CONSTITUTION OF BRITAIN IS CHINESE MODEL

Preferred to That of Japan—Western Calendar Adopted—Manchu Powers Go.

YUAN-SHIH-KAI IS NOT OPTIMISTIC

Shanghai Has Capitulated to Rebels—Thousands Slaughtered at Hankow.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Peking, November 3.—The British Constitution, with the strictest limitation of the powers of the Sovereign, has been adopted by the National Assembly as the model for China, instead of the Japanese plan, which the Government's commission favored.

An edict issued to-day takes from Prince Pu Lun and the other nobles the heretofore conferred power to frame the constitution, and places it in the hands of the Assembly.

Another innovation marking the passing of the old China will be the adoption of a western calendar.

The complete destruction of the Manchu aristocracy forms the cardinal feature of the Army and Assembly League's programme. Not content with shearing the nobility of power, the League has determined to utilize the opportunity to deprive the Manchus of all the long-established privileges which marked them the ruling class.

Additional concessions wrung from the Throne, but not yet announced by edict, include the cutting off of the queue, the ancient badge of servile loyalty to the Manchu dynasty, as forced by the conquerors; the disbandment of the "eight banners," an old Manchu military organization, long useless save on the pension rolls; that Manchus be compelled to adopt Chinese surnames, thus being completely absorbed into the Chinese population, and that the pensions paid to all Manchu families be abolished.

Since the establishment of the dynasty every Manchu from birth has drawn a monthly stipend from the Government. Often through fraud this was received by families for members long dead. This pensioning scheme was bitterly resented by the Chinese, and was one of the fundamental causes of anti-Manchuism.

The League is determined on an absolute social, as well as a political, revolution.

YUAN-SHIH-KAI'S PESSIMISTIC VIEW.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Shanghai, November 3.—Yuan Shih-Kai has privately wired to the Viceroy, Chang Jen-Chun, at Nanking, taking a pessimistic view of the situation, owing to the fact that the whole people is in sympathy with the extremists among the rebels.

Only ten thousand troops have been procured to operate, despite the numbers given out at Peking. Yuan-Shih-Kai urges the Viceroy to protect his own jurisdiction, trusting him to be capable of pacifying the rebels.

The Chinese newspapers here describe the Edict of the Throne as not worth straw, and urge the people not to turn aside until the Manchus are driven out. They violently attack Yuan-Shih-Kai as a slave of the Manchus, and say his delay in coming out was suspicious.

REBEL LEADER FIRM FOR HIS REPUBLIC.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Peking, November 3.—General Li Yuen Hung's reported refusal to discuss peace terms with Yuan-Shih-Kai except on the basis of the Emperor's abdication is regarded here to-day as sounding the death-knell of the Manchu dynasty.

General Li, the rebel commander, is said to be standing firm for the permanency of the Republic of which he recently proclaimed himself president.

Premier Yuan, either in Hankow, Wu-Chang, or their vicinity, is understood to be doing everything in his power to break down the revolutionist leader's resolution by offers of high position under the Imperial Government, but there is good authority for the current reports that he has telegraphed pessimistically to the Government concerning the probable outcome of the negotiations.

SHANGHAI ARSENAL AND CITY ARE CEDED.

Shanghai, November 3.—The arsenal and the native city of Shanghai were taken over by the revolutionists late this afternoon. No resistance was offered by the authorities or such of the public as remains loyal.

It is expected that Wun Sung, at the mouth of the Wu Sung river, ten

Italians Fit Up Torbuck as a Naval Base in the Campaign.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Milan, November 3.—Italy has fitted up Tobruck in Tripoli as a naval base. This was anticipated when the Italian Government decided upon Tobruck as one of the places at which troops should be landed. Naval operations against Turkey will be conducted from Tobruck.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Constantinople, November 3.—The newspaper Tanzimat violently attacked Mahmud Shefket Pacha, the Minister of War, to-day, despite peremptory warnings against all criticism of Ministers. In consequence, the edition was confiscated. The suspension of newspapers continues almost daily.

Berlin, November 3.—The report that all the outer forts at Tripoli are in the hands of the Turks is confirmed in well-informed circles here.

The Italians hold the forts within the city proper.

London, November 3.—The Daily Telegraph's Constantinople correspondent says that a sensation has been caused by the revelation that Hekki Bey, the ex-Grand Vizier, if impeached for neglect in the defence of Tripoli, will declare that the German Ambassador repeatedly assured him that Italy would never send a regiment or a ship to Tripoli. For that reason his Cabinet had not considered it necessary to despatch troops or war material to Tripoli.

GHASTLY SCENES AROUND TRIPOLI.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Paris, November 3.—M. Bossiera, special correspondent of the Excelsior, writing from Tripoli, gives more details of the horrors of war in Tripoli. He says:—

"We were at war, and before coming here we were prepared for the groans of the wounded and the sight of the dead, but who would have imagined that we would have to look on at a rush to assassinate at the slaughter of old men, women and children, at executions by heaps?"

Bossiera accounts scenes of which he was an eye-witness. An Arab with eyes full of vengeance muttered: "We were four brothers. Now I am alone, but I must have two Italians for each of my brothers."

While going away from the cavalry post the correspondent saw hundreds of corpses thrown against the wall where they had been shot down, in horrible attitudes. He continues:

"I hurried away to escape the sight, and passed a negro village. A native family was around a burnt-out fire where they had been about to eat. They were all dead. One little girl had thrust her head into a box so as not to see anything. Another had fallen back on a cactus bush. A small white dog was running about among the ruins, stopping every now and then to howl.

Bullets came whistling past, and I started away, to find myself near the prison hospital. The prisoners had revolted and killed the Colonel and some of the officers. Every one of them had been shot. I found bodies in the middle of the market place, within a couple of hundred yards of the Governor's palace.

"His explanation of this miserable business is that the Italians lost their heads. This sort of madness is their only excuse. They had come to Tripoli, certain of victory, in an overwhelming force, but they had found a subtle foe. They always felt the unseen presence of the Arab, hidden, soft-footed, ready with his dagger. You can read the psychology of dread in almost every eye."

On the other hand, Bossiera says that every dead body still speaks to the living Arabs, who have vowed vengeance.

"Many a mother and many a betrothed will weep before the end of this campaign," is the prophecy with which he concluded his letter.

The London Standard's Malta correspondent says all Italian correspondents giving uncensored reports of events in Tripoli to their papers by mail have been expelled by the Italian authorities and their newspapers subjected to prosecution.

ALL SOULS' DAY OBSERVED BY ARMY.

Rome, November 3.—A despatch to the Giornal d'Italia, from Tripoli, describes the observation of All Souls' Day at the Italian military camp at Bumelina. The altar was surrounded by cannon and a forest of rifles, the bayonets of which flashed back the rays of the sun. Above all waved the tricolor. The military band played the "Ave Maria," by Verdi. After the chaplains had celebrated mass each general addressed the soldiers, urging them to imitate the example of the officers and men who had won victory and honor for country by shedding their blood.

The thousands of soldiers responded with cries of "Long live Italy."

TURKISH CHIEF OF STAFF IS DEAD.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Rome, November 3.—The Tribuna states that Fethi Bey, former military attache to the Ottoman Embassy at Paris and Turkish Chief of Staff in Tripoli, was killed in the battle of October 26.

It was Fethi Bey who unmasked the traitor Ibrahim Bey, son of Hassuna Pasha, whom the Italians appointed Mayor of Tripoli. Ibrahim joined the Turkish and Arab forces, and secretly communicated the movements of the Ottoman troops to his father, who told General Caneva, the Italian commander at Tripoli, and enabled the latter to make counter-moves. Ibrahim was either shot or poisoned.

EARL GREY WILL DEVOTE HIMSELF TO WORKINGMEN

Will Give Up Ten Years to Help Forward Evolution of Worker to Partner.

NEED FOR WISE AND VIRTUOUS DEMOCRACY

To Reach Highest Standard of National Life Ever Attained by Any People.

By Special Cable from our own Correspondent.

London, November 3.—Earl Grey has disappointed those who expected him to figure prominently in Imperial politics here. He has no intention of joining the already well filled ranks of former Governors-General hanging on to the skirts of party politics. These include Lords Curzon, Milner, Lansdowne, Aberdeen, Minto, Selbourne, and Cromer.

Earl Grey means to strike out on a more profitable line of his own. He announces that he will give his next ten years to slum-land and to the helping forward of the worker in the path of his natural evolution from worker to partner.

In his speech at the banquet in his home county of Northumberland, presided over by the Duke of Northumberland, Earl Grey said that his recent experience had dispelled his fears of a few years ago, that the future of the Empire was in danger, not so much from external pressure, but because of the lack of a proper self-respecting Imperial spirit in the self-governing nations of the Empire, including the British people.

Everywhere it was now realized that a greater and better future for them all lay inside, rather than outside, the Empire.

England, the Earl declared, must see to it that she provided such an example of wise and virtuous democracy as to enable the English-speaking people of the Anglo-Celtic race to reach the highest standard of national life ever attained by any people in the world's history. He concluded by declaring that he intended to make it his life's aim to help forward that ideal.

SIR LOMER HEARS BIG DELEGATION ON TAX QUESTION

Manufacturers Ask for Amelioration of Special Corporation Tax.

HANDICAP, THEY SAY, ON MANUFACTURER

Premier Answers That Abolition Would Result in Curtailment of Service.

Pleased with the interview, if not fully satisfied with the answer given to their requests, the representatives of industrial and manufacturing interests who waited on Sir Lomer Gouin, to-day, seeking removal of the special tax on industrial corporations, left the Government offices in the best of spirits.

"Your request will be given our most serious consideration," replied Sir Lomer Gouin, in answer to the lengthy address of Lt.-Col. Smart. "It would be my greatest pleasure to tell you that it will be immediately complied with, but the pleasure of governing is increased by two other kinds of pleasure; that of meeting a most refined class of people asking that some taxes be removed and that of meeting another class of people, also most refined, asking for increased subsidies. From both sides they are swarming over the Government; for the latter class I will mention only that education, and agriculture are calling for aid and bridges, rural roads, and technical education require assistance."

Sir Lomer Gouin said that the comparison with Ontario was not fair, because the Ontario Government did not pay the administration of justice, this being done by the municipalities. The Government could not abolish the special tax without curtailing some of the grants to education or to the rural roads.

He asked the delegates if they were willing to see the abolition of the tax at the cost of poorer education, and if they were ready to return to the dark days when deficits in the Provincial Treasure were accumulating every year.

Hon. P. S. G. Mackenzie, the Provincial Treasurer, said if the tax complained of were done away with, the Government would have to curtail public services.

At the conclusion of those remarks, Dr. A. Simard, who was one of the delegates at the Chambre de Commence, declared that as far as he was concerned, he would rather stand the tax for a few years more, provided the government woulr be ready to carry on the good road policy adopted lately.

Others also spoke insisting that they were not looking for the adsolute abolition of the tax, but for a re-modelling of it, with the expectation that it would be distributed in such a way that there would be no discrimination between incorporated and non-incorporated concerns. The incorporated firms had to shoulder the whole burden of the actual tax while it could be distributed over the manufacturing people without exception.

Delegates Who Attended.

The delegates were, for the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Montreal Branch, Mr. N. Currie, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association; the Hon. A. Desjardins, president of the legislation committee of the Montreal branch; Lt.-Col. R. Gardner, and Mr. H. T. Meldrum, the Montreal secretary; for the Montreal Board of Trade: Messrs R. W. Reford, H. R. Drummond, C. B. Gordon, Lt.-Col. Jeffrey H. Burland, and Mr. Geo. Hadrill, secretary; for the Chambre de Commerce: Mr. F. C. Lariviere, Lt.-Col A. E. Labelle, Mr. Armand Chaput, and Dr. A. Simard; for the Builders' Exchange: Mayor Rutherford, of Westmount, Mr. Jos. Brunet and Mr. J. H. Lauer.

Mr. E. T. Nesbitt represented the Quebec Board of Trade; Messrs. A. E Pontbriand and F. T. Pontbriand represented the Sorel Board of Trade; Mr. A. Anger represented the Levis Board of Trade.

Dr. Finnie M.L.A., St. Lawrence; Mr. Godfroy Langlois, M.L.A., St. Louis; Mr. C. E. Gault, M.L.A. St. Antoine; Mr. M. J. Walsh, M.L.A., St. Ann's; Mr. A. Plante, M.L.A. Beauharnois were with the delegation.

The Manufacturers Side.

When the delegation had been presented, Lt.-Col. Smart came forward and addressed the Premier on behalf of the interests represented. He thanked Sir Lomer Gouin for the courteous response to the request to be heard on the subject. He said that the memorial presented represented the views of the whole body of manufacturers of the province.

The speaker then proceeded to review the industrial conditions and the development of incorporated companies dealing with the encouragement given to such oragnizations by all countries. From a policy of fiscal encouragement in favor of manufacturing corporations Quebec had for the first time departed in the Commercial Corporations' Tax Act. The burden had been accentuated, although it had been understood that the impost was intended as an emergency tax only.

It was with satisfaction that the manufacturers observed the attitude of the Government in the matter of extra licensing acts and the avoidance of the irritating policy pursued by some of the other provinces. But while manufacturing companies had been spared the inconvenience attendant upon the operation of these acts, they found themselves under a much heavier incubus in the annual tax imposed upon their capitalization.

Quebec is the only province which levies a franchise tax upon manufacturing companies.

An Anomalous Position.

Reference was made to the anomalour operation of the Act under which local manufacturing companies are subjected to a heavier proportionate burden of taxation than the branch establishments of other provinces.

Declaring that Quebec is by nature fitted to become the great industrial clearing house for Canada, Lt.-Col. Smart said that the manufacturers were prepared to accept in full their share of the burden of the cost of government.

In conclusion he said:

"I would like to submit a few figures as to what this tax means to us in dollars and cents. Take a company with a capital of $5,000,000, which in these days of big enterprises, is not reckoned as of extraordinary size. Such a company, supposing the major part of its investment and its chief offices were in this province, is asked to pay into the Provincial Treasury $5,250 every year, besides a fixed tax of $50 per annum for each place of business in the cities of Montreal and Quebec and $20 for each office or warehouse in other places. This would be the tax even is only 60 p c. of that capital were employed in this province, but it would be only $2,250 if only 40 per cent. of that capital were emplayed here. Should 60 per cent. of the capital be invested in this province and the head offices of the company be in Ontario, the annual levy would be only $3,250, as compared with $5,250.

Cost of Doing Business.

Now to compare this cost of doing business with the cost in other provinces, taking the same example of a company capitalized at $5,000,000 and under Federal Charter. First of all, of the cost of obtaining that charter, approximately $1,300. Very few of the provinces regard the Dominion Charter as being of as great a value as one issued by themselves, though a Dominion Charter should in the very nature of things be regarded as giving to company authorization to do business freely throughout Canada on a $5,000,000 company.

Ontario levies an initial licensing fee of $1,385.00, with an annual registration fee of $10, but with proportionate reduction if any part of the capital is not used in Ontario.

Manitoba an initial licensing fee of $1,000, with $10 annual registration fee.

Alberta an initial licensing fee of $700, with annual registration fee of $5.

Saskatchewan an initial licensing fee of $1,170.

British Columbia a licensing fee of $250.

New Brunswick a licensing fee of $100, renewable each year, and Nova Scotia a licensing fee of $25, renewable each year.

All these fees are very small by comparison with the levy in this province, which is moreover an annual tax.

The Memorial.

The memorial then placed in the hands of the Premier reads as follows:

The manufacturers with the other commercial interests of this province are laboring under a serious disability as compared with their competitors of the other provinces of Canada, by reason of the Quebec Commercial Corporations Tax Act, which imposes an annual levy of one-eighth of one per cent. upon the paid-up capital of every commercial and industrial corporation doing business in the province. In this act, Quebec alone of all the provinces of Canada has departed from the universally recognized policy of encouraging the formation of incorporated companies for manufacturing purposes. The manufacturer of this province is handicapped by the addition which this tax places on the cost of production of his goods, which are sold largely in competition with the goods of manufacturers of other provinces. Further, the result of the maintenance of the tax must inevitably be to discourage the estabiishment in the province of new manufacturing industries.

Tends to Discriminate.

That also, the Quebec Commercial Corporation Tax Act tends to discriminate against companies whose chief office is in this Province as compared with companies whose chief place of business is without the Province. That is to say, companies with their chief place of business without the Province pay tax only on the portion of their capital employed within the Province; while companies with their chief place of business within the province are obliged to pay on the basis of the total of paid-up capital, although a large portion of that capital may be employed in branches outside the Province. Not only does this feature of the Act constitute a discrimination against our own domestic companies; but it is an obstacle in the way of companies establishing their chief place of business in the Province and an inducement to companies already established here to move their chief place of business outside the Province.

Margin is Small.

The wide extent usually covered by the market in which a Canadian manufacturer sells his goods and the convenient facilities for transportation place the portions of Eastern Canada on a basis nearly equal from the standpoint of facility in conducting manufacturing operations and a very small margin may turn the scales against any particular locality. The other Provinces of the Dominion are vieing with each other in pressing the development of their industries; and there can be no doubt but that the maintenance of this franchise tax, added to the already heavy fiscal burdens borne by the manufacturing industry will militate against the industrial development of our Province

LATE MR. W. S. GOODHUGH.

Who made his mark in journalism and in commerce. He was for almost fifty years a resident of this city.

MR. W. S. GOODHUGH DIES.

Had Extended Career in Journalism and Commerce.

After a brief illness, Mr. W. S. Goodhugh, an old time newspaper man, died at his residence, 116 St. Famille street, at 7 o'clock last night.

Mr. Goodhugh was in his 88th year, having been born in London, England, 1824. He was granted the freedom of the city, and at one time filled various positions on the London Examiner, in which capacity he often met Charles Dickens. He also remembered the death of King George IV. and the coronation and marriage of Queen Victoria. He left England for Australia in 1848, where he became editor of the Melbourne Argus, in which capacity he continued for three years. In 1852, when gold was discovered in that country, he left newspaper work to seek his fortune in the gold fields, where he was fairly successful.

He then entered a commercial life, and came to Canada, where for almost half a century he conducted in Montreal an importing business under the name of W. S. Goodhugh and Co., from which he retired a year ago. He was a member of the Montreal Board of Trade for 48 years. In politics he was a staunch Conservative. His father was chaplain to the famous Earl of Shaftesbury.

Mr Goodhugh married twice, and is survived by a daughter and two grandsons, and a sister, who lives in England. He was a member of St. James Methodist Church.

SAULT STE. MARIE PAYS TRIBUTE TO HON. W. H. HEARST

Prominent Ontario Men Present at the Banquet in Honor of the Minister of Lands.

HINTED T. & N. O. MAY BUILD TO SOO

Speakers Unite in Predicting Great Future for New Ontario City.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., November 3.—In the presence of five hundred guests, including many prominent politicians, Sault Ste. Marie tendered a tribute to Hon W. H. Hearst last night, on the occasion of his elevation to the Ministry of Lands, Forests and Mines in the Provincial Cabinet. The speakers at the banquet included Judge Stone, Mr. Grigg, M.L.A., W. R. Smyth, M.P., Mr. A. C. Boyce, M.P.; Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary; Mr. J. L. Englehart, chairman of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway; Mr. Francis H. Clergue, founder of the Soo industries, and Mr. Thos. Gibson, one of the directors.

Judge Stone proposed the toast of "Our Guest." Mr. Hearst was warmly received as he rose to respond. In his speech he pledged himself to the advancement of the interests and the greater development of Northern Ontario. He dealt at length with the needs of transportation in the north, as the forerunner of colonization.

"Whether my years be few or many," he said, "the magnifilence of your tribute to-night will be an inspiration to always play the part of the man in my work. It will be my pleasure to administer my office in a manner which I hope will make you proud to call me a Sooite."

Mr. Hearst reviewed the situation as it was when he first came to the Soo twenty-five years ago, and paid a tribute to Mr. Francis H. Clergue, a part of whose vision of the future had already come true.

He urged the setting aside of politics and pleaded for the development of Northern Ontario, that its rich heritage might be reaped.

Hints at Another Railway.

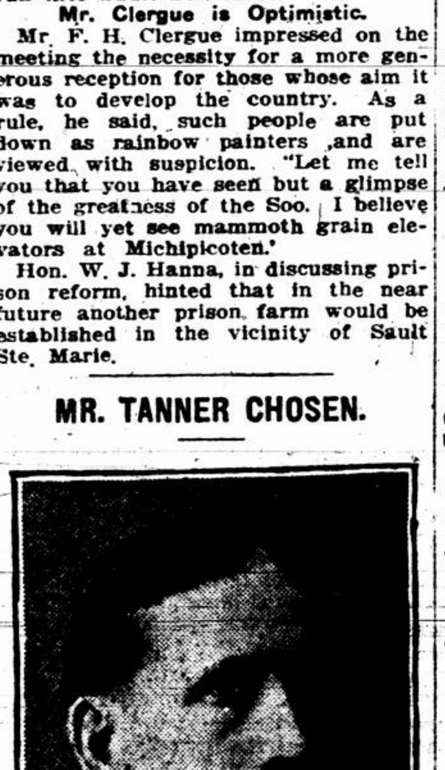
The most important announcement of the evening to the people of Algoma was that made by Mr. J. L. Englehart, who, in the course of his speech, said that it would not be twenty-five months before the first train over the lines of the T. & N. O. Railway would run into Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Clergue is Optimistic.

Mr F. H. Clergue impressed on the meeting the necessity for a more generous reception for those whose aim it was to develop the country. As a rule, he said, such people are put down as rainbow painters, and are viewed with suspicion. "Let me tell you that you have seen but a glimpse of the greatness of the Soo. I believe you will yet see mammoth grain elevators at Michipicoten.'

Hon. W. J. Hanna, in discussing prison reform, hinted that in the near future another prison farm would be established in the vicinity of Sault Ste. Marie.

MR. TANNER CHOSEN.



MR C. E. TANNER.

Halifax, N. S., November 3.—The annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Liberal-Conservative Association was very largely attended. The reports for the year were read and adopted. One resolution expressed satisfaction with the accession to power of Hon. R. L. Borden, and with the personnel of his Cabinet. A resolution felicitating the country on the appointment of the Duke of Connaught was adopted.

At a caucus of the members of the provincial Opposition in the Legislature, Mr. C. E. Tanner was chosen as leader. A resolution to this effect was adopted by the association. Mr. Tanner formally accepted the office.

JOSEF STRANSKY MAKES HIS DEBUT

As Conductor of New York Philharmonic Society's Orchestra in Carnegie Hall.

New York, November 3.—The Philharmonic Society of New York, began its seventieth season last evening in Carnegie Hall under its new conductor, Josef Stransky. This famous organization will visit Canada for the first time on January 11-12 next, when it plays in Toronto with the new Oratorio Society of that city. Last night's concert introduced not only a new conductor but also a new solo violinist, Efrem Zambalist, and what was to all intents and purposes a new composition—a violin concerto in A by Glazounow.

Mr. Stransky is a young man possessed of abundant energy and self-possession; he is a man of authority of commanding presence, possessed of clearly defined intentions which he is capable of imparting and enforcing.

The audience gave a kind welcome to Mr. Stransky on his entrance; rewarded him for his reading of Beethoven's Eighth Symphony far beyond its deserts and waxed honestly and reservedly enthusiastic after his two show pieces—Liszt's "Tasso" and the prelude to "Die Meistersinger."

New Transcontinental Line.

A prominent New York gentleman, who has made a sojourn in Canada, at the Laurentian Club, Lac-La-Peche, P.Q. in a letter addressed to Grand Trunk headquarters, says:

"I have been over the new Transcontinental Line as far as Parent, five miles from the end of steel, and thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of seeing this portion of your line. It is the same high standard of construction, through a difficult country, most of the time affording the expected comfort of travel even now. The whole territory is studded with fine lakes and rivers, and will surely open up like this at the Laurentian Club."

London, Ont., November 3. — The most destructive fire that has occurred in London in fifty years, wiped out six stores in the west end of the London business district early this morning, causing a loss estimated at $870,000, partially insured. Several hundred people are thrown out of employment.

The fire was discovered at four o'clock raging through Chapman's big dry goods store, on Dundas street, near Talbot. A high wind fanned the flames to fury, and in but a few minutes the big Purdom hardware store next door was blazing. Shortly afterwards, both buildings collapsed, and the fire then spread rapidly to the Kingsmill's dry goods store, Brewster's fancy goods, Mara's store, and R. J. Young's dry goods store.

Shortly after 6 o'clock, the firemen got control of the blaze. That the fire did not cause more destruction is due, altogether to the splendid efforts of the firemen and the great pressure furnished by the new water system.

Scores of places, many a long distance away, took fire from huge blazing pieces of dry goods and packing cases, which were blown by a strong wind, and it was only the hard work of volunteers prevented even more serious losses.

The fire was finally placed under control at Mr Young's building, this being only partiallly burned.

POLICE UNABLE TO LOCATE THE BLAZE.

Shortly before 4 o'clock a squad of night policemen were returning to the station to be relieved after the night's work. On reaching there they smelled smoke, but could see no trace of fire. Sergeant MacDonald, on Dundas street, had previously been endeavoring to locate the cause.

As Police Constable Fowler came out of the station he noticed fire issuing from the rear of Chapman's store and he at once turned in an alarm.

The brigade responded promptly, but it seemed only an instant before the whole interior of the Chapman store was a seething furnace. Flames were shooting clear across the street when the firemen arrived. Fifteen streams were turned into the blaze in very quick order and the fight for the mastery commenced.

In a few minutes the fire got into Kingmill's drygoods store and in an incredibly short time that place was in flames.

FIREMEN REMOVED POWDER AND OILS.

Fire Chief Aitken remembering that there was a lot of gunpowder and oils in the basement of the Purdon Hardware Company's building at the rear on Carling street. sent some of his men down to bring the stuff out.

Shortly after 5 o'clock the wind, which had been strong, died down and the flames began to show signs of lessening in intensity. The walls crashed down, and then the firemen had a momentary advantage. Quick to seize the opportunity they poured the big streams into the midst of the blaze, and their work began to tell. At eight o'clock nothing remained but a mass of smouldering ruins.

The Chapman, Kingsmill, Maras, and Brewster buildings were completely razed. The roomy Corbett store was gutted, and scarcely a vestige of their large stock remains. The front part of the building remains intact, however. The same is true of the Purdon Hardware Company.

The fire was the most spectacular in many years, the flames reached an enormous height, feeding upon the flimsy drygoods and other light materials.

There were many narrow escapes, but fortunately no person was seriously hurt. The falling walls were a continuous menace to the firemen.

Some of the firemen suffered numerous small cuts from broken glass, but nothing serious. A woman watching the progress of the fire in front of the Molson's Bank was seized with hysterics when the walls collapsed. Bricks bounced off the pavement into the windows opposite, smashing a score of plate glass fronts.

The street railway system was put completely out of commission for several hours. All their feed wires were cut and it was impossible to get them connected.

WILL WE DO MORE THAN TALK?

For years, Canada has played a part in world politics. There is no way in which a nation of her importance and promise could have escaped this fate. Sometimes our public men talk as if this far-reaching choice lay still before us—the choice whether or not we would enter this vast international council and take our share in the government of the globe.

We have never had a choice. Fate forced us into the arena; and the only option before us was whether we should play the part of a man or of a coward.

Our American neighbors were for a long time under the delusion that they could be in the world but not of it. They impatiently repudiated any thought of "entangling alliances" with other powers. They fought a great civil war, and then let their improvised armies melt back into the body of the people. They abstained from building a navy. They argued that, having neither an army nor a navy, they would be under no temptation to use them, and so would keep out of "the barbaric struggle for power" which bemused the minds of Europeans.

And all the while history was laughing in her sleeve. All the while, they were playing a part—and no small part—in the international game. The very potential strength of such a people made them a power to be reckoned with; and the Governments of Europe kept just as carefully off the Monroe Doctrine "preserves" in this hemisphere as if they were watched by a fleet and guarded by a ring of fortresses.

Then came the awakening. They found that they could not be indifferent to what went on in Samoa and Hawaii—nor yet in Cuba. Their commerce was on the Seven Seas, and they needed a navy. The Spanish War completed their education; and to-day a European Minister cannot make a social call in Peking without the American people wondering if a conspiracy is not being hatched against their interests.

What the Americans have well learned, the pettiest Little Canadian will come to see in time. Seven millions of progressive, wide-awake and constructive people cannot sit down on a rich half-Continent, and imagine themselves out of the currents of international life.

As a matter of fact, Canada has already struck some blows. For instance, when Britain went to war with the Kruger regime in South Africa, no one knew just what would be the attitude of Europe. The Kaiser's telegram to President Kruger was then recent history; and there existed a very nasty and dangerous feeling toward the Mother Country all over the Continent. The Entente Cordiale had not yet been born; and France was still smarting over the affair at Fashoda.

The Colonies stepped in, and made it clear that it was the entire British Empire which had gone to war. Canada sent her contingents to South Africa and thereby served notice on the Capitals of Europe that she had shouldered her share of the responsibility. What effect Colonial co-operation had, it is impossible to tell; but the fact is that Europe did not stir a finger.

So we are in. The only question is: How shall we behave? The first place in which our attitude will be tested is the field of British foreign politics, that is, the foreign politics of the Empire.

Will Canada be reckoned with the Litle Englanders; or will she take her place with the men of broad vision and high ideals?

When a question comes up in the Parliament which still guides the foreign policy of the Empire as to whether a firm stand should be taken against aggression, whether despotism should be compelled to release some feeble people, whether some outpost of Empire essential to the safety of the whole should be defended or surrendered, do we want Canada quoted as with the party of "scuttle" or with the party of courage? Shall we like to hear it said: "Throw up the sponge! The Canadians won't fight!" Or would we prefer to have these words addressed to the Little Englanders: "Get under the barn if you want to. Canada and the Colonies are with us."

We must make our choice. We cannot have it both ways. But our choice will be of precious little value, no matter how we make it, unless we are prepared to back it with deeds. Rev. Dr. Milligan, a prominent Presbyterian minister of Toronto, is just home from his annual visit to Scotland. A reporter talked with him in Toronto; and the thing which appeared to be most on his mind was the attitude of the Scottish people toward Canada. He said that, while not desiring to lay the smallest burden upon us or to influence our decision in any way, they did seem to feel that we did a lot of talking out here, but not much else.

✿ ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿

That must have been a sore message for Dr. Milligan to bring to his beloved Canada. And, by that same token, we are a trifle tired of hearing that nobody wants to lay any burden on us. Why shouldn't we bear our share of any burdens that must be borne? Are our people poorer than the crofters of Scotland that they should be taxed and we go free? Are the mechanics of Glasgow so much better off than the people of Canada that we are entitled to jingle our money in our pockets while they pay for our defence? Do Canadians emigrate to the British Isles to "better themselves," or does the stream of migration flow the other way? Do we want a collection taken up for our benefit in Whitechapel?

What is the meaning of this endless talk about our being spared the burden of our own defence? Cannot we at least do our own fighting?

The humiliating truth is that we cannot.

Not even if we go on with the cruiser programme of the late Government, will we be able to defend our own shores against attack. No navy of cruisers can defend Canada against any foe at all likely to attack her. If we built our own fleet—as is proposed—and then had to depend on it for defence, we would be far more helpless than Turkey is to-day. Turkey has some battleships and a magnificent army.

✿ ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿

Whether we like it or whether we do not, we are bound to accept "out-door relief" from the people of the British Islands. They will pay for the ships that protect our ports, guard our commerce and defend our liberties. They backed us—in effect—the other day when we dared to reject the overtures of a nation of ninety millions, and nailed our colors to the mast. Our chance of surviving at all as an independent and free nation, is entirely due to the support of the men of the United Kingdom.

Now that being so, should we continue to "do nothing" at an enormous cost; or should we spend our money in such a fashion as to bring the greatest amount of relief to the tax-payers of Britain and the most effective assistance to the British Admiralty.

In order to do our duty, it is not at all necessary to cripple our ability to build up Canada. That is the last thing that Britain would ask; and the first thing she would warn us against. She does not want us to stop building railways or developing the country. She does not even need a large gift of money.

But she does need our whole-hearted and intelligent co-operation—she does need the power to tell Europe that growing Canada is with her—she does need immediate relief from the pressure of naval taxation upon her people.

All this she would get without our being hampered to the smallest extent if we sent her "Canadian Consols" enough to pay for three Dreadnoughts and kept up the interest on the investment ourselves. She would borrow the money at home—her tax-payers would carry neither the cost nor the debt—she would build the battleships in her own yards—and they would go into the first line of battle carrying the names of Canada's provinces and as many of Canada's sons as desired to serve.

Then we should have something to cheer for when the victory was won. We should have a new Paardeberg on the sea—and not be compelled to try to look proud and happy during the war at the thought that our "brave boys" were keeping right near the commissariat carts.

Moreover, if Canada offers her Dreadnoughts on condition that Britain's navy shall be kept up to the "two-power standard," or whatever changing conditions may fairly substitute for that standard, Canada will have exerted an influence in the councils of Great Britain which she could not exert if she had fifty representatives in the British House of Commons.

VESSELS ARE MOVING.

Cardinal Canal Now in Use by Loaded Vessels.

Vessels are again moving through the Cardinal canal. The start was made at midnight, when, with the change of the wind the water in the St. Lawrence was raised eight inches, permitting the vessels and barges to proceed freely.

The Bella. of the Montreal Transportation Company, crept down the canal yesterday with the result that she touched bottom and strained her hull, admitting water and damaging 75,000 bushels of wheat.

OFF TO OTTAWA.

City Wants to Know His Highness's Intentions.

At a meeting of the Civic Reception Committee, to-day, it was decided that Lieut.-Governor Langelier, who is to visit the city on the 8th instant, should be tendered a civic reception at the City Hall.

The subject was also taken up of giving a reception to the Governor-General. It was decided to appoint Ald. Dandurand, Boyd, and Assistant City Clerk Bauset a committee to go to Ottawa and ascertain His Highness's feelings.

ELECTION PROTEST IN SOULANGES IS REGISTERED

Mr. Wilfrid Bessette Alleges Corruption by Sir Wilfrid's Agents.

Petition has been filed by Mr. Wilfrid Bessette, for the annulment of the election of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Soulangse. Mr. Bessette is acting for Mr. A. Ethier, an elector of Soulanges, and the usual allegations of corruption through agents. The petition was registered last night, and was sent immediately to the Clerk in Chancery, in Ottawa.

VANIMAN DELAYS HIS TRIAL FLIGHT

Weather Condition at Atlantic City Unfavorable for Test of the "Akron."

Atlantic City, N. J., November 3. — There is little likelihood of the Vaniman airship "Akron" making a trial flight to-day as the wind is too high. If weather conditions are favorable to-morrow Mr. Vaniman hopes to take the balloon up in the air for a test.

The huge gas bag, fully inflated, floats in the hangar in which it was built, ready to be taken out into the open and sent aloft.

Vaniman is confident that the airship will give a good account of itself and he says that if all goes well on the trial trip, preparations will be at once begun for the journey across the ocean. He hopes to land somewhere on the Irish coast.

CARDINALS-ELECT GOING TO ROME.

Rome, November 3.—Pope Pius has decided that all those to be created cardinals at the Consistory on November 29 must come to Rome to receive their red hats, except the Spanish and Austrian candidates, who, by the terms of the Concordat with their countries, must receive the red biretta through their Sovereigns.

Mgr. Stagni for Washington.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 3. — No official intimation in the matter has been received, but in Roman Catholic circles there is a disposition to credit the report from Washington that Monsignor Stagni, Papal Delegate, may be transferred to that city to replace Cardinal-elect Falconio, as head of the church in the United States. Mgr. Falconio went from Ottawa, and the precedent is likely to be followed.

WINNIPEG HEARS OF NEW CANADIAN NORTHERN HOTEL

Stated That Structure Will Cost $2,000,000—Site Opposite Union Station.

Western Associated Press Special.

Winnipeg, November 3.—An evening paper will announce to-day that the Canadian Northern has completed plans for its Winnipeg Hotel, which will cost two million dollars, and be one of the finest in Canada.

The site will be on the company's property adjacent to the new Union Station, and work will start in the spring.

Apropos of this announcement, a good deal of uncertainty continues to exist here as to whether the Hudson's Bay Company will build on the new site they bought for a large figure on Portage avenue, or whether they will still further develop the policy of enlarging the present stores which are right opposite the new Union Station.

It is no secret that Sir William Mackenzie is very much opposed to moving the Hudson's Bay stores out on to Portage, because the Hudson's Bay So., in selling the present site of the Union Station to Mackenzie and Mann, insisted that the terminals should be opposite the store.

CONTESTATION IN SOULANGES SERVED ON SIR WILFRID

Departmental Estimates are Being Rushed—Inquiry Into Trade Staff's Duties.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 3.—Papers were served upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier today in connection with the contestation of his election in the county of Soulanges. There are the usual allegations of irregularities by agents.

The entering of a protest in this case will prevent the former Prime Minister from electing as to which seat, Quebec East or Soulanges, he will sit. He will be unable to make a choice until the legal proceedings are terminated.

Most of the Cabinet Ministers are expected to return to-morrow from Halifax, and there will be daily sittings next week in preparation for the opening of the House. In the different departments, preparation of the estimates is being rushed, and it is hoped to have the main supply for 1912-13 ready by the opening, though consideration will first be given to the unappropriated balance of the current year.

The Hon. Robert Rogers and Dr. Roche will return from the West to-morrow.

The recent general election in Canada will cost the country upwards of $800,000. The returns and accounts are not yet all in, but the total cost promises to be well within, if not under, the estimate.

The Minister of Trade and Commerce is instituting an enquiry into the functions of the different officers of his department, especially the trade commissioners. While there is no official intimation in regard to it, a few changes in the personnel of the trade staff abroad are altogether likely.

Chairman Leonard, of the Transcontinental Railway Commission, left this morning for Quebec to inspect the line in that district. He was accompanied by Chief Engineer Grant. Mr. Leonard will return early in the week, and leave as soon as possible to inspect western lines.

'Bill' Miner Now in Cobalt District?

Cobalt, Ont., November 3.—According to Charles Lellis, a well known Nevada mining man, old "Bill" Miner, the notorious and much-wanted jail breaker, who escaped from the Georgia State prison a few weeks ago, passed through Cobalt yseterday on the Cobalt special.

Lellis sat opposite him in the day coach all the way from Toronto, where Miner boarded the train. Lellis did not speak to him, but told persons in Cobalt that he was well known to him 10 years ago, and had scarcely changed. It is thought Miner went north to Swastika or Porcupine, as he did not get off at Cobalt.

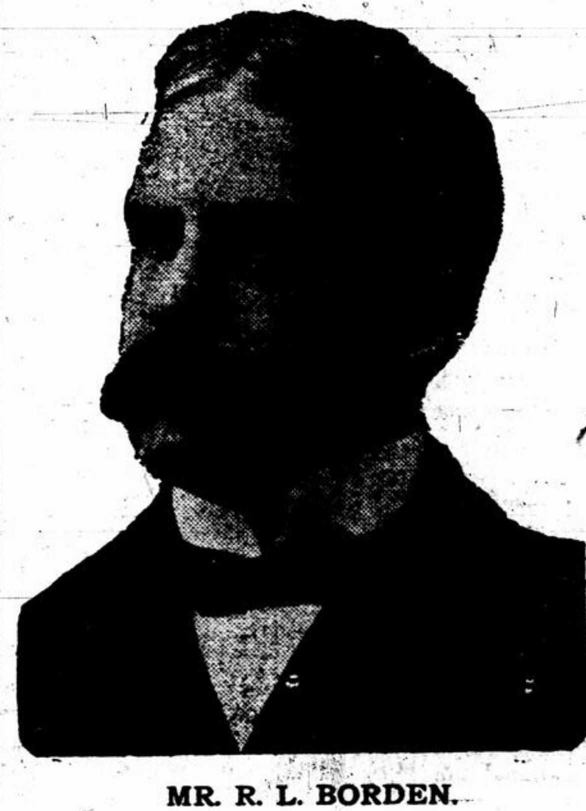
PREMIER ACCLAIMED BY NOVA SCOTIANS AT BIG HALIFAX BANQUET

Remarkable Demonstration to Prime Minister From All Classes — Hon. R. L. Borden Promises Permanent Tariff Commission, Establishment of Cold Storage System, Improvement of Permanent Highways, Reform of Civil Service, And Development of Transportation Facilities, to Bind Together East and West—The Hon. J. D. Hazen Suggests Consolidation of Maritime Provinces.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax, N. S., November 3.—This great entrepot of the Dominion gave a great welcome yesterday (and last night) without parallel to the Prime Minister of Canada, Hon. R. L. Borden. The Dominion Premier put in a busy day inspecting the Navy Yard, attending a Canadian Club luncheon, and taking a sail over the harbor. Attended by the Minister of Marine and other members of the Government, he took passage at three o'clock in the afternoon on the Aberdeen. The Prime Minister's vessel was saluted, and subsequently convoyed by H.M.C.S. Niobe and the Canada.



MR. R. L. BORDEN.

Last night Mr. Borden was the guest of honor at a magnificent banquet given by the Conservatives of Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia, the affair being the greatest of the kind ever held here. The banquet was held in the monster Mayflower Rink, and was attended by nearly 1,000 persons. It was distinguished by most enthusiastic expressions of loyalty to the Conservative party and to its leader.

When Mr. Borden rose to speak there ensued a scene of most remarkable enthusiasm. The entire audience rose to their feet, cheering wildly, and singing by common impulse the National Anthem, and then cheering over and over again, until the Prime Minister imposed silence upon them.

Great demonstrations of welcome also greeted the Hon. George E. Foster, the Hon. Frank Cochrane, and the other members of the Cabinet, who responded to the toast of "The Cabinet," eloquently proposed by Mr. A. B. Crosby, Mr. Borden's running mate at the last two elections in Halifax.

There were but three toasts,—"the King," "Mr. Borden," and "the Members of Mr. Borden's Cabinet."

The chair was occupied by Mr. J. W. Regan, ex-president of the Nova Scotia Conservative Association. On the Chairman's right sat the Hon. Mr. Borden, and on his left the Hon. George E. Foster.

The guests of honor comprised Mr. Borden, seven of his colleagues in the Cabinet—Mr. Cochrane, Mr. Doherty, Mr. Hazen, Mr. Foster, Mr. Monk, Mr. Pelletier and Mr. Nantel,—and a considerable number of members of parliament, including Senator Landry, Speaker-elect of the Senate; Dr. Sproule, M.P., Speaker-elect of the Commons; Major S. Sharp, M.P., and the Nova Scotia Conservative members. The defeated candidates of the Province were also given places.

The rink was elaborately decorated, among the mottoes displayed being: "A Great Trust and a Trusted Leader"; "Borden and Safe and Sane Government"; "No Hostility to the United States, but Mistress of Our Own Destinies"; "Canada for Canadians and Every Canadian for Canada"; "Nova Scotia's Third Premier"; "Canadian Unity, Canadian Nationality and British Connection.".

The Prime Minister's speech was marked by the following outstanding features:

An energetic vindication of the selection of W. T. White to be Finance Minister, on the ground that there should be recognition of the services of the Liberals who placed the interests of Canada above the ties of party allegiance and fought with the Conservatives for the welfare of Canada and of the Empire.

A strongly but moderately worded statment on the relations between Canada and the United States, Mr. Borden being at pains at once to disclaim any feeling of hostility to that country and to declare that Canada's fiscal autonomy never would be relinquished.

A declaration that the Government will seek to develop Eastern Canada, especially with regard to the fishing industry.

A vigorous declaration that the Conservative Government will carry out to the full its pre-election pledges.

Any expectation that Mr. Borden would outline, save in general terms, the policy the new Government will pursue, was disappointed. He took a definite attitude, however, in favor of a permanent Tariff Commission, and declared for encouragement to agriculture by means of improvements to roads, and also for a chilled meat facility. He took pains to emphasize the need of improved transportation facilities to bind east and west.

PREMIER ANALYSES ELECTION ISSUE AND GIVES PLEDGE FOR THE FUTURE.

Mr. Borden's response to the toast in his honor was as follows.—

I need not tell you that I am deeply moved by this splendid reception accorded to me in this city where I have spent the best years of my life, and perhaps my happiest days, and which I have had the honor of representing for many years in the Parliament of Canada. I am proud of this reception, because it is accorded to me by those with whom I have fought shoulder to shoulder and side by side in some of the fiercest political battles ever waged in Canada. (Cheers.)

A great soldier said some years ago that those only knew the true meaning of comradeship, who had marched and fought and bivouacked together. The same holds true of political comradeship. In the contests which we have waged we have not always proved victorious, but in 1908 and again in 1911 the results have more than made amends for the defeat which we sustained, not only in this county, but in this province in 1904. My own election in this constituency on the 21st of September, 1911, was marred by the defeat of my friend and colleague, Crosby. I desire to repeat to-night the tribute which I have paid to him more than once, by stating what is only the truth, that no constituency was more faithfully and loyally served by its representative in the late Parliament than was this constituency of Halifax by A. B. Crosby. However, if for the mo-

RECEPTION ARRANGEMENTS FOR SCOTTISH CURLERS ARE GROWING—OTTAWA'S SHARE IN THEM

The arrangements for the reception of the Scottish curlers which have been chronicled in the Star from day to day for the last month are going on apace. When the meetng of the branch takes place, Mr. W. J. Beatty, of the Ottawa Club; Mr. H. M. Williams, of the Globe; and Col. Sherwood, of the Rideau Club, will represent Ottawa here to see how many days can be spared to the Capital. The plans made there are, in a nutshell, as follows:

They are making preparations to entertain the visitors for at least four days. The City Council will be asked to give a hand with the reception and to make the welcome a civic affair, with a big banquet for the Scots in the City Hall. The Canadians were welcomed in the same manner in all the big cities of Scotland, and it looks to be the correct thing to do to return the compliment. The three Ottawa clubs have held a couple of meetings and have decided to put the matter before the Council. They have also arranged for a banquet by the curlers of the city, a ball in honors of the visitors, and a smaller round of amusemnts which will keep the men from "Auld Scotland" on the move all the time. From the present appearances the visitors are in danger of being killed with kindness. They will be met at the station by the local pipe band and by representatives of the three curling clubs, Ottawa, Rideau and Globe, also a delegation from the St. Andrew's Society, and possibly by the civic fathers, who are expected to take part in the welcome, and will be escorted to the City Hall, where they will be first entertained. The Scotsmen have about thirty players along with them, enough to keep the six rinks on the ice all the time, and they will be matched with six rinks from each of the local clubs for three days, each separate club entertaining the visitors for one day. The outside curlers will get a chance on the fourth day when rinks will come up to Ottawa from Perth, Almonte, Arnprior, Renfrew, Pembroke, and possibly from Carleton Place and Smith's Falls. The three men who come here together with Mr. William Stuart, Mr. McShadow, and Mr. J. Manual, president of the Ottawa Club will have charge of the welcome to the visitors.

There is a possibility that the visiting wielders of the broom will be asked to give an exhibition of their prowess at Rideau Hall. The game with a Rideau Hall rink will probably be another of the round of festivities arranged for the men from Scotland.

Sporting Views And Reviews

It is reported that down in Maine moose have increased in number and that deer are holding their own. Hunters too, it may be added, are quite up to their average, although they do not appear to be so successful as in former years in shooting one another. It may be that they are learning that according to the best sporting etiquette it is not correct to shoot at everything that moves in the woods, without knowing what it is.

PRETTY ROTTEN MISSED ME BY A MILE

Hunters are not so successful in shooting one another.

Strong, artful and experienced as he is, Dr. Roller, from Seattle, was not able to roll over Cazeaux, the pride of Bordeaux—at least not according to the manner provided by the Graeco-Roman style, which has again become the fashion for indoor recreation since the return of cold weather although there is considerable rolling to be done on the gridiron in the Rugby style, which means roll your man over in almost any way at all, provided you get him down. Dr. Roller knows another game for putting people on their backs, and which, it is said, he can play better than the classic Graeco-Roman. It is not the practice of the medical profession that is here referred to, but the catch-as-catch-can style of wrestling, which is the kind he always prescribes, when the choice is left to him.

Ottawa, it seems, does not approve of the dropping of the seventh man from a hockey team. Perhaps Ottawa's idea is that if a team is going out to win, seven are not too many to do the job; but if they are going out to be beaten it is just as well to divide the disappointment among seven as to make six take it in more concentrated doses. Ottawa, too, is accustomed to big things. Up on the Hill it sees a Cabinet of eighteen members. If it takes that number of men to keep ahead of the other fellows in politics, less than half that number seems small enough to Ottawa to do the other fellows in hockey.

While the country is studying a naval policy and trying to decide whether the Niobe should be put in commission for another season of old-home-weeks, or sent to the furnace and rolled into rails for the Transcontinental Railway, the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club is going right ahead with a well-thought-out policy for getting out of Lake St. Louis all the sport possible. Its navy is to be increased, so that there is no danger of its supremacy on the waters over which it now dominates being challenged.

TIGERS CONFIDENT THEY WILL BEAT THE ARGONAUTS

The Town of Hamilton is Rugby Football Crazy Again.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., November 3.—The burg is football mad. Kids on the streets, girls in the offices and uptown stores, to say nothing of the men, have no time to talk of anything but the game on Saturday between the Argos and Tigers which will, no doubt, be the greatest rugby encouter ever staged in this city, not including the game of last year when the speedy Toronto Varsity aggregation made the jungle kings look like second raters.

"Great joy was injected into sporting circles this afternoon when Tommy Stinson turned out to practice with the squad, after an absence of three weeks and Tommy's statement, "Well I think I will be fit to play a good game," has given the fans more confidence than ever. Coming on top of the news that Stinson would play is the joyful assertion of Sim Vaughan, club trainer, to the effect that Harry Glassford, the white haired boy of the crew would be fit for battle, and in such condition that he would be able to put up the article of game that made him the dangerous man he has proven himself to be.

Stinson has not donned a uniform for practice since the game here with Ottawa three weeks ago, when he was injured as the result of a collision with Jack Ryan. The injury, which at first was not thought to be serious, proved to be of such a nature that the physicians advised him to remain out of the game. Glassford's injuries were inflicted by Kalls, of Montreal, jumping on his leg and tearing some of the ligaments, an injury which has kept him on the hospital list for two weeks.

With Glassford and Stinson in the game, the Tigers will be fifty per cent. stronger than they were when they received that horrible walloping from Marty Walsh's crew last Saturday. Stinson will keep the kid back division from blowing up, as it did last Saturday and will prove a better defensive man than Kid Smith, who is out of the game with a broken collar bone.

The outside wing positions were weak last Saturday with the result that Ottawa gained much ground by end runs. Such will not be the case this Saturday, and the Argos will find Glassford on the job all the time.

Betting is lively and there is a lot of Toronto money in sight.

It is expected that at least 1,000 supporters of the double blue will accompany the scullers to Hamilton, and there promises to be a warm session. The local followers are confident that the Tigers will win and do not figure the showing in Ottawa in the dope. They figure that the home grounds are as good as ten points and against a slow scoring, but good defensive team such as the Argos are, should win by about ten points.

NEW SCHEME FOR BIG CHANGE IN WORLD'S SERIES

Chairman Hermann Wants Inter-League Schedule of 60 Games.

Chicago, November 3.—A plan which will make a radical change in the present system of deciding the world's baseball championship, it was said here, will be laid before the National Commission which meets in Cincinnati, November 14. The session of the commission has been called for the purpose of investigating ticket scalping in connection with the recent contest between the Giants and Athletics and suggested remedies for the evils which have attended every contest for the diamond supremacy.

August Herrmann, chairman of the commission, it is said, has a plan to do away with the present world's championship struggle of seven games and substitute a schedule of sixty contests with the sixteen teams of the two major leagues as the contestants and cut the regular schedules of the two major organizations to 112 games. In other words each team would be called upon to play 172 games, eighteen more than the present season schedules call for.

By eliminating the many open dates the increased number of combats could be decided by the middle of October.

Herrmann believes it will do away with practically all of the scalping, inasmuch as the games will be regarded much the same as those of the present league schedules. The sixty game inter-league series would give Detroit, Washington and Cleveland an opportunity of seeing all the teams of the National League which they do not have a chance of viewing now. Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Brooklyn likewise will be afforded an opportunity to see the teams play all the American League Clubs.

Each club would have to meet all the rivals in the opposing organizations and the world's championship would be determined on a percentage basis. The team finishing with the best record at the end of the sixty contests would be given the big pennant.

In addition all the major league players would be given a part of the receipts accruing from the post-season games.

At the M.A.A.A.

To-night will witness the opening for the season of the boxing and wrestling club at the M.A.A.A.

Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, and Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings have been set aside for the senior boxing classes, while Wednesday afternoon, as well as Saturday morning, will in all probability be set aside for the junior classes, which were so successful last year.

The boxing classes will again be in charge of Billy Armstrong, while George Smith will be instructor in wrestling on Tuesday and Friday evenings. The membership list at the office is rapidly filling up, and as both instructors give individual attention to each pupil, it is fully expected that the classes will probably be larger than ever this season.

National Executive is Not Unanimous in Regard to New Lacrosse League by Any Means.

Mr. A. L. Caron, Chairman of the Lacrosse Committee of the National A. A. A. Is Not in Sympathy With the Movement Inaugurated by Dr. Cousineau — For One Thing He Thinks Shamrocks With Their Glorious Past Should Not Be Sidetracked — "Something Higher and Better in Sport Than Mere Money."

The Nationals are not by any means harmonious about the movement inaugurated by Dr. Cousineau, its president, for a new Lacrosse League.

Mr. A. L. Caron, Chairman of the Lacrosse Committee of the Nationals, made the following statement to the Montreal Star to-day:

Remember, I am only speaking for myself, but in so doing, I say that I am not in sympathy with the movement inaugurated by Dr. Cousineau for a new Lacrosse League.

I have been away on a trip to Bermuda, and when I came back I found this thing under way.

It is my opinion that we should think about something higher and better in lacrosse than only money.

We are in this matter for sport, and it seems to me that it would be a very bad thing, for instance, to drive such a body as the Shamrocks, which have such a glorious past history, in connection with lacrosse, out of Canada's national game just because they were not great money-makers last year.

This money idea is alright for the Toronto clubs perhaps. The Toronto Street Railway, which owns the Toronto lacrosse team, at present, naturally is anxious to get a dividend on its investment; Charles Querrie, who depends for his living on lacrosse, looks at it the same way, no doubt; but here in Montreal we do not have to look at it that way.

As long as we are in sport, supposedly for sport's sake, as long as we are Athletic Associations, let us have and retain ideas and aims a little above money.

CHAIRMAN OF NATIONAL LACROSSE COMMITTEE, NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH NEW LACROSSE LEAGUE.

MR. A. L. CARON.

BRUCE RIDPATH, POPULAR HOCKEY PLAYER AND CANOEIST, ON THE VERGE OF DEATH AT TORONTO

Toronto, November 3. — D. Bruce Ridpath, the well known local hockey player, canoe and aquatic expert, is in a very serious condition at St. Michael's Hospital as the result of being run down by an automobile on Yonge street last night. He sustained a fracture of the base of the skull and serious cuts and bruises on his head and face. "Riddy" as he is popularly known, was alighting from a street car when the automobile, owned by C. A. Campbell, of 62 Havelock street, struck him. The machine was travelling at a moderate rate of speed, it is said, but the athlete did not notice its approach.

Ridpath is one of the best forward hockey players in Canada, and was last season a member of the champion Ottawa Stanley Cup team. He played with a number of O.H.A. teams, and broke into a professional ranks with the Torontos.

It had been rumored that he would manage the Toronto team in the National Hockey Association. He is one of the greatest all round athletes in the Dominion. Born in Toronto he is widely known as the Canadian champion canoeist. He formerly owned a sporting goods store in Toronto, and was later with Hurd & Co., an Ottawa sporting goods firm. He is unmarried.

As soon as the accident occurred Campbell stopped his machine, and, after carrying Ridpath to a drug store, hurried for medical aid. Two doctors worked over Ridpath, but could not restore consciousness, and he was then taken to the hospital in the ambulance.

Campbell followed the injured man to the hospital, and also found Ridpath's brother and informed him of the accident.

Campbell was arrested shortly after midnight, charged with causing grievous bodily injury, and lodged in the cells.

At 2 a.m. Ridpaths condition was unchanged.

MONTREAL EXPECTS TO WIN

The Ottawa football team put in the last practice before the struggle with Montreal, last night. No heavy work was indulged in, the locals not caring to take any chances of injury. The halves were given a lot of practice in handling the ball, while the wing line were chased up and down the field. All the players are in the pink of condition, and are confident of victory. Jack Williams will be down with the team, and may replace one of the halves in the second half, but if all is going smoothly it is unlikely he will figure in the struggle.

Arrangements have been made with the G. T. R. to run an excursion, and about 200 supporters will take the trip. The line up of the team is unchanged from last Saturday, and is as follows: Full, Johnston; left, Robertson; centre, Gerrad; right, McCann; quarter, Snelling; scrimmage, Wilkinson, Kilmartin and Black; outsides, Ryan and Gaisford; middles, McLoughlin and Elliott; insides, Phillips and Vaughan.

Real Rugby weather is promised for the match between Montreal and Ottawa on the M.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow. The ground, unless there is snow or rain in the interval, will be in first class shape, having dried out nicely since the rain of early in the week, but still retaining its springiness in spite of the frost. With the question of officials to be decided some time to-day, all the arrangements of the match will be complete. The executive has decided on an earlier kick-off than usual, 2.45 sharp, so there will be no danger, if the delays are not numerous or lengthy, of the match being finished in darkness as some of the old time struggles between Montreal and their rivals from the Capital. Montreal has suggested five names as officials: Hughey Gall, Dr. Hendry, McArthur, Billy McMaster, and Russell Britton. So far Ottawa has accepted Gall, but no agreement has been reached on the second man. There should be no difficulty, however, in coming to a decision some time to-day, and there is no likelihood of the question going to a league official for decision.

Ottawa's nervousness over the match on which so much depends for them, shows that Montreal is rated as a good deal stronger team than its record for the season would show. In the first match between the same teams at the beginning of the season in Ottawa, Ottawa at one stage of the second half looked like a beaten team, and just managed to pull out a victory. Favored by the experience gained in the last three games away from home, and playing before the home crowd, Montreal should be able to reverse the result. In any case, however, the result goes, there should be some first class football of the best Interprovincial brand.

Ottawa College put in the finishing touches for the McGill combat with a good hard practice. Father Stanton is confident of victory, but at the same time gives McGill credit for being the most dangerous of all the teams in the Intercollegiate. Billington whose lofty punts were the cause of the Garnet and Gray's downfall, at Montreal will receive special attention and will be given as little chance to kick as the college wings can attend to, all the local collegians are in good shape for the match which promises to have a monster crowd in attendance. The college team will depend on trick plays against the red and white and will make the game as open as possible. The line up will be as follows. Full, Cornellier, Left Heffernan, centre, Quilly, R. C. Hantal; quarter, Killian; scrimmage, McDonald, Kennedy, Cyra; insides, Sullivan, O'Leary; middles, Harrington, Pfohl; outsides, Nagle, Gilligan.

The Argonauts had a useful signal practice yesterday and the men are all in the pink of condition for to-morrow's game at Hamilton with the exception of Captain Binkley, whose ankle is still rather sore, and Lockhart. Both these men could play, however, if necessary. The oarsmen have not indulged in a line up practice this week. Dr. Smirl Lawson with Mallet and Murphy, have been definitely decided upon as the Argos back division for to-morrow.

McGILL PLAYS OTTAWA COLLEGE TEAM TO-MORROW

Red and White by No Means Hopeful of Victory in Ottawa.

The McGill football team will journey to the Capital to-morrow and try conclusions with the Ottawa College fourteen. Since the Capitals defeated 'Varsity two weeks ago, and the latter have won from McGill, the question agitating the minds of the red and white's followers is, has McGill any chance of winning from Father Stanton's aggregation? The McGill team are determined to win if possible, but they realize that it will only be after a desperate struggle, for up to the present time Ottawa College has proved invincible on her own grounds.

It will be a great triumph for McGill if she can accomplish this feat, for in the event of 'Varsity winning the Dominion championship, the red and white could lay claim to the honor of defeating a team which had triumphed over the Toronto University. Besides, McGill is still hopeful that Ottawa College may be able to win from 'Varsity in Toronto on November 11th, and, should this prove to be the case, there would be a three-cornered tie in the Intercollegiate League, granted that McGill emerges as victor in to-morrow afternoon's struggle.

If Ottawa should administer defeat to McGill and also turn the same trick against 'Varsity in Toronto, the Capitals and the Queen City fourteen would in that case be tied for the championship. It is conceded that on hard, firm ground, 'Varsity should inflict a crushing defeat on Ottawa College in Toronto, but with a wet, slippery field, which is liable to be the conditions existing a week hence, the chances of victory would undoubtedly favor Father Stanton's boys. Cornellier's long kicks under those circumstances would offset many advantages claimed by Toronto under a different set of conditions.

A large number of McGill students will accompany the team to-morrow, as there will be a special excursion rate, and a great amount of interest has been aroused as to the probable outcome.

McGill will play pretty much the same team as faced 'Varsity last Saturday. Gillmor, who received a sprained ankle, and Turnbull, will not be in uniform again this year. It is hoped that Timmins' shoulder will admit of his playing, as his absence last Saturday was most noticeably felt. McEvenue will again hold down the quarter-back position, and the back line will remain intact except that Masson may replace Ross as right half.

McGill is not over-confident of winning, but has determined to put up the best struggle possible.

THE NEW LACROSSE LEAGUE MET HERE AGAIN YESTERDAY

Official Organization Postponed to Await Action M.A.A.A.

To-day is an off day with the new lacrosse league, and the matter will rest where it is until after the M. A. A. A. lacrosse meeting to be held on the fifteenth.

To allow for this the meeting of the new league will be held not on the fifteenth as originally planned, but on the eighteenth. By that time it is expected that the Montreal club will have decided either for or against the new body and the promoters will know whether or no it is necessary to seek another Montreal club.

Charlie Querrie, of the Tecumsehs, and Mr. Hargrove, of the Torontos, were in town yesterday and the promoters of the new body held a meeting at which this was decided. Some M. A. A. A. people were seen but could promise nothing.

Meanwhile Dr. Cousineau is out with a statement which makes his position in the matter clear.

"I am acting for the Nationals in this matter," the doctor states, "and I have been given carte blanche to act for them, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding."

THE NEW WESTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Three Clubs two in Vancouver and one in Victoria will constitute the Frank Patrick League about which so much was heard when Patrick was here seeking recruits.

This statement is made by Frank himself in a letter to Art. Ross which outlines his plans.

It is understood that in the course of the next few days, some more well known Montreal hockey players will announce their intention of going west to the new league.

Newsy Lalande, has stated that he, Ernie Johnson and Harry Hyland will start for the coast next week.

Art Ross is another one of those mentioned but Art says he can't see it, although he declares that the Wanderers have no claim on him for this season. Art admits that he was offered a fat sum to make the trip, but he prefers to stay east.

It is understood that the Toronto team is anxious to get hold of the speedy cover, and there is a good chance of him performing in the Queen city this year.

Art. himself says:

"Stranger things have happened."

THAT LIGHTWEIGHT BELT.

Drouillard and Allan are to Meet in Toronto to Settle Hot Discussion.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 3. — So much adverse criticism has been heaped on to Tom Flanagan because of his awarding the new Canadian Lightweight Championship belt to Billy Allen, of Ottawa, that Tom has changed his mind about it and as a result the trophy is now in open competition. Patsy Drouillard, of Windsor, objected strenuously to the award, saying he had as much right to it as Allen. The ownership of the trophy will be settled, however, when these boys meet before the National Sporting Club, of this city, on November 9th. The boys are carded to go fourteen rounds at 132 pounds.

DEER, MOOSE, PARTRIDGE PLENTIFUL THIS SEASON AND THE HUNTERS ARE HAVING THE TIME OF THEIR LIFE

THE GREAT HOCKEY PLAYER AND CANOEIST, WHO WAS NEARLY KILLED IN TORONTO YESTERDAY.

BRUCE RIDPATH.

The comparative mildness of the opening weeks of this present hunting season has had a decided effect on the shipments of deer and other game, according to a statement made to the Star yesterday by Fish and Game Inspector J. R. Innes. At the same time Mr. Innes noted that the recent hard cold spell in conjunction with the dog season had immediately jumped the shipments to somewhere near last year's mark, while he declared that the present year was the best he had ever seen for partridge.

The season for hunting deer with dogs, which closed Wednesday, after a run of ten days, immediately boosted the deer shipments, but the number of deer secured by stalking, up to date is very small.

Altogether about three hundred deer mostly all does, have come out of the bush in this province to Montreal, and of these around one hundred and five animals came down since Thanksgiving Day. The woods were full of dogs and hunters over the holiday, and for the past week deer have been coming down from Nominingue at the rate of between six and ten per day.

While this rather simple and unadventurous method of hounding the deer into the nearest water and shooting it from the shore is prohibited for the remainder of the deer season, the stalkers have a much better opportunity to get their deer now that the hard weather has set in, and the snow is beginning to cover the leaves, and Mr. Innes expects the usual run of carcases to continue from now until the end of the season, which comes at the end of December, except in Ottawa and Pontiac Counties, when the close season starts a month earlier.

Moose Are Plentiful.

The killings of caribou are about up to the mark, but the reports of the sightings of moose prove amply that the stringent precautions taken during the last few years by the Provincial Government to safeguard the King of Canadian forests from extinction are having their effect.

Mr. Innes declared he could not recollect a year when moose had been so plentiful in this province, as was the case this year.

As an example he stated that bull moose had been observed several times since the first of September in the vicinity of Mont Tremblant, where no moose had previously been reported for many years.

Record Shoot of Partridge.

The hard winter of last year is held by Mr. McInnes to be responsible for the enormous number of partridges which are coming down from the woods daily. Soft winters with spells of wet weather succeeding the snowflakes do not suit partridge. The birds bury themselves beneath the snow at nights, and when, as often happens, in soft winters, a rain or sleet storm crusts the surface snow before morning, the birds, unable to force their way through the crust, die of starvation or suffocation, or both.

Last year's cold crisp winter with but a few spells of soft weather is declared by Mr. Innes to have been responsible for the remarkable quantity of partridges which are reported in all parts of the province this year. Mr. Innes thinks that the statements made of mysterious disease among the birds is a mistake. By the time the sale embargo is lifted next October, all indications are that partridges will be as plentiful as ever.

While few complications ensue because of the embargo, there would be still less if hunters would take the trouble to understand just exactly what the law is in this regard. The principal complaints laid by inspectors arise out of the fact that shippers do not leave their birds exposed. The law on this question reads as follows:

4.—Box, etc., to be made, so that contents may be seen, etc.:

Every bag, parcel, chest, box, trunk or other receptacle used for the carriage of game shall be so made that the contents thereof can be seen, and the description of such contents, with the name and address of the owner shall be set forth on a special tag to that effect.

A turkey competition was held at the Eden Alleys, all the members of the Eden Bowling Club competing. The highest string was bowled by W. J. Townsend, with a score of 581, but this was not enough to overcome the 45 pins handicap of President Mallette, who won out with a score of 603. Frigon, another handicapped man, finished third with a score of 572. The spoon competition last week furnished a lot of excitement, every day seeing a new leader. Bregent was the first leader with 202; then Frigon with 203; Ornstein followed up with 207, but Jones came right back with 210. Kennedy, the star bowler, finally won out with 213.

JOE McGINNITY IS SQUEEZED OUT OF NEWARK CLUB

Former Owners Sells to Wm. A. McManus at $40,000 Profit on Condition Iron Man Quits.

New York, November 3.—Negotiations were practically completed yesterday afternoon for the sale of the Newark Eastern League Baseball Club by Jos. K. McGinnity and Henry Clay Smith, to William A. McManus, of Newark, and it is very likely that the title will pass to-day.

After a week of dickering the men came to an understanding. The price paid by Mr. McManus is close to $60,000, and is considered an exceptionally high figure, as McGinnity and Smith purchased the club three years ago for $20,000.

One of the conditions of sale is for "Iron Man" McGinnity to retire from the club, both as manager and player. The business was done with Smith, who is the financial man of the club, and the first proposition was for the retention of McGinnity as manager and player. This McManus would not agree to.

The purchase of the club by McManus puts it in the hands of Newarkers for the first time since its organization, ten years ago. The club was organized by Walter Burnham, who came from Portland, Me. He retained control until George T. Stallings and Frank Farrel bought it in 1908, paying $30,000. Stallings managed the team during 1908, but he became manager of the New York Americans in 1909, and the Newark Club was sold to McGinnity, who entered into partnership with H. Clay Smith, of Chicago.

McGinnity drew a salary of $10,000 a year as manager, and $3,000 additional as a player, while Smith drew another $10,000 salary as vice-president and business manager.

William McManus, the new owner, is well known in Newark, having made money in the leather business and as an operator in real estate.

He formerly owned and raced thoroughbreds and is well known on the race tracks. He is a close friend of John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants.

Gene Paulet Weds.

Little Rock, Ark., November 3. — Eugene Paulet, a member of the New York National League baseball team, who will take Snodgrass' place on the team when the Cuban series is played, was married to Miss Elizabeth Mahoney in Argenta, near here, on Wednesday. They left immediately for New York.

TO-MORROW'S SOCCER GAME—AN INTERNATIONAL

It Will Be the Only Fixture—Play on the M.A.A.A. Grounds.

The third and last soccer international, Scotland vs. Ireland, takes place to-morrow on Grand Trunks' ground, Point St. Charles. After the severe drubbing the Irish boys received from England a few weeks back, it would look as if they are in for another, but those gentlemen responsible for the selection claim that, with the inclusion of McKerracher, of Valleyfield, and Flannagan, of Lachine, the green shirt boys will give a far different display. Both the men mentioned are very fine players, and are fully expected to give the all-wanted steadiness, so lacking in the previous game.

On the Scottish side there will be three changes from their Labor Day team, Ritchie, Morison and Fleming displacing Simpson, Smith and Patterson. Crossans will go back from centre forward to his old position at right half, and a new man to local soccer, Fleming, of the Grand Trunks, will appear on the extreme right wing. Fleming has made quite a name for himself during the last two or three weeks, and his friends expect him to perform well in this, his first representative game. This Fleming must not be confused with the Loco. man, though both come from 'ayont the Tweed.

Following out what many consider a wise plan, the P.Q.F.A. are distributing the honors, awarding the Scottish captaincy this time to Jack Dornan. The rival skipper will be Soye, the clever Rovers' clever goalie.

Though the gate receipts go to the P.Q.F.A. and though the governing body are not short of money, they ask the full support of all soccermen, to make the last representative game a great success. The kick-off is timed for 3 o'clock, admission 15 cents, and the teams are:

Scotland—Ritchie, Grand Trunk, goal; Morrison, Grand Trunk, and J. Dornan, Sons of Scotland captain, backs; Crossans, Sons of Scotland; Baldy McKenzie, Sons of Scotland; and Ross, Sons of Scotland, halves; Fleming Grand Trunks; Dougall, Sons of Scotland; Campbell, Fairmount; Chapleton, Grand Trunks, and Bald, Locos, forwards.

Ireland—Soye, Royal Rovers, captain, goal; Grant, Rosemount, and McKerracher, Valleyfield, backs; Flannagan, Lachine; J. Grant, Rosemount, and Halliday, Grand Trunks, halves; G. McCann, Valleyfield; S. McCann, Fairmount; Moran, Royal Rovers; Dalzell, Fairmount, an Brennan, Fairmount, forwards.

Reserves—Jones, Railroad; Wilkinson, St. Paul's, and Connolly, Fairmount.

As in previous representative games, the P.Q.F.A. allow no other fixtures to clash with the international; as a consequence it is the sole soccer fixture of the day.

AUTO NOTES

When the roads are slippery, as is often the case at this time of the year, a few hints on how to prevent or at least retard skidding, might be of some importance. The most common error of inexperienced motorists is that when the car begins to skid, instead of releasing the brakes and perhaps applying the power, the brakes are immediately set or more strongly applied. On this subject Motor Age says: "When driving over a wet or sandy country road at a fair rate of speed the car generally can be straightened up after it starts to skid by keeping the front wheels pointed in the desired direction or straight ahead and immediately applying as much power to the rear wheels as possible. When driving in the city on a smooth wet asphalt pavement one's only chance for safety lies either in the use of chains or in approaching all crossings with care. Above all things, should a quick stop be necessary, apply the brakes gently, very gently, so as not to lose the little traction or grip that the rear wheels may have on the road surface."

The Savannah Automobile Club is bending every energy to put into perfect form tthe course over which are to be run the Vanderbilt Cup and Grand Prize races during Thanksgiving week. While the number of actual entries is small at present it is likely that it will finally reach the hundred mark for all events.

The J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company have entered two Case machines in the Vanderbilt event and already have been assigned a camp at the course. The cars and rivers will take to their quarters the first week in November, when the Chatham county roads will be opened for practice. The latest team to obtain quarters is the Mercedes, which will have two cars in the Vanderbilt race. It is expected that Spencer Wishart will drive his Mercedes in the Grand Prize. The Marmon team has engaged its quarters along the course.

David Bruce-Brown, who returned from the Fiat factory in Italy, a few days ago, leaves on Sunday for Savannah with his Fiat car. Jesse Froehlich, managing director of the Benz Auto Import Company, has notified the Savannah Automobile Club that the two new Benz Grand Prize machines arrived here and are to be shipped to the course about the middle of next month.

A decision that has caused considerable comment was decided recently by an Ohio Circuit Court. The action was brought against the County Commissioners by the Treasurer of Marion county, who was injured about a year ago when his car plunged through an open bridge which had been insufficiently protected. The Circuit Court holds that it is not sufficient to place lanterns at night where roads are unsafe, but that it is the duty of the County Commissioners to construct barricades which will protect motorists and others using the highways at all times.

It is not likely that a new chairman of the contest board of the American Automobile Association will be appointed until the next meeting of the Manufacturers Contest Associations, which will be held early next year. The consensus among a number of the tradesmen on the row is that A. R. Pardington will be the next chairman of the board.

WESTMOUNT BUSY AT BASKETBALL.

The Westmount A.A.A. started the basketball season last evening by electing the officers of the intermediate team and planning a smoker to aid the teams in their expenses.

Mr. Oscar Thompson was elected captain by acclamation and seems to be the man who could turn out a championship team. Mr. R. J. Beck was elected general secretary, and Mr. George Copland has consented to coach the team.

Mr. Sharpe, the physical instructor, would like to see more of the senior men turn out. The W.A.A.A. have a lot of good material if they would only turn out.

JACK MUNRO, BACKER.

Is Behind Rennie in Challenge to Lynch.

Dave Rennie, the local featherweight boxer, is out with a challenge to Alf. Lynch, champion of Canada, for a bout of ten fifteen, twenty round, or to a finish, for the title, and is willing to meet the Quebec boy before any club that will stage the contest.

Rennie has issued quite a number of challenges during the past year but in the present case he has the backing of Mr. Jack Munro, the ex-heavyweight pugilist, and now a capitalist in the Canadian silver country.

Munro says that he will back Rennie to the extent of $1000, and is ready to put up the money just as soon as Lynch or his backers will show that they are ready and willing to give the local man the chance of battling for the Canadian championship.

How, When and Where to Get the Precious Pasteboards That Admit to Stadiums Where Gridiron Heroes Battle for Their Alma Mater.

New York, November 3. — The great American public is distinguished, among other things, for its curiosity and its eagerness to obtain anything which is hard to get. If there is any public entertainment where tickets are given away there is seldom a swaying, jostling crowd waiting at the entrance, but put a high value on admission and make the pasteboards inscribed "Admit One" valuable, and every other person in the United States is frantic with the fear that he will not be able to spend his money.

In spite of the fact that the Harvard-Princeton game makes one more big contest this fall, the rush of applications for seats at the Yale-Princeton battle breaks all existing records. The statement comes officially from New Haven that in spite of the fact that the time limit comes five days ahead of the date of the limit last year the demand for accommodation already far exceeds the supply. It is said that any additional requests for seats will be absolutely useless, and that as it is the applications will have to be reduced by drawing.

Those in charge of the distribution state that the regular personal applications will be the first to receive attention. If the same conditions prevail next season it is likely that all applicants will be cut down to one ticket, which would mean that the attendance of women at the game would be greatly reduced. This would deprive the battle of much of its social aspect and its inspiration, and make it much more of a local affair.

The Pennsylvania committee on the Army-Navy game has determined to do everything possible to prevent ticket scalping in connection with this national contest. Too many persons who have had tickets allotted them have abused the privilege, and the authorities are determined to put a stop to any sale of admissions at advanced prices. In order to forestall any of the ordinary excuses it has been announced that any one unable to use seats assigned him may return his tickets to the committee and receive their full face value in exchange at any time prior to the morning of the game.

If any ticket is offered for sale at more than its face value, the committee reserve the right to purchase the same at the advanced price at which it is offered for sale. When signing the application each person to whom tickets are issued agrees to reimburse the committee for the price thus paid in excess of the face value thereof. A record is kept of all tickets issued, and each applicant is responsible for the tickets allotted to him. As in former years, one-third of all the seats on Franklin Field go to each of the three schools. Those allotted to the University of Pennsylvania will be sold as usual, to the following university bodies: The trustees, faculty, contributors, members of the football team and members of the athletic association; no more than two tickets to each person, and for these the application must be made to the committee not later than November 4th, 1911. Each ticket will be sold at $2.50, and the proceeds divided between the organizations for the relief of dependent widows of officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States.

Tickets for the Harvard-Carlisle game will first be sent to those members or graduates of the two institutions who write for them to the Harvard athletic office. After November 6th all seats that remain will be placed on public sale in Boston. The prices charged will be $1.50 and $1.

The athletic authorities at Cornell have issued the following statement for the guidance of the graduates:

"Alumni who wish tickets for the Williams or the Michigan game may obtain them by writing to the Cornell University Athletic Association, Ithaca. Mail orders enclosing cheque, draft or money order and return postage will receive prompt attention. Cheques should be made payable to the Cornell University Athletic Association."

Following is a schedule of the prices to be charged for admission and for seats at the two games:

	Williams.	Michigan.
Admission	$1.00	$1.00
Steel Stand	.75	1.00
Covered Stand	.75	1.00
West Stand	.50	.75
East Stand	.50	.75
South Stand	.25	.50

The date of the Williams game is November 4th, and that of the Michigan game November 11th.

For the Chicago-Cornell game, to be played at Marshall Field, University of Chicago on November 18th, tickets will be handled, as in 1908 by the Cornell University Association of Chicago.

Pennsylvania supporters will go to Ann Arbor on a special train to cheer for the warriors of the Red and Blue in their struggle with the Wolverines.

The party is not only to see the game but also is to be given an evening in Detroit and a day at Niagara Falls at the comparatively small expense of $39.50 a piece. This includes absolutely everything except lunch in Ann Arbor. All meals will be served at first-class hotels and arrangements will be made to have all of the men eat together. The special train is to leave the Broad Street Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad at 1.40 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, November 17.

pecial to The Montreal Star.

Boston, November 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan applied for two tickets for the Harvard-Yale game enclosing his cheque for 4, but the Harvard Athletic Committee eturned the money because Morgan stated he would not trouble to attend the ame himself. This, under the rule of he committee, made his request out of rder.

It is probable, however, that the decision will be reconsidered, and that organ's guests will be sitting in the tadium when the crimson and blue line p against each other on November 25.

QUOITING AGAIN.

A Friendly Match at the Angus Shops.

A friendly game of quoits between "Old Montreal Boys" and C.P.R.A.A.A. took place on the grounds of the latter club at the top of Davidson street.

A soccer football match was also in progress between Toronto and all-Montreal, but the quoiters can take credit for attracting a large proportion of the total attendance of over 1000 people who were present on the grounds. Commenting on some of the play, Mr. Lindsey, for the Montreal boys, demonstrated that age has not prevented him from coming back, and he played a good consistent game. Anderson also played a brilliant game for Montreal, defeating by a narrow margin his opponent, P. Oliver, who followed him to a close finish. Vickers, for C.P.R., promises to make his mark, and intends to place it pretty near there next time. Street, also playing for C.P.R., gave his opponent a good game, and will materialize further for his team in the next match. Score:

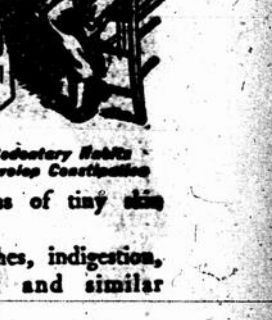
TORONTO KEEN ON THE WRESTLING GAME

The National Sporting Club Will Get All the Big Men.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 3.—If all of the best heavyweight wrestlers can be induced to come to Toronto this winter the National Sporting Club will have a tournament or a number of bouts scattered over the season at which the championship will be battled for. They will be all invited, commencing with champion Gotch and including Ravicek; Harry Polloks, the Bulgarian grappler, now on the ocean en route to America; Yussuf Mahmout; Filmore, the new American aspirant; Branzfield, who is coming from Australia, where he is champion; Zbysco, John Pohl Abs, Raymond Cazeaux, the Frenchman, now in Canada, and many others worth while. No attempt will be made to stage any bouts, it is stated, unless all of the best men are available.



LACK OF EXERCISE

Brings on Troubles which are Best Corrected by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Sedentary Habits Develop Constipation

Man was intended to live an active, outdoor life, and his digestive system was modelled accordingly. Indoor work with hands or head, long hours sitting or standing still, especially in air that's none too good, slow down the healthy activities of stomach, liver, kidneys and the millions of tiny skin glands.

Constipation, headaches, indigestion, biliousness, rheumatism and similar troubles follow.

Then the worth of that good old reliable family medicine, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, is appreciated. Though it has been in use for over half a century, modern science has not been able to devise a safer or better cleanser for the whole system.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are largely vegetable in composition, free from any harmful drug, and mild yet most effective in their action. They are "Mother's standby" in hundreds of homes because they nip in the bud so many of the common ailments.

MINISTERS ARE KEPT VERY BUSY IN HALIFAX TO-DAY

Inspection of Harbor, Conferences With Board of Trade, and Reception of Delegates.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax, N. S., November 3.—The Board of Trade and the City Council yesterday afternoon entertained Premier Borden and the Cabinet Ministers to an excursion around the harbor. As soon as Mr. Borden had concluded his remarks at the Canadian Club luncheon, the Premier and his ministers proceeded to the whart, where they boarded the Government steamer, Lady Laurier. The steamer went down the harbor as far as the entrance; then, returning, went up the Dartmouth shore to Richmond.

The Hon. Mr. Hazen, with Commander Macdonald, of the Niobe, left the steamer off the dockyard and boarded the cruiser. The remainder of the party landed.

Premier Borden, with the Hon. George E. Foster, and Mayor Chisholm, proceeded to the Technical College to present certificates to the St. John's ambulance classes, and the Hon. Mr. Cochrane went to the Board of Trade rooms to confer with the Board regarding terminal facilities and differential rates.

President Dwyer, Mr. G. S. Campbell and Mr. G. W. C. Hensley explained to Mr, Cochrane the conditions existing at the Intercolonial Railway piers, and urged upon him the necessity of prompt action, not only in the interests of the port of Halifax, but also in the interests of the Intercolonial.

Mr. R. T. McIlraith gave a resume of the question of the differential rates against Halifax, and the Minister of Railways promised that he would look into the matter and do all in his power to remedy the existing conditions.

A delegation from Richmond and Cape Breton counties waited upon the Hon. Frank Cochrane yesterday in regard to the Cape Breton Railway. This railway is now under private management. Representations were made to bring about the taking over of the line as a part of the Government railway system. The desire is also to have the line extended to Louisburg and Sydney. At present the line extends only from Point Tupper to St. Peter's.

The Minister asked that further facts be presented to him in regard to the proposal.

NO DRINKS FOR CASUAL GUESTS ON SUNDAY NOW

Recorder Weir Rules Law Permits Serving Only Guests Who Have Rooms.

That the casual guest who drops into a hotel for a meal on Sunday cannot be served with liquor at such a meal, according to Article 1333 of the Quebec License Law, was the opinion expressed by Mr. Recorder Weir yesterday afternoon.

The point arose out of an action taken against the Pall Mall Cafe, the Welland Hotel, the Savoy Hotel and the Grand Cafe Parisian, proprietors of which were charged with selling liquor contrary to the Quebec License Law.

The evidence was to the effect that Constables Sauve and Brooks had visited the above hotels on Sunday, October 22, and after purchasing a club sandwich had been served with one, two and in some cases three drinks, of Scotch whiskey, gin or ginger beer.

Article 1333 of the Quebec License Law provides that in hotels for the housing of guests, liquor can be sold at any hour of any day to bona fide boarders and to travellers sojourning at such hotels, in the rooms of the said traveller or in the regular dining room.

The Recorder holds that Brooks and Sauve could not be taken for anything but casual guests, as they had no luggage and were not asked to register, therefore they were not entitled to be served with liquor.

In remarking on the subject, the Recorder said that pressure should be brought to bear upon the Legislature in order that this law might be remedied.

"It is the growing custom in this city," said the Recorder, "for families to dine on Sundays as well as on holidays at any of our very excellent hotels, and some provision should be made, as under Article 1333 the sale of liquor with meals to a casual guest is unlawful.

Recorder Weir said that it was his duty to impose a minimum fine of $30 unless grounds could be shown for a reserve case.

DEFENDS THE FIRSTBORN.

That first born children are inferior to the later born, and that they are more subject to tuberculosis, insanity and criminality, is an exploded theory according to Mr. T. B. Macaulay, of the Sun Life Insurance Company. Mr. Macaulay laid down this argument in a paper of his on "Statistical Fallacies," read at a meeting of the Underwriters' Association of Canada, at Cooper's, last night.

Mr. A. Homer Vipond, who had just returned from the Winnipeg Convention, presnted the cup which was won by the Montreal Association for having the largest increased membership during the past year. On the resignation of the president, Mr. J. A. Tory and the secretary-treasurer, Mr. Geo. E. Williams, Mr. H. H. Gay was elected in the presidential chair, and Mr. W. W. King, secretary.

PAID IN MILLION.

Rush to Pay Civic Real Estate Tax.

There was over a million dollars paid at the City Hall yesterday in real estate taxes. This is the largest sum the city ever received in one day. The rush was to save the imposition of five per cent. interest on real estate taxes which is levied by the city after November 2nd of each year. The railways are the heaviest payers. The C. P. R. comes first with $123,000, the G. T. R. next with $62,000, and McIntosh and Hyde with $43,000.

Ruth and Eddie Cox, small children, were burned to death last night in the home of their parents at Becker, Minn., during a fire which destroyed the business portion of the town.

Canada's Need, Technical Education.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 3.—Mr. M. A. McKay, Principal of the Toronto Technical High School, in an address last night referred to the existence of numerous industrial schools in other countries, and deplored the fact that Canada was far behind these countries in that respect.

"It is impossible under present conditions for a man in Toronto to learn a trade," declared the speaker. He advocated the establishment of workshops, illustrating the processes of works in all the trades, so that workers could obtain a thorough foundation for their future education.

OPEN CARS BRAVED BLASTS OF TO-DAY'S WINTRY WEATHER

But the Open Air Treatment is Not Appreciated by All Passengers.

"Well, what do you think of that?" growled the business man, who is compelled to take early jaunts on the crowded cars of the Montreal Street Railway Company, as he juggled his way over the slippery crossing, and just missed the car he dashed to catch.

Then he grinned.

In his sprint he had no time to observe the dimensions or character of the car, but as he rested he had a look. First he grinned, then he laughed.

It was an open car.

With the thermometer registering the coldest day yet, a mean northeaster whistling down the streets, and a fine line of snow dropping from above, the company provided a number of well ventilated open cars for the convenience of its patrons who think that these make November travel pleasant.

While the early traveller watched one fading away to the south, another specimen of the same variety passed him going north, but his thoughts were interrupted by the arrival of an ironclad more popularly known to passengers as a "refrigerator" car.

"Perhaps," commented the man "the officials have been reading the report on tuberculosis that blamed people for living in too tightly closed houses, and want to encourage folk to live in the open. Yes, I guess that's it."

Several cars of the open type are also in use to-day.

NEW CONSERVATIVE CLUB.

Premier Borden Invited to Monument National Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic gathering of the English-speaking electors of Laurier ward, Maisonneuve division, in Laurier Hall last night, to organize the twelfth Villeneuve club. Mr. Denis Tansey was elected president and a strong executive was named.

The Hon. Mr. Borden, Prime Minister, and members of the Cabinet, have been invited to attend next Thursday evening's meeting of the Maisonneuve Division Conservatives, at the Monument National. Officers of the Conservative Club of the division will be installed and committees will be appointed to carry into execution the movement for the erection of a monument to the memory of Sir George Etienne Cartier.

An Elevator in your garage will cut your rent bill in half

A GARAGE depends for its existence upon a convenient location. Central sites mean high rentals, restricted area, and reduced profits. The solution of this lies in a two-story garage, which will give the same amount of floor space at a cost exactly one-half or less. But to be successfully operated, a two-story garage requires the installation of a modern freight elevator. If the garage is equipped with the initial expenditure will soon pay for itself in cheaper rentals, increased floor space, improved facilities for displaying and demonstrating cars, and in the more inviting appearance of the place and its surroundings.

Prospective purchasers—and this is particularly true of the class who buy automobiles—are attracted by a neat, clean and orderly looking garage. It bespeaks the owner's pride in his business and the practice of progressive methods. Then, too, when your customer admires a car you have stored on the upstairs floor, your elevator must be ready to lower it to the bright light of the showroom, or so you can take it out on the street to demonstrate its running qualities. A delay may lose you the sale.

The thoroughly substantial and workmanlike manner in which the Otis-Fensom Elevator is built is a guaranty of its reliable efficiency. Both the car and its running gear are built on modern and scientific lines that assure you of its always being in commission ready for instant service. The simplicity of its operation, ease of control and smooth running qualities simplify the work of the garage and reduce the business of showroom and repair department to a time-saving and labor-saving and systematic basis.

We have prepared an interesting illustrated booklet on "Freight Elevators and Their Uses." Your copy will be mailed promptly on receipt of your name and address.

Please send me your book.

Sweetness and Daintiness

Every now and then a letter drifts into this office asking how to be pretty. It is always the same pathetic wail, "I want to be pretty and am not. Tell me how to be." To the writer of such letters and to many others who do not write, but who nourish the same complaint in their hearts the answer goes forth. "True beauty is extremely rare, but the attractiveness which stands instead of beauty can be won by almost every girl." The first requisite towards the impression of beauty which is aimed at is daintiness. Just the other day I happened to overhear a man whisper to a girl in a tea-room as he helped her on with her coat. "You are so dainty." I looked at her and so she was. Not pretty, nearer thirty than twenty, not expensively dressed, yet she conveyed the impression of such exquisite daintiness and sweetness that anyone looking at her received an impression of beauty and of charm. First of all came her perfectly dressed head. It was not covered with shop curls, nor braids, but was very soft and fluffy and prettily done, every hair in place, suggesting an invisible net. Her hat was small and smart and eminently becoming, put on at just the right angle and securely fastened there. One felt sure she would never ask "Is my hat on straight?" Her blouse was spotless and as was lace jabot, and her coat and skirt showed never an unbrushed place or a missing button or draggled braid. Her button boots were brightly polished and not down at the heels as half the boots on the street are. From the top of her head to the soles of her feet she was most exquisitely neat. Then as she passed me I noticed the very faintest suggestion of a delicate sachet powder, speaking of dainty and sweet lingerie. To be over-scented is an abomination, but the least waft of odor from good sachet powder can never offend anyone. This alluring daintiness is within the reach of everyone. Even the girls who work all day can be sweet and neat as new pins. One of the freshest and most spick and span girls I know is a stenographer in a busy office. It is not an expensive attribute, this of daintiness. It costs little but soap and water, and time and trouble. Perfect cleanliness is at the root of all daintiness and combined with the cleanliness must be a careful and constant overhauling of the wardrobe. There must also be the clear complexion, the bright eyes, the smooth lips and glossy hair which speak of a proper care of the body. With this combination of health, neatness, cleanliness and daintiness, no girl nor woman need sigh for unattainable beauty. She has something quite as charming and far more lasting.

It gives to the skin the naturally normal glow of youth, and stimulates the pores to that proper activity which is the whole secret of a skin that is naturally clear, bright and elastic.

LIFE

Ah, life is brief
With shades that bend
  Across the way
And dreams that end
  At close of day!

Ah life is sad!
One fleeting hour
  In Love's short reign—
A faded flower
  And mem'ry's pain.

Yet life is sweet:
No night so dark
  But holds a star;
No storms but mark
  Where angels are.

H. GRAHAM DU BOIS.

Eighteen people were injured when Seaboard Air Line passenger train No. 13, New York to Jacksonville, was derailed last night at Merry Oaks, N.C., twenty miles west of this city.

Velvet and Corduroy Popular

The prophecy that pile fabrics would be worn more than ever this autumn seems certain of fulfilment, for corduroys, velvets and plushes have been decked with new glories and have become altogether irrestible. Some of the most handsome of the new tailored costumes are made of grey and black striped glace corduroy, a material so beautiful that it achieves the height of elegance without the slightest additional decoration. Charming coats are made of it, too, one smart model being shown to which an effective touch was given by a rather small round, turnover collar of plush in the same gray as the stripes. This plush was no ordinary fabric, but had a pile so thick and long that it looked like fur.

White corduroy, is much in demand for various purposes. A lot of it is going to be used in millinery and youthful tailored suits, coats and dresses are made of it. Coats for small girls when not made entirely of white corduroy are often trimmed with it, be their color what it may. Little coats in colors are also trimmed with corduroy in a matching tone, which may form panels between full length plaits, besides making the collar and cuffs.

Velvets have been affected by the present vogue of shot effects the mixing of two colors in the same piece, being managed in more than one way.

A ribbed glace velvet known by the name of Louis XIII. has black pile on a brilliantly colored back, which shows faintly or distinctly, according to the point of view. In other pieces the pile itself is in two different colors.

Gorgeous indeed, are the new satin velvets, with glossy, flattened pile, which are shown in the splendid purples, reds and greens of the coronation.

Mrs. Godfrey Well Again

Vineland, N. J.—Mrs. Allen T. Godfrey, who has been in bad health for some time, has just written the following letter telling of her recovery:

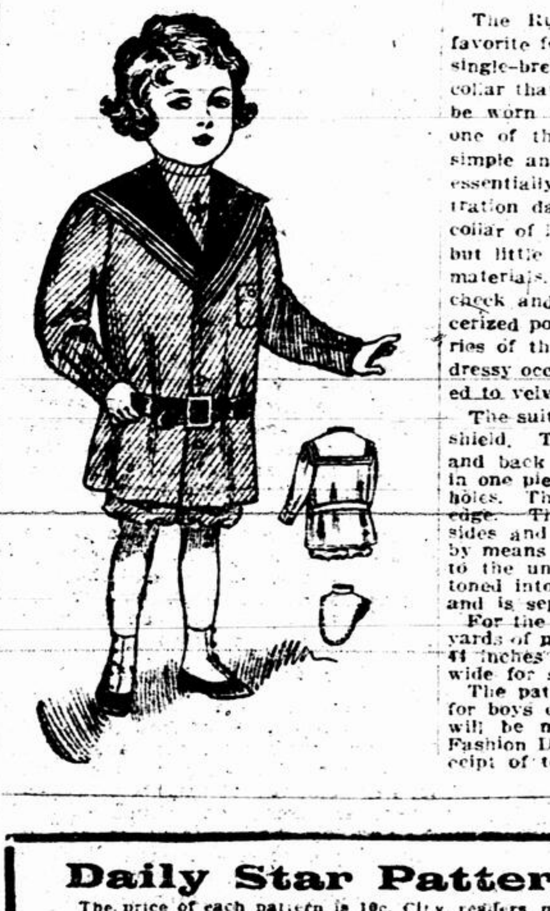
"Everyone who is in broken health ought to know that Vinol will build them up and make them strong. It restored my strength and vigor after I had been in a badly run-down condition for several months and I never fail to give Vinol a good word now."

This is one more proof that our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, which is free from cod liver oil, is a remarkably strengthening and vitalizing medicine.

Men and women who are weak and in poor health, unable to sleep or eat well and who have given up hope of ever being strong again, should certainly take Vinol, without waiting another day, for it is exactly what they need.

There is no risk at all, for it is so sure to do good that we guarantee it absolutely and will refund the money if you are not satisfied. R. H. Bryson, Druggist, St. Catherine and Peel Sts., Montreal.

BOY'S RUSSIAN BLOUSE SUIT



The Russian suit is an unquestioned favorite for little boys. The one made in single-breasted style with the big sailor collar that is especially well liked. It can be worn with a belt of leather or with one of the material as preferred. It is simple and it is easy to make, yet it is essentially boyish in effect. In the illustration dark blue serge is finished with collar of lighter blue trimmed with braid, but little boys are wearing a variety of materials. Serge, cheviot, shepherd's check and the like are all correct. Mercerized poplin, galatea and washable fabrics of the kind are much liked, and for dressy occasions the same model is adapted to velvet and velveteen.

The suit consists of blouse, trousers and shield. The blouse is made with front and back portions. The sleeves are cut in one piece each and sewed to the armholes. The sailor collar finishes the neck edge. The trousers are closed at the sides and are finished with waist-bands by means of which they can be buttoned to the under-waist. The shield is buttoned into place beneath the sailor collar and is separate.

For the 6-year-size will be required 3¼ yards of material 27, 2½ yards 36, 2 yards 44 inches wide, with 1⅛ yards 27 inches wide for shield and belt.

The pattern, No. 7173, is cut in sizes for boys of 4, 6 and 8 years of age, and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

Patti's Rules of Health.

This famous singer has preserved her health very successfully. Here are some of her rules:

"It is natural to be healthy; disease is punishment for some indiscretion or excess. Every time we are ill we squander a portion of our youth, the capital of life. Don't let yourself become ill. Live regularly, simply, and frugally.

Sleep eight hours daily. Ventilate the sleeping room. When my voice was the only thing I had on earth, I slept with my windows wide open, summer and winter, and never caught cold by so doing.

Do not allow social obligations to interfere with the simplicity of your life; complicated living breeds worriment, and worry is the main enemy of youth and happiness. Make the home a pleasant, cheerful place.

Drink nothing but water or milk; you cannot drink too much water; live in holy fear of medicine and alcoholic drinks.

It takes little real food to keep the body strong. Fruit is by far the best and cheapest food. I know a family of gigatic blacksmiths, all big men, who have for over thirty years eaten nothing but milk, dried figs, and nuts.

Health is youth; disease is old age. I feel as young as I did at thirty."

CONVERSATION DONT'S

1. Don't tell long stories, or even short ones, unless you have an especial gift for it.

2. Remember that talking about yourself is an indulgence, and, as such, should be strictly limited.

3. If another woman tells you of some sensation or experience of her own, don't immediately cap it with one of yours. "Swapping tastes" is of the lowest order of conversation. I have been in circles where the talk consisted in each woman's taking her turn in telling how she thought or felt about some commonplace subject, such as the digestibility of shell-fish, or liability to colds.

4. Never lose consciousness of the proportion of the talk you are usurping, and be sure that the quality matches the quantity.

5. Discriminate always between talk for your own pleasure and talk for your friends. People constantly tell the stupidist anecdotes because these have become charged with some extraneous charm impossible to transmit. Perhaps the occasion when it took place was important because some particular person was there, and every detail of it has taken on a radiance visible only to the narrator.

Appetizing toast for a flagging appetite is covered with malted milk and clam juice. Whole wheat bread toasted very brown is excellent, though white bread toasted to a rich color will serve the purpose. Dissolve the two teaspoonfuls of malted milk in half a cupful of hot water and then fill the cup with the clam juice. Season with salt and pepper and serve. Clam juice and malted milk mixed in these proportions make a tasty and nutritious beverage when one is tired or cold.

To make malted milk fudge dissolve two cupfuls of malted milk in a cupful of water, add three and a half pounds of granulated sugar and three cupfuls of hot water. Boil until the syrup spins a substantial thread or forms into a soft ball when dropped into cold water. Beat and cool in the usual way and cut into squares. A handful of nut meats and raisins may be added just before it comes from the fire.

For corn syrup caramels, boil together two cupfuls of granulated sugar, a cupful of good cream, one and three-quarters cupfuls of corn syrup and a cupful of butter, and after a few minutes gradually add another cupful of cream without letting the syrup stop boiling for a second. When the syrup will form a substantial ball in the fingers after cooling in cold water, add a teaspoonful of vanilla and a cupful of chopped nut meats. Turn into breadpans that have been oiled, and when nearly cold, turn out of the tins, cut into cubes and wrap in waxed paper. It sometimes takes an hour to do the boiling before the right stage is reached, but the caramels are as good as the best.

Dainty sandwiches for afternoon tea are made of three tablespoonfuls of butter, the same quantity of granulated sugar, the same of ground rice, two eggs and a rounding saltspoonful of baking powder. NO IMMEDIATE TARIFF CHANGES, DECLARES HON. W. T. WHITE—HE IS PUBLIC OWNERSHIP ADVOCATE

Minister of Finance Gets Warm Welcome at Lansdowne — Tells Audience He Has Severed All Financial Connections, and is Free to Serve Country, Unfettered and Untrammeled by Any Interests—Foreshadows Measures to Remedy Any Inequitable or Unjust Advantages Enjoyed by Trusts or Combines—Policy of Protection for Industries Best Policy for Labor, as for Capital — Protection for the Farmer.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Lansdowne, Ont., November 3.—Much interest was displayed yesterday in the Hon. W. T. White's first public speech since his appointment as Minister of Finance, and his first appearance in Leeds county, where Mr. George Taylor has retired in his favor

One matter set clear at once by the new Minister is that there will be no immediate tariff changes. "And in the future," he declared, "there will be no change without the most careful consideration. But Mr. White announced that it would be the duty of the Government to take such steps as might be necessary to remedy any unjust advantages enjoyed by trusts or combines

He referred indirectly to certain criticisms passed upon his appointment to the Cabinet. He explained that although he had been a Liberal he had not hesitated to sit behind Mr. Borden at the latter's meeting in Toronto when reciprocity was condemned. "And I entered that meeting by the front door," Mr White declared. "I did not wait till the meeting was over to declare myself." He had himself conducted a campaign against reciprocity, speaking almost every night, and although he admitted that many Conservatives were more entitled to the Cabinet position, he promised that if he himself failed as Minister of Finance, it would not be for lack of effort on his part.

In regard to his alleged connection with financial institutions, Mr. White announced that he had completely severed all such connections and that he stood before the country a free and untrammelled man

Far from being an opponent of public ownership, the new Minister declared that not only was he in favor of public ownership but was one of its most earnest supporters.

Mr. White was warm in his praise of Premier Borden: "The mantle of Sir John A. Macdonald," he said, "has fallen upon worthy shoulders in the person of the Hon. R. L. Borden. The qualities of leadership are rare, and he has the best of them—patience, gentility, quiet strength, honest purpose, idealism and progressiveness."

As Minister of Finance, Mr. White announced that he was the deliberate and voluntary choice of his leader. He was going to represent a farming community, but he had been born on a farm himself, and there was no kind of farm work that he had not done.

The Lansdowne Town Hall, in which Mr. White addressed the meeting, was crowded, and Mr. George Taylor, the retiring candidate, was present to introduce the member-elect. There is still no definite talk of anybody to oppose Mr. White.

Mr. Taylor shared with Mr. White the honors of the evening. The Conservative war-horse was reminiscent in his valedictory, reviewing his long parliamentary career. He thanked most heartily the Conservatives of Leeds for the loyal support accorded him since his entering into the political area in 1882. He prized more than words could tell, he said, the record of never having been defeated. It gave him great pleasure to endorse the candidature of Mr. White, and he bespoke for him a brilliant career as a lieutenant of Hon. R. L. Borden.

Among others who addressed the meeting were Mr. John Webster, the Conservative M.P. for Brockville, who defeated Hon. G. P. Graham; the Rev. S. J. Robins, the Baptist clergyman of Brockville, who was one of the leading stumpers on behalf of the Conservative cause during the Dominion campaign, was also called upon for an address.

FINANCE MINISTER ON HIS APPOINTMENT.

Hon. Mr. White, who was received with great applause, spoke as follows:

"I stand before you a much honored man to-night. I have been honored greatly beyond my deserts, by the invitation of the Liberal-Conservative party of this historic county of Leeds to become their candidate for the vacancy created in your representation in the House of Commons through the resignation of your much respected and wholly worthy member, Mr. George Taylor, who has had the distinguished honor of representing you for over a quarter of a century with such credit to himself, his constituency and the great party in which he has held such an important and conspicuous place. It is a great honor for a man to be chosen as standard-bearer for his party in the home city or in his native county. It is a double honor to be chosen in a constituency to which he is a stranger. Great confidence is reposed in such a case and an obligation of the strongest kind is created upon the recipient of such confidence to endeavor to justify it to the best of his ability. (Applause.)

"There are many men, your fellow citizens of this riding, more qualified to represent you than myself. They could reasonably claim to be entitled to do so by reason of their residence in the community, by their personal standing with their fellow citizens, by public service they have rendered and by their superior knowledge of your local conditions and requirements. And particularly would these considerations apply in the case of your good friend and my good friend, Mr George Taylor, with his long record of meritorious service in your behalf. At his request and following my own wishes I have come up in advance of nomination in order that we may become mutually acquainted and I only hope you may be as well satisfied as I am after inspection. I am going to ask you to take me on trust until you know me better. (Cheers.)

ACCEPTED POST AS HIS DUTY.

"Now, how does it happen that I find myself a Minister of the Crown without having a seat in the House of Commons? Well, the explanation is simple, and, I have no doubt, thoroughly understood by you all. Only a short time ago I concluded a five weeks' campaign throughout Ontario in the interests of the Conservative party on the great issue of reciprocity. I do not wish to emphasize or magnify the part I took in the election. In common with hundreds of speakers throughout the Dominion. I simply did my best. I felt that in negotiating the proposed pact the Government in all good faith and sincerity had made a mistake of the first magnitude. I saw in the proposal a grave menace to our fiscal independence and to our national autonomy as a free Dominion within the Empire.

"I considered that the prosperity of the country would be endangered, that the interprovincial trade which we had built up with so much pains and cost and labor was threatened with destruction and I felt it my duty as a Canadian citizen to act. On the Massey Hall platform in September last I placed myself behind Mr. Borden and joined the ranks of the Liberal-Conservative party. I entered by the front door. (Loud cheers.) I did not climb up some other way. That door was opened to former Liberals by none other than your old chieftain, Sir John A. Macdonald, when he named his party the Liberal-Conservative party. He intended that Liberals should enter. Your leader, Mr. Borden, formerly voted Liberal and came over to the Conservative party in 1891 on the great and cognate issue of Commercial Union

FULLY REALIZES HIS RESPONSIBILITY.

"Well, as the result of the election, reciprocity was laid at rest, and I returned to my desk with no thought whatever of entering the field of active politics. It was at this time that I was honored by receiving from Mr. Borden an invitation to join his Cabinet, which I conceived it my duty to accept. No doubt Mr. Borden had it in mind that in appointing me he would recognize the support given him by tens of thousands of Liberals throughout Canada which contributed so greatly to his success. But I also believe that he thought I might have special qualifications for the important position which he assigned to me and to this I can only say that if I fail his expectation it will not be for lack of effort on my part. And I may say further, that after having made myself acquainted in a general way with the requirements of the office, I believe I shall be able to meet them not without credit to myself and what is more important to me not without credit to you and the people of Canada and the great party now in charge of its government.

"Now, gentlemen, I am happy to say that my appointment has been well received throughout Canada. And particularly am I gratified at the generous broad-minded spirit in which it has been received by the Conservative party. In that party, both in Dominion and Provincial politics, are many exceptionally able men with splendid records of public service to their credit whose claims were greatly superior to any that I possessed. But they have cheerfully acquiesced in the choice of their leader, and in the great Liberal-Conservative party at Ottawa I find myself in the home of friends.

HAS DISCONTINUED FINANCIAL INTERESTS.

"I have been a financial man, but in view of my having accepted the position of Finance Minister I have discontinued my entire financial connection and I desire to say to you that I am as free to serve you as any man in Canada, unfettered and untrammeled by any interest of any kind whatsoever. I am in entire sympathy with the farming community, having been born and raised in the country. And there is nothing of which I am more proud. My trusteeship is now for the Dominion of Canada alone. With regard to the great principle of public ownership, I am not only not opposed to it, but its earnest supporter, and I look forward to a development on its part commensurate with the growth and progress of Canada.

"Now. I have spoken at all too great length as to myself. Let us pass to a nobler and higher theme. Let us talk to you awhile of Canada, and what we seek to accomplish for her and for you.

HON. W. T. WHITE.

Minister of Finance.

REVIEWS OUTLOOK FOR DOMINION.

"What is the condition of Canada to-day? That of the greatest prosperity. Let us take a glance at the great Dominion. And first as to railways. We have three transcontinental lines. There is the Great Canadian Pacific, whose construction was the very beginning, the foundation, so to speak, of the prosperity of Canada. The Canadian Northern System now represents over four thousand miles of railway, all the growth of the last twelve years, and is now linking up its eastern and western sections by a projected line along the north shore of Lake Superior. At the same time it is pushing on from Edmonton through the Arrowhead Pass down through the Rockies to Vancouver. The Government is building the National Transcontinental from Moncton to Winnipeg. Hays is carrying the Grand Trunk Pacific straight as the crow flies, from Winnipeg to Prince Rupert. Consider your cities, Montreal, one of the great ports of the world. Its population has doubled within a few years. So has that of Toronto. Winnipeg has multiplied its population by four since I knew it first only a few short years ago. And Vancouver, burnt out a brief generation or so ago, then a town of two or three thousand and now a magnificent city of 130,000 people sitting augustly at the gateway of the Pacific with all the immense possibilities of such a site.

"The West, the great West, a lone prairie land before the advent of the C. P. R., now three splendid provinces rapidly filling with a hardy and manly population and producing this year 175,000,000 bushels of wheat. In Northern Ontario we have Cobalt, one of the very great silver camps of the world. Porcupine is now under development. The whole north country is highly mineralized and immensely rich in other natural resources. It will be a magnificent home market for the eastern mixed farmer for generations to come. And the great clay belt will be another agricultural Ontario. Consider our manufactures—how they have thriven under the National Policy of moderate protection. Consider our great steel plants at Sydney, at Hamilton, at the Soo.

DEVELOPMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES.

"And hand in hand has gone the greatest commercial development. Canada stands well among the nations in the great industrial and commercial enterprises which she has built up. All this has only been possible by the development of our natural resources. We have the resources and all we have required and do require are men and money, immigration and capital, and we are getting both. The immigration last year was over 300,000. That immigration brought in millions of money to establish itself on the soil of Canada. At the same time we are receiving British capital at the rate of at least two hundred millions a year that we know of for a certainty. I am glad to say that all classes in the community are sharing in this prosperity. Wages are good and there is little or no unemployment. General trade is thriving. Our financial institutions are sound. The farmer has probably the best home market in the world to-day. Why have our exports of cheese, of butter, of eggs, of bacon, fallen so greatly in the last five years? Because of the great development of our home market, which has taken the produce we used to send abroad. That home market must become increasingly great and important as we further develop our great industries, extend our railways and carry on the public undertaking necessary to meet the requirements of a growing country such as ours.

"I have always believed in a policy of reasonable protection for Canada, including protection for the farmer. Especially is such protection desirable for him during the constructive stage of a nation's development. Now we are in the midst of these prosperous conditions and I need not counsel how careful we should be in taking any step or doing any act that might tend to change these conditions. Trade questions are exceedingly intricate and complex. They require the most careful study. Changes in the tariff in times such as these should not be lightly considered. Assurance of stability is required to give confidence to our manufacturers, our commercial men and our farmers.

NO IMMEDIATE TARIFF CHANGE.

"I think I am safe in saying that there is in contemplation no immediate change in the tariff. And in the future there will be no change without the most careful enquiry, without the most just consideration of the claims of all who may be interested, producer and consumer alike. I do not mean to say that the tariff must remain as something fixed, stereotyped or crystallized. The interests of the community as a whole must always be before us. It will be the duty of the Government to take such measures as may be necessary to remedy any inequitable or unjust advantage enjoyed by trusts and combines.

"In other words, my conception is that while stability of tariff should be a chief consideration in times of such prosperity as we now enjoy, we must make it the subject of constant study in order that as necessity arises it may be modified to meet the changing conditions of a constantly changing country. As to labor, the first essential is employment and plenty of it with good wages. The policy of protection for our industries is the best policy for labor as for capital during the critical stage of the development of our country's resources and the building up of its industries.

A GOOD ROADS POLICY AND MAIL EXTENSION.

"After all it is the people who make the prosperity of any country. The duty of the Government is to provide national machinery of every sort to aid and assist the people in developing the resources and trade of their country. And in this connection I desire to draw attention to one of the planks of Mr. Borden's platform. It is to assist in the good roads movement. The cost of haulage along a highway is of as much importance as the question of railway freight rates. It is as desirable to save money on the one as on the other. So far as I am concerned, I am as strongly as possible in favor of any measure which, in co-operation with the province or otherwise, will give the farmers of Canada in time the great boon of good road over which the produce may find its way to market with the minimum of trouble and expense. (Applause.)

I believe also in the extension of the free rural mail delivery wherever practicable throughout the country. And, above all, any expenditure from the Department of Agriculture (which by the way, is in the best possible hands, Mr. Burrill's) which will promote the production or sale of farm products will have my unqualified support. The possibilities of increase in our farming output are almost unlimited. Scientific methods will more and more revolutionize farming. The question of help is, I know, of prime importance, but this can be met by encouraging the right kind of immigration. There is no quarrel between city and country in Canada. Properly understood, their interests are identical. The growth of any city in Canada is a boon to the farming district which surrounds it. The National Policy, by building up our home industries has promised the welfare not only of such industries but of the entire community.

AGRICULTURAL INTERESTS MUST BE FOSTERED.

"And here the lesson of the census is most important. City population in the east is increasing fast. Rural populations is almost standing still. The prosperity of Canada must depend upon the production of the farm more than upon anything else. We must seek to make the life attractive, to give the farmer all possible advantages, to assist in facilitating production. And we must be just and fair and generous to the West. It is a great market for the manufacturer and farmer of the East. The interests, the needs of the West must be continuously borne in mind. Anything we can do to promote its settlement, to develop its resources, to assist in marketing its produce to the best advantage will be work well done for the whole of Canada. That is one of the great questions to which the Government must address itself. (Loud applause.)

PUBLIC EXPENDITURE AND VALUE OBTAINED.

"Now, as to one other plank in the platform, the wise supervision of public expenditures. In the present stage of our development national parsimony or economy for its own sake would be a most mistaken policy. Expenditure of public money, well within our means or alsed to moderate amounts upon our credit for national enterprises of a permanent or capital nature, is wise expenditure and will be supported by public opinion. We must provide national machinery, we must provide all necessary facilities to enable the people to continue to prosper, to enable them to initiate and carry on greater enterprises in a greater national future. The important point is not the expenditure but to see that for every dollar spent a dollar's value is obtained. (Cheers.)

CANADA'S GLORIOUS BRITISH HERITAGE.

"Now as to the national side. We are all British subjects. No need to emphasize that Conservatives and Liberals alike, there are no more loyal people under the sun than the citizens of Canada. We are a free Dominion within the Empire. Nothing anomalous in that under British institutions. We are proud of the old land, proud of the home land, proud of her great traditions, her great literature, her great political system, her glorious history. We believe she has an even greater and more glorious destiny before her and in that we shall share under an association which we hope will be increasingly closer and more intimate. (Loud applause.)

Our Southern Neighbors.

"Towards our great neighbor to the south, standing with Great Britain in the very forefront of the vanguard of civilization, we cherish the most friendly feelings of neighborly regard. There are some who think we may have given them offence in the result of the recent election. On the contrary, I believe the American nation received our verdict in just the big broad-spirited way we should expect of them. They know we had a standing offer of reciprocity on our statute books for eighteen long years from 1879 to 1897. They know that by reason of tariff conditions Canada was obliged to develop her interprovincial trade by the construction of canals and by the building of transcontinental lines of railway.

"The trend of all our trade and the distribution of our industries have been determined more by our tariff conditions than by any other single cause. In these circumstances is it to be wondered at that the people of Canada, under the prosperous conditions prevailing throughout the Dominion, were unwilling to take a step which involved a total, an entire change in the fiscal policy, in the economic system which had led to that prosperity? Our American neighbors, I believe, understand the situation perfectly, and there is no reason to apprehend that we shall not continue in the future as in the past upon the best terms of amity and friendship with them. (Applause.)

Only Just Beginning.

"Now, gentlemen, we are only at the beginning of things in Canada. We are only on the threshold of our prosperity. We may have an occasional set back but over five-year periods, over decades, there can be only one destiny for Canada, that of continued progress. For us and our descendants, for all those who made Canada their home, there are only the most gratifying and exciting prospects. With such fidence in our own land and filial patriotic attachment to the Empire we look forward with hope and expectation to an even great and greater future." (Prolonged applause.)

Empire Now Safe Says Earl Grey

Right Imperial Spirit in Self-Governing Dominions Guarantee for Future.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, November 3.—Earl Grey was entertained at a banquet last night at Newcastle, which was presided over by the Duke of Northumberland. In the course of his speech, Earl Grey said the people of Canada were busy laying on firm lines the foundation of a great empire, and their work was only just beginning.

"Now, gentlemen," went on Earl Grey, "may I make a confession? A few years ago I was haunted by the fear that the future of the Empire was in danger, principally because of the lack of a proper self-respecting Imperial spirit in the self-governing nations of the Empire. I rejoice to say that that fear is now largely dispelled. The full and abundant stream of evidence that comes from Canada, New Zealand and Australia goes to show that in the self-governing dominions the belief exists that there is a greater and better future for them all inside rather than outside the British Empire."

To Give Stars For Bravery

Chief Campeau Recommends Order of Merit for Police and Firemen.

At a meeting of the Board of Control yesterday afternoon the suggestion of Chief Campeau that an order of merit be instituted on the police force was received with favor. The idea is that when a policeman or fireman has accomplished some deed of a high order of bravery, he should be entitled to wear on his sleeve a star, and should by that fact be allowed to have ten cents a day extra pay, and further that when men have served five years with good records, they should have the right to wear a bar on their uniform.

Should the matter be considered favorably by the council, Constable Tremblay, who recently stopped a runaway horse on St. James street, would be the first to receive the star.

ADMINISTER SPARK WHEN LONG SLEEP SUGGESTS TRANCE

Electrical Treatment and Will Power Development Feature in Blanche David's Case.

By electrical shocks a[illegible] the training of her own will power, it is hoped that the trances which were slowly, but inevitably pulling Blanche David down to a premature grave, will be checked and finally cured. The treatment being administered to her at the Notre Dame hospital is apparently proving successful.

Blanche David is an 18 year old girl who has been taken eleven times to various local hospitals in a form of hysterical trance, lasting from five days or two weeks. It is over a year since these long sleeping spells first got control of her and it is the doctors' opinion that she lapsed into the first one partly through her own will and the succeeding ones were natural impulses that she lacked determination to fight against. Throughout last summer and early autumn the trances became more frequent and each one left her in a weakened condition from lack of nourishment.

On September 24th she was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital for the second time and on her awaking at the end of a five days' sleep the doctors determined to make an effort to cure her entirely of the mysterious disease. Since her awaking she has been employed at the hospital as a domestic in order that the treatment may be watched and more easily given. Whenever Miss David shows a desire to lapse into one of her long sleeps she is warned that she will be given electric shocks, and the aid of her own will power is sought to prevent her slumbers extending beyond eight or ten hours. If necessary it is always found that a series of shocks from an induction coil will always waken her. It was but a few days ago that this had to be resorted to for the last time, but from the fact that her desire to sleep seems to growing less the doctors judge the treatment is succeeding in its purpose.

LIBERAL REORGANIZATION.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux and Hon. Dr. Beland Missioners Here.

During the winter efforts are to be made to reorganize the Liberal forces in Montreal. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Hon. Dr. Beland will visit all the Liberal clubs in turn and address meetings. The date of these meetings will be fixed at an assembly of the federation of Liberal Clubs, which is announced to take place next week. At the same meeting it is hoped the project may take practical shape for a mass meeting in the city, at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be invited to speak.

BISHOP FARTHING WANTS YOUNG MEN FOR THE MINISTRY

The Need Was Never So Great for Those Inspired to Work, He Says.

"The ancient faith of the Church is retained by her sons now as firmly as ever it was," was the belief expressed by Bishop Farthing last night at the first annual supper of the men belonging to the Church of the Advent, Westmount, held in the Edinburgh Cafe; "but," he suggested, "they must rise to the occasion and face new conditions and privileges."

The Bishop referred to the generosity shown by the laymen in the different parts of the diocese, and also to the task confronting them in regard to providing permanent buildings for their church life and worship. Alluding to church extension work, he emphasized the serious need of men and urged fathers of families to encourage their sons to turn their thoughts to the ministry. He concluded by asking those present to give their thought, time and money in ministering to the poor and to church extension.

Rev H. B. Little, the rector of the church, considered that the best way of getting at men was to go directly to them, and not through the intermediary of ladies or children, and endeavor to commend the work of the church in a sane and business-like manner.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TO-NIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

FRENCH COMMENT ON CONGO TREATY IS BADLY SPLIT

Parisian Press Hopelessly Divided in Sentiment Regarding Agreement.

Paris November 3—"France breathes more freely" says the Figaro, "since the Franco-German negotiations are almost concluded and the Congo arrangement is scheduled for signature on Saturday." The newspaper congratulates France and Germany on the happy result.

The Echo de Paris remarks that the German victory is complete. The Paris Journal remarks dryly that France will abandon to Germany 225,000 square kilometres and a million in population, while France secures dubious privileges in Morocco.

The Petit Parisien predicts that the Franco-German relations will become more amicable, while the Journal says that France has lost more than she anticipated, and that the Moroccan question is not yet clear, owing to Spanish pretensions.

The Matin says that negotiations have finally and happily been completed. Morocco is now regarded as a part of the French Colonial Empire. The Paris Bourse was marked by a general buoyancy this afternoon, Italian securities excepted.

Treaty Now Complete.

Berlin, November 3.—The German Foreign Minister, Herr Von Kiderlin-Waechter, and the French Ambassador to Germany, M. Cambon, to-day initialled the Congo portion of the Moroccan treaty. This means that the treaty is now complete, and it is semi-officially announced that the entire document will be signed November 4.

STOLEN TREASURE FOUND AT VANCOUVER.

Nearly $25,000 Belonging to Bank of Montreal Recovered by Workmen.

Vancouver, B.C., November 3.—About $25,000 of the money recently stolen from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster has been recovered.

The money was found yesterday under the sidewalk in front of Dr. Walker's house on Fourth street, New Westminster, by George McCleary, foreman for the Power Construction Company, which has the contract for laying new sidewalks along Fourth street.

The men engaged on the work had torn up an old board sidewalk when they came upon the money, $4,380 of which was in gold, contained in a sack stolen from the bank. The remaining $20,000 was in new $5 and $10 bills. McCleary at once notified the police and the money was removed to the Bank of Montreal. More important developments are expected.

AMERICAN THANKSGIVING.

President Taft Fixes November 30 as Date.

New York, November 3.—For the first time in the history of the country the annual presidential thanksgiving proclamation was issued from a city other than the national capital.

The proclamation calls upon the citizens of the United States to celebrate Thursday, November 30, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer.

Four Drowned Near Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, November 3.—Four deaths by drowning in Netley Creek, near St. Louis, about thirty-five miles from this city in the direction of Lake Winnipeg, occurred yesterday. The victims are Melvin McNair, aged fourteen; two cousins, named Eddie Kirkness and Emma Settee, aged nine, and Veronica Berthold, aged eight.

The oldest of the victims owned a sleigh and a team of dogs, and at noon recess invited the children of the school to go for a ride on the ice of the creek which in places was about an inch thick.

Lindsay-Montreal Electric Line.

Lindsay, Ont., November 3. — The survey for a line of an electric road between Port Hope through Peterborough, Omemee and Lindsay to Orillia is under way in this section. It is proposed to connect the line at Port Hope with an electric line from Montreal to Toronto, and it is hinted that the Canadian Northern Railway is back of the deal.

The new road would carry small baggage cars as well as passenger coaches. Power for the cars will be furnished from the rails and the current will come from Niagara Falls.

STATION CONTRACT AWARDED

New Structure at Notre Dame de Grace to Cost $62,000.

The contract for building the new police and fire station in Notre Dame de Grace was awarded to J. Marcotte for $62,000 by the Board of Control yesterday.

ZAM-BUK CURED HIS SORES.

Cures also Chapped Hands and Chilblains.

Mr. Chas. Hardy., of 558 Home Street, Winnipeg, says:—"My eldest son has proved the value of Zam-Buk and we would not be without a supply in the house. He had both ears so badly frozen that we became alarmed for fear they should have to be amputated. His ears were swollen to several times their usual size, and were very much discolored. Large blisters formed and then these burst and painful sores on both ears resulted The sores mattered, scales formed and the boy suffered terribly.

"The preparations which we at first used were found next to useless, in fact the wounds grew steadily worse, so we then tried Zam-Buk and found a great improvement in one or two applications.

"We continued with this herbal balm until the scales and foul matter were cleared away thoroughly, and healing began. In a week from first using this excellent balm the lad's ears were almost well again. In three weeks you would never have known his ears had been frozen, so well had Zam-Buk brought about healing."

Here is but one illustration out of scores how superior Zam-Buk is to other salves. It also cures chapped hands, chilblains, piles, inflamed sores, eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poison, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases. On account of its purity and its herbal composition it is the ideal balm for babies and young children.

All druggists and stores at 50c box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Try also Zam-Buk Soap 25c. per tablet.

TORONTO CONSIDERS SUBWAY TENDERS

Fourteen Bids Sent in—Toronto Firm's Figures Reported Lowest.

Toronto, November 3—Will Toronto vote $2,600,000 for the beginning of a tube line from Front street to St. Clair avenue?

The controllers decided not to extend the time for tendering as the English tube contractors asked, and all 14 tenders were referred to City Engineer Rust, who is to report on them as soon as possible.

There are two Toronto firms among the fourteen, M. J. Havey and Company and A. M. Orpen & Company. The St. Catharines firm of Larkin & Sangster also tendered. The other tenders came from New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Chicago and Lowell, Mass.

One of the Toronto tenderers is alleged to have struck the lowest figure.

There will also have to be added, of course, the cost of laying the track, securing the cars, and electrical equipment, etc. Estimates of the cost of these other items are being prepared now.

Reprieve for Digby Slayer,

Digby, N.S., November 3. — Judge Meagher has granted a stated case re Harry Wilson, for the opinion of the full bench, which convenes at Halifax on November 15, the day set for Wilson's execution, and that the judge has also granted a reprieve of one month.

Five Killed on Level Crossing.

Paris, Ky., November 3. — While crossing the Lousiville and Nashville Railroad in Bourbon county yesterday, Miss Lena Hughes, her sister, Mrs. Barton Harp, and her two children, Ruth and William, aged three years and five months respectively, were struck by a fast train and instantly killed.

DISTRUSTED BANKS, IS OUT $10,000.

Minnesota Woman Heavy Loser by the Gentlemanly Stranger Game.

Winona, Minn., November 3.—Mrs. W. F. Jahn, of Rollingstone, told the Winona police that she was robbed of $10,000 in cash which she carried in a suit case, as she had no faith in banks.

She said she was about to board a street car when a stranger who got off the train from Rollingstone offered to carry her grip. She allowed him to do so. When she turned around she saw the man disappearing up a hill with the satchel. The empty grip was found later by the police in some bushes.

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL COMPANY
RÉPUBLIQUE FRANÇAISE

A Symbol of Quality

At the Paris Exposition of 1900 the Lehigh Valley Coal Company's Lehigh Coal received the gold medal shown in the cut. It is indeed a symbol of quality for at no exposition has greater care been shown by judges in making their awards.

Now, as then, this coal holds the premier position. And in spite of our pride in the highest award from Paris we feel that the greatest honor that comes to our coal, the most conclusive proof of its quality, is the confidence and continued sale it enjoys in the thousands of homes where it is used.

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL

meets all the demands of the woman who takes pride in her home. It saves her labor, saves her money, improves her cooking.

The Lehigh Valley Coal Company's Lehigh Coal saves labor because it is a clean coal—makes little dust and soot to scatter. It saves money because it lasts longer, gives more heat, than ordinary coal. It improves cooking because it insures always a uniform steady heat.

Order the Lehigh Valley Coal Company's Lehigh Coal from your dealer. Order by name. If he doesn't carry it tell him he can get it from either of these jobbers.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 3, 1911.

THREE SPEECHES.

HON. MR. BORDEN.

Hon. Mr. Borden made his first public appearance as Premier at a banquet of jubilation held last night in Halifax. Halifax would be less than human if it did not feel like "jubilating" at the final "arrival" of its candidate for the Premiership; and, when an Englishman feels happy, he always wants to eat in public to soft music. Mr. Borden fell into the spirit of the occasion by delivering an after-dinner address admirably calculated not to interfere with the peaceful digestion of the diners. There was nothing exciting about it to draw the blood away from its proper functions. It had an excess of neither heat nor light—heat over the past victory or light on the future programme of the government.

Still, the Premier's references to the United States were admirable. It was important that he should take this first occasion to officially assure our neighbors that there was nothing in the remotest manner hostile to them in our recent refusal to entertain the Reciprocity agreement. We are, so far as friendship goes, precisely in the position we occupied a year ago before this astonishing blunder of two governments was dreamed of. We realize perfectly that the most cordial relations between ourselves and our neighbors are of imperative importance, both to ourselves and to the Empire. Deliberately, we two peoples have refused to even consider the possibility of trouble between us, and have left one of the longest frontiers in the world wholly unfortified. President Taft has just reviewed an immense fleet in New York harbor; but no one has the smallest notion in this country that these battleships carry any menace to us. Yet it would be difficult to reproduce this situation in any other part of the world. When the Kaiser reviews his fleet at Kiel, the President of France reviews his at Toulon; and there is a visible comparison of power.

As to the tariff, Mr. Borden preaches stability, and promises the appointment of a Tariff Commission to "advise" Parliament. The value of such a Commission must depend very largely upon its personnel. That is at once the strength and weakness of the Commission system. A well-manned Commission is a great power on the side of good government; a feeble or self-seeking Commission is one of the most dangerous contrivances that the wit of man has ever devised. Mr. Borden will really announce the most important part of this new policy when he tells us the names of the men who will carry it out. Our natural resources are to be conserved; we are to get better roads; the civil service is to be "reformed." Some of the civil servants are, doubtless, shaking in their shoes lest this means that it is to be "Toried."

On the navy, Mr. Borden was silent. At this stage of affairs, that was only to be expected. The naval question is the most important which will come before the new government; and it is only fair that the Ministers should be allowed time to consider the problem in all its bearings before they announce a policy. All we have to say is that, when it comes, it must be a progressive policy—and not a retreat. It will never be enough to "wipe something off the slate"—they must write something stronger in its place. Our readers know what we think they should write; and, while we are ready to welcome a better policy if one be proposed, we will never be ready to receive in silence a worse.

HON. MR. WHITE.

The new Finance Minister also made his bow last night in his proposed constituency. He undoubtedly appeared as a living evidence of what Mr. Borden meant when he said that his party was recognizing the influence exerted by patriotic Liberals in the late campaign. Mr. White is not a politician; and, so far as he has had political affiliations, they have been Liberal. Both of these facts ought to add to his usefulness in the new government. A business Finance Minister will be a novel and a promising departure; and we shall learn what sort of budgets we will get when they are prepared by a man who regards them as financial and not as political documents. Then a Liberal in a Conservative Privy Council Room ought, in the very nature of things, to be a force on the side of non-partisan and clean government.

Mr. White was at pains to make it clear that his alleged "corporation" connections had not given him a prejudice against public ownership. Just what bearing this has upon his department is not obvious; but it was worth while to say, at all events, that—as Minister—he would not be a corporation man. That is a point he will probably emphasize as time goes on; and the more he makes it clear that he is "his own man"—as it were—the stronger will be his position in the government and in the country. Few men have ever entered public life with a broader opportunity before them than Mr. White—quite as few have entered it with so great a leap into high position—it now remains for him to prove his worth and win a great place in the council of the nation. Every non-party man in Canada will wish him well.

HON. "CHAMP" CLARK.

Our old friend, "Champ" Clark, Congressional leader of the Democratic party, has matched the "gag" of expediency from his mouth with evident relief, and has told us that he was not joking but was wholly serious when he said last spring that "we are preparing to annex Canada." Those keen humorists on this side of the border, who insisted that "Champ" was a great wit and that this was only one of his "bon mots," will kindly take notice that they laughed too soon—in more senses than one. Moreover, they should hereafter restrain their excessive sense of humor. So eager an appreciation of a joke might lead them some day to enjoy being "kicked down stairs" as an especially pointed piece of repartee.

"Champ" was not joking. He meant it. And he still means it; and—what is more—he does not care now who knows it. Canada has got through voting; and now he declares recklessly—"I do not care who hears me say it." Still the doughty Man from Missouri must have lost some of his reputation for fearless frankness by the chastened chagrin with which he watchfully kept his mouth shut all through the Canadian campaign. He ate his words with apparent relish; he kept quiet at the stern bidding of Taft; he would let us believe that he was "joking" if we were fools enough to swallow that story; and he lay a dumb dog for six months, hoping that we would come near enough to his kennel to get soundly bitten.

But now that we have escaped, he is glad to hear the sweet sound of his own voice once more; and he even wants us to know how narrowly we missed being gobbled up. He thinks he could carry every State in the Union on an Annexation-of-Canada platform. We venture to think that he is mistaken—now. We have not the remotest doubt that a vast majority of the American people want Annexation, and would vote for it in a mass if there were any hope of getting it. He could have carried his election on that platform if we had accepted Reciprocity. But his fellow-countrymen are a shrewd and practical people; and they are not likely to grasp at the shadow and lose the substance. They know now that Annexation is a shadow; and they know that an open declaration in favor of such a step would lose them the substance of British friendship. So we rather think that "Champ" and his platform would be beaten.

But we have no delusions as to the future. The forces of human nature will still rule. Any large nation like the American will want to grow; and its best chance to grow is by the absorption of the rest of its own continent, especially as it carries a kindred people accustomed to free government and offering an unrivalled market for American goods. Moreover, if it does not capture Canada, Canada will eventually be the head of a greater English-speaking alliance of nations than the United States; and the hegemony of our race will rest at Ottawa and not at Washington.

Still we now have our own future in our own hands. We can win out on independent lines. But we must be careful lest men of the breed of "Champ" Clark yet get their chance to enjoy their "joke," remembering that "he who laughs last laughs best."

THE WORK OF THE CONTROLLERS.

WHEN the reactionaries in the City Council raised their cry that the Board of Control had done nothing and was not planning to do anything which would not have been accomplished as speedily and as efficiently under the old regime, they were simply talking a little more wildly and at random than is their custom. Vigor of assertion has always been more highly regarded than veracity by this particular class of aldermen; it has served their purpose better and the momentary effect has often encouraged the hope of more permanent results.

It was a tactical error, however, to try this procedure in attacking the Board of Control. The "gang" left itself too open to a counter-attack under cover of a straightforward answer to the demand for a statement from the Board as to what it had accomplished and what it had in hand. By an inevitable comparison with the last aldermanic administration and an equally unavoidable deduction as to why the plunderers of past years are working ceaselessly for a return to old methods, the main reasons for existence of the Board of Control—honesty and efficiency—are made to stand out with startling clearness.

In their report, the Controllers do not dwell at any length on the antagonism of a certain group of aldermen which has handicapped them persistently since they took office. Possibly they consider that this opposition has, by its own actions, made clear both the menace and the motive of its programme to the generality of citizens. What they claim as the result of two years' of hard and honest work are all demonstrable. The scourge of typhoid has been broken and the disgrace of our infant mortality set on the way to be amended. Public life and public property are better protected. The old unlighted corners have disappeared and with it the long-standing squabble with the Light, Heat and Power Company over the whole question of street lights. In spite of those in the Council who have shouted "next meeting" whenever a report on pavements was presented by the Controllers, $1,280,000 has been spent on streets and sidewalks for the benefit of citizens, not of contractors, and three-quarters of a million more for sewers and water-mains.

The uncompleted part of the programme is even more important, involving as it does the making of a new contract with the Street Railway Company, the removal of all overhead wires, the taking over of all or part of the plant of the Montreal Water and Power Company, and half-a-dozen other important projects. In the light of the success which has been achieved during the past two years, when the whole machinery of the City Hall had to be made over, there is no doubt but that the Controllers will carry it through to the lasting and much-needed benefit of the city—if the next Council is composed of honest, intelligent aldermen. The Controllers cannot be expected to undertake the responsibility for this, but the citizens of Montreal can.

WHAT IS FIRE PROTECTION?

"I HAVE engines here which could and should give us pressure enough for four streams," said Chief Tremblay at the St. Irene Church fire. "All they are giving me is two. Poor pressure and mains that are too small are responsible." For ten minutes the two streams referred to were too weak to wet the burning walls twenty-five feet above the side walk. You cannot fight back much of a fire with that kind of water pressure.

At the Drolet street fire a week ago, in another district which is supplied by the Montreal Water and Power Company, it was necessary to lay hose past useless hydrants for more than a quarter of a mile before one was found from which water could be obtained. The Drolet street houses burned as vigorously until they were reduced to ashes as did the Church of St. Irene. What the Fire Department was able to do to curb the flames amounted to about the same in both cases; the engines and the apparatus were there but the water wasn't. At Drolet street, the Water Company officials laid the blame on a double accident; what was the trouble at Atwater avenue?

If any considerable proportion of the hydrants which stud the city are for the reassurance of nervous citizens rather than for use in case of emergency, the sooner it is generally known the better. As a corollary to this, it may be assumed that, if the Fire Department has to wait a quarter of an hour after it arrives at a fire before the water pressure is enough to allow it to work at half its capacity, there is no need for risking lives and machinery in any reckless haste to reach the scene of the conflagration. Or we might possibly take a still more comprehensive view of the situation and inquire what the city's responsibility is for fire-protection within its boundaries.

The suggestion that the British Government may be embarrassed by the task of negotiating new trade treaties to replace those which bind Canada to extend "most-favored-nation" treatment to countries with whom we have not bargained direct, should be enough to remind all concerned that there is now no hurry. Reciprocity has been rejected; and there is no immediate likelihood that Canada will be entering into any trade agreements in the near future which will bring this matter up in anything like an acute form. While it is a sound principle that Canada must be left free to make such arrangements for herself, there will be no desire in this country to hurry the British Government into any action which will imperil British trade.

The "cost of food" question will not become really acute in Germany unless the price of beer goes up.

THE PASSING HOUR

THAT American navy looks good enough to do its devoir.

EVERYBODY is talking at once—except Sir Wilfrid.

TOM WHITE had better watch out when he attempts to "beat" Billy Maclean at that public ownership game.

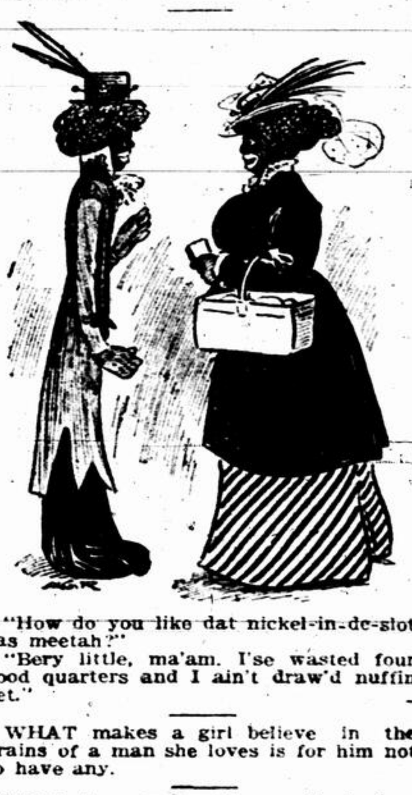
ACCORDING to the politicians' phonetic method, election contest is spelled thus: Saw-off.

IT may be assumed there are enough Roberts in the new Cabinet to make it Bob up serenely when necessary.

WHEN we read of the number of renewals of the American President's headpiece while on tour, we naturally surmise that some of his talking is done through his chapeau.

TOO bad that "Bloody Jim" of the Globe cannot find time to trot Champ Clark around Canada on a lecture tour. With E. Windbag Thomson as press agent, there would be doings.

THE Rev. Reggie Campbell, of City Temple, London, says that no successful business man can be honest. Yet there have been preachers who accumulated a little of this world's goods without being suspected.



"How do you like dat nickel-in-de-slot gas meetah?"

"Bery little, ma'am. I'se wasted four good quarters and I ain't draw'd nuffin yet."

WHAT makes a girl believe in the brains of a man she loves is for him not to have any.

WILL the coming Champ Clark dynasty grant the country a constitution, or will it compel the people of the Middle West to shave off their cherished chin whiskers?

ABOUT $25,000 of the money stolen from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster has been discovered under one of the sidewalks of the city. This will go to strengthen the impression abroad that the streets of Canada are paved with gold.

THE New York Herald threatens to withdraw its correspondent from, and close up, its London office. There, now!

"CHAMP" CLARK is at his "jokes" again. The humor of the "joke" is broader than ever, now that it cannot do harm to his Canadian friends.

GEORGE TAYLOR—faithful old Tory—is living up to his reputation in taking up that White man's burden.

WHAT a lot of banquets. And what a lot of people who would eat their way into the charmed circle where the "dough" is baked.

GOODY-GOODY!

Said an acquaintance of the new leader of Ontario Liberals: "Rowell is a good fellow—not as you and I are good fellows—but really GOOD!"

THE STAR offered a reward of $25,000 during the election campaign to anyone who would furnish evidence that Yankee gold was being brought into Canada to corrupt electors. "Bloody Jim," of the Globe, says he knows. But he will not tell.

THOSE ill-natured cartoons on Sir Wilfrid in a Toronto paper are getting to be somewhat of a NEWSLANCE!

THE man who regulates his whole life with a view to pleasing others usually ends by satisfying nobody, including himself.

MRS. JOBIN, of Rollington, Minn., carried her fortune of $10,000 in a suit case, because she did not believe in banks. A thief at Rollingstone Station gathered all the moss—cash, suit case and all. Probably the lady will now blame the American banking system, just as the big financiers do when there is a crisis in the financial world and they lose their money.

THE Ex-Grand Vizier of Trukey says that no troops or war material were sent by the Turkish Government to Tripoli, because the German Ambassador repeatedly assured him that Italy would never send a regiment or a ship there. Surely the Turkey is too old and wise a bird to be caught by putting salt on its tail.

THE war in Tripoli is getting to be as rough and brutal as a football match.

THE Mayor of St. Pierre Aux Liens is delightfully frank. He says that the municipality is quite willing to be annexed, but they have decided upon a list of public improvements to be carried out before annexation takes place. There is nothing like making sure. St. Pierre Aux Liens will have the improvement, and Montreal will have a lien on the debt.

IN a letter to the Scotsman, King George V. is accused of an inaccuracy in referring to "My ancestor, King Charles II." A similar charge was brought against King Edward VII., for referring to "My ancestress, Queen Elizabeth," which was denounced as a reflection upon the Virgin Queen. As a matter of fact, both their Majesties were perfectly correct. Webster gives two definitions of "ancestor." First, "a progenitor, a forefather"; second, "one who has preceded another in the possession of real estate; one from whom an inheritance is derived; the ca-relative of heir." All England is the King's real estate. The word is derived from the Latin, "antecessor"—predecessor. At any rate, our language is "the King's English," and he can do as he likes with it.

CHAMP CLARK'S latest declaration about annexation is rough on his Canadian friends who were less sincere than himself, regarding the natural and legitimate end of Reciprocity.

MOST of the Chinamen in Montreal have shaved off their queues. Notwithstanding their ancient civilization, the Chinese are evidently a very "barberous" people.

THE doctrine of equal rights for the sexes is being carried too far, when we find a lady waiting for her husband with a revolver. Besides, a woman can only hit anything with a bullet by accident. The hand that wields the broomstick rules the house.

YESTERDAY in the Court of King's Bench a juror claimed exemption from liability to jury service on the ground that he is a commercial traveller. Almost any man would rather travel than be locked up in a jury room. The service is no more popular in England than it is in Canada. The other day a juror in a murder case claimed exemption on the ground of deafness. The court granted the exemption, but refused to let the gentleman who was "a little hard of hearing" travel from the court. His Lordship was afraid that the other jurors might be encouraged to have attacks of deafness.

Farmer's Paradise

Written Specially for The Montreal Star.

If ever a farmers' fairyland existed it is assuredly in the Upper Fraser Valley. The ranchers there are making their fortunes as rapidly as if they owned gold mines and that with the minimum of labor and worry. This is due to two causes: First, the productiveness of the soil; and, secondly, to the enormous prices commanded by hay, grain and farm products in general. Timothy hay sells at from $65 to $85 per ton. Oats bring from 6 to 7 cents per pound at the ranch. Potatoes and all other vegetables are sold at corresponding prices. All that a rancher needs to do is to get his hay in the barn in the summer, and his oats in the sack, and at the proper time purchasers will come begging him to accept their money and let them cart away the products.

This curious state of affairs is partly due to the isolated nature of the country. Development has been going on apace in the central interior. The demand for farm products far exceeds the supply. The outside world, where railways run, is hundreds of miles away via Ashcroft. It costs four cents a pound to haul feed to Soda Creek. With this enormous protection behind him the farmer can put practically his own price on his wares, although the coming of the railroad will greatly increase the supply, the consequent stimulation of development will increase the demand correspondingly; so that it is safe to say that ranchers in this district have a ready market and good prices assured for many years.

Some of these ranches have been under cultivation for as much as forty years, and seem to be still producing as abundantly as ever. The farms divide naturally into two branches—the grain ranches and the hay ranches. The best examples of the grain ranches are the Australian and Hillburn's, while the Kerley Ranch, 15 miles south of Quesnel, is the leading hay ranch. Here on less than 70 acres James Shepard has produced 250 tons of timothy, as well as a fair sized stand of oats. The ordinary yield of timothy, with irrigation, is three tons to the acre. The average yield of oats is from 3,000 to 3,200 pounds to the acre. Ordinarily oats are reckoned by the bushel, but in the Upper Fraser Valley, where they are too precious for that, they are sold by the pound. One of the grain ranches, last season, sold 160,000 pounds of oats at 7 cents a pound, which seems to be a fairly good revenue for any farmer.

The usual formation of soil there is the loam described above, with a clay sub-soil. On the river bottom, however, the sub-soil is sometimes gravel and one pre-emptor, with whom we talked, is going to make a rather unusual use of this. He has taken up 160 acres on a fine, cleared flat below Alexandria, and next year he will put in two acres in watermelons. He thinks he will make his fortune, and there seems no reason why he should not, as watermelons in that country are worth even more than potatoes.

In this valley some successful ex-district predict a great future in fruit raising. At Soda Creek we saw an orchard of young apple trees, almost every branch being propped up to keep it from breaking under the heavy load of fruit. Small fruits from strawberries to blackberries grow to perfection, and some of the ranchers in the district predict a great futre in fruit growing. There is no reason why this prediction should not be fulfilled, as there is abundant snow in the winter season to protect the trees and plants.

The principal markets for the products of the Upper Fraser farms are Quesnel, Barkerville and Fort George.

Quesnel, at present the distributing point for this territory, is a bustling little town, situated on the Fraser, just above the junction of the Quesnelle. Quesnel has two fine new hotels, a Hudson Bay Post, and several general stores.

Vancouver, B.C. W. E. P.

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The late Archdeacon Leach.

"The opening of the session of the Montreal Diocesan College takes place in the new building on Dorchester st., formerly known as Saybrook Hall. The services will be especially interesting, as they mark the entrance of the college into its new quarters, and the programme of the evening will include the formal presentation of the deed of gift of the building, and a presentation of an address to the donor, Mr. A. F. Gault. Addresses will be delivered by Bishop Bond, Archdeacon Leach, and others."—From The Montreal Star, November 3rd, 1881.

ARCHDEACON LEACH, whose long connection with the Church of England in the early days of Montreal, when Dean Bethune, the father of the late Strachan Bethune, practically presided over a district of great dimensions, before Francis Fulford became the first Anglican Bishop of Montreal, was a man of high scholarly attainments, and was rector of St. George's Church, besides being a lecturer at McGill, as far back as the time of Edmund Meredith. However, thirty years ago his one-time fine voice was failing him, and his sermons, which always were beautiful to read, were somewhat troublesome to follow, but there were at least three words, one of which he was almost certain to use, pitched so high that they could be heard in any part of the church which he graced with his presence. The words were "External," "Eternal," and "Infernal." He frequently filled the pulpit of his young friend's church, both in old St. Stephen's and St. James the Apostle, for he and Dean Bethune were instrumental in bringing Canon Ellegood sixty-three years ago from Fredericton, N.B., to church work in Montreal. The building on Dorchester street mentioned above was Mrs. Cay's school for young ladies, and the present site of the Young Women's Christian Association headquarters, while the college has a magnificent building on the grounds once occupied by the late Mr. A. F. Gault, and its existence is a further evidence of that great man's interest in his Church's welfare.

"Alexander Macdonald (Liberal), member of Parliament for Stafford, England, is dead. Mr. Macdonald was one of the first two workingmen's candidates elected to the British Parliament. He was the son of a miner, and saved enough money at the same occupation to become a student in the University of Glasgow. The working classes agreed to pay his expenses while attending Parliament."—From The Montreal Star, November 3rd, 1881.

"The Methodist Episcopal Committee in New York have decided to donate $675,000 for missionary purposes, $6,500 going to Africa, $126,000 to Central America, and $228,000 to Central China."—From The Montreal Star, November 3rd, 1881.

L. B. Frye, a Lansing printer, was frozen to death near Charlotte, Mich., during a blizzard. Neighbors are reported to have refused him shelter.

"I Remember—"

"There were giants in those days."

A keen-eyed young man watched the proceedings of the first Parliament under the terms of Confederation.

He desired to study elocution. He had thought to mould himself upon the great men who had forged so notable an instrument as the articles of Confederation, and were now putting it to the proof. His ambition was to enter the church, but he deemed it time well spent to listen to the giants of debate in the strongest parliament perhaps Canada has seen. At that time the Rev. Mr. Heine the pastor emeritus of Chalmers Presbyterian Church was in the meteorological department of the new Government. His chief was the Hon. Peter Mitchell. He had graduated from his native college in Fredericton; but, had not entered his theological course.

"I remember the discussions in pre-Confederation days, the excitement, ad the final consummation of the idea," he said. "There was very little opposition in New Brunswick, but the discussion brought to the front a large number of strong men. The Hon. Peter Mitchell, who had taken such an active part in realizing Confederation was made Minister of Marine and Fisheries. He was a strong man, a great worker and organizer. It was to serve under him that I went to Ottawa, to work in the newly created meteorological department, which Professor Kingston had set up. The science was new to Canada. I brought in the first barometer from Toronto to Ottawa, reaching the latter place by way of Prescott, upon a road so rough that I thought every moment the mercurial column would be smashed to smithereens.

"In that first Parliament there were splendid men — men like Sir John A. Macdonald, Cartier, Dorion, Tilley, Mitchell, Holton, Huntingdon, Galt, Tupper, Howe, Coborn, Kirkpatrick, Cartwright, who was a Conservative then and others. This was in the nature of a coalition ministry, at least as far as Quebec was concerned, but it was a powerful government. The men who formed it were high-minded patriotic, disinterested. They had fought for a large and inspiring idea, and they measured up to it. They had imagination. They had had a glimpse of a united and prosperous Canada, and they did their utmost to realize it. Such men would never stoop to anything small or ignoble. They had faults; but I do not think this country had ever had a stronger or better government, or a more able set of men."

The young man though he liked the work in the meteorological department, found the environment uncongenial. He had been brought up with high ideals of life and conduct; and he was surrounded by young men who had no ideals about anything, and desired merely to get in the day. He left Ottawa and went to Princeton, where he took his theological course after which he proceeded to Edinburgh, where he remained for a year and then went to Paris, where he helped for some time in the McCall Mission.

It was in the deadly eighties that the Rev. Mr. Heine was induced into the pastoral charge of Chalmers Church, which he served with distinction and acceptance for all these years being now retired under the terms of the amalgamation of St. Gabriels and Chalmers.

"When I came here St. Louis Square was a dumping ground," said Mr. Heine. "The network of streets opening on the Main in the neighborhood of Chalmers and St. Martin's Churches, had no opening then, and I remember going to the City Hall to ask for an additional two planks on a three plank sidewalk at the corner of St. Urbain and Prince Arthur streets.

"There was a square, bounded by Prince Arthur, St. Urbain and Guilbault streets which, in the eighties was rented for $4 per annum.

"It would take a volume to contain one's impressions of the changes I have witnessed during my pastorate, which was harmonious in every respect and feature.

"I remember, of course, the great smallpox outbreak, and myself vaccinating the people in my own church. This was found necessary by the city authorities, who could not overtake the work of vaccination. The ministers received the vaccine points from the City Hall, and carried on the work among their own people, or others who needed vaccination. I remember, in one case, in which the blood flowed freely from the arm of a fleshy man, that some in the church thought I was needlessly cruel. But that was an awful time. My wife and I often went from house to house leaving food and other necessaries on the doorsteps of the victims of the dread disease. Some one in the house would be able to open the door and get it. The old house in the orchard on Fletcher's Field was utilized as an hospital and later, the old exhibition buildings. The people aggravated the disease by assembling for social or religious purposes. This practice was ordered stopped.

"The Rev. John Casey, pastor of Taylor Church, a converted Jesuit, was the first and only minister to fall a victim to the disease. He was a classmate of mine at Princeton. He was a lovable personality."

Mr. Heine recalls the nucleus of the Protestant Ministerial Association — the meeting of ta coterie of ministers in the study of the late Rev. Dr. Wells, of the American Presbyterian Church.

"Delightful meetings they were," he said. "Dr. Wells was well calculated to play the sympathetic host. I recall the Rev. Dr. Lafleur, the Rev. Dr. Barnes, the Rev. Dr. Stevenson, Rev. Dr. Clark, and others, together with myself. The Ministerial Association as an organized body, succeeded.

"Chalmers Church, at the corner of Prince Arthur and the Main was a sort of outpost for a large unoccupied territory. We had a general oversight, and our Sunday School was a splendid feature of our work. The building of other churches in the neighborhood in time took away much of the material with which we had been working. Again, the multiplication of young people's societies gave increased care to the pastor, while, at the same time, the modern habit of going to the country for the whole summer, and taking week ends out of town, told upon the attendance of the congregation.

"It will give you a notion of the changes which have taken place if I mention that Mount Royal School, which commenced in a rented room with 40 children, under the direction of Miss Campbell, has now 1,700 children, of whom 30 per cent. are Jews and that Aberdeen School has 70 per cent. of Jewish children. It is significant that both St. Gabriel and Chalmers Churches were bought by the Jews.

"I merely mention these things to show the change that time has wrought in this north-east end of the city, from the eighties to the present time.

"The new amalgamated congregations of St. Gabriel and Chalmers, however, may look forward to a long period of useful and profitable work and worship, in their new church, which is ideally situated."

More than five thousand families have been cut off the list of those regularly receiving free meat, flour and other necessities from the county, at Chicago. It was found that many families of independent wealth have been enjoying the charity of Cook county.

IMPORTANT LAWS FOR WORKINGMEN FORESHADOWED

Hon. A. E. Kemp Promises Improved Compensation Act—Present Act a Disgrace.

Toronto, Ont., November 3.—Hon. A. E. Kemp, addressing the Conservative association in East Toronto last night foreshadowed some important legislation both by the Ontario Legislature and the Dominion Government. He admitted that when Sir. Wm. Meredith gets through with his inquiry in connection with the compensation for workingmen for injuries an act will find its way to the statute books which will obviate the necessity for an injured workman to prove his claims in a court. The new act will be such that it will automatically relieve the injured workman. Mr. Kemp also intimated that during the next few months some action may be taken towards removing the conflict of authority among the provinces and the Dominion and have a federal uniform act which will be the best in the world.

He was loudly cheered by workingmen for his candor when he frankly told them they had received too little consideration and that the Compensation Act in Ontario was a disgrace to the Province.

Mr. Kemp stated that the Public Works department was in a disgracefully demoralized condition and that the Government would organize this among other departments and start to clean house. He intimated that suspicions of graft were everywhere present and many investigations were likely.

AUSTRIA PREPARING FOR EVENTUALITIES.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vienna, November 3.—Austria has been unostentatiously adding for several days past to her military forces on the Italian frontier, and to-day, following last night's report of the Italian fleet's departure from Tripoli for Turkish waters, the movement of Austrian troops to the southwestward was being considerably accelerated.

Austrian officialdom can hardly yet believe that Italy means to attempt a campaign on the coast of European Turkey, in defiance of Austria's warning, but it is considered that her disfavor is sufficiently suspicious to call for ample preparation on Austria's part to enforce her wishes on short notice.

CONSTITUTION OF BRITAIN IS MODEL FOR CHINESE GOVT.

miles north of Shanghai, and the upriver forts will fall to-night.

It is confidently believed that Nanking and Ching-Kiang will be captured by the rebels to-morrow.

Some of the foreign warships landed marines in this city before the rebels took possession. Foreign volunteers were called out, and have taken every precaution to protect the concessions.

REBELS MASSACRED WHEN HANKOW TAKEN.

Peking, November 3.—The massacre of natives at Hankow by Imperialist troops, intelligence of which has reached both the War Board and the German legation, may prove a serious hindrance to the peace negotiations which Yuan Shi Kai has been endeavoring to inaugurate with the rebel leaders. The population of Hankow is estimated ordinarily at 500,000 but it is believed that every non-combatant who was able to escape proceeded into the country prior to the conflict. The Hankow streets are very narrow and the houses are closely packed. There are many wealthy Chinese merchants and manufacturers in gold and silver.

The concessions are divided from the native city by streets fifty or sixty feet wide, and it will be difficult to protect the foreign houses from fire, or even, from attack as the imperialists have evidently got beyond the control of their officers. The foreign defenders include marines from twelve gunboats of eight or nine nations, and also volunteers from among the missionaries and business people.

The exodus from Peking continues, the doors of many shops, as well as private houses, being closed in anticipation of a massacre.

The diplomatic body will meet to-morrow to reconsider the question of allowing the Chinese troops to enter Tien Tsin, a consul there having made serious objection.

IMPERIAL REGIMENT MUTINIED AT SHAN-SI.

An official despatch from Shih Kai Tan, Shan-Si province, says that a regiment of Shan-Si troops which had been despatched to assist the imperialists, has mutinied. The mutineers killed their brigadier-General and then bombarded a Manchu city, massacreing a thousand Manchus, including the governor and his family. The Governor's yamen was destroyed.

Gen. Yin-Tchang, who until a few days ago was commander of the imperial forces at Hankow, returned here to-day.

It is understood that the National Assembly is showing determined opposition to the foreign loan, for which arrangements already have been made, arguing that such a loan is unnecessary, as many millions are hoarded in the Forbidden City.

Letters dated October 29 and 30 from The Associated Press correspondent with the Imperialist army at Hankow, say that in the struggle for the possession of the city there was hand-to-hand fighting in the streets, the quarters being too close for shooting. The rebels mostly raw recruits, were understanding the use of rifles, were driven back with much slaughter, their dead piling up on the quay: The casualties among the Imperialists for two days, October 28 and 29, were thirty killed and 150 wounded. The rebels had about 700 killed or wounded.

ANOTHER PROVINCE DECLARES INDEPENDENCE

Shanghai, November 3.—The province of Yun-Nan, on the South-Western frontier of China, has declared its independence, according to reports received here today.

Yun-Nan is the South-Western most province of China, fronting on Thibet and Burma. It is a mountainous region, known as the Switzerland of China, and has an area of nearly 150,000 square miles. Its population is estimated at 12,000,000. Yun-Nan contains China's richest mineral deposits and boundless stores of anthracite coal. Agriculture and stock raising are extensively carried on, and the province produces some of the best grades of tea in the empire. It was the principal scene of the great Mohammedan rebellion, which lasted for sixteen years and was suppressed in 1872.

HUNTING DIRECT EVIDENCE AGAINST McNAMARAS NOW

State Worried Because Jurors Declare Against Circumstantial Evidence.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 3.—While the struggle to secure a jury to try James B. McNamara on the charge of murder in connection with the destruction of the Times Building, is now nearing the end of its fifth week without definite result, the plans of the prosecution to bring home to the labor unions of the country the responsibility for the Los Angeles catastrophe are taking a new turn.

The William J. Burns detective agency to-day furnished the district attorney's office with a list of dynamite explosions which have taken place throughout the country during the past five years. This list was laid before the Grand Jury in Indianapolis in connection with the conspiracy charge made against John J. McNamara, and which resulted in McNamara's arrest and his transportation to this city for trial.

The district attorney here will try to get the Federal Grand Juries in New York and in Cleveland to undertake an investigation of the explosions in those two cities, with a view of connecting them with the main thread of the investigation involved in the trial now going on here. The object is, of course, to show that the Los Angeles explosion was but part of a labor union plot extending throughout the country.

Unless the State secures possession of the entire alleged evidence secured in the raid on the offices of the Iron Workers' Union at Indianapolis, the case here against the McNamara brothers will be greatly endangered. It leaked out to-day that during the past forty-eight hours many telegrams have been sent by District Attorney Fredericks to his representatives in Indianapolis, uring them to do everything possible to get this evidence. This is due to the fact that there are now in the jury box here eight men who absolutely declare they cannot convict on circumstantial evidence alone. The detectives also report that this belief is entertained by a majority of the men liable for jury duty in this county.

Mr. Fredericks has planned to place Ortie McManigal on the stand, and declared his testimony would be direct, although McManigal admits his knowledge of James B. McNamara's movements is entirely hearsay. Therefore it is certain that this part of McManigal's alleged confession cannot be admitted.

In order to support it, Mr. Fredericks is understood to have discovered that he must have bank books from Indianapolis.

Attorney Darrow expects this evidence will be brought here and used against his client, and is preparing for it. He insisted to-day that even if it comes, much of it cannot be used unless Detective Burns personally takes the stand. If he does, Mr. Darrow anticipates a lively time with the famous detective.

The prosecution is evidently becoming weary of the fruitlessness of their efforts to secure a jury. District Attorney Frederick to-day, in an interview, attacked the existing jury system which, he declares, puts a heavy burden on the prosecution. He even went so far as to say that in his opinion the jury system should be abolished and skilled commissions should be substituted in their stead in cases of this kind.

RICHESON'S CHURCH MAY NOT ACCEPT RESIGNATION YET

Text of Letter Sent by Accused Clergyman to Congregation—Friends Will Fight.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cambridge, Mass., November 3.—The finance commission of Immanuel Baptist Church, of which the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, accused of killing Avis Linnell, is pastor, will meet to-night immediately after their weekly prayer service to discuss the question of accepting the resignation sent to them by the young minister from his cell in Charles street jail.

It is not improbable that his friends will make a strong fight against any such action on the resignation until after the result of the trial is made known.

TEXT OF LETTER OF RESIGNATION.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Boston, November 3.—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson's letter of resignation as pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, was made public to-day. It is his first declaration since his arrest, charged with the murder of Avis Linnell. The letter was as follows—

"Charles Street Jail, November 2, 1911."

"To Charles F. Cummings,
Immanuel Baptist Church,
Marlborough Street,
Belmont, Mass.,

My Dear Sir—I beg to herewith tender my resignation as pastor of Immanuel Church.

"Strong in the consciousness of my innocence, and firmly persuaded that God, in his own good time, will lift this burden from me, I, nevertheless, feel that I should not permit the shadow thrown across my life to darken the religious welfare of my church and its people whom I love.

"I, therefore, deem it my duty to place the church in a position to select my successor.

"With my heartfelt thanks for many kindnesses shown me by each and all members of my church, I am,

"Sincerely yours,
"(Signed)
"CLARENCE V. T. RICHESON."

JEALOUS HUSBAND SHOOTS WIFE AND COUSIN; BOTH LIVE

Bitter jealousy, followed by dire vengeance, four revolver shots, that sent Mary Wanoski Powlak unconscious to the sidewalk, and Daniel Kurika fleeing wounded down Manufacturers street, and landed Simon Powlak behind the bars, forms the features of the third outrage that has shocked the Polish colony in as many weeks.

Simon Powlak is said to have been lying in wait for the better part of the night outside of the house where his wife resided. He had early in the evening asked to be admitted to the house, but had been refused. At 6.30 this morning, when his wife, accompanied by her cousin, Daniel Kurika, was leaving the house for her daily work at 1614 Esplanade avenue, where she is employed as a domestic, Powlak greeted her with a smile. Walking down Manufacturers street a few yards, he addressed her a few pleasant remarks, and suddenly whipping out a revolver, fired four shots in quick succession, two of them being pointed at his wife and the others at her cousin, Kurika. The woman was struck in the shoulder blade, stumbled and fell, and Kurika, with a bullet in his left arm, ran terrified down the street. Powlak disappeared down the Grand Trunk yards.

The Powlaks have been married for some six years, Simon being 29 and his wife 26. Up to six months ago they had resided in Troy, N.Y. According to Kurika, the bad treatment that his cousin received at the hands of Powlak forced her to leave him and come to Montreal. Powlak was kept in ignorance of her intentions, and one morning woke up to find his nest deserted. Since then he has been on a still hunt for his wife, and only last Saturday he landed here from Troy.

Last night, being refused admittance at No. 45 Manufacturers street, where his wife boarded, he walked back and forth on Manufacturers street, and his morning, his wife, being afraid to go out to her work alone, asked her cousin, Daniel Kurika, and another boarder at the house to accompany her to her car. Just as the party emerged from the door, Kurika says that Powlak met them with hand outstretched and smiling countenance. They had not proceeded more than fifty feet, however, when, without the slightest warning, Powlak fired the shots.

After a short but spirited hunt, in which Detectives Connors, Walsh, Gorman and Laberge were engaged, Powlak was collared at 11 this morning. He was taken to headquarters, and will be arraigned to-morrow. The charge will not be made until the victim is out of danger. She is expected to recover.

DOWN WITH SLUMS! MEETING TO BE CALLED

A letter was received this morning by His Worship, from Professor Adami, and Dr. Gregor, of the City Improvement League, stating that this body was much interested in the proposed movement to abolish the slums, and that members of the association would like the Mayor to call a meeting at the City Hall, when the whole subject could be gone into.

The Mayor at once communicated with Professor Adami and informed him that a meeting would be called either Monday or Tuesday of next week.

The Mayor said he was of the opinion that it would be a wise move to purchase, at the back of the mountain, a large stretch of land for a model village. Every house would be a small cottage at a moderate rental. A good street car service could be established to enable the tenants to get to the city at early hours.

Another project which would be considered was the pulling down of certain congested districts in the city and erecting on the sites model tenements.

In regard to the monetary aspect of the new move His Worship said that the money would likely have to come from business men or philanthropic persons who would be content to receive about 5 per cent. on their money.

So far as the corporation was concerned the subject would have to be discussed as to whether or not the Legislature should be asked to give the City Council power to vote funds to help the movement forward.

ment defeated, he rejoices as we all rejoice in the wider victory which our party won throughout the Dominion. (Loud applause.)

ISSUE OF SURPASSING IMPORTANCE TO EMPIRE.

The issue which confronted the people of Canada in the recent contest was of surpassing interest and importance to the whole Empire. Its importance was realized by the people of Canada, and it is not amiss on this occasion to express our appreciation of those Liberals who placed the interests of Canada above the ties of party allegiance and who fought with us in this campaign for the welfare of Canada and of the Empire. (Applause.) The Liberal-Coservative party would not be worthy of its record or of its traditions, and it would not be worthy of the name which it bears, if it were not able to welcome the aid of such men. It would not be worthy of its record, of its traditions and of its name if we have sought to recognize, the aid which these men brought and the influence which they exerted in that contest.

In some quarters which I need not name the claim has been made that the result of the election was due to some hostile or unfriendly spirit on the part of the Canadian people to the great neighboring Republic. It is desirable that any such idea, if it exists, should be dissipated and dispelled. A brief retrospect will enable us to arrive at a just conclusion with regard to this.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY RECALLED.

"In 1879, Canada placed on her statute books a standing offer of reciprocity which remained open to the United States for eighteen years, or until 1897, when it was repealed by the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The United States always declined to entertain this standing offer, and we never questioned their perfect and absolute right to take that course. In the meantime Canada had entered upon a policy which aimed at the development of the natural resources of this country, the growth of its industries and the preservation of its home market. Canada's fiscal autonomy involving the complete control of her tariff, had been finally acknowledged in 1879, and it will never be relinquished.

"The reciprocity compact proposed by the late Government would have interfered with Canada's complete control of its own fiscal system, and in many respects it was properly regarded as a reversal of the policy which this country had pursued for many years. The Canadian people were startled and alarmed by the idea or suggestion that two members of the Government, without any mandate from the people, should enter into a treaty which would materially alter that policy. Moreover, the interlocking of our tariff with that of any country is undesirable from the standpoint of our fiscal autonomy. It should not be forgotten that similar arrangements, made between British colonies and South Africa proved unsatisfactory and irritating, and in the end they had to be abandoned.

NO UNFRIENDLINESS TO UNITED STATES.

"During the recent election the opinion prevailed in Canada that in the interest of friendly relations, it would be far better that each country should be absolutely free to frame and modify its own tariff in what were conceived to be the best interests of its people. We are also convinced that a tariff which must be accepted or rejected as a whole, and which cannot be amended in any respect to meet even the most obvious injustice is an undemocratic and undesirable form of legislation, and we believe that experience has proved this beyond question. (Applause.) Thus the recent decision of the Canadian people was in no respect induced by any spirit of unfriedlines to the United States. It was rather brought about by their determination to maintain complete control of their own fiscal system and to mould their own destiny along the lines of a policy which has been pursued in this country for the past thirty years. Canada is an autonomous nation within the British Empire, and is closely and inseparably united to that Empire by ties of kinship, of sentiment and of fealty, by historic association and by tradition, by the character of its institutions, and by the free will of its people. (Loud cheers.)

By the like ties of kinship, by constant social and commercial intercourse, by proximity and mutual respect and goodwill this country is closely associated with the United States. Canada's voice and influence should always be for harmony and not for discord between our Empire and the great Republic, and I believe that she will always be a bond of abiding friendship between them. I trust that the anniversay of one hundred years of peace will be commemorated in the two countries with a deep and solemn sense of national responsibility, and that each will accomplish its destiny under the splendid inspiration of enduring and increasing friendship and goodwill. (Applause.)

STANDING OF PARTY THROUGHOUT CANADA.

Turning again to the result of the recent elections, I am glad to see among those assembled here to-night the men who carried nine of the eighteen seats in this province, and the men who put up a splendid though unsuccessful fight in the other nine counties. (Cheers.) In 1904 Nova Scotia did not elect a single Liberal-Conservative to the Federal Parliament. To-day we hold nine of the eighteen seats, and if a general election were held to-morrow I leave it to your imagination as to what the result would be. Considering the point at which we started, only seven years ago in this province, the Liberal-Conservative party has every reason to be proud of the results of the magnificent efforts which it has put forth during these years. (Loud applause.) We hold sixteen seats in the Maritime Provinces to-day, and, considering the results in two counties in New Brunswick, there is good reason to claim that upon a fair reckoning there should have been eighteen at least. But our gains have not by any means been, confined to the Maritime Provinces alone. Altogether we gained about forty seats. Ontario to-day holds the record with its majority of sixty, while in British Columbia not a single Liberal has been left to tell the tale. It is true that in the province of Alberta and the province of Saskatchewan we sustained the loss of two seats, but that was the result of conditions which I believe will not prevail in the future, and I look for a splendid representation of Liberal-Conservatives in the next Parliament from those provinces. (Applause.)

CANADA ENTERING UPON GREATEST DEVELOPMENT RECORD OF HER HISTORY

But I did not come here to exult over our success. The recent victory has brought with it responsibilities to which no man in Canada is more keenly alive than myself. The Liberal-Conservative party must be true to its record and its traditions. It must give to the people of Canada intelligent, progressive and clean government. There are many problems which confront those who are responsible for the administration of public affairs in Canada to-day. Great problems have been solved in the past and no greater problem was ever faced by any people than the binding together of the scattered communities of Eastern Canada into one dominion, and the extension of our boundaries over the vast area which to-day constitutes Canada.

Looking back over the history of the past, one is almost amazed at the audacity of the undertaking, and the success which has hitherto attended it. There is every reason to believe that Canada is entering upon a period of development and growth even greater and more important than that which we have witnessed in the past. The marvellous growth of our western country will undoubtedly continue, and there is no reason to suppose that similar, if not equal, development will not come to Eastern Canada as well, and especially to this little province by the sea which in its extent and variety of its resources is not surpassed by any equal area in Canada. (Applause.)

COLD STORAGE SYSTEM NEEDED.

Intelligent administration of public affairs must involve a wise conservation of our natural resources, as well as their development in the interest of the whole people. In a country like Canada, with an enormous area and scattered population, the problem of transportation is of prime and vital importance, and you may rest assured that the Liberal-Conservative party which conceived and carried into effect the project of binding together the provinces of Canada, first by the Intercolonial Railway and afterwards by the Canadian Pacific Railway will be always alive to the vital importance of that problem.

There are many industries in this province to which transportation is of prime importance, and perhaps to none is it more essential than to our great fishing industry. It has always seemed to me that Nova Scotia, with a coast line which adjoins and even projects into the best fishing grounds of the world, ought to supply fresh fish of the best quality and in the best condition to Ontario, Quebec and even to the western provinces. This can only be done by the organization of a system of cold storage and transportation facilities such as are to be found in other parts of the world with no greater opportunities than our own.

GENERAL OUTLINES OF GOVERNMENT'S POLICY.

The policy of the Liberal-Conservative party as presented to the people in the recent contest is before you. I will not dwell upon it to-night. Among some of its principal items are such encouragement of the great basic industry, agriculture, as will enable those who till the soil to receive the highest return for their produce, to turn out their products in the highest form, and at the same time preserve the fertility of the land. Hand in hand with this is the aid and encouragement which we proopse for the purpose of establishing and maintaining permanent highways of a character suitable to our conditions. Some such effort is needed in the interest of that effective scheme of transportation which ought to be the aim of any progressive government. (Applause.)

The regulation of our tariff upon reasonable business principles is an important article of our policy that is to be carried out by the establishment of a permanent tariff commission, which will assign all necessary facts in connection with the conditions and cost of production, and which will advise as to the conclusion which ought to be drawn from the facts so ascertained. We propose also to extend that reform of the civil service which we initiated while in Opposition, and which the late administration carried out in part on our initiative. So far as trade relations are concerned, we believe that the true idea of reciprocity can be found within the vast dominions of this Empire, with its wonderful variety of natural and other products which can be exchanged to the mutual advantage of all. (Cheers.)

GIVES PLEDGE FOR HIS CABINET.

It is with the greatest possible pleasure that I hail to-night the presence among you of many of my colleagues in the Cabinet. They have come here at much inconvenience, as we are new in office, and the demands of public business in view of the approaching session are rather urgent and insistent. You wil find, and the country will find, that not only those of them who are here present, but those who are absent, will give to the public service which they have been called upon to undertake, the best of their energies and their abilities. (Cheers.) The life of a cabinet minister who is anxious to perform his duty is an exceedingly busy life, and any man who undertakes this high public service must be prepared to sacrifice ease and comfort at the behest of duty. I know that the men who have been called to the Cabinet of Canada are prepared to make that sacrifice. We do not claim to be infallible, but we do claim that as servants of the people of Canada we shall give to our public duties the best that is in us; and no man can do more. (Loud applause.)

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE WORK AHEAD.

This little province by the sea has given to the public life of Canada three prime ministers, and all of them have been of the same political faith. The names of Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John Thompson are honored to-day by every citizen in Caada irrespective of party. One of them passed away in the full maturity of his strength and vigor, leaving a great name behind him. The other, Sir Charles Tupper, the grand old man of Canada, has attained his ninetieth year, and beyond the seas in the old motherland he takes as keen an interest in the welfare of this great dominion as he did in the days when he led with marvellous vigor and ability the Conservative forces in this province and Dominion. (Cheers.) The courage, the faith, the achievements of these great leaders will not fail to be an inspiration to us, and I shall be more than satisfied if I may be enabled to perform my alloted task with such advantage to my country as that which characterized thei raims and their efforts.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the honor which you have done me to-night and for the encouragement which this magnificent demonstration and your splendid reception will ever lend to me in that great work that lies before us. (Prolonged cheers.)

HON. MR. FOSTER PROMISES A CLEAN CIVIL SERVICE.

The Hon. G. E. Foster renewed the pledges made before the election. The country needed and would get, he said, an absolutely clean civil service on the Hill at Ottawa and on all the hills of the Dominion. The revenue would be looked upon as a sacred trust, the Cabinet being the trustees. He urged his hearers to stand by the Cabinet in insisting upon absolute honesty in the administration of public business.

Referring to reciprocity, he said that it was given a blow in 1891, it received its death-blow in 1911. "There is now a permanent policy established for the country."

The Hon. F. D. Monk in a warm tribute to Mr. Borden said that Quebec was grateful to a degree which was deep and long-abiding for the generous treatment Mr. Borden had given it, and he would not lack a full measure of support from it. Much had been asserted of the fight in Quebec that was untrue. Quebec had never failed in its loyalty, and whatever was decided upon by the majority would be accepted by it.

Mr. Monk concluded with a reference to the particular needs of Halifax, opportunities of learning which had been afforded him during the day.

MARITIME PROVINCES HAND-IN-HAND.

The Hon. J. D. Hazen said that as a loyal representative of New Brunswick he sincerely hoped that Halifax would get what it deserved. Halifax and St. John had common interests. The Maritime Provinces should strive hand in hand for commercial greatness. It was only by Act of Parliament that Nova Scotia and New Brunswick became two provinces instead of one. In 1784, when the separation took place, it was rendered advisable by isolation. Now that the isolation had disappeared, it would not be amiss to repeat that Act and make the two, one province.

Dealing with his own department, he foreshadowed a re-organization of the fishery protection service. The other Ministers also spoke.

LACK OF PRESSURE TO FIGHT FIRE A DISGRACE TO CITY

Commissioner Latulippe's Comment After Investigating Sunday Night's Fire.

PROPER WATER PRESSURE WOULD MINIMIZE LOSS

Fireman Testifies That Water Spurted Only a Few Feet on Laurier Avenue.

The official inquiry into the circumstances attending the fire late last Sunday night which rendered eight families homeless by destroying part of the block at Drolet street and Laurier avenue, established to the satisfaction of Mr. R. Latulippe, Fire Commissioner, yesterday afternoon, that if there had been an efficient pressure of water from the Montreal Water and Power Company's mains, the losses would have been considerably minimized.

When Fireman J. B. Roy, of No. 17 fire station, was giving evidence, the Commissioners asked: "Do you think that if the pressure had been good when you arrived on the scene, the firemen could have extinguished the fire at once?"

"Yes," replied witness, "and the damages would have been insignificant. With a proper pressure of water we could have put the fire out before it had made any headway whatever."

The witness added that the alarm was sent in at 11.40 p.m. on Sunday, but before this a telephone message had been received from the Water and Power Company stating that the water service had been stopped for a few minutes in the Laurier avenue district.

Commissioner Latulippe. — "Why would the company telephone to you?"

Witness.—"The company does this whenever the pressure of water is not strong. In this instance, when we arrived on the scene the pressure was so weak that the water was thrown only a distance of four or five feet."

Commissioner's Comments.

Commissioner Latulippe said the conditions in certain quarters where the Montreal Water and Power Company is responsible for the water service were very regrettable.

"More than that," he added, "it is a disgrace in a great city like Montreal that the water supply should be at any time so inadequate as to fall short of giving proper protection against fire; it is a disgrace that there should be such bad system, or lack of system, which places the people and the firemen in such a helpless condition, especially when a fire breaks out, as in this case, in a populous centre of the city.

"I consider the city ought to at once take steps to secure the absolute control of the whole of the water sysem within the limits of the city."

Why I Lost My Job.

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along, it is usually, "Your services no longer required." If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of "floaters," who go from one place of employment to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition, no will power, and no hope.

Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first free from all fretful indispositions and worries.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes, and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position, and my employer is satisfied and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The Tablets do all the work, no matter how heavy your meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eructations, burning sensations, bloat, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be freed from stomach torment, and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c. a box.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

What the Water Co. Is Required to Do.

On account of complaints that have been made against low pressure supplied at times by the Montreal Water & Power Company, the Board of Control ordered, some time ago, that civic officials should prepare a report showing exactly what pressure the company was supposed to furnish in various wards. The report, which also shows the length of contracts which the company has in the wards and municipalities is as follows:—

St. Henri.

50 years' contract from 1st May, 1891—Clause 12—Pressure to be sufficient for three fire streams, 75 feet high, through 300 feet of 2 1-2 inch hose, from three separate hydrants. Clause 12 reads as follows:

"Article 12: Upon the completion of the construction of the projected waterworks, the said company will notify the Town Council, and will submit the works to such test as will prove that they are of sufficient capacity to supply a constant and continuous pressure capable of throwing on fire at a height of seventy-five feet, three simultaneous streams from three separate hydrants, with a hose three hundred feet long, by two inches and a half diameter and a one inch nozzle."

Ste. Cunegonde.

25 years' contract from September 4, 1891.—Clause 16 re pressure, reads as follows—

"The said company shall at all times furnish water at a pressure of at least forty-five pounds to the square inch for ordinary use, and seventy-five pounds to the square inch in case of fire, and at the highest point in the said city."

Cote St. Paul.

25 years' contract, from December 29, 1890, with extension clause (25 years)—Clause 12 re pressure reads as follows:—

"Section 11: Upon the completion of the construction of the said system of waterworks the said company, their associates, successors or assigns, shall notify the said council to that effect, and thereupon submit the works to such a test as will show the capacity of the works to be sufficient to throw five (5) streams through 50 feet of 2 1-2 inch hose and 1 inch nozzle from five different hydrants at the same time, a stream not less than seventy-five (75) feet high. On the satisfactory performance of this test, the said council of the said village shall, by resolution, formally accept such system as constructed in accordance with the terms of the by-law."

"But it is hereby understood and agreed by the said company that the work of construction and everything appertaining thereto shall be under the supervision of a civil engineer to be appointed by the said council."

St. Louis du Mile End.

25 years' contract, from November 24 1890 with renewal clause, (25 years.)—Clause 8 re: pressure reads as follows: "Article 8. The said water works shall at all times, except whenever and so long as absolutely necessary repairs must be made, be of sufficient capacity to throw upon the flames in case of fire from three hydrants, simultaneous streams of water from hose three hundred feet long, 2 1-2 inch diameter, with a one inch hozzle, to a height of not less than seventy-five feet."

Clause 5 re: diameter of pipes reads Extract"The pipes to be laid within the limits of the municipality, shall be of such dimensions as may be determined by the engineers appointed by the latter, according to the requirements of the locality, and shall be of cast iron and of best quality."

Cote St. Louis.

50 years' contract from October 8, 1891—Clause 8 re pressure reads as follows: "The said water-works shall, at all times, except whenever and so long as absolutely necessary, repairs must be made, be of sufficient capacity to throw upon the flames in the case of fire at the first alarm given, from three hydrants three simultaneous streams of water from a hose 300 feet long and 2 1-2 inches diameter with a 1-inch nozzle, to a height of not less than 75 feet. Except in cases of fire the pressure in the pipes of the municipality shall be kept to at least 35 pounds to the square inch."

Maisonneuve.

25 years' contract, from November 11, 1890—(pipe laying. Art. 5, sec. St. Louis.—Clause 8 re: pressure reads as follows: "The said water-works shall at any time, except whenever and so long as absolutely necessary repairs must be made, of a sufficient capacity to throw upon the flames in case of fire, at the first alarm given, from three hydrants simultaneous streams of water from a hose three hundred feet long and two inches and a half in diameter, with a one inch nozzle, to a height of not less than 75 feet. Except in cases of fire the pressure in the pipes in the municipality shall be kept at least 75 pounds to the square inch."

EXPELLED BY UNIONS.

J. A. MASSE.

Whose offence was being Conservative candidate in St. Mary's.

UNIONS EXPEL MEMBER WHO RAN FOR PARLIAMENT

J. A. Masse, Liberal-Conservative Opponent of M. Martin, Suspended for Five Years.

After a protracted debate at last night's meeting of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council, Delegate A. Masse, of Victoria Lodge, International Association of Machinists, was expelled for five years, on a charge of having violated the constitution and disregarded the orders of the Trades and Labor Council in accepting the nomination of the Liberal Conservative party in St. Mary's division in the recent general election. The fight was one of the warmest in the history of the organization, but when the vote was finally taken the majority of those present voted against Mr. Masse.

Delegate Masse has been active in labor circles for many years. He is a past president of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council and represented the organization at the Winnipeg convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

It was unanimously decided to give Rev. R. J. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple Church, London, Eng., a warm welcome upon his arrival in Montreal. For the lecture in the Monument National, under the auspices of the Council, on November 15, the following commitee was appointed to make all the necessary arrangements: G. R. Brunet, president; Delegate Filiatrault, Delegate Dimuro, Delegate J. T. Foster and Delegate Prevost.

It was decided to complain to the Board of Health regarding the exposing of meat for sale in filthy places.

Delegates representing the newly organized local of the International Butchers' Association were received and seated.

GIRL SHOT COUSIN WITH REVOLVER.

Did Not Know it Was Loaded and Pulled Trigger.

Finding a loaded revolver in a sideboard drawer at her uncle's home in Huntingdon, Alice Lefebvre, aged 5, and her cousin, a girl of 9 years, started to examine it yesterday afternoon. "Here, Alice, let me show you something," said the cousin as she pulled the trigger, not knowing the weapon was loaded.

Alice dropped screaming to the floor with a bullet in her stomach, and though hurried to the city and taken to the Hotel Dieu Hospital, she died there this morning.

The Coroner will investigate as to how the children were able to obtain possession of a loaded revolver.

MISSIONARY CONGRESS.

Co-operating Committee Receive Reports of Arrangements Made.

A meeting of the central co-operating committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement was held yesterday to consider what further steps might be taken to ensure the success of the Men's Missionary Congress to be held on November 15-17, and which already promises to be the largest of the series. Reports were received from the chairmen of the several denominational committees of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of steps taken to ensure the registration of commissioners to the Congress, and announcement was made that the registration of commissioners is now well over the five hundred mark.

The Lord Bishop of Montreal has set aside next Wednesday, November 8th, as a day of intercessory prayer on behalf of the Congress. Services will be held in Christ Church Cathedral, in Trinity Church, St. Denis street; in St. Stephen's Church, Westmount; and in Grace Church, Point St. Charles.

Arrangements were also made by the committee for a meeting immediately after the Congress to consider what can best be done to conserve the energy and enthusiasm that will be engendered at the Congress, so that permanent results may be obtained.

IMPROVEMENTS FIRST.

St. Pierre Will Then Consider Annexation.

It was decided by the councillors of St. Pierre aux Liens last night, that before the place is annexed to the city a number of improvements should be made.

"We have practically decided," said Mayor Leboeuf, after the meeting, "to prepare a list of the public improvements we require, which we think should be carried out before annexation. These works cover sidewalks, street macadam, and sewers, the whole not costing more than $60,000. We are not looking for expensive public works, but rather what we think we should have in the interests of the welfare of the town."

The debt of St. Pierre aux Liens is $76,000, its property valuation is $1,750,000, and it has a population of 3,000.

INTERFERED WITH POLICE.

That Cost Napoleon Cote a Stiff Fine.

Charged with interfering with the police in the discharge of their duty, Nap. Cote was this morning fined $25 and costs or two months in jail by Mr. Recorder Weir.

Cote, according to the story of the police, was in a house in Lagauchetiere street in company with Joseph Boucher, against whom there was a warrant for horse stealing, and when Sergt. Gagnon went there last night to arrest Boucher he was attacked by Cote.

Boucher, who appeared in the Police Court this morning, pleaded not guilty to a charge of theft and was remanded until Tuesday for enquete.

Sues After Street Improvement.

Damages to property as a result of street improvements is the foundation of an action entered against the city by Mr. Paul L. Turgeon, who claims $5,000 on account of the fact that a house belonging to him is now from six to seven feet under the level of the street, owing to civic operations. The house is at the corner of St. Germain and Stadacona street, in Hochelaga ward, and in a hollow. In order to level the street the hollow was filled.

Champ Clark is Still Annexing

Tells Nebraskans Nine-Tenths of Population of United States Favor Annexation of Canada.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Omaha, Neb., November 3.—During a political address in Fremont last night, Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was interrupted by one in the audience, who shouted, "What about the annexation of Canada?"

"Nine-tenths of the people of this country favor the annexation of Canada, and I don't care who hears me say it," hotly answered the Speaker. "If that were the issue, Taft could run on a platform against it, and I could run on a platform for it, and I would carry every State in the Union. You just let President Taft run against me opposing annexation! Why, you would like to see Canadian annexation yourself, wouldn't you" asked Clark, of his questioner.

"Yes, guess I would," admitted he.

The crowd cheered wildly.

Channel Tunnel Scheme Revived

Capital and Plans All Ready, Only Government's Authorization Wanted.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Paris, November 3.—The old project of a tunnel under the English Channel is being revived, with better prospects of success than it ever had before. Public opinion in England, which has always been the chief obstacle, is thought to have been gradually revolutionized. This change of sentiment is due partly to the continual bettering of Franco-British relations under the entente cordiale, the strength of which was proved by result of Germany's coup at Agadir, and partly by the arguments advanced by financiers who have been pointing out in both countries the tremendous mutual commercial advantages that could be gained thereby.

The plans and capital are in readiness, and there remains only to obtain the authorization of the two governments. Incidentally, it is understood that the Inter-continental Railroad Company, which is an English Syndicate, intends soon to establish between Dieppe and Newhaven the first trans-channel train ferry.

LOS ANGELES HAS JURY OF WOMEN.

Judge Tells Them They May Wear Hats in Jury Box.

Los Angeles, November 3.—Women jurors may wear their hats while sitting in the jury box, according to a ruling made by Judge Cassidy in the Superior Court.

The matter came up during the trial of A. A. King, of Watts, Calif., who was acquitted by a jury composed entirely of women, on a charge of printing a story in his newspaper in violation of the law.

During the examination of the venire of women one of the prospective jurors asked whether it was permissible to wear her hat in the jury box. The judge answered that it was [illegible]ly optional with the jurors. Several women continued to wear their hats, others removed them.

"I've been converted," said King after the verdict was read. "I fought suffrage, but now I'm a booster."

THE DANGER OF IMPORTED SPIRITS

The danger of imported gins lies in the impurities that they contain, ethers, acids, etc., which are most injurious to the health. Gin manufactured abroad, not being submitted to any sort of official inspection may be regarded with suspicion,—especially that destined for exportation,—and furthermore because it is delivered to the consumer on this side without examination, once the duty is paid.

This is not the case with "Red Cross" Gin, every operation in the manufacture of which is performed under the strict inspection of a staff of Excise officers, from the weighing of the grain to the affixing of the Government stamp on each bottle before it leaves the distillery.

"RED CROSS" GIN

manufactured from the best Juniper berries and the choicest grains from the Canadian west, offers the consumer every guarantee of purity, quality and maturity.

Asbestos Fiasco--C.P.R. Over 240--R. & O. Rumors--Combine of 10c Stores

C.P.R. OVER 240 POWER AT 179 R.& O. WAS 125

C.P.R. and Power celebrated to-day, the former selling up to 240½ and the latter to 179, ex-dividend 2 p.c.

This is a new high record for Power. C.P.R. is still 7 points below its record, but has advanced 22 points from the low level reached during the Franco-German war scare and the financial crisis in Berlin.

Richelieu also made a gain, selling up to 125, and then easing up a little. Some of the directors are telling their friends to buy, and the speculative account in the stock to-day is larger than it has been for years.

Textile amazed the natives by selling off to 68¼. The market is thin on Textile and always has been, but many last week figured that the company's improved position would lead to a better market for the stock.

Steel Co. of Canada made a new high record, and was quite active. The enthusiastic bulls were talking 38 or 40 for it.

In Wall Street

Stocks continued their advance during the morning following a period of weakness soon after the opening. The strength—less active in less active issues—indicated that the demand had broadened, although speculative manipulation of a few of the favorite stocks was continued.

Reading and American Smelting made particularly good gains, owing largely to professional tactics.

Gains were generally extended during the second hour. Reading crossed 14. St. Paul improved over a point despite its unfavorable exhibition of September earnings. There was an increased absorption of other recognized dividend paying railroad issues, especially New York Central pref., Atchison and B. & O. Various industrials shared in the morning improvement to a substantial degree, with Amalgamated Copper, U. S. Steel and some lower-priced issues conspicuous.

$5,000,000 OF NEW BONDS BY "MEX" POWER

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star.

London, November 3.—To-day's new issues include the offer at 87 of £1,000,000 5 p.c. second mortgage 50-year bonds of the Mexican Light & Power Co., made through Dunn, Fischer & Co.

Dr. Pearson says the balance available in 1911 exceeds twice the amount required for interest on the three million pounds' worth of bonds, of which to-day's offer forms a part.

The City of Moose Jaw offers through the Bank of Montreal at par £89,200 4½ debentures, redeemable in 1950-51. The Morning Post says the price is not overmodest seeing the size of Moose Jaw.

A BROKER'S VIEW OF R. & O. STOCK

Speaking of R. & O. stock, J. C. Mackintosh & Co., in their circular, say:

"Notwithstanding continual reports as to the probability of an 8 per cent. dividend for Richelieu, this stock has not acted particularly well. There seems to be some difference of opinion amongst the directors as to the advisability of paying an 8 p.c. dividend on December 1st, even though the company may have shown very large earnings for the past season. What seems to have affected the market most of all, as far as Richelieu is concerned, is the uncertainty as to just what very large proportion of the stock is held speculatively and which will likely be marketed if very much higher prices are reached."

OPINIONS on THE MARKET.

Laidlaw & Co.—The standard stocks look to be a purchase on every fair reaction.

Shearson, Hammill & Co.—Good people look to see the market higher but would buy only on recessions. Reading, U.P., U.S., Southern Pacific, Atchison and the Eries look the best.

Head & Co.—The outlook favors better values, though there will be reactions from time to time incidental to realizing of profits. While conservatism is still advisable, we would advise taking on the standard dividend payers, especially the rails, on all moderate setbacks for fair turns.

J. C. Mackintosh & Co.—For some days past money has again been offered very freely on the local "Street," and this has favored operators in creating a better market for their securities.

J. S. Bache & Co.—We are of the opinion that the market will sell considerably higher before the convening of Congress in December.

ASBESTOS CO. WILL DEFAULT ON ITS BONDS

Unless the Unexpected Turns Up in the Next Three Weeks.

There was a sale of Amalgamated Asbestos 5 p.c. bonds yesterday at 35, sufficient evidence, apparently, that the company will most likely default the interest on its $8,000,000 bond issue on December 1st.

The bond interest calls for the payment of $200,000 semi-annually, but this the company is not earning, in spite of the fact that the operating expenses have been cut down to the bone, and that every effort has been made to improve the company's position.

The directors of the company had two long sessions yesterday in the offices in the Eastern Townships Bank, but nothing was given out for publication, beyond the fact that there has been no appreciable improvement in the finances in the past six months.

Around the "Street" the impression now prevails that the company will pass to the bondholders next month, and a reorganization will be undertaken in the course of time.

There is still a feeling that the position of the bondholders is by no means hopeless, and that they will recuperate some of their losses when the long-expected improvement in the asbestos market materializes.

As for the unfortunate holders of the $1,875,000 preferred and $8,125,000 common stocks, their situation is unenviable, and at the moment it is difficult to figure out how they will escape a serious loss on their holdings.

The last dividend on the preferred stock was paid on July 1st, 1910, and after paying it the company had a surplus of $34,018.

The common stock sold as high as 3 in February, 1910, and dropped to 2 this year. The highest the preferred ever reached was 98.
dian promotions cmfwy ?.-y—— cmfm

The Asbestos fiasco has proved to be one of the worst in the history of Canadian promotions, and it only goes to prove how far astray experts can get when they begin to figure on the future. The company began business with every evidence of making good, but the promoters and experts failed to figure upon one important factor—a collapse in the asbestos market.

LAST YEAR AND TO-DAY.

Wall Street's industrial stocks are nearly 10 points below the level of November 1st last year, the railroads only 2½ points.

47 Times

It is again announced that R. & O. will be listed in London. This is the 47th announcement to this effect.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOLDERS OF LA ROSE

Mr. D. Lorne McGibbon said this morning that he had just received a letter from Mr. Watson, reporting some extremely satisfactory finds as the result of development work on three La Rose properties.

A fine big body of ore, he said, has been found on No. 8 vein of the Lawson; a very promising showing has been uncovered on the Princess, while an extremely rich-looking find has been made on the Fisher-Eplett, the first rich ore that property has shown after two years of development work.

FLOUR IN FAIR DEMAND.

Spring wheat flour is in fairly good demand for local and country account, for both prompt and future shipment, but the export trade is quiet. In winter wheat flour the feeling is very firm on account of the small supplies on spot and the limited offerings from Ontario millers.

Manitoba spring wheat patents, firsts, $5.60; seconds, $5.10; Manitoba strong bakers', $4.90; choice winter wheat patents, $4.75 to $5; straight rollers, 90 per cent., $4.25 to $4.40; straight rollers, in bags, $1.95 to $2.00; [illegible] to $1.75.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

Fun With Critics.

Mr. Rodolphe Forget is having lots of fun with his Quebec Railway critics. Every time they howl about the stock he puts it up.

The critics cut loose the other day when it was around 57 and at every yelp of dismay up it went. Yesterday it was 63.

If they get more dismal than usual he may hoist it to par.

Quebec at 63 is discounting a whole lot of future, but critics should try a new tack and praise the stock. Then it might go down.

Inflation.

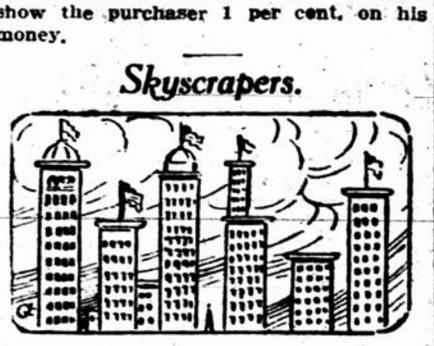
There is a good deal of pool manipulation going on in the Montreal market just now, and some of the kites are flying pretty high.

It is a good time for the small margin trader to exercise caution.

There is inflation in Montreal real estate as well as in stocks.

In some places values are sound; in others there is almost sure to be a break sooner or later. Prices are being paid for some properties that will scarcely show the purchaser 1 per cent. on his money.

Skyscrapers.



The visitor to the Wall Street district in New York will surely get a kink in his neck if he attempts to inspect the sky scrapers which now dot the financial landscape.

Workmen are now busy on the slanting roof of the Bankers' Trust Building, 38 stories above the ground, at the corner of Wall and Nassau streets. The curb brokers on Broad street often look up at these human flies and get dizzy.

In the district now are the City Investing Company, 33 stories, 550 feet above street level; Hudson Terminal, two buildings, each 20 stories; Metropolitan Life tower, 45 floors of actual office space, 750 feet above street level; Singer Building, 42 stories, 710 feet; Trust Company of America, 25 stories; United States Realty building, 20 stories; United States Express building, 20 stories, and the Whitehall building, finished last May, 30 stories.

Others now under construction include the 30-storey building intended for the use of the New York City Department and the Woolworth building.

The latter, the foundations for which have just been completed and the steelwork started, is to eclipse all records in skyscraper construction.

It is to have 50 large floors for actual office accommodation. Its height from the street level will be 800 feet.

Care Free.

The Wall Street market is beginning to act as if it didn't have a trouble in the world.

Dirty Bank Bills.

The banks are so pressed for circulation these days that the bank bills changing hands daily in Montreal are disgracefully dirty. Many of them are tattered, torn and coated with filth. They should be fumigated.

The only clean bills floating around seem to be the new ones issued by La Banque Internationale, but so far not many of these are yet doing duty.

The next bank statement will show the new bank's loans, deposits, etc., and will tell how much of the talked-of $7,000,000 of French capital has put in an appearance.

R. & O. Again.

R&O DIVIDEND

A small boy rushed into a broker's office yesterday and cried:

"Senator Casgrain says Richelieu'll pay 8 per cent. SURE."

The R. & O. meeting had just been concluded, and when the stock began to go up everybody believed the small boy.

Whether the Senator ever made the remark credited to him, and where the excited small boy got his information are two questions the Star cannot answer.

Swindling.

John Hays Hammond said at Chicago: "There is more downright swindling in mining than in any other legitimate business. Especially is this so in boom times. If pure food and drugs act could be applied to mining so that investors would be able to ascertain the ingredients of a mine, much poisonous stock would be withdrawn from sale, and honest enterprises would profit."

Naughty.

It may only be malice, yet they do say on Wall Street that certain high-priced politicians have been dabbling on the short side of stocks recently hit by Government action.

FAKE REPORT AMAZES THE R.&O. DIRECTORS

The announcement that the Richelieu & Ontario are to build four new steamers, published in an evening paper, came as a distinct surprise to old and young alike.

The directors of the company were, perhaps, the most amazed of all, and openly expressed their bewilderment at the new turn in events.

"One of the new boats," the report says, "is to cost $700,000."

"Why," said an R. & O. director this morning, "this would build three steamers of the new Saguenay type, and what should we do with so expensive a proposition as that? Some one has been having day dreams. All our lines are at present in good shape to handle the traffic offering, and, while it is probable that we shall build four new steamers in the course of time, this is not likely to occur inside the next eight or ten years. But $700,000 for one! Whow!"

DR. PEARSON IN $25,000,000 CO.

The company proposes to develop water power aggregating more than 250,000 horse power and to supply light and power to the city of Barcelona, Spain, and the entire north-west section of the country.

OVER $16,000,000 GOLD FOR CANADA

Canada so far this year has taken over $16,000,000 gold from this centre, and she will probably take more, in the opinion of the experts. The demand for money in that country where corporations grow without molestation and industry thrives is sufficiently strong to keep rates well above New York figures. Bankers here are nothing loath to see the gold go out either. They only wish that France, too, would take a few millions at this time of too great abundance.—New York Globe.

Vanderbilts

The Vanderbilt lines did better in September than in any recent month. Accompanying a gain in gross earnings of $237,000, there was a reduction of no less than $1,126,000 in expenses, thus increasing the net by $1,363,000. No other system has equalled this performance.

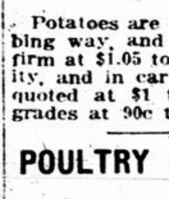
CHATS on CHANGE



The apple crop of Nova Scotia this year exceeds in quantity and quality that of any previous year. It is now claimed that 1,500,000 barrels will be gathered. Up to the middle of October 300,000 barrels had been shipped to England, and many carloads to Winnipeg. The growers complain of the lack of labor and have difficulty in procuring help to gather the fruit. They also have difficulty in procuring barrels to make their shipments.

MILLFEED PRICES STRONG.

Millfeed prices are strong, owing to big demand from all sources, and the small supplies on spot:

Mixed mouillie, $26 to $29; pure grain mouillie, $31 to $32; Manitoba shorts, $25; Manitoba bran, $23; middlings, $27 to $28.

POTATO MARKET ACTIVE.

Potatoes are in good demand in a jobbing way, and the market is active and firm at $1.05 to $1.15 per bag, as to quality, and in car lots Green Mountains are quoted at $1 to $1.05, and the lower grades at 90c to 95c per bag.

POULTRY PRICES ARE HIGH.

The poultry season has opened up, but prices are very high owing to the small receipts on spot. The demand is much in excess of the supply. Turkeys, 20c lb.; chickens, 14c to 16c lb.; fowls, 10c to 12c lb.; ducks, 16c to 18c lb.; geese, 14c lb.

WHEAT BIDS HIGHER AND MARKET FIRM

Winnipeg wheat opened about ½c under the close of last night, but during the day gathered strength, and showed a substantial advance after the noon hour. Cable bids are getting better, and several carloads of wheat were worked to-day for export. Liverpool opened easy, ¼d lower, and gradually fell off as much as ⅝d.

James Carruthers & Co. received a wire from their Toronto office, which said: "Bickle has a private wire from Chicago saying their market largely oversold. Look for upturn. McKinnon, of Logan-Bryan, says if conditions investigated at Chicago they would find wheat worth the money."

Armour & Co., of Chicago, wired the same firm: "Think you are right about wheat having had break enough. Cash demand very good all round. If market hold steady, demand will be heavy. Bartlett buying corn."

CHICAGO GRAIN HOUSE FAILED

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, November 3.—Wheat was unsettled. December sold at 94½c down to 93½c, and up to 94⅝c. May, $1.00½ to 99½c, and up to $1.00½ again. Closings yesterday were at 95⅝c and $1.01⅛ respectively.

Many of the professionals who were short wheat were on the buying side today, which not only steadied the market, but caused a sharp reaction from the early losses. The failure of a small grain house and the transfer of he trades of another caused a great deal of selling soon after the opening. Uneasiness marked the action of the traders in wheat. It was feared that others in the trade might follow.

There was less selling pressure in the pit following the first break of the day, as the talk around the big room was that the Armour andl Lichtstern concerns have sold their future, and that they are selling their cash as rapidly as possible. Primary receipts for to-day were 1,078,000 bushels, compared with 869,000 a year ago.

North-western receipts were 618, compared with 406 a year ago.

The Modern Miller, in its weekly resume, says: "The condition of the winter wheat seeded this fall is excellent. Damage to early sown stocks by the Hessian fly and army worm proves to be limited and local. The stand of the plant is seasonable and there is a healthy growth." Shipments of wheat by Argentina, India and Australia this week were 2,308,000 bushels, compared with 2,488,000 bushels a year ago. The world's shipments for the week are expected to total about 10,000,000 bushels.

Berlin wheat was ⅜c higher. All other markets were lower, ¼c at Berlin, ⅜c at Antwerp, ⅜d to ⅞d at Liverpool, while spot in the latter market was off as much as 1d.

J. F. PRITCHARD.

After the necessary repairs have been made at Quebec, the vessel is expected to return to Montreal and load cargo on her last trip, after which she will be laid up for permanent repairs.

Mr. Oliver Daoust Dies.

He was a brother of Mr. J. Daoust, of Daoust and Lalonde.

He leaves two daughters and two sons. The funeral will take place next Monday from St. Bridget's church.

UPSET JUDGMENT OF A MAGISTRATE AS IRREGULAR

Ubalde Dubeau is now a free boy; Mr. Justice Laurendeau, in a judgment rendered to-day, declared null the judgment pronounced ten days ago against the boy, sending him to reformatory for four years on an accusation of theft.

The reasons for which the judgment of Magistrate Lanctot was quashed were that young Dubeau had not been given all the protection a child is entitled to when before the courts; that his parents had not even been notified of his arrest and were not given a chance to appear for him; that the procedure followed in the case was absolutely irregular, all procedure pertaining to young delinquents having been ignored by the magistrate. For all these reasons young Dubeau was declared free.

Dubeau was arraigned before Judge Lanctot on a charge of theft of three pounds of butter. The boy's father was not in court and the complaint had not yet been sworn when the boy was sentenced. On the day of the sentence, a journalist had been severely taken to task by the magistrate for having reported the trial as it had taken place.

Water Low in St. Lawrence.

The water in the St. Lawrence channel is exceptionally low to-day. At ten o'clock this morning the measurements showed that in the 27 1-2 foot channel there was only 24 feet 7 1-2 inches of water, and in the 30 foot channel 27 feet 9 inches.

TRUSTEE:
NATIONAL TRUST CO., LIMITED, TORONTO

The legal opinion of Messrs. Blake, Lash, Anglin and Cassels, Toronto will be furnished.

We emphasize the following salient points of this issue:
(1) Value of assets as of July 1st, 1911, $5,000,000—Consisting of Real Estate, Buildings, Plant and Goodwill, $3,837,911.94, and Net current quick assets in excess of current liabilities, $1,162,088.06.
Included in current assets is the sum of $734,909 invested in Municipal and other bonds.
(2) Average annual net earnings for past four years (1907-1910) $291,719 or practically 3¼ times the interest on the present bonds.
(3) An annual Sinking Fund beginning July 1st, 1916, sufficient to retire the present issue prior to maturity at a maximum price of 105 and accrued interest.

The Company has outstanding $1,500,000 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock and $2,000,000 Common Stock, both of which are listed upon the Toronto and Montreal exchanges.

The present capacity of the plant which may be said to comprise everything required for the building of the most modern and up-to-date locomotives, provides for a yearly output of seventy-five engines, but as each year many satisfactory orders have been declined owing to the inability of the Company to make the deliveries required, it has been decided to proceed immediately with such enlargement of the works as will increase their future output to at least double their present capacity. Therefore, it may safely be assumed that a corresponding increase in the earnings of the Company will be assured.
At the present time, the Company has a sufficient number of orders on its books to keep it fully employed for about a year, and if negotiations for additional contracts now pending are successful, the Company will have abundance of work until the early months of 1913.
The excellent management of the Company has been further strengthened by the acquisition of Mr. A. W. Wheatley as its General Manager. Mr. Wheatley is one of the foremost locomotive manufacturers in America, having, previous to joining this Company, been the General Manager of the American Locomotive Company's plant at Dunkirk, N.Y., the second largest locomotive works on this continent.

PRESIDENT TAFT ON NAVAL EXPANSION

Declares United States Fleet Must Have Destroyers and Cruisers.

New York, November 3.—Following the review of the fleet yesterday, President Taft issued the following statement:

"Those who saw the fighting fleet which was assembled in New York harbor to-day could not fail to be struck with its preparedness and with its high military efficiency, and must have been proud of its personnel.

"The equipment of the fleet is excellent, except as to the number of destroyers and cruisers and colliers in proportion to the whole number. We had in the fleet to-day twenty-two destroyers, and to meet the full requirements there should have been approximately one hundred destroyers, or an average of four to each battleship. It is true that there has been a marked improvement in the type of colliers and fast cruisers in our navy, but it is also true that we have not a sufficient number.

"In addition to building great battleships, other nations are building enormous high speed cruisers—28 knots per hour—and it is believed that our navy should be similarly equipped. Unless a navy is maintained at the highest possible state of efficiency it is a needless extravagance."

One healthy sign of growing good roads sentiment is the fact that the rural population begin to reveal a sense of shame when their roads are poor. This has been manifested in many sections by the apologies offered tourists by the natives whenever possible.

Vice-Regal Visit to Newfoundland.

St. John's, Nfld., November 3.—The revenues of Newfoundland during the present fall are breaking all records, the increase during the past four months having been $80,000 over the same period in 1910.

The Governor, Sir Ralph C. Williams, who returned yesterday from a four months' holiday in England, announces that a special message from King George to the fishermen states that although the Prince of Wales will not cross the Atlantic next year, it is hoped that the Duke of Connaught will visit the colony next summer.

Clean Teeth—White Teeth

Clean, white, sound teeth; each and all of these things depend upon mouth and teeth that are free from germ life and acidity and that are kept pure, sweet and clean. You are assured of these things by the use of

SANITOL POWDER OR PASTE

It is the whole science of tooth soundness and mouth cleanness and white teeth put into a dentifrice.

Ingredients in Sanitol Tooth Powder that produce such white teeth are also what give it the power to overcome acidity in the mouth.

Ingredients that make it leave such a fresh taste and such purely clean teeth are also the ingredients that destroy all germ life in the mouth and so preserve teeth and health.

Leaves a fresh taste because it leaves a clean mouth.

WESTMOUNT WANTS TWO POST OFFICES AND AN ARMORY

Municipal Association to Urge Westmount Council to Get Them.

The proposed site of the Westmount Post Office was discussed at last night's meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association. President W. G. M. Shepherd declared that Westmount was entitled to a $50,000 post office, equal to Station B in Montreal, while Dr. Elder advocated two sub-offices of the "B" style, one to be placed near Greene avenue and St. Catherine streets, and the other at the corner of Victoria avenue and Sherbrooke street.

Mr. Marson stated that Mr. Louis Coderre, M.P., had expressed a wish to know the views of Westmount on the post office question and that he had said that the Hon. Mr. Monk was prepared to put $70,000 in the estimates for a Westmount station.

A resolution was passed unanimously in favor of the idea of two offices, and it was decided to ask council to support this request.

The desirability of having the Victoria Rifles in Westmount was advocated by several officers of the regiment. Ald. Sherrard told of the negotiations that had taken place, and of the council's proposition to make a grant of land at $1 per foot if a suitable building were erected.

Lt.-Col. Busteed, an ex-officer, said the growing suburbs were robbing the city of young men, and remarked that Westmount had just the class of young men who were wanted in the Victoria Rifles. Major Rodden stated that 60 per cent. of the members were resident in Westmount, and that practically all the officers were.

A motion was finally passed approving of the idea of inducing the Vics to settle in Westmount.

City Library Again Urged

Now Proposed that Laval University Buildings be Bought.

A meeting of the St. Jean Baptiste Society was held in the Monument National last night in order to consider the question of a municipal library and the advisability of the purchase by the city of the Laval University buildings for that purpose. Mr. O. Asselin, Alderman Morin, Canon Dauth, Vice-Rector of Laval University, and Judge Loranger warmly approved the scheme.

Mayor Guerin urged that the two proposals, viz., that of buying the University buildings and the other for the new location of the university should be kept separate. A motion was then put to the meeting and adopted unanimously in favor of the proposed purchase of the Laval University buildings for the municipal library, and pledging the active support of the St. Jean Baptiste Society.

EARLY CLOSING LAWS.

Chambre de Commerce Decides Subject is for City to Decide.

An agitation for the closing of retail shops in the city a third night a week at 7 o'clock, was brought up at a meeting of the Chambre de Commerce yesterday afternoon, but it was decided to leave the matter for the city to deal with, after Mr. I. Prefontaine had explained that he could not see that the Chambre could be expected to do anything in furtherance of the movement, as they were for the liberty of trade, and it was not for them to take any action that would have the effect of placing further restrictions on it.

A report on interprovincial relations was submitted by the committee on legislation, which commended that in view of the increased volume and importance of such trade, general laws and regulations applicable to all the provinces of the Dominion were desirable.

PROVINCIAL RELATIONS.

Chambre de Commerce Discusses This Topic.

Closer relations between the different provinces of the Dominion and the adopting of rules which would facilitate these relations, were the questions discussed yesterday afternoon at a general meeting of the Chambre de Commerce.

The Hon. Mr. Desjardins said that immediately after Confederation there existed certain suspicious feeling between the different provinces, but this has now disappeared and the barriers which had been put up at the time should now be demolished.

The most important innovation which was recommended in the report was that the briefs issued by a judge in any one province could be served and executed in any other province and vice versa.

The resolution will be forwarded to the Provincial Secretary.

THE FIRST CANDIDATE.

Mr. J. R. Claude Accepts Nomination for Mount Royal Ward.

To Mount Royal ward goes the distinction of having the first candidate in the field for municipal honors in the coming elections. Mr. J. R. Claude, for many years a resident of Cote des Neiges, was nominated to oppose the return of Ald. Prudhomme, at a meeting of a number of electors held in the Northmount Hall last evening.

The meeting was presided over by Messrs. J. McKenna and H. Desrosiers, and Mr. H. Demers presented the prospective candidate with a numerously signed petition requesting him to contest the ward. Mr. Claude replied accepting the nomination and promised that, although not at present a resident of the ward, he would do all in his power, if elected, to see that it should receive the attention it had been denied since its annexation to the city.

Literary Society's Banquet.

St. James Literary Society held its annual banquet last night in the Engineers' Club. Dr. George Hall, the president, presided, and the speakers of the evening were Dr. Stephen Leacock, of McGill; Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P. for St. Antoine division; Dean Moyse, Dr. Chipman, Dr. Atherton, Prof. Evans, and others.

Mr. Ames and Dr. Leacock confined themselves almost altogether to discussion on the topic of Imperialism, the member for St. Antoine speaking in response to a toast to the Empire, proposed by Mr. J. Armitage Ewing, K.C.

FIND TRUE BILLS IN SIX CASES AT KING'S BENCH

Arthur Peachey is Held on the Charge of Attempted Murder.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the Court of King's Bench, the grand jury brought in true bills against the following:

Arthur Peachey, attempted murder.

Nicholas Hayes, attempted murder.

Julian Zerbo, John Dackter and Jack Skringe, charged with attacking Mrs. Jette, in Sanguinet street, with murderous intent.

Andrew Smith and Petro Lazzaro, attempted murder.

Ovila Lambert, conspiracy to commit arson.

Harry Aniholo and Antonio Deranto, attempted murder.

In the case of Richard Johnson, the grand jury returned no bill. Johnson was tried last term and was acquitted on a charge of house-breaking, and it was out of this case that the charge of perjury arose.

Mr. W. M. Cooper, advocate, appeared for the prisoner.

LAD AT PLAY MEETS DEATH.

Julien Grenon Killed by Fall of Ten Feet.

A fall while playing tag in the recreation room of St. Laurent School, Cote Street, yesterday afternoon, resulted almost immediately in the death of Julien Grenon, aged 10 years, from a fractured skull. The lad, whose home is in St. Faustin, was playing with other pupils about his own age. One lad was trying to tag the others, and to escape him Julien leaped on a table in the corner of the room.

He missed his footing and fell the short distance to the floor, striking his head heavily. His companions were startled to see the boy lying motionless on the floor bleeding from his nose and mouth, and though stupified for a moment soon called for assistance.

One of the brothers who have charge of the school immediately ran for a doctor and Father Luche, chaplain of the school was called in. Seeing the boy's critical condition he administered the last rites of the church to him as he lay unconscious on the floor. Death came before the arrival of the physician.

Dr. Dugas investigated the circumstances of the boy's death last night and this morning Coroner McMahon signed the death certificate. His parents were notified and arrived in the city at noon to take the body to St. Faustin for burial.

WOULD FORCE NEW BUREAUS TO CLOSE

British Inland Revenue Department Demands Their Books for Examination.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, November 3.—An attempt to force foreign newspapers and news associations to employ only Englishmen as their correspondents in Great Britain is discerned in journalistic circles here to-day in a demand the Inland Revenue department is making upon such concerns to submit their books for examination by English authorities.

Foreign newspaper men in London have known for a long time that the Government regards their presence with disfavor. Aside from the fact that it prefers the employment of Englishmen on economic grounds, the anti-English tone which some of the foreigners, and especially Americans, have adopted has caused deep resentment in influential circles.

Slighting references to the King and Queen in particular could be practically stopped if English sources alone were open to foreign news-gathering concerns.

It is generally agreed that the Income Tax department is intentionally demanding what is known to be an impossibility as a means of forcing the offenders either to come to terms or close their English bureaus.

Canada's Progress Shown in Banks

The marvellous and constantly increasing growth of Canada was again illustrated to-day by the official figures for the Montreal Clearing House, which were courteously given to the Star by Mr. John Knight, Manager of the Montreal Clearing House. The clearings for November 3rd, create a new high record for any one day's business, and reach the total of $12,292,181. The highest previous total recorded for any one day was $11,114,891.

Stylish Millinery at Popular Prices

Unless you visit our showrooms, you can form no idea of the styles and values we show in popular priced hats. Even the lower priced ones are distinctly different from the ordinary inexpensive hats usually shown.

All these hats have been recently made up in our own workrooms, and are copies and adaptations from imported models — no two hats alike.

For to-morrow, Saturday, we make a special showing of Trimmed Hats suitable for Ladies and Misses at $3.95, $5.00, $7.50, $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.
