Tom S. Currie Noted Mason Is Interred

Prince Albert Avenue Resident Died In Hospital Wednesday In His 65th Year

The many personal friends, former business associates, brother-members of Masonic orders who attended the funeral yesterday afternoon at Trinity Memorial Church of Thomas Struthers Currie reflect the great esteem in which he was held. Mr. Currie, who died Wednesday in the western division of the Montreal General Hospital, was in his 65th year, and had been ill for about ten days. He resided at 483 Prince Albert avenue, and was head of the building supply firm bearing his name.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Currie of Montreal, he was educated at the High School of Montreal and at the Williamson School, then on Dorchester street. On leaving school he joined his father's firm of W. and F. T. Currie, and became president on the death of the elder Mr. Currie in 1920. He was head of the firm when he died, and also vice-president of the Dominion Paper Company.

He was a life member of Mount Royal Lodge, A.F. and A.M., of Carnarvon Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons and of Richard Coeur de Lion Preceptory No. 7. He was past potentate of Karnak Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., and an honorary member of Cairo Temple, Saladin Temple, Hella Temple, India Temple, Ramesis Temple and Ziyaira Temple; as well as a 32nd degree member of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite and a member of the Royal Order of Jesters. Mr. Currie was also the last surviving member of the original board of governors of the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, and numerous Masons in many cities of Canada and the U. S. were among his friends.

He was a life governor of the Montreal General Hospital and of the Mechanics Institute. A member for many years of the St. George Club, Mr. Currie was also a member of Trinity Memorial Church.

Besides his wife, formerly Elizabeth Barber, he leaves a daughter, Elizabeth Frances. There are also four sisters: Mrs. G. W. Murray, Miss Jessie Currie, Mrs. W. H. Galt, and Mrs. H. M. Stanway, all of Montreal.

Mrs. J. Rowat Burial Held

Murray Hill Resident Had Been a Member of St. Andrew's Church for Thirty Years

Funeral services were held on Tuesday from her former home, 634 Murray Hill, of Mrs. Joseph Rowat, who died Sunday. Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr of St. Andrew's Church officiated, and interment followed in Mount Royal Cemetery.

A native of Ottawa and a member of a prominent family, Mrs. Rowat was the former Sarah Jane Wallace, a daughter of the late Edward Wallace. She was married in Ottawa thirty one years ago, but had previously resided in this locality since 1902.

Mrs. Rowat was an active member of St. Andrew's United Church of which she was a member for 30 years.

Surviving are her husband, Joseph Rowat, president of Joseph Rowat, Ltd., general insurance agents; two sons, James Wallace Rowat, of the Westmount Rotary Club, and J. Edward Rowat, of Winnipeg; three sisters, Mrs. J. N. Brownlee, Mrs. Robert Gamble and Miss Bertha Wallace, of Ottawa, and one brother, Joseph Wallace, of Ottawa.

Conservatories Present Riot Of Colour

Many hundreds of visitors have been to the Westmount Park greenhouse this week to witness the annual fall display of flowers. The spacious conservatories present a riot of beautiful colors, thousands of blooms of varying shades adorning every nook and corner. John McCreath, superintendent, and his staff have put considerable effort into preparing the flowers and layout for this display, and their labours are well rewarded.

Thousands upon thousands of flowers, the majority chrysanthemums, completely fill the large conservatories in medley of color that covers the full range of the spectrum. The chrysanthemums on display are of all sizes ranging from the tiny "button" varieties to the giant nine-inch blooms.

The feature of the exhibit is the floral waterfall with its thousands of cascade chrysanthemums which are banked from floor to ceiling in the palm room. Carefully chosen, the thousands of blooms give a realistic effect of running water. This illusion is further enhanced by floodlights that irresistibly draw the visitor's eye to the "waterfall."

The greenhouses are open every day from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and on Sundays from 10 till 6 p.m.

To Improve Recorder's Court Better Defensive Force For Canada Is Suggested

"Until we build a Canadian force that will strengthen us so that no international gangsters can attack us, we are doing nothing for peace; and doing nothing means we can't be doing right," declared Lt.-Col. Wilfred Bovey, director of extra-mural relations at McGill in addressing the weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club at Victoria Hall Wednesday. "There are two ways of looking at the desirability for peace: first, it is a necessity for world trade and harmony; and second, it is desired for its own sake; it is up to us to see that we get it, for either or both reasons."

Col. Bovey, a recognized authority on international affairs, took "Nationals and Ethics" as his subject. He has discussed international accord, peace, harmony between nations, etc., but we have done nothing to further these ideals, he said.

He drew a parallel between the security of a country with an inadequate defense force and Westmount if protected by one constable armed with a blunderbuss.

Col. Bovey showed how world history is repeating itself today. He traced conditions in the world prior to the war: Japan in 1912 had had a skirmish with Russia and come out on top; in Europe the Alliance between Italy, Austria and Germany was causing grave concern; Italy wanted and achieved an African empire—and though denounced bitterly in the world press, nothing was done.

Westmount Youth Dies At Fuentes

Alex Maclure Killed in Action Fighting for Loyalists in Spanish Conflict

A memorial service was held yesterday afternoon at St. Matthias' Church for Alexander Crocker Maclure, 25 year old eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Maclure, 602 Victoria avenue, whose death in Spain during the Spanish Government offensive on the Saragossa front was reported this week. It is reported he fell at Fuentes between October 13th and October 20th.

Mr. Maclure, a native of Montreal and one having won distinguished honours in academic work and marksmanship while attending Montreal High School, left for Spain in February with the hope of joining the Loyalist Blood Transfusion Unit there. His school record as a marksman however caused him to be placed in the ranks with the Canadian battalion when it was formed some months ago.

After graduating from school he became a wireless operator and spent a year at Fort Churchill, in the Hudson Bay district. In 1931 he left Canada for New Zealand, where he attended the Otago School of Mines. University of New Zealand, from which he graduated with a degree in engineering.

He was last in Montreal in February, prior to his departure for Spain. He had a wide circle of friends in Montreal and was a leading debater at Montreal High, when he attended that school.

He was particularly interested in the labor movement, in trade unionization and in social work, and was connected with the labor movement during his residence in New Zealand. In a letter received by his parents six weeks ago, a New York doctor wrote he had never met a young man who more courageously fought for the Loyalist cause, in which he devoutly believed.

He is survived by his parents; two brothers, Kenneth and James, and two sisters, Margaret and Nancy, all of this city.

Only Seventy Percent Of Required Total Attained By Y.M.C.A.—Close Campaign Tomorrow

The Y.M.C.A. membership campaign, which has been in operation since October 8th, will be drawn to a close at the end of this week, Wilf Spearman, executive secretary at the local branch, announced yesterday. The campaign total has reached approximately seventy percent of the objective. While it is doubtful whether the desired total of 216 new members or renewals will be attained by tomorrow night, it is believed that at the end of the year the whole objective will be attained.

The Men's division is in the lead, with 101 per cent of their objective reached. A drop has been noted in the Boys' and Ladies' divisions, which have brought in 56 per cent and 60 per cent of their totals respectively.

Rev. Harold S. Laws, of St. Stephen's Church, was the guest speaker at the annual dinner of the Amputations Association of The Great War, held Saturday evening in the ball room of the Mount Royal Hotel. The British Empire, he maintained, has been founded and preserved by spiritual ideals rather than material things, and in proposing the toast to "Our Country" he urged that these ideals be preserved, that we continue our belief in God, and that we hold dear the spirit of fair play which had characterized the Empire's history.

Mayor Adhemar Raynault of Montreal attended and spoke briefly, as did Douglas Churchill, past president of the Lions' Club, President Harold Weeks was in the chair. The Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Drum-Major M. Wilson and Pte. C. Forbes, bugler, who were present through the courtesy of Lt.-Col. J. E. Slessor, Officer Commanding the Royal Montreal Regiment.

To Purchase Electrical Apparatus

Council Met Monday Night With Mayor Jenkins in Chair—Flower Gardens Open

Improved facilities for the accommodation of witnesses and legal representatives will be provided in the local Recorder's Court shortly under an improvement scheme planned by City Council and ratified at Monday's meeting of that group. It has been felt for some time that an improved arrangement of the court room would be desirable, and Council's decision definitely decides the matter. Mayor Jenkins presided over the meeting.

Alderman B. Panet-Raymond, commissioner of parks and playgrounds, announced that the flower gardens in the Westmount Park greenhouse had been arranged for inspection, and invited council and the general public to visit the display. The gardens will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and on Sundays 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Bills and general accounts for the month of October, amounting to $87,044.93, were approved by Council.

Authorization was also given the electric light and power department to purchase distributing and power converting apparatus, transformers, etc., at a cost of $2500.

It was decided that the city would observe the usual two minutes' silence yesterday at 11 a.m., and that traffic would be halted at this period in observance of Remembrance Day.

It was also announced that Council would attend en masse the Commemoration Service to be held Sunday at the Westmount War Memorial at 2.30 p.m.

Dr. J. Nutter Addressed Girls' Hi-Y

History of Surgery and Work of Lister Described by Noted Surgeon at Meeting Here

The guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Westmount Girls' Hi-Y Club Thursday evening in the Westmount Y.M.C.A. was Dr. J. A. Nutter, well known Montreal surgeon. He took as his subject Lord Lister, the celebrated surgeon of the nineteenth century.

Dr. Nutter divided the history of surgery into two parts—that before the time of Lister and that of the last seventy years. From the ancient days of Hippocrates down to the nineteenth century, very little progress was made. It was even said that surgery could not be improved upon; but Lord Lister, with his discovery of antiseptics, revolutionized the profession.

The speaker was introduced by Lucille Christmas and thanked by Cynthia Percy.

Dr. Nutter's address followed the supper; then the regular business session was held. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Patricia Neilson, which were duly accepted and adopted. It was decided that the next Thursday being Armistice Day, no meeting would be held till the following week.

A short sing-song, with Lucille Christmas at the piano, brought the evening to a close.

TEA HOSTESSES

Mrs. J. M. Thompson and the ladies of the Montrose District were tea hostesses following the meeting of the Women's Association of St. Andrew's Church on Monday afternoon.

Peace Was Topic Of Mary Harrison

Miss Mary Harrison, Staynor avenue resident and secretary of the Montreal Youth Council, addressed a largely attended gathering of the National Council of Jewish Juniors Sunday afternoon at the Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue, taking as her subject "Youth and Peace."

Miss Harrison briefly outlined the World Youth Congress and its work and objects, and traced the various accomplishments that have been made towards the furtherance of peace. She made a plea for united action for peace.

Miss Harrison also gave a brief address over Station CKAC on Tuesday on the same topic.

WESTMOUNT HIGH ORCHESTRA PROBLEM

Snyder's Efforts On Organization's Behalf Strenuous

all the more the reason why they should lend their assistance to this, an outlet for the musical talents of the pupils. This orchestra should be supported wholeheartedly by the students of the High School, their parents and the teachers.

A musical education is a stepping stone to obtaining culture, and is needed in the educational course just as much as any other subject.

Here is a chance for the School Commissioners of Westmount to give the students of Westmount High an opportunity to prove that the youth of today is not unappreciative of good music.

Douglas Laing

Considerable credit is due Mr. Snyder for his herculean efforts and excellent results in organization and operation of orchestras at the High School in past years. Despite changes in personnel from year to year due to graduation and retirement from school on the part of the students, Mr. Snyder has kept his orchestras in shape condition; they have shown on the many occasions upon which they have been required to perform, whether publicly or privately, that they worked with the ease of a well oiled machine.

On short notice this year, Mr. Snyder formed an impromptu aggregation to play at the Graduation exercises, and twenty three musicians took part, winning the acclaim of the vast audience. Selections of no mean difficulty were rendered with professional ease.

The outfit consisted of strings, wood winds, brasses and percussion instruments.

Mr. Snyder has found, however, that the duties of organizing and operating a group of this sort has been a severe tax on his time, and has only exceedingly hard and only exceedingly hard interfering with his other work. Unless he can be relieved of some of his routine duties, he will find it impossible to operate the orchestra this year, he says.

The future of music in the schools of Westmount can be a bright one; there is a plan afoot to effect the formation of a large orchestra with players from all the schools of Westmount taking part; an alternative to this would be the organization in each school of a small group for study and enjoyment of lighter compositions, and for playing at various school functions.

Mr. Snyder deserves support of parents, pupils, teachers, and most important of all, the school board. "The school board is decidedly favourable and sympathetic towards the project of an orchestra at the High School," declared Stanley F. Kneeland, superintendent of schools, when questioned over the phone yesterday morning. "If the orchestra is wanted and the talent seems available, the board will certainly not stand in the way of such a project."

The school board will meet Monday, Mr. Kneeland said that so far as he knew, there was little or nothing to be discussed by the board relative to the orchestra project.

He pointed out that while a complete course in music was offered by the schools, it was not instrumental music except in the lower grades where elementary instruction is given in piano and violin. Most of the music is general and vocal, including sight reading, harmony, etc. While useful, it does not lead necessarily to orchestral work.

Authorities Join In Paying Honor To Fallen Heroes

Royal Montreal Regiment, City Of Westmount, 58th Westmount Rifles, Ladies' Committee R.M.R., Civic Bodies, Individuals Unite In Memory Of War Dead At Westmount Cenotaph—Major Rev. H. S. Laws To Officiate

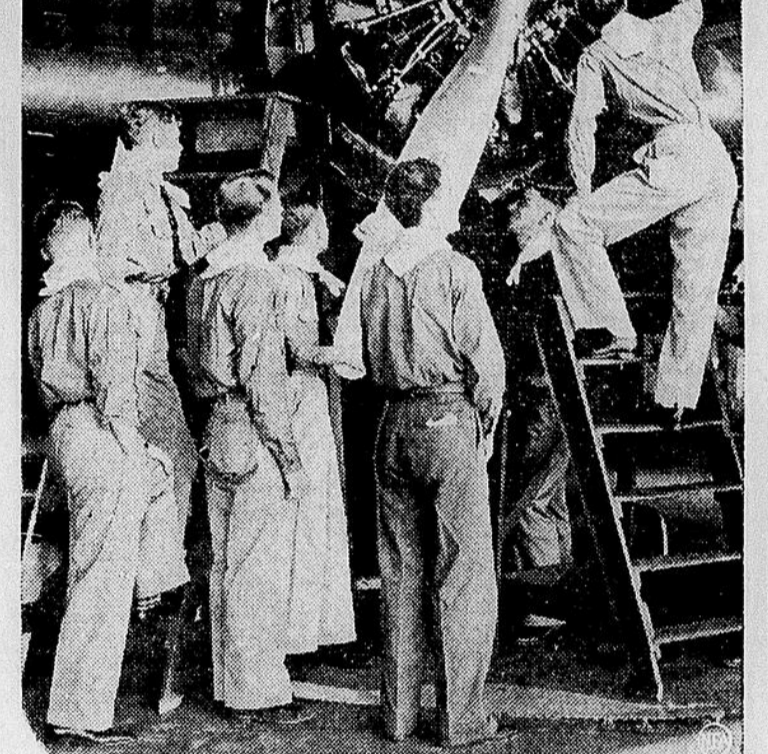

In memory of the citizens of Westmount and the members of the Royal Montreal Regiment who gave their lives in the Great War, an impressive Commemoration Service will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 at the Westmount War Memorial, facing the City Hall at the corner of Argyle and Sherbrooke.

The Regiment, under the command of Lt.-Col. J. E. Slessor, E.D., Commanding Officer, will leave the St. Catherine street armoury at 2.10, accompanied by the Regimental Band and Drums under the direction of Lt. T. E. Jackson. On arrival at the Memorial, inspections of the 1st (Westmount) Battalion and of the Royal Montreal Regiment will be taken by Brig. R. O. Alexander, D.S.O. and Mayor Jenkins.

Following the singing of the hymn "For All the Saints Who From Their Labours Rest," the lesson, Rev. XXI 1-7, will be read by Hon. Major the Reverend Harold S. Laws, V.D., chaplain of the regiment. The lesson will precede general prayers and the Prayer for Peace.

The service will continue with the singing of "Abide With Me," during which wreaths will be placed on the Memorial by the City of Westmount, The Royal Montreal Regiment, the 58th Westmount Rifles, Ladies' Committee of the Royal Montreal Regiment, civic bodies and societies, and private individuals, in that order.

The Last Post, by the regimental Band and Drums, will follow this part of the ceremony, and a two-minute silence will be observed. After the silence the Band and Drums will play the Reveille, and the National Anthem will bring the service to a close.

GERMANY'S QUESTION

The German Government, talking through its official mouthpiece, wants to know what nations President Roosevelt had in mind when, speaking in Chicago, he denounced warlike nations and calling for united action to restore international tranquillity.

Germany recalls the ill-fated efforts of President Wilson to initiate reform of international relationships according to the principles of justice and morality (through the League of Nations) and suggests that if Mr. Roosevelt is going to assume the lead in attempting to influence international currents he should take up the thread where Mr. Wilson dropped it.

The rejection of President Wilson's peace efforts by a hostile Senate in his own country is one of the sad chapters of American history. The League of Nations, many believe, would have had quite a different record had Washington backed its President in the idealistic program he had in mind. But Mr. Wilson had many enemies and they made the most of the opportunity that presented itself to humiliate him and, eventually, to defeat the Democratic Party.

Franklin D. Roosevelt has more prestige than Woodrow Wilson had and he is in the happy position, also, of having a Democratic majority in the Senate. It may be, therefore, that he will be able to carry his country into a stronger position so far as international influence is concerned. Nevertheless, as an astute politician—and remembering, too, his recent reverses in connection with the Supreme Court program—Mr. Roosevelt may be expected to proceed with great caution. He knows, after all, that American public opinion shies away from European commitments, commonly referred to as "entangling alliances."

TWO ACE GENERALS

While Hitler and Mussolini stole the limelight during the Italian Dictator's recent trip to Berlin, observant persons noted that the occasion was also featured by the getting together of two of Europe's ace generals.

Marshal Pietro Badoglio of Italy was able to discuss matters with General Werner von Blomberg, head of the German army. It was Marshal Badoglio who took charge of the bogged-down Italian offensive in Ethiopia and drove the troops through to Addis Ababa and the capitulation of the African country. Although the Italian leader had little opposition to overcome on the march to the Ethiopian capital, there were many tactical problems to solve in planning the advance and getting supplies to the vanguard.

General von Blomberg is considered one of the old army men of Germany and he occupies the place that was held by such able leaders as the von Moltkes, von Hindenburg, von Ludendorff and other generals. His reputation as a military genius is recognized.

Mussolini and Hitler may have discussed political viewpoints, but their two army chiefs would exchange opinions on when and how Germany and Italy could go to war. Their discussions will play an important part in the formation of decisions by the two political leaders.

Gloucester fishermen who report a marine monster with an alligator's head are a trifle late. Sea Serpents can't be profitably used by the vacation resorts after Labor Day.

The Reincarnation OF THE POPPY

By ANNIE BETHUNE McDOUGALD

As Eve from that first Garden pursued her hurried flight,
And the flowers all hid their heads, and wept the perfumed dew of night,
Softly the Poppy whispered, "I hold within my pod
A talisman to charm your grief,—a challenge to your God;
He offers you but pain, and work, and weary care and fret;
I give, at will, Earth's only ease,
To sleep, and to forget!"
Then to Eve's guilty bosom the Temptress flowers she pressed,
And thus the Poppies ever bloom upon the wilderness!
And so, through countless eons
Over the wide, wide world,
O wondrous Poppy! has your beauty been unfurled
In desert and waste places,
Midst arid stubble and stone;
A roamer red, a flower to dread,
Were you looked askance upon.

But to-day, you are an emblem, cherished and set apart:
For you come to deck their lonely graves,
And you creep into our heart.

Smith will give a piano-forte recital in the ballroom of the Ritz Carlton, performing in costumes representing the period of the composers. The following eight young ladies will take part in a final tableau: the Misses Mary Gibb, Alma and Ann McFarlane, Ruth Telfer, Peggy and Marian MacMillan, Adele Robertson and Alice Bennett. Of these Adele Robertson has just made a very successful broadcast from CKAC early in the week.

The Westmount Rhythm Band will also take part. Advanced students will play in ensemble with Larche Paul, violinist. Included in the program will be compositions by Liszt, Chopin, Mendelssohn, Greig, Beethoven, Schumann, Brahms, Moszkowski, etc.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUNDAY SERVICES

The subject of this Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, November 14th, is "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text is:—"Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore, thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ." (Galatians 4:6,7)

The following correlative passages are selected from among those comprised in the Lesson-Sermon to be read from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty . . . Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation." (Psalms 91:1,14-16).

"Man undergoing birth, maturity, and decay is like the beasts and vegetables,—subject to laws of decay . . . Man in Science is neither young nor old . . . Even Shakespeare's poetry pictures age as infancy, as helplessness and decadence, instead of assigning to man the everlasting grandeur and about it; France was resenting the loss of her two provinces, Alsace and Lorraine—France was gravely concerned with a serious internal struggle; Germany had an ambitious leader who preached expansion of the German empire at any cost; and the United States stuck strongly to her policy of isolation.

Better Defensive . . .

The picture was largely the same today, except that it was now Germany who is brooding over the loss of her colonies, and the Russian attitude is different.

Britain, he said, is in a particularly difficult position with regard to peace or war. Britain being an island nation is dependent upon world trade for her food and other supplies; and a world conflict would seriously interfere with her receiving these commodities. Britain depends upon world trade for her position, he held, and for this requires peace and prosperity on the part of the world. For this reason, Britain must champion the cause of peace.

British statesmen are not infallible, he said, and in the past they had made errors. The Treaty of Versailles he held to be a totally unsuitable agreement, and one quite incompatible with the League of Nations covenant. He related a bit of "unwritten history" concerning the passing of that Treaty. Clemenceau and Lloyd George got together, he said, and agreed that they would give Woodrow Wilson his Covenant of the League of Nations, without which he refused to co-operate with the other powers. They did so; Wilson went home and left the Treaty to Lloyd George and Clemenceau as they had planned.

The position of Germany today with her ambitions and energetic leader he traced directly to the Treaty of Versailles. Germany was condemned to pay an impossible indemnity, and her colonies were placed under mandate; she was occupied for years by allied soldiers; is it any wonder that the German people are rising in protest today? We had no business, he asserted, to condemn German generations as yet unborn to pay for the follies of their parents and grandparents. We have had a fierce struggle, he said, to obtain the privilege of governing ourselves; why should we deny others the right?

Gov. Bovey discussed Canada's position in case of war. While we might keep out of a British or European war, we cannot keep out of an American war, being a north American nation. Canada is vulnerable, he said, although he did not anticipate any immediate invasion.

He closed with a plea for a stronger defensive force, holding that it would be in the best inter-ing, Boys, won by William Morrow.

Prizes presented by the W.C.T.U. for Excellence in Poster Work, won by: 1, Charity Gallop; 2, Anne Martin; 3, Alexandra Wilson.

Prizes presented by L'Alliance Francaise for Proficiency in French, Fourth Form, won by Harold Albert and Winnifred Fairhead.

Prizes presented by the Westmount Women's Club for Proficiency in English, Second Form Girls, won by: 2, Ga. Geraldine Hamlet; 2 Gb. Ruth Livermore; 2 Gc. Jocelyn Bowden.

Prizes presented by F. C. C. Meade, Esq., for First Form Composition on Empire Day, won by Gerald Fitzpatrick and Shirley Black.

Snowshoers' Group Names Layton Head

Minister Without Portfolio President of St. George Club for 1938 — New Board Appointed

Hon. Gilbert Layton, Minister without Portfolio and M.L.A. for Montreal-St. George, was elected President of the St. George Snowshoe Club at a meeting held at the Club's headquarters last week. He replaces Paul Boright, who occupied that position for two years.

Mr. Layton is a resident of Notre Dame de Grace, living on Belmont avenue.

Dr. Phillip was named first vice-president; Frank Wright, second vice-president; J. C. Boright, C. S. Kane, R. N. O. Harrington, Harry Rethoret and E. L. Nelson, directors.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Boright who with a special nomination committee announced the new board for the ensuing year.

In accepting the office, Mr. Layton suggested that the club inject more social activities into its program, and said he thought that the occasional dance and a New Year's Eve party as well as a weekly ladies' night might help to stimulate an even greater feeling of friendliness among the members.

He said his board was made up of newer and younger members, whose ambition was to increase the membership so that the club could expand and start activities similar to those of curling clubs.

SAFE-WAY TRAM-WAY!

The SAFE SPOT on BUSY STREETS

Along the streets of our community the tramway offers an economical, convenient and safe means of transportation. In fact, the safest place on busy city streets is aboard a tram car.

At low cost—22% less than the average street car fare in American cities of over 100,000—the tram passenger in Montreal enjoys, without regard to weather conditions, the trained service of operators and inspectors working night and day to give him regular and reliable transportation.

* For more than fifteen years, no passenger on board a Montreal Tramways vehicle has been fatally injured.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

ANIMAL AND PET PICTURES

The very fact that animals and pets don't pose makes them ideal photographic subjects.

FROM household pets to giants of the jungles—animals are ideal subjects for photographers. They don't pose; they don't act. You can snap them in natural, undirected action and that is just the reason their pictures create so much interest.

To get good pictures of any animal the first essential is patience. It is quite possible that the family dog will stand up obligingly for you on command, but in picturing all other animals you'll find it necessary to wait for the picture you want.

And this brings us to the question—what do you want in an animal picture?

You may prefer to snap a kitten as it plays with a string or a dog wrestling with a stick.

Domestic animals, of course, offer few real camera difficulties, for you can get them to come where the light is right. Open shade, on a bright day, will be found best. As for shutter speed (if your camera has variable speeds), you'll need 1/25th of a second or faster, to catch fleeting poses and expressions. Unless the light is exceptional, better work with the lens wide open.

To snap less controllable animals—squirrels, birds, and such—you'll need greater patience and cunning. Much depends on background and on your distance from the subject. At more than ten feet, for example, a squirrel becomes almost invisible UNLESS it is sharply revealed on a branch, with the sky for background. Obviously, you'll need to use a fast shutter; squirrels move too swiftly for slow snaps.

The zoo can be a happy hunting ground, too. In many cases, you'll be able to shoot through or over the bars of cages, obtaining clear, unobstructed snaps.

Use a modern, color sensitive film. You'll need all the detail you can get and the utmost in color value rendering.

Giving Tongue to Living Costs Protest

Beef Liver, Too, Has Place on Menus That Are Aimed at Nourishing the Family and Preserving the Budget

The tongue of beef can protest loudly against the rising cost of meat. The liver of beef is packed with nutritious protest against the sky high price of sirloin steak, and cuts from the round supply strength and encouragement in the fight for more moderate fair living.

Beef Tongue with Nut Brown Sauce
(4 to 6 servings with some left over for tomorrow's luncheon)
One beef tongue, 1 bay leaf, 1 small piece garlic, 1 stalk celery, 1 1/2 tablespoons cooking fat, 2 tablespoons flour, juice 1 lemon.
Place tongue in kettle of boiling water. Add bay leaf, garlic and celery. Simmer until tender. Don't rush it, give it plenty of time. Re-

Beans in any form offer a protein-rich alternate to expensive meat. Above is a pleasant variation on the familiar theme of family baked beans. Cook your beans in your favorite way but during the last half of the baking period add 1 cup domestic sherry wine for each pound of beans used. Use small pieces of raw smoked ham instead of the customary salt pork. Add ham to the beans in the beginning of the baking period. They taste especially good with the sherry flavoring.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Mixed fruit cup, farina, baked beans with codfish cakes, buttered toast, coffee, milk.
DINNER: Apple juice, beef tongue with nut brown sauce, sliced hard cooked egg, parsley, potatoes, baked tomatoes stuffed with peas, endive and orange salad, mince meat pie, cheese, coffee, milk.
SUPPER: Creamed salmon with green peppers, toasted French rolls, mixed green salad, stewed fruit, chocolate brownies, tea, milk.

move and skin at once. Then cut into individual slices. Heat the cooking fat in saucpan and stir in the flour. When flour is well-browned and blended, slowly add enough stock in which tongue was cooked to make enough sauce to cover the slices of meat. Then place the slices of tongue in the sauce, add salt to taste, pepper, and lemon juice. Simmer about 5 minutes, then serve with slices of hard cooked eggs. The contrast of rich brown sauce with the gold and white of the egg will put a handsome aspect on the battle for lower meat costs.

Sautéed Liver Goulash
(4 to 6 servings)
One and a half pounds fresh beef liver, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon bacon drippings, 1 large onion, 2 large carrots, 1/2 bay leaf, salt and pepper, soup stock.

Wipe liver with damp cloth and remove thin outside skin and veins. Parboil 10 minutes. Drain and slice into medium size pieces. Heat butter and bacon drippings in large iron skillet. Season sliced liver and roll in flour. Then brown on all sides in hot fat. Chop onion coarsely, cut carrot into cubes and break up bay leaf. Brown onion and carrot slightly in fat. Then slowly add clear soup stock or hot water, just enough to half cover liver. Simmer, covered, until liquid is used up, then add more. Continue until liver is tender. Add more liquid and thicken if needed. Serve this inexpensive meat with a mountain of fluffy mashed potatoes.

Round steak with mustard is a simple yet amazingly delicious dish. Allow 2 pounds inch thick round steak, for 4 to 6 servings. Wipe it with damp cloth, then rub lightly with a clove of garlic. Next, with a sharp knife, criss-cross it until both sides are lined with deep gashes. In these cuts rub dry mustard. Brown in a little butter or other grease. Add a little water and bake in oven for 1 hour, turning frequently. Add more water when necessary. Tender, gracious with flavor, inexpensive, it calls for the company of a perfectly baked potato.

BETTY RETIRES
The party was going with a swing, and, as a great treat, seven-year-old Betty had been allowed to stay up late.
As the evening wore on, she became very quiet, and finally her weary voice was heard piping up: "I think I'd like to go to bed now, mummy. I'm tired of this night life."

Keeping Up Appearances

By "GWENNE"

THIS MIGHT HELP

When you wake up in the morning with a very sleepy feeling, stretch for all you're worth, then relax and stretch again. This will get the circulation working wonders and you will find that instead of looking like what the cat wouldn't drag in, you are quite a rosy cheeked individual after all.

In order to keep that rosy glow, after washing the face in soap and warm water, rinse about a dozen times with cold and keep rinsing until the skin just tingles. You shouldn't be grouchy by this time but if you do happen to be in a bad mood just think of three pleasant places you would like to be in at the moment. Sometimes after racking your brain for one place you will have forgotten just why you started thinking about it at all.

Now look at your hands and see if they are smooth and nice or rough and red. If you haven't any hand lotion at the time for the latter, try the old-fashioned remedy of glycerin and rose-water or even a little vaseline will help soften. Better still, see that the hands have been properly dried before going out in the cold.

Next time you remove nail polish, try going without it for a day and see if it doesn't go on just a little more smoothly than if you had applied it right away. This is a Ginger Rogers' rule, to give her nails a one-day-a-week vacation.

If you want to feel like a perfectly groomed person when going some place of importance, try donning all fresh underclothes after a bath.

Is your hair looking very dry and unattractive lately? Try brushing it for five minutes only every night for a week and see if there isn't a difference in the appearance of your head.

When washing the face try and remember that the eyes require a bath too. That is why they should be bathed once a day with boric acid in order to keep that sparkle that is so important.

Home And School Group Stage Tea

The King's Westmount Home and School Association is holding a tea in the club room at the school this afternoon.

The guests will be received by Mrs. E. B. Charters, while Mrs. C. Gordon Brown and Mrs. D. Nasmith will be in charge of the tea table, assisted by Mrs. W. M. Ford, Mrs. R. Harvie, Mrs. S. S. Murray, Mrs. Wm. F. Dawson, Mrs. R. H. Lamb, Mrs. G. Mackie, and Miss Dorothy Stark.

FAMOUS CELLIST TO PLAY SHORTLY

One of the greatest cellists in the world will play with the Montreal Orchestra at its concert of November 21, when Felix Salmond comes to Montreal to appear as guest soloist with the Orchestra under Dean Douglas Clarke.

Salmond, born in England and educated in Brussels, has made America his home since 1922, returning to England for the occasional concert tour. He is generally recognized as being one of the three greatest living masters of the cello, and some critics consider him to be without peer.

The Orchestra inaugurated its eighth season Sunday afternoon before a packed house, ample indication of the success of future concerts. Now ranked with the greatest orchestras on the American continent, the Montreal Orchestra, at its eighth season commences, can look back with satisfaction upon a most amazing record of 127 unended concerts, a feat unequalled by any American symphony.

The series of concerts for young people, planned for the winter, is to be inaugurated in the near future in the Mount Royal Hotel.

There's a theatre in Havana, Cuba where they ring a bell one minute before the intermission lights go on. One evening the bell failed to sound its warning. Next morning the operator was temporarily suspended on the complaint of a prominent politician who had been unduly embarrassed.

"Murderer's Welcome" is the title of Jack Holt's next picture which goes into production this week. Katherine DeMille is his leading lady. Miss DeMille, although the adopted daughter of Cecil B. DeMille started her career as an extra.

"She looks fit as a fiddle."

"Yes, all she needs is a beau."

STARDUST On and Off the Set

By Morty Greenberg

My friend and colleague, your Radio Reporter, told you last week of the educational value of the radio. Far be it from this writer to condemn the sage conclusions, and sage they are indeed, of a fellow-columnist, but we simply wish to show how the silver screen towers high above the radio in its educational advantages.

Since everyone is aware of the superiority of films to radio, we appreciate our position in this argument and rather sympathize with any exponent of the airwaves.

It is true that radio reaches millions of homes, but—who can fully appreciate a symphony orchestra without watching the skilled fingers of the musicians; who can get the full value out of an address without seeing the movements and gesticulations of the speaker? The movies give you all this and more—for a small admission charge.

But seriously, the most efficient way to explain anything is by demonstrating and illustrating. In short—Seeing is Believing.

By special permission of Premier Maurice Duplessis, children of the district will be allowed to see a matinee show at the Westmount. The program—Shirley Temple in "Wee Willie Winkie" the Coronation in technicolor and comedies. The date, Saturday, Nov. 13, at 10 a.m. Bring the kiddies and if you haven't any borrow some.

Edith Fellows, Columbia's child actress, will be seen in her first starring role, "Wonder Child," in which Leo Carillo has been engaged for the male lead.

On Monday of this week Deanna Durbin's new picture "Mad About Music" got under way. Her "Three Smart Girls" and "A Hundred Men and a Girl" produced so much of what is known as box-office appeal that Universal is preparing still another Durbin picture.

"A Queen at Fourteen," a story of the very early years of Marie Antoinette at Vienna.

In Hollywood, says Joan Crawford, Love is a driving force. Maybe that's the reason for so many auto accidents.

A most realistic characterization of the late Will Rogers is able done by Samuel S. Hinds in Alice Faye's new musical "You're a Sweetheart." And Alice is the girl who never had a singing lesson in her life and can't read a note.

POSITIVE OF THRIFT

A Scot met the editor of a well-known comic paper. The opportunity of complaining was too good to miss.

"I dinna see," began Mac, "why ye're always printing jokes about oor race being close. We're no close—just threety."

The editor, secretly amused but wanting to make amends, noticed a tobacconist's shop on the other side of the street.

"Come in and have a cigar," he invited. They stepped inside—and the editor discovered to his dismay that he had come away without any money.

"By jove," he exclaimed. "I'm afraid I've left all my money in the office."

"Ah, weel," replied Mac, "the day's young! Ah dinna mind at a walking back wi' ye to fetch it."

Bunny Writes Of Fashions To Betty

Dear Betty:—

So essentially a part of the fall wardrobe is the suit that blouses have come in for a lot more than their usual share of attention. Creed, the famous Parisian couturier, creates blouses, both tailored for morning wear and more elaborate for formal occasions, to be worn with especially designed turbans of the same material. One simply designed blouse of this collection, with matching turban, has a small collar and bow which ties at the throat.

There are a few low V-necks among the more dressy blouses for formal occasions, of imported lame. These blouses are particularly smart with velvet skirts and make a very lovely cocktail hour outfit.

I saw one very good-looking low-necked blouse that was lovely, without the jacket of the suit, having a draped belt which came over the top band of the skirt, of a very soft figured lame trimmed with pale blue. This type of blouse is more suitable as it breaks the horizontal line that cuts the figure abruptly in a tuck-in blouse.

Some of the tailored wool skirts go to the extreme in simplicity, and depend on good lines or their effect. Colour is a very important item even in the most simple blouses. To be smart they must have a direct contrast to the suit and bright in colour. A popular style is the simple turndown collar with a zipper at the throat, it can be worn high or low at the neck.

Long, snug, tunic-length blouses to wear with the suits that have a tunic-length coat, are on hand in variety of colours and fabrics. The most dramatic is the severe, straight model of heavy, black, ribbed-silk, with a metal thread gleaming through it. It has a high rolled collar and a zipper on one side ensuring you of perfect fit. This blouse has a long, tight fitting sleeve, with squared shoulders. Others in the tunic style, made of satin-back crepe, are particularly attractive for the business girl, made along the same lines, but featuring shirtings at the bodice and neck. They fit very snug over the top of the skirt and hang straight to below the hips.

Well this about covers the subject. So until next week.

Yours as ever, BUNNY.

New Type Of Musical "Top Of Town" To Feature Comedians

Echoes of sprightly music, madcap fun and lively laughter have reverberated by way of movie scouts, all the way from Hollywood to this city, where the Universal film, "Top of the Town," crystallizes these desirable qualities on the Seville Theatre screen starting Sunday.

The breezy story concerns a millionaire with a lot of batty ideas that have three strikes on them. The energetic damsel, portrayed by Doris Nolan, has plenty of curves in the right places. Her charms, as well as her ideas, keep a handsome young orchestra leader swinging. Appropriately, he is a swing band leader. This role is played by the dancing wizard of Broadway stage hits and of the screen, George Murphy.

The finale is the "Jamboree" sequence. The whole place is alive with swing music and exciting rhythm. Tingling, jingling music weaves along the spines of the hundreds in the scene. Featured singers send choruses winging out and community singers echo them. New clever words for every chorus, with the stage dancers moving in corresponding rhythmic patterns. The "Jamboree" winds up in a fun sprinkled scene where performers are "spreading the jam." The latest in musical entertainment.

The song hits in "Top of the Town" include a number of the same title as the picture, besides "I Feel That Foolish Feeling Coming On," "Blame It on the Rum," "Where Are You?" "There Are No Two Ways About It," "Fireman, Save My Child" and "Jamboree."

JACK BENNY STARS IN COMEDY SUCCESS

Richard Arlen, Ida Lupino, Jack Benny and Gail Patrick in a scene from the hilarious comedy, Paramount's song-studded, girl-filled "Artists and Models," which will be a feature attraction at the Westmount Sunday for the first three days of the week.

Jack Benny Film Crowds Score Of Acts Into Scene

All-Hollywood record for the most crowded scene of the season, containing the most action and the greatest number of individual performers, is claimed by Raoul Walsh, director of Jack Benny's brilliant new film, "Artists and Models," opening Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre.

What set designers seek to avoid, what art directors detest, and what film directors deplore, Walsh deliberately set out to get the comic effect—a set which would be as comfortably empty as a subway express leaving Times Square in the rush hour, and as sane as Matetan when the moon is full.

The result was a mad scramble surpassing anything since the camera attached itself to a microscope and first recorded the confused profusion of life in a drop of pond water.

In a space thirty feet square, representing Jack Benny's advertising agency atop a Manhattan skyscraper, Benny, the four Yacht Club Boys and seven acts of big-time vaudeville did their stuff, completely mixed up and intermingled, while five cameras ground steadily to catch every precious angle of insanity.

Most dynamic of the acts was that of Jack and Irene McAfee, daredevil bareback riders, who did flips and jumps as they galloped their white horse, "Bock," around a twenty-two feet circle without boundary barriers—the first time the feat has been achieved on or off the screen.

The Johnson Brothers, jugglers, flicked their glistening Indian clubs back and forth at lightning-speed, while Cycling Stars, dressed as an Indian chief, rode his monocycle—a one-wheeled bike—through every opening.

Fawcett and Moran, tumblers, had only a couple of square feet for their routine, narrowly missing the slender legs of six beautiful Hollywood models, presenting the latest styles.

Music was supplied by Dan Borzage, accordionist, and punctuated by the pistol shots of Harry "Never Miss" Poirier as he punctured the porcelain globes tossed in the air in a steady stream by lovely Suzanne Ridgeway.

NOT SO WONDERFUL

Little Quentin, aged six, was being congratulated by his teacher. "I heard," said the teacher, "that you have a new baby brother." "Not only one," returned little Quentin. "Two of them." "That's wonderful!! You must be very proud." "What's so wonderful about it? We didn't even make the news-reel."

Irving Koren Joins Y.M.H.A. Cagers, Leaving Double D Group With Guard Problem

Six Foot Basketball Star Definitely Allied With 'Y'—Workout Tonight At Queens — Grads Handicapped As Art Wright Bruises Ankle, Out Of Commission for Several Days—Close In Shots

Six foot Irving Koren has allied himself with the Y.M.H.A. cagers, and Coach Ronnie McKee of the local Dominion Douglas outfit is seriously handicapped in arranging a suitable guard—though with Jack Brunt, Bob Darling and Jarvis Macintosh available this should not prove an overwhelming problem.

The Double D team will hold their second tough scrimmage practice of the week this evening at Queens School, when they will again hook up with the Westmount Amics, with whom they worked-out on Wednesday night.

The Amics stole the spotlight from their other Western rivals of the cage wars when Jack Caplan, guard with last years British Consols squad announced his intention of turning out with the local intermediate team. Caplan, an exceptionally tall guard, should give the blue shirted team added strength in the "rebound" department, for the lack of height on this fast breaking team, which excels in ball handling and speed, has proved to be their main weakness. This handicap was one of the main reasons why Coach McCormick did not deem it advisable to enter the senior league this year.

Queens Grads jumped into the lead of the "hard luck" league when Art Wright, their star centre man turned up at practice with a badly bruised ankle which will keep him out of work-outs for a week or so. The Grads team through Manager Eakin are endeavouring to be placed in Section A of the intermediate section.

With Coach Cy James ordering two practices a week, Mondays and Thursdays, the Westmount Y squad have been catching up with their earlier starting rivals and are now in tip top shape. Manager Johnny Eaves in all likelihood will find a strong team to scrimmage against his warriors Monday night. With all of last year's team back, the Y five appear to be headed for a banner season.

Close in Shots . . . The Dominion Douglas team will be outfitted in new uniforms this year and have changed from their accustomed blue and yellow shirts to a startling yellow shirt with blue letters. Their sweat suit will also present a bright appearance with the yellow color predominating. Its a cinch they'll be dubbed the "Canaries" on their first public appearance . . . While the M.B.L. Council have appointed a committee to look into the possibility of a central floor been used for the senior league games, this com-

ANNO DOMINI'S GRAVE

An old Irishwoman was looking over a country church in company with friends who, having sprung from the neighborhood, knew personally the histories of every individual member of the families whose memorials lined the walls, and they discoursed at so great a length upon their acquaintances that she felt out in the cold.

Suddenly her eyes caught the words "Anno Domini" in unusually large letters on one of the inscriptions. "Anna Dommonney!" she cried. "And is old Ann buried here? Sure, an I knew her very well when she was cook to the Lord Mayor av Dublin."

St. Leo's May Annex City Title

St. Leo's 11-0 victory over Montreal West's intermediate gridders Wednesday afternoon at the Athletic Grounds puts the local team in a fair position to win the city championship. Wednesday's game concedes Andy McGill's lot the Interscholastic title. They will meet Westmount High Monday or Tuesday to fight for the city crown.

St. Leo's passing and line plays were potent weapons for the winners and had it not been for Peto's brilliant booting for the Montreal West aggregation, the Academy boys might have piled up a bigger score.

Towards the end of the first quarter, a pass from T. Browne to Brennan ended in a St. Leo's touchdown. Brennan running 30 yards before he crossed the goal-line. McGovern registered the extra point with his convert. In the second quarter, St. Leo's unleashed a passing attack and completed two forwards but Peto's booting drove the Academy squad back towards its own territory.

There was no scoring in the third session. In the last quarter D. Browne intercepted a Montreal West pass in Montreal West territory and went over for an unconverted touchdown.

1st Westmount Company
Friday the Company promoted Sidney Inglis from the rank of Private or Lance Corporal, and presented him with his stripe as well as Certificate of appointment.

The Company were also presented their new 1937-38 Membership cards by the Chaplain, The Rev. Wm. Orr Mulligan and Captain J. H. Richardson, after which a Dedicatory prayer was offered by the Chaplain. The following boys received their Membership Badges: Privates Charles Hazen, Macdonald Locke, Graham Hurdman, Robert Morrow and Jack MacWilliams. These boys were briefly addressed by Mr. Mulligan. After formal greeting by the Chaplain and Captain, the Company was dismissed by prayer, and resumed their activity with a period of group and team games.

The Life Boys will meet Monday night from 6.45 to 7.45 and will be directed by the Captain as well as Lance Corporals Bob Beal, Sid Inglis and Corporals Thomas Mulligan, Patterson and Jeffrey. Boys are asked to meet for seven sharp each Friday so that we can take advantage of the new and larger facilities, which have been placed at our disposal.

11th Company Notes

The Eleventh will play rugby this week with the First Company, weather permitting.

"It was a Scotchman who invented the wrist watch."
"How do you know?"
"The Scotch hate putting their hands in their pockets."

CANADIAN CLUB DANCE
ON FRIDAY NOV. 19th
The Young Men's Canadian Club announces that the annual dinner dance will be held in Queen's Hotel on Friday, Nov. 19th. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McLagan will receive as hostesses, and the guest of honour will be Denton Massey, M.P. for Greenwood, Toronto.

"Bill" Johnson, Macdonald avenue, is in charge of the reservations.

DRINK - EAT - DIGEST

"I'm a salesman, and, believe me, I like eating. But like most people I know that if I really want to enjoy my food, I must be able to digest it. That's why I'm drinking this glass of Black Horse Ale before I tackle that meal in the next picture—I know from experience that Black Horse Ale will help me digest it 100%."

"And what a meal it is—steak, potatoes and peas. It's my favourite. And I give Black Horse Ale a lot of credit for helping me enjoy it, for Black Horse Ale keeps my digestive system in tip-top shape—helps me get real enjoyment out of my food. That's because Black Horse is a fully matured, perfectly balanced ale."

"And when my digestion is in good shape, I naturally feel better. Diets don't bother me—and when you're as big an eater as I am, that means a lot. But don't take my word for it—try Black Horse Ale yourself . . . I think you'll find that there's a whole lot of truth in the statement that Black Horse Ale is good for digestion."

BLACK HORSE ale is Good for digestion

REMEMBRANCE DAY, RADIO, PEACE

IT'S REMEMBRANCE DAY as these keys click—and the office is unusually still. Sports desks are deserted as the lads snooze happily at home, and the advertising department is dark and silent 'neath a lair of dust. The financial ed. has added his totals and completed his comment, the press room is dead and the huge rotary still.

In this whole city room there are but two people. Three desks away the society editor grinds out the usual slush concerning last night's debutante party. Wing collar crushed, top hat awry—he smokes furiously with short, nervous puffs while seeking new words with which to describe socialites, and precocious debs. Sleepy and sick, he would much rather be home in bed—but Mrs. Smith-Lumington-Godfries will search the paper tomorrow for news of Daisy's "coming-out", and so he plods on, adding name to name, throwing verbal bouquets, seeking elusive keys through the mist of sleep. Finally, he closes shop—and I stay here alone. It is three in the morning, but the column has still to be done and I shall be here 'till dawn.

Alone—with a pen and a poppy.
THE VET AND THE POPPY
He was a grizzled, sad-faced man—the vet—hungry, tired, despairing.
I met him in the darkness of midnight—bumped into him rounding a corner.
"Poppy, sir?" he mumbled, and smiled when I felt for some change.
"Yes, a poppy!" I answered, and stuck it on my coat.
"Sort of cold, ain't it," he said. "Kind of brings back memories."
"Memories?" I replied. "Yes, I suppose that this night would."

He shivered in the dampness, and we decided on some coffee.
Nineteen years ago, hm—doesn't seem that long. Sorta seems like yesterday, or last week, or something. What a night that was!
He stirred the hot java and sipped eagerly. Not an old man, he couldn't have been over fifty. "Those were the days," he mused. I looked up, rather surprised. "Funny how you remember the fun and forget the grime." He wiped his lips with a sleeve.
"That old $100 check, 25 francs and ticket for Blighty. Yessir. 'N' fourteen days leave, and sights of London, and the girls."

He stopped himself and smiled. "Oh, well, you can't tell everything."
I smiled and nodded silently.
HE'D GO AGAIN
"Looks like we're heading straight for another war," I mused.
"Nother war," he came back.

KILOCYCLE CHATTER
As hinted here some time ago, CBM becomes an NBC affiliate Sunday afternoon, henceforth carrying NBC-Red programs while CPFC continues to carry offerings of NBC-Blue. . . . It has long been considered that some such arrangement would be made. . . . CBF, originally slated to open six weeks ago, takes the air Sunday afternoon with special inaugural programs, and will cater to the regional French listeners. . . . Howard Fogg, west-end composer and conductor, will direct his own music based on "Third Battle of Ypres" in a special Armistice tribute this evening through a CBM-CBC national hookup. . . . The time is 10.00 p.m. . . .

Ken Sisson, musical conductor of "Canada 1937" is reported to receive $625 for each broadcast. . . . Sisson is one of Manhattan's cleverest arrangers. . . . Johnny Coy, reported by L. S. B. Shapiro to be starring with Lou Holtz at The Frolies in New York, is no one but John Ogilvy, local tap-dancing sensation. . . . Due to serious injury to Ernest Schelling which will delay his return from Europe, John Barbirolli, young English conductor, will direct the first of the special series of children's concerts by the New York Philharmonic via CBS-CKAC Saturday, December 18, at 11 a.m. . . . "Mike," new radio scribe in the Montreal Star, is Dave Legate otherwise known as D.M.L. . . . Eddie Gannon, former Star radio editor, is now in charge of radio news in The Standard. . . .

Olivia de Havilland and Brian Aherne star in this evening's edition of "The Great Garrick," through CKAC at 9. . . . Phil Brito, starring with Lloyd Huntley at the Mount Royal Hotel, is proving popular as a recording artist, and a mid-town radio shop reports a run on his records. . . . Mat Heft has joined the Syrup Symphonies program, where his deft tickling of the ivories proves most welcome. . . .

Intellectuals Discuss Big Problems

Members of the Young Men's Intellectual (oh yeah?) Society met Monday evening at the home of Mr. William Q. O'Donnell, Somerville avenue, observing the first meeting of the 1937-38 season. Mr. O'Donnell had just finished locking up the silver when the members began to arrive, crying "When do we eat?"

The first activity on the evening's program was a little diversion called "Dark John" (blackjack to you). Any member who placed his pile of chips too close to that of another member was penalized by losing as many as his neighbour could grab. The members played and played till they had lost the sum of eighteen cents each—all except Mr. Bond, who plans to retire.

Member Booth then showed some Renaissance literature relating to the metamorphosis of the pterodactyl and the cosmic influences of the drosophilomelanogaster upon disestablishmentarianism. A discussion followed, which was rudely interrupted from time to time by one of the members waiting in a loud voice, "My business is terrible."

At the smell of hot coffee coming from the kitchen, the members made a wild scramble for the dining room and amused themselves throwing the furniture around until the food arrived. Mr. O'Donnell provided a fine repast, the only trouble being that Member Macbean ate so fast the others hadn't a chance.

The meeting broke up shortly after midnight, leaving Mr. O'Donnell ruefully contemplating a mess of broken furniture, a number of empty plates and a few pounds of cigarette ashes dumped on the carpet. The group will meet Monday, Nov. 22, at the home of Mr. Bond, who plans to board his doors and windows.

Messrs. Booth, Barfoot, Bond, Davies, Macbean and O'Donnell attended.

Westmount Park Drama Group To Presents 3 Plays

With three ranking one-act plays as vehicles, the Westmount Park Church Y. P. Drama Club will inaugurate its current season at Webster Memorial Hall, November 25 and 26.

The group was formed last year and made its debut with two series of three one-act plays which found instant response from a drama-starved public.

Heading the list of plays is Fred Eastman's great peace plea, "Great Choice." Springing from the pen of the same writer who gave us "Bread," this is an unusual study of an incident in the next Great War. It provides, in itself, a thought-provoking evening.

Lending a lighter touch to the program is "The Thrift Shop," a romantic little tale with deft comic touches.

"Patchwork Quilt," a fantasy by the talented writer, Rachel Field, completes the evening's bill of fare. It is an unusual effort, and one which has proved most popular with repertory groups.

All plays are under the direction of Margaret E. Murray, a young veteran from the School of Dramatic Art at Mount Allison University.

BREAD AND ROSES

By
Dorothy Sproule, M.E.L.

The Woodward Press, Montreal. This attractive little volume is the fifth in a series of poems by the author, the widow of the Rev. F. H. Sproule, B.A. Her other collections are: "Poems of Life," "The Mystic Star," "The Golden Goal," and "Earth and Stars." Her published songs are, "Protection" "Words," "Faith's Alchemy" and "His Majesty the King," a coronation ode.

Her contributions have appeared and are appearing from week to week in our leading journals and magazines and she has received letters of praise for her verse from official sources and from well-known critics.

While her poems have rhythm and charm they have what is much more important, that is, a serious purpose.

The title poem reads: "Man does not live by Bread alone" said one. There's need of roses too, In life's highway: And friendship's hand-clasp To console our griefs, And books to read at close Of weary day.

Neat appearance, good coverage ads outstanding.
