Street Car Service Stops at 11 O'clock Tonight Great Britain Threatened To Resume Hostilities

STREET RAILWAY CO. AND CITY COUNCIL COULD NOT REACH AN AGREEMENT AT MEETING

Alderman Edwards' Proposal that the Council and Street Railway Company Declare an Armistice for a Period of Two Months, the Service to Continue During that Period Under Same Conditions as at Present and the Matter of New Contract Be Discussed—Company Officials Refuse to Back Down—Argued for a Long Time at Meeting Last Night.

Sherbrooke will be without a street car service after tonight. That is, unless some last minute temporary agreement is drawn up between the Sherbrooke Street Railway Company and the City, or the officials of the Company back down on their ultimatum, which move General Manager Woodruff this morning stoutly maintained that they would not make. A special meeting of the City Council and the officials of the Company was called last night by Mayor Charles D. White, with a view of trying to bring about a temporary workable agreement whereby the citizens of Sherbrooke would at least be assured of a street car service during the ensuing winter months. The argument was continued for quite a lengthy period, but when the gathering broke up it was found that matters stood just as they did when the Company issued their ultimatum to the City Council some time ago.

In addition to all the members of the City Council, with the exception of Ald. Wells, and the representatives of the Company, there were several prominent citizens present at the meeting to hear the arguments advanced. For some time the views were that the two parties would arrive at some suitable temporary agreement, but Ald. Edwards practically shattered all hopes of a settlement when he suggested that the City Council and the Company officials agree to an armistice for a period of two months. Ald. Edwards made this statement that the Company would not lose very much money if they continued their service under the present conditions for a month, and that meantime efforts be made to draw up a new contract which would be suitable to both the City and the Company. He was reminded that it was practically impossible to draw up a contract in such a short space of time, and that at the end of the month matters would no doubt be just as they are at the present time. Ald. Edwards then made the suggestion that all agree to an armistice for two months, and moved the following resolution:

"That this Council suggest to the Sherbrooke Street Railway and Power Company that they continue the operation of their present service for a period of two months, and that during that time the Council will be willing to discuss the question of drawing up a new contract their serious consideration."

Turned Down Suggestion. This resolution met with the approval of Ald. Brault, who immediately seconded it, and when the vote was taken there was a dissenting voice to be heard. With this resolution passed, the meeting broke up. Mr. Woodruff, the general manager of the Company, on hearing the decision of the City Council, said he was sorry, but he could not accept such a proposition. "This is a most unreasonable proposition to make the Company. They ask us to continue to operate at a loss for two more months when they know we are at the end of our tether. If we were to back down on our ultimatum, we would be up against exactly the same proposition at the end of the two months as we are now. We intend to live up to the letter of our ultimatum, and the service will be discontinued after tonight."

Mayor White opened the meeting by stating his reason for calling the members of the City Council together. He pointed out the seriousness of the situation and what the closing down of the street car service would mean to the City, also stating that he had had an interview with Mr. Woodruff and they had drawn up a temporary agreement for a period of one year which he thought would be fairly fair and just to the City and the Company. Mayor White went on to state that the Company requested that pending a new contract, a temporary agreement for a period of one year with the increased tariff in force be drawn up. On its part the Company would undertake as soon as the frost is out of the ground next spring to double-track Wellington street from Strathcona Square to King street, providing the City proceeded with the paving of Wellington street, and the Company would raise its tracks to the level given by the City, also extend the Lennoxville, Park and Newington services to Strathcona Square, and furthermore, the Company would be willing to allow the City the sum of $1,000 during the said period of twelve months in lieu of the work of repairing the roadbeds and removing the snow, and the Company agree to hold the City harmless on account of any interruption of service which might be caused by the work so performed by the City.

That the City Council prepare and submit to the ratemakers within the next six months an amended contract between the City and the Sherbrooke Street Railway Company embodying such terms as may be agreed upon.

Mayor White explained that there were undoubtedly some clauses in the present contract which are unreasonable and cannot be carried out. Furthermore, that he was sure the members of the Council agreed that certain clauses could not be carried out, and that while the Council must look after the City's interests and secure the best terms possible, the Company had a right to a fair contract. Mayor White also stated that he understood the Company is willing to build the West Ward branch line as soon as they are in a position to do so with a reasonable contract.

Ald. Tetreault wanted to know why they should not draw up a contract right at once, and Mr. Woodruff stated that he would be quite willing as he would like to have the contract question settled in a week in preference to six months.

Col. H. R. Fraser, K.C., who with Mr. Woodruff is acting for the Company, stated that the financial conditions of the country at the present time are very unsettled and that no one could say what the conditions in the future would be. Therefore it would be difficult for the Company to state just what they would be willing to do in years to come. For the Company did not wish to make any more promises that they would not be able to carry out. For this reason the Company asked that the contract be revised by the Utilities Commission every two months on Wellington Street.

Double-Tracking at Wellington Street. Mayor White stated that he understood that Ald. Forest's chief objection was in regard to the paving of Wellington street. "According to this proposition which I have read, the Company is willing to double-track Wellington street and raise their rails to the level given them by the City if the City pave," said Mayor White.

Ald. Brault: "Do the Company mean that they will double-track Wellington street or simply put in a siding?" Mr. Woodruff: "Wellington street will be double-track double-tracked. It would require a double track for the West Ward extension."

Ald. Brault: "I understand that this double tracking scheme was turned down by the Council some time ago because the Company intended to only double track a part of Wellington street. Would it be best to double track right up as far as Dufferin avenue?" Mr. Woodruff: "This would bring a switch on the hill, which would be pretty hard."

Ald. Brault: "I don't see that there would be any trouble with the switch at the corner of Dufferin avenue." Ald. Forest: "I was perfectly satisfied with the reasons given us by Mr. Woodruff some time ago at one of our meetings why it would not be advisable to double track Wellington street as far as Dufferin avenue. However, we want to know just what part of the street the Company will double track next spring, for we intend to go ahead with our paving. We want to know if we pave Wellington street south of King street, will the Company double track that portion and fix their tracks. That is why I think it would be advisable to draw up a new contract at once, because we would then know just where we stood and be able to go ahead right now with the work of preparing to pave Wellington street next spring."

STATEMENT MADE BY THE COMPANY THIS MORNING

General Manager Woodruff Issues Official Statement to Company's Patrons in City and Lennoxville.

The Sherbrooke Street Railway and Power Company addresses the following letter to their Sherbrooke and Lennoxville patrons:

"For a period of upwards of twenty years the Company has been serving the public of Sherbrooke and Lennoxville. We are aware that the plant and service have not, on all occasions, been entirely satisfactory, but we can truthfully say that in face of the many difficulties which we have had to meet and overcome, we have always done our best under the existing circumstances."

"When the road was first built, the population was small, and although the city has grown, particularly since the war in the price of materials and the cost of operating have made it impossible for us to give our patrons, at all times, the service which they may have felt they were entitled to."

"Our contract with the city was found to be impossible of performance, and we have repeatedly placed our case before the City Council with a view of obtaining a new and modified contract, which would enable us to improve and extend the system and service, but without success."

"We had hoped up to the last moment, in view of the fact that the City Council and citizens freely concede that our present contract is an impossible one, that the City and ourselves could come together under a temporary working arrangement, pending negotiations for a new, fair, reasonable and workable contract, but this hope has been disappointed."

"The Mayor called his informal meeting of the Council last evening and placed before its members his views as to a fair working proposition, that is to say, that the Company should carry on the railway service at the increased fares asked for, for a period of six months, and that in the meantime the terms and provisions of a new contract be carefully studied and prepared between the Council and the Company, with such outside assistance as might be found necessary."

"Had the Mayor's proposition been accepted, the Company would have been enabled to carry on its service pending the completion of a new contract, and the inconvenience and loss to the citizens would have been avoided, without any detriment whatsoever to the interests of the city."

"Unfortunately, this plan was rejected, and again the Council called upon the Company to continue on under its old contract for another period of two months, during which it was stated the terms of a new contract would be studied."

"By its action the Council has once more admitted that the terms of the existing contract are not workable, but has refused to grant immediate relief, and as the Company can no longer operate under present conditions, we are reluctantly obliged to discontinue our service after tonight."

"It is with the greatest regret that we are forced to take this position, and we beg that the citizens and public generally will not hold us responsible for any inconvenience which may result."

"We will welcome and give our serious consideration to any proposition which may be made with a view of adjusting the present unfortunate situation, and trust that the Council may yet see its way to grant us a fair temporary working arrangement while the whole matter is carefully studied out and a new contract entered into."

Yours very truly,
SHERBROOKE RAILWAY & POWER COMPANY,
JAS. B. WOODRUFF,
General Manager,
Sherbrooke, Nov. 30, 1918.

The Peace Christmas

On account of "war times" we have many times held back our natural inclination to give something.

And now with an equal regard for the fitness of things, we instinctively turn to something that shall adequately commemorate what will be known as the "Peace Christmas."

Let it be a gift which is lasting and worthy of the occasion.

Write us and we will send you the Birks Year Book.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily.

Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

A SLUGGISH LIVER CAUSED SEVERE HEADACHES

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

Healthy bile in sufficient quantity is Nature's provision to secure regular action of the bowels, and when the liver is sluggish it is not working properly, and does not manufacture enough bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products from the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in, followed by sick and bilious headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, heartburn, water brash, bad taste in the mouth in the morning, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

Miss Dian Clark, Myer's Cave, Ont., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you concerning the good I have received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a sluggish liver. When my liver got bad I would have severe headaches, but I got better after I had used a couple of vials of your pills."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills gently unlock the secretion, clear away all waste and effete matter by acting directly on the liver, and make the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

REUBEN F. SULLIVAN, NORTH COATICOOK

NORTH COATICOOK, QUE., Nov. 30.—(Special) — The funeral of the late Reuben Francis Sullivan was held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram E. Sullivan, at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, November 27th, Rev. C. G. Stevens, Rector, officiating. The choir of Christ Church were present and sang the hymns, "When the World is Brightest," and "Jesus, Saviour, pilot me o'er life's tempestuous sea," and the Nunc Dimittis. The funeral was in charge of P. L. Baldwin, with the following bearers, Messrs. Hartley Waidron, Newton Moss, William Fleming and Harry Farrow, all friends of the deceased. Many beautiful floral tributes were received by the family, expressing the sympathy of the community with the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters. Interment was made in Mount Forest cemetery.

Reuben was born in March 14th, 1890, at Baldwin's Mills, being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sullivan, of that place. He leaves one brother, Pte. Myron Sullivan, who has been invalided home from the front after serving over two years in France and five sisters, Mrs. Reuben Wilson, Jr., Eleanor, Alice, Ella and Vera. The deceased was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters. He went west on the harvest excursion, leaving the end of August, and spent some time near Winnipeg, moving later on to Calgary where he contracted pneumonia, from which he passed away in a Calgary Hospital at 11 a.m., on Saturday, November 16th. His body was brought home to Coaticook for interment.

Reuben was one of those rare men who made many friends and no enemies. He was liked by all with whom he came in contact either in a business or social way. The heart-felt sympathy of his numerous friends goes out to the bereaved family in their irreplaceable loss.

"That is a most disagreeable East wind. I nearly always catch cold in this kind of weather"

"WELL, I seldom have a cold, and you know that I go out, no matter what the weather is like." "How do you account for that?" "For one thing I always try to dress to suit the season, and then I am careful to keep my general health in good condition." "As far as that goes, I am never very sick, but I do catch cold easily. I have always been inclined to be anaemic. The doctor says the blood is thin and I lack the reserve force necessary to ward off disease." "That used to be my trouble, but a friend told me about using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to build up the blood and make it pure and rich, and I followed her advice." "How did that help you?" "Well, as I understand it, the germs of disease cannot make much headway when the blood is rich and red. If they do get into the system the red corpuscles in the blood overcomes them and good health is maintained." "There may be something in that." "My experience proves it, for I used to be easy prey for every cold or contagious disease that was about." "Well, what causes pneumonia?" "Pneumonia, the doctors say, is usually the result of catching cold when you are tired and the system in an exhausted condition. That should be a warning to everybody to keep their vitality up to high-water mark." "I never just thought of it that way before, but I guess you have studied this thing out about right. What did you say you used?" "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. When I first used it I was pale and weak and much run-down in health. My head ached frequently, and I had spells of indigestion. It took about fifteen boxes of the Nerve Food to get my system in good healthy condition, but it changed my whole life, for I have been so healthy ever since." "How long ago was that?" "Why, it must be ten years." "And have you never used any since?" "Yes, I have used a few boxes at odd times. Sometimes in the spring I don't feel any too brisk and find the benefit of using some Nerve Food, but I think nearly everybody is the better for a little restorative treatment then." "Well, I must say you make out a good case for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. There are so many of the same opinion I believe I will go in for the 'red blood idea' and see if I cannot prevent colds and steer clear of the grippe and pneumonia." "You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto, at 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75. You are protected from imitations by the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., which are on every box.

BEDFORD DISTRICT HAPPENINGS

Daily Reports from Correspondents of What is Going on in Various Communities.

ABBOTSFORD

Abbotsford won a flag and one crown in the recent Victory Loan campaign. The annual Union Christmas tree supper will be held in the Parish Hall, Saturday evening.

COUGHED, COUGHED ALL NIGHT LONG

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. Sometimes it is a constant cough, cough that will not be quieted.

Sometimes it is a choked-up, stuffed up feeling that makes breathing difficult, and sleep impossible. Whatever kind of a cold or cough you have, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the remedy you need to cure it.

Miss Margaret Landly, Bristol, P. E. I., writes: "I am writing to tell you the benefit I have received from Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

Do not accept any other "pine" preparations when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." This remedy has been on the market for a quarter of a century.

ONE OF NATURE'S COMMON TRICKS

Acts just like a wireless message and "ouch" is the answer

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and "ouch" you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of frezone. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harra tender stomach or bowels.

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harra tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. For a child will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! It coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold, or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

THE DRENCHED PIGEON.

"The worst messenger that reaches us," the officer in charge of a French hydroplane station told a Morning Post special correspondent, "is when we get a drenched homing pigeon, and when on examining it we find there is no message tied to its leg. The arrival of a drenched pigeon requires no great discernment for the interpretation of its message. It means that one of our machines has fallen into the sea, and that the situation is so desperate that the pilot has had no time to make a note of his whereabouts. The drenched pigeon is a bird of evil omen."

WEBER PIANOS

We are convinced that the Weber Piano is the best medium priced Piano on the market today. Our fifty years' experience in the piano business has enabled us to select the best makes of pianos. The Weber is not a new piano, but one which has been built on years of experience and has proven its quality and durability by its many years of service in thousands of homes, schools and musical academies throughout the Dominion. Prices range from $350.00 upwards. By buying in large quantities we are able to hold the price down, as these pianos are sold in other cities at an advance of $25.00 to $50.00. To enable our customers to match their furniture, we stock these pianos in mahogany (gloss and dull finish), walnut and fumed oak.

During this week our special terms are $25.00 cash and $8.00 per month. This includes a nice stool, music book (your own selection), and freight paid to your railway station. Write for further description and cut.

Attention! Machinists, Moulders, Blacksmiths, Boiler-makers, etc., etc., are requested to meet with machinists at their next regular meeting, Monday, Dec. 2, 1918, at McKechnie's Hall. Business of importance. Messrs. McClelland, Bastien, Ducharme and others will address the meeting. Time, 8.00 p.m.
The friends of Mrs. M. J. Dutchburn will regret to hear that she has been in the Sherbrooke Hospital under treatment for the past two weeks, and underwent an operation. She is improving however, and expects shortly to return home.
The Misses Flossie and Alma Dean left yesterday for Montreal to spend the week-end with their friend, Miss Ula Campbell.
Word was received yesterday from Montreal stating that Master Roland Bartlett, of La Tuque, formerly of this city, had undergone an operation for appendicitis at the General Hospital, Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett, acting upon the advice of their doctor, started with their son to come to Sherbrooke, but on arrival at Montreal his condition was so serious that he was taken immediately to the General Hospital, and the operation performed at once. At latest report his condition is as favorable as possible under the circumstances.
Plymouth Church tomorrow will join in the great peace thanksgiving service appointed by the Government. All the churches in the city will be centres of praise and thanksgiving. In the morning at Plymouth Church the Rev. G. Ellery Read will take for the subject of his sermon "Peace, Salvation and the Reign of God." In the evening the theme will be "Peace in Perpetuity" and will deal with the possibilities and foundations of such a peace. This is undoubtedly one of the great questions of the future. To secure such a peace, blood and treasure have been poured forth with unparalleled lavishness. The service of praise at both services will be appropriate to the great occasion. Members of the church and congregation are asked to come to the services with their families. At the morning service Mrs. Alberta Adams will sing "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," Hayler, and the choir will render the Te Deum, Garrett. In the evening the anthems will be "Recessional," Sennecker, and "Rejoice in the Lord," Page.

The Cause of Heart Trouble

Faulty digestion causes the generation of gases in the stomach which inflate and press down on the heart and interfere with its regular action, causing faintness and pain. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Carative Syrup after meals sets digestion right, which allows the heart to beat full and regular.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick relief. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into a 6-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY CELEBRATED

Today, being the festival of St. Andrew, Apostle and Martyr, there was a celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Peter's Church, St. Andrew, who is a patron saint of Scotland, was the early disciple of our Lord, a humble fisherman, who left his work by the Galilean Sea, went and found his brother, and with him followed the Saviour, when St. Andrew, for his faith, was condemned to be crucified. He was so noble that he chose a cross unlike that on which his Master had hung, and that cross is, now, with St. George's Cross, and the Cross of St. Patrick, on England's flag, the Union Jack.

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MGR. LAROQUE

Yesterday afternoon, a splendid reception was given at Most Notre Dame Convent, Sisters of the Congregation, in honor of Mgr. Paul Laroque, Bishop of Sherbrooke, on the occasion of his 25th anniversary of his consecration to the Bishopric. The great music hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and palms, and a large audience assembled, over four hundred pupils and visitors being present. Mgr. Laroque, and his attendants, were received with due ceremony by the Rev. Mother Superior, and the Sisters, and were conducted to the special seats reserved for them. The clergy present included, Mgr. H. O. Chalifeux, assistant Bishop, Mgr. E. C. Tanguay, Rev. H. A. Sinrad, rector of the Cathedral, Rev. A. O. Gagnon, of St. Charles' Seminary, Rev. N. Codere, Rev. N. St. Laurent, and many priests of the diocese, a distinguished visitor being Rev. Father Clement-Marie, Superior of the Assumptionists, Worcester, Mass.

A grand march by Rufenstein for pianos and violins, was the opening number of a fine musical programme, followed by two movements from the 6th Symphony of Beethoven "Fleurs de Souvenir," was also rendered effectively by the young musicians. Addresses were presented to Mgr. Laroque, one in English by Miss Nora Leonard, and one in French by Miss Bernadette Codere, both expressing warm congratulations on the happy event of the day.

Exquisite bouquets of roses, red and pink, and white lilies, were tendered to Mgr. Laroque by three of the pupils, and accepted with pleasure, and the Bishop, who was visibly affected, thanked the pupils for the gifts, and good wishes, and referring to his interest in the Convent, and the work of education generally, and of his affection for the past and present pupils. He earnestly hoped that the progress and growth of the institution would continue to the furtherance of Catholic principles and learning. The Bishop and party then took leave with many kindly words of gratification.

Many Attend Box Social.

A box social was held in the vestry of the Methodist Church last evening, and although the weather man was in one of his worst moods, the attendance was good, over fifty being present. There is an irresistible lure in connection with the boxes at such gatherings, and when they were put up at auction the excitement was well worth coming out in the rain to take part in. Everything was arranged to the entire satisfaction of the guests, and the dainty refreshments were enjoyed, after which the evening passed quickly with games. The social was under the auspices of the Philathea and Four Square classes, and the members felt well repaid for their efforts in providing this enjoyable entertainment.

HAS THE CITY ANYTHING MORE TO SAY?

Mr. Webster Makes a Final Inquiry Regarding St. John Nurse Episode.

Editor of Record:

Sir,—Just a minute, please, before the curtain falls on the last act. I would like to say that I have been unable to get any answer as to whether the city intends to pay Nurse Swim for her last week here. As Alderman Edwards' battery has ceased firing, "I am told on account of having no more ammunition," and as His Worship Mayor White is ex-officio in all committees, including the one that gave its ultimatum in reference to Nurse Swim, I would respectfully ask him if the city intends to pay her the balance due her or not; if not, will he and his colleagues give their consent to let Mr. Allen and myself pay her, as I want to get this matter off the sate.

Furthermore, I would like to ask His Worship whether it is his intention to publish Mayor Hayes' letter as per my previous request. I am sure that everyone would like to hear what Mayor Hayes had to say, they seem to have a feeling that it might be very interesting reading.

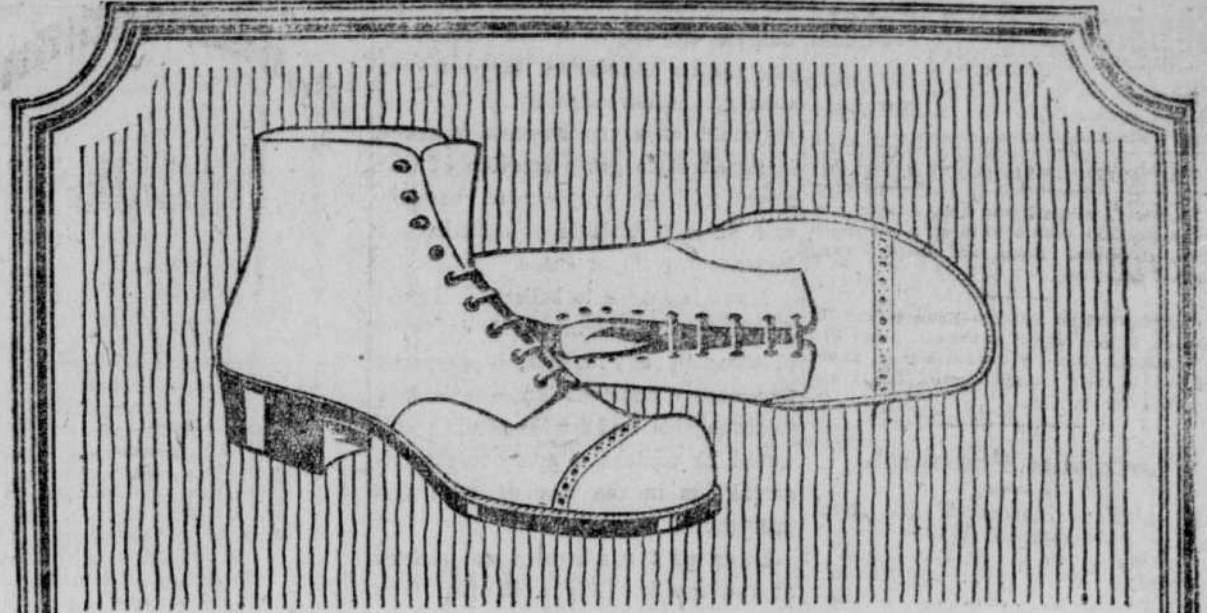

Yours truly,

SLUM CONDITIONS IN TORONTO BAD

Town Planning Expert Suggests that Industrial Communities Be Placed on Outskirts of City to Relieve Situation.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

TORONTO, Nov. 30.—With the claim that Toronto is on the verge of the worst slum conditions the city has ever known, and with an immediate necessity for finding some solution for the social problems which are involved, Mr. Thomas Adams, the town-planning expert, suggested to the school service department of the University yesterday afternoon, in the course of a lecture, that the planning of industrial communities on the outskirts of the city would provide the greatest possible relief.

The medium brood high top is popular with many men who want a roomy wide-fitting shoe. Blucher: black or brown leathers, $6 to $10.

Better Value for Your Money

THE size and the resources of the producer have a big effect upon values. A large volume of business reduces the cost per unit of product. Great buying power means the ability to secure materials well in advance, and at lowest prices.

Ames Holden McCready supply the shoe requirements of a large part of the Canadian public. More than 5,000 dealers, in all sections of the country, sell A.H.M. shoes. No other Canadian shoe house has anything like this volume of output.

And in financial resources this company occupies the same dominant position. It is able to place contracts for materials far in advance of actual requirements, and at better prices than would be possible for smaller purchases. These facts are important in normal times; they are doubly important now.

The A.H.M. trade-mark on a shoe is a warranty of value based upon the large output and greatest buying power.

A.H.M. War-Time Selections offer Special Service Value for Men, Women and Children. Ask your dealer for them.

STREET RAILWAY PROBLEM.

The attitude of the Council at its meeting this week was not such as to give promise of an amicable settlement of the street railway question.

The main argument in favor of this proceeding seems to be that the company made a contract with the city, and if it is not prepared to live up to this contract and cannot continue to "carry on," it should do as private individuals and commercial companies would do under like circumstances—assign for the benefit of its creditors.

In the first place, there would be the period, probably of considerable length, during which service would be suspended, with all its attendant inconvenience to the public.

In the second place is the general objection to the city, under its present system of civic management, undertaking another municipal adventure in the way of street railway ownership and operation.

But there is another and more general objection to a proceeding on the part of the city looking to liquidation of the company. This objection is a general one and involves the credit of the city among Canadian and foreign investors and manufacturers who might be looking for Canadian establishments.

Among the many big problems which this country must face, and for which it is hoped adequate preparations are being made, are, first, the problem of suitable and wise provision for the returning soldiers so that they may be absorbed into the civil population as soon as possible, and, second, the problem of general business readjustment from a war to a peace basis.

Can the city afford, without graver reasons than now present themselves, to be of itself the instrument that will force this company into liquidation, to the serious financial loss of thousands of bondholders throughout Canada? Can the city afford to risk serious injury to its reputation in our own country and abroad, through the employment of sharp business practice in an effort to get possession of this street railway property at sheriff's sale prices? This is a question of far-reaching importance.

There is reason to believe that public opinion in Sherbrooke is in favor of company continuance, is prepared to accept a one-cent increase in fare as reasonable, and for the coming year would be content with moderate undertakings in the way of road improvement.

Some of the aldermen complained at the meeting this week that they were not receiving advice from the citizens, but criticism only. This street railway question is an important problem which concerns all citizens. They should accept the invitation and without delay let their representatives in the Council know exactly how they feel about this matter and offer that "helpful advice" for which they ask.

COLORS FOR THE 5TH C. M. R.

It will be recalled that prior to the departure of the 17th Eastern Townships Battalion the people of the Eastern Townships presented to this corps a set of regimental colors, the organization for this presentation being undertaken by the Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade.

At the time of the departure of the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, the first Eastern Townships corps, a Union Jack was presented at the formal farewell at His Majesty's Theatre, but in the rush overseas of the first regiments, the custom of presenting regimental colors before departure had not developed. The suggestion has been made, and will no doubt meet with instant approval, that the people of the Eastern Townships would appreciate the opportunity of presenting, at the time of its demobilization, suitable colors as a slight evidence from the people at home of the pride they feel in the wonderful record of this splendid regiment, which in its glory and its tragedy is comparable with the Princess Pats and is exceeded by no other. The Eastern Townships Boards of Trade, it is learned, already has the matter in hand and is in communication with the regimental authorities. These colors must bear the names of historic battles in which this Eastern Townships regiment, the "Fighting Fifth," has been engaged, a long and notable list reaching through the annals of the great war, from the tragic days of Ypres, when Col. Baker and so many of the brave boys gave their lives for the cause, to the victorious concluding fights at Cambrai and Mons.

Some day before long the 5th C. M. R. will come home. This wonderful regiment, with its glorious achievements, belongs to the Eastern Townships. Fitting memorial to those who have fallen will be provided in due course. But, as an incident to the homecoming of the boys who have been spared, and as a slight preliminary tribute to those who will not come back, a presentation of colors would indeed be fitting.

VETERANS CRITICIZE GOVERNMENT'S POLICY RE CONValesCENT HOMES.

Among the many big problems which this country must face, and for which it is hoped adequate preparations are being made, are, first, the problem of suitable and wise provision for the returning soldiers so that they may be absorbed into the civil population as soon as possible, and, second, the problem of general business readjustment from a war to a peace basis.

At present the great majority of the veterans undergoing treatment are concentrated in the large cities where many of them have necessarily a great deal of idle time on their hands and have no specific interest to occupy their minds. The evil of the concentration of returned soldiers in large centres of population was notoriously proven after the American Civil War, and with the evidence of its results which the Archives at Washington can easily reveal, our Government has little excuse for perpetuating the practice. Furthermore the practice of collecting certain classes of patients in one single city is unfair to the patients and unfair to the country.

REPATRIATION AND EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE

It is composed of Sir James Lougheed, head of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment; Hon. N. W. Rowell, President of the Privy Council; Hon. T. A. Crerar, Minister of Agriculture; Hon. Gideon Robertson, Minister of Labor; Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior; Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, who is chairman of the committee. This organization will co-ordinate agencies already set up to deal with the big problems of demobilization and reconstruction.

persevere with the idea now adopted of encouraging the various Provinces to provide for their own homeless heroes.

But the chief source of trouble lies in the comparative idleness which is forced upon many of the returned men during the later stages of their hospital treatment. Full grown men, if left in idleness, rapidly deteriorate both mentally and physically, and it is nothing short of a tragedy that a considerable element of veterans, the full force of whose energies and abilities will be needed in the trying days of reconstruction, should not be provided with tasks or interests which would at least prevent any deterioration. Distribution in rural districts may be no panacea, but it would be a step in the right direction. The great cities are no places to keep returned soldiers hanging about while they await their discharge or are undergoing some minor forms of treatment.

It has been stated that the trouble in Toronto was due to conditions described above.

The great desire of the country is that as many of the returned men as possible shall become interested in rural life and agriculture. The Government, in its Soldiers' Settlement Act, is providing for financial aid in its connection. It does seem, however, that it is defeating this object by its policy of concentration in the cities.

The returned soldier question is a great big problem. The returned men deserve well of their country. They must not, however, be encouraged to become dependents. They must be helped to become builders in this young country which they have so gallantly defended.

A GENERAL UNREST.

The unrest in Europe seems to be spreading to this side of the water, and the red flag in the republic to the south has been causing disturbances purely American. In the United States there is always war between labor and capital, and in this discord is there ground for the sowing of the Bolshevik seed. Several strikes, affecting hundreds of thousands of workmen, have been called, ostensibly to force the pardon of T. J. Mooney, who has been found guilty in a certain labor conspiracy. Meetings held by the "Reds" have not been viewed in a friendly way by the soldiers and sailors, and something only short of a general riot has occurred as a result of clashes between strikers and representatives of army and navy.

After-war readjustment of social, political and industrial life in Europe and America is already causing disturbances. Yet there is promise that in Europe a sober-minded middle class may be able to smooth over a crisis which seems the only short cut to racial and patriotic freedom. In America, already democratic, there can be but a passing influence of the European upheaval.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

The English public schools of Sherbrooke have very greatly improved during recent years, and definite and useful effort has been put forth to meet all the educational demands of an increasing population of children. The importance of educational institutions does not need to be urged on this generation. The parent who is not interested in the instruction which his children receive is becoming obsolete, and while much is left to commissioners and teachers the community as a whole is wholeheartedly desirous of having the coming men and women receive the best training that it is possible to give them.

In physical training, however, are not our schools lacking? The Boy Scouts and Girl Guides are a vigorous step in the right direction, but these affect only a small percentage of the school children. A properly equipped gymnasium should be a part of the furniture of every school, for the physical education of the child is becoming increasingly important. Where space in the schools does not permit a gymnasium, at least the equipment might be put up in the playgrounds, during the seasons when winter sports do not keep the children out of doors. Indian clubs and dumb-bells could be used, with discretion, in regular classrooms. Folk-dances could be taught in any cleared space, indoors or out.

Gymnastics, calisthenics and folk-dancing are only second in importance to classwork. For the sickly child, they are of primary importance. Calisthenics are already a part of the every-day work of the school children, but, in themselves, a very short step in the right direction.

Press Comments

A FINE TRIBUTE. Some one in St. Louis, Mo., is responsible for this question—"What security has the United States for the billions of dollars loaned to Great Britain?" To this the Houston, Texas "Post," after calling the enquirer a "nuthead," replies "The security of as sublime a courage as invincible a spirit, as unwavering a faith, and as knightly an example of self-sacrifice as the annals of the human race disclose."

GERMANY A PRISONER.

She is a prisoner among nations—a criminal prisoner. Her life was spared because she put up her hands. The act of a physical surrender was one of self-preservation. She acquired thereby neither merit nor virtue. Her fate remains to be decided. In the meantime she will not starve. She is in the hands of people who do not starve or torture prisoners. A little humility would become her as much as anything could. To set up her wishes and preferences, to propose means of accelerating negotiations, to prepare beforehand the ground of alibi by serving notice that the German people at heart reject an armistice on which the ink is not yet dry—this is truly German.

THE REGENERATION OF THE WORLD.

The end of the war will not be a signal for relaxation of effort, but for still greater effort in all directions. When Bismarck bled France white, after the war of 1871, it was not financial or industrial juggling which brought about her extraordinary recovery and compelled the advocate of "blood and iron" to recognize what he called an "absurd miracle," the regeneration of France. It was the hard work of French men and French women determined, not only to pay off their debt at the earliest possible moment, but to forge ahead into a new era of prosperity. Whilst there can be, therefore, nothing but commendation for the action of Canada is seeking to be beforehand in the matter of organization, it cannot be too strongly insisted that, as the war involved a call to each individual to do his share, so it will be with the great work of reconstruction after the war. There will be work for everyone, and every one will have to work.

P. S.—I heartily endorse the sentiment expressed in the above letter and trust every teacher in the Province will make an effort to be present at the convention, even if at considerable personal sacrifice. Questions of tremendous importance are to be discussed at this convention as indicated in the above letter and the decisions reached will have a far-reaching influence on the future of education in this Province.

Owing to the fact that so many of our schools were closed for four or five weeks during the epidemic of Spanish influenza, the executive thought it wise to take only one teaching day for Convention, instead of two as is customary. This change has necessitated re-arranging—the order of the items on the programme considerably, but it does not mean that the programme has been shortened to any appreciable extent. With few exceptions the full program as planned for October will be carried out and teachers may rightly look forward to a Convention of more than usual interest.

STILL A BEAST.

(Philadelphia Ledger) "The Man who was" has come to life! Kipling imagined the stumbling, bloodless, broken figure of the belated British prisoner of war, creeping at last into India from the hideous slave pens of Siberia, where Czaristic Russia kept its captives. But Germany has outmarched the imagination of a genius and created in inhumanly tortured human shape this terrible and accusing atrocity.

The black and pitiless roads of Germany—from the dens of disease and death where she penned up her prisoners of war, through a hostile population and a war-swept country, right up to the foremost files of our advancing armies—are dotted today with these feeble, pitiful reincarnations of Kipling's flaming accusation against the cruelty and the treachery of the old-time Russian autocracy. Kipling made only one such figure out of ink and paper; and it set all Britain ablaze. Germany is making them by the thousand out of what was once good British, American, Russian, Belgian flesh and blood; and, at the very moment when these sorry shadows of one-time fighting men are limping into our lines, the stupid Blood Beast is loading the air with his unmanly outcries for softer treatment, a forgiving attitude, food for those who deny food to our best beloved still helpless in their hands.

TEACHERS' SALARY QUESTION WILL BE DISCUSSED AT CONVENTION.

The Editor, Sherbrooke Record. Dear Sir: As already stated in your columns, the Teachers' Convention will be held in Montreal on Thursday (night only) and all day Friday and Saturday, December 5, 6 and 7. As your paper is read by almost all the teachers in the Eastern Townships may I make an appeal that every one of us should make a very special effort to attend. It may mean for rural teachers some little sacrifice, but it is worth it. Important questions will be discussed which will affect the country teacher equally with the city teacher. The question of a minimum wage for teachers with a definite profession standing is of sufficient importance to bring every teacher to Montreal. Then compulsory attendance at school will be discussed; this will mean for a better standard leading to better equipment and better salaries. Our Protestant Teachers' Association may develop into a union to bind city and country together. Every teacher wants to be in at the start and have her name enrolled among the list of members. If the profession is to make headway and do its duty to the province, every teacher must make the trip to Montreal and with her presence support the leaders in this forward movement. Yours truly, J. S. MILLS, Richmond, Que.

Advertisement for Berlin Plants. Text: "BERLIN PLANTS ARE TERRORIZED BY THE WORKING FORCES. Propaganda of Karl Liebknecht Directly Responsible for Usurpation of Two Large Industries. (Associated Press Despatch) BERLIN, Wednesday, Nov. 27.—Inquiry among the leading industrialists today drew out the admission that many of the largest plants in Berlin already are being systematically terrorized by the working forces. The latter are demanding exorbitant wage increases, shorter hours and other conveniences calculated to force the employer to shut down. The propaganda of Karl Liebknecht has been directly responsible for the usurpation of two big plants, which were boldly seized by the working men and are now being operated under their control. At the Biechatsok Crane works and the Imperator Motor Company plant in the northern part of the city, the factory hands, with the aid of soldiers, threw out the management. The funds and books of both firms were seized, and a red guard soldier placed in charge that many of the largest plants in Berlin already are being systematically terrorized by the working forces. ## THE END OF THE NUTTING PARTY

The nutting party had been planned for many a day. Baskets were made ready, the lunch was planned and lessons were finished the night before, so that nothing would prevent an early start in the morning. Old Mr. Sun furnished a fine day, mother packed a good lunch and everybody helped find sweaters, lock up the house and do the many last things that can never be done before hand.

"I know how to bring down the nuts," said Jack, one of the neighborhood boys, as the little party walked towards the woods. "Take plenty of sticks and stones and throw at the trees. That shakes them down without the bother of climbing up and shaking the branches."

"But I like to climb," laughed Alice. "I mean to climb up and shake down my nuts even if you don't!"

Closer to the Basket he Crept, Closer and Closer.

surprise! For what do you suppose? When the woods where the nut trees were reached the children found that the ground was covered with fine fat nuts—think of that! You see, while they were planning for a nutting party, somebody else was planning too, and that somebody else was Jack Frost. He had spent all the clear, still nights nipping the stems of the nuts so that the first little breeze that came along could tumble them to the ground. Jack Frost is very interested in nutting parties, you can tell that by the way he helps, can't you?

So it was no trouble to pick up nuts for all the baskets, and there was time enough left for tree-climbing and stone-throwing matches before lunch. The baskets that were so light and easy to carry in the woods seemed to grow pretty heavy by the time home was reached, and Alice and Mary were glad to set theirs down on the front steps and rest a few minutes before they went on into the house. "Better not leave your nuts there," advised mother as she went on into the house with her basket. "You know Foxy Squirrel would be glad to eat your nuts. He'd like nothing better than to help himself from your basket."

"I won't leave mine here," laughed Alice. "I'm just going to get an apple and then I'll take it down in the cellar."

"And I'll take no chances with mine," said Mary. "I'm just going to rest in the swing a minute and then I'll put mine away where it belongs."

Alice went into the house for the apple she meant to eat out of doors, but the fireplace looked so tempting that she picked up a book and sat down to read and eat at the same time—and the basket of nuts was forgotten. Mary played in the swing a while and then, forgetting the nuts, went in the house by another door. And the nuts were left outside.

Now right in that same yard, in a comfortable big oak tree, lived two little squirrels.

Alice and Mary had named them Foxy and Reddy. They were busy, hardworking little fellows, and they had almost enough nuts stored up for the winter season.

On this particular afternoon Foxy and Reddy were taking a little time off from their hard work of nut-storing and were having a lot of fun racing each other around the yard. At the end of one very close race Foxy found himself close by the front steps. He seemed to sniff something unusually good—something that smelt like nuts, only nuts were never to be found by the front door, he knew that. But it was worth investigating. He crept up on the steps—sniff, sniff—and over to the baskets of nuts; then he gave a little squeak of joy! Nuts! Baskets of nuts! All found and ready to be hid away!

He called to Reddy and they set to work carrying nuts from basket to tree, from basket to tree, over and over again.

Now, just at that very minute Alice remembered her nuts. She sauntered to the front door, eating the last of her apple as she went and seated herself on the front steps to finish it. She didn't happen to look in the baskets or she would have missed some of her precious nuts. I fear. And hardly had she seated herself before Foxy came back for another load.

He stopped at the edge of the step and looked at her. Wiggle, wiggle, went his soft little nose. He seemed to be saying: "Please you won't hurt me, will you?" as plainly as ever he could.

In an instant Alice realized what he was doing and she noticed that he had already helped himself more than once in her absence. "Very well, Mr. Foxy," she thought to herself, "if you are going to have some of my nuts I am going to have the fun of watching you take them!" So she sat as still as a mouse and Foxy came closer.

Closer to the basket he crept, closer and closer. Then, just on the edge of the basket he stopped again, looking longingly at Alice, wiggled his little nose again and said with his eyes (just as plainly as words can say it): "If you are going to hurt me, let me know now; if you are not—please let me get that nut!"

Alice sat perfectly still. She didn't move a finger, not a toe (though they were getting prickly from sitting so still); she didn't even smile for fear a move of her face would frighten Foxy. He seemed to take silence for consent. He gave her a long, careful look—then made a quick flash into the basket, grabbed up a nut, settled it comfortably in his jaws and scampered off to his pantry, all much quicker than you can read this.

When he was safely out of sight Alice drew a big breath, stretched her tired toes and was just wondering whether or not to wait, when he came back for another nut. This time he wasn't afraid; he looked boldly at her as much as to say, "I know you now. You're sitting there because you like to, and you won't hurt me a bit!"

The third time he came he actually had the boldness to look the nuts over and pick out the one he liked best. After he had selected a fat one he turned it round and round till it was in just the right position; then he tucked it in his cheek and carried it away.

Alice was so interested that she might have sat there the rest of the afternoon and watched Foxy make away with her precious nuts had not Mary called from the door to remind her that those nuts were for a party.

"I've been watching from the door," said Mary. "and you've let Foxy get seven; I think it's only fair to make him get some from the trees now. Let's take these in before he gets them all."

So they carried the nuts down in the cellar and put them away while poor, puzzled little Foxy hunted in vain for his treasure.

NO, INDEED. "I wouldn't be in the Kaiser's shoes," said Mrs. Blunderby, "not for all the wealth of Creosote."

BISHOP'S CROSSING, Nov. 30.—(Special)—The service on Sunday last at the Church of the Good Shepherd was in the nature of a memorial service for the fallen heroes in the late war. The Rev. Rural Dean Love gave a very thoughtful, impressive address to a large, attentive congregation, from the text, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." SUTTON ACADEMY ENTERTAINMENT. SUTTON, Nov. 30.—(Special)—The pupils of Sutton Academy presented their annual concert to a large audience in the town hall. At eight o'clock the curtain rose and the entertainment commenced with "The Battle Hymn of Republic," followed by a patriotic song. These were rendered by the entire school. Miss Hall, the principal, said a few words of welcome to the audience, and thanked the people for their cooperation with the Academy in the past, and asked them to continue the good work. Six small boys then sang in a manner which gave evidence of the careful training they had received. Miss Glenn Martin gave a humorous recitation. Mr. Jenne, the chairman of the School Board, presented the prizes won by the pupils during the last school year. After the prize distribution several of the young ladies of the Academy sang choruses from popular songs. The audience was delighted with this part of the programme, and the man at the curtain was kept busy for some time. At last they were allowed to leave the stage, and small girls appeared to charm the audience with a typical school song. After this twelve girls, looking very fit in gym suits with orange ties and black ribbons (school colors) executed a dumb-bell drill to music played by Miss Emily Dyer. Miss Jessie and Miss Bessie danced "The Highland Fling" and were immediately recalled to the stage by tremendous applause. The last part of the programme consisted of tableaux, presented by Vera Gordon and Llewellyn Jenne, the first representing "A soldier's farewell"; the second showed the young wife knitting for her soldier "over there, and the last was a bright home scene—the soldier returned bandaged, but dauntless. One other tableau was presented, in which Miss Audrey Safford represented, basket ball; Donald Smith, foot ball, and E. Crowell, base ball. The tableaux were interspersed with a recitation by R. Crowell, and by an instrumental duet (Waltz Faust) played in a masterly manner by Miss Marjorie Smith, and Mrs. Carol Breesee. Miss Dyer was in charge of the musical part of the programme and presided at the piano during the entire evening. After the prize distribution, E. Crowell made a short speech, paying a high tribute to the staff of the Academy, and asked Miss Hall and Miss Dyer to appear on the stage, where they were presented with beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums. Thanks are due to all those who loaned furniture for the stage, and to Mr. Ray Eastman, and Mr. Carl Breesee, who acted as ushers. After all expenses were paid $35 remained, half of which sum has been handed over to the Red Cross, the remainder to be used in purchasing books for the school library.

SPANISH CHAGRIN AT HUNY DEFEAT

Result of the War Shows that Spanish Policy, Pursued at Enormous National Cost, Has Been a Mistaken One.

(Christian Science Monitor) MADRID, SPAIN.—The emotions of Spain during the past few weeks since the military collapse of the Central Empires definitely set in, have been many and peculiar. Strange as the remark may appear at the first glance, a very considerable part of Spain, and that not necessarily Germanophile, was simply hazy with the news first reached it that the Central Powers were making overtures for peace, and that Germany had informed President Wilson that she accepted his 14 points. Despite the way in which the German armies were being hurled back toward their own frontiers, the Spanish public did not believe that the end of the war was imminent, and was very far from thinking that it was possible that Germany could be absolutely defeated.

For one thing the Spaniards have been taught by the example of German falsehoods to believe only a little of the news they receive, especially when it is of a sensational character; and then again it did not seem possible that after the German successes in the spring, the tide of fortune should have been so completely turned. Some of the pro-German newspapers have also been fully explaining in their own way the deep strategy of the German armies in withdrawing according to plan, and though certain other journals, particularly El Sol, have been making great displays of the news from the western front, the governmental censor has occasionally interceded. Besides suppressing certain items of news, the censor frequently insisted on headlines being censored out, leaving the blanks in the printed paper, which blanks have served to increase Spanish suspicions as to the nature of the news.

Thus when it became known—and strangely enough the first intimation came from a German source—that the Central Empires looked like capitulation and had intimated to President Wilson that they were disposed to accept his terms, the intelligence came upon Spain like a thunderbolt, and it was not received with undiluted joy. It is said that Spain was at first horrified, not because she had any regrets concerning a victory for the Entente, for in spite of what many critics may say the mass of Spain is very far from having any friendly feelings for Germany now, after all the outrages that have been committed on Spanish shipping and the callousness in which Germany has dealt with her complaints, but because Spain had been staking all her policy and had endured terrible humiliations in the firm belief that the war would end with neither side victorious, or that there was even a fair possibility of a German victory, in either of which cases Spain's continued friendliness to the power which had so much injured her would be a good thing for her when peace came.

If the Central Powers, then, were to collapse completely, all Spain's enormous sacrifices and all her ideas about her post-war position would fail. So strong is the financial and commercial interests of Germany in Spain, and such is the exceptional position which Spain has maintained as a neutral and would hold geographically for the advantage of Germany after the war, that it was believed the use that Germany would make of her afterward and the effect it would have in stimulating the affairs of the country, would be of great benefit to her. Taking this view, people were inclined in many cases to disregard the point that it might not be advantageous to the country—as had been proved in other cases—that it should become more and more deeply involved with Germany. The main point for the moment was that the Spanish idea was collapsing and that Spain's loss, had gone wrong.

The Germanophile newspapers found themselves in great difficulty, and to the best of their ability devoted themselves to trying, but ineffectually, to explain the situation away. Their first effort lay in the direction of endeavoring to show that Germany for long past had been in virtual agreement with President Wilson, and they now devote themselves to suggestions that Germany was at this crisis gain substantial support from him. The hint has indeed been made in these ingenious organs that President Wilson might find it right for the satisfaction of his own humane instincts and for the benefit of future generations to abandon the Allies and pursue a straight course of his own for the speedy termination of the war! It is significant how newspapers of all kinds are devoting themselves most assiduously to a full description of the President and all his works, thoughts or ideas. Sober journals, of the strongest monarchial feeling, that have made it their business to say as little as possible of democracies and republics, now come out with columns about the life of the chief of the American people.

The democratic newspapers, of course, do not hide their satisfaction at the turn events have taken. El Liberal says, "Whatever may be the fate of the proposed armistice, peace advances at a quickened pace as the total defeat of the imperial armies, overthrow by the armies of liberty, goes on. It is an admirable prologue of victory and a hymn of glory and gratitude should be composed in honor of the men who are obtaining it, the defenders of the liberty and the progress of the world." El Sol says "There can only be one peace, that which guarantees the triumph of right and justice as the armies of France and the ideas of President Wilson deserve to triumph." The Republican organ, El Paz, says, "Let us salute the triumph of democracy! Let us salute it with a cheer for the re-birth of Belgium and the oppressed nations, and let us acclaim Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Wilson! 'El Imparcial' observes, "Virtually peace has been concluded by German submission, and the voice of President Wilson, which is heard today in the Fiat lux of a second humanity. In future the world peace will have a new meaning which will be for always 'Right, equality and justice.'"

In the meantime, it is interesting to observe Spain's new interest in the scheme for the League of Nations.

SPECIALIST SAID HE MUST OPERATE

She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Instead, And Is Now in Perfect Health.

MME. F. GAREAU 153 Papineau Ave., Montreal. "For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This, I refused to permit. I heard about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so decided to try it. The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now, my health is excellent—I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' my warmest thanks." MME. F. GAREAU. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Hitherto the idea has come in far very scant attention in Spain, and there have been few ideas of Spanish participation. It has been chiefly regarded as an abstract idea of a somewhat chimerical kind. It has been repeatedly stated over and over again by public men in their speeches that wars and armaments must inevitably continue and that they must be greater after the present war than before. Spain has held that belief, and it has been voiced more than once by the King himself. This being so, there has been continual agitation among different sections for the strengthening of the Spanish army and navy, and that is the general policy that has been pursued for some time past.

But now, suddenly, Spain begins to perceive that there may be a more practical end to this scheme for a League of Nations than she had dreamt of, and the following comments in such an important newspaper as El Diario Universal are typical: "In our opinion we ought for the future to give our adhesion to the project for a League of Nations, such as the Allies are attached to, even now in the midst of war. United to them in spirit ever since the outbreak of the war, we are

PRIVATIONS OF WAR ON PEOPLE OF BERLIN CITY

Vital Statistics Disclose the Almost Catastrophic Effect Great Conflict Had on the Population of German Capital.

BERLIN, Nov. 30.—The vital statistics of Berlin, the publication of which heretofore has been prohibited, are now available. They disclose the almost catastrophic effect of the war's privations on the people of Berlin. The excess of births over the deaths in 1913 was 12,766. In 1916 there was an excess of deaths over births of 4,440, and there were 15,397 more deaths than births in 1917. The figures do not include the soldiers who died at the front or in hospitals. The total number of deaths in 1917 was seven thousand more than the previous year, despite the fact that Berlin's population had decreased 70,000.

50,000 DEATHS FROM INFLUENZA IN SOUTH AFRICA

(Canadian Press Despatch) CAPE TOWN, Nov. 30.—Viscount Buxton, Governor-General of South Africa, said today that the number of deaths from influenza among Europeans and natives of South Africa was estimated at 50,000.

It is pretty certain that the German Higher Command, when it instituted poisonous gases as weapons of war, lacked vision to foresee the terrible nemesis awaiting many a German soldier. The composition of many of the gases in use is a secret known only to a few. This mode of action is also often mysterious to the uninitiated. Bue every now and then the veil is lifted and a glimpse is given of the uncanny horrors of gas warfare. At a meeting of the Hamburg Medical Society an army surgeon recently gave an account of the effects on German soldiers of an unknown gas used on the western front. This gas was invisible, tasted sweet, and smelled musty. It was liberated by the explosion of gas bombs, and was so insidious and rapid in its action that in many cases there was no time to put on a gas mask. In a few minutes its victims had died, convulsed. Others who escaped instant death were unconscious for several hours or even days. One man became insane, another paralyzed. And, most eerie of all, no trace could be found of any chemical poison in the bodies of these victims to the unknown gas.

On Monday, December 2nd, 1918, will be offered the First Issue of Canadian Government War-Savings Stamps "War-Savings Stamps will provide financial assistance to the Government; an excellent investment for small savings; and a strong incentive to every-day economy." -Sir THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance. Order-in-Council P.C. No. 2462 authorizes the issue of War-Savings Stamps for the purpose of assisting in the financing of Government expenditures. The Stamps may be obtained at all Money Order Post Offices, Banks, and at other authorized agencies, and are interest bearing. Issue of 1919—Payable January 1st, 1924 The first issue will be offered from December, 1918, to December 31st, 1919, and each War-Savings Stamp of this issue constitutes the Government's promise to pay the sum of Five Dollars on January First, 1924. Price, $4.00 and Interest $4.00 Grows to $5.00 During December, 1918, and January, 1919, the price of a War-Savings Stamp is $4.00. In February, 1919, the price is $4.01, and it increases one cent each month until in December, 1919, the price is $4.11—the extra cents representing interest earned. Instead of paying interest twice a year, like a Victory Bond, the interest on a War-Savings Stamp accumulates, and is paid with the principal at the end of the term. Your $4.00 grows to $5.00 in the 5 years. Surrender Privilege When a person buys his first War-Savings Stamp, a certificate is issued, without charge, providing space for ten such stamps. If circumstances compel him to realize on his investment, his money is available. On the back of the certificate will be found the cash surrender value of the stamps at various dates before the end of the full term. Registration Against Loss A certificate with one or more W.S.S. thereon will be registered for you without charge by the Post Master at any Money Order Post Office. This protects the owner in case such certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed. By applying at the Post Office where your certificate was registered, you can have your money refunded. In order to make it easier to acquire War-Savings Stamps, THRIFT STAMPS are issued at 25 cents each. These do not bear interest, but 16 of them affixed to a Thrift Card will be exchanged for a W.S.S. Issued under Authorization of National War-Savings Committee. Sir HERBERT AMES, Chairman.

LABOR LEADERS TO MEET DURING PEACE PARLEY

Sessions Will Be Held in Paris and Conference Proposes to Make Its Information and Views Available to the Peace Delegates

(Canadian Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Delegates of the American Federation of Labor to the International Labor Conference to be held at Paris while the great peace conference is sitting were announced today by the executive council. They are Messrs. Samuel Gompers, president of the federation; William Green, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers; John R. Alpine, president of the plumbers; James Duncan, president of the International Association of Granite Cutters; Frank Duffy, secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. Mr. Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation, said the purpose of the international conference is to consider the problems of peace discus-sions and to establish a new inter-national trade union federation. The executive council of the feder-ation, he said, would issue invita-tions to the trade organizations of nations to participate, and he ad-ded, that representatives from all the principal nations were expected to attend. Although Mr. Morrison declined to discuss the matter, it is understood that the conference proposes to make its information and views available to the peace delegates who may, if they see fit, consult unofficially with the conference, or with individual delegations composing it, on mat-ters in which labor is vitally con-cerned.

Secretary of British Ministry of Munitions Says Problem of Manufacturers Not So Serious as in Turning from Peace to War Production.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—(British Wireless Service)—Hon. F. G. Kell-way, Parliamentary secretary to the Ministry of Munitions, in a statement regarding the turning over of munition factories to the production of peace materials, says the problem facing the British manufacturers is not nearly so serious as that which con-fronted them when they were asked to turn from peace to war production. Saturday morning, Melbourne or Pros-pect streets. Please return to Box 87, Record Office, for reward.

PERU DID NOT APOLOGIZE TO CHILEAN GOVT.

Consul General in United States Brands as Untrue Statement Made By Representative of Chile in United States.

(Canadian Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The ministry of foreign affairs of Peru, through Eduardo Higginson, Peruvian consul general in the United States, issued here last night a denial of the state-ment by the Chilean consul general that Peru had apologized for its action in withdrawing consular representa-tives from Chile. Cables received from the foreign office in Lima, Mr. Higginson stated, announced that its severance of commercial relations with Chile was prompted not only by attacks in Chilean cities against Per-uvian nationals, but by forcible deten-tion of its consul at Iquique aboard a ship, where he was prevented from communicating with his Government. The messages branded as untrue the claim of the Chilean consul gen-eral, Carlos Ruise, that recognition of the Peruvian envoy at Iquique had been withdrawn by Chile because he forwarded to Lima accounts of anti-Peruvian demonstrations in Chile "which never occurred," and that the Peruvian authorities had admitted the falsity of these reports.

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Nov. 30.—Great Britain has decided to assist the Provisional Government of Russia by estab-lishing a new rouble currency at a fixed rate of exchange of forty roubles to one pound sterling. Money thus re-ceived will be deposited in a bank of England as an unalienable reserve to ensure the convertibility of Russian notes into sterling at the above rate.

YOU CAN'T ALWAYS TELL. In a London bus a man in civilian's garb rose and offered his seat to a woman. "I never accept favors from slanders," she said wittingly.

"Madam," he replied blandly. "I was all through Gallipoli, and if we had had that powder bayonet you have on your face we'd have got to Constan-tinople in no time."

PRICES AND DETAILS OF SHERBROOKE MARKET

The general tone was very firm on the Lansdowne Market this week, changes in prices being few and far between as compared with the quotations of a week ago. However, there was a better quality and also a larger quantity of provisions on display than for some time past, and business was quite brisk. Trade at the market has been increasing steadily each week for some time past, but now that the munition factories are letting out so many hands, it is expected in some quarters that the market will be affected to a certain extent. It has been pointed out that the increased revenue workmen received as a result of the high salaries offered for labor by the munition manufacturers, enabled many families to present a better table in their homes than they were formerly able to do. But that now, since high salaries are no longer offered by the munition factories owing to the fact that contracts for shells, etc., have been cancelled, these men will not likely be able to afford as much for general provisions.

DAIRY PRODUCE

Montreal, Nov. 30. There appears to be an opinion by some in the trade, that the price of butter is high enough, which, pronouncedly opposite ideas are expressed by others. In round quantities there has not been sufficient business of late to form a basis of values, although in a wholesale jobbing way the market has evinced a decidedly strong tone, sales being reported at 50c in solid packages and 52c in one pound blocks. A carload of Northwest creamery butter said to be offered on this market at 51c. As soon as a clearance of the Government butter is effected, and the stocks in store are published on the 1st proximo, some clearer ideas on the market are to be expected, which may lead to business and afford a better idea of values in a wholesale way. In a jobbing way the market is firm enough, and retailers are not overstocked.

CHEESE SEASON GOOD.

Montreal, Nov. 30. In order to complete the season's shipments of Government cheese, it is thought that the Dairy Produce Commission will have to forward the last lots via the winter ports. The movement of the season's cheese for export has been accomplished so far without a hitch to the great credit of the Dairy Produce Commission, after paying the following prices: No. 1 cheese . . . . .25c No. 2 cheese . . . . .24 1/2c No. 3 cheese . . . . .24c The farmers have had a very successful season, as taking the receipts at Montreal alone up to the end of last week, and reckoning 80 lbs. of cheese to a box at 24 1/2c per lb., that being the average between 25c and 24c, the cost of the cheese received at Montreal, has amounted to $2,884,672, and the exports would be close upon $30,000,000.

COUNTRY PRODUCE

Montreal, Nov. 30. Eggs—The egg market continues very firm and active for both fresh and storage stock. As regards new laid, fresh specially has sold at 75c, and specials at 65c to 75c. Fresh sets have sold at 55c to 56c, and cold storage sets at 54c to 55c. No. 1 storage, 56c to 57c. Beans—The market for Ontario beans is very quiet, buyers holding off on a declining market, sales being reported in Ontario at $4.50 to $4.75 per bushel in first hands. Receipts here are quoted at $5.50 to $5.75 far hand-picked in car lots. There is said to be quite a few old beans left over that were held for high prices. Potatoes—The market is quiet. Quebec white potatoes are quoted in car lots at $1.50, and Green Mountains at $1.70 to $1.80. Receipts of this week are 4,196 bags, against 10,279 bags the week previous, and 7,642 bags for the same week last year. There are very few potatoes coming from New Brunswick, as shipments are going from there to the United States. Honey—The market for honey is quiet and steady. We quote white clover in comb 28c to 29c, white extracted, 25c to 26c, as to all other grades. The Jewish trade are the principal buyers of buckwheat honey at 25c to 25 1/2c per pound. The sale is reported of ten cases of white clover honey in one pound sections at 25c per lb. Maple Products—The market is quiet. In a wholesale way sales are being made at 35c per pound. There is some movement in maple syrup, prices being nominal at $1.90 to $2.00 per gallon in wood, and $2.10 to $2.21 in gallon tins.

GRADING AND MARKETING OF DAIRY PRODUCTS

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—The conference of the dairying interest, now being held at Ottawa under the auspices of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, at its second session took up the question of the grading of Canadian dairy products in relation to the requirements of domestic and foreign markets. The system of grading and marketing adopted in various provinces were discussed. The dairy commissioner for Alberta, Mr. C. Marker, outlined the procedure followed by the grading and marketing service in that province. Mr. E. Borbeau, general cheese inspector, spoke for the province of Quebec. The ensuing discussion on the relationship of grading to successful marketing was taken part in by A. Trudell, manager of the Agricultural Co-operative Society of Montreal, P. W. McLagan, manager of Messrs. Lovell and Christmas, produce merchants, Montreal; J. H. Scott, official butter grader for Ontario, and others. Several of the speakers emphasized the necessity for a uniform Canadian system of grading, naming and weighing in promoting export trade.

STREET CAR SERVICE STOPS

for paving on our revenue each year," said Mr. Wooddyatt. "We are willing to share our earnings with the City for the paving, the amount to be paid by us to the City to be determined by the Public Utilities Commission every twelve months after taking into consideration our revenue."
Ald. Edwards—"I understand that you stated, Mr. Wooddyatt, that the company had difficulty getting prospective investors to invest owing to the contract not being suitable. Now, could you tell us just what clauses of the present contract are taken exception to by prospective investors?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"There are many extensions, such as that up King hill, the extension towards the Armitage farm in East Sherbrooke. We believe that the west ward extension could be made to pay. Then there is the cost of paving."
Ald. Edwards—"I think the council agrees that we do not want the company to carry out the King hill and East Sherbrooke extensions. Now, what other objections in the contract have you?"
CANNOT AFFORD TO PAY.
Mr. Wooddyatt—"The company cannot afford to pay for the paving between their tracks. We are willing to contribute such a portion of our revenue towards the paving, this amount to be determined every twelve months by the Utilities Commission."
Alderman Forest—"Do you mean that you will not even put in a foundation for the ties on Wellington street?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"Oh, yes; we will put in the foundation for the ties. We will do that on Wellington street next spring."
Alderman Forest—"I thought that if we pave Wellington street you would have to put in a cement foundation to hold the ties."
Mr. Wooddyatt—"That is a matter of difference of opinion between engineers. Some claim that if the ties are sunk in cement they are given no play and there is not sufficient ballast."
Ald. Edwards—"The company is not prepared to pay for any paving. Have you all heard that before?"
Chorus of counsel—"We all have heard such a statement many times."
Mr. Wooddyatt—"Once again I repeat that we do intend to pay something. I have said time and again that the company will pay a portion of its revenue to the city for the paving every year, that amount to be set by the Public Utilities Commission. We are willing to enter into a new contract and give the best service possible at as reasonable rates as possible, and which will give us a revenue that will enable us to get sufficient capital for extensions."

Ald. Forest—"Do other railways pay for the paving between their rails?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"Yes, I understand some do. They pay various ways. Some pay so much a year and others for the paving they do themselves."
Ald. Forest—"Your company will not pay a lump sum now?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"We cannot afford to do it."
WOULD HAVE TO PAY, ANYWAY.
Mayor White—"If the railway closes down we will have to pay for the paving. I think it would be wise to draw up a temporary agreement and leave any questions in the contract to be drawn up that are disputed to the Utilities Commission for settlement."
Alderman Brault—"It is safer to handle the question ourselves instead of going to the Utilities Commission."
Mayor White brought up the question as to whether the company would assume the responsibility for any accidents that might be caused owing to their tracks not being in good condition if the city took over the work of keeping the roadbeds in repair. We do not want the city to take the responsibility for damages in return for $1,000, which the company offers the city for the upkeep of their tracks. Mr. Wooddyatt replied that the responsibility would fall back on the company.
Alderman Forest—"You state that you are unable to raise money on the present contract. It is because you have raised too much money already?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"The company itself would not be able to raise a cent, but we have some friends who state they would be able to raise money for us if we have a workable contract."
Ald. Forest—"If the power and railway were not divided, would not the company be in a better position to raise money?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"You are entering matters which can't be discussed."
Alderman Forest, "Your Company understand that if there is no street car service they will not be at liberty to sell power in the city."
Mr. Wooddyatt—"Yes, that would be another pound of flesh for you fellows."
Payment of The $1,000.
The question then of the payment of $1,000 by the Company in return for the removal of the snow from the streets and the upkeep of the roadbeds by the city caused considerable discussion. Alderman Skinner asked the Company if they could make the amount $1,200. The Company agreed to this concession, but Alderman Forest pointed out that the Street Railway Company's share for the removal of the snow from January 1st to March 31st, in 1917, was $1,298.78 and for the same period in 1918 $1,218.92. "The snow fall was very heavy those two years and the cost of labor was very high. I think you will find that it cost twice as much to remove the snow during the last two years than any other year," said Mr. Wooddyatt.

Alderman Fortier—"I understood that the offer of $1,000 by the Company was for putting in gravel in the summer. Why can't we fix the tracks for that amount alone?"
Mr. Wooddyatt—"In 1916 the Council agreed that we could not pay for the removal of the snow."
Alderman Brault—"No they never did. They were willing to relieve you of this matter in consideration for other agreements. Let the Company look after the streets themselves if they want to run. We can do it."
Col. Fraser—"We all know what Mr. Brault wants. He wants to see the street railway service shut down so that the city can purchase it as junk and operate it. But the citizens are not behind such a move."
Alderman Brault—"The citizens would get a service then."
Alderman Edwards then put his motion before the meeting, regarding the signing of an armistice.
Alderman Fortier stated that in his opinion they would be no further ahead in two months than they are now. "For my part I will never, if possible, see the city take the responsibility for the paving and the maintenance of the Street Railway Company's roadbed." I will always vote against such a move," said Alderman Fortier.
Alderman Edwards' motion was then put to vote and carried without a dissenting voice being heard.
Lennoxville Will Take Up Matter
The Lennoxville Town Council waited upon Mr. Wooddyatt yesterday afternoon and asked him if it would not be possible to continue the stub line to Lennoxville, even if the service in the city of Sherbrooke closed down. Mr. Wooddyatt replied that he was sorry but that such a thing would be impossible. It is understood that the Lennoxville Town Council intend taking the matter to the Public Utilities Commission for they point out that they are an interested third party who are suffering through no fault of their own.

EX-KAISER WILL BE PUNISHED FOR HIS CRIMES

If British Coalition Government is Returned to Power It is Intention to Bring Criminals to Bar of Justice.

(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuter's Limited)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—If returned to power, it was the intention of the coalition Government to punish Germany, which has broken every law, human and divine, said Attorney-General Sir Frederick E. Smith, in the course of an election speech at Wimborne yesterday. Sir Frederick said that the Government would insist on the punishment of criminals and make no distinction between the occupants of high office and those in humble places. It would be the Government's policy to insist upon the personal accountability of the Kaiser for the crimes which he personally and chiefly was responsible. The Government was determined that he should be given an opportunity to answer the charges which had been preferred against him respecting the submarine murders and outrages on prisoners, and the Government was equally determined to make criminals pay the penalty.
The Attorney-General said that in regard to interned Germans it was the Government's intention to send them back to Germany.

CANADIAN TROOPS MARCH ON THE RHINE

Soldiers are Acclaimed By Belgians in Liberated Areas—Du Canada Given to Place Where the Troops Entered City of Mons.

(By J. F. B. Livesey, Canadian Press Correspondent.)
With the Canadian Corps (Delayed).—The greatest asset of the Canadian Corps is the corps spirit pervading its units. This spirit has given it cohesion, striking power and mutual trust and confidence that has carried it successfully through the severest trials and often under discouraging conditions to final success. This loyalty of "one for all and all for one" sets the corps before individuals or units. It is the thing that in the long run most impresses all those who come into relation with the Canadian Corps. Those Canadian who duty forces them to remain behind, will nevertheless participate in spirit in the triumphal march to the Rhine. They have proved their valor and tenacity on many a bloody field; they share in the honor common to all and are content in the knowledge that their deeds have redounded to the credit of their beloved country.
The Belgian people of the liberated areas are not one whit behind the French in welcoming our men. Every village is gaily decorated in honor of the brave Allies. Nothing is too good for Canadian soldiers.
Orders have had to be issued that our men must accept no food from civilians because these are terribly short of supplies, and must so remain until the railroad can be brought up. The city of Mons has renamed the place De La Bavarie, where the Canadians entered, the place Du Canada, thus following the example of Valenciennes.

"THEIR NAME ACHIEVETH FOR EVERMORE"

Inscription Suggested By Rudyard Kipling for Great War Stone in Cemeteries Abroad Adopted By Imperial War Graves Commission.

(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuter's Limited)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—Rudyard Kipling recently submitted to the Imperial War Graves Commission a suggestion for an inscription for the great war stone which forms the central feature in all cemeteries abroad. He writes: "It was necessary to find words of praise and honor which should be both simple, well known, comprehensible and of tongues, and standing as far as might be outside the flux of men and things. After search and consultation of all ranks and many races, in our armies and navies, as well as with those who had given their sons, it seemed to me that no single phrase could be better than that which closes the tribute to 'famous men', in Ecclesiastes, namely: 'Their name achieveth for evermore.'"
The commission has approved the recommendation.

PRAISE RECORD MUNITION WORK IN DOMINION

London Times Says it Shows a Signal Proof of the Great Efficiency and Ability of Sir Joseph Flavelle.

(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuter's Limited.)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—The Times, commenting on Canada's munitions achievements, says it believes that the record of the munitions Board will surprise most people. This country, it says, is unquestionably a striking illustration of the immense and growing resources of the empire, and a signal proof of the great efficiency and ability of Sir Joseph Flavelle and his colleagues, as well as of Canadian manufacturers and workers. This great imperial enterprise has been of enormous importance in the terrible struggle through which he have come. The actual and potential strength and resources of the empire are only dimly recognized as yet by citizens. The work of the Imperial Munitions Board is a proof of what can be achieved by the United States and harmonious co-operation of Great Britain and the Dominions.
