JUDSON'S Mountain Herb Pills.

ABOVE we present you with a perfect likeness of Tezuco, a Chief of a tribe of the strange Aztec Nation that once ruled Mexico. You will find a full account of him and his people in our Pamphlets and Almanacs —to be had, gratis, from the Agents for these Pills.

The inventor and manufacturer of "Judson's Mountain Herb Pills" has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited nearly every country in the world. He spent over six years among the Indians of the Rocky Mountains and of Mexico, and it was thus that the "Mountain Herb Pills" were discovered. A very interesting account of his adventures there you will find in our Almanac and Pamphlet.

It is an established fact that all diseases arise from IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or unhealthy matter gets mixed with it, it is at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every nerve feels the poison, and all the vital organs quickly complain. The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of bile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feeble. The lungs become clogged with the poisonous matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the fountain-head of life—the Blood! As if you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purify the blood, but regenerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivalled as a

CURE FOR BILLIOUS DISEASES,

Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, &c. This Anti-Billious Medicine expels from the blood the hidden seeds of disease, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, clearing and resuscitating the vital organs.

Pleasant indeed, is it to us, that we are able to place within your reach a medicine like the "Mountain Herb Pills," that will pass directly to the afflicted parts, through the blood and fluids of the body, and cause the sufferer to brighten with the flush of beauty and health.

Judson's Pills are the best remedy in existence for the following complaints:

Bowel Complaints,	Debility,	Inward Weaknss,
Coughs,	Fever and Ague,	Liver Complaints,
Colds,	Headaches,	Lowness of Spirits
Chest Diseases,	Indigestion,	Piles,
Costiveness,	Influenza,	Stone and Gravel,
Dyspepsia,	Inflammation,	Secondary Symptoms,
Diarrhœa,	Female Complaints
Dropsy,

* * * * * *

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE.

Females who value health should never be without these Pills. They purify the blood, remove obstructions of all kinds, cleanse the skin of all pimples and blotches, and bring the rich color of health to the pale cheek.

☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight the very interesting account it contains of the "GREAT MEDICINE" of the Aztecs.

Observe.—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 Pills, and Retail at 25 cents per box. All genuine have the signature of B. L. JUDSON & CO., on each box.

PROSPECTUS.

It is generally admitted that the requirements of the large and over-increasing trade between Canada and Great Britain call for increased steam communication; further, that the existing lines are entirely inadequate for the proper development of our commercial position, and that sufficient efforts have not been made to encourage that business which should naturally seek Canadian channels. With the view of meeting this recognized public want, it is proposed to form a Company in England, under the Limited Liability Act, for the purpose of establishing a line of Screw Steamships, of large capacity, to run between the ports of Liverpool and Montreal. It is also intended to put on a fortnightly or monthly line between the ports of London and Montreal, as may be required by the extent of the trade between these ports.

It is believed, in accordance with the manifest opinion of the merchants of this country, that the policy of the Government will hereafter offer much greater inducements to Steamship enterprise; and, as the subsidy to the existing line will be reduced to about one-half in April next, this monopoly, which has hitherto prevented competition, will no longer interfere with the success of another line to Liverpool.

Montreal is now the second port of export on the Atlantic seaboard. The trade returns show an increase of nearly one hundred per cent in eight years, and yet, since the establishment of the weekly line to Liverpool, there has been no increase whatever in steamship tonnage to meet the wants of this large and annually increasing trade.

In the year 1856, the total Imports and Exports of Montreal amounted to less than twenty millions of dollars. In 1862, the exports of Breadstuffs alone, by Sea, amounted to nearly Seventeen Millions of bushels, while the total Imports and Exports, by Sea, for the same year, amounted to nearly Thirty nine Millions of Dollars, showing an increase of nearly one hundred per cent.

Liverpool received a larger proportion of these Exports than any other Port, and it is from Liverpool that about four fifths of the Imports of Canada are shipped; and, yet, while there are two unsubsidized Steamship Lines running to and from the Port of Glasgow, there is only one Line between Liverpool and Montreal.

The Merchants of Canada need hardly be reminded of these facts; but, in seeking their cooperation in the promotion of this enterprise, it may be remarked that Freights have been maintained at unnecessarily high rates, solely in consequence of an absence of wholesome competition. In order to show this, it is necessary to refer to the complete monopoly hitherto enjoyed by the existing Company, to the detriment of the interests of the whole Province, but more directly to those of the Importers and Exporters of the country. While this Company were constantly obtaining full cargoes from Liverpool to Montreal, it was found cheaper to send Goods from London to Glasgow, and thence per Steamer to this Port, than to send them via Liverpool, or even direct from Liverpool itself to Montreal. And, yet, as may safely be inferred, from the fact of the owners increasing the number of their Vessels, these two Glasgow Lines continue to prosper, on comparatively low freights and no subsidies, on a far inferior route, both as regards Passengers and Freights, and by which no profits are to be derived by the carriage of mails. It may, further, be instanced, as a fact detrimental to the interests of the Province, that European Goods are brought into Canada by Steamship via New York at lower rates than those charged by the shorter and quicker St. Lawrence route.

It is well-known that the profits of Steamships running to this Port, during the past few years, have been very large, and there can be no doubt, from the extensive patronage of which this enterprize has already been assured, that, by careful and economical management, the earnings of this Company will also yield a very profitable return to the Shareholders.

In forming this Company in England, where it is intended to seek the larger portion of the Capital required, it will be the object of the Provisional Board to secure the services, as Directors, of the leading men in Liverpool, London, and Manchester, connected with the Canadian trade; but, in order to secure the best English interests and assistance, and, by inspiring confidence, to ensure the complete success of the Company, it is deemed requisite that a Subscription of Stock, say to the extent of £100,000 Sterling should be obtained among the Merchants of Canada, before bringing out the project in the English Market.

It is not proposed to enter into undue competition with the existing Line, and the first-class passenger traffic which that Line is specially adapted to carry, will not be interfered with by this Company.

It is proposed to build a fleet of Screw-Steamships, of about 2,000 to 2,500 Tons, of large capacity, and of moderate power. Such vessels can be built at a relatively much smaller cost than when high speed is required, can be sailed much more economically, and, at the same time, offer equal advantages to shippers of Merchandise, and Steerage and Intermediate passengers, who, it is well known, from their greater number and their less expensive mode of transport, are much more profitable than First-Class Passengers.

It is intended to commence a fortnightly service each way, to be increased to a weekly Line, calling at a Port in Ireland, as soon as the vessels can be got ready. Until such time as the ships are built, it is believed that there will be no difficulty in chartering suitable vessels, so as to enable the Company to go into operation in the Spring.

As many of the supporters of this Company are largely engaged in the Import Trade of this Country, the Directors have every reason to anticipate a steady and very great success to this undertaking.

[illegible] vices of the most efficient Commanders and Officers.

Applications for Shares, accompanied by the Deposit, may be addressed to the Company's Bankers, or to Messrs. PRENTICE, MOAT & Co., Merchants' Exchange, Montreal, from whom Copies of the Prospectus may be obtained.

A CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH.

ST. HYACINTHE, Canada East, Aug. 21, 1863.

Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Co.

Gentlemen,—Several months since a little daughter of mine, ten years of age, was taken with Whooping Cough in a very aggravated form, and nothing we could do for her seemed in any way to relieve her suffering. We at length decided to try a bottle of your "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry." In three hours after she had commenced using it, she was greatly relieved, and in less than three days was entirely cured, and is now well. I have since recommended the Balsam to many of my neighbours, who have used it, and in no case have I known it fail of effecting a speedy cure.

You are at liberty to make any use of the above you think proper. If it shall induce any body to use your Balsam I shall be glad, for I have great confidence in it. Yours,

Between Health and the Grave.

BETWEEN HEALTH AND THE GRAVE there is but a thin partition, and all who value life are willing, it is presumed, to do their best to prevent disease from breaking it down. Who so mad as to await the final attack, when the first onset can be repelled with Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, a preparation so genial and balsamic, so searching, yet so invigorating, that while it fights down the complaint, and expels its cause, it builds up the strength and braces the constitution of the patient. Composed of antibilious and cathartic vegetable ingredients, at once safe and searching, it is the only cure for disorders of the stomach, the liver, and the bowels, which can be relied upon under all circumstances, and in all climates. The idea of pain is justly associated with ordinary purgatives; but Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills do not create even an uneasy sensation, either in the stomach or alimentary passages. Need it be said that they are the best household cathartic and alterative at present known? They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, Bristol's Sarsaparilla should be used in connection with the Pills.

Among the testimonials, the following is from Col. Thomson, of Toronto, a very high authority, and well known to the Agricultural world of Canada.

From Col. E. W. Thomson.

NEW YORK TOWNSHIP, 29th Sept., 1863.

Dear Sir,—In the Spring of this year I procured two barrels of your fertilizer and applied it to two acres of Chinese Millet The result was a very fine crop. I was so much pleased with it that I have manured a field of ten acres of Fall Wheat, at the rate of 200 lbs per acre. I will in due time give you the result.

London, 5th.—Fears are entertained that the Atlantic Cable will not be laid next year, as it has been intended it should be, as the many experiments on the different plans in the construction of the cable have consumed much time and are likely to consume a great deal more before they are done with. It will, therefore, be impossible for Messrs. Glass, Elliott & Co, the contractors, to complete the whole cable in season to lay it in the summer. It will have to be laid in the summer of 1865. While on some accounts this is to be regretted, in other respects it may prove an advantage, as the experiments will ensure the cable being as perfect as human skill can make it.

New York, December 19th.

Special to the Times—The statement that any instructions have been given tending to ignore the rights, as prisoners of war, of the colored troops whom the rebels have taken prisoners, whether originally bond or free, is incorrect; on the contrary, the most stringent orders have recently been issued, under which the rebel authorities are to be held too strict accountability with regard to their colored prisoners.

The Chesapeake having been captured in British waters, will be given up to the Colonial authorities. Secretaries Seward and Welles have so telegraphed to Halifax. It is not believen, however, that the pirates will be allowed to put to sea again.

A very large proportion of the rebels in our hands, not less than one-third of them, it is said, are desirous of enlisting in the navy, and it is understood that the Secretary of War and the Navy Department have agreed to permit them to do so. General Maston is reported to have said that he could, on very short notice, furnish a thousand sailors from the prisoner's camp at Point Lookout, of which he is in charge.

Special to the Herald—Washington, Dec 18.—Another plot for the seizure of a vessel and cargo by rebel emissaries has been discovered, this time in season to prevent the attempt being made. The vessel was the bark "A. One," which was loading at Philadelphia. The pirates were to ship as seamen and seize her after she left port. There was a quantity of ammunition to be sent on board. The vessel was about to take in a quantity of powder when the plot was revealed. The authorities are still engaged in investigating the matter. All the facts will be given to the public in a few days. Headquarters of the U. S. Forces, West Va. Dec. 18.—Gen. Kelly to-night, received a despatch from Gen. Sullivan, announcing the capture of Col Carter, of the 1st Va. cavalry, and a number of other prisoners, by a force of the 22d Pa., sent out on a reconnoisance in London Co. and toward Upperville. Near the latter place they captured this party.

New York, Dec 19.—The Herald's Morris Island correspondent thus explains the washing away of the Rebel obstructions:—The famous floating battery in Charleston harbor, which was used against Sumter when Anderson held the works, broke adrift in the last gale, smashed through and carried away the obstructions, and now lies ashore near the North end of Folly Island. She was formerly plated with railroad iron, but that had been removed for other purposes.

Halifax, 18—To Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy, Washington: The Chesapeake has been transferred to the British authorities I will return home at once. Signed, A. G. CLARY, Commander.

Boston, 19—The special correspondent at New Orleans of the Traveller, under date of the 10th instant, says General Washburn holds the coast of Texas from the Rio Grande to Wilken a hundred miles from Galveston.

Another division of the 13th Corps starts for the Texas coast to-day, and the expectation is that Galveston is the next place to be put down in the history of the war as having been reduced by the Federals.

General Franklin is still at New Iberia with about four divisions. General Weitzel goes North to join General Butler's command in a few days.

Fort Monroe, Dec. 18.—To Major Eckert:—The Assistant Superintendent of the U S. Marine Transportation has just arrived from Beaufort in the Spaulding. It was reported there that the U. S gunboat Daylight had been blown up by the rebels. Another gunboat had chased a blockade runner ashore and the Daylight went on to take possession of her, when a rebel battery concealed on shore, threw a shell into the Daylight's magazine, completely destroying her and killing most of her officers and crew.

(BY TELEGRAPH)

MIDNIGHT DESPATCHES.

Washington, Dec. 19—Mr. Seward's diplomatic report will be ready for the press in a day or two.

The Evening Star has the following:—The authorities here have despatches from General Grant at Chattanooga, dated last night, nine o'clock. They do not indicate any recent change in the state of affairs there. General Grant is in constant and direct telegraphic communication with General Foster at Knoxville, and, had there been fighting between General Longstreet's forces and ours pursuing him, as the press despatches from Cincinnatti state, General Grant would, doubtless, have sent such despatches here. He says nothing about such engagement, and the belief is that the statement is much exaggerated.

New York, Dec. 19—The Etna started with day The Bremen took 335 passengers, and $266,000 in specie. Two hundred and twelve Rebel deserters were sent from the Old Capitol Prison to Philadelphia to take the oath of allegiance

New York, Dec. 19.—The Tribune's Folly Island correspondent says that a private of 3rd R. I. Battery, discoverd a brass field piece and a quantity of round shot buried in the beach, a portion, it is supposed, of the ammunition hid by the rebels on evacuating Gregg. The same writer confirms the washing away of the rebel onstructions in Charleston Harbour, and adds that there is no sign of any torpedoes being attached to the timber which strews the beach for about a mile.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The raid of the guerilla Mosby upon Fairfax Court House startled this community and causes some anxiety at the War Department. It is a sample of what may be expected during the winter. The army will be compelled to fall back if these raids continue, and it is probable that Gen. Meade has contemplated a retrograde movement for some time.

New York Dec 19.—A Washington despatch says passengers from the army on Friday night report that the bridge at Rappahannock Station was carried away by a freshet. The pontoon bridge near the Station will, however, afford ample facilities to cross and recross the river till the Railroad bridge is rebuilt. The bridge over Broad Run was damaged, but the injury was soon repaired and no detention to trains occurred there. Several heavy trains went out on Friday to the army with supplies.

The approaching festive season, and the usual large space which we have to devote to the requirements of our advertising patrons compel us to ask the kind indulgence of our readers for giving so little reading matter in this morning's issue.

THE SHRIEVALTY AND THE CLERKSHIP OF THE PEACE.—Yesterday the two new officers appointed to the places vacant by the dismissal of Messrs. Delisle and Brehaut were gazetted. The Shrievalty was in the first place offered to the Hon. John Young; but as he declined to accept it, the Ministry have very properly and fitly marked their sense of the services of an old and valuable public servant by conferring the promotion upon Mr. Bouthillier, formerly the collector of Customs at this port. The offer to Mr. John Young, and the subsequent appointment of Mr. Bouthillier alike prove that the dismissal of the Sheriff, which it must have been a painful duty to make, was not caused from a desire to have a place at their disposal to serve as a reward for political hangers on, nor from a wish to secure future political advantages. We are certain that if Mr. Young had chosen to accept the office his nomination would have been regarded with favour almost universally. As it is, the choice has fallen upon a gentleman, who has never been engaged in political life, and who, in the important charge of Returning Officer, which is annexed to his functions, will be above the suspicion of partiality even for the Government which appointed him. Mr. Bouthillier's recent place, which is wholly departmental is to be filled by Mr. B. Holmes—a gentleman well acquainted with every branch of our commerce, and one, who we have no doubt will give general satisfaction in the important post which he has to fill. The joint Clerkship of the Peace, with Mr. Carter, has been given to the Hon. L. Dessaulles — an accomplished gentleman, who undoubtedly will fulfil the duties of the place with zeal and ability. Mr. Schiller's place has not yet been filled, nor we believe officially and actually vacated. Mr. Schiller does not hold his appointment directly from the Crown, but is the nominee of the Clerk of the Peace, or rather we think of the Clerk Crown, to whom he is responsible, and who of course is responsible for his discharge of his duties. This removal, however, if it has not taken place, only awaits the necessary formalities. In connection with this subject, it may be proper to notice, that we understand the Government contemplate a very material change in the manner of remunerating the Sheriff. Heretofore, besides his salary, he has been allowed to deposit wherever he pleases such monies as may remain in his hands, and for which he is responsible. Of course he received the interest on these deposits, while the unfortunate proprietors are not only kept out of their money pending litigation on oppositions and so forth, but are deprived of the produce, while costs are constantly going on. In this way an estate may be eaten up, while lying in the hands of the Sheriff. While no individuals are liable to reproach on account of this system, it is not the less certain that it is in every way a bad one. We have reason to believe that the Government will take an early opportunity of remedying it by legislation, so as to enable suitors having money lying for distribution to obtain a fair rate of interest for their deposits during the time that the final judgement is in suspense.

THE MONTREAL JAIL.—A desire not to bear hardly upon accused persons, has made us during the time of the investigation into the conduct of the Clerk of the Peace's Office, refrain as much as possible from allusion to it. We knew that justice would be done in the matter, and therefore saw no advantage in giving pain, or in prejudicing the public mind. A similar reason has induced us to withhold the statement of a Quebec contemporary with respect to the management of the Montreal Jail; but as we find that the charges made by that journal have excited a good deal of remark here, and that our silence has been miscontrued into an impression on our part that the charges were unfounded or exaggerated we find that it is due to truth to say a few words on the subject. The fact is then that an audit of the accounts of the Jail, and a subsequent examination of the items by an officer of the Finance Department in company with Mr. Ferres as Prison Inspector, show that out of a total expenditure of $9,427, for six months, no less than $2,564, were for "medical comforts," ordered by the Jail Physician, Dr. Beaubien; and that out of this $2,564, $1,800 are for tea! Now the average number of prisoners is three hundred, and of sick eighty, so that we have $1,800 for the tea drinking of eighty prisoners for six months. Alexander would have supplied them for as little. Indeed, it appears that besides being Jailer, Mr. McGinn, has kept a store for "medical comforts." He supplies them out of his own stock, and charges on a certain scale for each item. It is not very reasonable to suppose that he will suffer a loss upon the transaction; and in fact we suppose every one will agree that the whole thing is utterly indefensible. We believe Mr. McGinn admits this himself. We shall however, add what we understand that he sets up in his justification. He says that so far as the quantities, or as we may say rations of medical comforts are concerned, they are ordered by the physician, and that the quantities ordered and those supplied balance,—farther, that as to the price, the scale has been sanctioned by the Sheriff, by the former Sheriff, and by former Governments. It seems almost incredible that a system so manifestly evil could have received sanction from any government; but if it turns out to be the case, he will, doubtless, be allowed all the advantage which may arise from the fact, whatever that may be. The facts, however, are quite sufficient to prove the extraordinary mode of transacting the public business, which has prevailed in every department. We may add one thing. A contemporary talks of a public meeting to express an opinion against Mr. McGinn being dismissed. We need not say that nothing can be more improper than these threats, and that if they were connected with Mr. McGinn's name, he would not retain his place many hours. He has been doing what no public officer ought to do. He may have excuses to make; but his advocates must not assume that they can take the tone of bullies with any safety to his cause.

THE QUEBEC FIRE LOAN.—Of course the arrangement of the Government for settling this old score, has been made the ground of adverse criticism at Quebec. To insist that the debtors shall pay up, and to offer them a discount of twenty per cent, if they do so promptly, is looked upon as a bribe. But these gentlemen never tell us what it was to allow the thing to go on year by year, and make no one pay at all, except as each property was sold, and then, whenever the sale was a judicial one, by the expensive method of legal opposition. What are the facts with relation to this loan? Why that the expense of managing it in the government ment departments has cost annually more than the receipts of money for interest and principal. The public accounts show the fact. It would have been an economical operation to forgive every debtor, on the sole condition that the clerks and the lawyers should have no opportunity for fresh pulls upon the Government, on its account. Out of claims for £18,919 which the Province has sought to enforce against mortgaged properties, £10,000 have turned out a dead mortgage, defect of registration, or other like legal impediment. The present Government intend to settle this long standing and dreadfully losing business, and they have, therefore, undoubtedly offered a bribe—a bribe to the debtors to pay up and close the whole affair, instead of going on with in the old fashion, yearly throwing good money after bad. It is conceivable as a matter of argument that a better plan is possible—that is, we may say, for example, that the whole money might be forced, out of the debtors by instituting several hundred law suits. But those who, now, for political motives say that this is possible, cannot help at the same time, condemning the men lately at the head of affairs, who during eight years, so far from collecting the debt, were constantly throwing away more money upon it. Which horn of the dilemma do they take. Admitting that better can be done than is now being done, how great was the dereliction in duty on the part of those, who failed to do anything like so well?

SPEECH OF COLONEL DEVLIN TO THE VOLUNTEERS.—Some explanation is required from us on this subject. We expected that it would have been made publicly, in another way; but as that has not yet been done, we cannot permit any farther delay. Our reporter was present at the City Hall, on the occasion when Colonel Devlin reviewed the volunteers and addressed the men, and he reported that gentleman's observations, for the paper. Later in the evening Colonel Devlin and Brigade Major McPherson called at our office, and saw the reporter, and Col. Devlin requested him to leave out the criticism in which he (Col. D.) had indulged upon the Government and the Adjutant General. Our reporter objected to this course, and said that if he were disposed to do so upon other grounds, he would be prevented by the consideration that the remarks would be published in other journals, and it might be supposed that they had been left out of the Herald to favour particular interests, or to screen political friends from obnoxious comment. Thereupon Col. Devlin assured our reporter that he had been to the Gazette office, and had obtained from the proprietor of that paper an assurance that the remarks in question should be omitted, and he continued to press the omission upon our reporter as a thing desireable for the good of the service. On these grounds, our reporter consented to do what was requested. The next morning seeing the full report in the Gazette, we addressed a letter to Colonel Devlin, calling his attention to the matter, and asking him to explain it. He, however, though acknowledging that an explanation was due to us, considered the matter of too slight importance to make it worth while to write any letter on the subject, and we acquiesced in this view, to the extent of waiving our demand on him for such explanation, or our alternative recourse of explaining ourselves, unless a certain contingency should arise. That contingency having arisen, we again applied to Mr. Devlin to set the matter right under his own hand, and we have his promise that he will do so, which we presume will be fulfilled. We do not know that any great harm or any great good could have been done by the publication in question; but we wish to have it understood that if we omitted it, it was not to oblige any political friends, nor out of tenderness to them; but at the request of the gentleman who perhaps inconsiderately had made observations, which, on reflection, he saw reason to think would, either on account of the occasion, or for some other reason have been better omitted.

FEDERAL BOUNTIES TO RECRUITS.—A writer signing A. R., complains that we have printed an extract from an American paper, showing the amount of bounties paid for recruits. Our reply is that we publish a newspaper, and that people who think information is evil, will, of course, take care to put their heads into holes, from whence they cannot see how the world turns. The same thing has been printed in other journals to show how hard up the Americans were for men. We published it as a piece of news without any comment—that is all the difference. Did not A. R. see an account of the bounties offered at Portland, in every city journal on the occasion of the arrest of a person charged with procuring recruits here? We suppose that our contemporaries, like ourselves, print items of news in this way, without the responsible editors of the papers knowing or caring anything about them. If not they must be more nearly omniscient than any one in this office pretends to be. If we were wrong in even permitting the appearance of such a piece of intelligence without any special attention given or called to it, how much more mischievous must have been the act of a gentleman, who after turning over all the ill-consequences of the publication in his own mind, took pains to italicize it, and have its poison once more sent forth? When our critic reflects upon this view of the matter he will probably see how difficult it is to deal with those dangerous things—facts—in letter press, and yet keep the world in ignorance with respect to them.

THE CHESAPEAKE.—Our intelligence respecting this vessel shows that the American authorities have wisely respected the rights of the neutral Government within whose territory the Chesapeake was re-captured. By the course they have adopted all the thorny international questions which might have been raised will be avoided; and the the owners of ship and goods will get their own again. No doubt, the Nova Scotian authorities will, on their part, be ready to do everything justified by law to bring the captors to justice.

POLITICAL DINNER AT TORONTO.—On Wednesday, an opposition party dinner took place at Toronto. The Globe asserts that there was but one wholesale merchant present, and no leading commercial man at all. The following were the guests, viz.:—The Hon Alex Campbell, of Kingston, M L C, next the Hon A T Galt, M P P, next Mr Thos Ferguson, M P P, next Mr W T Conger, M P P, next Col G T Denison, and last the Hon J B Robinson. To His Worship's left were seated, first, the Hon J A Macdonald, M P P; secondly, the Hon J Cauchon, M P P; thirdly, the Hon J H Cameron, M P P; fourthly, Mr Isaac Buchanan, M P P; fifthly, Hon John Carling, M P P; sixthly, the Hon W Dickson, M L C, seventhly, the Hon W B Robinson; and, eighthly, the Hon W Cayley.

The company contained the following names which we copy from the Globe and Leader, and which seem to indicate that a large number of the party were from a distance:

G. L. Allen—Governor of the Toronto Gaol, —H. P. Cowan, Andrew Fleming, Crier of the Court; Charles McCaffrey, tax collector; W. Crawford, turnkey; John R. Mountjoy; Jer. Carty, ex-Alderman; James Beaty, of the Leader; Robt Beaty, Secretary and Treasurer of the York Roads Company; W. Cook, Clerk to the York Roads Company; C. Lindsey, editor of Leader; H. W. McCann, ex M.P.P; John Smith, —Albion Hotel,—Mr. Thomas Galt, Q.C.; Rev. Dr Fuller, C J. Campbell, President Commercial Bank, Hon. John Patton, Thomas Mayne Daly, Walter Shanly, Capt. Rowe, Whitby; Jas. Watson Whitby, ex-Alderman Carty, B. Switzer, Capt. Clarke, 100th Regiment; G. A. Barber, James Cotton, ex-Alderman John Smith, William Beaty, G. L. Allen, Ald. Carr, Andrew Fleming, C. E. English, F. Osler and D'Alton McCarty Barrie; John Coyne, Brampton; Edward Boyd, John Canovan James C. Patterson, G. Davenport James, Joseph Wright, J. E. Farewell, E. E. Robert Arnold of Brampton Henry O'Brien, A Prince, T. O'Neill, J S Sprowell, Whitby, George Green Brampton, J R Mountjoy, &c. &c.

The speeches were of course of the usual character of speeches on such occasions, the most remarkable one being that of Mr. T. Ferguson M. P.P., who appears to have taken the place of Mr McGee in the list of toasts, and who either in that gentleman, as his brother Orangeman,—a very natural mistake under the circumstances. Mr. Ferguson apologized for Mr. McGee's past errors and congraulated him on his having now turned to the right way.

HON. GERRITT SMITH'S LECTURE.—The Hon. Gerritt Smith on Saturday evening had a very large audience at Nordheimer's Hall. The Hall was in fact crowded to its full extent. Mr. Smith is a gentleman of commanding figure, with a somewhat slow, but very emphatic pronunciation, and great dexterity in dealing with his hearers. Considering the subject on which he had to speak, it was to be expected that there would be some difference of opinion among the persons whom he addressed, and though the large majority of those present evidently came with friendly feelings, there was a minority disposed to show their dissent, and among these a few noisy individuals who desired to maintain the right of free speech by preventing others from hearing a gentleman, who had volunteered to speak to them in a Hall for which he himself paid. Mr. Smith, however, by a few good tempered hits, so warmed the zeal of his friends and turned the opposition of the more moderate of his opponents, that it became evident to all, he could not be put down by clamour. We have no space to report the speech at length to-day; but shall try to give a sketch of it to-morrow. It was warmly applauded, and at the end received a vote of thanks from the audience, on the motion of Mr. J. J. Day.

VOCAL CONCERT OF THE McGILL UNIVERSITY PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—This Society gave a vocal concert in the Mechanics' Hall on Saturday evening, under the direction of Mr. George LeJeune. The Hall was not crowded, but a fair audience was present, and otherwise the concert was very successful. The first part of the programme consisted of Rossini's grand opera, "La Semiramide," the first act of which was given, for the first time we believe, in Montreal. The parts were distributed as follows:—

Semiramide. Soprano... Miss Alice LeJeune
Arsace.... Contralto.. Miss LeJeune
Idreno.... Tenore.... Mr. McPherson
Assur.... Basso.... Mr. Geo. LeJeune
Oroe..... Basso.... Mr. G. F. LeJune

The performance, of rather a difficult nature was well carried out, and drew forth repeated applause from those present. The second part in which the Misses Le Jeune, Mr. A. Le Jeune, and several of the students took part, was also well sustained. This is a new feature in College life, at least in this city, and we were well pleased to see the efforts meet with so much encouragement. There is evidently considerable musical taste among the students, and the Philharmonic Society will doubtless assist in developing this. We wish them every success.

THE CANADIAN LANCET.—We have received the last number of this periodical. One of the articles contains some rather severe strictures on the surgical practice at the General Hospital, which we should suppose would be likely to excite a considerable amount of professional interest and probably controversy.

VICTORIA SKATING RINK.—We are requested to remind subscribers to the Rink that children under twelve are not allowed to skate after seven o'clock P. M., a rule which the safety of the children and the convenience of the older members require, should be strictly carried out. Also, that a single ticket admits only the individual whose name it bears.

Perhaps the most attractive sale preceding the holidays is the sale of the beautiful French China and Exhibition Goods, to be sold at the Mechanics' Hall. On view this afternoon and to-morrow. The sale takes place, in the order of catalogue, on Wednesday morning. See advertisement.

The Austrian Curiosities and splendid Steel Engravings will be on view this afternoon, at Mr. Arnton's rooms. The sale takes place to-morrow afternoon, at two o'clock. Many are quite new subjects, and really valuable.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—Two men were brought before the Police Magistrate on Saturday, to whom Margaret Lowther said she gave a part of her money; but after giving their names, which led to their arrest, she declined saying anything in their presence. They were therefore discharged. A woman named Sophie Arbour was arrested by Detective Coallier on suspicion of stealing a mink Victorine, valued at $16 from Mr. McCormack's store, on the 5th instant. She came to the store again on Friday, and as it was observed that she had been in the store on the day the Victorine was stolen, they sent for Detective Coallier, who took her in custody. The Victorine was found in her room; she pleaded guilty and was sent to gaol for two months. A carter named Trudel was arrested on suspicion of stealing sheep, but the prosecutor discovered that there was no intention to steal and declined to prosecute.

In the Recorder's Court there were seventeen prisoners. Five farmers were brought up for driving traineaux; one was discharged and the others were fined $1 each. Another farmer and a carter were fined $1 for driving without bells. Frs. Xavier Clement, a roofer, got drunk and beat his wife, for which he was fined $8 and costs or one month.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Number of prisoners tried during the week ending 19th December, 116; persons arrested and tried during the year for drunkenness, breach of the peace, &c., 8,734; persons tried by summons or information during the year, for offences under By-Laws or Statutes, 1,493; persons prosecuted for non-payment of Assessment Duties, Water Rates, &c., during the year 9,391.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.—For the Special Meeting of Council on Wednesday the 23rd Dec, 1863:—To receive Petitions. Reports of Committees. Notices of Motions. Questions put by Members. To re-consider the resolution adopted on the 1st July last, appointing School Commissioners. TO CONSIDER REPORTS—From the Water and Finance Committees—For an additional appropriation of $25,500 for the new Hydraulic Wheel. From the Road Committee—On the Petition of the Honorable John Young for permission to erect a gallery across Wellington Street, to connect his stores on either side of that Street. From the same—On the Petition of Mr. J Shearer to be permitted to construct and use a swing bridge in St. Patrick Street, to connect with a proposed Dry Dock. From the Market and Finance Committees—Recommending the purchase of a portion of the College grounds, to be used as a Hay Market, at a cost of $60,000. TO CONSIDER MOTIONS.—From Councillor Muir—On the expediency of adopting a plan for removing the dirt and filth of the city by means of licensed scavengers. From Councillor Donovan—On the expediency of altering the present constitution of the City Council, and to ask for certain amendments to the Act of Incorporation to that effect.

THE GRAND TRUNK SCHEMES.

If there is one thing more than another in the conduct of the present Administration, entitling it to the confidence and gratitude of the country, it is the firm stand it has taken and maintained against the arbitrary and impertuous demands put forth by the managers of the Grand Trunk Railway Company. It is true, that had the Government yielded to Grand Trunk dictation, and robbed the public treasury for the benefit of that gigantic corporation,—had it truckled to Messrs. Watkin, Brydges and the Directors of the Grand Trunk, instead of vindicating its honour and independence and the rights of the people, the difficulties encountered by the ministry during the last session of Parliament would not have occurred, or they would have disappeared, or been smoothed down by the Grand Trunk influence. The Grand Trunk would not, in itself, perhaps constitute any serious opposition to the good government of the country, were it not for the fact that all its influence is united with that of the Conservatives, who, for the sake of party triumph, would yield to any demands the Grand Trunk might make, no matter how preposterous or absurd they might be.

Mr. Brydges, the General Manager, is doubtless an exceedingly shrewd, and at the same time a most ambitious man; and from the very moment he left the management of the Great Western Railway to take that of the Grand Trunk, he has used every means in his power to secure such an ascendancy over all the other Railways in the Province as will make them either tributary to the Grand Trunk, or a part of its machinery.

In point of fact, Mr. Bridges is aiming to consolidate the whole system of Canadian Railways into one great monster monopoly, and he to reign over it as Railway King. At present his immediate object is to secure a commanding influence over the B & L. H. Railway, and, indeed, the two roads are now working in concert for the sole purpose of damaging the Great Western, and judging from the present aspect of the ease, we cannot avoid the conclusion, that before long a complete consolidation of the two roads will take place, and Mr. Brydges will then have the direct management and control of both. He is, however, most anxious to obtain complete control over the Great Western, and this object attained, his political power and influence would become so great, that he would be able to make and unmake governments at his pleasure, and, moreover, he would thus secure a perfect monopoly of the whole railway traffic of the Province. The Great Western Railway Company at the present time, opposes the designs of Mr Brydges, and, therefore, it is that he manifests so much hostility to it,—and to the managers of that enterprise.

Some of the largest stock-holders in the Grand Trunk are also large share-holders in the Great Western, and doubtless Mr. Brydges will endeavor to convince them that the consolidation of the two roads under one company and one management would prove highly advantageous to the stockholders of both roads. Whether he will succeed or not, it is not at present possible to say, but doubtless that constitutes one of the principal objects of his visits to England at the present time.

If Mr Brydges should accomplish his grand scheme of consolidation it would give to him or the proposed consolidated corporation, a political power and influence greater than that which exists in the people themselves. No ministry would dare to resist the imperious man- the public chest would be under the control of the managers of the Grand Trunk, who would certainly not hesitate to make use of their power for the benefit of the Company and their own personal and individual aggrandizement. If the time shall ever come when railway interests and railway influences shall be paramount to all others in the Province, then our boasted system of responsible government will no longer exist, except in name—a mere shadow—and public liberty will become defunct. The more divided the railway interests, the better will it be for the welfare and prosperity of the country; and the more complete their consolidation, the more disastrous will be the results. Imagine, for one moment, that the whole eleven hundred miles of railway in the Grand Trunk, the one hundred and sixty miles in the Buffalo and Lake Huron, the two hundred and twenty-nine miles in the Great Western, together with some hundreds of miles in branch roads, to be all under the sole control and government of one man or set of men—that the immense capital invested in these roads would be subject to their control—and that the thousands of officials and employees in the workshops and along the roads, their numerous ramifications and branches would be under the immediate direction of the managing director or the Board of Directors, and it will be readily seen what a tremendous power would be placed in the hands of one man, or of the few men constituting the Board of Directors. We are by no means disposed to undervalue the great advantages the people derive from the splendid railways which intersect the Province; and moreover, we would be willing that all needful assistance should be extended to them by the government, but we would not, if it were possible to prevent it, substitute the General Manager of a railway for the Governor General, nor allow a railway Board of Directors to usurp the functions of Parliament. This is, however, what Mr. Brydges and his associates in the management of the Grand Trunk would bring about if they could, and it is in fact what they tried to effect during the last session of Parliament, and it is what they will most certainly endeavour to accomplish at the next session.

Mr. Brydges is a far sighted and keen diplomatist, bold, persevering, energetic and determined, and he will leave nothing undone that can be done for the success of his long cherished scheme of becoming ultimately the railway king of Canada, and compelling both the government and Parliament to submit to his dictorial sway. We trust, however, that the people, the Government and the Parliament, will have independence enough to resist all the attempted encroachments and assumptions of the Grand Trunk corporation, and force it to keep within its legitimate bounds of a commercial enterprise.—Hamilton Times.

A CURIOUS COINCIDENCE.

The recent visit of Vice-Admiral Sir A. Milne K.C.B., in his flagship Nile, accompanied by a portion of the North American and West India squadron, to New York, is somewhat singular as being the first instance on record of a British Admiral flying his flag in a Federal port since the final evacuation of the old Thirteen Colonies. And it is, to say the least, a singular coincidence that on or about the same day, in the year of grace 1863, the flag of Admiral Milne first floated on the breeze in the harbor of New York, on the Atlantic side of North America, the flag of Rear Admiral John Kingcome should have been borne into the port of San Francisco, on the Pacific extremity of the Federal territory. So rapid have been the developments in scientific impovements, that these gallant Admirals could, by the telegraphic wires which have been made to span the vast continent, and which, be it remembered has been consummated since the troubles in America began, have communicated with each other in the short space of three or four hours! although some four thousand miles of distance intervened between them. Whether the visit of Admiral Kingcome to San Francisco was unpremeditated, is, of course, not known to outsiders, but that Admiral Milne had sought permission from her Majesty's Government to do so, is now well known. Sir Alexander Milne enjoys the reputation of being a far-seeing man, and, doubtless, had good and sufficient reasons for paying a visit to the Federal States, and it was also quite natural that he should have selected the city of New York, as the rendezvous for his flagship and her consorts. Admiral Milne left a decidely favorable impression behind him in the Federal States; and it is more than probable his visit was attended with all the substantial benefits to the people of both his own country and those of America, which we all known, and have gracefully acknowledged, it was the anxious desire of that gallant and judicious officer to bring about. It is pleasant to be assured that Sir Alexander Milne was most hospitably received and entertained at Washington, and that, attended by his suite, Lord Lyons and the whole of the British legation, he accompanied President Lincoln to pay homage at the grave of George Washington. It is the opinion of not a few persons that the world owe a debt of gratitude to Admiral Milne for the wise and altogether exemplary manner in which he conducted affairs during the last two years and a half he has the command-in-chief of the British naval force stationed in American waters. All this is, however, apart from the curious coincidence of two Federal ports receiving, respectively the Atlantic and Pacific wave, having been visited simultaneously for the first time since the old Colonial era by British flag-officers, with their "bits of bunting" flying at the mast-heads of their respective ships, and so far as one of them is concerned, by consent of the British Government, which never does anything unadvisedly or without an object in view.—Halifax Reporer.

FECUNDITY OF FISH.—All fishes are immensely fecund; indeed there is nothing in the animal world that can in this respect be compared hwit them, except perhaps a queen bee, which has fifty or sixty thousand young each season, or the white ant, which produces eggs at the rate of fifty per minute, and goes on laying for a period of unknown duration! When we state that the codfish yields its eggs in millions, and that so small a fish as a herring of five or six ounces is provided with thirty-five thousand ova, it will at once be seen that the multiplying powers of all kinds of fish are immense. But the drain on fish life, consequent on the habitat of these animals, is of corresponding magnitude. Millions upon millions of the eggs that are laid by the cod or the herring in the sea never come to life at all, many of them from the want of the fructifying power, and others from being devoured by enemies. Then again, of those eggs that are so fortunate to be ripened, it is pretty certain that fully ninety-five per cent. of the young fish perish before they are six months' old. Were only half of the eggs to come to life, and but half of the young fish to live, the sea would so overflow with animal life, that it would soon become impossible for a boat to move in its waters. But we can never hope to realize such a sight; and when we mention that a herring shoal consists of billions of fish, and takes up a space double that occupied by all the parks of London, and gives no impediment to navigation, our readers will see the magnitude of what has been imagined; because from the destruction of fish life from natural causes, and the quantity required for food by man, the breeding supply is kept down to a percentage that is not very far from the point of extermination. Hence the urgent necessity for fish culture as an adjunct to the natural supplies.—Fraser's Magazine.

JAPANESE MAXIM.—The tongue of women is their sword, and they never let it grow rusty for want of using.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.
