TWO CYPRIOTS ARE HANGED

French Pour Forces Into Algeria Battle; Heavy Toll Reported

ALGIERS — (AP) — French troops on both sides of flaming Algeria battled nationalist rebels today in grim retaliation for continuing attacks on European farms and military posts in the North African territory.

Heavy rebel losses were claimed as French forces fanned out in counter-strikes against the raiders, but slashed communication lines hampered any accurate estimate of casualty totals.

Reuters news agency quoted unofficial reports that close to 1,000 rebels have been slain in the battles. The reports told of bitter hand-to-hand clashes with bayonet and knife "in the flickering light of burning farm buildings."

Reuters also quoted reports that a French destroyer opened fire on rebels raiding a coastal army post, and that about 100 insurgents were killed.

The Arab nationalists meanwhile did not let up their own campaign of hit-and-run arson and assassination. Fragmentary reports said at least 14 persons were killed by rebels in attacks on some 46 towns and military stations in eastern Algeria.

In western Algeria, where the rebels opened their concerted offensive Sunday, French authorities said strong counterattacks had taken the lives of at least 200 rebels. Twenty Europeans were reported killed in the original nationalist assaults in that sector.

Stepping up their assaults this week, the rebels poured out of their mountain strongholds to make well-planned strikes with machine-guns, grenades, rifles and crude gasoline bombs.

A French Army communiqué listed 10 clashes Wednesday large enough to be classified as skirmishes, in addition to the main battles along the eastern and western frontiers.

One aerial strike was reported. A French plane cut up a rebel supply column in a series of strafing attacks.

Resident minister Robert Lacoste meanwhile won his appeal to Premier Guy Mollet's cabinet for reinforcements he said should put about 380,000 troops in Algeria by June 1. The French government ordered a contingent of 20,000 reservists called up immediately for Algerian duty, and another 30,000 called up by the end of the month.

Bus Line Ordered To Segregate

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — (AP) — Judge Walter Jones Wednesday ordered Montgomery City Lines to rescind its recent order abolishing racial segregation on city buses.

Granting an injunction requested by the city of Montgomery, Jones directed the bus company and its employees "to comply with and abide by all the provisions of the ordinances of the city of Montgomery and the state of Alabama relating to the seating of white and Negro passengers."

City and state laws require segregation in all public transportation.

Most Negroes are still boycotting the bus lines and those who still patronize the buses have continued to take seats in the rear where they customarily sat.

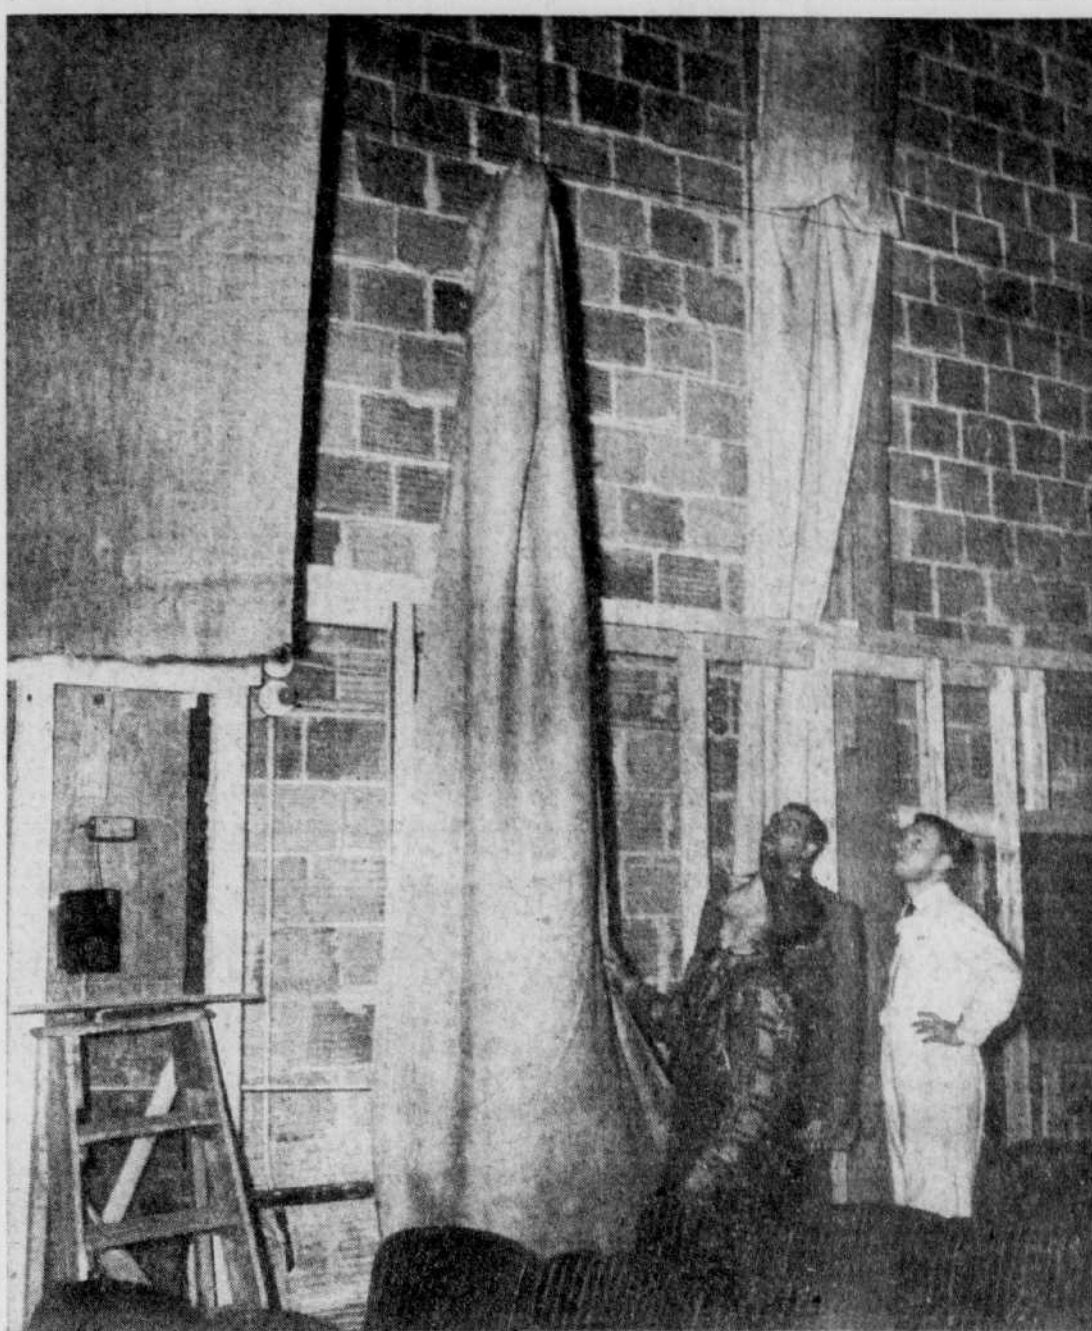

Jones, in a written order, said "there is no straight-cut decision of the Supreme Court of the United States holding that a city or state may not require the separation of the races on buses where carriage of passengers is solely intrastate."

Carrying the denunciation of Stalin too far, Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev was reported to have said in his speech to the 20th congress in February that Stalin ignored Prime Minister Churchill's warnings of the coming German attack, and that such was his faith in Hitler that he at first ordered the troops not to return the German fire.

Red Star's article, one of many in the Soviet press commemorating Tuesday's anniversary of Germany's defeat, said it was intolerable that in exposing the "cult of personality," the role of the party, government and people should be played down.

The military Herald's article "crudely distorts the question of mobilization and the capabilities of our industry," Red Star said. The party and government had calculated long before the war that Fascist Germany would sooner or later attack Russia, and took the necessary steps to repulse aggression.

"Our army and fleet on the eve of the war were provided with types of equipment and arms excellent for that time."

Disappearance Of Frog Man Blows Into British "Scandal"

LONDON — (Reuters) — A "frog man scandal" has blown up into new headline proportions with black-type accusations against the authorities of sending an underwater spy on a "bungling" and "recklessly foolish" probe under a Soviet warship in a British port.

As editorial writers fumed, the opposition Labor party prepared a personal vote of censure against Prime Minister Eden, to be issued in the House of Commons Monday.

The censure vote arose from

Poles Urged To Go Home

TORONTO — (CP) — Polish community leaders said yesterday several thousand Polish-Canadian families have received Communist bulletins urging them to return to their homes behind the Iron Curtain.

They said fear and alarm was spreading among the Polish immigrants, all newcomers, and that they are being watched by agents of the Warsaw government. The federal government was to be asked to investigate the Polish legation in Ottawa.

Editors of Polish-language publications and officials of Polish organizations here said families who had moved to new homes had received bulletins bearing the new addresses less than two weeks later.

Eden's refusal in the House Wednesday — "in the public interest" — to say what Lt.-Cmdr. Lionel Crabb was doing in the vicinity of the Soviet ship, exactly who sent him there, and how he met his death in the operation.

The Russian ship was the cruiser Ordzhonikidze, which brought Premier Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev here for a state visit last month. Crabb's mission took place the day it arrived, April 19, in Portsmouth harbor.

The socialists plan to force a debate on the frog man's presumed death by putting forward a motion seeking a cut in the prime minister's salary — the technical procedure for expressing no confidence.

British newspapers bitterly criticize Eden for keeping silent about the mystery.

The only facts he gave the House were that he and his ministers had not been consulted about the mission and that "appropriate disciplinary steps were being taken."

The prime minister's carefully worded statement, which aroused fresh remarks that the secret service was behind the incident, angered opposition members, who tried unsuccessfully to force an immediate debate.

Ten days after Crabb made his ill-fated dive, the Royal Navy announced that he was "missing, presumed dead." Ever since, newspapers and public have speculated and theorized.

Two main rumors persist: that he was killed or kidnapped by the Russians who found him spying on their naval equipment, or that he was killed accidentally while protecting the cruiser from any attempts by anti-Communist fanatics to attach explosives to his hull.

Naturally!

Commission Receives More Opposing Views

WINNIPEG — (CP) — The royal commission on broadcasting today moved further west after getting conflicting views from advocates of public and private ownership on some aspects of radio and TV operation.

The three-man commission under chairman R. M. Fowler of Montreal left for Regina, where it has one day of hearings today. It began public sessions at Ottawa last week in its inquiry into all phases of broadcasting.

The commission received some diametrically-opposed opinions Wednesday on the question of how broadcasters should be regulated, one of the major points it is dealing with.

The proposal of the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, representing the private operators, for an independent regulatory board got support from the Canadian Legion of Manitoba and northwestern Ontario.

It was opposed by a group of labor unions representing about 60,000 Manitobans, which urged that the CBC be continued in its present position of both operating broadcast facilities and controlling broadcast generally.

During Wednesday's sitting, a suggestion was given by chairman Fowler that areas not now receiving television should receive it before second stations are established in such centres as Winnipeg that already have one station.

Mr. Fowler was commenting on a general demand for organizations here for additional Winnipeg outlets, either privately owned or operated by the CBC.

"There's nothing special," he commented, "about living in Winnipeg, Vancouver or Toronto that should give them an extra choice while some areas don't have TV."

Executions Are Carried Out Despite Appeals, Threats

By ALLAN JACKS

NICOSIA, Cyprus — (AP) — British authorities hanged two 23-year-old Greek Cypriots today for political shootings. The death sentences were carried out at dawn despite international clemency appeals and the threat of bloody rioting on this tense Mediterranean island colony.

Michael Karaolis and Andreas Demetrios went to their deaths behind the closely guarded walls of Nicosia's big central prison. Fellow Greek Cypriots had thronged the island's churches praying for an 11th-hour reprieve which did not come.

Later the government announced that the two bodies had been buried in the prison grounds, a move apparently to avoid a public funeral which might have touched off rioting.

The pair were the first Greek Cypriots executed by the British authorities in a fight against the year-old violence campaign for Enosis — union of Cyprus with Greece. The British-Cypriot fight has cost 92 other lives on Cyprus, including 27 British soldiers and 12 Cypriot policemen.

As the first Enosis fighters to be executed, Karaolis and Demetrios were assured of martyrdom in the eyes of Greek Cypriots and the Greeks. Karaolis was convicted of slaying a Nicosia police constable, Demetrios of shooting a British businessman who recovered.

Fearing a repetition here of the bloody riots which killed at least three persons and injured 142 in Greece yesterday, armed British troops patrolled every island community.

In Athens, news of the executions brought no immediate new violence, but armed security forces stood ready for new trouble. Word flashed through the city after Athens radio broadcast the news on its 7:30 a.m. news bulletin. Barbed-wire barricades already had been thrown around the British embassy, and rolls of wire were ready near American installations for use if needed.

The hangings were carried out after widespread appeals failed to save the men.

Authoritative informants in Washington said State Secretary Dulles of the United States had suggested informally to Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd that postponement of the executions might ease the Cyprus crisis.

Appeals also came from Labor members of Britain's Parliament, Greek officials and churchmen and Cypriot leaders. On the other hand, reliable sources said a number of Cypriot policemen had threatened to quit if the death sentences were not carried out.

Late Meeting May Avert Lake Strike

MONTREAL — (CP) — Seamen and shipping company representatives met with a federal government mediator today amid appeals from western farmers for a last-minute effort to avert a Great Lakes strike scheduled for noon EDT.

Some 2,000 seamen aboard 63 ships operated by two companies involved in the wage dispute were scheduled to walk off their jobs then — 2½ hours after the talks opened.

The united front pledged by the seven-company Association of Lake carriers prompted some predictions that failure to reach a settlement today could tie up 230 vessels strung along the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence river transportation system.

Today's meeting was called following the appointment in Ottawa Wednesday of Montreal lawyer H. Carl Goldenberg as mediator in the wage dispute between the association and the Seafarers' International Union.

Companies against whom a strike has been called are N. M. Paterson and Sons, Ltd., and the Upper Lakes and St. Lawrence Transportation Company.

More than 5,000 seamen are involved in the over-all dispute. Mr. Goldenberg said Wednesday night he was "much encouraged by the spirit of co-operation I have received on both sides."

Meanwhile, the central board of the wheat pool organizations of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba appealed to the disputants and the federal government to "make the effort necessary to avert such a catastrophe."

The board advised Prime Minister St. Laurent that "the action of a few hundred citizens would bring tremendous damage to hundreds of thousands of farm families and to the entire population of Canada."

Bagpipe National Anthem Stirs Heated Controversy

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. — (CP) — Can God Save the Queen be played on the bagpipes?

Absolutely not, says Dr. E. V. Anten who headed a delegation to city council asking for the city brass band instead of a proposed pipe band to play for the opening of the baseball season. He said the kilties would not provide the correct atmosphere.

The Queen certainly can be played on the pipes, said Irish alderman Paddy Neill.

"I say here and now that, in their love for the Queen, the Scots don't take second place to Canadians or anyone else — and God Save the Queen CAN be played on the pipes and has been played on the pipes in Scotland for hundreds of years."

Council deferred action on the proposal and the controversy flowed over into neighboring Fort William where a piping authority declared that God Save the Queen can be played on the bagpipes — but it sounds awful.

Reds Plan Military Reduction

MOSCOW — (AP) — Russia is reported preparing to announce a drastic cutback in conventional arms which may reduce her armed forces to 1,500,000 men and slash her military budget.

High Western diplomats in the Soviet capital predict that the Kremlin will proclaim a decision to cut its armed forces to levels suggested at the recent, stalemated East-West arms talks in London. The cut, they say, would not be conditional on the West joining in.

The Soviet delegates proposed at the London talks that the armed forces of Russia, the United States and Red China be limited to 1,500,000 men each. The Western powers suggested a ceiling of 2,500,000.

Four visiting members of France's Parliament last night said they had been tipped by Foreign Minister Molotov and party chief Nikita Khrushchev that "the Soviet government is at this moment taking a very important decision which will be announced soon."

Western diplomats feel Russia would like to cut her armed forces for other reasons as well as for the propaganda effect.

The present Soviet government, apparently is not as apprehensive of war as was Stalin, who established the present levels. The U. S. state department has estimated that Russia has some 4,500,000 men under arms with 175-225 divisions ready for combat. With advances in atomic development, the Russian leaders probably feel safe in reducing conventional arms.

Her manpower supply sapped by the new five-year industrial plan, Russia urgently needs labor for her farms.

The Russians announced last December that they had reduced their armed forces by 640,000. They acknowledged that the chief purpose for the cut was to increase agricultural output.

Lamont Gets Into Canada For Speech

TORONTO — (CP) — Corlis Lamont, leftist United States writer, said Wednesday night the U.S. is leading the way in suppressing freedom of speech in the Western world.

He told 200 persons in a special civil liberties address that congressional investigating committees have run wild in violating the constitutional rights of individuals and groups in the U.S.

"Led by such men as McCarthy, Eastland and Dies, they have neglected their real functions and have become public prosecutors and in general do everything congressional committees should not do."

The slogan of such committees now was "conform or lose your job."

Mr. Lamont, a Columbia University philosophy professor, was delayed at the Canadian border for 24 hours Tuesday, when he was denied entry "because of what were called connections with Communist-front organizations."

He was given permission Wednesday to enter Canada. He drove to Toronto in time to make the second of two speeches he had been scheduled to deliver.

Immigration Minister Pickersgill said in the House of Commons Wednesday he suspects Mr. Lamont deliberately created the border difficulties as part of a plot to embarrass Canada.

Mr. Lamont described Mr. Pickersgill's remark as "the most ridiculous statement I've heard."

Russian Army Newspaper Raps Indictment Of Stalin

MOSCOW. — (Reuters) — The Russian defence ministry newspaper Red Star Wednesday denied recent assertions here that Stalin was unprepared when Germany attacked Russia in the Second World War.

Nor was unpreparedness a cause of early Russian retreats, Red Star added.

Such allegations, made in the Military Herald last month, were termed "incorrect and harmful."

Stalin was not mentioned in the article, which filled half a page and was unsigned.

Observers said this probably more authoritative view was an application of a new Communist party line designed to prevent

Government Aid Ending

Maple syrup producers in the Eastern Townships are renowned for the amount and quality of this succulent aliment they produce every year. Next year, they may find the cost of producing will increase, for the Federal aid they received for purchasing aluminium sap pails may be withdrawn.

Our ancestors collected the sugary sap in soldered metal pails, boiled it in iron pots, and stored the syrup in wooden barrels.

In 1951, the metal pails our ancestors had used for ages without misgiving, or mishap, were condemned to be replaced by aluminium containers; a big advantage for the manufacturers of aluminium pails. Since that time, over seventeen million of the old cans have been replaced, but there still remains over five million more in the hands of syrup makers.

Dr. Pierre Gauthier has repeatedly asked the Federal government to continue their aid for another two years, but Ottawa has turned a deaf ear. It may be interested in wheat, or butter, but not in syrup.

Support Home Industry

Why do we prefer foreign goods to Canadian merchandise? Machinery, clothes, or anything else manufactured by Canadians, are as good, if not better than material made in other countries.

Some alien articles may seem cheaper, but saving one cent on quantity to lose two cents on quality is poor business. The grass may look greener on the other side of the fence, but it isn't.

In March, our exports decreased to $333,000,000, while our imports shattered all records, rising to $466,000,000. This means we are boosting the business of strangers and neglecting our own.

It is not a question of spending more than we earn, but of spending it in the wrong places. Spending much of this money in Canada would provide more employment and prosperity for Canadians.

The greater part of all this money spent outside Canada is centered in the U.S. Canadian deficit in U.S. trade in March was more than doubled.

Americans are our good neighbors and friends. They are a great bunch of people, but Charity begins at home. Support home industry.

Now It's A Suppresley Club

A Toronto columnist has joined the anti-Elvis Presley campaign with a vengeance. He calls a club of which he is president, the Elvis Suppresley Club and he and the teen-age followers of this Rock 'n Roll exponent are closed in bitter battle.

Ignoring this apparent adult intolerance for a teen-age fad, it seems to us that Mr. Presley should be paying for all this wonderful publicity. The Halifax radio station which stirred a hornet's nest by banning his records should come in for its share too.

Then there are the many papers like The Record — which keep the ball rolling (or Rock 'n Roll if you prefer). Guess we should get a cut, too.

It all adds up to wonderful publicity for this young man who has skyrocketed to fame in a manner than only seems to happen in the United States. Too bad for Mr. Presley that such a campaign wasn't started in his own country. He'd be a multi-millionaire in a few weeks with this kind of publicity behind him.

He may soon become one, anyway.

BYGONE DAYS

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From the Record of Monday, May 10, 1926.

The solution of the British general strike appears as far off as ever, the most important weekend development being the conveying by armored cars of a large food shipment to the London distributing centre.

Commander Richard E. Byrd has returned to Spitzbergen after making the round-trip to the North Pole by airplane in fifteen hours. He was accompanied by Floyd Bennett, as mechanic. Eight other expeditions are seeking similar trips.

Damage in excess of twenty thousand dollars was caused when fire destroyed several houses, barns and sheds in Upper Melbourn. Lack of water hampered the fire-fighters. Among those taking part in a program sponsored by the East Ward Junior Red Cross were: Mrs. J. Rosenbloom, Mrs. Schwartz, Mrs. O. G. Lewis, Mrs. G. Stevenson, Miss Alice Wilson, Miss Moe, Miss Woodward and Miss Francis.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record of Friday, May 10, 1946.

Two men have confessed stealing Mussolini's body, telling police they would disclose its whereabouts on the promise that the body would be re-buried in the Mussolini family plot at Predappio, the prefect of Milan said yesterday.

Three of four British Army prisoners who escaped from the Canadian detention barracks here Wednesday night were recaptured today in London, army authorities announced. Search for the fourth continues.

The House of Commons learned yesterday that the government is considering the possibility of continuing to send beef to Britain for the next three or four years instead of returning to the U.S. market, vacated in 1942 when differentials threatened to disturb the Canadian meat supply.

NO VICTORY ASSURED

(Winnipeg Free Press)

We are reaching the point, if it has not already been reached, where weapons are deterrents only. They no longer carry a promise of victory in a war between the great powers. One side or other may hold the edge but its hold is precarious and transient. The arms race is a race to nowhere.

For the first time in the world's history, the precondition of disarmament has been achieved with the enforced recognition by both sides that the deadly and costly duel of the armament makers is an exercise in futility.

IRONY OF IT

"THE YEARS MAY HAVE TAKEN THEIR TOLL, BUT I'M STILL THE MOST BEAUTIFUL"

FAILURE OF A MISSION

(New York Times)

These were the ten days that shook the Russians. Premier Bulganin and Communist party leader Khrushchev embark for home from England sadder and wiser men. For the first time in a series of visits to foreign countries the two "travelling salesmen" failed. This time the Russians blundered, and it will always be a source of wonder why they did or how they could. Nothing happened in Britain that should have been surprising. The British public was not cordial and did not demonstrate any enthusiasm over the Russian visit, but how could they or why should they have?

The Russians should have been prepared for firmness and bluntness in an atmosphere of correct and polite welcome.

SAFETY PLAY CUTS LOSSES

The only problem in today's hand is how to handle the trumps. The situation is rather common and will repay careful study.

If you make the "normal" play of taking the ace of spades and then finessing the jack, you'll lose two trump tricks. That will be the end of you, since you must also lose two diamonds.

How should you protect yourself against Q-10-x-x in either the East or the West hand?

There is a standard safety play for this situation. Take the first trump trick with the king. Next lead a low trump towards the A-9.

If West plays the ten or queen, you can go up with dummy's ace and return the nine. You have no further problems.

If West plays a small trump at the second trick, your correct play is to finesse dummy's nine! You won't mind losing that trick, because that means the trumps break 3-2, and dummy's ace will clear up the trump suit on the next round. And, of course, you don't mind a bit if dummy's nine wins the trick—since only this safety finesse protected you from the loss of two trump tricks.

How does all this help you if there are four trumps in the East hand? When that is the case, West will be unable to play a trump on the second round. If

Churchill Mellowing To Anti-Stalin Russia

AACHEN, West Germany — (Reuters) — Sir Winston Churchill said today that if Soviet Russia is sincere in repudiating the policies of Stalin, she should be allowed to take her part in a truly unified Europe.

But he warned that in the meantime there should be no relaxation in the efforts of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which he described as "a striking product and expression of a world weary of war, determined to build its own organization in such strength and power that there will be peace henceforward."

Britain's wartime leader was paying his first visit to Germany since 1945, when he witnessed her defeat.

He warned against attempts to settle the question of German reunification by violence.

"We should be rash and blame-worthy were we to attempt to solve the problem of European unity, of which German reunification is a vital part, by any violent stroke."

"We must avoid violence. The only unity there might be then

Senate Approves New Toll Bridge At Trois-Rivieres

OTTAWA — (CP) — The Senate yesterday approved in principle legislation to permit construction of a $12,500,000 toll bridge across the St. Lawrence River near the city of Trois-Rivieres, Que. The measure now goes to a Senate committee for further study.

Senator Jean-Marie Des-sureault (L-Quebec) said the bill he is sponsoring will permit construction of the bridge by La Corporation du Pont de Trois-Rivieres, a non-profit corporation set up by act of the Quebec legislature Feb. 2. A federal act was necessary because the bridge would cross a navigable waterway, under federal jurisdiction.

Place Of X-Ray In Hospital Told To Magog Lions

MAGOG — (Special) — The importance of X-ray in general hospital was described by Dr. John Silny, radiologist at the Sherbrooke Hospital, guest speaker at a Magog Lions' Club ladies night, at the Chateau du Lac last evening. Dr. Silny outlined the importance of radiology in treating patients and said that although this was a relatively new science, it had become more exacting and was playing a most important role in modern medical practices.

"The cost of X-rays is high," Dr. Silny said, noting that in the Sherbrooke Hospital the original outlay for X-ray equipment was $83,000 not counting special construction and wiring which brought the cost up to $94,000. He stated modern X-ray equipment must be changed every ten years if hospitals were to keep pace with modern developments. The minimum staff required to run an X-ray laboratory is four persons.

It is important that an X-ray laboratory be run on a strict schedule and that patients be given an explanation as to what is to be accomplished by X-ray treatment.

Wendell Breese introduced Dr. Silny, and A. E. Smith thanked him.

A drawing was held for the ladies and prizes were won by Mrs. Gordon Shaw, Mrs. Robert E. White and Mrs. Nick Pomy. President Gordon Shaw said there may be some change in plans for the joint meeting at Knowlton on May 23 and each member would be advised in advance as to where the club would gather.

Lt. Col. B. D. Lyon Elected Sherbrooke Hospital Head

Lt.-Col. B. D. Lyon was elected president of the Sherbrooke Hospital succeeding Colin L. Campbell at the annual meeting and H. E. Grundy, Q.C., was named vice-president.

Other officers elected at this meeting were: Honorary president, D. J. Salls; honorary vice-presidents, J. Gordon Armitage, Harold F. Baldwin, Colin L. Campbell, J. Keith Edwards, G. Blair Gordon, W. Miller Hall, A. A. Munster, R. C. McMichael, J. C. Senator Jacob Nicol, M.L.C., J. R. Sangster and Mrs. Austin Scott; executive committee, J. Guy Bryant, Colin Campbell, Lorne Campbell, H. A. Clark, H. E. Grundy, Evans Joslin, B. D. Lyon, John MacLeod, P. M. Robins and Dr. T. J. Wells, the latter being also chairman of the medical staff; vice-chairman, medical staff, Dr. A. A. Dougan; secretary medical staff, Dr. J. R. D. Bayne. New members of the Associate and Courtesy medical staffs include Dr. J. R. D. Bayne, Dr. Jacques Bourque, Dr. R. Kimoff and Dr. R. L. Taylor.

The retiring president, Mr. Campbell, reported a reduction of $30,000 in the 1955 deficit as compared with the previous year but pointed out the extreme seriousness of the hospital's cash position and urged all those interested in the continuance of good medical care to support the forthcoming financial campaign. He commented on the wonderful work being accomplished by the various voluntary groups, such as the Sherbrooke Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary, the Carry-on Club, the Lennoxville Wing, and also spoke of the incubator which had been donated to the hospital by the Sherbrooke Lions Club.

H. C. Allnutt, the administrator, reported 3,382 admissions during 1955 as compared with 3,498 during 1954. Total days of patient care amounted to 33,699, a drop from the 34,313 registered in 1954.

The average stay of the patients was 10 days, an increase from 1954 when the average was 9.7 and the percentage of occupancy during the year was 66.4 as compared with 67.6 in 1954. Births during the year amounted to 470 and deaths, excluding stillbirths, 135. Out-patient visits numbered 4,387 and 1,714 operations were performed. The cost per patient day showed an increase of 57 cents as compared with one of $2.04 for the previous year. A somewhat better collection experience was reported and the hope was expressed that the public would understand the pressing need for prompt payment of hospital accounts.

The report of the Director of Nursing, Miss Clara Aitkenhead, reflected the increasing interest in the school of nursing and due tribute was paid to the work of the recruitment committee sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary. The staff had remained relatively stable and it had been possible to maintain proper standards of nursing care.

The report of the Ladies' Auxiliary included a summary of the activities of the various committees and wings. Lennoxville reported a membership of 50 active and 23 associate members. Amongst their projects were a bridge and garden party. Others included a bursary supplying volunteers, a cash donation to the Christmas tea and equipment for the physiotherapy department. Waterville supplied 500 wool goliwogs for the Tag Days volunteers, jam and hand-knitted articles for sale in the Hospitality Shop, run by the Auxiliary.

Windsor Mills reported a membership of 71, who work on articles for sale in the Shop. Two card parties were also held for the purpose of raising funds. A major and special project was the donation of a waiting-room on the third floor of the hospital in memory of the late Mrs. Harley, past-president.

C. R. Darby

Noted Resident Of Derby Line Died Wednesday

DERBY LINE, Vt. — C. R. Darby, a highly respected and prominent citizen of the Boundary, passed away last night at the Mary Fletcher Hospital in Burlington, Vt., where he had been a patient for the past several weeks.

Mr. Darby was born in Sherbrooke, Que., on December 7, 1894, the son of Reading W. Darby and his wife, Lizzie Robinson. Phillips Electrical Co. Ltd. has announced plans to expand its Brockville plant by 35% and add to its other facilities. Total cost of the expansion is expected to be approximately $7,500,000.

Canadian passenger car production for April was up 10.6% at 47,414 units from 42,866 units in April 1955. This compares with the previous record set in May 1955 of 46,339 units. Total car truck production was also up 9.3% at 59,004 units as compared with the April 1955 figures of 53,983 units. The Canadian performance is opposite to that of the U.S. auto industry which is experimenting mid year sales troubles and is cutting into production schedules substantially.

For the first quarter of 1956 the International Paper Co. Ltd. reports new high levels in sales and profits. Company reports a net profit of $2,143,021 or $1.94 per share in comparison with $18,284,439 or $1.66 per common share for the same period last year. The company also reports that record production and sales have been maintained to date in the second quarter.

Theatre Group Paying Visit To Brae Manor

Brae Manor Summer Theatre at Knowlton is to be the locale of an all-day program organized as part of the Theatre Conference taking place during the week of the Dominion Drama Festival Finals in Sherbrooke.

Date selected for the visit to Brae Manor is Thursday, May 17th, when participants in the Conference will travel by chartered bus to Knowlton, some 45 miles distant.

The morning is to be devoted to a conducted tour of the well-equipped Playhouse with its costume rooms, workshops and dressing rooms.

Following a luncheon which will be served in the residence normally used to house the acting company during the season, the Conference will move back to the Playhouse where Herbert Whittaker, Drama Critic of the Toronto Globe and Mail, will deliver the main address, speaking on various aspects of summer theatre in Canada. A question and answer period will follow. The party will then return to Sherbrooke in time for dinner and the evening performance of the Festival.

FESTIVAL

Assistant stage manager, who he will be joined by Eugene Jousse, Festival stage manager, Friday.

Sets being shipped by the eight participating groups will start arriving today. Many of the larger properties required for the festival will be borrowed from local stores and private homes in the district and they are now being rounded up by Harry Blue, chairman of the Properties Committee.

For those who like drama and suspense, "Darkness at Noon" and "Riverline" will satisfy the most demanding minds and tickets for these two performances are still available. "Angel Street," being performed by the Charlottetown Little Theatre Guild is a mystery thriller and will be staged Wednesday afternoon.

Feature of the week-long festival will be the presentation of the Calvert Trophy and other awards Saturday night, when His Excellency the Governor General will make the major presentation.

After each performance Mme. Rosay will give a public adjudication from the stage which will last approximately 20 minutes.

Marriages

POIRIER - BLAIS

DERBY LINE, Vt. — St. Edward's Church, Derby Line, was the scene of a pretty spring wedding on Saturday morning, May 5, at half past nine o'clock, when Doris Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Blais of Derby Line became the bride of Mr. Gerald E. Poirier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poirier of Orleans, Vermont.

Rev. Father Armand Fortin, parish priest was celebrant at the Nuptial Mass and officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Gerald Blais, brother of the bride and Mr. Norbert Blais, the bride's cousin served at the Mass. Spring flowers were used to decorate.

Mr. Conrad Haselton, as soloist sang "Ave Maria", "Mother at your feet is kneeling" and "Divin Maitre des Cieux", with Miss Bernadette Fortin presiding at the organ console.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of nylon net and rose point lace over satin. The full skirt of net ended in a chapel train, and the lace bodice featured a yoke embroidered with sequins and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip length veil of tulle edged with matching lace fell from a pearl trimmed coronet, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of roses.

Miss Sylvia Blais, as maid of honor for her sister was in a ballerina length gown of blue nylon net over satin, the sleeveless bodice being topped with a matching bolero.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Joseph Blais, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Fournier, sister of the groom wore pink gowns styled identically to that of the maid of

Tired Of Asking, 'What's Thawing For Dinner, Dear?'

By RUTH MILLETT

A man who reads this column, obviously weary of being served food that comes from the grocer's either ready for the table or needing only to be mixed with a little water and popped into the oven, has come up with a suggestion.

He thinks somebody ought to write a cookbook called the "Do-It-Yourself Cookbook." In it he wants included no new ways of using ready mixes and other such short cuts. Instead, he wants just good, old-fashioned recipes that set a cook to beating eggs, measuring flour and peeling apples.

honor with matching hair bandeaus and carried cascade bouquets of toning carnations.

Miss Therese Fournier as flower girl, wore a gown of pink nylon with a matching flower head-dress and carried a miniature Colonial bouquet of carnations.

Mr. Peter Poirier acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Joseph Blais and Mr. Richard Fournier. Master Daniel Blais, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

Mrs. Blais, the bride's mother was attired in a gray spun rayon gown with which she wore white accessories.

Mrs. Poirier, mother of the groom was in a gown of gray crepe and she wore pink accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow gladioli.

The wedding luncheon was held in the Municipal Hall in Orleans, and was followed by an evening reception in the Newport Centre Town Hall. The four-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Ben Blais.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Poirier left on their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a charcoal gray suit with pink and black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the Sacred Heart High School of Newport, Vt. The groom is a graduate of Orleans School and recently received honorable discharge from the U.S. army during which time he served one year in Germany. On his return he purchased a farm in Irasburg where he and his wife will reside.

Relatives and friends attending the wedding were from New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Quebec and surrounding points in the Eastern Townships and Vermont.

BEDFORD—

Mr. George Hamel, of Burlington, Vt., and Mr. Lawrence Chapell, of Milton, Vt., were recent visitors of the former's uncle, Mr. Henry Bouchard.

Says he, "The way most wives have been presenting their husbands with do-it-yourself fix-it and paint-it books I'm sure the poor men would see that the 'do-it-yourself' cookbook would be a best seller."

"Home cooked foods are cheaper and better than anything mass-mixed and who has more time to work on them than the modern housewife with all the gadgets in her kitchen?"

How about it, men? Are you really getting fed up with biscuits that come out of a tube instead of off a floured board? With cookies that are merely sliced and baked instead of being stirred up in a mixing bowl? With cakes that come out of a box, covered with icing that comes out of a can?

Do you really want to go back to the days of "what's cooking for dinner?" instead of "what's thawing?"

If so drop a line to this column. But if you are perfectly satisfied with today's tendency toward quick cooking because you'd rather have your wife out of the kitchen than in it, let's hear your point of view, too.

A later column will reveal whether the majority of husbands who write in are in favor of "do-it-yourself" cooking or "heat-and-serve."

It's so easy—and so sure! Just lay BonDEX Hot Iron Tape or Fabric over the rip—press with a hot iron for 5 or 10 seconds. That's all! Holds fast through washings. Mends firmly, many uses. Jenn Patches and Rug Binding Tape also available! BonDEX means the highest quality you can get and it's approved by Good Housekeeping Magazine. BonDEX saves you time and money. At notion counters everywhere, in a variety of popular colors, fabrics and sizes!

I Wish Every Child . . . could know the joy of owning a Ragdole! Ours gives us endless pleasure—he's so perky and gay. He's flying free now . . . and alights on my finger when I say "Ride!" . . . We've been going over the names so many of you sent in . . . searching for the right one! I'd still like to have more ideas to choose from. So let's hear from you. We've got to decide—soon! Please send your suggestions to me at Confidentially Yours, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal.

What Kind Of A Story do your hands tell about you? Dish-Pan Dredge or Lovely Lady? I'm not suggesting that you stop washing dishes but I do suggest that you try the beauty-magic of PLAYTEX LIVING GLOVES. What a difference they made to my hands in only 9 days! You see, lotions and creams merely attempt to replace natural oils lost from using cleansers, bleaches, detergents. But Playtex Living Gloves preserve those natural oils. Try them! You get high-styling, non-slip tread, extra-long cuffs and the comfort of stretchable, fabric lined, waterproof latex—all for $1.49. I know you'll love Playtex Living Gloves!

"The Eyes Of Home!" . . . that's what a friend calls her windows—Keep yours beautiful and sparkling clean always with WINDEX. You can do it so easily. Just . . . Swish! Spray it on. Wipe it off. . . and there's your glass—cleaner than it's ever been. I'll wager! When you use the wonder-working Windex—there's no hardship on your hands . . . no dust on the sills or in the corners . . . no waxy film left on the glass. It's really wonderful for all glass surfaces! Inexpensive too—Buy the handy 6-oz. size with the sprayer—then get the economical 20 oz. refill size at drug, grocery and hardware stores everywhere!

This Lady Earned $10 . . . for her favorite cheese recipe using a BORDEN CHEESE. Each week Borden's pays $10 for the best cheese recipe—going today to Mrs. D. Kinnaird of Lac Beauport, Quebec, for this delicious recipe.

SPAGHETTI CHEESE LOAF
2 cups broken spaghetti
1 clove garlic (or garlic powder)
1 1/2 pound pkg. Borden's Chateau Cheese
1 1/2 cups milk
2 eggs, beaten
3/4 tsp. salt
1 1/4 cup minced parsley
1 tbsp. grated onion

Roll spaghetti with garlic in salted water until tender. Remove garlic; drain and rinse spaghetti. Place milk and Chateau Cheese (cut in about 4 pieces) in top of double boiler and heat until cheese melts; add to eggs. Add salt, parsley, onion and spaghetti; blend thoroughly. Place in buttered loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven at 350° for one hour, serve 6.

Now—send your favorite cheese recipe to me at Confidentially Yours, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal—and perhaps you, too, will win $10! But hurry!

Had Fun Last Night—and a minor triumph! Some young people came to dinner, unexpectedly—hungry as bears! I whipped up a couple of Strawberry Cream Pies with Royal Instant Puddings . . . then beamed with pleasure at their enjoyment! Do try these remarkable ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS yourself—for puddings or pies—for parfaits, frostings and frozen desserts. They're so creamy and smooth . . . because Royal Puddings are all super-homogenized. Just mix with milk for one minute . . . no long wait to cool and set . . . no stirring over a hot stove—just perfection every time!

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY Mrs. Dan Barker (MOTHER OF 5)

Best ounce of prevention against those new-mother blues we hear so much about, is a well-planned "conservation program" to get back your strength. A well-rested mother is a better mother, both from the standpoint of vitality and disposition. Secret of staying off fatigue is to rest before you're plumb tuckered out. A coffee break now and then—a cat nap while baby naps—or a leisurely tub will so revitalize you that a chore won't seem a bore, and you'll accomplish twice as much.

Off to a solid start. Chances are the first spoon-fed food recommended for your new baby will be cereal. You'll find Gerber Five Cereal Variety a big help for those first tries with solid food. . . . Rice, Barley, Oatmeal, Wheat and Mixed Cereal make it easy to introduce cereal variety to baby. Gerber Cereals are notable for bland but distinctive flavors—all five are pre-cooked and fortified with iron, calcium and B-vitamins.

2 blanket rules. (1) New receiving blankets can be easily de-fuzzed if you rinse 'em 2 or 3 times before using. (2) When buying crib blankets, get two in the same color. When baby graduates to a larger bed, stitch the two together.

Early addition to the infant diet—orange juice—for the vitamin C so vital to sound gums and body tissues. Gerber Strained Orange Juice is made from tree-ripened fruit, selected for high vitamin-C content, mild flavor and appealing color. Careful pasteurization insures purity. Gerber-Ogilvie Baby Foods, Limited, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Mrs. Rupert Joyce Elected President Of Compton County Women's Institute

BURY—The 43rd annual meeting of the Quebec Women's Institute for Compton County met at the Bury town hall, with 95 members registering from the eight branches.

The president, Mrs. V. Hurley, in opening the meeting observed a minute's silence in memory of departed members.

Miss L. Palmer, president of Bury W.I. gave the address of welcome and Mrs. L. Waldron, East Clifton replied.

Mrs. Hurley introduced Mrs. Harvey, 1st provincial vice-president and Mrs. G. Parsons, provincial convener of home economics.

The minutes of the last annual and semi-annual meetings were read. The reports from the standing committees showed a busy year with many projects completed, and contributions to community and social organizations.

One of the most interesting county projects has been the Hon. C. D. French Memorial Bursary. Mrs. G. Halliday reported that the goal which had been set for $3,000 has been met, due to the generosity of the French family and donations from the branches. This money has been invested in bonds.

Mrs. F. Robinson asked that some revisions be made in the Book of Memory and space left for the names of the bursary winners.

It was decided to continue with the calendar project for another year. Each branch to send two pictures with a short write up to Miss L. Palmer, Bury, or Mrs. J. French, Cookshire, all pictures to be sent in by September.

Mrs. F. Robinson gave a short talk on the Canadian National Institute of the Blind. Clothing for the Save the Children Fund and for the Cecil Memorial Home was on display. The Bury W.I. is to look after packing and shipping this clothing.

Plans were made to have an antique exhibit at Cookshire Fair to be in charge of the education and publicity conveners of the branches and county. The same booth will be used as last year and Cookshire W.I. will look after the decorating.

Musical selections were enjoyed by Mrs. A. Sutherland and Mrs. C. Kendall accompanied by Mrs. K. Hodgins.

At the afternoon session Miss Palmer read the minutes of the first meeting which was held 43 years ago with Mrs. Kirby as president.

Mrs. Harvey brought greetings from the provincial executive, and touched on many phases of the W.I. work. She stressed that delegates be sent to the leadership course May 28—June 1. The provincial convention will be held at Macdonald College June 25—28 when it is expected that the international president, Mrs. Berry will be present for one day. Mrs. Harvey urged the members to keep after the pasteurization of milk.

Work is to be continued on the project, help for mentally retarded children. She spoke of the urgent need for more mental hospitals and mentioned the Protestant Women's Jail in Montreal, speaking on Civil Defence. Mrs. Harvey stated it is the concern of every one, but the municipal authorities have to take the lead. We need to know what to do in case of emergency.

Mrs. Harvey will represent the Quebec W.I. at the A.C.W.W. convention at Ceylon in December. She mentioned a few of the highlights that are being planned for the trip. Mrs. G. Parsons thanked Mrs. Harvey for her most interesting address.

The county president, thanked the members for their support, and Mrs. Harvey took the chair for the nomination and installation of officers.

The slate of officers presented by Mrs. F. Mayhew are as follows:

President, Mrs. Rupert Joyce; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Philip Boy; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Ronald Learned; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Wells Coates.

Conveners: Agriculture, Mrs. Ernest Bennett; education, Mrs. W. MacLeod; home economics, Mrs. F. Robinson; citizenship, Mrs. S. Coates; welfare and health, Mrs. L. Waldron; publicity, Mrs. J. D. Harrison.

Mrs. Joyce took the chair for the remainder of the meeting. The semi-annual meeting will be held at East Clifton in the fall.

WEST KEITH—

Mr. and Mrs. M. MacLeay of Lennoxville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Stickles and family, of East Angus, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Dougherty.

Mrs. W. Buchanan, accompanied by Mrs. E. Morrison, of Bury, spent a few days in Littleton, N.H., where they attended the Assembly meeting of the Rebekahs.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grey of Dunnville, Ont., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berwick. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Grey and son, David, of Sherbrooke.

The Scotch Road Farm Forum closed the season with a turkey supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Dougherty, when 18 members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Peleman and family were visitors at the home of Mr. Starnie Stronach in Sawyerville.

Films Shown At Spooner Pond Institute Meeting

SPOONER POND—The regular meeting of the Spooner Pond Branch of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. R. Harrison, Melbourne, with Mrs. H. Vignault as assisting hostess.

The president, Mrs. V. Beattie, was in the chair. The minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, and the treasurer, Mrs. F. Wintle, gave the financial report.

Mrs. L. Pye reported that $23.61 had been realized from the recently held rummage sale. Mr. MacDonald, agronomist, showed three interesting films and was thanked by Mrs. L. Pye. Mrs. L. Pye also acted as auctioneer for the sale of slips of plants which were brought in at the meeting.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Mastine, Trenholm, on June 14.

CROSSBURY—

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Barter when a number of neighbours gathered for a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sylvester. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester have sold their farm here and have purchased a home in Bury. Cards were played at five tables. Mr. Barter presented the guests of honor with a hotplate and ash tray, after which lunch was served.

Members of the community are pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sylvester and family to the neighbourhood.

Messrs. Murdo McKinnon and Prescott Walker, of Adderley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker, of Bury, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Bailey.

45 KING ST. WEST — SHERBROOKE

Week-Long Drama Festival Opens Here Monday Night

Best 8 Of 55 Plays Vie For Top Award

It's only a matter of days now until the curtain will ring up on the first presentation of the Dominion Drama Festival, Molier's "Les Fourberies de Scapin." Monday night, May 14th, is the Festival's gala premiere and the "Cercle Molier" of St. Boniface, Manitoba has the honor of being the first of eight groups to compete for the Calvert trophy.

Sherbrooke citizens are being offered the unusual opportunity of seeing some fine theatre work without having to travel to a large metropolis. Out of 55 plays given in regional festivals across Canada, the eight best as chosen by Miss Pamela Sterling, regional adjudicator, will be presented at six evening and two matinee performances in St. Charles Auditorium.

Following the final performance on Saturday night, May 19, the prizes will be awarded to the groups and players judged best by adjudicator Madame Francoise Rosay. Governor-General Vincent Massey will present the Calvert Trophy and cash award to the winning play at this time.

The variety of plays being brought to Sherbrooke is shown by the following plot summaries:

Monday, May 14, at 8:30 p.m.: the "Cercle Molier" of St. Boniface, Man., presents "Les Fourberies de Scapin" (The Rogues of Scapin) by Molier.

Scapin, who is employed as a valet, is a rogue always up to some kind of skulduggery. His master has fallen in love with the beautiful sister of a friend who has secretly married a beautiful but penniless girl whose parents are unknown. When the respective fathers of the young men return from a visit, their two young sons realize they are in serious trouble and being worried and short of money they turn to Scapin for help. The one father intends to annul his son's marriage, the other refuses to allow his son to marry the girl of his choice. Scapin, with great trickery creates a number of amusing situations which result in the lovers being reunited and the valet pardoned for his knavery. Le Cercle Molier won four awards in this year's Manitoba Regional Festival.

Tuesday, May 15, at 8:30 p.m.: The "Vancouver Little Theatre Association" of Vancouver, B.C., presents "Darkness At Noon" by Kingsley.

Based on the famous novel by Arthur Koestler, it tells the story of a Soviet Commissar with considerable power in the party who is jailed for deviations from the party line. His two serious errors were failing in love with his secretary and expressing his views at the wrong time. The play depicts his torment and frustration when incarcerated in a cell where in tensely dramatic sequences other prisoners communicate with him through a system of tapping on the walls. Following a series of ludicrously unjust trials he is executed. The New York Herald Tribune's critic referred to the original production of the play as brilliant anti-Communist propaganda.

The Vancouver Little Theatre Association won three awards in this year's British Columbia Regional Festival.

Wednesday, May 16, at 2:00 p.m.: "The Little Theatre Guild" of Charlottetown, P.E.I., presents "Annel Street" by Patrick Hamilton.

This play has been produced for the cinema under the title of "Gaslight." A thrilling psychological drama, it is the story of a young wife and the mystery of her murdered relatives, her handsome husband and his efforts to convince his wife that she is going out of her mind. Of course, as the play is set in England there's a tenacious detective from Scotland Yard who finally solves the mystery.

"I must admit quite frankly that at times a lump came into my throat as I watched and listened . . . could not have been more dramatic or more powerful."—Pamela Sterling, regional adjudicator. The Little Theatre Guild won four awards in the P.E.I. Regional Festival.

Wednesday, May 16 at 8:30 p.m.: The "London Little Theatre" of London, Ont., presents "Mrs. McThing" by Mary Ellen Chase.

This play is a fascinating story of witchcraft in this modern day and age. Spells are cast upon a rich and snobbish widow and her spoiled son and although their mortal selves remain in their earthly life, part of their personalities are spirited away to a fantasy land where they take up life in a Shantytown Pool Hall lunchroom and meet a delightful group of gangsters with such typical names as Dirty Joe, Stinker and Poison Eddie Schellenbach. Mrs. McThing is at first an ugly witch but when the rich widow and her son return from the half world to their own home in a repentant frame of mind, Mrs. McThing assumes the form of a beautiful "Teach Me How To Cry" — A play written by Canadian Patricia Joudry, will be staged here Thursday, May 17, by the University Alumnae Dramatic Club of Toronto, as part of the Dominion Drama Festival Finals. The above shows the Henderson Family. Left, is Mrs. Henderson, played by Edith Orde Tuff; centre, Will Henderson, portrayed by Les Lawrence and Mr. Henderson, played by Hugh Watson. The play received its professional premier in the Theatre de Lys in New York just one year ago. Miss Joudry's play tells of a lonely and spiritually tormented small town girl who is brought out of her shell by a boy who has learned to live with his own insecurity. It is particularly remarkable for its staging as it is presented on a tri-level stage with no lowering of the curtain between scenes or acts. The University Alumnae Dramatic Club entry in the Central Ontario Regional Festival won five awards.

Woman. This is almost a modern morality play written with great charm and humor.

Thursday, May 17 at 8:30 p.m.: The "University Alumnae Dramatic Club" of Toronto, Ont., presents "Teach Me How To Cry" a Canadian play by Patricia Joudry.

This play received its professional premiere in the little Theatre de Lys in New York just one year ago. Miss Joudry's play, which tells of a lonely and spiritually tormented small town girl who is brought out of her shell by a boy who has learned to live with his own insecurity is particularly remarkable for its staging as it is presented on a tri-level stage and with no lowering of the curtain between scenes or acts.

"I have found in this play a great deal of poetry, sadness and nostalgia. One is always nostalgic about one's childhood, whether it was a happy one or not."—Pamela Sterling, regional adjudicator. The University Alumnae Dramatic Club entry in the Central Ontario Regional Festival won five awards.

Friday, May 18 at 8:30 p.m.: The "Calgary Workshop 14 Association" of Calgary, Alta., presents "The Riverline" by Charles Morgan.

It is a stirring dramatic story of the French underground's system of helping members of the allied forces to return to their own countries to fight again. The play opens in 1947 in an English country home and then through a series of flash back scenes takes one back to 1943 in France. The Riverline is the name given to the chain of underground stations or receiving points through which the escaping allied service men are shepherded to freedom. To tell the story in any great detail would detract from the show. It is sufficient to say that it is full of the courage and discipline of a people in a conflict with the forces of occupation, threaded with humor and romance.

Saturday, May 19 at 2:00 p.m.: The "Ottawa Little Theatre" of Ottawa, Ont., presents "The Importance Of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde.

This is one of the best known of modern comedies. The plot is basically one of mistaken identity and includes the invention of a mythical character by a young man who wishes to shelve his own problems and shortcomings on someone else. It is full of amusing situations, romance and color.

Saturday, May 19 at 8:30 p.m.: La "Compagnie de Montreal" of Montreal, Que., presents "Les Insolites" a Canadian play by Jacques Languiand.

The action of this satirical drama takes place in a bar where several young men discover that they have been in love with the same woman.

This group won five awards in the Western Quebec Regional Festival.

Stanstead Operetta — Above is a scene on the stage of the Haskell Opera House at the Boundary, when the Stanstead College Dramatic Club scored a success with its presentation of Arthur A. Penn's operetta, "The King's Courtship." The beautifully painted scenery provides a fine background for the players in their colorful costumes. In front is the College Orchestra under the direction of S. S. W. Lynch, seated at the piano.

Excellent Performance By College Dramatic Club

STANSTEAD — A delightful two-act operetta, "The King's Courtship," by Arthur A. Penn, was presented at the Haskell Opera House by the Stanstead College Dramatic Club before a large and appreciative audience. The scenery was beautifully painted, representing a setting in the mythical Kingdom of Japonica. The king, who is old and ugly, has searched his kingdom over for a bride. His search finally leads him to Cherry Rose, but she has no desire to become his queen for she is interested in a fine looking young aviator who has visited the village.

However, Cherry Rose's mother, the Mayress of Takahama, feels it would be a great honor if Cherry Rose were to marry the king. The story unfolds with many complications before the finale, when Cherry Rose marries her aviator and the king marries the mother.

The cast included Mons Q, the aviator, Guy Genest; Cherry Rose, Carolyn Barker; the mayoress Takahama, Georgia Copland; Marigold, her niece, Priscilla Clarke; Tong, the court jester, whose tricks were a delight to the audience, Charles Johnston; Zingo, Master of the Hounds, Duncan MacFarlane; Kalores, Master of the Recipes, Allan Wilkins; Kerocino, Master of the Cookstove, Ben Gray; Margotte, the Royal Housekeeper, Elizabeth Webster; Arreschu, Chief of Police, David Houghton; His Majesty, the King of Japonica, Brian Taylor.

Supporting the players was a chorus of several voices, with the following: The policemen and huntsmen, E. Bisson, O. Bigott, G. Carter, I. Greenshields, W. Ross and P. Smith; men and women of the village were J. Houghton, D. Birch, J. Bonn, O. Lemon, A. Rotherham, P. Curtis, D. Foster, M. Lewis, J. Setlakwe, S. Marwick, K. Blachford, M. Davis, I. Bernec, J.

Way, B. White, R. Moss, J. Silverster, E. Philip, M. Rice, E. Daniel, H. Ramsey, A. Probyn and J. Cass.

The cast and chorus presented an excellent performance. The leading ladies, Miss Georgia Copland and Miss Carolyn Barker were each presented with a bouquet of flowers.

The various committee chairmen were Peter Farwell, stage manager; Miss Georgia Copland, costumes; Miss Betty Ann Colt, makeup; Miss Beverly White, props; R. Broadway, business and tickets; Owen Wheelock, lights. Each chairman was assisted by other members of the club.

The scene was painted by D. Birch, B. Taylor, J. Stewart, D. Foster and A. Wilkins.

SAWYERVILLE—

Mr. and Mrs. Steffano and son, of Lennoxville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Kendall.

Mrs. Ed. Baker, of Cookshire, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Ward.

Mr. Gordon Hunt, of Quebec City, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hunt.

Mrs. Nina Bailey has returned home after spending a few days in Lennoxville.

Baseball Nomad Charlie Maxwell May Have Found Home With Tigers At Last; Indians Stop Yanks; Red Sox Win

Charlie Maxwell, a 29-year-old nomad, has been in professional baseball since 1947 and he has yet to spend as much as two complete seasons with one team.

He has been in and out of the majors three times and has played with five different minor league clubs. But it's just possible that he finally has found himself a home with the Detroit Tigers.

A muscular left-handed swinger, Maxwell was tabbed for utility duty before the season started. Jim Delsing and Chick King were the left field platooners. But now King has departed, Delsing hasn't produced and as of today Maxwell is practically in full charge of left field.

His two-run homer in Wednesday night's 7-3 decision over the Washington Senators didn't hurt any. Neither did his two homers Tuesday. He has hit six' all told and is batting .377, third in the American League.

The Tigers still are in the league basement, but they are beginning to show some life. Al Kaline chipped in with another two-run homer and Frank House contributed a bases-loaded triple.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Cleveland Indians finally stopped the New York Yankees 6-5; the Red Sox crushed the Kansas City A's 7-5 and the Baltimore Orioles 4-0 behind Art Ditmar's seven-hitter.

Only two games were played in the National League. Tom Poholsky whitewashed the Philadelphia Phillies for the St. Louis Cardinals 3-0 and the Cincinnati Redlegs edged the New York Giants 6-5.

Needles Arrives For Preakness In Good Condition

BALTIMORE. —(AP)—A well-known committee of 100, including several school children, greeted Needles upon his arrival today from Kentucky for the May 19, Preakness at Pimlico.

The Kentucky Derby winner showed no concern while being transferred from a railroad car to a truck for transportation to the track.

"He shipped a lot better than I did," reported the colt's groom, Joe Rutter. "To me it was a long trip. He just kept nibbling hay and oats and even seemed to enjoy the trip."

Needle is due to have his first gallop on Pimlico's track tomorrow. The runner-up to him in the Derby, Fabius, had arrived earlier. Also coming in today from the Kentucky classic were fourth place Count Chic, seventh place No Regrets, and 14th place Besomer.

The Chicago-Brooklyn and Milwaukee-Pittsburgh games were rained out. For the Braves, the postponement marked their 8th in the last two weeks.

If nothing else, the manner in which the Yanks dropped their game to the Indians proved Casey Stengel's men were human.

With the score tied, 5-5, and one out in the ninth inning, Chico Carrasquel lifted a routine fly to centre field. Mickey Mantle parked under it, but the ball bounced out of his glove.

The Tribe shortstop moved to second on an infield out, then went all the way home when relief pitcher Tom Morgan made a bad throw to first.

The Red Sox' victory pulled them within 2½ games of the Yanks, a half-game ahead of the Indians. The triumph was their sixth in their last seven games.

Dave Sisler protected a two-run lead when he came on in the eighth inning with one out and the bases loaded with Pale Hose. He threw just five pitches, fanning Nellie Fox and getting Minnie Miñoso on a fly.

Kansas City jumped into fifth place by its victory over Baltimore and in the process broke two streaks. It shattered the Orioles' four-game skid, and administered the season's first defeat to Jim Wilson, after the veteran righthander had won three.

Poholsky now has hurled three brilliant games in a row for the Cards. In crushing the Phillies, he was nicked for only four hits. He struck out five, didn't walk a man and now has permitted just 14 hits and one run in 26 innings. His record reads 3-0.

Reliever Bud Freeman was credited with the Cincinnati victory over the Giants, when the Redlegs pushed across two runs in the seventh inning to go ahead to stay. Joe Nuxhall, the Redlegs' No. 1 pitcher last year, failed to go the route. He has yet to win a game.

Doug Ford May Have Tough Job At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS. —(AP)—Doug Ford of Klamath Lake, N.Y., is certain to have a tough time defending his title in the $25,000 St. Louis Open which started today but it is foolhardy trying to pick the man to beat him.

Top pros are shooting for the $5,000 first prize and some of them have been "hot" lately. Gene Littler, who seems to have shaken the slump which hit him after his blazing start last year, is one.

Some of the others are Jack Burke Jr. the Masters champion; Ted Kroll who won at Tucson and Houston; Julius Boros leading money winner last year, and Tommy Bolt, who has been controlling his hot temper and finishing high in the money.

Kid Howard And Hayden Clash In Halifax Tonight

HALIFAX. —(CP)—Richard (Kid) Howard, lightweight boxing champion of Canada and Jackie Hayden, Maritime lightweight champ, will square off here Thursday in a 10-round non-title bout.

Howard, 26, of Halifax will be making his first appearance since he decided Orlando Zulueta of Cuba Oct. 17. He expects to weigh in under 140.

Hayden, 23, of Westville, N.S., will be making his second appearance in Halifax. He defeated Dexter Connors, now fighting out of Montreal, for the Maritime championship, left vacant when Howard became Canadian champ. He is rated second lightweight in Canada.

Master Your Game...No. 2

Vardon Grip Is Model

By JACKIE BURKE

There never was a good golfer with a poor grip. No grip, no game. I use and advocate the overlapping method of holding the club, referred to as the Vardon grip. As I point out in my book, "The Natural Way to Better Golf" (Hanover House), there are as many variations as there are types of hands — perhaps 50. Nevertheless, there is only one Vardon grip as such. Learn it, and from it fashion your own.

The Vardon grip places the club under the authority of the fingers without sacrificing the needed power of the hands. The club is held in the last three fingers of the left hand and the first finger and thumb of the right. These hook on and around the right in a manner that ensures it being held the same way at the top of the swing as at the bottom.

The shaft lies across both the fingers and the palm, diagonal to the knuckles. The key fingers — last three of left and first two of right — are hooked into the club firmly and comfortably. The little fingers of the right hand settle into the groove established by the index and middle fingers of the left. The left thumb settles into the cup of the right palm. The right thumb rides above and parallel to the left thumb. Thus the hands overlap. The wrists should be arched, not bent, as they would be if the club had been whipped overhead like a fly rod.

The easiest way to make sure the palms are opposing one another is to check the position of the V's formed by the thumbs and index fingers. When the hands have been placed comfortably on the shaft, these V's should be parallel to each other.

Without examining your hands, it would be presumptuous of me to lay down a law for the direction of the V's. They should point somewhere between the head and right shoulder. (NEA)

Sugar Ray Objects To California Rule On Gloves But Promoter Thinks He Will Be Around Despite Protests

LOS ANGELES. —(AP)—World middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson issued hot words of disfavor on the California rule which dictates that he and Bobo Olson must wear eight ounce gloves in their championship fight at Wrigley Field on the evening of May 18.

There was even talk of a walk-out from the champ's managers, Ernie Braca and George Gainford, unless the rule is changed.

But Jack Leonard, who is promoting the 15-round, nationally televised match for the Hollywood Legion stadium, took the news calmly.

Puffing quietly on a large cigar, Leonard predicted: "This makes good reading but I am of the firm opinion Robinson will be in the ring a week from Friday. He likes money, too."

The rule says fighters weighing over 147 pounds must use eight ounce gloves. It would take an act of the legislature to change it. The legislature is not about to call a special session on the matter.

"The Marquis of Queensbury rules state that all championship fights be fought with six ounce gloves. We will go by those rules."

So said Gainford, utterly ignoring the fact that the Marquis was not even a registered voter in California.

Katie Fiorella Scores Two Aces On Same Day

DENVER, Colo. —(AP)—Mrs. Katie Fiorella scored a hole-in-one on the 158-yard No. 10 hole at Willis Case golf course Wednesday morning.

Then, playing in a foursome that included her husband, she returned for an afternoon round and dropped another hole-in-one, this time on the 158-yard No. 4 hole.

Don Stewart To Compete In Meet At Modesto, Calif.

DALLAS. —(AP)—Don Stewart, Southern Methodist freshman who has high jumped 6 feet 10¼ inches, accepted today to compete in the Modesto, Calif., relays May 26. He will participate as an unattached entry.

Stewart cannot represent the Southwest Conference because freshmen are limited to only five meets a year and the fifth event will be the freshman track and field championship meet at Fayetteville Friday and Saturday.

Wallace Will Fight Barton In London

MONTREAL. —(AP)—Harry Sheppard, Montreal boxing promoter and fight manager, said Wednesday two Canadian professional light heavyweights will fight in London, Eng. June 9.

Gordon Wallace of Brantford, Ont., will fight Ron Barton of London for the British Empire light heavyweight title.

Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., Canadian light heavyweight champion will fight Arthur Howard of London on the same card.

The boxers will fly to London about June 10, Sheppard said.

Event Sanctioned By Quebec Branch Of AAU; Five Classes To Be Run; Deadline For Entries Sat, May 19

The 14th Eastern Townships Track and Field Meet sponsored by the Sherbrooke Y's Men's Club will be held Saturday, May 26, announced Ken Strew and Jeff Wilson, co-chairmen of the annual event.

The meet will be divided into five classes this year and is sanctioned by the Quebec Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada. This is the first time that the meet will be run according to the regulations laid down by the senior track and field body of Canada.

The classes are, Pee Wee, Bantam, Midget, Juvenile and Senior and the ages are the same as laid down by the AAU. The Pee Wee is a new one added and the main reason is to help to develop youngsters. It will comprise all boys under 12 years of age and four events, the 50-yard, broad jump, 220-yard relay and high jump, are listed.

The other classes are the Bantam, 14 years and under, Midget, 16 and under, Juvenile, 18 and under, and the Senior for all under 20 years of age. The closing date for the entries is Saturday May 19. All entries post-marked later than the deadline will not be accepted.

Ken Jackson will act as field marshal and will be assisted by Gordon (Beef) Ross while the other members of the club will occupy the various positions for the day. All entrants are asked to report at the field house at 8:30 in order that they may be checked and secure their numbers for the day.

Fourteen schools with a grand total of 400 entries from the 201 contestants set a new record last year for the annual event and it is hoped that this may be increased. The net proceeds from the meet are used towards financing the Y's Men's Camp at Shore Acres, Little Lake and also to help send underprivileged children to the summer camps.

100,000 Fans On Hand As England, Paced By 41-Year-Old Stan Matthews, Downs Brazil 4-2 At Wembley Stadium

WEMBLEY, England. —(AP)—England, revitalized by the return of right wing Stanley Matthews, 41-year-old maestro of English soccer, defeated Brazil 4-2 in an international match before 100,000 fans in Wembley Stadium yesterday.

Matthews, who was brought back to the English international lineup after a disappointing draw with Scotland, had a hand in four goals.

In upsetting the favored Brazilians, England took a 2-0 lead in the first half, saw the visitors tie the score in the second half, then went on to win with two more goals.

Brazil had good, close passing but lacked a sharpshooter and never reached the standard of soccer sports writers had expected. Most had picked South Americans, winners of five out of six exhibitions on the continent, to win this one. But England was easily the better team.

Matthews, the veteran Blackpool star, helped set up the first goal in the second minute with a square pass to inside forward Johnny Haynes, (Fulham) who relayed to centre forward Tommy Taylor (Manchester United). Taylor scored from eight yards with a shot that the Brazilian goalie couldn't touch.

Two minutes later, Matthews got the ball inside his own half, tricked the Brazilian left winger and slipped the ball inside for fullback Jeff Hall (Birmingham City). He whipped it through to Taylor who relayed to left wing Colin Grainger (Sheffield United). Grainger scored from six yards.

England went ahead 3-2 in the 75th minute, Taylor heading in a pass from Matthews. Grainger made it 4-2 in the 85th minute, also heading in a Matthews pass.

There was speculation that this might have been Matthews' last international. However, he was non-committal in remarks after the game.

"Everybody talks at the end of each season that this will be the one when I shall hang up my boots. But I shall be back again for Blackpool next season. International soccer? Well, we shall see."

British sports writers, however, think today's match was his last for England. He will not be on England's team for games against Sweden, Finland and Germany later this month. He is going to South America to play in exhibition matches.

Nashua Stands Chance Of Being Top Money Horse

CAMDEN, N.J. —(AP)—Nashua has a good chance to become the richest race horse of all time on May 19. All that's necessary is a victory in the Camden Handicap at Garden State Park.

Track President Eugene Mori announced yesterday that a spokesman for the syndicate that owns Nashua said the four-year-old will run in the $30,000-added Camden.

Nashua's victory last Saturday in the Grey Lag Handicap at Jamaica boosted his lifetime earning to $1,077,615, just $8,145 short of Citation's all-time record.

Riding In Derby No Different

CAMDEN, N.J. — (AP) — Willie Hartack, the sensational jockey from Black Lick, Pa., says that to his surprise riding in the Kentucky Derby was no different from any other race.

"I thought I might feel a little bit differently in the derby, but when it came post-time it became just another race as far as I was concerned," Hartack said here today.

The nation's leading jockey a year ago currently is booting them home at Garden State park. He expects to finish out the meeting here and then move to Chicago where he'll probably do the bulk of the riding for the Calumet Farm.

Hartack, who said his one real problem at Louisville last weekend was finding transportation back to Garden State, came within three parts of a length of grabbing the gold and glory that goes with a Kentucky Derby winner. The 23-year-old Pennsylvanian was aboard Fabius, the Calumet thoroughbred who was beaten in the stretch at Churchill Downs by the fast closing Needles.

Commenting on the Derby, Hartack said he had no excuses for himself or Fabius. "I knew my instructions. Fabius was ready and I expected no trouble. We carried out our strategy but the best horse won."

Hartack says he's placed the Derby among his memorable events and now is concentrating on daily riding assignments. His ability to forget a race once it is over is one of the reasons Hartack has been able to become tops in his business in little more than three years of racing.

Willie, who accepted his first mount in October, 1952, is considered a good judge of pace and as a result gets the most out of any horse he takes out of the starting gate.

Archie Moore To Train For His World Light Heavyweight Title Within Shadows Of Windsor Castle

LONDON — (AP) — Archie Moore will train for his world light heavyweight title fight at Windsor, gambling ground for British royalty and a place that proved unlucky for another American champion.

The 39-year-old Negro — Born in Benoit, Miss., according to his mother, but in Collinsville, Ill., according to Archie — will be close neighbors with Queen Elizabeth II.

The Queen, who has never been known to go near a prize fight, occupies for much of the year the Royal apartments in grey-stoned old Windsor Castle.

Archie, who has never seen royalty, will occupy the "Star and Garter" hotel and use its gymnasium as he prepares to fight Yolande Pompey June 5 in London's Harringay Arena.

There is always the possibility the queen and Archie will put in at the small Thames River town 25 miles from London.

He plans to do most of this roadwork on Windsor's "long walk," a mile-long, tree-fringed dirt roadway running from Windsor Castle into the English countryside.

The queen often takes a ride or a walk on the "long walk."

The town of Windsor and the Star and Garter Hotel proved a prelude to disaster for Sugar Ray Robinson when he trained there or at least spent several weeks there — before his 1951 world middleweight title fight against Randy Turpin.

Turpin outpointed Robinson in one of the biggest upsets in 25 years.

Like Turpin, Pompey is the underdog. The puncher from Trinidad will train quietly in London and if he wins the upset will outrank Turpin's.

Moore and Manager Charley Johnston selected Windsor after looking over, or hearing reports on several gyms in London and holiday camps in Brighton and Saltdean on the South Coast and Clacton-on-Sea on the East Coast.

Moore said he picked Windsor because "of those bracing breezes at the coast spots." Apparently he does not think they are good for reducers.

To help lose nearly 25 pounds before reaching the 175 pound light heavyweight limit, Archie said he needed "65 degree weather" to help melt down.

He spent three fast rounds of shadowboxing today and put in a short spell on the light and heavy bags in a London gym. The Moore entourage of four leaves for Windsor early tomorrow morning and Moore said he would start "full scale work right away."

Moore got an offer today to work out with Ron Barton, British light heavyweight champion who until recently was considered a top flight prospect in a few years from the world title.

Barton has gotten married, made a little money and a lot of new friends and now sports around London in a big and colorful American car. His boxing ability has shown little improvement.

Suchak Out To Redeem Himself In Sulphur Open

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — (AP) — Mike Suchak, 29 years old today and on top of golf's dollar world, started his second try this morning for the White Sulphur Open title which he "blew" last year three holes from the end.

Suchak went into the 72-hole tournament against 40 other pros fresh from Sunday's victory in the Colonial at Fort Worth. It was his second first place of the year and gave him total earnings of $12,559.43 so far in tournaments sponsored by the Professional Golfers Association.

Suchak represented the best of the so-called younger element in the game teeing off this morning against an old guard contingent led by Sam Snead, Ed Pork Oliver, Vic Ghezzi, Johnny Revolta, Henry Picard, Lou Worsham, Skip Alexander, and Craig Wood.

Master Boxing Plan Calls For Elimination

NEW YORK — (AP) — The master plan calls for Floyd Patterson to box Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson June 8 with the winner fighting Archie Moore for the vacant heavyweight title in September.

The Patterson-Jackson match was signed Wednesday for Madison Square Garden as part of the usual Friday night radio-television series.

Unless something startling pops out of the other elimination bouts around the country, the Patterson-Jackson winner probably will go against Moore in the fall. Of course, Archie still has his June 5 date in London where he must defend his light heavyweight title against Yolande Pompey.

It remains to be seen how the various boxing commissions will react as the tournament progresses. Perhaps New York may see fit to recognize one champion and the National Boxing Association another.

For months people have been asking about Patterson "who did he ever beat?" The answer had to be "not much." Patterson could do nothing but listen and burn up inside. Now that the match has been made, he has an out.

A fellow who sought out Patterson as he stood with his back against the wall in the commission office, found him willing to talk. His manager, Gus d'Amato, was busy with the contract details.

"People have been talking about me," Patterson said. "How I never fought a ranked heavyweight. If I win this fight, they can't talk like that anymore."

"I'm really sorry Rocky Marciano quit. So many people wanted me to fight him, it would have been more like a real championship instead of a tournament."

What did he think of Jackson, his old friend?

"We used to be good friends," he said. "Even trained together some. But not when I get inside that ring. It ought to be a good fight. He has an aggravating style but I think with my tactics I might be able to outmaneuver him."

Dick Gernett Turns Into Top Red Sox Slugger

BOSTON — (AP) — Dick Gernett, playing an unfamiliar position and confronted with a minor league future, has become Boston's top slugger as the Red Sox' left field stand-in for ailing Ted Williams.

The 26-year-old Reading, Pa., righthander was strictly a first baseman until spring training this year.

But veteran Mickey Vernon arrived in a trade with Washington to add his celebrated talents to those of Norm Zaichin at first.

What could Gernett do to avoid an impending trip back to the minors from where he'd been called last September?

Dick, apparently recovered from a strength-sapping illness, asked manager Mike Higgins this spring to give him a chance as an outfielder. Boston had six fine outfielders but only two of them were righthanded batters. Here's where Gernett gambled — and won.

In the second game of the season Williams came up with a painful sore spot on the instep of his right foot.

Gernett got the nod in left and in the ensuing 14 games he's compiled a .343 batting average and leads the team with five home runs and 11 runs batted in.

While saving his major league status, Gernett so far has answered Higgins' prayers for more righthanded power hitting.

"I'm still following the theory that if I'm swinging, I might hit one," Gernett says. "Swing, swing, swing, that's what I'm doing."

"I'm not doing anything much different from what I used to."

Bob Baker Slashes Way To Convincing Win Over Holman

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — The heavyweight title picture was slightly less clouded today after Bob Baker's slashing victory over John Holman, but what will happen next appears to be anybody's guess.

Baker, the Pittsburgh giant, pounded out a unanimous decision over Holman, the slow-motion Chicago boxer, Wednesday night in a tournament to determine the successor to the retired heavyweight champion, Rocky Marciano.

Later, Baker's manager, Dusty Bettor, said he had a promise from the International Boxing Club that his fighter would be matched in the second round of the eliminations with the winner of a Floyd Patterson-Hurricane Jackson bout scheduled for June 8 in Madison Square Garden.

Reports from New York, however, indicated that the Patterson-Jackson winner might meet Archie Moore for the championship. If it accomplished nothing else, Wednesday night's fight eased the traffic jam of title contenders by eliminating Holman.

Bleeding heavily from a cut over the left eye, Holman was almost a pathetic figure as he plodded after Baker in the late rounds, trying to land a blow that could overcome Baker's mounting margin of superiority.

By far the better boxer, Baker gashed Holman's eye in the sixth round and kept the wound open by pumping in a steady succession of jolting rights and lefts to the sluggish Holman's face.

Referee Jimmy Peerless gave Baker the fight, 119-114, under a point system that awards 10 to the winner of each round and nine or less to the loser. Judge Ed Thal voted it 117-114, judge Stu Winston 117-112, and The Associated Press 118-113.

Baker weighed 211 pounds, Holman 206.
