Plan meeting at sea for freeing hostages

Hit Vosburgh kin

Receive poison pen notes

By PAT BOUGIE (Record Staff Reporter)

COWANSVILLE — Royal Canadian Mounted Police have been asked to investigate two poison pen letters and a series of abusive telephone calls received by Abel Vosburgh's married daughter and her husband, it was learned today.

Mr. William Maybee and Mrs. Maybee of Grande Ligne, Que., have each received an unsigned letter, both dated January 5.

Both letters were handwritten with red ink in large letters.

Vosburgh, 63-year-old Noyan laborer, is charged with the murder of 11 of his 15 children and his wife who died in a fire that swept their shanty home Dec. 29.

He is scheduled to appear in Sweetsburg court Friday for his preliminary hearing.

RECIFE, Brazil (AP) — A U. S. admiral agreed today to a meeting at daybreak Tuesday with the rebel captain of the liner Santa Maria to arrange for the release of her 588 captive passengers.

Rear Admiral Allen Smith, U.S. navy commander in the Caribbean, said he received a message from Capt. Henrique Galvao proposing the meeting on the high seas. Smith quickly accepted.

The Portuguese luxury liner, whose 42 American and other passengers have been virtual hostages since Jan. 22, was reported lying about 60 miles east of Recife.

Smith will sail in the destroyer Gearing for the rendezvous. He flew to Recife from Belem Sunday night to take charge of arrangements for the release of the passengers.

Smith said he planned a rendezvous about 35 miles off Recife. Three other U.S. destroyers were also en route here.

PLANES SPOT SHIP — U.S. Navy planes spotted the Santa Maria at 7:30 p.m. Sunday cruising in apparently aimless patterns off Brazil's Atlantic coast.

Galvao was under instructions from Gen. Humberto Delgado, exiled leader of the Portuguese National Liberation Movement, to keep the Santa Maria in international waters until after the inauguration of Brazilian President-elect Janio Quadros Tuesday.

Quadros gave an assurance that if Galvao sails into a Brazilian port for safe discharge of the passengers, he will not seize the 20,906-ton liner for return to her Portuguese owners. He also offered Galvao a haven.

Mrs. Ethel Arieux, 33, who withdrew her two children from the school, voiced a typical neighborhood reaction to Thompson's action.

"After all, that Thompson is an outsider. The boycott wasn't broken by one of us."

Integration

Continue school boycott

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Neighborhood mothers vowed today they would never send their children back to integrated McDonogh No. 19 elementary school despite a slight crack in a two-month white boycott.

John Thompson, 33-year-old father of six, was expected to take two school-age children to the public school in east New Orleans today.

Gregory Thompson, 9, became the first white boy to attend McDonogh since Nov. 17, three days after the school was desegregated under federal court directives.

The elder Thompson said he would also take his eight-year-old son Michael to McDonogh today as the boy's health permits. Michael remained home from school last week because of an asthma attack.

The two boys had been attending segregated schools in neighboring St. Bernard Parish (County), where most of the white children from McDonogh and Frantz—the city's other desegregated school—were enrolled after the first strife-torn week of integration.

CALLS HIM OUTSIDER — Mrs. Ethel Arieux, 33, who withdrew her two children from the school, voiced a typical neighborhood reaction to Thompson's action.

"After all, that Thompson is an outsider. The boycott wasn't broken by one of us."

LANCASTER, England (AP) — William Hamer, 27, on the run from Lancaster prison, sneaked out on a main highway Saturday and thumbed a lift from a passing motorist. The motorist obligingly stopped and Hamer climbed in.

The driver turned out to be Joseph McGinly, one of the wardens at Lancaster prison, who drove Hamer back to jail, where he is serving a three-year term.

Bigger, tougher, uglier

Mercenaries flock to Katanga

By ADRIAN PORTER ELISABETHVILLE (AP) — "They get bigger, tougher—and uglier—every day."

The security officer at Elisabethville airport turned and looked distastefully at a group of young men clambering out of the plane that had just come in from Europe. They were the latest additions to the Katanga gendarmerie.

These mercenaries are joined every day by new soldier-adventurers. Lured by high pay they have come from the United States, Britain, France, Germany, Poland, Israel, South Africa, Rhodesia — and, of course, Belgium. Some of the better types become officers but the others, undisciplined, are rowdy and ruthless have

RESCUED FROM ROCKS — Sharon Henderson, 11, suffered only a scratched leg when she tumbled between tons of loosely-packed boulders forming a breakwater near Victoria. It took two hours to rescue the child who became trapped while trying to retrieve a shoe. Rescuers worked with agonizing slowness to avoid disturbing rocks which would have crushed her. (CP Photo)

Find clue to lost aircraft

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP) — The first clue to the fate of 23 persons aboard a missing transport aircraft may have been found Sunday floating in the Atlantic 527 miles east of Newfoundland.

A small yellowish article, believed to be wooden, was spotted by a naval search plane as the widening hunt for the C-118 went through its fourth day. The U.S. minesweeper Mills was ordered to the area to pick up the single piece of debris. RCAF search headquarters here hope to have it identified late today.

Meanwhile, a full air search with at least 15 American and Canadian planes taking part will resume at dawn. The aircraft, on a flight from Morocco to Norfolk, Va., disappeared early Thursday morning about 500 miles southeast of the U.S. naval station at Argentia on the Newfoundland south coast.

The search was started shortly after a radar patrol plane reported hearing a distress signal and sighting what appeared to be an explosion in the air.

The debris was spotted Sunday by a Neptune search plane. Crew members of the plane couldn't agree on what it might have been. One said it could be a chock, used to clamp the aircraft's wheels on the ground. Another said it looked like a water jug. A third said it could have been an orange crate.

A search and rescue spokesman said "a lot of garbage is floating around out in the Atlantic and this could be anything."

Good weather is expected in the search area today.

Drop colored seamen for visit to S. Africa

LONDON (Reuters)—A Royal Navy decision to leave behind nine colored (mixed race) sailors when the aircraft carrier Victorious visits South Africa kicked up a storm in London Sunday.

Two Labor party members of Parliament said they plan to ask questions in Parliament while Sunday newspapers blasted the decision.

An Admiralty spokesman said some colored sailors would visit South Africa, where rigid racial segregation is enforced, although nine would be dropped from the 2,200-man crew before arrival there.

He said those colored sailors voyaging to South Africa are being taken so they could visit their families.

He said the decision to leave the nine behind is "in the interest of the men." It was taken "to prevent any possibility of their being treated badly in South Africa."

In January, 1955, the United States aircraft carrier Midway with 400 Negroes in her crew visited Cape Town. The South African authorities at that time relaxed the segregation regulations to allow the Negroes to use bars normally reserved for white customers.

FIRE BROADSIDES — The Sunday Express and the Sunday Dispatch unleashed salvos against the Admiralty.

The Express said the Labor party would "treat the incident as evidence supporting their charge that the government is 'appealing' South Africa."

The Dispatch quoted a crew member as saying, "I never thought that (South African Prime Minister Hendrik) Verwoerd's writs would run on the quarter-decks of the Queen's navy."

Fenner Brockway, left-wing Labor MP, said he would ask Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in the House of Commons Thursday if he would instruct all departments to refrain from appearing "in the racist policies" of South Africa.

Labor MP Reginald Paget said he would ask a question in Parliament today. He said if South Africa is "not prepared to accept these chaps as British sailors, our ship ought not to go there."

SYDNEY, Australia — (Reuters)—Sydney had its hottest day in 12 months Sunday when temperatures soared to a sizzling 106.9 degrees.

Third group may bid for Odhams

By BORIS MISKEW Canadian Press Staff Writer LONDON (CP) — The battle over control of Odhams Press Limited continued today in board rooms and in political circles.

Anticipating public concern over the future of the British press, Cecil H. King, chairman of The Daily Mirror group, pledged that The Daily Herald would not be scrapped if his group gained control of Odhams, worth £40,200,000.

The Daily Mirror and The Daily Herald would not be amalgamated, King said in a statement Sunday night after offering £32,000,000 in shares for Odhams.

The Daily Mirror offer followed a bid by Canadian publisher Roy Thomson to merge his newspaper interests with Odhams. Under the merger, Thomson would become chairman of Thomson-Odhams Limited.

As Thomson and King contemplated their next moves, a third contestant stepped into the ring. Edward Martell, chairman of The New Daily, a small right-wing newspaper, said he is canvassing business leaders to raise enough financial support to outbid The Daily Mirror offer.

Odhams publishes the pro-Labor Daily Herald and more than 120 magazines and newspapers.

TO SUPPORT LABOR — King, whose magazine and newspaper organization is worth £57,900,000, said The Herald "will remain in solid support of the Labor party as a serious political journal."

"The Daily Mirror has been for many years an independent newspaper of the left," he added. "It has supported the Labor party in every election since 1945."

As directors of Odhams gathered to consider The Mirror's offer, Prime Minister Macmillan and his cabinet were reported to be planning a meeting to discuss the proposed merger. Macmillan is expected to outline the government's attitude in the Commons this week.

Opposition Leader Hugh Gaitskell called for an immediate inquiry. He said the proposed merger create "a very serious position and raise issues of the highest public importance."

Odhams' directors must decide whether to advise their many small shareholders to accept The Daily Mirror offer and whether to abandon the proposed £70,000,000 merger between Odhams and Thomson Newspapers Limited.

Frogmen to probe sinking

LONDON (Reuters) — British intelligence plans to send frogmen down to examine the Russian fishing trawler Olenevad which sank Friday off the Shetland Islands, the London Daily Mail says.

"The 90-ft. herring catcher was believed to be equipped with the latest Russian radar equipment," the paper says.

It adds that spy missions by "Red trawlers off the north coast of Scotland" have been going on for "more than a year."

The sunken trawler lies off the Scottish coast. It went down Friday with the loss of 20 men after a puzzling exchange of messages.

The trawler's parent ship, the Kazalinsk, put out a distress signal that the Olenevad was in trouble but later cancelled the call causing a British rescue party to turn back.

Quebec road deaths half nation's total

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Quebec accounted for more than half the road fatalities reported in Canada during the weekend.

A Canadian Press survey showed a total of 30 accidental deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday — all but two on highways.

Quebec's toll of 15 road deaths was followed by Ontario, four; Alberta, four; New Brunswick, three, and Newfoundland and Saskatchewan, one each.

The only accidental death in British Columbia was a drowning. In Northern Ontario a 15-year-old boy accidentally shot himself while hunting.

The survey takes in only accidental deaths during normal weekend holiday activities. Deaths in industrial accidents are not counted.

Police wound priest

BELFAST (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest was shot in the leg today by police manning a roadblock set up to capture members of the underground Irish Republican Army.

A police spokesman said the priest, Rev. Patrick Hughes, 56, failed to stop at the roadblock near Carrickmore, County Tyrone, where he lives. He was taken to a hospital, where his condition was described as satisfactory.

An intensive search continued along the border between Northern Ireland and the Irish Republic for the killers of a 26-year-old Ulster constable, Norman Anderson. Anderson was shot dead Friday while returning from a visit to his 17-year-old girl friend south of the border.

In Dublin, a communique signed by the outlawed IRA said Anderson was shot because he was "a British spy." Sunday the IRA blew up a bridge not far from the lane where Anderson was slain.

Would welcome the Windsors to live in U.K.

LONDON (AP) — A wealthy publisher said Sunday he intends to petition the Queen for a royal proclamation that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are welcome to live in Britain.

"This is to be a plea for tolerance," said Donald Barrington-Hudson, who lives near Windsor and plans to stand for Parliament as a Liberal in the next election.

Barrington-Hudson, 52, said he will seek the approval of his local Liberal party branch for a door-to-door canvass in Windsor to establish whether the townspeople share his views.

Barrington-Hudson said he determined to petition the Queen after reading the Duchess of Windsor's complaint in an American magazine that she and her husband had been persecuted in Britain since he abdicated the throne 24 years ago.

State of Union

Would cooperate in space

WASHINGTON (Reuters) — President Kennedy said today his administration will explore promptly "all possible areas of co-operation with the Soviet Union and other nations."

He made this statement in personally delivering to a joint session of Congress his first State of The Union message.

"Specifically," he said, "I now invite all nations—including the Soviet Union—to join with us in developing a weather prediction program, in a new communications satellite program and in preparing for probing the distant planets of Mars and Venus, probes which may some day unlock the deepest secrets of the universe."

The president told the congressmen:

"I speak today in an hour of national peril and national opportunity."

"Before my term has ended we shall have to test anew whether a nation organized and governed such as ours can endure. The outcome is by no means certain. The answers are by no means clear. All of us together—this administration, this congress, this nation—must forge those answers."

Kennedy said the United States' greatest challenge is still the world that lay beyond the cold war, and the first great obstacle is "still our relations with the Soviet Union and Communist China."

"We must never be lulled into believing that either power has yielded its ambitious for world domination — ambitions which they forcefully re-stated only a short time ago."

To meet the challenges, the U.S. must re-examine and revise its "whole arsenal of tools: Military, economic and political."

"First, we must strengthen our military tools." He said he had instructed the secretary of defence, Robert McNamara, to reappraise the entire American defence strategy; had directed prompt action to increase the nation's airlift capacity; had directed prompt action to step up the Polaris submarine program; and had also directed prompt action to accelerate the entire missile program.

The nation must also improve its economic tools, Kennedy said.

Nuclear explosion effects illustrated

The frightening facts related to a possible nuclear explosion within 125 miles of Sherbrooke were told Sunday at the Belvedere Street Armoury, during exercise Surtan.

Militia officers and Warrant Officers from throughout the region, Sherbrooke city officials, members of the local police and fire department, and service club representatives witnessed the four hour demonstration.

Federal building for Magog

Rene Letourneau, M.P. for Stanstead, announced today that he has been informed by the Honorable David J. Walker, Minister of Public Works, that construction is expected to commence this year on a Federal Building at Magog.

It is estimated that the building will cost about $180,000 with $95,000 for the first stage of the work being allocated in the 1961-62 estimates which have now been tabled in the House of Commons.

The new building will provide 7,570 square feet of floor space and will accommodate the local units of the Post Office Department, Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of National Revenue. The site for the building is on the town-owned property at the corner of Main and Sherbrooke Streets.

The 1961-62 estimates also include $150,000 for the completion of the Customs and Immigration Building at Rock Island.

Total cost of the building will be about $200,000 of which $50,000 was spent during the past year.

Inquest set in fire deaths

A coroner's inquest into the Christmas-night fire deaths of two young daughters of Fernand Bresse, Arthur Lane, will be held February 2 at the municipal police station, district coroner Dr. Louis Gagnon said Monday.

Fire causes light damage

Fire Saturday night caused light damage in the apartment homes of Mrs. R. Lepine and Mrs. Anna Ouimet, 104 Sanborn Street, near Wellington Street, fire department officials reported.

The outbreak, apparently caused by a short circuit, began in the walls of the two apartments and lasted for about one hour.

Four fire trucks, directed by Lts. Francois Boudreau and Eudore Provost, were used to fight the flames.

Fireworks start off Cowansville Carnival

By PAT BOUGIE (Record Staff Reporter)

COWANSVILLE — Flames jutted from the roof-top of the Maurice Hotel Friday evening and the Cowansville firemen stood by and watched the spectacle with several hundred other town residents.

Spectators blocked their ears against the deafening roar of explosions from the third floor of the hotel. Small children watched agog as the multicolored array unfolded before their eyes.

Fire?—yes. Tragedy?—no. It was all done in a spirit of gaiety as part of the Cowansville Winter Carnival sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The activity will continue for two weeks and will include sport events of all kinds, receptions and dinners.

Mayor Roland Desourdy Friday evening, officially read the proclamation that sent the Carnival off to a red hot start.

A bonfire on the roof of the Maurice Hotel was ignited immediately after the reading of the proclamation while fire crackers and a fireworks display originated from the windows of the third floor of the building.

Cowansville fire department watched the spectacle that lit up Main Street.

Sunday, 10 a.m., a Mass at the Sweetburg Church was held to bless the skis of Mount Sutton skiers. A "Canadier" dinner at the Yamaska Hotel followed, after which an impressive group watched a broomball game at the St. Leon School rink between the Upper and Lower Towns.

Sunday afternoon, a Giant Slalom for men and women, seniors and juniors was held at Mount Sutton.

The next activity will be held Tuesday, January 31 starting at 7 p.m. when a sleigh ride will leave from the Town Hall.

There will be a dance at the Yamaska Hotel after the ride.

World-famed pianist Brailowsky to give concert here tomorrow

The Community Concerts Association is once again offering the best in the world of music Tuesday, at the Grand Theatre when famed pianist, Alexander Brailowsky will play before Sherbrooke subscribers.

Alexander Brailowsky is the reigning disciple of those who regard the pianoforte recital as one of music's supreme experiences.

Now in the prime of his achievement, he bridges the gap to the days of Liszt and Chopin, whose last pupil he was and Busoni, the other master with whom he worked.

The Brailowsky career is studied with exploits. His Chopin marathon at Carnegie Hall in which he performed the life work of the Polish master in six concerts broke box-office records.

This feat was repeated during the past season for the 150th Anniversary of Chopin's birth, in both Paris and Brussels with hundreds of music-lovers turned away from the box-office in the French capital. Cycles of three concerts each were also schedule in Vienna and Munich with similar triumphs.

These projects were only part of Brailowsky's touring activities this past season, which took him to thirteen countries, including Israel, Yugoslavia, Italy and Austria.

The pianist returns to North America for a series of twenty-three concerts including performances as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra in Philadelphia and New York, and a series of Chopin recitals in Toronto, Montreal and his own traditional Carnegie Hall recital.

Here, in Sherbrooke, Mr. Brailowsky will play selections by Beethoven, Ravel, Debussy, Faure, Liszt, Bach-Busoni, Scarlatti, and Chopin.

Noted Canadian art critic lashes out

Cities 'disgrace to our affluence'; education leaves the eye 'illiterate'

Canadian cities are a disgrace to the affluence of our country, a noted Canadian critic and former director of the National Gallery in Ottawa, told a large audience at Bishop's University Friday night.

Our suburbs reflect an insensitivity to environment as well as galloping materialism, Alan Jarvis declared. Mr. Jarvis now edits the magazine Canadian Art and writes a widely read column.

Mr. Jarvis bemoaned the fact that schools and universities teach people to read great Shakespeare and hear great music, but that the eye is left illiterate.

Art, like sex, must be faced fearlessly and frequently, Mr. Jarvis went on to say. Children are brought up on "bunny art" and thus a facet of their personality is being scandalously neglected, he claimed.

Art, according to Mr. Jarvis, is primarily expression. "The primary purpose of the artist is not to communicate a preconceived message. Rather he is like the Irishman who said, 'How do I know what I think till I hear what I say?'" blind frenzy become articulate. The artist is essentially trying to communicate to himself and thence to us."

"Art," he continued, "is commotion become emotion.

A prime example of commotion translated into emotion is Rembrandt's jolting portrait of a flayed ox, Mr. Jarvis said. Obviously, he said, art is not necessarily concerned with beauty.

Mr. Jarvis concluded with some stiff words concerning Ottawa's public buildings, which are characterized, he felt by "aesthetic anemia." "Everything in the capital city must be monumental," he said. "Personally, I feel it's all a monumental bore."

The Jarvis solution: "Slip covers for Ottawa's buildings - with zippers for the front doors."

Negligence trial opens

Normand Ruel, 30, of Sherbrooke, charged with criminal negligence in the death of Fernand "Mike" Seminaro, killed last summer, in a traffic accident, will appear for trial Tuesday at a session of the 1961 Assizes in the Sherbrooke Court House.

Ruel has been out on bail since last August when a coroner's jury found him criminally responsible for Seminaro's death.

Ruel was the driver of a car in which Seminaro and another passenger, Richard Monfette, also of Sherbrooke, were riding when they collided with another vehicle near a motel on the outskirts of the city, on the Montreal highway.

Ruel and Monfette received minor injuries.

Elderly men found dead

Two elderly men, one living in East Angus, one in Sherbrooke, were found dead in their homes last week, district coroner Dr. Louis Gagnon reported Monday.

The body of Elzear Gendron, 80, 55 Cathedral Street, Sherbrooke, was found by two acquaintances Thursday night.

Body of the East Angus man, Jim Doherty, 70, was found by a neighbor Friday morning.

Both men died from natural causes and both had been dead for more than 24 hours, according to Dr. Gagnon.

2 automobiles stolen in city

Two automobiles, valued at more than $10,000, were stolen on Depot Street between 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon, Sherbrooke municipal police reported Monday.

One of the cars, a new model, was the property of a local automobile dealer. The other is the property of Josephat Beaudoin, 116 Wellington Street, South.

Beaudoin's car was recovered in Magog early Sunday morning.

Survival is everyone's concern. Officers of the 9 Militia Group, Sherbrooke city officials, police and fire department personnel and organization representatives were told Sunday at Exercise Surtan, held in the Belvedere Street Armoury.

A huge floor model in miniature showed the most likely results of a nuclear explosion in the vicinity of Montreal, and outlined the problems people in the Eastern Townships would be faced with. The main difficulties would be transportation, communications, caring for refugees and rescuing victims of the blast area.

The exercise was sponsored by Militia Group Headquarters, and produced by the Sherbrooke sector "I-Staff" of Quebec Command, commanded by Capt. R. Durand, S/Sgt. R. Murtagh was responsible for originating the demonstration, and was the principal lecturer.

Major L. W. Greenland, former commander of the old 35th Battery in Sherbrooke, and noted veteran of the first World War, passed away Saturday evening in St. Petersburg, Florida, where he was residing.

Revive old favorite at Lennoxville

In producing 'The Middle Watch' next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, St. George's Players of Lennoxville will be reviving a comedy of the Royal Navy which proved a great success with the former St. George's Players of nearly 30 years ago.

Arthur Speid, producer of the current play, started in the role of the Admiral in the former production, a role now being handled by Lyman Tomkins, Bursar of Bishop's University.

The comedy role of Marine Ogg, which proved a hit for Stewart Messenger in the earlier play, is now filled by the Rev. John Anido, while Ron Owen of the B.C.S. staff and a leading performer in recent plays such as Hay Fever and See How They Run, is playing the Captain.

Practising spit 'n' polish rules, said, "Where there's a will, there's a way." If a serviceman is determined to advance and realize full advantage from his service, he is given every opportunity. The results depend entirely on his ability.

Let's salute a man from behind the scenes, Sgt. Joe Riendeau of The Sherbrooke Regiment, RCAC. Week in and week out, Sgt. Riendeau fulfills his responsibility in the transport section of his unit. One of his main duties is the unit band's transportation needs, and he is most faithful to the group.

Government aid to farm housing

Another cold snap has caused a wave of residential fires in the Eastern Townships, especially in the rural areas. Fortunately there has been little or no loss of life in the latest series of outbreaks, but the number of narrow escapes recorded stresses the need for a tightening up of the fire prevention legislation.

After each blaze, especially those involving loss of life, public protests are heard against the continuance of conditions which encourage the outbreak of fire. But the plea of the municipal authorities is that the owners or occupants of the gutted properties were breaking no law, that there was no legislation which would permit the municipality to declare uninhabitable a dwelling which did not come up to a minimum standard of safety.

Unfortunately efforts to provide a reasonable safety code find loudest opposition from the dwellers in these substandard properties themselves.

One does not need a long memory to recall the outcry which arose when efforts were made to force higher standards for certain properties in areas annexed to Sherbrooke. Claims were made that the city council was conspiring with heartless landlords in an effort to prevent the poor man from owning or building his own home.

Perhaps the situation could be remedied to a degree if government lending agencies, which now confine their activities to the cities and larger towns, were to expand their loan service to cover rural areas. Perhaps part of these loans might take the form of outright grants if the properties were below certain standards originally.

Subsidies are provided for land clearance, fencing, drainage, road improvement, and almost every facet of farm development in colonization areas. No obvious reason exists why assistance should not be given to improving farm homes.

Teenage smoking

The possible link between lung cancer and cigaret smoking is still a controversial one, but the Canadian Cancer Society, doubtless working on the premise that it is better to be safe than sorry, has announced that it is beginning a concerted attack on teenage smoking.

A specially-produced pamphlet entitled To Smoke or Not To Smoke will be distributed throughout the province with the permission of school authorities. A 15-minute filmstrip and companion recording will also be made available to schools.

The program is designed to make teenagers aware of findings to date on the lung cancer-cigaret debate.

The pamphlet, for example, points out that five times as many men as women die from lung cancer, and that at least 18 independent studies in five countries during the past few years indicate that "those two smoke many cigarets have a greater susceptibility to lung cancer."

Children in misery and want

"The work of the Save the Children Fund will never be finished until we create a Kingdom of Heaven on earth."

This striking statement by British novelist Philip Gibbs sums up the role of an agency which continues to tackle one of the most tragic problems of our time - the helping of children who are in misery and want.

Last year Canadians shared in this world-wide work by contributing $208,732.56 in cash and clothing.

The money was spent on food, drugs, medical care, milk, blankets, pabulum and clothing. It helped equip and maintain nurseries in Italy, in

According to a release from the Cancer Society, no part of the program categorically draws a cause-effect conclusion.

But, the Society says, "the Canadian Cancer Society believes that you (the teenager) should be made aware of the possible risks involved and in particular, that those of teenage who are deciding whether or not to smoke should know the facts before indulging in a habit that is hard to break and that may bear with it the danger of a serious and often fatal disease."

This is fair enough. If some day it is proved that cigaret smoking causes lung cancer, then those teenagers who heeded the campaign will have been saved from a dreadful scourge.

And if this is not proved - even if there is shown to be no real relationship - those same people have lost nothing of consequence.

In short, the campaign cannot fail to be beneficial.

Greece, in Korea and in Hong Kong. It also helped provide emergency help to children in Peru, Agadir, Morocco, Uruguay, Mexico, Chile and Japan.

But this work is a continuing one and more money will be needed to combat the miseries that persist and the new one that will arise during 1961.

To this end a national fund-raising campaign is being conducted starting Feb. 1 and ending on Feb. 15.

Donations to aid this necessary and worthwhile work should be sent to the Quebec Committee, Canadian Save the Children Fund, Room 310, 1405 Bishop street, Montreal 25.

New US dollar curb in offing

By HAROLD MORRISON
 Canadian Press Staff Writer
 President John Kennedy likely will move shortly to propose new curbs against United States dollar expenditures abroad. Such restrictive actions might have some influence on the growth of Canadian trade and trade of other major exporters. The mood in which he is operating as he takes hold of the new administration is one of presenting a tougher front in the battle to end the drain on American gold stockpiles.

Hope productivity Council to aid problem areas

 OTTAWA (CP)—The government hopes that when the new productivity council is set up at the national level it will breathe new life and more stability into local organizations seeking to develop problem areas of Canada.

tion to serve is one of the best-kept secrets in Ottawa. There has been no press speculation on the list.

Establishment of the 25-member council was approved by Parliament before Christmas and the government has been recruiting members. So far, however, a trade department official said, the list lacks a candidate for chairman.

Until the council is formally constituted, its policy remains undetermined, but an official working on plans to be submitted to the council said there are two major lines of attack.

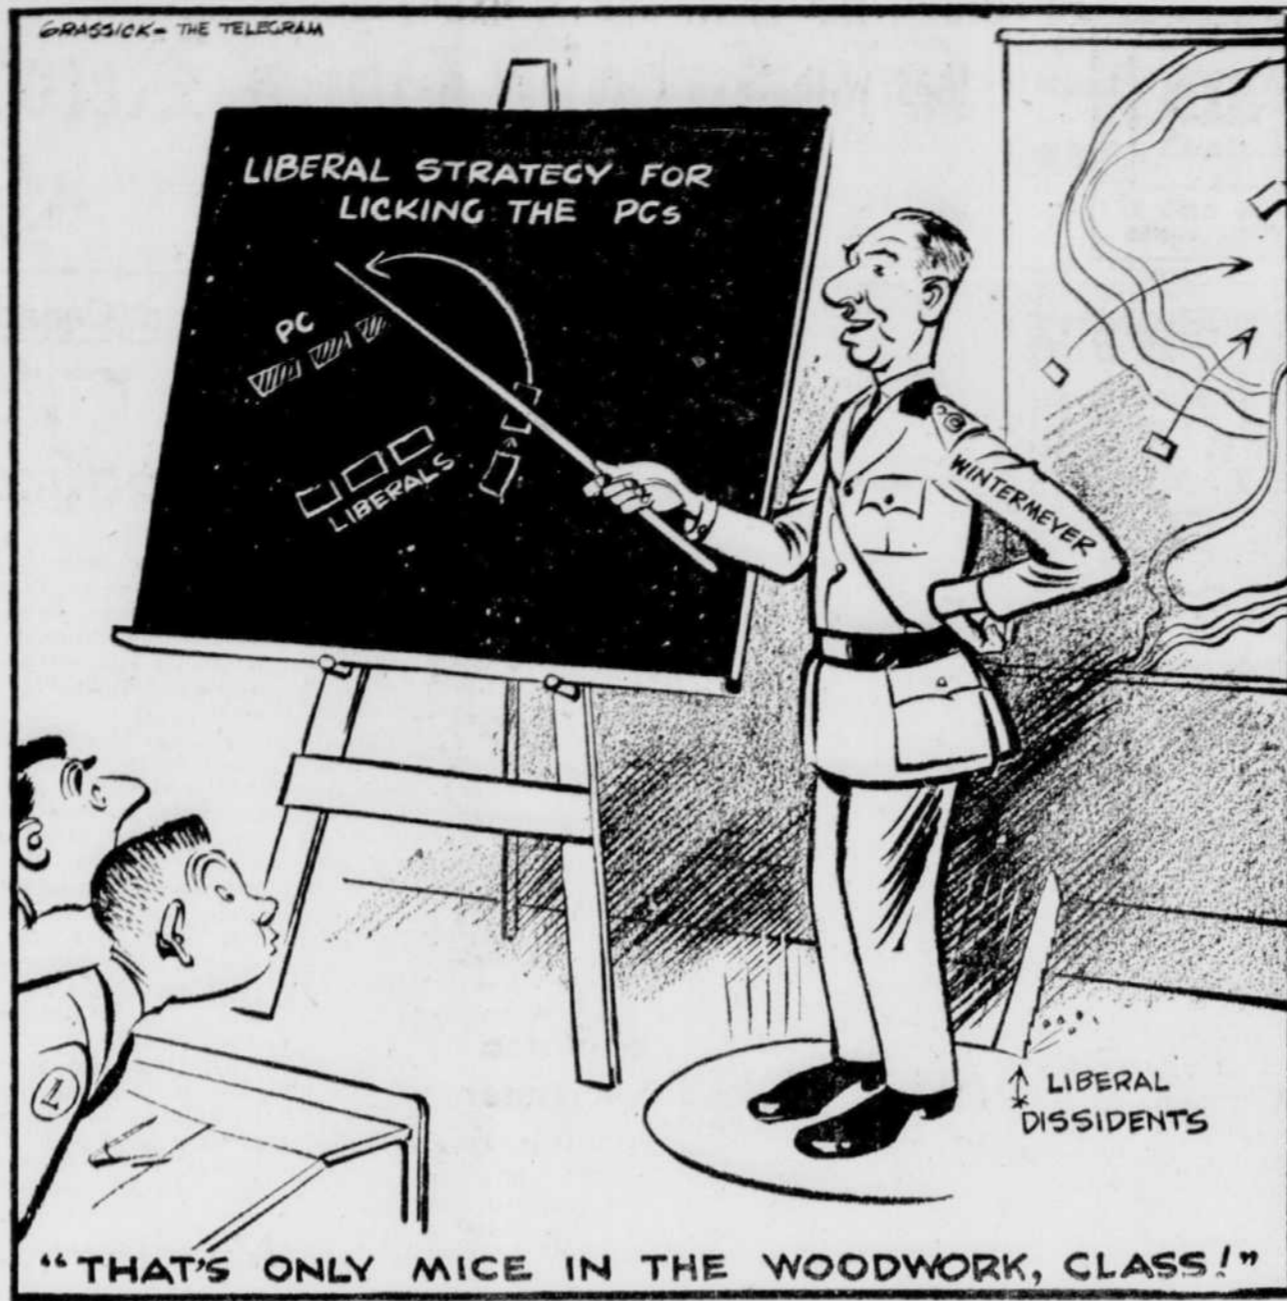

One is in connection with regional development associations which, for the most part, have been financed by local municipalities in various parts of the country.

The national productivity council probably will try to work through provincial governments with the local development agencies, giving them leadership, guidance and stability, the official said.

Another line of planning is to make the national industrial design council, which recently was transferred to Trade Minister Hees' department from the National Gallery, a more effective instrument to encourage Canadian industrial development.

Currently the United States shows a deficit in its international tourist account; more tourist dollars go out of the country than come in. Some of the American tourist dollars come into Canada and are turned into luggage, blankets, china, silver and other items brought back into American homes. A reduction in the value of tax-free entry of tourist goods in the United States could have some impact on Canadian tourist trade.

New Party leadership disputed

By ALAN DONNELLY
 Canadian Press Staff Writer
 OTTAWA (CP)—A simmering dispute over leadership of the proposed New Party welled into open disagreement Friday at a press conference called to announce the latest steps taken toward the party's birth.

Biggest controversy was over the intentions of a man who wasn't there: Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan.

CCF Leader Hazen Argue, an avowed candidate for leadership at the party's founding convention here next summer, said he feels the premier "is not available."

Contradicting him were Stanley Knowles, chairman of the New Party's national committee, and Davis Lewis of Toronto, national CCF president. These two—both supporters of Mr. Douglas for leader—said they are convinced the premier will agree to run.

Mr. Argue said there is widespread opinion in Saskatchewan and among union supporters of the New Party that Premier Douglas "can make his best contribution in Saskatchewan."

Mr. Lewis said the premier will make his position clear in a month or so.

The five-day founding convention of the New Party being formed by the CCF and Canadian Labor Congress will be held in Ottawa July 31 to Aug. 4.

CLC President Claude Jodoin told the press conference that Premier Douglas will get support from farm groups and the trade union movement, "and that goes for other people, including the leader of the CCF party."

Asked for his personal preferences that countries with discriminatory import curbs against North American goods be urged to reduce or drop these curbs altogether. Any action along these lines could have some benefit for Canada.

It also recommends continuation of steps to discourage American military expenditures in foreign countries; pressure on West Germany and other countries to carry a bigger share of Western military costs and removal of tax incentives which might encourage private American capital investment in the industrially developed countries.

In his first press conference Wednesday night he made clear he considers maintenance of the strength of the American dollar "a most serious problem."

Within a few weeks he will make proposals to Congress on ways to end the continuing pressure on declining American gold reserves.

What Kennedy has in mind is still in the realm of speculation, but he had before him a report recommending, among other things, reduction of the amount of tax-free goods American tourists can bring home with them. The current maximum is $500 every six months.

Here's fuel for the battle of the sexes. Ounce for ounce, men have more brains than women. This is because men are bigger than women. Just as their hands, feet and shoulders are bigger, so are men's heads and brains. When the proportion of total body weight is compared to the amount of brains, women come out ahead. Their ratio of brains to body is higher than men's.

Ghost towns in U.S. problem for Kennedy

By NATE POLOWETZKY
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Ghost towns with decaying homes and hungry children... Empty mines and idle steel plants... Long lines of grim men collecting unemployment payments and fruitlessly seeking jobs.

These are scenes today in many parts of the United States, especially in the area stretching down from New England, through some of the middle Atlantic states, and into parts of the Midwest.

They are the "depressed" areas, where an economic blight has sat for some years, reviving memories of the worst of the depression days of the 1930s.

The areas improve not at all, or only a little, as U.S. economic health gets better, but get worse in times of mildest recession.

President Kennedy has given top priority to legislation aimed at curing the illness.

A Senate bill by Illinois' economist - senator Paul Douglas calls for government loans and grants to build new plants in industrial and rural areas and aid in the retraining of workers to qualify them for new jobs.

There are many leaders who look upon federal aid only as a temporary help.

The depressed areas are part of an economic picture which sees the United States in a recession, with 4,500,000 persons unemployed and the figure likely to rise by 1,000,000 in another month or two.

Dr. Ralph Robey, economic advisor of the National Association of Manufacturers, believes one of the reasons for the dip is the "profit squeeze."

"The fact that business profits have shown no growth at all for a decade undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the present lack of buoyancy in our economy," he said.

Most economists now predict a definite business pickup for at least the latter part of the year.

But the outlook is still gloomy for the depressed areas.

According to the labor department there are some 95 major and smaller such areas. Douglas estimates that some 15,000,000 people live in these sections and approximately 600,000 of them are unemployed. This may be a conservative estimate.

The unemployment rate in these areas averages 12 per cent of the civilian labor force—the national figure is 6.4—while in some sections it goes as high as 25 per cent or more.

 (Windsor Star)

Disappearance of the horse from Canadian farms is one reason why Canada has so much farm surplus. At least that's what Dr. H. L. Patterson of the farm economics branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture believes.

Dr. Patterson says that since 1941 the farm horse population has decreased by 2,000,000. If these same horses were around today, they would consume crops from 10,000,000 acres.

Anybody want to go back to the horse and buggy days?

THE CEREMONIAL HAT
 (Ottawa Journal)

We have seen so many pictures of Mr. Kennedy without a hat that when we saw him wearing a silk hat at the presidential ceremonies there seemed to be something queer about him. In fact he himself appeared to think there was something funny about his attire because he was laughing fit to kill himself.

The silk hat has disappeared from a gentleman's haberdashery. It originated in Italy some 200 years ago and spread to England where all men belonging to society circles wore one in business, professional and social life. Gentlemen rode to hounds wearing top hats (and do still as a matter of tradition) and "gentlemen" cricketers who were unpaid, also wore top hats. When they managed to run while wearing a silk hat we do not know, unless they jammed it well down over their ears. The boys who go to Eton, England's most posh preparatory school traditionally wear top hats to distinguish them as little gentlemen.

Except on the most ceremonial occasions, the silk hat has gone the way of most Victorian relics. When the Governor-General paid his visit to St. Thomas, it was food that families get. What has caused the situation? Primarily it seems due to economies based on single industries—steel, mining, autos, textiles.

Automation, without hurting production—in fact, increasing it—has thrown tens of thousands of men out of work in these industries.

Coal mine operation has also been hit by foreign oil, loss of some overseas markets, the changeover to gas and oil heating by homes, and the dieselization of the railroads. Many mines have become exhausted, too. Ghost towns dot the West Virginia fields.

The change in the makeup of defence contracts to such items as rockets and missiles has cut into Michigan's economy. So has the shutdown of some auto plants and the decentralization of the industry.

Steel has felt the pinch of the recession, due in some degree to foreign competition and competition from new construction materials. Automation has long been cutting employment in the New England textile areas which have also suffered from the flight of some plants to cheaper labor areas, foreign imports, and competition from new products, such as synthetic fibres.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

BIDDER MUST KNOW PARTNER

The South hand is taken from a new book by-olde time bridge expert, Sam Fry, with the ambitious title, "How to Win at Bridge with Any Partner." The book won't quite live up to its title, but it does stress the all-important point that you must play with your partner all the time.

I have filled in the other three hands myself and, as you can see, six hearts is a lay down. South ruffs the opening club lead; draws trumps with three leads and plays two spades and a diamond. West makes his ace but that is all.

Sam points out that South's bid of five clubs is the way to get to the slam, but before he bids it South had better be sure that North will understand the bid. If North is going to think that South is showing club support, North is likely to pass at five clubs and away will go slam, game, rubber and partnership.

Theoretically, South's five club bid does show a club void. South would have redoubled two clubs if he had clubs. Practically, it is a matter of just what North is going to think about it.

Incidentally, South's five clubs is a typical Fry bid. Most players would be happy to settle for game with the South hand, but in 30 years that I have played with him, Sam has been consistently one of our most aggressive bidders.

 customary for the Mayor to wear a tall hat, and we have known quite a scurrying around to find some citizen who could lend one. Some pretty musty looking specimens were unearthed from the attics.

Being President will not make much difference to Mr. Kennedy's no hat habit. We have noted also that Prince Philip does not wear a silk hat when he can avoid it.

Lioness is dead

NAIROBI, Kenya (Reuters)—Kenya's game department Friday announced the death of Elsa, a lioness made world-famous in Joy Adamson's best-selling book Born Free. The novel tells how Mrs. Adamson, wife of a Kenya game warden, brought up Elsa as a pet and gave her the freedom to return to the jungle when she grew up.

An officer said they apparently hit the main enemy force arrayed along the frozen western Korean front. One year ago tomorrow President Truman gave a momentous order to the United States atomic energy commission: get to work on the hydrogen bomb.

Continued from Page 1. Polish funds on projects of peace that will demonstrate our abiding friendship for the people of Poland. Kennedy said he had taken steps to co-ordinate and expand the United Nations' disarmament effort. 'The deadly arms race, and the huge resources it absorbs, has a too long overshadowed all else we do. We must prevent that arms race from spreading to new nations, to new nuclear powers and to the reaches of outer space. Kennedy also declared: 'We must never forget our hopes for the ultimate freedom and welfare of the Eastern Europe peoples. 'In order to be prepared to help re-establish historic ties of friendship, I am asking the Congress for increased discretion to use economic tools in this area whenever this is found to be clearly in the national interest. 'Meanwhile I hope to explore with the Polish government the possibility of using our frozen dollar price of gold from $35 an ounce. 'This administration will not distort the value of the dollar in any fashion. That is a pledge. 'Prudence and good sense do require, however, that new steps be taken to ease the payments deficit and prevent a gold crisis. A series of executive orders, legislative requests and co-operative efforts with Allies will begin immediately with the aim of attracting foreign investment and travel to the U.S., promoting American exports, curbing tax and customs loopholes and 'sharing with our Allies all efforts to provide for the common defence of the free world and the hopes for growth of the less developed lands. 'While the current deficit basis, ways will be found to ease our dollar outlays abroad without placing the full burden on the families of men whom we have asked to serve our colors overseas. 'We need not—and we shall not—take any action to increase the dollar price of gold from $35 an ounce. 'This administration will not distort the value of the dollar in any fashion. That is a pledge. Neckline is focal point of your chic look

Someone once said that "what counted most with a woman's looks was what showed above the table." That might have been true in Lillian Russell's day — and before the cocktail party was invented. Today, it is the whole of a woman from the newest in coiffures to the most pointed of toes that is seen. When dining, playing bridge or just sitting, however, the neck, the face, hair, and hands become of utmost importance. And, the neckline is often the focal point.

One of the necklines sketched, above, will flatter you. A—Low, open line. B—Shaped neckline. C—Pointed collar neckline. D—Wide collar effect. E—The tie-type neckline.

Women's Sphere

All of us know that a woman's make-up should be right for her and everyone realizes the importance of well-cared-for hands. But, it is surprising how many women neglect to find their most becoming necklines.

Here are five necklines to flatter you:

Low, Open Neckline
If your shoulders are lovely, wear an off-the-shoulder dress. It is best to wear no jewelry or one strand of pearls only. Avoid heavy necklaces.

Pointed Collar
A pointed collar conceals a thin bust line and is most becoming.

Shaped Neckline
If your neck is bony, choose a neckline to cover it. A shaped neckline like the one shown above gives desired concealment, and a contrasting lining of the same fabric can brighten it.

Wide Collar
A wider collar like the one above will cover a bad shoulder line. And one or more strands of beads or pearls will do wonders for the neckline.

Tie Neckline
A tie neckline is always attractive. It is especially flattering when the soft collar and tie are made of chiffon. This you know will bring out the demure look is decidedly becoming to a woman with a thin neck.

Next time you select a pattern, choose one with a flattering neckline as well as good body lines for you. Or create a neckline, preferably in muslin, that you know will bring out your best features.

Using the muslin for the pattern, pin it to the dress pattern tissue — center front and shoulder lines meeting. Then, cut the fabric to carry out the new line. Most of all, be sure you find a neckline that is flattering to you.

Dear Mrs. Picken: When a zipper breaks, what should I do? — Mrs. E. G. F.

Dear Mrs. E. G. F.: Buy a new one in the same color and length. Carefully — yes, very carefully, rip the old one out, using a ripper or very sharp pointed scissors so you will not harm the fabric when removing the stitches. Do not stretch the opening. Carefully baste the new zipper in, placing it exactly as the old one was. Stitch with matching thread.

ST. PATRICK MISSION CIRCLE
St. Patrick Mission Circle held its first meeting of 1961 recently.

Mrs. M. Farrell thanked those who had so generously given their time to sell tickets at the Shopping Centre on the dolls which were raffled.

Tentative plans were made for the Easter Tea which will take place on Saturday, April 8th. It was also decided to hold a food sale at Steinberg's store on March 16. A rummage sale was also planned to take place the last week of April.

Letters were read from various missionaries thanking the Circle for gifts of money, food and clothing, which were sent at Christmas.

The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Misses Helen Slattery and Elizabeth Roy.

XI BETA CHAPTER
A meeting of Xi Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held recently with the president, Mrs. Gerald Spafford, in the chair. Reports were given by the chairmen of the various committees. The forthcoming Art Show was discussed and a tentative date was set. The president read a letter from International telling of further activities of the Beta Sigma Phi Exemplar project, "Literacy Village" in India.

The members of Epsilon Chapter then joined the meeting and the program chairman, Mrs. P. Beaudry, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Kenneth Willis, of the staff of Sherbrooke High School, who spoke on "Education at the High School Level." This interesting talk was followed by a discussion period during which "Problems of Education" were discussed. The speaker was thanked by Mrs. Fred White.

Refreshments were then served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be held February 6th at the home of Mrs. Guy Blanchette, Quebec Street.

Unusual shopping list takes world tour to fill

OTTAWA (CP) — A woman who has one of the world's most unusual shopping lists starts her eighth world tour Feb. 4 to see where the small contributions of Canadians can do most to ease human suffering.

Dr. Lotta Hirschman, red-haired executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee, makes her 109-day trip with the financial assurance that all 1961 commitments on her shopping list can be met.

In a pre-Christmas campaign, the all-Canadian relief agency founded by the former teacher raised through small donations $254,000 — the largest sum in 15 years of operation. The committee devotes 85 per cent of its finances to children, supporting 30 orphanages in Korea, Hong Kong, India, Italy and France. The rest goes to self-help programs for diseased and poverty-stricken adults.

Some 1,060 children now are supported by Canadian foster parents in the committee-run orphanages, each paying $7 a month for the care and rehabilitation of a child.

PAY TUITIONS
A total of 607 children are cared for in seven Korean homes and the committee pays the tuition of another 700 Korean children. While Korea gets the largest share of proceeds, the greatest number of projects — including 18 children's homes — is in India.

"I believe that India is the country where Canadian funds will go farthest," says Dr. Hirschman.

As an example of her shopping projects, she bought last year a jeep a bulance for India, $2,240 worth of physiotherapy equipment for a disabled children's home in Korea, and 9,000 pounds of sugar and macaroni for an orphanage at Sevres, France.

Supplies are also donated. Senior citizens made baby garments from scraps of wool to help in the "layette lift" that sent 25,000 layettes to Arab refugee babies. The Canadian government provided 500,000 pounds of canned pork from surplus stocks. A sewing machine was donated in Galt, Ont.

Altogether gifts valued at $503,653, mostly food and clothing, were shipped to destitute areas last year. Free shipping helped keep the committee's operating costs at a minimum.

Much imagination goes into the fund-raising by committee members from St. John's, Nfld., to Victoria, B.C.

Vegetable platter is mealtime boon
Perfectly seasoned and cooked vegetables, in contrasting colors, served together on a large platter, give a lift to any meal. In these recipes, new, excellently flavored corn oil margarine is used.

GREEN SNAP BEANS
(Makes 4 servings)
1 pound green snap beans, 2 tablespoons corn oil margarine, water, ½ teaspoon salt.
Select fresh crisp beans. Wash, remove strings and ends. Cut into 1-inch pieces or leave whole as preferred. Cook covered in a small amount of water 20 to 30 minutes. Add margarine and toss to dress beans lightly. NOTE: For frozen beans cook according to package directions and toss with margarine to season.

BOILED TOMATOES
Wash and dry tomatoes. Slice in half. Sprinkle tops of each half with 1 teaspoon brown sugar and 1 teaspoon dry bread crumbs. Dot with corn oil margarine. Place on broiler rack 5 inches from heat. Broil until tomatoes are tender and lightly browned, about 10 minutes.

BAKED STUFFED POTATOES
Wash, then dry, unpeeled baking potatoes. Rub well with margarine. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) until tender, about 45 minutes. Cut slice from top of each potato carefully scoop out potatoes and mash. For each potato add 1 tablespoon margarine, 1 tablespoon skim milk, 1 teaspoon minced chives or a little grated onion and salt and pepper to taste. Beat until fluffy. Pile mixture lightly into potato shells. Brush tops with melted margarine and place under broiler just until lightly browned. NOTE: If a soft skin is desired, wrap potatoes in aluminum foil before baking.

Que-Sherbrooke Presbytery WA meets in L'ville

A full executive meeting of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery Woman's Association was held in the Ladies' Parlor of the Lennoxville United Church, with the president, Mrs. Nelson Lothrop, conducting the devotional period.

Mrs. A. Noble, treasurer, gave an encouraging financial report. Out of 79 W.A. groups in this Presbytery, 42 are registered. Ways to encourage other associations to seek the benefits of belonging to the Presbytery W.A. were discussed.

Rev. R. G. Barr, chairman of Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery, spoke briefly on the role that the minister play in assisting the members to understand the meaning and scope of the new organization, the United Church Women.

Mrs. Mackie Fuller, in reporting that only 18 histories had been received, stated that it was impossible to compile some histories as the records had been lost through fire, or were so indefinite that they were useless. She urged all secretaries to keep all minutes fully recorded.

The annual reports showed the varied role the W.A. plays both in church and community life. Particularly noteworthy is the amount of supply work done when new and good used clothing is collected for local and overseas use. It was also noted that many more W.A.'s were using programs at their meetings.

Mrs. H. N. Burgess, Cornwall, Ont., president of the Montreal-Ottawa Conference W.A., is to be guest speaker at the annual meeting, date and place to be announced.

Reports of the financial standing of the Guild revealed it to be most satisfactory and reports of the various conveners showed a busy and successful year.

Archdeacon T. J. Matthews congratulated the members on their successful year and thanked them for their generous donations to the Endowment Fund, Wardens and Sunday School.

The new president, Mrs. R. Blake then took the chair to conduct a short business meeting. It was decided that Miss R. Crease, of Valleyfield, be made an honorary member of the Guild in recognition of the work she has done towards the doll table. A letter was sent to her to this effect. The date set for the annual rummage sale is April 15.

Paunchy? Control your munching

I was absolutely fascinated by the suggestions recently offered by a team of scientists to the man or woman who wants to lose weight. The scientific team which has made a study of eating habits (overheating habits, too, apparently) say that, psychologically, eating involves a whole chain of event or stimuli, usually performed in routine fashion. So the way to force yourself to eat less is to lengthen the chain of events.

And here, honest-to-goodness, are some suggested ways for taking longer to eat less:

- Go to the trouble of putting on some certain type of clothing before eating. (Maybe it would be a good idea to make pop get into his hunting clothes or his dinner jacket before sitting down to the table. And mama might choose for her eating costume a bathing suit in the winter and ski clothes in the summer. I guess that's the kind of thing they mean, don't you?)
- Holding forkfuls of food for a while between plate and mouth—and chewing food longer. (Well, for a fact, if you held hot food long enough it might not be worth eating when you did get around to it. And you could carry that idea of chewing food longer to the point where a mouthful would be a meal.)

• Eating specific foods in specific places in the house. Like spaghetti in a dark closet maybe? Or ice cream under the sun lamp? Or pizza in the parlor?

• Control the time of meals rigidly. (That's easy. Anyone who comes to dinner late goes to bed without his supper.)

• Keep food in relatively inaccessible places. (How about keeping butter in your bureau drawer and hiding that box of chocolates under the month's accumulated bills?)

There's one thing about this complicated system of dieting. Even if you don't lose weight, think of what interesting conversation it would provide.

Bishop's Cops Conference Curling Title

Bishop's curling team counted a big three points in the final end Friday to eke out a narrow 8-7 win over Sir George Williams and cop the championship of the Ottawa-St. Lawrence conference. The victory in Ottawa salvaged the sole bright spot in an otherwise dismal sporting weekend for Bishop's, which saw the basketballers drop a pair and the hockey team one.

Lennoxville's Glenn Way skipped his rink to the top in the inter-collegiate bonspiel. John Welch, Mike Beath and Paul Skory were Way's cohorts in the Bishop's win. Skip Mike Lavery guided the University's second rink to victory in the consolation event.

The final match was a see-saw battle that saw skip Way make a canny call in the ninth end, with Sir George ahead 6-5. He elected to give the Georgians one and retain last rock in the final end. The gamble paid off when the opposing skip missed his final stone and Bishop's counted three to win 8-7.

Carleton College placed second in the bonspiel. Others competing were Macdonald, Loyola, RMC and CMR.

The above photos were taken Saturday evening in Quebec City and show the finalists who met for the Provincial High School Curling Championship which was won by the Arvida High School when they defeated North Hatley in the special playoff. Three rinks finished deadlocked and Montreal's Town of Mount Royal with Arvida and North Hatley met. In the top photo, front left to right, M. Shock, Bill Landon, Ron Washburn and skip Andy Hrycko. Tourney Ends In Three-Way Tie, Arvida Downs Mount Royal And Hatley In Round-Robin Playdowns

QUEBEC (CP) — Andy Hrycko's Arvida rink piled up two big four-enders to defeat the North Hatley's Fred Knutson 12-7 and win the provincial high school curling championship.

The win was Arvida's seventh in nine starts against eight schoolboy rinks from all corners of the province.

Some 800 youngsters from 46 schools, using the facilities of six different clubs, competed for the championships.

The Lake St. John rink emerged from the regulation seven-round bonspiel in a three-way tie for first place with North Hatley and Montreal's Mount Royal High, skipped by John Hammond.

Arvida edged Montreal 7-5 Saturday night and maintained their winning streak Sunday, downing North Hatley 12-7.

The Lake St. John rink—last year's runner-up to Quebec—will represent the province in the Dominion finals, to be played Feb. 19-24 in Prince George, B.C.

North Hatley showed signs of coming back in the dying minutes of Sunday's game.

The Eastern Townships curlers scored two in the eighth and one in the ninth, after a measure was called for, but the comeback trail was too steep.

Big ends were typical of Arvida's play throughout the round-robin bonspiel. In Friday's game against the strong Malartic rink, Arvida won 11-7 although Malartic took seven of the ten ends. Two three-enders and a whopping five-point end gave the Lake St. John rink the match.

The championship had hardly been decided before the jubilant 17-year-old winners were on the telephone to relay the news home.

Score by ends of the championship match:
Arvida . . . 140 020 400 1-12
North Hatley 001 102 021- 7

Final standings (including playoffs):
Arvida Won Lost
North Hatley 7 2
Montreal 5 3
Malartic 4 3

Mike Brooks Paces St. Pats To 71-21 Win Over Stanstead College, Drops 33-Points Through Hoop

St. Pat's Senior basketball crew, led by big Mike Brooks who exploded for a 33 point performance, downed a spirited Stanstead College team 71-21 in an amical exhibition match played Friday afternoon at St. Pat's.

Top gun of the fray was Mike Brooks of St. Pat's, who connected for a total of 33 points. Coua was high scorer for the College with nine points.

St. Pat's quickly forged into an early first-quarter lead of 18-9, which they lengthened to 36-16 at the half mark. During the second half of the contest, the Irish ran away with the verdict, leading 49-18 at three-quarter time and winning 71-21.

The Stanstead boys were hard-fighting throughout, but were unable to cope with the superior passing, shooting, and rebounding of the Sherbrooke lads, especially the accuracy of Brooks.

Individual star of the game was ranga centerman Mike Wilcox, who demonstrated some slick ball-handling technique and left passing ability while tallying 13 points for Sherbrooke. Teammate Brooks, with Coua and Kint of Stanstead, also showed well.

St. Pat's currently hold down first position in the Interscholastic Basketball loop, and are gunning for an unprecedented third straight St. Francis Valley crown. To date, they have a 7-0 league record, while winning an exhibition match and losing one.

St. Pat's: Brooks (33), Wilcox (13), Mullin (8), Jones (8), Fabi (8), Jackson (3), Marois, Bessant, Total: 71.

Stanstead: Coua (9), Kint (8), Zimmermann (2), Howitt (1), Marquis (1), Mazaid, Potvin, Wilkie, Feldmann, Total: 21.

Russian Sets New Record In High-Jump
BOSTON (AP) — "That's a heckuva jump," John Thomas said when first informed of the fantastic seven-foot-four-inch leap turned in by Russian Valery Brumel.

"More power to him," the tall, 19-year-old Boston University junior said. Then he fell to musing.
"Brumel's only a little guy, just over six feet . . ." he said, and let the sentence tail off. "Well if he can do it, I don't see why I can't."

So he promptly turned in a seven-foot-three high jump as the feature of the 72nd running of the Boston A.A. games, raising by one-half inch the national indoor standard he set last season.
Brumel's leap, also indoors, was recorded just hours before Thomas' jump Saturday. Because of AAU regulations, neither will be considered for world records, since those are based only on outdoor performances. Thomas holds the mark at 7-3 1/4.
His reference to Brumel's height may have been significant. John, a lithe, six-foot-five, has maintained that a good jumper should be able to go about a foot over the top of his head.
Thomas and Brumel, also a 19-year-old, are scheduled for a face-to-face meeting in an indoor meet in New York later this week.

Leafs Tie Canadiens For NHL Leadership With Two Wins

Richmond, Magog, Asbestos Post Wins In St. Francis League, Miners Edge Paper Makers 4-1 In Close Duel

RICHMOND — Two goals by Roger "Pat" Desrosiers gave Richmond Braves a 4-2 win over Rock Island Jets in a regular fixture of the St. Francis Valley Hockey League before 550 fans here Sunday afternoon. Lampron and Houde got the others while L'Heureux and Beaudoin accounted for the goals for the Jets.

In the other tilt Magog Aces came up with a 5-3 win over Cookshire while the Miners of Asbestos knocked over the front-running Paper Makers of Windsor 4-1 in two closely fought fixtures.

The game was marked by a total of 14 penalties, including three majors and a misconduct. The first period was played at a fast pace with Braves having advantage of the play. Lampron opened the scoring for Braves at 11:26 on a rushing play with mates Roy and Maurice. Houde scored less than two minutes later on a slapshot from the blueline right after a face-off. He had a perfect view and his shot beat goalie R. Provencher who had no chance on it. Desrosiers got the first of two goals just 18 seconds later on a quick rush with Crack and Bergeron making the play.

Then L'Heureux put the Jets in the game on a shot straight on the agile Richmond goalie, Sawyer who played a very good game in the nets. He saved several times off rushes by the Jets. The second frame was scoreless but not without penalties. Eleven were dished out by referees Morehouse and Theriault with majors going to Houde and Langlois at the 15:22 mark. The boys mixed it up near the boards and started to go at each other before the officials broke it up. Houde got tagged with two five-minute majors, thus giving him an automatic ten-minute misconduct while Langlois took a onto first place and the fast minor and major. After that the game got a bit rougher with the teams playing three aside.

The other games see action Tuesday night with Braves travelling to Rock Island for their third meeting. Braves met the Jets December 18 and hung an 8-5 defeat on the Border boys, so this makes it two wins over the club. Bergeron's boys will try for their third victory over the Jets at the Border arena. Sunday, Jets were playing only two lines as some of their men were off sick. If they are ready for Tuesday's tilt, then the Richmond team will have to play a harder game in order to win.

The other games see Windsor at Magog and Asbestos at Cookshire. Windsor still holds duc while Langlois took a onto first place and the fast minor and major. After that the game got a bit rougher with the teams playing three aside.

SHS Blanks BCS Hurons 7-0 While BCS Algonquins Wallop St. Pats

STE. THERESE WINS
In the first period, A. Gaudette, and A. Roy tallied with Gaudette getting two and Roy one. R. Gaudette, and Lafontaine were credited with assists.

The second frame saw A. Gaudette and Martel each tallying one point with Pigeon and Roy getting assists. The final period saw Boutin complete scoring for the visitors on a pass from Pigeon while Bob Watson of Lennoxville scored twice unassisted for his team's only two goals.

Lennoxville: Taylor, Sample, Watson, Cathcart, Smith, Montgomery, Harrison, Saunders, Planché, Caswell, Lane, McLeod, Ward.

SHS BLANKS BCS HURONS
Led by Dennis Mills who tallied a hat-trick in goals, Sherbrooke High Bantams swept to a 7-0 victory over visiting BCS Hurons Saturday afternoon.

Along with Mills in scoring Havens — Matequilla Napoles, 1984; Havens, outpointed Quintero Valdez, 1984; Havens, 10.

Bishop's Cagers Drop Two Games Over Weekend

Bishop's senior basketball team ran afoul of fouls and better conditioning to emerge on the short end of two close scores over the weekend.

The 43-46 squeaker against Macdonald Friday toppled Gaiters from top spot in the Ottawa-St. Lawrence conference. Saturday afternoon's 49-44 loss to the University of Montreal was an exhibition, since the Carabins have withdrawn from the OSLIAA.

Friday night's hotly-contested affair with the Mac Aggies saw a total of 30 personal fouls called. The ones that hurt Gaiters most were the five called against tall centre Cliff Maclean, necessitating his retirement at the end of the third quarter.

With a clear height advantage, the Aggies went on to overcome a two-point deficit and tie the score, then sink two fouls shots to win. High scorer of the game was Macdonald's 6'5" center Art Gauley, who rang up 21 points. Saturday's game found Gaiters up against a well-conditioned U. of M. squad in a close encounter.

Bishop's led till the final minutes, when a sudden defensive letdown allowed eight unanswered points. Freshman John Hambly paced the Gaiter attack with 13 points. Close behind with an even dozen was team general Mike Caswell, playing with a guard to protect a broken nose suffered last week-end.

Johansson's Training Hits Top Pace

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Ingemar Johansson's training schedule moved into high gear today and the Swedish belter said he will be ready when he faces Floyd Patterson in the Miami Beach Convention Hall March 13.

"I know the mistakes I made the last time we met," Johansson said. "Naturally, Patterson knows them, too. I'm sure he will be looking for me to make them again, but I won't."

"How I'll correct them is my own secret. That is why I would like to work in privacy two days a week."

Johansson said his camp will be closed to press and public on Thursdays and Fridays each week.

ST. PATS WINS 10-0

In the first period, Hoyer fired in three goals for a hat-trick. Veat tallied one, and Adams dumped in a single point. Veat, Leblanc, Bell, and Hoyer were credited with assists.

In the second, Leblanc racked up two more points while Veat made it 8-0 for the visitors. Hoyer and Veat each picked up one assist.

The final frame saw Leblanc and Veat tie things up for St. Pats with single goals each while Greenland made an assist. There were no penalties called in the game.

Wings Rally To Tie Canadiens 3-3 While Hawks Battle To 1-1 Deadlock, Leafs Stop Hawks 2-1 And Rangers

Toronto's surging Maple Leafs are clinging to a share of first place in the National Hockey League today, partly fulfilling a prediction coach Punch Imlach has been reiterating all season.

Imlach has been saying that with "a few breaks" his Leafs can overtake Montreal Canadiens for the leadership. The Leafs' never far behind for the last several weeks, pulled up to the injury-riddled Canadiens during the week-end by winning twice—2-1 over Chicago Black Hawks on home ice Saturday and 4-1 over the Rangers at New York Sunday.

The Canadiens, meanwhile, were held to a pair of ties. They blew a two-goal lead against Detroit Red Wings in Montreal Saturday and were forced to settle for a 3-3 stand-off. Sunday they needed a late third period goal by Jean Beliveau to deadlock the Black Hawks 1-1 at Chicago.

Each team now has 62 points with the Habs having two games in hand.

WINGS DOWN BRUIES
In another weekend game, the Red Wings took an early lead and held it for a 3-1 triumph over the Bruins at Boston Sunday.

The Black Hawks remained in third place with 51 points although they were able to salvage only one point in two games. The Wings are fourth with 49, the Rangers fifth with 36 and the Bruins still are in the cellar with 32.

A power-play goal by captain George Armstrong midway through the third period gave the Leafs their win over the Black Hawks Saturday.

The goal, Armstrong's 12th of the season, broke up a tight game featured by some great goaltending by Leafs' Johnny Bower and Hawks' Glenn Hall. Rookie Bob Nevin scored Leafs' first goal after Ron Murphy had given the Hawks a 1-0 lead.

Old pro Red Kelly was the star of Sunday's win at New York. The 33-year-old veteran scored two goals in the second period.

Bert Olmstead, another veteran player, and defenceman Allan Stanley were the other Toronto scorers.

GETS FIRST GOAL
Floyd Smith got his first NHL goal for New York.

Gordie Howe fired two third-period goals—the second with only 25 seconds left—to give the Red Wings the against Canadiens Saturday.

Howe's late goal came while Beliveau took a pass from defenceman Jean-Guy Talbot and drilled a 15-footer into the right-hand corner of the net behind Hall.

The Canadiens were again without defenceman Doug Harvey and forward Bernie Geoffrion for both games.

Alex Delvecchio, Al Johnson and Norm Ullman scored Detroit's goals at Boston Sunday. Johnny Bucyk tallied for the Bruins.

There are no games scheduled until Wednesday when Chicago plays at New York. All teams will see action Thursday night. The Rangers are at Montreal, Toronto at Detroit and Chicago at Boston.

Ottawa University Posts 10-3 Win Bishop's Gaiters To Maintain Their Winning Streak, Cadieux Gets Five

Bishop's hockey Gaiters were flattened 10-3 Saturday by a steamrolling Ottawa University squad, but acquitted themselves more than nobly in defeat.

The powerful capital city puck-chasers, undefeated in Ottawa-St. Lawrence play and with no conquerors in sight, have already rolled over such strong teams as Loyola and CNR. Gaiters emerged from Saturday's game with the distinction of having scored more goals against Ottawa than any other team this year.

The Doctor Says

WATER RETENTION BY BODY MAY CAUSE PAINS, FEAR

"I am 38 years old," writes faithful Reader, "and, although my periods are regular, I sense soreness in my breasts and a pain in my lower right side about two weeks before they begin."
"I have had several physical examinations but the doctors tell me they don't find anything wrong. Recently the discomfort seems to be worse. Could this mean that I'm developing cancer of the breasts or womb?"
I think I can assure you, right unseen, that what you describe bears no relationship to cancer anywhere in the body. Indeed since you say elsewhere in your letter that you have had this complaint for several years, you may be sure you haven't cancer for, if you did, you probably not be here to ask the question.

Your difficulties are almost surely due to a common disturbance that occurs midway between periods. When, as in your case, the pain is located in the lower right side of the abdomen, it resembles an acute attack of appendicitis so closely that an operation may be required before a definite diagnosis can be established.

You can help your doctor relieve you of this recurrent discomfort by observing your weight, each morning, before you take breakfast. Since the condition is due to retention of water in your body tissues, you will probably note a sudden gain of two to five pounds before you feel any distress.

Now if you will make a little chart of your daily weight for a week or two and bring it to your doctor, he will be able to give you any one of several pills, now on the market, that will help to flush this water through your kidneys. By taking these pills, called diuretics, just before your expected weight gain, and for three or four days thereafter, you should almost surely obtain relief.

In a two-game encounter over the weekend Kitchener-Waterloo Beavers lengthened their third-place lead over fourth-place Kingston Frontenacs. Toronto's Bruce Kidd Breaks Two Records In Canadian Legion Meet WINNIPEG (CP) — Fleet young Bruce Kidd of Toronto broke the Canadian indoor two-mile mark Saturday as he turned in a thrilling performance at the second annual international meet of champions.

About 6,000 fans watched the afternoon and evening affair, sponsored by the Royal Canadian Legion. A total of 360 athletes entered, including stars from the United States, England and New Zealand.

The 17-year-old Kidd, a high school senior who won international acclaim earlier this month with a two-mile victory at Boston in 8:49.2, didn't need quite so much speed Saturday to romp home ahead of the field.

He grabbed the lead in the third lap of the 22-lap race and finished with 109 yards to spare, posting a time of 8:58.2. Don McEwen set the previous Canadian mark of 9:04 at Montreal in 1952. The world record is 8:34.2, set two weeks ago by Murray Halberg of New Zealand at Portland, Oregon.

Ron Wallingford of Toronto was second in Saturday's race, 10 seconds off Kidd's pace.

WINS MILE TOO
In the meet's final event, Kidd brought the crowd up cheering with a last-lap kick that gave him the one-mile victory in 4:12.1—24 seconds off the Canadian indoor record held jointly by Archie San Roman and Ron Gregory.

Jim Irons of Brampton, Ont., was second with 4:13.7. Kidd's effort shaved 1-10th of a second off the meet mark set last year by Dick Pond of Chicago.

Bill Crothers of Toronto chopped the Canadian 500-yard record to 57.8 seconds from the previous mark of 58 seconds, set by Bob McFarlane at Montreal in 1950. George Sheppard of Toronto was second in 59.4 seconds.

In field events, three records were cracked. Bob Reid of Vancouver made 14 feet in the pole vault for what officials described as an unofficial Canadian native record. The mark was good for second place behind Jim Graham of Oklahoma State, who made 14 feet, eight inches — four inches off the Canadian open record he set last year.

Jean Keenan of Winnipeg took the women's discus event with a toss of 130 feet, 3 1/2 inches — compared with the previous Canadian women's indoor mark of 128 feet, 9 1/2 inches, set here last year by Marie Depree of Camp Borden, Ont.

Bill Hanley of Milwaukee bettered the Canadian men's shot put mark by more than a foot with a heave of 50 feet, seven inches. The previous mark, also set here last year was 49 feet 6 1/2 inches by Ray Vanyo of North Dakota.

In Saturday night's games Cleveland squeezed past Buffalo 2-1, Hershey whipped Quebec 5-2 and Springfield eked out a 3-2 overtime decision over Providence.

McLaren also took a first place in the class B cross-country race with a time of 49 minutes and 48 seconds.

The team championship went to Quebec's Union Commercial Ski Club which topped a list of 12 teams entered in the meet.

Pierre Lavoie of the Quebec team placed second in the combined with a total of 418.5 points, followed by Remi Janssens, Van Der Sande, also of Quebec, with 383.4 points.
