CANADA IS CENTRE OF POLITICAL TALK

Next Week's Discussion on Preference Assumes New Importance.

SIR WILFRID IS SILENT

On Decision of Canadian Ministers to Direct Trade Negotiations With Foreign Powers.

By Special Cable from our own Correspondent.

London, April 26.—The Star's disclosures and Sir Richard Cartwright's confirmation have become the general subject of political discussion, especially in view of next week's conference debates on the preference. They are underlying the editorials in many of the London and provincial journals this morning.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier to-day gave an interview to the Star representative, who handed the Premier copies of the Times and Reuter's despatches from Ottawa.

"Well?" said Sir Wilfrid, in his most mystical way.

"I thought," said the representative, "you might perhaps find it convenient to make a statement."

The Premier replied with decided emphasis: "On this subject I have nothing to say."

"Do you deny the accuracy of the Star's statement?" he was asked.

"No," replied the Premier, "I do not deny, nor," he added, after a pause, "do I confirm."

Then becoming the questioner, he remarked: "May I ask where the Star obtained its information?" He was told: "From what we have reason to believe is a good source, Sir Wilfrid, and seeing its obvious public importance at this moment of imperial action or inaction I thought you might find it serve Canada's best interests to make a statement."

"Oh, no," he replied, "I have nothing to say; nothing."

The Star representative had previously sought Sir Frederick Borden, who smilingly congratulated the Star on its enterprise. He was asked: "What have you to say about it?" He replied: "Oh nothing at all, it is not my business. I am here on defence. You had better go and ask the Premier." The representative went, with the result already stated.

It is generally agreed that the fact that Canada's cards are now put frankly on the table, must give new meaning and importance to next week's preference discussion, which the British Ministers were previously most anxious to cover up. Sir Edward Grey's answer in the House of Commons yesterday, shows no indication of a protest or even a display of pique at what Sir Edward practically admitted was the irregularity of the Canadian Ministers in making direct pourparlers with German, Italian, and other foreign governments over the head of the British foreign office.

Canada has, in fact, seized the right to direct commercial negotiations with foreign powers without even bothering to tell the Imperial Government, much less to ask its concurrence. But though the British Government is most unlikely to say or do anything, in the way of protest, though no single word can be found in all of to-day's editorials to show a suggestion of grievance against Canada because of her Ministers' deliberate course of action, yet there is an undercurrent of English feeling which probably will never find formal utterance that this, in English slang, is not quite cricket, not quite conformable to the traditions of Westminster Hall over which Sir Wilfrid himself grew so eloquent on Tuesday last. In private talk among themselves you may hear Englishmen remark: "There seems just a little bit of a Yankee touch about it all."

POLICE IN ST. LUCIA FIRE ON RIOTERS

Castries in Hands of Strikers and Several Shops are Wrecked and Looted.

New York, April 26.—A despatch from Castries, Island of St. Lucia, says: "The speech of the new British Governor, having been construed as encouraging to the aspirations of the workmen, the coal carriers organized an agitation for a big advance in wages, and struck work. They intimidated all who were willing to work, and were joined by the rabble. All coaling was stopped.

There is here only a small police force, inadequate to repress disorder or to protect property. Being pressed by the rioters, they fired on the crowd and wounded four persons. The police and special officers were confined to their barracks and the town was left in the hands of the mob. Several shops were wrecked, the market was looted and several persons were beaten. The coal carriers formulated their demands, and the merchants were compelled to yield. The advance in wages is considered ruinous, but work has been resumed. Castries is now quiet.

News of the burning and wreck of sugar estates is now coming from the country. Armed police are preventing rioters coming into the town.

DR. R. A. FALCONER CHOSEN.

Toronto University Presidency Will Be Offered to Him.

Toronto, April 26.—Dr. R. A. Falconer, principal of Halifax Presbyterian College, has been selected by the Board of Governors of Toronto University to fill the vacant presidency. A cablegram was sent to Dr. Falconer at Naples, where he is this week, on his way to Greece. It is expected that he will at once return to Halifax, in order to meet the board of trustees of Pine Hill College, of which he is principal, after which he will formally announce his decision in the matter of the Toronto appointment. It is believed that he will accept the appointment at an early date.

Dr. R. A. Falconer.

Upwards of eighty names, including Canadian, American and British scholars and educationists, were considered by the committee of the board. The name of Dr. Michael Sadler, of Manchester, Eng., was prominently in the hands of the governors, but it was ascertained that he would not be available for at least three years.

The board also made the following announcements: Professor J. C. McLennan, to be professor of physics; Mr. W. J. Loudon, associate professor of physics, transferred to the department of mathematics, the title of associate professor of mechanics.

A better man could not have been secured on this side of the Atlantic, or the other."

OFFICIAL OPENING MARRED BY WEATHER

Jamestown Exposition Set in Motion by President Roosevelt—Buildings Incomplete.

Norfolk, Va., April 26.—The Jamestown Tercentennial exposition was opened to-day with the pomp and ceremony which always attends an event where the President of the United States is a central figure, and diplomatic representatives of foreign nations, governors of Sates, and like dignitaries are honored guests and participants.

President Roosevelt reviewed from the deck of the yacht-crusier, Mayflower, the war vessels anchored in Hampton Roads. Then followed the programme for opening to the public the enterprise commemorating the 300th anniversary of the first English settlement in America. At sunrise the ceremonies were begun by the U. S. artillery firing a salute of 300 guns to usher in the day. The pressing of the gold button by the President; which formally opened the exposition was the signal for the unfurling of a thousand or more flags on the various buildings. At the same time a signal was given to the warships and to the garrison at Fort Monroe and all fired a salute. After this ceremony the President, his cabinet, members of diplomatic corps, committees from both branches of congress, governors of States and official guests of the exposition were served luncheon in the auditorium annex. During the luncheon the parade grounds were cleared and the great crowds secured places around the walks to witness the military pageant. O the reviewing stand besides the President were members of his cabinet and other official visitors as well as several hundred especially invited guests.

The pressing of the proverbial gold button, invariably used in connection with the opening of an exposition was not so important a function in itself as had been expected. On account of the unreadiness of the buildings and the grounds there was little machinery to set in motion and many of the buildings had not been supplied with flags to be unfurled. The coldest and most backward spring in the annals of Virginia marked by severe rain storms in the past month is responsible for the opening ceremonies being marred by incomplete structures and uninstalled machinery.

TORONTO MUST PAY COSTS OF APPEAL

Canadian Associated Press.

London, April 26.—Judgment was rendered to-day by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the case of the Corporation of Toronto vs. the Toronto Railway, a case from the Supreme Court, and the Toronto Railway Company vs. the Corporation of Toronto, a case from the Court of Appeal of Ontario.

Their Lordships advise that an order be issued declaring and ordering that neither the city nor the company have any street railway powers under the said agreement over streets within new territorial additions to the city during the term therein mentioned; that under clauses fourteen and seventeen of the conditions the privilege to grant to another person or company, for failure of the company to establish and lay down new lines, and to open the same for traffic or to extend the tracks and services upon any street or streets, as provided by the agreement, is the only remedy.

The city can claim that it is for the company, not the city engineer, with the approval of the City Council, to determine what routes shall be adopted by the company; that subject to condition 39 it is for the company, not the city engineer, to determine where cars shall be stopped for the purpose of taking on or letting off passengers; that the judgments of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal be varied so far as it is necessary to give effect to the above declarations, the corporation to pay the railway company the costs incurred by them in the several Canadian courts. In respect of the questions raised in these consolidated appeals, so far as such costs have not already been awarded them by any of the said courts, the Corporation of Toronto is to pay the company their costs of the consolidated appeals to His Majesty in Council.

NO RIFLE TEAM FOR SYDNEY.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, April 26.—The Dominion Railway Association Programme Committee has definitely decided not to send a Canadian team to compete in the Empire match, to be held in Sydney, Australia, in October.

To reach Sydney in time the team would have to leave Canada in September. It is felt that very few of Canada's best shots could spare the time to make such a long trip, and it would be unwise to send an inferior team to shoot against the cream of English and Australian marksmen.

It was announced that an English team will compete at the Dominion Rifle Association meet. The team will be chosen from the Bisley aggregates, and will include a number of the best marksmen in the British Isles. After shooting in Canada the team will proceed to Australia.

KEEWATIN LIQUOR LICENSE.

Toronto, Ont., April 26.—In official circles at the Parliament buildings it is held that the Dominion authorities were justified in summoning Keewatin license holders for selling liquor within the prescribed area on each side of the transcontinental railway.

A proclamation which went into effect in September, forbade the sale of liquor, except in incorporated cities and towns within two miles of each side of the lines. The men summoned have, so far as is known here, continued selling liquor under their licenses, issued in May last, up to the present time. As their licenses expire on May 30, and could not, in view of the proclamation, be renewed by the Provincial Government, it is not thought that they have any grave ground of complaint against the Dominion, though possibly they might, with justice, apply for the refund of a portion of the license fees paid to the Ontario Government.

CONFERENCE ENDED WITHOUT SUCCESS

Mounted Police Sent to Coal District—Members Protest Against Conditions in West.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Fernie, B. C., April 26.—All attempts to settle the strike in the coal mines of British Columbia and Alberta by private negotiations previous to action by the Board of Conciliation, have failed, and the board appointed, under the new Labor Disputes Act, of which Sir William Mulock is chairman, will take up an investigation.

The conference between operators and miners, which had been in progress since Tuesday, finally broke up yesterday morning, without reaching an agreement, both sides realizing that any further negotiations would be simply a waste of time. The men on Wednesday presented a proposition to the operators, which the latter were inclined to accept, but yesterday morning when the conference reopened the operators, made a counter offer. They then left, leaving the representatives of the miners to consider their proposal in private. On their return they were informed that the men would not accept, and without wasting further words left the room.

MOUNTED POLICE CALLED OUT

Regina, Sask., April 26.—A force of twenty mounted police, one hundred rifles, and a large quantity of ammunition was shipped hurriedly from here for points in the region of the coal strike, Commissioner Percy, of the mounted police, superintending the detail in person. One hundred men are in readiness at this and the Calgary police post for immediate use in the coal strike region if required.

Contrary to expectations, the Canadian Northern has already succeeded in temporarily repairing the break in the Regina-Prince Albert Line near Lumsden, and passenger traffic has been resumed.

WESTERN MEMBERS PROTEST.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, April 26.—The Liberal members of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta had another meeting last night with the Acting Minister of Railways, before whom they laid fully and forcibly the alarming position of affairs in the West by reason of the failure of the transportation companies to carry out their obligations as common carriers. Mr. Fielding gave the members a most sympathetic hearing and assured them he would do all he could to bring about a remedy.

NATURALIZATION TO BE MADE EASIER

Movement on Foot to Secure Better Quarters for Aliens Seeking Canadian Citizenship.

A movement has been started to secure more convenient quarters for naturalization purposes at the Court House. The rush of aliens to obtain citizenship papers has been on the increase for some months back, and many of the would-be Canadian citizens have been frustrated in their laudable designs by the difficulties attending the work of securing their papers.

Mr. Albert Chabot, deputy clerk of the Circuit Court is the naturalization commissioner, who handles all the applications. His desk is within the counter of the Circuit Court, and the rule is that nobody outside the employes of the office is allowed to go behind the counter. The aliens applying for naturalization frequently are rather handicapped by their slight knowledge of English or French, and when they question those around the Court House, nobody understands them, and thus they leave without being able to attain their object. Besides, on days when business is brisk in the Circuit Court offices, there is a crowd about and these aliens are generally rather timid about forcing their way through a crowd and become discouraged.

The Independent Hebrew Political Association has taken the matter up, and has addressed a memorial to the Attorney General's department on the subject, asking that the department set aside a special office at the Court House for naturalization purposes. Last year there were fifteen hundred applications, and up to date this year there have been over five hundred, while the prospects are that there will be over two thousand five hundred during the coming six months. It will be a practical impossibility to meet the requirements of such a number of people with the arrangements at present existing.

In the main Court House, there is a room not at present in much use, which would be entirely suitable for the purpose of naturalization. There is a vault in connection with this room, and the commissioner would have the papers within easy reach when enquiries were made as to the status of any of the new citizens of Canada.

While the Attorney General's department has received the representations of the Hebrew Independent Political Society in friendly spirit, no action has been taken as yet. It is suggested that if the room referred to were placed at the disposal of the naturalization commissioner, a sign might be placed within view of the entrance of the Court House, indicating where the commissioner could be found, and that on the door of the office, the purpose to which it is devoted could also be indicated.

NOTRE DAME DES NEIGES SEEKS ANNEXATION.

Notre Dame des Neiges is ready for annexation with the City of Montreal. The subject was discussed at a meeting of the suburban council at which the following conditions relative to annexation were proposed for the consideration of the city:

"1st.—That the town of Notre Dame des Neiges be made a new ward of the city of Montreal, to be known under the name of Mount Royal ward, and to have two representatives in the civic council.

"2nd.—That the new Mount Royal ward be placed upon the same status as all the other wards of the city.

"3rd.—That the permanent officials at present engaged by the town shall retain their respective offices under the direction of the different civic committees.

"4th.—That the cultivated lots inside the municipality be not valued at more than $100 an acre for a period of five years, provided that during this period they remain under cultivation."

This resolution was moved by Councillor Prudhomme and seconded by Councillor McKenna.

The municipality has had some difficulty in arriving at an understanding with the Montreal Street Railway and also with the Turnpike Trust. Once admitted to the city, it is argued that residents of the district would enjoy the regular street railway fare, while an abolition of the Turnpike Trust would also necessarily result. In remaining independent the council would have to pay in the neighborhood of $2,000 a year to meet the interest on Turnpike Trust bonds, as well as having to stand the cost of keeping the roads. To do this and to proceed with needed public works, taxation would have to be raised almost to the same rates as those imposed in the city. Another advantage which would result from annexation would be the instalment of a proper sewerage system, besides the regular civic, police and fire protection.

Report Exonerates the Abattoirs.

The following report has been sent to the City Council by the chief food inspector of the city, in regard to the statement that it was believed dead animals were being converted into lard. "There is one inspector at the Eastern Abattoir, and another at the Montreal Stock Yards Abattoir. The latter also looks after Laing's and Davies' abattoirs. Animals dying of natural causes at the Eastern Stock Yards and cattle market are taken charge of by the contractor for the removal of dead animals. At the Montreal Stock Yards, also Laing's and Davies' abattoirs, animals dying in this way are disposed of in the rendering tank. In no case after a thorough investigation have I been able to find that the carcasses of animals dying of natural causes were used for the making of lard or any other product for human consumption."

Canadian Northern Quebec Railway.

Mr. H. T. Hazen, chief engineer of the Canadian Northern Quebec railway, has returned from a trip over the work of construction of the road between Quebec and Garneau. He says that the work is progressing in a satisfactory manner and there is no doubt that the district is all that the promoters of the road have expected.

CARRIED WILL OF SMITH.

Sir George Cooper Anticipated No Contest Over the Estate.

New York, April 26.—Sir George and and Lady Cooper, brother-in-law and sister of the late James Henry Smith, who died in Kioto, Japan, and who left an estate reckoned at from $50,000,000 to $75,000,000, arrived here yesterday to await the arrival of the body of their kinsman.

Sir George Cooper brought with him the will which disposes of the Smith millions. When asked if there was likely to be a contest, he replied that he did not think so. He declined to place any estimate as to the value of the estate. Sir George said that the will will be probated in the state of New York. Asked concerning the report that Lady Cooper was one of the main beneficiaries, Sir George replied: "She is his sister, is she not?"

Concerning the heirs in Evanston, and other parts of the country, he declined to talk, reiterating the statement that he did not anticipate any contest.

RESTRICTIONS HOLD GOOD.

Chancellor Boyd Upholds Will of Late William Quay.

Toronto, April 26.—Chancellor Boyd gave judgment on the validity of the testator's restrictions imposed by the late William Quay, of Port Hope, on his son Thomas. The deceased left a fortune valued at over $100,000, which was divided among his children by a will that had been used as a means of placing on record the testator's estimate of the character of some of the beneficiaries. The restrictions imposed the observance of which had to be demonstrated to the executors, were that he should abstain from both gambling and any trade or business connected with the liquor traffic. The Chancellor rules that the conditions are binding, and that Thomas must furnish evidence periodically to the executors to enjoy the benefits conferred by the will.

Tenders For Dredging

TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tender for Dredging," will be received up to and including Monday, May 6, 1907, for dredging required at the following places in the Province of Quebec during the present year: River Ouelle, Rimouski Pier, River Saguenay, and Bay St. Paul, Cap au Corbeau.

Combined specification and form of tender can be obtained at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa. Tenders must include the towing of the plant to and from the works. Only dredges can be employed which are registered in Canada at the time of the filing of tenders. Contractors must be ready to begin work within thirty days after the date they have been notified of the acceptance of their tender.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of tenderers.

An accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, for one thousand dollars ($1,000), must accompany each tender as security deposit in connection with the dredging to be performed. The cheque will be returned in case of non-acceptance of tender.

Government Took Revenge.

Paris, April 26. — The secretaries of the postmen's and telegraph operators' unions were dismissed yesterday afternoon from the employ of the Government, because they signed the recent violent manifesto against Premier Clemenceau. The postmen have called a mass meeting to protest against the secretaries' dismissal, and it is feared they may strike out of sympathy for their discharged comrades.

RAIN ENDED GAME MONTREAL THREE AHEAD

Maddigan Made Another Sensational Play—President McCafferty, of Toronto, Predicts Great Things for the Canadian Teams.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Buffalo, N.Y., April 25.—"That was mean; we were going to win," said Manager Kittredge, after rain drove the players from the field yesterday at the end of the third inning. Montreal looked to have the game, but Jupiter Pluvius must have been one of the few who got passes and he reciprocated. Three runs had been driven in by Montreal and Vowinkle appeared easy to them. "Tim" Hughes was doing splendidly for the visitors and his fielding was good behind him. Maddigan made his second sensational catch, this time robbing McConnell of a triple. It was a beauty, and the handful of fans cheered him.

Nattress started out by fanning. Gettman got a double. Brown retired White and Needham threw out Murray. Joyce flew to Gettman, Phelan walked and stole, Brown hit a high one back of third and was safe. Maddigan and Hill flew out.

In the second Nattress robbed Shean of a hit, Vowinkle knocking down Needham's crack and Crum duplicated Shean's hit, but was safe. Hughes forced him. Smith and McConnell flew out and Needham fielded Corcoran at first.

Joyce hit safely. Phelan walked again, Brown bunted, the ball refusing to roll out. Maddigan forced Joyce at home, and Hill's out at first scored Phelan. Brown and Maddigan romped home on Shean's two bagger to left, and Needham hit sharply to Natty, but was thrown out. Rain fell and the game was called. Secretary Ascher got the $50 rain guarantee.

President McCafferty, of Toronto, was in the stand, and was disappointed at the rain. "The two Canadian clubs will be noticed this season," said he, "they are both playing great ball. Kittredge is the kind who will make good. He has the ginger and that is what goes. Ascher, you have a good place to draw from. We have to put up with the cash for our players." Ascher smiled and McCafferty lauded the Toronto team, saying that Kelly was a card. He liked Montreal's playing. Hurley, of Brooklyn, will join Toronto to-day.

Mr. McCafferty told of the big opening in Rochester. When the players got back to the hotel a convention had taken possession, and he had to take them out to lunch. As he got a nice cheque he didn't mind. Kittredge was on the coaching line to-day, and injected a lively spirit into the game. Buffaloians have taken a liking to him, and he was joshed good naturedly after the rain storm. The postponed game will be played here during the second trip.

NEWARK WON GREAT PITCHER'S BATTLE

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, April 26.—The Orioles beat Newark here yesterday, in as pretty a pitcher's battle as one could see, surrounded by nearly ten thousand yelling rooters. The afternoon was warm and would have been perfect, but for a stiff breeze that interfered with long high drives. The business part of the game was for Baltimore in the second inning, and for Newark in the third.

Demmitt opened Baltimore's second with a clean single to right, and Hunter sacrificed. Byers scratched a hit down the first base line, and as he ran along the path, Catcher Krichell's throw hit him, causing the ball to glance off into right, and Demmitt completed the circuit. The throw in to try to head him off went wild and allowed Byers to reach third, to score later when Burrell singled.

A base on balls at the opening of Newark's third chance, allowed Carrick to start, and Engle sacrificed. Mabling struck out, but Cockman hit for two bases. With the exception of Lynch, who is substituting at short for Dithredge, Baltimore's regular, who has a broken finger, every Oriole played a lightning fast game at his position and on bases. Manager Dunn was especially fast in handling four chances that came his way, and had he been a bit slower on any one of them the entire result would likely have been different. By stopping a sizzling drive along the third base line, Burrell too saved the game for Baltimore at one time.

One of the striking incidents of the game was an attempted steal home by Dunn while Carrick held the ball. The Orioles claim that he not only made the steal safely, but that Catcher Krichell, in stepping from his box before the ball was delivered violated the rules. Umpire Kelly, however, called Dunn out, and beyond a mild protest on the part of the Orioles, there was no action. Bartley, the new Oriole pitcher, secured from the Philadelphia Americans reported yesterday and will pitch to-morrow.

PROVIDENCE WON OPENING GAME

Special to The Montreal Star.

Providence, R.I., April 25.—The Eastern League in this city opened yesterday under the most auspicious conditions, for the weather was clear and there was a crowd of over 14,000 persons in attendance, and the final outcome of the game was a victory for the home team over Jersey City by a score of 6 to 5. Every available seat in the big grounds was taken and the crowd filled bleachers and overflowed into the outfield, so that ground rules were necessary, it being a three base hit into the crowd.

Barry A. Stocky, left handed, was on the firing line for the locals and Lake started in to do the twirling for the visitors. He lasted but three and a half innings, and was then replaced by Foxen. Barry also was obliged to retire in the eighth and was succeeded by clinton. It was a stubbornly fought contest throughout and though on the whole well played for so early in the season, there were spots where the work was noticeably ragged, this being particularly true in the opening innings. As the men settled down, however, a good game was witnessed.

The occasion was graced by the presence of al the baseball dignitaries. Dan Johnson, of the American League; Tim Murnane, of the New England; Farrell, of the New York State League; Mike Regan, the Royal rooter of Boston; John I. Taylor, of Boston, and George Dovey, of Boston, owners of the Boston Americans and nationals, respectively; P. T. Powers, president of the Eastern League; and many other baseball notables from various parts of the country. Preceding the game, there was the usual band concert and flag raising and the first ball was pitched by His Honor P. J. McCarthy, mayor of the city.

The Providence team, composed principally of young blood this season, showed up well for a beginning and showed themselves good stickers. They secured in all a total of eleven hits, two of them triples, while the visitors batted out but seven hits. It did not take the visitors long to get on to Lake's delivery, and they pounded him so hard that removal was necessary. Foxen did much better. Barry for the locals weakened perceptibly in the eighth, but Clinton pitched good ball, and prevented the visitors from winning out at a time when they looked very dangerous.

The Swimming Season

will soon be here. The attendants at the watering places where you bathe require you to be able to swim in order to prevent accidents. The best place to learn is at the Corner Craig and Beaudry.

A HUGE BLUNDER ON ENGLISH TURF.

The business of horse-racing in England is carried out on such straightforward lines that it hardly seems possible such a fiasco could have occurred as was the outcime of the House of Commons annual point-to-point steeplechase. In the first place, Lord Willoughby de Broke, master of the Warwickshire hunt, under the auspices of which the races were held, failed to apply to the National Hunt Club for a license to hold the fixture, an omission which might have ended in the disqualification of everybody who had anything to do with the meeting; then whether due to an unpardonable oversight or to a desire to keep all the information to themselves, the authorities made no sort of arrangements either for identifying the horses or for announcing the names of the winners and placed horses.

Consequently, backers and bookmakers arrived at a pitch of mental tangle impossible to describe. The latter, however, proved themselves equal to the occasion in the end, as they priced every horse in the race whether it was a starter or not, as the public had no means of knowing which were running.

In this way they secured a good deal of money to which they were not entitled. Their system of betting was on the one first past the post. This huge piece of blundering has been a big topic of talk in sporting circles, and everybody has been wondering what the result would be. Fortunately for all concerned in the matter, the stewards of the National Hunt Committee took a lenient view and only fined Lord Willoughby de Broke $125 for failing to comply with the rule requiring a notice of seven days to be given for a meeting. They remitted the disqualification of the officials, owners riders and horses.

About Sports and Sportsmen

A cable despatch from Paris states that a match was pulled off by Roberts, who used the English style of boxing, and Chabrier, of France, who used savate. The despatch fails to state whether there were any ears pulled off by the Frenchman or not. The latter won, however, by kicking his opponent in the chest and following it with a blow with the fist.

One professional pugilist dared to speak his little piece before the Assembly when it was considering the Frawley boxing bill, which proposes to legalize boxing in this state when it is controlled by the Amateur Athletic Union. This boxer is Marty McCue, an Assemblyman, who said: "I have boxed amateur and got money, and I have boxed professional and sometimes got nothing, and I tell you the professional sport is cleaner. Sure, all the amateurs in New York take money. Do you think they box for fun? But the professional game is not open to green, raw boys of 16 to 18 years old—boys who are not fit to box."

No wonder the bill passed.

For the benefit of many enquirers, it may be stated that William Squires, the unbeaten Australian pugilist, who has come to America to win fame and fortune, is 28 years old, and a native of New South Wales. His parents were both natives of that state and were of English descent. In Australia Squires is called Bill, or "Boshter" Squeers—Boshter meaning magnificent. He has been a gold miner and a coal miner. He has worked on cattle ranches, or "stations," as they are called there. He has also worked on railroads, and apparently at almost everything else. His pugilistic career has covered only a few years, but in that time he has lost but one decision and that was on a foul. Squires is tall and apparently slender. But when he strips he shows that he has plenty of muscle and that it is in the right place. He is not at all boastful. He has announced that, should he win his first fight, he will go after other good men of his weight. He has mentioned Schreck, O'Brien and Burns as the trio he would like to face. Should he succeed in overcoming them, he announces his intention of going after Jeffries. Should he defeat those mentioned, more interest will centre in these initial battles than in any match which could be arranged between him and Jeff. The difference in weight is too great. Squires will have to show the sporting population that he is worthy of his title of "heavyweight champion of Australia," and if he succeeds in doing this there is great opportunity for him in the ring of to-day.

AT BLUE BONNETS.

Track Will Be In Perfect Shape Very Shortly.

Blue Bonnets course is being thoroughly cleaned up and put in readiness for the racing season, and it is expected that the horses will be able to exercise on it in ten days' time. Not so very many days ago there was a covering of snow on the track, but now in some places the dust is flying. The underground drainage has worked perfectly and the water has been carried off very rapidly.

The buildings are all in good condition and are now being opened up. Many local horses are already assembled in nearby barns, ready for the opening of the track, and many of the stables will be left for outside owners.

The steeplechase course is being given great attention, and the various jumps are now all the regulation size, and this course is as good as any and if possible it is likely there will be a jumping race each day.

The track will be open in a very few weeks now, and then it will be up to the public to patronize it, so as to show that Montreal can support first class race metings. The track is the best that money can furnish, and the citizens must furnish the attendance.

Entries for the stake races closing May 4th, show that North American and Canadian owners will be well represented.

SEMI-PROFESSIONAL BALL.

Will Have a Try-Out Here Saturday Afternoon.

The following will be the line-up of the Nationals on Saturday, when they meet the Montreal Reserves at Atwater Park:—First base, Dunlop; second base, Rock; third base, Labelle; right field, A. Sasseville; shortstop, R. Sasseville; centre field, Kelly; left field, Lemieux; catcher, Gosselin; pitcher, Morin or Demers.

They are credited with having the best battery in the league, and are expected to defeat the Amricans. On Sunday, the game will be on the Shamrock grounds, starting at 3 o'clock. Charlie Hayden has been appointed official scorer.

The Atwater Park has a large staff at work, and from present indications Superintendent Robertson will have everything in good shape for Saturday. The diamond is hard and dry, the outfield, with one day of sun, will be much better than it was last season.

The Montreal Reserves will probably line up as follows:—First base, Burns or Smith; second base, Mullhall; shortstop, Robertson; third base, Wilkey; right field, Callahan; centre field, Smith or Schmitt; left field, Brandt; catcher, Clarke; pitcher, O'Brien, Smith, Schmitt, or Brougham.

GOLF PLAYERS ARE ALL GETTING READY

The many golf enthusiasts of the city are preparing for the season's play. None of the links are as yet officially open. The official opening of the links will take place for the Metropolitan on May 4th, when the club competition medals play handicaps will be run off, for which three prizes are offered. The following is the programme of this club:

May 11th, the qualifying round of the club trophy will take place, the first sixteen net scores to qualify.

May 18th, the first round of the club trophy will be completed.

May 25th, the first play in the new subscription cup will be open to subscribers who notify to the committee.

June 1st, the club competition medal play final, in which three prizes are donated, will take place.

June 8th, qualifying round for the Allan cup, the first sixteen gross scores to qualify.

June 15th will see the completion of the above competition.

June 22nd and 29th, a couple of matches with outside clubs will be played.

From May 1st to July 31st the first round of the Metropolitan challenge competition will be played off for, while the second round will take place from August 31st to October 31st. Three prizes have been donated for this unique challenge competition, 1st prize by Dr. Patton, 2nd by Chas. Bird, and 3rd by C. H. Alves.

The Royal Montreal will also open on May 4th.

The Beaconsfield committee are in hopes of having at least part of the course open by to-morrow.

The Victoria Club links will be informally open on Saturday, and the date of the formal opening will be decided next week. Spring handicaps will shortly be announced. The greens are in excellent condition.

Outremont Club has not yet arranged the handicaps, but a number of players have been using the grounds, and the club has excellent prospects for the season.

ACKERMAN AND TREMBLAY AT PARK

To-night at Sohmer Park Charles Ackerman anw Eugene Tremblay will wrestle for the lightweight championship of America at catch-as-catch-can style, best two falls in three, with Police Gazette rules to govern. Ackerman arrived in the city last night from his home in Lima, Ohio, and looks to be in the best of condition for to-night's contest. Ackerman showed in his last contest here that he has a better chance of defeating the French-Canadian champion than any other lightweight in the business, and the opinion is freely expressed by a great many that the Ohio boy's great speed and aggressive tactics will prove entirely too much for the hitherto invincible Tremblay.

A ROLLER POLO LEAGUE WITH MONTREAL IN IT

Ottawa Has Just Organized a Club and the Stars of the Ottawa Hockey Club Will Take Part in This Sport.

It is expected that a Canadian Roller Polo League will be formed shortly, comprising teams from Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and Peterboro in Ottawa.

Several members of the Ottawa hockey team will figure on the Ottawa roller polo septet, which was organized at an enthusiastic meeting.

There was a large attendance at the organization meeting and some of the best hockey players in the city were present, including Billy Baird, Hamby Shore, Percy Lesueur and Eddie Roberts. The Ottawas have plenty of promising material and will get down to work at once, practising Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Arena rink. The uniforms will be the same as those of the Ottawa hockeyists, red, white and black. It is intended to play Percy Lesueur, goal; Billy Baird, point; Chamberlain, cover, and Shore, Roberts and two other fast ones on the forward line. Harvey Pulford will be too busy with the oarsmen to pay any attention to roller polo, but an effort will be made to get Harry and Tom Smith into action. Tommie Smith and Billy Baird have played the game over in Pittsburg. The officers elected for the season are as follows:

President—J. M. Henderson.
Vice-president—F. Hurd.
Secretary-treasurer—H. Shore.
Executive committee — H. Shore, J. M. Henderson, M. Chamberlin, W. Baird and P. Lesueur.

HOD STEWART MAY PLAY LACROSSE WITH MONTREAL.

It is stated on excellent authority that Hod Stuart may not go back to Pittsburg during the summer, but will in all probability play lacrosse, and that with the Montreal Lacrosse Club, if he proves sufficiently adept.

Nothing definite could be obtained from the Committee of the Montreal Lacrosse Club of Mr. Stuart in regard to the rumor, but it seems to be well founded.

LAST DAY AT THE AQUEDUCT TRACK

New York, April 26.—Jockey Jack Martin had his first mount since his reinstatement at Aqueduct yesterday. He was on Grapple, his employer, Frank Farrell's horse, in the Flushing Stakes, at a mile, and although Grapple was a prohibitive odds on favorite at 1 to 6, Martin failed to land him a winner. Campaigner won by a head from Grapple. Martin was given a rousing cheer as he passed the grand stand. Martin redeemed himself in the fifth race, however, when he landed Jacquin, at 6 to 1, an easy winner by two lengths.

To-day the racing shifts to the Jamaica track, with the Excelsior Handicap as the feature. Summary:

First race, selling, 4 1-2 furlongs—Paul Pry, won; Orena, second; Elvira M., third. Time, 57 2-5.

Second race, Glendale Steeplechase, about 2 1-2 miles—Hot Shot, won; Yama Christy, second; Pagan Bay, third. Time, 5.24.

Third race, Flushing Stakes, selling, mile—Campaigner, won; Grapple, second; Marster, third. Time, 1.40 2-5.

Fourth race, 6 furlongs — Heaslip, won; Workman, second; Hyperion, third. Time, 1.14 3-5.

Fifth race, selling, 6 1-2 furlongs—Jacquin, won; Battleaxe, second; Fustian, third. Time, 1.21.

Sixth race, 4 1-2 furlongs—Wave Crest, won; Fordello, second; James B. Brady, third. Time, 56.

Cricket League Decides Not to Play Any Pros.

A meeting of the Montreal and District Amateur Cricket League was held on Wednesday evening. One of the principal topics for discussion was the question of allowing each club to play one professional in the league matches, but as some of the clubs were opposed to it, it was decided to drop the matter.

Owing to inability to secure grounds the Osborne club has been obliged to drop out this year and the clubs in the league are therefore as follows: Montreal, McGill, Longueuil, Westmount and Point St. Charles (A division), and Dominion Cotton Mills, Westmount II, Lachine, Victoria Annex, Valleyfield and Cote St. Paul (B. division).

As the club's application for membership to the A. A. F. C. has been accepted, Mr. G. Ferrabee was unanimously elected delegate for the league.

Two test matches will be played during the season, first between A and B divisions, and the second towards the last of the season between the leading club and a picked team from the league.

The folowing were present:— J. Duthie, president (in the chair); G. Ferrabee, hon. vice-president; E. Mason, vice-president; W. H. Duthie, hon. treasurer; W. E. Hansford, secretary; F. J. Abney Bacon (Montreal); Frank E. Skinner (Longueuil); Seth E. Harris (Point St. Charles); E. K. Worall (Westmount); A. M. Lee (Lachine; Tom Whittles (Victoria Annex), and Arnold L. Taylor (Cote St. Paul).

HARRIERS' LEAGUE.

First Run Will Be Held To-morrow Afternoon.

The first union run of the season, of the Montreal and District Harriers' League, will be held on Saturday afternoon, the start being the M. A. A. grounds. A large number of the clubs will be represented, including the new ones, Carleton and St. Jacques, both of which are reported to have some good runners. The league appears vry strong this season. The start on Saturday will be made at 3.30 sharp.

LACROSSE NOTES.

Here is a warm one from the Brantford Expositor:

"Manager W. E. Martin, of the Royal Canadians of Brantford, was in Toronto on Saturday last, and said that he has the strongest bunch of Indians ever put together, and will win the intermediate championship as easy as Longboat won the Boston Marathon race. He also said that he hopes the clubs that are entered in the intermediate series will do their best, so that they won't have any excuse to make when the Indians bring back to Brantford the championship this fall."

Mr. Martin need lose no sleep fearing that the other intermediate teams will not do their best. They'll do that, all right, all right. It's good betting that none of them will be under double wraps

The Brantford Courier says that Jimmy Murphy has again been over in St. Catharines after players for the Torontos. It is but natural that James should go there again for material, considering the good results that he got from Lowe, Kalls, Barnett and Richardson last year. The Courier is informed that the Torontos will fall short of landing Lowe and Kalls, but that Barnett is likely to be signed. When the Torontos line up for the money, it will be seen that the Courier was entitled to another guess.

EX-PREST. TAYLOR GETS PASS NO. 1

Newark, N. J., April 26.— Manager Burnham has received from President Powers of the Eastern League a copy of a letter of congratulation to former President Harry L. Taylor, extending felicitations to him on being raised to the position of County Judge. The letter in full follows:

"Harry L. Taylor, Buffalo, N.Y.:

"Dear Sir,— At the adjourned annual meeting of professional baseball clubs held at Victoria Hotel on February 28, 1907, I was instructed by unanimous vote to convey to you the congratulations of all parties interested in the Eastern League on your appointment to the high and honorable position of County Judge of Buffalo.

"Believe me when I say that it affords the writer great pleasure to extend to you the greetings of good will in behalf of your former associates.

"The delay in sending this letter has been intentional on my part, because of the fact that I desired to offer with it Eastern League Pass No. 1, which you will please find herewith inclosed.

"I sincerely hope that you will find time to attend the games very often. With best wishes for your future health and success I am, sincerely yours,

(Signed) "P. T. POWERS."

WONDERFUL NUGGET

One of the most remarkable discoveries on record is being shown at the Groceries' Exhibition being held at the Arena.

The people wonder at seeing a shoe polished with the Nugget Polish, and immediately afterwards washed. The Water ran off the shoe "like the Water off a duck's back," and the shine was not destroyed, which proves that this paste is a water-proof polish. The demonstrator then wiped the shoe on a clean towel, but the polish did not rub off and soil it, which is conclusive that it will not come off on the clothes in wet weather.

The "Nugget" is on sale at the usual price, 10 cents per tin, and will, no doubt, be universally used in a short time, particularly as it keeps the leather soft and pliable, which prevents the shoes from cracking.

Shine with "Nugget," and you will have a lasting jet black water-proof shine. Get a shine and try it. "Nugget" costs the same as others not so good.

IS IT A CRIME TO POISON MONTREALERS?

It is difficult to understand why there is so much delay in finding out where that poisonous canned salmon came from, if the authorities are in earnest. The auctioneers—Suckling & Co., of Toronto,—know where they got it. Mr. W. J. Suckling told a Toronto paper that they got it from "a Montreal agent." That is bringing it pretty near home, we should imagine. Now Mr. Suckling should be compelled to give the name of that agent. This is not child's play. It is no time to stand on "professional honor." Fifty thousand cans of bad salmon might have been distributed throughout this city if it had not been for the accident that an Alderman heard of the danger in time. The police should therefore give the Sucklings the choice between telling all they know about it and taking the responsibility themselves. They were in possession of the poisonous goods when they were seized; and they should be regarded as the owners of the goods until they pass that heavy responsibility on.

When the name of the "Montreal agent" is discovered, then he should be put on the rack. Where did he get these cans of deadly salmon? In this way the history of that fish should be traced back until the man be found who is to blame—if there be such a man—and he should be punished as severely as his crime demands. It is puerile to talk about a part of his punishment being the payment of the cost of burning the tainted fish. That is a mere flea bite. There ought to be law enough to send such a scoundrel to penitentiary for a long enough term to deter any other man from ever attempting so despicable and dangerous a trick.

The people who might have been poisoned look to the Health Committee, the Food Inspector and the police to show results. They want to see someone put on trial for this apparent crime. They want to know exactly who is to blame. We have been blocked by the closed door of the offending auctioneers about long enough.

"ACTING MINISTERS."

If fourteen Ministers of the Crown working twelve months a year, and how many hours a day no one knows, can keep the affairs of the country in a muddle, what can nine Ministers accomplish with Parliament on their hands and the holiday season coming on? That is the problem suggested by the present state of affairs at Ottawa. Possibly the principle that applies to boys suits Cabinet Ministers as well, their power to perform work standing in an inverse ratio to their numbers, for it is said that if three boys be assigned to a task the result is mischief, two will spend their time in play while one may possibly perform the work.

The present state of affairs is an illustration of the latest possibilities of the Cabinet system under the interpretation of these latter day statemen. The Privy Council Chamber presents the melancholy spectacle of five empty chairs. So it comes that five departments of the Government are in the hands of Acting Ministers. That is the term used to indicate this state of affairs, although the word "acting" does not necessarily mean that anything is being done more than holding on to office.

But suppose there should be a few more empty chairs at the Privy Council table caused by absence or otherwise, what would happen? More Acting Ministers of course; then the next step in the process of evolution would be Ministers acting for Acting Ministers. And then the final stage—all absent but one, who, holding the portfolios of the others and acting for everybody else, would be the great Canadian Pooh-Bah, the concentration of the ability and dexterity of the whole Cabinet.

It is possible to imagine only one man capable of playing this role of fourteen parts without coming into conflict with himself, and he is Sir Richard Cartwright, now Minister of Trade and Commerce, Acting President of the Council, and Acting Prime Minister. By adding a few more "actings" to his numerous titles, the thing would be done, and the principles and practices of the present Government would be covered by one hat.

With this staunch democrat, this uncompromising reformer, this close fisted economist at the helm and in sole control of the ship of state, might not the people see carried out that system of political economy and of government which the doughty old knight in trumpet-like tones preached during his eighteen long years of wandering in the wilderness?

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

A Government Commission has been appointed to enquire into the civil service of Canada with a view to its betterment. Doubtless the Commission will find many suggestions to make, and will be able to support them with instances in point; but there is in reality one tap root for practically all the evils which hamper the civil service and that does not require a Commission to discover it.

It is the Patronage system. If a political "pull" never had the slightest effect in getting a civil servant a job or in bringing him promotion, there would be precious little for this new Commission to enquire into. But so long as a member of Parliament is able to "recommend" a man from his constituency for a place in the service with a good chance of getting him accepted because the Deputy Minister naturally does not think it prudent to make an enemy of the said member of Parliament, we shall have incompetents dumped upon the country and employed in capacities where their unfitness costs us more than their salaries.

The first recommendation of this Commission should be to entirely divorce the Civil Service from Parliament. It should be made absolutely impossible for a member of Parliament to influence the managers of the service in their selection of employes. Such a thing as pitchforking an outsider over the heads of men long in the service into a position of importance and emolument, should be forbidden altogether; and there should be no means whereby a member of Parliament or a political "worker" could speak an effective good word for any man or woman earning promotion in the regular way within the service.

It is all very well to mouth about "responsible government," and declare that if the people do not like the way their members fill the civil service, then they (the people) can punish the members at the polls. But, practically, this is impossible. With a busy people, responsible government cannot very well cover all the petty peccadilloes of the elected member. We do fairly well as a people if we hold our members strictly accountable for their conduct on large questions of policy, without attempting to follow them into every detail of their political activities at Ottawa. Moreover, they may foist an incapable partizan upon a Government department; and the people never hear of it. "Responsible Government" is a great thing; but there is no use to set it tasks which it cannot accomplish.

The control of the Civil Service is one of these. If we want a business like Civil Service—such a service as a private employer would demand in a similar situation—we must arrange for its appointment and management by a body akin to a private employer—say, an independent Commission—and then, in case the Commission does not give us a good service, we should reserve some means of removing it from office. But, above all, we should protect it from the politicians. They are the mischief makers to-day; and we will never get a satisfactory Civil Service until we divorce its control utterly from politics.

DR. GRENFELL'S GRAVE CHARGES

Dr. Grenfell of "the Labrador," is reported by a New York paper as saying that "unless Arctic expeditions cease, there will not be an Eskimo living in a few years." "The Eskimo as a race is doomed," he continued. "The white man is killing him with liquor and vices. The Eskimos who went to Buffalo and Chicago, to the fairs of the white man, returned to Hebron with disease. Look at the picture given in stereopticon views at explorers' lectures and you will recognize Eskimos, so called, that are almost white. That is one of the white man's sins."

This is a terrific charge brought against expeditions which are presumed to embody some of the highest and most worthy endeavor put forth by the human race. We have looked upon Arctic explorers and their companies as rating honor so high as to be Quixotic; and here is a charge that at least some of the men employed in this modern quest for the "white fleece" have rated honor so low as to be brutish.

Certainly Arctic exploration must clear its skirts of these charges—if it turns out that Dr. Grenfell has actually made them—before it can again appeal to the loftiest chivalry of our race as it has in the past. Canada has not equipped an expedition to seek for the pole; but we have sent exploring parties into the districts where the Eskimos live; and in face of Dr. Grenfell's startling words, we will not recall the evidence given recently before a Parliamentary committee as to the conduct of one of these parties with any great degree of comfort. Eskimos certainly did camp about their ship; and Eskimo women certainly did come on board for "dances." Consequently we had better be sure that there is no glass in our own house before we begin to throw stones.

It is an awful accusation which is brought against the superior white race that it cannot come in contact with an inferior race without dragging that lower race farther down in the scale of moral conduct. It is not only so with the Eskimo but wherever the lordly white man goes. To us has been given the light. We have been permitted to climb farther out of the mud than any other set of men in the world. With this gift has surely come a mighty responsibility to lift up our fellows and not drag them down. That they are absolutely the worse for contact with our representatives, is an arraignment of the so-called superior race which will not long leave our cheeks white.

An up-to-date method of committing suicide would be to inhale a small consignment of Toronto's canned salmon.

A TRIFLING ERROR.

(Washington Star.)

"THE MORE THE MERRIER"

Under this heading The Star will publish brief communications, if accompanied by the name of the writer, as a guarantee of good faith.

What a "Yankee" Is.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—In your issue of April 19th, under the heading "The More the Merrier," I notice an article signed "An Ohioan," who says "any one who knows anything about the United States should know that only New York State people are called 'Yankees'." Now, I would like to correct this. He certainly does not know much of the United States when he makes such an assertion as this. The term "Yankees" was originally applied to the inhabitants of the New England States, and is yet, and only to that section of the States, except by those living in foreign countries, and they, knowing no better, term all the people of the United States as "Yankees."

The Strathcona Memorial.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—I noticed in a recent issue of the Star a complaint from "South Africa" as regards the placing of the equestrian statue on a pedestal comprising the memorial to the memory of Canadians who fell in South Africa, with the head of the horse towards St. Catherine street, and that in order to get a proper view of the work one would have to go around by the blind alley at the end of the square. "South Africa" evidently did not take it into consideration that by placing the horse's head towards Dorchester street the principal side of the statute would be lost to the view of people passing by the most travelled thoroughfare of either of the four sides of the square.

OBSERVER.

To Honor the Dead.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—I see in Saturday's edition of the Star a letter dealing with the parade for the unveiling of the Strathcona statue on May 24th, in which a suggestion is made that everybody who served in the South African war, irrespective of the country they proceeded from, should parade with the South African Veterans' Association of Canada. I am sure that the Bow-Bells, Clyde, cum-Liffey boys would be only too willing to do honor to the fallen by a strong muster, but I move an amendment to the original suggestion re parading under the auspices of the Veterans' Association, viz., that the contingent be separate, thereby showing that, although a little prejudice has existed between our colonial cousins and ourselves, it is not sufficient to deter us from honoring the dead, many of whom we rode and fought and starved with. Perhaps some member of the military club can assist.

SOUTH AFRICAN LIGHT HORSE.

The Banana Skin Again.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—With the return of spring and comparatively clean sidewalks, an old enemy has reappeared in the shape of the dangerous banana skin. The other night, outside Windsor station, a woman with a child in her arms was seen to slide on something on the asphalt hill and fall heavily. She went to earth bravely, retaining her hold on "baby," and as she was being assisted to her feet, a gentleman kicked away the remains of some vegetarian's lunch—a harmless-looking rind of the fruit of the plantain tree. Our laws impose a penalty for expectorating in public, and if those who spit are punished, why not prosecute also those unthinking brutes who find pleasure in strewing our pavements with what is so manifestly a greater menace to limb (omitting the hackneyed "life")? Next time you catch any one in the act, fellows, put it up to him (or her).

LOAN BY-LAW HAD VOTE MAJORITY

The loan by-law, authorizing the council of the town of St. Louis to borrow $375,000 to pay off the floating debt of $266,000 and make permanent improvements, has received a majority of 49 votes of the proprietors; it will not be known whether or not the by-law will become effective until the standing with regard to the value of property has been ascertained, as it has to receive a majority of the real estate valuation as well as a majority of the votes of the proprietors before it becomes effective.

The voting on the first day resulted as follows: 112 for the by-law, and 177 against it, while the voting yesterday was, 234 in favor and 120 against, leaving a net majority of 49 voters in favor of the measure.

Councillor Turcot, chairman of the finance committee, who is the author of this loan by-law, and the majority of the council, namely, Messrs. Godon, Chalifoux, Grignon, Desjardins and Jubinville, who voted in favor of it, are feeling jubilant over the result of yesterday's voting, and feel confident the majority of the valuation will also be in favor of the by-law.

HOSPITAL POSITIONS FOR McGILL MEDICOS.

Canadians generally, and McGill men in particular will rejoice at the success attained by the McGill Fourth Year Medicos, who went down to New York to try the examinations for positions in the various hospitals of the city. A larger number than usual of the men who will graduate this year have taken part in these examinations, and their success in competition with the graduates of other institutions is all the more acceptable, in view of the trials to which the Medical faculty of McGill has been subjected of late, through the destruction of the Medical building.

The most striking achievement is undoubtedly that of Mr. James J. Healey, a native of Smith's Falls, whose father, a well known contractor, at present in Europe, has lately established his home in Toronto. In a class of fifty-eight candidates from all the leading medical colleges of the United States, some of the men who had already obtained positions in other hospitals after examinations, Mr. Healey, who will receive his M. D. in a few weeks, came out first. The Harlem Hospital, one of the leading institutions in New York, will inaugurate a new building on Monday next. As this new hospital has been fitted up with the very latest and most modern appliances, there was great emulation to obtain positions therein, and the success of a McGill man in obtaining one of the two positions to be given, as a result of this qualifying examination is all the more significant.

In the examinations for positions in the New York City Hospital, Mr. A. L. McLennan, of Lancaster, Ont., came first, and H. LeBaron Peters, of St. John, N.B. was third, in a large class of candidates. Both are fourth year McGill men, and their success is hailed with delight by their fellow students, and with satisfaction by the faculty.

In the lying-in hospital at Bellevue, one of the successful candidates was Mr. Farris, of New Brunswick, while Mr. Arthur, of Perth, Ont., was successful in obtaining a position in another of the hospitals of Gotham.

ANNUAL MEETING OF Y.W.C.A.

The thirty-third annual report of the Montreal Young Women's Christian Association was read by Miss Tenny, at the annual meeting of that institution, which took place in the Association Building yesterday, in the course of which Miss Tenny stated that their had been 1006 admissions to the building during the year. The receipts of the present year up to March 15th, 1907, together with last year's balance on hand had amounted in all to $20,098.87, an entire expenditure of $20,046.67, leaving a balance on hand of $52.20; but for the first time since entering the House, there was a shortage of $328.75 in the yearly interest required on the mortgage. The returns from the Annex, opened last June, had covered the running expenses of that institution, although a debt still remained of $50 on the furnishings. The aggregate attendance at the Monday evening and Sunday afternoon Bible classes had totalled 622.

Another McGill Man Honored.

Mr. James J. Healy is the latest of the final year McGill medical students to win honors in competitive examination against students of the great American universities. The examination was for the selection of two resident surgeons for Harlem Hospital, New York. Fifty-eight candidates presented themselves, including representatives from Harvard, Johns Hopkins, and the other large medical schools of the Eastern States. When the results were announced, Mr. Healy stood at the head of the list, thus qualifying for the senior appointment.

Mr. Healy, who is a Smith's Falls boy, has always taken a leading place in his class, having held several class offices.

The Donaldson Liner Marina is due to arrive in Quebec this afternoon.

IN LABOR CIRCLES.

Samuel Landers, of Hamilton, Joseph Ainey and J. E. C. Tardif, were the principal speakers Wednesday's meeting of the Clothing Cutters' Union. There was much enthusiasm, and several new members were enrolled.

At Wednesday's meeting of the District Council of the Carpenters and Joiners, the strike at Sorel was discussed. It was decided to assist the strikers in every way possible. A circular letter will be sent to all the labor unions in Canada, giving a history of the trouble.

In futnre the initiation fee of the local branch of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, and the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters will be the same. The headquarters of the Brotherhood is in the United States, and the headquarters of the Amalgamated is in England. The latter is more of a benefit organization than a trade union. It is, however, one of the most powerful of all the labor organizations.

The officials of the Laundry Workers' Union have called a special meeting of their organization for Sunday afternoon, at 137a Ste. Elizabeth street, for the purpose of taking action in connection with the subscription list which is being circulated to aid the family of the late W. Martineau, who was burned to death in the recent Canada Steam Laundry fire, on St. Justin street. The chairman of the Executive Board requests all the members to be present.

BRISK BUSINESS IN MONTREAL REALTY

Twenty-three Transactions Were Recorded Yesterday in the Local Offices.

Brisk business has marked the realty market so far this week. Yesterday saw twenty-three registrations in the local offices, while on the previous day there was a total of forty-one. There was nothing of extraordinary nature in any of these transactions, but they provided sufficient work for the registery clerks, and go to indicate the steady movement in Montreal real estate.

One of the features of the day's transactions was the transfer to the Canadian Pacific Railway of two small blocks of property in the district immediately east of the Place Viger Station. The Royal Trust was the vendor in each case. Lot No. 44, St. James ward, has been purchased for the sum of $4,250, and lot No. 44, adjoining, for the sum of $10,750. The total superficial area of the emplacement is about 8,000 square feet.

An emplacement on the west side of Victoria Square, between Craig street and Beaver Hall Hill, has changed hands, and it is understood that the present buildings, two stores and a dwelling, will make way this summer for an eight-storey warehouse. The emplacement has a 48-foot frontage and an 85-foot depth, running back to St. Sophie lane. The tenants now in the buildings erected on the site are No. 56, Phelps & Binns, wholesale and retail dealers in fish and game; No. 54, the Victoria Square Printing Company, and No. 52, A. W. Cuerrier, proprietor of the Printing Company. The sale has been made from Magloire C. Galarneau to Louis Edgar Gauthier for the sum of $8,712. The present tenants vacate in May.

The residence, No. 1073 Sherbrooke street, has been sold by the Royal Trust to Robert James Ironside, for the sum of $16,000. The emplacement, No. 742, in St. Antoine ward, measures 25 x 140.

Isaac Collins has sold to Mrs. Allan S. Bain the residence, No. 64 Windsor avenue, for the sum of $6,500. The emplacement, No. 208-11a, parish of Montreal, measures 25 x 100.

The adjoining residence on Windsor avenue, situated on the emplacement, No. 208-11b, has been sold by Isaac Collins to Albert Edward Paterson. The lot has the same area, 25 x 100, and was sold for the same price as the former, viz., $6,500.

The residence, No. 4015 Dorchester street, Westmount, has been sold by George Durnford et al. to Mrs. John A. Spicer, for the sum of $6,750. The emplacement known under the cadastral number 380-5 and 380-9-1, parish of Montreal, has a total superficies of 2698 square feet.

There was a drop in the total amount of last week's transactions, but the aggregate continued to maintain the usual weekly average, that of the preceding weeks being above the ordinary. The sales of the week totalled $488,534.14.

Striker Fined for Assault.

As a result of the trouble between the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company and its gas works employes, Simon Oranski was condemned by Police Magistrate Lafontaine yesterday in the amount of $1.00 and costs (in all $10.00) for assaulting John Boursloi, one of the workmen who refused to join in the strike, while the latter was on the way to his home. In addition to the fine, the Magistrate gave Oranski a severe lecture and told him that if he or others came up before him for a like offence they would not be shown so much consideration.

AMBASSADOR TAKES OPTIMISTIC VIEWS

Mr. Bryce Looks for Early Settlement of Canada's Difference With States.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Philadelphia, April 26.—Across a festive board, Canada and the United States joined hands at the Hotel Walton at the annual banquet of the Canadian Club of Philadelphia.

Prominence was given to the banquet by the presence of Ambassador James Bryce, who responded to the toast to the Mother Country.

A feature was the happy speech of the Ambassador, who sounded the keynote of the evening by saying that there was nothing so much worth having as a good feeling between the two countries.

There was much enthusiasm and much applause when President Higenbotham, in an eulogistic address introduced Mr. Bryce.

Responding to the toast, Mr. Bryce said, in part: "I thank you for the kindness you have shown me. Your President has not exaggerated the importance of my duties, and I do not stultify myself when I acknowledge that they are perhaps too big for one man to manage. I am glad that the relations between the United States and Canada are so friendly. The more each country knows of the other the better it will be. A small, weak country would try to keep business opportunities to itself. The United States and Canada are too big to pursue that policy, and I am glad that they do not do it. I hope there will always be great intermingling between these two countries just as exists now.

"I see no reason why all the questions discussed in the last twenty years between Canada and the United States should not be amicably settled. Fisheries and boundary questions can be solved if only each nation remembers that the spirit of give and take should prevail at all times."

Value of Raw Materials.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star.

Sir,—The Department of Agriculture of the United States issues through the Forestry Service Division, bulletins and circulars which are filled with interesting and extremely valuable information. It is unfortunate for the Province of Quebec that these publications are not available for general distribution.

In the Province of Ontario the wisdom of developing a large industrial population is well understood, and she is accomplishing this by preventing the free exportation of her valuable assets of raw materials. This policy has resulted in enormous investments of fixed capital with a corresponding growth of busy population.

The Forestry Division has gone exhaustively into the question of pulpwood consumption in the States, bordering on Quebec, and into which most of the pulpwood goes which comes from Quebec.

This has been accomplished through personal touch with the mills, for the reason that the Dominion Blue Book gives only values, leaving you to guess the quantities. The Department of Commerce at Washington is, however, now giving quantities as well as values. These four states, namely, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and New York, produce over two-thirds of all the pulp produced in the United States, and to do this required, in 1905, nearly thirteen hundred million feet of timber, and of this enormous quantity the Province of Quebec contributed nearly thirty per cent. They tell us that in the six years, including 1905, the increase in the shipment of spruce pulpwood from Canada has been eighty-three per cent. They estimate that the quantity of pulpwood produced in these four states was less in 1906 than in 1905, and that each year will show a diminution over the preceding year. Couple this, if you please, with the increased annual demand and the quantity they expect to get from Canada assumes startling proportions.

For example—when they get the figures for 1906, they expect they will show one million cords from Canada, and that 1907 will show one and one-half million, and that 1910 it will be nearer three millions of cords than two million cords.

In 1905 the State of New Hampshire used seventy per cent. of Quebec wood in the manufacture of its pulp—last year still more, and each succeeding year will show a greater ratio, provided we continue to encourage our capitalists and our laboring people to go to the States, that we may furnish them with free raw material where they can build mills cheaper than they can in Canada, and get to market without paying any duty and less freight.

Stop one moment and consider that the entire cut of spruce into lumber in 1905, in the four states named, converted into cords, was less than a million and a quarter cords. In other words, without the aid of Canada the entire cut of spruce for all purposes in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and New York for 1907 would not suffice to provide the necessary raw materials for its pulp mills.

If we were to begin now to build mills to convert the raw material we send out of the country into the manufactured article, it would be about 1910 when we would be running, and it would mean an investment of fifty to seventy-five million dollars and an increase in our population of one hundred and seventy five to two hundred thousand. In fact, we would have immigration from the States into Quebec as well as to Manitoba.

You may well express doubt as to the correctness of these statements, but you have only to study the statistics issued from the Department of Forestry at Washington to verify them.

Only a few days ago a new ocean-going tug was launched at Portland, Maine, and the fleet of barges are to follow and for what? To bring Canadian pulpwood to a Maine mill, which has just exhausted its home supply. Nor is this all, a few days ago another concern leased for a term of years a wharf which is to have a rail connected and to engage solely in handling Canadian pulpwood.

A few weeks ago the writer talked with the representative of a large pulp company located in the State of New York. He was in Canada looking at a large tract of spruce. He said they needed it in their business, but they had no idea of doing any building in Canada.

Then again, an extremely significant transaction of recent date in which a large mill in the State of Wisconsin has found it to their advantage to come to the Province of Quebec for pulpwood, and have already contracted for a large quantity to be received during the ensuing season.

MR. BORDEN MOVED MOTION OF CENSURE

Government Condemned for Excessive Expenditure and Corruption

MOTION WAS VOTED DOWN

Hon. Mr. Lemieux Announces That Western Miners Will Return to Work Pending Settlement.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, April 26.—At the opening of the House this morning, the Minister of Labor announced that the conference between the miners and operators at Fernie had failed to procure an agreement, but that the miners had decided to return to work pending an investigation. The announcement that the conference had failed to secure a settlement was given in a telegram from Deputy Minister King, dated Thursday. The decision of the men was communicated in a telegram dated to-day from F. H. Sherman, chief miners official, who stated that the men had been advised to return to work, that they had accepted the advice at Fernie, and that he hoped they would do so shortly at other points.

Mr. Lemieux added that Sir William Mulock, the third member of the board, had informed him that he would leave for the West to-night.

The bill to authorize the courts to declare invalid marriages between minors under 18 without the consent of parents, which met with objection from Quebec members yesterday, was killed this morning.

A MOTION OF CENSURE.

The balance of the sitting was devoted to a resolution moved by Mr. R. L. Borden, condemning the Government for excessive expenditure, maladministration and corruption. The resolution declared that "the enormous and rapidly increasing expenditure is a matter of grave concern to Parliament and to the people." The Government is charged with "lending itself to the aggrandizement of designing partizans who are enabled to enrich themselves at the expense of the people. That recent disclosures have exposed frauds in elections, which frauds could not have been successfully carried out without the expenditure of large sums of money and the aid of such middlemen."

Mr. R. L. Borden cited a statement of "the expenditure and liabilities incurred at the present session," totalling in all $136,186,429, and including regular estimates, bounties, railway subsidies, Quebec Bridge and Montreal harbor loans. He instanced also the Arctic and Merwin disclosures and the land deals disclosed in the debates of this session. All these were examples of the "maladministration" of the Government and its favoritism to its friends.

The reply of Hon. W. S. Fielding was chiefly that Canada was prosperous and that the maladministration charged was petty and trivial. "The general charges of corruption," he declared in passing, "would not have weight with the people."

He pointed out the increase of $65,500,000 in trade during the last nine months, as compared with a total increase of $66,500,000 during eighteen years of Conservative rule. The expenditure had increased, but only because the need had also increased.

Hon. G. E. Foster claimed that Mr. Fielding had missed the kernel of the question. What the Opposition objected to were the illegal expenditures, the frittering away of the public funds and the public domain on political friends, and the constancy with which the Government had blocked inquiry. On a straight party division Mr. Borden's resolution was then voted down by 91 to 43.

PROCEEDINGS IN SENATE.

In the Senate, Senator Powers asked if it was the intention of the Government to increase the interest on savings bank deposits. He said there was a feeling among some people that the Government should increase the rates. All other banks took their cue from the Government.

Sir Richard Cartwright replied that the Government did not propose to raise the rate. It was not a good thing for the country to change the rate on deposits frequently, or to make them liable to change. The whole business basis of the country would have to be renewed every time such a change was made. He thought that the 3 per cent. rate allowed on the savings deposits, which were called loans, was fair.

Senator Landry called the Government's attention to the fact that court-martials in Canada are constituted under the King's regulations, and that they have never been published in Canada as the constitution required. He called attention to the fact that no attention had been paid to the demand that Canadian Militia regulations should be printed in French.

Hon. Mr. Scott said he thought the militia authorities had shown a great lack of courtesy in connection with this matter. Senator Young and Senator Gibson said that there was no reason for refusing to print the regulations in French.

FIRST OCEAN LINER REPORTED IN RIVER.

The first of the ocean liners to be reported on the St. Lawrence this season is the Marina, of the Retord Line. She is on her way direct from Glasgow to Montreal, with a heavy cargo of freight and a few passengers, and was reported this morning as passing Father Point at 9.15. Her passage, however, will likely be a slow one, on account of the ice drifting down the river, she will not get into Quebec until late to-morrow, and providing the ice bridge at Cap Rouge gives way she should arrive in Montreal early Sunday. Should the ice not break up at that point until the high tide takes place on the 28th instant, the vessel will not get to this port before Monday night, or some time Tuesday.

The Marina had the distinction of being the first vessel into this port last season, arriving here at 3 p.m., April 28th.

In addition to the Marina there are a number of vessels bound for Montreal from Continental ports, which should now be in the vicinity of the Gulf, and well up the river. These vessels should form a regular procession into port once the way is opened, and the ice starts down the river from Cap Rouge.

MUST STAND TRIAL FOR MANSLAUGHTER

George Sheard to Answer for Having Caused Death of Joseph Garlepy In Bar-Room Fight.

"There is a very poor case against this man, but as there is a man's death, I think it would be better for the accused to stand his trial on a charge of manslaughter."

This was the decision of Judge Choquet, after hearing the different witnesses in the case of George Sheard, who is charged with having caused the death of Joseph Garlepy, by striking him over the head with a section of nickelled rod. Sheard was remanded until next Tuesday when he will be again arraigned for voluntary statement.

The first witness heard to-day was Dr. McTaggart, who stated that he made an autopsy on Garlepy's body, and found that death was due to a fracture of the skull. He could not say what caused the injury, as when the body was brought to the morgue the wound had been dressed.

Dr. Demers, medical superintendent of the Notre Dame Hospital, was called in the box, and stated that Garlepy had gone to the hospital on the 18th. At the time of his arrival his head was all bandaged up. Garlepy could walk but was not able to speak.

William T. Leblanc, bar tender at Martin's restaurant on Windsor street, where the affair occurred, was the next witness. As he was present in the bar at the time of the affray, he gave a graphic description of the whole affair. On the 16th at about 6.45, Garlepy, the deceased, two of his friends and a cabman entered the restaurant and asked for a drink. A few minutes afterwards Sheard entered the establishment and went to the other end of the counter, greeting the bartender as he walked down. The deceased then turned around and addressed the accused asking him to have a drink with them, and using very improper language at the same time. The bartender told the deceased that it would be better for him to stop his language. Then Sheard walked over to Garlepy and told him that he did not deserve the epithets used. After a little discussion the accused decided to have a drink with Garlepy and his friends. While they were together Dumontais, one of Garlepy's friends, took off his coat and wanted to fight Sheard. The accused started to walk backwards towards the end of the counter, followed by Dumontais and his partner. Leblanc tried to prevent the fighting, but did not succeed. Then Sheard got near the end of the counter, still followed by the others. When the bartender saw that they would not stop he caught hold of one of Garlepy's friends. At that moment he heard the noise of something falling and turning around he saw Garlepy on the floor and the accused near him with his right arm lifted, holding a piece of the nickel bar fixtures.

Leblanc then went over to the wounded man, helped him to get up and bathed his wound. Leblanc then advised Sheard to leave the bar so as to prevent any more trouble. Garlepy and his friends stayed in the place for about an hour and had a few more drinks. They then left and at about 12 o'clock the deceased and his two friends again came back to the restaurant. Garlepy then had a cap on his head and did not suffer at all from his wound.

Cross-questioned by Mr. St. Julien representing the accused, the witness said that Sheard entered the saloon about fifteen minutes after Garlepy. The first that spoke was the diseased who used very bad language to the accused. He stated that in the middle of the scuffle he saw Dumontais with a pitcher in his hands, but managed to take it away from him before any harm could be done.

John Fotest, a porter, was called as a witness and corroborated Leblanc's evidence.

Dr. Fournier was also called and said that he attended Garlepy. The wound received was a very bad one as it had caused the fracture of the skull and the bone was pressing on the brain. The doctor told the deceased of the danger of the wound, adding that it would be better for him to go to the hospital and get attended there. According to the doctor the wound was severe enough to cause the man's death.

Hervey Dumontais, one of the men who was with Garlepy, gave evidence similar to that of the bar tender, adding that he saw the accused strike Garlepy on the head. He concluded by saying that the accused did not bleed very much and that the wound did not seem to bother Garlepy very much as he did not complain about it.

Arthur Choquet, 209 Drolet street, said that he did not remember anything as they were all rather intoxicated, he the worst of the three. Cross-questioned, he said that they had been out all night having drinks at different places.

PERSONALS.

Mrs George Nelson Brooks, (formerly Miss Irene Von Rappard) received yesterday afternoon for the first time since her marriage, at 24 Shuter street. Mrs. Brooks, who wore her wedding gown of white satin, was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Von Rappard, wearing a gown of grey silk. The tea table, prettily arranged with pink tulips and ferns, was in charge of Mrs. Gordon and Miss Roach, assisted by Miss Montgomerie, Miss Adams, Miss Gillean, and Miss Parkins. Mrs. Brooks will receive on each 1st and 3rd Wednesday till the summer.

A number of entertainments are being given for Miss Beatrice May, whose marriage to Mr. Allan Griggs, takes place on Tuesday, April 30. Temple Building Comes Down Now.

On May 3 the work of tearing down the Temple building will be commenced. The contractor must have the structure completely demolished in one month's time. The Building Inspector stated to-day that the brick, stone and fixtures of the building had been purchased by a Mr. Major in St. Henri for $3,000. When the structure was originally put up twenty years ago it cost upwards of $200,000.

COTTON WORKERS ASK FOR INCREASE

Five Thousand Employes of Dominion Textile Seek Increase in Wages.

The Montreal cotton workers have made a request for a five per cent. increase in their wages. If the same is granted, about 5,000 persons will be benefited, including the employes in the St. Henri, Ste. Ann's, Hochelaga and the Magog cotton factories, which are all owned and operated by the Dominion Textile Company.

The officials of the Canadian Federation of Textile Workers state that they did not anticipate any trouble as their request was reasonable. A conference between the representatives of the workers and the officials of the Dominion Textile Company will be held early next week, and there is, they state, every reason for believing that the matter would be amicably settled. It is stated that there would be no trouble in the Montmorency Falls mills. A few days ago seven men were discharged and they claimed that they had been unfairly treated, but their claims have not been sustained by the Executive Council of the Federation.

It is understood that the officials of the Montreal Cotton Company will attend the conference next week, when the wage question for the Montreal district will be considered. The Valleyfield cotton operatives are asking for a fifteen per cent. increase, effective on May 1, and trouble is not expected by the officials of the union.

There will be a big meeting of the woollen workers of the St. Hyacinthe Woollen Mills, at St. Hyacinthe to-morrow evening for the purpose of enrolling the workers under the banner of the Canadian Federation. There are some 900 persons engaged in the industry and the meeting will be held in the St. Hyacinthe Public Hall. Messrs. Wilfrid Paquette, L. A. Girard and Z. Isabel, of the Executive Council of the Canadian Federation, will address the gathering.

New Postal Regulations between Canada and the United States.

Increase in Subscription Price of The Star to Readers in the States.

At a conference recently held at Washington between Postal representatives of the United States and Canada, the postage on newspapers passing from Canada to the States was not only increased to sixteen times the former rate, but it was decided to make Canadian publishers affix stamps to the papers instead of paying on bulk weight as formerly. This necessitates an increase in the subscription price of the Daily Star to readers in the United States, and in addition to the subscription price of three dollars per annum, an additional charge of thirteen cents per week or $6.76 per year will have to be included, making the total cost for a year $9.75.

ICE CREAM MAN MUST LEAVE STREET.

The Hygiene Committee decided at its meeting yesterday afternoon to take steps to get rid of the street ice-cream vendors. It appears that these merchants have been informed that they must not ply their trade after May 1; at the same time it appears that a regular by-law has not been passed in regard to the prohibition.

Mr. A. Bienvenue, superintendent of licenses, claims that he cannot refuse to give street vendors permits for another year unless an amendment is passed through in the regular manner, which should be done before May 1st, to be in time to prevent issuing licenses for another year.

The chairman said he would see the city attorneys and find out what were the best steps to take in the matter.

Dr. J. A. Laberge complained that many physicians did not notify the health department of contagious diseases. This was proved by the fact that death certificates were continually arriving stating that patients had died from contagious diseases, while the original notifications of sickness which should correspond had never been received. Dr. Laberge stated that there were physicians who did not even ask for houses to be disinfected, while many others were in the habit of covering up their negligence by reporting deaths to be due from ordinary causes, when in reality, patients had been suffering from contagious diseases.

The chairman instructed the health officials to enforce the laws in this connection; this means that physicians who do not in the future promptly report cases of infectious diseases will be prosecuted.

The committee also decided to adopt measures which would result in cream being sold with a guarantee that it was pure and had not been adulterated or thickened.

VERDICT OF ACCIDENTAL DEATH IN PARR CASE.

Coroner McMahon held an inquest to-day into the death of Russell Parr, who was killed in the G. T. R. Point St. Charles yard, on Wednesday. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict to the effect that Parr was killed by being crushed between an engine tender, on which he was working, and a car on the next siding as a result of the tracks being too close together. The jury, under the circumstances, said that there was no criminal responsibility.

Edward Parr, brother of the deceased, yard master at the G. T. R. station, explained to the jury the position of the tracks, which, he said, were close together at that particular point. He was not responsible for the placing of the tracks. The yard was improved three or four years ago, and the plans were made by Mr. F. H. McGuigan, ex-fourth vice-president of the G.T.R.

After hearing the evidence of Geo. A. Darrah, engineer, of Belleville; Jos. Hempey, yard foreman; Samuel Upton, 358 Bourgeois st., and others, it only took the jury a few minutes to decide that the man was killed by being crushed between the tender and a box car as stated above.

PUTRID SALMON SENT TO MONTREAL DIRECT

Health Office Have Bill of Lading Showing Fish Was Shipped to Sucklings From Toronto.

From an opinion given by the civic Law Department to-day the statement is made that, under the Federal law, the city may, if it desires, enter action in the courts against Suckling and Company, auctioneers, to compel them to say who were the shippers of the unwholesome salmon that was auctioned off in this city on Friday last.

The chairman of the Health Committee, Dr. Dagenais, will act on the opinion given by the Law Department.

In an interview with Mr. Suckling, which was printed in the Star last night, Mr. Suckling was reported as saying that it was an agent in Montreal that had arranged for the sale of the fish.

Dr. McCarrey, chief food inspector of the city, stated to-day that he had the most absolute proof that the salmon was shipped from Toronto. This proof was in the shape of a bill of lading, which he received to-day from the freight agent in Toronto. The bill showed that the salmon was shipped to Suckling & Co. in Montreal, on April 5th. It was received in Montreal on April 10th, and auctioned off on April 12th. The bill of lading, however, did not state who the Toronto shipper was. In a letter which the freight agent sent to Dr. McCarrey he was instructed to see the chief freight agent of the C. P. R. in Montreal, in order to ascertain who the shipper was. Acting on this advice Dr. McCarrey has sent one of his inspectors to see if the long-desired information can now be procured.

When the Hygiene Committee meets to-day it will take up the question as to just what steps should be taken to punish the parties who sent the fish to Montreal. The committee is firmly resolved to probe the matter to the bottom.

MULCAHY WAS GENIAL— GOT THREE MONTHS.

Under the circumstances a fight was practically inevitable. James Mulcahy is a man with a treating disposition—a fellow of infinite good nature. He really couldn't have a man go away without drinking with him, even if he had to carry hospitality so far as to beat his friend into partaking of his good cheer. On the other hand Hercules Legault is a strong-willed young fellow. Any man eighteen years old with a name like that is apt to be. He is the sort of man that "knows when he has enough"—especially if as in this case he has already had too much. The natural consequence was, as stated above, a fight. They fought, they were arrested, they appeared before Recorder Dupuis, they told their little tales, one got a lecture and the other three months. Legault, for his virtuous resistance, was sent off with the lecture. Mulcahy, for his determined good-fellowship was let into jail for three months, but was let out of the sermon.

It all took place on St. James street at about one o'clock in the morning. Legault had been out on a round with Mr. Mulcahy, who is old enough to be his father, and to know better. They had a whale of a time. Legault bought. A man of Mr. Mulcahy's generous disposition could not stand much of that. He positively had to hold up his end. He purchased a bottle of gin, and with real old southern hospitality proffered its inviting aperture to Mr. Legault.

"Oh, no, thank you, really—you know—really—" stammered Mr. Legault.

"What a' yez givin' uz?" said Mr. Mulcahy genially.

But just the same Mr. Legault really wouldn't. So Mr. Mulcahy as a gentle reminder of his friend's extremely bad form of refusing such an offer, when he found that the other would not have a gin gave him a punch. Then constable Markey butted in, and, well—it isn't stated what happened to the gin after that.

MONTREAL WILL HAVE ICE COLD WATER.

So soon as the new covered lateral conduit is built, to convey water from Lachine to Montreal, there will be no more luke warm water for citizens of Montreal to drink in summer time; in fact the water, in addition to being much purer, will be quite cold.

Explaining this great improvement an official of the Water Department said: "In the first place the present "intake" part will be put away out into the centre of the river. This will provide for a much purer water supply. The water when it is drawn in the houses will almost be ice cold, from the fact that the big conduit which brings the water to the city will be away in the earth. In some sections it will be over 25 feet. The conduit will be some seven miles in length. This means that by the time the water reaches the houses of citizens it will be well cooled. The water will also be much purer from the fact that from the moment it enters the conduit it will not be exposed to the air.

"By the system now in vogue all the water brought to the city has to run through an open aqueduct. Long before it reaches the wheel house it is badly contaminated with dust and drainage, and from surface water.

"The conduit will be largely constructed of cement. It will be an imposing affair, as it will be almost nine feet high. I hope that arrangements can be made to start work on the conduit in May. Probably two hundred men will be employed on the undertaking.

"When the conduit is completed it will furnish to the city seventy millions a day. The aqueduct now only allows the city to pump thirty-four million gallons. The water in the aqueduct will only be used to drive the wheels after the conduit is finished. This means that citizens will no longer drink water from the aqueduct.

Action Over Cobalt Stock.

An action for $4,495 was instituted in the Superior Court yesterday by Sol. A. Jacobs, merchant, of this city, against Alexander M. Bilsky, also of this city. The suit is the outcome of a Cobalt mining transaction. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant, who was the secretary of the Beaver Cobalt Company, instructed him to dispose of a block of the company's shares at seventeen cents per share, and that having secured a purchaser at this price, he endeavored to have the stock allotted to his customer, but the stock having advanced in price, Bilsky was unable to effect delivery. Messrs. Jacobs and Garneau are acting for the plaintiff.

Entertained by Choir.

The patients and employes of the Verdun Hospital, Lower Lachine Road, were entertained Wednesday evening by the choir of St. Paul's Church, sixty strong, who, under the direction of Mr. F. H. Blair, and with their pastor, the Rev. Dr. Barclay, came out by special car to the hospital.

A QUARANTINE WHICH BADLY HURTS JAPAN

Empress of Japan Detained Outside Victoria by Smallpox With Big Tea Buyers on Board.

The steamship Empress of Japan, of the Canadian Pacific Atlantic line of steamers, is quarantined one mile and a half outside the harbor of Victoria, B. C., as a result of finding seven cases of small-pox on board. The Empress left Victoria on April 18th, having on board twenty-seven prominent tea men, en route for Japan, to purchase teas. These gentlemen comprised the heads of large tea firms, and their buyers, among whom are Messrs. Bagley, of Kobe, Japan, and Morrison, of Foo Chow, both representatives of the firm of Jardine, Matheson & Company, of New York, the largest tea and silk dealers in the world. A partner in this firm is also on board the boat. She has now been in quarantine for about eight days.

A communication received in Montreal, to-day, from one of the passengers on the boat is to the effect that the vessel will be detained about ten days longer, which will throw the steamer practically four weeks behind. The tea men on board this vessel have been travelling in Europe and the United States and Canada during the past three months, and were on their way to buy the spring crop of teas, which in Japan are considered the best grown in that country, the later crops not being so good. This first crop has to be sold, and since the prominent buyers of the big houses will not be on hand to purchase, the crop will no doubt be sold at a sacrifice, which will have a serious effect on the market, and will put down the prices considerably.

Reports are to the effect that everything possible is being done for the patients and no new cases have been reported for the past four or five days. When the news first spread about the vessel there was well nigh a panic which it took considerable time to cool down. However, matters are now going on easily and the passengers are counting on geting away in about ten days time.

J. N. GREENSHIELD'S HOUSE BURNING

At 2.55 this afternoon the fire alarm rang calling the reels to the residence of Mr. J. N. Greenshields, K.C., 334 Peel street. At 3 o'clock it is said that the entire handsome residence, which was built about two years ago, was virtually a ruin.

It would appear that the fire had made great headway and had probably been burning some twenty minutes before the alarm was turned in, and had therefore a great start before the reels of the fire department reached the scene. The house stands upon very high ground and the nearest engine house to the scene is No. 10, on St. Catherine street, just west of Guy.

NEIL BRODIE, ONCE A "REVEREND," WAS DEPOSED.

A Presbyterian Minister of this city, holding a high official position in that body, confirms the statement made in the Star a couple of days ago to the effect that the late Neil Brodie was once a minister of the Church of Scotland, but states that he has official knowledge from the Church of Scotland that Brodie was deposed from the Ministry of that church many years ago on the grounds of misconduct.

He regretted having to raise the point, but was absent from the city at the time of Brodie's death, and in justice to the ministry, he thinks the fact ought to be known. He did not think it was fair to the ministry to have a man like Brodie classed as "Reverend."

After coming to Canada, Brodie, it seems, returned to Scotland for a time and preached in a Highland parish, where he was laboring at the time the action was taken by the Church of Scotland to depose him.

McGILL ALUMNAE AS HISTRIONIC ARTISTS.

An extremely enjoyable little play was presented last night by the alumnae of McGill University to the graduating class. The piece was the dramatization of "Cranford," and the peaceful scenes depicted on the stage must have been very soothing to those of the class who have no immediate matrimonial prospects.

The audience was largely composed of friends of the university, not even those who had the misfortune of being "under thirty-five and unmarried" being excluded. The dear old ladies were all charmingly natural, and their gowns, although rather out of date, were much admired, the "mushroom" effect being entirely absent, while a considerable portion of the audience felt strongly that the poke bonnet should again come into favor.

The audience was first introduced to the characters, and when the curtain rose, or rather side-stepped, the audience found itself immediately in the midst of the quiet village where tea was the most exciting topic of discussion. Where all did so well it would be invidious to make any distinction. One might mention, however, that the dog was extremely natural and played his part with an abandon which elicited much praise. When the long-lost brother was finally restored to the village, the graduates and friends were invited to take a little tea a la Cranford, an invitation which they all accepted with alacrity.

SENATORS DISCUSS MONTREAL HARBOR

Bill to Loan $3,000,000 to Harbor Commissioners Given Second Reading.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, April 26.—A bill to create a department of mines was taken up in the Senate yesterday afternoon. The bill was put through committee and given a third reading without change of title, Hon. Mr. Scott having offered to change the title to "Mines and Geology."

A resolution of the printing committee of the two Houses was taken up. This is in regard to printing the evidence taken before the insurance commission in French. Senator Landry said he had found little demand for the evidence in French. The expense of printing would not be justified.

The amendment offered by Senator Ellis calling for this was defeated, and the report was adopted.

In the evening, on a bill to loan the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal $3,000,000, Senator Lougheed said the Government proposed to loan the commissioners at 3 per cent. and would have to borrow at 4 per cent. Senator Belque said the money was needed for improvements which would benefit the west. Part was for sheds and part for railroad facilities.

Senator Lougheed said the matter should be discussed as a business proposition. The amount was not so small. One per cent. compounded on $3,000,000 for 25 years amounted to $750,000, a free gift to the Montreal Harbor Commissioners. He did not object to spending the money, but wanted it discussed in a business way.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell agreed that Montreal harbor would be the gainer by this bill.

Senator Kerr (Toronto) said this was no gift or bonus to Montreal. It was a gift for the benefit of Canada's trade. The whole of Canada was proud of Montreal and was willing to aid in the development of the national harbor there. It was of no more benefit to Montreal than to the remainder of Canada.

Senator Power said the proposal to spend an unlimited amount of money on Montreal harbor was a debatable question. Providence had made Quebec the St. Lawrence port, and enterprise had moved it to Montreal. However, Quebec was still there to be considered.

Senator Owens favored the improvement of Montreal.

The bill was given a second reading.

COAL STRIKE SETTLED.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Fernie, B. C., April 25.—The Fernie coal strike was settled this morning. The miners agree to return to work on Monday morning, pending the result of the investigation commission.

THE TRAINING OF MONTREAL YOUTH

As a result of last night's meeting at the Commercial and Technical High School it is practically assured that Montreal will shortly have some means of training her young men and women in the different branches of technical education. Acting in conjunction with the Protestant Board of School Commissioners the Montreal Technical Institute will start a night school course early next September, and a guarantee fund of $10,000 for carring on the work has already been promised.

Mr. Alex. McFee, who occupied the chair last night, explained how it was now possible to obtain technical education, since the Commercial and Technical High School has been built, saying that it was only necessary now to procure the co-operation and support of the manufacturers to make a start in this most important work.

Dr. Shaw, speaking for the Protestant School Board, explained their position. He said that they were unable to take up technical education of those employed during the day, by themselves. They already had more work than their funds could stand for, but if they supplied the building, there should be no trouble in getting night classes started if the manufacturers of the city would take enough interest.

Dr. Barclay and the Hon. W. A. Weir also spoke on the subject of technical education, and the advantages which might be derived from it both by employer and employes. Almost all the technical and skilled labor now done in this country had to be done by artisans imported from the United States or Europe. These proposed night classes would tend to educate the youth of the Province, and enable them to compete with the skilled labor from other countries.

Mr. Charles Stevens then made the pleasing announcement that the Mechanics' Institute had decided to vote the sum of $500 in furtherance of the project of night classes in technical subjects, and although nothing definite was heard from the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Mr. C. C. Ballantyne assured the gathering that some such similar support might be expected from that organization.

The honorary secretary of the Mechanics' Institute then presented a rough budget of the sums of money which would be required to start the work. In all $10,000 would be needed, and several suggestions were made as to the best means of raising this amount.

Major G. W. Stephens thought that twenty of the leading manufacturing firms in the city ought to contribute $500 each. He was authorized to subscribe that amount from the company with which he was connected, and he was sure there were others who would be willing to do the same. He also suggested that the Mechanics' Institute should sell its property at the corner of St. James and St. Peter streets, which would bring about $125,000. If two hundred thousand could be gotten together, he himself would be pleased to subscribe $5,000.

Mr. Ballantyne stated that he was much interested with the former speaker's proposition, and hastened to add the name of his firm as a voluntary contributor of $500. Several other gentlemen spoke along similar lines, the result being that the meeting finally passed a resolution accepting the several offers and approving and recommending that that a guarantee fund of $10,000 be collected to secure the Institute against any deficit that might be incurred.

Trouble With Lumber President.

Mr. Joseph Mercure, managing director of the Federal Lumber Company, is applying for a mandamus to force the president of the company, Mr. J. Avila Ranger, to give up the stock book of the concern. In the petition presented to Mr. Justice Robidoux, Mr. J. V. Payette, who is acting for Mr. Mercure, alleges that the president has removed the stock book to his private house and refuses to bring it back to the office.

Mrs. Victor Gerrish Gray, Stanley street, returns from Ottawa to-morrow.

BILL ESTABLISHES AN IRISH COUNCIL

London, April 26.—Discussions are still going on between the Government and John Redmond, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party, in the House of Commons, respecting the Irish bill, which will be introduced in the House on May 7.

There have been many conferences on the subject, some of which were stormy, and for a time it was feared that the introduction of the bill would have to be postponed, but the negotiations have now reached a stage at which it is possible to present the measure to the House, it can be stated broadly that it establishes an Irish Council, partly elective and partly nominative, which shall administer the domestic affairs of Ireland, exclusive of the army and navy, but it will have little or no legislative powers. Mr. Redmond strove for a greater measure of Home Rule, and will carry the fight into the House of Commons, without, however, declining to accept what is offered as a sop to the Nationalists, who have abstained from participation in all the entertainments to the Colonial Premiers, even that given by the members of the House of Commons, and are arranging a dinner for the Premiers on May 6, the eve of the introduction of the Irish bill. This will be made the occasion for a great Home Rule demonstration, all the Premiers being pronounced advocates of the self government of Ireland.

STOCKS WEAKEN AS WHEAT GOES UP THE LADDER

Highest Prices Seen for Some Time Reached in Chicago Pit.

DETROIT WAS THE MONTREAL FEATURE.

A Sensational Rise in Copper, the Metal, in the London Market To-day.

A sensation was caused in Wall Street to-day when it became known that advance copies of President Roosevelt's speech, to be delivered at Jamestown to-day, have been in the hands of some Wall Street people for the past four days.

This speech was expected to have a bearing upon the market as it was expected that the President would refer to the railroad situation.

It is said that the matter will be investigated and there is a possibility of some sensational disclosures.

A feature of the day having an important bearing upon stocks was the strength on the Chicago wheat market, and the highest prices seen for some time were reached. July sold at 83 1 8 and May at 80 1-4.

Stocks opened strong but began to ease off when wheat began to show strength.

There were many damage reports, but whether these were manufactured in Chicago or not remains to be seen.

WHY COAL IS STRONG.

Dominion Coal was higher to-day at 61 1-8. It has been known for some days past that new plans are on foot for a settlement and some express the belief that Mr. Angus will submit these plans to Mr. Ross before the latter leaves for home.

Mr. Ross intended sailing on April 26th, but delayed his departure in order to meet Mr. Angus. Mr. Ross will now sail early in May.

THE WALL STREET LIST.

There was excellent buying of Union Pacific in Wall Street, and it was not until the strong advance in wheat set in that the market started to go off. Early gains in other stocks were partly lost in the reaction.

President Roosevelt, as anticipated, made no disturbing remarks in his speech.

MONTREAL STREET RY.

Owing to the larger amount of expenses the operating ratio for the six months shows an increase of 1.12 per cent. Below is shown the percentage to gross earnings of expenses, net earnings, charges and surplus for the period for both 1907 and 1906:

Bar silver in London was unchanged at 30 5-16 pence.

Call money in Wall Street opened at 2 and was later quoted at 2 1-2 per cent.

A VICTORY FOR TORONTO RY.

Mr. Rodolphe Forget, M.P., received a telegram from Sir Henry M. Pellatt today stating that the Privy Council had just rendered a sweeping decision against the city of Toronto and in favor of the Toronto Street Ry. in the long-standing lawsuit.

This is considered to be a big victory for the company.

DIDN'T MENTION RAILROADS.

President Roosevelt, in his speech at the opening of the Jamestown Exposition, made no reference whatever to the railroad problem.

EXCHANGE SEAT AT $79,000.

Another seat has sold on the New York Stock Exchange at $79,000. This price is an advance of $9,000 over the reported low sale of the year, which was at $70,000 a month ago. A year ago the prevailing price was between $85,000 and $90,000.

Many Brokers Quit on May 1.

Some days ago the Star was told by a member of the New York Stock Exchange that there would be sweeping changes there on May 1st. A paper says:

"Rumor is busy with the names of several important houses that lost heavily during the recent panic. It may not be uninteresting to explain how certain Stock Exchange firms come to have so many partners. In the profession a good many partners are irreverently spoken of as 'touts.' These gentlemen have a large circle of acquaintances—in street terminology, a big following—and can bring anywhere from 100,000 to 1,000,000 shares a year to any firm to which they may belong. In this way they are worth a good salary; usually they are paid on a commission basis. Now, it is well known that the gilded youth of Newport and other fashionable resorts were heavy plungers last fall and early this year. They acted with implicit faith on the 'tips' that were so freely circulated.

"When the crash came the customers of these 'touts' were not in every instance able to make good the losses sustained, with the inevitable result that a rupture occurred in the firms."

MONTREAL SOLD SOME DETROIT RY. ON LATEST NEWS

The Stock Drops Several Points Owing to Troubles with the City.

PEOPLE WHO KNOW NOT PANIC-STRICKEN.

The Mayor of Detroit Seems to Be Fulfilling Some of His Pre-Election Vows.

A rather sensationally constructed article from Detroit on Detroit United Railway sent that stock several points lower in the Montreal market this morning.

Possibly several shareholders sold out on the strength of the developments recorded, while the decline was helped along by the bear element.

It was stated that the Detroit United obtained an injunction restraining the city from attempting to enforce a recently adopted ordinance requiring the company to give better accommodations to patrons during the heavy traffic hours of the day.

The company, it appears, made the rather strong plea that the enforcement of the new ordinance would bankrupt the company by reason of the vastly increased number of men and cars required to carry it into effect.

The Mayor of Detroit is up in arms, and appeals to the grand stand by talking of the "foreign shareholders, mostly in Montreal."

The company will be proceeded against by the city for the alleged violation of different ordinances passed by the council during the past few years.

It is rather interesting to record the fact that the Toronto Railway at one time had almost similar troubles with the city in the past, and little attention has been paid to them by the stockholders.

Local people who are familiar with conditions in Detroit were not at all panic-stricken by the new developments.

The stock opened here at 73, and went off to 70 1-2, with 70 3-4 bid at the close.

CHILDISH.

(Van Norden's Magazine.)

There is no more childish place in the country than Wall Street.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET

A. O. Brown.—Union Pacific and Reading were the features, with a good demand for both issues, which was regarded as indicating accumulation.

Charles Head.—There was a big array of buyers in Union Pacific this morning, including Houseman, Wormser, Williston, Chapman and Wrenn Bros.

Burnett & Co.—Advices from Paris are that the committee of the Bank of France has decided to make no reduction of its discount rate until there has been returned to it the full amount of the advances recently made to the London market through the purchase of sterling bills.

E. & C. Randolph.—The stronger position of all the great European banks as shown in this week's statement impresses the banking community here very favorably. The worst feature of the situation is the continued stagnation in the bond market.

J. B. Picken.—We fear that for some little time to come the market will be dull and will present few opportunities for profitable speculation on the part of the public.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

Not a few people in Montreal remember old Neil Brodie when about thirty years ago he got away from Glasgow and went to Nova Scotia.

Brodie was not the only Glasgow Bank holder to seek a change of climate, for those were the days of unlimited liability, and a shareholder of a failed bank was called upon to settle its obligations.

Brodie came to Nova Scotia, the sleuths of justice came after him, and it was here apparently that Brodie assumed the guise of poverty that he maintained to the end.

Brodie in Nova Scotia lived on hay in summer and snowballs in winter, and so deceived the Scotch detectives that they reported that he was bankrupt, and totally unable to pay his liability as a shareholder of the Glasgow Bank.

Everybody knew that Brodie was in the Glasgow Bank muddle, but he himself would not admit it.

One day somebody asked Brodie about it.

"Hey, what's that; what's that?" said Brodie, who could get very deaf upon occasions.

"Glasgow Bank!" roared his questioner, "how much did you lose?"

"Never heard of it," said Brodie in a high voice; "No, no, no, never heard of the Glasgow Bank."

Rolling his big eyes, and giving a chuckle beneath his dirty beard the old man shuffled out of the office, half looking behind in apparent fear that he was being followed.

"A broker who knew Brodie quite well told the story this morning how one day, as old Neil was sitting in one of the easy chairs in a local broker's office, a gentleman passing out noticed him, and stepping up, took a dime out of his pocket and offered it to him. Old Neil looked up, and, smiling his gratitude, pocketed the money."—Local paper.

Brodie was not the hero of this incident. It was the late John Morrison, and it happened one morning about five years ago in the office of L. J. Forget & Co.

John W. Gates may have lost $3,000,000 in the stock market, but he is still prosperous.

Mr. Gates has just engaged a suite in the Hotel Plaza, New York, for which the rental is $46,000 a year.

This is said to be the highest-priced suite in the world.

Although the Steel-Coal battle begins in June, no date has yet been decided upon for the hearing of the first evidence.

It is believed now that the case will be heard in Sydney, instead of Halifax.

When Money Gets Easier Here

In a letter to clients McCuaig Bros. & Co. says:

Shrewd judges of the security market are convinced that liquidation has been thorough. The fact that stocks do not come out on dullness is most significant. One of the strongest factors is that dividend paying securities now generally yield more than money. This in itself will sooner or later create a buying movement, which will help to restore confidence and cause a gradual advance in prices. The chief reliance of the bulls is the betterment in monetary conditions the world over, and if good financial authorities are to be believed, everything is gradually working in that direction, though money has not yet become easy in Canada.

All experience teaches that the time to buy is when liquidation and a steady decline in the market has forced good sound dividend paying stocks to a six to seven per cent basis.

Our advice to clients who wish to make investments is to take advantage of the present opportunity, as it will be difficult, if not impossible, to get local stocks at present prices when money becomes easy in Canada.

Business Generally Well Sustained

Dun's Bulletin of Saturday, April 27th, will say of Montreal trade:

River steamers are now beginning to arrive from winter quarters, and the canals will open on the 1st of May, but the ice still holds above Quebec, and first arrivals from sea are hardly expected for ten days or so. Owing to the frost having penetrated the ground so deep this winter, the roads in this province and eastern Ontario are in very bad shape, and business with off-rail points is in consequence somewhat affected, but, as a whole the wholesale trade movement is well sustained.

Hardware and metals are particularly active, also paints, glass, etc. Iron prices are very firm; Scotch brands, such as No. 2 selected Summerlee and equal, are quoted at $22.50 ex-wharf, by first vessels; English about $19.

Domestic furnaces are all still full of orders, but quotations are being made at about $23.00 for No. 1, for delivery after July.

Canadian makes of bars are away behind on orders, and large importations of British bars are being made this spring.

A further advance in wire nails is looked for. In groceries the movement is less active than in most other lines. Teas continue very high in price, sugars are steady; evaporated apples are easier.

The weather has been rather more favorable to the dry goods trade, and wholesale deliveries show good volume. Both the Dominion Textile Co. and the Canadian Colored Cotton Co. have advanced cotton blankets, and the latter company also gives notice of an advance on its makes of tickings, shirtings, denims, etc.

The Kingston Hosiery Co. has revised quotations of fall underwear. General collections are fair, and only four district failures are noted for the week.

WHEAT SOARS AND MAKES A NEW HIGH LEVEL

Bears Were in a Panic To-day on Heavy Crop Damage Reports.

RIVER STEAMERS ARE BEGINNING TO ARRIVE.

The Canals Will Open on the First of May, But Ice Holds Above Quebec.

(From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.)

Chicago, April 26. — The bears and shorts in wheat were in an old-fashioned panic on the Board of Trade this morning.

They fought like demons for possession of the grain that they kicked and cuffed around the pit yesterday.

News from the South-West was sensational in character. The heads of leading agricultural implement houses say that the wheat crop of Oklahoma is entirely gone, that the crop of Kansas has been cut in two, and that deterioration in the Sunflower State is on the increase from day to day.

Indiana and Ohio reports could hardly be worse, and 60 per cent. of the southern part of Missouri has gone.

The south-western wheat fields are fairly alive with green bugs, and the crop is rapidly disappearing as they move rapidly northward.

The entire south-west is as dry as the proverbial bone, and this alone is drawback enough to drive the bear shorts to the tall timbers.

Dry as a Bone.

The entire south-west feels that unless there is a sudden change in conditions, that section will be forced to face a calamity.

The losers by the big advance in wheat are centred largely in the north-west, while those to make the money are the south-west, Chicago, and a coterie of high rollers of the East known as the Wall Street bull clique.

Hal. P. Watson, the bear short of Micapods, has been covering his line for some days, but he is believed to be short quite a line that will show heavy losses.

The Brosseau crowd, Canadian representatives, have been long a big line of June and September for some one in either Montreal, Quebec or Toronto. They have a profit.

Additional messages were received today, claiming heavy losses to the wheat and barley crops of Ontario.

Stock Speculators In.

It is claimed here that a great deal of outside trade in wheat and oats comes from men who formerly gave the stock market their attention.

Minneapolis stocks increased 325,000 bushels for the week, while Duluth decreased 1,300,000 bushels.

Cables were all higher. Buda Pesth, 4⅛c since Wednesday; Paris, ½c, 1c for day; Antwerp, ⅝c, and Liverpool, ⅝d to ¾d. Argentine shipments wheat were smaller, and a special cable from there reported arrivals from the interior as falling off.

North-Western cars were 530, against 219 a year ago.

Weather in Indiana is unsettled, and new crop prices for wheat have been advanced.

May wheat sold from 79¼ up to 80½, and July from 81⅞ to 83⅛. They closed yesterday at 79 and 81⅛ respectively.

EGGS AND POTATO MARKET.

EGGS.—The egg market remains firm and country merchants are offering a little more freely on a basis of 16c east of Toronto and 15½c west.

Locally, the quotation for eggs is 17c to 17½c in a wholesale way, and 18c in single case lots.

The receipts of eggs reported on the Board of Trade are 1542 cases.

POTATOES. — The potato market is still holding firm, and there is a fairly good demand for good stock, which, however, is not arriving very fast, owing to the bad state of the roads at shipping points.

Quotations are unchanged at 70c to 75c on track, and 85c to 95c delivered for best whites, while lower grades are selling at 63c to 70c on track, and 75c to 85c delivered.

CHEESE AND BUTTER MARKET.

CHEESE. — The cheese market is quiet and prices are quoted at 11½c to 11¾c.

Receipts of cheese reported on the Board of Trade are 755 boxes.

BUTTER. — The situation in the market for butter remains steady, with quotations unchanged at 24 to 24¼c.

Receipts of butter reported on the Board of Trade are 265 packages.

MAPLE PRODUCTS AND HONEY.

MAPLE SYRUP.—There is a fair demand for maple syrup, which is quoted at 7½c to 8c per lb. in tins and 7c in wood.

MAPLE SUGAR.—Maple sugar is quoted at 10c to 11c per lb.

HONEY.—The market for honey is very dull; white clover comb honey is selling at 12c to 15c, and white extracted 11½c to 12c, while buckwheat comb is quoted at 9½c to 10c; extracted, 8½c to 9c.

Likely Squeeze In Cotton Market

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the New York Cotton Exchange.

New York, April 26.—Less excitement developed in the cotton market to-day on circulation of notices calling for delivery of between 75,000 and 80,000 bales than might have been expected.

Market, however, yielded at first as was more or less natural, but stopping of tenders by the bull clique later sustained it.

Action of market indicated that large part of short interest had been transferred to July, but danger of squeeze is not entirely over, and it is expected that fear of bullish demonstration before the close of next month will continue to strengthen prices.

Opening was steady at a decline of 2 points. Liverpool cables were little lower than expected. English spot sales were heavy, reaching 140,000 bales. Market was nervous and unsettled.

CHATS ON 'CHANGE

Sensationally bad reports from the south-west and from other sections of the winter wheat belt, as well as complaints of delayed spring wheat country, continued to come in in an ever-increasing volume. Experienced grain men who have been in the business all of their lives say that they have never seen damage reports so numerous from all quarters as they have been recently. In the southwest rains so far are said to have been far from sufficient, and the prevailing conditions yesterday were dry weather, with high winds. Showers are predicted for to-day, with the exception of Kansas. The green bug has now spread over all of Kansas and well into Nebraska, and is said to be increasing rapidly, with nothing seeming to check its progress. Practically all of the crop experts are now of the opinion that the crop is going backward every day. Up to within the last few days some of the southwestern crop sharps have been inclined to minimize the extent of the actual damage. The strong south winds were said to be blowing the bugs northward in great clouds.

Updike, of the Updike Grain Company, of Omaha, wires from Newton, Kansas, to-day that three counties around there are damaged fifty per cent.; will increase without good rains very soon. Crop news bad from all over.

The Watson Mills Co., Witchita, Kansas, write: Wheat is going back fast and the green bugs continue throughout the entire central part of Kansas, although the weather has been cloudy and the nights have been cold—about every other night a frost. A conservative estimate now is that the Kansas crop has sustained a loss of 30 to 35 per cent. This has been the most unsatisfactory spring that Kansas has had in the past seven or eight years. All the fruit is destroyed and the oat crop is entirely gone, and it has been too cold for corn to make any stand.

A private telegram from Winnipeg says: While several isolated spots on high land started seeding early this week, the weather is so much colder that work has been discontinued. Under present conditions it will be at least a week or ten days before seeding is started generally. Conditions in Alberta very backward—at least a month later than last year. Considerable snow in that province.

A private telegram from Chicago says: No rain in sight in the south-west during the next thirty-six hours; broad, rapidly increasing trade. You can buy July now, 82 with safety; it is surely going higher. Buy this wheat at anything under 83.

Modern Miller will say to-morrow: Unfavorable weather impairs winter wheat prospects. The plant is backward, and warm rains are needed to start seasonable growth. Freezing temperatures damaged the crop in localities where the plant had jointed. The Tennessee State Board of Agriculture reports serious injury to wheat from frost. Complaints of green bug damage are less numerous, and none are received outside of the south-west.

MONTREAL BROKER TALKS OF COBALT AS HE SAW IT

Much Wild Catting and Many Impossible Propositions are There.

Mr. E. G. Rykert, a member of the Montreal stock exchange, who has just returned from Cobalt, said:

"As the Cobalt boom matured late last fall, there was very little time to visit the mining fields before the snow covered the surface, and now that spring is here many are taking advantage of the opportunity afforded. At the earliest moment, another member of the Montreal stock exchange and myself decided to satisfy a curiosity which had rapidly become abnormal.

"I think there were two reasons for our trip: First, a desire to investigate superficially some of the tales of marvellous richness, and second, because of a growing tendency on the part of clients to enquire into this class of security.

"Cobalt is about the worst specimen of a mining town of importance that I have ever seen, and unless immediate and strenuous steps are taken at once by the town authorities, there will be trouble during the very warm weather. Of course, this really only affects the business classes, and, to some extent, transients. The mining people are comfortably situated on the hills and lakes some distance away.

Shipments Could be Doubled.

"I was much impressed with the business-like air of the great producing mines, many of them equipped with good buildings and modern machinery, apparently intent upon the systematic development of the properties. At a glance it is apparent that the shipments of ore could be doubled at once, if desired.

"There can be no doubt as to the richness of the ore. It is plain to the eye. There is no mistaking free silver, almost amounting to nuggets in many places. The development is proving most satisfactorily that the veins are continuous and persistent, and that the ore deposits are sufficiently extensive to constitute Cobalt one of the great camps of America.

"A comparison with the mining history of British Columbia suggests to the mind of any one having knowledge of both places that Cobalt is a camp of immediate results as against bright prospects in British Columbia, which were never realized.

"Wild-catting seems to be about as extensive as the mining industry proper. The country is being flooded with hundreds of the most absurd and impossible propositions. If investors would curb their enthusiasm and exercise a little discretion, this sort of thing would soon die a natural death."

RAILWAY WANTS CATTLE MARKET.

The Market Committee met yesterday to consider an offer from the C. P. R. in regard to the east end cattle market, which the city owns. The offer was to the effect that the company desires to build a fine cattle market in this place. Mr. McNicoll, representing the C. P. R., was present and explained that the market, as it was now run by the city, was so inadequate that the company could not see its way clear to use it much longer. The company was willing to spend $175,000 in fitting up the market, so it would be modern in every way. The place was now so cramped that it could not accommodate the stock that came from the west, and from other places, for transhipment. He asked that the city should take prompt steps in regard to the company's offer.

Ald. Duquette, chairman of the committee, pointed out that he saw no reason why the city should not reach some agreement with the company, it was in the interests of all concerned that there should be an up-to-date cattle market in the east end. Ald. Sadler and Lapointe pointed out that an agreement could be made with the company if it would permit the city to collect certain market fees as was done in the western cattle market.

In reply Mr. McNicoll said his company was prepared to make any arrangement with the city that was just. A report will be made to Council, favoring the arrangement.

Provincial Subsidies Resolutions Again Before Commons.

NUMEROUS BLUNDERS MADE

After Being Fixed Up It Was Again Sent to Senate—Work Nearly Ended.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, April 26.—It is a perilous course that the provincial subsidies' resolutions have run a month since they were introduced in the House of Commons without the initial but necessary formality of the consent of the Crown, they were passed by the House without the equally necessary formality of submitting them to the committee of the whole; and they were sent on to the Senate in a form that did not, it is now confessed, carry out the will of the conference of the Provincial Premiers.

While they were before the Senate the Commons' disregard of form was discovered. The Commoners forthwith sent a request for the resolutions' return. The Senators created a precedent by sending them back. They were re-introduced in the Commons yesterday by the acting leader of the Government. Then ran the gauntlet of a preliminary objection by Dr. Sproule. And then it was thanks only to Mr. Bourassa, as Mr. R. L. Borden pointed out, that the fault of omitting the committee stage was not again committed. Truly to again quote Mr. Borden, "the action of the Government," in relation to the resolutions had been "characterized by an extraordinary series of accidents."

Nor, in the eyes of the Opposition critics had the "series of accidents" ceased. The terms of the resolutions as introduced a second time, Mr. Borden pointed out, failed to provide any machinery for ascertaining the population on the basis of which class "A" of the subsidies are to be paid; and the although these subsidies are being changed from a "lump sum" to a calculation based on "population." Mr. Fielding did not see the need of such a provision, he supplied it from the analogy of class "B" or the regular "per capita" grants.

A GROUP OF OBJECTIONS.

The vital omission in the first form of the resolutions related to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Under existing legislation these three provinces are entitled to have their subsidies recalculated every five years on the basis of a new census and in addition every two and one-half years on the basis of a statutory calculation. In the first form of the resolutions these provinces were left on the same basis as the other provinces, on the basis of a decennial census. In the new form this omission is remedied by the insertion of a proviso: "In the case of the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, respectively, by the last quinquennial census or statutory estimate."

This amendment led to the making of a group of objections:

I.—That the three western provinces had been raised, as compared with the original resolutions, from a decennial to a quinquennial basis.

II.—That as compared with their present legal position, the three provinces were given "forever," not merely till their population reached 800,000, the right to a revision of the subsidy every two and one-half years.

III.—That, by reason of the exemption from repeal of "the terms special to any particular province upon which such province became part of the Dominion," the three western provinces would be entitled not only to the new subsidies, but to the subsidies granted at the time these provinces entered the Dominion; in other words, to a "double subsidy."

The accuracy of the two first criticisms was admitted as matters of fact, but it was replied that in these changes the intention of the conference of provincial premiers was only carried out, and the present legal position maintained.

In reply to the charge of a "double subsidy," the Minister of Justice pointed out that it was the intention of the Government to provide for only a single subsidy. He thought the resolution was clear to that effect. But Mr. Samuel Barker pressed an amendment to clarify the point further and this was accepted.

MR. BOURASSA COMPLIMENTED.

Mr. Henri Bourassa was instrumental in originating the triplicity of criticisms and in the last was strongly supported and complimented by the leader of the Opposition. Mr. Borden and Mr. Bourassa also joined in questioning the advisability of adopting resolutions the form of which had been drawn up with such apparent carelessness.

Mr. J. G. H. Bergeron, in adding his quota of criticism, made a vigorous attack on the Gouin Government, declaring that it was common talk in Quebec "that you can carry any measure you like through the Quebec Legislature." It would be "encouraging political crime," he declared, to vote more money to Quebec.

The Prince Edward Island members to the Speaker's left made another attempt to secure for their province a same special grant of $100,000 annually for ten years as is given to British Columbia. Again it failed.

Finally the resolutions were all read. "Are they all correct now?" [illegible] asked Mr. Borden.

"I do not think so," [illegible] Dr. Reid, of Grenville, with incredulous emphasis.

But "correct" or not, the resolutions have again been sent up to the tender criticisms of the Upper Chamber. And, incidentally, they have thrown prorogation over into next week, of which official notice has been given by Mr. Fielding in a motion to take control of Monday's proceedings for the Government. Whereby, likewise incidentally, the Hamilton Radial bill, and all contentious private legislation has been given its death notice.

POSTMASTERS' SALARIES.

After the subsidies had been disposed of, the Postmaster-General announced a new scale of salaries for rural postmasters, providing "better or more substantial remuneration." The details of the plan were not yet worked out, but would be promulgated by departmental regulation. Against this a protest was made by Mr. Haughton Lennox. The new scale should be first submitted to Parliament, he argued.

A bill to amend the constitution of the Manitoba and British Columbia Courts, the chief feature of which was the addition of a new judge to the judiciary at Winnipeg, brought forward a radical amendment from Mr. George Taylor. This was nothing less than a proposal that a judge, whose judgments were delayed beyond three months, would have the payment of his salary suspended until the judgment was delivered. Justice Magee, of Ontario, came in for a special criticism by Mr. Taylor. The Minister of Justice opposed the proposal and argued that the discussion in the House might have sufficient effect. Therefore Mr. Taylor held over his proposal with the threatening promise of pressing it next session unless conditions were improved. Mr. Borden added a caviat against the radical character of the proposal.

The dropping of a measure to amend the Civil Service act induced a discussion on the new civil service commission. In reply to Mr. Foster, Mr. Fielding promised that the members of the service in Ottawa would be given an opportunity of being heard. He declined to promise that the commission would investigate the outside service, the time was too short he said. Mr. R. L. Borden made a plea for civil service reform on English lines, but again Mr. Fielding replied that the scope of commission would not extend that far; its enquiries would be confined largely to the salaries and the conditions on the service.

Railway subsidies were passed for 25 railway lines and branches, in almost all cases the votes being renewals. In the course of the discussion Mr. G. W. Fowler advocated "free trade" in railway charters and met a "Hear" from Mr. William Paterson. That remedy would do away with "Charter Mongering," Mr. Fowler declared.

A remarkable clearing of Government business was made during the day, at its close only three government bills remained on the order paper.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTES.

Hon. W. S. Fielding has given notice that the sittings of the House on Monday will be devoted to Government business. This means that if the House prorogues by Tuesday next there will be only one hour left during the present session for the discussion of private legislation.

The Senate on Thursday adopted a resolution authorizing the printing of 500 copies of a new Senate Manual. Senators Young, Landry and Ferguson congratulated Senator Power upon the manner in which the book had been prepared by him.

WOMAN'S TRIALS.

Can be Banished by the Rich, Red Blood Dr. Williams Pink Pills Actually Make.

The health and happiness of growing girls and women of mature years depends upon the blood supply. There is a crisis in the life of every woman when there are distressing headaches and backaches; when life seems a burden and when some women seem threatened with even the loss of their reason. It is at this period that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills prove a blessing to women. Every dose increases the richness and redness of the blood supply, and this new blood strengthens the organs and banishes the headaches and backaches and dizziness and secret pains that have made life a burden. There are thousands of growing girls and thousands of women in Canada who owe their health and happiness to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. James McDonald, Sugar Camp, Ont., is one of these. She says: "I was badly run down, felt very weak and had no appetite. I suffered from headaches and backaches and a feeling of weakness and I could scarcely drag myself about and felt that my condition was growing worse. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and got a half dozen boxes, but before they were all used I had fully regained my health, and was able to do my housework without the least fatigue. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been a great blessing to me."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People from any medicine dealer or by mail from the Dr. Williams Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. If you are weak or ailing give these pills a fair trial—they will not disappoint you.

PLAN OF SALVATION INCLUDES ALL MEN

The Erudite Professor on the Same Plane With the Illiterate Man, Says Dr. Torrey.

Quite a large number from the Eastern Townships turned up last night at St. James Methodist Church to hear Dr. Torrey's exposition of evangelical Christianity. The plan of salvation was the particular point dwelt on by the revivalist.

Recalling his theme of the previous evening, with its affirmation of hell as a fearful reality, Dr. Torrey proceeded to point out the Divine plan of Salvation, by which mankind can escape its doom. He laid stress on the universality of the Divine love, which would appear from the Scriptures to be even more anxious for the salvation of the sinner than of the saint. For God sent His Son "to seek and to save that which was lost."

"Suppose," said the evangelist, "one of your university professors, say of science or philosophy, were to openly accept Christ here to-night—what a talk there would be! It would be the event of the evening, and you would all be telling your friends of the remarkable incident you had witnessed.

"But suppose," he continued, "some poor, illiterate man, hardly able to read or write, were to stand up tonight and publicly confess Christ—you would not think it amounted to much. If anyone asked you afterwards whether anything notable had occurred at the meeting you would answer: 'No! There were no prominent people saved.

"Yet, in God's sight," said Dr. Torrey, "the salvation of the one would be as valuable as that of the other."

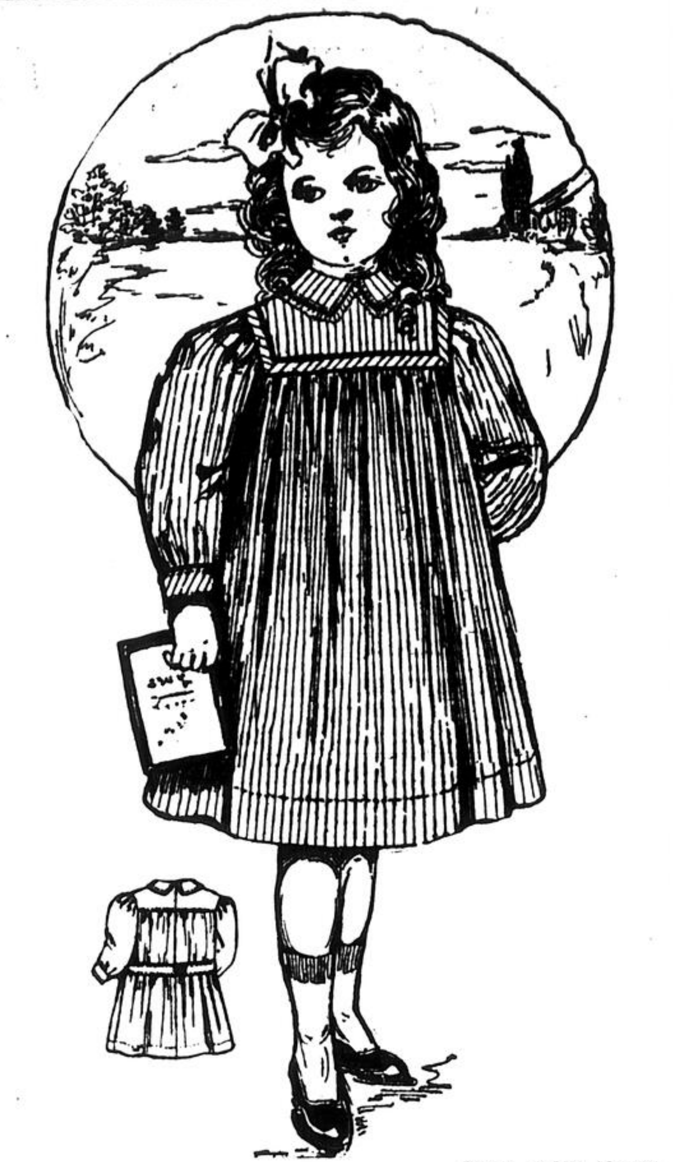
The Taranto Recital.

The violin recital given by Mons. Emile Taranto in the Art Gallery, on Wednesday evening, was one of the most enjoyable events of the season, for Mons. Taranto proved himself an artist worthy of serious consideration. The chief defect in his playing is the absence of really big tonens, but his musicianship is so satisfactory that one is ready to forgive this fault. In one or two impassioned moments Mons. Taranto succeeded in getting a certain volume of sound; but for the most part he appeared to revel in a smooth, velvety, purring sort of tone with which he obtained very pleasing effects, sometimes in unexpected places, where another player would be striving for mere noise. The correctness of his execution, the distinctness with which he can separate a melody from its accompanying maze of florid tracery, and his absolute adherence to pitch, are among the commendable features of his playing. The programme was well made, the composers represented being those whose writings pertain particularly to the violin; Vieuxtemps, Lalo, Hubay, and Wieniawski. Of special interest was the "Appassionata of Leroy (dedicated to Mons. Taranto), and the Franck sonata for violin and piano. For the latter number, Mme. Masson acquitted herself favorably, though in this, as in the accompaniments, she inclined a little to overdo the fortissimo passages, and sometimes failed to appreciate the beauties of pianissimo parts.

Mons. Joseph Saucier contributed several songs. He is essentially a singer of the modern French school, of which he is an excellent exponent. His singing of Schumann was a quaint mixture of Teutonic music with Gallic text and sentiment. He did full justice to "Le Baiser," by Goring Thomas; and sang for an encore Bemberg's "Chason de ma Mie."

Sues City for Injured Foot.

Mr. Henry J. Cunningham, through his attorneys, Messrs. Mullin and Mathieu, has brought suit for $1,000 against the City of Montreal. It is alleged that on December 20th last, Mrs. Cunningham, wife of the plaintiff, slipped on the icy sidewalk on St. Charles Boromee street, near Ontario, and broke a bone in one of her feet. She was confined to bed for three months, and now can walk only with the aid of crutches.



Design by May Manton.

5639 Child's Yoke Apron.

FOR HARD USAGE.

The apron that really is protective and that completely covers the dress and which upon occasion can be worn in its stead is always a needed one in every active child's wardrobe. Here is a model that while simplicity itself is becoming and tasteful and that is appropriate for every material that is used for children's aprons. In this instance it is made of striped linen, the bands and collar and cuffs being piped with darker color, while the collar is edged with a little white frill. But while linen is sturdy and desirable and much to be commended, there are a great many simpler materials, such as chambray, gingham, percale and lawn, which are in every way appropriate. There is a simple square yoke to which the full apron is attached, and there are long full sleeves, while the pockets can be arranged over the fronts if liked. The belt confines the fulness at the back, and the apron is altogether a thoroughly satisfactory one. For the eight-year size will be required 4 yards of material 27 or 2⅝ yards 36 inches wide.

A May Manton pattern, No. 5639, sizes 4 to 10 years, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

THE MYSTERY

by Stewart Edward White and Samuel Hopkins Adams

(Copyright, 1906.)

"Gentlemen," he said, "we are facing a problem which, so far as I know, is without parallel. It is my intention to bring the schooner which we have in tow to port at Honolulu. In the present unsettled weather we cannot continue to tow her. I wish two officers to take charge. Under the circumstances I shall issue no orders. The duty must be voluntary."

Instantly every man, from the veteran Trendon to the youthful paymaster, volunteered.

"That is what I expected," said Captain Parkinson quietly. "But I have still a word to say. I make no doubt in my own mind that the schooner has twice been beset by the gravest of perils. Nothing less would have driven Mr. Edwards from his post. All of us who know him will appreciate that. Nor can I free myself from the darkest forebodings as to his fate and that of his companions. But as to the nature of the peril I am unable to make any conjecture worthy of consideration. Has anyone a theory to offer?"

There was a dead silence.

"Mr. Barnett? Dr. Trendon? Mr. Ives?"

"Is there not possibly some connection between the unexplained light which we have twice seen, and the double desertion of the ship?" suggested the first officer, after a pause.

"I have asked myself that over and over. Whatever the source of the light and however near to it the schooner may have been, she is evidently unharmed."

"Yes, sir," said Barnett. "That seems to vitiate that explanation."

"I thank you, gentlemen, for the promptitude of your offers," continued the captain. "In this respect you make my duty the more difficult. I shall accept Mr. Ives because of his familiarity with sailing craft and with these seas." His eyes ranged the group.

"I beg your pardon, Captain Parkinson," eagerly put in the paymaster, "but I've handled a schooner yacht for several years and I'd appreciate the chance of——"

"Very well, Mr. McGuire, you shall be the second in command."

"Thank you, sir."

"You gentlemen will pick a volunteer crew and go aboard at once. Spare no effort to find records of the schooner's cruise. Keep in company and watch for signals. Report at once any discovery or unusual incident, however slight."

Not so easily was a crew obtained. Having in mind the excusable superstition of the men, Captain Parkinson was unwilling to compel any of them to the duty. Awed by the mystery of their mates' disappearance, the sailors hung back. Finally by temptation of extra prize money, a complement was made up.

At ten o'clock of a puffy, mist-laden morning a new and strong crew of nine men boarded the Laughing Lass. There were no farewells among the officers. Forebodings weighed too heavy for such open expression.

All the fates of weather seemed to combine to part the schooner from her convoy. As before, the fog fell, only to be succeeded by squally rain-showers that cut out the vista into a checkerboard pattern of visible sea and impenetrable greyness. Before evening the Laughing Lass, making slow way through the mists, had become separated by a league of waves from the cruiser. One glimpse of her between mist areas the Wolverines caught at sunset. Then wind and rain descended in furious volume from the south-east. The cruiser immediately headed about, following the probable course of her charge, which would be beaten far down to leeward. It was a gloomy mess on the warship. In his cabin, Captain Parkinson was frankly sea-sick: a condition which nothing but the extreme of nervous depression ever induced in him.

For several hours the rain fell and the gale howled. Then the sky swiftly cleared, and with the clearing there rose a great cry of amaze from stem to stern of the Wolverine. For far toward the western horizon appeared such a prodigy as the eye of no man aboard that ship had ever beheld. From a belt of marvellous, glowing gold, rich and splendid streamers of light spiralled up into the blackness of the heavens.

In all the colors of the spectrum they rose and fell; blazing orange, silken, wonderful, translucent blues, and shimmering reds. Below, a broad band of paler hue, like sheet lightning fixed to rigidity, wavered and rippled. All the auroras of the northland blended in one could but have paled away before the splendor of that terrific celestial apparition.

On board the cruiser all hands stood petrified, bound in a stricture of speechless wonder. After the first cry, silence lay leaden over the ship. It was broken by a scream of terror from forward. The quartermaster who had been at the wheel came clambering down the ladder and ran along the deck, his fingers splayed and stiffened before him in the intensity of his panic.

"The needle! The compass!" he shrieked.

Barnett ran to the wheel house with Trendon at his heels. The others followed. The needle was swaying like a cobra's head. And as a cobra's head spits venom, it spat forth a thin, steel-blue stream of lucent fire. Then so swiftly it whirled that the sparks scattered from it in a tiny shower. It stopped, quivered, and curved itself upward until it rattled like a fairy drum upon the glass shield. Barnett looked at Trendon.

"Volcanic?" he said.

"'Mine eyes have seen the coming of the glory of the Lord,'" muttered the surgeon in his deep bass, as he looked forth upon the streaming, radaint heavens. "It's like nothing else."

In the west the splendor and the terror shot to the zenith. Barnett whirled the wheel. The ship responded perfectly.

"I thought she might be bewitched, too," he murmured.

"You may head her for the light, Mr. Barnett," said Captain Parkinson calmly. He had come from his cabin, all his nervous depression gone in the face of an imminent and visible danger.

Slowly the great mass of steel swung to the unknown. For an hour the unknown guided her. Then fell blackness, sudden, complete. After that radiance the dazzled eye could make out no stars, but the lookout's keen vision discerned something else.

"Ship afire," he shouted hoarsely.

"Where away?"

"Two points to leeward, near where the light was, sir."

They turned their eyes to the direction indicated, and beheld a majestic rolling volume of purple light. Suddenly a fiercer red shot it through.

"That's no ship afire," said Trendon. "Volcano in eruption."

"And the other?" asked the captain.

"No volcano, sir."

"Poor Billy Edwards wins his bet," said Forsythe, in a low voice.

"God grant he's on earth to collect it," replied Barnett solemnly.

No one turned in that night. When the sun of June 8th rose, it showed an ocean bare of prospect except that on the far horizon where the chart showed no land there rose a smudge of dirty rolling smoke. Of the schooner there was neither sign nor trace.

VI.

THE CASTAWAYS.

"This ship," growled Carter, the second officer, to Dr. Trendon, as they stood watching the growing smoke-column, "is a worst hot-bed of rumours than a down-east village. That's the third sea-gull we've had officially reported since breakfast."

As he said, three distinct times the Wolverine had thrilled to an imminent discovery, which upon nearer investigation, had dwindled to nothing more than a floating fowl. Upon the heels of Carter's complaint came another hail.

"Boat ahoy. Three points on the starboard bow."

"If that's another gull," muttered Carter, "I'll have something to say to you, my festive lookout."

The news ran electrically through the cruiser, and all eyes were strained for a glimpse of the boat. The ship swung away to starboard.

"Let me know as soon as you can make her out," ordered Carter.

"Aye, aye, sir."

"There's certainly something there," said Forsythe, presently. "I can make out a speck rising on the waves."

"Bit o' wreckage from Barnett's derelict," muttered Trendon, scowling through his glasses.

"Rides too high for a spar or anything of that sort," said the junior lieutenant.

"She's a small boat," came in the clear tones of the lookout, "driftin' down."

"Anyone in her?" asked Carter.

"Can't make out yet, sir. No one's in charge though, sir."

Captain Parkinson appeared and Carter pointed out the speck to him.

"Yes. Give her full speed," said the captain, replying to a question from the officer of the deck.

Forward leapt the swift cruiser, all too slow for the anxious hearts of those aboard. For there was not one of the Wolverines who did not expect from this aimless traveller of desert seas at the least a leading clue to the riddle that oppressed them.

"Aloft there!"

"Aye, aye, sir."

"Can you make out her build?"

"Rides high, like a dory, sir."

"Wasn't there a dory on the Laughing Lass?" cried Forsythe.

"On her stern davits," answered Trendon.

"It is hardly probable that unattached small boats should be drifting about these seas," said Captain Parkinson, thoughtfully. "If she's a dory, she's the Laughing Lass's boat."

"That's what she is," said Barnett. "You can see her build plain enough now."

"Mr. Barnett, will you go aloft and keep me posted?" said the captain.

The executive officer climbed to join the lookout. As he ascended, those below saw the little craft rise high and slow on a broad swell.

"Same dory," said Trendon. "I'd swear to her in Constantinople."

"What else could she be?" muttered Forsythe.

"Somethin' that looks like a man in the bottom of her," sang out the crow's-nest. "Two of 'em, I think."

For five minutes there was stillness aboard, broken only by an occasional low-voiced conjecture. Then from aloft: "Two men rolling in the bottom."

"Are they alive?"

"No, sir; not that I can see."

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do You Fear Consumption?

"When we take into consideration the fact that one out of every seven in this climate dies of consumption, is it any wonder that it is feared by the people of Montreal who have weak lungs and chronic colds and coughs?" said the local druggist, R. H. Bryson.

"Physicians everywhere have recognized the value of cod liver oil for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all wasting diseases, but, unfortunately, few could take it and derive any benefit from its use on account of the indigestible oil which it contained.

"We want every person in Montreal to know that Vinol actually contains in a concentrated form all of the body-building, strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron added.

"Therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good Vinol will do far more good. We guarantee Vinol will improve the appetite, strengthen digestion, make rich, red blood, create strength, cure chronic coughs and colds, and strengthen weak lungs."

If Vinol fails to give satisfaction to our customers, we return money without question. R. H. Bryson, Druggist.

COMFORT OF JURORS INTERESTED THE COURT.

An unusual incident occurred at a trial by jury yesterday when two of the jurymen refused to serve unless they were given more suitable seats than those provided. The complaint of the jurors was entertained by Mr. Justice Guerin, who ordered that chairs be provided for the afternoon session.

Two of the jurors summoned failed to appear and they were fined $25 or two weeks in jail. The two who failed to put in an appearance or give any explanation were Messrs. Michael J. McAndrew and H. Gilchrist.

The protest of the jurors was voiced by Messrs. J. A. Palmer and Mr. J. Widmer Nelles.

At the request of Mr. Justice Guerin, the jurors consented to use the benches for the morning session, and as soon as this was closed, a few minutes after noon, the court house attendants put in chairs, in which the jurors can have some comfort during the hearing of the case before the court.

The suit is one for $1,999.99 damages, brought by Pantaleon Dallaire, carpenter, against the Dominion Park Company. In March, 1906, a building in the course of construction at the park collapsed, and Dallaire was so seriously injured that he declares his earning power has been permanently diminished.

Was Accidentally Drowned.

"Accidentally drowned," was the verdict of the Coroner's jury, in the case of Joseph Nivens, whose dead body was yesterday found lying in the mud in the canal, near Black's Bridge. The body was identified by his brother, Mr. Lawrence Nivens, of the Ottawa Free Press editorial staff, who testified that the deceased was a druggist by profession. He said he was 28 years of age and unmarried. The evidence showed that Nivens had left the offices of the Montreal Warehousing Company, shortly after 8 o'clock, on the evening of October 22nd, to walk across the locks.

MORE LIGHT FOR BANFF.

Government Buildings and Park Now Lighted by Electricity.

Banff, April 23.—This resort posseses greater attractions for tourists now that a modern system of electric lighting has been introduced in the Government buildings and park. The electric energy is generated at Bankhead, which is distant five and a half miles from Banff. The transmission lines are of the latest approved design and the equipment throughout is most complete.

The selection of Bankhead as the site for the generating of the electrical energy was done with a view to economy, the cheap coal at the mine being utilized for steaming purposes. By this means a big saving is effected, it being easier and cheaper to transmit the electrical energy than to transport coal to Banff, which would be necessary if the plant were located here. This installation was made by the Canadian General Electric Company, and the equipment comprises two 150 K.W. generators connected to two engines, this being considered quite sufficient to meet the growing requirements of Banff for some time to come.

The Standard.

ALL SATURDAY SPORTS

All Saturday's great Canadian Sports and all Saturday's great sporting events of the world are reported in the news edition of The Standard.

If an earthquake happens between Saturday morning and Saturday night, The Standard is the only paper in Montreal that has the news.

If war is declared, if diplomatic relations between nations are ruptured, if the stock market is disturbed, if a great man dies, if a ship founders, or a railway train is wrecked between Saturday morning and Saturday night, The Standard is the only paper in Montreal that can give the news. The people of Montreal, Montreal suburbs and adjacent places have found this out, hence the phenomenal success of The Standard.

The Standard is an expensive paper to produce. Six months ago it cost $1,200.00 to produce each issue of The Standard. To-day it costs $1,800.00, and the readers get it for 5 cents. American publishers say The Standard is sold at too low a price to the public. But the publishers of The Standard are more than satisfied. Their motto is low price and big sales. The advertising patronage of The Standard is more than gratifying.

The circulation of The Standard, thousands ahead of any English daily paper in Montreal except the Star, is all the most sanguine publisher could hope for. Watch the improvement in The Standard; watch the added strength to its news service. The Standard has a larger staff of reporters than any other paper, and telegraphic news connections not excelled on this continent.

Assert Constables Were Violent.

Warants will be issued against two special constables of the Canadian Pacific Railway who, it is alleged, used violent methods in arresting a young man found trespassing on the Company's tracks. Tuesday afternoon the two men brought to No. 13 police station, Ontario street, a laborer by the name of Joseph Henri Asselin and asked that their prisoner be put into custody, under a charge of trespassing on property and assault on the two officers. The prisoner, who was covered with blood was almost unconsious, and Dr. Picotte was summoned by Captain Brophy, to attend the wounded man who was afterwards brought to his home at 70 St. Germain street. The two agents claimed that the accused had thrown stones at them. On his side Asselin claims that he is an employe of the Angus shops and claimed that the two constables brutally assaulted him while he was quietly walking on the tracks of the C. P. R. at Hochelaga.

MUNYON CURING RHEUMATISM

Hundreds Testify

TO HAVING BEEN CURED BY

3X Rheumatism Remedy

WHICH IS PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR CHRONIC CASES

Stop rubbing with liniments! says Prof. Munyon, for you might as well attempt to clean the inside of a bottle by washing on the outside as to cure rheumatism with a liniment. Rheumatism is due to uric acid, and you must cleanse the system of this acid before a cure can be effected. For ordinary cases Munyon's regular Rheumatism Cure will bring about the desired results. Price 25 cents. But for old chronic cases, where there is great swelling and inflammation, where the flesh is sore, the joints stiff or chalky, where there is lumbago or sciatic pains, or sharp shooting pains in any part of the body nothing ever made will so quickly give relief and bring about a cure as

MUNYON'S XXX RHEUMATISM REMEDY

160 DOSES FOR $1

It is put up in large bottles, 160 doses for $1.00. One bottle will in most cases effect a positive cure. This remedy contains no salicylic acid, morphine, cocaine or opium, such as is generally given to rheumatics. It is absolutely harmless, and is a good tonic for the nerves, stomach and kidneys. One lady who had been cured of a long-standing case declared that each tablet was worth more than a diamond of the same size. One gentleman who had not been able to use his arm for nearly two weeks said that after taking six tablets all stiffness and pains were removed and he was able to continue his work.

But the Rheumatism Cure is no more effective than our other remedies. If you have dyspepsia, or any stomach trouble, use Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure. If you have any kidney or bladder ailment, use the Kidney Cure.

The Montreal papers could be filled with testimonials from people you know who have been cured by Munyon's remedies.

Hundreds of grateful people have sent letters to the Star and La Presse offices endorsing the Munyon cures.

THE PEOPLE SPEAK

NOTHING LIKE HOME EVIDENCE. WHAT MONTREALERS SAY ABOUT DR. MUNYON'S REMEDIES.

Nothing gives Professor Munyon more pleasure, and certainly nothing can be more encouraging to the sick than to read such testimony as we have been receiving daily.

There is no chance for doubt; no chance for deception.

These people have testified for Munyon's Remedies because they have been cured. They feel grateful.

They want every sufferer to know the truth about these Remedies.

Since the distribution from the "Star" and "La Presse" offices hundreds of people have sent in their grateful thanks.

Take Mr. L. N. Archambault, 120 Desery St., Montreal. He cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. Mr. Archambault has been afflicted with Rheumatism for seven years; tried a number of Doctors and a number of different advertised Remedies without benefit. Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure gave him immediate relief, and speedily restored him to perfect health.

Take Mrs. C. F. Robertson, who lives at Alwyn Street, who has been a great sufferer from kidney trouble. She is grateful for what the Remedy has done for her, and recommends Dr. Munyon's Kidney Cure to all who suffer from this complaint. This lady writes it is a great Kidney Cure.

Mr. J. Smith, who lives at 118 St. Urbain Street, writes that Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure has done what the best Doctors and other medicines could not do. He had immediate relief, and says that every Doctor in the City should prescribe Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure.

Mrs. Tant, a trained nurse, who lives at 330 Prince Arthur St., Montreal, writes that she could not get along without Dr. Munyon's Remedies in her profession.

Mrs. T. H. Cote, of 107 Lasalle Street, writes in the most enthusiastic way of Dr. Munyon's Female Cure, and says it is the best female remedy she knew of.

Mrs. Gates 11 Argyle Ave., writes that Dr. Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure gave her instant relief.

Mr. John Houri, 135 St. Denis Street, suffered excruciatingly for several years with Rheumatism, and found the only cure in Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Remedy.

Mr. Richard, 74 Prefontaine St.,
Mrs. E. Montrieul, 883 St. Andre St.,
Mrs. Chas. Ross, 61 Argyle Avenue, and hundreds of others have sent such letters ringing in praise of Dr. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure, Kidney Cure, Dyspepsia Cure, Catarrh Cure, and other Remedies of Dr. Munyon.

We urge every person who is suffering with any ailment to get the "Guide to Health," which will be sent free on application. Medical advice will also be sent free when requested.

MORE DETAILS OF STEEL COMPANY'S CHARGE AGAINST DOMINION COAL CO.

The Dominion Steel Company's reply to the Dominion Coal Company is given below, and is complete, except for the brief portion at the opening of the document published in yesterday's Star:

7. The plaintiff company says that it is provided by clause 12 of the said agreement of the 20th day of October, 1903, that when, owing to causes stated in said clause 12, the defendant company is compelled to make a general reduction in its deliveries to its customers, there shall be a like proportionate reduction in the requirements of the plaintiff company, and the plaintiff company says that the defendant company during the said months of August, September and October, while making large reductions in the requirements of the plaintiff company, made no reduction in its deliveries to its other customers.

Cause of Dispute.

8. The plaintiff company says that the disputes and differences between the plaintiff Steel Company and the defendant company that existed in the fall of 1905 and the beginning of the year 1906 was that the defendant company had not delivered to the plaintiff company the full quantities of coal claimed by the plaintiff company under the contract of October 20, 1903, and notices of requirements given thereunder, and that the plaintiff company was pressing a claim against the defendant company for damages for short deliveries of its coal requirements prior to the month of December, 1906, and the defendant company alleged that it was unable to deliver to the plaintiff company the quantities and quality of coal which the plaintiff company was entitled to under the contract and for which due notices had been given, as required by said contract, and the defendant company in December, 1905, promised the plaintiff company by its executive officers that in future the defendant company would deliver the quantities of coal the plaintiff company called for by its notices, and of the quality suitable for its requirements; and the plaintiff Steel Company, for the purposes of assisting the defendant company to make its said deliveries of coal, from December, 1905, to October, 1906, voluntarily accepted slack coal from the Phalen seam, coal from the Phalen seam delivered in advance from the bank and a small proportion of coal from other seams than the Phalen seam unsuited for metallurgical purposes, but possible to be used for steam-producing purposes; but the defendant company did not in the month of December, 1905, or in any succeeding month furnish the coal requirements of the plaintiff company as the defendant company ought to have furnished said coal as called for by the notices given by the plaintiff company for each such succeeding month; and except as aforesaid the plaintiff company never waived for any time its rights to the delivery of coal under said agreement of the 20th October, 1903.

Denies Agreement.

9. The plaintiff company denies that by any agreement in the fall of 1905 or at any time it agred to form a bank containing 25,000 tons of coal; in the alternative the plaintiff company says that if it did not form a bank containing 25,000 tons of coal, it was because the defendant company did not supply the coal necessary to form such bank.

Delivery of Coal.

10. The plaintiff company says that by reason of the facts alleged in paragraph 8 hereof, the defendant company is stopped from setting up the contention that it was not compelled to deliver the coal called for by the plaintiff's notices for the said months of August, September and October.

11. The plaintiff company says that on and after the 1st of November, 1906, the defendant company, with the object of finding some pretext for refusing to carry out the agreement of October 20th, 1903, which it alleged was an unprofitable one on its part to carry out, furnished coal to the plaintiff company that to the knowledge of the defendant company was not suitable for the plaintiff company's requirements, and was not the coal that the defendant company ought to have furnished the plaintiff company under the terms of the agreement of the 20th of October, 1903. Said coal was not for the reasons given in the particulars furnished of the statement of claim the coal to be furnished under the contract in that:

Quality of Coal.

(a) The coal was not the coal required to be delivered under clauses 1 and 3 of the contract.

(b) The coal was not suitable for the purposes for which it was to be used, as specified in the contract.

(c) The coal supplied was not coal as known to the trade.

(d) The coal was not merchantable coal, in that it contained stone, shale, sulphur and impurities to an unreasonable proportion.

(e) The coal was not freshly mined.

(f) The coal was not of the grade known as run of mine.

(g) The coal was not of the grade known as run of mine, reasonably free from stone and shale.

(h) The coal was not reasonably free from stone and shale.

(i) The coal was not supplied from such seams then being worked by the defendant company within the terms of the contract, as the plaintiff company designated by its previous notice in writing, dated the 30th March, 1905; 31st July, 1906, and 27th July, 1906.

(j) The coal was not from the Phalen seam, as called for by the previous notices of the plaintiff company, dated the 30th March, 1905; 31st July, 1906, and the 27th July, 1906.

(k) The coal was not suitable, in that it contained too high a percentum of ash and sulphur.

(l) The coal was not suitable for use in steel making and for blast furnace coke.

(m) The coal when crushed and washed contained too high a percentum of ash and sulphur.

(n) The coal was of such a character that it was impossible by washing to reduce the sulphur, stone and shale sufficiently to enable it to be used for the purposes designated in clause 1 of the contract.

Coal Was Rejected.

The plaintiff company thereupon rejected such coal as the defendant supplied that was not coal that defendant company ought to have furnished under said agreement and requested defendant company to furnish coal that it ought to have furnished. The defendant company had mined and could have furnished from its mines in Cape Breton County other than those lying north and west of Sydney Harbor coal to the plaintiff company that it had agreed to furnish by said agreement of the 20th October, 1903, but refused so to do, and the contention of the defendant company that the plaintiff company repudiated the said contract arises from the fact that the plaintiff company rejected coal that was not coal that the defendant company ought to have furnished under said agreement, and requested defendant company to supply it with the coal that the defendant company had agreed and was able to furnish under said agreement, and the plaintiff company in no way repudiated or expressed an intention of repudiating the said agreement of the 20th of October, 1903, which was of great value to the plaintiff company; but only requested the defendant company to furnish it with the coal it had agreed to furnish under said agreement.

The Phalen Seam.

12. The plaintiff company says that the defendant company was mining coal at the time said contract was made, for a long time previously thereto, and during the month of November, 1906, from a well-known seam of coal called the Phalen seam, and that it had opened and was producing coal from five mines on the said Phalen seam, and the plaintiff company had always designated the said Phalen seam as the seam of the defendant company from which it was to furnish the requirements of the plaintiff company under the said agreement, and the coal produced from the said five mines on said Phalen seam was suitable for the plaintiff company's requirements. That the defendant cofpany in the year 1905 opened another mine, known as number 6, a long distance from the mines previously worked by it, and contended that said mine was on the Phalen seam. Said coal from said number 6 was, by reason of the stone and snale and sulphur therein contained, to the knowledge of the defendant company, totally unsuited to the plaintiff company's purposes, and could not be used by it in the manufacture of steel, and the defendant company, with knowledge of such unsuitableness, during the month of November, delivered to the plaintiff company under the said agreement of the 20th October, 1993, from said number 6 mine, and the plaintiff company says that if said number 6 mine is on the Phalen seam (which the plaintiff company denies) it is not the Phalen seam within the meaning of the said contract, and within the meaning of the notices given by the plaintiff company designating the seams from which the defendant company were to furnish its requirements, and the plaintiff company says that if the said number 6 mine was on the Phalen seam that the defendant company could not select coal from said seam that was unfit for the plaintiff company's use, when it could have furnished coal from its other five mines on said seam that was suitable for use in the plaintiff company's works; and the plaintiff company denies the right of the said defendant company to withdraw from said contract by reason of the plaintiff's refusal to accept such unsuitable coal.

Varied in Quality.

13. The plaintiff company says that the coal from the different mines on the Phalen seam varied in quality, and it was verbally agreed between the executive officers of the plaintiff company and the executive officers of the defendant company that the cars of coal from the said respective mines should be marked by the defendant company so that the plaintiff company would know from which mine it came, and the plaintiff company says that the coal cars were so marked from the time when the coal company began to supply the plaintiff company until the first day of November, 1906, when the defendant company refused to and ceased to indicate the mines from which the coal came and mark the cars ar aforesaid, and the plaintiff company says that if it rejected any coal that was of the quality required under the said contract of the 20th October, 1903, it did so unwittingly, as defendant company well knew for the reason that the defendant company refused to mark the cars as aforesaid, and by reason of their mixing a few cars of coal that were of the quality required under said contract of 20th October, 1903, with a large number of cars containing coal that was not coal required to be furnished under said contract in the same train load, and so, contrary to the ordinary course of business; and the rejection of any cars containing coal of the quality required under the said contract was not done with the intention of repudiating said contract, as the defendant company well knew, and the plaintiff company says that the defendant is estopped from alleging that the rejection of such cars is a repudiation of the contract.

LEGISLATURE PROROGUES.

Barren Session of British Columbia House Closed.

Victoria, B.C., April 26. — The House was prorogued yesterday afternoon. The Lieut.-Governor gave his assent to all the bills, save the one regulating immigration. He reserved his assent to this. Hon. F. J. Fulton, attorney-general, announced that, after giving the matter full consideration, and after consultation with his confreres of the Government, he had resolved not to give his assent to any prosecutions under the Dominion Lord's Day Act.

The House sat two months, and the only measure of any importance passed was the University Bill. The remainder of the time was spent in amending existing laws and quarrelling with the Socialists. The most important action taken, apart from this, was to send Premier McBride on a trip to the Old Country. The House will sit again in January.

UNDERWEAR

The Strongest Pull on any part of any Ellis garment will fail to permanently displace it from its original shapely form.

Why?

Because it is made by the wonderful "Spring Needle" process, which method of construction ensures absolute elasticity.

Stretch an Ellis garment as far as you like: then let go—and it will immediately spring back into place.

Method is the Very Hinge of Business!

AS the door cannot fulfil its purpose without hinges, neither can a Business be economically conducted without Method.

It is not in the office, where the clerks are rushing around as though their very lives depended upon their celerity, that the most is accomplished, but rather where a few clerks are concentrating Energy and Intelligence, combined with Down-to-date methods, in their work.

Many business houses are to-day losing Dollars in Profits because of the large clerical staff necessary to operate the antiquated methods of Record keeping in use.

All correspondence with one firm TOGETHER, in order of date, in a strong manila folder. This is our Vertical Filing.

If Twenty-five Dollars invested in one of our Modern Vertical Letter Files will enable two clerks to do the work for which you now require three, the saving is obvious.

A request will bring either Representative or Catalog.

George Bernard Shaw Breaks Out in a New Place.

London, April 26.—George Bernard Shaw, addressing a meeting of the National Art Collection Fund, referred to the deficit for the year, and the urgent need of money.

He regretted that people with big, unearned incomes did not take much interest in the society's work. There was, he said, £500,000,000 in England belonging to people who did not work. Therefore the society must tell the rich class that more money was needed because it was coming in sharp competition with America. If wealthy people did not respond to the demand they ought to be guillotined.

A Unique Collection of Flora.

Vancouver, B.C., April 26.—Mr. Gustave Gervais, after spending nine years in the Yukon Territory, has returned to civilization from the region of the North with a most unique collection of flora. It consists of about 1,500 varieties of plants. Mr. Gervais is on his way to Ottawa to secure the assistance of Professor Macoun in the arrangement and classification of his collection.

We extend an invitation to investors to join us in taking over the first issue of shares which we have agreed to purchase of the Larder Lake Blue Bell Gold Mines, Limited, at the first ground floor price of 10 cents per share. Large Returns on Investments.

This investment will bear the closest scrutiny. It has a foundation of absolute earning power. It is proposed to supply a demand for power which is in excess of the total possible supply. This is an unfailing source of revenue, the proceeds of which can be exactly computed as the following schedule shows:

The Company has obtained a concession from the Canadian Government to install a power plant on the Montreal River, which will develop electric power and light for the towns and mines of the Cobalt district.

10,000 H.P.	is the maximum development.
5,000 H. P. PLANT BEGUN CONTRACTS LET	The contract has been let for a plant developing 5,000 H.P., which in distribution under contracts will supply 7,000 H.P.
DEMAND FOR POWER	Over 7,000 steam H.P., is now in use at a cost of over 100 per cent. in excess of the power this Company will supply. Three towns also require light and power. The demand for the power which this Company will supply does not have to be created. It already exists. More than this, the demand is urgent and insistent. In commercial terms, there is a market eagerly waiting for the goods we can supply, before the manufacture of them is begun.
INCOME	7,000 horse power at $50......$350,000 10 per cent on the stock 150,000
SURPLUS	$200,000, less expenses of $50,000.
SUBSCRIBERS	Some of the best bank and trust company people of New York and Canada are connected with this enterprise.
UNDERWRITERS' SYNDICATE	To take 400,000 shares of stock, or any part at 65 cents per share, par $1.00. This is the last of the issue. It is intended for small as well as large investors.
PAYMENTS	Easy, as disbursements are made only as work progresses. 25 per cent. cash balance two, four and six months, 10,000 shares cost $6,500. First payment, cash, $1,625; second, third and fourth payment each $1,625. 5,000 shares cost $3,250; first payment cash, $812.50; second, third and fourth payment, each $812.50. 1,000 shares cost $650, cash $162.50; second, third and fourth payment, each $162.50. 500 shares, cash $325; first payment $81.25; second, third and fourth payment, each $81.25. 200 shares cost $130, first payment cash, $32.50; second, third and fourth payment, each $32.50. 100 shares cost $65.00; first payment $16.25; second, third and fourth payment, each $16.25.
MINE POWERS	All water power developments connected with mining operations bring big returns.
SURE RETURNS	A secure investment with returns as large as most mines. Wealthy Canadians have made millions out of water powers.
THE ISSUED CAPITAL	Is limited to $1,500,000. $400,000 only is offered.
FIRST CHECKS	Received will close this subscription. Fill in the form below. Checks or post office orders to

CAUSE OF BROKEN RAILS.

Heavy Breakage Total on Tracks Necessitated Investigation.

Albany, N.Y., April 26.—Broken rails removed from the tracks of the railroads of New York State during the months of January, February and March numbered more than in the corresponding months of either of the past two years, according to a bulletin issued by the State Railroad Commission.

The board has just completed, says this bulletin, an investigation of the breakage of rails in the tracks of the principal steam railroad companies of the State. The board has found that during the three months ending March 31, 1907, there was a total of 3014 breakages on the principal steam lines of the State; during the corresponding months of 1906 there was a total of 826, and during the corresponding months of 1905 there was a total of 1331. The matter in detail has been presented to the American Railway Association, with the request that the matter be taken up for discussion and action by the various railroad managers.

MOTORMAN MOBBED FOR DEATH OF BOY

Sight of Mutilated Body Turned the Passengers Into Infuriated Mob.

New York, April 26.—The sight of the horribly mutilated body of a sixteen year-old boy, who had been ground to death under its wheels, transformed the passengers of a Coney Island surface car into a mad mob which beat into unconsciousness and would have killed the motorman but for the timely arrival of police reserves, who clubbed the infuriated men back to their senses. In the crowd was the father of the victim, who, until order could be restored, was unaware that his son had been killed. When he learned the truth he fainted, and was removed to his home in the care of physicians.

The car, operated by George Decker, was moving through Franklin avenue, Brooklyn, when Edward Kelly, in play, ran out of a side street upon the tracks. The car struck him and he fell in such a position that the wheels severed his head and legs. As the car stopped abruptly its passengers swarmed out about the mangled body. An instant later they dragged the motorman from the platform, threw him on the pavement, and trampled on him. Nearby policemen, unable to check the riot, summoned reserves, who drove back Decker's assailants, and hurried him senseless to a hospital, where he may die.

Captain Terrieau Drowned.

St. John, N.B., April 26.—The schooner Lucy A., of Meteghan, N.S., from Weymouth, N.S., reports that Captain John T. Terrieau, captain and owner of the schooner, was drowned on the passage across the Bay of Fundy. In a heavy blow Wednesday the jib was torn and dragged in the water, making it hard to work the little schooner. Captain Terrieau went out on the jib boom to try to gather up the dragging sail, but a big wave washed him overboard.

Captain Terrieau was 32 years old, and leaves a wife and four children at his home in Meteghan.

STANDARD OIL LOSES PROP.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 26.—The Plain Dealer to-day says: The railways have made a big concession to the independent oil men. The independents will no longer have to pay $105 for the return of an empty tank from the Pacific Coast to a refinery east of the Missouri river. A rate that, it is said, has been a big factor in the success of the Standard Oil Company is withdrawn. The readjustment of rates means that the Standard Oil Company loses an exclusive rate of 78 1-2 cents a hundred from the central freight and trunk line association territories to the western coast.

A Word About Combination Suits for Men.

There are three big arguments why men should wear Combination or Union Suits.

1st Solid Comfort, 2nd Durability, 3rd Economy.

There is yet to be found a man who has given Union Suits a trial that will not speak in praise of its comforts. When wearing Combination Suits there is only one thickness around the abdomen and across the back, whereas with shirts and drawers there are two thicknesses, also the linen waistband on the drawers, which casues discomfort during the hot weather, and then there is no possibility of the drawers slipping down and dragging on the suspenders, nor the shirt slipping up the back to continually torment you.

Come in and we will be pleased to show the different lines to you and point out the advantages of this popular garment.

The lowness of price and the wearing qualities of our goods are already well known.

Our prices are:

FOR BALBRIGGAN... ... ...50c, 75c, 90c, $1.50, $3.00 a suit.
FOR WOOL AND COTTON ... ... $1.75 to $3.75

MANY IMMIGRANTS REACH NEW YORK

It is Expected That the Figures for April Will Exceed 150,000.

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, N.Y., April 26.—If twenty-five liners that are on the way from Europe will reach this port before next Tuesday night, there will have arrived in New York in April more immigrants than there are residents of Denver, Colo., and almost as many as there are men, women and children in Indianapolis, or Rochester.

Already 101,400 immigrants have reached this port this month. Waiting in harbor are 10,496 others who have arrived in the last 24 hours. On the ships that are expected to arrive before the month's end are no less than thirty-five thousand others. It is anticipated that the total arrivals for April will be 150,000.

WINTER SEASON AT PORTLAND.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Portland, Me., April 26.—During the foreign steamship season here just ended, 6,367 immigrants were landed, a gain of 81 per cent. over last year's record. In addition 2,200 cattlemen passed through this port.

CAPTAIN DUNN SCORES.

By Absence of Witnesses Officer Secures Practical Vindication.

Windsor, Ont., April 26.—By the absence of K. S. Inkster and any witness to give evidence in rebuttal, Captain E. Dunn scored a practical vindication of the charges preferred against him by the former officer of the Dominion Government cruiser Vigilant.

The investigation was held at the Council chambers, Walkerville, yesterday. Captain Dunn denied all the charges made by Inkster. The investigation was adjourned indefinitely.

Additional Improvement in Montreal-Ottawa Train Service.

To still further increase the comfort for passengers on the Grand Trunk Railway System between Montreal and Ottawa, the Company are placing in service a series of new buffet parlor cars built specially in their Montreal shops for the through fast trains running between these points. The cars are models of elegance, both in their exterior and interior finish; 81 feet long they contain a parlor with seating capacity for twenty-nine passengers, a smoking room with seats for seven people, and an exceptional large buffet is provided for serving meals in the parlor section of the car.

The inside finish of the car is carried out in a handsome design of mahogany with antique bronze trimmings, while the upholstery is done with green star plush, and the ceiling of the car painted green with gold ornamentation, the result achieved being a happy blending of color and a pleasing harmony throughout. The lighting features are combination fixtures for gas and electricity. Handsome Wilton carpets of choice design cover the parlor and ladies' dressing-room, and rubber-tiling the smoking-room, buffet and passages. The cars are equipped with six-wheeled trucks, Westinghouse high speed brakes, air signals, and other modern appliances. They are the standard Grand Trunk color (bottle green), and weigh 116,300 pounds each.

The first of these cars will be placed in service on Saturday, April 27th.

PENNY MUSIC HALLS CLOSE ON SUNDAYS

Police Committee Decides That Penny-in-the-Slot Entertainments Break Sabbath.

Penny music halls must close on Sundays, at least for part of the day. This the Police Committee decided yesterday.

Among other questions which came before the committee was the difficulty of the cabmen on the stand in front of the Windsor Hotel, and Mr. McGarr, who has a private stand in the vicinity, but uses the hotel as a business headquarters.

It was the opinion that the cabmen had no legal right to stand elsewhere than on the stands specified in the by-law, and that Mr. McGarr and the cabmen who had been in the habit of standing in front of the Windsor Hotel had been doing so simply through the tolerance of the management of the Windsor. Mr. McGarr, however, or any other person, had a perfect right to keep private cabs on his own premises, which then constituted a private stand. He had, however, no right to enter any hotel and solicit custom, although his vehicles might be called for the service of the hotel by telephone or otherwise. This opinion was then put to vote, and carried after much strenuous objection on the part of Ald. Gallery.

The resignation of Capt. Millette was then placed before the committee by Chief Campeau and accepted with regret, Chief Campeau remarking that Capt. Millette had served the city faithfully for twenty-five years, and he was sorry to lose such a reliable officer. Lieut. Herbert, of the Central Police Station, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The question of the right of penny music halls to remain open on Sunday then received attention, Chief Campeau drawing attention to the existence of these halls on St. Lawrence and St. Catherine streets. He referred to the fact that they were open on Sunday, and people going to church disliked passing the places on account of the class of persons frequenting them. It was decided that they should be closed for at least part of the day. A report will be prepared suggesting that provision be made in the new by-law on the observance of Sundays for the closing of penny halls, as suggested by Chief Campeau.

Their announcement on page 11 of this issue of the Star will give particulars of much interest.

QUALITY SHOULD BE CONSIDERATION

Mr. Henri Bourassa, M.P., Lectured at Laval on "Immigration."

THE COMING CANADA

Canada Should Discourage Sending Out of ex-Prisoners and Tramps From Europe.

Before an audience which crowded every available seat and took up considerable standing room in the spacious promotion hall of Laval University, Mr. Henri Bourassa, M. P. for Labelle, last night, delivered an address on "Immigration." At the outset he announced that he desired to treat the question from the point of view of the best interests of the country and would not introduce party politics.' He adhered to this announcement as closely as possible, though he felt bound, by way of illustrating his assertions, to quote largely from official reports. He based most of his conclusions on the reports of Dr. Bryce, chief medical officer of the immigration branch of the Department of the Interior.

Summed briefly, Mr. Bourassa claims that the time has come when Canada should look to the quality of its immigration rather than the quantity; that the sending of ex-prisoners, drunkards, tramps and hooligans from the cities of England should be discouraged and prevented; that the efforts of the department should be directed to getting the best agricultural immigrants and farm laborers as well as skilled labor; that immigration from Belgium and such provinces of France as Brittany, Auvergne and part of Normandy should be further encouraged; that repatriation of the better elements of Canadians in the United States should be encouraged, and that when the young farmers are about to leave their homes in the East, the department should endeavor to direct them to Western Canada, rather than to the United States.

Mr. Bourassa was the only speaker, although Mr. Armand Lavergne, M.P., accompanied him from Ottawa. Hon. P. E. Leblanc, M.L.A., and Mr. J. M. Tellier, M.L.A., were among those who occupied prominent places, while a great number of priests and professional men were to be seen among the audience. At the conclusion of the address the president of the Laval student body proposed a vote of thanks which was heartily adopted. Throughout his address, Mr. Bourassa met with the evident approval of the audience, as manifested by prolonged outbursts of applause, when he scored his several points.

At the outset, Mr. Bourassa declared that after an arduous session he had no intention of inflicting a party political speech on such an audience. Those who had feared that he might do so might calm their apprehensions.

Immigration was a question which deserved all attention. In England, a country with the finest institutions in the world, most solidly established and entrenched, the question of immigration to London was occupying the minds of the most serious men. Taking the other side of the ocean, President Roosevelt, whom no one will characterize as a man easily scared, has been calling attention to the necessity for a still more careful choice of the people to be allowed in.

THE COMING MILLIONS.

If such questions occupy the attention of England and the United States, how much more should Canadians pay attention to it. The proportion of aliens coming into Canada was much greater than that coming to the United States, and if the previsions of the Minister of the Interior are fulfilled, half a million will be coming in in two years.

The lecturer proposed to divide his subject into four points, and consider the social, the economic, the national aspect, and by this he meant Canadian in the broadest sense, and lastly, the French-Canadian view in the more restricted sense.

Taking up the first point, the lecturer pointed out that after the United States had begun to attract large bodies of immigrants, they got the best the old world had to send at that time.

With Canada, on the contrary, the flood of immigration began in force only when the exclusion laws made it more difficult to obtain access to the United States. The conditions in Europe had changed considerably. After the Franco-Prussian war an industrial revival had taken place, and those who came over now, while there were many desirable immigrants among them, did not come up to the standards of the Germans who had come to Pennsylvania and other middle states some decades ago. The economic and agrarian difficulties in Russia, especially in the Southern provinces, sent millions of Jews from those places. A large proportion of these found it impossible to meet the conditions for entrance to the United States and were given admission to Canada. So large had this immigration become that a gentleman closely connected with the administration of the Protestant school board in Montreal, had declared lately to the speaker that if this immigration kept up, the board would soon have more Jewish than Protestant children in the schools of the city. The coming of this class of immigration gave rise to some serious problems.

Mr. Obed Smith, a Government immigration agent in the West, declared quite recently that the Dominion paid bonuses on the majority of these Jewish immigrants as farm settlers or farm laborers, but when they reached Canada they remained in the large cities, where they crowded several families into one small tenement, offering serious danger from the point of view of public health. Dr. Bryce, the chief medical officer of the Dominion, was also quoted to the effect that this practice offered grave danger to the public health of Canada.

The greatest change in the class of immigration of late years was that from the British Isles. In saying this, he wished to be entirely unprejudiced, and for that reason would stick as closely as possible to official documents. He readily agreed that the best possible settlers that could be placed in a British colony were good English, Scotch and Irish farmer folk. There was no denying this. He would go further and declare that the workingmen of England gave the example of the finest organizations ever known in the labor world, their trades' unions being splendid samples of legitimate unionism. But England had its great problems, and one was the depopulation of the country districts and the overcrowding of the cities.

Mr. Henri Bourassa, M.P., who spoke at Laval University last evening on the subject of "Immigration."

But there is the other side of the medal. There are in England hordes of a class of degenerates, weak in body and in mind, loafers and criminals. These are excluded from the United States and from Australia, but they are sent to Canada. The Church Army, an admirable institution from the English point of view, works to reclaim these people. The association has a moral and spiritual side, and it has also an intensely practical side. It tries to make good citizens of them, to educate their children, and succeeds in getting employment for many of them. But there is still a large proportion with which no good can be done. With that practical spirit which characterizes these English associations, the Church Army sends these people to Canada. They can do no good with them at home and as Canada is the only place which will receive them, they are sent there by ship loads. Quoting from the prospectus of the Church Army, the speaker showed that last year the Church Army sent to Canada three thousand persons, made up mainly of ex prisoners, habitual drunkards, unfortunates, loafers, tramps and hooligans, and the Church Army asks that Canada should contribute to send twenty thousand more this year. Dr. Bryce, in his report, points out that many of these are hopelessly immoral and vicious, and declares that the best remedy is to place officials at the point of embarkation to prevent these people from coming over. It is well to practice humanity towards the unfortunate, but it is more humane to keep these people from spending a few pounds to come to Canada if the laws which exist demand that they be deported again.

The immigration of these people is encouraged by the steamship companies which get their passage money, by the Canadian railway companies which get the work of carrying them to the West, and the land speculators who obtain grants of land and sell them at a profit. One of the last named class exclaimed only a few days ago that they wanted to realize their profits and dividends to-day and not wait for the next generation to enjoy them.

HALF A MILLION SOON ON THE WAY.

Last year, 189,074 immigrants came to Canada. The Minister of the Interior says that in two years there will be half a million coming. That means, according to the figures of last census that the immigration of each year to the West will offset twenty counties in Quebec and Ontario, in three years it will offset the whole province of Quebec. No wonder the young men are taking up the question and studying the best way to adjust the country to these conditions.

Taking up the economic and national attitudes of the question as one, Mr. Bourassa declared he did so because among British peoples under the British constitution, economic and national questions were merged. Sentiment alone did not rule the Britisher, but he was a practical man as well. To take up the study of this aspect, it was necessary to view the experience of other countries. The United States had been established largely by English and Scotch, with a small admixture of French, German and Dutch. When immigration came into the cities of the States, new States were carved out, but the founders were practically in every case the native Americans and their descendants, and not the foreign elements. The Irish, of course, took their share in the spreading of the States but they quickly adopted the United States as their own country, because they had come there to escape hated conditions in their own land.

Now the situation geographically of the western portion of Canada is such that it will require to be carefully treated. The great lakes and the chain of mountains establish a barrier between East and West. With people coming in there at the rate of the population of twenty of the old province counties a year, settling on agricultural lands, what chance will the industrial east have to keep the trade of these people who have in the majority of cases nothing in common with the French or English speaking Canadians of to-day. The fact that English, Irish and Scotch predominate, that an effort is being made to create an English Western Canada does not assure British connection. A hundred and twenty-five years is not a long period in the history of the nation. Yet the people of the original 13 states were of English extraction. The ex-convicts, drunkards, tramps and hooligans sent out by the thousand by the Church army have no closer ties to British connection that had the Puritons of New England and the Quakers of Pennsylvania. There might be the same spirit prevailing in some quarters as that displayed by a patriot of Lord Durham's day, who in reply to the governor's reasoning that it was well to treat the French-Canadians broadly, replied "Let Canada be English, even if it ceases to be British." Another point made by those who preached for the exclusion of French elements from the Canadian West was that good settlers were coming in from the United States, Canada should learn from experience. Mexico some years ago invited American farmers to take up land in Mexico. The response was flattering to Mexico. Within ten years, however, these American farmers had anneexd the territory in which they settled to the United States. He did not wish to be an alarmist, but it was well to keep our eyes open and to recognize conditions as they were.

The practical conclusion was that the time had passed when it was necessary to send men to recruit immigrants in European countries. Canada should look rather to quality than to quantity. He touched no party politics, because the same policy had prevailed for thirty years, when he said that the Ministry of the Interior should not be regarded as a colonizing agent for the territory west of Lake Superior alone. Good farmers could come to Eastern Canada and make better homes than they had in old Europe. Here they would be assimilated by the Canadian groups about them and become a strong bulwark for British connection, instead of becoming, perhaps, a menace in the West. The Government should also try to repatriate Canadians who have settled in the United States. He would advise some care in this measure, however, for there were many former Canadians in the United States who would be more undesirable than any importations from any other countries. These people seemed to live only to criticize conditions in their native country, and like all renegades were more to be feared than strangers.

While he did not believe in a policy of depopulating the East for the benefit of the West, he recognized existing conditions. Thousands of young men were dissatisfied with conditions in the East, and were leaving Canada. The Government should bend its efforts to get these young men to go to Western Canada, where they would remain good Canadians, rather than have them go to swell the population of the neighboring States. This applied particularly to French-Canadians, for Mr. Bourassa disagreed with the view expressed by Archbishop Tache that the French-Canadians would not succeed in the West. There were a few, too few. French-Canadian settlements prospering in that great West, and there was room for many more. The French-Canadians have a right to share in that great patrimony, for while they are respectful of the rights of others they wish to preserve their own rights.

FRENCH AND BELGIAN IMMIGRATION.

Taking up as his final point the question of French and Belgian immigration, Mr. Bourassa prefaced it with a declaration that he had never found it necessary to look at Canadian questions from any more restricted point of view than that of all Canada. Two views prevailed as to the relations of the two great races, or rather the two groups speaking different languages. One was that they would fuse and become one in all things, the other that their differences would grow and become wider and deeper. He had no time to waste on considering such propositions. He simply went on the assumption that the two great groups could go along working together in harmony without fusion. The protestations about their growing into one another were mere official hypocrisy.

He recognized the right and duty of the English speaking races to keep this country English speaking, as to the majority, and to attract as many as possible of English speaking people, but he denied their right to exclude desirable immigrants of French or Belgian extraction. The genius of this country seems to reside in its dual population, and the harmonization of the efforts of the two great elements for the greater good. If it is demagogy to favor the continuation of such a policy by favoring the settlement in this country of the most desirable settlers of these elements, then he freely confesses to being a demagogue.

Mr. Bourassa then reviewed the reorganization of the immigration system by Mr. James A. Smart, and W. T. R. Preston. They published advertisements widespread in England and Scotland. They sent fifty-five agriculturists from the West, and the result was good. English and Scotch agriculturists of a desirable class had been attracted, and that was good for the country. He contrasted this with the plan adopted towards France and Belgium. Only small advertisements were offered, yet the reports in the blue books from Belgium showed that not only were Belgian newspapers allowed to publish such advertisements, but the schools of Belgium taught Canadian geography, and the state-owned railways gave reduced rates to emigrants going to Canada. There was nothing in this to justify the claim made that Canadian immigration agents were prevented from working in Belgium. Mr. Bourassa quoted from the reports of the immigration agents in France to show that they had been instructed by the Parliament at Ottawa to go slowly.

Another objection urged against colonization in Canada is that the clergy of the Province of Quebec do not want the modern French people over here. Just as there are Englishmen and Englishmen, just as there are the desirable agricultural and skilled labor elements which all Canadians must rejoice to see coming from England, Ireland and Scotland, there are French and French. There is the France of the sons of Voltaire. These, the lecturer declared, he did not want to see in Canada, yet there are some coming over. But there were in France still the sons of the Crusaders. Brittany, parts of Normandy, Auvergne had thousands of farmers who by frugality and industry eked out a comfortable living, but who on our large farms would speedily become successful citizens. These people were healthy in mind and body, and would make splendid settlers. The religious troubles which had exiled the Catholics to Maryland, the Puritans to New England and the Quakers to Pennsylvania would send the French Catholics to Canada to-day.

Drinking Bout Ends Fatally.

New York, April 26.—An all-night drinking bout in a west side saloon ended in a general fight early yesterday, in which one man was shot to death, another was arrested on a charge of murder, and eight others were held as witnesses. The dead man was Patrick J. McCarthy, a saloon keeper, and the alleged slayer is Frank Cassidy.

HOW TO TELL A HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO

First.—There is no Christian name before the word Heintzman on any of these pianos. If the name is other than simply "Heintzman & Co." it is not one of this old firm's manufacture.

Second.—All genuine Heintzman & Co. pianos have Wessel Nickel & Gross actions. They are the best and most expensive actions made in New York. Insist on seeing the maker's name on the action. No piano maker in Canada makes his own action.

Third.—In all genuine Heintzman & Co. pianos the tuning pins penetrate the iron plates into the wood, which is behind the plate. The wood cannot be seen, being completely covered by the heavy iron plate. This method is used on every piano made by Heintzman & Co., Chickering & Sons, and other first-class makers. If you can see the wooden block where the tuning pins enter it is not a genuine Heintzman & Co. piano.

The genuine Heintzman & Co. piano has been continuously before the public for over 50 years. The second generation of the Heintzman family are still making it.
