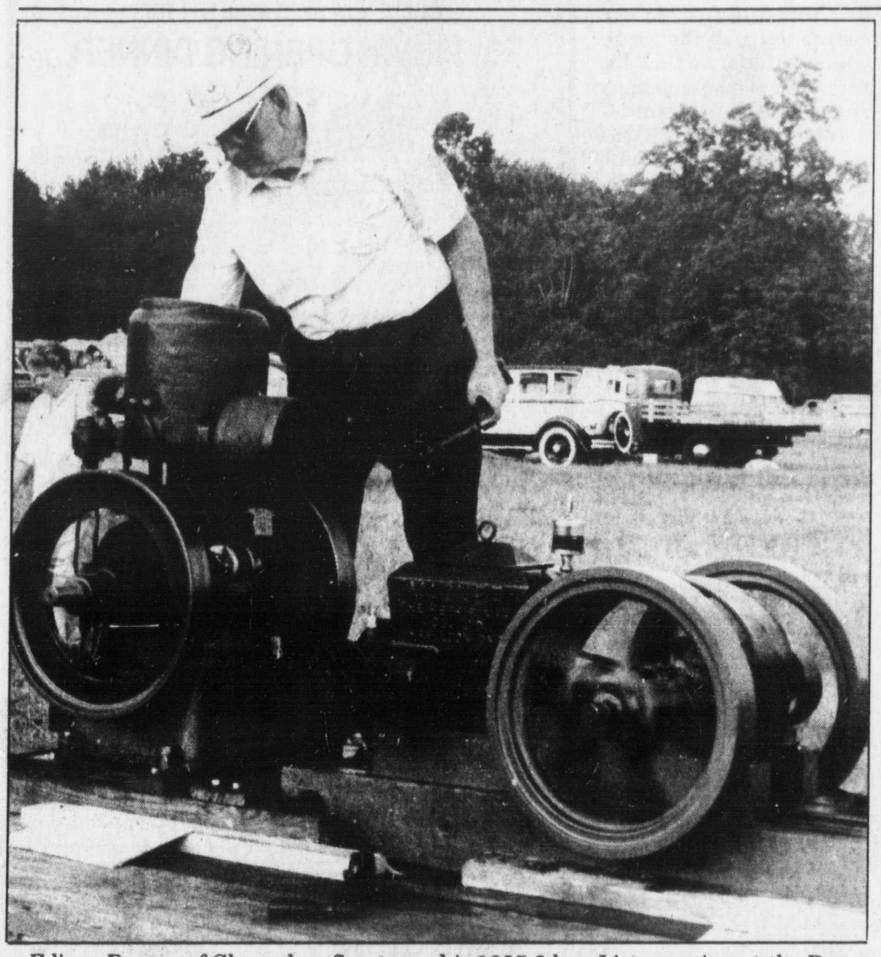
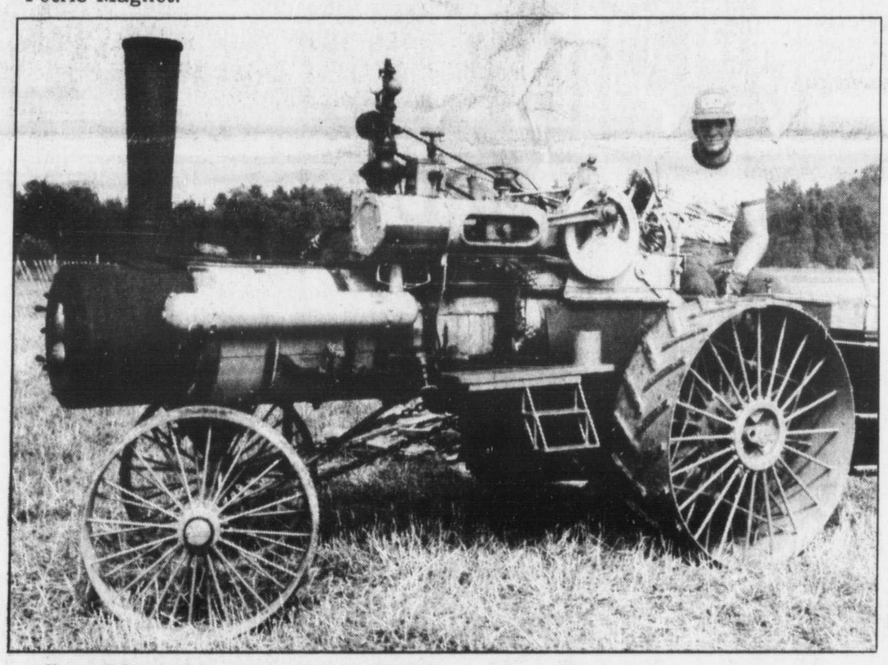
THE EQUITY

104th Year, No. 31, Wednesday, August 19, 1987 The Voice of The Pontiac since 1883 Box 430, Shawville, Quebec, J0X 2Y0 40¢



Edison Brown, of Clarendon, fine tunes his 1925 3 h.p. Lister engine at the Pontiac Steam and Gas Show in Bristol. Beside the Lister is a rather unique engine, a Petrie Magnet.



Albert Fibieg of Dacre drives a half scale model of a Case 65 h.p. steam tractor at the Steam Show. The model is owned by Dr. Bill Burwell of Renfrew.

Strike averted at Consolidated Bathurst

by Richard Wills

The threat of a strike at the Consolidated Bathurst pulp mill in Portage du Fort has been lifted, due to an agreement reached in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Negotiations between members of Local 420, Portage du Fort, of the Canadian Paperworkers' Union, and the management of the pulp mill began at 9 a.m. Friday, August 14, and were finally concluded at 2 a.m. Saturday. Both sides feel that the talks were successful.

On Monday, August 10, the union had given its representatives a 94% mandate to strike if its conditions were not met. This was in keeping with a decision made at a meeting of paperworkers' unions last October, to demand improvements in pension plans.

At the local strike vote meeting, a list of demands was compiled, with the pension plan as a priority. Also on the list were issues dealing with posting of vacancies in bottom jobs, the status of senior employees who have suffered restrictions on their abilities, emergency work on statutory holidays, and compensation for work lost to outside contractors, as during annual shut-down periods.

The members of Local 420 will be holding a ratification vote on the new agreement on Thursday, August 20th, at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m., at the Bryson Lions Hall. Local vice-president Cletus Ferrigan feels certain that 100% of the members will vote to accept the 3-year contract.

The new contract allows for a 25-cent raise in the first year, 40 cents in the second, and 4.5 cents in the third year, as well as 6 weeks holidays after 25 years, not 28 years as before. Also, the company will now be paying 70% of the workers' medical plan, not 60%.

In the important pension plan issue, the negotiators agreed on retirement at age 58, rather than 61. This point is where Mr. Ferrigan feels that it was important for the union to concentrate its efforts, in lieu of higher wage demands.

Bob Pelletier, personnel manager at Consolidated, says "We are satisfied with the (result of) the negotiations." He maintains that the bargaining was tough, covering some 94 points in all, but that ultimately, "We are happy that the workers will be staying on."

Mr. Ferrigan also expressed pleasure at the outcome of the talks, saying that, in the end "The strike vote did its job. It resolved the problems." So the final outcome, he feels, is that "Both sides won!"

Shawville water safe

The water in Shawville is safe to drink again. The most recent water samples taken on the sixth and tenth of August and sent for analysis to the laboratory in Montreal, were both acceptable. Mr Charles Dale, Secretary-Treasurer of the village of Shawville said he had called the lab last Wednesday for the results. Since everything was back to normal he called the office of the Ministry of Environment in Hull to inform them of the new results.

Shawville's new chlorinator was hooked up last Thursday. It replaces the defective model that was purchased in January. Apparently, there was a malfuction in the machine which caused it to leak from the inside and destroy itself. "They discovered that it was a problem in that model so they changed it slightly." Said Mr Dale.

Even though Shawville gets its water supply from a spring, the water still has to be treated because it is near an old disposal site. "In the winter it is usually OK" said Mr Dale "it is in the summer we have to worry about bacteria especially when it rains. To be on the safe side we have to treat it all the time."

Steam and Gas Show

Three days of good weather and an excellent program combined to make the inauguration of River View North as the new site for the Pontiac Steam and Gas Show a great success, August 14 to 16.

One of the big draws was the collection of old engines, both steam and gas powered, and machinery. Judging of the engines took place on Sunday. The best preserved engine was a 1911 Stikney 5 h.p., owned by Clive M. Rodgers of Kingston.

The oldest gas engine was a 2 h.p. Gould, Shapely and Muir, owned by David Hodgins of Shawville, which he estimated to be at least 102 years old. This engine powered the presses of THE EQUITY until the mid 1940s.

One seldom-seen engine, a 2 h.p. Petrie Magnet, owned by Edison Brown of Clarendon, was a noteworthy addition this year

Gary Overton won the award for the best restored antique tractor on steel wheels with his 1927 two cylinder Hart Parr 16-30. Allison Corrigan won the best restored tractor on rubber wheels with his Cockshutt 30. A Farmall A with a Massey Harris 6 h.p. engine owned by John Hewitt of Pembroke was judged the best modified tractor

Fred Moore of Aylmer had his scale model display of a thrasher mill, steam engine, saw mill and gas tractor chosen as the best scale model. Second was the steam engine owned by Janoario Remigio of Hull.

The best home-made tractor was built by John Croskery of Marmora around a 1918 Fairbanks Morse 6 h.p. power plant. J.P. Conway, also of Marmora had the best home-made steamer.

The hand tool display by Lois and Don Green was selected the best display. The best animal exhibit was the yoke of oxen together with a covered wagon shown by Don and Russ Lowe of Manotick.

There was also a display of antique cars and trucks at the show. Winner of the original antique car class was Gilbert Miller of Arundel with his 1929 Ford Model A. Marilyn Simpson of Petawawa was second with her 1955 special trim Studebaker coupe. Third was Don Darlington of St Bruno with his 1952 two door Pontiac.

Basil Hodgins of Bristol won the antique truck original class with his 1953 GM half ton. Cecil Davis of Luskville was second with his 1938 Ford half ton. Claude Peloquin was third with his 1941 one ton Chevrolet. Lawrence Bourgeau of Bristol won the modified class with his 1954 Ford F-100 half ton.

The horse draw on Saturday attracted a large number of observers. In the light horse category Claude Proulx was first with Dick and Prince, Yves Robert second with Doc and Mike, Kenny Greer third with Spider and Billy, and Brent Gabie fourth with Britt and Prince.

Winner of the heavy horse category of the horse draw was Brent Gabie with Banner and Charlie. Second was Bernard O'Malley with Bell and Polly, third Clinton Greer with Jack and Duke and fourth Waverly Greer with Captain and Dick.

There was fine entertainment throughout the show, culminating with a variety show of local stepdancers and fiddlers on Sunday afternoon.

The turnout for the event was very pleasing to the organizers and to the many volunteers who put a lot of time and energy into making the show as interesting as possible. A lot of help was provided by the Bristol volunteer firemen who helped prepare the grounds for the show during the week previous and who helped run the concessions.

There were more than 3000 paid admissions to the show, including a record number of campers who stayed for the whole weekend. Very encouraging to the executive of the Pontiac Steam and Gas Association were the degree of local participation

Autonomy granted to Heritage College

The Minister of Education of Quebec, Claude Ryan has finally agreed to let Heritage Campus become an independent CEGEP. The announcement was made by Mr. Ryan at the sod turning ceremony for a second campus of the CEGEP de l'Outaouais in Gatineau on Tuesday, August 11.

The decision follows many years of representations by members of West Quebec's English-speaking community. Two years ago an autonomy committee, made up of members of Outaouais Alliance and the Heritage board of governors had written a brief, in consultation with the English-speaking community, submitted it to the MEQ, met with members of the MEQ and, in February of 1986, met with Mr. Ryan himself to explain the advantages of autonomy for Heritage.

Finding the extra funding delayed taking the decision and will delay the implementation. The decision will take effect next year, in July, and students registering in September, 1988 will be attending Heritage College rather than Heritage Campus.

A negotiating committee has now to be appointed to work out the details of transfering the administration of Heritage from the CEGEP de l'Outaouais. According to Lawrence Kolesar, director of Heritage, such a committee would be appointed from the community when a new CEGEP is being formed, however, since there is an existing board of governors, it may be possible to include some of the board's community representatives on the new committee.

Keith Henderson, chairman of the college's board of governors, was pleased with the announcement by Mr. Ryan and said it was a big step forward for West Quebec's English-speaking community.

Driving license examinations

The mobile testing unit of the Régie de l'Assurance Automobile du Québec will be at the Community Center in Campbell's Bay on Tuesday, September 8th from 10:00 a.m. to noon and from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. to administer examinations to anyone wishing to obtain a driving license.

CLSC studying transportation problems

Living in the Pontiac can often cause transportation problems for people seeking medical treatment. For those requiring specialized care, it can often mean travelling long distances to urban areas where such services are available.

CLSC Pontiac is presently studying this problem to find out how many people have this problem and in which category: some people do not have a car; others cannot afford the cost of transportation; some physically handicapped people require a specialized vehicle.

The CLSC would like to get those persons who have transportation problems involved in seeking solutions by having them contact the Pontiac CLSC in Fort-Coulonge at 683-3000 or by writing to:

Camp Meetings. The Pentecostal camp meetings have been drawing large crowds all week in Shawville. Rev. Paul Coxe of New Jersey is a dynamic preacher, who with his wife and daughter Becky Lois, have provided enjoyable music in song. Last Sunday evening over 500 persons gathered at Hobbs' Garage to hear the word of God and the quartet, the Canadian Gospelaires of Montreal. All this week the Cadd Sisters of Virginia will be singing in addition to the continued Gospel ministry of the Coxe family. Overflow crowds are expected.

Rotary. Rotarian Cecil Wolff, vice-president of Computing Devices of Canada, was a most welcome speaker at Shawville Monday night. Introduced by Rotary president Dr. Bruce Horner, who admitted he knew nothing about computing devices, Cecil proceeded to clarify things for the entire group who are all in a similar situation.

The company started in 1948 with 14 men, and now employs 11,000, with its headquarters in Bell's Corners and a special Stittsville annex, where classified space experiments are under way. Their main work is in the special applications of digital and analogue techniques with electronic devices; the digital dealing with specific figures and the analogue more with rates and trends.

Baseball. The Shawville Tigers took a 1-0 lead in the best of three UOVBL playoffs on Sunday as they posted a close 4-2 victory on the hands of a fighting Fort Coulonge team. Bryan Murray went the distance for the Tigers on the mound and scattered nine hits for the win. Along the way Murray struck out 9 and walked 4 Coulonge batters. George Gagnon went all the way on the Fort Coulonge mound and allowed nine hits and was tagged for the loss. He struck out four Tigers and walked only two in a strong pitching performance.

Dial Phones. About sixty dial telephones have been installed thus far in Shawville, but instead of lessening the work of the operators, this has only added to it. The reason for this anomaly is that noboby knows what numbers to dial, now that they have the proper phones to dial on. So they are all still putting their calls through the operator, which causes the latter the inconvenience of looking up the new numbers and then dialing them.

Dial phones are going first to those who use the most local calls, according to Mr. Baker.

Old-Time Happenings. (by W.A.H.) At a meeting of the Clarendon Council, January 1869, a petition was presented by Councillor Jno Strutt, signed by sundry ratepayers, requesting a public meeting to consider the matter of separation, or the division of Clarendon into two municipalities. This meeting was held on Feb'y 8th, 1870, and a majority vote authorized the making of the Centre, from lots 8 to 12 inclusive, on 6th concession, into a separate municipality. A petition was immediately forwarded to the Quebec Government and the application granted pending the formal settlement of all details -- accrued taxes, division of roads, school, name, etc. These details were all easily arranged by the interested parties and council, but it took the Centre people a long time to decide on the name they wanted and it was not until the session of 1872 that the incorporation of the new municipality under the name of Shawville, was finally sanctioned, and the edict or letters patent did not take effect until Jan'y 1, 1873.

Born. At the Rectory, Shawville, on Monday, August 16th, to Rev. T.E.R. Nurse and Mrs. Nurse, a son.

Married. In the Desert United Church on August 7th, Miss Edna Eunice Bennett of Maniwaki married James Cuthbertson Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon of Wyman.

Local News. Mr. W.A. Hodgins returned to town last Thursday, from a short summering at Green Lake, and Mr. T.E. Hodgins and family have taken their cottage for a week or two.

RRA. Fate seems to have conspired with the clerk of the weather on Thursday last to accomplish the undoing of the plans of the picnic committee of the Radford Rifle Association, by handing out the most deplorable weather that an event of the kind could be handicapped with. It was simply rain, rain, and more rain from early morning till nightfall. The success of picnics -- like horse races and elections -- is very uncertain. All depends on the weather.

The band boys donned their holiday toggery to attend the picnic as per appointment, and stood around for an hour or two, occasionally casting an eye skyward in hopes of discovering a rift in the leaden canopy; alas, however, it appeared not!

Married. At the parsonage, Greermount, on Wednesday afternoon last, the nupitals were celebrated of Mr. Willie Workman (son of Robert) of Charteris section, and Miss Vida, daughter of Mr. John Emerson, of the same locality.

Local News. A party of children from Portage du Fort visited the slides here (Bryson) on Monday of last week.

A sharp frost was experienced in parts of the county on Saturday and Sunday nights.

Harvesting has set in very rapidly since our last issue, and now the hum of the reaper may be heard in all quarters. Machine agents have done a large business in this county this season; the sale of twine binders expecially, have eclipsed all past records.

The dry spell was broken on Tuesday morning by the descent of a copious rainfall. We fear, however, that it came too late to benefit to any extent the grain crop, a great portion of which, owing to the warmth and drouth, has ripened prematurely.

The steamer Maggie arrived down river on Friday afternoon from a cruise up as far as Des Joachims, whither she had gone to deliver supplies and to look after the interests generally of the U.O.D. Co.

Railway Notes. Messrs. Mullarkey and Kenny, of the PP&JR, were in Bryson on Monday doing business at the registry office in connection with right-of-way. We understand that the people generally are very well satisfied with the settlements made by these gentlemen, as they study to do the square thing by the people while at the same time the interests of the company are jealously guarded.

Fully realizing all the advantages commercially and otherwise to be derived from railway communication, the council of P.D. Fort, at its regular meeting on Monday last, passed a resolution which has been transmitted to the Quebec government, asking how much assistance will be given to a line of railway from a point west of the village to Portage. We have been informed that the council of Bristol passed and forwarded to the local government a similar resolution.

Clan Picnic. Several of the representative Scotch families of Bristol held a family picnic at Norway Bay the week before last, which has been very appropriately called the "Clan Picnic". The different clans were represented by the following families: the Craigs, Lairds, Lothians, Youngs, Stuarts, McFarlanes and McJanets. Rev. Mr. Graham and wife were also present.

Born. At Portage du Fort on the 3rd inst., to the wife of Neil McLean, a daughter.

Married. At Portage du Fort on Wednesday the 10th inst., Mr. Jas. Conley to Miss M.J. Pratt, second daughter of James Pratt; all of Clarendon.

It was moved by Clrs Binder and Hodgins that a portable cutter be purchased and to investigate the feasability of a brush cutter for the grader or tractor.

It was moved by Clrs R Bretzlaff and Hodgins to purchase some 50 kph signs and posts.

It was moved by Clrs Binder and Hodgins that Sect.Treasurer place an ad in The Equity for snowplowing tenders for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 seasons, a two year contract. Tenderers are to state the rate per kilometer, tenders will be received by the Sec.-Treasurer until 4 pm on September 1, 1987.

The Mayor briefed Council on an environmental meeting that was held at Thorne Lake on July 26, 1987.

Mayor reported to Council of his conversation he had with our Member of Parliament regarding the safety aspect regarding the construction on Route 303.

Sect.Treasurer advises Council that the Municipal Office will be closed the week of August 17th for annual holidays. An ad will be placed in The Equity.

Correspondence was tabled.

It was moved by Clrs Hodgins and Schroeder that bills totalling $8,550 be paid.

Senate is acting democratically

"We have heard from Canadians, both on the question of the substance of the drug bill and on the question of the absolutely unacceptable, undemocratic attempt by the Senate of Canada ... to subvert the actions and decisions of the elected representatives of the House of Commons." That is Joe Clark speaking in the House of Commons. As a one-time Prime Minister and long-time student of Canadian politics, he should know better.

This democracy of ours is run according to a constitution, created over a hundred years ago and modified, with Mr. Clark's assent, only a few years ago. In that constitution the Senate of Canada is defined and it is given the authority to pass or reject any bill presented to it. When the senators do this they are acting democratically. They are not being subversive.

The fact that their decisions do not always agree with that of the House of Commons is irrelevant to the question of democratic procedure. Why is it we only hear the complaints from this Conservative Government when the Senate rejects its bills?

There are some obvious problems with the Senate, such as their method of appointment. The purpose was to provide some regional representation and an opportunity for second thought. Years of service to a particular political party is not necessarily the best criterion for choosing a senator.

Still, the system is the best that the constitutional experts of this century and the last have been able to come up with. They believed then that the Senate was essential to the success of this country. The wrangling we have been subjected to over the past three years may be the proof they were right. If we had not heard anything about the Senate during this time it would be arguable that they were fulfilling no function at all.

But we have heard a lot of the conflict between the Commons and the Senate. Maybe they are both working for a living. However, when our representatives stand up on their hind legs and call any other organization's activities "undemocratic" they should be sure they are right. Otherwise the word will become as meaningless in Canada as has the word "communist", which was once used to strike terror into the hearts of all right thinking Canadians.

Letters to the Editor

Dear editor,

I wish to extend my best wishes and congratulations to Dr. Wilbert J. Keon and the family of the late Harold Keon for their having been selected as the first recipients of the Pontiac Agricultural Society special achievement award.

Due to my unfortunate automobile accident on June 10th, I was unable to attend the special dinner held in Chapeau in honour of the Doctors Keon. I understand this award will be presented annually to some person from the Pontiac who has excelled in some special way. I cannot imagine two more deserving recipients.

Their tremendous contributions to medical science and as true humanitarians are outstanding. Dr. Harold Keon is fondly remembered as an exceptional physician with the time and a kind word for all his patients. As we all know, Dr. Wilbert Keon is becoming a legend in his chosen profession. The Pontiac area can certainly be proud of their native sons.

Yours sincerely
Barry Moore, MP

Shocking state of libraries calls for injection of funds

by Cathy Simon
Mainland Press

A special commission on the state of Quebec's public libraries has found these institutions to be in terrible shape.

The commission, set up by Cultural Affairs Minister Lise Bacon in January, released its report July 7, showing that Quebec lags behind nearly all the other provinces in almost every aspect of library service.

Claire Côté, one of the commissioners and director of the Pointe Claire Public Library, says public libraries in Quebec are grossly underfunded.

Increased funds requested. To remedy the problem, the Commission recommends that the provincial government increase its funding for libraries from $16 million per year to $28 million.

At that rate, the government would invest $170 million in libraries over the next five years.

"The library system in Quebec has developed very slowly,"Côté says, "and we have a lot of catching up to do."

Côté summarizes the commission's major findings, saying that most of the province's public libraries don't have enough space, books, funding, or personnel to put them on a par with national standards.

Small towns hit harder. And, she says, rural libraries are generally worse off than urban ones.

"When you have a small community of fewer than 5,000 people, say 1,200 or 2,000, it's difficult to give an adequate library service because the needs of each individual are practically the same as in a big city."

However, Côté points out that, in general, English libraries are more developed than the French ones, because there is a stronger tradition of library use and support in English-speaking centres.

The Commission, chaired by Philippe Sauvageau, recommends that both municipal and provincial governments must contribute more to public libraries if current needs are to be met.

In the Eastern Townships, for example, the Pettes Memorial Library in Knowlton is one library suffering from tight funding.

Susan Bailey-Godin, Head Librarian, says, "We're certainly among those hard-hit by the current situation in Quebec."

Knowlton is starting to feel the economic impact of the Hyundai auto plant which is coming to nearby Bromont.

Bailey-Godin says, "I'm happy membership is up, but it's so drastic, we're just managing to keep our heads above water with the funding we're receiving."

In recent years, the government cut back its subsidy to public libraries by almost 15 per cent, leaving it at 12 per cent of the library's annual budget. A substantial part of the budget is covered by fund-raising campaigns in the community.

Way behind. Bailey-Godin says her library is way behind in its services. The library has no audio-visual equipment, needs more books, and desperately wants to expand and renovate.

"But we shouldn't even be dreaming of these things at this point in time," she says.

At the newly-renamed Legion Memorial Library, formerly the Potton Library, in Mansonville, a dream is coming true, at least for Louise Oliver, a retired nurse who acts as librarian.

It's been an uphill battle to establish the library standards Oliver envisioned when she and friend Jean Brown first set up the library 12 years ago.

Success story. The library has just been renovated. The Ministry of Cultural Affairs helped to subsidize the renovation. The grant was available because the municipality also contributed.

"We have many new shelves," Oliver says with pride. "There's always room to expand further--I could use more reference books--but we're adequate for a small town."

This library is largely funded by the municipality. It also belongs to a network of community libraries serviced by the central library in Sherbrooke.

Networking a partial solution. The network is a strategy, Côté explains, to help solve the predicament of libraries serving rural areas.

And Côté emphasizes that it is vital to encourage community involvement in public libraries. That's not news to Oliver.

"Until you get the community interested, you're not going to get anywhere."

Oliver has held open houses at the library, organized an old-fashioned Christmas dinner which attracted 75 local residents, and given story hours for the children. The Legion Memorial Library is run entirely by volunteers from the community.

Some optimism possible. Côté says even though the state of libraries in Quebec is sad, "I feel optimistic. I feel we have recommended several things that stand a chance of being implemented over the next few years."

Minister Bacon says she will study the report over the summer. In the fall, she will announce what action the government will take to improve the situation.

But Bacon has already said that she won't meet the full funding recommended. She says the municipalities will also have to get involved.

Pontiac's ten libraries are in good condition

by David Mills

Libraries in the Pontiac are in fairly good condition, say the majority of librarians in the area.

While most of the libraries are comparatively small, they seem generally to be serving their citizens well.

Each library is budgeted by its municipality for the number of books it rents. These rented books are part of a rotation system organized by Biblio de l'Outaouais in Hull. Biblio, which has approximately 23,000 English-language books in stock, sends a designated amount of them to each library every three months. Along with the books sent, Biblio asks for a corresponding number back.

Another service which Biblio provides is a 'request system' designating a certain number of books each library can request per year. Those books requested are generally recent ones in demand by the libraries' readers. Biblio either buys the book or honours the request by sending the book to the library from its existing stock.

All local libraries have been using this system for the past six years. Before that, the Pontiac was served by a Biblio-Bus. The Bus, a travelling library from Hull, would stop in each town every month with its load of books.

This service was discontinued by the Quebec Ministry of Cultural Affairs as too costly and inefficient. The Ministry had provided the buses used by Biblio.

Since then, each Pontiac municipality has had the responsiblity of providing its citizens with its own libraries.

Shawville-Clarendon

The Shawville-Clarendon Library is the Pontiac's largest. It stocks approximately 6,000 books, half of them from Biblio, half donations. It also has a Canadiana section.

According to Shawville Librarian Brenda Murphy, the library is well-used by the local population. She says that members are content with the quality of books offered. She also comments that summer cottagers from Ottawa visiting the library have praised its selection.

The only complaint Mrs Murphy has with Biblio is its relatively limited selection of English books. Biblio, which serves rural libraries in both Pontiac and Gatineau counties, has a comparatively limited amount of English books, causing the same titles, some of them unpopular, to be frequently rotated to the individual library.

Fort-Coulonge

The Municipal Library in Fort-Coulonge is budgeted by both the Municipalities of Fort-Coulonge and Mansfield and Pontefract. It has about 5,000 titles, 200 of them English. It offers a selection of periodicals and many children's books. According to Librarian Marie-Jeanne Vallieres, the number of people using the library has increased over the past few years to a current 25 % of the population.

Quyon

The Municipality of Pontiac has two libraries: those of Quyon and Luskville. The Quyon Library, situated in the old North Onslow Town Hall, is open Thursday evenings and has 3,000 books. Librarian Bob Joyce says that though the library is sufficiently budgeted by the Municipality, he would like to see more people use it.

Mr Joyce says the Library currently has 150 regular users while covering an area with a population of approximately 1,500 people.

Mr Joyce comments that though Biblio does an adequate job in providing the library with books, they sometimes will not buy 'requests' they feel to be too specialized for the general population Biblio serves.

Luskville

Luskville Librarian Marie Roy says that though she finds Biblio "very helpful" and the library to be well-used by the population, it could do with more space for its 3,000 books.

"We could give a better service if we had more space," she says.

Gary Trivett, Councillor for Pontiac Municipality, says that the Municipality is studying plans to expand or add to Luskville's Community Centre. The Library, he says, could be included in any possible expansion.

Other Pontiac Municipal libraries include those of Bryson, Campbell's Bay, Portage du Fort, Calumet Island, Otter Lake, and Chapeau. Most of them, with the exception of Chapeau, report a general satisfaction with their state of affairs.

The Chapeau library might, reportedly, have to close down this year because it is simply not being used.

Intercultural exchange program offered

Students seeking to spend a year studying in another country now have the opportunity to do so.

Interculture Canada, a non-profit organization located in Montreal, is offering 160 young Canadians between 15 and 18 years old the chance to pursue their secondary studies in over 30 countries over the next year.

Applicants are offered a choice of winter or summer to begin their studies, which encompass one school year. Anyone seeking to apply for the winter session must submit an application by October 30. Those interested in the summer sessions must apply by November 30.

Interculture Canada wants young people to become acquainted with another culture while broadening their personal horizons. They feel their past efforts have met with success.

"It was an unforgettable experience," says Diane Audet after her return from one year in Australia."I met interesting people while discovering Australia and its culture. Also, I now speak English perfectly."

"My daughter has returned more mature and self-confident," says one mother after her daughter returned from Venezuela. "She is much more open and responsible."

Interculture Canada is a member of AFS, the largest exchange organization in existence.

Anyone interested in applying for this program can call 1-800-361-7248. The address is Interculture Canada, 59 St James West, Suite 700, Montreal, Quebec, H2Y-1K9.

The next event on the Association's calendar is the passing through Bristol of a steam-powered train on Sunday, October 4th. A stop for water is planned. Kim fun run attracts 40 runners

A warm, sunny morning and the beautiful scenery of the Coulonge River and the Coulonge Golf and Country Club greeted the competitors, supporters and organizers of the first Kim Fun Run, held on Sunday, August 16.

Of the sixty-three who registered for the five kilometer run, forty runners (and walkers) finished, everyone commenting on how well organized the race was.

Before the race began, Nancy Crago, from the Pembroke Family Fitness Center led the runners in a stretch and loosen-up session to ensure there were no injuries. The Quebec Police Force provided an escort to the participants as they ran along the road.

Matthieu Lavigne was first in the boys under ten class in a time of 27 minutes 17 seconds. Ian Soucie (6), the youngest runner was second, and Dave Hérault third. Anne Sauriol was the only girl under ten, finishing in 51:14.

Daniel Kovatz won the boys fifteen and under class in 23:24, followed by Sylvain Belair, Geoffrey Ladouceur, Kevin Hérault, Darrin Jewell, and Jason Mousseau. Girls fifteen and under was won by Lily Ryan in 30:46 with Veronique Lalonde second.

Shawn Kinney of Pembroke was the fastest person in the race, finishing in 19:55. With this time he won the nineteen and under men's class and the men's overall. Second in the class was René Brind'Amour, followed by Marc Sauriol, Stephen Smith, Sylvain Lepage and Billy Smith. Winner of the women nineteen and under class was Lise Ladouceur in a time of 31:23. Rebecca Lalonde, Heather Armstrong and Laurie Kincaid followed.

Denis Soucie won the men 35 and under class in a time of 20:46. Second went to Gerard Audet, followed by Dave Boicey, Jerry Lavigne, Roy Hérault and Yves Soucie.

Nicole Belair won both the women 35 and under class and the overall women's trophy with her time of 26:39. Next in the class were Jenne Boicey, Leona Lachance, Joan Jewell, Celene Bouers and Guylaine Dumouchel.

Alfred Ladouceur won the men over 35 class in a time of 27:57. Second was Girard Dufour. Alfred also received an award for being the oldest competitor. Zella Durocher won the women over 35 class in 49:11. Brenda Kincaid and Sandra Mousseau followed.

The woman who actually crossed the finish line first was Kimberley Umbach, running in the nineteen and under class, with a time of 23:34. Kimberley, who organized the meet, has run with the Canadian national disabled team and so did not wish to have her time entered in the competition.

Kimberley is moving to Fredericton in a few weeks to take up a scolarship at the University of New Brunswick. Also during the winter she will be competing with the national disabled ski team in the cross country events. After school is over next spring she plans to return to Fort Coulonge and to organize another fun run.

Proceeds from the run amounted to $610. Kimberley presented a cheque for this amount to the Coulonge Minor Hockey Association.

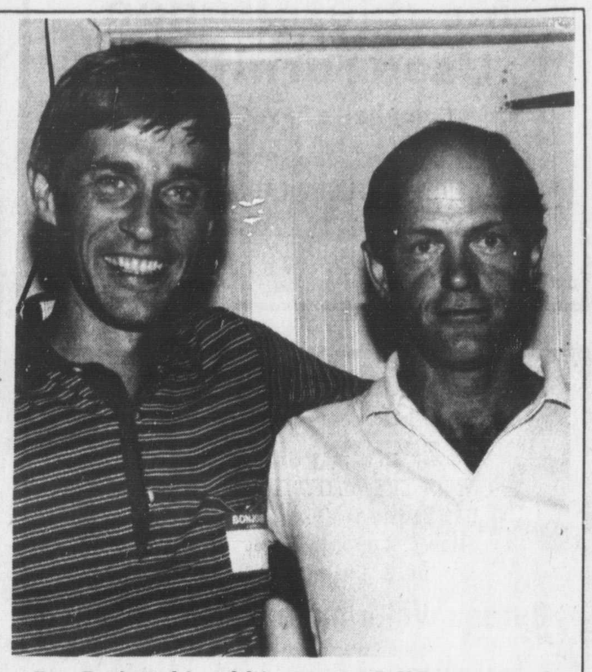
Diane Laroche and Georgette Hérault won the Bryan Murray golf tournament in the women's division.



Ray Buchowski and his partner Jeff Davis won tSaturday's tournament in the men's division.

Bryan Murray Golf Tournament

The third annual Bryan Murray Golf Tournament was held last Saturday, August 15 at the Coulonge Golf and Country Club. Despite the rain, 116 golfers participated to make this their largest tournament yet. Organizers hope that after expenses they will top last year's figure of $1 500.

All the proceeds from this tournament will go toward amateur sport. The money raised will benefit the youth of the area by paying for sports equipment and facilities for minor hockey, figure skating and other recreational activities.

Bryan Murray, who is originally from Shawville, lends his name each year to the tournament. He has won recognition and acclaim over the years through his association as coach in Junior A Hockey, notably with the Pembroke Lumber Kings, the Rockland Nationals and Western Junior A Regina Pats. In 1984 he was awarded the "Coach of the year award in his capacity as coach of the Washington Capitals.

The scattered showers did not stop the 116 golfers trying their luck at hole number four where the first golfer with a hole in one could win a car donated by E.J. Ward Inc. Unfortunately it was no one's lucky day.

Winners:

The winners of the tournament in the men's division were Ray Buchowski and Jeff Davis. In the women's division Diane Laroche and Georgette Hérault won. All through the game at different holes prizes could be won. Winners of prizes for being closest to the pin: Ray Buchowski won a chain saw, donated by Wayne and Susan Narlock of the Coulonge Golf and Country Club at hole number four. Philippe Romain won a $100 voucher from Valu-Mart donated by Mr Jean-Paul Béland. Jim Tabor won a set of Uniroyal tires donated by Ronald Soucie of Pontiac Tire. Roy Hérault won a gift certificate of $100 donated by the Shawville branch of the Royal Bank. The Bank of Nova Scotia, Campbell's Bay and Fort-Coulonge and Campbell's Bay Branches each gave a $50 prize for the longest drive at hole number 6 . Guy Ladouceur won the prize in the men's division and Diane Graveline won it in the women's division.

After dinner, gifts were given to each golfer who had not won any prize on the field. In all, there was a total of $15 000 in prizes to win including the car.

After the dinner prepared by Capital foods of Ottawa, Master of Ceremonies Dwight Davis kept the crowds entertained until the names of the winners were announced.

A gift was presented to the guest of honour Mr and Mrs Bryan Murray.

The pioneer of golf in Fort-Coulonge, Mr Guy Ladouceur and his wife Carol were also invited guests. Other special guests were Mr Marcel Thivierge of Molson Canada who sponsored the event and through whom hockey players were supposed to appear to sign autograph for the kids. Unfortunately both Hockey players had accidents and were unable to come. Mr and Mrs Edwin Ward of Fort-Coulonge who provided the car as a prize were also special guests.

Kennedy Golf Tournament

by K M Kennedy

What fond and loving memories were remembered at Norway Bay Golf Course, Saturday afternoon, July 18.

Eleven years ago a golf tournament was organized by a grandson Tommy Kennedy in memory of his grandfather the late Ambrose Kennedy of Beechgrove and Ottawa.

The yearly tradition not only maintains wonderful family ties but enriches all with undying memories of a very special person.

How wonderful it would have been to have Mrs Teressa Kenney tee-off as she has done on previous occasions, but failing health at 91 years young prevented her from being with us in person.

Forty-three descendants were absent this year.

Not all of the 83 present, and that included two lifelong friends, John nd Madore Bove, participated in the golf games. Mothers and young children enjoyed the beach and sunshine until the supper hour at Bristol Town Hall. Needless to say the trophy and award presentations were the highlight of the day.

The Ambrose Kennedy Trophy (Low Net), donated by John Bove, was presented by the 1986 winner, Vi Stanton, to Jeff Kennedy.

The Low Gross Trophy was presented by Tommy Kennedy to Leo Kennedy.

The Teressa Kennedy Trophy was presented by Leigh Kennedy to Mary Beth Regan.

The Outlaw Trophy , donated by Mike Durocher, was won by Mike in 1986 and again this year.

Prizes donated and presented by Bernard Stanton went to Chris Bergeron for longest drive on # 5, Mike Durocher, closest to cup on # 2, Lorne Kennedy, the Sr. Kennedy participant.

A delicious cake baked and beautifully decorated by Leigh Kennedy with "Happy 25th Anniversary Colleen and Don" and also "Happy 45th Anniversary Vi and Bernard" was enjoyed by all.

An impromptu singsong at the Stanton cottage in Norway Bay was the evening's entertainment. Bernard, accompanied by Mary Regan, sang "My Way" and Baby Blue Eyes couldn't have done any better.

The three talented Kennedy sisters have programmed an exciting weekend on September 18th on an island in the Kingston area for their brothers and all spouses.

Kavanagh reunion held in Minneapolis

by Pat Kavanagh

Over 400 Kavanaghs gathered in Roséville, a suburb of Minneapolis - St Paul, the weekend of July 17 - 19 to attend a first ever reunion of the Kavanaghs from Vinton.

Historically, the Kavanaghs arrived in Vinton in 1846. There were six brothers, five of whom later moved to the U.S. The descendants of Morgahn, the Canadian brother, still occupy the original farm in Vinton. John moved to Nebraska, Edward's family to Minnesota, Laughlin and Daniel to Jackson, Mississippi, and James to Washington State. It was the descendants of these six brothers who gathered in Minnesota for the reunion. There were Kavanaghs there from over 20 States , four Provinces, Australia and Ireland. An 87-year-old card dealer from Las Vegas, a heart surgeon from Omaha, and an 85-year-old farmer from Vinton were some of the many interesting people to meet.

The order of the day was a Mass offered by Father Francis Kavanagh of Toronto. The Master of Ceremonies was Dr Frank Ferlick, a noted American heart surgeon and descendant of John Kavanagh from Nebraska. An enjoyable and entertaining evening was provided by Kavanagh entertainers and story tellers. The Governor of Minnesota excused his absence due to a heavy political schedule yet Andrew Kavanagh of Co. Carlaw, Ireland filled in admirably.

Locally the reunion was attended by Edward (a grandson of Morgahn), Pat and Carol Kavanagh of Vinton as well as John and Judy Kavanagh of Aylmer.

Bishop blesses statue in Bryson

by Dee Dee Lepine

A statue of Mary, recently donated to the Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic Church in Bryson by several parishioners, was blessed by Bishop J. R. Windle of Pembroke on Sunday, July 5th. Also participating in the ceremony were Msgr. Robert Borne of Pembroke, Michael Bergin, a student in theology at St Paul's Seminary, Br. Christian Gagné F.M.S., from Quebec, and Father Leo Pelletier of Bryson.

The blessing of the statue in celebration of the Marion Year, was preceded by a mass. Afterwards, Bishop Windle welcomed the congregation at a reception organized by the CWL ladies in the church basement. A very pleasant time was spent visiting, renewing old acquaintances and talking with the Bishop, Msgr. Borne, Michael Bergin and Christian Gagné.

French immersion class holds 'Mishoui' in Shawville

by David Mills

Students in a specialized French immersion course staged their send-off party with a 'Mishoui' at a farm just outside Shawville on the eighth line last Thursday, August 13.

The 'Mishoui', which involves a pig being roasted on a spit, was held to celebrate the completion of an Adult Education course given by the Protestant School Board of Western Quebec in Hull. The course began on Monday, August 10, and lasted for five intensive days.

Twenty students participated, some coming all the way from Nova Scotia and Alberta, but the majority from Quebec and Ontario.They were all there for one purpose: to improve their French.

For some students, it was the necessities of the working world which motivated them to take the course.

Maura Strevens, a nurse at the Royal Ottawa Hospital, says that an ability to speak French on her ward has become a necessity. She also wanted to improve her knowledge of another language.

"I want to speak French to communicate with Francophone patients," she says.

Both Maura's husband, Michael, and fellow student Wilf Hall cited the realities of working in Quebec as reasons. Both men work for Northern Telecom in Aylmer.

Others, such as Montreal schoolteachers John and Bella Colaço, attended as partial participants. They were in Hull that week to participate in the Western Quebec School Board's Effective Teaching Techniques program, held concurrently with the immersion class.

Both Mr and Mrs Colaço joined in the course's evening activities with the intention of "trying to mix in a French milieu to get French culture".

The course itself contained an advanced and intermediate level. Classes began each day at 9 am with grammar and speech lessons, then continued on until midnight with a variety of activities: trips to theatres and French restaurants, and a cruise on the Ottawa River.

"We're physically tired but intellectually stimulated," says French teacher and organizer of the course Renelle Venne. "It's been very, very successful."

Mrs. Venne, a French-Language Consultant and Animation Coordinator for the Western Quebec Board, says that plans for the program began in November, 1986. Publicity was released last Spring at school boards throughout Canada. The response to those ads was, says Mrs Venne, "fairly good".

Positive feelings about the program were echoed by the students and three other teachers: Loïse Aubin, Jean-Lou Daziel and Rejane Vaillancourt.

All these teachers are familiar with both Shawville and the Pontiac:

Mrs. Aubin, a coordinator and animator with the Western Quebec School Board, had previously supervised a play in French at Shawville's Dr. S. E. McDowell school.

Jean-Lou Daziel, a resident of St-Pierre de Wakefield, taught French at the McDowell school during the 1985-86 school year. He remembers Shawville with affection, and was happy to return there for Thursday's brief celebration.

Rejane Vaillancourt, has been teaching French at Pontiac Protestant High School for the past seven years. It was at her farm outside Shawville that the 'Mishoui' was held.

"It was fantastic," she says of the immersion experience. "I would like to do it again."

"We intend on expanding the course next yearto offer at least two weeks," says Renelle Venne. "We want to grow bigger and better."

The 'Mishoui' itself was quite successful. The well-baked pieces of pork were accompanied by salad, potatoes, wine and beer. Students spoke as much French before, during, and after the meal as possible.

After coffee and dessert, the students presented their teachers with gifts of plants and flowers.

The evening ended with a bonfire, along with singing, and dancing.

Sympathy is expressed to the family of Delia M Kennedy who died in the hospital on August 3rd, age 72, wife of the late Clarence Kennedy, mother of Vernon and Sheila of Oakville, sister of Frank Hammill. He was the brother of Marguerite (Mrs Delmar Alexander), Lou (Mrs Basil Drevthan and Everett and his wife Annabelle of Ottawa. He was predeceased by a brother Donald. The funeral was from Hayes and Sons Funeral Home to St John's Anglican Church in Quyon for service. Interment was in St Matthew's Anglican Cemetery in Charteris, Quebec.

Congratulations to Andy Lusk. He celebrated his 70th birthday and a celebration was held in his honor at the Canadian Legion in Quyon on Friday evening. A very large crowd came out to wish Andy birthday greetings.

We took a list of the musicians that were present and entertained. They were Cal Cummings and his band, Dane O'Hanahue, Mike Parizeau, Reg Workman, Frances Daley, Danny Dollighan, Mel McClinton, Jackie Sammon, and Charlie Ethier, two Robert brothers from Masham. All performed on the fiddle. Singers, and guitarists were Cal Cummings Jr, Bob Sally and daughter, Karen Sally, Andy Lusk, Ted Daigle CKBY, Fr Garry Cain, Reg Young, Joe Teevans, Jeff McClinton, Gail Gavan, Lennox Gavan, Reg Mitchell. Other talent present were George McKenny, Marg Scott, Bob Arseneau, Art Brown, Louella Curley, Gordie Fitzgerald, Mike Leroy, and stepdancers were Charlie Gorman, John Langford and Emmett Curley.

The entertainment on the fairgounds for Reunion '87 was a great success.

A large crowd came out and listened to Cal Cumming's band and Cal M.C. the event.

Dancers were most entertaining. They included Julie Cummings and Paulette Gauthier, the Swartz Sisters, grandmother and granddaughter team of Elsie and Paula Stanley, mother and daughter played the fiddle, Jennifer and Paulette from Charteris, and then Mother did a fine step dance.

Organizers of the Quyon Reunion were Laurie and Mona MacKechnie. They deserve a fine hand in their work toward the many projects involved such as the testimonial dinner at Gavan's to honor Chris McColgan, the horseshoe tournament and street dance sponsored by the Canadian Legion.

McCann's organized the softball tournament.

Gavan's organized the volleyball and the bingo.

The bed races were most enjoyable and brought out a large crowd. Keon's Store won for the best dressed bed and trophies went to Terry Dolan's team (men), Murdock's Glass (women) and Côté (girls).

Strolling through the Arts and Crafts Building, one would become envious of the great talents displayed, too numerous to mention.

The children enjoyed having their faces painted.

It was an enjoyable weekend meeting old friends.

Interesting auction in Chichester

For 75 years the late Frank Lepine operated the village blacksmith shop in Chichester and last Saturday the tools of his trade and also household and farm equipment were sold at auction under the direction of his executors, Alvin and Francis Lepine. Auctioneers were Leonard J. Daley and Murray Graham. Here Leonard can be seen looking over the shoulder of Murray who is selling a number of children's sleds, one of which is being held aloft at right. Some fascinating antiques were among the offerings which brought out a good crowd who also enjoyed a perfect day in one of the most beautiful parts of the Pontiac. Buyers were on hand from all over the Valley as well as a number of local people who recalled the days when Lepine's blacksmith was the hub of the community.

Serving great refreshments to the public at the Lepine auction in Chichester was Mrs Alvin Lepine.

Shawville Council

A regular meeting of Shawville Council was called to order by Mayor Black at 8 pm on July 14, with Councillors Arthurs, Campbell, Hodgins and Russell present.

The minutes of the meeting of June 23 were adopted as circulated on a motion by Eason Russell, seconded by Robert Campbell.

Resolved on a motion by Robert Campbell, seconded by Sylvia Hodgins, that Monday, August 3, is hereby proclaimed a Civic Holiday in the Village of Shawville.

Councillor MacIntyre joined the meeting.

Mr Orla Young joined the meeting to request that Council provide reasons for supporting his application to the CPTAQ for subdivisions, alienation and non-agricultural use of part of lot 9.

Orla Young Application to CPTAQ re part lot 9.

Whereas Mr Orla Young applied to the CPTAQ for subdivision, alienation and non-agricultural use of that part of lot 9 south of the former Canadian Pacific Railway right-of-way (Approximately 20 acres);

Whereas Shawville Council supported the application in a resolution of council at the meeting of May 12, 1987 but did not provide any reasons for supporting the said application;

It is hereby resolved on a motion by Art MacIntyre, seconded by Everett Arthurs, that Shawville Council strongly supports the application of Mr Orla Young for the following reasons:

There is not much good land remaining for housing construction and there has been a significant increase in the number of new houses constructed. 1984 - 3 new houses, 1985 - one new house, 1986 - 17 new houses, 1987 - 8 permits todate.

That part of lot 9 concerned in the application is adjacent to a serviced subdivision on lot 10 where services can readily be extended and is also close to the site of a proposed new hospital where housing is expected to be in demand.

The Municipality is in the process of acquiring the abandoned former CPR right-of-way, which could be used as a street leading to a subdivision of lot 9, along with street allowances which have been provided for in the lot 10 subdivision, leading to a future subdivision of lot 9.

The land concerned is dry sandy-loom with no drainage problems - excellent for construction.

Resolved on a motion by Everett Arthurs, seconded by Eason Russell, that Bill Atkinson be paid $50.00 or one weekend stand-by duty for which he was not renumerated in 1986.

A letter was read from J L Richards and Associates, Consulting Engineers, concerning replacement of the wooden water tank and providing an estimate of the engineering fees involved (approximately $11,000.00).

Resolved on a motion by Everett Arthurs, seconded by Sylvia Hodgins, that J L Richards and Associates be engaged to prepare a Design Brief and proceed with other preliminary work according to the conditions as outlined in their letter of June 24, 1987, toward the replacement of the existing wood stave water tank with a new water storage reservoir meeting with Quebec approval.

Resolved on a motion by Sylvia Hodgins, seconded by Art MacIntyre, that payment of the listed accounts totalling $51,813.58 is approved.

Resolved on a motion by Everett Arthurs, seconded by Robert Campbell, that Leo Burgess be hired to repair the bricks and cement at the front and sides of the Town Hall at the rate of $30.00 per hour for two men.

Albert Armstrong and Royce Richardson joined the meeting, representing the Pontiac Junior B Hockey Club. They requested an earlier starting time for night games for the 1987-88 season (8:15 pm which would mean the ice would be required for 7:30 p.m. for warm-up). They also reported that the first home game would be October 9th and stated that a schedule of all games would be available in one week.

The Arena Committee is to study all arena operations for the 1987-88 season and report to Council at the next regular council meeting.

What is prior learning assessment?
Prior learning assessment at Heritage Campus is a system of evaluating and granting CEGEP credits to adults who can document and demonstrate that they have acquired the knowledge of a course in the College course catalogue. Credit is awarded to students who have acquired college level learning in a variety of ways: work experience, community service, volunteer work, non-credit course work and self directed study. If you feel you have had such learning, you may want to consider applying for the portfolio course.

How is prior learning assessed?
At Heritage Campus prior learning is assessed through the evaluation of a portfolio. Students can apply to take a credit course "Portfolio 360-903-85" during the Winter 1988 semester. If selected, students register for the course and can acquire the skills necessary for the preparation of a portfolio. This portfolio describes and documents the learning that the student has acquired in a format that can be evaluated by an assessor. The assessor will base his judgement on the relation between what the adult has learned and the objectives of the course in question.

Why do it?
Recognizing prior learning:
1. Awards College credit for the achievement of academic objectives regardless of the manner in which they are achieved.
2. Allows adults to receive credit for courses the objectives of which they have already achieved.
3. Makes the completion of a program more feasible for adults whose time for courses is limited.
4. Encourages adults to reflect on and learn from their experiences.

What is "The Portfolio" course?
Once accepted, the student will take the credit course "Portfolio 360-903-85". During the course the students will learn how to identify their own learning style, articulate their career/educational goals and think creatively. Students also learn to match prior learning to course requirements, and assess and submit documentation appropriate to validating learning. At the end of the course the student will produce a portfolio using appropriate language and terminology that can be asessed for prior college level learning in the College course catalogue.

Réunion des Normaliennes à Fort-Coulonge

Les Normaliennes se rassemblent sur le perron de l'Eglise après une messe célébré par Mgr Bridge et l'Abbé Gauthier de l'Ile du Grand Calumet en l'honneur de la réunion des anciennes de l'école normale St-Michel de Fort-Coulonge.

Quatre-vingt cinq anciennes étudiantes ainsi que certain professeurs de l'école normale St-Michel de Fort-Coulonge se sont réunis mercredi et jeudi dernier.

L'école a fermé ses portes il y a 23 ans après 8 ans de services. La réunion à pris place dans les anciens locaux de l'école, présentement les locaux de la Commission scolaire Pontiac et de l'école Fatima.

L'école qui a existé entre les années 1955 et 1964 accueillait des jeunes filles, non seulement du Pontiac, mais aussi de différente région de l'Outaouais et du Québec qui désiraient poursuivre leur études pour devenir enseignantes.

Les anciennes étudiantes ainsi que leurs professeurs sont venues d'aussi loin que Nana Kima en Ontario pour se revoir après tant d'année.

Marilyne LaCasse qui a gradué en 1963 s'est dite ému de son retour à son ancienne école "en arrivant à peu près cinq milles de Fort-Coulonge on revenait à l'âge de 17 ans nous étions émues de revenir à notre Alma Mater. On s'est reconnue au contact, les visages étaient familiers si pas les noms."

Les filles étaient pensionnaires chez les religieuses et elles dormaient toutes dans un dortoir ensembles. Elles ont formées des liens d'amitiés qui sont resté après tant d'année. "Les amitiés sont restés, même si l'on ne s'est jamais téléphoné ou écrit. On a presque toutes vécues les mêmes expériences" a déclaré Mme LaCasse. "On a aimé revenir à Fort-Coulonge" a-t-elle ajouté, "c'est un beau coin. Nous sommes allées voir le pont rouge ça nous a rappellé des souvenirs."

Les règlements de l'école étaient tellement sévère que les étudiantes ne pouvaient pas s'adonner à n'importe quelle activité. "On allaient donc prendre des marches autour des ponts."

Mme Lacasse qui est originaire de Lorrainville, Témiscamingue a profité de sa visite dans la région pour revoir la famille de M. Hector Denault. Mme LaCasse les visitait accompagné de leur nièce les fin de semaine. "On m'accueillait les fin de semaine comme leur nièce. On nous faisait des fêtes, ils jouaient de la musique Country et Western... J'ai été reçu en 1987 avec la même chaleur qu'avant."

Après cette première rencontre en 24 ans, le groupe de '63 a décidé de se revoir tout les ans. "Ca nous a permis de voir que ce contact était bon et qu'on veut le continuer" a déclaré Mme LaCasse.

Mme Gisèle Amyotte de Fort-Coulonge qui a gradué en 1959 a eu beaucoup de plaisir a retrouvé ses anciennes compagnes de classe. "Il y en avait qui avait beaucoup de facilité à reconnaitre les visages. Moi je n'ai pas trouvé ça facile. Malgré qu'on est resté les mêmes avec 28 ans de plus."

Mme Ladouceur a dit que les filles d'ailleurs avaient remarqué les changements fait au village depuis qu'elles étaient parties. "Elles se sont rappellé des choses que moi j'avais oublié, ça m'a vraiment rappellé de vieux souvenir."

Pour le Père Gauthier, curé de la paroisse St-Anne de l'Ile du Grand Calumet, qui était principal et aumonier de l'école, cette rencontre l'a ému et même rajeunit. "Il y a beaucoup d'émotions... Ca me fait chaud au coeur de les revoir..." a-t-il déclaré, "ça nous rajeunit de revoir nos jeunes à l'âge de 17 ans, après quelques minutes on revit ces années là. C'est une très belle rencontre qu'on devrait répéter."

Avant de se quitter, les Normaliennes ont échangé leur adresse, des baisers d'aurevoir, elles ont versé quelques larmes avec la promesse de se revoir bientôt.

Pour l'information de la population, H.C.P. présente l'état financier du fonds de donations pour l'année terminée. Le Conseil d'administration et la direction remercient la population pour sa générosité.

Jeune homme perd la vie dans un accident de ferme

Par Gilles Gervais

Un jeune homme de Fort-Coulonge a perdu la vie le 5 août dernier vers les 17h30. La victime, Peter Corriveau, agé de 17 ans, a perdu le contrôle du tracteur qu'il conduisait.

L'accident est arrivé sur la ferme de son oncle, Mr. Simon Corriveau, à Mansfield.

Peter était reconnu pour son excellence au hockey. On disait qu'il avait le potentiel d'en faire une carrière. Il avait debuté sa carrière à un tout jeune âge à Fort- Coulonge où il joua son hockey mineur.

Peter demenagea à Hull pour poursuivre ses études. Il tenta alors sa chance au camp d'entraînement des Citoyens de Hull (Midget AA) de l'Outaouais où il fut choisi un de leur joueur de centre pour la saison 1986-87. Il porta pour cette équipe le numéro 88. Pendant la saison regulière, Peter marqua six buts et assista à 16 autres en 30 parties.

Selon son instructeur, Fernand Ducaire, Peter avait beaucoup de potentiel. Il était un joueur agressif qui amait beaucoup gagné et qui avait beaucoup de coeur. Il était un joueur qui préparait le jeu.

L'instructeur Ducaire a dit que Peter aurait pu s'aligner avec les Frontaliers de l'Outaouais Midget AAA l'année dernière. Pour des raisons personnelle, il choisit de jouer pour les citoyens de Hull AA.

M. Ducaire a declaré que Peter avait été un des meilleurs joueur au dernier tournoi midget Kiwanis de Hull que les Citoyens avait remporté. "C'est une histoire incroyable" a-t-il commenté.

Peter venait tout juste de terminer ses achats en vu de sa participation au camp d'entraînement des Cataractes de Shawinigan, Ligue de hockey junior majeur du Quebec (LHJMQ) qui l'avait reclamé au onzième tour lors du récent repêchage.

C'est le deuxième joueur en d'autant d'année que l'instructeur Ducaire et le Club de Citoyen perdent. l'an dernier leur capitaine Chris Wrinn de Shawville avait perdu la vie lors d'un accident de la route.

Le gardien de but des Citoyens de Hull de l'an dernier, Wayne Marion de Fort- Coulonge qui avait été choisi le meilleur gardien et meilleur joueur lors du tournoi Kiwanis a assité au funéraille de son ami et co-équipier dimanche le 9 août à Fort-Coulonge. Il a dit que Peter était un beau joueur de hockey et qu'il était aussi bon à l'école. Il a ajouté que Peter avait très hâte que la saison 87-88 commence.

Information about reforestation provided

By Denise Belec

At the beginning of August a trailer from the Ministry of Energy and Resources entitled "Reboisons pour demain" travelled through Pontiac County to inform forest producers and would-be forest producers of government grants available to them.

The activities admissible for government grants are: preliminary work, preparation of soil, planting, maintenance of plantation, pre-commercial clearing, commercial cut, regeneration cuts, fertilization, drainage, forest roads (construction or amelioration.)

Visitors to the trailer could see a model woodlot depicting the three stages to follow for afforestation: Preparation of soil, planting and maintenance of the plantation after ten or 15 years. To be eligible for the status of forest producer, a person must meet the following criteria: own or lease a wooded surface of at least ten hectares, register this wooded surface with the Ministry of Energy and Resouces in Fort-Coulonge and they must respect a simple management plan.

Information and forms for registering a property are available at the Ministere Energie et Ressources in Fort-Coulonge.

In each village, each visitor to the trailer received a two-year-old white spruce with instructions on how to plant it as a token appreciation of their visit.

Ports pour petites embarcations. Un programme de revitalisation.

Ce programme a été créé dans le but de veiller à la sécurité des personnes et à la protection des embarcations. Il permettra:

- d'assurer une plus grande solidité financière en vue de réaliser les travaux d'entretien courants des installations portuaires pour petites embarcations.
- la réouverture d'installations portuaires qui ont été fermées pour des raisons de sécurité.
- de réparer des dommages causés par les tempêtes et le niveau élevé des eaux.
- d'aménager de nouveaux services et de nouvelles installations dans certains ports dans le but de répondre aux besoins croissants des pêcheurs, plaisanciers et industries locales.

Mais plus important encore, les autorités portuaires locales créées en vertu de ce programme pourront, avec l'aide du gouvernement fédéral, donner la possibilité aux pêcheurs, de même qu'aux autres utilisateurs, de jouer un rôle plus direct dans la planification, la gestion, l'exploitation et l'entretien de leur port.

Les projets proposés seront analysés et financés à la lumière de leur valeur respective et les annonces relatives à leur financement seront faites au fur et à mesure que les décisions seront prises à ce sujet.

SOCIAL NOTES

Caldwell . . .

by Hermonie Sharpe

Anniversary congratulations to George and Doreen Dunlop of Campbell's Bay who celebrated their 55th anniversary recently. May you have many more years of health and happiness.

Visiting with us recently were Mr and Mrs Maynard Thompson of Ottawa. They also visited with Mr and Mrs George Dunlop at Campbell's Bay.

Spending a week's holiday in Manitowadge with the Donald Sharpes were Mrs Connie McGee and children, Natasha and James of Osgoode and Hermonie Sharpe of Shawville.

Mr and Mrs Ernie Sharpe of Franklin, N.J. spent the past week visiting with friends and relations in Shawville and Pembroke district and vacationing at their cottage at Yarm.

Mr and Mrs John Stewart and children of Lethbridge, Alberta, called on their cousin, Marjorie Corrigan recently.

Visiting with us on Sunday were Mr and Mrs Donald Thompson and boys Coty and Nicholoas and Mr and Mrs Neil Sharpe.

If you are ever travelling through Northern Ontario, it would be well worth your while to stop at the Trading Post at Pancake Bay. I never saw more beautiful wood carvings, furs, etc, all done by the Aqawa Indians and the camping, they tell me, is ideal.

Mrs Tammy Crate is spending the next two weeks with her sister, Connie McGee, in Osgoode, before leaving to join her husband in Florida in September.

Visiting with Mrs Joyce Warren recently was Mrs Loretta Caya of Drummondville, Quebec

Miss Elke Wittig of Ottawa spent the weekend with her parents and family, the George Wittigs.

Mr Tom Glenn and son Daryl of Chelmsford spent the weekend with Mr and Mrs Ivan Orr.

Visiting with Mrs Mae MacDonald recently were Mrs Donnie Russell of Chalk River and her daughter Jeanie from the West.

Visiting with Brent and Ann Plouffe this past week at Black Hill Farm were Ann's brother Bill Taylor and his wife Liette and three lovely daughters, Karen, Vicki and Suzan of Bedford, Quebec. Mr Taylor is in the RCMP and is in charge of the RCMP detachment at Bedford.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Emerson Roy of Cobden who celebrated their forty-fifth recently.

The Steam Show started off quite slow on Friday but by Saturday it was in full swing and by the time it was over it was a huge success in every way.

There has been thieving going on again as a home in the Bristol area was broke into and valuables stolen. It doesn't take long for these things to happen as the owner was only away for a few hours. It is too bad we are living in a time when we have to lock up and sometimes that doesn't even stop them.

This is one summer that we can't complain about too much cool weather. In fact it has been so hot and humid that it is even getting into the houses. Likely as not we'll soon be complaining about the cold but I think it will take us a while to do that. One thing it has been great weather for the cottagers.

If someone, Dept of Agriculture, or someone who has had experience with worms in their apples, can tell me of a sure cure to get rid of them, it would really be worth a lot. For two years now, after buying a large sprayer and fruit and garden insect killer, Diazinon, we still have worms in our apples. These trees are tame apples, not wild ones and at one time were the nicest apples you could eat. I hear of different ones having the same trouble so surely the Dept of Agriculture can give us some hint on what to do or if there is anything better to use.

Belated anniversary greetings to the Bill Reynolds of Quyon who celebrated this summer. Mrs Reynolds was the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Donald Fraser of Shawville.

Shawville . . .

Mrs Ross Stewart and Mrs Brent Barr visited Mr and Mrs Jack Stewart and family in Edmonton in Sherwood Park and attended the ceremony for the Duke and Duchess of York, Sarah and Andrew, which was thoroughly enjoyed.
