Fortieth Year.

THIRTY-NINE YEAR LIBERAL RULE IN THIS PROVINCE SWAMPED UNDER RECORD AVALANCHE OF BALLOTS

Premier Godbout, Personally Defeated in L'Islet, Expects to Hand Over Reins of Government Before Week-End as Liberal Party Retains Only Fourteen of Ninety Seats in Legislature—Five Other Cabinet Ministers Fell Before Onslaught of Union Nationale Forces of Maurice Duplessis—Premier-Elect Promises to Continue Work of Public Accounts Committee.

Quebec was under new management today. Nominally the Government of Premier Adélard Godbout was in control, but actually a Union Nationale administration had moved into power, awaiting only the formal processes of resignation and appointment before taking over a mandate delivered to it by an overwhelming decision of the electorate.

This Province's voters—farmers, fishermen, factory-workers and office-men—left their tasks yesterday to roll up one of the greatest majorities ever accorded a campaigning party. When the counting began it was evident the Union Nationale under Maurice Duplessis was the faction on which the electorate had called for the formation of a new administration. When it ended Duplessis had obtained seventy-six seats in a Legislature of ninety, a majority of sixty-two over the shattered ranks of Liberalism led by Premier Adélard Godbout.

Premier Godbout himself was among the personally defeated, losing out in L'Islet to his Union Nationale opponent. His name headed the list of Cabinet Ministers who met defeat, a list which included Hon. Wilfrid Gagnon, Minister of Commerce and Industry; Hon. Stuart McDougall, Provincial Treasurer; Hon. Césaire Gervais, Minister of Public Works and Mines; Hon. Edgar Rochette, Minister of Labor, and Hon. Pierre E. Côté, Minister of Roads.

A dynasty that came into power in 1897 ended with defeat of the Liberal party yesterday. In that year Hon. F. G. Marchand led his party to victory at the polls, defeating the Conservatives under E. J. Flynn, and no Opposition was able to dislodge his successors until Duplessis' Union Nationale—a merger of Conservatives with insurgent Liberals—swept the boards yesterday.

Mr. Duplessis will have a varied following from which to choose his Cabinet. Among the prominent Union Nationale candidates who rode to victory under his banner were J. Ernest Giguère, Quebec City's fiery mayor, in Montmagny; Dr. Philippe Hamel, in Quebec Centre; J. Oscar Drouin, former Liberal and pint-sized firebrand of the Union Nationale organization, in Quebec East; and Hon. Desjardins Gagnon, one-time federal minister without portfolio, in Matane.

Godbout Will Continue To Be Leader of Quebec Liberals.

"Adélard Godbout will continue to be leader of the Liberal party in the Province of Quebec," Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Dominion Minister of Justice, declared after the result was known last night. Mr. Godbout himself gave no hint of his political future in a straight statement in which he merely thanked those electors who had supported him.

Continuation of the investigation into alleged irregularities begun before the Legislature's Public Accounts Committee prior to the Government's resignation last spring, was foreshadowed by Mr. Duplessis. "The Union Nationale, tomorrow as today and yesterday, has always the same programme, which is that the Public Accounts inquiry be continued," he said. "Now it will be continued, and those guilty will be condemned and punished."

The last meeting of the present Cabinet was called for Thursday. Premier Godbout said Mr. Duplessis and his followers would be able to assume office within a week. "I am sure they are anxious to get to work as soon as possible," he said.

Continuation of the Public Accounts investigation was a key plank in the platform on which Duplessis made his victory stand. All through the campaign the charge of "corruption" in the Government's face. A Royal Commission of two judges was appointed to inquire into administrative affairs, but Mr. Duplessis declared this was merely holding up an "unlabeled lantern" to the question, and declared for a continuation of the inquiry before the committee.

Only Two Parties Will Have Representatives in Legislature.

For the first time in history no Conservatives will sit in the next Quebec Legislature. Mr. Duplessis in a former leader of the Conservative bloc. But the party lost its identity in the merger of Action Libérale Nationale and Conservative candidates who ran as the official Opposition in this election. A few, including C. E. Gault, a former Conservative House leader, declined to join the merger and retained their Conservative label. They were defeated.

Twenty-two men who were members of the last House as Action Libérale Nationale under Paul Gouin ran this time as Union Nationale. Ten A.L.N. candidates who were defeated in 1935 ran also, and most of them got in. Gouin himself did not run. Standing aloof from the contest he picked forty-three men as worthy of support, including both leaders and an almost equal representation from both sides. Twenty-four of his choices won.

Only A Few That Served Under Taschereau Survived.

Louis Alexandre Taschereau, the patrician Premier who resigned last June and chose Godbout, practical farmer and former professor of agriculture, to fill his place, took no

FREEZING WEATHER IN HIGH ALTITUDE SECTIONS OF UPTATE NEW YORK

Albany, N. Y., August 18.—Freezing weather and frost came to high altitude sections of upstate New York today in the wake of a heat wave.

Residents of Benson, in Hamilton County, arose at daylight to find the ground covered with a heavy frost. The temperature was twenty-four degrees above zero.

BELEAGUERED MADRID CHIEFS ARE READY TO FLEE CAPITAL BY AIR

Three Airliners in Readiness to Evacuate Government Leaders if Capital Falls, Uncensored Despatches Claim—Rebels, Firmly Entrenched in Mountains, Said to Be Only Awaiting Reinforcements from Other Sides of Capital Before Launching Attack—Claimed Two-Thirds of Country in Rebel Hands.

Heads of the beleaguered Madrid Government were reported in uncensored despatches reaching Gibraltar today to have three airliners in readiness for flight in the event the capital falls.

The advice said rebels, firmly entrenched in the Guadarrama mountains north of Madrid, had only to await reinforcements from other sides of the capital before launching an attack which was deemed likely of success.

In any event, it became apparent the Government expected no quick victory. Today the Madrid authorities urged women of the nation to make ammunition and winter clothing and called for volunteers to form a new "Battalion of Red Lions."

Up in the north of Spain, two rebel warships resumed a fierce duel with Government land batteries at Fort Guadalupe, defending the Iruñea Sebastian sector. It appeared the naval shells were finding their marks.

Worried French officials set up a rigid border patrol. The fighting is just across the international line. The first charges that either side was using gas came from rebel headquarters at Burgos, which contended the Government air force had been dropping gas bombs. A Madrid official was quoted in a Paris dispatch as acknowledging tear gas bombs had been utilized in "defensive" fighting.

Rebel troops from Morocco forced north to Valladolid amid their leaders' claims of an imminent "final victory." Conflicting claims clouded the situation on the Island of Mallorca, scene of new fighting.

PROTEST THE TRANSFER OF GOLD RESERVES TO PARIS

Rebel Headquarters, Burgos, Spain, Aug. 18.—Gen. Miguel Cabanellas, head of the rebel junta, today announced that a protest would be lodged with France against the transfer of gold from the Bank of Spain to Paris.

At the same time the insurgent Government banned all trading in foreign exchange, stocks and bonds and ordered all banks in rebel-controlled territory to inform the junta within five days of all their private holdings of cash and negotiable securities.

REBELS CHARGE LOYALIST TROOPS USING GAS BOMBS

Lisbon, Aug. 18.—The Burgos rebel headquarters accused Spanish loyalist air forces today of using gas bombs in battles of the last few days, a Portuguese correspondent reported.

MEDICAL PROFESSION WILL BE WELL REPRESENTED IN NEXT LEGISLATURE

Quebec, August 18.—The medical profession will be amply represented in Quebec's Twentieth Legislature, for eleven doctors were returned in the provincial election yesterday.

Among the seventy-five Union Nationale members on the Government side of the Legislative Assembly will be ten medics, or one for every 6.5 Government men. Across the House, Dr. A. Bouthillier, Liberal member for St. John's, will be the only representative of his profession among the fifteen Liberals.

"G-MEN OF THE WILDS" TO HUNT PREDATORY ANIMALS

More than 1,000 Trappers Will Sift into Remote Woods and Mountains as Agents in United States Drive Against Certain Animals.

Salt Lake City, August 18.—More than 1,000 trappers—"G-Men" of the wilds—will sift soon into remote woods and mountains, agents in a United States Government war on predatory animals.

All fall and far into the winter they will prow through contrails and hidden streams. Not until early spring, when they report on their "kills," will results of the war become known.

Two rewards spur the woodsmen, receipts from the fur and wages as W.P.A. employees. Coyotes, mountain lions and bobcats, the three worst killers, will be the chief objects of the drive in some states bears and wolves also will be hunted.

Record Attendance Promised for Today as Fine Weather and Varied Programme Attract Visitors from All Sections of Eastern Townships.

Waterloo, Aug. 18.—A record attendance was expected today at the one hundred and second annual Waterloo Fair. The second day of this popular Shefford County Fair opened this morning with every indication that the weather would be ideal and that the attendance would surpass all previous years.

Yesterday, the opening day, saw the final touches given to the various departments and judging in all departments started at an early hour.

Those who have not yet visited the Waterloo Fair can get some idea of its magnitude by the fact that carpenters were kept at work all last night building additional sheds to accommodate the entries of horses and cattle. Even with this extra space the directors this morning found that they were still cramped for room.

Judging continued this morning and it was expected by evening that this important task will be fairly well completed. This morning the members of the Boys' Club held the spotlight. These proud young champions enjoy much favor with Fair patrons.

Representing the Iron Hill Ayrshire and Holstein Club, Clarence Allen, Albert Chamberlain, Winfield Burrell and George Knowlton with their Ayrshire calves, and Lynforth and Jackson Hadlock, Grant Miller and Jackson Marsh with Holstein calves are occupying the same tent with the Foster Jersey Club members.

Alex Forand, John Taylor and Alan Channell, of the East Bolton Club, are exhibiting Holsteins, while E. Cooper, E. Dufresne and Ross Juby, of the same club, are exhibiting Jerseys and Harold and Russell Patterson and Gerald West are showing Ayrshires. The club leaders are also in attendance, and the judges are Roland Belzite and Ephrem Boudreau.

The Waterloo Social Service Club booth is again an active corner.

Most seriously injured was fireman Romeo Dubuc, thirty-six, who said he had little chance for recovery from a fractured skull and internal injuries.

The flames, of unknown origin, had threatened to spread from the original building, housing twelve stores, and three alarms had brought numerous fire squads to the scene.

NEW MANAGER OF QUEBEC PROVINCE

PREMIER-ELECT MAURICE DUPLESSIS

Ending thirty-nine years of unbroken Liberal rule, Maurice Duplessis, K.C., M.L.A. for Three Rivers, yesterday led his Union Nationale followers to a smashing victory in Quebec's provincial general elections. His personal election conceded a few minutes after the polls closed, Mr. Duplessis saw his following increased steadily through the evening until he had elected seventy-six members in a House of ninety. Included in the Liberal casualties were Premier Adélard Godbout and the majority of his Cabinet members.

NO THIRD PARTY IN NEW QUEBEC LEGISLATURE

Quebec, August 18.—Quebec's Twentieth Legislature will be entirely composed of Union Nationale members on the Government side and Liberals in Opposition. Electors yesterday failed to elect a representative of any other party.

Down to defeat went twelve independent Liberals, four independent Union Nationale candidates, two Conservatives and an independent Conservative, three plain independents, three Communists, one Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation representative, one Labor, and one "People's candidate."

ROUTE IS ANNOUNCED FOR CORONATION PROCESSION

Drives to and from Westminster Abbey Will Be Longest on Record, Covering Nearly Twice Distance of Route Taken by Late King George.

London, August 18.—Official announcement today of the route to be taken by the King's coronation procession on May 12th, 1937, showed the drives to and from Westminster Abbey would be the longest on record, covering nearly twice the distance of the coronation route taken by the late King George.

The route will traverse no street twice, thus giving the enormous crowds expected from home and overseas ample opportunity to see the pageantry.

The route from Buckingham Palace to the west entrance of Westminster Abbey will be by way of the Mall, Trafalgar Square, Whitehall and Parliament street. The return journey will be via Victoria Embankment, Northumberland avenue, Cockspur street, Pall Mall, St. James street, Piccadilly Circus, Regent street, Oxford street, the Marble Arch and Hyde Park corner.

RECOUNT ENDS BRIEF VICTORY OF HON. P. COTE

Narrow Majority of Five Held by Roads Minister Last Evening Disappeared on Later Count which Gave Union Nationale Candidate Majority of 130.

Carleton, Que., Aug. 18.—Defeat instead of the previously-announced victory today greeted Hon. P. E. Côté, Minister of Roads in the Taschereau and Godbout Liberal Government. Results in Bonaventure constituency last night gave the former member a majority of five over his only opponent, Henri Jolicoeur, National Union candidate.

But the returning officer said early today later counts had shown Jolicoeur elected with a majority roughly around 130.

Defeat of the Minister reduced by one more to fourteen the seats retained by the Liberals and added it to the Union Nationale victory for seventy-six seats.

Perth, Western Australia, Aug. 18.—Philip Collier, Premier of Western Australia, resigned today for reasons of health. He will be succeeded by Will Cock, Minister of Railways.

THE WEATHER

THUNDERSHOWERS.

Pressure is high from the Ottawa Valley eastward, while a moderate disturbance centred over north-western Ontario has a trough of low extending southwestward to Kansas. Showers have occurred in southern districts of the Maritimes, though elsewhere in eastern Canada, the weather has been fair. Light to moderate thundershowers have been general over Manitoba and the Rainy River district, with light to moderate showers in some parts of Alberta and northern Saskatchewan. It is now comparatively cool throughout the West.

Forecast: Fair and moderately warm, followed by thundershowers late tonight and on Wednesday.

Northern New England: Fair to night; Wednesday, increasing cloudiness and warmer in the interior; possibly showers at night.

Temperatures yesterday: Maximum, 65; minimum, 55.

Same day last year: Maximum, 95; minimum, 54.

DUPLESSIS' FOLLOWERS CAPTURED EVERY EASTERN TOWNSHIPS SEAT

General Turnover Included Four Seats in This District Held by Liberals in Last House—Former Opposition Members Seeking Re-election All Returned with Increased Majorities—Brome and Wolfe Provided the Closest Contests in This District—Heavy Vote Cast Throughout Eastern Townships.

The Eastern Townships, which proved one of the strongholds of the Union Nationale movement in 1935 provincial general elections by returning only four Liberal members out of thirteen seats, went one better for Premier-elect Maurice Duplessis in yesterday's balloting by giving all seats to the Union Nationale cause. Two of the Eastern Townships Liberal seats were retained in 1935 by Cabinet ministers, Hon. J. E. Perrault, then Minister of Roads and later Attorney-General, being elected in Arthabaska by a majority of 2,312 and Hon. R. F. Stockwell, Provincial Treasurer, received a majority of 508 in Brome.

With the retirement of these two ministers when ex-Premier Taschereau resigned the premiership, the counties had to find new Liberal candidates, who appeared unable to withstand the reform wave that swept the Province yesterday. In Arthabaska J. D. Gagne, Union Nationale, ran up a majority of 705 over Edouard Bourbeau, Liberal. Jonathan Robinson, Duplessis' supporter in Brome, amassed a lead of 150 votes over his Liberal opponent, Percy Taber.

The following is a complete list of the members elected for the Eastern Townships in yesterday's elections, all being representatives of the Union Nationale party, together with the majorities obtained. Members of the last house are indicated with an (x):

County	Elected Member	Majority
Arthabaska.....	J. D. Gagne	705
Brome.....	Jonathan Robinson	150
Beauce.....	Dr. Raoul Poulin	600
Compton.....	xPayson Sherman	943
Drummond.....	xJoseph Marier	935
Frontenac.....	xPatrice Tardif	1,281
Megantic.....	xTancrede Labbe	1,500
Missisquoi.....	xFrank Pouliot	993
Richmond.....	xAlbert Gaudreau	900

Candidates Rewarded On Their Second Attempt.

Among the members of the old House, Thomas Lapointe, seeking re-election as a Liberal in Wolfe County, found his National Union opponent, Henri Vachon, whom he defeated in 1935 by 147 votes, rather too much for him this time and early in the evening was forced to concede the election of his ancient rival by about three hundred majority.

The narrow margin of twenty votes that the Liberal candidate, Dr. A. Rajotte, received in Drummond in the last election over Joseph Marier soon melted under yesterday's wave of anti-Government voting and Mr. Marier was rewarded in his second attempt, being returned by a majority of approximately 935.

In the other Eastern Townships ridings the "Opposition" candidates, who will be the Government supporters before this week ends, found the going rather easy, early returns not only assuring their re-elections, but also indicating that in practically every case their majorities would be increased over that which they obtained the last election.

Increased Majorities.

Col. Johnny Bourque, who it was expected would experience a close call in Sherbrooke, found that a Minister of the Crown could be defeated as handsily as a private member and increased the record majority of 1,881 he obtained in the elections of last November to 1,881 this year, which sets a new record for this county in a provincial election.

In Shefford, where the Liberals had been loudly predicting victory, Hector Choquette, Union Nationale representative, rather confounded his opponents when he registered a record-breaking increase in his majority. Yesterday he led Honorat Lussier by 1,243 votes as compared with an advantage of 459 in 1935.

Payson Sherman, Union Nationale candidate in Compton, extended the lead he took in 1935 of 243 votes to 943 over his Liberal opponent, Dr. S. A. Barfill, in yesterday's vote. Over in Frontenac County, Patrice Tardif, running again under Duplessis' colors, chalked up a majority of 1,281 over Albert Choquette. His majority last year was 1,298.

Tancrede Labbe forced ahead in the early stages of the Megantic County returns in a three-way fight, returns still incomplete this morning giving him a majority of approximately 1,500 over his nearest opponent, Louis Houde, Liberal, with Theophile Lafrenée, independent, trailing the field. Last year Labbe established a majority of 1,375.

The electors of Missisquoi again showed their confidence in Frank Pouliot, more than doubling his majority. Yesterday Pouliot led Jean B. Gendron by 993 votes as compared with 451 last year.

Albert Gaudreau continued to drive the Richmond County band wagon, defeating Ulric Bruneau by over nine hundred votes, whereas in 1935 his majority was 637.

Rouville Beaudry found the electors of Stanstead County in a rather friendly mood when they increased his advantage of 323 obtained in November, 1935, to 498 yesterday. His opponent this year being Enos must be released, and "all states which possessed considerable industries for the manufacture of arms and airplanes must likewise bind themselves, and in particular private persons and private firms, to come under the embargo."

While refraining from making action against volunteers one of the conditions for joining an international neutrality agreement, a German Government communiqué stated France had been informed that "it would be urgently desirable if participating governments would extend their action to include prevention of the departure of volunteers" bound for the Spanish war zone.

BRITAIN NOT ADVISED OF SPAIN'S MOVE TO APPEAL

London, Aug. 18.—Foreign Secretary Eden returned to London this afternoon and took charge of the Foreign Office. A period of diplomatic activity was predicted.
The British Government has not been advised so far of the Spanish Government's intention to appeal to the League of Nations. It is assumed here, however, that if an appeal is made, it will likely be under Article XI of the Covenant.
Article XI was one of the articles invoked by the Ethiopians.

BRITISH NEWSPAPERS URGE FIRM STAND ON DEMOCRACY

London, Aug. 18.—Liberals and Labor unite in a demand that Britain shall take a firm stand for democracy.
"The zero hour," declares the Liberal News-Chronicle as it tells of German and Italian help for the Spanish rebels while Berlin and Rome delay the neutrality pact, will come "some time or other."
The News-Chronicle adds that democracy must stand and say to Fascists: "Thus far and no further." If not democracy will go under internationally as it has gone under nationally in one country after another—and it will deserve to do so.

The paper suggests the French and British governments should announce jointly an "appointed day" for receipt of favorable replies from Berlin and Rome, and declare that failing such receipt they will thereafter consider themselves free to aid the Spanish Government.
"That appointed day," the News-Chronicle goes on, "must be soon—three or four days hence at the most. The man who runs away knows he cannot run indefinitely. Some time or other he will find himself up against a wall. Democracy stands with its back to the wall at the moment. It must face its enemies or perish. Who will give it the lead?"

The Daily Herald, Labor, says, "Prime Ministers need their rest, but duty comes first. The British people expect more than they are getting from their Prime Minister in the present Spanish crisis. They expect leadership."

"No one," the Herald continues, "wishes without good cause to interrupt Mr. Baldwin as he drowns in the Welsh sunshine. But events interrupt. The noise of gunfire interrupts. And the noise of gunfire against free democratic government anywhere in the world should bring any British Prime Minister worthy of the name immediately into action."

"British leadership" has surely sunk to the lowest point. It has sunk out of sight. It has been sunk by a great English democrat who made so many speeches about democracy."

cated by the Madrid Government part at all in the campaign. Five men who had served under him remained in the Godbout Cabinet, but only one or two survived the storm of ballots which submerged the old Government and brought Duplessis to power. Chief among them was Hon. T. D. Bouchard, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Municipal Affairs, who saved St. Hyacinthe for the Liberal party.
Several Dominion Cabinet ministers had a part in the campaign, but they acted on their personal responsibility. Prime Minister Mackenzie King, observing his known practice, had no share in the fight, and issued a statement to the effect, "Conservative leader Bennett likewise held aloof. In fact through-

CORN AND HOG PRICES SOARED TO HIGH PEAK

Corn Today Sold at Highest Level in Eight Years and Within a Few Cents of Peaks Established Decade Ago, while $12 Hog Was Back for First Time in Eleven Months.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Corn and hog prices soared again today.
Corn sold at the highest level in eight years and within a few cents of the peaks established a decade ago.

The $12 hog was back for the first time in eleven months.
September corn advanced more than a cent a bushel at the opening of the Board of Trade, touching $1.13, a new peak within three cents of the previous high price of $1.16 established in May, 1925.

Cash corn for immediate delivery, quoted yesterday as high as $1.30 a bushel for white, sold at the highest price since 1925 and within four cents of the peak established then.

Hogs, on the crest of the sharp advance since last summer, advanced because of continued curtailment of receipts. An upturn of twenty cents a hundred pounds in the price paid for choice swine carried the top to $12.05, only twenty cents below the six-year peak established here eleven months ago.

JAPAN SWELLS NAVAL BUDGET TO NEW RECORD

Navy Department Estimates for Coming Year Place Expenditures at $223,300,000 as Compared with $159,480,000 for Present Year.

Tokyo, Aug. 18.—Japan's navy officials, seeking funds for new warships, mapped a campaign today to swell the naval budget to record proportions.

The Domei (Japanese) News Agency said navy office estimates for the coming fiscal year were believed to total 700,000,000 yen (about $223,300,000) of which 340,000,000 yen (about $98,600,000) would be expended for ship construction.

The building programme would be designed to meet naval expansion by the United States and Great Britain.

The budget estimates to be presented to the cabinet would exceed considerably the previous record of 522,000,000 yen (about $159,480,000) for the 1936-37 fiscal year.

The Domei Agency understood the new construction to be begun in 1937 would inaugurate a one billion yen (about $290,000,000) building programme.

The Washington Naval Treaty which expires at the end of 1936 would release Japan from the 5:5:3 ratio provision. Great Britain has announced plans for the construction of two battleships beginning in 1937. United States officials have indicated a likelihood of a similar expansion.

(Authoritative Japanese circles expressed belief in June that nation would undertake replacement of four major warships in 1937.)

MAN WHO DROVE DEATH-FATED TRUCK BURIED

Coroner's Inquest into Canada's Worst Level Crossing Accident Delayed Pending Burial of Twenty-Two Victims — Town of Louiseville in General Mourning.

Louiseville, Que., Aug. 18.—Edmond Houle, the carter who drove two score men and boys into the path of a midnight freight train, was buried here today with four of the twenty-two victims.

A half dozen victims were buried yesterday and funerals for the remainder will be held tomorrow, shortly before Dr. Thomas Caron reopens the coroner's inquest into Canada's worst level crossing accident which occurred Friday night as the driver and forty-three passengers returned from a political rally at neighboring St. Justin.

It was the fourth consecutive day the town was in general mourning. Crowds thronged the streets as the horse-drawn hearse preceded a cortege to the cemetery. Five times the mourners followed the hearse along the route, returning each time to the Catholic Church in the centre of the town.

Tomorrow will see the ceremony repeated until all the dead have been carried to the little cemetery on the hill. Then, on Monday, special high mass will be held at the request of the town council as a civic tribute.

SHERBROOKE, TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1936.

It Is Up To Mr. Duplessis.

The electors of the Province of Quebec yesterday gave no uncertain mandate to Maurice Duplessis, K.C., Union Nationale leader, to carry on the administration of this province for the next four or five years and now the issue is squarely up to him. There will be no Opposition capable of standing up against his desires and he can offer no excuse if he fails to carry out his promises to the electors. His campaign promises were largely two-fold, the continuation of the Public Accounts Committee investigation and the giving of a fair representation in the public service to the English-speaking minority.

Of his ability to carry out the first, no one can doubt. It was Mr. Duplessis alone who overthrew the Taschereau regime by the scandals he uncovered before this committee, and it was these same scandals that were largely responsible for yesterday's Liberal debacle.

And it is on this ability that the English-speaking minority trust their hopes, that he will carry out his promise to give them a more proportional representation than they have at present. The English minority have been generous with their support to Mr. Duplessis, and they expect that Mr. Duplessis will be equally as just to them.

His is the responsibility and his will be the blame or praise. He can prove himself either a statesman or merely a politician. He cannot lay the blame on any of his lieutenants. The doctrines of the Union Nationale were his. He made the party, welding opposing groups into a single party. It is up to him to make his Government a success.

Many Civic Improvements Have Been Achieved.

The City of Sherbrooke, which today has an area of 3,104 acres or 4.85 square miles, may justly lay claim to the title of the "Queen City of the Eastern Townships."

Situated in the heart of these picturesque and historic Townships, which are recognized as a "province within a province," Sherbrooke today boasts of many improvements which make it a model city in every sense of the word.

Due to a wise and able civic administration, Sherbrooke has, of recent years, suffered few setbacks. Apart from the toll taken during the years of economic unrest and depression, which was general in all parts of the world, Sherbrooke has steadily advanced along the path of progress and development.

To the present City Council and to its immediate predecessor, which was headed by ex-Mayor Dr. F. H. Bradley, goes no small share of the credit for what has been achieved and for what is being done in the way of bettering the city.

Without thought of any particular ward or section of the city, Mayor Emile Rioux and the present aldermen are working for the general welfare of the city. They desire that each ward receive its full share of improvement, but their chief concern is for the general welfare and appearance of the city as a whole.

Listed below are some of the improvements which have been executed by the City Council, all of which have tended towards the beautification of the city generally:

Lifting of street car tracks from city streets.
Removal of over-head trolley wires.
Extensive improvements to city parks.
Construction of two modern band stands.
Building of stone walls along river banks.
Paving of streets in all parts of city.
Renewal of water and gas mains.
Widening of King street west by removal of green plot.

Extending of King street west sidewalk to city limits.

Levelling of the Parade Grounds.

Erection of numerous ornamental lamps throughout the city.

Extensive work in connection with Jacques Cartier Park.

Construction of ornamental stone wall along Esplanade avenue.

Painting and decorating of city's electrical stations.

Building of stone wall and "Look-Out" on Brompton Road.

Opening of Park avenue.

Certainly the citizens have every reason to feel satisfied with what has been done. The aldermen, under the guidance of a capable and conscientious Mayor, are striving to do their best and there can be no doubt but that their efforts are bearing fruit. Let the citizens show their interest and approval in the work of their civic representatives by co-operating with the City Council and encouraging all their efforts towards a bigger and better Sherbrooke.

Record Readers Aply Served.

Members of the Record staff were on the qui vive last night when the election returns were pouring in from all sections of Sherbrooke County, the Eastern Townships and the Province.

It was a truly busy night in every newspaper office and the Record was no exception. It was a strenuous time while it lasted, but there was the satisfaction of knowing that an efficient service was being rendered to Record subscribers and readers.

Shortly after the closing of the polls at six o'clock the excitement began, and it was not long before everything was running at top speed.

The loud speakers placed outside the Record block were soon heard far and wide. People began to gather outside. Telephones were ringing within the building as members of the editorial and business staffs catered to the demands of the public, while the men in the mechanical department prepared for the special edition issue, which was on the street in record time.

There was not one member of the staff who did not do his part last night. There was not one idle person. There was something for each one to do and he or she did it well and good.

Again the members of the Record staff have proved their loyalty to their paper and again the Record has come to the fore with an efficient, capable and courteous service to its readers and subscribers.

What Editors Say

THRIFT AGAIN.

New York Times.

Deposits in mutual savings banks in the United States reached $10,020,000,000 as of July 1st, according to a compilation by the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks. The total is within about $10,000,000 of the record high established in 1932. Actually the situation now with respect to savings is far better than it was in 1932 when the depression was at its worst. Then small businesses were closing out accounts with commercial banks and lodging the money in savings banks; such deposits were never released by savings institutions because they were not bona fide savings accounts. Now the encouraging part of the showing is that the present record has been attained chiefly through the growth of small accounts. The force of the banks' compelling slogan: Put Your Savings in a Savings Bank, is apparent. A deposit total of the present magnitude is a far cry from the first savings bank founded by the Rev. Henry Duncan in the hamlet of Ruthwell, Scotland, in 1810. It is significant that a picture of the dominion's banking quarters is on display in practically every savings bank; the mechanics of savings banking have steadily improved since a century and a quarter ago, but the basic idea of promoting thrift remains the same.

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY.

Baltimore Sun.

It may be that the government is obligated to protect the small investor who wants to risk his funds in the stock market, but surely there is an equal obligation to protect the taxpayer and the small insurance policyholder against the consequences of continued unnecessary spending. The small investor is not compelled to venture into the stock market, but the income tax payer is compelled to invest in the government whether or not he approves record navies or boondoggling. The tax money spent on "Quoddy" is just as much "other people's money" as money unwisely spent by private financiers.

The "economic royalists" may be lying in wait for the return of the good pickings of 1929, and Mr. Roosevelt is wise in preparing for them. But he will command still greater confidence when it becomes more apparent that he is equally vigilant for the "other people's money" which has been collected for the operation of the government and continued waste of which leads to consequences just as drastic as those from too much exuberance in stock-market trading.

MUST PAY THE PRICE.

Litlowed Banner.

Reduction of taxes through reduction of expenditures of government can be brought about only by lessening the demands on the various governments.

Political promises and sectional demands on government treasuries have gone a long way towards bringing taxes to their present high levels. The public must realize that for every new demand it makes on the government an increase in taxes is necessary.

Those who insist that the fiddler play should not object when he presents the bill.

PROVINCIAL POLITICAL HISTORY OF EASTERN TOWNSHIPS RIDINGS

History of Eastern Townships Constituencies Since Federation May Be Divided into Three Distinct Eras, Starting with Conservative Domination 1867-1897, Followed by Liberal Wave Lasting Until 1935, when Conservative-A.L.N. Forces Took Eight of Eleven Seats.

Prior to the turnover in the provincial general elections of last November, when eight of the eleven townships returned Opposition candidates, the political history of the Eastern Townships can be divided roughly into two periods.

In the first, from Confederation until 1897, the Conservative party held control of the district, generally carrying all the ridings except Megantic and in the latter part of the period Drummond County.

The second period dates from the Liberal wave which swept the province and the Eastern Townships in 1897 and continued until the near-defeat of the Taschereau Government last fall. In 1912, the last Conservative stronghold, Sheffield, fell before the onslaught of the Liberal forces and for the next twenty-three years not an Opposition member was returned from the Eastern Townships, except for the eight-year period of 1923-1931, when Sherbrooke swung into the Conservative column.

In the November 25, 1935, elections, the Duplessis-Gouin forces proved too much for the Liberals in this section of the province and of the eleven seats, Brome, Drummond and Wolfe alone remained true to the Government.

In the following historical summary of the results in the Eastern Townships seats an asterisk after the date indicates the result of a bye-election held in that year.

SHERBROOKE

Sherbrooke has been the scene of some highly interesting election struggles and in recent years its political allegiance has been none too certain. From Confederation until 1892, a period of twenty-five years, the seat was regarded as a pocket borough for Joseph Gibb Robertson, who gained no less than seven of the ten elections by acclamation. In 1892, however, Mr. Robertson went down to defeat before another Conservative, L. Edmond Panneton, later a judge of the Superior Court, by a majority of twelve in a three-cornered fight. The first Liberal to be elected was Panneton Pelletier, in 1900, his defeating Mr. Panneton by a majority of 12. Twenty-three years of unbroken Liberalism followed, acclamation following on acclamation until 1923, when Moise O'Bready was elected by a majority of 298.

Death intervened before he could take his seat, however, and Armand Crepeau, also running as a Conservative, was elected at a bye-election in the following year by a majority of 208. Re-elected in 1927 by 406 votes majority, Mr. Crepeau went down to defeat in 1931 before Emery H. Fortier by 394 votes. Mr. Fortier himself was sent into oblivion in the last election, when Col. Johnny S. Bourque ran up the record-breaking majority of 1,682. The provincial political history of Sherbrooke follows:

1867—Joseph Gibb Robertson, Conservative, elected by majority of 106.

Mr. Dunkin sat for a single term, being succeeded by William Warren Lynch in 1871, who held the seat until his appointment to the Bench in 1880. Mr. Justice Lynch was succeeded by another Conservative, Rufus Nelson England. The latter being defeated in 1897 by Henry Thomas Duffy, the first Liberal to be elected. Since that day Brome has registered an unbroken series of Liberal victories, some by acclamation and some by small majorities, as in the 1931 campaign when Hon. R. F. Stockwell was returned by a majority of twenty-five, which he increased to 508 last fall. The provincial political history of the county follows:

COMPTON COUNTY

Compton County has been represented by a long list of distinguished members, like the other Eastern Townships ridings all Conservative until 1897, when James Hunt had the honor of being elected as the first Liberal for the county. The county returned to its Conservative allegiance in 1900, Allen W. Girard sitting until 1912. Then the Liberals again took charge and held control until 1935, when Payson Sherman, Conservative, ran up a

DRUMMOND COUNTY

Drummond County, formerly Drummond-Arthabaska, has been the most consistently Liberal of all the Eastern Townships ridings and was one of the three counties to return a Liberal in the last Provincial election. On only three occasions has it returned a Conservative. It has also witnessed the unusual feature of a man, William John Watts, elected as a Conservative in 1874, gradually turning to an Independent Conservative and then to a Liberal, being returned each time by substantial majorities, regardless of party color. The victors in the provincial elections in the original and divided counties follow:

1867—Edward John Hemming, Conservative, elected by majority of 181.
1871—Wilfred Laurier, Liberal, elected by majority of 750.

1931—H. Laferte, Liberal, elected by majority of 636.
1935—Dr. A. Rajotte, Liberal, elected by majority of 20.

SHEFFIELD COUNTY

Until the election of William Stephen Bullock as a Liberal in 1912, Sheffield proved open territory for either party, the electors evidently feeling that two terms were sufficient for any party and transferring their allegiance from one party to the other as the general elections rolled around. Mr. Bullock represented the county from 1912 to 1931, when he was elevated to the Legislative Council, being succeeded in that year by R. R. Bachand, who went down to defeat last fall before Hector Choquette, Action Libérale Nationale candidate. The details of these provincial see-saw elections follow:

1867—Michel Adrien Russette, Conservative, elected by majority of 60.
1871—Maurice Laframboise, Liberal, elected by majority of 233.

1904*—Auguste Mathieu, Liberal, elected by majority of 420.
1904—Ludger-Pierre Bernard, Conservative, elected by majority of 391.

STANSTEAD COUNTY

After being represented for more than thirty years by none other than members of the Bissonnet family, Stanstead County last November turned its back on the Liberal party and sent to Quebec an Action Libérale Nationale supporter in the person of Rouville Beaudry by a majority of 323 over the Liberal candidate, Alfred J. Bissonnet. Mr. Bissonnet succeeded his father, Prosper-Alfred, who had been first elected in 1904, in 1913. Prior to this date the county had been essentially Conservative, although on three occasions members of the Lovell family had won the ridings for the Liberals for single terms. Henry Lovell, the first Liberal to be elected sat from 1878 to 1881, while Moodie Brock Lovell was successful on two occasions, serving the terms 1890 to 1892 and 1900 to 1902. The detailed results of the Stanstead County provincial elections follow:

1867—Thomas Locke, Conservative, elected by majority of 42.

BIG MAJORITY WAS CHALKED UP BY COL. BOURQUE

Union Nationale Candidate Obtained 5,064 Votes in Yesterday's Provincial Election to Defeat Hon. Cesaire Gervais, Minister of Public Works and Mines, by Majority of 1,881—Interviewed by Record This Morning.

Between scanning telegrams and answering the incessant ring of a telephone that carried messages of congratulations, Col. Johnny Bourque, re-elected to the Quebec Legislature in yesterday's provincial election by a majority of 1,881 over Hon. Cesaire Gervais, Minister of Public Works and Mines, expressed, in an interview with a Record reporter this morning, his appreciation and gratitude for the confidence which the electorate of Sherbrooke County had placed in him. "I will return to Quebec," he said, "and continue to devote all my ability and energy to the interests of Sherbrooke County. There is a great deal of work to be done and we are prepared now to tackle the many problems facing us."

"The people of Quebec," he stated, "have shown, in electing Maurice Duplessis' Union Nationale party, that they appreciate the difference between right and wrong. The avalanche of votes in favor of the new Premier's candidates—seventy-six being elected to the Quebec Legislature—resulted largely from the alleged scandals uncovered at the Public Accounts Committee investigation. And that investigation will be continued," Col. Bourque promised today. "It had only been started when the session broke up and the Government went before the people."

Col. Bourque's was a decisive victory. He was first elected to the Quebec Legislature on November 25th last as one of Paul Gouin's Action Libérale Nationale stalwarts, when he defeated the Liberal representative, Emery Fortier, by a majority of 1,681 votes. When Gouin broke away from Maurice Duplessis' Col. Bourque joined the latter's forces. Then Hon. Adélard Godbout, Quebec's new Premier, named Cesaire Gervais, local lawyer, Minister of Public Works and Mines to contest the Sherbrooke seat.

The Union Nationale candidate carried the county with a sweeping majority—200 more than November last. He had a total of 5,064 votes, as against Hon. Cesaire Gervais' 3,183.

"I particularly wish to thank the English-speaking electors who expressed their confidence in me," Col. Bourque said today. "I also wish to thank Mr. Gervais for the manner in which he personally, carried on his campaign against me. No personal animosity exists between us. He fought honestly, fairly."

Born in Sherbrooke on September 9th, 1898, Col. Bourque is the son of Theo. Bourque and Jeanne McGowan. He received his education at the St. Charles Seminary and married Eliane, daughter of Ulric Brien, of this city, on June 27th, 1922. He is a war-veteran, past president of the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce, member of the Catholic School Board, ex-Officer Commanding of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, and a member of the Knights of Columbus. He is at present vice-president of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., Sherbrooke branch.

Following Col. Bourque's election yesterday, Sherbrooke citizens formed a huge parade that clattered and cheered through the streets of the city. Hundreds of decorated automobiles and trucks drove through the different wards and thousands of citizens lined the streets and cheered lustily as Col. Bourque passed by.

The Sherbrooke Member addressed a large crowd at the Lansdowne Market, and also thanked the many people who jammed Wellington street in front of the Record Office when he entered the Record Building and spoke through the loud-speakers.

During the evening Col. Bourque received telephone calls from Hon. Maurice Duplessis, Quebec's new Premier, and from Hon. Cesaire Gervais, defeated Minister, both of whom congratulated him upon his victory.

Voting proceeded in an orderly fashion in Sherbrooke yesterday. Only one arrests was made when Philippe Pelletier, of this city, was placed in custody on a charge of impersonation at a King street east poll. He appeared before a Magistrate this morning and was remanded.

Apricots, peaches, pomegranates and oranges were referred to by the ancient Romans as "apples." They distinguished the fruits by the names of the countries where they were grown.

FINE ELECTION SERVICE GIVEN BY THE RECORD

Hundreds of Citizens Jammed in Front of Record Headquarters Last Evening to Hear Election Returns and Enjoy Impromptu Amateur Hour.

To what extent the Sherbrooke Record's election service is appreciated was evidenced by the hundreds of citizens who jammed Wellington street in front of the headquarters of the leading daily of the Eastern Townships last evening. Long before the first returns were received over the Record's elaborate system many residents took up advantageous positions and remained in the same spot for over four hours. As the evening wore on the early comers were increased by supporters of both parties until the front of the Record Office was a mass of expectant humanity.

In the early evening interest centred principally on the returns which Canadian Press wire, telephones and telegraph brought to the Record. When the first election was conceded—that of Maurice Duplessis, Quebec's premier-elect—a thunderous cheer indicated that the majority of the listeners were fervent adherents of the Union Nationale.

Ear-splitting cheers greeted every announcement over the loud-speaking system that the Union Nationale had made a gain from the Liberals. Loudly if possible, applause drowned the statement that Johnny Bourque had been re-elected in Sherbrooke County, defeating his Liberal opponent, Hon. Cesaire Gervais, by a bigger majority than the plurality he received last November. Then, shortly after eight o'clock, came the official bulletin that the Godbout Government had been defeated. The enthusiasm of the crowd knew no bounds and the cheering could be heard for blocks around.

While waiting to learn just how big the Duplessis party's majority would be the crowd enjoyed the second impromptu amateur hour staged by the Record. Appeals for volunteers to sing over the microphone were promptly answered, male and female performers of all ages contributing everything from vocal selections to renditions with the mouth organ and bones. Several singings were successful, the happy crowd joining with gusto in many of the favorites.

The climax of the loud-speaking programme came when Johnny Bourque interrupted his triumphant parade through the city streets to address the electorate in both languages. So noisy did the crowd become that it was difficult to hear Col. Bourque's remarks of appreciation and his assurance that the Union Nationale would convert its promises into deeds as soon as it assumed power.

The Record newsmen were literally mobbed when they made their appearance on the street shortly after nine o'clock with a detailed account of the victory scored by the Union Nationale forces. Considerable effort had been made to publish this election extra and the citizens showed their appreciation of the Record's customary policy by giving the newsmen a kindly reception.

Eleven o'clock had come and gone and still the crowd lingered on. Many more wanted to absorb their ability as entertainers, but all good things have to come to an end some time. The result was that the sign-off announcement was made and the audience slowly dispersed, discussing the landslide which had carried the Union Nationale to victory with a sufficient majority to administer the affairs of the province. It will be a few years before the next election, but its subscribers can be assured that the Record will again furnish its patrons with up-to-the-minute service.

Many favorable comments were heard and received about the Record's fine service, while much praise was expressed to Chief Camirand's men who kept order in front of the office. So highly efficient was the police protection that the crowd joined wholeheartedly in the cheers given for the stalwart and good-natured but firm minions of the law.

Helping to make last evening's service a success were Gordon Miller, who superintended the various activities and edited the election extra; Miss Alice Wiland and Kenny Flaherty, who were busy compiling the results of Sherbrooke County; Don McMahon and Frank Kenalty, stationed in the returning office's headquarters and flashing the results to the Record office; Cuthbert Jones, who was the first to learn of the results in the Eastern Townships counties; John Basset and Joe Blas, who were assisted by Dave Reid, Keith Beattie and Royce Worrell in looking after the bulletin in the front office; Percy Bucklad, Walter Wood and the Misses Ruby Bailey and Florence Pearson on duty in the business office; the Misses Fannie Williams and Edna Beauregard, who had their hands full reading proofs; Hugh Crochett, who was in charge of the loud speakers, assisted by Ted Anderson, and all the members of the mechanical department who did not have a split second to themselves as copy for the election extra was rushed down from the editorial rooms.

LARGER OF CITY RESERVOIRS BEING CLEANED
His Worship Mayor Rioux, City Treasurer Leonard Prefontaine, members of the City Council and press representatives paid a visit this morning to the city reservoir, where the larger of the two reservoirs is being emptied to undergo its annual cleaning.

The inspection party saw city employees at work as the water receded. The cement walls were found to be in an exceptionally clean condition and the refuse collected from the walls and bottom of the reservoir was of a minor quantity considering that the water had not been emptied for a year.

This reservoir holds ten million gallons of water. The smaller one, which is now serving the city, has a capacity of six million gallons.

PROVIDES FOR MORE CONTROL OVER BICYCLES

Cowansville Town Council Pass By-Law Prohibiting Two or More Persons Riding on One Machine—Reports Submitted on Progress of Public Works.

Cowansville, August 18.—Amendments to section 34 of by-law 125 which prohibits the riding of two or more persons on a bicycle on the streets of the town, were passed at the August meeting of the Town Council. This custom, which is far too common, is a very dangerous one, and the law was passed to prevent accidents of this nature.

A notice of motion of by-law No. 204 referring to the closing hours of business places was given. This question has been a source of much controversy and the aldermen have made a serious effort to meet all reasonable demands and suggestions for its provisions, but periodical difficulties arise which need adjustment.

Mr. L. A. Giroux, attorney for Mr. Larose, of St. Therese street, in a communication stated he was not prepared to proceed with his client's case regarding the outside stairway he has built in contravention of a by-law and asked for an extension of time, which was granted. The chief of police was authorized to investigate and seek to have eliminated a nuisance of boiling fat in the open on South street, and the unnecessary and annoying horns of tooting automobile horns on the public streets.

A report on the expenses of public works to date was presented and accepted. The council members are overseeing an important piece of engineering on River street opposite the dam. The river road has been excavated to rock bottom and is being built up with cedar posts embedded in concrete. When this is completed a cement sidewalk will be laid.

The meeting was held under the chairmanship of Mayor E. Johnson. Others present were Aldermen Perron, Bell and Larocque.

YANKEES BOWED TO WASHINGTON BUT HOLD LEAD

Gomez Lasted One Inning Against Senators and New Yorkers Dropped Seven to Five Decision—Cleveland Again Defeated by Chicago White Sox.

It is hard to find a reason why Joe McCarthy should be having any serious headaches with his New York Yankees leading the American League by eleven and a half games and acclaimed as almost certain pennant winners, but if Joe ever suffers from migraine the cause probably is Vernon ("El Goofy") Gomez. On the other hand, he seems to have a sure cure in "Iron Man" Lou Gehrig.

Gomez, who once seemed destined to supplant "El Goofy" as baseball's outstanding southpaw, has been belted off the hill with almost monotonous regularity since the early part of the season. His record now shows only eight victories and seven defeats, while his earned run average must be painful to McCarthy's eyes.

The slim senior, who has not won a game since July 4, lasted just one inning against Washington yesterday and in that time he gave away enough runs to let the Senators win by seven to five despite the relief flinging of Kemp Wicker and the Yanks' rallies.

Gomez was touched for five hits, one of them a double by "Red" Kress, and handed out one pass during the opening frame. He was lifted for a pinch hitter in the second inning and Wicker, recently brought up from Newark, checked the Nats for the remainder of the game. Earl Whitehill was removed in favor of a pinch-hitter in the seventh stanza when the Senators copied their final run and Sid Cohen finished. Among the nine New York hits was Joe DiMaggio's twentieth home run of the season with none on bases in the ninth chapter.

The only reason that shellacking did not decrease the New York lead was that the Chicago White Sox, in hot pursuit of third place, lost to off against Johnny Allen and belted over the second-place Cleveland Indians by seven to three in the day's only other major league game. Allen went into the game with a record of nine straight victories but lasted less than four innings, handing out seven passes to give the Chicks a workable lead.

In the end Chicago had made only seven hits off Allen and his successor, Thornton Lee, but they combined the blows with eleven walks and three errors to make the count seven victories against one defeat over the Indians in Comiskey Park this season. Ted Lyons led the Tribe to ten scattered hits, two of which were circuit clouts with the bases empty by Hale and Trosky.

The National League battle remained unchanged as the New York Giants-Brooklyn Dodgers game was postponed because of a shower at game time. All the other clubs in both circuits had a day of scheduled idleness.

BUFFALO BISON INCREASE LEAD OVER ROCHESTER
The pressure that bears down on the pace-setters evidently does not mean a thing to the Buffalo Bisons, International League leaders.

Out to make their hold on first place as tight as possible, the Herd not only shook off the strain of the beginning of a "crucial" series but the well known jinx that goes with presentations and other special celebrations for the players when they turned back the Rochester Red Wings by seven to six in a ten-inning battle last night.

The Bisons, after losing an early lead, fought their way back to win and increase their lead over Rochester to four games. And they did it on "Ray Schalk Night" with 16,000 fans overflowing onto the field to honor the Buffalo manager and after Schalk had received various gifts and each member of the club a travelling bag.

Meanwhile the Albany Senators did their bit in the night's only other game by turning back the third-place Newark Bears by five to three. The other clubs in the circuit took the day off.

STANSTEAD WON DECISION OVER ORLEANS SQUAD

Friendly International Inter-Club Golf Match Resulted in Dufferin Heights Country Club Players Down Orleans, Vt., Opponents by Ten Points.

Stanstead, Aug. 18.—Still recalling the defeat they suffered at the hands of a Newport, Vt., aggregation in a recent friendly inter-club competition, the members of the Dufferin Heights Country Club were in the mood to even matters with the opposition from across the international border when they encountered a team from the Orleans, Vt., Golf Club Saturday afternoon. So anxious were the local shotmakers that it was not surprising at the end of the afternoon's play to find Dufferin Heights victorious by a count of twenty-four and a half to fourteen and a half.

Forty-two players participated in the event and sat down, with their friends, to enjoy the supper served in the club house at the end of the afternoon's activities. The local shotmakers recorded five three-point triumphs as against a pair of three to nothing decisions for the visitors, while their other three victories were with one point to spare. Orleans added a lone two-point win and two matches were halved.

TIMID EXPERTS PICK LOUIS TO BEAT SHARKEY

Although Still Wondering and Hesitant, Experts Establish "Brown Bomber" as Seven to Five Favorite to Defeat Aged Former Ring Champion.

New York, August 18.—They have made Detroit's Joe Louis a seven to five favorite to beat Jack Sharkey, the aging Boston tavern keeper, in their ten-round bout at the Yankee Stadium tonight. But the experts who have fixed those odds are already wondering if the have made another mistake.

There is the possibility that the "Brown Bomber" may be a bit "punch shy" after the beating he took at Max Schmeling's hands last spring, but he cannot be any more shy than those experts who made him a ten to one favorite or predicted he would knock out the German schlager inside of four rounds.

Now, wondering and hesitant, they are coming back to see if Joe can come back. And the fans, a bit slow to show interest in the bout, have begun to buy tickets at a good clip. With the top price the lowest it has been for any of the "Dark Demon's" New York appearances, Promoter Mike Jacobs expects the Stadium will be filled to about half its 30,000 capacity, producing a gate of about $200,000.

On the Louis side, and because of his remarkable performances before Schmeling blasted the legend of his invincibility that is the one that is stirring up the interest, there are more angles to consider than there are in a labyrinth.

For example, there is the question whether or not Louis in the course of a short but intensive tutoring session, has learned how to defend himself against the "sucker punch," the right-hand wallop that laid him low before. Also the fans are asking if he will go out with the same old experts who have been so sure of him, or if he will move his rival down or will he hesitate and try to keep from being hit; has he been returned to the ring too soon after that beating just as he apparently was brought along too fast in his professional career which began a little over two years ago.

Sharkey, the thirty-three year old former champion, offers some angles of his own. He retired a couple of years ago with plenty of money and a desire for peace and quiet after a career marked by strange ups and downs, bad fights when he should have made good ones and vice versa. Now the faithful are wondering whether he can stage a real comeback and his preliminary bouts

HAVE SELECTED SUCCESSOR TO JOE HUMPHREYS

Harry Balogh, Noted for Famous Pleas Against Racial Prejudice in Mixed Bouts Is Now Fiatina's Chief Silver-Tongued Orator.

New York, Aug. 18.—The deep-seated boy who always had to recite pieces at school, who was called on to read sports results on the ticker tape in saloon back rooms and who used to announce, ad lib, on workout days at Grupp's gymnasium, is now the chief silver-tongued orator of Fiatina.

It was while he was manager of Grupp's up on 116th street that the oratory bug really hit Harry Balogh and started him off on his unique profession in the land of champagnes—second-raters and stumble-bums.

Now he is the kingpin of the ring announcers, successor to his friend and counselor, the late Joe (Quiet, Please) Humphreys, as the man who says "... and in this corner ..."

Sixteen or eighteen years ago Johnny Dundee went over to Grupp's with the diamond-studded belt the late Tex Rickard presented when he won the junior lightweight crown from Kayo Chaney, a little fellow with a murderous punch who won practically all his fights by the knockout.

Harry Balogh, a former amateur club fighter, in the feather and bantamweight divisions, laid it on pretty thick in his send-off dedicated to Dundee, and afterward Johnny said: "Harry, why don't you become an announcer? I've travelled around the world and heard 'em all and to me you stand out over all these fellows in being able to put things over."

Harry took the hint and applied for a job with Paddy Mullins, who was associated in the building of the new outdoor Queensboro Arena in Long Island City. They used some one else for the first card there, but he did not do so well and Mullins summed up the evening by saying, "1921, to give him his first announcing job. He has been at it ever since. He was the official announcer for all the state armories conducting soldier boxing and could have worked twelve or fourteen nights a week if he accepted all offers."

"All my work is extemporaneous," says his fight announcer, who was hailed as an English purist by English radio fans because he wound up with, "and may the better man emerge victorious," instead of the time-honored but ungrammatical, "may the best man win." "You can't tell what is going to happen when you get in the ring. You have to wait until you get there before you decide what to say. And a minute after I step out of the ring, I could not tell you what I said if I had to go to the electric chair for not knowing."

Balogh never studied diction or public-speaking in school and thinks ability to announce must be in the blood, citing the requests for school recitations around Christmas-time and the customary demand that he read the famous ticker stories, one of which told of the famous Dorado Pietri-Johnny Hayes marathon race at the London Olympics in 1908.

Balogh first uttered his famous plea against racial prejudice in mixed bouts in 1922 at the first bout permitted negroes and whites to mix in the ring. He had gone to the Pioneer Sporting Club at the request of Humphreys, who had to work elsewhere that night.

Thirteen years later, in 1935, Harry Balogh reconstructed the same speech against racial prejudice and gave it before the microphone at the Primo Carnera-Joe Louis fight when police riot squads stood guard in the Yankee Stadium, ready to put down any recurrence of the race riots that had nearby Harlem in turmoil. Harry was asked to repeat it at the Louis-Max Baer fight last September and received a letter from the state boxing commission commending him for it.

The loquacious Jack also maintains Louis has tried to return too soon after the Schmeling bout.

"Schmeling showed Joe can be hit and Joe showed he did not like being hit," Sharkey commented. "I'll hit him and I'll beat him."

Either way, the fight experts are expecting a quick finish to the bout.

TREASURE HOARD FOUND.

"Proudest moments" were a three-time experience for Jesse Owens, dusky Ohio State flash, at the Olympic Games in Berlin, where thrice he mounted the dais before more than 100,000 cheering spectators to receive highest individual honors. Here, crowned with the laurels of victory and holding the victor's oak tree, he is pictured saluting in American fashion after winning the running broad jump with a leap of 26 feet 5 1/2 inches. In front of the wonder athlete is Naoto Tajima of Japan, who placed third. At the right, arm extended in Nazi salute, is Lutz Long of Germany, who jumped second best. BITTER BATTLE FOR HONORS IN BEDFORD GROUP

Mount Sutton and Waterloo Fighting Close Duel for Championship of District of Bedford Tennis League—Only Two Points Separate Leading Teams.

Sutton, Aug. 18.—The battle between Mount Sutton and Waterloo for the championship of the District of Bedford Tennis League is arousing major interest among the tennis devotees in this section. At the beginning of the schedule it looked as though Mount Sutton would repeat its 1935 success when the local players reached the Eastern Township play-offs, but Waterloo has come along rapidly to convert the race for the title into a tight duel.

Before recording the overwhelming triumph which left only two points separating the leading squads, Waterloo visited here and upset the homesters by the odd match in seven. Superior strength in the doubles was responsible for Waterloo's triumph, the visitors capturing the three pair engagements to add to their lone victory in the singles.

Local supporters regarded the defeat of Tator at the hands of Waterloo's Choquette as a distinct upset. The Waterloo man, however, fully deserved to win with the clean, fast play he exhibited in the two sets. "Buddy" MacKay scored a straight-set decision over R. Hubert, of Waterloo, to even the count at one-all.

A. Turcotte, Sutton's old stand-by, won over L. Allen by a wide margin and the homesters were ahead for the first time. "Bud" Reynolds put the local boys two up when he disposed of Freddie Cann, former Bishop's University football and hockey star to make the count three to one in favor of the pacesetters.

The Sutton lead was short-lived as Waterloo started to make a clean sweep of the doubles. The first doubles event was one of the highlights of the series as played for the first time and then the other side. Many duces games featured both sets before Choquette and Allen, of Waterloo, were returned victorious over Taylor and MacKay.

The second doubles encounter was easier for the visitors, Hubert and Jolin losing but five games as they whipped Whitford and Goyette in two sets. This victory left the series hanging on the outcome of the contest between two former Bishop's University athletes, Cann and John Dean, of Waterloo, and their Sutton opponents, Eland and Reynolds. The Sutton youngsters fought valiantly and took their more experienced opponents to three sets before succumbing.

The detailed results of these matches follow:

Singles—L. Choquette, Waterloo defeated M. Taylor, Sutton, 6-2, 6-4; A. Mackay, Sutton, defeated R. Hubert, Waterloo, 6-1, 7-5; A. Turcotte, Sutton, defeated L. Allen, Waterloo, 6-3, 6-1; F. Reynolds, Sutton, defeated F. Cann, Waterloo, 6-4, 6-3.

Doubles—Choquette and Allen, Waterloo, defeated Taylor and MacKay, Sutton, 6-1, 9-7; Hubert and Jolin, Waterloo, defeated Whitford and Goyette, Sutton, 6-1, 6-4; Cann and Dean, Waterloo, defeated Eland and Reynolds, Sutton 4-6, 10-8, 6-1.

HISTORIC OLD LEGEND MEETS ADVERSE FATE

Amherst, Ont., Aug. 18.—Eliza's cabin just ain't, that's all. The gaunt ruins here of a more-than-century-old building which the citizens of this Essex County town have pointed to as the home of the beautiful heroine of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel, was subjected today to the modern process of debunking.

In an idiom grotesque for one of his generation, but in keeping with the spirit of debunking, Captain David Hackett, sixty-three-year-old descendant of one of Essex County's first families, declared: "It's all hogwash. It seems that, like Topsy, the legend 'just grew'."

Eliza, you may remember, was the pretty almost-white mother in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It was she who made that hair-raising escape from the slave-traders, clutching her young son in her arms, across the ice floes of the Ohio River bloodhounds baying balefully in the distance.

Since much of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is based on fact, the belief began to gain currency that Eliza was a real person and really had come to live in Amherstburg, Captain Hackett, historian of this district, said.

"But," he added, "I've never been able to learn anything to substantiate it. I know the history of that house they call Eliza's cabin and it was built by a white man and lived in by white folk during the time Mrs. Stowe writes about it in her book."

"That house," he said, pointing at the stark ruins, walls and chimneys standing, parts of the roof fallen in, "was built by Matthew Elliott. He had fought for the British in the Revolutionary War and when the cause was lost he came back to Canada and the Crown gave him this land, sixty acres of it, and sixty slaves."

Said Captain Hackett: "It really is historic ground. It marks the end of an era, the beginning of a new ideal, in British history. The last slaves in the British Empire were given their freedom within a few feet of us here. I think a monument should be erected to commemorate the event."

TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST TORONTO HOTELS
Liquor Control Commissioner Promises Complete Inquiry of Charges of Immorality, Excessive Drinking and Other Irregularities.

Toronto, August 18.—Liquor Control Commissioner E. G. Odette today picked up the threads of investigation into charges of immorality, excessive drinking and other irregularities in Toronto hotels, voiced in a sermon by Rev. Allan Ferry. The Commissioner arrived here late last night, promising a full investigation into conditions.

"We certainly intend to ask Mr. Ferry to amplify those charges and name the hotels so we can investigate this to the bottom," the Commissioner said. "If the charges are correct, we will prosecute to the limit of the law."

Arnold N. Smith, deputy chairman of the Ontario Liquor Control Board issued instructions to all hotel inspectors in the province to redouble their efforts to see that immorality and irregularities stopped immediately. The order came after an hour's conference with Rev. Ferry.

"I am always pleased to hear from citizens and any complaints are properly followed up and investigated," the inspectors in Toronto are checking up now as are those throughout the province.

Weddings are being canceled less frequently in England. The number of abandoned marriages averaged 2,000 annually until last year, when the figure dropped to 300.

DEER WRECK HAVOC ON FARMER.
Galt, Ont., Aug. 18.—If the Ontario Government does not take steps to control a herd of twenty full-grown deer here, Alex Fletcher, of Glen Morris farm, will have to go on relief. Fletcher detailed the damage done by the animals. They have eaten 6,000 of the 7,000 late cabbage he had planted, all but sixty of the 6,500 cauliflower, and 3,000 head-lettuce plants. A patch of Chinese lettuce is the only vegetable they have not touched.

REICH REPORTS LARGE EXPORT TRADE GROWTH

Increase of 14.3 Per Cent. in Exports Gives Germany a Favorable Foreign Trade Balance in Past Six Months, the Goal of Nazi Economists.

Berlin, Aug. 18.—A sharp increase in German exports during the first half of this year, reported today, turned a commercial deficit into a favorable balance of trade, the goal of Nazi economists.

German exports increased 280,000,000 marks (about $120,000,000) during the first six months of 1936, a gain of 14.3 per cent. over the comparative period of last year.

During the same periods, imports declined one per cent, leaving a favorable balance of trade amounting to 131,000,000 marks (about $52,400,000), the excess of exports over imports.

That volume of business compared with a deficit or unfavorable balance of trades of 163,000,000 marks (about $65,200,000) during the first six months of 1935, the excess of imports over exports.

Greatest advances in the German export trade were made in Peru, Nicaragua, Chile, Costa Rica, Ecuador and Guatemala, where the volume was doubled, while Estonia, Yugoslavia, Mexico, Paraguay, Salvador, Uruguay, Iran and British East Africa took about fifty per cent. more German goods.

Soviet Russia, Rumania and China increased imports of German products appreciably.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE ATTACHED TO OLD ANCHOR

850-Pound Handwrought Anchor Taken from Mouth of Niagara River Regarded as Valuable Addition to Historic Relics of Niagara Frontier Pioneer Days.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., August 18.—A ten-foot, 850-pound handwrought anchor, taken from the mouth of the Niagara River by a dredge, was regarded as a valuable addition to the historic relics of the Niagara frontier pioneer days.

Dr. Robert W. Bingham, of the Buffalo Historical Society, examined the anchor with Claude Huletezen, Sr., executive vice-president of the Old Fort Niagara Association. Both agreed that the find was historically a good one, probably dating back two hundred years.

Dr. Bingham expressed the opinion that the anchor had been carried by a three-mast French sailing vessel of seventy tons or more. A wax impression of the maker's trade mark, which appeared to be "Reene", was taken.

CLAIM POLICE ARE A "NUISANCE"

Windsor, Ont., August 18.—Declaring the police were a "nuisance," residents near the Walkerville police station are circulating a petition of protest. A pool table has been installed in a room formerly used for court hearings. Now the police are reporting for night duty early and engaging in games of snooker and other cue sports. Exultant or dismayed cries are said to be disturbing the residents' sleep, so a petition is going the rounds.

CLIMON POLICE ARE A "NUISANCE"

Chilton, now a respected citizen of Ohio, with a wife and child, was a youth when he pleaded guilty to theft of money from a Calvin, Okla. Bank and escaped a year later. Governor E. W. Marland said it was his duty to demand his return here, although he expressed sympathy for him.

If Chilton returns, he would go to the receiving cell upon his arrival and follow the reformatory routine just like any other returned prisoner, Warlick said.

LATEST ROYAL DRINK MARVEL TO BARTENDERS

Expert New York Masters of Jiggers and Shakers Unanimous in Agreeing Cocktail Served by King Edward to Guests on Royal Yacht Equal to Three Ordinary Drinks.

New York, Aug. 18.—Manhattan bartenders lifted eyebrows today when they read about the cocktail King Edward served his guests on his Adriatic yachting trip.

They agreed His Majesty had put one over on New York's masters of jiggers and shakers.

"A fellow who takes that one doesn't want a drink—he wants to go to sleep," remarked Joe Hollis with a pensive look and a shake of his head.

"Boy and man I've been mixing drinks for thirty years, but that's a new one on me," he added. "I've never heard of that concoction or anything like it."

"Sounds like a hot one," clipped Al Smith, (not the former Governor) who serves what'll-you-have at an exclusive hotel.

If that won't knock you on your ears, I don't know what should."

What the King served on his yacht in the Dalmatian region of Yugoslavia was an approximation of this:

One-third of gin, a small quantity of sugar and ice, two jiggers of Dalmatian liquor resembling Chartreuse, Dalmatian champagne and various fruits, including olives and lemon peel.

"That's power," said a drink master. "Do you know the King rolled three cocktails into one."

Joe Hollis figured it made nearly a half pint of gin, liquors and champagne.

"Two jiggers of Dalmatian liquor, that's three ounces," he said. "One-third of gin is another, making four
