But no Vessels Ready to Bring the Crop

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—A prominent official of the Naval Department, in speaking of Secretary Whitney's orders
to get the war vessels Richmond, Galena, Yantic and Ossipee ready for service, so as to send them to Port au Prince, said to-night that he did not believe the squadron would leave their moorings.
At the earliest moment it will be two weeks before the vessels will be ready and in that time he expects the Haytian Government will have given up their price. He called special attention to the offer of that Government to leave the settlement of the whole question to our Government and to abide the result.
He believed the vessels would be in more danger from yellow fever than
from the Haytiens.

MRS. MELVILLE AS A DETECTIVE.
Has She Caught the Man Who Has Been
"Whitechapping" in Tauton?

TAUNTON, Mass., Dec. 6.—The man who has been "Whitechapping" women
here is believed to be James Hannan,
and he has been arrested, after a clever piece of work, on complaint of Mrs. Melville, one of the victims. Since the assault upon her last Friday night she and her husband have been doing a little private detective work on their own account.
Mrs. Melville, who has all along persisted that she could identify the man, has had the scrutiny of those she met on the street
every night since the occurrence her particular business. From information gleaned by her husband in the course of his investigations, his suspicions regarding Hannan were aroused, and he arranged with a friend to bring Hannan
into a saloon at Whittington last night,
where his wife was concealed behind a partition, with a full view of the bar.
The plot was carried out, and Mrs.
Melville, who was dressed in a dark coat, and with a veil, and with her hair
up, and with a full view of the bar.

LEAGUE JUBILANT.

A Witness That Seemed Loaded Up
the Wrong Way.

A GERMAN DEFEAT IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Resignation of the Spanish War Minister Through German Intrigue.

PARNELL TRIUMPHANT.
Evidence Manufactured by the "Times"
—A Witness Who Disappoints Atrocity
Monitors.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—Pat Malloy, the resolute witness, was brought before the Parnell Commission this morning. He proved a most unsatisfactory witness,
to the surprise of the Court and mortification of the "Times" counsel. He swore he knew nothing to connect the Irish leaders with crimes at the Phoenix Park and elsewhere. He denied everything to which he was expected to testify by the prosecution, and with the most skillful questioning the Attorney-General could get nothing out of him. It appeared that the witness knew little of the crimes that had been perpetrated in Ireland beyond what was familiar to everybody,
and it came out that the "Times" agent had cooked up the charges to which the witness was expected to testify. This disclosure has had most damaging effect on the "Times" case.

REMOVED GERMAN DEFEAT.
Arabs Surprise and Massacre a German Force.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—It is reported in Berlin that Arabs in East Africa have surprised and defeated a small German force near Bagamoyo; that a number of Germans were killed, and the remainder treated to Bagamoyo. Nothing to confirm this report has yet been received here from Zanzibar; but, at least accounts,
the hostility of the natives to the Germans was increasing, and the Arabs were enraged by the blockade of the coast and interference with the slave trade.

RESIGNATION OF A SPANISH MIN-ISTER.

Germany at the Bottom of the Trouble.
LONDON, December 7.—General Cassola,
Spanish Minister of War, has resigned his portfolio. It is believed this action was taken in connection with the Cabinet with regard to Spain's attitude toward Germany, and the triple alliance.
Germany has sought to procure a pledge of neutrality from Spain in case of war with France, and General Cassola is credited with steadily opposing such a policy.

CABLE NOTES.
Resignation of Another Spanish Minister—Mission to Abyssinia—John Bright Sinking Fast.

MADRID, Dec. 7.—The Spanish Minister of Finance has announced to-day his intention to resign from office.
LONDON, Dec. 7.—News has reached here that Count Antopelli is preparing to leave for Shoa in Abyssinia with two thousand camels laden with presents for Menelik.

It is reported that the Arabs at Su-akin will be attacked on Wednesday
next.
Hon. John Bright's condition to-night is very critical. It is feared that he may die at any moment.

"LOVE THY BRETHREN."
Is the Motto Suggested to the Reichstag
by Herr von Boetticher.

BERLIN, Dec. 7.—The election for members of the Landtag by the Sixth Electoral College resulted in the success of Herr von Boetticher, Minister of the Interior,
who received 202 votes, against 133 cast
for Herr Schneider, Liberal. The industrial insurance bill was debated in the Reichstag to-day. Herr von Boetticher, Minister of State, made a lengthy speech
in support of the measure, and promised that he would carry out all amendments that might be made. He stated that the consummation of the measure would afford the Emperor the greatest happiness, as it would strengthen internal peace and conduce to the welfare of the Empire. He expressed the hope that throughout the debate the Reichstag would adopt the motto, "Love thy brethren."

Herr Crillenberger, following Minister
von Boetticher on behalf of the Socialist Democrats, said he did not share in the Minister's exaggerated hopes, but would assist to carry the bill. Several modifications, however, were required.
Baron Marschall briefly replied. He said that in his opinion the bill would do more for the working classes in one year
than the Socialists had ever done.

BOTH SIDES OF THE ATLANTIC.
Rewards of Labour Compared—Socialism Strong in England.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The optimistic view of the condition of the British workman taken by Sir Lyon Playfair, in his recent address at Leeds has provoked much unfavorable comment among the class
whose status and prospects he considered should be to them a subject for congratulation. Several replies have appeared in print, the writers of which,
with some show of justice, suggest that in his after dinner address to a symposium audience, consisting principally of employers, Sir Lyon was guilty of the most glaring errors of omission and misrepresentation.

A few hundred feet from where he was speaking to the gentlemen, who complacently applauded his flattering performance, he could have found in the alleys of Leeds hundreds of unemployed
workmen who were pinched for food and almost hopeless of obtaining the labor for which they so eagerly sought,
but who would have been objects of envy almost to the grimy, hopeless denizens of Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield and London.

VIEW OF THE FAIR TRADERS.
A pamphlet which emanates from a "fair trade" society not only, as might be expected, denies the positions taken by Sir Lyon Playfair as a free-trader addressing a free trade constituency, but contradicts the conclusions he draws from his observations in America, and the statistics he gives as to the earnings
and necessary expenditures of English and American workmen.

REPLYING TO PLAYFAIR.
The author cites Sir Lyon's statement that an English working family by

FROM THE DOMINION CAPITAL.
Wrecking in Canadian Waters—New Submarine Cable—Ottawa Mavor-
atly—Campanini's Car.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]
OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 7.—Mr. Kirkpatrick, M.P., who is here to-day, says that he intends to re-introduce at the coming session of Parliament his bill to authorize American tugs to aid wrecked or distressed vessels in Canadian waters, and thinks he will be able to secure its passage. It will be remembered that the bill was supported last session by all Liberal members and a number of Conservatives,
although opposed by the Government.

The Dominion Government have, it is said, received from a London company
an offer to lay a cable from Halifax to Sable Island for $10,000,
and it is probable that the necessary grant of money to enable them to accept the offer will be asked for at the coming session of Parliament.

It is understood that Mr. R. B. Dobell, a leading Quebec lumber merchant, is engaged in organizing a company with a capital of about two million dollars to undertake the laying of a telegraph cable from Blanc Sablon, at the straits of Belle Isle, to a point on the coast of Scotland
or Ireland. The Dominion Government will probably agree to extend present telegraph line on the south shore of the gulf from Mingan, the present terminus to Blanc Sablon, and hand the entire gulf and coast telegraph system over to the new company as a subsidy in aid of their enterprise.

It is reported to-day that Mr. Honore Robillard, M.P., is to be nominated as the French candidate for the majority at the coming conference of delegates from the various wards. Mr. Robillard says that he will not accept unless he is assured of election by acclamation, and a strong effort will be made to induce Mr.
Errat to retire in his favour.

The special car in which the famous tenor singer Campanini and his company have been traveling through the Gulf
was seized for customs duty by an official officer on the arrival of the company here to-day. The car was hired from the Fullman Company, of Chicago, and regularly bonded at the custom house in Windsor, Ont., when brought into Canada. At first the Commissioner of Customs was inclined to insist on making Campanini pay duty, but on being reminded that his chief, Mr. Bowen, borrowed an American private car from Governor Smith, of Vermont, for his trip to British Columbia, and had paid no duty upon it, he was so deterred that duty could not be very decently exacted at present, and Campanini's car was released.

FROM THE PRAIRIE CITY.
Promised Immigration—No Truth in the Accusation Against Treasurer
Jones—Railway Work Stopped.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 7.—Premier Greenway is daily receiving numerous letters indicating that a large number of immigrants, the majority of whom possess considerable, will settle here in the spring from England.

In an interview to-day the Premier left the impression that there was no
truth in the report that Treasurer Jones
had gone East to dispose of N. P. & M.
Co. bonds.

Nearly all the laborers employed upon the R. V. system during the fall have been paid off, as work has ceased for the winter.

A branch Royal Caledonian Curling
Club was formed here last night with J.
B. Mather President; Cooper, of Portage,
and Logan, of Carberry, Vice-Presidents;
Dr. Bryce, Chaplain.

It is stated that a new French paper
will be started at St. Boniface by J. E.
Cyr.

New York Stock Market.

The market opened a fraction below yesterday's closing figures, but recovered soon after and was unsettled all day. Missouri Pacific was again the feature of the market, and after declining a point to 70 1/2, reacted to 72 1/2, and closed at 71 1/2. Lackawanna was firmer and touched 136 and closed at 136 1/2. Reading was steady at 45 1/2, and closing at 46. Rock Island opened at 99 1/2 and declined to 98 1/2, but recovered to 99 1/2.

The following were the fluctuations of prices and sales in New York, Friday, Dec. 7, as specially reported for this Herald by Macdougall Bros., 69 St. Francois Xavier street:

Financial Notes.

The local money market is very quiet. The demand for all purposes is not brisk, though lines of discounts out are about the average. Call loans are easily negotiable on undoubted collaterals at 3 1/2 to 4 per cent.

Money in London is firm at 4 per cent. for sixty day bills. Messrs. L. J. Forget & Co., 1715 Notre Dame street, stock brokers, report Grand Trunk securities as follows:—1st preference, 6 1/2; 2nd do, 4 1/2, compared with 6 1/2 and 4 1/2 yesterday.

Canadian Pacific was again a fraction lower at 53 1/2.

The first rails on the Duluth and Winnipeg Railroad were laid yesterday afternoon at Cloquet, Minnesota.

The Boston Advertiser, December 4, says:—The Boston money market to-day is firm but without special change in rates. Manufacturing paper and choice double names range from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent., and good general business paper from 5 to 5 1/2 and occasionally 6 per cent.

Manufacturing paper is still in short supply, and desirable paper of any description is not specially abundant. The note dealers find a gradual stiffening in the views of lenders, and it is growing harder to trade with them. Call loans rule at 4 to 4 1/2 per cent. and upward.

At the Clearing House, the rate to borrowing banks was firm at 4 per cent. New York funds sold at a discount of 20 cents on $1,000. The gross exchanges to-day $1,770,648, against $1,100,238 same day last year. The balances were $2,690,138.

American railway securities in London opened firm. English dealers doubting the market realized their holdings, prices were steady to the close but business idle, money steady, rates unchanged.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

LONDON, December 7.—Auction sales show further advance of half a penny on wool, which make total rise of 20 per cent. in prices since October sales. Victorian sales, 6,100 bales, secured at 11d to 11 1/2d; do locks and pieces at 10d to 11d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

New South Wales—Sales, 1,000 bales; secured at 10d to 11d; do locks and pieces at 9d to 10d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

Queensland—Sales, 800 bales; secured at 10d to 11d; do locks and pieces at 9d to 10d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

South Australia—Sales, 700 bales; secured at 10d to 11d; do locks and pieces at 9d to 10d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

New Zealand—Sales, 600 bales; secured at 10d to 11d; do locks and pieces at 9d to 10d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

Cape of Good Hope and Natal—Sales, 1,000 bales; secured at 10d to 11d; do locks and pieces at 9d to 10d; greasy at 7d to 8d; do locks and pieces at 5d to 6d.

COAL.

The Coal Trade Journal says: The hard coal demand is not very great and supplies on hand may be said to be ample for average consumption for some time to come. Producers are not at all disposed to make any reduction in prices at the present time, but they are generally disposed to keep them pretty near to their current level, and in order to help this result there is to be a diminution of the output to something nearer to what may be termed transient market requirements. It is hardly likely that the output during December and January will be much over half what has been recorded as the tonnage in certain of the full months. Soft coal is in ample supply and no anxiety exists anywhere as to the possibility of getting all that may be needed. Comparative steadiness of the coal market is a reflection of the week ending December 1, 1888, for the week ending December 1, 1887, total for 1887 to December 1, 1888, 31,981,628 tons; same time in 1888, 35,528,758.

MANCHESTER'S FABRICS.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 5.—The Guardian in its commercial article, says: The market has been more firm generally. In a few instances sellers were less easy to deal with than on Friday. As a rule, however, buyers easily repeated Friday's purchases. India shirtings continue to hold the best position among the leading staples. Further business in moderate quantities is being offered at a price which is not very attractive. Producers of these kinds of goods are so well supplied with orders that they cannot allow promise delivery as soon as desired. There is little practicable demand for other India fabrics. China merchants are not making great progress, for, although they receive some orders, the limits are largely out of their hands. In certain cases, but slight concessions in certain cases by either side would suffice to result in important business. Of the other departments little that is cheering can be said, yet in some of them producers lately have been selling at a rate exceeding the cost of production. The tone is generally more hopeful and the price more regular, if not higher. Much of the production, especially finishing goods, is still so freely offered that an advance, which is so much needed, can as yet hardly be reached, although doubtless the position of sellers is greatly strengthening. There is a firm enquiry for export yarn for the nearer markets and a moderate business is done at former prices. There are but few eastern transactions. Home manufacturers have bought mostly in small quantities. There is no new feature of importance in the cloth departments. Some makers of fine and fancy finishing cloths are in rather better demand. China shirtings are firm under the influence of the India demand. Dhotees are steady and well sold. Jaconets are in fair inquiry; orders are difficult to place. Best printers are firm and unchanged at 10s 1/2; but inquiry for it is difficult to get the full rates. Common finds are less depressed. The betterment in the demand does not suffice to establish higher quotations. There is a steady miscellaneous inquiry for heavy goods at former rates. There have been fair sales.

PRODUCE AND PROVISIONS.

Superiorly the general market still has rather a quiet appearance, but a little close investigation indicates a considerable amount of business doing over which operators do not seem particularly anxious to make any special demonstration. Since our last report of one deal with exporters, entrusting a line of some 3,700 boxes, one factory, fancy coloured costing 1 1/2c in the country, on which the price here is somewhat uncertain, but believed to be about the usual difference at least; beside which other smaller parcels have been under negotiation and probably sold on a basis that appears to warrant the raising of quotations to at least the plane holders have for some time been asking, and even at 12c there are fancy white goods that cannot be sold here. There have also been some fair sales of macaroni, 10c to 10 1/2c, and even 11c, while of cheap nut grades, costing from 9c down, the sale is prompt, including some of the ice-house light skims at 7c and under, and indeed when buyers look for anything showing value less than about 9c, they find it difficult to get, and in satisfying their wants. This continued working off of the low qualities is having the effect to strengthen the position and increase the confidence of holders.

The local grain market is dull, and prices are nominally unchanged as follows. We quote:—No. 1 hard, $1.25 to $1.27; No. 2 hard, $1.23 to $1.25; No. 1 Northern, $1.23 to $1.24; Canada 13d Winter, $1.20 to $1.21; Canada Spring, $1.20 to $1.22; White Winter, $1.22 to $1.23; barley, 70c to 75c per bushel; oats, 36c to 38c per 33 lbs.; peas, 78c to 80c per 60 lbs.; corn, 56c to 57c duty paid.

Chicago Grain and Provision Markets.

To-day's wheat market dull. May delivery opened 1/2 lower at $1.03, touched $1.01 and closed at $1.02. Corn about 1/2c lower than yesterday. Oats also a fraction easier. Provisions opened to day very strong, but sold off towards the close, though still closing higher than yesterday.

Messrs. Macdougall Bros., stock brokers, St. Francois Xavier street, and members of the Chicago Board of Trade, have the following despatch from A. Geddes & Co.:

CHICAGO, Ills., Dec. 7.—Nothing specially new in wheat. The market ruling comparatively dull, with light trade; general conditions unchanged, closed $1.03. Corn weaker on prospect of increased receipts. Provisions opened higher with shorts free buyers. Receipts of hogs continue only very moderate and unless they materially increase next week we expect to see higher prices for the products. Pork closed $13.70, lard $8.10 January.

Summary—The Liverpool market is firm and unchanged at 57 shillings per cent. The movement is light, but larger than usual at this season, and there is every sign of a steady demand at firm prices.

THE "WEEK," which has now become one of the well established and recognized weekly journals of Canada, has met with such success as to warrant its enlargement. On its list of contributors is a host of names, many well known in literature and science in Canada, and we need not say why our contemporaries should not still further extend its circulation until the whole of the Dominion is well covered. It abounds with interesting articles and good reading generally.

THE St. James' Methodist Church bazaar in the Queen's Hall Assembly rooms is still a source of attraction for our citizens, who yesterday and especially during the evening liberally patronized it. Sales were made freely, but notwithstanding this there is a considerable quantity left to dispose of and as the bazaar will positively close this evening, the ladies who have wrought hard for the past two days have made up their minds to do a rushing business to-day to crowd their unselfish labours on behalf of the object which they so much desire to accomplish.

BRANCH 84 (St. Jean Baptiste parish) of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—President, Mr. J. P. Grace; first vice-president, Mr. C. Gaudet; second vice-president, Mr. J. H. Howard; recording secretary, Mr. A. H. Spedding; financial secretary, Mr. F. H. Murphy; treasurer, Rev. Mr. Auclair; marshal, Mr. Thos. Dealy; guard, Mr. A. Picard; spiritual adviser, Rev. Mr. Auclair; trustees for two years, Messrs. J. O'Farrel and A. Picard.

On enquiry at the General Hospital last evening as to the condition of the boy William Foley, who was reported as having been shot above the heart, at the Boys' Home on Mountain street, yesterday morning, it was ascertained that the facts reported in an evening contemporary were incorrect. The boy only sustained injuries to his thumb, and not in the breast, as reported. It is expected that Foley will be able to leave the hospital to-day. The doctors of the hospital complain very bitterly of this evening paper's reports of accidents.

THE Fire Brigade had another busy day yesterday. The first alarm was sent in at 8:47 a.m., from box No. 125, for a fire in a shed and stable in the rear of No. 48 Berard street. The damage was slight. The second alarm came in at 5 p.m., from box No. 55, for a fire caused by a lamp in the room of a tenant at 821 p.m., from box No. 32, for a fire at No. 97 Metcalfe street, occupied by Mr. S. R. Robier. The fire broke out in the shop but was quickly extinguished, and the damage was once more a slight one.

The lady superintendent of the Montreal General Hospital acknowledges, with thanks, the receipt of the following donations for the institution: Ten bags of potatoes from Messrs. Dawes & Co., of Lachine; basket of apples and grapes from St. Thomas' Church, thanksgiving service per Mr. Spicer, mattress, pillow and bed from Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Packard, parcel of nightgowns purchased at Industrial Rooms from Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. Hickson, Mrs. W. W. Ogilvie, Mrs. J. Ogilvie and a friend; books, magazines, &c., from Mrs. Linton, Mr. G. B. Burland, Mr. F. B. Horne and friends.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY LITERARY SOCIETY.—At the regular weekly meeting of this society, held last evening, Mr. Selkirk Cross read an interesting paper on the constitution of the University. Through the unavoidable absence of the critic, Mr. C. J. Doherty, Q.C., discussion was opened by Mr. J. R. Dougall, followed by Dr. Kelly, Prof. Hutchinson, D.C.L., Mr. England, Professor McGoun and Mr. J. S. Hall, Q.C., M.P.P. The general tone of the addresses indicated that the time had come for a change in the form of government of the University, although all admitted that the past had shown good results.

A HIDDEN MYSTERY.—The secret virtues of St. Leon Water are only known to the Creator. In our advertising columns will be found directions to insure a cure of a few of the many diseases to which this wonderful mineral water is an enemy. To be convinced of its many virtues it must be tried, and in cases of chronic dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver and kidneys, biliousness and rheumatism its curative powers are unrivalled. It is only a matter of a small sum to make a person feel anew, and when St. Leon is drank regularly it regulates the digestive organs and prevents constipation. Head office, 54 Victoria Square.

PRESENTATION.—On the eve of his marriage Mr. Will. Irwin was made the recipient of a very handsome suite of furniture, the gift of the firm and factory hands of Charles Gird & Co., the extensive mineral water manufacturers of this city. In making the presentation Mr. Caldwell alluded to the long services of Mr. Irwin, some eighteen years, and in tendering him on behalf of the donors, their best wishes for his future happiness and prosperity. Mr. Irwin graciously counselled him to be at times kind and considerate to the bride-elect, who, thus early, had shown a disposition to have a Will of her own. Mr. Irwin gracefully acknowledged the kind thoughtfulness of his friends, and the pleasant incident terminated.

MARGARET
DELAND'S
GREAT NOVEL:

John Ward, Preacher,

The Literary Sensation of the Day.

From Ven. Archdeacon Farrar, of England:

"A story full of grace, suggestive of many serious thoughts, and rising at times to a tragic pathos, which brings to the eyes of the reader a rush of tears. There are pages in it which, in their power of insight and skill in minute delineation, remind us of Thackeray; while the pictures of country life constantly recall Mrs. Gaskell's fresh and charming tale of 'Cranford.' But 'John Ward' is no mere fugitive story. Behind the story lie some of the deepest problems which beset our life."

FACTS AND HINTS.

Pithy Paragraphs for all Classes of Readers.

The death in Brooklyn a few days ago of Miss Ida Bunnell, of Elizabeth, N. J., is said to have been due to a cat bite.

Starfish continue to bother Connecticut oyster growers, and on Saturday 200 bushels of them were caught on one plantation in the harbour at Norwalk by a single vessel.

It is asserted that a clean sweep of the departments at Washington would result in the removal of more Republicans than Democrats, and this after a four-years' Democratic Administration.

In December ring Every day the chimneys; Loudly the green singing; In the streets their merry rhymes, Let us sing by the fire ever higher, Sing them till the cat bite.

An elevator in a New Hampshire factory stopped suddenly, the engineer having shut off the steam, and the lad who was riding on it became so frightened lest it should fall that he was attacked with heart disease and died.

A difference between our national weather prognosticators is that the much-abused Virginian, as by the Boston Budget, is that "the first does not inform us of what is coming, and the other alarms us with stormy predictions that do not materialize."

An assistant to a Connecticut plumber poured a small quantity of water into a pot of hot lead, in order to satisfy a doubt in his mind as to what the effect would be. He wasn't seriously injured, but is likely to carry a reminder of the experiment to the grave with him.

The sale of the hull and fittings of the steamer Great Eastern realized over $43,000, the copper bringing $22,000, the gun metal, $14,480; brass, $2,980; lead, $4,180; iron plates, $12,500; inner iron plates, beams and rivets, $12,200; and anchors about $300. The breaking up of the steamer will commence on January 1 and is expected to occupy a year.

The Paris Prefect of Police, by a decree just issued, forbids sandwich-men and advertising vans to circulate on the principal boulevards, on the ground that they obstruct the traffic and frighten horses. In the other streets fancy costumes for sandwich-men are prohibited, while illuminated vans and advertising cars are to be restricted in size, and are not to be drawn by more than two horses.

A. B. Dolbear, a fur collector of Farmington, Me., during a recent hunting trip obtained a beautiful skin of a silver-gray fox. The specimen is a handsome one and perfectly marked, and has long silky hair. Skins of this species are rare, Mr. Dolbear himself having obtained only two or three during his long experience. The fox was shot on the Sandy River in the northern wilds of Maine.

According to "American Notes and Queries" in one of the cellars of the Rathskeller at Bremen, there are 12 large cases of wine, each case containing "the celebrated 'Rosenwein' wine, which was deposited there in 1804, in a case of this wine, containing 204 bottles, cost $500 dollars at that time. Taking all expenses into account and compounding the interest, a single glass, one-eighth of a bottle, would cost about $300,000, or about $300 a drop."

The case of M. Chaniffat, a Frenchman, is attracting medical attention in London. On one occasion he slept continuously for 13 days and a half, and at the latest advice from England, he was lying asleep at the Alexandra Palace, having fallen into a sort of a trance six days before. His appearance is generally normal, but at times his limbs are set in unaccountable rigidity. No respiration is perceptible, and there is a constant twitching of his eyelids.

Col. Higginson puts in a gallant word for the much-slandered physique of the American girl. He says in Harper's Bazar: "Any American girl, who is as athletic as an English girl, is really more athletic, for her system has to be injured to incomparably greater extremes of heat and cold; she plays tennis under a hotter sun than her English cousin would or could encounter this side of India, and she learns to walk fearlessly on ice or snow-drift where the cousin would be slipping helplessly about or clinging to a guide."

Her publishers do not mean to let Annie's advertisement in a letter to the proprietor of Collier's Once a Week, in which she denies with Virginia vehemence that she ever called Judith, a girl of her new story, a shrew. "The charge," she writes, "is as absolutely false as that I wear—what do you play tennis under a hotter sun than her English cousin would or could encounter this side of India, and she learns to walk fearlessly on ice or snow-drift where the cousin would be slipping helplessly about or clinging to a guide."

The editor of the Seneca (Ala.) Sentinel thus asks his readers to come forward and pay back subscriptions: "It is a sad duty to us to state to the many readers of this paper that we are actually in need of a suit of clothes. We would like to attend preaching, but cannot do so because we are ashamed to enter the church with the suit that is worn daily; we go occasionally, but have to slip in quietly and take a back seat. This piece is not written for the purpose of soliciting some kind friend to donate us a suit of clothes, nor some heartless mercenary to sell us a suit of time but to arouse the sympathies of those owing us. We have spent the last dollar in our possession to accommodate you; now come to our needy assistance, and receive the blessings that only a poor oppressed newspaper man can bestow."

A Glade River, W. Va., special says: About four miles from this hamlet on Glade Mountain resides a family of incidences. The father and mother were married on the 14th of October; they have had nine children, all of whom were born on the 14th of October; five of the children are dead, and all five of them ceased to breathe on the 14th day of October. The name of the head of the family is Joelina Franklin. He says he was a Confederate soldier, that he was captured twice by the Yankees, and that he lost two brothers in the war, and that all four of the mishaps or misfortunes of war occurred on the memorable 14th of October. In the neighbourhood the Franklin family is regarded with superstition, and not a human being can be prevailed upon to stay in the house or on the premises on the 14th of October.

The British Parliament is working over hours again, plodding through the estimates in order to get a chance to adjourn by the 22nd for the Christmas holidays. The Chancellor of the Exchequer has had to abandon his wheel and van tax, against which the Tories protested. The $500,000 expected from this source is otherwise to be raised. Some of the efforts at economy at first won praise for the Tory Government, the Queen, for instance, having been induced to sanction the abolition of the royal kennel of stag-hounds and the whole establishment presided over by the master of buck-hounds, and it is being understood that the bee-keepers at the Tower are to go, but the reformers have not been so enthusiastic since they learned that these savings are to go to swell the Queen's privy purse instead of being turned into the Treasury.

Dr. W. F. Hutchinson gives a black eye to oatmeal diet. Writing in the American Magazine he says:—"The fashion of beginning breakfast with oatmeal porridge, that came from England some years ago, has caused more dyspepsia than any single habit that I recall. It places a sticky, pasty carbonaceous food against a membrane that is already torpid enough and needs sharp stimulus of fruit or douché of water to start gastric secretions, instead of a clogging mass like the meal, that day long works ill until it is gotten rid of. Nutritious it is not, except to a strong person who is in for a hard day's work out of doors, and then it is in every way inferior as a food to a steak and cup of coffee with milk. And I am glad to note a partial disappearance from American tables, which is probable, by the way, that oatmeal is not so popular in Scotland as commonly thought. A Chicago Scotchman says more of it is eaten here in a day than in Glasgow in a week."

PEOPLE WHO ARE TALKED ABOUT.
Gen Fisk had one vote in South Carolina.

J. H. Parnell, a brother of the Irish leader, is a successful peach grower in Georgia.

Alma Tadema's studio in his house in London is decorated with silver and hung with heavy tapestry.

The Pope has a plate of light soup served to him four times a day. He never drinks any wine but claret.

The director of the spy service in France is Colonel de Letow-Vorbeck, formerly in the Military Academy in Berlin.

Miss Edith Bonney, an American girl, has captured the first prize for oil painting at the Academy of Arts at Bern, Switzerland.

Francis Darwin, son of the late Charles Darwin, has succeeded Dr. Vines as University Reader in Botany, at Cambridge, England.

Queen Isabella of Spain takes a deep interest in the American game of poker, and is entertaining her guests at Paris with bobtail and royal flushes.

James Williamson, it turns out, is the man who gave $1000 to the Parnell Defence Fund the other day. He is, not unreasonably, classed as a Liberal.

Senator Morrill, of Vermont, whose health was so broken last spring that he had to leave Washington, is once more enjoying his customary robust health.

Rev. Henry White, the Savoy (London) Chapel, declares that more than half a failure in the case of only one of the 1500 couples whom he has united.

A bride has finally been secured for the young Emperor of China and the wedding celebration will, it is said, take at least $10,000,000 out of the imperial treasury.

Efforts are being made, it is said, in England to obtain a Government pension for the daughters of the late Richard Proctor, whose death left his family in absolute poverty.

Ex-Empress Eugenie has recognized Prince Victor Napoleon as the head of the Imperialist party and has promised to supply him with plenty of funds to carry on his campaign.

The Carina of Russia is suffering from acute mental depression as the result of her recent railroad accident, and her physicians recommend as the only remedy a succession of fetes.

Mrs. Rose Terry Cooke lived in a cheerful old house in Pittsfield, Mass. She is very fond of antique furniture and relics, and her home contains many choice pieces of old malogony.

Senator J. W. Farnell, of Illinois, is a hearty old gentleman about sixty years of age, with a close cut fair beard, which shows the silvery touch of time. He always wears gold-rimmed eye-glasses.

Among Perry Belmont's fellow collegians at Harvard were Congressmen Edward Burnett and Henry Cabot Lodge, and John F. Andrew, who is elected to the next Congress, was a classmate.

The Rev. John Williams, a coloured Baptist preacher of Hopkinsville, Ky., last Sunday baptized 122 converts in an hour and ten minutes. This is said to be the best record ever made in baptisms.

General Lord Wolseley has an only brother, Frederick Wolseley, who is a squatter in Australia, where he is said to be about to reap a great fortune from a sheep shearing machine he has invented.

Capt. Charles King of Milwaukee, who has a new serial "Between the Lines," in Harper's Weekly, is 44 years old, and on the retired list on account of severe wounds received in fights with Indians.

Congressman Thomas, of Illinois, is an intimate personal friend of the President-elect. His grandfather, General Neely, was Chief of Staff to General William Henry Harrison in the war of 1812.

Miss Elias, granddaughter of the venerable historical Bancroft, is busily engaged in organizing a weekly dancing class for the present season. The number of members is to be limited and restricted to unmarried persons.

The little Princess of the Netherlands when she became Queen of Holland was one of the richest sovereigns of Europe. She is bright, intelligent and clever maiden, with a good deal of character and determination.

Edward Fontaine, aged 17, has been received at the Ohio Penitentiary as a United States prisoner for one year, having been sent from Mississippi for robbing a post-office. His grandmother was a sister of Patrick Henry.

Spurgeon Perry, once a popular Congressional minister of New Jersey, and who made a fortune of nearly $1,000,000 out of patent medicines, only to lose it in speculation, has been sent to the almshouse at Flatbush as a pauper.

Elijah Halford, President-elect Harrison's private secretary, is almost as artistic a whistler as Mrs. Shaw. He has no other material accomplishment, but he can whistle the most difficult music in a manner which astrophishes his hearers.

Abbe Richlin, formerly editor of the Union d'Albion-Lorraine, which was suppressed by the German authorities, is on his way to this country to visit the Bishop of Dakota, Mgr. Marty. For the last three years he has been the pastor of a church in Strasbourg.

Horace Taff, son of Judge Alphonso Taff, of Cincinnati, O., is tutor Yale College and a great believer in tariff reform. He voted for Cleveland at the recent election in spite of the Republican prominence of his family. After the election he wrote to his brother, Judge William Taff of Cincinnati, in regard to tariff reduction. "Strangely enough the Yale tutor spelled 'tariff' with two f's."

Children Cry for Pito her's Castoria.

write a most sarcastic reply to the college instructor. An answer from the professor soon came in which he said: "How I do wish, William, that you knew as much about the tariff as you do about spelling."

Emperor William has had the Imperial crown of Germany so altered as to make it an exact counterpart of the one worn by Charlemagne. Still there is a feeling that the crown of his father and grandfather should be good enough for the present Emperor.

L. Follender, a Roumanian, who keeps a lodging-house in Kansas City, has received authentic information that he is one of two heirs to an estate of $7,000,000 left by an uncle in Roumania. Follender was so overjoyed by his good luck that he went on a big spree, took morphine to induce sleep, and was only saved by hard work and a stomach-pump from missing his fortune.

The Crown Prince of Russia is described by a Moscow correspondent as an ordinary young man, with coarse black hair, dark complexion, not over bright, kind in disposition, though with a full appreciation of his own importance, and fonder of reading than anything else. The miserable aristocrat of the white tie thus make his life a burden at times account for his objection to society.

Joseph Shippe, aged 25, and Margaret Douglas, aged 10, were engaged to be married thirty-five years ago in East Tennessee. Relatives objected because of the girl's youth, and the marriage was postponed from that time to the present. Both were in evening dress, the lady charmingly attired in crimson silk, black lace and diamonds, and carrying a swansdown hat; Mr. Gladstone, with the customary camelia in his coat, "his dress-shirt open at the neck for strong oratorical effect," and the way of his white tie thus made easy for his customary journey to the side of the neck in the course of his coming oration.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone as they appeared on the platform on the occasion of their recent visit to Birmingham. Both wore an evening dress, the lady charmingly attired in crimson silk, black lace and diamonds, and carrying a swansdown hat; Mr. Gladstone, with the customary camelia in his coat, "his dress-shirt open at the neck for strong oratorical effect," and the way of his white tie thus made easy for his customary journey to the side of the neck in the course of his coming oration.

THE NOBLE CABMAN.

Charles Henry John Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury, has become notorious as a peer who does not consider it beneath his dignity to carry on business as a cab proprietor, and to enter into competition with lively stable keepers and the like. Born twenty-eight years ago, the commencement of his career was not promising.

It was probably a misfortune for him that he succeeded to the title when he was yet in his teens. The scandal which preceded his marriage was more serious, and it is doubtful whether he can live it down, though he may plead youth in extenuation, and fidelity as atonement. Perhaps, after all, he did well to address himself to the task of improving vehicular accommodation. There have been less worthy objects than this, and Lord Shrewsbury has justified his choice by success. On this point there is not room for controversy. Starting as a cab proprietor in his individual capacity, he has succeeded in the time when Shrewsbury ultimately became the chairman of a limited liability company, in which it is understood that he holds a large number of shares. The cabs belonging to the company are unquestionably superior to the ordinary vehicles, and Lord Shrewsbury may at any time be seen riding upon the fact that he has helped to render riding in a hansom something of a luxury. He has shown both enterprise and determination, and it may pretty safely be asserted that if he had been brought up to the trade he could not have done better. It would be not altogether correct to affirm that Lord Shrewsbury and his company have conquered London, but they have now invaded Paris. When Lord Shrewsbury has launched his system in Paris, he may introduce it in other European capitals, and it is quite on the cards that he may live to be a millionaire.

AGE OF PROFESSIONAL MEN.
Anxiety or Loss of Interest Factors of Much has been written of late concerning the long lives of those who follow literary pursuits and some interesting statistics as to the age of writers have been the light. With the familiar instance of Goethe, Voltaire and a score or two more of past days and with the more modern cases of the laureate, Mr. Browning and Mr. Bailey, the author of "Festus"—long may they live—I am not inclined to concern myself. With a full full sense of my own incompetency to deal scientifically with the subject, I wish nevertheless to place matters on a scientific basis.

In point of fact all professions are healthy as compared with trades. What men are longer lived than scientists, archaeologists—there is no profession of archaeology, but let that pass—lawyers, clerics, physicians, actors? In some professions, notably the bar, to which the might be added the stage, the early training is said, in a half serious banter, to kill off the weaklings. To some extent this is true of all professions. Men without self control die, as a rule, young, whatever their occupations. In other cases, however, the conditions under which the class named exist are the most favourable. The two things that most readily kill men who attain middle age are anxiety or loss of interest. The man who goes to bed not knowing whether a bell will ring or not, or whether he will be wealthy or steep, him in ruin dies of softening of the brain; he who has made his fortune and retired feels, unless he has cultivated a hobby, that he has no place in the world, and dies of inanition.

As a rule, the professional man of 50 has learned what he can do. It is an ill fit for the line he took he has slipped out of it; if he is making a fortune it is a career full of interest and with little trouble or anxiety to himself. It is not his own case that the barrister pleads, the physician combats and the paragon arraigns. Again, he is not moderately successful, his earnings, though small, are pretty safe. He gets as near an approximation to security as fate in a world such as this accords, and he may hope, barring exceptional circumstances, that the future will be as the past. This occupation, mean while, is not moderately successful, and intelligent surroundings and his life is fairly and pleasantly varied. In this lie, I make bold to say, the secret of long life on which the world is given to commend. Once the philosopher temperance is reached, the combustion of life is very rapid.—Gentleman's Magazine.

A Pleasing Duty.
"I feel it my duty to say," writes John Borton, of Desert, P.Q., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon gave way, and I can highly recommend the medicine to all suffering as she did."

SKIN DISEASES
are of two kinds; firstly, those which are only skin deep (which are not now to be considered); secondly, those which are caused by a bad state of the blood, and which attack various parts of the body in different ways. Skin disease shows itself in the HEAD, sometimes in the form of Dandruff, which no amount of brushing and combing will get rid of, and sometimes in the form of Scaly or Eruptions. In the SKIN, by an enlargement of the glands (commonly called Glandular Swellings), which, if unchecked, become very unsightly wounds. In the ARMS, and the inside of the ELBOWS, by an inflamed Roughness of the skin, which is very painful when washed. In the HANDS, by deep Cracks or Fissures, which, if healed for a few days, speedily open again, or by horny-looking patches. In the LEGS, by hard, shiny and inflamed Swellings, or by round more or less deep. And on the BODY, in Red Scaly Patches, which as often as not, sometimes in the form of a very disagreeable, of a thin, watery fluid, or in the discharge of matter. In all these cases the treatment must be twofold. An Ointment is required to relieve itching, and medicine must be taken to change the state of the blood, and render it pure.

Both these requirements are supplied by Dr. Roberts Celebrated Medicines
THE OINTMENT called
"THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND."
—AND THE—
"ALTERNATIVE PILLS."
Called "Purific Antiscorbutic."
These two Medicines have now stood the test of 100 years' trial, having been introduced to the public in the latter part of the last century. They may be obtained of all Chemists, or of the Proprietors,
