LIVING BABY WASHED ASHORE

Bathing Boy Found by Nurses Among Piles of Dead.

MUCH JEWELLERY FOUND

Boy Rescued From the Slocum Was Struck Dumb by Shock.

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, June 17. — There is a little blue-eyed, golden-haired baby, plump and dimpled, that creeps about the floor of the wards at the Lebanon Hospital, prattling in its baby way and wondering what all tears are about. No one knows who owns the baby. It is a boy, about eleven months of age, rosy with health. Snatched from the very jaws of death on the General Slocum, saved from drowning by miracle, it was sent to the hospital. The nurses of the Island Hospital inspecting the dead found the little fellow, attracted by its cries. It was one of the bodies that the tide left on the sand at North Brother Island, and it was one of the bodies that policemen carried to the line of dead that it might be numbered. Nurses snatched it away and hurried it to the reception hospital dormitory. Warm milk and sleep brought the little one around.

BURYING THE DEAD.

To-day the heart-breaking task of burying the dead victims of the disaster was begun. The entire lower east side of New York was one great house of morning. Through every street moved the corteges. From hundreds of houses fluttered crape, that told of weeping and wailing for lost loved ones. Through streets with leadened feet and faces drawn from grief moved bereft fathers, husbands and mothers, and orphaned children.

On many houses were five and six pieces of crape. Black and white hearses were on every side, and slow processions of carriages, filled with mourners, wended their way towards the cemeteries. St. Luke's parish was weeping for its dead as it laid them away.

AN OFICIAL STATEMENT.

Frank A. Barnaby, the president of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, which owned the General Slocum, has been making an investigation of the cause of the disaster among the crew of that boat. He says his personal opinion is that the fire started in the store-room for paints and oils. This room, crowded with inflammable material for use on the boat, was situated near the bow. It would make a great blaze in a moment after igniting. He further says that the company has spent $3,000 this year in overhauling the General Slocum and putting her in first-class condition. He also makes a generr' denial of the reports that the steamer was equipped with worthless hose and life-preservers, and that the life-boats and life-rafts were lashed to the steamer with wires.

LATE ESTIMATE OF LOSS OF LIFE

New York, June 17.—Forty-eight hours after the burning of the steamer General Slocum, the exact number of victims is still unknown. In the early morning hours a few bodies were brought to the morgue, bringing the total up to 532. As the morning wore on with no more arrivals hope began to be felt that the awful total had been completed, but it was soon shattered by a report that divers at work on the hulk of the Slocum had discovered a mass of bodies wedged in one of the paddle boxes. How many corpses there will prove to be in this place will not be known for some hours, as they will not be disturbed until the coroner is on the scene.

One hopeful phase of the situation is the steady decrease in the number of missing, though it is still appallingly large. The various officials whose position brings them in touch with the disaster still adhere to the belief that when all is told it will be found that between 900 and 1,000 persons perished.

A CONFUSION AMONG THE BODIES.

It developed to-day that a new horror had been added to the terrible conditions resulting from the Slocum disaster through the over officiousness of some person at the morgue. As a result some of the bodies of the dead probably never will be identified, and will go to a last resting place in the humble plot furnished by the city's charity. When the bodies were taken by hundreds from the water and laid in rows on the grass at North Brother Island, each was tagged with a number. That number was carefully recorded and the papers, valuables and trinkets which would have served to positively identify the bodies were removed and placed in separate packages similarly numbered, to be used for purposes of identification. When the bodies were taken to the morgue, they were placed in numbered boxes, but in many cases these numbers did not correspond with the figures the bodies previously had borne. As a result the plans were completely upset and the numbered packages of valuables became practically worthless as a means of identifying the unfortunate owners.

One case which came to the attention of the officials to-day was that of A. T. Hill, of Williamsburg. Mr. Hill called at the morgue yesterday and identified the bodies of Catherine and Lilian Richter, 3 and 4 years old, respectively. When he called at the morgue to-day with an undertaker, who was to attend to the burial of the bodies, they could not be found. The bodies were numbered 173 and 175, respectively, and the authorities at the morgue have no record of any such bodies having been given to any one, though they had a record of the identification made by Mr. Hill yesterday. It is thought that some undertaker was given the bodies in place of two others, which he should have taken, through a confusion in the numbers.

THOROUGH INVESTGIATION PROMISED.

Secretary of Commerce and Labour, George B. Cortelyou, who had a long conference with Robert S. Rodie, inspector of steamboats for the second district of New York, after his arrival here last night, said to-day that he would give his personal attention to the federal investigation of the Slocum disaster. Mr. Cortelyou said that if it was found to be true that employes of the government have been criminally negligent in their inspection of boilers in New York harbour, the public can rest assured that no one will be shielded; but that the blame will be placed where it properly belongs.

MUCH JEWELLERY FOUND.

Although many of the bodies taken to the morgue were badly mutilated and the clothing in many cases almost entirely burned off, valuables have been taken from them and are in the keeping of city officials, to the extent of $200,000 or more. Several of the men and women had the savings of a life-time on them when they perished. Much jewellery, it is reported to the police, has been lost, but an explanation may be found in the fact that it was destroyed by fire rather than stolen by ghouls.

SHOCK STRUCK HIM DUMB.

Henry Henitz, 12 years old, who lost his mother, his aunt, Hannah Ludermann, and his sister Louise, is dumb because of the ordeal he went through. He and his brother George were saved. They were on the middle deck until it became too hot, when they jumped into the water. Henry held on to the paddlewheel and was rescued by men in a tug. When he recovered from the first great shock he could not speak. George declares his mother's and aunt's bodies were robbed of diamond jewellery. He said his mother had a valuable diamond brooch, and his aunt two diamond rings, all of which were missing after their bodies were found.

An International Elevator Strike.

New York, June 17.—The Tribune this morning says:—The executive committee of the International Elevator Constructors' Union ordered an international strike on the contracts of the Otis Elevator Company throughout the United States and Canada at a special meeting called at the Ashland House last evening. The strike order affects over 20 cities, including New York, and if it is universally obeyed will bring out about 7,000 people, and seriously cripple building operations. The International strike is in support of the elevator constructors in Boston and Philadelphia, where they have been on strike for seven weeks.

Two Accidents at Three Rivers.

Three Rivers, Que., June 17.—Mr. Alex. Baptiste, a leading lumberman, while driving out to visit his booms, was thrown out of his buggy and badly bruised about the shoulders.

Mr. Raymond, an electrician, in charge of the North Shore Power Company's transforming station, was rendered unconscious by a shock of 12,000 volts of electricity. It is expected he will recover.

RUSSIANS LOST ONE THOUSAND MEN

That Is Their Own Estimate of Loss at Telissu.

JAPS WERE TOO NUMEROUS

Terrible Scenes Attended the Destruction of Japanese Transports —Situation at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—The news of the result of the battle of Vafangow reached the morning paper too late to allow of comment. The public seem to accept the result stoically and are content that the Russians made a gallant and stubborn fight until the arrival of fresh forces of the enemy compelled General Stakelbergs troops, weary and exhausted with three days' hard fighting to give way.

A special despatch from Liao Yang contains the first Russian estimate of General Stakelberg's losses, placing them at a thousand men and twenty officers.

The present situation is not clear although it is believed that General Stakelberg will continue to retire to the northward. It is possible, however, that reinforcements are being sent to his support. This might be inferred from a significant message just received from a correspondent at Tashihika, announcing the enormous movement of troops, including cavalry and infantry, along the railway, but the correspondent was not allowed to say in what direction the troops were marching. It may be, therefore, reinforcemetns moving to support General Stakelberg or the force of that commander retiring to the northward. The message also says that the whereabouts of Major-General Mistchenko is not known, and this latter statement may be pregnant with significance.

GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, June 17. — The Novosti, referring to the statement of Earl Percy, British Under Foreign Secretary, that pourparlers are already proceeding between Great Britain and Russia, says:

"This recognition of the necessity for a mutual understanding is extremely welcome, especially coming, as it did, before the conclusion of the war with Japan. It is true that Great Britain and Russia already have a preliminary agreement respecting Thibet, but that is secondary to the possible clash of their immense commercial interests in the Far East. The danger of the 'Yellow Peril' in the Orient is very real; but Great Britain and Russia together will be able to settle it. Great Britain has already shown an understanding of the subject and ability to safeguard the predominance of the whites by the system followed out in India."

GENERAL BOBRIKOFF IS DEAD.

Helsingfors, Finland, June 17.—General Bobrikoff, Governor-General of Finland, who was shot yesterday morning at the entrance of the Senate, died at 1 o'clock this morning. Everything is calm.

THE SINKING OF JAPANESE TRANSPORTS.

Tokio, June 17.—Details in connection with the sinking of the transport Hitachi by the Russian warships are being furnished by survivors. The Russian ships were sighted at 7 o'clock in the morning and in response to a signal the Hitachi was stopped, but at 10 o'clock got under way again and attempted to escape. The Russians followed and opened a heavy fire directed at about the water line with the evident intention of destroying the troops on board. The fire was terrific and in a few minutes the decks were covered with corpses and awash with blood. One shell struck the engine and killed two hundred men. The ship began to fill and sank gradually by the stern. At 6 o'clock in the evening she was completely submerged. Captain Campbell, the English master of the transport, jumped overboard at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and is numbered among the missing. The chief engineer was killed on the bridge. The commander of the troops ordered the flag to be burned and then killed himself. The second mate committed suicide. Many of the crew and troops escaped in the boats.

The transport Sado is still afloat, but is badly damaged. She is being towed into the nearest port. She sighted the Russian ships 35 miles west of Shiro Island. Their signals to stop were unheeded, so the Russians opened fire and signalled for those on board the Sado to leave the ship. Upon that the crew took to the boats and in this way many escaped when the ship was eventually fired by the enemy.

The number of men on board the transports and the list of casualties are not as yet obtainable.

IS KUROPATKIN MOVING ON KUROKI?

Special to the Montreal Star.

General Kuroki's Headquarters, in Manchuria, via Fusan, June 16.—Opinions differ as to whether this army can advance against Haicheng if threatened from the northward. Some say if the Russians menace Kuroki's Yalu communications it will be impossible to move. Others declare that the army can cut loose entirely from the river and establish new bases on the coast, should the situation demand. Information from several Chinese sources is that 60,000 Russians are advancing against Kuroki's position. They are driving in, killing or capturing the advance guards.

When you buy coal you find some stones mixed with it. These stones cost as much as the coal. They also take up and waste more heat than the coal they displace would have developed.

Just so with the foods you eat which you do not digest.

People who would quickly build Brawn, Brain, and Bone should eat plenty of "FORCE."

LACROSSE

Peter Murphy for Referee.

The Cornwall lacrosse club are going to make a big effort on Saturday to down the Montrealers. They have had four nights' practice this week and will go on the field an entirely different team from that which was routed last Saturday in Ottawa. Bernard McDonald, F. Martel, Francis Cummins, Alex. McCourt and several other strong players have been training hard this week and will likely be included in the line up against Montreal. The Cornwalls will make an effort to show what can be done with junior material. The teams have agreed up on Mr. P. Murphy, of the Shamrocks, for referee.

The Struggle in Cornwall.

The Montrealers practiced Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings this week and leave for Cornwall to-morrow on their special train at 1.15 p.m., confident that they will register a victory over the boys of the Factory Town. There will be one or two changes on the team that ought to strengthen it considerably. Probably Billy Murphy will catch position on the defence, and Bobby Madden will undoubtedly be on the attacking division. Barney has put the boys through some pretty hard trials and they appear to take to the hard work kindly. It is expected that a large number of the followers of the team will accompany the club. In all probability, Mr. Peter Murphy, of the Shamrocks, will act as referee, which is a guarantee that the teams will have to play strictly in accord with the rules.

MR. FORAN'S PLAN TO SETTLE THE LACROSSE TROUBLE.

"I will guarantee," said Mr. Foran, of Ottawa, "that I can frame a set of rules that will leave every club in the lacrosse business to-day in a better position next season. First and foremost men would be allowed to be paid what the clubs might afford to pay them, but each man must take affidavit that he is not a professional, like the baseball players, and is not making his living by athletics though he receives money for playing. Then, an essential point would be to have a residential rule so that the men could not wander all over the country and could be kept more easily in control of the management of the clubs. Let the rule be made hard and fast that no man plays for his club unless he has a residential qualification of one year within, say, ten miles of the city or town. This would hold the man who might try to hold up the club, as, if he did not play at what the club could afford to pay him, he could not play for anyone else for at least one year. Men who wished to play as amateurs under these circumstances would naturally be given every chance of preference, as the more amateurs the less the bill of expense."

Asked as to the standing of players who might fall in with this view, so far as lacrosse is concerned, and ignore the C.A.A.U., but who might want to play football and hockey, from which they would be debarred by the C.A.A.U., Mr. Foran said: "My idea is to have a meeting of the best delegates from the C. L. A., the N. A. L. U., and the different hockey and football associations, and let all appoint a governing body and draw up rules along these lines suggested. As a matter of fact, it is the only honest and fair way of arranging the matter, and it is something that has to ultimately come, as amateur sport in Canada has been a living lie for too long."

"Pending this arrangement and the hockey and football men who play lacrosse refusing to meet the Shamrocks, or a team they have played with, after they have played for the Minto Cup, what would you do?" asked the reporter. "Well," said Mr. Foran, "I should advise them to stay, and if they would not I should let them go and play hockey and try to do without them. I feel sure, however, that a general arrangement on semi-professional lines can be arranged, and the boys will be able to enjoy all the games."

Train leaves at 1.15 p.m. and tickets are $1.25. Return

The Chippewas are slated to play in Fergus this Saturday.

Brantford will be down in force for the game on Saturday at the Island.

Three tie games have been played in the senior series of the C.L.A. this season.

F. C. Waghorne will referee the Orillia-Gravenhurst game at Orillia to-morrow.

In a junior C.L.A. match between Wingham and Clinton, the latter were successful by 10 to 4.

Brantford will run a big excursion to Toronto on Saturday for their game with the Tecumsehs at the Island.

Barney is lecturing the players after practice. He talks plain and to the point.

Although the Torontos as a team never did anything very startling, individually they are doing great work this season in the C.L.A.

Billy Murphy likes the game, and was heard to remark that he would not witness any more games from the stand.

Dodds, Leahy and Wells are moving rapidly in practice, so is Bobby Madden. They all should catch a place on Saturday.

MacKerrow, Finlayson, Nolan and Strachan are going well, and should give the Cornwall field some trouble.

The defence end ought to be materially strengthened with Billy Murphy in line.

Tack Hendry has practiced faithfully since the Shamrock game and no doubt will give a good account of himself.

Finlayson Nolan and MacKerrow will will have charge of centre field. They are a speedy lot and know all the fine points of the game.

It is to be hoped Montreal enthusiasts will accompany the team to Cornwall. Encouragement by the rooters helps the team.

The team will be picked from Hamilton, Taylor, Murphy, Haynes, Davidson, Strachan, MacKerrow, Nolan, Finlayson, Leahy, Wells, Dodd, Madden, Hendry, Marshall and Angus.

Angus is an old Tecumseh player and shows up very prominently in practice. The team will be picked on the train.

Tom Carlind is getting nervous of the result. He knows the difficult proposition Cornwall team was at home when he played on the team.

Saturday's big game between the Tecumsehs and Brantford is exciting the greatest interest. There is every probability that a record-breaking crowd will turn out for the game, which should be a mighty tussle.

There is a chance that the Chippewas will play their scheduled game of September 17, with Fergus at Brantford on Dominion Day, if satisfactory arrangements can be made. The first-named date is too late.

THE TURF

Racing at Delorimier Park.

Success again followed the efforts of the management of the Gentlemen's Driving Club yesterday, when the third day of the summer meeting at Delorimier Park saw a great crowd of enthusiastic horsemen present. There were also a large number of ladies on the grand stand.

There were two events run off—the 2.27 class and the 2.20 class. In the former the favourite—Red Pointer—disappointed his admirers, and Compton, Jr., got first money, after a big struggle against Leda Wilkes and Jim Watson. There were seven starters in all, and some of the heats both in this race and in the 2.20 were so close that the judges had to well consider their verdict before giving it. It was noticeable, however, that little fault was found with their decisions.

In the 2.20 race Velma went to the post a favourite, and though she had all that she could do in the four heats that it took to get a decision, she took first money. The day was free from accidents, and the crowd was a happy one.

How Hermis Won the Race.

New York, June 17.—More than 30,000 persons viewed the 21st running of the Suburban, the $20,000 classic. Perfect racing weather prevailed. A well played second choice, Mamie Worth, took the first event, but the second went to Seymour, at 6 to 1. The third presented a chance to plunge. It was the first half of the double event for two-year-olds, and was worth $2,000, but the public had little chance to bet, as the Bennington entry, Blandy and Song and Wine, were held at prohibitive odds, of 1 to 4. Song and Wine won nicely.

Irish Lad was installed favourite for the Suburban at 6 to 5, the pressure of offerings being so heavy that nine to ten was asked when the contestants were called to the post.

Hermis easily won. The son of Mermence was on toes when the barrier snapped. He crossed in front of six competitors from the outside, and passed the judges' stand in the lead on his journey of one and a quarter miles. He was never headed, and won, under a perfect ride, by Arthur Redfern, in the time of 2.05, the best on record for the Suburban, and two-fifths of a second slower than the track record of 2.04 3-5, held by McChesney. Irish Lad, the public favorite, failed entirely to justify the confidence of his backers, and finished third—nosed out of second honours, by The Picket.

The field was lined up and sent away in perfect order. Hermis, from outside position, shot to the front. Passing the judges' stand, he had secured the coveted place on the rail, with Irish Lad and The Picket close behind. On the racers sped around the turn, and won the back stretch—never changing position for an instant, Irish Lad challenged again and again, but to no purpose. He crept up on the flying leader repeatedly, but was unable to hold the terrific pace, much less overhaul him. The Picket ran along unconcernedly in third place until the mile post had been reached. Then he drew up and crept past the Duryea horse, inch by inch. Hermis, never touched by the whip, threw defiance out to the others in the dust from his pattering hoofs, and through the stretch he was not even challenged. The Picket nosed out Irish Lad for second money, and the great race was over, Proper, Major Daingerfield and Africander, brought up the rear.

When the crowd realized the splendid exhibition of equine worth shown by the victor it cheered him wildly, despite the fact that the bookmakers had accepted and won nearly $500,000 on the defeat of Irish Lad. Hermis was heavily backed, however, and at least one-quarter of the amount taken in on the defeat of the favourite was paid out on the winner. Summary:—

First race, 6 furlongs, on May track—Mamie Worth, 113, Burns, 9 to 5, won; Mizzen, 118, Bullman, 20 to 1, second; Reliable, 140, J. Boland, even, third. Time, 1.13 1-5. Dalesman, Lux Casta, Waswift, Jacquin, Grenade and Northern Star also ran.

THE GOLFERS

At the Beaconsfield Club.

The members of the Beaconsfield Golf Club are throwing open their links to members of sister clubs tomorrow. The lower nine hole course is in excellent condition, and a hearty welcome is extended to all brother golfers to go out as the guests of the players at Beaconsfield.

Ottawa May Not Be Here.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 17.—It is probable that Mr. R. G. Gormully will be the only Ottawa candidate for honours at the golf championships to be played in Montreal. Mr. A. Z. Palmer, it was thought would take part, but he finds time will not permit him to take in the matches, much as he would like to do so. Mr. Gormully has not yet definitely decided to play, so Ottawa may not be represented.

At Victoria Country Club.

There will be a beginners' handicap match at the Victoria Country Club on Saturday. Three prizes are offered.

BASEBALL

A Thing of Shreds and Patches.

The Montreal team yesterday was a thing of shreds and patches, and it is a wonder that Baltimore got away with them.

Hartman and Atherton were out of the game and the players were all playing positions as new to them as the well pole to a summer boarder.

Notwithstanding this they held their own like officers until the seventh when Laroy lost control for a few minutes and the result was trouble to the extent of four runs.

McManus was a little nervous at first. The team was all mixed up and out of place yesterday, but just wait until they get into line again.

With this exception the Birds appear to have put up a regular Japanese fight all through.

Buffalo got unstarched by Jersey City, and Rochester got some more of the same old stuff from Providence.

Newark and Toronto did not play in consequence of the rain, which will persist in pursuing Toronto wherever they go.

Broken Up Montreal Fought Hard.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., June 17.—For six innings Montreal patched up and battered as they were, were strictly in the hunt with the Orioles yesterday, and for the display of nerve which makes such a statement possible, Atherton's boys deserve much credit, for at the start the contest appeared a walk-over for Baltimore. But Leroy steadied down, his comrades stuck to their guns, and in the fifth came within one of tying the score. For two innings both teams bent every resource to clinch the victory, and three bunts by the Orioles at the start of their half of the seventh settled the business. These filled the bases and the two singles that followed brought four runs across the plate, putting the figures 8 to 3, where they stayed until the ninth, when Montreal added one more. Manager Atherton did not come with the team. He spent a couple of days in New York looking for strengthening material. He joined this morning and will play to-day. Hartman picked up a cinder in his eye on his travels and could not play. The two absentees made many changes in the line up, and McManus, who essayed to play first base, was not entirely successful. With two out in the first inning, he dropped a high foul which gave the batter a chance to single. The next Oriole got four balls, a wild pitch advanced both runners and another hit brought in two runs, all of which resulted from McManus' error. Leroy alone was responsible for the other pair of Oriole runs made in the third. A double, a triple and a single bunched caused the trouble. Leroy was effective enough after that for a while, and in the fifth when two singles by Clancy, Joyce and Bliss were bunched with Yeager's pass, the three runs gained caused Montreal to look dangerous. But the seventh furnished the heart-breaker. Hayden bunted, Jennings bunted and Jordan bunted, Lewis, Griffin and Kelly followed with long singles, and the game was over to all intents and purposes. In the ninth Adams singled and was helped around by Gibson's out and Leroy's single. Leroy's pitching can hardly be said to have been effective, but his support, with the exception of McManus' costly mischances was excellent.

Jersey City, June 17.—Kissinger was touched up freely yesterday, and the last year champions walked away with the game. The contest was characterized by heavy hitting. Score:

Providence, R.I., June 17.—Providence defeated the tail enders by a score of 10 to 3 in a game, the principal feature of which was the heavy hitting of the locals in the sixth innings, when five hits, aided by two errors on the part of the visitors, netted six runs. Milligan was found for eight hits, but kept them well scattered. Attendance, 1,660. Score:

Milligan Won a Game.

Milligan at last succeeded in winning a game this year, scoring his initial victory of the season for Providence and against Rochester.

Buffalo Was Hoodooed.

Clymer, the ex-Homestead player, who is occupying left field for Buffalo, Thursday made the three hits, including a three-bagger. Buffalo got it good and proper at Jersey City on Thursday. The Mosquitoes have always been a "hoodoo" for the Bisons in the New Jersey City.

New Rochester Second Baseman.

Rochester placed another man at second in the game on Thursday. The management could not stand for Brinkner, the Rochester amateur, who was signed while the Bronchos were in Buffalo.

The National baseball commission will meet at Chicago, June 22, to discuss the practice of the farming of players, which now obtains so extensively.

"The foul strike rule is what is making the hitting so light nowadays," says Mike Tiernan. "There's no doubt about it. It has the batters in the hole from the jump."

A Yale alumnus who saw the Princeton-Yale game at Princeton last Saturday says: "There was no baseball of sport about the contest. It was a boiler factory racket aimed to rattle the Yale team, and it succeeded."

The leaders in the Eastern Canadian League, the Mascottes and Ottawa meet on the Mascotte grounds the day after to-morrow. Both teams are in good shape, and a spirited contest is looked for.

The Amherst baseball team would like to hear from any clubs desirous of playing home and home games. Address all communications to Patrick Heagerty, secretary 51 Sherbrooke ave., St. Denis ward.

There have been five tie games in the American league—0—0, 11 innings; 3—3, 9 innings; two 4—4 games, each of 12 innings; 5—5, 15 innings; 6—6, 10 innings. Curiously enough, Detroit has participated in two of these five games and Washington in three.

The directors of the Toronto Baseball Club stated that there was no truth in the statement that Edward Barrow would manager the ball team for the balance of the season. Director James J. McCaffery, when asked if there was a chance of a change in the management, said Arthur Irwin would continue to manage the team until the end of the season.

Directors James McCaffery and "Pop" Burger, of the Toronto Ball Club, returned yesterday from Montreal. The attendance there at the ball games is good. Dick Harley has a badly injured thumb and should not be in the game. Rapp made a sensational catch of a line drive in Monday's game. Mr. McCaffery says he jumped 8 feet in the air to get the ball.—Toronto Star.

A wonderful week in the history of the Phillies has just passed. For the Philadelphia National League team to lose only two out of four games played in one week and to increase its percentage from .171 to .205 is a feat worth chronicling on a tablet of brass. To think of it for any length of time is enough to give one a dizzy feeling caused by a loop-the-loop voyage or a down-and-out trip. What such a remarkable record for one week presages before the season's end should cause every follower of the team to let out a whoop of delight. At any rate, it indicates progress; not much, it is true, but then all great undertakings usually have a small beginning."—Philadelphia Press.

The St. Louis Republic has this to say of the American league champions: "In the American league, Boston has shown far the best form of any of the teams that have appeared here this season. Collins' men look even better than they did last year. Just a year ago the champions were handicapped by the absence of "Chick" Stahl from the game. This season Stahl and the rest of the champions are in the game and playing better ball than they ever did. Their outfield looks stronger than any in the league, and so does their infield and pitching departments. With all these advantages in their favour, it appears as though Boston will repeat their performance of last year and win the pennant in Johnson's organization."

Leroy became a little rattled in the seventh, but otherwise kept them guessing.

"If the foul strike rule lives another season it will be despite the desire of practically every baseball player in the professional ranks, except, of course, the pitchers, and nine out of every ten fans," says the Cleveland Press. The players know that hitting is becoming a lost art, and the people who go to see games realize that the life of the sport is being crushed out by this ridiculous and odious rule. Manager Armour says: "The rule is simply killing the game; it is taking out of it the very things that people want to see, hitting and running and the magnates ought to realize that they are reducing the attendance more and more every day and every week this handicap is placed upon eight players of every team, for the sole benefit of the pitchers. Every player on the Cleveland team, except the pitchers, will hail with joy the day when the rule is killed and buried.'"

THE WHEEL

The Famous 999.

Hundreds of automobile enthusiasts and the curious flocked to the automobile station last night to gaze upon the famous "999" racer, which appears in record-breaking trials at Delorimier Park, "Jed" Newkirk, who is to drive the death daring exhibitions, was busy getting the big automobile in shape for the races. The "999" requires a lot of care and attention to keep it in shape for record breaking. There are one and a hundred things about these queer machines that may cause trouble sufficient to mar a record trial, and it is to prevent all this that Newkirk works half his time on his pet. "999" is perhaps the most interesting piece of machinery, if it may be called machinery, that has ever been in Montreal. The engines occupy the front of the frame and surrounded by huge water tanks, gasolene tanks, water cooling apparatus, and pipes and electrical batteries and wires, the automaton seems to be one of half a dozen species of mechanical skill. There is but one speed to the great machine. The minimum is forty miles an hour and the exhaust is so loud that it resembles the cannonading of half a dozen battleships in action. It can not be run on the streets, but must be towed by another machine to the track and depots. The record for the "999" over a straightaway course is 39 2-5 seconds or nearly 93 miles an hour. The record for a mile on this track is 55 seconds and this is the most exciting and hair-raising portion of the sport. Only locomotive engineers and those who have ridden on railway engines when taking curves not half so sharp as a mile track, at not half the speed of the "999" can realize what it means to the daring driver who is forcing his nerve against the desire for gold. Six drivers of the "999" have been killed in trying to handle the monster at a mile a minute gait on a track. Besides the exhibitions of the "999" at Delorimier, there will be several races for all classes of pleasure automobiles and the entries are being looked after by the secretary at 13 St. Lambert Hill. There are already twenty entries in the different races.

AQUATICS

Dominion Day Canoe Regatta.

FURTHER FALLING OF IN EXPORTS.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, June 17.—A Globe's Ottawa despatch says: "The official returns for the eleven months ending May 31, shows Canada's aggregate foreign trade to be $407,165,145, an increase of $5,091,248 over the same period of the year previous. The imports for the eleven months were $220,750,180, and the exports of domestic product only $174,291,791. In 1903 the imports were $202,705,294 and the exports of domestic products $189,375,624. The decrease in the exports is mainly in animals and their products, and agricultural products, cheese, butter and bacon. The price of these commodities has fallen off greatly, and it would appear that shippers are holding back from export in the hope of higher prices. The tie-up on the lakes also is believed to have greatly hampered the export business. As an illustration of this, it is claimed that vessels at Montreal are so hard up for a cargo that they are taking wheat for one cent a bushel. From Boston they are said to be carrying cargoes of wheat free."

[ST]ORY OF JAPANESE AT TELISSU WAS DECISIVE

[R]ussians Were Completely Routed and Lost Fourteen Guns—There Was Great Carnage—Thirty Russian Officers Fell in an Effort to Save the Colours.

Tokio, June 17. — The Russian hope of relieving the pressure on Port Arthur by threatening the rear of General Oku, the commander of the Japanese forces investing the Russian stronghold, came to an end yesterday at Telissu, a point on the railway 50 miles north of Kin-Chou, and 25 miles north of Vafangow, when the Russians were outmanoeuvred, enveloped and sweepingly defeated. They left more than 500 dead on the field, and the Japanese captured 300 prisoners and 14 quick-firing field guns. The Russians retreated hastily to the northward.

The Japanese charge that the Russians violated the Japanese flag. Certain officers aver that during the fighting a body of Russian soldiers appeared, carrying a Japanese flag, and that the Japanese artillery, deceived by this flag, ceased firing on that particular body of Russians. Official despatches from the Japanese commanders made specific charges of this flag violation.

Early estimates of the Japanese losses at Telissu say that 1,000 men were killed or wounded.

The Japanese attacking force was divided in right and left columns, and began the advance on Tuesday along both sides of the railway. They encountered the Russians east of Vafangden and drove them back. At a late hour in the afternoon the Russians held a line between Tung-Wang-Tiao and Ta-Fang-Shen. The Japanese artillery opened on this line and the Russians responded. The shelling continued for two hours, and it was followed by the advance of the Japanese to a position extending from Tung-Chia-Tung to Yo-Hotun. Darkness put an end to the fighting. The Japanese despatched a column to the westward towards Fu-Chau, for the purpose of covering the Russian right wing and to protect their left and rear.

During the night it became apparent that the Russians were being reinforced, and it was decided to make a general attack in the morning and force the Russians into a defile back of Telissu.

When morning came it was discovered that the Russians held a line extending from Ta-Fang-Shen to Sheng-Tsu-Shan, with a force estimated at more than two divisions.

The Japanese planned to envelope the Russians near Telissu, and they succeeded admirably.

While the main Japanese force was moving north along the railway, columns were swung to the left and to the right, and finally converged at noon on the main Russian position. The Russians in this position were at a disadvantage, but they held with determination until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. At this hour they were routed. The Japanese cavalry continued to pursue the enemy and inflicted considerable punishment.

The Japanese commander makes no estimate of the Russian losses, but says they were probably great.

Among the Russian officers captured by the Japanese is the colonel of the Fourth Regiment of Rifles.

OFFICIAL ADVICES.

Washington, June 17.—The Japanese Legation has received the following sablegram from Tokio dated yesterday:

"General Oku reports that on June 14 our main body advanced northward in two columns along the railway, expelling the enemy from the east of Wafangtien. At 5 p.m. the enemy made a stand on the railway line between Lungwangmiao and Tafangshen, and after two hours' cannonading we occupied at nightfall the line between Pangchiatou and Yuhotun. Another column, for menacing the enemy's right and covering out flank and rear, marched eastward of Foo-Chow and advanced upon the line between Tengchiak and Nachlaling. The enemy near Lungwangmiao was reinforced. On June 15 the enemy, near Telissu, consisted of two and a half divisions, occupying the position between Tafangshen and Chengtsushan. At dawn we opened attack and our main body advanced along the railway, one column marching from Tsouchiaton. At 9 a.m. the left wing of the column was joined by the forces from Tungtungkow, and at noon by cavalry from Chiachiaton. Thus the enemy was surrounded by our forces near Telissu, and after severe fighting they were routed and fled northward at 3 p.m. Our losses are estimated under one thousand. So far as known, we captured red colors, fourteen quick-firers and about 300 of the enemy, including the commander of the Fourth Infantry Regiment of Sharpshooters. Over 500 of the enemy's killed and wounded were left on the battlefield. Our scouts s[aw] the enemy marching with Japanese flags in this engagement, by which our artillery was misled and suspended fire."

RUSSIANS ADMIT DEFEAT.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following telegram dated June 16, from General Kuropatkin:

"I have received the following despatch from Lieut.-General Baron Stakelberg, dated June 16, 1.20 a.m.:

"Yesterday I had intended to attack the enemy's right flank, but just as our troops had been assigned for the purpose and were beginning to successfully envelope the enemy's right flank, the Japanese in their turn attacked my right flank with superior forces, and I was compelled to retreat by three roads to the north.

"'Our losses are heavy, but they are not yet completely known.

"'During the engagement the third and fourth batteries of the First Artillery Brigade were literally cut to pieces by the Japanese shells.

"'Of our 16 guns 13 were rendered completely useless, and were abandoned.

"'The conduct of the troops was excellent, a large proportion of them refusing to retire until after they had been repeatedly ordered to do so.'"

All the accounts received here of the battle at Telissu state that there was great carnage. When a Russian flag was captured thirty officers fell attempting to defend it.

AS VIEWED IN LONDON.

London, June 17. — Without in the least detracting from the achievements of the Japanese in their third successive victorious battle, it is pointed out here that their success was only partial, because they did not attain their apparent object of surrounding and destroying General Stakelberg's army, which result would doubtless have been secured if they had been able to turn the Russian left flank instead of the right. The consensus of opinion here is that the Japanese forces at Siuyen will endeavour to cut off the Russian retreat, turning the defeat into a disaster, but there is no definite news that such a movement has been made.

SIU YEN TAKEN AGAIN.

Tokio, June 17. — A detachment of the army under Gen. Kuroki captured the town of Siu Yen on Sunday, after routing and defeating a force of 300 Russians and 300 mounted Chinese bandits. The enemy retired toward the Tao River, leaving behind them three dead and two wounded men, belonging to the 15th East Siberian Regiment. The total of their losses is not known.

The Japanese sustained no casualties. This is the first actual report of the Chinese bandits fighting with Russian troops and it may mean that the Russians have enlisted large numbers of these irregulars.

Women and Subjects of Interest to Women.

HER DAILY TRIALS

Emily, who has behaved so well lately that there have been none of her misdeeds to chronicle, was asked out to have luncheon with a small friend the other day, and, owing to the new reputation for goodness she had recently established, was allowed to accept.

Emily, of course, went early, and the morning was spent in the nursery in company with dolls and tin soldiers, and all the other inventions devised to keep small girls and well behaved, out of mischief.

Emily, however, had behaved so well for so long, that she got restless and finally announced her intention of going home. Her small hostess begged her to stay and with tears and other methods, including the offer of a new toy, tried to carry her point. Emily, however, was adamant. Go home she would, and in spite of her little friend's wailing she put on her hat to go home.

On the stairs she encountered the mother of her hostess who said in surprise: "Why, Emily, where are you going. I thought you would stay and have lunch with my little girl."

Emily, not willing to confess that she was tired of the company she was in, attempted to be diplomatic. "We're going to have alphabet soup at our house to-day, an that's a dreadful good way to learn your letters."

The other child who had by this time recovered somewhat from her tears, cried: "Let her go home, Mamma, and I'll have all the more ice-cream for myself."

For a moment Emily was nonplussed, then she rose to the occasion. "If you don't mind, I'll go home and take my soup, and then come here for dessert," and the joke is that that's exactly what Emily did.

TO-DAY'S RECIPE.

For devilled eggs for the picnic luncheon basket put the eggs in cold water to cover and bring to a boil; then push back on the range closely covered and let them stand in the hot water for twenty minutes; when ready to use them throw off the hot water and turn cold water over them; then peel; as fast as the shell is taken off cut each egg in two with a sharp knife; take out the yolks, put in a bowl and lay the halves together on a platter, so that they do not get separated. When all the yolks have been removed mash fine with a fork and season with salt, pepper, mayonnaise or, in place of the mayonnaise, a little melted butter and a tiny bit of made mustard or chopped pickle. The yolk mixture should be moist enough to pack nicely. Now return some of the seasoned yolk to each half of egg, press the halves together without letting the white of the egg get "mussy" and skewer together with little wooden toothpicks. Two for each person is sufficient. Variations in the seasoning of the yolks may be made by using a little whipped cream with them, a seasoning of cheese or a few spoonfuls of ground or chopped nuts.

A WOMAN ABOUT TOWN

The other evening Selina read me a pretty little story which seemed to me full of human nature. A mother said to her small daughter: "Are you a good little girl to-day?" "No, mamma," was the reply, "not veddy good, not veddy bad—just a comferablea little girl."

What an eminently sensible thing to be—just comfortable! We all know persons who are uncomfortably good—uncomfortable to themselves and uncomfortable to those with whom they come in contact. Excessive piety is as unpleasant to live with as a porcupine. On the other hand, an extreme of badness is worse. Not a bad motto, "not veddy good, not veddy bad—just comferable," which means, in short, a perpetual struggling against weaknesses, a strong leaven of humanity, and an all-forgiving love towards others.

We were lunching the other day with some friends, and after lunch, when we had gone upstairs to gather up our belongings, we chanced to look out of the window.

An extraordinary sight met our eyes—a pink of perfection of back-yards—the sort of back-yard one reads about and hears about, but seldom sees.

Down below was the little plot of ground with a square of green turf, surrounded by a narrow footpath. In the centre of the green was a beautiful clump of the old-fashioned bleeding-heart, all in flower. In one corner was a white lilac tree, its glory over for the year, but still furnishing a curtain of leaves to cut off ugly distances. On the opposite side was a syringa bush, a mass of light and sweetness.

By the fence on one side was a trellis for sweet peas, still mere shoots, and on the other, strings for the climbing nasturtium. When space and time are considerations, there is nothing more satisfactory than the perpetually flowering, gay, little nasturtium.

In a shady nook was a bed of lily-of-the-valley, and here and there were geraniums, and the rubber plants and palms of the winter, potted out to revive under the summer sun and rains.

From previous experience I knew that the owner of this oasis in the desert of back-yards not only kept house and table supplied with flowers all the summer and autumn, but was even able to treat less fortunate or energetic neighbours to an occasional bouquet.

From this yard our eyes travelled to the next. What a contrast! The same space of ground, but instead of freshness and immaculate neatness, it was a revolting muddle of ashes, papers, tomato cans, all sorts of horrible things whose proper place was in the garbage barrels.

This is no story I am inventing for your delectation. It is a sight that was actually seen from a city window, and if you search hard enough, no doubt you will see it, too.

Mingled with envy and admiration of our friend's little garden was indignation that she should be compelled to have such an eyesore as the next yard right under her eyes and have no adequate means of redress.

MY GARDEN.

A garden is a lovely thing, God wot!
Rose plot,
Fringed pool,
Fern'd pool.
The veriest school
Of peace; and yet the fool
Contends that God is not—
Not God! in gardens! when the eve is cool?
Nay, but I have a sign;
'Tis very sure God walks in mine.

CHAPTER XVI.—(Continued.)

"No, Rita," said her cousin; "I have fasted too often on the Pampas not to know the folly of eating too heavily. I will be all right now, especially when Mr. Brett produces the whiskey he spoke about."

The barrister brought a decanter from the dining-room. The stranger was still an enigma. He placed bottle and glass on the table, wondering to what extent the man would help himself.

The quantity was small and well diluted. So this member of the family was not a drunkard.

How did you come to be in such a state?" asked Margaret nervously. "It is hardly six months since I sent you £500; not a very large sum, I admit, but all you asked me for, and more than enough to live on for a much longer period."

Robert laughed pleasantly. It was the first token of returning confidence. He reached for a cigar, and sought Margaret's permission to smoke.

"My dear girl," he answered, "I am really a very unfortunate person. I own a hundred thousand acres of the best land in South America, and I have been in England nearly two years trying to raise capital to develop it. If I owned a salted reef or an American brewery I could have got the money for the asking. Because my stock-raising proposition is a sound paying concern, requiring a delay of at least three years before a penny of profit can be realized, I have worn my boots out in climbing up and down office stairs to no purpose. Out of your £500, nearly £400 went out at once to pay arrears of Government taxation to save my property. Of the remaining hundred I spent fifty in a fortnight on dinners and suppers given to a gang of top-hatted scoundrels, who, I found subsequently, were not worth a red cent. They hoped to fleece me in some way, and their very association discredited me in the eyes of one or two honest men. Oh, I have had a bad time of it, I can assure you!"

"Why did you not write to me again?"

He looked at her steadily before he explained:

"Because you are a woman."

"What has that got to do with it? I am your relative, and rich. How much do you want? If your scheme is really sound, I imagine my solicitors might sanction my co-operation."

Again he hesitated.

"Thank you, Rita. You are a good sort. But I am not here on a matter of high finance. I want you to lend me, say, £250. I will return to the Argentine, and take twenty years to accomplish what I could do in five with the necessary capital."

"Come and see me in the morning. The sum you name is absurdly small, in any case. Perhaps Mr. Brett will accompany you. His advice will be useful to both of us. Come early. I leave here to-morrow."

"Going away! Where to?"

"To Whitby, in Yorkshire."

"Well, that is curious," said Robert, who clearly did not like to question her about her husband.

"Mr. Capella is in Naples," she added. "I cannot say when he will return."

Her cousin's look was eloquent of his thoughts. He did not like the Italian, for some inexplicable reason, for to Margaret's knowledge they had never met.

The barrister naturally did not interfere in this family conclave. He listened intently, and had already drawn several inferences from the man's words. For the life of him he man's words. For the life of him he could not classify Robert Hume-Frazer. The man was either a consummate scoundrel, the cold-blooded murderer of Margaret's brother, or a maligned and ill-used man.

Within a few minutes he would be called upon to treat him in one category or the other. A few questions might elucidate matters considerably.

The hiatus in the conversation created by the mention of Capella gave him an opportunity.

"Did you endeavour to raise the requisite capital for your estate in London only?" he enquired.

"No; I tried elsewhere," was the quick rejoinder.

"Here, for instance, on the New Year's Eve before last?"

"Now, how the blazes did you learn that?" came the fierce demand, the speaker's excitement rendering him careless of the words he used.

"It is true, then?"

"Yes, but—"

"Robert!—" Margaret's voice was choking, and her face was woefully white once more—"were you—here—when Alan—was killed?"

"No, not exactly. This thing bewilders me. Let me explain. I saw him that afternoon. We had a furious quarrel. I never told you about it, Rita. It was a family matter. I do not hold you responsible. I—"

"Hold me responsible! What do you mean? Did you kill my brother?"

She rose to her feet. Her eyes seemed to peer into his soul. He, too, rose and faced her.

"By God!" he cried, "this is too much! Why didn't you ask your husband that question?"

"Because my husband, with all his faults, is innocent of that crime. He was with me in London the night that Alan met his death."

"And I, too, was in London. I left Stowmarket at six o'clock."

Having reached the place at 2.20?" interposed Brett.

The other turned to him with eager pleading.

"In Heaven's name, Mr. Brett, if you know all about my movements that day disabuse Margaret's mind of the terrible idea that prompted her question."

"Why did you come here on that occasion?"

"The truth must out now. My two uncles swindled my father—that is, Margaret, your father led my Uncle David with him in a most unjust proceeding. My father took up some risky business in city finance, on the verbal understanding with his brothers that they would share profits or bear losses equally. The speculation failed, and your father basely withdrew from the compact, persuading the other brother to follow his lead. Perhaps there may have been some justification for his action, but my poor old dad was very bitter about it. The affair killed him. I made my own way in the world, and came here to ask Alan to undo the wrong done years ago, and help me to get on my feet. He was not in the best of tempers, and we fell out badly, using silly recriminations. I went back to London, and next day travelled to Monto Carlo, where I lost more money than I could afford. Believe me, I never even knew of Alan's death until I saw the reports of Davie's trial."

"Why did you not come forward then?"

"Why? No man could have better reasons. First, it seemed to me that Davie had killed him. Then, when the second trial ended, I came to the conclusion—Lord help my wits—that there was some underhanded work about the succession to the property, and my doubts appeared to receive confirmation by the news of Margaret's marriage. In any case, if I turned up to give evidence, I could only have helped to hang one of my own relatives."

TO CUTICURA

The World Is Cuticura's Field, Used Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

"I desire to give my voluntary testimony to the beneficial effects of your Cuticura Remedies. I have suffered for some time from an excess of uric acid in the blood; and since the middle of last year, from a severe attack of Eczema, chiefly on the scalp, face, ears and neck and on one limb. I was for several months under professional treatments, but the remedies prescribed were of no avail, and I was gradually becoming worse, my face was dreadfully disfigured and I lost nearly all my hair. At last, my wife prevailed upon me to try the Cuticura Remedies and gave them a thorough trial with the most satisfactory results. The disease soon began to disappear and my hair commenced to grow again. A fresh growth of hair is covering my head and my limb (although not yet quite cured) is gradually improving. My wife thinks so highly of your remedies that she has been purchasing them in order to make presents to other persons suffering from similar complaints, and as President of the Bible Women's Society, has told the Bible women to report if any case should come under their notice when a poor person is so afflicted, so that your remedies may be resorted to."

DUNDONALD'S WORK IN CANADA.

The dismissing of Lord Dundonald threatens to practically ruin a very comprehensive scheme for the reorganization of the Canadian militia. We are disposed to give Sir Frederick Borden full credit for an earnest desire, combined with great energy and a considerable capacity to bring the Department of Militia into a condition of practical efficiency. But it is no discredit to Sir Frederick to say that for a work of this kind he is not the equal of Lord Dundonald; and notwithstanding the able defence put up by the Minister of Militia, for his blundering colleague, the Minister of Agriculture, he must feel that the work of reorganization will be seriously embarrassed by the formal recognition of the supremacy of "the responsible Minister from the district" in military matters. It is not Sydney Fisher alone, but every member of the Cabinet, who will have the right to meddle in the affairs of the Department of Militia, and handicap the Minister who is charged with the responsibility of its administration.

Lord Dundonald came here with a brilliant military record; with a great admiration for our citizen soldiers, of whom he had had experience in South Africa; and with a singularly strong preference for a system of citizen soldiery over all other systems for the defence of Canada. He was intensely enthusiastic in his work, because he believed that an efficient militia force was essential to Canada's peace and honour. Addressing the Canadian Club at Ottawa, he said:

"Gentlemen, when brother ceases to fight with brother about the inheritance they receive from a dead father, when injustice and wrong-doing have ceased in the land, when we require no police, when human nature is changed, when that time has arrived, then we may hope for the dealing of nation with nation being conducted on the lines of a just and equitable compromise, and until that day arrives, to command respect in international councils, there must be a knowledge that behind all argument and conciliation, there are the rifles of an armed, an organized and a patriotic people."

There never lived a soldier more free from sectional, caste, or professional prejudice. His every utterance shows that from the moment he landed in Canada he identified himself thoroughly with the Canadian people. His ideal for the militia was an organization that should combine the utmost efficiency as a fighting force, with the least possible expense and the least interference with the civil occupations of the people." He urged perfect organization in time of peace. He declared it folly to depend on enrolling masses of men after war is declared. Arms, equipment, clothing, ammunition must always be ready for the many thousands of willing men who would come forward in time of need; and above all there must be plenty of well-trained officers and non-commissioned officers to handle the volunteers. He declared as a result of his own observation and experience that quite raw troops could be made into good and steady soldiers in a wonderfully short time if led by competent officers."

And this is the man who is accused of trying to "dragoon" Canada, who is stigmatised as a "foreigner" and whom the intelligent editor of one Government organ refers to repeatedly as "His Pipeclayship!"

We are quite sure that Lord Dundonald would be the last to wish that the great scheme of militia reorganization should suffer through his retirement. It is the duty of every patriotic Canadian to do whatever he can to minimise the mischief done to the Canadian militia by the meddlesome impertinence of Mr. Fisher and by the deliberate introduction of the patronage system into military affairs in Canada. The Dominion will be fortunate indeed, if it secures the services of a man half as well qualified as Lord Dundonald to continue the work he had undertaken.

THE WAR SITUATION.

The fact that General Lavroff, commander of the fortress at Vladevostok, has issued an order warning civilians to make immediate preparations to send their families into the interior, shows that the Russians expect the centre of interest in the war to be transferred very soon to Vladivostok. They evidently do not expect Port Arthur to hold out much longer; for it cannot be imagined that the Japs will attempt to capture Vladivostok before Port Arthur is disposed of.

The attempt to relieve Port Arthur by attacking the Japanese besiegers in the rear has failed and it will not be surprising if the effort should result in a disaster of the first magnitude to the Russian army which attempted the impossible.

It is gratifying to see a St. Petersburg paper, the Novosti, speaking in most favourable terms of the negotiations proceeding between the Russian and British Governments. The Novosti pronounces the danger of the Yellow Peril in the Orient very great, but expresses confidence that Great Britain and Russia together will be able to settle it.

FILTER THE WATER.

The City Council might take notice of the fact that negotiations are in progress between the Montreal Water and Power Company and the suburban municipalities for supplying the people of those places with filtered water at as low a price or a lower price than the people of Montreal are now supplied with unfiltered water. Some of the aldermen showed a good deal of interest in the water question just before the civic elections and have not shown much interest in it since. Montreal ought to be supplied with as good water and as cheap water as any place in the world. Moreover, there is no other city in which a filtration system seems to be so necessary as in Montreal. Whatever faults there are in the water are almost entirely such as can be removed by filtration. Montreal water when filtered is of exceptionally good quality. Unfiltered, at many times of the year, it is not fit for a horse to drink. The Montreal Water and Power Company is to be commended for taking the means it has now adopted for settling the grievances of the suburbanites in connection with the water question. A thoroughly pure water supply would, we are convinced, do more than anything else to reduce the death rate both in the city and in the outlying municipalities.

PARTY AND THE CONSTITUTION.

The Toronto News well draws the distinction between party politics as practised in Great Britain, and as practised here in the following words:

"It may be said that the party system is rigorously maintained in the Mother Country. So it is. But no one defends electoral corruption on the floor of Parliament; no British journal teaches the doctrine of comparative political honesty and justifies one piece of party rascality by another from the records of the Opposition; no minister who abuses a public trust, or infringes upon the code of public honour, finds defenders in the press, in the Parliament, or in the Cabinet."

Yes, that is about the size of it. The party system can exist without the worst abuses that are fastened on it in certain communities. In Great Britain, there is party machinery, but it is not used for grinding the souls of the electors; it is used almost wholly for what may be called educational campaign purposes. There is no system of local bribery, and personal bribery is to-day almost wholly unknown. There is no stuffing of ballot boxes. There are no experts who undertake to train poll clerks in the dishonest manipulation of ballots. The voter in the Old Country has a soul of his own. He may have party sympathies, but he is not a party slave. And as is the elector so is the member who represents him. He does not consent to make himself an automatic voting machine. He votes with his party as long as he can, but he remains capable of drawing a line beyond which he will not yield his individual convictions. Errors may be committed, and men may sometimes hear too long with the divagations of their leaders, but a sense of the national interest dominates every political situation; party is not allowed to have the last, as well as the first, word.

It is not so here; party has the first word, and it also has the last. The average politician is, it seems, incapable of conceiving that he can have any higher obligation than to vote as he is bidden to vote. All responsibility is taken off his shoulders the moment the whip has spoken. Yet he claims to represent a constituency. Why should he sit in Parliament at all? Why could not his leader hold his proxy? Ah, perhaps he could not decently draw his sessional allowance in that case or get his trunk of stationery. That, of course, is a consideration, but the difficulty might be got over. The thinking men of Canada should really reflect on the situation. They either want representative government or they don't. One thing is clear—they are not getting it now. If they want it, they must shake off, each man for himself, the tyranny of party, and labour to infuse into those around them the spirit of freemen. Otherwise the process of atrophy, which has already attacked the most vital parts of the constitution, will go on till, of our boasted political liberty, nothing is left but the name.

Huntingdon Gleaner.

(Independent Liberal.)

It has been announced that an order-in-council was adopted on Tuesday relieving Lord Dundonald of his position. This is an insult to a brave man, who stands as the representative of the British army in our midst. That his blunt, straightforward way of performing his duties was not exactly in the line of constitutional usage may be conceded, but his irregularities, committed in his zeal for what he believed to be in the interests of the uniform he wore, ought to have been ignored. Were there a scintilla of the spirit of chivalry among the occupants of the ministerial benches his indiscreet remarks at the club dinner in Montreal would have been allowed to pass without notice, if for no other reason than that he who uttered them is a man who deserves well at the hands of his country—a man who, in the hour of gloom and disaster, led the way to victory and, at the peril of his life, restored lustre to British arms. By his dismissal this gallant soldier has been insulted, but his dismissal bears no taint of disgrace and we would be sorry were he to blame Canada for an act her people are ashamed of.

THIS DATE THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Through the representations of Mr. Ibbotson, of the Provincial Emigration Department, His Worship the Mayor has placed the Quebec Gate Barracks at the disposal of the Department for the temporary accommodation of poor immigrants.

THE LATE Dr. Aldis Bernard was the Mayor at the time mentioned, and was well known for the great interest he always took in those coming to our shores to establish a new home. In this he was ably assisted on all occasions by the late Mr. Ibbotson, the emigration agent for the Provincial Government. Both gentlemen passed away many years ago.

Notice is given that the Corporation has officially notified the trustees of the Mount Royal Cemetery to remove all the remains of the dead, in the old Protestant burying ground, Dorchester street, with the least possible delay.

THE SITE of the old graveyard is now a public square, called after Lord Dufferin, the then Governor-General. There was intense feeling aroused at the time among the Protestant community at the action of the Corporation, and indignation meetings were held, denouncing the sacrilege, by those having relatives and friends buried there. Several large petitions were sent to the City Council, but all to no purpose. The remains of the founder of McGill College were, like the rest, taken up and re-interred in front of the main building of the University.

Mr. Jenkins has just published in pamphlet form the lecture which he last year delivered in the United States and Canada entitled "Inner England." We notice that the criticisms of the London press fully bear out the opinion we expressed the day following Mr. Jenkins' debut in this city.

THE CRITICS in London, Eng., most certainly handled the author of Ginx's Baby" without gloves. Mr. E. Jenkins was Canada's Agent-General at the time, and represented Dundee in the British House of Commons in February of 1874 while on his lecturing tour. He was educated at the High School in this city and McGill College. He resigned his appointment as Agent-General in 1876. He is a member of the British Bar, to which he was called in 1864.

Mr. DeCosmos, of British Columbia, is in town and a guest at the St. Lawrence Hall. To a Star reporter this morning, he said there is no truth in the rumour that he is shortly to go to England, either on private or public business.

THE LATE Hon. Amor DeCosmos was for some years engaged in journalism before entering the House of Commons for Victoria, B. C. He had been actively engaged in political warfare from his arrival in British Columbia in 1858, and was a hard hitter and good hustings speaker.

The distribution of awards to the scholars attending Prince Arthur school, who had successfully passed the required examinations, took place this morning, Mr. William Lunn, member of the Board of Protestant School Commissioners, in the chair.

THE LATE Mr. Lunn was connected with the Board of Protestant School Commissioners for over thirty years as the secretary-treasurer. He took a very deep interest in the education of the young, and was one of the original founders of the old High School. He also aided in establishing the first school of the Board on the corner of Cote and Lagauchetiere streets. He passed away many years ago, after a long and useful life in the cause of education.

Three Electrocutions Necessary.

Columbus, O., June 17. — Michael Schiller, a wife-murderer of Youngstown, was electrocuted in the annex at the Ohio Penitentiary, early this morning. Twice Schiller was pronounced dead, but was not until the third shock had been applied that life became extinct.

The man who wants to save money and also be insured should write for particulars of the Premium Endowment plan of The National Life of Canada. Reliable agents wanted. Head office Temple Building, Toronto, Ont.

Special Notice.

Never Sign a Note.

When people are buying a piano on long installments they usually sign a contract which is ample security for the piano. Many firms, however, are not satisfied with this, but ask the customer to sign a note as well. Should the note ever pass into the hands of a third party the customer might have to pay twice over. This has actually occurred more than once. Sign the agreement or the note, but never sign both. We ask for no notes ourselves. C. W. Lindsay, Limited, 2366 St. Catherine street. 142 4

HE WILL NOT BE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Earl Grey Has Definitely Decided Not to Accept Post.

FAVOUR LORD STRATHCONA

Anglo-Canadians Believe the High Commissioner Would Make An Ideal Appointee.

Special Cable from our London Correspondent.

London, June 17.—Earl Grey tells his friends definitely that he is not going to Canada. Those who know Earl Grey are not sorry. They say he made an excellent administrator in Rhodesia, but Rhodesia is not self-governing. Earl Grey is pushful and determined to get his own way, and the Dundonald incident suggests that such a man, however well-intentioned and well-equipped, might find Ottawa impossible just now.

LORD STRATHCONA FAVOURED.

Hopes are still expressed in influential Anglo-Canadian quarters here that Lord Strathcona, who knows the exact limitations of the Governorship, can be prevailed upon to crown his career by the acceptance of the post. His personal difficulty is the possible embarrassment arising from the precedent of appointing a Canadian, but it is felt that his case is quite exceptional.

WINDERMERE.

THE PASSING HOUR.

Let us have them all, Sydney, "without any equivocation whatever."

The streets still continue to be passable for street cars and clouds of dust.

Wonder whose doing the most worrying about his "job"—Dundonald or Fisher.

After this, the watchword in Nova Scotia will be: "Put no militiamen on the voters' lists."

"Adequate protection," sniffs Sir Wilfrid. "What's the matter with my well-drilled majority?"

The Libs. don't see how the Conservatives can have the nerve to eat banquets while they have to dine off "crow."

The Government are going to take the last private members' day. Then what, oh what, is to become of the anti-cigarette bill?

If the British press had a chart to Sydney Fisher's thinking apparatus, it would understand this Dundonald business better.

Kemp, of East Toronto, apparently thinks that sackcloth and ashes should be put on the "freelist" for the use of the Government.

Did you notice that that Privy Council memorandum dismissing Dundonald was not treated as "confidential" to any alarming extent?

Mr. R. L. Borden was presented with two cabinets on Thursday, and it may not be long before the country will ask him to chose another.

A great deal of the time of the ministers of the Crown is taken up in explaining that when they said samething they meant something else.

Westmount is going to have its water filtered, which, being interpreted, means that the wary Westmounter will have to get a new excuse for ordering his drinking material in bottles.

The American visitor has begun to appear in town with his ready laugh for the great Canadian joke, which consists in insisting that Canada does not pay heavy tribute to the British Government.

It was exceedingly wise of this Government to get a law passed which provided an alternative for them when the British Government should get tired of giving it Dundonalds for Fishers to "break."

Militiamen cannot speak out in defence of Dundonald without being "guilty of insubordination," so the Government thinks that it has the militia of Canada neatly "bottled up." But there may be a sortie on polling day.

The Liberal Huntingdon Gleaner has opinions of a man named Cartwright. Not only do Sir Richard's political opponents deride him, but, according to the Gleanor, he is despised generally. The verdict is harsh, but the Cartwright record as set forth seems to call for it.

"Who's got our hats?" is the by word to-day in a crowd of well-known business men. They had a little game last night, and when they started for home at four a.m. there was only one hat on the rack. Nor was there another in the house, except some bedecked with flowers, fruit and feathers, and these would not do. So the whole party drove near to the home of one of them in Dominion square and there they fitted themselves out and went home. Meanwhile they are wondering how many friends saw that bareheaded party as they drove through the streets.

"Now I Hear You."

Father O'Halloran had a telephone put into the parsonage in connection with the church, the parochial school, etc. Patrick McFee, his reverence's handy man, was instructed in the use of the instrument and it was only the next day when Pat, dusting out the church, heard the clatter of the telephone bell. Taking down the receiver he was pleased to hear Father O'Halloran's familiar voice asking him something or other about his work. Pat, in essaying to answer remembered that his reverence was a long way off, and Pat consequently hollered into the transmitter at the top of his voice. "I don't understand you, Patrick," said the telephone. Pat tried again, with no better success. On his third trial he came near splitting the telephone; but again came Father O'Halloran's voice, "I can't hear what you're saying, Patrick." Pat had by this time lost something of his patience, and as he stood gathering breath for a fourth blast he couldn't refrain from soliloquizing in a low tone, "Ah! may the divil fly away wid the ould fool." But Pat dropped the telephone like a hot potato and fell to his knees in dismay when he heard Father O'Halloran's voice once again. "Now I hear you perfectly Patrick."—Boston Evening Transcript.

WHAT WAS THE POPULATION?

"For the last year," said the registrar, "the birth-rate in Marton-cum-Chorley was one in 35, and the death-rate one in 40. But during the year five persons emigrated, and the population remains the same as at the beginning of the year."

What was the population?

The explanation of yesterday's problem, "How did he do it?" is that Smithfield bowled out the ninth batsman with the last ball of the first over and the tenth with the first ball of the second over. The batting side then followed on, and Smithfield took the first wicket with the first ball of the next over.

THE CONSERVATIVES AND ALD. AMES

Banquet to the Candidate for St. Antoine Yesterday.

MR. R. L. BORDEN PRESENT

Conservative Leader Makes Reference to Dundonald Affair—Ald. Ames Propounds a Policy.

Ald. H. B. Ames, the Conservative candidate in St. Antoine division, was last evening honoured by a complimentary banquet by the Sir John A. Macdonald Club. The function took place at La Corona Hotel, and was a success in every respect. The repast provided was of excellent variety, the service was perfect, and the speeches were of a high order.

Ald. Ames' address was worthy of the man. He spoke with conviction, and his sentiments towards the gentleman who is indicated as his opponent are equally honourable to both of them. Mr. R. L. Borden, M. P., came from Ottawa, with Messrs. F. D. Monk, M.P., and Rufus H. Pope, M.P., to do honour to the guest of the evening. The Conservative leader, after laying down once more the principles of the party which he leads with such distinction, referred briefly to the Dundonald-Fisher incident. His remarks on that subject were brief and moderate, but the contrast between the reception of the names of Lord Dundonald and Mr. Sydney Fisher showed clearly that in the gathering the Minister of Agriculture was far from popular.

Mr. Jos. H. Jacob, the active secretary of the club, upon whom fell the greater portion of the preparations of the banquet, was the busiest man last night. He carefully attended to the comfort of all present, and much of the success of the affair is due to his efforts.

THE DINERS.

Mr. M. C. Foley presided, having on his right the guest of the evening, Ald. H. B. Ames, Hon. L. O. Taillon, Mr. Rufus Pope, M.P., S. O. Shorey, Ald. St. Denis, S. Bagg, B. A. Macnab, while Mr. R. L. Borden, M.P., F. D. Monk, M.P., J. G. H. Bergeron, ex-M. P., Mayor Laporte, Edgar Judge and C. A. McDonnell, sat on the left.

The three vice-chairs were occupied by Messrs. James Crankshaw, S. W. Ewing and C. P. Beaubien.

Among those about the other tables were:—Arthur Johnson, J. T. R. Hicks, W. R. Morson, R. George Hood, Wm. St. Pierre, D. F. Johnson, M. Markus, W. H. Baker, Thomas Sonne, P. Wright, J. H. Walker, C. N. Armstrong, George A. Mooney, Alexander Thomson, Cecil T. Gorden, B. McNally, Joseph Horsfall, George MacDonald, Robert Meighen, E. J. O'Connor, M.D., J. M. Hicks, Leslie H. Gault, H. J. Trihey, F. Lecky, Thos. J. Griffin, F. J. Curran, Ald. Turner, Ald. T. Robertson, R. V. Onslow, Ald. Ekers, Ald. J. B. Clearihue, Ald. S. D. Vallieres, G. Herbert Simpson, R. Macdonald, J. Ernest Hutcheson, N. Lamleux, E. W. Villeneuve, J. J. Charbonneau, F. C. Lecavalier, W. P. Downey, F. J. Travers, Port Hope; Omer Chaput, L. J. Dastous, Ulderic Tremblay, R. C. R. Travers, W. Blanchet, F. G. Foley, L. B. Houle, D. McL. Brophy, E. J. Kirkwood, W. Tetrault, jr.; J. M. Fortier, A. W. Cochrane, D. S. Friedman, B. Tansey, N. Chartrand, J. H. Nault, E. Lemire, M. J. Morrison.

After dinner Mr. Jos. H. Jacob read the following cablegram from the president, Mr. D. A. McCaskill:

Venice, Italy, June 16, 1904.

Jos. H. Jacob, Hon. Sec. Macdonald Club, Montreal, Can.—Your president sends greeting across the sea to our guest, our leader and our friends. Although absent, my principles are still as blue as this glorious Italian sky. Ames for St. Antoine. Borden and victory.

(Signed). McCaskill.

The toast of the King was honoured amid the strains of the National Anthem, accompanied by the excellent orchestra which dispensed music throughout the evening.

ALD. AMES' HEALTH.

Mr. M. C. Foley proposed the health of the guest of the evening. He referred to Ald. Ames' splendid record in the municipal arena, and his services at a time when men like Ald. Ames, Mayor Laporte and their colleagues had wrested the city government from the hands of those who were driving the city to bankruptcy. Ald. Ames was steadfast and true in his political principles. There was no uncertainty about his position on the tariff and on other questions before the country, and the electors of St. Antoine would make no mistake when they returned him to represent him in a wider field at Ottawa.

Ald. H. B. Ames, on rising to reply, was greeted with prolonged cheering. He heartily thanked the organizers of the demonstration who had put thought, labour and affection in their preparations. Although he had been similarly honoured before, it was the first time such an honour had been paid him in the city of his birth, and he was particularly flattered and grateful. He thanked those who had come from afar to take part in the demonstration, and particularly his leader.

He explained the circumstances that had led him to enter municipal politics. Still a young man, he had been relieved of business cares, and he believed it was his duty to devote some of his spare time to the business of the citizens. He felt that his colleagues who were present on this occasion had deserved more than he had of the city, for they had sacrificed their time from their business pursuits.

The work at the City Hall made demands on time, patience and strength. It had its compensations, however. It gave a man an opportunity to be of service to individuals and to the citizens at large. It had given him the opportunity to learn to express himself, even though in an imperfect way, in the beautiful language of Bossuet and Moliere. It had given a more highly prized opportunity, that of respecting men who differed from himself in language, traditions, race and even religion, but who all worked together for the common good. The school that taught men such things was worth attending.

Referring to his parliamentary candidacy, he said that under the peculiar circumstances existing here, with which he had no fault to find, he could hope for no further advancement in the civic arena. His training has been such that he believes he can be of service to his fellow citizens.

He had visited every province and nearly every county in the Dominion, and was anxious to take part in promoting the development that was bound to come in the twenty-five years that will follow the present. He knew the varied resources of the Dominion which its people were only just beginning to develop. He considered St. Antoine the banner division of Canada, for nothing that affected any part of Canada could fail to find an echo in Montreal, and the prosperity of the country meant the prosperity of Montreal. He then proceeded to define his views on the great questions which should engage the attention of the member for St. Antoine division.

ALD. AMES' POLICY.

"First, the opening up and development of the fertile lands of the Dominion, not wasting the people's money in endeavouring to induce colonists to enter a rocky wilderness where life at best can be but poverty, loneliness and misery, not the bringing into the country of undesirable and unassimilable immigration, but a broad effective policy for opening up the fertile territory which may become and will become, the granary of the Empire, and the planting upon this land of men who either are British subjects or capable of maintaining the standard set by the two great races already established in Canada.

"Secondly, the cheapening of transportation from the prairie to the seaboard, that the immense crops which are being raised, and which will be quadrupled in the near future, may, by natural routes, be brought to points of shipment. This transportation question should be dealt with on business, and not on political lines.

"Third, the promotion of a policy of protection that protects; a policy that will give to the Canadian his home market, that will enable the farmer to place his products with the Canadian consumer near at hand, that will permit the manufacturer to produce goods in confidence that there will be Canadian consumers ready to use them.

"Fourthly, the opening up of markets abroad. With each succeeding year we are increasing the quantity of our natural products for export. These mainly find a market in Great Britain. Recognizing this fact, we have given British manufacturers a preference in the Canadian market. We can do more. We can say to the British consumer that when he deems it to his advantage to admit Imperial products on better terms than those of strangers, we will so re-arrange our tariff that, of those goods which we must import, the British manufacturer shall supply the larger share. I believe that an offer of this kind, which could emanate only from a party with a protectionist policy, would be an important step towards reciprocal trade.

"The last of these great questions is that of the unification of Canada, to be brought about by ever striving to remove causes of discord among our own people, by drawing together in closer bonds, by similarity of legislation and otherwise, existing provinces; by granting provincial autonomy to the North-West Territories; by rounding out the Dominion through the admission of Newfoundland, and finally, when British North America becomes a united whole, our minds should turn towards the consolidation of the Empire. (Cheers.)

"To my mind, the Conservative party, judged by its past achievements, its present policy and its actual leaders, is best fitted to work out this great problem. With them, therefore, I take my stand. Let the coming contest be fairly fought out on these lines, namely, the policies of the parties, the personal fitness of the candidates. Of my opponent let no harsh word be spoken, let no mean advantage be taken. Neighbours and friends he and I have always been, make it possible for us to remain so when the contest is over. I believe that we can win honourably, courteously. It only means hard work, such as you can give. If we lose, a contingency I do not anticipate, we can at least take our defeat like men. There is no disgrace in honourable defeat, while in an honestly earned victory there is great satisfaction."

MR. BORDEN HONOURED.

Mr. C. A. McDonnell followed, proposing in a neat speech the health of Mr. R. L. Borden, M.P., the Conservative leader. He recalled the great leaders of the past, and declared the greatest praise that could be accorded Mr. Borden was that he was entirely worthy to be their successor. Since he had assumed his high position he had preserved the high ideals of the old leaders and had not feared to give the country wise guidance in the problems that must be met at the present and in the near future. The speaker referred to Mr. Borden's fiftieth birthday, and amidst renewed applause declared his expectation and hope that before Mr. Borden came to the next milestone in his career they would be able to greet him as the first citizen of Canada.

Mr. R. L. Borden, as he rose to reply, was made the object of an ovation which continued for some time. The Conservative leader expressed his satisfaction at being present to do honour to Ald. Ames, and complimented that gentleman on the representative character of the gathering. He was especially pleased with the number of young men present. As he had seen on an inscription at the Quebec banquet, "L'avenir est a vous, car la jeunesse est avec vous."

As to the questions before the people, Mr. Borden declared there could be no doubt upon the attitude of the Conservative party. There was no variation in their attitude. While Mr. Fielding, in his budget, skilfully but mildly follows to some extent the Conservative policy, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has already begun to hedge on it. Their position on the fiscal policy was somewhat like that of the boy who on being told to write a theme on whether Caesar or Hannibal was the greater conqueror, began his theme by saying, "The question must be answered in the affirmative."

Mr. Borden recalled the abuse he had received from the Liberal press and Sir Richard Cartwright, when he drew attention in his trip across the continent to the dangers of dumping foreign goods into our market. Now they were hailing Mr. Fielding as a saviour of the country, because he had introduced a measure which it was extremely doubtful whether the customs could ever work.

CONSERVATIVE RAILROAD POLICY.

Taking up the transportation question, Mr. Borden declared that it must not be said the Conservative party was opposed to the extension of railways in the country. The Conservative party has no grudge against the Grand Trunk. The party which made Confederation and which built the railways and canals of this country has too much respect for itself to interfere with vested rights, which must be protected. There must be no repudiation of obligations assumed regularly by or on behalf of the Canadian people.

The Conservative party believes, however, that if the country is to be called upon to pay nine-tenths or more of a new transcontinental railway, it should go just a little further and pay ten-tenths and own and control that road. The Conservative party believes that, on the eve of a general election, when the people of Canada are about to speak their minds, they should be given an opportunity to decide on the two policies now submitted to them. The policy of the Government was proposed, and the Opposition, firmly convinced that in so doing they reflect the opinion of a majority of the people of this Dominion, have proposed another policy, and if the people approve that policy, as they have a right to do, it will be carried into effect.

He believed that policy had struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the people. Their opponents criticized that policy, saying it was contrary to that of Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Charles Tupper, as announced twenty-five or thirty years ago. He reverenced the memory of Sir John and his views, and likewise he had the highest regards for the views of Sir Charles Tupper, but the problems of the present must be judged by the men of the present. We must not ask what Sir John did thirty years ago, but what he would do if the present situation confronted him. He was convinced that in presence of the alternatives now offered, Sir John A. Macdonald would favour the policy now advanced by his old party.

IMPERIAL PREFERENCE.

Mr. Borden spoke strongly on the mutual preferential trade arrangements. He criticized Sir Wilfrid Laurier's utterances in England, when he said we gave the preference in return for the splendid freedom granted us by England. We were as much entitled to that freedom as the people of the British Isles. The same sentiments as those voiced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier were repeated in 1901, by Mr. Sydney Fisher—(boohs and laughter)—the man, who as Mr. Pope says, is not content to be Minister of Agriculture but wants to be Minister of War as well. (Laughter.)

Some people are inclined to oppose the bugbear of Imperialism to the demand of the Conservatives for a mutual preferential arrangement. This country has already given a preference to England, and he could see no danger in getting a return. He stood for every jot and particle of the liberties and privileges which this country now enjoys and would barter none of them for any trade arrangement. He was a British subject, however, and would prefer a mutually advantageous agreement with the Mother Country to one with any other country on earth.

DUNDONALD INCIDENT.

Referring to the Dundonald incident, Mr. Borden spoke vigorously. The mention of the late G.O.C.'s name provoked applause. The Liberals had promised to administer public affairs, not from a partizan, but from a public standpoint. The Department of Militia had not appeared to be permeated by the party spirit, but the protest of the Earl of Dundonald had dispelled that illusion. It had been an honour to Canada to have at the head of her citizen soldiery the hero of Ladysmith's relief, the man who had served his King with distinction on many fields, who had come through the terrible ordeal of the South African war, not only without loss of prestige, but with added laurels. The Government had dismissed Lord Dundonald. He was not concerned with that so much, because it was a matter which regarded Lord Dundonald himself. But he was concerned as to whether men who are willing to serve their country are to be debarred from so doing because they do not see eye to eye with the men in power for the time being.

There had been misrepresentation in the House and in the party press on this subject. Lord Dundonald had not enquired the politics of any man, neither had Lt.-Col. Smart nor Lt.-Col. Whitley, until Mr. Sydney Fisher interfered in the choice of officers. Lord Dundonald was a high-spirited Highland gentleman, whom he was glad to meet on friendly terms, and the gallant officer's only wish had been to make the militia of Canada as good as it could be made. The people of the country would have to say whether they wanted the militia run on party lines. The leader closed with the declaration that the work to be done was as important as that already accomplished by the party, and he hoped to have Ald. Ames to help in carrying out that work after the next election.

Mr. James Crankshaw, K.C., proposed "Our Country and Our Party." He showed that these two were inseparable, as all the country had was due to that party.

MR. MONK'S SPEECH.

Mr. F. D. Monk, M.P., was heartily cheered as he rose to reply. He declared it would be an advantage to have more aldermen, and even the Mayor of Montreal, in the House, for the interests of Montreal are ever before the House of Commons. He spoke of Mr. Ames's visit to the prairies and the other sections of the country, and regretted that more Canadians did not seek to know more of the country. Mr. Monk traced the history of the country, recalling the time when eloquent voices had attempted to withdraw the French-Canadians from their allegiance, but had failed to the present day. He pointed out that it was the Conservative party that had done so much to dispel prejudice and bring all the country into one community of interests and aspirations.

Mr. R. H. Pope, M.P., followed, and in the course of his address devoted some time to Mr. Fisher and his influences in the Eastern Townships.

Mr. J. G. H. Bergeron paraphrased Sir John A. Macdonald's saying of "With the party, by the party—for the country." With the Liberals the motto ran "With the country, by the country—for the party."

Mr. R. Stanley Bagg gave the toast of Sister Clubs, to which Mr. S. W. Ewing, president of the Junior Conservative Club; Mr. C. P. Beaubien, secretary of the Lafontaine Club, and Mr. Edgar Judge, president of the Westmount Conservative Association, replied.

The meeting closed with cheers for the chairman and the singing of "God Save the King."

THE SHOOTING OF FINLAND'S GOVERNOR.

St. Petersburg, June 17. — The man who shot General Bobrikoff, Governor-General of Finland, at Helsinfors yesterday, was a son of Senator Schaumann. He immediately committed suicide.

Bobrikoff was shot in the stomach and neck. He is being brought to St. Petersburg in a dying condition. The attack is ascribed to Finnish patriotism. Schaumann is believed to be a member of what is known as the Finnish patriotic party.

General Count Bobrikoff, who was appointed Governor-General of Finland in 1899, made himself very unpopular by his severe measures against the press of Finland, and the stern manner in which he followed out the policy of Russia towards the Finns. This led to serious rioting at Helsingfors in 1902, which was suppressed by Cossacks. The last recorded act of General Bobrikoff was in March of this year, when he issued a proclamation forbidding the people to darken their windows at "unusual hours." People who chose to go to bed before 10 o'clock at night were subject to heavy fines. This step was due to the neglect of the Finns to illuminate their houses in honour of the beginning of the war with Japan.

General Bobrikoff was at first opposed to the convocation of the Diet, but on account of recent improvements in the situation in Finland, especially since the outbreak of the war, and because of the resolutions of loyalty to the Emperor, and approving the conduct of the war, which were passed by the Senate, the Governor-General had decided to recommend that the Diet should be allowed to meet. The question was to have been definitely settled by His Majesty on June 23.

The following statement has been authoritatively made: "In view of the attempt on the life of Governor-General Bobrikoff, the decision of the Emperor will probably be against the convocation of the Diet, so that the people of Finland, as well as the Governor-General, shall be compelled to suffer, instead of benefit by Schaumann's crime."

A BAD DAY FOR HON. MR. FISHER

Members of the House Ridiculed the Experimental Farm.

THE ESTIMATES HELD OVER

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Has Promised Alaskan Boundary Papers for Next Week.

Special Staff Correspondent.

The Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, June 17.—It was as dull a day in the House of Commons yesterday as could well be imagined. The formal budget debate is over and the details will not come up for discussion until next week. The Dundonald matter was in abeyance, and there was in consequence a sort of intermission which was filled up with odds and ends of the legislative business.

Mr. Bell, of Pictou, asked whether it was the intention of the Government to lengthen the open season for lobster fishing on the coast east of Halifax. Mr. Prefontaine replied that several petitions to that effect had been received and the matter was now under consideration.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY PAPERS.

Mr. R. L. Borden asked when the papers relating to the Alaska Boundary award would be brought down.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier :—"Not later than next week."

The House then took up Mr. Fisher's bill "for the inspection and sale of seeds." This is the same measure, practically, as he introduced last year, and which afterwards he agreed to withdraw. It looks as if a somewhat similar fate might befall the bill this year, to the detriment of Mr. Fisher's reputation for constructive statesmanship. The object of the bill is to provide a penalty for selling seeds containing more than ten per cent. of impurities of any kind, the idea being to appoint an inspector to visit places where seeds are sold and see that the law is observed.

The measure met with little favour in the House, and after some two hours of discussion the committee rose and reported progress, and Mr. Fisher agreed to think the matter over again before proceeding further.

THE COSTLY EXPERIMENTAL FARM.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking up the item of $100,000 for experimental farms. This is an increase of $10,000 over last year. The Minister said that although only $90,000 was voted last year, the expense would run to $100,000. He did not anticipate that this amount would be exceeded during the ensuing twelve months.

Dr. Daniel, of St. John, N.B., wanted some further information regarding the experiments in the keeping of bees. All he could find in the report was that six colonies of bees were put into winter quarters and all died during the winter.

Mr. Fisher could give no further information. They died, nobody knew why.

Mr. Cochrane did not regard this experiment as being of high scientific value. Mr. Cochrane had not a very favourable opinion of the experimental farm anyway. If it cost an ordinary farmer as much to raise stock as it cost on this farm, the farmer would lose money.

Mr. Cochrane wanted to know how long it took scientific gentlemen to arrive at a conclusion as to what was the cheapest way to feed an animal for beef. To his mind it was ridiculous to spend eight or nine years on experiments which showed nothing in the end.

"My hon. friend, Mr. Cochrane, does not feed cattle the same as the Minister," suggested Mr. Ingram.

"No," replied Mr. Cochrane; "I feed them so as to make money."

Mr. Fisher paid a high compliment to Prof. Saunders for not sending out reports to farmers until the results of experiments were pretty certain. The reputation of the farm, said Mr. Fisher, had been largely made by the fact that the greatest care had been exercised and no hasty conclusions had been jumped at.

Mr. Cochrane asked how long these experiments were to be carried on.

"Just as long as the world lasts and agriculture goes on," replied Mr. Fisher.

"As long as you can pay salaries," suggested Mr. Cochrane.

Mr. Ingram tried to get the Minister of Agriculture to explain in what position milch cows should sleep, but the utmost extent to which the Minister would commit himself was to say that some slept in one position and some in another.

LOSS AND GAIN.

Dr. Sproule pointed out that the amount realized from poultry on the farm was $322, while the cost of them was $1,588. An ordinary farmer who attended to his business in that way would be safe to reach the poor house. Mr. Fisher explained that the salary of Mr. Gilbert was included, it being his duty largely to travel around the country delivering lectures on the subject of poultry.

Mr. Taylor showed that the farm involved a net expense to the country last year of $62,228. In the last year of Conservative rule the expense was only $36,420 and the work was at least as well done as now.

After some further discussion, it was agreed to let the item go over for the present, and the House adjourned at 11.45 p.m., the net result of the day's work being that nothing at all was done.

THE LETTER CARRIERS.

Sir William Mulock gives notice of a bill to amend the Civil Service Act. This bill, it is expected, will afford another opportunity to the letter carriers to come under the operation of the act, instead of remaining in the outside service.

SENATORS WILL TAKE A VOTE ON STATE OWNERSHIP.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 17.—The Senate is to have an opportunity to vote upon the policy of state ownership of railways, Sir Mackenzie Bowell having yesterday moved an amendment to the second reading of the National Transcontinental Railway bill, in which he asks the Senate to affirm the principle of state owned and controlled railways. He spoke for more than two hours, necessarily going over much of the ground that had been covered in the Commons' debate, and concluding with a resolution worded to a great extent as was that moved by Mr. R. L. Borden in the other House.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell resumed the debate on the second reading of the National Transcontinental Railway Act amendment bill. He felt diffident in speaking on this subject, because so much had been said on it, both in the Senate and Commons, as well as in the press, that it was almost impossible for him to say anything new.

There was great credit due to the manager in this matter for his astuteness. He commended the original proposition of the road, but the Government would not let them do it.

The country had no idea of the terms originally proposed until the close of the Commons debate, although the Premier had declared that without equivocation or mental reservation all papers were down. If it were a private document it would not have been the first time confidential documents had been brought down. He quoted Mr. Hays' speech at the annual meeting of the G.T.R., emphasizing the necessity of tying the west to the system so as to secure the traffic, which they had been getting from the Great Northern. He reviewed the arrangements between the G.T.R. and the Ontario Government, claiming that Mr. Hays' scheme to secure traffic for the G.T.R. lines to the seaboard was being most practically effected. Had Mr. Hays' original proposition been carried out the liability of the Government would have been materially less. He quoted United States papers to show that they expected to benefit by the new road, as when G.T.P. cars switched on to the G.T.R. the latter would decide as to the destination. He thought that he had proved that there was a very great difference between the two contracts, last year's and this year's; that the liability of the country was greatly increased; that the G.T.R. would continue to receive wheat from the west that it already had and carry it to its own ports. Take it all in all the G.T.R. had been able to secure by this new arrangement freight for their line to the detriment of the National Transcontinental line. The duty of the Government was to secure a line that would ensure freight going to Canadian ports, and be able to control freight rates. He reminded the Senate that in the matter of bonusing vessels to come to St. John, N.B., in winter, the undertaking of the C.P.R. to take freight to St. John from Montreal at the same rate as the G.T.R. carried to Portland, had been secured. Under the present arrangement, when the G.T.P. got the freight to Moncton they were nearly as far from a winter port as they were now. The only way of accomplishing the desired ends was by Government ownership. He was opposed to Government ownership, but when they found a Government expending millions to extend the I.C.R. to Montreal they came very close to Government ownership. Whilst the members of the Government at present professed themselves opposed to Government ownership they had in the past espoused it very warmly. It was better to own the road than to pay for it and not own it. Besides, owning it did not imply that the Government should operate the road. Remove the cursed influences which have surrounded the management of the I.C.R., and the Government could dictate to the Commission at what rates goods should be carried. Put the road in the hands of the G.T.R. or the C.P.R., and within twelve months there would be a combination. He referred to the Manitoba freight difficulties, arguing that a new policy should be adopted. Alluding to Mr. Emmerson's view on this matter, he said entry to the Cabinet reminded him of Dante's inscription over the entry of the infernal region: "Abandon hope all ye who enter here." The Premier had paraphrased this: "Abandon principle all ye who enter here." This did not apply to any one Minister, but to them all. In conclusion he moved in amendment a resolution declaring the present agreement inexpedient and favouring Government ownership and control.

Hon. Mr. Casgrain ... Lanaudiere, adjourned the debate.

Mr. Robert Henderson, "The discoverer of the Klondike," has been appointed to a position in the Klondike in connection with the engineers' office.

DISGRACEFUL SIDEWALKS.

Trouble for Aldermen Promised If Action is Not at Once Taken.

The disgraceful condition of the sidewalks on McGill College avenue, the main avenue to the University, is again arousing the indignation of the residents and property owners of that street. The piece of sidewalk between St. Catherine and Burnside streets is particularly condemned. Promises were made this spring that a new sidewalk would be put down, but they have not been kept. The residents say they are determined to have the matter remedied now or know the reason why, and trouble for the aldermen of the ward and the Road Committee is promised if action is not soon taken.

Newspaper Women and St. Louis.

A new departure last evening by the C.P.R., when a party of newspaper women commenced a trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis, as the guests of the company. The special sleeping car Trudeau was attached to the Toronto express for their accommodation. Messrs. George H. Ham and C. E. E. Ussher, of the C.P.R., were in charge of the party, and will be joined this morning by Mr. A. H. Notman, C.P.R., assistant-general passenger agent at Toronto. The trip will be made over the C.P.R. as far as Detroit, and from thence to St. Louis over the Wabash. On Tuesday evening next, the party will leave by the Wabash for Chicago, where the Women's Press League will give them an informal reception. Wednesday will be spent in Chicago, from there they will go to Detroit and via Toronto, back to Montreal, arriving here Friday next.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.

Writes Archbishop Bond as to His Possible Visit to Canada.

His Grace Archbishop Bond has received a communication from the Archbishop of Canterbury, in which the latter thanks the Canadian prelate cordially for the invitation sent him to visit the Dominion. The letter says: "It is not yet settled whether or not I cross the Atlantic in the coming autumn. I have received an extraordinarily cordial invitation to the General Convention of the Church in the United States, which begins in Boston in the first week of October. I must be in England by October 20, or thereabouts. If, therefore, I go to the United States, my visit to Canada would have to be before the General Convention, and not after it. But I am not yet quite in a position to say whether it would be possible for me to cross the Atlantic at all. I will let you know as soon as I can speak with any definiteness, and I cordially appreciate your kindness in the matter."

THE CIVIC BOOKKEEPING.

Ald. Deserres Has a Scheme for Reforming It.

Ald. Deserres, who has devoted much time to the conducting of financial affairs, has no sympathy with the system of civic bookkeeping which has been in vogue for so many years.

He has recently made a move whereby he hopes the exact position of the city in regard to its financial standing will be seen at a glance. At the present time, this information cannot be obtained without the most tiresome research.

When the Finance Committee meets again, Ald. Deserres will submit questions which it is expected will remodel civic bookkeeping. Many heads of civic departments are in favour of the reforms which Ald. Deserres desires to see take place.

HAULED DOWN CANADIAN ARMS

British Consul Declares Canada Has No Flag.

MADE SHIP FLY RED ENSIGN

Threatened to Fine Capt. Taylor £100 if She Continued to Use Canadian Emblem.

Captain John Taylor, of the three-masted schooner "M. J. Taylor," is in this port at present. Captain Taylor has a grievance.

Caaptain Taylor hails from Nova Scotia. His ship is registered in Parrsboro, N.S., and has always flown what he considered the Canadian flag, the red ensign of the British merchant service, with the Canadian coat-of-arms in the lower right hand corner. Captain Taylor related the reason for his grievance to the Star this morning, as follows:

"I had been sailing around the different ports of South America all winter, and last January I sailed into the port of Rio Grande do Sul, in the Argentine Republic, with cargo. We lay there for some time, and as there were a number of vessels in the harbour whose masters were friends of mine, our flag, the Canadian ensign, was flying at our peak most of the time.

"Some three or four days after its first appearance, I received a verbal warning from the British consul, Mr. Ray Stamford, that I was not flying the right flag. He ordered me to haul down that flag and run up the 'Red Ensign.' Well, I have knocked around pretty well, and in the last few years have been in a good many corners of the globe, and the Canadian flag was always good enough for other British consuls, so I thought it would do for Mr. Ray Stamford. I therefore took no notice of his warning.

"Then I did get it. I received a notice stating that I was liable to a fine of £100 if I continued to fly that flag. The notice bore the stamp of the consulate, and ordered me to appear at the consulate with my flag the following day.

"Well, you know the British consul is a man's only friend down there if he gets into trouble; and I thought it better not to disobey. So I took the flag to him. He ordered me to cut out the Canadian coat-of-arms and fill the space with red bunting. I refused, and he had it done himself.

"This I consider quite unjustifiable. We Canadians were given the right to fly our flag in 1867. I have carried that flag at the mast head when lying in the midst of the British Mediterranean squadron at the Malta dock yards, at Cadiz, at Havre, and most of the Mediterranean British North and South American ports, and there has never been any exception taken to it until now."

Captain Taylor is addressing a letter to the Board of Trade about this matter, and desires to know if the action of the consul was justifiable. He says that he is a loyal Britisher, but is also a loyal Canadian; and he wants the right to fly what he maintains is the Canadian ensign.

GLOVE-CUTTERS STRIKE.

Men in F. Galibert's Factory Go Out.

A strike was declared to-day in the glove factory of F. Galibert, of 931 St. Catherine street.

The representatives of the strikers when seen by the Star chatted freely about the trouble. They stated that the difficulty has been brewing for some time, and that it culminated yesterday in the cutters going out. The men stated that the piecework system is in operation in the factory. This they did not object to, but recently the foreman had introduced new rules and regulations which reduced the amount that could be earned, and which the men could not tolerate.

The officials of the firm when seen stated that the trouble did not amount to a great deal. The proprietor said there was some little friction between the foreman and the cutters, but that the men were going back to work. He thought the matter would be settled to-day.

Reception at Club Lafontaine.

The reception to be held by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Borden at the Club Lafontaine on Saturday afternoon, between the hours of three and six o'clock, promises to be a most enjoyable gathering. No individual invitations have been issued.

Summer Schedule.

The summer timetable of the New York Central & Hudson River R.R. will become effective Sunday, June 19. On, and after that date, trains will leave Windsor station for New York at 8 a.m., daily, except Sunday, and 7.30 p.m. daily.

In addition to the above local trains for Valleyfield and intermediate stations, will leave at 10.20 a.m., 2 p.m. and 5.10 p.m., daily, except Sunday, and 9.45 a.m. Sunday only.

This increased local service along the south shore of the river should prove an attraction to those who desire to spend the summer or a portion of it on the south shore of Lake St. Louis.

Found Floating in River.

The body of Joseph Poitras, about 25 years of age, who has been missing since last Sunday, was found floating in the river this afternoon. There are several marks on the side of the man's head and foul play is suspected. Coroner McMahon ordered the remains to be taken to the morgue, and gave instructions to Dr. Duncan McTaggart, medical expert, to make an autopsy to ascertain the cause of death, after which an inquest will be held.

FIFTH VICTIM OF CANADA WRECK

Body of Ovide Brunette Recovered This Morning Near Sorel.

GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATION

Captain Salmon, of the Marine Department, Will Conduct Enquiry—The Cape Breton's Lights.

The body of Ovide Brunette, the fifth victim of the wrecked steamer Canada, was found this morning near the wreck at Sorel. It was announced the morning after the disaster, that Mr. Brunette, who was a resident of Sorel, and who was on the steamer at the time she was run into by the Cape Breton, was among the missing, and it was believed that he was drowned or killed. Later on as the body was not found, it was hoped that the man had escaped in some manner. The finding of the body to-day, however, removed all doubts.

From Ottawa it is announced that Captain Salmon, R.N.R., of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, has been instructed to make an investigation into the collision of the two vessels.

The importance of the evidence in question will turn largely upon the lights which the Cape Breton had in place at the moment of the collision and just previous to this time.

The different sub-committees will present their final reports, and the measures to ensure the carrying out of the arrangements will be decided upon. The success of the venture is assured, and the leader of the party will be greeted by a large gathering of his friends from all sections of the old province of Quebec.

JUBILEE EXERCISES AT VILLA MARIA BROUGHT TO A CLOSE.

The jubilee exercises at Villa Maria Convent were brought to a close today by a Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of the departed pupils and benefactors of the institution. Mgr. Z. Racicot, Vicar-General of the diocese, was the celebrant. The dainty festoons and garlands which had marked the ceremonies of Wednesday gave place to sable drapings and shrouded pillars. The prayerful attitude of the worshippers and the mournful chant of the choristers lent a solemn sadness to the scene.

The former pupils came from all sections of Canada, while the United States was largely represented. From Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Minnesota, and even far Montana came ladies who wished to testify their loyalty and attachment to their alma mater.

The Alumnae Society of the United States worked hard to secure the success of the celebration, and was worthily represented by Mrs. John Guilfoyle, of Brooklyn, the president; Mrs. McLaughlin, secretary; Miss Anna Louise Coghlan, a graduate of '61; Mrs. and Miss Simpaire, Mrs. O'Neill, Miss McLean, Miss N. Hynes, Mrs. Egan, Mrs. and Miss O'Brien, all of Troy; Miss D. Carroll, of Albany; Miss Benedict Holden, of Hartford, Conn.; the Misses Curran, Miss Dempsey, Miss G. Norton, Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Ellison, Mrs. Claude Krus, Miss Rodriguez, Miss B. Kerrigan, Mrs. Kenny, Miss R. Sheehan, all of New York; the Misses O'Brien, of Montana; Mrs. Lamontagne, Winter Park, Florida; Miss Franchere, Chicago, and many others.

The convent chapel was finely decorated for the solemn high mass celebrated by His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi on Wednesday. Wreaths and garlands festooned from pillar to pillar reflected the festive spirit of the occasion, while lilies, smilax and morning glory were blended in a most effective combination of the Villa Maria colours. The dining room, to which the guests repaired after the ceremonies of the Church, had also been transformed into a veritable bower. His Grace the Archbishop, presided there, as he did at the recital in the Grand Hall. In reply to addresses, His Grace expressed his appreciation of the part taken by the American Alumnae in the preparation and carrying out of the celebration.

HAMEL HAS NOT YET BEEN ARRESTED IN CUBA.

A despatch was received at the City Hall to-day from the Cuban Government saying that even were Hamel, the absconding city cashier, to be arrested, the would not give him up without the drawing up of an extradition treaty between Canada and Cuba.

The despatch read as follows:

"The Cuban Government has replied to the Canadian Government's application for the release of Hamel, the Montreal defaulter, in case he should be arrested. The Cuban Government cannot yield the man up, if he should be brought to justice; but it is added that the Cuban Government is willing to negotiate for an extradition treaty with Canada."

This morning Detective Charpentier waited upon the Mayor in regard to the Hamel case. He stated that the news in the Star last night as to the non-arrest of Hamel was absolutely correct. A reply had been received by the detective department here to-day from the chief of police of Havana, saying Hamel had not been arrested, as rumoured in Montreal.

"I very much regret," said the Mayor, "that Hamel was not arrested. It is a very bad example to allow criminals to set the law at defiance."

A prominent civic official said: "I think it will be found that still more determined efforts will be made to arrest Hamel. Even should Mr. Carpenter return without the absconder, detectives will be instructed to try and locate him. The Bank of Montreal and the city authorities are determined to bring Hamel to justice, no matter what the cost may be. I believe negotiations will be opened at once so there may be an extradition treaty between Cuba and Canada."

ALD. ST. DENIS GAVE CHASTISEMENT TO MR. J. A. DROUIN.

The chairman of the Police Committee, Ald. St. Denis, did not wait for any assistance from the members of his force, when he had a grievance against Mr. J. A. Drouin, K.C.

The alderman took the law into his own hands, and thrice he struck the lawyer when the two met at 1.30 this afternoon on St. James street. Mr. Drouin was accompanied by Mr. Edmund Guerin, Crown Prosecutor.

Those who saw the affray do not seem to be very sure of just what happened the moment previous to the blows being struck, but all agree that Ald. St. Denis struck three times, hitting Mr. Drouin powerful blows in the face. There was a crowd gathered in a few moments, but the principals quickly got away from the scene and only one of them would talk about the matter afterwards.

Ald. St. Denis said:—

"It is quite true. I gave Mr. Drouin a good licking and I would have given him more had not some of his friends interposed and saved him. As it is he has several blows that he will remember, including one on the jaw that will do him much good.

"This man Drouin has been taking to himself the task of accusing everybody and when he added my name to his list I came to the conclusion that it was time to put a stop to it. I heard only yesterday that he made a statement in the Court House which was against my reputation, and I made up my mind to chastise him the moment I saw him. As soon as I met him to-day I struck him, and struck him again and then caught him on the jaw. He deserves all he got, and I am not at all sorry. I have been congratulated on all sides."

Mr. Drouin was also seen by a reporter and he said in answer to a question: "I have nothing to say; I will answer Mr. St. Denis in the courts."

The affair has caused a great deal of interest in the city, as both gentlemen are well known.

If the case reaches the courts and Ald. St. Denis is convicted, there is some speculation as to whether or not the conviction will disqualify him for a seat in the council.

GREAT NORTHERN PRESIDENT PASSES THROUGH MONTREAL.

Mr. James J. Hill, the president of the Great Northern, started out from this port this morning on a fishing trip to the River St. John.

The yacht Wacouta, which was brought from New London, Conn., under charge of Capt. D. A. Weed, has been awaiting his arrival for several days.

Very handsome it looked in its new coat of white paint. The yacht is said to be one of the most luxurious now in commission. Very rich and comfortable are all its appointments.

Mr. Hill, who arrived in Montreal this morning on his private car, which was attached to the Soo train, will be accompanied by but a small party of guests.

Mr. Daniel S. Lameth, Secretary of War in the second Cleveland administration, and now vice-president of the Northern Pacific, is among the number, the others being Messrs. Samuel Thorne, George C. Clarke, Dr. George Stewart, Louis W. Hill and W. C. Toomey, Mr. Hill's secretary.

Mr. Hill came direct from St. Paul. The others came over the New York Central in the special car Yakima.

It was shortly before eleven o'clock when the yacht swung easily into the swift-moving current, and commenced her journey towards the gulf.

The Wacouta, built ten years ago, at a cost of $350,000 is 247 feet long. It was designed by the late General Hyde, who designed not a few cruisers for the United States Government; and, in it, Mr. Arthur Sewell, afterwards Democratic candidate for vice-president on the Bryan ticket, had no small interest during the progress of construction.

Originally named the Eleanor, the yacht was first owned by Slater, a wealthy cotton manufacturer of Norwich, Conn., but it soon passed into Mr. Hill's hands.

Fitted with triple expansion engines, the Wacouta can make fourteen knots an hour. The yacht has been around the world several times.

As Mr. Hill is intent on enjoying a holiday, he would not consent to an interview, contenting himself with denying that the outing involved any business significance.

Prior to proceeding to the dock, Mr. Hill made a friendly call upon Sir Thomas Shaughnessy at the head office of the C. P. R.

As Mr. Hill went to the dock, it was observed he had his hair and beard clipped rather closely, the well known flowing locks being absent.

ELLISON'S CONDITION. — Joseph Ellison, the lad who was kicked on the head by a horse at the corner of Peel and St. Catherine streets, on Wednesday, was reported to-day by the officials of the Royal Victoria Hospital as being a little better.

FRENCHMAN WON BIG AUTO RACE

Struggle for the James Gordon Bennett Cup To-day.

BARON LEITENBERGER DEAD

Was Killed by His Car Skidding and Falling on Top of Him—Other Accidents.

Homburg, Prussia, June 17—The start for the motor car race for the James Gordon Bennett cup was made punctually at seven o'clock this morning. Jenatzy, the winner of the contest of last year, was the first off. He was followed seven minutes later by Edge of England; and the other competitors followed after similar intervals. The machine of Decater, of Germany, broke down and 13 minutes was lost in repairing it.

The start was witnessed by Emperor William and the Empress, who arrived yesterday, and by Prince Henry of Prussia, Princes Frederick and Leopold and other imperial representatives who came to Homburg this morning.

ONE COMPETITOR KILLED.

Usingen, Prussia, June 17.—Baron Leiterberger, the Austrian automobilist, who was reported to be suffering from concussion of the brain as the result of an accident in one of yesterday's runs, preliminary to the race for the James Gordon Bennett cup, died this morning. His car skidded at a corner and was overturned into a ditch.

THERY WAS WELL AHEAD.

Saalburg, June 17.—At the end of the second circuit in the automobile race, Thery, the French representative had resumed the lead, his time being one minute and 41 sconds better than that of Jenatzy, who was second. Thery was driving grandly and looked like winning.

Thery completed three circuits in four hours, 23 minutes and 40 seconds. Jenatzy's time was four hours 38 minutes and 15 seconds. The Frenchman thus was about ten minutes ahead of the German champion with another round to go.

Saalberg, June 17. — 4. p.m. — Lancia, of Italy, has collided with Aumiers, of Belgium. The latter was thrown out and his car injured. Storero, of Italy, has withdrawn, owing to a broken axle.

Thery won the race. Jenatzy was second.

WINNIPEG HENLEY CREW OFF FOR THE GREAT REGATTA.

The Winnipeg Four-Oared Henley Crew, the fastest crew ever produced by America, passed through the city last night. The four-crew is considered the strongest that has ever gone from this side of the Atlantic to compete at the great English regatta. The four will be stroked by A. W. Hamber, with A. H. E. Kent number three, Selby Henderson number two and C. S. Riley stroke. This will be the second occasion upon which the Winnipeg Rowing Club has been represented at the Henley regatta. In 1897 a crew was sent stroked by C. L. Marks, but was unsuccessful in an attempt to lift the Stewards Cup.

They sailed on the Bavarian this morning. With them went Don Hardisty, so well known in this city in connection with the Argonauts, having private business in England.

In talking over their chances, Hamber said:

"We feel pretty fit, and I hope, and have good expectations, that we will make a better showing than two years ago, when I rowed for the Arganouts. Though the lateness of the season in Winnipeg handicapped the training. Our crew has developed phenomenal speed, and in a trial on the Lake of the Woods at Rat Portage rowed the mile and half in 8 minutes 10 seconds. We will row at the following weights: Myself 168, Kent 170, Henderson 167 and Riley 155."

The crew will be managed by S. Ellswood Richards, who accompanies the four to England. Two of the crew have been to Henley before, Hamber and Kent having rowed in the Argonaut eight which made an effort to capture the Grand Challenge in 1902.

HARBOUR BOARD CONSIDERS CONTRACT FOR NEW SHEDS.

A special meeting of the Harbour Board was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Mr. R. Bickerdike occupied the chair.

A form of contract for the steel freight sheds was submitted to the commissioners, which had previously been approved by council. This was short and simply set forth the agreement between Peter Lyall & Co., and the Harbour Commissioners, by which the former, in consideration of the sum of $2,305,000, agreed to construct the freight sheds, in accordance with the specifications previously submitted.

The form of contract was adopted. It was decided to send this to the contractor for approval, and if agreed to, it will be signed on Monday next.

The various documents dealing with Commissioners street were next dealt with. Mayor Laporte marshalled the evidence for the city.

An animated discussion followed, and the matter will be further considered at a future meeting of the Harbour Board.

SECOND VICTIM OF SCAFFOLD ACCIDENT.

Emile Pilotte, who was so terribly injured in the scaffolding accident on Wednesday, died to-day at the General Hospital. The deceased and his brother Eucharist were at work on the new Montreal Bank building which is being constructed in Westmount several days ago, when the scaffolding, which had been constructed by the deceased, collapsed.

Both men were terribly injured. Eucharist passed away on Tuesday, as a result of his injuries. Coroner McMahon will likely dispose of the case without summoning a jury. Both men were well known in building trades' circles and were highly respected. Much sympathy is felt for the family.

MAYOR SAYS COMMISSIONER STREET GOES TO CITY.

Mayor Laporte said to-day he had reasons to think that the difficulty between the city and the Harbour Commissioners as to the ownership of Commissioners street would very soon be settled. He thought the Commissioners would turn the entire street over to the corporation.

The statement had been made that for almost two-thirds of a century a portion of the street had belonged to the Harbour Commissioners. "But this statement," said the mayor, "is not borne out by enquiries that I have caused to have made."

PEN PICTURE OF VAFANGOW BATTLE

Russians Claims to Have Accomplished Strategic Object.

FOUGHT WITH HEROISM

A Whole Valley Was Bestrewn With Corpses—River Ran Blood Red.

Liao Yang, June 17.—A correspondent, who was present at the battle of Vafangow, describes the fighting as follows:

"The stern, dogged fighting at the battle of Vafangow was like another Borodino. The roar of the machine guns and the boom of the cannon still ring in one's ears.

"Throughout the three days of combat the officers and men vied with each other in pluck and heroism. They have added a glorious page to Russian military history.

"The enemy's advance originally included the fifth, eighth and eleventh divisions, twelve squadrons of cavalry and splendid artillery. About two hundred guns were belching a continuous stream of shot and shell. Large reinforcements enabled them to turn the Russian flanks. A diversion on the right precipitated the battle in the morning of June 15.

MAJOR-GENERAL WOUNDED.

"Major-General Gerngross, who was wounded, commanded the left flank, and General Loutchkovsky commanded the centre, including four battalions concealed in a small wood, whence they dealt death and destruction on the enemy.

"The Russian right was protected by Cossacks, dragoons and Siberian rifles.

"While the big guns were thundering I made my way at about 11 a.m. to the Russian right flank and climbed a hill whence I could view the whole field of battle. Behind me a battery had taken up a position from which it kept up a continuous fire upon the advancing ranks of the enemy. Through glasses I could see the sandy valley of the Tassa, with the Chinese village of Fafan. The heights of Foo Chou, the railroad bridge, and the surrounding copses were occupied by Japanese infantry.

"Then black lines of infantry like threads, could be seen creeping through the verdure. Nearer, the slope of a hill was dotted by the grey shirts of Russian riflemen. A brownish smoke overhung some of the batteries and others showed flashes of flame. The crackle of rifle fire was punctuated by the roar of guns. Occasionally I heard the hiss of a Japanese bullet.

AWE-INSPIRING SCENE.

"The scene was awe-inspiring. Over the Russian centre and left flank hovered chocolate clouds from bursting shrapnel. It was evident that the tide of battle was coming toward the Russian right. I saw reserves hurrying forward, the Cossacks galloping, followed by columns of infantry at the double.

"Suddenly they disappeared in an adjacent defile. The valley where the Russians had camped was emptied as if by magic. Rattling volleys were fired behind the screen of hills which concealed the fighting troops from view in that direction, the sound of the firing being the last evidence of the struggle proceeding there. This continued for half an hour. Suddenly a company of Cossacks appeared on the crest of a hill and began to descend. They were followed by infantry. The Japanese gunners promptly pursued them with shrapnel. Horses and men began falling.

"A moment of harrowing suspense was relieved by a thunderous shout of 'Hurrah.' It was from a couple of thousand of Russian troops just brought up in a train. Very quickly they jumped from the cars, fixed bayonets and literally ran into the fight.

RETIRED IN GOOD ORDER.

"Again the crackle of musketry under cover, during which the retiring Russian regiments formed up and moved off in complete order toward the railway, while a long line of commissariat waggons, escorted by Cossacks, took to the road; a battery of horse artillery stationed near the railway banged away furiously as it covered the retreat. The Japanese shells were then falling on the station buildings from which train after train had moved.

"I descended the hill and just succeeded in jumping on the footboard of the last car. Some of the batteries on the left flank were still firing. The main force then began slowly to retreat towards Kantsialin (30 miles north of Vafangow) and at about one in the afternoon had accomplished its strategic mission.

"The battle of Vafangow had deflected considerable Japanese forces from Port Arthur."

"Many Russians have fallen, but a greater number of Japanese were killed. The Russian shells and bullets mowed them down like wheat. The whole valley was bestrewn with their corpses, and the River Tassa ran red. But it was with Japanese more than with Russian blood.

"I left in the last train with General Stakelberg. This train collided with the one preceding it, near Vantsialin, but it was not damaged.

"When passing Kia-Chou we saw three Japanese cruisers.

"The whole road north was occupied by Rusian troops. The Russians say the Japanese cannot advance much further north, even when they recover from the effects of the battle of Vafangow."

CONSTABLE SHOT THROUGH THE HEART AT WEBBWOOD.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 17.—Provincial Constable William Irving, of Webbwood, was shot and instantly killed this forenoon by a man named Chartrand, whose arrest he was attempting to effect. Chartrand had been accused of several burglaries, the last at Ottawa, and was known to be in this district, and the officers were looking for him. Irving was at the local train leaving Webbwood for the Soo at 9.20 this forenoon, when Chartrand was pointed out to him. He stepped up to make the arrest, but Chartrand, without a word or a motion which would give the slightest warning, quickly drew a revolver and shot the officer through the heart. He died instantly. Confusion followed and Chartrand took to the woods.

MARRIAGES.

O'BRIEN-BUCKLEY—At St. Gabriel's Church, on June 14th by the Rev. Father O'Meara, W. O'Brien to Maggie Buckley, youngest daughter of M. Buckley, G.T.R.

Two Killed in a Collision.

Paris, Ont., June 17.—By a collision between a special passenger train and a local freight train here, Peter McIntyre, of Mount Forest, was killed instantly, and James Luch, of Lucan, died later of his injuries. Fireman W. J. Walker was also scalded slightly.

STRONGER TONE IN STOCK MARKET

Dominion Coal Shows Considerable Improvement in Price.

CANADIAN PACIFIC STRONG

Nova Scotia Steel Common and Bonds Were Also Strong Features of the Trading.

FORENOON STOCK MARKET.

The last business of the stock exchange was transacted in the old quarters today, and on Monday trading will be resumed in the handsome new building on St. Francois Xavier street. To-morrow's half day trading has been abandoned to permit of the removal of the various instruments appertaining to the business of the exchange.

Interesting features of to-day's trading were the strength in Canadian Pacific, the further recovery in Dominion Coal, and a display of firmness in Nova Scotia Steel and Dominion Iron bonds. Pacific touched a new high level on the present movement at 120¼, but in the final trading of the forenoon board lost the advance. The local movement was largely a reflex of Wall Street.

Dominion Coal, which recovered from 49½ yesterday to 51 in the late trading, opened firmer at 52, and later sold up to 52½. This recovery of three points while the dividend remains an open question is regarded as representing the covering operation of those who believe the declaration will be 2 per cent. for the half year. Those who believe the dividend will be passed are doubtless responsible for the remark which has been heard in the "Street" that the stock will either go to 40 or to 60.

Dominion Iron issues continued quiet, the first transaction in the bonds in a couple of days taking place at 57¼, compared with 56¼ on Wednesday. This represents a recovery of 2 points from the lowest. The stock issues were inactive.

Nova Scotia Steel exhibited considerable strength, selling from 70¾ to 72, with a bid at 72¾ at the forenoon close not finding a seller. The company's bonds were also exceptionally strong, and sold up from 109¼ to 110. When it is remembered that not many weeks ago they sold as low as 100½, it will be seen that there has been a striking recovery. Twin City sold at 93½, and Canadian Coloured Cotton bonds at 95, which is some improvement on the preceding transaction.

PACIFIC ISSUES AGAIN ACTIVE IN WALL STREET

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star in Wall Street.

New York, June 17.—The stock market opened firm, but with dealings in rather light volume. There was little in the morning's news relating to the market aside from further and more detailed discussion of financial plans of the Southern Pacific Company. Both Southern and Union Pacific were again comparatively active to-day, and both were very steady. Other firm features of the railway list were Louisville and Nashville, Baltimore and Ohio, Atchison and St. Paul. In the local traction group Metropolitan was rather unusually active, and showed moderate pressure. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was steady. As was the case yesterday industrial and miscellaneous stocks were comparatively dull, and there were no movements of special interest in that quarter. American stocks were generally steady in London, Southern Pacific being an exception, but operations here for foreign account were on a largely reduced scale. Toward the close of the first hour all traction stocks became weak, and on fair sized selling lost ⅛ to 2 points. Canadian Pacific was firmer than other railways, and advanced to 120¼ on sales of 1,500 to 1 p.m.

GOSSIP OVER THE WIRES FROM WALL ST.

Burnett and Co.—The dulness in yesterday's speculation in the general list was due in part to the absence of many brokers from the street, the opening of the Sheepshead Bay race track attracting more interest than the stock market. Sentiment, however, in Wall Street circles was generally bullish, and commission houses reported growing sentiment among public operators to make cautious purchases of attractive securities.

Charles Head and Co.—Much interest is evinced in the reports that control of the Chicago, Great Western will pass to the Canadian Pacific. Thus far it has been impossible to obtain any reliable information in that connection, and as the matter stands at the present time, it is believed to be more in the nature of a suggestion which has been taken under consideration by Great Western interests, and which may take specific shape in the near future.

J. S. Bache and Co.—The selling in Southern Pacific was again scattering, but no large buying orders were in the market, and it was taken for granted that time alone would prove whether the issuing of the preferred was bullish or bearish argument.

Laidlaw and Co.—After starting off with steadiness and a distinctly upward tendency this morning, the stock market received another check in the shape of a sharp break in Metropolitan. The rumour was evolved that from the present rate of earnings the Met. Co. would be unable to fulfil its guarantee of 5 per cent. on Third Ave. stock. In view of this talk it was rather perplexing to note that the Met. Co. soon afterwards announced the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend on the stock.

E. and C. Randolph.—A notable feature was the sharp decline on the curb of So. Pac. preferred and So. Pac. rights. The stock, which yesterday sold at 121, opened this morning at 118, and was promptly offered down, so that at present it stands at 115 bid, offered at 116¾. There is no special news, but the traders who have been buying stocks for the last week or so seem to find a very poor market to sell in.

Firm Tone in Toronto Market.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, June 17.—The Toronto stock market opened firm to-day, though with dealings in small lots, and not widely distributed. A feature was a better tone in Dominion Coal and Steel issues. Coal opening at 52, showed a gain of 1¼, and Nova Scotia Steel sold higher for both the common stock and bonds. Sao Paulo was steady, and C.P.R. rather easier after the advance of yesterday. Dealings in bank shares and others were purely investment issues were small. Forenoon transactions were:

Dominion Bank—62 at 224⅜.
Traders Bank—40 at 137.
Can. North-West Land. pfd.—250 to 99⅞.
Twin City—20 at 94.
Soo common—25 at 62¼.
N.S. Steel—285 at 71 to 72½.
N.S. Steel bonds—$11,000 at 110⅛ to 110½.
C.P.R.—150 at 119⅞ to 120.
Bell Telephone—5 at 143¾.
Dominion Coal—225 at 51¾ to 53.
Sao Paulo—295 at 106⅞ to 107.

BUTTER MARKET RATHER STRONGER.

More Cable Enquiry—Cheese Trade Rather Dull—Egg Market Shows Little Change.

BUTTER—This market showed an advance of about ¼c this morning, sales of choice Townships having taken place at 17½c, and fine being obtainable all the way down from that figure to 17c, but not lower. This simply brings the local market to a basis of the prices paid out in the Townships last Saturday, and it does not follow that still higher ones will be paid there next Saturday, although the fact that cables have been received here from England containing the information that the market there is stronger, is good evidence that, if no higher, the country markets will at least not be lower. Mediums also moved up here, and it would be hard to get any under 16¾c. Fodders are said to be very plentiful and very difficult to dispose of, now that grass butter is on the market.

Receipts reported on the Board of Trade this morning amounted to 6,514 packages.

CHEESE—There seems to be a soft spot in the market somewhere, but it is difficult to locate it. Country boards sold at about the same figures yesterday as on the previous few days, but there was a quietness about the demand, and a manifest unwillingness on the part of buyers to grant the figures paid, which bodes ill for boards where they can have matters more their own way. So far as can be learned, there are very few orders in at present prices. The make continues large in the country, and the reasonably cool weather is just what is needed to assist in producing and marketing a well flavoured quality of cheese. The local market continues steady at yesterday's prices, Quebecs being quoted at 8 to 8¼c, Townships at 8¼c, and Ontarios at 8⅜c.

Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day amounted to 13,625 boxes.

EGGS—The market holds about steady. Merchants claim to be paying 14c to agents in the country and 13½c to stores. These eggs are selling in the city at about 15c for straight receipts, but when they are candled they become all sorts of prices. For instance, some merchants quote 12 to 13c for No. 2 stock, others just as sincerely quote 14c. Of course, the quality must be in some way different. Again, some merchants quote 15½c for straight candled, others quoting less, and others quoting 16c for No. 1. Again, in selected stock, quotations range from 17 to 18c, so that once a division begins to appear in the grade of the stock a spread takes place in quotations.

Receipts reported on the Board of Trade this morning amounted to 1,421 cases.

POTATOES—The market is dull and easy in face of liberal supplies and warm, close weather. Sales of poor stock were made at 60c per 90 pounds on track; other stock, choice, bringing 70c. It is hardly possible to give accurate quotations just now, as they seem to vary with every sale made. Broken lots bring a margin of about 20c a bag more than large lots.

MAPLE PRODUCTS — Demand for maple syrup and sugar is very dull. Wine gallon tins of syrup, fine, may be had at 50 to 60c each, while bulk goods may be had at 5½ to 6c per lb. Some very dark sugar is being offered at 5c per lb., and some choice at 7c.

BEANS—The market is dull and easy. Choice prime peas are about $1.30 per bushel in car lots on track, and $1.35 to $1.40 for broken lots, in store.

POTASH.—With rather freer receipts, potash is selling at $6.05 to $6.15 for firsts, seconds being worth $5.50 per 100 lbs. No pearl ash here.

CHEESE ABOUT STEADY ON COUNTRY BOARDS.

Brockville, Ont., June 17.—Boarded, 916 white, 2,819 coloured. Less than one-half represented by the salesmen. The board adjourned without a single sale, 8c only being bid and salesmen demanding 8¼c. Finally, on the curb, buyers conceded 8¼c for white and coloured, and 8 3-16c for a few choice lots. The transactions totalled 8,800 boxes, of which Derbyshire got 2,000, Webster 700, Bissell 1,800, Murphy 1,100, Dickey 700, Earle 600, Everets 900, Paton 800, Ferguson 200.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., June 17.—Boarded, 1,387 white and 234 coloured cheese; 121 withdrawn as too green; balance sold on the board at 8c. Welsh got 32, McRae 471, Bennett, 513, McGregor 303, Fraser 181. Five buyers present: McGregor, McRae, Welsh, Bennett and Fraser.

Winchester, Ont., June 17.—Boarded, 456 coloured and 1,233 white; offered, 8c. None sold on board. Buyers: J. W. Ault, Logan, Weir, Prunner, J. F. Ault and McLean.

Tweed, Ont., June 17.—Boarded, 800 boxes; sales: 240 at 8 1-16c, 10 at 8c; balance unsold. Magrath, Watkin and Hodgson Bros. buyers.

Kingston, Ont., June 17.—Boarded, 1,880 boxes. Only 165 were disposed of at 8 1-16c; bidding began at 7 3-16c.

Madoc, Ont., June 17.—Twelve hundred boxes chese boarded. Sold 235 at 8 1-16c; balance unsold.

Bradstreet's Trade Review.

Wholesale trade at Montreal is a little more active in seasonable dry goods and wearing apparel, but, generally speaking, the movement so far is not as satisfactory as it was a year ago. The uncertainty about the crops in May and the unseasonable weather prevented the expansion in the demand for general staple goods that would otherwise have been experienced. The business booked so far for the fall is large, and the outlook in that connection is promising, and trade will soon show increased activity if the present favourable conditions are maintained. Prices of staple goods are steadily held.

Warmer weather has increased the demand at Toronto from retail traders for seasonable goods to sort stocks. The outlook is for a steady improvement in that direction, as unfavourable weather conditions have limited purchases of such goods. Crop conditions are more promising, and the outlook for the fall trade is encouraging. The big distributing firms in all the leading centres of trade are experiencing a better demand from the North-West, and Toronto in this respect is no exception. Remittances are a little slow, due to the backwardness of trade in the country. The building trades here are very active. The number and value of building permits issued so far this month are unprecedented.

The weather conditions at Quebec during the past week have been favourable to trade in both wholesale and retail circles. Country remittances are fair, and the prospects for summer business are favourable. Shoe manufacturers, as a rule, are busy, and prices are being well maintained.

At Victoria, Vancouver and other Pacific coast points much interest is being taken in the northern trade, which has absorbed large quantities of staple goods the past few weeks. The shipments to the Yukon have been heavy in recent weeks. The local demand is fairly active for the current requirements of trade, and the orders so far for future delivery are satisfactory. The outlook is bright.

In Winnipeg the attention of the business community is directed toward the crop outlook, which recently has shown gratifying improvement. The buying for the fall has been liberal. Shipments are being freely made to all the trade centres of the West, including numbers of new districts.

There has been some expansion in the wholesale trade circles this week in Hamilton, as reported to Bradstreet's, the sorting demand for the hot weather goods being better. Shipments continue quite heavy. The conditions of business are sound. It is expected that there will be an improvement in payments soon.

London jobbing trade circles are showing a little more activity as a result of the finer weather during the week, and the better crop prospects. Considerable business has been booked for the fall, and the outlook, both for that trade and for the immediate future, is promising.

Ottawa trade reports are generally of a satisfactory nature. There is a better demand now for summer goods, and further improvement is looked for with steady, bright, warm weather. Prices of staple goods are firm.

Copper Prices in London.

J. S. Bache & Co., New York, send their Montreal manager, Mr. C. D. Monk, the following London copper prices:

Spot, copper, opening, £56 13s 9d, an advance of 6s 3d; futures, £56 12s, an advance of 7s 6d; market strong.

VERY LITTLE CHANGE IN GRAIN MARKETS.

Wheat Was Almost Unchanged Throughout America—Indian Shipments Large.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, Man., June 17.—Wheat slow and ⅛c weaker. Trade practically nil. June not quoted; July, 84⅝c; Oct., 77⅛c.

Cash wheat easier. More offering, but buyers few. No. 1 northrn, 85¼c; No. 2 northern, 82½c; No. 3 northern, 78¾c; No. 4 northern, 71¾c; feed, 57¾c; No. 2 feed, 48¾c. Receipts wheat, 69 cars; a year ago, 108.

Indian shipments of wheat were:

	Last week.	Previous week.
To U.K., qrs.	214,000	109,000
To Continent, qrs.	53,000	137,000
Argentine shipments to U.K.:
Wheat, qrs.	60,000	143,000
Maize, qrs.	154,000	104,000
Argentine shipments to Cont.:
Wheat, qrs.	37,000	57,000
Maize, qrs.	39,000	93,000

Argentine maize, quantity very good, but there are complaints of the season being too dry. Frosty weather interfering with sowing of linseed in northern Argentina.

Fine weather in England; forecast, fine.

The Liverpool wheat option market was unsteady to-day, July closing ⅛d up at 6s 1⅜d, and September ¼d down at 6s 2½d. Spot wheat closed dull and 1d down on No. 1 standard Calif., at 6s 6d to 6s 7d, No. 2 northern Manitoba closing 1d up at 6s 7½d to 6s 8½d.

The Chicago market quoted grain at noon as follows: Wheat, July, unchanged at 84¼c; September, ⅛c down at 79⅝c. Corn, July, ⅜c down at 48⅜c; September, ½c down at 48¾c. Oats, July ⅝c down at 38⅞c; September, ⅜c down at 31⅞c.

Duluth quoted July ¼c down at 93¼c, Minneapolis quoting it steady at 93⅛c, September being ½c down at 80¼c.

Winnipeg quoted July ⅜c down at 84⅜c.

Fort William wired the market for Manitoba wheat steady at 79c in store for No. 3, and 83c for No. 2.

LOCAL MARKET.—The situation is practically unchanged. The export market for oats is reported firm, but this has no effect on local demand under the circumstances. No. 3 oats are offering at 36c on track, and No. 2 at 37c. No one seems to want them yet in the city, though there is some demand from outside points.

Peas were about steady at 71c afloat, Montreal; No. 2 barley, 50c; No. 3 extra, 49c, and No. 2 rye, 62c.

FLOUR—Demand is not very active for local account, though there is a fair enquiry for export. We quote: Manitoba patents, $4.90 to $4.95; strong bakers, $4.60; winter wheat patents, $4.80 to $5; straight rollers, $4.60 to $4.70; straight rollers, in bags, $2.20 to $2.25.

FEED.—Demand for bran is on the dull side.

Manitoba bran, in bags, $18; shorts, bags, $19 per ton; Ontario bran, in bulk, $17 to $18; shorts, $18 to $19; moullie, $26 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

ROLLED OATS—The market is steady. Dealers are asking $2.32½ for bags, and $4.90 in barrels on track. It is understood that these figures are being undersold.

HAY—The market is rather easy owing to heavy deliveries. No. 1 is quoted at $10.50 to $11 per ton, on track; No. 2, at $9.50 to $10.50; clover, mixed, $8.25 to $9, and clover, $7.50 to $8.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, June 17. — Wheat—Dull and heavy for Ontario grades, with limited demand. No. 2 white and red sold outside at 90c on low freights; spring nominal at 86c east, and goose at 75 to 76c east. Manitoba unchanged; No. 1 northern, 92c at George Bay ports; No. 2 northern at 89c, and No. 3 northern at 86½c; No. 1 hard, nominal, at 93c. Grinding in transit prices 6c above those quotations.

Oats—Quiet, at unchanged prices. No. 2 white quoted at 31 to 31½c west, and at 32c low freights to New York; No. 1 white, 33c east, and No. 2 at 32½c east.

Barley—Very quiet, with prices nominal. No. 2, quoted at 41 to 42c, middle freights; No. 3 extra, 40c, and No. 3 at 38 to 38½c, middle freights.

Peas—Dull, at unchanged prices, with No. 2 shipping peas quoted at 61c west or east.

Flour—Ninety per cent. patents unchanged at $3.65 to $3.70, middle freights, for domestic use; straight rollers of special brands for domestic trade quoted at $4.25 to $440 in bbls. Manitoba flours are steady; No. 1 patents, $4.80; No. 2 patents, $4.50, and strong bakers, $4.40 on track at Toronto.

Millfeed—Bran, dull, at $17, and shorts at $16, here. At outside points bran is quoted at $15 to $15.50, and shorts at $16.50. Manitoba bran in sacks, $18, and shorts, $20, here.

A Lower Wheat Market.

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, June 17.—New July wheat sold from 84½ to 84. It closed yesterday at 84¼. About the only support given the market early was the foreign buying of old July in order to cover short contracts. This advanced the price moderately, and long wheat came out on the hard spots. The Modern Miller report was construed as bright by the trade. The report of the Manitoba and North-west Territories was bearish, showing an increase of 9½ per cent. in the acreage over last year in wheat and oats and an increase of 3 per cent. in barley. Growing crops up there are in the best possible condition. Minneapolis and Duluth both report increased offerings of wheat by the country, while the stocks at those points decreased 580,000 bushels for the week.

The editor of the Market Record of Minneapolis makes the wheat area of the North-western States 636,000 acres more than last year. The smaller Argentine shipments are a help to the bulls and reports of drought there attracted considerable attention.

Trade Conditions in Montreal.

Wholesale trade is not specially active. While the near approach of mid-summer may partly account for this, still the fact appears to be generally recognized that business as a whole for the half year just about closing will be materially short of the figures for the corresponding period of 1903. There are also indications that fall trading will be marked by more or less of a conservative policy. Dry goods travellers report buyers placing orders carefully, as a rule, due to the fact that there is a considerable proportion of last fall's goods being carried over owing to the peculiar weather conditions, which interfered with trade so generally last winter, and in some other lines there is a noticeable tendency towards a cautiousness in buying. The export trade in cheese shows a considerable falling off, there being a shortage of some 80,000 boxes as compared with the figures of a year ago, while the prices being realized are not satisfactory to the farmer or trader. The general trade conditions, however, seem healthy; payments which were slow, show improvement during the past month or so and only one district failure is reported for the week.

THE MARCONI SYSTEM.

The Marconi Wireless Telegraph System is the most marvellous and useful industrial invention ever introduced. It promises to become more useful to the world than the magnetic telegraph, the cable or the telephone. By reducing the cost of transmission of messages, it must invariably become the accepted means of communication between every country, every city, every town, every village, as well as the sole means of communication between ships of all classes and between ships and shore.

ITS ADVANTAGES OVER WIRES AND CABLES.

The initial cost of the Marconi System is far less than that of any other means of electrical communication which depends upon wires or cables, thus doing away with a heavy burden of interest and depreciation. No rights of way are necessary, nor can taxes be levied upon messages sent through the air. The only outlay for the establishment of the Marconi System is the construction of stations and their equipment with instruments. Several messages can be sent at the same time, and the attunement of instruments affords secrecy of transmission.

BUSINESS PROGRESS.

The Company's revenue from actual commercial traffic during 1903 INCREASED 700 PER CENT. over those of 1902. Steamships are publishing newspapers during their trips from news sent them by Marconi Wireless from both sides of the Atlantic. A Royal decree issued in Rome on April 2nd approved the new tariff for Marconi Wireless telegrams, and fixed the cost from Italy to America at 12 1-2 cents a word.

BUSINESS CONNECTIONS OF THE MARCONI COMPANY.

Lloyds has adopted it exclusively for fourteen years. British Admiralty has adopted it exclusively for fourteen years. The Italian Government employs it exclusively in all departments. British Government has entered into an agreement with Marconi's. Canadian Parliament has subsidized the system. Canadian Government and railroad telegraphs co-operate. It is employed in the service of Reuter's Telegram Company, the Associated Press, the New York Herald, the London Times. Nearly every large banking and commercial establishment in Great Britain and the United States has subscribed to the Montreal code.

GREAT FORTUNES MADE IN ELECTRICAL INVESTMENTS.

Some of the greatest fortunes of this country were made by early investments in the Edison Electric Light Company and the Bell Telephone Company, while hundreds of small investors became independently wealthy. The stock of the Edison Electric Light Company advanced from $100 to $4,000 in one year, and that was several years before dividends were declared. Bell Telephone stock increased from $1 a share to more than $1,000 a share, and the profits of an original investor of $100 in the Bell Telephone Company are more than $200,000.

PROFITS OF THE MARCONI TRANSATLANTIC SERVICE.

The possible gross revenue of a transatlantic wireless station with one set of instruments, working half time, half speed and at less than half present cable charges, would be $394,200. With three sets of instruments it would be $1,182,600. The probable expense of operating (reckoning one station at $200,000, and charging 8 p.c. interest thereon, and depreciation and maintenance at 10 per cent. each, and assuming the cost of operating to be 20 per cent. of the gross revenue of the station), would be $351,650, leaving a profit of $830,950. There are fourteen transatlantic cables from the United States. In the near future, when the Marconi Company operates fourteen stations, the profit will be over $10,000,000, or 150 per cent. on its capital stock, which would make the stock worth at least 1,500 per cent. above par. Under arrangements between the English and American Marconi Companies, the revenues arising in England will be divided with the American Company, and vice versa.

Anthony Hope Discusses Incident in Letter to London Globe—More Press Comments.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, June 17.—Anthony Hope, in a letter to the Globe, says:—"Everyone at Ascot yesterday was asking what Lord Dundonald has done to be chucked. Is it that he has committed what is an unpardonable crime to an English Government? Lord Dundonald has been a soldier all his life. Therefore, he knew well the class of masters he was serving, and he cannot well be pitied for what he got."

MORE PRESS COMMENT.

The Westminster Gazette says: "Lord Dundonald's closing experience in Canada has been less striking in character than that of the dismissed commander-in-chief, who was valiantly championed by Charles James Fox, in Parliament, exactly a century ago."

The Sheffield Independent hopes that British officers will, when in the Colonies, learn by Lord Dundonald's unfortunate example, to think a little more Imperially.

WILL COME UP IN HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Some prominent army officers are indignant at the treatment of Lord Dundonald. The Colonial Secretary is to have his attention brought to the matter by a question in the House of Commons on Monday.

THE CIVIC TAX ON ELECTRIC MOTORS

The Deputation Protests Strongly Against $5 on Each Motor.

TAX SOMEWHAT MODIFIED

Arguments That It Will Injure the Manufacturing Interests of the City.

There was an interesting meeting of the civic Legislation committee yesterday afternoon over the proposal that a tax of $5 should be levied on all electric motors in the city. The Legislature at its last session, gave the aldermen power to levy such a tax.

A deputation waited upon the committee yesterday afternoon and advanced the contention that such a tax would be unjust in the extreme, as it would apply to every single motor in large manufacturing establishments.

WHAT THE OBJECTIONS ARE.

It was pointed out that the tax must discourage manufacturing in the city. The memorialists said:

"The license on electric motors is a serious step, not only because it will tax some of our manufacturers heavily, one of our members calculating that it would cost him $750 a year, but also because there is a tendency to attach individual motors to each machine in a factory for the purpose of economy in power, and the doing away with belting and shafting. Under this clause the further a manufacturer carries out this commendable alteration, the heavier will the city penalize him. For instance, there are two newspaper offices in this city, each operating sixteen type-setting machines; one office uses sixteen individual half-horse power motors, the other employs only two motors to run the same number of machines, with the same amount of power. And yet the city will tax one concern $80 and the other $10. The injustice of the tax is quite apparent. You will also recognize that it will virtually become a machinery tax."

DISCUSSION ON TAX.

Mr. Walbank, who was present, said there was no reason for the license or tax, as there was never any danger of fire from electric motors. The motors were simply masses of iron and copper.

Mr. Bienvenu, License Inspector, in reply to this said it was the contention of the Building Inspector that the wire connections connected with motors often started fires; such being the case, the city would have to appoint inspectors to look after electric motors. This would entail an outlay, and a license would have to be levied.

Ald. Lariviere — "It is very queer that every time we try to levy more taxes, so that more money can be got to keep the streets cleaner, there are lots of protests and petitions. This five-dollar tax is not a heavy one, and should be levied.

Mr. Walbank—"It will be a hard tax on establishments that run scores of motors, and it will also be hard on the man who has a little motor."

Ald. Vallieres — "The city needs more money, and the question of extra taxes will have to be faced in more ways than one."

"I am afraid," said Ald. Sadler, "that such a tax would drive business from the city. At the present time outside municipalities are offering bonuses so that factories may be established in their midst."

Ald. Bastien—"That is all very well, but there are many business concerns in the city to-day that are free from taxation, and who ought to be paying. We do not tax half as much as the city of New York does."

Ald. Lariviere—"If the people will not stand more taxation, there should not be so many complaints against the roads."

Mr. Walbank—"The city would not make much by this $5 license. It would cost the corporation $2,000 a year salary for a good electric expert to inspect licenses."

"I have heard," said Ald. Sadler, "that there is less danger of fire from motors than steam engines. The tax cannot be imposed because of extra danger from fire."

Mr. Walbank said the insurance companies readily insured buildings in which there were electric motors.

"Anyway," said Ald. Sadler, "I do not see that it is the city's business to inspect electric motors and charge a tax because of such work."

Mr. Walbank—"The city might as well appoint an inspector of gas pipes. I certainly think this clause should be struck out; there is no reason for such a tax."

AN AMENDMENT.

Ald. Lavallee—"I move that the tax apply to establishments, and not to single machines."

After some discussion, Ald. Lavallee then altered his motion to read as follows:

"Persons using motors operated by gas, coal oil, gasoline, naphtha oil, electricity, or any other power except steam (automobiles excepted) for each establishment, if using less than five horse power, the sum of $2; if more than five horse power the sum of $5."

To this Ald. Lariviere moved, in amendment, that the license be $5 for the first motor, and $1 for all others in each building, but this was lost on a tie vote, and the motion of Ald. Lavallee was passed.

The delegation was composed of J. J. McGill, J. Bailey and E. H. Cooper, of the Manufacturers' Association; W. McLea Walbank and R. L. Wilson, of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, and Mr. Shaw, of the Montreal Electric Company.

In regard to the proposed new tax on the storing of inflammable materials, Ald. Ames had it amended so the tax would not apply to ordinary householders. The amendment read as follows:

"Persons keeping lumber, hay, straw, or firewood yards, saw mills, foundries, furniture factories, blacksmith shops, joiner shops, or shops for the repairing of furniture, and persons keeping all other establishments, stores, buildings or any other structures, dangerous to fire because of the fact that petroleum or its products, benzine, gasoline, or other very inflammable materials, which are manufactured, kept for sale, used or stored, shall pay for such establishments $5 each."

Before the committee adjourned a petition, signed by three hundred manufacturers of the city, was read, asking that bath licenses be struck out. This will be considered later.

ELECTED PRESIDENT.—Mr. Kenneth B. Thornton, superintendent of lines for the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company, was elected president of the Canadian Electrical Association at its recent session in Hamilton. Mr. Thornton was formerly vice-president of the association.

McCORMICK'S JERSEY CREAM SODAS More wholesome than Bread. 130eod tf

MR. GREET AND COMPANY ARRIVE IN CITY.

Mr. Ben. Greet and his English company of woodland players arrived in Montreal this morning.

Mr. Greet is the guest of Dean Moyse, of McGill University, while Miss Edith Wynne Matthison and her husband, Mr. Charles Rann Kennedy are staying with Dr. and Mrs. Adams. The performances to-day and to-morrow at McGill University will undoubtedly draw very large audiences. It is admitted by critics everywhere that Mr. Greet has the best all round company of Shakespearean actors that has been seen in America for many a long day.

"As You Like It," this afternoon, gives Miss Edith Wynne Matthison, in the part of Rosalind, an opportunity of displaying her varied talent and charm, to a marked extent, while Mr. Greet's Jaques is a delightful combination of humour and subtlety. In the evening, "Midsummer Night's Dream," will receive its first presentation in Montreal for many years. In "Midsummer Night's Dream," the fairy parts are taken by children who are admirably trained, and whose acting has been the admiration of all the audiences who so far have heard them. Mr. Greet takes the part of Bottom, and occupies the centre of the stage, and reveals himself in broad comedy as a most mirth compelling character. To-morrow afternoon "Twelfth Night," will be seen and in the evening Shakespeare's delightful comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," will be put on, with Miss Matthison, as Beatrice, and Mr. Greet, as Benedick. In the event of rain the performances will be held in the beautiful hall of the Royal Victoria College.

Rev. Prof. Clark Will Preach.

The Rev. Prof. William Clark, LL.D., of Trinity College, Toronto, who is so well and favourably known in Montreal both as a preacher and lecturer, will be the special preacher at both morning and evening services, at St. St. Stephen's Church, Weredale Park, Sunday next, June 19.

James Hardwell, of the traffic department of the Intercolonial, has been appointed traffic expert on the Railway Commission.

M'GILL GOVERNORS MAKE APPOINTMENTS.

At the recent meeting of the Board of Governors of McGill University, Miss E. R. Fotheringham, of Toronto, was appointed instructor of gymnastics at the Royal Victoria College, in place of Miss Holmstrom, whose resignation was accepted, and who returns shortly to her home in Sweden.

Miss Fotheringham has been for some time gymnastic instructor at Havergal Hall, Toronto, and comes here highly recommended.

The board made the following appointments also:

Miss M. V. Dover, demonstrator in chemistry; Mr. John B. Harvey, demonstrator in surveying, and Mr. Russell E. Macnaughton, B.A., Cantab, late of Tasmania, lecturer in classes.

NEW YORK CENTRAL.

Changes in Time Table Take Effect on Sunday.

The following changes in the New York Central time table will take effect June 19: The solid train for New York leaves Montreal 8 a.m. daily, except Sunday, and 7.30 p.m. daily. The Valleyfield local trains leave 10.20 a.m., 2 p.m., and 5.10 p.m. daily, except Sunday, and 9.45 a.m. Sundays only. The Valleyfield service has been increased by an additional mid-day train—that at 2 o'clock. Trains will arrive at Montreal from New York 9.10 a.m. and 10.10 p.m. daily, except Sunday. Valleyfield local trains will arrive 8.25 a.m., 1.25 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. daily, except Sunday and 9.30 p.m. Sunday only.

Irish Emigration Question.

The emigration question continues to attract great attention throughout Ireland. The grand total of the natives of Ireland, who have left for foreign shores during the past fifty-three years, is 3,961,011. Of these no fewer than 39,789 emigrated last year (1903) and during the past decade there were only four years in which so many people left Ireland. The gravity of the situation lies in the fact that half a century ago, when Ireland had a population greater by just half a million, the number of emigrants was only 38,000.

Windsor Salt

the best salt that Canada's best salt works can produce, and that's the best anywhere.

Miss M. Cartledge gives some helpful advice to young girls. Her letter is but one of thousands which prove that nothing is so helpful to young girls who are just arriving at the period of womanhood as

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkam's Vegetable Compound too highly, for it is the only medicine I ever tried which cured me. I suffered much from my first menstrual period, I felt so weak and dizzy at times I could not pursue my studies with the usual interest. My thoughts became sluggish, I had headaches, backaches and sinking spells, also pains in the back and lower limbs. In fact, I was sick all over.

"Finally, after many other remedies had been tried, we were advised to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am pleased to say that after taking it only two weeks, a wonderful change for the better took place, and in a short time I was in perfect health. I felt buoyant, full of life, and found all work a pastime. I am indeed glad to tell my experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it made a different girl of me. Yours very truly, MISS M. CARTLEDGE, 533 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga."

At such a time, the grandest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the necessary changes, and is the surest and most reliable cure for woman's ills of every nature. Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for free advice. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. Estes, of New York City, says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to you because I believe all young girls ought to know how much good your medicine will do them. I did dressmaking for years before I was married, and if it had not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I do not believe I could have stood the strain. There is no other work that is such a strain on the system. Oh, how my back used to ache from the bending over! I would feel as though I would have to scream out from the pain, and the sitting still made me so terribly tired and weak, and my head throbbed like an engine. I never could eat after work, I was so worn out. Then I was irregular, and had such frightful cramps every month they would simply double me up with pain, and I would have to give up working and lie down. But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed me into a strong, well woman. Yours very truly, MRS. MARTHA ESTES, 513 West 125th St., N. Y. City."

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of female troubles cured. Sold by druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutions. Remember every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

THE INTERFERENCE OF HON. MR. FISHER

Letters Which Go to Show Fussy Nature of Minister.

LATE G. O. C. IS IN TORONTO

Col. Gregory Threatens to Resign Owing to Political Interference in His Regiment.

Ottawa, June 17.—Before the House rose last night, Hon. Mr. Fielding presented the additional correspondence respecting the organization of the Scottish Light Dragoons, which Mr. Borden demanded on Wednesday night. The order was made that it should be printed immediately, and it was impossible to secure all the letters. The following, however, show the nature of Mr. Fisher's interference in the military matters in the Eastern Townships.

LETTER TO MR. BENHAM.

Mr. Fisher, writing to Clinton Benham, Sweetsburg, May 10, asking if he would like a captaincy or a lieutenancy: "I hope to be able to put things right at Sweetsburg in connection with the trouble that has arisen through Dr. Pickell being appointed to command a squadron there. That will not be as he has no military experience. If we cannot find somebody with military experience to command the squadron, which is to have headquarters at Adamsville or Sweetsburg, we will have to get a Montreal man. I would prefer to have the chief officers from the district, but I understand there is nobody in the district qualified to take the higher command.

MR. BENHAM'S REPLY.

Mr. Benham replied, May 16, declining the offer, because of lack of qualifications, and concluding with the following: "Now, if you do not get any applications from any of our fellows rather than see it go to those fellows in Sweetsburg, I would take a commission, and do the best I could; so will leave the matter in your hands, and will be satisfied with the results."

To this Mr. Fisher replied May 20, in part as follows. Mr. Benham being addressed as "My dear Clinton": "I am sorry that a good deal of disturbance has been raised about this regiment. I really think Colonel Smart is desirous of making it a good regiment, without political leanings. Unfortunately he got into contact with the wrong people, and no doubt made some mistake. It is impossible, however, to make all the changes that our friends would like. The most important ones, however, have beeen done. Dr. Pickell is not to be given the commanding of the squadron, and Tom Richell is to be made lieutenant, instead of captain."

Mr. Benham finally refused the command.

LETTER TO COL. SMART.

May 13, Mr. Fisher, writing to Col. Smart, among other things said:

"There are, however, one or two suggestions I desire to make. In the first place I note that although in "D" squadron you have changed Mr. Russell and Lieut. Holland, making the latter major and the former captain, you have still kept Dr. Pickell as major of "E" squadron. I thought it was thoroughly understood with us that this should not be, and that for the same reason Holland was made major of "D" squadron. Some officer of experience should be made major of the squadron.

LETTER TO MAJOR STEWART.

To Major D. M. Stewart, manager of the Sovereign Bank, Montreal. Mr. Fisher wrote: "Things which Colonel Smart and yourself, as city men, would never think of have to be taken into consideration. Quite innocently, I am sure, these things were not thought of in the work that was done in the early attempt to organize this regiment, and the result was Mr. Smart's error—I want to say in regard to yourself that when it was suggested that the colonel and the senior major should both come from outside the district I thought it unwise, and wished to find some man in the district who could take the second position. It was only for this reason that not knowing you personally, or who the Mr. Stewart was who was suggested, I said that I would prefer an Eastern Townships man to anybody else."

THE REGIMENT.

The militia orders issued yesterday contain the following appointments to the 13th Scottish Light Dragoons, the regiment in connection with which Mr. Fisher objected to certain appointments which led to Lord Dundonald's protest. The following appointments are gazetted:

13th Scottish Light Dragoons — To be capain—I. C. Miltimore, Esq., to complete establishment. 17th May, 1904.

To be provisional lieutenant—W. P. Miltimore, gentleman, to complete establishment. 17th May, 1904.

To be lieutenant—H. G. Sewell, gentleman, to complete establishment. 18th May, 1904.

To be paymaster, with the honorary rank of captain—M. F. Goddard, Esq., late lieutenant 79th Regiment, to complete establishment. 19th May, 1904.

To be quartermaster, with the honorary rank of captain—Honorary Captain M. C. Martin, from the retired list, to complete establishment. 19th May, 1904.

LORD DUNDONALD IN TORONTO.

Toronto, June 17. — Lord Dundonald arrived in the city from London last night. He was met at the train by a Montreal Star representative, but declined positively to say anything whatever regarding his "cause celebre."

"I am really very sorry," he said in a courteous way, "but I have absolutely nothing to give out at present."

"Do you intend to pay a visit to the militia camp at Niagara?" he was asked.

"No, it is not my intention to do so" was the reply.

The General was accompanied by his aide de camp, Captain Newton, and immediately after alighting from the train repaired to the Queen's Hotel. During the evening Lieut.-Col. J. H. McLean, Lieut.-Col. J. T. Denison and others called upon His Lordship.

It is expected that Lord Dundonald will leave for Ottawa to-night, although last evening he could not say definitely what his plans would be.

LT.-COL. HURDMAN'S REGRETS.

Toronto, June 17.—Lieut.-Col. Hurdman, of Ottawa, passed through the city last night on his way to Quebec. He has been paying a visit to the militia camp at London and stated that there was a strong feeling of disappointment there over the dismissal of Lord Dundonald from the position of G.O.C. The General, he added, was very highly thought of by the men, and these regret his retirement exceedingly.

COL. GREGORY WILL RESIGN.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., June 17—On account of political interference with the interior economy of his regiment, Lieut.-Col. Robert W. Gregory, of the 2nd Dragoons, St. Catharines, has asked Col. Otter, in command of the militia camp here, to be relieved of his command. Col. Otter refuses to say what action he will take in the matter, nor will he give any reason for the action which Lt-Col. Gregory has taken. Lieut.-Col. Gregory also maintains silence, and declines to say anything about the affair. Last year Col. Gregory's regiment was complimented by Lord Dundonald on being the crack cavalry corps in Canada, and this year it is well up to strength.

THE CITY'S FINANCES.

Ald. Ekers Denies That the City is Bankrupt.

Ald. Ekers protested very strongly at the City Hall to-day over a statement which had been made in a French newspaper, to the effect that the books at the City Hall, if properly kept, would show that the corporation was bankrupt. "Such a statement," said Ald. Ekers, "is most unjust. The city was never in a better financial condition. Such stories do the city great harm. It was also stated in the story that I had said the finances of the city were not in a satisfactory condition; this is untrue. I never made any such statement and never gave the interview credited to me. I shall ventilate the whole affair at the meeting of the Finance Committee to-day."

Special Notice, Dominion Day—Saguenay Excursion.

Co. have decided to duplicate last year's popular excursion to the Saguenay this summer, and the fast steamer Carolina, newly refitted and equipped with a powerful searchlight, will leave Montreal Thursday evening, June 30th, and return to the city Sunday evening, July 3rd; making the trip from Quebec to Montreal by daylight. Tickets are limited. Fare, $15.75, including meals and berth en route. City Ticket Office, 128 St. James street, opp. P.O.

BOILERMAKERS.—There will be a special meeting of the Boilermakers' Union, No. 134, this evening, in the Oddfellows' Chambers, 1863 Notre Dame street. A matter of great interest to the craft will be discussed.

LADIES' PCINIC.—At last night's meeting of the Ladie Auxiliary, Division No. 5, A.O.H., final arrangements were made for the annual picnic and games, to be held at Bout de l'Ile Park, on July 30.

THE WEATHER.

Miss June is breaking records in the way of continuous sunshine. Having repented of her bad behaviour when she was yet a few days old, now that she has reached the mature period of her teens she is showing what she can do in fine style. The result is perfect weather.

There are those that say it is a trifle too warm to be pleasant, but they come in the class of "never satisfied." Negligee shirts and straw hats are here and apparently here to stay. Flannel suits are abroad and the woods and lakes are calling to their annual devotees to come and see nature in all the glory of her summer dress.

Although the night was warm the thunder which was anticipated by the weatherwise held off, and when dawn broke a refreshing breeze swept over the city. There was enough wind stirring throughout the morning to make things comfortable, and although the sun got in some good work he did not succeed in making matters unpleasant. The mercury was away up in the seventies and remained stationary for the greater part of the morning.

The thunderstorms which have been hovering round, however, do not appear to have made up their minds what to do and the probabilities are that before the next twenty-four hours are reckoned with the past, Montreal will have a specimen of what June can do in the way of a storm. Fine and warmer weather is promised for Saturday with moderate winds and there is joy in the hearts of those who look forward to week end respites from the heat of the city.

No Street Railway Strike.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, June 17. — Unless unforeseen complications arise it looks altogether probable that a street railway strike will be averted. Mr. William Mackenzie president of the company, stated yesterday that while the company would not give over the control of its property to any organization by recognizing the union, it was quite willing to submit any grievances and the question of wages to the Conciliation Committee provided for in the terms of last year's agreement.

At Port Arthur, Charles Donati has been found guilty of manslaughter for killing J. Mein on March 13 in a fight in his store.
