Britain Urges Air Patrol To Halt Raiding

Seeks Co-Operation of France and Italy in Effort to Create International Body Designed to Curb Aerial Attacks by Insurgent Planes on Shipping in Mediterranean—France Indignant as Border Was Again Violated.

London, June 9.—(P)—Great Britain, indignant at repeated Spanish insurgent air raids on her shipping, was reported today considering plans for an international air patrol to halt the attacks.

Her plan, it appeared, is to enlarge the powers of the international fleet created by the Nyon Conference last autumn to crush submarine piracy in the Mediterranean.

Presumably such an air patrol would be given the same orders as the warships—to shoot down on sight any air raiders attacking merchant ships trading with Spain.

The Nyon Treaty was drafted after Britain took a decisive stand against torpedo attacks on her merchantmen and ships of other flags in the Mediterranean. France was a signatory of the accord and Italy later joined it, all contributing their warships to the patrol.

If Britain should call another such conference, it was widely believed, both Italy and France might provide planes.

Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary, was confronted with mounting indignation from public and press over the attacks by General Franco's air raiders.

The British-owned port of Gandia, Spain, was damaged and a French freighter, Brisbane, was sunk yesterday in air attacks. Twelve foreign vessels have been sunk or damaged by insurgent air raids in the past two weeks.

France also is aroused. Planes from across the Spanish border flew over French territory yesterday for the third time since Sunday despite French protests and reinforced aerial patrols on the border.

Lord Halifax was believed to be waiting for reports from British diplomats in Government and Insurgent Spain before making a final decision on his contemplated action.

Several courses Britain may adopt to protect her merchant flag on Spain's Mediterranean coast have been mentioned but the most-emphasized possibility was that the Foreign Secretary would call a conference with other maritime powers.

The Government was said in some quarters to be considering putting the question of the air attacks before Premier Mussolini, of Italy.

HOLY SEE DIRECTS "CONTINUAL INSISTENCE" AGAINST AIR RAIDS

Vatican City, June 9.—(P)—A Vatican news service said today that the Holy See is directing "continual insistence" to General Franco, leader of Insurgent Spain, against bombardments of civilian populations.

Such action, it was said, is part of the Holy See's policy of doing always what it can to diminish suffering and hardship in war and there has been "no let up" appeals made to General Franco in this direction.

Other than this "unending insistence" on special protest or appeal is being made at this time and the Holy See is not joining in any move with other powers, the news service said.

DANISH QUEEN BITTEN BY DOG

Copenhagen, June 9.—(P)—Queen Alexandrine of Denmark was recovering today from a dog bite she suffered yesterday but was expected not to be sufficiently recovered to participate in celebrations at Stockholm June 16 on the eightieth birthday of King Gustaf of Sweden.

Japanese War Planes Renew Attacks Of Crowded Chinese Civil Centres

Canton, June 9.—(P)—Japanese airplanes ferried their cargoes of explosives and dropped them in the vicinity of Canton today for the thirteenth consecutive day.

The raids blasted three railway stations in the vicinity but dropped no bombs on the shattered South China metropolis, where intensive anti-aircraft fire greeted them.

The stations were Yingtak on the Canton-Hankow line, Sheklung on the Canton-Kowloon line that feeds China war supplies from the unblockaded British port of Hong Kong, and Shiuwan.

GRASSHOPPERS MENACE LARGE U.S. DISTRICTS

National Guard Called Out in Southern States to Repel Steadily Advancing Hordes of Insects Threatening Farmer and Stockman.

Springer, N.M., June 9.—(P)—Grasshoppers by the billion were on the march in the deep Southwest and Rocky Mountain region of the United States today, threatening farmer and stockman with ruin.

Pitted against a fantastic insect menace to millions of acres of farm and grazing lands were hundreds of men and machines, waging desperate war against seemingly relentless "hopper" hordes.

National Guard detachments moved into infested areas in Northeastern New Mexico and the Texas Panhandle today, while Colorado, Oklahoma, Montana and Wyoming farmers and Government agencies mobilized their resources against the pest.

Also in Wyoming, Montana, Utah and Idaho, the grasshopper threat will be deplored by the Mormon cricket, destructive and equally voracious cousin of the "hopper."

PRIME MINISTER TO ATTEND CORPS REUNION

Toronto, June 9.—(P)—Announcement that Prime Minister Mackenzie King will attend the opening of the Canadian Corps reunion here July 30, was received last night from Ottawa by corps headquarters.

British And French Vessels Victims Of Latest Air Raids

Five Persons, Including Observer for Non-Intervention Committee, Killed When Insurgent Planes Attacked Vessels in Separate Ports—Government Shifting Troops to Uteras Section as Insurgents Press Drive to Valencia.

Denia, Spain, June 9.—(P)—The British freighter Isadora and the French freighter Brisbane were bombed today in separate insurgent air raids in Government-held Mediterranean seaports.

Five persons were killed including an observer for the Non-Intervention Committee, in the raid on Brisbane by a lone bomber outside this harbor. Ten others were injured, four gravely.

Denia is twenty miles south of Gandia, the British-owned port which was bombed yesterday.

The Isadora was struck in her engine room about midnight in the harbor of Castellon de la Plana and was believed to have been put out of commission. There were no casualties, however, aboard the Isadora.

The Brisbane was set afire about the same time and still was burning at 11.30 a.m. today. It was feared she would sink.

The French ship, of 4,004 tons and loaded with fertilizer, was at anchor in Denia harbor when the air raider struck.

The plane dumped four bombs on the ship and then sprayed her decks with machine gun fire.

A French destroyer at Valencia sped to the Brisbane's assistance and quickly reached her side. The French consul at Valencia came to Denia by automobile to investigate.

All the seamen killed were French. Some of the victims were hit by machine gun bullets. One of the most dangerously injured was the Brisbane's master, Captain R. Guyonol.

The non-intervention agent was said to have been a Briton named Jones.

(The 1,212-ton Isadora is registered at Belfast, Northern Ireland. She was reported in London to have left Marsalle, Friday for Castellon de la Plana, Government-held port north of Valencia.)

The Isadora was damaged previously in an air raid on Valencia April 25.

After the bombing of the Brisbane her entire crew was taken off because it was feared she would sink.

NOTED BRITISH ECONOMIST IS GIVEN HONORS

Sir Josiah Stamp, Who Headed Canadian Grain Futures Inquiry, Is Elevated to Peerage in Official Birthday Honors List.

London, June 9.—(P)—The King, on his official birthday, today raised Sir Josiah Stamp, distinguished economist, and Vivian H. Smith, banker, to the peerage. Their names, with two barons raised a stage in the peerage to viscounts, headed the list of those whom the "King is pleased to honor."

Lord Stonehaven, former chairman of the Conservative party organization and former Governor-General of Australia, and Lord Weir, who resigned recently as adviser to the Air Ministry, became viscounts.

In a list that, as is customary, included no Canadians, the honor to Sir Josiah Stamp was of chief interest to Canada. He is well remembered for his exhaustive inquiry into grain futures trading in 1931 and is a frequent visitor to the Dominion, a director of the Bank of England, he holds the important position of managing the London, Midland and Scottish Railway, the biggest transportation unit in this country.

Vivian Hugh Smith is a partner in Morgan Grenfell and Company, the London branch of the banking house of J. P. Morgan, of New York, which is the fiscal agent of the British Government in the United States. Mr. Smith is also chairman of the Conservative organization of the City of London.

The coveted Order of Merit, restricted to twenty-four ordinary members and awarded for exceptionally meritorious work either with the defence forces or in science, art and literature, was granted to Sir Arthur Eddington, Professor of Astronomy at Cambridge University and director of the observatory there.

ANNEXATION PETITION IS REFUSED BY COMMONS

Ottawa, June 9.—(P)—The petition presented to Parliament by J. F. Pouliot, (Liberal, Temiscouata), asking for annexation of a small corner of the State of Maine to Canada has not been accepted because "it is defective in form and in substance," it was disclosed in today's Commons Votes and Proceedings.

The Clerk of Petitions advised the House the petition did not conform with the requirements of the House.

Body Of Florida Kidnapping Victim Found—Driver Held

Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents Retain Twenty-One Year Old Truck Driver Who Allegedly Confessed to Writing Notes and Receiving Ransom Money on Cash Kidnapping Case—Boy's Body in Bad State of Decomposition.

Miami, Fla., June 9.—(P)—Federal sleepless nights, said McCall had Bureau of Investigation men led personally by J. Edgar Hoover found the body of James Bailey Cash, Jr., early today.

With the tragic discovery they announced the detention of Franklin Pierce McCall, twenty-one year old truck driver, as an alleged participant in the kidnapping twelve days ago.

They also discovered that the entire $10,000 ransom that Cash, senior, paid had been recovered.

It was McCall who "found" the last of three ransom notes delivered to the father and called Cash's attention to it. Sheriff D. C. Coleman said he arrested the man one week ago when he became suspicious of his story.

Meanwhile McCall had participated with two thousand volunteers in a search of the very area around Princeton, south of here, where the body and the ransom money were found.

Hoover, who announced the "breaking" of the case after two

BRUTALLY SLAIN BY ABDUCTORS

Tragically reminiscent of the Lindbergh case, the body of five-year-old James Bailey Cash, Jr., who was snatched from a bed in his parents' home twelve days ago, was found a short distance from the scene of the kidnapping. A former tenant is charged with writing the kidnap notes and receiving the ransom money, all of which was recovered.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY MAY ADJOURN TODAY

System of "Internship" for Graduates of Theological Colleges Approved by Commissioners to General Assembly of Presbyterian Church.

Toronto, June 9.—(P)—Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada today reached the last scheduled date of their sessions with reasonable hope of concluding before noon. The Assembly was constituted June 1st.

"INTERNSHIP" SYSTEM APPROVED

Toronto, June 9.—(P)—A system of "internship" for graduates of theological colleges, as one Commissioner called it, was approved by Commissioners of the Presbyterian Assembly in Canada in General Assembly here today. It is designed especially to help rural districts in Western Canada.

Assembly recommended that in future graduate students spend a year in the field under appointment of the Board of Missions, receiving a certificate before they accept a call. They are to be paid under the terms of an ordained missionary.

Rev. James McNeill, St. John's, Nfld., said in New Zealand students have to serve three years internship. "It prevents them becoming grasshoppers, jumping from church to church," he said.

Plan Extension Of Low-Rent Housing To Entire Dominion

Minister of Finance Tells House of Commons that Provision Has Been Made for Rural and Remote Areas Under New Scheme—House Building Programme Constitutes a Challenge to Construction Industry of the Country.

Ottawa, June 9.—(P)—Canadians have before them today a Government plan to carry the benefits of low-cost housing loans to every family in the Dominion, from the large cities to the crossroads hamlets and fishing villages.

In the House of Commons yesterday Finance Minister Dunning introduced a three-way measure designed to assist financing law salaried owner-builders and municipal low-rental housing projects and to lift the early burden of municipal taxation from the low cost owner-builders. About $55,000,000 is to be the Federal Treasury's obligation under the scheme.

It is the hope of the Government, Mr. Dunning said, to provide better housing conditions, stimulate employment, revive business prosperity, and remove from the minds of the small-salaried man his fear of shouldering the responsibility involved in attaining the life-long ambition of owning his own home.

His housing legislation is "a challenge to the building industry of this country—and is so intended," Mr. Dunning declared. One way to kill it would be for those in the industry to attempt, because of it, to raise prices of commodities or labor.

Housing was the only feature of the short Wednesday sitting. Mr. Dunning gave the House the first definite news of the budget when he said it would be brought down next week.

Since the tall young woman walked away from her home in this little Wolfe County village eight days ago and headed for the home of her sister, living five miles away through a dense forest, there has been no trace of her.

For a week St. Adrien farmers, neighbors of Julien Hamel, father of the missing girl, combed the woods surrounding the village and lying between here and Lower Ireland where she was to have gone to visit the sister, Miss Yvette Hamel.

The thirty searchers returned to their homes last night after the seventh day of fruitless tramping through the woods. They said they had covered every inch of the district in which Alice was believed to have lost her way. Today her parents told them it was not necessary to carry on.

NORTHLAND ELECTRIC SCHEME IS REVIEWED

Quebec, June 9.—(P)—Plans for the Government production of electricity in Quebec's northern mining district were discussed yesterday at a conference between Premier Duplessis and the Province's board of electricity experts.

Announcing the conference Tuesday night, Premier Duplessis had said that during the meeting final plans for erection of a Government-operated water power plant would be laid.

Members of the Quebec Electricity Syndicate who conferred with the Premier presented Provincial Government authorities with a report less than a month ago containing recommendations regarding its project of water power development.

The Syndicate was formed a year ago to examine the system of power charges in the Province and the possibilities of state power to serve the mining industry.

FORMER FOOTGUARDS COMMANDER DIES

Ottawa, June 9.—(P)—Former Officer Commanding the Governor-General's Foot Guards, Lieut.-Col. James Cuvillier Foy, 57, died here yesterday after a brief illness.

Social Credit Policies Definitely Repudiated By Saskatchewan Voters

Liberal Government of Premier W. J. Patterson Given Overwhelming Majority in Yesterday's General Elections—Social Credit Party Making First Bid for Power Gains Only Two Seats—Conservatives Again Fail to Elect Member.

BRITAIN PLANS TO MODERNIZE JURIES

London, June 9.—(P)—Home Office officials are examining regulations which prevent separation of murder juries.

The matter was brought up by Mr. Justice Humphreys in addressing a jury. He told them it was unfortunate they must be locked up but he had no power to alter the law. He thought the practice a survival of a time long gone by and the object of it had ceased to exist.

Major H. A. Proctor, Member of Parliament for Accrington, called attention to the Justice's statement and asked whether the Home Office would introduce a measure to modernize the methods of jury treatment.

Geoffrey Lloyd, Under Secretary for the Home Office, announced the law was being examined.

One Social Credit candidate, Fred Herman, in Melville, won by four votes over Hon. C. M. Dunn, Minister of Highways. Another, William Roseland, was declared winner in Cutknife by forty-three votes over a Liberal and a C.C.F. candidate.

Social Credit had a fighting chance in Turtleford where Hon. W. E. Kerr, Minister of Natural Resources, had a lead of 209 over James Proctor, Social Credit. It was a four-cornered fight, both the C.C.F. and Conservatives losing deposits. Eight polls were missing out of sixty.

The remaining two seats returned Independent candidates. In Yorkton, A. C. Stewart, a Union-Progressive, defeated V. R. Smith, the sitting Liberal. In Bengough, H. K. Warren, Independent, won from J. B. Smith, Liberal, who sat in the last House. Both were straight fights.

There is a possibility of recounts in both seats won by Social Crediters, particularly in Melville.

Premier Patterson had a majority of almost 1,000 in Cannington where he was opposed by Mrs. Gladys Strum, C.C.F.

George Williams, leader of the C.C.F., held the riding of Wadena, defeating Dr. D. C. McCallum, Liberal, by 1,662 votes, and H. W. Arnold, Social Credit, by 4,336. The latter will lose his deposit of $100.

The other two Conservatives, J. G. Diefenbaker, was defeated in Arm River, losing to the sitting Liberal member, G. H. Danielson, by 168. Diefenbaker succeeded Dr. J. F. M. Anderson as Conservative leader in October, 1936, but has never held a seat in the House.

Dr. Anderson, Premier from 1929 until the Liberals won in 1934, went down to defeat in Saskatchewan.

At least one member of the Patterson Government was defeated, Hon. C. M. Dunn losing in Melville, and there was a possibility of Mr. Kerr losing in Turtleford. The other six were elected. Speaker J. M. Parker lost his first election since 1917 when he was defeated in Touchwood by Tom Johnston, C.C.F.

Feature of the election campaign was the intensive drive by the Social Credit party to capture Saskatchewan. They had thirty-nine candidates. Premier William Aberhart, most of his cabinet and many of his followers, left Alberta to campaign here. They drew thousands of Saskatchewan voters to their meetings.

Mr. Aberhart addressing five thousands in the town of Melville on the eve of polling.

But the ballots told another story. Evidently, Saskatchewan people were prepared to listen to Social Credit monetary theories but not vote for them.

The campaign of the Social Crediters featured debt reduction legislation, the Alberta production tax and monetary reform in general. They made no appeal on the basis of monthly dividends, such as the $25 that featured the 1935 Alberta

Ancient Ceremonies Re-Enacted As King Officially Observes Birthday

London, June 9.—(C.P. Cable)—Thousands, including Canadians, today swarmed the sunlit mall to cheer the King as he rode with the Dukes of Gloucester and Kent to take the salute at the historic ceremony of the Trooping of the Color on his "official" birthday.

His Majesty, mounted on a chestnut charger and wearing the scarlet and gold uniform of Colonel-in-Chief of the Scots Guards, with the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter across his tunic, led the glittering cavalcade from Buckingham Palace to the Horse Guards Parade.

The Duke of Gloucester wore the uniform of Colonel of the Scots

Guards and the Duke of Kent that of Colonel of the Royal Fusiliers. Queen Mary and Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret drove to the parade with a Queen's escort of Life Guards. As they drove from the Palace foreign military attaches and members of the Army Council saluted and the crowd burst into cheers as the carriage rounded Victoria Memorial.

Queen Elizabeth was unable to attend. Her Majesty is at Windsor, recovering from a cold.

The King entered the Horse Guards Parade followed by the colonels of the Guards regiments: The

Supervision Of Radio Police Aids In License Collections

May Collections of License Fees Amounted to $13,289.45 as Against $10,332.25 in Corresponding Month Last Year, Statistics Issued Today by City Treasurer Maurice Cormier Indicate—Increase Over Last Month in Electric Department Revenue.

The supervision exercised by the Radio Police cars was responsible to a large extent for the improvement recorded over last year in the May collection of license fees, City Treasurer Maurice Cormier pointed out today when he released his monthly comparative statement of municipal collections. Licenses in May brought in $13,289.45, an increase of $2,957.20 over the figure of $10,332.25 in the corresponding period last year, the report indicated. The Radio Police cars have been very helpful by maintaining a close supervision over peddlers and other dealers in a similar category, with the result that the usual procrastination in taking out licenses has been practically eliminated.

CLAIMS UNDUE PRESSURE USED ON MINISTERS

Baptist Convention Told that Influential Men Endeavoring to Curtail Freedom of Ministers in Their Work.

Brantford, Ont., June 9.—(P)—Delegates to the Ontario and Quebec Baptists' Convention resumed discussions today with a charge by Rev. R. J. Quiggin before them that "influential men" in some Baptist churches were endeavoring to curtail freedom of ministers in their work. Sympathizers of the totalitarian states, the Owen Sound minister charged before the convention last night, were to be found "among the deacons and on the boards of management in our very own churches." Fascism, he said, was not confined to Europe or Quebec province.

Critical of the low salaries paid ministers, he termed their pay "stenographers' stipends." Previously the Home Mission Board had presented new minimum salary standards of $1,100 and parsonage for regular home mission fields; $1,200 and parsonage for urban fields and Northern Ontario fields. The new standard, but a minimum of $800 and parsonage, was recommended for irregular fields.

Body of Florida Kidnapping Victim Found—Driver Held

Continued from Page 1. denomination were delivered also was found—the kidnapper had torn it to pieces and hidden it beneath a stone in a palmetto clump.

The body of little "Skeegie" who would have been six year old in August, was in a bad state of decomposition. An autopsy was ordered to determine the exact manner in which he died.

It was cancelled later, however, when Dr. Thomas Otto reported the body was in such a state that it would be impossible to determine the cause of death.

The physician said the skull had not been fractured and there were no signs of violence as far as could be observed. The body was taken to an undertaker's at Homestead, south of Princeton.

Hoover indicated no federal law apparently had been violated and that McCall and any others who may be prosecuted would be tried in the state courts. Whether they are charged with murder or kidnapping for ransom they will face a penalty of electrocution if convicted.

McCall was held in a detention cell in the Federal Bureau of Investigation atop a downtown skyscraper, inaccessible to the public. Sheriff Coleman said he bore a good reputation at Princeton, where he had driven trucks for the vegetable farmers, and that his father, who died three months ago, was a Nazarene pastor.

The third ransom note by which McCall was trapped was delivered late at night on the Monday following the kidnapping. With crowds milling about the Cash home, Sheriff Coleman said McCall brought the note to the father with the note that he had picked it up from the floor where it apparently had been thrust beneath the door. The note was crumpled into a ball, the Sheriff added, and it was this circumstance that first caused him to doubt McCall's story.

The gist of the note was that too many persons had been in the vicinity when Cash made a solitary drive over a route mapped in an earlier message to deliver the ransom and that the kidnapper wanted him to go out again with the money. On this trip Cash received a signal of blinking headlights and dropped the shoebox full of small bills on the highway.

Activities of the G-men late last night gave an indication a "break" was imminent. Hoover and a number of agents hopped off a plane northeast of Princeton, apparently searching carefully by moving slowly toward the centre.

Nearly an hour later, Hoover and several of his agents entered F.B.I. headquarters at Miami with McCall. Apparently McCall had been taken along to direct the search for the body.

Tow-headed "Skeegie" was stolen from his bed about 10 p.m. May 28th. His mother read to him a few minutes before leaving to help her husband close his general store next door. She said the child appeared apprehensive and begged her not to leave.

The parents found the boy missing

SOUTH AFRICAN CRASH VICTIMS' BODIES FOUND

Rescue Party, Guided by Airplanes, Labored for Three Days Through Jungle to Reach Smashed Plane.

Evangelina, South Africa, June 9.—(P)—A rescue party which labored three days through dense African bush today reached the wreckage of the military plane which cracked up north of the Limpopo river, killing six members of the British and South African air forces.

Planes reconnoitering overhead guided the rescue expedition, headed by Colonel A. L. Price, Rear War commander, in the final phases of the search.

The dead occupants of the plane, which crashed Monday, were Lieut. R. Moseby, Corporal R. Boxshall, and Private R. Pring, members of a Royal Air Force boxing team who were enroute to a South African boxing tournament from Rhodesia; their trainer, M. P. Peters; Capt. A. C. Koch, twenty-five year old pilot; and Sergeant M. P. Leroux, twenty-five, of the South African Flying Corps.

Plan Extension of Low-Rent Housing To Entire Dominion

Continued from Page 1. would be 3% per cent a year. The third part, Mr. Dunning said, was designed to strike a direct blow at what he believed to be the greatest deterrent to building operations—municipal taxation.

On owner-built houses of up to $4,000 cost the Government will pay the municipal taxation the first year, fifty per cent the second year and twenty-five per cent the third year. This was estimated to cost the treasury a maximum of $5,500,000 in three years. The provision does not include local improvement taxes.

Opposition Leader Bennett, Denton Massey (Conservative, Toronto-Greenwood) and O. B. Elliott, (Social Credit, Kindersley) endorsed the principle of the bill.

Mr. Bennett observed the announcement had come first from Agriculture Minister Gardiner speaking in the Saskatchewan election campaign. A similar incident in the British Government, he said, had resulted in dismissal of a Secretary of State for India.

One of the great defects in the Dominion Housing Act of 1935, Mr. Dunning said, had been the difficulty of those in small communities including lending institutions to deal with their applications because of the administration costs involved.

It had also been difficult for those in low income groups to finance building. Now it was proposed to give greater assistance to the low income groups and bonus the lending institutions to offset extra charges in handling accounts distant from the lending office.

The old act, which financed $17,000,000 worth of loans up to the end of May last, provided the builder put up twenty per cent, the lending institution sixty per cent and the Dominion twenty per cent.

Now it would be provided that loans might be made up to ninety per cent of the lending value of the property on the lowest cost homes and that the Government would share with the lending institution, in varying degree, the risk of loss on the venture, in certain areas.

INQUIRY OVERLOOKS ABSENCE OF WITNESS

Ingersoll, Ont., June 9.—(P)—Fire Marshal W. J. Scott will not question Russell Stewart's absence last week from the inquiry into the fire which destroyed the Ingersoll Flour Mills, of which Stewart was president and general manager.

The Provincial Fire Marshal said as the probe resumed last night that Stewart's absence from earlier sittings would be overlooked when he appeared to testify. Stewart took the stand after sitting all afternoon beside his counsel, Frank Regan, while T. R. Jones, manager of the Ingersoll branch of the Imperial Bank, told of the milling company's financial status at the time of the blaze in January.

When they returned home about 10:30 p.m. a hasty search of the neighborhood followed during which Mrs. Cash remarked, "I know I'll never see my boy again."

Chronology Of Cash Abduction Case Is Listed

Princeton, Fla., June 9.—(P)—The chronology of the Cash kidnapping case follows:

May 28—James Bailey "Skeegie" Cash, Jr., kidnapped from bed between 9:35 and 10:15 p.m., by abductor who let himself in back door after sliding screen. Cash, Sr., finds note pinned to door of brother's home directing him to negro's shack where second note is found demanding $10,000 ransom. Father notifies Federal Bureau of Investigation despite threat of death to boy.

May 29—Federal agents start investigation, reinforcements coming by plane. Neighbors co-operate to give kidnappers impression all is calm.

May 30—Cash gets ransom money from bank despite Memorial Day holiday, under supervision of G-men. Follows route mapped in note to pay ransom but fails to contact kidnappers. News of kidnapping becomes public. Third note slipped under Cash's door giving new directions to pay ransom.

May 31—Cash contacts kidnappers on solitary drive at dawn, pays ransom and gets assurance boy will be returned. Aroused citizens restrained from starting manhunt. Authorities withdraw, leaving way clear for abductors to return lad.

June 1—One thousand volunteers go out in hopes to scour vicinity. F.B.I. agents question possible witnesses and broadcast serial numbers of ransom money.

INSURGENTS PRESS TOWARD VALENCIA

Hendaye, France, June 9.—(P)—The Government shifted heavy reinforcements to the Uzeras sector on the Valencia front in Eastern Spain today to bolster its crumbling defences twelve miles northwest of Castellon de la Plana.

Steady insurgent pressure supported by heavy artillery and ceaseless air-raid bombardments was slowly forcing Government militiamen to give way in the salient.

Only in the Uzeras sector, however, were the Government lines in danger on the sixty-mile front from Mora de Rubielos to Alboaccer.

And on both flanks of the narrow insurgent salient extending from Adzenta southeast to Uzeras the Government said counter-attacks had recovered lost territory yesterday.

Crediting reports of unrest behind insurgent General Franco's lines, the Spanish (Government) press agency reported from Gibraltar that twenty persons, including two women, had been executed Tuesday by insurgents at La Liena. Those executed were charged with distributing anti-Fascist leaflets.

Social Credit Policies Definitely Reputed By Saskatchewan Voters

Continued from Page 1. election. The Saskatchewan election was the first, since Alberta, in which the Social Credit forces were led by Premier Aberhart. He appealed to Saskatchewan to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with Alberta in a concerted fight "the money power" and "financial tyranny."

On the other hand, the Liberals, under Premier Patterson, stressed business-like administration in their appeal to the electors. They pointed to their record in office and contrasted it with the Aberhart administration's record in Alberta. Particularly, they sought support of all persons opposed to Social Credit in an effort not to split it among different parties and groups.

The C.C.F. with thirty-one in the field, appealed particularly on an anti-Government policy, claiming general maladministration and excessive patronage. They made no particular emphasis of socialization of industry.

Labor candidates of various sorts ran in Regina and Saskatoon but they were never in the race. Only two women ran in the election and both were defeated, Mrs. Strum by Premier Patterson and Mrs. Gertrude Telford, also a C.C.F., by Hon. R. J. M. Parker, Minister of Municipal Affairs, in Pelly.

were said to have been seized and a general uprising thwarted. One theory advanced was that Japan's savage bombing attacks were the result of the thwarted plot, though military authorities viewed the raids as an effort to paralyze this South China centre of rail communications and halt the flow of munitions to the Chinese front.

RAIDS CAUSE ANOTHER WHOLESALE POPULATION CHANGE

Shanghai, June 9.—(P)—War's fury today was causing a mass migration from three great cities, adding innumerable thousands to an estimated 30,000,000 refugees already homeless as a result of Japan's sweep across China.

Bombings since May 28 at Canton have caused an estimated 500,000 to flee. Thousands more are fleeing south and west from Chengchow, junction of the East-West Lunghai and North-South Peiping-Hankow Railways, which is under the immediate shadow of Japan's advancing army.

Still other thousands, chiefly women and children, are walking, riding and taking to boats from Hankow, provisional capital of General Chiang Kai-Shek's Central Chinese Government, in the wake of the announced decision to move many Government officers and convert China's inland metropolis into a military camp.

The Japanese army in six spearheads is arrayed in step ladder formation on a sweeping 350-mile front, thrusting at Chengchow and Hankow, and the Peiping-Hankow Railway that runs between.

The major force is within ten miles of Chengchow on the east. Five other columns, stretching in a southeasterly direction across Honan and Anhwei provinces, are thrusting deep toward the interior of China.

France Launches Offensive Against Reich Activity In Alsace-Lorraine

Paris, June 9.—(P)—Premier Edouard Daladier's Government has launched a counter offensive against what is described as a large-scale Nazi propaganda campaign in Alsace-Lorraine.

Activity of German agents in the provinces, lost by France in 1871 and after recovered as a result of the Great War has impressed the Government so seriously that Vice Premier Camille Chautemps has been assigned to Alsatian affairs exclusively.

Early this spring Joseph Paul-Boncour, then Foreign Minister, told the Chamber of Deputies Foreign Affairs Committee that Nazi agents were increasing their attempts to turn German-speaking citizens of Alsace-Lorraine against France.

After the Saar plebiscite, January 15, 1935, Reichswehrer Adolf Hitler solemnly proclaimed that return of the territory to Germany marked

APPOINT DELEGATES TO PROVINCIAL SYNOD

Sessions Of Anglican Congress Nearing End

Importance of Sunday School Work Stressed by Rt. Rev. Philip Carrington, Lord Bishop of Quebec—Encouraging Report Tabled by Rev. Canon C. R. Eardley-Wilmut for King's Hall Institution at Compton—Pensions to Superannuated Clergy Discussed.

Their sittings nearing an end, delegates to the Forty-Second Session of the Anglican Synod of the Diocese of Quebec continued deliberations in St. Peter's Church Hall this morning when the election of lay-delegates and alternates to the Provincial Synod was completed. Clerical delegates to the Provincial Synod and members of the Board of Priests were appointed yesterday.

Lay-delegates were named as follows: Thomas Keeley, Sherbrooke; F. A. Sabbaton, Quebec; W. H. Lynch, K.C., Sherbrooke; B. B. Carter, Quebec; J. P. Wells, K.C., D.C.L., Sherbrooke; H. E. Grundy, Sherbrooke; C. Guy Bishop, Sherbrooke; G. Dunn, Quebec; Dr. A. R. F. Hubbard, Quebec; W. A. Bonn, Lennoxville; W. H. Henderson, Quebec; Dr. S. A. Banfill, East Angus. Substitute lay-delegates are as follows: Guy C. Bryant, Sherbrooke; F. M. Gibault, Quebec; R. N. Robins, Sherbrooke; F. E. Kerridge, Sherbrooke; A. C. Stevens, Sherbrooke; Dr. W. P. Percival, Quebec.

Following prayer by the Lord Bishop and singing of the National Anthem in honor of His Majesty's birthday today, minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and confirmed. It was decided that the Deanery of Levis prepare the report on the religious needs and progress of the Diocese for the next meeting of the Synod.

Moved by the Very Rev. A. H. Crowfoot, Dean of Quebec, a decision was reached requesting secretaries of the Synod to call the attention of the Hymn Book Committee of the General Synod to the fact that the chart appended to the new hymn book has no settings for that part of the burial service which priests and clerics sing.

Shortly before noon discussion was started on the report of the Diocesan Council for Social Service, presented by Rev. E. H. Humphries, secretary of the council.

Discussions concerning pensions to superannuated clergy and the system of registration of births, together with the tabling of a number of reports, occupied the attention of the delegates to the Anglican Synod yesterday afternoon and last night.

Proposed by Rev. A. E. E. Legge, of Three Rivers, the resolution referring to pensions, passed after a lengthy debate, asked that the Synod concur in the proposals to establish a satisfactory system of annual contributions to the benefice funds of the Diocese, as outlined in the triennial report of the Pension Board of the General Synod, and delegate to the Central Board of the Church Society of the Diocese of Quebec the power to act on its behalf in establishing, regulating and operating the system.

The system outlined in the General Synod Pension Board report advocated adoption of a plan of assessment on the basis of salary; adoption of a scale of assessment sufficiently high to increase from the beginning the existing level of current support of pensions; increase of the scale of assessments to seven and a half per cent of salaries for 1940, and division of the annual assessment between the Bishops and clergy and their respective salary-paying sources in the ratio of one-third and two-thirds, respectively.

A resolution was proposed by Dr. S. A. Banfill, of East Angus, asking that the clergy of the Diocese be authorized to register births in their respective parish registers of all non-Roman Catholics reported to them at the time of the drawing up of the Vital Statistics Registration and add the details respecting baptism if any, when the baptism is performed. After deliberations, an amended form of the resolution was passed, by which Lord Bishop Carrington will confer with Chancellor J. P. Wells and make the necessary arrangements.

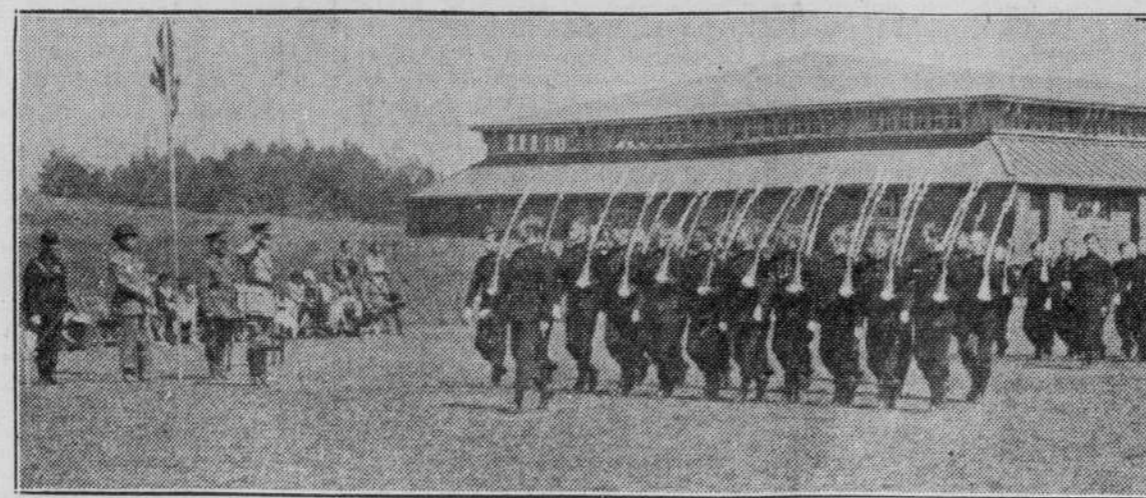

The report of the executive committee of the Synod was given, dealing largely with the furnishing of "Bishopthorpe," the Lord Bishop's residence. S. Barrow, of Quebec, who was in charge of raising funds for the work and collected twenty-two per cent, more than the amount originally set, was tendered a vote of thanks for his efforts.

It was stated by the committee regarding religious education in public schools that the Protestant Survey Committee had been urged to include more religious teaching in schools. This committee, having completed its work, was disbanded, but its duties will be carried on by the Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

Dr. W. P. Percival, of Quebec, Director of Education, told the Synod that the religious course of study as prescribed for schools must be taught and that inspectors are ordered to report all schools not doing so. He said he was not aware of any movement afoot to remove the Scripture teaching and moral instruction from the schools, but was not in favor of holding examinations in these subjects.

Indicating that the last two years had been very successful, the report of King's Hall, Compton, was submitted by Rev. Canon C. R. Eardley-Wilmut. Enrollment had increased substantially and last year the institution received more applications than it had room to fill. Many improvements had also been made, the

IMPRESSIVE PERFORMANCE BY B. C. S. CADETS

B.C.S. Cadets Uphold Unit's High Tradition

Brigadier R. O. Alexander, D.S.O., Deeply Impressed by Faultless Demonstration Staged by Cadet Corps at Annual Inspection Yesterday Afternoon—Described Display as Better than Any Previous on Part of Unit.

"There may come the day when the fine tradition you are helping to build, the esprit-de-corps and the work you have shown today will be useful, perhaps not only to yourself but to your country as well," Brigadier R. O. Alexander, D.S.O., officer Commanding Military District No. 4, declared yesterday afternoon when he lauded the Bishop's College School Cadet Corps upon their splendid showing at their annual inspection.

The Brigadier said that he had been deeply impressed by the faultless demonstration staged by the school cadets and he described yesterday's display as better than any he had seen upon the part of the cadet unit.

"As doubtless you have often been told," he said, "you have high traditions to live up to. You are fortunate to belong to one of the few cadet corps entitled to battle colors, and I know of no school in the Empire that has produced finer military men than B.C.S."

From the standpoint of service, the Brigadier continued, the School corps had a high tradition to uphold, "and much will be expected of you."

"Whether or not you continue with army work," the inspecting officer said, "do not entirely give up military training. For as members of an officer-producing school you will be expected to have those qualities of leadership which as members of this corps you have had instilled in you."

Under the command of Cadet-Major Ian MacLean, the corps presented a fine appearance as they carried out their drill and the march past without a fault. Buttons shining, bayonets gleaming and uniforms spotless, the B.C.S. boys upheld in a worthy manner the splendid traditions of their unit as they gave the general salute to Brigadier Alexander.

Accompanied by Lt.-Col. Gorissline, D.S.O., of Headquarters Staff, Crawford Grier, Headmaster of the School, and Lt. W. H. Fisher, instructor of the squad, Brigadier Alexander inspected the corps after the fall in and roll call. The march past, first in line and then in column of platoons, was carried out with faultless precision, with the Preparatory Schools lads, in white flannels and purple blazers marching behind, under the command of R. MacMaster and D. Landry.

Organized by Lt. Lyman Tomkins, of the Sherbrooke Regiment (M.G.), the anti-aircraft demonstration, one of the highlights of the afternoon's activities, followed by a physical training display by the Prep, instruction by the Cadets to the recruits and company drill. The "Lucas Light," a day lamp for signalling, and Lewis anti-aircraft guns were brought into play and assembled.

CIVIC DELEGATION TO LOCAL HOSPICE

Mayor Marcus Armitage and Miss Margaret Armitage, Sherbrooke's First Lady, and four members of the City Council, accompanied by their wives, yesterday afternoon visited the old folks and orphans at the Sacred Heart Hospice and greatly enjoyed the fine programme presented on their behalf. The visitors were particularly impressed by the display of handwork put on by members of the household science school. Mayor Armitage, pleased by the program staged by the children, proclaimed a holiday for them to be enjoyed in the near future.

INCREASE RECORDED IN BANK CLEARINGS

An increase of $24,100.26 over the corresponding period last year was recorded by local bank clearings for the past week, according to statistics announced today by the Sherbrooke Clearing House. The past week's total was $654,925.36 as against $620,825.10 in 1937. The past week's figures, however, were $6,733.86 less than the total of $661,569.22 for the same week of 1936.

Bank clearings in the Dominion registered a slight increase during the past week as compared with a year ago, aggregate returns for twenty-seven major cities showing a total of $287,769,731 as compared with $285,050,661 for the same cities a year ago. Of the larger centres only Winnipeg continued on the downside, Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa showing gains. Montreal scored a substantial rise, clearings totalling $94,974,779 as against $84,343,770 last year, a gain of twelve per cent.

CITY BEING RE-DECORATED.

A crew of workmen this morning began the task of re-decorating the city upon a smaller scale than that which featured last summer's Centennial celebration. The colored lights are being installed, it was stated, following a decision reached by the City Council to "dress up" the streets, at important sections, in gala attire, partly for the convention of the Province of Quebec Police and Fire Chiefs' Convention to be held here next August.

report stated. His Lordship stressed the importance of Sunday School work in addressing last night's session of the Synod. He contended that Sunday Schools are one of the primary duties of the clergy and that the teachers are a very important factor in church work. He believed the three most important duties of the clergy to be worship, visitation of the sick and children.

Bishop Carrington addressed the assembly following the presentation of the report of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education by the Rev. E. H. Humphries, secretary. In this report an urgent appeal was made to members of the Synod to support the Diocesan Youth Conference slated to be held at North Hatley from June 27th to July 2nd.

Strengthening the fellowship that exists between the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and the Church in the Diocese of Quebec was emphasized in the report of the committee on religious needs and progress of the Diocese. The report stated that many of the clergy and laymen from the Episcopal Church in United States spend their vacations in the Province of Quebec and many lay people from the Eastern Townships holiday in the United States and it was thought that some means might be found of strengthening and deepening the fellowship now in existence.

A resolution contained in the report was carried, stating that "in view of the continual increase of transients and those who come to stay from the United States into our Diocese, and those from our own Diocese who visit or remain in the United States, be it resolved that we take every possible means to cultivate a closer relationship with our brethren in the United States, and that our lay people be urged, during vacations spent in the United States, to make a point of attending service in our own church, known as the Pro-

Great Britain Is Rapidly Becoming World's Strongest Military Power

The gradual establishment of the Dominions as separate world powers is, in the opinion of Lt.-Col. K. B. Jenckes, M.C., E.D., who has just returned from a holiday trip to England, the greatest menace which today confronts the Empire.

Col. Jenckes does not place much weight upon the possibility of England being involved in war. In fact, Great Britain, in his opinion, is rapidly becoming the world's strongest military power, and there is little likelihood of any nation, even Germany, ever thinking of attacking her.

As a matter of fact, Col. Jenckes was much impressed with what he saw while in England. The age-old spirit of the Mother Country, "to get them there just the same," was evident throughout the nation. There is no pretence among the different groups, and everyone, even the Opposition, is displaying a marked spirit of co-operation in both national and international matters of importance. Premier Chamberlain is being given support by all parties and there is a united determination to lift the dark clouds which are facing the world as a whole. Col. Jenckes paid special tribute to the work of the Red Cross and similar organizations in giving confidence and measures of safety to the people.

England, despite war clouds and uncertainty which hangs over the greater part of Europe, is at present carrying out quite a considerable building programme. The Government is co-operating with the various municipalities in this respect and many new modern tenement and apartment houses are being built for the use of the poorer element of the population.

He who wishes to secure the good of others has already secured his own.—Confucius.

Long May He Reign

Today the far-flung British Empire is officially observing the birthday of its beloved Sovereign, His Most Gracious Majesty King George the Sixth. His Majesty was actually born on December 14th, 1895, but by an Act of Parliament it has been decided that June 9th would be formally and officially observed as the King's birthday.

It is with a feeling of pride that Canadians today honor their Sovereign. There is thankfulness in the hearts of all that such a noble man should have been called upon to preside over the destinies of the Empire.

A little more than a year ago and the present King was simply the Duke of York, a younger son in the Royal Family. Suddenly the mantle of Kingship fell upon his shoulders and he, and his gracious consort, assumed their important and difficult tasks.

An almost unbelievable transformation has occurred since His Majesty ascended the Throne. He was not prepared for the tasks which were thrust upon him. He had shown himself to be a modest, home-loving man who found his happiest moments within the family circle.

But fate had willed otherwise. Such was not to be his life. The torch of service had been handed down to him. He did not expect the summons, but he was not found wanting when the call came.

Immediately he assumed his responsibilities. He conquered the difficulties which faced him. He set out with a determination. He was going to follow in the footsteps of his illustrious father, the late King George the Fifth. Certainly he has achieved outstanding success.

Although still a young man, King George the Sixth promises to be one of the Empire's most beloved Kings. The welfare of his people is foremost in his mind, and he is determined to continue his work along the lines so firmly laid down by his father. In his labors he is aided and helped by his wife, who shares with him the allegiance, love and respect of all British people.

To His Majesty today goes the warmest sentiments from his Canadian Dominion. The people of Canada are proud of their British connections. They are determined to preserve the mighty traditions which link them to the Empire. They greet the King on the celebration of his birthday.

In unity of voice and heart from all sections of the Dominion today arises the prayer, "God Save our gracious King; long live our noble King."

Saskatchewan Retains Its Sanity

The overwhelming victory of the Liberal party in yesterday's Saskatchewan general elections indicates that despite the drought and other natural catastrophes which have burdened them down during the past eight years, the people of Saskatchewan have retained their political sanity and have resisted the visionary heavens pictured by some golden-mouthed politicians.

Particularly impressive was the swamping of the Social Credit group who failed to elect more than two members in a House of fifty. Apparently his next-door neighbors have had an opportunity of seeing Premier Aberhart's policies at work and have decided that they are far from good. The Saskatchewan electors seem to think that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush—that the Federal-Provincial prairie rehabilitation scheme is worth more than any possible future Social Credit dividends.

The continued eclipse of the Conservative party was not unexpected. Failing to contest half the ridings, it was readily seen that they had no hope of forming a Government themselves, while their policies were at wide variance with other Opposition groups. Thus the moderate vote, desiring a stable government, swung to the Liberal party.

Hungary's Critical Position

Probably the country holding one of the most delicate positions in Europe today is Hungary where Bela Imredy, recently named Premier, is confronted with one of the most ticklish of tasks—suppression of political extremists, including pro-German Nazis, without stepping on Germany's toes. The Reich is one of Hungary's best customers and her chief friend in the matter of territorial justice which the latter country has demanded since the 1919 Treaty of Trianon gave important slices of Hungary to her neighbors.

The Hungarian Nazis are no unified group, comprising fifty or more parties and clubs which range the gamut of pro-Germanism, anti-Germanism to plain anti-Semitism, which is the apparent common denominator of the entire movement.

Annexation of Austria by Germany caused extremist agitation to flare up, characterized by repeated rumors of revolutionary developments to come and the public became jittery.

Linked with the problem of the Nazis is the ever-increasing demand of peasants for land, as with a population of less than nine millions, Hungary has one million landless peasants. Imredy has promised land reform, creation of small homesteads like the hereditary farms in Germany. If he can put his plan through without too much opposition from big landholders, he will have scored heavily with a section of the populace lately susceptible to Nazi agitation, but he will still have many other troubles ahead.

An Encouraging Sign

The continued increase in the gold production of the Province of Quebec is one of the most encouraging signs on the economic barometer of the Province, the production being 71,883 ounces, an increase of 27.43 per cent over the output of 56,331 ounces for April, 1937.

Both directly in the employees in the mining district proper and indirectly through the purchase of machinery and supplies and the shipment of ore by rail, the mining industry has done much to cushion the effects of the past depression on Canada as a whole, and the Province of Quebec in particular, and anything which tends to boost this important industry will be reflected through the whole Province.

In addition to gold, silver was also sharply higher, the production for April being 82,832 ounces, or 62.90 per cent above the output of 50,848 ounces in the same month of 1937.

Editor's Note-Book

One of the best ways to start the summer long-week-end season is to remember that every long week-end produces a long list of accidents, many of them of the avoidable variety.

Goering found somebody who would marry him in spite of his uniforms and medals, so why shouldn't Adolf find somebody who will marry him in spite of his oratory?

Correct English is being taught to caddies in Des Monte, Calif. "Begging your pardon, sir, I should like to suggest that this situation calls for the judicious use of a shovel."

A truck smashed a hamburger stand in Peoria four hours after it opened for business. Fortunately, however, it was a quick lunch.

This is the season when any good office man can take a pencil and sheet of paper and get rich raising chickens.

CLOUDS

The dew is gleaming in the grass,
The morning hours are seven;
And I am fain to watch you pass,
Ye soft white clouds of heaven.

Ye stray and gather, part and fold;
The wind alone can tame you;
I dream of what in time of old
The poets loved to name you.

They called you sheep, the sky your sward,
A field without a reaper;
They called the shining sun your lord,
The shepherd wind your keeper.

Your sweetest poets I will deem
The men of old for moulding
In simple beauty, such a dream—
And I could lie beholding.

Where daisies in the meadows toss,
The wind from morn till even
Forever shepherd you across
The shining field of heaven.

—Archibald Lampman.

NEW TRENDS IN EUROPE WITH RUSSIA AS SPHINX

(Chicago News)

Silent is the trumpet, quiet the booming gun. Hitler and Mussolini have met, commended and parted. To what end? Does anyone know? Do they themselves know? The world still spins on its axis; only time can tell what has happened to the Rome-Berlin axis.

There were private conversations, speeches, compliments, grandiloquent pledges, followed by official pronouncements and by inspired comment in the controlled press. Words, words! Such verbiage is the mist behind which diplomacy manoeuvres. Only when it clears away can the truth of fact and deed be perceived.

Not long ago, Germany, Italy and Japan, forming an alliance, set out to remake the map. For a time all cringed before them. And now? Now Japan has bogged down in China, for long, none can say. The Spanish Loyalists have stiffened unexpectedly against the puppet Franco and his German and Italian masters. Taking courage, Britain and France have arranged a common defense and at last are speaking up.

Nations follow their interests. When any nation or group of nations seems to be getting too strong, others finally combine against it, for self-preservation is still the primary law.

From earliest antiquity, sea power has been the decisive factor in war. Today in Europe, however, feverishly Germany may build or Mussolini manoeuvre his fleets in the Bay of Naples, the preponderance of sea power remains with France and Britain.

Britain can never passively allow

Germany to defeat France and establish itself on the English Channel. That is axiomatic. Neither Britain nor France can allow Germany and Italy to remain in Spain indefinitely. That is axiomatic, too. So while Britain works to detach Italy from Germany, plies Germany and Germany's little neighbors with soft persuasions, and gives moral encouragement to Franco, France lets more arms go through to Loyalist Spain. Consistent? No, just statecraft.

Meanwhile, how close is Mussolini to Hitler? Well, how close can he afford to be? Only Britain and France can relieve him from German pressure. Only Germany can save him from British dictation. With rocks to the right of him, rocks to the left, watch him navigate the rapids, chin high, and giving the Fascist salute.

Yes, but what will Hitler do next? Mystic though he be, thinking with his blood and hearing voices, does not that depend on what he imagines he can do safely, without risk of war and defeat? Can Italy, a poor country utterly exposed to naval blockade and to bombing and destruction of its fine coast towns, a country, moreover, badly embroiled in Ethiopia and Spain, help him much? And with France and Britain looking up again, and speaking up, just how far does he dare go, without first obtaining their consent?

Ah, but Russia—mysterious Russia? What will Russia do? So long as it can continue to embarrass the Fascist alliance by helping China and the Spanish Loyalists with arms, why should it do anything more? In short, the moving finger writes, and having writ—rewrites!

CONSCRIPTION IN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

(L'Evenement, Quebec)
Suppressing liberty in a manner as dangerous as it is abusive, totalitarian states are wiping out the gentle influence of the home by claiming of boys, at six years and girls at eight, to move into a type of public instruction that is nothing less than demoralizing. Stalin and Mussolini are waging a competition to see which nation is the more advanced in this idea, which leads inevitably to arrogant nationalism.

Failure to realize the peril of this practice, neighbouring nations are forced now to revise their military service laws in such a way that they will have the maximum in fighting men and energy. Only that measure of safety acted upon in time saved Czechoslovakia from being humiliated by Germany as Austria was.

To offset any untoward eventualities, England is also planning a revision which will give her every possible amount of defensive manpower. She holds on to her inferiority insofar as numbers are concerned—but she plans to have a more intelligent and more complete organization than that of those who may be her enemies. The results of her attempt are eagerly awaited.

"DON'T THINK TOO MUCH OF YOURSELF"
(Le Messager, Lewiston, Maine.)
One of our deplorable habits is the refusal to benefit from our mistakes; we want the esteem and admiration of our fellowmen, whether or not we deserve it. We disown our faults, deny our mistakes, we give the fairest excuses for our conduct, with one object in sight to impress others with what we believe is our perfect wisdom and judgment.

This unjustified pretence is absolutely reprehensible, for it tends to make the future hazardous, and give us a reputation which we should not deserve—that of being liars and bluffers. It takes the dignity of a responsible being from us, and leaves us open to the criticism and ridicule which we fully deserve in punishment of our faults.

Under the storm and the cloud today, and today the hard peril and pain—tomorrow the stone shall be rolled away, for the sunshine shall follow the rain.—Joachim Miller.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
Author of "You Can," "Up," "Just Among Friends"

Hidden Rainbows

These talks are written from day to day primarily and solely to inspire people to make the most of themselves, to face the world bravely, and to take things as they come in good heart.

If people are happy in the things they do, they need not worry as to their future. Happy people get on. They are genuine successes, whether they accumulate much in material possessions or not. "To earn a little, and spend a little—less." Then to lend a hand. That is to experience a true thrill throughout life.

When Nelson, the great English naval hero, returned from India, he was ill in health and dejected in spirit. He almost lost all hope. Then he suddenly determined to turn about face. Said he: "Hope kindled within me, and presented my King and country as my patron. 'Well, then,' I exclaimed, 'I will be a hero! And, confiding in Providence, I will brave every danger.'"

The rest is history. The traveller in London, who stands before that great shaft in Trafalgar Square, should take on new hope, and think of the time when Nelson thought he, too, was defeated—but wasn't.

You can't defeat a man who refuses to be defeated! Nations have to struggle and work out their destinies the same as individuals. But nothing can keep back the progress of a nation whose every individual citizen determines that that nation shall live, and that it shall represent the struggle and hope of its humblest member.

Rainbows appear after storms. There is always hope in the air, and in the human heart. God put it there at birth. If you are doing something useful you don't have to worry about the future.

We will be forever passing from the old to the new. Transition always creates a pain somewhere. Breakdowns and delays in this process only suggest the golden road ahead. The silver lining of the clouds, and the potential rainbows, are the inspirers of hope that will forever guide us all—on to higher achievements and better standards of life.

PRESS COMMENTS

A JAPANESE BOYCOTT (Hong Kong Press)

A boycott of Japanese goods certainly exists, and as the war is being carried on with more and more wanton destruction of the innocent civilians of China, so are the people of the world getting more and more determined to carry through this suggested wholesale boycott. To make this economic pressure fully effective, much stronger action is necessary than that now adopted. It means a determination not to trade with the delinquent nation in order that pressure can be brought to bear as speedily as possible. There is more than a possibility that Japan would not be averse to the threat of such action. It would give her an excuse to withdraw from a profligate adventure, for she could well claim that it is impossible for her to fight the world or to resist the economic pressure of the combined nations. Despite their fire-eating militarists, Japanese statesmen have, in many ways, indicated their desire to restore good relations with Great Britain and the United States—relations which have been so gravely imperilled by the outrages committed against British and American nationals.

SAME OLD STORY (Times, New York)

We in 1938 know the story of the last 25 years. We know the errors and the wrongs, the things that should not have been done and the things that were left undone. But we behave in 1938 very much as we did 20 years ago.

Twenty-one years after America went into the war, and after prolonged education in just how we were "taken" into the war by various sinister interests, America today faces the same problems and perplexities and the same pull of loyalties as in 1917.

Germany has learned nothing. Hitler's Germany pounces on Austria, threatens Czechoslovakia, warns The Netherlands, admonishes Switzerland. It is the same old Drang und bluster of 1914; the same old cock-of-the-walk. And in 1938 France is distracted by politics as in 1914, and England will not commit herself in advance, and Italy is ready to play with the highest bidder.

A country boy was recently taken on as a page in a baronet's family. One afternoon, just before dark, after having been called up to the drawing-room, he came down into the kitchen laughing heartily.

"What's the matter?" cried the cook.

"Why," said the boy, "there are twelve of them up there and not one of them could light the gas. They had to send for me to do it."

GENTLEMEN—THE KING

From The Pen Of E.T. Writers

KING GEORGE VI.

In this, the fairest time of the fair year
Our Empire, unto its farthest shore
Goes partying, and everyone would bear
A gift unto the King unto his door.
What gift more fair than from each noble heart,
(For none is noble but delights to raise
His eyes to one whose worth wins him high part
In nation guidance), next to heaven, his praise.
He represents so much to those who play
The minor chords, while through life's school they go,
The Apex of the Empire, his sway
(So gently evident) makes each heart glow.
As Christ revealed the spiritual law
Which filled the world with new-found quiet joy,
So on His wisdom doth our Empire draw
Its happiness, which England's kings employ.
So are we satisfied beneath his rule,
So would our spirits cut like a swift sword
Through all menaces, though so calm and cool,
A fiery phalanx in defence, war-spurred.
For England's Empire, for proud England's King
Swift every man that in its peace doth tread,
Would die a thousand deaths e'er cease to sing,
"God keep our Empire and God save its Head."

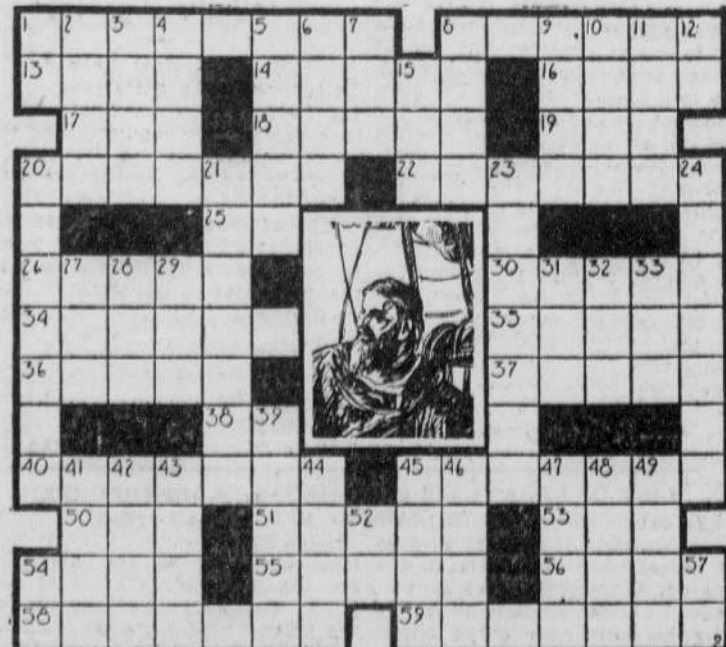

—Myrtle Boa Armstrong.

Cards were played at three tables, the prizes being won by Mrs. Robert Winslade, Mrs. Charles McKee and Mrs. Albert Griggs, the latter being presented with the special guest-prize. At the conclusion of the game the hostess served delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Griggs.

Miss Leslie Fales, president of the Sherbrooke Business and Professional Women's Club, who is leaving tomorrow afternoon for Ottawa to attend the Regional Convention being held there on Saturday, June 11th, will be accompanied by a large delegation from the local club. They include Mrs. Walter Kincaid, Mrs. E. E. Renihan, Miss May Mitchell, Miss Idonea Nourse, Miss Clara Hyndman, Miss Bessie Bryce, Miss Marion Parker, Miss Ina Cobleigh and Miss Jeanette Dupuis.

Mrs. Leslie Arter and Mrs. Reginald Allatt entertained delightfully on Saturday evening at the latter's home on Fulton avenue, in honor of Miss Ena Seaward and her fiancé, Mr. Clayton Campbell. On behalf of the guests, Mr. Frank Mitton presented the prospective bride and groom with an occasional chair, voicing in a felicitous speech their best wishes to both for future happiness and success. Later the hostesses and their guests went on to Keybrooke for a weiner roast.

Members of the Sir John Sherbrooke Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire turned out in goodly numbers on Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting at Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell's residence, called for the purpose of making final plans for their Street Fair. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Eric Webster and Mrs. Wallace Barrie, Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell, the Chapter Regent, presiding over the business period. Prior to taking up the special feature it was decided to continue welfare work during the summer by the distribution of medicine, food and clothing, and also to send ten boys to the Y.M.C.A. camp for a two weeks' holiday. The coming Street Fair then occupied the individual attention of the meeting until the tea hour. Through the kind co-operation of Mrs. Mitchell, "Mitchell Park" will again be placed at the disposal of the Chapter for their Fair. Among the many attractions already planned are pony rides and fish pond for the kiddies, fortune telling, sales tables and afternoon tea on the lawn. During the evening there will be free dancing on the street which divides "Mitchell Park" from upper Moore street. There will also be games, and last but by no means least, that most intriguing and tempting of all games, "Bingo." Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell and her efficient supporters in the Chapter are sparing no effort to make their Street Fair on June 21st, one of the outstanding features of their already wonderful achievements. During the social hour which followed, the hostess served afternoon tea, Mrs. F. W. McCrea doing the honors at the attractive tea table.

At a special meeting of the Junior Welfare League held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Gordon Miller, president, several cases were brought up for discussion and activities for the summer were also mentioned. It was further decided that the members would undertake to dispose of a hand-made lace cloth during the holiday season. Prior to adjournment, Miss Doreen Stewart, of Lennoxville, was appointed publicity convener.

Mrs. Fred W. Mitchell and Mrs. Gordon Mackay entertained informally last evening at the latter's home on Bethune street in honor of Mrs. Gerald Burt, who recently returned from her honeymoon trip. Bridge was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Wilfred Davey and Miss Ruby Forward. During the evening the bride was presented with a "shower" of lovely cups and saucers. Later dainty refreshments were served, Mrs. Alex Ross presiding at the coffee urn on the lace-covered table, which was charmingly done in bridal white with lily-of-the-valley and spirea in a green crystal bowl and white tapers in matching green crystal holders.

Mrs. A. V. Richardson, of Lennoxville, District Commissioner Girl Guides paid an official visit to St. Patrick's Church Hall on Tuesday evening to enroll new members in the Girl Guide Company sponsored by the Junior Catholic Women's League. The recently-formed company is in charge of Miss Margaret Doherty and Miss Mary Corcoran, with Rev. Father Alfred Linahen acting as chaplain. Following the ceremony of enrollment the chaplain addressed the Guides and congratulated them upon their achievements since their organization a few months ago. Quite a large number of parents and interested friends were present to encourage and support the movement which is of such inestimable benefit to teen-age girls, teaching them many things not included in any school curriculum. There followed a pleasant social hour, during which dainty refreshments were served by the Girl Guides of the Junior C.W.L.

Mrs. F. J. Southwood, president of St. Peter's Guild, entertained the members for the closing business meeting yesterday afternoon at her home on Montreal street. Here masses of lovely flowers were placed about the already attractive rooms where Mrs. Southwood and her conferees in the Guild made plans for summer activities and disposed of unfinished business prior to adjournment until the autumn. A special feature of the business session was the very gratifying financial report for the half-year presented by Mrs. Fred Pearson, treasurer. During the tea hour many additional guests joined the members to enjoy the delightful hospitality extended by the president, Mrs. J. Halliday, the president, took advantage of the opportunity afforded to express her personal thanks to the members for their loyal co-operation and splendid work. In conclusion Mrs. Halliday extended an invitation to all Guild members to visit her at her cottage at Little Lake at the close of this month. After the adoption of the minutes and the very gratifying financial report for the half-year, as presented by Mrs. H. Bowyer, treasurer, on the recent tea and sale which concluded the Guild's activities until the autumn, the meeting gratefully accepted Mrs. Thomas Elliott's offer to give a strawberry tea at her home on Cambria street during the first week in July for the benefit of the Guild. A pleasant social hour followed, during which the hostesses, Mrs. D. Mandigo and Mrs. Thomas Elliott, served tea and dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. W. Smith.

MARRIAGES

McMANAMY—LACHANCE

The marriage of Charlotte Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lachance, of Biddeford, Maine, to Dr. Eugene McManamy, of Montreal, son of Mr. D. J. McManamy, of Sherbrooke, and of the late Mrs. McManamy, was solemnized at ten o'clock on Monday morning, June 6th, at St. Joseph's Church, Biddeford, Me., Rev. A. C. Fortier officiating.

Tall golden standards filled with American beauty and white snapdragons decorated the church and also in burnished gold vases adorned the High Altar. The organist, Miss Anna Rather, presided at the organ and accompanied the male quartette who sang during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an exquisite gown of ivory net and satin, the latter fashioning a jacket, short in front and lengthening at the back to form a long fish-tail train. Her finger length veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace, was of ivory tulle, and her only ornaments a pearl necklace with matching pendant. She carried a shower bouquet of lily-of-the-valley tied with long streamers of ivory satin ribbon. The matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur J. Lesieur, of Biddeford, sister of the bride, and her only attendant, was gowned in deep blue chiffon, a hat of natural lace straw tied under the chin with American beauty velvet ribbon, matching the trimming on her gown and her bouquet of snapdragons.

Mrs. Lachance, the bride's mother, wore periwinkle blue lace with white accessories and corsage of vari-colored sweet peas.

Mrs. F. W. Webster, aunt of the groom, wore a smart ensemble of navy blue crepe with touches of powder blue, a large picture hat of navy straw trimmed with powder blue and accessories of a lighter shade of blue.

Mr. John Corcoran, of Lawrence, Mass., acted as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Arthur J. Lesieur, Biddeford, Gerard McManamy, Sherbrooke, Waldo Mullins, Montreal and George Murphy, Jr., Toronto.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 68 Graham street, where the decorations were carried out in American beauty and white with a profusion of beautiful flowers. Afterwards the bride and groom left for their honeymoon trip, the bride travelling in a smart tailleur ensemble of powder blue with white accessories. Upon their return from their wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. McManamy will go to Rochester, Minn., where they will reside.

The bride graduated from the

ANNUAL SUMMER SALE AND TEA FINE SUCCESS

Event Held Yesterday Afternoon Under Auspices of Philathea Society of Lennoxville United Church.

The annual summer sale and tea held yesterday afternoon in Douglas Hall, Lennoxville, under the auspices of the Philathea Society of the Lennoxville United Church, was both enjoyable and successful.

Mrs. Hugh Wallace, president of the Society, extended a cordial welcome to the many guests who attended this pleasant annual event. The hall presented a most attractive appearance with its decorations of bright and varied summer blooms. The long tea table was adorned with a large silver basket of "ellow English buttercups and lavender Iris and tall pale yellow lighted tapers in silver candelabras. Mrs. Margaret Wark and Mrs. J. B. Campbell presided over the gleaming silver tea services. Vases of various bright flowers centred the small tea tables.

To Mrs. A. Scott, who acted as convener, is due much of the credit for the success of the affair. She was capably assisted by a bevy of willing workers, as follows: Mrs. Martin Merrill, who had charge of the delicious fruit salads; Mrs. C. H. George and Mrs. E. A. Orr, who conducted the other various activities in the kitchen. Those who assisted in serving were the Misses Florence Wark, Irene George, Eleanor Leith and Margaret Ann Forbes.

The long sales tables were eagerly patronized by the guests, who are familiar with the many talents of the members in cooking and handicraft.

Mrs. William Wark was in charge of the table of home cooked food. Mrs. A. Raverat and the Misses Eva Taylor and Ruby Bailey acted as salesladies for the fancy work table, while Miss Clem George presided over the apron table.

REPORTS ON FOOD SALE
The salad tea and food sale held recently by the Lennoxville Women's League of St. Andrew's Church, was a splendid success. This gratifying news was learned from the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Robert Ray, at the final summer meeting of this society held yesterday afternoon at Mrs. James Stewart's home on Main street. During the meeting, presided over by Mrs. J. G. Trenholme, the president, a few unfinished items of business were discussed and settled.

Later, a delightful social hour was enjoyed during which a dainty afternoon tea was served by the hostess who presided at the charmingly appointed tea wagon, and was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Doreen Stewart.

Regret was expressed that Miss Martha McCallum, who has been matron at Bishop's College School for many years, is returning to Scotland shortly for an indefinite period.

General Notes
Mrs. Jane Bradley, who passed away on May 18th, was the widow of Albert Bradley and not of John Bradley, as reported previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKiven are motoring to Montreal on Saturday to meet Mrs. McKiven's sister and brother, Miss A. Moreland and Russel Moreland, who are arriving from Scotland on the "Duchess of Bedford," and will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. McKiven at their home at the Lennoxville Experimental Farm.

Mrs. G. H. A. Murray is spending a few days in Bury visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Mrs. Carl Henriksen and N.H. daughter, Jean, of Concord, N.L., are visiting Mrs. Henriksen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold, at their home on Brewster street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bassett have left for Milk River Alta., where they will spend about two weeks.

NEW PARIS STYLES

White rayon pique with red dots is used by Heim for gloves, hatband, gilet and belt, the latter forming a handbag on one side—all contrasting with a navy blue crepe dress.

Other interesting costumes accents shown by this designer include a brace of dogs in dull white plastic material, used as a clip for a navy blue dress; and the use of plastic beads to hold, in quilted effect, the fullness of an evening gown in flag blue chiffon. Heim sponsors flat, little canopies or sailor hats in lacquered straws, for tailored wear. An elaborate hat is the exact reproduction of a flat straw flower basket.

When visiting with a small baby take along a supply of disposable complete diapers and simplify the laundering problem. They come in two sizes ten small ones to a package or five large ones, and may be bought at most drug stores.

New York Leaders Managed to Edge Forward Today Although Both Buyers and Sellers Displayed Exceptional Timidity.

New York, June 9.—(AP)—Stock market leaders managed to edge upward today although both buyers and sellers continued to display exceptional timidity in extending commitments.

Slowness of the proceedings was about in line with yesterday's creeping pace. Numerous issues were late in opening and blocks of more than one hundred shares were rare. Fractional advances predominated near the second hour.

WOMAN CERTAIN FAITH TO CURE SNAKE POISON

Fifty-Six Year Old Mother of Two Children Refuses Medical Aid After Being Bitten by Moccasin Snake.

Hammond, La., June 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Joe Rushing, fifty-six year old mother of two children, insisted today that "faith" would overcome the poisonous effects of snake bites received Sunday night at a religious sect meeting.

Writing in pain on a plain iron bed in a small cottage here last night, her left hand and arm swollen twice normal size, Mrs. Rushing spurned medical treatment.

Referring to the fact that with continued decreased revenue from invested funds another appeal may have to be made in the near future for missions of the Diocese to increase their assessments, and as many of the missions may find it difficult to meet such an increase, the report suggested the use of the Brotherhood System in the Diocese.

ADIRONDACKS SUFFER HEAVY STORM DAMAGE

Trees Uprooted, Utility Services Disrupted and Highways Blocked as Result of Heaviest Storm in Years.

Lake George, N.Y., June 9.—(AP)—Adirondack mountain residents and vacationists cleaned away the debris of one of the worst wind storms in recent years.

The storm hit the Lake George-Bolton Landing section hardest, uprooting trees, grounding high tension and telephone transmission lines and blocking highway travel for nearly three hours.

Striking suddenly, the storm broke a heat wave which sent the mercury to ninety-five above at 5 p.m. Elmer J. West, district manager of the New York Power and Light Corporation, said it was one of the most destructive storms to Corporation lines in recent years.

Speculator, N.Y., June 9.—(AP)—Bill Osborne, who owns everything around here, including the overgrown cottage in which Max Schmeling lives for the moment, says the German is an absolute cinch to knock the daylight out of Joe Louis again.

Strangely enough, there is no memory that Schmeling had such a right in the days when he held the heavyweight belt, in those days he was an uninteresting fellow to watch. Max, himself, says he learned to hit with his right late in the game. The people are quite agreeable to pay into the national treasury, believing with this added revenue the Government will be able to carry out a programme of mutual benefit to the people as a whole.

Another resolution contained in this report and carried by the Synod stated "that this Synod urges sincerely and definitely that both clergy and people make a greater use of our prayer book and its sequence of definite Christian teaching in our Collects, Epistles and Gospels, Sunday by Sunday, paying particular attention to the Church's seasons of the Ecclesiastical Year."

Touching on religious progress, it was said that since the last meeting of the Synod the most outstanding sign of progress has been the opening of two new missions, one at Comeau Bay with Clarke City, and the other at Newport Colony, recently named Lawrence. A beautiful new church and parsonage have been erected at Comeau Bay and a log church is proposed at Clarke City.

Touching on Religious Progress

Touching on religious progress in the public schools, the report, which was submitted by Rural Dean A. V. McLaren, declared that "in view of the unrest in the minds of many of our church people with regard to the religious teaching in the public schools, your committee is of the opinion that this Synod should place itself on record that definite Christian fundamentals, such as the reading of the Holy Bible and the teaching of the Apostles' Creed and the Ten Commandments, should find a more definite place in the curriculum of our public schools."

It was recommended that the number of Deaneeries in the Diocese be reduced from eight to six and the matter was referred to the Lord Bishop in conjunction with the Rural Deans for further study.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

FREQUENTLY THE LOWEST CARDS ARE OF TREMENDOUS VALUE

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
Secretary, American Contract Bridge League

Bridge players are taught early the value of high cards. They learn the occasionally greater value of low ones only in the costly school of experience.

Today's hand, defended by Kevin Whelan, of Toledo, Ohio, in a recent championship tournament, he saw that the diamond king could be of little value to him. However, the diamond deuce might be a card of exit which would give entry to the East hand, and thus permit the needed lead in clubs through the declarer.

Obviously, South must plan the play to keep East out of the lead, as a club lead through his king-jack would be fatal. The first trick was held by dummy's nine, and the heart jack was led. It held the trick, and another heart trick was won by the ace. The jack of spades was overtaken with king, and the king of hearts laid down, but East's queen did not drop.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

Trying out a new type of motor in the Thompson Trophy Race, Pilot Jim Lane captures top honors. Another pilot, however is killed in the race, and Jim secretly divides his prize award of ten thousand dollars with the dead flier's wife and family.

Chapter Nine Jim Lane lay stretched out in bed, almost fully dressed. Gunner entered the room, stood over him for a moment, and then started to shake him. Finally Jim opened his eyes. They were bloodshot.

"Don't shake me," Jim muttered. "Don't shake me." "I been phoning you for a long time. Why didn't you answer?" Gunner demanded.

"What do I want to answer it for when I know who it was?" Jim said wearily.

Gunner seated himself on the edge of the bed. Jim closed his eyes as if the bright sunlight streaming into the room was too much for him. There was a brief silence; then Jim opened his eyes again and sat up, leaning on one elbow, shaking his head. But the effort was too much for him and he dropped down against the pillow with a groan.

"Do you know what day it is?" Gunner said.

"I know it's day and it isn't night isn't that enough?"

"Do you know where you are?" Jim tried to concentrate. The girl. She'd make a fine wife for somebody!"

Jim and Gunner hip-toed softly across the floor. Jim opened the bedroom door and looked in.

"Asleep," he whispered. "I'll go in and see how she is."

"Well, I think that's fine," Gunner whispered back.

"What are you going to do?" Gunner pointed toward the front door. "Jim staying right where I can get out quick."

"Wise guy, eh?"

"Well, you're the guy that takes the chances."

Jim started into the bedroom. Suddenly he stopped. "Hey, want to come in with me?" he asked.

"No, sir!"

Jim stood for a moment looking down at Ann. In a moment she had opened her eyes. They looked at each other.

"Hello," she said softly, sleep in her voice.

He sat down on the bed and took her hands in his. "How are you, Ann?"

"I don't think I was asleep . . . How are you, bad boy?"

"Bad, I guess."

"Feeling low?"

"I've been up higher." There was a pause. "I'm glad to see you."

"I'm glad, too . . . Is Gunner out there?"

"He'll be out in a minute, then. Go ahead."

Gunner watched him anxiously as Jim came out of the bedroom.

"Nothing to it," Jim boasted.

"What did she say?"

"Nothing."

Gunner nodded. Ann, who had

The Crippling Effect of Rheumatism

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease caused by an accumulation of uric acid in the blood and is greatly aggravated by cold and dampness. It generally leaves in its train distorted joints, crooked limbs, crippled hands, and the intense pain and agony is almost unbearable. Burdock Blood Bitters by invigorating the digestive organs, and eliminating the uric acid from the system will help in giving you relief from this torturing trouble. Mr. HENRY THORNTON, Beeton, Ont., writes—"I have been a well digger for the past fifteen years, and five years ago I got rheumatism in my left hip and knee from the dampness in the wells. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do me any good until our druggist advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and it was only a short time until the rheumatism was completely out of my system."

Kidney Acids Rob Your Rest. Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They toss and turn and count sheep. Often they blame it on "nerves" when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons from the blood. If they are faulty and fail, poisons stay in the system and sleeplessness, headaches, backache often follow. If you don't sleep well, try Dodd's Kidney Pills—for half a century the favorite remedy. 103 Dr. Chase's Ointment. Put up by The T. Millburn Co., Ltd.

LOCAL SQUAD BADLY TROUNCED BY GRANBY

Red Sox Whitewashed Sherbrooke Last Night

Loose Fielding, Shaky Pitching and Weak Hitting Accounted for Thirteen to Nil Blanking at Hands of "Buzz" Maloney's Aggregation—Winners Collected Seventeen Base Hits.

With George Marshall and Johnnie Reichel performing ineffectively on the mound and Jack Huxtable the only man able to solve deliveries of Jim Turner at all successfully, the Sherbrooke entry in the Provincial Baseball League went down to a thirteen to nothing whitewashing at the hands of the league-leading Granby Red Sox last night.

K. O. COSTELLO

San Antonio, Texas, batter, who will appear in Sherbrooke on June 18th against Eddie O'Lash, from New Hampshire.

Quebec Athletics eked out a two-to-one victory over St. Hyacinthe and Three Rivers downed Sorel five to four in the other scheduled games.

Four costly errors accounted materially for the defeat of the homesteaders, who, as a result of their loss, crept closer to the cellar-dwelling Quebec Athletics, whom they play at the Stadium tonight.

The Red Sox started making runs in the first inning. Thurrier was handed a free ticket to first by George Marshall, one of the new Sherbrooke pitchers, and Desmarais came through with a single, after which Spirrick walked to load the sacks.

John Buckley, who replaced Reichel in the eighth, managed to hold the slugging Red Sox scoreless during the last two frames.

The local players, who up until last night had been banging out plenty of base hits, were unable to fathom the deliveries of Jim Turner.

Loose play in the field aided in the defeat. "Snooks" Mandeville muffed two easy double-play balls and, in the fourth, pulled a needlessly play by throwing a third base in an effort to catch Maloney on a roller from the bat of Phil Corrigan.

Two men were out at the time.

In Sporting Vein

By Allan Bryce.

Eddie O'Lash, who comes from down New Hampshire way, will hook up with K. O. Costello in the feature attraction on the boxing card slated for June 18th at the local Arena. Costello, of San Antonio, Texas, will be remembered for his speed and ability in the ring, especially in his tilt with Paul Junior, while O'Lash is on his way up in the fighting world.

Babe Beatty, husky Lennoxville boy, will throw leather at Oliver Shanks, of Winnipeg, Man., a member of the Canadian Olympic boxing team in the semi-final bout, while Rene Loubier, popular local pugilist, will oppose Babe McLeod, of Montreal, one of the leading contenders for the Dominion lightweight crown.

Walter Young and Gerard Cote, Quebec's crack distance runners, should draw large crowds to witness the fifteen mile jaunt from Greenway to Sherbrooke which will be held on June 11th in connection with the Catholic School Field Day.

The race will be concluded with several laps around the Exhibition track. Local fans will be cheering for Paul Denault, to date the sole Sherbrooke man to signify his intention to compete.

"Moher is a good pitcher. I won't say he is a world beater, but he should do all right for Sherbrooke," stated Johnny Crowley when asked about the ability of young "Casey" Moher, the young Providence College hurler he will bring to Sherbrooke with him on June 10th.

Certainly the local executive is working hard to assemble a winning pitching staff, and should receive the support of the fans in their efforts, although many have expressed the opinion that the team needs something more that added twirling power.

Baby Arizmendi, who has been a human punching bag in the fight game for a good many years, held the world's lightweight champion, Lou Ambers, to a draw in the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium the other night. The veteran of a hundred and one nights in a prize ring predicted flatly that Henry Armstrong would stretch Ambers out in the canvas when they meet in New York on July 26th.

"Faith, an he's a broth of a boy" is Dr. Patrick O'Callaghan, Irish medic who holds the world's record in the hammer throw. Turning from surgery to butchery in the wrestling ring, O'Callaghan has been wrestling through a formidable list of opponents, including our old friends, one Cy Williams, the "Alligator Man" from the swamps of Florida.

In addition to holding the Olympic hammer toss record, "Pat" is an all-round athlete who can run any distance in close to record time, high jump, broad jump, toss the discus and hurl the javelin in the vicinity of the hundred yard mark.

"China has taken the attitude of prolonging hostilities toward Japan, but we are putting forth every effort to end this current conflict," stated the Japanese Minister of Welfare, Marquis Kishi Kido, when questioned as to official plans of the Government concerning the Olympic games to be held in Tokyo.

Marquis Kido is either possessed of a remarkable sense of humor or else he is a short-sighted "ignoramus." Perhaps he feels that the Chinese should sit back and let the armed forces of the Mikado tear up their country at will and not have the audacity, nay, the impudence, to offer resistance or prolong the conflict.

In any event, the Japs are going ahead with plans for the games and have set Saturday, September 21st, to Sunday, October 6th, 1940, as the dates. The city of Tokyo has drawn up a sixteen million yen municipal Olympic budget. Apparently the Japs have a yen to put the games over in a big way.

Packy and Danny Paul have packed their grips and are on their way home from a successful season in the English ring. It will be interesting to watch their progress at home, because Canadian boxing fans have been following their activities abroad with considerable interest. Their cagey manager, Bud Davis, has jockeyed them through some hard battles and has secured a large amount of publicity for his charges, but over here the lads will have to deliver the goods.

Three Squads Tied In City Softball League

Paton, New Wellington and Textile Deadlocked for Second Place as a Result of Last Night's Games—Paton Downed Hoboes, Textile Trowned J. N. Boisvert and Etoile Filante Drubbed Lennoxville.

Paton downed Hoboes in a thrilling City Softball League contest on the Parade Grounds last night by the score of five to four. Etoile Filante crushed Lennoxville twenty to six and Textile defeated J. N. Boisvert sixteen to four in the other scheduled games.

By virtue of their victories, Paton and Textile advanced to a second-place tie with New Wellington, all three squads having eight points. Kayser tops the circuit with five straight victories.

With Emile Yergeau baffling the Hoboes' batsmen, Paton went into a four to nothing lead in the first four innings on runs by Metivier, Yergeau, Auger and Goode.

"Annie" Choquette tallied in the fourth and Clark, H. Boisvert and Lepage in the sixth to tie the game up, but Nadeau romped around the bases for a gift home run, when the Hoboes' outfield handled his hit loosely in the seventh, and won the game for the Paton outfit.

Line-ups: Bibeau, Metivier, Yergeau, Lussard, Nadeau, Goode, Labonte, Auger, Kandalaf and Fortier. Hoboes: Murphy, Clark, H. Boisvert, Lepage, Filion Choquette, Parsons, Nadeau, L. Boisvert and Mitton.

LUC ROY STARRED FOR TEXTILE
Led by Luc Roy, hard-working second baseman, who scored four runs, Textile trimmed J. N. Boisvert sixteen to four.

The winners got away to a four run lead in the first inning on runs by Roy, G. Riell, R. Boisvert and R. Baker and were never headed. Roy and Raymond tallied in the second, raising Textile's total to six, while Slater and Rousseau broke the ice for Boisvert.

Textile went on to chalk up ten more runs, while Boisvert were only able to score singles in the third and fifth.

Line-ups: Textile: Roy, Raymond, G. Riell, Baker, R. Boisvert, Rouleau, J. Riell, Humphrey, Cayva, D. Boisvert and Collin.

JOHN MCGRAW'S BOYS LED BILL TERRY'S SQUAD

"King Carl" Hubbell and "Master Melvin" Ott Showed Way as Giants Took Two from Cubs—Red Sox Tied Yanks for Second Place.

Somewhere in that Valhalla reserve for baseball's departed great, the "Old Man" looked down today and had a hearty chuckle over the doings of New York Giants in general and "King Carl" Hubbell and "Master Melvin" Ott in particular.

He's been gone six years now, but he found things just about the same, McGraw's boys are there when the chips are down.

The "Old Man" of course, was John McGraw. There was only one. And McGraw's boys, naturally, are "Master Melvin" and "Kink Carl." They were hand-picked by the old man and learn their A-B-C's from him.

McGraw, you know, used to run the Giants, before "Terrible Bill" Terry's regime. Now Bill has "one a swell job, but in his six years in the driver's seat, the two men he's relied on most and who have let him down least are McGraw's boys—the two he inherited when the "Old Man" turned over the reins back in 1932.

It was that way again yesterday. Giants were riding a losing run, with everything going wrong. They had dropped six out of seven on their western swing, came to Chicago for their "cross-hat" series with the Cubs and lost the first clash there Tuesday, sinking one and one-half games out of the league lead.

So it was up to McGraw's boys yesterday—and the result was a double-header victory for Terry's Terriers, which boosted them right back to the top.

In the opener, Melvin exploded his twelfth homer of the season in the tenth inning to break up the game for a four to two Giant win. Their "King Carl" went out in the nightcap and took care of the rest of the job. Only five Cubs passed second base, and six fanned as he turned in his usual classic, posting his seventh win of the year by a four to one margin.

Meantime Yankees were rudely clubbed again in both ends of a double-header by Jimmy Dykes' limping Chicago White Sox yesterday and dropped into a tie for second place in the American League. Gerry Walker's homer in the ninth and single in the thirteenth gave the Sox the opening, eleven to ten, and Bill Dietrich's pitching through the first seven frames was enough for a ten to six Chicago victory in the nightcap, although Yanks came back in the closing two frames.

This double defeat gave Boston Red Sox a chance to pull up to a second place tie, and they made the most of it. Jimmy Foss whacked a pair of homers and drove in four runs as Tom Yawkey's gold-plated outfit knocked off Cleveland Indians, seven to six. Bobb Feller lashed less than seven innings.

Brooklyn Dodgers continued their amazing Western invasion with a seven to six decision over St. Louis Cardinals. The equally unpredictable St. Louis Browns made it two straight over Washington by an eleven to five margin.

Brooklyn's six-hitter gave Pirates a four to one win over Boston Bees. Tommy Bridges turned

WILL STRENGTHEN SHERBROOKE BALL TEAM

"We are doing our utmost to secure a baseball team worthy of this city and one which local fans will support," declared Roland Dugre, when interviewed by the Record this morning.

Mr. Dugre stated that he was not in a position to mention names or to reveal the plans of the executive, but would have it known that the squad will certainly be improved.

Evidently a big shake-up is coming very shortly.

ed in a five-hitter to pitch Tigers to a five to one victory over Athletics. Cincinnati Reds romped off with a seven to five win over Phillies in a night encounter.

ROYALS WON FIFTH STRAIGHT
Just when everyone was about convinced that there was an aura of invincibility about the Newark Bears, Buffalo Bisons came along and proceeded to demonstrate that the champions can be taken and that the International League pennant race is far from settled.

Bears were riding high in first place with eleven straight victories to their credit yesterday until the most devastating attacks of the season, Bisons trampled Bears into double defeat, nineteen to five, and four to one, and moved within five games of the league-leaders.

Bisons walloped three Newark pitchers for twenty-one hits, including four doubles, one triple and three homers in capturing the opener, and belted out eleven safeties in the night-cap to win easily behind the three-hit pitching of Kowalik.

Though Bears' victory streak was snapped, a few other streaks continued unbroken in the circuit, notably Baltimore Orioles' string of losses. Orioles suffered their thirteenth defeat in a row last night when they bowed six to three to Montreal Royals who hung up their fifth win in a row.

Toronto Maple Leafs were presented with their third and fourth consecutive defeats, five to two and four to one by Jersey City Giants in another twin bill. Glen Cabelar and Tommy Bakula each pitched five-hit ball in stopping Leafs.

Rochester Red Wings hung up their third successive triumph, beating Syracuse Chiefs three to one behind the smooth hurling of Howie Krist.

League-Leaders Trowned Sherbrooke High School Fourteen to Three—Y.M.C.A. Won Initial Game at Expense of St. Pat's Whites.

St. Pat's Greens and Y.M.C.A. rang up convincing victories in the Inter-School Softball League games played at the Parade Grounds yesterday. The undefeated Greens drubbed Sherbrooke High School fourteen to three while the "Y" squad downed St. Pat's Whites eleven to four.

Wendell Wilcox starred on the mound for the Greens, holding S.H.S. scoreless for five of the seven innings and chalking up four strikeouts, as well as contributing a triple to the total of hits.

The senior Irishmen broke loose for five tallies in the first inning, and were held scoreless in the sixth only.

John Southern cracked out a home run and Blais, Blue and Lebrun each rapped a brace of doubles.

"Y" TEAM SCORED FIRST VICTORY
The Y.M.C.A. scored their initial triumph in easy fashion to the tune of eleven to four behind the steady hurling of Ed Stevens, who fanned nine hitters and scattered thirteen bingles.

The "Y" jumped into a six run lead in the opening frame as a result of Richardson's triple, Barfield's double and five successive singles, and marked up four more in the second.

Don Barfield paced his team's attack with a two bagger and three singles, while Wilson, Stevens and Campbell made timely hits.

Walter Young and Gerard Cote head the list of distance runners who will compete in the fifteen mile marathon from Greenlay to Sherbrooke which will be held on June 11th in conjunction with the field day for the Catholic school children of Sherbrooke under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus.

Young, last year's winner of the Boston Marathon, in whose honor the race will be held, was born in Greenlay and has made a fine showing in recent years. In 1937 he captured the ten-mile world's championship snowshoe race.

Cote is a native of St. Hyacinthe, and is well known here. His performances in the recent Boston race, in which he placed seventh, and in the Salisbury Marathon, in which he finished sixth, stamp him as a stary runner and local fans should watch his showing on June 11th with considerable interest.

The following runners will also take part in the race: Lloyd Evans, of Montreal, who finished seventh in the Salisbury Marathon and sixteenth in the Hub jaunt; W. Wilson, of Montreal, coach of the Royal Rovers Club and father of Alex Wilson, who represented Canada in two Olympic Games and three British Empire Games; Eyra Lee, of Montreal, a three-time winner of the Mount Hamilton ten-mile run, who won a twenty-mile race under the auspices of the Toronto Monarch A. C. Club against a field that included famous Dave Komonen; Tom Maskell, a member of the Royal Rover's Club, who has participated in the Boston Marathon on two occasions; Albert Muir, of Toronto, a "dark horse" who has shown up well in training; Bill Smallcombe, of Montreal, who finished twenty-seventh in the "Beantown" race; Albert Sturkey, a protege of Eyra Lee, and Paul Denault, the lone Sherbrooke entrant, who won the Lachine Marathon in 1936.

The remainder of the Field Day programme will be participated in by all the local schools under the supervision of the Catholic School Board, and will consist of the usual track and field events for all classes.

Among the features will be a one-mile open bicycle race, a ten mile race between teams from Granby, Windsor Mills and Sherbrooke and a demonstration of muscular development by Professor Joffre and his pupils.

The Field Day is being held under the patronage of Mgr. P. S. Desranleau, Bishop-Coadjutor of Sherbrooke. District Commissioner John Bourque, Provincial Minister of Public Works, Charles B. Howard, M.P., and Mayor Marcus Armitage, Rev. Brothers Gedeon, Emile, Theodore, Charles-Edouard and Alexis will be in charge of the meet, and the event will be free of charge.

Best sports picture of the year was the one made by Roland Ramsdorn of Detroit News, showing Schoolboy Rowe walking through the pitching box of Detroit headed for the Texas. Even such a tough old hombre as "Lefty" Grove says it put a lump in his throat and "made me do some serious thinking."

LARGE CLASS CONFIRMED AT COWANSVILLE

Rt. Rev. John Farthing, Bishop of Montreal, Stressed Need of Religion in Address Before Confirmation Class of Twenty-Eight.

Cowansville, June 9. — Speaking to the confirmation class of twenty-eight candidates at Trinity Church Sunday evening, Rt. Rev. John Farthing, Bishop of Montreal, in a very earnest and appealing manner, emphasized the great need of the love and righteousness of God to counteract the great evils and cruelties prevalent in the world. The Bishop pleaded with all professing Christians to give themselves absolutely to the service of Christ, for in no other way could the Kingdom of God be brought to prevail on the earth.

This is the thirtieth annual tour of the Bishop has made over the diocese and his messages are very much appreciated. He expressed his congratulations to the rector Rev. G. R. Addie, in preparing such a large class for confirmation and commended them to the congregation for their new responsibilities. He also thanked the congregation for the very splendid way in which they had responded to the appeal for the Mission fund.

It was necessary to augment the seating capacity of the church with chairs to accommodate the very large congregation present.

"Mrs. Carmichael always gave freely of her time and interest in the work of St. Paul's Church."

"Her sincerity and gentle personality drew many to her in a strong friendship and her memory will linger long with us and be an inspiration to us to press on in the work which was so dear to her heart."
