into a bed for two), beds for two persons in each of the two bedrooms, desks, bookshelves, storage bins, dish closet, and serving table in the kitchen. A combination fireplace and heating unit is in the living room burns stove coal; hot water is supplied by an automatic oil-burning unit. In the kitchen is a steel sink and refrigerator.

Frances E. Willard, M.A., LL.D. a leading American was born on Sept. 28, 1839, near Rochester, N.Y. She graduated from Northwestern Female College in 1858 and was professor of natural science in that institution in 1862. She was professor of aesthetics in Northwestern University and president of the Women's College; Secretary of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union and later president. She was one of the founders of the Prohibition party in 1884; was editor of Chicago Post and later of the Union Signal. She wrote Woman and Temperance; Glimpses of Fifty Years; Nineteen Beautiful Years; Woman in the Pulpit; A Great Mother and wrote many able articles and pamphlets. She originated the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union of which she became president. This great woman died February 17, 1898.

Workers and their families of Scotland for the first time enjoyed "holidays with pay" formerly the preserve of the bourgeoisie and the better paid skilled workers. For most families holidays were few and far between. John Brown & Co., the builder of the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth paid out on the eve of the Glasgow $500,000 as holiday pay bonus.

While the Highlands of Scotland have not been formally declared to be a distressed area, the government has recognized its special position. It offered a grant of $325,000 a year for ten years toward services and public works. It is reported that the smallness of the grant has angered Scottish members of all parties and has given a new impetus to Scottish nationalism.

The National Congress of India has long advocated that in view of the fact that at least 90% of the people are illiterate it can only be by the use of state resources that this illiteracy can be liquidated.

LAST TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE P. E. LAYTON

Large Number in Attendance at Funeral — Was Founder of Important Work

Friends from all walks of life gathered yesterday to pay final tribute to Phillip Edward Layton, when funeral services were held in the hall of the Montreal Association for the Blind. Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones, of Calvary United Church, assisted by the Rev. Canon F. C. Ireland, of St. Phillip's Church, Montreal West, conducted the final rites. Mr. Layton died suddenly in his 80th year, at his home, 2526 Mayfair avenue, although in poor health for considerable time after an automobile accident in June 1938, from which he did not completely recover. Mr. Layton was active until a week before his demise.

He was the founder and president of the Montreal Association for the Blind, and also president of the Canadian Federation of the Blind. Although blind since early childhood, he overcame this handicap and became a musician, and with his brother, Herbert established the musical instrument company of Layton Brothers Limited.

Successful
In business he was particularly successful and used his wealth to be a benefactor to many hospitals and other institutions. It was through his efforts coupled with those of Mrs. Layton, that many of the blind in the Dominion have been so greatly ameliorated in the past half century.

Born in London, England, he attended the St. George School for the Blind and graduated from the Royal Normal College of Music for the Blind as an organist and piano tuner. In the fall of 1887 he came to Canada, bringing with him a set of piano tuning instruments which had been given as a first prize by H.R.H. the Princess Royal of England. Finding that there was a disinclination to engage a blind person as an organist and choirmaster, Mr. Layton started his business career as a piano tuner, going from door to door. This was the formation of the business that he built up with his brother, which today has branches in the chief cities of the Dominion.

Finding that there was no organization in Montreal for the English-speaking blind, Mr. Layton called a meeting at his home from which evolved the Montreal Association for the Blind. An area of eight acres was bought in Notre Dame de Grace and in 1911 a start was made on the construction of the school and workshops, which are today outstanding in the Dominion.

Mr. Layton was an honorary president of St. David's Society of Montreal, a life member of the St. George Society, being the oldest living member up till the day of his death. He was also a governor of the Montreal General Hospital and of the Homeopathic Hospital, and was president of the Piano and Music Dealers' Association of Montreal, which at one time flourished in the city.

The Layton Brothers, Philip and Herbert, opened their first music store on the north-east corner of St. Catherine and Peel streets, then moved to Peel street below St. Catherine and finally purchased the property at St. Catherine and Stanley street, where the firm now operates as an incorporated company composed of the two sons of each of the founders — George and Gilbert, sons of Philip E., and Armitage and Frank, sons of Herbert A. Layton. The presidency was held by Philip Layton until about ten years ago, when he resigned although he continued to attend the directors' meetings until quite recently.

Mr. Layton married in Montreal in 1896 Alice Marian Gilbert, of Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England, who survives him, as do his two sons, George S. Layton, former alderman of St. Andrew's Ward and president of the firm of Layton Bros. Limited; and Hon. Gilbert Layton, Minister without Portfolio in the Quebec Provincial Government. Two granddaughters and four grandsons, also survive, as does his brother Herbert A. Layton, of Westmount.

Arizona Is Free Of All Gambling Devices In Bars
Slot machines are out of all Arizona bars. Marble boards are out. Everything that in the least resembles a gambling device is out.

The law is being enforced, and great is the outcry from those who have been sharing in the loot of the "one-armed bandits." Gov. Robert T. Jones and Joe P. Metz, Superintendent of the new State Department of Liquor Licenses and Control, are deluged with protests, threats, pleas.

Their only reply is that they have no discretion. It is the duty of Superintendent Metz and his deputies to administer the statute as it stands.

People opposed to gambling are being warned to look out for attempts to elect legislators in favor of permitting the operation of mechanical devices in establishments licensed to sell liquor. The issue is likely to be a very live one until the 1940 election.

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.—Longfellow.

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

Screen 'Fire' Proves Too Realistic To J. Stewart

Claudette Colbert became a disciple of realism in a scene of "It's a Wonderful World" much to the discomfort of James Stewart.

picture, a rollicking comedy, now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday.

The scene called for Miss Colbert's hat to catch on fire. Liquid smoke was applied to the crown of the hat for the effect and, although she didn't say anything, the effect did not please the actress.

Director W. S. Van Dyke called for the take. Miss Colbert emerged from the car, hat blazing, Stewart, whose job it was to put out the flames, grabbed fearlessly, thinking the fire was only an illusion for the cameras. But it wasn't!

"I forgot Jimmy had to grab it," Miss Colbert explained, "so I really lit a match to it."

Stewart's hands were just burned enough to be slightly uncomfortable for several days.

Miss Colbert and Stewart appear together for the first time in the new comedy which is described as another "It Happened One Night." Also featured in the cast are Guy Kibbee, Nat Pendleton, Frances Drake, Edgar Kennedy and Ernest Truex.

Fishermen of Portugal are complaining that sardines are scarce this year.

SUNDAY UNTIL TUESDAY, GINGER ROGERS & FRED ASTAIRE in "The Story Of Vernon and Irene Castle," SHIRLEY TEMPLE in "Susananna Of The Mounties" with Randolph Scott and Margaret Lockwood.

"JUAREZ"

Bette Davis and Brian Aherne in a scene from the film "Juarez" which opens Sunday at the Snowdon United Theatre.

EXCITING ADVENTURE

Valerie Hobson and Laurence Olivier in a scene from the film "Clouds Over Europe" opening Saturday at the York United Theatre.

Ping Pong Ball Gives Headache to Mike Expert

Hollywood's sound engineers have wrought miracles. No problem, from the noise of a tornado in "The Wizard of Oz," to the earthquake in "San Francisco," has ever stumped them. But a ten-cent ping-pong ball proved their Waterloo.

The celluloid ball "pinged" whenever it struck the wood tabletop. "The ball cuts into the dialogue and I can't time it because it bounces differently every time," complained the sound engineer.

In a scene from "Stronger Than Desire," now playing at the York United Theatre until Saturday, Walter Pidgeon and Ilka Chase had to play ping-pong while conducting a conversation, with Virginia Bruce an onlooker.

After various attempts at sound-deadening the engineers

ROMANCE AND COMEDY!

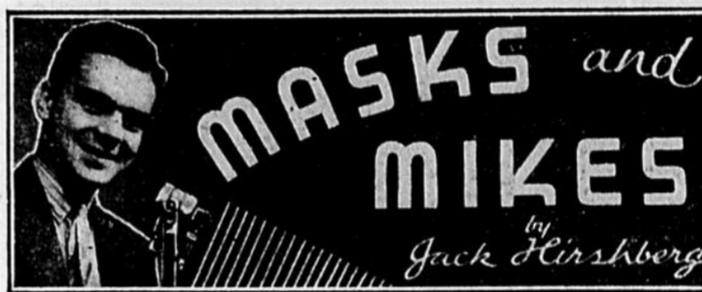

Ann Sothern, Robert Young and Ruth Hussey in a scene from the picture "Maisie" opening Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre for a three day engagement.

A scene from the film "The Story Of Vernon And Irene Castle" starring Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire, opening Sunday at the Monkland United Theatre.

MAN WITH NO SCISSORS

With Europe apparently embarked upon a war of words as well as bullets, radio has become a particularly potent force for good or evil. Stringent censorship in Europe has given rise to unbridled rumour, and the task of purely objective reporting has taken on added difficulties with the passing of summer to autumn.

THE QUEEN RETURNS

Britain's favorite actress, Anna Neagle, proved herself deserving of an empire's admiration yesterday by turning her back on a luscious Hollywood contract and hopping a Clipper plane for the war zone where she will entertain behind the lines.

However, there are as yet no censors stationed at the studios, speeches thus far have not undergone censorship, and news reports aired in Canada have often been supplied by the same press services serving American networks.

Digests compiled by NBC and CBS are still carried by their affiliates in Canada, though the CBC forbids its own stations to carry American-originated commentaries it has occasionally seen fit to feed to the network comments of Raymond Gram Swing.

These far, Canadian dial twisters have little if anything other than to squawk. Thanks to a co-operative press, our broadcasters have done a first-class job—a job all the more satisfying when one recalls the speed with which the CBC has enacted shortsighted or biased legislation in the past.

'Pete Smith Girl' Sports Enthusiastic

Polly Payne, the girl in the Pete Smith Specialties, has two hobbies—sailing and tennis. This year she reached the quarter-finals of the women's singles in the annual motion picture championships at the Los Angeles Tennis Club.

Irene Dunne And Fred MacMurray Are Co-Starred

Fred MacMurray, who has the role of a prize fighter in the new Paramount drama, "Invitation to Happiness," now playing at the Westmount United Theatre had his cast insured for $25,000 during the filming of the picture, making them fully as valuable as Jimmy Durante's nose.

"Invitation to Happiness" co-stars Irene Dunne with Fred MacMurray and is by no means a light picture. It is the heart-moving story of a young couple who have a difficult struggle finding permanent happiness when the only work the man knows separates him from his wife for long periods of time.

Smart Girls Lose Appetites For Movie Set Candy

Because real candy photographs more like candy than any "prop" that can be made, Bob Lazlo, property man on "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," Deanna Durbin's new Universal picture, now showing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Saturday, was forced to invent a new use for fly spray.

Lazlo found the dish of candy, used in a scene for the picture, diminishing. Deanna Durbin, Helen Parrish and Nan Grey repeatedly succumbed to the lure of the sweets, making necessary the refilling of the dish after each scene.

"Candy draws flies," he announced, as he sprayed the dish with an evil smelling compound. "This will keep them away."

Portable Dressing Table Introduced

If Bill Burke's new make-up innovation is a criterion, time-out for make-up repairs will be cut down to a minimum.

The actress surprised members of the "Remember" company, which stars Robert Taylor and Greer-Garson, by her make-up table on wheels recently.

It is a complete dressing table, with mirror framed by the latest fluorescent lamps, over shelves containing powder, rouge, eye make-up, creams, brushes, combs, etc., and it may be wheeled to any part of the stage.

Y.M.C.A. OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Boy With Highest Total Will Receive Free Plane Transportation to Fair

The boys' division of the Y.M.C.A. membership campaign, which has as its slogan, "Every member bring a member!" got off to a flying start at a supper held in the local branch on Friday, attended by over 30 boys and leaders.

C. Gravenor, of the publicity department of Canadian Colonial Airlines, addressed the opening gathering of the campaign and promised a prize of free transportation by airplane to the New York World's Fair to the boy bringing in the greatest number of new members.

The objective of the campaign, as far as the boys' section is concerned, is 100 new members by Oct. 15. Every new member is, himself, urged to bring in an additional one.

A second campaign supper open to all boys of the branch, is being held tomorrow evening commencing at 6 o'clock when Ted Neill, member of the Black Watch, will lead the singing, with Neil Compton at the piano.

Billy Broadbent, 13-year-old survivor of the Athenia disaster, will recount his experiences at the meeting.

'Ninotchka' Score 'Music Dog-Fight'

A "musical dog-fight" is the description his fellow-composers are applying to the trick employed by Werner Heymann, composer of the score for "Ninotchka," Garbo's first sophisticated romantic comedy.

The principal dramatic clash in the picture is between Garbo, playing a Soviet Russian woman, and Ina Claire, playing a Russian grand duchess. They become rivals for the love of Melynn Douglas, Heymann in his score uses paraphrases of the old Czarist national hymn, and the International, hymn of the Soviets, interweaving them in a musical clash as a background for the clash between the aristocrat and proletarian.

The Way To A Man's Heart What's So Wonderful About Fall? Why, It's Pie Time!

Gingerbread pie with a meringue topping—even the leaves will fall for that now that the summer is over.

Labor Day is over. Now the big eating season begins, with football games, country hikes and plenty of sports activity in cooler weather to sharpen the appetite. It's pie time with a capital P. Pumpkin, of course, green apple and squash and also some other heavier novelties for those autumn dinners.

Gingerbread Meringue Pie
(Makes 1 one-crust 9-inch pie)
Three tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup old-fashioned New Orleans molasses, 1/4 cup white syrup, 3 tablespoons shortening, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, pinch salt, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/4 cups flour, 1 egg, well beaten, recipe for pie crust.

Use large mixing bowl. Turn in sugar, molasses, white syrup, shortening, ginger and cinnamon. Mix these ingredients well. Add soda to boiling water and add. Sift in flour. Beat with egg beater. Last, beat in the well beaten egg.

Line pie plate with uncooked pastry. Fill with gingerbread mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until firm to straw test. Just before serving cover with meringue.

Decorate the church. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Patou model of white Royal Duchesse cut on princess lines with a high neck and long sleeves, the full skirt falling into a train. Her veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap of tulle edged with tiny orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. J. H. Fairbanks, of Hamilton, her sister's only attendant, wore a frock of Venetian coral Orlais lace with a Eugenie model hat of Turquoise blue flowers with a tiny brim of matching blue tulle and slippers of the same shade. She carried a cascade bouquet of coral gladioli.

Mr. Charles Gurd acted as best man for Mr. Mills and the ushers were Mr. Norman Bodel, brother of the bride; Mr. Mitchell Mills, brother of the bridegroom; Mr. Webb Krauser, jr., and Mr. Thomas Lockwood.

Mrs. Bodel, mother of the bride, wore an imported gown of hand embroidered brown georgette with a corsage bouquet of bronze mums and a small brown velvet hat. Mrs. Mills, mother of the bridegroom, was in a gown of orchid brocade satin, trimmed with beige fur, small close fitting hat of shaded violets and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Walkley avenue, where white gladioli and ferns were used to decorate the rooms.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Mills left on a motor trip, the bride travelling in a black crepe frock with a corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses, a grey travel tweed coat, a small black hat and black accessories. They will reside on Decarie boulevard.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fairbanks, Mr. Bud Wilson, Miss Fern Wilson, of Hamilton, Ont., Miss Marjorie Bartlett and Mr. J. K. McLeod, of man personality, and brings out clearly the larger sense of infinity and ever-presence. At another time Jesus, referring to his miraculous works and God's part in this Messiahship, said: "The Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works." Jesus obviously was not there referring to a humanly circumscribed personality as dwelling within himself. He must have been referring to the consciousness or Mind of which he was possessed, as it is evident that the works of Jesus were accomplished through no other means than a pure and spiritual mentality.

As Jesus referred, on one occasion, to "my Father, and your Father . . . my God, and your God," he makes plain to us that the same God, or Mind, which inspired him in all his works is likewise available to all of us at all times as our Father, and that, therefore, this Mind which he resigned as his Father, by virtue of whom he accomplished all his wonderful works, exists as one infinite Mind or intelligence, and is thus instantly available to every human being at all times.

Further clarifying this concept of God, John tells us that "God is love." Love, of course, is something which you and I express in thinking. Inasmuch as you and I and everyone else have the privilege of expressing love in an equal and unlimited degree, does it not become evident that the God which Jesus called "Spirit," which Paul designated as "mind," and which John named "love," exists as one infinite Deity or Mind, outside human consciousness, and is, therefore, common to all mankind in just the degree that each one of us admits into his consciousness thoughts emanating from this Mind?

The Man of God's Creating Therefore, God being divine Mind, man, His image and likeness, must be a compound idea of that Mind. That is, man must be the expression of the infinitude, the multitude, and the variety of ideas which originate within and proceed from the divine consciousness.

To avail ourselves of our true sonship with God it is necessary that we consciously express those ideas which come from God. On Page 591 of Science and Health, in her definition of "Mind," Mrs. Eddy says, "God, of whom man is the full and perfect expression." Hence, man is God expressed. God is Love. Therefore, Love expressed is man. Truth expressed is man. Honesty, purity, kindness, joy, compassion, gratitude, etc., expressed is man.

Mortal Man
We have briefly traversed the subject of God and God's man, and now we are confronted with the next logical query as to the so-called material man—the man of flesh and blood and bones; the man known as the Adam man. How shall we account for him? What of his origin? How did he get here, and what is to become of him? We have seen that God is divine Mind, and that the man of God's creating is a compound idea of that Mind. Just as God is divine Mind, the Bible points out that there is a so-called counterfeit of this divine Mind, which Paul has designated as the carnal mind. As the divine Mind, or God, is one and infinite, filling all space, existing in its entirety and infinity, ever present and eternal, in like manner this so-called carnal mind, in its attempted counterfeit of the divine, claims existence as one infinite mind, filling all space and ever present.

The divine Mind, or God, is expressed, as we have seen, through His own ideas, and these ideas reflected in individual consciousness constitute the true man and the true universe. In its attempted simulation of the divine, the carnal mind, on the other hand, finds expression in carnal thoughts admitted to individual consciousness constitute the material universe and the human body, of which individual mortals are conscious.

We have seen that divine ideas coming from God, or divine Mind, reflected in individual consciousness constitute the real man's existence, his embodiment, and his universe, all of which must be spiritual and not cognizable through the medium of the physical senses. On the other hand, the thoughts which come to you and me from this so-called carnal mind, and which we voluntarily accept into our consciousness are, in turn, objectified as matter, and thence comes our material universe with all its sin, its sickness, its misery, and its poverty. Matter, then — that which you and I see, feel, taste, smell, and hear — is individual thought.

EDUCATIONIST WILL ADDRESS CLUB MEMBERS

Principal R. C. Wallace of Queen's University Will Address Young Men's Canadian Club — Meeting October 2

The Young Men's Canadian Club open the new season on Monday, October 2, when Principal R. C. Wallace of Queen's University Kingston, will be the guest speaker at a dinner meeting in Queen's Hotel. Principal Wallace, who is regarded as one of Canada's foremost educationists, will discuss the question, "Is Our Educational System justifying itself?" In view of the principal's standing in the academic world, a special invitation has been extended to McGill and Queen's graduates to attend this meeting.

The coming season is of special interest as it is the 25th in the history of the Young Men's Club. It recalls that the club was founded during the last war, when Mayor P. W. McLagan of Westmount inspired and encouraged a small group of young men to form a club to discuss public affairs so that they might be informed on all matters relating to the government and development of the country.

During these 25 years the club has played its part in enlightening public opinion, and proof that it has justified its existence is found in the fact that many of its past presidents hold prominent positions in our community today.

MUSICAL SHARPS, FLATS AND NATURALS

by FRANCES GOLTMAN
A SUCCESSFUL SYMPHONY
On November fifth our own Montreal Symphony Orchestra will begin its tenth consecutive season; a record for this city and due, in great measure, to its excellent leader, Dean Douglas Clarke of McGill University, whose untiring efforts, coupled with great musical ability and an engaging personality have spurred on the musicians to their present status. We are indeed proud of the achievement attained and again this season the Montreal Symphony will have wonderful soloists.

Among the notable artists already engaged are such outstanding celebrities as Percy Grainger, a favourite with Montreal audiences, George Inesco, famous Hungarian violinist and conductor. This year marks his farewell tour as a soloist after which he will devote his time to composition and conducting. Two artists who were introduced here by the Ladies Morning Musical Club, William Primrose, outstanding viola player and Orrea Pernel, wonderful English violinist will be heard again this season. Charles Naegle, young American pianist needs no introduction as he scored such a success on his first appearance here and Eugenia Buxton, well known pianist has been arousing marked enthusiasm on her recent concert tours.

Of special interest is the engagement of Nicolai Medtner, famous Russian modernist composer and pianist who will visit America for the first time. Rachmaninoff, a great admirer of Medtner rarely presents a program that does not include several of Medtner's works. This excellent group of soloists promises a series of outstanding concert and one does not need to go into detail to describe the fine repertoire of the orchestra.

Raginsky, sr., Mrs. Arthur Simon, Mrs. M. Sturbin, Mrs. Harry J. Stern, Mrs. J. Schulman, Mrs. Harry Singer, Mrs. Edward Solomon, Mrs. Martin Wolff.

One of the first tasks of the branch will be to divide the city into zones in each of which a bureau will be established for the purpose of enrolling the volunteer workers, and it is expected this work will be started within a few days.

WESTMOUNTS SWAMP ROYALS 21-1 AT MOLSON STADIUM, TRIUMPH IN LAST PERIOD

Chalk Up 17 Points in Final Stanza — 3,500 Witnessed Game at Molson Stadium Tuesday Night — Sensational Kicking of Jimmy Riddell and Ray Mullins Played Large Part in Victory

Westmounts, displaying a form that even their strongest supporters must have been surprised at, swamped Royals 21-1 in their first game of the season at Molson Stadium Tuesday night.

Before a crowd of about 3,500 the local squad took advantage of every break that came their way and surged to victory with little difficulty. The sensational kicking of Jimmy Riddell and Ray Mullins played no small factor in the team's win.

Making a decisive victory in a game that had been a close fit right through, Westmounts chalked up 17 points in the final quarter.

Royals miscues gave the local entry in the O.R.F.U., one touch-down and they scored a second as the indirect result of a fumble. A field goal resulted from one of five pass interceptions.

Westmounts held only a 4-1 margin when the squads entered the final quarter but chalked up a 21-1 win before the match ended.

No foolin', soap box derbies are really big time stuff to Montreal's younger racing enthusiasts, and these ardent fans are enlisting the aid of cranes, oil pits and modern mechanical equipment in seeing that their cars are in topnotch shape for the forthcoming Kinsmen Coaster Classic, which takes place locally September 30. Boxing Is Blasted Off Map Abroad

The war will practically wipe out big time boxing on the other side for some time to come. Several attractive matches have fallen by the wayside since the declaration of hostilities. Max Schmeling, now in a German uniform, was to have fought Walter Neussell in Germany on Oct. 1, and this bout went up in the smoke. Had Max been successful he was to have headed for the United States to have another try at winning the heavyweight championship. Having held it once, Max hasn't got over the notion that he can be the first man ever to regain the heavyweight crown.

Galento and Nova both wanted to fight the German and he would have been a busy cup of tea had

Local Rover Crews Meet in New Den

The Westmount Rover Crews' new den on Renfrew avenue met with approval to all concerned. At the last meeting Rover Mate Charles Cartmel of the St. Mathias' Crew gave a talk on "Life Insurance."

A report of the Crews' outing on Saturday to Rawdon was delivered by Rover Scout Gordon McAuley. In part, he said that it was so cold that if you took the tent poles away the tents would remain standing.

Dave Munn and Peter Brunt instructed the Crews in semaphore. A very fine game was put on by the Senior Rover Mate.

New recruits will be made welcome at their new den, 27 Renfrew at 8.15 on Tuesday evening.

AIRD STREET TO BE SCENE OF BIG EVENT

Kinsmen Coaster Classic Will Take Place Saturday — Many Local Entrants in Race

With the 1939 running of the exciting Kinsmen Coaster Classic but two days off, it was announced last night to The Examiner that the race would be held Saturday on a course running along Aird Street from Sherbrooke to Hoehelaga in the east end of the city. The course was chosen because its natural slope offers a fine start to the youngsters whose motorless cars depend on a good graded getaway for speed.

Easily Reached

Aird Avenue is easily reached by proceeding east along Sherbrooke street until one reaches the Municipal Golf Course. Buses will take spectators directly to the course. The race will be run off in heats, starting shortly after ten o'clock and continuing for several hours.

Exact time of the finals is unknown at present, but will probably be announced in Saturday morning's paper. All profits from the race go to the Quebec Division of Canadian Red Cross.

Are Entered

A large number of local lads are entered in the 1939 Classic, and today and tomorrow will be putting finishing touches to their jalopies. Many prizes will be up for competition, and the race promises to surpass in thrills last year's running of the event, when almost 15,000 people gathered to see the model cars roar past the finish line.

Famous Hostelry Sold At Auction

Lock, stock and barrel, the Congress Hotel was sold recently for $1,335,000.

The world-famous hostelry, stopping place of nine American Presidents, was offered at public auction to satisfy a $1,400,000 judgment obtained by a Reconstruction Finance Corporation's mortgage company.

It was bid in by the Congress Hotel and Annex, Inc., an organization formed several days ago for that purpose. Frank M. Murchison, Manager of the Chicago loan office of the RFC, said the RFC mortgage company owned all the stock of the corporation.

Few who strolled along the hotel's scented corridors were aware that it was under the hammer. But a strange wooden knocking could be heard from the casino room.

There, before a half dozen individuals, Lee Walker, attorney for the newly formed company, announced: "We bid $1,335,000." It was the only bid, and, perforce, it was accepted.

Room No. 1502, the Presidential suite, was occupied at various times by Presidents Taft, McKinley, Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt.
