

WOMEN OF CANADA

LADY DRUMMOND

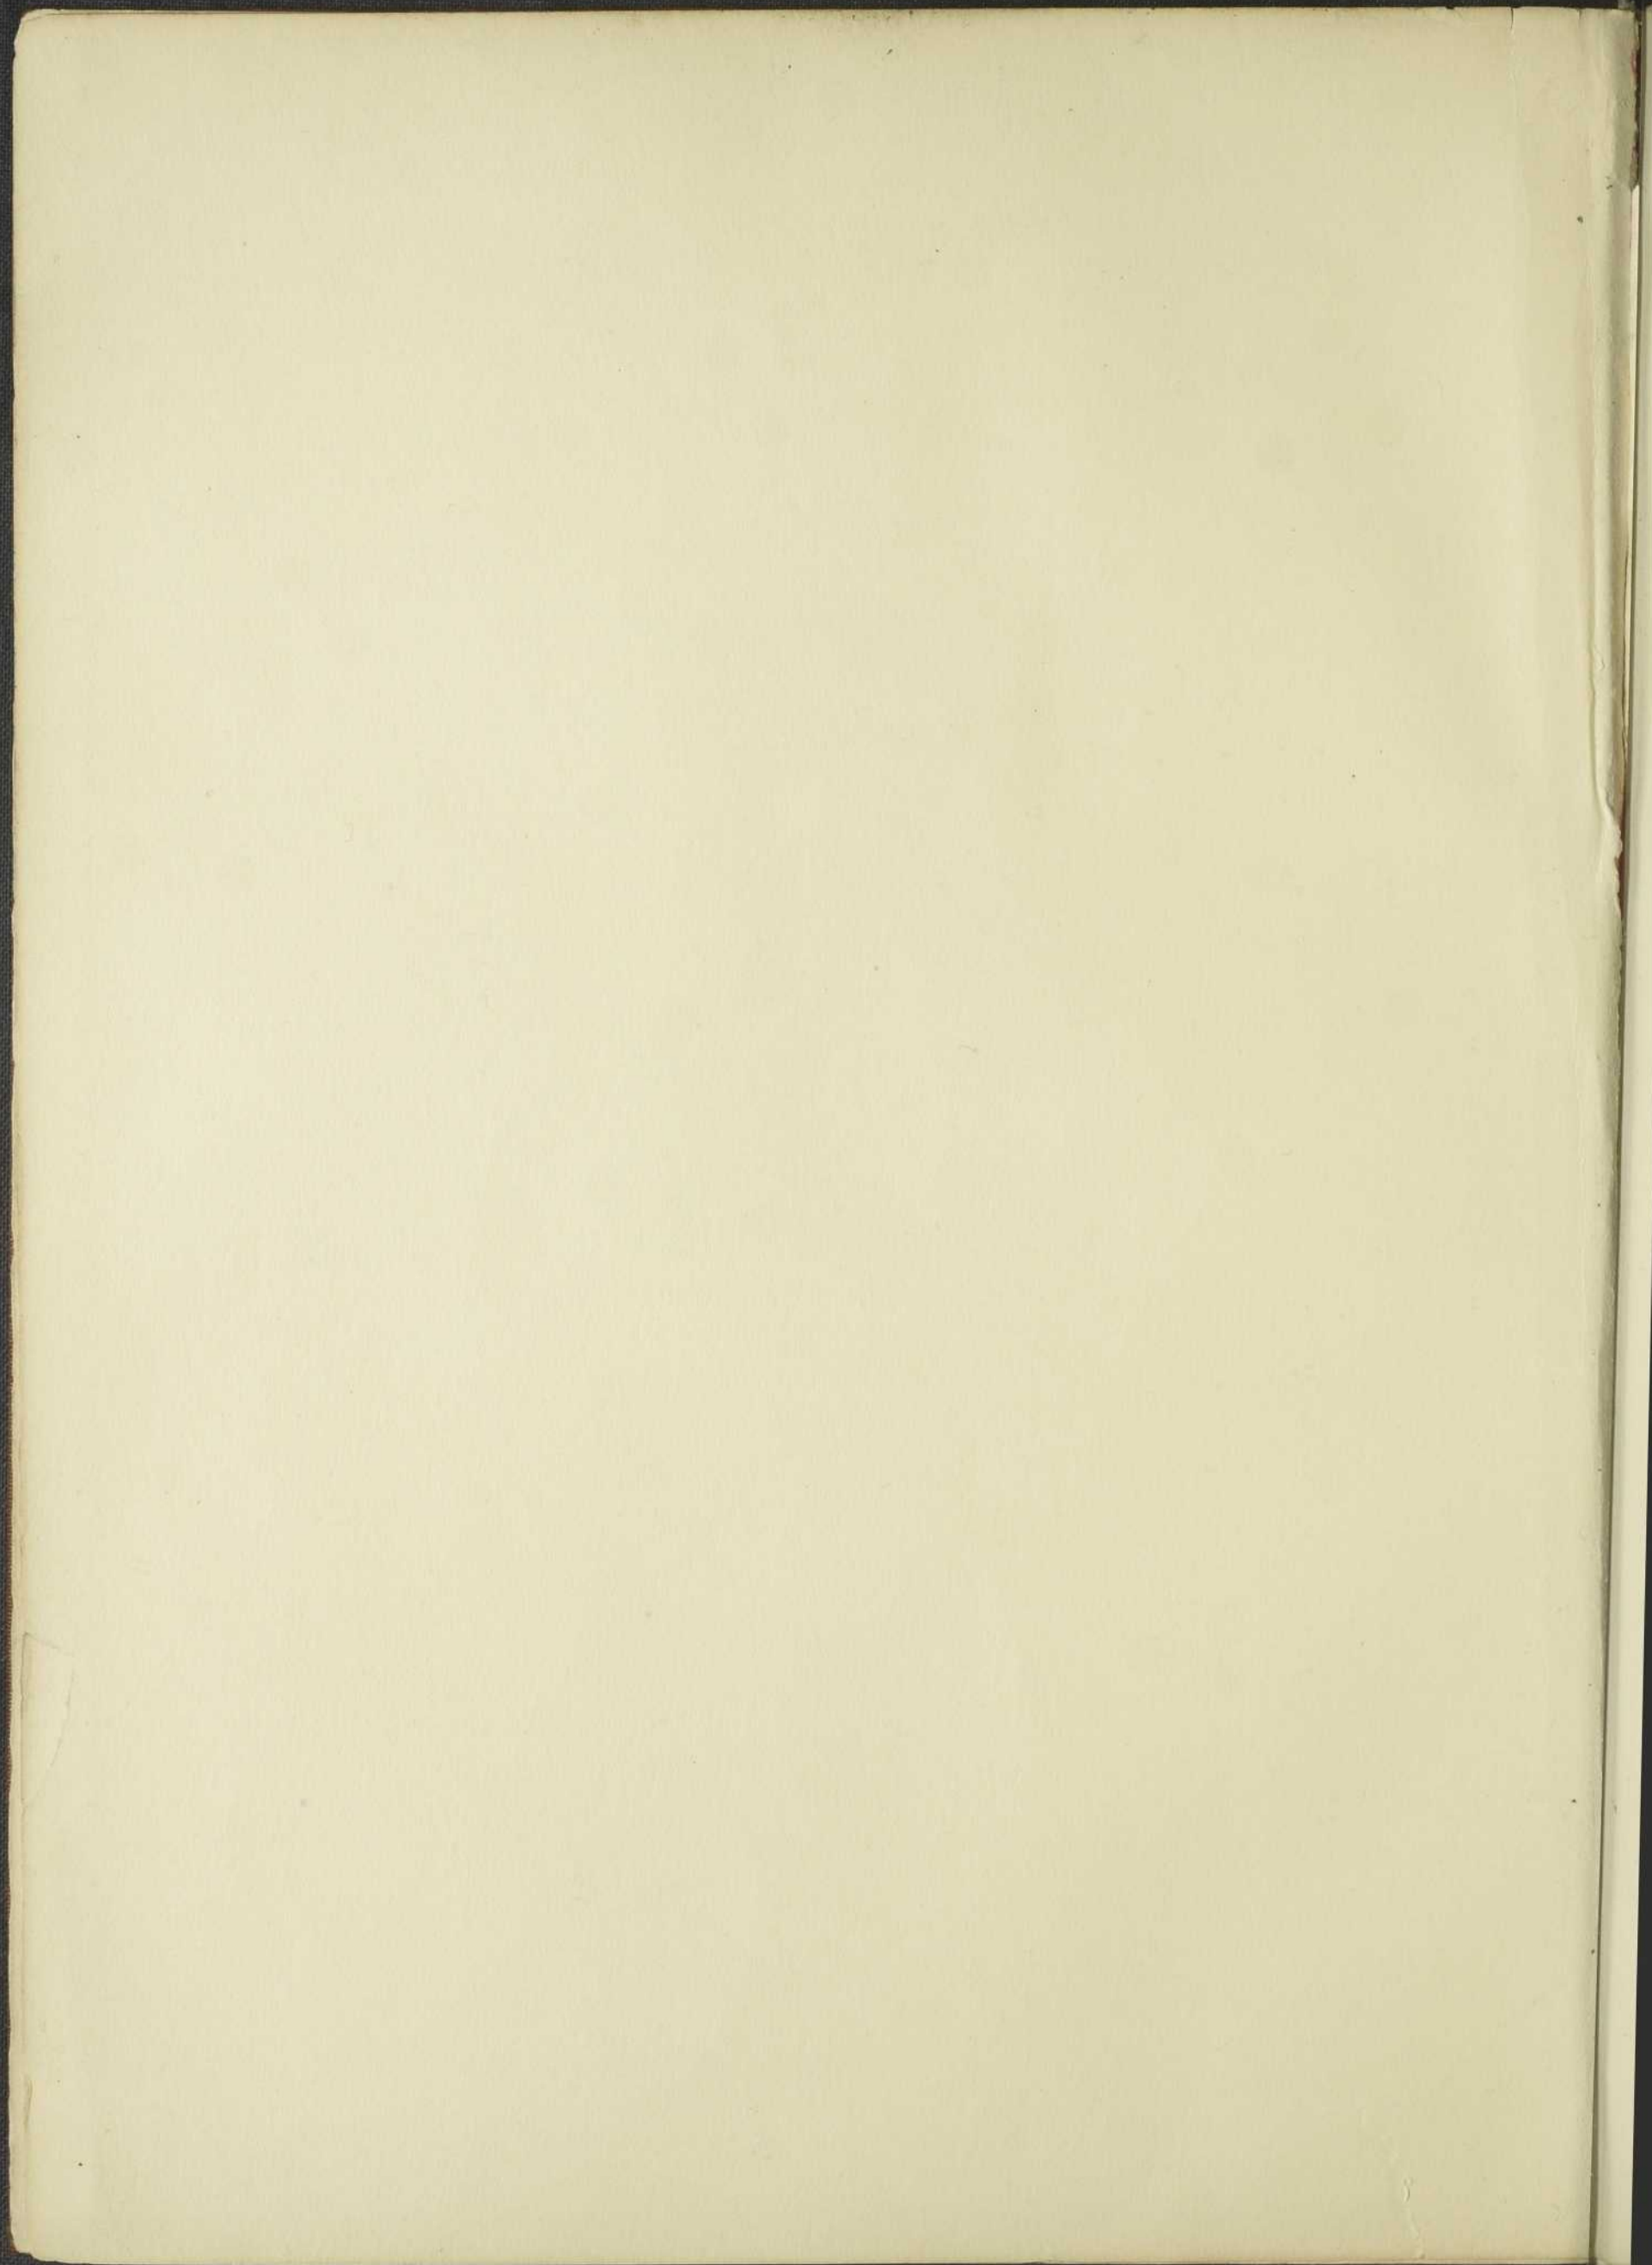

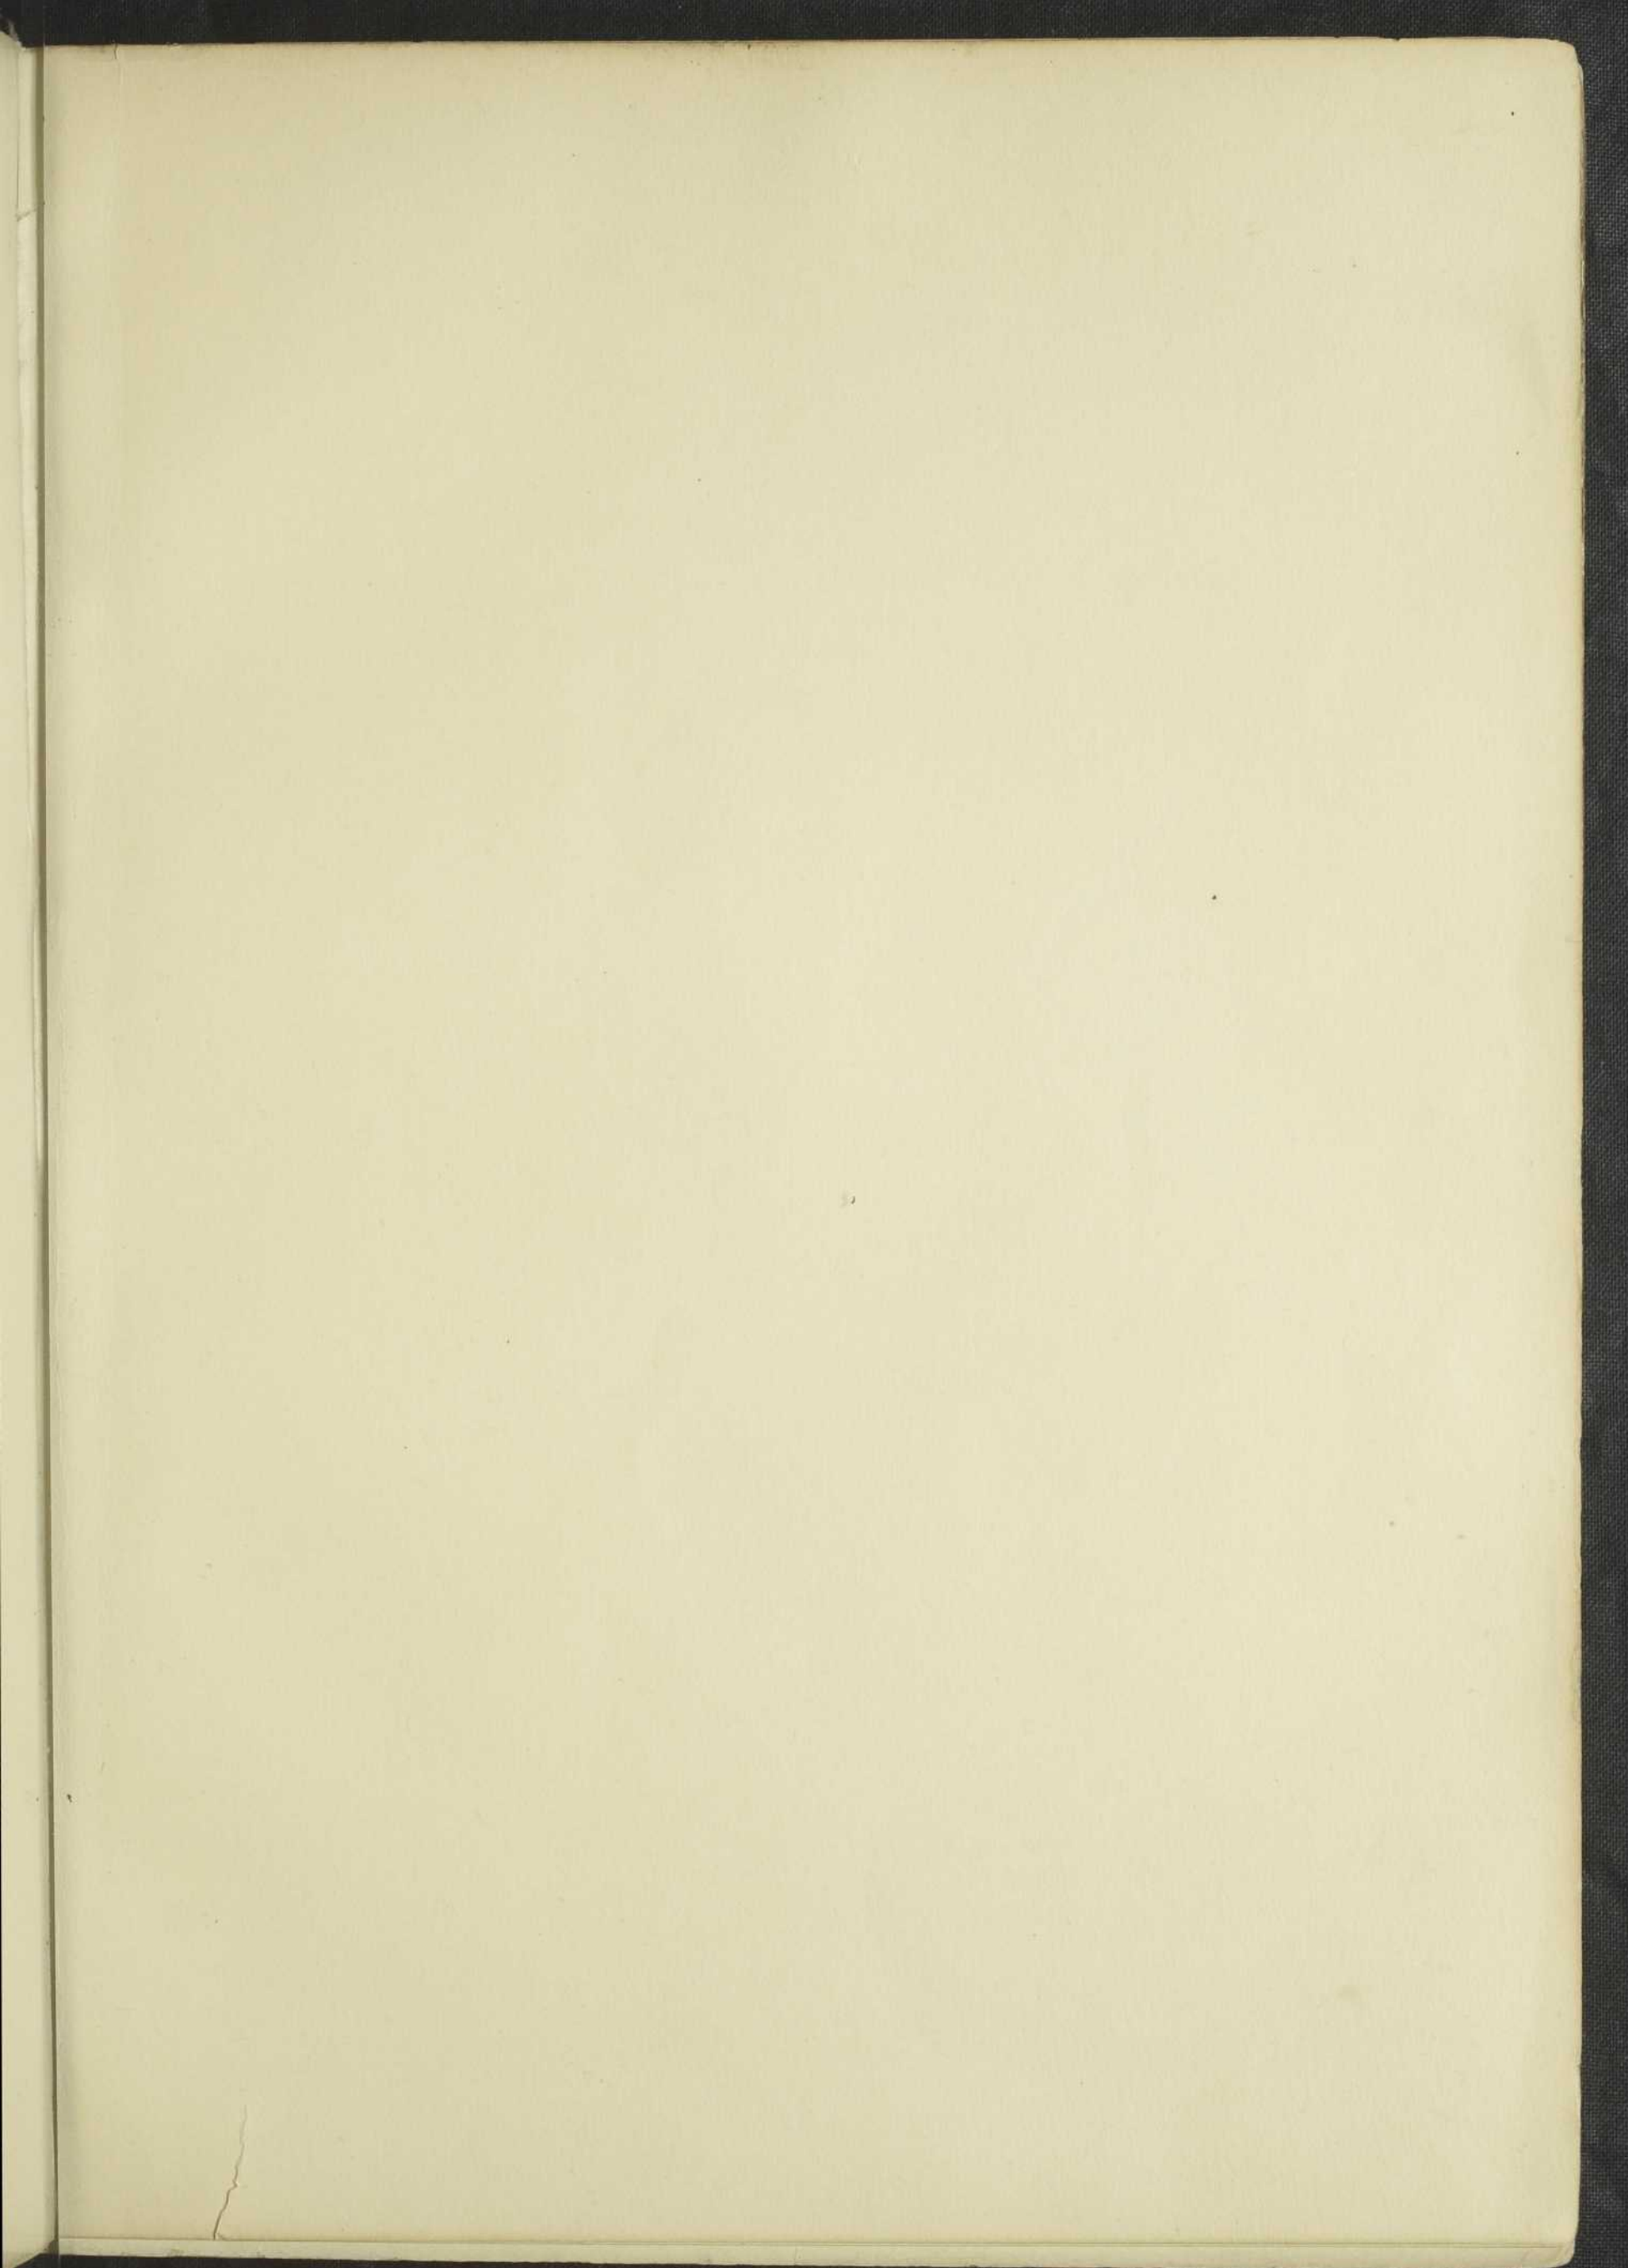

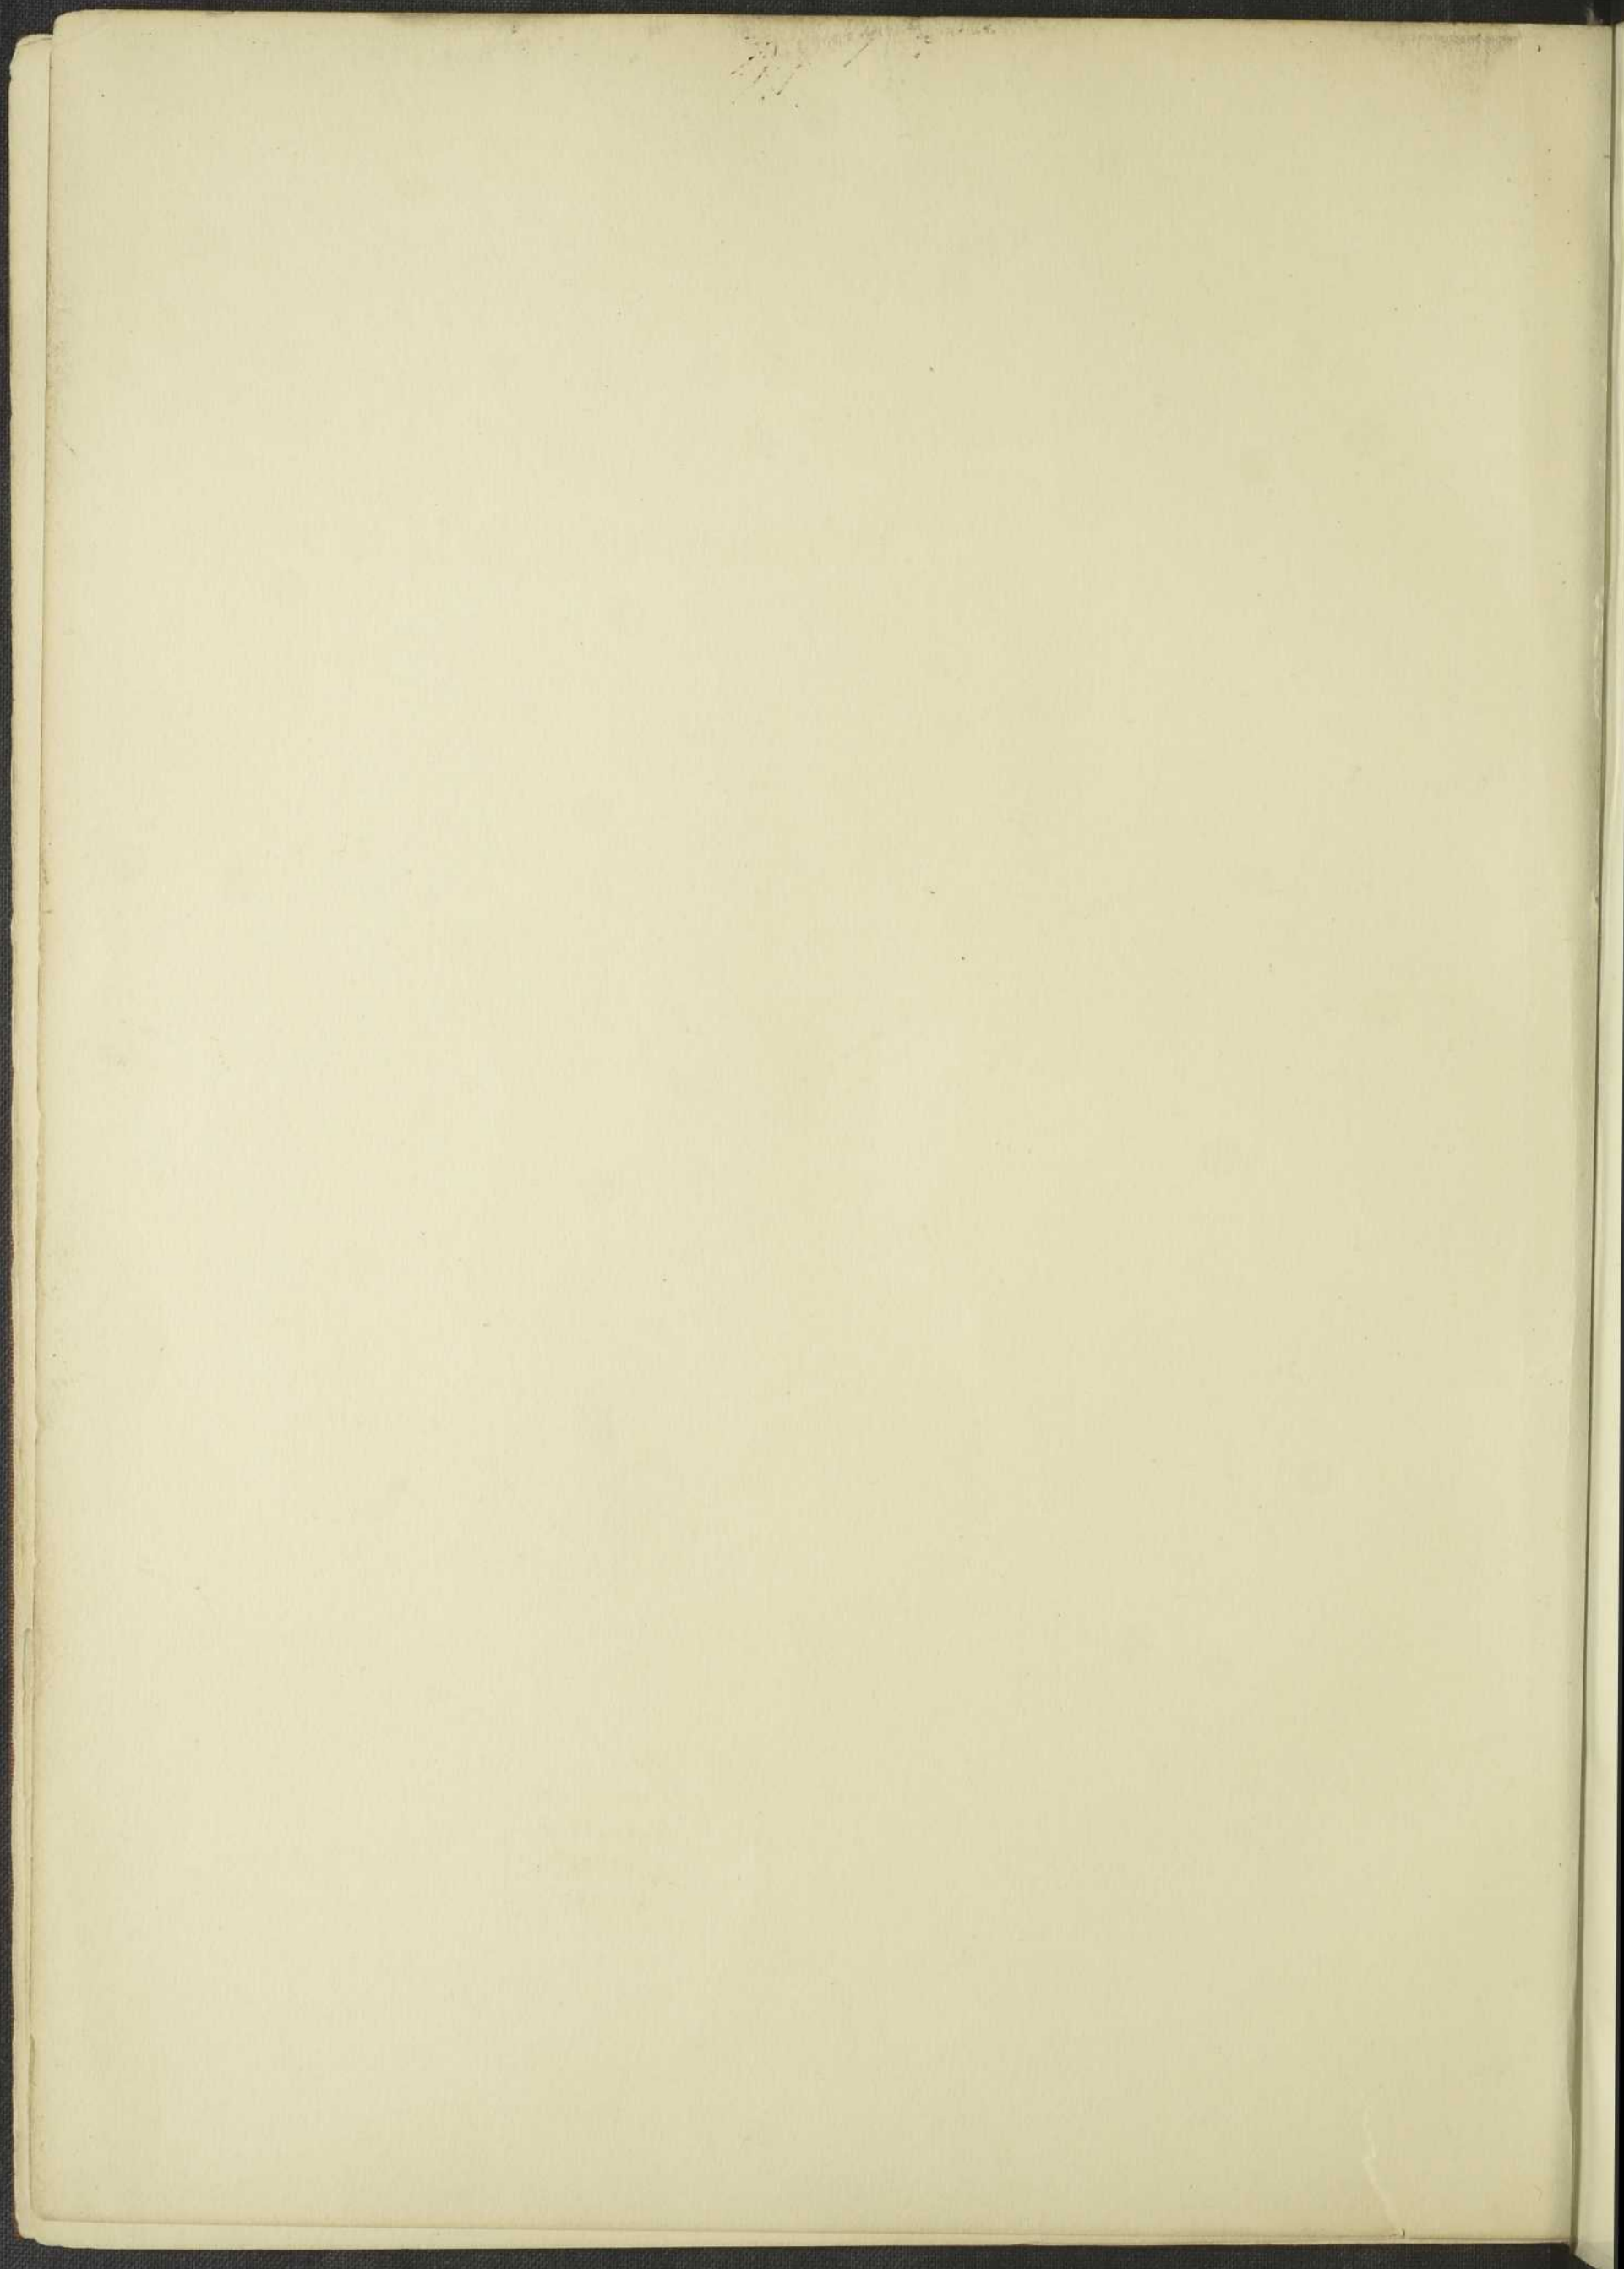

Bibliothèque Nationale du Québec

Women of Canada

Canadian

Throughout

Copyright 1930
by
Women of Canada Publishing Company

WOMEN OF CANADA

BRITISH EMPIRE

WOMEN OF CANADA PUBLISHING COMPANY
MONTREAL, P.Q.

3102101212
31012-1212

CT
3270

D7

[S]

B. Q. R.
NO. 1621

73146

FOREWORD

CANADIAN men may have hewn down forests, thrown bridges across mighty Northern rivers, conquered mountain passes, brought about Confederation and bound the Dominion together with bands of steel from ocean to ocean. In an equal sense, mothers, wives and daughters have been pioneers and nation builders, raising and maintaining standards of worthy living in wilderness and prairies, fostering patriotism and promoting in a practical way ideals of culture and service alike in cities, towns and rural communities. They have given unsparingly of themselves, their time, talents and money to build up institutions dedicated to science, literature, the arts; and organizations that have as their aim the promoting of public and individual welfare.

When the World War came with its pressing demands for sacrifice, for Red Cross work, providing of soldiers' comforts, relief for refugees, and service to replace men needed at action front, Canadian women in urban centres and remote districts met magnificently the call of emergency.

They have taken their part with poise and knowledge gained by experience in helping to solve the problems of reconstruction. With enlarged civic and political opportunity of recent years, they have revealed the adaptability which has distinguished Canadian men in posts the world around in measuring up to new responsibilities.

Not a few Daughters of Canada have won for themselves distinction in professional and business careers, in athletics, in music, in painting, sculpture, letters. Whatever their callings or avocations, Canadian women are essentially home-makers and they have brought the sympathetic spirit of home-making to their tasks of civic improvement and national betterment—hence the potency of their influence.

The Book of Canadian Women presented herewith tells briefly about Canadian women from Atlantic to Pacific who graciously and capably are playing a part in the mitigation of suffering, fostering equality of opportunity and substituting cultural and spiritual values for material standards. Many are brilliant leaders in Society; not a few are known beyond the boundaries of their own country for their achievements educationally or in fields of welfare endeavour. Doubtless thousands more might be included in the Honour Roll of Canadian Womanhood. With whatever inadequacy this volume may possess, it is offered by the publishers as a Directory of Canadian Women who are leaders in the weaving of the Canadian social fabric and building up of Canadian institutions in beauty as well as dignity and worth.

Mrs. Hillingdon.

O N T A R I O

HER EXCELLENCY,
THE VISCOUNTESS WILLINGDON
OTTAWA, ONT.

HER EXCELLENCY, THE VISCOUNTESS WILLINGDON, whose autographed photograph appears in "Women of Canada", was, before her marriage, the Lady Marie Adelaide Brassey, youngest daughter of the first Earl of Brassey. Her grandfather, the famous railway contractor, Sir Thomas Brassey, is immemorably associated with Canada through the building of its earliest lines of railway; and his grandchild doubtless was born with an interest in the Dominion which was destined to be her home for a number of years.

Few Canadians know the Dominion as the gracious chatelaine of Government House. In the years of her official residence here, she has travelled frequently from Atlantic to Pacific, exploring the beauty spots in all the provinces and becoming familiar with the diversified characteristics, resources and problems of both east and west. She has revealed enthusiastic interest in all phases of life, in statecraft, welfare movements, development within the realms of the arts and in typically Canadian sports. A devotee of skiing, she delights to negotiate steep and difficult Gatineau trails on her skis, skim over the ice on skates, or spend a morning on the golf links. She much enjoys, also, a trip by airplane.

While Lady Willingdon disclaims any career apart from that of her husband, to be the wife of a finished diplomat, an active soldier, and a keen sportsman, such as the thirteenth Governor-General of Canada, provides in itself a most important and exacting career.

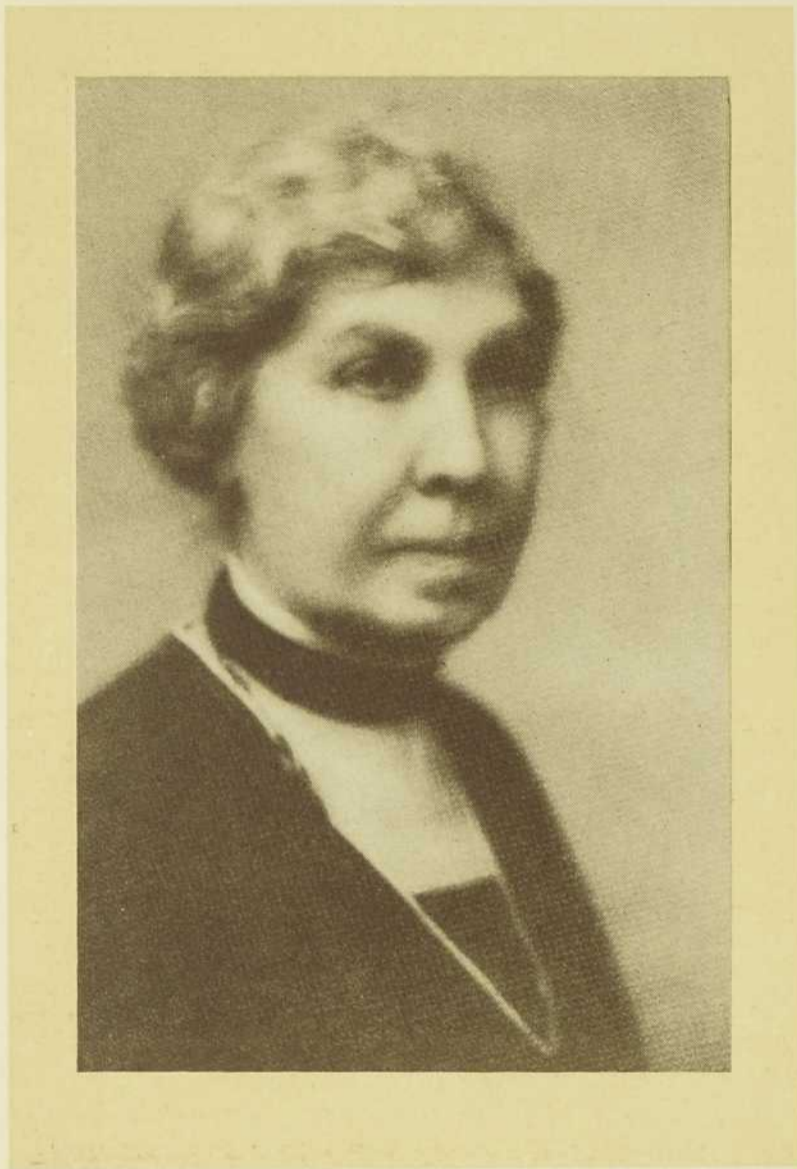

For this, her early life was a most adequate preparation. As a child, she travelled around the world with her father in his yacht, "The Sunbeam". Later, when Lord Brassey was Governor of Victoria, Australia, his talented daughter had a valuable training in the experience of life at a vice-regal court. Here it was that she met Lord Willingdon, who was Aide-de-Camp to Lord Brassey in 1895; and their marriage took place shortly afterwards, when the future vice-reine of Canada was barely out of the school-room.

The elder of their two sons, the Honourable Gerald Frederick, was killed at the Battle of the Aisne in 1914. Their second son, the Honourable Inigo Brassey Freeman-Thomas, is now the heir to the title of Viscount Willingdon, and Baron Raton. He married, in 1924, Maxine, daughter of Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the eminent actor.

Lady Willingdon's diplomatic experience includes many years in India when Lord Willingdon was Governor of Bombay from 1913 to 1919; and of Madras from 1919 to 1924. Six fascinating months were also spent in China, whence Her Excellency brought many artistic treasures which now adorn her drawing-room at Rideau Hall, and which are an endless source of admiration to many guests that are so frequently entertained by its present charming hostess.

In 1924, Lady Willingdon was invested with the orders of The Crown of India and in 1925 with the Grand Cross of the British Empire.

Address: Government House, Rockcliffe Park, Ottawa, Ontario.

LADY AIKINS
WINNIPEG, MAN.

A MEMBER of one of the oldest and most prominent families of the Eastern Townships, Lady Aikins' background has been such as to fit her admirably for the role she has played in the Province of Manitoba in which she has resided since her marriage. During the eleven years her husband was Lieutenant-Governor of the Province she carried out her duties as hostess with impressive dignity and graciousness. In the development of the city of Winnipeg she has taken the greatest interest and the various organizations existing for the betterment of its citizens have benefitted by her sage counsel and loyal support. She was the first President of the Winnipeg Young Womens' Christian Association and was President, 1912-1913, of the Women's Canadian Club. During 1924-1926 she was Provincial Commissioner of the Girl Guides.

She was born on 23rd October, 1862, at Stanstead, P.Q., the daughter, Mary French, of William Benton and Melvina Wallingford Colby, both of Stanstead, P.Q. She was educated at Stanstead College and graduated with the M.L.A. Degree. On September 6th, 1899, at Stanstead, P.Q., she was married to James Albert Manning Aikins who was born at Grahamsville, Ontario, on December 10th, 1851, the son of Hon. James Cox Aikins, P.C., LL.D., of Peel County and Mary Elizabeth Somerset, also of Peel County. There have been two children of the marriage: Mary Alberta Helena, wife of Major F. J. Ney, M.C., who resides in Winnipeg; and Elizabeth Grace Colby, wife of R. O. Ney, who lives at Subukia, Kenya Colony.

The late Hon. Sir James A. M. Aikins, K.C., M.A., LL.D., was a brilliant lawyer and played a distinguished part in both the Dominion and Provincial Legislatures. After a distinguished scholastic career culminating at Toronto University (B.A. 1875; M.A. 1876) he was called to the Ontario Bar in 1878. He moved to Winnipeg and was called to the Manitoba Bar in 1879. He was created Q.C. 1884. To the legal profession in the Dominion he rendered inestimable service. He was President of the Canadian Bar Association 1914 to 1927; and President of the Conference of Commissioners of Uniformity of Legislation in Canada from 1918 to 1923. From 1911 to 1915 he represented Brandon in the House of Commons, resigning his seat to lead the Conservative Party in the Manitoba Provincial elections. He was Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba from August, 1916 to 1926. It is an interesting fact that Sir James' father, Hon. James C. Aikins, P.C., was also Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba from 1882 to 1888. Created Knight Bachelor in 1914. Sir James died on March 1st, 1929.

Lady Aikins resides at 388 Wellington Crescent, Winnipeg.

MRS. W. H. B. AIKINS
TORONTO, ONT.

AUGUSTA WOOD AIKINS was born at Invermay, Ontario, the daughter of Dr. Easton Hawkesworth and Martha Lillian Wood, of Fingal, Ontario; and grand-daughter of Amasa Wood Esq., of St. Thomas. She was educated at Hamilton College and Mrs. Nixon's School, Toronto; and since then has travelled extensively in Europe and North America. She gave special attention to the study of painting and was awarded a gold and silver medal for portraiture. She was fond of riding and won a gold medal in this sport.

She was the Treasurer of the Infants' Home for many years and also a Vice-President of this institution. She is Treasurer of the Victoria Women's Association; Chartered Member of the Canadian Women's Association for the Blind. She was one of the first members of the Toronto Ladies' Club and one of the original members of the Ontario Rose Society of which, for some time, she was Treasurer. She is a member of the Women's Musical Club, St. George's Chapter, I.O.D.E., Red Cross Society, Canadian National Club for Sailors, Social Hygiene Council and the Big Sister Association.

On December 27th, 1887, she married William Henry Beaufort Aikins, M.B., M.D.C.M., L.R.C.P. (London, England), M.R.S.N.A., F.A.C.R., Physician, at London, Ontario. Her husband was born at "Richview", County of Peel, Ontario, on August 22nd, 1859, son of the Hon. J. C. Aikins, P.C., who was Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba for many years and Secretary of State in Sir John Macdonald's administration, and Mary Jane Somerset.

Dr. Aikins, who died on October 2nd, 1924, was an honoured member of the medical profession and was one of the first in Canada to make a study of the treatment of cancer by radium becoming a recognized authority on this subject. He was one of the proprietors and editors of the "Canadian Practitioner" and contributed many important articles to the medical journals. He was very active on behalf of his profession and in its interests travelled frequently in Great Britain and Europe. He represented Canada at the International Congresses held at Lisbon, Budapest and London, England.

Mrs. Aikins resides at 134 Bloor Street West, Toronto.

LADY ALLAN,
MONTREAL, P.Q.

THE part played by Lady Allan in the life of the city of Montreal has been noteworthy. As hostess she has entertained largely and her guests have been charmed with her graceful personality and impressed by her intellectual gifts. In its social welfare work she has been an inspiring force and a generous supporter; her co-operation has been invaluable. Especially has she taken the greatest interest in the work of the Foundling Hospital, the Day Nursery and the Iverley Settlement. For two and a half years Lady Allan was Matron in charge of the Officers' Convalescent Hospital at Sidmouth, England, during the war. In recognition of her services she was made Honorary Serving Sister of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

Margaret Ethel Mackenzie was born in Montreal, the daughter of Hector Mackenzie, of Montreal, and Martha Alger, of Boston, U.S.A. She was educated at Miss Hoyt's School at Boston and in Europe. On 18th October, 1893, she married Hugh Montague Allan, who was born in Montreal on October 13th, 1860, son of Sir Hugh Allan and Matilda Caroline Smith. He was knighted on June 24th, 1904, and created C.V.O. in 1907. Sir Hugh was also in 1907 decorated with the Order of the Rising Sun of Japan (3rd Class). In 1910 he was gazetted Honorary Colonel of the Royal Highlanders of Canada. Sir Hugh has taken a conspicuous part in the business development of the Dominion. From 1901 to 1922 he was President of the Merchants' Bank of Canada. He is presently Director, among others, of the following companies: Montreal Light, Heat & Power Consolidated, Ogilvie Flour Mills, Canadian Cottons, Ltd., and the Canada Paper Company.

Of Lady Allan's four children but one daughter, Martha, survives. Her only son, Hugh, met his death on July 6th, 1917, when flying over the enemy lines as an officer of the Royal Naval Air Service. Gwendolyn and Anna were drowned in the torpedoing of the "Lusitania" on May 7th, 1915. Lady Allan was also a passenger and was seriously injured by the explosion.

Lady Allan's Montreal home is "Ravenscrag", Montreal, Que.

MRS. ANDREW ALLAN,
MONTREAL, QUE.

ROBERT TORRE, officer of the 17th Foot Regiment of the English Army, was the father of Charlotte Elizabeth Torre. She was born in Quebec on December 3rd, 1859. His family was one of long military tradition; and he had himself served in many campaigns with the 17th Foot before settling in Canada. His wife was Maria Susan Forsyth.

In 1885, on June 3rd, at Quebec, Charlotte Elizabeth Torre married Andrew Alexander Allan, who was born in Montreal on June 13th, 1860. His family had been long established in Saltcoats in Ayrshire, Scotland. Andrew Allan of that town, was his father, who had married Isabella Smith. With his brother Hugh (afterwards Sir Hugh), Andrew Allan came to Canada and was his associate in the development of his shipping interests. Sir Hugh was the founder of the Allan Line of Steamships, now absorbed in the Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamships.

Mrs. Andrew Allan's early education was received in Quebec, after which she went to Cheltenham, England, to finish. The house in which she was born in Quebec is one of the oldest in the city, having been built by her great grandfather, an officer in General Wolfe's Army. When she took up her residence in Montreal she removed most of its contents, which have great historical value, to form the nucleus of an unique collection of Canadiana. One of the principal items is a desk which belonged to General Wolfe and which he used in the cabin of the ship on which he came over from England. It was acquired by Mrs. Allan's grandfather. Another treasured possession is a photograph of the barque "Jean" which was the first of the Allan sailing vessels to cross the Atlantic.

One of Montreal's leading hostesses Mrs. Andrew Allan takes the keenest possible interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare and prosperity of the Dominion. Her personal contact with the outstanding men and women of the day has given her a wide vision of the potentialities of her land in whose interests she has done splendid work. Local charities find in her a very helpful friend.

Of her two daughters, Isabella Hazel married Claude Heubach, of Winnipeg, in which city they reside. Doris Forsythe, who married Russell Cowans, of Montreal, died on February 14th, 1920. Her three children, together with Mr. Cowans, live with Mrs. Allan.

Address: 3433 Stanley Street, Montreal.

MRS. H. B. ANDERSON
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. HARRY BERTRAM ANDERSON, née Florence Northway, elder daughter of John and Catherine (McKay) Northway, was born in Florence, Ontario. Her father was English, a native of Lifton, Devonshire. After a business training in London, he came to Canada at twenty-one years of age and entered upon a successful mercantile career, establishing stores in Toronto, Hamilton and ten other towns and cities in the Province, being a pioneer of the chain system in Canada. He also established the well-known manufacturing firm of John Northway & Son. He had retired some years before his death in 1926, though remaining in touch with financial affairs as Director of the Imperial Bank. Her maternal forbears, a branch of the McKays of Sutherlandshire, came to Canada in the "forties" and were among the pioneers of Oxford County.

After graduation at Moulton College, Toronto, Mrs. Anderson studied music for some years under Dr. A. S. Vogt. She married Harry Bertram Anderson, M.D., L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., of Toronto, August 14th, 1901. Of this union there has been one daughter, Katherine Elizabeth, B.A. (Toronto), who married David Longland Selby, M.A., M.D., (Toronto) June 29th, 1929.

For some years Mrs. Anderson was a member of the Board of the Women's Art Association, and is a member of the Board of the Infants' Home, an institution in which she has been deeply interested. During the Great War she rendered valuable service in various organizations in collecting money and providing clothing and comforts for the soldiers. Always active and interesting, of sparkling humour and personal charm, and a popular hostess, she has been an able ally of her husband in his professional career.

Mrs. Anderson is a member of the Toronto Winter Club, Musical Club, Lambton Golf Club, the Hunt Club, Old St. Andrew's Church.

Doctor Anderson graduated M.D., Trinity University, 1892, being awarded the University Gold Medal. He afterwards pursued his studies in London, John Hopkins, Munich, Vienna and other medical centres. Dr. Anderson has an international reputation as a physician and contributor to current medical literature. He has taken an active interest in medical education, medical societies and hospitals, having held professorships in Pathology and Clinical Medicine in Trinity and the University of Toronto. He has served on the staffs of the Toronto General, St. Michaels, Grace, the Western and Sick Children's Hospitals; as well as the Muskoka Sanitarium and Hospital for Incurables.

He is a Past President of the Toronto Pathological and Clinical Societies, the Academy of Medicine, Ontario Medical Association and Aesculapian Club. He was President of the University of Toronto Medical Alumni Association, 1920-1922, and was appointed a member of the Board of Governors of the University of Toronto in 1923 on nomination of the Graduates. He is Medical referee of the Imperial Life Insurance Company and of the Teachers' and Inspectors' Superannuation Commission of Ontario. During the Great War as a Lieutenant-Colonel (C.A.M.C.) he organized the staff of the Central Military Hospital, Toronto, and was also Consultant to the Spadina Convalescent Hospital.

Residence: 73 South Drive, Rosedale, Toronto.

MRS. JAMES HENRY ASHDOWN
WINNIPEG, MAN.

MRS. ASHDOWN was born at Bruce Mines, Ontario, in 1860, and eight years later came west with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crowson, to Old Fort Garry, now Winnipeg, just one year before the outbreak of the Riel rebellion. In these stirring times Mr. and Mrs. Crowson played an active and important part, and it was owing to the courage and resourcefulness of the former that Sir John Schultz was enabled to escape. During this time Mrs. Crowson contributed greatly to the happiness and well being of the prisoners by her offerings of much-needed food. The facts of Mrs. Ashdown's life are few and simple, but in speaking of her it is not of dates or statistics that we think, but of her place as helpmate for a pioneer and builder of western Canada. Side by side with her husband she worked throughout the years, until his death in 1924. Her first concern was for home and children. Her greatest contribution to the life of Winnipeg lay not in conspicuous public service, but in the unostentatious charity, her quick answer to the call of those in need, and her help in every good cause. No one could enter her home without a realization of the gracious hospitality that reigned there, hospitality very generously bestowed both as a private citizen, and during her husband's term of office as mayor of the city. Her voice of unusual sweetness will long be remembered, and contributed much to the early musical life of Winnipeg. Very quietly she passed away on December 24th, 1928, leaving behind her the memory of a beautiful personality, of one who was ever helpful, generous, and active in all that made for the welfare of the community.

MRS. J. E. ATKINSON
TORONTO, ONT.

*I*t is impossible adequately to estimate the influence in Canadian journalism exercised by Mrs. J. E. Atkinson who, as "Madge Merton", was a pioneer of women journalists in the Dominion and has since been an inspiration to the younger generation of Canadian writers. Her journalistic career began on the Toronto "Saturday Night". Subsequently she joined the Toronto "Globe" staff, of which her future husband was, at the time, also a member; and later became editress of the women's page of the Montreal "Herald". Then for years she conducted in a brilliant manner a page in the Toronto "Daily Star". In 1915 the London "Bookman" Prize for the best original lyric was awarded to her for her charming poem "Grey Gauntlet".

She was born near Oakville, Ontario, on July 20th, 1867, the daughter, Elmina, of James Elliott and Elizabeth Culham, and received her education at Oakville High School.

In 1892 she was married to Joseph E. Atkinson, at that time associated with the Toronto "Globe". Of her marriage there are two children: Mrs. H. C. Hindmarsh, resident in Oakville, and Joseph Junior, who is on the staff of the Toronto "Daily Star", of which his father is President.

Mr. Joseph E. Atkinson was born at Newcastle, Ontario, on December 23rd, 1865, the son of John and Hannah Atkinson. He was educated at the Newcastle High School. His journalistic career began with the Port Hope "Times" in 1884, and after his novitiate there joined the Toronto "World" in 1888. Since that time he has gone from success to success and his business acumen allied to his brilliant journalistic ability has enabled him to evolve for the Dominion, in the Toronto "Daily Star", a newspaper with an international reputation.

MRS. A. W. AUSTIN
TORONTO, ONT.

THE development of music in Canada has been the outstanding interest and work of Mrs. A. W. Austin. When a child she came under the influence of the leading contemporaneous musicians, including Anton Rubinstein, Madame Anna Mehlig, etc. She studied the piano and organ under Dr. F. H. Torrington and in 1877 became organist of the Bloor Street Central Methodist Church, Toronto. In 1880 she went in the same capacity to the Elm Street Methodist Church, having in the meantime (1877) been pianist and solo pianist of the Toronto Philharmonic Society. From 1894 to 1907 she was understudy organist and choirmaster of the Metropolitan Church. She was President of the Toronto Women's Musical Club, 1910-1913, and since 1908 has been First Vice-President of the Lyceum Women's Art Association (of which she was Director of the Music Committee from 1908 to 1922). Of the Women's Orchestral Association she was the first President, 1922-1923; and since 1923 has been Vice-President of the Toronto New Symphony Association. During her residence in Winnipeg she promoted the first Chamber Music recitals; and, in addition, was for eight years Corresponding Secretary of the local Children's Home. For thirty years she has been a member of the Board of the Hillcrest Convalescent Home, Toronto.

Born on April 13th, 1860, at Perth, Ontario, Mary Richmond is the daughter of Dawson Kerr (of Perth, Ont.) and Mary J. Paul (of St. Thomas, Ont.). She was educated privately; under the regime of Miss Willard of the Women's College at Evanston, Ill.; and Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, Ontario.

She married, on July 18th, 1882, Albert William Austin, son of the late James Austin and Susan Bright, of Toronto. Mr. Austin was born in Toronto on March 27th, 1857. His father was the founder of the Dominion Bank and was its President until his death in 1897. He is now himself President of the Dominion Bank and, in addition, President of the Consumers' Gas Company and the Canadian North-West Land Company.

Mrs. Austin's children are James Percival Austin; Adele M. Austin; Mrs. S. Seton Thompson and Constance M. Austin.

Her residence is "Spadina", Davenport Road, Toronto.

THE HONOURABLE
MRS. HENRY AYLMER
LENNOXVILLE, QUE.

DURING a very active life Mrs. Henry Aylmer has been a prominent and representative woman of the Eastern Townships. An accomplished musician she has assisted in establishing a high standard of music in her community. With two others she was instrumental in organizing the Lennoxville Musical Club, a group of artists of repute who did splendid work in advancing that art in the University town of Lennoxville. Mrs. Aylmer was President of this Club intermittently for six years. She was also President of the Women's Department of the Lennoxville Patriotic Association up to 1918; and again from 1919 until the cessation of its activities. She has also been closely associated with the work of the Anglican Woman's Auxiliaries of St. Anne's Church, Richmond, and St. George's, Lennoxville. She is a very good and generous supporter of the Lennoxville Public Library.

Born in London, England, on April 17th, 1848, Louisa Blanche Fanny, is the daughter of Henry Aspinnall Howe, LL.D.; and Louisa Sarah Georgina Fanshawe, a native of Guildford, Surrey, and daughter of Rev. John Fanshawe, vicar of Chardstock, Somerset. Dr. Howe was appointed in 1848, direct from England, to be Rector of the Montreal High School, a position he held for forty-three years. Miss Howe received her education privately at home; later attending Mrs. Gordon's Ladies' School and the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Sault au Récollet.

Her marriage to the Honourable Henry Aylmer took place at Montreal, on October 5th, 1870. Her husband was born at Melbourne, P.Q., on April 25th, 1843, son of Udolphus, sixth Baron Aylmer, who was born in England. His mother, Mary Eliza Journeaux, was a member of an old Irish family of Huguenot descent. Lord Aylmer settled in the Eastern Townships as a young man and was Colonel of the 54th Battalion Canadian Militia, which bore the Aylmer coat of arms as its colours. This unit was afterwards merged into the 11th Hussars which has the Aylmer crest for its badge. The Hon. Henry Aylmer went to England at the age of sixteen and served in the Royal Marine Artillery. Twelve years later he returned to Canada and engaged in lumbering and milling. He was also active in Militia work. From 1874 to 1878 he was Liberal M.P. for Richmond and Wolfe Counties. In 1877 he was Commandant of the Canadian Rifle Team which went to Wimbledon, England, and won the Elcho Shield. He practised as a lawyer in Richmond until 1900 when he became Sheriff of the District of St. Francis, an office he held until his death in 1918.

Residence: "Athaldene", Lennoxville, P.Q.

MRS. R. STANLEY BAGG
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. R. STANLEY BAGG was born in Montreal, the daughter, Clara, of the late Charles F. Smithers, one time President of the Bank of Montreal. Shortly after her birth her father moved to New York and her education was received in that city; but since her return to Montreal she has occupied a leading place in local hospital and charitable work.

She is a Governor of the Montreal General Hospital and the Children's Memorial Hospital. The Ladies' Benevolent Society and the Day Nursery also have in her a generous helper in their work.

She was married to R. Stanley Bagg in the year 1882; and has three children: two daughters who are now Mrs. Huntly Ward Davis and Mrs. Fred Murray Smith, and one son, Harold Stanley.

She is a member of the Art Association, Themis Club, Royal Montreal Golf Club and the Montreal Hunt.

Her father was an Englishman, born in London, who came to this country with his wife (to whom he was married in Dublin) in 1847 to take up the post as Accountant of the Bank of British North America. His subsequent banking career both in Canada and the United States was a brilliant one. For four years, 1865 to 1869, he was a private banker in New York, but in the latter year he rejoined the Bank of Montreal as Chief Agent there, and in 1879 succeeded Mr. R. B. Angus as General Manager of the institution. Two years later he was elected President of the Bank and its executive head, a position which he held with the greatest ability and acumen until his death in 1887. Banking history in the Dominion has no brighter pages than those recording the works and foresighted policies of Charles F. Smithers.

Mrs. Bagg's home is at 1541 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal.

LADY BAILLIE
TORONTO, ONT.

EDITH JULIA, daughter of Aubrey White and Minnie Bridgland, was born in Bracebridge, Muskoka, Ontario. Her father was Deputy Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines of Ontario and a leading Freemason in the Province. Both her parents' families are of English descent. Her education was received at the Model School, Toronto.

On June 8th, 1900, she married Frank Wilton Baillie; and of this marriage there have been five children: Marion Wilton (Mrs. Bremner Green, of Toronto); Edith Wilton (Mrs. Donald F. Benson, of Montreal); Aubrey Wilton; Frank Wilton; James Wilton.

Her husband was born in Toronto in August, 1875, the son of John Baillie, of Scotland, and Marion Wilton Lee, of English descent. His business career started in 1889 with the Canadian Loan and Savings Company, of Toronto, of which he ultimately became Assistant Manager. On the foundation of the Metropolitan Bank in 1902 he became its General Manager, being the youngest man in Canada to hold such an appointment. In 1903 he resigned to become a member of the Toronto Stock Exchange and organized the firm of Baillie, Wood and Croft, Stockbrokers. He was made President of the Canada Steel Company in 1910. On the outbreak of the war in 1914 he formed the Canadian Cartridge Company of Hamilton, for the manufacture of munitions. In 1916 he was appointed Director of Aviation for the Dominion. Later he became President of Canadian Airplanes, Ltd. His magnificent work during the war was recognized by His Majesty, King George Vth, by the conferment of a Knighthood of the Order of the British Empire on January 9th, 1918. By Sir Frank's death on January 2nd, 1921, Canada lost prematurely one of her keenest business men; but his record of accomplishment will remain ineffacable.

Lady Baillie takes an active part in all forms of public-spirited work. For three years she has been President of the Women's Auxiliary Canadian National Institution for the Blind; and is a member of the Board of the Home for Incurable Children, Toronto. She is also President of the Toronto Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club, the first of its kind in Canada.

Residence: Vesta Drive: Toronto, Ontario.

MISS MONA BATES
TORONTO, ONT.

A well known critic has put it on record that Mona Bates, the distinguished pianist, has "brought honour not only to herself but to Canada."

Of Scotch and French Huguenot ancestry she is the daughter of the late F. D. W. Bates, M.D., of Massachusetts, U.S.A. and Annie Grant, of Woodstock, Ontario. She was born near Hamilton, Ontario, where, at an early age, her pianoforte playing at concerts brought forth the prophecy that a brilliant future awaited her. A notable student career in Toronto was followed by several years of intensive study in New York and Europe under the most eminent masters. Her debut was made in New York and resulted in many appearances in recitals and as soloist with symphony orchestras in the leading music centres of the world—an unbroken series of triumphs.

Her concert work has taken her, with her mother who is her constant companion, to many lands. She has played to royalty and to democracy; and has been acclaimed alike by the public and critics in Canada, the United States, England, France, Hungary, Germany, Austria and Czecho-Slovakia. In Europe her public appearances are made as "Anom Setab" but she did not change her nationality when she reversed the letters of her name and is always known as a Canadian.

Between concert tours she and her mother make their home in Toronto, where her brothers, Doctors Gordon and Kendal Bates also live. Her well-known musical evenings attract an artistic coterie to her studio.

A lover of animals and flowers, Miss Mona Bates is also, in her hours of recreation, intensely interested in writing and modelling in clay. Her artistic gifts are evidenced in both these pursuits, either of which might have been her vocation had not music claimed of her the whole-hearted devotion necessary to gaining the enviable position she has attained among contemporary pianists.

MRS. NORMAN R. BEAL
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. NORMAN R. BEAL has used her exceptional histrionic talents to the benefit of the community in a number of ways. During the Great War, through her dramatic readings, she was the means of raising a considerable sum of money for the purchase of soldiers' comforts. She was President of one of the Toronto branches of the Patriotic League; and in recognition of her work was made a Life Member of the Canadian Red Cross Society and the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She is especially interested in education, child welfare, health problems and politics. She is First Vice-President of the Toronto Social Hygiene Club; Director of the Women's College Hospital Board; member of the Toronto Local Council of Women and Secretary of the Women's Liberal-Conservative Association.

Her aptitude for politics is accounted for by the atmosphere in which she has always moved as a member of a family distinguished for its work in the political field. Her grandfather, Joseph Gould, M.P., was the first Member for Northern Ontario in the House of Commons, having been elected to represent the Reformers in 1852. The book "The Life and Times of Joseph Gould", written by W. H. Higgins to commemorate his sixty years of active political and municipal life, is an important record of the history of that period. Joseph Gould was first Reeve of Uxbridge, first Warden of the County of Ontario; and was one of the founders of the Dominion Bank. Her uncle, Isaac J. Gould, was M.P.P. for North Ontario for some years; also M.P. for West Ontario in 1900.

Her two maternal uncles, Col. Sam. S. Sharpe, M.P., D.S.O., and Col. Hon. W. H. Sharpe, Senator, had the distinction of being the first two brother Members of Parliament to command overseas forces. Col. Sam S. Sharpe commanded the 116th Battalion, C.E.F. Col. W. H. Sharpe commanded the 184th Battalion, C.E.F. Mrs. Beal's father was very active in the business and municipal life of Ontario. He was Mayor of Uxbridge and Warden of the County of Ontario.

Born at Uxbridge, Ontario, she is the daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Harvey James Gould and Martha J. Sharpe. She was educated at Uxbridge High School, Toronto Conservatory School of Expression. In addition she took the Social Service Course at the University of Toronto.

She married on June 24th, 1903, Norman R. Beal, B.A., University of Toronto, son of George P. Beal and Isabel J. Curry. Her husband was Vice-President of Beal Bros. Ltd., of Toronto, and an ex-Mayor of Uxbridge. Of the marriage there are five children: Harvey Norman Gould; George William; Margaret Isabel; Mary Elizabeth (Betty); and Norman Robson Jr.

Edward C. Gould of Brantford; Major Harold V. Gould, M.C., of St. Catharines are brothers; and Mrs. C. W. Hookway of Toronto is her only sister.

Residence: 2 Nina Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

MADAME CHARLES BEAUDOIN
MAGOG, QUE.

HAD MARY LANAHAN chosen an operatic career instead of a domestic one, the world might have rung with the praises of her name. She possessed a dramatic soprano voice of great power and sweetness, as well as the energetic temperament and magnetic personality that a life on the stage demands. She was also a skilful performer on various stringed instruments.

Born and educated in Montreal, the daughter of William Lanahan and his wife, Celanire Huot (dit Delude), she studied under Madame Lactot, noted contralto and composer. At the age of seventeen, she married Charles Beaudoin of Montreal.

They lived in Sherbrooke for some years, and later in Magog. In both places Madame Beaudoin, having no children, devoted her time and talent to the general advancement of art. She founded several groups and clubs for study, among the most important being the Ste. Cecile Musical and Dramatic Club; also a string orchestra for young ladies.

Of a benevolent nature and ardently patriotic, Madame Beaudoin was ever ready to give her services for charitable purposes. Her last appearance was at the St. Patrick's Day Concert at His Majesty's Theatre, Sherbrooke, Quebec, in 1921, when she sang and played charmingly both on the harp and guitar.

Madame Beaudoin died in July, 1928, at the age of seventy-two. This page, in memory of her life and work, is the gift of various musical bodies in Sherbrooke and Magog.

LADY BECK
LONDON, ONT.

THE city of London, Ontario, cherishes an inspiring memory of the late Lady Beck, who was always to the forefront in any movement aiming at the welfare of her fellow-citizens. She was especially active in her work for the Canadian Red Cross Society, having been a member of its Executive Committee; and President of its London branch. She was also President of the Women's Auxiliary of the London Health Board; and a member of the Board of the Queen Alexandra Sanitarium, of London. When, towards the end of the Great War, additional accommodation to this institution was built Lady Beck provided the equipment for both of the buildings.

Lady Beck was the originator of the local Sanitarium for tubercular patients which, starting with twenty beds, had increased to three hundred at the time of her death. Together with Sir Adam she presented and outfitted the Nurses' Home of the Sanitarium. Jointly also with her husband she presented the city of London with a public park.

Extremely fond of horses she exhibited, with considerable success, at the leading Horse Shows in Canada and the United States; as well as at Olympia, London, England.

Her varied interests took her to many countries and in all of them she left behind her a precious memory of a natural charm and culture, and as a delightful friend.

Born in London, England, Lady Beck was the daughter of the late John Cuthbert Ottaway, Barrister, of Inner Temple; and Marion Stinson. She was educated in Brussels, Belgium.

She married, in September, 1898, Adam Beck; and of the marriage there is one daughter, Marion, now Mrs. Strathearn Hay, of Toronto. Knighted in 1915, Sir Adam Beck was a man of far-sighted vision whose work in the development of the hydro-electric power is proving of inestimable value to the Province of Ontario and the Dominion generally.

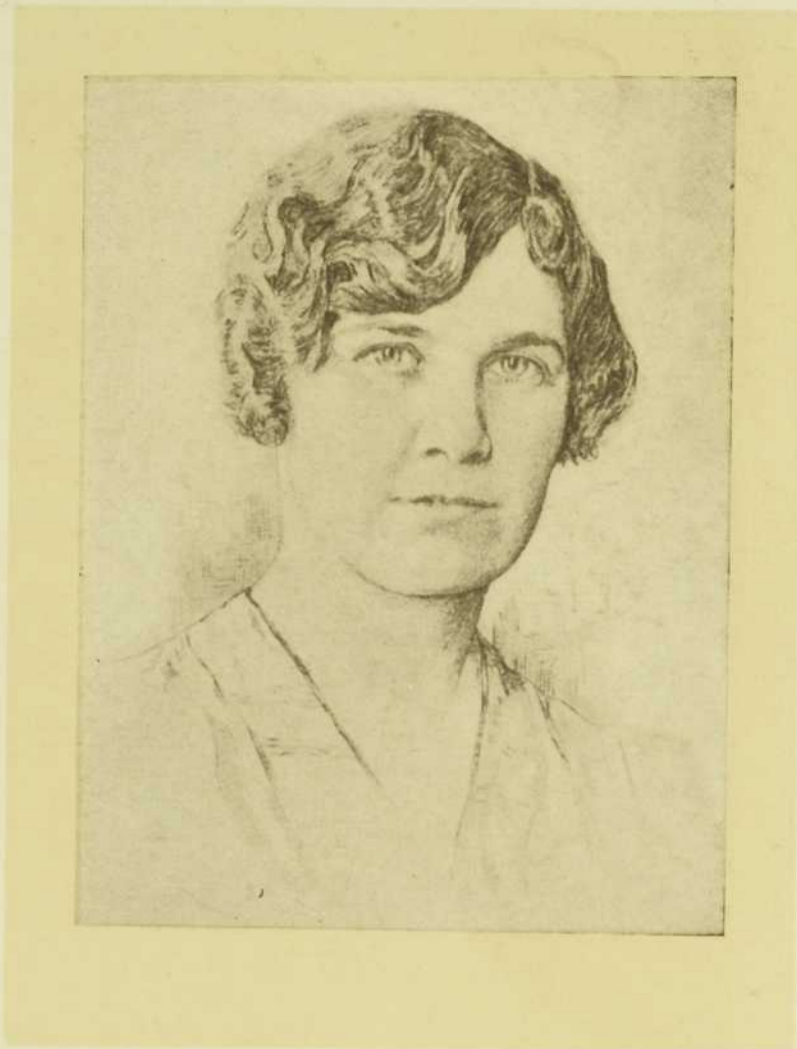

Lady Beck died on October 17th, 1921; while Sir Adam's death took place on August 15th, 1925.

MRS. LESLIE GORDON BELL
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

To Mrs. Leslie Gordon Bell belongs the distinction of being the first woman graduate of Law in the Province of Quebec to become a member of the Bar. She received her early education at the Montreal Public and High Schools and, in 1905, entered the employ of McGibbon, Mitchell & Stairs, Barristers of Montreal, with which firm she is still connected. She later decided to study law, and to this end entered McGill University, whence she graduated in 1920 as Bachelor of Civil Law. While at McGill she secured the requisite legal training with Dr. Victor E. Mitchell, K.C., a leading corporation coun- sel and senior member of the above-mentioned firm. In 1921 she was called to the Nova Scotia Bar. Mrs. Bell is now directing her energies towards securing the admission of women to the practice of law in the Province of Quebec.

Florence E. Seymour was born in Montreal on February 7th, 1889, the daughter of George Edward Seymour, of Dorsetshire, England, and Gertrude Esther Coady, of Toronto, Ontario. One of her paternal ancestors was Admiral Lord Seymour, of the British Navy; while on her mother's side she is a descendant of Lord Kearney, Chief Justice of Ireland.

Her marriage to Leslie Gordon Bell took place on June 11th, 1918. Her husband is the son of John Thomas Bell and Hannah Patterson, and was born at Rapid City, Manitoba, on December 4th, 1889. Both his parents are of Irish descent and were members of pioneer families in Western Canada. Member of Parliament for the St. Antoine Division of Montreal, Mr. Leslie Gordon Bell, K.C., is senior member of the law firm of Bell, Pender & West, Montreal. He is a D.C.L. of King's College, Windsor, N.S., and LL.B. of Dalhousie University, Halifax, N.S.

Mrs. Leslie Bell is Honorary President of the Women's Conservative Association and a member of the Legislation Committee of the League for Women's Rights. She is a very keen supporter of the Big Sister Association and is a Charter Member of the Zonta Club of Montreal. Also she is a member of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society, the University Women's Club of Montreal and the Women's Canadian Club of Montreal.

Address: 61 Holton Avenue, Westmount, Quebec.

MISS MILDRED BENNETT
OTTAWA, ONT.

THE FIRST lady of the Dominion is a daughter of the Maritime Provinces; and, of United Empire Loyalist stock, she is imbued with the strongest sense of patriotism and of duty to her native land.

Since the entry of her brother, the Right Honourable Richard Bedford Bennett, P.C., LL.D., K.C., into the field of Federal politics, she has acted as his hostess and has been his companion in his travels throughout the Dominion. Possessing marked ability as an organizer she has been of the greatest assistance to him and to the Conservative Party of which he is the brilliant leader.

Of outstanding personal charm and a gifted conversationalist, Miss Mildred Bennett's influence over the electorate in general and the women voters in particular, has been invaluable to the Conservative Party; and was in no inconsiderable degree responsible for the Prime Minister's victory at the Federal Election of 1930.

Miss Mildred Bennett was born at Honeywell Cape, Albert County, New Brunswick, the youngest of the six children of Henry J. Bennett and Henrietta Stiles. Miss Bennett is one of the ninth generation of the Bennett family on the North American continent. Both her father and grandfather were shipbuilders.

Miss Bennett was educated at Mount Alison Ladies' College, Sackville, N.B., whence she graduated B.A. Her mother also studied at the same College.

Apart from her intense political and social activities, Miss Mildred Bennett is a real and generous supporter of a number of charitable movements. During the Great War she worked enthusiastically in the interests of Canadian soldiers and their dependants. She is fond of the outdoor life; and from her duties as her brother's hostess she finds her chief relaxation in golfing and motoring.

Residence: Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, Ont.

MRS. R. D. BELL
MONTREAL, QUE.

*M*RS. R. D. BELL is the daughter, Marguerite Phyliss, of the late William Wainwright, Vice-President of the Grand Trunk Railway and a man of exceptional ability. She was born in Montreal and was educated at Ivy House, Wimbledon, England. On August 19th, 1914, she married Russell Davenport Bell, B.A., who was born on August 20th, 1887, at Staten Island, N.Y., U.S.A., the son of George Bell and Edna Newell. Of her marriage there have been two children: Melville Greenshields and Andrea.

Mrs. Bell is a member of the committee of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in whose work she takes a very keen interest. She is a member of a number of social clubs.

Mrs. Bell's brother is Arnold Wainwright, K.C., the well-known lawyer of Montreal.

Mr. R. D. Bell is a partner in the firm of Greenshields & Company, Investment Brokers, of Montreal. In addition he is President of the Jamaican Public Services Company, Ltd., (B.W.I.) and on the board of a number of public companies. In 1921 he was President of the Canadian Investment Bankers Association. He served overseas as Lieutenant in the 351st Field Artillery of the U.S.A. Army; and was promoted Captain in 1918.

Residence: 3527 Redpath Street, Montreal, Que.

MRS C. A. BIRGE
HAMILTON, ONT.

*M*RS. C. A. BIRGE has always been greatly concerned in the growth and development of her native City of Hamilton; and has assisted in every way possible anything having as its object the welfare of her fellow-citizens. She was particularly active during the Great War on behalf of Canadian soldiers and their dependants; and contributed in any way possible to the ultimate victory of the Allies.

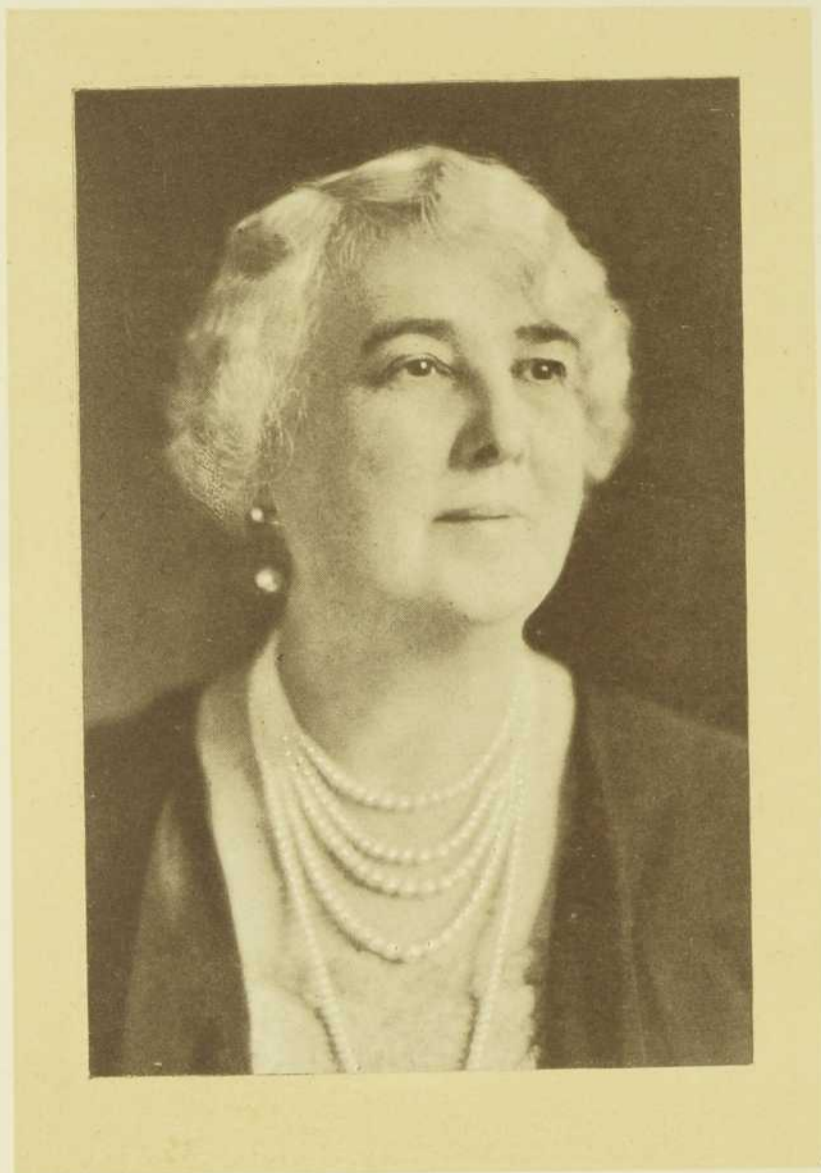

She was born at Hamilton, Ontario, the daughter, Mabel Irene, of Walter P. Sturt, of Nottingham, England; and Harriet L. Horsnell, of Hamilton. She was educated in her native city. She graduated as a nurse from Brooklyn Hospital, N.Y., and followed the nursing profession for a number of years.

She was married at Brooklyn, N.Y., U.S.A., on March 9th, 1908, to Cyrus Albert Birge, of Oakville, Ontario. By a previous marriage her husband had one son, Charles Alexander, who is a graduate of Victoria University and recently married Sarah Richardson, of Rose-town, Saskatchewan.

Mr. Birge, until his death on December 14th, 1929, was Vice-President and Director of the Steel Company of Canada. He succeeded Sir John Hendrie as President of the Bank of Hamilton; and later became Director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. He was President of the Mercantile Company at the time of its amalgamation with the National Trust Company, of Toronto.

Mrs. Birge's home is at 275 James Street South, Hamilton.

MRS. J. H. BLACK
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. J. H. BLACK, née Elizabeth Morrow, was born on September 4th, 1875, at Lanark County, the daughter of John Morrow, of Lanark County; and Agnes Geddes. She received her education at Perth, Ontario.

She was married on June 14th, 1896, at Maberley, Ontario, to John Homer Black, who was born on July 8th, 1875, at Leeds County, the son of Alexander Black, of Scotland; and Margery Cawley, of Leeds County, Ontario. Of her marriage there is one daughter,

May, who is married to Hugh R. Aird, son of Sir John and Lady Aird, of Toronto, and who resides at 117 Dunvegan Road, Toronto.

Mr. John Homer Black, who is Vice-President of the Spruce Falls Power & Paper Co., Limited, is an outstanding business man. He was educated at the High School, Smiths Falls, Ontario. For some time he followed the teaching profession which he gave up to join the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. He was promoted rapidly and ultimately became General Superintendent of the T. & N.O. Railway. In 1911 he was appointed General Manager of the Northern Ontario Light and Power Company and later General Manager Northern Canada Power and Subsidiaries. He was Managing Director of the Excelsior Life Insurance Company, ultimately becoming its Vice-President. He is a Director of a number of public companies.

Mrs. J. H. Black is a member of the Anglican Church in whose work she takes the closest interest.

Residence: 589 Avenue Road, Toronto.

MRS. WILLIAM BLACK
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. WILLIAM BLACK, who is a graduate nurse, and a member of the Overseas Nurses' Club, served during the first year of the War at the Queen's Canadian Hospital at Shorncliffe, England. She is also a member of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in whose work she is greatly interested. Mrs. Black has travelled extensively and has written a number of articles on her journeyings in Italy and Switzerland; while she has also lectured on the same subject. For some time she was an active member of Bloor Street Presbyterian Church in social service work and as Treasurer of its Women's Association. The family are now members of the Deer Park United Church. Mrs. Black has assisted very materially her husband, Colonel Black, in connection with the social side of his military activities.

Born in Toronto, Mrs. Black is the only daughter, Margaret Edgar, of the late Alexander Wright, of Castle Douglas, Kirkcudbrightshire, Scotland. The Wright family were English, a branch of the Barings, of Norfolk, England. The Earl of Cromer is the head of the family and during his visit to Canada in 1929 entertained his Canadian relatives. Mrs. Black's mother was Margaret Mowat Brass, a descendant of the Caithness Mowats, and a cousin of Sir Oliver Mowat, she being a daughter of Margaret Mowat Bews and Peter Brass of Stromness, Orkney Islands, who was a chaplain in the Royal Navy.

In 1903 Mrs. Black married William Black, son of William Black and Margaret Proudfoot, of London, Ontario. Colonel Black's father was a cousin of William Black, the famous novelist and educationalist, of Belfast, Ireland. Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Black have one daughter, Margaret Eleanor Baring ("Peggy"), a pupil at Bishop Strachan School.

Lieut.-Colonel Black, V.D., started his military career with the Queen's Own Rifles thirty-five years ago. He went overseas in 1914 with the Canadian Army Service Corps and was on active service in France until 1917 when he was recalled for special service at Ottawa; and was later sent to Russia with the Siberian Expeditionary Force. Colonel Black is a prominent Mason, being a Past-Master and since 1924 an officer of the Grand Lodge of Canada.

Residence: Cromer Hall, 450 Avenue Road, Toronto.

MRS. HARRIET A. BOOMER
LONDON, ONT.

MRS. HARRIET A. BOOMER, of London, Ontario, was born at Taunton, Somersetshire, England, in 1853. She was a very talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Mills.

Miss Mills married in England Alfred R. Roach, a member of the Royal Colonial Institute, with whom she travelled largely. After an extended trip through Africa her husband died on the return voyage.

She wrote a very interesting book, "Over Berg and Veldt in South Africa", dedicating it to her husband.

Mrs. Alfred R. Roach, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mills, and a sister (who afterwards became Lady Johnson) came to Canada in 1879 and established a Girls' School in the North West. Later, coming to London, Ontario, Mrs. Roach married the Rev. Dean Boomer.

The record of the useful life of this dear lady would fill volumes. A wonderfully bright intellect, her pen was ever ready, and many gems of literature found their way to her numerous friends.

Mrs. Boomer was President of the National and Local Councils of Women; a pioneer woman School Trustee; was interested in every good work for the advancement of the cause of Canadian womanhood; a life-long friend of Lady Aberdeen; and was, indeed, London's Grand Old Lady.

Mrs. Boomer died at London, Ontario, on March 1st, 1921.

* * *

The Harriet A. Boomer Chapter of the I.O.D.E., which was organized in Mrs. Boomer's memory, lovingly contributes this page.

MRS. CHARLES BOOTHE
TORONTO, ONT.

THE wife of one of Toronto's prominent business men, Mrs. Charles Boothe has shared in the manifold activities, social and philanthropic, of her husband, a Vice-President of The T. Eaton Co., Limited. In a quiet, but none the less effective way, Mrs. Boothe has taken a keen interest in all forms of public welfare work; while she is especially fond of young people who find in her a staunch counsellor and friend. She is a member of the Rosedale Chapter of the Imperial Daughters of the Empire.

Mrs. Boothe, née Margaret Florence Boyle, was born in Toronto the daughter of the late Matthew Boyle, a native of Prescott, Ontario, and of Mary Henry of Toronto. She was educated in Toronto, finishing at Mrs. Dance's School in that city.

She was married on September 7th, 1895, to Charles Boothe, who was born at Drunkerran, Ireland, the son of Edward Boothe and Sarah Parker. Of the marriage there are five sons: Charles Henry, who served overseas during the Great War and married Clara Perry Watson of Toronto; Allan Edward, married to Marjorie McKay Scott; Fred-eric Parker, who married Dorothy Irwin, daughter of the late Golon Towers; Walter Alexander and George Everett.

For many years Mr. and Mrs. Boothe have been active workers for a number of charitable and benevolent institutions and Mr. Boothe has been a particularly enthusiastic supporter of the "Buffs", the Toronto Regiment with which his son served overseas.

Residence: 73 Chestnut Park Road, Toronto, Ont.

MRS. VESEY BOSWELL
QUEBEC, QUE.

A SECOND generation Canadian, Mrs. Vesey Boswell has played, and is playing, an important part in the different phases of the life of the city of Quebec. In an unassuming way she is a great supporter, of, and worker for, a number of its charitable institutions and is a member of the committee of several of them. She was one of the originators of the Quebec Ladies' Curling Club; and is Past President of the Quebec Ladies' Golf Club.

Born in Quebec, she is the daughter, Elizabeth Margaret, of James Bowen, Junior; and Elizabeth Margaret White, of Quebec. Her grandfather came from the United States to Quebec and founded an important lumbering business. His son was Manager of the Cap Rouge Pier and Wharf Company. Miss Bowen was educated at Miss Machim's School in Quebec.

She was married, firstly, to Hugh Browne, of Glasgow, Scotland; and, secondly, to Vesey Boswell, son of Joseph Knight Boswell, of Dublin, Ireland; and Mary J. Paterson, of Quebec. Of the latter marriage there is one child: Margaret Bowen, who was educated at Bishop Strachan's School, Toronto, and subsequently continued her studies in Paris, France.

Mr. Vesey Boswell is a prominent business man, well-known throughout the Province of Quebec. He is Vice-President of National Breweries; and was a Director and Vice-President of the Quebec Bank and Quebec Bridge Company.

Residence: 6 Dufferin Terrace, Quebec, Que.

MRS. A. C. H. BOWEN
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

THE Hallowell family, of which Mrs. Bowen is a member, is of United Empire Loyalist stock, and is one which has distinguished itself in church, military and naval affairs. Benjamin Hallowell, her ancestor, was Controller of Customs, in Boston, Mass.; and one of his sons, Captain Benjamin Hallowell, born in Halifax, N.S., served under Admiral Nelson and commanded the "Swiftsure" at the Battle of the Nile. The family came to Canada with the United Empire Loyalists and in 1789 one of them was a Warden in the earliest Congregation of the Church of England in Montreal; and two were officers in the first Militia unit formed in that city.

Mrs. Bowen has worthily maintained the family traditions. Shortly after her marriage she went to Newfoundland with her husband where they were both instrumental in building a church in which, in the absence of a clergyman, they conducted the services. She also did medical social service work there for some time among the miners at Pilley's Island. For over forty years she was a member of the choir at St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke; she taught the Sunday School Bible Class, was President of the Girls' Friendly Society and of the Women's Auxiliary, Superintendent of the Boys' Auxiliary and Christmas Club for the Poor; while she served as Diocesan W.A. Deanery Secretary and Organizing Secretary, and on the Dominion Committee for Boys' Work. She was President of the Church Guild at Cobourg, Ont.; and, in addition, has taken an active part in various musical organizations and amateur theatricals.

Inbred with the deepest sense of patriotism she has been of material assistance in the development of true Canadian loyalty through her inspirational addresses and writings on patriotic and political subjects. During the Boer War, Mrs. Bowen assisted in organizing the Patriotic Association in Sherbrooke; and was joint President of a similar Association which came into being in August, 1914, in connection with the Great War. This included Committees for Belgian, Serbian and French Relief, the Khaki Club, and work for Soldiers and Sailors on which she served; and also upon the Committee of the Canadian Patriotic Fund. She was First Vice-President and later President of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. She was the recipient of the "Thanks Badge" for her work as one of the organizers of the local Boy Scouts Association; assisted in establishing the I.O.D.E. in Sherbrooke and held the offices of Standard Bearer and Vice-President in its first Chapter, the King George Vth. In 1917 she was President of the Sherbrooke Women's Unionist Committee.

She was Convener of the I.O.D.E. Committee for the registration of women for war service and had charge of a district during the Victory War Loan campaign. In 1921 she was Vice-President of the Sherbrooke Women's Liberal-Conservative Association. She is a Dominion Life Member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church; member of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild and of the Navy League, Child Welfare Clinic, Victorian Order of Nurses, the Wales Home for Aged People and the Hospital Ladies' Committee. She is also a member of the Canadian Authors' Association and the English-Speaking Union. She was responsible for establishing the Child's Cot Fund of the Sherbrooke Hospital; and for initiating the League of the Union Jack which promoted the use of the Empire Flag in the schools and the Province of Quebec. Mrs. Bowen's poems of a religious and patriotic nature are widely known; and her "Hymn for Soldiers" has been sung on many occasions.

Minnie Henrietta Bethune Hallowell was born in Sherbrooke on February 4th, 1861, the daughter of John E. Hallowell, Advocate, and Helen Maria Clark; was educated in private schools and taught a private school for twelve years. She was married on September 10th, 1890, to Alfred Cecil Hale Bowen, of Sherbrooke, son of Sheriff Bowen of that city.

Her two children are: Rose Meredyth (married to Rev. Charles Eardley-Wilmot, Rector of the Anglican Church and Chaplain of King's Hall (Ladies' College) of Compton, P.Q.); and Cecil Lloyd Hallowell.

Residence: Hallowell Cottage, 202 Queen Street, Sherbrooke, P.O.

MRS. JOHN BRACKEN
WINNIPEG, MAN.

*M*RS. JOHN BRACKEN is the daughter, Alice Wylie, of George R. Bruce and Fanny Burgess, both of Guelph, Ontario, in which city she was born. Her early education was received in the same city, after which she did a year's work in Home Economics at the University of Illinois.

Her marriage to John Bracken took place on June 22nd, 1909, at Guelph. She has four sons: John Bruce, Alan Douglas, William Gordon and George Murray.

The early days of Mrs. John Bracken's married life were spent in Regina where her husband was, at the time, holding an appointment. Subsequently she resided at Saskatoon until coming to Winnipeg in 1920. In all of these cities she established herself as a woman of culture, refinement and charm; and played an important part in the social life of the community. In her husband's political career she has been a great inspiration and a valued counsellor.

Mrs. Bracken is Provincial Commissioner for Manitoba of the Girl Guides' Association. During 1926-1927 she was President of the Women's Canadian Club. She is particularly interested in the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses, on the Board of which Society she is a member. Also she is Honorary President of a number of organizations of a charitable nature, taking a deep interest in their activities; as well as in several Study Clubs of which she is a member.

The Honourable John Bracken, B.S.A., was born on June 22nd, 1883, at Ellisville, Ontario, the son of Ephriam M. Bracken and Alberta Gilbert, of Irish and English ancestry. He was educated at Seeley's Bay, Brockville High School, the Ontario Agricultural College and the University of Illinois.

In 1906 he was appointed Manitoba representative on the Dominion Seed Board; and in 1907 Superintendent of Fairs and Farmers' Institutes for Saskatchewan. In 1908 he became Professor of Field Husbandry at the University of Saskatchewan, which position he held until 1920, when he was selected as President of the Manitoba Agricultural College. Two years later (1922) he was first elected to the Manitoba Legislature and was sworn as Premier of the Province on August 8th of the same year. At the General Election of 1927 he was re-elected and returned to power.

His term of office has been characterized by careful and far-sighted legislation; and by his statesman-like treatment of Manitoba's problems and development.

Residence: 604 Stradbroke Avenue, Winnipeg.

MRS. A. A. BOWMAN
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

WITH an ancestral background of old Puritan (New England) stock it is not hard to fathom the depths whence come the innermost feelings which transfuse the poems of Louise Morey Bowman. It was doubtless realizing this that Harriet Monroe could write in "Poetry" (Chicago): "Mature feeling conceived in a child's fresh imaginative terms . . . but sensitively enriched with a spirit of love, beyond a child's experience."

Two of her books of collected poems "Moonlight and Common Day" (1922) and "Dream Tapestries" (1924) have left a definite impress on the records of Canadian literature, both for the depth of emotion revealed and for their expression of the real poetic fervour.

In 1922, in the "Blindman Prize" competition offered through the Poetry Society of South Carolina, and open to any poet writing in English, of which the judge was Amy Lowell, Mrs. Bowman's poem "Oranges" was one of the eleven chosen for Honourable Mention out of four hundred and fifty manuscripts submitted. She also, in 1924, won special honour in her native Province when she was presented with one of the Quebec Government's literary prizes (known as the David Awards) to the value of $250.00.

Louise Morey Bowman has the distinction of being the only Canadian writer whose work is included in "Amphora" of Mr. Thomas Bird Mosher, the American critic and publisher of English belles lettres and the "Bibelot". A series of three of her poems are included in this collection. Some of her work was selected by William Stanlet Braithwaite for inclusion in his "Anthology and Yearbook of American Poetry for 1928", as well as in John W. Garvin's "Canadian Poets". Her most recent recognition has been the award of three stars in the Honour Roll in E. J. O'Brien's "Best Short Stories for 1929".

Poems from her pen have appeared in, among others, such publications as Poetry (Chicago), New York Times, Boston Transcript, Outlook, Bookman, Independent (New York), University Magazine (Montreal), Dalhousie Review, Canadian Forum, Canadian Home Journal, Canadian Magazine, Mail and Empire and Globe (Toronto), and the Montreal Daily Star.

Born at Sherbrooke, Quebec, Lily Louise Dyer Morey is the daughter of Samuel Foote Morey. She was educated privately and afterwards at Dana Hall (Wellesley, Mass.).

She was married on June 23rd, 1909, to Archibald A. Bowman, B.Sc., M.E.I.C., a graduate of McGill University.

Mrs. Bowman's residence is 64 Sunnyside Avenue, Westmount, Quebec.

MRS. T. ALBERT BROWN,
TORONTO, ONT.

ONE of the most enthusiastic social welfare workers of the City of Toronto is Mrs. T. Albert Brown. During the Great War her efforts on behalf of Canadian soldiers and their dependents were unceasing and she brought into existence a number of successful campaigns in the interests of war-time organizations. She was convenor of the Women's Auxiliary of the Military Y.M.C.A., 1916-1921, which operated at Camp Borden, Niagara Camp, Exhibition Camp, Red Triangle Club and the Toronto Military Hospitals. She organized a membership of over a thousand voluntary workers in connection with this movement and the importance of the work they accomplished cannot be exaggerated. When the time came for repatriation of overseas troops, Mrs. Brown was appointed convenor of the Women's Committee of the Repatriation League which, among other things, organized the eight banquets provided by the citizens of Toronto at the local Armouries. She was one of the four organizers of the Tag Day which collected the funds for the organization of the Amputations Association's club-house and a continuance of its work for disabled soldiers. She is a member of the Advisory Board of this Association. Her labours for the Canadian Red Cross have been unremitting. Of this body she is a Life Member; and President of the Ontario Branch. She was Convenor for the Toronto Branch of the Emergency Work during the influenza epidemic in 1918, of the Northern Fire Relief, 1922, and the Cochrane Typhoid epidemic in 1923, and has been Convenor of the Women's Committee for Tag Day for the Poppy Fund since 1927.

She was a member of the Board of the Canadian National Exhibition during war time, and up until 1926. She is also a life member of the National Council of Women; also a member of the 48th Highlanders and Silver Cross Chapters of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She is a member of the Board of the National Training School for Deaconesses of the United Church.

Mrs. Brown is an enthusiastic golfer, belonging to the Lambton Golf and Country Club, and the Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club of the Canadian Senior Women's Golf Association.

Daughter, Jane M., of the late James B. Bickell and Johanna Davey, she was born at Brooklin, Ontario. She was educated at Whitby, Ontario, and at Jarvis Street Collegiate, Toronto.

Her marriage to T. Albert Brown took place on March 10th, 1892. Her husband is President of the firm of Brown Brothers, Wholesale Stationers, Toronto.

Of her four children, three are living: John Leslie; Mrs. John H. Chipman, of Toronto; and Mrs. Clifford G. Beatty, of Toronto. The late Captain R. A. (Bud) Brown, 48th Highlanders, was wounded at Passchendaele on November 9th, 1917, and died of his wounds on November 14th, 1917.

Mrs. Brown's home is at 181 Crescent Road, Toronto, Ontario.

LADY McLAREN BROWN
LONDON, ENG.

*A*MONG those women of Canadian birth and associations who represent the Dominion in England, one of the most outstanding is Lady McLaren Brown, wife of Sir George McLaren Brown, K.B.E., who, since 1910, has been European General Manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, with headquarters in London. An authority on Empire subjects, Lady McLaren Brown is often called upon to speak concerning them. She represented Canada on the International Board of the Lyceum Club; and is the present Executive Chairman of the Club's United Empire Circle. She is also Vice-President of the British Women's Patriotic League and belongs to many hospital boards. On the occasion of the British Empire Exhibition held at Wembley 1924-5 she was Canada's representative on the Women's Committee.

Eleanor Grahame Crerar was born in Hamilton, Ontario, of a family with a distinguished record in patriotic, political and philanthropic lines of endeavour. Her father was the late John Crerar, K.C., of Hamilton, a noted lawyer and brilliant orator. Her mother, Jessie Anne Hope, was a daughter of Senator and Honourable Adam Hope.

Having been educated abroad, first at Cheltenham, England, and later in Switzerland, Lady McLaren Brown was admirably fitted to fill the role in life that fell to her through her marriage, which took place in 1896. She thoroughly enjoys her London home, where she entertains largely during the Season.

Her Clubs in London are the Lyceum and Almacks.

Address: 31 Cadogan Square, London, S.W.1., England.

MRS. JOHN BRUCE
TORONTO, ONT.

FOR nearly thirty years the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire has had in Mrs. John Bruce a whole-hearted and untiring worker; and in its organization she has held high office. From 1900 to 1919 she was its National Treasurer, and in the latter year was elected National President. On resigning office in 1920 she was elected Honorary National Vice-President. From 1912 to 1919 she was Organizing Secretary of the Municipal Chapter of Toronto; and has been Treasurer of the I.O.D.E. Preventorium since 1913.

During the War she was actively engaged in various forms of patriotic endeavour. She was Treasurer of the Dominion

Branch of the Canadian War Contingent Association as well as Treasurer of the Canadian Women's Hospital Ship Fund. She is President of the Holy Trinity Branch of the Women's Auxiliary; and was President of the Toronto Women's Canadian Club and the Toronto League of Women Voters. Of sound business acumen and possessing outstanding organizing ability Mrs. Bruce's efforts for the women's movements with which she has been associated have been both effective and considerable.

She was born in Toronto on February 27th, 1868, Helen Rowsell, daughter of William Tiers and Elizabeth (Rowsell) O'Reilly, both of whom were born in Toronto. She was educated at the Bishop Strachan School, at Toronto; and later studied music at the London Music Academy, London, England.

She married on July 10th, 1889, at Toronto, John Bruce, born at Beaverton, Ontario, May 13th, 1851, son of John and Roberta Fraser Bruce. Of this marriage there is one child, Muriel Elizabeth. John Bruce, who was educated at Upper Canada College and the University of Toronto, was called to the Bar in 1874, and was appointed a Special Examiner and Registrar of the Admiralty Court. He joined the Royal Grenadiers in 1881; and after twenty-two years service retired with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

Residence: 71 Blecker Street, Toronto.

MRS. T. H. BULLOCK
SAINT JOHN, N.B.

THE first infant born to Loyalist parents on their arrival in Saint John, New Brunswick, was the great-grandmother of Mrs. T. H. Bullock. She, herself, was born on January 31st, 1865, in Fredericton, N.B., the daughter, Jeannette Chestnut, of Enoch Wood and Cecilia Chestnut of that city; and was educated in Saint John.

The temperance cause in Canada has had one of its doughtiest champions in Mrs. Bullock. In 1900 she was one of a delegation representing the Dominion at the World's Temperance Alliance, held in London, England, under the presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury. In the same year she also represented the Dominion at a conference of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union held in Edinburgh, Scotland.

In 1913 she was a member of the Executive Committee of the International Council of Women at the Hague; while in 1914 she was chosen as one of the nine women sent from Canada to represent this country at the International Council held in Rome. At this gathering she was one of a Committee on arrangements for the celebration of peace among English-speaking people—a Committee which was soon to become most actively engaged in preparation for war.

Her marriage to Thomas Harrison Bullock took place on February 17th, 1886. Mr. Bullock, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Bullock, was born at Wentworth County, Ontario, on February 14th, 1862. For many years he was associated in business with his father. He has been an untiring worker in the civil development of Saint John. From 1902 until 1908 he was an alderman. He was mayor of the city from 1908 to 1910. Since 1918 he has been a representative at the City Hall; and, at the present time, in addition to being Deputy Mayor, is a City Commissioner.

Mrs. Bullock's five children are: Audrey Chestnut; Gladys Duffield (Mrs. Roy Primrose Church, of Vancouver, B.C.); Jeannette Conner (Mrs. Arthur Gordon Shatford, of Halifax, N.S.); Joseph Clark, who married Edna Devereux Brower, and lives in New York; and Thomas Harrison Junior.

Residence: 183 Germain Street, Saint John, N.B.

MRS. JOHN WESLEY BUNDY
TORONTO, ONT.

GIFTED with great organizing ability allied to far-sighted vision Mrs. John Wesley Bundy has devoted herself to the development and advancement of many of the most progressive movements in the Dominion. Her work in the interest of the National Council of Women has been of the greatest value and importance. Of this organization she is a member of the National Executive, of which she is Convener of Finance in addition to being on the Foundation Fund Committee. She represents the N.C.W. of Canada on the Committee of Finance of the International Council. She is President of the Ontario Provincial Council of Women and a Past President of the Toronto Local Council. Of the latter she is Convener of the House and Town-Planning Committee. At the time of the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation she represented the Council of Women on the Toronto City Council's Committee, of which she was the only woman member. She was Chairman of the Committee responsible for the decoration of the City on the occasion of the celebrations.

The objects of the League of Nations Society are very close to her heart and for five years she has been a member of the Toronto Executive. She is Educational Convener of the Toronto branch and has devoted much time to addressing meetings in the interests of the League.

Before the formation of the United Church of Canada she was Secretary of Finance of the Women's Missionary Society of the Canadian Presbyterian Church. This work she carried on for several years; and is now Secretary of Finance and Stewardship of the W.M.S. of the United Church of Canada, having a budget of over a million dollars.

For a number of years also Mrs. Bundy acted as Treasurer of the Toronto Y.W.C.A.; and has also served on the Board of Directors of the Toronto Women's College Hospital. She also organized (and was for the first three years its President) the College Heights Women's Educational Association. She is now its Honorary President. During the Great War she did invaluable organizing work in the interests of the Red Cross. She is on the Executive of the Canadian Social Hygiene Council.

A staunch Liberal, she is Past President of the Toronto Women's Liberal Association; and it is a matter of historical record that she was the first woman candidate to stand for election to the Ontario Provincial Legislature. It was in 1919 that she contested seat "B" in the north-east riding of Toronto and, of four candidates, came second in the voting.

Born in the County of Waterloo, Henrietta Thompson is the daughter of Richard Thompson (of Irish descent) and Julia Ann Peterson, a Canadian of Dutch descent. She was educated at the Kitchener Model and High Schools, after which she continued her studies at the Ottawa Normal School. Having an inborn love for teaching she served the teaching profession for a few years.

In 1895 she married John Wesley Bundy at Port Dover, Ontario.

Of her three children the one surviving is Eva Viola, now Mrs. A. T. Whitehead, resident in Toronto.

Mrs. Bundy's home is at 60 St. Clair Avenue West, Toronto.

MRS. C. E. BURDEN
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. CHARLES E. BURDEN has been one of the most consistent workers for the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire for a long number of years and her meritorious service in the interests of the Order was recognized by her election in 1930 to the office of National President. To this appointment she brings a large and cumulative experience of the working of the Order as Regent of the Chamberlain Chapter, Regent of the Municipal Chapter and both Provincial and National Vice-President. Apart from her activity in the I.O.D.E., Mrs. Burden has been a generous and keen supporter of charitable and benevolent movements.

Born at St. Mary's, Ontario, Margaret Beattie is the daughter of the late Timothy Eaton, founder of the T. Eaton Company, who was born at Ballymena, Ireland; and Margaret Willson Beattie, of Toronto, Ontario. She was educated at the Model School, Toronto; and Hamilton Ladies' College.

She married, in Toronto, on December 2nd, 1890, Charles Elbridge Burden, who was born in Toronto, the son of Henry George Phillip Burden, of Poole, Dorsetshire, England; and Jane Morris, of Donaghmore House, Donaghmore, Queen's County, Ireland. Of this marriage there are four children: Gretta Josephine, who is married to W. Earl Smith, of Toronto; Henry John (Captain, D.S.O., D.F.C.); Margaret Eaton, who married Colonel W. A. Bishop, V.C., D.S.O. (bar), M.C., D.F.C., Legion d'Honneur, and resides in England; and Eaton Kingsmill Gale.

Mr. C. E. Burden, until his retirement, was President of the E. Harris Company, of Toronto.

Residence: 494 Avenue Road, Toronto.

MRS. JEFFREY H. BURLAND
MONTREAL, QUE.

AN EXTREMELY active life has been that of Mrs. Jeffrey H. Burland, widow of the late Colonel Jeffrey Hale Burland.

Isabel May Megarry was born at Lurgan, County Armagh, Ireland, being the third daughter of Henry Megarry and Jane Moore, both members of well-known Irish families. Her early education was received at home under a private governess, after which she went to Wellington College, Dublin; subsequently taking special courses at McGill University.

Her marriage to Colonel Burland took place on June 17th, 1896. There were no children. Colonel Burland was the first Canadian Commissioner of the Red Cross Society and it was while acting in this capacity that he died in London, England, in 1914.

Among Mrs. Burland's many activities may be cited the following: Life Governor and President of Ladies' Committee of the Royal Edward Institute, which was founded by Colonel Burland in 1909. Since 1914 she has been First Vice-President of the Quebec Provincial Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. She was instrumental in opening a special hospital for tuberculous soldiers (in connection with the Royal Edward Institute); and is also a Life Governor of the Montreal General Hospital, Maternity Hospital (Royal Victoria Hospital), Children's Memorial Hospital and Art Association.

Mrs. Burland finds sketching, painting and gardening pleasant forms of recreation after her social duties. Her Clubs are: Women's Canadian, Royal Montreal Golf, Montreal Hunt, Themis, Monteregian, Ladies' Empire and Ladies' Army and Navy, London, England. In the summer her home is "Kilmarth". Metis Beach. Her Montreal address is 1290 Pine Avenue West.

MRS. AUSTIN CAMPBELL
TORONTO, ONT.

THE development of Canadian literature and art is being stimulated in no uncertain way by the efforts of Mrs. Austin Campbell and her husband. They are sponsoring the work of native authors and artists in a number of ways; and their home is the rendezvous for those whose work is making, and is destined to make, a mark in the cultural growth of the Dominion. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell have an extensive library of autographed Canadian literature; as well as a very choice collection of paintings by Canadian artists.

Another plan for assisting native authors has been developed by Mrs. Campbell in the establishment of a collection of "Autographed Canadiana" in the library of the Lyceum Women's Art Association. This movement is both an unique and definite step in showing appreciation of Canadian writers, inasmuch as the library is not for circulation purposes but is maintained with the ideal that all the volumes included therein and added thereto must be by purchase only. It is felt that, operated on this plan, due monetary consideration will be given to the rights and rewards to which authors are entitled.

Mrs. Campbell is the daughter of Dr. George H. Carveth, M.D., B.A.Sc., and Frances Crozier, both of Toronto. She was born in Toronto on November 12th, 1892, and after attending St. Margaret's College and Glen Mawr Ladies' College she entered the University of Toronto, and received her B.A. in Household Science, in 1912. She married Austin Campbell of Winnipeg, son of George H. Campbell and Mary Russell, in January 1914. Her three children are: Macia, Francean and Austin.

A Vice-President of the University Women's Club, Mrs. Campbell is a Life Member of both the National Council and the Lyceum Women's Art Association; while she is an active member of the Canadian Authors' Association and the Poetry Society. A number of her short stories and poems have been published in Canadian magazines.

Mrs. Campbell is also very interested in saddle-horses. The Campbell Farms, at Oronoc Ontario, were recently incorporated (Mrs. Campbell being President) with the object of breeding high-class jumpers. This stable has already been successful in capturing prizes at various Horse Shows.

Mr. Austin Campbell is Vice-President of the firm of D. S. Paterson & Company, Stock-brokers, of Toronto. He is also a Director of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange of Toronto, Vice-President of the National Air Transport Company, Ltd., and President of the Toronto Club.

Residence: 59 Douglas Drive, Toronto.

MRS. W. R. CAMPBELL
WALKERVILLE, ONT.

SINCE her marriage Mrs. W. R. Campbell has resided in Walkerville and has entered thoroughly into the life of the Border Cities, playing an important part in a number of its service, philanthropic and religious organizations. For seven years she was a member of the Board of the Essex County Sanitarium for tubercular patients and for ten years President of the Social Service Club of All Saints' Church, of whose Women's Guild she is now President. During the Great War she was Secretary of the local Red Cross organization. She is Honorary President of the Junior Hospital League and has been a member of the Board of the Victorian Order of Nurses since 1927. In 1916-1917 she was Regent of the Border Chapter, I.O.D.E.; and is now an active member of the Princess Mary Victoria Chapter. Since its inauguration in 1920 Mrs. Campbell has been President of the Y.W.C.A.; and from 1925 Vice-President of the Y.M. & Y.W.C.A. which she helped to organize. This is the first Joint Association, in every sense, in the world.

Born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, on December 27th, 1890, she is the daughter, Gladys Emily, of William H. Leishman, of Toronto; and Emily Gray McGregor, of Winnipeg. She is the eldest of thirteen children. Her six sisters are living; and of her six brothers four (each with a War record) are alive. She was educated at a private school, then for one year at Havergal College, Winnipeg, finishing in Toronto at Havergal.

On September 9th, 1910, she was married in Toronto to Wallace Ronald Campbell, son of John A. H. Campbell, of Windsor, Ontario; and Florence Cordelia Benjamin. Of the marriage there are four children living: Wallace Ronald, Shirley, Noel and Glad. Another child, April, died in infancy.

Mr. Wallace Ronald Campbell, who was born at Windsor, Ontario, on February 3rd, 1882, is President and General Manager of the Ford Motor Company of Canada; and the Managing Director of its associated Companies in India, Australia and South Africa.

Residence: "Edgewood", Huron Street, Walkerville, Ontario.

MRS. HENRY GEORGE CARROLL
QUEBEC, QUE.

MAGNIFICENT "SPENCERWOOD" has in its present chatelaine one who is endowed with the essential qualities making for the perfect hostess. The traditional hospitality of the Quebec Lieutenant-Governor's residence is being fully and worthily maintained by Mrs. Henry George Carroll, bringing to this task, as she does, the wide experience which comes from extensive travelling and the savoir faire ensuing from a busy life in many forms of activity.

Born at St. Agathe de Lotbiniere, Amazelie Boulanger is the daughter of Lazare Boulanger and Anastasie Cote. Her education was received at the Ursuline Convent at Quebec.

On June 1st, 1891, her marriage took place to Henry George Carroll who, two years previously, had been called to the Quebec Bar and was plainly destined to be a force in Dominion circles. Of this marriage there were two daughters; Marguerite (now Mdme. L. Larue) and Juliette (Mdme. Edouard Taschereau).

Mrs. Carroll is President of the Tuberculosis Dispensary; and during the war was a very active member of the Committee of the Red Cross.

As relaxation from a busy social and official life her indulgences are Bridge and Travelling.

Her husband, Hon. Henry George Carroll, LL.D., K.C., was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Province on April 2nd, 1929, in succession to the late Sir Lomer Gouin. His legal and political careers have been of outstanding brilliance. Under the Laurier Government he was Solicitor-General of Canada, 1902-1904. Subsequently he was Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Quebec, and was promoted to the King's Bench in 1908. He was a Member of the House of Commons for Kamouraska from 1891 to 1904.

MRS. E. G. M. CAPE,
MONTREAL, QUE.

BORN and educated in Ontario, Lillian Elizabeth Guest is the daughter of Charles Albert Smith, of St. Catherines, and Elizabeth Honour Guest, of Bristol, England, both of whom are deceased. On the death of her parents she became the ward of her aunt, Mrs. George Ross Marler, of Montreal. It was in the latter city that she was married on January 11th, 1908. Her family has, over five generations, been active in the affairs of the Dominion. An ancestor, Benjamin Pawling, was an United Empire Loyalist, and one of the first members of Parliament for Upper Canada. He also raised a Militia Regiment in 1794, of which he became Colonel.

Her husband, Colonel Edmund Graves Meredith Cape, B.A.Sc., was born at Hamilton, Ontario, in 1878, the son of John Cape of that city. He was educated at McGill University from which he graduated B.A.Sc. in 1898. He is President of the firm of E. G. M. Cape & Company, Engineers and Contractors. During the Great War he recruited and commanded the 3rd Canadian Siege Battery (Cape's Battery) and took it overseas in 1915. He was twice mentioned in dispatches; and was awarded the D.S.O. after the battle of Vimy Ridge.

Mrs. Cape during the War did splendid work in connection with the various women's activities which were carried on. The Soldiers' Wives' League found her services freely at their disposal; while the comforts of the men in her husband's Battery and the welfare of their families were very close to her heart. She is a Member of the Wolfe and Montcalm Chapter of the I.O.D.E. and works effectively in the interests of several of Montreal's social welfare movements.

Her four children are: John Meredith, Margaret Meredith, Edmund Vimy and David George Meredith.

Residence: The Ledges, Redpath Crescent, Montreal.

MRS. W. D. CHAMBERS
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

DURING the Great War Mrs. Chambers was the first woman to drive for the Canadian Army Service Corps in England. Subsequently, as a member of the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry, she saw considerable service in France; and was awarded the Military Medal "for gallantry and conspicuous devotion to duty" in May 1917. Her mother, the late Mrs. Gordon Brown, was also in France as Commandant of the Nurses' Rest Home in Boulogne, and was mentioned in dispatches for her excellent work. Mrs. Chambers' brother, Lieutenant Edmund Gordon Brown, C.F.A., died of wounds in France in 1917. Since residing in Montreal Mrs. Chambers has been greatly interested in the work of the Montreal Day Nursery, of whose Committee she is a member.

Born in Rosario, South America, she is the daughter, Evelyn, of the late A. Gordon Brown and Ethel Sherwood. The whole of her girlhood was spent in Ottawa. On her paternal side she is a grand-niece of the Hon. George Brown, one of the Fathers of Confederation, and editor of the "Globe" of Toronto in its early days. On her maternal side she is a descendant of an United Empire Loyalist family. Her uncle is Sir Percy Sherwood, K.C.M.G., M.V.O., A.D.C., of Ottawa.

She married, on 21st April, 1920, William Dancy Chambers, who was born at Ottawa on March 4th, 1885, son of William Chambers and Aurelia Egan. Of the marriage there are two children: Edmund Egan and Margot.

Mr. W. D. Chambers, who is a nephew of Sir Henry Egan, of Ottawa, was educated at Bishop's College School and McGill University. He served overseas during the Great War with the 24th Battalion, C.E.F., later transferring to the Royal Flying Corps. He was taken prisoner of war in 1918. On his return to Canada he was associated with Greenshields & Company before becoming a partner of Watson & Chambers, Stockbrokers, Montreal.

Residence: 23 Barat Road, Westmount.

MRS. R. S. CHAPLIN
VANCOUVER, B.C.

YOUNGEST daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir, one of the greatest pioneers of British Columbia, Mrs. Chaplin, a native of the Province, is a cultured and charming member of Vancouver society. She has travelled extensively and, together with her husband, entertains largely. She is a generous supporter of philanthropic works.

Born at Nanaimo on March 11th, 1873, Henrietta Maud is the daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir, of Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, Scotland; and Joan Olive White (deceased) of the same city. She was educated at Angela College, Victoria, and at Brighton, England.

She was married at St. Peter's, Eaton Square, London, England, on June 8th, 1898, to Lieutenant-Colonel Reginald Spencer Chaplin, who was born at Harlestone, Northampton, England, on November 21st, 1872, son of Colonel John Worthy Chaplin, C.B., V.C., Officer Commanding 8th Hussars, of Ewhurst, Hampshire, England; and Isobel Thomson, of Bishopsthorpe, Yorkshire, England. Of the marriage there are two children: John Robert (born October 6th, 1901) and June (born June 5th, 1899) who is married to Rudolph de Trafford (second son of the late Sir Humphrey de Trafford, Bart.), and who has one son, Dermot.

Lieutenant-Colonel R. S. Chaplin, O.B.E., who was in the 10th Hussars, was A.D.C. to Earl Roberts while he was Commander-in-Chief in Ireland; served with his regiment in the South African War; and during the Great War was with the Remount Department of the British Army. He is a prominent sportsman and Captain of the Vancouver Polo Club.

The late Honourable Robert Dunsmuir, shortly after his marriage in 1847, started with his wife for Vancouver Island in the interests of the Hudson's Bay Company and thus began a brilliant association with the development of British Columbia. He engaged in the development of mining properties, becoming in 1883 the sole owner of the Wellington mine, having previously (in 1881) bought the Chandler mine. His next enterprise was the construction of the Esquimalt and Vancouver Railway. He was President and Director of a number of public companies. While in no sense a politician the Hon. Robert Dunsmuir took a prominent part in public affairs. In 1882 he was elected senior Member for the Nanaimo District; and in 1888 was made President of the Council, which office he held until his death on April 12th, 1889.

Residence: Glen Lodge, Belmont, Point Grey, Vancouver.

MISS ELSIE CHARLTON
TORONTO, ONT.

AMONG pioneers of Scotch and English descent in Western Ontario, Adam Charlton, who was born in Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, gave the Dominion two eminent statesmen in his sons John and William Andrew.

In 1872 John Charlton became a Member of the House of Commons at Ottawa where, during a long parliamentary career, he served his country in many ways.

William Andrew Charlton entered the Ontario Legislature in 1890. He won distinction for his tact as Speaker of the House during a trying period. In 1911 he was elected to the House of Commons, re-elected in 1917 and made a member of the Privy Council on May 30th, 1921.

He has carried the pioneer spirit into many public enterprises, chief among them being the fight against tuberculosis. He married Miss Eleanor Rockwell, born at Burford, Ontario, who traces a long line of New England ancestors. Her mother, a talented artist, did pioneer educational work for women. Mrs. Charlton's sister, the late Mrs. Anna Compton, of Regina, was a versatile artist whose pictures were widely purchased in Canada and the United States.

Miss Elsie Charlton, youngest child of Hon. W. A. Charlton, P.C., is one of Toronto's gifted musicians who has won her way into the hearts of a large circle of admirers through radio and concert work. She possesses a rich mezzo-soprano voice with a very extensive compass and has appeared with distinction in recitals with leading artists. The writing of short stories is her relaxation. Many of these stories have been published throughout the country.

Born at Lynedoch, Ontario, Miss Elsie Charlton received her musical education in Toronto where she now resides with her parents, whose home is at 86 Madison Avenue, Toronto.

MRS. R. J. CHRISTIE
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. R. J. CHRISTIE was one of those who assisted in the founding of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, which is performing a very important work throughout the Dominion. With others, she also founded a home for incurable soldiers. She was its first Treasurer and still holds this office. During the Great War she was extremely active as a worker in the interests of a number of patriotic and relief funds, especially as a member of the Committee of the Belgian Relief Fund.

She was born in Toronto, the daughter, Emma Louise, of Joseph R. Lee and Martha Ann Ritchie, both of Toronto. She was educated at Miss Neville's School, Toronto.

She married, on February 20th, 1895, Robert Jeffrey Christie, of Toronto, son of William Christie, of Huntly, Scotland; and Mary Jane MacMullan. Of the marriage there are three children: William L.; Irving Huntly; and Katharine. Her two sons served overseas during the Great War.

Mr. William Christie, in association with Alexander Brown, established, in 1853, the firm of Christie, Brown & Company, Biscuit Manufacturers. He died on June 19th, 1900. He was a member of the Ontario Legislature. Major Christie succeeded his father as President of the firm of Christie, Brown & Company. During the Great War he was in charge of the Toronto Mobilization Centre and in this capacity did excellent and very useful work. He was a Director of the Dominion Bank.

Mrs. R. J. Christie, who travels extensively, resides at 3 Frybrook Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. W. H. CLEMES
TORONTO, ONT.

THE founder and President of the A. R. Williams Machinery Company, Limited, Toronto, was the father of Mary Bertha Williams, who was born at Mitchell, Ontario, on July 7th, 1868. Alfred Ruggles Williams, of Troy, Pa., U.S.A., came to Canada as a very young man. His wife, Mary Susanah Gould, was born in Wyoming, N.Y. Miss Williams was educated at a private school in Stratford; and later at Bishop Strachan School, Toronto.

In 1900, on January 10th, she was married to Walter Herbert Clemes, of Toronto, who was a son of the late Charles and Phebe Clemes, of Port Hope, Ontario. He was a member of the firm of Clemes Brothers, of Toronto, and later member of the A. R. Williams Machinery Company.

While Mrs. Clemes' father was born in the U.S.A., his father came from Devonshire, England, and his grandmother was a descendant of Thomas Ruggles, of Sudbury, England. Mr. Clemes' father was a native of Bodmin, Cornwall, England.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Clemes are active Church workers. She is interested in the Missionary Society of the Sherbourne United Church, of which her husband is an Elder and where he conducts the Ladies' Friendly Bible Class. She is also a Life Member of its Ladies' Aid. In this connection it should be added that her father, for over twenty-five years, was the Superintendent of the Central Methodist Sunday School.

Mrs. Clemes is an artist; and studied ceramics, wood-carving, leather-tooling and book-binding. She also studied painting with Mrs. Mary E. Dignam in Europe. Her other interests are the Lyceum Women's Art Association, of which she is a Life Patron; the I.O.D.E. (Life Member and Councillor of the Chamberlain Chapter); the Horticultural Society (Life Member) and the York Pioneer Society (Life Member).

Mrs. Clemes and her husband are generous in their support of all charities and take the greatest interest in the Royal Ontario Museum, to which they donated a section known as the "Clemes Room".

Residence: "Penarwyn", 123 South Drive, Toronto.

MADAME
 LOUIS EDWARD CODERE
 SHERBROOKE, QUE.

GIFTED as a musician, a composer and a writer of verse, Madame Codere has all her life devoted her talents towards the development of art in the neighbourhood of her birth. Her best known compositions include secular and religious works in English, French and Latin; French songs specially arranged for Eva Gauthier and musical settings for Hector McKnight's "For Canada" and John McCrae's "In Flanders Fields"; as well as a "Canadian Jubilee Anthem" used at religious services in Sherbrooke during the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation in 1927.

She was born in Oxford, the daughter, Josephine, of James Joseph Keville Doherty and his wife, Martha Agnew Anderson, both members of prominent families. Her father was the son of William Doherty, a pioneer settler who brought his wife, Alice Keville, from Virginia; while her mother was the daughter of Rev. James Moore Anderson, an Oxford Graduate, and his wife, Margaret Martha Agnew, member of an old Northern Ireland family. The Doherty home in the Township of Oxford, near the foot of Mount Oxford, was one of the notable homes of early days in the Eastern Townships and it was here she spent her childhood.

After graduating from Mont Notre Dame Convent in Sherbrooke she continued her musical studies with notable teachers of the day. Her marriage to Louis Edward Codere took place in 1896. Her husband, who is a member of the firm of Codere & Sons, a leading business house in Sherbrooke; also organist of St. Michael's Cathedral of that city. Madame Codere has seven children living. Margaret (Mrs. F. H. McManus, of Detroit); Andrea (Madame O. Leveque of Sherbrooke); Pauline (Mrs. Arthur Chauncey Tanner, of Cowansville); Cyril Keville, Roderrick Sarto, John Frederick and Carl Francis.

Madame Codere has been President of L'Union Musicale, an outstanding organization of the Townships, since its formation; and in 1929 was honoured by the French Government who awarded her the "Palmes Academiques". This decoration, publicly presented to her by the Consul-General for France in Canada, was conferred upon her in recognition of her splendid services in fostering and assisting in the development of musical and literary talent in her home town and the Province of Quebec.

For many years she has been the accompanist for French and English Choral Societies and a concert pianist of repute, she has given generously of her time and talent in patriotic and charitable entertainments, and was prominent as an organizer of patriotic entertainments during the Great War.

Among her cherished possessions is a testimonial publicly presented to her by the City of Sherbrooke in 1914.

Her residence is: 73 King Street West, Sherbrooke.

MADAM LOUIS-F. CODÈRE
LENNOXVILLE, QUE.

DANS LES Cantons de l'Est, Madame Louis-F. Codère est le centre d'irradiation de l'activité qui se manifeste de toutes façons parmi les membres de l'Eglise catholique romaine, sans, pour cela, se désintéresser le moins du monde des entreprises sociales qui fleurissent dans cette région de la province de Québec. C'est ainsi qu'elle a fondé la Fédération des Canadiennes-Françaises Catholiques de Sherbrooke Inc., dont elle est la présidente. Elle est aussi vice-présidente de la Fédération Saint-Jean-Baptiste de Sherbrooke, Inc., qui a pour objet de coordonner les travaux de plusieurs organisations d'hommes et de femmes catholiques. De même est-elle présidente du Comité d'étude du Cercle Marguerite-Bourgeoys, depuis l'institution de ce Cercle, en 1914. Encore a-t-elle fondé nombre de sociétés professionnelles et éducationnelles, notamment l'Enseignement Ménager. Il lui arrive entre temps, de participer à des congrès d'intérêt social, et l'on se rappelle l'intéressant mémoire qu'elle a présenté, sur "Le foyer", à la conférence des Semaines Sociales du Canada, qui eut lieu à Sherbrooke en 1924. On pourrait ajouter qu'elle est présidente honoraire de la Garde d'honneur, membre honoraire du Foyer musical de Lewiston (Me.), etc.

Née à Saint-Georges-de-Windsor (Québec) en 1887, elle est la fille, Annette, de Louis-Arthur Desnoyers et d'Arzèlie Geoffrion. Elle fit ses études et fut diplômée à la Congrégation Notre-Dame. Son père, zouave pontifical en 1870, servit comme sergent au 13<sup>e</sup> bataillon durant les opérations militaires auxquelles donna lieu la rébellion féniennne, en 1870.

Le 19 septembre 1911, elle épousa Louis-F. Codère, B.A., né à Sherbrooke, le 15 novembre 1886, du mariage de L.-J. Codère avec Josephine-Alphonsine Bourque. M. Codère est l'un des fondateurs de la Maison Codère Limitée, dont il est le trésorier.

Madame Codère a une fille adoptive, Berthe.

Domicile: Lennoxville, Québec.

MRS.
BERNARD W. P. COGLIN
MONTREAL, QUEBEC

MRS. BERNARD W. P. COGLIN, formerly Louise Jean Dawes, is an enthusiastic worker in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, having been Treasurer of the Robert Louis Stevenson Chapter during the War; and is now its Vice-Regent. She has been earnest supporter of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, has served on its Executive for a number of years; and takes an active interest in various other charitable enterprises. Mrs. Coghlin is also a close student of national and international affairs. Among the numerous clubs of which she is a member the Ladies' Morning Musical and the Women's Art Club interest her the most.

She is the youngest daughter of the late James Powely Dawes and Sarah Jane Ferres. Her father, the third generation born in Canada of the Dawes (who came out to this country from England in 1811), was a prominent sportsman, having won several international sailing races; and was one of the most noted horsemen of his time.

Mrs. Coghlin married, in Montreal, on October 28th, 1904, Bernard W. P. Coghlin, son of Bernard J. Coghlin and Lucy Alice Palin. She has two daughters: Ailsie (Mrs. John C. Webster, of Montreal) and Anne.

Residence: 1826 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal, Que.

Country Residence: Aylsmore, Knowlton, Que.

MRS. C. C. COLBY
STANSTEAD, QUE.

CHILDREN and grandchildren who have gained distinction in various vocations bear witness to the life and influence of Mrs. Charles Colby, of Stanstead. Her early days were spent in Weybridge, Vermont, where she was born, the daughter of John Child, Esquire,—a leading citizen. As a student she had many poems published, including translations from Virgil into English verse, and at an early age established her life-long habit of reading.

Through her marriage in 1858 she became a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of the Eastern Townships. Her husband, the Honourable Charles Carroll Colby, represented his constituency in the Canadian Parliament for the twenty-five years following Confederation. He was President of the Privy Council in Sir John A. Macdonald's third cabinet, and is remembered as the "Father of the National Policy".

Four of their seven children lived to maturity: Abby, widow of the late Somerset Aikins, Esquire, of Winnipeg (mother of Carroll Aikins of the Okanagan Valley, British Columbia, author and producer, and of Mrs. Warwick Chipman of Montreal); Jessie Maud, actively connected with various associations in Stanstead County; Charles William Colby, Ph.D., LL.D., an eminent historian and financier; and the late John Child Colby, M.D., formerly Mayor of Stanstead.

Mrs. Colby delights in travel, and is generally accompanied by her daughters. At ninety-two years of age she is now spending the winter in Jamaica.

Address: Carrollcroft, Stanstead, Que.

MRS. EVELYN E. COLQUHOUN
HAMILTON, ONT.

A DESCENDANT of one of the oldest Scots families and of Norman ancestry, Mrs. Evelyn E. Colquhoun has played a distinguished part in the social and intellectual life of Canada during the past fifty years.

"Barton Lodge", Hamilton, where she was born on September 18th, 1855, was built in 1813 by her great-uncle, Colonel Whyte, of the King's Dragoon Guards, who was a member of the ancient Honison-Crawfurd family whose estate was given to Margaret de London by William the Conqueror. Her father was the late Colonel W. Gourlay, of the 23rd, Royal Welch Fusiliers, who commanded the Gore Militia (known as the "Men of Gore") in 1837-38. He it was who led a hundred volunteers and drove out the Rebels and their sympathizers from Navy Island (Niagara) to end the troubles of 1837.

She was married on September 20th, 1881, to Edward Alexander Colquhoun, who had an honourable public career. Twice he was Mayor of Hamilton; and was a Member of Parliament 1897-8 and 1898-1902.

There have been ten children of the marriage. The eldest daughter, Emily (Mrs. McArthy) did splendid nursing service during the Great War; while another, Kate, now resident in Vancouver, is a poetess of repute. Captain W. Gourlay Colquhoun, M.C., served with Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in France. Captain Humphrey A. Colquhoun went overseas with the First Contingent of the Canadian Scottish. E. R. Colquhoun is Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Ancaster, Ont.

Mrs. Colquhoun, who is a member of the English-Speaking Union of London, England, has done great public service through her writings in the press throughout the Dominion; and has presented valuable historical papers and documents to the national archives.

At "Barton Lodge", which is her home, an important collection of Canadiana forms a part of the library.

MRS. A. B. COLVILLE
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. A. B. COLVILLE was born in Toronto in 1889, third daughter of the late Honourable Senator Sir Edward Kemp, K.C.M.G., who was born in the Province of Quebec, and his first wife, Celia Wilson, who was born in Montreal in 1856. Miss Kemp was educated at private schools and at Toronto University.

She was married firstly in February, 1912, to Francis Chattan Stephens, a member of the well known Montreal family, who died in October, 1918, as a result of war service in France where he served as an officer of the 13th Canadian Highlanders. Of this marriage there were two children: Frances Elizabeth and John Harrison Chattan (who perished in the sinking of the "Lusitania" in May 1915).

Her second marriage took place in January, 1920, to Arthur Boucher Colville, B.A., K.C. Mr. Colville was born in Campbellford, Ontario, on May 22nd, 1877, the elder son of Arthur Lyndhurst Colville and Mary Frances May Boucher. He graduated (B.A.) from Trinity University, Toronto, and was called to the Ontario Bar in 1900, and to the Quebec Bar in 1920. He was made King's Counsel in 1921. During the Great War he served overseas 1915-1918, first with the 20th Battalion, Canadian Infantry, and later with the Canadian Railway Troops. At present he is on the Reserve of Officers with the rank of Major.

Mrs. Colville, during her residence in Toronto, was Regent of the Lord Nelson Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She is a member of the Montreal sub-division of the Catholic Women's League, the Catholic Social Service Guild, the Church Extension Society, and is very interested in all child welfare work. A great deal of her time, however, is given to her historical country home and all that pertains to her farm and garden, a work in which her daughter Frances is an enthusiastic supporter. A great traveller and admirer of the fine arts, Mrs. Colville is a charming conversationalist, and has a wide circle of friends on both sides of the Atlantic.

Residences: 1371 Pine Avenue West, Montreal, and Le Manoir du Gardeur de Repentigny, St. Henri de Mascouche, P.Q.

MRS. G. D. CONANT
OSHAWA, ONT.

MRS. G. D. CONANT has been very active in the affairs of the city of Oshawa. In 1921 she was President of the Oshawa Local Council of Women; while she is Vice-President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Oshawa Hospital and President of the Oshawa Little Theatre. Both her own family and her husband's are of United Empire Loyalist descent; and she is a niece of Mrs. Dr. Adam Shortt, of Ottawa.

She was born at Winona, Ontario, on April 23rd, 1888, the daughter, Verna Rowena, of the Hon. Senator E. D. Smith and Christina Ann Armstrong. Mrs. E. D. Smith was the first President of the first Women's Institute in Canada, which was formed at Stoney Creek, Ontario. She was educated at Winona; Hamilton Collegiate; and Havergal College, Toronto.

She married Gordon Daniel Conant at Winona, on June 25th, 1913; and of the marriage there are three children: Douglas Smith; Verna Genevieve; and Roger Gordon.

Mr. G. D. Conant is the son of Thomas Conant and Margaret Gifford, both of Oshawa; and was born on January 11th, 1885. Thomas Conant was an extensive traveller and the author of "Upper Canada Sketches" and "Life in Canada"; and for a quarter of a century before his death in 1905 contributed letters of travel to the Toronto "Globe".

Mr. G. D. Conant, who was educated at Oshawa Collegiate, University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall, Toronto, is a barrister and has had an active public career. He was Mayor of Oshawa, 1916 and 1917. In the latter year he was President of the Liberal Club Federation of Ontario. Since 1908 he has been Secretary of the South Ontario Liberal Association. He is ex-President of the Oshawa Rotary Club; ex-Chairman Oshawa Board of Water Commissioners; Member of Oshawa Public Utilities Commission; President, Oshawa Chamber of Commerce and President, Oshawa General Hospital.

Residence: "Buenavista", Simcoe Street South, Oshawa, Ontario.

MRS. F. W. COWAN
TORONTO, ONT.

THE City of Oshawa is proud of the work performed by Mrs. F. W. Cowan both in its own interests and of the Dominion generally. She has been indefatigable in her charitable and benevolent efforts, as also in the work of the church; and in every movement for the betterment and progress of her fellow-citizens. She has also co-operated with her husband in his public and social activities and jointly they have been munificent in their bequests to the City of Oshawa. Among these have been the donation of a completely equipped park of five acres for the children of the poorer section of the community. They presented a chancel and organ to St. George's Church dedicated to the memory of Mr. Cowan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cowan; and presented the Parish with its rectory and grounds. She took a very prominent part, as the only women member of the committee, in the work incidental to the erection of the Oshawa War Memorial, "The Garden of the Unforgotten", the corner-stone of which was laid by her.

Her outstanding interest has been the Canadian Red Cross Society and she is a member of its Provincial Executive. She is President of the Oshawa Branch which, among other things, maintains a cottage for under-privileged children at Oshawa-on-the-Lake. Her enthusiastic endeavours during and after the Great War in the interests of the welfare of soldiers and their dependants called forth recognition and admiration. She received a Bronze Medal from the French Government for her labours on behalf of that country's soldiers; while the Great War Veterans presented her with a Gold Medal in appreciation of her support and assistance in their work. She was the recipient from the City of Oshawa of an illuminated address to commemorate her work on behalf of the Red Cross.

Born at Whitby, Ontario, she is the daughter, Lily, of T. H. McMillan (one of the founders and General Manager of the Western Bank of Canada); and Louise McBrien, of Inniskillen, Ireland. She was educated at Bishop Strachan School, Toronto.

She was married at Oshawa to Frederick William Cowan, of Oshawa, son of William Frederick Cowan; and Susan Groves, both of whom were born at Fintona, Ireland. Mr. William F. Cowan was President of the Standard Bank for forty-five years; and was one of the most charitable men in the Dominion.

Of her marriage there is one son: Major Robert Cecil, O.B.E., who served the entire period of the War, going overseas as Captain and Adjutant of the 37th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Residences: "Beauvoir", Oshawa, and "Glengreen," Teddington Boulevard, Toronto.

MRS. T. CRAWFORD-BROWN
TORONTO, ONT.

THE daughter of the Honourable Sir Lyman Melvin-Jones and Louise Irwin, Eallien Necora, was born at Brantford, Ontario. Her mother's family were United Empire Loyalists who settled in Newmarket, Ontario, in 1776. After attending Miss Dupont's School in Toronto and receiving her initial musical training she spent three years in Germany continuing her studies of music and languages. On June 16th, 1909, she married the Rev. Thomas Crawford-Brown, M.A., of Scottish descent, a graduate of Queen's and Edinburgh Universities. Of the marriage there are two children: Eallien Louise and Lyman Melvin.

Mrs. Crawford-Brown has travelled very widely and during her trips in Europe has played a not inconsiderable part in transmitting her sound and enthusiastic Canadianism to the very distinguished circles in which she has moved. Particularly was this so when she was a member of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's entourage in London, England, on the occasion of the first Imperial Conference, in 1907. It is in keeping with her strong belief in the destiny of the British Commonwealth of Nations that she has been a very enthusiastic worker in the interests of the I.O.D.E. She was First Regent of the Strathcona Chapter and is now its Honorary Regent. Until compelled to resign in 1917 through ill-health she was deeply engaged in War-work; and had charge of the collection of funds for the furnishing of the two Toronto military hospitals. Generous in her support of charitable and benevolent works, she is specially interested in the Humane Society, of which she is a Life Member.

Her husband, who was a double gold medallist in Philosophy and Political Economy, had a distinguished clerical career. After graduating at Edinburgh University he was appointed first assistant at St. Giles Cathedral, Edinburgh, to the late Sir Cameron Lees. Thence he came to Toronto to take over the ministry at St. Andrews Church which he held for ten years—until he resigned to devote his whole time to his chaplain's duties during the Great War. For twenty-four years he was Chaplain of the 48th Highlanders. After the war, and until his death on July 9th, 1929, he devoted his entire services to the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the House of Industry, of which he was Chairman of the Executive for many years, and British immigration, being President of the British Settlement Society.

Sir Lyman Melvin-Jones, Mrs. Crawford-Brown's father, played an outstanding part, both as business man and politician, in the development of the Dominion. He was President and General Manager of the Massey-Harris Company, and his invention, in 1884, of the open back binder revolutionized the manufacture of agricultural machinery. He also the inventor of over sixty improvements to agricultural machines. He was a Director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. He was a confidant and great friend of Sir Wilfrid Laurier; and in 1900 was appointed to the Senate, the National Trust Company and the Blackstone Mutual Insurance Company. In 1924 he was decorated by the French government as Chevalier of the Legion d'Honneur.

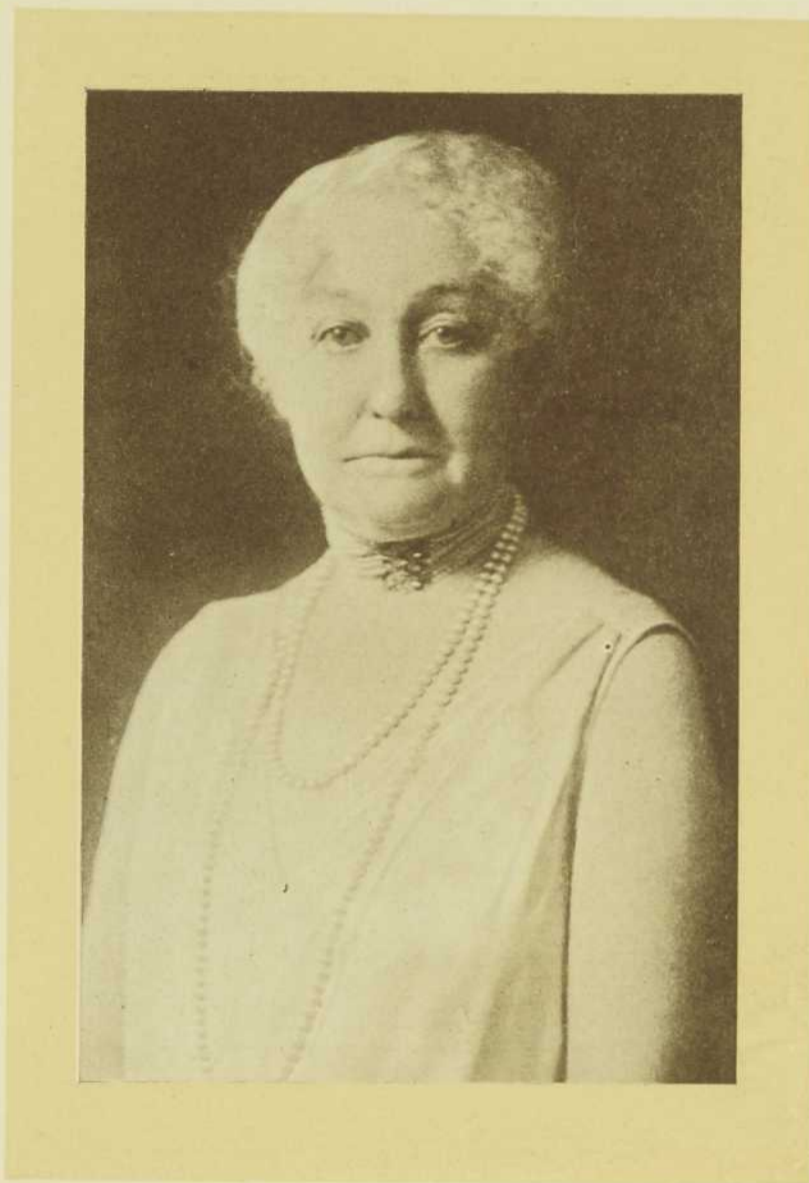

At her residence, 145 St. George Street, Toronto, Mrs. Crawford-Brown has a number of very valuable heirlooms, one of which is an original Napoleon I dinner service.

MRS. E. CROMBIE
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. CROMBIE'S outstanding interest has been the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She was Regent of the Laurentian Chapter from 1911 to 1917, again in 1920; and from 1922 to 1930. During her Regency a great deal of important work was done by the Chapter, including the "Soldiers' Club" inaugurated and kept open by the Chapter until the end of the Great War; the "Duchess of Connaught" Scholarship at the Royal Military College, Kingston, founded for the sons and grandsons of men killed or totally disabled in war service. The Chapter also undertook the furnishing of the Children's Preventorium in connection with the Royal Ottawa Sanatorium.

Mrs. Crombie has been a very active worker for the Conservative Party; and has been President of the Ottawa Women's Conservative Association since 1925. She was a delegate to the Winnipeg Convention of the party in 1927.

Elizabeth Jane Pendleton was born in Toronto, Ontario, the daughter of the late John Wellington Gwynne, who was born at Castleknock, Ireland, the son of Rev. William Gwynne, D.D., Rector of Castleknock; and Julia Durie, who was born at Woolwich, England, the daughter of William Durie, K.H., Assistant Inspector-General of Military Hospitals. Mrs. Crombie's father, Mr. Justice Gwynne, was educated at Trinity College, Dublin; and was Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada from 1878 until his death in 1902.

Educated at Toronto and abroad, she married Ernestus Crombie, Esq., son of Marcus C. Crombie, Headmaster of the Home District Grammar School, Toronto; and Margaret Bradshaw. Mr. Crombie was an eminent barrister and acted as solicitor in Toronto for the Bank of Montreal. He was a member of the firm of Crombie, Crombie and Worrell. Of her marriage there is one daughter, Julia Marguerite.

Clubs: The Country Club, Ottawa; Royal Ottawa Golf Club; Ladies, Empire Club, London.

Residence: 340 Stewart Street, Ottawa.

MRS. G. R. CROWE
WINNIPEG, MAN.

INDICATING the high esteem in which she was held by her friends and her fellow-workers of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, stands the "Mary Elizabeth Crowe Memorial" Hospital at Ericksdale, Manitoba. When the need for a hospital in that district became urgent the women of Westminster Church rallied together to make its erection and proper equipment possible and spontaneously decided on the designation it bears as a tribute to the memory of one whose work for her church and fellow-citizens in numerous ways was exemplary and self-sacrificing. The opening ceremony took place on May 12th, 1926, and was the occasion of sincere and generous acknowledgment of the public-spirited activities of Mrs. Crowe.

Mrs. Crowe was President of the Women's Canadian Club of Winnipeg in 1915; and during her Presidency of the Y.W.C.A. 1907-1910 the present building of the Association was erected. She was President of the Ladies' Society of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1911-1914, and its Honorary President in 1916. She took a very sincere interest in the work of the Women's Home, and for many years taught the Bible Class there.

The daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of John Holmes Alexander and Mary Tupper Yuill, she was born at Princeport, N.S., on March 31st, 1856. Her father, a shipbuilder and general merchant, was born at Selma, Hants County, N.S., while her mother was also a Nova Scotian, having been born at Stewiacke, Colchester County.

On December 29th, 1875, at Clifton, N.S., she was married to George Reading Crowe, the son of James Crowe (one of the foremost shipbuilders of the day), of Beaverbrook, Colchester County, and Harriett Newell Archibald, of Truro, N.S. Of the marriage there were five children: Hattie May (Mrs. Charles MacAgy Scott, 195 Roslyn Road, Winnipeg); George Harold and Colin Russell, both of whom died in infancy; Annie Maude, 89 East Gate, Winnipeg (whose husband, Major William Henry Collum, was killed in 1917 while on active service in France); and James Alexander, 110 Waterloo Street, Winnipeg, who married Zeta Durward Myers, daughter of the late Judge R. Hill Myers, and whose son is James Reading.

Mr. G. R. Crowe was a leading business man in the West and played an important part in the affairs of the city of Winnipeg. He was an Alderman in 1885 and also from 1911 to 1916; and a member of the Sinking Fund Committee of the city, 1912-1916. He was First Vice-President of the British Empire Grain Company, and a Director of the Royal Bank of Canada, the Great West Life Assurance Company, the Canadian Fire Insurance Company and the Northern Trusts Company. He was President of the Winnipeg Canadian Club, 1906-1907.

MRS. WILLOUGHBY CUMMINGS
D.C.L.
TORONTO, ONTARIO

EMILY CUMMINGS, better known to the public as Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, is the daughter of the late Rev. Jonathan Shortt, D.D., for over thirty years Rector at Port Hope, Ontario; and Isabel, daughter of the late Colonel Harper, R.E. She was born at Port Hope and was educated there and in Montreal. She married Willoughby Cummings, of Chippawa and Toronto, who died in September, 1891.

For nineteen years Mrs. Willoughby Cummings was the Corresponding Secretary of the Church of England's Women's Auxiliary to Missions. For ten years she was Editor of the Social Department of the Toronto "Globe". She was Vice-President of both the Toronto Local Council of Women and of the National Council of Women. She was Corresponding Secretary of the National Council of Women for seventeen years, 1894 to 1910; and during all those years she did not miss one meeting of the Council. On resigning that office she became Field Secretary of the Women's Department of the Canadian Government Annuities. She was Editor of the official organ of the Church of England Women's Auxiliary, first known as the "Letter Leaflet" and now known as the "Living Message", which has a monthly circulation of over 25,500 copies and of which she is still Editor.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings has been a member of the Ladies' Committee of the Canadian National Exhibition since its formation in 1901, and was instrumental in starting the "Babies' Rest" where babies can be left under the care of graduated nurses while their mothers visit the Exhibition.

Among her writings are a History of the National Council of Women of Canada and a History of the Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada.

In 1910 King's College, Windsor, Nova Scotia, conferred upon her the degree of D.C.L. as a tribute to her knowledge of social conditions and the legal status of women in the Dominion. She was the first Canadian woman to receive this degree.

During the Great War her work included that of Organizer and President of the Women's Patriotic League. She has been a member of the Board of the Victorian Order of Nurses since its inception.

Residence: 86 Roselawn Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

The above biographical sketch was inserted, as an indication of their appreciation, by some of Mrs. Cummings' friends and fellow-workers.

MRS. DALTON DAVIES
TORONTO, ONT.

*A*N enthusiastic and accomplished musician Mrs. Dalton Davies has been a prominent worker in the interests of musical development in Toronto. She is a member of the Toronto Women's Musical Club and the Chamber Music Club. During the whole period of the Great War she was Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Musical Club and helped materially in securing its splendid contributions to War funds. During the last year of the War she was Convener of a Hostess House connected with the Y.W.C.A. She is also greatly concerned in social-welfare work, being a member of the Board of the Infants' Home and on the Council of Social Service in connection with the Toronto General Hospital.

Born at St. Catharines, Ontario, she is the daughter of William L. Chaplin, of Brechin, Scotland; and Harriett Dew, of London, England. Her father was a manufacturer at St. Catharines. Two of her brothers, Hon. J. D. Chaplin and A. D. Chaplin, were Members of Parliament—at one time concurrently. She studied privately, at the University of Toronto and, later, abroad. She is a Bachelor of Music of Trinity (affiliated with Oxford University) and a graduate of the Conservatory of Music, Toronto.

She was married, in 1914, at St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, to Dalton Davies, Banker, who was born in Ottawa, the son of Alfred Edward Davies, member of an old Welsh family; and Henrietta (Cissy) Hartney.

Mr. Dalton Davies' maternal grandfather, Henry Hartney, was for many years Chief Accountant of the House of Commons, and was connected with the Houses of Parliament before Confederation. His uncle, E. P. Hartney, was for over forty years Chief Clerk of Railways and Canals and Examiner of Private Bills in the House of Commons.

Mrs. Dalton Davies is a member of the Toronto Ladies' Club, Toronto Golf Club and the Women's Musical Club.

Residence: 433 Russell Hill Road, Toronto.

MRS. NORMAN J. DAWES
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. NORMAN J. DAWES has taken an active part in the administration of several of Montreal's charitable and benevolent societies and is a Life Governor of a number of them. She has been particularly interested in the work of the Financial Federation of Montreal, is a Vice-President of the the Children's Bureau, Second Directress of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, a member of the Committee of the Girl Guides' Association and a Director of the Society for Protection of Women and Children.

Born in Montreal, the daughter of Charles C. Claggett and Elizabeth Corse.

She was married in 1899 to Norman J. Dawes, who was born at Lachine, Que., on July 13th, 1874, the son of James P. Dawes and Sarah Jane Ferres. Thomas Dawes, the founder of the family in Canada, came from England in 1811.

Of her marriage there are seven children: Thomas Clifton; Elizabeth Olive (Mrs. Ernest LeMessurier, of Montreal); Constance; Ormiston Norman; Margaret and Patricia (twins); and Peter Claggett.

Mr. Norman J. Dawes, who was educated at Montreal High School and McGill University, is President and Managing-Director of The National Breweries, Limited, of Montreal; and is one of the city's outstanding business men. He is a Director of a number of other public companies; and a generous supporter of charities and public-welfare movements. President of Financial Federation and Second Vice-President of Montreal Board of Trade.

Residence: 1517 Pine Avenue West, Montreal, Que.

MRS. J. S. DIGNAM
TORONTO, ONT.

As a painter and interpreter of nature's unique and rich colourings in Canada Mrs. Dignam has established an international reputation. Her exhibitions in London, Paris and New York have called from the critics unstinted praise for her outstanding sense of colour value and the strength and fidelity of her treatment of the subject matter of her pictures. Her work is to be found in both public and private collections in this country, England, the United States and Europe.

Allied to her great talent as an artist Mrs. Dignam is gifted with unusual organizing ability and breadth of vision. Both these qualities she has placed, without reserve, at the disposal of the Dominion's women art workers. She was the Founder, in 1887, of the Women's Art Association of Canada which, since its inception, has exercised an undoubted and stimulating influence throughout the Dominion. This Association, which is now affiliated with the International Association of Lyceum Clubs, has become the Lyceum Women's Art Association of Canada, and Mrs. Dignam is its Advisory President and Founder. In addition her work as representative of Canada on International bodies has been noteworthy and thorough. She is Convener of Arts of the International Council of Women and of the Arts and Letters section of the National Council of Women (Canada). She is one of the original members of the International Arts Club and a member of the Incorporated Society of Authors, Playwrights and Composers, both of London, England.

In 1928 she was the Honorary Representative of the Dominion Government at the First International Congress for Popular Arts of the Institute of the Intellectual Co-operation of the League of Nations, which was held at Prague. In 1929 she represented the International Council of Women, at Berne; and in 1930 she went to Vienna as a delegate from the National Council of Women of Canada, and as Convener of Arts for the International Council, to the International Quinquennial Conference.

She was one of the first Organizing Executive Committee of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She is a member of the National Arts, Barnard and Pen and Brush Clubs of New York.

Of United Empire Loyalist descent, and for many years Vice-President of the United Empire Loyalist Association, Mary Ella, daughter of Byron Williams and Margaret Ferguson, was born at Charlotteville, Simcoe County, Ontario. She was educated privately; afterwards attending for one year at the High School, London, Ontario. She then continued her studies, specializing in art and music, in New York and Paris.

She married, on March 2nd, 1880, John Sifton Dignam, eldest son of Reverend William Dignam and Elizabeth Sifton, and of this union there are three children: a daughter, Frances Lillian, married to Sir John van Hoogenhouck Tulleken, of The Hague, Holland, now resident in Toronto; and two sons, William Stanley Trevelyan and Hugh Molineux. The latter, who served overseas in the Great War, won the Military Cross.

Residence: 252 Poplar Plains Road, Toronto.

MRS. WELLINGTON DIXON
MONTREAL, QUE.

ONE of Montreal's hardest workers on behalf of its under-privileged citizens is Mrs. Wellington Dixon who, over a period of more than thirty years, has devoted a great part of her energy and ability to its varied social welfare movements. Since 1900 she has been a member of the Board of the Montreal Day Nursery; and has been its President since 1912. For a number of years she has been a member of the Budget Committee of the Financial Federation in which capacity she has done invaluable work. Among the local organizations in which she has held executive office are: Montreal Council of Social Agencies (ex-President), Social Service Exchange Committee (Chairman) and Committee of Management, Children's Bureau.

During the Great War she did noteworthy work; and was responsible for the organization of the South of France Relief Association, whose efforts in the interests of sick and wounded French soldiers were both commendable and successful. Mrs. Wellington Dixon was its President for four years and was one of those responsible for the collection of the necessary funds which enabled the Association, in one year alone, to send over ten thousand articles of medical comforts for the use of the poilus in hospital along the coast of the south of France. The Association, in addition, maintained nurses and masseuses in the French military hospitals; and gave relief to distressed soldiers' dependents.

Born in Danville, P.Q., Isabel Greenshields is the daughter of the late John Greenshields and Margaret White, both of whom came from Lanarkshire, Scotland. She was educated at Danville Academy and Compton Ladies' College. She married, on July 11th, 1888, Wellington Dixon, son of the late John Dixon and Janet Macdonald, both of Scottish descent. Of the marriage there has been one child: Shirley Dixon, K.C., who is married to Inez McLachlan, of Montreal. Their two children are: John Andrew and Janet Elizabeth.

Both Mrs. Dixon's brothers have distinguished themselves in the legal world. The one is Chief Justice R. A. E. Greenshields; the other James N. Greenshields, K.C., famed as a criminal lawyer.

Mr. Wellington Dixon, who was born at Highfield, P.E.I., was educated at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, whence he graduated in 1874. He is Bachelor of Arts of McGill University; and in 1883 was Gold Medalist in English Literature. In 1921 McGill University conferred upon him the honour of LL.D. From 1903 to 1922 he was Master and Rector of Montreal High School; and has a wide reputation as an educationist.

Residence: 16 Weredale Park, Montreal.

LADY DRUMMOND
MONTREAL, QUE.

LADY DRUMMOND wishes her story to be told only in such work as she has been privileged to do and in hopes and thoughts she has cherished for Canada, for the Empire and the World.

Her hope for Canada is that it shall be great among the nations not only through the development of its great natural resources but most of all through the character of its people—in their freedom from prejudice and faction, in a common loyalty which binds and blends, in clean dealing and an untarnished name.

For the Empire of which Canada is so large and vital a part, her hope is that it will become more and more surely founded as a "world encircling group of related Nations united on a basis of equality and partnership and united, at least mainly, by moral and spiritual bonds."*

She believes that the British Empire, in spite of faults and failings, stands for something high and fine, for liberty and order and justice; that it points and leads the way to a still greater interdependence, even the unity of the world.

In referring to her work during the Great War, Lady Drummond said: "The blessed healing work of the Red Cross sustained and comforted not only the wounded soldier and his relatives but fully as much the workers themselves. Of these there was a great host, many Canadians, many of Great Britain, while Canada gave of her largesse for the support not only of the Canadian Red Cross Society but for the King George and Queen Mary Maple Leaf Clubs for Canadian soldiers on leave, where 565,830 beds were occupied by our soldiers between August, 1915, and the late summer of 1919."

Lady Drummond took an active part in the inception and development of the National Council of Women of Canada, of the Charity Organization (now the Family Welfare Society of Montreal), of the Victorian Order of Nurses and of other movements for the public good, but she says she has no title to fame save in her son, who gave his life at St. Julien on April 22, 1915. His son, born some months afterwards and called by his name Guy Melfort, is now at Bishop's College school, Lennoxville.

Lady Drummond's final words were: "Those whose lives have been touched by the Great War bear a special responsibility. Out of the world's greatest tragedy must be born a strong resolve and a high, indomitable hope. 'THIS MUST NEVER HAPPEN AGAIN.'"

*The late Viscount Milner.

MRS. P. E. DOOLITTLE
TORONTO, ONT.

FROM 1922 to 1925 Mrs. Doolittle was the National President of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The work of this organization has been her outstanding interest; and she has given unsparingly of her time to the furtherance of its aims and objects. Her interest in the Order dates back to 1904 when she became a member of the Chamberlain Chapter, Toronto, of which she is the Honorary Regent. She is also an Honorary Vice-President of the National Chapter.

The daughter of William Henry Pearson and Mary A. Cline, Emily Esther Doolittle was born in Toronto; and in that city received her education.

She married Dr. Perry Ernest Doolittle. Her daughter, Edith Irene, married to Dr. Clarence P. Thomas, of New York, is deceased; while her son, Gordon Westover, married Muriel Lake, of London, England, on June 26th, 1916.

Dr. Doolittle was the promoter—and is the chief advocate of—the Trans-Canada Highway, to the realization of which project he has devoted many years' energy. He is the President of the Canadian Automobile Association; and one of the founders and Vice-President of the Ontario Safety League.

The Doctor graduated in Medicine from Trinity University in 1886.

Mrs. Doolittle, who resides at 619 Sherbourne Street, Toronto, is a member of the Toronto Ladies' Club, Women's Canadian Club, Carlton Club, Lambton Golf and Country Club and the Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club, Toronto.

MRS. H. C. DRUMMOND
VANCOUVER, B.C.

MRS. DRUMMOND, probably one of the Dominion's most-travelled women, has a diversity of social and philanthropic interests; and has a large circle of friends in all countries. She has made the tour of the world five times; and during the year 1899 spent some months between Siberia, the northern islands of Japan and remote parts of Korea. During these journeyings she contributed details of her experiences to the London "Sphere" and "Wide World"; the "Canadian Magazine" and other periodicals. She lived for some time in Shanghai and Paris, France. During the Great War her chief work was with the Coronation Chapter of the I.O.D.E. of which she was Regent 1914-1918. She was Regent of the Municipal Chapter 1918-1920 and in the latter year was elected Provincial President. She is also a Life Member of the National Chapter. Mrs. Drummond is a Life Member of the National Council of Women and the Vancouver General Hospital.

Born in Montreal, she, Helen Frances Mitcheson, is the youngest daughter of Stanley Clark Bagg, of Durham House, Montreal; and Catharine Mitcheson, of Philadelphia, U.S.A., daughter of Robert Mitcheson, of Northumberland, England; and Fanny MacGregor, of Stirling, Scotland. Mr. S. C. Bagg was noted for his patriotic services and philanthropy; and possessed great literary ability, being an authority on numismatic and antiquarian subjects.

She was educated in Canada, England and Europe; and excelled in English literature, especially poetry and composition.

On April 16th, 1891, at Montreal, she married Albert Edward Lewis, son of John Lewis, of Caerwys, North Wales; and Matilda Snowdon. Her second marriage took place in Vancouver on August 7th, 1911, to Herbert Charles Drummond, who was born at Nani Tal, India, the son of the Honourable Robert Drummond, of Strathallan Castle, Perthshire, Scotland; and Anna Maria Reade, of Ibsen House, Berkshire, England. The Drummond family has been famous for distinction of lineage, prowess in arms and loyalty to the throne. Mr. Drummond's grandfather (Viscount Strathallan and Earl of Perth) who married the daughter of John, Duke of Atholl, succeeded in having the attainder removed and restoring the family estates which had been lost by his grandfather, who fell at Culloden while fighting for Prince Charles. Mr. Drummond's father gave notably distinguished service in India during the Mutiny.

Mrs. Drummond, in 1914, had the honour of being presented at the Court of St. James.

Residence: "Fairmount", 1960 Robson Street, Vancouver, B.C.

MRS.
H. B. DUNINGTON-GRUBB
ROSEDALE, TORONTO, ONT.

THE distinction of being the first woman landscape architect in the Dominion belongs to Mrs. H. B. Dunington-Grubb. She had an established reputation in the United Kingdom before coming to this country with her husband. In Toronto they founded the firm of H. B. and L. A. Dunington-Grubb which has been responsible for a number of the outstanding examples of landscape gardening in Canada. In connection with this firm, and in order to produce the variety of trees necessary for their work, the Sheridan Nurseries, of Toronto, was started.

Lorrie Alfreda Dunington was born at Wimbledon, Surrey, England, on June 25th, 1877, the daughter of Alfred William Dunington, of Nottingham, England, and Martha Treglohan, of Portsmouth. Her father was a well-known engineer in India and South Africa for over thirty years, the construction of many important bridges being to his credit. Her mother's family is an old Cornish one.

Educated at the Wimbledon High School, Miss Dunington subsequently studied practical gardening at the Swanley Horticultural College, Kent, afterwards specializing in landscape architecture. The second woman to take this up as a profession she, on completion of her training, opened offices in London, England, and carried out important commissions in various parts of the British Isles.

In 1911, on May 22nd, she married, at Brighton, England, Howard Burlingham Grubb, B.S.A., Cornell University, who was born at Scarborough, Yorkshire, on April 30th, 1881. He is the son of Edward Grubb, M.A., of Sudbury, Suffolk, England, and Emma Horsnaill, of Bulford, Essex. Both his parents are of very old Quaker families; and his father is the author of a number of well-known books on the subject of the Quaker faith, about which he has also lectured extensively.

For two years Mrs. Dunington-Grubb was on the staff of the Toronto University in the department of Social Service as lecturer on Housing and Town Planning. She has also lectured under the Ontario Department of Agriculture on civic beautification and before Horticultural Societies, Women's Canadian Clubs, Architectural and Engineering Societies, University Extension Classes throughout the Dominion on various phases of city planning and gardening. She is also well known as a writer on horticultural subjects.

Mrs. Dunington-Grubb was elected President of the Lyceum Women's Art Association of Canada in 1926, and still holds the office.

Residence: 33 Astley Avenue, Rosedale.

MRS. D. A. DUNLAP
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. DAVID A. DUNLAP was born at Pembroke, Ontario, the daughter, Jessie Donald, of John Bell and Mary Ann Gordon, both of whom were born in Scotland. Her father, who settled first as a lumberman in New Brunswick, moved overland to the Ottawa Valley where he developed an extensive lumbering business and became one of the prominent lumbermen of the country. She was educated at the Public and High Schools of Pembroke.

On January 18th, 1908, she married David Alexander Dunlap, son of Arunah Dunlap, of Pembroke, Ontario, and of the marriage there is one son, David Moffat.

Mr. D. A. Dunlap, who was a distinguished lawyer, became interested in mining development in the Dominion and did outstandingly important work in the opening up of the Cobalt and Porcupine mining districts. Mr. Dunlap died on October 29th, 1924.

Mrs. Dunlap's interests are many and varied and she is rendering the community great service in a variety of directions. Together with her husband, she was one of the founders of the mental hygiene movement in Canada which culminated in the formation of the Canadian National Council of Mental Hygiene. She was for some time President of the Social Service Department of the Toronto General Hospital. She takes the keenest interest in the Sherbourne United Church and participates in a number of its activities. She is also a keen supporter of the work of the Big Sister movement and the Bolton Fresh Air Camp. The Donalds Farm, which was started by her husband, she continues to maintain and direct. This model farm, which has one of the finest herds of Guernsey cattle in the Dominion, is widely known for its excellent experimental work.

Mrs. Dunlap resides at "Hillside", Rosedale, Toronto.

MADAME J. BACHAND DUPUIS
COATICOOK, QUE.

MADAME JEANNE BACHAND DUPUIS is the daughter of Denis Stanislas Bachand, one of the Eastern Townships' prominent business men, and Anna Tremblay; and is the wife of Dr. Adelard Napoleon Dupuis, of Coaticook, to whom she was married in 1920. She has one daughter, Madeleine.

Jeanne Bachand was born in Coaticook where she now resides. She was educated at Outremont Convent and, for two years, at Notre Dame Ladies' College, Montreal. She studied elocution at La Salle Conservatory and was a pupil of the late Beatrice Lapalme and her husband, Mr. Salvator Issarrel. She also studied music with the Russian Master, Boris Denew; and has won a coveted place in musical circles in Montreal, Sherbrooke and her native town. During the Great War (1914-1918) Madame Bachand Dupuis gave generously of her time and talent in Red Cross and other patriotic work, and has always supported musical and literary organizations.

During her student years she was a member of the Morning Musical Club of Montreal; is now an active member of the Union Musicale and the Schubert Club, of Sherbrooke; and has taken part in many notable musical events, having sung twelve operatic roles, among these Delilah, Juliette, Mireille, as well as other classics.

Madame Bachand Dupuis is alive to the possibilities awaiting Canadian women and is interested in literary and social life. She enjoys motoring and travel, but is happiest when engaged in things musical. Her father's family came originally from Vercheres. It is one of the old and notable families which came from France to Canada in early days.

LADY EATON
TORONTO, ONT.

ONE hundred years ago the grandfather of Lady Eaton cleared the virgin forest to make himself a home and start farming. Her father was John McCrea, of Omemee, Ont., who was married to Jane McNeeley. Florence McCrea was born in that town and it was at the local High School that she received her education.

In 1901, on May 8th, she was married to John Craig Eaton, who was knighted in 1915 for war services and died on 30th March, 1922. Of her marriage she has five children: Timothy Craig, John David Edgar Allison, Gilbert McCrea, Florence Mary; and in addition she has adopted another child, Evelyn Beatrice. Because some of her children are still abroad pursuing their studies Lady Eaton has resigned her position on the board of a number of social works and benevolent associations. Thus it comes about that her only active association at this time is with the Eaton Girls' Club, although she has always kept her association with the Women's College Hospital. She is also on the Trustee Board and the Quarterly Board of the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church having, in these latter instances, taken over the place formerly occupied by her husband.

Charities and benevolent movements find in Lady Eaton a ready and generous supporter; while she is the inspiration of a number of societies concerned with the development of the fine arts. Her interests cover all the cultural arts, such as painting, literature and the drama; she herself is a mezzo-soprano of repute and she has taken the lead in fostering singing, both concert and choral. When she is in residence at "Kawandag", Rosseau, Muskoka, the villagers meet there once a week for community singing with the result that they have become quite accomplished in this direction and have also developed a taste for music of the higher class. She has also taken a year's training as a nurse.

The call of the open air is an irresistible one to Lady Eaton, a devotee of riding, tennis, swimming, golf and gardening.

Her Clubs are: Toronto Ladies' Granite, Eglinton Hunt, Lambton Golf, York Downs Golf, Muskoka Lakes Golf, Summit Golf and Rosedale Golf Lady Eaton's Toronto address is: "Ardwold", 480 Davenport Road.

MRS. R. Y. EATON
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. R. Y. EATON plays an active part in Toronto's cultural and social life. Together with her husband she is a generous and sympathetic helper of many good causes; while she is an enthusiastic supporter of the arts, especially of music.

Born at Carberry, Manitoba, she is the daughter, Hazel Margaret, of Walter Wallace Ireland, who was born in Dublin, Ireland; and of Margaret Nicol, who was born at Wingham, Ontario. Mrs. Eaton was educated at Carberry and afterwards studied music, the piano and organ, for four years at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, whence she graduated in 1910 as an A.T.C.M. and L.T.C.M.

Mrs. Eaton's father, Walter Wallace Ireland, after a successful career as a civil engineer, entered the lumber industry in Carberry, Manitoba, where he died in July, 1917.

Mrs. Eaton's marriage took place in Carberry, December 13, 1911, to Robert Young Eaton who was born at Killyree, Dunaghy, County Antrim, Ireland, on July 11, 1875, son of John Eaton and Margaret Herbinson. Of the marriage there are five children: Margaret Craig and John Wallace (twins), Nora, Erskine Robert, and Alan Young.

Mrs. Eaton is a patroness of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir, Honorary President of the Toronto Conservatory of Music Residents Alumni, a life patron of the Women's Art Association, Associate Member of the Union Interalliée of France; a member of the Lambton Golf and Country Club, Toronto Ladies' Golf Club, Toronto Hunt Eglinton, Toronto Skating Club, The Badminton and Racquet Club, The Carlton Club of Toronto and the Embassy Club of New York.

Mr. Robert Young Eaton has had a noteworthy business career. He is President of The T. Eaton Co., Limited, of Canada. He is a Director of the Dominion Bank, President of the Art Gallery of Toronto, and a member of the Board of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. He was appointed on November 1st, 1929, Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel of the Governor-General's Body Guard.

Residence: "Killyree", Highland Avenue, Toronto.

MRS. TIMOTHY EATON
TORONTO, ONT.

AN EXCEPTIONALLY useful and active life has been that of Mrs. Timothy Eaton, widow of the late Timothy Eaton, founder of the T. Eaton Company. During her husband's life she was a loyal and wise co-operator with him in his business and philanthropic activities; and she now maintains the keen interest she always displayed in the welfare of the great Canadian business institution, of which she is Honorary President.

Mrs. Timothy Eaton founded the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression; and she played an important part in the building and establishment of the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, at Toronto, as a memorial to her husband.

Born in Toronto on March 8th, 1841, she is the daughter, Margaret Wilson, of the late Joseph Beattie, of Woodstock, Ontario, and Elizabeth Tilt, of Woodstock, Ontario. She was educated at Toronto and Woodstock, Ontario.

She married, at Toronto, on May 28th, 1862, Timothy Eaton, who was born in 1834, at Clogher, near Ballymena, County Antrim, Ireland. Of her marriage there were eight children: Edward Young, William Fletcher, John Craig, Josephine S. (Mrs. Burnside), Margaret B. (Mrs. C. E. Burden); and three who died in infancy.

Mrs. Timothy Eaton, who is a member of the United Church of Canada, is a generous supporter of its work. All movements for the furtherance of the dramatic and pictorial arts find in her a ready helper and counsellor.

Residences: 182 Lowther Avenue, Toronto; "Raymar", Oakville, Ontario; and "Ravenscrag", Windermere, Muskoka.

MRS. W. F. EATON
OAKVILLE, ONT.

MRS. W. F. EATON is especially fond of travelling and spends a part of every year on the continent of Europe. She is interested in the work of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. Her home at Oakville is her great delight and a centre of charming hospitality.

Born in Toronto, she is the daughter, Gertrude Nora, of William Cook, of England; and Maria Whichello, of England. She was educated at Dufferin High School, Toronto.

She was married on March 10th, 1898, at

All Saints' Church, Toronto, to William Fletcher Eaton, son of the late Timothy Eaton and Margaret Wilson Beattie; and of the marriage there are four children: Josephine Nora (married to George Leishman, of Toronto); Noel Beattie; Ruth Whichello and Margaret Wilson.

Colonel W. F. Eaton, who is Honorary Lt. Colonel of the 2nd Dragoons, is a manufacturer in Hamilton; and of the Eaton Knitting Company of that city.

Residence: "Ballymena", Oakville, Ontario.

MRS. A. T. EDWARDS
LONDON, ONT.

A Fourth-Generation Canadian, being a descendant, on her maternal side, of the Greys after whom Grey County was named, Mrs. Alfred Thomas Edwards has lived a full life very largely devoted to public and social work. Her reputation is international and her efforts have been unsparing in the interests of the various causes she has championed.

Recently she has been untiring in the movement for Peace and went to Geneva as a delegate of the Peace Section of the World Federation of Educational Associations, under the Herman-Jordan Peace Plan. She is the Organizing Secretary of the London branch of the League of Nations Society.

Twenty years ago she organized the Women's Canadian Club in London; and was also responsible for organizing Western Ontario for the Red Cross Society.

Mrs. Edwards was one of the leaders in the work towards the building of the Byron Sanatorium for Soldiers as well as the Westminster Hospital for mentally disabled soldiers. She is one of the Alma Daughters of St. Thomas, Past President of the City Association and President of the Western Ontario Women's Conservative Association. A great church worker she was also one of the first women members of the School Board. These are the outstanding channels of her endeavours and may be taken as an indication of the public spirit which animates her.

Born at Elora, Wellington County, Ontario, she is the daughter, Fanny Laura, of William Henry Derby and Annie Grey. Her education was received at Brantford and at Alma College, St. Thomas. From the latter she graduated with M.E.L. degree.

Her marriage to Alfred Thomas Edwards took place on August 28th, 1889. She has two sons, Harold and Leslie.

Mrs. Edwards lives at 183 Oxford Street, London, Ont.

MRS. GEORGE EDWARDS
KOMOKA, ONT.

ONE of the most public-spirited women of Western Ontario, as well as one of its hardest workers, is Mrs. George Edwards, of Komoka. Her efforts on behalf of the Women's Institute movement since its inception have been monumental. For twenty years she has not failed to give of her best in the interests of this movement, first as Local President, then District President and County President. Later she was President for fifteen years for Western Ontario; and for three terms Provincial President. In addition to her work for the Women's Institute she is a member of the Board of the London Memorial Hospital and the Toronto Royal Winter Fair; while she is identified with the activities of the Navy League; and is Provincial Convener for Canadian Industry.

Alice Catharine, daughter of John Edwards and Catharine McLean, both descendants of pioneer families, was born in Lobo Township, Middlesex County. When but seventeen years old she married George Edwards, of Komoka, son of Jeremiah Edwards and Sarah Alway.

Her two sons are William F., an honorary graduate of both McMaster and Columbia Universities, now resident in New York City; and Homer P., a college graduate, who resides on the homestead.

Residence: Komoka, Ontario.

MRS. DAWSON KERR ELLIOTT
WINNIPEG, MANITOBA

*M*OVING Westward from Ontario in 1879 Mrs. Dawson Kerr Elliott and her husband, strongly possessed of the pioneer spirit, have played, through the changing fortunes of the West, a consistent part in its development. They settled in Winnipeg and have seen it grow from a small town to the third city of the Dominion. In the welfare work of Winnipeg Mrs. Elliott has always taken a leading and active part. Mother of eight children she has taken the time from a busy life to look after the interests of those children whose lot has been less happy than her own. For over thirty years she has been a hard-working member of the Board of Management of the Winnipeg Children's Home; and for three years was its President. In memory of her son Jack, who was killed in France during the Great War, she has furnished a ward for twelve boys in the Home.

Born at Arnprior, Ontario, on April 10th, 1857, Mary Alice McCreary is the daughter of James McCreary, who came from Armagh, Ireland, and Elizabeth Wallace, a native of Glasgow, Scotland.

She was married on June 12th, 1878, at Arnprior, to Dawson Kerr Elliott, son of John Elliott (of Irish descent) and Margaret, daughter of George Kerr, of Perth, Ontario. Mr. Elliott is President of the firm of R. J. White & Co., Ltd., Wholesale Dry Goods Merchants, of Winnipeg. He is a Director of the Royal Bank of Canada and of the Northern Trust Company.

Mrs. Elliott has four daughters: Mrs. Frank McMurray, Mrs. J. B. Coyne, Mrs. Ralph McGuckin, all of Winnipeg, and Mrs. Alfred Pearson, of Paris, France. Her sons are: James H. and Raymond, of Winnipeg; and Dawson, of Vancouver. Jack, who was at the Royal Military College, Kingston, joined Lord Strathcona's Horse on the outbreak of the Great War. He afterwards transferred to the Royal Flying Corps and met his death in the Douai Valley on April 16th, 1917.

The occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott's golden wedding was celebrated at their summer home at the Lake of the Woods.

Residence: "The Fort Garry", Broadway, Winnipeg.

MRS. FREDERICK ETHERINGTON
KINGSTON, ONT.

MRS. ETHERINGTON'S interests are widely benevolent and at present she is First Vice-President of the National Council of Women and Convener of the Foundation Fund. Her charities embrace all worthy objects not only in Kingston, but outside as well. She is a member of the Cataraqui Golf Club, the Kingston Badminton Club, and founder of the Kingston Art and Music Club. The latter supports the George Taylor Richardson Bequest for the furtherance of Art within Queen's University, and this Fund is administered by her.

Mrs. Etherington's name is known to many people as mistress of "Fettercairn", her beautiful country house at Chaffey's Locks on the Rideau, forty miles from Kingston. During the war this lovely place was fitted up at its owner's expense as a private hospital for nervous and shell-shocked soldiers, with a special staff of doctors and nurses, much assistance being rendered by the Voluntary Aid Detachment of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade. The hospital which contained forty-five beds remained open from 1916 to 1919, and many a tired veteran here regained his health and spirits. The Island on which the hospital was situated has recently been given by Mrs. Etherington to the Girl Guides for a Dominion Camp. The part of the estate on which is the garden has been retained by her, for gardening is her hobby, and Fettercairn garden is worth seeing.

Mrs. Etherington was born in Kingston, the daughter of George and Agnes McCausland Richardson, and educated at public and private schools in Kingston and at Miss Veale's School in Toronto. Her marriage to Dr. Frederick Etherington, C.M.G., of Kingston, took place in 1921. Address: 118 University Avenue, Kingston, Ontario.

MRS. RHYS D. FAIRBAIRN
TORONTO, ONT.

*M*RS. RHYS D. FAIRBAIRN has generously placed her organizing ability at the service of several of the movements most important in the Dominion. During 1917-1919 she was Corresponding Secretary of the National Council of Women; while she was Honorary Secretary of the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto from 1921 until 1923. In the latter year she was elected to its Presidency, which office she held until 1925. She was President also of the Toronto Y.W.C.A., 1911-1912. From 1920 to 1922 she was Honorary Secretary of the Canadian Council, Girl Guides Association as well as during 1924. She again resumed the duties as such in 1928 and still holds the office. In addition, Mrs.

Fairbairn has been actively interested in the National Council of Education, the Toronto Branch of the League of Nations Society and the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Born in Toronto, Ontario, she is the daughter, Ida Dregge, of William Thomas Aikins, M.D., LL.D., (born in Burnamthorpe, Ontario); and Lydia Ann Piper (born in Toronto, Ontario). Dr. W. T. Aikins was an outstanding surgeon of his time. He was Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto (1887-1892); and Treasurer of the College of Physicians and Surgeons from 1866 until his death in 1897.

After attending the Model School at Toronto, Mrs. Fairbairn continued her studies at Dana Hall, Wellesley, Mass., U.S.A., and at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., U.S.A. She took a course of Library Science, 1895-6, at the Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, (now the Illinois Library School, at Urbana, Illinois). From 1898 to 1900 she was Librarian at the State Normal School, Winona, Minn., U.S.A.

She married, on June 9th, 1900, at Cleveland, Ohio, Rhys Dakers Fairbairn, who was born at Bowmanville, Ontario, the son of James Brougham Fairbairn (of Bowmanville, Ontario); and Caroline Diamond (of Toronto, Ontario). Mr. J. B. Fairbairn, whose father came to Canada in 1821 from Berwickshire, Scotland, was for over forty years Postmaster at Bowmanville, and devoted his attention to the building up of the school system in the town. He was Chairman of the School Board from 1887 until 1906.

Of the marriage there are three children: Rhys Aikins; Beatrice Helen (married to William J. Temple, of New York City, U.S.A.); and Margaret Eleanor.

Residence: 53 Oriole Gardens, Toronto, Ontario

MRS. GEORGE HOWARD FERGUSON
TORONTO, ONT.

THE wife of the Prime Minister of Ontario is a third-generation Canadian on her paternal side. Her father's family were United Empire Loyalists who came into Canada from the Genesee Valley.

She is the daughter, Ellen, of Alexander Cumming and Sarah McGee. Prior to studying in Europe she had received her education at the Kemptville Public and High Schools and at Butte House, Montreal.

Her marriage to the Hon. George Howard Ferguson took place on April 14th, 1896, at Buckingham, Quebec, at the time when he was rapidly building up a sound reputation in his chosen profession of the Law. There was one child born to them, a son who died in infancy.

Mrs. Ferguson, in addition to her official duties, has been a very hard worker in the interests of the various charitable movements of the Province. Especially has she taken a lead in all of the activities regarding children's welfare. The Infants' Home and Crippled Children's Work are indebted to her for her generous support. She is also a member of the Red Cross Society and of the I.O.D.E.

Among her Clubs are the Toronto Ladies', Toronto Hunt, Carleton York and Yacht.

Travelling is the recreation of which she is the fondest; while her love of and aptitude for entertaining have been invaluable to her in her official capacity as hostess of the Provincial Premier.

The Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, K.C., B.A., LL.D., M.L.A., has been Prime Minister of Ontario since July 16th, 1923. (His father, Charles F. Ferguson, M.D., represented North Leeds and Grenville in the House of Commons from 1873 until 1896, when he retired.) He was first elected to the Legislature from Grenville at the general election in 1905, and he has continued to represent the same constituency. During the Hearst Administration he was Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines from December 1914 until the resignation of the Cabinet in 1919. On December 2nd, 1920 he was elected leader of the Conservative Party, and, upon the defeat of the Drury Administration at the general election of 1923, was called upon by the Lieutenant-Governor to form a cabinet which he was successful in doing. He was sworn in as President of the Council and Minister of Education on July 16th, 1923.

He has shown the greatest statesmanship and ability during his term of office and on numerous occasions both the Province and the Dominion have found in him a doughty champion of their rights and exponent of their views.

Mrs. Ferguson's home address is: 559 Avenue Road, Toronto.

MRS. A. J. FERGUSON-BURKE
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. A. J. FERGUSON-BURKE is a member of the well-known and distinguished Ferguson family, being the daughter, Annie J., of the late Isaac Ferguson, Esquire, Cookstown, Ontario, and his wife, Emily J. Gowan, daughter of Colonel Ogle R. Gowan, M.P., founder of the Loyal Orange Association in British America.

She was educated at Bishop Strachan's School, Toronto.

Married in 1896 William Robert Burke, a distinguished Civil Engineer, son of Rev. Canon Burke, who died the following year. Mrs. Ferguson-Burke thereafter made her home with her brothers Hon. Mr. Justice W. N. Ferguson and Mr. Harcourt Ferguson, K.C. Their beautiful home has long been a centre of hospitality.

Interested and identified with various patriotic, philanthropic and social activities Mrs. Ferguson-Burke is an outstanding figure among Canadian womanhood, not alone by virtue of her own accomplishments but also on account of the public-spirited achievements of members of her immediate family.

Mrs. Ferguson-Burke is a member of the Toronto Golf Club.

Residence: 244 St. George Street, Toronto.

MRS. C. M. DE R. FINNISS
QUEBEC, QUE.

AN ENERGETIC worker in the interests of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is Mrs. C. M. de R. Finniss, in which organization she has held the following offices: National Vice-President, Provincial Vice-President, Municipal Regent of Quebec, Vice-Regent, Secretary-Treasurer and Organizing Secretary; and at the present time is a member of the National Executive. She is a Life Member of the National, Provincial and Municipal Chapters, I.O.D.E. During the period of her residence in Montreal she was Secretary and member of the Executive of the Canadian Handicraft Guild, Vice-President of the Labrador Medical Mission and Assistant Convener of the Christmas arrangements in connection with the Soldiers' Wives League. On going to Quebec City, Mrs. Finniss threw the same energy and enthusiasm into her public work and was Convener of the First Victory Loan campaign among the women of Quebec. Convener of the triple campaign for the Red Cross, Navy League and War Contingent Association, Convener of the Canteen for returned soldiers' families and dependents. She has been President of the Y.W.C.A. and Women's Canadian Club, Vice-President Red Cross Society in Quebec and for ten years was General Convener I.O.D.E. Fresh Air Camp. She is now National Convener of the Navy League, I.O.D.E., President of the Women's Committee of the Lake Edward Sanitorium, Treasurer, Decorative Art Society and Women's Exchange, President, Poppy Day Committee.

Born in the city of Quebec, she is the third daughter of the late Richard Turner, M.L.C., and Emily Ellis. Privately educated in Quebec she afterwards attended college at Berthier-en-Haut. On September 3rd, 1912, she was married to Charles Malo de Rune Finniss.

Mrs. Finniss is an active sportswoman and is a Past President and Captain of the Quebec Ladies' Golf Club. She is also a member of the Kent Golf Club, the Beaconsfield Golf Club, the Ladies' branch, Garrison Club, Quebec, and the Themis Club, Montreal. Her address is 35 Laporte Street, Quebec, Que.

LADY FLAVELLE
TORONTO, ONT.

HISTORY is replete with instances of the part played by the wives of famous men in providing them with the inspiration for their work and being ready with their shrewd womanly counsel to assist them in forming their policies and executing their plans. We have an instance of this in this country. Sir Joseph W. Flavelle, Baronet, one of the Dominion's leading business men, frankly avows that the inspiration he receives from his wife is a priceless thing. Throughout his career of the greatest industry Lady Flavelle has been his invaluable help.

Lady Flavelle was born at Paris, Ontario, the daughter, Clara, of the Rev. Oran Hamilton Ellsworth and Eliza Thompson, and is a third-generation Canadian. Her father was a pioneer Methodist minister of very considerable repute, and a descendant of one of the first of the United Empire Loyalists who came into Canada.

Of her marriage to Sir Joseph W. Flavelle, which took place on September 20th, 1882, there have been three children: Mina Irene (Mrs. W. W. Barrett), Clara Ellsworth (Mrs. F. Y. McEachren) and Joseph Ellsworth.

Lady Flavelle takes the greatest possible interest in the work of the Victoria University, of which she is a member of the Board of Regents. She also serves on the committee of the National Council of Women and the Regent Chapter of the I.O.D.E. She is in addition, a Life Patron of the Lyceum Women's Art Association. Her clubs are the Women's Musical and Women's Canadian.

Very widely travelled, she is a delightful conversationalist; and finds her chief recreation in bridge, reading and travel.

Sir Joseph is President of the National Trust Company; Chairman of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; and President of the Canadian Marconi Company. He has been unsparing in his public service in varied directions. His baronetcy was conferred upon him in 1917.

Residences: "Holwood" Queen's Park Toronto and "Ashburnham", Oakville, Ont.

MRS. SANDFORD FLEMING
OTTAWA, ONT.

THE role of the hostess is an important one in the life of a community. Ottawa, in Mrs. Sandford Fleming, is fortunate in the possession of one hostess who carries out her duties as such in a manner altogether admirable. The Fleming house is the rendezvous where can be met the outstanding personalities, Canadian and international. In this direction her contribution to the amenities of the social and literary life in the Dominion has been an invaluable one.

To her success in entertaining, her broad outlook and activities have largely contributed. She is a clever writer of both verse and prose. Keenly interested in interior decoration she is also a collector of antique furniture.

Before her marriage she was Gertrude Dickinson Mackintosh, a daughter of Hon. Charles Herbert Mackintosh, former Governor of the North West Territories, and of Gertrude Terry Cooke. She was born at Strathroy, Ontario, on January 4th, 1874; and was educated in Ottawa at Miss Harmon's School and the Ottawa Ladies' College.

She married Sandford Fleming, C.E., eldest surviving son of the late Sir Sandford Fleming, K.C.M.G., C.E., LL.D., on November 7th, 1891, since which time, with the exception of the War period, her residence has always been in Ottawa.

During the Great War she performed distinguished service. She was Commandant of the Canadian Convalescent Hospital at Luton House, Selling, Kent (1915); and at Lympore Castle (1916-1917). She also worked at the Canadian Canteen, Beaver Hut, London, in 1918.

Her family is: Archie, Mrs. R. O. Johnson (of Montreal), Edward and Mrs. Angus MacLean (of Louisville, Ky. U.S.A.)

Residence: 194 Chapel Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

MRS. KENNETH K. FORBES
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. KENNETH K. FORBES is an artist of originality and merit. Her work, while it has been mainly of the commercial class, has displayed a freshness and technique which has brought about a growing demand for her creative talent.

Born in Karachi, India, Jean Mary de Coetlogan, is the daughter of Colonel Edward Arnold Edgell, Royal Engineers (Indian Army); and Francis Sophia Williams. She was educated at Mill Hill, London, England; Paris (France) and Honnefam-Rhein (Germany). She studied art at the South Western Polytechnic, Chelsea, London.

She was married on June 4th, 1919, at Bedford, England, to Captain Kenneth Keith Forbes, who was born in Toronto, son of John Colin Forbes, R.C.A., and Laura Forbes. Of the marriage there is one daughter, June.

Captain Kenneth K. Forbes, A.R.C.A., O.S.A., is the well-known Canadian artist who has established a great reputation as a portrait painter. He has painted the portraits of some of the leading women of the Dominion and his work has been exhibited in the Canadian Academy exhibitions for a number of years.

Mrs. Forbes who is a member of a number of social and sports clubs, is very fond of all forms of open-air life.

Residence: 87 Alcina Avenue, Toronto.

LADY FORGET
MONTREAL, QUE.

L'ENTENTE COR-DIALE" is charmingly exemplified in Lady Forget, widow of Sir Rodolphe Forget, whose death occurred in 1919. Her maiden name was Blanche
McDonald, her father being Rodrigue Alexandre McDonald of Quebec
City; and in the French Christian names and Scotch surnames of both is told a story that is many times repeated in Canada, of the amicable and loyal associations of these two different nationalities.

Quebec City was Lady Forget's birthplace, and there she was educated at the Ursuline Convent. Her marriage took place in 1894, and she has four children: Mrs. Pierre Casgrain, prominent in political, social and philanthropic circles, and three sons, Gilles, Maurice and Jacques, all of Montreal.

Lady Forget is on the governing council of several charitable organizations, including Notre Dame Hospital, Ste. Justine's Hospital, Deaf and Dumb Institute and the Sisters of Charity. She is also a member of the Champlain Chapter of the I.O.D.E. and of the Women's Canadian Club and is Honorary President of the Laval-sur-le-Lac Golf Club. A reader of taste and discrimination, Lady Forget is also very fond of foreign travel; but she always arranges to spend a great deal of the summer at her country place, "Gil Mont", St. Irénée les Bains, the old family home of the Forgets on the Lower St. Lawrence.

Address: The Chateau Apartments, 1321 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal.

MRS. J. W. L. FORSTER
TORONTO, ONT.

THE work of the Young Women's Christian Association in Toronto since its inception has been the particular and outstanding interest of Mrs. J. W. L. Forster. She has held various positions on its Executive and for several years was its President. The furtherance of foreign and domestic missionary work has also claimed her active support; while she has participated thoroughly in all other religious, educational and benevolent movements. In her home, well known for its hospitality, she is a most genial and tactful hostess; and to her friends she is the spirit of loyalty and sympathy.

Born at Grahamsville, Peel County, Ontario, Emma Frances Aikins is the daughter of the late Hon. James Cox Aikins, P.C., LL.D., of Peel County, and Mary Elizabeth Somerset, of Town of York (Toronto) Ontario. Her father gave fifty years of distinguished service to the Dominion as Secretary of State, Minister of Inland Revenue, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba and Senator. Mrs.

Foster's brother, Somerset, was a member of the Manitoba Legislature. Another brother, Sir James, was M.P. for Brandon in the House of Commons and Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba for two terms; while Dr. W. H. B. Aikins was the well-known radium specialist.

She married John Wycliffe Lowes Forster (born at Norval, Halton County, Ontario), who is the son of Thomas Forster, of Brampton, Cumberland, England; and Martha Wilkinson, of Peel County, Ontario. Thomas Forster, who was a Justice of the Peace, was a man of singular integrity, held in the highest public esteem; and a leader in every high moral and Christian movement and service to the Church and State.

Mr. J. W. L. Forster is an artist of repute, specializing in portraiture. He is also an author and among his published works are: "A Master of the French School" (Ariel Press), "Under the Studio Light" (Macmillans), "The Painting of a Portrait" (Dalhousie Review); while he has contributed to many magazines.

Mrs. Forster is a graduate of Hamilton Ladies' College, and holds the M.L.A. Degree.

Residence: 27 Wellesley Street, Toronto.

MRS. ELLEN GREEN FOSTER
KNOWLTON, QUE.

AT THE time of this writing Mrs. Ellen Green Foster, of "Nestle-down", Knowlton, P.Q., is in her ninety-fourth year, still takes the keenest interest in Dominion and international affairs, and is an authority on the question of immigration, especially of children. Was instrumental in the establishment of Miss Macpherson's distributing home at Knowlton; and when in England in 1875 her interest in this work was deepened through seeing its functioning and realizing the importance of its continuance.

An ardent temperance worker, she has been identified with the W.C.T.U. since its inception of which she has been President of local, county, provincial and Dominion bodies.

Was one of Canada's representatives at the World's Columbian Exhibition, held in Chicago.

Mrs. Foster was born at Windsor, Vermont, on March 13th, 1836, the daughter of Dr. George Barret Green and his wife, Mary Hatch Jones. Graduated at Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N.H., in 1855.

Married Samuel Willard Foster, advocate and barrister, on September 29th, 1857. Her father-in-law was Dr. Stephen Sewell Foster, who represented the County of Shefford in Parliament for nine years, when the present counties of Missisquoi and Brome formed a part of it.

Her eldest son is Senator George Green Foster, K.C., of Montreal, and Knowlton.

MISS MARGARET FRAME
OXFORD, NOVA SCOTIA

A YOUNG Canadian who is clearly destined to leave a mark in the artistic world is Margaret Frame. Signs of her talent became apparent very early; and for her training in art she went successively to Boston, London and Paris. In Boston, where she studied first, she was much encouraged in her portrait-painting by the late John Singer Sargent. After studying further in San Francisco she went to Europe in 1924. During the four years she spent in London, Paris and Italy she continued her studies at various academies. While in Paris she was a private pupil of Emil Renard, Professor of l'Ecole des Beaux Arts and of the Colleges of the Legion d'Honneur.

In 1922, while in her teens, she exhibited a portrait at the Royal Canadian Academy, Montreal; and was also an exhibitor at the British Empire Exhibition, London, England, 1924-1925. In 1926 Miss Frame gave a successful exhibition of her paintings at the Galerie de Marsan in Paris. This was the subject of very favorable notices in the leading French, English and American press. Among the portraits on view at this exposition was one of a French countess which was much admired by H.R.H. the Infanta Eulalie of Spain, when she honoured the artist and her mother by coming to tea with them in the autumn of 1925.

While still in Europe Miss Frame painted the portraits of several distinguished people; and since her return to Canada has been commissioned to paint the portraits of a number of notable Canadians.

Miss Frame is also a gifted writer of verse and a collection of her poems is shortly to be published.

Miss Margaret Frame (or Freame as the name was spelled in England), was born at Oxford, Nova Scotia; and is the only child of the late Joseph Fulton Frame, K.C., who practised law in Halifax, San Francisco and Regina, and of Margaret Thompson Frame. She is the grand-daughter of the late Honourable Archibald Frame, at one time Liberal Member for Hants County; and of the late Major Thomas R. Thompson, founder of the Oxford Woolen Mills and owner of extensive lumber lands.

Miss Frame has a most charming personality and during her travels has had many social honours conferred upon her. In May, 1928, she was presented at the Court of St. James.

Address: "Heathbourne", 56 Victoria Road, Halifax, N.S.

MRS. J. B. FRASER
OTTAWA, ONT.

THE LABORS of the Victorian Order of Nurses have been of inestimable value to the Dominion and of those untiring women who have been responsible for the growth and development of the Order few, if any, have worked harder than Mrs. J. B. Fraser. For ten years she has been president of the Ottawa branch; while she is also a member of the Central Board of the Order. To this particular organization she has given liberally of her time, talents and means. It may safely be said that nursing is an all-absorbing interest in her life.

But despite her keen work in that direction Mrs. Fraser has other public activities. The Ottawa Young Women's Christian Association claims her as its Honorary President; while she is also president of the Women's Auxiliary of St. George's Anglican Church and a member of its Parish Association.

Her maiden name was Beatrice Bertha Curran. She is a daughter of Captain Jonathan and Mary Curran, and was born at Kingston, Ontario, on April 28th, 1862. She received her education at Kingston and Berthierville, P.Q.

Her marriage to John Burns Fraser took place on September 30th, 1884. Of the union there were two sons and one daughter. Her daughter is married and living in the United States. Major Hugh Fraser (Okanagan Valley, B.C.) and Captain Jack Fraser (Ottawa) both had distinguished records of service during the Great War.

Address: 30 Cooper Street, Ottawa, Ont.

MRS. ARCHIBALD J. FREIMAN
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. ARCHIBALD J. FREIMAN, "Mother of the Jewish People in Canada", has held the highest offices in many philanthropic organizations; while her War work won her universal recognition. Her activities include: League of Nations Society of Canada; Ottawa Day Nursery; Local Council of Women; Perley Home for Incurables; Welfare Bureau; Disraeli Chapter, I.O.D.E.; Ottawa Girl Guide Association; Ottawa Jewish Agency; Women's International Zionist Organization; Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent Society and Adath Jeshurun Synagogue. She is Dominion President of both the Hadassah Organization and the Jewish War Orphans' Committee. Mrs. Freiman is an honorary member of the Canadian Legion and the British Empire Service League.

In 1925 Mrs. Freiman was elected as a delegate to the First General Congress of the Child, held at Geneva, having been nominated one of three representatives of World Jewry by the Conference Universelle Juive de Secours, of Paris, under the auspices of which she also organized a successful campaign for the succour of Jewish children in Europe.

Mrs. Freiman, formerly Lillian Bilsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Bilsky, was married in Ottawa to Archibald J. Freiman in 1903. Her children are: Dorothy, Lawrence, Queenie and Gladys.

In addition to their Ottawa residence at 149 Somerset Street West, they have a summer home, "Mizpah", at Meach Lake, Que.

MRS. JAMES GIBBS FULLER
GRANBY, QUE.

MEMBER of a representative Eastern Townships family and a musician of note Alice Nunns, the daughter of the late Francis Henry Nunns and Mary Stevens was born at Trenholmvile, P.Q. The family, when she was ten years of age, went to reside at Coaticook and her first education was received at the Coaticook High School. Later she studied at Stanstead Wesleyan College where she graduated in music. She filled the position of organist in the Methodist Church, Coaticook, and the Methodist Church in Sherbrooke. She was first married to John Edward Keough, of Coaticook, who died in 1895. Mrs. Alice Nunns Keough subsequently continued her musical studies under Professor Otto von Konigsburg, of Montreal, and took a partial course at McGill University. On the opening of the McGill Conservatorium of Music she was invited to join the teaching staff, which she did; and for several years carried on her teaching under the Conservatorium's Directors, Dr. Charles Harriss and Dr. H. Perrin. She was for some time organist of the St. James Methodist Church, Montreal, and for five years was organist of the Congregational Church of Granby, P.Q., which position she resigned at the time of her second marriage.

In 1910 she was married to James Gibbs Fuller, and of this union there are twin daughters: Mary Elizabeth and Alice Chalmers. Devoted to her home and family life, Mrs. Fuller continues to assist in the local musical activities and to participate in the church and social affairs of her home town.

Captain William Nunns, Mrs. Fuller's grandfather, was well-known throughout the Province of Quebec. He was the owner and captain of a boat which plied between Montreal and Quebec; and during the Papineau Rebellion of 1820 won great praise and recognition from the government for the feat of running his boat down to Quebec in mid-winter to obtain ammunition. Thick ice had already formed on the St. Lawrence but, being a skilled mechanic, he devised means of breaking the ice to reach his destination and to accomplish his mission. The bell which was on Captain Nunns' boat at the time of this exploit is a treasured family heirloom in the possession of Mrs. Fuller's brother, Mr. F. L. Nunns, of Sutton, P.Q.

Mr. James Gibbs Fuller is the son of the late Damon Fuller, of New England ancestry, and his wife, Eliza Chalmers, whose parents came from Dundee, Scotland; and is one of the leading citizens of Granby. He is Secretary and Assistant General Manager of the Protective Association of Canada; and a Director of the Granby Elastic Web Co., Ltd., Dealers' Supply Company, Canadian Lift Truck Company and National Soft Drinks.

Residence: "Edgewood", Granby, P.Q.

MRS. MONTAGUE FURBER
VANCOUVER, B.C.

DESCENDANT of a brilliant and distinguished Irish family Mrs. Montague Furber has the charm and geniality of that race to a high degree; and so it is that she is one of the most delightful hostesses in the West. She is a generous supporter of charities and is especially interested in the work of the S.P.C.A. During the Great War Mrs. Furber served in a canteen in England; while her house in Haslemere, Surrey, England, was used as a Canadian Soldiers' Rest Home. She also entertained the troops by her singing at concerts organized by the Red Cross Society.

She was born on January 14th, 1882, at Victoria, B.C., Beatrice Alma Ashley, daughter of Forbes George Vernon, of Clontarf Castle, County Dublin Ireland; and Katharine Alma Branks, of Lanarkshire, Scotland. Her grandmother, on her paternal side, was the Hon. Rose Hariot Daly, daughter of Lord Dunsandle. Her father, who was one of the pioneers of British Columbia, was Minister of Lands and Works of the Province 1876-1887; and Agent-General for British Columbia in London, England, 1895-1898. For over thirty-five years he was interested in politics and represented Vernon (which was named after him) in the Provincial Legislature. Mr. Vernon was the owner of the Coldstream Ranch in Vernon which he sold to the Earl of Aberdeen.

Miss Vernon was educated in England; and finished in Paris, France. She made a special study of music and singing.

Her marriage to Montague Furber took place on November 5th, 1905, at St. Peter's, Eaton Square, London, England. Her husband, who was born on April 23rd, 1874, is the son of Charles Furber and Emily Darwell Louise Turner, of London, England. Major Montague Furber saw active service with his regiment, the 18th Royal Irish, in India and received the Indian Frontier medal. He served on the staff of the Imperial Army during the Great War and was severely wounded at the Battle of Arras in 1917. He was awarded the O.B.E. and received an honourable mention in three despatches. He is a keen sportsman, greatly interested in polo, shooting and fishing. In 1924 he was made Chief Game Inspector of the Government of British Columbia.

Mrs. Furber's two children are: George Vernon and Doreen Beatrice, who were both born in Dublin, Ireland.

Residence: 2075 Nelson Street, Vancouver, B.C.

LADY GAGE
TORONTO, ONT.

ASSOCIATED with the late Sir William Gage in his munificent philanthropic work Lady Gage has maintained her keen interest in the projects started during his life-time. At present she is particularly concentrating on the work incidental to the "Ina Grafton Gage" Home for Aged Ladies, which is for the assistance of ladies in reduced circumstances and no longer able to provide for themselves. A site for the home has already been chosen and it is hoped soon to commence building. The "Ina Grafton Home" was to be the special care of Lady Gage and funds jointly set aside now amount to $220,000. Sir William named the prospective home "Ina" in loving tribute to his wife.

The Hospitals for Consumptives at Weston are a living monument to Sir William's life's ideals. After the passing of Sir William, Lady Gage laid the corner stone for the third hospital for Consumptives at Gravenhurst, Muskoka.

Born at Dingwall, Scotland, she is the daughter of David Burnside and Inez Meldrum, of Edinburgh, Scotland. Her father received the degree of F.E.I.S. from Edinburgh, and was a power for education in that country. Her brother, I. D. M. Burnside, is the president of the St. Cuthbert Paper Mills, of London, England.

In 1880, at Toronto, she married Sir William James Gage, who was born at Brampton, Ontario, on September 16th, 1849, son of Andrew Gage and Mary Jane Grafton. Of the marriage there were five daughters: Eva Burnside, now Mrs. Harry Love, of Toronto; Ina Burnside (died in infancy); Irene Carmen, now Mrs. Griffith, of Buffalo, N.Y.; Wilhelmina Burnside (Mrs. McLeod) of Toronto; and Gladys Grafton, now Mrs. Carson McCormack, of Toronto.

Sir William was President of the W. J. Gage Company, of Toronto. He was elected President of The Board of Trade and was instrumental in advocating the development of the Toronto Harbour Scheme. In 1918, he was knighted by His Majesty King George Vth in recognition of his outstanding public welfare work. Mount Allison University, New Brunswick, honoured him with its much-coveted degree of Doctor of Laws. Sir William, who was also a Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, died on January 14th, 1921.

Lady Gage has travelled widely and is an inspiration to all with whom she comes in contact. During the highly successful business career of her husband she was his counsellor and helpmate and Sir William valued highly the help he received from his wife.

Lady Gage resides at "Bon Air", Wychwood Park, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. W. M. GARTSHORE
LONDON, ONT.

CATHERINE, daughter of John McClary and Mary Ann Drake, was born on February 5th, 1857, in London Ontario. John McClary, born in 1829 in Nilestown, Ontario, was of North of Ireland descent, on the paternal side; and on the maternal a direct descendant of John Adams, second President of the United States of America. In 1847 he founded the McClary Manufacturing Company, of London, Ontario, and, until his death in 1921, directed its operations. A business man of outstanding strength of character and integrity he was also President of the Ontario Loan and Debenture Corporation, President of the London Life Insurance Company and a Director of the London and Western Trust Company. Mary Ann Drake was born in Five Stakes, County of Elgin, Ontario. She was a member of an United Empire Loyalist family. Her grandfather, Captain William Drake, and father, Phineas Drake, saw service in 1812-1837.

Catherine McClary was married to William Moir Gartshore in London, Ontario, on December 26th, 1876. Of this union there were two children: Edna Theresa, who married Allen Mackenzie Cleghorn, M.D., who died in England in War service in 1916; John McClary, who died in infancy.

William Moir Gartshore was born at Dundas, Ontario, on April 3rd, 1853, the son of John Gartshore (of Maryboro, Scotland) and Margaret Moir (of Aberdeen, Scotland). John Gartshore came to Canada in 1833 and located at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Moving to Fergus in 1835 he erected the first flour-mill on the Grand River. Two years later he went to Dundas where he established an iron business which he operated with great success. In 1873 William Moir Gartshore took up the appointment as Superintendent of the London Car & Wheel Company in London; and in 1877 joined the McClary Manufacturing Company of which he subsequently became General Manager and Vice-President. He succeeded to the Presidency on the death of Mr. John McClary. He is a Director of the Ontario Loan and Debenture Corporation and the London & Western Trust Company. For sixteen years he was a Director of the Western Fair and for twenty years Chairman of the Victoria Hospital Trust. He has a record of fifty years' service in the Canadian Militia, having seen active service in 1885 during the second Riel Rebellion. He retired from the active list as Colonel of the 1st Cavalry Brigade.

Mrs. W. M. Gartshore resides at "Beechwood", London, Ontario; and has been an unostentatious supporter of charitable and benevolent movements as well as of various forms of social welfare work.

MADAME MARIE GERIN-LAJOIE
OUTREMONT, QUE.

THE women of the Province of Quebec are deeply indebted to Madame Gerin-Lajoie for her unstinted efforts on their behalf. So that her work in this respect might be rendered more effective she studied Law, especially as applicable to the legal status of married women. The culmination of this was a series of reforms which were incorporated in the revised Civil Code of the Province of Quebec which became operative in 1929.

In 1907 Madame Gerin-Lajoie founded the Federation Nationale St. Jean Baptiste, a French-Canadian patriotic organization, with the object of collaboration with English-speaking women in the furtherance of all social movements. This Federation was very active in temperance work, Labour Women's organization and Baby Health centres. It also founded popular courses in Law and Civics. In addition to lecturing at the Montreal University and in schools throughout the Province, she was the authoress of a number of publications on legal subjects. Her book, "A Treatise on Everyday Law", printed in French and English, came out in 1902 and was approved by the Provincial Council of Public Instruction for school use.

Marie Lacoste is the daughter of Sir Alexander Lacoste, Chief Justice of the Appeal Court, Province of Quebec, and Marie Louise Globensky. Born in Montreal, she was educated at the Convent of Hochelaga, Sisters of the Holy Names, Jesus and Mary.

Her husband, Henry Gerin-Lajoie, K.C., to whom she was married on January 11th, 1887, is the son of Antoine Gerin-Lajoie, the noted author. Her only daughter, Marie, was the first woman to take her degree at the University of Montreal; and founded, in 1923, "L'Institut de Notre Dame du Bon Conseil", a religious order to promote social work. Two of her sons, Henri and Alexandre, are following the legal profession, both being King's Counsel. The third son, Leon, is a doctor. The French Government decorated her as an Officier d'Academie.

Residence: 30 Elmwood Ave., Outremont, Que.

LADY GIBSON
HAMILTON, ONT.

LADY GIBSON'S life has been a crowded one. As the wife of one of the Dominion's leading public men, she has taken a not inconsiderable part in the country's affairs. After Sir John's tenure at Government House she was made a Lady of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem. She was an admirable hostess and left behind her in Toronto many memories of a charming presence and delightful hospitality. In addition to her multifarious social duties she found the time to do a great deal of social welfare work; and held for some years the Presidency of the Hamilton Local Council of Women and also of the Hamilton Victorian Order of Nurses. Lady Gibson is now Honorary President of the Hamilton Local Council of Women and an Honorary Patron and Honorary Life Member of the National Council of Women of Canada. She is also Honorary President of the Silver Cross Chapter of the I.O.D.E., and Honorary President of the Hamilton Aged Women's Home; Vice-President of the Women's Wentworth

Historical Society, Honorary Vice-President of the Upper Canada Bible Society and a Life Member of the National Rifle Association. Lady Gibson has always taken an active interest in the Hamilton Mountain Sanatorium and is a member of the Women's Board of this institution.

Born in Brockville, Ontario, she is the daughter, Elizabeth, of George Malloch, of Perthshire, Scotland; and Elizabeth Stewart, of Craginish, Argyllshire, Scotland. Her father was Judge of the County Court of Leeds and Grantham. She was educated privately at home; subsequently at "Lettrove Crescent", Edinburgh, Scotland.

On May 18th, 1881, she was married to John Morrison Gibson, who was born in Peel County, Ontario, on January 1st, 1842, and died on June 3rd, 1929. Of the marriage there have been six children: John Gordon (deceased 1908); Archibald Hope, who married Frances B. Scott and died in 1920, leaving two sons; Colin William George (twice wounded in the Great War) who married Florence P. Kerr, and has four sons; Francis Malloch (killed in action 1915); Margaret Mary Stewart (married Robert S. Waldie and has a son and daughter); and Eugenia Elizabeth Emily.

After a distinguished scholastic record at Toronto University, John Morrison Gibson was called to the Bar of Upper Canada in 1867; and practised for many years in Hamilton. His parliamentary career began in 1879 when he sat for Hamilton, Ontario. He was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario in 1908. At the time of his death he was the oldest member of the Canadian Active Militia. He served at Ridgeway in 1866 (general service medal with clasp). An enthusiastic and skilled rifle shot, he won the Prince of Wales Prize in 1879 and commanded the Canadian team at Wimbledon in 1881 and at Bisley in 1907. On January 1st, 1912, he was created Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George. He was also a Knight of Grace of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem. Sir John was a Director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Canada Life Assurance Company and a number of other important companies. He was Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada, A.F. & A.M.

Sir John and Lady Gibson were present in Westminster Abbey at the Coronation of both King Edward and King George. They were also present at the celebration of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, Sir John being on official representative of the Dominion.

Residence: "Ravenscliffe", Hamilton, Ontario.

MRS. FORBES GODFREY MIMICO, ONT.

MRS. FORBES GODFREY has been of invaluable assistance to her husband in his highly successful political career. Possessed of considerable political insight she has been associated with political work all her life and has taken the keenest possible interest in the activities of the Conservative party in the West York constituency.

During the Great War she organized the Union Jack Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, at Mimico, and was its Regent for three years. This Chapter performed exceptionally good work in a variety of ways during the war years. Mrs. Godfrey is very closely associated with the work of the Protestant True Blue Orphanage of Toronto and is a constant visitor at the institution.

She was born at Newbridge, Ontario, the daughter, Mary Melissa, of James Carson and Sarah Latham; and was educated at Clinton Collegiate.

On June 20th, 1894, she married Dr. Forbes Godfrey, L.R.C.P. & S. (Edinburgh), L.F.P. & S. (Glasgow), the son of Rev. Robert Godfrey (Irish) and Mary Elliott (Canadian). Of the marriage there is one daughter, Constance, who is married to Dr. Warren B. Snyder. Their daughter is named Marilyn Ann.

The Honourable Forbes Godfrey, who was born in Township York, Ontario, on March 31st, 1868, was educated at Owen Sound, Collegiate Institute and Toronto University (M.A., General Proficiency Medalist). He practises at Mimico, Ontario. He was first elected member of the Ontario Legislature for West York in 1907, and has been re-elected at each subsequent election. On July 9th, 1923, he was appointed Minister of Public Health and Labour for the Province of Ontario.

Residence: "Temiskiming", Mimico, Ontario.

MRS. W. C. GOFFATT
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. CRAWFORD GOFFATT was born and educated at Orillia, Ontario, and became the wife of one of its native sons, William Crawford Goffatt, the younger son of the late Thomas Goffatt, who was formerly District Manager of the Hudson's Bay Company; and Mary Jane McMullen, a direct descendant of Charles du Mercier, Marquis of Languedoc, member of an illustrious family. Thus were united two well-known pioneer families. One daughter was born of this marriage, Marjorie Crawford, who resides with her parents.

Mrs. Goffatt, née Fannie Alice Gill, is the second daughter of the late Benjamin Hewitt and Alice Gill, of Orillia, a well-known United Empire Loyalist family; and is widely known as a charming and gracious hostess who has frequently entertained distinguished foreign guests in her home, which is also the rendezvous for many from artistic and musical circles. During and after the Great War soldiers were extended the warm hospitality of her house.

For some years Mrs. Goffatt was President of the Women's Institute; and is a Charter Member of the Women's Canadian Club. She was a prominent worker in connection with the activities of the St. James Anglican Church at Orillia; and has always been a liberal supporter of many charities.

Before removing to Toronto Mr. and Mrs. Goffatt were actively associated with the progress of Orillia. Mr. Goffatt was the first native son to be elected to the office of Mayor, and served in that capacity for four years, winning during that period the confidence and esteem of his fellow-citizens. He was also a member of the Simcoe County Council.

Mr. Goffatt is well known in financial and business circles in Toronto. He is President of the Mid-Continent Bond Corporation Ltd. He is a member of the Board of Trade. He is a Life Member of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club.

Mrs. Goffatt's chief hobbies are travelling, reading and the cultivation of beautiful flowers.

Residence: 456 Russell Hill Road, Toronto.

MRS. A. E. GOODERHAM
TORONTO, ONT.

OF THE Canadian women who carried on such invaluable war work in England during the Great War none has left in the Old Country such a lasting impression of innate goodness and keen patriotism as Mrs. A. E. Gooderham. In the Empire's capital city Colonel and Mrs. Gooderham equipped the I.O.D.E. Officers' Hospital in Hyde Park Place, which was the only Canadian Hospital in London. At that time Mrs. Gooderham was President of the National Chapter of the I.O.D.E. in Canada; as well as President of the National Service Committee (which became the Canadian WarContingentAssociation).

She was also President of the Committee which was formed in August, 1914, as the Hospital Ship Committee and raised a Fund which was sent as a gift to the British Admiralty and War Office. Part of this was utilized by the Admiralty to build additional accommodation for nurses at Chatham Naval Hospital and a Nurses' block at The Haslar Naval Hospital. She was given a place of honour at the formal opening of this extension by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, when Sir Arthur May, Director General of Medical Services at the Admiralty, paid her a gracious tribute for her work in administering this Canadian Women's Fund. The balance of the amount raised was used in supplying forty motor ambulances for service in France and England.

Mrs. Gooderham has been an enthusiastic worker for the Red Cross Society, and for a number of years has been an active member of its Central Committee. She, together with her husband, has been a leader in all patriotic and charitable movements. In later years she has been untiring in her efforts on behalf of New Canadians and to secure their ecclesiastical recognition.

In 1913 Mrs. Gooderham was created Lady of Grace of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem; while she is the possessor of a medal presented by the French Government in recognition of her War service. There were only four of these medals presented in the Dominion. She also has the medal of the Secours National which was given to her by "L'Academie Française" for her aid to the French in 1917. In addition the Navy League of England presented her with its Special Service decoration.

Born in Trenton, Michigan, she is the daughter, Mary Reford, of Andrew Duncanson and Melinda Nutson, both British subjects temporarily residing in the United States. Returning to Canada when three years old, she was educated at Windsor, Ontario.

Her marriage to Colonel Albert Edward Gooderham took place on October 25th, 1883; and of this union there have been five children. Her daughters are: Mrs. E. C. Bunson, Mrs. Edward Sayer Crease and Mrs. Francis Hilton Wilkes. Major A. E. Gooderham and Major W. S. Gooderham are her sons. Residence: "Deancroft", Rosedale, Toronto, Ont.

LADY GORDON
MONTREAL, QUE.

A WOMAN of many and varied interests is the wife of Sir Charles Gordon, G.B.E., who was knighted by His Majesty during the war, in recognition of his achievement in demonstrating successfully the possibility of making fuses in Canada, and so materially strengthening the defences of the Empire.

Born in Exeter, Ontario, June 4th, 1874, Lady Gordon received her education at the Seaforth Collegiate and later finished in Montreal.

Her maiden name was Edith Ann Brooks, her parents being George Brooks and Elizabeth Agnes Worden.

Lady Gordon's chief interest in a philanthropic way for many years has been the Protestant Infants' Home, on the board of which she holds the office of vice-president. During the war, she took charge of surgical dressings at the McGill Women's Union for shipment to England.

A keen golfer, she holds membership in the Senneville Golf Club and the Mount Bruno Club. She is widely interested in all public questions as evidenced by her attendance at the meetings of the Women's Canadian Club, in which she held the office of president in 1921. The Winter Club also has her support. Her recreations are riding and travel.

Besides their Montreal residence, 1018 Queen Mary Road, Sir Charles and Lady Gordon have a place in Scotland, "Torrison", Ross-shire, and a place for winter sports at Lac Normand in the Laurentians. They have three sons: George Blair, Charles Howard and John.

LADY GOUIN
MONTREAL, QUE.

IN an unostentatious manner Lady Gouin played her role, in its various phases, as the wife of one of the greatest figures in the history of the Province of Quebec. Her reign at "Spencerwood" was all too brief; but it was, none the less, a brilliant period because Lady Gouin endowed it with her great personal charm and dignity of presence. In the long period during which Sir Lomer Gouin was Prime Minister at Quebec she also played a very prominent part in the social and public work of the city. She was a generous supporter of local charities and did very important work in the development of fine arts throughout the Province, particularly music and painting.

During the war she carried out very important work in raising funds for the "Paysans Français" and was awarded the medal of the "Reconnaissance Française" by the French Government.

The daughter (Alice) of Auguste Amos and Louise Boyer, she was born in Montreal; and in that city she received her education privately.

Her marriage to Sir Lomer Gouin took place on September 19th, 1911. There were no children of the marriage; but she has two step-sons.

Sir Lomer Gouin, K.C.M.G., B.C.L., LL.D., LL.B., was the distinguished son of one of the oldest and most respected Quebec families. He has left an imperishable record of business and political accomplishment in the Dominion and the Province of Quebec. From March, 1905, to August, 1919, he was Premier and Attorney-General of Quebec Province, and Premier and President of the Council until his resignation on July 8th, 1920. Sir Lomer was elected to the Federal Parliament on December 6th, 1921, and during the same month was appointed Minister of Justice. He was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec in February, 1929, and died while holding that office.

Lady Gouin lives at the Chateau Apartments, Montreal.

MRS. S. O. GREENING
HAMILTON, ONT.

IN the city of Hamilton Mrs. S. O. Greening has been a most enthusiastic and public-spirited participant in a large number of its activities. Outstanding has been her interest in the work of the Young Women's Christian Association of which, for eighteen years, she was First Vice-President. On her resignation from this office the Association's constitution was so amended as to permit her appointment as Honorary Vice-President.

The Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire also has the benefit of her enthusiastic support. In the earlier days of the organization, she was closely associated with the late Mrs. P. D. Crerar in promoting its welfare and for seventeen years was her first Vice-Regent. They resigned from office together a few months before Mrs. Crerar's death in May, 1919. Mrs. Greening is a Life Member of the National, Provincial and Municipal Chapters; and also a member of St. Elizabeth Chapter, and Honorary Regent of the Municipal Chapter.

She is a Life Member of the National Council of Women of Canada, Life Member of the Women's Canadian Club, and a Life Member of the Women's Wentworth Historical Society. In addition she is a Life Member of the Duet Club; while she is the Honorary Vice-President of the Chancel Guild of All Saints' Church. Besides these she is a member of many social clubs.

She was born in Hamilton, Ontario, the daughter (Jane) of William Herald (born in Manchester, England) and Anna Watson (born in Toronto), and was educated in Hamilton. Her father's firm, Edgar and Herald, was responsible for the erection of the majority of fine stone buildings of seventy and eighty years ago which are still in an excellent state of preservation. He was a gifted musician, his mother having the privilege and honour of singing with the late Jenny Lind. Mrs. Greening inherited the gift of music and has always given her hearty support to musical affairs.

She has four children: Herald Benjamin, President of the B. Greening Wire Company, who married Gladys, daughter of Alfred Powis, of Hamilton; Hattie, married to Charles Eldon Bull; Mabel, married to Norman Shortt Braden; and Edna, who married Alan Vernon Young. All are resident in Hamilton.

There are twelve grandchildren: Owen, Elizabeth, Jane and Alexander Greening; Sheila and Harcourt Bull; Eleanor, William and Margaret Braden; James, Gwynneth and Suzanne Young.

Residence: "Fonthill", 138 Jackson Street West, Hamilton.

MRS. J. H. GRIFFITH
VANCOUVER, B.C.

WIDELY travelled and for several years resident in London and Paris Mrs. Griffith takes the keenest interest in international affairs and their incidence upon the development of the Dominion. She is also greatly interested in art and languages and at her home she has entertained many distinguished personages from all over the world. During the War she was Regent of the Georgia Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of Empire and engaged in various forms of war work. She was President of the Women's Canadian Club in 1922; and has been Vice-President of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society and a member of the committee of the Canadian Arts and Handicrafts Society.

Born in Montreal, Katharine Ada is the daughter of Robert Lindsay and Mary Heloise Bagg, both of Montreal. She was educated in Canada and abroad. On February 9th, 1911, at Holy Trinity, Sloane Square, London, England, she married Julius Henry Griffith, of Old Charlton, Kent, England. The one child of the marriage is Julius Edward Lindsay.

Mrs. Griffith is the great grand-daughter of the late Colonel Dyde; and grand-daughter of the late Stanley Clark Bagg, of Fairmount, Montreal and his wife, Catharine Mitcheson, of Philadelphia, U.S.A. Mr. Bagg was the founder of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Montreal. Her father, Robert Lindsay, is Honorary President of the Art Association of Montreal; and throughout the War acted as Honorary Secretary of the King George and Queen Mary Maple Leaf Club of London, England.

Mr. Griffith's great-grandfather, Julius Griffith, was the author of "Griffith's Travels" which was published in 1805; and also patented a steam carriage in 1822. Mr. Griffith is the son of Colonel Julius G. T. Griffith, Royal Engineers; and Anna Maria Bax, of Old Charlton, Kent. The Griffith family has a distinguished record of service in the British Army in India. Mr. Griffith is Provincial President of the Boy Scouts Association and is a member of the Court of the Worshipful Company of Innholders of London, England.

Mrs. Griffith, who was presented at the Court of St. James in 1913, resides at 1230 Comox Street, Vancouver, B.C.

MISS BELLELLE GUERIN
MONTREAL, QUE.

PROBABLY there is no Canadian woman better known throughout the Dominion than was Miss Bellelle Guerin. The lilting music of her verse, the romantic beauty of her sketches of Canadian history and the gentle force of her compelling eloquence charmed many a reader and thrilled many an audience.

Born in Montreal, the only daughter of the late Thomas Guerin, C.E., Miss Guerin was educated at the Mount Saint Mary Convent of the Congregation of Notre Dame.

In 1910, when her brother, Dr. J. J. Guerin, was Mayor of Montreal, she was the Lady Mayoress and she contributed in a large measure to the success of the great Eucharistic Congress of that year. It was then that the Archbishop of Westminster, Cardinal Bourne, suggested to her the idea of linking all the English-speaking Catholic women of Canada into one great union, and of affiliating it with similar organizations in England and in other countries. The magnitude of the task fired her zeal. Devising the motto "For God and Canada", she brought all her talents into play, and within very few years had the satisfaction of seeing the Catholic Women's League of Canada firmly rooted in every centre from Halifax to Victoria. She was its first National President, and later, its Honorary National President for life. In June, 1922, she represented the Catholic Women's League of Canada at the International Convention of all the Leagues held in Rome, and on the recommendation of His Eminence Cardinal Vannutelli, Dean of the Sacred College of Cardinals, Pope Pius XI bestowed upon her the cross of the first class "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice".

Miss Guerin passed away on the evening of January 28th, 1929.

DR.
AUGUSTA STOWE GULLEN
TORONTO, ONT.

DR. AUGUSTUS STOWE GULLEN, M.D., C.M., was the first Canadian girl to study medicine in Canada and to take a medical degree from a Canadian University. She studied in the Toronto School of Medicine and graduated from Victoria University in 1883, subsequently taking a degree from Trinity University. At the opening of the Ontario Medical College in 1883 she was appointed Demonstrator of Anatomy. Later she became Lecturer in Children's Diseases and afterwards Professor of Pediatrics, a position she held until the Ontario Medical College was amalgamated with the University of Toronto. Dr. Stowe Gullen has always been connected with the Toronto Western Hospital, either as a member of its medical staff or as President of the Women's Board.

Dr. Stowe Gullen was one of the first women in the Dominion to run the gauntlet of a public election and was elected to the Board of Education in 1892 on which she served until 1896; and was also one of the three women elected in 1910 to the Senate of the University of Toronto as a representative from the medical profession and served twelve years as such.

In spite of a crowded professional life, Dr. Gullen was always deeply interested in the equal suffrage movement and was President of the National Suffrage Association up to the time Canadian women gained the full suffrage. She has always been associated with the work of the National Council of Women since its inception. Dr. Gullen was Chairman of the Suffrage and Rights of Citizenship Committee; also President of the Ontario Provincial Council. The latter office she resigned in 1924, when she was elected National Vice-President of the National Council. In all movements pertaining to the enlargement of opportunities for women, Dr. Gullen has been an ardent exponent and advocate; and her efforts on behalf of the womanhood of the Dominion have been indeed noteworthy.

In December, 1929, the Medical Alumnae of the Toronto University presented her portrait in oils to the Academy of Medicine.

Dr. Gullen was born in Norwich, Ontario. She is the daughter, Augusta, of John Stowe, Dentist, and Dr. Emily Howard Stowe. Her mother was the first Canadian woman to study medicine and obtained her medical degree in New York, after which she returned to Canada in 1867 and practised in Toronto until 1903.

Dr. Stowe Gullen was married to Dr. John Benjamin Gullen on May 23rd, 1883. Dr. J. B. Gullen is the son of Robert Gullen and Nancy Ann Smith, and was born in Quebec.

Residence: 461 Spadina Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. J. H. GUNDY
TORONTO, ONT.

△

SERENA LAKE CLARKE, daughter of John Clarke and Lucy Lake, was born in Windsor, Ontario, in which city she also received her education.

She was married to James Henry Gundy on April 29th, 1904, and of this union there has been one daughter, Aimée, who was married to Harold Edmund Rykert on June 29th, 1929, and now resides in London, England. Her two sons, Charles and Alfred, are unmarried.

Participating in all benevolent movements, Mrs. Gundy is especially concerned in the efforts of the Samaritan Club in its work for the relief of sufferers from tuberculosis.

Widely travelled and well-read Mrs. Gundy is a charming hostess.

Mr. J. H. Gundy, who was born at Harriston, Ontario, is the son of the late Rev. J. R. Gundy, D.D., and Isabella Eveleigh. His business career has been a brilliant one. In association with Mr. G. H. Wood he organized the firm of Wood, Gundy and Company, Investment Bankers, Toronto. He is President of the Consolidated Investment Corporation, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the North American Life Insurance Company; and is a Director of numerous concerns in which his firm is interested.

During the Great War his services to the Dominion were conspicuous. He was a member of the War Trade Board, and Chairman of the Special Subscription Committee of various Victory Loan campaigns.

In 1920 he was Canada's representative at the International Finance Conference held in Brussels.

Residence: 43 Russell Hill Road, Toronto.

MRS. E. W. HAMBER
BRITISH COLUMBIA

MRS. E. W. HAMBER is the only daughter of one of the most distinguished pioneer families of British Columbia; and is maintaining, in no small degree, the tradition of her family by her public and social activities. A very charming and outstanding hostess her home "Greencroft" is the centre of great hospitality. She is also most generous in loaning it for charitable and patriotic functions; while she is an outstanding participant in and supporter of all charitable organizations, and is especially associated with the General Leckie Chapter, I.O.D.E., the Junior League and the Red Cross.

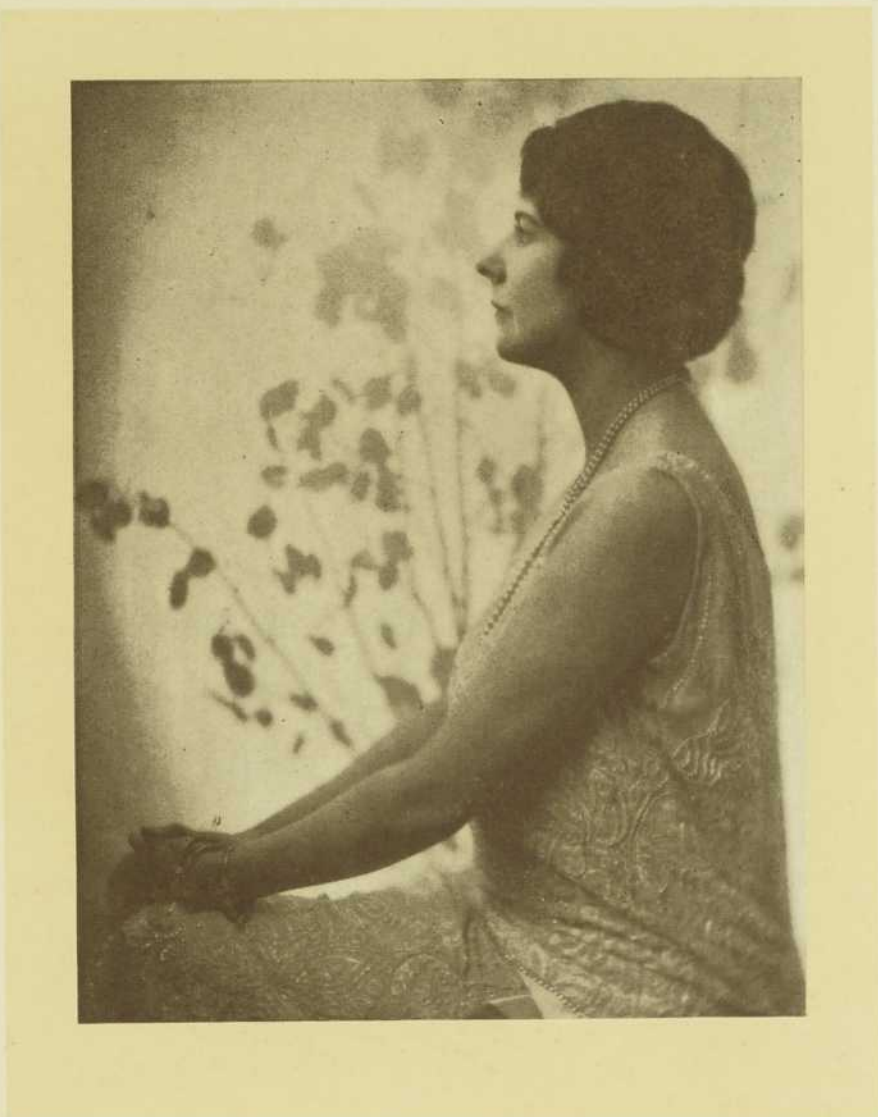

Born at New Westminster, B.C., she is the daughter, Aldyen Irene, of John Hendry and Adaline McMillan, both of whom were of the Maritime Provinces. She received her education in Germany where she made a special study of music and art, being very talented in both subjects. She travelled extensively abroad and was presented at the Court of St. James prior to her marriage to Eric Werge Hamber, B.A., which took place in London in 1912. Her husband is the son of the late Eric Marsh Hamber, of London, England; and Ada Jefferson, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England.

Mrs. Hamber is a devotee of golf, tennis and yachting. Mr. and Mrs. Hamber spend most of their summer cruising on their palatial yacht "Vensidor" where they are hosts to many foreign and distinguished personages.

Mrs. Hamber's father, the late John Hendry, was one of the great Empire builders of the West; a man of rare ability and keen foresight, being one of the most important developers of the lumber industry in British Columbia and throughout the Dominion. In addition he was instrumental in organizing and developing the Raslo and Slocan Railway, the Vancouver and Yukon Railway; and the Slave Lake Power Company, now absorbed by the British Columbia Light & Power, one of the foremost and greatest industries of the West. He attained high rank in Freemasonry.

Mr. Hamber was born in Winnipeg, April 21st, 1880; graduating from the University of Manitoba, receiving his B.A. in 1898. A distinguished career with the Dominion Bank in the leading cities of Canada culminated with his appointment as General Manager in London, England, and a Director in 1913. He stands as one of the leading business men of British Columbia and is President and Director of a number of important public companies. He has always been an ardent sportsman, representing Canada at Henley in 1902 and 1904 in the Stewards' and Grand Challenge Cups. He is an enthusiastic poloist and yachtsman, being President of the Polo and Vice-Commodore of the Yacht Clubs. He is a liberal supporter of all philanthropic movements.

MRS. EDWIN C. HARTE
WINNIPEG, MAN.

WHEN her father, the Honourable James D. McGregor, was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Manitoba in February, 1928, Mrs. Edwin C. Harte assumed the role of hostess at Government House and has been highly successful in the discharge of her duties as such. Her charming personality has been a great asset to her; and those who have come into contact with her have been impressed with the dignity which she has displayed in the important ceremonial functions consequent upon her official position.

Born in Brandon, Manitoba, on June 24th, 1892, Gwendolyn Anne McGregor is the daughter of the Honourable James D. McGregor and Elizabeth Murphy (deceased), of Mitchell, Ontario. She was educated at Bishop Strachan's School, Toronto.

She was married in 1917, at Brandon, Manitoba, to Edwin Charles Harte, of Omaha, Nebraska, U.S.A., who is associated with the Reliance Grain Company, of Winnipeg. He is the son of John H. Harte, of Louisville, Kentucky, and Margaret Drexel, of Omaha, Nebraska.

Mrs. Harte takes a very keen interest in the work of the Girl Guides movement and is Provincial President of the Manitoba Girl Guides Association. She is also Honorary President of the National Council of Women and Honorary President of the National Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire.

The Honourable James Duncan McGregor was born at Amherstburg, Ontario, on August 29th, 1860, the son of David McGregor (Scotch) and Annie Smith (English), and when in his teens moved Westward with his father who was an outstanding figure in the cattle trade. He married, in March, 1882, Elizabeth, daughter of Gabriel Murphy. In 1897 he was appointed Inspector of Mines in the Yukon Territory, a position he held until 1899. In the discharge of his duties in this capacity he displayed a wisdom and firmness which established his reputation as an able administrator. Leaving the Yukon in 1905 he went back to stock-breeding and, with others, was responsible for the inauguration in 1908 of the world-famous Brandon Fair. He has always taken the greatest possible interest in the development of all forms of agriculture; and is especially proud of having been the originator of the Boys' Calf Feeding Clubs, which have a large membership throughout the Dominion. During the Great War he did splendid work as Food Controller of the four Western Provinces. His Honour is President of the Glencarnock Farms.

Address: Government House, Winnipeg.

MRS. SAM HARRIS
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. SAM HARRIS of 189 Dunvegan Road, Toronto, is the daughter of the late John Alexander and Ellen Currie of Toronto. She is a descendant of the fourth generation in Canada, on the paternal side from the Scots, and Welsh on the maternal.

Married Sam Harris of Toronto, who has had a notable career in the service of Canada.

Mrs. Harris, who is of a retiring disposition, is a life member of the Local Council of Women, a member of the Women's Art Association and a member of the Granite Club. She is also a member of the Navy League of Canada and for her unselfish work, has been decorated with the "Award for Service".

The Currie family have left their mark on the great and mysterious land of Africa in the person of the Rev. Dr. Walter T. Currie, brother of Mrs. Harris, who was the first Canadian Congregational Minister (now the United Church) to West Central Africa. In the present city of Condi, once the old time capital of the Kingdom of Condi, there stands the Currie Institute, a monument to his work. Dr. Currie, on his death, left by will to Mr. Harris many valuable exhibits from equatorial Africa, which, through the influence of Mrs. Harris, were presented to the Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto.

Mrs. Harris has travelled extensively, with her husband, in Canada, believing that Canadians should first become acquainted with their own land; and has been a visitor, several times, to Europe and the Continent.

She is keenly interested in music, and many a young person has been benefited by her generosity.

No woman loves the wild life in Canada more than this gentle lady and her happiest hours are probably spent at their summer home at Harris Lake on the South Magnetawen.

MRS. W. C. HAWKINS
HAMILTON, ONT.

MRS. W. C. HAWKINS has been a conscientious worker in the interests of Hamilton's social-welfare movements and generous in her support of charities. She was President of the Infants' Home; and helped to form the Central Bureau of Family Welfare, of the Board of which she is a member. She is also on the Board of the Playgrounds Association, a member of the Budget Committee of the Community Chest and one of the Executives of the Local Council of Women. During the Great War she was President of the Field Comforts Association.

Born in New York City, Mary Elizabeth Chambers is the daughter of Frank Ross Chambers, of Mobile, Alabama; and Mollie Pease, of the same city. Her maternal ancestors came from England to settle in New England in 1640. She was educated at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., whence she graduated Bachelor of Arts.

She was married on December 29th, 1898 to William Clark Hawkins, who was born at Orange, New Jersey, on September 5th, 1866, the son of John T. Hawkins, of Essex, England; and Harriet Olivia Clark, of New Jersey. Of the marriage there are two children: Francis Chambers, who married Anne Frazar, on 12th, October 1925, and whose daughter is Mary; and Elizabeth Chambers, married to Lester Finney Merrick on October 5th, 1925. Their one child is named Joyce.

Mr. W. C. Hawkins, who died on May 10th, 1925, was a distinguished engineer and one of the pioneers of power development in the Province of Ontario. He was primarily responsible for the growth of the Dominion Power Company, of which he was Managing Director. Mr. Hawkins was also President of the Southern Canada Power Company, of Montreal.

Residence: 347 Queen Street South, Hamilton.

LADY HEARST
TORONTO, ONT.

BORN at Simcoe, Ontario, November 5th, 1863, Isabella Jane Dunkin is the daughter of John Dunkin, of Simcoe, Ontario, and Jane Graham, of Omagh, Ireland. While her grandfather, Joseph Dunkin, was serving with the British Army in Ireland he met Elizabeth Witherspoon who purchased his discharge and eloped with him to Canada.

On July 28th, 1891, at Simcoe, Ontario, she married William Howard Hearst who was born in the Township of Arran, County of Bruce, on February 15th, 1864, the son of William Hearst and Margaret McFadden, both of Fermanagh, Ireland. Her children are: Howard Vernon, who married Elise

Reid, of Memphis, Tennessee, and resides in Toronto; William Irving, who married Jean Fraser, of New Glasgow, N.S., and lives in Toronto; Isabel, who married Sherman Dana Archbold, and lives in Parkersburg, West Virginia; and Evelyn, who married J. Royden Gilley, of New Westminster, B.C., and lives in Toronto. Both of her sons served in the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France during the Great War; and both her daughters were devoted war workers. Her husband was Prime Minister of Ontario during the whole period of the war and Lady Hearst was active in patriotic and war work of all kinds, particularly in supplying comforts to the soldiers overseas, and caring for their dependents at home.

Lady Hearst is an active member of the Board of the Hospital for Incurables and a warm supporter of a number of charitable and benevolent movements.

The Honourable Sir William Howard Hearst, K.C.M.G., K.C., LL.B., has had a varied and distinguished legal and political career. He was first elected to the Ontario Legislature for Sault Ste. Marie in 1908. In 1911 he was appointed Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines. On October 2nd, 1914, he became Premier of the Province of Ontario and remained in office until 1919. The University of Toronto conferred upon him in 1915 the Honorary Degree of LL.B. He was created K.C.M.G. on February 13th, 1917. In 1920 he was appointed by the Imperial Government a member of the International Joint Commission for the settlement of disputes between the Dominion and the United States of America.

Residence: 80 Glen Road, Toronto.

MRS. HENDRIE
HAMILTON, ONT.

SINCE 1875, when she became the second wife of the late William Hendrie, of Hamilton, Mrs. Hendrie has resided at "Holmstead", a house made famous by a splendid tradition of hospitality; and which has been honoured by the presence of both His Majesty King George Vth and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The late William Hendrie, who was one of the representative business men of the Dominion, was also a great sportsman and known as the "Dean of the Canadian Turf". For many years he was President of the Ontario Jockey Club and was twice winner of the "Queen's Plate". His wife, Mary Murray, was born in Hamilton, the daughter of the late Alexander Murray. She shared her husband's fondness for horses; and among her treasured possessions are the whips she used at one time when riding and driving.

Mrs. Hendrie has been a most generous supporter of all charitable and benevolent works but always in an anonymous way. The only exception has been in the case of the Mary Murray Home for Nurses which was erected with the funds she provided. This building is a lasting memorial to the goodness of heart of one who, in the midst of happiness, has never forgotten those less fortunately placed in life.

It was on October 4th, 1883, that His Majesty the King, then Prince George, was entertained to lunch by Mr. and Mrs. Hendrie. On a second occasion, in 1901, when he was Duke of Cornwall and York, he again graced "Holmstead" with his presence. In October, 1919, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales honoured Mr. and Mrs. Hendrie by taking tea at their residence.

Many other people have been guests at "Holmstead", including a succession of Governors-General and their wives—Earl Minto, Earl Grey, H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Lord Byng.

Of her own three children two are dead: Mrs. Henry Ledyard, of Detroit, and Mr. Murray Hendrie. Mrs. Allan Case, her surviving daughter, lives in Toronto.

A crowded life has but added lustre to a charming personality; and Mrs. Hendrie reveals herself to her many friends as a tolerant, broad-minded woman who, with an old-time dignity, is not unmindful of the goodness to be found in the present generation.

MRS. GEORGE S. HENRY
TORONTO, ONT.

IT was while the late Rev. Thomas Webster Pickett was in charge of the Episcopal Methodist Church, at Odessa, Ontario that his daughter, Anna Ketha, was born. Miss Pickett was educated privately and at Albert College, Belleville; and on January 29th, 1902, married George Stewart Henry, who is now Minister of Public Works and Highways for the Province of Ontario.

Her four children are: George (married to Margaret Snell), Norah, Helen and Patrick.

Mrs. Henry, although a devoted mother and extremely fond of home life, has yet found the time to do yeoman service in various beneficent organizations, and is a member of Liege Chapter, I.O.D.E. And in her husband's political and public career she has played no small part.

The Hon. George S. Henry, B.A., LL.B., M.P.P., was born at King Township, Ontario, on July 16th, 1871, the son of William and Louisa (Stewart) Henry. Since 1913 he has been a member of the Provincial Legislature. His public and political life has been an outstanding one; and his work in one direction alone—the development and maintenance of the Provincial roads has been of lasting importance. For years he has carried on active Sunday School work and is a member of the United Church.

Mrs. Henry's residence is Oriole Lodge, R.R. No. 3, Toronto.

MRS. W. E. HODGINS
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. W. E. HODGINS is a true Canadian and a strong Imperialist. As a daughter of a Chief Justice of Canada, and the wife of a man of advanced military rank, she has ever lived high in Canada's social life. Her maiden name was Eleanor Jaffray Ritchie, she being the eldest daughter of the late Hon. Sir William Johnstone Ritchie, Chief Justice of Canada. She was born in Saint John, N.B., on June 13th, 1857, and was educated in a private school in that city.

On October 31st, 1883, she married Major-General William Egerton Hodgins, C.M.G., LL.D., V.D., and there have been three children. They are Captain G. W. F. Hodgins, M.C., the late Lt.-Col. F. O. Hodgins, D.S.O., both of whom won distinction in the late war; and Beatrice Helen Hodgins, the wife of C. K. Watson, of Ottawa. Major-General Hodgins died on February 27th, 1930.

Mrs. Hodgins is of United Empire Loyalist descent on both sides, and three of her great grandfathers fought on the side of the British in the American Revolutionary War, later settling in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

For a few years she was an able President of the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club, and was Regent of the Municipal Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, both in London, Ont., and in Ottawa. She was President of the Victorian Order of Nurses in London and President of the Soldiers' Wives' League, both in London, Ont., and Ottawa.

During the Great War she gave valuable service as a member of the Food Control Board.

She was a director of the Chelsea Club of Ottawa, and a member of the Dominion Executive of the League of Nations Society.

Residence: The Rideau, 425 Daly Avenue, Ottawa.

MRS.
WILLIAM CASSILS HODGSON
MONTREAL, QUE.

AN ASTONISHINGLY active life in the interests of Canadian women has been that of Mrs. W. C. Hodgson. It affords, also, an example of how those coming to the Dominion from the older countries throw themselves into the current of affairs in their adopted land and are productive of the greatest result. For Mrs. Hodgson, née Madelene Joleaud de St. Maurice was born in Paris, the daughter of Count and Countess Joleaud de St. Maurice.

Mrs. Hodgson was educated in Paris and holds a degree from the University of Paris.

In August, 1892, she was married to William Cassils

Hodgson, Vice-President of Hodgson, Sumner & Co., Ltd., of Montreal, and a well-known and respected business man of that city. Their family has numbered four: two sons—Maurice and John Peart; and two daughters—Marguerite Joleaud (Mrs. J. H. Scandrett) and Geraldine (Mrs. Eric M. Hersey).

Mrs. Hodgson's Clubs include: Royal Montreal Golf, Women's Liberal, Badminton, Morning Musical and Women's Canadian.

Her principal public activities have unquestionably been devoted to the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. Of this organization she was Regent of the Municipal Chapter of Montreal for seven years, has been President of the Provincial Chapter of Quebec since its organization in 1924 and is a Vice-President of the National Chapter of Canada. She also was chairman for Montreal of the National War Memorial campaign, I.O.D.E., which raised the funds whereby over two hundred Canadian boys and girls, children of fallen soldiers and sailors, are being given scholarships in British and Canadian Universities. Mrs. Hodgson is also a member of the General Committee of the League of Nations Society of Canada, and a Director of the Young Women's Christian Association. These are but a selection from the organizations in whose work she takes a substantial interest.

For her work as President of the Medical Section of the Patriotic Fund (French Section) she was decorated by the French government with the Médaille de la Reconnaissance Française.

Residence: 509 Pine Avenue West, Montreal.

MRS. BENJAMIN CATE HOWARD
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

BORN in Stanstead, Quebec, the daughter of Stephen Salls and Frances Derrick, Mrs. Howard was educated in Stanstead and afterwards taught in rural schools. On January 1st, 1885, she was married to Benjamin Cate Howard, who died July 27th, 1923, founder of the Howardlumber interests. They had one son, Charles Benjamin Howard, Member of Parliament for Sherbrooke, and by adoption, William Salls Priestly and Gladys (Mrs. D. C. McRae).

Mrs. Howard, with her husband, was closely connected with educational and philanthropic work in the Eastern Townships. Mr. Howard was Chairman of the Board of Wesleyan College, and they arranged the campaign that cleaned up all its debts.

They presented the Sherbrooke Y.W.C.A. building to the Association; they were instrumental in getting the Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A. installed in its present building; they largely aided in getting the new building for the Sherbrooke Hospital; they were instrumental in taking advantage of the "Wales" legacy and founding the Wales Protestant Old Folks' Home at Richmond, of which Mr. Howard was the first President. Mrs. Howard is Vice-President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wales Home, Charter Member of the Sherbrooke, I.O.D.E., Victorian Order of Nurses, Past President, Ladies' Committee of Sherbrooke Hospital. As President of the Y.W.C.A. Board Mrs. Howard has worked untiringly in the campaign to raise an endowment fund for the Mary L. MacKinnon Memorial Building erected in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Howard is prominent in all Church, Missionary, and W.C.T.U. work, and a member of the United Church of Canada.

Address: "Howardene", Sherbrooke, Quebec.

MRS. CHARLES B. HOWARD
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

THE WIFE of Charles Benjamin Howard, Federal Member of Parliament for Sherbrooke County, has led a very active social and political life and been a very generous supporter of various philanthropic organizations. She has also been a prominent church worker.

She was born at Sherbrooke, Alberta May, daughter of Alfred G. Campbell and Marion May Stevens; and graduated from the High School of that city.

Her marriage took place on June 3rd, 1908, and her two sons, Benjamin Campbell and Douglas Stevens were born in 1910 and 1912 respectively.

Her activities include: Hon. Vice-President of the Sherbrooke Victorian Order of Nurses, Governor of the Sherbrooke Hospital and member of the Provincial Committee of the Liberal Women's Association. She is a Charter Member of the Sherbrooke Country Club and also a member of the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club.

Her recreations are motoring and golfing.

In August, 1927, Mr. and Mrs. Howard had the honour of entertaining Their Excellencies, Lord and Lady Willingdon, at their residence, "Howardene", Sherbrooke.

MRS. A. M. HUESTIS
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. A. M. HUESTIS has been a vital factor in the social welfare work of the city of Toronto; and to her credit stands the inauguration of several movements which have exercised an undoubted influence on the well-being of the community. Becoming early concerned as to the necessity of securing a supply of pure milk for children, she was one of the small group of women to collect funds for establishing pure milk depots for infants' supplies. This work was later taken over by the city of Toronto, and formed the basis of the Child Welfare Clinics. Always greatly interested in children and their well-being, she turned her attention to the public schools and became convinced that the pupils needed physical training, as a result of which she, with the co-operation of some others, created the Toronto Playground Association. The work of this organization, after some years of proof as to its efficacy, was also taken over by the city.

Another outstanding achievement of Mrs. Huestis was as Convener of the Public Health Committee of the Local Council of Women when she was largely instrumental in causing the city to undertake the filtration of the city's water supply, and improvements in sewage disposal. For a number of years she worked to secure the medical inspection of school children which, when finally undertaken, showed that more than fifty per cent of them needed medical care.

Later Mrs. Huestis was elected President of the Toronto Council of Women, which office she held for eight years, during which period she brought its affiliations up to a total of seventy-two. For this accomplishment she was presented with a Life Membership in the National Council of Women.

Mrs. Huestis is First Vice-President of the Women's College Hospital; and serves as Convener of the Fund which is raising $750,000 for its new building.

During her term as President of the Local Council two other works of importance were begun: the erection of twenty-four model apartments for women (which she managed in an honorary capacity, for five years); and the passage of the Provincial Mother's Pension Act. Prior to the Act she, with others, had carried on a Fund to demonstrate the feasibility of mothers' pensions, caring for six mothers and twenty-two children for two years.

Of late years she has devoted a great deal of time to the work of the National Social Hygiene Council, of which she is National Vice-President. She is Past President of the Social Hygiene Council of Toronto; and now occupies the office of President of the Social Hygiene Club of five hundred members.

She is a Life Member of the Canadian Red Cross Society; and during the Great War was indefatigable in her work for the soldiers and their dependents.

Born in Toronto in 1872, she was educated at Mrs. Nixon's School and Bishop Strachan School, Toronto.

She married, in 1898, Archibald M. Huestis, and of the marriage there are four daughters. Mrs. G. Fellows, resident in Switzerland; Mrs. W. Godron Mills, of Toronto; Mrs. B. Napier Simpson, of Toronto; and Mrs. Miles Miller, of Secunderabad, India.

Residence: "Birchknoll," Mount Pleasant Road, Toronto, Ont.

MRS. JAMES L. HUGHES
TORONTO, ONT.

*M*RS. JAMES L. HUGHES was one of the world's greatest exponents of kindergarten teaching. It was her life-long study and her contributions to its development were monumental. Her enthusiasm for the subject she had made her life's work caused her to become a distinguished orator on the subject of the philosophy of the kindergarten. She was the first President of the International Kindergarten Association, to which office she was later twice re-elected.

She was a member of a family outstanding for its educational achievements. Her brother was a member of the teaching profession, who subsequently became a lawyer in Brooklyn, N.Y., and ultimately a Judge of the Supreme Court. She had two sisters, who, like herself, became able teachers.

Born in January, 1848, Adalaide Augusta Marean was the daughter of Chester Marean, of Maine, N.Y., U.S.A. She was educated at Maine; and at the Normal School, Albany, N.Y. She afterwards studied kindergarten with Madame Krause Boelte in New York City.

She married, in January, 1887, James L. Hughes, of Toronto, who was born at Bowmanville, Ontario, on February 20th, 1846, the son of John Hughes and Caroline Laughlin, both of Fintona, Ireland.

Mr. James L. Hughes is a distinguished educationalist. He was Principal of the Model School, Toronto; and Chief Inspector of Schools in Toronto. He is a prolific author and has lectured extensively in England, Scotland and the United States. His three brothers all attained to high military rank. Lieutenant-General Sir Samuel Hughes was Minister of Militia during the Great War. John Hughes became Major-General; and William St. Pierre Hughes was a Brigadier-General.

MRS. GEORGE L. HUME
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

SINCE the organization of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in Sherbrooke twenty years ago, Mrs. George L. Hume has been prominently identified with its work. For eleven years she was Municipal Regent; and has been both Provincial Vice-Regent and Provincial Organizing Secretary. In the discharge of these offices her great executive ability has been of the greatest help in furthering the work of the Order. In addition to her association with the I.O.D.E. in its charitable, educational and public-welfare work she is an active participant in various forms of Church endeavour in connection with the Trinity United Church, of which she is a member. In every way she is a worthy representative of the old and noteworthy families of the Eastern Townships.

She was born in the City of Quebec, Elizabeth Sarah, daughter of Edward Smith, of that city; and Mary Smith. Her father was for many years associated with the G. B. Hall Company, an important lumbering and milling firm located at Montmorency Falls. She was educated at Quebec High School; subsequently completing her studies at Woodhouse Hall, a private school for ladies, at Leeds, England. On her return to Canada she resided with her family in Leeds Village, Megantic County.

On October 30th, 1894, at Leeds Village, she was married to George L. Hume, M.D., son of William Hume, of Leeds Village; and Alice Jamieson. Of the marriage there are three children: Marjorie, who is the wife of Brigadier-General D. C. Draper, of Toronto; William Edward (M.D.), who is married to Helen Amy Bowerman; and John Polwarth (Advocate), who married Edith Elise Holbrook. In addition, Mrs. Hume has an adopted daughter, Phyllis.

Dr. Hume, whose great-grandfather settled in Leeds Village, Megantic County, in 1824, is one of Sherbrooke's leading physicians and has, for thirty years, been surgeon to the Canadian National Railway.

Residence: 22 Montreal Street, Sherbrooke, P.Q.

MRS. C. L. JOBB
MONTREAL, QUE.

OF United Empire Loyalist stock, the Blanchard family, of which Mrs. C. L. Jobb is a member, has always been prominent and active in the public affairs of Nova Scotia. The Hon. Hiram Blanchard, her paternal grand-uncle, was one of the educational pioneers in Nova Scotia; as were also her grandfather and other members of the family. Fuller details of their work in this and other respects are to be found in Miller's "History of Pictou County".

Mrs. Jobb was born in Truro, N.S., the second daughter (Kathleen) of John MacLean Blanchard and Margaret Craig Waller; and was educated in the public schools and County Academy of Truro. In 1900, in her native city, she was married to Charles Leonard Jobb, who was born at Londonderry, N.S., the son of Hamilton Jobb and Rachael Whidden. Mr. C. L. Jobb is President of Canada Iron Foundries, Ltd., and is identified with a number of other Canadian industries.

Mrs. Jobb's outstanding interest is in the work of the Big Sisters' Association. She is President of this organization in which she plays a very active part. In the political field she is also very hard-working, and as Chairman of the St. Antoine Branch of the Women's Conservative Association is very largely responsible for the political enthusiasm among the women of that constituency. She is a member of the Association of Women of the Mining and Allied Industries, of the Champlain Chapter, I.O.D.E.; the Women's Canadian Club and the Montreal Women's Club.

Residence: 1321 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal.

DR. MARGARET JOHNSTON
TORONTO, ONTARIO

GRADUATING M.D.,
C. M., from Trinity University, Toronto, in 1900, Dr. Margaret Johnston was the first woman to be appointed an intern at a Canadian hospital, joining as she did the staff of the Toronto Hospital for Sick Children. Since its inception she has been on the active staff of the Women's College Hospital; and she is now a member of its Consulting Staff. For eighteen years she has been this hospital's Chief Anes-thetist. Dr. Margaret Johnston was the first representative of the Medical Alumni Association on the National Council of Women.

Apart from her professional work, Dr. Margaret Johnston has always been interested in the Women's Suffrage Movement and was President of the Toronto Suffrage Association. She is also an active worker on behalf of her church.

Born in Kingston, Ontario, she is the daughter, Margaret, of James Hunter Macallum and Mary Fullerton, both of Scottish descent and born in County Tyrone, Ireland. Her brother, Andrew Macallum, is Commissioner of Works for the city of Ottawa. Her sister, Jean Macallum, served overseas in France as a member of the London Hospital unit, from 1916 to 1918, during the Great War; and is at present Deputy Matron of the S.C.R. Hospital, Christie Street, Toronto.

Her marriage to Dr. Samuel Johnston took place in Toronto on April 19th, 1904. Dr. Samuel Johnston, M.A., M.D., C.M., who is the son of Samuel Johnston and Elizabeth Glenn, both born in Ontario, was the first Canadian doctor to specialize in anesthetics. He is Lecturer on this subject at Toronto University; and was first President of the Canadian Anesthetic Association.

Residence: 108 Avenue Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. SARAH A. JONES
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

SARAH A. (OAKES) JONES was born in London, England, daughter of William Oakes and Barbara Hayes. She was educated in London; is a graduate from the Liverpool School of Domestic Science; also associate of the Royal Sanitary Institute of London, England.

Mrs. Jones, who came to Canada in 1902, and has resided since in Sherbrooke, is the widow of the late Edward Jones of Mickle Trafford, Cheshire, England, who died in 1884. She was one of the promoters and President of the Y.W.C.A. for twenty years, and is now Honorary President; President of the Sherbrooke W.C.T.U. for fifteen years and has held office as Dominion and Provincial departmental superintendent; Lady Superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Nursing Division Number 12 Sherbrooke; Serving Sister of the Venerable Order of St. John of Jerusalem; Secretary of the St. John Ambulance Association. At a specially arranged mass meeting in Montreal for a demonstration of the work of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, on January 25th, 1929, she was presented with the insignia of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

Honorary Treasurer of the Canadian Red Cross (Sherbrooke branch) for thirteen years; at present Secretary of the Relief Committee. Charter member of the I.O.D.E.; Past Regent, King George Vth Chapter; prominent in various lines of educational work; member of Anglican Church and officer in various church societies. Holds classes in First Aid, and gives instruction to members of Nursing Division in Sherbrooke.

Address: 46 High Street, Sherbrooke, Quebec.

MRS. HENRY JOSEPH
MONTREAL, QUE.

MAJOR CHARLES WALKEM, member of an old Devonshire family settled at Saltash, near Plymouth, came to Canada in 1844 with Colonel Estcourt, R.E. to assist in fixing the boundary between this country and the United States under the terms of the Ashburnham Treaty. Subsequently he became a member of the Royal Engineers Staff at Ottawa, retiring with the rank of Major. His son, the Hon. George Anthony Walkem, Q.C., culminated a brilliant legal and political career by being twice Prime Minister of British Columbia—in 1874-6 and 1878-1882.

Another of Major Charles Walkem's ten children was the late Richard T. Walkem, K.C., D.C.L., Chancellor of the Anglican Diocese of Ontario and twice Provincial Grand Master of the Ontario Freemasons, who resided in Kingston, Ontario. He married Emily, daughter of James A. Henderson, K.C., originally of Plymouth, England, but also a resident of Kingston. Of this union there were seven children. Ethel, who was educated in Kingston and Germany (where she qualified as a finished elocutionist) married Henry Joseph, a member of one of Montreal's most prominent families which has played a leading part in the city's business development. Of the marriage there have been three children: Gratz Joseph, Ethel Olive (who married Mr. R. D. Elwell, and is presently residing at Cedarhurst, Long Island), and Henry.

With such a background the source of Mrs. Joseph's flair for both political and organizing work is not far to seek and she is worthily upholding the family tradition for public service. The cause of the Conservative Party in Montreal and throughout the Province of Quebec has been developed and strengthened as a result of her enthusiastic endeavour. She is President of the Montreal Women's Conservative Association which she has brought to a high state of efficiency and effectiveness. The work of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire she has entered into enthusiastically; and at present is Regent of the Wolfe and Montcalm Chapter. But especially noteworthy has been her activity in the field of social welfare. The aims and objects of the Big Sister movement have been very near to her heart and it is in this connection that she has consecrated her finest work. Mrs. Joseph is a member of the Women's Canadian Club, the Montreal Women's Club and the Art Association; also she is an honorary member of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club.

Mrs. Joseph, whose residence is at 3507 Mountain Street, Montreal, is a keen worker in the interests of the Anglican Church, especially those of the Church of St. James the Apostle, which she and her children attend.

MRS. B. F. JUSTIN BRAMPTON, ONT.

THE social, public and religious life of Brampton has in Mrs. B. F. Justin an unsparing worker and wise counsellor. She has thrown herself enthusiastically into the town's varied activities and left her imprint as an inspirer of good works. She is a charming hostess, the possessor of a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Justin is especially interested in the welfare of the girls of the community; and actively supports the work of the United Church in its various spheres.

She was born in Toronto the daughter, Mary Louise, of Benjamin Brick and Anne Ingelson, who settled in Toronto in 1860. She received her education in Toronto.

She was married, firstly, to Gerrard Noble, of which marriage there are two sons: Alan Benjamin Noble and Russell H. Noble; and, secondly, in 1920, to Judge Benjamin Franklin Justin, of Brampton, Ontario.

Judge B. F. Justin, who holds a place of high esteem among the citizens of Brampton, was born on March 16th, 1857, on a farm in Toronto Township in which his father had been born. The farm was situated in what was known at that time as the "Switzer neighbourhood", because of the large number of members of the Switzer family located there, having come from Ireland in the early days. His mother, Ellen Margaret Mason, was a daughter of Eliza Switzer, wife of Hugh Mason who located in Trafalgar.

Judge Justin matriculated in Arts at Toronto University in 1875. The Law Society at that time refused to accept this standing for entrance as a student at law. He therefore became a school teacher for one year, during which time he prepared for the Law Society's own examination and passed it in 1877 at the head of a class of one hundred and twenty candidates from all over Ontario. It is to be noted that from that time the Law Society substituted matriculation for entrance into the Society as a student. In 1882 he became Barrister and Solicitor and joined the firm of Morphy & Flemming, Mr. Flemming having been elected as Federal Member for the County. In 1884 Judge Justin was given the degree of LL.B. by Toronto University and was afterwards created King's Counsel. He was Mayor of Brampton from 1903 to 1905; and has held various municipal offices. He is active in the work of the United Church and keenly interested in sport. In 1916 he was appointed County Judge of Peel County where he had always lived.

Residence: Main Street, Brampton, Ontario.

LADY KEMP
TORONTO, ONT.

LADY KEMP is a Southerner by birth and was educated in Memphis and Nashville, Tennessee. Later she made a study of music in New York, an art in which she is now greatly interested; as well as in gardening and artistic house decorations. She is an active worker on behalf of the blind and is one of the Vice-Presidents of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. In addition she is a generous supporter of all kinds of charitable works.

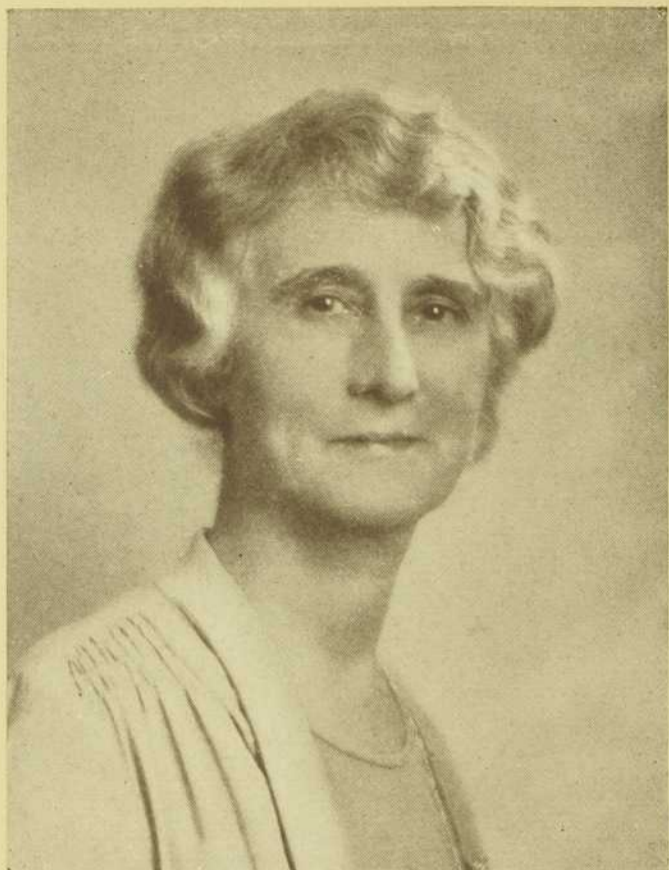

As the wife of one of the most outstanding Canadians, Lady Kemp was devoted to the furtherance of her husband's many and varied activities and proved herself a charming hostess.

Lady Kemp is the daughter, Virginia, of Nathan William Norton and Carrie Roleson. She was married, firstly, to Norman Copping, son of George R. Copping and Emma Copping, of Toronto. Of this marriage there are two children: Cynthia Dana and Virginia Norton. Her second marriage took place on March 3rd, 1925, to the Honourable Sir Albert Edward Kemp, K.C.M.G., P.C.; and of this union there is one child: Katharine Edward Kemp.

The Honourable Sir Edward Kemp, K.C.M.G., P.C., was both an outstanding business man and statesman. He did particularly valuable work during the Great War. He was appointed Minister of Militia and Defence on November 23rd, 1916; and was created K.C.M.G. on February 13th, 1917. He became Minister of overseas military forces in October, 1917. He was summoned to the Senate on November 4th, 1924. Sir Edward was born at Clarenceville, Quebec, on August 11th, 1858, and died on August 12th, 1929.

Lady Kemp, who is a member of the Toronto Hunt Club, the Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club and the Glyn Mawr Golf and Riding Club, resides at "Castle Frank", Bloor Street East, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. ROBERT A. KENNEDY
OTTAWA, ONT.

POSSESSED of an attractive personality and tact, combined with a faculty for organization, Mrs. Robert A. Kennedy has been unusually successful in her undertakings; and at all times has placed her talent and ability unsparingly at the service of her fellow-citizens. Thus it comes about that her handiwork is to be traced in the successful development of societies and organizations in Ottawa for forty years.

She was one of the founders of the Ottawa Women's Conservative Association; also the King's Daughters. She was co-founder and First Vice-President of the Chelsea Club, and the first English President of the "Bonne Entente". She is a life member of both the Big Sister Association and National Council of Women; while she is a Past President of the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club and Ottawa Women's Club. She is first Vice-President of the Canadian Women's Memorial Building Federation, first Vice-President of the Ottawa Social Hygiene Council Executive of the National Social Hygiene Council, and is Founder of the Toronto Social Hygiene Club. The Protestant Infant's Home and Children's Hospital, of which she is First Vice-President, have benefitted largely from her counsel and help.

During the War Mrs. Kennedy and every member of her family served overseas. Her husband, Captain R. A. Kennedy, M.D., and one son, Captain G. L. D. Kennedy, M.D., both served in the C.A.M.C. Another son, Captain H. S. Kennedy, who gained the Military Cross, was with the 3rd Tunnelling Company, Canadian Engineers. Her daughter, Jean, was a V.A.D., and later married Dr. J. Harvey Johnson, of Toronto, who was with the Royal Air Force. Mrs. Kennedy was Honorary Treasurer of the Women's Canadian Club for War Work at Folkestone 1916-1919, as well as Honorary Matron of the King George and Queen Mary Maple Leaf Club in London.

She was born at Thurso, Quebec, on February 23rd, 1865, the daughter, Victoria Jane, of Lionel James Dent and Sarah Ann Hunter. She was educated at Thurso Academy. Her marriage to Robert Alexander Kennedy, M.D. (McGill 1886) took place on July 2nd, 1889.

Her recreations at the present time are reading and gardening in her delightful home located at 320 Cloverdale Road, Rockcliffe Park, Ottawa.

MRS. P. G. KIELY
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. KIELY may fittingly be described as an essentially Canadian woman whose forebears were nation builders in the primitive days of the Colony. Hers is the fifth generation in Canada upon the paternal side, deriving from Highland Scottish Roman Catholic political refugees; on the maternal side she is the sixth generation in Canada of Highland-Scotch, Dutch and French U. E. Loyalists, being the grand-daughter of the late James Bethune, Q.C., M.P., an eminent Leader at the Canadian Bar and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. He was related to Rev. John Bethune of North Carolina who established the first Presbyterian Church in Upper Canada, 1787, St. Andrew's, Williamstown, Ont. She early became identified with welfare and public work with her active interest in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She became Standard Bearer of the "Wolfe and Montcalm Chapter", Montreal, in 1910, and during the years 1910 to 1926 she held office continuously in the Order, being the third generation of her family to do so, Lady Howland (formerly Mrs. James Bethune) having been a Charter Member. She organized the Edward Kylie Chapter, Toronto, in memory of one of the War's first victims, and following that was successively Educational Secretary, Toronto Municipal Chapter, and a National Councillor for three years. Mrs. Kiely and her mother, Mrs. McDougald, of Montreal, have the unique distinction of having been the first mother and daughter to be elected together to that body.

In addition to her work in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire Mrs. Kiely "carried on" during the War years in many local activities, having been President of the Patriotic Association of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, 1915-19; Honorary Secretary, Women's Emergency Corps, Military District No. 3; Honorary Secretary-Treasurer, Patriotic and Relief Committee; Toronto Women's Liberal Association, 1914-18.

Mrs. Kiely's association with active politics began with Charter Membership in the first Women's Liberal Association in the Dominion, 1913. Following that she was Honorary Secretary of both the Toronto and Ontario Associations for several years, being the first woman speaker to campaign the Province in the party's interest, and having been selected to deliver the address at the Memorial Meeting to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. She was a Delegate at the National Liberal Convention at Ottawa, 1919, and in 1923 a delegate and guest speaker at the incorporation of Federation of Women's Liberal Clubs of Canada, Ottawa, 1923. In 1921 she was nominated by the Liberal Party for the constituency of East Toronto for a seat in the House of Commons, being the first woman in the Dominion to receive that recognition. She retired from her candidacy to support Sergeant Rayfield, V.C., a wounded war veteran.

Mrs. Kiely's work for Catholic Charities has had notable result, she having aided in founding the Sisters of Service. On her resolution, at the National Convention of the Catholic Women's League of Canada at Winnipeg, 1923, this work was adopted as a sub-committee. Mrs. Kiely became its head and a member of the Executive.

Mrs. Kiely's recreations lead into the fields of music and literature. Her articles upon topical and historical subjects are published from time to time in the leading journals of Canada.

The only daughter, Elizabeth Bethune, of Alexander William McDougald; and Annie Bethune, of Westmount, P.Q., she was born in Chicago in 1891—brought up in Montreal. In 1912 she married Philip Grattan Kiely, Barrister, of the Ontario Bar, son of the late William T. Kiely. The latter, in partnership with the late Sir Frank Smith, owned and operated the Toronto Street Railway.

Residences: 2 Rosedale Road, Toronto and L'Islet, Centre Island.

MRS.
JOHN WILLIAM LANGMUIR
TORONTO, ONT.

ONE of the younger women prominently identified with social and club activities in Toronto is the charming wife of Lieut.-Colonel John William Langmuir, O.B.E., who previous to her marriage was Esther Lee Comstock of Brockville, Ontario. Her father, the late William Henry Comstock, who was born in Batavia, New York, had a leading part for many years in business and public affairs and philanthropic work in Brockville and represented the constituency in the House of Commons. A practical monument to his memory is at present in process of erection, a Nurses' Home for the Brockville General Hospital, in which he took a keen and generous interest.

Mrs. Langmuir is participating in this gift with her mother, Mrs. Comstock (Alice Janet Gates), and her brother and two sisters.

Married when just out of school and college on June 5, 1918, Mrs. Langmuir was educated in Glen Mawr, Havergal, Baldwin and Bryn Mawr. Her husband, Lieut.-Colonel Langmuir, received rapid promotion in the Great War in recognition of his exceptional services. The son of the late Archibald David Langmuir and the late Margaret (Ince) Langmuir, both of Toronto, he was born in the Queen City and joined the Queen's Own Rifles in 1914. He proceeded overseas with the Eaton Machine Gun Battery in June, 1915. He was seconded to the R.F.C. in December, 1915, and served with them until September, 1916. He returned to Canada and acted as Assistant Provost Marshal for the Royal Air Force in Canada until June, 1919. He was awarded the O.B.E. in 1918. After demobilization he entered the Toronto General Trusts Corporation and was appointed Assistant Secretary in 1924. He is a director of Homewood Sanitarium, Guelph.

Colonel and Mrs. Langmuir have one son, John William Comstock Langmuir.

Mrs. Langmuir's wide range of interests in sports is suggested by the fact that she is a member of the Toronto Golf Club, the Eglinton Hunt and Carlton Badminton and Racquet Clubs. She is also a member of the Toronto Ladies' Club. She is a Presbyterian.

A beautiful summer home is occupied in Brockville in the summer months.
Residence: 19 Oriole Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MISS GERTRUDE LAWLER,
M.A., LL.D.
TORONTO, ONT.

WITH the passing away on July 21st, 1929, of Gertrude Lawler, M.A., LL.D., there went from the life of Toronto and the Dominion a source of educational and religious inspiration it will be difficult to replace, for in both of these spheres she occupied an unique position.

Her educational accomplishments were brilliant. Miss Lawler graduated from St. Joseph's convent and, subsequently, was the first girl to win a Blake General Proficiency Scholarship at matriculation from Jarvis Street Collegiate Institute. This was followed by a university course the merit of which remains unsurpassed. She was awarded a General Proficiency Scholarship in the Honour Courses of the first and second years; and the Special University Gold Medal for General Proficiency in the third year and, in 1890, was the first woman to graduate with honours in all departments. She later took her M.A. degree in mathematics.

Her teaching career began at the Stratford Collegiate Institute; but a year later she was appointed head of the English Department at Harbord Street Collegiate Institute, which position she held until her death. She was the first lecturer, examiner and critic in English in the Faculty of Education at the University of Toronto. She was a guide and inspiration, as well as a friend, to the hundreds of students who passed through her hands. She resigned from Harbord Collegiate in 1918 and spent the remaining years of her life in philanthropic works.

Her outstanding ability was recognized on all sides; and in 1910 she was elected a member of the Senate of Toronto University as a representative of the Graduates in Arts of University College, being one of the first three women members of that body. On June 9th, 1927, she was awarded her LL.D. by the Senate of the University of Toronto.

Filled with a deep patriotism she always maintained that it is essential to keep the Dominion truly British in language, education and ideals; and it was this deep feeling which made her teaching of the English language a living thing to her students.

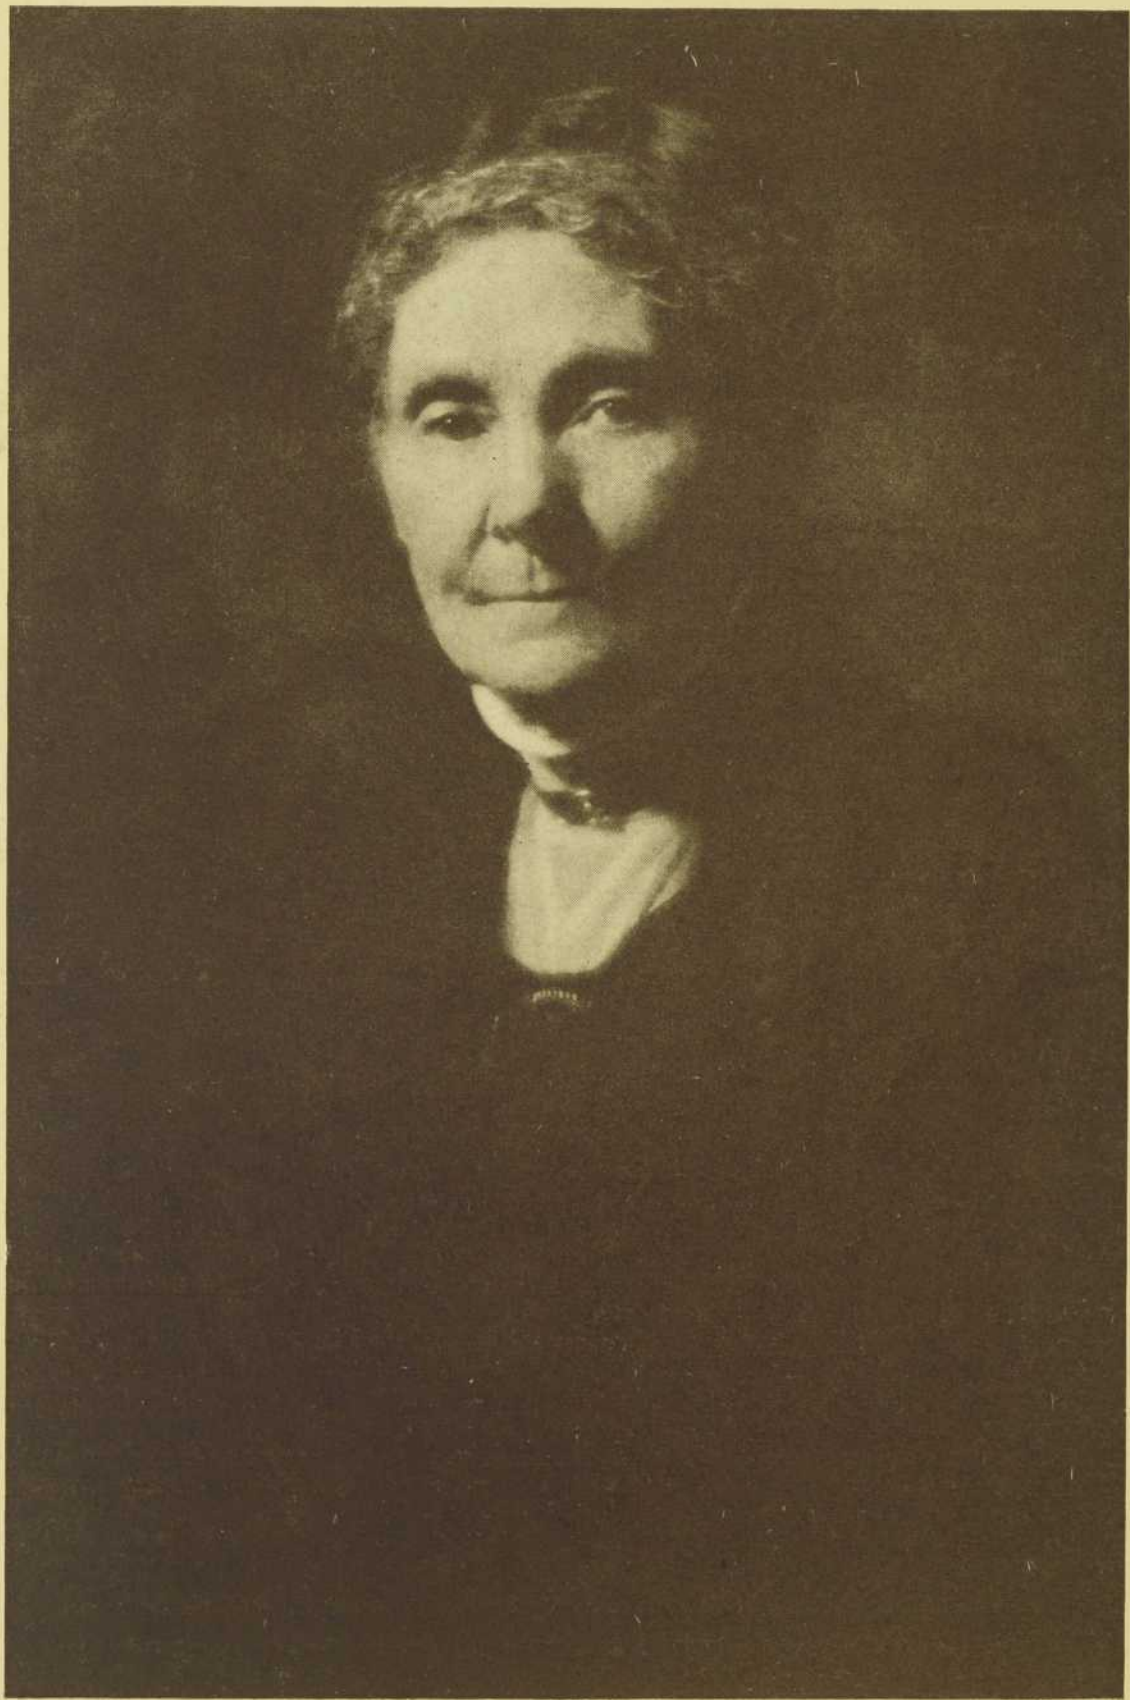

Her religion was of the practical order and into all her many activities on behalf of her church, she brought an indefatigable energy and clarity of judgment. She was First President of the Toronto Catholic Women's League, and a Vice-President of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, which she helped to organize; while she was the first editor of the League's magazine. She was the founder and editor of "St. Joseph Lilies", the quarterly publication of St. Joseph's College, Toronto.

One of her greatest interests was in the work of the Toronto Mothers' Allowance Board, with which she was associated from the time of its inauguration until her death, and of which she was at one time Honorary Secretary and later Chairman. She was a Life Member of the Canadian Red Cross Society. She worked untiringly during the Great War on behalf of the troops and their dependents.

Miss Gertrude Lawler was the niece of the late Rev. Edmund Burke Lawler, of Toronto; grand-niece of the late Rev. John Carroll, of Ontario; and great-grand-niece of the late Right Rev. Dr. Edmund Burke, first Vicar Apostolic of Nova Scotia, known as the "Apostle of English-speaking Ontario" and founder of its oldest missions.

It is proposed to perpetuate the loving memory of Miss Gertrude Lawler by a Scholarship at the University of Toronto.

MRS. JOSEPH B. LEARMONT
MONTREAL, QUE.

MONTREAL'S social welfare work has had the greatest possible inspiration and help from Mrs. Learmont whose long life has been devoted to the betterment of the conditions and environment of her fellow-citizens. Especially notable has been her work for the Victorian Order of Nurses, of which she was one of the first members of the Montreal Committee, on which Lady Aberdeen and Lady Drummond also acted. Recently, in celebration of her thirty years' effort of this organization she was presented with a gold replica of the Order's badge. With Miss Emma Thomas she took over the working of the Montreal Day Nursery and, overcoming considerable initial difficulties, succeeded in placing it on a substantial footing and making its present solid position possible.

But these two are only representative of the thoroughness with which Mrs. Learmont has thrown her energy and wise counsel into all kinds of good works. The Y.M.C.A., the Family Welfare Association, the Needlework Guild of Canada and the Local Council of Women are all indebted to her for support in a number of ways.

Because she has felt intensely the importance of training the young in the care of their health, their moral development, and the inculcation of a love of God and their fellows, thus making for the good of this and future generations Mrs. Learmont assisted in the organization of the first Child Welfare Exhibition, under the Presidency of Dr. Adami. Under the same Presidency, she also organized, with others, the first Tuberculosis League, which later became the Royal Edward Institute for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. This Institution received an endowment from the late Mr. Jeffery Burland.

Born in Waterford, Ireland, on August 25th, 1845, Mrs. Learmont is the daughter, Charlotte, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Smithers who came to Canada in 1847. Her father ultimately became President of the Bank of Montreal and was the trusted financial adviser of the late Lords Strathcona and Mountstephen at the time they were engaged particularly in the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

She was educated at Miss Lyman's School in Montreal; at Brantford, Ont., Saint John, N.B., and New York.

In 1882, on December 6th, she married Joseph Bowles Learmont, the son of William Learmont and Eliza Bowles, of Montreal. Mr. Learmont was a distinguished and successful business man of Montreal; and a great supporter of the arts. He, with his brothers and sisters, donated the Learmont wing to the Montreal Art Gallery, in which are to be found paintings by representative painters of the various Continental schools.

The Empire is grateful to him for his generosity and public spirit in purchasing and presenting to it, on behalf of its Canadian members, Quebec House, of Westerham, Kent, which was the birthplace of James Wolfe, the victor on the Plains of Abraham. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Learmont has largely maintained the property, the administration of which is in the hands of a Committee, of which an eminent son of Canada, Sir Campbell Stuart, K.B.E., is the Chairman.

Mrs. Learmont's home at 30 Macgregor Street, Montreal, contains a very extensive collection of paintings from various parts of the world.

MRS. IBBOTSON LEONARD
LONDON, ONT.

MRS. IBBOTSON LEONARD is a member of the Brinton family which went to Pennsylvania at the time of William Penn. This family still holds part of the estate granted to their ancestor in 1656; and still maintains its association with the Brinton family in England, of Norman blood, settled in Berkshire.

During the Great War Mrs. Ibbotson Leonard was overseas for three and a half years in England and France. She first worked for a year at Oxford under the late Lady Osler in Queen Mary's Guild. Then she was in London at Lady Bentinck's house in Grosvenor Street. Subsequently she went to France and was at the Leave Club, at the Hotel Moderne, place de la Republique, under Lady Guggisberg (Decima Moore) until the bombardment of Paris caused its closure in March, 1918. After this she went to Tours, France, and assisted in founding the Foyer des Alliées, a movement on behalf of under-privileged French girls. This work is still carried on.

Mrs. Leonard is now President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the London Health Association which administers the Queen Alexandra Sanatoria at Byron, Ontario, of which her husband is President, succeeding in office the late Sir Adam Beck.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sarah, daughter of the late Frederic C. Brinton; and Mary Huey, she was educated at the Misses Shipley's School, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Havergal College, Toronto.

On November 22nd, 1914, she married Colonel Ibbotson Leonard, D.S.O., V.D., A.D.C., son of Frank Elton Leonard, of London, Ontario; and of Louisa Ibbotson of Montreal. There is one son: Brinton.

Colonel Leonard, who was educated at Upper Canada College, the Royal Military College, Kingston, and McGill University (B.Sc.) is President of E. Leonard & Sons, Ltd., of London, Ontario. He served overseas 1915-18 and was mentioned in despatches. In 1918 he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order. He is Colonel Commanding the 8th Canadian Cavalry Brigade. In 1927 he was appointed Honorary Aide de Camp to His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada.

Residence: 782 Wellington Street, London, Ontario.

MRS. W. J. LOVERING
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. W. J. LOVERING has been an active participant in a number of movements instituted for the benefit of under-privileged citizens. As a member of the Local Council of Women she was especially interested in the work which had as its objective the securing of widows' pensions and which was conducted to a successful conclusion. She is a member of the Board of the Children's Aid Society and Victor Home of Toronto, of the Board of Alma Ladies' College, St. Thomas, Ont., and Honorary President of the Alma Daughters; also a member of the Annesly Women's Association of Victoria College, the Womens' Canadian Club and Art Association of Toronto.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Lovering was Henrietta Allicen, daughter of William Bury, banker and prominent business man, Kent County, and Henrietta Allicen Hall of Woodstock, Ontario. She was educated at Old Barstow School, Detroit, Michigan and Alma College, St. Thomas, Ontario, specializing in art and music.

Her husband, the late William James Lovering, was the President of The Lovering Lumber Company and a director of the Pacific Coast Lumber Co. of Vancouver. He was also active in the general business interest of the community. He was the son of Henry Langstone Lovering of St. Austell, Cornwall, England, who was one of the pioneer lumbermen and business men of Simcoe County, Ontario.

Mrs. Lovering has four children: Mary Allicen Irene, William Langstone, Agnes Jean, and Henrietta Bury.

Residence: 76 Glen Road, Rosedale, Toronto.

MRS. T. B. MACAULAY
MONTREAL, QUE.

IN Mrs. Thomas Bassett Macaulay Montreal Society has a charming and gracious figure, and Charity a practical and generous patron.

Although she was born at Gloucester, England, Mrs. Macaulay's family has close association with the county of Cheshire. Her father, Arnold Henry Palin, was a son of William Palin, of Stapleford Hall, Tarvin, Cheshire, the home of the Palins for many generations. This family has notable military associations, prominent among a long list of distinguished soldiers being the names of General Charles Palin, and his sons, General Sir Philip Palin and Colonel Randle Palin. A daughter of General Charles Palin is the wife of Field Marshal Sir William Robertson. Mrs. Macaulay's brothers, and several of her sisters, saw service in the Great War. Although in ill-health she herself contributed devoted work to the national cause in the great emergency.

Mrs. Macaulay's early education was received at Ashfield House, an academy for girls, at Neston, Cheshire. Later she went to Stratford Abbey College, Stroud; and subsequently to Englethwaite, the well-known "finishing" school of Miss Nairn at Armathwaite, Cumberland, where she herself embarked on educational work as a career.

A most interesting phase of Mrs. Macaulay's educational life was a period of over nine years spent in Greece. A natural interest in art and history was greatly stimulated by this long residence in a land so potent in its cultural influences and she recalls with gratification that her duties afforded ample opportunity for travel and observation.

Her marriage in April, 1920, brought Mrs. Macaulay new and enlarged responsibilities, for she has fully identified herself with the manifold interests of her distinguished husband. Mr. Macaulay, President of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, besides enjoying an international reputation in insurance and finance, is prominent in many other directions. In all his activities, Mrs. Macaulay is her husband's constant companion and aid. Her collection of photographs, taken with her own camera, form a remarkable epitome not only of many journeyings of unusual interest, but of her powers of discernment and observation. These travels, incidentally, have contributed to another hobby. Mrs. Macaulay is an ardent gardener; and plants gathered by her from almost every country she has visited have been made to flourish in her rock gardens.

Mrs. Macaulay serves on the Boards of the Child Welfare Association, the Grenfell Labrador Mission and the Y.W.C.A. She is also Honorary President of the Hudson and Como Branch of the Women's Institute. She also finds time to identify herself with the social activities of the ladies of the Sun Life Assurance Company, whose work on behalf of the unfortunate and underprivileged is widely known and appreciated.

MISS ELDRED MACDONALD
TORONTO, ONT.

MISS ELDRED MACDONALD was one of the younger patriotic women whose worth was soon recognized by the leaders of those organizations which have proven their great usefulness to Canada and the Empire during stressful times. To Church and State she has given of her time unstintingly in many and varied offices in women's organizations, perhaps the most notable being that of National Treasurer and Councillor in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire for the whole of the Dominion. Not only during the War period, but later when the I.O.D.E. were raising the large War Memorial Fund, Miss Macdonald gave splendid service.

Born in Toronto, daughter of the late Peter Macdonald and Sarah Blong. On her father's side of Highland chieftain stock and on her maternal of old French Huguenot. As the grand-daughter of early residents of Toronto Miss Macdonald inherited the traditions and memories of the pioneer days of Canadian history and was thoroughly imbued from childhood with the great work women can do to consolidate the British Empire. Educated at a private boarding-school in Oshawa and later taking up music at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, Miss Macdonald graduated from this institution with the highest honours, taking the Gold Medal in the Artists' Course of Singing. These peculiar gifts of mind and heart were generously used wherever helpful in philanthropic work.

Miss Macdonald, along with her sister Mrs. Hillyard Robinson, was presented to Their Majesties at the brilliant Court of Saint James in June 1929.

If Miss Macdonald has any hobby it is in her charming old home in Rosedale where she has been hostess since the death of her mother some years ago.

Address: 176 East Roxborough Street, Rosedale, Toronto.

MRS.
DONALD WALTER MACDONALD
COBOURG, ONTARIO

MRS. DONALD WALTER MACDONALD of "Glencoe", Edmonton, and "Sunnyside", Cobourg, is the paternal granddaughter of a scholarly Irish gentleman, Francis William Kerr, of the County of Fermanagh, Ireland, who married a cousin of Percy Bysshe Shelley, the Poet, Olive Shelley, widow of Elias Wallbridge, of Belleville, uncle of the late Honourable Lewis Wallbridge, Chief Justice of Manitoba. Mrs. Macdonald's father, the late Honourable William Kerr, K.C., LL.D., a Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada, was an outstanding figure in the National Life of Canada for over half a century. He was several times elected to the Dominion Parliament, and later appointed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier a Member of the Senate of Canada. Senator Kerr's brother, John W. Kerr, K.C., was Crown Attorney of Northumberland and Durham. Senator Kerr married Myra, sister of the late John Collard Field, ex-M.P.P., and the late Corelli Collard Field, ex-M.P.P., of Cobourg, descendants of the well-known Collard family of Somerset, England, and a branch of the family of Oliver Cromwell. Mrs. Macdonald (Edith Myra) is a member of family of seven—the others being Helena Shelley, Mabel Evelyn, the late W. F. Kerr, K.C., Crown Attorney of Northumberland and Durham and Life Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada, Charles W. Kerr, K.C., Toronto, the late John Morley Kerr, an outstanding figure in the financial world of Toronto, and F. D. Kerr, K.C., Peterboro. Mrs. Macdonald has a noteworthy record of public service, both in the Province of Alberta, where she resided until her husband's death in 1921, and latterly in Ontario. In Edmonton she was a member of the Women's Canadian Club, the Women's University Club, Regent of the Royal Windsor Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, and First Vice-President for Alberta for the Order. A prominent hostess in the social life of Alberta's capital, she was also an enthusiastic gardener and sportswoman. An active political worker, writer, and platform speaker in both English and French, she gained an enviable reputation as a brilliant and witty speaker; and her name was put in nominations there both for the Provincial and Dominion House of Commons. Returning in 1922 to her old home in Cobourg, Ontario, where her family have resided for a century, her name was put in nomination for the Dominion Parliament, and in 1930 ran unsuccessfully as an Independent. Three years a member of the Town Council, she was in 1930 elected Reeve, the first woman in Canada ever to hold this office, just as a year previous, she had been the first woman in the Dominion to be a candidate for the Mayoral Chair. She is first Vice-Regent of the Cobourg Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, a member of the Women's Canadian Clubs of Toronto and Ottawa and a later member of the Executive of the Ontario Historical Society. An Honour graduate of Toronto University in Modern Languages; has travelled widely throughout Canada, the United States and Europe. Since her return from a lengthy stay in Holland, has delivered illustrated lectures on that Country to various Women's Canadian Clubs and Historical Associations. Has written extensively for the press and done magazine writing. She is a well-known figure in the political and social life of the Dominion Capital.

An active worker in the Church of England, Cobourg (St. Peter's) she was married in June, 1905, in that Church to Donald Walter Macdonald, a direct descendant of the Historic, Military Macdonalds, of "Garth", Perthshire, Scotland. His grandfather, Captain Archibald Macdonald, of H.M. 34th Foot Regiment, settled in Cobourg, after the Napoleonic Wars, and married a daughter of the Honourable Captain Walter Boswell of the Royal Navy, who in 1819 gave Cobourg its name. A brother of Captain Macdonald, John Macdonald of "Garth", (a nephew of General Small, who led a British Regiment at the Battle of Bunker's Hill, during the American Revolution) was a famous figure in the old North-West Fur Trading Company, and, in 1798, with two other Factors, Hughes and Shaw, founded and named Fort Augustus (now Edmonton, Alberta). John Macdonald was the father of de Bellefeuille Macdonald of Montreal, and grandfather of Archibald Chaussegros de Léry Macdonald, Seigneur of St.-Eustache; a nephew, Sir John Campbell, was one of the heroic military figures of the Peninsular War.

Mrs. Macdonald has three children: Kathleen Myra Kerr (Lady Röell) of Sumatra, Dutch East Indies; Garth William Kerr, and D'Arcy Kerr de Bellefeuille, both sons educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope, under the Headmastership of the Rev. Dr. F. Graham Orchard, M.A. (Cambridge University).

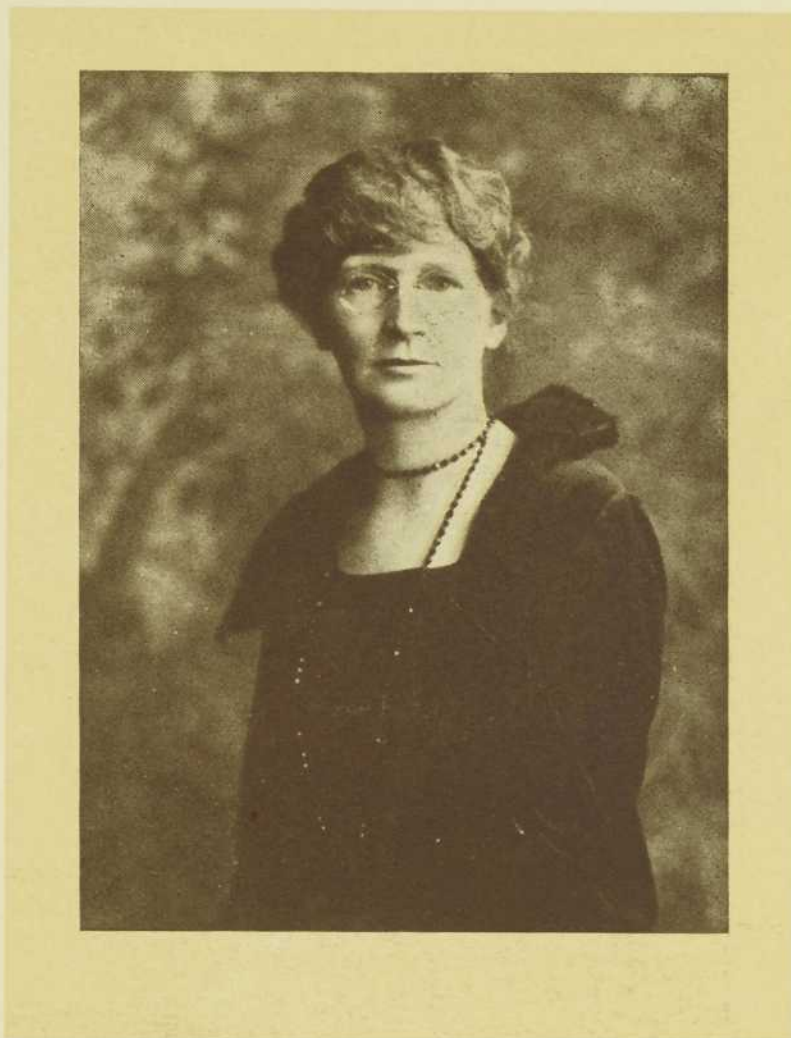

Residences: "Sunnyside", Cobourg; "Glencoe", Edmonton. Clubs: "The Chelsea Club", Ottawa.

MRS.
GEORGE DOUGLAS MACKINNON
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

MARY LOUISE BOWMAN was born at Lacolle, P.Q., the daughter of Joseph Charles and Eliza King Bowman. She was educated in Hamilton, Ontario, and at the age of seventeen years was a kindergarten directress in an Ontario School. Later went into training as a nurse in Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, and followed her profession in that city until her marriage to George Douglas MacKinnon, in 1902.

Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon lived in Philadelphia until 1904, then moved to Sherbrooke, Que., where Mrs. MacKinnon's death occurred on November 4th, 1928.

There are four children: Grace L. (Mrs. J. M. S. Macdonald); Josepha B.; Jean D.; and Eleanor, now students at McGill University, Montreal, from which University Mrs. Macdonald graduated.

Mrs. MacKinnon held office in the Y.W.C.A.; Eastern Townships Graduate Nurses' Association; Child Welfare Clinic; Victorian Order of Nurses; while she was a member of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and other patriotic organizations. She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Sherbrooke, and was active in various church societies. Mrs. MacKinnon was also prominent in social welfare work.

A building for women's social and charitable activities has been erected in Sherbrooke by Mr. MacKinnon and his daughters as a memorial to the deceased and presented by them to the Young Women's Christian Association for the benefit of womankind without distinction of race or creed.

MRS. F. P. MACKLEM
TORONTO, ONT.

HELOISE, daughter of the late E. H. Keating, C.E., and the late Mary Little Blanchard, was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia. In 1812 her great-grandparents came from England to claim property in Philadelphia; but war had been declared and they were not able to land. The property was sequestered and after twenty-one years was sold by the United States government. Mrs. Keating was a daughter of Gabrielle Wayne, brother of the "Mad Anthony" (vide Encyclopedia Britannica).

It was at the age of nine, at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Halifax, that Heloise Keating began her study of the harp. Later on, she and her twin sister were sent to school in Brussels, Belgium. There she became a private pupil of M. Meerloo, Professeur au Conservatoire Royal. Her studies were interrupted by ill-health, but on her returning to Brussels she was successful in entering the Conservatoire in 1905. At the "Concours" of that year she obtained a Second Prize; and the following year a First Prize (with distinction) and the "Prix de la Reine". She studied with her master for over six years. From Brussels she went to England and to Ireland, playing a great deal among friends.

She was married on September 11th, 1909, in St. George's Church, Toronto, to Francis Paget Macklem, son of the late Rev. Sutherland Macklem, of "Clark Hill", Niagara; and the late Charlotte Elizabeth Macklem. The Macklems are of United Empire Loyalist descent; as are also the Blanchards. Of this marriage there are four children: Frances Charlotte; Mary Anne de Clonard; Francis Sutherland; and Heloise Marguerite.

The care of her family prevented her playing for fourteen years; but in 1923 she became First Harpist of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, under the distinguished baton of Dr. von Kunits which post she still holds.

She is a member of the Lyceum Club, London, England.

Residence: 145 South Drive, Toronto.

MRS. J. P. MACLAREN
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. J. P. MACLAREN has all her life been interested in social welfare work and has given of her time, talents and money in its furtherance. Probably the most important role she has played in this connection has been that as head of the Evangelia Settlement in Toronto, a position she held from 1903 until its activities were suspended in 1914 on account of the Great War. On taking up her residence in Ottawa she assisted in various welfare movements. She helped in organizing the Ottawa Welfare Bureau; and was President of the Settlement House in that city. For some time she was Secretary of the Local Council of Women. She is presently Vice-President of the Ottawa Welfare Bureau.

Mrs. MacLaren was, before her marriage, Edith Constance Elwood, a daughter of John Yeats Elwood, of Goderich, Ontario; and Marion W. Watson. She was born at Goderich, Ontario, on May 14th, 1875. Her brother was the late Judge Edward Lindsey Elwood, of Regina, Saskatchewan. Her grandfather was the Ven. Archdeacon Edward Lindsey Elwood, Rector of St. George's Church, Goderich, Ontario.

She was educated at Goderich Collegiate Institute and St. Hilda's College, Trinity University, whence she graduated. Later she had charge of the Department of History and English at St. Mary's College, Dallas, Texas; and subsequently became Assistant Principal of the Parkdale School for Girls, Toronto. While living in Toronto she was President of the University Women's Club.

She was married on February 11th, 1914, to John Pritchard MacLaren, son of Rev. Alexander MacLaren, of Hamilton, Ontario. Of her marriage there is one son: John Edmund Elwood MacLaren.

Residence: 95 Wurtemberg Street, Ottawa.

MRS. J. B. MACLEAN
TORONTO, ONT.

ONE of Mrs. Maclean's most prized possessions is the original Denison manuscript so often referred to in early American history. This document is an heirloom and comes to her by reason of her descent from Major General Daniel Denison, one of the first New Englanders. She is also descended from Mary Chilton, the first woman to step on land from the "Mayflower"; and connected with Lieutenant-General Sir William Pepperill, Baronet, a New Englander who captured Louisburg, Cape Breton, for the British in 1745. Although born in the United States, Mrs. Maclean is a great-great-granddaughter of the first United Empire Loyalist, Richard Clark, the Boston banker to whom was consigned the tea which, thrown into the harbour, was the cause of the Revolution. Richard Clark, with his family, escaped to Montreal; and thence went to England. His son, Isaac Winslow Clark, was an important factor in the Canadian success in the War of 1812. Richard Clark's grandson, Copley, who was born in Boston, later became Lord Lyndhurst, who was thrice Lord Chancellor of Great Britain. Lord Lyndhurst, when called upon to form a Tory ministry—which was but a short-lived one—gave a portfolio to Disraeli, who thus had his first cabinet appointment. Lord Lyndhurst visited his uncle, Chief Justice Powell, at Niagara.

Born at Boston, Mass., on August 4th, 1867, Anna Perkins is the daughter of Professor Daniel Denison Slade (of Harvard University); and Marie Louise Hensler. She is a niece of Countess Elise d'Edla Saxe-Cobourg Gotha. Her education was received at Boston.

On October 31st, 1900, she married John Bayne Maclean, who was born at Crieff, Ontario, on September 26th, 1862, the son of Rev. Andrew Maclean and Catharine Cameron. Of this marriage there was one son: Hector Andrew Fitzroy, who was born February 10th, 1903, and died August 17th, 1919.

President of the Maclean Publishing Company, Ltd., of Toronto, Lieutenant-Colonel J. B. Maclean, V.D., served over thirty-five years in the Militia. He was honoured by the London University by the award, in 1928, of the LL.D. degree.

Residence: Wells Hill, Toronto.

MRS. A. D. MAC TIER
MONTREAL, QUE.

ON her maternal side of United Empire Loyalist descent, Ethel Louise is the daughter of Samuel Waddell and Maria Caroline MacKay. She was born at Montreal on July 27th, 1870, and was educated at Montreal; later in France and Germany.

Her marriage to Anthony Douglas MacTier took place on June 19th, 1894; and there have been two children: Major W. Stewart M. MacTier, M.C., and Adeline Waddell, now Mrs. Donald A. White.

Her public service has been extensive. During the Great War she was an ardent worker on behalf of the Patriotic Fund, the Red Cross and the Women's Auxiliary of the Royal Highlanders. She is a Governor of the Montreal General Hospital and is greatly interested in the Montreal Foundling and Baby Hospital. She is a member of the Mount Royal Chapter of the I.O.D.E., the Women's Canadian Club. All philanthropic and charitable works have in her a generous supporter as well as an energetic helper. She is a member of St. Georges (Anglican) Church.

Mr. A. D. MacTier, who was born in Blairgowrie, Perthshire, Scotland, is a Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway; and in addition to being a brilliant business man is one of the Dominion's keenest sportsmen. He is especially keen on the development of English Rugby football in this country and is the donor of the MacTier Cup which is for competition by Canadian English Rugby clubs.

Mrs. MacTier's home is: 1040 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal.

LADY MANN
TORONTO, ONT.

JANE EMILY WILLIAMS was born at Ingersoll, Ontario, the daughter of William Williams, of Winnipeg, and Sarah Cameron, of Glengarry Hill, Oxford County, Ontario, of United Empire Loyalist stock. She was educated in Montreal, first at Mrs. Lay's School and later at Miss Lauder's. In 1887, on March 9th, she was married to Donald D. Mann; and of this union there has been one son: Donald Cameron.

Lady Mann, who is a Patron and Life Member of the Lyceum Women's Art Association of Canada, is especially interested in the development of music and drama. She is a member of the Local Council of Women and the Women's Canadian Club; and is a ready supporter of charitable and benevolent causes.

Donald D. Mann was born at Acton, Ontario, on March 23rd, 1853, the son of Hugh Mann and Helen Macdonnell, both of whom came from Invernesshire, Scotland. His business career has been a brilliant one; and, in association with Sir William MacKenzie his work in the development of the Dominion through the financing and building of railways is monumental—and of such outstanding Imperial importance as to merit the recognition of His Majesty, King George Vth, who conferred upon him the honour of Knighthood in 1911. Sir Donald was present at His Majesty's Coronation as an invited guest; and during the brilliant ceremonies in connection therewith Lady Mann was presented at His Majesty's Court of St. James.

Sir Donald's remarkable foresight in Imperial development has been justified by the course of events. In numerous contributions to the contemporary press he has propounded his belief that the British Empire should be a partnership of sovereign states. He has rightly been depicted as "One of the biggest practical geniuses of the present age in Canada". His interest in military affairs and his love of sport are perpetuated by the Cup he presented to the 20th Regiment (Lorne Rifles) for shooting and the D.D.M. Gold Cup which is for competition by Canadian lacrosse teams.

Residence: "Fallingbrook", Kingston Road, Toronto.

MRS. SAMUEL MCBRIDE
TORONTO, ONT.

WHILE her husband has been pursuing his active and successful work in the interests of his native City of Toronto, Mrs. McBride has been devoting herself to her home and family. All through Mr. McBride's strenuous public life she has been helping him in her own way by maintaining a suitable background; and extending to him every assistance and co-operation. Mrs. McBride, who is a fourth generation Canadian, has strong views as to the modern woman's place in public life, and believes that she can, by the full use of the vote which is now hers, accomplish great good for the country.

Born in Toronto she is the daughter, Frances Jane, of Thomas Whitcombe and Emma Cashman. Her great-grandfather, William Whitcombe, came to Toronto in its earliest days as a representative of the Whitcombe Estate in England, and the family has been located in Toronto ever since.

She married Samuel McBride at Toronto on Wednesday, June 11th, 1890, and of the marriage there are three children: Mildred, who married Gordon B. Dunfield; Lillian, who is married to William R. Shaw; and Clifford Robert, who married Ullinee Wilkinson. Mrs. Dunfield has four children: Ross, Ilma, June and John. Mrs. Shaw's two children are Gordon and Donald.

Mr. Samuel McBride, who was born in Toronto, is the son of Samuel McBride and Eleanor Anderson, has played an important part in the civic life of Toronto, having represented the Citizens of Toronto for thirteen years as an Alderman; three years as a Controller; and was Mayor of the City of Toronto during 1928 and 1929. A Director of the Canadian National Exhibition since 1902. Four years their Finance Commissioner and eight years on the Executive Board, including 1930.

Mrs. McBride is a member of the Granite Club; The Daughters of the Empire (Parkdale Chapter, I.O.D.E.); Life Member of the Local Council of Women and many other Societies.

Residence: 84 Lakeshore, Wards Island, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. A. W. MCDUGALD
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

MRS. A. W. MCDUGALD was an outstanding figure in war work, her unique service being the bringing together for the first time of English and French, Roman Catholic, Protestant and Hebrew women for patriotic work. She was a member of the Women's Committee of the War Cabinet at Ottawa, February, 1918. During two decades she held National office in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She was Honorary Organizing Secretary, 1910-1926. In the Province of Quebec she organized fifty-eight chapters which together shipped direct to trenches and hospitals a steady supply of soldiers' comforts during the entire period of the War. In 1916 she was presented with Life Membership in the National Chapter. Mrs. McDougald convened the Committee which was appointed to compile a record of the Order's activities during the Great War and edited a volume of six hundred pages, comprising the work of some eight hundred Chapters. She was an active member of the War Memorial Committee, 1919-1925, and spoke in almost every important centre in Canada in aid of the Order's scheme of Canadian and Overseas University Scholarships for soldier's children. Her inherited legal ability was availed of by the Order in the Committee on its Constitution. As its Convenor Mrs. McDougald re-drafted the Constitution and presented it to the National Chapter in session at Vancouver in 1922, when it was adopted without amendment. She is Honorary Vice-President of the National Chapter elected in 1923 and re-elected each subsequent year, and Honorary Vice-President of the Wolfe and Montcalm Chapter, Montreal, 1910-1930.

Mrs. McDougald has been for many years actively identified with committees for social betterment; Child Welfare, Family Welfare, Daily Vacation Bible Schools; Parks and Playgrounds; and the McGill Settlement. She is also a member of the following Clubs: Themis Club, Montreal, Women's Club, Women's Canadian Club, Press Club, Canadian Authors' Association, Women's Art Association and Liberal Club.

A thorough student of social and political questions, Mrs. McDougald expresses herself effectively with equal facility in English and French through her pen or from the public platform. She has contributed to both newspapers and magazines; and has written some poems of high literary quality. A small volume of patriotic verse "Songs of Our Maple Saplings" appeared in 1917, and its sale for the benefit of the I.O.D.E. Soldiers' Comforts Fund realized a substantial sum.

Born in 1867, she is the third daughter, Annie, of the late James Bethune, Q.C., a distinguished leader at the Canadian Bar, and Elizabeth Ratray, (later Lady Howland). She was educated at Toronto, Berthier-en-haut, P.Q., and Brussels, Belgium. She is a descendant, on both sides, of United Empire Loyalist stock; Liberal in politics and in religion a Presbyterian, closely identified through her parental forbears with the earliest establishment of that form of worship in Upper Canada at Williamstown, Glengarry, Ontario, 1787.

She married, in 1888, Alexander William McDougald, and of the union there are two children: Elizabeth Bethune (Mrs. P. Grattan Kiely, of Toronto), and Justin Bethune (Montreal).

Residence: 3055 Sherbrooke Street West, Westmount, Quebec.

MRS. M. E. MCKENZIE
TORONTO, ONT.

BORN at Mount Albert, Ontario, Mrs. M. E. McKenzie is the daughter, Florence Barbara, of Rev. George Edwards, B.A., and Jeannie Nicholson, of Montreal. Educated at Kingston, Ont. Her father, who was born at Kittles Corners, near Ottawa, Ontario, was ordained in 1879 and during his long association with the United Church was well-known throughout the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. He is now living, in retirement, at Sudbury, Ontario.

She was married on December 26th, 1916, at Sudbury, Ontario, to Morley Eland McKenzie, who was born at Corinth, Ontario, on October 29th, 1890, the son of George Alexander McKenzie and Almina McKenney, both of Corinth, Ontario. He was educated at Tillsonburg Collegiate Institute. After several years' association with the Royal Bank of Canada in various capacities he was, in 1921, appointed Director of the Ontario Government Savings Bank, which institution he organized and developed to its present standing. He is a prominent Freemason, a Past Master of the Bay of Quinte Lodge and Past District Deputy Grand Master.

Mrs. McKenzie shares her husband's love of fishing; while she is a devotee of golf and badminton. She is a member of the Women's Art Association; the Granite and York Downs Clubs.

Residence: 14 Rose Park Crescent, Toronto, Ont.

MRS. J. MCKINNEY
CLARESHOLM, ALBERTA.

MRS. J. MCKINNEY has the distinction of being the first woman to be elected to a legislative assembly in the British Empire, having been elected in June, 1917, to represent the constituency of Claresholm in the Alberta Legislature as a non-partisan member. She sat in the House for four years, and her election marked the beginning of the progressive political movement in the Dominion. She had previously been the champion of women's rights in Alberta. Her maiden parliamentary speech was in the interests of the feeble-minded, a cause which commands her greatest concern.

Mrs. McKinney was one of the five Alberta women who took the famous "persons" case to the Privy Council in London, England, which resulted in the judgment that women were entitled to be called to the Canadian Senate.

She gives a great deal of her time to the work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of which organization she is Acting President for the Dominion.

Born at Athens, near Brockville, Ontario, she is the daughter, Louise, of Richard Crummy, of Belfast, Ireland; and Esther Empey, of Eastons Corners, Ontario. She was educated at Athens High School and the Ottawa Normal School.

She was married on March 10th, 1896, to James McKinney who was born in Carleton County, near Ottawa, Ontario. Her son, James Willard, Ph.D., is a graduate of the University of Alberta and a post-graduate of McGill University. He is at present engaged on research work in Berlin, New Hampshire.

Residence: Claresholm, Alberta.

MRS. R. S. McLAUGHLIN
OSHAWA, ONT.

It is but fitting that one of Ontario's most brilliant sons should have as his wife one of the Province's most charming daughters. Both Mr. and Mrs. Robert Samuel McLaughlin were born within its confines and have jointly and separately played an important part in its life.

Mrs. McLaughlin is herself a fifth-generation Canadian. Her great-great-grandfather was given a grant of land in Prince Edward County, near Adolphustown; so she is very proud of her membership in the British Empire Loyalist Association, concerning which she has always taken the greatest interest. As Adelaide Louise Mowbray she is the daughter of Ralph Mowbray and Victoria Nutting. She was born at Kinsale, Ontario County, Ont., but was educated at Whitby Collegiate Institute and Ottawa Normal School.

Her marriage to Robert Samuel McLaughlin took place on February 2nd, 1898. She has five children: Mary Eileen (Mrs. W. Eric Phillips, Oshawa), Mildred Adelaide (Mrs. John Coard Taylor, Montclair, N.J.), Isabel Grace, Hilda Frances (Mrs. John Burnett Pangman, Montreal) and Eleanor Victoria.

Her public work has been both extensive and intensive. She is President of the Hospital Auxiliary and the Home and School Council of Oshawa; Vice-President of the Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations and is a delegate to the Mothers' Section of the National Federation of Education which deals with the part motherhood plays in education. She is also a life member of the National Council of Women. Church work also claims its share of her time, she being a member of St. Andrew's United Church. For a number of years she was President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church.

Her recreations are golf, travelling and gardening. Her greatest interest, however, is her home and family, while her many friendships play an important part in her life.

At her place, "Parkwood," Oshawa, Ont., where she entertains largely, many people have known the pleasure of her gracious personality.

MRS. JOHN McMARTIN
MONTREAL, QUE.

A DEVOUT member of the Roman Catholic Church, Mrs. John McMartin has laboured diligently on its behalf and has been an inspiration to her fellow-workers. When leaving Cornwall, Ontario, to take up her residence in Montreal she donated, for use as an orphanage, her house there to the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Hotel Dieu. In addition to this gift she also assumed the responsibility for a portion of the annual cost of its upkeep. Coming to Montreal she became interested in, and a member of, the local sub-division of the Catholic Women's League. Later she was its President for two years. She was also a member of the League's National Executive and Convener of its Magazine Committee; while she represented it at the International Convention held in Rome in 1925 and 1930. Her other interests are in the work of the Catholic Truth Society; and she is Vice-President of the Catholic Girls' Club. In recognition of her valued services to the Church she was decorated in 1928 by His Holiness Pope Pius XI with the Order "Pro Ecelesia et Pontifice".

Mary Catherine, daughter of John A. McDougald and Annie Chisholm, was born in the County of Glengarry, Ontario. Her father was for a number of years Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario at Cornwall. It was in the latter city that she was married, on January 22nd, 1896, to John McMartin, M.P. for Glengarry and Stormont. Her husband died on April 12th, 1918.

Mrs. McMartin's five children are: John Bruce; Grace, married to Dr. J. P. Gilhooly; Frances (Mrs. Mackenzie R. Campbell); Jean, who married Le Johnkeer Richard van Schuylenburch, of The Hague, Holland; and Rita, wife of Venance LeMay, C.E.

At the outbreak of War in 1914 Mrs. McMartin was one of the group in Cornwall which organized the city's first Chapter of the I.O.D.E., the Longue Sault, of which she became the first Regent, an office which she continued to hold until she left for Montreal. She was also active in the organization of several other Chapters in Stormont and Glengarry and was Regent of the first Municipal Chapter there. For a number of years she was a member of the National Executive; and one of the original members of the Provincial Chapter of Ontario.

Mrs. McMartin is a member of the Women's Canadian Club, Women's Liberal Club, League of Nations Society, Big Sister Association, Art Association, St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary; as well as a number of social clubs.

Residence: 7 Redpath Crescent, Montreal.

MRS. FREDERICK MERCER
TORONTO, ONT.

THE outstanding interest of Mrs. Frederick Mercer has been the work of the Lyceum Women's Art Association of which she was President during the years 1914-1916. In addition she has, on many occasions, been its Acting President during a vacancy in the Presidential chair.

On the completion of her education she travelled abroad extensively; and for four years after her marriage resided in London, England. It was during that period that she made a wide circle of friends both in that city and in Paris and Brussels. It was also at this time that she began to get together her magnificent collection of paintings which includes splendid specimens of the English, Dutch, Belgian and Flemish Schools; as well as a notable collection by well-known Canadian artists.

Born at Thamesville, Ontario, she is the daughter, Margaret Isabellah, of John Ferguson, of Stirlingshire, Scotland; and Sarah McKinlay, of Ridgetown, Ontario. She matriculated from Ridgetown Collegiate Institute; and also studied at the Richard Institute for French, and Westminster College.

On February 18th, 1903, she was married to Frederick Mercer, son of Thomas Mercer, of Tillsonburg, Ontario. Of the marriage there are two children: Helen and Bernard.

Mrs. Mercer, who resides at 56 Warren Road, Toronto, is a member of the Women's Canadian Club, the Toronto Women's Liberal Association, the Art Gallery of Toronto, the Lyceum Women's Art Association; as well as a number of social clubs.

LADY MEREDITH
MONTREAL, QUE.

TWO of the Dominion's leading families were united when, in 1888, Isobel Brenda Allan, daughter of the late Andrew Allan and Isabella Anne Smith, of Montreal, was married to Vincent Meredith, son of J. W. C. Meredith, of London, Ontario. Mr. Andrew Allan was a distinguished member of the shipping family which created the Allan Steamship Line; while the Meredith family is one of the oldest and most prominent of the Irish families which came to Canada in the pioneer days. The late Chief Justice Sir William Collis Meredith was one of this family; as was also Mr. Edmund A. Meredith, who was Principal of McGill University in 1846.

With her husband Lady Meredith has always been keenly interested in all movements leading to the advancement of her native city of Montreal and both its charitable and benevolent institutions have benefitted by her zealous and sympathetic support. She is President of the Royal Victoria Hospital Maternity Board; while the Montreal Art Association has her constant patronage. During the Great War she was decorated by the Belgian Government for her services to their country. She was also President of the Ladies' Branch of the Navy League; and, in 1917, Chairman of the Montreal Ladies' Committee of the Victory Loan Campaign.

In September, 1916, during the regime of His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, at a garden party held at Government House, Ottawa, a baronetcy was conferred upon her husband. Sir Vincent was one of the Dominion's leading bankers and, under his guidance, the Bank of Montreal extended its influence and increased its prestige throughout the world. At the time of his death in 1929, he was the Bank's President; also President of the Royal Trust Company, a Director of the Canadian Pacific Railway and a Director of a number of important public companies. He was a Governor of McGill University. The University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, conferred the D.C.L. degree upon Sir Vincent in 1927.

Lady Meredith resides at 1110 Pine Avenue West, Montreal.

MRS. CHARLES MEREDITH
MONTREAL, QUE.

DAUGHTER of the late Richard Bladworth Angus, one of Canada's most prominent and highly respected financiers and men of achievement, Mrs. Charles Meredith (Elspeth H. Angus) married into a family which also has had a leading part in shaping Canadian history and building up the Dominion. Her father, who was born near Edinburgh, Scotland, and married in 1857 Mary A. Daniels of near Manchester, England, became associated with the Bank of Montreal in Canada the same year and was subsequently general manager, director and president. He had an active part in financing the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway, completed in 1885, and gave practical support and encouragement to educational, art and philanthropic movements.

Elspeth H. Angus, who was born in Montreal on March 2, 1869, was educated in Dresden, Germany, and in England. One of a family of eight, her brothers are D. Forbes Angus and William Forrest Angus (both of Montreal) and Daniel James of Victoria, B.C., and her sisters—Mrs. F. L. Wanklyn, Mrs. W. W. Chipman, Mrs. R. MacDougall Paterson and Mrs. C. F. Martin.

She was married on June 6, 1893, to Charles Meredith, who was born in London, Ontario, on December 17, 1856, the son of John Cooke Meredith and Sarah Pegler Meredith, and brother of Chief Justice Sir W. R. M. Meredith. He was the founder of Charles Meredith and Company, Financial Agents of Montreal. In his youth he was a noted athlete.

Mrs. Meredith is fond of outdoor life and is much interested in her garden. She plays a keen game of golf and tennis. She is a member of the Wolfe and Montcalm Chapter, I.O.D.E., and the Women's Canadian Club.

Her residences are: 1130 Pine Avenue West, Montreal, and Senneville, Quebec.

MISS E. L. MERRITT
TORONTO, ONT.

MISS EMILY LENA MERRITT is a descendant of one of the best-known United Empire Loyalist families in Canada, with a record of achievement closely entwined with the growth of the country. Her grandfather, Hon. William Hamilton Merritt, in 1812 conceived the idea of the Welland Canal and in 1818, with George Keefer and others, made the first survey of the land preparatory to its construction. Another fact of historic importance is that after the war of 1812-1814 he purchased almost the entire land upon which St. Catharines now stands and renamed the settlement "St. Catharines" after his wife, Catharine Rodman Prendergast, daughter of Dr. Prendergast, the first physician to practice in the district.

Her father, William Hamilton Merritt, was born in St. Catharines, Ontario. Her mother, Janet Lang Morris, who was born at Brockville, Ontario, was the daughter of Hon. James Morris, of Brockville, the first Post-Master General of Canada.

It was he who chose the beaver as the national emblem to be shown on the first Canadian postage stamp which was designed by Sanford (later Sir Sanford) Fleming. In this connection it is a noteworthy coincidence that his grandson, Lieutenant-Colonel William Hamilton Merritt, together with Adam F. Penton, of Toronto, organized and sponsored the first air-mail flight between Toronto and Ottawa for which the first Canadian air-mail stamps were designed and issued by the Post-Office Department.

Miss Merritt's brother, Lieutenant-Colonel William Hamilton Merritt, was an officer in the Governor-General's Body Guard. He was the promoter and President of the Aero Club of Canada. He married Margaret Simpson, daughter of Robert Simpson, of Toronto.

The late Miss Catharine Nina Merritt had an established artistic reputation. She was the authoress of the three-act historical drama "When George the Third was King" in which she herself played one of the leading roles when it was produced in 1897 by the United Empire Loyalist Society of Toronto. On this occasion, to add to the verisimilitude of the stage setting, a number of Indians were brought in from the Indian Reservation to take part in the play. They were so impressed by the sympathetic treatment given to the Indian characters by the authoress that she was made a Princess of the Five Nations Tribe with the name "Kawee-wen-hawee" meaning "Good Messenger". She was a keen Imperialist and lectured extensively throughout the Dominion in the interests of the Navy League.

Miss Merritt, who was born in St. Catharines, is a finished and sympathetic musician; and a delightful painter in water-colours. During her many sojourns abroad she has had exceptional opportunities for reproducing her impressions of the beauty spots she has visited, notably in India, Japan, the South of France and Italy. With her sister she made a round-the-world trip in 1907, a complete and illustrated account of which she has preserved in book form. She is an active member of the Lyceum Women's Art Association and the Toronto Ladies' Club; also an associate member of the Toronto Art Association.

Residence: 38 Isabella Street, Toronto.

MISS SARA MICKLE
TORONTO, ONT.

THE work of the Women's Canadian Historical Society, of Toronto, was the outstanding interest of Miss Sara Mickle, who as Charter Member and its President for fifteen years, assisted materially in its development. Preceding her as President of the Society were Miss Mary Agnes Fitz-Gibbon, Mrs. Forsyth Grant and Lady Edgar. The work of this Society has been of the utmost importance in fostering and maintaining a keen interest in the history of Canada, and especially of the older parts of Ontario. It was during Miss Mickle's Presidency that she, with the support of the Society, was entrusted by the City with the restoration of Colborne Lodge, the home of the late J. G. Howard, among whose benefactions to Toronto was the gift of High Park. Colborne Lodge is now an object of attraction and of historic importance as showing the furnishings and arrangements of an early Victorian house. Miss Mickle was also responsible for the production of three calendars of unique historical character.

The first was the "Cabot", issued in 1896; and the second (1897) "Historic Days of Canada." In the preparation of both of these Miss Mickle had the collaboration of Miss Mary Agnes Fitz-gibbon. The Third, an Empire calendar, was published in 1901 and was called "In Her Days", and was a record of the outstanding events during the reign of Queen Victoria for each day of the year. In respect of this calendar Miss Mickle was proud of the congratulatory letters she received from H.M. Queen Victoria, Lord Lister, Rudyard Kipling and other notables.

Miss Mickle was the Secretary of the Toronto Relief Society and its branch, the Industrial Room, in the early days of its existence; and during this period was also Secretary of the Board of the Hillcrest Convalescent Home. She was devoted to her Church and was a loyal and faithful worker at St. Andrews, King Street, for many years.

Miss Sara Mickle was born in Guelph, Ontario, the daughter of Charles Mickle and Ellen Thurtell. Charles Mickle was the grandson of William Julius Mickle, translator of "The Lusiad" from the Portuguese of Camoens, and author of a number of poems, the most famous of which is "There's nae luck about the Hoose." Miss Mickle was one of a large family each member of which has played a distinguished part in various spheres. The memory of her parents is kept alive in two Fellowships—the Charles Mickle Fellowship and the Ellen Mickle Fellowship—for Post-Graduate Medical Research, given to Toronto University by her brother, the late Dr. William Julius Mickle, M.D., F.R.C.P., an authority on paralysis of the brain.

Miss Sara Mickle died at Toronto on June 2nd, 1930.

MRS. R. W. MILLICHAMP
OSHAWA, ONT.

MRS. MILLICHAMP has been an unassuming helper of a number of good causes both in Oshawa and in the Province of Ontario. Her greatest interest has been in her home life and in the welfare of her husband and children.

Born in Paisley, Ontario, she is the daughter of J. Frederick Paterson and Florence Isabelle McCarthy; and the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton McCarthy of "Carnavaer", Barrie, Ontario. Mrs. Dalton McCarthy was a Miss Lina Manners, born in Edinburgh, Scotland, a member of the distinguished Manners family. She was educated at Glen Mawr, Toronto.

She was married at St. Thomas' Church, Toronto, in 1904, to Rueben William Millichamp, son of Rueben Millichamp and Elizabeth Williams, both of Toronto. Mr. Rueben Millichamp was closely associated with and a generous supporter of Havergal Ladies' College, St. Paul's Church and the Home for Incurables. He was also a large industrialist. Of the marriage there are four children: Beverly, who married George Grierson of Toronto; Millicent; Elizabeth; and Harold.

Mr. R. W. Millichamp is President and Managing Director of Oriental Textiles, Ltd., of Oshawa. He was born (a British subject) at St. Louis, Mo., U.S.A., on August 10th, 1871.

Residence: 271 Simcoe Street North, Oshawa, Ontario.

MRS. C. N. MILLS
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. C. N. MILLS was born at Oshawa on July 7th, 1876, the daughter, Helen Beatrice, of Andrew Thomas, of Toronto, Ont., and Elizabeth Real, of Port Hope, Ont. She was educated at Dufferin and privately in Toronto.

She was married on August 15th, 1900, at Toronto, to Christopher Nathan Mills, who was born at St. Mary's Ontario, on October 14th, 1872, the son of William Mills and Margaret Nixon. Of the marriage there are two children. Andrew Ferderick Gordon married on October 14th, 1927, to Winifred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson, of Toronto. Their three children are: Douglas Gordon, Edgar Raymond and Nancy Elizabeth. Lillian Nathalie made her debut in 1929.

Mrs. Mills is a great traveller; and is fond of all forms of outdoor life.

Mr. C. N. Mills, whose parents are of Irish descent, has been associated with The T. Eaton Company for thirty-five years and became a Director of the company in 1922. He is a member of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club and is highly esteemed by his business associates and friends.

Residence: 235 Lonsdale Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. W. H. MINER
MONTREAL, QUE.

BEFORE her marriage Mrs. W. H. Miner was Mabel Elizabeth Chambers, the daughter of the late John Correy Chambers, of Peterborough, Ontario, and his wife Almira Mary Parnell, also of Peterborough. She was born in Montreal and received her early education in that city. Later she spent two years in Germany and England studying music and other subjects.

She was married to William Harlow Miner on September 20th, 1905; and of her marriage there have been three children: Sarah Elizabeth; Mabel Eleanor and John W. H. Both daughters are attending the Trafalgar Institute; while John is at Lower Canada College.

Child Welfare work is the predominant interest of Mrs. Miner. She is a member of the Board of the Protestant Infants' Home, the Friendly Home and the Montreal Children's Hospital. For two years she was Regent of the Margaret Polson Murray Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire; and is now one of its Honorary Vice-Regents.

Her clubs are: Montreal Women's, Women's Canadian, Morning Musical and Winter. She is a member of the Women's Art Society, and is at present serving on its Executive.

Her recreations are travelling and camping.

Mr. W. H. Miner is a direct descendant of Thomas Miner, one of the foremost residents of New London, Conn., U.S.A., in the early years of the seventeenth century. Dr. Allen Miner, an United Empire Loyalist, settled in St. Armand, P.Q. The Miner family established important business interests in Granby, P.Q., and that city derived great benefit from the industrial activities and benefactions of the late S. H. C. Miner. Mr. W. H. Miner, his nephew, and Mrs. Miner are carrying on worthily the tradition he founded; and at the old Miner home in Granby they are showing as untiring an interest in the welfare of their home town.

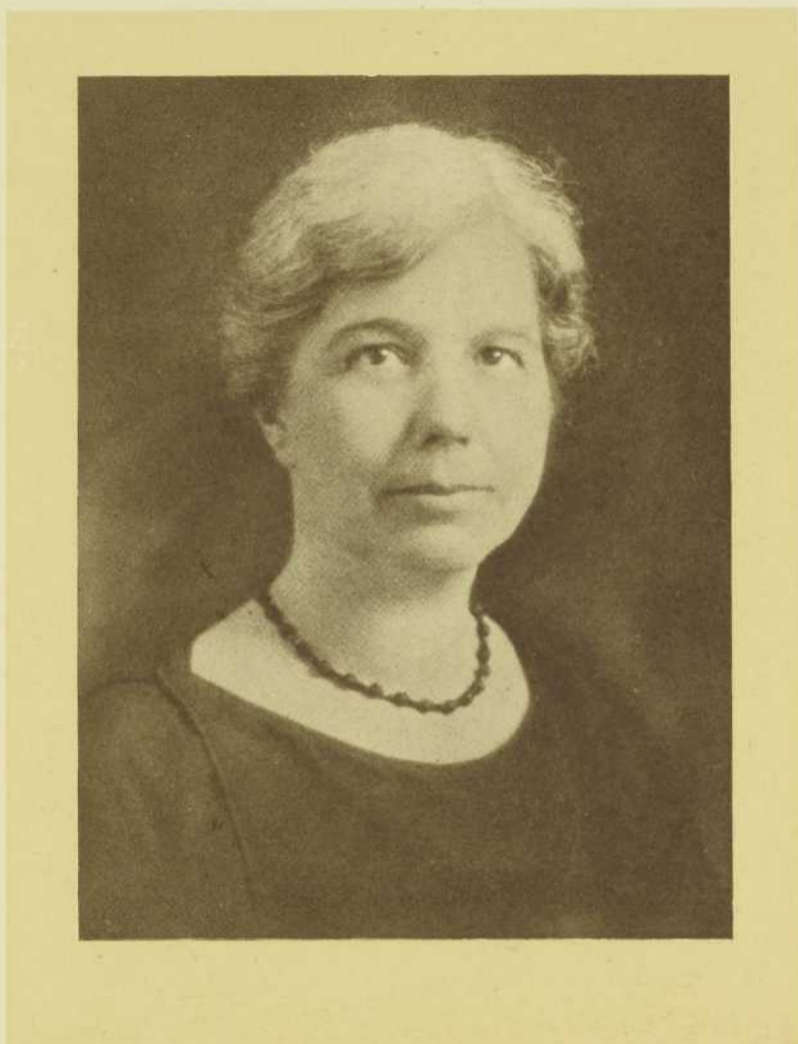

In addition to her Granby home, Mrs. Miner's address is: "The Chateau", Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal. Her summer camp is on Lake Bonaille, P.Q.

MRS. NELSON MITCHELL
GRANBY, P.Q.

*M*RS. NELSON MITCHELL was born in Granby, P.Q. on May 28th, 1872, the daughter Marion Sophia, of William and Sophia (Winchester) Roberts. Her education was begun at the Granby High School. She later attended the Montreal Senior School and the Musical College at Chicago. Her marriage to Nelson Mitchell, a prominent citizen of Granby, took place on January 21st, 1897. Of this union there has been one son, Nelson Roberts Mitchell, who is carrying on the business established in Granby by his father.

During the Great War Mrs. Mitchell was an ardent Red Cross worker. From 1914 to 1918 she was the official purchaser of all Red Cross supplies for the local branch.

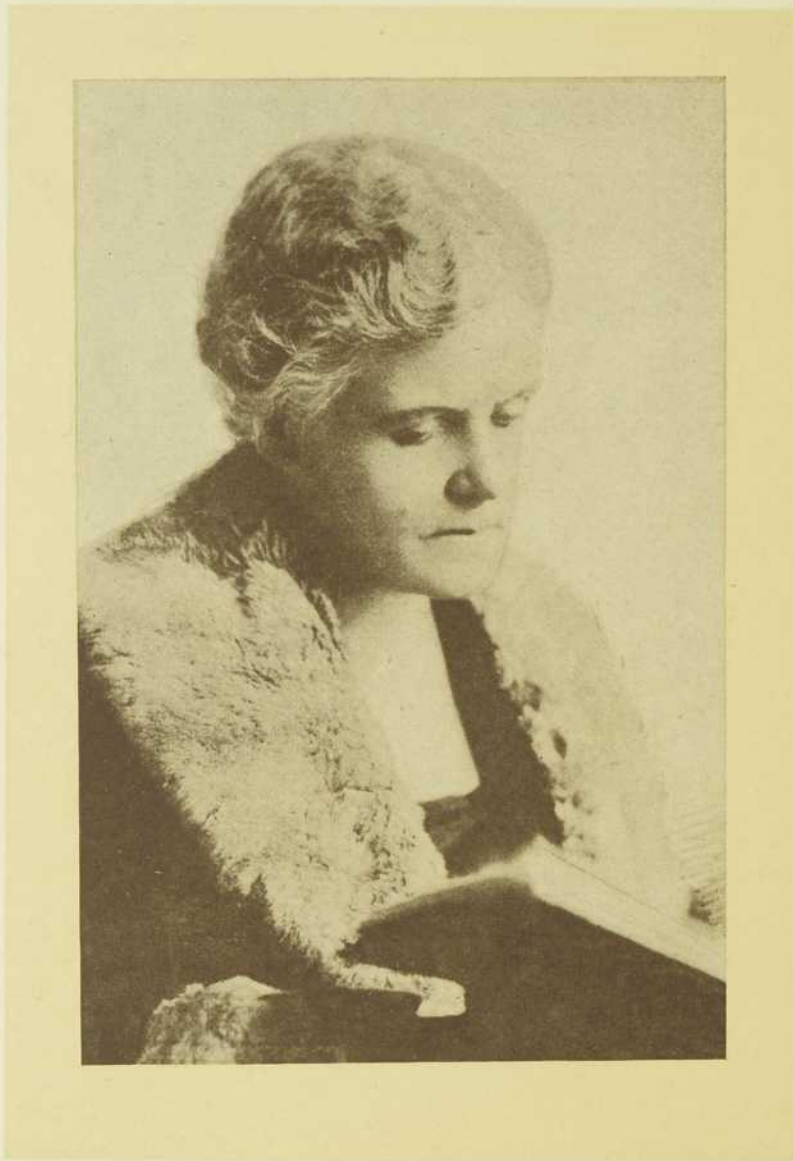

Mrs. Mitchell is especially interested in educational work and is generous in helping students through college and helpful in a number of other ways. On behalf of the St. George's Anglican Church her efforts have been untiring.

She is a life member of the Wales Old Folks Home, at Richmond, P.Q., the Sherbrooke Hospital and the Verdun Protestant Hospital for the Insane.

She is Honorary President of the ladies' branch of the Granby Golf Club. In addition she is very musical and fond of motoring.

Mrs. Mitchell is a life member of the Themis Club, Montreal, and a member of the Montreal Women's Club.

Her home is at 39 Elgin Street, Granby, P.Q.

MRS. J. DINHAM MOLSON
MONTREAL, QUE.

BY the marriage, in Toronto, on December 17th, 1892, of Mary Cronyn Wilson and John Dinham Molson, there was brought about an alliance of two families having a record of solid achievement in the early days of the Dominion. Miss Wilson, who was born in Simcoe, Ontario, on October 29th, 1867, is the daughter of the late William Drummond Wilson and Elizabeth Isabella Cronyn; and a grand-daughter of William Mercer Wilson, a lawyer who came from Perthshire, Scotland, and settled near Simcoe at what is known as Wilson's Village. He was Judge of the County of Norfolk and, as Officer Commanding one of the units engaged, took part in the Fenian Rebellion operations. He was a prominent Freemason and on the formation of the Grand Lodge of Canada was elected its first Grand Master. Her paternal great-grandfather, Colonel Brown, fought with Wellington at the Battle of Waterloo; while her maternal great-grandfather was one of the earliest Members of the Canadian Parliament.

Mr. J. Dinham Molson, who was born at Lennoxville, P.Q., on February 14th, 1867, is the son of the late Captain Joseph Dinham Molson, of the 99th Foot (Wiltshire) Regiment, and Catherine Elizabeth Day, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel H. J. Day, of the same Regiment, who were married from Government House, Hobart, Tasmania. He is a descendant of the Honourable John Molson, who first came to Canada in 1782, and subsequently with his three sons, became prominent in the early business development of Montreal, was one time President of the Bank of Montreal; and among other of his achievements was that of building and running the first steamship on the St. Lawrence. He died, at the age of 72 years, in 1836. His sons founded Molson's Bank, in the service of which Mr. J. Dinham Molson entered in 1884; was Manager of several of its branches and, on its absorption by the Bank of Montreal, became Manager of their Westmount Branch. Since the inception of the Financial Federation of the Montreal Council of Social Agencies has done invaluable work as its Honorary Treasurer.

Mrs. Molson's activities on behalf of various charitable and benevolent movements have been both thorough and noteworthy. Her outstanding achievement was her work for the soldiers during the Great War and at the Khaki Club. Her personality and kindness of heart so impressed the men of all ranks that wherever Canadian troops served she was referred to in terms of endearment as "Mother" Molson. She worked untiringly during the periods of hostilities and demobilization. Then, when serious post-War problems became evident, Mrs. Molson was called upon for her counsel and assistance in meeting the situation and, since its inception in 1921, she has been President of the Anglican Council of Emergency Relief.

Mrs. Molson was first Honorary Secretary of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild after its incorporation. She is a member of the Dollard Chapter of the I.O.D.E. and of the Women's Committee of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Mrs. Molson's only child, Margaret Dinham, is married to Theodore G. Morgan, eldest son of Colin D. Morgan, who is a member of the firm of Henry Morgan & Sons, Ltd., of Montreal. For a number of years he has served as Alderman of the Montreal City Council. Mrs. Morgan lives at 46 Sunnyside Avenue, Westmount.

Mrs. Molson has spent many years at her summer home at Beaufort where her garden is a great joy to her, coming into Montreal to spend the winter months.

MRS. WILLIAM P. MULOCK
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. WILLIAM P. MULOCK shares with her husband a live interest in politics, and has been a hard worker in the cause of the Liberal Party. She is the Honorary President of a number of Liberal Associations and a Life Member of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association; and during the 1930 Federal Election was of great assistance to her husband in his personal campaign.

Born at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, she is the daughter, Kathleen Eleanor, of the late Honourable Frederick William Johnston (Judge for the District of Algoma); and Elizabeth Johnston (née Graham). She was educated at Glen Mawr and at Havergal College, Toronto.

On 23rd of December, 1919, she married William Pate Mulock, who was born in Toronto on July 8th, 1897, the son of the late William Mulock, K.C., and Ethel Pate. The late William Mulock was a partner in the law firm of Mulock, Milliken, Clark and Redman.

Mr. W. P. Mulock, who was educated at Upper Canada College and University of Toronto, was Parliamentary candidate for North York in the Liberal interests at the Federal election of 1930. The constituency of North York is the one which for twenty-five years was held by Mr. Mulock's grandfather, The Rt. Honourable Sir William Mulock P.C., K.C.M.G., Chief Justice of Ontario.

Residence: 8 Cluny Drive, Toronto, Ontario.

LADY NANTON
WINNIPEG, MAN.

FOR many years Lady Nanton has been quietly and unassumingly giving her interest and support to every worthy cause which has, as its objective, the welfare of the citizens of Winnipeg. This ready sympathy and desire to assist the unfortunate was particularly in evidence during the years of the War, and the subsequent period of reconstruction, when, as an example, she and her husband, the late Sir Augustus Nanton, turned their summer house at the Lake of the Woods into a convalescent home for returned soldiers, and ran it for two seasons with a full staff of doctors and nursing sisters, with accommodation for over fifty men.

During the War she organized the Women's Section of the Manitoba Patriotic Fund and was President of the 27th Battalion Working Guild, turning the ball-room of her Winnipeg home into the Guild's workshop for the duration of the War. She also served on the Board of the Prisoners of War Association, is still interested in the Red Cross Society and the St. John Ambulance Association; and is on the Dominion and Provincial Council and City Executive of the Girl Guides.

Hamilton, Ontario, was the birthplace of Ethel Constance, daughter of Thomas Clark, of Barnard Castle, Yorkshire, and Annie Maria Davison, of Bradford, Yorkshire, both of whom had come to Canada when children. The Clarks moved to Winnipeg when their daughter was still very young and after having her educated privately in Winnipeg, they sent her to Germany, where she studied for several years and gained her piano diploma in Leipzig.

On November 17th, 1894, at Winnipeg, she was married to Augustus Meredith Nanton (born in Toronto, May 7th, 1860) and of this union there have been six children. The eldest son died in infancy; the two daughters are married, Constance Rosalie to Ernest M. Bircher, LL.D., London, England; Marguerite to Arthur Malcolm Trustram Eve (eldest son of Sir Herbert Trustram Eve), London, England. The three sons Edward Augustus, Paul Clark and Augustus Harry live in Winnipeg, the first being married to Margaret S. McEachern.

The late Sir Augustus Nanton who died on April 24th, 1925, was the son of Daniel Augustus Nanton, barrister of Osgoode Hall, and of Mary Louisa Jarvis, daughter of Sheriff William Botsford Jarvis, of Rosedale, Toronto. He went to Winnipeg in the early 'eighties and played a memorable part in the growth of the city and of Western Canada. He was senior partner of the firm of Osler, Hammond & Nanton, President of the Dominion Bank, Director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Director and Chairman of the Canadian Committee of the Hudson's Bay Company, and was on the Board of many other companies.

During the years of the War he played an outstanding part in patriotic work. He organized the Manitoba Branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and was Chairman of Manitoba Victory Loan Committees, and the only western Member of the Dominion Executive Committees for these campaigns. In July, 1914, he was made Knight of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and received the honour of knighthood in June, 1917.

Residence: "Kilmorie", Roslyn Road, Winnipeg.

MRS. C. E. NEILL
MONTREAL, QUE.

DEEPLY beloved by her very large circle of friends Mrs. C. E. Neill's death was profound sorrow to all who knew her. She was interested in many forms of social welfare work and though ill-health curtailed many of her activities she did a great deal for the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She also took a deep personal interest in the ex-Prisoners' Protective Society and did much work for it; while to all forms of benevolence she gave generously.

Mary Louise Crerar was born in Hamilton, Ontario, the daughter of John Crerar, K.C. (of Crieff, Scotland) a distinguished barrister and brilliant orator; and Jessie Annie Hope (of St. Thomas, Ontario) who was noted for her outstanding work in all forms of charity. Miss Crerar was educated in Hamilton and London, England. She was especially interested in music and was herself a fine musician.

On October 7th, 1901, she was married at Hamilton, Ontario, to Charles Ernest Neill, who was born at Fredericton, N.B., on May 27th 1873, the son of James Stewart Neill, of Fredericton and Eliza Caroline Barrett also of that city. Mr. C. E. Neill is Vice-President and Managing Director of the Royal Bank of Canada.

MRS. J. S. NIVEN
LONDON, ONT.

BELIEVING that the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is one of the most useful and inspiring organizations ever formed Mrs. J. S. Niven takes the greatest possible interest in its activities. She was Regent of the Municipal Chapter during the whole of the Great War. Two other institutions which claim her profound interest and support are the Children's War Memorial Hospital and the Convalescent Home. Of the former she was one of the prime movers of its inception. In addition all forms of charitable and social welfare work find in her a ready and generous helper.

She was born in London, Ontario, Mary, daughter of George MacBeth, who was born at Kildonan, Manitoba; and Annie Gilbert Saunders, of Shepperton, England. She was educated at Hellmuth Ladies' College, London.

On April 11th, 1885, she was married at London, Ontario, to Doctor James Simpson Niven, a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, who practiced his profession in London, Ontario, for the greater part of his life. Of the marriage there are three children: Nora, now Mrs. Thomas Beardmore, of Toronto; Nancy, married to Kenneth McCrimmon, and resident in Brazil; and Hugh, who married Marion McAndrews, of Ayr, Scotland.

Dr. J. S. Niven died on January 25th, 1916.

Mrs. Niven has been a great traveller. She has made twelve overseas trips; and has also been to Brazil to visit her daughter, Mrs. McCrimmon.

Residence: 443 Colborne Street, London, Ont.

MRS. C. A. NORTHOVER
TORONTO, ONT.

*M*RS. C. A. NORTHOVER has been active in the work of both the National and Local Council of Women for a number of years and has held various offices in the organization. At present she is Convener of the Committee on Natural Resources and Industries for the Toronto Local Council and is Corresponding Secretary for the Ontario Provincial Council of Women. She is keenly interested in the Maritime Provinces Association of Toronto of whose Executive she is a member. She is a member of the Chamberlain Chapter, I.O.D.E., the Women's Canadian Club; and has many other affiliations. She has been an active Church worker; and during the Great War did much valuable service for the Red Cross Society, taking charge of one of the units in Halifax, N.S.

An ardent Conservative, Mrs. Northover has spoken in the party's interests during both Federal and Provincial election campaigns; while she has also taken the platform to speak on health and kindred subjects.

Born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, she is the daughter, Gertrude Constance, of Robert C. Fraser and Elizabeth M. Fairbanks. Her great-grandfather, Honourable Charles W. Fairbanks, was Judge of the Court of Admiralty and Master of the Rolls; and was one of the two representatives of Nova Scotia at the Coronation of Queen Victoria. She was educated at public, high and private schools in Halifax.

In 1897 she married Clarence A. Northover; and of the union there are three sons: Harold William (who married, in 1927, Margaret Edith Lawson, daughter of Captain Joseph and Mrs. Lawson, and has one daughter, Beverley Joan), Reginald Fairbanks and Kenneth Twining.

Residence: 126 Grenadier Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. JOHN NORQUAY
ST. ANDREW'S, MAN.

LIVING in a quiet retirement Mrs. John Norquay, widow of Honourable John Norquay, is one of the few remaining links with the eventful pioneer days of the West. Her grandfather, Andrew Setter, came from Orkney, Scotland, in the service of the Hudson's Bay Company. He married a daughter of Chief Factor Sir Isaac Bate; and on his retirement from the Hudson's Bay Company, settled in the Red River Settlement where his son George, Mrs. Norquay's father, engaged in farming. His coming to the Red River Settlement was long before the arrival of the first Selkirk settlers. Mrs. Norquay herself was born at Parkdale, Manitoba, while her mother, Isabella Kennedy, was born at Cumberland House.

On June 2nd, 1862, Elizabeth Setter was married at Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, to John Norquay, who was born at St. Andrew's on May 8th, 1841, the son of John Norquay, of James Bay. It was in those days that it was customary for weddings to be held on Wednesdays, to be followed by three days of dancing, the bridal couple going to church together on the following Sunday.

There are eight children of the marriage: Thomas, married to Ella Hamilton, living at Kaslo, B.C.; John George, who married Evelyn Pritchard, residing at Prince Albert; Alexander married to Julia Alberta McCauley, Edmonton; Horace C., whose wife was Orpha Taylor, of Winnipeg; Andrew James; Isabella J. A. (died June, 1915); Caroline E., married to John G. McAllister, of Winnipeg; Ada T., who died in infancy. Mrs. Norquay's eldest grandchild, Norquay McAllister, R.N.A.S., fell in France in 1917.

The Honourable John Norquay's career was a romantic one. He started as a school-teacher, and then in turn became trader and farmer. Later he entered politics and sat as a member of parliament. His outstanding ability and statesmanship culminated in his becoming Prime Minister of Manitoba. He was in office from October 16th, 1878, to December 24th, 1887. He was the first Prime Minister of the Province to have been born within its area. Of his administration it has been said that what Sir John A. Macdonald was to Canada, the Honourable John Norquay was to Manitoba.

In St. Andrew's Church there is a bronze tablet to the memory of Captain William Kennedy, Mrs. Norquay's uncle, which was placed there by the Winnipeg Women's Canadian Club and was unveiled by Sir Ernest Shackleton in 1910.

Mrs. Norquay now resides with her daughter, Mrs. John McAllister "Dun Allister", St. Andrew's, Manitoba.

MRS. H. H. O'FLYNN
TORONTO, ONT.

SINCE her first song "Sleep" Edith Mulock O'Flynn has continued her writings with a growing and merited success. Outstanding of her later productions has been the sacred song "Throughout the Night", and the song cycle "Flowers". The first performance of the latter was given in Toronto on December 11th, 1928, when the composer, Thomas J. Crawford, Mus. Bac., F.R.C.O. (England) was the accompanist. A part song "The Shepherd of Hazeldene", first sung two years ago in the Massey Hall, Toronto, by a choir of two hundred, was most enthusiastically received by the critics.

As a poetess also she has established a reputation for a delicate touch and a charming fancy. A selection of her poems is in course of preparation for publication. Among the best known of her songs and poems are: "There is no Death", "The Exiled Prince", "In an Olive Garden" (a fantasy), "Dance of the Rain Storm", "Farewell", "Solitude", "Song of the Trees", "Deep Pool", "The Doll's Carriage" and "Just a Tiny Little Boy".

Edith May Mulock was born in Toronto, the daughter of the late Lady Sarah Ellen Cawthra and the Rt. Hon. Sir William Mulock, K.C.M.G., P.C., Chief Justice of Ontario, and distinguished statesman and Imperialist. She was educated at Miss Veal's School, Toronto, and abroad.

She was married, firstly, to Robert McDowell Thomson, Barrister, on June 16th, 1897; and, secondly, to Harry Herbert O'Flynn in 1909. Of the first union there were three children: Wilfred Mulock Thomson, Eleanor Frances Thomson (deceased), and Stanley McDowell Thomson; and of the second marriage, one daughter: Kathleen Mulock O'Flynn.

Mrs. O'Flynn, who is very fond of travelling, has a wide circle of musical and literary friends in Europe; and her Toronto home, 64 Crescent Road, is a rendezvous for the authors and composers whose work is making its mark in Canada.

MRS. D. W. OGILVIE
MONTREAL, QUE.

GRANDDAUGHTER of Sir H. Allan, the founder of the Allan Line of Steamships, Eileen Mary White was the daughter of Alfred H. White, of Quebec, in which city she was born in 1878.

She was educated in New York at Miss Brown's School.

Mrs. Ogilvie was twice married: first in 1899 to C. St. L. Mackintosh, son of Hon. C. H. Mackintosh, Governor of North-West Territories; and, secondly, to Douglas Watson Ogilvie, of Montreal, in 1906. She has four children: Allan Mackintosh, a Graduate of the R.M.C.; John, with Royal Highlanders of Canada; Douglas and Lorne Ogilvie.

During the War, Mrs. Ogilvie did splendid work for the Red Cross, as well as with the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., and was the joint organizer, with Lady Williams-Taylor, of the first Poppy Day in Canada; also the first Violet Day. For her services in connection with the former she was honoured by the French Red Cross.

Mrs. Ogilvie was the step-daughter of Major-General J. F. Wilson, R.C.A., who was the first Canadian-born General. He served with great distinction at the Relief of General Gordon at Khartoum and later in the North-West Rebellion.

Her husband is a well-known business man in Montreal, being head of the firm of D. W. Ogilvie, Inc., Real Estate Brokers. In addition he is director of a number of public companies.

Her Clubs are: Women's Canadian, Themis and Forum (of London, England).

Residence: 20 St. Sulpice Road, Montreal.

MRS. G. H. O'NEIL
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. G. H. O'NEIL, during her residence in London, Ontario, was President of the Women's Catholic Club of that city. She is President of the Catholic Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. She had the distinction of having been received in semi-private audience by Pope Benedict XV during a visit to Rome in November, 1920. She also, with her two daughters, had the honour of presentation at His Majesty's Court of St. James on June 12th, 1928.

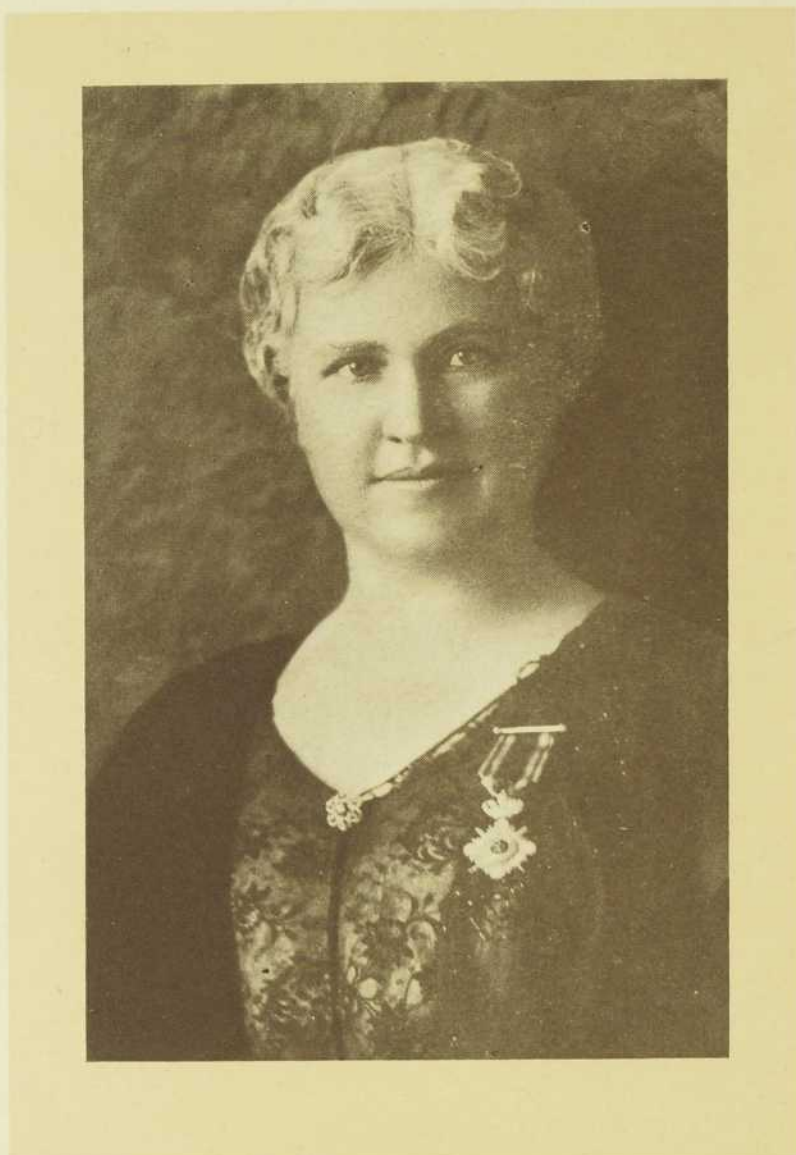

Born in Harrisburg, Pa., U.S.A., she is the daughter, Bertha Fadehla, of Benjamin Franklin Drake (born in Virginia, of English descent); and Sophia Marie Meyer, of Berlin, Germany. She was educated both at St. Genevieve's Academy and the High School at Harrisburg.

She was married at Harrisburg, on November 15th, 1906, to George Henry O'Neil, of Birr, Ontario, son of Ralph O'Neil and Mary Elizabeth Webster. Of the marriage there have been four children: George Henry, Jr. (who married Monette Swan, of Shrieveport, La., on September 18th, 1928); Dorothy Fadehla; and Marion Irene. Her son, John Edward, died on May 1st, 1924.

Mr. George H. O'Neil, who was born on April 8th, 1882, has an international reputation in the field of hotel management and administration. His career began at the Royal Hotel, Hamilton, in 1900, from which time he has gone from success to success until he is now associated as President or Director with some of the largest hotels in the Dominion.

Mrs. O'Neil resides at 609 Avenue Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MADAME ETHEL PANTAZZI
BUCHAREST, ROUMANIA

ONE of the Dominion's daughters who has achieved fame in other lands is Madame Ethel Pantazzi, wife of Admiral Basil Pantazzi, of the Roumanian Navy. Married on March 27th, 1909, at the British Embassy Church in Paris, she has spent practically the whole of the intervening years in Europe. During that time her experiences have been manifold and certainly unusual—as is manifested in her entertaining book "Roumania in Light and Shadow", published in 1920. Here are related a number of occasions when her Canadian character and training stood her in very good stead.

In collaboration with a Roumanian authoress,

Madame Theodorinin, she wrote "The Cousin from America", which was awarded First Prize in a literary composition held in 1926. She has also written "Strolls in Old Corners of Bucharest", which was published in the same year.

Born in Hamilton, Ontario, in June, 1880, Ethel Greening is the daughter of Thomas B. Greening and Jane Armstrong Sharp, both of English ancestry. Her education began at the Loretto Convent in Hamilton and was continued at Miss Veal's School, Toronto. Of her marriage there have been two children: Gordon, who is at school in Switzerland; and Sybil, now being educated in Paris. Both have also attended Canadian schools.

In Roumania her social welfare work has been of the greatest importance and its merit has been recognized by the Roumanian Government who conferred upon Madame Pantazzi a medal for services in the advancement of hygiene. As a delegate for H.R.H. the Princess Helen she organized a Nursing School in Bucharest; while she is a member of the Roumanian Institute of Social Science.

Among her other social welfare activities may be mentioned: President of the Committee of the Foreign Women's Hostel in Bucharest, the Immigration and Emigration section of the National Council of Women; Travellers' Aid Society in Galatz and Constantza; also member of the National Committee of the Royal Red Cross.

Madame Pantazzi was decorated with the Star of Roumania war medal for her services during the Great War.

Admiral Pantazzi is a member of an old Roumanian family with long naval traditions. He has had a brilliant career in his country's Navy; and in 1920 came to the United States and Canada as Roumanian Commissioner at the head of a Mission for repatriating Roumanians who wished to return to their native land after the War.

Residences: Bucharest and Trestinic, Roumania.

DR. MARGARET PATTERSON
M.D., P.M.
TORONTO, ONT.

AFTER graduating from the Northwestern University Women's Medical School in 1899 and spending a year in post-graduate work in America and Europe, Dr. Margaret Patterson went out to India as a Medical Missionary and for nearly seven years was in charge of a hospital for women and children in Allahabad. During this period there was an outbreak of bubonic plague and she organized a system of plague relief, consisting of inoculation stations and isolation hospitals. For these services she was decorated with the Kaiser-i-Hind medal at the time of the coronation of King Edward VIIth. While at Allahabad, Dr. Patterson prepared a text-book of Physiology and Hygiene dealing with conditions as they existed in India, and which was adopted as a standard textbook in the primary schools of several of the Provinces. During her last year in India she was Professor of Obstetrics in the Women's Christian Medical College at Ludhiana.

On her return to Toronto in 1910 she devoted a great deal of her time to social service work and, through the Council of Women, became interested in Police Court conditions in the city and was largely instrumental in the formation of the Women's Court, of which she became Magistrate in 1922, a position she still holds. During the Great War she gave her whole time to patriotic work, organizing over three hundred working circles for the Red Cross, teaching the St. John Ambulance course to over two thousand women and girls and forming a nursing division for service in the hospitals and overseas. During the War also, at the request of the Council of the Y.W.C.A., she carried on a Moral Hygiene campaign, establishing a department of Moral Health in the Y.W.C.A. and travelling throughout the Dominion giving lectures to girls. She is Convener of Health and Child Welfare of the Women's Institutes of Ontario.

During the influenza epidemic of 1918 she organized classes in Toronto for training emergency nurses. Over two thousand were trained and did excellent work. At the request of the Government she represented the Province of Ontario at the Pan-America Conference held at Baltimore in 1922. She was for twelve years a Convener in the National Council of Women.

Born at Staffa, Ontario, she is the daughter, Margaret, of Robert Norris and Sarah Clements, of Staffa. She was educated at Mitchell and Toronto.

She was married on January 10th, 1906, at Cawnpore, India, to John Patterson, M.A., who was born in Oxford County, Ontario, the son of Francis Patterson and Annie Telfer.

Mr. Patterson is Director of the Meteorological Service of Canada and a Fellow of several scientific societies.

Residence: 97 Walmer Road, Toronto, Ontario.

LADY PERLEY
OTTAWA, ONT.

THE family of Lady Perley has been intimately associated with the Government of the Dominion and it is not surprising, therefore, that she is also a keen participant in political affairs. Her father, the late Hon. Thomas White, was a Federal cabinet minister; while her brother, Robert S. White, is the representative of Mount Royal, Montreal, at Ottawa. The Hon. Smeaton White, of Montreal, who is her cousin, is a member of the Senate.

At present Vice-President of the Ottawa Women's Conservative Association, she has been an officer of this organization since its inception.

The May Court Club has ever had in Lady Perley an enthusiastic supporter and worker. Twice she has been its May Queen—from 1902 to 1904 and later from 1911 to 1913. Shortly after their marriage she and Sir George donated to the Club the valuable property at the corner of Cooper and Metcalfe Streets, in Ottawa, which serves as headquarters as well as a convalescent home.

Lady Perley was indefatigable in her efforts during the War and was decorated by both the British, Belgian and French Governments. From the former she received the Order of Lady of Grace of St. John of Jerusalem, from Belgium the medal of Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and from France, the Médaille de la Reconnaissance in silver.

Mrs. Thomas White, of Ottawa, her mother, is in her ninety-fifth year and maintains the deepest interest in Public affairs.

Hon. Sir George Halsey Perley, K.C.M.G., M.P., B.A., to whom she was married on June 11th, 1913, has had a brilliant public career. From October, 1917, to March, 1922, he was High Commissioner for the Dominion in London. During that period Lady Perley resided with him in that city and has left behind her a memory of great dignity and charm in the discharge of her duties as hostess.

MRS. JOSEPH LEONIDE PERRON
MONTREAL, QUE.

DAUGHTER of Emily Brazier and Alexis Brunet, a prominent lawyer, and descendant of one of the first French families to settle in Canada, Miss Berthe Brunet was born in Montreal, and received her education at the Sacre Cœur Convent.

In 1898 she married Mr. J. L. Perron, K.C., now Minister of Agriculture in the Quebec Cabinet, and a Member of the Legislative Council, whose mother is a descendant of Madeleine de Vercheres, the famous heroine of 1692.

Mrs. Perron has two sons, Jacques and Guy.

She belongs to various clubs and is an enthusiastic member of the Women's Canadian Club; the Winter Club; Senneville Country Club; the Antiquarian and Numismatic Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Perron have two delightful summer retreats: a camp at Lac-des-Ecorces in the Laurentian Mountains and a residence at Beaconsfield, P.Q.

Fond of reading and travelling, Mrs. Perron has no particular hobby but is interested in everything around her.

She supports the Hospital Notre Dame, Ste. Justine, Sourdes et Muettes and other charities.

MRS. NATHANIEL PETTES
KNOWLTON, QUE.

THE FIRST Free Library in the Province of Quebec was built and endowed by Mrs. Nathaniel Pettes at Knowlton in 1893. This, the Pettes Memorial Library, was erected to the memory of her husband and daughter. Both the towns of Knowlton and Brome were constantly the object of her benevolence which was unostentatious and generous.

Her memory has been perpetuated by the generous Narcissa Farrand Scholarships at Bishop's University, Lennoxville, and McGill University. These Scholarships have been liberally endowed.

At her death, which took place on November 13th, 1912, the residue of her estate was left in trust to be used for educational, religious and charitable purposes.

She was born on December 8th, 1821, at Brome, P.Q., the daughter (Narcissa) of Samuel Farrand and his wife, Mary Pratt. Her education was obtained at Brome, Sweetsburg and Johnson, Vt.

Her marriage to Nathaniel Pettes took place at Brome on December 25th, 1844. She had only one child, Mary Louise; and it was a great sorrow to her that this very talented artist and musician died at the early age of nineteen years.

Nathaniel Pettes represented Brome County in the House of Commons from 1874 to 1878. During this period Mrs. Pettes was with her husband in Ottawa where she was highly esteemed and respected.

MARY LOUISE PAIGE, wife of H. V. Truell, a Member of the Montreal Bar, is the grand-niece and adopted daughter of Mrs. Pettes. She and her husband have been responsible for the administration of the Pettes charitable bequests. Their residence is Sweet Acre, Knowlton.

MRS. W. E. PHIN
HAMILTON, ONT.

MRS. PHIN, in addition to her conscientious social-welfare work, has been a great inspiration to her husband in his business and public life. She is a past President of the Victorian Order of Nurses and a past Vice-President of the Girls' Home. At present she is Vice-President of the Women's Wentworth Historical Society, an organization which is doing invaluable work in stimulating and maintaining an interest in the Dominion's history.

Born at Brantford, Ontario, Bertha Scarfe is the daughter of the late Sheriff W. J. Scarfe and Sarah Elizabeth Phin. She was educated at Brantford and Toronto.

She was married at Brantford on February 20th, 1896, to William Egerton Phin, who was born at Hespeler, Ontario, on June 26th, 1863, son of James Philip Phin and Elizabeth White. Of the marriage there are four children: Vera Louise, who married John Skinner, of Toronto; Marjorie Isobel, now Mrs. Burleigh Ballantyne, of Youngstown, N.Y., U.S.A., Dorothy; and Donald Egerton, who married Aileen Morrison of St. John, N.B.

Mr. W. E. Phin, is one of Hamilton's leading business men. He is President of the Dominion Power & Transmission Company, Limited; Director of Canadian Bank of Commerce, Tuckett Tobacco Company, Limited, and also a number of other important public companies.

Residence: "Edgewood", Ravenscliffe Avenue, Hamilton.

MRS.
HOWARD WINTHROP PILLOW
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

MRS. HOWARD W. PILLOW has been an active participant in a variety of social welfare and patriotic movements. As Vice-President of the Ladies' Committee of the Royal Edward Institute for the care of tubercular patients she has been an enthusiastic supporter of this organization's work. In other directions, in an unobtrusive but effective way, she has assisted in the furtherance of social work among the citizens of Montreal. She is an enthusiastic member of the Women's Canadian Club, as well as the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Chapter of the Imperial Order

Daughters of Empire.

Born in Chicago, she is the daughter, Lucile E., of Lemuel G. Fairbank, of Boston, Mass., and Lucy Mitchell, of St. Louis, Missouri. Her maternal grandfather, John J. Mitchell, was one of the group of famous railway magnates which included Sir William van Horne. She was educated in Boston at the Misses Gilman's School.

The Fairbank family in the United States was founded by Josiah Fairbank who came from England and settled in Boston in 1636. The old Fairbank house in that city has now been converted into a museum and is maintained by the members of the family.

Her marriage to Howard Winthrop Pillow took place in 1906 at Boston; after which she took up her residence in Montreal. Her only daughter, Lucile Marguerite, was married in Montreal, on March 1st, 1930, to Arthur Murray Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Vaughan, of Saint John, New Brunswick.

Mr. Howard W. Pillow was born in Montreal on May 9th, 1883, the son of John A. Pillow (of Pillow Hersey & Company, Montreal), and Annie E. Hillyer, of New York. He was educated at Bishop's College, Lennoxville, and McGill University. During the Great War, as major of the 244th Battalion (Kitchener's Own) he went overseas, being subsequently transferred to the Canadian Forestry Corps. He is President and proprietor of the British-American Banknote Company, of Ottawa.

Residence: 41 Rosemount Avenue, Westmount.

MRS. JOHN PITBLADO
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. PITBLADO has been an unassuming worker on behalf of a number of welfare movements; and a generous contributor to and supporter of general charities. She is especially interested in the work of the Women's Foreign Mission of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, of Montreal.

Born at Kingston, Ontario, she is the daughter, Mary Lydia, of the Rev. Maxwell S. Inglis and Mary Lydia Ray. She was educated at Miss Lauder's School and Bute House.

In January, 1888, she was married at Winnipeg, Manitoba, to John Pitblado, who was born at Glenelg, Nova Scotia, on October 20th, 1865, the son of Rev. Charles Bruce Pitblado, D.D., and Sophia Christie. Of her marriage there are four children: Lily, married to W. C. Munn; Captain Charles Bruce Pitblado, M.C.; Eva May; and Helen Mary, now Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Mr. John Pitblado, who was educated at Halifax High School and Dalhousie College, had an extensive banking experience before establishing the firm of John Pitblado & Company, Stock and Bond Brokers, of Montreal. He saw service in the North West Rebellion of 1885, for which he holds the medal and clasp.

Residence: 6 Seaforth Avenue, Montreal.

MRS. C. B. PRICE
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

THE part played by the Women of the Dominion in stimulating and maintaining interest in the work of the Canadian Militia is exemplified by the work of Mrs. C. B. Price. In seconding the efforts of her husband, Lieut.-Colonel C. B. Price, D.S.O., D.C.M., during his command of the Royal Montreal Regiment she has contributed largely to the welfare of the officers and men of the regiment and been of the greatest assistance in organizing the social amenities of all ranks. She is President of the Ladies' Committee of the R.M.R. During the Great War she, with several other ladies, conducted a tea-shop at Folkestone, England, for the use of the troops.

Born on November 3rd, 1891, at Montreal, P.Q., Marjorie Meredith Holden is the daughter of Thomas Anderson Trenholme, of Trenholmeville, P.Q., and Isabel Deborah Mathews, of Parsonstown, Ireland. She was educated at Dunham Ladies College and Trafalgar Institute.

The Trenholmes are an old Yorkshire yeoman family, a member of which came to Canada in 1800 and founded Trenholmeville. Thomas Anderson Trenholme moved to Montreal in 1870 and developed a very successful dairy business. Mrs. Trenholme is a descendant of an old loyalist Irish family. Her father came to Canada and settled in Richmond, P.Q., about 1860.

Her marriage to Charles Basil Price took place at Swanage, Dorsetshire, England, on August 23rd, 1915, and she has four children: Marjorie Katherine, Lyal Basil Burman, Helen May Frances and Ann Wynne.

Lieut.-Colonel Basil Price, D.S.O., D.C.M., is the son of Charles Edward Burman Price, A.R.C.O. (Eng.), of Spalding, Lincolnshire, England, and Catherine Durham Rogers, of Watford, Hertfordshire, England. His father was assistant organist at Ely Cathedral before he came to Canada. Lt.-Colonel Price at the outbreak of War in 1914 held a commission in the Victoria Rifles, but gave this up to enlist in the newly-formed 14th Battalion, a composite battalion for overseas service. After the Second Battle of Ypres, in 1915, he was awarded the D.C.M., and given his commission on the field. In 1919 he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order. He ultimately commanded the Royal Montreal Regiment and during his command the regiment was brought to a high state of efficiency. Lt.-Col. Price, who is now on the Reserve of Officers, is Managing Director of the Elmhurst Dairy, Ltd., and a Director of Eastern Dairies, Ltd., and also the Producers' Dairy, Ltd., Ottawa. He has evinced the keenest interest in the work of the Last Post Fund, of which he was Provincial President, 1926-1929.

Residence: "Fayremead", Forde Crescent, Westmount.

MRS. WILLIAM H. PRICE
TORONTO, ONT.

In an unobtrusive way Mrs. William H. Price has been a great inspiration and help to her husband, now Attorney-General for Ontario, in his career which is developing in such a manner as to indicate that the highest honours in both legal and political circles are his destiny.

Born in Kincardine, Ontario, Alice Gentles is the daughter of the late John Gentles and Mrs. Gentles. Her education was received at Havergal College, Toronto.

She was married on August 31st, 1911, and has three children: William Herbert, John Gentles and George Howard.

During the Great War she did important work for the Canadian Red Cross Society and also in connection with the Women's Auxiliary of the 204th Battalion, C.E.F., which her husband raised. Both during and after the War she was busy looking after the interests of soldiers' families.

Lieut.-Colonel the Hon. William Herbert Price, K.C., LL.B., M.P.P., was also born in the Province of Ontario, at Owen Sound. During the War, 1914-1918, he raised and trained the 204th (Beaver) Battalion and took it overseas. He was first elected to the Ontario Legislature in 1914 and re-elected in 1919, 1923, 1926 and 1929; and was appointed Provincial Treasurer on July 16th, 1923. On October 18th, 1926, he was made Attorney-General of Ontario.

Mrs. Price is a member of the Carlton Club and Weston Golf Club. Her home is at 6 Ridout Street, Toronto.

MRS. JAMES A. RICHARDSON
WINNIPEG, MAN.

MRS. JAMES A. RICHARDSON, as the wife of one of the Dominion's most successful business men, is playing her part as an inspirer of his enthusiasm in his many and onerous undertakings. Herself possessing the finest of ideals and a broad national outlook she is supporting every effort of a public-spirited nature and having for objective the development of a strong and healthy nationhood.

Born at Belleville, Ontario, she is the daughter, Muriel, of Mark Sprague and Mary Tomblin. She was educated at Belleville Public Schools and Collegiate; also at St. Agnes School.

On May 21st, 1919, she was married at Belleville, Ontario, to James Armstrong Richardson, son of George Richardson and Agnes McCausland, of Kingston, Ontario. Of the marriage there are four children: Agnes, James, George and Kathleen.

Mr. James A. Richardson was born at Kingston, Ontario, on August 21st, 1885, and was educated at Hillcroft Academy and Queen's University. In 1906 he entered the firm of James Richardson & Sons, Ltd., of which company he is now President. He is also President and owner of the Western Canada Airways; a Director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Hudson's Bay Company, the International Nickel Company of Canada, the Canadian Bank of Commerce and many other large Canadian corporations. In 1929 he was elected Chancellor of Queen's University.

Residence: 475 Wellington Crescent, Winnipeg.

MRS. JAS. A. ROBB
VALLEYFIELD, QUE.

DURING the period that her late husband, the Hon. James A. Robb, P.C., held his cabinet appointment in the Liberal administration, Mrs. Robb was his constant companion throughout the sessions at Ottawa and in his moments of relaxation at their Valleyfield home. The onerous duties devolving upon the Minister of Finance during the period of post-war reconstruction made the greatest demands upon his physical and mental powers and Mrs. Robb played an unselfish part in their conservation. In Ottawa social circles she established a reputation as a charming hostess and as one always ready to participate in the varied activities of the Capital city. For carrying out her role Mrs. Robb possessed an admirable background. Her mother was the third white child born on Vancouver Island, and was a niece of Kenneth Mackenzie who brought the first twenty-five settlers to Victoria, B.C. Her grandfather, Captain George Greenwood, brought one of the first ships from the British Isles round Cape Horn to Esquimalt; and was at one time Captain of the famous "Beaver".

Born in 1879 at Maple Bay, Vancouver Island, Mary Elizabeth is the daughter of Charles Fletcher, of Guildford, Surrey, England; and Mary Crangle Greenwood, Victoria, B.C. She was educated at the Central School, Victoria, B.C.

She married, firstly, Albert Kenneth Wattie, of Valleyfield, P.Q., at Nelson, B.C., in 1899; and, secondly, at Vancouver, in 1919, Hon. James Alexander Robb, of Huntingdon, P.Q., son of Alexander Robb, of Huntingdon, P.Q., and Jennie Smith, of Montreal.

The Honourable James A. Robb, who died on November 11, 1929, had a very distinguished political career and won the complete respect of both parties in the House of Commons, both by his outstanding ability and his statesman-like qualities. His administration as Minister of Finance is considered to have been the most able since Confederation.

Residence: Alma Lodge, Valleyfield, P.Q.

MRS. W. D. ROBB
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

CATHERINE HAGGART BLACK was born in Montreal, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Black. She was educated at the Convent of the Sisters of Congregation of Notre Dame.

On June 15th, 1881, she married William Doig Robb, now a Vice-President of the Canadian National Railways and a Director of several other important public companies.

During the war, Mrs. Robb was very active in connection with the Soldiers' Wives League and the work of the I.O.D.E. A great traveller, she has a broadness of experience and interests; and her work in local social organizations has always been active and keen. Apart from travelling her favourite recreation is golf.

Her Clubs are: Montreal Women's, Women's Canadian, St. Bruno and Mount Royal Golf.

She has one daughter and five sons. One of the latter, Wallace Havelock Robb is the well-known naturalist and poet. He is the author of "The Quill and the Candle", published in 1927 by the Ryerson Press. The introduction to this volume was kindly authorized by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales. He is an authority on Canadian bird life and his collection of paintings of Canadian birds was presented to the Royal Ontario Museum of Zoology at Toronto.

Her residence is at 4700 Western Avenue, Westmount, P.Q.

MRS. F. B. ROBINS,
TORONTO, ONT.

BORN in London, England, Jessie McDonald Skitt is the daughter of Alfred Skitt and Jessie McDonald. She was educated at St. Mary's Convent, Sunningdale, Surrey. On February 3rd, 1892, she married Charles Reed, of New York, who died in 1913. Of this marriage there were four children: Charles, Edith (Mrs. Reed Townsend, of New York), Helen (Mrs. Howard Kerner, of New York) and Alfred Skitt (deceased). On the outbreak of War in 1914, her son Charles, although still at school, sailed for England, where he joined the British Army, ultimately becoming an officer in the Royal Flying Corps. On the entry of the U.S.A. into the War he was largely responsible for the establishment of the first U.S. flying camp in France, at which he was an instructor.

In 1917, on August 16th, she married Frederick Burton Robins, of Toronto, who was born in Simcoe County, son of William Robins and Catherine Stroud. He is President of Robins, Ltd., of Toronto, and in 1924 was gazetted Honorary Colonel of the Toronto Scottish Regiment. During the Great War his contributions to the British and Canadian Red Cross and kindred bodies were both liberal and spontaneous. He donated, free of cost to the government, the Armour Heights flying field for the period of the war.

Mrs. Robins, who was presented at the Court of St. James on May 9th, 1928, is a large hearted supporter of public charities and privately administers to the wants of many in need. A delightful hostess, with a large circle of friends, Mrs. Robins had the honour of entertaining at her residence "Strathrobyn", H.R.H. the Prince of Wales; also Earl and Lady Haig.

Address: 50 Hillholm Avenue, Toronto.

LADY RODDICK
MONTREAL, QUE.

THE daughter, Amy, of the late John James Redpath and Ada Mills was born in Montreal and educated at Miss Symmer's School in that city. Her father was a member of a family whose benefactions to the city of Montreal and to McGill University were munificent and whose business activities were noteworthy. It was her uncle, Peter Redpath, who presented to McGill University the Library and Museum which bear the family name. Her maternal grandfather, John Easton Mills, died in 1847, during the term of his mayoralty of the city, the result of contracting fever during his devotion to and his self-sacrificing efforts on behalf of the sufferers from the epidemic of that year.

On September 3rd, 1906, Amy Redpath was married to Thomas George Roddick, M.D., M.P., who was later—in 1914—created Knight Bachelor by H. M. King George Vth. Born in Harbour Grace on July 31st, 1846, Sir Thomas, who died on February 20th, 1923, was a very distinguished medical practitioner, and for a number of years was Professor of Surgery and Dean of the Faculty of Medicine at McGill University. But, in addition, he worked in a variety of ways in the interests of the medical profession. To further his projects in this connection he entered the House of Commons in 1896 as the representative for Montreal West. He introduced to the House the Roddick Bill, of which he was the author, resulting in the formation of the Medical Council of Canada. Of this body he was the Honorary President. He had the distinction of being the first Canadian to become President of the British Medical Association. In his memory Lady Roddick presented to McGill University the memorial gate at the entrance to the Campus.

Lady Roddick is a well-known authoress and among her published works are the following "From Montreal Elsewhere"; "The Flag and Other Poems"; "The Seekers", an Indian mystery play; "The Birth of Montreal"; "A Chronicle Play and Other Poems"; "The Romance of a Princess and Other Poems"; "In a Venetian Garden and St. Ursula", two plays; and "The Armistice and Other Poems".

Lady Roddick is a Patron of the Women's Council of Canada, a Life Member of the Art Association, Member of the Canadian Authors' Association and a Governor of the Montreal General Hospital. She is a very generous supporter of charity and takes the keenest possible interest in all matters concerning the welfare and prosperity of Montreal.

Residence: 1459 Sherbrooke Street, Montreal, P.Q.

MADAME ADRIAN ROELL
(LADY ROELL)
SUMATRA, D.E.I.

MADAME ADRIAN ROELL (Lady Röell) previous to her marriage, Kathleen Myra Kerr Macdonald, a daughter of the late Donald Walter Macdonald, and Edith Kerr Macdonald, of Edmonton, Alberta, and Cobourg, Ontario, was born at Edmonton, Alberta, at the family residence, "Glencoe". She is a direct descendant of old and historic Scottish and Canadian families, famed in the Army and in Law. On her maternal side, she is the great-granddaughter of Olive Shelley, (a cousin of Percy Bysshe Shelley, the poet) and the granddaughter of the late Honourable William Kerr, K.C., LL.D., a distinguished member of the Canadian Senate, a brilliant barrister, and for over a half-century, an outstanding figure in the public life of the Dominion. On her paternal side, she is a direct descendant of the ancient and famous Macdonalds of "Garth", Perthshire, Scotland, who for centuries were officers in Highland Regiments of the Imperial Army. She is the great-granddaughter of the late Captain Archibald Macdonald, of H.M. 34th Foot Regiment, who coming to Canada after the Napoleonic Wars, took up his residence at "Merina" in Cobourg, Ontario, which at that time was the settlement of many retired Army and Naval Officers. There Captain Macdonald married Catherine, daughter of the Honourable Captain Walter Boswell, of the Royal Navy, who in 1819, was given the honour of naming Cobourg. Lady Röell is the fifth generation to reside in Cobourg, going there, with her mother and her two brothers, Garth William Kerr and D'Arcy Kerr de Bellefeuille, to live, on the death of her father in Edmonton in 1921. Her half-brother, Donald Monteith Macdonald, lives in Vancouver, B.C., and her half-sister, Mrs. Charles Weldon, in Winnipeg.

She was educated under Miss Joll, at King's Hall, Compton, P.Q. Shortly after leaving school she became engaged to the Jonkheer Adrian Röell, a member of one of the most distinguished and ancient families of the Dutch Nobility. He is the eldest son of the Jonkheer Pierre Jean Henri Röell; and Wilhelmina, Baroness van Boetzelaer, of Utrecht, Holland; a nephew of the late Baroness van Wassenaer van Catwyck, formerly Lady-in-Waiting to the Queen of Holland. A cousin, Count Lynden, was former Governor of North Holland, while one of Sir Adrian's aunts is a daughter of the late Dutch Prime Minister, de Beaufort. Soon after her engagement, she made her début at the Drawing-Room given by their Excellencies, Lord and Lady Byng in 1925.

Her marriage took place in November, 1926, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Singapore, Straits Settlements (Malay States). She now resides in Sumatra, Dutch East Indies, where Sir Adrian is associated with one of the largest Dutch Tea and Rubber Plantations.

MRS. EDITH ROGERS, M.L.A.
WINNIPEG, MAN.

THE distinction of being the first woman elected to a legislative assembly in Manitoba belongs to Mrs. Edith Rogers who was first returned to the Manitoba Provincial Legislature at the 1920 General Election, as a representative of the Liberals of her native city, Winnipeg. That her constituents have been satisfied with her labours on their behalf and in the general welfare of the Province is demonstrated by her re-election in 1922 and 1927.

Mrs. Rogers' entry into the political field was actuated by her intense love of her country and province. Of distinguished pioneer stock she is but maintaining the tradition of her family which has been noteworthy for its public-spirited efforts in the interests of the Dominion's development.

In Winnipeg there is no form of philanthropic or social welfare activity which does not appeal to her large-hearted generosity and has not had the benefit of her wide experience and organizing ability. Her untiring and unflinching efforts on behalf of her fellow Canadians will be writ large in the annals of the history of her native Province. Impelled by an intense patriotism and inspired by her vision of her country's destiny she has flung herself, without reserve, into any endeavour having for its aim the furtherance of the nation's welfare.

A direct descendant of Sir George Simpson, Governor of the Hudson Bay Company from 1821 to 1860, Mrs. Edith Rogers was born at Norway House. She is the daughter of the late Donald M. McTavish and Lydia Christie, daughter of the Hon. W. J. Christie of Brockville, Ontario. Mr. McTavish was Chief Factor of the Hudson Bay Company. She was educated in Montreal. On June 1st, 1898, she married Robert Arthur Rogers who was born at Franklin Centre, P.Q., on January 18th, 1862, the son of Lieut.-Colonel Rogers and Phoebe Marie Kennedy of Culterd, County Down, Ireland.

Mrs. Rogers' four children are: Margaret (Mrs. Gordon Konantz, of Winnipeg); Jean (Mrs. A. G. Lawson, of Montreal); Enid; and John, who is married to Muriel Bremner, of Ottawa.

Residence: 64 Nassau Street, Winnipeg.

MRS. ROBERT ROGERS
WINNIPEG, MANITOBA

THE Women's Canadian Club in Winnipeg is deeply indebted to Mrs. Robert Rogers for the splendid and productive work on its behalf which she has carried on. During 1920-21 she was its Honorary Secretary and in 1922-23 its First Vice-President. She was its President in 1924-25. Another organization in which she has played a conspicuous part is the Four-Leaf Clover League of which she is the President. She is an ardent Imperialist and fervent Canadian.

She was born at Ayton, Ontario, the daughter, Aurelia Regina, of Charles Widmeyer and Barbara Winkler of Waterloo, Ontario. She studied at St. Mary's Academy, Winnipeg. On June 13th, 1888, she married Robert Rogers, son of Lieut.-Colonel George Rogers and Dora Moore, of Irish descent. Her one son, Robert George, married Evelyn Maw, daughter of Mr. Joseph Maw, of Winnipeg. Of this union there have been four children: Robert, Joseph, Evelyn and William.

The Hon. Robert Rogers was born at Lachute, County of Argenteuil, P.Q., and was educated at Berthier, Lachute and Montreal. He was a Member of the Manitoba Legislature and Minister of Public Works for eleven years until sworn in as a Member of the Privy Council as Minister of the Interior and Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, October 11th, 1911. These portfolios he relinquished and assumed that of the Public Works Department, October 29th, 1912. In 1916 he accompanied Sir Robert Borden to London to attend the Imperial Conference held there. He is Honorary Colonel of the 34th Fort Garry Horse.

At "Incherra", Roslyn Road, Winnipeg, and at "Nepahwin", their summer home on the Lake of the Woods, Mrs. Rogers is a very busy and gracious hostess. She, however, finds time for recreation and in the years 1928-29 has won the Grandmothers' Championship on the golf links of the St. Charles Country Club.

MRS. WILLIAM DONALD ROSS
TORONTO, ONT.

*M*RS. WILLIAM D. ROSS was born at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, the daughter of Mr. George Forrest Mackay and Mary Walker. Her education, begun at New Glasgow, was continued at Glen Mawr, Toronto. Her marriage to Mr. William D. Ross took place on the 3rd of June, 1914, and following the appointment of her husband on the 12th of January, 1927, to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario, residence was taken up at Government House, Toronto, where she has since then discharged the duties of her high position with marked success. Her aptitude as hostess is instinctive and her personal touch gives a delightful charm to the varied hospitalities in which she is so busily engaged.

Deeply interested in the educational, cultural and benevolent activities of the City and Province, she has given countenance and support unsparingly to institutions and movements having in view the amenities of life and the public good generally.

A generous patron of music, Mrs. Ross is a member of the Toronto Women's Musical Club.

Outdoor life appeals strongly to her and she is also a member of the Toronto Hunt, Eglinton Hunt, Toronto Ladies' Club and the Toronto Skating Club.

With her gardening is a favourite hobby.

MRS. PHILIP DANSKEN ROSS
OTTAWA, ONT.

ALTHOUGH she prefers to do her charitable work quietly, few women in Ottawa have been more constructively associated with welfare, patriotic and other public activities in the Canadian Capital than Mrs. Philip Dansken Ross, who previous to her marriage was Mary Beasley Littlejohn of Toronto.

When the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club was formed, she was made the first secretary and early in the history of the organization elected to the presidency. She has served for many years on the Board of the Victorian Order of Nurses and has been for years a member of the Laurentian Chapter Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and a member of the National Council of Women.

A daughter of Colonel William Alexander Littlejohn, who was born in Edenton, North Carolina, and Harriet Alexander Beasley Littlejohn, she was born in Plymouth, North Carolina, U.S.A., in 1866. Following the American Civil War, her family moved to Toronto, where she was educated in the Model School.

On November 19, 1891, she was married to Philip Dansken Ross, who had founded The Ottawa Journal some years before. Born in Montreal in 1858 of Scottish ancestry, his father, Philip Simpson Ross, was born in Belfast in 1827, and his mother, Christina Chalmers Dansken Ross, in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1830. President of the Ottawa Journal newspapers, Queen's University conferred upon him the honorary degree of LL.D. in 1919. He was president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association in 1920 and Honorary Treasurer of the Imperial Press Conference the same year.

Dr. Ross recently served with distinction as the head of a Royal Commission appointed by the Ontario Government to investigate conditions in welfare and prison institutions throughout the Province of Ontario. An outstanding Conservative, he is a Past President of the Ottawa Conservative Association. An enthusiastic oarsman and golfer, at one time he was stroke of the amateur champion four-oared crew of Canada, and he is a Past President of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Like her husband, Mrs. Ross is an ardent golfer. She is a member of the Royal Ottawa Golf Club, the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club, the Rivermead Golf Club, the Chaudiere Golf Club, and the Canadian Women's Senior Golf Association. She is a member of the Chelsea Club, the Ottawa women's club founded in 1925.

Residence: 17 Blackburn Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario.

MRS. G. A. ROUTLEDGE
LONDON, ONT.

MRS. G. A. ROUTLEDGE is a direct descendant of Roger Williams (1604-1684) the founder of the Colony of Rhode Island (1636) and pioneer of religious liberty. Mrs. Routledge is also of United Empire Loyalist descent, her great-grandfather John Vanderburgh migrating as a young boy with his parents from the State of Pennsylvania, U.S.A. They were among the first settlers in the community now known as Thorndale in the County of Middlesex, Ontario. John Vanderburgh died in Thorndale in the early autumn of 1872. Mary Williams, his wife, was born September 30th, 1794, at Stanford, Upper Canada, and married John Vanderburgh at Allenburg, Upper Canada, and died at Thorndale May 4th, 1873.

On the maternal side Mrs. Routledge is the granddaughter of Mathew Wilkinson and Eliza Middleton, who came to Canada in the Spring of 1857, sailing from the Port of Liverpool, England, on the Ocean Monarch, a sailing vessel, and took up residence in the County of Peel, Ontario, in the same year. Mathew Wilkinson was the son of Mathew Wilkinson and Elizabeth Cowen, of Moscow Farm, Allendale, County of Northumberland, and was born there May 28th, 1821 and died April 12th, 1896 in the county of Peel, Ontario. Eliza Middleton, his wife, was the only daughter of Roland Middleton and Jane Bradley of the City of York, Yorkshire, England, and was born there June 12th, 1828 and died October 21st, 1877, in the County of Peel, Ontario. Mrs. Routledge is directly connected on the maternal side with the late distinguished but erratic Joseph Cowen, coal-mine owner, Member of Parliament, journalist, and proprietor of the Newcastle Chronicle. His death in the early part of 1900 removed one of the most remarkable figures in English life, and one of the most extraordinary men in Europe. A member of the British House of Commons, he was an ardent supporter of Lord Beaconsfield in his schemes for Imperial Expansion, and as brilliant an orator as ever held the House of Commons' attention. He numbered among his friends Mazzini, Garibaldi, and Kossuth, and Mr. Gladstone once pronounced him "a wonderful fellow". Armstrong College, Newcastle, later named the Chair of English Literature and Languages in his memory.

Mrs. Routledge has led an extremely active life in the interest of her fellow-citizens. Before her first marriage she had become a trained nurse in New York under the tuition of Miss Irene Sutcliffe, one of the deans of the nursing profession. She is especially interested in the work of the War Memorial Children's Hospital. She is Ontario Provincial Commissioner of the Canadian Girl Guides Association to which movement she gives every possible assistance. She is 1st Vice-President of the Lord Roberts Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire; 2nd Vice-President, Women's Christian Association and 2nd Vice-President of the Local Council of Women.

A member of St. Paul's Anglican Church she is on the Executive of its Women's Association and a member of the Chancel Guild. She is the Cathedral's representative on the British Columbia Coastline Mission; also a member of the Grenfell Mission.

Emily May (Vanderburgh) Routledge was born at Glen Williams, Ontario, the eldest daughter of Andrew James Vanderburgh who was born at Thorndale, April 10th, 1845, and died December 3rd, 1919, in Toronto, Ontario, and Eliza Wilkinson, his wife, born January 14th, 1849, in the town of Hexham, County of Northumberland, England. She was educated in Detroit, Toronto and New York. She was married firstly on January 24th, 1906, to James Bunyan Morgan of Pittsburg, Pa. (a direct descendant of John Bunyan and of Col. George Morgan of "Prospect" Princeton, New Jersey,) and Morganza, Washington County, Pennsylvania; and secondly on February 19th, 1917, to George Albert Routledge, M.D., of Lambeth, Ontario, a grandson of John Routledge who came from Cumberland, one of the pioneer settlers of Middlesex County who was granted his land by the Crown, and who lived in Lambeth to the end of his days. On the maternal side he descended from United Empire Loyalists.

Mrs. Routledge, whose home is "Rout-Van", Richmond Street North, London, is a member of a number of clubs, including the Women's Canadian, Drama League, Music, London Hunt and Country and the Highland Golf.

MRS. W. O. RYDE
MONTREAL, QUE.

M<sup>S.</sup> W. O. RYDE, née Edith Sarah Dawes, was born in Lachine, P.Q., the eldest daughter of the late James Powley Dawes and Sarah Jane Ferres. Her father was of the third generation of the Dawes family, which settled in Lachine in the early years of the last century. She graduated from Miss Symmers' and Miss Smith's School, Montreal; and afterwards graduated from the School of Miss Dupont, in Toronto.

On August 24th, 1892, she was married to William Osborne Ryde, of Sale, Cheshire, England, the son of the late John Ryde; and Sarah Ellen Hardwicke. Mrs. Ryde's daughter, Doris Edith, was married on September 28th, 1926, to Geoffrey Hedges, son of Alfred Paget Hedges, of Tonbridge, Kent, England, and lives in Montreal.

Mrs. Ryde has always been extremely interested in the welfare work of Montreal. Her principal care has been for the Ladies' Benevolent Institution, of whose Executive she has been a member for a number of years, and whose interests she represented on the Local Council of Women. She was the first Regent of the Dollard Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire; and is a member of the Victoria League, of London, England. She is also a Past Vice-President of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild and is on its Executive.

During the Great War, Mrs. Ryde worked in England on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society; and on the cessation of hostilities was awarded the military General Service Medal, as well as the medal of the Red Cross Society.

Mrs. Ryde has taken a keen and active interest in various forms of sport. She is a member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club; and was the first President of the Ladies' Branch of the Lachine Curling Club. She is also a Past President of the Ladies' Branch of the Royal Montreal Curling Club.

MRS. NORMAN SAMUEL
TORONTO, ONT.

THE Dominion has been worthily represented in the realm of sport by Constance Montgomery Wilson who, while still at school, established herself as an all-round sports-woman by being sports champion for three years of Bishop Strachan School, Toronto. As one of the juniors at the Toronto Skating Club she subsequently developed her natural flair for skating and became internationally famous for her skill at that winter sport. In 1924, while in her early teens and still at school, she won the Amateur Figure Skating Championship of Canada at Montreal. In 1926, with Mr. Errol Morson, of Toronto, she won the coveted "Paris" Championship in Ottawa. At Montreal in 1927 she again won the "Singles" and as a result she was chosen in January 1928 as the Canadian representative at the Olympic Games Winter Sports, held at St. Moritz, Switzerland, in February and was sixth out of twenty-two competitors. She then came fourth in the World's Championship held in March in London, England, and had the honour of being congratulated on her Free Skating performance by Mr. Schalow, one of the judges and the world's authority on Skating. Shortly after, at Manchester, she won the unique title "Champion of Great Britain" and brought to her Club for that year the famous "Martineau" Cup. In 1929, after again winning the Canadian "Singles" and "Pairs" (the latter with her brother), her next brilliant success was in Boston, U.S.A., in winning the championship of North America for both "Singles" and "Pairs" (again with her brother, Montgomery Stewart Wilson, who was, himself, Champion of Canada and North America). The "Singles" and "Pairs" were again won by them at Winnipeg in 1930.

Born in Toronto, she is the daughter, Constance Montgomery, of William de Leigh Wilson and his wife, Jessy Cumyn Montgomery. She was educated at Glen Mawr and Bishop Strachan Schools, Toronto; and she is a member of the Toronto Skating Club, Toronto Tennis Club and the Granite Club.

On August 7th, 1929, she was married, at Toronto, to Norman Mandelshon Samuel, son of Sigmund Samuel and Leah Mandelshon, of Toronto and London, England.

Residence: 407 Walmer Road, Toronto.

MRS. W. E. SANFORD
HAMILTON, ONT.

THE motto of the National Council of Women in Canada, the organization with which Mrs. Sanford has been so long and so closely connected: "Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you", has been the guiding factor of her life and has been largely responsible for the positions which have been awarded to her in recognition of her work in women's affairs, in church and state.

Mrs. Sanford has been specially associated with the National Council of Women, having been Dominion Vice-President and later President of the body in Canada for four years; as well as being President of the Local Council of Women for Hamilton for several years. In 1904 she was elected Treasurer of the International Council of Women, a position which has been accorded to her continuously until 1930. Her connection with the International Council of Women has led to extensive travel and while in other countries she has promoted the organization of several National Councils. As would be anticipated, this has given her delightful acquaintance with many of the outstanding women of the world. Indeed, she has had the honour of personal interviews with a number of the Queens of England and Europe, including Their Majesties Queen Victoria, Queen Alexandra and Queen Mary.

For many, many years devoted to her church Mrs. Sanford has had somewhat remarkable opportunities in attending some of the international religious councils. In 1921, for instance, she was a delegate to the Methodist Ecumenical Council in London; in 1927, to the World Conference on Faith and Order at Lausanne, Switzerland; and, in 1928, was a member of the Continuation Committee of the same body at Prague, Czecho-Slovakia.

In her own city Mrs. Sanford carried on for years a remarkable work for convalescent children. During the War she was President of the Ladies' Recruiting League for Hamilton.

Mrs. Sanford, a daughter of Thomas Vaux, Esquire, who came to Canada from Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, England; and of Margaret Marshall Vaux, was born in Montreal. She is the widow of the Honourable W. E. Sanford, Senator of the Dominion of Canada.

As evidencing other interests it may be noted that Mrs. Sanford is a member of the Victoria League, is an Honorary President of the Social Service Council of Canada, a member of the Royal Empire Society, the Lyceum and Ladies' Empire Club, London, England; and also of the Ladies' Club, Toronto.

Residence: "Wesanford", Hamilton, Ontario.

MRS. ANDREW SANGSTER
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

BORN in Sherbrooke on January 8th, 1879, Mrs. Andrew Sangster has always been deeply interested in the progress and prosperity of her native city. Recognizing the responsibility of the individual in promoting community welfare, she has for many years been actively engaged in social and philanthropic service. At this time, and for the third year in succession, she is the President of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses. She is also a member of the Child Welfare Clinic, the Red Cross Society and the Committee of the Sherbrooke Hospital. As a member of the Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, she is keenly interested in the growing and extensive work of this institution.

For three years Mrs. Sangster was the Regent of the Sir John Sherbrooke Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, and during the Great War was closely identified with the work carried on by the local branches of the Red Cross Society, the Patriotic Association and the Relief Committee.

She is a member of Plymouth United Church and an active worker in its various organizations.

Mrs. Sangster (Maud Giff) is the daughter of Russell and Mary (Harmon) Giff. Her father was a pioneer resident of Sherbrooke, having had a share in the development of this important city and district where he operated as a contractor and builder and farmer. Her mother, Mary Harmon, belonged to a New Hampshire family which came from England before the American Revolution.

Mrs. Sangster was educated at the Sherbrooke High School.

On September 21st, 1898, she was married to Andrew Sangster. Her greatest interest is in the care and direction of the home where she shares with true wifely sympathy and understanding the extensive business affairs and responsibilities of her husband. Three children were born of the marriage: Dorothy Maud (now Mrs. G. S. Walsh of Hemmingford, P.Q.), Muriel Isabel and Andrew Gordon.

Mrs. Sangster, whose home is at 100 Drummond Street, Sherbrooke, has travelled extensively and includes motoring and golf among her recreations.

MRS. JOHN SCOTT
MONTREAL, QUE.

BORN at Garscube, a suburb of Glasgow, Scotland, on March 21st, 1855, Mrs. John Scott has lived and worked in Canada since 1874. Her parents were Aeneas MacMaster and Elizabeth MacIndoe, of Scottish ancestry, and she was educated in the city of her birth at Free Church Seminary and Anderson University.

It is in the profession of a wife and mother that Mrs. Scott has spent the greater part of her life, though she qualified as a teacher early and for a few years was engaged in that occupation. Her public service began with the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of which she is a life member, being on the executive of the Canadian National W.C.T.U.; honorary president of the Frances Willard Union, as well as editor for the Quebec "White Ribbon Tidings".

The war brought Mrs. Scott prominently forward in connection with the federal election of 1917, and since 1919 she has been vice-president and organizer of the Women's Conservative Association of Montreal and District. A pronounced feminist, she is an honorary member of the l'Alliance Canadien pour le Vote des Femmes de Quebec and chairman of the Franchise committee of the Montreal Women's Club; an organization in which she held the office of president in 1922-23. She was a member of the Women's War Council held in Ottawa in 1918, is on the board of Canadian Prisoners' Welfare Association, was for five years vice-president of the Big Sisters' Association.

There were two sons: James Douglas, Flight-Lieutenant, R.N.A.S., who was killed in France on September 20th, 1916; and Captain Hugh M. Scott, M.C., who served with the 42nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders of Canada.

Mrs. Scott is very fond of travelling and for recreation enjoys a game of cribbage.

Address: Apt. 1, 4275 Western Avenue, Westmount, Que.

MRS. COLIN C. SEWELL
QUEBEC, QUE.

THE work of the Red Cross Society has had few such helpers as Mrs. Colin C. Sewell. At the time of the South African War Dr. Sewell was President of the Society and Mrs. Sewell its Secretary. When the Great War began she reorganized its administration and during the war years and for a considerable period after the cessation of hostilities was its President. In addition to the exacting duties incident to such an onerous post she was able to be of the greatest possible assistance to the Soldiers' Wives League and to help in other benevolent movements in the city of Quebec.

For many years Mrs. Sewell was Secretary of the Female Orphan Asylum; while she organized and superintended the establishment in Quebec of the Fresh Air Fund for Tubercular Children. Other causes in which she has participated with a tireless energy are the Anti-Tuberculous League, the Navy League and "L'Aide à la France". She is a member of the I.O.D.E.

She was born in Scotland at Edinburgh. Her father was James A. Webster of that city.

Her marriage to Colin C. Sewell took place in 1870 and there have been four children: Colin C. Sewell; Mabel; Mrs. W. Dobell and Mrs. H. Foy.

Her home is at 53 Louis Street, Quebec.

MRS. ADAM SHORTT, M.D.
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. ADAM SHORTT has the distinction of being one of the first two women of Canada who took a full medical course. After her marriage to Professor Adam Shortt, of Queen's University, and her return to Kingston she was appointed Lecturer in Medical Jurisprudence and Sanitary Science in the Women's Medical College (which she had been instrumental in creating) in that city. During her residence in Kingston she was, for three years, President of the Y.W.C.A., President of the Ladies' Musical Club for six years, and was the first President of the First Alumnae Association of Queen's University. She was a Charter Member of the Council of Women and was, at different times, Convener of Immigration, Public Health and Mental Hygiene in the National Council of Women. She was also Vice-President of the Council for Ontario; and was Vice-President for five years of the National Council, acting for a time as its President.

When Mrs. Shortt, with her family, went to live in Ottawa she assisted in forming the local Women's Canadian Club and was its second President; while for seven years she occupied the position of President of the Local Council there. She organized the Immigration Hostel and was founder and Chairman of the Board of the Elizabeth residence for elderly ladies. This residence was named after Mrs. Shortt and she is still Chairman of the Board.

She was appointed Vice-Chairman of the Provincial Commission on Mothers' Allowances for Ontario and during the first seven years of its work did not miss a single meeting.

Mrs. Shortt has written brochures on various social aspects of tuberculosis; as well as historical sketches of the medical education of women.

Before her marriage on December 23rd, 1886, she was Elizabeth, daughter of Sylvester and Isabel McGee Smith. She was born at Winona, Wentworth County, Ontario, in 1859. Her children are: Muriel, George and Lorraine.

Her address is: 5 Marlborough Ave, Ottawa, Ont.

MRS. J. G. R. SHUTER
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. SHUTER has performed very excellent work in the interests of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She is Past Regent of the Queen Elizabeth Chapter; and is presently its Treasurer. She is also a member of the Board of the Girls' Cottage Industrial School; and is carrying on, as a member of its Board, the work of the Decorative Arts Society of Montreal, of which her mother was one of the earliest members.

She was born in Montreal the daughter, Marjorie Anna, of Edward Nassau Heney (born in Ottawa); and Elizabeth Bigelow, of Montreal, whose father was born in the same city in 1803. Her father was Founder and President of the E. N. Heney Company; and a very active worker for the Conservative Party.

She was educated at Trafalgar Institute, Montreal; and at "Birklands", St. Albans, near London, England.

She was married on May 14th, 1919, at Montreal, to John George Ramsay Shuter, son of John Shuter and Elizabeth Mackenzie, both of Lennoxville, P.Q. Of the marriage there are two children: Elizabeth Marjorie and John Charles Hosmer.

Mr. J. G. R. Shuter, who was born at Lennoxville, on September 3rd, 1883, is a stockbroker and a member of the firm of Hansons & Macaulay, of Montreal. Before the War, during which he served with the 241st Battalion, C.E.F., he was associated with the Royal Trust Company, of Montreal.

Residence: 1600 Pine Avenue West, Montreal.

MRS. E. ATHERTON SMITH
NEW BRUNSWICK

THE traditions of the pioneer women of New Brunswick have been maintained in no uncertain manner by Mrs. E. Atherton Smith. Descendant of the historic Macpherson clan, of Cluny Castle Scotland, she possesses the virility and magnetic personality, allied to the indomitable spirit of her Scottish blood, which enables her to succeed in any enterprise to which she puts her hand. To these qualities is added the priceless gift of leadership which, for years, has made her the most outstanding woman of her native Province. The women of New Brunswick have had in Mrs. Atherton Smith their inspiration, counsellor and leader in all their philanthropic and social welfare efforts.

Nor has her work been localized in her beloved New Brunswick: actually there has been no women's work carried on throughout the Dominion which she has not, in some form or other, come under her influence. As indicative of her reputation and organizing ability it may be instanced that when the catastrophic war-time explosion occurred at Halifax, Nova Scotia, it was she who was sent for quickly for help and guidance. Her resultant appeals, addresses and efforts produced a fund of $15,000.00 in a few months for the relief of those blinded in that disaster.

Again: the Royal Standard Chapter of the I.O.D.E., of which she was the first Regent, was formed in 1915; and during her five years in this office raised a total sum of $63,000.00. This amount, added to the many varied personal comforts sent overseas to the troops, merited its distinction as being the "Banner" Chapter of the Dominion.

The city of Saint John owes much to her tireless energy and compelling eloquence. Largely in consequence of these the municipality constructed the County Hospital as a Home for advanced tubercular patients, and elected Mrs. Atherton Smith the first lady Commissioner. After the War she organized the Women's Hospital Aid, whose membership in three years totalled 2,500. With such support she was successful in inducing the City Council to make a grant of $200,000.00 for the erection of a Nurses' Home.

In 1919, when H.R.H. the Prince of Wales first visited Canada he asked for Mrs. Atherton Smith to be presented to him: and afterwards publicly thanked her, on behalf of H.M. King George Vth, for her magnificent work during the War.

Mrs. Smith is an ardent Canadian and very active in the work of the Association of Canadian Clubs. On the occasion of the celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the Saint John Women's Canadian Club, of which she has three times been President, she was presented by its members with a beautiful gift in silver; and in the presentation address it is set out: "We are tonight celebrating our twenty-first birthday, and when we remember that Mrs. Smith has been our President for half that time, and consider the success of our organization, I am sure it brings to our minds and hearts just how much of its success is due to Mrs. Smith's able leadership."

For our Belgian Allies she also laboured indefatigably; and by her platform efforts—notably her illustrated travelogue "Belgium, Then and Now"—and "King Albert" and "Self-Denial Days", was responsible for raising large sums of money for the Relief Fund. For her services she was decorated by the Belgian government with the medal of Queen Elizabeth.

She has worthily and fittingly represented the Dominion and its womanhood in many lands. In 1921, at the Pan-American Conference of Women, held at Baltimore, U.S.A., she made a profound impression in a speech delivered on "The famous women of Canada"; and the Baltimore "Sun" said: Mrs. Atherton Smith, of Canada, delivered the real oration of the evening.

In 1927 she represented Canada at the Executive of the International Council of Women in Geneva; and was again elected by the National Council to represent them in Vienna in May 1930. Mrs. Atherton Smith was summoned to attend Their Majesties' Court at Buckingham Palace on May 15th, 1930.

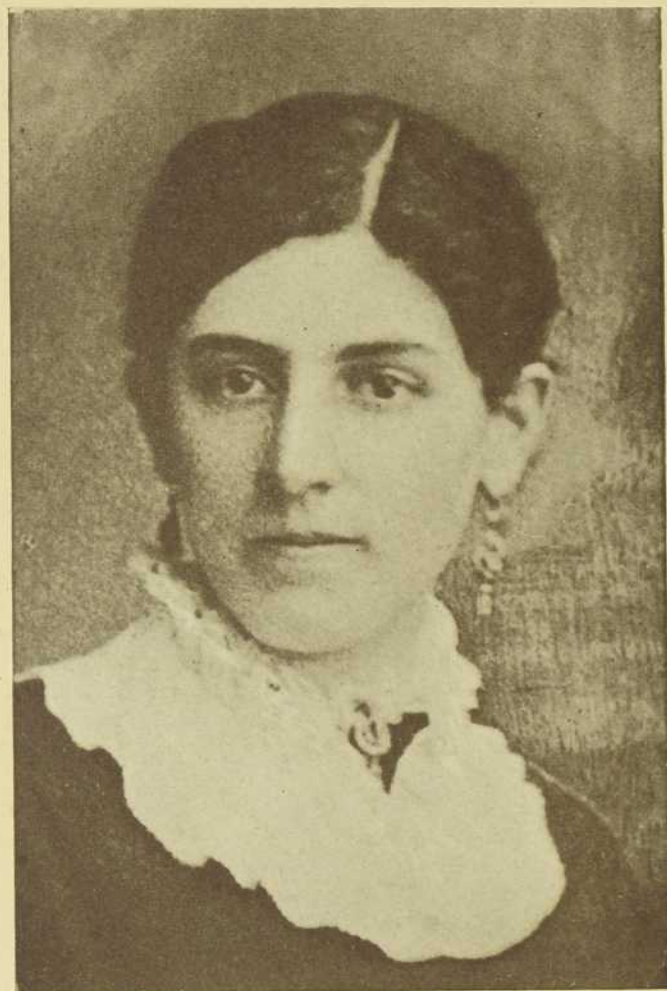

Mrs. Smith's Travelogues are famed throughout the length and breadth of Canada and have been enjoyed by thousands of people from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Especially noteworthy among these is the one entitled "Geneva and its environs".

"Of Mrs. Smith and her work it has been said: "She is of the House of a Thousand Candles. Where there is darkness she brings light: where there is chaos she brings order: where there is an empty treasury she brings a measure, full and flowing over."

Mrs. Smith is a daughter of New Brunswick. She was born at "Maple Grove", Restigouche County, the daughter, Nan Macpherson, of John Robinson (whose ancestors came over on the "Mayflower") and Mary Macpherson, daughter of Colonel James Macpherson, of Kingussie, Scotland, one of the early pioneers of New Brunswick.

Her husband, Edward Atherton Smith, a very successful business man and a keen art critic, was the son of Adam Smith, father of the New Brunswick press; and a descendant of Adam Smith, author of the "Wealth of Nations".

Since the death of her husband in 1925 Mrs. Atherton Smith has occupied an apartment in the "Admiral Beatty" Hotel in Saint John during the winter months. The summers she spends at "Cluneleigh" in Saint Andrews-by-the-Sea, where she entertains largely and keenly enjoys her lovely garden. Her recreations are yachting, motoring, golf, curling and travel.

MRS. E. D. SMITH
WINONA, ONT.

THE honour of being the first President of the first Women's Institute belongs to Mrs. E. D. Smith. It was on February 17th, 1897, that a meeting was held at Stoney Creek, near Hamilton, Ontario, which saw the beginning of a movement which has become international in its scope. There were present at this meeting one hundred and one women; and the first officers elected were: President, Mrs. E. D. Smith; Secretary, Miss M. Nash; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. McNeely. Of broad vision and large sympathies Mrs. Smith has taken the greatest interest in the growth of the work of the Women's Institutes; as well as in all forms of social welfare activity.

Born in the Township of York she is the daughter, Christina Ann, of Elijah and Sarah Armstrong, of West York, Ontario. She married, on March 24th, 1886, Ernest D'Israeli Smith, who was born on December 8th, 1853, at Winona, Ontario, the son of Sylvester Smith and Damaris Isabella McGee, both of whom were members of United Empire Loyalist families. Of her marriage there are three children: Verna Rowena (married to Gordon D. Conant, B.A., LL.B., of Oshawa); Lieut.-Col. Armand Armstrong, M.C. (who served overseas during the Great War with the 20th Battalion, C.E.F.; and is married to Evelyn H. Gibson, daughter of the late Hon. Senator William Gibson); and Leon L. (married to Roberta Thurston, of Port Moody, B.C.).

Mrs. Smith's brother, Mr. J. E. Armstrong, represented East Lambton in the Dominion House for nineteen years.

The Honourable Senator E. D. Smith was Member of Parliament for Wentworth County from 1900 to 1909; and was summoned to the Senate in May, 1913. He is President of E. D. Smith & Sons, Ltd., which firm he founded. He was also President of Canadian Cannery, Ltd. for nine years and is Vice-President of the Boundary Investment Company, Ltd.

Residence: "Helderleigh", Winona, Ontario.

MRS. JULIAN C. SMITH
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

*M*RS. JULIAN CLEVELAND SMITH has played a very real and important part in the social and charitable activities of the city of Montreal. For such participation she has had an ideal background. The daughter (Bertha Louise) of Edward Thomas Alexander and Ella Harriett Bolton, both members of outstanding New England families, she was born at Worcester, Mass., U.S.A. Her early education was received at the Girl's High School of Brooklyn, N.Y. Later she attended Cornell University at Ithaca, N.Y., from which she was graduated with high honours and the B.A. degree. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, 1901.

She was married on June 4th, 1909, to Julian Cleveland Smith, son of Howard M. Smith and Elizabeth Joslyn, both of the State of New York. Mr. Smith was born at Elmira, N.Y., on October 7th, 1878.

Since her marriage Mrs. Smith has resided in the Province of Quebec, and for several years past at 619 Sydenham Avenue, Westmount. Her four children are Florence, Louise, Joslyn and Julian. Her family and her garden have been her principal occupation; but Mrs. Smith has always been very much interested in social and educational movements and has given considerable time and attention to various associations working along these lines. Among these are the Young Women's Christian Association, Women's Canadian Club and the Women's Art Society.

MRS. R. G. SMYTHE
TORONTO, ONT.

THE CARE of the feeble-minded has been and is the outstanding interest of Mrs. R. G. Smythe who has given unsparingly of her time and energies on their behalf. She inaugurated the first Mental Hygiene Committee of the Toronto Local Council of Women and was its first Convener. She is at present Convener of the Mental Hygiene Committee of the Ontario Council of Women. She is the appointee of the Ontario Provincial Government on the board of visitors of the Toronto Mental Hospital. In 1930 she was a delegate of the National Council of Women at the International Congress held at Vienna, being a member of the "Morals Committee". She is a Past President of the Toronto Local Council of Women and a Past President of the Provincial Council. She is an Honorary Life Member of the National Council of Women.

Born in London, Ontario, she is the daughter, Agnes Mary, of Adam Lind, of Aberdeen, Scotland; and Ann Grieve, of London, Ontario, a direct descendant of Sir William Wallace, and whose grandfather was a connection of the Earl of Minto's family. She was educated at St. Thomas and Toronto.

She was married at London, Ontario, to Robert Gordon Smythe K.C., who was born at Belleville, Ontario, the son of Hiram Wycliffe Smythe and Eliza Jane Rodgers. Of the marriage there are three children: Warren; Helen Lind (married to F. H. Stafford, of Toronto); and Margaret Dorothea (married to S. Allan Thomas, of Vancouver, B.C.).

Residence: 57 Chestnut Park Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. JAMES H. SPENCE
TORONTO, ONT.

WHILE the first care of Mrs. Spence has always been her family, the objects of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire have been an especial interest. For her Chapter and the Order in general she has worked industriously and faithfully. She was Regent of the Rosedale Chapter during the period of the Great War; and has been a member of the organization's National Executive for many years. For three years she was President of the Toronto Women's Liberal Association. She is a member of the Women's Canadian Club and the Women's Musical Club. She is an enthusiastic worker for the Presbyterian Church.

Born at Paris, Ontario, she is the daughter, Margaret, of James H. Hackland and Jean Berwick Flett. She received her education at Paris and later at Brantford Ladies' College.

On September 20th, 1902, in Toronto, she married James Houston Spence, who was born in 1867 in the County of Bruce, Ontario, the son of Magnus Spence and Mary Wishart. Of the marriage there are four children: Wishart Flett, B.A., LL.M. (Harvard); James Magnus; George Hackland; and Helen Margaret.

Senator James Houston Spence read law with the Hon. Mr. Justice Teetzel, and was called to the Ontario Bar in 1896. From 1896 to 1900 he was a junior partner of Watson, Smoke and Masten. In 1900 he formed partnership Masten, Starr and Spence; and on the elevation of Mr. Justice Masten to the Bench of the Supreme Court of Ontario in 1915, formed the present firm of Starr, Spence and Hall. He was elected a Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada in January 1917; and appointed King's Counsel in January 1922. On January 9th, 1928, he was appointed Senator of the Dominion of Canada.

Residence: 32 Hawthorne Avenue, Rosedale, Toronto.

Summer Home: "The Maples", Southampton, Ontario.

MRS. F. N. G. STARR
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. F. N. G. STARR is one of the most active participants in all phases of Toronto's life. Possessing great organizing ability she has played an outstanding part in the development of a number of public-welfare movements. She was First Vice-President of the Social Service Department of the Toronto General Hospital; and is Past First Vice-President and Past Secretary of the Women's Canadian Club. During the Great War, among other things, she was Treasurer of the Women's Committee of the No. 4 Hospital, University of Toronto, which was sent to Salonika. She is Associate Convener of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra Association and a member of the Committee of the Women's Residences, Victoria College, University of Toronto. She is also Past First Vice-President and Past Secretary of the Women's Musical Club.

Born at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, she is the daughter, Anne Callander, of George Forrest Mackay and Mary Walker. She was educated at New Glasgow and "Glen Mawr", Toronto.

She was married on September 14th, 1904, to Dr. Frederic Newton Gisborne Starr, C.B.E., M.B., M.D., C.M., F.R.G.S., who was born at Thorold, Ontario, son of Rev. J. Herbert Starr and Susan Evans.

Mrs. Starr is devoted to music, art, travelling and gardening; and is the possessor of an unique collection of Baxter prints.

Dr. F. N. G. Starr, who is Professor of Clinical Surgery at the University of Toronto, is an outstanding member of the medical profession in whose interests he has worked unceasingly. He is a Past President of the Canadian Medical Association and a Vice-President of the British Medical Association. During the Great War, Dr. Starr served in France with the Royal Army Medical Corps and was mentioned in dispatches for gallantry and distinguished service in the field. He was made Commander of the Military Division of the Order of the British Empire on June 3rd, 1919. He has taken a prominent part in the formation of the Royal Canadian College of Physicians and Surgeons of which he was elected Vice-President on its inception in 1929.

Residence: 112 Warren Road, Toronto.

Summer Residence: Go Home, Georgian Bay, Ontario.

MRS. JOHN A. STEWART
PERTH, ONT.

MRS. JOHN A. STEWART, who has just retired from the National Presidency of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is a woman of wide vision and great practical business ability. Born at Perth, Ontario, the second daughter (Jessie Mabel) of Jesse T. Henderson and Eliza Wordie, she is a fourth generation Canadian, and still resides in Thureson Place, the fine old home erected by the Hendersons.

She was educated privately, and on November 26th, 1907, was married to the Honourable John A. Stewart, who was born in the neighbouring County of Renfrew, the son of Robert and Barbara Stewart. As head of the firm of Stewart, Hope & O'Donnell, he was one of the outstanding legal and business figures in Eastern Ontario, representing Lanark, for years, in the Conservative interests, and holding the portfolio of Railways and Canals in the Meighen Administration. He died on October 7th, 1922, and since that date, Mrs. Stewart has herself administered the large holdings of the various Stewart interests.

Mrs. Stewart is herself a woman of broad interests and activities. In her own town she has long been identified with practically every movement looking to its development. To the town she has given the delightful John A. Stewart Park on the banks of the Tay, the layout of which she has herself supervised. Near her beautiful summer home, "Ballymoyer" on the Rideau, she has founded a charming camp for the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of the district, serving herself as Eastern Ontario Commissioner for the Girl Guides. But the Daughters of the Empire have always made the strongest claims on her interest and energy. Closely associated with the splendid war work of the Perth-Upon-Tay Chapter, she early became indentified with the programme of the National Chapter, and in recent years has moved from one high office to another, finally serving with unusual distinction and popularity as National President from 1928 to 1930, when ill health demanded her retirement. She is still actively associated with the Order as a most popular honorary Vice-President.

Mrs. Stewart's other keen interest in the National field is Child Welfare. For five years she has been a member of the Governing Council of the Canadian Council on Child and Family Welfare, and since 1927 Vice President of the Shernfold School, the Council's demonstration at Ottawa. Both of these organizations have benefitted by her unfailing interest and generosity.

In religion she is an Anglican and the beautiful Church of St. James, Perth, owes much to her interest and support. She has been a generous friend to the Anglican Sisterhood of St. John the Divine, whose new summer rest home, "Stewart Rise" at Rideau Ferry, is her gift.

Combining unusual practical sense with wide vision, and generous sympathies, Mrs. Stewart is one of the ablest personalities in the field of women's work in Canada today, and is, at the same time, one of the most popular.

Clubs:—Country Club, Ottawa; Ladies' Club, Hunt Club and Eglinton Club, Toronto; Caledon Mountain Trout Club; Ladies' Empire Club, London, England; Union Interalliée, Paris, France.

MRS. J. W. STEWART
VANCOUVER B.C.

A WOMAN of great charm and personality, Mrs. J. W. Stewart is actively interested in all charitable and social affairs. Her home "Ardvar", where many distinguished visitors have been entertained, is the centre of brilliant social functions. Philanthropic and welfare activities have in her a generous supporter.

During the Great War, Mrs. Stewart devoted the whole of her time and energy to the work of the Canadian Red Cross and the I.O.D.E. and other patriotic endeavours. She is Honorary President of the General Leckie Chapter I.O.D.E. and Honorary President of the Vancouver Polo Club.

Born in Iowa, Elizabeth Jane Moran Stewart is the daughter of James

Moran and Mary Madden, both of Limerick, Ireland. Her father, James Moran, who was a railway contractor, and his wife came to North America in the early seventies. Their daughter received her education at the Sacred Heart Convent, Butte, Montana.

In 1895, on January 1st, she was married at Helena, Montana, to John William Stewart, of Assynt, Sutherlandshire, Scotland, son of John William Stewart and Margaret McLeod, both of Assynt, Sutherlandshire.

Mrs. Stewart's daughter, Margaret Mary, who was born at Spokane, on December 6, 1900, received her early education at Les Marronniers, Auteuil, France, and later at the Sacred Heart Convent, Vancouver. She is now married to Col. A. T. MacLean, Vancouver.

Major General J. W. Stewart, C.B., C.M.G., won distinguished recognition and his military title in the Great War. He organized his own railway corps in Vancouver and gave such effective service in France that he was mentioned on several occasions in dispatches. President of Stewart & Welch, Railway and Building Contractors, Major-General Stewart came to Canada in 1882 and was connected with the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway; the double track of the Canadian Pacific Railway from Fort William to Winnipeg, and the Connaught Tunnel. He has been associated with great development work in all parts of the world and his brilliant career has given him an international reputation as a railway builder and man of outstanding business ability.

Residence: "Ardvar", Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver, B.C.

MRS. MCLEOD STEWART
OTTAWA, ONT.

PROMINENT for many years in social welfare work and possessed of charming personality, Mrs. McLeod Stewart has endeared herself to all with whom she has been associated in activities for public betterment.

Born at Port Dover, Ontario, in 1854, Linnie Emma Powell was the daughter of Colonel Walker Powell and Catherine Culver Powell, receiving her education in private schools in Ottawa. Her father, who had a most distinguished military career, was Adjutant-General of the Canadian Forces from 1875 to the time of his retirement in 1896. He did much to build up the militia system in Canada and for the establishment of the Royal Military College, Kingston.

He was subsequently President of the Board of Visitors of this institution for many years. His father, Israel Wood Powell of U.E.L. descent, represented Norfolk in the Parliament of Canada.

The marriage of Miss Powell took place in 1874 to McLeod Stewart, son of William Stewart and Catherine Stewart, both born in the Isle of Skye, descendants of the Stewarts of Appin. A lawyer and graduate of the University of Toronto, McLeod Stewart was called to the bar in 1870. He was Mayor of Ottawa, 1887-88. He was keenly interested in the transportation development of the Ottawa Valley, both by rail and waterways and spent a great part of his life in the promotion of the Montreal, Ottawa and Georgian Bay Canal project. He was President of the Canada Atlantic Railway and also identified with the development of anthracite coal mines in the North West Territories. A man of vision, many important causes which he advocated since have become accomplished facts—notable amongst these is the National Museum in the Capital.

The children born to Mr. and Mrs. McLeod Stewart were: Emma, Williamina, Sheila and Norman, who married Jane Macdonald and resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The memory of Williamina (Mina), who passed away in 1930, recently was honoured by the World Association of Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

Mrs. McLeod Stewart was one of the founders of the Protestant Home for the Aged and President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of this organization for forty-two years. An active worker in the Local Council of Women from its inception in 1894 until 1929, she is a Life Member of this body and also a Life Member of the National Council of Women.

Residence: 383 Frank Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

MADAME L. A. TASCHEREAU
QUEBEC, QUE.

MADAME L. A. TASCHEREAU (Adine Dionne), the daughter of the late Honourable E. Dionne, Legislative Councillor and Minister of Public Works in the Ministries of Mousseau and Chapleau, and of Clara Tétu, was born at Ste. Anne-de-la-Pocatière. She was educated at the Sillery Convent; and on the 26th of May, 1891, married Louis Alexandre Taschereau, then already one of the most eminent lawyers at the Quebec Bar. By him she has had five children: Gabrielle (Mrs. Colonel C. A. Fages), Juliette (Mrs. Louis Gélinas), Paul, Robert and Charles.

Social, patriotic, artistic and philanthropic associations owe much to her. It was Madame Taschereau who organized the first Tag Day in Quebec for the purpose of establishing the Anti-Tuberculosis League. She also directed the raising of funds for the benefit of Laval Hospital and to help tubercular children.

When the War came her charitable activities were redoubled and she was untiring in assisting wounded soldiers, prisoners and orphans of the War, the Belgian, French and Serbian people; and in promoting the work of the Red Cross.

After the War, this untiring philanthropic lady got up the first sale of poppies on the 11th of November, the anniversary of the Armistice; and for four years she continued by this means to provide thousands of dollars for the Veterans of the Great War, the Soldiers' Wives League, the Army and Navy Veterans, the Red Cross, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and the Société Française de Bienfaisance.

In acknowledgment of her splendid work Madame Taschereau has received from the Serbian Government the Serbian Cross of Mercy.

Her home at 187 Grande Allée is famous for its generous hospitality; and she spends the summer at her country home at Pointe de la Rivière du Loup, where reigns the same domestic spirit and genial cordiality.

MRS. R. O. SWEEZEY
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

THE daughter (Harriet Whitcombe) of Professor John Watson and Margaret Paterson Mitchell, of Glasgow, Scotland, Mrs. R. O. Sweezey is a first-generation Canadian, having been born in Kingston, Ontario. Her parents came to Canada in 1872 upon her father's appointment to Queen's University, of which he was later the distinguished Vice-Principal and Professor Emeritus of Moral Philosophy. Professor Watson, M.A., LL.D., Litt.D., D.D., has an international reputation as a philosopher and has been a prolific writer on Idealistic Philosophy.

Mrs. Sweezey was educated at the Kingston Public School, Kingston Collegiate Institute and is an Arts

Graduate of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont.

In 1911, on April 27th, she was married to Robert Oliver Sweezey, B.Sc., M.E.I.C., who was born at Three Rivers, Quebec. Mr. Sweezey is President of the firm of Newman, Sweezey & Co., Ltd., Investment Bankers, Montreal; President of the Beauharnois Power Corporation; and a Director of a number of prominent public companies. The Dominion's greatest power project, the Beauharnois Power Development, was conceived and promoted by him.

Margaret, Eleanor, Robert and David are their four children.

Particularly interested in the question of higher education for women, Mrs. Sweezey works hard towards the furtherance of this object; while she is a generous supporter of general charities. She is the present President of the Queen's Alumnae Association of Kingston.

That she has a form of recreation which she takes seriously and at which she is expert is witnessed by the fact that her paintings have been on exhibition at several of the Exhibitions held by the Women's Art Society.

Her Clubs are: Women's Canadian, University Women's, Mount Royal Tennis, Royal Montreal Golf, Montreal Squash and Badminton, Women's Art Society; and both the Queen's and McGill Alumnae Associations.

Home address: 48 Belvedere Road, Westmount.

MISS GERTRUDE TATE
TORONTO, ONT.

THAT all the avenues of business activity are fully open to the women of the Dominion is witnessed by the entry, with complete success, of Miss Gertrude Tate into the Real Estate field. Since 1922 she has been established as a Real Estate Broker in the city of Toronto; and has gained a reputation both for sound judgment and for her ability as a reliable negotiator. Her record during the Great War made plain her possession of conspicuous organizing and administrative ability and earned a "mention" in Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's despatches dated November 7th, 1917. In a voluntary capacity she was, from 1915 to 1919, Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Convalescent Home for Officers, first at Dieppe and then at Deauville. On her return from France Miss Tate acted, during 1920-1922, as Secretary for Toronto of the Social Hygiene Council. Before her war services she had assisted in the establishment of the West End Creche in Toronto.

Miss Tate, who was born in Montreal, P.Q., is the daughter of the late Thomas Fielding Tate, Banker, and Emily Susannah Boswell (deceased). Her grandfather, Francis Blackburn Tate, M.A. (Cambridge) was Vicar of Charing, Kent, England; and it was during a temporary residence in Liege, Belgium, that his son Thomas Fielding was born in that city. Her great-grandfather, Canon James Tate, M.A. (Cambridge) was Headmaster of the famous Richmond Grammar School in Yorkshire, England, in 1796; and became, in 1836, Canon Residentiary of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, England.

On her maternal side Miss Gertrude Tate's grandfather was George Morse Jukes Boswell, Judge of the County Court of the united Counties of Northumberland and Durham, with seat at Cobourg, Ontario, from 1853 to 1882. From 1841 to 1844 he was a member of the first Parliament of Upper Canada. He died in 1889 at the age of 84. Her great-great-uncle, Captain Walter Boswell, R.N., in 1819 christened Cobourg, Ontario, after the Sailor Prince of the day; and was one of the founders, in 1818, of St. Peter's Church there. He was also a member of the Legislative Council from January 31st, 1831, until the Union of 1841. Later he was Warden of the Council of the District of Newcastle during the period 1842 to 1845. Her uncle, Arthur Radcliffe Boswell, K.C., was Mayor of Toronto, 1883-1884; and Commodore of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club from 1878 to 1883 and from 1889 to 1896. The Boswells, who settled in Canada in the early days of the nineteenth century, are descendants of the Boswell family of Balmuto, Scotland, whose members have a distinguished record as officers in the Royal Marines and Navy of Great Britain as well as in the legal profession.

Address: 9 Lowther Avenue, Toronto.

MRS. J. C. TORY
HALIFAX, N.S.

CANSO, the birthplace of Mrs. J. C. Tory, is one of the most historic places in the Province of Nova Scotia. For a century and a half, prior to 1763, it was the ground upon which took place the most violent conflicts between the French and the English.

John W. Whitman, Mrs. Tory's great-grandfather, came from New England to Annapolis in the middle of the eighteenth century. Abram Whitman, his son, was born in Annapolis in 1761. He moved to Canso in 1812, where he founded the firm of Abram Whitman. Mrs. Tory's father, Abram N. Whitman, succeeded to the business and the firm is still in active operation under the name of A. N. Whitman & Son, Limited.

For over one hundred years the Whitman family has been the centre of the business and social life of the community.

Caroline Emma Whitman was born on July 14th, 1856; and married James Cranswick Tory on September 6th, 1894.

Mrs. Tory has inherited the outstanding characteristics of the Whitman family—hospitality and kindness. Never a woman keeps the law of kindness better than she. Her tongue speaks no ill; and her hands are always ready to do a kindly deed. Her name will be enshrined forever in the hearts of the many—the poor, the sick and the lonely—whom she has helped and cheered on life's journey.

His Honour the Honourable James Cranswick Tory, LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, was born at Guysboro County, Nova Scotia, on October 24th, 1862, the son of Robert Kirk Tory and Anorah Ferguson. He was educated at Guysboro Academy, Wesleyan Theological College and McGill University, Montreal.

His business career, which has been consistently a brilliant one, was begun with A. J. O. Maguire & Company, Guysboro, N.S. Later he joined the firm of A. N. Whitman & Son, of Canso, N.S., and was with them from 1885 to 1891. He then became Special Representative of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada in the West Indies; and in the following year (1892) was made Superintendent. In 1895 he was appointed Manager for Michigan, with headquarters at Detroit. Two years later he became Superintendent of Agencies at the Montreal Head Office. In 1901 he was made General Manager, Western Foreign Department, which appointment he held until 1915 when he became General Manager of Agencies.

In 1911 he was elected to the Nova Scotia Legislature as representative of Guysboro County; and was re-elected in 1916 and 1920. He was appointed Minister without portfolio in 1921 and again in 1923.

On October 1st, 1925, he was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia.

Residence: Government House, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

MRS. BENJAMIN TOOKE
MONTREAL, QUE.

WHEN THE Great War broke out, Mrs. Benjamin Tooke, with her husband, was spending the summer at Kennebunk Beach, on the Maine Coast. They motored up immediately to their home in Montreal and, two days afterwards, found Mrs. Tooke immersed in war work. The Red Cross was started. Mrs. Tooke had charge of all surgical dressings shipped overseas, a position for which she was specially fitted by reason of her training, she being a graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital, of Montreal. After the signing of the Armistice, Mrs. Tooke accepted a commission from the Red Cross to go to Portland, Maine, in charge of a group of women whose work was to meet the hospital ships as they came in with their sick and wounded soldiers. A supply station was established on the wharf and here the men could obtain every comfort and necessity for their various wants before they went their respective ways. This work lasted for a year.

After those strenuous days, Mrs. Tooke spent some years abroad. She is very fond of travelling and the study of languages is one of her special hobbies. A lover of art in every form, she has a very decided talent for painting and finds subjects for her brush at every turn. She is a member of the Women's Canadian Club and of the Themis Club.

Mrs. Tooke was born in Montreal, the daughter of John McMillan Kirk, whose wife was Isabella Nickel of Kingston, Ontario. Their daughter was educated in Montreal at Miss Lauder's School and at Berthier-en-haut. Her marriage took place April 16, 1912.

LADY VAN HOOGENHOUCK
TULLEKEN
TORONTO, ONT.

FRANCES LILLIAN, only daughter of John Sifton Dignam and Mary Ella Williams, was born at London, Ontario, on December 29th, 1880. She was educated at the Toronto Model School, Harbord Collegiate and the University of Toronto. In 1901 she was married to Jonkheer Jean Alexandre van Hoogenhouck Tulleken; and of the marriage there have been two children: Rodolphe John (born at The Hague in 1907) and Mary Ella Louise, born in 1909

During her residence of twenty-one years in Holland, Lady von Hoogenhouck Tulleken was particularly interested and active in social and educational questions. She was responsible for the organi- zation and working of the first Infant Welfare Society in the southern province of Holland; also for the establishment of the first Well Baby clinic in that district in 1912. She was a member of the executive of a number of other organizations of a like nature; and was responsible, during the War, for special relief measures instituted on behalf of refugees and families of mobilized soldiers.

Since her return to Canada in 1922 she has become actively engaged in the literary, artistic and social life of Toronto; and has both written and lectured throughout the country of the subject of Holland; also on art and immigration. She is an officer and member of the Executive of the Lyceum Women's Art Association; and a member of the Educational Committee of the Toronto branch of the League of Nations Society. She attended in 1930 the International Quinquennial of the Council of Women, held in Vienna, as delegate from the National Council of Women of Canada; and also as a member of the Committee on Arts and Letters of the Canadian Council. She contributed an article on "English, Scotch and Welsh Handicrafts in Canada" for inclusion in "Handicrafts in Canada" published by the Canadian Guild of Handicraft, of Montreal.

Sir John van Hoogenhouck Tulleken, who is a retired officer of the Queen's Guards, is the fourteenth holder of the baronetcy (which was created in 1414), and is a descendant of two of the oldest and most distinguished Dutch families. His father was Colonel Sir Rodolphe van Hoogenhouck Tulleken; his mother Marie Louise de Bruyn, daughter of His Excellency Hendrik de Bruyn (Minister of Public Works) and the Marquise Hamar de la Bretonniere. His great-grandfather, Vice-Admiral van Hoogenhouck Tulleken, married Lady Anna Rolston, of Bolton, England.

Residence: Plymbridge Road, York Mills, Toronto.

MRS. JOHN TURNBULL
MONTREAL, QUE.

MRS. JOHN TURNBULL, who came to live in Montreal on the occasion of her marriage in 1882, has done extensive work for the social welfare of the community. Her greatest interest has been in the Protestant Industrial Home, whose operations have been of the utmost importance in the city of Montreal. She was also the first President and one of the organizers of the Julia Drummond Hostel for Girls.

During the Great War she was in charge of the home work of the 73rd Battalion Royal Highlanders of Canada. She was Dominion Treasurer of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild, a work in which Her Majesty is much interested. For her endeavours in this connection she received the Badge of Service, with five bars. Mrs. Turnbull was the second President of the Ladies' Branch of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, and took a large part in designing and organizing their quarters at Dixie. She is a beneficent supporter of all charitable objects and takes an active interest in the work of St. George's Church.

Mrs. Turnbull is the daughter of the late John Harvard Castle and Antoinette Arnold, of Rochester, N.Y. Her father, who played a noteworthy part in the development of the Baptist Church in Toronto, was also one of the founders of McMaster University and its first Principal.

Mr. John Turnbull, who died in 1924, was a member of a very old and historic Scotch family. He was President of the Paton Manufacturing Company, of Sherbrooke, and a life-long business associate of the late Lord Mount Stephen and an executor of his will.

Mrs. Turnbull's children are: Harvard; Kenneth (who made the supreme sacrifice in France at the head of his Company of the 73rd Battalion Royal Highlanders of Canada); and Laura, who is a landscape architect.

Residence: 3501 Peel Street, Montreal.

MRS. C. B. WAAGEN
OTTAWA, ONT.

A true Canadian by birth and spirit Mrs. Carsten B. Waagen is known and beloved by many people in the public life of Alberta, Ontario, and Quebec. Her native city is Montreal. She was born there, the daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of the late Sir Joseph Hickson (of the Grand Trunk Railway) and Catherine Dow, the daughter of Andrew Dow, of Montreal. She was educated privately in Montreal and at college in Eastbourne, England.

On June 1st, 1912, she was married to Carsten B. Waagen, of Oslo, Norway, the son of a banker of that city. His mother was a member of an old baronial family of Denmark which had settled in the district of Foymland. After a year of residence in Montreal Mr. and Mrs. Waagen removed to Calgary where the former died on October 21st, 1919.

At the outbreak of War Mrs. Waagen became voluntary Superintendent of Red Cross supplies for the Province of Alberta, with headquarters at Calgary. Later she was appointed First Vice-President of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross, taking charge of the reorganization of the Red Cross for peace work throughout Alberta.

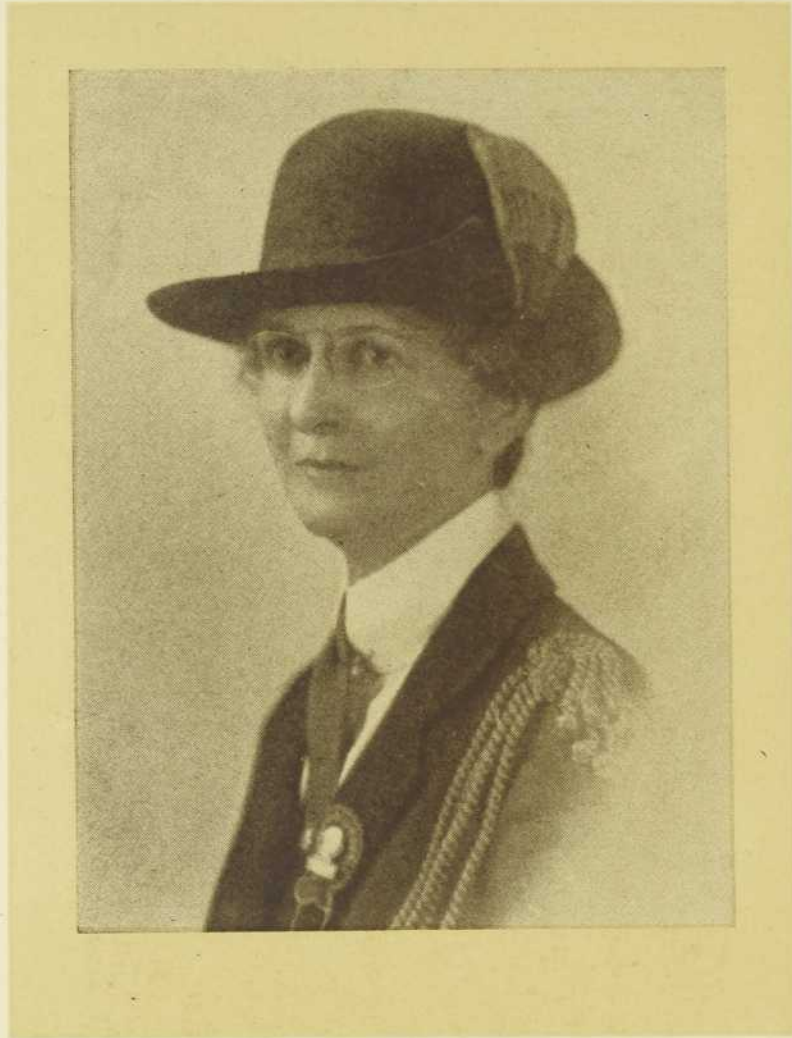

Returning to the East in 1926 Mrs. Waagen (who now resides at 251 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa) still continues her association with Red Cross peace-time work as a member of the National Executive of the Central Council of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Her contributions to Canadian literature have been important. In 1926 her book, "The Wayside Cross" won the Athanase David Prize for Literature. Her other published works include: "Madame's Janvier's Church", "The Call of God", "The Return of Francois"; as well as many poems, short stories, articles and booklets.

In a very busy life Mrs. Waagen has found the time for solid work in the interests of the Conservative party; also in various forms of social welfare endeavour.

She is a member of the following clubs: Canadian Authors', Montreal P.E.N., Canadian Women's Press, Ottawa Women's Conservative Association, Women's Canadian, Ottawa Social Workers' and the Canadian Handicraft Guild.

MRS. H. D. WARREN
TORONTO, ONT.

CANADIAN Girl Guides have in their Chief Commissioner, Mrs. H. D. Warren, a leader whose greatest concern is in the welfare of each individual member of what she calls her "Guide family"—now numbering 30,000 girls from coast to coast. For a number of years she was a member of the Executive of the Canadian Girl Guides Association and on the resignation of its first Commissioner, Lady Pellatt in 1921, was appointed to succeed her.

This appointment she still holds and is carrying out her duties with the utmost enthusiasm and ability. She is also a member of the World Committee of the Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

In 1929 she accepted an official invitation to be present at the coming-of-age Boy Scout Jamboree held at Birkenhead, England, which was attended by many representatives of the Girl Guide Movement.

In addition to her intensive Girl Guide work, Mrs. Warren is President of the Board of Directors of the Emergency Workroom of the Patriotic League, of which League she was one of the Founders in 1914. She is also deeply interested in immigration questions; especially as relating to the welcome afforded to newly-arrived girls. She is active in her work on the Committee of the Canadian Women's Hostel for Ontario in Toronto; and as a member of the Board of Governors of the Royal Ontario Museum and of "The Grange". Mrs. Warren is also a Life Patron of the Lyceum Women's Art Association.

Mrs. Warren was married to Harry Dorman Warren on June 17th, 1885, and of the marriage there have been five children. Captain Turnbull Warren, the eldest son, was killed at Ypres on April 20th, 1915, while serving with the 48th Highlanders. The other sons are: Harold D. and Frederic A. Her two daughters are married: Helen H. to Charles S. Band, of Toronto, and Carolyn to Grant H. Pepler, of Toronto.

Her Clubs are: Toronto Golf, Ladies' and Women's Musical.

Residence: "Red Gables", Wellesley Street, Toronto.

MRS. ROBERT WATSON
WINNIPEG, MAN.

FOR fifty years Portage la Prairie was the city in which Mrs. Robert Watson lived and during that time she entered wholeheartedly into the various phases of its life. She participated freely in its Church work; and supported generously its benevolent and charitable movements; and was always interested in her husband's long and useful political life. Although she is now resident in Winnipeg Mrs. Watson continues to take the greatest interest in the city in which so many years of her life were spent.

Born in London, Ontario, in 1861, Isabel Brown was the daughter of Duncan Brown and Janet Gray, both of whom came from Scotland. She was educated in London and when still a girl went to Portage la Prairie to live at the Presbyterian Manse with her sister, who was the wife of Rev. Allan Bell. On July 15th, 1880, her marriage took place to Robert Watson. Her husband, who was born at Elora, Ontario, on April 30th, 1853, was the son of George Watson, who came from Edinburgh to Canada in 1847, and Elizabeth McDonald, of Ivernessshire, Scotland. There were five children of the marriage. The only son, Robert Wilfrid, who served in the Royal Air Force, died in 1923. The four daughters are married: Elizabeth to Arthur Swinford, of Winnipeg; Florence to Dr. Robert Ollerenshaw, of Manchester, England; Alice to W. H. Barker, of Chicago, Ill., U.S.A.; and Frances to Hilton McGregor, of Brandon, Manitoba.

The Honourable Robert Watson, who died on May 19th, 1929, was one of the leading spirits in the development of the West. Allied to a keen business acumen were statesmanlike qualities of the highest order so that his parliamentary record was one of veritable merit. He was first elected to the Dominion House of Commons as a Liberal for Marquette at the General Election of 1882, which constituency he continued to represent until 1891, when he resigned to take up the portfolio of Minister of Public Works in the Greenway administration. From 1892 to 1899 he was a member of the Government of Manitoba. On January 29th, 1900, he was summoned to the Senate, by whom he was selected to attend the Coronation of King George Vth in 1911. On the occasion of this trip to London he was accompanied by his wife and two daughters. Unquestionably the vision of the late Senator has been of the greatest possible service to the Province of Manitoba to the furtherance of whose interests he unreservedly placed his great talent.

Mrs. Watson, whose chief recreation is travelling, is now residing at 728 Dorchester Avenue, Winnipeg.

MRS. LORNE C. WEBSTER
WESTMOUNT, QUE.

MRS. LORNE C. WEBSTER was born at Gananoque, Ontario, the daughter of Charles Wesley Taylor (of Irish descent), and Harriet E. Fairman, of Pittsburg, Ontario. Her grandfather, Warren Fairman, was an United Empire Loyalist and an early settler in Ontario. Her father was President of the Canada Carriage Company, and a prominent citizen of Gananoque and Brockville. The late Honourable George Taylor, her uncle, was for thirty years Conservative Member of Parliament for Leeds (Ontario) and was Whip under five Prime Ministers. Subsequently he was appointed to the Senate.

She was married at Gananoque on March 20th,

1901, to Lorne C. Webster, of Quebec City, the son of A. D. Webster, of Glasgow, Scotland, and Jean McLerie, of Paisley, Scotland.

Of the marriage there are six children; Colin W., who married Jean Frosst, of Montreal; Lorne Stuart, R. Howard, Richard C., Marian Isabel and Eric Taylor.

The Honourable Lorne C. Webster was appointed to the Senate for the Stadacona Division on January 19th, 1920. He is President of The Canadian Import Company, and a Director of a number of important public companies, among which are: Sun Life Assurance Company, Montreal Tramways Company, Canadian Car & Foundry Co. Limited, and other well-known industrial companies.

While Mrs. Webster has refrained from taking any executive office in the various organizations, political and social, of which she is a member, she has been a generous supporter of their objects, and has contributed in no small way to the success they have attained. Her chief interests have been in the work of the Young Women's Christian Association and the Missionary activities of the United Church of Canada. She is Honorary President of the Westmount Branch of the Women's Conservative Association.

Residence: 7 Edgehill Road, Westmount, P.Q.

MRS.
WILLIAM ROBERT WEBSTER
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

BORN at Derby Line, Vermont, Mary Ellen Jane Shorey, daughter of John and Ellen Shorey. She was educated in private schools in Montreal; married in 1878 to William Robert Webster, one of Sherbrooke's prominent business men. Died August 6th, 1928. There are five sons and five daughters.

It was in the profession of wife and mother that Mrs. Webster spent the greater part of her life; rather than in the sphere of public service, and her gracious influence in her home impressed all who came in contact with her. To her children and grandchildren she leaves a beautiful heritage.

A TRIBUTE

"A life that glorified the name of Mother; her home was her kingdom and she held sway within it as only a true home-loving woman can, and as is the case with such women her sympathies went out to those who had to face life's adversities and sorrows. Many bless her memory for her lovely deeds of unostentatious kindness. She fulfilled in many ways that beautiful description of noble womanhood given by Tennyson in 'The Princess'.

'Not learned, save one in gracious household ways,
Not perfect, nay, but full of tender wants;
No angel, but a dearer being, all dipt
In angel instincts, breathing Paradise,—'

"As a deeply devoted wife and mother, a charming and gracious lady, a true and helpful friend, to many Mrs. Webster exemplified that type of womanhood without which the world would be poor indeed."

MRS. W. WELLER
TORONTO, ONT.

MRS. W. WELLER is devoted to the furtherance of all movements concerned with the development of a study of literature and art, especially of the Dominion. Herself an authoress, her first novel "Wings of the Spirit" was published some years ago. Presently she is engaged on the compilation of the biographies of all Canadian writers, past and present. As Convener of Arts and Letters of the Toronto Local Council of Women she has done very commendable work. She organized, under the auspices of the National Council of Women, the booth at the Canadian National Exhibition, 1930, at which was exhibited a collection of Canadiana, and short biographies of Canadian writers.

Mrs. Weller is also engaged upon important research work regarding the arts and handicrafts of the native races of the Dominion.

She is a Life Member of the National Council of Women, as well as the Lyceum Women's Art Association; and has for years been on the Executive of the Lyceum Women's Art Association. Her other clubs are: Women's Musical, Granite, Lake Shore Golf and Country. She is a regular member of the Canadian Authors' Association.

Mrs. Weller is fond of outdoor sports, particularly riding and golfing; and is an expert swimmer, holding the silver as well as the bronze medallion awarded by the Royal Life Saving Society of England.

Born and educated in England she has lived for more than thirty years in Canada. Her maiden name was Evelyn Louise Gowan. She married, on December 18th, 1905, William Weller, a well-known Toronto business man; and of the marriage there is one daughter, Evelyn, who is married to Theodore P. Keast, of Toronto.

Residence: 231 Rusholme Road, Toronto, Ontario.

MRS. PETER WHELEN,
OTTAWA, ONT.

DURING a period of forty-five years Mrs. Peter Whelen has been engaged in public-spirited work and has been a pioneer in a number of social welfare bodies. She was a member of the Organization Committee of the Ottawa Local Council, in affiliation with the National Council of Women of Canada. She is a Life Member of both the Local and National Councils and, in addition, Vice-President of the former. In 1892 she was one of the organizers of the Ottawa Y.W.C.A., and is still on the Board; and is also a Life Member. She took part in the organization meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses of Canada; of which she is a Life Member and for many years was an active worker of the Ottawa Branch.

To the Ladies' Aid Societies of the Methodist Church in Canada she has given her keenest support, and was a President for eighteen years. In 1916, she organized the Ottawa District, Methodist Ladies' Aid Association, a grouping of all the Methodist Ladies' Aid Societies of the district. Mrs. Whelen has been an enthusiastic horticulturalist all her life.

The daughter, Lydia M., of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hume, she was born on April 21st, 1862, at Lachute, P.Q.; and was educated at Ottawa.

It was in this city that her marriage to Peter Whelen took place on June 24th, 1880. Of this marriage there have been eight children; five sons and three daughters. The latter are all married and are now Mrs. Inez Whelen Shepard, Mrs. Roderick Colin McDonald and Mrs. Kenner C. Jepson. Two of her sons are deceased; Hume and Loten. Those living are Captain Otis, Morland and Peter.

Mrs. Whelen is a Charter Member of the Chelsea Club.

Her residence is at 260 Somerset Street, Ottawa.

MISS EVA MATHESON WHITE
SHERBROOKE, QUE.

ONE of the most representative women of the Eastern Townships was Miss Eva Matheson White, daughter of the Honourable William White, Judge of the Superior Court of St Francis District, and his wife, Mary Dickinson. A native daughter of the city of Sherbrooke, Miss White spent her girlhood days there, receiving her education through private tuition and at the Church School founded by His Grace Archbishop Thornloe while Rector of St. Peter's Church (Anglican). Later Miss White attended lectures at the Sorbonne, Paris, and travelled extensively in Europe and Canada.

Miss White was for several years Honorary Secretary for the Sherbrooke Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses and for the Child Welfare Clinic; also Honorary Secretary for the Canadian Red Cross Society (Sherbrooke Branch) from 1914 to 1920. In the latter year she was elected President of the Red Cross Society and served in that office until her death, which resulted from an automobile accident while wintering in the Barbados in 1927.

Always devoted to the social and artistic growth and welfare of her home city and deeply interested in patriotic and social service activities, Miss White's influence was of the best. She gave freely of her time and talent in furthering the work that was so near her heart and the memory of her good deeds and splendid influence will be a lasting one. Through her keen interest and influence the Junior Red Cross work in Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships was organized during the early part of the Great War, and proved a worthy outcome of her thought and practical assistance.

Devoted to her father during his declining years, Miss White still gave generously of her time and interest on behalf of her fellow-citizens; and their home "Seaton Place" was ever open to those needing counsel and assistance.

Miss White was a member of one of the prominent families of Quebec Province. Mr. Justice Charles D. White, present Judge of the Superior Court at Sherbrooke, is her brother; as was also the late Frank White, of Ottawa.

MRS. W. L. WILKINSON
NIAGARA FALLS, ONT.

MRS. W. L. WILKINSON within the last twelve years has been a fluent contributor of poems to the North American press and magazines. In 1928 was published a selection from these in a volume entitled "Poems that Appeal" which was dedicated to the soldiers of the Allied Armies who fought and fell in the Great War. In 1929 one of her poems was included in an anthology of American poets, published by the Stratford Company, of Boston, U.S.A. She is also the authoress of a number of stories and articles.

She has taken an active part in social welfare work; and for fourteen years served on the Board of the Niagara Falls Hospital Auxiliary.

Caroline Eleanor Carter was born in Toronto, Ontario, on May 31st, 1864, the daughter of Richard Moore Carter, of Kingston-on-Thames, England; and Anne Baily, of Kent, England. She was named Caroline after her aunt, a famous Victorian beauty, whose portrait was included in the "Book of Beauties" compiled by Countess Blessington.

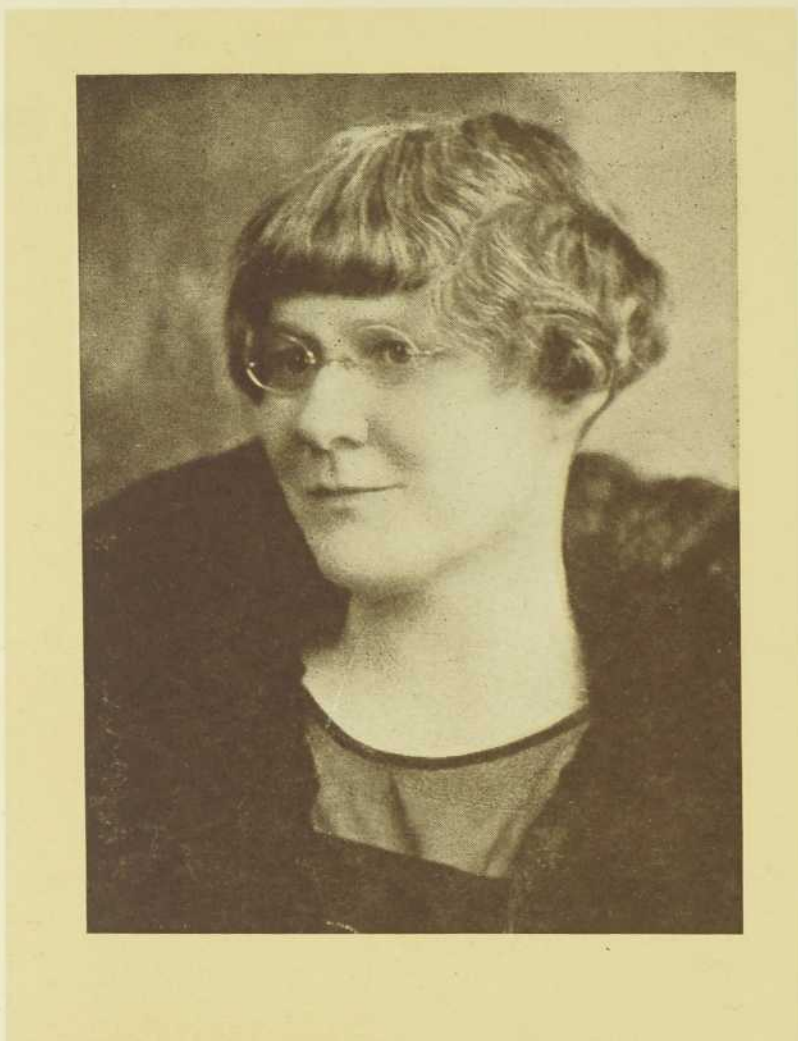

She was married on October 9th, 1899, to William Lackie Wilkinson who was born in Ottawa on September 10th, 1864, son of George Wilkinson and Sarah Lackie. Of the marriage there is one daughter; Doris Rosalind, who is married to Earl Albert Thomas, who served overseas in the Air Force during the Great War. Her two children are Caroline Arleen Mary and Earl Ronald.

Mr. William L. Wilkinson, who is an Alderman, has been prominent in civic affairs; and for the past eight years has been a member of the Municipal Council. He is a member of the Executive of the Ontario Municipal Association, a Director of the Niagara Falls and Ontario Horticultural Societies; and was formerly Secretary of the Niagara Falls Housing Commission.

Mrs. Wilkinson, who is included in "Who's Who among North American Authors", is a member of the Canadian Authors' Association and of the Gamaliel Club.

Residence: 2004 Culp Street, Niagara Falls.

HELEN ERNESTINE WILLIAMS
KNOWLTON, QUE.

HELEN ERNESTINE WILLIAMS was born at "Sunnylea", Knowlton, the home where she now lives with her father, Henry Ernest Williams, of United Loyalist descent. Her mother, who died in 1923, was formerly Clara J. Stevens, daughter of Senator G. G. Stevens, vice-president of the Eastern Townships Bank, a brother of whom, Colonel John Stevens, is known as the founder of Minneapolis.

Educated at Knowlton Academy and at Dun- ham Ladies' College, Miss Williams early turned her attention to literature, a field in which both her elder sister, Mrs. John Colby (wife of Dr. Colby of Stanstead), and her brother, Harry S. Williams, B.A., B.C.L., a graduate of McGill University, had established themselves before their premature deaths.

One of Miss Williams' books, "Spinning-Wheels and Homespun," published in 1923, descriptive of Canadian pioneer life, folklore and scenery, was awarded a prize for literary merit by the Quebec Government. She is also the author of "Soloing in Europe; the Diary of a Canadian Girl Abroad", and of numerous short stories. She is a member of the Canadian Authors' Association. In religion she is an Anglican, and during the war gave helpful service to the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire.

A lover of the outdoor life, fond of walking and canoeing, the exquisite country in the neighbourhood of her home is a source of perpetual delight to Miss Williams, who nevertheless enjoys equally any journey that she takes beyond its quiet borders. In 1925, she travelled extensively through Europe.

Address: "Sunnylea", Knowlton, Quebec.

LADY WILLIAMS-TAYLOR
MONTREAL, QUE.

FEW Canadian women have established such an international reputation as Lady Williams-Taylor. In London, Paris, New York she has a wide circle of friends who look forward keenly to her periodical visits to resume a contact with a vivacious and charming personality. Full, indeed, has been her life for she has accompanied Sir Frederick when he has been holding his important appointments during his brilliant career with the Bank of Montreal, of which he is now Vice-President and Director.

During the War she was active in the work of many War charities. She was the first President of Queen

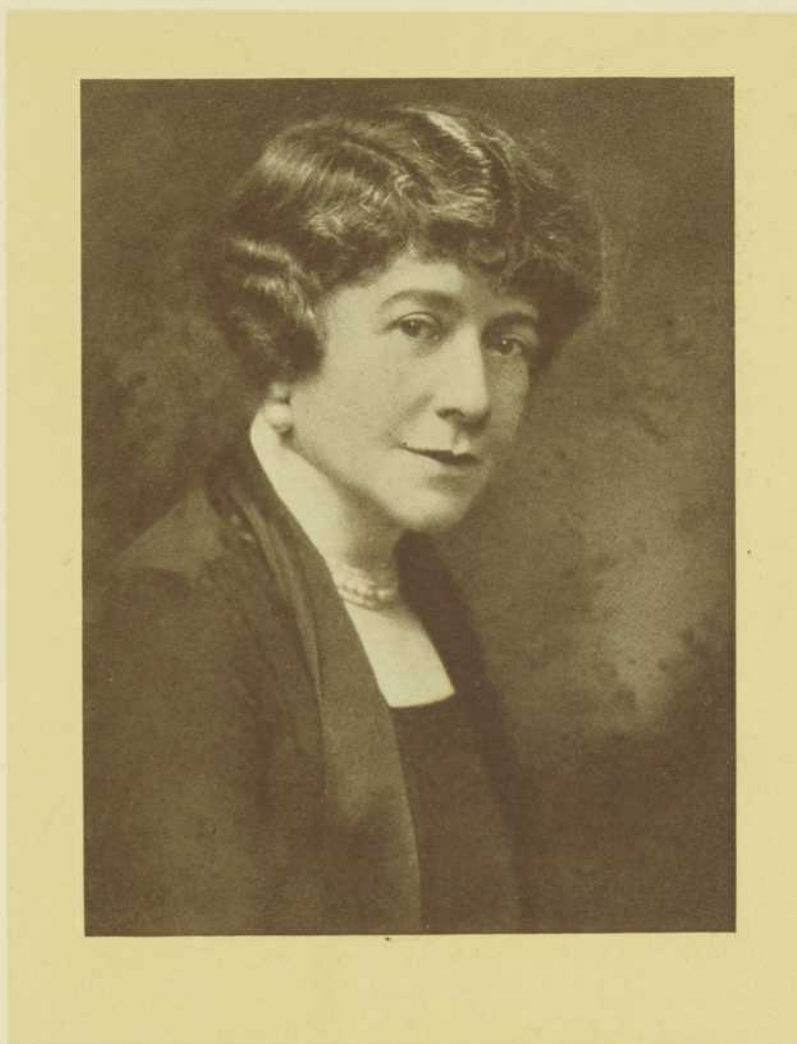

Mary's Needlework Guild of Canada, President of "L'Aide à la France" member of the committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society. She was Vice-President of the Navy League and President of the Disabled Soldiers' Employment Society. At the close of the War the French Government conferred upon her the decoration of the Order of "Reconnaissance Francaise" 1st Class; while she was the recipient of the Serbian Order of St. Sava and the Red Cross Medal of Czecho-Slovakia. Lady Williams-Taylor is Honorary President of the Montreal Women's Press Club and the Matinee Musical Society. In 1911 she was Vice-President of the Tariff Reform League for East Berkshire, England.

Some notable Canadian short stories have come from her pen as well as articles on Canada's progress. While resident in England she gave a number of addresses on the subject of the Dominion and its development.

Born at Ste. Hyacinthe, P.Q., she was the daughter, Jane, of the late Joshua Henshaw, Esq. Her marriage to Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor took place in 1888. Her daughter is Mrs. Frederic Watriss, of New York. Her only son, Captain Travers Williams-Taylor, 13th Hussars, died while on service in the Sudan in 1925.

Lady Williams-Taylor was presented at the Court of St. James in 1907 and again in 1911.

In Montreal her residence is at 1374 Pine Avenue West. She has also a place "The Wave", at Nassau, Bahama Islands.

MRS. E. W. WILSON
MONTREAL, QUE.

THE Bricker family, of which Mrs. Wilson is a member, were Quakers who came from Europe to Pennsylvania in the early days of that State; and the town of Brickerville there is named after them. In 1797 they moved north to Canada and settled in the Niagara district; later settling in Waterloo County. Born in Hamilton, Ontario, Sara Etta Lamb, is the daughter of Henry Bricker, Grain Merchant, of Hamilton, Ontario, and Agnes Lamb, who was born in Galt, Ontario, of Scotch parents. Mrs. Wilson is the great-granddaughter of General Sir John Lamb, of the Indian Army.

She was married on June 1st, 1887, at Montreal, to Erastus William Wilson, son of James Wilson, of Oshawa, Ontario. Of the marriage there are three children: Gladys Agnes, who married Cuthbert H. Featherstonhaugh; Erastus William, who is married to Katharine Longstreet Mack, of Somerville, N.J., U.S.A., and Bradley Alexander, married to Helen Jean McIntyre, whose two children are Kathleen Pamela and Audrey Clair.

Mrs. Wilson's husband, the late Major-General E. W. Wilson, C.M.G., V.D., besides being a remarkably successful business man was a soldier of outstanding ability. Joining the Victoria Rifles as a private in 1882 he rose by sheer merit to the Command of Military District No. 4. He received his commission in the Victoria Rifles in 1892; and ultimately became Officer Commanding the Regiment with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. He was later promoted Colonel and given command of the 18th Infantry Brigade. On the outbreak of the Great War he was sent for by Lieut.-General Sir Sam Hughes to assist in the organization of the First Canadian Expeditionary Force. He later became Commandant of the Valcartier Training Camp and his work there cannot be over-estimated. In 1914 he was appointed General Officer Commanding Military District No. 4. The following year he was promoted Brigadier-General; and in 1916 was made Major-General. In 1917 he was created C.M.G. He took the greatest interest in rifle-shooting and was President of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association. In 1906 he was Commandant of the Canadian Rifle Team at Bisley, England, which won the Kholapore Cup. His work during the War in the peculiar conditions which existed in the Province of Quebec earned the unstinted recognition of both the English and French-speaking citizens.

During the arduous days of the War, Mrs. Wilson assisted her husband in the closest and most unsparing way. She was Honorary President of the Soldiers' Wives League; and it was her suggestion that a Home be created for the children of soldiers whose mothers, through sickness or other causes, were unable to take care of them. This Home was started and as many as thirty children at a time were cared for. It remained open until the return of the troops from the front.

Residence: The Chateau, Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal.

MRS. J. A. WILSON
OTTAWA, ONT.

MRS. J. A. WILSON, while devoted to her home life and family, has found the time to pursue an active participation in various forms of social endeavour. She is President of the National Council of Women in whose interests she has done outstandingly important work. She is Vice-President of the Executive of the Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, and has been associated with its Ottawa Branch since 1914. Mrs. Wilson is a Past President of the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club; while she is President of the Canadian Parks Association and President of the Ottawa League of Nations Society. She is a Charter Member of the Canadian Alpine Club. Mount Tuzo was named after her when she made the first ascent of the peak in 1906.

She was born at Victoria, B.C., the daughter, Henrietta Lætitia, of Henry A. Tuzo, M.D., and Lætitia Coxhead. Her father crossed the continent in 1853 with Sir George Simpson's party; and was associated in British Columbia with Sir James Douglas, the first Governor of the Province.

On November 14th, 1907, she married John Armitstead Wilson, of Scotch descent, who is Controller of Civil Aviation. Of the marriage there are three children: John Tuzo; Mary Lætitia and William Henry Tuzo. The eldest son had a distinguished scholastic career at Trinity College, graduating First Class and receiving the Governor-General's Silver Medal. He also won the Coleman Gold Medal in Geology, the Prince of Wales Prize and a Massey Fellowship.

Residence: 178 Rideau Terrace, Ottawa.

MADAME J. M. WILSON
MONTREAL, QUE.

*M*EMBER of one of the oldest families in the Province of Quebec, Madame Wilson is the daughter Alexina, of Cleophas Geoffrion and Eugenie Collette. She was born at Varennes, P.Q., and was educated in one of the convents of the Order, Congregation of Notre Dame.

In 1887, on January 11th, she was married to Joseph Marcellin Wilson, the son of the late John Wilson, of Ile Bizard, County of Jacques Cartier.

Of their marriage there have been seven children, the first of whom, Paul, died at the age of 15 years. All her six daughters are married. Juliette is the wife of Colonel Rupert J. Dawson and resides in Scotland. Germaine lives in Montreal, having married Reigner Brodeur, K.C., of that city. Marguerite is Mrs. Paul Emile Ostiguy, of Montreal. Marcelle became Mrs. Henry Winkworth, of London (England). Both Gertrude and Lucienne have their homes in Montreal; the former being Mrs. J. Alderic Raymond and the latter's husband is Major James Calder.

During the War, Madame Wilson served on the Committee of L'Alliance Française and participated in other charitable work.

She is a member of the Montreal Hunt Club and Laval-sur-le-Lac Golf Club. Her favourite recreation is travelling.

The Honourable J. M. Wilson is the Senator for Sorel, having been summoned to the Senate on May 3rd, 1911. From early youth he has been connected with the firm of Boivin, Wilson & Co., Ltd., of which he is the head. He is also Vice-President and Director of the Banque Canadienne Nationale and of the Canada Publishing Company.

Residence: 3501 Ontario Avenue, Montreal.

MRS. GORDON WRIGHT
ONTARIO.

THE cause of temperance in the Dominion lost its stoutest champion when Mrs. Gordon Wright passed away on June 26th, 1930. As National President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union for twenty-five years she waged an unremitting warfare against alcoholism and was the greatest of inspirations to her fellow-workers in the cause to which she devoted herself so unsparingly. It was on her return to Canada from Mission work among the coloured children of Ohio that Mrs. Gordon Wright first became associated with the work of the W.C.T.U. Her first office in the organization was as Superintendent of the Anti-Narcotics section in the London Branch. She was later asked to take over the Dominion Superintendency of the department and did so on the earnest entreaty of the Dominion President of that period, Mrs. Ella F. Williams. In 1895 she became Recording Secretary of the Provincial Union and two years later Corresponding Secretary for Ontario, which position she held until 1903 when she was elected Dominion Vice-President. In 1905 she became National President. She was appointed in 1929 one of the five women selected from all countries of the world to form an advisory council to the officary of the World's Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Despite the enthusiasm with which she worked for the W.C.T.U., Mrs. Gordon Wright did not entirely confine her energies to the furtherance of its objectives for she was also a Vice-President of both the National Council of Women and the Social Service of Canada; and was one of the Vice-Presidents of the World's League against Alcoholism. During the Great War she was First Vice-President of the Western Ontario Red Cross.

It is conceivable that Mrs. Gordon Wright would have added lustre to her country's art and literature. Before her marriage she had already won prizes for her painting and story-writing but when the call of duty came her own bents and inclinations were set aside and she went forward to perform the tasks which she held were hers to carry out in the world of social service.

Born in London Township she was the daughter, Sara Alice, of Joseph Elliott Rowell, of "The Breakings", near Carlisle, England; and Nancy Coyne Green, of Pine Grove, London Township, Ontario. The Hon. Newton W. Rowell, K.C., LL.D., of Toronto, is her brother.

She married, on June 26th, 1885, Gordon Hobson Wright, son of William John Wright, of London Township, Ontario; and Marg Hobson, of Lisburn, near Belfast, Ireland. Both Mr. Wright's parents belonged to distinguished North of Ireland Quaker families. Mr. Gordon Wright died in 1927. Of the marriage there were four children: Edward Warner; Douglas Guy Hobson; Newton Rowell; and John Gordon.

W. J. P. C.

THIS is a
MILLER
BOOK

A NOTE ON THE TYPE IN WHICH THIS BOOK IS SET

The type-face which has been used in the composition of this book is Monotype No. 20A, commonly known as "Century Expanded" and occasionally as "Harris Roman". It is a stronger face than the old style type, being proportionately larger in face and may be classed as a transitional letter between "old style" and "modern". It is a versatile type, is extremely legible and conveys little or no eye-strain.

COMPOSITION BY THE OTTAWA COMPOSITION COMPANY, LIMITED - PRESSWORK BY THE LOWE-MARTIN COMPANY, LIMITED - DUO-TONE ENGRAVINGS AND PHOTOGRAVURES BY CRABTREE LIMITED - BINDING BY JAMES HOPE & SONS LIMITED - THE PAPER IS MULTIFOLD ENAMEL MANUFACTURED BY THE ROLLAND PAPER COMPANY

Produced entirely under the supervision of H. C. Miller as a Ru-Mi-Lou Book

BNQ

C 000 073 146