AIRMEN REQUIRE GREAT SKILL, MUCH TRAINING WING COMMANDER STATES

Wireless School Commander Addresses Regular Weekly Luncheon Meeting of Westmount Rotary Club — Contrasts Speed of Modern Fighting Planes With Those Used in Last War — Speaks Highly of Men in Royal Canadian Air Force

Modern aerial warfare requires such a high degree of skill on the part of pilots, observers and wireless-gunners, that only men with the most thorough training are of any value in present-day air-fighting, Wing Commander J. F. Scott, of the R.C.A.F. Wireless school on Queen Mary Road, stated while addressing the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club in Victoria Hall yesterday.

Whereas in the first Great War pilots on the average received about 25 hours air instruction, today they are not considered fully trained until having completed 250 hours in the air, the speaker said. While in the last war air battles were fought at speeds of from 90 to 120 miles per hour, the modern fighting plane travels from 250 to 500 m.p.h. Air encounters used to take place at an altitude of about 1,500 feet but today planes engage in combat at heights ranging from 15,000 to 30,000 feet.

CLUB TO HOLD NOVEL MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

Rotarians Will Take Part in Game Which Requires Purchase of War Savings Stamps

A novel question and answer game, in which losers will be "penalized" by being obliged to purchase war savings stamps, will feature the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club in Victoria Hall next Wednesday.

Questions will be directed at the members, individually by Miss Audrey Jarman, daughter of Rotarian P. E. Jarman and those falling to answer them correctly within ten seconds after they have been asked, must purchase a stamp for each question missed.

According to the club's program committee the questions will be on subjects with which the average person should be familiar.

Miss Jarman will have a good supply of stamps on hand and has been given permission to use any means she decides to employ to dispose of them.

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT FROM AUTOMOBILES

Accused Sentenced to Six Months in Jail in Westmount Police Court

When he pleaded guilty to two charges of theft of goods from automobiles and to one of loitering, a man giving his name and address as Paul Emile Poirier, 21, 5099 St. Ambroise street, was sentenced to six months each on the theft counts and 30 days for loitering by Deputy-Recorder A. P. Grigg in Westmount Police Court Tuesday morning.

Poirier, who was acting suspiciously, was arrested by Constables Bridgen and Jones on Sherbrooke street on July 23. First booked only on a charge of loitering the theft charges were laid at the police station when stolen articles were found in his possession.

The accused had a police record listing seven previous arrests for selling liquor, theft and loitering.

He will serve the sentences in Bordeaux jail.

GROUPS FORMED
Gilbert Pearce, chairman of the War Savings Committee, and Hubert Noisieux, associate chairman, are forming special groups to encourage the sale of War Savings Stamps and Certificates. They are both prepared to answer any inquiries on the subject that may be addressed to them.

THEIR COUNTRIES BLITZKRIEGED, THEY FIGHT ON

POLISH who do not accept the French surrender as final continuo, as allies of British, the struggle against Nazis. They are led by Gen. Charles de Gaulle, shown above reviewing some of French Volunteer Legion in London.

CZECHS, like these pictured in camp in northern England, have not "ceased fire" on the German which swallowed their homeland. With France's Seventh Army until its recent surrender, this Czech Legion now fights with Britain.

SHIRLEY BLOCK IS LEADER IN SCHOOL TESTS

Gets Total of 928 Points Out of Possible 1,000—Doris Kert in Third Place

Shirley Clair Block, 17, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myer Block, 481 Strathcona avenue, a Westmount High School student, led the list of successful pupils who wrote high school leaving examinations last month, it has been announced from Quebec by Dr. W. Percival, Director of Protestant education in the Province. Miss Block had the exceptionally high total of 928 out of a possible 1,000 points.

Doris Maxime Kert, 17, also daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Kert, 376 Redfern, was tied with a Baron Byng student for third place with a total of 900 points.

Miss Block, granddaughter of Chief Rabbi H. Cohen, has been the winner of several scholarships during her high school years and while she attended Argyle School.

Miss Kert also started her studies at Argyle School and was winner of several scholarships while attending Westmount High.

A total of 1,757 Students wrote the school leaving examinations and 1,187 passed, a slight decrease compared to the 1939 figures. An additional 268 candidates wrote partial, or supplementary examinations, an increase of 52 over the number a year ago.

There has been a steady and remarkable increase in the number of candidates writing high school leaving examinations in recent years, Dr. Percival stated. The appeal of the Protestant high schools can be judged, in part, by the fact that during the past 11 years the number of pupils writing the complete high school leaving examinations has increased from 701 to 1,757, an increase of 150 per cent.

To obtain high school leaving certificates, candidates must pass in English literature and composition, oral and written French, and at least four other subjects from a lengthy list of options, Dr. Percival explained. When students write on more than six optional subjects, the six highest marks are taken with the compulsory units to make up a maximum total of 1,000 marks.

Successful candidates may present their certificates to universities, where they will be accepted at face value "pro tanto" for admission, the director added.

Many Westmount Entries In Gladiolus Festival

Flower enthusiasts from N.D.G., Montreal West and Westmount and particularly members of the West End Horticultural Society will be among the many exhibitors at the annual gladiolus festival of the Province of Quebec Gladiolus Society which this year is being held at the Verdun auditorium. Formerly this show was always held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel or the Winter Garden, but it was decided this season by the executive of the society to stage their display in the newly built auditorium in Verdun.

E. J. Anderson, superintendent of the Westmount Parks department, considered to be one of the outstanding flower culturists in the country, will be among the judges. Others will be brought from Toronto and probably the New England states. The show will be held Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30. Mayor Edward Wilson of Verdun will open the show.

TAXI STRUCK BY DRIVERLESS CAR ON ARGYLE

Vehicles Badly Damaged But Driver of Cab is Only Slightly Injured

What might have been a serious accident was averted when a driverless car collided with a taxi driven by Moses L. Shapiro, of 5585 Cote St. Luc road, at the corner of Westmount and Argyle avenues at 11:40 o'clock Monday morning.

The runaway car started on its way down the hill when its owner, William Dade, of 40 First avenue, Verdun, attempted to start it by pushing it a short distance south on Argyle at Westmount boulevard when the engine stalled.

Dade told police that the machine gathered speed so rapidly that he was unable to jump in the car after pushing it from the rear.

The taxi driver suffered slight injuries to the right elbow and minor bruises.

The fender, bumper, headlights and grill on the driverless car were damaged as were the door, running board, and body of the taxi.

Eye Is Injured When Struck By Ball Here

Struck by a baseball in Atwater Park at 4 p.m. on Saturday, Gerald Gleason, of 262 Young street, suffered injuries to his left eye requiring treatment at the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital. Gleason was throwing the ball, back and forth with a companion when the mishap occurred. He was treated at the hospital

Fire In Bakery Causes Little Damage

Flames which broke out in a ventilator shaft carrying the exhaust from two large ovens in the bakery firm of Dent Harrison and Sons, corner of Prince Albert and Somerville avenues, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning were brought under control by the Westmount Fire Department before any appreciable damage was caused.

The outbreak was reported to the department by the Dominion Electric Protection Service at 10:34 a.m. and by 10:45 the fire was brought under control. The all out signal was given at 11:40.

Firemen, under Chief Gough, Deputy-chief Burris and Lieut. Durocher, played two streams on the building before the flames were subdued. They succeeded in restricting the flames to the ventilator shaft and but minor damage was caused to the roof at the point where it clears the exhaust from the building.

Normal plant operations were resumed shortly after the outbreak.

ARMY SECTION AT 'Y' REPORTS ON WAR WORK

W. H. Spearman Gives Report on Branch Activities for Soldiers

Men awaiting results of the army medical board were supplied with 462 free meals at the Red Triangle club canteen and 446 beds were provided free of charge at the Central 'Y' and other places. The Westmount and Southwestern branches contributed greatly to this work according to a report by W. H. Spearman on the 'Y' war services committee.

For instance throughout their various branches they have provided the soldiers with 52,574 swims and baths. Their social rooms in the branches and the various Triangle club huts have been used 140,881 times. There were 153 entertainments, 22 social events and 38 religious services of which a total of 50,135 soldiers took advantage. The educational courses at the Triangle club and Sir George Williams College were followed by 5,718 soldiers. 7,551 men used the gymnasiums of the different branches.

Other work done by the military services committee of the Y.M.C.A. consists of supplying writing paper and envelopes and entertaining the men in private homes.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE MRS. ENGELKE

Funeral Service Conducted By Rev. Tetrill of St. James the Apostle Church

Funeral service for Mrs. H. H. Engelke was held at her home, 4620 St. Catherine Street West, on Saturday afternoon and was conducted by the Reverend Tetrill of St. James the Apostle Church. Mrs. Engelke died at her home on last Wednesday following a long illness.

Formerly Jane Elizabeth Bennett, she was born in Albany, N.Y., but had been a resident of Westmount for more than 40 years. A member of the church of St. James the Apostle, she was awarded a life membership of the Women's Auxiliary of the church about ten years ago.

Interment took place in Mount Royal Cemetery.

DISTRICT WOMEN'S CLUB MAY TAKE ACTIVE PART IN OPERATION OF UNIT

Special Meeting of School Board to Formulate Plan Expected to be Held Shortly — Mrs. Harold Mills To Play Prominent Role — Will be Conducted Along Same Lines as College Groups

A special meeting of the Westmount School Board will be held shortly to formulate plans for the organization of a Westmount School Cadet Corps according to reliable source. The Westmount Women's Club has been approached by Alderman W. B. Scott, who has asked the women of this organization to assist in the proposed plan, it has been learned.

Tentative arrangements are that the boys will pay a nominal entrance fee and the City of Westmount will bear the remainder of the cost. It is understood that practically every school boy in the city will become a member of the Corps.

The basic idea of the plan will be to conduct the Cadet Corps along the same lines as college units. While this unit will be for boys only, Lt.-Col. Mrs. Harold Mills, of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps, has suggested that a similar organization for girls be commenced. In commenting on this Mrs. Mills stated that it is just as important for girls to learn the fundamentals of preparedness. As president of the Westmount Women's Club and commanding officer of the W.V.R.C., Mrs. Mills will take an active part in the formation of the Schoolboys' Corps.

Study Agriculture
In speaking of the W.V.R.C., Mrs. Mills stated that 50 of the members have been enrolled at McDonald College to study agriculture. These farmettes have been donated a large quantity of butter beans, and are at present studying modern methods of canning in order to preserve food for overseas consumption.

D. C. Abbott, K.C., M.P., for Westmount, who is at present in Ottawa, has also approached the W.V.R.C., requesting that the corps assist in the forthcoming National Registration. It has been arranged for the 200 associate members to take charge of this work.

With a membership of more than 2000, it was necessary to close registration for a short period, but it is anticipated that additional membership will be accepted within a week.

Mrs. C. Brennan has been appointed senior supervisor of the Physical Training classes. Four classes have been meeting every Monday night at eight o'clock and one at nine o'clock. These classes are instructed by Mrs. Brennan, Miss B. Spiers, Miss V. F. Ans and Mrs. M. Perry. Another class, under the direction of Miss H. Galt, will be organized shortly.

Inspects Companies
Lt.-Col. Mills inspected six companies on Tuesday and has announced that by next Tuesday all officers and one company will be in uniform.

Under the direction of Captain Allaston, a branch office of the Corps has been opened on the main floor of the New Birks Bldg. Branches have also been formed in Verdun and Rosemount.

During the past two weeks, drill practices have been held five days and three nights each week. "Private Joy" a cocker spaniel with a pedigree about a yard long, has been donated to the Corps by Mr. A. L. Peace as a mascot. Each member of the corps contributes a cent a day for Private Joy's rations. The mascot, who has been trained to march with the corps, is seen at every drill practice leading the march. He was presented to Warrant Officer Byers by Mr. Peace.

Secretary-in-Chief Mrs. W. F. Worfolk, well known poetess, is donating the entire profits of her latest book, "Wayside Reveries" to the Way and Means committee, which is under the direction of Capt. Rice. Mrs. Worfolk has announced that her committee is in need of postage stamps. As this organization is entirely voluntary, the cost of postage runs into a vast amount each week, which must be paid by the committee. Persons desiring to give a donation of postage stamps are requested to send them to Mrs. Worfolk.

In addition to taking an active part in the works of the corps, the members of the Westmount

THOUSANDS SEE MARCH-OUT OF 2ND BATTALION

Salute Taken by Mayor Walter A. Merrill, K.C., From Steps of Argyle School

Parading along streets lined with thousands of cheering on-lookers the first march-out of the Second Battalion (N.P.A.M.) of the Royal Montreal Regiment (M.G.) was held last Thursday evening.

The Battalion, over 800 strong, was under the command of Lieut.-Col. J. E. McKenna, M.C., who led the march accompanied by Major D. MacRitchie, commander of the regimental depot.

The R.M.R. Veterans' Reserve Co., under the command of Major H. Armstrong and wearing red berets, paced the battalion. The parade was accompanied by the R.M.R. band under Lieut. T. E. Jackson.

The salute was taken by Mayor Walter A. Merrill, K.C., from the steps of Argyle Junior High School. Members of the aldermanic body were also present.

After leading his men past the saluting stand the commanding officer, together with Major MacRitchie, joined the mayoral party which included Ald. W. B. Scott, K.C.; Ald. C. K. McLeod, G. Gordon Hyde, M.L.A. for Westmount; Lt.-Col. R. H. Hood, a former commanding officer of the R.M.R.; Lt.-Col. R. R. Thompson, M.C., representing the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L.; Major J. A. Delalanne, M.C., of the General Staff of M.D. No. 4 and P. E. Jarman, city manager for Westmount.

The soldiers, who have not yet received uniforms, wore distinctive arm bands bearing the initials of the regiment.

CARS DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Both vehicles were slightly damaged when an automobile driven by Morris Green, of 4556 St. Catherine street, and one operated by John Fraser, of 6 Bryce street, Winnipeg, Man., collided at the intersection of St. Catherine street and Metcalfe avenue, at 4:30 p.m. on Friday.

Although descriptions of the accident given police by the drivers involved were conflicting, the cars apparently collided when Fraser attempted to turn down Metcalfe as he was proceeding from east to west on St. Catherine. The other car was following in the same direction.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1940

"THE ROCK"

So, Franco is going to try and get Gibraltar from Great Britain. The Spanish Dictator, who received help in the Spanish Civil War from Hitler and Mussolini, thinks "The Rock" should be relinquished by the British.

The guidance of the Fuehrer and the Duce can be discerned in Franco's demand for Gibraltar. The Germans and Italians want to wrest control of the Western end of the Mediterranean from the British. As long as the British guns boom forth from "The Rock," they will command the shipping through the straits. No vessel can leave or enter the Mediterranean without permission of the British, unless in some way it slips through unobserved.

If Germany and Italy could work with Spain to dislodge the British from Gibraltar, they would stop British shipping in that part of the world. Food from Africa would have to be sent around the long route, and that would not be very practical.

There is nothing surprising about the Franco demand. Spaniards have been agitating for Gibraltar for a long time. The latest outburst came as Franco celebrated the fourth anniversary of his starting the Civil War and allying himself with Hitler and Mussolini.

PROPAGANDA, OF COURSE

No one can blame Hon. C. G. Power for giving a curt answer to questions placed on the order paper of the Commons by Mr. J. Sasseville Roy, Independent Conservative member for Gaspe. It was just what such questions deserved.

There can be no doubt as to Mr. Roy's attitude toward service of Canadians overseas, when he asks whether men conscripted for home defense will be subject to propaganda to induce them to go on to active service in the war. It is a great thing to have a Minister in the Government, and particularly one coming from the same province as Mr. Roy, who will boldly announce that there is no reason why there should not be such "propaganda."

Of course, Mr. Power is quite right. In fact, he might have gone much farther. If these conscriptees are not subjected to the most intense "propaganda" to induce them to enlist for overseas service, then someone connected with the military establishment will not be doing his full duty.

Some of the old-time slapstick comedians of the movies passed from the scene because they could not rid themselves of a fixed idea. This theory was that, if a thing was funny when it was done once, it was ten times as funny when repeated ten times. The screen fans grew tired of seeing a man fall into ten mud puddles in as many minutes, and they began to stay away in large numbers.

Hitler is one comedian who has not yet learned this lesson. Berlin says that plans are being made to continue broadcasting excerpts from his speech to the British people day after day, the idea being, of course, that constant repetition of his warnings will serve to convince the Britons that there really was something in what the Fuehrer said. He will learn. The British are soon going to be very tired of that speech, and even those who might have been slightly impressed on first hearing it will simply become bored by the blather.

AIR TRAINING IS THOROUGH

The modern air observer is one of the most highly trained men in the Royal Canadian Air Force. He is a meteorologist, a compass and instrument expert, a photographer, an air analyst, a signaller, a score of other things. He is trained to spot, perhaps miles below him, the unusual or suspicious which may hide any presence. He has all the knowledge of a pilot, plus the matters of his distinctive, important field.

The number of hours necessary for the training of one R.C.A.F. observer illustrates the highly specialized nature of the work. The student is confronted with the following schedule for academic studies: Dead Reckoning, 102 hours; Compasses, 35 hours; Instruments, 15 hours; Maps and Charts, 18 hours; Mathematics, 22 hours; Direction Finding Wireless Telegraphy, 10 hours; Photography, 20 hours; Reconnaissance, 15 hours; Flying Exercises, 50 hours; Air Analysis, 19 hours; Meteorology, 22 hours; Signals, 20 hours.

District Women's Club

Women's Club War Work Committee are continuing their specific duties. Meetings are being held each Wednesday in Victoria Hall, where sweaters, scarves, socks, sea boat stockings, clothing for refugees, pillow cases, night gowns, bloomers and other articles of clothing are being turned out with great enthusiasm.

The Junior Red Cross meet every morning in Victoria Hall under the direction of Mrs. C. Brennan. The youngsters are busy preparing articles suitable for Christmas baskets. The members of this branch range between 8 and 14 years. Planned programs occupy the children in the afternoons, swimming twice a week being an important item.

Mrs. Mills announced that the War Work Committee is urgently in need of additional sewing machines. Persons desiring to give one to the group are requested to contact Mrs. Mills or Mrs. Worfolk either at Victoria Hall or the Westmount Y.M.C.A.

and lean-to shelters in the New York camps while at Tamaracouta all campers are under canvas. The American camps have all meals prepared in a central kitchen by professional cooks; at Tamaracouta each troop cooks its own breakfast and lunch under the supervision of the scoutmaster and in the evening the Scouts join for dinner prepared by a professional chef.

This is the fourth year that the international exchange has been effected. The educational features of the exchange and the first-hand comparison of the two types of camping have proven to be of great value to the Scouts. The plans have been worked out by Alfred C. Nichols, Jr., director of camping, New York, and W. J. Thistlewaite, chairman of the Montreal Camp Committee.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Bishop Waldorf recently said to the Rotarians of Chicago: "Don't blame God for war! We won't face facts. No one wants war. We call on God to stop war, but we do nothing to correct the conditions which provoke war. Never in all history have there been such inflated nationalisms, such bigotry regarding race and blood."

There is an interesting article, The New Brunswick Sardine Fisheries, in Public Affairs, which is published quarterly by the Institute of Public Affairs, Dalhousie University, by A. N. McLean. President of Connors Bros., Black's Harbor, N.B., which is now a prosperous community of 1,200 people, and the home of the Canadian sardine industry and of the largest sardine plant in the world, that of Connors Bros. having a capacity of over 50 millions tons per annum. A research laboratory was established at Black's Harbour in 1933.

New Brunswick sardines are sold in more than one hundred countries. Australia and New Zealand have always been large customers and China, India, Java, the West Indies, South America, and South Africa take their share.

833,500,000 passengers were carried on electric railways in 1939, and only 629,750,000 in 1938. Meanwhile, single track mileage fell from 2,565 miles to 1,957.

Last year set a new mark for dividends in Canada: $282,774,237. This does not include payments of bond interest or interest on public loans or private mortgages.

Shore Coal Company at Joggins Mines, Nova Scotia, shut down recently. The Mines Department, shareholders and miners had a joint conference with the result that the miners are now operating the mine.

There is only one thing we are willing to share with others—our opinions.—Mignet.

There is no wealth but Life. That country is richest which nourishes the greatest number of noble and happy human beings.—Ruskin.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist throughout the world on Sunday August 11th.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 63:1,3. "O God, thou art my God. . . . Because thy loving kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." (Gal. 5:14).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text-book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself'; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry,—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed." (Page 340).

Hoax Gets $5,000 For the Red Cross

A prank in the form of a hoax telegram culminated recently in a $5,000 donation to the Red Cross war relief fund.

A crowd of 4,000, attending a lavish benefit show, saw Mayor Alexander Orr, Jr., present the check to Irene Rich with the promise the donation would be increased when the receipts were tabulated.

It all began when Miss Rich offered in a national broadcast to collect personally all Red Cross donations of $500 or more. She received a telegram signed with Mayor Orr's name, promising $5,000. The Mayor disclaimed knowledge of the telegram but said Miami would produce the $5,000 anyway. The show was arranged, and Miss Rich flew to Miami.

British To Adopt Simpler Living

The "harder life gastronomically" has come to the British.

Lord Woolton, the Food Minister, said recently that families would have to get along with fewer luxuries and simpler food. The elimination of non-essentials rather than shortages is the reason, he said.

Farmers were urged to grow all the potatoes they can. The public was told to use less sugar.

Canadian Legion is Active In Iceland, Newfoundland

Activities of the Canadian Legion War Services in Iceland, Newfoundland, and Canada are revealed in a news dispatch released this week.

In Iceland, where Clarence B. Burden of Fredericton, N.B., has been appointed supervisor of services, plans of the Legion are to establish in that far-northern country, as in other centres where Canadian troops are stationed, all possible facilities that will ensure the maximum of comfort and welfare for the men. Legion education services will also be available and already a large shipment of Icelandic phrase books have been forwarded to those enrolled in study courses.

Mr. Burden, a veteran of the first Great War and well known in the Maritimes as a high school teacher and sports director, has left for his destination.

Newfoundland is now the scene of Canadian Legion War Services active among troops on active service there. Marsd B. Peters, of Wawanawa, Man., newly appointed C.L.W.S. supervisor for the island, has established and is carrying out the Legion's work and reports that the services being rendered are warmly appreciated by the men.

Shortly after his arrival a large shipment of sports equipment was forwarded by the Legion to Mr. Peters who has developed a regular recreation program. Education as well as personal assistance are also under way.

The Legion officer is organizing various forms of entertainment such as concert parties and moving picture presentations and has assumed responsibility for the distribution of various comforts, especially to those ill in hospitals. Magazines, newspapers from home, cigarettes and chocolates are included in such distributions.

Like other C.L.W.S. supervisors stationed with Canadian troops, Mr. Peters is actively co-operating with the officers commanding in rendering such services as will contribute to the military efficiency of the troops.

Times have changed and today a man in training or on active service has far more comforts than any of his older comrades of other wars.

Take, for example, Barfield Camp near Kingston. There, the Canadian Legion War Services operates a canteen and recreation hut and there is just about everything that is to be had in a modern hotel, although, of course, on not such a luxurious basis.

In addition to serving soft drinks, chocolates, necessary toilet articles and pieces of wearing apparel, the hut has a reading room containing books, magazines and newspapers, a camp register where are available the names of all men in camp for the scrutiny of their pals, a parcel wrapping counter with paper and string, a lost and found department, a radio news service on bulletin boards, all day radio reception, money order service and a cigarette lighter gas filling station.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

This writer has always been considerably impressed by a story told about one James Carrington. James was a newspaperman. He began as a reporter on a paper called The Appeal and made good from the start. In five years he grew to be the paper's best reporter and was getting $90 per. Then another paper, The Gazette, offered him $110, and Mr. Harrison, the Appeal's editor-publisher, offered him $95 if he'd stay, hinting that there was a chance of advancement for staff men.

For six years Carrington's $95 took care of a wife and two children. And just as he had forgotten all about Harrison's hint as to advancement, the chief editorial writer died and Mr. Harrison asked Reporter James Carrington how he'd like to do editorials. He snapped at it.

"Of course," said Mr. Harrison, "it is better paid than reporting and we'll take care of you." His pay was raised to $120. That was in 1927.

In 1930, when cuts were the fashion, Carrington's pay automatically went to $108. "We can't cut the unionized compositors," the business manager explained, "and we have to save somewhere."

In 1932 there was another 10 per cent cut and Carrington got $97.20. And in 1936 Carrington, writing editorials, at least two and sometimes three a day, and having charge of the page for Monday's paper, was still getting $97.20 every Friday.

One afternoon in November 1936, Mr. Harrison came to Carrington's cubicle, a thing he rarely did. So Carrington felt a thrill of elation.

"Jim," he said, "I suppose you've read the papers."

different enough from the old socialism to require a different name. It is, at any rate, our responsibility and our duty to do this thinking."

May this reviewer mention a plan which he has been advocating in articles, over the radio and before all sorts of audiences in Canada and the United States during the past twenty-five years which seems to be the economic solution which will give the way of life sought by the author and those who are like minded.

The proposal I refer to is the real antidote for all collectivist plans and its name—Equitism—should appeal to Mr. Eastman. But the real problem is not (we claim) a problem of the distribution of wealth, but of the distribution of work. Socialism proposes an arbitrary distribution of work, determined by the will of the governing faction. Equitism provides for a natural division of work, determined by equity in exchange. No faction, whether majority or minority, can determine who shall do this or that work, or this or that much of it, to the satisfaction of everyone, everywhere. But an equitable unit of exchange—one hour of adult human work—with mutual banking will automatically and equitably distribute the work and the food, clothing and shelter produced by the work to the satisfaction of every one.

YOUNG NAVAL OFFICIAL CITED FOR GALLANTRY

Sub-Lieut. John Edisforth Heward, Mountain Avenue, Mentioned in Despatches

Sub-Lieut. John Edisforth Heward, of 462 Mountain Avenue, young Royal Canadian Naval Reserve officer, has been mentioned in despatches for gallantry, it is revealed in cable advices from London.

Sub-Lieut. Heward received his preliminary training at naval headquarters in Montreal and was drafted for further training in England. The advices failed to give any details regarding the nature of the actions in which the young officer was involved.

The officer is the son of Charles V. Heward. Rear-Admiral Percy W. Nelles, chief of the Naval Staff, Ottawa, commenting on the announcement, said that this was one of many instances of gallantry by men of the Royal Canadian Navy.

"This is but one instance of the many occasions in this war that officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy have distinguished themselves by displaying gallantry in the face of danger," said Rear-Admiral Nelles.

"Several times there have been notable displays of heroism, but for reasons of naval policy it has not been possible to make them public. We have always been proud of our Volunteer Reserve, and once again that pride has been justified."

Fellowship Services To Be Held At Calvary

For the month of August Calvary will be officially closed, but each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be a Fellowship Service held in the Ladies' Parlours (entrance by the lower door on Green Avenue). These services will be under the auspices of the Lay Association of the United Church of Canada, and a speaker will be provided from this association for each Sunday.

An invitation is extended to all to come and share the inspiration of this hour of fellowship and prayer. These services will also be continued for the first Sunday of September, with the re-opening of the Church for both morning and evening worship on Sunday, September 8th, when the Rev. Colin Rudd, B.A., B.D., the one chosen to be the Interim Minister of the Church, will commence his duties. He will take charge of the pastoral work for the month of August.

Rev. Colin Rudd is a young man, well known in Westmount and has had much varied experience in the United Church of Canada.

Hugh Herbert, who plays Gloria Jean's father in "A Little Bit of Heaven," won the ladies' hat derby at a local night club by modeling a dainty chapeau of blue straw trimmed with spring flowers and a silk net veil.

Morale—How To Play Your Part

Forget yourself in helping your neighbours. In days of tension, this casts out your own fears and worries. Help them to carry out all instructions about air raids, evacuation, rationing and waste.

Keep the moral standards of the nation high. Don't weaken the home front by trying to wangle something for yourself on the quiet. Make a break with all personal indulgence, selfishness and private wars, which undermine national morale and unity. Everybody has his part to play in the moral re-arming of the nation. Be a rumour-stopper. Those who love their country sacrifice the luxury of being the ones to pass on the "news". Any patriot shoots a rumour dead on sight. Face the facts but don't exaggerate them. Prepare to meet them instead. Faith, confidence and cheerfulness are as contagious as fear, depression and grumbling.

The secret of steadiness and inner strength is to listen to God and do what He says. God speaks directly to the heart of every man and woman who is prepared to listen and obey. Write down the thoughts He gives you. His voice can be heard wherever you are—in home, in factory, in an air raid shelter, in a first aid post.

Forearm yourself by listening to God the first thing every morning. This provides a clear plan for each day and the power to work with other people in complete unity. In the time of listening, God takes away fear and fortifies against uncertainty, hardship or bereavement; He gives foresight and cool judgment; He offers limitless reserves of energy and initiative.

A British general who has fought through two wars says: "Wires may be cut and wireless stations be destroyed, but no bombardment can stop messages from God coming through, if we are willing to receive them. To listen to God and obey Him is the highest national service for everybody everywhere."

Governor-Elect Teaches Sundays

J. Melville Broughton, local attorney and the first native of Raleigh ever to be nominated for the post of Governor of North Carolina, like the incumbent, Clyde R. Hoey, teaches one of the largest men's Sunday school classes in the South. Mr. Broughton's class is at the Tabernacle Baptist Church and Mr. Hoey's at the Edenton Street Methodist. On several occasions they have "supplied" for each other. Mr. Broughton and Mr. Hoey are Masons.

The Democratic nomination in North Carolina is equivalent to election. In the recent primary, Mr. Broughton led by 40,000 votes his next highest rival in a field of six.

REAL SILK FLAGS

All flags of four different countries which are used in Paramount's "Mystery Sea Raider," film of the current war, featuring Carole Landis, Henry Wilcoxon and Onslow Stevens, today were made of silk. Technicians found that cotton pennants look "heavy" on the screen, and won't blow in the wind as readily as the lighter material.

DOTTY LAMOUR—WITHOUT SARONG!

Dorothy Lamour, minus her sarong, shows a Habitat wood carving to our Hollywood Correspondent, Jack Hirschberg, on the set of Paramount's "Moon Over Burma." This carving is one of a number made in Montreal which Miss Lamour keeps on display in her home.

Lakeshore Summer Theatre Will Present "Kind Lady"

Charles Rittenhouse, well-known to Montreal audiences for his work as actor and director, plays Henry Abbott, the smooth swindler in Edward Chodorov's thriller "Kind Lady" which opens tonight at the Lakeshore Theatre, Lighthouse Point.

Director of the first two productions of the Lakeshore Theatre, Mr. Rittenhouse steps aside for guest-director Roberta Beatty, who is responsible for two of the theatre's productions this season—"Kind Lady" and "The Torch-bearers". Miss Beatty needs no introduction to Montreal audiences. She has played leading roles on Broadway for many years, and is known in Montreal as a director of outstanding successes.

A part of Mary Herries—the "kind lady" in the play, will be taken by Esther Solloway, an established and popular player of the Lakeshore Summer Theatre, and appearing on the stage of the theatre for the first time this season will be Cicely Hessey-White, a vice-president of the theatre, Monica McGrath and Dorothy Clarke. Douglas Burns Clarke, whose stage design for last week's successful farce "Penny Wise" was much admired, will also be seen with the company for the first time.

"Kind Lady" will run for three nights—tonight, tomorrow and Saturday, and performances will commence at 8.45 p.m. The theatre is situated at Lighthouse Point, Lachine Wharf.

MENU FROM HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, July 31. — After ballyhooing Paul Muni as the screen's top actor, Warner Brothers last week slashed his name from the studio payroll. While executives claim the split is amicable, intimating that Muni may return for special assignments, inside sources hint that his recent films have contained "too much art and not enough box-office appeal"... Call it heresy, if you will, but this typesinger believes Muni is vastly overrated and that Eddie Robinson's "Erich" was far superior to the former's "Pasteur"... Or am I talking out of turn?...

HUGH RODGERS DIES FOLLOWING SHORT ILLNESS

Local Business Man Will Be Buried this Afternoon—Death Occurred Tuesday

Final tribute will be paid to one of Westmount's older business men when funeral service is held this afternoon for Hugh Harper Rodgers, 4834 Sherbrooke Street West. Mr. Rodgers died in Atholstan, Que., on Tuesday following a three weeks' illness.

Owner of the Victoria Plumbing Co., Mr. Rodgers was a member of the Business Men's Association of Westmount. He had been a resident of this city for more than 15 years and has been in business for about ten years. Born and educated in Scotland, Mr. Rodgers learned his trade in the Old Country and came to Canada about 20 years ago.

A life member of the A.P. and A.M. Mr. Rodgers was a member of Stanley Presbyterian Church, Reverend Stamford Reed, of Stanley Church, will conduct the funeral service this afternoon at two o'clock at the chapel of D. A. Collins, Sherbrooke Street West. He is survived by his wife, the former Jessie Taylor and three daughters, Mary, Martha and Joyce, all of Westmount.

Chief Child Call For Little Blondes

"A little blonde English girl" is apparently the ideal child refugee as envisioned by American families offering homes to British children. At least, families who stated preferences in asking for British evacuee youngsters described this little lass more than any other type of child, the United States Committee for the Care of European Children declared in a preliminary survey of applications received, released here.

Families who were specific showed, in general, a three-to-one preference for girls, the report said. Families headed by lawyers, however, asked that children of lawyers be sent to them; and professors' families likewise wished professors' children. But the most encouraging aspect of the requests received thus far, according to Leonard Mayor, President of the Child Welfare League of America and Director of the Committee's new Sub-Committee of Child Welfare, has been the lack of specific requests.

★ SALAD

District celluloid chefs served up a tasty cinematic salad this week — plenty of meaty drama, seasoned with dashes of retrospect and color, plus a side order of rip-roaring humor. All told, quite a connoction... The Herbert Wilcox production, "Queen of Destiny," won full approval of the critics Monday afternoon at the Ambassador Hotel. This is the Anna Neagle film which was screened in Montreal more than a year ago. It is only now being released in the United States. Tuesday evening the editors of "The March of Time" previewed their first feature production, "The Ramparts We Watch." Britons are Calm in Face Of Danger, Sportsman Says

People in England are much more calm than Canadians according to William "P. T." Patterson, well known sportsman of this district, who has just returned from England, where he spent the past five months. English people are going about their everyday life in the same peaceful manner as always. They are not in the least panic-stricken, Mr. Patterson said.

In speaking of air-raids Mr. Patterson remarked that on one occasion, while a large air-battle was being fought overhead in a small English town, he walked into a fish store, in order to avoid being hit by flying pieces of shrapnel. On entering the shop he was amazed to hear a housewife arguing with the fishmonger over a penny on a pound of fish, not paying the least bit of attention to the dog-fight.

On another occasion Pat had to make a trip from England to Ireland via Airship over the Irish Sea. This, he remarked, was the most frightening experience he had in his travels, for he said they were not far out to sea, when the loud speaking system was turned on and the officer commanding the ship announced that approximately fifteen enemy planes were approaching. The jammers immediately went into action, heating up the machine guns getting ready to attack.

"For a civilian, an experience of this type, is, to say the least, very trying," Mr. Patterson said. The gunners all seemed very anxious to get a crack at the enemy planes and were not the least hesitant. The loud speaker was again turned on, and the officer announced that they were English planes in all probability accompanying a very large convoy of about 30 or 40 ships which had come into view crossing the sea to England.

Notified just a few hours before sailing time, his return trip took fourteen days, Mr. Patterson said. They returned to Montreal via the Northern route, which is an extremely cold way to return to the Intense heat of Montreal.

Two torpedoes were fired upon the vessel, but the captain outsmarted the enemy and arrived in port without any damage whatsoever.

While he is glad to be home, Pat said if the opportunity presented itself he would return to England tomorrow. "A great deal of praise is due the English people. They are determined to win the war, but they will not allow it to interfere with their everyday living. They go on their way, minding their own business, asking no questions and giving no answers. They are more canny than the Scotsmen; asking visitors about their business is one of the things that is not "cricket", Pat said.

The first heat prostration victim of the 1940 summer season was Gloria Dickson, featured in Paramount's "I Want a Divorce," who collapsed today in a temperature of 108 degrees while working on location at Monrovia, Calif., for the picture.

Grandma Liked Raspberry Cooler — And So Will You

A modern dessert with old-fashioned flavor—raspberry shortcake made with rich biscuits and blanketed with country cream.

Fresh raspberries with country cream — the dream of poets of the dinner table. Well, the season for it is at hand. But there are other ways of using the tender little berries which are so dear to poets and gourmets.

In 1852, the Lady's New Book of Cookery gave this old-fashioned recipe for a cooler still good for torrid weather.

Raspberry Shrub
Two quarts raspberries, 1 quart vinegar, sugar.
Add vinegar to well-cleaned berries and let stand 4 days. Strain. To each pint of juice add 1 pint

A WELL BALANCED MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapes, creamed dried beef, buttered toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Cottage cheese and green pepper salad, hard rolls, applesauce, cake, tea, milk.

DINNER: Beef, pork and veal loaf, scalloped potatoes, green peas, radish, celery and lettuce salad, raspberry shortcake, coffee, milk.

Parents Day Observed At YWCA Camp Oolahwan

Saturday was Parents Day at the Y.M.C.A. Camp Oolahwan, when parents and friends were invited to see the various activities of the campers. In the afternoon guides conducted the guests to the waterfront for a demonstration of beginners and advanced swimming, canoeing and floats. The new outdoor stage was a feature of the afternoon's entertainment, consisting of special camp songs, which combined dancing, music and dramatics. An ideal camp site was set up where cooking and sleeping arrangements were demonstrated, and a nature exhibit collected by the campers rounded out the day. Tea was served in the recreation lodge. Miss Sonnette Ross, Associate Director, was in charge of the programme, assisted by Misses Barbara MacPherson and Hudee Zwick.

Last week's activities at Camp Oolahwan were varied and included an Amateur Night; a Strauss Ball held in honour of the Emperor and Empress of Austria impersonated by two campers. On "Self-Government Day," campers took over the duties of the various counsellors. There was a hike day, and an East Indian play was produced on the outdoor stage. Yesterday a Biblical tableau was put on by the counsellor groups, and tonight there will be a College Prom. Miss Phyllis Haslam is director of the Camp.

TESTED RECIPES

Stuffed Beef Heart

Wash and clean a beef heart. Stuff with a highly seasoned dressing and sew up openings. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, roll in flour and brown in hot fat. Put in deep covered baking dish, half cover with boiling water, and bake at 300 degrees F. until tender (about 1 hour), basting or turning occasionally. It may be necessary to add more water to the pan. When heart is done, remove to hot platter and thicken and season the liquid for gravy.

Dressing for Heart

1 cup breadcrumbs
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 tablespoon chopped onion
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dried sage
Dash pepper
Put breadcrumbs, sage and onion through food chopper, add melted butter, pepper and salt. If not moist enough add water, milk or egg. Stuff heart with same.

Sponge Cake

4 eggs
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
Flour to make 1 cup
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Separate eggs, add 3 tablespoons water to yolks, and beat well. Add sugar and then remaining dry ingredients. Fold beaten whites into above mixture and put in angel or sponge cake pan and put into cold oven, then light oven, bake slowly.

VACATION SHAVING

While roughing it during his vacation, he might even sit beside a cool brook and shave with the new clog-proof safety razor. Slots provide a channel for cream to flow freely under the blade, keeping the shaving edge clear and insuring quick rinsing of the razor even in cold water.

DELICIOUS SPREAD

Mix equal parts of grated Canadian cheese with softened butter, mix until smooth. This may be used not only in cheese rolls but as a spread for canapes, crackers or sandwiches.

Milk Most Nearly Complete And Nutritious Of All Foods

Milk is recognized as the most nearly complete and broadly nutritious of all foods. So rich is it in the nutritive values which supply the daily needs of the body that physicians and recognized nutritionists consider milk the basic food of a well constructed diet.

For example, milk furnishes a type of protein of high biological value. It is abundant in carbohydrate and fat. It is one of the best sources of two most important mineral elements, calcium and phosphorus, needed for growth and maintenance of bones and teeth. It is one of the best sources of vitamins A and G (known as B₂), which are so vital to growth and good nutrition. It is also a good source of vitamin B₁.

Authorities unite in recommending for normal children about a quart of milk each day. For adults they advise a pint a day.

We think of milk as a liquid food. But it is really a solid food because when acted upon by the gastric juice of the stomach it forms rather large curds which are sometimes quite difficult to digest.

There are a number of ways to obtain the food values of milk yet have softer, more readily digestible curds in the stomach—such as the use of condensed milk, homogenized milk, and bottled milk.

One of the oldest and best-established methods is through the addition of rennet, which is nature's own way of forming soft milk curds. Fortunately this is also one of the easiest because rennet powder and rennet tablets are available almost everywhere—and are very inexpensive. By using them you can make milk into delicious rennet-custard desserts which tempt both children and adults to take more milk.

Apriort Presto Rennet-Custard
½ pound dried apricots
1 cup water
½ cup sugar
1 pint milk (not canned or soft curd)
1 package chocolate rennet powder
½ pint whipping cream
½ pound sweet wafers, crushed.
Wash apricots well and soak overnight in cold water. Simmer

An Economical Luxury

Even though the budget must be watched carefully, lovers of home-made ice cream may satisfy their craving as often as they wish. Just keep the following economical recipe in sight and follow it when your company is scheduled, or your craving for an ice-cold dessert gets the better of you.

Economy Chocolate Ice Cream
3 squares unsweetened chocolate; 1-3 cups sweetened condensed milk; 1 cup water; 1-2 teaspoon salt; 2 cups top milk or thin cream; 1 teaspoon vanilla.
Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add condensed milk and blend; then add water gradually, stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water, add salt, the cream and vanilla. Strain into freezer and freeze until stiff, using 8 parts ice to 1 part salt. Remove dasher and cover tightly re-pack in 4 parts ice to 1 part salt. Makes about 1 1/4 quarts ice cream.

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

George Murphy And Lana Turner Form Dance Team

The screen's newest dance team, composed of Lana Turner and George Murphy, makes its bow in the streamlined musical, "Two Girls on Broadway," coming to the Westmount United Theatre for an engagement of three days starting Sunday.

Miss Turner and Murphy, together with Joan Blondell, headline the cast of this dramatic production with a musical background telling the story of two sisters who journey from a small Mid-Western town to New York City in an attempt to crash the big time shows. The romance centers about the love of the two girls for the same boy, hooper Eddie Kerns, portrayed by Murphy.

Screen polls and the public's reaction have hailed Lana Turner as the most popular and most talented of Hollywood's current younger stars and her role in "Two Girls on Broadway" gives her increased opportunity to confirm this verdict. Murphy comes to the new musical direct from his success with Fred Astaire and Eleanor Powell in "Broadway Melody of 1940," while the popular Miss Blondell makes her first appearance under the M-G-M banner in the streamlined musical.

Two new song hits are heard in the production. They are "My Wonderful One Let's Dance," written by Nacio Herb Brown, Arthur Freed and Roger Edens, and "Broadway's Still Broadway," by Harry Revel and Ted Fetter. Kent Taylor, last seen in "I Take This Women," heads the supporting cast of "Two Girls on Broadway." Also in the cast are Richard Lane, Wallace Ford, Otto Hahn, Lloyd Corrigan, Don Wilson and Charles Wagonheim.

S. Sylvan Simon, who directed Lana Turner in such hits as "These Glamour Girls" and "Dancing Co-Hed," again handled the directorial assignment on the new production. It was Simon's idea to take a dramatic story and place it against a

W. GUICE TROUPE AT BELMONT PARK

The six DeCardos, world champion teterboard and barrel jumpers, will terminate their engagement at Belmont Park on Sunday evening. On Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon, the DeCardos will offer an extra feature in addition to their current presentation. This will be a Trampoline number that is replete with comedy, and thrills. In this act the DeCardos bounce around with dexterity.

Friday night will be your last opportunity to take advantage of the "Fun Bargains" being offered at Belmont Park. On presenting the coupon appearing in the daily papers. The public for the small sum of 25c will be granted admission to the Park plus a ride on "The Whip"; "The Merry-Go-Round"; "The Thriller" and "The Lindy-Loop." Furthermore patrons of the Park, on presenting the second coupon from the paid advertising with the small sum of ten cents, will be able to dance all evening in the beautiful pavilion to the strains of Stan Wood's Orchestra.

On Saturday the Canada Packers will hold their annual picnic and on Sunday the Supreme Bread Limited will be hosts to their many friends, employees and customers at Belmont Park. The new outdoor act starting Monday afternoon will feature Walter Guice Troupe who offer a very high horizontal bar act combining difficult acrobatics and terrific comedy.

DOUBLE CAREER
Freddie March, today playing the leading male role in Paramount's filmization of Joseph Conrad's "Victory," came to Hollywood from the stage, but actually appeared on the screen before he was in a theatre. He was an extra in several New York productions.

NAISH VERSATILE
J. Carrol Naish, who plays a man of indeterminate nationality named Kalkus in Paramount's "A Night at Earl Carroll's," today is known in Hollywood as the man of a thousand faces. He has portrayed almost every race

EXCELLENT FENCER
Basil Rathbone, featured in Paramount's "A Date with Destiny," is one of Hollywood's best fencers. It was disclosed today. He first studied the art while a member of an English Shakespearean repertoire company.

It is, however, all in the spirit of good movie fun, and Cagney is making the most of it. After dying in the electric chair, on a church step and in the trenches in three out of his last four pictures, he has decided he has given enough lives for his pub-

ROMANCE IN THE TROPICS

Lovely Dorothy Lamour and Robert Preston in a scene from the romantic adventure "Typhoon," entirely in Technicolor, which is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday night.

"STREAMLINED COMEDY"

Generally conceded by reviewers to be the breeziest bit of screen hilarity seen here in a long time, is this British comedy hit, "School for Husbands," now in a second week at the air-cooled Snowdon United Theatre with Diana Churchill and June Clyde.

Cagney Has 2-Fisted Role - With Time Out for Love

James Cagney, the hard-socking movie star, is feeling like a kid on a holiday these days.

He isn't under sentence of death, or behind prison bars. He isn't even being ill treated or persecuted. In view of the fact that he is making a new picture, this is at least passing strange.

Last there be some misgivings on the part of Cagney fans, let it be added that the red headed dynamo is being tough. He is dishing out punches, staccato repartee and occasional bullets with the old zest and verve.

It is, however, all in the spirit of good movie fun, and Cagney is making the most of it. After dying in the electric chair, on a church step and in the trenches in three out of his last four pictures, he has decided he has given enough lives for his public—at least for a few months. Despite the fact the Cagney deaths have all been highly profitable, his bosses at Warner Bros. studio concur in that decision. Consequently, they sent him to the tropics for a rollicking vacation in a picture called "Torrid Zone," which opens Saturday at the York United Theatre.

As sweetheart, they've given him no less a prize than Ann Sheridan, the celebrated Oomph star. And as sometimes friendly enemy and always hard fisted pardner in adventure, they've given him his old co-starring pal, Pat O'Brien.

That, Cagney admits, is a very sweet setup. Add to it a story crammed with slambang action and laughs, and the direction of William Keighley, the

EXCITING ROMANCE

It's Joan Bennett's alluring beauty which captivates George Raft and starts an exciting romance in Walter Wanger's "The House Across the Bay," which is now playing at the York United Theatre until Friday night.

IN OUTSTANDING COMEDY

Gail Patrick and Ray Milland appear in a scene from the outstanding comedy feature, "The Doctor Takes A Wife," in which Loretta Young has the featured feminine role. The film is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday night.

STUDIO CHATTER

Johnny Mack Brown is completing arrangements for an extended pack-trip vacation into the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Helen Parrish will act as a model at the benefit fashion show being staged at the Victor Hugo, by Ann Lehr's Hollywood Guild.

Robert Homans who plays Roaring Dan in the new Johnny Mack Brown western, "Son of Roaring Dan," appeared in over 700 plays on the Australian stage.

Rosalind Russell, now playing in Universal's "Hired Wife," has been christened "the walking bank—because she draws so much interest."

Kay Francis, following a week's hospitalization with laryngitis, has returned to the Universal lot to complete her role in "When the Daltons Rode."

Robert Stak, popular Universal leading man, staged and acted in several performances of "Journey's End" at his home, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The Andrews Sisters, here for their film debut with the Ritz Brothers in "Argentine Nights," were Sunday guests of Edgar Bergen at a swimming party at Bergen's home.

Rosalind Russell made a big hit by taking the entire cast and crew of her current Universal picture, "Hired Wife," to the baseball game at Hollywood Park the other night.

The Ritz Brothers are practicing new tricks with South American "bull whips" for use in one of their important musical routines in "Argentine Nights."

man who guided him in the record breaking box-office grosser "The Fighting 69th," and it is easy to understand the star's festive mood.

The locale of the story is a banana country in that region of the Americas described by the title. Cagney gets off to an explosive start by knocking an obstreperous sailor off a banana boat for being a bit too familiar with Miss Sheridan. That warms him up gently for the strenuous hostilities which follow.

Before he started the new picture, Cagney had the vague idea that in addition to taking a holiday from death he might tone down just a bit in toughness. Toward that end, he grew a mustache. It was not a large mustache. In fact it didn't change the Cagney appearance to any noticeable degree.

The star, however, thought it might. And in any event, while he had no intention of going even faintly nambly pambly, he did expect to soften his characterization a trifle.

That was before he knocked the sailor overboard. It was also before he exchanged his first barrage of insults with O'Brien. Once he tasted blood in those skirmishes he forgot all about toning down on the toughness. Which was just what his studio and director had expected—and hoped—would happen.

MUSICAL SHARPS, FLATS AND NATURALS

by FRANCES GOLTMAN

THE STOKOWSKI YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Last week we told you of the new youth orchestra formed by Leopold Stokowski. This hundred piece symphony is bound to be unlike any of the well-known orchestras, since all of the members are picked musicians who applied in the same manner as one would try for a scholarship; youth, ambition, talent and brains are the four dominant factors that constituted their entry, therefore those young people who were fortunate enough to be chosen will realize the great privilege and opportunity that is theirs, to be under the leadership of one of the foremost conductors before the public today. Perhaps it would interest our readers to know a little of Stokowski's background.

Leopold Anton Stokowski was born in London, England in 1882 of Polish ancestry and had a splendid education at Queen's College, Oxford. From London he proceeded to Paris, where he studied the fundamentals of instrumentation, of which art, he and Toscanini, Bruno Walter and a few others are considered the greatest living authorities. Stokowski then came to the United States and soon became organist and choirmaster of St. Bartholomew's Church in New York and remained in this position for three years. In 1908 he accepted the leadership of the Cincinnati Orchestra and held this post until 1912 when he became conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra which, due to his great and thorough training has become the famous organization it is today. He continued here for twenty-five years and since has been joint conductor with Eugene Ormandy due to his many activities.

We all saw him with Deanna Durbin in "100 Men and a Girl" and marvelled at his brilliant baton technique. He has made special experiments with orchestral broadcasting to perfect the effects of his ensemble. We venture to say nobody has surpassed him. Stokowski has been married twice, first to Olga Samaroff, the famous pianist in 1911, from whom he was divorced in 1923, then to Evangeline Johnston in 1926.

The celebrated leader is now an American citizen and believes in forwarding the music of his continent. What could be more important than this new youth venture in the world of orchestral playing? What finer conductor could these young musicians be privileged to train under? We look forward to hearing this new ensemble of selected talent with the knowledge that it is all-American, all-talent, all-musical and all-ambitious. Success is bound to come.

Jack Benny Film Riots In Wide Open Spaces

When we say that Jack Benny forsakes the radio to ride a horse, twirls a mean lasso and routes a band of cattle rustlers without losing an ounce of sang-froid, to say nothing of insouciance, we give you some measure of the laughs to be found in his newest picture, "Buck Benny Rides Again," which will be shown at the Monkland United Theatre starting Sunday playing until Tuesday night.

Not only Benny but most of his radio troupe forsake the microphone to don ten gallon hats and head for the wide open spaces. Eddie "Rochester" Anderson is there to heckle his boss; Phil Harris lends his urbane presence; Andy Devine, and even Carmichael, the polar bear, add gusto to this new Benny production.

The result is lively entertainment which is the same as saying "tops for anybody." The picture is as funny as all get-out, which you might expect with Jack Benny playing a dynamic buckaroo under Rochester's critical eye. And Rochester, that old scene-rustler, steals the show as usual with a side-splitting imitation of Fred Astaire, and a new dance which you might call Shuffle Off to Rochester-Buttalo.

The story of "Buck Benny Rides Again" permits Jack to cavort against a horse-opera background without surrendering any of his radio personality. The picture opens in a broadcasting studio. The New York heat is unbearable, and Benny's sidekicks on the air are trying to sell him the idea of a vacation. Phil Harris wants to go to Nevada, with an eye to meeting a Reno divorcee there. Rochester is getting tired of buying ice cakes for Carmichael, the polar bear.

It's not go, however, until Jack meets Joan Cameron (played by Ellen Drew) and falls in love with her. Joan likes the West, and to make an impression, Jack persuades her that he owns a ranch out there. His deception gets a boost when he learns that Andy Devine actually owns a ranch in Nevada. The whole troupe, including Joan, who is auditioning for Benny, are transported there.

Out on the range, Jack, by bribing the cowhands, manages to convey the idea that he is the terror of the ranch. He routs a phony band of cattle rustlers, and when some real bandits come along, he is under the impression that they are a crew he hired. For the comic complications that follow, we recommend that you hustle off to the Monkland United Theatre, to see for yourselves.

IMPORTED FRUIT

Mangoes and papayas, distinctive tropical fruit, had to be brought to Southern California, where they don't grow, for scenes recently in Paramount's "Victory," which is laid in the Dutch-East Indies.

A Cash Crop for the Farmer . . .

The men who till our soil are hardy folk. Long hours of toil. Months of back-aching work behind tractor and plough. Seeking a respectable living from the fickle earth. To such men as these, beer has proved itself a good friend—a good customer. The brewing industry buys more than $12,000,000 worth of hops and barley from Canadian farmers each year . . . paying CASH for these supplies . . . and is now providing a CASH BONUS on every bushel of barley, (as it has done on other occasions in the past when grain prices were abnormally low) in order that farmers raising high-grade malting barley may have a fair profit on their crops.
