CAPTAIN BOYD IS FIRST CANADIAN AVIATOR TO FLY ATLANTIC OCEAN

Sighted Two Hundred Miles Off Land, Which Means that He Has Safely Conquered Vast Atlantic Stretch—Position Given Would Indicate that Plane Was Coming Inland Across Coast of Cornwall—Made Slight Change in His Original Course.

LONDON, Oct. 10. — The steamship Virgilia sent the following radio this afternoon: "Aeroplane flying low, easterly direction, position 49.08 north, 10.25 W."

The radio message was filed from the Valencia radio station at 2.39 p.m. British time, or 9:39 a.m. E.S.T. The position given would indicate that the aeroplane was coming inland across the coast of Cornwall.

The course indicated would take the Columbia south of the southern tip of Ireland. Previous indications had been that the flyers intended to fly over the Emerald Isle.

Taking the more southerly course would not necessarily add much to her journey to Croydon. Captain Boyd and his companion took off yesterday from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, in an attempt to fly to Croydon, England. Should they succeed they will be the first Canadian expedition to fly the Atlantic.

They took off from Harbor Grace yesterday at 11.20 a.m. (E.S.T.) at 12.10 p.m. They were seen heading out to sea over St. John's, Newfoundland, and less than an hour later were sighted one hundred miles off the coast by the steamship Quaker City. The liner Laconia reported sighting the plane at 5.40 p.m. about four hundred miles due east of Harbor Grace.

Dr. James H. Kimball, weather bureau meteorologist, said weather reports indicated the flyers would have followed winds for nearly the entire course, but their path would be beset by fog and rain squalls.

The Columbia, which has a varied career and at one time held the non-stopping endurance record and the long distance flight record, is equipped with the same motor and wooden propeller which Chamberlain and Levine flew to Germany. It carries no radio.

Captain Boyd is a veteran flier. He was the first Canadian to enlist in the Royal Flying Corps in the war and he was shot down over Holland, where he was injured. After the war he returned to Canada and has been engaged in commercial flying ever since, spending much time on prospecting and exploration flights over the north country.

Lieutenant Connor is an experienced mariner and navigator, with several years' experience at sea in the United States navy.

Last summer Boyd and Connor with Roger Q. Williams made a non-stop flight from New York to Bermuda and return in the Columbia. Before the take-off Captain Boyd expressed his full confidence in Lieutenant Connor's ability to direct the plane on a true course by dead reckoning. "This is proved," he said, "by the fact that on the Bermuda flight Connor navigated me two hours through heavy rain and low ceiling until, much surprised, I found myself over Hamilton Harbor. If we had been one mile off our course we would have passed the island unseen."

The fliers made a hurried take-off yesterday when fog which had held them earth bound for two weeks cleared. The plane carried 462 gallons of gas, the heaviest load ever put aboard a single-motored plane for a trans-Atlantic flight. It took a run nearly the full length of the 4,000 foot runway to get it into the air.

The start ended a long series of delays which thwarted Boyd and Connor for several weeks in their plans for the flight.

Soon after their arrival in Canada, Roger Q. Williams attached the plane in legal proceedings to collect money he claimed was owed him by its owner, Charles A. Levine. Then the plane was forced down at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, by bad weather.

They arrived at Harbor Grace over two weeks ago and waited for favorable weather.

ANXIOUS FAMILY AWAIT NEWS OF DARING PILOT

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 10.—An anxious family, a father and mother, a wife and four young daughters, today awaited word from Croydon, England, announcing the safe arrival there of Captain Erroll Boyd, who hopped off from Harbor Grace, Nfld., on Thursday morning, in company with Harry P. Connor, his navigator, in the first attempt by Canadians to cross the Atlantic Ocean in an aeroplane.

The family of Captain Boyd are confident the Toronto boy who distinguished himself in the Great War as a pilot in the Royal Air Force, will complete the dangerous voyage.

According to his mother, Mrs. J. T. Boyd, her thirty-eight-year-old son has seemingly been protected.

CHURCH SHOULD CONSIDER MORE QUESTION OF BIRTH

Should Not Be Indifferent to Question of Producing Children from Unfit Parents, States "Gloomy Dean."

NEWPORT, Wales, Oct. 10.—Dean Inge, known as the "Gloomy Dean," in another of his pointed speeches on social problems warned the Church-Congress here yesterday that the church should not be indifferent to the question of producing children from unfit parents.

"The eugenists have no wish to introduce unseemly methods of bettering humanity," Dean Inge asserted, "but we cannot repeal the laws of nature by ignoring them."

The advance of knowledge, he laid upon church people new moral obligations, the Dean said, among them being duties to posterity. "When knowledge is available," he added, "and we do not use it, it is counted to us for a sin."

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—The bourse, still nervous over the political and financial situation, opened weak today following yesterday's reaction to the increase of the Reichsbank rate from four to five per cent.

Pivotal issues slumped from five to eight points.

ADVANTAGE FOR CANADIAN WHEAT EXPORT DECIDEDLY MORE HOPEFUL

Less Optimistic Prairie Reports Envisaged Crop Losses Due to Rain—Why Long Trips Have Been Made by Panama Canal to Take on Cargoes Which Could Be Obtained from Grain-Filled Elevators at Montreal.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 10.—Varied aspects of the grain situation, classed as Canada's problem of the moment, stood out in the news today by observers "decidedly more hopeful outlook" for Canadian wheat export is noted by E. A. Ursell, grain board statistician, as less optimistic Prairie reports envisaged crop losses due to rain.

Meanwhile, Vancouver, ship-bookings, relate that half a dozen grain boats are enroute from Montreal, great grain shipping port, to take on cargoes in Pacific coast harbors. Montreal officials have been quoted as "at a loss to explain" the long journey by Panama Canal to take on cargoes which could be obtained from the grain-filled elevators at Montreal.

Congestion at the Quebec port was said in some quarters to have been responsible for diverting tonnage to the Pacific Coast. Commons Bros., of New Castle-on-Tyne, are sending three of their ships, the Simonburn, the Hindustan and the Waziristan in Ballast from Montreal, according to Thomas Carling, of the Harvey Shipping Company. Three other vessels are reported ready to move to Vancouver, the Ballast, a distance of eight thousand miles.

Millions of bushels, it is believed, will be cut from the estimates of the prairie wheat crop, due to the mauling weather in northern Saskatchewan and Alberta. One month ago, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics estimated the prairie wheat yield at 362,000,000 bushels, but since that date intermittent showers in the northern part have almost entirely stopped threshing.

While it is impossible, according to responsible officials, to estimate the probable loss due to adverse weather, it is certain damage will be considerable. Much of the delay has been reported in areas where crop stands were heavy and quite promising. Sprouting and matting of wheat, noted in some areas, will probably prevent a number of farmers from threshing the late grain, and the low price, less than half of last year's rates, will be a further deterrent.

Export figures for the last two months, comparing with those of 1929, are quoted by Mr. Ursell in his report of grain movement for Saskatchewan as pointing to improved prospects of moving wheat overseas. During the four weeks ending September 26th, 22,108,746 bushels of wheat were shipped, and in August, export trade amounted to 17,639,288 bushels, according to Mr. Ursell.

Little comment has been evinced by boats from Montreal making the 8,000 mile trip to Vancouver for cargo, but the Manitoba Free Press today refers to the situation as follows:

"Comparison between grain movements from Montreal and Vancouver for the first two months of the year has shown a larger than usual share of the business. The Pacific port in past years has seen its most active period during the winter months when Montreal and Lake ports are closing to improved activity this year is due in part to a much-improved export business with China and Japan, although the quantity of wheat moving from Vancouver to the United Kingdom and the continent is also quite considerable."

"Vancouver is seen to have a price advantage to the buyer of 1 1/2 cents per bushel over Montreal at prevailing freight rates, assuming that the grain from the western farm can be laid down at Vancouver and Fort William at the same cost.

As a matter of fact Vancouver enjoys a small advantage in rail freight from many points in Alberta."

PREMIER BENNETT KEEPS PROMISE TO PROTECT CANADIAN CONSUMER

Government Has Announced Reduction in Tariff on Glass—Figure Back to What It Was Before Special Session of Parliament—No Active Steps Taken to Manufacture in Canada, Reason for Change—Explanation Given by Sir George Perley.

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—In order to afford the greatest possible protection to the Canadian consumer, the Government has announced that it has reduced the duties on common and colorless window glass, which were greatly increased at the emergency session of Parliament. The rates have now been reduced to those which prevailed before the special session. The old rates provided for a duty of seven and a half per cent under the British preference, twelve and a half per cent intermediate and twenty and a half per cent general tariff.

In making the announcement of the change in rates on window glass, Sir George Perley, acting Prime Minister, stated that complaints had reached the Government that the price of this commodity to consumers had been doubled since the special session. After inquiry the Government had learned that no active steps have so far been taken to produce glass in Canada by those having factories here.

Under the tariff approved at the special session of Parliament, the specific rates on window glass became effective. They were as follows: Common and colorless glass: (a) in sheets not exceeding 80 square inches in area, per pound, British preferential tariff, 1 1/2%; intermediate tariff, 1 3/4%; general tariff, 1 3/4%; (b) in sheets exceeding 80 square inches, but not exceeding 10 square inches in area, per pound, British preferential tariff 2 1/4%, intermediate tariff 3%, general tariff 3%; (c) in sheets exceeding 120 square inches in area, British preferential tariff 3 1/4%, intermediate 4 1/4%, general 4 1/4%.

Sir George gave out the following statement: During the special session when the increases in the tariff were under discussion, the Prime Minister stated repeatedly that the Government would not permit consumers to be exploited or charged unfair prices, and that if anything of that sort were attempted, the Government would exercise its power to reduce the rates of duty. Complaints have come to the Government that the price of ordinary window glass to consumers has been doubled since the special session, and after inquiry the Government has learned that no active steps have so far been taken to produce glass in Canada by those having factories here.

The Cabinet has therefore passed an order-in-council setting forth that it has become apparent that considerable time will elapse before producers in Canada of ordinary window glass will be able to supply the demand; and in the meantime it is right and conducive to the public good that the ultimate consumer of this commodity, and the users thereof in Canadian manufactures should be protected; and that the duty on common and colorless window glass under item 318 shall hereafter be the rates applicable prior to the special session, viz.: 7 1/2 per cent preferential, 12 1/2 per cent intermediate and 12 1/2 per cent general.

"This action is taken in accordance with the settled policy of the Government as stated many times publicly by the Prime Minister himself; way the production of everything that can be reasonably produced in Canada, but at the same time protect the consumer from unfair prices."

LONDON PRESS FAVORABLE TO MR. BENNETT

Suggestions Advanced by Premier Bennett at Imperial Conference Meet With General Approval.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Considerable importance was attached here yesterday to the suggestions of Premier R. B. Bennett, of Canada, at the Imperial Conference that entitles the British Empire should increase the tariff on goods imported from non-British nations.

All the London papers lean more or less toward such a preferential system, and as a consequence few were very critical yesterday in editorial treatment of the proposals. The Times described the plenary session of the Imperial Conference as an "outstanding political event" and probably a turning point in imperial development. "The country will insist that the proposals be examined thoroughly."

"It is tired of empty rhetoric about mutual help and understanding, and is determined to give sympathetic consideration to such a concrete plan as has now been put before it."

The Liberal Chronicle professed an inability to understand what Canada wants, adding that Premier Bennett's offer in its present form seems to have no relation to the facts of the situation.

RUNAWAY HORSE TRAMPLED MONTREAL MAN TO DEATH

Driver Was Thrown to Ground When He Attempted to Get Hold of Bridle of Frightened Animal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—In a heroic effort to stop a runaway horse today, H. Bedard, twenty-five years of age, fell beneath the animal's feet and was trampled to death. Bedard was driving a bread wagon when the horse, frightened by a noisy truck, bolted along a crowded boulevard. Bedard, in his efforts to stop the horse, broke the reins. Then Bedard leaped from the driver's seat to the horse's back and clutched at the bridle. The animal reared up and Bedard fell to the ground where he was trampled and run over by the wagon as the horse continued on its mad career. Bedard was dead when admitted to the hospital. The horse was stopped by motorcycle police and no pedestrians were injured.

CANADIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CONVENTION BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

Seldom, if Ever, Has There Been Such an Imposing List of Outstanding Canadian Men at a Similar Convention—Problems of Absorbing Interest to Canadians Generally Discussed—Co-operation in Finding Work for Unemployed Assured.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 10.—Nearly fifty speakers addressed the 412 delegates to the convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce which adjourned last night.

The convention opened last Tuesday, and through three crowded days, faced a flood of oratory and a mass of statistics on many subjects pertaining to problems of absorbing interest to Canadians generally.

Seldom, if ever, has there been such an imposing list of outstanding Canadian men at a similar convention here. Numbered among them were the heads of huge manufacturing concerns, noted soldiers, economic experts, ambassadors of trade, journalists and publishers. Each of them contributed suggestions which would tend to improve unemployment and economic conditions in Canada.

Last night the convention adjourned after a great banquet which for perhaps the first time, a head table made up of financiers and manufacturers who had more than $100,000,000 at their command. All agreed to do their best to assist Canada, and promised their heartiest co-operation in finding work for idle hands to do.

Three of them, Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Hon. Alfred Durand, Minister of Marine, and W. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, through W. M. Clarke, Montreal, delivered optimistic messages of increased prosperity for Canada. Mr. Beatty was unable to attend owing to slight illness, but his address was read by Mr. Clarke.

One of the most controversial subjects of the week came when the report of the transportation committee was presented last Tuesday. On that occasion, a strong attack on the Canadian government merchant marine was made by several speakers, who claimed the service was operated at a great loss. The report itself urged the Government to continue its policy of reduction of the line, while some members of the committee went so far as to suggest the drastic step of selling the vessels of the war-time fleet be sold at the estimated value could be realized, discussion on this matter was resumed, and the report was adopted. However, before any further action is taken, the committee will make a further study of the shipping situation as it maintains the merchant marine generally.

Another brief controversy occurred yesterday with reference to the Canadian Government commercial intelligence service. Some speakers took the position that the service, while greatly improved, was not worth the money it cost to operate, while others took an entirely different view. The final upshot came when a resolution urged the appointment of a committee to visit the government and attempt to secure a further improvement.

From an aviation angle, two interesting resolutions were adopted yesterday. One asks that every encouragement be given to the development of "all red" aviation routes connecting the various parts of the British Empire, and the other urges the establishment and maintenance of airports and aerodromes at municipal centres throughout the country.

Angus McLean, of Bathurst, N.B., will guide the destinies of the charter through the coming year. Mr. McLean was unanimously chosen as president by the convention prior to its adjournment. With his acceptance of the gavel, J. H. Woods, Calgary, gave up the office which he had filled, according to Mr. McLean, with tremendous credit.

Mr. Woods, during his term of office, set a pace which will be very hard to equal," the incoming official said.

Suggestions that the United States raise its exportation restrictions have come from numerous localities since the wreck of the British dirigible R-101 at Beauvais, France, early last Sunday morning.

TARIFF TO BE CHIEF QUESTION IN NEXT BRITISH ELECTION CAMPAIGN

Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative Leader in England, Says that Views Expressed Yesterday at Imperial Conference Will Guide Future Developments—British Conservative Party Will Line Up Solidly Behind Canada's Prime Minister.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A long and bitter political fight on the tariff issue was presaged yesterday by the booming guns of political oratory on both Conservative and Labor sides. Breaking a silence of many weeks, Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader and former Prime Minister, prophesied in a public statement that the next British general election "guided by the views expressed yesterday by the Imperial Conference," would be fought out chiefly over the tariff question. He stated his party would line up solidly behind proposals brought up by Premier R. B. Bennett, of Canada, and other Dominion statesmen, for a large increase in the preferential duties in Empire trade.

Meanwhile the First Lord of the Admiralty, Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, speaking at Leicester, denounced "attempts to use the conference for stampeding the country into protection." His statement was made before a meeting of the co-operative movement.

"Every effort is being made to stampee the country into a drastic change in our fiscal system, and to extend for this purpose the fact that the Imperial Conference is sitting in London."

"I would say to the worker who thinks that his particular industry would be helped by a tariff that Mr. Churchill was right when he said years ago 'protection is a good starter but a bad finisher.'"

"For as soon as you move from a particular to a general tariff in a campaign against the Empire free trade movement or Lord Rothermere, as well as against the Laborites."

A manifesto supporting the Imperial preference scheme was issued by the Council of Industry, a body of leading industrialists headed by Sir William Morris, automobile manufacturer.

It regretted "the complete absence of any response or practical rejoinder on the part of our British representatives."

The effects of Mr. Baldwin's declaration on the present confused political situation is expected by experienced commentators to be profound.

In many quarters it is regarded as Mr. Baldwin's first real shot in a campaign against the Empire free trade movement or Lord Rothermere, as well as against the Laborites.

Both Lord Beaverbrook and Lord Rothermere, newspaper magnates, have been attacking Mr. Baldwin in their powerful chain of papers.

Journalistic London tonight buzzed with reports that Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, had turned down the Canadian preference proposals.

It was authoritatively stated, however, that there had been no rejection, nor any definite decision, and that the discussion would continue.

After yesterday's meeting most of the conference activities were suspended over the week-end, and no important tariff developments are expected in that connection.

RICHMOND TOWN COUNCIL HELD MONTHLY MEET

Delegation of Prominent Citizens Made Request for Armistice Day Celebration - General Notes.

RICHMOND, Oct. 10.—The regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday evening, October 6th, in the absence of the mayor, the pro-mayor, Alphonse Tremblay, presided with all the aldermen present.

A delegation, consisting of Dr. Hayes, Messrs. Harry Livsey, John Brooks and other citizens, waited on the board requesting that the council take some action to make the celebration of Armistice Day more representative of the community. Mr. Hayes, who was the chief spokesman, pointed out that in the past there had been a measure of indifference on the part of many in observing the anniversary, especially in taking part in the Memorial service held at the Soldiers' Monument.

He reminded the council that the Memorial Monument had been erected by the municipality of Richmond and contiguous municipalities and expressed the opinion that these municipalities should be interested in the annual Memorial service. Since Richmond is central, it should take the lead in making the necessary arrangements and in carrying them out successfully, concluded Dr. Hayes.

Mr. Hayes, secretary of the Canadian Legion, Mr. John Brooks and Rev. S. Gorley Brown also spoke in support of the representations made by Dr. Hayes. It was pointed out by one of the speakers that, in making this request, they were not casting any reflections on any organization which has previously arranged for the annual services, but rather that the organization had not received the support to which it was entitled. It was suggested that the council might name a committee to meet and co-operate with similar committees representing the Soldiers' Legion, the Ladies' Auxiliary and the Daughters of the Empire.

Mr. Livsey also addressed the council regarding the placing of a light at the Soldiers' Memorial Monument. The mayor was instructed to convene a meeting of the Monument committee for the purpose of taking under consideration both matters which had been presented.

Mr. Palardy presented a complaint against men working in Richmond and living in another municipality, claiming if they obtained their living in Richmond they should live in Richmond and help to support the town by paying their taxes. He asked the council to place a tax on all workers who were not residents of the town. Mr. Palardy was supported in his contention by Mr. A. J. Girard. The College Street church, Chalmers' congregation withdrew their evening service and instead of attending the congregation for worship, Rev. S. Gorley, pastor of Chalmers' Church, being present and taking part with Rev. E. W. S. Coates and Dr. Gifford. At this service, Dr. Gifford spoke more particularly to the young people present, his theme being the building of character. Personality, he said, could be defined in terms of character. While God had manifested Himself particularly in the person of Jesus Christ. He was also manifesting Himself in the character of Christian men and women and in an especial way in one who had to work out his own salvation. There are three elements, he said, which enter into character building, the physical, the mental and environment. Science had demonstrated that personality was a unity consisting of body and soul. Between the mind and body there is a constant interplay of influences. The mind has an influence on the body and the body on the mind and it was therefore necessary, in building a right character, that care should be given to the body. He warned young people against the danger which comes with greatest force when the nervous system is over-wrought, that at such a time it is easy to make wrong decisions. Environment, he concluded, did not necessarily determine character, but rather character took out of the environment. He ended a most forceful address by quoting from St. Paul's letter to the Philippians "Whatever things are true, honest, just, etc., think on those things."

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

Sammy Jay Discovers the Truth By Thornton W. Burgess

The stoutest heart doth yield to fear When helplessness seems drawing near. —Old Mother Nature.

It was daybreak of the morning after the start of the great fight in the Green Forest. Sammy Jay hastily got a bit to eat and then flew straight over to where the night before he had left Lightfoot the Deer and the strange Deer-fighting. He hoped he would find some one who could tell him who had won the battle. You can guess how surprised he was when he discovered the two fighters apparently fighting as hard as ever. Any way, they were standing head to head and every now and then one would give the other a push. Could it be that they had fought all night? All about the ground was torn up and trodden. Not far away stood little Mrs. Lightfoot and on her face was a worried look—a look as if there were something she did not understand. During the night she had wandered about, but always after a little came back where she could watch the two who were fighting for her.

Blacky the Crow arrived a few minutes after Sammy Jay. He, too, was surprised. "I never heard of such a thing!" he exclaimed. "It looks as if neither knows when to quit."

Just then both slipped to their knees. Sammy's sharp eyes discovered something. Yes, sir, they did! Those eyes of his are very sharp and they are forever discovering something.

"Did you see that, Cousin Blacky?" he exclaimed. "Did I see what?" demanded Blacky.

"Those two were trying to pull apart, instead of trying to push each other," exclaimed Sammy growing more and more excited. "Watch, and you'll see that I'm right."

"They are locked together!" cried Sammy Jay. "Those antlers are all tangled together. Now, what will they do? Why, this is dreadful! If they can't get themselves apart, no one else can part them. I never heard of such a thing; but there it is! See, Lightfoot isn't angry any longer, he is just frightened. It is the same way with the stranger."

It was all true. Lightfoot and the other Deer had locked antlers. They had come together in such a way that the antlers had been pushed apart and then sprung together, so that it was impossible for them to separate them. They

Feels Like a New Man
 Says There Is Nothing To Equal Bon-Tone.

MR. HONORIUS MARCEAU.
 For the past two years my stomach has been giving me a great deal of trouble, states Mr. Honorius Marceau, 57 Aberdeen St., Sherbrooke, Que. "My food wouldn't digest properly at all but would form a lot of gas and I would bloat terribly. I also suffered with severe headaches and always felt tired and run down. I couldn't seem to get any strength or ambition although I tried many different kinds of medicines—nothing seemed to help me. My kidneys were very weak and I had a pain across my back most of the time and also in my right side. Constipation was another source of complaint and my nerves were bad and I found it impossible to sleep well. Then I started to take Bon-Tone and although I have taken but a few bottles so far, I feel like a new man. My stomach is in first class condition and my appetite is better and my food digests and doesn't form gas any more. I feel stronger and my nerves are better too and I sleep just fine. Constipation is gone and my kidneys give me no more trouble. I can never praise Bon-Tone enough for the good it has done me."
 Is it not reasonable to suppose that what this great remedy has done for Mr. Marceau, it will do for you? The herbs in Bon-Tone are carefully selected as to their therapeutic value in the treatment of disorders of the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels.

AN ORGANIZED GANG SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Investigations by Provincial and Local Authorities Uncovered Smooth Functioning Ring of Robbers Operating Through This Section.

A well organized ring of thieves, who confined their activities to robbing farms throughout this section of the Eastern Townships, was dissolved this morning in the Magistrate's Court when Judges Lemay and Godbout, of Beauce, meted out sentences ranging from three months in jail to two years in penitentiary to the participants of the robberies. The sentences given today were the culmination of an extensive investigation undertaken by the Provincial authorities, with the co-operation of High Constable Louis A. Gaudreau.

On September 5th, Detective Hector Dorais was assigned to investigate in the vicinity of fifteen complaints emanating from Stoke, Island Brook, St. Eli d'Orford and other places in the same districts. Information secured from the victims of the robbers' depredations brought to light that cattle, sheep, hens, automobile accessories, groceries, gasoline and oil were among the booty carried off.

Operating from a central headquarters in the rooming house of Dame Cyrille Jacques, on St. Paul street, the gang continued their illegal operations until the law stepped in. Dorais took out warrants for the arrests of Emile Daigle, Emery Houde, Albert Malenfant, Alphonse Desrochers and Charles Jacques, all of Sherbrooke, on September 13th, and within the next few days all but Daigle were captured. Two other persons, Albert Benoit and Mrs. Cyrille Jacques, were also arrested on charges of receiving stolen goods while later Raoul Ireland came into the range of the law for theft. At their hearings, Malenfant, Houde, Desrochers and Jacques pleaded guilty to the charges laid against them, while Mrs. Jacques was found guilty and the case against Albert Benoit was dismissed for lack of evidence. Daigle made good his escape and has so far evaded the arm of the law. The case of Raoul Ireland will come up for hearing next week as a result of the accused pleading not guilty to the charges against him.

This morning Judge Lemay sentenced Malenfant for two years in the penitentiary for each of the six offenses to which he pleaded guilty, the terms to run concurrently. Charles Jacques was also sentenced to two years, while Mrs. Cyrille Jacques will spend the next two years in the Kingston penitentiary for her part in receiving the booty. Judge Godbout, who heard Mrs. Jacques' case, meted out her sentence.

Desrochers escaped with the lightest sentence of any when Judge Lemay sent him to jail for three months. The fourth member of the ring, Houde, received one year behind the bars.

Louis Baudouin, of this city, will serve a year for inciting Emile Roy, of Sherbrooke, to cash a forged cheque which bore the name of E. C. Howard, while Roy was allowed out on suspended sentence until December 16th. His father was, however, required to furnish a bond of $1,000 for his appearance on the above date. Roy was also charged with the theft of automobile accessories, and for this charge he was given a three month sentence.

 SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL HELD
 The pleasant home of Mrs. C. G. White, Church street, was the scene of a very successful gathering yesterday afternoon, when, following the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, a delightful musical programme was given under the auspices of the Society. The programme opened with "O Canada," with Mrs. Browne at the piano. Mrs. Browne also played several solos in her usual finished style, including, "Chromatic Waltz," (Goddard) and "Barchetta" (Nevin), with encores.

Miss Kathleen Taylor, of Waterville, widely known as a violinist, merit, played two selections, "Il Trovatore," (Santaisie-Verdi) and "Perpetuum Mobile," (Warner, Op. 66) with power and expression, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Mrs. David L. Johnston.

Vocal solos were given by Mrs. R. E. Stevenson, whose splendid voice was heard to advantage in "When Song is Sweet," and "Friend O'Mine," (Sanderson), with Mrs. Hadlock at the piano. "A Dream" (Bartlett) and "The Yow" were Mrs. J. G. Trenholme's contribution to the programme, Mrs. Hadlock accompanying.

A feature part of the programme was a travel talk by Mrs. J. Gifford, who has recently returned from Egypt, where she spent several months. "A Trip to Cairo," was her subject, and the story was told with the enthusiasm of an actual traveller to the scenes described. Mrs. Gifford's address was listened to with keen interest, and the thanks of all present were expressed to her and to the musician by Mrs. R. J. Sealie.

A busy hour was spent in preceding the programme in Institute business, with Mrs. J. Manes, the president, in the chair. The sum of $25 was voted towards Malvern cemetery fund, and it was decided to subscribe towards the prize list of the women's annual exhibit in January. Afternoon tea concluded a pleasant and profitable meeting.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SCOUTS TO BE CONSIDERED

Many Important Matters Before Sherbrooke Association — "Thanks Badge" Will Be Presented to Mr. H. G. Scafield.

The Sherbrooke Local Association of Boy Scouts held a meeting of the executive on Wednesday evening, with a very good attendance. Mr. J. R. Sangster, the president, acted as chairman.

On a motion of Messrs. A. E. Willis and Mr. C. Eryant, it was resolved that the name of Mr. G. E. Ewing, second vice-president, be substituted for that of Mr. H. G. Scafield, first vice-president, to sign cheques jointly with the treasurer.

The treasurer, Mr. Lewis Rosenbloom, gave a report on the results of the Boy Scout campaign for funds, stating that there is over $700 on hand. This amount, together with subscriptions promised, will bring the total up to $1,000, which is indeed very satisfactory.

The secretary was requested to write to the Record Publishing Company and Mr. C. Duffy, manager of the Premier Theatre, expressing the sincere thanks of the Association for the great help accorded by the Record in giving such splendid co-operation through the press in connection with the "financial drive," and Mr. Duffy's generosity in showing a screen "side at the Premier Theatre during the first week of the campaign. It was also moved that a letter be forwarded to Mr. F. C. Churchill thanking him for his untiring efforts in soliciting funds during the drive, as he had devoted his entire time during three weeks in this worthy cause.

The Association learned with deep regret of the departure from Sherbrooke of the first vice-president, Mr. H. G. Scafield, and a "thanks badge" will be secured from provincial headquarters and forwarded to Mr. Scafield as an expression of the appreciation for the excellent work he has performed on behalf of the Scout movement in this district.

The appointment of Mr. Lloyd Bowen as Scout publicity man in Sherbrooke, approved at the last meeting, was confirmed.

A motion was moved by Mr. Lewis Rosenbloom and seconded by Mr. Drew to the effect that a finance committee be appointed and that no bills be paid without the sanction of this committee, which will make recommendation to the executive, was carried. The following gentlemen were appointed members of the committee: Mr. A. J. E. Willis, chairman; Messrs. A. J. Phillips and E. Bryant.

It was also decided that a committee be named to revise the rules governing the securing of badges and that the list for examinees be brought up to date. Mr. C. B. Blake, chairman, and Messrs. C. Price, N. Hunter and M. A. Workman will compose this committee.

The question of securing permanent headquarters for the local Association was considered and referred to the finance committee for consideration and report at a later meeting.

On the approval of the finance committee, the expenditure of $7.50 was authorized to cover the cost of printing forms in connection with the Lister trophy inspection.

An unemployment committee was formed, consisting of the same gentlemen that make up the finance committee, to aid Boy Scouts in securing work. The committee will study ways and means of functioning and report at a later meeting.

There are several opportunities for students at Bishop's to apply for scholarships at this point in the academic year, and it is probable that some applications for at least the Rhodes Scholarship will go before the proper authorities this autumn. At present there are three notices of scholarship on the student notice board at the university.

Applications for Rhodes Scholarships must be presented before November 10th, and the applicant must have completed at least two years in a University. Bishop's has not had a Rhodes scholar since Douglas Barlow, B.A., '26, of East Angus, who is at present at Oxford, and it is hoped that the honor may come to the university again in the near future.

The Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire are offering a scholarship abroad for Canadian university students, applications for which must be sent in by October 20th. Mr. Ralph Gustafson, M.A., '30, is at present studying at Oxford, having won one of these scholarships.

CHURCHILL PROJECT IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY
 Dominion Minister of Railways and Canals Claims Development Work Going Ahead in Very Efficient Manner.

THE P.A.S. Man, Oct. 10.—Charges that the seaport project was not proceeding at Churchill as rapidly as it might be, were declared to be "unfair and unfounded" by Hon. R. J. Manion, Dominion Minister of Railways and Canals, who returned Monday following his first trip of inspection to the Northern Manitoba port.

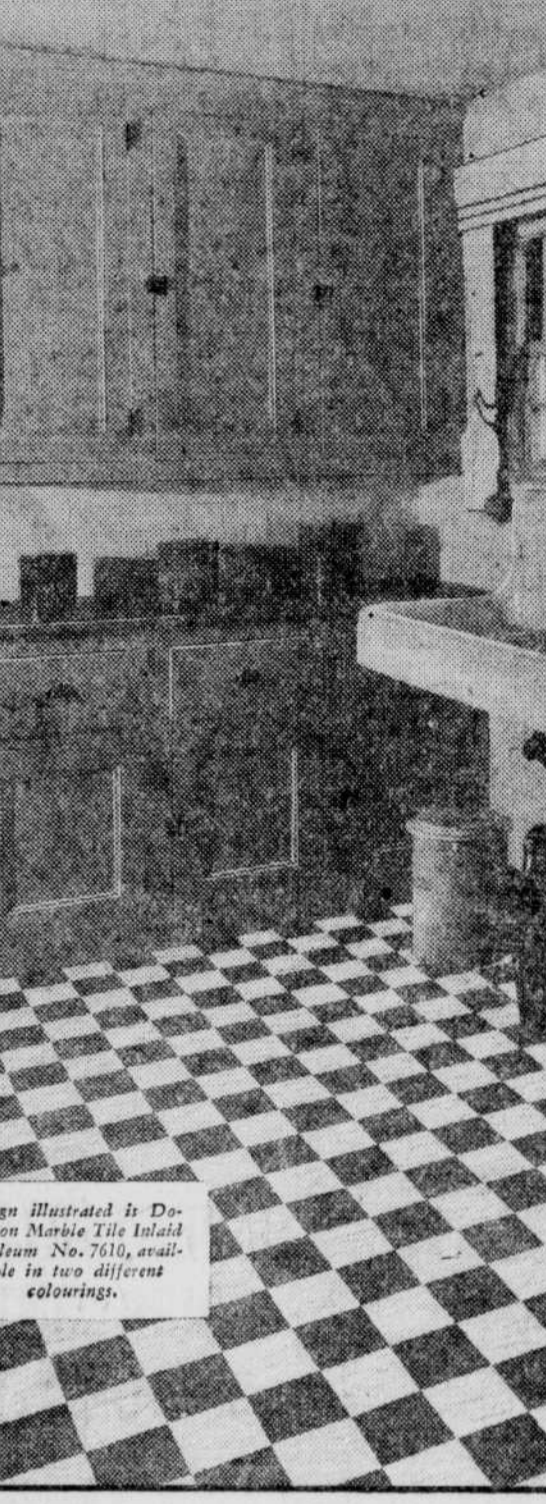

Development work at Churchill, he said, is going ahead in an extremely efficient manner. It was the government's intention to open the Hudson Bay route in September, 1931, for tests in both export and import shipments, Dr. Manion said. Unforeseen circumstances might change present plans, but it was hoped the government's plan to open the route in a commercial way next autumn would be carried out.

The Minister of Railways, on his northern journey over the Hudson Bay Railway, had found an excellent roadbed, he said, and an immense amount of work had been accomplished reflecting great credit on both the Department of Interior and the Canadian National Railway.

At Churchill, he said about 800 feet of dock had been constructed and it was hoped to have 1,800 feet of dock completed when shipment tests are made next fall.

MANY REPORTS ARE PRESENTED AT CONVENTION

Economics, Recreation, Moral Standards, House and Town Planning, National Parks and Fire Prevention Among Topics Discussed by National Council of Women.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 10.—Presentation of ten reports by conveners of committees which were appointed to study activities of various organizations throughout the Dominion during the past year, will form the main business to be discussed at today's session of the National Council of Women in annual convention here.

Economics, recreation, moral standards, house and town planning, Canadian National parks, fire prevention, movies, taxation and citizenship, are among the subjects to be reported on and discussed by the delegates, who are representative of the nation's womanhood from coast to coast.

A decision to take no action regarding sterilization until the problem had been further discussed featured yesterday's sessions. Earlier in the convention Dr. Mabel Hanington, Saint John, N.B., convener of the committee on mental hygiene, had suggested the council discontinue discussions concerning the matter during the next few years, but Miss Charlotte Whitton, M.A., Ottawa, opposed the New Brunswick delegate's suggestion, believing the problem should be thoroughly discussed.

FIRE DESTROYED LARGE QUANTITY OF PULPWOOD

Wood Belonged to Ontario Paper Company and Was Piled Close to Mill of Hawk Lake Lumber Company at Wasach.

COCHRANE, Ont., Oct. 10.—About 10,000 cords of pulpwood, belonging to the Ontario Paper Company, were destroyed by fire of unknown origin at Wasach Monday evening. The wood was piled close to the mill of the Hawk Lake Lumber Company, and it was only by the exceptional work of the Ontario Forestry Service that the fire was prevented from spreading to the mill. Only about 400 to 500 cords were saved. The fire was first noticed by employees of the Hawk Lake Lumber Co., who sent the alarm to the Forestry branch and turned out themselves to fight the fire.

PLEASED WITH CONDITIONS IN NORTH COUNTRY

Provincial Secretary Expressed Satisfaction With Conditions Which He Found in Lake St. John and Chicoutimi Districts.

QUEBEC, Oct. 10.—Returning from the Lake St. John and Chicoutimi districts, where he spent a few days investigating conditions under which public instruction was extended and health protected, Hon. Athanase David, Provincial Secretary, expressed himself as pleased with the situation.

"I have been astonished to see the conditions reigning in those sections of the province in regard to education," he stated. "I think there are no other parts where there has been such a progress, and this notwithstanding the great difficulties of the region, which have only served to enhance the value attached to education by the residents of that part of the province."

"In one of the twenty-nine rural schools I visited," stated Hon. Mr. David, "I suddenly asked one of the pupils: 'What has more value?' The answer was 'Education.'"

While in the Lake St. John and Chicoutimi regions, Hon. Mr. David not only visited schools and hospitals and the various sanitary units which are in operation, but also went through the industrial sections. He visited Arvida, where the Aluminum Corporation has a large industrial development, and also the various hydraulic power sources.

According to Mr. David the crop has been far from a success this year in that section of the province where there is an average decrease of thirty per cent or so as compared to previous years.

LIVED MANY HOURS WHILE IMPRISONED UNDER SAND

KITCHENER, Ont., Oct. 10.—Andrew Brogas, who was brought alive from a three hundred and fifty foot sewer tunnel at Doon Wednesday night, died early this morning at the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital from internal injuries and pneumonia.

While Brogas was seriously injured by the crushing weight of sand which held him a prisoner for fifteen hours following a cave-in early Wednesday morning, it was thought that he had a fair chance for life. The end came suddenly after midnight.

Steve Balog, a companion in the dark depths of the tunnel, was dead when brought from the tomb early yesterday after twenty-four hours' imprisonment. An inquest has been set for October 17th.

FINNISH GIRL TOOK POISON IN GRANBY HOTEL

Lillian Pulkinnen Drank Contents of Bottle Containing Lysol—Taken to Montreal Hospital in Serious Condition.

GRANBY, Oct. 10.—Lillian Pulkinnen, a Finnish girl from Helsinki, drank the contents of a bottle of Lysol and today lies in a critical condition in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, from the effects of the poison. The unfortunate woman came from the Finnish home, in Montreal, in July, 1929, and entered the employ of the Windsor Hotel here. Yesterday morning about ten o'clock she went to a local drug store and ordered a bottle of Lysol. She had been in the habit of using this medicine for an injury she suffered to one of her hands. However, the clerk to whom she addressed herself was unable to discern what she required, and her knowledge of English or French was very limited. While the clerk went to the back of the store to obtain what he thought she desired, the girl went to a second drug store, where she procured the poison. Returning to the hotel, she went upstairs and shortly before noon the assistant clerk on duty heard a heavy thump and piercing screams from the girl's room. Rushing up he found the girl writhing in pain on the floor with the empty container beside her. He summoned Dr. C. P. Gordon, who rendered what aid he could. Later Creteau's ambulance was called and the victim was transported to a Montreal hospital in the hope that her life might be saved.

Information, obtained from the managing agent, showed that the girl was of a very melancholy disposition, and despite all the kindness shown by her employers she always appeared depressed.

During the Great War, while participating in a bombing raid on Zeppelins, the girl's naval strength, enemy anti-aircraft gunners scored a direct hit on his plane. Three cylinders of his motor were punctured by the shells and one wing pierced in five places, yet he escaped uninjured when his plane crashed to earth from a height of 12,000 feet. Fortunately, he crashed just inside the Holland boundary, and after being interned for some time was allowed to proceed to England.

Both "Wets" and "Drys" Try to Blame Each Other for Liquor Conditions During American Legion Convention, Which Resulted in Four Deaths and Injuries to Many Others.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 10.—Orders were out today to "dry up" Boston as "wets" and "drys" engaged in bitter debate to fix the responsibility for liquor conditions during the American legion convention which resulted, a check up revealed, in the deaths of four and necessitated the treatment of 353 persons in Boston hospitals.

Jonathan Lewis, federal prohibition administrator for New England, issued orders for a clean-up by his agents almost immediately after Paul E. Leary, Little Falls, N.Y., legionnaire, had been fined $250 in federal court on bootlegging charges. Leary, agents said, had in his possession when arrested, ten quarts of liquor and a search of his hotel room had revealed liquor price lists, and letters and telegrams concerning the delivery of liquor from Miami, Fla.

Scores of cases of temporary blindness and paralysis were reported at the City Hospital. The Legion Hospital in the Cadet Armory, and the Haymarket Relief Station, hundreds of cases, hospital officials said, had been treated in their out-patient departments. It was believed that the total treated since last Saturday night would run close to six hundred persons.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS HAVE NOT BEEN STRENGTHENED BY PERIOD OF DEFLATION

October Business Letter of Royal Bank of Canada Declares View that General Business Structure Has Been Strengthened in Spite of Recession in Business Is Unsound.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—The opinion that in spite of recession in business occasioned by the decline in commodity prices, the general business structure has been strengthened by this period of deflation is unsound, according to the October business letter of the Royal Bank of Canada.

Reviewing the changes in price levels and production over the period since 1930, the letter states that the most far-seeing economists are urging the central banks to work for policies that will restore prices to the level of 1926 and stabilize the general price index at that level.

JUDGMENT IN WHEAT ACTION IS RESERVED

Elm Creek Farmer Charged With Breach of Contract in Connection With Wheat Pool—Judge Claims Contract Between Farmers and Pool Might Have Emanated From Russia.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 10.—The contract existing between the farmers and the Wheat Pool might have "emanated from Russia," declared Mr. Justice Dyasat yesterday when he reserved decision in the case brought by the Pool against G. R. Tracey, of Elm Creek, for alleged breach of contract.

The Pool contract is for a period of five years and prohibits the farmer-signer from selling his grain to a non-pool purchaser. Tracey denied that he had broken his contract, but admitted that if the Pool had not taken out an interim injunction, he would have sold his grain to the highest bidder. The Pool seeks to have the injunction made permanent.

A. S. Morrison, who represented Tracey, said that the Pool itself had made a breach of the contract by speculating in wheat, but this was denied. E. K. Williams, K.C. Pool counsel, declared the co-operative organization, under the terms of its charter, had the right to operate on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

NEW RULING ON DIVORCE LAWS HANDED DOWN

Mr. Justice Logie Maintained He Has No Authority According to Ontario Law to Award Alimony or to Decide Whether Father or Mother Will Have Custody of Children.

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 10.—An important ruling in connection with new divorce laws was made by Mr. Justice Logie at the fall assizes here yesterday. His Lordship decided that he had no authority under the new law to award alimony or to decide which of the parents was to have custody of the children.

The ruling was made in considering the divorce action of Quallo versus Quallo which is to come before him next Monday. T. R. Sloan, acting for the defendant, raised the point as to whether or not the court could award alimony, and Justice Logie after careful study declared that he was not so empowered. By this decision any person wishing to secure a divorce in Ontario will have to be willing to gain that dissolution without alimony and without being awarded the custody of the children.

Let's be afraid to be afraid. That is the courageous triumph of mind over matter. Thus can we fight the good fight, lose and be unshamed. The sun goes down, but it will rise again.

SOME POLITICAL PARABLES.

With kindly thought and sympathetic intent, Premier Taschereau has said that the Hon. A. R. McMaster was recovering slowly from his serious illness, and that Hon. J. L. Perron was also recovering and recuperating.

The session in November will not see either of the Ministers in the House, and in both cases the physicians have advised these gentlemen that any further participation in political or public life will be suicide. To those who understand the nature of their ailments, this dictum is concurred in.

To be sure the two Ministers have not resigned their portfolios, but they have them ready when the exigencies of political diplomacy call for their deliverance.

Half-truths or hidden facts are no longer recognized arts of political diplomacy. Frankness pays best. Secrecy is only the refuge of a gnu, a very simple little animal.

Men of Cabinet calibre are being sought for entry into the three pending bye-elections. Huntingdon is a regular nutcracker to the partisans who try to figure incomes. The former member, Andrew Philips, who was an insurance agent, sat for seventeen years for Huntingdon, and now his son thinks the honour should stay in the family, and he refuses to make way for the prospective candidate of Cabinet timber. Were the Conservatives wise they would guarantee to stand aside and see the family quarrel which would make their victory sure in the general election to follow. And, of course, young Philips would then have all the time in the world to write up fire insurance policies. But the Conservatives in a constituency seldom study cause and effect, but just rush madly on.

Surrounded by many amateur suggesters, who have many suggestions that are not digestive, the Premier may become imbued with their hesitancy and fears, but these little inter-strifes are allowed to grow too often from smoke to flames for want of a firm declaration at the outset, and a dash of cold water.

Little men on the side-lines put forward their ambitions and their wishes, and are not promptly told to sit down and await their turn. All the has-beens and never-weres come to life in a reorganization. And the weak advisors who look so wise always recommend procrastination, the refuge of wiggly minds and of indecision. The indecisive mind postpones where the incisive man acts.

There is no political exigency where passivity pays. There is no problem which is not better solved by frankness.

As the candid friend and outspoken admirer of a government which has tried to do its best, and which hopes to remove the barnacles which gather on every ship of state, we advise an immediate decision on the two vacant portfolios.

FIFTY YEARS AGO; AND NOW.

"Free Trade means Depressed Trade" and the very preaching of it by thoughtless folk in the West had a tendency to accentuate the decline in trade activities which had not injured a self-contained country like Canada until the thrifty men were alarmed by such heretical doctrines.

The people of England, who are slow to abandon old doctrines and to meet changing conditions, are much harassed in mind by the balance of trade running heavily against them with a consequent drawing of the commercial resources gained in a century of trading supremacy.

It was around 1850 that Sir John Macdonald, whilst he was in England, was waited upon by a body of British commercial men who were anxious that Canada should revert to a Free Trade policy, as far as imports from England were concerned.

After patiently hearing them to the end, Sir John said: "I know Canada; you do not. I know the marvellous change which has occurred since she adopted a protective tariff."

When concluding his reply, the great Canadian statesman told them that "the proposal of the Fair Trades League to have free trade with our colonies and dependencies, and protection against the rest of the world, was in the highest sense patriotic." Which was a rapier-like thrust, though highly diplomatic.

Canada has at the Imperial Conference in London one of her foremost business minds, and he is repeating the utterances or the gist of them, as they were uttered just fifty years ago.

London looks to the Hon. Richard Bennett to dominate the counsels of this conference, and it does seem too bad that the affairs of England are being guided by a minority or coalition government at such an important year in the history of the great British Commonwealth.

Too weak to govern, too docile to dominate, the present Prime Minister of England has perhaps the most abject administration which it has ever been the misfortune of Britain to have. They will go down to oblivion as the government which has not fulfilled a single pre-election promise.

It may be that Baldwin will never come back as Prime Minister. He was a drifter in many respects. Instead of grappling with problems and initiating corrective measures he tried the early-in-the-war methods of muddling through a trade depression.

We may yet see another Canadian-born Prime Minister of Great Britain.

THE CHANGE IN OPINION.

"Customer-ownership financing has accelerated the rate of utility development in Canada, and has thereby acted constructively in the up-building of the country," is the opinion expressed by an outstanding American engineer.

This form of financing has caused many people to save and to help build up their own communities with their savings.

It has broken down the once narrow feeling that the utilities were surrounded with an exclusive, inapproachable atmosphere, as nothing else has done. The people who own stocks in their home concerns know that the narrow-visaged financiers of the side-whiskers type who were secretive and distrustful of the public have given way to the broader executives who realize that they must establish and maintain public relations through contact. The modern business executive knows that his smallest customer may in good time direct his biggest account.

So there has come a better understanding of the utilities and their problems through closer contact with their customers.

"Owned by those they serve," was the epigrammatic courage of a Canadian concern, and it has been followed up so vigorously that the customer-owner investment averages over $800.

It was the satisfactory investment and the regular dividends from the millions in utilities that has been the foundation of the investment popularity of power stocks and bonds.

PLOUGHING MATCHES ARE REAL PICNICS.

The ploughing matches are over for the season, closing with the Sherbrooke Ploughmen's Association which is the oldest organization of its kind in Canada. For more than fifty years this annual event has been carried on, and each year seems to broaden the interest and the enthusiasm. The Sherbrooke event this year was on a farm just outside the city limits on the Brompton road, and all day long there was a stream of visiting farmers from the adjoining counties. Lads of ten and twelve years of age gave examples of their prowess in ploughing a straight furrow to an even depth. In all some fifty-eight farmers and their sons demonstrated their ability, whilst crowds of town and country folk looked on in admiration.

The custom of a farmers' supper was followed, and a repast was served in the Town Hall at Lennoxville where the contestants, their families and their friends gathered to partake of a repast prepared by ladies who have won encomiums for their skill in cooking. This supper, with a few songs and speeches thrown in for good measure, marked the end of a perfect day.

It is emblematic of other events of a like nature which have been held in the various districts throughout the Eastern Townships, and all of which tend to make life interesting and to broaden the friendships of those who take part in them.

The coming Winter Fair and Horse Show at Sherbrooke was a topic of interest at many of these meetings.

THREE SHOULD BE SIX.

There are twenty-four seats in the Quebec Legislative Council and they are selected from divisions very clearly marked. The Eastern Townships divisions are Bedford and Wellington, but Bedford was taken from the English minority whilst the writer was absent from the city.

There are only three English Canadians presently in the Quebec Council, and this number represents one-eighth of the whole, where it had been one-quarter, and should be at least that. The three are: Hon. Frank Carrell, of Quebec, representing Golfe Division; Hon. Henry Miles, representing Victoria Division; and Hon. G. Bryson, representing Inkerman Division. Hon. John Hall Kelly, of Grandville Division, is an Irish-Canadian. So, too, is Hon. W. C. Rower, of Stadacona.

The late Hon. W. F. Vilas was of United States parentage, but his paternal family had taken up residence in East Farnham, where he was born.

EDITORS' NOTE BOOK.

The City Council have decided to increase industry in Sherbrooke by having the City Hall staff work overtime on Saturday afternoons. Beautiful conception. With renewed activity in the tax and assessment departments the City Hall staff may be directed to manipulate figures so that decrease in the tax rate shall become increases in the tax bills.

The importers who are profiteering on glass can be assured that their higher prices will be investigated by the proper officials and that they will be required to make reparations or lose their right of importation. Surely, on reading the decisive utterances of the Prime Minister, and in studying the man who fulfils his promises, those who attempt to profit in excess of fair profits on the price at which they bought will know that they will be required to repay. If they think otherwise, they have failed to study their man.

FRONT WINDOW MUSINGS

It's easy to measure a man's unimportance. It's in exact ratio to the importance of his telephone voice.

It must be a great consolation to the Slav to know he is being shot by liberty-lovers instead of a czar.

Don't judge the Neanderthal man too harshly. What will future archaeologists think of us if they dig up the comic strips and the impressionistic paintings.

A backward land is one where employers pay small wages so they can make enough money to provide charity for needy workmen.

We are inclined to attribute prosperity to our own brilliance; and blame hard times on Providence and the Reds.

Letters To The Editor

HEADLONG DRINKING DRIVERS.

To The Editor, Sir:—Why do we read so much in regard to the "one-light driver" of autos and nothing about the drunken driver of cars that are on our highways day and night causing accidents and death to so many people? Any man or woman who drives a car knows that having only one light on a car can happen in an instant and to anyone, without warning.

If a driver is operating a car at night after dark with only one light, get after him. But sometimes we are not near a garage and have to get home with one light. I have noticed when meeting a one-light driver he is not usually speeding very fast. Now the other fellow, full or half full of joy water, drives very fast as a rule. One who makes a practice of driving under such conditions usually causes trouble for someone. Why not get after those drivers, as well as those parked along roadsides for the purpose of drinking. For the safety of others it would be a good plan to run the whole party in. That would be the quickest method of getting around this thing, and the motor police should not allow it on public highways, as there are a few people using the roads these days who have no use for strong drink and who like to know when they go out that they don't need to get into the ditch to make room for the driver who feels he owns the highway. One-light drivers may be dangerous but there are others who are a great deal more so to the public in general. Can't something be done to check this as well as the car with one light? Think it over folks, and let us hear from some other fellow what his opinion is on the matter. The headlong rush of these drinking drivers should be stopped at once, in my opinion. JENNIE E. DESRUISSEAUX, Bicherton, Que.

I MADE IT MYSELF "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die." "I don't think I'll have anything to drink," said the second clubman faintly.

Some Recipes You Should Try

PURITY FLOUR FLAKY PIE CRUST.

3 cups Purity Flour 1/2 tsp. salt 1 cup lard 1 cup cold water

1 cup sour cream 2 tbs. butter 1 cup sugar 2 tbs. Purity Flour yolks 2 eggs

Mix thoroughly and cook in a double boiler. Beat whites of eggs, add sugar, and use as a meringue.

PURITY FLOUR WHITE LAYER CAKE.

1 cup of white sugar, 1/2 cup butter, cream together, add 2 beaten egg yolks, 1/2 cup milk and water (lukewarm), mix 3 teaspoons baking powder in 1 1/2 cups of PURITY FLOUR, pinch salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, beat egg white stiff and stir in mixture. Bake in moderate oven (375°) for 20 minutes.

ICE BOX COOKIES.

1 cup butter 2 eggs 3 1/2 cups Purity Flour 2 teaspoons baking powder 2 cups sugar

Make the dough in a roll and keep it overnight in the ice box or a cool place. Slice thinly and bake in a quick oven.

$55.00 More Milk Per Month from 20 Cows

Let the Cow Tester Tell it

Fred G. Engelstad, Tester for Rovey Cow Testing Ass'n., Rewey, Wis.

"A good opportunity was had to note the value of drinking cups in two herds recently, one belonging to Ralph Matthews, the other to Wesley Eddington. Mr. Matthews found his fresh cows gained 5 lbs. of milk per day, one as high as 7 lbs. Eddington's herd of 20 cows gained 75 to 80 lbs. per day after installing drinking cups. This increase was worth $1.85 per day, or $55.00 PER MONTH."

Jamesway Drinking Cups Did It!

They will do it for you. You can't afford to be without them. If you don't put them in, you pay for them just the same—over and over again—in the loss of milk every two or three months.

L. H. Klass, of Illinois, writes: "Our cows increased in milk production 25%. In three months this paid for our cups. Before, we were paying for them every three months and not getting them."

Don't make the mistake of putting in a cheap cup. If you do you buy trouble. Wm. N. Taylor, Fond du Lac, Wis., says:—"I surely appreciate your Jamesway Drinking Cups after having used other makes. Yours are by far the best."

Prove It Yourself

Get posted on this important money-making, time-saving convenience. Stop losing money daily. Come in and see the Jamesway Drinking Cup. Satisfy yourself that Jamesway is best. Do it today; there is no obligation on your part. We will gladly show you the Jamesway cup.

Russia Will Soon Dominate World Export Situation in Cereals, According to Chairman of Federal Farm Board.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 10.—Alexander Legge, chairman of the Federal Farm Board, predicted today that the United States may soon cease to be an exporter of grain. In an address before the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers, the Farm Board chairman said: "It will be only a matter of two or three years until Russia, which is now exporting goods her own people should consume, because her obligations demand it, will dominate the world export situation in cereals. "With cheap land and cheaper labor Russia will soon be producing grain on a basis with which I hope the American farmer will never have to compete."

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 10.—Commending the action of the Empire Press Union in advocating the establishment of an intra-Empire co-operative news gathering and distribution service along the lines "so successfully worked out in Canada by the Canadian Press," a resolution was today unanimously passed by the Canadian Chambers of Commerce in convention here today. Another resolution passed today expresses the opinion of the Chamber that every encouragement be given to the development of "all red" aviation routes connecting the various parts of the Empire, and that the Chamber would favor the granting of reasonable subsidies to economic and cultural sides of Canadian life for distribution throughout the press of Great Britain, and expresses the hope that the press of Great Britain and other parts of the Empire will co-operate along similar lines. Country and Dairy Produce Prices.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—Local dairy and produce markets are laboring under the depressing influence of general bearish conditions. Stock and grain market weakness, and the rtes iteaddn mfwyLUP and the restricted and hesitant nature of buying, all are having their reflex on the local situation. All lines are selling at record low levels but despite this, and even the greater security provided by the higher tariffs adopted by Parliament on the initiative of the new Conservative Government, prices are unable to present a firm front. Even egg price advances, always made at this season of the year, when production in the Dominion is waning, are being hard to maintain.

The butter market at Montreal is now around 30c per lb. in carlots for Eastern Townships No. 1 pasteurized creamery. Some sales are reported slightly lower and some a little over this figure. To retailers for small lots solids are 38c and prints 34c per lb. There is a continued absence of buying, and the market is dull. Outside markets are weak. Butter is selling in London and retail at 30c per lb., something unheard of. In the United States November delivery butter closed yesterday at 32 5/8c, down 10c since the middle of August.

The cheese market held about the same, and quotations ranged from 14 3/4c to 15c per lb. for Ontario cheese, and 13 3/4c to 14c for Quebec cheese. Some felt bids under these figures might obtain cheese in certain quarters. Receipts of eggs were 507 cases, against 419 cases on the same day last week, and 357 cases on the corresponding day last year, again showing improvement, surprising owing to the advancing season. Traders Today Again Began Tossing Overboard Their Securities — Brazilian Traction Dropped to $24.75.

MONTREAL, QUE., October 10.—Traders today again began tossing overboard their securities on the Montreal Stock Exchange, and in heavy trading, the values which had been beaten back all week went to further low levels. Heavy selling in Brazilian Traction, which has been weak ever since the revolt in Brazil, carried that issue to a new low level; International Nickel dropped to $17.50.

Declines in the first half hour of trading were general to the entire list and ranged from twenty-five cents to two dollars per share. Montreal Power, Dominion Bridge, Winnipeg Electric, and many other issues lost a dollar or more per share. There was no great selling movement, but quotations were marked down in most sections as a precautionary measure. Extreme weakness developed in Brazilian securities, notably the six and one-half per cent. 1927 bonds, which were seven points lower. The end of the first hour saw no signs of a rally. At that time Brazilian Traction was selling at $24.75, down one dollar from yesterday, while Nickel at $17.50 was seventy-five cents lower.

Hamilton Bridge had extended its loss to $2; Quebec Power had dropped $1.50 to $50, and Montreal Power was $1.75 lower at $56.75. Winnipeg Electric sold at $23.25, down $2.75 on the day. Dominion Bridge at $57 was $3 lower than yesterday.

BAN ON SHORT SELLING

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The New York Advisory Service today says: When a real emergency exists, such as it has for some days now a ban on all short selling should be immediately imposed. Had such a ban been promptly instituted a number of days ago when the exchange had first had knowledge of "inside" active bear raiding, the inevitable liquidation which has since come into the market might have been avoided. There might also have been averted the large failure reported today as well as the new crop of ugly rumors which followed in its wake.

When a prize fighter is down his opponent is not permitted to take advantage of his weakened condition by jumping over him. Yet when changes favor the development of bear cliques are permitted to pound the list until they uncover a flow of genuine liquidation that gathers momentum with every point decline, the whole situation suffices while only a handful of predatory individuals profit. During the November emergency last year, this service urged a fortnight's ban on all short selling. The exchange responded by sending out a questionnaire to all its members. As pointed out in yesterday's letter the mere issuance of this questionnaire caused an electrical rally in stocks, amounting to some six to four points in the industrial averages in six trading sessions. We doubt if a questionnaire would help now, as the damage has already been done, but if the exchange would immediately adopt a temporary ban on all short selling, we earnestly believe such action would relieve a tense psychological situation, and would give sufficient mental relief and encouragement to holders of stocks as would deter them from needlessly sacrificing their holdings.

LEADERS WERE GIVEN SUPPORT AT NEW YORK

Move Counteracted Further Heavy Selling During Early Trading on Wall Street Exchange.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Support for prominent shares, including United States Steel Common and American Telephone, counteracted further heavy selling in the early stock market trading today. Many large blocks changed hands. U. S. Steel, after opening at $146.50, up 12 cents, on a 10,000 share transaction, extended its advance to $2 American Telephone was off 75 cents on the first sale, only to recover its loss and advance. An 8,000 share block of General Motors sold at $36.25, off 50 cents. American Can rose $1, and Johns-Manville $2.50.

TRADING FORECAST AND FACTORS

The market is expected to meet with a large volume of selling in the early part of today's session, but changes favor the development of a rally before the close.

BISHOP'S BUSY WITH SPORTS AT PRESENT TIME

Indications Are that Rugby Team Will Make a Good Showing Again This Year—College Will Be Represented at McGill Track Meet.

Everyone is on the move at Bishop's University these days, for not only are lectures in progress in the earnest, but, in addition, a variety of athletics are interesting to almost all the students. Rugby is probably the chief attraction, and indications point to strong Bishop's aggregation in both the intermediate and the junior series of inter-collegiate football.

Three years ago the custom of having inter-house rugby games for players who did not make a place on either of the regular teams was inaugurated, and every year since the custom has grown in popularity. This year the Inter-House League will be replaced by an Inter-Year League, which will consist of first year Arts, second year Arts, third year Arts and Divinity. Already this Inter-Year team has organized, and with the new playing field always available, the players have splendid opportunities to learn all about the game and to get in condition for the actual schedule which the committee in athletics hopes to run off at the end of the regular football season.

On October 21st, Bishop's University will hold their first track meet since 1924. In spite of the attention which is being paid to rugby, a large number of men are already practicing for the various events of the meet.

In addition to long distance and short distance races, the boys are trying their hand at putting the shot and throwing the javelin.

Last year McGill University held a track meet, and it was so successful that they decided to make it an annual event. This year they intend to hold the meeting on October 27, and they have extended a cordial invitation to all universities in the district to send teams to contest the various events. The following universities will probably be represented: Queens, Loyola, Bishop's, University of Montreal, and, of course, McGill. There have always been a number of good track men at Bishop's, and this year the athletic committee members are of the opinion that they should be given an opportunity to represent their university at the McGill meet.

The track meet to be held at Bishop's on October 21st will give the authorities an opportunity of deciding who's who among the track men, and if the results in the various records compare favorably with the records set at McGill last year, a team of six men will be selected to represent Bishop's at McGill on October 27th.

Long distance road races have always been part of the athletic programme at Bishop's every autumn, and this year the two long distance races take place as usual. The race for the shield donated by Mrs. A. H. McGreever will be held on Friday afternoon, October 17th, at four o'clock. This race is approximately four miles long, and the present record time is a little more than twenty-seven minutes.

The road race for the Dunn Cup will take place on Friday, October 21st. This race is a trifle less than five miles, and the cup goes to the year represented by the team of three which finishes first. The long distance runners have been training consistently for some time, and with favorable weather conditions they should clip something off the existing records.

Altogether it's a busy time for the students at Lennoxville, and their efforts should help towards putting their Alma Mater on the map.

AWARD HONORS TO JOE CRONIN, OF WASHINGTON

Clever Young Shortstop Is Proclaimed American League's "Most Valuable Player" for 1930 Season.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Joe Cronin, sensational young shortstop of the Washington Senators, today was proclaimed the American League's "most valuable player" for 1930 by a special committee of members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

The writers, representing each American League City, cast their votes at the request of the Associated Press for the second successive year since the league abandoned its custom of making an official selection.

Cronin, although playing only his second year as a major league regular, merited sufficient votes to beat out Al Simmons, of the Athletics, the League batting champion, and Lou Gehrig, slugging first baseman of the Yankees, in a close contest. Cronin, selected as Washington's most valuable performer by every

BLUENOSE, WITH BADLY FITTING SAILS, BEATEN

Canadian Champion Also Handicapped in Having Only Twenty-Four Men in Her Crew to Thirty-Two Aboard Gloucester's Entry.

GLUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 10.—A day of racing inactivity today was not one of idleness for the 'no fishing schooners competing for the international sailing honors off this ancient port. Captain Ben Pins, skipper of the Gertrude L. Thebaud, Gloucester's entry, found little to do aboard that trim schooner after her victory in the opening race yesterday, but he and his crew gear and rigging a minute inspection in preparation for the second race of the series tomorrow.

It was otherwise with the Canadian champion, Bluenose. Her sails, that fitted so badly in the opening contest, were in the hands of local sail-makers, and her skipper, Captain Angus Walters, who has more often sailed her to victory than to defeat, was busy going over other equipment.

Bluenose was fitted out so hastily for the international series that her misfitting suit of sail did not become fully apparent until she actually appeared on the racing course to trail Thebaud over the entire 37.5 miles of rolling water. Then it was found necessary to hold up her main boom with the topping lift and prevent it fouling the wheel or deckhouse. This spoiled the set of that big piece of canvas. The sail-makers promised to have that sail, and her topsails as well, set properly when the schooners go over the starting line tomorrow.

Captain Walters also found himself at another disadvantage in the opening brush. Bluenose, although a much larger vessel, carried only twenty-four men in her crew to the thirty-two aboard the Thebaud. The race committee, however, promised to furnish Captain Walters with additional hands and she probably will have a full complement of men when he next faces Captain Ben. There are many men from the Maritime Provinces in the Gloucester fleet, and it was probable that some of them would transfer their allegiance.

HOCKEY

NO FURTHER OVERTURES WILL BE MADE TO NIGHT-BY TORONTO CLUB

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 10.—No further overtures will be made to Frank Nighbor, according to Conny Smythe, manager of the Maple Leafs local entry in the National Hockey League, when queried regarding a despatch from Cornwall that stated Nighbor was dissatisfied with terms offered him by the Leafs and would not report until salary differences had been adjusted.

Manager Smythe stated a coach would be appointed for the team probably on Monday. Nighbor has been mentioned as a possibility for this position, but if he declines to report it is expected Art Duncan will be the nominee.

FOOTBALL

SHERBROOKE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTED OFFICERS.

The election of officers for the ensuing year for the Sherbrooke Athletic Association was held at the Y.M.C.A. The officers appointed to fill the various positions are: Honorary President, Mr. J. T. Hawkins; President, Mr. G. S. Sampson; Vice-President, Mr. George Povey; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. W. P. McVie; Directors, Messrs. F. S. McCaw, R. Allatt, G. LeBaron, E. Loomis, J. W. Houlden and P. A. Hammond; Coaches, Mr. E. J. Wolfe, assisted by Mr. E. Sims, and Manager, Mr. Howard Sims.

The schedule which has been drawn up augurs well for a very active period, and the newly-elected officers and directors are looking forward to one of the most prosperous and successful years in the history of the association.

A large and enthusiastic number turned out for the rugby practice last evening, and all are looking forward to the match at Stanstead tomorrow afternoon.

one of the eight experts, led with a total of forty-eight points out of a possible maximum of sixty-four. Simmons and Gehrig were tied for second place with thirty-nine points each. Charley Gehring, Detroit's second baseman, was fourth with 30, Ted Lyons, of the White Sox, fifth with 26, and Wesley Ferrell, Cleveland's sensational young pitcher, sixth with 25 points.

The Washington shortstop's selection by the writers comes as something of a birthday gift. He will be twenty-four years old this Sunday, October 12th, according to the baseball records. Born in San Francisco, Cronin received his first major league trial with Pittsburgh in 1925. He remained with the Pirates in a utility role in 1925-26 before being released to Kansas City. He was sold to Washington in 1928 and became a regular in 1929.

Cronin was one of the chief factors in the surprising rush of the Senators toward the top this year. He is a sensational fielder and batted for the fine average of .345. He scored 127 runs, collected 203 hits, including 42 doubles and 13 home runs, besides driving in 119 runs and stealing 16 bases.

DANVILLE GOLF CAPTAIN JOINS SELECT CLASS

Mr. Grant Barrett, of Asbestos, Today a Proud Member of the "Hole in One" Club—Accomplished Feat While Playing in Foursome.

DANVILLE, Que., Oct. 10.—On Saturday last at the Danville links, Mr. Grant Barrett, of Asbestos, entered the hall of fame as a golfer by playing a "hole in one" in a foursome with Mr. Barrett were Messrs. Clarke, Heron and Dawbar and the lucky shot was made on the 145 yard eighth hole. Some dozen people witnessed the feat and all agree that it was a very pretty shot. The ball rose high, dropped about two feet from the cup and rolled gracefully.

As captain of the Danville Country Club, Mr. Barrett, has ably led the way, and naturally his loyal followers, themselves aspirants to fame, are asking how this wonderful shot is being done. Unfortunately this foursome had been signalled to "play through" and, with his usual courtesy, Mr. Barrett made haste to play, in order not to keep others waiting. He thus declared himself unable to furnish the details so necessary to others who fain would do likewise.

GRANBY LADIES HELD CLOSING OF GOLF CLUB

Satisfactory Report for Past Year Given at Closing Meeting of Golf Club—Granby Notes.

GRANBY, Que., Oct. 10.—The closing of the ladies branch of the Golf Club was held on Saturday afternoon. The club house was very cheerful and pretty with the open fire and a profusion of autumn flowers. The president, Mrs. H. Giddings, gave a report for the year, which was most satisfactory. Two dollars had been given to the Golf Club and new cushions for the furnishings. New electric plates had been installed in the kitchen, and silk draperies made for the windows, the material having been donated by Mrs. Carl Stohn.
