PREPARE FOR NEW DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

Criminal Court Session Postponed—High Wheat Prices

No Plan Adopted Whereby U.S. Is To Be Invited

League of Nations' Disarmament Commission Will Be Transformed into Commission of Co-ordination—It Will Simultaneously Be Revised and Enlarged So as to Include All Representative Groups Fundamentally Interested in Success of Conference—League Officials State that Question of Collaboration of Non-Member States Will Be Decided at Next Meeting of Council to Be Held in Rome in December.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

GENEVA, October 4.—Before adjourning last night, the Council of the League of Nations adopted resolutions whereby, in preparation for next year's conference on the reduction of armaments, the League's disarmament commission will be transformed into a commission of co-ordination.

It will simultaneously be revised and enlarged so as to include all the representative groups fundamentally interested in the success of the conference.

No plan was adopted whereby the United States will be invited to participate in the work of the new commission.

League officials said last night that the question of collaboration of non-member states would be decided at the next meeting of the Council, which will be held in Rome in December.

NEW CHAPTER IN AVIATION WAS WRITTEN

Airplane for First Time in History Was Launched in Mid-Air and Got Away Under Its Own Power.

(Associated Press Despatch)

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Characterized by Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the United States Air Service, as having written a new chapter in aviation, an airplane for the first time in history was launched in mid-air at Wilbur Wright Field yesterday and got away under its own power. The experiment was made with a Sperry messenger plane, hooked underneath the car of the army dirigible T C-5, as a stunt for the second day's programme of the international air races.

The dirigible let loose of its freight at 2,500 feet. Nose diving for a short distance, the Sperry plane's motors quickly could be heard to hum as it straightened out and sped away.

Lieutenant C. V. Finter, of Langley Field, flew the Sperry, and Lieutenant Frank McKee, of Scott Field, was the pilot of the T C-5.

DENY ATTACK MADE ON PRINCE OF ASTURIAS

Spanish Embassy Declares Heir Apparent Was Not in Paris—Police to Issue Statement.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The account printed in the MATIN and cabled abroad, of an adventure in which the Prince of the Asturias was reported to have narrowly escaped robbery during a stroll at night in the old quarters of Paris, was denied today by the Spanish Embassy. The heir apparent has not left Spain, the Embassy says, and "the good faith of the newspaper has doubtless been imposed upon."

Police headquarters, while not declaring the story untrue, said "the incident has been considerably exaggerated," and announced it would issue a statement later in the day.

The story in the Matin was that the Prince, while here in strict incognito as the Count of Madrid last week, and during a stroll alone at night, was lured into a trap by a pleasant stranger, who invited him to view an ancient house which Henry IV was accustomed to visit, in the Rue Tournelles.

As soon as they had crossed the threshold, the story ran, the door was slammed and two men pointed revolvers at the Prince. The latter, however, did not lose his head, but dashed to a window and shouted for help, his cries bringing two policemen, who arrested the would-be robbers. One of the men, the account said, broke away and escaped, but the other was taken to jail and held without bail.

DRENCHING RAIN HALTS FIGHTING IN CHINA

(Associated Press Despatch) SHANGHAI, Oct. 4.—A drenching rain along the battlefronts south and west of Shanghai, where armies of rival provincial military governors are fighting for possession of this city, halted fighting today, although sporadic outbreaks continued in the Sungkiang district, thirty-five miles southwest of here, where an intensive engagement took place yesterday.

BODY OF SIR WM. PRICE HAS NOT BEEN FOUND

Men Have Been at Work Digging and Searching Banks of River for Body.

(Associated Press Despatch) QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—The body of Sir William Price, who was killed in a landslide at Kenogami on Thursday, had not been recovered today.

The men who worked all of yesterday and through the night in an effort to locate the body, are working under hazardous conditions. The land in the vicinity of the accident has been softened by the heavy rains of the past week, and there is momentary danger of other falls of earth and rock. Nevertheless a determined effort is being made to locate the body.

The difficulties of the task are added to by the lack of exact knowledge concerning the fate of Sir William. It is possible that the body instead of lying under the mountain of earth and rocks that fell when the landslide occurred, may have fallen into the river, and have been carried down stream. With this possibility in mind, gangs of men are searching the banks of the river.

Officials from the Quebec office of the company, and relatives of Sir William, are now at the scene.

TEN FIREMEN OVERCOME BY SMOKE IN MONTREAL FIRE

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—Ten firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire which did damage estimated at $100,000 in the premises of the Dominion Flour Mills, in St. Henri, yesterday. Twenty thousand bags of flour were destroyed. None of the firemen is seriously affected.

THE WEATHER

FINE TODAY, SHOWERS ON SUNDAY

A depression now over the Middle Western States is slowly moving towards the Great Lakes. Light rain and snow have occurred pretty generally in the Western Provinces, while from Ontario eastward the weather has been fine and warm.

Forecast: Southerly winds, fine and warm. Sunday, becoming showery.

Fights Son

DO NOT VOTE for MY SON

Father will oppose son in the campaign for the United States Senate in Minnesota this fall. Merle Birmingham, independent candidate on a beer and wine platform, has found that his most bitter opponent—politically—is his own father, the Rev. Thomas C. Birmingham, of Milford, Neb. The Rev. Mr. Birmingham has addressed a letter to the voters of Minnesota asking that they defeat his son.

EX-PREMIER OF NEWFOUNDLAND TO STAND TRIAL

Charges Have Arisen Out of Report Submitted by Sir Hollis Walker, Royal Commissioner.

(Associated Press Despatch) ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Oct. 4.—Sir Richard Squires, ex-Premier of Newfoundland, is expected to stand trial before the Supreme Court of Newfoundland on charges of stealing monies the property of His Majesty's Government knowing them to be stolen.

The charges have arisen out of the report submitted by Sir Hollis Walker, of Derby, England, the Royal Commissioner who last winter investigated misappropriation of public funds during the years 1920, 1921 and 1922. The preliminary inquiry into the charges against Sir Richard was concluded last evening. Counsel for the defence moved for a dismissal for want of evidence, but the judge refused and intimated that he would commit the accused to the Supreme Court for trial.

SENATOR S. W. BROOKHART REPUDIATED REPUBLICANS

Such Was Decision of Republican State Central Committee After All-Day Session Yesterday.

DES MOINES, IOWA, Oct. 4.—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, in denouncing President Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes, Republican nominees for President and Vice-President in his Emmetsburg speech yesterday, automatically repudiated the Republican party, the Republican state central committee decided after an all day session here yesterday.

APPEAL OF MONTREAL BANDIT TO OPEN TODAY

Motion for Stay of Execution Will Be Made Today in Favor of Leo Davis.

MONTREAL, October 4.—The appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada by Leo Davis, one of the six bandits now awaiting execution for his part in the Bank of Hochelaga hold-up and subsequent murder of Henri Cloux last April, will open here today when counsel for the condemned man will file notice of the appeal with the Court of Appeals and make a motion for stay of execution.

HUSSEIN SENDS SON TO PLEAD WITH BRITAIN

Will Arrive in London by Airplane—Will Request Britain's Assistance in Fight Against Wahabis.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Oct. 4.—Prince Zeid, son of King Hussein, is expected to arrive here by airplane, from Jeddah, according to information received here yesterday. He is being sent by his father to plead with the British Government for assistance in the fight against the Wahabis. The King has also sent a diplomatic mission to Moscow.

APPROACHING TRANS-JORDANIA

JERUSALEM, Oct. 4.—The Wahabi forces are approaching Trans-Jordania, and it is expected that they will renew their attack on Amman. Many Trans-Jordania inhabitants are leaving their homes, fearing further attacks.

Determined Resistance Against Higher Grain Prices Yesterday At Chicago Pit Achieved At Least Temporary Success

Sensational Fresh Estimates of World Shortage of Breadstuffs Sent Wheat and All Other Grain Whirling Upward—Heavy Buying, Foreigners Taking Hold Freely, and All Other Grain Markets Advanced, in Numerous Instances to New Top Prices for Season.

(Associated Press Despatch)

CHICAGO, October 4.—Stonewall resistance against higher prices, which developed in the grain markets yesterday, achieved at least temporary success. Selling expanded in a manner seldom equalled and forced wheat back to below $1.50 a bushel May delivery, but only after a new record of 1.53 1/2 had been attained. Fresh gains of 5c in rye were also virtually nullified, and advances in oats and corn were turned into declines.

It was certain that a great part of the selling came from holders who were in a position to collect profits and who preferred to do so at once rather than to risk uncertainties of the future. There were also indications, however, that much of the pressure was due to traders who believed themselves justified in anticipating a reaction from such extraordinary upward swings as the markets have shown of late.

Closing prices which ended the day's gyrations were in general described as unsettled, with experts divided in opinion regarding whether to look for immediate additional weakness or a display of fresh strength. Wheat finished 1/2c to 1 1/4c net lower, December $1.45 1/2 to $1.45 3/4 and May $1.49 1/2 to $1.50.

Most of the advances scored yesterday by other grain than wheat were also wiped out. Closing prices were in general at or near the day's low.

The fact that the July delivery of wheat, representing the 1925 crop, was selling at about $1.40 a bushel, was pointed out as something practically unheard of heretofore at this season. Many traders also were acting on opinions that after the sharp advances of late something of a reaction was inevitable.

Reports that seeding of the domestic 1925 winter wheat crop was progressing rapidly on enlarged acreage were something of a factor in the selling which pulled down wheat values. Advances were also at hand denying that the German harvest was a failure.

Sensational fresh estimates of world shortage of breadstuffs sent wheat and all other grain whirling upward anew at the opening. According to unofficial figures which were current, the world supply of wheat on October 1, totalled only $3,056,000,000 bushels as against 3,430,000,000 bushels in 1923. Under such circumstances general buying of wheat started yesterday with a rush, foreigners taking hold freely, and all the grain markets advancing, in numerous instances to new top prices for the season. Wheat started 3-8 to 2 1-8 cents higher December 147 to 147 1-4 and May 151 3-4 to 152 1-4. After a decided further bulge the market suffered a sharp setback.

Corn and oats went up with wheat, corn opening 3/4 to 1 1/4 cent higher, December $1.14 1/2 to $1.14. Sharp additional gains were witnessed, and then a material setback.

Oats started 3/4 to 3 1/2 cent higher, December 58 to 59 1/2 cents, and after advancing a little more fell back to minimum initial figures.

HOME BANK AUDITOR DECLARES HE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH ANNUAL STATEMENT; WAS NOT CONSULTED

Sidney H. Jones Went into Witness Box in His Own Behalf Yesterday—Thought that His Report Was Made Only for Shareholders—Motion Made for Non-Suit—Judge States That Defence Would Go on With Its Evidence—Will Give Decision on Motion When Evidence Is All on Record.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—Sidney H. Jones, Home Bank auditor, on trial charged with making false statements of the bank's affairs, went into the witness box in his own behalf yesterday. He said that he was on his way to England when the annual report of the bank for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1923, was sent to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa. He also swore that he had nothing to do with the making up of the annual statement and that he was never consulted about its contents. He thought that his report was made only for the shareholders of the bank.

F. W. Harcourt, treasurer of the Law Society of Upper Canada, Rev. T. S. Macklem, formerly provost of Trinity College, and William D. Gwynne, vice-president of the Bishop Strachan School Corporation, gave character evidence. All of them stated that they believed Mr. Jones incapable of a dishonest act, and that he was a high-principled gentleman.

NEVER SIGNED REPORT

The accused, on taking the stand, said he was 59 years of age, and had thirty-three years' experience in accountancy and bookkeeping. He came to Canada from London, England, when twenty-five years of age. He was also auditor of the Church of England missions and St. George's Society. Shortly after the Boer War he became acquainted with the late General Mason, through being associated with him in the South African Memorial Association. This acquaintance led to his being appointed Home Bank auditor in 1914. He was the first auditor the bank had, as previous to 1914 no auditor was required by the Bank Act. He got $1,200 a year until 1922, when his salary was increased to $3,000. He said he had an account of $1,300 or $1,400 when the bank failed. He said that he had first seen the annual report of the bank as sent to the Government for 1923 in September of that year, a few days prior to his arrest. When the shareholders met in June he was on his way to England. His first knowledge that it had been sent to the Minister was in this court. He never signed the report, he said, and never did anything towards preparing it for the Minister. He had no knowledge that any of his reports for any year were sent to the Minister. He delivered what statements he had made to Ocean G. Smith, the accountant, for delivery to the shareholders at their annual meeting. He had read the Bank Act, but knew of nothing in it that called for an auditor's statement to be sent to the Department of Finance.

Mr. Harcourt said that Mr. Jones' reputation was of the best. Rev. Dr. Macklem said that Mr. Jones had been bursar at the college and he had never known the slightest breath of suspicion against his integrity. Mr. Gwynne said that Jones had been bursar at Bishop Strachan School and that he was a man of high principle.

WILL CONTINUE TO TAKE EVIDENCE

R. H. Greer, counsel for the defence, moved for a non-suit and asked dismissal of the accused, claiming no case had been made out. His Honor reserved his judgment on the motion, but said the defence would go on with its evidence and he would give his decision on the motion when all the evidence was in.

T. V. C. Stad, who helped Jones in his audits, was the first witness called by Mr. Greer. Witness was not employed in the Home Bank, but went in to help Jones occasionally. Witness had looked up vouchers. He had never questioned the propriety of any vouchers or invoices. Witness said his work was quite mechanical. He made verbal reports to Mr. Jones. Witness never checked securities or cash.

PLATTSBURGH

Investigation was made by the sheriff as to how the saws could have travelled from the cell occupied by Charles Aiken to that of his brother Francis. The cells are in a corridor, well away from the cells where common prisoners are kept, and are heavily barred. The brothers are in separate cells with an empty cell between them.

FELL BETWEEN FREIGHT CARS

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—Falling between two freight cars, Louis Dickey, forty-five years old, rolled beneath the wheels and his body was cut in two before the cars could be stopped. Dickey, who was a brakeman, was shunting cars when the accident happened.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH WILL NOT SIT THIS FALL

Provincial Government Informed Local Authorities that No Session Would Be Held Here Owing to Insufficient Number of Cases.

Orders from the Provincial Government were received this morning at the local court house to the effect that no session of the Court of King's Bench would be held here this fall. The reasons given were that there were not sufficient cases on the list to cover the expenses in connection with this session. There are only three cases so far waiting for the Court of King's Bench, and as the expense connected with the session is about ten thousand dollars, it was not thought advisable to hold a court this fall.

The orders, however, suggested that if more cases come on the list that it was possible that a session in January would be held.

The case of the King versus Hermon Girard of Richmond, was the leading case which was scheduled to come up at the next session of the Court of King's Bench. It will be remembered that Girard was arrested early in the summer on two serious charges in connection with the death of Irene St. Germain, a twenty-one year old Richmond girl, who Girard took out in his car, and whose dead body he brought home. Girard was given a preliminary hearing on both these charges in the Magistrate's Court, before Judge Goubout, following which he was ordered to stand trial before the Court of King's Bench and allowed out on ten thousand dollars bail.

LEMELIN-BRAULT CASE

It is not known whether or not the case of Eugene Lemelin versus His Worship Mayor Brault would have come up before this session. It will be remembered that the preliminary hearing in this case was held in the Magistrate's Court, following which His Worship was honorably acquitted by the court. However, Col. E. Rioux, K.C., attorney for the plaintiff, was not satisfied with the judgment and stated he would bring the case before the Grand Jury.

TWO GIRLS TO APPEAR ON THEFT CHARGE

Lillian and Estella Dostie, who were arrested some weeks ago on charges of stealing ladies' wrist watches from the jewellery stores of O. J. Gendron and A. Blanchard, were also scheduled to come up before the fall session, according to the decision reached by Judge J. H. Lemelin following their preliminary hearing. These two women were granted bail of five hundred dollars, but were unable to pay it, and are at the present time in the local jail.

URGE JAPAN TO INTERFERE IN CHINESE WAR

Retired Officer Declares Japanese Troops Should Be Sent to China Before Peking Soldiers Enter Manchuria.

TOKIO, Oct. 4.—Five thousand persons, including members of the House of Peers and representatives, attending a meeting in Shiba Park today, adopted resolutions urging the Japanese Government to interfere in the civil war in China as an ally of General Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian leader, who is carrying on hostilities against the Peking armies for the control of the Central Government of China.

"The Japanese Government must carry out a policy in China independently of other powers," the resolution read. "This is made necessary owing to Japan's special position in China."

Major General Sato, retired, addressing the meeting, said "Japanese troops should be sent to China before the Peking troops enter Manchuria," where General Chang Tso-Lin rules.

FREEZONE

"Owe my life to Carnol," says Mr. Sinclair

Following a railway accident, after other medicines failed, he got relief from two bottles of Carnol.

The following letter needs no comment from us. We leave Mr. Sinclair to tell you about his experience in his own words—"I was very much run down and nervous following a railway accident some years ago. Medicines failed to give me any real help, so I decided to try Carnol. I did not have any faith in patent medicines, but a friend of mine said Carnol was far superior to any other of the so-called patent medicines. 'Give it a trial,' he said, 'and let me know the results.' I am glad to say this wonderful medicine has done for me what no other medicine has done, and it therefore gives me great pleasure to give this evidence in favor of Carnol. I would advise all business men who feel, after the strenuous life of the world, that they need a building up tonic, to take Carnol. It is only by giving it a fair trial that they will know its splendid qualities.

After using the first bottle I noticed a marked improvement. My appetite improved and after the second bottle I could eat like a horse, even raw potatoes and onions would be as welcome as apples. I slept like a log and after a refreshing sleep, I was able to take up the strenuous work of the hustling insurance agent. This work calls for considerable nervous energy in clearing business and I can say, with confidence, Carnol has no superior in the medicine line. I would suggest that your company give this letter a most conspicuous place, so that everyone may know what a great medicine is before the public as a restorative tonic and flesh builder. I say, with all confidence, I owe my life to Carnol. Nothing equals this medicine."—Gordon M. Sinclair, Chatham, N.B.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membrane.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guarantees to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

MAGOG

RESTAURANT WAS SCENE OF A FIRE

Magog was the scene of quite a bad fire on Wednesday night, when a fire started in the kitchen of a restaurant called the "Paul Restaurant."

It appears that the cook was frying potatoes in the kitchen of the restaurant when suddenly the grease in which she was frying the potatoes caught fire. She immediately threw the small stove and contents into water, but the flames had made some headway and continued to spread to the small tables in the restaurant.

Mr. Laurent Gendron and Mr. Raoul Pepin, two commercial travellers, who were in the restaurant at the time, immediately sent in an alarm and the brigade was soon on the scene. The fire was soon put out but the damage, however, amounted to about sixty dollars.

Mr. D. E. Pepin and father and brother, Mr. and Mrs. David Pepin, have returned from an auto trip which included stop-overs at Richmond, Quebec and Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Pepin and son have been doing considerable touring this season, having only recently returned from an extensive trip to the New England States.

Mr. A. E. Smith has returned from Montreal, where he spent four days in attendance at an optometric congress at the Windsor Hotel, at which clinics, lectures and the examination of the newest optical instruments were the order of the day.

Mrs. Wm. McKenna, Mrs. A. K. Manning and Mrs. Wm. Embury, also Mrs. J. B. Oliver, who is the county president, were among those who attended annual provincial convention of the W.C.T.U., held in Sherbrooke this week.

The annual Sunday School Rally Day in connection with the Methodist Sunday School was held at the Methodist Church on Sunday last. The members of the school took full charge of the service, which took the place of the regular morning service. All departments of the school, with the exception of the cradle roll, had some part in the programme supplied. The superintendent, Mr. A. E. Smith, took charge, assisted by the pastor and the assistant superintendent, Mr. J. H. Percy. The sermon was delivered by Mr. M. E. Massey, the members of the primary, intermediate and senior departments gave recitation appropriate to the day.

Mrs. M. Broadbent, Master Walter McClements, W. Nichol and Miss M. Ball were among those who gave special recitation.

The rain fall for the month of September must have been either a record breaker or nearly so, as the month started in with a heavy rain and rain was the order of the day throughout. Floods caused severe damage to farms and farm crops. The level of Lake Memphrémogé is near that of the spring time freshets. The most rapid rise was that of eighteen inches, which is a tremendous rise for as large an expanse of water in only a forty-eight hour interval.

MARBLETON

Service in St. Paul's Church on Sunday, October 5, will be at 7 p.m. The annual harvest thanksgiving service will be held on Wednesday evening, October 8, at 7.30 o'clock. At this service the congregation are asked to put their thank-offerings in envelopes, write their names on the outside and put on the collection plate. The Ladies' Guild will serve their annual thanksgiving chicken pie supper in the Parish Hall, to begin at 5.30 p.m.

In St. Paul's Church last Sunday evening, Mr. Whately, very acceptably officiated and preached an earnest and interesting sermon.

The Senior Woman's Auxiliary was pleasantly entertained on Tuesday evening, eight being present. The members were pleased to have with them Mrs. McWilliams, of Co-anville, a former member of the branch. The work on hand was sewing. At the usual time Mrs. Bishop served very nice refreshments, which were much enjoyed.

On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Guild met with Mrs. Legge at the paragon, with a good attendance. Arrangements were made for the annual harvest thanksgiving chicken pie supper to be held on Wednesday, October 8, at the parish hall. The thanksgiving service will be held the same evening at 7.30. Supper will be served from 5.30. Mrs. Legge served a very nice lunch, assisted by Miss Barbara. The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks and will be entertained by Mrs. Hunt.

Rev. A. E. Legge spent Thursday and Friday in Lake Memphrémogé.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oughtred's last week were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oughtred and two children and Mrs. Munroe, of Trail, B. C.; Mr. Harold Oughtred, of Moncton, N.B.; Mr. Richard Oughtred, of Actonville, and Mrs. Walter Wood, of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oughtred, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oughtred and Mr. Harold Oughtred motored to Quebec last week and spent a few days at the Chateau Frontenac. They visited many places of interest, including Montmorency Falls and Ste. Anne de Beaurpre.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hetherington and two children and Miss Florence Hunt were in Sherbrooke on Saturday.

Mr. Albert Rolfe is confined to his room as the result of an accident which occurred last Tuesday. Mr. Rolfe was driving home from Lime Ridge with Mr. E. O. Weston, and in getting out of the car to cross the road, and not hearing a big car from New York, he was knocked

PAINS ACROSS THE BACK

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mitchell, Ontario.—"I have taken your medicine for a number of years. I do not take it steadily all the time, but I am never without it. I always keep it in the house. I took it first for pains in the abdomen and bearing-down pains, headaches and pains across the back. I have my home to look after and many a day I could not get up at all. I saw the advertisement in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Mrs. John Miller told me about it, too. Every time I take it, it makes me feel better and I always recommend it to my friends. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about this medicine and you may use this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. F. J. WASSMANN, Mitchell, Ontario.

The merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is told by women to each other. Many women know by experience what this medicine will do and they are anxious for other to know. Such testimony should cause any woman suffering from the troubles so common to her sex to give this well-known medicine a fair trial. Do you know that in a recent canvass among women users of the Vegetable Compound over 220,000 replies were received. To the question, "Have you received benefit by taking this medicine?" 98 per cent. replied "Yes." This means 98 out of every 100 women are in better health because they have given this medicine a fair trial.

COWANSVILLE

Miss Jennie Barker was the hostess at a very delightful party on Wednesday evening.

A great musical treat was enjoyed by those who attended the recital given in the town hall on Wednesday evening, October 1, under the auspices of the Golf Club. The artists were Madame Andree Amalou-Jacquet, harpist; Monsieur

H. Maurice Jacquet, pianist and composer, both of the Conservatory of Paris, and Mr. Sabourin, vocalist, of St. Johns, Que. Madame Jacquet completely charmed the audience with her rendering of such selections as "Priere," by A. Haselmas, and "Papillons Gris," by Monsieur Jacquet, as well as by her gracious personality. Monsieur Jacquet's selections included a number of familiar dances which had been arranged by himself, and also such old favorites as "Berceuse," by Borodine. All numbers were listened to with strict attention and called forth very hearty applause.

Mr. Sabourin, of St. Johns, favored the audience with two French and two English songs. During the evening Miss Shirley Fuller presented Madame Jacquet with a handsome bouquet of pink roses, which she graciously acknowledged by playing an extra number. Mr. L. A. Giroux, on behalf of the Golf Club, invited all the members and those who had come from a distance to gather at the clubhouse after the entertainment to meet the performers and spend a social hour. A large and appreciative audience was present and the proceeds were very satisfactory. A number were present from St. Johns, Waterloo, Knowlton and other outside places.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Westover, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Safford attended Old Home church service at Montgomery, Vt., on September 28.

Two accidents occurred on Main street this week. Mr. Fred Kelly and family, of Richford, nearly capsized at the C.P.R. crossing and had to be drawn out with the help of Mr. Clifford Martin's tractor, and Mr. M. Rice was stuck on an open road, where there was any amount of space, with the result that his car was badly damaged.

Service will be held in St. Aidan's Church at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday.

FARNHAM CORNER

STANBRIDGE EAST

A serious accident occurred on Sunday afternoon on the road between Cowansville and Dunham when Mr. Donald Blinn, who was driving his Ford coupe, was run into by a man named Bedard, who was driving a car which is owned by Mr. Harold Stevens, of Dunham. Mr. Blinn had two ladies with him. The car was completely turned over in the ditch and was badly damaged. The ladies were but slightly injured, but Mr. Blinn was badly shaken up and received several bad bruises. His car in turning over struck one of the large poles belonging to the Southern Canada Power Co. and broke it in two.

Miss Kate Holloway, of St. Albans, Vt., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Beatty.

SHERBROOKE HOSPITAL STATISTICS

Statistics furnished by the Sherbrooke Hospital for the month of September show that on the first day of the month there were twenty-eight patients on the register, and on the last day thirty-five.

During the month ninety-seven were admitted, of whom forty-five were women, thirty men and twenty-two children; forty-two being from Sherbrooke and fifty-five from out of town points. There were three births and two deaths. Seventy-three operations were performed and ten emergency cases treated.

In the X-ray department there were forty-six cases dealt with, in addition to twelve fluoroscopic examinations.

Meals were served to the number of 8,209, of which 3,167 were for patients, the balance being for officials, special nurses and the help.

While the month was a comparatively light one, figures furnished by the treasurer show that the burden of the debt that the institution is laboring under was considerably increased, the unpaid bills of patients discharged aggregating no less than $1,137.15. The actual cash expenditure during the month was nearly $2,500 more than the revenue, although economy was exercised to the strictest extent possible, consistently with efficient working.

ON THE TRAIL OF THE MOOSE

Have you followed the trail of the lordly moose through the flaming forests of the north and heard him call from the barrens or tracked the fleet-footed deer over newly-fallen snow, with the keen wind in your face while the trees cracked in the frost and the whole forest seemed vibrant with life? If you have, you know the real joy of the Canadian Autumn, which is never found on the city's streets nor in pulsing marts of commerce but only in the clean open spaces and the fragrant silent woods.

Now that the leaves are turning crimson and gold you will begin to dream of the little hunting camp in the far north woods, of sparkling dewy dawns, tramps through the fallen leaves, blasting camp fires, wondrous autumn nights, and the bed of balsam boughs, for there is no tonic in all the world for a tired brain and a weary soul like a hunting trip in the northern wilds.

Canadian National Railways tap the choicest of the solitary hunting districts of Northern Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, and if you are going off on a hunt this year go to the nearest ticket office and procure a copy of "Hunting in Canada," which contains full information as to the various districts, accommodation and guides. Then pack up your old rifle, sweater and togs and be off.

WORK AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

The work at Plymouth Church is progressing steadily, and it is hoped that everything will be completed in about a month's time. The woodwork in the hall and rooms on the hall floor is being rushed forward rapidly. There is a possibility that this part of the building may be ready for occupancy somewhat earlier.

In the church, the new lighting is almost completed, and the electric organ blower has been installed. The services tomorrow will be held under more satisfactory conditions than have obtained for some weeks.

At the morning service, Mrs. Alberta Adams will sing Berthold Tour's setting of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and Dr. Read will give a pre-communion sermon on "Christ with His Disciples in Gethsemane." The Communion of the Lord's Supper will follow. In the evening the subject of address will be "Our Bitter Need."

The primary and beginners' departments of the church school will meet at the usual hour of 10.45 a.m.

YOUNG SCHOOL BOY DIES FROM HIS INJURIES

Donald Blodgett Terribly Crushed by Heavy Standpipe—Died Shortly Afterwards in Hospital.

Donald Blodgett, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Blodgett, Lincoln Avenue, and pupil of the Sherbrooke High School, who was fatally injured a short distance from the school early yesterday afternoon, passed away in the Sherbrooke Hospital about four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The young lad was playing with other school chums in the rear of the school, with a large stand pipe which had been formerly used in connection with the old reservoir which was situated at this place. For some reason the stand pipe, which is said to weigh over two tons, began to roll, and the young victim was caught under it.

The boy who was terribly crushed, was immediately rushed to the Sherbrooke Hospital in Lord's ambulance, accompanied by Dr. MacDonald, but from the first no hopes were entertained for the victim's recovery.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from the Chapel of Lord's funeral home, from thence by motor to Lingwick, Que., where interment will take place.

Coroner Bachand held an inquest this morning into the death of Donald Blodgett, and following the hearing of several witnesses, including the school boys who were with the deceased at the time of the accident, a verdict of accidental death was returned.

LENNOXVILLE

Funeral of Mrs. Samuel Mallory On Tuesday night there passed away in the person of Mrs. Samuel Mallory, one who has long been well known in Lennoxville, where she passed many years of her life.

Mrs. Mallory had been for a long time a sufferer from a painful disease. She was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Charles Herring, and other friends, first at her own home and lately at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. G. Mallory, where she was moved, as the progress of her sickness brought on increased helplessness. Here, in spite of every care and attention, she passed away.

The funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. James Mallory on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended. Rev. Canon R. W. E. Wright, pastor of St. George's Church, conducted the service, after which the procession moved to Malvern Cemetery for interment. The bearers were Messrs. C. S. White, W. H. Abbott, James Farewell and E. Hunting.

The chief mourners included Mr. and Mrs. James Mallory, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herring, Mr. and Mrs. George, Mrs. Fred Mallory, Mrs. Claud Spafford, Mrs. Clifford Goodhue, Sherbrooke, and Mrs. David Johnston, of Waterville, and Miss Kathleen Taylor. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers, testifying to the sympathy and respect of friends.

The late Mrs. Mallory was born Cecilia Ann Bowden, in England, but had spent nearly the whole of her life in Canada.

She was of a gentle and retiring disposition, preferring the environment of her home before other attractions, and giving to her duties there, her best thought and attention. Stricken with a mortal illness she bore her pain with fortitude.

Annual W.A. Thank-Offering. The branches of the Women's Auxiliary of St. George's Church were all concerned in the annual thank-offering held yesterday afternoon in the church hall. The gifts were arranged on tables for sale. A thank-offering table, a superfluity table, candy booth and one where the offerings of the children's branch were displayed, were among the attractions, all the wares finding a ready sale.

A bright programme was given by the children, which was interesting to all, and short addresses were given by Rev. R. W. E. Wright, Mrs.

Mr. Eric Probyn, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Lydia Probyn, of Montreal, and Miss Marjorie Trepania, of Beebe, were bridesmaids, Miss Probyn wearing a shell pink silk frock and Miss Trepania a yellow georgette gown, and both carrying bouquets of sweet peas, white asters and ferns.

There were a large number of relatives and friends to witness the ceremony. After the ceremony a sumptuous buffet luncheon was served by Miss Agnes Chamberlain and Mrs. Manson, cousins of the bride, Miss Agis Probyn, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Johnson. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Probyn left by motor, the bride travelling in a navy blue tricot suit with grey hat and grey squirrel choker, the gift of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Probyn will leave shortly for Worcester, Mass.

CAMPBELL—BEDARD

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—The marriage took place very quietly on Tuesday at two o'clock of Miss Ola Ethel, daughter of the late Mr. George Bedard and Mrs. Bedard, of Richmond, to Mr. Grant S. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, of Richmond. Rev. C. E. Fissette officiated.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Gordon Mayhew, of East Angus, while Mr. Charles Armstrong, of Richmond, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for a motor trip through the White Mountains.

HIBBARD—McCLURE.

COWANSVILLE, Que., Oct. 4.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McClure on Saturday, September 27, at 4.30 p.m., when their daughter, Janet, was married to Mr. Harold Hibbard, of Granby.

The bridal couple were unattended. The bride entered the living room leaning on the arm of her father, and the ceremony was performed while the contracting parties stood under a beautiful arch made of ferns and hydrangeas. The bride was charmingly gowned in grey georgette, embroidered in rose and green, with silver hair bandeau, and shoes and stockings of the same shade. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lily of the valley.

ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF DRIVING CAR WHILE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

James Robinson, of North Hatley, and Thomas Page, of this city, were arrested last night by the local police charged with driving their cars while under the influence of liquor.

Robinson was arrested on Wellington Street, fairly early in the evening, while Page was arrested on the Lennoxville road about one o'clock this morning.

Both men will appear before Judge Lemay in the Magistrate's Court at its next session.

FIRE BROKE OUT EARLY THIS MORNING IN A BAKERY.

A fire call was sent in this morning at twelve-thirty o'clock for a fire which started in the bakery shop of Frank Meagher, 11 St. Gabriel Street.

It appears that the doors of the oven had been left open, and the heat was so intense that it scorched the ceiling and later set it on fire. The flames made their way to the program of the building, and caused considerable damage. Stations 1 and 2 answered the call, and it was not until after an hour that the flames were completely conquered.

SUNDAY AT ST. ANDREW'S.

Messages descriptive of the programme which the Presbyterian Church is seeking to carry out to bless and enrich the life of mankind will be brought before the congregation in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at both services on Sunday.

The subject of the morning sermon will be "The love of God for every man," and at the evening hour of public worship the message will be "Our great opportunity." Rev. Alfred Bright will conduct the services of the day.

The choir will furnish the following anthems, "Send Out Thy Light" (Gounod) and "Oh! Gladsome Light" (Sullivan).

The church school meets at 2.30 p.m. and is always ready to give the programme of religious education outlined by men of vision and leadership in work among the youth of the church.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of the social committee of the Y. M. C. A. was held on Thursday, when several matters of importance were raised. The duties of the committee were outlined by the General Secretary, and it was decided to organize into different groups with a chairman responsible for the activities under the social committee.

Mr. Henry Leech was named as responsible for bowling; Mr. S. Macdonald for billiards; Mr. C. Bryant for social events, and a committee was appointed to consider the possibility of acquiring a radio for the Association, said committee to consist of Messrs. Bert Keeler, P. Pitts and S. Cross.

In connection with billiards, Mr. Macdonald will be pleased to hear from anyone interested, and it is hoped that an Association Billiard Tournament and also some inter-department plant tournaments, will be arranged. It is also expected and hoped that "Open Nights" for the industrial plants will be arranged monthly, also several "Open Nights" for Association members. In connection with bowling it was suggested that trophies be put up for the highest score on the alleys, the competition to run through one month. Suggestions were also made for having trophies for highest scores in the bowling tournaments.

D.C.L. DEGREE PRESENTED TO BISHOP HEADLAM

Bishop of Gloucester Honored—Special Convocation at Lennoxville—Favors Residential System and Spiritual Teaching.

The Right Reverend Arthur Cayley Headlam, D.D., C.H., Bishop of Gloucester, England, and one of the foremost members of the Church of England, was presented the degree of D.C.L. (Honoris Causa) by the University of Bishop's College at a special convocation held in Lennoxville yesterday afternoon.

The chancellor, Mr. John Hamilton, the principal, Lt. Col. Rev. A. H. McGreer, D.D., the members of the Board of Governors, Mr. James MacKinnon and the bursar, Mr. J. C. Stewart, M.C., were on the platform in convocation hall. Hon. Jacob Nicol, K.C., Provincial Treasurer, a large number of the student body of the college and a number of clergy and invited guests were also present. The function started at three o'clock and was concluded in about three-quarters of an hour.

Chancellor Hamilton, in opening convocation, declared it was the first ceremony of its kind for thirty years, the last being on the occasion of the presentation of an honorary degree to the then Bishop of Headlam to Bishop's, but regretted the absence of the Bishops of Quebec and Montreal.

Principal McGreer endorsed Mr. Hamilton's welcome. Dr. Headlam, he said, was one of the world's great scholars and his work was hard to estimate. He mentioned the bishop's commentary on the Epistle to the Romans and several other of his works, as well as the fact that he was a former Regius Professor of Oxford and a former principal of King's College, London. The never lands, he emphasized, owed a debt to the scholars of England, such as the Bishop of Gloucester.

After the honorary degree had been presented by the chancellor, the bishop made a brief but pleasing address. He declared it was a great pleasure to him to visit Canada and its universities and said he was very much honored at the tribute paid him by Bishop's. He then discussed the various systems of universities. Small universities, such as Lennoxville, he said, had played a great part in education, their atmosphere being, in many cases, superior to that of the larger colleges. The first really great contribution to the world's theology by Canada had been made by a Bishop's graduate, the late Dr. Hamilton.

That the residential system such as that at Lennoxville was a superior one to the non-residential one was the opinion of Dr. Headlam. Oxford and Cambridge had followed this system, and the result was that all the students became intimately acquainted and lived, in many cases, superior to that of the larger colleges. Another advantage that Bishop's College had over many Canadian colleges was the fact that the spiritual side of the student's education was looked after, for this was a very necessary part. Again the fact that Bishop's was situated in a small town rather than in crammed city quarters was an advantage. This, said His Lordship, had always proved a better idea, citing Oxford and Cambridge as being located in small places.

The bishop then advised the founding of fellowships at the university, as a means of advancing the good work of the college. In the two great English colleges this system had been adopted for the past hundred years and it had proved a splendid idea. He ended by declaring that he would always look back with pleasure to the present occasion.

The degree of M.A. was presented in absentia to Alfred Melrose West, B.A., of Montreal.

The chancellor declared convocation closed and God Save the King was sung. Tea was afterwards served in the council chambers.

Dr. Headlam has gone to Montreal, where he will preach on Sunday at Christ Church Cathedral in the morning and St. George's Church in the evening. The latter service will be broadcast by the Northern Electric Company. On Wednesday

Tuxis Notes

The initial meeting of Tuxis and Trail Ranger boys of St. Andrew's Church was held during the week, when thirty-five boys met to complete organization of their group.

Next week a large number of Trail Rangers are to be initiated, which will make two good camps. Already two squares of Tuxis Boys have been organized, and it has been decided that these will have their mid-week meetings as a unit, and next week the devotional period will be led by the Rev. A. Bright, who is to open a course on "The Early Days of Christianity." The topic for the evening will be the "Roman World".

On October 31st, a united Halloween party will be held with the C.G.I.T. and boys' groups.

All the boys' work in St. Andrew's Church has this year been put under a superintendent, Mr. C. R. Bell, who has almost completed the organization of boys work in the church, and a big season is looked forward to.

In connection with E. F. Tuxis work, a Mentor's Conference is to be held on October 24th, letters for which have been sent out, and it is hoped to get a properly organized Mentors' Group. Several matters of importance to Tuxis Boys will also be considered.

COST OF CRIME HIGH.

Within the past few years there has been a very noticeable increase in crime, notwithstanding the determined efforts of the authorities to check the crime wave. In fact, it is claimed that the cost of crime in the United States has reached a point as high as the annual budget, which was more than three and a half billions of dollars.

Forgeries in United States, according to insurance statistics, may reach $100,000,000 for 1924, though the net loss not covered by insurance probably will not be above $100,000. Hold-ups have nearly doubled this year, while banks have been victims of five thousands burglaries, with a loss of about six million dollars.

The American Bankers' Association in its fight against the crime wave is urging the elimination of politics from police affairs, but more severe penalties would undoubtedly serve to a great extent to curb criminals.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT ON BUSINESS BASIS

Members of the City Council apparently could discover much information that would not only be to their own advantage, but to the advantage of the taxpayers, if they would study the records achieved by Knoxville, Tenn., and Baltimore, Md. The Knoxville council recently gave its taxpayers a pleasant surprise by declaring a dividend of ten per cent. for them in the shape of a rebate on their taxes for the current fiscal year, the total sum being $280,000, a surplus saved out of the expenses of running the city's business during the past year; while Baltimore announces that by the end of the present year it will have a surplus of a million and a half dollars over the amount of current taxes that will have been collected at that time, and also a surplus of a million dollars in collections of arrearages penalties, etc., making a grand total of two millions and a half dollars. The dividend that the Baltimore citizens will receive will also be in the way of a reduction of the tax rate of approximately ten per cent.

Baltimore's mayor declares that the financial showing is the result of putting all departments of the municipal government on a business basis. There will be a large saving in department appropriations for this year and in other accounts, he states, which are likely to increase the total surplus to nearly three million dollars.

"Without a doubt the Mayor is right in attributing Baltimore's good fortune to the employment of business methods only in all the affairs of the city," says the Christian Science Monitor. "Coming so soon after the Knoxville record made under the city management system, the Baltimore achievement in a city with a Mayor and the ordinary kind of municipal government is especially interesting and encouraging. It shows that it is not so much the system used that produces such unusual but excellent results in city financing as it is the employment of sound business methods by officials who know how to use them and are sincerely in earnest in putting them into effect in all branches of municipal affairs.

Baltimore officials are naturally inclined to boast of their performance and to call attention to the fact that their success was made with a regular and ordinary form of city government, and not, as in the case of Knoxville, through any experimental city manager plan."

HOW MISTAKES AROSE.
(St. Catharines Standard)

Sir Arthur Currie says we did things in the war which we shouldn't have done. Men were sent from Canada of no use in the fighting ranks, and the Ross rifle was a joke. Sir Arthur may be right, but Canadians had never been in a big war before, and mistakes made, although costly, came from a good heart and strong impulse.

THE PRESS AND THE COURTS.
(Toronto Globe)

On the whole newspaper publicity in Canada cannot be said to sway unduly the processes of justice. Frequently criminally minded persons are deterred from breaking the law through fear of publicity. It is just a question if fear of publicity does not prevent more petty crime than fear of fines, or even jail sentences. Newspaper publicity in Canada has never had the effect of bringing the law into disrespect, as in some instances across the border. Examples are rare, indeed, where publicity by Canadian newspapers has made law enforcement more difficult.

WHERE PROTECTION IS NEEDED.
(From the Kennebec Journal)

Three years ago a 17-year-old boy, messenger of a Chicago bank, ran away with a package of Liberty bonds valued at $772,000. His lawyers contended that he was intoxicated by the possession of so much money and yielded to an impulse, that as all but $500 was recovered and considering his youth he should be permitted to go free. Two juries disagreed and the third one acquitted him. If youth can be made to understand the injury which this boy really has inflicted on himself it is possible that such a verdict would not be injurious to society. But will youth consider that, will they not foolishly conclude that as he finally got clear that is all there is to it? If they do, then such verdicts injure rather than protect society. And right now society isn't getting the protection it should. We must not forget in our zeal to straighten the criminally deformed that we do not encourage deformity among the ninety-nine per cent. who wish to be straight and given opportunity will be.

ONE OF BASEBALL'S HEROES
(Omaha Bee)

One hundred and seven times during his career as a major league pitcher has Walter Johnson turned back his opponents without a tally. Twice he has shut out the opposing team without a hit.

Such a record is marvellous. For a score of years Johnson has been a member of the Washington team. Most of that time he has been the team. Much ink has been spread, bewailing the fact that such a splendid man has been wasted on a mediocre team. Johnson, however, has apparently not been affected by it. Steadily he has gone about his business of deluding the batters who faced his delivery. Now he has forever fixed his name in a gallery of great ones.

Along with Christy Mathewson, Q. Young, Bobby Carruthers, George Goldsmith, Sir Timothy O'Keefe, Corcoran, Radbourne, Walsh, Brown, Nichols and a few others, Johnson will be enshrined as hero of the great game. His name will be cherished by followers of the sport through generations to come. Not that this is his last season. We trust he will add many another shutout to his record. But it is a pleasure to pay a tribute to one who has so richly earned his standing. For young players, who are fixing their eyes on the pinnacle where now Johnson stands alone, we want to say just this: During all his long service in baseball, Walter Johnson's name has never been mentioned in connection with a scandal of any sort. He has been a baseball player, not a rowdy or rouser, and this is true all along the line, with but few exceptions.

RENTS COMING DOWN IN CHICAGO.
(Chicago Post)

Rents in the city and suburbs are coming down, according to a report made by Secretary Joseph Ruskewicz of the council committee on living costs Monday. Nearly six thousand apartments, he pointed out, were advertised for rent on the day preceding, and "in all probability there are an equal number, if not more, which were not advertised."

The news will mean little to the man on a moderate salary, nevertheless, for the reductions and concessions are in the apartments renting for more than $75 a month. Below that figure the market may be described, in the terms of the financial experts, as "prices steady, due to the strong demand." It will take another year before this situation is altered.

For the construction of the last year has been almost entirely speculative in character. Buildings have been erected with the idea of bringing big rents and a large return on the investment. If the supply exceeds the demand for the expensive apartments now, it will be only natural for the contractors of the city to turn their efforts to building flats which will rent for less and sell more readily to real estate investors.

That this can be done under present material and labor costs is shown by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's experiment with $9 a room per month buildings in New York city. The time is rapidly approaching when construction of this type will be popular in Chi-

Willys-Knight Announces

A New Invention!

that Completely Eliminates Closed Car Vibration

A NOTHER triumph for Willys-Knight is listed in the announcement of the Lancheater Balancer, a new British invention. It removes the annoyance of closed car vibration.

This adds an ultimate perfection to the recognized excellencies of Willys-Knight closed cars—it adds perfection of riding ease to the grace, the power, the performance, the durability that have earned prestige for Willys-Knight.

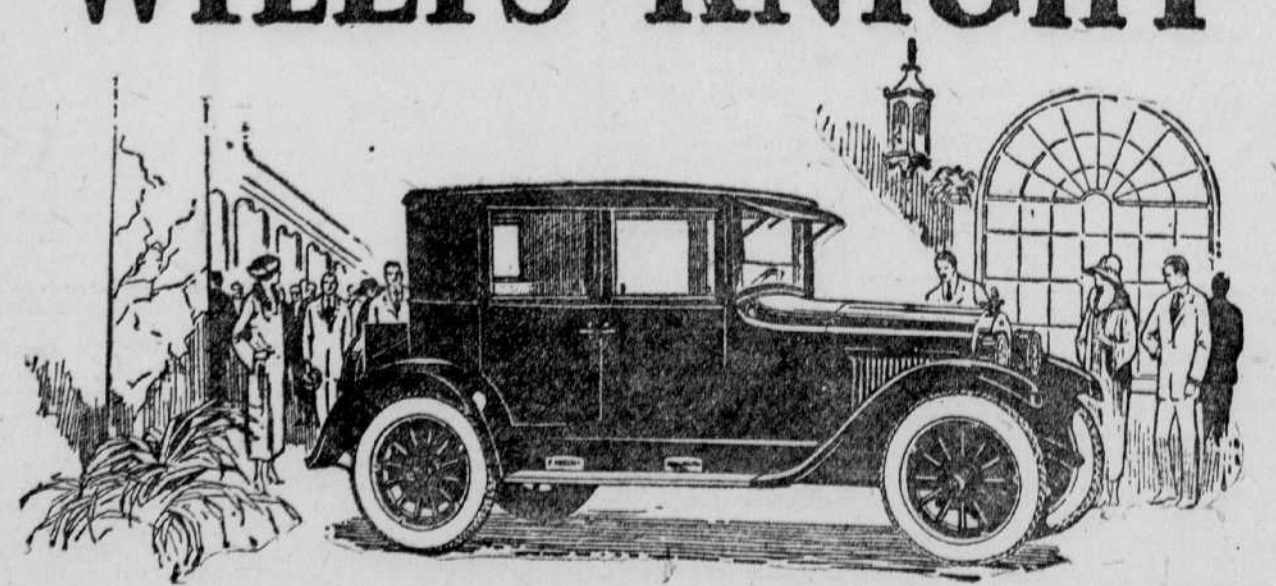

Car owners have desired this improvement since the first closed car was built. The best technical talent of the industry has unceasingly sought it. It has presented a problem seemingly insurmountable.

Willys-Knight now gives the solution of that problem. It makes the impossibility of yesterday the accomplishment of today. It reaches the apex of modern motorcraft in the closed car. Producing perfected inside quiet.

It is the same engine—the same quiet, sleeve-valve motor that improves with use and develops greater power under grinding operation. But now it endows Willys-Knight closed cars with a velvet smoothness of operation never before imagined by those who drive a closed car.

The Lancheater Balancer marks a wide forward stride in automotive engineering. Its effectiveness has astonished car owners and engineers alike. It is the distinctive development of the year in motor circles.

Shier and Mrs. Shier are spending a few weeks the guests of Mrs. Gray and other friends before leaving for Florida. Mrs. Gray will accompany them and spend the winter. The members of the Ladies' Aid have decided to hold their annual fall supper and sale in the Odd Fellows' hall on October 15. Mr. R. W. Montgomery and Mr. Hart Montgomery accompanied Miss Irene Montgomery to Montreal on Tuesday, where she has accepted a position as teacher. Mrs. John Campbell, of Alberta, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Kingsley. Mrs. P. H. Coates, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phelps. Mrs. Volney Hodge and Miss Eva Hodge have been guests of Mrs. Thomas Morrow, of Bury. Mr. Lincoln Ridell accompanied Miss Myrtle Ridell home from Montreal, coming by motor, and spent the week-end. The Anglican Ladies' Guild will hold their annual supper on October 9. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saxland have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cromwell in Sherbrooke. Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Taylor have returned home, after visiting their daughter, Mrs. Coates, of South Bolton. Mrs. Fred Vertue and daughter, of North Stratford, were recent guests of Mrs. John Banks. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, of Eaton Corner, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks.

AYER'S CLIFF

Mr. and Mrs. N. Nicols spent Monday at Sherbrooke, where they visited Rev. A. F. G. Nichol, who is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

MELBORO

Mrs. Charlie Baker has left this vicinity for Kingsbury and will reside there in the future.

BUSY SESSION OF LODGE HELD AT COATICOOK

District Meeting Was Well Attended—Reports Were Presented—Other News of Interest.

COATICOOK, Que., Oct. 4.—The district of No. 7, I.O.O.F., composed of three lodges, Concord, No. 48, Waterville; Alexandra No. 59, Ayer's Cliff, and Victoria No. 16, Coaticook, held their district meeting in the Odd Fellows' Hall, on the evening of September 30th, which was largely attended. Amongst the numerous visiting brethren were: Brother the Rev. H. Charters, Grand Master for the Province of Quebec; G. S. Heath, Deputy Grand Master; Rev. J. S. Dickson, Grand Chaplain; M. M. Lothrop, P.G.R.; Jas. Lowe, P.G.R.; H. L. Peacock, of Concord, N.H., and H. E. Stevens, of Colebrook, N.H.

The presiding officers were Brothers Wm. Wallace as N.G., of Victoria, and A. G. Donaldson as D.D.G.M. Both the address of welcome by A. G. Donald, D.D.G.M., and the response by the Grand Master were eloquent and to the point. Those present had the pleasure of listening to two lengthy addresses from Grand Master Brother Charters, firstly in his response to the address of welcome, and secondly on the subject for discussion. The evening was well spent, both as a social event and as a district meeting.

The reports of the three different lodges were duly read by their respective secretaries.

The nomination of Brother G. C. Poole, of Alexandra Lodge, for D.D.G.M. Master for next term was duly carried.

After the losing of the meeting, Brother H. L. Peacock, of Concord, N.H., gave a short description of the Oriental Degree, which was followed by refreshments, during which the brethren were entertained by a three-piece orchestra, composed of the Rev. G. Y. Tyler and Messrs. H. Allen and A. Grady.

General Notes. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbot, Water Street, entertained at a birthday party on Monday evening, Sept. 29, in honor of the 37th birthday of the latter's sister, Mrs. H. Bishop. Mrs. Bishop was the recipient of many useful gifts, including a gold wrist watch from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbot and family, also a ring set with pearls and amethysts from husband & family. The evening was spent with music and social intercourse. Delicious refreshments were served, including ice cream and the birthday cake with its usual decorations. This Mr. Roy Chesley left on Monday to attend McGill University.

was a surprise to Mrs. Bishop, who responded in an able manner for the kindness which had been shown her by her many friends. At a late hour the company dispersed to their homes, wishing the guest of honor many happy returns of the day. Among those who were present from a distance were Mr. H. Plette (cousin), of Gardner, Mass., and Mrs. Harold Henry, of Sherbrooke. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baldwin and family, accompanied by Miss A. Baldwin, were calling on friends at Way's Mills on Sunday.

RICHMOND

The annual rally of the Methodist Sunday School took place on Sept. 28 at the regular morning service. A special address was given by the Rev. R. P. Stafford, and the superintendent, Mr. William Taylor, and assistant superintendent, Mr. P. C. Duvoice, also took part, as well as Pauline Smith, Elaine Lemoine, Lucille Perron, Shirley Stevens, John D. Smith, Willie Coupland, Roland Perron and Bowman Hall. Mr. J. O'C. Mignault, of Sherbrooke, was in town on Wednesday. Mr. J. V. D'Artois, of Sherbrooke, was in town on Friday.

Mr. James Smillie has returned from a visit to his son Harold at Eaton, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Moreland and daughter Lorna, are spending a couple of weeks in Springfield, Mass.

Miss Roberta Campbell has accepted a position in New York and will spend the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Campbell, of Windsor, were in town on Thursday calling on Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Duvoice.

Mrs. Placey, of Sherbrooke, is a guest of Misses Tina and Beatrice Cross.

Mrs. A. J. Brown, of Montreal, was recently a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bieber at "Elm Terrace."

The local chapter of the I.O.D.E. held a very successful bazaar in the Town Hall on Wednesday afternoon. In spite of the disagreeable weather the bazaar was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Messrs. S. E. Desmarais, M.L.A., and P. C. Duvoice were in Montreal on Monday.

Mrs. Kenneth MacRae, formerly of this place, now of Toronto, is visiting friends and relatives here and in Melbourne.

Mrs. James Ivers, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. William Ivers, of Danville, motored to Richmond recently and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Duvoice, Mr. Thomas H. Halladay and Mr. Roslyn Duvoice spent a few days in Knowlton last week, prior to Mr. Roslyn Duvoice leaving for Montreal, where he entered McGill University.

Mrs. George Hume, of Sherbrooke, was in town on Wednesday attending the I.O.D.E. bazaar.

Mrs. G. Maybaw, of East Angus, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. G. A. Bedard.

Real Estate Changes

Among recent real estate transfers passing through the office of P. C. Duvoice, N.P., are the following:

Mr. William Lalonde has bought from Mr. George Comiskey the lot on College Street adjacent to the bungalow of Mrs. Manoin. Mr. La-

Southern Canada Power Company Limited
6% participating Preferred Stock

3,000 people banded together to work for increasing prosperity in Southern Canada

WHEN a manufacturer considers moving his plant to a new location about the first question he asks is: "Can I be sure of getting ample electric power at a fair price?"

If he moves to the territory served by Southern Canada Power Company, Limited, he can be sure that the answer will be "Yes."

Southern Canada Power Company is developing water power. It is now working on a 30,000 horse power addition to its supply. Next year it plans to increase this by 12,000 horse power. It owns, in addition, 110,000 horse power of undeveloped water power, ready to be harnessed when the time arrives.

In order to make this power which is now being developed available at all points on its line it has built sturdy power lines to all the cities it serves. As fast as practicable it is running parallel lines, so that, if an accident puts one circuit out, another will be available.

All that can be done to guarantee industries a perfect power supply if they are located here or if they move to this territory is being done by the Southern Canada Power Company, Limited.

In addition it maintains an Industrial Department which works the year round to bring new industries to the territory and thus to build it up.

Nor does it work alone.

First among Canadian Companies to take up the Customer Ownership movement, it has enlisted over 3,000 of its customers as profit sharing partners. One out of every 5 people who pay light bills receives a dividend cheque—thus sharing in the earnings that he himself makes possible.

These customer-partners and the Company are working together to increase the population and the prosperity of the territory, to bring in industries and to increase the business and the prosperity of industries now here.

If you are not a partner of your local power company, or if you wish to increase your holdings, you will be interested in another limited offering of customer ownership preferred stock which will be made to customers only, in a letter which will reach all customers on October 29th.

Mr. W. Gordon Brooks has bought the John Keenan farm in Upper Melbourne.

Mr. Edward Keenan has bought from Mr. W. Gordon Brooks the piece of land which he reserved when he sold the farm to his brother, Norman J. Brooks, a couple of years ago.

Mr. George R. Fowler has bought from the Wales Home Corporation one of the houses on the A.J. Brown property.

Mr. Thomas G. McLeod has bought another of the houses on the A. J. Brown property.

Mr. Hilaire Marchand, formerly mayor of the municipality of St. Claude, but now of Sanford, Me., has taken over the Phillips Richard property in the Township of Windsor.

Mr. Howard W. Robinson, of Shipton Township, has taken over the property of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Robinson.

Messrs. Omer and Ernest Martin have bought the Findlay Ross farm on Melbourn Ridge.

Mr. Martial Beliveau has bought the bakery and business in Richmond of J. Napoleon Paquin and will carry on same in his mother's property near Hudson's store.

Mr. Leonidas Langlois has bought a property in the Township of Windsor from his father-in-law, Mr. Pierre Hamel.

Mr. Arthur Morel has bought from his father, Edouard Morel, the property near St. Cyr which the latter bought a few years ago from Arthur LaCroix.

Mr. George Bourbeau, fils, has bought from Domina Desmarais the property on Main Street which has lately been occupied as a store and residence by E. A. Whittingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ewing and family were in Drummondville on Sunday.

Mr. W. R. McLaughlin, of New York City, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Duvoice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Robinson left this week for Gardner, Mass., where they will spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dyson and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Baker have returned from a trip to Springfield, Mass.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Hayes, Mr. Dennis McLaughlin, Mrs. P. H. Davitt and Mr. M. Davitt attended the Bell Bonner wedding in Sherbrooke on Monday.

Mr. P. C. Duvoice attended a meeting of the Protestant committee of the Council of Public Instruction at Quebec last week and was one of the guests at a dinner at Spencerwood given by the Lieutenant-Governor and attended by most of the members of the committee, Premier Taschereau and other notables.

A large number of people from here attended the Danville Fair on Saturday and report a better exhibiting than the average, with a very large attendance.

Several citizens were aroused from their slumbers on Tuesday morning by the earthquake.

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Lane, of this place, are glad to notice that his fine horse Darvester is meeting with success on the race tracks of Quebec, New York and New England States. The winning of the free-for-all at the State Fair at Malone, N. Y., over a large field of starters was a real triumph for the local horse. Last Sunday at the East St. Michel track, near Quebec City, he lowered the track record to 208 1/4. In both these instances, as well as at the Sherbrooke Fair, where he won the St. Francis Stake, he was driven by the well known Canadian trainer and driver, Mr. John Neville, with whom Richmond people became well acquainted during his sojourn of a year and a half in this town.

The local organization of B.P.O. Elks are selling tickets for the winter entertainment course. This year the course is composed of five concerts, the first of which will be given on Monday by the Westminster Quartet.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Price and Miss Evelyn Price, of Moncton, N.B., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith.

RADIO

(By W. B. Cartmel, B.S., M.A., M.E.I.C., Radio Engineer, Northern Electric Company, Limited, Montreal.)

Probably the part of radio that we are all most interested in is the receiving set, and for that reason it will pay us to look into the question of receiving sets rather closely. In the last article we showed a single tube set of the regenerative type and explained how this detected the signals and that after detection the received currents become just like the voice currents in a telephone line and may be amplified in the same way and we showed how audio-frequency amplifiers were added. It is intended to call attention to other types of sets, all of which are really comprised in the following list which covers all the types of sets in use at the present time.

1. The regenerative set.
2. The short wave radio-frequency amplifier.
3. The long wave radio-frequency or superheterodyne.

The regenerative set described in the previous article will serve as an illustration of all sets of this kind. In the present article we will take up the short wave radio-frequency amplifier.

Set With Radio-Frequency Amplification.

mits us to detect signals otherwise too weak for detection; after detection these signals are strengthened by means of one or more stages of what is known as audio-frequency amplification. We saw that an iron core transformer is used between the detector tube and the first amplifying tube and a similar transformer between the first amplifier and the second amplifier and so on. The type of set that we are now considering uses radio-frequency amplification, radio-frequency being used instead of regeneration to bring up the strength of a weak signal from a very distant station so that it may be possible to detect it. Radio-frequency amplification therefore, replaces regeneration and while one may obtain more distant reception in this way than with regeneration, nevertheless the chief advantage of radio frequency amplification is that it brings in music more sweetly and clearly and does away with whistles that are noticeable in regenerative sets.

Perhaps we can best understand about radio-frequency amplification by considering an actual set. Figure 1 shows the exterior view of such a set and figure 2 shows the same set with the box removed giving us a view of the interior.

transformer. In the reflex set after being given a radio-frequency amplification by the first two tubes the currents are detected by the third tube and then led to an audio-frequency transformer which connects, not to the fourth tube, but back either to the first or second tube again making it into an audio-frequency amplifier so that the two radio-frequency tubes do double duty both as radio-frequency amplifiers and as audio-frequency amplifiers. This is a very poor scheme although it appeals to some people. When the same tube is used both for radio-frequency and for audio-frequency amplification it is found not to give as good a result as if separate tubes were used, one tube for one job. The chief advantage of radio-frequency amplification is to bring in music sweetly and clearly and when we reflex we lose this advantage of undistorted reception. It is almost necessary however, to reflex where large the first two tubes, there being a similar one between the second and third tube also. The currents from the first radio frequency amplifier go through the radio-frequency transformer and then to the second radio-frequency tube which strengthens the current still more then through the second radio-frequency transformer to the detector tube. From the detector tube the currents pass through the audio-frequency transformer (shown at the extreme right in figure 2) then to the audio-frequency amplifying tube. It will be wondered why the audio-frequency transformer is shown at the right of the amplifying tube. As a matter of fact the wiring from the detector tube goes first to the transformer and then to the audio-frequency amplifier, although the transformer itself is mounted to the right of the audio-frequency amplifying tube, for convenience. After being given this one stage of audio-frequency amplification the currents are brought through a pair of wires to a jack shown at the extreme left of figure 2. Referring to figure 1, again we may see the head telephones plugged into this jack. It will be noticed that there is only one rheostat shown for the four tubes which is an advantage because it is only necessary to turn on the one rheostat which is much more convenient than if one had to turn on the current separately for each one of the four tubes. The set we have just described may be taken as typical of all ordinary radio-frequency sets. In radio-frequency sets we pass the incoming currents from the antenna through amplifying tubes before they reach the detector, usually one or two tubes being used for this purpose. We need some sort of connection between these tubes and in the set shown we have used radio-frequency transformers. These transformers, called air core transformers are different from the audio-frequency transformer shown at the extreme right which has an iron core. Another variation of this type of set known as a neutrodyne set, uses a coil and a condenser between tubes instead of a radio-frequency transformer as shown in figure 2. The coil and condenser have to be tuned, making the set complicated. When we speak of a coil and a condenser we mean a variable condenser and a coil wound on a fibre tube similar to those shown in the lower part of figure 2.

Reflexing. Sets of the kind discussed in the foregoing are frequently reflexed. In the reflex set there is an iron core audio-frequency transformer associated with either one or both of the first two tubes shown in figure 2, in addition to the radio-frequency tubes are used in a radio frequency set, because the consumption of B battery is so great with the large tubes. The four peanut tube used in the set shown in this article will consume together, less B battery than a single one of the large tubes, besides being more economical of A battery.

ORFORD LAKE Mr. and Mrs. L. Judak made a short call at their cottage on their return from Rochester, Minnesota, where they have been staying for the past year. Mrs. E. Craig has gone to Sherbrooke for a few weeks. Dr. T. P. Shaw has closed his cottage for the season. Mr. W. L. Scott has gone to Montreal for a few days. Mr. Charles Young and daughter, Mildred, of North Hatley, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mack. Mr. Abner accompanied them home to spend a few days. Mr. W. Mack went to Sutton recently on business.

A Romance of the Spanish Main
CAPTAIN BLOOD
By RAFAEL SABATINI

"Is it that I have not warned you from the beginning that all was too easy?" he demanded between plainness and fury. "I am no fool, my friends. I have eyes, me. And I see. I see an abandoned fort at the entrance of the lake, and nobody there to fire a gun at us when we came in. Then I suspect the trap. Who would not that had eyes and brain? Bah! we come on. What do we find? A city, abandoned like the fort; a city out of which the people have taken all things of value. Again I warn Captain Blood. It is a trap, I say. We are to come on; always to come on, without opposition, until we find that it is too late to go to sea again, that we cannot go back at all. But no one will listen to me. You all know so much more. Name of God! Captain Blood, he will go on, and we go on. We go to Gibraltar. True that at last, after long time, we catch the Deputy-Governor; true, we make him pay big ransom for Gibraltar; true he returns here with some two thousand pieces of eight. But what is it, in reality, will you tell me? Or shall I tell you? It is a piece of cheese—a piece of cheese in a mousetrap, and we are the little mice. Goddam! And the cats—oh, the cats they wait for us! The cats are those four Spanish ships of war that have come meantime. And they wait for us outside the bottle-neck of this lagoon. Mort de Dieu! That is what comes of the damned obstinacy of your fine Captain Blood."

Wolverstone laughed. Cahusac exploded in fury. "Ah, sangüine! Tu ris, animal? You laugh! Tell me this: How do we get out again unless we accept the terms of Monsieur the Admiral of Spain?"

From the buccaners at the foot of the steps came an angry rumble of approval. The single eye of the gigantic Wolverstone rolled terribly, and he clenched his great fists as if to strike the Frenchman, who was exposing them to mutiny. But Cahusac was not daunted. The mood of the men enheartened him. "You think, perhaps, this your Captain Blood is the good God. That he can make miracles, eh? He is ridiculous, you know, this Captain Blood; with his grand air and his..."

He checked. Out of the church at that moment, grand aid and all, sauntered Peter Blood. With him came a tough, long-legged French sea-wolf named Yberville, who, though still young, had already won fame as a privateer commander before the loss of his own ship had driven him to take service under Blood. The Captain advanced towards that disputing group, leaning lightly upon his long ebony cane, his face shaded by a broad-plumed hat. There was in his appearance nothing of the buccanier. He had much more the air of a loungeur in the Mall or the Alameda—the latter rather, since his elegant suit of violet taffetas with gold embroidered button-holes was in the Spanish fashion. But the long, stout, serviceable rapier, thrust up behind by the left hand, rested lightly on the pommel, corrected the impression. That and those steely eyes of his announced the adventurer.

"You find me ridiculous, eh, Cahusac?" said he, as he came to a halt before the Breton, whose anger seemed already to have gone out of him. "What, then, must I find you?" He spoke quietly, almost wearily. "You will be telling them that we have delayed, and that it is the delay that has brought about our danger. But whose is the fault of that delay? We have been a month in doing what should have been done, and what but for your blundering would have been done,

(To be colored with paints or crayons. Whenever you come to a word spelled in CAPITAL letters use that color.)

Teddy wore a pair of BLUE overalls over his light YELLOW suit. He wore his big YELLOW straw hat too, for it was very sunny out in the chicken-yard.

Susie wore a PINK (use RED lightly) sun bonnet and dress. She took her little PURPLE basket to gather the nice YELLOW (use it lightly) eggs in.

The chickens picked up the YELLOW corn that Teddy scattered for them. The rooster was white, but the hen was OCHRE-YELLOW (use a little BROWN in the YELLOW). The hen had RED combs and YELLOW feet.

The grass was GREEN and there were RED brick paths through it (use YELLOW with the RED to tone it down). There was a YELLOW dandelion in the grass.

The roof of the house was BROWN and the sides of the house were light YELLOW. There was a GRAY (use BLACK lightly) rain pipe along the roof. The door and window frame were BROWN, but the step was GRAY.

"Oh see the RED and PINK holly-hocks growing along the YELLOW fence," said Susie. They had big dark GREEN leaves. "See the BROWN mule looking over the fence!" cried Teddy. "His hair is as BROWN as mine!" "Um—I wish he'd kick one of those red apples over the fence!" said Susie, tossing her YELLOW curls. The tree had a GRAY trunk and light GREEN leaves. Teddy's shoes were TAN (use RED and BROWN mixed). The field beyond the fence was dark GREEN. The sky was BLUE with a white cloud. You can make the sky extend behind the lettering. The lettering and top border should be one color—YELLOW.

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Nieces and Nephews— Well, is every one happy today? It is fine to have Saturday for a holiday from school, for there are so many things to do in getting ready for the winter which will soon be here. I think the squirrels are busy now gathering the nuts and kernels for their winter cupboards. Have any of the corner children ever found out just where the squirrels store away their winter food? I never have.

How did you like the story about the silly Princess? I hope you will all try to gain the real meaning of the story. There is a good lesson for both boys and girls. Next week we shall have another story sent us by our good friend in Montreal, and I hope the mailman will bring me some questions. I just love them, and will do my very best to have them answered correctly. I am writing away about something which I think the corner folk will enjoy and will tell you all about it as soon as a reply comes to my letter. I want our corner to be a bright, happy one, and to have it like that the children must do their part. Remember it is your corner, children, and if you would like something different in the way of stories, pictures, or anything you think of that would be jolly, please write about it to

UNCLE JIM.

THE POOR PRINCESS

(A continued story.) That was delightful. The saucy-pan was kept boiling all the evening, and the whole of the following day. They knew what was cooking at every fire in the city, from the chamberlain's to the cobbler's homes. The court ladies danced and clapped their hands with joy. "We know who has soup, and who has pancakes for dinner today, and who has cutlets and who has eggs. How interesting! they all exclaimed. The swineherd—that is to say the Prince, although no one knew that he was other than an ill-favored swineherd—let not a day pass without working at something. At last he constructed a rattle which, when it was swung, played all the waltzes and jig-tunes which had ever been heard. "Ah, that is wonderful!" exclaimed the Princess as she passed by. "Ask him the price of this instrument." "A hundred kisses from the Princess," he says, replied the young lady who had asked. "I think he is not in his right senses," said the Princess, and walked on, but when she had gone a little way she stopped. "We must encourage art," she said. "Tell him he shall have ten kisses from me and the rest from you." "Oh, but we should not like that at all," they cried. "Why are you muttering? If I can kiss him, surely you can," the Princess said crossly, and so they were obliged to go to him. "A hundred kisses from the Princess," he said. "Stand around," the Princess commanded, and all the ladies stood around while the swineherd kissed the Princess. (To be concluded.)

KNOWLTON
Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Frank Hawk on September 21st, at Lanigan, Sask., in the Attica district at the age of sixty-two years, after a prolonged illness following an operation. The late Mrs. Hawk's maiden name was Carrie Moses, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moses, who were residents of Knowlton for many years, she having been born here. She was a nurse by profession, having trained in the Montreal General Hospital. Later she went west with her parents, who took up land, both having predeceased her about ten years ago. She was married to Mr. Hawk, who survives her, besides one daughter, one sister, Mrs. G. B. Richardson, of Lanigan, Sask., and many other relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Services were held at the house on Tuesday at 2 p.m., where a large number gathered to show tribute of their respect. From there the funeral party proceeded to the cemetery at Lanigan, where the burial service was conducted by Rev. I. B. Naylor, of Regina, and Rev. A. D. Wrenshall, of Gurnsey. The floral tributes were numerous, which testified to the high esteem in which the departed was held. The bearers were Messrs. F. Armitage, E. Wood, G. Currie, E. Perkins, R. Pickard and A. Costello. Much sympathy is felt here for the sorrowing family.

Mrs. W. P. England returned on Wednesday, after spending the past year with her sister, Mrs. Cook, in Leominster, Mass.
The annual chicken pie supper of the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening, notwithstanding the fearful snow and sleet, accompanied by a wind storm, was a great success. The tables were well laden with home cooking, fruit and flowers, and the attendance was surprising considering the weather. The proceeds were nearly $90. The evening was made more pleasant by Mrs. W. D. Naylor, of Pasadena, Cal., who played sweet music during the supper time.
Mrs. Jones, of Bedford is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Knowlton.
Mrs. E. W. Morgan accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stone, of Cowansville on a motor trip to Newport, Vt., on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Stone visiting Mrs. Venables and Mr. D. H. Green on their return.
Mr. Thos. Davis had the misfortune to have his barns with the seasons' cut of hay and all vehicles burned on Saturday last. The origin of the fire is unknown.
Dr. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace, of Los Angeles, Cal., who have been summering abroad, were guests of Mrs. Wallace's brother, Rev. A. E. Hagar, and Mrs. Hagar, this week on their return home. Dr. Wallace is ex-Governor of the State of California.
All places of business will be closed Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings each week, beginning Tuesday 7th inst.

BUILDING COSTS ARE LOWER THAN PRICES OF 1923

New England Speculators Find Quotations Higher and Terms Tighter Than Early in the Season, However.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 4.—September renting activity puts a finer focus on the fall and winter building outlook, writes Allen E. Beals in the current Dow service Daily Building Reports.

It has been supposed that because building material dealers have been reporting an average slump of 12 1-2 per cent. from the volume of business they did in July and August of last year, accompanied by the fact that unsold common brick volume has increased proportionately as the value of this unsold brick decreased, plus the falling of lumber to profit-exhaustion points; general construction had definitely turned away from dominant housing to dominant mercantile, industrial and commercial.

But two, short chilly weeks have served to show that the recent property-poor speculator is not yet ready to cry "Enough." And, incidentally, the brick maker, the brick seller and the makers and sellers of all the other vast variety of building materials, equipments and appliances have felt dejection give place to expectation.

Freak weather has had as much to do with the sudden shift as anything. Thousands of families where no small children require return to town after Labor Day, usually linger at the shore or mountain retreat through September and sometimes longer. This year the abrupt change from extreme heat to uncomfortable chillness brought renters into town practically all at one time.

This has enabled speculators to fill their properties with tenants and thus accelerated sales at the very time when lending institutions were prone to decline credit to those who had speculated in housing developments which had not been speedily occupied.

Immediately these speculators turned to the building material market in order to get an early start for other projects, plans for most of which had been filed earlier in the year, but which have since been held in abeyance. Prices of brick and a number of other basic materials, equipments and supplies, are much lower than they were almost a year ago when these builders were in the market for materials.

Spot offerings brought them good bargains, but when it came to placing orders at present listings over the late fall and winter, these speculators found the quotations higher and terms tighter. Most of the building material dealers have been carrying considerable paper on projects that have long lain dormant, and the tendency is to close up this credit gap on jobs progressing between November 4 and March 4.

Build FOR ECONOMY OF SPACE
Every cubic foot constructed in any building is commercially unprofitable if it does not do its part in paying interest on the invested capital.
In structural steel construction there is the very greatest economy of space, as steel forms the least bulky and the strongest building material known.

PRICES AND DETAILS OF SHERBROOKE MARKET

Yesterday was considered to be a fairly good day at Lansdowne Market, and there were many buyers. As a whole the market was considered much more successful than last week.

Cranberry's and plum tomatoes made their first appearance of the season yesterday and seemed to be quite popular with buyers, especially cranberries, which sold at fifteen cents a quart, while the plum tomatoes were being sold for ten cents a quart.

All goods in the dairy market were up slightly in price yesterday, best creamery butter was up five cents a pound, while the price of dairy butter was from thirty-eight to forty cents.

Prices in the provision and vegetable markets this week were much the same as last week and no great change was noticed in any special line.

The price of fruit did not show any great change this week, and although there were one or two changes in prices these were not very important. Cauliflowers showed a slight increase in price. There were no Montreal Melons on sale at all this week.

The DAIRY MARKET: Butter, best creamery, 40c to 45c; Butter, best dairy, per lb., 38c to 42c; Cheese, per lb., 30c to 35c; Kraft cheese, 40c to 45c; Eggs, per dozen, 45c.

THE VEGETABLE MARKET: Beets, 3 bunches for, 10c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE: Montreal, Oct. 4th. EGGS.—There was no change in the condition of the local egg market Wednesday, prices for all grades being firm, with a fairly active business.

HONEY.—A fair trade continues to be done in all grades of honey for domestic consumption, and the market is moderately active, with a steady undertone, sales of No. 1 white clover honey being made at 24c to 25c per section; No. 2 grade at 20c per section; white extract honey in 30 lb. tins at 13c per lb., 10 lb. tins at 13c per lb., 5 lb. tins at 14c to 15c per lb., and 2 1/2 lb. tins at 14c per lb.

POULTRY.—Deliveries of poultry are so heavy that firms are working day and night to cope with supplies. In the meantime demand is only fair and prices will be affected by these conditions before very long. It is pointed out by prominent poultry handlers that if the farmer were to wait a couple or three weeks longer at this time of year and would then deliver his poultry in proper condition, he would undoubtedly receive from ten to thirteen per cent. more in prices. Much of the present heavy supplies is going into cold storage. Prices are quoted by Messrs. Gunn, Langlois as follows: Broilers, 20 to 23c per lb.; Fowl, 14 to 24c per lb.; chickens, roasting 25c; ducks, 14 to 17c per lb.; squabs, large, 40 to 50c per pair; small, 25 to 35c per pair; old pigeons, 20c a pair.

DAIRY PRODUCE: Montreal, Oct. 4th. BUTTER.—There was no actual change in prices for butter Wednesday, but the undertone to the market was reported a trifle easier owing to lull in the demand from all sources for supplies, the liberal quantities coming forward for the season of the year and the much larger stocks on spot than a year ago. The volume of business transacted has been small and the market was quiet, with round lots of Western and Eastern Townships No. 1 pasteurized creamery quoted at 36 1/2c per lb., No. 1 creamery at 35 1/2c per lb. and No. 2 creamery at 35 1/4c per lb. CHEESE.—The stock of cheese in Montreal on the first of October showed a decrease of 55,871 boxes, as compared with a month ago, and an increase of 69,029 boxes with the same date last year. The stock of Canadian cheese in the three principal English ports on the first of October showed an increase of 14,800 boxes, as compared with September 1 and a decrease of 10,300 boxes with a year ago. The stock of New Zealand cheese on the first of the month showed a decrease of 25,600 boxes, as compared with last month, and an increase of 44,000 boxes with a year ago. The feature of the local cheese market Wednesday was the easier feeling that developed, and prices ruled a shade lower, which was said to be due to the fact that the demand from English importers was much quieter than it has been of late and the volume of business smaller. There was some demand from spot buyers for odd lots and purchases of Western No. 1 colored were made at 17 3/4c to 17 7/8c per lb., No. 1 white at 17 3/4c per lb., Eastern No. 1 colored at 17 5/8c per lb., No. 1 white at 17 1/2c per lb., and Western No. 2 grades at 17 1/4c per lb., and Eastern No. 2 grades at 17c to 17 1/8c per lb.

Table listing prices for various vegetables and fruits: Brussels Sprouts, Cauliflower, Celery, Cabbages, Carrots, Corn, Green onions, Lettuce, New Potatoes, Onions, Radishes, Sweet Potatoes, Squash, Tomatoes.

THE FRUIT MARKET: Apples, Bananas, Cherries, Cantaloup, Grapes, Lemons, Oranges, Peaches, Plums, Pears.

PROVISION MARKET: Beef roast, Boiling meat, Bacon, Chickens, Fowl, Liver, Lamb, Pork, Pork sausage, Steak, Sausage, Veal.

DAIRY PRODUCE: Montreal, Oct. 4th. BUTTER, CHEESE, CREAMERY, etc.

MARTINVILLE: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith returned home after spending a few days in the U.S.A. Recent visitors at Mrs. Goudie's were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merrill, of North Hatley, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Frizzell and children, of Lennoxville.

mand from English importers was much quieter than it has been of late and the volume of business smaller. There was some demand from spot buyers for odd lots and purchases of Western No. 1 colored were made at 17 3/4c to 17 7/8c per lb., No. 1 white at 17 3/4c per lb., Eastern No. 1 colored at 17 5/8c per lb., No. 1 white at 17 1/2c per lb., and Western No. 2 grades at 17 1/4c per lb., and Eastern No. 2 grades at 17c to 17 1/8c per lb.

GRAIN MARKET

Montreal, Oct. 4th. GRAIN.—Wet weather has dominated the situation for the past seven days in the Canadian wheat situation and the bullish feeling caused by the conditions has forced the price of wheat up to figures very near the peak of the year. There is also little sign of any recession in prices and on Wednesday, No. 1 northern closing at $1.54 1/2; No. 2 northern at $1.51 1/2, and No. 3 northern at $1.46 per bushel, ex-store, Fort William. The premiums were unchanged for No. 1 and No. 3 northern, and 1c per bushel higher for No. 2 grade at 1c per bushel over the October option. The Liverpool future wheat market developed some weakness Wednesday, and prices closed 3-8d to 3-4d per cwt. lower with the October option quoted at 12s 4 1/4-1 1/4; December at 12s 2 1/4-1 1/4, and March at 12s 2 1/4-1 1/4. B. W. Snow, one of the United States crop experts, estimates the spring wheat crop at 263,000,000 bushels; winter wheat at 603,000,000 bushels, making all wheat 866,000,000 bushels, and oats 1,482,000,000 bushels. Owing to the fact that foreign buyers have not responded to the late advance in prices for Canadian grain recorded here exporters have found it impossible to do any business of importance the foreign bids for No. 1 northern wheat Wednesday being 1c per bushel out of line, and barley 5c per bushel below cost. On the other hand it is reported that a fair amount of business was being done in American grades of wheat and oats by some Canadian exporters owing to the prices being lower than Canadian. The trade in cash grain in the local market has been quiet. A little business has passed in No. 1 northern wheat on a c.i.f. basis, and sale of odd cars of Ontario No. 3 extra barley have been made at $1.01 1/2-2c, No. 3 grade at $1.00 1/2-2c, Ontario No. 2 white oats at 62c and No. 3 grade at 61c per bushel, ex-track. Owing to the further strength in the Winnipeg market for oats Canadian western grades on spot were advanced Wednesday 3c per bushel with car lots of No. 2 C.W. grade quoted at 75c, No. 3 C.W. grade at 74 1/2c, and No. 1 feed at 73 1/2c per bushel, ex-store. Argentine corn in car lots was quoted at $1.20 per bushel, ex-store. MILLFEED.—A fair amount of business is reported in most lines of millfeed for domestic account, there being a steady demand for supplies to meet immediate requirements, and the market is moderately active and firm with sales of car lots of Manitoba bran at $28.25, shorts at $30.25 and middlings at $26.25 per ton, including bags, ex-track, less 25c per ton for spot cash.

HAY MARKET: Montreal, Oct. 4th. HAY.—The market for baled hay is reported rather quiet with an easy undertone but there is no actual change in prices announced for old crop hay, car lots of good No. 2 timothy being quoted at $16.50 to $17 per ton, and No. 3 timothy at $15 to $15.50 per ton, l.o.b., cars here.

BROME: The Ladies' Guild was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. C. K. Moffatt on Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the very stormy day a number were prevented from attending, but twenty-six braved the storm and partook of a sumptuous repast served at six o'clock by the hostess. Arrangements were completed for the Thanksgiving service and chicken pie supper which will be held on October 8th (Wednesday) in the Town Hall. Supper will be served at six o'clock and all members of St. John's Church are kindly asked to furnish food for the supper, and those having fruit, flowers or vegetables for decorating the church are kindly asked to leave the same at the church or the Parsonage not later than Tuesday. Service will be held at eight p.m., at which there will be a special preacher.

MONTREAL: Montreal, Oct. 4th. (Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—No changes of note were recorded at the opening of today's stock market, excepting Ogilvie, which advanced three points to a new high for the year at 318, the issue being ex-dividend 16 per cent. Montreal Power, yesterday's leader, was the most active stock during the early trading, but remained practically unchanged around 183 1/2.

REACTIONARY MOVEMENTS ON WALL STREET MARKET: (Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Reactionary price movements prevailed at the opening of today's market on a continuation of the selling inspired yesterday by political developments. U.S. Steel common, American Can, Studebaker and several other popular industrials and rails opened fractionally lower. One block of 1,500 St. Paul preferred changed hands at 20, off 1/4. There were a few points of independent strength, United Railways Investment preferred gaining 1 1/2 and Chesapeake & Ohio 1.

PEARCETON: Mr. Hobbs, from Brigham, was a Sunday guest of Miss Myrtle Gage. Word has been received from Mr. Percy Laduke that he has arrived safely in Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to spend the winter. Mr. B. J. Getty has purchased a new car. Mr. and Mrs. Espo Corey and family spent a day recently in Cowansville. Miss Ruth Laduke, from Bedford, spent the week-end with her mother. Mr. J. W. Watts spent the week-end with his parents at Bedford. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Durocher, Mrs. D. F. Vevey, Master Ronald and Miss Goldie Jones and Mr. Harry Horne motored to Sherbrooke and Brown's Hill on Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Schoolcraft. Mrs. Bullis and son, Mr. George Husband, from Franklin, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Husband recently. Mrs. Earl Corey and family were in Cowansville one day recently.

MONTREAL: Montreal, Oct. 4th. (Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—No changes of note were recorded at the opening of today's stock market, excepting Ogilvie, which advanced three points to a new high for the year at 318, the issue being ex-dividend 16 per cent. Montreal Power, yesterday's leader, was the most active stock during the early trading, but remained practically unchanged around 183 1/2.

The Ladies' Guild was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. C. K. Moffatt on Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the very stormy day a number were prevented from attending, but twenty-six braved the storm and partook of a sumptuous repast served at six o'clock by the hostess. Arrangements were completed for the Thanksgiving service and chicken pie supper which will be held on October 8th (Wednesday) in the Town Hall. Supper will be served at six o'clock and all members of St. John's Church are kindly asked to furnish food for the supper, and those having fruit, flowers or vegetables for decorating the church are kindly asked to leave the same at the church or the Parsonage not later than Tuesday. Service will be held at eight p.m., at which there will be a special preacher.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—No changes of note were recorded at the opening of today's stock market, excepting Ogilvie, which advanced three points to a new high for the year at 318, the issue being ex-dividend 16 per cent. Montreal Power, yesterday's leader, was the most active stock during the early trading, but remained practically unchanged around 183 1/2.

REACTIONARY MOVEMENTS ON WALL STREET MARKET

(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Reactionary price movements prevailed at the opening of today's market on a continuation of the selling inspired yesterday by political developments. U.S. Steel common, American Can, Studebaker and several other popular industrials and rails opened fractionally lower. One block of 1,500 St. Paul preferred changed hands at 20, off 1/4. There were a few points of independent strength, United Railways Investment preferred gaining 1 1/2 and Chesapeake & Ohio 1.

PEARCETON

Mr. Hobbs, from Brigham, was a Sunday guest of Miss Myrtle Gage. Word has been received from Mr. Percy Laduke that he has arrived safely in Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to spend the winter. NEW YORK PRESS MARKET COMMENT

Journal of Commerce—There was no change in the business outlook, certainly none for the worse. On the contrary, several business indicators were favorable. In the oil industry, good increase of demand was found to exist by several concerns, while the reports of freight movements over the railroads continued to be exceptionally favorable. Wall Street Journal—No developments in the outside situation were assignable for the reaction which took place. Business news continued good and politics exerted less influence than ever, since it was increasingly evident from the latest rolls that Coolidge was distancing the field in the presidential race. Wall Street Journal will say today—Mail order stocks outlook bright. Montgomery Ward's record business. Sears Roebuck doing well. U.S. Rubber outlook good. Indicated earnings $5 a common share against $2.28 last year. Allis Chalmers declares quarterly dividend of $1 on common stock. President confident about earnings. Gold Trust earns about $4 a share. $1,000,000 bonds retired. Island Creek breaks monthly output record. Earnings well over extra dividend. Republic Steel operating at 55 per cent capacity. Costs will be reduced. Missouri Pacific breaks traffic record.

Lake Of The Woods Milling Co. Limited

AND ITS SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES Combined Balance Sheet as at August 31st, 1924.

With its domestic trade well maintained and a large increase in export business in spite of rapid fluctuations in the wheat market during the year and narrower profit margins the Balance Sheet of the Company shows a slight advance in earnings over the preceding year.

For the year ended August, 1924, Net Profits amounted to $740,767, as compared with $732,318 in 1923 and $713,087 in 1922. After an ample depreciation allowance, Property Account shows substantial increase and working capital position improved.

Table showing Net Profits of $740,767, apportioned as follows: Dividend Preferred Stock for Year $105,000; Dividend Common Stock for Year 420,000; Written off Property: Lake of the Woods Milling Co., Ltd. $100,000; Subsidiary Companies 15,000; Provision for Employees' Retiring Allowance 50,000.

With the Balance carried forward this year, Surplus Account now stands at $1,379,541.00.

PUBLIC WILL RENDER ITS FIRST OPINION ON SCANDAL TODAY; WAR BETWEEN RULERS IS THREATENED

Opening Game of World's Series This Afternoon Attracts as No Other Like Contest Has in Recent Years—Reception Given New York Team May Well Be, in Opinion Many Observers, Turning Point of Series—Tragedy or Glorification Lie in Giant Bats for Walter Johnson, One of Outstanding Figures in History of Baseball.

(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Baseball, in the throes of one of the most critical pages in its history, faced a climax probably such as it has never known, this afternoon, when the New York Giants, closing their ranks after the swift stroke of scandal, carried the National League's battle flag into the opening World's Series game with the Washington Senators, American League champions.

When Freddy Lindstrom, eighteen-year-old school boy, playing his first season in the majors, steps to the plate to face Walter Johnson, thirty-six-year-old veteran, who started his career with Washington in the year that Lindstrom was born, the situation will be typical of the contrast and confusion, sympathy and treachery, tension and dissension which has made the 1924 series hang heavy with drama.

from a consistent trailer into an aggressive leader, whose victorious achievement brought to the national capital an enthusiasm and exhilaration which neither war nor peace could excite.

Squatting in the Giants' dugout, hidden from the view of the spectators, will be John McGraw, fifty-one-year-old veteran, who played professional baseball before Harris was born and to whom ten major league pennants and three world's championships have come with grizzling gray hair.

President Coolidge Will Attend Opening In a special box, the President of the nation will sit after having made history by being the first president who ever officiated at an opening world's series game. State men, ranking officials of army and navy, diplomats of foreign countries, and prominent figures in all walks of life, will be in the seats about him.

Opposite President Coolidge, in another box, will be Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, the man whose summary action in exposing an attempted bribery precipitated a crisis which threatens to result in developments shaking the whole groundwork of the game.

Bitter War of Baseball Rulers Threatened. In other boxes will be John A. Heydler, president of the National League, and Clark Griffith, president of the Senators, who have declared their support of Landis in a bitter war of baseball rulers which seems likely to follow attacks by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Barney Dreyfuss, Pittsburgh Club owner, upon the conduct of the Dolan-O'Connell probe by the commissioner.

Surrounding the dignitaries and officials, encircling the arena, will be thirty-seven thousand people, whose wild enthusiasm of recent days has been tempered by suspicion, inflamed by resentment, and deadened by scandal into a bubbling chemical of emotion whose dominant reaction will not be known until tested this afternoon.

On the Giant bench a group of athletes four time pennant winners, with every reason for jubilation, will await the moment whose slow approach since revelations of O'Connell, has whittled at their courage, tantalized their brain and pulled at their nerves.

who tamed the Pirates in the first game of their important series, will probably start unless McGraw decides to use Nehf, a southpaw, in an attempt to silence Goslin, Judge and Rice, left handed leaders of the Senators attack.

JOHNSON AND McQUILLAN
(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Walter Johnson, ace of the Senators' twirling corps, probably will face Hugh McQuillan, star Giant right hander, in the opening game. Art Nehf, southpaw, was said to be McGraw's second choice.

The probable line-ups:
Washington: Lindstrom, 3b; Frisch, 2b; Young, rf; Kelly, cf; Terry, lf; Wilson, if; Jackson, ss; Gowdy, c; McQuillan, p.
New York: Frisch, 2b; Young, rf; Kelly, cf; Terry, lf; Wilson, if; Jackson, ss; Gowdy, c; McQuillan, p.

BOATING
MICKEY WALKER SUSPENDED.
(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Carrying out its threat to Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, that it would suspend him if he engaged in a match before meeting Dave Shado, coast welterweight, in a title match, the New York State Athletic Commission yesterday placed the barrier against the title holder following his meeting with Bobby Barrett at Philadelphia on Wednesday night. The suspension is indefinite, and includes Barrett, his manager and his entire stable of fighters.

SOCCER MATCH THIS AFTERNOON
Thesco and Lennoxville will provide the soccer programme this afternoon when they meet on the Parade grounds in their replay of the final for the I.O.D.E. Shield. Thesco two teams played an overtime scoreless draw in their first meeting on September 20th. On that occasion Thesco had to use two substitutes, while Lennoxville played with only ten men. However, this afternoon both clubs will likely have their complete teams in line and an interesting match is anticipated.

LARGE CROWD TO GREET PRINCE AT VANCOUVER

But for Few Railway Officials, Station Had Been Cleared of Spectators.

(Associated Press Despatch) VANCOUVER, Oct. 4.—Promptly at ten o'clock last night the special train of H.R.H., the Prince of Wales, rolled into the Canadian National depot here, and the Prince was given a cordial welcome to the city by Mayor W. R. Owen, and the members of the city council. But for these and a few railway officials, the station had been cleared. Crowds of people outside, however, caught a sunny smile as the Royal visitor raised his hat while stepping into Mayor Owen's official automobile to be conveyed to the Hotel Vancouver. Five other cars were used to transport his suite.

PRINCE OPERATED TRAIN.
En route from Jasper National Park to Vancouver, the Prince of Wales took over the job of running his own special train. Immediately after luncheon, His Royal Highness sent word to J. R. Cameron, the assistant general manager of the western Canadian National National lines, in charge of the operation of the special, that he desired to drive the locomotive on its journey through the Fraser River Canyon.

The Prince mounted the engine cab at Boston Bar, B.C., and introduced himself to the regular train crew and Master Mechanic Austin, who was riding the engine. His Royal Highness, with a copy of the train orders before him, and his eye on the second hand of his watch, started the train out of the divisional point on the dot, opening up the throttle and pushing the reverse lever. It was a good start without any slack of jar. As the heavy train proceeded through the yards it gathered speed, but about one mile out from Boston Bar, cattle were observed on the track, and the Prince slowed down the train and blew the warning whistle. The cattle moved off into the dusk, and with the release of the brakes, the big locomotive, number 5118, swung again into her stride. The route lay along the south bank of the Fraser, the roadbed following the twisting pathway of the river with the swirling waters a hundred feet below. No better spot could have been designed to give the Royal locomotive engineer a real thrill. With high mountains on each side the train swept on through heavy rock cuttings and through a series of tunnels.

Seven miles from Boston Bar, Hell's Gate was passed and the Prince could not resist his anxiety to view the spectacle of the waters of the Fraser being held in the narrow confines by the great masses of rock. For a couple of miles, the speed of the train was slackened and His Royal Highness peered from the locomotive cab down into the gorge. For twelve miles more the Prince remained in charge of the engine, dismounting when the train stopped at Stout, B.C., and proceeding back to his car, "The Balmoral." His Royal Highness was delighted with the experience and Engineer Gregory and Fireman Hallett declared that he was qualified to become a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

HON. J. P. BYRNE RECEIVES APPOINTMENT
OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—Hon. J. P. Byrne, Attorney-General for New Brunswick, has been appointed Judge of the King's Bench Division of New Brunswick. Judge Byrne was elected to the Legislative Assembly and appointed Attorney-General for the province on the formation of the Foster cabinet in 1917. He retained the portfolio on the formation of the Veniot ministry in April of the present year.

LIBBYTOWN
Mr. Harold Johnston was at Stanstead on Tuesday on business. Mr. Albert Davidson, and family attended the auction sale held by his cousin, Mr. Herbert McElrea, at East Angus on Tuesday. Despite the weather conditions over twenty young people of Way's Mills attended the Provincial W. C. T. U. Convention on Tuesday evening in Sherbrooke. Mrs. Fayne Hovey and Miss Amber McDonald acted as delegates from Way's Mills. Mrs. "Y".

NORTH HATLEY
Inquest at North Hatley. Coroner Bachand, of Sherbrooke, was summoned here to hold an inquest on Friday afternoon regarding the death of Mr. T. E. Meyer who was killed by an automobile shortly after noon that day. The evidence given clearly showed that Mr. Lynch, the driver of the car, did not see Mr. Meyer in time to stop, although he was only going at a fair rate of speed, and the unfortunate man, evidently did not see nor hear the car, as he turned from the sidewalk onto the road directly in front of the car, as was testified by eyewitnesses of the accident.

The jury returned a verdict of "accidental death and no blame attached to either the driver or the victim."

General Notes.
The W.C.T.U. will meet with the president, Mrs. Bond Little on Wednesday, October 8th, for dinner. The sad news has been received by Mrs. J. N. Ravenel, of Charleston, S.C., on October 1st. Miss Ravenel and her sister, Miss Alice Ravenel have been summer visitors here for many years and eleven seasons they spent at Mrs. Conner's, "Sunset View."

KISSING IS NOW NOT ALLOWED IN SOVIET RUSSIA

New Order Will Fall Hard on Russian Peasantry — Hand-Shaking Also Banned.

(Associated Press Despatch) MOSCOW, October, 4.—Dr. Nicholas Semassko, Soviet, commissar of health, has issued an edict against kissing, which, he contends, is one of the most potent means of spreading disease. The new order, if observed, will fall hard on the Russian peasantry, who are in the habit of kissing one another not only on the lips, but three times on each cheek in salutation. Dr. Semassko is also opposed to the kissing of ladies hands by men, a national custom in Russia. Not only is this unhygienic, he says, but it is a practice of the bourgeoisie, which has no place in a proletarian republic.

Handshaking has been prohibited in many departments of the Government, and signs are appearing warning employees that the practice frequently results in communication of disease. The conventional salute hand from forehead, is suggested as a safer greeting. As a further health measure, Dr. Semassko advocates a ban on smoking, urging tobacco users to substitute candy and sweetmeats.

KILLED AFTER QUARREL OVER MONEY MATTERS

Wife States She Had Premonition of Danger and Warned Her Husband.

(Associated Press Despatch) BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 4.—A theory that Frederick A. Clements, who turned from a ministerial training in Newfoundland to run a garage at Burlington, was killed by a man after a quarrel over money matters, occupied the attention today of the officials investigating his death. Belief that an arrest would be made by night was expressed by one official.

A warning that his safety was menaced by "a dark man with a club" was given Clements by his wife, a spiritualist medium, but the advice did not save him. Mrs. Clements, otherwise known as Madame Sandeen, last night identified a body found in the Shawsheen River here on Thursday night wrapped in a sack and weighted with metal as that of her husband. The woman told the police that she had premonition of danger to Clements and had warned him to be careful. Clements, who was a garage proprietor in Burlington, was last seen on September 24th, business acquaintances and friends told the authorities. On Thursday boys fishing in the Shawsheen River discovered the body in seven feet of water. It had been wrapped in sacking, bound with wire and weighted down with a lifting jack and two automobile cylinder heads. The medical examiners said it had been in the water about two weeks, and that the man had been beaten over the head with a club or hammer. Clements, a native of Prince Edward Island, was about fifty years old.

DR. HUGUENIN DEAD.
(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Dr. Wilfrid A. Huguenin died last night at the age of fifty-six years, after an illness of some months. He was born in Berthier, Que., and studied medicine at Laval University and in Paris.
