Funeral held for Maj.-Gen. Price

(Record Reporters)

KNOWLTON — Flags were at half-mast here Wednesday, in preparation for the funeral of the late Major-General Charles Basil Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D.C.D., who was accorded full military honors by officers and men of the Royal Montreal Regiment.

The coffin was draped with the Canadian Ensign bearing his cap, medals and legion decorations, and a sword was placed in front of the chancel of St. Paul's Anglican Church before noon.

Rector David Stanway

conducted the regular Anglican funeral service with a brief sermonette on the resurrection, and two hymns were sung.

Honorary pall bearers conducted the casket to the door of the church. They included: Brigadier-General V.G. Whitehead, Colonels C.J. Pratt, R.C.P., Lawson, Pearson, T.J. Kennedy and Lieutenant-Colonels R. Schweb and Tan Cauty, all former commanding officers of the regiment. Lieutenant-Colonel R.A. Corbett, the present commanding officer of the R.M.R.'s attended the service.

Enlisted men and non-commissioned officers bore the coffin from the church to a gun carriage for his final voyage. Insignia bearer was Captain S. Riopelle, Legion medal bearer was Herve Gagne, a past president of Branch 23, Knowlton.

The motorized cortege made its way to the crowded cemetery where the band had formed. Graveside prayers were said and the band played the Last Post and Reveille. The ensign, cap and medal were then presented to family members.

Brigadier-General J.J. Dunn, C.D., commanding officer of the East Sector represented the commanding officer of Mobile Command, Colonel J.G.D. Dechastelaine, Commander of the Canadian Forces, Montreal, attended, as did Brigadier-General J.A. Delanne, representing the president of the Royal Canadian Legion, Dominion of Canada. Provincial Command President Bill Knights was also present.

Family members included daughter, Mrs. A.A. (Marjorie) Hugman of Vancouver B.C., Mrs. J. (Helen) Perodeau, of Sydney, British Columbia, Mrs. D. (Ann) Steele and Mrs. J. (Jill) Robinson, both of London, England, and Major Jack Price, Knowlton. Mrs. Price, the former Marjorie M. Trenholme, did not attend due to ill health.

St. Paul's was completely filled as friends and neighbors of all ages from Knowlton paid their last respects to their soldier, businessman and politician friend of the past 23 years.

Arrangements were handled by C.E. Wilson and Son Ltd., of Knowlton.

General Price joined the militia at the age of 15 and ultimately commanded the third Canadian Division during World War Two. He later directed the Canadian Red Cross in Europe. Wounded three times during the first World War, he was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal and given a field promotion to the rank of Major at Ypres.

He was instrumental in obtaining important benefits for veterans when he served as Dominion president of the Royal Canadian Legion after World War Two.

General Price served in Westmount as an alderman and was nearly elected to parliament in the 1945 election. He was also President and General Manager of Elmhurst Dairies.

General Price, who was 85 when he died Saturday, was predeceased by his son, Lieutenant Lyle, who was killed in action during World War Two.

Somber skies prevailed contributing to the sorrow as one of Knowlton's best-loved citizens was shown his final military and civilian honors.

poned indefinitely for Montreal Island."

He said the directive received Thursday from the education department differed from one received Tuesday, which indicated the tests, scheduled for this week and next week, had been abandoned all over Quebec province.

"There is not even a hint whether the education department may or may not eventually abandon the tests altogether," Mr. Lavery said.

Rev. John Simms, chairman of the Protestant school board of Greater Montreal said: "I've had no official confirmation about the tests from the education department, but with the generally unanimous disapproval of the tests how could they go on?"

Air service better but mails tied up by strike

Canadian mail service was tied up by extensions of strikes Thursday but air service was aided by an end to some of the selective strikes of federal blue-collar workers, members of the Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC). Government and union negotiators talked at Ottawa a second day behind a news blackout scheduled to end today.

Mountains of mail piled up for the fourth day in Toronto, which handles about half the letters posted in Canada, as a union spokesman said that 220 postal maintenance workers would extend their strike. The spokesman earlier this week said the workers would be off the job until midnight Thursday night.

Snow removal and runway maintenance workers were back at Toronto International Airport at midnight Thursday night. Air Canada had resumed almost normal operations earlier in the day on the one runway kept open by employees designated essential.

Michael Lyons, PSAC regional representative in Toronto, said the union would decide on the next move for postal workers after the news blackout ends. He said he hoped talks would continue today with union members and postal officials in an attempt to find ways for delivering government social welfare cheques.

Plans for cheques

Postmaster-General Bryce Mackasey said in the Commons Thursday that if strikes spread and hold up mail processing, pension cheques would be available at Unemployment Insurance Commission offices. In the case of disabled pensioners, the government might ask service clubs to deliver cheques, he said.

Efforts to kill fail

FORT CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — Some two million birds have survived the United States Army's best efforts to freeze them to death.

Thousands of birds—grackles, starlings and others—perched atop ice-covered pine trees Thursday while an estimated half-a-million others lay frozen to death on the ground. Hundreds of half-dead birds covered with ice flopped helplessly in the foul-smelling underbrush.

Fight ends in murder

MAGOG (RH) — An 18 year old Sherbrooke girl, Jacqueline Caron of Papineau St., was shot to death near here yesterday, apparently after a fight with a member of the Cyclone Motorcycle Club. Police are holding Fernand Belanger of Deauville in connection with the murder.

Magog Coroner Jean Beaudry said that the crime occurred around 8 a.m. yesterday morning near Crystal Lake, following an argument between Caron and Belanger. Beaudry added that according to Belanger, the man went off accidentally while the two were struggling for possession of the firearm. Caron was fatally wounded in the head. It was not known if she had been raped, but Beaudry said that the body had been sent to Montreal for further tests. There were no other witnesses to the crime.

Thatcher installed

LONDON (Reuter) — Britain's opposition Conservatives formally installed Margaret Thatcher as their first female leader Thursday and heard her pledge to block "the path to a socialist state."

The installation ceremony set the seal on 49-year-old Mrs. Thatcher's victory last week over four male rivals in a parliamentary election to choose a new party head.

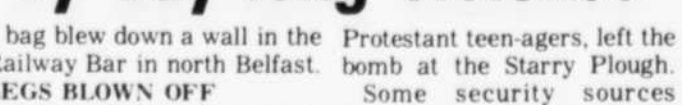

Conservative elder Lord Hailsham ceremonially proposed her for the job. He told party members: "It will be Margaret's task, with her flair for incisive speaking and powerful turn of phrase, to unite the party in a fierce determination to expose current errors."

Q. My employer sent me a T4 slip showing the amount of tuition fees he paid on my behalf last year. Do I have to report this on my return?

A. Yes, but if you attended a qualified educational institution, you should be entitled to claim tuition fees to offset it. Be sure to submit a proper receipt for tuition when making this claim.

Q. Last year my wife attended university for eight months. She did not earn any income and did not receive an allowance of any kind. Does this mean I can claim the education deduction on her behalf?

A. Yes, under these circumstances, you would be entitled to an education deduction of $400.

Q. I was a student at the university from September until the end of December, a period of four months. However, I did not start classes until the middle of September. May I claim the education deduction of $50.00 a month even though I did not attend for the whole month of September?

A. Yes, as long as you attended the institution for at least one day in a month, you would qualify for the $50.00 education deduction for that month.

Q. I am a full-time university student and have obtained temporary employment some 200 miles away. I am required to pay my own travel expenses to get to this temporary job. Can I deduct this expense from income I earn during the summer?

A. Yes, if you have been in full-time attendance at a university or other post-secondary education institution in Canada, and you move to take a job, including summer employment, you may claim moving expense deductions. This applies only to moving expenses to get to the employment and not to those for your return to the university.

Q. In connection with the new capital gains provision, what information should I retain to support values of my farm property as of December 31, 1971?

A. In support of your values, it will be useful to retain the following:

- A brief description of the property, including location and size together with your original cost.
- The type of land (arable, bush or scrub).
- The type of farming done.
- A description of each building with date of acquisition and cost, together with the dates and costs of any additions or improvements.
- The property assessment for municipal tax purposes.
- Insurance coverage.
- Information on any sales of similar property in your area.

Q. When filing tax returns, are commercial reserves and elevator deductions to be reported as income for the year they were paid out to a farmer?

A. Normally these will have been reported in the year when credited to his account, and would therefore not be included in his income when actually received.

Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices surged higher in fairly active trading Thursday on the Montreal Stock Exchange as investors flooded the market to snap up issues at bargain rates.

Analysts attributed much of the advance to the fact investors simply could not pass up stocks at current levels but also said many were making purchases based on hopes that economic difficulties will be of short duration.

Volume was 808,500 shares compared with 785,800 Wednesday.

Banks added 5.23 to 256.73, the composite 1.49 to 186.05, industrials 1.34 to 188.54, papers 1.05 to 105.33 and utilities 0.27 to 139.82.

What stocks did:

	Thurs. Wed.

Declines	85 104
Unchanged	46 48
Totals	223 207

CP Ltd. was the most active industrial, up 1/2 to 167 1/2 on volume of 40,419 shares, and Silver Stack led the mines with a gain of five cents to 80 cents on 53,500 shares traded.

Oils were mostly higher as Imperial Oil A added 3/4 to $27 3/4, Pan Ocean Oil gained 3/4 to $11 and Texaco Canada lost 3/4 to $32 1/4.

Bank of Nova Scotia added 1 1/2 to $42 1/2, Toronto Dominion 3/4 to $40 3/4 and Moore Corp. 1/2 to $48, while Canadian Javelin lost 1/2 to $9 and Chrysler 1/4 to $9 1/4.

Among speculative issues, Belleterre Quebec was up three cents to 91 cents on 50,000 shares traded.

Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — The Toronto stock market rallied sharply Thursday, more than recovering the losses of the three previous days. Trading was moderate.

The industrial index, widely-based indicator of market trend closed at its highest level since Aug. 9, gaining 1.06 to 185.45. The index had lost 79 points during the first three days of this week.

The western oil index gained 1.17 to 163.37. The gold index, which had risen sharply this week, was off 1.09 to 456.51 and base metals .29 to 67.61.

The main influence on price trends was again the New York market. A rally which began late Wednesday continued, as falling interest rates and hopes of an economic upturn later in the year encouraged buying.

New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Investors continued to find a silver lining in poor earnings statements and gloomy government economic statistics as stock prices gained again Thursday in active trading.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which showed hardly any movement much of the session, turned in an 8.99-point gain by the close to 745.38.

Gainers on the New York

Stock Exchange outnumbered losers, 829 to 579, among the 1,818 stocks across the tape. Volume came to 22.26 million shares, just ahead of Wednesday's 22.19 million.

"We're again seeing the recent pattern of softness in the morning and strength in the afternoon," noted analyst Lucien Hooper of Thomson and McKinnon Auchincloss Kohlmeier.

He and others maintain that the market's recent ability to keep the profit-takers at bay stems from "a flight away from short-term paper."

Investors shrugged off news Thursday that the fourth-quarter inflation rate was 14.7 per cent, seasonally adjusted—the highest in history.

A total of ten million $1 stamps and ten million $2 stamps, printed by Ashton-Potter Limited of Toronto, will be issued March 14.

"These are stamps for art lovers as well as stamp collectors," said Mr. Mackasey. "But they also afford Canadians an opportunity to support the 1976 Olympic Games in Canada," he added.

The stamps were designed by Allan R. Fleming and retain the bronze color of the sculptures.

Junior Diary

Junior Diary is pleased to announce the winners of our story writing contest begun three weeks ago. They are 11-year-old Gwen Irvine who attends grade five at Cookshire Elementary School and eight-year-old Glendon Pye who is in grade three at Asbestos-Danville-Shipton Elementary School.

Congratulations to you both and you will be receiving $10 gift certificates for Boutique Passe-Temps Enr., the Hobby Shop at 621 King St. E., Sherbrooke.

We have one honorary mention also, going to 10-year-old Douglas Bush, of grade five, Drummondville Elementary School.

The stories describing winter were judged on the basis of freshness and originality. The following are the two winners and the honorary mention.

By GLENDON PYE

Winter means tunnels, ski trails, tobogganing and all sorts of things. But the thing I like best is tunnels because you have fun making them and going through them.

And the second thing I like is tobogganing because you can go down long hills and short ones and bumpy ones. See you later after I finish sliding.

By GWEN IRVINE

I like winter because I can do all kinds of sports like going skating, skiing, and making sculptures out of snow. Sometimes I try to catch snowflakes on my tongue and let them melt in my mouth.

I think winter is a time to be happy. I like to build tunnels in the snow. The first thing I do is I take my shovel and dig. Sometimes the snow is too hard so the shovel won't go in.

The real reason I like winter is that I am never bored. The only thing I don't like is that I have to get all dressed up warm and then I have to go out in the cold and walk to school.

By DOUGLAS BUSH

Winter means winter sports like hockey, skiing, skating and many others. Hockey is my favorite. I play hockey for a team. Skiing is a fun sport if you know how to ski. Skiing can be dangerous if you lose control. Skating is fun, there are many different kinds of skaters, for example, barrel jumpers are normally speed skaters. Bobsled is an exciting sport to watch but it is not fun to be included in a bobsled race because it is dangerous.

Snow is the best part of winter. It includes tobogganing snowball fights and many others. Tobogganing is an event I like. Tobogganing can be dangerous. Sometimes if a golf course goes downhill they are good for tobogganing, if there are too many trees it is not safe. Snowflakes fall in many different shapes and sizes. A large amount of snowflakes form snowbanks. If the snow falls with a very little amount of rain the snow will be good for snowballs. You can also make snowmen with this kind of snow.

The Quebec winter carnival is a big event, it includes games ice sculptures, sports, parades and many other different things. The games would be for you to attend. The sculptures are made out of snow to observe and are very beautiful. The sports, well there are many different ones. The parades include floats and many other things.

But most of all I like Christmas.

Stanstead College

By IVY HATCH

February 14-16 eight students, four seniors and four juniors, were in Montreal to participate in the United Nations speaking competition held at Rosemere High. The three countries represented by them were Chile, Philippines and France. Senior students to participate were Peter MacLeod, David Ritchie, Michael Shayne and Ken Norris, and the junior boys, or Lower school, Lomond Graham, Doug Norris, Garry Jones and Doug Woodside. The winning trophy went to Massey Vanier School. Stewart Logie, a graduate of Stanstead College was moderator.

The carnival events took place on the weekend and will be reported on, in another separate column.

This weekend, Feb. 22 skiers from Stanstead will be taking part in the marathon of several miles that is open to world skiers. It ends in Ottawa. Best wishes are extended to our boys who will participate in team effort and as individuals.

In the past, our boys have done very well bringing home gold, silver and bronze medals.

Games are on tap this week and Feb. 28 is weekend leave for the boys.

A group of Stanstead College students performed well at the ski open cross country races held at the Octagon at Eastman on Sunday, Feb. 16. In the men's event Scott Morgan, the youngest senior competitor performed extremely well to win the race in a time of 21 min. 58 sec.

In the junior event Stanstead College took first three positions, Steve Eveleigh winning the event in a time of 23 min. 50 sec., followed by Bill Crookery, in second place, with Larry Maislin coming in third. The team had an excellent day and were delighted with their trophies.

LIVE EXHIBITS—Bishop's University is hosting its annual Science Exhibition in the Johnson Science Building until tomorrow afternoon. With events including demonstrations in physics, psychology, chemistry and of course biology, area persons are welcome to view the different aspects of science-related subjects. The hours for the exhibition are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. for Friday and Saturday, while tonight only, it will be open from 7-9 p.m. In the biology section, live exhibits, such as this mother rat with her new-born, are waiting to see you.

IT'S THERE SOMEWHERE—Students from local schools get a quick math lesson from a computer with a little help from a guide at Bishop's University's Science Exhibition. The gentleman is pointing out a read-out on the screen a mathematical problem. Another computer allowed the students to find out what the weather will be in 20 years. Other than computer sciences, numerous other interesting displays and demonstrations are available.

Carnival marked at college

Another successful carnival is over here at Stanstead College. It began on February 13 with a ski holiday spent on the Mont Sutton slopes. That evening was casino night in the recreation hall.

Friday was very wintry and many outdoor events took place, but Saturday was just a perfect day for all events that terminated in Pierce Hall with a dance.

Several of the Alumni came down from Montreal for both days, a few remained overnight and there was continuous action from 8 a.m., breakfast time until the last lights were out.

Steve Davis won the log throw; Bill Brock and Duncan Graham staff, on each end of a double saw, won the Log Saw.

The boys were in six teams, with Captains: Jim Etcheverry, Karl Jacobs, Jim Rowan, Steve Kohn, Bill Brandt and J.P. Tremblay. In the overall picture Etcheverry's team won the most points. Greg Sutor won the egg throw; Johnny Wallace and Scott Morgan, the Cross country obstacle course; Tremblay's team, the Dg Sled Races; Andre Moisan, the obstacle running course.

Etcheverry's team won the Broomball championship against the Alumni, and staff won the tug-of-war over the Alumni.

Hot Dog skiing on Infirmity Hill was won by Dave McKeown. Winners of pool events were Marc Davies, the cigar relay; Ian Goodfellow and Brian Thornelea, the drinking relay; Mrs. Nancy Denney, Mrs. Judy Philip, Peter Channell and Peter Neve, the PYJAMA relay.

Saturday afternoon visitors from other schools presented a talent show in Pierce Hall.

These were excellent presentations much enjoyed by the viewers.

At dinner in Lebaron Hall dining room for students, staff and guests, were welcomed by Headmaster Thomas Russell.

The guests came from Trafalgar School for Girls and Sacred Heart School, Montreal, the Ursuline Convent, Stanstead and upon special invitation, individuals from Montreal and the local area.

Among them was Miss Jean Harvie, staff member from Trafalgar who has been often times a visitor at Stanstead. Miss Harvie will be retiring this year as principal of Trafalgar after 50 years of association with that school.

In appreciation of her loyal support to Stanstead, Mr. Russell presented her with a gift and wished her all the best in her retired years. In her remarks, Miss Harvie said, "Trafalgar is my first love and Stanstead is my second." This brought cheers from the large assembly.

"Jack's" Orchestra from Boston, Mass., played for the dance that followed the dinner. During intermission, Headmaster Russell placed the jewelled crown upon the fair locks of Miss Dianna Ywart, a student at Sacred Heart, Montreal.

Ice sculpturing was another part of the carnival in free lance styling. Easter Island by Davis House won the competition and captured the prize.

Other designs were The Great Thinker; The Unfinished object of Art; The Rock Island police car; Olympic symbols, and others.

QUEEN—The queen at Stanstead College's recent carnival was Dianna Ywart, a student from Sacred Heart Convent, Montreal.

Water problem at Bury

BURY—Citizens of Bury village are currently suffering from a water supply problem. On Friday, Feb. 14, something happened to the water supply and although the municipal authorities, maintenance men and others have been working night and day the situation has not been relieved.

While it is a most inconvenient happening, it could be worse. There is good drinking water available at at least two springs and water is being piped from Pope's pond which was used for household purposes, but for drinking and cooking, it is advisable to boil it, and there is an abundance of clean snow to be melted for ordinary household use. It certainly is a most frustrating experience, taxing the mental, physical, mechanical and obviously financial resources to the limit.

Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club

By LES HUMPHRIES

There are two events to report in our column this week. By actual count it was 234 members and guests who enjoyed the "Beaux and Arrows" Valentine Party at the Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club on Saturday night.

As Cecil Blenkhorn has a habit of walking around with the mike during the sing-song, President Don Lyon presented him with an extension mike cord so that he could wander further without unplugging the present one (which has happened in the past). For the third time, Joe Scott was presented with the set of coat hangers for his popular "Eat out" place of business. Soon we may be able to hang our coats when we visit Joe's.

Because there have been rumors that the floor was not suitably slippery enough for dancing, Newt Munkittrick received a can of the necessary powder to remedy the situation. He immediately asked for a volunteer to assist in the complex task of making proper application of this gift.

The head table centerpiece, donated courtesy of Paul McKenna, and drawn for among the ladies was presented by Mrs. Paul McKenna to Mrs. Henry Musty, the lucky lady holding the winning number.

It was a surprised Jack Imrie who discovered that the Half and Half ticket he had bought matched the number called out. He very happily presented his ticket, had it verified, and went away even happier.

Guest speaker Paul McKenna introduced by President Don Lyon, spoke on the humorous situations that can arise in the florist business. He also answered questions on the care and growing of plants and flowers. Thanks of the Club were expressed by 1st Vice-President Bob Richardson.

The sing-along went very well as Cecil Blenkhorn used the song sheets this time and Irv Richards didn't do too bad on the piano either.

Chorister Newt Munkittrick was M.C. for the entertainment part of the evening's program.

There is talent in the Blenkhorn family and it was shared with us as Holly, Lynn, Dale, Cheryl and Cecil (on guitar) sang some "Island" songs. Cecil read two stories, one of the ever popular "Wee Albert" searies and a "Canadian" series and a cluded with a solo number.

Ernie Howland introduced the next segment of the program as "Mrs. Howland Presents."

Ten-year-old Peter Molner, a student of Mrs. H's, performed a different classical number on the piano with the ease of a veteran. His encore "Alouette" was also enjoyed.

A sextet from Plymouth Trinity United Church Choir known as the "Plym-Trins", comprised of Wendy Doyle, Elizabeth and Irene Howland, Susan French, Myung-Joo Park and David Fowles rendered three pleasing selections "Sing Sing, Everyone Sing" (arranged by Eric Wild for the CBC Sing Chorus), "Sing" and "Let a Shout of Celebration". Steven Bougie, who leans more toward "Pop" music concluded the program with piano selections. The artists were recalled to the stage and thanked by President Don Lyon and roundly applauded by the appreciative audience.

Ron Ward and his Orchestra provided the music for dancing which saw Bob Moore, Ruth Humphries, John and Mrs. Hurd, Gordon and Phyllis Dougall receive "Big Mac" tickets as prizes for being in the right place at the right time at the end of the "Spot" dances, "Squares" and a "Paul Jones" also added to everyone's enjoyment.

Wednesday night 103 members and guests came to honor Past and Honorary Presidents on their night.

Cecil Blenkhorn produced new song sheets for the occasion, but as the songs were old favorites, Irv Richards had almost no problems keeping up on the piano.

New Member Abraham "Bob" Zako made his first appearance looking well

Reserve Training

Defence Minister James Richardson's proposal that Canadian employers give employees time off, in addition to regular holidays, for military training purposes (or perhaps be forced to by legislation) is better than his timing. Certainly there should be more time given for training reserves, as there should be more reserves.

Any nation, like Canada, which is systematically reducing its permanent forces for reasons of economy or of politics, should — if it has the safety of the nation at heart — be simultaneously increasing its reserve manpower.

The present system of relying on members of the militia to give up their regular holidays to attend training camp attracts only the most enthusiastic. There would probably be a favorable response to such training, however, should those taking part be given the necessary time off (in addition to their regular holidays) and a pay cheque equal to that which they would receive if they remained on their job. But such a proposal, either of subsidized training or employer compensation, must be politically acceptable if it is to work. Mr. Richardson has launched his suggestion at a time when his department is cutting back, when a decision is still pending on the future of tanks in Canada's armed forces, and when Canada is giving what appears to be wavering support to its allies.

Once these problems are solved — in short once we have a defence policy that can be recognized as meaningful by the average Canadian — an appeal can be made to the business community to support steps necessary for the adequate defence of the nation. But an appeal of this sort, at this time, smacks of a scheme to shore up a less than adequate defence policy. Mr. Richardson has made no mention of the urgent need which regular forces now have for militia reinforcements to keep up token battle strengths during the summer months — as was fully demonstrated last summer.

If Canadian business men see that the national defence department means business and approve of what it is doing both in Canada and abroad; if they can see Canadian troops in NATO performing a line rather than a support role; if they can see the restoration of pride and morale in the armed forces; then they will willingly lend their support to the training of reserves by allowing the additional time for their employees to take part in such training.

Integration of English

To The Editor:

Permit me to reply to Mr. E.R. Trussler's letter of February 12th. Of course, the English language in Quebec will never disappear, but the English-speaking community of the Eastern Township may wither away. For the last fifty years it has been steadily declining in numbers, and as a proportion of the total E.T. population. In 1971 this community of some 30,000 people (English mother tongue) had a natural increase approaching zero and was experiencing minus net migration. In other words, it is not reproducing itself and more people are leaving than entering.

Why? In urban-industrial societies people move to find jobs. Unless young English-speaking Eastern Townshippers equip themselves to find jobs here they will inevitably leave for the Land of Opportunity (Ontario), leaving behind them an aging population. Increasingly to get a job in the E.T. one will have to be able to function in French and be knowledgeable about the institutional structure of the wider milieu. This is what I mean by being integrated; as opposed to assimilated. Like Mr. Trussler, I have no fear that English-speaking Eastern Townshippers will become assimilated — no, they will leave first. As an illustration of the necessity of integration, let me point out that Bishop's University has decided that its next Dean will have to be able to "function in French."

However, one can persist in thinking that people whose job it is to recognize, and provoke discussion about such realities before it is too late are fanatics. I prefer to think that they are — whether they be school commissioners worried about the future of their schools, parents wondering if their children have a future in the E.T. etc — citizens taking their civic responsibilities seriously.

Unions go too far

To The Editor:

After reading the Sweetsburg Court news in today's Record of Feb. 17th, I am sure that many readers feel as I do in wanting to clap their hands and say "Bravo" to the three men from Stanbridge East who chose to serve time in jail rather than pay fines for refusing to be dictated to by a union that they do not belong to and do not wish to join.

What kind of a country is this getting to be, when an honest man wishing to earn an honest living for an honest wage, cannot do so because the unions have such a strangle hold on the Provincial Government, that they can enforce any regulations they wish on the building trades and other workers. Where have Human Rights gone to? One only has to look at Bill 22 to discover where they are going.

Possibly unions are needed in the cities to control wages and working hours, but why do they have to be inflicted on us out here in the country? Has our Court ever thought of the people of modest means who wish to build their own homes or repair the ones they already have, but cannot do so because they cannot pay the unreasonable wages demanded by the unions particularly carpenters, plumbers and electricians.

There are many excellent carpenters such as Laduke, Gendreau and Tetrault all through the province who would be happy to work for a little over half of the prevailing wages if they did not have to join a union and pay dues to support fat union bosses and organizers. They would have practically year around work instead of as at present when they can only work a few months of the year then have to go on unemployment insurance for the balance of the year. Home building would boom, especially here in the Eastern Townships and there would be far less unemployment.

Building codes are so strict, I have been told that if a carpenter is hanging a door and the owner of the house wishes to have a piece of metal weather stripping put across the top of it the carpen is obliged to call a unionized metal worker to put it on, or he is liable to a fine. If this is true, how long will it be before a carpenter will be obliged to hire a metal worker to hold the nails for him to drive. Let's hope that there will be lots of bruised thumbs when that comes to pass.

At the present rate of nonsense in government and union circles that time may not be too far off.

Let's take our hats off to Laduke, Gendreau and Tetrault and why not back me up in efforts to bring even this one injustice to the attention of the Bourassa Government. Remember that although silence is golden, silence also means consent. Snap out of your apathy, get busy with your pens, write your local newspapers, contact your local M.N.A. and let them hear from you.

Says cultural growth in Canada extraordinary

In a recent speech in Vancouver, Secretary of State Hugh Faulkner described the growth of the performing arts over the past few years as one of "extraordinary development."

He stated: "The performing arts in Canada are today brought to more Canadians than ever before. Canadian artists and arts companies are responding to the new level of their audiences' demands with intelligence and imagination. They are producing works like "Ten Lost Years" and "Riel" that explore our past. They are looking ahead to the quality of Canadian life they want to see endure into the future. They, in turn, must be able to count on our support."

The Secretary of State outlined the framework of federal support to the performing arts and made a number of announcements:

— a major study of the economics status of artists and arts organizations in Canada to be undertaken by the Secretary of State Department. Several short-term studies have already begun; their object is to find early solution to the day-to-day problems of tax status, customs duties, visas and work permits that Canadian artists face.

— new programs of the CBC and the National Film Board that will offer Canadian artists and companies more exposure to Canadians;

— an increase of $600,000 (60 percent) in 1975-76 to the budget of the Touring Office of the Canada Council;

— federal support to the cultural program being organized in conjunction with the 1976 Olympic Games, including $1 million to the Touring Office to help meet the transportation and accommodation expenses of artists and companies participating in this program;

— an increase of $4.9 million in 1975-76 to the Canada Council for operating funds to performing companies; this will permit the Canada Council to increase its budget for performing companies by 38 per cent;

— longer-term funding provisions through the Canada Council for major performing companies which will help them to plan their activities over a few years with more security;

— an increase of $2 million in 1975-76 to the program of support to capital projects for theatres and concert halls announced last spring by the Secretary of State; for a total of $3 million.

Mr. Faulkner termed the federal program a serious commitment to the performing arts, one that responds to the real needs of both Canadian artists and the larger community. The major objective of the federal program to broaden opportunities for Canadian artists. Mr. Faulkner stressed the need for increased support from other levels of government and from the business community to achieve this mutual goal.

exploit the mercantile trade and by reason of his business capabilities and the continuously improving transportation facilities, soon became a wealthy man and a power in his community.

A new store, located on the present site of the Bank of Montreal, was built to be replaced a few years later by a still larger building of recent memory. The Magog we know today is largely a result of his many promotions and realizations. In association with the Honorable C.C. Colby, MP, the Waterloo and Magog Railroad was built in 1877-78, later sold to the CPR in 1888. Again in 1882, with the

The Georgeville road limit extended to the Turner house and the Main Street went east only as far as the home of A. Pareau just beyond the present city hall.

There were no habitations beyond the Catholic church and the old stage coach road to Waterloo. James Taylor had the last house on the Bolton Road (new route 1) located east of the then non-existent Lake Street.

Honorable Colby and William Hobbs of Coaticook, the first calico printing plant in Canada was built, forerunner of the present "Dominion Textile Company" plant. President of the "Stanstead County Agriculture Society," Chairman of the "School Commissioners of Magog", "Justice of the Peace" for the District of St. Francis, first Mayor of the Town of Magog, in 1886 Alvin Head Moore realized his greatest ambition by being elected as a Member of Parliament.

Defeated four years later, (it is said by the Magog vote) despondent, he went into retirement, dying in 1911. It is not to the honor of Magog that to this date no civic recognition of any kind has ever been accorded the memory of a man, who alone contributed more to the progress and improvement of his adopted community than any other one or group of persons.

When Alvin Head Moore returned to Magog in 1860 from his brief two year teaching period in the Southern States, the village bore little resemblance to the Magog he was to see materialize within the next 51 years of his lifespan.

At that time Pine Street extended only to the top of the hill, to the farm of M.W. Copp, site of the present Protestant of population was then located on the north side of Main Street between Merry and Sherbrooke streets. Intermingled with homes were various shops such as the cabinet manufacturing facilities of Orison Bullard, the carriage manufacturing of Stephen Parker and the blacksmith shop of L.C. Webster; the latter two being situated approximately where is now built the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. Ralph Merry operated a Temperance Hotel on the corner of Main and Merry where is presently located the Bank of Montreal. Heavy industry was limited to the mill operations of M.W. Copp and Samuel Hoyt.

By 1867 the village had acquired more shops and service industries to cater to the increasing population of the Township. Warren Hoyt was the shoemaker, J.H. Hall sold insurance and Frank Levins was established as a saddle and harness maker. An indication of progress was the nomination of Erastus Young as constable and bailiff. Alvin Head Moore then served as clerk, Magistrate court, Ralph Merry, J.P. as Commissioner Small Courts.

In 1867 Magog stood at the threshold of its greatest period of expansion. The most immediate was that resulting from the increasing

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

RECORD EDITORIAL — English-speaking Protestant residents of the Eastern Townships have had ample opportunity to appreciate the determination of the present administration at Quebec to defend the rights of the minority so the events of the current session need come as little surprise to them. The case in point is the determined stand taken by Maurice Duplessis to prevent the annexation to the monastic Municipality of St. Benoit du Lac of certain lands, owned largely by Protestants, in the adjoining Municipality of Austin.

His remarks on the two occasions on which the bill of the Benedictine Order came before the Legislature committee, the Prime Minister made it clear that he regarded it more than just an effort by one municipality to take over certain lands of its neighbor. It involved, he pointed out, depriving Protestant land owners of their civic rights and placing them under the regulation of the Abbots of the Monastery of St. Benoit du Lac, who administered the non-elective council of the latter municipality.

The Government, said Premier Duplessis, was dedicated to the preservation of the rights of all minorities and in line with this policy it could not consent to any group losing its inherent privileges.

LONDON, Ont. — Believing that they are the victims of one of the biggest swindles ever put over in Ontario, a score of North Middlesex farmers are asking the government to assist them in recovering $300,000, invested by them in Texas oil stocks.

Already legal machinery has been put in motion at Toronto to have a criminal investigation officer sent to Texas. The actual amount of money sunk by the farmers is $288,000. One man alone is said to have paid over $17,000 in Canadian Victory bonds for shares in the company. Also this same man mortgaged his home for $4,000 to invest in oil wells that were represented to be producing 250 barrels a day.

BC Commission concerned with what serves public interest

VANCOUVER (CP) — British Columbia's Corporate and Financial Services Commission is less concerned with who is right than with what best serves the public interest, says chairman Leo Getz.

The commission, created by the provincial government in October, 1974, acts as an appeal body, primarily for the securities industry. Commissioners are appointed by the government.

Plans call for them eventually to be able to hear appeals on any arbitrary or discretionary ruling by any administrator.

Mr. Getz, also chairman of the B.C. Law Reform Commission, said in an interview that provincial administrators are making thousands of decisions every month and "it's inevitable that an error will be made, and we'll have to give someone a passing."

The four-member commission recently handed down its first decision, ruling that

W. H. Davison, deputy superintendent of brokers, was justified in cancelling the registration of a Vancouver securities salesman because the cancellation was "in the public interest."

Three of the commissioners ruled that the salesman had exhibited "a pattern of behavior showing a marked disposition to dissemble, and a tendency to cut corners."

NONE SUFFERED

"In the light of these conclusions, some administrative action was clearly required in the public interest," although no one suffered as a result of a false prospectus issued by the salesman.

Commissioner Thomas H. Baker took the minority position. Mr. Baker said the salesman, who had been fined $2,500 for circulating a false prospectus, had been severely punished and a six-month suspension would be adequate.

Mr. Getz said the commission is not obliged to uphold policies.

"The whole thing is whether what the superintendent of brokers (or any other administrator) did is in conformity with legislation.

"What we hope will emerge is guidance for the superintendent, for the public, and for the industry as to what is not permissible under the legislation," Mr. Getz said.

Crown Trust net income down in 1974

Net income in 1974 of Crown Trust Company and Subsidiaries was $840,923, equivalent to $1.12 per share, compared with $1,012,676, or $1.35 a share for the previous year. Operating earnings per share were down from $1.33 to $1.11, representing a decrease of 17 per cent.

Assets under administration in 1974 increased by 60.9 million, or 8.1 per cent to a new high of $811,213,097. Guaranteed account increased by $30,579,066, up 18.6 per cent from 1973. Mortgages increased by $27,509,352 to $171,798,245. Gross sales of guaranteed investment certificates were $49,470,000 against $36,288,000 in 1973. ### Chrysler net earnings down

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. lost $73.5 million in the fourth quarter of 1974, giving it a net loss of $52 million for the year.

In their year-end report Monday, the firm blamed the gasoline shortages of the early part of the year, inflation and later recession for the poor performance.

The loss was the largest for any quarter or year in Chrysler's history. Previous records were $29.6 million in 1958, including a $34.1-million loss in the third quarter.

Chrysler is expected to be the only car maker reporting a loss for 1974. General Motors earned $950 million; Ford has yet to report and American Motors finished its fiscal year ended Oct. 30 with profits of $27 million.

Chrysler dollar sales in 1974 were $11 billion, down from $11.8 billion a year earlier. Total vehicle sales slumped to 2.8 million from the record 3.5 million in 1973.

Sales in the fourth quarter were $2.5 billion, down from $3.4 billion in the 1973 period. The year's loss marked a sharp reversal from 1973, when Chrysler earned $255 million, including $74.4 million in the final period.

Teetering on the brink of financial ruin and apparently seeing continued bad times in early 1975, Chrysler said it has made special credit arrangements with nearly 200 banks in the United States.

This includes a $455-million revolving credit arrangement with more than 80 major banks running through March, 1978, and another $125 million in credit with 115 other banks, Chrysler said.

The firm said its financing subsidiary, Chrysler Financial Corp., also has entered into a $300-million stand-by credit arrangement with a group of 19 major U.S. banks.

If you had a savings plan that gave you high interest and let you save tax dollars, you'd call it smart. That's what we call it.

Introducing SMART

We figure with inflation and taxes taking more and more of your earnings, it's become harder just to get by now, let alone save.

That's where the Commerce SMART registered savings plan comes in. The SMART plan is really a double-barrelled savings plan. It not only gives you good compound interest rates on the money you save, but it also saves you some of the money you'd normally pay on income tax.

For example, if your taxable income is $10,000, and you put $1,000 into SMART you'd only pay taxes on $9,000.

You see, since the SMART plan is registered with the Government, the Income Tax Act lets you deduct a certain amount from your income and lets you accumulate this money tax-free until you really need it. Your accumulated savings will be treated as taxable income in the year they are paid out to you.

At the Commerce we think a plan that allows you to SAVE MONEY AND REDUCE TAXES is smart. Which is why we named our plan the way we did.

SMART

Save Money And Reduce Taxes

How much money does it require to start?

The minimum contribution has been set at $50. And you can contribute as often as you like. The amount you wish to save (within allowable limits) is entirely up to you.

You may, if you choose, make a single lump sum deposit. Alternatively, the Commerce can make it easy for you to save systematically — regular transfers from your chequing or savings accounts can easily be arranged.

What's the best age to start contributing?

You can begin at any age so long as it's before your 71st birthday. In fact, the sooner you start the better.

Because, how much you end up with in your Registered Savings Plan depends on how long your money has been accumulating as well as the amount you've contributed and the interest rate you earn.

For instance, if you started saving $1,000 a year at age 25 and assumed an average compound interest rate of 7%, your retirement savings would amount to $220,723. at age 65. On the other hand, if you waited until age 45 and contributed $2,000 a year at the same 7% compound rate, your savings would only total $89,014, even though you had contributed exactly the same amount ($40,000).

So you see, the whole idea is to let your money keep working for you as long as possible.

Can you make withdrawals from your SMART plan?

While withdrawals are not permitted you may de-register your Plan. At that time, your accumulated savings will be treated as taxable income in the year received. However, you may use your savings to purchase an annuity thereby spreading your taxes over a number of years.

Is SMART the plan for you?

The Commerce SMART registered savings plan makes a lot of sense for just about everyone. It doesn't matter whether you're a successful businessman, a busy working wife, a young family man, an active career girl, or someone who's just interested in a good savings plan.

How can you start SMART?

Come to the SMART Information Centre located at the Commerce branch nearest you.

We'll be glad to help you set up your SMART plan or give you any further information you may need.

Sherbrooke County W.I. meets

The meeting was held in Lennoxville Town Hall on Feb. 12, 1975. Ascot WI hosted the meeting.

Mrs. S. Parker, President opened the meeting with the opening Ode, Collect and Flag Salute. Roll Call showed 31 present. The minutes were read and adopted.

The business arising from the minutes was as follows: The Provincial fees have been raised to $1.25. Mrs. Parker showed a chart of the Committal expenses for each member. Sherbrooke County WI have agreed to have a canvass next September for the Provincial Plowing Match, to be held at the Experimental Farm, on Sept. 16, 17 and 18. A committee of members from each branch headed by Mrs. G. Montgomery was formed to work on this project.

highlights of the board meeting she had attended in Montreal.

New members should be reported so that Mrs. Westover can welcome them.

All monies for provincial fund should go through the county. Local gifts may be given directly, but do report them to County Treasurer. Fees cannot be more than $1.00. Judging of contests should be on same points at County and Provincial levels.

Mr. Kimble was a guest speaker for Can Save. This organization was started in 1919. The Ditti-bags are much appreciated. These people also need education. We should encourage our youth to take a greater interest in UNICEF and Can Save. We had an acknowledgement of the receipt of our resolution, re — Street Crossing.

The Treasury reported a satisfactory balance. Souvenir pens are available from the QWI office.

The School Fair Committee had met on Jan. 28. Some changes had been made in the prize list. The School Fair funds stand at $71.14. Much money is needed. As we are committed to this project, each branch has been asked to give $40.00. Each branch was given their duties. The Fair is to take place on Sept. 6.

A motion was made that the County forward $100.00 immediately to help cover immediate expenses for the School Fair. Miss Atto will organize a day trip to Quebec in May if enough people are interested. The cost would be $6.00. Miss Atto must know the number of those interested by March. May 20th was the suggested date for the trip. The Handi-Bags must be in by June 1. Mrs. Wallace urged all members to take part in the various handicraft competitions. Some material was brought in for the scrap book.

Mrs. Westman read an article, Eat to your heart's content.

All convenors were urged to get their reports in as early as possible in March. We are to keep the Folklore play in mind.

Mrs. Parker gave the

What does the WI do for the community? Mrs. Robertson would like to hear from members, with an article on this. Mrs. Westover had been pleased to see the two paintings from Sherbrooke County (the only ones from Quebec) at the ACW Conference.

The Board meeting will be in June 1975. The Cairn at Dunham was discussed. Food for the Hungry girls should be sent to Mrs. Cascadden.

The Provincial Convention will be held at Macdonald College, May 26-29. If members have any ideas for projects for Women's Year, they should be forwarded. Try to come up with something.

Mrs. Parker was thanked for her informative report.

Mrs. G. Montgomery will look after the printing of the programmes.

Citizenship convenors, headed by Miss Atto will make up the new slate of officers.

The annual meeting will be hosted by Belvidere branch in May.

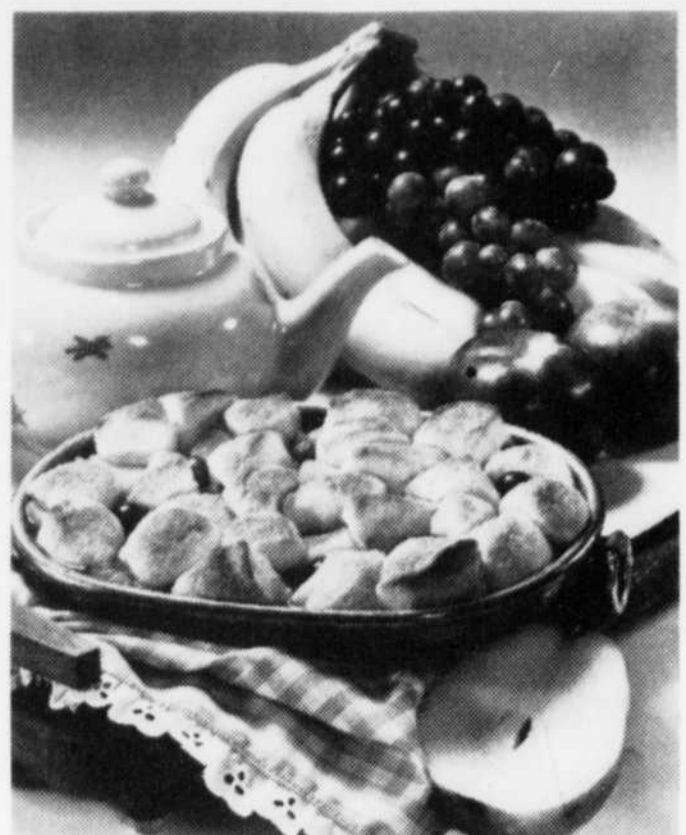

Mrs. E. Turner was introduced and she gave us some highlights of the trip she had taken to Europe and Asia, which was most interesting. Time limited her talk, but we would have liked to hear more.

Ascot was thanked for the delicious refreshments.

These fruit desserts for all ages

By Aileen Claire
NEA Food Editor

Older persons enjoy a variety of foods but often must follow special diets. They also tend to prefer softer-textured and milder-flavored foods than they did when kicking up their heels in their mid-20s. For those who live alone or make up a twosome, it often is a bother to cook often. Thus many older persons don't always get the daily well-rounded nutrition they need. Helping many overcome that food ennui are fresh fruit desserts which make use of wholesome natural sugars in fruits and play down refined sugar. The mix of flavors piques even the most jaded appetite and such desserts are easy to digest. A Spiced Pear and Grape Cobbler may be prepared for four persons if you're expecting guests or stretched to more than one meal if you have leftovers. A Banana Custard and Apple Bread Pudding also go a long way in perkling up an older person's mealtime pleasure.

Light cooked fruit desserts, such as pear/grape cobbler, please older persons and help bring more nutrition to their meals.

SPICED PEAR AND GRAPE COBBLER
pears, pared, cored and cut into thin slices
1 cup halved, seeded grapes
2 tablespoons plus 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar, divided
4 1/2 teaspoons flour
1/4 teaspoon plus 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon, divided
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons fresh orange juice
2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
5 refrigerated biscuits*
1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted

In a medium bowl combine pears, grapes, 2 tablespoons sugar, flour, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, nutmeg, orange juice and lemon juice. Mix well and turn into a greased 1-quart casserole. Bake, covered, in 425 degree oven 40 minutes. Cut biscuits in quarters. Place on top of fruit. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle with remaining 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar and 1/8 teaspoon cinnamon. Bake, uncovered, 10 to 12 minutes, until golden brown. Serve warm or cool. Makes 4 servings.

*Use a small package of biscuits, or half of an 8- or 9.5-ounce package. With larger package, bake remaining biscuits according to package directions and reserve for later use.)

BANANA CUSTARD
3 eggs
4 1/2 teaspoons sugar
1 cup milk
2/3 cup mashed ripe bananas (2 medium)
1/4 teaspoon vanilla

In medium bowl beat together all ingredients. Pour into four 6-ounce custard cups. Place cups in pan and add 1 inch water. Bake in 325-degree oven 30 minutes or until tip of knife inserted in custard comes out clean. Cool, then refrigerate. Makes 4 servings.

APPLE BREAD PUDDING
3 slices dry bread, cut into 1/4 to 1/2-inch cubes (1 1/2 cups)
3/4 cup chopped pared apple (1 medium)
1 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs
1/4 teaspoon vanilla

Divide bread cubes and apple among four greased 6-ounce custard cups. In a small saucepan scald milk with butter and sugar. In a small bowl beat eggs. Gradually beat in hot milk mixture. Stir in vanilla. Add milk mixture to custard cups. Let sit at room temperature for 2 hours. Place custard cups in a pan and add 1 inch of water. Bake in 350-degree oven 45 minutes, until tip of knife inserted in center of custard comes out clean. Makes 4 servings.

Davis urges industries to hire women

TORONTO (CP) — Premier William Davis Tuesday issued a challenge to leaders of industry, business and trade unions to follow the province's lead and actively promote employment equality for women.

Addressing 380 representatives at a conference on equal employment opportunities, Premier Davis said government and employers alike "must change their attitudes toward women in employment so that prejudice and unconscious discrimination disappear."

He added that employers could follow the government's now-established program of affirmative action to improve the status of women employees in the public service.

Dr. Sylvia Ostry, who became Canada's first deputy minister Wednesday in the federal department of consumer and corporate affairs, urged employers to provide women employees with the requisite training and on-the-job experience, "from which they have been excluded."

In her keynote speech, Dr. Ostry, former chief statistician for Statistics Canada, said: "Differences between males and females in hours of working, life patterns, occupations, education and training, experience and seniority all contribute to a disparity in average annual earnings."

HARD TO DEAL WITH
"It is not always easy to determine the extent to which patterns of job assignment reflect discrimination, although there is certainly evidence that sex is used as a screening device," Dr. Ostry said. "That is, women are very often given less attractive jobs than men with comparable qualifications merely because they are women."

Robert D. Johnston told a panel discussion that government "can't do anything more than provide a base for equality."

"Without attitudinal change on the part of society towards equality, all the legislation in the world won't help," he said.

Lynn Williams, district director of the United Steelworkers of America, said there is no single objective more important to the trade unions than establishing day care centres.

"The lack of such care is, to my mind, a disgrace."

Immigrants exploited

OTTAWA (CP) — Second generation immigrant women exploit new immigrants who are unfamiliar with Canadian law and do not speak English, says a UNESCO spokesman.

Wanna Joy Hoy, program officer for women's status with UNESCO, said Monday that Chinese immigrant women "wanting to work in the Vancouver area are being exploited by second-generation Chinese who know the laws and speak English."

Employers, she said, force the women to report for work at 4 a.m., charge them 75 cents for a ride to work and an additional 75 cents to return in the evening.

"These women receive $1.25 to $1.50 an hour while men receive the minimum British Columbia wage of $2.50," she told a Council of Women of Ottawa meeting.

Establishing counselling services for immigrant women, is one of UNESCO's priorities in International Women's Year, she said. But, she added, money is available only to activate interest in the program, not for operating costs.

Mrs. Hoy said she has found a lack of interest in financing projects for International Women's Year on the part of the United Nations—the body which approved a women's year.

Fetal testing detects disease

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two University of California researchers say they have developed a test to detect dangerous and often-fatal blood diseases, such as sickle-cell anemia, in unborn infants.

The test requires a tiny sample of the infant's blood, taken from the fetus during pregnancy.

Dr. Yuet Wai Kan, an associate professor of medicine, explained the prenatal diagnosis at the university medical centre here with his colleague, Dr. Mitchell Golbus, an assistant professor of obstetrics and gynecology.

Dr. Kan said the test is performed by inserting an extremely thin, hollow needle painlessly through the mother's abdomen and into the placenta, where small blood vessels carry a mixture of maternal and fetal blood.

Woman goes blind after taking pill

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A judge has set aside a $1.1-million award to a housewife who says she went blind after taking birth-control pills.

Superior Court Judge Bruce Allen ordered Feb. 10 that a new trial be held, but did not set a date.

Defence lawyers had alleged that jurors exhibited bias during certain stages of the trial which ended last Dec. 16 with awards to 35-year-old Michelle Ahearn and her husband Dennis of San Jose.

"It is probable that different results could have been reached but for such bias," the judge's written order said.

The Ahearns' lawyer, Sal Liccardo of San Jose, said he intended to appeal the decision.

The judge's decision cited jury conduct which he said prevented a fair trial.

Specifically, Allen referred to sworn affidavits provided by defence lawyers and containing interviews with jurors who claimed other jurors swayed them with arguments outside the limits of the judge's instruction.

The decision quoted an affidavit by juror Vernon Van Leuven as saying fellow juror Marilyn Swanson told other jurors "she had strong feelings about corporations and drug companies bleeding the public."

The award went against three defendants: The Ortho Pharmaceutical Co., which manufactured the pill; its parent company, Johnson and Johnson, and Lucky Stores, owner of the Gemco Pharmacy where Mrs. Ahearn bought the pills.

Dear Ann Landers: I read with interest your advice to the mother who signed herself "Numb." She walked in on her 17-year-old daughter and boyfriend and caught them in the act.

As the mother of five beautiful, dimpled, blonde girls, I'd be thankful that I caught them and not their dad. Fathers have a thing about daughters, you know.

If this happened to me I would ask my daughter and her boyfriend to go into another room and put on their clothes and then we'd have a talk — the three of us. The following alternatives would be suggested:

1. Continue to have sex and risk pregnancy or taking the life of an unborn child by abortion.
2. Get married, when possibly the only attraction is sex, in which case the marriage would probably fail.
3. Agree to send our daughter to a doctor for proper instruction and the best method of birth control. (In essence, I'd be saying, "you're going to do it anyway at least don't get pregnant.")
4. And now the tough one: I'd tell them they might decide that sex outside of marriage isn't right, but abstaining would take a lot of self-control and discipline. This means being alone as little as possible, more double-dating with another couple who don't neck and pet. Vow to abstain from kissing in a car or any other place where sex might be possible.

I'd then say, "You two must make the decision, but whatever it is, we will always love our daughter. We might be hurt but our love will still be there." — Another Mother

Ann Landers Information is important

Dear Mother: In my opinion, your approach is much more idealistic than realistic. Some teenagers might abstain for a while, but the odds for permanent abstinence are small. Along with the hope, trust and confidence, I'd make sure that daughter had plenty of information.

Dear Ann Landers: Last year at this time I was a secure, happy wife and mother. Today I sit here wondering if I can get together the money to pay my utility bill before they shut off the electricity and gas. The grocer has been wonderful about credit. He knows I must feed myself and the five-year-old twins.

Fourteen months ago I received a phone call from a hospital across town. My husband was in critical condition. He had suffered a heart attack while driving home. By the time I reached the hospital he was gone. I couldn't believe it. The man had never had a sick day.

The ironic part of this story is that less than one month before he died I asked him to buy some life insurance. He refused, saying the smart thing to do is to keep his money in a savings account where it will produce interest.

When he died, the bank gave me the $2,200 he had in his savings account. If he had bought the life insurance policy I would have received $50,000.

I loved my husband dearly, but I can't help feeling resentful. After all, the children and I were HIS responsibility. He should have looked out for us. I hope you will print this letter. Maybe somebody will learn from it.

— His Widow

Dear Widow: Your husband made a mistake, which, unfortunately, you and the children are paying for. Put aside your resentment and accept the fact that he was not inconsiderate. He was ignorant. +++

Do you feel awkward, self-conscious — lonely? Welcome to the club. There's help for you in Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key to Popularity." Send 50 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The oldest living trees in the world are reputed to be bristlecone pines, the majority of which are found on the arid crags of California's White Mountains. Some of them are estimated to be more than 4,600 years old. The largest known bristlecone pine is the "Patriarch," believed to be 1,500 years old. The World Almanac notes. The oldest known redwoods are about 3,500 years old.

Small Appetite
Several authenticated stories tell of land snails that lived for years without food. In the 1850s, a supposedly dead desert snail found in Egypt was mounted on a card and displayed in the British Museum. Four years later, the rare specimen crawled out of its shell. It ate cabbage leaves and resumed its suspended life.

Foreign Fruit
John Endecott, governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, brought the first apple seed from England — the apple tree is not native to the western hemisphere — and apples soon became an important crop. In 1649 Endecott bought 200 acres of land, paying for them with 500 three-year-old apple trees he had raised.

ASTRO-GUIDE By Ceean

Monday, February 24
The Day Under Your Sign

ARIES (Born March 21 to April 19): If you've figuratively painted yourself into a corner, stop and consider your next move carefully.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): You're really on the beam today, and everything you do turns out right—for you at least.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): While you are figuring out a way to get what you want, someone is working against you. Beware.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Not much activity today, which is fine with you. A late-day phone call could be disturbing.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You may have cause to regret something you did long ago, but stewing about it won't help.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Your instinct for what other people want would make it easy to market items today.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Look at the situation as it is, not as you wish it were. This is a time to be honest with yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Opinionated person bugs you, but a certain amount of tolerance is necessary in order to get data.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Your ingenuity will impress those who are in position to finance your creative ideas in future.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Your morale is boosted, and you approach your problem with new optimism and faith. Outlook fine.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Approach matter with deliberation. Acting in haste can work against your best financial interests.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): Travel plans may have to be changed. Do what is necessary without getting into a dither about it.

Congregational meeting

SCOTSTOWN — The Annual Meeting of the Congregation of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was held in the church on February 6 at seven p.m.
Rev. D.L. Campbell of Sherbrooke, the inter-moderator chaired the meeting and Mrs. A.W. Murray acted as secretary.

The report of the Kirk Session was read by Mr. Kelton MacKenzie, clerk of the Session.
Mrs. Dan Paul Murray, Treasurer, read the Financial Statement as audited. Both of these reports were encouraging.

Reports of the Church School, the Ladies' Circle, the Women's Missionary Society, the Presbyterian Record Press secretary were also presented.

Of the retiring managers, Mr. Peter Matheson and Kelton MacKenzie were re-elected, and Mr. Wayne Moulard was elected to replace Mr. John M. Morrison.

Mrs. Dan Paul Murray was re-elected Treasurer and Dannie Morrison re-appointed caretaker of the church.
Mr. John M. Morrison will continue as subscriptions' secretary for the Presbyterian Record and Mr. Lorne McCuaig will continue as the local press secretary to the Record.

A Mission Budget allocation of $700.00 was accepted for 1975.
It was decided to make a donation of $300.00 toward the Presbyterian's share in a donation to the Chaplaincy at Bishop's University and Chaplain CEGEP.

Mr. Campbell expressed his thanks to this congregation for the kindness shown him and his family during his ministry in Sherbrooke, which he is leaving soon.
Mrs. Dan Paul Murray, on behalf of St. Paul's congregation, wished Mr. Campbell and his family God's blessing as they proceed to their new responsibilities in Ottawa.

The meeting was closed by Rev. Mr. Campbell who offered prayer.

winner as the number called was greeted with silence. Then somebody decided to pass the word into the kitchen where the "White Jackets" were enjoying supper, and sure enough they came up with a winner in the person of Urban Cryan. Believe me, he wasn't "Cryan" when he pocketed his share of the winnings.
Mac Armstrong and Jacques Lizotte, on behalf of Dan D. Lion, Vice-President of Lions Ltd., produced a picture of a rather stern looking lion, dressed in sea faring clothes, and posing with a can of Lion's Coffee. It would appear that to make a good cup of Lion's Coffee, you must boil Sea Water (Using Metric Temp.) add coffee and salt to taste, then stir till you're tired — You'll find it better to share than "Tea for Two."

After presenting this fine portrait to President Don, Wyatt Savage, Gordon Bown and Rick Griffith read a poem, which made some club members think they should have "Grounds" for something, "Sanka" you.

It was rumored that Ernie Kimmis was not too pleased the way the can opener in the kitchen was acting, so John Imbeault produced a gift for Ernie which proved to be a new one, and just to be sure, a mystery package was also given, with instructions not to open same unless the first one failed. We may never know the consequences.

At this time the meeting was turned over to immediate Past President Fred Palmer who reported that of the 29 living Past Presidents, 16 were present this evening: Hawley Griffith 1942-43, Howard Kennedy 1943-44, Len Keeler 1946-47, Norton Baldwin, 1950-51, Bill Lavallee, 1955-56, Art Wright 1956-57, Stan Lothrop 1959-60, George Jobel 1961-62, Ray Stevenson 1963-64, Gordon Dougall, 1964-65, Ernie Kimmis 1965-66, Ashford Lothrop 1968-69, Fred Currier 1969-70, Irving Richards 1970-71, Bob Bell 1972-73, Fred Palmer 1973-74.

It was noted that for the first time in our recollection, George Lothrop 1934-35 was not present. He is fighting the flu. Jim Mitchell (1957-58) is just out of hospital. To these two faithful members we wish a speedy recovery.

Ernie Johnson (1951-52) and Nelson Lothrop Sr. (1958-59) shared a phone call from sunny Arizona and reported temperatures in the '80s. This was a call to cheer us up and

Christian family weekend

HATLEY — Back in October 1974, a group of people came together under the auspices of Mini-Presbytery of the United Church to discuss problems in the Church. "There is not enough community spirit in the Church," many said. "We need more opportunity to come together as one big family."

A mid-winter camping experience was planned by the group in the hope that such a family "happening" could occur. Arrangements were all made, and the folks in Hatley agreed to host the event. Then, gloom on the horizon "No one seemed interested in attending." The organizers were seemingly stuck with a plan that was doomed to fail. In an attempt to salvage the weekend, the event was scaled down to a one day event on Sunday.

The evening before the event telephones began to ring. "Let's go over and sleep in the Hatley Church," was the message. Many took up the challenge and the spirit of the day at Hatley was set. As one would imagine not much sleep was had in the Church but fellowship began and was continued next morning as others joined the original group for a most delicious pancake breakfast.

After breakfast, the work began, as the people met the challenge of the day. Rev. Max Surjadinata set the tone by setting the goal to "Plan a Church Service, one that has meaning for everyone." The participants worked and were rewarded when they were done, not only with satisfaction, but also a ride on a horse and sleigh and other outdoor enjoyment.

At lunch time everyone was hungry, even the children (and they were the majority) ate massive amounts of food.

All joined in the work, but special thanks is owed to the Hatley United Church Women for the most delicious meals that were had.

The high point and the culmination of the event was the church service at 2 o'clock. It was a service unlike any ever had before, the children participated, the adults participated, everyone joined in and praised God, thanked God for such a great day, a day in the life of some Christians. All who attended expressed the hope that there would be another event like this one again. Over 100 people attended the service — a great success, a lot for which to be thankful.

Lewycky at Grace Chapel

Laverne Lewycky, originally from Dauphin, Manitoba, has arrived in Sherbrooke to assist Mr. Alison Welch in the pastoral responsibilities at Grace Chapel.

Laverne took his high school training at the Dauphin Collegiate from which he graduated with honors in 1964 and won the Governor-General's medal while at the D.C.T.I. Laverne was active as Yearbook Editor for two years and President of the Student's Council Laverne then proceeded to obtain a Master's of Arts degree from the University of Manitoba after first receiving a Bachelor of Arts Honors in Sociology. At the University he participated in the Sociology Club, USMU Volunteer Bureau (chairman), Men's Residence Council, I.V.C.F. Central Executive (President), and Arts Council. He has received numerous bursaries and scholarships including a research grant and stipend. He has also taken some graduate studies (1970-71) in Dallas, Texas, at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Before coming to Sherbrooke, Laverne had been preaching in various churches in Manitoba. He is also a representative for Zondervan Book of Life Laverne was involved in the past Federal election as well as the previous Manitoba provincial election as a candidate. From 1972-74 Laverne was a Professor at Winnipeg Bible College. In addition, from 1971-73, Laverne was the Supervisor of Group Programs with the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Manitoba. He was an assistant to the Chief of Protocol in the External Affairs Department in Ottawa (1969-71). His many work experiences have included projects with the Winnipeg Unity Task Force, Youth Culture Study, the National Parole Service and Indian Affairs. Laverne worked on the CNR from Dauphin to Churchill as a time keeper.

In coming to Sherbrooke, Laverne has expressed delight in the opportunity for improving his French and learning first hand something of the Eastern Township culture and heritage.

Laverne's main initial duties will be teaching and preaching as well as home visitation. If you have questions or personal concerns you may reach Laverne at his 449 London St. residence, or phone him at 565-7253.

Ladies Aid meets

ROCK ISLAND — Stantead South Church Ladies Aid met on Thursday afternoon, February 13 in the hall of Stantead South church, Rock Island. At 1:15 p.m., the members took charge to serve the Senior Citizens luncheon.

Mrs. Geneva Lyons, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gordon Johnston, conducted the business of the afternoon, and opened by reading a poem, O Happy Day and from the Upper Room. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

A bill was presented and voted to be paid. Mrs. Harry Goodall presented the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Fayne Hovey.

Members were asked to bring in a stamped card, Canadian or American stamp, to the March meeting, and it will be turned over to the card convenors, Mrs. Helen Scott or Mrs. Lyons.

Mrs. Lyons agreed to organize the luncheon for the Senior Citizens on March 13, which will be held in the church hall at 1:15 p.m.

Anglers, the trout season will be opening in just about two months. If you're planning to fish in different sections of the province it is suggested that you study the new fishing summary; instead of seven zones there are now twelve. We are located in zone B.

The possession limit for grey trout is set for a total of three fish while the possession limit for brown and rainbow will be five of each. The closing dates for trout will range from September 7-14-28 depending on the zone. Small and big mouth bass seasons will commence on June 13th or 20th running through to March 31st with a possession limit of six. Dore will open on May 9-16-13 with a daily limit of six fish. Winter fishing for salmon and trout will commence on December 20 to March 31.

When the first news of new fishing regulations came out for 1975 many thought that something really spectacular was about to happen. Really, outside of making it more confusing with the number of zones and a slightly lower possession limit I find little comfort in what will be accomplished to provide more and larger fish.

Why aren't the lakes closed during the full spawning season? Each year one needs only to look at boats deep trolling through to November in the areas habited by lake trout. Surely they aren't angling for bass, pike, etc. during the regular trout seasons yet they automatically are fishing for them after the regular season.

Another interesting fact is when restocking is done, boats are right there... perch fishing. Who's to say? Our conservation officers are after big game poachers. Wouldn't it be simpler to close the fishing season for three months and then open it for winter fishing after the fall spawning period.

The "tommy cod" season at Sainte-Anne-de-la-Perade is expected to be better this winter than the two previous years. It is estimated up to February 1st, that some 40,800 persons have taken 2,501,000 of the "little" fish.

Congratulations to Miss Mathe Maclure of Magog for her consolation prize entry in the "color slide" division of the photography contest sponsored by the Dept. of Tourism, F&G (Summer-Fall). The contest was open to amateur photographers of the province. Some $2,500 in prizes was offered with the main winners getting $500 for the two divisions.

Flyers benefit auction ready

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bernie Parent's goalie mask, Bobby Clarke's all-star jersey and a number of other Philadelphia Flyers mementoes are to be auctioned off Friday night to benefit cancer research.

The mask and jersey are among the items to be sold by the National Hockey League champions at a $50 a plate dinner dance for the Institute for Medical Research of Camden, N.J. The dinner is sponsored by the wives of the Flyers players as part of their fight for lives program.

Seattle and Denver granted delay till Feb. 26 to complete plans to join NHL for 1976

NEW YORK (CP) — The National Hockey League's expansion committee announced Wednesday the set of conditions that would allow Seattle and Denver to play in the NHL next season.

Vincent Abbey, president of Seattle Totems Hockey Club, met with the expansion committee here and was granted a seven-day extension to come up with $1 million to gain entry into the league a year earlier.

Abbey heads a Seattle syndicate which was granted a conditional franchise for the 1976-77 season.

The expansion committee, whose chairman is Bill Jennings, president of New York Rangers, said in a statement that it agreed to extend the Seattle deadline to 5 p.m. EDT, Wednesday, Feb. 26.

But the committee said no further extension would be considered.

OFFER MUST STAND

The statement said Abbey must implement in one week his previous offer to the league for a franchise for the 1975-76 season.

"This offer, which must be accompanied by a $1 million letter of credit to the order of the league, is for Seattle to accept whichever one of the following three alternatives as shall be determined by the league prior to May 16, 1975:

In addition, a high bidder at the dinner can go home with Gary Dornhoefer's elbow pads, Bill Barber's Flyers jersey, Jim Watson's skates, the stick with which Rick MacLeish scored the winning goal in last year's Stanley Cup final, Orest Kindrachuk's helmet, Ed Van Impe's shoulder pads, or a goaliestick autographed by the players.

The Flyers also are offering three all-expense paid trips with the team for a road game against Toronto Maple Leafs.

"1. Purchase of the California Golden Seals Hockey Club or,

"2. Purchase of the Pittsburgh Penguins Hockey Club or,

"3. A 1975-76 season expansion team."

The expansion committee also established the same Feb. 26 deadline for the Denver Spurs hockey team to implement its previous offer for an NHL team next season.

ASK LETTER OF CREDIT

The statement said: "This offer, also to be accompanied by a $1 million letter of credit, is for Denver to accept whichever one of the two following alternatives as shall be determined by the NHL prior to May 16:

"1. Purchase of the California Golden Seals Hockey Club or,

"2. A 1975-76 expansion team."

The next meeting of the NHL's board of governors is scheduled in New York March 10.

SENIOR CHAMPS — L. Gartshore's Asbestos rink defeated a Sherbrooke rink skipped by W. Jenks with a 10-3 score during Senior Men's curling held at the Lennoxville Curling Club. The rinks were competing for the Downs Trophy. In the

Mardi Gras 'Spiel opens Tuesday

The Lennoxville Ladies Curling Club will hold its 7th Annual Bonsel on February 25, 26 and 27th.

Twenty rinks are scheduled to compete in this popular bonsel, playing for the Wyatt Johnson trophy in the main event, and the Len Loach trophy in the consolation.

The teams will be welcomed by Mrs. S. Rowe, club president, and Mrs. A. Hallam, vice-president and chairman of the Bonsel.

On the evening of the 25th, curlers and club members will be entertained at a sherry party convened by Mrs. F. Yeandel, and her committee of Mrs. C. Mallalieu, Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. Griffiths, Mrs. D. Young, Mrs. A. French and Mrs. E. Jarman. A banquet convened by Mrs. C. Mallalieu, co-chairman, will be held on Wednesday evening at the Army-Navy Air Force Bldg., St. Francis St., Lennoxville. Head table guests will include, Mrs. S. Rowe, president, Mrs. A. Hallam, chairman of the bonsel, Mrs. C. Mallalieu, co-chairman, Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. L. Loach, wives of the trophy donors, Mrs. A. Scott, hon president, Mrs. R. Belden, chairman of Business Girls, Mrs. R. Blake, Mrs. E. Lennon, senior member of the executive, and Mrs. L. Humbert, wife of the president of the men's club.

The finals of the Bonsel will be on Thursday the 27th, at 8:00 p.m. Members and friends are invited to come and enjoy the good curling. Mrs. D. Brazel will be in charge of all games during the bonsel.

Registration will be done by Mrs. P. Tinker, and publicity by Mrs. I. Saunders.

Refreshments will be looked after by Mrs. R. Blackadder and her committee of Mrs. G. Herring and Mrs. D. Savage.

The usual gay "Mardi Gras" theme will prevail throughout the club-house. Decorations will be done by Mrs. H. Derick and her committee members of Mrs. H. Peterson, Mrs. P. Tinker and Mrs. A. Wright.

Derby Fish and Game Club to award special trophies

DERBY LINE (IH)—There were 16 of the 18 directors of the Derby Fish and Game Club attending Monday evening, February 17, in St. Edward's Parish hall for a meeting to plan coming events.

Harold Carter, president, was in the chair. Ira Batchelder, membership chairman, gave his report and stated to date that 153 senior and ten junior members had registered.

Red Gilfillan, George Buzzell and Bob Rowe were named, and agreed to act, to represent the Derby Club with three directors from the Orleans Club, a Game Warden and Roger Cartee, to complete the selection committee for the Dr. Richard Von Nieda sportsman trophy. This is a memorial to a great sportsman, now deceased, who was a resident of the City of Newport.

A trophy will be given each year, alternately by the Orleans Club, starting this year at their annual banquet, then the Derby Club. A memorial plaque will be hung in the Steak House of another fine sportsman in Newport, and each year the name of the trophy winner will be added on a bar.

The Newport paper will be printing entry forms and any person in Orleans County may enter a name of whom they think is the best all round sportsman of a County resident. From these names will be chosen the trophy winner. This will be a great honor conferred each year.

The nominations committee was elected and consists of Lionel Fortin, chairman, Bob Durgin and Bill Moore, three Club directors, Andy Gosselin, a junior director, and four other members who will be invited to act in preparing a slate of the officers at the annual meeting in April.

The annual banquet and meeting will be held April 23 at St. Edward's parish hall. This year it will be a family style with a menu centered around ham and roast turkey. Advance tickets will be on sale at a future date. Harold Carter will attend to the printing of the tickets.

The directors would like by March 1 all deer-horn entries for the club trophy to be presented at the annual banquet in April. Deadline for the entries is March 1st and must be made to director Pearce Wheeler in Derby Line.

The next meeting of the Club at St. Edward's Parish hall will be March 17 at 7:00 p.m. advanced time.

Talk about conservation took place as the group enjoyed delicious home made donuts from the kitchen of Mrs. Harold Carter and coffee.

Beavers face Chicoutimi tonite

Sherbrooke Beavers will be at home this evening to the Saguenens of Chicoutimi at the Sports Palace with the tilt slated to get underway at 8:00 p.m.

Following tonight's fixture the Beavers will journey to Sorel for a Sunday evening battle at 7:30 and on Tuesday they will move to Chicoutimi. On Thursday they play in Three Rivers before returning home for a Friday evening engagement with Shawigan.

All these games are important as the clubs are battling for a better spot before the schedule ends. All tilts are getting closer as the margin narrows and from now on it will be tough sledding.

Coach Delage hopes his charges can lengthen their point advantage over Cornwall, whom they hold four games in hand. These tilts will really be the big ones and will play a very important decision on just who will finish on top of the heap.

The Beavers are still short of two players in Sydney Veysey and Fern Leblanc. Just when they will be able to return to active duty will depend on the club doctor. They are both following special workouts and are skating daily to keep in some shape. Leblanc has orders not to try any shooting as his arm is not in top shape yet.

The Beavers will be out to try and get on their winning streak at home. In their last two starts the locals came out on the short end of the count. Coach Delage isn't discouraged but instead he had his crew working out with every one doing their job properly. In their last two tilts they played hard enough but things didn't click.

The local pilot has re-arranged his line of attack with Michel Brisebois going back to centre Gillis and Chicoine while Alain Belanger will join Tessier and Larose. The other trio of Simpson, Green and Marsh remains intact. Coach Delage, during the week, has his squad working on their defensive system and he has high hopes everything has been straightened out.

Last night, the Beavers split their contest with Cornwall 4-4, enabling them to retain their six point hold on first place in the west division.

Trevino leads

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lee Trevino, who hadn't planned on competing and didn't expect to play well, shot a solid five-under-par 66 for the first-round lead Thursday in the $150,000 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open golf tournament.

Sitar music frees Quebecer in India

BOMBAY (CP) — Jean Toupin's mastery of the sitar came in handy a couple of months ago when he found himself in trouble with the police.

The 47-year-old former chemical engineer from Laval, Que., had been in India eight years when he was pounced on during a visit to Calcutta and accused of being a Maoist agent who had been wanted by West Bengal police for two years.

The officers were unconvinced when Toupin protested that he was a student of Hindu music, spiritualism and magic with no interest in politics.

Then he produced his sitar and played a classical song on the ancient stringed instrument. He also showed the police his collection of Indian music books.

He was released with profuse apologies and a friendly officer introduced him to a number of local musicians.

It was not Toupin's first brush with the law since he started on his travels, which also took him to Japan, Thailand and Singapore.

Singapore police asked him to leave the country when they spotted his long hair and collection of magic books.

TOURS COUNTRY
 Based in the northern city of Banaras, the centre of Hindu spiritualism and occult practices, Toupin tours the country every winter.

Interviewed in Bombay, he said he is working on a book on Hindu magic and another on Indian music.

He said he conducts part-time English classes in Banaras which provides him with enough money to live. But his is a frugal existence—"not more than $50 a month." A friend provides him with a room free of charge.

Toupin said his chief worry is that he is often mistaken for a drug peddler. But he encounters no problems in Banaras, where he is known and respected.

 He said he plans to return to Canada next year.
