

Reds role in Cuba attacked

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—The meeting of foreign ministers of the Organization of American States drew to a close today after condemning the campaign of the Soviet Union and Communist China to use Cuba as a willing springboard into the Americas.

By a 19-1 vote Sunday night, the conference rejected a Cuban resolution calling on the United States to refrain from aggressive acts against Fidel Castro's regime.

When the ministers also defeated a Venezuelan proposal to water down the anti-Communist "Declaration of San Jose," Foreign Minister Raul Roa and the rest of the Cuban delegation walked out of the conference and packed for home.

U.S. EXERTS PRESSURE

With the United States pressing for a firm line against the Communist threat to the hemisphere, the ministers compromised only to the extent of omitting specific mention of Cuba from their declaration.

The ministers said they "energetically condemn intervention or the menace of intervention . . . by an extra-continental power in the affairs of the continent or its acceptance by an American state."

This referred to Premier Khrushchev's threat to use rockets to defend Cuba if she were attacked by the United States and the Castro regime's acceptance of such help.

THREAT TO UNITY

In another obvious slap at Cuba, the ministers said they "reject the aim of Sino-Soviet powers to utilize the economic, political and social situation of any American state to break continental unity and endanger the peace and security of the hemisphere."

The third point of the resolution proclaimed "that all members of the regional organization have an obligation to submit themselves to the discipline of the inter-American system."

Roa did not wait for the vote on the resolution. Before he walked out, he said his country would not recognize any condemnation of communism the OAS endorsed. He said again that Cuba will accept gratefully any offer from any country that will help it survive.

With Roa gone, the remaining 19 foreign ministers approved the declaration unanimously.

Montreal ex-con dies in gangland slaying

MONTREAL (CP)—The shifting rivalries of the Montreal underworld claimed another victim early Sunday when a well-known hoodlum was dispatched with professional skill.

Marc Aurell Mongeau, who had managed to amass five prison sentences before his 29th birthday next week, was found slumped over the wheel of his 1960-model car. He had been shot twice in the head and neck.

Fittingly, he died near the gaudy night club area around St. Lawrence Boulevard that Montrealers call "The Main."

His body was discovered by a passing patrolman at about 4:30 a.m. An autopsy was to be held today.

Homicide Detective Jean LeGault said the killing appeared to be the work of someone "well accustomed to handling a gun."

Mongeau was released from St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary

Boats collide in NYC fog

NEW YORK (AP) — A ferry-boat loaded with office-bound passengers and a heavy cargo ship collided today in foggy weather on the Hudson River just off Lower Manhattan.

Police said at least nine persons were being taken to hospitals. The Coast Guard reported the ferry "in sinking condition."

only six months ago after serving a four-year sentence for breaking and entering.

Capt. Henri Francoeur said his record included a six-year sentence for theft with violence, and concurrent terms of four, four and two years for breaking and entering and crimes involving violence.

Super-con down

63 die in crash

DAKAR, Senegal (Reuters)—A French airliner with 63 persons aboard crashed in the sea while trying to land here in a rain-storm today.

Rescuers reported five hours later that all 63 persons were feared dead. Four children were among the passengers.

Ships and helicopters searched in heavy seas for the four-engined Super Constellation. It crashed a mile off-shore in a tropical downpour.

The Air France plane was on a flight from Paris to Abidjan, Ivory Coast, with 55 passengers and a crew of eight.

The plane was equipped with life rafts which were released automatically when the plane hit the water. But rescuers found them empty.

Body under debris

LONDON — (AP) — Premier Hazza Majali of Jordan was assassinated by a time bomb that exploded in his office, reports from Amman said today.

Ten persons were killed and 50 injured by this bomb and one set off in another Amman government office, unofficial reports said.

Majali's death was announced by Amman Radio.

Majali, 44, and another official were reported buried under debris.

CASUALTIES REPORTED

About the same time, a second bomb was exploded in the office of the government's director-general of publications. There were unconfirmed reports that officials of the foreign ministry were among the casualties.

A curfew has been ordered and troops are patrolling Amman streets.

Majali took over as premier May 6, 1959.

Government authorities in Amman announced last March that security police had uncovered a plot to assassinate Majali along with Nasser Ben Jamil, an uncle of King Hussein.

At that time, the government announced a number of persons who had arrived from the United Arab Republic had been arrested in the plot.

U.K.'s rent rebel defies bailiffs

LONDON (AP) — Rent rebel Don Cook prepared for the bailiffs today by ringing his fourth floor apartment with barbed wire and barricading the door with an old piano.

From the roof, the 38-year-old ex-paratrooper flung down defiance. "I shall defend my home and family to the last ditch," he cried.

A cheering crowd of 300 neighbors yelled encouragement.

Cook, father of four young children, has been leading a bitter fight against rent increases ordered for the tenants of municipally-owned apartments in the London district of St. Pancras. Cook's rent was doubled to £2 16 shillings (7.42) from 28 shillings.

Cook refused to pay and was ordered to move by midnight Sunday night.

Cook's main contact with the outside world now is by a field telephone. A red signal rocket pokes from a window of his apartment. If the bailiffs arrive, it will shoot skywards and bring 2,000 other rebellious tenants rushing to his aid.

Inside the apartment Cook has enough food for a month's siege.

His wife Effie is staying with friends until the siege is over.

Australian pub loses a regular

SYDNEY (Reuters)—The owner of the Sportsman's Hotel at Bingara, New South Wales, has lost one of his most regular customers — a beer-drinking hen.

Emily, a cross between a white Leghorn and Rhode Island Red hen, came into the hotel regularly for 10 months for her glass of beer. Perched on her owner's shoulder, she would quaff the glass, then creak quietly until time to leave.

She died recently, mourned by the hotel owner and other regulars at the bar.

Race violence Vandalism sweeps southland

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—After two days of racial violence, emergency police powers were in effect in Jacksonville today. Negro leaders called off sit-in demonstrations at downtown lunch counters.

A wave of vandalism swept through Negro sections Sunday night, climaxed by the throwing of fire bombs—glass bottles filled with kerosene—into a grocery, a curb market and an automobile. No one was hurt and there was little damage.

A gang looted a filling station and terrorized the attendants. Windows were broken in more than 15 stores as bands roved the city in cars throwing bricks and other missiles.

Police arrested 138 persons—at least twice the number for a normal Sunday.

BLAMES JUVENILES

Assistant police chief W. A. Miller said gangs of Negro juveniles were responsible for most of the trouble.

"This violence is the stuff they'd like to do all the time," Miller said. "The present situation has merely afforded them the opportunity."

Mayor Hayden Burns invoked emergency police powers Sunday night. He banned any street gathering of more than four persons and unnecessary auto traffic.

The mayor said officers would take swift and firm action to keep the pace.

A Negro mass meeting Sunday afternoon called for a federal investigation of the racial violence.

An estimated 1,400 at the meeting shouted approval of a resolution asking President Eisenhower and the justice department to investigate. The group also vowed to continue picketing "until we have accomplished our objectives."

But later the Jacksonville youth council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People called off sit-ins.

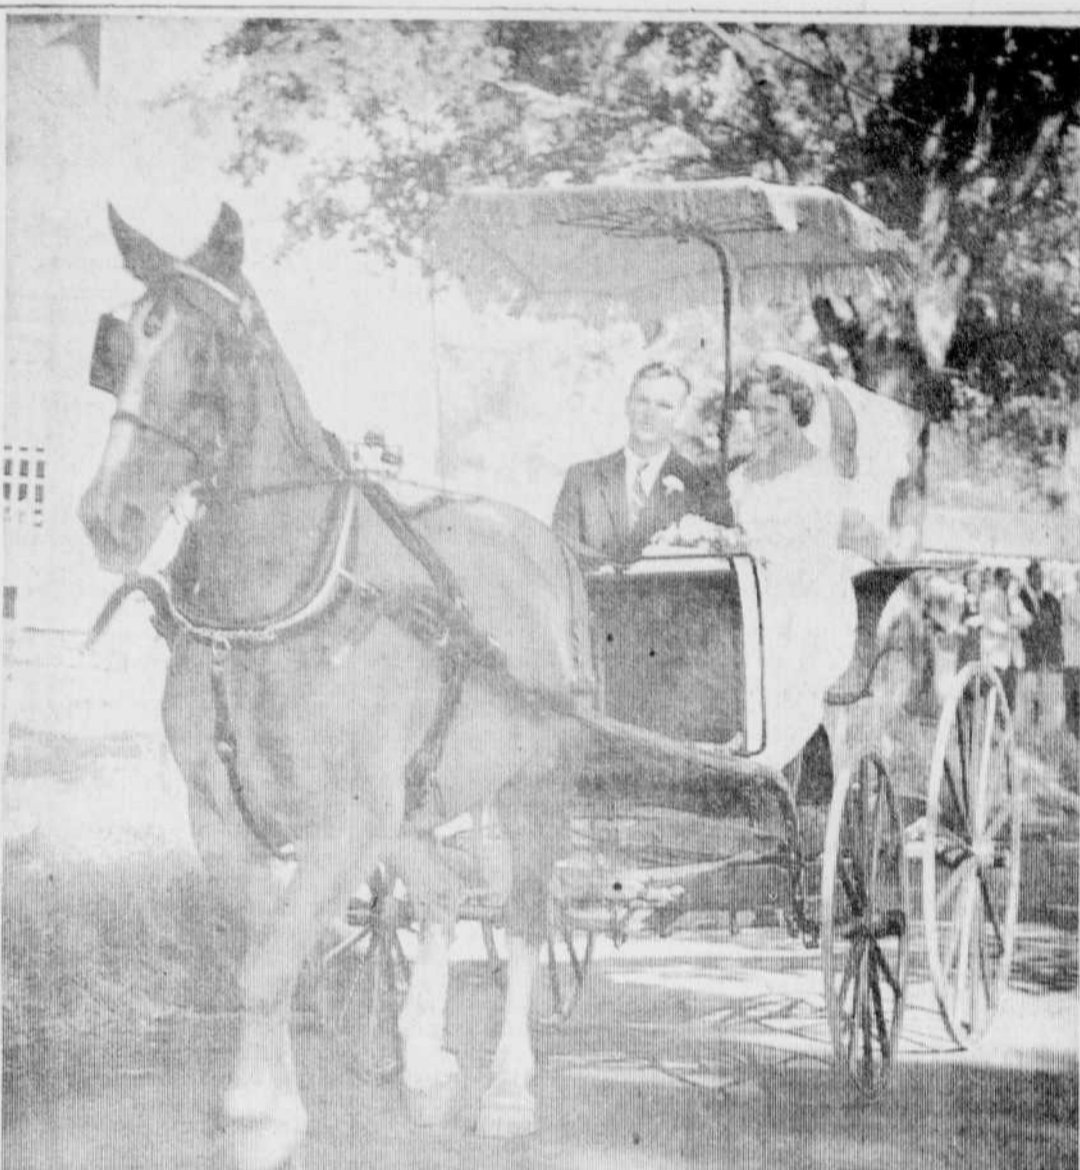

Mother at 100 Dr. Moore predicts

TORONTO (CP) — Marathon walker Dr. Barbara Moore says she doesn't "believe in sex" but predicts she will live to be 150 and produce a child when she's 100.

The vegetarian, who claims without modesty to be the world's greatest marathon walker, told the Canadian Vegetarian Union Saturday night that a non-meat diet would allow her to live to 150 and still be young. She said her recent Montreal-Toronto hike was a mere "fla-bite."

Getting back to sex, she said there were other pleasures for mankind:

"Such as music, reading and driving fast on motorcycles."

Katanga clash near

ELISABETHVILLE — Reuters — United Nations troops today held key positions on the routes to Katanga province in an effort to prevent a civil war between the breakaway province and advancing Congolese army units.

The Congolese forces of Premier Patrice Lumumba Sunday were reported approaching the frontier as Gen. Roger Gheysen, Belgian Army commander, called for a UN-patrolled neutral zone in the border region.

The situation was reported tense in Bakwanga, capital of the "mining state" proclaimed by Albert Kalonji in Kasai province, which borders Katanga. Bakwanga was occupied by Lumumba's troops Saturday without fighting.

Europeans leaving Luluabourg, Kasai's provincial capital, said it is like a "ghost city."

Meanwhile, Jan Berendsen, political adviser to the UN Eastern Command, said that UN Ethiopian troops had spread out along the railroad leading into Katanga and had taken over this, though they said the bridge had been mined and Katanga authorities previously had ordered 500 yards of railroad tracks torn up near the frontier bridge.

Black bear beaten off

LANGHORNE, Pa. (AP)—The owner of a zoo beat off a 500-pound black Canadian bear with a six-foot piece of board in rescuing zookeeper Charles Poppa.

Poppa, 66, went into the bear's cage to clean it. He was bitten by the animal and suffered a fracture of one leg. Zoo owner Bernard Bertolet heard Poppa screaming for help. He picked up the board and while smashing the huge bear over the head, managed to drag Poppa out of the cage.

ASKS FOR VOLUNTEERS

He has issued a call for volunteers, "white or black," to oust Lumumba's forces from his state.

Meanwhile, Tshombe, who also rushed troops to the border area, told a press conference that a bridge over the Lubilish River, which carries the railroad from Kasai, had been blown up.

BRITISH ANTI-TANK MISSILE TESTED — The British Government has released to the infantry for testing its latest anti-tank weapon, pictured above. The missile is said to be lethal against the heaviest known armour and is controlled by a trailing wire from a hand-held unit. The weight of the missile, carrier box and control unit is 45 pounds. The manufacturing company says the missile can also be fitted on racks attached to helicopters. (CP Wirephoto)

Fly injured to safety

LEOPOLDVILLE — (CP) — "I was so mad I promised to fire the first shot myself if there was any interference."

Influriated by the latest clash between his forces and Congolese soldiers, Gen. Carl von Horn, the United Nations commander in the Congo, deployed about 300 men around a plane that brought wounded Canadians and Americans into Leopoldville Sunday night.

The men limped or were carried from the aircraft. Von Horn was wearing a pistol in his belt. One Congolese showed up carrying a rifle but UN soldiers briskly ran him away from the plane.

The wounded men were flown here from Stanleyville, in the Congo interior, where a mob of mixed troops and civilians beat them with clubs, rifles and sub-machine-guns after their arrival Saturday. They had flown from Trenton, Ont., with a load of signals equipment for the UN force.

Saved by Ethiopes men 'lucky' to live

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — Dr. Ralph Bunche, head of the United Nations mission in the Congo, said today that the eight American airmen and two Canadians brutally attacked by Congolese at Stanleyville Airport on Saturday "had the hell beaten out of them and were lucky to be alive."

"These men had a brutal beating — a terrific beating," said Bunche. "They live today only because of the intervention of the Ethiopian UN troops. Although they are much better now, they are still under shock and need great care."

Bunche made his statement this morning to a group of photographers who asked permission to take pictures of his visit to the wounded men. Bunche pleaded with the photographers not to disturb the injured men. Bunche spent half an hour talking to all the wounded men in two wards at the hospital. All the injured were saved by the timely intervention of Ethiopian UN troops, Bunche reported after his visit.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Finally clear with Uncle Sam, Bud Abbott has a new outlook and a new partner and he's ready to work.

The Abbott saga is one of the classic roller coaster rides of recent Hollywood times. From being a burlesque straight man, he climbed to the heights as partner with the late Lou Costello in a top-starring comedy team. They earned a million a year at their peak.

Bud once owned a $250,000 estate. Today he rents a comfortable but comparatively modest home.

"From now on, I'm not owning a bit of property," he vowed. "I'm going to hide my money so nobody can find it."

Four years ago he was smacked with an eight-year tax audit that erased his plans for a comfortable old age. He was forced to sell all his property and move from his estate to pay the penalties.

"Now I'm clear with the fed." eral government," he reported.

"At least they've got a piece of property of mine that's worth $50,000 or more, which should pay what I still owe. I'm just about clear on the state income tax, and I've paid all my debts. I don't owe nothing to nobody. And that's the way I'm going to stay."

Bud didn't work during all his tax troubles — "why should I work when they would take all the money and leave me with nothing to pay tax on the salary I earned?" Now he is planning to get back in the business he has known most of his life. His new partner: Candy Candido, multi-voiced comic who appeared with Jimmy Durante for a long time.

"We've been rehearsing together and I think we work pretty good," Bud remarked. "Candy is a good performer; he can hold an audience for an hour, so he's got to be good. Why, he almost looks like Lou, without the moustache."

"So far, we've been doing the routines that Lou and I used to do. Later on we'll do some different things."

At 64, Bud hopes to climb back to the big time again.

"I think the public is ready for some good, rowdy comedy," he said. "The only ones who are doing it nowadays are the three stooges, who have made a phenomenal comeback. Why can't I do the same?"

System of provincial grants planned for municipalities

MONTREAL. — The Minister of Municipal Affairs in the Le Sage Government, Hon. Rene Hamel, announced last night that measures would be taken at the next legislative assembly to establish a system of grants for municipalities throughout the province.

Speaking at the 39th annual Convention of the Union of Municipalities being held at the Queen Elizabeth hotel here, Mr. Hamel said that the officers of the Department of Municipal Affairs are presently working on the preparation of a law which would permit the Quebec Government to distribute important grants to municipalities throughout the province.

"The theme of this convention indicates your desire to make the future of our municipalities during the next 10 years a bright one," the Municipal Affairs Minister said.

Mr. Hamel said that "Even if since 1933 or 1935 the municipal budgets have almost quadrupled, it seems by the dramatic messages that we receive that our municipal administrators, are without strength to carry through the reasonable demands of their electors."

The minister attributed this lack of strength to bad distribution of revenues. The per capita revenues of the province of Quebec from 1934 to 1957 have multiplied by seven while those of the municipalities have not even doubled," Mr. Hamel said.

"Without doubt," he added,

"the municipalities have been freed of certain responsibilities they used to assume, but it is the intention of the present government to furnish our municipal corporations with the necessary financial means to permit them to exert their powers instead of restraining them."

Mr. Hamel pointed that only two disasters could prevent the march of progress—an international conflict or a serious economic crisis. "We want to believe," he said, "that the human genius, enlightened by the God of truth, will prevent these two catastrophes."

Mr. Hamel expressed his faith by saying that in spite of international tensions and certain economic disorders which seem to be on an international scale, industry

Under bright, sunny skies, more than 35,000 people jammed the Sherbrooke fairgrounds over the weekend to get the Diamond Jubilee Sherbrooke Fair off to an encouraging start.

Total attendance since Friday night is 3,000 over the same period last year, fair officials announced.

Today is Children's Day — kiddies 12 and under will be allowed into the grounds free all day and tonight, and rides will be half price. Thousands upon thousands of youngsters are expected to take advantage of their day.

A special grandstand show for them was given early this afternoon.

BIG SUNDAY

Biggest day of the weekend was yesterday. A Sunday crowd in a festive mood swelled attendance figures for the day to more than 2,000 over the same day last year.

All this morning, provincial judging competition took place with judging of dairy products and Canadian and Jersey cattle early in the afternoon.

Swine judging started this afternoon.

This evening there is to be the annual Breeders' Banquet in the Arena building, followed by the regular grandstand performance at 8:00 p.m.

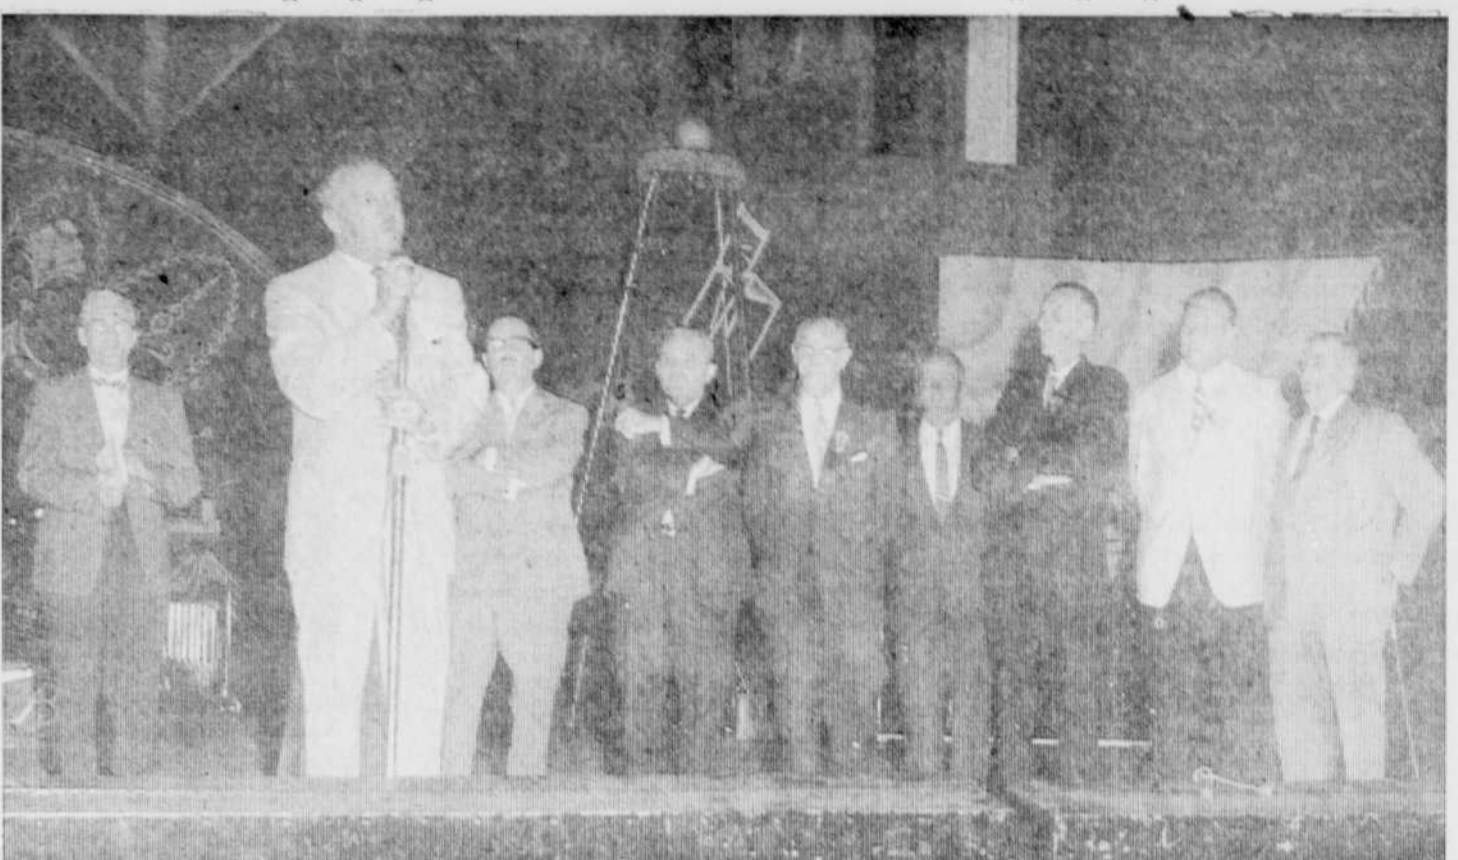

One of the highlights of yesterday's activities, apart from the official opening and the grandstand performance, was a colorful display in the Arena building by the Fleur de Lys

Drawing winners are announced

Best in 15 years 5,000 at the last day of Ayer's Cliff Fair

AYER'S CLIFF — Closing day at the Ayer's Cliff Fair on Saturday saw approximately 5,000 people in attendance to help wind up the 115th Annual Exhibition.

This was the largest crowd in at least 15 years to attend on the last day, according to Stanstead County Agricultural Society President R. G. Conner. Total attendance was estimated by Secretary-treasurer Mrs. E. Corey to be about 13,500.

Reviewing the three days and one night of the Fair, Mr. Conner gave credit to the free grandstand show on opening night and the automobile thrill show on closing night for pushing attendance higher than it has been for the past few years.

"People want entertainment these days, and I guess they got their fair share of it this year," he said.

The grandstand show on Wednesday night was provided by competing amateurs from three counties. It was organized by Gordon Beerworth of Sherbrooke, who also acted as master of ceremonies on the grandstand throughout the fair.

On Saturday night, Paul Riddell and his All-American Daredevils packed the grandstand and bleachers with an automobile thrill show.

Attendance on Thursday and Friday was about the same or slightly better and there was no lack of interest in the various exhibits and cattle judging competitions, said Mr. Conner.

He noted that in certain classes such as Ayrshire cattle, light horses and sheep there were record entries while entries in horticulture and handicrafts remained about the same or slightly better.

Attendance - wise, entertainment - wise and exhibition - wise, the fair was an overwhelming success, concluded Mr. Conner.

Tribute is paid to Gingues

In a tribute to Maurice Gingues, former MP for Sherbrooke, the Progressive Conservative Member for the county, Maurice Allard, declared today: "Like all my fellow citizens, I regret the death of Maurice Gingues."

"Mr. Gingues was a worker and his natural talents carried him into public life. Public life demands much and the efforts put forward cannot but leave traces on the heart, the spirit and the body of those giving it. Mr. Maurice Gingues represented Sherbrooke in the House of Commons for eighteen years. The work he accomplished must surely have contributed to his premature death."

"I knew him during the 1958 electoral campaign and I must say that my adversary Gingues was a courteous gentleman. To the bereaved family, his relatives and friends I offer my sincere condolences."

DANVILLE — The act of Timothy O'Hea will go down in Canadian history as a living testimony for the present and future generations, said Mayor Myron E. Chaddock of Danville, at the unveiling of a monument to Private O'Hea who was the only person to receive the Victoria Cross while on active service on Canadian soil.

The monument was unveiled Saturday morning on the grounds in front of the Town Hall during the Centennial celebrations held by the Canadian Legion Branches, of District 8, after the groups led by Parade Marshal Comrade Millar Scott, marched from the Memorial Home on Grove Street to the cenotaph on the square where J. H. L. St. Germain, D.S.O., D.F.C., of St. Hyacinthe, 1st. vice-president, Provincial Command, placed a wreath.

Mayor Chaddock addressed the parade of some hundred members of the Legion Branches from Sherbrooke, Windsor Mills, Richmond, Drummondville, Victoriaville, Asbestos and Danville. The Cubs and Scouts, the Ladies Auxiliary, the Reserve Army Band 7/XI Hussars, and the Juvenile Police Squad.

He said, "The Town life grows from year to year.

"In 1860, the Town life was born with a group of 600 inhabitants who desired to form, on Craig Road, an energetic municipality. At this time our town was constituted with heterogeneous elements.

"To-day it presents common points of view that we recall with pleasure during our Centenary.

"While Private O'Hea was in the train in Danville with 800 immigrants going to the West, he noted that one car loaded with gun-powder was on fire. He gave the alarm, and called for assistance. Those who were present at the scene, withdrew to a safe distance. O'Hea, having found a bucket, and a short ladder and water not far off, mounted the burning car 19 times, and signed to thrill, shake up, twist and turn, and generally give the customer a wonderful going over.

Inside and outside the main industrial building there are exhibits of every size, shape and description; mechanical saws, automobiles, farm equipment, household items, appliances, large and small, toys, clothing — what you want to see is there.

The Eastern Townships Agricultural Association has spared no pains this year to put on the biggest show ever, and this, the 75th anniversary of the Fair, is by far the greatest seen in Sherbrooke.

Fair officials have also announced that entries in all sections are up considerably this year both in quality and quantity.

Following is a list of figures for entries in the animal and produce exhibits:

Horses, 93; cattle, 623; sheep, 161; poultry, 1,125; maple products, 101; field crops, 329.

Of course, there are the usual number of children being separated from their parents during the course of the fair. All people looking for lost children should report to the car raffle stand in front of the Arena building, or telephone LOrraine 9-7511.

dent of the Fair, Maurice Allard, Federal Member of Parliament for Sherbrooke; Louis Philippe Brousseau, Sherbrooke M.P.P.; Dr. L. A. Gendreau, Colin Campbell, W. G. MacDougall, county agriculturalist, Louis Codere, and Harry Blue. Featured in the grandstand show, produced by G. A. C. Hamid, Inc., of New York, were the Manhattan Rockets, 20 young dancers, in four colorful productions, supported by eight variety acts.

The only flaw in the program was the fireworks display, a highly-touted feature of the evening, which failed to materialize. According to fair officials, the fireworks did not arrive in time for the show.

LOTS OF FUN

There was plenty of humor, daring acrobatics, trained bears, singing — in short, a great deal of fun for all.

Borgevas, the master of the spinning plate, had some rare moments last night as he perched 32 spinning dishes on poles, trying hard to heed the warning shouts of the grandstand patrons, as two, three and even four at a time threatened to drop and smash. Borgevas' latest appearance on a nationally televised variety program, gave the customer a good idea of what was to come last night.

However, a slight breeze complicated the act, and amid roars of glee from the audience Borgevas retired from the stage minus half a gross of his dishes.

As the Great Barton, Borgevas defied the laws of gravity in a high balancing act, making standing on ladders and fingertips mere child's play.

Les Blue and Yvette, a unicycle team, proved it's easy to stack a load of cups and saucers on one's head—without using hands, and balancing on the tricky one-wheeled vehicles.

The Grimaldis a musical comedy act, and the Bardines, as a pair of "drunks" highlight the humorous side of the performance.

The Bardines have a surprise ending to the act which should not be missed and their gags never fail to raise a laugh.

The two Grimaldis manage to dig up all the legends in music and cram them into one fast moving act, a riot for both children and adults.

Allen's trained bears do not stop at rolling balls or sliding about, but wind up their clever performance with a brief motorcycle ride about the stage.

The Kings, a man and wife team, demonstrated a classic variation on acrobatics set to music, while the Great Becket, a man in his sixties, does a novel, high-level balancing act on one of the strangest mechanical arrangements ever seen, a show which is guaranteed to turn the hair gray of any man half his age.

The 1960 Grandstand Show, is one of the best ever produced at the Sherbrooke Fair. There is a special grandstand performance for the children, today at 1:30 p.m., marking Children's Day at the Fair.

Regular prices in the grandstand are $1.75, reserved, and $1.00 general admission. The evening performance starts at 8:00 p.m.

trial development will continue. He then insisted on the necessity of planning. He said: "One must plan to know where one is going. But a careful planning is one which takes into account all the economic and social factors, which are founded on the reasonable knowledge of facts. One should take the time to examine seriously all the factors which are available."

The Mayor of Montreal, Sen. Sarto Fournier, welcomed the delegates. Mayor Fournier also pointed out that this convention was one of the most important.

Dr. Camille Roussin, mayor of Joliette and president of the union of municipalities presented the president's yearly report.

Mr. Roussin particularly underlined the government measures which were put into practice following the demands formulated by the Union of Municipalities.

He cited for example, the reduction by half of the municipal load concerning the payment of public welfare and the several million dollars granted to municipalities to facilitate the establishment of sewers and waterworks. "These measures," he pointed out, "represent for a large number of municipalities an appreciable lightening of their municipal expenditures."

The convention will continue until Wednesday evening with a series of studies on municipal government.

Wednesday, the 2,000 people attending will be asked to adopt several resolutions, and will elect a new president.

The convention will come to a close with a banquet presided over by the Premier of the province, Hon. Jean Lesage.

Awarded teaching scholarship

ROCK ISLAND — Miss Diane Farley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Farley of Rock Island was winner of the Stanstead County Women's Institute Estel la Holmes scholarship.

Miss Farley, age 19, is a graduate of Stanstead College, Class 1959 and of Sunnyside school 1960. She will enter Macdonald College in September for teachers' training. Four applications for the scholarship was received by the County Convener of Education, Mrs. Marvel Smith of Hatley.

This scholarship is given annually to a youth taking teachers' training, the money is raised by various projects and by each Branch making contributions according to the branch membership.

entirely without assistance succeeded in extinguishing the fire, a task which occupied him almost an hour, while his comrades, and the others were shouting to him to come back.

O'Hea died in 1874. During the past years, many people recall this event.

Mayor Chaddock congratulated the Canadian Legion Branch 41 of Danville who took the initiative to install the monument and plaque.

Mr. Florian Dubois, M.L.A. addressed the gathering. Padre Douglas Blair gave a prayer and blessing. The "Last Post" and "Reveille" was sounded by Claude Allaire.

The salute was taken at the "march past" by J. M. L. St. Germain after which the units marched to the Memorial Home where dinner was served.

At 1:30 o'clock the Memorial Home was officially opened to the public.

Among the invited guests who attended the day's celebrations were: Florian Dubois, MPP for Richmond County; Mayor Myron E. Chaddock and Mrs. Chaddock; Wade Gifford and Dr. Leo Proulx, aldermen; Comrade Malcolm McGinnis, District Commander; Col. Eddie McGovern, C. O. of Sherbrooke; J. H. L. St. Germain, D.S.O., D.F.C., of St Hyacinthe; and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCallum, of Danville.

The Juvenile Police Squads, boys and girls, under the direction of Chief of Police Paul Breton and Mrs. Clement Gosselin, gave a precision exhibition at the Town Hall in the afternoon.

Models, young and old, male and female, went all-out Saturday evening when there was a fashion show held in the Mgr. Thibault school.

Many costumes of the 19th Centure were shown.

Winners in the 16 and under class were: Claude Parenteau, Karen and Irene Frost, Celine Pelletier.

Mrs. Joyce Knowles took first honors in the "most Authentic" class. Second prize went to Mrs. Rita Olney who wore an authentic brown, two-piece costume, trimmed with black. The dress is 115 years old. Mrs. Charlie Webb, dressed in her mother's night-dress which was brought to Canada from Scotland in 1870, took third prize.

The "best couple" were Mr. and Mrs. Bourner, with their son. Mr. Jean Paul "Jasper" Petit was awarded the second prize.

For the "best copy," Mrs. Langlois was first prize winner. She wore a costume representing the "Royal" family of 1900.

Mrs. Lucienne Pinard was second. Third prize went to Mrs. Hermoine Pelletier. She wore a dress, the "copy" of the year 1900.

Judges for the show were Mrs. L. Garant, Mrs. J. Girard and Mrs. A. Paradis of Richmond.

Mrs. Leo Proulx and Mrs. Pete Young, were commentators for the evening while Mrs. Fred McCoy accompanied the models with piano music. Mrs. V. Lindsay, Mrs. L. Tremblay and Mrs. A. Vincent were in charge of the show with the help of the ladies section of the Centennial committee.

The evening's entertainment closed with a dance to the music of Jack Hobbs' Orchestra.

A band concert was held at the Town Hall, Sunday evening. Guest artists were the Corps de Cadets et Tambours (Bugle Band) of Victoriaville. Also present was the Asbestos Harmony Band under the direction of Yvonne Bolduc. Both these presentations were sponsored by Molson's.

MR. and MRS. ARNOLD STUART HACKWELL photographed following their wedding in All Saints Church, Dunham, Que. The former Elda Jane Doherty, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. Marcus Doherty and the late L. Marcus Doherty; the groom is the son of Mrs. J. Stuart Hackwell and the late J. Stuart Hackwell of Montreal.

HACKWELL—DOHERTY
DUNHAM—The marriage of Elda Jane, daughter of Mrs. L. Marcus Doherty and the late L. Marcus Doherty, of Dunham, Que., to Arnold Stuart Hackwell, son of Mrs. J. Stuart Hackwell and the late J. Stuart Hackwell, of Montreal, took place recently in All Saints Church, the Rev. T. E. R. Nurse, uncle of the groom, officiating.

Given in marriage by her elder brother, Geoffrey A. Doherty, the bride was in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie fashioned on princess lines with a V neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her veil of tulle illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of gardenias, pink Sweetheart roses and stephanotis. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

The bride's attendants, Miss Joy Hackwell, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Russell Doherty, sister-in-law of the groom, and Miss Sandra Cross, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids, wore identically styled gowns of silk organza with matching petal hats, Miss Hackwell being in blue, and the bridesmaids in aqua and mauve respectively. Their bouquets were of white and pink shasta daisies.

Miss Pamela Doherty, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and wore a frock of pink organza and pink accessories.

Mr. Howard Hackwell acted as best man for his cousin, the ushers were Wallace Doherty, brother of the bride, and Ted Nurse, cousin of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a gown of green printed silk with matching hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow Sweetheart roses. The groom's mother chose a printed blue silk ensemble with matching chiffon duster and a corsage of white Sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where multi-colored gladioli were used to decorate.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Hackwell left for a motor trip through the Adirondacks and Vermont, the bride wearing a lilac shaded ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow gladioli.

Mrs. Hackwell is a graduate of the Montreal General Hospital.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

Keep the message you write on the card sent with flowers for a funeral as brief and as simple as possible. "With deepest sympathy" is always appropriate. The card with flowers sent to the home either before or after the funeral could contain a more informal message.

CUSTEAU—MCDONALD
WEST BROUGHTON — On August 6 in the West Broughton Church, Paulette McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, became the bride of Lincoln R. Custeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Custeau, Rev. Father Marcoux officiating. The church was decorated with roses and gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a floor-length gown of white organza and Chantilly lace, the fitted bodice having a bateau neckline and long sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion and carried a bouquet of carnations and orchids.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Doris McDonald, who wore a street-length dress of old rose organza with toning hat and white accessories. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Mr. Joe Custeau acted as witness for his son, and the best man was Gerard McDonald.

The bride's mother in a two-piece dress of flowered taffeta, wore a black feather hat and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother was in moss green crepe satin with hat to match and wore a corsage of white orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Balmoral Hotel, Thetford Mines, where the bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Following an afternoon of dancing, the young couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Detroit, the bride wearing a blue flowered dress with toning duster, pink hat and matching accessories.

ROLFE — CHARLEAU
COATICOOK — The marriage of Phyllis Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Charleau of Coaticook and Henry Nelson Rolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rolfe of Rock Island, took place at two thirty o'clock in St. Stephen's Church, Rev. Kendrick officiating at the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Goodfellow. Multi-colored gladioli were used to decorate the altar and sanctuary.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor-length gown of white satin and Chantilly lace the bouffant skirt featured an overskirt of nylon chiffon jersey edged with lace. The lace bodice was finished with a sweetheart neckline accented with rhinestone trim and lily point sleeves. Her Chapel length veil fell from a rhinestone decorated tiara and she carried a white leather Bible adorned with red roses and white satin streamers.

Mrs. Harold Laroe, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, wore a delphinium shade nylon net over lace waltz length dress, having a wide ruffle at the hemline embroidered in silver, the same embroidery on the bodice over which she wore a rainbow colored net stole and a bandeau of rainbow colored flowers in her hair. She carried a nosegay of white baby chrysanthemums.

Mr. Kenneth Charleau, brother of the bride was best man and the ushers were Guy Sisco, cousin of the bride and Harold Laroe, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Charleau, mother of the groom.

Homemaking
If you have a house to sell, having the floors look attractive helps. Shellac is a popular floor finish. Apply two fresh, thin coats of pure, white shellac. Allow each coat to dry before applying the next.

PEACH PARFAIT
1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 2 egg whites, 1 cup peach pulp (canned peaches, drained and sieved), 1/2 cup orange juice, 1 pint whipping cream, 1/4 teaspoon almond extract.

Boil sugar and water until it spins a thread (234°F). Pour slowly into stiffly beaten egg whites. Add peach pulp and orange juice. Beat thoroughly. Cool. Whip and fold in cream. Add extract. Freeze in refrigerator tray, stirring occasionally. Serve in parfait glasses, with sliced peaches as garnish. Serves six to eight.

PEAR PIE
Time: 30 minutes
One 9-inch unbaked pie shell. Place 2 cups canned, sliced and drained pears in crust.
Custard: 2 eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup cream.
Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt and cream. Pour over pears. Bake 10 minutes at 425°F, reduce to 350°F for 20 minutes or until custard is set.

PEACH BAVARIAN PIE
One deep 9-inch baked pastry shell.
1 tablespoon gelatine, 1/2 cup cold milk, 3 egg yolks, Dash of salt, 1/2 cup of sugar, 1 cup milk, scalded, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup whipping cream, 1 1/2 cups canned, drained, crushed peaches.
Soften gelatine in cold milk. Beat yolks of eggs with salt and sugar and add hot milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook in double boiler until custard coats spoon. Add gelatine. Refrigerate mixture until it starts to congeal. Add vanilla and whipped cream. Place peaches in shell and pour mixture over peaches. Garnish with toasted almonds cut in half lengthwise. Refrigerate until firm.

Personals

Mrs. George Smith, accompanied by her daughter Kathleen, Moore St., are spending a week in Montreal as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilton and son Douglas, and Miss Betty Lou Martel, of Chute-a-Panet, Que. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Clark, Scotch Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hadlock were pleasantly surprised on Saturday, August 13, when some 30 relatives and friends gathered at their summer home, White Birches, Orford Lake, to honor them on their 20th wedding anniversary.

Games were played under the supervision of David and Sherrie Ann Hadlock, children of the honored couple, after which Robert McMurray, in paying tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Hadlock, presented them with a gift of money accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends.

Refreshments were then served by the Misses Gwen and Kathleen George the highlight being the two-tier anniversary cake beautifully decorated by Mrs. Allan George.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadlock, the former Irene George, were married at the home of the bride in Milby on August 10, 1940.

Mrs. B. Stalker Feted On Birthday At Richmond
RICHMOND — Congratulations were received by Mrs. Bertha Stalker, James St., on the occasion of her 85th birthday on August 16th. The afternoon was spent with a number of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Stalker is enjoying fairly good health and was the recipient of many cards, gifts and flowers, and during the day a phone call from Mrs. Alan Stalker, daughter-in-law, of St. Eustache Sur le Lac.

The guests were entertained by films shown by Mr. James Mather. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Mather and son George and daughter Shirley of Valois, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armitage and son James and Mrs. K. Stevens.

A beautiful birthday cake was presented to the guest of honor by her niece, Mrs. Mather, as well as a corsage with wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Refreshments were served at the close of the enjoyable event.

Teens Tag Early Marriage 'Ceiling on Potentialities'

"When young people marry prematurely they put a ceiling on their potentialities." Who said that? A parent? A teacher? A clergyman? A marriage counselor? A college president?

No, that statement was made by 17-year-old Pat Stephens of Hot Springs, Ark., talking before the annual convention of Future Homemakers. It was a teen-ager talking to teen-agers—not an adult trying to sell teen-agers on the disadvantages and pitfalls of too early marriage.

Perhaps teen-agers are beginning to see for themselves that those who marry before they have finished their education and before they have prepared themselves for adult responsibilities are starting out with a terrific handicap.

It shouldn't be too hard for them to figure this out. All of them know young couples who have quit school to marry and traded the freedom of youth for the responsibilities of adulthood.

They can see, if they want to look, how little chance the boy-husband has of ever climbing very high, because he cut his education short, was probably forced to take any kind of job he could get to support his wife, and because the necessity of providing for a family will very likely keep him from taking any kind of financial risk in the hope of getting ahead.

They can see that the girl-bride has limited herself as a wife and mother and homemaker and also as a wage earner, if two pay checks are needed to support the family, by not completing her education.

Some school boards think that married high school students are a bad influence on other students. But the best argument against too-early marriage, it seems to me, and one most likely to make an impression on teen-agers, is seeing by example that those who marry too young handicap themselves and do, indeed, put a ceiling on their own potentialities.

Beauty Tips
If you use ice as an astringent, never apply it directly to your face. Always wrap it in a towel or washcloth, for it can break tiny blood vessels under the skin and cause tiny red veins to show up.

If you've selected your clothes well, people will tell you how charming you look before they comment on your costume. For clothes should attract attention to you, not to themselves.

If you have enough space in your closets to hang your out-of-season clothes, they will be well preserved until the time comes to wear them again. Folding and packing them away sometimes causes them to look like wilted lettuce when you take them out for the coming season.

HOSPITAL BIRTHS
Ninety-two of every 100 babies born in Canada in 1948 were born in hospital, compared with 40 per cent before 1938.

Miller's Mac's Will Sets Canadian Juvenile Record

SETS CANADIAN RECORD — Mac's Will is seen above with the cooler, which was presented by the Sherbrooke Racing Club, for winning both heats of the Canadian Juvenile Stake Championship at the local track. Keith Waples teamed the Miller colt under the wire in 2.04 2/5 to set the Canadian record and break the existing one at the local track. Andre Maltais Fires One-Under 69 To Win East Angus Field Day; Frank Reid Sinks Ace On 290-Yard Par Four Hole

Andre Maltais won the East Angus Golf Club tournament when he fired a one-under-par 69, beating out some 137 players taking part in the tourney. Maltais registered a 33 in his first nine of the course and chalked up a 36 on the back nine.

Frank Reid, also of East Angus, dropped a hole-in-one on the par-four ninth hole at a distance of 290 yards. The preceding foursome of Laurent Harpin, Luc Gosselin, Marc Rousseau, and Jean Chartier were putting passing the ball between Harpin's legs to drop in the cup.

Said Reid after his feat: "When the preceding quartet signalled after my tee shot, I thought they meant that I had reached the green on my first stroke. I never thought at that time that I had a hole-in-one."

Reid chalked up a 34 in his first round and followed it up with a 33 on the back nine for a total of 72.

After all results were in, J. Jeanfave, president of the East Angus Club, Toussaint Brousseau, president of the tournament committee, Charley Lavender, club pro, and Francoise Reid, secretary of the club, called together the contestants and proceeded with the distribution of prizes — donated by the East Angus Golf Club and merchants of Sherbrooke and East Angus.

Rough Riders At Home To Ticats This Evening

OTTAWA (CP)—If there is any complacency in the Ottawa Rough Riders camp about their Big Four game with Hamilton Tiger-Cats here tonight, it's not the coaches' fault.

Frank Clair and his line coach, Bill Smyth, have warned Riders all week that Tiger-Cats will be healthy and fighting mad after two consecutive losses, one of them a 35-6 beating at the hands of Riders last Saturday.

Only one of the Ticats' casualties—a big factor in their two defeats—was expected to miss tonight's game. Halfback Steve Oneschuck is still out with a shoulder separation.

The defending Big Four title-holders will be strengthened by the return of end Gene Jones, defensive half Ralph Goldston and half Don Soberdash.

Riders have been working all week to sharpen up a pass offence to go with their ground gaining running attack.

The Ottawa squad also enters tonight's game relatively healthy with only veteran tackle John Bove out with a knee and ankle injury.

Ottawa fans will see two old faces in new uniforms—guard Hardiman Cureton, traded by Ottawa for Ticats' tackle Angelo Mosca, and guard Pete Bennett, whom Hamilton acquired from Toronto Argonauts.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

William Woodward's three-year-old colt Nashua defeated Rex Ellsworth's western star Swaps by six lengths in a $100,000 match race five years ago today at Chicago. Eddie Arcaro rode Nashua, which avenged a defeat by Swaps with Willie Shoemaker aboard in the 1955 Kentucky Derby.

Field Of 19 Speedy Three-Year-Old Trotters Named For Rich Hambletonian With Uncle Sam Rated As Favorite

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—A sore foot bothered highly rated Uncle Sam today as a field of 19 speedy trotters warmed up for the richest prize in harness racing history, the 35th Hambletonian stake.

With a gross purse of $144,590.14, the winner's share is worth $85,019.04 in Wednesday's traditional race.

Uncle Sam, rated at the top of the six fastest trotters in the field, bruised a front right heel in a race last week in Sedalia, Mo.

Driver-trainer Lou Huber, Jr., said he is "gravely concerned" about the injury but hopes to have the big brown colt ready by post time. X-ray showed no fracture.

FASTEST YET

The damage was done, Huber said, as Uncle Sam trotted a 1:59 3/5 mile at Sedalia last week, the fastest time ever posted by a Hambletonian eligible prior to the sulky classic for three-year-old trotters.

The Hambletonian record is 1:59 4/5, set by Emily's Pride, a filly, in winning the 1958 race. Elaine Rodney, out of competitive action 11 days, trotted to a 2:00 mile in an overnight race at Springfield, Ill., in her last outing. The trim filly is driven and trained by Clint Hodgins of Clatskanie, Ore.

Quick Song and Star Performer are two of three trotters in the race trained by Ralph Baldwin. The veteran reinsman from Oakville, Ont., will be driving Carlene Hanover, whose fastest time was a losing 2:00 4/5 at Springfield.

STRONG CONTENDER

Blaze Hanover, driven by Joe O'Brien, of Alberton, P.E.I., is regarded by many observers as a strong contender for the top money although others in the field have faster times. Blaze Hanover's best effort was 2:00 2/5 at Springfield.

The lineup for the first heat and unofficial odds are:

1. Blaze Hanover 6-1; 2. Elaine Rodney 9-5; 3. Tonia Hanover 20-1; 4. Uncle Sam 8-5; 5. Merrie Duke 10-1; 6. Volo Mon 12-1; 7. Star Performer 5-2; 8. Quick Song 3-1; 9. Lowe Hanover 9-2; 10. Mr. Pat 15-1; 11. Demon Ros 10-1; 12. Hickory Fire 12-1; 13. Mystery Song 15-1; 14. Carlton 20-1; 15. Hoot Frost 6-1; 16. Darcie Hanover 4-1; 17. In Haste 8-1; 18. Lord Sampson 15-1; 19. Carlene Hanover 7-2.

Paces Home In 2:04.3 In Opening Dash And Cops Second Heat In 2:04.2 To Set New Records At Local Track And For Canadian Juveniles

By LEN O'DONNELL

It was "Record Day" at the Sherbrooke Fair yesterday and the racing end came in for their share of the honors. Keith Waples drove Russ Miller's Mac's Will to two records in winning both ends of the $5,175 Canadian Juvenile Stake Championship.

In the opening dash the Miller colt led the field from the wire. He went to the first-quarter in .29 3/5, the half in 1:02 1/5 and finished strong in 2:04 3/5. This broke the old track record of 2:06 set by Lucien Dugre's Harold Abbe. In the second half getting away in .29 3/5, the half in 1:02 4/5 and crossed the wire in 2:04 2/5.

The last mark set a new track record, breaking the one he had set half an hour earlier, and at the same time set a Canadian record for two-year-old colts. It was the fastest any colt has travelled since these stakes have been organized and speaks well for the local racing.

A lot of the racing fans figured the local oval wasn't fast enough to set any records but the layout seemed to suit all the colts and their drivers as they gave the fans some good racing.

Following the second half a cooler was presented to the winner by the Sherbrooke Racing Club.

The racing, which was held under ideal conditions, was the best seen at the local track for quite some time. The grandstand was packed and another record was broken at the pari-mutuel for the take for a program. The new mark passed the old one last year on the opening day of the Fair by quite a sum.

Beaudoin's Boum Boum Bumpas walked off with both ends of the "D" Trot and Pace winning in 2:09 4/5 and 2:10 2/5. He was the only double winner on the card besides the colt. The quinellas were $80,000, $65.20 and $87.40 while the double was 13.00.

On Saturday evening Lucien Denault teamed Fabi's Poplar Dream to two firsts in the "D" Pace and Trot winning in 2:11 and 2:10 4/5. The double paid the sum of $125.20 for the combination of Amosson's Jimmy and Mayor's Rex. The quinella were $30.70, $9.10 and $129.30. The next card will be Tuesday afternoon at 1.30.

A Homer Is A Homer But Kluszewski's Wasn't After Umpire Hurley Called Time, Yanks Split, White Sox Lose

A home run is a home run is a home run, as the late Gertrude Stein might have said, and the Chicago White Sox thoroughly agree.

If they are wrong, they are wrong at the top of their voice, as noted Sunday when they protested so vehemently when Ted Kluszewski's three-run pinch-hit homer against the Baltimore Orioles was declared null and void by umpire Ed Hurley, that Nellie Fox was booed from the game and sparks were shooting from the ears of his teammates.

The Orioles were ruled 3-1 winners slicing the New York Yankees' lead to two games. The Yankees split with the Detroit Tigers, dropping the opener 6-2 and taking the nightcap, 8-5; Cleveland Indians whipped Washington Senators 9-1, and Boston Red Sox took a pair from Kansas City Athletics 2-1 and 5-4.

Saturday, New York defeated Cleveland 7-4 and 3-0, Kansas City edged Baltimore 5-3, Washington won 4-1 over Detroit and Chicago beat Boston 9-6.

NO-PITCH CALL

Levittown Wins Little League World Title

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Joe Mormello Jr., led Levittown, Pa., to the Little League world championship Saturday with a 5-0, no-hitter against Fort Worth, Tex.

The muscular righthander, continuing a tradition of pitching heroes in the annual classic for 11- and 12-year-old baseball stars, also started his team's scoring with a two-run first-inning home run. He is the third pitcher to record a no-hitter in series history.

Mormello, a shy 12-year-old, needed only 83 pitches to win the six-inning contest.

Toronto Parkdale Lions, Canada's representative in the 14th annual series, were eliminated earlier in the week.

He called time to tell two White Sox players, Earl Torgeson and Floyd Robinson, they were not "warming up" in the proper area. Klu then fled to centre for the final out.

The Sox loaded the bases with one out in the eighth but Hoyt Wilhelm came in with his knuckler to close the gate.

Pappas got his 12th victory—if it was a victory, as the Sox are protesting—of the season. Early Wynn lost his ninth.

The Yankees' bid to win three double headers in as many days was foiled by the Tigers, who scored five unearned runs in the first inning of the first game.

The uprising included back-to-back homers by Frank Bolling and Rocky Colavito. All six Detroit runs were off Eli Grba, who was followed by four other Yankee pitchers. Don Mossi, who went out at the start of the sixth with a lame shoulder, won his ninth.

LOTS OF HOMERS

The Yankees put home runs back to back twice in the second game, and that was the difference. Dale Long and John Blanchard did it in the second inning, and Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra in the fifth.

The Tigers battled back, with home runs by Lou Berberet and Steve Bilko, but never could get ahead again. Ossie Virgil had opened the game with a homer on the first pitch. Phil Regan was the loser, and Art Ditmar got his 14th victory.

Cleveland beat down the Senators with home runs. Jim Piersall, Tito Francona and Vic Power hit for the circuit as Barry Latman and Johnny Kippstein pitched five-hit ball for the Indians. The victory broke a five-game losing streak.

Boston's Frank Sullivan, who had lost seven straight to the A's over two seasons, pitched five-hit ball in breaking the jinx in the opener, and the Sox' Mike Fornieles won the nightcap.

Fornieles, making his 55th mound appearance, allowed a single and a walk in the two innings he worked, and drove in the tie-breaking run with an eighth-inning single.

Coaticook Canadians Win Sherbrooke Junior League Championship

Ray Michaud's Squad Cops Title By Downing Fuller, Last Year's Champs, By One Game, Kist Stopped Fuller

Coaticook Canadians, under the coaching leadership of Raymond Michaud, won the Sherbrooke Junior Baseball League championship over the weekend, beating out last year's champ, Fuller, by a full game.

With the pennant winners now decided, President Marie-Louis Fortier officially termed the regular 1960 season closed with only the playoffs to be contested, these starting tomorrow evening at the Municipal Stadium.

The league crown was won as a result of the full weekend's games. Before Saturday's and Sunday's lineup was played, both Fuller and Coaticook were tied in first place. However, Kist dropped Fuller 10-7 Saturday night in the completion of a tied tilt while the Canucks won by default Sunday in Brompton, thus settling the loop's championship holders.

KIST WINS SATURDAY
Ruel's Kist and Hamel's Fuller met at the Municipal Stadium Saturday evening to decide the victor of a tied 6-6 tilt. Kist was the visiting nine while Fuller played host.

Ruel's squad tapped Fuller for four runs in the first half of the ninth inning — the first frame to be contested Saturday — thanks to three hits, one error, and two wild throws. Bouchard, Auray, Jacques and Chartier were the marksmen.

In the bottom half of the same inning, Fuller tried desperately to recover from the four-point blast by Kist but could only manage to eke out one run, that being chalked up when Gerry McCard made the rounds.

Winning hurler in the fixture was Chartier who whiffed four men, walked 12, and allowed six hits in the full nine innings played. For Fuller, Wayne Nugent was the losing pitcher striking out nine, giving up three free passes to first, and having 11 hits against him.

INDIANS WIN SUNDAY
In a game last night, Ray Dorey's Indians, coached by Clement Williams, posted a 9-3 decision over Kist in a game that was not played in full seriousness as it did not effect the league standings or the championship whatsoever.

Denis Auray of Kist was the standout of the tilt and wallowed a homer that travelled some 280 feet. Billy Robinson turned in the winning hurling performance for the Redmen.

In the final game over the weekend between Coaticook Canadians and Brompton Royals Sunday night, the visiting Canucks won the tilt by default as Brompton did not have enough players to participate in the fixture. As it turned out, this extra game given to the Canadians was enough for them to cop the league championship.

Pirates Drop Their Third Straight But Still Managed To Retain Their Margin, Braves Walloped By Giants

The Pittsburgh Pirates still held their leading margin in the National League race today, but through no fault of their own.

The Bucs dropped their third straight to the suddenly revitalized St. Louis Cardinals Sunday, 5-4, but the Milwaukee Braves, with unusual solicitude, kept their 5½ game distance by getting themselves whopped by the San Francisco Giants, 15-2.

In other National League games Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles, 9-3, and the Chicago Cubs edged out the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-6.

The Cardinals not only swept their series with the Pirates, but moved up to a virtual tie for second place with Milwaukee. They are only one point behind the Braves.

Alex Grammas, a 228 hitting utility man, contributed a home run and three singles to the St. Louis victory, and Hal Smith chipped in with a bases loaded single. It was Joe Cunningham's sacrifice fly in the fourth, however, which was the decisive blow.

The Bucs knocked out Card starter Curt Simmons in the seventh inning, but he got the victory, his fifth against three defeats. Harvey Haddix, who was kayoed in the fourth, was the loser. The Cardinal outfielders didn't make a stout effort.

GIANTS VENI EMOTIONS
San Francisco Giants apparently lost all the pent up frustration of a team which generally had been picked as a stout pennant threat as they slaughtered the Braves. They scored six runs in the fourth inning, four in the sixth, three in the seventh, and single runs in the first and fifth in piling up their impressive total.

Bob Buhl was the first to feel the fury of the Giant bats. He left in the big fourth, and was followed by George Brunet, who gave way to Juan Pizarro an inning later. Buhl was the loser, Jack Sanford went the distance for the Giants to give him a 11-1 season's record.

The Cincinnati Reds scored nine runs in the first inning and then subsided with the delicious exhaustion of a playful pup, but the nine runs were more than enough to take care of the bewildered Dodgers.

ERRORS AND HOMERS
The Reds got six of their 13 hits in the first inning, with two Dodger errors helping in the nine-run orgy. Roy McMillan hit a three-run homer, Ed Bailey hit one with one man aboard, and Gordon Coleman connected with the bases empty in the big frame.

Stan Williams started for Los Angeles, and that's about all. He left after one-third of an inning with five runs in. Bob Purkey went the route for the Reds for his 14th victory and his fourth straight over Los Angeles.

The Cub-Phillie game was sedate by comparison. Cub starter Don Cardwell was staked to an 8-2 lead going into the eighth, when Mark Freeman, and then Joe Schaffernoth had to be called in to subdue an uprising which netted the Phillies four runs. Cardwell got his sixth victory in 18 decisions.

Ernie Banks drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a two-run double, the latter in the Cubs' five-run sixth. Gene Conley was the loser.

Ken Venturi Wins Milwaukee Open With 271

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Arnold Palmer, recognized as the king of this year's United States professional golf tour, was the target of good natured ribbing Sunday after failing to mount a closing surge as Ken Venturi fashioned his fourth straight sub-par round to win the $30,000 Milwaukee Open.

"This is my first victory since January and I'm very happy," Venturi said. "Maybe I shouldn't be too happy, though. Palmer wins so much that everyone goes into mourning when he loses."

Billy Casper, from Apple Valley, Calif., picked up $3,000 second money. Venturi's victory was worth $4,300.

Venturi, 29, mastered the North Hills Country Club's par-70 layout with rounds of 65-69-68-69 — 271 to edge Casper by two strokes.

Palmer wound up in a deadlock with Bob Goalby for third place at 274. Palmer's share of the money was $1,850, boosting his 1960 tournament earnings over the $75,000 mark.

Canada's two entrants, Al Balding of Toronto and Gerry Magee of Toronto, were eliminated in the third round. Balding had 72-74-73—219 and Magee 72-72-76—220.

Ingrid Kramer Of Germany Ends U. S. Domination Of Olympic Diving After 40 Years, Canada Finishes Sixth

ROME (CP) — Ingrid Kramer, a 17-year-old East German student, handily won the women's springboard diving championship Saturday to snap a 40-year American monopoly and give the combined German team its first gold medal of the Olympic games.

Canada's Irene MacDonald couldn't come up to her third-place finish in the 1956 Olympics at Melbourne and wound up sixth. One dive in which she hit the water with her knees probed costly and after her last dive, the 27-year-old Canadian native of Hamilton, Ont., hurried away from the pool sobbing.

Miss Kramer, a five-foot-three 120-pounder with tremendous poise, scored 155.81 points for her 10 dives off the three-metre springboard.

Mrs. Paula Jean Myers Pope of the United States was second. She rallied after a poor start to capture the silver medal with 141.24 points.

BRITAIN WINS BRONZE
Britain won her first Olympic diving medal in 35 years as Elizabeth Ferris scored 139.60 points for the third-place bronze medal.

Miss MacDonald, now a resident of Kelowna, B.C., scored 134.69 points, a total a good bit higher than the 121.40 that was good enough for the bronze medal at Melbourne four years ago.

The Canadian veteran competitor, appearing for the sixth time in international competition, got off to a slow start in the preliminaries. She could do no better than eighth in the first four dives, but in the semi-finals she made a comeback to move into third position.

However, Miss MacDonald's chances disappeared when the first of the three afternoon dives dropped her from third to seventh. She hit the water with her knees when she mistimed a two-and-a-half backward somersault.

BRAVE PRELATE
Cardinal Mercier, fearless spokesman of the Belgians during the German occupation in the First World War, was 75 at his death in 1926.

Clarkie Smith won the Lennoxville Golf Club Championship over the weekend with a 54-hole score of 225. Smith fired rounds of 75-71-79.

Second place went to Normie Dussault, a lefthander who took the lead after the first eighteen holes. Dussault finished at 227, which consisted of rounds of 73-75 and 79. Third place went to John Turnbull with 229, who had rounds of 77-75-77. Prizes were presented for the combined scores of the first 36 holes of the tournament.

Gross winners in class "A" were: 1. Clarkie Smith; 2. J. Turnbull; 3. D. Davies; 4. Jean Guy Blanchard; 5. Gordon Harmer.

Net winners in class "A" were: 1. N. Dussault; 2. Allan Sutherland; 3. J. P. Dussault; 4. Roger Taylor.

There were five gross and four net prizes given in each class. Lloyd Humbert took low gross in class "B" with a 166 total for 36 holes. Austin Cook was second with 172 and Gerry Norris was third with 173.

Fourth gross prize went to Gerry Armstrong and fifth gross prize went to Guy Noury in class "B". The net winners in class "B" were: 1. Denis Hunt Duke; 2. M. A. Dussault; 3. D. Valliere; 4. Jim Potticary.

ROYER BROTHERS WIN — The finalists for the Eastern Townships Doubles Tennis Championship are shown prior to the finals played last night in which the Royer brothers, Denis and Raymond, won the title from Yves Laberge, left, and Patrick Henri in a four-set battle which lasted over two hours.

Raymond and Denis Royer of Sherbrooke won the men's doubles championships of the Eastern Townships Tennis Tournament last night when they dropped Yves Laberge and Patrick Henri by a score of 6-1, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4 in a match which was contested for more than two hours on the Fraser Street courts.

This final doubles match provided plenty of thrills to the many spectators in attendance for more than two hours as the four seasoned players used varieties of shots throughout the four sets.

The winners were opposed superbly throughout the match and couldn't relax for a moment during the encounter. Laberge and Henri turned in fine performances on the court but were beaten by the Royer brothers who were just too strong in the crucial moments of the match.

The men's singles final is to be played this evening at the Fraser Street courts between last year's champion, Raymond Royer, and Yves Laberge, the challenger.

Royer is favored to retain his title this year but it is evident that will have to put up an excellent fight against Laberge who distinguished himself well in the preliminary matches.

The women's doubles championship match is also to be contested this evening with Jeannine and Huguette Cote of Sherbrooke facing Yolande Proulx and J. Grogioire of St. Cyrille de Wendover. Yolande Proulx retained her women's singles crown last week and she will be coupled with another excellent player to form a very tough team to beat in the doubles.

The women's doubles match gets underway at 6:45 tonight while the men's singles battle is to start at 7:30.

260 Golfers To Compete In Senior Tourney

MONTREAL (CP) — Some 260 golfers over 55 years old were set to go into action at Beaconsfield and Kanawaki golf clubs here today for the 28th annual Seniors' Golf Association championship tournament.

They will take part in the 36-hole medal play competition which ends Tuesday.

Wednesday a two-ball foursome event will take the spotlight while a 16-man senior team from the United States plays in a trophy competition against a Canadian team Thursday and Friday.

The competitors are divided into six classes determined by age and handicap. In the age grouping, the final bracket is for men 80-and-over.

Special competitions will see men over 70 playing for the best net over nine holes today and Tuesday and all players for the best 18-hole gross on any one day.

US Wins Junior Davis Cup Tilts

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP) — The United States won the junior Davis Cup matches over Canada at the Poughkeepsie Tennis Club Sunday, sweeping three doubles to complete a 7-2 triumph.

The U.S. team captured four of the six singles Saturday.

William Tym of Montville, N.J., and Dennis Lynch of Rumson, N.J., clinched the title when they beat Roger Ambrose of Toronto and Keith Carpenter of Montreal, 7-5, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Tom Palmer of Eastchester, N.Y., and Carl Hendrick of Freeport, N.Y., staged a stirring comeback to defeat at Dennis Crotty and Claud Savaria, both of Montreal. The Americans lost the first two sets then rebounded for a 2-6, 2-6, 8-6, 6-2, 6-2 decision.

Ronald Pickett of Scarsdale, N.Y., and John Botts of Bronxville, N.Y., completed the sweep with a 6-4, 6-3, 6-0 win over Harry Freedhoff and Bob Jacob, both of Toronto.

Americans Lose Protest In Wake Of Record-Shattering Performances By Rivals At Olympic Pool Saturday

ROME (CP) — The 17th Olympic Games were handed back to the athletes today in the fading shadow of an American wailing wall.

Outraged United States officials, stewing over the lack of hard-won gold medals, rushed into the breach on the off-day Sunday with a hastily formed debating team.

The debaters lost, too, and there still was no gold in the American bag.

The bitterness arose over the first-place award given Australia's John Devitt over Californian Lance Larson Saturday in the final of the men's 100-metre freestyle swim.

The finish was the closest imaginable. When the judges' decision was announced the American contingent lodged an official protest.

REJECT PROTEST
An appeal jury of the International Swimming Federation met Sunday and rejected the protest, declining to overrule the first-place judges at Olympic pool.

The lamentations and uproar were renewed. The Americans were sizzling with claims of robbery, archaic judging methods and anti-American bias. It all got nowhere.

Meanwhile, the Americans' rivals were winning championships in the aquatic events where United States prowess is acknowledged.

Anita Lonsbrough, British girl who holds the world record in the women's 200-metre breaststroke, broke her own record Saturday in winning the gold medal. She outswam Wiltrud Urselmann of Germany, who also broke the old mark, in the remarkable time of 2:49.5. The old record was 2:50.3.

GERMAN GIRL FIRST
Ingrid Kramer, 17-year-old German girl, won the women's springboard diving championship, snapping a string of U.S. victories that began in 1920. Mrs. Paula Jean Pove of the U.S. had to settle for a silver medal.

Two Canadians gained six position placings at Olympic pool. Irene MacDonald of Kelowna, B.C., finished sixth after being in contention until the last few dives.

Dick Pound of Montreal placed sixth in the sprint that featured Devitt and Larson. Both the Australian and the American were officially timed in 53.2 seconds, breaking the Olympic record of 53.4 held by Jon Henriks of Australia.

The U.S. 400-metre medley relay swimming team redeemed American prestige by winning a semi-final in world-record time of 4:08.2, breaking an Australian mark of 4:10.4. Canada's quartet swam second to the Americans but were outdistanced by nearly 20 yards. The Canadians easily qualified for the final, however, with their time of 4:15.3.

SNAPS OWN MARK
Dawn Fraser, Australian swimming queen, broke her own Olympic record of 1:01.4 in winning a semi-final heat in the women's 100-metre freestyle. Her former record was 1:02. Mary Stewart, 14-year-old Vancouver girl, was fifth in the same heat. Barely qualifying with her time of 1:04.2, Chris von Saltza, American ace, won the other heat.

The Americans appeared well on their way to a title in the men's springboard diving competition. Sam Hall and Gary Tobian were one-two on points after Saturday's semi-final. Ernie Meissner of Vancouver was in seventh place.

Don Stringer of Dorval, Que., remained in the 1,000-metre Canadian singles canoeing competition by placing third in a heat Saturday. John Beedell and Joseph Derochie of Sudbury were eliminated in a heat in the 1,000-metre Canadian pairs.

Going into today, Germany was on top of the unofficial point standing with 34 points. Italy had 30, followed by the United States with 17. Canada had two points, earned on the two sixth-place finishes.

Olympic yachting competition opened today with 44 countries represented. Canada has entries in all five classes.

Maple Leafs Tie IL Shut-Out Mark, Blank Royals 4-0

MONTREAL (CP) — Toronto's runaway Maple Leafs tied a shutout record that stood for 30 years when they blanked Montreal Royals 4-0 Sunday behind the two-hit pitching of Al Cicotte in the opener of an International League double-header.

It was Toronto 3-1 in the seven-inning nightcap.

The shutout by Cicotte (14-7) was Toronto's 29th of the campaign equalling a mark set in 1910 by Rochester Red Wings.

Pitching-rich Toronto, the 113 pennant already tucked away, has 15 games left to play.

John Newman Of Knowlton Fires 103 To Win Gross Honors At Cowansville Golf Tourney, P. Fortier Net Winner

John Newman of Knowlton fired a 34-35-34—103 to win top gross honors at the Cowansville Golf Club tournament held Saturday. John Dion of East Angus racked up a 109 for second place while Steve Setlakwe of Lennoxville was third with a 110.

Net winners at the event were dominated by Victoriaville entrants with Pierre Fortier firing an 87½ for first. Richard Garand second with 90, and Andre Couture third with 95.

In Class 'B' gross, Jeff Warden of Knowlton was first with a 117 while Bill Brunett of Lennoxville was one off his pace with a 118 for second place. Third was J.

Clan gathering picnic is held in Vermont

BARTON Vt. — A clan gathering of the MacDonalDs and MacLeods took place at Crystal Lake, near here on Sunday, August 14, with over 100 participating in the picnic lunch and "ceilidh". The first car arrived around 10 a.m. and others kept arriving until two o'clock. This was the first get-together of the MacDonalDs and MacLeods in 12 years, and it was considered so successful that another picnic is planned for next year. A feature of the day was a "Family Tree" of the MacDonalDs, descendants of William MacDonald, 1780-1833, who is buried in Valois Cemetery, Uig, Isle of Lewis, Scotland, and was the work of Duncan McLeod and Muriel MacDonald Mayhew. A "Tree" of the descendants of Alister McLeod is promised for 1961.

Among those attending from Canada were, Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Willis MacDonald, Mr. Archie MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan L. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murray, Earle and Stanley Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly MacKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Albert MacLeod, Mrs. Angus W. Morrison, Scottdrumville; Mrs. Agnes A. Morrison, Eastend Sask; Mr. and Mrs. Ian MacDonald, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hunting and children, Huntingville; Mr. and Mrs. John MacLeod, Mr. Arnold MacLeod, Sherbrooke; Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Norrey Hunting, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner and Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young and children, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mayhew, Lennoxville; Mr. and Mrs. Willie MacLeod, Miss Christie MacLeod, Mr. Malcolm MacLeod, Canterbury. Others taking part came from Vermont, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

A complete list of names should be available by next year so that all the MacDonalDs and MacLeods will receive notice in ample time. During the coming year each family is being requested to write-up a story on their immediate family and forefathers, a special binder having been prepared which will be circulated among them for this purpose.

Bill Young favored the gathering with a few selections of Scottish airs on his bagpipes, which were much enjoyed.

Sincere thanks are expressed to Queenie Longmoore Gignac, Barre, Vt., and Duncan L. McLeod, Milan, who organized the 1960 picnic.

The hostesses were, Mrs. Norbert Danneau, Miss Therese Danneau, Mrs. Harley Barlow, and Mrs. John Rousseau.
